[Approved by Governor December 15, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State December 16, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 667.5 of the Penal Code, as added by Chapter 1139 of the Statutes of 1976, is amended to read:

667.5. Enhancement of prison terms for new offenses because of prior prison terms shall be imposed as follows:

(a) Where the new offense is one of the violent felonies specified in subdivision (c) and the defendant is sentenced to prison therefor, in addition and consecutive to any other prison terms therefor, the trial court shall impose a three-year term for each prior separate prison term served by the defendant where the prior was one of the violent felonies specified in subdivision (c); provided that no additional term shall be imposed under this subdivision in any case in which the defendant has remained free of prison custody and free of felony conviction for 10 years immediately preceding the filing of an accusatory pleading that results in such felony conviction. However, if the court determines that there are circumstances in mitigation of the additional punishment prescribed, the court may strike the additional punishment, provided that reasons therefor are stated on the record.

(b) Except where subdivision (a) applies, when the new offense is any felony for which a prison sentence is imposed, in addition and consecutive to any other prison term therefor, the trial court shall, unless specifically not ordered by the court with reasons therefor stated on the record, impose a one-year term for each prior separate prison term served for any felony; provided that no additional term shall be imposed under this subdivision in any case in which the defendant has remained free of prison custody for five years immediately preceding the filing of an accusatory pleading that results in a new felony conviction. For the purposes of this subdivision the defendant shall be deemed to remain in prison custody for an offense until the official discharge from such custody or until release on parole whichever first occurs including any time during which the defendant remains subject to arrest for escape from such custody.

(c) For the purpose of this section "violent felony" shall mean any of the following crimes for which the defendant served a separate prison term:

(1) Murder or voluntary manslaughter

(2) Mayhem

(3) Forceable rape as defined in subdivisions (2), (3), and (4) of Section 261

(4) Sodomy by force, violence, duress, menace, or threat of great bodily harm

(5) Oral copulation by force, violence, duress, menace, or threat of great bodily harm

(6) Kidnapping as defined in Section 209

(7) Lewd acts on a child under 14 as defined in Section 288

(8) Any other felony in which the defendant inflicts great bodily injury on person other than accomplices has been alleged and proved as provided for in Section 12022.7 if convicted after July 1, 1977, or as specified prior to July 1, 1977in Sections 213, 264, and 461.

The Legislature finds and declares that those specified crimes merit special consideration when imposing a sentence to display society's condemnation for such extraordinary crimes of violence against the person.

(d) The additional penalties provided for prior prison terms shall not be imposed unless they are charged and admitted or found true in the action for the new offense.

(e) The additional penalties provided for prior prison terms shall not be imposed for any felony for which the defendant did not serve a prior separate prison term which was at least one year in duration.

(f) A prior conviction of a felony shall include a conviction in another jurisdiction for an offense which if committed in California is punishable by imprisonment in state prison provided the defendants served one year or more in prison for such offense in the other jurisdiction. A prior conviction of a particular felony shall include a conviction in another jurisdiction for an offense which includes all of the elements of the particular felony as defined under California law provided the defendants served one year or more in prison for such offense in the other jurisdiction.

(g) A continuous completed period of prison incarceration imposed for the particular offense alone or in combination with sentences for other counts or sentences to be served concurrently or consecutively therewith including any reimprisonment on revocation of parole or new commitment for escape from such incarceration shall be deemed a single prior separate term for the purposes of this section.

(h) Serving a prison term includes time spent in any state prison or federal penal institution as punishment for commission of an offense including time spent in a hospital or other institution or facility credited as service of prison time in the jurisdiction of such service.

SEC. 2. Section 1170.2 of the Penal Code, as added by Chapter 1139 of the Statutes of 1976, is amended to read:

1170.2. (a) In the case of any inmate sentenced for a felony to state prison prior to July 1, 1977, who would have been sentenced under Section 1170 if sentenced after July 1, 1977, the Community Release Board shall determine what the length of time of imprisonment would have been under Section 1170 without consideration of good-time credit and utilizing the middle term of the offense bearing the longest terms of imprisonment of which the prisoner was convicted aggregated by any additional terms which were imposed by the court at the time of sentencing for such felony or aggravation.

(b) When the calculation required under subdivision (a) is less than the time to be served prior to a parole date set prior to July 1, 1977, by the Adult Authority, the Community Release Board shall reset the prisoners parole date, subject to subdivision (d) on the date calculated under subdivision (a) unless a majority of all of the members of the Community Release Board after reviewing the prisoner's file, determine that due to the number of crimes the prisoner was convicted of, or due to the number of prior convictions the prisoner has been convicted of, or due to the fact that the prisoner was armed with a deadly weapon when the crime was committed, or used a deadly weapon during the commission of the crime, or inflicted or attempted to inflict great bodily injury on the victim of the crime, the prisoner should serve a term longer than that calculated in subdivision (a), in which event the prisoner shall be entitled to a hearing, as provided for in Section 3041.5. At such hearing the prisoner shall be entitled to be represented by legal counsel, and a release date shall be set within 90 days of July 1, 1977, and the prisoner shall be informed in writing of the extraordinary factors specifically considered determinative and on what basis the release date has been calculated. In fixing a term under this section the board shall be guided by the term which reasonably could be imposed on a person convicted after July 1, 1977, of a similar crime under similar circumstances specifically in those cases which involve persons convicted of one or more of the crimes specified in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5. In fixing a term in any case involving a prisoner convicted of one or more of the crimes specified in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5, the board shall be guided by the following finding and declaration hereby made by the Legislature: that the necessity to protect the public from repetition of such extraordinary crimes of violence against the person is the paramount consideration.

(c) When a parole date was not set by the Adult Authority for an inmate sentenced prior to July 1, 1977, who would have been sentenced under Section 1170 if sentenced after July 1, 1977, the Community Release Board shall set the prisoner's parole date, subject to subdivision (d), on the date calculated under subdivision (a) unless a majority of all of the members of the Community Release Board after reviewing the prisoner's file, determine that due to the number of crimes the prisoner was convicted of, or due to the number of prior convictions the prisoner has been convicted of, or due to the fact that the prisoner was armed with a deadly weapon when the crime was committed, or used a deadly weapon during the commission of the crime, or inflicted or attempted to inflict great bodily injury on the victim of the crime, the prisoner should serve a term longer than that calculated in subdivision (a) in which event the prisoner shall be entitled to a hearing, as provided for in Section 3041.5. At such hearing the prisoner shall be entitled to be represented by legal counsel, and a release date shall be set within 90 days of July 1, 1977, and the prisoner shall be informed in writing of the extraordinary factors specifically considered determinative and on what basis the release date has been calculated. In fixing a term under this section the board shall be guided by the term which reasonably could be imposed on a person convicted after July 1, 1977, of a similar crime under similar circumstances specifically in those cases which involve persons convicted of one or more of the crimes specified in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5. In fixing a term in any case involving a prisoner convicted of one or more of the crimes specified in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5, the board shall be guided by the following finding and declaration hereby made by the Legislature: that the necessity to protect the public from repetition of such extraordinary crimes of violence against the person is the paramount consideration.

(d) In the case of any prisoner sentenced for a felony to state prison prior to July 1, 1977, who would have been sentenced under Section 1170 if sentenced after July 1, 1977, the good behavior and participation provisions of Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 2930) of Chapter 7 of Title 1 of Part 3 shall apply from July 1, 1977, and thereafter.

(e) In the case of any inmate sentenced for a felony to state prison prior to July 1, 1977, who would have been sentenced under Section 1168 after July 1, 1977, the Community Release Board shall provide for release from prison as provided for by this code.

(f) In the case of any inmate sentenced for a felony to state prison prior to July 1, 1977, the length of parole conditions therein, revocation thereof, and other incidents thereto shall be the same as if the prisoner had been sentenced after July 1, 1977.

(g) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to keep an inmate in the custody of the Department of Corrections for a period of time longer than he would have been kept in its custody under the provisions of law applicable to him prior to July 1, 1977.

(h) Nothing in this chapter shall affect an inmates eligibility for parole under Article 3 (commencing with Section 3040) of Chapter 8 of Title 1 of Part 3 of this code, for a period of parole as specified in subdivision (b) of Section 3000.

SEC. 3. Section 2930 of the Penal Code, as added by Chapter 1139 of the Statutes of 1976, is amended to read:

2930. (a) The Department of Corrections shall inform every prisoner sentenced under Section 1170, not later than 14 days after the commencement of the term of imprisonment, of all applicable prison rules and regulations including the possibility of receiving a one-third reduction of the sentence for good behavior and participation. Within 14 days of the prisoner's arrival at the institution to which the prisoner is ultimately assigned by the Department of Corrections, the prisoner shall be informed of the range of programs offered by that institution and their availability at that institution. The prisoner's central file shall reflect compliance with the provisions of this section not later than 90 days after commencement of term.

(b) The department shall, within 90 days after July 1, 1977, inform every prisoner who would have been sentenced under Section 1170 if sentenced after July 1, 1977, of all applicable prison rules and regulations, of the range of programs offered and their availability, and the possibility of receiving a reduction for good behavior and participation of one-third of the prisoner's remaining sentence after July 1, 1977. The inmate's central file shall reflect compliance with the provisions of this section.

SEC. 4. Section 2931 of the Penal Code, as added by Chapter 1139 of the Statutes of 1976, is amended to read:

2931. (a) In any case in which an inmate was sentenced to the state prison pursuant to Section 1170, or if he would have been sentenced under Section 1170 if sentenced after July 1, 1977, the Department of Corrections shall have the authority to reduce the term prescribed under such section by one-third for good behavior and participation consistent with subdivision (d) of Section 1170.2. A document shall be signed by a prison official and the inmate, at the time of compliance with Section 2930, outlining the conditions which the inmate shall meet to receive the credit. The conditions specified in such document may be modified upon any of the following:

(1) Mutual consent of the prisoner and the Department of Corrections.

(2) The transfer of the inmate from one institution to another.

(3) The department's determination of the prisoner's lack of adaptability or success in a specific program or assignment. In such case the inmate shall be entitled to a hearing regarding the department's decision.

(b) Total possible good behavior and participation credit shall result in a four-months reduction for each eight months served in prison. Three months of this four-month reduction shall be based upon forbearance from any or all of the following activities:

(1) Assault with a weapon; or escape.

(2) Physically assaultive behavior; possession of a weapon without permission; possession of controlled substances without prescription; attempt to escape; or urging others, with the intent to cause a riot, to commit acts of force or violence, at a time and place under circumstances which produce a clear and present and immediate danger of a riot which results in acts of force or violence.

(3) Intentional destruction of state property valued in excess of fifty dollars ($50); falsification of a significant record or document; possession of escape tools without permission; or manufacture or sale of intoxicants. Activities specified in paragraph (1) may result in a maximum denial of good behavior credit of 45 days for each such prohibited activity. Activities specified in paragraph (2) may result in a maximum denial of good behavior credit of 30 days for each such prohibited activity. Activities specified in paragraph (3) may result in a maximum denial of good behavior credit of 15 days for each such prohibited activity. Nothing in this section shall prevent the Department of Corrections from seeking criminal prosecution for violations of law.

(c) One of the four months reduction shall be based solely upon participation in work, educational, vocational, therapeutic or other prison activities as specified in such document. Failure to succeed after demonstrating a reasonable effort in the specified activity shall not result in loss of participation credit. Failure to participate in the specified activities can result in a maximum loss of credit of 30 days. However, those confined either by choice or due to behavior problems so as to be unable to participate in any activities, in no instance shall be denied the credit because of physical inability to participate.

SEC. 5. Section 3000 of the Penal Code, as added by Chapter 1139 of the Statutes of 1976, is amended to read:

3000. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in Article 3 (commencing with Section 3040) of this chapter:

(a) At the expiration of a term of imprisonment imposed pursuant to Section 1170, or at the expiration of such term as reduced pursuant to Section 2931, if applicable, the inmate shall be released on parole for a period not exceeding one year, unless the board for good cause waives parole and discharges the inmate from custody of the department.

(b) In the case of any inmate sentenced under Section 1168, the period of parole shall not exceed three years in the case of an inmate imprisoned under a life sentence, and shall not exceed one year in the case of an inmate whose prison sentence does not consist of imprisonment under a life sentence, unless in either case the board for good cause waives parole and discharges the inmate from custody of the department. This subdivision shall be also applicable to inmates sentenced prior to July 1, 1977, to the extent specified in Section 1170.2.

(c) The board shall consider the request of any inmate regarding the length of his parole and the conditions thereof.

(d) Upon successful completion of parole, or at the end of the maximum statutory period of parole specified for the inmate under subdivision (a) or (b), as the case may be, whichever is earlier, the inmate shall be discharged from custody. The date of the maximum statutory period of parole under this subdivision and subdivisions (a) and (b) shall be computed from the date of initial parole, and shall be a period chronologically determined, without interruption, whether or not parole has been revoked and the inmate has been sentenced under Section 3057. If a prisoner absconds during the period of parole the running of such period shall be suspended until the prisoner is located and returned.

(e) It is not the intent of this section to diminish resources presently allocated to the Department of Corrections for parole functions.

SEC. 6. Section 3025 of the Penal Code, as amended by Chapter 1139 of the Statutes of 1976, is amended to read:

3025. The provisions of this article apply to all prisoners serving sentence in the state prisons on July 1, 1977, and to all prisoners received in such prisons on or after July 1, 1977, whose terms of imprisonment are fixed pursuant to Section 1168.

SEC. 7. Section 3065 of the Penal Code, as amended by Chapter 1139 of the Statutes of 1976, is amended to read:

3065. Except as otherwise provided in Section 1170.2 and Article 1 (commencing with Section 3000) of this chapter, the provisions of this article are to apply to all prisoners serving sentence in the state prisons on July 1, 1977, to the end that at all times the same provisions relating to sentence, imprisonments and paroles of prisoners shall apply to all the inmates thereof.

SEC. 8. Section 5075 of the Penal Code, as amended by Chapter 1139 of the Statutes of 1976, is amended to read:

5075. The Community Release Board shall be composed of nine members, each of whom shall be appointed by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, for a term of four years and until the appointment and qualification of his successor. Members shall be eligible for reappointment. Two of the original appointees shall be persons who were members of the Adult Authority immediately prior to July 1, 1977, and two shall be persons who were members of the Womens Board of Terms and Parole immediately prior to July 1, 1977.

The chairman of the board shall be designated by the Governor from time to time. The chairman shall be the administrative head of the board and shall exercise all duties and functions necessary to insure that the responsibilities of the board are successfully discharged. He shall be the appointing authority for all civil service positions of employment in the board.

The terms of the members shall expire as follows: two on March 15, 1978, two on March 15, 1979, two on March 15, 1980, and three on March 15, 1981. Successor members shall hold office for terms of four years, each term to commence on the expiraton date of the term of the predecessor. The Governor shall fill every vacancy for the balance of the unexpired term. The selection of persons and their appointment by the Governor and confirmation by the Senate shall reflect as nearly as possible a cross-section of the racial, sexual, economic, and geographic features of the population of the state.

It is the further intent of this section that the board shall adopt such policies and practices as will permit continuing operations and improvements without any further increase in the number of its members.

SEC. 9. This act shall become operative on July 1, 1977.

SEC. 10. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

There is a possible ambiguity in these sections of the Penal Code which, though effective January 1, 1977, are not intended to be operative until July 1, 1977, under Section 351.5 of Chapter 1139 of the Statutes of 1976 and therefore, in order to clarify the intent of Chapter 1139 of the Statutes of 1976, it is necessary that the provisions of this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 3

An act to amend Sections 6, 8, and 10 of Chapter 1256 of the Statutes of 1976, relating to the disposal of real property by the Director of General Services, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor January 17, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State January 18, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6 of Chapter 1256 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

Sec. 6. Any lease or purchase option consummated prior to December 31, 1977, shall remain in effect for the term of such agreement; however, no such agreement shall extend beyond January 1, 1983.

SEC. 2. Section 8 of Chapter 1256 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

Sec. 8. In the event the Director of General Services does not enter into an agreement to sell, lease, or option to purchase these parcels with the United States government prior to December 31, 1977, the director shall, with respect to parcel 1 of Section 4, negotiate for a one-year period to sell such parcel to local public entities with the objective that the parcel be utilized for recreational purposes or remain undeveloped open space. Upon the termination of that one-year negotiation period, the director may, subject to the conditions contained in Section 4 of this act, sell the property comprising parcel 1.

SEC. 3. Section 10 of Chapter 1256 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

Sec. 10. The provisions of this act shall have no force or effect on or after December 31,1977, with respect to parcel 2 of Section 4, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before December 31,1977, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The provisions of Chapter 1256 of the Statutes of 1976 do not grant sufficient time for the Director of General Services to negotiate a contract with respect to the disposition of specified property which is the subject of the chapter.

CHAPTER 4

An act to amend Section 8710 of the Elections Code, relating to elections, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor January 21, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State January 22, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8710 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

8710. This committee shall convene at Sacramento at 10 o'clock a.m. of the last Sunday in January after a general election.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to apply to the 1977 meeting of the Democratic state central committee, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 5

An act relating to air pollution, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor February 12, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State February 14, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of two million nine hundred thirty-one thousand dollars ($2,931,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Finance for disbursement to the South Coast Air Quality Management District, in five equal installments on February 1, March 1, April 1, May 1, and June 1, 1977, for expenditure by the district for the purposes of Chapter 5.5 (commencing with Section 40400) of Part 3 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 2. (a) Any county that, before March 1, 1977, has not paid its apportionment for the 1976–77 fiscal year, in full, to the South Coast Air Quality Management District pursuant to Article 7 (commencing with Section 40520) of Chapter 5.5 of Part 3 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code shall be liable to the state for (1) reimbursement of any amount disbursed from the funds appropriated by this act that represents the unpaid portion of its apportionment and (2) payment of interest on such amount at a rate that is equal to the prevailing rate of return on moneys in the Pooled Money Investment Account.

(b) With respect to any county subject to this section that, on July 1, 1977, has not reimbursed the state the amount disbursed from the funds appropriated by this act for the purpose of paying its unpaid apportionment, the Director of Finance shall order that a sum equal to such amount be withheld from revenues collected by the state for that county pursuant to its sales and use tax ordinance and shall cause that sum to be deposited in the General Fund. With respect to any county subject to this section that, on July 1, 1977, has not paid the state interest on the amount disbursed from funds appropriated by this act, the director shall order that a sum as interest on such amount, which shall be calculated at the rate of return on moneys in the Pooled Money Investment Account prevailing on July 1, 1977, be withheld from revenues collected by the state for that county pursuant to its sales and use tax ordinance and shall cause that sum to be deposited in the General Fund.

SEC. 3. In the event that any previously unpaid apportionment for the 1976–77 fiscal year is received by the South Coast Air Quality Management District after February 1, 1977, the Department of Finance shall reduce the disbursements to be made pursuant to Section 1 by the amount of the apportionment received by the district. In the event that any previously unpaid apportionment for the 1976–77 fiscal year is received by the district on the same day that it receives an installment of funds disbursed pursuant to Section 1, the district shall immediately reimburse the Department of Finance by the amount of the apportionment received or the amount of the installment, whichever is less. In the event that any previously unpaid apportionment for the 1976–77 fiscal year is received by the district and the sum of the apportionment and all funds disbursed pursuant to Section 1 to that time exceeds two million nine hundred thirty-one thousand dollars ($2,931,000), the district shall immediately reimburse the Department of Finance the amount of such sum that is in excess of two million nine hundred thirty-one thousand dollars ($2,931,000), which amount shall be deposited in the General Fund.

SEC. 4. If any county reimburses the state prior to July 1, 1977, any sum for any amount disbursed pursuant to Section 1, the Director of Finance shall cause that amount to be deposited in the General Fund. If any such reimbursement is made on or after March 1, 1977, it shall be accompanied by a sum as interest on the amount reimbursed, which shall be calculated at the rate of return on moneys in the Pooled Money Investment Account prevailing on the date such reimbursement is made and which shall be caused to be deposited in the General Fund by the director.

SEC. 5. The Director of Finance, the State Controller, and the State Board of Equalization are hereby authorized to perform any acts necessary to implement the provisions of this act.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Funds for financing the operations of the South Coast Air Quality Management District may not be available on February 1, 1977, when the district is required by law to commence operations. Without adequate financing, employees of the district will have to be laid off on February 1, 1977, thus aggravating unemployment; and there will be no agency for the control of air pollution in the region to be served by the district, thus adversely affecting the health and welfare of the inhabitants of the region. Therefore, it is imperative that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 6

An act to amend Section 5625 of the Public Resources Code, relating to parks, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor February 24, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State February 25, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5625 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

5625. (a) Annual grants may be made to cities, counties, and districts for recreational purposes or open-space purposes, or both, on the basis of population and need, as specified in this chapter. The director shall, by regulation, specify the procedures to be followed in applying for grant funds. The director shall propose criteria for determining priority of need, conduct public hearings on such proposed criteria, and, following such hearings, shall submit such proposed criteria to the Legislature on or before November 30, 1976, for its approval by statute within 60 days of submission of the criteria. Any new, revised, or amended criterion or any criterion to be deleted shall be submitted to the Legislature for its approval by statute. Following such legislative approval, the director shall establish such criteria and publish them in the California Administrative Code. The criteria, and any change thereof, shall be distributed in any convenient form to potential applicants.

(b) The director shall, by regulation, require the recipient of a grant under this chapter to submit periodic reports to the department with respect to its use of the grant. The grant recipient shall agree, as a condition to the receipt of the grant, to submit such periodic status reports as the department may require, but in no event shall the department require reports to be submitted more frequently than on a semiannual basis. All projects for which a grant is received shall be subject to state audit.

SEC. 2. The criteria submitted to the Legislature pursuant to Section 5625 of the Public Resources Code in the document entitled "Revised Program Criteria for the Roberti-Z'berg Urban Open-Space and Recreation Program" and dated December 29, 1976, are hereby approved asset forth in that document.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Inasmuch as the criteria submitted pursuant to Section 5625 of the Public Resources Code are required to be approved by the Legislature within 60 days of their submission on or before November 30, 1976, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 7

[Approved by Governor March 4, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State March 4, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 349.3 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 349.4 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

349.4. All acts and proceedings heretofore or hereafter taken under color of law for the formation, organization or incorporation of, or for any change in the territorial boundaries of, any city, county, city and county, special district, public corporation or other public entity, or improvement district, annexed area or zone within any of the foregoing, and for the authorization, issuance, sale, or exchange of bonds of the entity or the territory thereof may be confirmed, validated, and declared legally effective in the manner provided in this section.

The legislative body of the entity may instruct its clerk or secretary to mail a notice to all owners of property within the entity, within the improvement district or zone, or within the annexed area, as the case may be, as their names and addresses appear on the last equalized county assessment roll, or as known to the clerk or secretary. Such notice shall include the name of the entity, the date the entity or the zone or improvement district therein was ordered formed or its territory changed by annexation or otherwise, as the case may be, the amount of bonds authorized, if any, and a statement that commencing with the date of mailing of said notice there shall be a 60-calendar-day period during which period any property owner may file an action contesting the validity of the formation of the entity, or of such improvement district or zone, or of such change of boundaries by annexation or otherwise, as the case may be, or the validity of the bond authorization, if any. The clerk or secretary shall make and file with the legislative body of the entity a certificate of mailing of the notices. The legislative body of the entity may order the clerk or secretary to include in such notice such other additional information that it deems pertinent.

If no action is filed during such 60-day period, the formation of the entity or of such improvement district or zone, or the change of boundaries by annexation or otherwise, as the case may be, and the bond authorization, if any, are valid and uncontestable.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Among other things, Chapter 1281 of the Statutes of 1976 repealed Section 349.4 of the Code of Civil Procedure. In order to correct the inadvertent error made in repealing Section 349.4 and to prevent unnecessary confusion in the operation of local governmental entities, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 8

An act relating to the San Juan Ridge Union Elementary School District, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor March 4, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State March 4, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The San Juan Ridge Union Elementary School District recently built and occupied a new elementary school to replace other schools which did not meet Field Act standards. The new school served approximately 200 elementary school pupils of the district. In February of 1977 the new school was completely destroyed by fire, leaving pupils of the district with no school to attend for the remainder of the 1976–77 school year.

The governing board of the district has considered various alternative means of educating the pupils during this emergency, including transporting them to schools of other districts. However, due to the long distances involved and the mountainous terrain of the area, the only feasible alternative is to temporarily house pupils in other school buildings until replacement facilities may be built.

SEC. 2. The San Juan Ridge Union Elementary School District is hereby authorized to house pupils in the North San Juan Elementary School and the Birchwell Elementary School, and during the period of temporary use those schools shall not be subject to any of the provisions of Article 4 (commencing with Section 15451) and Article 5 (commencing with Section 15501) of Chapter 2 of Division 11 of the Education Code, and Article 3 (commencing with Section 39140) and Article 6 (commencing with Section 39210) of Part 23 of the Education Code as recodified by Chapters 1010 and 1011 of the Statutes of 1976. The exemption provided by this section shall remain in effect until June 30, 1978.

SEC. 3. Pupils of the San Juan Ridge Union Elementary School District who were absent from school as a direct consequence of the fire which destroyed the district's elementary school shall be counted as having been in attendance for purposes of computing state apportionments based upon average daily attendance.

SEC. 4. Due to unique circumstances which have precipitated an emergency in a particular small rural school district, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to enable the governing board of the San Juan Ridge Union Elementary School District to meet a crisis caused by the destruction by fire of the districts elementary school and provide temporary school facilities for the education of pupils for the remainder of the current school year, it is essential that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 9

An act to amend Section 3 of Chapter 865 of the Statutes of 1976, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor March 14, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State March 14, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3 of Chapter 865 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

Sec. 3. This act is a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. However, the provisions of this act shall be applied with respect to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1977.

SEC. 2. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that because of inadvertency certain activities of nonprofit organizations may result in their incurring an unintended tax liability.

The Legislature further finds and declares that it is the purpose and intent of this act to postpone the operation of Chapter 865 of the Statutes of 1976. This will allow the Legislature to review the entire subject matter of Chapter 865 in accordance with its original intent and the state as a whole will benefit thereby.

SEC. 3. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 10

An act to amend Section 4205 of the Civil Code, relating to civil marriages, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor March 19, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State March 21, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4205 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4205. Marriage may be solemnized by any judge or retired judge, commissioner or retired commissioner, or assistant commissioner of a court of record or justice court in this state or by any priest, minister, or rabbi of any religious denomination, of the age of 18 years or over or by a person authorized to do so under Section 4205.1.

A marriage may also be solemnized by a judge who has resigned from office.

SEC. 2. The amendment of Section 4205 of the Civil Code made by this act does not constitute a change in, but is declaratory of, the existing law.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Retired commissioners of courts of record have been retained by courts of record to continue their service after retirement and have solemnized marriages. In order that the validity of such marriages and related questions may be put to rest and at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect as an urgency statute.

CHAPTER 11

An act to amend and repeal Section 19614.1 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to horseracing, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor March 19, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State March 21, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19614.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19614.1. Notwithstanding Section 19614, any association other than the California State Fair and Exposition or a district or county fair which handles thirty million dollars ($30,000,000) or less in the parimutuel pools operated by it during the course of a racing meeting shall be exempt from the requirements of Sections 19611, 19612, and subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 19615.

Any such association shall deduct from the total amount handled in parimutuel pools related to its meeting 15.75 percent thereof to be distributed as license fees, commissions, and purses, and shall pay a license fee of 5½ percent on the amount handled by it in lieu of any other base rate, or rates, otherwise provided for. The remaining 10.25 percent so deducted shall be distributed as commissions and purses.

This section shall remain in effect until September 1, 1977, and on such date is repealed.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Small racing associations, faced with a substantial state license fee increase effective March 1, 1977, may cancel or be unable to conduct their race meetings. As a result, state horseracing revenues could decrease by as much as three million dollars ($3,000,000) and unemployment within the horseracing industry could increase significantly. It is, therefore, necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 12

An act to amend Section 1005.4 of the Water Code, relating to ground water use, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor March 19, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State March 21, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1005.4 of the Water Code is amended to read:

1005.4. Cessation of or reduction in the extraction of ground water, to permit the replenishment of such ground water by the use of water from an alternate nontributary source, is hereby declared to be a reasonable beneficial use of the ground water to the extent and in the amount that water from such alternate source is applied to beneficial use, not exceeding, however, the amount of such reduction. No lapse, reduction or loss of any right in ground water, shall occur under such conditions. Any such user of water from an alternate source who seeks the benefit of this section with respect to the use of such water occurring prior to October 1, 1981, shall file with the board, on or before December 31, 1981, a statement of the amounts of reduction in the extraction of ground water as the result of water from such alternate source having been so applied to reasonable beneficial use prior to October 1, 1981, to permit the replenishment of such ground water and said amounts shall be segregated and shown for each water year (October 1st to September 30th) during which such use occurred prior to October 1, 1981. Any such user of water from an alternate source who seeks the benefit of this section with respect to the use of such water occurring subsequent to October 1, 1981, shall file with the board, on or before December 31st of each calendar year, a statement of the amount of reduction in the extraction of ground water as the result of water from the alternate source having been so applied to reasonable beneficial use during the next preceding water year (October 1st to September 30th) to permit the replenishment of such ground water. Such user cannot claim the benefit of this section for any period or water year for which such statement is not so filed.

The provisions of this section apply only as to the cessation of, or reduction in, the extraction of ground water within that area in this state defined by the exterior boundaries of every county, except the Counties of San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara, Ventura, Los Angeles, Orange, San Diego, Imperial, Riverside, and San Bernardino.

The term "nontributary source," as used in this section, shall be deemed to include water imported from another watershed or water conserved and saved in the watershed by a water conservation plan or works without which such water of the same watershed would have wasted, or would not have reached the underground source of supply of the owner relying upon this section.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Those persons required to file a statement of the amount of reduction in the extraction of ground water are unable to produce records of such extractions within the time limit specified. It is necessary, therefore, to extend such period for five years to allow compliance. In order, therefore, for this act to go into effect prior to the date on which such compliance is presently required, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

An act to amend Sections 3207 and 3208 of, and to add Sections 3206 and 3208.5 to, the Public Resources Code, relating to oil and gas wells, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor March 19, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State March 21, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3206 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

3206. Any individual or blanket indemnity bond issued in compliance with this chapter before January 1, 1978, may, with the consent of the supervisor, be terminated and canceled and the surety may be relieved of all obligations thereunder when the well or wells covered by such bond have been properly completed or abandoned or when another valid bond has been substituted therefor. Should the person who has filed a blanket bond properly complete or abandon a portion of his wells covered by the bond, the bond may, with the consent of the supervisor, be terminated and canceled and the surety may be relieved of all obligations thereunder upon the filing by such person of an individual bond for each well which is still producing or which he is still engaged in drilling, redrilling, deepening, or permanently altering. Liability as to individual wells that have been drilled and completed or abandoned under a blanket bond may also be terminated with the consent of the supervisor.

SEC. 2. Section 3207 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

3207. Any individual or blanket indemnity bond issued in compliance with this chapter on or after January 1, 1978, may, with the consent of the supervisor, be terminated and canceled and the surety may be relieved of all obligations thereunder when the well or wells covered by such bond have been properly abandoned or when another valid bond has been substituted therefor. Should the person who has filed a blanket bond properly abandon a portion of his wells covered by the bond, the bond may, with the consent of the supervisor, be terminated and canceled and the surety may be relieved of all obligations thereunder upon the filing by such person of an individual bond for each well which is still producing or which he is still engaged in drilling, redrilling, deepening, or permanently altering. Liability as to individual wells that have been drilled and abandoned under a blanket bond may also be terminated with the consent of the supervisor.

SEC. 3. Section 3208 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

3208. For the purposes of Sections 3206 and 3207, a well is properly abandoned when it has been shown to the satisfaction of the supervisor that all proper steps have been taken to shut off and exclude all water from oil-bearing or gas-bearing strata encountered in the well, and to protect underground or surface water suitable for irrigation or farm or domestic purposes from the infiltration or addition of any detrimental substance and to prevent subsequent damage to life, health, property, and other resources.

SEC. 4. Section 3208.5 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

3208.5. For the purposes of Section 3206, a well is properly completed when it has been completed to production of oil or gas and the person engaged in the drilling, redrilling, deepening, or in any operation permanently altering in any manner the casing, of any well has shown to the satisfaction of the supervisor that both the manner of drilling, redrilling, or deepening, or any operation permanently altering the casing, of the well and the manner of producing oil or gas therefrom are satisfactory.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The production of oil and gas in California is necessary to sustain essential social and economic activities that depend upon this resource and the income produced by it. Many established oil and gas well operators have been unable to obtain from surety companies the indemnity bonds required by law that became effective on January 1, 1977. Therefore, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 14

An act making an appropriation for the use and support of the State Controller, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor March 25, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State March 25, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of four hundred twenty-eight thousand nine hundred fifty dollars ($428,950), which is in addition to any sums heretofore appropriated, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated from the General Fund for the use and support of the State Controller in accordance with the following schedule:

Funds appropriated pursuant to this act for remodeling shall be subject to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 14250) of Part 5 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code and may not be expended without prior approval of the State Public Works Board.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

This act makes appropriations for the support of the State Controller in 1976–77 and provides for capital outlay to continue existing programs and support the operation of state government, and it is therefore necessary that this act take immediate effect.

(e) The secured tax levy requirement shall be computed as follows:

(1) The amount computed under subdivision (d) shall be multiplied by the estimated average daily attendance for grades 7 and 8.

(2) The amount computed under paragraph (1) of this subdivision shall be reduced by the estimated state apportionment transferred pursuant to Section 17411.

(f) Whenever the computation required by this section results, because of estimating error, in a total income limit in an amount more or less than actual data would have produced, the revenue limit for the succeeding fiscal year shall be reduced a like amount if the total produced was more, and may be increased by such amount if the total produced was less.

(g) The provisions of this section shall be applicable only to high school districts with an average daily attendance of 2,000 or less, at the time of the election, exclusive of average daily attendance of pupils in the 7th and 8th grades and shall be applicable only if a majority of the electors of such districts voting at an election approve of a proposition providing for the computations required by this section. (g) The provisions of this section shall be applicable only to high school districts with an average daily attendance of 2,000 or less, at the time of the election, exclusive of average daily attendance of pupils in the 7th and 8th grades and shall be applicable only if a majority of the electors of such districts voting at an election approve of a proposition providing for the computations required by this section. Notwithstanding Sections 2502 and 2503 of the Elections Code, such election may be held at a date other than a regular election date established pursuant to Section 2500 of the Elections Code for the 1977 calendar year only.

The election shall be held and conducted as nearly as practicable in accordance with the provisions of Section 42202 of the Education Code, except that the proposition shall be phrased in substantially the following terms: "Shall the maximum tax rate of the _____ High School District be increased by an amount sufficient to provide the same amount of revenue that the district derives from tuition charges paid by the elementary schools within it and shall the maximum tax rates of such elementary school districts be correspondingly reduced, in accordance with the provisions of Sections 37065.4 and 37065.5 of the Education Code?" Opposite such words, in separate lines, the words "Yes" and "No" shall be printed, with a voting square opposite each such word.

SEC. 13. Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 11590) is added to Chapter 1 of Part 3 of Division 2 of the Insurance Code, to read:

Article 2.5. Personal Liability Insurance Providing Workers' Compensation Coverage for Household Employees

11590. Except as provided in Section 11591, no policy providing comprehensive personal liability insurance may be issued or renewed in this state on or after January 1, 1977, unless it contains a provision for coverage against liability for the payment of compensation, as defined in Section 3207 of the Labor Code, to any person defined as an employee by subdivision (d) of Section 3351 of the Labor Code. Any such policy in effect on or after January 1, 1977, whether or not actually containing such provisions, shall be construed as if such provisions were embodied therein. However, such coverage shall not apply if any other existing, valid and collectible, workers' compensation insurance for such liability is applicable to the injury or death of such employee.

11591. The requirements of Section 11590 shall be inapplicable to any such policy of insurance or endorsement where the services of such employee are in connection with the trade, business, profession, or occupation, as such terms are defined in Sections 3355 and 3356 of the Labor Code, of the insured.

11592. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (f) of Section 1851, the rates, classifications, and rating systems for the workers' compensation insurance covering those persons defined as employees by subdivision (d) of Section 3351 of the Labor Code, and the insurers issuing such insurance coverage, shall be subject to the provisions of Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 1850) of Part 2 of Division 1.

SEC. 14. Section 11720 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

11720. The provisions of this article shall not apply to workers' compensation insurance covering those persons defined as employees by subdivision (d) of Section 3351 of the Labor Code.

SEC. 15. Section 11743 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

11743. The provisions of this article shall not apply to any rate, classification, or system of rating for the workers' compensation insurance covering those persons defined as employees by subdivision (d) of Section 3351 of the Labor Code, nor to the extent of such coverage, to any insurer providing such coverage.

SEC. 16. Section 11758.1 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

11758.1. The provisions of this article shall not apply to the workers' compensation insurance covering those persons defined as employees by subdivision (d) of Section 3351 of the Labor Code.

SEC. 17. Section 3351 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

3351. "Employee" means every person in the service of an employer under any appointment or contract of hire or apprenticeship, express or implied, oral or written, whether lawfully or unlawfully employed, and includes:

(a) Aliens and minors.

(b) All elected and appointed paid public officers.

(c) All officers and members of boards of directors of quasi-public or private corporations while rendering actual service for such corporations for pay; provided that, where the officers and directors of any such private corporation are the sole shareholders thereof, the corporation and such officers and directors shall come under the compensation provisions of this division only by election as provided in subdivision (a) of Section 4151.

(d) Except as provided in subdivision (h) of Section 3352, any person employed by the owner or occupant of a residential dwelling whose duties are incidental to the ownership, maintenance, or use of the dwelling, including the care and supervision of children, or whose duties are personal and not in the course of the trade, business, profession, or occupation of such owner or occupant.

(e) All persons incarcerated in a state penal or correctional institution while engaged in assigned work.

SEC. 18. Section 3352 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

3352. "Employee" excludes:

(a) Any person defined in subdivision (d) of Section 3351 who is employed by his parent, spouse, or child.

(b) Any person performing services in return for aid or sustenance only, received from any religious, charitable, or relief organization.

(c) Any person holding an appointment as deputy clerk, deputy sheriff, or deputy constable appointed for his own convenience, and who receives no compensation from the county or municipal corporation or from the citizens thereof for his services as such deputy. This exclusion is operative only as to employment by the county or municipal corporation and does not deprive any person so deputized from recourse against a private person employing him for injury occurring in the course of and arising out of such employment.

(d) Any person performing voluntary services at or for a recreational camp, hut or lodge operated by a nonprofit organization, exempt from federal income tax under Section 101(6) of the Internal Revenue Code, of which he or a member of his family is a member and who receives no compensation for such services other than meals, lodging or transportation.

(e) Any person performing voluntary service as a ski patrolman who receives no compensation for such services other than meals or lodging or the use of ski tow or ski lift facilities.

(f) Any person employed by a ski lift operator to work at a snow ski area who is relieved of and not performing any prescribed duties, while participating in recreational activities on his own initiative.

(h) Any person defined in subdivision (d) of Section 3351 who was employed by such employer for less than 52 hours during the 90 calendar days immediately preceding the date of the injury for injuries as defined in Section 5411 or during the 90 calendar days immediately preceding the date of the last employment in an occupation exposing the employee to the hazards of such disease or injury for injuries as defined in Section 5412, or who earned less than one hundred dollars ($100) in wages from such employer during the 90 calendar days immediately preceding the date of the injury for injuries as defined in Section 5411 or during the 90 calendar days immediately preceding the date of the last employment in an occupation exposing the employee to the hazards of such disease or injury for injuries as defined in Section 5412.

SEC. 19. Section 3354 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

3354. Employers of employees defined by subdivision (d) of Section 3351 shall not be subject to the provisions of Sections 3710, 3710.1, 3710.2, 3711, 3712, and 3722, or any other penalty provided by law, for failure to secure the payment of compensation for such employees.

This section shall not apply to employers of employees specified in subdivision (b) of Section 3715, with respect to such employees.

SEC. 20. Section 3355 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

3355. As used in subdivision (d) of Section 3351, the term "course of trade, business, profession, or occupation" includes all services tending toward the preservation, maintenance, or operation of the business, business premises, or business property of the employer.

SEC. 21. Section 3356 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

3356. As used in subdivision (d) of Section 3351 and in Section 3355, the term "trade, business, profession, or occupation" includes any undertaking actually engaged in by the employer with some degree of regularity, irrespective of the trade name, articles of incorporation, or principal business of the employer.

SEC. 22. Section 3708 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3708. In such action it is presumed that the injury to the employee was a direct result and grew out of the negligence of the employer, and the burden of proof is upon the employer, to rebut the presumption of negligence. It is not a defense to the employer that the employee was guilty of contributory negligence, or assumed the risk of the hazard complained of, or that the injury was caused by the negligence of a fellow servant. No contract or regulation shall restore to the employer any of the foregoing defenses.

This section shall not apply to any employer of an employee, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 3351, with respect to such employee, but shall apply to employers of employees described in subdivision (b) of Section 3715, with respect to such employees.

SEC. 23. Section 3713 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

3713. (a) Every employer subject to the compensation provisions of this code shall post and keep posted in a conspicuous location at his headquarters or at one of his places of employment, as defined in Division 5 (commencing with Section 6300), a notice which shall state the name of the current compensation insurance carrier of such employer, or when such is the fact, that the employer is self-insured.

(b) If the employer is insured by a compensation insurance carrier, the employer shall, in addition to the notice required by subdivision (a), post in the same place a notice showing the expiration date of the current coverage. The employer shall also post with the notice the telephone number of the nearest office of the Labor Commissioner, together with an invitation for any employee to call such number to report the expiration of the employer's coverage.

(c) Failure to keep any notice required by this section conspicuously posted shall constitute a misdemeanor, and shall be prima facie evidence of noninsurance.

(d) This section shall not apply with respect to the employment of employees as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 3351.

SEC. 24. Section 3715 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3715. (a) Any employee, except an employee as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 3351, whose employer has failed to secure the payment of compensation as required by this division, or his dependents in case death has ensued, may, in lieu of proceedings against his employer by civil action in the courts as provided in Section 3706, file his application with the appeals board for compensation and the appeals board shall hear and determine such application for compensation in like manner as in other claims and shall make such award to such claimant as he would be entitled to receive if such employer had secured the payment of compensation as required, and such employer shall pay such award in the manner and amount fixed thereby or shall furnish to the appeals board a bond, in such an amount and with such sureties as the appeals board requires, to pay such employee such award in the manner and amount fixed thereby.

(b) Notwithstanding this section or any other provision of this article except Section 3708, any person described in subdivision (d) of Section 3351 who is (i) engaged in household domestic service who is employed by one employer for over 52 hours per week, (ii) engaged as a part-time gardener in connection with a private dwelling, if the number of hours devoted to such gardening work for any individual regularly exceeds 44 hours per month, or (iii) engaged in casual employment where the work contemplated is to be completed in not less than 10 working days, without regard to the number of men employed, and where the total labor cost of such work is not less than one hundred dollars ($100) (which amount shall not include charges other than for personal services), shall be entitled, in lieu of proceedings against his employer by civil action in the courts as provided in Section 3706, to file his application with the appeals board for compensation. The appeals board shall hear and determine such application for compensation in like manner as in other claims, and shall make such award to such claimant as he would be entitled to receive if such person's employer had secured the payment of compensation as required, and such employer shall pay such award in the manner and amount fixed thereby, or shall furnish to the appeals board a bond, in such an amount and with such sureties as the appeals board requires, to pay such employee such award in the manner and amount fixed thereby.

It is the intent of the Legislature that the provisions of this bill make no change in the law as it applied to those types of employees covered by this subdivision prior to the effective date of Chapter 1263 of the 1975 Regular Session.

SEC. 24.5. Section 3716 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3716. If the employer fails to pay the compensation required by Section 3715 to the person entitled thereto, or fails to furnish the bond required by Section 3715 within a period of 10 days after notification of such award, the award, upon application by the person entitled thereto, shall be paid by the Director of Industrial Relations from the Uninsured Employers Fund, which fund is hereby created in the State Treasury. The money in the Uninsured Employers Fund is hereby continuously appropriated for this purpose and to pay the expenses of the director in administering these provisions. Refunds may be paid from the Uninsured Employers Fund for amounts remitted erroneously to the fund, or the director may authorize offsetting subsequent remittances to the fund.

SEC. 25. Section 4156 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

4156. No liability for compensation shall attach to any employer of a person excluded by subdivision (h) of Section 3352 from the definition of "employee" for an injury to or the death of a person so excluded which occurs on or after the effective date of this section if such employer elected to come under the compensation provisions of this division pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 4151 prior to the effective date of this section by purchasing or renewing a policy providing comprehensive personal liability insurance containing a provision for coverage against liability for the payment of compensation, as defined in Section 3207 of the Labor Code, to any person defined as an employee by subdivision (d) of Section 3351 of the Labor Code; provided, however, nothing in this section shall prohibit an employer from providing compensation pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

SEC. 26. Section 4453 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

4453. Except as provided in Section 4453.1, in computing average annual earnings for the purposes of temporary disability indemnity and permanent total disability indemnity only, the average weekly earnings shall be taken at not less than fifty-two dollars and fifty cents ($52.50) nor more than two hundred thirty-one dollars ($231). In computing average annual earnings for purposes of permanent partial disability indemnity, except as provided in Section 4659, the average weekly earnings shall be taken at not less than forty-five dollars ($45) nor more than one hundred five dollars ($105). Between these limits the average weekly earnings, except as provided in Sections 4456 to 4459, inclusive, shall be arrived at as follows:

(a) Where the employment is for 30 or more hours a week and for five or more working days a week, the average weekly earnings shall be 100 percent of the number of working days a week times the daily earnings at the time of the injury.

(b) Where the employee is working for two or more employers at or about the time of the injury, the average weekly earnings shall be taken as 100 percent of the aggregate of such earnings from all employments computed in terms of one week; but the earnings from employments other than the employment in which the injury occurred shall not be taken at a higher rate than the hourly rate paid at the time of the injury.

(c) If the earnings are at an irregular rate, such as piecework, or on a commission basis, or are specified to be by week, month or other period, then the average weekly earnings mentioned in subdivision (a) above shall be taken as 100 percent of the actual weekly earnings averaged for such period of time, not exceeding one year, as may conveniently be taken to determine an average weekly rate of pay.

(d) Where the employment is for less than 30 hours per week, or where for any reason the foregoing methods of arriving at the average weekly earnings cannot reasonably and fairly be applied, the average weekly earnings shall be taken at 100 percent of the sum which reasonably represents the average weekly earning capacity of the injured employee at the time of his injury, due consideration being given to his actual earnings from all sources and employments.

SEC. 27. Section 4453.1 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

4453.1. In computing average annual earnings for the purposes of temporary disability indemnity, the average weekly earnings for a claimant whose last employment was either (i) as an employee as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 3351, or (ii) as an employee engaged in vending, selling, offering for sale, or delivering directly to the public, any newspaper published at least weekly, shall be taken at not less than the lesser of fifty-two dollars and fifty cents ($52.50), or 1.2 times the employee's actual weekly earnings from all employers, nor more than two hundred thirty-one dollars ($231). Between these limits, the average weekly earnings, except as provided in Sections 4456 to 4459, shall be arrived at as provided in subdivisions (a) through (d), inclusive, of Section 4453.

SEC. 28. Section 5307.1 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

5307.1. The administrative director, after public hearings, shall adopt and revise, no less frequently than biennially, an official medical fee schedule which shall be prima facie evidence of the reasonableness of fees charged for medical services provided pursuant to this division.

Nothing in this section shall prohibit a medical provider from charging an employer or carrier fees in excess of those set forth on the official medical fee schedule, when reasonable, and accompanied by itemization and explanation; provided, however, that in no event shall a physician charge in excess of his or her usual fee.

In the event of a dispute between the physician and the employer or carrier concerning the medical fees charged, the physician may be allowed a reasonable fee for testimony, if a physician testifies pursuant to the employer's or carrier's subpoena, and the referee determines that the medical fee charged was reasonable.

The official medical fee schedule shall not apply to the costs and expenses authorized under Section 4600 to prove a claim.

SEC. 29. Section 5500.5 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

5500.5. (a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 5500.6, liability for occupational disease or cumulative injury shall be limited to those employers who employed the employee during a period of five years immediately preceding either the date of injury, as determined pursuant to Section 5412, or the last date on which the employee was employed in an occupation exposing him to the hazards of such occupational disease or cumulative injury, whichever occurs first. If, based upon all the evidence presented, the appeals board or referee finds the existence of cumulative injury or occupational disease, liability for such cumulative injury or occupational disease shall not be apportioned to prior years except as provided in subdivision (d); however, in determining such liability, evidence of disability due to specific injury, disability due to nonindustrial causes, or disability previously compensated for by way of a findings and award or order approving compromise and release, or a voluntary payment of disability, may be admissible for purposes of apportionment.

(b) Where a claim for compensation benefits is made on account of an occupational disease or cumulative injury which may have arisen out of more than one employment, the application shall state the names and addresses of all employers liable under subdivision (a), the places of employment, and the approximate periods of employment where the employee was exposed to the hazards of the occupational disease or cumulative injury. If the application is not so prepared or omits necessary and proper employers, any interested party, at or prior to the first hearing, may request the appeals board to join as defendant any necessary or proper party. If such request is made prior to the first hearing on the application, the appeals board shall forthwith join the employer as a party defendant and cause a copy of the application together with a notice of the time and place of hearing to be served upon such omitted employer; provided, such notice can be given within the time specified in this division. If such notice cannot be timely given or if the motion for joinder is made at the time of the first hearing, then the appeals board or referee before whom the hearing is held, if it is found that the omitted employer named is a necessary or proper party, may order a joinder of such party and continue the hearing so that proper notice may be given to the party or parties so joined. Only one continuance shall be allowed for the purpose of joining additional parties. Subsequent to the first hearing the appeals board shall join as a party defendant any additional employer when it appears that such employer is a proper party, but the liability of such employer shall not be determined until supplemental proceedings are instituted.

(c) In any case involving a claim of occupational disease or cumulative injury occurring as a result of more than one employment within the five-year period set forth in subdivision (a), the employee making the claim, or his dependents, may elect to proceed against any one or more of such employers. Where such an election is made, the employee must successfully prove his claim against any one of the employers named, and any award which the appeals board shall issue awarding compensation benefits shall be a joint and several award as against any two or more employers who may be held liable for compensation benefits. If, during the pendency of any claim wherein the employee or his dependents has made an election to proceed against one or more employers, it should appear that there is another proper party not yet joined, such additional party shall be joined as a defendant by the appeals board on the motion of any party in interest, but the liability of such employer shall not be determined until supplemental proceedings are instituted. Any employer joined as a defendant subsequent to the first hearing or subsequent to the election provided herein shall not be entitled to participate in any of the proceedings prior to the appeal board's final decision, nor to any continuance or further proceedings, but may be permitted to ascertain from the employee or his dependents such information as will enable the employer to determine the time, place, and duration of the alleged employment. On supplemental proceedings, however, the right of the employer to full and complete examination or cross-examination shall not be restricted.

(d) If the employment exposing the employee to the hazards of the claimed occupational disease or cumulative injury was for more than five years with the same employer, or its predecessors in interest, the limitation of liability to the last five years of employment as set forth in subdivision (a) shall be inapplicable. Liability in such circumstances shall extend to all insurers who insure the workers' compensation liability of such employer, during the entire period of the employee's exposure with such employer, or its predecessors in interest. The respective contributions of such insurers shall be in proportion to employment during their respective periods of coverage. As used in this subdivision, "insurer" includes an employer who during any period of the employees exposure was self-insured or legally uninsured.

The provisions of this subdivision shall expire on July 1, 1986, unless otherwise extended by the Legislature prior to that date.

(e) At any time within one year after the appeals board has made an award for compensation benefits in connection with an occupational disease or cumulative injury, any employer held liable under such award may institute proceedings before the appeals board for the purpose of determining an apportionment of liability or right of contribution. Such a proceeding shall not diminish, restrict, or alter in any way the recovery previously allowed the employee or his dependents, but shall be limited to a determination of the respective contribution rights, interests or liabilities of all the employers joined in the proceeding, either initially or supplementally; provided, however, if the appeals board finds on supplemental proceedings for the purpose of determining an apportionment of liability or of a right of contribution that an employer previously held liable in fact has no liability, it may dismiss such employer and amend its original award in such manner as may be required.

(f) In any proceeding before the appeals board for the purpose of determining an apportionment of liability or of a right of contribution where any employee incurred a disability or death resulting from silicosis in underground metal mining operations, the determination of the respective rights and interests of all of the employers joined in the proceedings either initially or supplementally shall be as follows:

(1) All employers whose underground metal mining operations resulted in a silicotic exposure during the period of the employee's employment in such operations shall be jointly and severally liable for the payment of compensation and of medical, surgical, legal and hospital expense which may be awarded to the employee or his estate or dependents as the result of disability or death resulting from or aggravated by such exposure.

(2) In making its determination in the supplemental proceeding for the purpose of determining an apportionment of liability or of a right of contribution of percentage liabilities of the various employers engaged in underground metal mining operations the appeals board shall consider as a rebuttal presumption that employment in underground work in any mine for a continuous period of more than three calendar months will result in a silicotic exposure for the employee so employed during the period of employment if the underground metal mine was driven or sunk in rock having a composition which will result in dissemination of silica or silicotic dust particles when drilled, blasted or transported.

(g) Any employer shall be entitled to rebut such presumption by showing to the satisfaction of the appeals board, or its referee, that the mining methods used by the employer in the employee's place of employment did not result during his employment in the creation of silica dust in sufficient amount or concentration to constitute a silicotic hazard. Dust counts, competently made, at such intervals and in such locations as meet the requirements of the Division of Industrial Safety for safe working conditions may be received as evidence of the amount and concentration of silica dust in the workings where such counts have been made at the time when they were made. The appeals board may from time to time, as its experience may indicate proper, promulgate orders as to the frequency with which such dust counts shall be taken in different types of workings in order to justify their acceptance as evidence of the existence or nonexistence of a silicotic hazard in the property where they have been taken.

(h) The amendments to this section adopted at the 1959 Regular Session of the Legislature shall operate retroactively, and shall apply retrospectively to any cases pending before the appeals board or courts. From and after the date this section becomes effective no payment shall be made out of the fund used for payment of the additional compensation provided for in Section 4751 of this code, or out of any other state funds, in satisfaction of any liability heretofore incurred or hereafter incurred, except awards which have become final without regard to the continuing jurisdiction of the appeals board on said effective date, and the state and its funds shall be without liability therefor. This paragraph shall not in any way effect a reduction in any benefit conferred or which may be conferred upon any injured employee or his dependents.

SEC. 30. Section 5500.6 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

5500.6. Liability for occupational disease or cumulative injury which results from exposure solely during employment as an employee, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 3351, shall be limited to those employers in whose employment the employee was exposed to the hazards of such occupational disease or cumulative injury during the last day on which the employee was employed in an occupation exposing the employee to the hazards of such disease or injury. In the event that none of the employers of the last day of hazardous employment is insured for workers' compensation liability, such liability, shall be imposed upon the last employer exposing the employee to the hazards of such occupational disease or cumulative injury who has secured workers' compensation insurance coverage or an approved alternative thereto. If, based upon all the evidence presented, the appeals board or referee finds the existence of cumulative injury or occupational disease, liability for such cumulative injury or occupational disease shall not be apportioned to prior employers. However, in determining such liability, evidence of disability due to specific injury, disability due to non-work-related causes, or disability previously compensated for by way of a findings and award or order approving compromise and release, or a voluntary payment of disability, may be admissible for purposes of apportionment.

SEC. 31. If any provision of this act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

SEC. 32. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution, and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Chapter 1263 of the Statutes of 1975 became effective January 1, 1977. This act, with certain exceptions, repeals the provisions of such Chapter 1263 and substitutes therefor the substantive provisions of this act. Because the workers' compensation insurance coverage anticipated by such Chapter 1263 is not readily available to many thousands of persons who would be employers under the act, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

An act to amend Section 69591 of the Government Code, relating to courts, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor March 25, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State March 25, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to provide funds to local agencies for four additional superior court judgeship positions which became operative on January 1, 1977, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

An act relating to appliance labeling, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, Section 22411 of the Business and Professions Code shall apply to radios installed at the factory of an automobile manufacturer or to radios which are replaced by such factory radios only on motor vehicles which are manufactured on and after September 1, 1977.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Automobile manufacturers need additional time in which to meet specified labeling requirements for, among other things, radios used or sold in motor vehicles which requirement is to be operative April 1, 1977. In order to give such manufacturers additional time in which to comply with such requirement it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

An act to amend Sections 17025, 22052, and 22900 of, and to repeal Sections 22001 and 22901 of, the Elections Code, relating to elections.

SEC. 4. Section 22900 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

22900. The city clerk shall have the necessary ballots printed and shall procure and furnish to the election officers the necessary supplies and equipment as specified in Sections 14005 and 14007. The clerk shall see that they are properly distributed to each precinct prior to the opening of the polls on the day of election.

[Approved by Governor April 6, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State April 6, 1977.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 232.1 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

232.1. (a) An action may be brought in a demonstration county for the purpose of having any person under the age of 18 years declared free from the custody and control of either or both of his parents when such person comes within any of the following descriptions:

(1) Who has been left without provision for his identification by his parent or parents or by others or has been left by both of his parents or his sole parent in the care and custody of another for a period of six months or by one parent in the care and custody of the other parent for a period of one year without any provision for his support, or without communication from such parent or parents, with the intent on the part of such parent or parents to abandon such person. Such failure to provide identification, failure to provide, or failure to communicate shall be presumptive evidence of the intent to abandon. Such person shall be deemed and called a person abandoned by the parent or parents abandoning him. If in the opinion of the court the evidence indicates that such parent or parents have made only token efforts to support or communicate with the child, the court may declare the child abandoned by such parent or parents. In those cases in which the child has been left without provision for his identification and the whereabouts of the parents are unknown, a petition may be filed after the 120th day following the discovery of the child and citation by publication may be commenced. The petition may not be heard until after the 180th day following the discovery of the child.

The fact that a child is in a foster care home subject to the requirements of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1500) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, shall not prevent a licensed adoption agency which is planning adoption placement for the child, from instituting, under this subdivison, an action to declare such child free from the custody and control of his parents. When the requesting agency is a licensed county adoption agency, the county counsel and if there is no county counsel, the district attorney shall institute such action.

(2) Who has been cruelly treated or neglected by either or both of his parents, if such person has been a dependent child of the juvenile court, and such parent or parents deprived of his custody for the period of one year prior to the filing of a petition praying that he be declared free from the custody and control of such cruel or neglectful parent or parents.

An action may be brought under this subdivision only if the child was declared a dependent child of the juvenile court prior to July 1, 1977.

(3) Whose parent or parents suffer a disability because of the habitual use of alcohol, or any of the controlled substances specified in Schedules I to V, inclusive, of Division 10 (commencing with Section 11000) of the Health and Safety Code, except when such controlled substances are used as part of a medically prescribed plan, or are morally depraved, if such person has been a dependent child of the juvenile court, and the parent or parents deprived of his custody because of such disability, or moral depravity, for the period of one year continuously immediately prior to the filing of the petition praying that he be declared free from the custody and control of such parent or parents. As used in this subdivision, "disability" means any physical or mental incapacity which renders the parent or parents unable to adequately care for and control the child.

(4) Whose parent or parents are convicted of a felony, if the facts of the crime of which such parent or parents were convicted are of such nature as to prove the unfitness of such parent or parents to have the future custody and control of the child.

(5) Whose parent or parents have been declared by a court of competent jurisdiction wherever situated to be mentally deficient or mentally ill, if, in the state or country in which the parent or parents are hospitalized or resident, the State Director of Health, or his equivalent, if any, and the superintendent of the hospital of which, if any, such parent or parents are inmates or patients certify that such parent or parents so declared to be mentally deficient or mentally ill will not be capable of supporting or controlling the child in a proper manner.

(6) Whose parent or parents are, and will remain incapable of supporting or controlling the child in a proper manner because of mental deficiency or mental illness, if there is testimony to this effect from two physicians and surgeons , each of whom must have been certified either by the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology or under Section 6750 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. If, however, the parent or parents reside in another state or in a foreign country, the testimony herein may be supplied by two physicians and surgeons who are residents of such state or foreign country, if such physicians and surgeons have been certified by a medical organization or society of that state or foreign country to practice psychiatric or neurological medicine and if the court determines that the certification requirements of such organization or society are comparable to those of the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology.

The parent or parents shall be cited to be present at the hearing, and if he or they have no attorney, the court shall appoint an attorney or attorneys to represent the parent or parents and fix the compensation to be paid by the county for such services, if the court determines the parent or parents are not financially able to employ counsel.

(7) Who has been cared for in one or more foster homes under the supervision of the juvenile court, the county welfare department, or other public or private licensed child-placing agency for two or more consecutive years, providing that the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the return of the child to his parent or parents would be detrimental to the child and that the parent or parents have failed during such period, and are likely to fail in the future, to:

(i) Provide a home for the child;

(ii) Provide care and control of the child;

(iii) Maintain an adequate parental relationship with the child; and

(iv) Maintain continuous contact with the child, unless unable to do so.

Physical custody of the child by the parent or parents for insubstantial periods of time during the required two-year period shall not serve to interrupt the running of such period.

(8) Who has been found to be a dependent child of the juvenile court, has been removed from the physical custody of his parent or parents pursuant to Section 361.5 or voluntarily placed pursuant to Chapter 5.5 (commencing with Section 16550) of Part 4 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and where an action to terminate parental rights was initiated due to a court order pursuant to Section 366.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

At the termination proceeding, the person bringing the action shall show that on a continuous basis reasonable services have been provided to the parents, or were offered and refused by them, which were designed to aid the parents to overcome the problems which originally led to the deprivation of physical custody, the effectiveness, if any, of such services, and that despite the use of such services, the problems which originally led to the deprivation of physical custody are still present. Social workers or probation officers who provided such services shall appear, if available, at the termination proceedings.

At the termination proceeding, the court may consider the wishes of the child. When the child is 14 years of age or older, the consent of the child shall be obtained in order that there be a termination of parental rights.

If the court sustains the petition and there is an order pursuant to this subdivision, the court shall specify the factual grounds established to support its findings and enter such in the permanent records of the court.

An action may be brought under this subdivision if the child was declared a dependent child of the juvenile court on or after July 1, 1977, or was voluntarily placed by his parents pursuant to Chapter 5.5 (commencing with Section 16550) of Part 4 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code on or after such date.

This subdivision shall not apply to a parent or parents who have been convicted of a felony and thereby are unable to receive reasonable services designed to aid them to overcome the problems which originally led to the deprivation of physical custody.

(b) A licensed adoption agency of a demonstration county may institute under this section, an action to declare a child, as described in this section, free from the custody and control of his parents. When the requesting agency is a licensed county adoption agency, the county counsel, or if there is no county counsel, the district attorney shall in a proper case institute such action.

(c) As used in this section, a "demonstration county" is a county selected pursuant to Section 2 of Chapter 977 of the Statutes of 1976.

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until June 30, 1981 and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before June 30, 1981, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 1.3. Section 232.9 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

232.9. The State Department of Health, a county welfare department, a county adoption department, or a county probation department which is planning adoptive placement of a child with a licensed adoption agency, or the State Department of Health acting as an adoption agency in counties which are not served by a county adoption agency, may initiate an action under Section 232 to declare a child free from the custody and control of his parents. The fact that a child is in a foster care home subject to the requirements of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1500) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code shall not prevent the institution of such an action by any such agency or by a licensed adoption agency pursuant to Section 232.

The county counsel or, if there is no county counsel, the district attorney of the county specified in Section 233 shall, in a proper case, institute the action upon the request of any of the state or county agencies mentioned herein. In a demonstration county selected pursuant to Section 2 of Chapter 977 of the Statutes of 1976, such action shall be instituted pursuant to Section 232.1 within 30 days of such request.

If, at the time of the filing of a verified petition by any department or agency specified in this section, the child is in the custody of the petitioner, such petitioner may continue to have custody of the child pending the hearing on the petition unless the court, in its discretion, makes such other orders regarding custody pending the hearing which it finds will best serve and protect the interests and welfare of the child.

SEC. 1.5. Section 303 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

303. (a) Each year the State Department of Health shall prepare and issue a report on foster care in California. The report shall be based on a sample of foster children drawn from counties which collectively include at least 65 percent of all the foster children in this state. The report shall include an analysis, evaluation or estimate of each of the following, on a statewide basis, as it deems appropriate:

(1) The number of foster children;

(2) The amount of funds expended by federal, state and local government for maintenance payments to foster parents, group homes and institutions;

(3) The amount of funds expended by federal, state and local government on services to foster children and their natural parents or guardians;

(4) The types of services being offered to parents and their children in order to keep the family together;

(5) The number of foster children who are of adoptable age, the number of such children adopted, and the number of foster children determined not to be adoptable and the reasons therefor;

(6) The number of foster children placed in permanent foster care or guardianship;

(7) The size of caseloads of probation officers and social workers, the effect such caseloads have on the services offered to parents or their children, and the effectiveness of such services;

(8) The movement of foster children within the program from placement to placement and the shifting responsibility for such children within the county probation department or welfare department;

(9) The foster care-related qualifications, education, and in-service training of social workers and probation officers who handle such cases;

(10) Any other matters relating to foster children which the department deems appropriate to be included in such report. The report shall be submitted to the Governor and Legislature concurrently with submission of the report required by Section 29 of Chapter 977 of the Statutes of 1976. If the department excludes any of the information required herein, it shall explain why it was not included, whether it believes it is appropriate to include such information, and an estimate of any costs to the state or counties for the collection of such information.

(b) All personal information and records obtained by the department pursuant to this section shall be confidential and may be disclosed only in those instances designated in Section 10850.

(c) Any person may bring an action against an individual who has willingly and knowingly released confidential information or records concerning him in violation of the provisions of this section, for the greater of the following amounts:

(1) Five hundred dollars ($500).

(2) Three times the amount of actual damages, if any, sustained by the plaintiff.

Any person may, in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, bring an action to enjoin the release of confidential information or records in violation of the provisions of this chapter, and may in the same action seek damages as provided in this section.

It is not a prerequisite to an action under this section that the plaintiff suffer or be threatened with actual damages.

SEC. 2. Section 331.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended and renumbered to read:

330.5. In any case in which a probation officer or social worker in a county welfare department of a demonstration county designated pursuant to Section 272, after investigation of an application for petition or other investigation he is authorized to make, concludes that a minor is within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court pursuant to Section 300 or probably will soon be within such jurisdiction, he may, in lieu of filing a petition or subsequent to the dismissal of a petition already filed, and with the consent of the minors parent or guardian, undertake a program of supervision of the minor and his family. If such a program is undertaken, the probation officer or social worker shall attempt to ameliorate the situation which brings the minor within the jurisdiction of Section 300 by providing all appropriate services. Any time after the family has unreasonably refused to cooperate with the services being provided, the probation officer or social worker may file a petition to the court. In any event, if after six months the minor is believed to be within the jurisdiction of Section 300, the probation officer or social worker shall file a petition. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the probation officer or social worker from filing a petition at any time within such six-month period.

SEC. 3. Section 332.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

332.5. A petition to commence proceedings in the juvenile court of a demonstration county to declare a minor a dependent child of the court shall be verified and must contain:

(a) The name of the court to which the same is addressed.

(b) The title of the proceeding.

(c) The code section or sections and subdivision or subdivisions under which the proceedings are instituted.

(d) The name, age, and address, if any, of the minor upon whose behalf the petition is brought.

(e) The name or names and residence address, if known to the petitioner, of all parents and guardians of such minor. If there is no parent or guardian residing within the state, or if his place of residence is not known to the petitioner, the petition must also contain the name and residence address, if known, of any adult relative residing within the county, or, if there be none, the adult relative residing nearest to the location of the court.

(f) A concise statement of facts, separately stated, to support the conclusion that the minor upon whose behalf the petition is being brought is a person within the definition of Section 300 or 302.

(g) The fact that the minor upon whose behalf the petition is brought is detained in custody or is not detained in custody, and if he is detained in custody, the date and the precise time the minor was taken into custody.

SEC. 4. Section 351.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

351.5. In a juvenile court hearing in a demonstration county, where the minor who is the subject of the hearing is represented by counsel, the district attorney shall, with the consent or at the request of the juvenile court judge, appear and participate in the hearing to assist in the ascertaining and presenting of the evidence.

SEC. 5. Section 353.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

353.5. In a demonstration county, at the beginning of the hearing on a petition filed pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 325) of this chapter, the judge or clerk shall first read the petition to those present and upon request of the minor upon whose behalf the petition has been brought or upon the request of any parent, relative or guardian, the judge shall explain any term or allegation contained therein and the nature of the hearing, its procedures, and possible consequences. The judge shall ascertain whether the minor and his parent or guardian or adult relative, as the case may be, has been informed of the right of the minor and parents or guardian to be represented by counsel, and if not, the judge shall advise the minor and such person, if present, of the right to have counsel present and where applicable, of the right to appointed counsel. Before proceeding further, the court, in a case in which the minor is alleged to be within the provisions of Section 300 or 302, shall first comply with the provisions of Section 318.5. The court shall continue the hearing for not to exceed seven days, as necessary to make an appointment of counsel, or to enable counsel to acquaint himself with the case, or to determine whether the parent or guardian or adult relative is unable to afford counsel at his own expense, and shall continue the hearing as necessary to provide reasonable opportunity for the minor and the parent or guardian or adult relative to prepare for the hearing.

SEC. 6. Section 360.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

360.5. After receiving and considering the evidence on the proper disposition of the case, the juvenile court of a demonstration county may enter judgment as follows:

(a) If the court has found that the minor is a person described in Section 300, it may, without adjudging such minor a dependent child of the court, order that services be provided to keep the family together and place the minor and his parents or guardians under the supervision of the probation officer or social worker in a county welfare department designated pursuant to Section 272 for a period not to exceed six months.

(b) If the court has found that the minor is a person described by Section 300, it may order and adjudge the minor to be a dependent child of the court.

SEC. 7. Section 361.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

361.5. (a) In a demonstration county, in all cases wherein a minor is adjudged a dependent child of the court, on the ground that he is a person described by Section 300 or 302, the court may limit the control to be exercised over such dependent by any parent or guardian and shall by its order clearly and specifically set forth all such limitations, but such limitations shall not exceed those necessary to protect the child.

(b) No dependent child shall be taken from the physical custody of his parents or guardians unless upon the hearing the juvenile court of a demonstration county finds substantial evidence that:

(1) There is a substantial danger to the physical health of the minor and there are no reasonable means acceptable to the minor's parents or guardians by which the minor's physical health may be protected without removing the minor from his parents' or guardians' physical custody; or

(2) The parents or guardians of the minor are unwilling to have physical custody of the minor, there are no reasonable means acceptable to the parents or guardians which would enable the minor to be returned to their physical custody, and the parents or guardians have been notified that if the minor remains out of their physical custody for the period specified in Section 366.5, the minor may be declared permanently free from their custody and control under Section 232.1 of the Civil Code; or

(3) The minor is suffering severe emotional damage indicated by extreme anxiety, depression, withdrawal, or untoward aggressive behavior against others and there are no reasonable means acceptable to the minor's parents or guardians by which the minor's emotional health may be protected without removing the minor from his parents' or guardians' physical custody.

The court shall specify the factual grounds established to support these findings and enter such in the permanent records of the court.

(c) If the minor is taken from the physical custody of his parents or guardians and unless the minor is placed with relatives, the minor shall be placed in foster care in the county of residence of his parents or guardians in order to facilitate reunification of the family. If the probation officer or social worker in a county welfare department of a demonstration county designated pursuant to Section 272 cannot find a suitable placement within the county and seeks to place the minor outside the county, the probation officer or social worker shall serve written notice on the parents or guardians in the same manner as provided in Section 366.3 at least seven days prior to such placement. Such notice shall state the reasons which require such placement outside the county. The parents or guardians may object to such placement not later than seven days after receipt of such notice and, upon such objection, the court shall hold a hearing not later than five days after such objection and prior to such placement. The court shall order out-of-county placement if it finds that the minors particular needs require placement outside the county.

(d) The juvenile court of a demonstration county shall order that the probation officer or social worker in a county welfare department designated pursuant to Section 272 provide to the minor's parents or guardians services which can reasonably be expected to facilitate the return of the minor to his family.

SEC. 8. Section 362 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

362. (1) When a minor is adjudged a dependent child of the court on the ground that he is a person described by Section 300, the court may make any and all reasonable orders for the care, supervision, custody, conduct, maintenance, and support of such minor, including medical treatment, subject to further order of the court.

The court may order the care, custody, control and conduct of such minor to be under the supervision of the probation officer or may commit such minor to the care, custody and control of:

(a) Some reputable person of good moral character who consents to such commitment.

(b) Some association, society, or corporation embracing within its objects the purpose of caring for such minors, with the consent of such association, society, or corporation.

(c) The probation officer, to be boarded out or placed in some suitable family home or suitable private institution, subject to the requirements of Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250) or Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1500) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code; provided, however, that pending action by the State Department of Health, the placement of a minor in a home certified as meeting minimum standards for boarding homes by the probation officer shall be legal for all purposes.

(d) Any other public agency organized to provide care for needy or neglected children.

When a minor is adjudged a dependent child of the court, on the ground that he is a person described by Section 300 and the court orders that a parent or guardian shall retain custody of such minor subject to the supervision of the probation officer, the parent or guardian may be required, and may be ordered, to participate in a counseling program to be provided by an appropriate agency designated by the court. When a minor is adjudged a dependent child of the court on the ground that he is a person described by subdivision (d) of Section 300 and the court orders that a parent or guardian shall retain custody of such minor subject to the supervision of the probation officer, the parent or guardian shall be required to participate in a counseling program to be provided by an appropriate agency, designated by the court.

(2) The juvenile court may direct any and all reasonable orders to the parents and guardians of the minor who is the subject of any proceedings under this chapter as the court deems necessary and proper to carry out the provisions of subdivision (1).

SEC. 9. Section 362.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

362.5. When a minor is adjudged a dependent child of the juvenile court of a demonstration county, on the ground that he is a person described by Section 300 or 302, the court may make any and all reasonable orders for the care, supervision, custody, conduct, maintenance, and support of such minor, including medical treatment, subject to further order of the court.

The court may order the care, custody, control and conduct of such minor to be under the supervision of the probation officer or social worker in a county welfare department of a demonstration county designated pursuant to Section 272 or, if the minor is removed from the custody of his parents or guardians pursuant to Section 361.5, the court may commit such minor to the care, custody and control of:

(a) Some reputable person of good moral character who consents to such commitment.

(b) Some association, society, or corporation embracing within its objects the purpose of caring for such minors, with the consent of such association, society, or corporation.

(c) The probation officer or social worker, to be boarded out or placed in some suitable family home or suitable private institution, subject to the requirements of Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250) or Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1500) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code; provided, however, that pending action by the State Department of Health, the placement of a minor in a home certified as meeting minimum standards for boarding homes by the probation officer or social worker shall be legal for all purposes.

(d) Any other public agency organized to provide care for needy or neglected children.

When a minor is adjudged a dependent child of the court, on the ground that he is a person described by Section 300 and the court orders that a parent or guardian shall retain custody of such minor subject to the supervision of the probation officer or social worker, the parent or guardian may be required, and may be ordered, to participate in a counseling program designated by the court. When a minor is adjudged a dependent child of the court on the ground that he is a person described by subdivision (d) of Section 300 and the court orders that a parent or guardian shall retain custody of such minor subject to the supervision of the probation officer or social worker, the parent or guardian shall be required to participate in a counseling program designated by the court.

SEC. 10. Section 366.3 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

366.3. In a demonstration county, every hearing in which an order is made adjudging a minor a dependent child of the juvenile court pursuant to Section 300 or 302 and every subsequent hearing in which such an order is made, except a hearing at which the court orders the termination of its jurisdiction over such minor, shall be continued to a specific future date not more than six months after the date of such order. The continued hearing shall be placed on the appearance calendar. The probation officer or social worker in a county welfare department designated pursuant to Section 272 shall provide appropriate services to the minor and his parents or guardians and, at least 16 days prior to the hearing, file a supplemental report of the services offered to the family, the progress made, and, where relevant, the prognosis for return of the child to the physical custody of his parents or guardians, and make his recommendation for disposition. The court shall advise all persons present of the date of the future hearing and of their right to be present, to be represented by counsel, where relevant, and, at least 14 days prior to the hearing, where relevant, of any facts which justify the continued removal of the minor pursuant to Section 361.5 and shall include a copy of the supplemental report. At each review hearing no minor shall be retained away from the physical custody of his parents or guardians without a showing of the current existence of facts which justify the removal under the standards of Section 361.5. The court shall review the probation officer's or social worker's report, make appropriate findings, and, where relevant, shall order any additional services reasonably believed to facilitate the return of the minor to the custody of his parents or guardians. All such findings shall be entered in the permanent records of the court. Notice of hearing shall be mailed by the probation officer or social worker to the same persons as in an original proceeding and to counsel of record by certified mail addressed to the last known address of the person to be notified, or shall be personally served on such persons, not earlier than 30 days preceding the date to which the hearing was continued.

The required six-months hearings shall only be applicable for a minor declared a dependent child of the juvenile court on or after July1, 1977, or voluntarily placed by his parents pursuant to Chapter 5.5 (commencing with Section 16550) of Part 4 of Division 9 on or after such date. For all other minors, the hearings shall be continued to a specific future date not more than one year after the date of such order.

SEC. 11. Section 366.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

366.5. (a) In order to provide minors described in this section with a stable and permanent environment, the juvenile court of a demonstration county shall follow the procedure set forth in subdivision (d).

(b) The juvenile court of a demonstration county shall commence proceedings under subdivision (d) in the case of a minor who has been taken from the physical custody of his parents or guardians under paragraph (1) or (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 361.5 and has remained out of their physical custody for 12 consecutive months and:

(1) the minor was less than two years of age at the time of removal pursuant to paragraph (1) or (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 361.5; or

(2) The minor is 14 years of age or older at the time of this proceeding and expresses a mature desire not to be returned to the physical custody of his parents or guardians.

Physical custody of the minor by his parents or guardians for insubstantial periods during the 12-month period will not serve to interrupt the running of such period.

(c) The juvenile court of a demonstration county shall commence proceedings under subdivision (d) in the case of any other minor who has been taken from the physical custody of his parents or guardians under paragraph (1), (2), or (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 361.5 and has remained out of their physical custody for 18 consecutive months, including for these purposes the time, if any, that the minor has remained out of their physical custody pursuant to a voluntary placement under Chapter 5.5 (commencing with Section 16550) of Part 4 of Division 9.

Physical custody of the minor by the parents or guardians for insubstantial periods of time during the 18-month period will not serve to interrupt the running of such period.

(d) For any minor that the juvenile court of a demonstration county finds to be a person described in either subdivision (b) or (c), the court shall order the appropriate department to investigate how the minor might be provided with a stable and permanent environment as required by subdivision (e). The department shall report its findings and make a recommendation to the court at a hearing that shall take place no more than 45 days from the date of the court's findings under subdivision (b) or (c), unless when the court makes its findings under subdivision (b) or (c), it finds that there is a substantial probability the minor will be returned to the physical custody of his parents or guardians within six months, in which case the hearing shall take place not more than six months from the date of the court's findings. The department and court shall give due consideration to the foster parents, if any, of the minor in considering adoption, guardianship or stable long-term foster care placement. The court shall notify the minor's parents or guardians and foster parents of its order under this subdivision, and the date of the hearing under subdivision (e). Such notice shall be sent by registered mail no less than 15 days before the date of such hearing and shall include a copy of the findings of the investigating department.

(e) At the hearing ordered under subdivision (d):

(1) If the court finds that the minor is adoptable, the court shall order the county counsel, or if there is no county counsel, the district attorney, to initiate an action to declare the minor permanently free from the custody and control of his parents or guardians pursuant to Section 232.1 of the Civil Code unless the court finds that:

(A) The parents or guardians have maintained a close family relationship with the minor through regular visitation and contact and the minor would benefit from a continued relationship with them; or

(B) A minor 14 years of age or older objects to termination of parental rights; or

(C) The minor's foster parents are unable to adopt the minor because of exceptional circumstances, but are willing and capable of providing the minor with a stable and permanent environment and the removal of the minor from the physical custody of the foster parents would be seriously detrimental to the emotional well-being of the minor because the minor has substantial psychological ties to them.

(2) If the court finds that the minor is not adoptable or the exceptions described in paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) apply, and the court finds that one or more adults are available and eligible to become legal guardians for the minor, the court shall order the department to facilitate the guardianship proceedings. The county counsel or, if there is no county counsel, the district attorney, may render assistance in such proceedings to the department. The court shall not make such an order if it finds that the minor's foster parents are unable to become guardians for the minor because of exceptional circumstances, but are willing and capable of providing the minor with a stable and permanent environment and the removal of the minor from the physical custody of his foster parents would be seriously detrimental to the emotional well-being of the minor because the minor has substantial psychological ties to them.

The proceeding for the appointment for a guardian for a minor under this section shall be in the juvenile court, notwithstanding Section 1405 of the Probate Code. For such minors, the juvenile court shall have the power to appoint a guardian pursuant to the standards and procedures otherwise specified by the Probate Code.

(3) If the court finds that the minor is not adoptable under paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) and that guardianship proceedings should not be initiated under paragraph (2) of subdivision (e), it shall order the department to facilitate the placement of the minor in an environment that can reasonably be expected to be stable and permanent. When the minor is in a foster home, and the foster parents are willing to provide and capable of providing a stable and permanent environment, the minor shall not be removed from this home if removal of the minor from the physical custody of his foster parents would be seriously detrimental to the emotional well-being of the minor because the minor has substantial psychological ties to them.

(f) When an adoption or guardianship of the minor has been perfected, the court shall terminate its jurisdiction over such minor. If some other long-term placement for the minor has been made, the court shall continue the hearing to a specific future date not more than one year after the date of the order of continued jurisdiction over the minor as a dependent child pursuant to Section 300 or 302 notwithstanding the six-month review hearing required pursuant to Section 366.3.

The department may limit allocation of child welfare service funds in the following manner:

(a) If Congress does not increase the appropriation for child welfare service funds the department may then limit the allocation specifically for protective services to the same proportion of the federal grant as obtained for the 1967–68 fiscal year.

(b) If and during such times as the federal government increases the allocation of child welfare services to the state, all of the increased funds resulting from this action shall be devoted to providing protective services for children who do not qualify for service under Section 16510; provided, however, that the department shall be permitted to allocate sufficient funds to the development of other aspects of child welfare services in order that the state remain eligible to receive funds pursuant to Title XX of the Social Security Act.

SEC. 18. Section 16531 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

16531. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to give the department or county welfare departments any law enforcement powers nor to change or interfere with the responsibility of law enforcement, probation officers and departments to take direct action on behalf of minors as provided in Article 7 (commencing with Section 305) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 and Article 8 (commencing with Section 325) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2. citizens to report crimes to duly authorized law enforcement agencies. Further it is the purpose of this part to supplement and not supplant existing services for children and families by the addition of state reunification services for families, and nothing herein shall be construed as changing in any way the responsibility of probation officers and departments for initiating juvenile court proceedings as set forth in Article 8 (commencing with Section 325), of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2, nor other duties and responsibilities assigned to them by law.

(c) The parents or guardians shall have the right to have the minor returned to their physical custody within 14 days after written notice has been given to the county welfare department of a demonstration county. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parents or guardians shall have the right to have the minor returned to their physical custody within 24 hours if at any time during the first three days after placement of the minor they notify the department that they wish to have the minor returned to their physical custody within such 24-hour period.

(b) Within three business days after a minor is placed under this chapter, the social worker and the parents or guardians shall meet and confer on a preliminary plan to reunify the family. Within 14 days, they shall meet to confer on a comprehensive plan. A written record of the plans shall be made and a copy of each provided to the parents or guardians. For the purposes of this section, only voluntary placements made pursuant to this chapter shall be counted toward the six-month or 12-month limitation.

If he is found to be eligible for disability retirement, appropriate adjustments shall be made in his retirement allowance retroactive to the effective date of his disability retirement as provided in Section 31724.

This section shall not be construed to authorize a member to receive more than one type of retirement allowance for the same period of time nor to entitle any beneficiary to receive benefits which the beneficiary would not otherwise have been entitled to receive under the type of retirement which the member is finally determined to have been entitled. In the event a member retired for service is found not to be entitled to disability retirement he shall not be entitled to return to his job as provided in Section 31725.

If the retired member should die before a final determination is made concerning entitlement to disability retirement, the rights of the beneficiary shall be as selected by the member at the time of retirement for service. The optional or unmodified type of allowance selected by the member at the time of retirement for service shall also be binding as to the type of allowance the member receives if the member is awarded a disability retirement.

[Approved by Governor April 6, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State April 7, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 90160 of the Education Code is amended to read:

When completed, the questionnaire and financial statement shall be verified under oath by the bidder in the manner in which pleadings in civil actions are verified.

CHAPTER 28

An act relating to water conservation, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 6, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State April 7, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that water conservation, in conjunction with existing and future major water facilities which provide long-term carryover water storage, is an important and necessary element of providing adequate water supplies at a reasonable cost to meet water needs in accordance with the California Water Plan.

SEC. 2. The Legislature hereby appropriates six hundred thousand dollars ($600,000) from the General Fund to the Department of Water Resources for expenditure during the 1976–1977 and the 1977–1978 fiscal years, for the purpose of making a pilot water conservation study. To the extent feasible, such funds may be commingled with other federal, state, and local funds.

The pilot study shall consist of, but shall not be limited to, the purchase, distribution, and installation, where appropriate, of water conservation devices which reduce shower and toilet consumption. These devices shall consist of, but shall not be limited to, low flow showerheads or showerhead flow restrictors, and toilet tank displacement devices or other toilet tank flow reducing devices. The study shall include the evaluation of distribution methods where devices are distributed free and where individuals pay for the devices. In purchasing devices, the request for bids shall not specify any particular type of toilet or shower device. Upon receipt of bids, the department shall select one or more bids based upon unit price, effectiveness in conserving water, ease of installation, durability, cost-effectiveness, useful life, applicability to widely used bathroom fixtures, and effect on operation of other household water using devices. The department shall assess the effectiveness of installed devices in reducing water and energy consumption, including devices which have been installed by consumers in their own residences.

The pilot study shall be undertaken in at least three communities, selected by the Director of Water Resources, which have varying water supply conditions. The department shall obtain local participation of at least 10 percent of the cost of the pilot study. The department shall submit a preliminary report on the results of the study to the Legislature on or before July 31, 1977, and a final report on or before December 31, 1977.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The Legislature finds and declares that the continuing drought is causing increasing hardships and crises in many areas of the state. The Legislature further finds and declares that the economic, social, and environmental consequences of the drought may be significantly alleviated by a statewide water conservation program which could be implemented by the Legislature, by cities and counties, or by local water districts, if this pilot study is determined to be successful.

In order to implement the conservation methods developed in this pilot study in this critically water short year, it is, therefore, necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 29

An act making an appropriation to pay the claims of Joel A. Valeu, Faye Ann Valeu, and Donald W. Valeu and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Became law without Governors signature April 11, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State April 11, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of two hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($225,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Justice for settlement of the claims of Joel A. Valeu, Faye Ann Valeu, and Donald W. Valeu against the State of California.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to settle, out of court, an action against the state for personal injury, thereby terminating a lengthy court procedure and ending a hardship to the injured person as quickly as possible, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 30

An act to amend Section 2325 of, and to add Section 2280 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to property taxation.

[Became law without Governors signature April 12, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State April 12, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2280 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

2280. (a) A local agency may levy, or have levied on its behalf, a rate in addition to the maximum property tax rate established pursuant to this chapter for purposes authorized by this section.

(b) In the event that a local agency desires to levy a property tax rate for a specified purpose, it shall submit a proposal to levy such a tax to the qualified voters thereof for approval. The proposal shall specify the maximum rate to be levied.

(c) An election held pursuant to this section shall be called, held and conducted in the same manner as required by Article 6 (commencing with Section 2285).

(d) In the event that the qualified voters of a local agency approve an additional property tax rate as provided in this section, such tax rate may be levied for the purpose specified in the ballot proposition.

(e) Once the purpose for which the additional property tax rate was authorized has been accomplished, the additional rate shall terminate.

(f) The proposal may specify a date on which the special property tax rate shall terminate.

SEC. 2. Section 2325 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2325. Annually, no later than 15 days after the property tax rate for a local agency has been fixed, each local agency shall report to the Controller, on a form to be specified by the Controller, the property tax rate levied by, or on behalf of, the agency for the current fiscal year. Such information shall show the amount of the rate, if any, levied pursuant to Sections 2260, 2261, 2262, 2262.1, 2263, 2263.1, 2263.2, 2263.3, 2264, 2265, 2266, 2266.1, 2267, 2270, 2271, 2272, 2273, 2274, 2275, 2276, 2277, 2278, 2279, and 2280. Information with respect to any rate levied pursuant to Section 2270 shall also indicate the rate levied to pay interest and redemption charges on bonded indebtedness, the rate levied to pay the cost of retirement and pension benefits and the rate levied to make payments to special funds as required by charter. The Controller shall, by regulation, require any tax rate exempt from rate limitations imposed by this chapter to be reported in the manner specified by this section.

CHAPTER 31

An act to repeal and add Section 25211.33 of the Government Code, relating to county service areas, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 13, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State April 13, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25211.33 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 25211.33 is added to the Government Code, to read:

25211.3. The Revenue Bond Law of 1941 provided for in Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 54300) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 is applicable to county service areas for the purpose of providing funds for the acquisition, construction, improving or financing of any public improvement authorized by this chapter which is not inconsistent with the provisions of Section 54310. The board may also issue revenue bonds under the Revenue Bond Law of 1941 on behalf of any improvement area created pursuant to this article and any election for the issuance of such revenue bonds shall be limited to the area of such improvement area. If revenue bonds are so issued on behalf of an improvement area:

(a) No proceeds of such revenue bonds shall be used to finance public improvements to provide service outside the area of the improvment area; and

(b) Only revenues which are derived from rates or charges for the providing of service within the area of the improvement area shall be pledged to or used to pay such revenue bonds.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

County service areas are not presently able to issue revenue bonds. This bill would enable county service areas to issue revenue bonds to finance needed improvements and would permit a revenue bond election to be held at the earliest possible date. Therefore, this act must go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 32

An act to amend Sections 384b, 384c, and 384d of the Penal Code, relating to desert plants, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 13, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State April 13, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 384b of the Penal Code is amended to read:

384b. For the purposes of Sections 384c through 384f, inclusive, unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions contained in this section shall govern the construction of such sections. Unless a valid transportation tag issued in California for a tree, shrub, or bough has already been obtained, persons who harvest trees, shrubs or boughs from their own land or the land of another or who are in possession of trees, shrubs or boughs shall, before transporting on the public roads or highways or selling or consigning for removal and transportation over the public roads and highways more than five trees or more than five native desert plants or more than five pounds of other shrubs or boughs, file with the sheriff of each county in which such trees, shrubs or boughs are to be harvested an application for transportation tags and obtain a supply of such transportation tags sufficient to provide one tag for each load of trees, shrubs or boughs to be so transported or sold.

No person shall knowingly make any false statement on any application for such transportation tags and the application shall contain, but is not limited to the following information:

(a) The name and address of the applicant.

(b) The amount and species of trees, shrubs or boughs to be transported.

(c) The name of the county from which the trees, shrubs or boughs are to be removed.

(g) The destination of such trees, shrubs or boughs.

Every applicant shall, at the time of application, show to the sheriff his permit or proof of ownership of the trees, shrubs or boughs. The application forms and transportation tags shall be printed and distributed by the State of California, Department of Justice, to the sheriff of each county.

SEC. 3. Section 384d of the Penal Code is amended to read:

384d. Upon the filing of an application containing the information required by Section 384c, and the presentation of a permit or proof of ownership as required by Section 384c, the county sheriff's office shall issue to persons who harvest or have in their possession, trees, shrubs or boughs within the county sufficient transportation tags stamped with the county seal and identified by the applicant's timber operator permit number, if any, to enable the person transporting any of the trees, shrubs or boughs harvested within the county by the applicant to have a tag accompany each and every load of such trees, shrubs or boughs. Harvesters of trees, shrubs or boughs, when selling from stockpile location, shall furnish to the purchaser of trees, shrubs or boughs a bill of sale and a transportation tag for each load or part thereof bearing the harvester's timber operator permit number, if any, and other information as hereinafter required.

The purchaser of harvested trees, shrubs or boughs or the harvester when transporting his own trees, shrubs or boughs shall have the transportation tag validated by a peace officer in the county of purchase or harvest or by the nearest peace officer in an adjacent county when the transportation route used does not pass an office of a peace officer in the county of purchase or harvest. The validated transportation tag or tags shall remain with the load to the marketing area.

The transportation tags shall be in two parts; one to be retained by the transporting party; one to be retained by the validating peace officer and forwarded to the county sheriff. SEC. 5. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local governmental entities which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Currently, irreparable damage is being done to California deserts by the removal from public and private lands of thousands of native desert plants for resale in another state. In order to preserve the California deserts, it is necessary this act take immediate effect.

An act to add Section 352.1 to the Evidence Code, relating to evidence.

[Approved by Governor April 25, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State April 25, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 352.1 is added to the Evidence Code, to read:

352.1. In any criminal proceeding under Section 261, Section 264.1, subdivision (d) of Section 286, or subdivision (d) of Section 288a of the Penal Code, or in any criminal proceeding under subdivision (c) of Section 286 or subdivision (c) of Section 288a of the Penal Code in which the defendant is alleged to have compelled the participation of the victim by force, violence, duress, menace, or threat of great bodily harm, the district attorney may, upon written motion with notice to the defendant or the defendant's attorney, if he or she is represented by an attorney, within a reasonable time prior to any hearing, move to exclude from evidence the current address and telephone number of any victim at such hearing.

The court may order that evidence of the victim's current address and telephone number be excluded from any hearings conducted pursuant to such criminal proceeding if the court finds that the probative value of such evidence is outweighed by the creation of substantial danger to the victim.

Nothing in this section shall abridge or limit the defendant's right to discover or investigate such information.

CHAPTER 35

An act relating to the Feather River Hospital District, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 25, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State April 25, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding any limitation as to the amount, nature, or purpose of any indebtedness or other obligation referred to in Section 32130 of the Health and Safety Code, the Feather River Hospital District may borrow money on certificates of indebtedness or other evidences of indebtedness in an amount not to exceed seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) for a period not exceeding five years from the date of issuance of such indebtedness. Such certificates of indebtedness or other evidences of indebtedness of the Feather River Hospital District shall be issued, offered for sale, and sold pursuant to the provisions of Section 32130 of the Health and Safety Code, and such certificates of indebtedness or other evidences of indebtedness may bear interest at a rate not exceeding 8 percent per annum. An amount sufficient to pay the principal and interest on indebtedness incurred pursuant to this section shall be set aside annually from funds collected under present property tax limits to meet current expenses of maintenance and operation of the district and shall be used for making such payments.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds in enacting this act that the Feather River Hospital District has a special problem with respect to short-term financing because of malpractice insurance costs and a shortage of physicians, but has a long-term operations plan which would eliminate its financial problem, and, therefore, that a general statute cannot be made applicable.

SEC. 3. This act shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1983, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1983, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order for the Feather River Hospital District to borrow funds so it can continue to operate, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

Any such contract shall require the district or districts whose pupils are receiving educational services thereunder to pay all costs of such educational services which are in excess of the amounts which may be received by the party providing the educational services, apportioned from the State School Fund for the average daily attendance of such pupils. Whenever a county superintendent of schools is a party to such a contract, no tax shall be levied to defray the costs of educational services under the contract by any party other than the school district or districts whose pupils are receiving such educational services.

For the purposes of this section, average daily attendance, and assessed valuation per unit of average daily attendance, shall be as shown by the annual report of the county superintendent of schools

For purposes of this section, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall, by rules and regulations, establish minimum standards for the conduct of the schools or classes, including, but not necessarily limited to, class size, attendance requirements, and requirements concerning records to be kept and reports to be submitted.

1908. (a) The board of supervisors of the county shall transfer from the general fund of the county to the county school service fund of the county superintendent of schools such sums, in excess of the amount of money received from the state by the county superintendent of schools, as the county board of education has deemed necessary to maintain the school programs in the county jail, county industrial farm or county or joint county road camps as described in Section 1906.

(b) The board of supervisors, in lieu of proceeding under subdivision (a), shall agree with the governing board of the school district providing classes or schools for prisoners, to transfer from the general fund of the county to the general fund of the district such sums, in excess of the amount of money received on the basis of average daily attendance in such programs, as is necessary to maintain its school programs in the county jail, county industrial farm or county or joint county road camps as described in Section 1907.

SEC. 9. Section 4200 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

4200. It is the intent and purpose of the Legislature that the procedures prescribed by the provisions of this chapter and Article 2 (commencing with Section 4240) of this chapter be utilized primarily for the formation of unified school districts, and that this form of organization be ultimately adopted throughout the state. It is the further intent of the Legislature that in exercising the authority to approve master plans and plans and recommendations developed at the local level, the State Board of Education consider the boundaries of existing high school districts as the minimum geographical base for the organization of individual unified school districts, to be deviated from only in exceptional situations. The State Board of Education may approve proposals for the formation of districts based upon the division of the territory of existing high school districts, provided that the board has determined, with respect to the proposal and the resulting new districts that the following conditions are substantially met:

(a) That the new districts will be adequate in terms of number of pupils enrolled.

(b) That the new districts will be adequate in terms of financial ability. For purposes of determining financial ability, consideration shall be given to revenue limits per pupil, assessed valuation per pupil, and tax rates. The board may give such consideration as it deems appropriate to federal funds received by a school district under the act of Congress entitled "An act to provide financial assistance for local educational agencies in areas affected by federal activities, and for other purposes," approved September 30, 1950 (Public Law 874—81st Congress) or under any similar act of Congress.

(c) That the new districts are each organized on the basis of a substantial community identity.

(d) That the proposal will result in an equitable division of property and facilities of the original district.

(e) That the proposal and the formation of the new districts will not promote racial or ethnic discrimination or segregation. The State Board of Education may secure the advice and assistance of any other public agencies concerned with intergroup relationships for purposes of making determinations under this subdivision.

The State Board of Education may waive the criteria specified in subdivisions (a) through (e) of this section and may approve a proposal for the formation of two or more unified school districts from the territory of a high school district if the board determines the circumstances with respect to the proposals provide an exceptional situation sufficient to justify approval of the proposals.

The State Board of Education shall adopt rules and regulations to carry out the intent of this section.

SEC. 10. Section 42..0 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

4210. (a) An elementary school which has been included in a unified district because of a reorganization of districts under provisions of this chapter or, under the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 35510) of Chapter 3 of Part 21 of Division 3 of Title 2 or Article 4 (commencing with Section 74160) of Chapter 2 of Part 46 of Division 7 of Title 3 relating to formation of new school districts by petition, shall be maintained as an elementary school by the unified district unless discontinued as provided in this section. The governing board of the unified district may adopt a resolution or order to discontinue the elementary school at any regular or special meeting of the board and the order or resolution shall be in effect after 30 days unless within this period of time a petition is filed with the governing board requesting the continuance of the school signed by the parents or guardians of at least 10 or one-third, whichever number is the greater, of children of elementary school age, who are eligible to attend such school at the time of the petition. The signature of one parent is sufficient to represent all of the children of such parent. The parents or guardians eligible to sign such petitions shall be residents within the boundaries of the component elementary school district which maintained the school prior to the establishment of the unified school district, and shall be qualified electors within such district at the time the petition is filed, and shall have children of elementary school age who attend or are eligible to attend such school. An elementary school which is continued in operation by the filing of a petition pursuant to this section, shall remain in continuance for a period of three school years, unless the petition provides for a shorter period of continuance. If the governing board intends to discontinue the elementary school at the expiration of such period, it shall, commencing at least 90 days prior to the expiration of such period, publish in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, once each week for at least three weeks, a notice of intended discontinuance, and may thereafter adopt a resolution or order as heretofore provided. If a school is discontinued as herein provided, the governing board of the unified school district may maintain the building for community and civic center and other lawful purposes.

(b) Subdivision (a) of this section does not apply to any unified school district which has an average daily attendance of 15,000 or more to a school which is five miles or less from another elementary school.

SEC. 11. Section 4321 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

4321. On receipt of a petition signed by at least 10 percent or 250, whichever is the lesser, of the qualified electors residing in any district for a consideration of unification or other reorganization of any area, the county committee shall hold a public hearing. Following such hearing, the committee shall study further the matter petitioned in the manner herein described in this chapter and shall adopt a tentative recommendation following which action it shall hold one or more public hearings in the area proposed for reorganization as specified in Section 4325. If the petition involves territory already under study by the county committee, no further hearings shall be required.

The public hearing required by this section shall be called by:

(a) Sending a notice to the governing board of each school district or community college district involved at least 10 days prior to the hearing, and

(b) Posting a notice of the hearing as provided in Section 5362 or publishing a notice of the hearing as provided in Section 5363.

The notices shall contain information as to the time, place, and purpose of the hearing.

SEC. 12. Section 4364 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

4364. In any proposal for reorganization of school districts, except a community college district, recommended by a county committee, the committee shall include a provision for the authorization of a revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance for the proposed new district, and such provision shall be an inherent part of the proposal, and shall not be construed as a separate proposition. If the reorganization is approved by the registered voters of the area, such revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance shall be the maximum revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance for the type of new district formed until changed by Section 42238 or by the registered voters of the district in the manner prescribed in Section 42202. Such revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance shall not be less than the revenue limit which would be produced if (1) for the year prior to the fiscal year in which the reorganization becomes effective for all purposes, the sum of the revenue limit of each of the districts proposed to be wholly included and the proportional share of revenue limit of each district to be partially included in the proposed reorganized district is divided by the total number of units of average daily attendance that would have been in the proposed reorganized district had it been reorganized the year prior to the fiscal year in which the reorganization becomes effective for all purposes plus, (2) the revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance required to equal the amount of the difference between the average certificated and the average classified salary of each of the component districts or any portion of a district during the school year prior to that in which the district becomes effective for all purposes and the highest average certificated and highest average classified salary of any component district included in the proposal multiplied by the number of employees in each category less the number of employees in each category of the district having the highest average salaries.

In computing the increase in the revenue limit in subdivision (2) of this section, any school district or a portion of a district to be included in any proposed reorganized district may be considered in determining the highest average salary, provided that such school district or a portion of a district contains at least 10 percent of the total number of certificated and classified employees in the proposed reorganized district, plus (3) the estimated adjustment to the revenue limit per average daily attendance pursuant to Section 42238 that the proposed reorganized district would be allowed had it been reorganized the year prior to the fiscal year in which the reorganization becomes effective for all purposes.

This section shall be subject to Section 42245.

(b) Nomination by sponsors, substantially in the form set forth in subdivision (b) of Section 5032, containing the appropriate information in the blank spaces and signed by at least three but not more than 10 persons each of whom is a registered voter and a parent of a pupil enrolled in a public school in the district.

No candidate whose declaration of candidacy or nomination by sponsors has been filed for any school district or community college district governing board election or county board of education election may withdraw as a candidate after the 68th day prior to the election.

(b) The governing board may either call a runoff election or determine the winner or winners by lot. Prior to conducting any school board election on or after March 1, 1977, the governing board of each school district shall establish which of such procedures is to be employed by the district in the event of a tie vote.

(c) If the governing board decides to determine the winner by lot, the governing board shall forthwith notify the candidates who have received the tie votes to appear before it either personally or by a representative at a time and place designated by the governing board. The governing board shall at that time and place determine the winner or winners by lot.

(d) If the governing board decides to call a runoff election, it shall call a runoff election to be held in the district on the fourth Tuesday following the election at which the tie vote occurred. Only the candidates receiving the tie votes shall appear on the ballots. Any member of the governing board who will be succeeded by a winner of the runoff election and whose term would expire before the winner of the runoff election would be determined shall continue to discharge the duties of his office until his successor has qualified. The runoff election shall be called and conducted substantially in the manner provided in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 5300) of this part, provided, that the governing board shall determine the adjustments of the time requirements prescribed therein which would be necessary in order to conduct the runoff election.

(b) Request the county superintendent of schools having jurisdiction to submit the question of whether the number of members of the governing board shall be increased to five to the voters of the elementary school district at the next regular governing board member election. At the same election two additional members shall be elected to take office if the number of governing board members is increased.

Candidates for the two additional offices or their sponsors shall state in the declarations of candidacy or nominations filed for the election that the candidates are candidates for the two additional offices separately from the other offices to be filled in the election and shall clearly indicate to the voters that they may vote for two of the candidates to take office if the voters approve the proposed increase in the number of board members.

If the voters at such election do not approve such an increase in membership of the governing board, the same question may be submitted to the voters at subsequent governing board member elections. Requests to the county superintendent to submit the question to the voters of a district shall be filed with him by the governing board of the district no later than 100 days prior to the election.

If, pursuant to either subdivision (a) or subdivision (b) of this section, two additional governing board members are authorized and elected, the one receiving the higher number of votes shall hold office for a term of four years from April 1st succeeding the election, and the other one shall hold office for a term of two years from April 1st succeeding the election. (c) In addition to the amounts authorized to be transferred to Section A of the State School Fund under subdivisions (a) and (b) of this section, the Controller shall transfer from the General Fund to Section A of the State School Fund during the fiscal year, upon certification of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, if necessary to meet actual computed apportionments for the fiscal year for the purposes set forth in Sections 41300 and 41301, an amount not to exceed the lesser of: (1) 1 percent of the total apportionment from Section A of the State School Fund in the preceding fiscal year for the purposes set forth in Sections 41300 and 41301, or (2) the net amount, if any, by which the total amounts authorized to be transferred from the General Fund to Section A of the State School Fund under subdivisions (a) and (b) of this section in prior fiscal years have exceeded the total amounts actually apportioned in prior fiscal years for the purposes set forth in Sections 41300 and 41301.

(d) He shall also transfer to Section A of the State School Fund any additional amounts appropriated thereto by the Legislature in augmentation of any of the amounts for any of the purposes set forth in Sections 41300 and 41301 and such additional amounts shall be allowed and apportioned by the Superintendent of Public Instruction and warrants therefor drawn by the Controller in the manner provided in Article 1 (commencing with Section 14000) and Article 2 (commencing with Section 14040) of Chapter 1 of Part 9 of this division, and Article 3 (commencing with Section 41330) of Chapter 3 of Part 24 of Division 3 of Title 2, and in Sections 46304, 84503, and 41050, and Article 1 (commencing with Section 41600) of Chapter 4 of Part 24 of Division 3 of Title 2.

(e) Commencing with the 1974–75 fiscal year, the unit amounts under subdivisions (a) and (b) of this section shall be considered to be cumulatively increased or decreased, as the case may be, by an amount equal to the percentage increase or decrease of the statewide ratio of assessed valuation per unit of kindergarten through grade 12 statewide average daily attendance, excluding defined adults, using in such ratios the data for the preceding year compared with the second preceding year.

For the 1974–75 fiscal year, each elementary and high school foundation program shall be increased by sixty dollars ($60) except that if the percentage increase of the statewide ratio of assessed valuation per unit of average daily attendance in kindergarten and grades 1 to 12, inclusive, determined in subdivision (e) is less than seven, the sixty dollars ($60) shall be reduced proportionately, but to no less than fifty dollars ($50).

The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall prepare a report for the Legislature, to be submitted by December 1, 1976, which shall show the most current trends in costs for school districts, equalization of school district expenditures per average daily attendance, equalizations of property taxation for schools, adequacy levels in expenditures per average daily attendance, school enrollment, assessed valuations, assessed valuation per average daily attendance, and general cost changes in the state for the purpose of giving the Legislature information that the Legislature may use to enact new provisions about increases or decreases in the foundation programs for public school support.

(f) The amounts transferred pursuant to this section shall include the amounts required to be transferred by Section 16130 of the Government Code, exclusive of the amounts required to be transferred pursuant to Section 16130 of the Government Code for the educational need factor and the Early Childhood Educational Program (Chapter 1147, Statutes of 1972).

SEC. 60. Section 14003 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

14003. The State Controller shall during each fiscal year, commencing with the 1974–75 fiscal year, transfer from the General Fund to Section A of the State School Fund such amount, in addition to all other amounts appropriated and transferred to Section A of the State School Fund, as shall provide in Section A of the State School Fund for apportionment during the fiscal year a total amount per pupil in average daily attendance during the preceding fiscal year credited to all elementary, high, and unified school districts and to all county superintendents of schools in the state as certified by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, of twenty-five dollars and forty-five cents ($25.45) in the 1976–77 fiscal year and an additional six dollars and thirty-seven cents ($6.37) in each fiscal year thereafter to a maximum of thirty-eight dollars and nineteen cents ($38.19).

The amounts transferred pursuant to this section shall be apportioned and disbursed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction as an increase per unit of average daily attendance in the foundation program prescribed in Section 41716 and as prescribed in Section 41716.5.

SEC. 61. Section 14020 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

14020. (a) The State Controller shall during each fiscal year transfer from the General Fund of the state to that portion of the State School Fund restricted for community college purposes, hereinafter called Section B of the State School Fund, such sums, in addition to the sums accruing from other sources, as shall provide in Section B of the State School Fund for apportionment during the fiscal year a total amount per pupil in average daily attendance during the preceding fiscal year credited to all community colleges and adult schools maintained in conjunction with community colleges in the state, as certified by the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, of one hundred eighty dollars ($180).

(b) The Controller shall also transfer, as needed during each fiscal year, such additional amounts from the General Fund to Section B of the State School Fund as are certified from time to time by the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges to be necessary to meet actual computed apportionments from the State School Fund for the purposes set forth in Section 84300; provided that the total of such additional amounts transferred in a fiscal year shall not exceed, except pursuant to subdivision (c) of this section, four hundred thirty-four dollars and four cents ($434.04) for the 1976–77 fiscal year and fiscal years thereafter, per pupil in average daily attendance during the preceding fiscal year credited to all community colleges in the state, as certified by the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges.

(c) In addition to the amounts authorized to be transferred to Section B of the State School Fund from the General Fund under subdivisions (a) and (b) of this section, the Controller shall transfer from the General Fund to Section B of the State School Fund during each fiscal year, commencing with 1977–78, upon certification of the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, an amount sufficient to increase state apportionments as required pursuant to Sections 84764 and 84765.

(d) In addition to the amounts authorized to be transferred to Section B of the State School Fund from the General Fund under subdivisions (a) and (b) of this section, the Controller shall transfer from the General Fund to Section B of the State School Fund during the fiscal year, upon certification of the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, if necessary to meet actual computed apportionments for the fiscal year for the purposes set forth in Section 84300, an amount not to exceed 1 percent of the total apportionment from Section B of the State School Fund in the preceding fiscal year for the purposes set forth in Section 84300.

(e) He shall also transfer to Section B of the State School Fund any additional amounts appropriated thereto by the Legislature in augmentation of any of the amounts prescribed for any of the purposes set forth in Section 84300 and such additional amounts shall be allowed and apportioned by the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges and warrants therefor drawn by the Controller in the manner provided in Article 1 (commencing with Section 14000) and Article 2 (commencing with Section 14040) of Chapter 1 of Part 9 of this division, and Article 3 (commencing with Section 41330) of Chapter 3 of Part 24 of Division 3 of Title 2, and in Sections 41050, 46304, and 84503, and Article 1 (commencing with Section 41600) of Chapter 4 of Part 24 of Division 3 of Title 2.

SEC. 62. Section 15104 of the Education Code as added by Chapter 1011 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

15104. The bond issuance limitation in Section 15102 may, upon a favorable vote of two-thirds of the votes cast thereon in the district, be increased to not to exceed 7 percent of the taxable property of the district as shown by the last equalized assessment of the county or counties in which the district is located, and as modified pursuant to Section 41201 or 84201.

All statutory references to the limitation in Section 15102 shall be deemed to refer to the limitations in Section 15102 or this section, whichever may be applicable.

This section shall remain in effect until July 1, 1978, and shall thereafter be of no force or effect, provided that the termination of the effective period of this section shall in no way be construed as affecting the validity of bonds authorized pursuant to authority afforded thereunder prior to July 1, 1978.

SEC. 63. Section 16035 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

16035. The board may approve, in whole or in part, an application submitted by a school district under Section 16024 and in such amount, not exceeding the amount applied for, as the board may deem appropriate.

The board may, upon approval of the application, in whole or in part, and subsequently from time to time, make a conditional apportionment or conditional apportionments not exceeding in the aggregate the total amount determined by the board as aforesaid, to the applicant school district from the State School Building Aid Fund for such portion or portions of the construction project as the board determines the district is ready to proceed with. If the board has approved an application and made an apportionment as to a portion or portions of a construction project, the board may approve the remaining portion or portions of the construction project and make an additional apportionment or apportionments within two years after the original approval without requiring a district to issue additional bonds. The board may also make an additional apportionment or apportionments for a period of time in excess of two years after the original approval without requiring a district to issue additional bonds if it has made a finding that such additional apportionment or apportionments are justified by virtue of the fact that state funds were not available for apportionment within the two-year period after the original approval because of the inability of the state to sell authorized state bonds within the maximum permitted interest rate.

If the board determines that the actual cost is in excess of the estimated cost of the specific school plant facilities or sites for which an apportionment to a district has been made, or for which a district's application has been approved in whole or in part pursuant to this section, the board may make an additional apportionment to such district in an amount equal to such excess even though such additional apportionment will result in the total apportionments to the district exceeding the amount of the application originally approved by the board. Before such additional apportionment becomes final the district, pursuant to Section 16058, shall hold an election to repay the amount of such additional apportionment which is in excess of the amount which the district has previously voted to repay. Such additional apportionment shall become final when the county superintendent of schools transmits to the board and the State Controller a certificate in duplicate stating that the school district has authorized the acceptance and expenditure of the necessary amount of such excess. If such additional apportionments are made by the board within two years after the original approval, except an apportionment made final pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 16058, the district shall not be required to issue additional bonds.

Except as otherwise provided in this section, all provisions of this chapter relating to apportionments shall apply to apportionments made under this section.

Whenever an apportionment has heretofore been made or is hereafter made to a district for a site and the district heretofore or hereafter proposes to acquire the site through negotiation or condemnation but the total acquisition cost thereof, plus all other costs incidental to either the acquisition or condemnation of the site, exceeds or exceeded the apportionment for the site, the board may at any time hereafter make an additional apportionment to provide for the differential in total acquisition cost without the district being required to issue additional bonds to qualify, providing the board finds (1) that it is in the interest of the state to proceed with the acquisition despite the acquisition costs, and (2) that the district is unable to provide, or it would be a hardship to require it to provide, the excess costs. The board may also, in its discretion, as a condition of making such apportionment, require the district to repay in full all or any part of the excess apportionment, under such terms and conditions as the board deems desirable, and the district shall be empowered and obligated to comply if it accepts the excess apportionment, notwithstanding any other law to the contrary; provided, (1) that no such repayment shall be required from any source that would be exempt from required contribution toward the cost of a project under Sections 16024 and 16031 (excepting amounts in the General Fund raised by taxes to pay any judgment requiring such repayment), and (2) that any portion of the apportionment not required to be repaid in full, shall be repayable in the same manner as a construction apportionment.

Approval of an application under this section shall not be construed as creating or implying any obligation, commitment or promise on the part of the board or the state to make apportionments under this chapter.

SEC. 64. Section 16040 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

16040. In any month in which the priority point procedures prescribed by Section 16007 are utilized, the board may apportion to school districts, under Section 16039, not more than the sum of four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000); provided that any amount apportioned or made final pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 16058 shall not be subject to such limitation.

SEC. 65. Section 16044 of the Education Code as amended by Chapter 1011 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

16044. No apportionment shall be made for new construction which, when added to the area of adequate school construction existing in the applicant school district at the time of application, will provide a total area of school building construction per unit of average daily attendance of the estimated average daily attendance in excess of that computed in accordance with Sections 16047, 16052, 16053, 16054 and 16055.

As used in Sections 16047, 16052, 16053, 16054 and 16055, "maximum area" means maximum area of school building construction and "attendance unit" means unit of estimated average daily attendance.

As used in this section and Sections 16053, 16054, and 16055, "attendance center" means a school maintained or to be maintained at a given location within a district. The Department of Education or board of governors as is appropriate to their jurisdiction shall approve or disapprove the allocation by an applicant district of units of estimated average daily attendance among the attendance centers of the district.

To the building area permitted to an applicant school district by Sections 16047, 16052, 16053, 16054 and 16055, there may be added such additional building area as may be required to provide adequate facilities for exceptional children pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 16190) of this chapter.

No estimate of average daily attendance made by an applicant for the purpose of justifying an apportionment shall be made for a longer time than the third fiscal year beyond the fiscal year in which an application is made, except that an estimate for the purpose of justifying an apportionment for a grade level maintained by a unified district, under an application filed prior to September 15, 1961, or by a high school district composed of grades 7 to 12, inclusive, 9 to 12, inclusive, or 7 to 10, inclusive, or of justifying an apportionment for a unified district for a junior high school or high school project under an application made on or after such effective date shall not be made for a longer time than the fourth fiscal year beyond the fiscal year in which the application is made. Except as otherwise provided by the board, the estimates of average daily attendance shall be based upon the number of family dwellings and mobilehome parks, as defined in Section 18214 of the Health and Safety Code, under construction or newly constructed and never occupied in the district and the number of children residing in the district. In no case shall an estimate be given effect unless approved by the board.

For the purposes of this chapter pupils attending grades 7 and 8 in an elementary district but residing in a high school district which maintains one or more junior high schools shall not be considered in determining or estimating the average daily attendance of the elementary district, unless the elementary district is maintaining and has continuously maintained grades 7 and 8 since a date prior to January 1, 1959, or unless the electorate of the district, during the year 1974, has authorized the return of the seventh and eighth grade pupils from the high school district and the maintaining of grades 7 and 8 in the elementary district. When pupils attending grades 7 and 8 are so considered in determining or estimating the average daily attendance of the elementary district, such pupils shall not be considered in determining or estimating average daily attendance of the high school district in making an apportionment to the high school district for junior high school purposes.

The board shall develop statewide or areawide averages of pupil occupancy for family dwellings of various sizes and for mobilehomes of various sizes for use by applicant school districts in estimating the average daily attendance of family dwellings and mobilehome parks under construction or newly constructed and never occupied in the district.

SEC. 66. Section 16057 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

16057. Payment shall be made in accordance with the terms of a final apportionment, either directly or by way of reimbursement, to a school district for expenditures, or commitments therefor, which have been made by the district for any items approved by the board in such apportionment, provided, the construction contract has been let no earlier than two years preceding the date the application is received by the board. Where expenditures were made for, or work was commenced with respect to, any item so approved, prior to the time the application of such district containing such item was received by the board, payment or reimbursement for such item, either with state funds or with district funds which the district is required to contribute by said apportionment, shall be made only upon authorization of the board by special resolution citing this section.

SEC. 67. Section 16058 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

16058. No apportionment to a school district shall become final unless: (a) the total amount of outstanding bonds of the district exceeds ninety-five percent (95%) of the basic bond requirement of the district on the date the conditional apportionment is made, or (b) the total amount of the bonds of the district outstanding and unpaid is within twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) of the basic bond requirement of the district, as of the date on which the conditional apportionment is made, or (c) the district has issued and sold pursuant to this section, and as a condition to the initial conditional apportionment, an amount of bonds equal to the total cost of the project for which the apportionment was made, including necessary contingencies. At the time the board makes a conditional apportionment pursuant to Section 16024, it shall determine the total amount of bonds which shall be issued and sold by such district, the proceeds of which shall be applied toward the cost of the project for which the apportionment is sought; provided, that in the event the school district has previously received apportionments, or has become liable for the repayment of an apportionment, such proceeds shall first be applied toward the reduction, in chronological order beginning with the earliest, of any apportionments previously made to the district, or for the repayment of which the district has become liable in whole or in part, before being applied toward the cost of the project for which an apportionment is sought, provided further that no such proceeds shall be applied toward the reduction of any apportionment for a site made pursuant to Section 16039 prior to the combination of such site apportionment with a construction apportionment pursuant to subsection (d) of Section 16039. The amount so determined by the board shall be not less than the minimum amount required for such apportionment to become final under this section. Any apportionment made by the board pursuant to Section 16024 shall be conditioned upon the approval and sale of such bonds by the district. The amount of any apportionment for a construction project made as a consequence of applying district bond proceeds toward the reduction of prior apportionments pursuant to this section instead of applying the district bond proceeds toward the cost of such construction project, shall be excluded in determining the amount chargeable against the apportionments authorized by the electorate of the district to be accepted, expended and repaid. It is hereby declared that this provision, added by the amendment to this section enacted at the 1958 First Extraordinary Session of the Legislature, is not intended as a change in the law, but rather as a declaration of existing law.

Any provision of this code to the contrary notwithstanding, whenever the electors of a district, subsequent to any requirement by the board for the sale of bonds in connection with an apportionment, authorize the issuance of bonds for any purpose for which an apportionment could lawfully be made, such authorization shall, in addition to the purposes specified, be deemed to constitute the consent of the electors to apply the proceeds of the bonds so required to be sold by the board toward the reduction of any apportionment previously made to such district. Any bond funds used to reduce any apportionment pursuant to this section shall be transferred to the State School Building Aid Fund and shall be available for reapportionment by the board. The amount so determined by the board shall be not less than the minimum amount required for such apportionment to become final under this section. Any apportionment made by the board pursuant to Section 16024 shall be conditioned upon the approval and sale of such bonds by the district.

No apportionment to a school district under this chapter shall become final, nor any agreement authorized by Section 16042 be entered into unless at an election called by the governing board of the district, two-thirds of the qualified electors of the district voting thereat have authorized the governing board to accept, expend and repay as provided in this chapter and apportionment under the provisions thereof or, with respect to said agreement, to obligate the district in an amount equal to or in excess of the maximum amount which the district could be obligated by said agreement, or by any act of its governing board or for which it is responsible, contemplated or permitted thereby. Said election shall be called, held and conducted in the same manner as are elections to authorize the issuance of school district bonds, except that the ballot shall contain substantially the following words:

"Shall the governing board of the district be authorized (1) to accept and expend an apportionment from the State of California under and subject to the provisions of Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 16000) of Part 10 of Division 1 of Title 1 of the Education Code, which amount is subject to repayment as provided by said chapter, or (2) to enter into an agreement or agreements with the state pursuant to Section 16042 of the Education Code, which will at the time of such agreement or agreements (or at the time of any subsequent act of the governing board, or for which it is responsible, contemplated or permitted thereby) commit the district to a total expenditure in connection with all such agreements of not more than _____ dollars ($_____), or both. Yes _____ No _____."

SEC. 68. Section 16063 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

16063. Whenever a conditional apportionment has, prior to January 1, 1977, been made to an applicant school district pursuant to this chapter and thereafter the county superintendent of schools of the county having jurisdiction over such district has certified to the board and the State Controller that at an election called, held and conducted in the district for that purpose, two-thirds of the qualified electors of the district voting thereat authorized the governing board of the applicant school district to accept, expend and repay an apportionment under the provisions of this chapter, and whenever thereafter said county superintendent of schools has certified to the board and the State Controller that the amount of bonds, if any, required by the board, as a condition to the apportionment becoming final, have been issued and sold and the proceeds thereof made available for the purposes of the application and the board has certified to the State Controller that the apportionment to the applicant school district has become final, such final apportionment is hereby confirmed, ratified, and validated, and any expenditure of money from the State School Building Aid Fund according to the terms of such final apportionment is hereby confirmed, ratified, and validated.

Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, no funds authorized by any bond act for the purpose of this chapter shall be made available for expenditure without specific authority of the board or its delegated representative.

Not to exceed four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000) of such sum shall be allocated and expended for architectural and engineering services in connection with the construction.

Sections 16000 to 16006, inclusive, Sections 16009, 16018 and 16021, inclusive, shall be applicable to the administration of this article, unless the context of this article, as determined by the board requires otherwise.

(1) To the surviving spouse, having financial responsibility for at least one dependent child who qualifies under Section 22112 there shall be paid an amount, in monthly installments, equal to 40 percent of the deceased's final compensation, plus 10 percent of such final compensation for each child, up to a maximum of 90 percent of such final compensation. If there are children who are not in the care of the surviving spouse, the amount of the allowance in excess of 40 percent of the final compensation shall be divided equally among all children and is payable to the trustee of the estate of such children under age 18 or their guardian if no trustee is designated or to the children age 18 and over, or

(2) If there is no surviving spouse or the surviving spouse subsequently dies or remarries and there are children who qualify under Section 22112, there shall be paid to the trustee of the estate of surviving children under 18 as designated by the member, or the guardian of such children under age 18 if no trustee is designated, or to the child if over age 18, an amount payable in monthly installments equal to 10 percent of the deceased's final compensation, up to a

The allowance payable under this paragraph shall be increased by application of the benefit improvement factor for time which elapses between the date the member would have reached age 60 and the date the allowances commence to accrue under this paragraph. For the calculation of the benefit, it shall be considered that the member died on the June 30 following the actual date of death and the spouse reached age 60 on the June 30 prior to attainment of that age, but the allowance shall not begin to accrue until the spouse attains age 60.

(4) If there is no surviving spouse or children entitled to allowances under paragraphs (1), (2), or (3) at the time of the member's death, the dependent parent, age 60, or upon attainment of that age, shall receive an allowance based on projected service and projected earned salary equal to the amount which would have been paid if the member had retired at age 60 and elected option number 3. If there are two parents who qualify under this paragraph, the total benefit will be computed on the assumption that the youngest parent is the beneficiary, and the total shall be divided equally for so long as there are two such qualifying parents. Otherwise, the total amount shall be payable to the one who qualifies.

The benefits payable under paragraphs (1) and (2) because of the death of a disabilitant shall be based on projected salary.

The payment of such allowance to the beneficiary shall be in lieu of the family allowance provided in Section 23804 and the payment provided in subdivision (a) of Section 23100 and paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 23800, except that if the beneficiary dies before all accumulated contributions are paid the balance if any shall be paid to the estate of the person last receiving or entitled to receive the allowance. The accumulated annuity deposit contributions and accumulated tax-sheltered annuity contributions, and the amount provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) of Section 23800, shall be paid the designated beneficiary in a lump sum.

The geological and soil engineering studies of the site shall be of such a nature as will preclude siting of a school in any location where the geological and site characteristics are such that the construction effort required to make the school building safe for occupancy is economically unfeasible. No such studies need be made if the site or sites under consideration have been the subject of adequate prior studies. The evaluation shall also include location of the site with respect to population, transportation, water supply, waste disposal facilities, utilities, traffic hazards, surface drainage conditions, and other factors affecting the operating costs, as well as the initial costs, of the total project.

For the purposes of this article, a special studies zone is defined as one which is shown on any map, or maps, compiled by the State Geologist pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 2621) of Division 2 of the Public Resources Code. A copy of the report of each investigation conducted pursuant to this section shall be submitted to the Department of Education.

SEC. 142. Section 39140 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

39140. The Department of General Services under the police power of the state shall supervise the design and construction of any school building or, if the estimated cost exceeds twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), the reconstruction or alteration of or addition to any school building, to ensure that plans and specifications comply with the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this article and building regulations published in the State Building Standards Code, and to ensure that the work of construction has been performed in accordance with the approved plans and specifications, for the protection of life and property. Nothing in this section shall be construed to allow a school district to perform work with its own forces in excess of the limitations set forth in Section 39640 and 39649.

SEC. 143. Section 39143 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

39143. The Department of General Services shall pass upon and approve or reject all plans for the construction or, if the estimated cost exceeds twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), the alteration of any school building. To enable it to do so, the governing board of each school district and any other school authority before adopting any plans for such school building shall submit the plans to the Department of General Services for approval, and shall pay the fees prescribed in this article.

Where the estimated cost of an alteration exceeds ten thousand dollars ($10,000) but does not exceed twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), a structural engineer shall examine the proposed project to determine if it is a nonstructural alteration or a structural alteration. If he determines that the project is a nonstructural alteration, he shall prepare a statement so indicating. If he determines that the project is structural, he shall prepare plans and specifications for the project and shall observe the work of construction. A copy of the engineer's report stating that the work does not affect structural elements, or a copy of the plans and specifications for structural work, as the case may be, shall be filed with the Department of General Services.

SEC. 144. Section 39149 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

39149. As of January 1, 1978, the persons employed as inspectors of record to inspect the construction, reconstruction or alteration of any school building shall be either (a) persons who are registered as construction inspectors in the divisions in which they are to be used, as defined by Section 9101 of the Business and Professions Code or (b) persons who are regularly employed for building code enforcement by the local agency having responsibility for such inspection, and are qualified to perform such inspections under the civil service laws or regulations of such local agency.

Persons employed as assistants to inspectors of record shall be registered construction inspectors or shall be enrolled as inspectors-in-training in the divisions in which they are to be used, as defined by Section 9101.1 of the Business and Professions Code. This section shall not apply to any architect, structural engineer, civil engineer, land surveyor, mechanical engineer, engineering geologist, or electrical engineer, who holds a valid certificate of registration in this state, insofar as he is practicing within the provisions of the law under which he is registered. This section shall not apply to an inspector approved by the Office of Architecture and Construction and employed pursuant to a particular building contract prior to January 1, 1978, during the performance of that building contract.

SEC. 145. Section 39210 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

39210. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) By an urgency act (Stats. 1933, Ch. 59), the Legislature at the 1933 General Session established reasonable minimum standards for the design and construction of new school buildings, as now defined in Section 39141. Although it was not required that then existing school buildings incorporate these standards, it was intended by the Legislature that in the intervening years continuous progress would be made in the repair, reconstruction or replacement of such school buildings.

(b) Progress toward this end has been outstanding since 1971 as a result of state funds being made available for rehabilitating or replacing structurally unsafe school facilities.

SEC. 145.5. Section 39214 of the Education Code, as amended by Chapter 1011 of the Statutes of 1976, is amended to read:

39214. "School building" as used in this article excludes any building which is used exclusively for warehouse, storage, garage, or districtwide administrative office purposes, into which pupils are not required to enter, and buildings utilized by adult schools for off campus, voluntary adult education courses or registered apprentice courses.

"School building" as used in this article excludes any building owned or occupied by a unifed school district, high school district, or a county superintendent of schools which is used exclusively for adult education purposes.

If any building so excluded was not constructed in accordance with Article 3 (commencing with Section 39140) of this chapter and was not repaired, reconstructed, or replaced in accordance with this article, there shall be posted in a conspicuous place on such building a public notice stating that such building does not meet the structural standards imposed by law for earthquake safety.

SEC. 146. Section 39227 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

39227. No school building examined and found to be unsafe for school use pursuant to Section 39212 and not repaired or reconstructed in accordance with the provisions of this article, and no school building which has never met the requirements of Article 3 (commencing with Section 39140) of this chapter, shall be used as a school building for elementary or secondary school purposes after June 30, 1975, except as permitted by Article 7 (commencing with Section 39240) of this chapter, unless the governing board of the school district has requested and obtained from the State Allocation Board authority for use of such building for a specific period beyond such date. Prior to requesting such authority, the governing board shall adopt a resolution declaring the board's intention to utilize the building as a school building after June 30, 1975, pending its repair, reconstruction, or replacement. The State Allocation Board shall not authorize any school district to use such a building beyond June 30, 1975, unless it has first determined that the school district has already proceeded with a plan of total repair, reconstruction or replacement in a timely manner and a contract has been let for any phase of, and work commenced on, such project. In no event shall the State Allocation Board authorize the use of such unsafe facilities for a period extending beyond the completion of the replacement facilities or beyond June 30, 1977, whichever occurs first.

For purposes of this section, "school building" does not include any portable building. Portable buildings may be used beyond June 30, 1975 to meet temporary housing needs until all repair, reconstruction or replacement of all district school buildings is complete or until June 30, 1977, whichever occurs first, provided that the governing board of the district has requested and obtained from the State Allocation Board authority for use of such portable buildings. The State Allocation Board may grant such authority only to those districts in which 20 percent or more of the schools are subject to partial or complete reconstruction pursuant to Section 39212. Any portable buildings for which authority is granted for temporary use pursuant to this section shall not be subject to the provisions of Article 3 (commencing with Section 39140) or Article 6 (commencing with Section 39210) of this chapter during the period of such authorized use.

SEC. 147. Section 39230 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 1011 of the Statutes of 1976, is amended to read:

39230. The governing board of a school district may undertake corrective measures relating to earthquake safety recommended to the governing board pursuant to Section 39212 in connection with any school building under the jurisdiction of the governing board without compliance with the procedures otherwise prescribed by Section 39216.

The maximum rate of tax of any school district for the fiscal years 1974–75 to 1976–77, inclusive, is hereby increased by such amount as will produce the amount necessary to have any school buildings examined as required by Section 39212 and to effect the corrective structural repairs, reconstruction or replacement relating to earthquake safety recommended pursuant to Section 39212, as shown by the budget of the district for such school year as finally adopted by the governing board of the district, less any unencumbered balances remaining at the end of the preceding school year derived from revenue from the increase in the rate of tax provided by this section. The funds provided by such increase in the tax rate may be used to provide for the housing of pupils temporarily displaced by the repair, reconstruction, or replacement of school buildings required in order to meet earthquake safety standards.

The increase provided by this section shall not exceed a total increase of ten cents ($0.10) for each one hundred dollars ($100) of the assessed valuation of property within the district in each fiscal year, unless additional funds are specifically required by the district to match state funds provided pursuant to Article 9 (commencing with Section 16310) of Chapter 8 of Part 10 of Division 1 of Title 1. If such additional funds are required by the district, the maximum increase in tax rate provided by this section may be increased by not to exceed an additional ten cents ($0.10) for each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed valuation of property within the district in each fiscal year such additional funds are required pursuant to Article 9, prior to and including the 1973–74 fiscal year. Such additional tax money may be levied in the 1974–75 fiscal year only if the State Allocation Board has first approved an application of the district pursuant to Article 9. After the 1974–75 fiscal year, any district which has levied the entire twenty-cent ($0.20) amount permitted by this section in the preceding fiscal year and has deposited in the State School Building Fund of the district, the proceeds derived therefrom as matching funds in an application or applications under Article 9 may levy the same twenty-cent ($0.20) tax or so much thereof as is necessary for matching funds for an application or applications under Article 9 in any succeeding fiscal year, including, but not beyond, the 1976–77 fiscal year.

This section shall remain operative only until July 1, 1978, and as of such date is repealed.

Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the governing board shall comply with the provisions of Section 39212 whenever such compliance is necessary to continue the program of corrective structural repairs, reconstruction, or replacement required pursuant to the provisions of this article.

SEC. 148. Section 39321 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

39321. The governing board of the school district shall obtain the general prevailing rate of per diem wages from the Director of the Department of Industrial Relations for each craft, classification or type of workman needed for the construction of the building and shall specify in the resolution and in the notice, required by Section 39314, or in the resolution required by Section 39315 and in the lease or agreement made pursuant to this article, what the general prevailing rate of per diem wages and the general prevailing rate for holiday and overtime work in the locality is for each craft, classification or type of workmen needed for the construction of the building. The holidays upon which such rate shall be paid need not be specified by the governing board, but shall be all holidays recognized in the collective-bargaining agreement applicable to the particular craft, classification or type of workmen employed on the project.

Any agreement or lease entered into pursuant to this article shall require that such general prevailing rates will be paid. It shall also require that work performed by any workman employed upon the project in excess of eight hours during any one calendar day shall be permitted only upon compensation for all hours worked in excess of eight hours per day at not less than 1½ times the basic rate of pay. There may also be included in leases or agreements entered into pursuant to this article any other requirements with respect to matters related to the subject of this section which the governing board deems necessary or desirable.

SEC. 149. Section 39363.5 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

39363.5. Except as provided for in Article 2 (commencing with Section 39030) of Chapter 1 of this part, the sale or lease with an option to purchase of real property by a school district shall be in accordance with the following priorities and procedures:

(a) First, the property shall be offered for park or recreational purposes pursuant t › Article 8 (commencing with Section 54220) of Chapter 5 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, in any instance in which such article is applicable.

(b) Second, the property shall be offered for sale or lease with an option to purchase, at fair market value;

(1) In writing, to the state, the Regents of the University of California, the Trustees of the California State University and Colleges, the county and city in which the property is situated, and to any public housing authority in the county in which the property is situated; and

(2) By public notice to any public district, public authority, public agency, public corporation, or any other political subdivision in this state, to the federal government, and to nonprofit charitable corporations organized pursuant to Part 3 (commencing with Section 10200) of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code. Public notice shall consist of at least publishing its intention to dispose of the real property in a newspaper of general circulation within the district, or if there is no such newspaper, then in any newspaper of general circulation that is regularly circulated in the district. The notice shall specify that the property is being made available to all public districts, public authorities, public agencies, and other political subdivisions or public corporations in this state, and to other nonprofit charitable corporations.

Publication of notice pursuant to this section shall be once each week for three successive weeks. Three publications in a newspaper regularly published once a week or more often, with at least five days intervening between the respective publication dates not counting such publication dates, are sufficient. The written notice required by paragraph (1) of this subdivision shall be mailed no later than the date of the second published notice.

The entity desiring to purchase or lease the property shall, within 60 days after the third publication of notice, notify the school district of its intent to purchase or lease the property. If the entity desiring to purchase or lease the property and the district are unable to arrive at a mutually satisfactory price or lease payment during the 60-day period, the property may be disposed of as otherwise provided in this section. In the event the district receives offers from more than one entity pursuant to this subdivision, the school district governing board may, in its discretion, determine which of such offers to accept.

(c) Third, the property shall be made available in writing to the former owner, in accordance with Section 39369.5.

(d) Fourth, the property may be disposed of in any other manner authorized by law.

SEC. 150. Section 39440 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

39440. Any school district may enter into leases and agreements relating to real property and buildings to be used jointly by the district and any private person, firm, or corporation pursuant to this article. As used in this article, "building" includes onsite and offsite facilities, utilities and improvements which as agreed upon by the parties are appropriate for the proper operation or function of the building to be occupied jointly by the district and the private person, firm, or corporation. It also includes the permanent improvement of school grounds.

Any building, or portion thereof, which is used by a private person, firm, or corporation pursuant to this section shall be subject to the zoning and building code requirements of the local jurisdiction in which the building is situated.

Section 53094 of the Government Code shall not be applicable to uses of school district property or buildings authorized by this section, except in the case of property or buildings used solely for educational purposes.

SEC. 151. Section 39602 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

39602. The governing board of any school district may, by resolution, establish a fund or funds for losses, including but not limited to, school district property, any liability, and workers' compensation in the county treasury for the purpose of covering the deductible amount under deductible types of insurance policies or losses due to noninsured perils. In the fund or funds shall be placed such sums, to be provided in the budget of the school district, as will create an amount which, together with investments made from the fund or funds, will be sufficient in the judgment of the governing board to protect the school district from such losses on the deductible amount under deductible types of insurance policies or losses due to noninsured perils. Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting the governing board from providing protection against such losses partly by means of the fund or funds and partly by means of insurance written by insurers as provided in Section 39601. A school district may contract for claims adjustment and related services. The cost of such services is an appropriate charge against the appropriate fund.

The fund or funds shall be considered as separate and apart from all other funds of the school district, and the balance therein shall not be considered as being part of the working cash of the school district in compiling annual budgets.

Warrants shall not be drawn on or transfers made from the fund or funds so created; except to reimburse or indemnify the school district for losses as herein specified, and only upon resolution duly adopted by the board of education.

The cash placed in the fund or funds may be invested and reinvested by the county treasurer, with the advice and consent of the governing board of the school district, in securities which are legal investments for surplus county funds in this state. The income derived from such investments, together with interest earned on uninvested funds, shall be considered revenue of and be deposited in the fund.

SEC. 152. Section 39651 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

39651. The governing board of any school district may purchase supplementary textbooks, library books, educational films, audiovisual materials, test materials, workbooks, or periodicals in any amount needed for the operation of the schools of the district without taking estimates or advertising for bids.

SEC. 153. Section 39674 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

39674. The governing board of any school district having an average daily attendance of not less than 5,000 nor more than 7,000, which has not established a security patrol pursuant to this article, may contract with any private patrol operator licensed pursuant to Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 7500) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code to aid in the security of the school district's real and personal property; provided however, that notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, no employee of any such private patrol operator shall carry any firearm at any time while performing duties in any school building or on the grounds of any school pursuant to such a contract. Expenditures in any fiscal year for such service shall not exceed four thousand five hundred dollars ($4,500).

For purposes of this section there shall not be included in the average daily attendance of an elementary school district, the attendance of pupils attending the seventh and eighth grades of a junior high school maintained by a high school district.

This section shall remain in effect only until July 1, 1978, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 154. Section 39830 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

39830. A schoolbus is defined as any motor vehicle while being used for the transportation of any school pupil at or below the 12th-grade level to and from a public or private school or to and from public or private school activities, except the following:

(a) A passenger vehicle designed for and when actually carrying not more than eight persons, including the driver, or a motortruck transportating pupils who are seated only in the passenger compartment, except any such vehicle or truck transporting two or more handicapped pupils confined to wheelchairs.

(b) A 9-passenger or 10-passenger station wagon when used for the transportation of not more than eight pupils and the driver, other than the regular transportation of pupils to and from a public or private school or the transportation of mentally retarded or physically handicapped pupils.

(c) A motor vehicle of any type carrying only members of the household of the owner thereof.

(d) A motor vehicle operated by a common carrier, or by and under exclusive jurisdiction of a publicly owned transit system, at the time it is on a scheduled run and is available to the general public.

(e) A motor vehicle operated by a common carrier, or by and under the exclusive jurisdiction of a publicly owned transit system, or by a passenger charter-party carrier and used under a contractual agreement to transport pupils to and from school activities but not used regularly to transport pupils to and from a public or private school.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, the governing board of a district maintaining a community college may, by resolution, designate any motor vehicle operated by or for the district, a schoolbus within the meaning of this section, while it is being used for the transportation of any community college students to and from a public community college or to and from public community college activities. The designation shall not be effective until written notification thereof has been filed with the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

A vehicle defined as a "schoolbus" or exempt under subdivision (d) or (e) which is occupied, aside from the driver, exclusively by school pupils or exclusively by school pupils and persons accompanying them for supervisory purposes, to which the use by the general public is prohibited by the carrier under a contract or agreement with the school and which is being operated to transport pupils to and from a public or private school activity, shall be driven by a driver who possesses a valid California schoolbus driver's certificate as provided for pursuant to regulations adopted by the State Board of Education. Such regulations, however, shall not require drivers who operate such vehicles to duplicate training or schooling that they have otherwise received which is equivalent to that required pursuant to such regulations, nor shall such regulations require drivers who operate such vehicles to take training in first aid; provided, a valid California schoolbus driver's certificate shall not entitle the bearer to drive any other vehicle than that specified in this subdivision, and such driver's certificate shall distinguish drivers who have received a schoolbus driver's certificate pursuant to such regulations.

SEC. 155. Section 40000 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

40000. The county board of education shall on or before the first day of February of each year establish rules and regulations under which any school district in the county shall, except as provided in Section 40002, purchase standard school supplies and equipment through the county superintendent of schools, or when so directed by him, through a county purchasing agent.

When the county superintendent of schools purchases standard school supplies without directing their purchase through the county purchasing agent or other county, city, or school district agent or agency, he shall make such purchase from the lowest responsible bidder who shall give such security as the county superintendent of schools requires, or else reject all bids. For the purpose of securing bids, the county superintendent of schools shall publish at least once a week for two weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county, a notice calling for bids stating where the list and specifications of standard school supplies and equipment to be furnished may be obtained and the time when, and the place where bids will be opened.

The county board of education shall list as standard school supplies and equipment such supplies and equipment as can be advantageously purchased in quantity. The list of standard school supplies shall be accompanied by a table of specifications giving the minimum grade, quality, substance, or other standard required for the purchase of each item listed.

The cost of advertising for bids and the cost of preparation of a table of specifications shall be paid from the county general fund.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to counties of the first or second class containing no more than three districts with an average daily attendance of less than 2,500.

SEC. 156. Section 40013 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

40013. The governing board of a school district may pay in advance for postage stamps, admission tickets, permits and services provided by other governmental agencies, subscriptions to, or purchases or rentals of, newspapers, magazines, periodicals, single copies of books, films, filmstrips, recordings, and other publications, payments on leases of real property, and for the maintenance of equipment under agreements not exceeding one year for the district and the schools thereof when such action will result in a decrease in the cost to the district or which cannot be secured without payment in advance.

SEC. 157. Section 41015 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

41015. The governing board of any school district which, on or after May 28, 1943, has funds in a special reserve fund of the district or any surplus moneys not required for the immediate necessities of the district, is hereby authorized to invest all or any part of such funds in bonds, notes, bills, certificates, debentures or other obligations, issued by the United States of America, bank time certificates, savings and loan deposits, or obligations issued by banks for cooperatives, federal land banks, federal intermediate credit banks, federal home loan banks, the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, the Tennessee Valley Authority, or in obligations, participations, or other instruments of or issued by, or fully guaranteed as to principal and interest by, the Federal National Mortgage Association; or in participation certificates evidencing beneficial interests in obligations, or in the right to receive interest and principal collections therefrom, which obligations have been subjected by one or more government agencies to a trust or trusts for which any executive department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States (or the head thereof) has been named to act as trustee.

Any bonds, notes, bills or certificates, debentures or other obligations, so purchased may be sold and the proceeds reinvested in similar bonds, notes, bills or certificates, debentures or other obligations, of the United States of America, its agencies, or its instrumentalities, or placed in the county treasury for credit to the fund of the district from which purchased. This section shall not be construed as in any way limiting or modifying the application of any other law providing for or authorizing the investment of any funds of a school district. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, interest earned on funds representing the proceeds of bonds of the district shall be deposited and retained in the interest and sinking fund of the district to meet the principal and interest falling due on such bonds.

SEC. 158. Section 41020 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

41020. Not later than the first day of May of each fiscal year each county superintendent of schools shall provide for an audit of all funds under his jurisdiction and control and the governing board of each district shall either provide for an audit of the books and accounts of the district or make arrangements with the county superintendent of schools having jurisdiction over the district to provide for such auditing. In the event the governing board of a school district has not provided for an audit of the books and accounts of the district by April 1st, the county superintendent of schools having jurisdiction over the district shall provide for the audit.

Each audit shall include all funds of the district including the student body and cafeteria funds and accounts and any other funds under the control or jurisdiction of the district; funds of regional occupational centers and programs maintained by the county superintendent of schools, a school district, or pursuant to a joint powers agreement.

The cost of the audits provided for by the county superintendent of schools shall be paid from the county school service fund and the county superintendent of schools shall transfer the pro rata share of the cost chargeable to each district from district funds.

The cost of the audit provided for by a governing board shall be paid from district funds. The audit of the funds under the jurisdiction and control of the county superintendent of schools shall be paid from the county school service fund.

The audits shall be made by a certified public accountant or a public accountant, licensed by the State Board of Accountancy. Not later than November 15th, a report of each audit for the preceding fiscal year shall be filed with the county clerk and the county superintendent of schools of the county in which the district is located, the Department of Education and the Department of Finance. The submission date may be extended to, but not later than, December 31 for justifiable cause upon written request by the auditor and approval by the county superintendent of schools. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall make any adjustments necessary in future apportionments of state funds, to correct any discrepancies revealed by such audit reports under the provisions of Section 41341.

Each county superintendent of schools shall be responsible for the correction of any discrepancies revealed by audit reports issued pursuant to this section which do not affect state funds and are not corrected by Section 41341 when the discrepancies affect any funds under his control or the control of any school district within his jurisdiction. The county superintendent of schools is authorized to adjust the future local property tax requirements determined by subdivisions (i) and (j) of Section 42238 to correct these audit discrepancies.

If a governing board or county superintendent of schools fails or is unable to make satisfactory arrangements for audit pursuant to this section, the Department of Finance may make arrangements for the audit and the cost of such audit shall be paid from school district funds or the county school service fund as the case may be.

The Department of Finance with the cooperation of the Department of Education shall prescribe the statements and other information to be included in the audit reports filed with the state. The Department of Finance may make such audits, surveys and reports, and may develop suggested procedures for carrying out the purposes of this section, as in the judgment of the department will serve the best interests of the state. Audits of regional occupational centers and programs made pursuant to Section 6505 of the Government Code are subject to the provisions of this section.

Nothing in this section shall be considered as authorizing examination into or report on the curriculum used or provided for in any school district.

SEC. 159. Section 41201 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

41201. Any state department, board, or agency which allocates funds to any school district on the basis of the assessed valuation of property within the district, or which makes any computation on this basis for school building fund repayment purposes, shall average the factor certified for the current year under Section 41200 for the local roll of the county in which the district is located with the factors so certified for the two immediately preceding years; provided, that, in the event that an assessment ratio announced by a county assessor for the 1970–71 tax year is less than 25 percent, the factor for such county for such year shall be multiplied by a fraction in which the announced ratio is the numerator and 25 percent is the denominator before averaging the factor of that county for 1970–71 with the 1971–72 and 1972–73 factors. The department, board, or agency shall then modify that part of the valuation of the district shown on the local roll by application of this three-year-average fact or carried to three decimal places. If a district is located in more than one county, this modification shall be made by applying the average factor appropriate for the assessed value of the property upon the local roll of each county within which the district is located. If the factor for the current year is not provided to the county superintendent of schools by the fifth working day in August, the preliminary factor may be used in its place for determining the average factor to be used to modify the locally assessed valuation of a school district for allocating equalization aid, and for computing loan repayments to the state.

SEC. 160. Section 41301 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

41301. The amount transferred to Section A of the State School Fund pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 14002 and Section 14004 shall be expended in accordance with the following schedule:

(a) Twenty-one dollars and fifty cents ($21.50) multiplied by the total average daily attendance credited during the preceding school year to elementary school districts which during the preceding school year had less than 901 units of average daily attendance, to high school districts which during the preceding school year had less than 301 units of average daily attendance, and to unified districts which during the preceding school year had less than 1,501 units of average daily attendance, but not to exceed an amount equal to seventy-nine cents ($0.79) multiplied by the average daily attendance credited during the preceding fiscal year to all elementary, high, and unified school districts and to all county superintendents of schools in the state, for allowance to county school service funds pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 14054.

(b) Eleven dollars and forty-one cents ($11.41) multiplied by the total average daily attendance credited to all elementary, high, and unified school districts and to all county superintendents of schools in the state, during the preceding school year for the purposes of Article 10 (commencing with Section 41850) of Chapter 5 of this part.

(c) Twenty-nine dollars and twenty-seven cents ($29.27) multiplied by the total average daily attendance credited to all elementary, high, and unified school districts and to all county superintendents of schools in the state, during the preceding school year, for the purposes of Article 3 (commencing with Section 56030) of Chapter 1, Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 56500), Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 56700) of Part 30 of Division 4 of this title, and Sections 41863, 41866, 41892, and 41897.

The amount expended pursuant to this subdivision shall be annually revised to reflect the adjustment prescribed by subdivision (e) of Section 14002.

(g) Sixteen dollars and forty-eight cents ($16.48) multiplied by the average daily attendance during the preceding school year credited to all elementary, high, and unified school districts and to all county superintendents of schools in the state for purposes of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 56600) of Part 30 of Division 4 of this title.

SEC. 160.5. Section 41372 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

41372. For purposes of this section:

(a) "Salaries of classroom teachers" and "teacher" shall have the same meanings as prescribed by Section 41011 provided, however, that the cost of all health and welfare benefits provided to the teachers by the school district shall be included within the meaning of salaries of classroom teachers.

(b) "Current expense of education" means the gross total expended (not reduced by estimated income or estimated federal and state apportionments) for the purposes classified in the final budget of a school district (except one which, during the preceding fiscal year, had less than 101 units of average daily attendance) submitted to and approved by the county superintendent of schools pursuant to Section 42127 for certificated salaries other than certificated salaries for pupil transportation, food services, and community services; classified salaries other than classified salaries for pupil transportation, food services, and community services; employee benefits other than employee benefits for pupil transportation personnel, food services personnel, and community services personnel; books, supplies, and equipment replacement other than for pupil transportation and food services; and community services, contracted services, and other operating expenses other than for pupil transportation, food services, and community services. "Current expense of education," for purposes of this section shall not include those expenditures classified as sites, buildings, books, and media and new equipment (object of expenditure 6000 of the California School Accounting Manual), the amount expended from categorical aid received from the federal or state government which funds were granted for expenditures in a program not incurring any teacher salary expenditures or requiring disbursement of the funds without regard to the requirements of this section, or expenditures for facility acquisition and construction; and shall not include the amount expended pursuant to any lease agreement for plant and equipment or the amount expended from funds received from the federal government pursuant to the "Economic Opportunity Act of 1964" or any extension of such act of Congress.

There shall be expended during each fiscal year for payment of salaries of classroom teachers:

(a) By an elementary school district, sixty percent (60%) of the district's current expense of education.

(b) By a high school district, fifty percent (50%) of the district's current expense of education.

(c) By a unified school district, fifty-five percent (55%) of the district's current expense of education.

If the Superintendent of Public Instruction determines that a school district has not expended the applicable percentage of current expense of education for the payment of salaries of classroom teachers during the preceding fiscal year, he shall, in apportionments made to the school district from the State School Fund after April 15 of the current fiscal year, designate an amount of such apportionment or apportionments equal to the apparent deficiency in district expenditures. Any amount so designated by the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall be deposited in the county treasury to the credit of the school district, but shall be unavailable for expenditure by the district pending the determination to be made by the Superintendent of Public Instruction on any application for exemption which may be submitted to the Superintendent of Public Instruction. In the event it appears to the governing board of a school district that the application of the preceding paragraphs of this section during a fiscal year results in serious hardship to the district, or in the payment of salaries of classroom teachers in excess of the salaries of classroom teachers paid by other districts of comparable type and functioning under comparable conditions, the board may, with the written approval of the county superintendent of schools having jurisdiction over the district apply to the Superintendent of Public Instruction in writing not later than September 15th of the succeeding fiscal year for exemption from the requirements of the preceding paragraphs of this section for the fiscal year on account of which the application is made. Upon receipt of such application, duly approved, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall grant the district exemption for any amount that is less than one thousand dollars ($1,000), and if the amount is one thousand dollars ($1,000), or greater may grant the district exemption, to the extent deemed necessary by him, from such requirements for the fiscal year on account of which the application is made. If such exemption is granted the designated moneys shall be immediately available for expenditure by the school district governing board. If no application for exemption is made or exemption is denied, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall order the designated amount or amount not exempted to be added to the amounts to be expended for salaries of classroom teachers during the next fiscal year.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall enforce the requirements prescribed by this section, and may adopt necessary rules and regulations to that end. He may require the submission to him, during the school year, by school district governing boards and county superintendents of schools, of such reports and information as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

SEC. 160.7. Section 160.5 of this act shall become operative on July 1, 1977.

SEC. 161. Section 41601 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

41601. For the purposes of this chapter, the governing board of each school district shall report to the Superintendent of Public Instruction during each fiscal year the average daily attendance of the district for all full school months during (1) the period between July 1st and December 31st, inclusive, to be known as the "first period" report for the first principal apportionment, and (2) the period between July 1st and April 15th, inclusive, to be known as the "second period" report for the second principal apportionment. The county superintendent of schools shall report the average daily attendance for the schools and classes maintained by him and the average daily attendance for the county school tuition fund. If the average daily attendance in the regular day schools of a district for the period of time between July 1 and June 30 is greater or lesser than the average daily attendance in the regular day schools reported for the second period report, the appropriate increases and decreases in the several categories of attendance for which separate foundation programs are required to be computed shall be recomputed on the basis of the foundation program and assessed valuation of the district of the fiscal year in which such increases and decreases in average daily attendance were applicable and the appropriate increases and decreases in apportionments shall be added or withheld in the next succeeding fiscal year pursuant to Section 41341.

Each report shall be prepared in accordance with instructions on forms prescribed and furnished by the Superintendent of Public Instruction and average daily attendance shall be computed in the following manner:

(a) The average daily attendance in the regular elementary, junior high, and high schools maintained by the school districts shall be determined by dividing the total number of days of attendance allowed in all full school months in each period, by the number of days such schools are actually taught in all full school months in each period, exclusive of Saturdays or Sundays.

With the exception of days of attendance in special day classes convened, or other instruction provided a pupil for days in a school year which are in excess of the number of days in the school year on which the regular day schools of a district are convened, if the average daily attendance in schools and classes maintained by school districts other than regular day schools and classes for the period of time between July 1 and June 30 is greater or lesser than the average daily attendance in such schools and classes reported for the second period report, the separate state support which is provided for attendance in such schools and classes shall be recomputed on the basis of the fiscal year average daily attendance, and increases and decreases in apportionments shall be added or withheld in the next succeeding fiscal year pursuant to Section 41341.

(b) The average daily attendance in summer school and outdoor science and conservation education classes maintained during the period between the last day the regular day schools are in session during the preceding year and the first day the regular day schools are in session during the current year shall be reported on both the first period and second period reports. Such average daily attendance shall be computed by dividing the days of attendance allowed by 175.

(c) The attendance for schools and classes maintained by the county superintendent of schools and for the county school tuition fund credited after the last full school month of the second period of the preceding year and prior to the end of each reporting period shall be reported on each report. The average daily attendance of the school, class, or fund shall be determined for the first period by dividing the days of attendance allowed by 100 and for the second period, the days of attendance allowed shall be divided by 175.

(d) The days of attendance in classes for adults, continuation schools and classes, regional occupation centers and opportunity schools and classes maintained after the last full school month of the second period of the preceding year and prior to the end of each reporting period shall be reported on each report. The average daily attendance in such schools and classes shall be determined for the first period by dividing the days of attendance allowed by 100; for the second period, the days of attendance allowed shall be divided by 175 for kindergarten and grades 1 to 12, inclusive.

SEC. 162. Section 41700 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

41700. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall compute for each elementary, high school, and unified district the appropriate amount of a foundation program of school support therefor, in the manner prescribed by this article, using the dollar amounts contained in the various sections of this article which apply.

SEC. 163. Section 41718 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

41718. (a) For the 1976–77 fiscal year, each elementary school foundation program shall be increased by one hundred three dollars ($103) and each high school foundation program shall be increased by one hundred four dollars ($104).

(b) For the 1977–78 fiscal year, the increase in elementary and high school foundation programs shall be the prior year's percentage change in the index of "Government Purchases of Goods and Services, State and Local," but no less than 6 percent nor greater than 8 percent, times an amount which is determined as follows: (1) Multiply the unit elementary school foundation program for unified districts which have an elementary average daily attendance of 901 or more by the elementary foundation program units of average daily attendance of unified districts with 901 or more elementary average daily attendance, plus (2) multiply the unit high school foundation program for unified districts which have a high school average daily attendance of 301 or more, by the average daily attendance of unified school districts with 301 or more high school daily attendance, and (3) divide the results by the sum of the average daily attenance in unified districts with 901 or more elementary average daily attendance plus the average daily attendance in unified districts with 301 or more high school average daily attendance.

(c) For the 1978–79 fiscal year and fiscal years thereafter, and if the Legislature does not provide otherwise, the increase in elementary and high school foundation programs shall be 6 percent times an amount which is determined as follows: (1) Multiply the unit elementary school foundation program for unified districts which have an elementary average daily attendance of 901 or more by the elementary foundation program units of average daily attendance of unified districts with 901 or more elementary average daily attendance, plus (2) multiply the unit high school foundation program for unified districts which have a high school average daily attendance of 301 or more, by the average daily attendance of unified school districts with 301 or more high school average daily attendance, and (3) divide the result by the sum of the average daily attendance in unified districts with 901 or more elementary average daily attendance plus the average daily attendance in unified districts with 301 or more high school average daily attendance.

SEC. 164. Section 41761 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

41761. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall compute for each district described herein which does not come within the provisions of Section 41762 the amount, to be known as district aid, which a tax levied on each one hundred dollars ($100) of 100 percent of the assessed valuation in such district as shown by the equalized assessment roll of the district for the current year pursuant to Section 41760.5, as modified pursuant to Section 41201, would produce if levied, if such tax was:

(a) Two dollars and twenty-three cents ($2.23) in an elementary school district.

(b) One dollar and sixty-four cents ($1.64) in a high school district.

SEC. 165. Section 41762 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

41762. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall compute the areawide aid to be utilized in determining state apportionments to be made for the support of elementary school districts and high school districts with respect to which an areawide foundation program is computed under Article 3 (commencing with Section 41750) of this chapter. Areawide aid shall be the amount which a tax levied on each one hundred dollars ($100) of 100 percent of the assessed valuation for the current fiscal year pursuant to Section 41760.5, modified where necessary pursuant to Section 41201, of the area comprising all of such elementary school districts and all of such high school districts would produce, if levied, if such tax were: (a) in the case of the elementary school district area, one dollar ($1); and (b) in the case of the high school district area, eighty cents ($0.80).

If the Superintendent of Public Instruction finds that the difference obtained by subtracting the areawide aid as computed under the above provisions of this section from the areawide foundation program is less than the product obtained by multiplying the average daily attendance used for foundation program purposes by one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125), he shall reduce the areawide aid to an amount which, when added to such product, will equal the amount of the areawide foundation program.

SEC. 166. Section 41840 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

41840. The allowance for each unit of average daily attendance during the 1976–77 fiscal year for adults, as adults are defined in Section 52610, for high school districts shall be the adult foundation program of eight hundred sixty-two dollars ($862) less the product of one dollar ($1) multiplied by each one hundred dollars ($100) of the assessed valuation of the district, as modified pursuant to Section 41201, per unit of total regular high school average daily attndance plus adult average daily attendance. The total of state aid shall not be less than one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125) per unit of average daily attendance.

For each subsequent fiscal year, the foundation program for adults in high schools for the previous fiscal year shall be increased by the same percentage increase by which the high school foundation program is increased.

SEC. 167. Section 41856 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

41856. (a) He shall allow to each elementary school district, and high school district, except as to any to which subsections (b), (c) and (d) of this section or Section 41859 is applicable, which during the preceding fiscal year provided for the transportation of pupils, an amount which shall be computed as follows:

He shall determine the total current expenses of the district for such transportation during the preceding fiscal year. He shall then determine what rate of tax levied on each one hundred dollars ($100) of the assessed valuation of the district as shown by the equalized assessment roll of the district for the preceding fiscal year pursuant to Section 41760.5, hereinafter referred to in this section as computed tax rate, would, if levied, produce such amount. If the computed rate of tax is more than two cents ($0.02) he shall allow to the district (1) 50 percent of the amount which would be produced by not more than eight cents ($0.08) of the computed tax rate less two cents ($0.02), (2) 75 percent of the amount which would be produced by not more than sixteen cents ($0.16) of computed tax less eight cents ($0.08), (3) 80 percent of the amount which would be produced by not more than twenty-four cents ($0.24) of the computed tax less sixteen cents ($0.16), and (4) 90 percent of the amount which would be produced by the computed tax less twenty-four cents ($0.24).

(b) He shall allow to each elementary school district which is not a part of a high school district and which during the preceding fiscal year provided for the transportation of pupils to the elementary schools of the district and to one or more high schools in other districts an amount which shall be computed as follows:

He shall determine the total current expenses of the districts for such transportation during the preceding fiscal year. He shall then determine what rate of tax levied on each one hundred dollars ($100) of the assessed valuation of the district as shown by the equalized assessment role of the district for the preceding fiscal year pursuant to Section 41760.5, hereinafter referred to in this section as computed tax rate, would, if levied, produce such amount. If the computed rate of tax is more than four cents ($0.04) he shall allow to the district (1) 50 percent of the amount which would be produced by not more than sixteen cents ($0.16) of the computed tax rate less four cents ($0.04), (2) 75 percent of the amount which would be produced by not more than thirty-two cents ($0.32) of the computed tax rate less sixteen cents ($0.16), (3) 80 percent of the amount which would be produced by not more than forty-eight cents ($0.48) of the computed tax rate less thirty-two cents ($0.32), and (4) 90 percent of the amount which would be produced by the computed tax rate less forty-eight cents ($0.48).

If an elementary district which is not a part of a high school district provides only for the transportation of pupils to a high school, an amount shall be computed as provided in subdivision (a) of this section.

(c) He shall allow to each high school district not a part of any community college district which during the preceding fiscal year provided for the transportation of pupils to the high schools of the district and pupils attending community colleges maintained by other districts an amount which shall be computed as follows:

He shall determine the total current expenses of the districts for such transportation during the preceding fiscal year. He shall then determine what rate of tax levied on each one hundred dollars ($100) of the assessed valuation of the district as shown by the equalized assessment roll of the district for the preceding fiscal year pursuant to Section 41760.5, hereinafter referred to in this section as computed tax rate, would, if levied, produce such amount. If the computed rate of tax is more than four cents ($0.04) he shall allow to the district (1) 50 percent of the amount which would be produced by not more than sixteen cents ($0.16) of the computed tax rate less four cents ($0.04), (2) 75 percent of the amount which would be produced by not more than thirty-two cents ($0.32) of the computed tax rate less sixteen cents ($0.16), (3) 80 percent of the amount which would be produced by not more than forty-eight cents ($0.48) of the computed tax rate less thirty-two cents ($0.32), and (4) 90 percent of the amount which would be produced by the computed tax rate less forty-eight cents ($0.48).

If a high school district which is not a part of a community college district provides only for the transportation of pupils to a community college, an amount shall be computed as provided in subdivision (a) of this section.

SEC. 168. Section 41857 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

41857. (a) He shall allow to each unified school district formed under the provisions of Sections 4240 to 4419, inclusive, and Sections 35780 to 35810, inclusive, the formation of which became effective on July 1, 1948, or thereafter, an amount equal to the total current expenses of the district during the preceding fiscal year for the transportation of pupils, determined by the Superintendent of Public Instruction to have been required because of a change of the location of schoolhouses or the reorganization of attendance centers within the district during such preceding fiscal year. No allowance shall be made under this paragraph subsequent to the close of the fifth fiscal year following that in which the district was formed and thereafter the provisions of subsection (b) or (c) of this section shall control as to such district.

(b) He shall allow to each unified school district not maintaining a community college which during the preceding fiscal year provided for the transportation of pupils, an amount which shall be computed as follows:

He shall determine the total current expenses of the district for such transportation during the preceding fiscal year. He shall then determine what rate of tax levied on each one hundred dollars ($100) of the assessed valuation of the district as shown by the equalized assessment roll of the district for the preceding fiscal year pursuant to Section 41760.5, hereinafter referred to in this section as computed tax rate, would, if levied, produce such amount. If the computed rate of tax is more than three cents ($0.03) he shall allow to the district (1) 50 percent of the amount which would be produced by not more than twelve cents ($0.12) of the computed tax rate less three cents ($0.03), (2) 75 percent of the amount which would be produced by not more than twenty-four cents ($0.24) of the computed tax rate less twelve cents ($0.12), (3) 80 percent of the amount which would be produced by not more than thirty-six cents ($0.36) of the computed tax rate less twenty-four cents ($0.24), and (4) 90 percent of the amount which would be produced by the computed tax rates less thirty-six cents ($0.36).

SEC. 169. Section 41859 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

41859. He shall compute for each group of two or more school districts which have been continuously from a time prior to July 1, 1949, governed by boards of identical personnel during the preceding fiscal year and have maintained a single transportation system for all of such districts which provided for the transporation of pupils, an amount which shall be computed as follows:

He shall determine the total current expenses of the districts for such transporation during the preceding fiscal year.

(a) He shall, if such group comprises an elementary school district and a high school district, and each district provided for the transportation of pupils, or comprises an elementary school district, a high school district, and each district provided for the transportation of pupils residing in the district, or comprises a high school district and each district provided for the transportation of pupils, then determine what rate of tax levied on each one hundred dollars ($100) of the assessed valuation of that one of such districts providing for the transportation of pupils which has the largest assessed valuation as shown by the equalized assessment roll of the district for the preceding fiscal year pursuant to Section 41760.5, hereinafter referred to in this section as computed tax rate, would, if levied, produce such amount. If the computed rate of tax is more than three cents ($0.03) he shall allow the district (1) 50 percent of the amount which would be produced by not more than twelve cents ($0.12) of the computed tax rate less three cents ($0.03), (2) 75 percent of the amount which would be produced by not more than twenty-four cents ($0.24) of the computed tax rate less twelve cents ($0.12), (3) 80 percent of the amount which would be produced by not more than thirty-six cents ($0.36) of the computed tax rate less twenty-four cents ($0.24), and (4) 90 percent of the amount which would be produced by the computed tax rate less thirty-six cents ($0.36).

(b) He shall, if such group comprises an elementary school district, and a high school district, each of which provided for the transportation of pupils, then determine what rate of tax levied on each one hundred dollars ($100) of the assessed valuation of that one of such districts providing for the transportation of pupils which had the largest assessed valuation as shown by the equalized assessment roll of the district for the preceding fiscal year pursuant to Section 41760.5, hereinafter referred to in this section as computed tax rate, would, if levied, produce such amount. If the computed rate of tax is more than four cents ($0.04) he shall allow to the district (1) 50 percent of the amount which would be produced by not more than sixteen cents ($0.16), of the computed tax rate less four cents ($0.04), (2) 75 percent of the amount which would be produced by not more than thirty-two cents ($0.32) of the computed tax rate less sixteen cents ($0.16), (3) 80 percent of the amount which would be produced by not more than forty-eight cents ($0.48) of the computed tax rate less thirty-two cents ($0.32), and (4) 90 percent of the amount which would be produced by the computed tax rate less forty-eight cents ($0.48).

He shall then allow to each district in the group the same ratio of the total amount computed for the group as the governing boards of the districts in the groups certify to him is the ratio the amount expended for such transportation in such district during the preceding fiscal year was of the total expenditures of all districts in the group for such transportation during the preceding fiscal year.

SEC. 170. Section 41863 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

41863. (a) In addition to all other amounts allowed to a school district under this article, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall allow to each school district for transporting blind, deaf, aphasic, orthopedic or other health-impaired, and other physically impaired pupils handicapped in mobility, mentally retarded pupils who come within the provisions of Section 56515, autistic pupils who come within the provisions of Section 56601, and multihandicapped pupils, to and from special day classes, three hundred eighty-nine dollars ($389) for each unit of average daily attendance of such pupils during the fiscal year resulting from the attendance of such pupils on the special day classes to and from which they are transported by the district.

In addition to all other amounts allowed to a school district under this article, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall allow to each school district for transporting deaf, severely hard-of-hearing, blind, deaf-blind, or other multihandicapped pupils who come within the provisions of Section 56160, to and from experimental programs approved by him, three hundred eighty-nine dollars ($389) for each unit of average daily attendance of such pupils during the fiscal year resulting from the attendance of such minor pupils in the experimental programs to and from which they are transported by the district.

(b) The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall allow to the county school service fund of each county for transporting blind, deaf, aphasic, orthopedic or other health-impaired, and other physically impaired pupils handicapped in mobility, mentally retarded pupils who come within the provisions of Section 56515, autistic pupils who come within the provisions of Section 56601, and multihandicapped pupils, to and from special day classes, three hundred eighty-nine dollars ($389) for each unit of average daily attendance during the fiscal year resulting from the attendance of such pupils on the special day classes to and from which they are transported by the county superintendent of schools.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall allow to the county school service fund of each county for transporting deaf, severely hard-of-hearing, blind, deaf-blind, or other multihandicapped pupils who come within the provisions of Section 56160, to and from experimental programs approved by him, three hundred eighty-nine dollars ($389) for each unit of average daily attendance of such pupils during the fiscal year resulting from the attendance of such pupils in the experimental programs to and from which they are transported by the county superintendent of schools.

(c) For each school district and county superintendent of schools furnishing transportation pursuant to subdivision (a) or subdivision (b) under circumstances requiring the operation of vehicles exclusively for such purpose, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall allow under each such subdivision 75 percent of any expense in excess of three hundred eighty-nine dollars ($389), but the additional allowance shall not exceed seventy-three dollars ($73), per unit of average daily attendance of such pupils. Such amount shall be allowed as a part of the second principal apportionment upon special request made therefor to, and upon approval by, the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

(d) As used in this section, "physically impaired pupils handicapped in mobility" means those pupils who are deemed eligible for special class placement as defined by the State Board of Education.

(e) If the Superintendent of Public Instruction determines that the current expense of providing transportation under this section does not equal or exceed the allowance provided for such purpose, then the amount of the deficiency shall be withheld from state apportionments to the school district or the county superintendent of schools, as the case may be, in accordance with the procedure prescribed in Section 41341. Such amounts withheld shall then be apportioned, on a pro rata basis against the expenses, to those districts which maintain and operate vehicles exclusively for the transportation of handicapped pupils. In no case shall any district receive an amount greater than its total current expense in providing such transportation.

SEC. 171. Section 41886 of the Education Code, as amended by Chapter 1011 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

41886. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall allow to each school district or county superintendent of schools for the education of educationally handicapped pupils in special classes during the current fiscal year an amount computed as follows:

(a) He shall divide the average daily attendance in each particular class size category by the maximum class size established for each particular class size category, and increase the quotient to the next highest integer where a fractional amount is produced.

(b) He shall then determine for each particular class size category the product of the amount computed under subdivision (a) multiplied by the maximum class size established by law for special day classes for the particular category.

(c) He shall then multiply the amount computed under subdivision (b) by the following amount of the particular level and category:

Category	Elementary grades (K–8)	High school grades (9–12)
Educationally handicapped
Class size maximum of 12	$1,000	$870
Autistic
Class size maximum of 6	$4,500	$4,315

SEC. 172. Section 41888 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

41888. (1) In addition to the allowances provided under Sections 41882 to 41886, inclusive, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall allow to school districts and county superintendents of schools for each unit of average daily attendance an amount as follows:

(a) For instruction of educationally handicapped pupils in learning disability groups, one thousand eight hundred eighty dollars ($1,880).

SEC. 174. Section 42238 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

42238. For the 1974–75 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, (a) the maximum general purpose tax rate for each elementary, high, and unified school district in the county shall be computed pursuant to this section by the county superintendent of schools.

(b) The revenue limit per foundation program unit of average daily attendance for the district for the prior fiscal year shall be divided into the appropriate foundation program amount per unit of average daily attendance for the prior year. If the quotient is greater than one, it shall be deemed to be one.

(c) The foundation program amount per unit of average daily attendance used as the dividend in subdivision (b) shall be determined by the Superintendent of Public Instruction pursuant to this subdivision. For elementary school districts, it shall be the foundation program for districts which have an average daily attendance of 901 or more. For high school districts it shall be the foundation program for districts with an average daily attendance of 301 or more. For unified districts, it shall be the sum of (1) the foundation program of elementary districts which have an average daily attendance of 901 or more multiplied by the elementary foundation program units of average daily attendance of unified districts in the second principal apportionment, plus (2) the foundation program for high school districts with an average daily attendance of 301 or more multiplied by the high school foundation program units of average daily attendance of unified districts in the second principal apportionment divided by the sum of the elementary and high school units of average daily attendance of unified districts in the second principal apportionment.

(d) The inflation adjustment shall be based on the increase in the foundation program amount per unit of average daily attendance for the budget year compared with the preceding year.

(e) The amount determined pursuant to subdivision (d) shall be multiplied by the quotient determined pursuant to subdivision (b). The resultant amount shall constitute the revenue limit inflation adjustment of the district per unit of average daily attendance.

(f) The revenue limit inflation adjustment shall be added to the prior year revenue limit per foundation program unit of average daily attendance of the district and the sum multiplied by the estimated foundation program average daily attendance of the budget year. The product shall be the revenue limit of the district for the budget year.

(g) Any district which has a revenue limit computed pursuant to subdivision (f) which is equal to or less than the foundation program computed for the district pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 41700) of Chapter 5 of this part, excluding Section 41716, Article 2 (commencing with Section 41730) of Chapter 5 of this part, and subdivision (a) of Section 41840 as adjusted pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 14002 may increase its revenue limit computed pursuant to subdivision (f) to the lesser of the foundation program level of the district or the prior year revenue limit increased by fifteen percent (15%).

For the 1974–75 and 1975–76 fiscal years only, notwithstanding subdivision (g) if, due to changes in federal legislation or administrative policy, the entitlement under Public Law 81-874 is reduced or discontinued and is not replaced by other federal funding, and if a district experiencing such loss has a revenue limit less than the foundation program, it shall be allowed to increase the revenue limit by an amount equal to the difference between the Public Law 81-874 income per foundation program average daily attendance of the prior year and the estimated Public Law 81-874 income per unit of foundation program average daily attendance of the budget year, if any, multiplied by the estimated foundation program average daily attendance of the budget year. Such increased revenue limit shall not exceed the foundation program of the budget year.

(h) From the amount computed pursuant to subdivision (f) or (g), there shall be subtracted the basic state aid and state equalization aid to be received for the budget year, areawide aid to be received for the budget year, and the amount of income to be received from the equalization offset tax pursuant to Section 41203.

(i) The amount determined pursuant to subdivision (h) shall be (1) adjusted as provided in subdivision (d) of Section 46605 and (2) adjusted sufficiently to allow for the mandated increases for district contributions for the State Teachers' Retirement System as required by Section 23400. Such adjustment, together with any rate levied in any prior year pursuant to Section 23401, shall not exceed the revenue derived by the tax rate provided in Section 23401. The adjusted amount shall be the local revenue limit of the district for the budget year.

(j) From the amount computed pursuant to subdivision (i), there shall be subtracted the amount of money collected or to be collected as taxes on property on the unsecured roll of the budget year, excluding the amounts collected through the levy of taxes provided in Section 4147, 8329, 15250, 15742, 16090, 16196, 16204, 16205, 16214, 16302, 39229, 39230, 39308, 39311, 42200, 42402, 49502, or 56811 of the Education Code, Section 52317 of the Education Code for the purposes prescribed in Section 52312, but no greater than five cents ($0.05) per one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed valuation, and Section 5302.5 of the Streets and Highways Code, and (2) the income from the prior year's taxes.

(k) From the amount computed pursuant to subdivision (j) there shall be subtracted the amount of money collected or to be collected as timber yield tax receipts pursuant to Part 18.5 (commencing with Section 38101) of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(l) For the purposes of this subdivision, the assessed valuation used in computing the maximum tax rate is defined as the total actual assessed valuation, including business inventory and homeowners exemption and exclusive of the assessed valuation increment used to allocate tax receipts to a redevelopment agency pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 33670) of Chapter 6 of Part 1 of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code.

The amount determined pursuant to subdivision (j) shall be divided by the amount of actual assessed valuation of the district on the secured roll after due allowance for delinquencies, pursuant to Section 14203. The quotient multiplied by 100 shall be the tax rate on each one hundred dollars ($100) of such assessed valuation and shall be the maximum general purpose tax rate which may be levied in the district during the 1973–74 fiscal year, exclusive of taxes provided in Section 4147, 8329, 15250, 15742, 16090, 16196, 16204, 16205, 16214, 16302, 39229, 39230, 39308, 39311, 42200, 42402, 49502, or 56811 of the Education Code, Section 52317 of the Education Code for the purposes prescribed in Section 52312 of the Education Code, but no greater than five cents ($0.05) per one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed valuation, and Section 5302.5 of the Streets and Highways Code. The revenue limit in subdivision (g) notwithstanding, in no case for districts receiving equalization aid, shall the tax rate be reduced below one dollar ($1) on the elementary level or eighty cents ($0.80) on the high school level or one dollar and eighty cents ($1.80) for a unified school district, except that when the district has levied upon it an areawide tax, such areawide tax rate levied shall be considered first as part of the minimum tax rate limit.

SEC. 175. Section 42244 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

42244. Commencing September 4, 1973, the revenue limit prescribed by Section 42238, 43000, or 43001 may be exceeded upon approval of a majority of the electors of the district voting on a proposition to that effect pursuant to Section 42202. Such approval may be granted for any period of time, and shall be added to the budget year revenue limit per foundation program unit of average daily attendance of the district as determined in subdivision (g) of Section 42238 in computing the maximum general purpose tax rate for each year in which the voted revenue limit increase is effective.

For the fiscal year following the last year in which the voted revenue limit increase is authorized, the amount of the voted revenue limit increase as it actually affected the revenue limit shall be subtracted from the revenue limit per foundation program unit of average daily attendance of the district as determined in subdivision (g) of Section 42238, 43000, or 43001. This section shall be subject to Section 42245.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 42202, the revenue limit shall be that prescribed by state law plus the amount of increase approved by the electors, and need not be the revenue limit set forth in the ballot proposition prescribed by that section prior to July 1, 1974.

SEC. 176. Section 42245 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

42245. Whenever the computation required by Section 42233, 42238, or 43001 results, because of estimating or other errors, in a total revenue limit in an amount more or less than actual data would have produced, the revenue limit for the succeeding fiscal year shall be reduced by an amount equal to the amount of the error if the total produced was more, and may be increased by an amount up to the amount of the error if the total produced was less.

Whenever the collection and distribution of local taxes from the secured roll results in an amount more or less than the taxes required as computed by Section 42233, 42238, 43000, or 43001, the local tax requirement for the succeeding fiscal year shall be reduced by an amount equal to the amount of the difference if the total received was more, and may be increased by an amount up to the amount of the difference if the total received was less.

Such a transfer can be made not more than twice within a fiscal year from the same fund or account and only when the district will receive income sufficient to repay the amount transferred. The amount transferred shall be repaid either in the same or the following fiscal year, but in any case not more than 120 calendar days after the transfer. No more than 75 percent of the maximum of moneys held in any fund or account during a current fiscal year may be transferred pursuant to the provisions of this section during that fiscal year.

Except for districts determined to be fiscally accountable pursuant to Section 42650, no order on the funds of any school district shall be approved by the county superintendent of schools unless the signatures are on file in his office and he is satisfied that the signatures on the order are those of persons authorized to sign the order.

SEC. 180. Section 42635 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

The auditor shall detach any bill attached to the requisition, and shall number the bill, giving it the same number which he gives the warrant, and file it in his office. He shall thereupon return the order, requisition, and warrant to the county superintendent of schools who shall transmit it to the governing board of the school district for issuance to the payee or to his order.

Any requisition of the county superintendent of schools, whether based upon written order of the governing board of a school district or authorized by law, shall constitute full authority for the signature for allowance thereof by the county auditor as a warrant on the county treasurer, and no other authority shall be necessary or required for such action by the county auditor.

Such persons may be employed for periods which are less than a full school year and may be terminated at the expiration of the contract or specially funded project without regard to other requirements of this code respecting the termination of probationary or permanent employees.

All employees a part of the classified service shall be entitled to the following paid holidays provided they are in a paid status during any portion of the working day immediately preceding or succeeding the holiday: January 1, February 12 known as "Lincoln Day," the third Monday in February known as "Washington Day," the last Monday in May known as "Memorial Day," July 4, the first Monday in September known as "Labor Day," November 11 known as "Veterans Day," that Thursday in November proclaimed by the President as "Thanksgiving Day," December 25, every day appointed by the President, or the Governor of this state, as provided for in subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 37220 for a public fast, thanksgiving or holiday, or any day declared a holiday under Section 1318 or 37222 for classified or certificated employees. School recesses during the Christmas and Easter periods shall not be considered holidays for classified employees who are normally required to work during that period; provided, however, that this shall not be construed as affecting vacation rights specified in Section 45203.

Regular employees of the district who are not normally assigned to duty during the school holidays of December 25 and January 1 shall be paid for those two holidays provided that they were in a paid status during any portion of the working day of their normal assignment immediately preceding or succeeding the holiday period.

When a holiday herein listed falls on a Sunday, the following Monday shall be deemed to be the holiday in lieu of the day observed. When a holiday herein listed falls on a Saturday, the preceding Friday shall be deemed to be the holiday in lieu of the day observed. When a classified employee is required to work on any of said holidays, he shall be paid compensation, or given compensating time off, for such work, in addition to the regular pay received for the holiday, at the rate of time and one-half his regular rate of pay.

The provisions of Article 3 (commencing with Section 37220) of Chapter 2 of Part 22 of this division shall not be construed to in any way limit the provisions of this section, nor shall anything in this section be construed to prohibit the governing board from adopting separate work schedules for the certificated and the classified services, or from providing holiday pay for employees who have not been in paid status on the days specified herein. Notwithstanding the adoption of separate work schedules for the certificated and the classified services, on any schoolday during which pupils would otherwise have been in attendance but are not and for which certificated personnel receive regular pay, classified personnel shall also receive regular pay whether or not they are required to report for duty that day.

This section shall apply to districts that have adopted the merit system in the same manner and effect as if it were a part of Article 6 (commencing with Section 45240) of this chapter.

Day" as specified in Section 45203, provided that such designated days will provide for at least a three-day weekend. Classified employees shall be required to work on the regular holiday for which another day is designated pursuant to this section, and for work of eight hours or less, shall be paid compensation at their regular rate of pay.

If any classified employee would be entitled to the regular paid holiday but would not be in a paid status during any portion of the working day immediately preceding or succeeding the day so designated in lieu of such holiday and therefore would not be entitled to such day in lieu of the holiday, he shall be entitled to the regular holiday; however, if he is required to work on such holiday, he shall be paid compensation at the rate of time and one-half of his regular rate of pay in addition to the regular pay received for the holiday.

This section shall not be construed to authorize the maintenance of schools on holidays other than as provided in Article 3 (commencing with Section 37220) of Chapter 2 of Part 22 of this division.

The nature, manner, and place of conducting any independent study program shall be determined by the school district pursuant to rules and regulations adopted by the State Board of Education and shall be an integral part of any decision pursuant to Section 48907.5 to suspend the expulsion action of the board. (b) Within 30 days of receipt of such request, the superintendent or his designee shall meet with the parent and the certificated employee who recorded the information in question, if any, and if such employee is presently employed by the school district. The superintendent shall then sustain or deny the allegations.

If the superintendent sustains any or all of the allegations, he shall order the correction or the removal and destruction of the information.

If the superintendent denies any or all of the allegations and refuses to order the correction or the removal of the information, the parent may, within 30 days of the refusal, appeal the decision in writing to the governing board of the school district.

(c) Within 30 days of receipt of such an appeal, the governing board shall, in closed session with the parent and the certificated employee who recorded the information in question, if any, and if such employee is presently employed by the school district, determine whether or not to sustain or deny the allegations.

If the governing board sustains any or all of the allegations, it shall order the superintendent to immediately correct or remove and destroy the information from the written records of the pupil.

The decision of the governing board shall be final.

Records of these administrative proceedings shall be maintained in a confidential manner and shall be destroyed one year after the decision of the governing board, unless the parent initiates legal proceedings relative to the disputed information within the prescribed period.

(d) If the final decision of the governing board is unfavorable to the parent, or if the parent accepts an unfavorable decision by the district superintendent, the parent shall have the right to submit a written statement of his objections to the information. This statement shall become a part of the pupil's school record until such time as the information objected to is corrected or removed.

(3) Accrediting organizations in order to carry out their accrediting functions.

(4) Organizations conducting studies for, or on behalf of, educational agencies or institutions for the purpose of developing, validating, or administering predictive tests, administering student aid programs, and improving instruction, if such studies are conducted in such a manner as will not permit the personal identification of students or their parents by persons other than representatives of such organizations and such information will be destroyed when no longer needed for the purpose for which it is conducted.

60640. The State Board of Education shall require each school district to administer uniform tests to each pupil not later than his third month of attendance in the first grade. The first-grade entry level test shall obtain a composite estimate for each pupil of skills related to learning and memory, attention, visual perception, and auditory comprehension. The answer sheets shall be transmitted to the Department of Education for scoring. If no published test is deemed suitable, the State Board of Education may combine parts of available tests or develop a new test.

The State Board of Education shall also require each school district to administer uniform tests in reading annually to pupils in grades 2 and 3. Such tests shall be recommended by the Department of Education and shall be submitted to the State Board of Education for approval and adoption. If no published test is deemed suitable, the Department of Education may combine parts of available tests or develop a new test. Any test so adopted shall be equated to nationally normed tests so that the performance of California pupils may be compared to that of a national sample. The tests which have been approved and adopted by the board shall be printed or purchased and distributed to the various school districts in the state by the Department of Education. The answer sheets shall be transmitted to the Department of Education for scoring.

The State Board of Education shall develop a testing method that will obtain an accurate estimate of statewide performance of pupils in grades 2 and 3 in reading. Under such a testing method, the Department of Education shall determine whether pupils in a given school shall be administered the entire test or whether the pupils shall be administered a portion of the test which will be representative of all test objectives, goals, or categories of items on the entire test.

The procedure required by this section shall be implemented not later than the 1975–76 school year.

The State Board of Education shall determine the form in which the answer sheets for the first-grade entry level test shall be transmitted to the Department of Education for scoring, and the form in which the answer sheets for the uniform tests in reading for grades 2 and 3 shall be transmitted to the Department of Education for scoring.

The State Board of Education shall analyze the progress achieved by third-grade pupils using the first-grade entry level test results as a basis for identifying comparable pupils receiving various kinds of reading instruction.

The State Board of Education shall adopt rules and regulations governing the time, place, and methods for administration of the testing program under this article.

The tests administered pursuant to this article shall be employed to determine each school district's quota of specialist reading teachers, as required by Article 3 (commencing with Section 54140) of Chapter 2 of Part 29 of this division.

Commencing with tests administered in the 1972–73 school year, school districts shall submit answer sheets and related pupil information on a per-school basis.

The schools selected for study shall be comparable in social and demographic characteristics and shall vary only on student attainment.

The study shall last three calendar years so that variables discovered the first year may be verified the second and third years.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall report to the Legislature by January 5, 1975, on the identification and description of those socioeconomic, financial, and educational variables affecting school performance which tend to distinguish between unusually high-performing districts and unusually low-performing districts. By January 5, 1976, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall issue a report to the Legislature including information regarding the verifiability of the relative impact of the variables discovered during the first year of the study.

By July 1, 1976, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall submit a study plan to the Legislature indicating: (1) the additional data that will be collected and analyzed in order to explain the operation of the education variables identified in previous reports pursuant to this section; and (2) the Department of Education's plan for disseminating the results of this study to schools throughout the state, and for using the results of this study to improve educational programs.

SEC. 263. Section 69273 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

69273. There is hereby created a Health Manpower Policy Commission. The commission shall be composed of nine members who shall serve at the pleasure of their appointing authorities:

(a) Seven members appointed by the Governor, as follows: one representative of the University of California medical schools, from a nominee or nominees submitted by the University of California; one representative of the private medical schools accredited in California from individuals nominated by each of such schools; one representative of practicing family physicians; one representative of undergraduate medical students in a family practice program or residence in family practice training; one representative of trainees in a primary care physician's assistant program or a practicing physician's assistant; one representative of trainees in a primary care nurse practitioners program or a practicing nurse practitioner; and one representative of the State Department of Health, from nominees submitted by the director.

(b) Two consumer representatives of the public who are not elected or appointed public officials, one appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly and one appointed by the Chairman of the Senate Rules Committee.

(c) The Chief of the Health Manpower Development Section, or his designee, shall serve as executive secretary for the commission.

SEC. 264. Section 69274 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

69274. The duties of the commission shall be:

(a) To determine specific areas of the state where unmet priority needs for primary care family physicians exist.

(b) To establish standards for family practice training programs and family practice residency programs and programs which train primary care physician's assistants and programs which train primary care nurse practitioners, including appropriate provisions to encourage family physicians and primary care physician's assistants and primary care nurse practitioners who receive training in accordance with this article to provide needed services in areas of unmet need within the state. Standards for family practice residency programs shall provide that all such residency programs contracted for pursuant to this article shall (i) meet the American Medical Association's "Essentials" for Residency Training in Family Practice and (ii) be approved by the Residency Review Committee for Family Practice of the American Medical Association. Every program shall include a component of training designed for medically underserved multicultural communities, lower socioeconomic neighborhoods, or rural communities, and shall be organized to prepare family physicians or primary care physician's assistants or primary care nurse practitioners for service in such neighborhoods and communities. Medical schools receiving funds under this article shall have programs or departments that recognize family practice as a major independent specialty. Existence of a written agreement of affiliation or association between a hospital and an accredited medical school shall be regarded by the commission as a favorable factor in considering recommendations to the director for allocation of funds appropriated to the state medical contract program established under this article.

(c) To review and make recommendations to the Director of Health concerning the funding of family practice programs or departments, family practice residencies and programs for the training of primary care physician's assistants and primary care nurse practitioners which are submitted to the Health Manpower Development Section, for participation in the contract program established by this article. Where the commission determines that a program proposal which has been approved for funding or which is the recipient of funds under this article does not meet the standards established by the commission, it shall submit to the Director of Health and the Legislature a report detailing its objections. The commission may request the Department of Health to make advance allocations for program development costs from amounts appropriated for the purposes of this article.

(d) To establish contract criteria and single per-student and per-resident capitation formulas which shall determine the amounts to be transferred to institutions receiving contracts for the training of family practice students and residents and primary care physician's assistants and primary care nurse practitioners pursuant to this article, except as otherwise provided in subdivision (e). Institutions applying for or in receipt of contracts pursuant to this article may appeal to the director for waiver of these single capitation formulas. The director may grant such waiver in exceptional cases upon a clear showing by the institution that a waiver is essential to the institution's ability to provide a program of a quality comparable to those provided by institutions which have not received waivers, taking into account the public interest in program cost-effectiveness. Recipients of funds appropriated by this article shall, as a minimum, maintain the level of expenditure for family practice or primary care physician's assistant or family care nurse practitioner training provided by such recipients during the 1973–74 fiscal year. Funds appropriated by this article shall be used to develop new programs or to expand existing programs and shall not replace funds supporting current family practice training programs. Institutions applying for or in receipt of contracts pursuant to this article may appeal to the director for waiver of this maintenance of effort provision. The director may grant such waiver if he determines that there is reasonable and proper cause to grant such waiver.

(e) To review and make recommendations to the Director of Health concerning the funding of special programs which may be funded on other than a capitation rate basis. Such special programs may include the development and funding of the training of primary health care teams of family practice residents or family physicians and primary care physician's assistants or primary care nurse practitioners; undergraduate medical education programs in family practice; and programs which link training programs and medically underserved communities in California which appear likely to result in the location and retention of training program graduates in such communities. Such special programs may include also the development phase of new family practice residency, primary care physician's assistant or primary care nurse practitioner programs.

The commission shall establish standards and contract criteria for special programs recommended under this paragraph.

(f) To review and evaluate these programs regarding proper compliance with the provisions of this article and to submit annual progress reports to the Legislature on or before September 30 of each year. One standard for evaluation shall be the number of recipients who, after completing the program, actually go on to serve in areas of unmet priority for primary care family physicians in California.

SEC. 265. Section 69511 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

(b) The members appointed pursuant to subdivisions (a), (d), and (f) of Section 69510 shall be appointed effective January 1, 1976.

(c) At no time shall both student representatives be enrolled in a California independent college or university or the University of California or the California State University and Colleges or a California community college.

(d) Current members of the Student Aid Commission shall serve on the commission for the remainder of the terms for which they were appointed, and such members may be reappointed. Notwithstanding Section 69510, the commission shall consist of 13 members in 1976, 12 members in 1977, 1978, and 1979, and 11 members thereafter.

(e) Appointment to the commission shall be made by the Governor subject to confirmation by the Senate.

(f) Any vacancy shall be filled by the appointment of a person who will have the same status as the predecessor of the appointee. The appointee shall hold office only for the balance of the unexpired term.

(g) Whenever by the provisions of any act of Congress a program of scholarships or grants for undergraduate students is established which permits administration of such program within a state by a state agency, the Student Aid Commission, as established by Section

69510, shall administer such act within the state if the Governor and the Student Aid Commission, by a majority vote of its entire membership, determine that the participation by the state in the federal scholarship or grant program under such act would not interfere with or jeopardize the continuation of the scholarship program established under Sections 69530 to 69547, inclusive.

The commission shall constitute the state commission on federal scholarships or grants and is hereby empowered to formulate a plan for development and administration of any such federal scholarship or grant program within the state.

Subject to the provisions of this chapter, the commission is hereby vested with all necessary power and authority to cooperate with the government of the United States, or any agency or agencies thereof, in the administration of any act of Congress establishing a scholarship or grant program and the rules and regulations adopted thereunder.

Before adopting a state plan the Student Aid Commission, acting as the state commission on federal scholarships or grants, shall hold public hearings as provided in the California Administrative Procedure Act.

69532. There shall be 23,062 new Cal Grant awards for first-time recipients for the 1977–78 fiscal year and each year thereafter, except that new scholarships in subdivision (a) in excess of 4.25 percent of the number of high school graduates of the previous fiscal year, in subdivision (b) in excess of 5,375, and in subdivision (c) in excess of 1,062 shall not be awarded unless there are federal student financial aids funds available to the State Scholarship and Loan Commission in an amount necessary to fund such awards or unless the Legislature acts in the future to fund such awards. First priority for federal state student incentive grant funds shall be for students originally funded from state student incentive grant funds who are eligible for renewal. Such grants shall be allocated as follows:

(a) 14,900 awards for the 1977–78 fiscal year, and each fiscal year thereafter, to be utilized for tuition and student fees pursuant to Section 40405.

(b) 6,825 awards for the 1977–78, fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, to be utilized for tuition, student fees, and subsistence costs pursuant to Section 40406.

(c) 1,337 awards for the 1977–78 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, to be utilized for occupational or technical training pursuant to Sections 69539 through 69543.

69536. A Cal Grant award for tuition and student fees as provided in subdivision (a) of Section 69532 may be utilized at any California postsecondary educational institution or program eligible to participate in the Federal Basic Educational Opportunity Grant Program, or any institution recognized as a candidate for accreditation by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges or approved under the requirements of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 94310, provided that such award may not be utilized by a student enrolled in an instructional program of less than two years. No such award may exceed the cost of tuition and fees, and shall in no event exceed the sum of two thousand seven hundred dollars ($2,700). Such awards may not be utilized for graduate study, and may be renewed for a total of four years of full-time attendance after first entering a postsecondary education institution in an instructional program or an equivalent thereof, provided that financial need continues to exist.

SEC. 268. Section 69538 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

69538. To be eligible for a Cal Grant award for tuition, student fees, and subsistence costs as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 69532 the student shall be a disadvantaged student under criteria to be established by the commission, which shall take into consideration those financial, educational, cultural, language, home, community, environmental, and other conditions which tend to make difficult the gaining access to and persisting in postsecondary programs. Such awards may be utilized for tuition, student fees, living expenses, transportation, supplies, and books.

The Legislature recognizes that the role of the community colleges, as the least expensive level of California higher education, is a crucial role in increasing the higher education opportunities for disadvantaged students, and it is the intent of the Legislature that the additional opportunities for higher education provided pursuant to this chapter shall be initiated primarily on the public community college level.

Grants awarded under this chapter shall be for living expenses, transportation, supplies and books, according to the student's financial need, and shall not be in excess of one thousand one hundred dollars ($1,100) per academic year. The Student Aid Commission may also award such grants and an additional amount to pay tuition and fees to attend college at a public or private four-year college or university or other eligible postsecondary educational institution. Any eligible student who has been awarded an initial grant on the basis of need and attendance at a public community college may transfer to another eligible college without being eliminated from the program. In such cases, no adjustments to the initial grant shall be made for tuition and fees.

In no case shall Cal Grant awards exceed the sum of three thousand six hundred dollars ($3,600), and such awards may not be utilized for graduate study. The awards may be utilized at any California postsecondary educational institution or program eligible to participate in the Federal Basic Educational Opportunity Grant Program, or any institution recognized as a candidate for accreditation by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges or approved under the requirements of paragraph (2) of subdivision

(a) of Section 94310, provided that such award may not be utilized by a student enrolled in an instructional program of less than nine months. On and after June 30, 1980, the award may be utilized by a student enrolled in an instructional program of not less than two academic years. The awards may be renewed for a total of four years of full-time attendance after first entering a postsecondary education institution in an instructional program or an equivalent thereof, provided that financial need continues to exist.

Nothing contained in this chapter shall be interpreted to require any such institution to admit into such institution, or once admitted to continue in such institution, an award winner.

Commencing with the 1977–78 academic year, students eligible for renewal awards may use their grants at any institution qualifying under Section 69536.

SEC. 270. Section 69566 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

69566. Each competitive scholarship is for the period of one academic year and the award shall be for three hundred dollars ($300) not to exceed two thousand seven hundred dollars ($2,700) in one hundred dollar ($100) amounts at the college the award winner will attend, as required by applicant's financial need, as determined by the commission, but in no event in excess of an amount equal to the tuition or necessary fees, or both tuition and fees, for the academic year, including summer terms, sessions, or quarters of the institution at which the scholarship is used. No competitive scholarship awarded to an applicant under this section for the period of one academic year shall exceed the total amount of two thousand seven hundred dollars ($2,700); except that the commission may, for students who accelerate college attendance, increase the amount of award for one academic year proportional to the period of additional attendance resulting from attendance at a summer term, session, or quarter. In the aggregate, the total amount a student would receive in a four-year period may not be increased as a result of accelerating his progress to a degree by attending summer terms, sessions, or quarters. The commission may provide by appropriate rules and regulations for such reports, accounting, and statements from the award winner and college or university of attendance pertaining to the use or application of the award as it may deem proper. A competitive scholarship may be renewed annually without an additional competitive examination until the award winner has received four annual awards or until he has been graduated from such an institution in an undergraduate course, whichever is the earlier, provided that at or prior to such renewal the commission shall reassess the financial needs of such award winner and establish the amount of the award within the limits prescribed by this section. The scholarship shall remain in effect only during the period that the award winner achieves satisfactory academic progress and is regularly enrolled as a full-time student in an institution of collegiate grade, as described in Section 69565, or commencing with the 1977–78 academic year, as a part-time student as specified in Section 69535.

First priority for federal state student incentive grant funds shall be for students originally funded from state student incentive grant funds who are eligible for renewal.

SEC. 272. Section 69583 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

Such grants may be awarded to eligible students who attend public community colleges for vocational purposes terminating with a two-year course of study, or commencing with the 1977–78 academic year, by a part-time student as specified in Section 69535. Such grants may be utilized at summer quarters or terms; provided, that the aggregate amount of aid received over a four-year period may not be increased as a result of attending a summer term.

SEC. 273. Section 69584 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

(b) Be a citizen of the United States or have been admitted to permanent residence.

(f) Accrediting organizations in order to carry out their accrediting functions.

(g) Organizations conducting studies for, or on behalf of, educational agencies or institutions for the purpose of developing, validating, or administering predictive tests, administering student aid programs, and improving instruction, if such studies are conducted in such a manner as will not permit the personal identification of students or their parents by persons other than representatives of such organizations and such information will be destroyed when no longer needed for the purpose for which it is conducted.

79150. The office of the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges shall conduct a pilot program of up to five years' duration in cooperative education for not more than five community college districts. For the purposes of this act, "cooperative education" means on-the-job experience directly related to the student's educational goals. Cooperative education requires the supervision of an appropriately credentialed faculty member and is not limited to vocational education.

In order to enroll in a cooperative education program, a student must have earned at least 12 semester units or 18 quarter units at the community college at which he seeks to enroll in the program.

A student enrolled in a cooperative education program may not receive more than one semester unit for each five hours of fieldwork per week or one-quarter unit for each 3⅓ hours of fieldwork per week.

No student may receive more than 16 units of semester credit or 24 units of quarter credit for cooperative education classes. No student may enroll in a cooperative education program for more than eight units per semester or 12 units per quarter.

No student may enroll jointly in a cooperative education program and a work-experience education program. Any credit for work-experience education which had been earned by a student prior to his enrollment in a cooperative education program shall be deducted from the maximum number of units for cooperative education allowable under the fourth paragraph of this section.

Average daily attendance in cooperative education shall be computed pursuant to Section 84530. The Chancellor of the California Community Colleges shall approve cooperative education programs which comply with existing regulations for new educational program approval and the other provisions of this section.

Followup evaluations and recommendations for new cooperative education programs, based upon the findings of the five-year study, shall be made by the office of the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges.

SEC. 315. Section 81033 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

81033. The governing board of a community college district, prior to acquiring any site on which it proposes to construct any school building as defined in Section 81131 shall have the site, or sites, under consideration investigated by competent personnel to ensure that the final site selection is determined by an evaluation of all factors affecting the public interest and is not limited to selection on the basis of raw land cost only. If the prospective school site is located within the boundaries of any special studies zone or within an area designated as geologically hazardous in the seismic safety element of the local general plan as provided in subdivision (f) of Section 65302 of the Government Code, the investigation shall include such geological and soil engineering studies by competent personnel as are needed to provide an assessment of the nature of the site and potential for earthquake or other geological hazard damage.

The geological and soil engineering studies of the site shall be of such a nature as will preclude siting of a school in any location where the geological and site characteristics are such that the construction effort required to make the school building safe for occupancy is economically unfeasible. No such studies need be made if the site or sites under consideration have been the subject of adequate prior studies. The evaluation shall also include location of the site with respect to population, transportation, water supply, waste disposal facilities, utilities, traffic hazards, surface drainage conditions, and other factors affecting the operating costs, as well as the initial costs, of the total project.

For the purposes of this article, a special studies zone is defined as one which is shown on any map, or maps, compiled by the State Geologist pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 2621) of Division 2 of the Public Resources Code. A copy of the report of each investigation conducted pursuant to this section shall be submitted to the board of governors.

SEC. 316. Section 81130 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

81130. The Department of General Services under the police power of the state shall supervise the design and construction of any school building or, if the estimated cost exceeds twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), the reconstruction or alteration of or addition to any school building, to ensure that plans and specifications comply with the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this article and building regulations published in the State Building Standards Code, and to ensure that the work of construction has been performed in accordance with the approved plans and specifications, for the protection of life and property. Nothing in this section shall be construed to allow a community college district to perform work with its own forces in excess of the limitations set forth in Sections 81640 and 81649.

SEC. 317. Section 81133 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

81133. The Department of General Services shall pass upon and approve or reject all plans for the construction or, if the estimated cost exceeds twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), the alteration of any school building. To enable it to do so, the governing board of each community college district and any other school authority before adopting any plans for such school building shall submit the plans to the Department of General Services for approval, and shall pay the fees prescribed in this article.

Where the estimated cost of an alteration exceeds ten thousand dollars ($10,000) but does not exceed twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), a structural engineer shall examine the proposed project to determine if it is a nonstructural alteration or a structural alteration. If he determines that the project is a nonstructural alteration, he shall prepare a statement so indicating. If he determines that the project is structural, he shall prepare plans and specifications for the project and shall observe the work of construction. A copy of the engineer's report stating that the work does not affect structural elements, or a copy of the plans and specifications for structural work, as the case may be, shall be filed with the Department of General Services.

SEC. 318. Section 81139 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

81139. As of January 1, 1978, the persons employed as inspectors of record to inspect the construction, reconstruction or alteration of any school building shall be either (a) persons who are registered as construction inspectors in the divisions in which they are to be used, as defined by Section 9101 of the Business and Professions Code or (b) persons who are regularly employed for building code enforcement by the local agency having responsibility for such inspection, and are qualified to perform such inspections under the civil service laws or regulations of such local agency.

Persons employed as assistants to inspectors of record shall be registered construction inspectors or shall be enrolled as inspectors-in-training in the divisions in which they are to be used, as defined by Section 9101.1 of the Business and Professions Code. This section shall not apply to any architect, structural engineer, civil engineer, land surveyor, mechanical engineer, engineering geologist, or electrical engineer, who holds a valid certificate of registration in this state, insofar as he is practicing within the provisions of the law under which he is registered. This section shall not apply to an inspector approved by the Office of Architecture and Construction and employed pursuant to a particular building contract prior to January 1, 1978, during the performance of that building contract.

SEC. 319. Section 81160 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

81160. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) By an urgency act (Stats. 1933, Ch. 59), the Legislature at the 1933 General Session established reasonable minimum standards for the design and construction of new school buildings, as now defined in Section 81131. Although it was not required that then existing school buildings incorporate these standards, it was intended by the Legislature that in the intervening years continuous progress would be made in the repair, reconstruction or replacement of such school buildings.

(b) Progress toward this end has been outstanding since 1971 as a result of state funds being made available for rehabilitating or replacing structurally unsafe school facilities.

SEC. 320. Section 81165 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

81165. "School building" as used in this article excludes any building which is used exclusively for warehouse, storage, garage, or districtwide administrative office purposes, into which pupils are not required to enter, and off-campus buildings utilized by adult schools or community colleges for voluntary adult education courses or registered apprentice courses.

"School buildings" as used in this article excludes any building owned or occupied by a unified school district, high school district, or a county superintendent of schools which is used exclusively for adult education purposes.

If any building so excluded was not constructed in accordance with Article 7 (commencing with Section 81130) of this chapter and was not repaired, reconstructed, or replaced in accordance with this article, there shall be posted in a conspicuous place on such building a public notice stating that such building does not meet the structural standards imposed by law for earthquake safety.

SEC. 321. Section 81178 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

81178. No school building examined and found to be unsafe for school use pursuant to Section 81162 and not repaired or reconstructed in accordance with the provisions of this article, and no school building which has never met the requirements of Article 7 (commencing with Section 81130), of this chapter, shall be used as a school building for community college purposes after June 30, 1975, except as permitted by Article 15 (commencing with Section 81520) of this chapter, unless the governing board of the community college district has requested and obtained from the State Allocation Board authority for use of such building for a specific period beyond such date. Prior to requesting such authority, the governing board shall adopt a resolution declaring the board's intention to utilize the building as a school building after June 30, 1975, pending its repair, reconstruction, or replacement. The State Allocation Board shall not authorize any community college district to use such a building beyond June 30, 1975, unless it has first determined that the district has already proceeded with a plan of total repair, reconstruction or replacement in a timely manner and a contract has been let for any phase of, and work commenced on, such project. In no event shall the State Allocation Board authorize the use of such unsafe facilities for a period extending beyond the completion of the replacement facilities or beyond June 30, 1977, whichever occurs first.

For purposes of this section, "school building" does not include any portable building. Portable buildings may be used beyond June 30, 1975 to meet temporary housing needs until all repair, reconstruction or replacement of all district school buildings is complete or until June 30, 1977, whichever occurs first, provided that the governing board of the district has requested and obtained from the State Allocation Board authority for use of such portable buildings. The State Allocation Board may grant such authority only to those districts in which 20 percent or more of the schools are subject to partial or complete reconstruction pursuant to Section 81162. Any portable buildings for which authority is granted for temporary use pursuant to this section shall not be subject to the provisions of Article 7 (commencing with Section 81130) or Article 8 (commencing with Section 81160) of this chapter during the period of such authorized use.

81180. The governing board of a community college district may undertake corrective measures relating to earthquake safety recommended to the governing board pursuant to Section 81162 in connection with any school building under the jurisdiction of the governing board without compliance with the procedures otherwise prescribed by Section 81167.

The maximum rate of tax of any community college district for the fiscal years 1974–75 to 1976–77, inclusive, is hereby increased by such amount as will produce the amount necessary to have any school buildings examined as required by Section 81162 and to effect the corrective structural repairs, reconstruction or replacement relating to earthquake safety recommended pursuant to Section 81162, as shown by the budget of the district for such school year as finally adopted by the governing board of the district, less any unencumbered balances remaining at the end of the preceding school year derived from revenue from the increase in the rate of tax provided by this section. The funds provided by such increase in the tax rate may be used to provide for the housing of students temporarily displaced by the repair, reconstruction, or replacement of school buildings required in order to meet earthquake safety standards.

The increase provided by this section shall not exceed a total increase of ten cents ($0.10) for each one hundred dollars ($100) of the assessed valuation of property within the district in each fiscal year, unless additional funds are specifically required by the district to match the state funds provided pursuant to Article 9 (commencing with Section 16310) of Chapter 8 of Part 10 of Division 1 of Title 1. If such additional funds are required by the district, the maximum increase in tax rate provided by this section may be increased by not to exceed an additional ten cents ($0.10) for each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed valuation of property within the district in each fiscal year such additional funds are required pursuant to Article 9, prior to and including the 1973–74 fiscal year. Such additional tax money may be levied in the 1974–75 fiscal year only if the State Allocation Board has first approved an application of the district pursuant to Article 9. After the 1974–75 fiscal year, any district which has levied the entire twenty-cent ($0.20) amount permitted by this section in the preceding fiscal year and has deposited in the State School Building Fund of the district, the proceeds derived therefrom as matching funds in an application or applications under Article 9 may levy the same twenty-cent ($0.20) tax or so much thereof as necessary for matching funds for an application or applications under Article 9 in any succeeding fiscal year, including, but not beyond, the 1976–77 fiscal year.

This section shall remain operative only until July 1, 1978, and as of such date is repealed. This section shall remain in effect until such date regardless of the repeal or expiration of former Section 15517.

Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the governing board shall comply with the provisions of Section 81167 whenever such compliance is necessary to continue the program of corrective structural repairs, reconstruction, or replacement required pursuant to the provisions of this article.

SEC. 323. Section 81350 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

81350. The governing board of the community college district shall obtain the general prevailing rate of per diem wages from the Director of the Department of Industrial Relations for each craft, classification or type of workman needed for the construction of the building and shall specify in the resolution and in the notice, required by Section 81344, or in the resolution required by Section 81345 and in the lease or agreement made pursuant to this article, what the general prevailing rate of per diem wages and the general prevailing rate for holiday and overtime work in the locality is for each craft, classification or type of workmen needed for the construction of the building. The holidays upon which such rate shall be paid need not be specified by the governing board, but shall be all holidays recognized in the collective-bargaining agreement applicable to the particular craft, classification or type of workmen employed on the project.

Any agreement or lease entered into pursuant to this article shall require that such general prevailing rates will be paid. It shall also require that work performed by any workman employed upon the project in excess of eight hours during any one calendar day shall be permitted only upon compensation for all hours worked in excess of eight hours per day at not less than 1½ times the basic rate of pay. There may also be included in leases or agreements entered into pursuant to this article any other requirements with respect to matters related to the subject of this section which the governing board deems necessary or desirable.

SEC. 324. Section 81363.5 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

81363.5. Except as provided for in Article 9 (commencing with Section 81190) of Chapter 1 of this part, the sale or lease with an option to purchase of real property by a community college district shall be in accordance with the following priorities and procedures.

(a) First, the property shall be offered for park or recreational purposes pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 54220) of Chapter 5 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, in any instance in which such article is applicable.

(b) Second, the property shall be offered for sale or lease with an option to purchase, at fair market value;

(1) In writing, to the state, the Regents of the University of California, the Trustees of the California State University and Colleges, the county and city in which the property is situated, and to any public housing authority in the county in which the property is situated; and

(2) By public notice to any public district, public authority, public agency, public corporation, or any other political subdivision in this state, to the federal government, and to nonprofit charitable corporations organized pursuant to Part 3 (commencing with Section 10200) of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code. Public notice shall consist of at least publishing its intention to dispose of the real property in a newspaper of general circulation within the district, or if there is no such newspaper, then in any newspaper of general circulation that is regularly circulated in the district. The notice shall specify that the property is being made available to all public districts, public authorities, public agencies, and other political subdivisions or public corporations in this state, and to other nonprofit charitable corporations.

Publication of notice pursuant to this section shall be once each week for three successive weeks. Three publications in a newspaper regularly published once a week or more often, with at least five days intervening between the respective publication dates not counting such publication dates, are sufficient. The written notice required by paragraph (1) of this subdivision shall be mailed no later than the date of the second published notice.

The entity desiring to purchase or lease the property shall, within 60 days after the third publication of notice, notify the community college district of its intent to purchase or lease the property. If the entity desiring to purchase or lease the property and the district are unable to arrive at a mutually satisfactory price or lease payment during the 60-day period, the property may be disposed of as otherwise provided in this section. In the event the district receives offers from more than one entity pursuant to this subdivision, the school district governing board may, in its discretion, determine which of such offers to accept.

(c) Fourth, the property may be disposed of in any other manner authorized by law.

SEC. 325. Section 81390 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

81390. Any community college district may enter into leases and agreements relating to real property and buildings to be used jointly by the district and any private person, firm, or corporation pursuant to this article. As used in this article, "building" includes onsite and offsite facilities, utilities and improvements which as agreed upon by the parties are appropriate for the proper operation or function of the building to be occupied jointly by the district and private person, firm, or corporation. It also includes the permanent improvement of school grounds.

Any building, or portion thereof, which is used by a private person, firm, or corporation pursuant to this section shall be subject to the zoning and building code requirements of the local jurisdiction in which the building is situated.

Section 53094 of the Government Code shall not be applicable to uses of school district property or buildings authorized by this section, except in the case of property or buildings used solely for educational purposes.

SEC. 326. Section 81602 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

81602. The governing board of a community college district may, by resolution, establish a fund or funds for losses, including but not limited to, district property, any liability, and workers' compensation, in the county treasury for the purpose of covering the deductible amount under deductible types of insurance policies or losses due to noninsured perils. In the fund or funds shall be placed such sums, to be provided in the budget of the district, as will create an amount which, together with investments made from the fund or funds, will be sufficient in the judgment of the governing board to protect the district from such losses on the deductible amount under deductible types of insurance policies or losses due to noninsured perils. Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting the governing board from providing protection against such losses to district property partly by means of the fund or funds and partly by means of insurance written by acceptable insurers as provided in Section 81601. A district may contract for claims adjustment and related services. The cost of such services is an appropriate charge against the appropriate fund.

The fund or funds shall be considered as separate and apart from all other funds of the district, and the balance therein shall not be considered as being part of the working cash of the district in compiling annual budgets.

Warrants shall not be drawn on or transfers made from the fund or funds so created, except to reimburse or indemnify the community college district for losses as herein specified, and only upon resolution duly adopted by the board of education.

The cash placed in the fund or funds may be invested and reinvested by the county treasurer, with the advice and consent of the governing board of the district, in securities which are legal investments for surplus county funds in this state. The income derived from such investments, together with interest earned on uninvested funds, shall be considered revenue of and be deposited in the fund.

A vehicle defined as a "schoolbus" or exempt under subdivision (d) or (e) which is occupied, aside from the driver, exclusively by school pupils or exclusively by school pupils and persons accompanying them for supervisory purposes, to which the use by the general public is prohibited by the carrier under a contract or agreement with the school and which is being operated to transport pupils to and from a public or private school activity, shall be driven by a driver who possesses a valid California schoolbus driver's certificate as provided for pursuant to regulations adopted by the State Board of Education. SEC. 334. Section 84035 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

84035. Any bonds, notes, bills or certificates, debentures or other obligations, so purchased may be sold and the proceeds reinvested in similar bonds, notes, bills or certificates, debentures or other obligations, of the United States of America, its agencies, or its instrumentalities, or placed in the county treasury for credit to the fund of the district from which purchased. This section shall not be construed as in any way limiting or modifying the application of any other law providing for or authorizing the investment of any funds of a community college district. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, interest earned on funds representing the proceeds of bonds of the district shall be deposited and retained in the interest and sinking fund of the district to meet the principal and interest falling due on such bonds.

84040. Not later than the first day of May of each fiscal year each county superintendent of schools shall provide for an audit of all funds under his jurisdiction and control and the governing board of each community college district shall either provide for an audit of the books and accounts of the district or make arrangements with the county superintendent of schools having jurisdiction over the district to provide for such auditing. In the event the governing board of a community college district has not provided for an audit of the books and accounts of the district by April 1st, the county superintendent of schools having jurisdiction over the district shall provide for the audit.

Each audit shall include all funds of the district including the student body and cafeteria funds and accounts and any other funds under the control or jurisdiction of the district.

The cost of the audits provided for by the county superintendent of schools shall be paid from the county school service fund and the county superintendent of schools shall transfer the pro rata share of the cost chargeable to each district from district funds.

The cost of the audit provided for by a governing board shall be paid from district funds. The audit of the funds under the jurisdiction and control of the county superintendent of schools shall be paid from the county school service fund.

The audits shall be made by a certified public accountant or a public accountant, licensed by the State Board of Accountancy. Not later than November 15th, a report of each audit for the preceding fiscal year shall be filed with the county clerk and the county superintendent of schools of the county in which the district is located, the board of governors and the Department of Finance. The submission date may be extended to, but not later than, December 31 for justifiable cause upon written request by the auditor and approval by the county superintendent of schools. The board of governors shall make any adjustments necessary in future apportionments of state funds, to correct any discrepancies revealed by such audit reports under the provisions of Section 84330.

Each county superintendent of schools shall be responsible for the correction of any discrepancies revealed by audit reports issued pursuant to this section which do not affect state funds and are not corrected by Section 84330 when the discrepancies affect any funds under his control or the control of any district within his jurisdiction.

If a governing board or county superintendent of schools fails or is unable to make satisfactory arrangements for audit pursuant to this section, the Department of Finance may make arrangements for the audit and the cost of such audit shall be paid from district funds or the county school service fund as the case may be.

The Department of Finance with the cooperation of the board of governors shall prescribe the statements and other information to be included in the audit reports filed with the state. The Department of Finance may make such audits, surveys and reports, and may develop suggested procedures for carrying out the purposes of this section, as in the judgment of the department will serve the best interests of the state.

Nothing in this section shall be considered as authorizing examination into or report on the curriculum used or provided for in any community college district.

SEC. 335. Section 84201 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

84201. Any state department, board, or agency which allocates funds to any community college district on the basis of the assessed valuation of property within the district, or which makes any computation on this basis for school building fund repayment purposes, shall average the factor certified for the current year under Section 84200 for the local roll of the county in which the district is located with the factors so certified for the two immediately preceding years. The department, board, or agency shall then modify that part of the valuation of the district shown on the local roll by application of this three-year-average factor carried to three decimal places. If a district is located in more than one county, this modification shall be made by applying the average factor appropriate for the assessed value of the property upon the local roll of each county within which the district is located. If the factor for the current year is not provided to the county superintendent of schools by the fifth working day in August, the preliminary factor may be used in its place for determining the average factor to be used to modify the locally assessed valuation of a school district for allocating equalization aid, and for computing loan repayments to the state.

SEC. 336. Section 84301 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

84301. The amount transferred to Section B of the State School Fund pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 14030 shall be expended in accordance with the following schedule:

(a) Four hundred twenty-one dollars and eighty-five cents ($421.85) multiplied by the total average daily attendance credited to community college districts during the preceding fiscal year for basic aid and equalization aid to be apportioned to community college districts on account of average daily attendance. This amount shall be increased by the amount necessary to equalize the total expenditures from this section to the transfers from the General Fund to the State School Fund required by subdivisions (b), (c), (d), and (e) of Section 14020.

(b) Twelve dollars and nineteen cents ($12.19) multiplied by the average daily attendance during the preceding school year credited for purposes of state apportionments to all community college districts for the purpose of Article 11 (commencing with Section 84850) of Chapter 5 of this part.

SEC. 337. Section 84322 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

84322. The chancellor shall on or before February 20th of each year apportion to each community college district, the total amounts allowed to them under Sections 84760, 84770, 84780, 84781, 84817, 84820, 84832, 84834, 84835, 84836, 84838, and 84850. This apportionment shall be called the first principal apportionment.

SEC. 338. Section 84324 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

84324. The chancellor shall on or before June 25th of each year apportion to each community college district, the total amounts allowed to them under Sections 84760, 84770, 84780, 84781, 84817, 84820, 84832, 84834, 84835, 84836, 84838, and 84850. This apportionment shall be called the second principal apportionment.

SEC. 339. Section 84327 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

84327. The chancellor shall withhold from the apportionment to a community college district, as a part of the first principal apportionment and second principal apportionment, the amount allowed the district for the average daily attendance in grades 13 and 14 by reason of the operation of Sections 84721 and 84726 and Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 84762) of Chapter 5 of this part of students residing in the district who were in attendance at a community college in another district. The amount withheld per unit of average daily attendance shall be determined by dividing the total amount of basic state aid and state equalization aid computed for the district of residence of such students by the total resident average daily attendance of the district.

The chancellor shall add the amount withheld to the apportionment required to be made to the community college district maintaining the community college at which the students were in attendance.

SEC. 340. Section 84362 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

84362. For purposes of this section:

(a) "Salaries of classroom instructors" and "instructors" shall have the same meaning as prescribed by Section 84031 provided, however, that the cost of all health and welfare benefits provided to the instructors by the community college district shall be included within the meaning of salaries of classroom instructors.

(b) "Current expense of education" means the gross total expended (not reduced by estimated income or estimated federal and state apportionments) for the purposes classified in the final budget of a district (except one which, during the preceding fiscal year, had less than 101 units of average daily attendance) submitted to and approved by the county superintendent of schools pursuant to Section 85023 for certificated salaries other than certificated salaries for student transportation, food services, and community services; classified salaries other than classified salaries for student transportation, food services, and community services; employee benefits other than employee benefits for student transportation personnel, food services personnel, and community services personnel; books, supplies, and equipment replacement other than for student transportation and food services; and community services, contracted services, and other operating expenses other than for student transportation, food services, and community services. "Current expense of education," for purposes of this section shall not include those expenditures classified as sites, buildings, books, and media and new equipment (object of expenditure 6000 of the Accounting Manual for California Community Colleges), the amount expended from categorical aid received from the federal or state government which funds were granted for expenditures in a program not incurring any instructor salary expenditures or requiring disbursement of the funds without regard to the requirements of this section, or expenditures for facility acquisition and construction; and shall not include the amount expended pursuant to any lease agreement for plant and equipment or the amount expended from funds received from the federal government pursuant to the "Economic Opportunity Act of 1964" or any extension of such act of Congress or the amount expended by a community college from state or federal funds received by the community college for grants to community college students or for the employment of community college students.

There shall be expended during each fiscal year for payment of salaries of classroom instructors by a community college district, fifty percent (50%) of the district's current expense of education.

If the board of governors determines that a district has not expended the applicable percentage of current expense of education for the payment of salaries of classroom instructors during the preceding fiscal year, the board shall, in apportionments made to the district from the State School Fund after April 15 of the current fiscal year, designate an amount of such apportionment or apportionments equal to the apparent deficiency in district expenditures. Any amount so designated by the board of governors shall be deposited in the county treasury to the credit of the community college district, but shall be unavailable for expenditure by the district pending the determination to be made by the board of governors on any application for exemption which may be submitted to the board of governors. In the event it appears to the governing board of a community college district that the application of the preceding paragraphs of this section during a fiscal year results in serious hardship to the district, or in the payment of salaries of classroom instructors in excess of the salaries of classroom instructors paid by other districts of comparable type and functioning under comparable conditions, the governing board may, with the written approval of the county superintendent of schools having jurisdiction over the district apply to the board of governors in writing not later than September 15th of the succeeding fiscal year for exemption from the requirements of the preceding paragraphs of this section for the fiscal year on account of which the application is made. Upon receipt of such application, duly approved, the board of governors shall grant the district exemption for any amount that is less than one thousand dollars ($1,000), and if the amount is one thousand dollars ($1,000), or greater may grant the district exemption, to the extent deemed necessary by him, from such requirements for the fiscal year on account of which the application is made. If such exemption is granted, the designated moneys shall be immediately available for expenditure by the community college district governing board. If no application for exemption is made or exemption is denied, the board of governors shall order the designated amount or amount not exempted to be added to the amounts to be expended for salaries of classroom instructors during the next fiscal year.

The board of governors shall enforce the requirements prescribed by this section, and may adopt necessary rules and regulations to that end. It may require the submission during the school year, by community college district governing boards and county superintendents of schools, of such reports and information as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

SEC. 341. Section 34C of this act shall become operative on July 1, 1977.

84520. The units of average daily attendance for apportionment purposes of regularly enrolled students of a community college district during the academic year, as defined in Section 71027, and subject to the provisions of Section 78452 shall be computed by multiplying the weekly student contact hours of enrollment as recorded for the census day or days each semester or quarter by statewide factors heretofore established by the board of governors, subject to review by the Department of Finance. The census day shall be Monday of each of two census weeks of five or six consecutive days of regularly scheduled classes each term or session as approved by the board of governors.

Attendance of such students enrolled in classes conducted in summer sessions, as distinct from summer quarters, of four weeks or more shall be counted in the computation of average daily attendance for apportionment purposes under the provisions of this section using the following formula: Multiply the sum of the weekly student contact hours of enrollment in each class during the census week of each class of the summer session by the number of scheduled weeks for each class, multiply the product so derived by the statewide factors established by the board of governors, subject to review by the Department of Finance, and divide by 525. The census day shall be Monday of the second week. For classes of less than four weeks, the units of average daily attendance shall be computed by dividing the total actual class hours of attendance by 525.

SEC. 343. Section 84521 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

84521. For the purposes of this section a short-term class, exclusive of Sections 84500 and 84530, is any class scheduled for less than a full quarter, semester, or other sessions as approved by the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges to meet the requirements of Section 84370.

Notwithstanding Section 84520, units of average daily attendance of students enrolled in credit and noncredit short-term classes qualifying for a state apportionment in the 1974–75, 1975–76, 1976–77, and 1977–78 college years shall be computed by dividing actual class hours of attendance by 525.

This section shall remain in effect only until July 1, 1978, and is repealed as of that date.

SEC. 344. Section 84522 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

84522. The board of governors shall, with the approval of the Department of Finance, determine two census weeks for each term of the regular academic year, and a single census week for summer sessions.

The board of governors, after appropriate study, shall develop a drop date for reporting students in active attendance which shall be no later than the day prior to the beginning of the second census week in regular academic terms; and such census weeks shall be used for all apportionment purposes for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1975, and subsequent fiscal years.

In its study, the board of governors shall consider the needs of students, most particularly those who are unable to complete a term due to illness or other extenuating circumstances, while at the same time making the drop date meaningful to the measurement of average daily attendance.

In implementing the intent of this section, the board of governors shall insure that local governing boards maintain sufficient administrative flexibility to provide adequately for the academic needs of students.

Beginning with the fiscal year 1975–76, new census week or weeks factors shall be used for all computations of state apportionment.

The chancellor's office shall study and test the validity of such factors, and periodically the board of governors may make such adjustments as are necessary and as are agreed to by the Department of Finance.

SEC. 345. Section 84526 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

84526. The attendance of all students not residents of a community college district, including adults as defined by Section 78460, enrolled in regular 13th- and 14th-grade courses during the academic year shall be kept separately from all other attendance and the units of average daily attendance for such students and adults shall be computed on an individual basis in the applicable manner prescribed in Section 84520 or Section 84524.5, except that for adults the factor shall be adjusted as required in Section 84524.

The units of average daily attendance of students who are not residents of the community college district enrolled in summer schools and classes for adults shall be kept separately from all other attendance and be computed on an individual basis in the applicable manner prescribed in Section 84520 or Section 84524.5 and Section 84525, as appropriate.

SEC. 346. Section 84528 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

84528. The total units of average daily attendance in the community colleges of a district shall be the total of units of average daily attendance computed under Sections 84520 and 84524.5.

SEC. 347. Section 84533 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

84533. The attendance of a community college student shall be recorded and reported separately if both that portion of the district of which he is a resident and that portion of the district in which he attends a community college are part of a cooperative vocational area and if the following conditions are satisfied:

(a) The community college offered vocational programs under a cooperative agreement with other community college districts within the area during the preceding fiscal year, and

(b) The student is enrolled in a cooperative vocational program in the community college which he attends which is not offered by a community college maintained by the community college district of which he is a resident, and all the community college districts which are a part of the applicable cooperative vocational area have agreed that the provisions of this section shall be applicable in that vocational area, or

(c) The student is enrolled in a vocational program in the community college which he attends, which program is offered, but is not available to him, in a community college maintained by the community college district of which he is a resident; and the district of which he is a resident and the district in which he is attending a community college have agreed that the provisions of this section shall be applicable.

SEC. 348. Section 84701 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

84701. For the purposes of this chapter, the governing board of each community college district shall report to the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges during each fiscal year the average daily attendance of the district for all full school months during (1) the period between July 1st and December 31st, inclusive, to be known as the "first period" report for the first principal apportionment, and (2) the period between July 1st and April 15th, inclusive, to be known as the "second period" report for the second principal apportionment. If the average daily attendance in the regular day schools of a district for the period of time between July 1 and June 30 is greater or lesser than the average daily attendance in the regular day schools reported for the second period report, the appropriate increases and decreases in the several categories of attendance for which separate foundation programs are required to be computed shall be recomputed on the basis of the foundation program and assessed valuation of the district of the fiscal year in which such increases and decreases in average daily attendance were applicable and the appropriate increases and decreases in apportionments shall be added or withheld in the next succeeding fiscal year pursuant to Section 84330.

Each report shall be prepared in accordance with instructions on forms prescribed and furnished by the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges and average daily attendance shall be computed in the following manner:

(a) With the exception of days of attendance in special day classes convened, or other instruction provided a student for days in a school year which are in excess of the number of days in the school year on which the regular day schools of the district are convened, if the average daily attendance in schools and classes maintained by community college districts other than regular day schools and classes for the period of time between July 1 and June 30 is greater or lesser than the average daily attendance in such schools and classes reported for the second period report, the separate state support which is provided for attendance in such schools and classes shall be recomputed on the basis of the fiscal year average daily attendance, and increases and decreases in apportionments shall be added or withheld in the next succeeding fiscal year pursuant to Section 84330.

(b) The average daily attendance of each community college shall be determined pursuant to the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 84520) of Chapter 4 of this part. For community colleges under the provisions of this paragraph, the "first period" shall be the summer session and the fall semester for semester system colleges, the summer and fall quarter for colleges on the three-quarter system, and the summer and fall quarters for colleges on the four-quarter system. The "second period" shall be the "academic year" which is the summer session plus the first and second semester for semester system colleges, the summer session plus the first and second quarters for three-quarter-system colleges and the summer, fall, and winter quarters for four-quarter-system colleges.

The "academic year" for three- or four-quarter-system colleges is reported on the annual report and adjustments shall be made as set forth in the first paragraph of this section.

(c) The average daily attendance in summer school and outdoor science and conservation education classes maintained during the period between the last day the regular day schools are in session during the preceding year and the first day the regular day schools are in session during the current year shall be reported on both the first period and second period reports. The hours of attendance shall be divided by 525 for all classes of less than four weeks duration. For summer sessions of four weeks or more, average daily attendance shall be computed as provided in Section 84520.

(d) The days of attendance in classes for adults maintained after the last full school month of the second period of the preceding year and prior to the end of each reporting period shall be reported on each report.

SEC. 349. Section 84706 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

84706. For the purposes of computation of allowances and apportionments from the State School Fund, whenever computations of apportionments based on average daily attendance are made for community college districts only the attendance in all classes which have been reported as attached to, or as a part of, a community college which maintains grades 13 and 14 shall be included.

SEC. 350. Section 84790 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

84790. For each fiscal year, the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges shall allow to each community college district for each unit of average daily attendance of students not residing in the district and not residing in any district maintaining a community college, one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125) as basic state aid.

There shall be excluded from the computation of allowances provided by this section the average daily attendance of inmates of any state penal institution for adults or of any city, county, or city and county jail, road camp, or farm for adults; unless the inmate is attending a community college class or program pursuant to Section 2690 of the Penal Code, in which case such attendance shall be included.

SEC. 351. Section 84817 of the Education Code, as amended by Chapter 1011 of the Statutes of 1976, is amended to read:

84817. Such amounts withheld shall then be apportioned, on a pro rata basis against the expenses, to those districts which maintain and operate vehicles exclusively for the transportation of handicapped students. The manner in which, the times at which, and the terms for which the members of the board of education created pursuant to this section shall be elected or appointed, and their qualifications, compensation, and removal, shall be governed by the general provisions of law governing school district governing boards; except that, in order to provide for an orderly transition, the members of the board in office on the effective date of the charter amendment shall each continue in office until the first day of April next succeeding the year in which their respective terms of office would otherwise have terminated.

SEC. 396.5. Article 2 (commencing with Section 7050) is added to Chapter 1 of Part 5 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

CHAPTER 2.5. ALTERNATIVE CHILD CARE PROGRAMS

Article 1. General Provisions

8400. This chapter shall remain in effect only until June 30, 1979, and as of that date is repealed.

The Legislature declares that it is necessary to design effective and economical methods for meeting the future requirements of California families eligible for subsidized child care. Therefore,

(a) It is the intent of the Legislature that funds allocated pursuant to this chapter shall:

(1) Test potential cost-reducing features and delivery methods on a trial basis in child care programs; and

(2) Insure that a broad range of services is available to maximize the opportunity for parental choice.

(b) It is further the intent of the Legislature that child care programs funded through this chapter be designed to:

(1) Address the unmet needs in urban, suburban, and rural areas of the state;

(2) Encourage community level coordination in support of child care services; and

(3) Offer replicable features which may be adopted by other child care provider agencies.

(c) The Legislature further declares its intent to fund programs that may be implemented through a variety of delivery systems.

8401. Eligibility for subsidized child care services pursuant to this chapter shall be based on a family's ability to pay, as determined by family size and gross income. Initial eligibility shall be limited to families whose gross income is 84 percent or less of California's median family income, adjusted for family size. Priority in the initial admission to a program providing such services shall be given to working single-parent families and working families with the lowest income, and single-parent families or families with the lowest income who require subsidized child care in order to maintain or commence an employment training plan or in order to seek employment.

Exceptions to these eligibility and priority standards may be made for children who are neglected or abused, or at risk of being neglected or abused, upon written referral from a public or voluntary social service agency.

8402. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall establish a fee schedule for families utilizing child development services pursuant to this chapter.

No recipient of public assistance shall pay a fee. This fee schedule shall conform to that allowed by the federal social service regulations as designated in the California State Plan for Social Services.

8403. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall establish guidelines according to which providers of services pursuant to this chapter will certify children as eligible for reimbursement pursuant to Sections 8401 and 8402.

8404. The maximum reimbursement rate by the Department of Education for child-hour costs for child care services provided pursuant to this chapter shall be one dollar and fourteen cents ($1.14), minus parent fees, or the actual program costs, minus parent fees, whichever is less, for children age two years and over. For children under two years of age, the maximum reimbursement level shall be one dollar and thirty-five cents ($1.35), minus parent fees, or actual program costs minus parent fees, whichever is less. These maximum reimbursement rates may be waived, on a limited basis, by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, upon approval of the Secretary of the Health and Welfare Agency, for programs that demonstrate a need for increased reimbursement due to special circumstances directly related to the health and welfare of participating children.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction may authorize increased reimbursement for such programs not sooner than 30 days after notification in writing of the necessity therefor to the chairman of the committee in each house which considers appropriations and the Chairman of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, or not sooner than such earlier time as the chairman of said committee, or his designee, may in each instance determine.

If programs operated pursuant to this chapter utilize reimbursement procedures other than payment per child-hour, the cost per child, when converted to child-hours, shall not exceed the applicable maximum reimbursement level.

Article 2. Administration and Waiver Provisions

8410. All programs operated pursuant to this chapter shall be by contract with the Department of Education and shall adhere to all applicable rules and regulations established by the Superintendent of Public Instruction. Such rules and regulations shall be adopted after the Secretary of the Health and Welfare Agency has been given an opportunity to provide his advice and recommendations and shall be consistent with the operative licensing interagency agreement between the Department of Education and the State Department of Health.

8411. To promote greater program flexibility for programs under this chapter, the requirements of Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 8200) of this part are not applicable to programs established pursuant to this division. The Superintendent of Public Instruction may waive other Education Code provisions for the implementation of programs established pursuant to this chapter.

8412. All programs authorized by the Department of Education pursuant to this chapter, shall, as a minimum, comply with the standards of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 31001) of subdivision 4 of Part II of Division 2 of Title 22 of the California Administrative Code (adopted pursuant to Sections 10552, 10553, and 10554 of the Welfare and Institutions Code and pursuant to Sections 1527, 1530, and 1531 of the Health and Safety Code), until such time as Chapter 6 of Division 6 of Title 22 of the California Administrative Code is operative, and at such time shall comply with the standards of such provisions.

8413. In order to assess the effectiveness and economy of the various child care delivery models tested through the provisions of this chapter, each provider agency shall submit to the Superintendent of Public Instruction at least annually, a report, in a form and manner prescribed by the superintendent after consultation with the Secretary of the Health and Welfare Agency. Such reports shall include such statistical data, program description, and fiscal information as the superintendent may require.

8414. The superintendent shall submit to the Legislature and the Governor a preliminary report by May 1, 1977, and an annual report thereafter prior to November 1 of each year, on the child care programs implemented for the preceding fiscal year under this chapter. This report shall include an assessment by the Superintendent of Public Instruction of the degree to which programs implemented pursuant to this chapter have met the purpose of this chapter as set forth in subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 8400. Such report shall also include the superintendent's recommendations for appropriate regulatory and statutory changes.

The report shall include, as a minimum, the following:

(a) Statistical data enumerating and describing children and families served by the programs, including distributions of families and children by income levels, by ethnic groupings, by children's ages, by marital status of parents, by reasons for receiving child care service (i.e., employment, training, education, protection), by public assistance status, and by family size.

(b) Statistical data enumerating and describing the characteristics of programs, including the types of programs in terms of size and type of facilities utilized, types of agencies operating programs, and the staff-child ratios and the staff composition for each type of program and for each type of operating agency.

(c) Cost data describing the total costs and the average cost per hour of service for each type of program and for each type of operating agency.

(d) Evaluative data describing the quality of child development programs in accordance with measurement criteria as established by the Superintendent of Public Instruction after consultation with the Secretary of the Health and Welfare Agency.

8415. The Department of Education shall contract, after consultation with the Secretary of the Health and Welfare Agency, for an independent comparative evaluation of data collected pursuant to Section 8414 and similar program reporting requirements of Chapter

2 (commencing with Section 8200) of this part. Such evaluation shall include: (1) validation of the data collected to meet reporting requirements for this chapter and Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 8200) of this part; (2) comparison between like models under this chapter; and (3) comparison of like models funded under this chapter which contain comparable components with models funded under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 8200) of this part. The preliminary evaluation shall be submitted to the Legislature by January 1, 1978, and the final evaluation shall be submitted to the Legislature by January 1, 1979.

Article 3. Payment Procedures

8420. Upon the approval of the Department of Education, funds appropriated for the purposes of this chapter may be used for vendor payment arrangements to allow for maximum parental choice. The specific design of the vendor payment arrangement may be developed at the local level and various methods of reimbursement for parental costs for child care may be employed. All such arrangements must conform to the eligibility criteria and the parent fee schedule established pursuant to Sections 8401 and 8402.

8421. This chapter shall not be construed as requiring one type of reimbursement structure. Options for reimbursement processes include, but are not limited to: hourly rate reimbursement based on actual child-hours of attendance, unit reimbursement per child, or direct grants for yearly operation. All such processes shall be subject to the maximum reimbursement levels established by Section 8404.

8422. The Department of Education may authorize a cash advance of up to 10 percent of a child care provider's estimated grant to provide initial working capital.

Article 4. Description of Programs

8430. Delivery systems, approved by the Department of Education, and funded pursuant to this chapter, may include, but are not limited to, individual family day care homes and networks of family day care homes, group, and center child care approaches and networks of such arrangements which provide nonmedical care to the infants and preschool and school-age children under 18 years of age during a portion of the day. Flexibility may be added to center programs by affiliating with family day care homes, by coordinating efforts with a resource and referral center, or by arranging to provide direct family subsidies to expand the number of care options. Family day care networks may furnish a variety of services to providers and users while children are cared for in family day care homes. Family day care providers may choose to remain independent or to affiliate either with each other, with a service agency, or with a child care center in a satellite relationship.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall encourage the establishment of worksite child care centers by private organizations and companies or by incorporated parent groups.

8431. Program variations shall include at least one cost-reducing feature or delivery method which may include:

(a) Modification of child-staff ratios for specific age groups;

(b) Modification of child-teacher ratios for specific age groups;

(c) Expanded use of differentiated staffing;

(d) Expanded use of volunteers;

(e) Increased coordination and use of local resources; and

(f) Coordinated use of family day care homes and center facilities.

8432. Programs operated pursuant to this chapter may be designed to meet special needs identified by parents, which may include, but are not limited to: before school and after school care for school age children, expanding to full day care during school holidays and summer vacation; weekend care; night shift care; worksite care; temporary emergency child care; child care for ill children; and programs to allow older children to check in at a family day care home and proceed individually to supervised activities elsewhere.

Article 5. Support Services

8435. Upon approval of the Department of Education after consultation with the Secretary of the Health and Welfare Agency, funds appropriated for the purposes of this chapter may be used for minor capital outlay purchases and facility renovation, by child care organizations and family day care home operators for the purpose of insuring compliance with local health and safety standards as well as state standards prescribed in Section 8412. Funds appropriated for this purpose shall be allocated only to public entities, which may, in turn, enter into agreements with a public agency or with a private foundation, a nonprofit corporation, a proprietary organization or facility, or with a family day care home operator, in order to carry out the provisions of this section. Requests and justification for such grants for capital outlay purchases, and facility renovations must be submitted to the Department of Education for prior approval. Approved expenditures may be on a depreciation basis or a loan basis and shall be processed and accounted for by the public entity which is the recipient of the grant. Approval for expenditure of funds in these ways will be granted only for renovations necessary to meet required local health and safety standards, as well as state standards prescribed in Section 8412.

8436. Funds appropriated for the purposes of this chapter may be used for resource and referral centers which may be operated by public or private entities. For purposes of this chapter, resource and referral centers, established in a definite geographic area, may provide, but are not limited to, the following support services and coordinating functions:

(a) Identifying existing child care provider;

(b) Identifying unmet child care needs;

(k) Distributing and accounting for funds employed by other public and private agencies to insure compliance with health and safety standards, if the resource and referral center is a public entity's responsibility.

8437. The Department of Education may contract with individuals or groups for the provision of resource and referral centers. Qualified individuals may subcontract with a resource and referral center to provide a neighborhood or community child care service, which may include any item in subdivisions (a) through (j) of Section 8436.

8438. Funds provided for support services pursuant to Sections 8435, 8436, and 8437, shall not be included in determination of a program's maximum reimbursement level, as established by Section 8404.

8439. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 8411, no program funded pursuant to this article may include religious worship or instruction, nor may any funds be used for the general support of any private or church-related school system.

Article 6. Application Procedures

8440. Funds appropriated for the purposes of this chapter may be allocated for programs proposed by groups and organizations not currently delivering child care services. Nothing in this chapter shall preclude existing child care provider agencies from applying for the funds made available under this chapter, provided that such agencies demonstrate an unmet need and serve additional children through a separately identified program using one or more alternative implementation designs as described in Sections 8431 and 8432. Individuals or small groups may apply directly to the Department of Education or participate in a subcontract arrangement for the provision of child care services authorized by this chapter.

(e) Such additional information as is determined to be needed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

8443. Upon receipt of applications by the Department of Education, the data supplied by each applicant shall be used to assign relative funding priority, on the basis of criteria developed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction after consultation with the Secretary of the Health and Welfare Agency. Such criteria may include, but are not limited to:

(a) Evaluations shall be performed in such a manner as to minimize the resources required of school districts in the collection, analysis, and reporting of evaluation information. In order to achieve this goal, program evaluations shall require only that information which is essential to the Department of Education for carrying out statutorily mandated functions, and shall be conducted only as necessary for the conduct of such functions. In addition, such evaluations shall (1) be fully coordinated with one another, (2) make maximum use of the statewide testing program when appropriate, and (3) make maximum use of appropriate scientific sampling procedures.

(b) Evaluations shall be performed and reported in such a manner as to maximize their utility to decisionmakers in the Legislature.

33401. The Department of Education shall submit to the State Board of Education a detailed, annual plan of evaluation activities not later than March 15th of each year. The board shall review the plan in accordance with the criteria specified in subdivision (a) and (b) of Section 33400.

It shall provide information concerning (a) the funding history, (b) the number of pupils involved, (c) the program objectives, (d) its effectiveness in reaching program objectives, and (e) the effectiveness and relative effectiveness in promoting pupil achievement of different programs.

The annual summary shall include a brief description of educational projects, programs, or program components which are maintained by an individual school regardless of state, federal, or local funding sources which are exemplary.

33403. The Department of Education shall perform evaluations of educational programs in accordance with one of the following levels of evaluation:

(a) A descriptive report of an individual educational program which describes the objectives and components of the subject program, the number of pupils involved, and contains general information regarding the program's cost and the extent of implementation of the program.

The department shall prepare or have prepared descriptive reports for the following programs:

(1) Experimental kindergarten programs, pursuant to Section 41380;

(2) Year-round school programs, pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 37500) and Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 37600) of Part 22;

(5) Miller-Unruh reading programs, pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 60640) of Chapter 5 of Part 33.

Such evaluation shall contain information obtained by whatever means possible regarding pupil growth in the subject program, information regarding the expected achievement of comparable groups of pupils who do not receive specialized educational services, information regarding program costs, and inferential judgments regarding the effectiveness of the programs. An objective of such evaluation shall be to illustrate the relative effectiveness of different program elements regardless of source of funding. The Department of Education shall identify those programs which are judged to be least effective.

For each of the funding sources identified in the multiple-funded evaluation report, the Department of Education shall include a separate chapter which will present data from schools funded solely by that source. Each of these chapters will provide, to the extent possible, information regarding pupil growth, the expected achievement of comparable groups of pupils, information regarding program costs, and inferential judgments regarding the quality of programs funded by that source.

33404. It is the understanding of the Legislature that the evaluation needs of the educational programs specified in Section 33403 change over a period of time and during the progress of the programs and, therefore, the Legislature may require through supplemental language to the Budget Act: (a) That additional types of information or reporting formats be employed; (b) That the level of evaluation specified in subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of Section 33403 be altered to reflect current needs; and (c) That an evaluation shall be conducted by contracted, independent evaluators.

33405. Not later than January 5 of each year, the department shall submit to the Legislature the multiple-funded program evaluation required by this article. The department shall submit in one evaluation report the results of multiple-funded programs. Such report shall detail the test instruments used to assess the impact of the specialized educational program, the statistical techniques employed, the number of pupils and schools participating in the special program, and the number of schools and pupils which provide educational data which are subsequently used to determine the program's effectiveness.

(a) Adversely affect the school district organization of the county;

(b) Be compatible with any master plans submitted by the county committee and approved by the State Board of Education;

(c) Comply with the provisions of Section 35512.1.

In the event that the petition provides for establishing trustee areas, the county committee shall recommend trustee areas that provide for representation in accordance with population and geographic factors of the entire area of the proposed unified school district. The county committee may recommend as many trustee areas as needed, but not to exceed seven. The committee shall also include a provision for the election of members of the governing board by the registered voters of the entire school district or for the election of the member or members residing in each trustee area by the registered voters of that particular trustee area as part of its recommendation.

The report shall also contain a statement of the committee's findings on the adequacy of the proponent's stated reason or reasons for the proposed formation of the new school district, as set forth in the petition.

(b) That the new district or districts will be adequate in terms of financial ability. For purposes of determining financial ability consideration shall be given to revenue limits per pupil, assessed valuations per pupil, and tax rates;

(c) That the new district or districts are organized on the basis of substantial community identity;

(d) That the proposal will result in an adequate division of property and facilities of the original district; and

(e) That the proposal and formation of the new district will not promote racial or ethnic discrimination or segregation. The State Board of Education may secure the advice and assistance of any other public agencies concerned with the intergroup relationships for purposes of making determinations under this subdivision.

The State Board of Education may waive the criteria specified in subdivisions (a) through (e) of this section and may approve a proposal for the formation of one or more school districts if the board determines that the circumstances, with respect to the proposals, provide an exceptional situation sufficient to justify approval of the proposals.

The State Board of Education shall adopt rules and regulations to carry out the intent of this section.

SEC. 435. Section 35512.2 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

35512.2. The State Board of Education, if it approves a petition for the formation of a new elementary and new high school district or for the formation of a new unified school district under the provisions of this article, shall include a provision for authorization of a revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance for the proposed new school district, and such provision shall be an inherent part of the proposal, and shall not be construed as a separate proposition. If the reorganization is approved by the registered voters of the area, such revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance shall be the maximum revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance for the type of new district formed until changed by Section 42238 or by the registered voters of the district in the manner prescribed in Section

42202. Such revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance shall not be less than the revenue limit which would be produced if (a) for the fiscal year prior to the fiscal year in which the reorganization becomes effective for all purposes, the sum of the revenue limit of each of the proposed school districts to be wholly included and the proportional share of the revenue limit of each district to be partially included in the proposed reorganized district is divided by the total number of units of average daily attendance that would have been in the proposed reorganized district had it been reorganized in the fiscal year prior to the fiscal year in which the reorganization becomes effective for all purposes plus, (b) the revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance required to equal the amount of the difference between the average certificated and the average classified salary of each of the component school districts, or any portion of a district, during the fiscal year prior to that in which the district becomes effective for all purposes and the highest average certificated and the highest average classified salary of any component district included in the proposal, multiplied by the number of employees in each category, less the number of employees in each category of the district having the highest average salaries.

In computing the increase in the revenue limit in subdivision (b) of this section, any school district or a portion of a district to be included in any proposed reorganized district may be considered in determining the highest average salary, provided that such school district or a portion of a district contains at least 10 percent of the total number of certificated and classified employees in the proposed district, plus, (c) the estimated adjustment to the revenue limit per average daily attendance pursuant to Section 42238 that the proposed reorganized district would be allowed had it been reorganized in the fiscal year prior to the fiscal year in which the reorganization becomes effective for all purposes.

35512.4. The State Board of Education, if it approves a petition under this chapter, shall include a provision for the division of property when the entire territory or a portion of the territory of a school district is withdrawn and included in another school district, or is formed into a new school district, or is included in two or more new school districts. All property, funds, and obligations of the former district, or portion of the former district, including the bonded indebtedness, shall be allocated as herein provided:

(a) The real property and personal property and fixtures normally situated thereat shall be the property of the school district in which the real property is located; and

(b) Except as provided otherwise by law, all other property and funds, after all obligations, except for bonded indebtedness, have been discharged, shall be divided pro rata among the school districts in which the territory of the former school district is included.

The board shall also provide for the division of funds, including cash on hand and moneys due but uncollected on the date reorganization becomes effective for all purposes, and state apportionments based on average daily attendance earned in the year immediately preceding the date reorganization becomes effective for all purposes.

In providing for the division of property, funds, and obligations, including bonded indebtedness, the board may consider (1) the ratio that the assessed valuation of the part of the district to be included within a new school district bears to the entire school district from which it was taken, or, (2) the ratio that the number of school age pupils of the part of the district to be included within a new district bears to the entire district from which it was taken, or (3) the average of (1) and (2) above, or (4) the value and location of the property, or, (5) such other matters as the board may deem important and pertinent. Any funds derived from the sale of bonds issued by the former school district shall be used for the acquisition, construction or improvement of school property only in the territory which comprised the former district or to discharge bonded indebtedness of the former district, except that, if the bond debt is assumed by the new district, the funds may be used in any area of the new school district for the purpose for which the bonds were originally voted.

The ownership of the property, funds, and obligations, which is the proportionate share of each segment of the student body, shall be transferred to the student body of the school or schools in which the students are first enrolled during the school year next succeeding the reorganization. Funds from devises, bequests, or gifts made to the organized student body of a school shall remain the property of the organized student body of that school and shall not be divided.

(b) The fiscal year 1975–76 shall be the base year for the junior high school tuition for computational purposes.

(c) The county superintendent of schools shall compute the tuition charge for the 1975–76 fiscal year pursuant to Section 37062 which shall be the junior high school revenue limit for the high school district.

(d) For the 1976–77 fiscal year and fiscal years thereafter, the junior high school revenue limit shall be increased in an amount equal to the increase for the high school district's revenue limit per average daily attendance as computed pursuant to subdivision (f) and (g) of Section 42238 for the current year.

(e) The secured tax levy requirement shall be computed as follows:

(1) The amount computed under subdivision (d) shall be multiplied by the estimated average daily attendance for grades 7 and 8.

(2) The amount computed under paragraph (1) of this subdivision shall be reduced by the estimated state apportionment transferred pursuant to Section 41338.

(f) Whenever the computation required by this section results, because of estimating error, in a total income limit in an amount more or less than actual data would have produced; the revenue limit for the succeeding fiscal year shall be reduced a like amount if the total produced was more, and may be increased by such amount if the total produced was less.

(g) The provisions of this section shall be applicable only to high school districts with an average daily attendance of 2,000 or less, exclusive of average daily attendance of pupils in the 7th and 8th grades and shall be applicable only if a majority of the electors of such districts voting at an election approve of a proposition providing for the computations required by this section. Such rate shall be computed by the county superintendent of schools for the 1975–76 fiscal year and shall, for computational purposes, be the 1975–76 base revenue of the elementary school district.

For the 1976–77 fiscal year and fiscal years thereafter, the base revenue established pursuant to this section shall be adjusted annually pursuant to subdivisions (f) and (g) of Section 42238.

The Department of General Services may require similar geological and soils engineering studies for the construction or alteration of any school building on a site located outside of the boundaries of any special studies zone. No such studies need be made if the site under consideration has been the subject of adequate prior studies.

No school building shall be constructed, reconstructed, or relocated on the trace of a geological fault along which surface rupture can reasonably be expected to occur within the life of the school building.

A copy of the report of each investigation conducted pursuant to this section shall be submitted to the Department of General Services pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 39170) of this chapter and to the Department of Education. The offer to sell shall be made in writing, but the terms by which the property may be sold or transferred need not be specifically provided.

39031. The sale or transfer may be made for cash and other valuable consideration, or for other valuable consideration, as deemed appropriate by the governing board of the school district. The sale or transfer may be made without first taking a vote of the electors of the district.

of such building, such building shall be deemed structurally unsafe for school use. Such building shall be subject to replacement at another location in accordance with the procedure provided for repair, reconstruction, or replacement in Section 39212 as though it had not been constructed in conformance with Article 3 (commencing with Section 39140) of this chapter.

This section shall remain in effect only until July 1, 1977, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before July 1, 1977, deletes or extends such date.

(a) If the district was not an applicant district pursuant to Article 9 (commencing with Section 16310) of Chapter 8 of Part 10, the unexpended funds shall be budgeted for capital outlay purposes only.

(b) If the district was an applicant pursuant to Article 9, such unexpended funds received prior to July 1, 1980, shall only be applied as a direct reduction of any Article 9 apportionment outstanding against the district. The county superintendent of schools shall in such case notify the duly authorized representative of the State Allocation Board of the amount available as a reduction of outstanding Article 9 apportionments and the authorized representative shall take the action necessary to reduce the outstanding apportionments. After July 1, 1980, any additional amounts shall be available only for the purposes of reducing the tax levy under Section 16090.

The tax rate so levied shall have the same effect for the purposes of Section 16339 as though the tax had been levied in the 1974–75 fiscal year.

SEC. 448. Section 39384 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

operating schools available for rent or lease to other school districts, educational agencies, governmental units, nonprofit organizations, community agencies, professional agencies, commercial and noncommercial firms, corporations, partnerships, businesses and individuals. This will place students in close relationship to the world of work, thus facilitating career education opportunities.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that priority in leasing or renting vacant classroom space be given to educational agencies, particularly those conducting special education programs.

It is the intent of the Legislature that such procedures provide for community involvement by attendance area and at the district level. This community involvement should facilitate making the best possible judgments about the use of excess school facilities in each individual situation.

It is the intent of the Legislature to have the community involved before decisions are made about school closure or the use of surplus space, thus avoiding community conflict and assuring building use that is compatible with the community's needs and desires.

(c) The governing board of any school district may, and the governing board of each school district, prior to the sale, lease, or rental of any excess real property, except rentals not exceeding 30 days, shall, appoint a district advisory committee to advise the governing board in the development of districtwide policies and procedures governing the use or disposition of school buildings or space in school buildings which is not needed for school purposes.

(d) A district advisory committee shall consist of not less than 7 nor more than 11 members, and shall be representative of the following:

1. The ethnic, age group and socioeconomic composition of the district.

2. The business community, such as store owners, managers or supervisors.

3. Landowners and renters.

4. Teachers and administrators.

5. Parents of students.

6. Persons with expertise in environmental impact, legal contracts, building codes, and land use planning.

(e) The district advisory committee shall:

1. Review the projected school enrollment and other data as provided by the district to determine the amount of surplus space.

2. Establish a priority list of use of surplus space that will be acceptable to the community.

3. Cause to have circulated throughout the attendance area a priority list of surplus space and provide for hearings of community input to the committee on acceptable uses of space.

4. Make a final determination of limits of tolerance for use of space.

5. Forward to the district governing board a report recommending uses of surplus space.

(f) An existing district advisory committee having the representation specified in subdivision (c), may be designated as the district advisory committee for the purposes of this section.

SEC. 449. Section 39617 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

39617. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that the quality of protective equipment worn by participants in high school interscholastic football is a significant factor in the occurrence of injuries to such participants and that it is therefore necessary to insure minimum standards of quality for the equipment in order to prevent unnecessary injuries to such participants.

(b) No football helmets shall be worn by participants in high school interscholastic football after the commencement of the 1980–81 school year, unless such equipment has been certified for use by the Department of Education. In determining the suitability of equipment for certification the department may accept the certification of the National Operating Committee on Standards for Athletic Equipment or any other recognized certifying agency in the field.

This section shall not be construed as relieving school districts from the duty of maintaining football protective equipment in a safe and serviceable condition.

SEC. 450. Section 39645.5 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

The approval by the governing board of the school district or of the county superintendent of schools of the sale and leaseback shall be given only if the governing board of the school district or the county superintendent of schools finds, by resolution, that the sale and leaseback is the most economical means for providing electronic data-processing equipment to the school district or county.

SEC. 451. Section 39646 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

39646. The governing board of a school district may contract for electromechanical or electronic data-processing work.

SEC. 453. Section 41716.5 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

41716.5. For the fiscal year 1976–77, and each fiscal year thereafter in the event that the allowances provided pursuant to Section 41716 plus the revenue derived by the tax authorized by Section 23401 is not sufficient to fund the school district liability pursuant to Section 23400, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall allow to each elementary school district, high school district, and unified school district, amounts as determined as follows:

(a) He shall determine what rate of tax levied on each one hundred dollars ($100) of the assessed valuation of the district as shown by the equalized assessment role of the district, hereinafter referred to as the computed tax rate, would, if levied, produce such amount. If the computed tax rate is:

(1) In the case of a unified school district greater than fifteen cents ($0.15) but less than twenty-four cents ($0.24) he shall pay to the district all of the balance in excess of fifteen cents ($0.15).

(2) In the case of a high school district greater than five cents ($0.05) but less than eight cents ($0.08), he shall pay all of the balance in excess of five cents ($0.05).

(3) In the case of an elementary school district greater than ten cents ($0.10) but less than sixteen cents ($0.16), he shall pay all of the balance in excess of ten cents ($0.10).

(b) If the amount computed in subdivision (a) is still not sufficient to pay the contribution required pursuant to Section 23400, then the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall allow such amounts in excess of the computed tax rates which:

(1) In the case of a unified school district, he shall pay 50 percent of that amount required in excess of the computed tax rate of twenty-four cents ($0.24) but less than thirty-six cents ($0.36).

41760.5. The assessed valuation used for apportionments wherein the formulae require a distribution of state aid based on the assessed valuation of the school district shall be determined by adding: (a) the taxable assessed valuation of each district, including the assessed valuation of timber in the district which is assessed as such, (b) the sum of assessed valuation equivalents of revenue amounts certified pursuant to Section 27423 of the Government Code and Section 38905 of the Revenue and Taxation Code and, (c) the homeowners' and business inventory exemptions pursuant to Sections 218 and 219 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

The assessed valuation equivalents for revenue amounts certified pursuant to Section 27423 of the Government Code and Section 38905 of the Revenue and Taxation Code shall be derived by multiplying such amounts by a factor of 100 and dividing the product by the secured tax rate for the prior year.

Each county auditor on or before November 15th shall report the assessed valuations to the Superintendent of Public Instruction on forms provided by him. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall require the assessed valuations to be reported in such an order that the appropriate assessed valuations may be modified pursuant to Section 41201.

(a) Pupils attend continuous school programs for not less than the number of minutes each schoolday provided in the regular classes maintained by the district of the same grade level.

(b) Certificated employees providing instruction in continuous school programs shall be employees of the district who provide such instruction as part of their normal instructional duties.

SEC. 456. Section 41841 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

41841. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall determine the amount of state equalization aid to be added to the regular high school foundation program apportionments for each school district with adult average daily attendance in the 1976–77 fiscal year as follows:

He shall determine the adult average daily attendance used in computing state aid under the high school foundation program in the 1975–76 fiscal year and compute the 1976–77 fiscal year equalization aid according to the high school foundation program for the 1976–77 fiscal year using that 1975–76 fiscal year average daily attendance.

He shall recompute the equalization aid to the high school foundation program with the adult average daily attendance excluded and shall determine the loss of equalization aid due to excluding adult average daily attendance. To this amount he shall add the state equalization aid for defined adults in the 1975–76 fiscal year. He shall compute the state equalization aid for adults pursuant to Section 41840 and shall deduct this amount from the sum of the state equalization aid for defined adults in the 1975–76 fiscal year and the loss of equalization aid due to excluding adults from the high school foundation program. The remainder shall be added to the equalization aid for the high school foundation program for that district in the 1976–77 fiscal year. In each subsequent fiscal year the same calculation shall be used, using that year's adult average daily attendance, up to, but not to exceed, the adult average daily attendance used in computing the high school foundation program in the 1975–76 fiscal year.

If the adult average daily attendance of the current year is less than the comparable adult average daily attendance determined for 1975–76, the current year adult average daily attendance shall be used in lieu of the 1975–76 adult average daily attendance in determining the amount of state equalization aid to be added to the regular high school program. If there is no adult average daily attendance for the current year this section shall not apply.

SEC. 457. Section 42239.5 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

42239.5. Any gain or loss of average daily attendance used in the revenue limit calculation in Section 42238 which is due to reclassifying high school average daily attendance to adult average daily attendance pursuant to Chapter 323 of the Statutes of 1976 shall not be used in determining the amount allowed in Section 42239.

Any gain or loss of average daily attendance used in the revenue limit calculation in Section 42238 which is due to attendance in regional occupational centers or programs pursuant to Sections 52321 and 52324 shall not be used in determining the amount allowed in Section 42239.

SEC. 458. Section 42244.2 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

42244.2. Commencing July 1, 1977, the tax rate that an elementary, high, or unified school district with a revenue limit at or above 150 percent of the appropriate foundation program amount of the district, which may be levied for a given amount of revenue per unit of average daily attendance beyond its revenue limit, shall be provided yearly to the county superintendent of schools and the county board of supervisors by the Superintendent of Public Instruction on or before August 15.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall use the state average actual assessed valuation per unit of elementary, high, or unified school district average daily attendance to determine the tax rate necessary to raise the dollar amount each year.

The county shall allocate the taxes on the basis of the increase in the revenue limit approved by the electors pursuant to Section 42202. If the taxes collected are in excess of the amount to be allocated within the county, the excess shall be paid to the State Fund for the Equalization of School Taxes, which is hereby created in the State Treasury. If there is a deficiency of total taxes collected when compared to the taxes to be allowed, the county auditor in a county having a deficiency shall submit a request to the State Controller, for allocation from the State Fund for the Equalization of School Taxes, such amount as necessary to make up the deficiency. The State Controller shall allocate the amounts requested from the State Fund for the Equalization of School Taxes.

The State Controller shall adopt any rules or regulations necessary to implement the flow of money in and out of the State Fund for the Equalization of School Taxes.

SEC. 462. Section 42244.6 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

SEC. 465. Section 42649 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

42649. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the following procedure may be utilized to make payments to companies providing tax-sheltered annuities for employees of school districts. The county superintendent of schools may designate one or more national or state banks having its principal office in this state, provided its deposits are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, to act as disbursing agents for school districts under his jurisdiction. It shall be the duty of each such bank to disburse such payments to the companies entitled thereto by check, bank draft, or other appropriate instrument of the bank, within a reasonable time after receipt of each such payment and the listings furnishing the necessary information for disbursements, which time period shall not exceed 10 working days. Such disbursing banks shall be deemed to be agents of the respective public employers purchasing such annuities on behalf of their respective employees, and the moneys received by the banks shall be deemed to be deposits of the respective public employers. Security for the deposits shall be furnished as required by the laws of this state.

SEC. 466. Section 42650 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

42650. With the approval of the county superintendent of schools, the governing board of a school district may cause warrants to be drawn on the county treasury against designated funds, except debt service, of the district in the county treasury in the payment of expenses of the district. The warrants for salary and other types of claims designated by the county superintendent shall be issued by a person designated as the district disbursing officer for the school district on the county treasury in favor of the persons entitled thereto in payment of all claims in designated categories chargeable against the district which have been legally examined, allowed, and ordered paid by the governing board. The district disbursing officer shall issue warrants, using procedures prescribed by the county auditor, on the county treasury for all debts and demands, within categories designated by the county superintendent, against the district when amounts are legally approved. The form of the warrant shall be prescribed by, and approved by, the county auditor or county treasurer having jurisdiction.

The cost of printing warrants may be charged to the district. Notwithstanding Section 41000, except for assessing and tax collecting, the county auditor and county treasurer may charge those districts that draw their own warrants for the cost of all fiscal services.

Notwithstanding Section 27005 of the Government Code, or any other provision of law requiring orders for warrants or warrants to be signed by the county superintendent of schools or the county auditor, or both, the county superintendent and county auditor may prescribe alternative procedures for districts to issue warrants. The district disbursing officer shall not be considered a deputy county superintendent of schools or a deputy county auditor. The county treasurer shall pay the warrant in the designated category, if district funds are available.

County officers shall not be responsible for providing reports, statements, or other data relating to, or based on, the designated payments of expenses of the district. Those districts issuing warrants, as provided by this section, shall provide the county superintendent of schools, in the form prescribed by him, with the data necessary to make retirement reports and other reports required of him by law.

All warrants, vouchers, and supporting documents shall be kept by school districts that draw their own warrants in those designated categories.

The county superintendent shall provide for a periodic review of the districts' financial transactions and internal control pursuant to Section 42637.5.

County superintendents of schools may provide fiscal, budgetary, and data-processing services through contractual agreements to school districts that have been determined to be fiscally accountable under the provisions of this section.

The person authorized by the governing board of the district to issue warrants, pursuant to this section, shall execute an official bond in an amount fixed by the governing board conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties under this section. A county superintendent or county auditor shall not be liable under the terms of their bonds or otherwise for any warrant issued pursuant to this section. This section shall not be construed as impairing the obligation of any contract in the bond of such officer in effect on January 1, 1977.

A listing of the warrants issued under this section by each school district shall be forwarded to the county auditor having jurisdiction, upon his request, and to the county superintendent of schools having jurisdiction over the district on the same day warrants are issued. The listing, which may be magnetic tape, punched cards, or in other form, shall report, among other things, the warrant number, date of the warrant, amount of the warrant, the name of the payee, and the fund on which drawn. The form and content of the warrant listing shall be as prescribed by the county auditor or county superintendent and approved by the county auditor or county superintendent having jurisdiction.

Each district which issues warrants pursuant to this section shall furnish monthly to the county superintendent of schools and the county auditor of the county of jurisdiction, upon his request, a statement showing for the current fiscal year to date, for each required expenditure classification, the amount budgeted, actual expenditures, encumbrances and unencumbered balances.

In order to obtain the approval of the county superintendent of schools and county auditor for fiscally accountable status, the governing board of a school district shall file a written application with the county superintendent of schools and county auditor having jurisdiction on forms which the county superintendent shall prescribe. Upon receipt of an application from the district, the county superintendent shall cause an audit to be made of the district's management and accounting controls, in accordance with standards prescribed by him, by an independent certified public accountant or public accountant approved by the county superintendent, who shall report his findings and recommendations to the county superintendent and to the applicant district. The audit report may include Department of Finance guidelines and other assessments of fiscal management as required by the county superintendent or the audit may be the report of the annual district audit pursuant to Section 41020 if that is acceptable to the county superintendent of schools. The cost of the audit required in support of a district's application for fiscal accountability shall be borne by the applicant district.

The county superintendent and county auditor shall review the district's application and report of financial management and control and may approve the application if they find the management and accounting controls of the district to be adequate. If the county superintendent and county auditor determine that such management and accounting controls are inadequate, they shall disapprove the application.

A district that applies for fiscal accountability status shall file its written application with the county superintendent of schools on or before September 1. The required audit of financial management and accounting controls shall be filed on or before January 1. When a district's application for fiscal accountability status has been approved by the county superintendent of schools and county auditor, the issuance of warrants by the district pursuant to this section shall be effective at the beginning of a fiscal year, provided that approval had been made prior to the preceding first day in March. If disapproved, the county superintendent of schools shall state the specific steps which must be taken by the applicant school district to receive approval and these changes shall be certified as completed by an independent certified public accountant or public accountant before the county superintendent shall approve the application. If at any time the county superintendent of schools or the county auditor determines that the financial management or accounting controls of the district have become inadequate, either such officer may revoke approval for fiscal accountability status effective immediately.

SEC. 467. Section 42901.5 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

42901.5. The governing board of a school district to which a nonimmigrant alien residing in a foreign country has made application seeking permission to enroll in any school of the district may, after having determined to its satisfaction that the person intends to temporarily reside in, and attend a school of, the district, agree in writing to permit the alien to enroll in, and attend schools of, the district, and may execute any written commitment required by or pursuant to federal law as a prerequisite to the alien's entry into this country for the purpose of securing education and training. The provisions of Section 42900 shall be applicable to such nonimmigrant alien. The school district executing any such written agreement shall so notify the county board of education.

SEC. 468. Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 43000) is added to Part 24 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

CHAPTER 12. TAXATION FOR ADULT EDUCATION

43000. For each school district with adult average daily attendance, as defined in Section 52610, the county superintendent of schools shall establish a revenue limit per unit of adult average daily attendance and an adult education tax rate in each such district for the 1976–77 fiscal year pursuant to directions of the Superintendent of Public Instruction as follows:

(a) He shall determine the expenditure, including tuition, per adult average daily attendance in 1975–76. He shall increase this amount by the same percent of increase that is allowed to the high school level foundation program in the 1976–77 fiscal year.

(b) He shall determine the maximum adult education tax necessary for each district by the procedure provided in subdivisions (h) to (k), inclusive, of Section 43001.

For districts which did not have adult average daily attendance in the 1975–76 fiscal year, the adult revenue limit shall be the adult foundation program.

43001. For the 1977–78 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter:

(a) The maximum tax rate for adult education programs of a school district shall be computed pursuant to this section by the county superintendent of schools.

(b) The revenue limit per adult foundation program unit of average daily attendance for the district for the prior fiscal year shall be divided into the adult foundation program amount per unit of average daily attendance for the prior year. If the quotient is greater than one, it shall be deemed to be one.

(c) The adult foundation program amount per unit of average daily attendance used as the dividend in subdivision (b) shall be determined pursuant to Section 41840.

(d) The inflation adjustment shall be based on the increase or decrease in the adult foundation program amount per unit of average daily attendance for the budget year compared with the preceding year.

(e) The amount determined pursuant to subdivision (d) shall be multiplied by the quotient determined pursuant to subdivision (b). The resultant amount shall constitute the revenue limit inflation adjustment of the district per unit of average daily attendance.

(f) The revenue limit inflation adjustment shall be added or subtracted, as the case may be, to the prior year revenue limit per adult foundation program unit of average daily attendance of the district and the sum multiplied by the estimated adult foundation program average daily attendance of the budget year. The product shall be the adult revenue limit of the district for the budget year.

(g) Any district which has an adult revenue limit computed pursuant to subdivision (f) which is equal to or less than the adult foundation program computed for the district pursuant to Section 41840 may increase its revenue limit computed pursuant to subdivision (f) to the lesser of the adult foundation program level of the district or the prior year revenue limit increased by 15 percent, beginning in 1977–78.

(h) From the amount computed pursuant to subdivision (f) or (g), there shall be subtracted the basic state aid and state equalization aid to be received for the budget year, and the amount of income to be received from the equalization offset tax pursuant to Section 41203.

(i) The amount determined pursuant to subdivision (h) shall be (1) adjusted as provided in subdivision (d) of Section 46605 and (2) adjusted sufficiently to allow for the mandated increases in 1976–77 and subsequent years for district contributions for the State Teachers' Retirement System as required by Section 23400. Such adjustment together with any adjustment allowed in Section 42238 for the same purpose shall not exceed the revenue derived by the tax rate provided in Section 23401.

(j) From the amount computed pursuant to subdivision (i), there shall be subtracted the amount of money collected or to be collected as taxes related to adult education on property on the unsecured roll of the budget year and income from the prior year's taxes.

(k) For the purposes of this subdivision, the assessed valuation used in computing the maximum tax rate is defined as the total actual assessed valuation, including business inventory and homeowners' exemption and exclusive of the assessed valuation increment used to allocate tax receipts to a redevelopment agency pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 33670) of Chapter 6 of Part 1 of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code.

The amount determined pursuant to subdivision (j) shall be divided by the amount of actual assessed valuation of the district on the secured roll after due allowance for delinquencies, pursuant to Section 14203. The quotient multiplied by 100 shall be the tax rate on each one hundred dollars ($100) of such assessed valuation and shall be the maximum adult education tax rate which may be levied in the district during the 1976–77 fiscal year.

This section shall be subject to the provisions of Sections 42244 and 42245.

43002. For the 1976–77 fiscal year, any school district which had adult average daily attendance in the 1975–76 fiscal year may increase its regular revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance by the difference between its 1975–76 fiscal year revenue from adult average daily attendance and its actual expenditures for adults in the 1975–76 fiscal year divided by its regular average daily attendance in the 1975–76 fiscal year.

SEC. 470. Section 44253.5 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

44253.5. The Commission for Teacher Preparation and Licensing shall grant certificates of bilingual-crosscultural competence. The purpose of these certificates is to increase the number of persons qualified to provide appropriate bilingual-crosscultural instruction to children whose native language is other than English and who are non- or limited-English-speaking. The Commission for Teacher

Preparation and Licensing shall also develop an assessment program which will provide a method by which persons holding valid teaching credentials may demonstrate their competence as bilingual-crosscultural teachers without additional postsecondary education coursework. These certificates shall certify, as a minimum, the following:

(a) That the person is competent in both the oral and written skills of a language other than English;

(b) That the person has both the knowledge and understanding of the cultural and historical heritage of the students whose native language is other than English;

(c) That the person successfully can teach the basic teaching authorization in English and in a language other than English. The holder of this certificate is authorized to teach students whose native language is other than English.

SEC. 471. Section 44253.6 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

(a) A valid teaching credential;

(b) A bilingual certification in English and in a language other than English;

(c) A competency in teaching one's basic teaching authorization both in English and in a language other than English;

SEC. 472. Section 44978.5 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

44978.5. The governing board of a school district may adopt rules permitting certificated employees of the district to use leave earned pursuant to Section 44978 in cases of compelling personal importance.

Leave taken pursuant to this section, together with any leave taken pursuant to Section 44981, shall not exceed six days in any single school year.

SEC. 473. Section 45206.5 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

45206.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if the governing board of a school district does not designate September 9 known as "Admission Day" as a paid holiday for classified employees pursuant to Section 37222, the school district shall provide a substitute holiday for such employee.

This section shall apply to districts that have adopted the merit system in the same manner and effect as if it were a part of Article 6 (commencing with Section 45240) of this chapter.

SEC. 474. Section 46305.5 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

46605.5. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall apportion, from the State School Fund as a reimbursement to the district for the actual per-pupil cost to the district of attendance, on account of each pupil attending such district pursuant to an interdistrict attendance agreement, the difference, if any, between (a) the actual per-pupil cost to the district of attendance of educating pupils in the same grade level, and (b) an amount equal to the revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance of the district in which the pupil lives.

Such apportionment shall be made only if the Superintendent of Public Instruction ascertains all of the following facts:

(1) An interdistrict attendance agreement has been entered into pursuant to this article between two adjacent school districts situated in adjacent counties.

(2) Such agreement is for the purpose of educating pupils who, because of a geographic barrier, must otherwise travel long distances, and it is in the best interests of the pupils to attend the nearest public school.

(3) The school district in which the pupil lives has determined that it is not feasible to construct a school in the area in which the pupil lives.

(4) The interdistrict attendance agreement has been approved by the county board or boards of education of the county or counties involved.

(5) The combined enrollments of the district in which the pupils live and the district of attendance did not exceed 35,000 during the 1972–73 school year.

This section shall remain in effect only until June 30, 1977, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 475. Section 48204 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

(a) A pupil placed within the boundaries of that school district in a regularly established licensed children's institution, or a licensed foster home, or a family home pursuant to a commitment or placement under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 200) of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

An agency placing a pupil in such a home or institution shall provide evidence to the school that the placement or commitment is pursuant to law.

(b) A pupil for whom interdistrict attendance has been approved pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 46600) of Part 26 of Division 3 of this title.

(d) A pupil whose parent or legal guardian has established the residence of the pupil in a home located within the boundaries of that school district, provided such home is properly licensed as required by law. The person maintaining such a home shall provide evidence to the school that a current license is in effect or that a license is not required under the law.

48985. When 15 percent or more of the pupils enrolled in a public school that provides instruction in kindergarten or any of grades 1 through 12 speak a single primary language other than English, as determined from the census data submitted to the Department of Education pursuant to Section 52103 by the first day of April in the preceding year, all notices, reports, statements, or records sent to the parent or guardian of any such pupil by the school or school district shall, in addition to being written in English, be written in such primary language, and may be responded to either in English or the primary language.

SEC. 477. Section 49064 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

(b) Parties to whom directory information is released pursuant to Section 49073;

(c) Parties for whom written consent has been executed by the parent pursuant to Section 49075; or

(d) School officials or employees having a legitimate educational interest pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 49076.

The log or record shall be open to inspection only by a parent and the school official, or his designee, responsible for the maintenance of pupil records, and to other school officials with legitimate educational interests in the records, and to the Comptroller General of the United States, the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, an administrative head of an education agency as defined in Public Law 93-380, and state educational authorities as a means of auditing the operation of the system.

SEC. 478. Section 51224 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

SEC. 479. Section 51225 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

(g) Such other subjects as may be prescribed.

The governing board, with the active involvement of parents, administrators, teachers, and students, shall adopt alternative means for students to complete the prescribed course of study which may include practical demonstration of skills and competencies, work experience or other outside school experience, interdisciplinary study, independent study, and credit earned at a postsecondary institution. Requirements for graduation and specified alternative modes for completing the prescribed course of study shall be made available to students, parents, and the public.

SEC. 480. Section 51225.5 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

51225.5. The governing board of any school district maintaining a junior or senior high school shall, by June 1, 1978, adopt standards of proficiency in basic skills for students attending schools within its school district. Governing boards maintaining junior high schools located within a high school district shall adopt those standards of proficiency in basic skills adopted by the high school district. Standards of proficiency shall include, but not necessarily be limited to, reading comprehension, writing, and computation skills and shall be such as will enable individual achievement and ability to be ascertained and evaluated. The governing board may use academic standards for graduation distributed by the State Board of Education pursuant to Section 51226 for this purpose. Subsequent to June 1980, no pupil shall receive a diploma of graduation from high school who has not met the standards of proficiency in basic skills prescribed by the governing board. The governing board may adopt differential standards of proficiency in basic skills for pupils with diagnosed learning disabilities.

The governing board shall take appropriate steps to ensure that individual pupil progress towards proficiency in basic skills is assessed during the regular instructional program at least one time during the 7th through 9th grade experience and at least two times during the 10th through 11th grade experience, provided that the progress of any pupil who demonstrates proficiency in basic skills need not be reassessed. The governing board may use performance indicators distributed by the State Board of Education pursuant to Section 51226 for the purpose of conducting such individual pupil assessments.

In the case of a pupil who does not meet district prescribed standards in basic skills, an appropriate school official shall arrange a conference between the pupil, the principal or the principal's designee, the parent or guardian and, whenever practicable, a teacher familiar with the pupil's progress to discuss the results of the individual pupil assessment and the need for instruction in basic skills. The pupil and the parent or guardian shall be requested, in writing, to attend such conference. Within five days of the time such written request is postmarked, the school shall make a reasonable effort to contact the parent or guardian by telephone to communicate directly the information contained in the written request.

Instruction in basic skills shall be provided for any student who does not meet established proficiency standards in basic skills and shall continue until the pupil has been given repeated opportunity to achieve prescribed standards of proficiency.

SEC. 481. Section 51411 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

51411. No governing board of any school district maintaining a high school shall require as a condition for graduation from the high schools within the district that a pupil have resided within the district for any minimum length of time.

SEC. 482. Section 51760.5 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

51760.5. Notwithstanding Section 51760, attendance in work experience classes or programs maintained by a regional occupational center or regional occupational program shall not receive apportionments from state funds based on average daily attendance unless such classes or programs are in conformance with standards adopted pursuant to Section 52372.

A student enrolled in cooperative vocational education conducted by a regional occupational center or program shall not be credited with more than one day of attendance in any calendar day for purposes of such programs.

SEC. 483. Section 52022.5 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

52022.5. Any school district which receives allowances for programs authorized pursuant to both Section 52013 and Article 4 (commencing with Section 54160) of Chapter 2 of Part 29 of this division, may utilize allowances authorized pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 54160) of Chapter 2 of Part 29 of this division in grades 4, 5 and 6, or in kindergarten and grades 1, 2, and 3, for the purposes of and in the manner set forth in such article.

SEC. 484. Article 3 (commencing with Section 52160) is added to Chapter 7 of Part 28 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

Article 3. Bilingual-Bicultural Education Act of 1976

52160. This article shall be known and may be referred to as the Chacon-Moscone Bilingual-Bicultural Education Act of 1976.

52161. The Legislature finds that there are more than 225,000 school-age children whose primary language is other than English and who do not have the English language skills necessary to benefit from instruction only in English at a level substantially equivalent to pupils whose primary language is English. Their lack of English language communication skills presents an obstacle to such pupils' right to an equal educational opportunity which can be removed by instruction and training in the pupils' primary languages while such pupils are learning English. The Legislature recognizes that the school dropout rate is excessive among limited-English-speaking pupils. This represents a tremendous loss in human resources and in potential personal income and tax revenues. Furthermore, high rates of joblessness among these dropouts contribute to the unemployment burden of the state.

The Legislature recognizes that a critical need exists for teaching and administrative personnel qualified in the bilingual and crosscultural skills necessary to the instruction of the limited-English-speaking population in the state's school districts. Therefore, the Legislature directs school districts to provide for in-service programs to qualify existing and future personnel in the bilingual and crosscultural skills necessary to serve the limited-English-speaking pupils of this state. Furthermore, the Legislature intends that the public institutions of higher education establish programs to qualify teachers and administrators in the bilingual and crosscultural skills necessary to serve these pupils.

It is the purpose of this article to require California school districts to offer bilingual learning opportunities to each limited-English-speaking pupil enrolled in the public schools, and to provide adequate supplemental financial support to achieve such purpose. Insofar as the individual pupil is concerned, participation in bilingual programs is voluntary on the part of the parent or guardian.

52162. The State Board of Education shall adopt such rules and regulations as are necessary for the effective administration of this article. Initial regulations shall be adopted within 90 days after January 1, 1977.

52163. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in this section shall govern the construction of this article.

(a) "Partial bilingual instruction" means listening, speaking, reading and writing skills developed in both languages. Material related to culture and history is taught in the language the pupil understands better.

(b) "Full bilingual instruction" means basic language skills developed and maintained in both languages. Instruction in required subject matter or classes is provided in both languages in addition to culture and history.

(c) "Bilingual-bicultural education" is a system of instruction which uses two languages, one of which is English, as a means of instruction. It is a means of instruction which builds upon and expands the existing language skills of each participating pupil, which will enable the pupil to achieve competency in both languages.

This instruction shall include:

(1) Daily instruction in English, language arts, listening, speaking, reading and writing;

(2) Language development in the pupil's primary language;

(3) Reading in the pupil's primary language;

(4) Selected subjects taught in the pupil's primary language; and

(5) Development of an understanding of customs and values of the cultures associated with the languages being taught as well as an understanding of the history and culture of California and the United States.

(d) "Limited-English-speaking pupils" are pupils who do not have the clearly developed English language skills of comprehension, speaking, reading and writing, necessary to receive instruction only in English at a level substantially equivalent to pupils whose primary language is English. The determination of which pupils are limited English speaking shall be made in accordance with the procedures specified in Section 52164. The term "limited-English-speaking pupils" includes "non-English-speaking pupils" as described in subdivision (e).

(e) "Non-English-speaking pupils" are pupils who communicate in their primary language only or who communicate in English at a level which does not enable them to participate meaningfully in an educational setting where only English is used.

(f) "Individual learning program" is any program of instruction for a limited-English-speaking pupil in which instruction is offered in a manner consistent with the United States Supreme Court decision in Lau v. Nichols (414 U.S. 563), the Equal Educational Opportunities Act of 1974 (20 U.S.C. Sec. 1701 et seq.), and federal regulations promulgated pursuant to such court decisions and federal statutes.

(g) "Primary language" is a language other than English which is the language the pupil first learned or the language which is spoken in the pupil's home.

(h) "Bilingual-crosscultural teacher" means a person who (1) holds a valid, regular California teaching credential and (2) holds either a bilingual-crosscultural certificate of proficiency or other credential in bilingual education authorized by the Commission for Teacher Preparation and Licensing or a bilingual-crosscultural specialist credential. Such a person shall be fluent in the primary language and familiar with the cultural heritage of the limited-English-speaking pupils in the bilingual classes he or she conducts. Such a person shall have a professional working knowledge of the methodologies which must be employed to effectively educate those pupils.

(i) "Bilingual-crosscultural teacher aide" means an aide fluent in both English and the primary language of the limited-English-speaking pupil or pupils in a bilingual-bicultural program. Such an aide shall be familiar with the cultural heritage of the limited-English-speaking pupils in the bilingual classes to which he or she is assigned.

(j) "Board" means the State Board of Education.

(k) "Superintendent" means the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

(l) "Self-contained classes" are classes where substantially the same group of pupils receive instruction together throughout the schoolday.

52164. (a) Each school district shall ascertain, in the month of October of each year, under regulations prescribed by the State Board of Education, the number of limited-English-speaking pupils within the district, and shall classify them according to their primary language, age, and grade level. The census shall be taken by individual, actual count and not by estimates or samplings. The results of this census shall be reported to the Department of Education by the first day of December of each year.

(b) The superintendent shall prescribe uniform census-taking methods, applicable to all school districts in the state. Such census-taking methods shall require an assessment, on a language dominance survey instrument designated by the superintendent, of all pupils whose primary language is other than English. The assessments shall be conducted by persons who can speak and understand the primary language of the limited-English-speaking pupils on the basis of procedures formulated by the superintendent to determine which pupils are limited-English-speaking pupils, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 52163. The superintendent may waive the requirement that the assessment be conducted by persons who can speak and understand the pupil's primary language where the primary language is spoken by a small number of pupils and the district certifies that it is unable to comply. Pertinent information from the assessment forms for each pupil whose primary language is other than English shall be retained by the school district as long as the pupil is enrolled in the district. Each school district shall report annually to the Department of Education the total number of pupils whose primary language is other than English, the number of pupils who are non-English-speaking, and the number of such pupils who are limited English speaking. Each school district shall further report the total number of pupils whose primary language is other than English who have benefited from instruction pursuant to this article to the extent that they are no longer limited-English-speaking pupils, as defined in subdivision (d) of section 52163.

(c) The Department of Education shall review the results of the census each year. Where the information provided by a school district appears to be inaccurate, the department shall audit the district's census through an onsite visit. Where the census has been incorrectly taken, or the results appear to be inaccurate, the department shall require another census to be taken and the corrected information to be provided.

52165. Each limited-English-speaking pupil enrolled in the California public school system in kindergarten through grade 12 shall receive instruction in a language understandable to the pupil which recognizes the pupil's primary language and teaches the pupil English.

(a) In kindergarten through grade 6:

(1) Whenever the language census indicates that any school of a school district has 10 or more non-English-speaking pupils or 15 or more limited-English-speaking pupils with the same primary language in the same grade level or 10 or more non-English-speaking pupils or 15 or more limited-English-speaking pupils with the same primary language, in the same age group, in a multigrade or ungraded instructional environment, the school district shall offer instruction pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 52163 for such pupils at the school.

(2) Whenever the language census indicates that any school of a school district has 10 or more limited-English-speaking pupils with the same primary language in the same grade level or 10 or more limited-English-speaking pupils with the same primary language, in the same age group, in a multigrade or ungraded instructional environment, the school district shall offer instruction pursuant to subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of Section 52163 for such pupils at the school.

(b) In kindergarten and grades 1 through 12 limited-English-speaking pupils who are not enrolled in a program described in subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of Section 52163, shall be individually evaluated and shall receive educational services defined in subdivision (f) of Section 52163. Such services shall be provided in consultation with the pupil and the parent, parents, or guardian of the pupil.

52166. All teachers and aides providing instruction in programs established pursuant to subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of Section 52163, shall meet the criteria of subdivision (h) or (i) of Section 52163. In the event a school operates an individualized program described in subdivision (f) of Section 52163, such a district which receives categorical aid funds to meet the needs of limited-English-speaking pupils shall certify to the board that sufficient teachers and aides meeting the criteria of subdivisions (h) and (i) of Section 52163 are available to the school to ensure that all limited-English-speaking pupils have instructional opportunities in both English and their primary language to meet the intent of this chapter. Other instructional personnel who are not bilingual-crosscultural as defined in subdivisions (h) and (i) of Section 52163 may provide instructional and educational services to pupils enrolled in programs established pursuant to subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of Section 52163; provided, that the principal teachers and aides providing instruction in such programs meet the criteria established in subdivisions (h) and (i) of Section 52163.

52167. In classes established pursuant to Section 52165, not more than two-thirds of the pupils enrolled shall be limited-English-speaking pupils; provided, that where the proportion of limited-English-speaking pupils in the school exceeds two-thirds, the proportion of limited-English-speaking pupils in such classes may exceed the proportion of limited-English-speaking pupils in the school by no more than 10 percent. In no event shall the primary purpose of the program be to teach a foreign language to English-speaking pupils.

52168. (a) The maximum reimbursement allowable for the 1977–78 and subsequent school years to school districts providing instruction pursuant to Section 52165 shall not exceed the maximum allowances established by the superintendent and the district pursuant to Section 3932 of Title 5 of the California Administrative Code, for each limited-English-speaking pupil who receives instruction in a program pursuant to Section 52165. This amount per pupil shall include all state and federal categorical aid funds allocated to schools providing programs under Section 52165 which are wholly or partially allocated on the basis of the educational needs of limited-English-speaking pupils and which are allocated by the district to schools or programs to meet the needs of such pupils. The superintendent shall ensure that funds appropriated pursuant to this article supplement and do not supplant categorical funds allocated from other local, state, or federal sources in meeting the needs of limited-English-speaking pupils.

(b) School districts may claim reimbursement out of funds appropriated pursuant to this article for expenditures in the following categories only:

(1) The employment of bilingual-crosscultural teachers and aides; however, reimbursement is available for employment expenditures only to the extent such personnel are employed in providing bilingual services to eligible pupils. School districts applying for these funds shall submit an assurance that personnel hired for this program only supplement and do not supplant district personnel.

(2) The purchase and development of special bilingual-bicultural teaching materials;

(3) The costs of special in-service training to develop bilingual-crosscultural instructional skills with preference given to teachers and teacher aides employed as part of the bilingual-bicultural program; and

(4) Reasonable expenses (which may include transportation-child care, meals, and training) of parent advisory groups on bilingual-bicultural education, at the school and school district level, in the course of their duties as members of the parent advisory groups. The State Board of Education shall adopt rules and regulations defining reasonable expenses.

(5) Health and auxiliary services to the extent that they meet the direct needs of eligible pupils.

(6) Reasonable district administrative expenses allowed pursuant to regulations of the board.

(c) Nothing contained in this section shall be interpreted to authorize school districts to reduce per pupil expenditures from local, state, or federal sources for the education of limited-English-speaking pupils.

52169. Programs of bilingual instruction instituted and continuing pursuant to the Bilingual Education Act of 1972 shall continue until the school and grade level of instruction funded by the 1972 act are covered by this article. As such school and grade level are reached, the programs funded by the 1972 act shall be replaced by or incorporated into programs funded by this article and the applicable provisions of this article shall supplement provisions of the 1972 act.

52170. (a) Each school district which wishes to claim reimbursement shall prepare an assessment of the needs of the limited-English-speaking pupils in attendance in the district. Such assessment shall be prepared on a school-by-school basis. It shall also list, on a school-by-school basis, all of the state and federal categorical aid funds currently available for programs to meet the needs of limited-English-speaking pupils. The number of limited-English-speaking pupils, in each school, who are not being provided with services pursuant to subdivision (a), (b), (c), or (f) of Section 52163 with such special funds shall be stated.

(b) Based on the needs assessed, the school district shall submit an application on a school-by-school basis on forms provided by the Department of Education. Such application shall meet the applicable criteria of the consolidated application regulations and shall include in addition the following components: (1) teacher and aide preservice training which will identify and improve knowledge levels of each teacher and aide in teaching methodology, and bilingual-crosscultural philosophy and education, (2) an in-service training program for teachers and aides that is linked with an institution of higher education, to the maximum extent feasible, which shall include the establishment of a liaison with a nearby institution of higher education and the solicitation of help from such institution in order to upgrade continually the bilingual-crosscultural education program, and (3) an assurance that all bilingual-crosscultural aides are provided the opportunity to enroll in a career ladder program leading toward a single- or multiple-subject teaching credential, and a certificate of competence in bilingual-crosscultural education.

52171. At the beginning of each school year, the district shall assess each limited-English-speaking pupil. The pupil's achievement in comprehending, reading, and writing English and, to the extent assessment instruments are available, the second language of instruction shall be assessed. Pretesting of basic skills for pupil participants shall be conducted at the beginning of each school year, and posttesting of basic skill for pupil participants shall be conducted at the end of each school year. At least annually there shall be submitted to the Department of Education an evaluation of pupil progress for every program which has been approved pursuant to this article. The evaluation report shall identify variables, including other programs, which may have affected pupil academic achievement.

It shall also include, but not be limited to, reading comprehension and speaking skills, in English and, to the extent assessment instruments are available, the primary language.

52172. Teachers and teacher aides who are not bilingual-crosscultural teachers and aides, as defined by subdivision (h) and (i) of Section 52163, shall not be permitted to teach in programs authorized pursuant to subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of Section 52163, except as provided in Section 52178. Such teachers are not competent, for the purposes of Section 44955, to teach in such programs.

52173. Prior to the enrollment of any pupils in any program authorized pursuant to subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of Section 52163, the governing board of the school district in which the pupil resides shall notify by mail or in person the parent, parents, or guardian of the pupil of the fact that their child or ward will be enrolled in a program of bilingual education. The notice shall contain a simple, nontechnical description of the purposes, method, and content of the program in which their child or ward will be enrolled and shall inform the parent, parents, or guardian that the parent, parents, or guardian have the right and are encouraged to visit such classes in which their child or ward will be enrolled and to come to the school for a conference to explain the nature and objectives of such education. Such notice shall further inform the parent, parents, or guardian that they have the right, if they so wish, not to have their child or ward enrolled in such an education program. Such notice shall further inform the parent, parents, or guardian that they have the opportunity to participate in the school or school district advisory committee, or both. The written notice shall be in English and in the primary language of the pupil.

52174. Any parent or guardian whose child or ward has been or will be enrolled in programs authorized pursuant to subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of Section 52163 shall have the right, either at the time of the original notification of enrollment or at the close of any semester thereafter, to withdraw his or her child or ward from the program provided by written notice to the school authorities of the school in which his or her child or ward is enrolled or to the governing board of the school district in which his or her child or ward resides.

52175. A school district governing board may allow a nonresident limited-English-speaking pupil to enroll in or attend its program authorized pursuant to subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of Section 52163 subject to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 46600) of Part 26, provided that the tuition of the child is paid by the school district in which the pupil resides.

52176. (a) Each school district with more than 50 limited-English-speaking pupils shall establish a districtwide advisory committee on bilingual education. Parents or guardians, or both, of limited-English-speaking pupils who are not employed by the district shall constitute a majority of the committee, unless the district designates for this purpose an existing districtwide advisory committee on which parents or guardians, or both, of limited-English-speaking pupils have membership in at least the same percentage as their children and wards represent of the total number of pupils in the district, provided that a subcommittee on bilingual-bicultural education on which parents or guardians, or both, of limited-English-speaking pupils constitute a majority is established. The district advisory committee and subcommittee, if applicable, shall be responsible for at least six specific tasks. These tasks shall be to advise the district governing board regarding:

(1) Establishment of a timetable for development of a district master plan for development of a district master plan for bilingual education.

(2) Districtwide needs assessment on a school-by-school basis.

(3) Establishment of district program goals and objectives in bilingual education.

(4) Recommendations as to which schools to include in each phase of expansion.

(5) A plan to ensure compliance with the provisions of Section 52178.

(6) Administration of the annual language census.

(b) Each school with more than 20 limited-English-speaking pupils shall establish a school level advisory committee on which parents or guardians, or both, of limited-English-speaking pupils constitute membership in at least the same percentage as their children and wards represent of the total number of pupils in the school. The school may designate for this purpose an existing school level advisory committee, or subcommittee of such an advisory committee, provided the advisory committee, or subcommittee where appropriate, meets the criteria stated above.

(c) Each school advisory committee maintained pursuant to this section shall be responsible for advising the principal and staff in the development of a detailed master plan for bilingual education for the individual school and submitting the plan to the governing board for consideration for inclusion in the district master plan. It shall also be responsible for assisting in the development of the school needs assessment and language census.

The Department of Education shall develop guidelines for the selection of advisory committees established or maintained pursuant to this section.

52177. (a) Out of funds appropriated for such purposes, the superintendent shall have the duty to administer the provisions of this article. The responsibilities of the superintendent in administering this article shall include, but are not limited to, ensuring that:

(1) Funds authorized to administer, monitor, review, or evaluate the provisions of this article are separately accounted for.

(2) Sufficient bilingual personnel are available within the Department of Education with familiarity, competency, and proficiency in bilingual-crosscultural instruction to meet the needs of this article and to administer, review, monitor, and evaluate the use of other state or federal categorical aid funds allocated to local districts which have been wholly or partially allocated on the basis of the educational needs of limited-English-speaking pupils.

(3) Department of Education personnel responsible for the administration, review, monitoring, or evaluation of programs operating pursuant to this article have been sufficiently trained to carry out the intent of this article to meet the needs of the limited-English-speaking pupil.

(4) There is within the Department of Education an administrative unit responsible for bilingual-bicultural educational programs and policies through which the superintendent shall carry out his functions pursuant to this article.

(5) Applications for reimbursement from school districts are made in accordance with this article; to assure that districts are providing each limited-English-speaking pupil with an educational opportunity equal to that available to English-speaking pupils; and to recommend acceptable projects for approval by the board.

(6) A plan is developed to provide for adequate monitoring of school and school district compliance with the provisions of this article.

(7) Develop an annual evaluation of bilingual needs and programs within the state for submission to the Legislature and to the Governor. The annual evaluation shall include a state assessment of the educational needs of pupils and other persons who are limited English speaking, and of the extent to which such needs are being met from federal, state and local efforts.

52178. All principal teachers providing instruction in programs defined by subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of Section 52163 shall be bilingual-crosscultural teachers as defined pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 52163, or shall be bilingual in English and the primary language of the limited-English-speaking pupils in his or her class and hold an internship credential, or an emergency bilingual-crosscultural credential.

In recognition of the shortage of qualified bilingual-crosscultural teachers, a school district may request a waiver from the board for a teacher who is not bilingual-crosscultural but who is enrolled in a program leading to a certificate of competence for bilingual-crosscultural instruction, pursuant to Section 44253.5. Such a teacher, with the assistance of a bilingual-crosscultural aide, may teach in a program of bilingual instruction mandated by Section 52165 for not more than two school years. No waiver shall be granted unless the board finds that the district made a good faith effort to recruit and hire bilingual-crosscultural teachers through the clearinghouse maintained by the Commission for Teacher Preparation and Licensing, pursuant to Section 10106. All waivers granted pursuant to this section shall expire not later than September 1, 1979.

No teacher employed after January 1, 1977, to teach in programs defined by subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of Section 52163 shall be eligible for such a waiver.

52179. Funds appropriated pursuant to this article for programs mandated pursuant to Section 52165 shall be allocated to school districts by the Superintendent of Public Instruction in the following manner:

(a) The superintendent shall rank all school districts with limited-English-speaking pupils in kindergarten through grade 6 in order of the ratio of such pupils to all pupils in kindergarten through grade 6 in the district.

(1) Districts in the upper 50 percentile of the ranking and districts with 500 or more limited-English-speaking pupils in kindergarten through grade 6 shall receive funding for all such pupils before other districts with limited-English-speaking pupils in kindergarten through grade 6 receive funding.

(2) As additional funds become available, districts shall become eligible for funds based on their ranking percentage of limited-English-speaking pupils.

(3) Districts with limited-English-speaking pupils in grades 7 through 12 shall be eligible to receive reimbursement out of funds appropriated pursuant to this article to serve such pupils only after all eligible pupils in kindergarten through grade 6 have been served and only if such pupils are enrolled in a program authorized pursuant to subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of Section 52163.

(b) (1) The superintendent shall allow to each school district eligible for funding pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) amounts based upon the ratio of the number of limited-English-speaking pupils in the district in kindergarten and grades 1 through 6 to the total number of all such pupils in kindergarten and grades 1 through 6 in school districts eligible for funding pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a).

(2) After all such districts have been fully funded, the superintendent shall allow funds to districts eligible for funding pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) in the same manner.

(3) After all such districts have been fully funded, the superintendent shall allow to districts with limited-English-speaking pupils in grades 7 through 12 amounts based upon the ratio of the number of limited-English-speaking pupils in the district in grades 7 through 12 to the total number of limited-English-speaking pupils in grades 7 through 12 in the state.

(c) Beginning with the 1977–78 school year and each school year thereafter until all eligible schools are served, priority for eligibility within districts shall be:

(1) Elementary schools with the largest percentage of limited-English-speaking pupils and which receive federal or state categorical resources for primary grades and which have an approved school level plan.

(2) Elementary schools with the largest percentage of limited-English-speaking pupils and which are scheduled to receive federal or state categorical resources for primary grades in the succeeding school year.

(3) Elementary schools with the largest percentage of limited-English-speaking pupils but which are not scheduled to receive federal or state categorical resources for primary grades in the succeeding school year.

(4) First priority for funding in paragraphs (1) through (3) of this subdivision shall be for pupils in kindergarten and grades 1 through 3.

(5) Schools which receive funding for kindergarten and grades 1 through 3 shall have first priority in succeeding school years for funds for pupils in grades 4, 5, and 6, to be phased in at the rate of one grade per school year.

(d) The requirements for establishing programs mandated pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 52165 shall be in effect as, and to the extent that, schools become eligible to receive funds for such programs as determined pursuant to this section.

(e) The requirements for establishing programs mandated pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 52165 shall be in effect beginning with the 1977–78 school year.

CHAPTER 13. STUDENT RECORDS

Article 1. Legislative Intent

67100. It is the intent of the Legislature to resolve potential conflicts between California law and the provisions of Public Law 93-380 regarding the confidentiality of student records in order to insure the continuance of federal education funds to institutions of postsecondary education within the state, and to revise generally and update the law relating to such records.

This chapter shall not apply to community colleges or community college students unless specifically provided for herein.

This chapter, except for Sections 67110, 67121, 67122, 67123, 67124, 67130, 67140, and 67143, shall not apply to private colleges or universities, or to any private educational institution operating pursuant to, or expressly excluded from the operation of, Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 94300) of Part 59 of Division 10 of this title.

Article 2. Definitions

67110. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Student record" means any item of information directly related to an identifiable student, other than directory information, which is maintained by a college or university or is required to be maintained by any employee in the performance of his duties whether recorded by handwriting, print, tapes, film, microfilm, or other means.

(b) "Student record" shall not mean information provided by a student's parents relating to applications for financial aid or scholarships, nor shall it mean confidential letters or statements of recommendation maintained by a college or university on or before January 1, 1975, provided that such letters or statements are not used for purposes other than those for which they were specifically intended, nor shall it mean information related to a student compiled by a college or university officer or employee which remains in the sole possession of the maker and is not accessible or revealed to any other person except a substitute. For purposes of this subdivision, "substitute" shall mean a person who performs the duties of the individual who made the notes on a temporary basis and does not refer to a person who permanently succeeds the maker of the notes in his or her position.

"Student record" shall also not include information related to a student created or maintained by a physician, psychiatrist, psychologist, or other recognized professional or paraprofessional acting in his professional or paraprofessional capacity, or assisting in that capacity, and which is created, maintained, or used only in connection with the provision of treatment to the student and is not available to anyone other than persons providing such treatment; provided, however, that such a record may be personally reviewed by a physician or other appropriate professional of the student's choice.

"Student record" shall also not mean information maintained by a college or university law enforcement unit if the personnel of the unit do not have access to student records pursuant to Section 67143, if the information maintained by the unit is kept apart from information maintained pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section, if the information is maintained solely for law enforcement purposes, and if the information is not made available to persons other than law enforcement officials of the same jurisdiction, nor shall it mean information maintained in the normal course of business pertaining to persons who are employed by a college or university, provided that such information relates exclusively to such person in that person's capacity as an employee and is not available for use for any other purpose.

(c) "Directory information" means one or more of the following items: student's name, address, telephone number, date and place of birth, major field of study, class schedule, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, weight and height of members of athletic teams, dates of attendance, degrees and awards received, the most recent previous public or private school attended by the student, and any other information authorized in writing by the student.

(d) "Access" means a personal inspection and review of a record or an accurate copy of a record, an oral description or communication of a record or an accurate copy of a record, and a request to release a copy of any record.

Article 3. General Provisions

67120. Colleges and universities may establish, maintain, and destroy student records according to regulations adopted by their governing boards.

67121. Colleges and universities shall notify students in writing of their rights under this chapter upon the date of the student's enrollment next following January 1, 1977, and at least annually thereafter.

The notice shall take a form which reasonably notifies students of the availability of the following specific information:

(a) The types of student records and information contained therein which are directly related to students and maintained by the institution.

(b) The official responsible for the maintenance of each type of record.

(c) The location of the log or record required to be maintained pursuant to Section 67122.

(d) The criteria to be used by the institution in defining "officials and employees" and in determining "legitimate educational interest" as used in Section 67122 and subdivision (a) of Section 67143.

(e) The policies of the institution for reviewing and expunging those records.

(f) The right of the student to access to his records.

(g) The procedures for challenging the content of student records.

(h) The cost, if any, which will be charged for reproducing copies of records.

(i) The categories of information which the institution has designated as directory information pursuant to Section 67140.

(j) Any other rights and requirements set forth in this chapter and the right of the student to file a complaint with the United States Department of Health, Education, and Welfare concerning an alleged failure by the institution to comply with the provisions of Section 438 of the General Education Provisions Act (20 U.S.C.A. Sec. 1232g).

67122. A log or record shall be maintained for each student's record which lists all persons, agencies, or organizations requesting or receiving information from the record and the legitimate interests therefor. Such listing need not include:

(a) Students to whom access is granted pursuant to Section 67130;

(b) Parties to whom directory information is released pursuant to Section 67140;

(c) Parties for whom written consent has been executed by the student pursuant to Section 67142;

(d) Officials or employees having a legitimate educational interest pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 67143.

The log or record shall be open to inspection only by the student and the college or university official or his designee responsible for the maintenance of student records, and to other school officials with legitimate educational interests in the records, and to the Comptroller General of the United States, the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, an administrative head of an education agency as defined in Public Law 93-380, and state educational authorities as a means of auditing the operation of the system.

67123. Any college or university may make a reasonable charge in an amount not to exceed the actual cost of furnishing copies of any student record; provided, however, that no charge may be made to search for or to retrieve any student record.

67124. Whenever a student transfers from one public or private institution of postsecondary education to another within the state, appropriate records or a copy thereof shall be transferred by the former community college, college, or university upon a request from the student; provided, however, that the community college, college, or university from which the student is transferring may notify the student that his records will be transferred upon payment by the student of all fees and charges due the community college, college, or university. Any community college, college, or university making such a transfer of such records shall notify the student of his right to receive a copy of the record and his right to a hearing to challenge the content of the record.

The California State University and Colleges Board of Trustees and the Regents of the University of California may adopt rules and regulations concerning transfer of such records to, from, or between schools under their respective jurisdictions.

Article 4. Rights of Students

67130. Any currently enrolled or former student has a right of access to all student records relating to him maintained by any public or private college or university, except those records which include information on more than one identifiable student, in which case only that information relating to the student requesting access shall be revealed.

Each college or university shall adopt procedures for the granting of requests by students to inspect and review records during regular school hours, provided that access shall be granted no later than 15 working days following the receipt of the request. Procedures shall include notification of the location of all official student records if not centrally located and the providing of qualified personnel to interpret records where appropriate.

67131. (a) A student may waive his right of access to any student records devoted solely to confidential recommendations for career placement or postsecondary admission; provided, that such recommendations are used solely for the purpose for which they were specifically intended, and provided, that the student shall be notified, upon request, of the names of all persons making confidential recommendations. Such waivers may not be required as a condition for admission to, receipt of financial aid from, or receipt of any other services or benefits from a college or university.

(b) The fact that a waiver has or has not been executed pursuant to this section shall not be revealed to any person other than the person or persons responsible for maintenance of student records or the person or persons making the confidential recommendation.

(c) No student may be required to sign a form saying that he has not waived access to any confidential recommendation.

67132. Each college or university shall establish procedures whereby a student may request, in writing, that information be removed from the student's record which he alleges to be: (1) inaccurate; (2) an unsubstantiated personal conclusion or inference; (3) a conclusion or inference outside of the observer's area of competence; or (4) not based upon the personal observation of a named person with the time and place of the observation noted.

If any of the student's allegations are sustained, the information shall be corrected or removed from the student's record and destroyed.

If any of the student's allegations are not sustained, the student shall have the right to submit a written statement of his objections to the information. This statement shall become a part of the student's record until such time as the information objected to is corrected or removed.

67133. Whenever there is included in any student record information concerning any disciplinary action taken by college or university personnel in connection with the student, the student shall be allowed to include in such record a written statement or response concerning the disciplinary action.

Article 5. Privacy of Student Records

67140. Colleges and universities shall adopt policies identifying those categories of directory information as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 67110 which may be released. The names and addresses of students may be provided to a private school or college operating under the provisions of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 94300) of Part 59 of Division 10 of this title, provided, however, that no such private school or college shall use such information for other than purposes directly related to the academic or professional goals of the institution, and provided further that any violation of this provision is a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500), and, in addition, the privilege of the school or college to receive such information shall be suspended for a period of two years from the time of discovery of the misuse of such information.

Any college or university may, in its discretion, limit or deny the release of specific categories of directory information to any public or private nonprofit organization based upon a determination of the best interests of students.

Directory information may be released according to local policy as to any student currently attending the college or university, provided that public notice is given at least annually of the categories of information which the college or university plans to release.

No directory information shall be released regarding any student when the student has notified the institution in writing that such information shall not be released.

67141. Nothing in this chapter shall preclude a college or university from providing, in its discretion, statistical data from which no student may be identified to any public agency or entity or private nonprofit college, university, or educational research and development organization when such actions would be in the best educational interests of students.

67142. A college or university may permit access to student records to any person for whom the student has executed written consent specifying the records to be released and identifying the party or class of parties to whom such records may be released. The recipient must be notified that the transmission of the information to others without the written consent of the student is prohibited. The consent notice shall be permanently kept with the record file.

67143. A college or university is not authorized to permit access to student records to any person without the written consent of the student or under judicial order except that access may be permitted to the following:

(a) Officials and employees of the college or university, provided that any such person has a legitimate educational interest to inspect a record.

(b) Authorized representatives of the Comptroller General of the United States, the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, an administrative head of an education agency, state education officials, or their respective designees, or the United States Office for Civil Rights, where such information is necessary to audit or evaluate a state or federally supported education program or pursuant to a federal or state law, provided that except when collection of personally identifiable information is specifically authorized by federal law, any data collected by such officials shall be protected in a manner which will not permit the personal identification of students or their parents by other than those officials, and such personally identifiable data shall be destroyed when no longer needed for such audit, evaluation, and enforcement of federal legal requirements.

(c) Other state and local officials or authorities to the extent that information is specifically required to be reported pursuant to state law adopted prior to November 19, 1974.

(d) Officials of other public or private schools or school systems, including local, county, or state correctional facilities where educational programs are provided, where the student seeks or intends to enroll, or is directed to enroll, subject to the rights of students as provided in Section 69124.

(e) Agencies or organizations in connection with a student's application for, or receipt of, financial aid; provided, that information permitting the personal identification of students may be disclosed only as may be necessary for such purposes as to determine the eligibility of the student for financial aid, to determine the amount of the financial aid, to determine the conditions which will be imposed regarding the financial aid, or to enforce the terms or conditions of the financial aid.

(f) Accrediting organizations in order to carry out their accrediting functions.

(g) Organizations conducting studies for, or on behalf of, educational agencies or institutions for the purpose of developing, validating, or administering predictive tests, administering student aid programs, and improving instruction, if such studies are conducted in such a manner as will not permit the personal identification of students or their parents by persons other than representatives of such organizations and such information will be destroyed when no longer needed for the purpose for which it is conducted.

(h) Appropriate persons in connection with an emergency if the knowledge of such information is necessary to protect the health or safety of a student or other persons, or subject to such regulations as may be issued by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare.

No person, persons, agency, or organization permitted access to student records pursuant to this section shall permit access to any information obtained from such records by any other person, persons, agency, or organization without the written consent of the student; provided, however, that this paragraph shall not be construed as to require prior student consent when information obtained pursuant to this section is shared with other persons within the educational institution, agency or organization obtaining access, so long as such persons have a legitimate educational interest in the information.

67144. Information concerning a student shall be furnished in compliance with a court order. The college or university shall make a reasonable effort to notify the student in advance of such compliance if lawfully possible within the requirements of the judicial order.

67145. The service of a subpoena upon a college or university employee solely for the purpose of causing him to produce a school record pertaining to any student may be complied with by such employee, in lieu of personal appearance as a witness in the proceeding, by submitting to the court, or other agency issuing the subpoena, at the time and place required by the subpoena, a copy of such record, accompanied by an affidavit certifying that such copy is a true copy of the original record on file in the college or university office. The copy of the record shall be in the form of a photostat, microfilm, microcard, or miniature photograph or other photographic copy or reproduction, or an enlargement thereof.

67146. The California State University and Colleges Board of Trustees shall adopt appropriate rules and regulations to insure the orderly implementation of this chapter.

67147. The provisions of this chapter shall be applicable to the University of California upon the adoption of a resolution by the Regents of the University of California making the provisions so applicable.

68077.5. A student who is a minor alien shall be entitled to resident classification if both he and his parent are refugees who have been granted parolee status or indefinite voluntary departure status in accordance with all applicable laws of the United States; provided that he has lived in the state one year.

This section shall be operative only until June 30, 1980, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 502. Section 68082 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

68082. A student who is a native American is entitled to resident classification for attendance at a community college if the student is also attending a school administered by the Bureau of Indian Affairs located within the community college district.

SEC. 503. Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 69503) is added to Chapter 2, Part 42 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

Article 1.5. General Provisions

69503. In enacting this article, the Legislature finds and declares:

(a) The awarding of financial assistance to needy students by state-funded student aid programs appropriately considers family income in determining an applicant's financial need.

(b) Claiming of financial independence by students whose parents are in fact able to provide financial assistance unfairly redirects limited student aid dollars from students with legitimate financial need.

(c) Definitions and procedures by which a student may declare financial independence from the student's parents differ among state-funded student aid programs and among institutions. A statutory definition of when a student's eligibility for need-based, state-funded grants is to be determined without regard to his or her parents' financial circumstances will reduce confusion and ensure that such grants are allocated to students on the basis of a more equitable evaluation of their financial need.

69504. The provisions of this article apply to all need-based student grants that are funded by the state or a public postsecondary educational institution under this division. Nothing in this article shall be construed as attempting to regulate the selection or awarding of scholarships to applicants by the state or a public postsecondary educational institution where the scholarships are funded and awarded pursuant to the terms of a private endowment, trust, or similar instrument.

69505. Except as provided for in Section 69506, the resources of an applicant's parents, and spouse where applicable, as well as those of the applicant, shall be considered in determining an applicant's financial need.

69506. The Student Aid Commission or any public postsecondary educational institution shall not consider the income of an applicant's parents in the determination of an applicant's financial need if the applicant, notwithstanding Section 211 of the Civil Code, meets one of the following requirements:

(a) Has been determined to be self-supporting prior to June 30, 1977, according to the procedures of the California postsecondary educational institution from which he or she is currently receiving need-based, state-funded financial aid.

(b) Has not lived with either parent or received financial assistance exceeding six hundred dollars ($600) from either parent for three consecutive tax years prior to the academic period for which aid is requested, and has not been claimed as an income tax exemption for the same period of time by anyone other than self or spouse.

(c) Has been a ward of the court, in which case appropriate court documents shall be submitted.

(d) Is an orphan and not claimed as a tax dependent during the current tax year by any person other than self or spouse.

(e) Has been a part of an extremely adverse home situation which is documented and supported by school or responsible community personnel such as a minister or social worker, which situation has led to estrangement from the family under circumstances where the student has not received a contribution in cash or kind from his family for the preceding 12 months. Public postsecondary educational institutions and the Student Aid Commission shall develop a procedure to allow students to appeal decisions on whether the student has been part of an adverse home situation.

69507. In instances where an applicant does not meet the criteria specified in Section 69506, and the parents refuse to provide financial information, the student may not be considered for a grant. In those instances, however, the student may be considered for a loan or employment aid to the extent that such are available on the basis of the resources of the student and the student's spouse, if any.

69508. The provisions of this article shall apply only to grants to be awarded for the 1978–79 academic year.

This article shall be operative only until June 30, 1978, or until completion of the processing of applications for the 1978–79 academic year, whichever is later, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 504. Section 69538.5 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

69538.5. It is the intent of the Legislature that the Student Aid Commission shall experiment with awarding Cal Grants to students in proprietary schools. The Student Aid Commission shall report to the Legislature no later than July 1 of each year as to the extent which this intent is met within the provisions of Sections 69536 and 69538 and the following information on students attending proprietary postsecondary educational institutions:

(a) The number of students receiving Cal Grants.

(b) The names of the institutions attended by these students.

(c) The attrition rate of these students compared to students attending two- and four-year colleges or universities.

(d) The primary fields of study offered by these proprietary postsecondary educational institutions.

(e) A representative sampling of the family income of students.

This section shall remain in effect only until June 30, 1980, and as of that date is repealed.

72026.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in any district which has annexed or annexes territory resulting in a proposal for a rearrangement of trustee areas and which holds an election pursuant to Section 72026 and a rearrangement of boundaries is approved by the voters, in the event that such rearrangement results in a trustee area having more or fewer than its allotted number of representatives, a governing board member representing a particular trustee area whose boundaries are rearranged so that he or she no longer resides within the trustee area may serve out his or her term of office as that area's representative. Succeeding representatives shall be selected in the manner provided by law.

A student who resides in nondistrict territory which will be annexed to a community college district effective July 1, 1976, shall be classified as a resident student of that community college district when he enrolls for the 1976 summer session even though such session begins prior to July 1st.

SEC. 512. Section 74161.4 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

74161.4. Within 20 days after the filing of a petition under Section 74161, the county superintendent of schools shall examine it and, if he finds it to be sufficient and signed as required by law, transmit the petition simultaneously to the county committee on school district organization and to the board of governors.

74162.5. The board of governors, if it approves a petition under this article, shall include a provision for the division of property when the entire territory or a portion of the territory of a community college district is withdrawn and included in another district, or is formed into a new district, or is included in two or more new districts. All property, funds, and obligations of the former district, or portion of the former district, including the bonded indebtedness, shall be allocated as herein provided:

(a) The real property and personal property and fixtures normally situated thereat shall be the property of the district in which the real property is located; and

(b) Except as provided otherwise by law, all other property and funds, after all obligations, except for bonded indebtedness, have been discharged, shall be divided pro rata among the districts in which the territory of the former district is included.

The board of governors shall also provide for the division of funds, including cash on hand and moneys due but uncollected on the date reorganization becomes effective for all purposes, and state apportionments based on average daily attendance earned in the year immediately preceding the date reorganization becomes effective for all purposes.

In providing for the division of property, funds, and obligations, including bonded indebtedness, the board may consider (1) the ratio that the assessed valuation of the part of the district to be included within a new district bears to the entire district from which it was taken, or, (2) the ratio that the number of community college age students of the part of the district to be included within a new district bears to the entire district from which it was taken, or, (3) the average of (1) and (2) above, or (4) the value and location of the property, or, (5) such other matters as the board may deem important and pertinent. Any funds derived from the sale of bonds issued by the former district shall be used for the acquisition, construction or improvement of community college property only in the territory which comprised the former district or to discharge bonded indebtedness of the former district, except that, if the bond debt is assumed by the new district, the funds may be used in any area of the new district for the purpose for which the bonds were originally voted.

SEC. 513.4. Section 74162.7 is added to the Education Code, as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

74162.7. The board of governors, if it approves a petition under this article, shall provide that, if the boundaries of a community college district are relocated under this article, so that a portion of the students will not be residents of the community college district thereafter maintaining a community college previously attended by the students, and if there is in the community college an organized student body, the property, funds, and obligations of the student body shall be divided as determined by the board of governors, except that the share shall not exceed an amount equal to the ratio which the number of students leaving the community college bears to the total number of students enrolled. The ownership of the property, funds, and obligations, which is the proportionate share of each segment of the student body, shall be transferred to the student body of the community college or community colleges in which the students are first enrolled during the school year next succeeding the reorganization. Funds from devises, bequests, or gifts made to the organized student body of a community college shall remain the property of the organized student body of that community college and shall not be divided.

(b) As used in this section, "handicapped students" are persons enrolled at a community college who cannot benefit from the regular educational program provided by the community college at which such students are enrolled, without special services and programs, because of a physical, communication, or learning disability as defined by the Director of Rehabilitation in cooperation with the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, following public hearings. The Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges

81033.5. Geological and soils engineering studies as described in Section 81033 shall be made, within the boundaries of any special studies zone, for the construction of any school building as defined in Section 81131 or, if the estimated cost exceeds ten thousand dollars ($10,000), the reconstruction or alteration of or addition to any such school building for work which alters structural elements. The Department of General Services may require similar geological and soils engineering studies for the construction or alteration of any school building on a site located outside of the boundaries of any special studies zone. No such studies need be made if the site under consideration has been the subject of adequate prior studies.

No school building shall be constructed, reconstructed, or relocated on the trace of a geological fault along which surface rupture can reasonably be expected to occur within the life of the school building.

A copy of the report of each investigation conducted pursuant to this section shall be submitted to the Department of General Services pursuant to Article 7 (commencing with Section 81130) of this chapter of this division and to the Department of Education. Whenever an examination of the geological characteristics of the site on which any public school building constructed prior to 1957 is situated has been made at the request of the governing board by a licensed geologist prior to the effective date of the act which enacted this section, and the report shows that the school building is situated on the trace of an active geological fault along which it can reasonably be expected that surface rupture will occur within the life of such building, such building shall be deemed structurally unsafe for school use. Such building shall be subject to replacement at another location in accordance with the procedure provided for repair, reconstruction, or replacement in Section 81162 as though it had not been constructed in conformance with Article 7 (commencing with Section 81130) of this chapter.

The county superintendent of schools shall in such case notify the duly authorized representative of the State Allocation Board of the amount available as a reduction of outstanding Article 9 apportionments and the authorized representative shall take the action necessary to reduce the outstanding apportionments. After July 1, 1980, any additional amounts shall be available only for the purposes of reducing the tax levy under Section 16090.

This section shall remain in effect only until June 30, 1985, and as of that date is repealed.

The offer to sell shall be made in writing, but the terms by which the property may be sold or transferred need not be specifically provided.

81191. The sale or transfer may be made for cash and other valuable consideration, or for other valuable consideration, as deemed appropriate by the governing board of the community college district. The sale or transfer may be made without first taking a vote of the electors of the district.

This will place students in close relationship to the world of work, thus facilitating career education opportunities.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that priority in leasing or renting vacant classroom space be given to educational agencies, particularly those conducting special education programs.

It is the intent of the Legislature that such procedures provide for community involvement by attendance area and at the district level. This community involvement should facilitate making the best possible judgments about the use of excess school facilities in each individual situation.

It is the intent of the Legislature to have the community involved before decisions are made about school closure or the use of surplus space, thus avoiding community conflict and assuring building use that is compatible with the community's needs and desires.

(c) The governing board of any district may, and the governing board of each district, prior to the sale, lease, or rental of any excess real property, except rentals not exceeding 30 days, shall, appoint a district advisory committee to advise the governing board in the development of districtwide policies and procedures governing the use of disposition of school buildings or space in school buildings which is not needed for school purposes.

(d) A district advisory committee shall consist of not less than 7 nor more than 11 members, and shall be representative of the following:

1. The ethnic, age group and socioeconomic composition of the district.

2. The business community, such as store owners, managers or supervisors.

3. Landowners and renters.

4. Instructors and administrators.

5. Parents of students.

6. Persons with expertise in environmental impact, legal contracts, building codes, and land use planning.

(e) The district advisory committee shall:

1. Review the projected enrollment and other data as provided by the district to determine the amount of surplus space.

2. Establish a priority list of use of surplus space that will be acceptable to the community.

3. Cause to have circulated throughout the attendance area a priority list of surplus space and provide for hearings of community input to the committee on acceptable uses of space.

4. Make a final determination of limits of tolerance for use of space.

5. Forward to the district governing board a report recommending uses of surplus space.

(f) An existing district advisory committee having the representation specified in subdivision (c), may be designated as the district advisory committee for the purposes of this section.

SEC. 527. Section 81645.5 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

community college district may, by direct sale or otherwise, sell to a purchaser any electronic data-processing equipment owned by, or to be owned by, the district, if the purchaser agrees to lease the equipment back to the district for use by the district following the sale.

The approval by the governing board of the district of the sale and leaseback shall be given only if the governing board finds, by resolution, that the sale and leaseback is the most economical means for providing electronic data-processing equipment to the district.

SEC. 528. Section 81646 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

thereafter to a maximum of two cents ($0.02).

(b) Compute an amount to be known as the Foundation Program by multiplying the average daily attendance of residents of such community college district by thirty-two dollars ($32) for the 1976–77 fiscal year and an additional four dollars ($4) in each fiscal year thereafter to a maximum of forty dollars ($40).

(c) Subtract the result of subdivision (a) from the result of subdivision (b) for such district the difference to be known as state aid for the state teachers' retirement increase.

Further, the chancellor's office of the California Community Colleges shall identify to each community college district the amount of increased state aid granted under this section which shall be used as a limitation on the taxes that may be levied and collected annually under the provisions of Section 23401 of the Education Code.

SEC. 533. Section 84730.5 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

The assessed valuation equivalents for revenue amounts certified pursuant to Section 27423 of the Government Code and Section 38905 of the Revenue and Taxation Code shall be derived by multiplying such amounts by a factor of 100 and dividing the product by the secured tax rate for the prior year.

Each county auditor on or before November 15th shall report the assessed valuations to the Superintendent of Public Instruction on forms provided by him. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall require the assessed valuations to be reported in such an order that the appropriate assessed valuations may be modified pursuant to Section 84201.

(2) Divide the amount determined in (1) by the total units of average daily attendance computed pursuant to Sections 84520 to 84550, inclusive, for all community college districts on the 1975–76 fiscal year state second principal apportionment.

(3) Multiply the result of the computation in (2) by 1.06 times the equalization factor for the district determined pursuant to subdivision (f) and the demographic factor for the district determined pursuant to subdivision (g).

(4) Determine the amount of the difference between the total units of average daily attendance for the district computed pursuant to Sections 84520 to 84550, inclusive, on the 1975–76 fiscal year state second principal apportionment and the total units of average daily attendance for the district computed pursuant to Sections 84520 and 84524.5 for the 1976-77 fiscal year state second principal apportionment.

(f) The equalization factor for a district shall be computed as follows:

(1) Divide the total modified assessed valuation for all community college districts on the 1976–77 fiscal year second principal apportionment by the total units of resident average daily attendance for all community college districts computed pursuant to Sections 84520 and 84524.5 for the 1976–77 fiscal year second principal apportionment.

(2) Divide the modified assessed valuation for the district on the 1976–77 fiscal year second principal apportionment by the total units of resident average daily attendance for the district computed pursuant to Sections 84520 and 84524.5 for the 1976–77 fiscal year second principal apportionment.

(3) Divide the result of the computation in (1) by the result of the computation in (2). This amount shall be the equalization factor for the district. The maximum equalization factor for any district shall be 2.

(2) Divide the units of resident average daily attendance for the district on the 1976–77 fiscal year second principal apportionment by the total adult population, excluding the population in state and federal correctional institutions and all persons residing in student housing associated with four-year educational institutions with an enrollment of 3,000 or more and persons residing in military barracks, of the district on January 1, 1977, as estimated by the Department of Finance in cooperation with the chancellor's office.

(3) Divide the result of the computation in (1) by the result of the computation in (2). This amount in no case shall be more than 1.5.

(4) The demographic factor shall be 1.0 for those districts whose value calculated in paragraph (3) is below the median of the values calculated in paragraph (3) and for all other districts shall be 1 plus that portion of the value calculated in (3) which results in a total state apportionment of four million dollars ($4,000,000) to those districts with a value as determined in paragraph (3) of this subdivision that exceeds the statewide median value for this calculation for the demographic factor.

(h) This section is repealed as of December 31, 1977.

(5) Multiply the number determined in paragraph (4) by 1.06.

(6) Multiply the number determined in paragraph (3) by the units of average daily attendance determined in paragraph (1).

(7) The state apportionment to the district for its prior fiscal year level of student attendance is the greater of (4) or that amount determined by paragraph (b) (4).

(e) If the total units of average daily attendance for the prior fiscal year are less than 3,001:

(1) Multiply the number determined in paragraph (c) (4) by the number determined in paragraph (d) (3).

(2) The state apportionment to the district in the 1977–78 fiscal year or fiscal years thereafter for the growth in its student attendance between the prior fiscal year and the current fiscal year shall be the greater of paragraph (1) and that determined by paragraph (c) (5).

(f) The equalization factor for a district shall be computed as follows:

(1) Divide the total modified assessed valuation for all community college districts on the current year second principal apportionment by the total units of resident average daily attendance for all community college districts computed pursuant to Sections 84520 and 84524.5 for the current year second principal apportionment.

(2) Divide the modified assessed valuation for the district on the current year second principal apportionment by the total units of resident average daily attendance for the district computed pursuant to Sections 84520 and 84524.5 for the current year second principal apportionment.

(3) Divide the result of the computation in (1) by the result of the computation in (2). This amount shall be the equalization factor for the district. The maximum equalization factor for any district shall be 2.

(g) The demographic factor for a district shall be computed as follows:

(1) Divide the total units of resident average daily attendance for all community college districts on the current fiscal year second principal apportionment by the total adult population, excluding the population in state and federal correctional institutions and all persons residing in student housing associated with four-year educational institutions with an enrollment of 3,000 or more persons residing in military barracks, for all community college districts on January 1 of the current fiscal year as estimated by the Department of Finance in cooperation with the chancellor's office.

(2) Divide the units of resident average daily attendance for the district on the current fiscal year second principal apportionment by the total adult population, excluding the population in state and federal correctional institutions and all persons residing in student housing associated with four-year educational institutions with an enrollment of 3,000 or more persons residing in military barracks, of the district on January 1 of the current fiscal year as estimated by the Department of Finance in cooperation with the chancellor's office.

(3) Divide the result of the computation in (1) by the result of the computation in (2). This amount in no case shall be more than 1.5.

(4) The demographic factor shall be 1.0 for those districts whose value calculated in paragraph (3) is below the median of the values calculated in paragraph (3) and for all other districts shall be 1 plus that portion of the value calculated in (3) which results in a total state apportionment of four million dollars ($4,000,000) to those districts with a value as determined in paragraph (3) of this subdivision that exceeds the statewide median value for this calculation for the demographic factor.

84765. (a) If the total units of average daily attendance for the community college district computed pursuant to Sections 84520 and 84524.5 for the current year second principal apportionment is less than the total units of average daily attendance computed pursuant to Sections 84520 and 84524.5 for the prior year second principal apportionment, the chancellor's office of the California Community Colleges shall compute the state apportionment to the district in accordance with subdivision (b) if the total units of average daily attendance for the prior year second principal apportionment is greater than 3,000, and in accordance with subdivision (c) otherwise.

(b) The state apportionment to each district with total units of average daily attendance for the prior year second principal apportionment greater than 3,000 shall be computed as follows:

(1) Determine the amount of the difference between the total units of average daily attendance for the district computed pursuant to Sections 84520 and 84524.5 on the prior year second principal apportionment and the total units of average daily attendance for the district computed pursuant to Sections 84520 and 84524.5 for the current year second principal apportionment.

(2) Determine the amount of the prior year second principal apportionment to the district for student attendance computed pursuant to Sections 84520 and 84524.5.

(3) Divide the amount determined in (2) by the total units of average daily attendance computed pursuant to Sections 84520 and 84524.5 for the district on the prior year second principal apportionment.

(4) Multiply the amount determined in (1) by the result of the computation in (3).

(5) Subtract the result of the computation in (4) from the amount of the prior year second principal apportionment to the district for student attendance computed pursuant to Sections 84520 and 84524.5.

(6) Multiply the result of the computation in (5) by 0.06 times the equalization factor for the district determined pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 84764.

(7) Add the result of the computation in (6) to the result of the computation in (5).

(8) Multiply the amount determined in paragraph (7), by the demographic factor for the district determined pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 84764. The result of this computation shall be the second principal apportionment to the district in the current year.

(c) For each community college district with less than 3,001 units of average daily attendance for the prior fiscal year, the state apportionment shall be computed as follows:

(1) Determine the total units of average daily attendance computed pursuant to Sections 84520 and 84524.5 for the prior fiscal year second principal apportionment.

(2) Determine a small district multiplier equal to $1.0/(a+bx)$ where

$a = .47615$

$b = .0001746$, and

(3) Multiply the number determined in paragraph (2) by the number determined in paragraph (c) (3) of Section 84764.

(4) Multiply the number determined in paragraph (3) by the units of average daily attendance computed pursuant to Sections 84520 and 84524.5 for the current fiscal year second principal apportionment.

(5) The state apportionment to the district shall be the greater of paragraph (4) or that amount determined by paragraph (b) (8).

84766. For purposes of Sections 84762, 84763, 84764, and 84765, unless otherwise specified, "total units of average daily attendance" means units of average daily attendance of students who are residents of the community college district and of students as defined in Section 84767 attending in the community college district.

84767. All state allowances to a community college district for attendance of students, who are residents of the State of California but are not residing either in the district or in any district maintaining a community college district, shall be provided to the district pursuant to Section 84790.

84768. The Chancellor of the California Community Colleges shall exclude from the computation of state apportionments the units of average daily attendance of nonresident students and of inmates of any state penal institution for adults or any city, county, or city and county jail, road camp, or farm for adults; however, he shall allow any community college district, which has boundaries coterminous with those of a city and county, maintaining classes for inmates of any state institution for adults or any city, county, or city and county jail, road camp, or farm for adults an amount equal to the actual current expenses of the community college district for such classes. The amount so allowed to such a community college district for each unit of average daily attendance in such classes shall in no event exceed the amount of total state aid per unit of average daily attendance which said district would have received, had the average daily attendance in such classes not been excluded.

84769. Effective July 1, 1976, the state basic aid and state equalization aid for a community college district shall be defined as follows:

(a) State basic aid shall be defined as the amount determined by multiplying one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125) times the total units of average daily attendance computed pursuant to Sections 84520 to 84533, inclusive, for the second principal apportionment.

(b) State equalization aid shall be defined as the amount of the difference between the total state apportionment to the district computed pursuant to Section 84762, 84763, 84764, or 84765 and state basic aid to the district defined pursuant to subdivision (a).

SEC. 535. Section 84850 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

84850. (a) The Chancellor of the California Community Colleges shall apportion to each community college district for the purpose of funding the excess direct district cost of providing special facilities, special educational material, educational assistance, mobility assistance, transportation, and program developmental services for handicapped students enrolled at a community college as defined in Section 78014, who have demonstrated a need for such services, an amount not exceeding seven hundred eighty-five dollars ($785) in each fiscal year for each such handicapped student.

(b) The Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges shall adopt rules and regulations for determining program and service components and appropriation of resources to community college districts pursuant to Section 78014. Such rules and regulations shall be based upon guidelines, developed and approved by both the chancellor and the Director of Rehabilitation after public hearings, and shall be appropriate to the educational needs of handicapped students enrolled at a community college.

The chancellor and the Director of Rehabilitation shall incorporate suggestions from other interested persons and organizations in the guidelines where feasible and appropriate.

If the chancellor and the Director of Rehabilitation are unable to agree upon any portion or portions of the guidelines, each may submit guidelines to the board of governors, which may base the rules and regulations which it adopts on any combination of guidelines submitted.

(c) Each community college district receiving an allowance under this section shall report to the chancellor on forms and at such times as he shall provide, all expenditures and incomes related to handicapped students for whom such allowances are made. If the chancellor determines that the current expense of educating such students does not equal or exceed the sum of basic state aid and state equalization aid provided in the regular community college foundation program per unit of average daily attendance, the allowance provided under this section and any amount of local tax funds contributed to the foundation program for each such handicapped student in average daily attendance in the district, then the amount of such deficiency shall be withheld from state apportionments to the district in the succeeding fiscal year in accordance with the procedure prescribed in Section 84330.

(d) The chancellor and the Director of Rehabilitation shall review programs for handicapped students funded pursuant to this section and shall report, jointly or separately, their findings and recommendations to the Legislature not later than February 15, 1978. The report shall include recommendations relative to appropriate levels of support for programs and services for handicapped students and further improvements in funding procedures.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the chancellor may, upon recommendation of the Director of Rehabilitation, allocate amounts up to twice the amount authorized in subdivision (a) to provide for excess costs of educational services for severely disabled students as defined pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 78014; provided, however, that any allocations made pursuant to this subdivision (e) shall not result in an increase in the total amount of funds allocated pursuant to this section. Allocations in excess of seven hundred eighty-five dollars ($785) per student shall be provided only to programs identified by the chancellor and the Director of Rehabilitation in accordance with rules and regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision (b).

(f) In the event that requests for apportionments exceed the amount of state funds statutorily available, the chancellor shall apportion the statutorily available funds among community college districts applying for such funds in accordance with guidelines established and approved by the chancellor and the Director of Rehabilitation pursuant to this section. State apportionments shall be made only to districts which certify that all appropriate federal and local funds available for programs for handicapped students are being utilized.

(g) The chancellor's office and the Department of Rehabilitation shall jointly develop guidelines governing expenditures relating to handicapped students to prevent duplication in state expenditures for such students.

SEC. 536. Section 85112 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

85112. Any maximum rate of tax for any community college district may be increased and, having been increased, may be decreased by an amount equal to, or less than, the amount of such increase, by a majority vote of the qualified electors of the community college district at an election which may be ordered by the governing board of the community college district on its own motion and shall be ordered within 90 days after the filing with the governing board of a petition signed by not less than 10 percent of the registered voters of the district requesting that an election be ordered, unless the petitioners request that the election be consolidated with the annual election for members of the governing board, or that the election be consolidated with the general election.

The governing board shall determine whether the increase or decrease shall remain in effect for a specified or unspecified period of time, unless the petition filed by the electors provides for a specified or unspecified period of time. If a specified period is provided for in the petition or determined upon by the governing boards, such period shall be stated on the ballot.

Pursuant to the order of the governing board, the election shall be called, held, and conducted by the county superintendent of schools, as nearly as is practicable in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 5300) of Part 4 of Division 1 of Title 1.

The specification of the election order shall contain the information provided in Section 5322 and shall be furnished the county superintendent of schools by the governing board of the district for all maximum tax increase or decrease elections ordered by it.

The costs incurred by the county clerk or registrar of voters and the county superintendent of schools in connection with this section shall be paid out of the funds of the district.

Except as otherwise herein provided, the ballot used in the election shall contain substantially the words "Shall the proposed (increase decrease) in the maximum tax rates from _____ ($_____) to _____ ($_____) for each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed valuation of property, such rate to be in effect in the _____ District for the school year (or years) 19____ to 19____, the revenues of which are to be used for _____, be authorized?" or the words "Shall the proposed (increase decrease) in the maximum tax rates from _____ ($_____) to _____ ($_____) for each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed valuation of property commencing on _____, such rate to be in effect in the _____ District for the school years commencing 19____, the revenues of which are to be used for _____, be authorized?" Opposite such words, in separate lines, the words "Yes" and "No" shall be printed, with a voting square opposite each such word. If, at any prior election held in the district, the maximum tax rate of the district was increased for a specified period of time, and if the election is called for the purpose of continuing in effect the previously authorized increase in the maximum tax rate of the district, the ballot shall contain substantially the words "Shall the existing maximum tax rate of _____ ($_____) for each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed valuation of property be continued in the _____ District for the school years 19____ to 19____, the revenues of which are to be used for _____?" Opposite such words in separate lines, the words "Yes" and "No" shall be printed with a voting square opposite each such word. Each voter shall stamp a cross (+) in the voting square after the answer he desires to give.

Whenever the maximum tax rate of a community college district is increased for either a specified or unspecified period of time and during such period an election is called for the purpose of further increasing the maximum tax rate of the district, the ballot used in the election shall show only the authorized maximum tax rate of the district in effect at the time of the election and the proposed maximum tax rate.

If an election for a decrease in an increased maximum tax rate of a district is held in any year prior to, or concurrently with, the district election for governing board members, any decrease adopted at such election shall become effective on July 1st following the election. If an election for a decrease in an increased tax rate of a district is held in any year after the date of the district election for governing board members, any decrease adopted at such election shall not become effective until July 1st of the next succeeding year.

SEC. 537. Section 85134.5 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

college district pursuant to Section 85132 or 85133, may be increased in order to add the amount of the difference between the total general purpose tax revenues levied by the district during 1975–76 and the total general purpose tax revenues which the district was authorized to levy pursuant to former Section 20935 as that section read prior to July 2, 1976, plus or minus the general purpose tax revenues which the district was authorized to levy during the 1976–77 fiscal year pursuant to former Section 20936.5.

SEC. 539. Section 85265 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

85265. The county superintendent of schools may designate one or more national or state banks having its principal office in this state, provided its deposits are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, to act as disbursing agents for community college districts under his jurisdiction. The county superintendent of schools may draw orders and requisitions upon the funds of the respective public employers for the purchase of authorized tax-sheltered annuities, in favor of such banks. The county auditor shall follow the procedure with respect to examining and allowing such orders and requisitions set forth in Section 85239. The county superintendent of schools, upon receiving allowed warrants from the county auditor, shall transmit them to such designated banks. As soon as feasible following transmittal of such warrants to such banks, the county superintendent of schools shall furnish such banks with listings containing all information required to enable such banks to properly disburse payments to the companies, including identification of the employees for whom the annuities are purchased, the amount of payment on behalf of each designated employee, and the company to which the payment on behalf of each designated employee is to be made. It shall be the duty of each such bank to disburse such payments to the companies entitled thereto by check, bank draft, or other appropriate instrument of the bank, within a reasonable time after receipt of each such payment and the listings furnishing the necessary information for disbursements, which time period shall not exceed 10 working days. Such disbursing banks shall be deemed to be agents of the community college districts purchasing such annuities on behalf of their respective employees, and the moneys received by the banks shall be deemed to be deposits of the community college districts. Security for the deposits shall be furnished as required by the laws of this state.

SEC. 540. Section 85266 is added to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

85266. With the approval of the county superintendent of schools, the governing board of a community college district may cause warrants to be drawn on the county treasury against designated funds, except debt service, of the district in the county treasury in the payment of expenses of the district. The warrants for salary and other types of claims designated by the county superintendent shall be issued by a person designated as the district disbursing officer for the school district on the county treasury in favor of the persons entitled thereto in payment of all claims in designated categories chargeable against the district which have been legally examined, allowed, and ordered paid by the governing board. The district disbursing officer shall issue warrants, using procedures prescribed by the county auditor, on the county treasury for all debts and demands, within categories designated by the county superintendent, against the district when amounts are legally approved. The form of the warrant shall be prescribed by, and approved by, the county auditor or county treasurer having jurisdiction.

The cost of printing warrants may be charged to the district. Notwithstanding Section 84000, except for assessing and tax collecting, the county auditor and county treasurer may charge those districts that draw their own warrants for the cost of all fiscal services.

Notwithstanding Section 27005 of the Government Code, or any other provision of law requiring orders for warrants or warrants to be signed by the county superintendent of schools or the county auditor, or both, the county superintendent and county auditor may prescribe alternative procedures for districts to issue warrants. The district disbursing officer shall not be considered a deputy county superintendent of schools or a deputy county auditor. The county treasurer shall pay the warrant in the designated category, if district funds are available.

County officers shall not be responsible for providing reports, statements, or other data relating to, or based on, the designated payments of expenses of the district. Those districts issuing warrants, as provided by this section, shall provide the county superintendent of schools, in the form prescribed by him, with the data necessary to make retirement reports and other reports required of him by law. All warrants, vouchers, and supporting documents shall be kept by school districts that draw their own warrants in those designated categories.

The county superintendent shall provide for a periodic review of the districts' financial transactions and internal controls pursuant to Section 85237.5.

County superintendents of schools may provide fiscal, budgetary, and data-processing services through contractual agreements to community college districts that have been determined to be fiscally accountable under the provisions of this section.

The person authorized by the governing board of the district to issue warrants, pursuant to this section, shall execute an official bond in an amount fixed by the governing board conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties under this section. A county superintendent or county auditor shall not be liable under the terms of their bonds or otherwise for any warrant issued pursuant to this section. This section shall not be construed as impairing the obligation of any contract in the bond of such officer in effect on January 1, 1977.

A listing of the warrants issued under this section by each community college district shall be forwarded to the county auditor having jurisdiction, upon his request, and to the county superintendent of schools having jurisdiction over the district on the same day warrants are issued. The listing, which may be magnetic tape, punched cards, or in other form, shall report, among other things, the warrant number, date of the warrant, amount of the warrant, the name of the payee, and the fund on which drawn. The form and content of the warrant listing shall be as prescribed by the county auditor or county superintendent and approved by the county auditor or county superintendent having jurisdiction.

Each district which issues warrants pursuant to this section shall furnish monthly to the county superintendent of schools and the county auditor of the county of jurisdiction, upon his request, a statement showing for the current fiscal year to date, for each required expenditure classification, the amount budgeted, actual expenditures, encumbrances and unencumbered balances.

In order to obtain the approval of the county superintendent of schools and county auditor for fiscally accountable status, the governing board of a community college district shall file a written application with the county superintendent of schools and county auditor having jurisdiction on forms which the county superintendent shall prescribe. Upon receipt of an application from the district, the county superintendent shall cause an audit to be made of the district's management and accounting controls, in accordance with standards prescribed by him, by an independent certified public accountant or public accountant approved by the county superintendent, who shall report his findings and recommendations to the county superintendent and to the applicant district. The audit report may include Department of Finance guidelines and other assessments of fiscal management as required by the county superintendent or the audit may be the report of the annual district audit pursuant to Section 84040 if that is acceptable to the county superintendent of schools. The cost of the audit required in support of a district's application for fiscal accountability shall be borne by the applicant district.

The county superintendent and county auditor shall review the district's application and report of financial management and control and may approve the application if they find the management and accounting controls of the district to be adequate. If the county superintendent and county auditor determine that such management and accounting controls are inadequate, they shall disapprove the application.

A district that applies for fiscal accountability status shall file its written application with the county superintendent of schools on or before September 1. The required audit of financial management and accounting controls shall be filed on or before January 1. When a district's application for fiscal accountability status has been approved by the county superintendent of schools and county auditor, the issuance of warrants by the district pursuant to this section shall be effective at the beginning of a fiscal year, provided that approval had been made prior to the preceding first day in March. If disapproved, the county superintendent of schools shall state the specific steps which must be taken by the applicant district to receive approval and these changes shall be certified as completed by an independent certified public accountant or public accountant before the county superintendent shall approve the application. If at any time the county superintendent of schools or the county auditor determines that the financial management or accounting controls of the district have become inadequate, either such officer may revoke approval for fiscal accountability status effective immediately.

SEC. 546. Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 89550) is added to Chapter 5 of Part 55 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, to read:

Article 2.5. Separation of Employees From Service for Lack of Funds or Lack of Work

89550. (a) It shall be the policy of the California State University and Colleges to provide stability of employment by foreseeing and avoiding unnecessary reductions in staff. However, when this is not possible due to lack of funds or lack of work, the staff shall be reduced in accordance with this article. The classes or teaching service areas to be reduced and the employees therein to be laid off shall be determined, in accordance with the provisions of this article, by the president of the campus after consultation with such employees and others in the same classes, specializations within classes, or teaching service areas and other persons as appropriate, including faculty and administrators. The chancellor shall make all determinations for the office of the chancellor.

(b) The office of Chancellor of the California State University and Colleges shall make a survey of all campuses in order to ascertain the availability of suitable positions where staff to be laid off may seek relocation. To the extent staff resources permit, similar efforts shall be made with respect to colleges and universities outside the California State University and Colleges.

89551. (a) Layoff of administrative and nonacademic employees shall be by class within a particular campus, or within the office of the chancellor.

(b) Layoff of academic employees shall be by teaching service area within a campus.

If the layoff is in a teaching service area, part-time permanent employees shall be credited with service as permanent employees of the campus in the proportion that the actual time served as permanent employees bears to full-time employment.

(c) In case two or more employees in the class or teaching service area are tied for a place in the order of layoff, the president or the chancellor, as appropriate to the place of employment, shall determine which of such employees shall be laid off.

89553. After a determination has been made of the class or teaching service area to be reduced and the number of employees in such class or area to be laid off, the president or chancellor shall notify each employee to be laid off, that the employee is being laid off for lack of funds or lack of work. 89555. (a) In lieu of being laid off, an administrative or nonacademic employee may elect demotion or transfer to any class in which he has served as a permanent employee or to any vacancy for which he is qualified.

(b) In lieu of being laid off, an academic teaching employee actively employed at a campus during the academic year 1975–76 or prior thereto at such campus may elect transfer to that other teaching service area in which he or she has served longest during the preceding four years at the particular campus if both of the following conditions exist:

(1) If the employee, during the four-year period immediately preceding the date of the mailing of the layoff notice, taught at least 24 semester units or 36 quarter units in any one teaching service area other than the teaching service area in which he or she is teaching on the date of the mailing of the layoff notice provided that only such units as have accrued during the academic year 1975–76 and prior thereto may be utilized for purposes of transfer under this section.

(2) If the employee has not previously during that year elected transfer in lieu of layoff.

(c) In the event an employee elects demotion or transfer, his place for layoff purposes in the class or teaching service area to which he elects demotion or transfer shall be determined in accordance with this article.

(d) An employee electing demotion or transfer shall notify the president or chancellor in writing of his election within five calendar days after receipt of the notice of layoff.

89556. (a) The president at each campus, and the chancellor at the office of the chancellor, shall establish and maintain reemployment lists of all permanent employees laid off for lack of funds or lack of work during the preceding five-year period. Laid-off permanent employees shall be listed by class or teaching service area corresponding to the class or teaching service area from which they were laid off.

(b) In the event there is a vacancy at a campus or at the office of the chancellor, for which there exists no reemployment list, the position may be offered to the persons in the appropriate class or teaching service area who are on mandatory reemployment lists at another campus or the office of the chancellor.

(c) A person shall deliver or cause to be delivered his acceptance of an offer with the following times:

(1) When the person resides in the city from which the offer is mailed, five days after the date the offer is received.

(2) When the person resides outside such city, seven days after the offer is received.

(3) When the offer is made by telephone or telegram, 48 hours after the offer is received. While a prudent effort shall be made to contact the person eligible for reemployment, it is his responsibility to keep the office maintaining the reemployment list informed of where he may be reached readily.

(d) Any person on a reemployment list who cannot be reached within five days, or who fails to reply to an offer of reemployment as required by this section, shall be deemed to have declined the offer. Such failure by any person may be excused by the president or chancellor at his discretion. If the failure is excused, the person may be reemployed or his name may be continued on the reemployment list if the vacancy has already been filled.

(e) Any person on a reemployment list may request inactive status for a prescribed period of not to exceed one year.

(f) Any person on the reemployment list who declines two offers of reemployment shall be removed from the list. Any person removed from a reemployment list may be restored to his relative position on the list at the discretion of the president or chancellor upon a showing of good cause.

(g) Any employee reemployed pursuant to this article shall be reemployed in a class at a level at least equal to that from which he was laid off.

SEC. 1136. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The new reorganized Education Code, enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, will become operative on April 30, 1977, which is long before the effective date of ordinary statutes enacted in 1977 in the 1977–78 Regular Session of the Legislature. Other 1976 education legislation was directed to the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 2 of the Statutes of 1959. This bill would adapt such other education legislation enacted in 1976 to the reorganized Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976. In order that statutory continuity may be maintained and that administrative confusion may be avoided, such adaptation must become operative on the operative date of the new Education Code. It is, therefore, necessary that this act take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

An act to amend Sections 4210, 8512, 23401, 45207, 78031, 84526, 85132, 85236, and 94110 of, to amend and renumber Section 22141.5 of, and to repeal Section 22141 of, the Education Code, as proposed by the 1977 Education Code Supplemental Act, and to add Section 1135.5 to the 1977 Education Code Supplemental Act, and to amend Section 14022 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976, relating to education, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 29, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State April 29, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4210 of the Education Code, as proposed by the 1977 Education Code Supplemental Act, is amended to read:

4210. (a) An elementary school which has been included in a unified district because of a reorganization of districts under provisions of this chapter or, under the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 35510) of Chapter 3 of Part 21 of Division 3 of Title 2 or Article 4 (commencing with Section 74160) of Chapter 2 of Part 46 of Division 7 of Title 3 relating to formation of new school districts by petition shall be maintained as an elementary school by the unified district unless discontinued as provided in this section. The governing board of the unified district may adopt a resolution or order to discontinue the elementary school at any regular or special meeting of the board and the order or resolution shall be in effect after 30 days unless within this period of time a petition is filed with the governing board requesting the continuance of the school signed by the parents or guardians of at least 10 or one-third, whichever number is the greater, of children of elementary school age, who are eligible to attend such school at the time of the petition. The signature of one parent is sufficient to represent all of the children of such parent. The parents or guardians eligible to sign such petitions shall be residents within the boundaries of the component elementary school district which maintained the school prior to the establishment of the unified school district, and shall be qualified electors within such district at the time the petition is filed, and shall have children of elementary school age who attend or are eligible to attend such school. An elementary school which is continued in operation by the filing of a petition pursuant to this section, shall remain in continuance for a period of three school years, unless the petition provides for a shorter period of continuance. If the governing board intends to discontinue the elementary school at the expiration of such period, it shall, commencing at least 90 days prior to the expiration of such period, publish in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, once each week for at least three weeks, a notice of intended discontinuance, and may thereafter adopt a resolution or order as heretofore provided. If a school is discontinued as herein provided, the governing board of the unified school district may maintain the building for community and civic center and other lawful purposes.

(b) Subdivision (a) of this section does not apply to any unified school district which has an average daily attendance of 15,000 or more or to a school which is five miles or less from another elementary school.

SEC. 2. Section 8512 of the Education Code, as proposed by the 1977 Education Code Supplemental Act, is amended to read:

8512. Effective July 1, 1977, (a) for noncredit classes or programs offered in community colleges pursuant to this chapter, average daily attendance for state apportionment purposes shall only be calculated for such classes or programs which by mutual agreement are the responsibility of the community colleges pursuant to Sections 8530 and 8531; and (b) for noncredit classes or programs offered in the community colleges and for classes for adults offered in high schools or adult schools pursuant to this chapter, average daily attendance for state apportionment purposes shall only be calculated for such classes or programs which by mutual agreement are the responsibility of the community colleges or of the high school or unified school districts pursuant to Sections 8532 and 8533.

Fund to Section B of the State School Fund such amount, in addition to all other amounts appropriated and transferred to Section B of the State School Fund, as shall provide in Section B of the State School Fund for apportionment during the fiscal year a total amount per pupil in average daily attendance during the preceding fiscal year credited to all community college districts in the state as certified by the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges of fourteen dollars and fifty-six cents ($14.56) in the 1974–75 fiscal year and an additional two dollars and eighty cents ($2.80) in each fiscal year thereafter to a maximum of twenty-five dollars and seventy-six cents ($25.76).

The amounts transferred pursuant to this section shall be apportioned and disbursed by the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges as an increase per unit of average daily attendance in the foundation programs prescribed in Section 84726.

SEC. 4. Section 22141 of the Education Code, as proposed by the 1977 Education Code Supplemental Act, is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 22141.5 of the Education Code, as proposed by the 1977 Education Code Supplemental Act, is amended and renumbered to read:

22141. "Projected salary" means a 2-percent increase compounded annually applied to the salary used in computing the disability or family allowance. When computing a family allowance under paragraphs (3) and (4) of subdivision (e) of Section 23804, and Section 23911, projected salary shall be computed from July 1st of the year of death or disability to the June 30th prior to age 60. If death occurred when the member was receiving a disability allowance, projected salary shall be computed from the first day of July of the year in which the disability allowance was effective to the June 30th prior to age 60. When computing a family allowance under paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (e) of Section 23804, when death occurs while the member was on disability, projected salary shall be computed from July 1st of the year of disability to the June 30th prior to death.

District taxes may be levied and collected annually pursuant to this section by the respective districts at the same time and in the same manner as other district taxes are levied and collected. The tax shall be in addition to any other district tax now or hereafter authorized by law, and shall not be considered in fixing maximum rates of taxes for school district or community college district purposes.

Such tax is for the purpose of providing funds to make contributions to the Teachers' Retirement Fund required of school districts and community college districts under Section 23400 and to local retirement systems, and the rate shall be such as necessary to raise the amount of difference between the estimated amount of contribution needed and the estimated amount of foundation support provided by Sections 41716, 84725, and 84726.

The tax rate provided by this section shall not exceed ten cents ($0.10) per each one hundred dollars ($100) of the assessed value of property in an elementary school district or five cents ($0.05) per each one hundred dollars ($100) of the assessed value of property within a high school district or community college district.

In a unified school district the tax rate provided by this section shall not exceed fifteen cents ($0.15) per each one hundred dollars ($100) of the assessed value of property within the district.

If at the end of any school year there remains an unencumbered balance derived from the revenue of the increase in tax rate provided by this section, such balance shall be used exclusively in the following school year for the expenditures of the school district or community college district during that year required by Section 23400.

SEC. 7. Section 45207 of the Education Code, as proposed by the 1977 Education Code Supplemental Act, is amended to read:

The governing board of each school district shall adopt rules and regulations requiring and prescribing the manner of proof of personal necessity for the purpose of this section. No earned leave in excess of six days may be used in any school year for the purposes enumerated in this section.

Immediate family has the same meaning as provided in Section 45194.

This section shall apply to districts that have adopted the merit system in the same manner and effect as if it were a part of Article 6 (commencing with Section 45240) of this chapter.

This section shall also apply to school districts that may be exempted from the provisions of Section 45191. Authorized necessity leave shall be deducted from sick leave earned under the provisions of the exemption of Section 45191.

SEC. 8. Section 78031 of the Education Code, as proposed by the 1977 Education Code Supplemental Act, is amended to read:

78031. (a) An interdistrict attendance agreement may be entered into between two districts specifying the terms and conditions under which district residents of one district may attend a community college in the other district. The agreement may be for any period agreed upon but for not less than one year.

(b) Tuition charges shall be not less than the apportionments provided by the state to the district of attendance because of attendance of students under the agreement nor shall such charges be more than would be computed as specified in subdivision (a) of Section 2100.

(c) A charge for use of buildings and equipment in the amount of three hundred dollars ($300) for 1976–77, two hundred dollars ($200) for 1977–78, and one hundred dollars ($100) for 1978–79 may be added to the amount computed pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 2100. No charge may be made after 1978–79.

(d) If either district is within the first three years of its existence and has not acquired facilities from a preceding district, the charge for use of buildings and equipment specified in subdivision (c) shall not be charged to either district.

Interdistrict agreements calling for the payment of charges for the use of buildings and equipment which were in effect prior to July 1, 1976, may remain in effect, and may be renegotiated.

84526. The attendance of all students not residents of a community college district enrolled in courses during the academic year shall be kept separately from all other attendance and the units of average daily attendance for such students shall be computed on an individual basis in the applicable manner prescribed in Section 84520 or 84524.5.

The units of average daily attendance of students who are not residents of the community college district enrolled in summer schools and classes for adults shall be kept separately from all other attendance and be computed on an individual basis in the applicable manner prescribed in Section 84520 or 84524.5.

Both Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976 and the 1977 Education Code Supplemental Act become operative on April 30, 1977. In order that this act, which makes further technical revisions to the newly reorganized Education Code, may also become operative on that date, and so facilitate the orderly administration of the educational system of this state, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

An act to amend Sections 682a and 683 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to levy and execution.

[Approved by Governor May 9, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State May 9, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 682a of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

682a. If the debt, credit, or other personal property sought to be levied upon is (a) any bank account, or interest therein, not standing in the name of the judgment debtor or judgment debtors or standing in the name of such judgment debtor or judgment debtors and one or more other persons who are not judgment debtors, or (b) any savings and loan association share, investment certificate, or account, or interest therein, not standing in the name of the judgment debtor or judgment debtors or standing in the name of such judgment debtor or judgment debtors and in one or more other persons who are not judgment debtors, or (c) property in a safe-deposit vault or box maintained by a bank, trust company, savings and loan association, or other corporation authorized and empowered to conduct a safe-deposit business and rented by it to a person or persons other than such judgment debtor or judgment debtors or rented by it to one or more such judgment debtors and to one or more other persons who are not judgment debtors, the following provisions of this section also shall be complied with; otherwise the levy shall not be effectual for any purpose and shall be disregarded. The plaintiff shall provide and concurrently with the levy the sheriff, constable, or marshall shall deliver to such bank, trust company, savings and loan association, or safe-deposit corporation a bond in an amount not less than twice the amount of the judgment or twice the amount sought to be reached by such levy, if less than the amount of the judgment, indemnifying the person or persons, other than the judgment debtor or judgment debtors whose interest is sought to be levied upon, rightfully entitled to such debt, credit, or other personal property (which person or persons need not be named specifically in said bond but may be referred to generally in the same manner as in this sentence), against actual damage by reason of the taking of such debt, credit, or other personal property and assuring to such person or persons the return thereof to him or them upon proof of his or their right thereto. Upon delivery to it of the aforesaid bond such bank, trust company, savings and loan association, or safe-deposit corporation shall immediately notify the person in whose name such account stands, other than the judgment debtor, or the person to whom such safe-deposit box is rented, other than the judgment debtor, by registered mail addressed to the last address of such person known to such bank, trust company, savings and loan association or safe-deposit corporation of the fact of the service of said writ and of the delivery to it of said bond. From the time of said levy and the delivery to it of said bond such bank, trust company, savings and loan association or safe-deposit corporation shall not honor a check or other order for the payment of money drawn against the account or other credit so levied upon, such savings and loan association shall not permit withdrawals in respect of the share, investment certificate, or account so levied upon, and such bank, trust company, savings and loan association or safe-deposit corporation shall not permit the removal of any of the contents of the safe-deposit vault or box levied upon for a period of fifteen (15) days from the mailing of said notice or until the levy is sooner released. After fifteen (15) days from the making of said levy and the delivery of said bond, if no proceedings excepting to the sufficiency of the sureties have been commenced, or if such proceedings have been commenced, when the sureties have justified, said bank, trust company, savings and loan association or safe-deposit corporation shall comply with the levy, unless it has been sooner released, and shall not be liable to any person by reason of such compliance or by reason of the nonpayment of any check or other order for the payment of money drawn against the account or other credit so levied upon and presented while the levy is in force or by reason, while the levy is in force, of refusal to pay any withdrawal in respect of the share, investment certificate or account so levied upon, or by reason of the removal, pursuant to the levy, of any of the contents of such safe-deposit vault or box or by reason of the refusal of such bank, trust company, savings and loan association, or safe-deposit corporation to permit access to such safe-deposit vault or box by the renter thereof. The bond described above shall be executed by the judgment creditor or judgment creditors with two or more sufficient sureties. Exceptions to the sufficiency of the sureties may be taken by any person claiming to be the rightful owner of the debt, credit, or other personal property levied upon, in the same manner as upon an undertaking on attachment and when excepted to the sureties must justify in the same manner as upon an undertaking on attachment. The bank, trust company, savings and loan association, or safe-deposit corporation to whom any such bond is delivered shall deliver it as directed by the obligees thereof. Before giving access to any safe-deposit vault or box the bank, trust company, savings and loan association, or safe-deposit corporation may demand payment to it of all costs and expenses of opening the safe-deposit vault or box and all costs and expenses of repairing any damage to the safe-deposit vault or box caused by the opening thereof.

SEC. 2. Section 683 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

683. The execution may be made returnable, at any time not less than 10 nor more than 60 days after its receipt by the officer to whom it is directed, or, if the execution is upon the earnings of the judgment debtor, upon the termination of the levy of execution as provided in Section 682.3, to the court in which the judgment is entered. When the execution is returned, the clerk must attach it to the judgment roll, or the judge must make the proper entry in the docket.

If an execution is returned unsatisfied, another may be afterward issued within the time specified in this code.

If property either personal or real be levied upon under such writ of execution but the sale thereunder be postponed beyond or not held within the return date after it is received by the officer to whom it was delivered and which has been returned to the clerk of the court in which the judgment is entered, upon request of the person in whose favor the writ runs the court may direct the clerk to redeliver such execution to the officer to whom it was directed in order to permit the officer to make an alias return of the proceedings of the sale or levy thereon as in the case of an original return of execution.

If proceeds resulting from a levy of execution are received by the levying officer after the writ has been returned to the court in which the judgment is entered, upon request of the person in whose favor the writ runs, the clerk shall redeliver such execution to the officer to whom it was directed in order to permit the officer to make an alias return of the levy as in the case of an original return of execution.

Whenever a writ of execution issued against real property containing a dwelling house has been returned, proof that notice required by Section 682b has been served shall be indicated on the writ, or separately and attached to the writ.

An act to amend Section 4003 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to federal-state extended benefits, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Become law without Governor's signature May 10, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State May 10, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4003 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

4003. (a) The provisions and definitions of terms in the "Federal-State Extended Unemployment Compensation Act of 1970" apply to this part. "Federal-state extended benefits" means benefits payable under this part.

(b) Effective with respect to compensation for weeks of unemployment beginning after March 30, 1977, the determination of whether there has been a state "on" or "off" indicator beginning or ending any extended benefit period shall be made as provided in subsection (e) of Section 203 of the Federal-State Extended Unemployment Compensation Act of 1970, as amended by the Unemployment Compensation Amendments of 1976 (P.L. 94-566), as if (i) paragraph (1) of such subsection (e) did not contain subparagraph (A) thereof, and (ii) the figure "4 per centum" in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of such subsection (e) were "5 per centum."

SEC. 2. The amendment of Section 4003 of the Unemployment Insurance Code made by this act shall apply to weeks beginning after March 30, 1977. The provisions of such Section 4003 as in effect prior to the amendments made by this act shall continue to apply to weeks beginning prior to March 31, 1977.

SEC. 3. No appropriation is made by this act, nor is any obligation created thereby under Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, for the reimbursement of any local agency or school district for any costs that may be incurred by it in carrying on any program or performing any service required to be carried on or performed by it by this act.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgeny statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution, and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Unless California law is amended in the manner proposed by this act to suspend the 120 percent provision and provide a 5 percent rate of insured unemployment as an "on" trigger, the payment of federal-state extended benefits may stop in California at the end of March 1977, and may not be payable thereafter for one or more weeks. To prevent the denial or interruption of payments of these federal-state extended benefits to thousands of unemployed California workers, it is necessary that this act take immediate effect.

An act to amend Section 2 of Chapter 923 of the Statutes of 1975, and to amend Section 22411 of, and to add Section 22411.2 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to appliance labeling, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 10, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State May 10, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22411 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

22411. No manufacturer shall sell any appliance in this state unless such appliance has been permanently marked with a serial number unique to that appliance. A marking that is required to be permanent shall be molded, die-stamped, or paint-stenciled or stamped or etched on metal that is permanently secured or indelibly stamped on pressure sensitive labels secured by adhesive that is adequate and suitable for permanent application.

Every manufacturer of an appliance to be sold within this state shall provide on the first page of the warranty or instruction manual, or on a separate card, a description of the appliance providing a space thereon for recording the model number and serial number, the description of the location of such numbers on the appliance, and instructions to the final purchaser of the appliance to record and retain such numbers.

SEC. 2. Section 22411.2 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

22411.2. The provisions of Section 22411 shall not apply to factory or dealer installed radios installed in a new motor vehicle or to radios installed in a motor vehicle by a dealer to replace such factory or dealer installed radios.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of Chapter 923 of the Statutes of 1975 is amended to read:

Sec. 2. The provisions of this chapter shall become operative on January 1, 1978.

SEC. 4. The provisions of this act shall become operative on April 1, 1977.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Chapter 923 of the Statutes of 1975 creates an ambiguity in the law as to the manner in which manufacturers of appliances may comply with its provisions by April 1, 1977. In order to resolve this ambiguity by the operative date of that chapter and give manufacturers sufficient time to comply with the provisions as clarified by this act, it is necessary that this act go into effect immediately.

CHAPTER 45

An act to amend Section 65356 of the Government Code, relating to general plans.

[Approved by Governor May 14, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State May 14, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 65356 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65356. In adopting a general plan or any part or element thereof, or any amendment to such plan or any part or element thereof, which has been approved by the planning commission, the legislative body may approve, modify or disapprove the recommendation of the planning commission; provided that any modification of the proposed plan, part, element or amendment thereof by the legislative body not previously considered by the planning commission during its hearing, shall first be referred to the planning commission for report and recommendation, but the planning commission shall not be required to hold a public hearing thereon. If, however, the matter is referred to the planning commission, failure of the planning commission to report within 40 days after the reference, or such longer period as may be designated by the legislative body, shall be deemed to be approval thereof.

CHAPTER 46

An act to amend Sections 116.4, 116.6, 117.3 and 117.4 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to small claims court, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 14, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State May 14, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 116.4 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

116.4. An action shall be commenced by the plaintiff's filing, in person or by mail with the judge or clerk of the small claims division, a claim under oath setting forth: the name and address of the defendant; the amount and the basis of the claim; and that the plaintiff has demanded payment and, in applicable cases, the possession of the property; that the defendant has failed or refused to pay, and where applicable, has refused to surrender the premises; and that the plaintiff understands that the judgment on his claim will be conclusive without right of appeal by him. The judge or clerk shall thereupon (a) sign an order directing a defendant who resides within the county in which the action is filed, to appear on a hearing date not more than 40 days nor less than 10 days from the date of the order or, if the defendant resides outside of the county in which the action is filed, to appear on a hearing date not more than 70 nor less than 30 days from the date of the order, (b) cause a copy of the claim and order to be mailed to the defendant by any form of mail providing for a return receipt, or cause a copy to be delivered to defendant in person, and (c) inform the plaintiff of a specified hearing date and direct him to appear on that date with witnesses and documents to prove him claim. Service by such methods shall be deemed complete on the date of personal service, or on the date that the defendant signs the mail return receipt, or upon the presentation of other competent evidence to the court, whichever is applicable. Service of a copy of the claim and order may also be made and shall be complete, as provided in subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 415.20 of this code, without requirement for attempted service by either of the methods above provided, and shall be complete as provided in Section 415.20. Service to be valid must be made within this state.

If the service of the claim and order upon the defendant is not completed at least five days prior to the hearing date where the defendant resides within the county in which the action is brought, or at least 15 days prior to the hearing date where the defendant resides outside the county in which the action is brought, unless the defendant personally appears and does not request a continuance, the court shall continue the date for the hearing for at least 10 days, and shall cause notice thereof by first-class mail to be served on any defendant who has been served but did not personally appear.

SEC. 2. Section 116.6 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

116.6 Venue in such actions shall be the same as for civil actions filed in justice or municipal court. When it appears that the court in which such action is commenced is not, by reason of venue, the proper court, it may in its discretion, dismiss the action without prejudice or transfer it to the proper court on its own motion or on the request of the defendant. No additional fee shall be charged for such transfer.

SEC. 3. Section 117.3 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

117.3. When there are two or more defendants and one or more of them resides outside the county in which the action is brought, the date for the appearance of all the defendants shall not be more than 70 nor less than 30 days from the date of the order to appear.

SEC. 4. Section 117.4 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

117.4. No attorney at law or other person than the plaintiff and the defendant shall take any part in the filing or the prosecution or defense of such litigation in small claims court, unless the attorney is appearing to prosecute or defend an action by or against himself, or by or against a partnership in which he is a general partner and in which all the partners are attorneys, or by or against a professional corporation of which he is an officer or director and of which all other officers and directors are attorneys at law. Nothing herein shall prevent an attorney from rendering advice to a party to such litigation, either before or after the commencement of such an action; nor shall anything herein prevent an attorney from testifying to facts of which he has personal knowledge and about which he is competent to testify. However, if the court determines that a party does not speak or understand the English language sufficiently to comprehend the proceedings or give testimony, or cannot properly present his own case and needs assistance in so doing, the court may permit another person (other than an attorney at law) to assist such party.

The presence of the plaintiff or defendant, whether individual or corporate, at the hearing shall not be required to permit the proof of the items of an account but such proof shall be in accordance with the provisions of Section 1270 and 1271 of the Evidence Code.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Effective January 1, 1977, the law relating to small claims courts no longer permits a bookkeeper or accountant of the plaintiff or defendant to appear at a small claims court hearing in the absence of the plaintiff or defendant to prove a small claims court claim on an account. This will be a hardship on many plaintiffs and defendants who may have no actual personal knowledge of the financial aspects of their businesses. It is therefore necessary that this act take effect immediately.

An act to add and repeal Section 76140.5 of the Education Code, relating to education, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 14, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State May 14, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 76140.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

76140.5. (a) Any student enrolled in a community college, who on the effective date of Chapter 990 of the Statutes of 1976, was receiving a waiver of all or part of the nonresident tuition fee as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 76140 of the Education Code, may continue to receive such waiver until he or she completes the degree or certificate program or other course of study in which he or she was enrolled on that date, or until September 1, 1980, whichever occurs first.

A governing board of a community college district may decide retroactively to not charge additional tuition fees of foreign students who were receiving nonresident tuition fee waivers on January 1, 1977, from that date to the effective date of this section.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (b) of Section 76140, a community college shall not count within the 10 percent limitation those students exempted under subdivision (a) of this section.

(c) This section shall remain in effect until December 31, 1980, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In enacting Assembly Bill 4289 as Chapter 990 of the Statutes of 1976, the Legislature did not intend that community college students who were receiving waivers of all or part of their nonresident tuition fees on the effective date of that act, should be required to pay additional fees during the period of their attendance at community colleges. Such additional payments would result in undue hardship to many students.

An act relating to school employees, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 14, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State May 14, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the May 15th date for notices of termination required by Sections 44949 and 44955 of the Education Code may be extended to June 15th in the case of certificated employees of a school district which had an average daily attendance of 400,000 or more for the preceding school year, as shown by the annual report of the county superintendent of schools.

This section shall remain in effect only until July 1, 1977, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

This act is necessary in order to enable the Los Angeles Unified School District to determine with greater certainty whether it will be necessary to terminate certain certificated employees to help provide a balanced budget prior to the conclusion of the case of Mary Ellen Crawford, et al, v. The Board of Education of the City of Los Angeles.

An act to amend Section 1952 of, and to add Section 1952.3 to, the Civil Code, relating to leases.

[Approved by Governor May 14, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State May 14, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1952 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1952. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (c), nothing in Sections 1951 to 1951.8, inclusive, affects the provisions of Chapter 4

(commencing with Section 1159) of Title 3 of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to actions for unlawful detainer, forcible entry, and forcible detainer.

(b) Unless the lessor amends the complaint as provided in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 1952.3 to state a claim for damages not recoverable in the unlawful detainer proceeding, the bringing of an action under the provisions of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 1159) of Title 3 of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure does not affect the lessor's right to bring a separate action for relief under Sections 1951.2, 1951.5, and 1951.8, but no damages shall be recovered in the subsequent action for any detriment for which a claim for damages was made and determined on the merits in the previous action.

(c) After the lessor obtains possession of the property under a judgment pursuant to Section 1174 of the Code of Civil Procedure, he is no longer entitled to the remedy provided under Section 1951.4 unless the lessee obtains relief under Section 1179 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 2. Section 1952.3 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

1952.3. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c), if the lessor brings an unlawful detainer proceeding and possession of the property is no longer in issue because possession of the property has been delivered to the lessor before trial or, if there is no trial, before judgment is entered, the case becomes an ordinary civil action in which:

(1) The lessor may obtain any relief to which he is entitled, including, where applicable, relief authorized by Section 1951.2; but, if the lessor seeks to recover damages described in paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 1951.2 or any other damages not recoverable in the unlawful detainer proceeding, the lessor shall first amend the complaint pursuant to Section 472 or 473 of the Code of Civil Procedure so that possession of the property is no longer in issue and to state a claim for such damages and shall serve a copy of the amended complaint on the defendant in the same manner as a copy of a summons and original complaint is served.

(2) The defendant may, by appropriate pleadings or amendments to pleadings, seek any affirmative relief, and assert all defenses, to which he is entitled, whether or not the lessor has amended the complaint; but subdivision (a) of Section 426.30 of the Code of Civil Procedure does not apply unless, after delivering possession of the property to the lessor, the defendant (i) files a cross-complaint or (ii) files an answer or an amended answer in response to an amended complaint filed pursuant to paragraph (1).

(b) The defendant's time to respond to a complaint for unlawful detainer is not affected by the delivery of possession of the property to the lessor; but, if the complaint is amended as provided in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), the defendant has the same time to respond to the amended complaint as in an ordinary civil action.

(c) The case shall proceed as an unlawful detainer proceeding if the defendant's default (1) has been entered on the unlawful detainer complaint and (2) has not been opened by an amendment of the complaint or otherwise set aside.

(d) Nothing in this section affects the pleadings that may be filed, relief that may be sought, or defenses that may be asserted in an unlawful detainer proceeding that has not become an ordinary civil action as provided in subdivision (a).

[Approved by Governor May 16, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State May 16, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25100 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

25100. The following securities are exempted from the provisions of Sections 25110, 25120, and 25130:

(a) Any security (including a revenue obligation) issued or guaranteed by the United States, any state, any city, county, city and county, public district, public authority, public corporation, public entity, or political subdivision of a state or any agency or corporate or other instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing; or any certificate of deposit for any of the foregoing.

(b) Any security issued or guaranteed by the Dominion of Canada, any Canadian province, any political subdivision or municipality of any such province, or by any other foreign government with which the United States currently maintains diplomatic relations, if the security is recognized as a valid obligation by the issuer or guarantor; or any certificate of deposit for any of the foregoing.

(c) Any security issued or guaranteed by and representing an interest in or a direct obligation of a national bank or a bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of this state, and any security issued by a bank to one or more other banks and representing an interest in an asset of the issuing bank.

(d) Any security issued or guaranteed by a federal savings and loan association or federal land bank or joint land bank or national farm loan association or by any savings and loan association which is subject to the supervision and regulation of the Savings and Loan Commissioner of this state.

(e) Any security (other than an interest in all or portions of a parcel or parcels of real property which are subdivided land or a subdivision or in a real estate development), the issuance of which is subject to authorization by the Insurance Commissioner, the Public Utilities Commission, or the Real Estate Commissioner of this state.

(f) Any security consisting of any interest in all or portions of a parcel or parcels of real property which are subdivided lands or a subdivision or in a real estate development; provided that the exemption in this subdivision shall not be applicable to any investment contract sold or offered for sale with, or as part of, any such interest, or to any corporation engaged in the business of selling, distributing or supplying water for irrigation purposes or domestic use which is not a public utility.

(g) Any shares, investment certificates or borrower's membership certificates (as defined in the Savings and Loan Association Law) issued by a savings and loan association holding a license then in force from the Savings and Loan Commissioner of this state.

(h) Any security issued or guaranteed by any federal credit union, or by any credit union organized and supervised under the laws of this state.

(i) Any security issued or guaranteed by any railroad, other common carrier, public utility, or public utility holding company which is (1) subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission or (2) a holding company registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 or a subsidiary of such a company within the meaning of that act or (3) regulated in respect of the issuance or guarantee of the security by a governmental authority of the United States, of any state, of Canada or of any Canadian province; and the security is subject to registration with or authorization of issuance by such authority.

(j) Any security (except evidences of indebtedness, whether interest bearing or not) of an issuer (1) organized exclusively for educational, benevolent, fraternal, religious, charitable, social, or reformatory purposes and not for pecuniary profit, if no part of the net earnings of the issuer inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, or (2) organized as a chamber of commerce or trade or professional association. The fact that amounts received from memberships or dues or both will or may be used to construct or otherwise acquire facilities for use by members of the nonprofit organization does not disqualify the organization for this exemption. This exemption does not apply to the securities of any nonprofit organization if any promoter thereof expects or intends to make a profit directly or indirectly from any business or activity associated with the organization or operation of such nonprofit organization or from remuneration received from such nonprofit organization.

(k) Any agreement, commonly known as a "life income contract," of an issuer (1) organized exclusively for educational, benevolent, fraternal, religious, charitable, social, or reformatory purposes and not for pecuniary profit and (2) which the commissioner designates by rule or order, with a donor in consideration of a donation of property to such issuer and providing for the payment to the donor or persons designated by him of income or specified periodic payments from the donated property or other property for the life of the donor or such other persons.

(l) Any note, draft, bill of exchange, or banker's acceptance which is freely transferable and of prime quality, arises out of a current transaction or the proceeds of which have been or are to be used for current transactions, and which evidences an obligation to pay cash within nine months of the date of issuance, exclusive of days of grace, or any renewal of such paper which is likewise limited, or any guarantee of such paper or of any such renewal, provided that such paper is not offered to the public in amounts of less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) in the aggregate to any one purchaser. In addition, the commissioner may, by rule or order, exempt any issuer of any notes, drafts, bills of exchange or banker's acceptances from qualification of such securities when he finds that such qualification is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

(m) Any security issued by any corporation organized and existing under the provisions of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 54001) of Divison 20 of the Agricultural Code.

(n) Any beneficial interest in a retirement system as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 28002.

(o) Any security listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance on a national securities exchange certified by rule or order of the commissioner and any warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to any such security.

Such certification of an exchange shall be made by the commissioner upon the written request of the exchange if he finds that the exchange, in acting on applications for listing of common stock substantially applies each of the minimum standards set forth in subparagraph (1) below, and in considering suspension or removal from listing, substantially applies each of the criteria set forth in subparagraph (2) below.

(1) Listing standards:

(i) Net tangible assets of at least two million dollars ($2,000,000).

(ii) Net income of at least two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) after all charges including federal income taxes in the fiscal year immediately preceding the filing of a listing application and net income before such taxes of at least five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000).

(iii) Minimum public distribution of 250,000 shares excluding the holdings of officers, directors, controlling shareholders and other concentrated or family holdings among not less than 900 holders including not less than 600 holders of lots of 100 shares or more, with a corresponding requirement that such securities not be largely held in blocks by institutional investors.

(iv) Minimum price of four dollars ($4) per share for a reasonable period of time prior to the filing of a listing application.

(v) An aggregate market value for publicly held shares of at least one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000).

(2) Criteria for consideration of suspension or removal from listing:

(i) If a company which (A) has net tangible assets of less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) has sustained net losses in each of its two most recent fiscal years, or (B) has net tangible assets of less than three million dollars ($3,000,000) and has sustained net losses in three of its four most recent fiscal years.

(ii) If the number of shares publicly held (excluding the holdings of officers, directors, controlling shareholders and other concentrated or family holdings) is less than 150,000.

(iii) If the total number of shareholders of record is less than 450 or if the number of shareholders of lots of 100 shares or more is less than 300.

(iv) If the aggregate market value of shares publicly held is less than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000).

(v) If shares of common stock sell at a price of less than four dollars ($4) per share for a substantial period of time and the issuer shall fail to effectuate a reverse stock split of such shares within a reasonable period of time after being requested by the exchange to take such action.

The commissioner after appropriate notice and opportunity for hearing in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, may by rule or order, decertify any exchange previously certified which ceases substantially to apply the standards or criteria as set forth above. A rule or order of certification shall conclusively establish that any security listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance on any exchange named in a rule or order of certification and any warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to any such security is exempt under this subdivision until the adoption of any rule or order decertifying such exchange.

(p) A promissory note secured by a lien on real property, which is not one of a series of notes secured by interests in the same real property.

(q) Any unincorporated interindemnity or reciprocal or interinsurance contract, which qualifies under the provisions of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code, between members of a cooperative corporation, organized and operating under Part 2 (commencing with Section 12200) of Division 3 of Title 1, and whose members consist only of physicians and surgeons licensed in California, which contracts indemnify solely in respect to medical malpractice claims against such members, and which do not collect in advance of loss any moneys other than contributions by each member to a collective reserve trust fund or for necessary expenses of administration.

(1) Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code, he may in his discretion bring an action in the name of the people of the State of California in the superior court to enjoin the acts or practices or to enforce compliance with Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code. Upon a proper showing a permanent or preliminary injunction, restraining order or writ of mandate shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets. The court shall not require the commissioner to post a bond.

(2) The commissioner may, in his discretion, (A) make such public or private investigations within or outside of this state as he deems necessary to determine whether any person has violated or is about to violate any provision of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code or to aid in the enforcement of such Section 1280.7, and (B) publish information concerning the violation of such Section 1280.7.

(3) For the purpose of any investigation or proceeding under this section, the commissioner or any officer designated by him may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, agreements, or other documents or records which the commissioner deems relevant or material to the inquiry.

(4) In case of contumacy by, or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to, any person, the superior court, upon application by the commissioner, may issue to the person an order requiring him to appear before the commissioner, or the officer designated by him, there to produce documentary evidence, if so ordered, or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt.

(5) No person is excused from attending or testifying or from producing any document or record before the commissioner or in obedience to the subpoena of the commissioner or any officer designated by him, or in any proceeding instituted by the commissioner, on the ground that the testimony or evidence (documentary or otherwise), required of him may tend to incriminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture, but no individual may be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which he is compelled, after validly claiming his privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence (documentary or otherwise), except that the individual testifying is not exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury or contempt committed in testifying.

SEC. 2. Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1280.7. This chapter and the other provisions of this code shall not apply to or affect unincorporated interindemnity or reciprocal or interinsurance contracts between members of a cooperative corporation, organized and operating under Part 2 (commencing with Section 12200) of Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code whose members consist solely of physicians and surgeons licensed in California, which contracts indemnify solely in respect to medical malpractice claims against such members, and which do not collect in advance of loss any moneys other than contributions by each member to a collective reserve trust fund or for necessary expenses of administration. Such unincorporated interindemnity or reciprocal or interinsurance contracts shall comply with all of the following requirements:

(a) Each participating member shall enter into and, concurrently therewith, receive an executed copy of a trust agreement, which shall govern the collection and disposition of all funds of the interindemnity arrangement.

The trust agreement shall, as a minimum, contain provision for all the following matters:

(1) An initial trust corpus of not less than ten million dollars ($10,000,000), which corpus shall be a trust fund to secure enforcement of the interindemnity arrangement. The average initial contribution to such corpus shall be not less than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) per member participating in the interindemnity arrangement. No such interindemnity arrangement shall become operative until the requisite minimum reserve trust fund has been established by such participating members.

(2) The reserve trust fund created by such trust agreement shall be administered by a board of trustees of three or more members, all of whom shall be physicians and surgeons licensed in California, participating members in the interindemnity arrangement, and elected biennially or more frequently by at least a majority of all members participating in the interindemnity arrangement.

(3) The board of trustees shall be the custodian of all funds of the interindemnity arrangement, and all such funds shall be deposited in such bank or banks and savings and loan associations in California as the board may designate, and each such account shall require two or more signatories for withdrawal of funds. The authorized signatories shall be appointed by the board and shall be physicians and surgeons licensed in California and participating members in the interindemnity arrangement. Each signatory on such accounts shall maintain, at all times while empowered to draw on such funds, for the benefit of the interindemnity arrangement, a bond against loss suffered through embezzlement, mysterious disappearance, holdup or burglary or other loss issued by a bonding company licensed to do business in California in a penal sum of not less than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000).

(4) All funds held in trust which are in excess of current financial needs shall be invested and reinvested from time to time, under the direction of the board of trustees, in eligible securities, as defined in Section 16430 of the Government Code, or in certificates of deposits or time deposits issued by banks and savings and loan associations in California duly insured by instrumentalities of the United States government.

(5) The income earned on the corpus of the trust fund shall be the source for the payment of the claims, costs, judgments, settlements, and costs of administration contemplated by such interindemnity arrangement, and to the extent such income is insufficient for such purposes, the board of trustees shall have the power and authority to assess participating members for all amounts necessary to meet the obligations of such interindemnity arrangement in accordance with the terms thereof and any such assessment levied against a member shall be the personal obligation of such member. Any person who obtains a final judgment of recovery for medical malpractice against a member of such interindemnity arrangement shall have, in addition to any other remedy, the right to assert directly all rights to indemnification which the judgment debtor has under the interindemnity arrangement. Such final judgment shall be a lien on the reserve trust fund to secure payment of such judgment, limited to the extent of the judgment debtor's rights to indemnification.

(6) Each participating member shall be covered by such interindemnity arrangement for not less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) for each occurrence of professional negligence, with the terms and conditions of such coverage to be specified in the trust agreement, except that such interindemnity arrangement may provide participating members with less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) of such coverage if the interindemnity arrangement obtains for the benefit of such members reinsurance of excess limits coverage in an amount which when added to the coverage provided by such interindemnity arrangement would equal not less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) for each occurrence of professional negligence.

(7) Withdrawal of all, or any portion of, the corpus of the reserve trust fund shall be upon the written authorization signed by at least two-thirds of the members of the board of trustees.

(8) The board of trustees shall cause both of the following to be furnished to each member participating in such interindemnity arrangement, and to be filed with the Commissioner of Corporations:

(A) Within 90 days after the end of each fiscal year a statement of the assets and liabilities of the interindemnity arrangement as of the end of such year, a statement of the revenue and expenditures of the interindemnity arrangement, and a statement of the changes in corpus of the reserve trust for such year, in each case accompanied by a certificate signed by a firm of independent certified public accountants selected by the board of trustees indicating that such firm has conducted an audit of such statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and indicating the results of such audit.

(B) Within 45 days after the end of each of the first three quarterly periods of each fiscal year a statement of the assets and liabilities of the interindemnity arrangement as of the end of such quarterly period, a statement of the revenue and expenditures of the interindemnity arrangement and a statement of the changes in corpus of the reserve trust for such period, in each case accompanied by a certificate signed by a majority of the members of the board of trustees to the effect that such statements were prepared from the official books and records of the interindemnity arrangement.

(C) In addition to the statements required to be filed pursuant to this paragraph, the board of trustees shall annually file with the Commissioner of Corporations an authorization for disclosure to the commissioner of all financial records pertaining to the interindemnity arrangement. For the purpose of this clause, the authorization for disclosure shall also include the financial records of any association, partnership, or corporation that has management or control of the funds or the operation of the interindemnity arrangement.

(9) The trust agreement shall also provide for all the following:

(A) In the event a participating member who is in full compliance with the trust agreement dies, the initial contribution made by the decedent shall be returned to such member's estate or designated beneficiary; the indemnity coverage shall continue for the benefit of the decedent's estate in respect of occurrences during the time the decedent was a participating member; and neither the person receiving the repayment of the initial contribution nor the decedent's estate shall be responsible for any assessments levied following the death of the member.

(B) A participating member who is then in full compliance with the trust agreement and who has reached the age of 65 and who has retired completely from the practice of medicine may elect to retire from the interindemnity arrangement, in which case such member shall not be responsible for assessments levied following the date notice of retirement is given to the trust. Following such retirement, the indemnity coverage shall continue for the benefit of such member in respect of occurrences prior to the time such member retired from the interindemnity arrangement. Such retired member's initial contribution shall be repaid 10 years from the date the notice of retirement is received by the trust, or such earlier date as specified in the trust agreement.

(C) During any period in which a participating member, who is then in full compliance with the trust agreement, has, in the judgment of the board of trustees, become unable to perform any and every duty of his or her regular professional occupation, the indemnity coverage shall continue for the benefit of such member and such member shall not be responsible for assessments levied during such period.

(D) In the event a participating member fails to pay any assessment when the same is due, the board of trustees may terminate such person's membership status if such failure to pay is not cured within 30 days from the date the assessment was due. Upon such termination the former participating member shall not be entitled to the return of all or any part of his or her initial contribution, and the indemnity coverage shall thereupon terminate as to all claims then pending against such person and in respect to all occurrences prior to the date of such termination of membership. However, in the event the interindemnity arrangement is then providing legal defense services to such person, the interindemnity arrangement shall continue to provide those services for a period of 10 days following such termination.

(E) In the event a participating member fails to comply with any provision of the trust agreement (other than a failure to pay assessments when due), the board of trustees may terminate such person's membership status if such failure to comply is not cured within 60 days from the date such person is notified of the failure; provided that before such membership status may be terminated such person shall be given the right to call for a hearing before the board of trustees (to be held before the expiration of such 60-day period), at which hearing such person shall be given the opportunity to demonstrate to the board of trustees that no failure to comply has occurred or, if it has occurred, that it has been cured. Upon such termination, the former participating member shall not be entitled to the return of all or any part of his or her initial contribution, and the indemnity coverage shall thereupon terminate as to all claims then pending against such person and in respect to all occurrences prior to the date of such termination of membership. However, in the event the interindemnity arrangement is then providing legal defense services to such person, the interindemnity arrangement shall continue to provide those services for a period of 10 days following such termination.

(F) A participating member who is then in full compliance with the trust agreement may elect voluntarily to terminate his or her membership in the interindemnity arrangement. Upon such voluntary termination, such person may further elect to cease being responsible for future assessments, or to continue to pay such assessments until such time as such person's initial contribution is repaid. In the event such person elects to cease being responsible for future assessments, the indemnity coverage shall thereupon terminate and such person shall either be responsible for his or her own exposure for acts committed while a participating member in the interindemnity arrangement, or he or she may request the interindemnity arrangement to purchase or provide, at the cost of such person, coverage for such exposure. The initial contribution of such person shall be repaid on the 10th anniversary of the date such contribution was made. In the event such person elects to continue to be responsible for assessments, the indemnity coverage shall continue in respect of occurrences prior to the date of such voluntary termination, and the initial contribution of such person shall be repaid at such time as the board of trustees is satisfied that (i) there are no claims pending against such person in respect of occurrences during the time such person was a participating member, and (ii) the statute of limitations has run on all claims which might be asserted against such person in respect of occurrences during such time. In no event shall such repayment be made earlier than the 10th anniversary of the date such contribution was made.

(G) The board of trustees shall have the right to terminate the membership of a participating member where the board of trustees determines that such termination is in the best interests of the interindemnity arrangement even though such person has complied with all of the provisions of the trust agreement. Such a termination may be effected only if at least two-thirds of the members of the board of trustees indicate in writing their decision so to terminate. If the board of trustees proposes so to terminate a member, such member shall have the right to call a special meeting of all participating members for the purpose of voting on whether or not such member shall be so terminated. Such member shall not be so terminated if at least two-thirds of the participating members present indicate that such member should not be so terminated. In the event a member is so terminated, such person may elect either (i) to request the return of his or her initial contribution, in which case the same shall be repaid and the indemnity coverage shall thereupon terminate as to all claims then pending against such person and in respect to all occurrences prior to the date of such termination of membership. However, in the event the interindemnity arrangement is then providing legal defense services to such person, the interindemnity arrangement shall continue to provide those services for a period of 30 days to enable such person to assume his or her own defense; or (ii) to release all rights to the return of such initial contribution, in which case the indemnity coverage shall continue for the benefit of such member in respect of occurrences during the time such person was a participating member and such person shall have no responsibility for assessments levied following such termination.

(10) Each member participating in such interindemnity arrangement shall have the right of access to, and the inspection of, the books and records of the interindemnity arrangement, which rights shall be similar to the corporate shareholders pursuant to Section 3003 of the Corporations Code, or, commencing January 1, 1977, Section 1600 to 1605, inclusive, of the Corporations Code.

(11) There shall be a meeting of all members participating in the interindemnity arrangement, at least annually, after not less than 10 days' written notice has been given, at a location reasonably convenient to such participating members and on a date which is within a reasonable period of time following the distribution of the annual financial statements.

(12) The interindemnity arrangement, and the reserve trust fund incident thereto, shall be subject to termination at any time by the vote or written consent of not less than three-fourths of the participating members.

(b) The board of trustees shall cause to be recorded with the office of the county recorder of the county of the principal place of business of the interindemnity arrangement within 90 days following the end of each fiscal year, a written statement, executed by a majority of the board of trustees under penalty of perjury, reciting that each member participating in such interindemnity arrangement was mailed a copy of the annual financial statement and quarterly audit certificates by first-class mail, postage prepaid, required pursuant to paragraph (8) of subdivision (a).

(c) Each person solicited to become a participating member in such an interindemnity arrangement shall receive in writing, at least 48 hours prior to the execution by the prospective participating member of the trust agreement, and at least 48 hours prior to the payment by such prospective participating member of any consideration in connection with such interindemnity arrangements, the following information: (1) A copy of the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the cooperative corporation and a copy of the form of trust agreement to be executed by such prospective participating member.

(2) A disclosure statement regarding the interindemnity arrangement. The disclosure statement shall contain on the first or cover page a legend in boldface type reading substantially as follows:

"THE INTERINDEMNITY ARRANGEMENT CONTEMPLATED HEREIN PROVIDES THAT PARTICIPATING MEMBERS HAVE UNLIMITED PERSONAL LIABILITY FOR ASSESSMENTS WHICH MAY BE LEVIED TO PAY FOR THE PROFESSIONAL NEGLIGENCE LIABILITIES COVERED BY THIS ARRANGEMENT. NO ASSURANCES CAN BE GIVEN

REGARDING THE AMOUNT OR FREQUENCY OF ASSESSMENTS WHICH MAY BE SO LEVIED, OR THAT ALL PARTICIPATING MEMBERS WILL MAKE TIMELY PAYMENT OF THEIR ASSESSMENTS TO COVER THE PROFESSIONAL NEGLIGENCE LIABILITY OF A PARTICIPATING MEMBER."

(3) The disclosure statement shall further contain all of the following information:

(A) The amount, nature and terms and conditions of the professional negligence coverage available under the interindemnity arrangement.

(B) The amount of the initial contribution required of each participating member and a statement of the minimum number of members and aggregate contributions required for the interindemnity arrangement to commence.

(C) The names, addresses and professional experience of each member of the board of trustees.

(D) The requirements for admission as a participating member.

(E) A statement of the services to be provided under the interindemnity arrangement to each participating member.

(F) A statement regarding the obligation of each member to pay assessments and the consequences for failure to do so.

(G) A statement of the rights and obligations of a participating member in the event such member dies, retires, becomes disabled or terminates participation for any reason, or the interindemnity arrangement terminates for any reason.

(H) A statement regarding the claims administration services to be provided, indicating whether these services will be delegated to others pursuant to a contractual arrangement

(I) A statement of the voting rights of the members and the circumstances under which participation of such a member may be terminated and under which the interindemnity arrangement may be terminated.

(J) If any statement of estimated or projected financial information for the interindemnity arrangement is used, a statement of such estimation or projection and a summary of the data and assumptions upon which it is based

(4) A list with the names and addresses of all then current participating members of the interindemnity arrangement.

(d) No person shall receive, or be entitled to receive, any payment, bonus, salary, income, compensation or other benefit whatsoever, either from the reserve trust fund or the income therefrom or from any other funds of the interindemnity arrangement or the members thereof based on the number of participating members, or the amount of the reserve trust fund or other funds of the interindemnity arrangement.

(e) A peer review committee or committees shall be established by the trust agreement to review the qualifications of any physician and surgeon to participate or continue to participate in such interindemnity arrangement, and to review the quality of medical services rendered by any participating member, as well as the validity of medical malpractice claims made against participating members. Any physician and surgeon, prior to becoming a participating member of such interindemnity arrangement, shall be reviewed and approved by a majority of the members of such peer review committee. No peer review committee, or any of its members, shall be liable for any action taken by such committee in reviewing the qualifications of a physician and surgeon to participate or continue to participate, or the quality of medical services rendered, or the validity of a medical malpractice claim, unless it is alleged and proved that such action was taken with actual malice.

(f) The following are hereby defined as unfair methods of competition and deceptive acts or practices with respect to cooperative corporations or interindemnity arrangements provided for in this section.

(1) Making any false or misleading statement as to, or issuing, circulating, or causing to be made, issued or circulated, any estimate, illustration, circular, or statement misrepresenting the terms of any interindemnity arrangement or the benefits or advantages promised thereby, or making any misleading representation or any misrepresentation as to the financial condition of such interindemnity arrangement, or making any misrepresentation to any participating member for the purpose of inducing or tending to induce such member to lapse, forfeit, or surrender his or her rights to indemnification under such interindemnity arrangement. It shall be a false or misleading statement to state or represent that a cooperative corporation or interindemnity arrangment is or constitutes "insurance" or an "insurance company" or an "insurance policy."

It shall be a false or misleading statement to state or represent that a cooperative corporation or interindemnity arrangement is or constitutes "insurance" or an "insurance company" or an "insurance policy."

(3) Entering into any agreement to commit, or by any concerted action committing, any act of boycott, coercion, or intimidation resulting in or tending to result in an unreasonable restraint of, or monopoly in, such cooperative corporations or interindemnity arrangements.

(4) Filing with any supervisory or other public official, or making, publishing, disseminating, circulating, or delivering to any person, or placing before the public, or causing directly or indirectly, to be made, published, disseminated, circulated, or delivered to any person, or placed before the public any false statement of financial condition of such a cooperative corporation or interindemnity arrangement with intent to deceive.

(5) Making any false entry in any book, report, or statement of such a cooperative corporation or interindemnity arrangement with intent to deceive any agent or examiner lawfully appointed to examine into its condition or into any of its affairs, or any public official to whom such a cooperative corporation or interindemnity arrangement is required by law to report, or who has authority by law to examine into its condition or into any of its affairs, or, with like intent, willfully omitting to make a true entry of any material fact pertaining to such a cooperative corporation or interindemnity arrangement in any book, report, or statement of such a cooperative corporation or interindemnity arrangement.

(6) Making or disseminating, or causing to be made or disseminated, before the public in this state, in any newspaper or other publication, or any other advertising device, or by public outcry or proclamation, or in any other manner or means whatever, whether directly or by implication, any statement that such a cooperative corporation or interindemnity arrangement is a member of the California Insurance Guarantee Association, or insured against insolvency as defined in Section 119.5. This paragraph shall not be interpreted to prohibit any activity of the California Insurance Guarantee Association or of the commissioner authorized, directly or by implication, by Article 14.2 (commencing with Section 1063) of Chapter 1 of this part.

(C) Failing to adopt and implement reasonable standards for the prompt investigation and processing of claims arising under such interindemnity arrangements.

actions brought by such participating members when such participating members have made claims under such interindemnity arrangements for amounts reasonably similar to the amounts ultimately recovered.

(G) Attempting to settle a claim by a participating member for less than the amount to which a reasonable person would have believed he or she was entitled by reference to written or printed advertising material accompanying or made part of an application for membership in such an interindemnity arrangement.

(H) Attempting to settle claims on the basis of an interindemnity arrangement which was altered without notice to the participating member.

(K) Delaying the investigation or payment of claims by requiring a claimant, or his or her physician, to submit a preliminary claim report, and then requiring the subsequent submission of formal proof of loss forms, both of which submissions contain substantially the same information.

(L) Failing to settle claims promptly, where liability has become apparent, under one portion of an interindemnity arrangement in order to influence settlements under other portions of the interindemnity arrangement.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Due to an inadvertent error in Chapter 1462 of the Statutes of 1976, specific discretionary powers of the Commissioner of Corporations with respect to certain interinsurance contracts were omitted when Section 25100 was amended. To correct that error it is therefore necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 57

An act to amend Section 598 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to the trial of cases.

[Approved by Governor May 16, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State May 16, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 598 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

598. The court may, when the convenience of witnesses or the ends of justice would be promoted thereby, on motion of a party, after notice and hearing, make an order, no later than the close of pretrial conference in cases in which such pretrial conference is to be held, or, in other cases, no later than 30 days before the trial date, that the trial of any issue or any part thereof shall precede the trial of any other issue or any part thereof in the case, except for special defenses which may be tried first pursuant to Sections 597 and 597.5. Where trial of the issue of liability as to all causes of action precedes the trial of other issues or parts thereof, and the decision of the court, or the verdict of the jury upon such issue so tried is in favor of any party on whom liability is sought to be imposed, judgment in favor of such party shall thereupon be entered and no trial of other issues in the action as against such party shall be had unless such judgment shall be reversed upon appeal or otherwise set aside or vacated.

If the decision of the court, or the verdict of the jury upon the issue of liability so tried shall be against any party on whom liability is sought to be imposed, or if the decision of the court or the verdict of the jury upon any other issue or part thereof so tried does not result in a judgment being entered pursuant to this chapter, then the trial of the other issues or parts thereof shall thereafter be had at such time, and if a jury trial, before the same or another jury, as ordered by the court either upon its own motion or upon the motion of any party, and judgment shall be entered in the same manner and with the same effect as if all the issues in the case had been tried at one time.

6006. Active members who retire from practice shall be enrolled as inactive members at their request.

Inactive members are not entitled to hold office or vote or practice law. Those who are enrolled as inactive members at their request may, on application and payment of all fees required, become active members. Those who are enrolled as inactive members as in Section 6007 of this code provided may become active members as in said Section 6007 provided.

Inactive members have such other privileges, not inconsistent with this chapter, as the board of governors provides.

SEC. 3. Section 6007 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6007 (a) When a member requires involuntary treatment pursuant to the provisions of Article 6 (commencing with Section 5300) of Chapter 2 of Division 5 of, or Part 2 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or under an order pursuant to Section 3051, 3106.5 or 3152 of the Welfare and Institutions Code he has been placed in or returned to inpatient status at the California Rehabilitation Center or its branches, or he has been determined insane or mentally incompetent and is confined for treatment pursuant to the provisions of the Penal Code, or on account of his mental condition a guardian or conservator, for his estate or person or both, has been appointed, the board of governors or an officer of the State Bar shall enroll the member as an inactive member.

When a member is placed in, returned to, or released from inpatient status at the California Rehabilitation Center or its branches, or discharged from the narcotics treatment program, the Director of Corrections or his designee shall transmit to the State Bar a certified notice attesting to such fact.

(b) In cases not provided for in subdivision (a), the board shall enroll a member of the State Bar as an inactive member if, after notice and opportunity to be heard before the board or a committee, the board finds that the member, because of mental infirmity or illness, or because of addiction to intoxicants or drugs, is (1) unable or habitually fails to perform his duties or undertakings competently, or is (2) unable to practice law without danger to the interests of his clients and the public. No proceeding pursuant to this subdivision shall be instituted unless the board or a committee finds, after preliminary investigation, or during the course of a disciplinary proceeding, that probable cause exists therefor.

In the case of an enrollment pursuant to this subdivision (b) the board shall terminate the enrollment upon proof that the facts found as to the member's disability no longer exist; and, on payment of all fees required.

(c) The pendency or determination of a proceeding or investigation provided for by this section shall not abate or terminate a disciplinary investigation or proceeding except as required by the facts and law in a particular case.

(d) No membership fees shall accrue against the member during the period he is enrolled as an inactive member pursuant to this section.

SEC. 4. Section 6086.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6086.5. The board of governors may establish one or more committees, known as disciplinary boards, to act in its place and stead in the determination of disciplinary and reinstatement proceedings and proceedings pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 6007 to the extent provided by rules adopted by the board of governors. In such proceedings a disciplinary board may exercise the powers and authority vested in the board of governors by this chapter, except as limited by rules of the board of governors.

For the purposes of Sections 6007, 6043, 6049, 6049.2, 6050, 6051, 6052, 6077 (excluding the first sentence), 6078, 6080, 6081 and 6082, "board" includes "disciplinary board."

SEC. 6. Section 6141.1 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

6141.1. The payment by any member of the annual membership fee, any portion thereof, or any penalty thereon, may be waived by the board as it may provide by rule.

CHAPTER 59

An act relating to the Oakland Unified School District, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 16, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State May 16, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding Section 39227 of the Education Code, the governing board of the Oakland Unified School District may continue the use of school buildings of the district, together with all structures and facilities essential to the operation thereof, which have been determined to be unsafe pursuant to Section 39212 of the Education Code, until June 30, 1977, provided that the school district certifies that 85 percent or more of all permanent school buildings of the district which have been examined and found to be unsafe will have been repaired or reconstructed in accordance with Article 5 (commencing with Section 15501) of Chapter 2 of Division 11 of the Education Code, or Article 6 (commencing with Section 39210) of Chapter 2 of Part 23 of Division 3 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976. The State Allocation Board may, upon application of the governing board, authorize the school district to continue the use of such buildings beyond June 30, 1977, if it determines that the school district has already proceeded with a plan of total repair, reconstruction or replacement in a timely manner and contracts have been let for completion of the project and work commenced thereon. In no event shall the State Allocation Board authorize the use of such unsafe facilities for a period extending beyond the completion of the replacement facilities or beyond June 30, 1978, whichever occurs first. The provisions of this section shall apply to portable buildings as well as permanent buildings, so long as such portable buildings are needed to meet temporary housing needs of the district until the repair, reconstruction or replacement of all district school buildings is complete.

SEC. 2. Due to the unique circumstances concerning the construction of replacement school facilities for the Oakland Unified School District, and the limited nature of the exemption provided for in Section 1 of this act, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the Constitution.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The purpose of this act is to grant the Oakland Unified School District a reasonable extension, until June 30, 1977, to bring its school buildings up to earthquake safety standards prescribed by the so-called Field Act and permit the State Allocation Board, under specified conditions, to grant a further extension until June 30, 1978. In order that the provisions of this act may be made effective during the periods prescribed, it is necessary that the act go into immediate effect.

An act to amend Section 25524.3 of the Public Resources Code, and to amend Section 10.7 of Chapter 320 of the Statutes of 1976, relating to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 18, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State May 18, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25524.3 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25524.3. No nuclear fission thermal powerplant, including any to which the provisions of this chapter do not otherwise apply, but excepting any having vested rights as defined in this section, shall be permitted land use in the state, or, where applicable, be certified by the commission until the following conditions have been met:

(a) The commission has undertaken and completed a study of the necessity for, and effectiveness and economic feasibility of, undergrounding and berm containment of nuclear reactors, and, upon completion of the study, the commission, after public hearings, has determined whether to require by rules and regulations that nuclear reactors be either undergrounded or berm contained. The commission shall complete such study and submit it to the Legislature, with conclusions and recommendations, within one year from January 1, 1977. The commission shall also submit to the Legislature, along with the study, a report indicating any staff positions and duties which will be necessary, beyond the study completion date, in order to implement the provisions of this section. Any staff position created by the commission for the purpose of implementing the provisions of this section shall be eliminated by the end of the 1977–78 fiscal years.

(b) In the event that the commission determines that undergrounding and berm containment are necessary, effective, or economically feasible to meet the requirements of Sections 25511 and 25520, relating to enhancing the public health and safety at a site and related facility, rules and regulations implementing such findings shall be suspended for a period of one year so as to provide the Legislature with the necessary time to evaluate and verify the results of the study.

(c) In the event that the commission determines that undergrounding and berm containment are not necessary, effective, or economically feasible to meet the requirements of Sections 25511 and 25520, relating to enhancing the public health and safety at a site, no nuclear fission thermal powerplant shall be approved for one year thereafter, so as to provide the Legislature with the necessary time to evaluate the study for possible statutory implementation.

The commission shall continue to receive and process notices of intention and applications for certification pursuant to this division, but shall not issue a decision pursuant to Section 25523 granting a certificate until the requirements of this section have been met. All other permits, licenses, approvals or authorizations for the entry or use of the land, including orders of court, which may be required may be processed and granted by the governmental entity concerned but construction work to install permanent equipment or structures shall not commence until the requirements of this section have been met.

For purposes of this section, the vested right to construct a nuclear thermal powerplant shall exist if, prior to January 1, 1977, an electric utility has performed substantial construction on such powerplant and has incurred substantial expense for construction and for necessary materials for such powerplant, including, but not limited to, the following sites and facilities, with the associated estimated generating capacities:

(1) As designated in the report of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company submitted to the Public Utilities Commission on December 23, 1966, pursuant to Section 1001 of the Public Utilities Code, one nuclear thermal powerplant, having a generating capacity of 1,060 megawatts, commonly known as Diablo Canyon Unit 1, to be located in San Luis Obispo County.

(2) As designated in the report of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company submitted to the Public Utilities Commission on February 16, 1968, pursuant to Section 1001 of the Public Utilities Code, one nuclear thermal powerplant, having a generating capacity of 1,060 megawatts, commonly known as Diablo Canyon Unit 2, to be located in San Luis Obispo County.

(3) As designated in the report of the Southern California Edison Company and the San Diego Gas and Electric Company to the Public Utilities Commission on July 16, 1970, pursuant to Section 1001 of the Public Utilities Code, two nuclear thermal powerplants, having a generating capacity of 1,100 megawatts per unit, commonly known as San Onofre Unit 2 and San Onofre Unit 3, to be located in San Diego County.

Notwithstanding any provisions of this section to the contrary, the provisions of this section shall not apply to any nuclear fission thermal powerplant site and related facility for which a notice of intent has been filed pursuant to Section 25502 with, and accepted by, the commission within three years of January 1, 1977.

SEC. 2. Section 10.7 of Chapter 320 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

An employer may request a hearing on a special order or action ordered pursuant to this section, at which the employer, owner or any other person may appear and show cause why he should not comply with such order or action. The division shall conduct such hearing at the earliest possible time.

All orders, rules, regulations, findings, and decisions of the division made or entered under this part may be reviewed by the Supreme Court and the courts of appeal as may be provided by law.

The director shall prescribe guidelines for the issuance of such notices.

The division may impose a civil penalty against an employer as specified in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 6423) of this part.

No citation or notice shall be issued by the division for a given violation or violations after six months have elapsed since occurrence of the violation.

No bond shall be required from the division as a prerequisite to the granting of any restraining order.

SEC. 7. Section 6407 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

6407. Every employer and every employee shall comply with occupational safety and health standards, with Section 25910 of the Health and Safety Code, and with all rules, regulations, and orders pursuant to this division which are applicable to his own actions and conduct.

a special rate of assessment to such land and as to such land one of the the following is applicable:

(1) His land or a described portion of it is used for residential or commercial purposes and has, for 5 years immediately prior to the date of filing a petition pursuant to this section, been irrigated or supplied water wholly or partially from a water system not owned or operated by the district; or

(2) For 5 years immediately prior to the date of filing a petition pursuant to this section, his land or a described portion of it has never received water service from the district of any nature and the board of directors of the district has not at any time prior to filing the petition adopted a plan for future service of water to such lands, which plan may provide for the landowner to pay all costs of providing facilities to transport water from the nearest point at which the district has water available to the lands made subject to the petition; or

(3) For 5 years immediately prior to the date of filing a petition pursuant to this section, his land or a described portion of it was served with water received from wells not owned, maintained, or operated by the district and which land and wells are not supplied water of any nature from the district, including, but not limited to, surface, subsurface or seepage waters, which waters would be suitable for agricultural or domestic purposes.

(b) The procedure for any such petition shall be in accordance with this article.

(c) After the conclusion of a hearing as provided in Section 25831, if the board finds that any of the land described in any petition has been supplied as alleged or no plan for future service has been adopted, and the lands made subject to the petition are not and will not be benefited by the operations of the district in a manner that would justify their assessment at the regular rate of assessment, then the board shall adjust the rate of assessment on the land made subject to the petition in an order entered in full upon its minutes.

SEC. 2. The provisions of this act are necessary because many of the residents of the Anderson-Cottonwood Irrigation District reside within urban areas and are served by a municipal water supply or a well water supply or receive no water service. Such areas of the district are not and will not be benefited by the operations of the district in a manner that will justify their assessment at the regular rate of assessment. This problem is not common to all districts formed under the Irrigation District Law. It is, therefore, hereby declared that a general law cannot be made applicable and that the enactment of this act as a special law is necessary for the solution of problems existing within the Anderson-Cottonwood Irrigation District.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be any appropriation made by this act because this act is in accordance with the request of a local government entity or entities which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to correct the present disparity in assessments which permits certain areas included within the Anderson-Cottonwood Irrigation District which receive no irrigation benefits from the district to be assessed at the full rate at the earliest possible time, and to permit the provisions of this act to be applicable to assessments levied during the current year, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 75

An act to amend Section 510 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to local health officers.

[Approved by Governor May 26, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State May 26, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 510 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

510. Whenever the governing body of any city, county, or city and county determines that the expenses of its health officer in the enforcement of any statute, order, quarantine, rule or regulation prescribed by a state officer or department relating to public health, which either requires or authorizes the health officer to perform specified acts, are not met by any fees prescribed by the state, such governing body may adopt an ordinance or a resolution prescribing such fees as will pay the reasonable expenses of such officer incurred in such enforcement. The schedule of fees prescribed by ordinance or resolution of the governing body shall be applicable in the area in which the health officer enforces any statute, order, quarantine, rule or regulation prescribed by a state health officer or department relating to public health.

CHAPTER 76

An act to amend Section 5135.5 of the Streets and Highways Code, relating to the Improvement Act of 1911.

[Approved by Governor May 26, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State May 26, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5135.5 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

5135.5. When the contractor, at the time of execution of the contract, exercises his option to assign the warrant, assessment, and diagram to the legislative body, payments of installments may be made in the manner provided under the provisions of Section 5374.1 for installment payment of contributions.

This section shall not apply where the assessable portion of the contract is for a sum in excess of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000).

CHAPTER 77

An act to amend Section 27465 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 26, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State May 26, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 27465 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

27465. (a) No dealer or person holding a retail seller's permit shall sell, offer for sale, expose for sale, or install on a vehicle for use on a highway, a pneumatic tire when the tire is so worn that less than one thirty-second (1/32) of an inch tread depth remains in any two adjacent grooves at any location on the tire. This subdivision shall not apply to any person who installs on a vehicle, as part of an emergency service rendered to a disabled vehicle upon a highway, a spare tire with which such disabled vehicle was equipped.

(b) No person shall use on a highway a pneumatic tire when the tire is so worn that less than one thirty-second (1/32) of an inch tread depth remains in any two adjacent grooves at any location on the tire.

(c) The measurement of tread depth shall not be made where tie bars, humps, or fillets are located.

(d) The requirements of this section shall not apply to implements of husbandry.

(e) The department, if it determines that such action is appropriate and in keeping with reasonable safety requirements, may adopt regulations establishing more stringent tread depth requirements than those specified in this section for those vehicles defined in Sections 322, 323, and 545, and may adopt regulations establishing tread depth requirements different from those specified in this section for those vehicles listed in Section 34500.

SEC. 2. Section 27465 of the Vehicle Code, as amended by Section 1 of this act, is amended to read:

27465. (a) No dealer or person holding a retail seller's permit shall sell, offer for sale, expose for sale, or install on a vehicle axle for use on a highway, a pneumatic tire when the tire is so worn that less than one thirty-second (1/32) of an inch tread depth remains in any two adjacent grooves at any location on the tire. This subdivision shall not apply to any person who installs on a vehicle, as part of an emergency service rendered to a disabled vehicle upon a highway, a spare tire with which such disabled vehicle was equipped.

(b) No person shall use on a highway a pneumatic tire on a vehicle axle when the tire is so worn that less than one thirty-second (1/32) of an inch tread depth remains in any two adjacent grooves at any location on the tire.

(c) The measurement of tread depth shall not be made where tie bars, humps, or fillets are located.

(d) The requirements of this section shall not apply to implements of husbandry.

(e) The department, if it determines that such action is appropriate and in keeping with reasonable safety requirements, may adopt regulations establishing more stringent tread depth requirements than those specified in this section for those vehicles defined in Sections 322, 323, and 545, and may adopt regulations establishing tread depth requirements different from those specified in this section for those vehicles listed in Section 34500.

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Senate Bill No. 277 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1978, both bills amend Section 27465 of the Vehicle Code, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 277, that Section 27465 of the Vehicle Code, as amended by Section 1 of this act, shall remain operative until the effective date of Senate Bill No. 277, and that on the effective date of Senate Bill No. 277 Section 27465 of the Vehicle Code, as amended by Section 1 of this act, be further amended in the form set forth in Section 2 of this act to incorporate the changes in Section 27465 proposed by Senate Bill No. 277. Therefore, if this bill and Senate Bill No. 277 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1978, and Senate Bill No. 277 is chaptered before this bill and amends Section 27465, Section 2 of this act shall become operative on the effective date of Senate Bill No. 277.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Recent changes in the law regarding tire tread depth requirements may not be in keeping with appropriate safety regulations of the Department of the California Highway Patrol.

This act will provide greater flexibility for departmental regulations consistent with reasonable tire safety requirements. In order to achieve its intended results, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 78

An act to add Sections 22252.3 and 35454.5 to the Water Code, relating to water supply allocations, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 26, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State May 26, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22252.3 is added to the Water Code, to read:

22252.3. In any year in which the board determines that the water supplies of the district will be inadequate to provide water in a quantity furnished in years of average precipitation, the board may specify a date prior to which applications for water for the ensuing irrigation season are to be received. In districts where meters or other volumetric measuring instruments or facilities are not available or are inadequate to measure substantially all agricultural water deliveries, the district may establish annual water requirements in the district for growing each type of crop grown in the district, accept such applications for water based on proposed crops to be grown and acreage of each such proposed crop, and determine the quantity of water apportioned under Sections 22250, 22251, 22252, and 22252.1 expressed in terms of acreage of each type of proposed crop to be served. In such a district, the district may refuse to deliver water to, or assess penalties on, the landowner who uses such water on a greater acreage of such crops than such landowner's share of the estimated available water will bring to maturity based on the requirements established for growing such crops in the district.

In establishing annual water requirements for growing particular types of crops, as authorized in this section, the district, with respect to those crops which ordinarily require periodic irrigation, may designate the number of irrigation runs and the amount of water to be allocated to each such run with respect to each crop and may give the water user water credits measured by the designated irrigation runs with respect to each such crop as to which the water user has notified the district he intends to underirrigate.

This section provides a means of measuring the allocation of water to lands based on the type of crop grown and does not authorize a district to designate the crops to be grown on such land.

Nothing in this section shall prohibit or limit the apportionment of available water to land given preference under Section 22252.1 or this section or to otherwise restrict or limit existing powers of the district to control and provide for distribution of water.

SEC. 2. Section 35454.5 is added to the Water Code, to read:

35454.5. In any year in which the board of a district not having meters or other volumetric measuring instruments or facilities to measure substantially all agricultural water to be delivered concludes the available water supply will be inadequate to serve all land entitled to service that will probably desire such service, the district may establish reasonable annual water requirements for growing each type of crop grown or likely to be grown in the district in that year; determine the maximum acreage of each crop that each holder of title to land, or his duly authorized agent or tenant, may irrigate with district water by dividing the quantity of water apportioned or apportionable to him by such reasonable annual water requirements so established by the district; limit the acreage of each crop that each such holder of title to land, or his duly authorized agent or tenant, may irrigate with district water to the maximum acreage or acreages so determined; and refuse to deliver water to, or assess penalties on, a holder of title to land, or his duly authorized agent or tenant, who uses district water on a greater acreage of such crops.

Nothing in this section shall prohibit or limit the application of the provisions of Section 35453 or 35454. This section provides a means of measuring the allocation of water to lands based on the type of crop grown and does not authorize a district to designate the crops to be grown on such land.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The recent year of inadequate precipitation and the projected probable shortage of water in the coming year will seriously limit the ability of several districts to deliver enough water to bring all crops in the district to maturity. In order to permit districts, which have little or no capability to volumetrically measure the agricultural water used to grow crops which require a relatively constant supply, to regulate the supply so that the supply will be sufficient to bring the crops to maturity in this growing season, it is, therefore, necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 79

An act to amend Section 5018 of the Education Code, as proposed by the 1977 Education Code Supplemental Act, relating to elementary school districts, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 26, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State May 26, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5018 of the Education Code, as proposed by the 1977 Education Code Supplemental Act, is amended to read:

5018. Any elementary school district having a governing board of three members may, and any elementary school district having a governing board of three members whose average daily attendance during the preceding fiscal year was 300 or more shall, do either of the following:

(a) By its own action determine that the number of members of the governing board shall be increased to five, in which case two additional members shall be elected at an upcoming regular election date, as specified in Section 2500 of the Elections Code, determined by the board.

(b) Request the county superintendent of schools having jurisdiction to submit the question of whether the number of members of the governing board shall be increased to five to the voters of the elementary school district at an upcoming regular election date, as specified in Section 2500 of the Elections Code, determined by the county superintendent of schools. At the same election, two additional members shall be elected to take office if the number of governing board members is increased.

Candidates for the two additional offices or their sponsors shall state in the declarations of candidacy or nominations filed for the election that the candidates are candidates for the two additional offices separately from the other offices to be filled in the election and shall clearly indicate to the voters that they may vote for two of the candidates to take office if the voters approve the proposed increase in the number of board members.

If the voters at the election do not approve such an increase in membership of the governing board, the same question may be submitted to the voters at subsequent governing board member elections. Requests to the county superintendent to submit the question to the voters of a district shall be filed with him by the governing board of the district no later than 100 days prior to the election.

If, pursuant to either subdivision (a) or subdivision (b) of this section, two additional governing board members are authorized and elected, the one receiving the higher number of votes shall hold office for a term commencing the first day of the month following the election until March 31st in the second succeeding year following the election in which a regular governing board election is held, and the other one shall hold office for a term commencing the first day of the month following the election until March 31st in the first succeeding year following the election in which a regular governing board election is held. Thereafter the governing board shall be composed of five members elected in the same manner and for the same term as governing boards having five members.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that the provisions of this act may take effect prior to the November 1977 General Election and thereby provide a better opportunity for representation of the people on certain school district governing boards, it is essential that this act take immediate effect.

CHAPTER 80

An act to amend Section 1350 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to health, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 26, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State May 26, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1350 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1350. (a) Every plan not exempted from this chapter who on June 30, 1976, is registered under the Knox-Mills Health Plan Act as in effect prior to the operative date of this chapter, shall promptly notify the commissioner of its intention to seek licensing under this chapter and shall file an application for licensing as a plan by September 30, 1976. Each such plan may continue to operate under the provisions of the Knox-Mills Health Plan Act as in effect prior to the operative date of this chapter until the commissioner grants or denies its application. However, such plans shall not be subject to the assessment or reregistration pursuant to the provisions of former Sections 12538 or 12538.4 of the Government Code and shall be subject to the provisions respecting reporting which are contained in Sections 1371 and 1383 and subdivisions (a), (d), (e), and (f) of Section 1384.

(b) If an application filed pursuant to subdivision (a) is denied, the commissioner shall give notice thereof as provided in Section 1354 and the plan shall not, after receipt of such notice, solicit or receive further enrollment or subscription unless and until such order of denial is revoked or set aside. Within 30 days after the date of mailing of such notice, the plan shall either cease operations in this state or request a hearing pursuant to Section 1354, such hearing to commence within 15 business days after receipt of such request unless the plan and the commissioner consent in writing to a later date. If, after hearing, the denial of the application is affirmed by the commissioner, such plan shall cease operations in this state within 15 days after the date of such order. Thereafter, such plan shall be subject in all respects to the provisions of this chapter.

(c) On and after July 1, 1976, all administrative powers exercised by the Attorney General under the terms and provisions of the Knox-Mills Health Plan Act shall be exercised by the commissioner under the provisions of this section, and the Attorney General shall act as attorney for the commissioner except that the Attorney General may continue all civil or administrative proceedings initiated by the Attorney General prior to such date.

(d) Upon filing its application as provided in subdivision (a), each plan shall pay the application fee prescribed by subdivision (a) of Section 1356. In addition, each plan shall be subject to assessment as provided for in subdivision (b) of Section 1356.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

It is necessary that plans which were registered under the Knox-Mills Health Plan Act and which have applied for license under the Knox-Keene Health Care Service Plan Act of 1975 be relieved of the unnecessary burdens of complying with the reregistration and annual registration provisions of the former act and to make provision for their assessment under the provisions of the Knox-Keene Health Care Service Plan Act of 1975 to meet the initial costs of administering that act.

CHAPTER 81

An act to repeal Section 12804.1 of the Government Code, and to add Section 50.7 to the Labor Code, relating to occupational safety and health.

[Approved by Governor May 26, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State May 26, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12804.1 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 50.7 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

50.7. The Department of Industrial Relations is the state agency designated to be responsible for administering the state plan for the development and enforcement of occupational safety and health standards relating to issues covered by corresponding standards promulgated under the federal Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970 (Public Law 91-596).

CHAPTER 82

An act relating to school facilities and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 26, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State May 26, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Lodi Unified School District maintains a number of elementary schools serving the City of Lodi and surrounding communities.

The district is presently engaged in the construction of a new school, tentatively identified as the Victor Area Elementary School which, upon completion, will replace the Alpine and Bruella Elementary Schools, both of which have been inspected and found not to conform to the structural standards prescribed pursuant to the Field Act. The state is sharing in the cost of construction of the new Victor Area Elementary School under the state school building aid program.

It is estimated that the new school will be completed and ready for occupancy in December, 1977. It is necessary that the two elementary schools which will be replaced continue to be utilized until completion of the new school, and the Legislature finds that it would be highly disruptive and disadvantageous for the affected pupils, as well as creating a burden on the school district, to require the two existing elementary schools to be in disuse pending the completion of the new school. In enacting this act the Legislature intends to alleviate such unnecessary hardship.

SEC. 2. The Sacramento City Unified School District maintains a number of high schools serving the City of Sacramento and surrounding communities.

The district is presently engaged in the construction of new facilities for its existing American Legion Continuation High School which will replace the school's current facilities which have been inspected and found not to conform to the structural standards prescribed pursuant to the Field Act. The construction contract called for the new school facilities to be completed and ready for occupancy in August, 1977, but late material deliveries have caused delays sufficient to extend the completion of the facilities for occupancy into September, 1977.

It is necessary that the existing school facilities which will be replaced continue to be utilized until completion of the new facilities, and the Legislature finds that it would be highly disruptive and disadvantageous for the affected pupils, as well as creating a burden on the school district, to require the existing facilities to be in disuse pending completion of the new replacement school facilities. In enacting this act the Legislature intends to alleviate such unnecessary hardship.

SEC. 3. The governing board of the Lodi Unified School District may continue to use the Alpine Elementary School and the Bruella Elementary School, and the governing board of the Sacramento City Unified School District may continue to use the existing facilities of the American Legion Continuation High School, together with all structures and facilities essential to the operation of those schools, until such time as replacement facilities are completed and ready for occupancy, or until December 31, 1977, whichever occurs earlier. During such period of continued use, the two elementary schools in the Lodi Unified School District and the existing continuation high school in the Sacramento City Unified School District, and all structures and facilities essential to the operation of those schools shall not be subject to any of the provisions of Article 4 (commencing with Section 15451) or Article 5 (commencing with Section 15501) of Chapter 2 of Division 11 of the Education Code, or Article 3 (commencing with Section 39140) or Article 6 (commencing with Section 39210) of Chapter 2 of Part 23 of Division 3 of the Education Code as enacted by Chapter 1010 of the Statutes of 1976.

SEC 4. Due to the unique circumstances concerning the construction of a new replacement elementary school in the Lodi Unified School District and of new replacement facilities for the continuation high school in the Sacramento City Unified School District, as partially set forth in Sections 1 and 2 of this act, and the limited nature of the exemptions provided for in Section 3 of this act, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the Constitution.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that two elementary schools which are presently serving the needs of pupils of the Lodi Unified School District and the continuation high school which is presently serving the needs of pupils of the Sacramento City Unified School District may continue to be utilized without interruption while new facilities are being constructed, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

SEC. 6. This act shall remain in effect only until December 31, 1977 and on that date is repealed.

CHAPTER 83

An act relating to high schools, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 26, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State May 26, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A city unified school district which, pursuant to Section 15516 of the Education Code, has been authorized by the State Allocation Board to continue the use of an existing high school pending the construction of replacement facilities, may, upon application to the board, be granted a further extension for such use if: (a) the district maintains only one other high school; (b) the construction of replacement facilities was commenced on a site adjacent to one of the existing high schools during calendar year 1976, and; (c) it is estimated that the replacement facilities will be completed and ready for occupancy during the 1977–78 school year. In no event shall the State Allocation Board authorize the continued use of the existing high school for a period extending beyond the completion of the replacement facilities, or beyond June 30, 1978, whichever occurs first.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that a high school which is presently serving the needs of more than 1,500 students may continue to be utilized without interruption while new facilities are being constructed, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

SEC. 3. This act shall remain in effect only until June 30, 1978, and on that date is repealed.

An act relating to school facilities, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 26, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State May 26, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A unified school district which conducts an alternative high school program in facilities which the district has leased for a three-year term may continue to use such facilities until June 30, 1978, and may renew the lease thereof, under the following conditions:

(a) The alternative high school program is the only school program or activity conducted by the district on the leased site.

(b) The student enrollment in the alternative high school program does not exceed 250 students.

(c) A substantial portion of the activities of students participating in the alternative high school program consists of internships, work study, and related activities undertaken at locations other than at the leased site.

(d) The leased facility is a building of less than 15,000 square feet, and complies with applicable local building code requirements, and has been approved for school use by the State Fire Marshal.

A leased building which meets all of the conditions prescribed in subdivisions (a), (b), (c), and (d) shall not be subject to any of the provisions of Article 4 (commencing with Section 15451) or Article 5 (commencing with Section 15501) of Chapter 2 of Division 11 of the Education Code, or of Article 3 (commencing with Section 39140) or Article 6 (commencing with Section 39210) of Chapter 2 of Part 23 of Division 3 of the Education Code, as enacted by Chapters 1010 and 1011 of the Statutes of 1976, until June 30, 1978.

If, prior to June 30, 1978, the school district governing board certifies to the State Architect that the building has been inspected by a structural engineer and found to have complied with the structural standards promulgated pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 15451) of Chapter 2 of Division 11 of the Education Code which were in effect at the time of the building's initial construction, the State Architect shall authorize the use of the leased facilities as a temporary school building, within the meaning of Article 4, after June 30, 1978, for a period not to extend beyond June 30, 1983. Any structural corrections recommended by the inspecting engineer in order to meet the conditions of this paragraph must have been completed prior to June 30, 1978.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to permit alternative high school programs to continue uninterrupted, utilizing facilities which are above average in safety and highly functional, and thereby continue advances in the level of maturity and intellectual development of students in the programs, and so avoiding harm to presently functioning successful programs and their student participants, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 85

An act to add Chapter 5.1 (commencing with Section 61720.1) to Part 5 of, to add Section 61781 to, and to add Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 61770.5 of the government Code, relating to community services districts, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 27, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State May 27, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 5.1 (commencing with Section 61720 1) is added to Part 5 of Division 3 of Title 6 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 5.1. INCLUSION IN IMPROVEMENT DISTRICTS

61720.1. Territory within a district may be annexed to an improvement district whether or not contiguous thereto, provided that such territory is not part of an improvement district constituted for a similar purpose.

61720.2. Except as provided in Section 61722, to commence the procedure for annexation to an improvement district, the board shall adopt a resolution initiating proceedings for an annexation, which resolution shall:

(a) Set forth a description of the exterior boundaries of the territory proposed to be annexed;

(b) State whether the territory proposed to be annexed is inhabited, in that there reside within the territory 12 or more persons who have been registered to vote within such territory for at least 54 days prior to the date of adoption of the resolution, or uninhabited, in that there reside within the territory less than 12 persons who have been registered to vote within such territory for at least 54 days prior to the date of adoption of the resolution;

(c) State the reason or reasons for the proposed annexation;

(d) Set forth any terms or conditions of the proposed annexation;

(d) Fix a time, date, and place of hearing on the proposed annexation, which hearing shall be not less than 15 days nor more than 60 days after the date of adoption of the resolution initiating proceedings; and

(f) State that any interested person desiring to make written protest against the annexation shall do so by written communication filed with the secretary not later than the hour set for the hearing. A written protest by a landowner shall contain a description sufficient to identify the land owned by him; a written protest by a voter shall contain the residential address of the voter.

61720.3. The secretary shall give notice of any such hearing by:

(a) Publication of the resolution initiating proceedings for annexation once in a newspaper of general circulation within the improvement district;

(b) Posting of the resolution initiating proceedings for annexation on or near the doors of the meeting place of the board or on any official bulletin board customarily used for the purpose of posting of public notices; and

(c) Mailing of the resolution initiating proceedings for annexation to all landowners owning land within the territory proposed to be annexed as shown upon the last equalized assessment roll of the county, at the address shown upon such assessment roll, and to all persons and counties, cities, or districts, which shall have theretofore filed a written request for special notice with the secretary.

61720.4. Publication, posting, and mailing required by Section 61720.3 shall be completed at least 15 days prior to the date set for hearing. Mailed notice shall be sent by first-class mail and deposited, postage prepaid, in the United States mails and shall be deemed to have been given when so deposited.

61720.5. The hearing on the proposed annexation shall be held by the board upon the date and time specified in the resolution initiating proceedings for such annexation. The hearing may be continued from time to time but not to exceed 60 days from the date specified in such resolution.

61720.6. At such hearing the board shall hear and receive any oral or written protests, objections, or evidence which shall be made, presented, or filed. Any person who shall have filed a written protest may withdraw the same at any time prior to the conclusion of the hearing.

61720.7. Factors to be considered by the board in a proposed annexation shall include:

(a) Whether the proposed annexation will be for the interest of landowners and present or future inhabitants within the improvement district and within the territory proposed to be annexed to said improvement district;

(b) Any other matters which the board deems material. Except as hereinafter provided, the board shall not be required to make any express recitals or findings concerning any of the factors considered by it.

61720.8. In any proceedings for the annexation of territory to any improvement district, the board shall have the power and duty to exclude any lands proposed to be annexed which it finds will not be benefited by becoming a part of such improvement district.

For the purpose of completing any such proceedings, including the findings provided for by Sections 61720.9 and 61721, any land so excluded shall no longer be considered a part of the territory proposed to be annexed.

61720.9. A majority protest shall be deemed to exist and the proposed annexation shall be abandoned if the board shall find and declare by resolution that written protests filed not later than the hour set for the hearing, and not withdrawn prior to the conclusion of the hearing, represent:

(a) In the case of the annexation of inhabited territory,

(1) More than 50 percent of the assessed value of land therein, or

(2) More than 50 percent of the voting power of the voters entitled to vote as a result of residing within such territory; or

(b) In the case of the annexation of uninhabited territory, more than 50 percent of the assessed value of land therein.

61721. A written protest by a resident-voter shall contain his signature and a street and number or designation sufficient to enable the place of residence to be readily ascertained. A protest by a landowner shall contain his signature and a description of the land owned by him sufficient to identify the same. A public agency owning land shall be deemed a landowner for the purpose of making a written protest and determining the existence of a majority protest.

61721.1. The board shall determine the sufficiency of written protests by the methods and the manner as provided in Sections 61721.2 to 61721.6, inclusive

61721.3. If the protests are signed by landowners, the secretary shall compare the names of the signers on the protests against the names of the persons shown as owners of land on the last equalized assessment roll of the county and ascertain therefrom:

(a) The total number of landowners owning land within the territory which is the subject of the proposed annexation and the total assessed valuation of all land within such territory.

(b) The total number of landowners represented by qualified signers and the total assessed valuation of land owned by qualified signers.

61721.4. If a protest is signed by a landowner which is a public agency owning land within the territory which is the subject of the proposed annexation, such public agency shall be deemed a landowner for the purpose of the signing and certification of such protest. Any such public agency may authorize such protest to be signed for and on its behalf by any duly authorized officer or employee.

61721.5. In examining any petition signed by a landowner, the secretary shall disregard the signature of any person not shown as owner on the last equalized assessment roll unless prior to certification the secretary shall be furnished with written evidence, satisfactory to him, that such signer: is a legal representative of the owner; is entitled to be shown as owner of land on the next assessment roll; is a purchaser of land under a recorded written agreement of sale; or is authorized to sign for and on behalf of any public agency owning land.

61721.6. If any person signing a protest as a landowner shall appear as owner on the last equalized assessment roll but be shown thereon as a partner, joint tenant, tenant in common or as husband or wife, the signature of such person shall be counted as if all such owners shown on said roll had signed.

61721.7. In an annexation proceeding, if a majority protest shall not have been filed, the board, not later than 30 days after the conclusion of the hearing, shall adopt a resolution and make one of the following determinations:

(a) Disapproving the proposed annexation; or

(b) Ordering the annexation in accordance with Sections 61721.8 to 61722, inclusive.

61721.8. The board may order such territory annexed to the improvement district either without election or subject to confirmation by the voters upon the question of such annexation. However, the board shall not order any such annexation without election unless the board finds:

(a) In the case of uninhabited territory, that written protests filed and not withdrawn represent less than 25 percent of the number of landowners within such territory, owning not more than 25 percent of the assessed value of land therein, or

(b) In the case of inhabited territory, that written protests filed and not withdrawn represent:

(1) Less than 25 percent of the number of landowners within such territory owning not more than 25 percent of the assessed value of land therein; and

(2) Less than 25 percent of the voting power of voters entitled to vote as a result of residing within such territory.

61721.9. In any resolution ordering an annexation of territory subject to confirmation by the voters, the board may provide for an election or elections to be called, held and conducted upon such question:

(a) Only within the territory ordered to be annexed; or

(b) Both within the territory ordered to be annexed and within all of said improvement district.

61722. If all the owners of land within the territory proposed to be annexed have given their written assent to such annexation, the board may, by resolution, order such an annexation (a) without notice and hearing by the board, (b) without an election, or (c) without notice and hearing by the board and without an election.

61722.1. A resolution ordering an annexation or detachment shall describe the exterior boundaries of the territory annexed and shall contain all terms and conditions imposed upon such annexation.

61722.2. After the canvass of the returns of any election or elections on the question of the annexation, the board shall declare by resolution the total number of votes cast in the election or elections, and the anumber of votes cast for and against the annexation. The board shall adopt a resolution confirming the order of annexation. The board shall adopt a resolution confirming the order of annexation, if a majority of the votes cast upon such questions are in favor of such annexation:

(a) At an election called only within the territory ordered to be annexed; or

(b) At each election where one election was called within the territory ordered to be annexed and another election within all said improvement district.

61722.3. If the proceedings for annexation are terminated, either by a majority protest as provided in Section 61720.9 or by failure of the majority of voters to confirm the order at an election held pursuant to Section 61721.4, then no new proposal for the same or substantially the same plan of annexation may be filed with the board within one year after the date of adoption of the resolution terminating such proceedings.

61722.4. After the adoption of a resolution ordering such annexation, or a resolution confirming an order of annexation following an election thereon, the secretary shall file a certified copy thereof with a map of the territory thus annexed with the county tax collector of each county in which such annexed territory is situated and shall also make such filings as may be required by Chapter 8 (commencing at Section 54900) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5.

61722.5. Territory annexed to an improvement district shall be subject to existing bond issues and indebtedness of the improvement district from and after the filing with the county tax collector specified in Section 61722.4.

SEC. 2. Section 16770.5 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Many areas of the state which are urgently in need of services can be provided with such services by community services districts but must first be annexed to improvement districts or zones within such community service districts. This act provides the means for such inclusion and in order to provide these vitally needed services as soon as possible must take effect immediately.

An act to amend Section 12885.9 of, and to add Section 359 to, the Water Code, relating to water supplies, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 1, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State June 1, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 359 is added to the Water Code, to read:

359. Notwithstanding any other provision of law which requires an election for the purpose of authorizing a contract with the United States, or for incurring the obligation to repay loans from the United States, and except as otherwise limited or prohibited by the Constitution of the State of California, a public water agency may, as an alternative procedure to submitting the proposal to an election, upon affirmative vote of four-fifths of the members of the governing body thereof, apply for, accept, provide for the repayment together with interest thereon, and use funds made available by the federal government pursuant to Public Law 95-18, pursuant to any other federal act subsequently enacted during 1977 which specifically provides emergency drought relief financing, or pursuant to existing federal relief programs receiving budget autmentations in 1977 for drought assistance, and may enter into such contracts as are required to obtain such federal funds pursuant to the provisions of such federal acts; provided the following conditions exist:

(a) The project is undertaken by state, regional, or local governmental agency.

(b) As a result of the severe drought now existing in many parts of the state, the agency has insufficient water supply needed to meet the necessary agricultural, domestic, industrial, recreational, and fish and wildlife needs within the service area or area of jurisdiction of the agency.

(c) The project will develop or conserve water before October 31, 1978, and will assist in mitigating the impacts of the drought.

(d) The agency affirms that it will comply, if applicable, to Sections 1601, 1602, and 1603, of the Fish and Game Code.

(e) The project will be completed on or before the completion date, if any, required under the federal act providing the finding, but not later than March 1, 1978.

Any obligation to repay loans shall be expressly limited to revenues of the system improved by the proceeds of the contract.

No application for such federal funds pursuant to the authority of this section shall be made on or after March 1, 1978.

Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, a public agency shall not be exempt from any provision of law which requires the submission of such proposal to an election if a petition requesting such an election signed by 10 percent of the registered voters within the public agency is presented to the governing board within 30 days following the submission of an application for such federal funds.

For the purposes of this section, "public water agency" means a city, district, agency, authority, or any other political subdivision of the state, except the state, which distributes water to the inhabitants thereof, which is otherwise authorized by law to enter into contracts or agreements with the federal government for a water supply or for financing facilities for a water supply, and which is otherwise required by law to submit such agreements or contracts or any other project involving long-term debt to an election within such public water agency.

SEC. 2. Section 12885.9 of the Water Code is amended to read:

12885.9. The department, without the prior approval of the California Water Commission, is authorized during the calendar years 1976, 1977, and 1978 to make loans in amounts not to exceed two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) to public agencies to provide emergency facilities needed to maintain water supplies in order to relieve drought situations. Such loans shall be repayable over a period of not to exceed 10 years and shall be repayable with interest at the rate specified in Section 12885.8.

Loans may be made pursuant to this section only if no other funds are reasonably available for meeting the emergency and all other sources of emergency funding have been exhausted. Such loans may be made only to public agencies having the financial ability to repay and serving an area with a population of 200,000 or less.

The Legislature finds that public agencies serving areas with a population of over 200,000 are able financially to relieve drought situations without assistance from the state. Notwithstanding any statutory limitations on its existing powers and except as restricted by the California Constitution, any public agency is authorized, without an election, to borrow and expend funds pursuant to this section to relieve water shortage emergencies within its boundaries.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, a drought relief project shall be exempt from the provisions of Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code, if all of the following conditions exist:

(a) The project is undertaken by a state, regional, or local governmental agency.

(b) The project is funded pursuant to Public Law 95-18, pursuant to any other federal act subsequently enacted during 1977 which specifically provides drought relief financing, or pursuant to existing federal relief programs receiving budget augmentations in 1977 for drought assistance.

(c) As a result of the severe drought now existing in many parts of the state, the agency has insufficient water supply needed to meet necessary agricultural, domestic, industrial, recreational, and fish and wildlife needs within the service area or area of jurisdiction of the agency.

(d) The project will develop or conserve water before October 31, 1978, and will assist in mitigating the impacts of the drought.

(e) The construction of the project will be completed on or before the completion date, if any, required under the federal act providing the funding, but not later than March 1, 1978.

(f) The agency affirms that it will comply, where applicable, with Sections 1601, 1602, and 1603 of the Fish and Game Code.

This section shall remain in effect only until March 1, 1978, and shall have no force or effect on or after such date, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before March 1, 1978, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Existing drought conditions are causing hardships and crises in many areas of the state. Many small communities are having trouble making their regular water service because of the drought. Communities large and small also need to encourage conservation to further existing water supplies. In order to relieve existing drought conditions, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 87

An act to amend Section 1125 of the Probate Code, relating to testamentary trusts.

1125. The court in which the administration is pending shall have power, at any time before final distribution, to appoint some fit and proper person to fill any vacancy in the office of trustee under the will, whether resulting from such declination, removal, or otherwise, if such appointment is necessary to carry out the trust. Such appointment may be made by the court upon the written application of any person interested in the trust, filed in the probate proceedings, and shall be made only after notice to all parties interested in the trust, given as required by Section 328 upon a petition for the probate of a will.

Any determination made by a commission pursuant to this section shall be final and conclusive and no further application shall be made pursuant to this section requesting the same or substantially the same addition, deletion, amendment or revision of the commission's resolution making determinations.

The time limits for making applications pursuant to this section shall not apply to boundary changes referred to the commission pursuant to Section 34315.

SEC. 4. Section 56261 of the Government Code is amended to read:

56261. If a petition for an annexation, a detachment or a reorganization consisting solely of annexations or detachments, or both, shall be signed by all of the owners of land within the affected territory of the proposed change of organization or reorganization, or if a resolution of application by a legislative body of an affected district, county, or city making a proposal for an annexation or detachment, or for a reorganization consisting solely of annexations or detachments, or both, shall be accompanied by proof, satisfactory to the commission, that all the owners of land within the affected territory have given their written consent to such change of organization or reorganization, the commission may approve or disapprove such change of organization or reorganization, without notice and hearing by the commission. In such cases the commission may also approve and authorize the board of directors of the conducting district or the board of supervisors, whichever is applicable, to conduct proceedings for the change of organization or reorganization (i) without notice and hearing (ii) without an election, or (iii) both.

The executive officer shall give any district or city whose boundaries would be changed by a proposed change of organization or reorganization which could be subject to the provisions of this section mailed notice of the filing of the petition or resolution of application initiating preliminary proceedings. The commission shall not, without the written consent of the district or city whose boundaries would be changed by the proposed change of organization or reorganization take any further action on said petition or resolution of application for 10 days following such mailing. Upon written demand by an affected district or city, filed with the executive officer during said 10-day period, the commission shall make determinations upon said petition or resolution of application only after notice and hearing thereon. When such a written application is filed with the commission, the time within which the legislative body conducting proceedings is directed to act shall be tolled from the date upon which written application is made to the commission to the date upon which the legislative body receives notification of the commission's final action on the application. The commission, in its discretion, may either (i) without further notice and hearing, deny or approve such application, in whole or in part, or (ii) provide for notice and hearing upon said application, in the same manner as for the original proposal, prior to denying or approving the same. Any determinations made by a commission pursuant to this section shall be final and conclusive and no further application shall be made pursuant to this section requesting the same or substantially the same addition, deletion, amendment or revision of the commission's resolution making determinations.

SEC. 6. Section 56316 of the Government Code is amended to read:

56316. A majority protest shall be deemed to exist and the proposed annexation or detachment shall be abandoned if the board of directors shall find and declare by resolution that written protests filed and not withdrawn prior to the conclusion of the hearing represent:

(a) In the case of the annexation or detachment of inhabited territory, more than 50 percent of the voting power of voters entitled to vote as a result of residing in or owning land within such territory; or

(b) In the case of the annexation or detachment of uninhabited territory, more than 50 percent of the assessed value of land therein.

SEC. 7. Section 56438 of the Government Code is amended to read:

56438. Where a proposed reorganization consists solely of annexations, detachments, minor boundary changes, or formation of county service areas, or any combination thereof, a majority protest shall be deemed to exist and the proposed reorganization shall be abandoned if the board of supervisors finds that written protests filed and not withdrawn prior to the conclusion of the hearing represent:

(b) In the case of inhabited territory more than 50 percent of the voting power of voters entitled to vote as a result of residing within or owning land within such territory.

If there is no such majority protest, the board of supervisors shall not order such reorganization without election, unless the board of supervisors finds:

(1) In the case of a resident-voter district, that such territory is uninhabited, or in the case of a landowner-voter district, that the territory is uninhabited and the written protests filed and not withdrawn represent less than 25 percent of the number of landowners within such territory, owning less than 25 percent of the assessed value of land therein; or

(2) In the case of inhabited territory, that written protests filed and not withdrawn represent:

SEC. 8. Section 56439.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

56439.5. When approved and authorized by the commission pursuant to the provisions of Section 56261, the board of supervisors may adopt a resolution ordering a reorganization consisting solely of annexations or detachments, or both, (i) without notice and hearing by the board of supervisors, (ii) without an election, or (iii) both, as may be specified by the commission.

(d) If, as a result of any term or condition made pursuant to subdivision (c), the liability of any affected city, county or district for payment of the principal of any bonded indebtedness shall be increased or decreased, said term and condition may specify the amount, if any, of such increase or decrease which shall be included in or excluded from the outstanding bonded indebtedness of any such agency for the purpose of the application of any statute or charter provision imposing a limitation upon the principal amount of outstanding bonded indebtedness of such agency.

(e) The formation of a new improvement district or districts or the annexation or detachment of territory to or from any existing improvement district or districts.

(f) The incurring of new indebtedness or liability by or on behalf of all or any part of any district, including territory being annexed to any district, or of any existing or proposed new improvement district therein. CHAPTER 91

An act to amend Section 748.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to suits to quiet title.

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 748.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

748.5. Whenever a proposal to dedicate land for public improvement has been heretofore or hereafter made by map only, without any acceptance of the dedication having been made and recorded within 25 years thereafter, and the land has not been used for the purpose for which the dedication was proposed for a period of 25 years, and the property has been subsequently sold to a third person, after the filing of the map, and used as if free of the dedication, there is a conclusive presumption that the proposed dedication was not accepted, and in a suit to quiet title to such land naming the governmental agency to which the dedication was made by map as defendant, the decree in favor of the plaintiff shall clear the title of the proposed dedication and remove the cloud created by the proposed dedication.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that, as to the manner of acceptance of a dedication of land for public improvement by map, this act does not make a substantive change.

An act to amend Section 8388.5 of, and to add and repeal Section 8388.1 of, the Fish and Game Code, relating to fishing, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 7, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State June 7, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8388.1 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

8388.1. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 8388, following the effective date of this section, loads or lots of fish may contain 40 percent or less by weight of Pacific mackerel taken incidentally to other fishing operations, and any load of fish of less than three tons of weight may contain any amount of Pacific mackerel. The amount of Pacific mackerel in any load or lot of fish taken incidentally to other fishing operations in excess of 18 percent by weight of the load or lot and the amount of Pacific mackerel taken in any load of less than three tons shall be computed as part of any harvest quota permitted pursuant to Section 8388.5. The director may suspend the operation of this section whenever the season quota permitted pursuant to Section 8388.5 has been reached, and thereafter loads or lots of fish may only contain 18 percent or less by weight of Pacific mackerel. The director may authorize the taking of Pacific mackerel in accordance with the provisions of this section whenever the report submitted pursuant to Section 8388.3 determines that a harvest quota may be established and the director determines that Pacific mackerel and jack mackerel are schooling together in such a manner that the proper harvest of jack mackerel requires an increased tolerance for Pacific mackerel prior to October 1. No permits shall be issued by the department pursuant to Section 8388.5 whenever Pacific mackerel may be taken in accordance with the provisions of this section.

SEC. 2. Section 8388.5 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8388.5. Section 8388 shall remain in effect until the department determines that the estimated Pacific mackerel spawning population, in waters north of Punta Eugenia, Baja California, Mexico, exceeds 10,000 tons. When the department makes this determination, a season harvest quota equal to 20 percent of the amount of Pacific mackerel in excess of 10,000 tons spawning population, as determined by the department, shall be permitted under permits issued by the department.

When the department determines that the spawning population exceeds 20,000 tons, the harvest quota shall be increased to 30 percent of the excess over 20,000 tons.

The department shall keep records of the catch of Pacific mackerel and when it appears that the season quota will be reached, it shall notify all permitholders of the date when such limit will be reached and therefore the season closed pursuant to Section 8388, and shall notify, by certified mail, all permitholders of such closure.

SEC. 3. This act shall remain in effect until January 1, 1978. On such date Section 8388.1 of the Fish and Game Code, which is added by Section 1 of this act, shall have no further force and effect and is repealed, and Section 8388.5 of the Fish and Game Code, which is amended by Section 2 of this act, shall read as it read immediately prior to the effective date of this act.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The present limitation on the amount of Pacific mackerel which may be taken incidentally to other fishing operations is preventing the taking of jack mackerel since Pacific mackerel and jack mackerel school together. This problem is now becoming acute because the management efforts of the Department of Fish and Game to increase the population of Pacific mackerel have been successful and Pacific mackerel are schooling with jack mackerel in ever-increasing numbers. An additional factor contributing to the urgency of the situation is that amounts of jack mackerel which are available to be harvested, but are not harvested, must be made available under existing federal law to foreign fishermen. In order, therefore, to permit the harvesting of jack mackerel at the earliest possible, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

An act to amend Section 431.40 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to general denial.

[Approved by Governor June 11, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State June 11, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 431.40 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

431.40. (a) Any provision of law to the contrary notwithstanding, in any action in which the demand, exclusive of interest, or the value of the property in controversy does not exceed one thousand dollars ($1000), the defendant at his option, in lieu of demurrer or other answer, may file a general written denial and a brief statement of any new matter constituting a defense.

(b) Nothing in this section excuses the defendant from complying with the provisions of law applicable to a cross-complaint, and any cross-complaint of the defendant shall be subject to the requirements applicable in any other action.

(c) The general written denial described in subdivision (a) shall be on a blank available at the place of filing and shall be in a form prescribed by the Judicial Council. This form need not be verified.

CHAPTER 94

An act to amend Section 11709 of the Vehicle Code, relating to mobilehomes.

[Approved by Governor June 11, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State June 11, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Every such sign erected or posted on an established place of business, shall have an area of not less than two square feet per side displayed, and shall contain lettering of sufficient size to enable the sign to be read from a distance of at least 50 feet.

(c) Mobilehomes may also be displayed as a model home within a mobilehome park, mobilehome subdivision, mobilehome planned unit development, or mobilehome cooperative, until the mobilehome park, mobilehome subdivision, mobilehome planned unit development, or mobilehome cooperative has reached 70 percent occupancy.

(d) A mobilehome dealer may be licensed to sell mobilehomes at a branch location office without a display area as long as all other provisions of this section are met. The provisions of this subdivision are applicable to the sale of used mobilehomes only, and only at a branch location office which is not within a mobilehome park.

(e) All vehicles displayed pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c) shall be identified by a sign or device providing information relating to the dealer's name and the location and address of such dealer's established place of business.

(f) This section shall not be applicable to a dealer in snowmobiles.

CHAPTER 95

An act to amend Section 5536 of the Public Resources Code, relating to park districts.

[Approved by Governor June 11, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State June 11, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5536 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

5536. The board shall establish rules for its proceedings and may provide by ordinance or resolution that each of its members shall receive for each attendance at the meetings of the board the sum of fifty dollars ($50). They shall not receive any other compensation, and a director shall not receive more than two hundred dollars ($200) in any one calendar month.

The board of directors shall fill all vacancies on the board, including those caused by the death or resignation of a member, or the establishment of new wards; but whenever a vacancy exists for 30 days the Governor shall fill the vacancy. The person appointed to fill any vacancy shall hold office for the remainder of the unexpired term of his predecessor; except that in the case of newly created wards, the directors shall, prior to making appointments, determine by lot for the purpose of fixing the terms of the first directors to be elected in such wards which ward shall have a four-year term and which ward shall have a two-year term, and the persons appointed to fill vacancies caused by the establishment of new wards shall hold office until the next general election following their appointment and until their successors are elected and qualified for the terms previously determined by lot.

CHAPTER 96

An act to amend Section 1775 of the Government Code, relating to vacancies in office.

[Approved by Governor June 13, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State June 13, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1775 of the Government Code is amended to read:

1775. Whenever there is a vacancy in the office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Controller, Treasurer, or Attorney General, or on the State Board of Equalization, the Governor shall nominate a person to fill the vacancy who shall take office upon confirmation by a majority of the membership of the Senate and a majority of the membership of the Assembly and who shall hold office for the balance of the unexpired term. In the event the nominee is neither confirmed nor refused confirmation by both the Senate and the Assembly within 90 days of the submission of the nomination, the nominee shall take office as if he or she had been confirmed by a majority of the Senate and Assembly; provided, that if such 90-day period ends during a recess of the Legislature, the period shall be extended until the sixth day following the day on which the Legislature reconvenes.

After a vacancy has occurred in an office specified in this section and prior to the time such vacancy is filled as provided in this section, the chief deputy to the above constitutional officers shall discharge the duties of the office.

[Approved by Governor June 13, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State June 13, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6420 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

6420. Subject to regulations of the commissioner, an association may, notwithstanding any other provision of law, issue investment certificates or withdrawable shares for fixed terms and bearing fixed returns which are evidenced by marketable certificates of deposit. An association may authorize a commercial bank insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation to prepare, sign and deliver such certificates and to collect and transmit funds obtained in connection therewith. Banks so authorized are not "collectors" or "salesmen" as defined in Sections 5059 and 5065.

SEC. 2. Section 7155.3 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

7155.3. Subject to the regulations of the commissioner an association may make loans or advances of credit, or invest in interests therein, on the security of residential real property, which loans, advances of credit or investments are not otherwise authorized under the law because of the following reasons: (1) the security interest is not a first lien; (2) the loan-to-value ratio, stated maturity, or loan amount is in excess of the maximum allowable limits; (3) lack of any required borrower certification or required private mortgage insurance; (4) the loan would cause an applicable percentage-of-assets category to be exceeded; or (5) a combination of the foregoing factors. Investments made under the authority of this section are subject to the following:

(a) No association shall have investments under this section aggregating at any one time more than an amount equal to the lesser of (i) 2 percent of its total assets plus one-half percent of total assets for each percentage point of statutory net worth in excess of 4 percent of assets or (ii) 5 percent of its total assets;

(b) Each investment made under this section shall be fully documented to support the conclusion that it was made on a prudent basis;

(c) A secured investment will be deemed to be unsecured to the extent that it exceeds the appraised value or purchase price of the security therefor, whichever is less, at the time the investment is made.

The following types of investments shall be deemed not to have been made pursuant to this section: (1) investments authorized to be made under other authority; (2) investments which were made under the authority of this section, but were later authorized to be made under other authority; and (3) investments made under other authority that was subsequently revoked.

7184.1. In addition to loans in which an investment may be made under Section 7184 and any other provision of the law and subject to regulations of the commissioner, an association may make, purchase or invest in loans directly for constructing, adding to, improving, altering, repairing, equipping, or furnishing what is or is expected to become residential real property, where the association relies substantially for repayment on the borrower's general credit standing and forecast of income, with or without other security, or the association relies on other assurances for repayment (including a third-party guaranty or similar obligations). Loans under the authority of this section shall be subject to the following:

(a) Each such loan shall be fully documented to establish:

(1) The purpose of the loan;

(2) The source and reliability of repayment;

(3) The reputation and proven capacity of the borrower;

(4) The quality of the security interest in any security other than real estate that is used as support;

(5) If the loan is for a business purpose, full financial statements (which are to be audited except in the most exceptional cases) of the borrower or the borrower's predecessor for three years prior to the loan;

(6) If the loan is for a business purpose, income forecasts, projections, cash flow statements, and budgets;

(7) Anything else necessary to establish the soundness of the loan; and

(8) Controls employed to ensure that actions on which the association relies are proceeding as scheduled.

(b) No association shall have investments under this section aggregating at any one time more than an amount equal to the lesser of (i) 2 percent of its total assets plus one-half percent of total assets for each percentage point of statutory net worth in excess of 4 percent of assets or (ii) 5 percent of its total assets.

(c) Loans may be made under this section for financing purchases of modular housing units, including financing of the shipping, insurance and similar costs related to the purchase of such units, provided that such units are to be installed for the borrower.

SECTION 1. Section 25912 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25912. Any building department of any city, county, city and county, or other enforcement agency charged with issuance and enforcement of building permits shall revoke any building permit if asbestos is being applied in violation of Section 25910 or require that corrective action be taken.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because the duties, obligations, or responsibilities imposed on local governmental entities or school districts by this act are such that related costs are incurred as part of their normal operating procedures.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 37611 to 37614, inclusive, of the Education Code, if the governing board of the Soledad Union Elementary School District in Monterey County finds that a school housing emergency exists, and that the effects of the emergency can be reduced by implementing a continuous school program, it may establish and maintain a mandatory continuous school program at one or more of the schools under its jurisdiction only for the 1977–78 school year.

Such action may be taken only upon the recommendation of a community-based study group, which made its report in the 1976–77 fiscal year.

(b) In order to continue to operate such program in any school year after the first year of operation of the program, the requirements of Sections 37611 and 37616 of the Education Code shall be met.

SEC. 2. A finding made pursuant to Section 1 of this act at any time during the 1976–77 school year shall be effective to permit the establishment and maintenance of a continuous school program in the 1977–78 school year, whether such finding was made before or after the effective date of this act.

SEC. 3. The Soledad Union Elementary School District has discovered that a school housing emergency exists in the district, and that the effects of this emergency can be reduced or eliminated in the 1977–78 school year if the district were to operate a mandatory continuous school program, and have been so informed by a community-based study group. However, current statutory law requires that the process to implement a mandatory continuous school program begin at least by November 1 of the school year prior to the school year in which the program is to begin operation. Since the current statutory deadline cannot be met, and since the absence of continuous school programs in the Soledad Union Elementary School District will cause great hardship to the pupils thereof, it is essential to simplify the procedures for the implementation of the program during such emergencies.

Due to the unique circumstances of the school housing emergency which exists in the Soledad Union Elementary School District, and the limited nature of the exemption from general statutory requirements which is provided for in Section 1 of this act, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the Constitution.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that the governing board of the Soledad Union Elementary School District may commence operation of a continuous school program during the 1977–78 school year, as authorized by Section 1 of this act, and thus alleviate an existing school housing emergency at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 102

An act to amend Section 480 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 15, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State June 15, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 480 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

480. A "power brake" is any braking gear or mechanism that aids in applying the brakes of a vehicle and which utilizes vacuum, compressed air, electricity, or hydraulic pressure developed by the motive power of that vehicle for that purpose.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Hydraulically activated power brakes represent new technology, are highly efficient, and are now in use on schoolbuses in accordance with Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard No. 105-75. In order to protect public health and safety, it is necessary that this act, permitting the use of such brakes on vehicles other than schoolbuses, take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 103

An act to add Section 234 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor June 15, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State June 15, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 234 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

234. (a) Any equipment attached to a residential or nonresidential building or swimming pool as part of a solar energy system shall be exempt from taxation, and assessors shall not consider the value of such equipment in assessing the value of such buildings. This exemption shall only apply if the solar energy system is intended for actual use.

(b) This exemption shall be allowed if the owner of such property files with the assessor of the county in which such property is located a certified application for exemption on forms prescribed by the State Board of Equalization.

(c) The application required in subdivision (b) shall be filed with the county assessor after the last day of February and prior to the first Monday in May immediately preceding the fiscal year for which the exemption is claimed.

(d) The assessor shall review such exemption claim and make appropriate adjustments to the assessed value of property on which such solar energy systems are installed.

(e) Any solar energy system not in use for a period of 12 months shall be ineligible for the exemption specified in this section.

(f) Actions by the assessor pursuant to subdivision (d) shall be subject to appeals in the same manner as other assessments.

(g) For the purposes of this section:

(1) Solar energy system means any devices used to heat or cool the interior of a structure or swimming pool or to heat water for use within a structure or swimming pool that uses the heat of the sun as its primary energy source. Solar energy systems include but are not limited to, systems utilizing solar collectors, solar cells, and passive roof ponds.

(2) Residential building means any building heated or cooled in its interior and is of an occupancy type of Type H or I, as defined in the Uniform Building Code, 1974 edition, as adopted by the International Conference of Building Officials.

(3) Nonresidential building means any building which is heated or cooled in its interior, and is of an occupancy type other than Type H, I, or J, as defined in the Uniform Building Code, 1974 edition, as adopted by the International Conference of Building Officials.

(h) This section shall apply only to lien dates for fiscal years commencing in 1979 to 1983, inclusive.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 2229 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement by reason of the exemption granted by Section 234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by this act, nor is any appropriation made by this act, because the additional costs, if any, imposed on local government by this act are insignificant in nature and will not cause any financial burden on local government.

SEC. 3. There are no state-mandated local costs in this act that require reimbursement under Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because there are no new duties, obligations or responsibilities imposed on local government by this act.

SEC. 4. This act shall become operative only if Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 15 of the 1977–78 Regular Session of the Legislature is approved by the voters at the primary election to be held in 1978.

CHAPTER 104

An act to amend Section 1463 of the Penal Code, relating to disposition of fines.

[Approved by Governor June 15, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State June 15, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1463 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1463. Except as otherwise specifically provided by law:

(1) All fines and forfeitures including Vehicle Code fines and forfeitures collected upon conviction or upon the forfeiture of bail, together with moneys deposited as bail, in any municipal court or justice court, shall, as soon as practicable after the receipt thereof, be deposited with the county treasurer of the county in which such court is situated. The moneys so deposited shall be distributed as follows:

(a) Once a month there shall be transferred into the proper funds of the county an amount equal to the fines and forfeitures collected during the preceding month upon the conviction or upon the forfeiture of bail following arrests made by officers or other persons employed by the state or by the county in which such court is situated, exclusive of fines or forfeitures or forfeitures of bail collected from any person arrested by a state officer and charged with the commission of a misdemeanor under the Vehicle Code within the limits of a city within the county.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, once a month there shall be transferred into the traffic safety fund of each city in the county an amount equal to 50 percent of all fines and forfeitures collected during the preceding month upon the conviction or upon the forfeiture of bail from any person arrested by a state officer and charged with the commission of a misdemeanor under the Vehicle Code within that city, and an amount equal to the remaining 50 percent shall be transferred to the special road fund of the county; provided, however, that the board of supervisors of the county may, by resolution, provide that not more than 50 percent of the amount to be transferred to the special road fund of the county, be transferred into the general fund of the county.

Once a month there shall be transferred into the general fund of the county an amount equal to that percentage of the fines and forfeitures collected during the preceding month upon the conviction or upon the forfeiture of bail from any person arrested by a state officer and charged with the commission of a misdemeanor under the Vehicle Code on state highways constructed as freeways whereon city police officers enforced the provisions of the Vehicle Code on April 1, 1965, within the limits of a city within the county which is set forth in the schedule appearing in subparagraph (c) of this paragraph (1). If this paragraph is applicable within a city, it shall apply uniformly throughout the city to all freeways regardless of the date of freeway construction or completion.

(c) Once a month there shall be transferred into the general fund of the county an amount equal to that percentage of the fines and forfeitures collected during the preceding month upon conviction or upon the forfeiture of bail following arrests made by officers or other persons employed by each city in the county which is set forth in the following schedule:

In any county for which a county percentage is set forth in the above schedule and which contains a city which is not listed or which is hereafter created, there shall be transferred to the county general fund the county percentage. In any county for which no county percentage is set forth, and in which a city is hereafter created, there shall be transferred to the county general fund 15 percent.

A county and a city therein may, by mutual agreement, adjust the percentages herein.

(d) Once a month there shall be transferred to each city in the county an amount equal to the total sum remaining after the transfers provided for in subparagraphs (b) and (c) above have been made of the fines and forfeitures collected during the preceding month upon conviction or upon the forfeiture of bail following arrests made by officers or other persons employed by such city or arrests made by state officers for misdemeanor violations of the Vehicle Code.

(2) Any money deposited with such court or with the clerk thereof which, by order of the court or for any other reason, should be returned in whole or in part to any person, or which is by law payable to the state or to any other public agency, shall be paid to such person or to the state or to such other public agency by warrant of the county auditor, which shall be drawn upon the requisition of the clerk of such court.

All money deposited as bail which has not been claimed within one year after the final disposition of the case in which such money was deposited, or within one year after an order made by the court for the return or delivery of such money to any person, shall be apportioned between the city and the county and paid or transferred in the manner hereinabove provided for the apportionment and payment of fines and forfeitures. This paragraph shall control over any conflicting provisions of law.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Sections 2229 and 2230 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to those sections nor shall there be any appropriation made by this act because there are no state-mandated local costs in this act and any revenue loss implied herein is not reimbursable under Sections 2229 and 2230 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

CHAPTER 105

An act to amend Sections 4456, 11700, and 11715 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor June 15, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State June 15, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4456 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

4456. (a) The department may authorize dealers and lessor-retailers licensed by the department to use numbered copies of the report of sale form upon vehicles they sell.

(b) Such copies shall be used pursuant to rules and regulations prescribed by the department and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this section.

(c) New and used vehicles not licensed in this state may be operated without license plates or registration cards and used vehicles licensed in this state may be operated without registration cards not to exceed 20 days from the date sold by a dealer or until the license plates or cards are received from the department when a copy of the report of sale form is used and displayed in accordance with the rules and regulations of the department, provided that the dealer meets the following terms and conditions:

(1) The copy of the report of sale shall be affixed to the appropriate vehicle upon delivery to a purchaser.

(2) All fees and any penalties which may be due the department to register or transfer registration of the vehicle are paid over to the department by the selling dealer within 20 days of the sale.

(3) The sale of the vehicle shall be reported to the department as required by Section 5901.

(4) An application in proper form to register the vehicle or to effect transfer of ownership, together with the required supporting documents shall be submitted to the department on behalf of the purchaser. If, however, such documents do not include the regularly required evidence of ownership, the dealer shall also submit a motor vehicle bond or undertaking as provided for in Section 4157, or an affidavit or other information as provided for in Section 5911, or both.

(d) The use by any dealer or lessor-retailer of a report of sale copy as provided herein shall obligate the dealer to pay the fees and penalties determined by the department to be due on the vehicle under Division 3 (commencing with Section 4000) of the Vehicle Code and Part 5 (commencing with Section 10701) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code and which have been advanced to the dealer or lessor-retailer by the customer either by cash, trade-in or under the provisions of a contract, and those penalties which have accrued because of failure of the dealer or lessor-retailer to make timely or proper application for his customer.

SEC. 2. Section 11700 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11700. It shall be unlawful for any person to act as a dealer, manufacturer, or transporter, and, on and after July 1, 1974, it shall be unlawful for any person to act as a manufacturer branch, distributor, or distributor branch, without having first procured a license as required in Section 11701 or temporary permit issued by the department, or when such license or temporary permit issued by the department has been canceled, suspended, revoked, invalidated, expired, or the terms and conditions of an agreement effected pursuant to Section 11707 have not been fulfilled.

SEC. 3. Section 11715 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11715. (a) A manufacturer, distributor or dealer owning or lawfully possessing any vehicle of a type otherwise required to be registered hereunder may operate or move such vehicle upon the highways without registering each such vehicle upon condition that any such vehicle display thereon special plates issued to such owner as provided in this chapter, in addition to other license plates or permits already assigned and attached to the vehicle in the manner prescribed in Sections 5200 to 5203, inclusive. Such vehicles may also be moved or operated for the purpose of towing or transporting by any lawful method other vehicles.

(b) A transporter may operate or move any owned or lawfully possessed vehicle of like type by any lawful method upon the highways solely for the purpose of delivery upon condition that there be displayed upon each vehicle in contact with the highway special license plates issued to such transporter as provided in this chapter, in addition to any license plates or permits already assigned and attached to the vehicle in the manner prescribed in Sections 5200 to 5203, inclusive. Such vehicles may be used for the purpose of towing or transporting by any lawful method other vehicles when the towing or transporting vehicle is being delivered for sale or to the owner thereof.

(c) The provisions of this section do not apply to any manufacturer, transporter, distributor or dealer operating or moving a vehicle as provided in Section 11716.

(d) The provisions of this section do not apply to work or service vehicles owned by a manufacturer, transporter, distributor or dealer. They do not apply to vehicles owned and leased by dealers, except those vehicles rented or leased to vehicle salesmen in the course of their employment for purposes of display or demonstration, nor to any unregistered vehicles used to transport more than one load of other vehicles for the purpose of sale.

(e) The provisions of this section do not apply to vehicles currently registered in this state which are owned and operated by a licensed dealer when the notice of transfer has been forwarded to the department by the former owner of record pursuant to Section 5900 and when a copy of the notice is displayed as follows:

(1) For a motorcycle or motor-driven cycle, the notice shall be displayed in a conspicuous manner upon the vehicle.

(2) For a vehicle other than a motorcycle or motor-driven cycle, the notice shall be displayed in the lower right-hand corner of the windshield of the vehicle, as specified in paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 26708.

(f) Every owner upon receipt of a registration card issued for special plates shall maintain the same or a facsimile copy thereof with the vehicle bearing the special plates.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there by an appropriation made by this act because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local governmental entities and school districts which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes.

CHAPTER 106

An act to amend Section 53200.3 of the Government Code, relating to employee benefits.

[Approved by Governor June 15, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State June 15, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 53200.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53200.3. For the limited purpose of the application of this article, judges of the superior and municipal courts and the officers and attachés of said courts whose salaries are paid either in whole or in part from the salary fund of the county are county employees and shall be subject to the same or similar obligations and be granted the same or similar employee benefits as are now required or granted to employees of the county in which the court of said judge, officer, or attaché is located.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to this section nor shall there be any appropriation made by this act because this act is declaratory of existing practice.

CHAPTER 107

An act to amend Section 25250 of the Government Code, and to amend Sections 926 and 933 of, to repeal and add Section 925 of, and to repeal Section 929 of, the Penal Code, relating to audits of counties.

[Approved by Governor June 15, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State June 15, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25250 of the Government Code is amended to read:

25250. At least every 12 months the board of supervisors shall examine and audit, or cause to be audited, the financial accounts and records of all officers having responsibility for the care, management, collection, or disbursement of money belonging to the county or money received or disbursed by them under authority of law. This financial examination or audit may be performed in coordination with the investigations conducted by the grand jury under Section 925 of the Penal Code, or the board of supervisors may resolve to accept reports delivered pursuant to Section 933 of the Penal Code in lieu of its own separate examination if such reports are found to fulfill some or all of the requirements of this section. In connection with the requirements of this section and Section 25253, the board of supervisors may employ the services of an independent certified public accountant or licensed public accountant to perform an examination of the financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards.

SEC. 2. Section 925 of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 925 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

925. The grand jury shall investigate and report on the operations, accounts, and records of the officers, departments, or functions of the county including those operations, accounts, and records of any special legislative district or other district in the county created pursuant to state law for which the officers of the county are serving in their ex officio capacity as officers of the districts. The investigations may be conducted on some selective basis each year, but the grand jury shall not duplicate any examination of financial statements which has been performed by or for the board of supervisors pursuant to Section 25250 of the Government Code; this provision shall not be construed to limit the power of the grand jury to investigate and report on the operations, accounts, and records of the officers, departments, or functions of the county. The grand jury may enter into a joint contract with the board of supervisors to employ the services of an expert as provided for in Section 926.

SEC. 4. Section 926 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

926. (a) If, in the judgment of the grand jury, the services of one or more experts are necessary for the purposes of Sections 925, 925a, 928 and 933.5 or any of them, the grand jury may employ one or more experts, at an agreed compensation, to be first approved by the court. If, in the judgment of the grand jury, the services of assistants to such experts are required, the grand jury may employ such assistants, at a compensation to be agreed upon and approved by the court. Expenditures for the services of experts and assistants for the purposes of Section 933.5 shall not exceed the sum of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) annually, unless such expenditures shall also be approved by the board of supervisors.

(b) When making an examination of the books, records, accounts, and documents maintained and processed by the county assessor, the grand jury, with the consent of the board of supervisors, may employ expert auditors or appraisers to assist in the examination. Auditors and appraisers, while performing pursuant to the directive of the grand jury, shall have access to all records and documents that may be inspected by the grand jury subject to the same limitations on public disclosure as apply to the grand jury.

(c) Any contract entered into by a grand jury pursuant to this section may include services to be performed after the discharge of the jury, but in no event may a jury contract for services to be performed later than six months after the end of the fiscal year during which the jury was impaneled.

SEC. 5. Section 929 of the Penal Code is repealed.

933. CHAPTER 108

An act to amend Section 13501 of the Penal Code, relating to the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training.

[Approved by Governor June 15, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State June 15, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13501 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

13501. The commission shall select a chairman and a vice chairman from among its members. A majority of the members of the commission shall constitute a quorum.

CHAPTER 109

An act relating to school district revenue limit elections, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 22, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State June 22, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Maxwell Unified School District faces a serious and immediate financial crisis due to factors beyond its control. The district's taxing ability is severely limited by the current drought situation which has affected the financial resources of farmers who are the principal landowners of taxable property within the district. In an effort to reduce costs, the governing board of the school district has drastically curtailed pupil transportation, food services, library, and custodial services. Electors of the district have twice petitioned the governing board to conduct an election to increase the revenue limit of the district, indicating their willingness to absorb a limited tax increase, so long as the revenues will inure to the benefit of the district. However, the proposed tax increase would be insufficient if placed before the electorate after July 1, 1977, at which time the power equalizing features of Chapter 323 of the Statutes of 1976 become effective.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding the establishment of election dates by any other provision of law, there may be conducted on June 28, 1977, an election to increase the revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance for the Maxwell Unified School District. Such election shall otherwise be ordered, called, held, and conducted in accordance with Section 42202 of the Education Code.

The school district governing board, the county superintendent of schools, and the county clerk shall, to the extent practicable, comply with all statutorily prescribed notice and procedural requirements in order to conduct the election on June 28, 1977; provided, however, that the official responsible for complying with such requirements may waive any prescribed time limits to the extent necessary to enable the election to be held on such date.

SEC. 3. Due to unique circumstances existing in the Maxwell Unified School District, as described in Section 1 of this act, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the Constitution.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Electors residing within the Maxwell Unified School District have petitioned the governing board of the district to conduct an election to increase the revenue limit of the district. Constraints presently imposed by law do not permit the election to be held prior to July 1, 1977, after which time any increase in the district's tax rate will be subject to power equalizing mandated by Chapter 323 of the Statutes of 1976, thus rendering the proposed tax rate increase insufficient to remedy the district's present financial crisis. It is therefore necessary that this act take effect immediately.

An act to amend Sections 987.60, 987.61, 987.64, 987.65, and 987.71 of the Military and Veterans Code, relating to veterans and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 22, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State June 22, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

(a) The department is satisfied of the desirability of the property submitted.

(b) The veteran has agreed with the department that he or members of his immediate family will actually reside on the property within 60 days from the date of purchase by the department, or if the residence on the property is not complete on the date of purchase, within 60 days after the residence is completed.

(c) The sum to be expended by the department pursuant to a contract for the construction of a dwelling house and other improvements does not exceed forty-three thousand dollars ($43,000).

(d) Where the department is to contract with a veteran for the construction of a dwelling house and other buildings, or for the purchase of a mobilehome:

(1) The veteran is the owner in fee of the real property on which the dwelling house and other buildings are to be constructed, or is the owner in fee of the real property or the owner of an undivided interest in common in a portion of a parcel of real property on which a mobilehome is to be situate, and agrees to convey that property to the department without cost.

(2) The veteran has paid a reasonable fee set by the department to cover the cost of such preliminary service of the department as may be necessary to process the application.

(3) The veteran has filed with the department adequate plans and specifications for the improvements to be constructed upon said real property, together with a contract, executed by a contractor licensed by the State of California for the construction of said improvements in accordance with said plans and specifications within eight months after the acquisition of said real property by the department, and a bond executed by the contractor providing for compliance with the terms of said contract and for the payment of materialmen and labor furnishing material or labor on the job, executed by a surety company, authorized to do business in the State of California.

(4) The plans, specifications, contract and bond are approved by the department.

(5) The veteran has placed in escrow, all sums of money to be advanced by him where the cost is in excess of the maximum that may be expended by the department.

SEC. 2 Section 987.6i of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

987.61. The department may purchase property, subject to a participation contract providing for a loan term of not less than 23 years. In no event shall the purchase price plus the participation contract exceed forty-three thousand dollars ($43,000) or equal more than 95 percent of the market value of the property as determined by department appraisal, whichever is the lower amount.

SEC. 3. Section 987.64 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

987.64. The department shall not acquire a home under the provisions of this article where the market value of the improvements exceeds the sum of fifty-three thousand dollars ($53,000), to be determined by an appraiser or an authorized representative of the department.

SEC. 4. Section 987.65 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

987.65. The purchase price of a home to the department shall not exceed forty-three thousand dollars ($43,000), except that the purchase price of a mobilehome to the department shall not exceed twelve thousand five hundred dollars ($12,500), and a veteran purchasing the home may advance, subject to the provisions of Section 987.64, the difference between the total price or cost of the home and the sum of the purchase price of the home to the department and any amount the department is required under Section 987.69 of this code to add to the purchase price of the home in fixing the selling price thereof to the veteran. Any amount of the purchase price to the department may be provided by funds from participation contracts or revenue bonds. The purchase price of a farm to the department shall not exceed eighty thousand dollars ($80,000), and a veteran purchasing the farm may advance the difference between the total price of the farm or cost of the dwelling and improvements to be constructed on a farm under a contract and the sum of such purchase price to the department or contract price to the department and any amount which the department is required under Section 987.69 of this code to add to such purchase or contract price to the department in fixing the selling price of the farm to the veteran.

SEC. 5. Section 987.71 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

987.71. The purchaser shall make an initial payment of at least 10 percent of the selling price of the property, in case of a farm, and 3 percent in the case of a home where the purchase price is equal to or less than thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000) or 5 percent in the case of a home where the purchase price is greater than thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000). The department may waive the initial payment in any case where the value of the property as determined by the department appraisal shall equal the amount to be paid by the department plus at least 10 percent in the case of a farm, and 3 percent in the case of a home where the purchase price is equal to or less than thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000) or 5 percent in the case of a home where the purchase price is greater than thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000). The balance of the purchase price may be amortized over a period fixed by the department, not exceeding 40 years for farms or homes, but not exceeding 15 years for mobilehomes, together with interest thereon at the rate as determined by the department pursuant to Section 987.87 for such amortization purposes. The purchaser on any installment date may pay any or all installments still remaining unpaid. In any individual case the department may for good cause postpone from time to time upon terms as the department deems proper, the payment of the whole or any part of any installment of the purchase price or interest thereon. Each installment shall include an amount sufficient to pay the principal and interest on the participation contract to which the interest of the department is subject, and such amount as may be required by any covenant or provision contained in any resolution of issuance.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that the benefits of this act shall be available to veterans as soon as possible, this act must take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 111

An act making an appropriation in augmentation of Item 288 of the Budget Act of 1976, relating to Medi-Cal and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 22, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State June 22, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of twenty-eight million six hundred fourteen thousand seven hundred dollars ($28,614,700) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Finance for allocation to the State Department of Health, in augmentation of Item 288 of the Budget Act of 1976, for the purpose of meeting estimated increases in costs for the Medi-Cal Program.

SEC. 2. This is an act of an urgency statute, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to meet the estimated increase in hospital costs resulting from the recent court decision involving Medi-Cal and the State Department of Health, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 112

[Approved by Governor June 28, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State June 28, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3204 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

3204. Every person who engages in the drilling, redrilling, deepening, or in any operation permanently altering the casing, of any well shall file with the supervisor an individual indemnity bond in the specified sum for each well so drilled, redrilled, deepened, or permanently altered. Such sum shall be ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for each well less than 5,000 feet deep, fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) for each well at least 5,000 feet but less than 10,000 feet deep, and twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for each well 10,000 or more feet deep. The bond shall be filed with the supervisor at the time of the filing of the notice of intention to perform work on the well, as provided in Section 3203. The bond shall be executed by such person, as principal, and by an authorized surety company, as surety, conditioned that the principal named in the bond shall faithfully comply with all the provisions of this chapter, in drilling, redrilling, deepening, or permanently altering the casing in any well or wells covered by the bond, and shall secure the state against all losses, charges, and expenses incurred by it to obtain such compliance by the principal named in the bond.

The conditions of the bond shall be stated in substantially the following language: "If said _____, the above bounden principal, shall well and truly comply with all the provisions of Division 3 (commencing with Section 3000) of the Public Resources Code and shall obey all lawful orders of the State Oil and Gas Supervisor or his district deputy or deputies, subject to subsequent appeal as provided in that division, and shall pay all charges, costs, and expenses incurred by the supervisor or his district deputy or deputies in respect of such well or wells or the property or properties of said principal, or assessed against such well or wells or the property or properties of such principal, in pursuance of the provisions of said division, then this obligation shall be void; otherwise, it shall remain in full force and effect."

SEC. 2. Section 3205 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

3205. Any person who engages in the drilling, redrilling, deepening, or in any operation permanently altering the casing, of one or more wells at any time, may file with the supervisor one blanket indemnity bond for one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) to cover all his operations in drilling, redrilling, deepening, or permanently altering the casing in any of his wells in the state in lieu of an individual indemnity bond for each such operation as required by Section 3204. The bond shall be executed by such person, as principal, and by an authorized surety company, as surety, and shall be in substantially the same language and upon the same conditions as provided in Section 3204, except as to the difference in the amount.

3205.1. Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 3204 and 3205, any person who engages in the drilling, redrilling, deepening, or in any operation permanently altering the casing, of one or more wells located on submerged lands under ocean waters within the jurisdiction of the State of California, shall file with the supervisor a blanket indemnity bond for two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) to cover all his operations in drilling, redrilling, deepening, or permanently altering the casing in any of his wells located on such submerged lands. The bond shall be executed by such person, as principal, and by an authorized surety company, as surety, and shall be in substantially the same language and upon the same conditions as provided in Section 3204, except for the difference in the amount.

3207. Liability as to individual wells that have been completed or drilled and abandoned under a blanket bond may also be terminated.

SEC. 5. Section 3208 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

For the purposes of Section 3207, a well is properly completed to production of oil or gas when it has been shown to the satisfaction of the supervisor that the manner of producing oil or gas therefrom is satisfactory and that the well has maintained production of oil or gas for a continuous six-month period. A well is properly abandoned when it has been shown to the satisfaction of the supervisor that all proper steps have been taken to shut off and exclude all water from oil-bearing or gas-bearing strata encountered in the well, and to protect underground or surface water suitable for irrigation or farm or domestic purposes from the infiltration or addition of any detrimental substance and to prevent subsequent damage to life, health, property, and other resources.

SEC. 5.5. Section 3208.5 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 3250 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

3250. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that certain idle deserted and hazardous oil and gas wells, as defined in this article, are public nuisances and that it is essential, in order to protect life, health, and natural resources that such oil and gas wells be abandoned, reabandoned, produced, or otherwise remedied to mitigate, minimize, or eliminate their danger to life, health, and natural resources.

The Legislature further finds and declares that, although the abatement of such public nuisances could be accomplished by means of an exercise of the regulatory power of the state, such regulatory abatement would result in unfairness and financial hardship for certain landowners, while also resulting in benefits to the public. The Legislature, therefore, finds and declares that the expenditure of funds to abate such nuisances as provided in this article is for a public purpose and finds and declares it to be the policy of this state that the cost of carrying out such abatement be charged to this state's producers of oil and gas as provided in Article 7 (commencing with Section 3400) of this chapter.

SEC. 7. Section 3251 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

3251. For the purposes of this article, an oil or gas well is a "hazardous well" if the well has been determined by the supervisor to presently pose a danger to life, health, or natural resources; and the provisions of subdivisions (a) and (b) of this section apply. Also, for the purposes of this article, an oil or gas well is an "idle deserted well" if the provisions of Section 3237 and subdivisions (a) and (b) of this section apply.

(a) Regulatory abatement of such a public nuisance is not possible because the last operator that had an economic interest in, or received any benefit from, the well is deceased, defunct, or no longer in business in this state.

(b) The present surface owner and mineral estate owners derived no substantial financial gain from the well. In making the determination respecting financial gain, the supervisor may seek such information and require such proof of these matters as may be desirable or necessary.

SEC. 8. Section 3410 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

3410. The department shall, on or before June 15th of each year, acting in conjunction with the Department of Finance, make an estimate of the amount of money which will be required to carry out the provisions of this chapter, including any adjustments for savings or increased expenditures in the current and prior fiscal years.

3412. On or before the 15th of June of each year, the department shall determine the rate or rates which will produce the sums necessary to be raised as provided in Section 3410. Within the same time, the department shall extend into the proper column of the record of assessments the amount of charges due from each person.

SEC. 10. Section 3723.5 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

3723.5. Any person who acquires the ownership or operation of any well or wells, whether by purchase, transfer, assignment, conveyance, exchange, or otherwise, shall, within 30 days after acquiring the well or wells, file with the supervisor an individual indemnity bond in the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for each well acquired, or a blanket indemnity bond in the sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) for any number of wells acquired. The bond shall be stated in substantially the language set forth in Section 3725.

SEC. 11. Section 3725.5 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

3725.5. Any person who engages in the drilling, redrilling, deepening, maintaining, or abandoning of any low temperature well, as defined in Section 3703.1, may file with the supervisor an individual indemnity bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for each well less than 5,000 feet deep, or fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) for each well at least 5,000 but less than 10,000 feet deep, for each well drilled, redrilled, deepened, maintained, or abandoned, in lieu of the bond required by Section 3725. The bond shall be executed by such person, as principal, and by an authorized surety company, as surety, and shall be in substantially the same language and upon the same conditions as provided in Section 3725, except as to the difference in the amount.

SEC. 12. Section 3726 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

3726. Any person who engages in the drilling, redrilling, deepening, maintaining, or abandoning of one or more wells at any time, may file with the supervisor one bond for one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) to cover all his operations in drilling, redrilling, deepening, maintaining, or abandoning of any of his wells in this state in lieu of an individual indemnity bond for each such operation as required by Section 3725 or 3725.5. The bond shall be executed by such person, as principal, and by an authorized surety company, as surety, and shall be in substantially the same language and upon the same conditions as provided in Section 3725, except as to the difference in the amount.

SEC. 13. Section 3728.5 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

3728.5. In lieu of the bond required by Sections 3723.5, 3725, and 3726, a person may, with the written approval of the supervisor, file a cash bond in the applicable amount, together with evidence of the deposit of such amount in banks authorized to do business in this state and insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, or investment certificates or share accounts in the applicable amount issued by a savings and loan association doing business in this state and insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, or bonds issued by the United States or the State of California in the principal amounts of twelve thousand dollars ($12,000), eighteen thousand dollars ($18,000), thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) or one hundred twenty thousand dollars ($120,000) whichever is applicable, with the State Treasurer. Such bond, or security filed in lieu thereof, shall be subject to all conditions set forth in Sections 3723.5, 3725, 3725.5, and 3726.

SEC. 14. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to protect the public from the danger of abandoned oil, gas and geothermal wells at the earliest possible time, and to ensure the effective operation of the oil, gas, and geothermal industry, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

An act to add Section 4730.3 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to Sacramento County sanitation districts.

[Approved by Governor June 28, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State June 29, 1977.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4730.3 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

4730.3. Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 4730, 4730.1, and 4730.2, or any other provision of law, the governing board of a sanitation district in the County of Sacramento shall be constituted in accordance with this section.

The governing body of a sanitation district in the County of Sacramento shall be a board of directors composed of an odd number of not less than five members. If the district includes no territory which is within a city, the county board of supervisors shall be the board of directors of the sanitation district.

If the sanitation district includes territory which is within a city, the board of directors of the sanitation district shall be composed of the county board of supervisors and the presiding officer of the governing body of each such city. If the board of supervisors and the presiding officers of the governing body of such cities constitute an even number, the chairman of the board of supervisors shall have an additional vote on the board of directors of the sanitation district.

The governing body of each such city, which has a representative on the board of directors of the sanitation district, may designate one of its members to act in the place of its presiding officer in the absence, inability to act, or refusal to act of its presiding officer. The governing body of any such city may designate a member of the county board of supervisors to serve as its representative member on the board of directors of the sanitation district in the place of the presiding officer of its governing body, in which case, such supervisor shall have one vote for each such city represented by such supervisor.

SEC. 2. The board of directors of each of the county sanitation districts within the County of Sacramento shall be reconstituted pursuant to Section 4730.3 of the Health and Safety Code at the first regular meeting of the county sanitation district immediately following the effective date of this act.

SEC. 3. The County of Sacramento faces unique problems in connection with the furnishing of sewer services in the conversion from insufficient local treatment to centralized regional treatment. The county has made investigations and studies and has commenced the program of construction of regional treatment to be responsive to the rapidly changing conditions and needs caused by population growth. It is necessary to eliminate wasteful duplication and confusion resulting from the overlapping or multiplicity of local sanitation districts and maintenance districts while preserving the concept of equal representation of the local districts, and to promote planned, responsible, and efficient consolidation of service, and administration. Because of the special situation in the County of Sacramento, it is necessary that this special act be adopted.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be any appropriation made by this act because this act is in accordance with the request of a local government entity which desired legislative authority to act to carry out the program specified in this act.

Where the pupil resides in a portion of the county not under the jurisdiction of the superintendent of any school district, the county superintendent of schools may designate the principal or other person having charge of a private school as the person authorized to issue such work permits. The superintendent of the school district, or the county superintendent of schools as the case may be, shall periodically ascertain that the designated person has complied with the requirements of this chapter pertaining to issuing authorities.

CHAPTER 118

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

(c) One-third by the owner of the land.

SEC. 4. Section 7304 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

CHAPTER 119

An act to amend Section 61765 of, and to add Sections 61765.1, 61765.2, 61765.3, 61765.4, 61765.5, and 61765.6 to, the Government Code, relating to community services districts, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 28, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State June 29, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 61765 of the Government Code is amended to read:

61765. A district may fix, on or before the first day of July in each calendar year, a water standby or availability charge not to exceed ten dollars ($10) per year for each acre of land, or ten dollars ($10) per year for each parcel of land of less than an acre within the district to which water is made available for any purpose by the district, whether the water is actually used or not. The board of directors of a district which fixes such a charge may establish schedules varying the charges depending upon factors such as the uses to which the land is put, the cost of transporting the water to the land, and the amount of water used by the land. The board may restrict charges to lands lying within one or more improvement districts within the community service district.

SEC. 2. Section 61765.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

61765.1. A district may elect to have such assessments for the fiscal year collected on the tax roll in the same manner, by the same persons and at the same time as, together with and not separately from, its general taxes. In such event, it shall cause a written report to be prepared and filed with the secretary which report shall contain a description of each parcel of real property and the amount of the assessment for each parcel for the year.

SEC. 3. Section 61765.2 is added to the Government Code, to read:

61765.2. The secretary shall cause notice of the filing of the report and of a time and place of hearing thereon to be published, pursuant to Section 6066 of the Government Code, prior to the date set for hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation printed and published within the district, if there is one and if not then in such paper printed and published in the county, and shall cause a notice in writing of the filing of the report to be mailed to each person to whom any parcel or parcels of real property described in such report is assessed in the last equalized assessment roll available on the date the report is prepared, at the address shown on the assessment roll or as known to the secretary.

SEC. 4. Section 61765.3 is added to the Government Code, to read:

61765.3. At the time stated in the notice, the board shall hear and consider all objections or protests, if any, to the report referred to in the notice and may continue the hearing from time to time. Upon the conclusion of the hearing, the board may adopt, revise, change, reduce or modify an assessment or overrule any or all objections. The board shall make its determination upon each assessment as described in the report which determination shall be final. The board may make appropriate adjustments that may be necessary as a result of the equalization of the assessment roll subsequent to the filing of the report.

SEC. 5. Section 61765.4 is added to the Government Code, to read:

61765.4. On or before the 10th day of August of each year following such final determination, the secretary shall file with the county auditor a copy of the report with a statement endorsed thereon over his signature that it has been finally adopted by the board and the auditor shall enter the amounts of the assessment against the respective lots or parcels of land as they appear on the current assessment roll.

SEC. 6. Section 61765.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

61765.5. The amount of the assessments shall constitute a lien against the lot or parcel of land against which the assessment has been imposed as of noon on the first Monday in March immediately preceding the date of levy.

SEC. 7. Section 61765.6 is added to the Government Code, to read:

61765.6. The county tax collector shall include the amount of the assessments on bills for taxes levied against the respective lots and parcels of land. Thereafter the amount of the assessments shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner and by the same persons as, together with and not separately from, the general taxes for the district, and shall be delinquent at the same time and thereafter be subject to the same delinquency penalties. All laws applicable to the levy, collection and enforcement of general taxes of the district, including, but not limited to, those pertaining to the matters of delinquency, correction, cancellation, refund and redemption, are applicable to such assessments.

SEC. 8. It is the intent of the Legislature that water standby and availability charges that are authorized to be charged in community services districts be made comparable to those authorized to be charged in other districts, including county water districts, in order to promote consolidation and reducing the number of special services districts, and be made generally applicable to all districts, including those reorganized.

SEC. 9. This act is an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Recently several county water districts have been reorganized into, or annexed to existing, community services districts for purposes of consolidating entities and reducing the number of local agencies. In order to avoid the loss of significant parts of their income from water availability charges because of the significantly lower parcel rate applicable to community services districts and to allow existing programs to continue without the necessity of tax increase, it is necessary that the provisions of this act go into effect immediately.

An act to amend Section 5002.3 of the Public Resources Code, relating to the state park system, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 28, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State June 29, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5002.3 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

5002.3. A public hearing shall be scheduled by the State Park and Recreation Commission to consider each matter of classification or reclassification of a unit and of approval of the department's resource management plan and general development plan for a unit. Notice of hearing shall be posted in plain sight at one or more places within the affected unit, published in one or more newspapers of general circulation in each county within which the affected unit is located, and mailed to every person who has filed a request for notice of hearing with the State Park and Recreation Commission. If the notice of hearing is published in a weekly newspaper, it shall appear therein on at least two different days of publication and if in a newspaper published oftener, there shall be at least five days from the first to the last day of publication, both days included. The content of the notice of hearing shall substantially comply with the requirements of Section 11424 of the Government Code.

Copies of the department's inventory, in the case of a hearing on classification or reclassification, or copies of the department's resource management plan and general development plan, in the case of a hearing on approval of the plans, shall be made available to the public at each of the department's district offices on the last date of publication of the notice.

The hearing shall be held by the State Park and Recreation Commission in, or within a radius of 100 miles of, the City of San Diego, Los Angeles, San Francisco, San Bernardino, Eureka, Redding, Fresno, or Sacramento, whichever is closest to the unit affected, not less than 30 days, nor more than 60 days, after the last date of publication of the notice. However, the Cities of Eureka and Redding, and the area within a radius of 100 miles of each of these cities, shall be considered as a single location for hearings of the commission, and not more than one hearing in any year may be held at that location. The hearing shall be conducted in the manner specified in Section 11425 of the Government Code. The vote of each individual member of the State Park and Recreation Commission on each matter of classification or reclassification and of approval of the department's resource management plan and general development plan shall be recorded when the final decision of the State Park and Recreation Commission is announced.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Inasmuch as the State Park and Recreation Commission will conduct numerous hearings in 1977 that, due to limitations of existing law, cannot be held in the vicinity of the units of the state park system that will be affected by the hearings, it is necessary that this act, permitting the commission to meet at additional locations, take effect immediately.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 21115 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

21115. If a local authority finds that a highway under its jurisdiction is located adjacent to a golf course and between the golf course and the place where golf carts are parked or stored or is within or bounded by a real estate development offering golf facilities and is designed and constructed, so as to safely permit the use thereof of regular vehicular traffic and also the driving of golf carts thereon, the local authority may by resolution or ordinance designate such highway or portion thereof for such combined use and prescribe rules and regulations therefor which shall have the force of law. No such highway shall be so designated for a distance of more than one mile from the golf course if such highway is not located within such a development or beyond the area of such development, provided, the finding of the local authority in this respect shall be conclusive. Upon such designation becoming effective it shall be lawful to drive golf carts upon such highway in accordance with the rules and regulations prescribed as aforesaid. The rules and regulations shall not be effective until appropriate signs giving notice thereof are posted along the highway affected.

A "real estate development offering golf facilities," for purposes of this section, means an area of single-family or multiple-family residences, with a security gate, the owners or occupants of which are eligible for membership in, or the use of, one or more golf courses within such development by virtue of their ownership or occupancy of a residential dwelling unit in such development.

The department may establish and collect fees in an amount sufficient to defray the cost incurred by the department in administering the program of on-the-job training authorized by this section.

CHAPTER 129

An act to amend Section 72190 of the Government Code, relating to courts, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 28, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State June 29, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 72190 of the Government Code is amended to read:

72190. Within the jurisdiction of the court and under the direction of the judges, commissioners of municipal courts shall exercise all the powers and perform all of the duties authorized by law to be performed by commissioners of superior courts and such additional powers and duties as may be prescribed by law. At the direction of the judges, commissioners may have the same jurisdiction and exercise the same powers and duties as the judges of the court with respect to any infraction. The commissioners of municipal courts shall possess the same qualifications the law requires of a judge and shall hold office during the pleasure of the court appointing them and shall not engage in the private practice of law. They shall be ex officio deputy clerks.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a commissioner of a municipal court of any judicial district in Los Angeles County or San Diego County who has been duly appointed and has thereafter been retired for service, may be assigned by the presiding judge of a municipal court to serve as a court commissioner of such court for such periods of time as he is needed for the prompt and efficient discharge of the business of that court. While so serving, he shall be paid the full compensation of a court commissioner, payable as follows: He shall continue to receive his retirement allowance, and in addition the county shall pay him the amount equal to the difference between such retirement allowance and such full compensation. Such employment shall not operate to reinstate him as a member of the county retirement system or to terminate or suspend his retirement rights or allowance, and no deductions shall be made from his compensation as contributions to the retirement system.

SEC. 2. There are no state-mandated local costs in this act that require reimbursement under Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because there are no new duties, obligations, or responsibilities imposed on local government by this act.

SEC. 3. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the municipal courts in San Diego County are periodically understaffed and in need of assistance to adequately handle the caseload. This act, allowing San Diego County to hire retired court commissioners on an as-needed basis, will facilitate the smooth and efficient operation of the court system and the proper administration of justice. Accordingly, this legislation affecting San Diego County is necessary to permit the Legislature to carry out its constitutionally delegated responsibility of prescribing the number, qualifications, and compensation of municipal court officers.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to adequately handle the existing backlog of cases in the San Diego County municipal courts, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 137

An act to amend Section 1538.5 of the Penal Code, relating to suppression of evidence.

[Approved by Governor June 28, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State June 29, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1538.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1538.5. (a) A defendant may move for the return of property or to suppress as evidence any tangible or intangible thing obtained as a result of a search or seizure on either of the following grounds:

(1) The search or seizure without a warrant was unreasonable.

(2) The search or seizure with a warrant was unreasonable because (i) the warrant is insufficient on its face; (ii) the property or evidence obtained is not that described in the warrant; (iii) there was not probable cause for the issuance of the warrant; (iv) the method of execution of the warrant violated federal or state constitutional standards; (v) there was any other violation of federal or state constitutional standards.

(b) When consistent with the procedures set forth in this section and subject to the provisions of Section 170 through 170.6 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the motion should first be heard by the magistrate who issued the search warrant if there is a warrant.

(c) Whenever a search or seizure motion is made in the municipal, justice or superior court as provided in this section, the judge or magistrate shall receive evidence on any issue of fact necessary to determine the motion.

(d) If a search or seizure motion is granted pursuant to the proceedings authorized by this section, the property or evidence shall not be admissible against the movant at any trial or other hearing unless further proceedings authorized by this section or Section 1238 or Section 1466 are utilized by the people.

(e) If a search or seizure motion is granted at a trial, the property shall be returned upon order of the court unless it is otherwise subject to lawful detention. If the motion is granted at a special hearing, the property shall be returned upon order of the court only if, after the conclusion of any further proceedings authorized by this section or Section 1238 or Section 1466, the property is not subject to lawful detention or if the time for initiating such proceedings has expired, whichever occurs last. If the motion is granted at a preliminary hearing, the property shall be returned upon order of court after 10 days unless the property is otherwise subject to lawful detention or unless, within that time, further proceedings authorized by this section or Section 1238 are utilized; if they are utilized, the property shall be returned only if, after the conclusion of such proceedings, the property is no longer subject to lawful detention.

(f) If the property or evidence relates to a felony offense initiated by a complaint, the motion may be made in the municipal or justice court at the preliminary hearing.

(g) If the property or evidence relates to a misdemeanor complaint, the motion shall be made in the municipal or justice court before trial and heard prior to trial at a special hearing relating to the validity of the search or seizure. If the property or evidence relates to a misdemeanor filed together with a felony, the procedure provided for a felony in this section and Sections 1238 and 1539 shall be applicable.

(h) If, prior to the trial of a felony or misdemeanor, opportunity for this motion did not exist or the defendant was not aware of the grounds for the motion, the defendant shall have the right to make this motion during the course of trial in the municipal, justice or superior court.

(i) If the property or evidence obtained relates to a felony offense initiated by complaint and the defendant was held to answer at the preliminary hearing, or if the property or evidence relates to a felony offense initiated by indictment, the defendant shall have the right to renew or make the motion in the superior court at a special hearing relating to the validity of the search or seizure which shall be heard prior to trial and at least 10 days after notice to the people unless the people are willing to waive a portion of this time. The defendant shall have the right to litigate the validity of a search or seizure de novo on the basis of the evidence presented at a special hearing. After the special hearing is held in the superior court, any review thereafter desired by the defendant prior to trial shall be by means of an extraordinary writ of mandate or prohibition filed within 30 days after the denial of his motion at the special hearing.

(j) If the property or evidence relates to a felony offense initiated by complaint and the defendant's motion for the return of the property or suppression of the evidence at the preliminary hearing is granted, and if the defendant is not held to answer at the preliminary hearing, the people may file a new complaint or seek an indictment after the preliminary hearing, and the ruling at the prior hearing shall not be binding in any subsequent proceeding. If the property or evidence relates to a felony offense initiated by complaint and the defendant's motion for the return or suppression of the property or evidence at the preliminary hearing is granted, and if the defendant is held to answer at the preliminary hearing, the ruling at the preliminary hearing shall be binding upon the people unless, upon notice to the defendant and the court in which the preliminary hearing was held and upon the filing of an information, the people within 15 days after the preliminary hearing request in the superior court a special hearing, in which case the validity of the search or seizure shall be relitigated de novo on the basis of the evidence presented at the special hearing, and the defendant shall be entitled, as a matter of right, to a continuance of the special hearing for a period of time up to 30 days. If defendant's motion is granted at a special hearing in the superior court, the people, if they have additional evidence relating to the motion and not presented at the special hearing, shall have the right to show good cause at the trial why such evidence was not presented at the special hearing and why the prior ruling at the special hearing should not be binding, or the people may seek appellate review as provided in subdivision (o), unless the court prior to the time such review is sought has dismissed the case pursuant to Section 1385. If the property or evidence seized relates solely to a misdemeanor complaint, and the defendant made a motion for the return of property or the suppression of evidence in the municipal court or justice court prior to trial, both the people and defendant shall have the right to appeal any decision of that court relating to that motion to the superior court of the county in which such inferior court is located, in accordance with the California Rules of Court provisions governing appeals from municipal and justice courts in criminal cases. If the people prosecute review by appeal or writ to decision, or any review thereof, in a felony or misdemeanor case, it shall be binding upon them.

(k) If the defendant's motion to return property or suppress evidence is granted and the case is dismissed pursuant to Section 1385, or the people appeal in a misdemeanor case pursuant to subdivision (j), the defendant shall be released pursuant to Section 1318 if he is in custody and not returned to custody unless the proceedings are resumed in the trial court and he is lawfully ordered by the court to be returned to custody.

If the defendant's motion to return property or suppress evidence is granted and the people file a petition for writ of mandate or prohibition pursuant to subdivision (o) or a notice of intention to file such a petition, the defendant shall be released pursuant to Section 1318 unless (1) he is charged with a capital offense in a case where the proof is evident and the presumption great, or (2) he is charged with a noncapital offense defined in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 187) of Title 8 of Part 1 and the court orders that the defendant be discharged from actual custody upon bail.

(l) If the defendant's motion to return property or suppress evidence is granted, the trial of a criminal case shall be stayed to a specified date pending the termination in the appellate courts of this state of the proceedings provided for in this section, Section 1238, or Section 1466 and, except upon stipulation of the parties, pending the time for the initiation of such proceedings. Upon the termination of such proceedings, the defendant shall be brought to trial as provided by Section 1382, and subject to the provisions of Section 1382, whenever the people have sought and been denied appellate review pursuant to subdivision (o), the defendant shall be entitled to have the action dismissed if he is not brought to trial within 30 days of the date of the order which is the last denial of the petition. Nothing contained in this subdivision shall prohibit a court, at the same time as it rules upon the search and seizure motion, from dismissing a case pursuant to Section 1385 when such dismissal is upon the court's own motion and is based upon an order at the special hearing granting defendant's motion to return property or suppress evidence. In a misdemeanor case, the defendant shall be entitled to a continuance of up to 30 days if he intends to file a motion to return property or suppress evidence and needs this time to prepare for the special hearing on the motion. In case of an appeal by the defendant in a misdemeanor case from the denial of such motion, he shall be entitled to bail as a matter of right, and, in the discretion of the trial or appellate court, may be released on his own recognizance pursuant to Section 1318.4.

(m) The proceedings provided for in this section, Section 995, Section 1238, and Section 1466 shall constitute the sole and exclusive remedies prior to conviction to test the unreasonableness of a search or seizure where the person making the motion for the return of property or the suppression of evidence is a defendant in a criminal case and the property or thing has been offered or will be offered as evidence against him. A defendant may seek further review of the validity of a search or seizure on appeal from a conviction in a criminal case notwithstanding the fact that such judgment of conviction is predicated upon a plea of guilty. Such review on appeal may be obtained by the defendant providing that at some stage of the proceedings prior to conviction he has moved for the return of property or the suppression of the evidence.

(n) Nothing contained in this section shall prohibit a person from making a motion, otherwise permitted by law, to return property, brought on the ground that the property obtained is protected by the free speech and press provisions of the Federal and State Constitutions. Nothing in this section shall be construed as altering (i) the law of standing to raise the issue of an unreasonable search or seizure; (ii) the law relating to the status of the person conducting the search or seizure; (iii) the law relating to the burden of proof regarding the search or seizure; (iv) the law relating to the reasonableness of a search or seizure regardless of any warrant which may have been utilized; or (v) the procedure and law relating to a motion made pursuant to Section 995 or the procedures which may be initiated after the granting or denial of such a motion.

(o) Within 30 days after a defendant's motion is granted at a special hearing in the superior court, the people may file a petition for writ of mandate or prohibition, seeking appellate review of the ruling regarding the search or seizure motion. If the trial of a criminal case is set for a date which is less than 30 days from the granting of a defendant's motion at a special hearing in the superior court, the people, if they have not filed such a petition and wish to preserve their right to file such a petition, shall file in the superior court on or before the trial date or within 10 days after the special hearing, whichever occurs last, a notice of intention to file such a petition and shall serve a copy of the notice upon the defendant.

In case of real property or a leasehold estate therein: by posting a similar notice particularly describing the property at least 20 days before the date of sale, in one public place in the city where the property is to be sold, if the property is to be sold in a city, or, if not, then in one public place in the judicial district in which the property is to be sold and publishing a copy thereof once a week for the same period, in some newspaper of general circulation published in the city in which the property or the real property in which such a leasehold estate was demised or some part thereof is situated, if any part thereof is situated in a city, if not, then in some newspaper of general circulation published in the judicial district in which the property or some part thereof is situated, or, in case no newspaper of general circulation is published in the city or judicial district, as the case may be, in some newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which the property or some part thereof is situated and at least 20 days before the date of sale by mailing by certified mail a notice of the time and place of sale to the judgment debtor at his business or residence address last known to the judgment creditor or his attorney or delivering such notice to the judgment debtor. It shall be the duty of the party delivering an execution to an officer for levy to furnish the information required by the levying officer to comply with the provisions of this subdivision. Where real property is to be sold under execution upon a judgment a copy of said notice shall be posted in some conspicuous place on the property to be sold, at least 20 days before date of sale, and where a leasehold estate in real property is to be sold under execution upon a judgment a copy of said notice shall be posted in some conspicuous place on the real property in which such a leasehold estate was demised, at least 20 days before date of sale. In addition to particularly describing the property, the notice shall describe the property by giving its street address, if any, or other common designation, if any; but if the property has no street address or other common designation, the notice shall contain the name and address of the beneficiary at whose request the sale is to be conducted and a statement that directions may be obtained pursuant to a written request submitted to the beneficiary within 10 days from the first publication of such notice. Directions shall be deemed reasonably sufficient to locate the property if information as to the location of the property is given by reference to the direction and approximate distance from the nearest crossroads, frontage road, or access road. If a legal description of the property is given, the validity of the notice and the validity of the sale shall not be affected by the fact that the street address, other common designation, name and address of the beneficiary, or the directions obtained therefrom are erroneous or that the street address, other common designation, name and address of the beneficiary or directions obtained therefrom are omitted. The term newspaper of general circulation as used herein is as defined in Article 1 (commencing with Section 6000) of Chapter 1, Division 7, Title 1 of the Government Code. The term "judgment debtor" does not include a trustor or mortgagor.

4. When the judgment under which the property is to be sold is made payable in a specified kind of money or currency, the several notices required by this section must state the kind of money or currency in which bids may be made at such sale, which must be the same as that specified in the judgment.

(a) An adjusted gross income over five thousand dollars ($5,000) if single without preference income;

(b) An adjusted gross income of over ten thousand dollars ($10,000) if married without preference income; or

18402. If a husband and wife have for the taxable year an aggregate adjusted gross income of over ten thousand dollars ($10,000) without preference income, or an aggregate gross income of over twelve thousand dollars ($12,000), or a total amount of the preference items in excess of eight thousand dollars ($8,000)—

(a) Each shall make such a return, or

The above exception shall not apply if the surviving spouse remarries before the close of his or her taxable year, nor if the taxable year of either spouse is a fractional part of a year under Section 17553.

(c) In the case of the death of one spouse or both spouses the joint return with respect to the decedent may be made only by the decedent's executor or administrator; except that in the case of the death of one spouse the joint return may be made by the surviving spouse if (1) no return for the taxable year has been made by the decedent, (2) no executor or administrator has been appointed, and (3) no executor or administrator is appointed before the last day prescribed by law for filing the return of the surviving spouse. If an executor or administrator of the decedent is appointed after the making of the joint return by the surviving spouse, the executor or administrator may disaffirm such joint return by making, within one year after the last day prescribed by law for filing the return of the surviving spouse, a separate return for the taxable year of the decedent with respect to which the joint return was made, in which case the return made by the survivor shall constitute his or her separate return.

SEC. 3. This act shall be operative with respect to taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1977.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate efffect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The present critical energy situation has focused public attention on energy uses, resources, and the prospects for meeting both existing and future energy demands. It is necessary to resolve uncertainties as to the legal power of municipal water districts and county water authorities to design, construct and operate hydroelectric power generation plants or units at locations on their water distribution systems wherever it is determined to be feasible, which plants or units will utilize presently existing hydraulic power that now is wasted in connection with the operation of the systems, and thus contribute to the energy supply of the state and the nation, electric power that otherwise would not exist. In order that this new source of electric power can be provided at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

(d) If the assessee establishes to the satisfaction of the board that the failure to file the property statement or any of its parts within the time required by this section was due to reasonable cause and occurred notwithstanding the exercise of ordinary care and the absence of willful neglect, the board shall order the penalty abated, provided the assessee has filed with the board written application for abatement of the penalty within the time prescribed by law for the filing of applications for assessment reductions.

SEC. 6. Article 4 (commencing with Section 866) of Chapter 4 of Part 2 of Division 1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Article 4 (commencing with Section 861) is added to Chapter 4 of Part 2 of Division 1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

Article 4. State Assessed Property Escaping Assessment

861. If any property subject to assessment by the board pursuant to Section 19 of Article XIII of the Constitution escapes assessment, the board shall assess it in accordance with Section 864 at its value on the lien date of the year in which it escaped assessment.

862. When an assessee, after a request by the board, fails to file a property statement or files with the board a property statement or report on a form prescribed by the board with respect to state-assessed property and the statement fails to report any taxable tangible property information accurately, regardless of whether or not this information is available to the assessee, to the extent that such failures cause the board not to assess the property or to assess it at a lower valuation than it would have had the property information been reported accurately, the property shall be assessed in accordance with Section 864, and a penalty of 10 percent shall be added to the additional assessment. If the failure to report or the failure to report accurately is willful or fraudulent, a penalty of 25 percent shall be added to the additional assessment.

863. If any state assessee or his agent willfully conceals, fails to disclose, removes, transfers, or misrepresents state-assessed property in order to evade taxation and this action results in state-assessed property escaping assessment, or if any state assessee or his agent through fraudulent act or fraudulent omission or through collusion between the state assessee or his agent and the board, its officers, or employees causes any state-assessed property to escape assessment, a penalty shall be imposed as follows:

(a) Insofar as values escaping assessment are part of the unit value, 25 percent of the additional unit assessed value shall be added to the unallocated unit assessment.

(b) Insofar as the values escaping assessment relate to the assessment of nonunitary property, 25 percent of the additional assessment shall be added to the nonunitary assessment.

864. Property which is found to have escaped assessment may either be added to the roll for the fiscal year in which it is discovered or included with the assessments for the succeeding fiscal year. Such property shall be taxed at the rates applicable to assessments on the roll to which it is added.

865. When the value of a state assessee's unitary property that lies in more than one tax-rate area has been underallocated to one or more tax-rate areas and overallocated by a like amount to one or more other tax-rate areas for any reason, the misallocation shall be corrected by the board either by orders directing local auditors to amend the rolls for the fiscal year in which the misallocation is discovered or by changes on the board rolls for the fiscal year succeeding discovery.

866. Any assessment to which the penalty provided in Section 863 must be added shall be made within six years of July 1 of the assessment year in which the property escaped assessment. Any other escaped assessment shall be made within four years of July 1 of the assessment year in which the property escaped assessment.

867. An assessment made pursuant to this article against real property for the year or years in which such real property escaped assessment shall not create or impose a lien or charge on such real property for taxes, interest, or penalty if (1) such real property has been transferred or conveyed to a bona fide purchaser for value prior to the date of such assessment and the showing thereof on the secured roll with the date of entry specified thereon; or (2) such real property is subject to a lien of a bona fide encumbrance for value created and attaching prior to the date of such assessment and the showing thereof on the secured roll with the date of entry specified thereon. In such cases, the assessor or tax collector may record with the county recorder of any county a certificate which shall set forth the name of the person who would have been the assessee in the year in which such real property escaped assessment and the amount or amounts of any such assessments and penalties. From the date of the recording of such certificate, a lien shall be created and shall attach against any real property owned by such person in the county or counties in which any such certificates may have been recorded, which lien shall have the force, effect and priority of a judgment lien.

The tax collector, with the approval of the board of supervisors, may at any time release all or any portion of real property subject to any lien created or attaching by the recording of such a certificate from such lien or subordinate such lien to other liens and encumbrances if he determines that the assessment or taxes are sufficiently secured by a lien on other property belonging to the person named in such a certificate or that the release or subordination will not endanger or jeopardize the collection of such assessment or taxes.

A written certification by the tax collector to the effect that real property subject to any lien imposed by the recording of the certificate as hereinbefore provided has been released from such lien or that such lien has been subordinated to other liens shall be conclusive evidence as to any bona fide purchaser, encumbrancer, or lessee that such lien has been released or has been subordinated as set forth in such written certification. Such written certification may be recorded with the county recorder of any county.

SEC. 8. Article 5 (commencing with Section 891) of Chapter 4 of Part 2 of Division 1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

Such bond shall be subject to the provisions of Sections 1662, 1663 and 1664.

The commissioner shall charge and collect in advance a fee of two hundred dollars ($200) for filing each application for a license to act as a surplus line broker.

CHAPTER 149

An act to amend Sections 45119, 45120 and 45319 of, and to add Section 45120.1 to, the Education Code, relating to school employees, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 28, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State June 29, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 45119 of the Education Code is amended to read:

45119. Whenever, by reason of any reorganization, other than the unification of districts, all or part of the territory of any school district which has adopted the merit system is included within any district, or in any new district, the governing board of the acquiring or new district shall adopt such merit system if a simple majority of the classified employees of the reorganized district voting on the adoption of a merit system approve its adoption pursuant to Section 45221. If no such election is requested by the classified employees of the reorganized district pursuant to Section 45221, adoption of a merit system shall be effective only if the number of classified employees from the merit system district who are to become employees of the acquiring district equals or exceeds the number of classified employees of the acquiring nonmerit system district. In the event that any district simultaneously acquires all or part of the territory of two or more districts which have previously adopted the merit system, the governing board of the acquiring or new district shall adopt a merit system containing such provisions as are necessary to afford to all employees the rights guaranteed by this section if a simple majority of the classified employees of the reorganized district voting on the adoption of a merit system approve its adoption pursuant to Section 45221. If no such election is requested by the classified employees of the reorganized district pursuant to Section 45221, adoption of a merit system shall be effective only if the number of classified employees from the merit system district who are to become employees of the acquiring district equals or exceeds the number of classified employees of the acquiring nonmerit system district. The employees of the reorganized or new district shall retain all rights and privileges as if they had been employed under the provisions of Article 6 (commencing with Section 45240) of this chapter, with seniority commencing as of the date of original employment in their original district. Where there are more than a sufficient number of employees for a given classification under the provisions of Article 6 (commencing with Section 45240) of this chapter, such personnel shall be retained in employment for a period of not less than two years as if the reorganization had not occurred but without prejudice to the powers of the personnel commission and governing board of the reorganized district to reasonably reassign such persons. If at the expiration of such period, upon a finding made by the personnel commission that there are excess personnel in any given classification, such personnel shall, if the governing board so directs, be placed upon appropriate reemployment lists for 39 months and, if so placed, shall be offered and may accept positions of lower rank in their line of promotion in the order of seniority as established by this section in accordance with rules drawn in compliance with the provisions of Article 6 (commencing with Section 45240) of the chapter. The acceptance of a position in lower rank in accordance herewith shall not be deemed to constitute a waiver of the right to reemployment at the original level should a vacancy at such level occur within the period mentioned in this section.

SEC. 2. Section 45120 of the Education Code is amended to read:

45120. If all or any part of any district or districts which is unified with all or any part of a district, has, or have, the merit system prior to the date of the reorganization election, all employees not legally requiring certification qualifications of the reorganized district shall be employed in accordance with Article 6 (commencing with Section 45240) of this chapter if a simple majority of the classified employees of the reorganized district voting on the adoption of a merit system approve its adoption pursuant to Section 45221. If no such election is requested by the classified employees of the reorganized district pursuant to Section 45221, adoption of a merit system shall be effective only if the number of classified employees from the merit system district who are to become employees of the acquiring district equals or exceeds the number of classified employees of the acquiring nonmerit system district. If on the date of such reorganization election, two or more of the said defined districts of such reorganized district have merit systems, the reorganized district shall adopt a single merit system which shall contain all provisions necessary to secure to all employees the rights guaranteed by Section 45121 of this code.

Seniority of the personnel of the reorganized district shall be established as of the date of original employment in the district or districts as defined above. Where there are more than a sufficient number of employees for a given classification under the provisions of Article 6 (commencing with Section 45240) of this chapter, such personnel shall be retained in employment for a period of not less than two years as if the reorganization had not occurred but without prejudice to the powers of the personnel commission and the governing board of the new unified district to reasonably reassign such person. If at the expiration of such period, upon a finding made by the personnel commission that there are excess personnel in any given classification, such personnel shall, if the governing board so directs, be placed upon appropriate reemployment lists for 39 months, and shall, if so placed, be offered and may accept positions of lower rank in their line of promotion in the order of seniority as established by this section in accordance with rules drawn in compliance with the provisions of Article 6 (commencing with Section 45240) of this chapter. The acceptance of a position in lower rank in accordance herewith shall not be deemed to constitute a waiver of the right to reemployment at the original level should a vacancy at such level occur within the period mentioned in this section.

SEC. 3. Section 45120.1 is added to the Education Code, to read:

45120.1. Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 45119 and 45120, when any school district involved in any reorganization, annexation, unionization, merger, or unification is not required to adopt the merit system, the classified employees of such district who formerly were employed by a district having the merit system shall retain for a period of two years the salary, benefits, seniority, and other rights which they would have had had the reorganization not occurred.

SEC. 4. Section 45319 of the Education Code is amended to read:

45319. If the governing board of a school district receives a written petition of qualified electors not less in number than 10 percent of the number voting in the last election for a member of the governing board calling for the termination of the merit (civil service) system and the system has been in operation for not less than five years or has been imposed pursuant to the terms of Section 45119 or 45120, the governing board shall order the county superintendent of schools to place the question of termination of the system on the ballot at the next regular governing board member election, or the next primary or general election in a general election year, whichever is the earlier after receipt by the county superintendent of schools.

The statement of purpose of the election shall read.

"Shall the merit (civil service) system for school employees not requiring certification qualifications, as provided for in Article 6 (commencing with Section 45240) of Chapter 5 of Part 25, of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Education Code of the State of California, and which has been in operation for at least five years, be terminated by the _____ School District of _____ County (or counties, where appropriate) on _____ (date to be specified by governing board)?"

The petition calling for the election, to be valid, must contain the statement of purpose for the election as contained in this section.

SEC. 5. This act shall apply to any action to reorganize a district which was completed in or after 1976 and which is to become effective on or after July 1, 1977.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect The facts constituting such necessity are·

In 1976 in at least one school district in the state, the voters approved a transfer of territory from one district having the merit system to another not having the merit system. Approximately 10 employees from the district whose territory is being transferred would become employees of the acquiring district. The acquiring school district employs approximately 700 classified employees. Unless this act becomes operative immediately, the acquiring district will be forced by operation of law without the approval of the classified employees of that district to adopt the merit system for all its classified employees. In order to avoid this unfortunate result, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 150

An act to amend Section 1141 of the Probate Code, relating to public administration of decedents' estates.

[Approved by Governor June 28, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State June 29, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1141 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

1141. When a public administrator takes charge of an estate of a decedent which he is entitled to administer, without letters of administration being issued, or under order of the court, as provided in this chapter, he may make an immediate search for a will and burial instructions of the decedent if none have theretofore been produced, and in furtherance thereof shall, upon his furnishing written certification that there are reasonable grounds to believe that he is entitled to administer the estate, be granted access to any safe deposit box held in the sole name of the decedent by the bank, corporation, or other financial institution which rented the box to the decedent, for inspection and the removal of any will or burial instructions found. Any costs or expenses which may be incurred for drilling or forcing the safe deposit box shall be borne by the estate of the decedent. If a will is found, the public administrator or custodian shall forthwith deliver it to the clerk of the superior court having jurisdiction of the estate or to the executor named therein in like manner as a custodian is required to do by Section 320. If burial instructions are found, he shall forthwith deliver the instructions to the person or persons upon whom the right to control disposition of the decedent's remains and the duty of his interment devolves, as established by Section 7100 of the Health and Safety Code. If he is entitled to administer the estate, he must, with all convenient dispatch, procure letters of administration thereon, in like manner and on like proceedings as letters of administration are issued to other persons. His official bond and oath are in lieu of the administrator's or executor's bond and oath on the grant of special letters of administration, or general letters of administration, or letters of administration with the will annexed, or letters testamentary; but when real property is sold, another bond may be required by the court, as in the case of other administrators. The receipt of the written certification provided by this section shall constitute sufficient acquittance for granting access to the decedent's safe deposit box and for the removal therefrom of the decedent's will and burial instructions, if any, and shall fully discharge the bank, corporation, or other financial institution which rented the box to the decedent from any liability for granting such access or for any act or omission of the public administrator with reference thereto, without the necessity of inquiring into the truth of any of the facts stated in the certification.

[Approved by Governor June 28, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State June 29, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

An act to amend Section 688 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to enforcement of judgments, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 28, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State June 29, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 688 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

688. (a) All goods, chattels, moneys or other property, both real and personal, or any interest therein, of the judgment debtor, not exempt by law, and all property and rights of property levied upon under attachment in the action, are subject to execution.

(b) All property subject to execution may be levied upon or released from levy in like manner as like property may be levied upon or released from attachment, except that tangible personal property in the possession of the judgment debtor shall always be levied upon in the manner provided by subdivision (c). Notwithstanding the provisions of Title 6.5 (commencing with Section 481.010), service on the judgment debtor of a copy of the writ of execution shall be made either by personal delivery or by mail to the judgment debtor at the address furnished by the judgment creditor. To levy upon any property or debt owed to the judgment debtor which is subject to execution but for which a method of levy of attachment is not provided, the levying officer shall serve upon the person in possession of such property or owing such debt, or his agent (1) a copy of the writ of execution and (2) a notice that such property or debt is levied upon in pursuance of such writ.

(c) Tangible personal property in the possession of the judgment debtor shall be levied upon by taking such property into custody. Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, where a levying officer is directed to take property into custody, the levying officer may do so either by removing the property to a place of safekeeping or by installing a keeper. Personal property that is used as a dwelling, such as a housetrailer, mobilehome, or vessel, shall be levied upon by placing a keeper in charge of the property, at the judgment creditor's expense, for at least two days. At the expiration of such period, the levying officer shall remove the occupants and take exclusive custody of the personal property used as a dwelling, unless other disposition is made by the court or agreed upon by the judgment creditor and the judgment debtor. If the judgment debtor consents, personal property of a going business (other than money or a vehicle required to be registered under the Vehicle Code) shall be levied upon by placing a keeper in charge of such property, at the judgment creditor's expense, for at least two days. During such period, the judgment debtor may continue to operate in the ordinary course of business at the judgment debtor's expense provided that all sales are final and are for cash or the equivalent of cash. For the purpose of this subdivision, payment by check is the equivalent of cash payment. The levying officer is not liable for accepting payment in the form of a cash equivalent. The proceeds from all sales shall be given to the keeper for the purposes of the levy unless otherwise authorized by the judgment creditor. At the conclusion of the period during which the business may continue to operate, the levying officer shall take the property into exclusive custody unless other disposition is made by the court or agreed upon by the judgment creditor and the judgment debtor.

(d) Until a levy, no property shall be affected by issuance of a writ of execution or its delivery to the levying officer.

(e) No levy shall bind any property for a longer period than one year from the date of the issuance of the execution, except a levy on the interests or claims of heirs, devises, or legatees in or to assets of deceased persons remaining in the hands of executors or administrators thereof prior to distribution and payment. However, an alias execution may be issued on said judgment and levied on any property not exempt from execution.

(f) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), no cause of action nor judgment as such, nor license issued by this state to engage in any business, profession, or activity, shall be subject to levy or sale on execution.

(g) When a check, draft, money order, or other order for the withdrawal of money from a banking corporation or association, the United States, any state, or any public entity within any state, payable to the defendant on demand, comes into the possession of a levying officer under a writ of execution, the provisions of Section 488.520 are applicable.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

An amendment of Section 688 of the Code of Civil Procedure which became operative on January 1, 1977, has created uncertainty as to whether personal property of a going business levied on pursuant to a writ of execution must, if the judgment debtor consents, be levied upon by placing a keeper in charge of the property levied upon for a limited period of time. Because this uncertainty is likely to lead to a lack of uniformity in the procedures followed in the various counties and may operate to the detriment of judgment debtors by depriving them of a grace period within which to work out some arrangement with the judgment creditor which will avoid seizure of the property of the business, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

An act to add and repeal Article 3.6 (commencing with Section 177) to Chapter 1 of Division 1 of Title 1 of the Government Code, relating to the Interstate Civil Defense and Disaster Compact, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 29, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State June 29, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 3.6 (commencing with Section 177) is added to Chapter 1 of Division 1 of Title 1 of the Government Code, to read:

Article 3.6. Interstate Civil Defense and Disaster Compact

177. The Interstate Civil Defense and Disaster Compact as set forth in Section 178 executed between the State of California, through its then Governor, Earl Warren, on December 10, 1951, and other states which are parties to the compact, is hereby ratified and approved.

178. The provisions of the Interstate Civil Defense and Disaster Compact between the State of California and other states which are parties to the compact referred to in Section 177 are as follows:

The State of California, through its Governor, duly authorized, solemnly agrees with any other state or territory of the United States which is or may become a party to this compact, as follows:

Article 1. The purpose of this compact is to provide mutual aid among the states in meeting any emergency or disaster from enemy attack or other cause (natural or otherwise) including sabotage and subversive acts and direct attacks by bombs, shellfire, and atomic, radiological, chemical, bacteriological means, and other weapons. The prompt, full and effective utilization of the resources of the respective states, including such resources as may be available from the United States Government or any other source, are essential to the safety, care and welfare of the people thereof in the event of enemy action or other emergency, and any other resources, including personnel, equipment or supplies, shall be incorporated into a plan or plans of mutual aid to be developed among the civil defense agencies or similar bodies of the states that are parties hereto. The directors of civil defense of all party states shall constitute a committee to formulate plans and take all necessary steps for the implementation of this compact.

Article 2. It shall be the duty of each party state to formulate civil defense plans and programs for application within such state. There shall be frequent consultation between the representatives of the states and with the United States Government and the free exchange of information and plans, including inventories of any materials and equipment available for civil defense. In carrying out such civil defense plans and programs the party states shall so far as possible provide and follow uniform standards, practices and rules and regulations including:

(a) Insignia, arm bands and any other distinctive articles to designate and distinguish the different civil defense services;

(b) Blackouts and practice blackouts, air raid drills, mobilization of civil defense forces and other tests and exercises;

(c) Warnings and signals for drills or attacks and the mechanical devices to be used in connection therewith;

(d) The effective screening or extinguishing of all lights and lighting devices and appliances;

(e) Shutting off water mains, gas mains, electric power connections and the suspension of all other utility services;

(f) All materials or equipment used or to be used for civil defense purposes in order to assure that such materials and equipment will be easily and freely interchangeable when used in or by any other party state;

(g) The conduct of civilians and the movement and cessation of movement of pedestrians and vehicular traffic, prior, during, and subsequent to drills or attacks;

(h) The safety of public meetings or gatherings; and

(i) Mobile support units.

Article 3. Any party state requested to render mutual aid shall take such action as is necessary to provide and make available the resources covered by this compact in accordance with the terms hereof; provided that it is understood that the state rendering aid may withhold resources to the extent necessary to provide reasonable protection for such state. Each party state shall extend to the civil defense forces of any other party state, while operating within its state limits under the terms and conditions of this compact, the same powers (except that of arrest unless specifically authorized by the receiving state), duties, rights, privileges and immunities as if they were performing their duties in the state in which normally employed or rendering services. Civil defense forces will continue under the command and control of their regular leaders but the organizational units will come under the operational control of the civil defense authorities of the state receiving assistance.

Article 4. Whenever any person holds a license, certificate or other permit issued by any state evidencing the meeting of qualifications for professional, mechanical or other skills, such person may render aid involving such skill in any party state to meet an emergency or disaster and such state shall give due recognition to such license, certificate or other permit as if issued in the state in which aid is rendered.

Article 5. No party state or its officers or employees rendering aid in another state pursuant to this compact shall be liable on account of any act or omission in good faith on the part of such forces while so engaged, or on account of the maintenance or use of any equipment or supplies in connection therewith.

Article 6. Inasmuch as it is probable that the pattern and detail of the machinery for mutual aid among two or more states may differ from that appropriate among other states party hereto, this instrument contains elements of a broad base common to all states, and nothing herein contained shall preclude any state from entering into supplementary agreements with another state or states. Such supplementary agreements may comprehend, but shall not be limited to, provisions for evacuation and reception of injured and other persons, and the exchange of medical, fire, police, public utility, reconnaissance, welfare, transportation and communications personnel, equipment and supplies.

Article 7. Each party state shall provide for the payment of compensation and death benefits to injured members of the civil defense forces of that state and the representatives of deceased members of such forces in case such members sustain injuries or are killed while rendering aid pursuant to this compact, in the same manner and on the same terms as if the injury or death were sustained within such state.

Article 8. Any party state rendering aid in another state pursuant to this compact shall be reimbursed by the party state receiving such aid for any loss or damage to, or expense incurred in the operation of, any equipment answering a request for aid, and for the cost incurred in connection with such requests; provided, that any aiding party state may assume in whole or in part such loss, damage, expense, or other cost, or may loan such equipment or donate such services to the receiving party state without charge or cost; and provided further that any two or more party states may enter into supplementary agreements establishing a different allocation of costs as among those states. The United States Government may relieve the party state receiving aid from any liability and reimburse the party state supplying civil defense forces for the compensation paid to and the transportation, subsistence and maintenance expenses of such forces during the time of the rendition of such aid or assistance outside the state and may also pay fair and reasonable compensation for the use or utilization of the supplies, materials, equipment or facilities so utilized or consumed.

Article 9. Plans for the orderly evacuation and reception of the civilian population as the result of an emergency or disaster shall be worked out from time to time between representatives of the party states and the various local civil defense areas thereof. Such plans shall include the manner of transporting such evacuees, the number of evacuees to be received in different areas, the manner in which food, clothing, housing, and medical care will be provided, the registration of the evacuees, the providing of facilities for the notification of relatives or friends, and the forwarding of such evacuees to other areas or the bringing in of additional materials, supplies, and all other relevant factors. Such plans shall provide that the party state receiving evacuees shall be reimbursed generally for the out-of-pocket expenses incurred in receiving and caring for such evacuees, and for expenditures for transportation, food, clothing, medicines and medical care and like items. Such expenditures shall be reimbursed by the party state of which the evacuees are residents, or by the United States Government under plans approved by it. After the termination of the emergency or disaster the party state of which the evacuees are resident shall assume the responsibility for the ultimate support or repatriation of such evacuees.

Article 10. This compact shall be available to any state, territory or possession of the United States, and the District of Columbia. The term "state" may also include any neighboring foreign country or province or state thereof.

Article 11. The committee established pursuant to Article 1 of this compact may request the Civil Defense Agency of the United States Government to act as an informational and coordinating body under this compact, and representatives of such agency of the United States Government may attend meetings of such committee.

Article 12. This compact shall become operative immediately upon its ratification by any state as between it and any other state or states so ratifying and shall be subject to approval by Congress unless prior congressional approval has been given. Duly authenticated copies of this compact and of such supplementary agreements as may be entered into shall, at the time of their approval, be deposited with each of the party states and with the Civil Defense Agency and other appropriate agencies of the United States Government.

Article 13. This compact shall continue in force and remain binding on each party state until the Legislature or the Governor of such party state takes action to withdraw therefrom. Such action shall not be effective until 30 days after notice thereof has been sent by the Governor of the party state desiring to withdraw to the Governors of all other party states.

Article 14. This compact shall be construed to effectuate the purposes stated in Article 1 hereof. If any provision of this compact is declared unconstitutional, or the applicability thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the constitutionality of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Done at the State Capitol in Sacramento, this 10th day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty one.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I hereby affix my signature, pursuant to the authority vested in me by law as Governor of the State of California.

Signed Earl Warren, Governor

178.5. In addition to any other authority conferred upon him, the Governor is authorized and may execute for, on behalf of, and in the name of the State of California, the provisions of Article XV to the Interstate Civil Defense and Disaster Compact, which provisions provide as follows:

Article XV. (a) This article shall be in effect only as among those states which have enacted it into law or in which the governors have adopted it pursuant to constitutional or statutory authority sufficient to give it the force of law as part of this compact. Nothing contained in this article or in any supplementary agreement made in implementation thereof shall be construed to abridge, impair or supersede any other provision of this compact or any obligation undertaken by a state pursuant thereto, except that if its terms so provide a supplementary agreement in implementation of this article may modify, expand or add to any such obligation as among the parties to the supplementary agreement.

(b) In addition to the occurrences, circumstances and subject matters to which preceding articles of this compact make it applicable, this compact and the authorizations, entitlements and procedures thereof shall apply to:

1. Searches for and rescue of persons who are lost, marooned, or otherwise in danger.

2. Action useful in coping with disasters arising from any cause or designed to increase the capability to cope with any such disasters.

3. Incidents, or the imminence thereof, which endanger the health or safety of the public and which require the use of special equipment, trained personnel or personnel in larger numbers than are locally available in order to reduce, counteract or remove the danger.

4. The giving and receiving of aid by subdivisions of party states.

5. Exercises, drills or other training or practice activities designed to aid personnel to prepare for, cope with or prevent any disaster or other emergency to which this compact applies.

(c) Except as expressly limited by this compact or a supplementary agreement in force pursuant thereto, any aid authorized by this compact or such supplementary agreement may be furnished by any agency of a party state, a subdivision of such state, or by a joint agency providing such aid shall be entitled to reimbursement therefor to the same extent and in the same manner as a state. The personnel of such a joint agency, when rendering aid pursuant to this compact shall have the same rights, authority and immunity as personnel of party states.

(d) Nothing in this article shall be construed to exclude from the coverage of Articles 1-XIV of this compact any matter which, in the absence of this article, could reasonably be construed to be covered thereby.

(e) Nothing in subsection (a) shall be construed to limit previous or future entry into the Interstate Civil Defense and Disaster Compact of this state with other states.

SEC. 2. This act shall have no further force and effect after December 30, 1978, and on such date is repealed.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

California and the other western states of Nevada, Oregon, Washington, and Idaho are in the midst of a second year of severe drought, the worst since 1923 and 1924. Each state is faced with a potential for the occurrence of disastrous forest fires that may be beyond their individual abilities and resources to prevent or control, and the officials of such states believe it desirable and mutually beneficial to be able to legally render and receive assistance from one another should such a forest fire disaster occur. Immediate ratification by the California Legislature of the Interstate Civil Defense and Disaster Compact of 1951, which was signed by Governor Warren on December 10, 1951, will make it possible for California to enter into forest fire protection agreements that are supplemental to the compact at the earliest possible time. Therefore, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 162

An act to amend Sections 1191 and 1203 of the Penal Code, relating to probation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 29, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State June 29, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1191 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1191. In the superior court, after a plea, finding or verdict of guilty, or after a finding or verdict against the defendant on a plea of a former conviction or acquittal, or once in jeopardy, the court must appoint a time for pronouncing judgment, which must be within 28 days after the verdict, finding or plea of guilty, during which time the court shall refer the case to the probation officer for a report if eligible to probation and pursuant to Section 1203 of this code; provided, however, that the court may extend the time not more than 10 days for the purpose of hearing or determining any motion for a new trial, or in arrest of judgment, and may further extend the time until the probation officer's report is received and until any proceedings for granting or denying probation have been disposed of. If in the opinion of the court there is a reasonable ground of believing a defendant insane, the court may extend the time for pronouncing sentence until the question of insanity has been heard and determined, as provided in this code. If the court orders the defendant placed in a diagnostic facility pursuant to Section 1203.03, the time otherwise allowed by this section for pronouncing judgment is extended by a period equal to (1) the number of days which elapse between the date of such order and the date on which notice is received from the Director of Corrections advising whether or not the Department of Corrections will receive the defendant in such facility, and (2) if the director notifies the court that it will receive the defendant, the time which elapses until his return to the court from the facility.

SEC. 2. Section 1203 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203. (a) In every case in which a person is convicted of a felony and is eligible for probation, before judgment is pronounced, the court shall immediately refer the matter to the probation officer to investigate and report to the court, at a specified time, upon the circumstances surrounding the crime and the prior history and record of the person, which may be considered either in aggravation or mitigation of the punishment. The probation officer shall immediately investigate and make a written report to the court of his findings and recommendations, including his recommendations as to the granting or denying of probation and the conditions of probation, if granted. The report shall be made available to the court and the prosecuting and defense attorneys at least nine days prior to the time fixed by the court for the hearing and determination of the report, and shall be filed with the clerk of the court as a record in the case at the time of the hearing. The time within which the report shall be made available and filed may be waived by written stipulation of the prosecuting and defense attorney which is filed with the court or an oral stipulation in open court which is made and entered upon the minutes of the court. At a time fixed by the court, the court shall hear and determine the application, if one has been made, or, in any case, the suitability of probation in the particular case. At the hearing, the court shall consider any report of the probation officer and shall make a statement that it has considered such report which shall be filed with the clerk of the court as a record in the case. If the court determines that there are circumstances in mitigation of the punishment prescribed by law or that the ends of justice would be subserved by granting probation to the person, it may place him on probation. If probation is denied, the clerk of the court shall immediately send a copy of the report to the Department of Corrections at the prison or other institution to which the person is delivered.

(b) If a defendant is not represented by an attorney, the court shall order the probation officer who makes the probation report to discuss its contents with the defendant.

(c) In every case in which a person is convicted of a misdemeanor, the court may either refer the matter to the probation officer for an investigation and a report or summarily grant or deny probation. If such a case is not referred to the probation officer, in sentencing the person, the court may consider any information concerning him which could have been included in a probation report. The court shall inform the person of the information to be considered and permit him to answer or controvert it. For this purpose, upon the request of the person, the court shall grant a continuance before the judgment is pronounced.

(d) Except in unusual cases where the interests of justice would best be served if the person is granted probation, probation shall not be granted to any of the following persons:

(1) Unless he had a lawful right to carry a deadly weapon, other than a firearm, at the time of the perpetration of the crime or his arrest, any person who has been convicted of arson, robbery, burglary, burglary with explosives, rape with force or violence, murder, assault with intent to commit murder, attempt to commit murder, trainwrecking, kidnapping, escape from the state prison, or a conspiracy to commit one or more of such crimes and was armed with such weapon at either of such times.

(2) Any person who used or attempted to use a deadly weapon, other than a firearm, upon a human being in connection with the perpetration of the crime of which he has been convicted.

(3) Any person who willfully inflicted great bodily injury or torture in the perpetration of the crime of which he has been convicted.

(4) Any person who has been previously convicted twice in this state of a felony or in any other place of a public offense which, if committed in this state, would have been punishable as a felony.

(5) Unless he has never been previously convicted once in this state of a felony or in any other place of a public offense which, if committed in this state, would have been punishable as a felony, any person who has been convicted of burglary with explosives, rape with force or violence, murder, attempt to commit murder, assault with intent to commit murder, trainwrecking, extortion, kidnapping, escape from the state prison, a violation of Section 286, 288, or 288a, or a conspiracy to commit one or more of such crimes.

(6) Any person who has been previously convicted once in this state of a felony or in any other place of a public offense which, if committed in this state, would have been punishable as a felony, if he committed any of the following acts:

(i) Unless he had a lawful right to carry a deadly weapon at the time of the perpetration of such previous crime or his arrest for such previous crime, he was armed with such weapon at either of such times.

(ii) He used or attempted to use a deadly weapon upon a human being in connection with the perpetration of such previous crime.

(iii) He willfully inflicted great bodily injury or torture in the perpetration of such previous crime.

(7) Any public official or peace officer of this state or any city, county, or other political subdivision who, in the discharge of the duties of his public office or employment, accepted or gave or offered to accept or give any bribe, embezzled public money, or was guilty of extortion.

(e) When probation is granted in a case which comes within the provisions of subdivision (d), the court shall specify the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by such a disposition.

(f) If a person is not eligible for probation, the judge may, in his discretion, refer the matter to the probation officer for an investigation of the facts relevant to the sentencing of the person. Upon such referral, the probation officer shall immediately investigate the circumstances surrounding the crime and the prior record and history of the person and make a written report to the court of his findings.

(g) No probationer shall be released to enter another state unless his case has been referred to the Administrator, Interstate Probation and Parole Compacts, pursuant to the Uniform Act for Out-of-State Probationer or Parolee Supervision (Article 3 (commencing with Section 11175) of Chapter 2 of Title 1 of Part 4).

SEC. 3. This act shall become operative on July 1, 1977, or its effective date, whichever is later

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution, and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The provisions of this act are intended to complement those of Senate Bill No. 42 of the 1975–76 Regular Session of the Legislature (Chapter 1139 of the Statutes of 1976) which will take effect on July 1, 1977. In order that the provisions of this act may become operative by that date, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 163

An act to amend Section 653f of, and to add Section 456 to, the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor June 29, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State June 29, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 456 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

456. Upon conviction for any felony violation of this chapter, the court may impose a fine not to exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) unless a greater amount is provided by law.

SEC. 2. Section 653f of the Penal Code is amended to read:

653f. Every person who solicits another to offer or accept or join in the offer or acceptance of a bribe, or to commit or join in the commission of murder, robbery, burglary, grand theft, receiving stolen property, extortion, rape by force and violence, perjury, subornation of perjury, forgery, kidnapping, arson or assault with a deadly weapon or instrument or by means of force likely to produce great bodily injury, is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than one year or in the state prison, or by fine of not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000), or the amount which could have been assessed for commission of the offense itself, whichever is greater, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Such offense must be proved by the testimony of two witnesses, or of one witness and corroborating circumstances.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to this section nor shall there be any appropriation made by this act because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local government entities and school districts which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes.

CHAPTER 164

An act to amend Section 6316 of, to amend and renumber Section 6325.1 as added by Chapter 1274 of the Statutes of 1975 of, to add Sections 6316.1 and 6316.2 to, and to repeal Section 6316.2 of, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to judicial commitments, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 29, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State June 29, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6316 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

6316. If, after examination and hearing, the court finds that the person is a mentally disordered sex offender and that the person could benefit by treatment in a state hospital, or other mental health facility the court in its discretion has the alternative to return the person to the criminal court for further disposition, or may make an order committing the person to the department for placement in a state hospital, or may commit the person to the county mental health director for placement in an appropriate public or private mental health facility, approved by such director, and a copy of such commitment shall be personally served upon said person within five days after the making of such order. The court shall transmit a copy of its order to the county mental health director or his designee. Prior to making such order, the court shall order the county mental health director or his designee to evaluate the defendant and to submit to the court within 15 judicial days of such order his written recommendation as to whether the defendant should be committed to a state hospital or to another mental health facility.

If after examination and hearing, the court finds that the person is a mentally disordered sex offender but will not benefit by care or treatment in a state hospital or other facility the court shall then cause the person to be returned to the court in which the criminal charge was tried to await further action with reference to such criminal charge. Such court shall resume the proceedings and shall impose sentence or make such other suitable disposition of the case as the court deems necessary.

SEC. 2. Section 6316.1 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

6316.1. (a) Where one of the new offenses is one of the violent felonies specified in subdivision (c), in addition and consecutive to any other prison terms therefor, the court shall impose a three-year term for each prior separate prison term served by the defendant where the prior was one of the violent felonies specified in subdivision (c); provided that no additional term shall be imposed under this subdivision for any prison term served prior to a period of 10 years in which defendant remained free of both prison custody and the commission of an offense which results in a felony conviction.

(b) Except where subdivision (a) applies, where the new offense is any felony for which a prison sentence is imposed, in addition and consecutive to any other prison terms therefor, the court shall impose a one-year term for each prior separate prison term served for any felony; provided that no additional term shall be imposed under this subdivision for any prison term served prior to a period of five years in which defendant remained free of both prison custody and the commission of an offense which results in a felony conviction.

(c) For the purpose of this section, "violent felony" shall mean any of the following:

(1) Murder or voluntary manslaughter.

(2) Mayhem.

(3) Rape as defined in subdivisions (2) and (3) of Section 261.

(4) Sodomy by force, violence, duress, menace, or threat of great bodily harm.

(5) Oral copulation by force, violence, duress, menace, or threat of great bodily harm.

(6) Lewd acts on a child under 14 as defined in Section 288.

(7) Any felony punishable by death or imprisonment in the state prison for life.

(8) Any other felony in which the defendant inflicts great bodily injury on any person other than an accomplice which has been charged and proved as provided for in Section 12022.7 on or after July 1, 1977, or as specified prior to July 1, 1977, in Sections 213, 264, and 461, or any felony in which the defendant uses a firearm which use has been charged and proved as provided in Section 12022.5.

The Legislature finds and declares that these specified crimes merit special consideration when imposing a sentence to display society's condemnation for such extraordinary crimes of violence against the person.

(d) For the purposes of this section the defendant shall be deemed to remain in prison custody for an offense until the official discharge from such custody or until release on parole whichever first occurs including any time during which the defendant remains subject to reimprisonment for escape from such custody or is reimprisoned on revocation of parole. The additional penalties provided for prior prison terms shall not be imposed unless they are charged and admitted or found true in the action for the new offense.

(e) The additional penalties provided for prior prison terms shall not be imposed for any felony for which the defendant did not serve a prior separate term in state prison.

(f) A prior conviction of a felony shall include a conviction in another jurisdiction for an offense which if committed in California is punishable by imprisonment in state prison provided the defendant served one year or more in prison for such offense in the other jurisdiction. A prior conviction of a particular felony shall include a conviction in another jurisdiction for an offense which includes all of the elements of the particular felony as defined under California law provided the defendant served one year or more in prison for such offense in the other jurisdiction.

(g) A prior separate prison term for the purposes of this section shall mean a continuous completed period of prison incarceration imposed for the particular offense alone or in combination with concurrent or consecutive sentences for other crimes, including any reimprisonment on revocation of parole which is not accompanied by a new commitment to prison, and including any reimprisonment after escape from such incarceration.

(h) Serving a prison term includes any confinement time in any state prison or federal penal institution as punishment for commission of an offense, including confinement in a hospital or other institution or facility credited as service of prison time in the jurisdiction of such confinement.

(i) For the purposes of this section, a commitment to the State Department of Health as a mentally disordered sex offender following a conviction of a felony, which commitment exceeds one year in duration, shall be deemed a prior prison term.

SEC. 13.3. Section 969c of the Penal Code is amended to read:

969c. Whenever a defendant uses a weapon or was armed with a firearm under such circumstances as to bring such defendant within the operation of Section 12022 the fact that the defendant so used a weapon or was armed with a firearm may be charged in the accusatory pleading. This charge, if made, shall be added to and be a part of the count or each of the counts of the accusatory pleading which charge the offense at the time of the commission of which the defendant used a weapon or was armed with a firearm. That portion of any count which charges that the defendant used a weapon or was armed with a firearm shall be sufficient if it can be understood therefrom that at the time of his commission of the offense set forth in the count, the defendant used a weapon or was armed with a firearm. The nature of the weapon or firearm must be set forth. One such charge may name more than one weapon or firearm. If the defendant pleads not guilty of the offense charged in any count which alleges that the defendant used a weapon or was armed with a firearm, the question whether or not he used a weapon or was armed with a firearm as alleged must be tried by the court or jury which tries the issue upon the plea of not guilty. If the defendant pleads guilty of the offense charged the question whether or not he used a weapon or was armed with a firearm as alleged must be determined by the court before pronouncing judgment.

SEC. 13.5. Section 969d of the Penal Code is amended to read:

969d. Whenever a defendant used a firearm as recited in Section 12022.5, the fact that the defendant used a firearm may be charged in the accusatory pleading. This charge, if made, shall be added to and be a part of the count or each of the counts of the accusatory pleading which charged the offense. That portion of any count which charges that the defendant used a firearm shall be sufficient if it can be understood therefrom that at the time of his commission of the offense set forth in the count the defendant used a firearm. The nature of the firearm must be set forth. One such charge may name more than one firearm. If the defendant pleads not guilty to the offense charged in any count which alleges that the defendant used a firearm, the question whether or not he used a firearm as alleged must be tried by the court or jury which tries the issue upon the plea of not guilty. If the defendant pleads guilty of the offense charged the question whether or not he used a firearm as alleged must be determined by the court before pronouncing judgment.

SEC. 14. Section 1168 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1168. (a) Every person who commits a public offense, for which any specification of three time periods of imprisonment in any state prison is now prescribed by law shall, unless such convicted person be placed on probation, a new trial granted, or the imposing of sentence suspended, be sentenced pursuant to Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 1170) of Title 7 of Part 2.

(b) For any person not sentenced under such provision, but who is sentenced to be imprisoned in the state prison, including imprisonment not exceeding one year and one day, the court imposing the sentence shall not fix the term or duration of the period of imprisonment.

SEC. 15. Section 1170 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1170. (a) (1) The Legislature finds and declares that the purpose of imprisonment for crime is punishment. This purpose is best served by terms proportionate to the seriousness of the offense with provision for uniformity in the sentences of offenders committing the same offense under similar circumstances. The Legislature further finds and declares that the elimination of disparity and the provision of uniformity of sentences can best be achieved by determinate sentences fixed by statute in proportion to the seriousness of the offense as determined by the Legislature to be imposed by the court with specified discretion.

(2) In any case in which the punishment prescribed by statute for a person convicted of a public offense is a term of imprisonment in the state prison of 16 months, two or three years; two, three or four years; three, four or five years; five, six, or seven years, or any other specification of three time periods, the court shall sentence the defendant to one of the terms of imprisonment specified unless such convicted person is given any other disposition provided by law, including a fine, jail, probation or the suspension of imposition or execution of sentence or is sentenced pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1168 because he had committed his crime prior to July 1,

1977. In sentencing the convicted person, the court shall apply the sentencing rules of the Judicial Council. The court, unless it determines that there are circumstances in mitigation of the punishment prescribed, shall also impose any other term which it is required by law to impose as an additional term. Nothing in this article shall affect any provision of law which imposes the death penalty, which authorizes or restricts the granting of probation or suspending the execution or imposition of sentence, or expressly provides for imprisonment in the state prison for life. In any case in which the amount of preimprisonment credit under Section 2900.5 or any other provision of law is equal to or exceeds any sentence imposed pursuant to this chapter, the entire sentence, including any period of parole under Section 3000, shall be deemed to have been served and the defendant shall not be actually delivered to the custody of the Director of Corrections. However, any such sentence shall be deemed a separate prior prison term under Section 667.5, and a copy of the judgment and other necessary documentation shall be forwarded to the Director of Corrections.

(b) When a judgment of imprisonment is to be imposed and the statute specifies three possible terms, the court shall order imposition of the middle term, unless there are circumstances in aggravation or mitigation of the crime. At least four days prior to the time set for imposition of judgment either party may submit a statement in aggravation or mitigation to dispute facts in the record or the probation officer's report, or to present additional facts. In determining whether there are circumstances that justify imposition of the upper or lower term, the court may consider the record in the case, the probation officer's report, other reports including reports received pursuant to Section 1203.03 and statements in aggravation or mitigation submitted by the prosecution or the defendant, and any further evidence introduced at the sentencing hearing. The court shall set forth on the record the facts and reasons for imposing the upper or lower term. The court may not impose an upper term by using the same fact used to enhance the sentence under Section 667.5, 1170.1, 12022, 12022.5, 12022.6, or 12022.7. A term of imprisonment shall not be specified if imposition of sentence is suspended.

(c) The court shall state the reasons for its sentence choice on the record at the time of sentencing. The court shall also inform the defendant that as part of the sentence after expiration of the term he may be on parole for a period as provided in Section 3000.

(d) When a defendant subject to this section or subdivision (b) of Section 1168 has been sentenced to be imprisoned in the state prison and has been committed to the custody of the Director of Corrections, the court may, within 120 days of the date of commitment on its own motion, or at any time upon the recommendation of the Director of Corrections or the Community Release Board, recall the sentence and commitment previously ordered and resentence the defendant in the same manner as if he had not previously been sentenced, provided the new sentence, if any, is no greater than the initial sentence. The resentence under this subdivision shall apply the sentencing rules of the Judicial Council so as to eliminate disparity of sentences and to promote uniformity of sentencing. Credit shall be given for time served.

(e) Any sentence imposed under this article shall be subject to the provisions of Sections 3000 and 3057 and any other applicable provisions of law.

(f) In all cases the Community Release Board shall, not later than one year after the commencement of the term of imprisonment, review the sentence and shall by motion recommend that the court recall the sentence and commitment previously ordered and resentence the defendant in the same manner as if he had not been previously sentenced if the board determines the sentence is disparate. The review under this section shall concern the decision to deny probation and the sentencing decisions enumerated in subdivisions (b), (c), (d), and (e) of Sections 1170.3 and apply the sentencing rules of the Judicial Council and the information regarding the sentences in this state of other persons convicted of similar crimes so as to eliminate disparity of sentences and to promote uniformity of sentencing.

SEC. 16. Section 1170.1 of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 17. Section 1170.1a of the Penal Code is amended and renumbered to read:

1170.1. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b) and subject to Section 654, when any person is convicted of two or more felonies, whether in the same proceeding or court or in different proceedings or courts, and whether by judgment rendered by the same or by a different court, and a consecutive term of imprisonment is imposed under Sections 669 and 1170, the aggregate term of imprisonment for all such convictions shall be the sum of the principal term, the subordinate term and any additional term imposed pursuant to Section 667.5. The principal term shall consist of the greatest term of imprisonment imposed by the court for any of the crimes, including any enhancements imposed pursuant to Section 12022, 12022.5, 12022.6, or 12022.7. The subordinate term for each consecutive offense shall consist of one-third of the middle term of imprisonment prescribed for each other felony conviction for which a consecutive term of imprisonment is imposed, and shall exclude any enhancements when the consecutive offense is not listed in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5, but shall include one-third of any enhancement imposed pursuant to Section 12022, 12022.5 or 12022.7 when the consecutive offense is listed in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5. In no case shall the total of subordinate terms for consecutive offenses not listed in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 exceed five years.

(b) In the case of any person convicted of one or more felonies committed while such person is confined in a state prison, or is subject to reimprisonment for escape from such custody and the law either requires the terms to be served consecutively or the court imposes consecutive terms, the term of imprisonment for all such convictions which such person is required to serve consecutively shall commence from the time such person would otherwise have been released from prison. If the new offenses are consecutive with each other, the principal and subordinate terms shall be calculated as provided in subdivision (a), except that the total of subordinate terms may exceed five years. The provisions of this subdivision shall be applicable in cases of convictions of more than one offense in different proceedings, and convictions of more than one offense in the same or different proceedings.

(c) When the court imposes a prison sentence for a felony pursuant to Section 1170 the court shall also impose the additional terms provided in Sections 667.5, 12022, 12022.5, 12022.6, and 12022.7, unless the additional punishment therefore is stricken pursuant to subdivision (g). The court shall also impose any other additional term which the court determines in its discretion or as required by law shall run consecutive to the term imposed under Section 1170. In considering the imposition of such additional terms, the court shall apply the sentencing rules of the Judicial Council.

(d) When two or more enhancements under Sections 12022, 12022.5, and 12022.7 may be imposed for any single offense, only the greatest enhancement shall apply; however, in cases of robbery, rape or burglary, or attempted robbery, rape or burglary the court may impose both (1) one enhancement for weapons as provided in either Section 12022 or 12022.5 and (2) an enhancement for great bodily injury as provided in Section 12022.7.

(e) The enhancements provided in Sections 667.5, 12022, 12022.5, 12022.6, and 12022.7 shall be pleaded and proven as provided by law.

(f) The term of imprisonment shall not exceed twice the number of years imposed by the trial court as the base term pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1170 unless the defendant stands convicted of a felony described in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5, or a consecutive sentence is being imposed pursuant to subdivision (b) of this section, or an enhancement is imposed pursuant to Section 12022, 12022.5, 12022.6 or 12022.7.

(g) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the court may strike the additional punishment for the enhancements provided in Sections 667.5, 12022, 12022.5, 12022.6, and 12022.7 if it determines that there are circumstances in mitigation of the additional punishment and states on the record its reasons for striking the additional punishment.

SEC. 17.5. Section 1170.1b of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 18. Section 1170.2 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1170.2. (a) In the case of any inmate who committed a felony prior to July 1, 1977, who would have been sentenced under Section 1170 if he had committed it after July 1, 1977, the Community Release Board shall determine what the length of time of imprisonment would have been under Section 1170 without consideration of good-time credit and utilizing the middle term of the offense bearing the longest term of imprisonment of which the prisoner was convicted increased by any enhancements justified by matters found to be true and which were imposed by the court at the time of sentencing for such felony. Such matters include: being armed with a deadly or dangerous weapon as specified in Section 211a, 460, 3024, or 12022 prior to July 1, 1977, which may result in a one-year enhancement pursuant to the provisions of Section 12022; using a firearm as specified in Section 12022.5 prior to July 1, 1977, which may result in a two-year enhancement pursuant to the provisions of Section 12022.5; infliction of great bodily injury as specified in Section 213, 264, or 461 prior to July 1, 1977, which may result in a three-year enhancement pursuant to the provisions of Section 12022.7; any prior felony conviction as specified in any statute prior to July 1, 1977, which prior felony conviction is the equivalent of a prior prison term as defined in Section 667.5, which may result in the appropriate enhancement pursuant to the provisions of Section 667.5; and any consecutive sentence

(b) If the calculation required under subdivision (a) is less than the time to be served prior to a release date set prior to July 1, 1977, or if a release date had not been set, the Community Release Board shall establish the prisoner's parole date, subject to subdivision (d), on the date calculated under subdivision (a) unless at least two of the members of the Community Release Board after reviewing the prisoner's file, determine that due to the number of crimes of which the prisoner was convicted, or due to the number of prior convictions suffered by the prisoner, or due to the fact that the prisoner was armed with a deadly weapon when the crime was committed, or used a deadly weapon during the commission of the crime, or inflicted or attempted to inflict great bodily injury on the victim of the crime, the prisoner should serve a term longer than that calculated in subdivision (a), in which event the prisoner shall be entitled to a hearing before a panel consisting of at least two members of the Community Release Board as provided for in Section 3041.5. The Community Release Board shall notify each prisoner who is scheduled for such a hearing within 90 days of July 1, 1977, or within 90 days of the date the prisoner is received by or returned to the custody of the Department of Corrections, whichever is later. The hearing shall be held before April 1, 1978, or within 120 days of receipt of the prisoner, whichever is later. The board may by resolution extend this period an additional 90 days. However, such resolution shall have no force or effect if vetoed by resolution of either house of the Legislature. It is the intent of the Legislature that the hearings provided for in this subdivision shall be accomplished in the most expeditious manner possible At such hearing the prisoner shall be entitled to be represented by legal counsel, a release date shall be set, and the prisoner shall be informed in writing of the extraordinary factors specifically considered determinative and on what basis the release date has been calculated. In fixing a term under this section the board shall be guided by, but not limited to, the term which reasonably could be imposed on a person who committed a similar offense under similar circumstances on or after July 1, 1977, and further, the board shall be guided by the following finding and declaration hereby made by the Legislature: that the necessity to protect the public from repetition of extraordinary crimes of violence against the person is the paramount consideration.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to keep an inmate in the custody of the Department of Corrections for a period of time longer than he would have been kept in its custody under the provisions of law applicable to him prior to July 1, 1977. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to require the release of an inmate sentenced to consecutive sentences under the provisions of law applicable to him prior to July 1, 1977, earlier than if he had been sentenced to concurrent sentences.

(d) In the case of any prisoner who committed a felony prior to July 1, 1977, who would have been sentenced under Section 1170 if the felony was committed on or after July 1, 1977, the good behavior and participation provisions of Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 2930) of Chapter 7 of Title 1 of Part 3 shall apply from July 1, 1977, and thereafter.

(e) In the case of any inmate who committed a felony prior to July 1, 1977, who would have been sentenced under Section 1168 if the felony was committed on or after July 1, 1977, the Community Release Board shall provide for release from prison as provided for by this code.

(f) In the case of any inmate who committed a felony prior to July 1, 1977, the length, conditions, revocation, and other incidents of parole shall be the same as if the prisoner had been sentenced for an offense committed on or after July 1, 1977.

(g) Nothing in this chapter shall affect the eligibility for parole under Article 3 (commencing with Section 3040) of Chapter 8 of Title 1 of Part 3 of an inmate sentenced pursuant to Section 1168 as operative prior to July 1, 1977, for a period of parole as specified in subdivision (b) of Section 3000.

SEC. 18.5. Section 1170.4 of the Penal Code, as added by Chapter 1139 of the Statutes of 1976, is amended to read:

1170.4. The Judicial Council shall collect, analyze, and quarterly distribute and publish relevant information to trial judges and other interested persons relating to sentencing practices in this state and other jurisdictions. Such information shall be taken into consideration by the Judicial Council in the adoption of rules pursuant to Section 1170.3.

SEC. 19. Section 1191 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1191. In the superior court, after a plea, finding or verdict of guilty, or after a finding or verdict against the defendant on a plea of a former conviction or acquittal, or once in jeopardy, the court must appoint a time for pronouncing judgment, which must be within 28 days after the verdict, finding or plea of guilty, during which time the court shall refer the case to the probation officer for a report if eligible for probation and pursuant to Section 1203; provided, however, that the court may extend the time not more than 10 days for the purpose of hearing or determining any motion for a new trial, or in arrest of judgment, and may further extend the time until the probation officer's report is received and until any proceedings for granting or denying probation have been disposed of. If in the opinion of the court there is a reasonable ground for believing a defendant insane, the court may extend the time for pronouncing sentence until the question of insanity has been heard and determined, as provided in this code. If the court orders defendant placed in a diagnostic facility pursuant to Section 1203.03, the time otherwise allowed by this section for pronouncing judgment is extended by a period equal to (1) the number of days which elapse between the date of such order and the date on which notice is received from the Director of Corrections advising whether or not the Department of Corrections will receive defendant in such facility, and (2) if the director notifies the court that it will receive the defendant, the time which elapses until his return to the court from the facility

SEC. 20. Section 1203 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203 (a) In every case in which a person is convicted of a felony and is eligible for probation, before judgment is pronounced, the court shall immediately refer the matter to the probation officer to investigate and report to the court, at a specified time, upon the circumstances surrounding the crime and the prior history and record of the person, which may be considered either in aggravation or mitigation of the punishment. The probation officer shall immediately investigate and make a written report to the court of his findings and recommendations, including his recommendations as to the granting or denying of probation and the conditions of probation, if granted. The report shall be made available to the court and the prosecuting and defense attorneys at least nine days prior to the time fixed by the court for the hearing and determination of the report, and shall be filed with the clerk of the court as a record in the case at the time of the hearing. The time within which the report shall be made available and filed may be waived by written stipulation of the prosecuting and defense attorney which is filed with the court or an oral stipulation in open court which is made and entered upon the minutes of the court. At a time fixed by the court, the court shall hear and determine the application, if one has been made, or, in any case, the suitability of probation in the particular case. At the hearing, the court shall consider any report of the probation officer and shall make a statement that it has considered such report which shall be filed with the clerk of the court as a record in the case. If the court determines that there are circumstances in mitigation of the punishment prescribed by law or that the ends of justice would be subserved by granting probation to the person, it may place him on probation. If probation is denied, the clerk of the court shall immediately send a copy of the report to the Department of Corrections at the prison or other institution to which the person is delivered.

(b) If a defendant is not represented by an attorney, the court shall order the probation officer who makes the probation report to discuss its contents with the defendant.

(c) In every case in which a person is convicted of a misdemeanor, the court may either refer the matter to the probation officer for an investigation and a report or summarily grant or deny probation. If such a case is not referred to the probation officer, in sentencing the person, the court may consider any information concerning him which could have been included in a probation report. The court shall inform the person of the information to be considered and permit him to answer or controvert it. For this purpose, upon the request of the person, the court shall grant a continuance before the judgment is pronounced.

(d) Except in unusual cases where the interests of justice would best be served if the person is granted probation, probation shall not be granted to any of the following persons:

(1) Unless he had a lawful right to carry a deadly weapon, other than a firearm, at the time of the perpetration of the crime or his arrest, any person who has been convicted of arson, robbery, burglary, burglary with explosives, rape with force or violence, murder, assault with intent to commit murder, attempt to commit murder, trainwrecking, kidnapping, escape from the state prison, or a conspiracy to commit one or more of such crimes and was armed with such weapon at either of such times.

(2) Any person who used or attempted to use a deadly weapon, other than a firearm, upon a human being in connection with the perpetration of the crime of which he has been convicted.

(3) Any person who willfully inflicted great bodily injury or torture in the perpetration of the crime of which he has been convicted.

(4) Any person who has been previously convicted twice in this state of a felony or in any other place of a public offense which, if committed in this state, would have been punishable as a felony.

(5) Unless he has never been previously convicted once in this state of a felony or in any other place of a public offense which, if committed in this state, would have been punishable as a felony, any person who has been convicted of burglary with explosives, rape with force or violence, murder, attempt to commit murder, assault with intent to commit murder, trainwrecking, extortion, kidnapping, escape from the state prison, a violation of Section 286, 288, or 288a, or a conspiracy to commit one or more of such crimes.

(6) Any person who has been previously convicted once in this state of a felony or in any other place of a public offense which, if committed in this state, would have been punishable as a felony, if he committed any of the following acts:

(i) Unless he had a lawful right to carry a deadly weapon at the time of the perpetration of such previous crime or his arrest for such previous crime, he was armed with such weapon at either of such times.

(ii) He used or attempted to use a deadly weapon upon a human being in connection with the perpetration of such previous crime.

(iii) He willfully inflicted great bodily injury or torture in the perpetration of such previous crime.

(7) Any public official or peace officer of this state or any city, county, or other political subdivision who, in the discharge of the duties of his public office or employment, accepted or gave or offered to accept or give any bribe, embezzled public money, or was guilty of extortion.

(e) When probation is granted in a case which comes within the provisions of subdivision (d), the court shall specify the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by such a disposition.

(f) If a person is not eligible for probation, the judge may, in his discretion, refer the matter to the probation officer for an investigation of the facts relevant to the sentencing of the person. Upon such referral, the probation officer shall immediately investigate the circumstances surrounding the crime and the prior record and history of the person and make a written report to the court of his findings.

(g) No probationer shall be released to enter another state unless his case has been referred to the Administrator, Interstate Probation and Parole Compacts, pursuant to the Uniform Act for Out-of-State Probationer or Parolee Supervision (Article 3 (commencing with Section 11175) of Chapter 2 of Title 1 of Part 4).

SEC. 21. Section 1203.03 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.03. (a) In any case in which a defendant is convicted of an offense punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, the court, if it concludes that a just disposition of the case requires such diagnosis and treatment services as can be provided at a diagnostic facility of the Department of Corrections, may order that defendant be placed temporarily in such facility for a period not to exceed 90 days, with the further provision in such order that the Director of the Department of Corrections report to the court his diagnosis and recommendations concerning the defendant within the 90-day period.

(b) The Director of the Department of Corrections shall, within the 90 days, cause defendant to be observed and examined and shall forward to the court his diagnosis and recommendation concerning the disposition of defendant's case. Such diagnosis and recommendation shall be embodied in a written report and copies of the report shall be served only upon the defendant or his counsel, the probation officer, and the prosecuting attorney by the court receiving such report. After delivery of the copies of the report, the information contained therein shall not be disclosed to anyone else without the consent of the defendant. After disposition of the case, all copies of the report, except the one delivered to the defendant or his counsel, shall be filed in a sealed file and shall be available thereafter only to the defendant or his counsel, the prosecuting attorney, the court, the probation officer, or the Department of Corrections.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), the probation officer may retain a copy of the report for the purpose of supervision of the defendant if the defendant is placed on probation by the court. The report and information contained therein shall be confidential and shall not be disclosed to anyone else without the written consent of the defendant Upon the completion or termination of probation, the copy of the report shall be returned by the probation officer to the sealed file prescribed in subdivision (b).

(d) The Department of Corrections shall designate the place to which a person referred to it under the provisions of this section shall be transported. After the receipt of any such person, the department may return the person to the referring court if the director of the department, in his discretion, determines that the staff and facilities of the department are inadequate to provide such services.

(e) The sheriff of the county in which an order is made placing a defendant in a diagnostic facility pursuant to this section, or any other peace officer designated by the court, shall execute the order placing such defendant in the center or returning him therefrom to the court. The expense of such sheriff or other peace officer incurred in executing such order is a charge upon the county in which the court is situated.

(f) It is the intention of the Legislature that the diagnostic facilities made available to the counties by this section shall only be used for the purposes designated and not in lieu of sentences to local facilities.

(g) Time spent by a defendant in confinement in a diagnostic facility of the Department of Corrections pursuant to this section or as an inpatient of the California Rehabilitation Center shall be credited on the term of imprisonment in state prison, if any, to which defendant is sentenced in the case.

(h) In any case in which a defendant has been placed in a diagnostic facility pursuant to this section and, in the course of his confinement, he is determined to be suffering from a remediable condition relevant to his criminal conduct, the department may, with the permission of defendant, administer treatment for such condition. If such treatment will require a longer period of confinement than the period for which defendant was placed in the diagnostic facility, the Director of Corrections may file with the court which placed defendant in the facility a petition for extension of the period of confinement, to which shall be attached a writing signed by defendant giving his consent to the extension. If the court finds the petition and consent in order, it may order the extension, and transmit a copy of the order to the Director of Corrections.

Within 14 days of the prisoner's arrival at the institution to which the prisoner is ultimately assigned by the Department of Corrections, the prisoner shall be informed of the range of programs offered by that institution and their availability at that institution. The prisoner's central file shall reflect compliance with the provisions of this section not later than 90 days after reception in prison

(b) The department shall, within 90 days after July 1, 1977, inform every prisoner who committed a felony before July 1, 1977, and who would have been sentenced under Section 1170 if the felony had been committed after July 1, 1977, of all applicable prison rules and regulations, which have not previously been provided, of the range of programs offered and their availability, and the possibility of receiving a reduction for good behavior and participation of one-third of the prisoner's remaining sentence after July 1, 1977. The inmate's central file shall reflect compliance with the provisions of this section.

SEC. 38. Section 2931 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

2931. (a) In any case in which an inmate was sentenced to the state prison pursuant to Section 1170, or if he committed a felony before July 1, 1977, and he would have been sentenced under Section 1170 if the felony had been committed after July 1, 1977, the Department of Corrections shall have the authority to reduce the term prescribed under such section by one-third for good behavior and participation consistent with subdivision (d) of Section 1170.2. A document shall be signed by a prison official and given to the inmate, at the time of compliance with Section 2930, outlining the conditions which the inmate shall meet to receive the credit. The conditions specified in such document may be modified upon any of the following·

(1) Mutual consent of the prisoner and the Department of Corrections.

(2) The transfer of the inmate from one instutition to another.

(3) The department's determination of the prisoner's lack of adaptability or success in a specific program or assignment. In such case the inmate shall be entitled to a hearing regarding the department's decision.

(4) A change in custodial status.

(b) Total possible good behavior and participation credit shall result in a four-month reduction for each eight months served in prison or in a reduction based on this ratio for any lesser period of time. Three months of this four-month reduction, or a reduction based on this ratio for any lesser period, shall be based upon forbearance from any or all of the following activities:

(1) Assault with a weapon; or escape.

(2) Physically assaultive behavior; possession of a weapon without permission; possession of controlled substances without prescription; attempt to escape; or urging others, with the intent to cause a riot, to commit acts of force or violence, at a time and place under circumstances which produce a clear and present and immediate danger of a riot which results in acts of force or violence.

(3) Intentional destruction of state property valued in excess of fifty dollars ($50); falsification of a significant record or document; possession of escape tools without permission; or manufacture or sale of intoxicants. Activities specified in paragraph (1) may result in a maximum denial of good behavior credit of 45 days for each such prohibited activity. Activities specified in paragraph (2) may result in a maximum denial of good behavior credit of 30 days for each such prohibited activity. Activities specified in paragraph (3) may result in a maximum denial of good behavior credit of 15 days for each such prohibited activity. Nothing in this section shall prevent the Department of Corrections from seeking criminal prosecution for violations of law.

(c) One of the four months reduction, or a formula based on this ratio for a lesser period, shall be based solely upon participation in work, educational, vocational, therapeutic or other prison activities. Failure to succeed after demonstrating a reasonable effort in the specified activity shall not result in loss of participation credit. Failure to participate in the specified activities can result in a maximum loss of credit of 30 days for each failure to participate. However, those confined either by choice or due to behavior problems shall be given specified activities commensurate with the custodial status.

SEC. 39. Section 2932 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

2932. (a) Not more than 90 days of good behavior credit nor more than 30 days of participation credit may be denied or lost during any eight-month period during which the misbehavior or failure to participate took place. Good behavior and participation credit shall be deemed to be earned in cases where the department fails to adhere to the time limitations of this section except as specified in subdivision (c). Any procedure not provided for by this section, but necessary to carry out the purposes of this section, shall be those procedures provided for by the Department of Corrections for serious disciplinary infractions if those procedures are not in conflict with this section.

(1) The Department of Corrections shall, using reasonable diligence to investigate, provide written notice to the prisoner. The written notice shall be given within five days after the discovery of information leading to charges that may result in a possible denial of good behavior or participation credit, but not later than 30 days after the alleged misbehavior took place, unless the evidence was not reasonably discoverable. The written notice shall include the specific charge, the date, the time, the place that the alleged misbehavior took place, the evidence relied upon, a written explanation of the procedures that will be employed at the proceedings and the prisoner's rights at such hearing, and in the case where the prisoner has been notified more than 30 days after the alleged misbehavior why the evidence was not reasonably discoverable within the 30 days or any sooner than it was discovered. Such hearing shall be conducted by an individual who shall be independent of the case and shall take place within 10 days of such written notice; unless for good cause shown by the Department of Corrections that extraordinary circumstances prevented the hearing from being conducted within 10 days and the prisoner is not prejudiced by the delay the Department of Corrections shall notify the prisoner in writing specifying the extraordinary circumstances and shall conduct the hearing as soon as possible but in no case later than 30 days after the initial written notice of possible good behavior or participation denial.

(2) The prisoner has the right to elect to be assigned an investigative employee who will gather information, talk to witnesses, prepare a written report and be present at the hearing.

(3) The prisoner may request witnesses to attend the hearing and they shall be called unless the person conducting the hearing has specific reasons to deny this request. Such specific reasons shall be set forth in writing and a copy of such document shall be presented to the prisoner.

(4) The person who will conduct the hearing shall determine if the prisoner shall need assistance with presentation of a defense at the hearing and if so, at the prisoner's discretion, the prisoner has the right to be assigned an employee of the Department of Corrections to assist in presenting the prisoner's defense.

(5) The prisoner has the right, under the direction of the person conducting the hearing, to question all witnesses.

(6) At the conclusion of the hearing the charge shall be dismissed if the facts do not support the charge, or the inmate may be found guilty on the basis of a preponderance of the evidence.

(7) If found guilty the prisoner shall be advised within 10 days in writing of the guilty finding and the specific evidence relied upon to reach this conclusion and the amount of good-time loss. The prisoner may appeal such decision through the Department of Corrections review procedure, and may, upon final notification of appeal denial, within 10 days of such notification demand review of the department's denial of credit to the Community Release Board, and the board may affirm, reverse, or modify the department's decision or grant a hearing before the board at which hearing the inmate will have the rights specified in Section 3041.5.

(b) Within 30 days of reception in prison, each prisoner shall be notified of the total amount of good behavior and participation credit which may be credited to his term and his anticipated good-time release date and shall be notified of any change in the anticipated release date.

(c) If the conduct the prisoner is charged with also constitutes a crime, the Department of Corrections may refer the case to criminal authorities for possible prosecution and notify the prisoner as provided in subdivision (a), in which case the time limitations specified in subdivision (a) shall not apply. If the district attorney has not filed an accusatory pleading against the prisoner within 60 days of such referral, the prisoner may request that a hearing be held in which case the department must hold the hearing within 15 days of such request.

In the case where the prisoner is prosecuted by the district attorney, the Department of Corrections shall not deny good behavior credit where the prisoner is found not guilty and may deny good behavior credit pursuant to the schedule specified in Section 2931 if the prisoner is found guilty.

(d) If good behavior or participation credit denial proceedings, or criminal prosecution prohibit the release of a prisoner who would have otherwise been released, and the prisoner is found not guilty of the alleged misconduct, the amount of time spent incarcerated, in excess of what the period of incarceration would have been absent the alleged misbehavior, shall be deducted from the prisoner's parole period.

SEC. 40. Article 3 (commencing with Section 2940) of Chapter 7 of Title 1 of Part 3 of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 41. Article 3 (commencing with Section 2947) is added to Chapter 7 of Title 1 of Part 3 of the Penal Code, to read:

Article 3. Blacklist or Extortion of Discharged Prisoner

2947. Any person who knowingly and willfully communicates to another, either orally or in writing, any statement concerning any person then or theretofore convicted of a felony, and then finally discharged, and which communication is made with the purpose and intent to deprive such person so convicted of employment, or to prevent him from procuring the same, or with the purpose and intent to extort from him any money or article of value; and any person who threatens to make any such communication with the purpose and intent to extort money or any article of value from such person so convicted of a felony is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 42. Section 3000 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

3000. The Legislature finds and declares that the period immediate following incarceration is critical to successful reintegration of the offender into society and to positive citizenship. It is in the interest of public safety for the state to provide for the supervision of and surveillance of parolees and to provide educational, vocational, family and personal counseling necessary to assist parolees in the transition between imprisonment and discharge. A sentence pursuant to Section 1168 or 1170 shall include a period of parole, unless waived, as provided in this section. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in Article 3 (commencing with Section 3040) of this chapter.

(a) At the expiration of a term of imprisonment of one year and one day, or a term of imprisonment imposed pursuant to Section 1170, or at the expiration of such term as reduced pursuant to Section 2931, if applicable, the inmate shall be released on parole for a period not exceeding one year, unless the board for good cause waives parole and discharges the inmate from custody of the department.

(b) In the case of any inmate sentenced under Section 1168, the period of parole shall not exceed three years in the case of an inmate imprisoned under a life sentence, and shall not exceed one year in the case of an inmate whose prison sentence does not consist of imprisonment under a life sentence, unless in either case the board for good cause waives parole and discharges the inmate from custody of the department. This subdivision shall be also applicable to inmates who committed crimes prior to July 1, 1977, to the extent specified in Section 1170.2.

(c) The board shall consider the request of any inmate regarding the length of his parole and the conditions thereof.

(d) Upon successful completion of parole, or at the end of the maximum statutory period of parole specified for the inmate under subdivision (a) or (b), as the case may be, whichever is earlier, the inmate shall be discharged from custody. The date of the maximum statutory period of parole under this subdivision and subdivisions (a) and (b) shall be computed from the date of initial parole, or July 1, 1977, whichever is later, and shall be a period chronologically determined. Time during which parole is suspended because the prisoner has absconded or has been returned to custody as a parole violator shall not be credited toward such period of parole unless the prisoner is found not guilty of the parole violation. However, in no case, except as provided in Section 3064, may a prisoner sentenced pursuant to Section 1170 be retained under parole supervision or in custody for a period longer than 18 months from the date of his initial parole, and, except as provided in Section 3064, in no case may a prisoner sentenced pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1168 be retained under parole supervision or in custody for a period longer than four years from the date of his initial parole.

(e) It is not the intent of this section to diminish resources presently allocated to the Department of Corrections for parole functions.

(f) The Department of Corrections shall meet with each inmate at least 30 days prior to his good-time release date, unless such release date is within 30 days of July 1, 1977, and shall provide, under guidelines specified by the Community Release Board, the conditions of parole and the length of parole up to the maximum period of time provided by law. The inmate has the right to reconsideration of the length of parole and conditions thereof by the Community Release Board.

SEC. 43. Article 2 (commencing with Section 3020) of Chapter 8 of Title 1 of Part 3 of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 44. Section 3040 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

3040. The Community Release Board shall have the power to allow prisoners imprisoned in the state prisons pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1168 to go upon parole outside the prison walls and enclosures. The board may parole prisoners in the state prisons to camps for paroled prisoners established under Section 2792.

SEC. 45. Section 3041 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

3041. (a) In the case of any prisoner sentenced pursuant to any provision of law, other than Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 1170) of Title 7 of Part 2, the Community Release Board shall meet with each such inmate within the first year of incarceration solely for the purposes of reviewing the inmate's file and making recommendations. One year prior to the inmate's minimum eligible parole release date a three-member panel of the board shall again meet with the inmate and shall normally set a parole release date. The Community Release Board shall set the parole release date in a manner that will provide uniform terms for offenses of similar gravity and magnitude in respect to their threat to the public. The board shall comply with the sentencing rules that the Judicial Council may issue and any sentencing information relevant to the setting of parole release dates. The board shall establish criteria for the setting of parole release dates and in doing so shall consider the number of victims of the crime for which the prisoner was sentenced and other factors in mitigation or aggravation of the crime. At least one member of the panel shall have been present at the last preceding meeting, unless it is not feasible to do so or where the last preceding meeting was the initial meeting. Any person on the hearing panel may request review of any decision regarding parole to the full board for an en banc hearing. In case of such a review, a majority vote of the full Community Release Board in favor of parole is required to grant parole to any prisoner.

(b) The board shall set a release date unless it determines that the gravity of the current convicted offense or offenses, or the timing and gravity of current or past convicted offense or offenses, is such that consideration of the public safety requires a more lengthy period of incarceration for this individual, and that a parole date, therefore, cannot be fixed at this meeting.

(c) For the purpose of reviewing the suitability for parole of those prisoners eligible for parole under prior law at a date earlier than that calculated under Section 1170.2, the board shall appoint panels of at least two persons to meet annually with each such prisoner until such time as the person is released pursuant to such proceedings or reaches the expiration of his term as calculated under Section 1170.2.

SEC 46. Section 3041.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

3041.5. (a) At all hearings for the purpose of reviewing a prisoner's parole suitability, or the setting, postponing or rescinding of parole dates:

(1) At least 10 days prior to any hearing by the Community Release Board, the prisoner shall be permitted to review his or her file which will be examined by the board and shall have the opportunity to enter a written response to any material contained in such file.

(2) The prisoner shall be permitted to be present, to ask and answer questions, and to speak on his own behalf.

(3) Unless legal counsel is required by some other provision of law, a person designated by the Department of Corrections shall be present to insure that all facts relevant to the decision be presented, including, if necessary, contradictory assertions as to matters of fact that have not been resolved by departmental or other procedures.

(4) The prisoner shall be permitted to request and receive a stenographic record of all proceedings

(5) If the hearing is for the purpose of postponing or rescinding of parole dates, the prisoner will have rights set forth in paragraphs (3) and (5) of subdivision (a) of Section 2932

(b) (1) Within 10 days following any meeting where a parole date has been set, the board shall send the prisoner a written statement setting forth his parole date, the conditions he must meet in order to be released on the date set, and the consequences of failure to meet such conditions

(2) Within 20 days following any meeting where a parole date has not been set for the reasons stated in subdivision (b) of Section 3041, the board shall send the prisoner a written statement setting forth the reason or reasons for refusal to set a parole date; and suggest activities in which he might participate that will benefit him while he is incarcerated. The board shall hear each such case annually thereafter.

(3) Within 10 days of any board action resulting in the postponement of a previously set parole date, the board shall send the prisoner a written statement setting forth a new date and the reason or reasons for such action and shall offer the prisoner an opportunity for review of such action within 90 days of the time the prisoner receives the statement.

(4) Within 10 days of any board action resulting in the rescinding of a previously set parole date, the board shall send the prisoner a written statement setting forth the reason or reasons for such action and shall, within six months, set the prisoner's parole release date in accord with the provisions of Section 3041 and this section.

SEC 47 Section 3041 7 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

3041.7. A prisoner under a life sentence whose release date has been set at more than three years beyond the minimum eligible parole date, or whose parole release date is not set at the meeting which takes place one year prior to the prisoner's minimum eligible parole date, or whose parole date has been rescinded shall be notified of his or her right to request a rehearing by the board. Such rehearing shall be held within 60 days of such request. At the rehearing and at any subsequent hearings for the purpose of setting or advancing a parole date, the inmate shall be entitled to be represented by counsel and the provisions of Section 3041.5 shall apply.

SEC. 48. Section 3042 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

3042. (a) At least 30 days before the Community Release Board shall meet to review or consider the parole suitability or the setting or advancing of a parole date for any prisoner sentenced to a life sentence, the board shall send written notice thereof to each of the following persons: the judge of the superior court before whom the prisoner was tried and convicted, the attorney for the defendant, the district attorney of the county from which the prisoner was sentenced, and the law enforcement agency that investigated the case.

(b) The Community Release Board shall record all such hearings and transcribe such recordings within 30 days of any such hearing. All such transcripts, including the transcripts of all such prior hearings, shall be filed and maintained in the office of the Community Release Board and shall be made available to the public no later than 30 days from the date of the hearing. No such prisoner shall actually be released on parole prior to 60 days from the date of the hearing.

(c) At any such hearing the presiding hearing officer must state findings and supporting reasons on the record.

(d) Any statements, recommendations, or other materials considered shall be incorporated into the transcript of any such hearing, unless such material is confidential in order to preserve institutional security and the security of others who might be endangered by disclosure.

SEC. 49. Section 3043 of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 50. Section 3044 of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 51. Section 3046 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

3046. No prisoner imprisoned under a life sentence may be paroled until he has served at least seven calendar years. The Community Release Board shall, in considering a parole for such prisoner, consider all statements and recommendations which may have been submitted by the judge, district attorney, and sheriff, pursuant to Section 1203.01, or in response to notices given under Section 3042, and recommendations of other persons interested in the granting or denying of such parole. The board shall enter on its order granting or denying parole to such prisoners, the fact that such statements and recommendations have been considered by it.

SEC. 52. Section 3050 of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 53. Section 3052 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

The term "family physician" as used in this chapter means a primary care physician who is prepared to and renders continued comprehensive and preventative health care services to families and who has received specialized training in an approved family practice residency for three years after graduation from an accredited medical school.

The terms "associated" and "affiliated," as used in this chapter, mean that relationship that exists by virtue of a formal written agreement between a hospital or other health care delivery system and an approved medical school which pertains to the family practice training program for which state contract funds are sought. This definition shall include such agreements which may be entered into subsequent to the effective date of this chapter as well as those relevant agreements which are in existence prior to the effective date of this chapter.

The term "commission," as used in this chapter, shall mean the Health Manpower Policy Commission.

The term "programs which train primary care physician's assistants" as used in this chapter shall mean a program which has been approved for the training of primary care physician's assistants pursuant to Section 3513 of the Business and Professions Code.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that sufficient funds may be made available to insure the continued growth of the family physician, primary care physician's assistant, and primary care nurse practitioner training programs, and to help overcome the severe shortage of primary care physicians and medical personnel that is required to meet the health needs of the people of California, it is essential that this act take effect immediately.

An act relating to property taxation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State June 30, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Lagoon Valley Park, a certain parcel of land located in a portion of Lot 37, Los Putos Rancho, also being a portion of projected Sections 30 and 31, Township 6 North, Range 2 West, Mount Diablo base and meridian, in the County of Solano, and all improvements thereto, is exempt from property taxation, as of the date of its acquisition on June 30, 1976. Any tax owing on such property on the effective date of this section shall be canceled pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 4985) of Part 9 of Division 1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and any tax imposed on such property after June 30, 1976, if paid, shall be refunded pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 5096) of such part.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds that, in 1970, the City of Vacaville and the County of Solano entered into a joint powers agreement pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 6500) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code to provide for the acquisition and development of parks for the benefit of the public. The City of Vacaville is a member of the Association of Bay Area Governments, while the County of Solano is not. Therefore, in order to facilitate financing for the project through the association, the city agreed to hold bare legal title to the property and make all necessary applications for funding, and the county agreed to assume responsibility for the acquisition of land and for development of the project.

SEC. 3. The Legislature further finds that this arrangement of convenience does not give the City of Vacaville such an interest in property outside of its boundaries which has value for purposes of property taxation and that the acquisition of the Lagoon Valley Park is the equivalent of the acquisition of property by a local entity of government within the meaning of subdivision (b) of Section 4986 of the Revenue and Taxation Code

SEC. 4. The situation existing between the City of Vacaville and the County of Solano is unique, and a general statute could not be made applicable. Therefore, this special act is necessary to resolve the problem in this singular situation

SEC 5. Notwithstanding Section 2229 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement made to local governments by reason of this clarifying legislation, since this act was enacted at the request of local government.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect The facts constituting such necessity are·

The problem arising in Solano County concerning the proper tax status of Lagoon Valley Park is in need of resolution at the earliest possible time in order that this worthwhile project may continue to be developed. Therefore, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 172

An act to amend Sections 270, 272, 501, and 531 of, and to add Section 692.1 to, the Financial Code, relating to banks, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State June 30, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 270 of the Financial Code is amended to read.

270. The superintendent shall annually collect pro rata from the banks and trust companies under the supervision of the department a fund in amount sufficient in his judgment to meet the expenses of the department and a reasonable reserve for contingencies.

The amount of the annual assessment for the fund on any bank or trust company shall not exceed the sum of the products of a base assessment rate, or fraction thereof, and segregated portions of its total resources, according to the following table:

Segregated Total Resources (In Millions or Fractions Thereof)	Percentage of Base Assessment Rate
First $1	100.0
Next $9	12.5
Next $40	9.5
Next $50	6.0
Next $400	5.0
Next $500	4.5
Next $2,000	4.0
Next $7,000	3.4
Next $10,000	3.2
Excess over $20,000	2.1

The base assessment rate shall be set by the superintendent from time to time at his discretion, not to exceed two dollars and twenty cents ($2.20) per one thousand dollars ($1,000) of total resources.

SEC. 2. Section 272 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

272. The superintendent in addition to the annual assessment shall collect from each bank authorized to engage in the trust business, and from each corporation doing a departmental business as a title insurance company and as a trust company, to defray the cost of examination, a fee not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200) per diem, for each examiner necessarily engaged in the examination of the trust company, trust business, or trust department. The superintendent shall assess the fee upon completion of the examination of the trust company, trust business, or trust department of the title insurance company.

SEC. 3. Section 501 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

501. The request for authority to establish a branch office shall be set forth in an application in such form and containing such information as the superintendent may require and shall be accompanied by an application fee of one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each new branch office.

SEC. 4. Section 531 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

531. An application to establish a foreign branch or branches shall specify the place or places where the same are proposed to be established and the banking operations proposed to be carried on and shall contain such other information as the superintendent may require. The superintendent in his discretion may approve or disapprove the application and may at any time require the discontinuance of any foreign branch office. An application to establish a foreign branch shall be accompanied by a fee of one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each foreign branch sought to be established.

SEC. 5. Section 692.1 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

692.1. The superintendent shall charge and collect fees for applications filed under this article as fixed in this section.

(c) The fee for any permit to sell securities other than as specified in subdivision (b) shall be one hundred dollars ($100) plus one-tenth of one percent (0.1%) of the aggregate value of the securities sought to be sold, up to a maximum aggregate fee of one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500).

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The present assessment schedule on the basis of which state banks pay for the cost of supervision has developed sharp differences between the actual cost of supervising different banks and the assessment which such banks must pay, and has created the danger of greater imbalance between the state banks and national banks operating within the state.

CHAPTER 173

An act to add Section 5546 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State June 30, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5546 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

5546. Livestock shall be exempted from the tax imposed by this part for any period declared by the Governor, or by the President or a federal official at the request of the Governor, to be a drought emergency, commencing on the first day of the month immediately following such declaration, and such exemption shall apply with respect to declarations in effect on the effective date of this section.

Livestock shall not be exempted by this section with regard to any declaration of a drought emergency for any period exceeding 12 months, unless, at the end of a 12-month period during which such exemption applies, the Governor declares that such drought emergency still exists. If such declaration is made, such exemption shall be applied for the next 12-month period or until such drought emergency is declared not to exist.

This section shall apply only to livestock owned by an owner (1) whose average gross income from farming in the taxable year and the immediately preceding two taxable years is at least 75 percent of the average total gross income from all sources for such years, (2) whose annual average net taxable income for the taxable year and the immediately preceding two taxable years does not exceed forty thousand dollars ($40,000), and (3) if such owner is a corporation or partnership, then, in addition to the above requirements, this section shall apply only if a majority interest in such corporation or partnership is held by stockholders or partners who themselves are primarily and directly engaged in agricultural production.

SEC. 2. Section 1 of this act shall have prospective application only, and shall be applied with respect to declarations in effect on the effective date of this section.

SEC. 3 The Controller shall report to the Legislature on the amount of the claims made by county auditors which are filed according to the procedure provided in subdivision (b) of Section 16113 of the Government Code for compensation for subventions lost by reason of the exemption provided by Section 1 of this act. Such report shall be made on or before the first day of October next following the operative date of this act, in order that the Legislature may appropriate funds for the reimbursement of local agencies for subventions lost by them pursuant to this act.

SEC. 4. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 174

An act to amend Section 84766 of the Education Code, as proposed by the 1977 Education Code Supplemental Act, relating to community colleges, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State June 30, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Chapter 991 of the Statutes of 1976 made, in a provision of law defining "total units of average daily attendance" for purposes of computing specified community college apportionments, an error which, if not rectified, on or before the second principal apportionment, would adversely affect a number of community college districts. 56039. A county superintendent of schools or a parent or guardian of a handicapped pupil who is authorized to receive services under this article may submit a written request to the Superintendent of Public Instruction for a waiver of the maximum class size requirements of Sections 56611, 56703, 56512, and 56517, subject to the condition that the only appropriate placement for the pupil is in a class offered by a private nonsectarian school which exceeds the maximum class size requirements. Once the request is received, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, after due consideration, may grant the request if he determines that no other educational placement that is reasonable is appropriate.

The request shall fully explain the justification for such waiver and may be granted only for the current school year in which it is submitted

In the case of handicapped pupils who were enrolled in private nonsectarian schools during the 1976–77 school year, the Superintendent of Public Instruction may grant a retroactive waiver of the maximum class size requirements commencing with the Fall term of that year for the purpose of making tuition payments which otherwise would have been authorized by this article if this section had been in effect.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that parents and guardians of handicapped pupils with unique learning problems may have the opportunity to enroll their children and wards in the best educational programs available, at the earliest possible time, it is essential that this act take immediate effect.

The director, in cooperation with federal, city, county, city and county, and other state agencies, shall take any steps necessary to accomplish the eradication of this pest.

CHAPTER 188

An act to amend Section 44955 of, and to add Section 44963 to, the Water Code, relating to California water storage districts and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 1977. Filed with Secretary of State June 30, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 44955 of the Water Code is amended to read:

44955. Revenue warrants may be sold at either public or private sale upon such terms and conditions as the board may determine. Such warrants may be sold at less than their par or face value, but no revenue warrant may be sold at a price which would yield to the purchaser an average of more than 8 percent per annum, payable semiannually, according to standard tables of bond values.

SEC. 2. Section 44963 is added to the Water Code, to read:

44963. Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 44953 and 44962, revenue warrants may be issued prior to August 1, 1978, pursuant to this chapter for a term not to exceed 10 years from the date of issuance and for an amount not in excess of four million dollars ($4,000,000) in any one fiscal year.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Several California water storage districts and improvement districts therein have undertaken irrigation projects to provide needed supplemental water for agriculture in such districts by utilizing the supply of water made available from the State of California or the United States, which projects involve annual fixed costs of great magnitude. The financial programs under which these projects are implemented provide that substantial portions of these costs be recovered from charges related to the available water supply. As a direct result of the severe drought conditions existing throughout the State of California the available water supply has been reduced to unexpected minimums, resulting in unit costs of unexpected amounts. In order to preserve the financial integrity of the projects, and thereby to continue to provide the water necessary to preserve the health and safety of the persons residing in the affected areas, it is now necessary to provide such districts with additional financial flexibility to meet their financial commitments in a timely manner from financially feasible revenues, and it is therefore essential that this act go into immediate effect.

1780. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a vacancy in any elective office on the governing board of a special district, other than those specified in Section 1781, shall be filled as provided in this section. The remaining district board members may fill the vacancy by appointment until the next district general election that is scheduled 90 or more days after the effective date of the vacancy, provided the appointment is made within a period of 60 days immediately subsequent to the effective date of such vacancy and provided a notice of the vacancy is posted in three or more conspicuous places in the district at least 15 days before the appointment is made. In lieu of making an appointment the remaining members of the board may within 60 days of the vacancy call an election to fill the vacancy. The election shall be held on the next available election date provided by Section 2504 of the Elections Code that is 90 or more days after the vacancy occurs.

(b) If the vacancy is not filled by the district board as specified, or if the board has not called for an election within 60 days of the vacancy, the city council of the city in which the district is wholly located, or if the district is not wholly located within a city, the board of supervisors of the county representing the larger portion of the district area in which the election to fill the vacancy will be held, may fill the vacancy within 90 days of the vacancy, or the city council or county supervisors may order the district to call an election to fill the vacancy. The election shall be held on the next available election date provided by Section 2504 of the Elections Code that is 90 or more days after the vacancy occurs.

(c) If within 90 days of the vacancy the remaining members of the board or the appropriate board of supervisors or city council have not filled the vacancy and no election has been called for, the district shall call an election to fill the vacancy. The election shall be held on the next available election date provided by Section 2504 of the Elections Code that is 90 or more days after the vacancy occurs.

(d) Persons appointed to fill a vacancy shall hold office until the next district general election and thereafter until the person elected at such election to fill the vacancy has been qualified, but persons elected to fill a vacancy shall hold office for the unexpired balance of the term of office.

CHAPTER 192

An act to amend Sections 20025, 20025.2, 20834.1, 21101, and 22825.1 of the Government Code, relating to the Public Employees' Retirement System, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State June 30, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20025 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20025. The entire compensation of a local member shall be included in any computation to be made under this part for service rendered as an employee of a contracting agency, the effective date of whose contract is on or after July 1, 1952, or whose contract on its effective date prior to July 1, 1952, contained an election to be subject to this section.

SEC. 2. Section 20025.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20025.2. When the compensation of a member is a factor in any computation to be made under this part there shall be excluded from such computations any compensation based on overtime put in by a member whose service retirement allowance is a fixed percentage of final compensation for each year of credited service. For the purposes of this part, overtime is the aggregate service performed by an employee as a member for all employers and in all categories of employment in excess of the hours of work considered normal for employees on a full-time basis, and for which monetary compensation is paid.

If a member concurrently renders service in two or more positions, one or more of which is full time, service in the part-time position shall constitute overtime. If two or more positions are full time, a member may designate within 30 days of notice given which position shall constitute overtime; if the member does not so designate, the position with the later membership date shall be deemed overtime. This provision shall apply only to service rendered on or after the effective date of this amendment.

SEC. 3. Section 20834.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20834.1. Credit for prior service rendered as an employee of a contracting agency shall be granted to each local member at the date the local member becomes a member of this system; provided, however, that a member may not be credited with such prior service, if he is eligible to redeposit for current service, until after he has been accredited with all current service for which he is eligible.

This section shall apply to all local members who are in active state service on or after January 1, 1977, and notwithstanding any other provision in this article shall operate prospectively.

SEC. 4. Section 21101 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21101. The board may reinstate a person from retirement upon (a) his application to the board for reinstatement; (b) the determination of the board, based upon medical examination, that he is not incapacitated for the duties to be assigned to him; and (c) the determination of the board that his age at the date of application for reinstatement is at least six months less than the age of compulsory retirement for service applicable to members of the class or category in which it is proposed to employ him. The effective date of such reinstatement for purposes of this article shall be the first day of compensated employment.

SEC. 5. Section 22825.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

22825.1. Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, the employer's contribution, with respect to each state officer and employee or an annuitant who was in such employment or office including an academic position with a California state university or college or is a survivor of such person, shall be the amount necessary to pay the cost of his enrollment, including the enrollment of his family members, in a health benefits plan or plans or, if less, thirty-two dollars ($32) for basic and related major medical plans with respect to employees or annuitants enrolled for self alone or for an employee or annuitant so enrolled for self and one family member, fifty-three dollars ($53) or, for an employee or annuitant so enrolled for self and two or more family members, sixty-six dollars ($66). The annual total compensation report by the State Personnel Board shall recommend adjustments of the dollar amounts herein based on the principle that the employer's contribution for each employee or annuitant shall be an amount equal to 85 percent of the weighted average of the premiums required for basic and related major medical plans with respect to employees or annuitants enrolled for self alone plus 60 percent of the weighted average of the additional premiums required for enrollment of family members in basic and major medical plans as applicable for the level of benefits offered by (1) the statewide service plan contracted by the state; (2) the statewide indemnity plan contracted by the state; (3) the two prepaid comprehensive medical-hospital plans with the largest number of enrollments contracted by the state, as determined by the board, whichever is less. There shall be only one such contribution with respect to all annuitants receiving allowances as survivors of the same employee or annuitant.

The employer's contribution under this section for each employee shall commence on the effective date of his enrollment.

The contribution of each employee and annuitant shall be the total cost per month of the benefit coverage afforded him under the plan or plans less the portion thereof to be contributed by the employer.

SEC. 6. Sections 1, 2, 3, and 4 of this act shall become operative on January 1, 1978.

Section 5 of this act shall become operative on July 1, 1977.

SEC. 7. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because duties, obligations, or responsibilities imposed on local government by this act can be accomplished with no additional cost to local government.

SEC. 8. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

SEC 3. Section 72123 of the Education Code is amended to read:

72123. Each member of the governing board of a community college district may be allowed for travel necessary to attend annual, regular and special meetings of the governing board the rate of mileage determined by the governing board. Orders for travel allowances shall be drawn upon the funds of the district and signed by a majority of the governing board exclusive of the payee.

CHAPTER 194

An act to amend Section 739.5 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to master-meter customers.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State June 30, 1977]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 739.5 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

739.5. (a) The commission shall require that, whenever domestic gas or domestic electric service, or both, is provided by a master-meter customer to users through a submeter service system, the master-meter customer providing such submeter service, whether such customer is a mobilehome park, an apartment house, or a similar establishment, shall charge each user at the same rate which would be applicable if the user were receiving such gas or electricity or both, directly from the serving utility. The commission shall require the serving utility to establish uniform rates for each service schedule area for master-meter service at a level which will provide a sufficient differential to cover the reasonable average costs to master-meter customers of providing such submeter service provided, however, that such costs shall not exceed the average cost that the serving utility would have incurred in providing comparable services beyond the master meter to the submeter tenants.

(b) Every master-meter customer subject to subdivision (a) who, on or after January 1, 1978, receives any rebate from the serving utility shall distribute to, or credit to the account of, each current user served by the master-meter customer that portion of the rebate which the amount of gas or electricity, or both, consigned by the user during the last billing period bears to the total amount used by the master-meter customer during such period.

(c) Serving utilities shall notify each master-meter customer subject to subdivision (b) of the master-meter customers' responsibilities under that subdivision.

CHAPTER 195

An act to add Sections 22841 and 22841.5 to the Water Code, relating to irrigation districts, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 1977 Filed with Secretary of State June 30, 1977.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22841 is added to the Water Code, to read:

22841. Notwithstanding Section 23509 of the Elections Code, the board of an irrigation district containing 500,000 acres or more may designate that the general district election shall be held on the day provided for the statewide direct primary election in Section 2551 of the Elections Code and consolidated with such statewide primary election, and thereafter all references to odd-numbered years with respect to such elections shall mean even-numbered years as nearly as may be applicable. A designation by the board changing the date of a general district election pursuant to this section shall be adopted by resolution of the board and filed with the county clerk of the principal county at least 90 days before the date of the next district general election which would occur had such designation not been made and at least 90 days before the next statewide primary election provided for in Section 2551 of the Elections Code.

SEC. 2. Section 22841.5 is added to the Water Code, to read:

22841.5. In an irrigation district containing 500,000 acres or more, the board shall, when changing the boundaries of the divisions of the district pursuant to Section 21605, make such boundaries coincide with general county election precincts as nearly as may be practicable while keeping such divisions as nearly equal in population as may be practicable.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The cost of a separate general district election within irrigation districts containing 500,000 acres or more is disproportionate for the size of such districts and this act would permit consolidation of elections in such districts with the statewide primary election. In order to permit the savings of district funds in this odd-numbered year, it is, therefore, necessary that this act take effect immediately.

This section shall not be construed to prohibit any notary public, except a notary public whose fees are required by law to be remitted to the state or any other public agency, from performing notarial services without charging a fee.
