(3) It shall deposit seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500) for each county in which it transacts business in some form permitted by Section 12351 with the commissioner who shall forthwith make a special deposit thereof in the State Treasury and such deposit shall be subject to the provisions of Sections 12353, 12356, 12357, and 12358 and as long as there are no claims against the deposit all interest and dividends thereon shall be paid to the depositor. The deposit shall be for the security and protection of persons having lawful claims against the depositor growing out of escrow transactions with it. Such deposit shall be maintained until four years after all escrows handled by the depositor have been closed.

(A) The commissioner may release such deposits prior to the passage of such four-year period upon presentation of evidence satisfactory to the commissioner of either a statutory merger of the depositor into a licensee or certificate holder subject to the jurisdiction of the commissioner, or a valid assumption agreement under which all liability of the depositor stemming from escrow transactions handled by it is assumed by a licensee or certificate holder subject to the jurisdiction of the commissioner.

(B) With the foregoing exceptions, the deposit shall be returned to the depositor or lawful successor in interest following the four-year period, upon presentation of evidence satisfactory to the commissioner that there are no claims against the deposit stemming from escrow transactions handled by the depositor. If the commissioner has evidence of one or more claims against the depositor, and the depositor is not in conservatorship or liquidation, the commissioner may interplead the deposit by special endorsement to a court of competent jurisdiction for distribution on the basis that claims against the depositor stemming from escrow transactions handled by it have priority in such distribution over other claims against the depositor.

(4) It shall obtain and maintain a fidelity bond on file with the commissioner, to cover all officers and employees of the company who participate in any escrow transaction that is handled by the company. Such bond shall be a blanket bond or, with the approval of the commissioner, may be a position or individual bond. The commissioner shall prescribe the amount of the bond which shall not exceed two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000).

In the commissioner's sole discretion, he may accept a cash deposit in an amount not to exceed two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) in lieu of the bond otherwise required by this paragraph. Such deposit shall be in any form permitted by Section 12351. In the event such a deposit is accepted by the commissioner, he shall make a special deposit thereof in the State Treasury and so long as the depositor continues to be solvent, the depositor shall annually receive the interest or income accruing on the assets in the deposit.

Such deposit shall be returned to the depositor or its lawful successor in interest upon the first to occur of the following:

(A) The filing of a new fidelity bond with the commissioner, provided such bond covers all officers and employees of the company who participated in any escrow transactions handled by the company during the period of such deposit in the State Treasury, and such bond otherwise meets the requirements of this paragraph; or

(B) Upon the filing of a new fidelity bond with the commissioner which affords coverage from the date of issuance, in which case the depositor company shall present to the commissioner an audit covering any escrow transactions handled by the company during the period of such deposit with the State Treasury, made by an independent certified or licensed public accountant approved by the commissioner specifically for such purpose, and verifying that the books and records of the depositor disclose no undischarged liabilities or losses which could result in a claim against such deposit. Such audit shall be conducted in accordance with the rules and regulations adopted by the commissioner; or

(C) Presentation of evidence satisfactory to the commissioner of either a statutory merger of the depositor into a licensee or certificate holder subject to the jurisdiction of the commissioner, or a valid assumption agreement under which a licensee or certificate holder subject to the jurisdiction of the commissioner assumes responsibility for any losses for which the deposit would otherwise act as security; or

(D) Presentation to the commissioner of an audit made by an independent, certified or licensed public accountant approved by the commisioner specifically for this purpose, verifying that (1) the depositor has ceased to engage in the escrow business, (2) not less than one year has elapsed since the closing of the last escrow handled by the depositor, and (3) the books and records of the depositor disclose no undischarged liabilities or losses which could result in a claim against such deposit. The audit shall be conducted in accord with rules and regulations adopted by the commissioner.

(c) The commissioner shall, whenever it appears necessary, examine the business and affairs of a company licensed under this section. All such examinations shall be at the expense of the company.

(d) At any time that the commissioner determines, after notice and hearing, that a company licensed under this section has willfully failed to comply with any of the provisions of this section, the commissioner shall make his order prohibiting the company from conducting its business for a period of not more than one year.

Any company violating such an order is subject to seizure under Article 14 (commencing with Section 1010) of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 1 is guilty of a misdemeanor and may have its license revoked by the commissioner. Any person aiding and abetting any company in a violation of such an order is guilty of a misdemeanor.

The purpose of this section is to maintain the solvency of the companies subject to this section and to protect the public by preventing fraud and requiring fair dealing. In order to carry out such purposes the commissioner may make reasonable rules and regulations to govern the conduct of its business of companies subject to this section.

The name under which each underwritten title company is licensed shall at all times be an approved name. Each such company shall be subject to the provisions of Article 14 (commencing with Section 1010) and Article 14.5 (commencing with Section 1065.1) of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 1.

Such rules and regulations shall be adopted, amended or repealed in accordance with the procedure provided in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 11371) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 3. Section 12389 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

12389. (a) An underwritten title company as defined in Section 12340.5, which shall be a stock corporation, may engage in the business of preparing title searches, title reports, title examinations, certificates or abstracts of title, upon the basis of which a title insurer writes title policies, provided that:

(1) Only domestic corporations may be licensed under this section and no underwritten title company, as defined in Section 12340.5, shall become licensed under this section, or change the name under which it is licensed or operates, unless it has first complied with the provisions of Section 881.

(2) Depending upon the county or counties in which the company is licensed to transact business, it shall maintain required minimum net worth as follows:

Aggregate number of documents recorded and documents filed in the offices of the county recorders in the preceding calendar year in all counties where the company is licensed to transact business.	Amount of required minimum net worth
Less than 10,000	$20,000
10,000 to 50,000	30,000
50,000 to 100,000	60,000
100,000 to 500,000	100,000
500,000 to 1,000,000	150,000
1,000,000 or more	200,000

"Net worth" is defined as the excess of assets over all liabilities and required reserves. It may carry as an asset the actual cost of its title plant provided the value ascribed to such asset shall not exceed the aggregate value of all other assets.

Where a title plant of an underwritten title company is not being currently maintained, the asset value of such plant shall not exceed its asset value as determined in the preceding paragraph as of the date to which such plant is currently maintained, less 1/10th thereof for each succeeding year or part thereof that such plant is not being currently maintained. For the purposes of this section, a title plant shall be deemed currently maintained so long as it is used in the normal conduct of the business of title insurance, and (1) the owner thereof continues regularly to obtain and index title record data to such plant or to a continuation thereof in a format other than that previously used, including, but not limited to, computerization of such data, or (2) the owner thereof is a participant, in an arrangement for joint use of a title plant system regularly maintained in any format, provided such owner is contractually entitled to receive a copy of the title record data contained in such jointly used title plant system during the period of such owner's participation therein, either periodically or upon termination of such participation, at a cost not to exceed the actual cost of duplication of such title record data.

An underwritten title company at all times shall maintain current assets of at least ten thousand dollars ($10,000) in excess of its current liabilities, as such current assets and liabilities may be defined pursuant to regulations made by the commissioner. In making such regulations, the commissioner shall be guided by generally accepted accounting principles followed by certified public accountants in this state.

(3) Such an underwritten title company shall obtain from the commissioner a license to transact its business. Such license shall not be granted until the applicant conforms to the requirements of this section and all other provisions of this code specifically applicable to applicant. After issuance the holder shall continue to comply with the requirements as to its business set forth in this code, in the applicable rules and regulations of the commissioner and in the laws of this state.

Any underwritten title company who possesses, or is required to possess, a license pursuant to this section shall be subject as if an insurer to the provisions of Article 8 (commencing with Section 820) of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 1 of this code and shall be deemed to be subject to authorization by the Insurance Commissioner within the meaning of subdivision (e) of Section 25100 of the Corporations Code.

Such license may be obtained by filing an application on a form prescribed by the commissioner accompanied by a filing fee of three hundred dollars ($300). Such license when issued shall be for an indefinite term and shall expire with the termination of the existence of the holder, subject to the annual renewal fee imposed under Sections 12415 and 12416.

An underwritten title company seeking to extend its license to an additional county shall pay a one-hundred-seventy-five-dollar ($175) fee for each such additional county, and shall furnish to the commissioner evidence, at least sufficient to meet the minimum net worth requirements of paragraph (2), of its financial ability to expand its business operation to include such additional county or counties.

(4) Such an underwritten title company shall furnish an audit to the commissioner on the forms provided by the commissioner annually, either on a calendar year basis on or before March 31st or, if approved in writing by the commissioner in respect to any individual company, on a fiscal year basis on or before 90 days after the end of the fiscal year. The time for furnishing any such audit may be extended, for good cause shown, on written approval of the commissioner for a period, not to exceed 60 days. Failure to submit an audit on time, or within such extended time as the commissioner may grant, shall be grounds for an order by the commissioner to accept no new business pursuant to subdivision (d). Such audits shall be private, except that a synopsis of the balance sheet on a form prescribed by the commissioner may be made available to the public.

The audits shall be made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards by an independent certified public accountant or independent licensed public accountant approved by the commissioner specifically for the particular company. Approval of an auditor for a particular company shall not be deemed to be a licensing of the auditor nor approval of the auditor for any other company or any other purpose. Any such approval, or the renewal thereof, shall automatically expire on the first day of January in the fifth calendar year following the date of original or renewal approval. The fee for filing an application for such approval or the renewal thereof shall be seventeen dollars and fifty cents ($17.50). The fee for filing the audit shall be thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents ($37.50).

The commissioner may deny or revoke approval or renewal of approval of an auditor for any of the following reasons:

(i) Adverse result in any proceeding before the State Board of Accountancy affecting the auditor's license;

(ii) The auditor has an affiliation with the underwritten title company or any of its officers or directors which would prevent his reports on the company from being reasonably objective;

(iii) The auditor has suffered conviction of any misdemeanor or felony based on his activities as an accountant; or

(iv) Judgment adverse to the auditor in any civil action finding him guilty of fraud, deceit or misrepresentation in the practice of his profession.

Any company which fails to file any audit or other report on or before the date it is due shall pay to the commissioner a penalty fee of one hundred dollars ($100) and on failure to pay such or any other fee or file the audit required by this section shall forfeit the privilege of accepting new business until the delinquency is corrected.

(b) Such an underwritten title company may engage in the escrow business and act as escrow agent provided that:

(1) All funds deposited with the company in connection with any escrow shall be deposited in a bank in a separate trust account, and such funds shall be the property of the person or persons entitled thereto under the provisions of the escrow and segregated escrow by escrow in the records of the company. Such funds shall not be subject to any debts of the company and shall be used only to fulfill the terms of the individual escrow under which the funds were accepted and none of such funds shall be used until all conditions of the escrow have been met.

Bona fide drafts executed by persons fully responsible financially may at the option of the company, be deemed the equivalent of funds already cleared into such bank deposit unless another law of this state prohibits such persons from tendering such drafts to escrow holders for the purpose of closing escrows.

Any interest received on funds deposited with the company in connection with any escrow which are deposited in a bank shall be paid over to the depositing party to the escrow and shall not be transferred to the account of the company.

(2) It shall maintain record of all receipts and disbursements of escrow funds.

(3) It shall deposit seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500) for each county in which it transacts business in some form permitted by Section 12351 with the commissioner who shall forthwith make a special deposit thereof in the State Treasury and such deposit shall be subject to the provisions of Sections 12353, 12356, 12357, and 12358 and as long as there are no claims against the deposit all interest and dividends thereon shall be paid to the depositor. The deposit shall be for the security and protection of persons having lawful claims against the depositor growing out of escrow transactions with it. Such deposit shall be maintained until four years after all escrows handled by the depositor have been closed.

(A) The commissioner may release such deposits prior to the passage of such four-year period upon presentation of evidence satisfactory to the commissioner of either a statutory merger of the depositor into a licensee or certificate holder subject to the jurisdiction of the commissioner, or a valid assumption agreement under which all liability of the depositor stemming from escrow transactions handled by it is assumed by a licensee or certificate holder subject to the jurisdiction of the commissioner.

(B) With the foregoing exceptions, the deposit shall be returned to the depositor or lawful successor in interest following the four-year period, upon presentation of evidence satisfactory to the commissioner that there are no claims against the deposit stemming from escrow transactions handled by the depositor. If the commissioner has evidence of one or more claims against the depositor, and the depositor is not in conservatorship or liquidation, the commissioner may interplead the deposit by special endorsement to a court of competent jurisdiction for distribution on the basis that claims against the depositor stemming from escrow transactions handled by it have priority in such distribution over other claims against the depositor.

(4) It shall maintain a minimum net worth of not less than one hundred percent (100%) in excess of that prescribed by paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) but in no event less than seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000); or, it shall obtain and file with the commissioner a letter of indemnity acceptable to the commissioner issued by a title insurer with which the underwritten title company has an underwriting agreement. The letter of indemnity shall name the commissioner as the indemnitee on behalf of all persons who have engaged in escrow transactions with the underwritten title company during the period such letter is in effect. Any such letter of indemnity shall operate to indemnify any person or entity for any financial loss they may incur as a direct result of any fraudulent or dishonest act on the part of an officer or employee of the underwritten title company in connection with their conduct of an escrow. The maximum liability assumed under a letter of indemnity shall be prescribed by the commissioner in an amount not to exceed two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000); or it shall obtain and maintain a fidelity bond on file with the commissioner, to cover all officers and employees of the company who participate in any escrow transaction that is handled by the company. Such bond shall be a blanket bond or, with the approval of the commissioner, may be a position or individual bond. The commissioner shall prescribe the amount of the bond which shall not exceed two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000).

In the commissioner's sole discretion, he may accept a cash deposit in an amount not to exceed two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) in lieu of the bond otherwise required by this paragraph. Such deposit shall be in any form permitted by Section 12351. In the event such a deposit is accepted by the commissioner, he shall make a special deposit thereof in the State Treasury and so long as the depositor continues to be solvent, the depositor shall annually receive the interest or income accruing on the assets in the deposit.

Such deposit shall be returned to the depositor or its lawful successor in interest upon the first to occur of the following:

(A) The filing of a new fidelity bond with the commissioner, provided such bond covers all officers and employees of the company who participated in any escrow transactions handled by the company during the period of such deposit in the State Treasury, and such bond otherwise meets the requirements of this paragraph; or

(B) Upon the filing of a new fidelity bond with the commissioner which affords coverage from the date of issuance, in which case the depositor company shall present to the commissioner an audit covering any escrow transactions handled by the company during the period of such deposit with the State Treasury, made by an independent certified or licensed public accountant approved by the commissioner specifically for such purpose, and verifying that the books and records of the depositor disclose no undischarged liabilities or losses which could result in a claim against such deposit. Such audit shall be conducted in accordance with the rules and regulations adopted by the commissioner; or

(C) Presentation of evidence satisfactory to the commissioner of either a statutory merger of the depositor into a licensee or certificate holder subject to the jurisdiction of the commissioner, or a valid assumption agreement under which a licensee or certificate holder subject to the jurisdiction of the commissioner assumes responsibility for any losses for which the deposit would otherwise act as security; or

(D) Presentation to the commissioner of an audit made by an independent, certified or licensed public accountant approved by the commissioner specifically for this purpose, verifying that (1) the depositor has ceased to engage in the escrow business, (2) not less than one year has elapsed since the closing of the last escrow handled by the depositor, and (3) the books and records of the depositor disclose no undischarged liabilities or losses which could result in a claim against such deposit. The audit shall be conducted in accord with rules and regulations adopted by the commissioner.

(c) The commissioner shall, whenever it appears necessary, examine the business and affairs of a company licensed under this section. All such examinations shall be at the expense of the company.

(d) At any time that the commissioner determines, after notice and hearing, that a company licensed under this section has willfully failed to comply with any of the provisions of this section, the commissioner shall make his order prohibiting the company from conducting its business for a period of not more than one year.

Any company violating such an order is subject to seizure under Article 14 (commencing with Section 1010) of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 1 is guilty of a misdemeanor and may have its license revoked by the commissioner. Any person aiding and abetting any company in a violation of such an order is guilty of a misdemeanor.

The purpose of this section is to maintain the solvency of the companies subject to this section and to protect the public by preventing fraud and requiring fair dealing. In order to carry out such purposes the commissioner may make reasonable rules and regulations to govern the conduct of its business of companies subject to this section.

The name under which each underwritten title company is licensed shall at all times be an approved name. Each such company shall be subject to the provisions of Article 14 (commencing with Section 1010) and Article 14.5 (commencing with Section 1065.1) of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 1.

Such rules and regulations shall be adopted, amended or repealed in accordance with the procedure provided in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 11371) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 4. Section 12389 of the Insurance Code, as amended by Section 3 of this act shall be operative until June 30, 1979, and on such date shall be repealed. Section 12389 of the Insurance Code, as amended by Section 2 of this act shall become operative on July 1, 1979.

SEC. 5. This is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Due to the recent adoption of endorsements to standard fidelity bonds issued in this state, which endorsements are unacceptable to the Department of Insurance, underwritten title companies are encountering extreme difficulty in obtaining fidelity coverage which is a necessary prerequisite to their conducting an escrow business. This inability to obtain coverage which is satisfactory to the Department of Insurance has resulted in the issuance of cease and desist orders by the department and may result in the future issuance of similar orders affecting the right of at least 24 underwritten title companies to continue to do business in this state. It is therefore necessary, on an interim basis, to provide an alternative to a fidelity bond so as to permit underwritten title companies to continue to conduct their business in this state. It is therefore necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 847

An act to add Section 5442 to, and to repeal Sections 5442 and 5443 of, the Education Code, and to add Sections 22935 and 23549 to, to repeal Article 5 (commencing with Section 15280) of Chapter 3 of Division 11, Article 6 (commencing with Section 22940) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 14 of, and Section 23549, and to repeal and add Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 17140) of Division 12 of, the Elections Code, and to amend Section 12172.5 of the Government Code, relating to elections.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5442 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 5442 is added to the Education Code, to read:

5442. Recount of votes in any school district or community college district shall be governed by the provisions of Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 17140) of Division 12 of the Elections Code.

SEC. 3. Section 5443 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 3.5. Article 5 (commencing with Section 15280) of Chapter 3 of Division 11 of the Elections Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 17140) of Division 12 of the Elections Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 17140) is added to Division 12 of the Elections Code, to read:

CHAPTER 13. RECOUNT

Article 1. General Provisions

17140. Except as provided in this chapter, this chapter applies to all elections. The recount of votes cast for candidates for presidential electors shall be governed by the provisions of this chapter.

Article 2. Clerk-Ordered Recounts

17150. If no election contest is pending wherein a recount of the ballots in a precinct has been or will be ordered, the clerk may order that the ballots voted in the precinct be publicly recounted if:

(a) The clerk has reasonable cause to believe the ballots in the precinct have been miscounted and,

(b) The clerk has examined, under oath, the precinct board members or, in the case of ballots counted by a central counting system, the counting board members and they are unable to explain the returns of their respective precincts.

Article 3. Voter-Requested Recounts

17160. Following completion of the official canvass, any voter may, within five days thereafter, file with the clerk responsible for conducting an election a written request for a recount of the votes cast for candidates for any office, for slates of presidential electors, or for or against any measure. The request shall specify on behalf of which candidate, slate of electors, or position on a measure (affirmative or negative) it is filed.

For the purposes of this section "completion of the canvass" shall be presumed to be that time when the clerk signs the certified statement of the results of the election except that, in the case of a city election, if a city council canvasses the returns itself and does not order the clerk to conduct the canvass as permitted by Section 22932.5, "completion of the canvass" shall be presumed to be that time when the governing body declares the persons elected or the measures approved or defeated.

17161. The request may specify the order in which the precincts shall be recounted.

17162. Any time during the conduct of a recount and for 24 hours thereafter, any other voter may request the recount of any precincts in an election for the same office, slate of presidential electors, or measure not recounted as a result of the original request.

17163. The voter filing the request seeking the recount shall, before the recount is commenced and at the beginning of each day following, deposit with the clerk such sum as the clerk requires to cover the cost of the recount for that day. The money deposited shall be returned to the depositor if, upon completion of the recount, the candidate, slate of presidential electors, or the position on the measure (affirmative or negative) for which the declaration is filed is found to have received the plurality of votes cast which it had not received according to the official canvass or, in an election where there are two or more candidates, the recount results in the candidate for whom the recount was requested appearing on the ballot in a subsequent runoff election or general election who would not have so appeared in the absence of the recount. The depositor shall be entitled to the return of any money deposited in excess of the cost of the recount if the candidate, slate, or position on the measure has not received the plurality of the votes cast or, in an election where there are two or more candidates, the recount does not result in the candidate for whom the recount was requested appearing on the ballot in a subsequent runoff or general election as a result of the recount. Money not required to be refunded shall be deposited in the appropriate public treasury.

17164. The recount shall be conducted under the supervision of the clerk by special recount boards consisting of four voters of the county appointed by the clerk. Each member of a recount board shall receive the same compensation per day as is paid in the jurisdiction within which the recount is being conducted to members of precinct boards, other than inspectors, to be paid out of the appropriate public treasury.

If the office of the clerk is the subject of the recount, the governing body shall appoint an officer, other than the clerk, to appoint and supervise the special recount boards.

17165. The recount shall be commenced not more than seven days following the request for the recount, and shall be continued daily, Saturdays, Sundays and holidays excepted, for not less than six hours each day until completed.

17166. If in the election which is to be recounted the votes were recorded by means of a punchcard voting system or by electronic or electromechanical vote tabulating devices, the voter who files the declaration requesting the recount may select whether the recount shall be conducted manually or by means of the voting system used originally, or both.

17167. Not less than one day prior to commencement of the recount, the clerk shall post a notice as to the date and place of the recount and shall notify the following persons of it:

(a) All candidates for any office the votes for which are to be recounted.

(b) Authorized representatives of presidential candidates to whom electors are pledged if the votes to be recounted were cast for presidential electors.

(c) Proponents of any initiative or referendum or persons filing ballot arguments for or against any initiative, referendum, or measure placed on the ballot by the governing body the votes for which are to be recounted.

(d) The Secretary of State in the case of a recount of the votes cast for candidates for any state office, presidential electors, or delegates to a national convention or on any state measure.

17168. The recount shall be conducted publicly.

17169. All ballots, whether voted or not, and any other relevant material may be examined as part of any recount if the voter filing the declaration requesting the recount so requests.

17170. On recount, ballots may be challenged for incompleteness, ambiguity, or other defects, in accordance with the following procedure:

(a) The person challenging the ballot shall state the reason for the challenge.

(b) The official counting the ballot shall count it as he or she believes proper and then set it aside with a notation as to how it was counted.

(c) The clerk shall, before the recount is completed, determine whether the challenge is to be allowed. The decision of the clerk is final.

17171. In lieu of the returns as reported in the official canvass, upon completion of the recount showing that a different candidate was nominated or elected, that a different presidential slate of electors received a plurality of the votes, or that a measure was defeated instead of approved or approved instead of defeated, there shall be entered the result of the recount in each precinct affected, which result shall, for all purposes thereafter, be the official returns of those precincts for the office, slates of presidential electors, or measure involved in the recount. The results of any recount which is not completed by counting the votes in each and every precinct in the jurisdiction within which votes were cast on the candidates for the office, on the slates of electors, or on the measure in question shall be declared null and void. If the office, slates of electors, or measure are voted on in more than one county, the results of any recount which is not completed by counting the votes in each and every precinct in the jurisdiction within which votes were cast on the candidates for the office, the slate, or the measure in the county in which the declaration requesting the recount is filed shall be declared null and void.

17173. This chapter does not:

(a) Authorize the opening or recounting of ballots for any precinct except for the purposes specified in this chapter.

(b) Limit other provisions of law regarding an election contest or recount.

Article 4. Court-Ordered Recounts

17180. (a) When requested by the board of supervisors or the grand jury, the district attorney may petition the superior court for an order directing a public recount to be made of ballots tabulated by a voting system in such precincts in the county as it designates for any election occurring not over 25 days before such request. Such request and petition shall be made only on one or more of the following grounds, and such order may be issued only with a finding that there is probable cause to believe that one or more of the grounds exist:

(1) Misconduct by anyone sufficient to make it likely that the result of the election was affected as to the successful candidates or propositions or tie holders, including any of the conduct specified in Section 20021.

(2) Errors or failures, whether electronic, mechanical or otherwise, in the safekeeping, handling, tallying, counting, recording, or certification of the ballots or votes cast, sufficient to make it likely that the result of the election was affected as to the successful candidates or propositions or tie holders, or sufficient to cast substantial doubt on the substantial accuracy of the results without regard to affecting any result.

The petition shall be set for hearing and may be opposed by any interested party.

(b) The court may order such further recounts as it may deem proper based on the results of the recounts provided for in subdivision (a) or in Section 17190, and shall declare the results of all such recounts, and shall determine and order corrected the results of any election affected by any recount.

(c) The court may order payment of the costs of any such recount in whole or in just proportion by any person or any public agency, or both, who petition for a recount. In the case of public agencies the costs shall be provided for and paid pursuant to Section 15026.

17181. Upon the completion of the counting of the votes as provided in this article, all ballot cards shall be arranged by precincts and shall be kept by the clerk for six months or so long thereafter as any contest involving the vote at the election remains undetermined.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this code, the final disposition of all voted ballot cards shall be determined by the clerk; and sealed ballot containers may be opened if the elections official determines it is necessary in a shredding or recycling process.

17182. Section 15208 shall apply unless a court orders the program held pending the conclusion of litigation challenging the outcome of an election. If court action or an official recount is initiated while the program is on deposit, the Secretary of State shall make the program available to the court or the elections official in whose jurisdiction the court action or recount takes place, upon written request.

17183. Any tape used in programming of vote totals, shall be kept under lock and seal, and if there is a recanvass of votes, the officer entrusted with the tapes shall submit his affidavit stating that they are true tapes used in the election and have not been altered.

Article 5. Automatic Recounts in Voting System Elections

17190. Within 15 days after every election in which a voting system as defined in Section 15009 is used, the officer conducting the election shall conduct a public manual recount of the ballots tabulated by such devices cast in 1 percent of the precincts chosen at random by the clerk. If 1 percent of the precincts should be less than one whole precinct, the recount shall be conducted in one precinct chosen at random by the clerk.

SEC. 5. Section 22935 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

22935. Recount of votes in municipal elections shall be governed by the provisions of Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 17140) of Division 12 of this code.

SEC. 6. Article 6 (commencing with Section 22940) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 14 of the Elections Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 23549 of the Elections Code is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 23549 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

23549. Recount of votes in any general district election shall be governed by the provisions of Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 17140) of Division 12 of this code.

SEC. 8.5. Section 12172.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

12172.5. The Secretary of State is the chief elections officer of the state, and shall administer the provisions of the Elections Code. The Secretary of State shall see that elections are efficiently conducted and that state election laws are enforced. The Secretary of State may require elections officers to make reports concerning elections in their jurisdictions.

If, at any time, the Secretary of State concludes that state election laws are not being enforced, the Secretary of State shall call the violation to the attention of the district attorney of the county or to the Attorney General. In these instances, the Secretary of State may assist the county elections officer in discharging his duties.

In order to determine whether an elections law violation has occurred, and notwithstanding Sections 17132, 17133, and 17135 of the Elections Code, the Secretary of State may examine voted, unvoted, spoiled and canceled ballots, vote-counting computer programs, absent voter envelopes and applications, and supplies referred to in Section 17022 of the Elections Code. The Secretary of State may also examine such other records of elections officials as he or she finds necessary in making such a determination, subject to the restrictions set forth in Section 6253.5.

The Secretary of State may adopt regulations to assure the uniform application and administration of state election laws.

SEC. 9. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because of the duties, obligations, or responsibilities imposed on local governmental entities by this act are such that related costs are incurred as a part of their normal operating procedures.

CHAPTER 848

An act to amend Section 52168 of, to add Sections 52164.1, 52164.2, 52164.3, 52164.4, and 52164.5 to, and to repeal and add Section 52164 of, the Education Code, relating to school districts, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 52164 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 52164 is added to the Education Code, to read:

52164. Each school district shall ascertain not later than the first day of March of each year, under regulations prescribed by the State Board of Education, the total number of limited-English-speaking pupils within the district, and shall classify them according to their primary language, age, and grade level. This count shall be known as the "census of limited-English-speaking pupils" and shall consist of a determination of the primary language of each pupil enrolled in the school district and an assessment of the language skills of all pupils whose primary language is other than English.

The census shall be taken by individual, actual count, and not by estimates or samplings. All limited-English-speaking pupils, including migrant and special education pupils, shall be counted. Special language assessment instruments, designated by the superintendent and in compliance with the requirements of subdivision (i) of Section 56301, may be used for special education pupils. The results of this census shall be reported to the Department of Education not later than the 30th day of April of each year. The previous census shall be updated to include new enrollees and to eliminate pupils who are no longer limited-English-speaking pupils and pupils who no longer attend school in the district, and shall be reported pursuant to Section 52164.1. Census data gathered in one school year shall be used to plan the number of bilingual classrooms to be established in the following school year.

SEC. 3. Section 52164.1 is added to the Education Code, to read:

52164.1. The superintendent, with the approval of the State Board of Education, shall prescribe census-taking methods, applicable to all school districts in the state, which shall include, but need not be limited to, the following:

(a) A determination of the primary language of each pupil enrolled in the school district. The primary language of new pupils shall be determined as they enroll. Once determined, the primary language need not be redetermined unless the parent or guardian claims there is an error. The primary language of each pupil enrolled in each district shall be determined not later than September 15, 1978, and kept current thereafter, as new pupils enroll. Home language determinations resulting from the 1977 home language survey need not be redone.

(b) An assessment of the language skills of all pupils whose primary language is other than English.

(1) The English language proficiency of each previously untested new enrollee, whose primary language is other than English, shall be assessed. This assessment may be conducted pursuant to paragraph (2) of this subdivision, or as set forth in this subdivision. If the district decides not to follow the procedures in paragraph (2), each previously untested new enrollee, whose primary language is other than English, shall be evaluated using the instrument designated by the Department of Education. This assessment shall be completed within 30 days after the date of the pupil's enrollment unless the temporary identification prescribed in Section 52164.4 is used. In cases where there is reasonable doubt by school authorities as to whether the pupil is limited English speaking within the meaning of subdivision (d) of Section 52163, or request is made for further assessment pursuant to Section 52164.3, an English language proficiency assessment shall be undertaken to evaluate the pupil's

English language skills. The instruments used shall be consistent with state standards as adopted by the State Board of Education. This second level of assessment shall be completed within 60 days after the date of the pupil's enrollment. The assessment of all pupils whose primary language is other than English shall be completed no later than March 1 of each year. Tests, materials, and procedures to determine proficiency in English shall be selected and administered so as not to be racially, culturally, or sexually discriminatory.

The Department of Education shall designate the instruments to be used by school districts, and such instruments shall be available by July 1 of the year preceding the date the census report is due, commencing July 1, 1979, and each year thereafter.

The assessments shall be conducted by persons who speak and understand the primary language of the limited-English-speaking pupils, who are adequately trained and prepared to evaluate cultural and ethnic factors, and who shall follow procedures formulated by the superintendent to determine which pupils are limited-English-speaking pupils, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 52163. The superintendent may waive the requirement that the assessment be conducted by persons who can speak and understand the pupil's primary language where the primary language is spoken by a small number of pupils and the district certifies that it is unable to comply. This certification shall be accompanied by a statement from the district superintendent that the chairperson of the district advisory committee on bilingual education has been consulted and was unable to assist in the effort to locate appropriate individuals to administer the assessment.

(2) Any district may elect to follow federal requirements regarding the census so long as the language skills described in subdivision (d) of Section 52163 are assessed. So long as such a federally approved census procedure is followed on a districtwide basis and is consistent with Section 52164, the district shall be exempt from the state census procedures described in subdivision (a) and paragraph (1) of this subdivision.

SEC. 4. Section 52164.2 is added to the Education Code, to read:

52164.2. The Department of Education shall review the results of the census each year. Where the information provided by a school district appears to be inaccurate, the department shall audit the district's census through an onsite visit. Where the census has been incorrectly taken, or the results appear to be inaccurate, the department shall require another census to be taken and the corrected information to be provided.

SEC. 5. Section 52164.3 is added to the Education Code, to read:

52164.3. (a) Each school district shall reassess pupils whose primary language is other than English, whether they are designated as non-English speaking, limited English speaking, or fluent English speaking, when a parent or guardian, teacher, or school site administrator claims that there is a reasonable doubt about the accuracy of the pupil's designation.

(b) In all such cases of reassessment, the parent or guardian of the pupil shall be notified of the result. This notice shall be given orally when school personnel have reason to think that a written notice will not be understood.

SEC. 6. Section 52164.4 is added to the Education Code, to read:

52164.4. If a kindergarten or previously untested first grade pupil enrolling in a school for the first time speaks a language other than English in the home, such pupil may be enrolled as a limited-English-speaking pupil in a bilingual program pursuant to subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of Section 52163 at least until the census procedure for that year is completed.

SEC. 7. Section 52164.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

52164.5. Pertinent information from the assessment of language skills for each pupil whose primary language is other than English shall be retained by the school district as long as the pupil is enrolled in the district. Each school district shall report annually to the Department of Education, and the department shall report to the State Board of Education, the number of pupils whose primary language is other than English, the number of pupils who are non-English speaking, and the number of pupils who are limited English speaking. Each school district shall further report the total number of pupils whose primary language is other than English who are enrolled in classes defined in subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of Section 52163, the number of such pupils who have become bilingual and literate in English and in their primary language, and the number of such pupils who have demonstrated adequate proficiency to be placed in mainstream classes.

SEC. 8. Section 52168 of the Education Code is amended to read:

52168. (a) The maximum allocation allowable for the 1977–78 and subsequent school years to school districts providing instruction pursuant to Section 52165 shall not exceed the maximum allowances established by the superintendent and the district pursuant to Section 3932 of Title 5 of the California Administrative Code, for each limited-English-speaking pupil who receives instruction in a program pursuant to Section 52165. This amount per pupil shall include all state and local categorical aid funds allocated to districts providing programs under Section 52165 which are wholly or partially allocated on the basis of the educational needs of limited-English-speaking pupils. The superintendent shall ensure that funds appropriated pursuant to this article supplement and do not supplant categorical funds allocated from other local or state sources in meeting the needs of limited-English-speaking pupils.

(b) School districts may claim funds appropriated pursuant to this article for expenditures in the following categories only:

(1) The employment of bilingual-crosscultural teachers and aides; however, funds are available for employment expenditures only to the extent such personnel are employed in providing bilingual services to eligible pupils. School districts applying for these funds shall submit an assurance that personnel hired for this program only supplement and do not supplant district personnel.

(2) The purchase and development of special bilingual-bicultural teaching materials;

(3) The costs of special in-service training to develop bilingual-crosscultural instructional skills with preference given to teachers and teacher aides employed as part of the bilingual-bicultural program; and

(4) Reasonable expenses (which may include transportation, child care, meals, and training) of parent advisory groups on bilingual-bicultural education, at the school and school district level, in the course of their duties as members of the parent advisory groups. The State Board of Education shall adopt rules and regulations defining reasonable expenses.

(5) Health and auxiliary services to the extent that they meet the direct needs of eligible pupils.

(6) Reasonable district administrative expenses allowed pursuant to regulations of the board.

(c) Nothing contained in this section shall be interpreted to authorize school districts to reduce per pupil expenditures from local, state, or federal sources for the education of limited-English-speaking pupils.

SEC. 9. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because there are savings as well as costs in this act which, in the aggregate, do not result in additional net costs.

SEC. 10. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to eliminate unnecessary confusion and to assist school districts in the effective implementation of bilingual education programs in the 1978–79 school year, it is necessary for this act to take immediate effect.

CHAPTER 849

An act to amend Sections 2892.5 and 4511 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to licensed vocational nurses and psychiatric technicians.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2892.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2892.5. (a) Each person renewing his license under the provisions of this chapter shall submit proof satisfactory to the board that, during the preceding two-year period, he has informed himself of developments in the vocational nurse field or in any special area of vocational nurse practice, occurring since the issuance of his certificate, or the last renewal thereof, whichever last occurred, either by pursuing a course or courses of continuing education approved by the board in the vocational nurse field or relevant to the practice of such licensee, and approved by the board; or by other means deemed equivalent by the board.

(b) For purposes of this section, the board shall, by regulation, establish standards for continuing education. The standards shall be established in a manner to assure that a variety of alternative forms of continuing education are available to licensees including, but not limited to, academic studies, in-service education, institutes, seminars, lectures, conferences, workshops, extension studies, and home study programs. The standards shall take cognizance of specialized areas of practice. The continuing education standards established by the board shall not exceed 30 hours of direct participation in a course or courses approved by the board, or its equivalent in the units of measure adopted by the board.

(c) This section shall not apply to licensees during the first two years immediately following their graduation from vocational nursing school.

(d) The board may, in accordance with the intent of this section, make exceptions from continuing education for licensees residing in another state or country, or for reasons of health, military service, or other good cause.

This section shall become operative on July 1, 1980.

SEC. 2. Section 4511 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4511. An applicant for a psychiatric technician's license shall have the following qualifications:

(a) Be at least 18 years of age.

(b) Have successfully completed an approved general education course of study through the 12th grade or the equivalent thereof as determined by the board.

(c) Have successfully completed (1) a prescribed course of study and training of at least 12 months in length in a school accredited by the board, which course of study and training shall combine the nursing knowledge and skills necessary for the care of any ill person and in addition those special skills necessary for the care of the mentally disabled and the developmentally disabled, or (2) a course of study and training which, together with previously acquired training or experience, is determined by a school accredited by the board to be equivalent in academic credits to its regular program for psychiatric technician training, or (3) have completed a course of study and training which in the opinion of the board is equivalent to the minimum requirements of an accredited program for psychiatric technicians in the state. Clinical inpatient experience shall be an integral part of any such prescribed or equivalent course of study and training. Such experience shall be obtained in a state hospital, except where the board finds that such requirement is not feasible due either to the distance of a state hospital from the school, or the unavailability, as determined by the State Department of Health, of state hospital clinical training placements.

(d) Have committed no act which, if committed by a licensed psychiatric technician, would be ground for disciplinary action.

CHAPTER 850

An act to amend Sections 25124 and 36933 of the Government Code, relating to publication of county and city ordinances, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25124 of the Government Code is amended to read:

25124. (a) Before the expiration of 15 days after the passage of an ordinance it shall be published once, with the names of the members voting for and against the ordinance, in a newspaper published in the county if there is one, and if there is no newspaper published in the county, the ordinance shall be posted at the courthouse door within the 15-day period and remain posted thereafter for at least one week. The local agency, at its option, may include in an ordinance reclassifying land either a brief description accompanied by a map of the boundaries of the property, as recited in the notice of hearing, or a complete metes and bounds description accompanied by a map depicting the reclassified property and adjacent properties. A certificate of the clerk or order entered in the minutes of the board that the ordinance has been duly published or posted is prima facie proof of the publication or posting.

(b) The publication or posting of ordinances, as required by subdivision (a), may be satisfied by either of the following actions:

(1) The county board of supervisors may publish a summary of a proposed ordinance or proposed amendment to an existing ordinance. Such summary shall be prepared by an official designated by the board of supervisors. A summary shall be published and a certified copy of the full text of the proposed ordinance or proposed amendment shall be posted in the office of the county clerk at least five days prior to the board of supervisors meeting at which the proposed ordinance or amendment or alteration thereto is to be adopted. Within 15 days after adoption of the ordinance or amendment, the board of supervisors shall publish a summary of the ordinance or amendment and the county clerk shall post in the office of the county clerk a certified copy of the full text of such adopted ordinance or amendment along with the names of those supervisors voting for and against the ordinance or amendment; or

(2) If the county official designated by the board of supervisors determines that it is not feasible to prepare a fair and adequate summary of the proposed or adopted ordinance or amendment, and if the board of supervisors so orders, a display advertisement of at least one-quarter of a page in a newspaper of general circulation in the county shall be published at least five days prior to the board of supervisors meeting at which the proposed ordinance or amendment or alteration thereto is to be adopted. Within 15 days after adoption of the ordinance or amendment, a display advertisement of at least one-quarter of a page shall be published. The advertisement shall indicate the general nature of, and provide information about the proposed or adopted ordinance or amendment, including information sufficient to enable the public to obtain copies of the complete text of such ordinance or amendment.

SEC. 2. Section 36933 of the Government Code is amended to read:

36933. (a) Within 15 days after its passage, the city clerk shall cause each ordinance to be published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation published and circulated in the city, or if there is none, he shall cause it to be posted in at least three public places in the city or published in a newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the county and circulated in the city. In cities incorporated less than one year, the city council may determine whether ordinances are to be published or posted. Ordinances shall not be published in a newspaper if the charge exceeds the customary rate charged by the newspaper for publication of private legal notices, but such ordinances shall be posted in the manner and at the time required by this section.

(b) Except as provided in Section 36937, an ordinance shall not take effect or be valid unless it is published or posted in substantially the manner and at the time required by this section.

(c) The publication or posting of ordinances, as required by subdivision (a), may be satisfied by either of the following actions:

(1) The city council may publish a summary of a proposed ordinance or proposed amendment to an existing ordinance. Such summary shall be prepared by an official designated by the city council. A summary shall be published and a certified copy of the full text of the proposed ordinance or proposed amendment shall be posted in the office of the city clerk at least five days prior to the city council meeting at which the proposed ordinance or amendment or alteration thereto is to be adopted. Within 15 days after adoption of the ordinance or amendment, the city council shall publish a summary of the ordinance or amendment and the city clerk shall post in the office of the city clerk a certified copy of the full text of such adopted ordinance or amendment along with the names of those city council members voting for and against the ordinance or amendment; or

(2) If the city official designated by the city council determines that it is not feasible to prepare a fair and adequate summary of the proposed or adopted ordinance or amendment, and if the city council so orders, a display advertisement of at least one-quarter of a page in a newspaper of general circulation in the city shall be published at least five days prior to the city council meeting at which the proposed ordinance or amendment or alteration thereto is to be adopted. Within 15 days after adoption of the ordinance or amendment, a display advertisement of at least one-quarter of a page shall be published. The advertisement shall indicate the general nature of, and provide information about the proposed or adopted ordinance or amendment, including information sufficient to enable the public to obtain copies of the complete text of such ordinance or amendment.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that counties and cities may, at the earliest possible time, realize the cost savings made possible by this act, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 851

An act to add Section 4.5 to Chapter 603 of the Statutes of 1977, relating to metric conversion.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4.5 is added to Chapter 603 of the Statutes of 1977, to read:

Sec. 4.5. In addition to the functions set forth in Section 4, the council shall:

(a) Investigate the extent to which conversion to metric weight and volume in packaging of consumer products may permit absolute price increases to the consumer; specifically, where a product is packaged by metric weight or volume in a container which is visually substantially similar to a container in which the product was previously sold by avoirdupois weight or United States dry or liquid measure of volume, but which contains less weight or volume absolutely than the former container, yet is sold at retail at a price per unit higher than the former price per unit;

(b) In the course of such investigation, hold hearings to take testimony concerning any such practices, with particular regard to consumer products on which minimum retail prices are set with approval or review of state agencies or other public entities;

(c) Publicize, in an appropriate manner, the findings made during such investigation; and

(d) Report annually on such investigation to the Legislature and the Governor.

CHAPTER 852

An act to amend Sections 5604, 5604.5, 5606, 5606.6, 5763, 5764, 5764.5, 5765, and 5766 of, and to add Sections 5604.1, 5606.1, 5606.2, 5766.1, and 5766.2 to, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to mental health.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5604 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5604. (a) Each community mental health service shall have an advisory board of 17 members appointed by the governing body except that such boards in counties with a population of less than 100,000 may have a minimum of 11 members. One member of the advisory board shall be the chairman of the local governing body. Not less than 51 percent of the members of the advisory board shall be persons representative of the public interest in mental health; provided, however, that not less than one-half of the members representing the public interest shall be persons or the parents, spouse, or adult children of persons, who have received mental health services from a city or county Short-Doyle program or any of its contract agencies, a state hospital, or any public or private nonprofit mental health agency. The advisory board shall contain two physicians, one of whom shall specialize in psychiatry, and the remaining members shall be selected from among the following mental health professions: psychology, social work, nursing, marriage and family counseling, psychiatric technology, and hospital or community mental health facility administration. No more than one appointee from each of such professions shall be selected. Persons in the professions of education, law, criminal justice, and fiscal management may be considered as representatives of the general public. For members representing the public interest, the governing body shall appoint persons representing different disciplines. The governing body may designate a person of its choice who does not qualify as a professional member under this section to serve instead of the chair as a member of the advisory board.

(b) The term of each member of the board shall be for three years; provided, however, that of the members first appointed to a board with 17 members, six shall be appointed for one year, six for a term of two years, and five for a term of three years. For members appointed to boards of less than 17 members, the governing body shall equitably stagger the appointments so that approximately one-third of the appointments shall be for one year, one-third for two years, and one-third for three years. For the members first appointed as a result of the amendment to this section by the 1975–76 Regular Session of the Legislature, one-third shall be for a term of one year, one-third for a term of two years, and one-third for a term of three years. If, however, prior to the expiration of such term a member ceases to retain the status which qualified the person for appointment on the board, the membership on the board shall terminate and there shall be a vacancy on the board.

(c) If two or more local agencies jointly establish a community mental health service under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6500) of Chapter 5 of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, the advisory board for such community mental health service shall consist of an additional two members for each additional agency, one of whom shall be the chair of the governing body or a person who does not qualify as a professional member under this section designated by the governing body and the second of whom shall be a person or a parent, spouse, or adult child of a person who has received mental health services.

(d) No member of the advisory board or his or her spouse shall be a full-time or part-time county employee of the county mental health service, an employee of the State Department of Mental Health, or an employee of a Short-Doyle contract facility.

(e) If it is not possible to secure membership as specified from among persons who reside in the county, the governing body may substitute representatives of the public interest in mental health who are not full-time or part-time employees of the county mental health service, the State Department of Mental Health, or on the staff of a Short-Doyle contract facility.

SEC. 2. Section 5604.1 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

5604.1. (a) There is hereby established an Organization of Mental Health Advisory Boards, consisting of the respective chairpersons or designees of the individual boards.

(b) The Organization of Mental Health Advisory Boards shall discuss common problems, exchange information, improve coordination and advise the Citizens Advisory Council and the Legislature.

SEC. 3. Section 5604.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5604.5. The board of supervisors may pay from any available funds the actual and necessary expenses of the members of the advisory board of a community mental health service incurred incident to the performance of their official duties and functions. Such expenses may include travel, lodging, child care, and meals for the members of such an advisory board while on official business as may be approved by the director of the local mental health program.

SEC. 4. Section 5606 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5606. The local mental health advisory board shall:

(a) Review and evaluate the community's mental health needs, services, facilities, and special problems.

(b) Review the county Short-Doyle plan.

(c) Advise the governing body and the local mental health director as to any aspect of the local mental health program.

(d) Review and approve the procedures used to insure citizen and professional involvement at all stages of the planning process as specified in Section 5651.

(e) Submit an annual report to the governing body.

(f) Make recommendations regarding the appointment of a local director of mental health services.

SEC. 5. Section 5606.1 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

5606.1. The composition of the mental health advisory board shall reflect the minority population found in the county. If underrepresentation exists, a statement shall be included in the 1979–80 mental health plan and continuously thereafter as to the ways equitable representation will be achieved and a timetable for achieving equitable representation.

SEC. 6. Section 5606.2 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

5606.2. Notwithstanding any provision of this section, members serving on the mental health advisory boards on the operative date of the amendments made to this section during the 1977–78 legislative session, may continue to serve until expiration of their terms. The Legislature intends that changes in the composition of the mental health advisory boards required by such amendments apply to future vacancies.

SEC. 7. Section 5606.6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5606.6. The board of supervisors may pay from any available funds the actual and necessary expenses of the members of a county advisory committee on drug abuse incurred incident to the performance of official duties and functions. Such expenses may include travel, lodging, child care, and meals for advisory committee members while on official business as may be approved by the board of supervisors.

SEC. 8. Section 5763 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5763. There is a Citizens Advisory Council to advise and assist the Legislature and the Director of Mental Health in carrying out the provisions of this division. The State Department of Mental Health shall cooperate fully with the Citizens Advisory Council by rendering efficient accounting, financial management, personnel, and other reasonable support services when requested by the council in the performance of its powers and duties.

The attachment of the Citizens Advisory Council to the State Department of Mental Health shall not limit the council's scope of concern to mental health programs or limit the council's responsibilities or functions regarding all other pertinent state and local programs, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 5764.

The administrative attachment of the council to the State Department of Mental Health shall not be construed to interfere in any way with the provisions of Section 5766.2 requiring all personnel employed by the council to be responsible to the council.

The council shall consist of fifteen (15) appointed voting members. There shall be one member who shall be a member of the California Conference of Local Mental Health Directors. There shall be five members chosen from among the following professions: general medicine, psychiatry, psychology, social work, sociology, nursing, and mental health administration. No more than one appointee from each of these categories shall be selected. Nine members shall be representative of the public interest in mental health of which at least four shall be consumers or the parent, spouse, or adult offspring of persons who have received mental health services from a city or county Short-Doyle program or any of its contract agencies, a state hospital or any other public or private nonprofit mental health agency. At least one of the public interest members shall be a local mental health advisory board member at the time of appointment; one shall be a member of a county board of supervisors; one shall be a lawyer and one shall be an expert in fiscal management. No public interest members shall be members of the professions named above.

Appointments shall reflect a balance of geographic, ethnic, racial, age, linguistic, socioeconomic and sexual factors. Appointees shall have a demonstrated interest in and knowledge of statewide mental health services.

The Governor shall appoint the following nine (9) members of the council: two professional members who are not psychiatrists, and four members of the public who are persons or the parent, spouse, or adult offspring of persons who have received mental health services and three public members who are not consumers. The Chair of the Senate Rules Committee shall appoint the following three (3) members of the council: one psychiatrist; one professional member who is not a psychiatrist; and one member of the general public who is not a consumer. None of the members or the spouse of a member shall be an employee of a state department within the Health and Welfare Agency. The Speaker of the Assembly shall appoint the following three (3) members of the council: two (2) professional members and one (1) member of the general public who is not a consumer. Each member shall hold office for three years.

If prior to the expiration of a term a member ceases to retain the status which qualified him or her for appointment on the council, his or her membership on the council shall terminate and there shall be a vacancy on the council.

Notwithstanding any provision of this section, members serving on the Citizens Advisory Council on the effective date of the amendments made to this section during the 1977–78 legislative session, shall continue to serve until expiration of their terms. The changes in the composition of the council required by such amendments apply only to future vacancies.

The members of the Citizens Advisory Council shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for any actual and necessary expenses incurred in connection with the performance of their duties under this chapter.

The Citizens Advisory Council shall meet at least quarterly, and on call of the council chairman as often as necessary to fulfill its duties. All meetings and records of the Citizens Advisory Council shall be open to the public.

The Citizens Advisory Council shall, by majority vote of the voting members, elect its own chair from among the 15 appointed members, and shall establish such committees as it deems necessary or desirable. The council chair shall appoint all members of committees of the Citizens Advisory Council.

SEC. 9. Section 5764 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5764. The Citizens Advisory Council shall have the powers and authority necessary to carry out the duties imposed upon it by this chapter including, but not limited to the following:

(a) To advise the Director of Mental Health on the development of the state three-year mental health plan and the system of priorities contained in that plan.

(b) To periodically review all mental health services in California, conducting independent investigations and studies as necessary. The review shall include comment on pertinent portions of the proposed plans and budgets of all state agencies serving persons with mental disabilities, including the Departments of Education, Rehabilitation, Health Services, Transportation, Social Services, Developmental Services, Employment, Youth Authority, Corrections, and Parks and Recreation and the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development and may include public hearings. The Citizens Advisory Council may prepare such reports as necessary to the Governor, the Legislature, and the Director of Mental Health, and the State Advisory Health Council.

(c) To suggest rules, regulations and standards for the administration of this division.

(d) To encourage the coordination of community mental health resources, with the purpose of avoiding duplication and fragmentation of services.

(e) To mediate disputes between counties and the state arising under this part.

(f) To employ such administrative, technical and other personnel as may be necessary for the performance of its powers and duties, subject to the approval of the Department of Finance.

(g) To fix the salaries of the personnel employed pursuant to this section which salaries shall be fixed as nearly as possible to conform to salaries established by the State Personnel Board for classes of positions in the state civil service involving comparable duties and responsibilities.

(h) To accept any federal fund granted, by act of Congress or by executive order, for purposes within the purview of the Citizens Advisory Council, subject to the approval of the Department of Finance.

(i) To accept any gift, donation, bequest, or grants of funds from private and public agencies for all or any of the purposes within the purview of the Citizen Advisory Council, subject to the approval of the Department of Finance.

(j) To act as the state council required by Public Law 94-63 to advise the Director of Mental Health on the development of the Community Mental Health Services Plan. For the purposes of implementing this function of the Citizens Advisory Council only, the Director of Mental Health or his designee and the Secretary of the Health and Welfare Agency or his designee shall serve on the council. Additional functions of the council under this section shall include: (1) to develop and implement procedures for conducting the annual review of and for publicizing the Community Mental Health Services Plan; and (2) to submit as part of the state plan, the council's report resulting from such annual review.

(k) To provide coordination, consultation and training for local mental health advisory boards.

SEC. 10. Section 5764.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5764.5. The Citizens Advisory Council shall appoint a technical advisory committee on narcotics and drug abuse. The membership of the committee shall be composed of not more than seven persons who are determined by the council to be representative of law enforcement agencies, public drug programs, private drug programs, education, and the general public.

The committee shall have the powers and authority necessary to carry out the duties imposed upon it by the council, including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) To advise the council on the development of the drug abuse component of the state three-year plan.

(b) To periodically review drug abuse treatment services in this state, and prepare such reports as necessary for the council.

(c) To suggest such rules, regulations, and standards to the council as it determines would promote effective drug abuse treatment services in this state.

SEC. 11. Section 5765 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5765. The state three-year mental health plan shall be submitted to the Citizens Advisory Council and the Advisory Health Council or its successor for review and recommendations as to conformance with California's comprehensive statewide health plan. The state three-year mental health plan shall be submitted for review and recommendations prior to amendments or changes thereto.

SEC. 12. Section 5766 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5766. The Citizens Advisory Council may utilize such staff of the State Department of Mental Health as are available, and such staff of all other public or private agencies which have an interest in the mental health of the public and which are able and willing to provide such services.

SEC. 13. Section 5766.1 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

5766.1. Within the limit of funds allotted for such purposes, the Citizens Advisory Council chair, with the concurrence of a majority of the Citizens Advisory Council shall appoint such staff as it may require.

SEC. 14. Section 5766.2 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

5766.2. The state council may contract for additional technical assistance with any public or private agency or individual to carry out planning, monitoring, evaluation, and other responsibilities under this division. All personnel employed by the Citizens Advisory Council shall be solely responsible, organizationally and administratively, to the state council. The state council shall have responsibility for the selection, hiring, and supervision of all such personnel.

SEC. 15. There are no state-mandated local costs in this act that require reimbursement under Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because there are no new duties, obligations, or responsibilities imposed on local government by this act.

An act to amend Sections 2869, 2882, and 2892.4 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to vocational nurses.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2869 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2869. Not less than two months prior to the date of each examination, the board shall cause a notice thereof to be published in two or more newspapers of general circulation published within the State of California and selected by the board.

SEC. 2. Section 2882 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2882. The course of instruction of an accredited school of vocational nursing shall consist of not less than the required number of hours of instruction in such subjects as the board may from time to time by regulation determine, together with the required number of hours in the care of medical, surgical, obstetrical patients, sick children, and such other clinical experience as from time to time may be determined by the board.

SEC. 3. Section 2892.4 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2892.4. A license which is not renewed within four years after its expiration may not be renewed, restored, reissued, or reinstated thereafter, but the holder of the license may apply for and obtain a new license if:

(a) No fact, circumstance, or condition exists which, if the license were issued, would justify its revocation or suspension,

(b) He pays all of the fees that would be required of him if he were then applying for the license for the first time, and

(c) He takes and passes the examination which would be required of him if he were then applying for the license for the first time. No examination shall be required, however, if the expired license was issued without an examination, and the examination may be waived in any case in which the applicant establishes to the satisfaction of the board that, with due regard for the public interest, he is qualified to engage in the practice of vocational nursing.

The board may, by appropriate regulation, provide for the waiver or refund of all or any part of the application fee in those cases in which a license is issued without an examination under this section.

CHAPTER 854

An act to amend Sections 33352 and 33413.5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to redevelopment.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 33352 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

33352. Every redevelopment plan submitted by the agency to the legislative body shall be accompanied by a report containing:

(a) The reasons for the selection of the project area.

(b) A description of the physical, social and economic conditions existing in the area.

(c) The proposed method of financing the redevelopment of the project area in sufficient detail so that the legislative body may determine the economic feasibility of the plan.

(d) A method or plan for the relocation of families and persons to be temporarily or permanently displaced from housing facilities in the project area, which method or plan shall include the provision required by Section 33411.1 that no persons or families of low and moderate income shall be displaced unless and until there is a suitable housing unit available and ready for occupancy by such displaced person or family at rents comparable to those at the time of their displacement.

(e) An analysis of the preliminary plan.

(f) The report and recommendations of the planning commission.

(g) The summary referred to in Section 33387.

(h) The report required by Section 65402 of the Government Code.

(i) The report required by Section 21151 of the Public Resources Code.

(j) The report of the county fiscal officer as required by Section 33328.

(k) The report of the fiscal review committee, if any.

(l) If the project area contains low- or moderate-income housing, a neighborhood impact report which describes in detail the impact of the project upon the residents of the project area and the surrounding areas, in terms of relocation, traffic circulation, environmental quality, availability of community facilities and services, effect on school population and quality of education, property assessments and taxes, and other matters affecting the physical and social quality of the neighborhood. The neighborhood impact report shall also include (1) the number of dwelling units housing persons and families of low or moderate income expected to be destroyed or removed from the low- and moderate-income housing market as part of a redevelopment project, (2) the number of persons and families of low or moderate income expected to be displaced by the project, (3) the general location of housing to be rehabilitated, developed, or constructed pursuant to Section 33413, (4) the number of dwelling units housing persons and families of low or moderate income planned for construction or rehabilitation, other than replacement housing, (5) the projected means of financing the proposed dwelling units for housing persons and families of low and moderate income planned for construction or rehabilitation, and (6) a projected timetable for meeting the plan's relocation, rehabilitation, and replacement housing objectives.

(m) An analysis by the agency of the report submitted by the county as required by Section 33328, which shall include a summary of the consultation of the agency, or attempts to consult by the agency, with each of the taxing agencies as required by Section 33328.

SEC. 2. Section 33413.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

33413.5. Not less than 30 days prior to the execution of an agreement for acquisition of real property, or the execution of an agreement for the disposition and development of property, or the execution of an owner participation agreement, which agreement would lead to the destruction or removal of dwelling units from the low- and moderate-income housing market, the agency shall adopt by resolution a replacement housing plan. For a reasonable time prior to adopting a replacement housing plan by resolution, the agency shall make available a draft of the proposed replacement housing plan for review and comment by the project area committee, other public agencies, and the general public.

The replacement housing plan shall include (1) the general location of housing to be rehabilitated, developed, or constructed pursuant to Section 33413, (2) an adequate means of financing such rehabilitation, development, or construction, (3) a finding that the replacement housing does not require the approval of the voters pursuant to Article XXXIV of the California Constitution, or that such approval has been obtained, (4) the number of dwelling units housing persons and families of low or moderate income planned for construction or rehabilitation, and (5) the timetable for meeting the plan's relocation, rehabilitation, and replacement housing objectives. A dwelling unit whose replacement is required by Section 33413 but for which no replacement housing plan has been prepared, shall not be destroyed or removed from the low- and moderate-income housing market until the agency has by resolution adopted a replacement housing plan.

Nothing in this section shall prevent an agency from destroying or removing from the low- and moderate-income housing market a dwelling unit which the agency owns and which is an immediate danger to health and safety. The agency shall, as soon as practicable, adopt by resolution a replacement housing plan with respect to such dwelling unit.

An act to amend Sections 222 and 7150 of, and to amend and repeal Sections 3031, 4332, and 7149 of, and to add Sections 710, 711, 712, 713, 3031, 4332, and 7149 to, and to repeal Section 13005 of, the Fish and Game Code, relating to fish and game, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 222 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

222. A copy of the booklet published pursuant to Section 217 may be given by the issuer of the license to every license purchaser at the time he purchases his license. It shall be the booklet containing the latest regulations so printed applicable to the activity authorized by the license being purchased.

Such booklet shall contain in the front portion the following:

COMMISSION

The Fish and Game Commission, composed of five members who are appointed by the Governor for six-year terms and who are subject to confirmation by the Senate, has been a constitutional body since 1940. It possesses such powers as are delegated to it by the Legislature. In general, the Legislature has granted the commission the power to regulate the taking or possession of game birds (both resident and migratory), mammals (including deer, bear, elk, antelope, rabbits and squirrels), fish, amphibians (frogs) and reptiles. These powers have been delegated for specific intervals by the Legislature. Other regulatory powers pertaining to less significant fish and game matters have been granted on an unrestricted basis. The commission is required to hold public meetings to hear and consider the recommendations of interested citizens and groups before setting fish and game regulations.

As stipulated by the Fish and Game Code, general policies for conduct of the department are formulated by the Fish and Game Commission and the Director of the Department of Fish and Game is responsible for administration of the department in accordance with the policies thus established. Though the department is subject by law to decisions of the commission, the Wildlife Conservation Board and the Marine Research Committee, the director of the department is responsible to the Governor.

WILDLIFE BOARD

The Wildlife Conservation Board was established by the Wildlife Conservation Act of 1947. It consists of the President of the Fish and Game Commission, the Director of the Department of Fish and Game and the Director of Finance. Additionally, three Members of the Senate and three Members of the Assembly meet with the board and participate in its activities. The primary responsibilities of the board consist of selecting and authorizing the acquisition of land and property suitable for recreation purposes and the preservation, protection and restoration of wildlife. The board may authorize construction of facilities on property it has acquired, consistent with the purpose for which the property was purchased. The acquisition and construction program of the board is financed out of the Wildlife Restoration Fund for which, in 1955, the Legislature established a continuing annual appropriation of seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000) from the state's share of parimutuel revenues derived from wagers on horseracing.

MARINE RESEARCH COMMITTEE

The Marine Research Committee which was established by the Legislature in 1947, consists of nine members: five representing commercial fish interests, at least one member representing organized sportsmen's groups, and at least one representing organized labor. The membership is appointed by the Governor for four-year terms. The committee is empowered to employ personnel or contract for research in the development of commercial fisheries of the Pacific Ocean and financial support for the committee is derived from a special privilege tax on fish dealers and fish packers.

DEPARTMENT

The Department of Fish and Game is charged with the administration and enforcement of the Fish and Game Code. It is organized as a headquarters staff in Sacramento, with six regional managers, each responsible for fish and game operations in his portion of the state, including the offshore area. General policies for the conduct of the department are formulated by the Fish and Game Commission, and the director is responsible for administration of the department in accordance with such policies. The director is the appointing power of all department employees, who are responsible to him for the proper performance of their duties and responsibilities.

Support of Department of Fish and Game activities which are unrelated to sport and commercial fishing and hunting, and which are necessary for the protection and enhancement of California's nongame fish and wildlife, and flora comes from the state's General Fund.

Support of Department of Fish and Game hunting, sport fishing, and commercial fishing activities comes from the Fish and Game Preservation Fund, which derives its revenue from the sale of hunting and fishing licenses, court fines and commercial fishing taxes. One-half of the fines and forfeitures collected as a result of violations of the Fish and Game Code and commission regulations are deposited in the Fish and Game Preservation Fund, and the other one-half goes to the county in which the offense was committed to be expended for the propagation and conservation of fish or game under the direction of the board of supervisors.

There are also grants of federal funds for sport fisheries projects under the Dingell-Johnson Sport Fish Restoration Act (16 U.S.C., Sec. 777, et seq.) and for wildlife projects under the Pittman-Robertson Act (16 U.S.C., Sec. 669, et seq.), allocated to the states from taxes on sporting articles, in ratio to the number of licensed hunters and fishermen and the area involved. The Commercial Fisheries Research and Development Act of 1964 (16 U.S.C., Sec. 779, et seq.) provides federal funds for studies and projects relating to commercial fisheries.

LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEES ON FISH AND GAME

The Assembly Committee on Water, Parks, and Wildlife, and the Senate Committee on Natural Resources and Wildlife are empowered to investigate fish and game problems, hold hearings so that interested citizens may publicly express their views, make recommendations and introduce bills pertaining to fish and game for consideration by the Legislature.

These committees have no administrative powers, and no power to establish regulations. They cannot direct the Fish and Game Commission to establish any regulations or set any season dates. Nor can they require the State Department of Fish and Game or other state agencies to perform any service other than to furnish the committees with data or information required in their deliberations.

SEC. 2. Section 710 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

710. The Legislature finds and declares that the department has in the past not been properly funded. The principal cause has been the fixed nature of the department's revenues in contrast to rising costs resulting from inflation. This lack of funding has prevented proper planning and manpower allocation. The lack of funding has required the department to restrict warden enforcement and to defer essential repairs to fish hatcheries and other facilities. The lack of secure funding for fish and wildlife activities other than sport and commercial fishing and hunting activities has resulted in inadequate nongame fish and wildlife protection programs.

SEC. 3. Section 711 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

711. It is the intent of the Legislature to ensure adequate funding from appropriate sources for the department. To this end, the Legislature finds and declares that:

(a) The costs of nongame fish and wildlife programs and the costs of free hunting and fishing license programs shall be provided annually in the Budget Act by appropriating money from the General Fund and sources other than the Fish and Game Preservation Fund to the department for such purposes.

(b) The costs of commercial fishing programs shall be provided solely out of revenues from commercial fishing taxes, license fees, and other revenues, and from reimbursements and federal funds received for commercial fishing programs.

(c) The costs of hunting and sport fishing programs shall be provided solely out of hunting and sport fishing revenues and reimbursements and federal funds received for hunting and sport fishing programs. Such revenues shall not be used to support commercial fishing programs, free hunting and fishing license programs, or nongame fish and wildlife programs.

(d) Hunting and sport fishing license fees shall be adjusted annually to an amount equal to that computed pursuant to Section 713. However, any substantial increase in the aggregate of hunting and sport fishing programs shall be reflected by appropriate amendments to the sections of this code that establish the base sport license fee levels. The inflationary index provided in Section 713 may not be used to accommodate an increase in the aggregate of hunting and sport fishing programs.

SEC. 4. Section 712 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

712. The Department of Finance shall include in the Governor's Budget sufficient moneys from the General Fund to pay the costs of the department's nongame programs necessary for the protection and enhancement of California's nongame fish and wildlife and their habitat, and the costs of free hunting and fishing license programs.

SEC. 5. Section 713 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

713. By August 1 of each year, the Department of Finance shall submit to the department a factor which reflects changes in an inflationary index developed by the Department of Finance based on the fiscal year 1977–78 costs of the department relating to salaries, staff benefits, and operating expenses. Such factor shall be multiplied by the individual base fee for each license, stamp, or tag, and the product shall be rounded to the nearest twenty-five cents ($0.25).

SEC. 6. Section 3031 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

3031. A hunting license, granting the privilege to take birds and mammals, shall be issued:

(a) To any resident of this state, over the age of 16 years, upon the payment of ten dollars ($10).

(b) To any resident of this state, under the age of 16 years, upon the payment of two dollars ($2).

(c) To any person not a resident of this state, upon the payment of thirty-five dollars ($35).

(d) To any person not a resident of this state, valid for one day and only for the taking of domesticated game birds and pheasants while on the premises of a licensed pheasant club, or for the taking of domesticated migratory game birds on areas licensed for shooting such birds, upon the payment of five dollars ($5).

(e) To any person not a resident of this state, valid only at an organizational field trial under the provisions of Section 3510, upon the payment of five dollars ($5).

(f) To the spouse of any veteran, as defined in Section 980 of the Military and Veterans Code, upon payment of the fee specified in subdivision (a), even though he or she is an alien.

This section is repealed as of July 1, 1980.

SEC. 7. Section 3031 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

3031. A hunting license, granting the privilege to take birds and mammals, shall be issued:

(a) To any resident of this state, over the age of 16 years, upon the payment of a base fee of ten dollars ($10) plus an amount calculated in accordance with Section 713.

(b) To any resident of this state, under the age of 16 years, upon the payment of a base fee of two dollars ($2) plus an amount calculated in accordance with Section 713.

(c) To any person not a resident of this state, upon the payment of a base fee of thirty-five dollars ($35) plus an amount calculated in accordance with Section 713.

(d) To any person not a resident of this state, valid for one day and only for the taking of domesticated game birds and pheasants while on the premises of a licensed pheasant club, or for the taking of domesticated migratory game birds on areas licensed for shooting such birds, upon the payment of a base fee of five dollars ($5) plus an amount calculated in accordance with Section 713.

(e) To any person not a resident of this state, valid only at an organizational field trial under the provisions of Section 3510, upon the payment of a base fee of five dollars ($5) plus an amount calculated in accordance with Section 713.

(f) To the spouse of any veteran, as defined in Section 980 of the Military and Veterans Code, upon payment of the fee specified in subdivision (a), even though he or she is an alien.

This section shall become operative July 1, 1980.

SEC. 8. Section 4332 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

4332. Any resident of this state, 12 years of age or over, who possesses a valid hunting license may, upon payment of three dollars ($3), procure one license tag for the taking of one deer by one person during the current license year.

Any nonresident of this state, 12 years of age or over, who possesses a valid hunting license may, upon payment of twenty-five dollars ($25), procure one license tag for the taking of one deer by one person during the current license year.

Upon determining that a surplus of unharvested deer exists in a designated deer herd management unit or group of units, the commission may make available an additional tag (option tag). Any resident of this state, 12 years of age or over, who possesses a deer tag may purchase for five dollars ($5) an additional tag for the taking of one legal deer by one person during the current license season for such designated deer herd management unit or group of units for which a surplus of deer has been declared. Any nonresident of this state, 12 years of age or over, who possesses a deer tag may purchase for thirty-five dollars ($35) one additional tag for the taking of one legal deer by one person during the current license season for such designated deer herd management unit or group of units for which a surplus of deer has been declared.

This section is repealed as of July 1, 1980.

SEC. 9. Section 4332 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

4332. Any resident of this state, 12 years of age or over, who possesses a valid hunting license may, upon payment of a base fee of three dollars ($3) plus an amount calculated in accordance with Section 713, procure one license tag for the taking of one deer by one person during the current license year.

Any nonresident of this state, 12 years of age or over, who possesses a valid hunting license may, upon payment of a base fee of twenty-five dollars ($25) plus an amount calculated in accordance with Section 713, procure one license tag for the taking of one deer by one person during the current license year.

Upon determining that a surplus of unharvested deer exists in a designated deer herd management unit or group of units, the commission may make available an additional tag (option tag). Any resident of this state, 12 years of age or over, who possesses a deer tag may purchase for a base fee of five dollars ($5) plus an amount calculated in accordance with Section 713 an additional tag for the taking of one legal deer by one person during the current license season for such designated deer herd management unit or group of units for which a surplus of deer has been declared. Any nonresident of this state, 12 years of age or over, who possesses a deer tag may purchase for a base fee of thirty-five dollars ($35) plus an amount calculated in accordance with Section 713 one additional tag for the taking of one legal deer by one person during the current license season for such designated deer herd management unit or group of units for which a surplus of deer has been declared.

This section shall become operative July 1, 1980.

SEC. 10. Section 7149 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

7149. A sport fishing license granting the privilege to take any fish from the ocean waters of this state and amphibia anywhere in this state for purposes other than profit shall be issued:

(a) To any resident of this state, over the age of 16 years, upon the payment of five dollars ($5) for the period of a calendar year, or, if issued after the beginning of the year, for the remainder thereof.

(b) To any nonresident, over the age of 16 years, upon the payment of twenty dollars ($20) for the period of a calendar year, or, if issued after the beginning of the year, for the remainder thereof.

(c) To any person, over the age of 16 years, not a resident of this state, upon the payment of eight dollars ($8), for a period of 10 days from the date of issue.

On payment of two dollars ($2) a sport fishing licensee may obtain an inland water license stamp which, if permanently affixed to his license, authorizes him to take all fish, other than trout, steelhead trout, and salmon, anywhere in this state for purposes other than profit.

On payment of three dollars ($3) a sport fishing licensee may obtain a trout and salmon license stamp which if permanently affixed to his license together with the inland water license stamp authorizes him to take all fish anywhere in this state for purposes other than profit.

Any person receiving aid to the aged under the provisions of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 12000) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or any person over 62 years of age who has been a resident of the state for the five years immediately preceding and whose total monthly income from all sources, including any old age assistance payments, does not exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for single persons, or five hundred dollars ($500) combined income for married persons, on application to the Department of Fish and Game, Headquarters Office, Sacramento, shall be issued a renewable sport fishing license authorizing the licensee to take any fish and amphibia anywhere in this state for purposes other than profit, free of charge.

Sport fishing license stamps shall be sold by license agents in the same manner as sport fishing licenses except that the compensation provided in Section 1055 shall not be paid to the license agent for sale of such stamps.

Reference in this code or any other law to a sport fishing license to be issued to disabled veterans, blind persons, or resident Indians without payment of a license fee means a renewable sport fishing license authorizing the licensee to take any fish and amphibia anywhere in this state for purposes other than profit. All other references to a sport fishing license mean such a license with or without license stamps as may be appropriate for the type of fishing involved.

This section is repealed as of January 1, 1980.

SEC. 11. Section 7149 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

7149. A sport fishing license granting the privilege to take any fish from the ocean waters of this state and amphibia anywhere in this state for purposes other than profit shall be issued:

(a) To any resident of this state, over the age of 16 years, upon the payment of five dollars ($5) for the period of a calendar year, or, if issued after the beginning of the year, for the remainder thereof.

(b) To any nonresident, over the age of 16 years, upon the payment of twenty dollars ($20) for the period of a calendar year, or, if issued after the beginning of the year, for the remainder thereof.

(c) To any person, over the age of 16 years, not a resident of this state, upon the payment of eight dollars ($8), for a period of 10 days from the date of issue.

On payment of two dollars ($2) a sport fishing licensee may obtain an inland water license stamp which if permanently affixed to his license authorizes the licensee to take all fish, other than trout, steelhead trout, and salmon, anywhere in this state for purposes other than profit.

On payment of three dollars ($3) a sport fishing licensee may obtain a trout and salmon license stamp which if permanently affixed to his license together with the inland water license stamp authorizes the licensee to take all fish anywhere in this state for purposes other than profit.

Upon application to the Department of Fish and Game, Headquarters Office, Sacramento, the following persons shall be issued a sport fishing license authorizing the licensee to take any fish and amphibia anywhere in this state for purposes other than profit, free of charge:

(i) Any person receiving aid to the aged under the provisions of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 12000) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(ii) Any person over 62 years of age who has been a resident of the state for five years immediately preceding and whose total monthly income from all sources, including any old age assistance payments, does not exceed the amount in effect on September 1 of each year contained in subdivision (c) of Section 12201 of the Welfare and Institutions Code for single persons or subdivision (d) of Section 12201 of the Welfare and Institutions Code combined income for married persons, as adjusted pursuant to that section.

The amount in effect on September 1 of each year shall be the amount used to determine eligibility for a free license during the following calendar year. All licenses issued pursuant to subdivisions (i) and (ii) shall be valid for the period of a calendar year or, if issued after the beginning of the year, for the remainder thereof.

Sport fishing license stamps shall be sold by license agents in the same manner as sport fishing licenses except that the compensation provided in Section 1055 shall not be paid to the license agent for sale of such stamps.

Reference in this code or any other law to a sport fishing license to be issued to disabled veterans, blind persons, or resident Indians without payment of a license fee means a renewable sport fishing license authorizing the licensee to take any fish and amphibia anywhere in this state for purposes other than profit. All other references to a sport fishing license mean such a license with or without license stamps as may be appropriate for the type of fishing involved.

This section is repealed as of January 1, 1980.

SEC. 12. Section 7149 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

7149. A sport fishing license granting the privilege to take any fish from the ocean waters of this state and amphibia anywhere in this state for purposes other than profit shall be issued:

(a) To any resident of this state, over the age of 16 years, for the period of a calendar year, or, if issued after the beginning of the year, for the remainder thereof, upon payment of a base fee of five dollars ($5) plus an amount calculated in accordance with Section 713.

(b) To any nonresident, over the age of 16 years, for the period of a calendar year, or, if issued after the beginning of the year, for the remainder thereof, upon payment of a base fee of twenty dollars ($20) plus an amount calculated in accordance with Section 713.

(c) To any person, over the age of 16 years, not a resident of this state, for a period of 10 days from the date of issue, upon payment of a base fee of eight dollars ($8) plus an amount calculated in accordance with Section 713.

A sport fishing licensee may obtain an inland water license stamp which, if permanently affixed to his license, authorizes him to take all fish, other than trout, steelhead trout, and salmon, anywhere in this state for purposes other than profit, upon payment of a base fee of two dollars ($2) plus an amount calculated in accordance with Section 713.

A sport fishing licensee may obtain a trout and salmon license stamp which, if permanently affixed to his license together with the inland water license stamp, authorizes him to take all fish anywhere in this state for purposes other than profit, upon payment of a base fee of three dollars ($3) plus an amount calculated in accordance with Section 713.

Any person receiving aid to the aged under the provisions of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 12000) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or any person over 62 years of age who has been a resident of the state for the five years immediately preceding and whose total monthly income from all sources, including any old age assistance payments, does not exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for single persons, or five hundred dollars ($500) combined income for married persons, on application to the Department of Fish and Game, Headquarters Office, Sacramento, shall be issued a renewable sport fishing license authorizing the licensee to take any fish and amphibia anywhere in this state for purposes other than profit, free of charge.

Sport fishing license stamps shall be sold by license agents in the same manner as sport fishing licenses except that the compensation provided in Section 1055 shall not be paid to the license agent for sale of such stamps.

Reference in this code or any other law to a sport fishing license to be issued to disabled veterans, blind persons, or resident Indians without payment of a license fee means a renewable sport fishing license authorizing the licensee to take any fish and amphibia anywhere in this state for purposes other than profit. All other references to a sport fishing license mean such a license with or without license stamps as may be appropriate for the type of fishing involved.

This section shall become operative January 1, 1980.

SEC. 13. Section 7149 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

7149. A sport fishing license granting the privilege to take any fish from the ocean waters of this state and amphibia anywhere in this state for purposes other than profit shall be issued:

(a) To any resident of this state, over the age of 16 years, for the period of a calendar year, or, if issued after the beginning of the year, for the remainder thereof, upon payment of a base fee of five dollars ($5) plus an amount calculated in accordance with Section 713.

(b) To any nonresident, over the age of 16 years, for the period of a calendar year, or, if issued after the beginning of the year, for the remainder thereof, upon payment of a base fee of twenty dollars ($20) plus an amount calculated in accordance with Section 713.

(c) To any person, over the age of 16 years, not a resident of this state, for a period of 10 days from the date of issue, upon payment of a base fee of eight dollars ($8) plus an amount calculated in accordance with Section 713.

A sport fishing licensee may obtain an inland water license stamp which, if permanently affixed to his license, authorizes the licensee to take all fish, other than trout, steelhead trout, and salmon, anywhere in this state for purposes other than profit, upon payment of a base fee of two dollars ($2) plus an amount calculated in accordance with Section 713.

A sport fishing licensee may obtain a trout and salmon license stamp which, if permanently affixed to his license together with the inland water license stamp, authorizes the licensee to take all fish anywhere in this state for purposes other than profit, upon payment of a base fee of three dollars ($3) plus an amount calculated in accordance with Section 713.

Upon application to the Department of Fish and Game, Headquarters Office, Sacramento, the following persons shall be issued a sport fishing license authorizing the licensee to take any fish and amphibia anywhere in this state for purposes other than profit, free of charge:

(i) Any person receiving aid to the aged under the provisions of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 12000) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(ii) Any person over 62 years of age who has been a resident of the state for five years immediately preceding and whose total monthly income from all sources, including any old age assistance payments, does not exceed the amount in effect on September 1 of each year contained in subdivision (c) of Section 12201 of the Welfare and Institutions Code for single persons or subdivision (d) of Section 12201 of the Welfare and Institutions Code combined income for married persons, as adjusted pursuant to that section.

The amount in effect on September 1 of each year shall be the amount used to determine eligibility for a free license during the following calendar year. All licenses issued pursuant to subdivisions (i) and (ii) shall be valid for the period of a calendar year or, if issued after the beginning of the year, for the remainder thereof.

Sport fishing license stamps shall be sold by license agents in the same manner as sport fishing licenses except that the compensation provided in Section 1055 shall not be paid to the license agent for sale of such stamps.

Reference in this code or any other law to a sport fishing license to be issued to disabled veterans, blind persons, or resident Indians without payment of a license fee means a renewable sport fishing license authorizing the licensee to take any fish and amphibia anywhere in this state for purposes other than profit. All other references to a sport fishing license mean such a license with or without license stamps as may be appropriate for the type of fishing involved.

This section shall become operative January 1, 1980.

SEC. 14. Section 7150 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

7150. A sport fishing license granting the privilege of taking fish from ocean waters of this state may be issued to any person over the age of 16 years, for a period of three days from the date of issue, upon payment of a fee of four dollars ($4) during the 1979 calendar year and thereafter upon payment of a base fee of four dollars ($4) plus an amount calculated in accordance with Section 713. A sport fishing license stamp may not be purchased for this license.

For the purpose of this section and Section 7149, ocean waters in the San Francisco Bay area are those waters bounded by U.S. Highway 101 commencing at the Golden Gate Bridge, thence northerly toward the City of Petaluma to the junction of U.S. Highway 101 and State Highway Legislative Route 104; thence easterly on State Highway Legislative Route 104 to its junction with State Highway sign route 12; thence southerly on State Highway sign route 12 to its junction with State Highway sign route 37 near the Town of Schellville; thence easterly along State Highway sign route 12 and 37 to its junction with State Highway sign route 29 near the City of Napa; thence southerly along State Highway sign route 29 to its junction with U.S. Highway 40; thence southerly along U.S. Highway 40 to its junction with State Highway sign route 17; thence southerly and westerly on State Highway sign route 17 to its junction with Bypass U.S. 101 near the City of San Jose; thence northerly on Bypass U.S. 101 to the point of beginning.

SEC. 15. Section 13005 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 16. Section 1 shall not be operative if Senate Bill No. 1768 of the 1977–78 legislative session is chaptered either before or after this bill is chaptered.

SEC. 17. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1316 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 7149 of the Fish and Game Code, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1316, that the changes in Section 7149 of the Fish and Game Code proposed in both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 7149, in the forms set forth in Sections 11 and 13 of this act. Therefore, Sections 11 and 13 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1316 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend, repeal, and add Section 7149, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1316, in which case Sections 10 and 12 of this act shall not become operative.

An act to amend Section 3041.7 of, and to add Sections 3063.5 and 3063.6 to, the Penal Code, and to add Sections 1767.6 and 3152.5 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to parole, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3041.7 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

3041.7. At any hearing for the purpose of setting, postponing, or rescinding a parole release date of a prisoner under a life sentence, such prisoner shall be entitled to be represented by counsel and the provisions of Section 3041.5 shall apply. The Community Release Board shall provide by rule for the invitation of the prosecutor of the county from which the prisoner was committed, or his representative, to represent the interests of the people at any such hearing. The Community Release Board shall notify the prosecutor at least 30 days prior to the date of the hearing.

Notwithstanding Section 12550 of the Government Code, the prosecutor of the county from which the prisoner was committed, or his representative, who shall not be the Attorney General, shall be the sole representative of the interests of the people.

SEC. 2. Section 3063.5 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

3063.5. In parole revocation proceedings, a parolee or his attorney shall receive a copy of any police, arrest, and crime reports pertaining to such proceedings. Portions of such reports containing confidential information need not be disclosed if the parolee or his attorney has been notified that confidential information has not been disclosed.

SEC. 3. Section 3063.6 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

3063.6. Parole revocation proceedings may be conducted by a panel of not less than two persons.

SEC. 4. Section 1767.6 is added to the Welfare and Institutions

Code to read:

1767.6. In parole revocation proceedings, a parolee or his attorney shall receive a copy of any police, arrest, and crime reports pertaining to such proceedings. Portions of such reports containing confidential information need not be disclosed if the parolee or his attorney has been notified that confidential information has not been disclosed.

SEC. 5. Section 3152.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

3152.5. In outpatient revocation proceedings, an outpatient or his attorney shall receive a copy of any police, arrest, and crime reports pertaining to such proceedings. Portions of such reports containing confidential information need not be disclosed if the outpatient or his attorney has been notified that confidential information has not been disclosed.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that persons subject to parole and persons released on outpatient status as narcotics offenders may benefit from the implementation of the provisions of this act, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 857

An act to amend Sections 248, 251.5, 252, 255, 255.5, 265, 268, and 269 of, and to amend the heading of Article 2 (commencing with Section 248) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to health services to physically handicapped children.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds that the use of certain descriptive labels which have no medical significance draws negative attention and stigma upon the individual or group concerned, gradually supplants the unique identity and human potential of persons, and injures social values, status, societal mobility, and freedom. Therefore, it is the intent of the Legislature to change the name of the crippled children's program to the California Children's Services Program and to remove all use of the term crippled from the provisions that provide such program in referring to children with physical handicaps. It is further the intent of the Legislature that such change in name shall not be construed as expanding the list of eligible services available through the program or prohibit the use of existing forms used by the program prior to the use of new forms with the name change.

SEC. 2. The heading of Article 2 (commencing with Section 248) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

Article 2. California Children's Services

SEC. 3. Section 248 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

248. This article shall be known and may be cited as the Robert W. Crown California Children's Services Act.

SEC. 4. Section 251.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

251.5. "California Children's Services Program," as used in this article, means the program of services etablished and operated pursuant to this article.

SEC. 5. Section 252 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

252. The board of supervisors of each county shall designate the county department of public health or the county department of social welfare as the designated agency to administer the California Children's Services Program. Counties with total population under 200,000 persons may administer the county program independently or jointly with the state department. Counties with a total population in excess of 200,000 persons shall administer the county program independently. Except as otherwise provided in this article, the director shall establish standards relating to the local administration and minimum services to be offered by counties in the conduct of the California Children's Services Program.

SEC. 6. Section 255 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

255. The department shall establish uniform standards of financial eligibility for treatment services under the California Children's Services Program, including a uniform formula for the repayment for services rendered by the program. Necessary medical therapy treatment services under the California Children's Services Program rendered in the public schools shall be exempt from financial eligibility standards and family repayment requirements for such services when rendered to any handicapped child whose educational or physical development would be impeded without such services. All counties shall use the uniform standards for financial eligibility and uniform formula for repayment established by the department. All repayments shall be used in support of the California Children's Services Program.

SEC. 7. Section 255.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

255.5. The department and designated agencies shall not deny eligibility or aid under the California Children's Services Program because an otherwise eligible person is receiving treatment services under a teaching program at an accredited medical school facility, whether or not all or part of such treatment services are performed by the staff at such facility, provided that treatment services at such facility are under the general supervision of a California Children's Services Program panel physician.

SEC. 8. Section 265 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

265. Annually the board of supervisors of each county shall appropriate for services for handicapped children of the county, including diagnosis, treatment, and therapy services for physically handicapped children in public schools, exclusive of administrative costs, a sum of money not less than that represented by a rate of one-tenth of one mill ($0.0001) on each dollar of the assessed valuation of the taxable property in the county, except that whenever the department on or before May 1st of any year certifies to the board of supervisors, a smaller amount needed for such purposes in that county, the latter shall be the minimum amount appropriable for expenditure therefor in that county during the next succeeding fiscal year.

The state shall appropriate funds sufficient to bring each county program to twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) or four-tenths of one mill ($0.0004), whichever is greater, except if the county has appropriated less than one-tenth mill ($0.0001) as provided in this section.

Nothing in this section shall prevent a county board of supervisors from appropriating additional money for services to handicapped children, and the state shall be obligated to match such appropriations in a ratio of three dollars ($3) for one dollar ($1) of county money up to a maximum county appropriation of two-tenths of a mill ($0.0002) of assessed valuation upon a determination by the department that a need based on departmental priorities exists for such supplemental state and county funds. The state department may, upon approval of the Director of Finance, approve a county appropriation in excess of two-tenths mill ($0.0002), upon the county's expression of intent to appropriate additional funds and the state's ability to match such appropriation in a ratio of three dollars ($3) for one dollar ($1) of county money within the current state appropriation for its program.

Expenditures for services shall represent a concurrent obligation against state and county funds according to the method of reimbursement specified in this section.

The state shall reimburse counties quarterly on a 3:1 matching basis for county expenditures, provided that the state quarterly payment shall not exceed by more than 10 percent the total state funds allocated quarterly to each county, except as provided in Section 266.

Expenditures made to reimburse counties for the state's share of the cost of such services shall be charged to the fiscal year in which the county issues its warrant in payment of such services. Expenditures made by the state on behalf of counties for the costs of such services shall be charged to the fiscal year in which the warrant is issued by the State Controller.

Federal grant funds allocated for the support of the California Children's Services Program shall be used for the purpose of state matching of county appropriations for services except for the costs of the administration of the program by the state department.

State matching dollars for services for handicapped children shall not exceed the amount actually appropriated for the program.

SEC. 9. Section 268 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

268. The state and the counties will share in the cost of administration of the California Children's Services Program at the local level. The director shall establish the standards for administration, staffing and local operation of the program subject to reimbursement by the state. Reimbursable administrative costs, to be paid by the state to counties, shall not exceed 4.1 percent of the gross total expenditures for diagnosis, treatment and therapy by counties as specified in Section 265.

SEC. 10. Section 269 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

269. The state department shall require of participating local governments the provision of program data including, but not limited to, the number of children treated, the kinds of disabilities, and the costs of treatment, to enable the state department, the Department of Finance, and the Legislature to evaluate in a timely fashion and to adequately fund the California Children's Services Program.

CHAPTER 858

An act making an appropriation to pay the claims of the Secretary of the State Board of Control, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of six hundred thirty-two thousand ninety-nine dollars and eighty-six cents ($632,099.86) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Board of Control to pay the claims awarded pursuant to Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 2250) of Chapter 3 of Part 4 of Division 1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, during the 1978 calendar year.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to settle claims against the state and end hardships to claimants as quickly as possible, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 859

An act to amend Section 9902.6 of, to add Section 9989.5 to, and to repeal Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 9965) of Chapter 21 of Division 3 of, the Business and Professions Code, relating to employment agencies.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9902.6 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9902.6. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to any person engaged in the business of management consulting and who in the course of said business acts solely on behalf of, and is compensated solely by, an employer to identify, appraise or recommend an individual or individuals for consideration for a management position, provided that:

(a) The minimum first-year starting salary for each such position is at the rate of not less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) per year.

(b) In no instance is the individual who is identified, appraised, or recommended for consideration for such position charged a deposit, retainer, or fee directly or indirectly in connection with such identification, appraisal, or recommendation, or for registration or for preparation of any resume, or on account of any other personal service performed by the person engaged in the business of management consulting and who in the course of said business is retained by the employer to identify, appraise, or recommend individuals for a management position.

(c) In no instance does the person engaged in management consulting advertise positions for which the minimum first-year starting salary is at the rate of less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) per year, or that any of the fees mentioned in subdivision (b) are charged by such person.

SEC. 2. Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 9965) of Chapter 21 of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 9989.5 is added to the Business and Professions

Code, to read:

9989.5. Within two weeks of employing any employee whose duties include interviewing or referring applicants to prospective employers or soliciting job orders from employers, every employment agency shall provide an in-service training program, approved by the bureau, to such employees. The training program shall include, but not be limited to, instruction on the requirements of this chapter, the Fair Employment Practices Act, applicable provisions of the Labor Code, and accepted and ethical practice and techniques of personnel placement.

CHAPTER 860

An act to amend Sections 13107 and 13108 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to the State Fire Marshal.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13107 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

13107. (a) The State Fire Marshal shall investigate every explosion or fire occurring in any state institution, state-owned building, or any building which is determined, pursuant to regulations adopted by the State Fire Marshal, to be state occupied, and every explosion or fire occurring in those areas of the state not under the jurisdiction of a legally organized fire department or fire protection district or other public entity, including, but not limited to, the state, which provides fire protection in which there is suspicion that the crime of arson or attempted arson has been committed.

(b) Upon request of the chief fire official of a legally organized fire department, or the governing body thereof, the State Fire Marshal shall, within the limitation of resources and manpower established for such purposes, investigate any explosion or fire occurring within the jurisdiction of the fire department or fire protection district in which there is suspicion that the crime of arson or attempted arson has been committed.

(c) The State Fire Marshal shall cooperate in the establishment of a program for training fire department personnel in arson investigation and detection.

(d) In order to carry out his responsibilities and duties pursuant to this section, the State Fire Marshal shall establish an arson investigation unit within his office, which shall be staffed with necessary personnel to perform the function for which the unit is established.

(e) If there is reason to believe that any fire or explosion investigated by the State Fire Marshal resulted from a crime or that a crime has been committed in connection with it, the State Fire Marshal shall report that fact in writing to the district attorney of the county in which the fire or explosion occurred.

SEC. 2. Section 13108 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

13108. Except as limited by Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 140) of Division 1 of the Labor Code, the State Fire Marshal shall prepare and adopt regulations, not inconsistent with existing laws or ordinances relating to fire protection in the design and construction of, the means of egress and the adequacy of exits from, the installation and maintenance of fire alarm and fire extinguishment equipment or systems in, and the installation and maintenance of equipment and furnishings that present unusual fire hazards in, any state institution or other state-owned building or in any state-occupied building. The State Fire Marshal shall adopt such regulations as are reasonably necessary to define what buildings shall be considered as state-occupied buildings.

The fire chief of any city, county, or fire protection district, or such person's authorized representative, may enter any state institution or any other state-owned or state-occupied building for the purpose of preparing a fire suppression preplanning program or for the purpose of investigating any fire in a state-occupied building.

Except as otherwise provided in this section, the State Fire Marshal shall enforce the regulations adopted by him in all state-owned buildings, state-occupied buildings, and state institutions throughout the state. Upon written request from the chief fire official of any city, county, or fire protection district, the State Fire Marshal may authorize such chief fire official and his authorized representatives, in their geographical area of responsibility, to make fire prevention inspections of state-owned or state-occupied buildings, other than state institutions, for the purpose of enforcing the regulations relating to fire and panic safety adopted by the State Fire Marshal pursuant to this section. Authorization from the State Fire Marshal shall be limited to those fire departments or fire districts which maintain a fire prevention bureau staffed by paid personnel.

Any requirement or order made by any chief fire official pursuant to this section may be appealed to the State Fire Marshal. The State Fire Marshal shall, upon receiving an appeal, determine if the requirement or order made is reasonably consistent with the fire and panic safety regulations adopted by him.

CHAPTER 861

An act to add Sections 55882 and 56621 to the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to agriculture.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 55882 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

55882. It is a violation of this chapter if a licensee fails, neglects, or refuses to collect or remit to the director any assessments which have been levied in accordance with the assessment provisions of Article 10 (commencing with Section 58921), Chapter 1, Part 2 of Division 21, Article 12 (commencing with Section 59941), Chapter 2, Part 2 of Division 21, and Article 8 (commencing with Section 64691) of Chapter 2 of Division 22.

SEC. 2. Section 56621 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

56621. It is a violation of this chapter if a licensee fails, neglects, or refuses to collect or remit to the director any assessments which have been levied in accordance with the assessment provisions of Article 10 (commencing with Section 58921), Chapter 1, Part 2 of Division 21, Article 12 (commencing with Section 59941), Chapter 2, Part 2 of Division 21, and Article 8 (commencing with Section 64691) of Chapter 2 of Division 22.

SEC. 3. No appropriation is made by this act, nor is any obligation created thereby under Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, for the reimbursement of any local agency for any costs that may be incurred by it in carrying on any program or performing any service required to be carried on or performed by it by this act.

CHAPTER 862

An act to amend Section 2426 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to pest abatement.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2426 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

2426. (a) The state department may enter into a cooperative agreement with any local district or other public agency engaged in the work of controlling mosquitoes, gnats, flies, other insects, rodents, or other vectors and pests of public health importance, in such areas and under such terms, conditions, and specifications as the director may prescribe.

(b) Such agreement may provide for financial assistance on behalf of the state and for the doing of all or any portion of the necessary work by either of the contracting parties, except that in no event shall the state department agree that the state's contribution shall exceed 50 percent of the total cost of any acceptable plan.

CHAPTER 863

An act to add Sections 39876 and 39877 to the Education Code, relating to schools.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that the proper nutrition of children leads to better health and educational attainment. Proper nutritional habits are learned in the home and in the school. It is important that learning be reinforced by good nutritional practices and that the food available to children in the schools offer the best nutritional values.

It is the intent of the Legislature that nutrition education be offered in all school districts as a regular part of the education program at all grade levels in order to encourage children to make healthful food choices and to establish optimal lifetime eating habits.

There are indications that the foods available in many school districts do not meet adequate nutritional standards and contribute to the development of health problems, such as dental disease, obesity, and other chronically debilitating diseases. These conditions have a lasting impact on both physical and social functioning.

SEC. 2. Section 39876 is added to the Education Code, to read:

39876. The governing board of any school district shall make available for sale choices of nutritious food products in elementary, intermediate, junior high, and high schools where foods are sold through a vending machine, by any means of direct sale, or at any cafeteria or snackbar operated by a school district, student organization, parent organization, teachers organization, or parent-teachers organization during regular school hours. Such nutritious foods shall comprise a minimum of 50 percent of all food items offered for sale and shall include a selection of the following:

(a) Milk and dairy products, including cheese, yogurt, frozen yogurt, and ice cream.

(b) Full-strength fruit and vegetable juices and fruit drinks containing 50 percent or more full-strength fruit juice, and fruit nectars containing 35 percent or more full-strength fruit juice.

(c) Fresh, frozen, canned, and dried fruits and vegetables.

(d) Nuts, seeds, and nut butters.

(e) Nonconfection grain products, as defined by regulation of the United States Food and Drug Administration, including crackers, bread sticks, tortillas, pizza, pretzels, bagels, muffins, and popcorn.

(f) Meat, poultry, and fish, and their products, including beef jerky, tacos, meat turnovers, pizza, chili, and sandwiches.

(g) Legumes and legume products, including bean burritos, chili beans, bean dip, roasted soy beans, and soups.

(h) Other nutritious foods, as specified by the Department of Education.

For the purposes of this section, "item" shall be defined as any individually packaged product or a variety of a packaged product.

SEC. 3. Section 39877 is added to the Education Code, to read:

39877. The Department of Education shall:

(a) Formulate guidelines for the implementation of the provisions contained in Section 39876.

(b) Further define choices of nutritious foods for purposes of Section 39876.

(c) Adopt rules and regulations for the enforcement of the provisions contained in Section 39876.

CHAPTER 864

An act to amend Sections 9580, 9582, and 9583 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to fabric care, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9580 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9580. The amount of the fees prescribed by this chapter relating to clothes cleaning establishment licenses and clothes dyeing establishment licenses is that fixed by the following schedule:

(a) The fee for an application for examination shall be twenty dollars ($20).

(b) The renewal fee is two hundred dollars ($200).

(c) The delinquency fee is twenty-five dollars ($25).

(d) The initial license fee is two hundred dollars ($200) if the license is issued not less than one year before the date on which it will expire, and one hundred dollars ($100) if the license is issued less than one year before the date on which it will expire. The board may, by appropriate regulation, provide for the waiver or refund of the initial license fee where the license is issued less than 45 days before the date on which it will expire.

SEC. 2. Section 9582 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9582. The amount of the fees prescribed by this chapter relating to shop licenses is as follows:

(a) The fee for an application for examination is twenty dollars ($20).

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (e) of this section, the renewal fee is sixty dollars ($60).

(c) The delinquency fee is six dollars ($6).

(d) The initial license fee is sixty dollars ($60) if the license is issued not less than one year before the date on which it will expire, and thirty dollars ($30) if the license is issued less than one year before the date on which it will expire. The board may, by appropriate regulation, provide for the waiver or refund of the initial license fee where the license is issued less than 45 days before the date on which it will expire.

(e) The renewal fee for an agency license is two dollars ($2) if at the time the licensee applies for renewal of his license, he establishes by proof satisfactory to the board that the gross receipt from his agency business during the preceding 12-month period did not exceed one hundred fifty dollars ($150).

SEC. 3. Section 9583 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9583. The amount of the fees prescribed by this chapter relating to certificates of registration is as follows:

(a) The fee for an application for examination is twenty dollars ($20).

(b) The renewal fee is twenty-five dollars ($25).

(c) The delinquency fee is two dollars ($2).

(d) The initial certificate fee is twenty-five dollars ($25) if the certificate is issued not less than one year before the date on which it will expire, and twelve dollars and fifty cents ($12.50) if the certificate is issued less than one year before the date on which it will expire. The board may, by appropriate regulation, provide for the waiver or refund of the initial certificate fee where the certificate is issued less than 45 days before the date on which it will expire.

CHAPTER 865

An act relating to claims of local agencies, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of five hundred seventy thousand nine hundred seventy-two dollars and forty-four cents ($570,972.44) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Board of Control to pay the claims awarded pursuant to Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 2250) of Chapter 3 of Part 4 of Division 1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code during the 1977 calendar year.

SEC. 2. The Board of Control shall conduct hearings prior to January 1, 1979, to review all claims approved prior to April 1, 1978, which allege state-mandated costs resulting from an executive order by the administrative director of the Division of Industrial Accidents, Department of Industrial Relations, increasing the unit coefficient of the minimum medical fee schedule for workers' compensation effective October 1, 1974. Such review hearings shall be conducted without prejudice as a result of the deletion from this act of the appropriation for the payment of such claims.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to settle claims against the state and end hardships to claimants as quickly as possible, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 866

An act to amend Section 206.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 206.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

206.1. All real property necessarily and reasonably required for the parking of automobiles of persons while attending religious services, or engaged in religious services or worship, or engaged in any religious activity, or a possessory interest in such real property, if such real property is leased by a church or religious denomination or sect from a governmental entity, whether or not the real property is contiguous to the land on which is erected the church or other structure used for the religious service or as the place of worship or religious activity and which real property or possessory interest is owned by the church or religious denomination or sect using such real property for the parking of automobiles as aforesaid, and which real property or possessory interest is not at other times used for commercial purposes is exempt from taxation. As used in this section, "commercial purposes" does not include the parking of vehicles or bicycles, the revenue of which does not exceed the ordinary and necessary costs of operating and maintaining the property for parking purposes.

SEC. 2. The Controller shall report to the Legislature on the amount of the claims made by county auditors under Section 16113 of the Government Code for compensation for property tax revenues lost by reason of the exemption of property by Section 1 of this act. Such report shall be made on or before the first day of October next following the operative date of this act, in order that the Legislature may appropriate funds for the subventions required by Section 2229 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

SEC. 3. There are no state-mandated local costs in this act that require reimbursement under Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because there are no new duties, obligations, or responsibilities imposed on local government by this act.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that any church using a possessory interest in real property for the purpose of providing offstreet parking may continue to provide such parking in order to preserve public safety, this act must go into effect immediately.

CHAPTER 867

An act to add Section 702.3 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to juvenile court law.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 702.3 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

702.3. Notwithstanding any other provision of the law:

(a) When a minor denies, by a plea of not guilty by reason of insanity, the allegations of a petition filed pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and also joins with that denial a general denial of the conduct alleged in the petition, he shall first be subject to a hearing as if he had made no allegation of insanity. If the petition is sustained or if the minor denies the allegations only by reason of insanity, then a hearing shall be held on the question of whether the minor was insane at the time the offense was committed.

(b) If the court finds that the minor was insane at the time the offense was committed, the court, unless it shall appear to the court that the minor has fully recovered his sanity, shall direct that the minor be confined in a state hospital for the care and treatment of the mentally disordered or any other appropriate public or private mental health facility approved by the county mental health director, or the court may order the minor to undergo outpatient treatment as specified in Section 1026.1 of the Penal Code. The court shall transmit a copy of its order to the county mental health director or his designee. If the allegations of the petition specifying any of the violent crimes including any enhancements enumerated in Section 1026 of the Penal Code are found to be true, the court shall direct that the minor be confined in a state hospital or other public or private mental health facility approved by the county mental health director for a minimum of 90 days, before such minor may be released on outpatient treatment. Prior to making such order directing that the minor be confined in a state hospital or other facility or ordered to undergo outpatient treatment, the court shall order the county mental health director or his designee to evaluate the minor and to submit to the court within 15 judicial days of such order his written recommendation as to whether the minor should be required to undergo outpatient treatment or committed to a state hospital or another mental health facility. If, however, it shall appear to the court that the minor has fully recovered his sanity such minor shall be remanded to the custody of the probation department until his sanity shall have been finally determined in the manner prescribed by law. A minor committed to a state hospital or other facility or ordered to undergo outpatient treatment shall not be released from confinement or the required outpatient treatment unless and until the court which committed him shall, after notice and hearing, in the manner provided in Section 1026a of the Penal Code, find and determine that his sanity has been restored.

(c) The procedures set forth in Sections 1026, 1026a, 1026.1 and 1027 of the Penal Code shall be applicable to minors pursuant to this section, except that, in cases involving minors, the probation department rather than the sheriff, shall have jurisdiction over the minor.

(d) No minor may be committed pursuant to this section for a period longer than the jurisdictional limits of the juvenile court, pursuant to Section 607.

(e) This section shall not be construed to authorize the determination of sanity in juvenile proceedings to be made by a jury.

CHAPTER 868

An act to amend Sections 12090, 12504, 12679, 13118, 13150, 13151, and 13153 of the Health and Safety Code, and to add Section 34006 to the Vehicle Code, relating to flammable liquids.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12090 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

12090. There shall not be included in any cargo of explosives any flammable or combustible liquids, acids, or corrosive liquids, oxidizers, or combustible materials, other than the explosives themselves, which may have such characteristics. Blasting caps or detonators shall not be transported upon the same vehicle with other explosives. The foregoing provisions of this section shall be subject to such exceptions as are permitted by the regulations of the United States Department of Transportation.

SEC. 2. Section 12504 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

12504. "Flammable liquid" means any liquid whose flashpoint is 100 degrees Fahrenheit, or less, when tested pursuant to Standard D56-70 of the American Society for Testing and Materials.

SEC. 3. Section 12679 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

12679. It is unlawful for any person to store, sell, or discharge any type of fireworks in or within 100 feet of a location where gasoline or any other flammable liquids are stored or dispensed.

SEC. 4. Section 13118 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

13118. All solvents offered for sale at retail shall be labeled as required by the regulations adopted pursuant to the Federal Hazardous Substances Act (Public Law 86-813; 74 Stats. 372; 15 U.S.C , Sec 1261, et seq.) which are in effect on January 1, 1979, or which are adopted on or after that date.

Any person, firm, or corporation in violation of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 5. Section 13150 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

13150. For purposes of this article, "flammable liquids" shall mean any liquid having a flashpoint below 100°F (37.8°C) and a vapor pressure not exceeding 40 pounds per square inch (absolute) at a temperature of 100°F (37 8°C). Flammable liquids may include crude oils and cutback asphalts. "Combustible liquid" shall mean a liquid having a flashpoint at or above 100°F (37.8°C), and below 200°F (93.3°C).

This does not include wine, or any other aqueous solution, having an alcoholic content less than, or equal to, 24 percent by volume. This exemption applies only if the nonalcohol portion of the aqueous solution does not fall within the definition of flammable or combustible liquid.

The provisions of this article also apply to liquids having a flashpoint of 200°F (93.3°C) or higher when such liquids, upon being heated, assume the characteristics of a flammable or combustible liquid.

SEC. 6. Section 13151 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

13151. The State Fire Marshal shall prepare and adopt regulations in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (commencing with Section 11370) of the Government Code, which in his judgment are designed to promote the safe use of portable internal combustion engine-driven pumps used for the transfer of flammable and combustible liquids.

SEC. 7. Section 13153 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

13153. No person, firm, or corporation shall use, permit, or instruct any other person to use or permit, any portable internal combustion engine-driven pump used for the transfer of any flammable or combustible liquids unless such pump conforms to the regulations adopted by the State Fire Marshal.

SEC. 8. Section 34006 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

34006. The provisions of this division shall not apply to "wine," as defined by Section 23007 of the Business and Professions Code, or any other aqueous solution, having an alcoholic content less than, or equal to, 24 percent by volume. This exemption applies only if the nonalcohol portion of the aqueous solution does not fall within the definition of flammable or combustible liquid.

SEC. 9. There are no state-mandated local costs in this act that require reimbursement under Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because there are no new duties, obligations or responsibilities imposed on local government by this act.

CHAPTER 869

An act to amend Section 19442 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to horseracing, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19442 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19442. The board shall contract with persons licensed as stewards pursuant to Section 19510 to perform the duties of stewards at horseracing meets. Contracts shall be upon such terms as the parties may mutually agree upon.

Compensation will be set by the board, commensurate with the responsibilities involved. The board will assess each racing association prior to the start of any race meet for an amount equal to the pay and fringe benefits to be paid to the stewards assigned by the board to the race meet. Such funds must be paid to the board by the associations in equal installments at the end of each week, or partial week of racing. The board shall maintain these funds in a separate trust account in the State Treasury, and the board may withdraw advances from the trust account which are sufficient to meet the requirements of the stewards' compensation program but in amounts not to exceed the total of funds assessed for the program. Fringe benefits shall include the retirement program presently available to the stewards or an equivalent program developed by the board.

The board shall establish a committee of two commissioners to meet at least quarterly with representatives of the stewards, so that recommendations of the stewards can be discussed as necessary. These meetings may be scheduled the same day as regular board meetings or at the convenience of the board.

An act to amend Sections 22106, 22302, 23100, 23800, 23911, 23914, 24000, 24003, and 24203, and to add Sections 22231 and 22310 to, and to repeal Sections 22153, 22154, 22808, 22810, 22811, 22812, and 23104 of, the Education Code, relating to the State Teachers' Retirement System, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22106 of the Education Code is amended to read:

22106. "Annuity" means payments for life derived from the "accumulated annuity deposit contributions" of a member.

SEC. 2. Section 22153 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 22154 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 22231 is added to the Education Code, to read:

22231. The system may operate a tax-sheltered annuity program for its members which meets the tax qualification requirements of the Internal Revenue Service of the United States. The board shall adopt rules for governing the operation of the tax-sheltered annuity program.

SEC. 5. Section 22302 of the Education Code is amended to read:

22302. The board shall determine annually the rate of credited interest to be credited to members' accumulated retirement contributions for service performed after June 30, 1935, and the accumulated annuity deposit contributions excluding all accumulated contributions while being paid as allowances under the provisions of Sections 23804 and 24100.

The board shall credit interest to all other accumulated reserves at the actuarially assumed interest rate.

SEC. 6. Section 22310 is added to the Education Code, to read:

22310. There is hereby established in the State Treasury a special trust fund known as the Teacher Tax-Sheltered Annuity Fund. There shall be deposited in that fund tax-sheltered annuity contributions together with interest earnings on the fund. All moneys in the fund are continuously appropriated to the board for disbursement for the purposes of the tax-sheltered annuity program under this part.

Return on investments of the fund shall be collected by the State Treasurer and together with other moneys received for the Teacher Tax-Sheltered Annuity Fund shall be immediately deposited to the credit of that fund and reported forthwith to the system. Money in whatever form received directly by the system dedicated to the Teacher Tax-Sheltered Annuity Fund shall be deposited forthwith in the State Treasury to the credit of that fund.

The board may provide by board rule for optional forms of payment from the Teacher Tax-Sheltered Annuity Fund.

Disbursement of money from the Teacher Tax-Sheltered Annuity Fund of whatever nature shall be made upon claims duly audited in the manner prescribed for the disbursement of other public funds.

SEC. 7. Section 22808 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 22810 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 9. Section 22811 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 10. Section 22812 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 11. Section 23100 of the Education Code is amended to read:

23100. Upon the termination of a member's employment by any cause other than death or retirement there shall be paid to him, or if no other benefits are payable under this part upon the death of a member, there shall be paid to the beneficiary nominated by the deceased member:

(a) The accumulated retirement contributions made after June 30, 1935.

(b) The accumulated annuity deposit contributions.

SEC. 12. Section 23104 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 13. Section 23800 of the Education Code is amended to read:

23800. (a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 23804, 24202, or 24203 payment pursuant to subdivision (b) of this section shall be made upon receipt of proof of a member's death which occurred:

(1) Before the effective date of his retirement and within four months after the termination of the member's employment in a position requiring membership in this system, or

(2) While the member was physically or mentally disabled for performance of his duty, if such disability had been continuous from such termination.

(b) There shall be paid to the beneficiary:

(1) The accumulated retirement contributions made after June 30, 1935.

(2) The accumulated annuity deposit contributions.

(3) The sum of two thousand dollars ($2,000), provided the member had at least one year of credited service.

SEC. 14. Section 23911 of the Education Code is amended to read:

23911. When a person who has been granted a disability allowance after June 30, 1972, reaches age 60, or at such later date when there are no eligible children, his disability allowance shall be terminated and thereafter he shall receive the allowance payable for service retirement at that age, calculated on the projected earned salary and projected service. The allowance payable under this section, excluding annuities payable from accumulated annuity deposit contributions, shall not be greater than the terminated disability allowance.

SEC. 15. Section 23914 of the Education Code is amended to read:

23914. Upon termination of a retirement or disability allowance which began to accrue on or after July 1, 1972, the person's individual account shall be credited with the amount of his accumulated retirement contributions as they were on the effective date of retirement or disability allowance, less the sum of all payments made under subdivision (a) of Section 24000 or Section 24100. The reduction shall not be greater than the total of such accumulated retirement contributions.

Upon the termination of a retirement, the person's accumulated annuity deposit contribution accounts shall be credited with the amounts of such contributions as they were on the date the annuity became payable because of such retirement less the sum of all payments made under subdivision (b) of Section 24000.

SEC. 16. Section 24000 of the Education Code is amended to read:

24000. Upon retirement for service which became effective after June 30, 1972, a member shall receive a retirement allowance which shall consist of:

(a) An annual allowance payable in monthly installments, upon retirement at age 60 or over, equal to 2 percent of the final compensation for each year of credited service. If the retirement of a member, other than one subject to subdivision (d), is effective at less than age 60 this allowance shall be reduced by one-half of 1 percent for each full month, or fraction of a month which will elapse until the member would have reached age 60, and

(b) An annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of the accumulated annuity deposit contributions standing to the credit of his account at the time of his retirement, and

(c) A school district or other employing agency may elect to permit all members with 30 years of credited service to retire regardless of age and receive an annual allowance equal to 2 percent of final compensation for each year of credited service. If the member is age 50 or older, the allowance shall be reduced by one-half of 1 percent for each full month, or fraction of a month which will elapse until the member would have reached age 60.

In computing the above amounts, the age of the member at the last day of the month in which the retirement allowance begins to accrue or such later date as provided in Section 23900 shall be used.

SEC. 17. Section 24003 of the Education Code is amended to read:

24003. The minimum unmodified allowance, exclusive of annuities from accumulated annuity deposit contributions payable for service retirement, shall not be less than ten dollars ($10) per month multiplied by the years of credited service. This guaranteed amount shall be reduced by the amount of an unmodified allowance payable from a local system based on service credited by this system. If the retirement is effective at less than age 60 this allowance shall be reduced by one-half of 1 percent for each full month or fraction of a month which will elapse until the member would have reached age 60.

SEC. 18. Section 24203 of the Education Code is amended to read:

24203. Any member who has qualified to make application for retirement allowance under Section 23901 may elect, as provided in Section 24200, and except as provided in Section 24200.1, without right of revocation or change after the effective date of his retirement, to receive an actuarially reduced retirement allowance as of the date of his retirement, of the retirement allowance payable to him when and if he retires for service in a reduced retirement allowance according to the provisions of either Option 2 or Option 3 as stated in Section 24200. If the death of such member occurs after the date upon which the election has been signed, then the election shall be in full force and effect. The election shall be void if not received in the system's office in Sacramento within 30 days after the date of signature.

Upon such member's death, prior to the effective date of his retirement, the beneficiary who was nominated under the option elected and who survives shall receive an allowance calculated under such option, upon the assumption that such member retired on the date of death. The payment of such allowance to the beneficiary shall be in lieu of the family allowance provided in Section 23804 and the payment provided in subdivision (a) of Section 23100 and paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 23800, except that if the beneficiary dies before all accumulated contributions are paid the balance if any shall be paid to the estate of the person last receiving or entitled to receive the allowance. The accumulated annuity deposit contributions and the amount provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 23800, shall be paid the designated beneficiary in a lump sum.

If the member subsequently retires, regardless of whether the beneficiary nominated under the option elected is then living, a reduced retirement allowance computed under Section 23800 and the option elected shall be paid.

The amount of the retirement allowance prior to applying the option factor shall be calculated at the member's age at death before retirement, or age on the last day of the month in which the member requested retirement be effective, as the case may be. The reduction of such retirement allowance under the option elected shall be based on the ages of such member and the beneficiary nominated under such option, at the date the election was signed.

SEC. 19. All sections of this act, except Sections 4 and 6 and this section, shall become operative July 1, 1979.

CHAPTER 871

An act to add Section 215.5 to the Streets and Highways Code, relating to state highways.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 215.5 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

215.5. (a) The department shall develop and implement a system of priorities for ranking the need for installation of noise attenuation barriers along freeways in the California freeway and expressway system. The priority system shall include as criteria the existing and future intensity of sound generated by the freeway.

(b) When all freeways have been ranked in priority order, the department shall, consistent with available funding, recommend in the 6-year plan, and in succeeding 6-year plans, a program of construction of noise attentuation barriers beginning with the highest priority.

(c) Should any city or county construct a sound attenuation barrier along a freeway using public funds prior to the time that such barrier reaches a high enough priority for state funding, then, when the funding priority is reached, the department shall reimburse the city or county without interest for the cost of such construction when constructed, but the reimbursement may not exceed the cost of the department to construct such barriers. Reimbursement shall be made only if the city or county constructs the sound attenuation barrier to the standards approved by department, follows bidding and contracting procedures approved by the department, and the project is approved by the California Transportation Commission.

An act to amend Sections 3023, 3040, 3047, 3053, 3055, and 3128 of, and to repeal Sections 3044.6, 3046, 3048, 3049, 3051, 3121 and 3122 of, the Business and Professions Code, relating to optometry.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3023 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

3023. The board may visit and examine schools, colleges and universities or their divisions or departments in this state which provide optometric education.

For the purposes of this chapter, it shall accredit schools, colleges and universities or their divisions or departments in or out of this state providing optometric education, which it finds giving a sufficient program of study for the preparation of optometrists.

SEC. 2. Section 3040 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

3040. It is unlawful for any person to engage in the practice of optometry or to display a sign or in any other way to advertise or hold himself out as an optometrist without having first obtained a certificate of registration from the board under the provisions of this chapter or under the provisions of any former act relating to the practice of optometry.

In any prosecution for a violation of this section, the use of test cards, test lenses, or of trial frames is prima facie evidence of the practice of optometry.

SEC. 2.5. Section 3044.6 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 3046 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 3047 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

3047. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter and in rules and regulations promulgated by the board after January 1, 1972, each applicant shall show the board by satisfactory evidence that he was graduated from a school, college or university or its division or department which was at that time accredited by the board as provided in Section 3023 prior to the effective date of the amendment to this section at the 1971 Regular Session.

SEC. 5. Section 3048 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 3049 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 3051 of the Business and Professions Code is

SEC. 8. Section 3053 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

3053. All examinations shall be practical in character, designed to ascertain applicants' fitness to practice the profession of optometry and conducted in the English language. The board may by rule or regulation accept the examination given by other agencies or organizations which it deems equivalent to the examination required to determine an applicant's fitness to practice optometry.

SEC. 9. Section 3055 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

3055. All applicants, without discrimination, who satisfactorily pass the examination, shall thereupon be registered in the board's register of optometrists and a certificate of registration shall be issued to each one. The certificate shall continue in effect through the date provided in Section 3146 which next occurs after its issuance, when it shall expire unless it is renewed in the manner provided in that section.

SEC. 10. Section 3121 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 11. Section 3122 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 12. Section 3128 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

3128. It is unlawful to advertise by displaying a sign or otherwise or hold himself out to be an optometrist without having at the time of so doing a valid unrevoked certificate of registration from the board.

CHAPTER 873

An act relating to guayule.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares:

(a) During World War II, California was the "Rubber Capital of the World," for it produced tons of rubber for the war effort from a shrub called guayule.

(b) The effort succeeded with the help of thousands of Californians, dedicated ranchers, farmers, researchers, scientists, agronomists, and others, working under harassing conditions to produce a highly important product at a crucial time.

(c) With the increase of synthetic rubber technology and with the war winding down, demand lessened and the effort was ended. The fields were destroyed and little was done to maintain the research effort which had been started to develop the shrub and its byproducts for any sort of commercial or industrial development.

(d) We are again in a threatening situation today for with the energy crisis we have a shortage of petroleum feed stocks for synthetic rubber and the demand for natural rubber is increasing all over the world and the countries producing it are not keeping up with the demand.

(e) In California, we have all the ingredients to again become the "Rubber Capital of the World" and end our dependence on foreign sources for natural rubber and at the same time create industries within the state for an improved economy with additional jobs.

(f) The semiarid lands needed are available in abundance, trained specialists who know guayule are here, the state and the Los Angeles County Arboretum have been field testing the shrub for three years and other research indicates guayule is a renewable resource which can aid the California economy.

SEC. 2. The Director of Food and Agriculture shall administer a pilot guayule development program conducted on 10 test plots established in suitable growing areas within the state and develop a breeding and selection program to improve rubber yield, expand insect and disease resistance, determine the effects of irrigation on plant growth, rubber yield, and survival potential, determine economic methods for acceptable stands, and study of nursery as well as direct seeding methods. The program shall terminate January 1, 1982.

SEC. 3. Not later than February 1, 1982, the Director of Food and Agriculture shall submit a report to the Governor and to the Legislature, based on the results of the guayule development pilot program, on the feasibility of commercial development. Such study shall set forth findings as to the best extraction methods and manufacturing technologies.

SEC. 4. The Director of Food and Agriculture shall seek federal funding necessary to carry out the provisions of the act.

CHAPTER 874

An act to amend Sections 1798.3, 1798.7, 1798.10, 1798.17, 1798.19, 1798.24, 1798.25, 1798.30, 1798.32, 1798.33, 1798.61, and 1798.70 of, and to add Section 1798.43 to, the Civil Code, relating to records, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1798.3 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1798.3. As used in this chapter:

(a) The term "confidential information" means any of the following:

(1) Any information in any record maintained by an agency or component thereof which performs as its principal function any activity pertaining to the enforcement of criminal laws, including efforts of the Department of Justice to prevent, control, or reduce crime or to apprehend criminals if the information is (i) compiled for the purpose of identifying individual criminal offenders and alleged offenders and consists only of identifying data and notations of arrests, the nature and disposition of criminal charges, sentencing, confinement, release, and parole and probation status; or (ii) compiled for the purpose of a criminal investigation of suspected criminal activities, including reports of informants and investigators, and associated with an identifiable individual; or (iii) contained in any record which could identify an individual and which is compiled at any stage of the process of enforcement of the criminal laws, from the arrest or indictment stage through release from supervision.

(2) Information consisting solely of written testing or examination material, or scoring keys used solely to determine individual qualifications for appointment or promotion in public service, or used to administer a licensing examination, or academic examination, the disclosure of which would compromise the objectivity or fairness of the testing or examination process.

(3) Information containing medical, psychiatric or psychological material, if the holder of the record determines that disclosure of the information would be medically or psychologically detrimental to the individual. Such information shall, upon written authorization, be disclosed to a physician, psychiatrist or other licensed medical or psychological personnel designated by the data subject.

(4) Information, other than that maintained by an agency or component thereof which performs as its principal function any activity pertaining to the enforcement of criminal law, including the Department of Justice, consisting solely of investigative materials maintained by an agency for the purpose of investigating a specific violation of state law, but only so long as an investigation is in progress and such investigative information has not been maintained for a period longer than is necessary to complete a criminal, civil, or administrative prosecution or initiate other remedial action. An agency may keep the source or sources of information used for an investigation under this section confidential so long as it determines that confidentiality is necessary to protect its law enforcement activities.

(5) Records consisting of information used solely for the purpose of verifying and paying government health care service claims made pursuant to Division 9 (commencing with Section 10000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(6) Any information which is required by statute to be withheld from the individual to whom it pertains.

(b) The term "personal information" means any information in any record about an individual that is maintained by an agency, including, but not limited to, his or her education, financial transactions, medical or employment history. It does not mean information found to be confidential or nonpersonal under subdivision (a) or (c) of Section 1798.3.

(c) The term "nonpersonal information" means all of the following:

(1) Information consisting only of names, addresses, telephone numbers and other limited factual data, which could not, in any reasonable way (i) reflect or convey anything detrimental, disparaging, or threatening to an individual's reputation, rights, benefits, privileges, or qualifications or (ii) be used by an agency to make a determination that would affect an individual's rights, benefits, privileges, or qualifications.

(2) An agency telephone book or directory which is used exclusively for telephone and directory information.

(3) Any card catalog of any library, or the contents of any book listed within such card catalog.

(4) Any mailing list which is used exclusively for the purpose of mailing agency information.

(5) Records required by law to be maintained and used solely as a system of statistical records, but only if such records are maintained for statistical research or reporting purposes only and are not used in whole or in part in making any determination about an identifiable individual.

(6) Records to which an individual has the right of examination pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 11120) of Chapter 1 of Title 1 of Part 4 of the Penal Code.

(d) The term "agency" means every state office, officer, department, division, bureau, board, commission, or other state agency, except that the term agency shall not include:

(1) The California Legislature.

(2) Any agency established under Article VI of the California Constitution.

(3) The State Compensation Insurance Fund, except as to any records which contain personal information about the employees of the State Compensation Insurance Fund.

(e) The term "disclose" means to disclose, release, transfer, disseminate, or otherwise communicate all or any part of any record orally, in writing, or by electronic or any other means to any person or entity.

(f) The term "individual" means a natural person acting in the person's individual and private capacity as opposed to public employment or business proprietorship.

(g) The term "maintain" includes maintain, acquire, use, or disclose.

(h) The term "person" means any natural person, corporation, partnership, firm, or association.

(i) The term "record" means any file or grouping of information about an individual that is maintained by an agency, including, but not limited to, his or her education, financial transactions, medical or employment history and that contains his or her name, identifying number, symbol, or other identifying particular assigned to the individual, including, but not limited to, a finger or voice print or photograph and is maintained by reference to such an identifying particular.

(j) The term "system of records" means one or more records, which pertain to one or more individuals, which is maintained by any agency, from which information is retrieved by the name of an individual or by some identifying number, symbol or other identifying particular assigned to the individual.

(k) The term "governmental entity," except as used in Section 1798.26, means any branch of the federal government or of the local government.

SEC. 2. Section 1798.7 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1798.7. The Office of Information Practices may develop model guidelines to assist departments in the implementation of this chapter and, upon request, shall otherwise assist agencies in preparing regulations and meeting technical and administrative requirements. Every agency requesting such assistance may be charged consulting fees.

SEC. 3. Section 1798.10 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1798.10. Notices required to be filed by Section 1798.9 shall specify each of the following:

(a) The name of the agency and the division within the agency that is maintaining the records containing personal or confidential information and the name or title of the system of records, if any, in which such information is maintained.

(b) A brief description of the kinds of personal and confidential information contained in the record system, including the categories of individuals and the approximate number of individuals on whom records containing personal or confidential information are maintained in the system

(c) Each major use or purpose within the agency for the personal or confidential information within the system.

(d) Disclosures of the information that will be made pursuant to subdivision (e) or (f) of Section 1798.24.

(e) The legal authority which authorizes the maintenance of personal or confidential information.

(f) Retention and disposal policies for the personal or confidential information.

(g) The general source or sources of the information in the system.

If an agency fails to file such a report, the office promptly shall inform the agency and if the agency fails to comply within 30 days thereafter, the office shall report on such violation in accordance with subdivision (b) of Section 1798.6.

(h) The title and business address of the agency official responsible for maintaining the records.

(i) The procedures to be followed for an individual to gain access to, and contest the contents of, records containing personal information.

SEC. 3.5. Section 1798.17 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1798.17. Each agency shall provide with any form used to collect personal or confidential information from individuals the following notice unless the same information is already contained in the form itself or the individual has already received the same information during the previous year at the time of the request:

(a) The name of the agency and the division within the agency that is requesting the information.

(b) The title, business address, and telephone number of the agency official who is responsible for the system of records and who shall, upon request, inform an individual regarding the location of his or her records and the categories of any persons who use the information in those records.

(c) The authority, whether granted by statute, regulation, or executive order which authorizes the maintenance of the information.

(d) With respect to each item of information, whether submission of such information is mandatory or voluntary.

(e) The consequences, if any, of not providing all or any part of the requested information.

(f) The principal purpose or purposes within the agency for which the information is to be used.

(g) Any known or foreseeable interagency or intergovernmental transfer which may be made of the information.

(h) The individual's right of access to records containing personal information which are maintained by the agency. This subdivision shall not apply to any confidential information.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to any enforcement document issued by an employee of a law enforcement agency in the performance of his or her duties wherein the violator is provided an exact copy of the document, or to accident reports whereby the parties of interest may obtain a copy of the report pursuant to Section 20012 of the Vehicle Code.

SEC. 4. Section 1798.19 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1798.19. Each agency when it provides by contract for the operation or maintenance of records containing personal or confidential information to accomplish an agency function, shall cause, consistent with its authority, the requirements of this chapter to be applied to such records. For purposes of Article 10 (commencing with Section 1798.55) of this chapter, any contractor and any employee of such contractor, if such contract is agreed to on or after July 1, 1978, shall be considered to be an employee of an agency. Local government functions mandated by the state are not deemed agency functions within the meaning of this section.

SEC. 5. Section 1798.24 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1798.24. No agency may disclose any personal or confidential information unless the disclosure of such information is:

(a) Pursuant to an unsolicited written request, or an oral request which is accompanied by adequate indication of identity, by the individual to whom the record pertains.

(b) With the prior written voluntary consent of the individual to whom the record pertains, but only if such consent has been obtained not more than 30 days before the disclosure, or in the time limit specified by the individual in the written consent.

(c) To the duly appointed guardian or conservator of the individual or a person representing the individual provided that it can be proven with reasonable certainty through the possession of agency forms, documents or correspondence that such person is the authorized representative of the individual to whom the information pertains.

(d) To those officers, employees or volunteers of the agency which has custody of the information if such disclosure is relevant and necessary in the ordinary course of the performance of their official duties and is related to the purpose for which the information was acquired.

(e) To a person, or to another agency where the transfer is necessary for the transferee agency to perform its constitutional or statutory duties, and such use is compatible with a purpose for which the information was collected and such use or transfer is listed in the notice provided pursuant to Section 1798.9.

(f) To a governmental entity when required by state or federal law.

(g) Pursuant to the California Public Records Act, Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, provided that Section 6253 and subdivision (c) of Section 6254 of the Government Code shall not be interpreted to permit the disclosure of personal information contained in individual employment or medical files, or other personal information which would clearly be disparaging of or threatening to the reputation or rights of an individual other than a state employee acting in his or her official capacity.

(h) To a person who has provided the agency with advance adequate written assurance that the information will be used solely for statistical research or reporting purposes, but only if the information to be disclosed is in a form that will not identify any individual.

(i) Pursuant to a determination by the agency which maintains the information that compelling circumstances exist which affect the health or safety of an individual, if upon such disclosure notification is transmitted to the individual to whom the information pertains at his or her last known address. Disclosure shall not be made if it is in conflict with other state or federal law.

(j) To the State Archives of the State of California as a record which has sufficient historical or other value to warrant its continued preservation by the California state government, or for evaluation by the Director of General Services or his designate to determine whether the record has further administrative, legal, or fiscal value.

(k) To any person pursuant to a subpoena, court order, or other compulsory legal process if, before the disclosure, the agency reasonably attempts to notify such individual to whom the record pertains, and if such notification is not prohibited by law.

(m) Pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 1800) of Chapter 1 of Division 2 of the Vehicle Code.

(n) For the sole purpose of verifying and paying government health care service claims made pursuant to Division 9 (commencing with Section 10000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(o) To a law enforcement agency when required for an investigation of unlawful activity, unless such disclosure is otherwise prohibited by law.

(p) To another person or governmental organization to the extent necessary to obtain information from such person or governmental organization as necessary for an investigation by the agency of a failure to comply with a specific state law which the agency is responsible for enforcing.

(q) Personal information only to the Office of Information Practices when the transfer is necessary for that office to investigate a complaint it has received regarding an alleged violation of any provision of this chapter or to perform its mediation functions, provided that the Office of Information Practices has received the written voluntary consent of the individual to whom the information pertains for such a transfer.

(r) To an adopted person and is limited to general background information pertaining to the adopted person's natural parents, provided that such information does not include or reveal the identity of the natural parents.

(s) To a committee of the Legislature or to a Member of the Legislature where such Member has permission to obtain the information from the individual to whom it pertains.

(t) To the University of California or a nonprofit educational institution conducting scientific research, provided the request for information includes assurances of the need for personal or confidential information, procedures for protecting the confidentiality of the information and assurances that the personal identity of the subject shall not be further disclosed in individually identifiable form.

The provisions of this article shall not be applied or construed to authorize the disclosure of any personal or confidential information to the individual to whom the information pertains.

SEC. 6. Section 1798.25 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1798.25. Each agency shall keep an accurate accounting of the date, nature, and purpose of each disclosure of a record made pursuant to subdivision (i), (k), (l), (o), or (p), of Section 1798.24. Such accounting shall also be required for disclosures made pursuant to subdivision (e) or (f) of Section 1798.24 unless notice of the type of disclosure has been provided pursuant to the provisions of Sections 1798.9 and 1798.10. The accounting shall also include the name, title, and business address of the person or agency to whom such disclosure was made.

An accounting of disclosures between law enforcement officers actively engaged in duties in the field shall not be required by this article.

SEC. 7. Section 1798.30 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1798.30. Each agency shall either adopt regulations or publish guidelines specifying procedures to be followed in order fully to implement each of the rights of individuals set forth in this article.

SEC. 8. Section 1798.32 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1798.32. Each individual shall have the right to inquire and be notified as to whether the agency maintains a record about himself or herself. Inquiries shall specify the name or title of the system of records as filed under Section 1798.9. Agencies shall allow individuals to review the notices that they have submitted to the Office of Information Practices pursuant to Section 1798.9, and shall take other reasonable steps to assist individuals in making their requests sufficiently specific.

Any such notice sent to an individual which in any way indicates that the agency maintains any such record shall include the title and business address of the agency official responsible for maintaining the records, the procedures to be followed to gain access to the records, and the procedures to be followed for an individual to contest the contents of such records unless the individual has received this notice from the agency during the past year.

In implementing the right conferred by this section, an agency may specify in its rules or regulations reasonable times, places, and requirements for identifying an individual who requests access to a record, and for disclosing the contents of a record.

SEC. 9. Section 1798.33 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1798.33. Each agency may establish fees to be charged, if any, to an individual for making copies of a record. Such fees shall exclude the cost of any search for and review of the record, and shall not exceed ten cents ($0.10) per page, unless the agency fee for copying is established by statute.

SEC. 10. Section 1798.43 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

1798.43. This article applies to the rights of an individual to whom personal information pertains and not to the authority or right of any other person, agency, other state governmental entity, or governmental entity to obtain such information.

SEC. 11. Section 1798.61 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1798.61. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit the release of only names and addresses of persons possessing licenses to engage in professional occupations.

SEC. 12. Section 1798.70 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1798.70. This chapter shall be construed to supersede any other provision of state law, including Section 6253.5 of the Government Code, or any exemption in Section 6254 or 6255 of the Government Code, which authorizes any agency to withhold from an individual any record containing personal information which is otherwise accessible under the provisions of this chapter.

SEC. 13. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are.

In order that the provisions of the Information Practices Act of 1977, which became operative July 1, 1978, may be implemented by the agencies affected in a timely manner and consistent with the intention of such act, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 875

An act to amend Section 11628 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurers.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11628 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11628. No admitted insurer, licensed to issue motor vehicle liability policies as defined in Section 16450 of the Vehicle Code, shall fail or refuse to accept an application for such insurance, to issue such insurance to an applicant therefor, or issue or cancel such insurance under conditions less favorable to the insured than in other comparable cases, except for reasons applicable alike to persons of every race, language, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, or the same geographic area; nor shall race, language, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, or location within a geographic area of itself constitute a condition or risk for which a higher rate, premium, or charge may be required of the insured for such insurance.

As used in this section "geographic area" means a portion of this state of not less than 20 square miles defined by description in the rating manual of an insurer or in the rating manual of a rating bureau of which the insurer is a member or subscriber. In order that geographic areas used for rating purposes may reflect homogeneity of loss experience, a record of loss experience for such geographic area shall include the breakdown of actual loss experience statistics by zip code area (as designated by the United State Postal Service) within each geographic area for family owned private passenger motor vehicles and lightweight commercial motor vehicles, under 1½-ton load capacity, used for local service or retail delivery, normally within a 50-mile radius of garaging, and which are not part of a fleet of five or more motor vehicles under one ownership. A record of loss experience for such geographic area, including such statistical data by zip code area, shall be available for examination by the commissioner. Differentiation in rates between geographical areas shall not constitute unfair discrimination.

As used in this section, "language" means the inability to speak, read, write, or comprehend the English language.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 1979.

CHAPTER 876

An act to add Title 2.7 (commencing with Section 1812.200) to Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, relating to business opportunities.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Title 2.7 (commencing with Section 1812.200) is added to Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, to read:

TITLE 2.7. CONTRACTS FOR SELLER ASSISTED MARKETING PLANS

1812.200. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that the widespread sale of seller assisted marketing plans, often connected with the sale of vending machines, racks or work-at-home paraphernalia, has created numerous problems in California for purchasers which are inimical to good business practice. Often purchasers of seller assisted marketing plans are individuals inexperienced in business matters who use their life savings to purchase the seller assisted marketing plan in the hope that they will earn enough money in addition to retirement income or salary to become or remain self-sufficient. Many purchasers are the elderly who are seeking a way to supplement their fixed incomes. The initial payment is usually in the form of a purchase of overpriced equipment or products. California purchasers have suffered substantial losses when they have failed to receive full and complete information regarding the seller assisted marketing plan, the amount of money they can reasonably expect to earn, and the previous experience of the seller assisted marketing plan seller. Seller assisted marketing plan sellers have a significant impact upon the economy and well-being of this state and its local communities. The provisions of this title relating to seller assisted marketing plans are necessary for the public welfare.

(b) It is the intent of this title to provide each prospective seller assisted marketing plan purchaser with the information necessary to make an intelligent decision regarding seller assisted marketing plans being offered; to safeguard the public against deceit and financial hardship; to insure, foster and encourage competition and fair dealing in the sale of seller assisted marketing plans by requiring adequate disclosure; to prohibit representations that tend to mislead; and to prohibit or restrict unfair contract terms. This title shall be construed liberally in order to achieve the foregoing purposes.

1812.201. For the purposes of this title, the following definitions shall be used:

(a) "Seller assisted marketing plan" means any sale or lease or offer to sell or lease any product, equipment, supplies or services which requires a total initial payment of an amount exceeding five hundred dollars ($500), but less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), which will be used by or on behalf of the purchaser to begin or maintain a business when the seller assisted marketing plan seller has advertised or in other manner solicited the purchase or lease of the seller assisted marketing plan and done any of the following acts:

(1) Represented that such purchaser will earn, is likely to earn, or can earn a net profit in excess of the initial payment paid by the purchaser for participation in the seller assisted marketing plan;

(2) Represented that there is a market for the product, equipment, supplies or services; or

(3) Represented that the seller will buy back or is likely to buy back any product made, produced, fabricated, grown or bred by the purchaser using, in whole or in part, the product, supplies, equipment or services which were initially sold or leased or offered for sale or lease to the purchaser by the seller assisted marketing plan seller.

A "seller assisted marketing plan" shall not include a security as defined in the Corporate Securities Law of 1968 (Division 1 (commencing with Section 25000) of Title 4 of the Corporations Code).

A "seller assisted marketing plan" shall not include a franchise as defined by the Franchise Investment Law (Division 5 (commencing with Section 31000) of Title 4 of the Corporations Code).

A "seller assisted marketing plan" shall not include any transaction in which either the seller or purchaser or the lessor or lessee is licensed pursuant to and the transaction is governed by the Real Estate Law, Division 4 (commencing with Section 10000) of the Business and Professions Code.

A "seller assisted marketing plan" shall not include a license granted by a general merchandise retailer which allows the licensee to sell goods, equipment, supplies, products or services to the general public under the retailers trade mark, trade name or service mark providing that the general merchandise retailer has been doing business in this state continuously for five years prior to the granting of the license and the general merchandise retailer also sells the same goods, equipment, supplies, products or services directly to the general public.

A "seller assisted marketing plan" shall not include a newspaper distribution system distributing newspapers as defined in Section 6362 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

A "seller assisted marketing plan" shall not include a sale or lease to an existing or beginning business enterprise which also sells or leases equipment, products, supplies or performs services (i) which are not supplied by the seller and (ii) which the purchaser does not utilize with the equipment, products, supplies or services of the seller.

A "seller assisted marketing plan" shall not include the sale of an "ongoing business." An "ongoing business" is one which for at least six months previous to the sale: (i) has been operated from a given specific location, (ii) has been open for business to the general public and (iii) has had all equipment and supplies necessary for operating the business located at the given specific location.

A "seller assisted marketing plan" shall not include a sale or lease or offer to sell or lease to a purchaser: (i) who has for a period of at least six months previously bought products, supplies, services or equipment which were sold under the same trademark or trade name or which were produced by the seller; and (ii) who has received on resale of such product, supplies, services or equipment an amount which is at least equal to the amount of the initial payment.

A "seller assisted marketing plan" shall not include the renewal or extension of an existing seller assisted marketing plan contract.

(b) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, joint venture or any business entity.

(c) "Seller" is a person who sells or leases or offers to sell or lease a seller assisted marketing plan and:

(1) Has sold or leased or represents or implies that the seller has sold or leased, whether in California or elsewhere, at least five seller assisted marketing plans within 24 months prior to a solicitation; or

(2) Intends or represents or implies that the seller intends to sell or lease, whether in California or elsewhere, at least five seller assisted marketing plans within 12 months following a solicitation.

For purposes of this title, the seller is the person to whom the purchaser becomes contractually obligated. A "seller" does not include a licensed real estate broker or salesman who engages in the sale or lease of a "business opportunity" as such term is used in Sections 10000 to 10030, inclusive, of the Business and Professions Code, or elsewhere in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 10000),

Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 10050), or Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 10450) of Part 1 of Division 4 of the Business and Professions Code.

(d) "Purchaser" means a person who is solicited to become obligated or does become obligated on a seller assisted marketing plan contract.

(e) "Equipment" includes machines, all electrical devices, video or audio devices, molds, display racks, vending machines, coin-operated game machines, machines which dispense products and display units of all kinds.

(f) "Supplies" includes any and all materials used to produce, grow, breed or make any product or item.

(g) "Product" includes any tangible chattel, including food or living animals, which the purchaser intends to:

(1) Sell or lease to the general public.

(2) Use to perform a service for the general public.

(3) Resell or attempt to resell to the seller assisted marketing plan seller.

(4) Provide or attempt to provide to the seller assisted marketing plan seller so that the seller assisted marketing plan seller might resell the product to the general public.

(h) "Services" includes any assistance, guidance, direction, work, labor or services provided by the seller to initiate or maintain the seller assisted marketing plan.

(i) "Seller assisted marketing plan contract" or "contract" means any contract or agreement which obligates a purchaser to a seller.

(j) "Initial payment" means the total amount a purchaser is obligated to pay under the terms of the seller assisted marketing plan contract prior to or at the time of delivery of the equipment, supplies, products or services or within six months of the purchaser commencing operation of the seller assisted marketing plan. If the contract sets forth a specific total sale price for purchase of the seller assisted marketing plan which total price is to be paid partially as a downpayment and then in specific monthly payments, the "initial payment" means the entire total sale price.

(k) "Buy-back" or "secured investment" means any representation which implies in any manner that the purchaser's initial payment is protected from loss.

1812.202. (a) An offer to sell or offer to lease a seller assisted marketing plan shall occur in this state whenever:

(1) The offer to sell or offer to lease is made in this state;

(2) The purchaser resides in this state at the time of the offer; or

(3) The offer to sell or offer to lease either originates from this state or is directed by the seller or lessor to this state and received at the place to which it is directed.

(b) A sale or lease of a seller assisted marketing plan shall occur in this state whenever:

(1) The offer to sell or offer to lease is accepted in this state;

(2) The purchaser resides in this state at the time of the sale; or

(3) The acceptance is communicated to a seller situated in this state.

1812.203. The seller of any seller assisted marketing plan shall file with the Secretary of State a copy of the disclosure statements required under Sections 1812.205 and 1812.206, as well as a list of the names and resident addresses of those individuals who sell the seller assisted marketing plan on behalf of the seller, prior to placing any advertisement or making any other representations to purchasers. The disclosure statements on file shall be updated through a new filing whenever material changes occur, but at least once a year. The list of sales people shall be updated through a new filing every six months.

1812.204. In selling, leasing or offering to sell or lease a seller assisted marketing plan in this state, sellers shall not:

(a) Use the phrase "buy-back" or "secured investment" or similar phrase orally or in writing when soliciting, offering, leasing, or selling a seller assisted marketing plan if the "security" is the value of the equipment, supplies, products or services supplied by the seller to the purchaser.

(b) Use the phrase "buy-back" or "secured investment" or similar phrase orally or in writing when soliciting, offering, leasing, or selling a seller assisted marketing plan unless there are no restrictions or qualifications whatsoever preventing or limiting a purchaser from being able to invoke the "buy-back" or "secured" portion of the seller assisted marketing plan contract at any time the purchaser desires during the one-year period following the contract date. Upon invocation of the "buy-back" or "security" provision, the minimum amount a purchaser shall be entitled to have returned to him is the full amount of his initial payment, less the amount actually received by him from the operation of the seller assisted marketing plan. The "amount actually received" means either the amount the purchaser actually obtained from the seller for any product resold to the seller or the amount of money the general public pays for use of the purchaser's product, equipment, supplies or services, less any amount the purchaser has paid the owner or manager of the location at which the purchaser's products, equipment, supplies or services are placed.

(c) Represent that a purchaser's initial payment is "secured" in any manner or to any degree or that the seller provides a "buy-back" arangement unless the seller has, in conformity with subdivision (b) of Section 1812.214, either obtained a surety bond issued by a surety company admitted to do business in this state or established a trust account.

(d) Represent that the seller assisted marketing plan provides income or earning potential of any kind unless the seller has data to substantiate the claims of income or earning potential and discloses this data to the purchaser at the time the claim is made, if made in person, or if made through written or telephonic communication, at the first in-person communication thereafter and, when disclosed, the data is left with the purchaser. A mathematical computation of the number of sales multiplied by the amount of profit per sale to reach a projected income figure is not sufficient data to substantiate an income or earning potential claim. The data left by the seller must, at a minimum, disclose:

(1) The length of time the seller has been selling the particular seller assisted marketing plan being offered;

(2) The number and percentage such number represents of the total number of purchasers who form the basis for the income or earning potential representation; and

(3) The number of purchasers known to the seller to have made at least the same sales, income or profits as those represented.

(e) Use the trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising or other commercial symbol of any business which does not either control the ownership interest in the seller or accept responsibility for all representations made by the seller in regard to the seller assisted marketing plan, unless the nature of the seller's relationship to such other business entity is set forth immediately adjacent to and in type size equal to or larger than that used to depict the commercial symbol of such other business. If a member of a trade association, the seller may use the logo or registration mark of the trade association in advertisements and materials without regard to this subdivision.

(f) Place or cause to be placed any advertisement for a seller assisted marketing plan which does not include the actual business name of the seller, and if it differs, the name under which the seller assisted marketing plan is operated and the street address of the principal place of business of the seller.

1812.205. In the first in-person communication with a potential purchaser or in the first written response to an inquiry by a potential purchaser wherein the seller assisted marketing plan is described, the seller shall provide the prospective purchaser a written document, the cover sheet of which is entitled in at least 16-point boldface capital letters "DISCLOSURE REQUIRED BY CALIFORNIA LAW." Under the title shall appear in boldface of at least 10-point type, the statement: "The State of California has not reviewed and does not approve, recommend, endorse or sponsor any seller assisted marketing plan. The information contained in this disclosure has not been checked by the state. If you have any questions about this purchase, see an attorney or other financial adviser before you sign a contract or agreement." Nothing shall appear on the cover sheet except the title and the statement required above. The disclosure document shall contain the following information:

(a) The name of the seller, the name under which the seller is doing or intends to do business and the name of any parent or affiliated company that will engage in business transactions with purchasers or accept responsibility for statements made by the seller.

(b) A statement of the initial payment charged, or when not known, a statement of approximate initial payment charged; a statement of the amount of the initial payment to be paid to a person inducing, directly or indirectly, a purchaser to contract for the seller assisted marketing plan.

(c) A full and detailed description of the actual services the seller will undertake to perform for the purchaser.

(d) When the seller makes any statement concerning earnings or range of earnings that may be made through the seller assisted marketing plan, he must set forth in complete form in this disclosure statement the following:

"No guarantee of earnings or ranges of earnings can be made. The number of purchasers who have earned through this business an amount in excess of the amount of their initial payment is at least _____, which represents _____ percent of the total number of purchasers of this seller assisted marketing plan."

(e) If training of any type is promised by the seller, a complete description of the training and the length of the training.

(f) If the seller promises services to be performed in connection with the placement of the equipment, product or supplies at a location from which they will be sold or used, the full nature of those services as well as the nature of the agreements to be made with the owner or manager of the location at which the purchaser's equipment, product or supplies will be placed, must be set forth.

(g) If the seller represents orally or in writing when soliciting or offering for sale or lease or selling or leasing a seller assisted marketing plan that there is a "buy-back" arrangement or that the initial payment is "secured," the entire and precise nature of the "buy-back" or "security" arrangement shall be completely and clearly disclosed.

1812.206. At least 48 hours prior to the execution of a seller assisted marketing plan contract or agreement or at least 48 hours prior to the receipt of any consideration, whichever occurs first, the seller shall provide to the prospective purchaser in writing a document entitled "SELLER ASSISTED MARKETING PLAN INFORMATION SHEET." The seller may combine the information required under this section with the information required under Section 1812.205 and, if done, shall utilize the single title "DISCLOSURES REQUIRED BY CALIFORNIA LAW," and the title page required by Section 1812.205. If a combined document is used, it shall be given at the time required by Section 1812.205, provided that such time meets the 48-hour test of this section. The information sheet required by this section shall contain the following:

(a) The name of and the office held by the seller's officers, directors, trustees and general or limited partners, as the case may be, and the names of those individuals who have management responsibilities in connection with the seller's business activities.

(b) A statement whether any person identified in subdivision (a):

(1) Has been convicted of a felony or misdemeanor or pleaded nolo contendere to a felony or misdemeanor charge if such felony or misdemeanor involved fraud, embezzlement, fraudulent conversion or misappropriation of property.

(2) Has been held liable in a civil action by final judgment or consented to the entry of a stipulated judgment if the civil action alleged fraud, embezzlement, fraudulent conversion or misappropriation of property or the use of untrue or misleading representations in an attempt to sell or dispose of real or personal property or the use of unfair, unlawful or deceptive business practices.

(3) Is subject to any currently effective injunction or restrictive order relating to business activity as the result of an action brought by a public agency or department, including, but not limited to, action affecting any vocational license.

The statements required by this subdivision shall set forth the court, the date of the conviction or of the judgment and, when involved, the name of the governmental agency that brought the action resulting in the conviction or judgment.

(c) The length of time the seller:

(1) Has sold seller assisted marketing plans.

(2) Has sold the specific seller assisted marketing plan being offered to the purchaser.

(d) If the seller is required to secure a bond or establish a trust account pursuant to the requirements of Section 1812.204, the information sheet shall state either:

(1) "Seller has secured a bond issued by

_____,

(name and address of surety company)

a surety company admitted to do business in this state. Before signing a contract to purchase this seller assisted marketing plan, you should check with the surety company to determine the bond's current status," or

(2) "Seller has deposited with the office of the Secretary of State, State Capitol, Sacramento, California 95814, information regarding its trust account. Before signing a contract to purchase this seller assisted marketing plan, you should check with the Secretary of State to determine the current status of the trust account."

(e) A copy of a recent, not more than 12 months old, financial statement of the seller, together with a statement of any material changes in the financial condition of the seller from the date thereof. Such financial statement shall either be audited or be under penalty of perjury signed by one of the seller's officers, directors, trustees or general or limited partners. The declaration under penalty of perjury shall indicate that to the best of the signatory's knowledge and belief the information in the financial statement is true and accurate. Provided, however, that where a seller is a subsidiary of another corporation which is permited by generally accepted accounting standards to prepare financial statements on a consolidated basis, the above information may be submitted in the same manner for the parent if the corresponding financial statement of the seller is also provided and the parent absolutely and irrevocably has agreed to guarantee all obligations of the seller.

(f) An unexecuted copy of the entire seller assisted marketing plan contract.

1812.207. Every contract for sale or lease of a seller assisted marketing plan in this state shall be in writing and shall be subject to the provisions of this title. A copy of the fully completed contract and all other documents the seller requires the purchaser to sign shall be given to the purchaser at the time they are signed.

1812.208. The purchaser shall have the right to cancel a seller assisted marketing plan contract for any reason at any time within three business days of the date the purchaser and the seller sign the contract. The notice of the right to cancel and the procedures to be followed when a contract is canceled shall comply with Section 1812.209.

1812.209. Every seller assisted marketing plan contract shall set forth in at least 10-point type or equivalent size if handwritten, all of the following:

(a) The terms and conditions of payment including the initial payment, additional payments, and downpayment required.

(b) Immediately above the place at which the purchaser signs the contract the following notification, in boldface type, of the purchaser's right to cancel the contract:

"You have three business days in which you may cancel this contract for any reason by mailing or delivering written notice to the seller assisted marketing plan seller. The three business days shall expire on

_____ ;

(last date to mail or deliver notice) and notice of cancellation should be mailed to

_____ .

(seller assisted marketing plan seller's name and business street address)

If you choose to mail your notice, it must be placed in the United States mail properly addressed, first-class postage prepaid, and postmarked before midnight of the above date. If you choose to deliver your notice to the seller directly, it must be delivered to him by the end of his normal business day on the above date. Within five business days of receipt of the notice of cancellation, the seller shall return to the purchaser all sums paid by the purchaser to the seller pursuant to this contract. Within five business days after receipt of all such sums, the purchaser shall make available at his address or at the place at which they were caused to be located, all equipment, products and supplies provided to the purchaser pursuant to this contract. Upon demand of the seller, such equipment, products and supplies shall be made available at the time the purchaser receives full repayment by cash, money order or certified check."

(c) A full and detailed description of the acts or services the seller will undertake to perform for the purchaser.

(d) The seller's principal business address and the name and the address of its agent in the State of California authorized to receive service of process.

(e) The business form of the seller, whether corporate, partnership or otherwise.

(f) The delivery date or, when the contract provides for a staggered delivery of items to the purchaser, the approximate delivery date of those products, equipment or supplies the seller is to deliver to the purchaser to enable the purchaser to begin or maintain his business and whether the products, equipment or supplies are to be delivered to the purchaser's home or business address or are to be placed or caused to be placed by the seller at locations owned or managed by persons other than the purchaser.

(g) A complete description of the nature of the "buy-back" or "security" arrangement, if the seller has represented orally or in writing when selling or leasing, soliciting or offering a seller assisted marketing plan that there is a "buy-back" or that the initial payment is "secured."

(h) A statement which accurately sets forth a purchaser's right to void the contract under the circumstances and in the manner set forth in subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 1812.215.

1812.210. (a) No seller assisted marketing plan contract shall require or entail the execution of any note or series of notes by the purchaser which, when separately negotiated, will cut off as to third parties any right of action or defense which the purchaser may have against the seller.

(b) If the contract referred to in Section 1812.209 provides for a downpayment to be paid to the seller, the downpayment shall not exceed 20 percent of the initial payment amount. In no event shall the contract payment schedule provide for the seller to receive more than 20 percent of the initial payment before delivery to the purchaser, or to the place at which they are to be located, the equipment, supplies or products, unless all sums in excess of 20 percent are placed in an escrow account which cannot be released until the purchaser notifies the escrow agent in writing of the delivery of such equipment, supplies or products. Notification of delivery by the purchaser to the escrow agent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

1812.211. Any assignee of the seller assisted marketing plan contract or the seller's rights is subject to all equities, rights and defenses of the purchaser against the seller.

1812.212. No seller shall make or authorize the making of any reference to its compliance with this title.

1812.213. Every seller shall at all times keep and maintain a complete set of books, records and accounts of seller assisted marketing plan sales made by the seller. All documents relating to each specific seller assisted marketing plan sold or leased shall be maintained for four years after the date of the seller assisted marketing plan contract.

1812.214. (a) Every seller of seller assisted marketing plans other than a California corporation shall file with the Secretary of State an irrevocable consent appointing the Secretary of State or his successor in office to act as his attorney to receive service or any lawful process in any noncriminal suit, action or proceeding against him or his successor, executor or administrator, which may arise under this title. When such service is made upon the Secretary of State, it shall have the same force and validity as if served personally on the seller. Service may be made by leaving a copy of the process in the office of the Secretary of State, but it shall not be effective unless:

(1) The plaintiff forthwith sends by first-class mail a notice of the service upon the Secretary of State and a copy of the process to the defendant or respondent at his last address on file with the Secretary of State; and

(2) The plaintiff's affidavit of compliance with this section is filed in the case on or before the return date of the process, if any, or within such further time as the court allows.

(b) If, pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 1812.204, a seller must obtain a surety bond or establish a trust account, the following procedures apply:

(1) If a bond is obtained, a copy of it shall be filed with the office of the Secretary of State; if a trust account is established, notification of the depository, the trustee and the account number shall be filed with the office of the Secretary of State.

(2) The bond or trust account required shall be in favor of the State of California for the benefit of any person who is damaged by any violation of this title or by the seller's breach of a contract subject to this title or of any obligation arising therefrom. The bond or trust account shall also be in favor of any person damaged by such practices.

(3) Any person claiming against the bond or trust account for a violation of this title may maintain an action at law against the seller and the surety or trustee, except that the surety or trustee shall be liable only for actual damages and not the punitive damages permitted under Section 1812.218. The aggregate liability of the surety or trustee to all persons damaged by a seller's violation of this title shall in no event exceed the amount of the bond or trust account.

(4) The bond or the trust account shall be in an amount equal to the total amount of the "initial payment" section of all seller assisted marketing plan contracts the seller has entered into during the previous year or three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000), whichever is less, but in no case shall the amount be less than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000). The amount required shall be adjusted twice a year, no later than the tenth day of the first month of the seller's fiscal year and no later than the tenth day of the seventh month of the seller's fiscal year. A seller need only establish a bond or trust account in the amount of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) at the commencement of business and during the first six months the seller is in business. By the tenth day of the seller's seventh month in business, the amount of his bond shall be established as provided for herein as if he had been in business for a year.

1812.215. (a) If a seller uses any untrue or misleading statements to sell a seller assisted marketing plan, or fails to give the disclosure documents or disclose any of the information required by Sections 1812.205 and 1812.206, or the contract does not comply with the requirements of this title, then within one year of the date of the contract at the election of the purchaser upon written notice to the seller, the contract shall be voidable by the purchaser and unenforceable by the seller or his assignee as contrary to public policy and the purchaser shall be entitled to receive from the seller all sums paid to the seller when the purchaser is able to return all equipment, supplies or products delivered by the seller; when such complete return cannot be made, the purchaser shall be entitled to receive from the seller all sums paid to the seller less the fair market value at the time of delivery of the equipment, supplies or products not returned by the purchaser, but delivered by the seller. Upon the receipt of such sums, the purchaser shall make available to the seller at the purchaser's address or at the places at which they are located at the time the purchaser gives notice pursuant to this section, the products, equipment or supplies received by the purchaser from the seller. Provided, however, if the seller inadvertently has failed to make any of the disclosures required by Section 1812.205 or 1812.206 or the contract inadvertently fails to comply with the requirements of this title, the seller may cure such inadvertent defect by providing the purchaser with the correct disclosure statements or contract if at the time of providing such correct disclosures or contract the seller also informs the purchaser in writing that because of the seller's error, the purchaser has an additional 15-day period after receipt of the correct disclosures or contract within which to cancel the contract and receive a full return of all moneys paid in exchange for return of whatever equipment, supplies or products the purchaser has. If the purchaser does not cancel the contract within 15 days after receipt of the correct disclosures or contract, he may not in the future exercise his right to void the contract under this section due to such noncompliance with the disclosure or contract requirements of this title.

(b) If a seller fails to deliver the equipment, supplies or product within 30 days of the delivery date stated in the contract, unless such delivery delay is beyond the control of the seller, then at any time prior to delivery or within 30 days after delivery, at the election of the purchaser upon written notice to the seller, the contract shall be voidable by the purchaser and unenforceable by the seller or his assignee as contrary to public policy.

The rights of the purchaser set forth in this section shall be cumulative to all other rights under this title or otherwise.

1812.216. Any waiver by a purchaser of the provisions of this title shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable. Any attempt by a seller to have a purchaser waive rights given by this title shall be a violation of this title.

1812.217. Any person, including, but not limited to, the seller, a salesman, agent or representative of the seller or an independent contractor who attempts to sell or lease or sells or leases a seller assisted marketing plan, who willfully violates any provision of this title or employs, directly or indirectly, any device, scheme or artifice to deceive in connection with the offer or sale of any seller assisted marketing plan, or willfully engages, directly or indirectly, in any act, practice or course of business which operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon any person in connection with the offer, purchase, lease or sale of any seller assisted marketing plan shall, upon conviction, be fined not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for each unlawful transaction, or imprisoned in the state prison, or imprisoned in county jail for not more than one year, or be punished by both such fine and imprisonment.

1812.218. Any purchaser injured by a violation of this title or by the seller's breach of a contract subject to this title or of any obligation arising from the sale or lease of the seller assisted marketing plan may bring any action for recovery of damages. Judgment shall be entered for actual damages, plus reasonable attorney's fees and costs, but in no case shall the award of damages be less than the amount of the initial payment provided the purchaser is able to return all the equipment, supplies or products delivered by the seller; when such complete return cannot be made, the minimum award shall be no less than the amount of the initial payment less the fair market value at the time of delivery of the equipment, supplies or products that cannot be returned but were actually delivered by the seller. An award, if the trial court deems it proper, may be entered for punitive damages.

1812.219. The provisions of this title are not exclusive. The remedies provided herein for violation of any section of this title or for conduct proscribed by any section of this title shall be in addition to any other procedures or remedies for any violation or conduct provided for in any other law.

Nothing in this title shall limit any other statutory or any common law rights of the Attorney General, any district attorney or city attorney, or any other person. If any act or practice proscribed under this title also constitutes a cause of action in common law or a violation of another statute, the purchaser may assert such common law or statutory cause of action under the procedures and with the remedies provided for in such other law.

1812.220. If any provision of this act or if any application thereof to any person or circumstance is held unconstitutional, the remainder of the title and the application of such provision to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be any appropriation made by this act, because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased cost to local governmental entities which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant and identifiable cost changes.

CHAPTER 877

An act to add Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 2821) to Part 2 of Division 1 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to telephones.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 2821) is added to Part 2 of Division 1 of the Public Utilities Code, to read:

CHAPTER 9. TELEPHONE CORPORATIONS

Article 1. Automatic Dialing-Announcing Devices

2821. As used in this article, "automatic dialing-announcing device" means any automatic equipment which incorporates a storage capability of telephone numbers to be called or a random or sequential number generator capable of producing numbers to be called and the capability, working alone or in conjunction with other equipment, to disseminate a prerecorded message to the telephone number called.

2822. (a) The connection of automatic dialing-announcing devices to a telephone line is subject to the provisions of this article and to the jurisdiction, control, and regulation of the commission.

(b) No person shall operate an automatic dialing-announcing device except in accordance with the provisions of this article. The use of such a device by any person, either individually or acting as an officer, agent, or employee of a person or corporation operating automatic dialing-announcing devices, is subject to the provisions of this article.

2823. Automatic dialing-announcing devices may be used to place calls over telephone lines only pursuant to a prior agreement between the persons involved, whereby the person called has agreed that he or she consents to receive such calls from the person calling, or as specified in Section 2824.

2824. Whenever telephone calls are placed through the use of an automatic dialing-announcing device, such device shall be operated by a person who shall do all of the following:

(a) State the nature of the call and the name, address, and telephone number of the business or organization being represented, if any.

(b) Inquire whether the person called consents to hear the prerecorded message of the person calling.

(c) Disconnect the automatic dialing-announcing device from the telephone line upon the termination of the call by either the person calling or the person called.

2825. No person shall connect any automatic dialing-announcing device to any telephone line without first making written application to the telephone corporation within whose service area telephone calls through the use of such device are proposed to be placed. In such application, the person shall provide information as to the type of automatic dialing-announcing device proposed to be connected, the time of day such telephone calls are proposed to be placed using such device, the anticipated number of calls proposed to be placed during the specified calling period, the average length of a completed call, and such additional information as the corporation or the commission may require. Upon receiving such an application for service, the corporation shall review the furnished information and, if it appears that calling patterns would create a traffic overload condition or the service would be detrimental to the services of other customers of the corporation, it may deny the application or modify the application and grant the application as so modified.

SEC. 2. It is the intent of the Legislature that this act shall apply to any automatic dialing-announcing devices connected to any telephone line both prior and subsequent to the effective date of this act.

CHAPTER 878

An act to add and repeal Section 6371 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to sales and use taxes, and making an appropriation therefor, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6371 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

6371. (a) There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this part the gross receipts from the sale of, and the storage, use, or other consumption of, medical alert tags furnished by an organization which is exempted from taxes under Section 23701.

(b) For purposes of this section, "medical alert tags" includes any tag worn by a person for the purpose of alerting other persons that the wearer of such tag has a medical disability or allergic reaction to certain treatments.

SEC. 2. The sum of one thousand six hundred dollars ($1,600) is hereby appropriated to the Controller from the State General Fund to make the payments to counties and cities required by Section 2230 of the Revenue and Taxation Code to reimburse them for revenue losses caused by Section 1 of this act in the initial fiscal year in which this act is effective. The appropriation made by this section shall be allocated in the manner specified in Section 2230.

SEC. 3. This act shall remain in effect for only two years after its effective date and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before two years after its effective date, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 4. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect; however, it shall become operative on the first day of the first calendar quarter commencing more than 90 days after the effective date of this act.

CHAPTER 879

An act to amend Section 30304 of the Public Resources Code, relating to coastal resources, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 30304 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

30304. Any member of a regional commission or the commission may, subject to the confirmation of his or her appointing power, appoint an alternate member to represent him or her at any regional commission or commission meeting. An alternate may serve prior to confirmation for a period not to exceed 90 days from the date of appointment unless and until confirmation is specifically refused. The alternate shall serve at the pleasure of the member who appointed him or her and shall have all the powers and duties as a member of the regional commission or the commission, except that the alternate shall only participate and vote in meetings in the absence of the member who appointed him or her.

An alternate shall not be eligible for appointment to the commission as a regional commission representative to the commission.

All provisions of law relating to conflicts of interest that are applicable to a member shall apply to an alternate member. Whenever a member has, or is known to have, a conflict of interest on any matter, such member's alternate shall not be eligible to vote on that matter.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The heavy workload of the regional and state coastal commissions requires that they meet often and for long hours every month. Because many commissioners have other duties and responsibilities, it is often not possible for them to attend all or substantial portions of every commission meeting. Many agenda items require an affirmative vote of a majority of the appointed members. Thus, time constraints, conflicting duties, and voting requirements have led to absenteeism and caused hardships for permit applicants and interested members of the public. Because there is an immediate need to alleviate the commissions' backlog of work and to avoid unnecessary hardship, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

An act relating to handicapped persons and making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of one hundred sixty-six thousand dollars ($166,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund in the State Treasury to the State Librarian to provide partial support for a Southern California Regional Library for the blind, physically handicapped and reading disabled as designated by the Library of Congress.

The amounts appropriated by this act shall be used exclusively to provide regional library services for the blind, physically handicapped and reading disabled in Southern California. Such services must meet established standards set by the Library of Congress for regional libraries for the blind, physically handicapped and reading disabled and shall be reviewed regularly by the State Librarian.

SEC. 2. It is the intent of the Legislature that the appropriation of funds provided for by this act shall be based on actual operating costs of providing regional library service for the blind, physically handicapped and reading disabled in Southern California, in accordance with national standards set for regional libraries by the Library of Congress and shall become a regular program item in the annual budget act. It is also the intent of the Legislature that funds be phased in over three fiscal years to provide full state support for the Southern California regional library for the blind, physically handicapped and reading disabled, as designated by the Library of Congress.

SEC. 3. The Legislature acknowledges the value of volunteer services that have been provided in Southern California to the blind, physically handicapped, and reading disabled. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this measure that, to the maximum extent possible, these services should continue. The State Librarian shall monitor the level of volunteer services provided by the regional library to the blind, physically handicapped, and reading disabled, in Southern California and administer the program in a manner which will encourage a level of volunteer activity which at least equals that which existed prior to the enactment of this act.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

This bill must be given immediate effect in order to maintain the existing level of services of the Southern California Regional Library for the blind without interruption.

CHAPTER 881

An act to add and repeal Division 22 (commencing with Section 32000) to the Public Resources Code, relating to public resources, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Division 22 (commencing with Section 32000) is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

DIVISION 22. VEGETATION MANAGEMENT REPORTS

32000. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that vegetation management programs can result in modifications to the plant and animal communities associated with such vegetation that are beneficial both to man and the environment alike.

32001. The Legislature further finds and declares that vegetation management may potentially increase forage for livestock, increase the diversity and quality of wildlife habitat, improve water yield, reduce the hazard of wildland fire and its attendant suppression costs and economic losses, lead to decreased soil erosion and flood losses, and restore and maintain viable plant communities and recreation opportunities.

32002. The Legislature further finds and declares that properly executed vegetation management programs may provide savings to taxpayers, economic stimulation by providing employment opportunities, and increased production of food and fiber, as well as enhancement of the environment.

32003. The Legislature further finds and declares that there are many instances of state action and inaction on vegetation management programs which may not always reflect the overall public interest. Consequently, the preparation of reports by the appropriate state agencies is necessary so that the Legislature may properly evaluate current and potential vegetation management policies in light of the best available scientific, technical, economic, and social information.

32004. The Legislature further finds and declares that it is the policy of the state to actively promote the planning for and study of vegetation management practices by interested public agencies and private parties.

32005. "Vegetation management" means the intentional manipulation of growing or dead vegetation for the purpose of altering, increasing, decreasing, maintaining, or protecting the composition of the plant community and its environment.

32006. The Department of Food and Agriculture, the Air Resources Board, the California Coastal Commission, the Department of Conservation, the Employment Development Department, the Department of Fish and Game, the Department of Forestry, the Office of Planning and Research, the Parks and Recreation Department, the State Solid Waste Management Board, the Department of Transportation, the Department of Water Resources, the California Conservation Corps, the Colorado River Board, the Reclamation Board, the State Lands Commission, the State Water Resources Control Board, the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission, and the State Coastal Conservancy shall each submit a report on vegetation management to the Legislature by March 1, 1979. Such reports shall be assembled by the Senate Office of Research and shall be available for inspection by the general public. Each report shall include:

(a) A description of present policy on the agency's support or use of vegetation management.

(b) A description of the agency's present activity and programs on vegetation management.

(c) A description of the agency's regulatory programs affecting vegetation management.

(d) A description of any activities of the agency that prohibit, promote, or otherwise influence the ability of private landowners to undertake vegetation management programs.

(e) A description of which of the agency's existing programs would be affected by an active vegetation management program in its agency or by another agency.

(f) A copy or a summary description of any research or reports on or relating to vegetation management prepared by or for the agency.

32007. Information submitted pursuant to subdivisions (a), (b), (c), (d) and (e) of Section 32006 shall include the statutory authority for the activities described.

An agency is not required to submit a separate report on vegetation management if its report is included in the report of another agency.

32008. The agencies listed in Section 32006 and the Legislature shall seek the advice of the State University and Colleges and the University of California in the preparation and review of the reports.

32009. Where the information is readily available, the Senate Office of Research shall prepare a descriptive inventory of the vegetation management activities of local governments and private landowners for each county where such programs exist and for federal agency vegetation management activity undertaken in California by the Bureau of Land Management, the United States Forest Service, the Bureau of Reclamation, the Department of Defense, the Bureau of Indian Affairs, the Army Corps of Engineers, and the National Park Service.

The Senate Office of Research shall prepare by April 1, 1979, a report containing a summary of the reports received pursuant to this division which includes any impacts of the vegetation management programs on the economy, fire suppression and other costs of government, natural resources, soil, wildlife, the environment, private landowners, food and fiber production, employment, and recreation.

32010. This division shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1980, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1980, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

That vegetation management programs can further necessary conservation policies by reducing the fire hazard, increasing wildlife habitat areas and forage for livestock, and protecting viable plant communities, while at the same time providing jobs which aid the economy of the state. The information necessary to develop such policies will be elicited through the reports mandated by this act and preparation should begin as soon as possible. Thus, in order that existing policies can be evaluated, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 882

An act making an appropriation to pay the claims of the Secretary of the State Board of Control, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of two million one hundred sixty-six thousand three hundred sixty dollars and twenty-two cents ($2,166,360.22) is hereby appropriated from the funds indicated to the State Board of Control to pay the claims of the Secretary of the State Board of Control:

Total	$2,166,360.22

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to settle claims against the state and end a hardship to claimants as quickly as possible, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 883

An act to amend Section 4 of Chapter 295 of the Statutes of 1978, relating to education, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall determine which school districts have not received all allowances which could have been made to such districts pursuant to the early childhood education program conducted pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 52000) of Part 28 of the Education Code, or its predecessor, during the 1974–75 and 1975–76 fiscal years.

SEC. 2. The sum of three hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($375,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Superintendent of Public Instruction for the purpose of allowing to each school district the amount determined by the superintendent to be payable to such district pursuant to Section 1 of this act.

SEC. 3. Section 4 of Chapter 295 of the Statutes of 1978 is amended to read:

Sec. 4. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, during the 1978–79 fiscal year each of the deadlines specified in Sections 1623, 1624, 42100, 42127, 85000, and 85023 of the Education Code requiring the taking of particular action involving the adoption of budgets shall be extended by one month.

Notwithstanding Sections 42103 and 85003 of the Education Code, publication of the publication budget during the 1978–79 fiscal year shall occur no later than the last week in August, and the public hearing required by Sections 42103 and 85003 of the Education Code shall occur no later than the first week in September, provided that publication of the publication budget shall occur no later than five days after the adoption of the publication budget pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 42127 or subdivision (c) of Section 85023 of the Education Code, and that the public hearing shall occur no earlier than seven days after the publication of the publication budget.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect The facts constituting such necessity are·

In order to permit the funds made available to school districts pursuant to this act to be made available by the beginning of the 1978–79 fiscal year, and so permit the orderly planning of 1978–79 fiscal year budgets, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 884

An act to add Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 50660) to Part 2 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to housing, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 50660) is added to Part 2 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 6.5. DEFERRED-PAYMENT REHABILITATION LOANS

50660. The Legislature finds and declares that the rehabilitation of existing housing is necessary to the continued viability of neighborhoods, the elimination of health and safety hazards, and the continued availability of a dwindling stock of low-cost housing. Economic conditions have not provided sufficient incentive to home improvement and elimination of substandard conditions, and financial assistance in the form of deferred-payment rehabilitation loans is necessary for those owners of residential real property who would otherwise be unable to obtain sufficient public or private financing to bring their properties into compliance with rehabilitation standards. Deferred-payment loans provide a means of financing rehabilitation which the owner could not otherwise afford. Such assistance is particularly necessary where local agencies are undertaking concentrated or systematic enforcement programs to require compliance with rehabilitation standards, and where persons or families of low or moderate income are affected.

50661. There is hereby created in the State Treasury the Housing Rehabilitation Loan Fund. All interest or other increment resulting from the investment of moneys in the Housing Rehabilitation Loan Fund shall be deposited in such fund, notwithstanding Section 16305 7 of the Government Code. All money in such fund is continuously appropriated to the department for making deferred-payment rehabilitation loans for financing all or a portion of the cost of rehabilitating existing housing to meet rehabilitation standards as provided in this chapter and for related administrative expenses of the department.

50662. The department shall adopt regulations establishing terms upon which deferred-payment rehabilitation loans may be made. The amount of a deferred-payment rehabilitation loan shall in no case exceed the costs of meeting rehabilitation standards. The amount, when combined with other financing provided, shall in no case exceed the combined costs of meeting rehabilitation standards and refinancing existing indebtedness. Except for loans made to local agencies pursuant to Section 50664, deferred-payment rehabilitation loans shall bear interest at the rate of 3 percent per annum on the original principal balance. In the discretion of the department, which may differentiate among the types of programs specified in Section 50663, such interest shall either be payable periodically as it accrues during the term of the loan or payment of interest shall be deferred until payment of the principal is due. However, regulations of the department may provide for waiver of interest payments when a local agency contracting pursuant to Section 50663 remits to the department in advance on behalf of the borrower a sum equal to not less than 15 percent of the original principal balance, which may be in lieu of interest. The regulations of the department may also provide for payment of interest as accrued, in circumstances determined appropriate by the department to serve the purposes of this chapter. In the case of a deferred-payment rehabilitation loan to an elderly person who is the owner of an owner-occupied one-to-four family residence, the note and deed of trust securing the loan shall require payment of the obligation upon transfer of the property. In the case of a deferred-payment rehabilitation loan to a nonelderly person who is the owner of an owner-occupied one-to-four family residence, payment shall be required after five years or upon transfer of the property, whichever first occurs. However, the loan may be renewed for additional five-year terms so long as the property is not transferred and the owner is unable to refinance the obligation when the debt comes due. In the case of a deferred-payment rehabilitation loan to an owner of a residence other than an owner-occupied one-to-four family residence, payment shall be required after five years, but the loan may be renewed for up to three additional five-year terms so long as persons of low income residing in the residence will benefit. The department shall establish standards and determine eligibility for renewal.

50663. The department may contract with a local agency to provide any portion of uncommitted funds in the Housing Rehabilitation Loan Fund for making deferred-payment rehabilitation loans through the local agency in aid of a rehabilitation loan program conducted in a concentrated rehabilitation area designated pursuant to Section 51302, or in aid of a residential rehabilitation financing program conducted pursuant to Part 13 (commencing with Section 37910) of Division 24, or in aid of a systematic enforcement program for which the California Housing Finance Agency has allocated funds for mortgage loans pursuant to Section 51311, or in aid of a code enforcement agency repairing substandard dwellings following the owner's failure to commence work following a final notice or order from the enforcement agency. Eligibility for such loans shall be governed by the provisions of Sections 50664, 50665, 50666, and 50667.

50664. Deferred-payment loans may be made to local agencies for repair of substandard dwellings through a master agreement and fund commitment. Such agreements shall limit the amount of deferred-payment rehabilitation loans to actual rehabilitation costs to the local agency, shall require that the full amount of rehabilitation costs be made a special assessment against the property involved, and shall require that the full amount collected, including any interest attributable to delinquency, be promptly repaid to the Housing Rehabilitation Loan Fund. However, loans made pursuant to this section shall not otherwise bear any interest.

50665. In residential rehabilitation areas designated pursuant to Section 37921, or in conjunction with financing of residential rehabilitation outside such areas as provided in Section 37922.1 or 37924.5, a person or family of low or moderate income that is the owner of an owner-occupied one-to-four dwelling unit property may receive a deferred-payment rehabilitation loan for the excess of the cost of meeting rehabilitation standards over the amount of financing the local agency is able to provide without exceeding the owner's ability to afford the monthly payments required. Owners of rental residences may receive deferred-payment rehabilitation loans if they have agreed to limit rent increases as provided in Section 37922.5, and if such loans are necessary in addition to financing otherwise provided in order to avoid increases in monthly debt service which would result in rent increases causing permanent displacement of persons of low income residing in the residence prior to rehabilitation. Such owners may also receive deferred-payment rehabilitation loans in the amount, if any, necessary to avoid such increases in monthly debt service as would make it economically infeasible to accept subsidies available to provide affordable rents to persons of low income, if the owner agrees to accept such subsidies.

50666. In concentrated rehabilitation areas designated pursuant to Section 51302, a person or family of low or moderate income who is the owner of an owner-occupied residential structure of one to four units may receive a deferred-payment rehabilitation loan for the excess of the cost of meeting rehabilitation standards over the amount of the neighborhood improvement loan the administering agency, local public entity, or qualified mortgage lender is able to provide without exceeding the owner's ability to afford the monthly payments required. Owners of rental housing may receive deferred-payment rehabilitation loans if necessary to avoid increases in monthly debt service which would result in rent increases causing permanent displacement of persons of low income residing in the residential structure prior to rehabilitation and if the owner contracts during the term of the loan not to raise residential rentals except as permitted by regulations of the agency pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 51307. Owners of rental housing may also receive deferred-payment rehabilitation loans in the amount, if any, necessary to avoid such increases in monthly debt service as would make it economically infeasible to accept subsidies available to provide affordable rents to persons of low income, if the owner agrees to accept such subsidies.

50667. In those counties and cities in which the California Housing Finance Agency has allocated funds for mortgage loans for rehabilitation of housing developments pursuant to Section 51311, a person or family of low or moderate income who is the owner of an owner-occupied housing development may receive a deferred-payment rehabilitation loan for the excess of the cost of meeting rehabilitation standards over the amount of mortgage-loan financing the agency is able to provide without exceeding the owner's ability to afford the monthly payments required. Owners of rental housing developments in such counties and cities may receive deferred payment loans if necessary to avoid increases in monthly debt service which would result in rent increases causing permanent displacement of persons of low income residing in the housing development prior to rehabilitation, and if the owner accepts a mortgage loan from the agency with its limitation of rents and profits. Owners of rental housing developments in such counties and cities may also receive deferred-payment rehabilitation loans in the amount, if any, necessary to avoid such increases in monthly debt service as would make it economically infeasible to accept subsidies available to provide affordable rents to persons of low income if the owner agrees to accept such subsidies.

50668. Except as provided in Section 50664, deferred-payment loans may be made only through agreements between the local agency which has received a fund commitment and the owner of the residence, residential structure, or housing development. Such agreements shall regulate contractor selection, work to be done, and the schedule of contractor payments, and shall require that the loan be secured by a deed of trust. Agreements regarding housing other than owner-occupied one-to-four family dwellings shall have the prior approval of the department.

All moneys received by the department in repayment of loans made pursuant to this chapter, including interest and payments in advance in lieu of future interest, shall be deposited in the Housing Rehabilitation Loan Fund.

SEC. 2. The sum of two million dollars ($2,000,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund for transfer to the Housing Rehabilitation Loan Fund created by Section 50661 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Section 1 of this act.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Housing-rehabilitation programs exist in the state under the Zenovich-Moscone-Chacon Housing and Home Finance Act and the Marks-Foran Residential Rehabilitation Act of 1973. Many persons and families of low or moderate income cannot afford to take advantage of the rehabilitation funds available under these programs for rehabilitation.

There is an urgent need to make available housing rehabilitation funds for persons and families of low or moderate income who would otherwise be unable to obtain sufficient public or private financing to bring their properties into compliance with rehabilitation standards. In order that such funds be made available without unnecessary delay, this act must go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 885

An act to add Article 8 (commencing with Section 32370) to Chapter 3 of Part 19 of the Education Code, to amend Section 68042 of the Government Code, and to amend Section 42652 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to the recycling of paper.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 8 (commencing with Section 32370) is added to Chapter 3 of Part 19 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 8. Recycling Paper

32370. The Legislature finds and declares that it is the policy of the state to conserve and protect its resources. The maintenance of a quality environment for the people of this state now and in the future is a matter of statewide concern.

The Legislature further finds and declares that the volume of solid waste generated within the state coupled with an increased rate in the consumption of paper products and the absence of adequate programs and procedures for the reuse of these materials threaten the quality of the environment and well-being of the people of California.

In making these findings the Legislature declares that the policy and intent of this article is to increase the public's awareness of the value of recycling and the need to recycle, and to improve environmental quality by the recycling of paper products.

32371. The following definitions govern the interpretation of this article:

(a) "Educational agency" means any school district, county office of education, community college district, or campus of the California State University and Colleges.

(b) "Paper recycling program" means, (1) the provision of specially marked containers which are intended to receive either all grades or only some grades of postconsumer wastepaper but which are not intended to receive other forms of postconsumer waste, (2) publicity directed at all persons who frequent buildings with such containers encouraging those persons to deposit wastepaper in the containers, and (3) the collection of all paper deposited in the containers for the purpose of recycling.

(c) "Postconsumer waste" means a finished material which would normally be disposed of as solid waste, having completed its life cycle as a consumer item.

(d) "Recycled paper" means all paper and woodpulp products with not less than 50 percent of its total weight consisting of secondary and postconsumer waste and with not less than 10 percent of its total weight consisting of postconsumer waste.

(e) "Secondary waste" means fragments of products or finished products of a manufacturing process which has converted a virgin resource into a commodity of real economic value, and includes postconsumer waste, but does not include mill broke, wood slabs, chips, sawdust, or other wood residue from a manufacturing process.

32372. (a) Each school district may, and is encouraged to, establish and maintain a paper recycling program in all classrooms, administrative offices, and other areas owned or leased by the school district where a significant quantity of wastepaper is generated or may be collected.

(b) Each community college district and each campus of the California State University and Colleges may, and is encouraged to, establish and maintain a paper recycling program in administration offices and other areas owned or leased by the district or campus, including areas frequented by students, where a significant quantity of wastepaper is generated or may be collected.

(c) In establishing paper recycling programs, school districts, community college districts, and campuses of the California State University and Colleges shall attempt to cooperate with existing paper recycling programs.

(d) Nothing in this article shall limit or supersede any other requirement of law imposing a paper recycling program on school districts, community college districts, or the California State University and Colleges.

32373. (a) Each educational agency is encouraged to purchase recycled paper if the supplier of recycled paper offers the paper at a cost which does not exceed by more than 5 percent the lowest offer of nonrecycled paper of comparable quality.

(b) Whenever an educational agency purchases recycled paper, the educational agency shall purchase the paper with the highest percentage of postconsumer waste, if the price and quality of the recycled paper are otherwise equal.

(c) Whenever it is practical to do so, each educational agency shall revise its procurement specifications to eliminate discrimination against recycled paper and to give preference to the purchase of recycled paper.

(d) Each educational agency shall make all reasonable efforts to eliminate the purchase of paper and paper products which are deemed potential contaminants of the educational agency's paper recycling program.

(e) When contracting with any educational agency for the sale of a paper product, the contractor shall certify in writing to the contracting officer or the officer's representative the precentage of secondary and postconsumer waste in the paper product and whether or not such percentages meet the minimum percentages specified in subdivision (d) of Section 32371. Such certification shall be furnished under penalty of perjury.

32375. The State Solid Waste Management Board, in conjunction with the Department of Education and other state agencies which the board and the Department of Education deem appropriate in order to carry out the purposes of this article, shall coordinate the implementation of this article and shall provide materials, technical assistance, and other resources as it deems necessary to aid and encourage educational agencies to establish paper recycling programs.

The State Solid Waste Management Board may enter into agreements with other agencies for the purpose of the administration and implementation of this article.

32376. The State Solid Waste Management Board, in conjunction with the Department of Education and other agencies which the board and the Department of Education deem to be appropriate in order to carry out the purposes of this article, shall develop and distribute curriculum material relating to paper recycling, conservation of resources, and topics relating to the implementation of the program established by this article.

32377. The State Solid Waste Management Board shall submit a report on the progress of its efforts to aid and encourage the establishment of paper recycling programs in educational agencies to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1980.

SEC 2. Section 68042 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68042. (a) The board shall grant funds from the State Litter Control, Recycling, and Resource Recovery Fund to eligible public agencies or private entities which have submitted applications for such funds when the board determines that the plan submitted by any such agency or entity is qualified and suitable for the purposes of the program.

(b) The board shall adopt guidelines for the determination of eligibility of public agencies and private entities and the determination of qualification and suitability of plans submitted by such agencies or entities. Such guidelines shall be consistent with the policy and provisions of this chapter.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature that the money in the fund be substantially expended each year, with the total commitments to each of the various classes of expenditure in this article adhering as closely to the specified percentages as is consistent with efficient and prudent administration

(d) It is the intent of the Legislature that funds made available by this chapter shall be used to supplement and not replace existing funding for the same purposes.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, the board may also carry out the provisions of Article 8 (commencing with Section 32370) of Chapter 3 of Part 19 of the Education Code, including, but not limited to, the encumbering of funds from the State Litter Control, Recycling, and Resource Recovery Fund upon appropriation therefor by the Legislature as specified in Section 42652 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. The board shall not, however, encumber more than two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) during the 1978–79 fiscal year. The Legislature finds and declares that such provisions promote and carry out the purposes set forth in Section 68002 and in this article.

SEC. 2.5. Section 68042 of the Government Code, as amended by Section 12 of Senate Bill 1855, is amended to read:

68042. (a) The board shall disburse funds from the State Litter Control, Recycling, and Resource Recovery Fund to eligible public agencies or private entities that have submitted applications for such funds when the board determines that the plan submitted by any such agency or entity is qualified and suitable for the purposes of the program.

(b) The board shall adopt guidelines for the determination of eligibility of public agencies and private entities and the determination of qualification and suitability of plans submitted by such agencies or entities. Such guidelines shall be consistent with the policy and provisions of this chapter.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature that the money in the fund be substantially expended each year, with the total commitments to each of the various classes of expenditure in this article adhering closely to the specified percentages. Any money in the fund not encumbered in the year received shall be retained in the class of expenditure to which it was allocated and shall be available for encumbrance in the next year for that same purpose.

(d) It is the intent of the Legislature that funds made available by this chapter shall be used to supplement and not replace existing funding for the same purposes.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, the board may also carry out the provisions of Article 8 (commencing with Section 32370) of Chapter 3 of Part 19 of the Education Code, including, but not limited to, the encumbering of funds from the State Litter Control, Recycling, and Resource Recovery Fund upon appropriation therefor by the Legislature as specified in Section 42652 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. The board shall not, however, encumber more than two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) during the 1978–79 fiscal year. The Legislature finds and declares that such provisions promote and carry out the purposes set forth in Section 68002 and in this article.

SEC. 3. Section 42652 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 87 of the Statutes of 1978, is amended to read:

42652. The money in the State Litter Control, Recycling, and Resource Recovery Fund shall, upon order of the State Controller, be drawn therefrom as follows:

(a) To pay the refunds authorized by this part.

(b) To pay the State Board of Equalization for the cost of administration of this part.

(c) The balance to be expended by the State Solid Waste Management Board, as provided in Title 7.8 (commencing with Section 68000) of the Government Code; provided, such money shall not be expended for purposes of Article 8 (commencing with Section 32370) of Chapter 3 of Part 19 of the Education Code, and as provided in Section 68042 of the Government Code, without appropriation therefor by the Legislature.

SEC. 4. Section 42652 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 87 of the Statutes of 1978, is amended to read:

42652. The money in the State Litter Control, Recycling, and Resource Recovery Fund shall, upon order of the State Controller, be drawn therefrom as follows:

(a) To pay the refunds authorized by this part.

(b) To pay the State Board of Equalization for the cost of administration of this part.

(c) The balance to be expended by the State Solid Waste Management Board, as provided in Title 7.8 (commencing with Section 68000) of the Government Code; provided, such money shall not be expended for purposes of Article 8 (commencing with Section 32370) of Chapter 3 of Part 19 of the Education Code, and as provided in Section 68042 of the Government Code, without appropriation therefor by the Legislature; and provided further, such money shall not be expended for purposes of Section 66786.4 of the Government Code, and as provided in Section 68046.5 of the Government Code, without appropriation therefor by the Legislature.

SEC. 5. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1855 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 68042 of the Government Code, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1855, that Section 68042 of the Government Code, as amended by Section 12 of Senate Bill No. 1855 be further amended on the operative date of this act in the form set forth in Section 2.5 of this act to incorporate the changes in Section 68042 proposed by this bill. Therefore, Section 2.5 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1855 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 68042, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1855, in which case Section 2.5 of this act shall become operative on the operative date of this act and Section 2 of this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 6. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 3012 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 42652 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 3012, that the amendments to Section 42652 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 42652 in the form set forth in Section 4 of this act. Therefore, Section 4 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 3012 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both amend Section 42652, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 3012, in which case Section 3 of this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 7. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because the duties, obligations, or responsibilities imposed on local government by this act are minor in nature and will not cause any financial burden to local government.

CHAPTER 886

An act to amend Sections 12734 and 12799.3 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to weighmasters.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12734 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

12734. In all cases where farm products are delivered to a processing establishment or sold to or purchased by agents, brokers, commission merchants, dealers, factors or processors on the basis of weight, such products shall be weighed by a weighmaster licensed under the provisions of this chapter. Where farm products are delivered, but are not sold, to a processing establishment and the processing charges are not based upon weight, a grower may request that such products be weighed by a licensed weighmaster prior to the processing of such products.

Such products shall be weighed, prior to processing, by a licensed weighmaster and the original certificate as to such weight issued by the weighmaster shall be delivered to the seller or owner by the weighmaster, agent, broker, commission merchant, dealer, factor or processor, and settlement for such product shall be based on the weight shown thereon. When the processing fees are based upon the weight of the finished product, the finished product shall be weighed by a licensed weighmaster and a second weight certificate shall be delivered to the seller or owner.

A grower whose product is delivered, but is not sold, to a processor for processing, may waive, in writing, his right to have his product weighed when the processing establishment is operated by a producer of farm products and the processing is incidental to the production of farm products. As used in this paragraph, "incidental" means that the income derived from the processing operation represents not more than 25 percent of the total income of the producer operating the processing establishment.

This section does not apply to any nonprofit cooperative association which is organized and operating pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 54001) of Division 20 of the Food and Agricultural Code, except as to that portion of activities which involves the handling or dealing in any farm product of any nonmember of such an association.

The term "farm products" as used in this chapter includes all agricultural, horticultural and viticultural and vegetable products of the soil, flaxseed and cottonseed, but shall not include timber, timber products, milk and milk products.

SEC. 2. Section 12799.3 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

12799.3. In all cases where farm products are delivered to a processing establishment or sold to or purchased by agents, brokers, commission merchants, dealers, factors or processors on the basis of weight, such products shall be weighed by a weighmaster licensed under the provisions of this chapter. Where farm products are delivered but are not sold to a processing establishment and the processing charges are not based upon weight, a grower may request that such products be weighed by a licensed weighmaster prior to the processing of such products.

Such products shall be weighed, prior to processing, by a licensed weighmaster and the original certificate as to such weight issued by the weighmaster shall be delivered to the seller or owner by the weighmaster, agent, broker, commission merchant, dealer, factor or processor, and settlement for such products shall be based on the weight shown thereon. When the processing fees are based upon the weight of the finished product, the finished product shall be weighed by a licensed weighmaster and a second weight certificate shall be delivered to the seller or owner.

A grower whose product is delivered, but is not sold, to a processor for processing, may waive, in writing, his right to have his product weighed when the processing establishment is operated by a producer of farm products and the processing is incidental to the production of farm products. As used in this paragraph, "incidental" means that the income derived from the processing operation represents not more than 25 percent of the total income of the producer operating the processing establishment.

This section does not apply to any nonprofit cooperative association which is organized and operating pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 54001) of Division 20 of the Food and Agricultural Code, except as to that portion of activities which involves the handling or dealing in any farm product of any nonmember of such an association.

The term "farm products" as used in this chapter includes all agricultural, horticultural and viticultural and vegetable products of the soil, flaxseed and cottonseed, but shall not include timber, timber products, milk and milk products.

CHAPTER 887

An act to add and repeal Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 41701) to Division 16 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to fruit, nut, and vegetable standards, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 41701) is added to Division 16 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

CHAPTER 5. STANDARDS FOR GARLIC AND ONIONS FOR DEHYDRATION

Article 1. Definitions

41701. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions in this article govern the construction of this chapter.

41702. "Dehydrating garlic or onions" means garlic or onions which are suitable for dehydration purposes.

41703. "Dehydration purposes" means the commercial dehydration of garlic and onions.

Article 2. General Provisions

41711. The director shall initially adopt the American Dehydrated Onion and Garlic Association quality standards for garlic and onions suitable for dehydration purposes. Such standards shall be subject to subdivision (a) of Section 41865.

41712. Except as otherwise provided in Section 41713, quality standards which are established pursuant to this chapter are the only standards of quality for dehydrating garlic or onions. The provisions of any contract entered into on or after January 1, 1979, to sell dehydrating garlic or onions, or to deliver such garlic or onions on consignment, which prescribe other or different quality or maturity requirements, are ineffective, and in such contracts the quality standards which are prescribed pursuant to this chapter shall be implied by law.

41713. The quality standards which are established pursuant to this chapter shall be considered as a grade under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 40501). If a marketing order is issued pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 58601) of Part 2 of Division 20, which established uniform grading and inspection for dehydrating garlic and onions, then and so long as it is effective, the provisions of such marketing order shall control and the provisions established by regulations are ineffective as to garlic or onions which are covered by such marketing order.

Article 3. Regulations

41721. The director by regulation may do all of the following:

(a) Prescribe methods of selecting samples of lots, loads, or containers of garlic and onions for dehydration purposes which shall be reasonably calculated to produce by such sampling fair representations of the entire lot, load, or container sampled.

(b) Prescribe the methods and procedures for determination of moisture content in deliveries of garlic or onions for dehydration purposes.

(c) Establish and record on the certificate items or conditions affecting lots, loads, or containers of garlic or onions for dehydration purposes, other than those defects established by regulation.

(d) Adopt and enforce such other regulations as are reasonably necessary for the enforcement of this chapter.

Article 4. Powers of the Director

41731. The director may, for the purpose of inspection, enter any place where garlic or onions for dehydration purposes may be found and take for inspection such representative samples as may be necessary to determine whether or not any uncertified lot or load of garlic or onions complies with the quality standards which are established pursuant to this chapter and the percentage of garlic or onions which are not suitable for dehydration purposes. The director may subject such samples of garlic or onions to any method of inspection or testing prescribed by regulation.

41732. The director may cause the prosecution of any person violating any provision of this chapter, and may seize and hold such portion of any lot or load of garlic or onions for dehydration purposes involved in such a violation, as may in the director's judgment be necessary as evidence.

Article 5. Weighing, Inspection, and Certification

41751. By mutual agreement between the grower and the dehydrator, deliveries of garlic or onion for dehydration purposes may be weighed by a certified weighmaster and issued a valid weight certificate in the area of production. Cost of weighing and transportation involved in moving such deliveries to and from the weigh station shall be shared equally by the grower and dehydrator. The weight shall be for the grower's information and shall not be in lieu of any contractual provision between grower and dehydrator concerning delivered weights at the dehydrator's plant or receiving station.

41752. The director shall inspect all sale or contract deliveries of garlic or onions for dehydration purposes. Upon inspection of each such delivery the director shall issue a certificate which shows both of the following:

(a) The percentage of garlic or onions for dehydration purposes which conform to the quality standards prescribed pursuant to this chapter and are, thereby, suitable for dehydration purposes.

(b) The percentage of garlic or onions for dehydration purposes, separately, which does not conform to the quality standards prescribed pursuant to this chapter and are, thereby, not suitable for dehydration, and the percentage of all defects.

41753. The director may adopt regulations concerning the place of inspection and location of inspection stations after notice and public hearing. In adopting such regulations, the director shall consider all of the following:

(a) The proximity to the area of production.

(b) The distance to alternative inspection facilities or dehydrators.

(c) Any burden imposed upon growers, dehydrators, or the inspection service.

(d) Any equity which may be advanced between growers and dehydrators.

Until such time as the director does adopt regulations concerning the location of inspection stations, except as otherwise provided in Sections 41754, 41755, and 41756, inspection shall be performed at the dehydrator or at a receiving station which is established or designated by the operator of the dehydrator.

41754. The director may review the operation of any inspection station which is not located at a dehydrator during a period beginning November 1st of any year and ending not less than 30 days before the date inspection began at such station in the preceding year and, if the director determines that the interest and economy and efficient operation of the inspection service would be served, the director may, with the consent of each operator of a dehydrator that is involved, terminate inspection at such place.

41756. The director may announce to all of the parties of record, that will be affected by such action, that inspection is terminated for the ensuing season at an inspection station which is not located at a dehydrator if the director makes all of the following findings:

(a) Termination of inspection at such station will satisfactorily accomplish the objectives of the inspection service and tend to provide economical and efficient operation.

(b) No unreasonable burden will be imposed upon dehydrators or growers.

(c) Garlic or onions which are normally inspected at such station will not have to be hauled an unreasonable distance to be inspected at another point.

41757. The director is not required to perform inspection at any place where adequate inspection facilities are not provided.

41758. The inspection certificate which is issued pursuant to this chapter is prima facie evidence of the percentage of defects according to the definition of such defects in this chapter or in the regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter. The presumption established by this section is a presumption affecting the burden of proof, but it does not apply in a criminal action.

Article 6. Fees

41801. The director shall adopt a schedule of uniform fees to defray the cost of the inspection and of the certification which are required by Article 4 (commencing with Section 41731).

41802. Each operator of a dehydrator that receives deliveries of garlic or onions for dehydration purposes is hereby designated as the authorized agent of the director to collect the inspection and certification fees which are chargeable to such dehydrator and to each grower that delivers such garlic or onions.

41803. The cost of such inspection shall be borne equally by both the operator of a dehydrator and the grower.

41804. Any money which is collected pursuant to the provisions of this article shall be remitted to the director weekly during the garlic and onions dehydration season for deposit into the Department of Agriculture Fund to be used in carrying out the purposes of this chapter.

41805. Except as provided in this article, any money which is so collected and not used for the purposes of this chapter shall be returned to the operators of dehydrators from whom it was received for distribution to the operators of dehydrators and growers from whom the money was originally collected, in proportion to their several interests.

41806. If the director determines, as to any such money heretofore or hereafter collected as inspection and certification fees, that the return of the money with respect to any dehydration season is impracticable because of the smallness of the amounts returnable, or for any other reason, the money so collected shall not be so returned but shall remain in the Department of Agriculture Fund and be available for expenditure for the purposes of this chapter in any subsequent year.

Article 7. Violations

41831. It is unlawful for any person to make delivery or for any person to accept delivery of garlic or onions for dehydration purposes, or to process any garlic or onions, which have not first been inspected and certified as provided in Article 4 (commencing with Section 41731) and Article 5 (commencing with Section 41751).

41832. Until each such shipment or delivery of garlic or onions for dehydration purposes has been weighed and samples have been taken for inspection purposes in accordance with regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter, it shall be unlawful for any person to transfer garlic or onions from one lot, load, or container to another, unless each such lot, load, or container is owned by the same grower.

Article 8. Garlic and Onion Dehydrator Advisory Committee

41861. As used in this article, "committee" means the Garlic and Onion Dehydrator Advisory Committee.

41862. There is in the department the Garlic and Onion Dehydrator Advisory Committee, which consists of 11 members. The director shall appoint five members who shall be growers of garlic or onions for dehydrating, five members who shall be representatives of handlers engaged in the dehydrating of garlic or onions, and one public member who has no direct economic interest in the growing or dehydrating of garlic or onions.

41863. In making his selection of the membership of the committee, the director shall take into consideration the recommendations of organizations and associations of producers of garlic and onions for dehydrating and of handlers of garlic or onions for dehydrating.

41864. The term of office of the members of the committee is three years. Appointment of the first members of the committee shall be so made that the terms of office of three of such members, of which one shall be a public member, shall expire at the end of one year, four at the end of two years, and four at the end of three years. Thereafter appointments shall be for full three-year terms. Any vacancies which occur during an unexpired term shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term.

41865. The committee shall be advisory to the director on all matters pertaining to quality standards for garlic and onions for dehydrating purposes. The committee may do any of the following:

(a) Recommend to the director the adoption or amendment of the quality standards for garlic or onions suitable for dehydration purposes.

(b) Recommend to the director administrative regulations which relate to methods and procedures of selecting samples of lots, loads or containers of garlic or onions for dehydrating purposes.

(c) Recommend to the director administrative regulations which relate to the methods and procedures for the determination of moisture content in deliveries of garlic or onions for dehydration purposes.

(d) Recommend to the director administrative regulations which relate to the administration and enforcement of this chapter.

(e) Recommend to the director administrative regulations concerning the place of inspection and location of inspection stations.

(f) Recommend to the director the institution and promotion of scientific research.

(g) Recommend to the director whether or not there shall be sampling and inspection for conditions not shown on the certificate of inspection for dehydrated garlic or onions.

(h) Advise the director on all matters pertaining to this chapter including the annual budget and revenue necessary to accomplish the purposes of this chapter.

41866. The committee shall meet at the call of its chairperson or at the request to the director of any three members of the committee. It shall meet at least once each year.

Article 9. Termination

41871. This chapter shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1982, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1982, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local governmental entities and school districts which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes.

CHAPTER 888

An act to amend Section 739 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to utility rates.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 739 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

739. (a) The commission shall designate a lifeline volume of gas and a lifeline quantity of electricity which is necessary to supply the minimum energy needs of the average residential user for the following end uses: space and water heating, lighting, cooking, and food refrigerating. In estimating such volumes and quantities the commission shall take into account differentials in energy needs between utility customers whose residential energy needs are supplied by electricity and gas. The commission shall also take into account differentials in energy needs caused by geographic differences, by differences in severity of climate, and by season.

(b) The commission shall also develop a schedule which designates a lifeline volume of gas and a lifeline quantity of electricity necessary to supply the minimum energy needs of customers dependent on life support equipment including, but not limited to, emphysema and pulmonary patients. A customer dependent on life support equipment shall be given a higher energy allocation than the average residential user in accordance with the type of equipment that he or she uses. Consideration shall be given to the energy requirements of the specific type of equipment used and the frequency and duration of its usage.

"Life support equipment" means that equipment which utilizes mechanical or artificial means to sustain, restore, or supplant a vital function, or mechanical equipment which is relied upon for mobility both within and outside of buildings. "Life support equipment", as used in this subdivision, includes the following: all types of respirators, iron lungs, hemodialysis machines, suction machines, electric nerve stimulators, pressure pads and pumps, aerosol tents, electrostatic and ultrasonic nebulizers, compressors, IPPB machines, and motorized wheelchairs.

The schedule shall also include a higher lifeline energy allocation for paraplegic and quadriplegic persons than for the average residential user, in consideration of the increased heating needs of these persons.

(c) The commission shall require that every electrical and gas corporation file a schedule of rates and charges providing lifeline rates. The lifeline rates shall be not greater than the rates in effect on January 1, 1976. The commission shall authorize no increase in the lifeline rates until the average system rate in cents per kilowatt-hour or cents per therm has increased 25 percent or more over the January 1, 1976, level.

(d) Nothing shall preclude the commission from reducing any rate established pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) either specifically or pursuant to any general restructuring of all electrical or gas rates, charges, and classifications.

(e) As used in this section, the term "residential" means domestic human needs end use and excludes industrial, commercial, and every other category of end use other than wholesale.

(f) Wholesale electrical or gas purchases and the rates charged therefor shall be exempt from the provisions of this section.

(g) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to prohibit experimentation with alternative electrical rate schedules for the purpose of achieving energy conservation.

SEC. 2. Section 739 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

739. (a) The commission shall designate a lifeline volume of gas and a lifeline quantity of electricity which is necessary to supply the minimum energy needs of the average residential user for the following end uses: space heating and cooling, water heating, lighting, cooking, and food refrigerating. In estimating such volumes and quantities the commission shall take into account differentials in energy needs between utility customers whose residential energy needs are supplied by electricity and gas. The commission shall also take into account differentials in energy needs caused by geographic differences, by differences in severity of climate, and by season.

(b) The commission shall also develop a schedule which designates a lifeline volume of gas and a lifeline quantity of electricity necessary to supply the minimum energy needs of customers dependent on life support equipment including, but not limited to, emphysema and pulmonary patients. A customer dependent on life support equipment shall be given a higher energy allocation than the average residential user in accordance with the type of equipment that he or she uses. other category of end use other than wholesale.

(f) Wholesale electrical or gas purchases and the rates charged therefor shall be exempt from the provisions of this section.

(g) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to prohibit experimentation with alternative electrical rate schedules for the purpose of achieving energy conservation.

SEC. 3. Section 739 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

739. (a) The commission shall designate a lifeline volume of gas and a lifeline quantity of electricity which is necessary to supply the minimum energy needs of the average residential user for the following end uses: space and water heating, lighting, cooking, and food refrigerating. In estimating such volumes and quantities the commission shall take into account differentials in energy needs between utility customers whose residential energy needs are supplied by electricity and gas. (d) Nothing shall preclude the commission from reducing any rate established pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) either specifically or pursuant to any general restructuring of all electrical or gas rates, charges, and classifications.

(e) As used in this section, the term "residential" means domestic human needs end use and excludes industrial, commercial, and every other category of end use other than wholesale, except that it shall include all living units in facilities providing housing for the aged and licensed as community care facilities under the provisions of the California Community Care Facilities Act, Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1500) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code.

(f) Wholesale electrical or gas purchases and the rates charged therefor shall be exempt from the provisions of this section.

(g) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to prohibit experimentation with alternative electrical rate schedules for the purpose of achieving energy conservation.

SEC. 4. Section 739 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

739. (a) The commission shall designate a lifeline volume of gas and a lifeline quantity of electricity which is necessary to supply the minimum energy needs of the average residential user for the following end uses: space heating and cooling, water heating, lighting, cooking, and food refrigerating. In estimating such volumes and quantities the commission shall take into account differentials in energy needs between utility customers whose residential energy needs are supplied by electricity and gas. The schedule shall also include a higher lifeline energy allocation for paraplegic and quadriplegic persons than for the average residential user, in consideration of the increased heating needs of these persons.

(c) The commission shall require that every electrical and gas corporation file a schedule of rates and charges providing lifeline rates. The lifeline rates shall be not greater than the rates in effect on January 1, 1976. The commission shall authorize no increase in the lifeline rates until the average system rate in cents per kilowatt-hour or cents per therm has increased 25 percent or more over the January 1, 1976, level.

(d) Nothing shall preclude the commission from reducing any rate established pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) either specifically or pursuant to any general restructuring of all electrical or gas rates, charges, and classifications.

(e) As used in this section, the term "residential" means domestic human needs end use and excludes industrial, commercial, and every other category of end use other than wholesale, except that it shall include all living units in facilities providing housing for the aged and licensed as community care facilities under the provisions of the California Community Care Facilities Act, Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1500) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code.

(f) Wholesale electrical or gas purchases and the rates charged therefor shall be exempt from the provisions of this section.

(g) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to prohibit experimentation with alternative electrical rate schedules for the purpose of achieving energy conservation.

SEC. 5. It is the intent of the Legislature that if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 2273 or Assembly Bill No. 2503, or both, are chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, each of the bills amend Section 739 of the Public Utilities Code, and this bill is chaptered last, that amendments proposed by each of the bills which are chaptered be given effect as follows:

(1) If this bill and Assembly Bill No. 2273 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 739 of the Public Utilities Code, but Assembly Bill No. 2503 is not chaptered or as chaptered does not amend that section, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2273, the amendments proposed by both bills shall be given effect and incorporated in Section 739 in the form set forth in Section 2 of this act. Therefore, if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 2273 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 739, this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2273, and Assembly Bill No. 2503 is not chaptered or as chaptered does not amend that section, Section 2 of this act shall be operative and Sections 1, 3, and 4 of this act shall not become operative.

(2) If this bill and Assembly Bill No. 2503 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 739 of the Public Utilities Code, but Assembly Bill No. 2273 is not chaptered or as chaptered does not amend that section, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2503, the amendments proposed by both bills shall be given effect and incorporated in Section 739 in the form set forth in Section 3 of this act. Therefore, if this bill and Assembly Bill

No. 2503 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 739, this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2503, and Assembly Bill No. 2273 is not chaptered or as chaptered does not amend that section, Section 3 shall be operative and Sections 1, 2, and 4 of this act shall not become operative.

(3) If this bill and Assembly Bill No. 2273 and Assembly Bill No. 2503 are all chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, all three bills amend Section 739 of the Public Utilities Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2273 and Assembly Bill No. 2503, the amendments proposed by all three bills shall be given effect and incorporated in Section 739 in the form set forth in Section 4 of this act. Therefore, if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 2273 and Assembly Bill No. 2503 are all chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, all three bills amend Section 739 of the Public Utilities Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2273 and Assembly Bill No. 2503, Section 4 of this act shall be operative and Sections 1, 2, and 3 of this act shall not become operative.

An act to add Article 8 (commencing with Section 1567) to Chapter 3 of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to community care facilities, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 8 (commencing with Section 1567) is added to Chapter 3 of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 8. Community Care Facilities for Wards of the Juvenile Court

1567. It is the intent of the Legislature that each county be encouraged to provide, in the county, a number and variety of licensed community care facilities, as defined in Sections 1502 and 1503 of the Health and Safety Code, commensurate to the needs of minors adjudged wards of the juvenile court pursuant to Section 601 or 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, hereinafter in this article referred to as wards of the juvenile court, who are residents of the county.

1567.1. It is further the intent of the Legislature that, where city or county zoning restrictions unreasonably impair the ability of a county to serve the needs of its residents who are wards of the juvenile court, the removal of these restrictions is hereby encouraged and is a matter of high state interest.

1567.2. As used in this article, the term "wards of the juvenile court" shall include minors who have been found by the juvenile court to be described by Section 601 or 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as well as minors who are described by Section 601 or 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code who have been diverted from formal juvenile court proceedings. It is further the intent of the Legislature to encourage that wards of the juvenile court be placed in licensed community care facilities within their county of residence, unless an individual ward has identifiable needs requiring specialized care which cannot be provided in a local facility, or unless the needs of the individual ward dictate physical separation from his family.

1567.3. The Department of the Youth Authority shall conduct a study of the placement of wards of the juvenile court in community care facilities. The study shall include but not be limited to the number and type of community care facilities currently accepting wards of the juvenile court for placement, the number and type of wards of the juvenile court currently residing in community care facilities, the number of wards of the juvenile court who are residents of the county, and who are placed in a licensed community care facility located outside of the county, the location of the out-of-county facility in which the ward has been placed and the reasons therefor, the public agencies licensing the facilities, the extent to which community care facilities are located in close proximity to other community care facilities that accept wards of the juvenile court, the types of care needed by wards, and the suitability of available facilities located in each county for meeting such needs of wards.

Notwithstanding this section, the Legislature does not intend with this act to establish a specific precedent for statewide legislation mandating a minimum distance between community care facilities for wards of the juvenile court.

The department shall report its findings and recommendations to the Legislature by August 31, 1979.

1567.4. The Department of Social Services shall provide, at cost, annually to each county and to each city, a roster of all licensed community care facilities located in the county, which provide services to wards of the juvenile court, including information as to whether each facility is licensed by the state or the county, the type of resident served, and the licensed bed capacity of each such facility.

1567.5. A license for a proposed community care facility for wards of the juvenile court shall be denied if the proposed facility is located within 300 feet, measured from property boundary line to property boundary line, of an existing community care facility for wards of the juvenile court. The county or any city in the county may adopt an ordinance requiring the distance between its respective property boundary lines of facilities for wards of the juvenile court to be greater than 300 feet, but, in no case, more than one mile, if such a standard is more appropriate to local conditions; provided, that the required distance shall be uniform for all residential zones in the city or county; and, provided further, that the required distance does not impair the ability of the city or county to provide a number and variety of licensed facilities commensurate to the needs of wards of the juvenile court who are residents of the county. The county or any city in the county may require the local planning director to make a finding, as a precondition of licensure, as to whether the location of the proposed facility would be in violation of this section or of the distance standard in the local ordinance adopted under this section. The application for city or county planning approval shall be deemed approved if no action is taken within 60 days after the application is filed with the local planning director. Each city and each county shall notify the State Department of Social Services of the approval or disapproval of each application pursuant to this section.

This section applies only to Los Angeles, Santa Clara, and Riverside counties.

This section shall remain in effect only for two years from its effective date and on such date is repealed.

1567.6. The governing body of the county or of any city in the county may require that existing licensed community care facilities for wards of the juvenile court which have not already obtained local zoning approval, obtain approval from the local planning director within one year from the effective date of this section.

(a) Local zoning approval may be denied where the governing body finds that:

(1) The applying facility is located within 300 feet, measured from property boundary line to property boundary line, of another existing community care facility for wards of the juvenile court; and

(2) The presence of the applying facility at its present location has resulted in the surrounding neighborhood having to sustain a disproportionate and unreasonable level of vandalism, violence, or other acts of disruption

(b) The State Department of Social Services, county probation departments, and local law enforcement agencies shall make their records available to, and shall make reasonable efforts to assist, the agents or representatives of the local planning director who is seeking to determine whether the presence of an existing facility at its present location has resulted in the surrounding neighborhood having to sustain a disproportionate and unreasonable level of vandalism, violence, or other acts of disruption.

(c) The county and any city may adopt an ordinance requiring the distance between the respective boundary lines of community care facilities for wards of the juvenile court to be greater than 300 feet, but in no case more than one mile, if such a standard is more appropriate to local conditions, provided that the following conditions are met:

(1) The required distance shall be uniform for all residential zones in the county or the city; and

(2) The required distance does not unreasonably impair the ability of the city or county to provide a number and variety of licensed community care facilities commensurate to the needs of wards of the juvenile court who originate from the county.

(d) The application for city or county planning approval shall be deemed approved if no action is taken during the period of one year after the effective date of this section.

(e) A decision to deny local zoning approval for an existing facility may be challenged through the routine permit appeals process of the county or city.

This section applies only to Los Angeles, Santa Clara, and Riverside counties.

This section shall remain in effect only for two years from its effective date and on such date is repealed.

1567.7. This article shall not apply to existing community care facilities for wards of the juvenile court which have received city or county zoning approval prior to the effective date of this article.

1567.8. A community care facility for wards of the juvenile court, which serves six or fewer persons shall not be subject to any business taxes, local registration fees, use permit fees, or other fees to which other single family dwellings are not likewise subject. Nothing in this section shall be construed to forbid the imposition of local property taxes, fees for water service and garbage collection, fees for inspections not prohibited by Section 1567.9, local bond assessments, and other fees, charges, and assessments to which other single family dwellings are likewise subject. Neither the State Fire Marshal nor any local public entity shall charge any fee for enforcing fire inspection regulations pursuant to state law or regulation or local ordinance, with respect to community care facilities for wards of the juvenile court which serve six or fewer persons.

1567.9. Whether or not unrelated persons are living together, a community care facility for wards of the juvenile court which serves six or fewer persons shall be considered a residential use of property for the purposes of all local zoning ordinances. The residents and operators of such a facility shall be considered a family for the purposes of any law or zoning ordinance which relates to the residential use of property.

For the purpose of all local ordinances, a community care facility for wards of the juvenile court which serves six or fewer persons shall not be included within the definition of a boarding house, rooming house, institution or home for the care of minors, the aged, or the mentally infirm, foster care home, guest home, rest home, sanitarium, mental hygiene home, or other similar term which implies that the residential facility is a business run for profit or differs in any other way from a single family residence.

The provisions of this section shall not be construed to forbid any city, county, or other local public entity from placing restrictions on building heights, setback, lot dimensions, or placement of signs of a community care facility for wards of the juvenile court which serves six or fewer persons, as long as such restrictions are identical to those applied to other single family residences.

The provisions of this section shall not be construed to forbid the application to a community care facility for wards of the juvenile court of any local ordinance which deals with health and safety, building standards, environmental impact standards, or any other matter within the jurisdiction of a local public entity; provided, that such ordinance does not distinguish community care facilities for wards of the juvenile court which serve six or fewer persons from other single family dwellings; and, provided further, that such ordinance does not distinguish residents of such community care facilities for wards of the juvenile court from persons who reside in other single family dwellings.

A local ordinance which distinguishes or has the effect of distinguishing community care facilities for wards of the juvenile court which serve six or fewer persons from other single family dwellings shall be void and of no effect, as applied to such facilities.

No conditional use permit, zoning variance, or other zoning clearance shall be required of a community care facility for wards of the juvenile court which serves six or fewer persons which is not required of a single family residence in the same zone, except as provided in Sections 1567.5 and 1567.6.

This section applies only to Los Angeles, Santa Clara, and Riverside counties.

This section shall remain in effect only for two years from its effective date and on such date is repealed.

SEC. 2. The sum of sixty-two thousand two hundred dollars ($62,200) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of the Youth Authority to carry out the study prescribed by Section 1567.3 of the Health and Safety Code, as enacted by this act.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because the duties, obligations or responsibilities imposed on local governmental entities or school districts by this act are such that related costs are incurred as part of their normal operating procedures.

SEC. 4. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that there exist only in Los Angeles County, Santa Clara County, and Riverside County serious impaction problems involving community care facilities for wards of the juvenile courts that could not be resolved by legislation of statewide application but only by the special legislation embodied in this act.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to relieve the overconcentration of community care facilities serving wards of the juvenile court in certain communities, and to ensure that each community bears a fair share of the responsibility for providing appropriate community care facilities for wards of the juvenile court who are residents of the county, it is necessary that this bill go into effect immediately.

CHAPTER 890

An act to amend Sections 42907 and 42950 of, to repeal Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 42950) of Part 24 of, and to repeal and add Section 42951 of, the Education Code, relating to special education programs, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares: that educational programs should be designed and provided on the basis of individual pupil needs; that identification of pupils within the school system because they are nonimmigrants or noncitizens without immigration status is not only irrelevant but is socially harmful; and that current statutory authority to levy countywide taxes based on the numbers of such pupils is an unfair burden on local taxpayers.

It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to eliminate identification of nonimmigrant, noncitizen pupils and to eliminate an unfair countywide tax.

SEC. 2. Section 42907 of the Education Code is amended to read:

42907. The district maintaining such school or classes pursuant to Section 42902 shall forward its claim on forms prescribed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction not later than the 15th day of July of each year to the county superintendent of schools of the county, or city and county, wherein the district is located. The county superintendent shall determine if pupils for whom costs are claimed pursuant to subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 42904 were actually enrolled in the special programs. The county superintendent shall certify and present the claim to the county superintendent of the county, or city and county, of the pupil's residence.

SEC. 2.5. Section 42950 of the Education Code is amended to read:

42950. Any school district that provided education in kindergarten or grades 1 to 12, inclusive, for nonimmigrant children or noncitizen children without immigration status during the 1976–77 school year may increase its revenue limits by an amount per average daily attendance not to exceed the reimbursement received under a countywide tax levied for the local share of the revenue limit and for the excess cost of providing special programs for such children pursuant to statutes that existed in this code during the 1976–77 school year.

SEC. 3. Section 42951 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 42951 is added to the Education Code, to read:

42951. This chapter shall remain in effect only until July 1, 1979, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before July 1, 1979, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 5. For the purposes of paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 6 of Chapter 292 of the Statutes of 1978, as amended by Chapter 332 of the Statutes of 1978, the amount of revenues determined pursuant to Section 2501 of the Education Code shall exclude that portion of revenue in fiscal year 1977–78 levied pursuant to Section 42909 to pay claims prescribed by former Section 42900, as it read prior to July 1, 1978.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to repeal at the earliest possible time provisions operative July 1, 1978, which provide for the identification of nonimmigrant, noncitizen pupils and for a related unfair countywide tax, it is essential that this act take immediate effect.

CHAPTER 891

An act to amend Section 1502 of, to add Section 1520.5 to, and to add Article 7 (commencing with Section 1566) to Chapter 3 of Division 2 of, the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Sections 5115 and 5116 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to residential care facilities, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1502 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1502. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Community care facility" means any facility, place, or building which is maintained and operated to provide nonmedical residential care, day care, or homefinding agency services for children, adults, or children and adults, including, but not limited to, the physically handicapped, mentally impaired, or incompetent persons, and includes the following:

(1) "Residential facility" which means any family home, group care facility, or similar facility determined by the director, for 24-hour nonmedical care of persons in need of personal services, supervision, or assistance essential for sustaining the activities of daily living or for the protection of the individual.

(2) "Residential care facility for the elderly" which means a group housing arrangement chosen voluntarily by residents who are over 62 years of age and who are provided varying levels of supportive services or care, as agreed upon at the time of admission, based upon their varying needs.

(3) "Day care center" which means any facility which provides nonmedical care to persons in need of personal services, supervision, or assistance essential for sustaining the activities of daily living or for the protection of the individual on less than a 24-hour basis.

(4) "Homefinding agency" which means any individual or organization engaged in finding homes or other places for placement of persons of any age for temporary or permanent care or adoption.

(5) "Foster family home" which means any residential facility providing 24-hour care for six or fewer foster children which is owned, leased, or rented and is the residence of the foster parent or parents, including their family, in whose care the foster children have been placed. Such placement may be by a public or private child placement agency or by a court order, or by voluntary placement by a parent, parents, or guardian.

(b) "Department" or "state department" means the State Department of Social Services.

(c) "Director" means the Director of Social Services.

SEC. 2. Section 1520.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1520.5. (a) The Legislature hereby declares it to be the policy of the state to prevent overconcentrations of residential care facilities which impair the integrity of residential neighborhoods. Therefore, the director shall deny an application for a new residential care facility license if the director determines that the location is in such proximity to an existing residential care facility as would result in overconcentration.

(b) As used in this section, "overconcentration" means that if a new license is issued, there will be residential care facilities which are separated by a distance of 300 feet or less, as measured from any point upon the outside walls of the structures housing such facilities. Based on special local needs and conditions, the director may approve a separation distance of less than 300 feet with the approval of the city or county in which the proposed facility will be located.

(c) At least 45 days prior to approving any application for a new residential care facility, the director, or county licensing agency, shall notify, in writing, the city or county planning authority in which the facility will be located, of the proposed location of the facility.

(d) Any city or county may request denial of the license applied for on the basis of overconcentration of residential care facilities.

(e) Nothing in this section authorizes the director, on the basis of overconcentration, to refuse to renew a residential care facility license or to refuse to grant a license upon a change of ownership of an existing residential care facility where there is no change in the location of the facility.

(f) Foster family homes and residential care facilities for the elderly shall not be considered in determining overconcentration of residential care facilities, and license applications for such facilities shall not be denied upon the basis of overconcentration.

(g) Within six months of the effective date of this section, the State Department of Developmental Services and the State Department of Mental Health shall jointly develop and implement a statewide program for encouraging the establishment of sufficient numbers and types of living arrangements, both in communities and state hospitals, as necessary to meet the needs of persons served by those departments. The departments shall consult with the following organizations in the development of procedures pursuant to this section:

(1) The League of California Cities, County Supervisors Association of California, and representatives of other local agencies.

(2) Organizations or advocates for clients receiving services in residential care services.

(3) Providers of residential care services.

Each department shall also prepare and transmit to the Legislature on or before March 31 of each year, commencing in 1980, an annual report detailing obstacles to assuring sufficient numbers of living arrangements for persons served by each department, detailing obstacles to providing an adequate quality of care and services to persons served by each department who reside in residential facilities, and containing appropriate recommendations for legislative action.

SEC. 3. Article 7 (commencing with Section 1566) is added to Chapter 3 of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 7. Local Regulation

1566. The Legislature hereby declares that it is the policy of this state that each county and city shall permit and encourage the development of sufficient numbers and types of residential care facilities as are commensurate with local need.

The provisions of this article shall apply equally to any chartered city, general law city, county, city and county, district, and any other local public entity.

For the purposes of this article, "six or fewer persons" does not include the licensee or members of the licensee's family or persons employed as facility staff.

1566.1. Any person licensed under the provisions of this chapter who operates, or proposes to operate a residential facility, the department or other public agency authorized to license such a facility, or any public or private agency which uses or may use the services of the facility to place its clients, may invoke the provisions of this article.

This section shall not be construed to prohibit any interested party from bringing suit to invoke the provisions of this article.

1566.2. A residential facility, which serves six or fewer persons shall not be subject to any business taxes, local registration fees, use permit fees, or other fees to which other single family dwellings are not likewise subject. Nothing in this section shall be construed to forbid the imposition of local property taxes, fees for water service and garbage collection, fees for inspections not prohibited by Section 1566.3, local bond assessments, and other fees, charges, and assessments to which other single family dwellings are likewise subject. Neither the State Fire Marshal nor any local public entity shall charge any fee for enforcing fire inspection regulations pursuant to state law or regulation or local ordinance, with respect to residential facilities which serve six or fewer persons.

1566.3. Whether or not unrelated persons are living together, a residential facility which serves six or fewer persons shall be considered a residential use of property for the purposes of this article. In addition, the residents and operators of such a facility shall be considered a family for the purposes of any law or zoning ordinance which relates to the residential use of property pursuant to this article.

For the purpose of all local ordinances, a residential facility which serves six or fewer persons shall not be included within the definition of a boarding house, rooming house, institution or home for the care of minors, the aged, or the mentally infirm, foster care home, guest home, rest home, sanitarium, mental hygiene home, or other similar term which implies that the residential facility is a business run for profit or differs in any other way from a single family residence.

The provisions of this section shall not be construed to forbid any city, county, or other local public entity from placing restrictions on building heights, setback, lot dimensions, or placement of signs of a residential facility which serves six or fewer persons as long as such restrictions are identical to those applied to other single family residences.

The provisions of this section shall not be construed to forbid the application to a residential facility of any local ordinance which deals with health and safety, building standards, environmental impact standards, or any other matter within the jurisdiction of a local public entity; provided, that such ordinance does not distinguish residential facilities which serve six or fewer persons from other single family dwellings; and provided further, that such ordinance does not distinguish residents of such residential facilities from persons who reside in other single family dwellings.

No conditional use permit, zoning variance, or other zoning clearance shall be required of a residential facility which serves six or fewer persons which is not required of a single family residence in the same zone.

Use of a single family dwelling for purposes of a residential facility serving six or fewer persons shall not constitute a change of occupancy for purposes of Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 17910) of Division 13 or local building codes. However, nothing in this section is intended to supersede Section 13143 or 13143.6, to the extent such sections are applicable to residential facilities providing care for six or fewer residents.

1566.4. No fire inspection clearance or other permit, license, clearance, or similar authorization shall be denied to a residential facility because of a failure to comply with local ordinances from which such facilities are exempt under Section 1566.3, provided that the applicant otherwise qualifies for such fire clearance, license, permit, or similar authorization.

1566.5. For the purposes of any contract, deed, or covenant for the transfer of real property executed on or after January 1, 1979, a residential facility which serves six or fewer persons shall be considered a residential use of property and a use of property by a single family, notwithstanding any disclaimers to the contrary.

1566.6. The department shall annually prepare, with a quarterly update commencing July 1, 1979, specifying newly licensed facilities, a list or lists of all licensed community care facilities in the state, other than foster family homes, which shall include the information required by Section 1536 and shall additionally specify as to each such facility the licensed capacity of the facility and whether it is licensed by the state department or by another public agency pursuant to Section 1511. Compliance with this section shall also constitute compliance with Section 1536.

SEC. 4. Section 5115 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5115. The Legislature hereby finds and declares:

(a) It is the policy of this state, as declared and established in this section and in the Lanterman Developmental Disabilities Services Act, Division 4.5 (commencing with Section 4500), that mentally and physically handicapped persons are entitled to live in normal residential surroundings and should not be excluded therefrom because of their disability.

(b) In order to achieve uniform statewide implementation of the policies of this section and those of the Lanterman Developmental Disabilities Services Act, it is necessary to establish the statewide policy that the use of property for the care of six or fewer mentally disordered or otherwise handicapped persons is a residential use of such property for the purposes of zoning

SEC. 5. Section 5116 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5116. Pursuant to the policy stated in Section 5115, a state-authorized, certified, or licensed family care home, foster home, or group home serving six or fewer mentally disordered or otherwise handicapped persons or dependent and neglected children, shall be considered a residential use of property for the purposes of zoning if such homes provide care on a 24-hour-a-day basis.

Such homes shall be a permitted use in all residential zones, including, but not limited to, residential zones for single-family dwellings.

SEC. 6. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act, because the duties, obligations or responsibilities imposed on local governmental entities or school districts by this act are such that related costs are incurred as part of their normal operating procedures.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to assure that an adequate number of community care facilities is available to serve the needs of the mentally and developmentally disabled in need of such services in each county in the state, and to relieve the overconcentration of facilities serving such persons in certain communities, it is necessary that this bill go into effect immediately.

CHAPTER 892

An act to repeal and add and repeal Article 2.1 (commencing with Section 275) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, and to repeal Section 5 of Chapter 405 of the Statutes of 1977, relating to health, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 2.1 (commencing with Section 275) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Article 2.1 (commencing with Section 275) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 2.1. Infant Medical Dispatch Centers

275. The Legislature finds that intensive care nurseries for at-risk infants are often at capacity. It further finds that serious delays can occur in placing critically ill newborn infants in intensive care nurseries due to calls being placed to many hospitals. Additionally, valuable staff time is often taken by a capacity nursery in attempting to find another nursery with an available bed. It is further found that, due to the lack of a centralized dispatch system, at-risk infants are often not placed in the intensive care nursery nearest their homes.

Therefore, the Legislature finds that in order to protect the health of critically ill newborn children and to more efficiently utilize space and staff in intensive care nurseries it is necessary to establish 24-hour-a-day, year-round medical dispatch centers linking all hospitals providing obstetrical services with intensive care nurseries.

276. The state department shall establish two dispatch centers, each to be located at a hospital containing an intensive care nursery that has been approved by the state department.

276.5. One of the centers established pursuant to Section 276 shall be located to serve the region of the state north of the Tehachapi Mountains, and one of the centers shall be located to serve the region south of the Tehachapi Mountains.

277. The centers shall locate bedspace for critically ill newborn infants nearest their homes, locate and dispatch transport for such infants and for appropriate medical personnel, advise the obstetrical nursery regarding maintenance care of the infant until transport is effected, and keep a daily record of the availability of bedspace in all intensive care nurseries.

Nothing in this article shall obligate the state for transport costs other than those already authorized by law.

278. Funds appropriated to carry out the purposes of this article shall be used for leasing or purchasing communication equipment or time; hiring, training, or contracting for personnel and administration of the centers; and for providing a central standardized data base by the Perinatal Health Unit of the state department to obtain statistical information for evaluating the functions of the centers and reporting thereon.

279. Public and private nonprofit health facilities, organizations, and educational institutions are eligible to receive center funds under this article.

280. The State Department of Health Services shall submit a report on the status of the centralized data base for this project to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and to the appropriate policy and fiscal committees of each house of the Legislature on or before November 1, 1978. The report shall indicate the data base that the state department is using to evaluate the project, how the data is being processed, and any proposed changes to such data base necessary to meet the goals prescribed in Section 277.

The Legislative Analyst shall submit to the Legislature an evaluation of the centers on or before March 1, 1979.

280.5. This article shall remain in effect only until July 1, 1979, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before July 1, 1979, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 3. Section 5 of Chapter 405 of the Statutes of 1977 is repealed.

SEC. 4. The following sums are hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Department of Health Services in accordance with the following schedule:

(a) For purposes of Article 2.1 (commencing with Section 275) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, as follows:

(1) To the Northern California Infant Medical Dispatch Center	$83,000
(2) To the Southern California Infant Medical Dispatch Center	95,000
(3) To the Department of Health Perinatal Health Unit, or its successor, for providing a central standardized data base to obtain statistical information for evaluating the functions of the infant medical dispatch centers and reporting thereon, pursuant to Section 278 of the Health and Safety Code	106,000
(b) For purposes of conducting a study of the relationship between infant botulism and Sudden Infant Death Syndrome	$25,000

In addition, fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) of federal money made available to California for biomedical research shall be allocated for the purposes of conducting the study specified in subdivision (b).

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order for infant medical dispatch centers to continue to provide services essential to the public health, and in order to make available without delay money required for the conducting of a study of the relationship between infant botulism and Sudden Infant Death Syndrome to find the causes of these health problems at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take immediate effect.

An act to amend Sections 1624, 41718.5, 41840, 41841, 42238, 42239, 42241.3, 42610, 42842, 51215, 51217, 52001, 52012, 52022, 52045, 52049, 54001, 54021, 56038, and 60246 of, to amend and renumber the heading of Article 4 (commencing with Section 52045) of Chapter 6 of Part 28 of, to add Sections 37062.5, 41718.6, 41718.7, 42604, and 84727 to, to repeal Section 51226 of, the Education Code, and to amend

Section 87 of Chapter 894 of the Statutes of 1977, relating to financial support for the public schools, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1978]

I am deleting the $1.2 million appropriation contained in SECTION 33 of Assembly Bill No 2043 I am also deleting the language contained in SECTION 28 of the bill Funding for this program has already been included in the $2 billion appropriation contained in Senate Bill No 154 Furthermore, the language contained in SECTION 28 would provide for an unjustified increase in state school support

With these deletions, I approve Assembly Bill No 2043

EDMUND G. BROWN JR , Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature to assure an orderly transition from the existing system of school financing to that mandated by the tax limitation-initiative constitutional amendment approved by the electorate on June 6, 1978. Therefore, it is necessary that this legislation be enacted to provide flexibility to school districts permitting use of available funds for critical needs. In addition, this legislation accounts for the effect of reduced levels of available local revenues in allocating funds for local education programs under existing statutorily determined formulas.

SEC. 2. Section 1624 of the Education Code is amended to read:

1624. On or before August 15, the county board of education shall file with the board of supervisors a certified statement showing the amount of money to be raised by a county tax for purposes of this chapter. The board of supervisors shall fix a rate for the county tax sufficient to produce the amount specified in the statement and shall, at the time of levying other county taxes, levy the tax so fixed.

The proceeds of the tax levied pursuant to this section shall be credited to the single county school service fund of the county and any expenses of the county superintendent of schools, the county board of education, and the county committee on school district organization required by any sections of this code shall be paid from the money in the single county school service fund.

SEC. 3. Section 37062.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

37062.5. For the 1978–79 fiscal year, in addition to the tuition limit computed pursuant to Section 37062, an elementary school district with pupils attending a junior high school maintained by a high school district may pay an amount to the high school which represents the pro rated revenue limit adjustment pursuant to Section 42239 attributable to the decline of enrollment of 7th and 8th graders attending junior high school.

For the 1979–80 fiscal year and all subsequent years, such an elementary school district shall, in addition to the tuition limit computed pursuant to Section 37062, pay an amount to the high school district which represents the pro rata revenue limit adjustment pursuant to Section 42239 attributable to the decline of enrollment of 7th and 8th graders attending junior high school.

SEC. 4. Section 41718.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

41718.5. For the 1977–78 fiscal year the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall apportion to each school district which during the 1976–77 fiscal year had a base revenue limit equal to or less than 120 percent of the foundation program for the 1976–77 fiscal year and which during the 1977–78 fiscal year receives equalization aid pursuant to Section 41810 or Section 41811, or would have received equalization aid had it not been subject to the areawide foundation program pursuant to the provisions of Section 41750, an amount computed as follows:

(a) Multiply the factor computed pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 42238 by forty-five dollars ($45).

(b) Multiply the product computed pursuant to subdivision (a) by the foundation program average daily attendance of the year.

For districts which have a revenue limit in excess of 120 percent of the 1976–77 foundation program the amount in subdivision (a) shall be three dollars ($3), and such computed amounts shall be apportioned to such districts.

The amount computed pursuant to this section shall be apportioned during the 1977–78 fiscal year as if it were part of the first and second principal apportionments.

For the purposes of subdivision (d) of Section 37062 and Sections 46617.5 and 52321, the allowance per unit of average daily attendance pursuant to this section shall be considered as an increase in the revenue limit.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the law to the contrary school district governing boards may budget and expend funds apportioned pursuant to this section during the 1977–78 fiscal year.

SEC. 5. Section 41718.6 is added to the Education Code, to read:

41718.6. (a) For the purpose of computing school district revenue limits pursuant to Section 42238 for the 1978–79 fiscal year, the county superintendent of schools shall recompute school district revenue limits for the 1977–78 fiscal year pursuant to this section.

(b) For school districts which have a 1976–77 revenue limit computed pursuant to Section 42238 equal to or less than 120 percent of the 1976–77 fiscal year foundation program for the appropriate type of district, the 1977–78 fiscal year revenue limit shall be recomputed utilizing one hundred twenty dollars ($120) as the 1977–78 fiscal year foundation program increase. The 1978–79 fiscal year revenue limit shall be computed utilizing one hundred nine dollars ($109) as the 1978–79 fiscal year foundation program increase.

(c) For school districts which have a 1976–77 fiscal year revenue limit computed pursuant to Section 42238 which is more than 120 percent of the 1976–77 fiscal year foundation program for the appropriate type of district, the 1977–78 fiscal year revenue limit shall be recomputed utilizing the amount prescribed in paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) of Section 42238 as the inflation adjustment.

If the 1977–78 fiscal year recomputed revenue limit is more than 120 percent of the sum of the 1976–77 foundation program for the appropriate type of district plus one hundred twenty dollars ($120), the 1978–79 fiscal year revenue limit shall also be computed utilizing the amount prescribed in paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) of Section 42238 as the inflation adjustment. If the 1977–78 fiscal year recomputed revenue limit is less than 120 percent of the sum of the 1976–77 foundation program for the appropriate type of district plus one hundred twenty dollars ($120), the 1978–79 fiscal year revenue limit shall be computed utilizing one hundred nine dollars ($109) as the 1978–79 fiscal year foundation program increase.

(d) Paragraph (2) of subdivision (f) of Section 42238 shall be applicable to recomputed 1977–78 fiscal year revenue limits and 1978–79 fiscal year computed revenue limits determined pursuant to this section.

SEC. 6. Section 41718.7 is added to the Education Code, to read:

41718.7. (a) In the event two school districts meet the criteria specified by this section, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall compute the allowances pursuant to Section 41718.5 as if the districts were a single unified district. Payments shall be made separately to the two districts.

(b) This section shall apply only to districts which meet all of the following criteria:

(1) Both districts are governed by a common board of education.

(2) The board of education employs one superintendent who is responsible for the operation of both districts.

(3) The salary schedule and salary policies for both classified and certificated employees is the same regardless of district of assignment.

(4) Negotiated contracts under the provisions of Chapter 10.7 (commencing with Section 3540) of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code are commonly effective to unit members regardless of district of assignment.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, districts receiving state aid pursuant to this section shall have their 1977–78 fiscal year recomputed revenue limits and 1978–79 fiscal year revenue limits computed pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 41718.6.

SEC. 7. Section 41840 of the Education Code is amended to read:

41840. The allowance for each unit of average daily attendance during the 1977–78 fiscal year for adults, as adults are defined in Section 52610, for high school districts shall be the adult foundation program of nine hundred sixteen dollars ($916) less the product of one dollar ($1) multiplied by each one hundred dollars ($100) of the assessed valuation of the district, as modified pursuant to Section 41201, per unit of total regular high school average daily attendance plus adult average daily attendance. The total of state aid shall not be less than one hundred twenty dollars ($120) per unit of average daily attendance.

For subsequent years, the adult foundation program shall be the adult foundation program for the previous fiscal year increased by 6 percent.

SEC. 8. Section 41841 of the Education Code is amended to read:

41841. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall determine the amount of state equalization aid to be added to the regular high school foundation program apportionments for each school district with adult average daily attendance in the 1976–77 fiscal year as follows:

He shall determine the adult average daily attendance used in computing state aid under the high school foundation program in the 1975–76 fiscal year and compute the 1976–77 fiscal year equalization aid according to the high school foundation program for the 1976–77 fiscal year using that 1975–76 fiscal year average daily attendance.

He shall recompute the equalization aid to the high school foundation program with the adult average daily attendance excluded and shall determine the loss of equalization aid due to excluding adult average daily attendance. To this amount he shall add the state equalization aid for defined adults in the 1975–76 fiscal year. He shall compute the state equalization aid for adults pursuant to Section 41840 and shall deduct this amount from the sum of the state equalization aid for defined adults in the 1975–76 fiscal year and the loss of equalization aid due to excluding adults from the high school foundation program. The remainder shall be added to the equalization aid for the high school foundation program for that district in the 1976–77 fiscal year.

If the adult average daily attendance of the current year is less than the comparable adult average daily attendance determined for 1975–76, the current year adult average daily attendance shall be used in lieu of the 1975–76 adult average daily attendance in determining the amount of state equalization aid to be added to the regular high school program. If there is no adult average daily attendance for the current year this section shall not apply.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall make the same computation for the 1977–78 fiscal year utilizing the appropriate 1977–78 foundation program levels.

In order to be eligible for increased state aid computed according to this section, each school district may count no more than the adult average daily attendance as used in determining state equalization aid under the high school foundation program in the 1975–76 fiscal year.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall apportion to each school district which received funds pursuant to this section in the 1977–78 fiscal year an amount equal to 75 percent of such amount in the 1978–79 fiscal year, 57 percent of such amount in the 1979–80 fiscal year, 33 percent of such amount in the 1980–81 fiscal year and 23 percent of such amount in the 1981–82 fiscal year.

This section remain effective only until July 1, 1982, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute which is chaptered before July 1, 1982, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 9. Section 42238 of the Education Code is amended to read:

42238. For the 1974–75 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, (a) the maximum general purpose tax rate for each elementary, high, and unified school district in the county shall be computed pursuant to this section by the county superintendent of schools.

(b) The revenue limit per foundation program unit of average daily attendance for the district for the prior fiscal year shall be divided into the appropriate foundation program amount per unit of average daily attendance for the prior year. If the quotient is greater than one, it shall be deemed to be one.

(c) The foundation program amount per unit of average daily attendance used as the dividend in subdivision (b) shall be determined by the Superintendent of Public Instruction pursuant to this subdivision. For elementary school districts, it shall be the foundation program for districts which have an average daily attendance of 901 or more. For high school districts it shall be the foundation program for districts with an average daily attendance of 301 or more. For unified districts, it shall be the sum of (1) the foundation program of elementary districts which have an average daily attendance of 901 or more multiplied by the elementary foundation program units of average daily attendance of unified districts in the second principal apportionment, plus (2) the foundation program for high school districts with an average daily attendance of 301 or more multiplied by the high school foundation program units of average daily attendance of unified districts in the second principal apportionment divided by (3) the sum of the elementary and high school units of average daily attendance of unified districts in the second principal apportionment.

(d) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), the inflation adjustment shall be based on the increase in the foundation program amount per unit of average daily attendance for the budget year compared with the preceding year.

(2) For districts which have a prior year revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance computed pursuant to subdivision (f) which is in excess of 120 percent of the foundation program prescribed in subdivision (c), the inflation adjustment shall be the amount specified in subdivision (a) of Section 41718, but not greater than 7 percent of the foundation programs specified in subdivision (c) for unified school districts.

(e) The amount determined pursuant to subdivision (d) shall be multiplied by the quotient determined pursuant to subdivision (b). The resultant amount shall constitute the revenue limit inflation adjustment of the district per unit of average daily attendance.

(f) The revenue limit inflation adjustment shall be added to the prior year revenue limit per foundation program unit of average daily attendance of the district and the sum multiplied by the estimated foundation program average daily attendance of the budget year. The product shall be the revenue limit of the district for the budget year.

The revenue limit per foundation program unit of average daily attendance for districts subject to the provisions of paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) shall be no less than the revenue limit per foundation program unit of average daily attendance computed for a district at 120 percent of the foundation program.

(g) Any district which has a revenue limit computed pursuant to subdivision (f) which is equal to or less than the foundation program computed for the district pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 41700) of Chapter 5 of this part, excluding Section 41716, Article 2 (commencing with Section 41730) of Chapter 5 of this part, and subdivision (a) of Section 41840 as adjusted pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 14002 may increase its revenue limit computed pursuant to subdivision (f) to the lesser of the foundation program level of the district or the prior year revenue limit increased by 15 percent (15%).

(h) From the amount computed pursuant to subdivision (f) or (g), there shall be subtracted the basic state aid and state equalization aid to be received for the budget year, areawide aid to be received for the budget year, and the amount of income to be received from the equalization offset tax pursuant to Section 41203.

(i) The amount determined pursuant to subdivision (h) shall be (1) adjusted as provided in subdivision (d) of Section 46605 and (2) adjusted sufficiently to allow for the mandated increases for district contributions for the State Teachers' Retirement System and as required by Section 23400. Such adjustment, together with any rate levied in any prior year pursuant to Section 23401, shall not exceed the revenue derived by the tax rate provided in Section 23401. The adjusted amount shall be the local revenue limit of the district for the budget year.

(j) From the amount computed pursuant to subdivision (i), there shall be subtracted the amount of money collected or to be collected as taxes on property on the unsecured roll of the budget year, excluding the amounts collected through the levy of taxes provided in Section 4147, 8329, 15250, 15742, 16090, 16196, 16204, 16205, 16214, 16302, 39229, 39230, 39308, 39311, 42200, 42402, 49502, or 56811 of the Education Code, Section 52317 of the Education Code for the purposes prescribed in Section 52312, but no greater than five cents ($0.05) per one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed valuation, and Section 5302.5 of the Streets and Highways Code, and (2) the income from the prior year's taxes.

(k) For the purposes of this subdivision, the assessed valuation used in computing the maximum tax rate is defined as the total actual assessed valuation, including business inventory and homeowners exemption and exclusive of the assessed valuation increment used to allocate tax receipts to a redevelopment agency pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 33670) of Chapter 6 of Part 1 of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code.

The amount determined pursuant to subdivision (j) shall be divided by the amount of actual assessed valuation of the district on the secured roll after due allowance for delinquencies, pursuant to Section 14203. The quotient multiplied by 100 shall be the tax rate on each one hundred dollars ($100) of such assessed valuation and shall be the maximum general purpose tax rate which may be levied in the district during the 1973–74 fiscal year, exclusive of taxes provided in Section 4147, 8329, 15250, 15742, 16090, 16196, 16204, 16205, 16214, 16302, 39229, 39230, 39308, 39311, 42200, 42402, 49502, or 56811 of the Education Code, Section 52317 of the Education Code for the purposes prescribed in Section 52312 of the Education Code, but no greater than five cents ($0.05) per one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed valuation, and Section 5302.5 of the Streets and Highways Code.

This section shall remain in effect only until such time as legislation becomes operative which appropriates funds for the purposes of Sections 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 14, 15, 27, 28.5, 29, 40, and 41 of Chapter 894 of the Statutes of 1977, or takes other statutory action to make such sections operative, and as of such time is repealed.

SEC. 10. Section 42239 of the Education Code is amended to read:

42239. A district may add in Section 42238 for purposes of increasing the district's revenue limit for the budget year a portion of its loss in average daily attendance when it is anticipated that the estimated second principal apportionment units of average daily attendance, excluding defined adults and summer school average daily attendance, will be less than those of the preceding year. The number of units of average daily attendance to be added is determined as follows:

(a) When the reduction in average daily attendance is 1 percent or more of the preceding year average daily attendance, the district is entitled to two adjustments determined as follows:

(1) The estimated average daily attendance of the budget year may be increased by 75 percent of the reduction.

(2) The estimated average daily attendance of the next succeeding budget year may be increased by 50 percent of the reduction.

(b) When the reduction in average daily attendance is less than 1 percent no adjustment is allowed on account of that reduction, nor does it have any bearing on adjustments made pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a).

(c) The adjustment prescribed pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) may be included as a portion of the district's revenue limit commencing with the 1978–79 fiscal year revenue limit.

The amount calculated in subdivision (a) times the revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance shall be considered an addition to the district revenue limit, but shall not be used to compute state apportionments.

For the purposes of this section, the amount which may be added to the district's revenue limit on account of the adjustments authorized pursuant to subdivision (a) is the revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance computed pursuant to subdivision (f) or (g) of Section 42238, plus the voted override in effect for the budget year.

This amount of adjustment in estimated units of average daily attendance shall be allowed without requiring a reduction in the revenue limit in the subsequent year which otherwise would be required pursuant to Section 42245, except that to the extent that actual data differs from the estimated unit of average daily attendance used in this section, Section 42245 shall be applicable.

SEC. 10.5. Section 42241.3 of the Education Code is amended to read:

42241.3. (a) The revenue limit of any school district with a necessary small high school shall be adjusted annually pursuant to this section.

(b) For the 1977–78 fiscal year, the county superintendent of schools shall determine the difference between the district's total foundation program computed pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 41711 and the product of the district's revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance as computed pursuant to subdivision (f) or (g) of Section 42238 and the average daily attendance at the necessary small high school.

(c) For the 1978–79 fiscal year and thereafter, he shall determine the difference between the district's total estimated foundation program computed pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 41711 and the product of the district's revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance as computed pursuant to subdivision (f) or (g) of Section 42238 and the estimated average daily attendance at the necessary small high school. From that amount, he shall further subtract the amount determined pursuant to subdivision (b).

(d) If the amount determined in subdivision (c) is greater than zero, it shall be added to the district's revenue limit. If the amount determined is less than zero, no change in the revenue limit shall be computed pursuant to this section.

(e) To the extent actual data differs from the estimated data used in this section, Section 42245 shall be applicable.

SEC. 11. Section 42604 is added to the Education Code, to read:

42604. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the computation of reimbursement for the costs of attendance specified in contractual agreements through which educational services are provided by other than the district or county in which a pupil resides shall be based on the revenue per average daily attendance received by the school district or county in which the pupil resides rather than the computed revenue limit or foundation program per average daily attendance of the district or county of residence

SEC. 12. Section 42610 of the Education Code is amended to read:

42610. All income accruing to the school district in excess of the amounts required to finance the total proposed expenditures, including transfers to other school districts and funds, as shown in the budget of the school district shall be added to the general reserve of the school district, and shall not be available for appropriation by the school district for the current fiscal year except by the following procedure. The governing board of the school district shall, by formal action of the board, pass a resolution setting forth the need according to major classification of school district expenditures to be met from any portion of the general reserve derived from assured income in excess of the total amount anticipated in the budget. The resolution shall be submitted to the county superintendent of schools.

The county superintendent of schools shall approve any resolution for the appropriation of income provided from state or federal sources for emergency needs of the school district to the extent that such income was not anticipated in the budget of the school district.

On the first day of July of each year, the general reserve together with unexpended balances of appropriations and income in excess of anticipated income for the preceding fiscal year shall be placed to the credit of the school district, and the school district shall include all money so credited in the balance shown in the budget for the ensuing fiscal year.

SEC. 13. Section 42842 of the Education Code is amended to read:

42842. The governing board may expend the money in the fund for the purpose or purposes specified in any resolution filed pursuant to Section 42841 unless the purpose has been withdrawn pursuant to that section. In addition, unless actually encumbered for ongoing expenses, the governing board may expend the money in the fund for the general operating purposes of the district.

SEC. 14. Section 51215 of the Education Code is amended to read:

51215. The governing board of each school district maintaining a junior or senior high school shall, by June 1, 1978, adopt standards of proficiency in basic skills for pupils attending school within its school district.

The governing board of each school district maintaining grade 6 or 8, or the equivalent, shall, by June 1, 1979, adopt standards of proficiency in basic skills for pupils attending such grades.

Such standards shall include, but need not be limited to, reading comprehension, writing, and computation skills, in the English language, necessary to success in school and life experiences, and shall be such as will enable individual achievement to be ascertained and evaluated. Differential standards and assessment procedures may be adopted for pupils who:

(a) Are enrolled in special education programs pursuant to Part 30 (commencing with Section 56000), and

(b) Have diagnosed learning handicaps or disabilities that would preclude them from attaining the district's regular proficiency standards with appropriate educational services and support.

Any such differential standards shall be included in the individualized education program developed for the pupil pursuant to Part 30 (commencing with Section 56000). For purposes of this section, the definition of pupils with diagnosed learning handicaps or disabilities is not limited to pupils identified pursuant to Section

Governing boards maintaining elementary or junior high schools located within a school district maintaining a high school shall adopt standards of proficiency in basic skills which are articulated with those standards adopted by the school district maintaining the high school.

Designated employees of all school districts located within a high school district and one or more designees of the high school district shall meet prior to June 1, 1979, to plan for articulation of elementary and high school proficiency standards, and as necessary thereafter to review the effectiveness of such articulation procedures.

Standards of proficiency shall be adopted by the governing board with the active involvement of parents broadly reflective of the socioeconomic composition of the district, administrators, teachers, counselors, and, with respect to standards in secondary schools, pupils.

SEC. 15. Section 51217 of the Education Code is amended to read:

51217. Subsequent to June 1980, no pupil shall receive a diploma of graduation from high school if he or she has not met the standards of proficiency in basic skills prescribed by the secondary school district governing board.

The State Board of Education shall, by February 1, 1978, prepare and distribute to each school district maintaining a junior or senior high school, and by February 1, 1979, prepare and distribute to each district maintaining an elementary school, a framework for assessing pupil proficiency in reading comprehension, writing, and computation skills. Such framework shall include a range of assessment items in each skill area. The assessment framework shall be provided solely to assist each school district in the development of its own pupil assessments as required by Section 51216.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize or permit the State Board of Education to adopt statewide minimum proficiency standards for high school graduation.

SEC. 16. Section 51226 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 17. Section 52001 of the Education Code is amended to read:

52001. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Other school personnel" means persons who work directly and on a regular basis with pupils, including administrative employees, as defined in subdivision (e) of Section 33150, pupil services employees, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 33150, and classified employees.

(b) "Community member" means a person who is neither in the employment of the school district, nor the parent or guardian of a pupil attending the participating school.

(c) "School improvement plan" means a plan which meets the requirements of Section 52014 developed at an individual school and submitted to a local governing board for approval.

(d) "School improvement program" means a program developed pursuant to an approved school improvement plan.

(e) "District master plan" means a plan which meets the requirements of subdivision (b) of Section 52034.

(f) "Planning grant" means allowances as described in Section 52049 to develop a school improvement plan.

(g) "Implementation grant" means allowances as described in Section 52049 to implement school improvement plans.

(h) "Participating schools" means schools which participate in the school improvement program pursuant to this chapter.

(i) "Elementary school" means any school maintaining two or more of grades 1 to 6, inclusive.

(j) "Secondary school" means any school maintaining two or more of grades 7 to 12, inclusive.

(k) "Parity" means equal numbers.

SEC. 18. Section 52012 of the Education Code is amended to read:

52012. A school site council shall be established at each school which participates in the school improvement program authorized by this chapter. The council shall be composed of the principal and representatives of: teachers selected by teachers at the school; other school personnel selected by other school personnel at the school, parents of pupils attending the school selected by such parents; and, in secondary schools, pupils selected by pupils attending the school.

At the elementary level the council shall be constituted to ensure parity between (a) the principal, classroom teachers and other school personnel; and (b) parents or other community members selected by parents.

At the secondary level the council shall be constituted to ensure parity between (a) the principal, classroom teachers and other school personnel and (b) equal numbers of parents or other community members selected by parents, and pupils.

At both the elementary and secondary levels, classroom teachers shall comprise the majority of persons represented under subdivision (a) of this section.

Existing schoolwide advisory groups or school support groups may be utilized as the school site council if such groups conform to the provisions of this section.

The term and method of selection and replacement of council members shall be specified in the school improvement plan developed pursuant to Section 52014.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall provide several examples of selection and replacement procedures which may be considered by school site councils.

SEC. 19. Section 52022 of the Education Code is amended to read:

52022. Notwithstanding Section 37202 and 41420, schools may request, as part of their application to develop or implement a school improvement plan, the provision of time during the regular school year to advise students or conduct staff development programs and receive full average daily attendance reimbursement under the provisions of Section 46300. Such time shall not exceed eight days each year for each participating staff member.

SEC. 20. The heading of Article 4 (commencing with Section 52045) of Chapter 6 of Part 28 of the Education Code is amended and renumbered to read:

Article 3. Funding

SEC. 21. Section 52045 of the Education Code is amended to read:

52045. In computing allowances authorized pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 52049, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall reduce such allowances by the amount per pupil apportioned pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 54160) of Chapter 2 of Part 29 of this division.

SEC. 22. Section 52049 of the Education Code is amended to read:

52049. From funds appropriated pursuant to this article the superintendent shall make allowances to districts as follows:

(a) For schools with approved planning applications, planning grants in the amount of thirty dollars ($30) per unit of average daily attendance;

(b) For schools with approved school improvement plans, implementation grants in the amount of:

(1) One hundred forty-eight dollars ($148) per unit of average daily attendance in kindergarten and grades 1, 2, and 3, or their equivalent, exclusive of average daily attendance in summer school. For the 1977–78 and the 1978–79 fiscal years, an additional amount to the level authorized by former Section 52014 may also be allowed.

(2) Ninety dollars ($90) per unit of average daily attendance in grades 4 to 8, inclusive, or their equivalent, exclusive of the average daily attendane of summer school, regional occupational centers and programs, and adult classes by regular high school pupils.

(3) Sixty-five dollars ($65) per unit of average daily attendance in grades 9 to 12, inclusive or their equivalent, exclusive of the average daily attendance of summer school, regional occupational centers and programs, and adult classes by regular high school pupils.

Implementation grants shall be spent pursuant to the approved school improvement plan as documented in the plan pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 52015.

Allowances provided in any fiscal year but not expended in that year may be expended in subsequent fiscal years.

SEC. 23. Section 54001 of the Education Code is amended to read:

54001. From the funds appropriated by the Legislature for the purposes of this chapter, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, with the approval of the State Board of Education, shall administer this chapter and make apportionments to school districts to meet the total approved expense of the school districts incurred in establishing education programs for pupils who qualify economically and educationally in preschool, kindergarten, or any of grades 1 through 12, inclusive. Funds provided pursuant to this chapter in any fiscal year but not expended by school district in that fiscal year may be expended in subsequent fiscal years.

Nothing in this chapter shall in any way preclude the use of federal funds for educationally disadvantaged youths. Districts which receive funds pursuant to this chapter shall not reduce existing district resources which have been utilized for programs to meet the needs of educationally disadvantaged students.

SEC. 24. Section 54021 of the Education Code is amended to read:

54021. The Legislature finds that in order to allow districts sufficient time to plan for programs authorized pursuant to this chapter, notification of entitlements shall be made to districts several months prior to actual disbursement of funds. The Legislature, therefore, shall announce its intent to appropriate funds for this chapter at least one year in advance of the normal budgetary appropriation process.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall calculate district entitlements for any fiscal year in March of the prior fiscal year utilizing the latest information available at that time and assuming the appropriation announced by the Legislature will be available for the fiscal year in question. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall notify districts of their expected entitlements no later than May 1 of the prior fiscal year.

This section shall become operative for calculation of district entitlements for the 1979–80 fiscal year, and shall be utilized in calculation of entitlements for every fiscal year thereafter.

SEC. 25. Section 56038 of the Education Code is amended to read:

56038. The local school district having any pupil receiving the benefits of special education facilities and services under the provisions of Section 56032 shall report the attendance of such pupil and submit a claim for the special purpose apportionment through the county superintendent of schools to the Superintendent of Public Instruction. The report and claim shall be submitted at the time and in the manner prescribed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction. The county superintendents of schools shall verify the attendance reported and claim submitted in the manner prescribed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Pupils enrolled in nonpublic schools under this section on and after January 1, 1978, shall be deemed to be enrolled in public schools for all purposes of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 41600) of Part 24 and Section 42238.

Any such addition of enrollment for the 1977–78 and 1978–79 fiscal year only, shall not be included in the calculation allowed by Section 42239.

SEC. 26. Section 60246 of the Education Code is amended to read:

60246. The State Controller shall during each fiscal year, commencing with the 1978–79 fiscal year, transfer from the General Fund of the state to the State Instructional Materials Fund, an amount of thirteen dollars and thirty cents ($13.30) per pupil in the average daily attendance in the public and nonpublic elementary schools during the preceding fiscal year, as certified by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, except that this amount shall be adjusted annually in conformance with the Consumer Price Index, all items, of the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor, measured for the calendar year next preceding the fiscal year to which it applies. For purposes of this section, average daily attendance in the nonpublic schools shall be the enrollment reported pursuant to Section 33190.

SEC. 27. Section 84727 is added to the Education Code, to read:

84727. The community college districts in the state shall contribute monthly to the Teachers' Retirement Fund the following percentages of the total of the salaries upon which members' contributions are based:

(a) For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1978	7.2%
(b) For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1979, and fiscal years thereafter	8.0%

In a local district only the salaries of those members who are not contributing to the local system shall be included in the preceding computations of total contributions by the district.

SEC. 28. Section 87 of Chapter 894 of the Statutes of 1977 is amended to read:

Sec. 87. The expenditure authorizations provided pursuant to this act by Sections 74, 77, and 78 shall be reduced by 3 percent.

Section 56.5 of this act, exclusive of Sections 54051, 54052, 54054, and 54057 of the Education Code, shall be reduced by thirty-four thousand dollars ($34,000) in the 1977–78 fiscal year, two hundred sixty-eight thousand dollars ($268,000) in the 1978–79 fiscal year, and one million eight hundred sixty-six thousand dollars ($1,866,000) in the 1979–80 fiscal year.

Section 75 of this act shall be reduced by four hundred seventeen thousand dollars ($417,000) in the 1977–78 fiscal year, one million twenty-nine thousand dollars ($1,029,000) in the 1978–79 fiscal year, and one million five hundred sixty thousand dollars ($1,560,000) in the 1979–80 fiscal year.

SEC. 29. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the junior high school tuition computed pursuant to Section 37062 of the Education Code shall be adjusted by the factor computed for the elementary school district pursuant to subdivision (c), (d), or (e) of Section 2 of Chapter 292 of the Statutes of 1978.

This section shall have no force or effect on and after June 30, 1979.

SEC. 30. The provisions of Section 41812 of the Education Code shall have no force or effect for the 1978–79 fiscal year.

SEC. 31. The provisions of Section 41813 of the Education Code shall have no force or effect for the 1978–79 fiscal year.

SEC. 32. The provisions of Section 41889 of the Education Code shall have no force or effect for the 1978–79 fiscal year.

SEC. 33. The sum of one million two hundred thousand dollars ($1,200,000) is appropriated from the General Fund to Section A of the State School Fund in augmentation of the amount appropriated pursuant to Section 71 of Chapter 323 of the Statutes of 1976.

SEC. 34. The provisions of this act which affect the computation of the foundation programs and revenue limits for school districts shall be deemed to have been operative for the entire 1977–78 fiscal year.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction, county superintendents of schools, and other public officers shall take all actions necessary to implement this section.

SEC. 35. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Consitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts consituting such necessity are:

In order to minimize disruption of educational programs and the budgets of local school districts and county offices of education, the provisions of this act are necessary to permit operation of the public schools of California under the tax limitation-initiative constitutional amendment approved by the electorate on June 6, 1978.

CHAPTER 894

An act to amend Sections 13550 and 13551 of the Water Code, relating to water reclamation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13550 of the Water Code is amended to read:

13550. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the use of potable domestic water for the irrigation of greenbelt areas, including, but not limited to, cemeteries, golf courses, parks, and highway landscaped areas, is a waste or an unreasonable use of such water within the meaning of Section 2 of Article X of the California Constitution when reclaimed water which the state board, after notice and a hearing, finds meets the following conditions is available:

(a) The source of reclaimed water is of adequate quality for such use and is available for such use.

(b) Such reclaimed water may be furnished to such greenbelt areas at a reasonable cost for facilities for such delivery. In determining reasonable cost, the state board shall consider all relevant factors, including, but not limited to, the present and projected costs of supplying potable domestic water to affected greenbelt areas and the present and projected costs of supplying reclaimed water to such areas, and shall find that the cost of supplying such reclaimed water is comparable to, or less than, the cost of supplying such potable domestic water.

(c) After concurrence with the State Department of Health Services, the use of reclaimed water from the proposed source will not be detrimental to public health.

(d) Such use of reclaimed water will not adversely affect downstream water rights, will not degrade water quality, and is determined not to be injurious to plantlife.

The state board may require a public agency or person subject to this article to furnish such information as may be relevant to making the findings required by this section.

SEC. 2. Section 13551 of the Water Code is amended to read:

13551. A person or public agency, including a state agency, city, county, city and county, district, or any other political subdivision of the state, shall not use water from any source of quality suitable for potable domestic use for the irrigation of greenbelt areas when suitable reclaimed water is available as provided in Section 13550; provided that any such use of reclaimed water in lieu of the extraction of ground water shall, to the extent of such reclaimed water so used, be deemed to constitute a reasonable beneficial use of the ground water and such use of reclaimed water shall not cause any loss or diminution of any existing water right however acquired.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The public interest requires that the use of high-quality water, suitable for domestic uses, for uses which can be served by the reuse of suitable, treated waste water should be curtailed wherever possible. In order, therefore, to insure the implementation of such reuse at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 895

An act to amend Sections 11513, 14532, 14682, 14684.2, and 14686 of, to add Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 14689) to Chapter 5 of Division 7 of, and to repeal Section 14684.3 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to fertilizing materials, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11513 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

11513. Any money which is derived under the provisions of Article 1 (commencing with Section 11701), Chapter 4 of, and Article 1 (commencing with Section 11901), Chapter 5 of, this division shall be paid into the State Treasury to the credit of the Department of Agriculture Fund. Any money in the Department of Agriculture Fund which is derived under the provisions of this division may be expended for the administration and enforcement of this division, notwithstanding any other provision of law which limits the expenditure of any such money to the specific purposes or to the administration or enforcement of each of these portions of this code separately.

SEC. 2. Section 14532 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

14532. Any money which is received by the director pursuant to this chapter shall be paid into the State Treasury to the credit of the Department of Agriculture Fund, and shall be expended solely for the administration of this chapter.

SEC. 3. Section 14682 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

14682. A registered person shall, if the sale is not exempt from the provisions of this chapter, pay:

(a) A maximum of twenty-eight cents ($0.28) per ton or fraction of a ton upon any sale of any commercial fertilizer.

(b) A maximum of ten cents ($0.10) per ton or fraction of a ton upon any sale of any agricultural mineral, unless the agricultural mineral is sold to be used and is used in the manufacture of commercial fertilizer.

(c) The director may determine the specific rates necessary to provide the revenue needed to carry out the provisions of this chapter. The director shall not exceed the maximum tonnage rates established by this section.

SEC. 4. Section 14684.2 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

14684.2. The last registrant transacting, distributing or selling either a commercial fertilizer or agricultural mineral, or both, shall file with the director a quarterly affidavit, on a form provided by the director, within one calendar month after each March 31, June 30, September 30 and December 31, which discloses the tonnage of commercial fertilizer and agricultural minerals which the registrant distributed to nonregistrants in this state during the preceding quarter. The tonnage license tax payment shall accompany the affidavit.

If the affidavit is not filed or the tonnage license tax is not paid within the calendar month following the reporting period or if the report of tonnage is false, the director may revoke the registration of such registrant and, if the affidavit is not filed and the tonnage license tax is not paid within such calendar month, a penalty of five dollars ($5) per day for each day shall be assessed. The tonnage license tax and the penalty shall constitute a debt and become the basis for a judgment against such registrant.

Any information furnished the director under this chapter shall not be disclosed in such a way as to divulge the operation of any registrant.

SEC. 5. Section 14684.3 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 14686 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

14686. When more than one registrant is involved in the distribution of either a commercial fertilizer or agricultural mineral or both, the last registrant who distributes to a nonregistrant is responsible for the tonnage report and for paying the tonnage license tax.

No person subject to the tonnage license tax is exempt from paying the tax for purchased commercial fertilizer and agricultural minerals used or applied upon his own lands within this state.

SEC. 7. Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 14689) is added to Chapter 5 of Division 7 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

Article 7.5. County Tonnage Reports

14689. The last registrant selling or distributing a commercial fertilizer or agricultural mineral or both shall submit a summary report on a form approved by the director of shipments or deliveries made during each month, at such times as set forth by the director by regulation. This report shall show the county of consignment, the amounts in tons by grade of commercial fertilizer or analysis of agricultural mineral with the amount in tons or such information determined necessary by the director pursuant to regulations adopted in accordance with this chapter. The director shall publish a quarterly commercial fertilizer and agricultural mineral tonnage report which shall include a report of tonnage by grade for commercial fertilizers and by analysis for agricultural minerals by county. The director may omit or consolidate small tonnages. The director may charge the actual costs as a fee for the report.

Any information furnished the director under this chapter shall not be disclosed in such a way as to divulge the operation of any licensee.

14670. Failure to submit a tonnage report of commercial fertilizer and agricultural minerals sales on or before the date specified by the director in regulations, shall subject the registrant to payment of a penalty of fifteen dollars ($15). An additional penalty of ten dollars ($10) shall be charged for each succeeding month a tonnage report remains delinquent, except that the total penalty for a late submission of a monthly tonnage report shall not exceed seventy-five dollars ($75).

CHAPTER 896

An act to add Article 7 (commencing with Section 436.40) to Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to developmental disability facilities, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 7 (commencing with Section 436.40) is added to Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 7 Small Facility Loan Guarantee for Developmental Disability Programs

436.40. This article shall be known and may be cited as the Small Facility Loan Guarantee for Developmental Disability Programs.

436.41. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this article to encourage the development of facilities for community-based programs that assist developmentally disabled clients living in any institutional setting, including state and local inpatient hospitals, skilled nursing homes, intermediate care facilities, and community care facilities to move to more independent living arrangements. It is further the intent of the Legislature to encourage local programs to seek funding for facility development from private sources and with the assistance provided pursuant to this chapter.

To achieve this purpose in determining eligibility for loan insurance pursuant to this chapter, the following special provisions apply to facilities approved by area developmental disabilities boards and meeting the intentions of this article:

(a) Facilities shall not require approval pursuant to Section 436.45 by the statewide system of health facility planning, the area health planning agency, or the Health Advisory Council, for the issuance of loan insurance, unless specifically required for such facilities by the facility category of licensure.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (i) of Section 436.8, any loan of under three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) for a nonprofit corporation as well as a political subdivision may be fully insured equal to the total construction cost.

(c) Facilities shall not require approval pursuant to Section 436.4 by the statewide system of health facility planning, the area health planning agency, or the Health Advisory Council, for the issuance of loan insurance, until the Director of the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development and the Director of the Department of Developmental Services determine that the state plan developed pursuant to Section 436.4 adequately and comprehensively addresses the need for community developmental services facilities and such finding is reported to the appropriate policy committees of the Legislature.

436.42. (a) Loans of under three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) for any single facility for six or fewer developmentally disabled shall have priority for obtaining loan insurance.

(b) The total amount of loans which may be insured pursuant to this article shall not exceed fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000).

436.43. The Legislative Analyst shall review and comment on the utilization and effectiveness of the Small Facility Loan Guarantee for Developmental Disability Programs in the annual budget analysis and in hearings.

436.44. If any provision of this article or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this article which can be given effect without the invalid provision of application, and to this end the provisions of this article are severable.

CHAPTER 897

An act to add Section 8190 to the Fish and Game Code, relating to anchovies, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8190 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

8190. (a) It is the policy of the State of California that the anchovy resource shall be managed in a manner which insures the continued abundance of the species. To that end, the department shall conduct, or have others conduct, annual anchovy egg-larvae surveys or any other annual surveys, research, and analyses necessary to insure that an accurate biomass estimate is made.

(b) This section shall become operative, and activities shall be carried out pursuant to this section only in the event, and to the extent, that funding is made available for such activities by the federal government.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to combat the immediate threat to the anchovy resource, and to preserve the resource due to its importance in the food chain and to the economy of California, it is necessary that this act become effective immediately.

CHAPTER 898

An act to amend Sections 44846 and 44955 of the Education Code, relating to school employees.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 44846 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44846. The following general provisions shall apply regardless of date of employment:

As between two or more employees who first rendered paid service to the district on the same date, and who, following the termination of services, have a statutory preference to reappointment in the order of original employment, the governing board shall determine the order of reemployment solely on the basis of the needs of the district and the students thereof. Any terminated employee subject to the conditions of this section shall, upon request, be furnished in writing, no later than 15 days following such request, the reasons and basis of the needs of the district and the students thereof utilized by the governing board in determining which employee or employees shall be reappointed. This requirement that the governing board provide, on request, a written statement of reasons for determining the order of reappointment shall not be interpreted to give affected employees any legal right or interest that would not exist without such a requirement.

Records showing date of employment, whether kept by the district or by the county, shall be accessible, on demand, to any certificated employee of the district or to his designated representative.

In the absence of records as to any of the matters referred to in the two preceding sections, the governing board, in accordance with evidence presented, shall determine the order of employment after giving employees a reasonable opportunity to present such evidence.

The order of employment in all districts, when required, shall be determined as prescribed by Sections 44830 to 44855, inclusive.

The governing board shall have power and it shall be its duty to correct any errors discovered from time to time in its records showing the order of employment.

SEC. 2. Section 44955 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44955. No permanent employee shall be deprived of his position for causes other than those specified in Sections 44892, 44907, and 44923, and Sections 44932 to 44947, inclusive, and no probationary employee shall be deprived of his position for cause other than as specified in Sections 44948 to 44949, inclusive.

Whenever in any school year the average daily attendance in all of the schools of a district for the first six months in which school is in session shall have declined below the corresponding period of either of the previous two school years, or whenever a particular kind of service is to be reduced or discontinued not later than the beginning of the following school year, and when in the opinion of the governing board of said district it shall have become necessary by reason of either of such conditions to decrease the number of permanent employees in said district, the said governing board may terminate the services of not more than a corresponding percentage of the certificated employees of said district, permanent as well as probationary, at the close of the school year; provided, that the services of no permanent employee may be terminated under the provisions of this section while any probationary employee, or any other employee with less seniority, is retained to render a service which said permanent employee is certificated and competent to render. As between employees who first rendered paid service to the district on the same date, the governing board shall determine the order of termination solely on the basis of needs of the district and the students thereof. Upon the request of any employee whose order of termination is so determined, the governing board shall furnish in writing no later than five days prior to the commencement of the hearing held in accordance with Section 44949, a statement of the specific criteria used in determining the order of termination and the application of the criteria in ranking each employee relative to the other employees in the group. This requirement that the governing board provide, on request, a written statement of reasons for determining the order of termination shall not be interpreted to give affected employees any legal right or interest that would not exist without such a requirement.

Notice of such termination of services either for a reduction in attendance or reduction or discontinuance of a particular kind of service to take effect not later than the beginning of the following school year, shall be given before the 15th of May in the manner prescribed in Section 44949, and services of such employees shall be terminated in the inverse of the order in which they were employed, as determined by the board in accordance with the provisions of Sections 44844 and 44845. In the event that a permanent or probationary employee is not given the notices and a right to a hearing as provided for in Section 44949, he shall be deemed reemployed for the ensuing school year.

The governing board shall make assignments and reassignments in such a manner that employees shall be retained to render any service which their seniority and qualifications entitle them to render.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be any appropriation made by this act because the duties, obligations, or responsibilities imposed on local government by this act are such that related costs are incurred as part of their normal operating procedures.

CHAPTER 899

An act to amend Section 12070 of the Penal Code, relating to concealable weapons.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12070 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12070. No person shall engage in the business of selling, transferring, advertising, offering, or exposing for sale or transfer, any pistol, revolver or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person unless he has been issued a license pursuant to Section 12071. Any person violating this section is guilty of a misdemeanor. As used in this article, engaging in the business of selling or transferring concealable firearms does not include the infrequent sale or transfer, offering, exposing for sale, or advertising for sale any handgun at a gun show, swap meet or similar event.

As used in this section, "infrequent" means occasional and without regularity.

CHAPTER 900

An act to amend Sections 9360.9, 9360.10, 20024.01, 20134, 20393, 20685, 21221, 31870, 31870.1, 31870.2, 31874.1, 31874.3, and 31877 of, and to add Sections 20023.6 and 20134.1 to, the Government Code, relating to public employees.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9360.9 of the Government Code is amended to read:

9360.9. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, the provisions of this section shall be applicable to all allowances granted by this chapter commencing with each installment paid or payable on or after January 1, 1964, with respect to Members of the Senate or the Assembly not having service in such office during or after the term commencing in 1967 and members who are elective officers of the state whose offices are provided by the Constitution and who were first elected to any such office prior to January 1, 1966.

On or before January 1, 1964, the board shall adjust the amount of the allowances payable during the 1964 calendar year to reflect any increase in cost of living occurring between the 1963 calendar year and the 1955 calendar year, inclusive, and any increase resulting from such adjustment shall be payable commencing with each installment of allowances paid or payable on or after January 1, 1964. On or before January 15, 1965, and, on or before January 15 of each year thereafter, the amount of the allowances provided by this chapter shall be adjusted by the board to reflect any increase in cost of living occurring after January 1 of the immediately preceding calendar year. Effective January 1, 1978, the average of the separate indices of the "Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers" for the Los Angeles-Long Beach-Anaheim area and the San Francisco-Oakland area, as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics, shall be used as the basis for determining the changes in the cost of living. For the period prior to January 1, 1978, the average of the separate indices for the Los Angeles-Long Beach area and the San Francisco-Oakland area, as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics, shall be used as the basis for determining the changes in the cost of living. The cost-of-living increase shall equal or exceed 1 percent before any adjustment is made in the allowance. The calendar year 1954 shall be used as the base year in computing any annual adjustment. The annual adjustment made on or before January 15, 1965 and made on or before January 15 of each calendar year thereafter shall correspond to the average annual change in the calendar year immediately preceding the year during which the adjustment shall be effective. The adjustment made on or before January 1, 1964, shall correspond to the total of the average annual changes in each calendar year from the 1955 calendar year to the 1963 calendar year, inclusive.

The adjustment provided by this section shall be made only if it operates to effect an increase over the allowance payable for the calendar year immediately preceding.

SEC. 2. Section 9360.10 of the Government Code is amended to read:

9360.10. On or before January 15, 1968, and on or before January 15 of each year thereafter, the amount of any allowances provided by this chapter and not subject to Section 9360.9 shall be adjusted by the board to reflect any increase in cost of living occurring after January 1 of the immediately preceding fiscal year. Effective January 1, 1978, the average of the separate indices of the "Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers" for the Los Angeles-Long Beach-Anaheim area and the San Francisco-Oakland area, as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics, shall be used as the basis for determining the changes in the cost of living. For the period prior to January 1, 1978, the average of the separate indices for the Los Angeles-Long Beach area and the San Francisco-Oakland area, as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics, shall be used as the basis for determining the changes in the cost of living. The cost-of-living increase shall equal or exceed 1 percent before any adjustment is made in the allowance. The adjustment provided by this section shall be made only if it operates to effect an increase over the allowance payable for the calendar year immediately preceding.

SEC. 3. Section 20023.6 is added to the Government Code, to read:

20023.6. The compensation earnable during any period of service as a member of the retirement system operating pursuant to the Judges' Retirement Law, the Legislators' Retirement System, or the State Teachers' Retirement System shall be considered compensation earnable as a member of this system for purposes of computing final compensation for such member providing he retires concurrently under both systems.

SEC. 4. Section 20024.01 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20024.01. For a state member, or for a local member who is an employee of a contracting agency which is subject to the provisions of this section, "final compensation" means the highest average annual compensation earnable by a member during the three consecutive years of employment immediately preceding the effective date of his retirement or the date of his last separation from state service if earlier or during any other period of three consecutive years during his membership in the system which he designates in his application for retirement, including any or all of such period or periods of (a) service required for qualification for membership, or (b) prior service which qualifies for credit under this system, if any, immediately preceding membership, or (c) time prior to entering state service at the compensation earnable by him in the position first held by him in such service, as may be necessary to complete three consecutive years. For the purposes of this section, periods of service separated by a period of retirement or breaks in service may be aggregated to constitute a period of three consecutive years, if the periods of service are consecutive except for such period of retirement or breaks. If a break in service did not exceed six months in duration, time included in the break and compensation earnable during such time shall be included in computation of final compensation. If a break in service exceeded six months in duration, the first six months thereof and the compensation earnable during those six months shall be included in computation of final compensation, but time included in the break which is in excess of six months and the compensation earnable during such excess time shall be excluded in computation of final compensation.

On and after November 13, 1968, the provisions of this section shall supersede Section 20024 and apply to all contracting agencies and to the employees of such agencies whether or not such agencies have previously elected to be subject to this section, except that this section shall not apply to an employee of a contracting agency which has not elected to be subject to this section whose death occurred or whose retirement was effective prior to November 13, 1968.

SEC. 5. Section 20134 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20134. Data filed by any member or beneficiary with the board is confidential, and no individual record shall be divulged by any official or employee having access to it to any person other than the member to whom the information relates or his authorized representative, the contracting agency or school district by which he is employed, any state department or agency, or the university. Such information shall be used by the board for the sole purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this part.

SEC. 6. Section 20134.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

20134.1. For purposes of Section 20134, "authorized representative" includes the spouse or beneficiary of a member when no contrary appointment has been made and when, in the opinion of the board, the member is prevented from appointing an authorized representative because of mental or physical incapacity or death.

SEC. 7. Section 20393 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20393. Any other provision in this part to the contrary notwithstanding, a member who is credited with five or more years of service shall have the right to elect, not later than 90 days after the date upon which notice of said right is mailed by this system to the member's latest address on file in the office of this system, whether to leave such accumulated contributions on deposit in the Retirement Fund under any of the following conditions:

(1) If his state service is discontinued by reason of resignation or discharge.

(2) If his state service is discontinued by reason of layoff or leave of absence deemed by the board to have resulted in permanent discontinuance (and in such case, as of the date of the determination by the board that the discontinuance is permanent).

(3) If a member ceases to be entitled to credit in this system for future service because he has become entitled to credit for such service in another retirement system supported wholly or in part by funds of the United States government, or any state government or political subdivision thereof.

(4) If the disability retirement of a member is followed by cessation of the disability and by cancellation of the disability allowance, but the member does not reenter state service.

A member who is credited with less than five years of service shall have such right to elect if he enters employment as a member of a public retirement system supported in whole or in part by state funds, including the University of California Retirement System, or as a member of a retirement system established under the County Employees' Retirement Law of 1937, and within six months of leaving state service.

Failure to make such election shall be deemed an irrevocable election to withdraw his accumulated contributions. An election to allow accumulated contributions to remain in the retirement fund may be revoked by the member at any time except while he is employed in state service in a position in which he is not excluded from membership with respect to such service, or while he is in service as a member of a public retirement system supported in whole or in part by state funds, including the University of California Retirement System, or as a member of a retirement system established under the County Employees' Retirement Law of 1937, within six months after discontinuing state service. All contributions accumulated up to the time of revocation may then be withdrawn. A member whose membership continues under this section is subject to the same age and disability requirements as apply to other members for service or for disability retirement. After the qualification of such member for retirement by reason of age, which shall be the lowest age applicable to any membership category in which he has credited service, or disability, he shall be entitled to receive a retirement allowance based upon the amount of his accumulated contributions and service standing to his credit at the time of retirement and on the employer contributions held for him and calculated in the same manner as for other members, except that the provisions in this part for minimum service and disability retirement allowances do not apply to him, unless he meets such minimum service requirements. If a basic death benefit becomes payable under Article 5 (commencing with Section 21360) of Chapter 9 of this part because of death before retirement of such a member, the average annual compensation earnable in the year preceding the date of termination of such service rather than in the year preceding death shall be used in computing such benefit under such Article 5 of Chapter 9.

The provisions of this section as it read prior to June 21, 1971, shall continue with respect to a member whose membership continued under this section on such date.

SEC. 8. Section 20685 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20685. (a) If a basic death benefit has become or becomes payable before the payment of the total amount the member elected to pay under any election with respect to normal contributions permitted under this part, the member's entire compensation, or the service upon which that total amount was based, as the case may be, shall be included in the computation of the portion of the death benefit which is provided in subdivision (b) of Section 21361, and the unpaid balance of the total amount shall not be paid to this system, nor shall it be included in the member's accumulated contributions which constitute a part of the basic death benefit. Any balance of any such total amount remaining unpaid at the death of the member on account of which a special death benefit is payable or at the retirement of a member for industrial disability shall become due and payable forthwith and if not paid, the portion of such unpaid amount representing contributions on compensation earned in the membership applicable to the member at the time of injury resulting in death shall be deducted from the benefit otherwise payable and the system shall be discharged from any liability for any annuity or benefit with respect to any remainder of such unpaid contribution. Any such balance at the time of retirement for service or ordinary disability, or at death, with respect to which a benefit is payable under Section 21365.5 shall become due and payable forthwith, and if it is not paid the service credit included in the election shall be reduced proportionately and any prior service dependent on completion of payments eliminated for purposes of computing the allowance but not for purposes of determining entitlement to an allowance.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of subdivision (a), a member who retires after January 1, 1976, before payment of the total amount which he elected to pay, may elect to pay the balance due by deductions from his retirement allowance equal to those which he authorized as payroll deductions in accordance with Section 20654. In such case service credit included in the election shall not be reduced, nor shall any prior service dependent on completion of payments be eliminated for purposes of computing the allowance. Any balance of such total amount remaining unpaid upon the death of such member shall be treated in the same manner as unpaid balances are treated if a special death benefit is payable, except that the survivor of a retired member who had authorized deductions from his retirement allowance in accordance with this subdivison, and who is eligible for a monthly allowance, may elect to continue such deductions from his allowance in lieu of the lump-sum payment otherwise required.

SEC. 9. Section 21221 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21221. The following definitions shall govern the application of this article:

(a) "Monthly allowance" means any allowance payable monthly to a retired person, a survivor or beneficiary of a member or a retired person, other than a monthly installment of a basic death benefit, the commuted value of an unpaid temporary annuity, or an optional settlement No. 1, or allowances payable under Article 6 of this chapter. There shall be excluded from any such monthly allowance, for purposes of any adjustment under this article, any portion of such allowance derived from accumulated additional contributions of a member.

(b) "Base allowance" means the amount of monthly allowance which would be payable to the recipient at the time of an annual adjustment under this article had this article not been enacted.

(c) Effective January 1, 1978, "California Consumer Price Index" means an index stated as the average of the separate indices of the "Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers" for the Los Angeles-Long Beach-Anaheim area and the San Francisco-Oakland area published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor. The "California Consumer Price Index" for any period prior to January 1, 1978, means an index stated as the average of the separate annual consumer price indices for the Los Angeles-Long Beach area and the San Francisco-Oakland area published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor. Should the reference base of such consumer price indices (presently 1957–59=100) be changed, each of such indices used to determine the consumer price index as defined in this section will be the indices converted to the new base by standard statistical methods.

(d) "Base year" means:

(1) The calendar year 1965 for all members whose retirement occurred prior to January 1, 1966, and for the beneficiaries and survivors of such retired members.

(2) The calendar year of retirement for all members whose retirement occurs after December 31, 1965, and for the beneficiaries and survivors of such members.

(3) The calendar year 1965 for survivors of members whose death occurred before January 1, 1966.

(4) The calendar year in which a member's death occurs for survivors of members whose death occurred before retirement and on or after January 1, 1966.

SEC. 10. Section 31870 of the Government Code is amended to read:

31870. The board shall before April 1 of each year determine whether there has been an increase or decrease in the cost of living as provided in this section. Notwithstanding Section 31481 or any other provision of this chapter (commencing with Section 31450), every retirement allowance, optional death allowance, or annual death allowance payable to or on account of any member, of this system or a superseded system, who retires or dies or who has retired or died shall, as of April 1st of each year, be increased or decreased by a percentage of the total allowance then being received found by the board to approximate to the nearest one-half of 1 percent the percentage of annual increase or decrease in the cost of living as of January 1st of each year as shown by the then current Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers for the area in which the county seat is situated, but such change shall not exceed 2 percent per year; however, the amount of any cost-of-living increase or decrease in any year which is not met by the maximum annual change of 2 percent in allowances shall be accumulated to be met by increases or decreases in allowances in future years; except that no decrease shall reduce the allowance below the amount being received by the member or his beneficiary on the effective date of the allowance or the application of this article, whichever is later.

SEC. 11. Section 31870.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

31870.1. The board shall before April 1 of each year determine whether there has been an increase or decrease in the cost of living as provided in this section. Notwithstanding Section 31481 or any other provision of this chapter (commencing with Section 31450), every retirement allowance, optional death allowance, or annual death allowance payable to or on account of any member, of this system or superseded system who retires or dies or who has retired or died shall, as of April 1st of each year, be increased or decreased by a percentage of the total allowance then being received found by the board to approximate to the nearest one-half of 1 percent, the percentage of annual increase or decrease in the cost of living as of January 1st of each year as shown by the then current Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers for the area in which the county seat is situated, but such change shall not exceed 3 percent per year; however, the amount of any cost-of-living increase or decrease in any year which is not met by the maximum annual change of 3 percent in allowances shall be accumulated to be met by increases or decreases in allowances in future years; except that no decrease shall reduce the allowance below the amount being received by the member or his beneficiary on the effective date of the allowance or the application of this article, whichever is later.

SEC. 12. Section 31870.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

31870.2. The board shall before April 1 of each year determine whether there has been an increase or decrease in the cost of living as provided in this section. Notwithstanding Section 31481 or any other provision of this chapter (commencing with Section 31450), every retirement allowance, optional death allowance, or annual death allowance payable to or on account of any member, of this system or superseded system who retires or dies or who has retired or died shall, as of April 1st of each year, be increased or decreased by a percentage of the total allowance then being received found by the board to approximate to the nearest one-half of 1 percent, the percentage of annual increase or decrease in the cost of living as of January 1st of each year as shown by the then current Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers for the area in which the county seat is situated, but such change shall not exceed 5 percent per year; however, the amount of any cost-of-living increase or decrease in any year which is not met by the maximum annual change of 5 percent in allowances shall be accumulated to be met by increases or decreases in allowances in future years; except that no decrease shall reduce the allowance below the amount being received by the member or his beneficiary on the effective date of the allowance or the application of this section, whichever is later.

SEC. 13. Section 31874.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

31874.1. Whenever the percentage of annual increase in the cost of living as of January 1st of each year as shown by the Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers exceeds 3 percent, all or part of such excess over 3 percent shall be applied to the retirement allowances, optional death allowances or annual death allowances increased in Section 31870 or 31870.1. The board of supervisors shall determine the amount of such excess to be applied, and the cost of the increases in allowances provided shall be paid from county and district contributions.

This section shall not be operative in any county until it is adopted by a majority vote of the board of supervisors.

SEC. 14. Section 31874.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

31874.3. Whenever the percentage of annual increase in the cost of living as of January 1 of each year as shown by the Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers exceeds 3 percent, the board of retirement may provide that all or part of such excess over either 2 percent or 3 percent shall be applied to the retirement allowances, optional death allowances or annual death allowances increased in Section 31870 or 31870.1. The board shall determine the amount of such excess to be applied and such amount shall not exceed an amount that can be paid from earnings of the retirement fund which are in excess of the total interest credited to contributions and reserves plus 1 percent of the total assets of the retirement fund.

Such supplemental increases in excess of the 3-percent increases applied to the retirement allowances, optional death allowances or annual death allowances increased in Section 31870 or 31870.1 shall not become a part of the retirement allowances, optional death allowances or annual death allowances to be increased by subsequent increases under Section 31870 or 31870.1.

This section shall be operative in any county that has elected by a majority vote of the board of supervisors to make either Section 31870 or 31870.1 applicable in such county.

SEC. 15. Section 31877 of the Government Code is amended to read:

31877. Any adjustment made pursuant to this article with reference to changes in the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers which occurred prior to the effective date of this article in a county shall apply prospectively only; and no right, claim or interest whatsoever shall be created by the application of the provisions of this section in any county with respect to retirement allowance payments made for time prior to the effective date of this article in the county.

CHAPTER 901

An act to add Section 2892.6 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to vocational nursing, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2892.6 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

2892.6. The board may collect a fee, not to exceed fifty dollars ($50), from any provider of a course in continuing education who requests approval by the board of such course for purposes of continuing education requirements under this chapter. Such fee, however, shall in no event exceed that cost required for the board to administer the approval of continuing education courses by continuing education providers.

CHAPTER 902

An act to amend Section 22754 of, and to add Section 22856 to, the Government Code, relating to health benefits.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22754 of the Government Code is amended to read:

22754. As used in this part the following definitions, unless the context otherwise requires, shall govern the interpretation of terms.

(a) "Board" means the Board of Administration of the Public Employees' Retirement System.

(b) "Employee" means any officer or employee of the State of California or of any agency, department, authority, or instrumentality of the state including the University of California, or any officer or employee who is a local or school member of the Public Employees' Retirement System employed by a contracting agency which has elected to be or otherwise has become subject to this part, or who is a member or retirant of the State Teachers' Retirement System employed by an employer who has elected to become subject to this part, except persons employed on an intermittent, irregular or less than half-time basis, or employees similarly situated, or employees in respect to whom contributions by the state for any type of plan or program offering prepaid hospital and medical care are otherwise authorized by law.

(c) "Carrier" means a private insurance company holding a valid outstanding certificate of authority from the Insurance Commissioner of the state, a medical society or other medical group, a nonprofit hospital service plan qualifying under Chapter 11A (commencing with Section 11491) of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Insurance Code, or nonprofit membership corporation lawfully operating under Section 9200 or Section 9201 of the Corporations Code, or a health care service plan as defined under subdivision (f) of Section 1345 of the Health and Safety Code, or a health maintenance organization approved under Title XIII of the federal Public Health Services Act, which is lawfully engaged in providing, arranging, paying for, or reimbursing the cost of personal health services under insurance policies or contracts, medical and hospital service agreements, membership contracts, or the like, in consideration of premiums or other periodic charges payable to it.

(d) "Health benefits plan" means a group insurance policy or contract, medical or hospital service agreement, membership or subscription contract, or similar group arrangement provided by a carrier for the purpose of providing, arranging, paying for, or reimbursing the cost of basic hospital and medical care and for major medical or other comprehensive benefit plans.

(e) "Annuitant" means:

(1) Any person who has retired while an employee and who receives any retirement allowance under any state or University of California retirement system to which the state was a contributing party.

(2) A family member receiving an allowance as the survivor of an annuitant who has retired as provided in subdivision (1), or as the survivor of a deceased employee under Section 21364, 21365.5 or 21382 of this code or similar provisions of any other state retirement system.

(f) "Family member" means an employee's or annuitant's spouse and any unmarried child (including an adopted child, a stepchild, or recognized natural child who lives with the employee or annuitant in a regular parent-child relationship). The board shall, by regulation, prescribe age limits and other conditions and limitations pertaining to unmarried children.

(g) "Employee organization" means an association or other organization of employees in which membership is open to employees or annuitants of the state, and which is not organized solely or principally for the purpose of obtaining prepaid hospital and medical care.

(h) "Contracting agency" means any contracting agency as defined in Section 20010, and any school district, county board of education, personnel commission of a school district or a county superintendent of schools.

(i) "Employer" means the state, any contracting agency employing an employee, and any agency which has elected to become subject to this part pursuant to Section 22856.

SEC. 2. Section 22754 of the Government Code is amended to read:

22754. As used in this part the following definitions, unless the context otherwise requires, shall govern the interpretation of terms.

(a) "Board" means the Board of Administration of the Public Employees' Retirement System.

(b) "Employee" means any officer or employee of the State of California or of any agency, department, authority, or instrumentality of the state including the University of California, or any officer or employee who is a local or school member of the Public Employees' Retirement System employed by a contracting agency which has elected to be or otherwise has become subject to this part, or who is a member or retirant of the State Teachers' Retirement System employed by an employer who has elected to become subject to this part, except persons employed on an intermittent, irregular or less than half-time basis, or employees similarly situated, or employees in respect to whom contributions by the state for any type of plan or program offering prepaid hospital and medical care are otherwise authorized by law.

(c) "Carrier" means a private insurance company holding a valid outstanding certificate of authority from the Insurance Commissioner of the state, a medical society or other medical group, a nonprofit hospital service plan qualifying under Chapter 11A (commencing with Section 11491) of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Insurance Code, or nonprofit membership corporation lawfully operating under Section 9200 or Section 9201 of the Corporations Code, or a health care service plan as defined under subdivision (f) of Section 1345 of the Health and Safety Code, or a health maintenance organization approved under Title XIII of the federal Public Health Services Act, which is lawfully engaged in providing, arranging, paying for, or reimbursing the cost of personal health services under insurance policies or contracts, medical and hospital service agreements, membership contracts, or the like, in consideration of premiums or other periodic charges payable to it.

(d) "Health benefits plan" means a group insurance policy or contract, medical or hospital service agreement, membership or subscription contract, or similar group arrangement provided by a carrier for the purpose of providing, arranging, paying for, or reimbursing the cost of basic hospital and medical care and for major medical or other comprehensive benefit plans.

(e) "Annuitant" means:

(1) Any person who has retired while an employee and who receives any retirement allowance under any state or University of California retirement system to which the state was a contributing party.

(2) A family member receiving an allowance as the survivor of an annuitant who has retired as provided in subdivision (1), or as the survivor of a deceased employee under Section 21364, 21365.5 or 21382 of this code or similar provisions of any other state retirement system.

(f) "Family member" means an employee's or annuitant's spouse and any unmarried child (including an adopted child, a stepchild, or recognized natural child who lives with the employee or annuitant in a regular parent-child relationship). The board shall, by regulation, prescribe age limits and other conditions and limitations pertaining to unmarried children.

(g) "Employee organization" means an association or other organization of employees in which membership is open to employees or annuitants of the state, and which is not organized solely or principally for the purpose of obtaining prepaid hospital and medical care.

(h) "Contracting agency" means any contracting agency as defined in Section 20010, and any school district, county board of education, personnel commission of a school district or a county superintendent of schools.

(i) "Employer" means the state, any contracting agency employing an employee, and any agency which has elected to become subject to this part pursuant to Section 22856.

If the provisions of this section are in conflict with the provisions of a memorandum of understanding reached pursuant to Section 3517.5, the memorandum of understanding shall be controlling without further legislative action, except that if such provisions of a memorandum of understanding require the expenditure of funds, the provisions shall not become effective unless approved by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act.

SEC. 3. Section 22856 is added to the Government Code, to read:

22856. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a school district, county board of education, personnel commission of a school district, or a county superintendent of schools may, by appropriate resolution, elect to become subject to this part upon all of the following conditions:

(a) Employer contributions for annuitants shall at all times equal employer contributions paid for active employees, and employer contributions shall equal or exceed employer contributions payable under any other plan maintained by such agency.

(b) Such agency shall not maintain another health benefits plan unless such plan complies with the requirements of this part and is equally available to its retired employees and its active employees, and their family members, without discrimination as to benefits, premiums, or employer contributions.

SEC. 4. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 3053 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 22754 of the Government Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 3053, that the amendments to Section 22754 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 22754 in the form set forth in Section 2 of this act. Therefore, Section 2 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 3053 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both amend Section 22754, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 3053, in which case Section 1 of this act shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 903

An act to amend Section 25817 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to radiation control.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25817 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25817. The department shall provide by regulation a ranking of priority for inspection, as determined by the degree of potentially damaging exposure of persons by ionizing radiation, and a schedule of fees, based upon such priority ranking, which shall be paid by persons possessing sources of ionizing radiation which are subject to registration in accordance with subdivision (b) of Section 25815, and regulations adopted pursuant thereto. The revenues derived from such fees shall be used, together with other funds made available therefor, for the purpose of carrying out any inspections of such sources of ionizing radiation required by this chapter or regulations adopted pursuant thereto. The fees shall, together with such other funds made available to the department, be sufficient to cover the costs of administering the provisions of this chapter, and shall be set in amounts intended to cover the costs of administering the provisions of this chapter for each priority source of ionizing radiation but, during the 1978–79 fiscal year, shall not exceed fifty-one dollars ($51) annually for each high-priority source of ionizing radiation, thirty-six dollars ($36) annually for each medium-priority source of ionizing radiation, and twenty-three dollars ($23) annually for each source of ionizing radiation used in dentistry. Revenues generated by such fees shall not offset any general funds appropriated for the support of the radiologic programs authorized pursuant to Chapter 7.4 (commencing with Section 25660) and Chapter 7.6 (commencing with Section 25800) of this division. The department may, however, increase any fee annually by an amount not in excess of 10 percent of the fee for the previous year, but in no event may any fee be increased to exceed the amount necessary to administer this chapter. Persons who pay fees shall not be required to pay, directly or indirectly, for the share of the costs of administering this chapter of those persons for whom fees are waived. Any agreement made pursuant to Section 25810 shall include provisions for the distribution of funds provided for this program proportionate to the services performed by each participating agency. The provisions for the distribution of funds to the participating agencies shall be subject to approval by the Director of Finance for the purpose of insuring an equitable allocation proportionate to the services performed.

Any fees collected during the 1978–79 billing period prior to the effective date of the regulations adopted pursuant to the amendment to this section made at the 1977–78 Regular Session of the Legislature shall be deducted from any new billings resulting from such regulations adopted pursuant to the amendment to this section.

The Legislative Analyst shall report to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1981, with respect to the appropriateness and adequacy of the funding to support the radiation control program, the adequacy of the inspection interval, and the productivity of the inspection personnel.

CHAPTER 904

An act to amend Section 321 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to community child health and disability prevention programs.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 321 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

321. The department shall administer this article and shall adopt minimum standards for the approval of community child health and disability prevention programs and rules and regulations as necessary. Such standards shall allow necessary flexibility in the administration of county programs, taking into account the variability of county needs and resources. However, such standards, rules, and regulations may be adopted only with the advice and written recommendations of the board. Standards shall be adopted for:

(a) Education and experience requirements for directors of community child health and disability prevention programs.

(b) Health screening, evaluation, and diagnostic procedures for child health and disability prevention programs.

(c) Public and private facilities and providers which may participate in community child health and disability prevention programs.

The department shall adopt a five-year state plan for child health and disability prevention services by October 1, 1977. The plan shall include a method for allocating child health and disability prevention funds to counties. The plan shall be reviewed and revised as necessary to provide a basis for allocating state child health and disability prevention program funds throughout the state.

Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting programs provided pursuant to this article from being conducted in public and private school facilities; provided that, with respect to private school facilities, no services provided thereon pursuant to this article and financed by public funds shall result in any material benefit to, or be conducted in a manner which furthers any educational or other mission of, such a school or any person or entity maintaining the school.

CHAPTER 905

An act to repeal Section 14118 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to health.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14118 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

CHAPTER 906

An act to amend Section 14998.7 of the Government Code, relating to Highway Patrol officers, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14998.7 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14998.7. The council may establish fees to be paid for use of state-owned property and state employee services for the purpose of making commercial motion pictures. All fees collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Motion Picture Development Council Account which is hereby created in the Special Deposit Fund for disbursement by the council to reimburse the operating departments for their actual additional costs and for support of the council.

(a) Applications by the Motion Picture Development Council for permission to use state property for making motion pictures shall be made to the Director of General Services who shall, promptly upon receipt of such an application, contact the state agency having jurisdiction over the property specified in the application for the concurrence of such agency in the use of such property. The director shall approve or deny such applications within 30 days. The denial of such an application may be made on the basis of:

(1) State cost in permitting such use would exceed the fee established by the Motion Picture Development Council,

(2) Such use would unduly interfere with the conduct of state business, or

(3) Failure of the permittee to provide full insurance or bond coverage, if required by the Department of General Services, sufficient to reimburse the state for any user-caused damage to the property and to provide adequate personal liability insurance coverage.

In the event that the Director of General Services takes no action on such application within 30 days, the application shall be deemed approved by the Director of General Services. If the Director of General Services determines that he is unable to make a decision within the 30 days and so notifies the Motion Picture Development Council within 25 days of receipt of the application, the director shall then have a total of 45 days from receipt of the application to approve or deny such application. In the event no action is taken by the Director of General Services within such 45-day period, the application shall be deemed approved by the Director of General Services.

Any state agency having management and control over state property, the use of which is sought by such application, shall permit such property to be used for the purpose of making motion pictures upon approval by the Director of General Services and the payment of the fee established by the Motion Picture Development Council.

(b) If in connection with the use of roads, highways, and freeways, the assistance, control, or protection by Highway Patrol officers is desired, applications by the Motion Picture Council or by an entity engaged in agricultural production to utilize services of Highway Patrol officers in the production of motion pictures or the transportation of agricultural commodities shall be made to the Commissioner of the Highway Patrol. The commissioner may approve the application provided that employees are available and the department is fully reimbursed for additional costs incurred. Applications to utilize Highway Patrol employee services shall be approved or disapproved by the commissioner within 30 days of receipt of the application and shall be approved sooner if possible.

CHAPTER 907

An act to amend Section 2192 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to geriatric medicine.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2192 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

Geriatric medicine

Before a physician's and surgeon's license may be issued each applicant must show by evidence satisfactory to the division that he or she has completed a year's service satisfactory to the division in a hospital approved by the division for first-year postgraduate studies. At the discretion of the division, the written examination provided for in Section 2288 may be taken following completion of his or her medical course and prior to the granting of a degree by the school; provided, that a certificate shall not be issued to any applicant until satisfactory evidence is filed with the division that a degree has been issued to him or her by the school. The requirement that instruction in child abuse detection and treatment be provided shall apply only to applicants who matriculate on or after September 1, 1979.

SEC. 2. (a) The California Postsecondary Education Commission shall study the need for and feasibility of establishing an educational and research center for geriatric medicine at one or more schools or colleges of medicine. The commission may request assistance from any source and may contract with consultants to provide any information required by this section.

(b) In order to assist the commission in the performance of its study, there is hereby created a Geriatric Medicine Advisory Committee.

The committee shall be composed of the following members in addition to those which the commission may appoint:

(1) A representative of the University of California, designated by the President of the University of California.

(2) A representative of the independent California colleges and universities which are accredited by a national or regional association which is recognized by the United States Office of Education. This member shall be appointed by the Director of the California Postsecondary Education Commission in consultation with the California Association of Independent Colleges and Universities.

(3) The Chairperson of the California Commission on Aging, or his or her designee.

(4) The Director of Statewide Health Planning and Development or his or her designee.

(c) The study shall assess the establishment of such centers from the point of view of state and national needs and shall include, but shall not be limited to, an examination of the feasibility and usefulness to the delivery of medical services within the state of:

(1) Establishing pilot projects for the study or delivery of medical services in geriatric medicine.

(2) Developing postgraduate training programs in conjunction with health care facilities.

In addition, the study shall develop data on age levels of patients at hospitals to determine exposure levels of persons in postgraduate training to geriatric patients with a view toward devising programs that provide such exposure to geriatric patients during a part of postgraduate training. The study shall also assess related questions, problems, and subjects as the commission considers to be necessary. Further, the study shall project the potential cost to the state of any recommendations and cite any potential alternative sources of funds.

The commission shall present the study to the Legislature not later than January 1, 1980.

SEC. 3. The California Postsecondary Education Commission shall consider the outcome of this initial study as well as the commission's general review of California's health manpower needs in determining the roll of nurse practitioners and physician assistants in the provision of geriatric care and shall report its findings to the Legislature not later than January 1, 1981.

SEC. 4. This act shall become operative on January 1, 1979.

CHAPTER 908

An act to repeal Sections 61373, 61379, 61380, 61386, 61387, 61388, and 61389 of, and to add Section 61386 to, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to milk and dairy products.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 61373 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 61379 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 61380 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 61386 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 61386 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

61386. The director may establish limitation upon the extension of credit by distributors to wholesale customers.

The director may adopt regulations for purposes of carrying out the provisions of this article.

SEC. 6. Section 61387 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 61388 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 61389 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 9. No appropriation is made by this act, nor is any obligation created thereby under Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, for the reimbursement of any local agency for any costs that may be incurred by it in carrying on any program or performing any service required to be carried on or performed by it by this act.

CHAPTER 909

An act to amend Sections 16009, 16012, 16014, 35691, 39311, 39602, 44895, 44905, 45048, 49532, 66904, 68132, 71029, 72333, 74502, 76036, 76320, 78705, 81139, 81836, 81839, 81962, 82130, 84381, 87045, 87334, 87425, 87440, 87449, 87732, 88194, 89301, 89304, 89721, and 89724 of, to add Sections 1273, 58604.5, and 84500.1 to, and to repeal Sections 74524, 76066, and 78452 of, the Education Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1273 is added to the Education Code, to read:

1273. The county superintendent of schools may establish a fund or funds for losses, and payments, including, but not limited to, property of the superintendent, any liability, and workers' compensation, in the county treasury for the purpose of covering the deductible amount under deductible types of insurance policies, losses or payments arising from self-insurance programs, or losses or payments due to noninsured perils. In the fund or funds shall be placed such sums, to be provided in the budget of the superintendent, as will create an amount which, together with investments made from the fund or funds, will be sufficient in the judgment of the superintendent to protect the superintendent from such losses or to provide for payments on the deductible amount under deductible types of insurance policies, losses or payments arising from self-insurance programs, or losses or payments due to noninsured perils. Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting the superintendent from providing protection against such losses or liability for the payment of claims partly by means of the fund or funds and partly by means of insurance written by acceptable insurers as provided in Section 39601.

The fund or funds shall be considered as separate and apart from all other funds of the superintendent, and the balance therein shall not be considered as being part of the working cash of the superintendent in compiling annual budgets.

Warrants may be drawn on, or transfers made from, the fund or funds so created only to reimburse or indemnify the superintendent for losses as herein specified, and for the payment of claims, administrative costs, related services, and to provide for deductible insurance amounts and purchase of excess insurance. Such warrants or transfers shall be within the purpose of the fund or funds as established by the superintendent.

The cash placed in the fund or funds may be invested and reinvested by the county treasurer, with the advice and consent of the superintendent, in securities which are legal investments for surplus county funds in this state. The income derived from such investments, together with interest earned on uninvested funds, shall be considered revenue of and be deposited in the fund. The cost of contracts or services authorized by this section are appropriate charges against the respective fund.

The superintendent may contract for investigative, administrative, and claims adjustment services relating to claims. The contract may provide that the contracting firm may reject, settle, compromise and approve claims against the superintendent, its officers or employees, within such limits and for such amounts as the superintendent may specify, and may provide that the contracting firm may execute and issue checks in payment of such claims, which checks shall be payable only from a trust account which may be established by the superintendent. Funds in the trust account established by the superintendent pursuant to the provisions of this section shall not exceed a sum sufficient as determined by the superintendent to provide for the settlement of claims for a 30-day period. The rejection or settlement and approval of a claim by the contracting firm in accordance with the terms of the contract shall have the same effect as would the rejection or settlement and approval of such a claim by the superintendent. The contract may also provide that the contracting firm may employ legal counsel, subject to such terms and limitations as the superintendent may prescribe, to advise such contracting firm concerning the legality and advisability of rejecting, settling, compromising and paying claims referred to the contracting firm by the superintendent for investigation and adjustment, or to represent the superintendent in litigation concerning such claims. The compensation and expenses of such attorney for services rendered to the superintendent shall be an appropriate charge against the appropriate fund.

The contract provided for in this section may contain such other terms and conditions as the superintendent may consider necessary or desirable to effectuate the superintendent's self-insured programs.

In lieu of, or in addition to, contracting for the services described in this section, the superintendent may authorize an employee or employees to perform any or all of the services and functions which the superintendent may contract for under the provisions of this section.

As used in this section, "firm" includes a person, corporation, or other legal entity.

A county superintendent of schools may participate in, or administer, insurance for one or more school or community college districts pursuant to this section, and Sections 39602 and 81602.

SEC. 2. Section 16009 of the Education Code is amended to read:

16009. In addition to such other powers and duties as are granted the board by this chapter, the board shall:

(a) Establish such qualifications not in conflict with other provisions of this chapter as it deems will best serve the purposes of this chapter for determining the eligibility of school districts to apportionments of funds under this chapter.

(b) Establish such procedures and policies in connection with the administration of, and the expenditure of funds made available for the purpose of, this chapter as it deems necessary and which are not in conflict with the powers and duties of the Department of Education or, of the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges, or of the director granted or imposed by this chapter.

(c) Adopt such rules and regulations for the administration of this chapter, requiring such procedure, forms, and information, as it may deem necessary.

SEC. 2.5. Section 16012 of the Education Code is amended to read:

16012. The board shall prescribe instructions specifying the manner in which property, real or personal, being replaced through the apportionment, shall be disposed of, and compliance with the instructions shall be a condition upon the making of the apportionment. The net proceeds derived from such a disposition shall be contributed in reduction of any apportionment. Any school district affected shall comply with instructions prescribed by the board. The board may require a district to transfer to the state, by any instruments deemed appropriate by the board, title to any such property, whereupon, the board shall dispose of the property in any manner it deems appropriate to insure the highest return to the state, and apply the proceeds therefrom in reduction of apportionments to the district. The district affected shall do all things deemed necessary by the board to implement such disposition. Whenever the board determines it to be in the best interests of the state, an apportionment may be made for the demolition of any facilities replaced through an apportionment. The provisions of this section shall be applicable to property replaced by apportionments heretofore or hereafter made under this chapter or Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 15700) of this part.

SEC. 3. Section 16014 of the Education Code is amended to read:

16014. Apportionment from the State School Building Aid Fund to school districts shall be made in the manner and subject to the conditions herein provided and in accordance with policies adopted by the board, for the following purposes, all of which purposes are hereby declared to be, and are, public works: (a) the purchase and improvement of school sites which have been approved by the State Department of Education or the board of governors, each within its own jurisdiction; (b) the purchase of necessary desks, tables, chairs and other movable furniture and equipment, as approved by the Department of Education; or the board of governors, each within its own jurisdiction; and (c) the planning and construction, reconstruction, alteration of, the moving of portable classroom buildings on an existing site or to another school site, and addition to, school buildings, including built-in or fixed equipment, for such facilities as are approved by the Department of Education or the board of governors each within its own jurisdiction as essential, except (1) a room used solely for an auditorium for a school of any type or class and (2) a room used solely for a gymnasium or a room used solely for a cafeteria for elementary schools. This section does not prohibit the Department of Education or the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges from approving multipurpose rooms which are rooms designed to be used for two or more of the following purposes:

(a) Classroom
(b) Auditorium
(c) Gymnasium
(d) Cafeteria
(e) Such other purposes as the district requires which are approved by the Department of Education or the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges.

Where a district is required by a contract entered into between itself and a contractor, to obtain at its own expense insurance covering risks incurred during any construction, reconstruction or alteration for which an apportionment has been made, the cost thereof may be paid either directly, or by way of reimbursement, to said district out of said apportionment, or out of any apportionment made specifically covering such insurance; provided, that in other respects said apportionments are eligible for payment under provisions of this chapter.

In addition to the foregoing, the board may make an apportionment to a school district for the purchase from another school district of existing facilities, real or personal, including the site thereof, or any portion of any of the foregoing, providing that the board finds (1) that it is economical and good practice on the part of the acquiring district to purchase the same, and (2) that the consideration to be paid in the light of all the circumstances surrounding the transfer is fair and equitable both to the acquiring district and to the state.

SEC. 3.5. Section 35691 of the Education Code is amended to read:

35691. An action to transfer inhabited territory from an elementary, or unified district to another elementary, or unified district is initiated upon the filing with the county superintendent of schools of a petition for transfer signed by either:

(a) Twenty-five percent of the registered electors residing in the territory proposed to be transferred, or

(b) A majority of the members of the governing board of each school district affected by the proposed change.

A petition to be presented to electors for signature pursuant to subdivision (a) shall contain the proponent's statement of the reason or reasons for the proposed transfer.

SEC. 4. Section 39311 of the Education Code is amended to read:

39311. In lieu of calling an election pursuant to Section 39308, the governing board of a school district may call an election pursuant to this section. Within 10 days after the governing board has opened the proposals pursuant to Section 39314 or has adopted a resolution pursuant to Section 39315 it may accept a proposal, if proceeding under Section 39314, and execute the lease or agreement, and immediately thereafter call an election pursuant to this section.

The governing board of the district shall call, hold, and conduct an election in the manner provided in Section 42202, except that the ballot used in the election shall contain substantially the words: "Shall the governing board of the _____ District lease [a site (sites) and] a building [buildings] to be constructed for use by the school district [designating the location of the site or sites on which the building or buildings will be constructed, and generally describing the building or buildings and the cost thereof], and, for such purposes, shall the maximum tax rate of the district be increased by not to exceed _____, such increase to be in effect in the _____ District for the years 19____ to _____, be authorized and the amount of such increase used solely and exclusively for such purposes?"

SEC. 4.5. Section 39602 of the Education Code is amended to read:

39602. The governing board of any school district may, by resolution, establish a fund or funds for losses, and payments, including, but not limited to, school district property, any liability, and workers' compensation, in the county treasury for the purpose of covering the deductible amount under deductible types of insurance policies, losses or payments arising from self-insurance programs, or losses or payments due to noninsured perils. In the fund or funds shall be placed such sums, to be provided in the budget of the school district, as will create an amount which, together with investments made from the fund or funds, will be sufficient in the judgment of the governing board to protect the school district from such losses or to provide for payments on the deductible amount under deductible types of insurance policies, losses or payments arising from self-insurance programs, or losses or payments due to noninsured perils. Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting the governing board from providing protection against such losses or liability for the payment of claims partly by means of the fund or funds and partly by means of insurance written by acceptable insurers as provided in Section 39601.

The fund or funds shall be considered as separate and apart from all other funds of the school district, and the balance therein shall not be considered as being part of the working cash of the school district in compiling annual budgets.

Warrants may be drawn on or transfers made from the fund or funds so created only to reimburse or indemnify the school district for losses as herein specified, and for the payment of claims, administrative costs, related services, and to provide for deductible insurance amounts and purchase of excess insurance. Such warrants or transfers shall be within the purpose of the fund or funds as established by resolution of the governing board.

The cash placed in the fund or funds may be invested and reinvested by the county treasurer, with the advice and consent of the governing board of the school district, in securities which are legal investments for surplus county funds in this state. The income derived from such investments, together with interest earned on uninvested funds, shall be considered revenue of and be deposited in the fund. The cost of contracts or services authorized by this section are appropriate charges against the respective fund.

The governing board may contract for investigative, administrative, and claims adjustment services relating to claims. The contract may provide that the contracting firm may reject, settle, compromise and approve claims against the district, its officers or employees, within such limits and for such amounts as the governing board may specify, and may provide that the contracting firm may execute and issue checks in payment of such claims, which checks shall be payable only from a trust account which may be established by the governing board. Funds in the trust account established by the board pursuant to the provisions of this section shall not exceed a sum sufficient as determined by the governing board to provide for the settlement of claims for a 30-day period. The rejection or settlement and approval of a claim by the contracting firm in accordance with the terms of the contract shall have the same effect as would the rejection or settlement and approval of such a claim by the governing board. The contract may also provide that the contracting firm may employ legal counsel, subject to such terms and limitations as the board may prescribe, to advise such contracting firm concerning the legality and advisability of rejecting, settling, compromising and paying claims referred to the contracting firm by the board for investigation and adjustment, or to represent the board in litigation concerning such claims. The compensation and expenses of such attorney for services rendered to the board shall be an appropriate charge against the appropriate fund.

The contract provided for in this section may contain such other terms and conditions as the governing board may consider necessary or desirable to effectuate the board's self-insured programs.

In lieu of, or in addition to, contracting for the services described in this section, the governing board may authorize an employee or employees to perform any or all of the services and functions which the board may contract for under the provisions of this section.

As used in this section, "firm" includes a person, corporation, or other legal entity, including a county superintendent of schools.

A county superintendent of schools may participate in or administer insurance for one or more school districts pursuant to this section or for one or more community college districts pursuant to Section 81602, for any combination of school districts and community college districts pursuant to this section and Section 81602.

SEC. 5. Section 44895 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44895. A permanent employee, as specified in Section 44894, when advanced to an administrative or supervisory position requiring certification qualifications, or assigned any special or other type of work requiring certification qualifications, or given special classification or designation requiring certification qualifications, shall retain his permanent classification as specified in Section 44894.

If such a person is advanced to an administrative or supervisory position not requiring certification qualifications, is assigned any special or other type of work not requiring certification qualifications, or is given special classification or designation not requiring certification qualifications, his right to retain permanent classification shall be governed by the provisions of Article 3 (commencing with Section 44060) of Chapter 1 of this part.

SEC. 6. Section 44905 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44905. Nothing in Sections 44882 to 44891, inclusive, Sections 44893 to 44900, inclusive, Sections 44901 to 44906, inclusive, and Sections 44908 to 44919, inclusive, shall be construed as affecting any permanent employee classified as such on August 14, 1931. No decrease in the average daily attendance of any school district shall operate to deprive any permanent employee of the district of his classification.

SEC. 7. Section 45048 of the Education Code is amended to read:

45048. Each salary payment for any calendar month may be made on the last working day of the month and shall be paid not earlier than the last working day of the month and not later than the fifth day of the succeeding calendar month except that teachers employed for less than full time in classes for adults, in a day or evening high school, or in a special day or evening class maintained in connection with an elementary school shall be paid on or before the 10th day of the succeeding calendar month for services performed during the preceding calendar month.

If the school district provides for the payment of the salary of employees employed in positions requiring certification qualifications once each two weeks, twice a month, or once each four weeks, pursuant to Section 45038, each salary payment may be made on the last working day of the payroll period and shall be made not earlier than the last working day of the payroll period and not later than the eighth working day of the following payroll period.

This section shall not prohibit a school district from making a payment of earned salary prior to the last working day of the month or payroll period.

SEC. 8. Section 58604.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

58604.5. It is the intent and purpose of the Legislature that exemplary programs be established for intensive instruction in reading and mathematics to serve as demonstration projects aimed solely at developing, within pupils, above-average competence in these basic skill subjects. The program shall be developed to serve pupils in grade 7, 8, or 9 who attend school in designated areas of disadvantage, and who otherwise would find difficulty in achieving complete success in high school.

It is the further intent of the Legislature that these programs in intensive instruction in reading and mathematics be operated by school districts directly, or by school districts through contract for partial or complete operation with any competent public or private agency, foundation or corporation. It is also the intent of the Legislature that authority be granted to permit the waiver of any provision of this code by the program approving agency, if such is necessary for the development of model demonstration programs in the intensive instruction in reading and mathematics.

SEC. 8.5. Section 49532 of the Education Code is amended to read:

49532. Any child nutrition entity which has inadequate or no food preparation facilities as determined by the Department of Education, and is, therefore, unable to provide a nutritionally adequate breakfast or lunch, or both, may contract for the preparation, delivery, and service of such meals.

SEC. 9. Section 66904 of the Education Code is amended to read:

66904. It is the intent of the Legislature that sites for new institutions or branches of the University of California and the California State University and Colleges, and such classes of off-campus centers as the commission shall determine, shall not be authorized or acquired unless recommended by the commission.

It is further the intent of the Legislature that California community colleges shall not receive state funds for acquisition of sites or construction of new institutions, branches, or off-campus centers unless recommended by the commission. Acquisition or construction of nonstate-funded community college institutions, branches, and off-campus centers, and proposals for such acquisition or construction shall be reported to and may be reviewed and commented upon by the commission.

It is further the intent of the Legislature that existing, or new institutions of public education, other than those described in subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 66010 shall not be authorized to offer instruction beyond the 14th grade level.

All proposals for new postsecondary educational programs shall be forwarded to the commission for review together with such supporting materials and documents as the commission may specify. The commission shall review such proposals within a reasonable length of time, which time shall not exceed 60 days following submission of the program and the specified materials and documents. For the purposes of this section, "new postsecondary educational programs" means all proposals for new schools or colleges, all series of courses arranged in a scope or sequence leading to (1) a graduate or undergraduate degree, or (2) a certificate of a type defined by the commission, which have not appeared in a segment's or district's academic plan within the previous two years, and all proposals for new research institutes or centers which have not appeared in a segment's or district's academic plan within the previous two years.

It is further the intent of the Legislature that the advice of the commission be utilized in reaching decisions on requests for funding new and continuing graduate and professional programs, enrollment levels, and capital outlay for existing and new campuses, colleges, and off-campus centers.

SEC. 10. Section 68132 of the Education Code is amended to read:

68132. A person in continuous attendance at an institution who had resident classification on May 1, 1973, shall not lose such classification as a result of this chapter until the attainment of the degree for which he or she was then currently enrolled.

SEC. 11. Section 71029 of the Education Code is amended to read:

71029. The board of governors shall prescribe regulations under which contracts, agreements or arrangements may be made with agencies of the federal government for funds, services, commodities or equipment to be made available to schools of the community college system.

SEC. 12. Section 72333 of the Education Code is amended to read:

72333. Persons employed and compensated as members of a police department of a community college district, when appointed and duly sworn, are peace officers, as defined by Section 830.3 of the Penal Code, but only for the purpose of carrying out the duties of their employment.

SEC. 13. Section 74502 of the Education Code is amended to read:

74502. The petition shall be signed by 25 percent of the registered electors residing in the component district or by the governing board of the community college district of which the component district is a part.

SEC. 14. Section 74524 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 15. Section 76036 of the Education Code is amended to read:

76036. Any governing board may enforce the provisions of Section 72231 by suspending, or, if necessary, expelling a student in any community college who refuses or neglects to obey any rules prescribed pursuant to that section.

SEC. 16. Section 76066 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 17. Section 76320 of the Education Code is amended to read:

76320. In classes for adults, a day of attendance is 180 minutes of attendance but no student shall be credited with more than 15 clock hours of attendance during any one school week unless he is enrolled in a class in elementary subjects, a class for which high school credit is given, a class in English for foreigners, a class in citizenship, or a class in a trade or industrial subject as defined by the chancellor's office for community colleges.

SEC. 17.5. Section 78452 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 18. Section 78705 of the Education Code is amended to read:

78705. The board of governors shall promote and direct special instruction in the community colleges for physically handicapped students. They may employ such professional and other personnel as are necessary for this purpose, and may perform such other duties as are necessary to give full effect to this article (commencing at Section 78701).

SEC. 18.5. Section 81139 of the Education Code is amended to read:

81139. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (c) or (d), persons employed as inspectors of record to inspect the construction, reconstruction or alteration of any school building shall be either (1) persons who are registered as construction inspectors in the divisions in which they are to be used, as defined by Section 9101 of the Business and Professions Code or (2) persons who are regularly employed for building code enforcement by the local agency having responsibility for such inspection, and are qualified to perform such inspections under the civil service laws or regulations of such local agency.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (c) or (d), persons employed as assistants to inspectors of record shall be registered construction inspectors or shall be enrolled as inspectors-in-training in the divisions in which they are to be used, as defined by Section 9101.1 of the Business and Professions Code.

(c) Subdivisions (a) and (b) shall not apply to any architect, structural engineer, civil engineer, land surveyor, mechanical engineer, engineering geologist, or electrical engineer, who holds a valid certificate of registration in this state, insofar as he is practicing within the provisions of the law under which he is registered.

(d) Subdivisions (a) and (b) shall not apply to an inspector approved by the Office of Architecture and Construction and employed pursuant to a particular building contract prior to January 1, 1980, during the performance of that building contract.

SEC. 19. Section 81836 of the Education Code is amended to read:

81836. The chancellor shall:

(a) Advise the governing board of each community college district on the acquisition of new college sites, and, after a review of available plots, give the governing board of the district in writing a list of the approved locations in the order of their merit, considering especially the matters of educational merit, reduction of traffic hazards, and conformity to the organized regional plans as presented in the master plan of the planning commission having jurisdiction, and charge the governing board of the community college district a fee of twenty-five dollars ($25) for each 10 acres or fraction thereof of school site reviewed.

(b) Establish standards for community college facilities.

(c) Review all plans and specifications for all construction in every community college district required to submit plans and specifications therefor to the chancellor for approval.

The chancellor's office shall charge community college districts for the review of plans and specifications, a fee of one-seventh of 1 percent of the estimated cost determined by the chancellor's office except for those projects intended to be funded totally with district funds in which case a fee of one-twentieth of 1 percent will be charged. The minimum fee in any case shall be ten dollars ($10).

(d) Approve plans and specifications submitted by governing boards of community college districts, and return without approval and with recommendation for changes, any plans not conforming to established standards.

(e) Make, upon the request of the governing board of any community college district, except a city board of education, a survey of the building needs of the district, advise the governing board concerning the building needs, suggest plans for financing a building program to meet the needs, and collect the cost of the survey, exclusive of the salaries of the state employees participating therein, from the district.

(f) Employ experts, and clerical and stenographic assistants as may be required for expediting the checking and approving of plans and specifications.

SEC. 20. Section 81839 of the Education Code is amended to read:

81839. Notwithstanding Section 81838, the relative district ability of a community college district formed after June 30, 1964, from territory other than that which included a unified or high school district which maintained a community college, or a community college district, shall be computed according to one of the following: (1) for a district which became effective for all purposes between June 30, 1964, and June 30, 1967, by dividing the 1968–1969 assessed valuation of the district by the 1974–1975 projected enrolled weekly student contact hours of the district, or (2) for a district which became effective for all purposes between July 1, 1967, inclusive, and June 30, 1969, the lesser dividend of the 1968–1969 assessed valuation of the district divided by the 1975–1976 projected enrolled weekly student contact hours of the district, or the projected enrolled weekly student contact hours of the district five years from the semester or quarter during which day classes are first offered, or (3) for a district which becomes effective for all purposes after June 30, 1969, by dividing the assessed valuation of the district by the projected enrolled weekly student contact hours of the district five years from the semester or quarter during which day classes are first offered.

Relative district ability shall be computed pursuant to Section 81838 for fiscal year 1975–1976 and each year thereafter for a district which became effective for all purposes between June 30, 1964, and June 30, 1967, and for the sixth fiscal year after day classes are first offered and each year thereafter for a district which became effective for all purposes on July 1, 1967, inclusive and thereafter.

The projected enrolled weekly student contact hours for purposes of this section shall be determined by the Department of Finance in cooperation with the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges and the community college district affected.

Expenditures made by a district during the 1969–1970 fiscal year for projects approved or approvable pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 81800) of this part which exceeds that required for local expenditure for such projects by the matching ratio established by provisions of this section shall be allowed as local matching funds for projects approved for the fiscal years 1970–1971 to 1975–1976, inclusive.

SEC. 21. Section 81962 of the Education Code is amended to read:

81962. All revenues received from the operation of any project acquired or constructed by the board under the provisions of this chapter shall be transmitted by the board at least once in every calendar month, to the county treasurer. On order of the county auditor, the county treasurer shall deposit such revenues in the county treasury to the credit of the community college dormitory revenue fund of the district, which fund is hereby created in each county treasury for each district in the county issuing bonds under this chapter. Moneys in the community college dormitory revenue fund shall be used to pay the costs of operation and maintenance of the projects authorized by this chapter, including refunds authorized by Section 81957, to provide the amounts required for interest and redemption of bonds as provided in this chapter, and for any other purposes authorized by resolution of the board, subject to any restrictions provided by law or the indenture.

SEC. 22. Section 82130 of the Education Code is amended to read:

82130. For each community college district eligible to receive a tentative entitlement, the chancellor, within 30 days after the deadline date for submitting applications, shall compute an entitlement by:

(a) Dividing the average assessed valuation per estimated unit of average daily attendance in growth for a two-year period in all community college districts in the state eligible to receive a tentative entitlement by the assessed valuation per estimated unit of growth for a two-year period in the district as determined by Section 82122.

(b) Multiplying the quotient derived under subdivision (a) by the estimated units of average daily attendance in growth for a two-year period in the district as determined by Section 82122.

(c) Multiplying the product derived for each community college district under subdivision (b) by one-fourth of the average cost of providing community college facilities. If the total of these products is more than ten million dollars ($10,000,000), it shall be deemed to be only ten million dollars ($10,000,000) and adjustments made for each community college district.

(d) Dividing the average assessed valuation per unit of the two-year projection of average daily attendance in all community college districts in the state eligible to receive a tentative entitlement by the assessed valuation per unit of the two-year projection of average daily attendance in the district as determined by Section 82124. It is further provided that all equalization factors below .5 shall be deemed to be .5 and all equalization factors above 3.0 shall be deemed to be 3.0.

(e) Multiplying the quotient derived under subdivision (d) by the two-year projection of average daily attendance in the district as determined by Section 82124.

(f) Computing the total of the products derived under subdivision (e) for each community college district.

(g) Dividing the difference between twenty million dollars ($20,000,000) and the total of the products derived under subdivision (c) by the total of the products derived under subdivision (f).

(h) Multiplying the quotient derived under subdivision (g) by the product derived under subdivision (e).

(i) Computing the total for each community college district of the products derived under subdivision (c) and subdivision (h).

This total is the maximum tentative entitlement for each community college district and shall constitute a reservation of funds for each eligible applicant district.

SEC. 23. Section 84381 of the Education Code is amended to read:

84381. There is hereby created in the State Treasury the Community College Fund for Instructional Improvement. The fund shall consist of a revolving loan program and a direct grant program to support alternative educational programs and services, including:

(a) Nontraditional forms, content, and methods of instruction, such as:

(1) Instructional programs which involve internships and experiential learning opportunities;

(2) Individualized instructional programs which require student development of learning objectives through learning contracts;

(3) Instructional programs which focus on the development of interpersonal skills;

(4) Instructional programs involving independent study;

(b) Programs for improving teaching abilities of faculty members;

(c) Programs addressing special learning needs of educationally disadvantaged students;

(d) Educational services for new clientele, including older, working adults; and

(e) Efforts to improve traditional instructional programs.

SEC. 24. Section 84500.1 is added to the Education Code, to read:

84500.1. No community college district shall report for attendance or average daily attendance to the board of governors for apportionment any classes: (1) if the district receives full compensation for direct education costs for such class from any public or private agency, individual or group of individuals, or (2) if such classes are not located in facilities clearly identified in such a manner, and established by appropriate procedures, to insure that attendance in such classes is open to the general public, except those authorized pursuant to Section 78440 and those in state hospitals.

The Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges may adopt such regulations as may be necessary to enforce this section.

SEC. 25. Section 87045 of the Education Code is amended to read:

87045. A classified employee currently employed by any community college district which decides to maintain classes on Saturday or Sunday, or both, shall not, without his or her written consent, be required to change his or her workweek to include Saturday or Sunday, or both. No such classified employee shall be assigned to perform services on a Saturday or Sunday if such classified employee objects in writing that such assignment would conflict with his or her religious beliefs or practices. Enactment of this section shall cause no change or disruption in existing work schedules which may already include Saturday or Sunday as regular workdays.

This section shall not be construed as limiting the power of any governing board of a community college district to govern the schools of the district, including the assignment of classified employees employed by such district.

This section shall not be construed as modifying or otherwise affecting in any way the provisions of Section 88026, 88027, or 88030, or any other provisions of this code relating to employment of classified employees.

SEC. 26. Section 87334 of the Education Code is amended to read:

87334. Upon the becoming final of the conviction of the holder of any credential issued by the board of governors, or State Board of Education of a violation, or attempted violation, of any one or more of Penal Code Sections 187 to 191, 192 insofar as said section relates to voluntary manslaughter, 193, 194 to 232, both inclusive, 244, 245, 261 to 267, both inclusive, 273a, 273f, 273g, 278, 285 to 288a, both inclusive, 424, 425, 484 to 488, both inclusive, insofar as said sections relate to felony convictions, 503 and 504, or of Penal Code Section 272, the board of governors shall forthwith revoke the credential.

SEC. 27. Section 87425 of the Education Code is amended to read:

87425. The governing board of a community college district may, for the purposes of providing bilingual instruction, foreign language instruction, or cultural enrichment, in the colleges of the district, subject to the rules and regulations of the board of governors conclude arrangements with the proper authorities of any foreign country, or of any state, territory, or possession of the United States, for the hiring of bilingual instructors employed in public or private schools of any foreign country, state, territory, or possession. To be eligible for employment the instructor must speak English fluently. Any persons so employed pursuant to this section shall be known as a "sojourn certificated employee."

No person may be hired as a sojourn certificated employee by a community college district unless he or she holds the necessary valid credential or credentials issued by the board of governors authorizing service in a position requiring certification qualifications in the community college district proposing to employ him or her. Such person may be employed only for a period not to exceed two years, except that thereafter such period of employment may be extended from year to year for a total period of not more than five years upon verification by the employing district that termination of such employment would adversely affect an existing bilingual or foreign language program or program of cultural enrichment and that attempts to secure the employment of a certificated California instructor qualified to fill such position have been unsuccessful. The board of governors shall establish minimum standards for the credentials for sojourn certificated employees.

SEC. 28. Section 87440 of the Education Code is amended to read:

87440. The qualifications for a physician employed to serve on a halftime or greater than halftime basis shall be a valid certificate to practice medicine and surgery issued by the State Board of Medical Examiners or Board of Osteopathic Examiners and either a services credential with a specialization in health or a valid credential issued prior to November 23, 1970. The qualifications for a physician employed for less than halftime shall be a valid certificate to practice medicine and surgery issued by the State Board of Medical Examiners. Any community college district may employ and compensate a physician meeting the foregoing qualifications for the performance of medical services for the district and shall provide liability insurance coverage for the period of the physician's employment.

As used in this section "medical services" includes, but is not limited to, any medical services required to be performed while required to be in attendance at community college athletic contests or meets.

SEC. 29. Section 87449 of the Education Code is amended to read:

87449. When an instructor of classes for adults serves sufficient probationary time as provided in Section 87468 to be eligible for election to permanent classification in that district, his tenure shall be for such service as is equivalent to the average number of hours per week which he has served during his probationary years. In no case shall such an employee be classified as permanent for more than one full-time assignment. The service for which such a person has acquired tenure may be reduced in conformity with Sections 87743 and 87744.

SEC. 30. Section 87732 of the Education Code is amended to read:

87732. No regular employee shall be dismissed except for one or more of the following causes:

(a) Immoral or unprofessional conduct.

(b) Commission, aiding, or advocating the commission of acts of criminal syndicalism, as prohibited by Chapter 188, Statutes of 1919, or in any amendment thereof.

(c) Dishonesty.

(d) Incompetency.

(e) Evident unfitness for service.

(f) Physical or mental condition unfitting him to instruct or associate with children.

(g) Persistent violation of or refusal to obey the school laws of the state or reasonable regulations prescribed for the government of the public schools by the board of governors or by the governing board of the community college district employing him.

(h) Conviction of a felony or of any crime involving moral turpitude.

(i) Conduct specified in Section 1028 of the Government Code, added by Chapter 1418 of the Statutes of 1947.

(j) Violation of any provision in Sections 7000 to 7007, inclusive.

(k) Knowing membership by the employee in the Communist Party.

SEC. 31. Section 88194 of the Education Code is amended to read:

88194. Every person employed in the classified service of any community college district shall be granted necessary leave of absence, not to exceed three days, or five days if out-of-state travel is required, on account of the death of any member of his immediate family. No deduction shall be made from the salary of such employee nor shall such leave be deducted from leave granted by other sections of this code or provided by the governing board of the district. The governing board may enlarge the benefits of this section and may expand the class of relatives listed below as members of the immediate family. Members of the immediate family, as used in this section, means the mother, father, grandmother, grandfather, or a grandchild of the employee or of the spouse of the employee, and the spouse, son, son-in-law, daughter, daughter-in-law, brother, or sister of the employee, or any relative living in the immediate household of the employee.

This section shall apply to districts that have adopted the merit system in the same manner and effect as if it were a part of Article 3 (commencing with Section 88060) of this chapter

SEC. 32. Section 89301 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89301. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, except as provided pursuant to Section 89707.5 with respect to nonresident students who are citizens and residents of a foreign country and who are not citizens of the United States, student body organization membership fees authorized under the provisions of Section 89300 hereof shall be collected by the officials of the campus of the California State University and Colleges, together with all tuition and material and service fees, at the time of registration, except where a student loan or grant from a recognized training program or student aid program has been delayed and there is reasonable proof that the funds will be forthcoming. Exception may also be made where changes are made during the change of program period which result in a higher fee category than paid at the time of registration. All unexpended funds and money collected on behalf of or by student body organizations, except funds and money collected from commercial services as provided in Section 89905, shall, with the approval of an appropriate officer of the student body organization, be deposited in trust by the chief fiscal officer of the campus and such money shall, subject to the approval of the trustees, be deposited or invested in any one or more of the following ways:

(a) Deposits in trust accounts of the centralized State Treasury system pursuant to Sections 16305 to 16305.7, inclusive, of the Government Code or in the California State University and Colleges Trust Fund or in a bank or banks whose accounts are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

(b) Investment certificates or withdrawable shares in state-chartered savings and loan associations and savings accounts of federal savings and loan associations; provided such associations are doing business in this state and have their accounts insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation; and provided further that any money so invested or deposited is invested or deposited in certificates, shares, or accounts fully covered by such insurance.

(c) Purchase of any of the securities authorized for investment by Section 16430 of the Government Code or investment by the State Treasurer in those securities.

(d) Participation in funds which are exempt from federal income tax pursuant to Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and which are open exclusively to nonprofit colleges, universities, and independent schools.

(e) Investment certificates or withdrawable shares in federal or state credit unions; provided such credit unions are doing business in this state and have their accounts insured by the National Credit Union Administration; and provided further that any money so invested or deposited is invested or deposited in certificates, shares, or accounts fully covered by such insurance.

All moneys received by a state university or college from any agency of the state or federal government for the payment of student body organizations membership fees of students attending the university or college shall be deposited or invested as provided above.

SEC. 33. Section 89304 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89304. Upon the favorable vote of two-thirds of the students voting in an election held for the purpose at a state college, in such manner as the trustees shall prescribe, and open to all regular students enrolled in the university or college, the trustees are authorized to fix, in addition to any other student fee the trustees are authorized to fix, a building and operating fee not to exceed twenty dollars ($20) per student per academic year which shall be required of all students attending the university or college. All unexpended funds and money collected by any state college under this section shall be available for financing, operating and constructing a student body center, and until so used, shall, subject to the approval of the trustees, be deposited or invested in trust by the chief fiscal officer of that university or college in any one or more of the following ways:

(a) Deposits in trust accounts of the centralized State Treasury system pursuant to Sections 16305 to 16305.7, inclusive, of the Government Code or in the State Colleges Trust Fund or in a bank or banks whose accounts are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

(b) Investment certificates or withdrawable shares in state-chartered savings and loan associations and savings accounts of federal savings and loan associations; provided such associations are doing business in this state and have their accounts insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation.

(c) Purchase of any of the securities authorized for investment by Section 16430 of the Government Code or investment by the State Treasurer in those securities.

(d) Participation in funds which are exempt from federal income tax pursuant to Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and which are open exclusively to nonprofit colleges, universities, and independent schools.

(e) Investment certificates or withdrawable shares in federal or state credit unions; provided such credit unions are doing business in this state and have their accounts insured by the National Credit Union Administration; and provided further that any money so invested or deposited is invested or deposited in certificates, shares, or accounts fully covered by such insurance.

The chief fiscal officer of each college shall be custodian of those moneys and provide the necessary accounting records and controls thereof.

The state university or college shall be reimbursed from these funds in an amount to cover the cost of the custodial and accounting services provided by the university or college in connection with these funds.

These funds may be expended by the custodian only upon the submission of an appropriate claim schedule by an elected representative of the student body or his appointee.

SEC. 34. Section 89721 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89721. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the chief fiscal officer of each campus of the California State University and Colleges shall deposit into and maintain in local trust accounts or in trust accounts in accordance with the provisions of Sections 16305 to 16305.7, inclusive, of the Government Code, or in the California State University and Colleges Trust Fund, moneys received in connection with the following sources or purposes:

(a) Gifts, bequests, devises, and donations received under Section 89720.

(b) Any student loan or scholarship fund program, including but not limited to, student loan programs of the state, federal government (including programs referred to in Section 89723), local government, or private sources.

(c) Advance payment for anticipated expenditures or encumbrances in connection with federal grants or contracts.

(d) Room, board, and similar expenses of students enrolled in the international program of the California State University and Colleges.

(e) Cafeteria replacement funds.

(f) Miscellaneous receipts in the nature of deposits subject to return upon approval of a proper application.

(g) Fees and charges for services and materials authorized by Section 89700 where such fees or charges are required of those persons who, at their option, use the services or are provided the materials, for which the fees or charges are made. Fees and charges so received and deposited shall be used solely to meet the costs of providing such services and materials

SEC. 35. Section 89724 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89724 (a) All money received from the sale of publications pursuant to Section 90500, all money received under an agreement entered into pursuant to Section 89036, and except as to the fees and charges specified in subdivision (g) of Section 89721, all money collected as fees from students in any state university or college and from other persons under Section 89030, Sections 89036 to 89040, inclusive, and Sections 89700, 89705, 89708, 89709, 89720, and 89721, and by reason of Section 2080.9 of the Civil Code, is hereby appropriated for the support of the California State University and Colleges in addition to such other amounts as may be appropriated therefor by the Legislature. Money received under Sections 89720 and 89721, or received by reason of Section 2080.9 of the Civil Code, is appropriated without regard to fiscal year; provided, that money received by reason of Section 2080.9 of the Civil Code shall be used for student scholarships and loans pursuant to such regulations as the trustees shall provide, and while held pending the grant of a scholarship or loan, may be invested by the State Treasurer upon approval of the trustees, in those eligible securities listed in Section 16430 of the Government Code. All interest or other earnings received pursuant to such investment shall also be used for such scholarships and loans; and provided further, that money received by reason of Sections 89720 and 89721 may be invested by the State Treasurer upon approval of the trustees, in those eligible securities listed in Section 16430 of the Government Code, in which case all interest and other earnings received pursuant to such investment shall also be used for such purposes as may be established by the trustees consistent with the terms and conditions of the gift, bequest, devise, donation, or agreement under Sections 89720 and 89721. Except as otherwise provided with respect to money received by reason of Section 2080.9 of the Civil Code and Sections 89720 and 89721 of the Education Code, all money received pursuant to this section shall augment the support appropriation to the California State University and Colleges for the fiscal year to which the collections apply.

(b) All money received from the sale or the disposition of real property acquired by or on behalf of a particular state university or college by gift, devise, or donation pursuant to Section 89720 or pursuant to the predecessor of that section is hereby appropriated to the trustees for expenditure for capital outlay for the acquisition and improvement of real property for such particular state university or college, in addition to such other amounts as may be appropriated therefor by the Legislature. All money received from the sale or other disposition of personal property, other than money, acquired by or on behalf of a particular state university or college by gift, bequest, or donation pursuant to Section 89720 or pursuant to the predecessor of that section is hereby appropriated to the trustees for expenditure for capital outlay for, or the acquisition and improvement of real or personal property for, such particular state university or college, in addition to such other amounts as may be appropriated therefor by the Legislature. No money shall be expended by the trustees under this subdivision without the approval of the Director of Finance. Such money shall augment such support or capital outlay appropriation of the California State University and Colleges current at the date of issuance of the State Controller's receipt therefor as may be designated by the trustees prior to their deposit in the State Treasury.

SEC. 36. Any section of any act which is enacted during the second year of the 1977–78 Regular Session of the Legislature and which amends, amends and renumbers, or repeals a section amended, amended and renumbered, or repealed by this act, and which is chaptered either before or after this act, shall prevail over this act.

CHAPTER 910

An act to amend Section 30790 of, and to add Section 30791.7 to, the Streets and Highways Code, relating to toll bridges.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 30790 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

30790. (a) The San Mateo-Hayward Bridge is the bridge, together with necessary approaches, across San Francisco Bay connecting the County of San Mateo near the City of San Mateo with the County of Alameda near Mount Eden. The approaches to the bridge shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) An approach along Route 92 to Route 101, including the interchange between Routes 92 and 101, in the County of San Mateo.

(2) An approach along Route 92 to a point at or near the junction of Routes 17 and 92, in the County of Alameda.

(3) An interchange between Routes 17 and 238, in the County of Alameda.

(4) The portion of Route 17 between Route 92 and Route 238, in the County of Alameda.

(b) The Dumbarton Bridge is the vehicle bridge across San Francisco Bay, together with necessary approaches, connecting the County of San Mateo near Menlo Park with the County of Alameda near Fremont.

SEC. 2. Section 30791.7 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

30791.7. (a) The California Transportation Commission, subject expressly to the provisions of any bond resolution adopted by the California Toll Bridge Authority for the purpose of financing construction of the new Dumbarton Bridge, may pledge and use revenues derived from the operation of the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge, the San Mateo-Hayward Bridge, the existing Dumbarton Bridge, and the new Dumbarton Bridge upon its opening to traffic for the purpose of financing construction of the approaches to the San Mateo-Hayard Bridge as described in subdivision (a) of Section 30790, including pledging revenues for the payment of revenue bonds issued to finance such construction. This action shall be taken by the California Transportation Commission, only if a study, which shall be conducted by the Metropolitan Transportation Commission of alternative means of financing the approaches recommends that the financing be, in whole or in part, by toll revenues, including the issuance of bonds. In that event, the California Transportation Commission may adopt a plan for the financing and construction of the approaches based on the recommendations submitted by the Metropolitan Transportation Commission.

(b) In authorizing such construction, the Legislature hereby finds and declares that the revenues derived from the operation of the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge, the San Mateo-Hayward Bridge, and the Dumbarton Bridge may be used to finance the completion of the approach system to the San Mateo-Hayward Bridge

An act to amend Sections 1203.4 and 1203.4a of the Penal Code and Sections 13352 and 13353 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.4. (a) In any case in which a defendant has fulfilled the conditions of probation for the entire period of probation, or has been discharged prior to the termination of the period of probation, or in any other case in which a court, in its discretion and the interests of justice, determines that a defendant should be granted the relief available under this section, the defendant shall, at any time after the termination of the period of probation, if he is not then serving a sentence for any offense, on probation for any offense, or charged with the commission of any offense, be permitted by the court to withdraw his plea of guilty or plea of nolo contendere and enter a plea of not guilty; or, if he has been convicted after a plea of not guilty, the court shall set aside the verdict of guilty; and, in either case, the court shall thereupon dismiss the accusations or information against the defendant and he shall thereafter be released from all penalties and disabilities resulting from the offense of which he has been convicted, except as provided in Section 13555 of the Vehicle Code. The probationer shall be informed, in his probation papers, of this right and privilege and his right, if any, to petition for a certificate of rehabilitation and pardon. The probationer may make such application and change of plea in person or by attorney, or by the probation officer authorized in writing; provided, that, in any subsequent prosecution of the defendant for any other offense, the prior conviction may be pleaded and proved and shall have the same effect as if probation had not been granted or the accusation or information dismissed.

Dismissal of an accusation or information pursuant to this section does not permit a person to own, possess, or have in his custody or control any firearm capable of being concealed upon the person or prevent his conviction under Section 12021.

This subdivision shall apply to all applications for relief under this section which are filed on or after November 23, 1970.

(b) Subdivision (a) of this section does not apply to any misdemeanor which is within the provisions of subdivision (b) of Section 42001 of the Vehicle Code, or to any infraction.

SEC. 2. Section 1203.4a of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.4a. (a) Every defendant convicted of a misdemeanor and not granted probation shall, at any time after the lapse of one year from the date of pronouncement of judgment, if he has fully complied with and performed the sentence of the court, is not then serving a sentence for any offense and is not under charge of commission of any crime and has, since such pronouncement of judgment, lived an honest and upright life and has conformed to and obeyed the laws of the land, be permitted by the court to withdraw his plea of guilty or nolo contendere and enter a plea of not guilty; or if he has been convicted after a plea of not guilty, the court shall set aside the verdict of guilty; and in either case the court shall thereupon dismiss the accusatory pleading against such defendant, who shall thereafter be released from all penalties and disabilities resulting from the offense of which he has been convicted, except as provided in Section 13555 of the Vehicle Code. The defendant shall be informed of the provisions of this section, either orally or in writing, at the time he is sentenced. The defendant may make such application and change of plea in person or by attorney, or by the probation officer authorzied in writing; provided, that in any subsequent prosecution of such defendant for any other offense, such prior conviction may be pleaded and proved and shall have the same effect as if relief had not been granted pursuant to this section.

This subdivision applies to convictions which occurred before as well as those occuring after, the effective date of this section.

(b) Subdivision (a) of this section shall not apply to any misdemeanor falling within the provisions of subdivision (b) of Section 42001 of the Vehicle Code, or to any infraction.

SEC. 3. Section 13352 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

13352. The department shall, except for a conviction or finding described in subdivision (a) where the court does not order the department to suspend, immediately suspend or revoke the privilege of any person to operate a motor vehicle upon receipt of a duly certified abstract of the record of any court showing that the person has been convicted of driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug, or while under the combined influence of intoxicating liquor and any drug, or in violation of subdivison (c) of Section 23105, or upon receipt of a report of a judge of the juvenile court, a juvenile traffic hearing officer, or a referee of a juvenile court showing that the person has been found to have committed the offense of operating a vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug, or while under the combined influence of intoxicating liquor and any drug, or in violation of subdivision (c) of Section 23105. The suspension or revocation shall be as follows:

(a) Upon a first such conviction or finding, other than under Section 23101 or 23106 such privilege shall be suspended for a period of six months, if the court orders the department to suspend such privilege

(b) Upon a first such conviction or finding under Section 23101 or 23106 such privilege shall be suspended for one year and shall not be reinstated until such person gives proof of ability to respond in damages as defined in Section 16430.

(c) Upon a second conviction or finding of driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug, or under the combined influence of intoxicating liquor and any drug, or in violation of subdivision (c) of Section 23105, or any combination of such convictions or findings within five years, such privilege shall be suspended and shall not be reinstated in less than one year and until such person gives proof of ability to respond in damages as defined in Section 16430.

(d) Upon a second such conviction or finding under Section 23101 or 23106 within three years, such privilege shall be revoked and shall not be reinstated in less than five years and until evidence satisfactory to the department establishes that no grounds exist which would authorize the refusal to issue a license, and the person gives proof of ability to respond in damages as defined in Section 16430.

(e) Upon a third or subsequent conviction or finding of driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug, or under the combined influence of intoxicating liquor and any drug, or in violation of subdivision (c) of Section 23105, or any combination of such convictions or findings within seven years such privilege shall be revoked and shall not be reinstated for a period of three years and until such person files proof of ability to respond in damages as defined in Section 16430.

For the purpose of subdivision (c), (d), and (e), the finding of the juvenile court judge, the juvenile traffic hearing officer, or the referee of a juvenile court, specified in the first paragraph of this section shall also be considered a conviction.

Each judge of a juvenile court, juvenile traffic hearing officer, or referee of a juvenile court shall immediately report such findings to the department.

SEC. 4. Section 13353 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

13353. (a) Any person who drives a motor vehicle upon a highway shall be deemed to have given his consent to a chemical test of his blood, breath or urine for the purpose of determining the alcoholic content of his blood if lawfully arrested for any offense allegedly committed while the person was driving a motor vehicle under the influence of intoxicating liquor. The test shall be incidental to a lawful arrest and administered at the direction of a peace officer having reasonable cause to believe such person was driving a motor vehicle upon a highway while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. Such person shall be told that his failure to submit to or complete such a chemical test will result in the suspension of his privilege to operate a motor vehicle for a period of six months.

The person arrested shall have the choice of whether the test shall be of his blood, breath or urine, and he shall be advised by the officer that he has such choice. If the person arrested either is incapable, or states that he is incapable, of completing any chosen test, he shall then have the choice of submitting to and completing any of the remaining tests or test, and he shall be advised by the officer that he has such choice.

Such person shall also be advised by the officer that he does not have the right to have an attorney present before stating whether he will submit to a test, before deciding which test to take, or during administration of the test chosen.

Any person who is dead, unconscious, or otherwise in a condition rendering him incapable of refusal shall be deemed not to have withdrawn his consent and such tests may be administered whether or not such person is told that his failure to submit to or complete the test will result in the suspension of his privilege to operate a motor vehicle.

(b) If any such person refuses the officer's request to submit to, or fails to complete, a chemical test, the department, upon receipt of the officer's sworn statement that he had reasonable cause to believe such person had been driving a motor vehicle upon a highway while under the influence of intoxicating liquor and that the person had refused to submit to, or failed to complete, the test after being requested by the officer, shall suspend his privilege to operate a motor vehicle for a period of six months. The officer's sworn statement shall be submitted on a form furnished or approved by the department. No such suspension shall become effective until 10 days after the giving of written notice thereof, as provided for in subdivision (c).

(c) The department shall immediately notify such person in writing of the action taken and upon his request in writing and within 15 days from the date of receipt of such request shall afford him an opportunity for a hearing in the same manner and under the same conditions as provided in Article 3 (commencing with Section 14100) of Chapter 3 of this division. For the purposes of this section the scope of the hearing shall cover the issues of whether the peace officer had reasonable cause to believe the person had been driving a motor vehicle upon a highway while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, whether the person was placed under arrest, whether he refused to submit to, or failed to complete, the test after being requested by a peace officer, and whether, except for the persons described in paragraph (a) above who are incapable of refusing, he had been told that his driving privilege would be suspended if he refused to submit to, or failed to complete, the test.

An application for a hearing made by the affected person within 10 days of receiving notice of the department's action shall operate to stay the suspension by the department for a period of 15 days during which time the department must afford a hearing. If the department fails to afford a hearing within 15 days, the suspension shall not take place until such time as the person is granted a hearing and is notified of the department's action as hereinafter provided However, if the affected person requests that the hearing be continued to a date beyond the 15-day period, the suspension shall become effective immediately upon receipt of the department's notice that said request for continuance has been granted.

If the department determines upon a hearing of the matter to suspend the affected person's privilege to operate a motor vehicle, the suspension herein provided shall not become effective until five days after receipt by said person of the department's notification of such suspension.

(d) Any person who is afflicted with hemophilia shall be exempt from the blood test required by this section.

(e) Any person who is afflicted with a heart condition and is using an anticoagulant under the direction of a physician and surgeon shall be exempt from the blood test required by this section.

(f) A person lawfully arrested for any offense allegedly committed while the person was driving a motor vehicle under the influence of intoxicating liquor may request the arresting officer to have a chemical test made of the arrested person's blood, breath or urine for the purpose of determining the alcoholic content of such person's blood, and, if so requested, the arresting officer shall have the test performed.

CHAPTER 912

An act to amend Section 2 of Chapter 158 of the Statutes of 1978, relating to court interpreters, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2 of Chapter 158 of the Statutes of 1978 is amended to read:

Sec. 2. The sum of one hundred sixty thousand dollars ($160,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Controller for allocation and disbursement, as follows:

(a) The sum of sixty-five thousand dollars ($65,000) to be allocated, without regard to fiscal years, to the Judicial Council for the purpose of establishing appropriate rules for all trial courts and collecting, analyzing and reporting data to serve as a basis for legislative determination of the need to establish interpreter's programs in additional courts and in additional languages.

(b) The sum of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000) to be allocated for the fiscal year 1978–79 to the State Personnel Board for the purpose of improving court interpreter services in the Spanish language in the Counties of Alameda, Colusa, Contra Costa, Fresno, Glenn, Imperial, Kern, Kings, Los Angeles, Madera, Merced, Monterey, Orange, Riverside, Sacramento, San Benito, San Bernardino, San Diego, San Francisco, San Joaquin, San Luis Obispo, San Mateo, Santa Barbara, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz, Solano, Sonoma, Stanislaus, Sutter, Tulare, Ventura, Yolo, and Yuba.

(c) The sum of sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) to be allocated for the fiscal year 1978–79 to local agencies or school districts pursuant to Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code to reimburse such agencies for costs incurred by them pursuant to this act.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to implement the technical correction made by this bill to Chapter 158 of the Statutes of 1978, which took effect May 24, 1978, as an urgency statute, as soon as possible, it is necessary that this bill take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 913

An act to amend Sections 10375 and 10610 of, and to add Section 10376.8 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to dead bodies.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10375 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

10375. No person shall dispose of human remains unless (a) there has been obtained and filed with a local registrar a death certificate, as provided in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 10200) of this division, and (b) there has been obtained from a local registrar a permit for disposition.

SEC. 2. Section 10376.8 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

10376.8. (a) Upon the presentation of a certificate of death properly executed and completed in accordance with the policies and procedures of the county coroner in which the death occurred which are not in conflict with state law, the permit for disposition required by Sections 10375, 10376, and 10376.5 shall be issued by any local registrar pursuant to this section. The local registrar issuing the permit for disposition pursuant to this section shall promptly forward the death certificate and a duplicate of the permit for disposition to the local registrar of the district in which death occurred or the body was found.

(b) The applicant for a permit under this section shall pay a fee of five dollars ($5) to the issuing registrar. Two dollars ($2) of such fee shall be transferred by the issuing registrar to the local registrar of the county where the death occurred and one dollar ($1) shall be transferred to the State Registrar for the administration of the provisions of this section.

(c) Applicants for a permit for disposition pursuant to this section shall not be subject to the provisions of Section 10610.

SEC. 1.5. Section 10610 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

10610. Except as otherwise provided in Section 10376.8, the fee for issuance of a permit for disposition of human remains is two dollars ($2) payable to the local registrar of births and deaths by the applicant for the permit, when such permit is issued during regularly scheduled office hours of the local registrar of births and deaths.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because self-financing authority is provided in this act and in Section 10610 of the Health and Safety Code to cover such costs.

CHAPTER 914

An act to amend Sections 2 and 5.1 of the Yuba County Water Agency Act (Chapter 788 of the Statutes of 1959), relating to the Yuba County Water Agency.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2 of the Yuba County Water Agency Act (Chapter 788 of the Statutes of 1959) is amended to read:

Sec. 2. As used in this act, the following words shall have the following respective meanings unless the context indicates otherwise:

(a) "Agency" is the Yuba County Water Agency.

(b) "County" or "principal county" is the County of Yuba of the State of California.

(c) "United States" is the United States of America including any one or more of the bureaus, commissions, divisions, departments, boards, agencies, and officers of the United States of America.

(d) "State" means the State of California including any one or more of the bureaus, commissions, divisions, departments, boards, agencies, and officers of the State of California.

(e) "Work" or "works" includes dams and dam sites, reservoirs and reservoir sites, and all conduits and other facilities useful in the control, conservation, diversion and transmission of water; power generation and transmission facilities, and all land, property, franchises, easements, rights-of-way and privileges necessary or useful to operate or maintain any of the foregoing.

(f) "District" as used hereafter means any of the following lying within or partially within, or contiguous to the agency: irrigation districts, county water districts, water conservation districts, water districts, soil conservation districts, municipalities, towns, flood control districts, levee districts, mutual water companies, public utilities as defined in Section 216 of the Public Utilities Code, and any other districts or political subdivisions of the state empowered by law to appropriate water and deliver water to water users.

(g) "Member unit" means any district which enters into a contract with the agency for (i) the repayment in whole or in part to the agency or any other person, corporation, public district, State of California or any political subdivision thereof, or the United States, of any or all the construction costs of any works constructed by or on behalf of the agency or such district, or for (ii) the underwriting in whole or in part of any or all of such construction costs, or for (iii) the repayment in whole or in part to the agency or any other person, corporation, public district, State of California or any political subdivision thereof, or the United States, of any or all of the cost of furnishing water or a water supply to the agency or such district or the underwriting in whole or in part of such cost, or for (iv) the payment in whole or in part for water to be furnished or sold to such district by the agency or the United States.

(h) "Elector" means a resident of the agency who is qualified under the laws of the State of California to vote at a general election.

(i) "May" is permissive and "shall" is mandatory.

(j) "Board" means the board of directors of the agency.

SEC. 2. Section 5.1 of the Yuba County Water Agency Act (Chapter 788 of the Statutes of 1959) is amended to read:

Sec. 5.1. The agency may enter into contracts with any member unit or with any district which becomes a member unit of the agency for any of the following purposes:

(a) The lease, purchase, or other acquisition by the agency of any of the works of such member unit or district.

(b) The construction of works by the agency for the conservation, regulation or transmission of water for the benefit of such member unit or district; or for the furnishing or sale by the agency or the State of California or the United States to such member unit or by such member unit to the agency of water or a water supply for any purpose.

(c) The sale, lease, or other disposition of water, water rights, and water storage facilities or interests therein, by the agency or by such member unit.

(d) The operation of works and the delivery of water by the agency or by such member unit, except that:

(1) The works shall be operated in conformity with the vested rights and appropriations of each of its member units having an interest therein.

(2) There shall be delivered to each member unit all water to which such member unit is entitled under the contract entered into by the agency and such member unit.

(3) There shall not be delivered to any member unit more water than the amount to which such member unit is entitled under the contract entered into by the agency and such member unit, except that the release of water from any reservoir in the amount required to satisfy any vested right shall not constitute a delivery of water, and any amount of water assigned under Section 5.6 by one member unit to another member unit shall be delivered to the latter.

(e) No contract may be entered into between the agency and a member unit which provides for the sale of project water for agricultural purposes, industrial purposes, or for power plant cooling purposes upon any term or condition more favorable than the same term or condition contained in the agricultural water contracts entered into between the agency and member units prior to January 1, 1978.

CHAPTER 915

An act to amend Section 14086.5 of the Government Code, and to amend Sections 188.8 and 199 of the Streets and Highways Code, relating to transportation.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14086.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14086.5. Before approving an overall project financing plan and an overall project development schedule, the department shall obtain the finding of the California Transportation Commission, and the commission shall transmit its finding to the department within a reasonable time, that the proposal is in accordance with the adopted state transportation improvement program for state funded projects and the adopted regional transportation improvement program for federally funded projects.

SEC. 2. Section 188.8 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

188.8. Out of the money expended pursuant to Section 188, the commission shall allocate and the department shall expend, or cause to be expended, in each state transportation district of County Group No. 1 and in each state transportation district of County Group No. 2 during the period commencing July 1, 1971, and ending June 30, 1975, and for each period of four years, thereafter, not less than an amount computed as follows:

(a) The commission shall compute for each period of four years an amount equal to 70 percent of the moneys to be expended in County

Groups Nos. 1 and 2, respectively, as provided in Section 188.

(b) From the amount computed for County Group No. 1 in subdivision (a) for the period ending June 30, 1979, the commission shall determine the minimum expenditure for each transportation district in the group by applying the percentages specified on page 13798 of the Assembly Daily Journal for June 5, 1974.

(c) From the amount computed for County Group No. 2 in subdivision (a) for the period ending June 30, 1979, the commission shall determine the minimum expenditure for each transportation district in the group by applying the percentages specified on page 13798 of the Assembly Daily Journal for June 5, 1974.

For purposes of this section, state transportation districts shall be identical to those state highway districts established by the department for administrative purposes as of June 30, 1960.

For each four-year period subsequent to June 30, 1983, a percentage for each state transportation district as listed in subdivisions (b) and (c) shall be computed on the basis of an estimate of existing state highway and exclusive public mass transit guideway construction needs to be funded from the State Highway Account in the State Transportation Fund. The revised percentages shall be used in computing minimum expenditures for each district. The first such estimate of construction needs shall be filed with the Legislature and be published in the respective Journals of the Senate and the Assembly not later than January 15, 1981, and shall govern minimum expenditure computations for the period commencing July 1, 1983, and ending June 30, 1987. Not later than January 15, 1985, and each four years thereafter, a new estimate shall be filed and published and shall govern the minimum expenditure computations for the four-year period commencing July 1, 1987, and for each succeeding four-year period.

Except as provided in this paragraph, the entire obligation under a contract awarded or a day labor project commenced during any of the periods shall be deemed an expenditure within the period in which such contract was awarded or day labor project commenced. Obligations under contracts which have been awarded or day labor projects which have been commenced but which are to be budgeted over more than one fiscal year pursuant to Section 170, shall be deemed expenditures in each of the fiscal years in which the work is to be performed in an amount equal to the final amount budgeted for each such fiscal year for such work.

SEC. 3. Section 199 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

199. Upon the approval of a proposition by the voters of an area pursuant to Section 4 of Article XIX of the California Constitution, the entity, including, but not limited to, a transit district, responsible for construction of an exclusive public mass transit guideway project in that area may submit the project to the department for inclusion in its resource allocation recommendations. If the project is located within an area under the jurisdiction of a statutorily created regional transportation agency, including a county transportation commission, the project shall be approved by the agency prior to being submitted to the department.

The department shall submit its resource allocation recommendations for that project for the comment and review of the transportation planning agency designated in Section 29532 of the Government Code for the area, except that in the case of a project located within an area under the jurisdiction of a statutorily created regional transportation agency, including a county transportation commission, the project shall be approved by the agency. Each project shall be submitted by the department to the California Transportation Commission for the allocation of funds to the project from those funds appropriated for guideway purposes from the State Highway Account in the State Transportation Fund. Allocations shall be made under such terms and conditions as the commission deems appropriate, taking into consideration any recommendation of the department.

The funds set aside pursuant to this section and Section 199.1 shall be deemed expenditures on the state highway system for purposes of Sections 188, 188.8, and 188.9 and shall be separately identified in the budget report submitted to the Legislature.

SEC. 4. Section 2 of this act shall become operative when (a) the California Transportation Plan is adopted and (b) the Legislature finds that the allocation of funds in the State Highway Account in the State Transportation Fund based on the estimate of existing exclusive public mass transit guideway construction needs, as well as on the estimate of existing state highway construction needs, would give equal consideration to the transportation needs of all areas of the state and all segments of the population consistent with the orderly achievement of the adopted local, regional, and statewide goals for ground transportation in local general plans, regional transportation plans, and the California Transportation Plan.

CHAPTER 916

An act to amend Sections 2543, 2550.1, 2552, and 2553.7 of, and to repeal Section 2553.1 of, the Business and Professions Code, relating to registered dispensing opticians.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2543 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2543. The right to dispense, sell or furnish prescription lenses at retail or to the person named in a prescription is limited exclusively to licensed physicians and surgeons, licensed optometrists, and registered dispensing opticians as provided in this division. This section shall not be construed to affect licensing requirements pursuant to Section 26685 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 2. Section 2550.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2550.1. All references in this chapter to the board or the Board of Medical Examiners or division shall mean the Division of Allied Health Professions of the Board of Medical Quality Assurance.

SEC. 3. Section 2552 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2552. Each application, to enable the division to determine if applicant is entitled to be registered under this chapter, shall be verified under oath by the person or persons required to sign the application and shall contain the matters referred to in subdivision (a) hereof and be accompanied by the affidavits referred to in subdivision (b):

(a) The name, address and time, place and extent of the previous experience of the person or persons who will manage applicant's dispensing operations. The person or persons who will manage applicant's dispensing operations shall have at least five full years of actual experience in fitting and adjusting any prescription lens or lenses. The division shall have authority to provide that in lieu of not more than three years of the five years required of actual experience in fitting and adjusting lenses referred to in this section, such person may substitute graduation from a two-year college program duly approved by the division in a course of studies in the technique of applied optical dispensing.

(b) The sworn affidavits, in a form prescribed by the board, of three physicians and surgeons who specialize in the treatment of eyes and who are duly licensed by the Board of Medical Quality Assurance or by the medical licensing authority in any other state, stating and certifying according to the personal knowledge of each physician and surgeon signing the same, that each person referred to in subdivision (a) has the required experience and that each such person is fully competent and qualified to accurately fill prescriptions for such prescription lens or lenses and to fit and adjust such lenses. In lieu of one or two of such affidavits of physicians and surgeons, the applicant may substitute a like number of sworn affidavits, in a form prescribed by the division, (1) of a person who was or is lawfully engaged in fitting and adjusting prescription lenses and who was or is the former or present employer of such person referred to in subdivision (a) or (2) of any officer, managing agent or manager of dispensing operations of such an employer, stating and certifying according to the personal knowledge of the affiant that such person referred to in subdivision (a) possesses the foregoing experience and qualifications.

Applicant shall furnish such additional information or proof, oral or written, with respect to the competency and qualifications of applicant and each of the foregoing persons which the board may request, including information and proof relating to provisions of Division 1.5 (commencing with Section 475).

In its discretion, the division may require applicant's proposed manager of dispensing operations to appear before a representative of the board to testify under oath and supply additional information as to his or her experience and qualifications. The proposed manager shall appear at a place designated by the board that is not more than 150 miles from the address for which registration has been applied.

The division in considering any application for a renewal of a certificate may in its discretion require from applicant the same information and proof with respect to any or all of the foregoing matters.

The division shall promptly notify any applicant if, as of the 30th day following the submission of an application under this chapter, the application and supporting documentation, including affidavits, are not substantially complete and in proper form. Such notification shall be in writing, shall state specifically what documents or other information are to be supplied by the applicant to the board, and shall be sent to the applicant by certified or registered mail. Within 30 days of the applicant's submission of the requested documents or information to the board, the board shall notify the applicant by certified or registered mail if the board requires additional documents or information.

SEC. 4. Section 2553.1 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 2553.7 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2553.7. During the time an individual or firm is authorized to engage in business at an address for which a separate certificate is issued pursuant to Section 2553, the person in charge of and managing the dispensing operations at that address must possess all of the qualifications specified in Section 2552 and must not be in charge of or manage dispensing operations at any other address. At all times, the manager shall actively and as his or her principal occupation be in charge of and manage dispensing operations at that address, allowing for usual and customary periods of absence such as for illness and vacation.

A certificate of registration issued for a particular address shall automatically expire 90 days after the time the dispensing operations at that address cease for any reason to be under the charge of and managed by the person so designated in the registrant's previously filed application or renewal application, unless within 90 days from the date of such cessation the registrant submits and the board approves a new application form containing all of the information specified in Section 2552 including the affidavits referred to in subdivision (b) of Section 2552. A certificate of registration shall automatically expire, however, without a 90-day delay in the event the manager designated at that address is transferred to serve as manager at another registered address operated by the registrant, unless prior to such transfer a new manager has been designated by the registrant, approved by the board, and actively in charge of dispensing operations at that address, as herein provided.

Whenever a manager ceases to be an active manager at any address because of death, termination of employment, transfer of employment or any other reason, registrant, within five days thereafter, shall give written notice to the division thereof, stating the reason for such cessation.

No earlier than January 1 and no later than January 31 of each odd-numbered year, each registrant shall file with the division the name of the person who at the time of filing has charge of and manages the registrant's dispensing operations at each address for which a separate certificate has previously been issued by the division.

In addition to any other remedies or penalties provided by law, the division may, in accordance with Section 2555, suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew the certificate of any individual or firm who has violated any provision of this section.

CHAPTER 917

An act to add and repeal Section 31558.4 to the Government Code, relating to the County Employees Retirement Law of 1937.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 31558.4 is added to the Government Code, to read:

31558.4. Notwithstanding any of the provisions of Section 31558 to the contrary, a person over 35 years of age who, prior to the effective date of this section, was employed in any county having a population in excess of 290,000 but less than 300,000 as determined by Section 28020 as amended in 1971, as a safety member and thereafter became a regular member of the retirement system may, if the person so elects, become a safety member if the person is subsequently employed in a position eligible for membership as a safety member and has maintained continuous membership in the system since his original service as a safety member.

For the purposes of this section, all contributions, liabilities, actuarial interest rates, and other valuation factors shall be determined on the basis of actuarial assumptions and methods which, in the aggregate, are reasonable, and which, in combination, offer the actuary's best estimate of anticipated experience under the system.

The additional employer contributions required under this section shall be computed as a level percentage of member compensation. The additional contribution rate required at the time this section is added to a contract shall not be less than the sum of (1) the actuarial normal cost, plus (2) the additional contribution required to amortize the increase in accrued liability attributable to benefits elected under this section over a period of not more than 30 years from the date this section becomes effective in the public agency's contract.

This section shall not be operative in any county until such time as the board of supervisors shall, by resolution adopted by a majority vote, make the provisions of this section applicable in such county.

This section shall remain in effect until January 1, 1980, and on such date is repealed.

CHAPTER 918

An act to amend Sections 3075, 3076, and 3081 of, to add Sections 3074, 3077, 3078, and 3079 to, to amend and renumber Section 3077 of, and to repeal Sections 3078 and 3079 of, the Penal Code, relating to parole.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3074 is added to Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 3075) of Part 3 of Title 1 of the Penal Code, to read:

3074. The Legislature finds and declares that the period immediately following incarceration is critical to successful reintegration of the offender into society and to positive citizenship. It is in the interest of public safety for a county to provide for the supervision of parolees, and to provide educational, vocational, family and personal counseling necessary to assist parolees in the transition between imprisonment and discharge.

SEC. 2. Section 3075 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

3075. There is in each county a board of parole commissioners, consisting of the following: (1) the sheriff or, in a county with a department of corrections, the director of such department, (2) the probation officer, and (3) a member not a public official to be selected from the public by the presiding judge, if any, or, if none, by the senior judge in point of service, of the superior court. The public member of the county board of parole commissioners shall be entitled to his actual traveling and other necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of his duties. In addition the public member shall be entitled to per diem at such rate as may be provided by the board of supervisors. The public member shall hold office for a term of one year and in no event for a period exceeding three consecutive years. The term shall commence on the date of appointment.

SEC. 3. Section 3076 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

3076. (a) The board may make, establish and enforce rules and regulations adopted under this article.

(b) The board shall act at regularly called meetings at which two-thirds of the members are present, and shall make and establish rules and regulations in writing stating the reasons therefor under which any prisoner who is confined in or committed to any county jail, work furlough facility, industrial farm, or industrial road camp, or in any city jail, work furlough facility, industrial farm, or industrial road camp under a judgment of imprisonment or as a condition of probation for any criminal offense, unless the court at the time of committing has ordered that such prisoner confined as a condition of probation upon conviction of a felony not be granted parole, may be allowed to go upon parole outside of such jail, work furlough facility, industrial farm, or industrial road camp, but to remain, while on parole, in the legal custody and under the control of the board establishing the rules and regulations for his parole, and subject at any time to be taken back within the enclosure of any such jail, work furlough facility, industrial farm, or industrial road camp.

(c) The board shall provide a complete copy of its written rules and regulations and reasons therefor and any amendments thereto to each of the judges of the county's justice, municipal and superior courts.

The board shall provide to the persons in charge of the county's correctional facilities a copy of the sections of its written rules and regulations and any amendments thereto which govern eligibility for parole, and the name and telephone number of the person or agency to contact for additional information. Such rules and regulations governing eligibility either shall be conspicuously posted and maintained within each county correctional facility so that all prisoners have access to a copy, or shall be given to each prisoner.

SEC. 4. Section 3077 of the Penal Code is amended and renumbered to read:

3085. The members of the board may for the purpose of considering applications for parole of prisoners from city or county jails, or industrial farms, or work furlough facilities, or industrial road camps, designate deputies of their respective offices to serve for them as temporary commissioners when they are unable to serve.

SEC. 5. Section 3077 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

3077. Whenever a prisoner is sentenced in one county and incarcerated in another county, only the county in which he was sentenced shall have jurisdiction to grant parole.

SEC. 6. Section 3078 of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 3078 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

3078. (a) The board shall notify the sentencing judge of an inmate's application for parole.

(b) The sentencing judge may make a recommendation regarding such application, and the board shall give careful consideration to such recommendation.

SEC. 8. Section 3079 of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 9. Section 3079 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

3079. (a) No application for parole shall be granted or denied except by a vote of the board at a meeting at which a quorum of its members are present. This paragraph shall not be applied to the denial of applicants who are ineligible by order of the superior court, or to the granting of parole in emergency situations.

(b) An applicant shall be permitted to appear and speak on his behalf at the meeting at which his application is considered by the board.

SEC. 10. Section 3081 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

3081. (a) Each county board may retake and imprison any prisoner upon parole granted under the provisions of this article.

(b) Each county board may release any prisoner on parole for a term not to exceed two years upon such conditions and under such rules and regulations as may seem fit and proper for his rehabilitation, and should the prisoner so paroled violate any of the conditions of his parole or any of the rules and regulations governing his parole, he shall, upon order of the parole commission, be returned to the jail from which he was paroled and be confined therein for the unserved portion of his sentence.

(c) The written order of each county board shall be a sufficient warrant for all officers named therein to authorize them, or any of them, to return to actual custody any conditionally released or paroled prisoner. All chiefs of police, marshals of cities, sheriffs, constables, and all other police and peace officers of this state shall execute any such order in like manner as ordinary criminal process.

(d) In computing the unserved sentence of a person returned to jail because of the revocation of his parole no credit shall be granted for the time between his release from jail on parole and his return to jail because of the revocation of his parole.

SEC. 11. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be any appropriation made by this act because the duties, obligations or responsibilities imposed on local government by this act are minor in nature and will not place any financial burden on local government.

CHAPTER 919

An act relating to disposition of property by the Director of General Services, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Director of General Services, with the approval of the State Public Works Board, is hereby authorized to sell, exchange, or lease for current market value and upon such terms and conditions and with such reservations and exceptions as in his opinion may be for the best interest of the state, all or any part of the following real property:

Parcel 1. Approximately 4.4 acres of land, being a portion of the Butte Ecology Center, located off of Steifer Road, north of Paradise in Butte County.

Parcel 2. Approximately 1.4 acres of land, being a portion of the Nevada City Forest Fire Station, located on Ridge Road in Nevada County.

Parcel 3. Approximately 2,500 square feet of land, being a portion of the Department of Motor Vehicles' Carmichael Field Office in Sacramento County.

Parcel 4. Approximately 20 acres of land, being a portion of the California Youth Authority Preston School of Industry in Amador County.

SEC. 2. The Director of General Services, with the approval of the State Public Works Board, is hereby authorized to convey for current market value to the City of Nevada City, approximately 0.631 acre of land at the Nevada City Forest Fire Station in Nevada County, upon such terms and conditions and with such reservations and exceptions as in his opinion may be for the best interest of the state.

SEC. 3. The Director of General Services, with the approval of the State Public Works Board and the Director of Parks and Recreation, is hereby authorized to sell or exchange for current market value and upon such terms and conditions and with such reservations and exceptions as in his opinion may be for the best interest of the state, all or any part of the following properties:

Parcel 1. Approximately 40 acres of land in Humboldt County, located 7.5 miles north of Bridgeville, being the SW 1/4 of the NE 1/4 of Section 10, T2N, R3E, HBM.

Parcel 2. Approximately 80 acres of land in Humboldt County, located 14 miles northeasterly of Bridgeville, being the SE 1/4 of NW 1/4 and the NE 1/4 of the SW 1/4 of Section 6, T3N, R4E, HBM.

Parcel 3. Approximately 40 acres of land in Humboldt County, located 5.5 miles east of Dyerville, being the SW 1/4 of the NW 1/4 of Section 23, T13, R3E, HBM.

SEC. 3.5. The Director of General Services, with the approval of the State Public Works Board, is hereby authorized to convey for current market value to the Camarosa County Water District, approximately 20 acres of land at Camarillo State Hospital in Ventura County, together with the existing sewage treatment facility located thereon, upon such terms and conditions and with such reservations and exceptions as in his opinion may be for the best interest of the state.

SEC. 4. Notice of every public auction or bid opening shall be posted on the property to be sold and shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which the real property to be sold is situated. All parcels in each section of this act shall be exempt from the provisions of Sections 21000 to 21174, inclusive, of the Public Resources Code.

SEC. 5. Any cost or expense incurred in the disposition of any parcel may be reimbursed from the proceeds of such disposition.

SEC. 6. Subject to Section 5 hereof, any moneys received from the disposition of any parcel shall be paid into the General Fund, except that any money received from the disposition of parcels 1, 2 and 3 as described in Section 3, shall be paid into the Collier Park Preservation Fund.

SEC. 7. As to any property sold or exchanged pursuant to this act containing 10 acres or less, the Director of General Services shall except and reserve to the state all mineral deposits, as defined in Section 6407 of the Public Resources Code, below a depth of 500 feet, without surface rights of entry. As to any such property sold or exchanged containing more than 10 acres, the Director of General Services shall except and reserve in the state all mineral deposits, as defined in Section 6407 of the Public Resources Code, together with the right to prospect for, mine and remove such deposits. Such rights to prospect for, mine and remove may be limited to those areas of the property conveyed which the director determines to be reasonably necessary for the removal of such resources and deposits.

CHAPTER 920

An act to amend Section 1037 of the Penal Code, relating to county costs.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1037 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1037. (a) When a court orders a change of venue to another county all costs incurred by that county, which are not payable by the Department of Corrections pursuant to Section 4700, for the transfer, preparation and trial of the action, the guarding, keeping and transportation of the prisoner, any appeal or other proceeding relating to the action and execution of the sentence shall be a charge against the county in which the action originated.

(b) Claim for the costs described in subdivision (a) shall be forwarded to the treasurer and auditor of the county in which the action originated and the treasurer shall pay the amount of such costs out of the general funds of his county.

(c) The term "all costs" means all reasonable and necessary costs incurred by the county as a result of the change of venue which would not have been incurred but for the change, and does not include normal salaries, overhead, and other expenses which would have been incurred by the county in any event.

CHAPTER 921

An act to add and repeal Section 1142.5 of the Labor Code, relating to agricultural labor relations.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1142.5 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

1142.5. (a) The board shall maintain, at its principal office, a telephone line 24 hours a day, seven days a week, for the purpose of providing interested persons with information concerning their rights and responsibilities under this part, or for referring such persons to the appropriate agency or entity with the capacity to render advice or help in dealing with any situation arising out of agricultural labor disputes.

In order to carry out its responsibilities pursuant to this subdivision, the board may contract with an answering service to receive telephone messages during periods of time that its principal office is normally not open for business. Such messages shall be transmitted to the board on the board's next business day, or at such earlier time as the board specifies, or to its designated representative at the earliest possible time.

(b) Whenever a petition for an election has been filed in a bargaining unit in which a majority of the employees are engaged in a strike, the necessary and appropriate services of the board in the region in which the election will be held shall be available to the parties involved 24 hours a day until the election is held.

This section shall remain in effect only until December 31, 1979, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before December 31, 1979, deletes or extends such date.

CHAPTER 922

An act to add Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 1878) to Part 2 of Division 1 of the Insurance Code, relating to fires.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 1878) is added to Part 2 of Division 1 of the Insurance Code, to read:

CHAPTER 11. ARSON INVESTIGATIONS

1878. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Authorized agency" means any of the following officers or agencies, or their duly authorized representatives, when investigating or prosecuting arson in connection with a specific fire: State Fire Marshal, Director of the Department of Forestry, chief of any city or county fire department, chief of any fire protection district, the Attorney General, any district attorney, or any peace officer, and any federal agency.

(b) "Insurer" means any insurer admitted to write, or otherwise issuing, fire insurance covering property in this state and includes its agents, servants, investigators, and adjusters. "Insurer" includes the California FAIR Plan.

1878.1. An authorized agency may, when there is evidence or suspicion that the crime of arson has been committed, request any insurer to release all information in its possession which the authorized agency determines to be relevant to such crime. The insurer shall release:

(a) Any insurance policy or any application for such a policy;

(b) Policy premium payment records;

(c) History of previous claims made by the insured for fire loss;

(d) Material relating to the investigation of the loss, including statements of any person, proof of loss, and any other relevant evidence.

1878.2. If any insurer has reason to suspect that a fire loss was caused by incendiary means, the insurer shall furnish an authorized agency with all relevant information acquired during its investigation of the fire loss and cooperate in an investigation by any authorized agency.

The authorized agency provided with information pursuant to this chapter may release such information to any of the other authorized agencies.

1878.3. In the absence of fraud or malice, no insurer who furnishes information pursuant to this chapter shall be liable for damages in a civil action or subject to criminal prosecution, nor shall any authorized agency which releases information pursuant to this chapter be liable for damages in a civil action or subject to criminal prosecution.

The act of furnishing information required pursuant to this chapter shall not constitute an act of fraud or malice.

1878.4. In any case in which an insurer willfully fails to comply with the provisions of this chapter, the authorized agency may petition the superior court in an appropriate county for an order requiring compliance.

CHAPTER 923

An act to add Chapter 7.8 (commencing with Section 4045) to Part 1 of Division 5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to water.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 7.8 (commencing with Section 4045) is added to Part 1 of Division 5 of the Health and Safety Code, to read.

CHAPTER 7.8. WATER SOFTENING OR CONDITIONING

4045. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the utilization of the waters of the state by residential consumers for general domestic purposes, including drinking, cleaning, washing, and personal grooming and sanitation of the people is a right which should be interfered with only when necessary for specified health and safety purposes. The Legislature further finds that variation in water quality, and particularly in water hardness, throughout the state requires that on-site water softening or conditioning be available throughout the state to insure to domestic consumers their right to a water supply which is effective and functional for domestic requirements of the residential household, but that such on-site water softening or conditioning shall be available only as hereinafter set forth.

4046. (a) Unless the context otherwise requires the definitions in this section govern the construction of this chapter.

(b) "Clock control" means the system controlling the periodic automatic regeneration of a residential water softening or conditioning appliance which is based upon a predetermined and preset time schedule.

(c) "Demand control" means the system controlling the periodic automatic regeneration of a residential water softening or conditioning appliance which is based either upon a sensor which detects imminent exhaustion of the active softening or conditioning material or upon the measurement of the volume of water passing through the appliance. A demand control system activates regeneration based upon the state of the equipment and its ability to continue the softening process.

(d) "Fully manual regeneration" means the method of regeneration of a residential water softening or conditioning appliance in which operations are performed manually and in which dry salt is added directly to the ion-exchanger tank after sufficient water is removed to make room for the salt.

(e) "Hardness" means the total of all dissolved calcium, magnesium, iron and other heavy metal salts, which interact with soaps and detergents in such a manner that the efficiency of soaps and detergents for cleansing purposes is impaired. Hardness is expressed in grains per gallon or milligrams per liter as if all such salts were present as calcium carbonate.

(f) "Manually-initiated control" means the system controlling the periodic regeneration of a residential water softening or conditioning appliance in which all operations, including bypass of hard water and return to service, are performed automatically after manual initiation.

(g) "Regeneration" means the phase of operation of a water softening or conditioning appliance whereby the capability of the appliance to remove hardness from water is renewed by the application of a brine solution of sodium chloride salt to the active softening or conditioning material contained therein followed by a subsequent rinsing of the active softening or conditioning material.

(h) "Salt efficiency rating" means the efficiency of the use of sodium chloride salt in the regeneration of a water softening appliance, expressed in terms of hardness removal capacity of the appliance per pound of such salt used in the regeneration process. The units of salt efficiency rating are grains of hardness removed per pound of salt used. One grain of hardness per gallon is approximately equivalent to 17.1 milligrams of hardness per liter.

4047. On and after January 1, 1980, no residential water softening or conditioning appliance shall be installed except in either of the following circumstances:

(a) The regeneration of the appliance is performed at a nonresidential facility separate from the location of the residence where such appliance is used.

(b) The regeneration of the appliance discharges to the waste disposal system of the residence where such appliance is used and both of the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) The appliance is certified to control the quantity of salt used per regeneration by a pre-set device and the settings of such device are limited so that a salt efficiency rating of no less than 2850 grains of hardness removed per pound of salt used in regeneration is achieved with a clock control, manually-initiated control, or demand control.

(2) The installation of the appliance is accompanied by the simultaneous installation of the following softened or conditioned water conservation devices on all fixtures using softened or conditioned water, unless such devices are already in place or are prohibited by local and state plumbing and building standards or unless such devices will adversely restrict the normal operation of such fixtures:

(A) Faucet flow restrictors.

(B) Shower head restrictors.

(C) Toilet reservoir dams.

(D) A piping system installed so that untreated (unsoftened or unconditioned) supply water is carried to hose bibs and sill cocks which serve water to the outside of the house.

4048. Any water softening appliance in place at a residential dwelling prior to January 1, 1980, in those areas being served by sewage treatment facilities which have been limited with regard to salt loading pursuant to Division 7 (commencing with Section 13000) of the Water Code and for which the appropriate regional water quality control board makes a finding, after adoption of waste discharge requirements and subject to a public hearing, that the control of residential salinity input is necessary to provide compliance with those limitations, may be continued in operation for a period no longer than four years after the regional water quality control board has made its findings. After such four-year period has elapsed, any water softening appliance at that site shall be set at a salt efficiency rating of no less than 2850 grains of hardness removed per pound of salt used in regeneration when regeneration is initiated with clock controls or manually-initiated controls, or shall have regenerations initiated with demand devices. Also, after such four-year period has elapsed, those water-saving devices in shower heads, on faucets, and in toilet reservoirs, as recited in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 4047, shall be installed unless already in place or prohibited by local and state plumbing and building standards. The salt efficiency rating of the water softening or conditioning appliance and the installation of water-saving devices shall be certified in accordance with Section 4049.

4049. The certification required by this chapter shall be provided by the new user of the appliance and shall be completed by a contractor having a valid Class C-55 water conditioning contractor's license or Class C-36 plumbing contractor's license and filed with the local agency responsible for issuing plumbing permits.

The certification form shall contain all of the following information:

(a) Name and address of homeowner.

(b) Manufacturer of the water softening or conditioning applicance, model number of the appliance, pounds of salt used per regeneration, and salt efficiency rating at the time of certification.

(c) Manufacturer of the water-saving devices installed, model number, and number installed.

(d) Name, address, and the specialty contractor's license number of the C-55 and C-36 licensee making the certification.

CHAPTER 924

An act to amend Section 44865 of the Education Code, relating to teacher preparation and licensing.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 44865 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44865. In lieu of any other credential authorizing the teaching in a position for which qualifications are prescribed by this section, a valid teaching credential issued by the State Board of Education or the Commission for Teacher Preparation and Licensing, based on a bachelor's degree, student teaching, and special fitness to perform, shall be deemed qualifying for assignment as a teacher in the following assignments, provided that the assignment of a teacher to a position for which qualifications are prescribed by this section shall be made only with the consent of the teacher:

(a) Home teacher.
(b) Classes organized primarily for adults.
(c) Hospital classes.
(d) Necessary small high schools.
(e) Continuation schools.

CHAPTER 925

An act to amend Sections 987.1, 987.73, and 988.2 of the Military and Veterans Code, relating to veterans' benefits.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1 Section 987.1 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

987.1. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), the department in each individual case may specify the terms of the contract entered into with the purchaser, but no property sold under the provisions of this article shall, voluntarily or involuntarily, by operation of law or otherwise, be transferred, assigned, encumbered, leased, let or sublet, in whole or in part, nor shall any mobilehome be removed from its original site, except in case of emergency where temporary removal is necessary to avoid potential damage, without the written consent of the department, until the purchaser has paid therefor in full and has complied with all the terms and conditions of this contract of purchase. The department may give its written consent to such transfers, assignments, encumbrances, leasings, lettings or sublettings, or removals, for good cause shown, subject to the interest of the department and consistent with the purposes of this article.

(b) The consent of the department shall not be required where a veteran, alone or jointly with his spouse, transfers his interest in property which is the subject of a loan agreement with the department into a revocable trust established for the benefit of the veteran or of the veteran and his spouse.

SEC. 2. Section 987.73 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

987.73. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), the department in each individual case may specify the terms of the contract entered into with the purchaser, but no property sold under the provisions of this article shall, voluntarily or involuntarily, by operation of law or otherwise, be transferred, assigned, encumbered, leased, let or sublet, in whole or in part, nor shall any mobilehome be removed from its original site, except in case of emergency where temporary removal is necessary to avoid potential damage, without the written consent of the department, until the purchaser has paid therefor in full and has complied with all the terms and conditions of this contract of purchase. The department may give its written consent to such transfers, assignments, encumbrances, leasings, lettings or sublettings, or removals, for good cause shown, subject to the interest of the department and consistent with the purposes of this article.

(b) The consent of the department shall not be required where a veteran, alone or jointly with his spouse, transfers his interest in property which is the subject of a loan agreement with the department into a revocable trust established for the benefit of the veteran or of the veteran and his spouse.

SEC. 3. Section 988.2 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read·

988.2 Out of any money available in the Veterans' Farm and Home Building Fund of 1943, the department may advance to any purchaser upon his application, and under such policies as the department may, from time to time, prescribe, sums for the purpose of paying taxes and assessments, or making permanent improvements, including permanent improvements for the purpose of increasing farm productivity, or keeping in good order or repair, or for painting, redecorating or remodeling, all buildings, fences or other permanent improvements on, or the insuring against fire or other hazards, any building, fence or other permanent improvements or crops on the property being purchased from the department, or the department may advance to any such purchaser moneys actually expended in so doing.

All the money advanced to a purchaser by the department shall be added to the deferred principal of the purchaser's account and bear interest at the same rate and shall be repaid by the purchaser to the department under such conditions as it may prescribe.

The moneys advanced may, in the discretion of the department, be in addition to the maximum purchase price of a farm or home as limited by the provisions of Sections 986.4, 986.5, 987.64, and 987.65.

The department shall be the sole judge of the need and desirability of making such advances.

SEC. 4. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to provide veterans with substantially the same flexibility with their investments as a person financing his purchase through a commercial lending institution.

CHAPTER 926

An act to amend Section 3703 of the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Section 2441 of the Labor Code, relating to health enforcement.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3703 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

3703. (a) The state department and all health officers of counties, cities, and health districts shall enforce the provisions of this chapter.

(b) Pursuant to their enforcement of this chapter, such officers shall also enforce the provisions of Section 2441 of the Labor Code. This section shall not be construed to abridge or limit in any manner the jurisdiction of the Division of Industrial Safety of the Department of Industrial Relations pursuant to Division 5 (commencing with Section 6300) of the Labor Code.

SEC. 2. Section 2441 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

2441. (a) Every employer of labor in this state shall, without making a charge therefor, provide fresh and pure drinking water to his employees during working hours. Access to such drinking water shall be permitted at reasonable and convenient times and places. Any violation of this section is punishable for each offense by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25), nor more than one hundred dollars ($100), or by imprisonment for not more than 30 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(b) The State Department of Health Services and all health officers of counties, cities, and health districts shall enforce the provisions of this section pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 3703 of the Health and Safety Code. Such enforcement shall not be construed to abridge or limit in any manner the jurisdiction of the Division of Industrial Safety of the Department of Industrial Relations pursuant to Division 5 (commencing with Section 6300).

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local governmental entities and school districts which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes.

CHAPTER 927

An act to amend Section 33082 of, to add Sections 33085, 33086, and 33087 to, to add Article 11 (commencing with Section 33351) to Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 15 of, to add and repeal Section 33082 of, to repeal and add Section 33294 of, and to repeal and add Article 10 (commencing with Section 33321) of Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 15 of, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to milk and milk products.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 33082 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

33082. The director shall supervise the operation of all approved milk inspection services in the enforcement of this division and the regulations which are adopted by him.

This section shall not be operative until January 1, 1982.

SEC. 1.5. Section 33082 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

33082. The director shall supervise the operation of all approved milk inspection services in the enforcement of this division and the regulations which are adopted by him. By regulations adopted, after a public hearing, under the provisions of Section 33083, the director shall establish standards for evaluation of the efficiency and performance of both approved milk inspection services, and inspection services in established milk inspection areas.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1982, and as of such date is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 33085 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

33085. An advisory committee shall be established to assist the director in the administration of this chapter. The members of the advisory committee shall be appointed by the director and may hold office at the pleasure of the director.

SEC. 3. Section 33086 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

33086. The members of the advisory committee shall include persons representing producers, distributors who process or handle milk and dairy products, approved milk inspection services personnel, and the public generally. The advisory committee shall consist of such number of members as the director finds is necessary to assist properly in the administration of this chapter. In no event shall the membership of the advisory committee exceed seven members.

SEC. 4. Section 33087 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

33087. A member of the advisory committee shall not receive a salary. The director may authorize the reimbursement for any actual expenses incurred while engaged in performing the duties authorized by this chapter.

SEC. 4.5. Section 33294 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 4.7. Section 33294 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

33294. The director shall fix the fee for dairy farm and plant inspection not to exceed the actual directly related costs. Whenever the director finds that the cost of administering this chapter can be defrayed from revenue derived from lower fees, he may adjust the fee, but in no case shall the inspection fee exceed the following:

(a) For producers located in the Counties of Los Angeles, San Bernardino, Riverside, Kern, Kings, Tulare, Fresno, Madera, Merced, Stanislaus, San Joaquin, Sonoma, and Marin that sell market milk at wholesale which is to be sold as graded market milk, three mills ($0.003) per gallon on the first 35,000 gallons of graded market milk which was sold during the quarter-year period preceding the date such inspection fee becomes due and payable.

(b) For producers not located in the counties listed in subdivision (a) who sell market milk at wholesale which is to be sold as graded market milk, three mills ($0.003) per gallon on the first 45,000 gallons of graded market milk which was sold during the quarter-year period preceding the date such inspection fee becomes due and payable.

(c) For distributors that purchase market milk from producers or from other distributors which is to be sold as graded market milk or that distribute their own graded market milk, three mills ($0.003) for each gallon of graded market milk which was received or so produced during the quarter-year period preceding the date such inspection fee becomes due and payable.

(d) For producers that sell market milk at wholesale, two mills ($0.002) for each gallon of ungraded market milk which was sold during the quarter-year period preceding the date such inspection fee becomes due and payable.

(e) For distributors that purchase market milk from producers or that distribute their own market milk, two mills ($0.002) for each gallon of ungraded market milk which was received or so produced during the quarter-year period preceding the date such inspection fee becomes due and payable.

(f) Notwithstanding the fee limits provided in subdivisions (a) and (b), for producers identified in subdivisions (a) and (b), after January 1, 1980, the director may increase the inspection fee by an amount not to exceed one quarter mill ($0.00025) per gallon per annum.

SEC. 5. Article 10 (commencing with Section 33321) of Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 15 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Article 10 (commencing with Section 33321) is added to Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 15 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

Article 10. Manufacturing Milk Inspection

33321. The director may authorize the inspection of dairy farms producing manufacturing milk.

33322. The inspection of dairy farms producing manufacturing milk in an area to which an approved milk inspection service has been designated and assigned under the provisions of Article 4 (commencing with Section 33141) of this chapter shall be conducted by such approved milk inspection service. The inspection of dairy farms producing manufacturing milk in an established milk inspection area shall be conducted by the director.

33323. The inspection of any milk products plant provided for in Article 4 (commencing with Section 33141) of this chapter may include the inspection of any processed or manufactured products produced therein. The director may, after a public hearing, elect to inspect any milk products plant within the jurisdiction of any approved milk inspection service.

33324. If the director authorizes the inspection of dairy farms which produce manufacturing milk, or the inspection of milk products plants pursuant to the provisions of this article, then all provisions of this chapter applicable to market milk inspection shall, except to the extent modified by this article, apply to such inspections.

SEC. 7. Article 11 (commencing with Section 33351) is added to Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 15 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

Article 11. Violations

33351. It is unlawful for any person to do any of the following:

(a) Prevent, interfere with, or attempt to nullify in any way the work of any duly authorized representative of the department or of an approved milk inspection service in the enforcement of any provision of this division.

(b) Interfere with or prevent any such representative from examining any records or books in the conduct of his official duty.

(c) Prevent or interfere with any such representative if he deems it advisable to secure samples of milk or any product of milk, product resembling milk products, imitation butter, or oleomargarine, or any substance which is designed to be used as a substitute for milk or any product of milk

SEC. 8. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local governmental entities and school districts which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes.

CHAPTER 928

An act to amend Sections 33590, 33595, 49061, 49069, and 56310 of, and to add Section 56021 to, the Education Code, relating to special education.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 33590 of the Education Code is amended to read:

33590. (a) There is in the state government the Advisory Commission on Special Education consisting of:

(1) A Member of the Assembly appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly.

(2) A Member of the Senate appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules.

(3) One public member appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly, one public member appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules, one public member appointed by the Governor, and one public member appointed by the State Board of Education, all of whom shall be parents of pupils in either public or private schools who have received or are currently receiving special education services due to a handicapping condition.

(4) Eleven other public members appointed by the State Board of Education upon the recommendation of the Superintendent of Public Instruction or the members of the State Board of Education

(b) The commission membership shall be selected to ensure a representative group knowledgeable about the wide variety of handicapping conditions which require special programs in order to achieve the goal of providing an appropriate education to all eligible pupils.

(c) Each public member shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing power.

SEC. 2. Section 33595 of the Education Code is amended to read:

33595. (a) The commission shall study and provide assistance and advice to the State Board of Education in new or continuing areas of research, program development, and evaluation in special education.

(b) The commission shall report to the State Board of Education not less than once a year on the following:

(1) Activities necessary to be undertaken regarding special education for individuals with exceptional needs which are enumerated in Section 56310.

(2) The priorities and procedures utilized in the distribution of federal and state funds.

(3) The unmet educational needs of individuals with exceptional needs within the state.

(4) Recommendations relating to providing better educational services to individuals with exceptional needs.

(c) Commission recommendations or requests shall be transmitted by letter from the commission chairperson to the president of the State Board of Education. Each communication shall be placed on the agenda of the next forthcoming state board meeting in accordance with the announced annual state board agenda cutoff dates. Following the state board meeting, the commission shall be notified by the state board as to what action has been taken on each recommendation or request.

SEC. 3. Section 49061 of the Education Code is amended to read:

49061. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Parent" means a natural parent, an adopted parent, or legal guardian. If parents are divorced or legally separated, only the parent having legal custody of the pupil may challenge the content of a record pursuant to Section 49070, offer a written response to a record pursuant to Section 49072, or consent to release records to others pursuant to Section 49075, provided, however, that either parent may grant consent if both parents have notified, in writing, the school or school district that such an agreement has been made. Whenever a pupil has attained the age of 18 years or is attending an institution of postsecondary education, the permission or consent required of, and the rights accorded to, the parents or guardian of the pupil shall thereafter only be required of, and accorded to, the pupil.

(b) "Pupil record" means any item of information directly related to an identifiable pupil, other than directory information, which is maintained by a school district or required to be maintained by an employee in the performance of his duties whether recorded by handwriting, print, tapes, film, microfilm or other means.

"Pupil record" shall not include informal notes related to a pupil compiled by a school officer or employee which remain in the sole possession of the maker and are not accessible or revealed to any other person except a substitute. For purposes of this subdivision, "substitute" means a person who performs the duties of the individual who made the notes on a temporary basis, and does not refer to a person who permanently succeeds the maker of the notes in his or her position.

(c) "Directory information" means one or more of the following items: student's name, address, telephone number, date and place of birth, major field of study, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, weight and height of members of athletic teams, dates of attendance, degrees and awards received, and the most recent previous public or private school attended by the student.

(d) "School district" means any school district maintaining any of grades kindergarten through 12, any public school providing instruction in any of grades kindergarten through 12, the office of the county superintendent of schools, or any special school operated by the Department of Education.

(e) "Access" means a personal inspection and review of a record or an accurate copy of a record, or receipt of an accurate copy of a record, an oral description or communication of a record or an accurate copy of a record, and a request to release a copy of any record.

SEC. 4. Section 49069 of the Education Code is amended to read:

49069. Parents of currently enrolled or former pupils have an absolute right to access to any and all pupil records related to their children which are maintained by school districts or private schools. The editing or withholding of any such records, except as provided for in this chapter, is prohibited.

Each school district shall adopt procedures for the granting of requests by parents for copies of all pupil records pursuant to Section 49065, or to inspect and review records during regular school hours, provided that the requested access shall be granted no later than five days following the date of the request. Procedures shall include the notification to the parent of the location of all official pupil records if not centrally located and the availability of qualified certificated personnel to interpret records where requested.

SEC. 5. Section 56021 is added to the Education Code, to read:

56021 In no event shall a child be placed in an experimental program established pursuant to this article without the prior informed consent of a parent or guardian of the child.

SEC. 5.5. Section 56310 of the Education Code is amended to read:

56310 The State Board of Education shall:

(a) Establish and periodically update the California Master Plan for Special Education.

(b) Adopt rules and regulations necessary for the efficient administration of this chapter.

(c) Adopt criteria and procedures for the review and approval by the board of local comprehensive plans submitted under Sections 56314 and 56315. Local comprehensive plans may be approved for up to three years.

(d) Provide review, upon petition, to any responsible local agency that appeals a decision made by the department which affects the agency's providing services under this chapter.

(e) Review and approve a program evaluation plan for special education programs provided by this chapter in accordance with Article 4 (commencing with Section 56350).

(f) Recommend to the Commission for Teacher Preparation and Licensing standards for the certification of professional personnel for special education programs conducted pursuant to this chapter.

(g) Adopt standards for the use of substitute teachers.

(h) By January 1, 1979, adopt regulations to provide specific criteria and guidelines for the identification of pupils as individuals with exceptional needs.

(i) By July 1, 1979, adopt guidelines of reasonable pupil progress and achievement for individuals with exceptional needs. Such guidelines shall be developed to aid teachers and parents in assessing an individual pupil's education program and the appropriateness of the special education services.

(j) In accordance with the requirements of federal law, adopt standards for all educational programs for individuals with exceptional needs, including programs administered by other state or local agencies.

(k) Adopt uniform rules and regulations relating to parental due process rights in the area of special education.

SEC. 6. Members of the Advisory Commission on Special Education who were appointed prior to the effective date of this act may complete their term of office.

CHAPTER 929

An act to amend Section 25602 of the Business and Professions Code, and to amend Section 1714 of the Civil Code, relating to proximate cause.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25602 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

25602. (a) Every person who sells, furnishes, gives, or causes to be sold, furnished, or given away, any alcoholic beverage to any habitual or common drunkard or to any obviously intoxicated person is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(b) No person who sells, furnishes, gives, or causes to be sold, furnished, or given away, any alcoholic beverage pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section shall be civilly liable to any injured person or the estate of such person for injuries inflicted on that person as a result of intoxication by the consumer of such alcoholic beverage.

(c) The Legislature hereby declares that this section shall be interpreted so that the holdings in cases such as Vesely v. Sager (5 Cal. 3d 153), Bernhard v. Harrah's Club (16 Cal. 3d 313) and Coulter v. Superior Court (_____ Cal. 3d _____) be abrogated in favor of prior judicial interpretation finding the consumption of alcoholic beverages rather than the serving of alcoholic beverages as the proximate cause of injuries inflicted upon another by an intoxicated person.

SEC. 2. Section 1714 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1714. (a) Every one is responsible, not only for the result of his willful acts, but also for an injury occasioned to another by his want of ordinary care or skill in the management of his property or person, except so far as the latter has, willfully or by want of ordinary care, brought the injury upon himself. The extent of liability in such cases is defined by the Title on Compensatory Relief.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature to abrogate the holdings in cases such as Vesely v. Sager (5 Cal. 3d 153), Bernhard v. Harrah's Club (16 Cal. 3d 313), and Coulter v. Superior Court (_____ Cal. 3d _____) and to reinstate the prior judicial interpretation of this section as it relates to proximate cause for injuries incurred as a result of furnishing alcoholic beverages to an intoxicated person, namely that the furnishing of alcoholic beverages is not the proximate cause of injuries resulting from intoxication, but rather the consumption of alcoholic beverages is the proximate cause of injuries inflicted upon another by an intoxicated person.

(c) No social host who furnishes alcoholic beverages to any person shall be held legally accountable for damages suffered by such person, or for injury to the person or property of, or death of, any third person, resulting from the consumption of such beverages.

CHAPTER 930

An act to add Sections 25602.1, 25602.2, and 25602.3 to the Business and Professions Code, relating to alcoholic beverages.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25602.1 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

25602.1. Notwithstanding subdivision (b) of Section 25602, a cause of action may be brought by or on behalf of any person who has suffered injury or death against any person licensed pursuant to Section 23300 who sells, furnishes, gives or causes to be sold, furnished or given away any alcoholic beverage to any obviously intoxicated minor where the furnishing, sale or giving of such beverage to the minor is the proximate cause of the personal injury or death sustained by such person.

SEC. 2. Section 25602.2 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

25602.2. The director may bring an action to enjoin a violation or the threatened violation of subdivision (a) of Section 25602. Such action may be brought in the county in which the violation occurred or is threatened to occur. Any proceeding brought hereunder shall conform to the requirements of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, except that it shall be presumed that there is no adequate remedy at law, and that irreparable damage will occur if the continued or threatened violation is not restrained or enjoined.

SEC. 3. Section 25602.3 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

25602.3. Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, no licensee may petition the department for an offer in compromise pursuant to Section 23095 for a second or any subsequent violation of subdivision (a) of Section 25602 which occurs within 36 months of the initial violation.

CHAPTER 931

An act to amend Section 23002 of, and to add Section 24402 to, the Education Code, relating to the State Teachers' Retirement System, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 23002 of the Education Code is amended to read·

23002. Member contributions required by Section 22804 and employer contributions required by Section 23400 are due in the office of the system five working days immediately following the period covered by the monthly report upon which the salary earned during the period is being reported and from and upon which the contributions are due. Payments shall be delinquent on the sixth working day thereafter and interest, as determined by the board, shall begin to accrue as of that day. The board shall authorize estimated payments of not less than 95 percent of the contributions due, and, in such case, the balance of contributions payable shall be due in the office of the system no more than 15 working days following the period covered by the monthly report upon which the contributions are based. This additional payment shall be delinquent on the 16th working day thereafter, and interest, as determined by the board, shall begin to accrue as of that day.

SEC. 2. Section 24402 is added to the Education Code, to read:

24402. The first three hundred dollars ($300) of the monthly allowances payable by the system to retirants, disabilitants, and beneficiaries are increased as of July 1, 1978, for those members receiving allowances on July 1, 1978, if the member had less than 20 years of credited service, as follows:

(a) For those with effective dates prior to July 1, 1972, 9 percent.

(b) For those with effective dates from July 1, 1972, to June 30, 1973, 6 percent.

(c) For those with effective dates from July 1, 1973, to June 30, 1974, 3 percent.

SEC. 3. As contributions towards retirement collected by school districts are funds in trust for employees participating in the State Teachers' Retirement System, Section 1 of this act, constitutes no new obligation or financial burden for local agencies, but merely restates the intent and spirit of the present State Teacher's Retirement Law.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that the provisions of this act may achieve their full intended effect, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 932

An act to add Section 29004.5 to the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 29004.5 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

29004.5. No recreational vehicle, as described in Section 18010.5

of the Health and Safety Code, designed to be towed, shall be manufactured for sale in this state, sold, offered for sale, leased, or rented unless it is equipped with a safety connection in compliance with Section 29004 with breaking strength which equals or exceeds the gross weight of the towed vehicle. The retail seller, renter, or lessor shall supply instructions to the purchaser, renter, or lessee of such recreational vehicle on proper methods of making the connection between the towed and towing vehicles. Nothing in this section shall, however, require a lessor of a recreational vehicle to supply to the lessee of such vehicle the required instructions if such vehicle is sold to the lessor by a third party and such third party or the agent of the third party delivers possession of the vehicle to the lessee. In such case, such third party shall supply to the lessee the required instructions.

CHAPTER 933

An act relating to the study of the development of hydroelectric resources at existing dams in this state.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) The effects of the Arab oil embargo and more recently a prolonged drought throughout California have combined to make the costs of generating electrical power soar while energy of all kinds has become more scarce.

(b) It is becoming increasingly more important that the state's potential hydroelectrical generating resources be utilized to the utmost in the search for environmentally sound sources of power.

(c) There are throughout the state many dams and other hydraulic structures which were constructed originally for purposes other than electrical power generation, such as to create recreational facilities or to provide flood control, and which were not originally equipped with electrical generators because they were not thought at the time to be economically feasible power sources.

(d) Changed circumstances indicate that many of these dams and hydraulic structures would be valuable and economical sources of hydroelectric power under present conditions, and the failure to utilize them in this manner constitutes misuse and waste of a valuable natural resource.

(e) The Department of Water Resources has identified existing dams and hydraulic structures with the potential for hydroelectric generation in Bulletin No. 194 entitled, "Hydroelectric Energy Potential in California", dated March, 1974, and in its subsequent survey of "Small Hydroelectric Potential in California".

(f) It is in the best interests of the state that the existing dams and hydraulic structures identified in the Department of Water Resources' previous surveys be further studied to determine the feasibility and cost-effectiveness of equipping these dams and hydraulic structures with electric power-generating facilities.

SEC. 2. The Department of Water Resources shall study the feasibility and cost-effectiveness of equipping existing dams and hydraulic structures with electrical power-generating facilities, where such dams and structures are presently not so equipped, and shall prepare a report specifying those existing dams and hydraulic structures for which such retrofitting would be feasible.

SEC. 3. The Department of Water Resources shall, not later than January 1, 1981, submit the report prepared pursuant to Section 2 of this act to the Governor, the Legislature, the Public Utilities Commission, and the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission. The Public Utilities Commission and the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission shall use the information contained in the report, as each deems appropriate, in performing their respective administrative responsibilities.

CHAPTER 934

An act to add Article 5.5 (commencing with Section 53098) to Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, to add Section 41500.5 to the Health and Safety Code, and to add Section 13170.5 to the Water Code, relating to San Francisco Bay Area environmental planning, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 5.5 (commencing with Section 53098) is added to Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, to read:

Article 5.5. Regulation of the Environmental Management Plan by State Agencies

53098. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, review, certification, and approval of any and all provisions of the San Francisco Bay Regional Environmental Management Plan, and any subsequent revision or amendments thereto by the Association of Bay Area Governments, shall be subject to the requirements of this article.

53098.1. After adoption or the annual revision of the Environmental Management Plan by the General Assembly of the Association of Bay Area Governments, any state agency that is required, pursuant to federal law, to review, certify, approve, or otherwise act upon such plan shall transmit such plan without change to the federal Environmental Protection Agency, except as otherwise provided in this article.

53098.2. (a) In the event that an appropriate state agency finds that the Environmental Management Plan, or portion thereof, does not satisfy an applicable environmental protection standard required by federal law, or regulation adopted pursuant thereto, the state agency shall return such plan, or portion thereof, to the Association of Bay Area Governments for appropriate revision in order to bring such plan into compliance with such standard. Upon completion of the revision, the Association of Bay Area Governments shall submit such plan to the state agency.

(b) In the event that an appropriate state agency finds that the Environmental Management Plan, or portion thereof, after being revised as provided in subdivision (a), continues to not satisfy an applicable environmental protection standard required pursuant to federal law, it shall resubmit the plan or portion thereof to the Association of Bay Area Governments for further revision. A state agency may continue to resubmit the Environmental Management Plan, or portion thereof, for further revision if it determines that the revised plan, or portion thereof, does not satisfy applicable federal environmental protection standards.

SEC. 2. Section 41500.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

41500.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any plan required by the provisions of this title shall be subject to the provisions of Article 5.5 (commencing with Section 53098) of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code.

SEC. 3. Section 13170.5 is added to the Water Code, to read:

13170.5. Notwithstanding any provision of law, any plan provided in Section 13170, 13240, or 13245, and any approval thereof, and any certification or approval of an areawide waste treatment management plan prepared pursuant to Section 208 of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act shall be subject to the provisions of Article 5.5 (commencing with Section 53098) of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code.

SEC. 4. The sum of two hundred eighty thousand dollars ($280,000) is hereby appropriated to the Association of Bay Area Governments from the California Environmental Protection Program Fund, provided that such funds shall be used by the association to match available federal grants for the continuing environmental management planning process, and to update the Environmental Management Plan, as required by federal laws.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to insure that any revisions in the Environmental Management Plan adopted by the Association of Bay Area Governments, if required, can be made by such association, and in order to insure that sufficient matching funds are available to enable such association's environmental management planning to continue, it is necessary that this act take immediate effect.

CHAPTER 935

An act to add Section 11977 to the Health and Safety Code, and to repeal Section 5907 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to confidentiality of records.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11977 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

11977. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision or in subdivision (b), records of the identity, diagnosis, prognosis, or treatment of any patient which are maintained in connection with performance of any narcotic and drug abuse program shall be confidential and shall be disclosed only for the purposes and under the circumstances expressly authorized by this section. The content of any record referred to in this section may be disclosed in accordance with the prior written consent of the patient with respect to whom such record is maintained, or:

(1) To licensed medical personnel to the extent necessary to meet a bona fide medical emergency.

(2) To qualified personnel for the purpose of conducting scientific research, management audits, or program evaluation, but such personnel shall not identify, directly or indirectly, any individual patient in any report of such research, audit, or evaluation, or otherwise disclose patient identities in any manner.

(3) If authorized by an appropriate order of a court of competent jurisdiction granted after application showing good cause therefor. In assessing good cause, the court shall weigh the public interest and the need for disclosure against the injury to the patient, to the physician-patient relationship, and to the treatment services program. Upon the granting of such order, the court, in determining the extent to which any disclosure of all or any part of any record is necessary, shall impose appropriate safeguards against unauthorized disclosure.

(b) The provisions of subdivision (a) shall not apply to the records of any person involuntarily committed to any narcotic or drug abuse program conducted by the State Department of Corrections

SEC. 2. Section 5937 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

CHAPTER 936

An act to amend Sections 202 and 270 of, and to add Section 202.2 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 202 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

202. (a) The exemption of the following property is as specified in subdivisions (a), (b), (d), and (h) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the Constitution, except as otherwise provided in subdivision (a) of Section 11 thereof:

(1) Growing crops.

(2) Property used for free public libraries and free museums.

(3) Property used exclusively for public schools, community colleges, state colleges, and state universities, including the University of California.

(4) Property belonging to this state, a county, or a city. Property belonging to the State Compensation Insurance Fund is not property belonging to this state.

(b) The exemption described in paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) shall apply to off-campus facilities owned or leased by an apprenticeship program sponsor, if such facilities are used exclusively by the public schools for classes of related and supplemental instruction for apprentices or trainees which are conducted by the public schools under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 3070) of Division 3 of the Labor Code.

SEC. 2. Section 202.2 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

202.2. Any reduction in property taxes on leased property used for libraries and museums that are free and open to the public, leased property used exclusively for public schools, community colleges, state colleges, or state universities, including the University of California, or leased property used exclusively for educational purposes by a nonprofit institution of higher education and granted the exemption set forth in subdivision (d) or (e) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the California Constitution shall inure to the benefit of the lessee institution. If the lessor claims the exemption and if the lease or rental agreement does not specifically provide that the exemption contained in subdivision (d) or (e) of Section 3 of Article XIII is taken into account in fixing the terms of the agreement, the lessee shall receive a reduction in rental payments or a refund thereof, if already paid, in an amount equal to the reduction in taxes.

If the lessor does not claim the exemption on property eligible for the exemption contained in subdivision (d) or (e) of Section 3 of Article XIII, the lessee may file a claim for refund under Section 5096 with respect to taxes paid by the lessor on the property. For purposes of Sections 5097 and 5140, the lessee shall be deemed to be the person who paid the tax, and the refund shall be made directly to the lessee. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 270, the full amount of tax paid by the lessor shall be refunded to the lessee.

Any refund granted pursuant to this part shall not be considered a reduction in the sales price or gross receipts from the rental of the property for purposes of Part 1 (commencing with Section 6001), Part 1.6 (commencing with Section 7200) or Part 1.6 (commencing with Section 7251).

SEC. 3. Section 270 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

270. (a) With respect to property as to which the college, cemetery, church, exhibition, veterans' organization, free public libraries, free museums, public schools, community colleges, state colleges, state universities or welfare exemption was available but for which a timely application for exemption was not filed–

(1) Ninety percent of any tax or penalty or interest thereon shall be canceled or refunded provided an appropriate application for exemption is filed on or before the first day of March of the calendar year next succeeding the calendar year in which the exemption was not claimed by a timely application; or, if the application is filed thereafter,

(2) Eighty-five percent of any tax or penalty or interest thereon shall be canceled or refunded provided an appropriate application for exemption is filed and relief is not authorized under Section 214.01 or 271.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a), any tax or penalty or interest thereon exceeding two hundred fifty dollars ($250) in total amount shall be canceled or refunded provided it is imposed upon property entitled to relief under subdivision (a) for which an appropriate claim for exemption has been filed.

(c) With respect to property as to which the welfare exemption or veterans' organization exemption was available, all provisions of Section 254.5, other than the specified dates for the filing of affidavits and other acts, are applicable to this section.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because the duties, obligations or responsibilities imposed on local governmental entities or school districts by this act are such that related costs are incurred as part of their normal operating procedures.

SEC. 5. Section 2 of this act shall apply to contracts and leases entered into on and after the effective date of this act.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

This act must take effect immediately in order for the benefits thereunder to be available for the present fiscal year.

CHAPTER 937

An act to amend Section 4656 of the Labor Code, relating to workers' compensation.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1 Section 4656 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4656. Aggregate disability payments for a single injury occurring prior to January 1, 1979, causing temporary disability shall not extend for more than 240 compensable weeks within a period of five years from the date of the injury.

Aggregate disability payments for a single injury occurring on or after January 1, 1979, causing temporary partial disability shall not extend for more than 240 compensable weeks within a period of five years from the date of the injury.

SEC. 2. No appropriation is made by this act, nor is any obligation created thereby under Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, for the reimbursement of any local agency for any costs that may be incurred by it in carrying on any program or performing any service required to be carried on or performed by it by this act.

CHAPTER 938

An act to amend Sections 2100.8, 2525.9, 2525.10, and 2525.12 of, and to add Section 2525.25 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to podiatry.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2100.8 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2100.8. The Division of Allied Health Professions shall have responsibility for:

(a) The activities of examining committees and nonphysician certificate holders under the jurisdiction of the board.

(b) Discipline of nonphysician certificate holders to the extent such discipline is currently within the jurisdiction of the board.

(c) Carrying out disciplinary action appropriate to findings made by the Podiatry Examining Committee, with respect to podiatrists.

(d) Acting as liaison with other healing arts boards concerning the activities of the licentiates of other boards.

SEC. 2. Section 2525.9 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2525.9. The examining committee shall have full authority, to investigate and to evaluate each and every applicant applying for a certificate to practice podiatry and to recommend to the Division of Allied Health Professions for final determination the admission of the applicant to the examination, or for the issuance of a certificate, in conformance with the provisions and qualifications required by this chapter.

In order to insure the continuing competence of persons holding certificates to practice podiatric medicine pursuant to this chapter, the Podiatry Examining Committee shall by January 1, 1980, adopt and administer regulations requiring continuing education of such certificate holders. The committee shall require certificate holders to demonstrate satisfaction of the continuing education requirements for each license renewal.

SEC. 3. Section 2525.10 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2525.10. The examining committee shall have the responsibility for reviewing the quality of podiatric medical practice carried out by holders of certificates to practice podiatry under the jurisdiction of the Division of Allied Health Professions.

Each member of the examining committee, or any licensed podiatrist appointed by the committee, shall additionally have the authority to inspect, or require reports from, a general or specialized hospital and the podiatric staff thereof, with respect to the podiatric care, services, or facilities provided therein, and may inspect podiatric patient records with respect to such care, services, or facilities. The authority to make inspections and to require reports as provided by this section shall not be delegated by a member of the committee to any person other than a podiatrist and shall be subject to the restrictions against disclosure described in Section 2379.

SEC. 4. Section 2525.12 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2525.12. (a) The examining committee may order the denial of an application for, or the suspension of, or the revocation of, or the imposition of probationary conditions upon, a certificate to practice podiatric medicine for any of the causes set forth in Articles 13 and 13.5 (commencing with Sections 2360 and 2416, respectively) of this chapter.

(b) The examining committee may hear all matters, including but not limited to, any contested case or any petition for reinstatement, or modification of probation, or may assign any such matters to a hearing officer. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, all such hearings shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500), Part 1, Division 3, Title 2 of the Government Code. If a contested case is heard by the examining committee, the hearing officer who presided at the hearing shall be present during the committee's consideration of the case and, if requested, shall assist and advise the committee.

(c) After the hearing, the Division of Allied Health Professions shall deny an application for, or suspend or revoke, or impose probationary conditions upon, a license as ordered by the examining committee in any decision made after hearing as provided in subdivision (b).

SEC. 5. Section 2525.25 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

2525.25. The examining committee may recommend to the Division of Allied Health Professions the adoption, amendment, or repeal of rules and regulations relating to the practice of podiatry.

CHAPTER 939

An act to amend Section 50081 of, and to add Sections 50081.1 and 50081.2 to, the Government Code, relating to law enforcement.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 50081 of the Government Code is amended to read:

50081. To the extent that funds therefor have been made available to a local agency pursuant to Section 50082, the legislative body of a local agency shall furnish each newly hired police officer and deputy sheriff employed full time by the local agency with a service revolver or other suitable pistol, holster, belt and ammunition, a nightstick, handcuffs, raincoats, and rainboots.

The following items are recommended to be provided by local agencies but are not reimbursable pursuant to Section 50082:

(a) Off-duty holster.

(b) Whistle.

(c) Flashlight, flashlight batteries, and flashlight bulb.

(d) Chemical Mace and chemical Mace holder.

(e) Utility jacket.

(f) Protective vest.

Such equipment shall remain the property of the local agency and shall be returned upon request of the local agency.

SEC. 2. Section 50081.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

50081.1. The legislative body of a local agency may furnish police officers and deputy sheriffs assigned to solo motorcycle duty with the following safety equipment:

(a) Motorcycle boots and riding breeches.

(b) Leather motorcycle jacket and leather gloves.

(c) Plastic safety helmet.

(d) Suitable eye protective glasses for day duty and suitable eye protective glasses for night duty.

Such equipment shall remain the property of the local agency and shall be returned upon request of the local agency.

SEC. 3. Section 50081.2 is added to the Government Code, to read:

50081.2. The legislative body of a local agency may furnish police officers and deputy sheriffs assigned to helicopter duty with the following safety equipment:

(a) Fireproof coveralls or other suitable fireproof uniforms, fireproof underwear, and fireproof stockings.

(b) Flight boots.

(c) Suitable plastic aviation-type safety helmet.

Such equipment shall remain the property of the local agency and shall be returned upon request of the local agency.

SEC. 4. It is the intent of the Legislature that local agencies provide the equipment specified in Sections 2 and 3 of this act when local funds are available.

It is not the intent of the Legislature by the amendments made in Section 1 of this act to overrule the holding in Oakland Police Officers Association v. City of Oakland, 30 Cal. App. 3d 96, or to affect the requirements of Section 6401 of the Labor Code.

CHAPTER 940

An act to amend Section 10004 of the Elections Code, relating to elections, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10004 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

10004. There shall be a revolving fund for the purchase of ballot paper and punchcards. The fund shall be continuously appropriated and shall be continuously utilized without regard to fiscal years for the payment of expenses incurred by the Secretary of State in accordance with the provisions of this section. The fund shall be used for the purchase of ballot paper and punchcards as provided in this chapter and shall be reimbursed by the receipts from the jurisdiction obtaining the ballot paper or punchcards in accordance with this chapter. The fund shall at all times be intact and represented either by cash in the State Treasury, ballot paper or punchcards in the custody of the Secretary of State, or accounts receivable representing ballot paper or punchcard sales.

SEC. 2. The sum of three hundred fifty thousand dollars ($350,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Secretary of State for purposes of funding the revolving fund set forth in Section 10004 of the Elections Code.

CHAPTER 941

An act to amend Section 3271 of, and to add Section 1586.5 to, the Unemployment Insurance Code, and to repeal Section 2 of Chapter 694 of the Statutes of 1976, relating to unemployment insurance, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1586.5 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

1586.5. There is hereby appropriated from the Contingent Fund to the Employment Development Department an amount sufficient to augment an appropriation available from the Unemployment Trust Fund pursuant to Section 1528.5 for acquisition of real property, or for construction and equipment of state public works projects, in order to provide for payment of such public work projects for which an appropriation is available where such project cannot be undertaken because the estimate exceeds the amount available or bids received are in excess of the estimate, and upon such augmentation, contracts may be awarded therefor, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 14275 of the Government Code.

Allocations may be made for acquisition of real property in augmentation of appropriations made for acquisition of real property and which cannot be acquired because acquisition costs are in excess of the amounts provided in the appropriation.

Allocations may be made for purchase of equipment in augmentation of appropriations made from which purchase of equipment is authorized.

Expenditures shall be pursuant to executive orders of the Director of Finance upon approval of the State Public Works Board.

SEC. 2. Section 3271 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

3271. (a) The director shall approve any amendment to a voluntary plan adjusting the provisions thereof as to periods after the effective date of the amendment as to which he or she finds that the plan, as amended, will conform to the standards set forth in Section 3254, and that any of the following exist:

(1) A majority of the employees covered by the plan have consented in writing to the amendment.

(2) All of the employees covered by the plan who are adversely affected by the amendment have consented in writing to the amendment.

(3) The insurer of such plan, if any, has certified to the director that notice of the amendment either separately or as a part of a new certificate or statement of coverage, has, at least 10 days prior to the effective date of the proposed amendment, been delivered to the employer for distribution to his or her employees within 10 days thereafter and has further certified that such notice specifically included notification to the employees covered by the plan of their right to withdraw from the plan.

(b) Nothing contained in this section is intended to deny or limit the right of the director to make regulations supplementary thereto, nor on the general subject of requirements for amendments of voluntary plans.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of Chapter 694 of the Statutes of 1976 is repealed.

CHAPTER 942

An act to amend and repeal Section 8183 of, and to add Section 8183 to, the Fish and Game Code, relating to commercial fishing.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8183 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8183. No anchovies may be taken for any purpose in Humboldt Bay, except under the following conditions:

(a) Anchovies may be taken for live bait only between September 1 and December 1. Anchovies may only be taken by the operator of a vessel for use in his own fishing operation, except that the operator may make incidental sales of anchovies so taken to local sport fishermen for their use as bait.

(b) An observer who is an employee of the department shall inspect any bait operation and shall be authorized to halt that operation in the event that such operation cannot be conducted without adversely affecting the game species of the bay. Notification of all bait operations shall be dispatched so as to be received by the department at least 12 hours prior to the commencement of the operation.

(c) Anchovies may be taken in Humboldt Bay only north of a line extending through channel markers 9 and 10 in Humboldt Bay.

(d) The seasonal take of anchovy shall not exceed 15 percent of the average summer anchovy biomass as determined by the department.

(e) Bait nets, as defined in Section 8780, shall be the only nets used to take anchovy.

(f) Any game fish caught incidentally in nets shall be released by use of a hand scoop net or by dipping the cork line.

On January 1, 1980, and annually thereafter, the department shall submit a report to the Legislature describing the status of the Humboldt Bay anchovy fishery. The report shall include an assessment of the environmental impact of the bait fishery on the marine resources of the bay, including any possible adverse effects thereon.

The commission shall promulgate any other regulation it deems necessary to protect the Humboldt Bay anchovy resource.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1982, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 8183 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

8183. No anchovies may be taken for any purposes in Humboldt Bay.

This section shall become operative on January 1, 1982.

CHAPTER 943

An act to amend Section 26635 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to drug labeling.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 26635 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

26635. (a) Any drug is misbranded unless its label bears, to the exclusion of any other nonproprietary name except the applicable, systematic chemical name or the chemical formula, all of the following information:

(1) The established name of the drug, if any.

(2) If it is fabricated from two or more ingredients, the established name and quantity of each active ingredient, including the kind and quantity or proportion of any alcohol, and also including, whether active or not, the established name and quantity or proportion of any bromides, ether, chloroform, acetanilide, acetophenetidin, antipyrine, atropine, hyoscine, hyoscyamine, codeine, arsenic, digitalis, digitalis glycosides, mercury, ouabain, strophanthin, strychnine, barbituric acid, or any derivative or preparation of any such substances contained therein.

(b) The requirement for stating the quantity of the active ingredients of any drug, including the quantity or proportion of any alcohol, and also including, whether active or not, the quantity or proportion of any bromides, ether, chloroform, acetanilide, acetophenetidin, antipyrine, atropine, hyoscine, hyoscyamine, codeine, arsenic, digitalis, digitalis glycosides, mercury, ouabain, strophanthin, strychnine, barbituric acid, or any derivative or preparation of any such substances contained therein, shall apply to all drugs, including prescription drugs and nonprescription drugs. However, the requirement for declaration of quantity shall not apply to nonprescription drugs which are also cosmetics, as defined in Section 201(i) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. Sec. 321(i)) and which are labeled in compliance with federal labeling requirements concerning declaration of ingredients including active ingredients, except that the quantity or proportion of the following ingredients, whether active or not, shall be declared: any alcohol, bromides, ether, chloroform, acetanilide, acetophenetidin, antipyrine, atropine, hyoscine, hyoscyamine, codeine, arsenic, digitalis, digitalis glycosides, mercury, ouabain, strophanthin, strychnine, barbituric acid, or any derivative or preparation of any such substances contained therein. The department may exempt any nonprescription drug from the requirement of stating the quantity of the active ingredients, other than those specifically named in this subdivision, upon a showing by the applicant through evidence satisfactory to the department that the granting of the exemption will not endanger the public health. For any prescription drug the established name of such drug or ingredient, as the case may be, on such label and on any labeling on which a name for such drug or ingredient is used shall be printed prominently and in type at least half as large as that used thereon for any proprietary name or designation for such drug or ingredient.

The changes made in this section during the 1977–78 Regular Session shall not apply to any drug shipped by a manufacturer or packer to a retailer or wholesaler before January 1, 1980. Any such drugs so shipped shall comply with the provisions of this section on and after January 1, 1981.

SEC. 2. This act shall become operative on January 1, 1980.

CHAPTER 944

An act to amend Sections 2626 and 2627 of, and to add Section 2626.1 to, the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to unemployment compensation disability benefits.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2626 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

2626. An individual shall be deemed disabled on any day in which, because of his or her physical or mental condition, he or she is unable to perform his or her regular or customary work.

"Disability" or "disabled" includes:

(a) Illness or injury, whether physical or mental.

(b) To the extent specified in Section 2626.2, pregnancy.

(c) Inability to work because of a written order from a state or local health officer to an individual infected with, or suspected of being infected with, a communicable disease.

(d) Acute alcoholism being medically treated or, to the extent specified in Section 2626.1, resident status in an alcoholic recovery home.

SEC. 2. Section 2626.1 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

2626.1. (a) An individual who is a resident in an alcoholic recovery home pursuant to referral or recommendation by a physician shall be eligible for disability benefits for a period not in excess of 30 days in any disability benefit period while receiving resident services, if an authorized representative of the alcoholic recovery home certifies that the individual is a resident participating in an alcoholic recovery program which has satisfied a program review by the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Abuse.

(b) The department shall reimburse the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Abuse from the Disability Fund, in a reasonable amount as determined by the department, for the expense of reviewing any alcoholic recovery program, as required by the department in the administration of subdivision (a) which is not funded in the County Alcoholism Program Budget provided for in Article 3 (commencing with Section 11810) or Article 4 (commencing with Section 11830) of Part 2 of Division 10.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 3. Section 2627 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

2627. A disabled individual is eligible to receive disability benefits equal to one-seventh of his or her weekly benefit amount for each full day during which he or she is unemployed due to a disability only if the director finds that:

(a) He or she has made a claim for disability benefits as required by authorized regulations.

(b) Except as provided in Section 2627.5, he or she has been unemployed and disabled for a waiting period of seven consecutive days during each disability benefit period with respect to which waiting period no disability benefits are payable.

(c) Except as provided in Sections 2626.1 and 2709, he or she has submitted to such reasonable examinations as the director may require for the purpose of determining his or her disability.

(d) Except as provided in Section 2708.1, he or she has filed a certificate as required by Section 2708 or 2709.

SEC. 4. Section 2627 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

2627. A disabled individual is eligible to receive disability benefits equal to one-seventh of his or her weekly benefit amount for each full day during which he or she is unemployed due to a disability only if the director finds that:

(a) He or she has made a claim for disability benefits as required by authorized regulations.

(b) Except as provided in Sections 2627.3 and 2627.5, he or she has been unemployed and disabled for a waiting period of seven consecutive days during the disability benefit period with respect to which waiting period no disability benefits are payable.

(c) Except as provided in Sections 2626.1 and 2709 he or she has submitted to such reasonable examinations as the director may require for the purpose of determining his or her disability.

(d) Except as provided in Section 2708.1, he or she has filed a certificate as required by Section 2708 or 2709.

SEC. 5. The department, in consultation with the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Abuse, shall inform and advise physicians, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 3209.3 of the Labor Code, concerning the enactment and implementation of subdivision (a) of Section 2626.1 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, and for this purpose shall seek the cooperation and assistance of other organizations, including, but not limited to, the California Medical Association, the California Society for the Treatment of Alcoholism and Other Drug Dependencies, the County Alcoholism Administrators Association of California, and the California Association of Alcoholic Recovery Homes.

SEC. 6. The department shall seek data from the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Abuse and the California Association of Alcoholic Recovery Homes to determine the adequacy of the maximum 30-day period for the payment of benefits specified in subdivision (a) of Section 2626.1 of the Unemployment Insurance Code as a reasonable period of primary recovery and whether it should be modified. The department shall submit a report to the Legislature by December 31, 1979, with any proposed changes.

SEC. 7. The department shall submit an interim progress report to the Legislature by April 1, 1980, on the implementation and utilization of the program provided for in Section 2626.1 of the Unemployment Insurance Code.

SEC 8. The department shall submit a final progress report to the Legislature by the first day of the legislative session in January 1981, on the implementation and utilization of the program provided for in Section 2626.1 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, and shall, after consultation with the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Abuse, propose any changes it deems advisable in the program and in the funding of program reviews.

SEC. 9. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 3004 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 2627 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 3004, that the amendments to Section 2627 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 2627 in the form set forth in Section 4 of this act. Therefore, Section 4 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 3004 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both amend Section 2627, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 3004, in which case Section 3 of this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 10. The amendment of Sections 2626 and 2627 of, and the addition of Section 2626.1 to, the Unemployment Insurance Code made by this act shall become operative with respect to periods of disability commencing on or after January 1, 1979. The provisions of law in effect prior to the amendment or addition of such provisions made by this act shall continue to be applicable with respect to periods of disability commencing prior to January 1, 1979.

CHAPTER 945

An act to add Section 781 to the Public Utilities Code, relating to water systems.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 781 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

781. The commission shall not require any water corporation which furnishes water for residential use through five or more service connections or which serves an average of 25 or more persons per day for at least 60 days per year, nor any residential customer of such corporation to install any watermeter at any water service connection between the water system of the corporation and the customer if on January 1, 1979, such service connection was unmetered except after a public hearing held within the service area of the corporation at which hearing all of the following findings have been made:

(a) Metering will be cost effective within the service area of the corporation.

(b) Metering will result in a significant reduction in water consumption within the service area of the corporation.

(c) The costs of metering will not impose an unreasonable financial burden on customers within the service area of the corporation unless it is found to be necessary to assure continuation of an adequate water supply within the service area of the corporation.

CHAPTER 946

An act to amend Section 429.32 of, and to add Section 429.33 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to Indian health.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 429.32 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

429.32. All moneys appropriated to the department for the purposes of this article shall be used to provide financial, training, and technical assistance to existing urban and rural Indian health programs and to assist these programs in planning, implementing, and upgrading existing programs to attain a comprehensive health services delivery system for Indians in urban and rural areas.

The department shall provide technical assistance and shall promote the provision of services for preventative health care, health education, and environmental health.

No more than 15 percent of all funds appropriated for the purposes of this article may be retained and expended by the department for administrative purposes.

For the purpose of this article, the cost of printed materials, films, and similar items utilized for health education purposes shall not be considered administrative costs.

The department may expend funds appropriated to it to carry out the purposes of this article by contract or grant, or any combination thereof, with any existing urban or rural Indian health programs.

The department shall adopt rules and regulations establishing criteria for reimbursement for direct services under this article which shall include, but not be limited to, a definition of direct services which are reimbursable and a formula for allocation of funds appropriated to the department.

The department shall provide assistance to Indian health services programs in maximizing utilization of third party payment systems and in developing programs in health education, nutrition, and family planning if such assistance is not being provided by agencies of the federal government.

Funds appropriated to carry out the purposes of this article shall be supplemental to those available from the federal government and shall not duplicate, nor shall they replace, any commitments made by the federal government to provide health services to native American Indians and their families in this state who receive health services pursuant to an existing urban or rural Indian health program.

It is the intent of the Legislature that the program established by this article shall, in fiscal years subsequent to this year in which the section is enacted, be funded according to customary budget procedures.

SEC. 2. Section 429.33 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

429.33. The Legislature finds and declares that the health status of many Indians in California is not adequate. It is, therefore, the intent of the Legislature to insure that in addition to funding provided pursuant to the Indian Health Service program, that sufficient funding is provided Indians from other programs in order to substantially improve such persons' access to health services. Such programs include, but are not limited to the following:

(a) Rural health service.
(b) Mental health services.
(c) Developmental disability programs.
(d) Maternal and child health programs.
(e) Alcoholism programs.
(f) Programs for the aging.
(g) Environmental health programs.

The state department shall report to the Legislature by July 1, 1979, and every two years thereafter, with respect to the extent to which funding for these programs is allocated to grantees receiving funding from the state department pursuant to Section 429.32.

CHAPTER 947

An act to amend Sections 823, 830, and 851 of, and to add Section 831 to, the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to unemployment insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 823 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

823. (a) For the purpose of payment by each school employer of all or part of the charges for unemployment compensation benefits, fees, assessments, interest, penalties, billings, notices, and other expenses of unemployment insurance for school employees pursuant to this part, moneys budgeted pursuant to subdivisions (b) and (c) of this section shall be remitted by the school employer or on the school employer's behalf by the county auditor to the State Treasurer pursuant to this article, and shall be deposited in the School Employees Fund.

(b) (1) For each fiscal year, except as provided in subdivisions (c) and (d), each school employer shall budget and remit on or before the last day of the calendar month following the close of each calendar quarter to the State Treasurer for deposit in the School Employees Fund in the State Treasury an amount determined by multiplying the contribution rate for the fiscal year by the total wages, including taxable wages as well as wages which would be taxable except for the limitation on taxable wages provided under Section 930, but excluding wages paid for specially funded projects, and, to the extent permitted by federal law, excluding wages paid to any individual to the extent that federal law provides for reimbursement to the State of California for all benefits paid from the Unemployment Fund to such individual based on such wages.

The administrator shall, not later than March 31 each year, notify all school employers participating in the School Employees Fund of the contribution rate for the succeeding fiscal year.

(2) As used in this section, "benefit cost ratio" means the quotient obtained by dividing the average fiscal year benefit charges to the fund for the three most recent completed fiscal years by the average fiscal year wages, as defined by Section 940, paid by all school employers participating in the fund during such three fiscal years, multiplied by 100 to express a percentage and rounded to the next higher one-hundredth of 1 percent. The contribution rate shall be such benefit cost ratio for the next fiscal year subject to the following adjustments:

(A) If the cash balance as of December 31 is less than four-tenths of 1 percent of the average fiscal year wages, as defined by Section

940, the percentage below four-tenths of 1 percent rounded to the next higher one-hundredth of 1 percent shall be added to the contribution rate.

(B) If the cash balance as of December 31 exceeds seven-tenths of 1 percent of the average fiscal year wages, as defined by Section 940, the percentage over seven-tenths of 1 percent rounded to the next higher one-hundredth of 1 percent shall be deducted from the contribution rate, except that the rate shall not be less than one-tenth of 1 percent.

(c) If the administrator finds that the ability of the School Employees Fund to meet its estimated obligations promptly when due will become endangered, he or she shall from time to time increase the contribution rate otherwise provided by this section to a level estimated to be needed to protect the solvency of the fund and shall notify all school employers participating in the fund of any increased contribution rate under this authority.

(d) For the 1976–77, 1977–78, and 1978–79 fiscal years only, each school employer shall budget and remit on or before the last day of the calendar month following the close of each calendar quarter to the State Treasurer for deposit in the School Employees Fund in the State Treasury two-tenths of 1 percent of total wages, including taxable wages as well as wages which would be taxable except for the limitation on taxable wages provided under Section 930, but excluding wages paid by specially funded projects, and, to the extent permitted by federal law, excluding wages paid to any individual to the extent that federal law provides for reimbursement to the State of California for all benefits paid from the Unemployment Fund to such individual based on such wages.

SEC. 2. Section 830 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

830. (a) For the purpose of financing unemployment insurance coverage for employees employed by the school employers under specially funded projects, the funding agency shall remit to each school employer 1 percent, except as provided for in subdivisions (b) and (c), of the total wages, as defined by Section 940, paid to such employees. The school employer or county auditor shall remit on or before the last day of the calendar month following the close of each calendar quarter to the State Treasurer for deposit in the School Employees Fund in the State Treasury such an amount, whether or not received from the funding agency, for deposit. Such funds become the property of the fund and shall not be held exclusively for employees for specially funded projects.

(b) If the administrator finds that the ability of the School Employees Fund to meet its estimated obligations promptly when due will become endangered, he or she shall from time to time increase the tax rate otherwise provided by this section to a level estimated to be needed to protect the solvency of the fund and shall notify all school employers participating in the fund of any increased tax rate under this authority.

(c) For the 1976–77, 1977–78, and 1978–79 fiscal years only, for the purpose of financing unemployment insurance coverage for employees employed by the school employers under specially funded projects, the funding agency shall remit to each school employer 1 percent of the total wages paid to such employees. The school employer or county auditor shall remit such funds to the State Treasurer as provided in subdivision (a).

SEC. 3. Section 831 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

831. There is hereby created a School Employer Advisory Committee of five persons. The committee shall consist of one person appointed by each of the following: the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, Association of School Administrators, California School Business Officials, and the California School Board Association.

All such members shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing power and their only compensation shall be per diem expenses for attending meetings, which shall be a cost of administration of the School Employees Fund. The advisory committee shall select a chairperson and meet at least semiannually with the administrator to consider and recommend improvements concerning the administration of this article.

SEC. 4. Section 851 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

851. There is hereby created a City-County-Special District Advisory Committee composed of seven representatives who shall be appointed by the League of California Cities, the County Supervisors Association of California, and the administrator with the advice of the special district associations, in the approximate ratio that the number of employees of members of each such organization and of special districts participating in the Local Public Entity Employees Fund bears to the total number of employees of local public entities which are participating members of the Local Public Entity Employees Fund, except that each such organization and the special districts collectively shall be entitled to not less than one member on the advisory committee. The members of the advisory committee shall serve without compensation or expenses, except that per diem expenses for attending meetings may be paid and shall be a cost of administration of the Local Public Entity Employees Fund. The advisory committee shall select a chairperson from its members and members shall serve at the pleasure of their respective appointing powers. The advisory committee shall advise the director concerning the administration of this article.

SEC. 5. No appropriation is made by this act, nor is any obligation created thereby under Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, for the reimbursement of any local agency for any costs that may be incurred by it in carrying on any program or performing any service required to be carried on or performed by it by this act

An act to amend Sections 4782 and 4783 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to the developmentally disabled.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4782 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

4782. Parents of children under the age of 18 who are receiving services purchased by the regional center may be required to contribute to the cost of services depending upon their ability to pay, but not to exceed the cost of caring for a normal child at home, as determined by the director. Parental contributions shall be made to the State Department of Developmental Services after determination of amount of parental contribution is made by the appropriate regional center and the method of determination of the amount of the contribution shall be the same, whether the child is placed in the state hospital or in a public or private community facility. In no event, however, shall parents be charged for diagnosis or counseling services received through the regional centers.

SEC. 2. Section 4783 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

4783. Parents of children under the age of 18 who are patients in a state hospital or on leave from a state hospital, and who were admitted to the state hospital prior to July 1, 1971, may be required to contribute to the cost of services depending upon their ability to pay, but not to exceed the cost of caring for a normal child at home, as determined by the director. Parental contributions shall be made to the State Department of Developmental Services after determination of amount of parental contribution is made by the appropriate regional center, and the method of determination of the amount of the contribution shall be the same as that provided in Section 4782.

CHAPTER 949

An act to amend Section 4602 of the Civil Code, and to amend Section 437c of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to civil actions.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4602 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4602. In any proceeding under this part, when so directed by the court, the probation officer or domestic relations investigator shall conduct a custody investigation and file a written confidential report thereon. The report may be considered by the court and shall be made available only to the parties or their attorneys at least 10 days before any hearing regarding the custody of a child. The report may be received in evidence upon stipulation of all interested parties.

When the probation officer or domestic relations investigator is directed by the court to conduct a custody investigation, the court shall make inquiry into the financial condition of the parent, parents, guardian, or such other person charged with the support and maintenance of such minor, and if the court finds such parent, parents, guardian, or other person able, in whole or in part, to pay the expense of such investigation, report and recommendation, the court may make an order requiring such person, persons, guardian, or other person to repay to the county such part, or all, of such expense of investigation, report and recommendation as, in the opinion of the court, is proper. Such repayment shall be made to the county officer designated by the board of supervisors, who shall keep suitable accounts of such expenses and repayments and shall deposit such collections in the county treasury.

SEC. 2. Section 437c of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

437c. Any party may move for summary judgment in any action or proceeding if it is contended that the action has no merit or that there is no defense thereto. The motion may be made at any time after 60 days have elapsed since the general appearance in the action or proceeding of each party against whom the motion is directed or at such earlier time after such general appearance as the court, with or without notice and upon good cause shown, may direct. Notice of the motion and supporting papers shall be served on the other party to the action at least 10 days before the time fixed for the hearing. The motion shall be heard no later than 45 days before the date of trial, unless the court for good cause orders otherwise. The filing of such motion shall not extend the time within which a party must otherwise file a responsive pleading.

The motion shall be supported or opposed by affidavits, declarations, admissions, answers to interrogatories, depositions and matters of which judicial notice shall or may be taken.

Such motion shall be granted if all the papers submitted show that there is no triable issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law. In determining whether the papers show that there is no triable issue as to any material fact the court shall consider all of the admissible evidence set forth in the papers and all inferences reasonably deducible from such evidence, except summary judgment shall not be granted by the court based on inferences reasonably deducible from such evidence, if contradicted by other inferences or evidence, which raise a triable issue as to any material fact.

Supporting and opposing affidavits or declarations shall be made by any person on personal knowledge, shall set forth admissible evidence, and shall show affirmatively that the affiant is competent to testify to the matters stated therein.

If a party is otherwise entitled to a summary judgment pursuant to the provisions of this section, summary judgment shall not be denied on grounds of credibility or for want of cross-examination of witnesses furnishing affidavits or declarations in support of the summary judgment, except that summary judgment may be denied in the discretion of the court, where the only proof of a material fact offered in support of the summary judgment is an affidavit or declaration made by an individual who was the sole witness to such fact; or where a material fact is an individual's state of mind, or lack thereof, and such fact is sought to be established solely by the individual's affirmation thereof.

If it appears that the proof supports the granting of such motion as to some but not all the issues involved in the action, or that one or more of the issues raised by a claim is admitted, or that one or more of the issues raised by a defense is conceded, the court shall, by order, specify that such issues are without substantial controversy. At the trial of the action the issue so specified shall be deemed established and the action shall proceed as to the issues remaining.

If it appears from the affidavits submitted in opposition to the motion that facts essential to justify opposition may exist but cannot, for reasons stated, then be presented, the court shall deny the motion, or order a continuance to permit affidavits to be obtained or discovery to be had or may make such other order as may be just.

If the court determines at any time that any of the affidavits are presented in bad faith or solely for purposes of delay, the court shall order the party presenting such affidavits to pay the other party the amount of the reasonable expenses which the filing of the affidavits caused such other party to incur.

Except where a separate judgment may properly be awarded in the action, no final judgment shall be entered on a motion for summary judgment prior to the termination of such action, but the final judgment in such action shall, in addition to any matters determined in such action, award judgment as established by the summary proceeding herein provided for

A summary judgment entered under this section is an appealable judgment as in other cases

CHAPTER 950

An act to amend Sections 711, 927.5, and 984 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to unemployment insurance, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 711 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

711. No election filed by any public entity, as defined by Section 605, under any provision of this division shall be effective for service performed after December 31, 1977, and included in "employment" pursuant to Section 605, except that elections approved under subdivision (b) of former Section 710 as in effect prior to January 1, 1978, shall continue in effect as of such date with respect to disability insurance coverage for those employee classifications that are exempt from civil service or merit system status who perform work equivalent to those employees of the building trades crafts that are covered by collective-bargaining agreements with respect to wages, hours, fringe benefits, and other terms and conditions of employment. No election filed by any nonprofit organization under any provision of this division shall be effective for service performed after December 31, 1977, and included in "employment" pursuant to Section 608. All such elections for coverage filed prior to January 1, 1978, shall be terminated effective December 31, 1977, except as otherwise provided by this section and except that elections to reimburse benefits shall continue in effect, subject to Section 803, unless terminated by the public entity or nonprofit organization, and it shall remain liable for its proportionate share of the additional cost of benefits paid, or of the cost of benefits (including extended duration benefits and federal-state extended benefits) paid and charged to its account in the manner provided by Section 1026 which are based on wages paid for services during the period of any election for reimbursement of benefits.

SEC. 2. Section 927.5 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

927.5. (a) Notwithstanding Section 927, for the purposes of Part 2 (commencing with Section 2601) of this division only, "wages" shall also mean the amount of cash tips and cash gratuities received by a worker from persons other than his employer in the course of employment by an employer during any calendar month if the amount of the cash tips and cash gratuities is equal to or greater than twenty dollars ($20), and such tips and gratuities shall be treated as remuneration and wages paid by the employer to the worker.

(b) Each worker shall report to his employer in writing the amount of wages included in subdivision (a) on or before the 10th day of the calendar month following the calendar month in which they were received. The worker's statement required by Section 6053 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 may be used to satisfy the requirements of this subdivision.

SEC. 3. Section 984 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

984. (a) Each worker shall pay worker contributions, at the rate of 1 percent with respect to the wages the worker is required to report pursuant to Section 927.5 and the wages paid to him or her by each employer for employment after his or her employer has satisfied the conditions set forth in this part with respect to becoming an employer.

(b) Worker contributions required under Sections 708 and 708.5 for calendar year 1978 shall be at the rate of 1.72 percent of the remuneration deemed to have been received under said sections.

(c) Worker contributions required under Sections 708 and 708.5 for calendar year 1979 and after shall be at a rate determined by the director to reimburse the Disability Fund for unemployment compensation disability benefits paid and estimated to be paid to all employers and self-employed individuals covered by those sections. On or before November 30th of each calendar year, the director shall prepare a statement, which shall be a public record, declaring the rate of contributions for the succeeding calendar year for all employers and self-employed individuals covered under Sections 708 and 708.5 and shall notify such employers and self-employed individuals of the rate. The rate shall be determined by dividing the estimated benefits paid in the prior year by the product of the annual remuneration deemed to have been received under Sections 708 and 708.5 and the estimated number of persons who were covered at any time in the prior year. The resulting rate shall be rounded to the next higher one-hundredth percentage point. The rate may also be reduced or increased by a factor estimated to maintain as nearly as practicable a cumulative zero balance in the funds contributed pursuant to Sections 708 and 708.5. Estimates made pursuant to this section may be made on the basis of statistical sampling, or other method determined by the director. The director's action in determining a rate under this section shall not constitute an authorized regulation.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Both A.B. 1628 (Ch 1142) and A.B. 1379 (Ch. 1143) of the 1977 portion of the 1977–78 Regular Session of the Legislature were signed by the Governor, and, among other things, amended Section 984 of the Unemployment Insurance Code. A.B. 1628, among other things, amended Section 984 in the same manner as does this bill while A.B. 1379 amended Section 984 in another manner. However, because

A.B. 1379 was chaptered after A.B. 1628 the changes made in Section 984 by A.B. 1628 did not become law. In addition, clarifying technical changes in Section 927.5 are necessary which do not constitute a change in, but are declaratory of, the existing law. Thus, in order to carry out the intent of the Legislature, as evidenced by its passage of A.B. 1628 last year, as soon as possible, this bill must take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 951

An act to amend Sections 1296, 1520, 1522, 1524, 1525, 1550, and 1551 of, and to add Section 1525.5 to, and to repeal Section 1552 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to care facilities.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1296 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1296. The director may temporarily suspend any license or special permit prior to any hearing, when in his opinion such action is necessary to protect the public welfare. The director shall notify the licensee or holder of a special permit of the temporary suspension and the effective date thereof and at the same time shall serve such provider with an accusation. Upon receipt of a notice of defense by the licensee or holder of a special permit, the director shall within 15 days set the matter for hearing, which shall be held as soon as possible but not later than 30 days after receipt of such notice. The temporary suspension shall remain in effect until such time as the hearing is completed and the director has made a final determination on the merits; provided, however, that the temporary suspension shall be deemed vacated if the director fails to make a final determination on the merits within 60 days after the original hearing has been completed.

If the provisions of this chapter or the rules or regulations promulgated by the director are violated by a licensee or holder of a special permit which is a group, corporation, or other association, the director may suspend the license or special permit of such organization or may suspend the license or special permit as to any individual person within such organization who is responsible for such violation.

SEC. 1.1. Section 1520 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1520 Any person desiring issuance or renewal of a license for a community care facility or a special permit for specialized services under the provisions of this chapter shall file with the state department, pursuant to regulations, an application on forms furnished by the state department, which shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) Evidence satisfactory to the state department of the ability of the applicant to comply with the provisions of this chapter and of rules and regulations promulgated under this chapter by the state department. Where there is an application for renewal of a license, evidence satisfactory to the department that the licensee has substantially complied for the term of the previous license with the provisions of this chapter, and with the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to this chapter.

(b) Evidence satisfactory to the state department that the applicant is of reputable and responsible character. If applicant is a firm, association, organization, partnership, business trust, corporation, or company, like evidence shall be submitted as to the members or shareholders thereof, and the person in charge of the community care facility for which application for issuance or renewal of license or special permit is made.

(c) Such other information as may be required by the state department for the proper administration and enforcement of this chapter.

SEC. 1.3. Section 1522 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1522. Before issuing a license to any person or persons to operate or manage a community care facility, the state department shall secure from an appropriate law enforcement agency a criminal record to determine whether the applicant, facility administrator or manager, or any other adult living in the same location, has ever been convicted of a crime other than a minor traffic violation. No fee shall be charged by the Department of Justice or the state department for the fingerprinting of an applicant for a license to operate a facility providing nonmedical board, room, and care for six or less children or for obtaining a criminal record of such an applicant pursuant to this section. If it is found that the applicant, facility administrator or manager, or any other adult living in the same location, has been so convicted, the application shall be denied, unless otherwise provided pursuant to this section.

After review of the record, the director may exempt any applicant for a license or certificate from the provisions of this section if the director or person in charge of the county inspection service believes the applicant to be of such good character as to justify issuance of a license.

This section shall become operative only if Senate Bill No. 197 of the 1973–74 Regular Session of the Legislature is chaptered and becomes effective on or before January 1, 1974, whether Senate Bill No 197 is chaptered prior or subsequent to the act enacting this section.

SEC. 1.5. Section 1524 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1524. Each new license or special permit issued pursuant to this chapter shall expire 12 months from the date of its issuance. Application for renewal of a license or special permit shall be filed with the state department not less than 30 days prior to the expiration date each year. Failure to make a timely renewal shall result in expiration of the license or special permit.

A renewal license or special permit may be issued for a period not to exceed two years, providing the licensee has been found not to be in violation of any statutory requirements or rules or regulations, during the preceding license period.

SEC. 1.7. Section 1525 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1525. Upon the filing of the application for issuance or renewal of a license or for a special permit and substantial compliance with the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations of the department, the director shall issue to the applicant the license or special permit. If the director finds that the applicant is not in compliance with the laws or regulations of this chapter, the director shall deny the applicant a license, license renewal, special permit, or permit renewal.

SEC. 1.9. Section 1525.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1525.5. The director may issue provisional licenses to operate community care facilities for facilities which the director determines are in substantial compliance with the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto, provided, that no life safety risks are involved, as determined by the director. Such a provisional license shall expire six months from the date of issuance, or at such earlier time as the director may determine, and may not be renewed.

SEC. 2. Section 1550 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1550. The state department may suspend or revoke any license or special permit issued under the provisions of this chapter upon any of the following grounds and in the manner provided in this chapter:

(a) Violation by the licensee or holder of a special permit of any of the provisions of this chapter or of the rules and regulations promulgated under this chapter.

(b) Aiding, abetting, or permitting the violation of any provision of this chapter or of the rules and regulations promulgated under this chapter.

(c) Conduct in the operation or maintenance, or both the operation and maintenance, of a community care facility which is inimical to the health, morals, welfare, or safety of either an individual in or receiving services from the facility or the people of the State of California.

The director may temporarily suspend any license or special permit prior to any hearing when, in his opinion, such action is necessary to protect residents or clients of the facility from physical or mental abuse, abandonment, or any other substantial threat to health or safety. The director shall notify the licensee or holder of the special permit of the temporary suspension and the effective date thereof and at the same time shall serve such provider with an accusation. Upon receipt of a notice of defense to the accusation by the licensee or holder of the special permit, the director shall within 15 days set the matter for hearing, and the hearing shall be held as soon as possible but not later than 30 days after receipt of such notice. The temporary suspension shall remain in effect until such time as the hearing is completed and the director has made a final determination on the merits. However, the temporary suspension shall be deemed vacated if the director fails to make a final determination on the merits within 30 days after the original hearing has been completed.

SEC. 3. Section 1551 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1551. Proceedings for the suspension, revocation, or denial of a license or special permit under this chapter shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and the state department shall have all the powers granted by such provisions. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this chapter and such provisions of the Government Code, the provisions of the Government Code shall prevail.

SEC. 4. Section 1552 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

CHAPTER 952

An act to amend Sections 2 and 3 of Chapter 1066 of the Statutes of 1976, relating to the state park system, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 5098.2 of the Public Resources Code, of the moneys appropriated from the Park and Recreation Revolving Account in the General Fund to the Department of Parks and Recreation pursuant to Section 1 of Chapter 1066 of the Statutes of 1976, there is hereby reappropriated the sum of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000), or so much thereof as may be necessary, from such account to the department in augmentation of the moneys appropriated pursuant to Section 2 of Chapter 1066 of the Statutes of 1976.

(b) The unencumbered balance of the funds appropriated in Section 1 of Chapter 1066 of the Statutes of 1976, remaining after reappropriation pursuant to subdivision (a), is hereby reappropriated to the Department of Parks and Recreation and shall be available for expenditure until June 30, 1981.

SEC. 2. Section 2 of Chapter 1066 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

Sec. 2. Notwithstanding Section 5098.2 of the Public Resources Code, there is hereby appropriated, in accordance with the following schedule, the sum of five hundred sixty thousand dollars ($560,000) to the Department of Parks and Recreation for expenditure, during the period September 1, 1976, to June 30, 1981, inclusive, for a study to determine whether there is available a continuous source of water from wells that is sufficient to supply Lake Elsinore and whether such manner of supplying the lake would be feasible:

Schedule·

(a) Payable from the Harbors and Watercraft Revolving Fund $40,000

(b) Payable from the Park and Recreation Revolving Account in the General Fund $520,000

The study may include, but is not limited to, the installation of equipment necessary for monitoring underground water characteristics, the monitoring of underground water behavior, subsidence surveys, and the construction of a new water well

SEC. 3. Section 3 of Chapter 1066 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

Sec. 3. If at any time prior to June 30, 1981, the water level of Lake Elsinore recedes to an elevation of 1,227.5 feet above mean sea level, as determined by the Director of Parks and Recreation, an amount, not to exceed three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) of the funds appropriated in Section 2 of this act, may be expended by the Department of Parks and Recreation for the purpose of purchasing or pumping water from any available source to raise the elevation of the lake.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The high evaporation rate of water in Lake Elsinore is such that the health and safety benefits of additional water supplies which may be secured are jeopardized. It is necessary to drill a new test well at the earliest possible time in order to carry out a study of a possible water supply for the lake; and, because the water level of the lake relates directly to the water quality and recreational benefits of the lake and the neighboring community, it is also necessary that the water level be maintained as high as is practicable during the study period. Therefore, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 953

An act to amend Section 65302 of the Government Code, relating to local planning.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 65302 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65302. The general plan shall consist of a statement of development policies and shall include a diagram or diagrams and text setting forth objectives, principles, standards, and plan proposals. The plan shall include the following elements:

(a) A land use element which designates the proposed general distribution and general location and extent of the uses of the land for housing, business, industry, open space, including agriculture, natural resources, recreation, and enjoyment of scenic beauty, education, public buildings and grounds, solid and liquid waste disposal facilities, and other categories of public and private uses of land. The land use element shall include a statement of the standards of population density and building intensity recommended for the various districts and other territory covered by the plan. The land use element shall also identify areas covered by the plan which are subject to flooding and shall be reviewed annually with respect to such areas.

(b) A circulation element consisting of the general location and extent of existing and proposed major thoroughfares, transportation routes, terminals, and other local public utilities and facilities, all correlated with the land use element of the plan.

(c) A housing element, to be developed pursuant to regulations established under Section 41134 of the Health and Safety Code, consisting of standards and plans for the improvement of housing and for provision of adequate sites for housing. This element of the plan shall make adequate provision for the housing needs of all economic segments of the community.

(d) A conservation element for the conservation, development, and utilization of natural resources including water and its hydraulic force, forests, soils, rivers and other waters, harbors, fisheries, wildlife, minerals, and other natural resources. That portion of the conservation element including waters shall be developed in coordination with any countywide water agency and with all district and city agencies which have developed, served, controlled or conserved water for any purpose for the county or city for which the plan is prepared. The conservation element may also cover:

(1) The reclamation of land and waters.

(2) Flood control.

(3) Prevention and control of the pollution of streams and other waters.

(4) Regulation of the use of land in stream channels and other areas required for the accomplishment of the conservation plan.

(5) Prevention, control, and correction of the erosion of soils, beaches, and shores.

(6) Protection of watersheds.

(7) The location, quantity and quality of the rock, sand and gravel resources.

The conservation element shall be prepared and adopted no later than December 31, 1973.

(e) An open-space element as provided in Article 10.5 (commencing with Section 65560) of this chapter.

(f) A seismic safety element consisting of an identification and appraisal of seismic hazards such as susceptibility to surface ruptures from faulting, to ground shaking, to ground failures, or to effects of seismically induced waves such as tsunamis and seiches.

The seismic safety element shall also include an appraisal of mudslides, landslides, and slope stability as necessary geologic hazards that must be considered simultaneously with other hazards such as possible surface ruptures from faulting, ground shaking, ground failure and seismically induced waves.

To the extent that a county's seismic safety element is sufficiently detailed containing appropriate policies and programs for adoption by a city, a city may adopt that portion of the county's seismic safety element that pertains to the city planning area within the county's jurisdiction, in satisfaction of this subdivision.

In adopting a county seismic safety element, a city shall follow all requirements regarding the content and adoption of general plan elements as set forth in this article and Article 6 (commencing with Section 65350) of this chapter.

Each county and city shall submit to the Division of Mines and Geology of the Department of Conservation one copy of the seismic safety element and any technical studies used for developing the seismic safety element.

(g) A noise element, which shall recognize guidelines adopted by the Office of Noise Control pursuant to Section 46050.1 of the Health and Safety Code, and which quantifies the community noise environment in terms of noise exposure contours for both near- and long-term levels of growth and traffic activity. Such noise exposure information shall become a guideline for use in development of the land use element to achieve noise compatible land use and also to provide baseline levels and noise source identification for local noise ordinance enforcement.

The sources of environmental noise considered in this analysis shall include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) Highways and freeways.

(2) Primary arterials and major local streets.

(3) Passenger and freight on-line railroad operations and ground rapid transit systems.

(4) Commercial, general aviation, heliport, helistop, and military airport operations, aircraft overflights, jet engine test stands, and all other ground facilities and maintenance functions related to airport operation.

(5) Local industrial plants, including, but not limited to, railroad classification yards.

(6) Other ground stationary noise sources identified by local agencies as contributing to the community noise environment.

The noise exposure information shall be presented in terms of noise contours expressed in community noise equivalent level (CNEL) or day-night average level (L_{dn}). CNEL means the average equivalent A-weighted sound level during a 24-hour day, obtained after addition of five decibels to sound levels in the evening from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. and after addition of 10 decibels to sound levels in the night before 7 a.m. and after 10 p.m. L_{dn} means the average equivalent A-weighted sound level during a 24-hour day, obtained after addition of 10 decibels to sound levels in the night before 7 a.m. and after 10 p.m.

The contours shall be shown in minimum increments of 5db and shall continue down to 60db. For areas deemed noise sensitive, including, but not limited to, areas containing schools, hospitals, rest homes, long-term medical or mental care facilities, or any other land-use areas deemed noise sensitive by the local jurisdiction, the noise exposure shall be determined by monitoring.

A part of the noise element shall also include the preparation of a community noise exposure inventory, current and projected, which identifies the number of persons exposed to various levels of noise throughout the community.

The noise element shall also recommend mitigating measures and possible solutions to existing and foreseeable noise problems.

The state, local, or private agency responsible for the construction, maintenance, or operation of those transportation, industrial, or other commercial facilities specified in paragraph 2 of this subdivision shall provide to the local agency producing the general plan, specific data relating to current and projected levels of activity and a detailed methodology for the development of noise contours given this supplied data, or they shall provide noise contours as specified in the foregoing statements.

It shall be the responsibility of the local agency preparing the general plan to specify the manner in which the noise element will be integrated into the city or county's zoning plan and tied to the land use and circulation elements and to the local noise ordinance. The noise element, once adopted, shall also become the guideline for determining compliance with the state's noise insulation standards, as contained in Section 1092 of Title 25 of the California Administrative Code.

(h) A scenic highway element for the development, establishment, and protection of scenic highways pursuant to the provisions of Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 260) of Chapter 2 of Division 1 of the Streets and Highways Code.

(i) A safety element for the protection of the community from fires and geologic hazards including features necessary for such protection as evacuation routes, peak load water supply requirements, minimum road widths, clearances around structures, and geologic hazard mapping in areas of known geologic hazards.

The elements of the general plan may, at the discretion of the county or city, be combined; provided, however, the county or city complies with all requirements regarding the content and adoption of general plan elements of this article and Article 6 (commencing with Section 65350) of this chapter.

The requirements of this section shall apply to charter cities.

SEC. 2. Section 65302 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65302. The general plan shall consist of a statement of development policies and shall include a diagram or diagrams and text setting forth ~~objectives~~, principles, standards, and plan proposals. The plan shall include the following elements:

(a) A land use element which designates the proposed general distribution and general location and extent of the uses of the land for housing, business, industry, open space, including agriculture, natural resources, recreation, and enjoyment of scenic beauty, education, public buildings and grounds, solid and liquid waste disposal facilities, and other categories of public and private uses of land. The land use element shall include a statement of the standards of population density and building intensity recommended for the various districts and other territory covered by the plan. The land use element shall also identify areas covered by the plan which are subject to flooding and shall be reviewed annually with respect to such areas.

(b) A circulation element consisting of the general location and extent of existing and proposed major thoroughfares, transportation routes, terminals, and other local public utilities and facilities, all correlated with the land use element of the plan.

(c) A housing element, to be developed pursuant to regulations established under Section 41134 of the Health and Safety Code, consisting of standards and plans for the improvement of housing and for provision of adequate sites for housing. This element of the plan shall, to the extent feasible, make adequate provision for the housing needs of all economic segments of the community. "Make adequate provision" means facilitating the development of an appropriate variety and choice of housing through accepted land use and building regulations and financing methods including, but not limited to, application for state and federal funds; and refraining from using such regulations and methods to create obstacles to low- and moderate-income housing. "Feasible" means capable of being accomplished in a successful manner within a reasonable period of time, taking into account economic, environmental, social and technological factors.

(d) A conservation element for the conservation, development, and utilization of natural resources including water and its hydraulic force, forests, soils, rivers and other waters, harbors, fisheries, wildlife, minerals, and other natural resources. That portion of the conservation element including waters shall be developed in coordination with any countywide water agency and with all district and city agencies which have developed, served, controlled or conserved water for any purpose for the county or city for which the plan is prepared. The conservation element may also cover:

(1) The reclamation of land and waters.

(2) Flood control.

(3) Prevention and control of the pollution of streams and other waters.

(4) Regulation of the use of land in stream channels and other areas required for the accomplishment of the conservation plan.

(5) Prevention, control, and correction of the erosion of soils, beaches, and shores.

(6) Protection of watersheds.

(7) The location, quantity and quality of the rock, sand and gravel resources.

The conservation element shall be prepared and adopted no later than December 31, 1973.

(e) An open-space element as provided in Article 10.5 (commencing with Section 65560) of this chapter.

(f) A seismic safety element consisting of an identification and appraisal of seismic hazards such as susceptibility to surface ruptures from faulting, to ground shaking, to ground failures, or to effects of seismically induced waves such as tsunamis and seiches.

The seismic safety element shall also include an appraisal of mudslides, landslides, and slope stability as necessary geologic hazards that must be considered simultaneously with other hazards such as possible surface ruptures from faulting, ground shaking, ground failure and seismically induced waves.

To the extent that a county's seismic safety element is sufficiently detailed containing appropriate policies and programs for adoption by a city, a city may adopt that portion of the county's seismic safety element that pertains to the city planning area within the county's jurisdiction, in satisfaction of this subdivision.

In adopting a county seismic safety element, a city shall follow all requirements regarding the content and adoption of general plan elements as set forth in this article and Article 6 (commencing with Section 65350) of this chapter.

Each county and city shall submit to the Division of Mines and Geology of the Department of Conservation one copy of the seismic safety element and any technical studies used for developing the seismic safety element.

(g) A noise element, which shall recognize guidelines adopted by the Office of Noise Control pursuant to Section 46050.1 of the Health and Safety Code, and which quantifies the community noise environment in terms of noise exposure contours for both near- and long-term levels of growth and traffic activity. Such noise exposure information shall become a guideline for use in development of the land use element to achieve noise compatible land use and also to provide baseline levels and noise source identification for local noise ordinance enforcement.

The sources of environmental noise considered in this analysis shall include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) Highways and freeways.

(2) Primary arterials and major local streets.

(3) Passenger and freight on-line railroad operations and ground rapid transit systems.

(4) Commercial, general aviation, heliport, helistop, and military airport operations, aircraft overflights, jet engine test stands, and all other ground facilities and maintenance functions related to airport operation.

(5) Local industrial plants, including, but not limited to, railroad classification yards.

(6) Other ground stationary noise sources identified by local agencies as contributing to the community noise environment.

The noise exposure information shall be presented in terms of noise contours expressed in community noise equivalent level (CNEL) or day-night average level (L_{dn}). CNEL means the average equivalent A-weighted sound level during a 24-hour day, obtained after addition of five decibels to sound levels in the evening from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. and after addition of 10 decibels to sound levels in the night before 7 a.m. and after 10 p.m. L_{dn} means the average equivalent A-weighted sound level during a 24-hour day, obtained after addition of 10 decibels to sound levels in the night before 7 a.m. and after 10 p.m.

The contours shall be shown in minimum increments of 5db and shall continue down to 60db. For areas deemed noise sensitive, including, but not limited to, areas containing schools, hospitals, rest homes, long term medical or mental care facilities, or any other land-use areas deemed noise sensitive by the local jurisdiction, the noise exposure shall be determined by monitoring.

A part of the noise element shall also include the preparation of a community noise exposure inventory, current and projected, which identifies the number of persons exposed to various levels of noise throughout the community.

The noise element shall also recommend mitigating measures and possible solutions to existing and foreseeable noise problems.

The state, local, or private agency responsible for the construction, maintenance, or operation of those transportation, industrial, or other commercial facilities specified in paragraph 2 of this subdivision shall provide to the local agency producing the general plan, specific data relating to current and projected levels of activity and a detailed methodology for the development of noise contours given this supplied data, or they shall provide noise contours as specified in the foregoing statements.

It shall be the responsibility of the local agency preparing the general plan to specify the manner in which the noise element will be integrated into the city or county's zoning plan and tied to the land use and circulation elements and to the local noise ordinance. The noise element, once adopted, shall also become the guideline for determining compliance with the state's noise insulation standards, as contained in Section 1092 of Title 25 of the California Administrative Code.

(h) A scenic highway element for the development, establishment, and protection of scenic highways pursuant to the provisions of Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 260) of Chapter 2 of Division 1 of the Streets and Highways Code.

(i) A safety element for the protection of the community from fires and geologic hazards including features necessary for such protection as evacuation routes, peak-load water supply requirements, minimum road widths, clearances around structures, and geologic hazard mapping in areas of known geologic hazards.

The elements of the general plan may, at the discretion of the county or city, be combined; provided, however, the county or city complies with all requirements regarding the content and adoption of general plan elements of this article and Article 6 (commencing with Section 65350) of this chapter.

The requirements of this section shall apply to charter cities.

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 1727 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 65302 of the Government Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 1727, that the amendments to Section 65302 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 65302 in the form set forth in Section 2 of this act. Therefore, Section 2 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 1727 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both amend Section 65302, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 1727, in which case Section 1 of this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because the duties, obligations, or responsibilities imposed on local government by this act are such that related costs are incurred as part of their normal operating procedures.

CHAPTER 954

An act to add Article 5 (commencing with Section 11850) to Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 10.5 of the Health and Safety Code, to amend Sections 1803, 13352.5, and 23102.1 of the Vehicle Code, and to repeal Article 5 (commencing with Section 19975.01) of Chapter 1 of Division 11 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to public offenses, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 5 (commencing with Section 11850) is added to Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 10.5 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 5. Treatment for Drinking Drivers

11850. (a) As an alternative to the provisions of law relating to suspension of a person's privilege to operate a motor vehicle upon conviction for driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or under the combined influence of intoxicating liquor and any drug, as set forth in Section 13201.5 and subdivisions (a), (c), and (e) of Section 13352 of the Vehicle Code, a court may refrain from suspending such privilege and the Department of Motor Vehicles may not suspend or revoke such privilege because of such a conviction if the person convicted of that offense has consented to participate, for at least one year and in a manner satisfactory to the court, in a program for the supervision of such persons and for treatment of their problem drinking or alcoholism that is approved pursuant to this article.

(b) In determining whether to refer such a person to an approved program, the court may consider any relevant information about the person made available pursuant to a presentence investigation, which is permitted but not required under Section 23102.3 of the Vehicle Code, or other screening procedure. No such information may be furnished, however, by any person who also provides services in a privately operated, approved program or who has any direct interest in a privately operated, approved program. In addition, the court shall obtain from the Department of Motor Vehicles a copy of the person's driving record to determine whether the person is eligible to participate in an approved program pursuant to the provisions of this article.

(c) The court may, subject to the provisions of Section 11851.2, refer a person to an approved program, even though the person's privilege to operate a motor vehicle is suspended or revoked.

(d) As used in this article, "program" means all the elements of the program described in the amendment to the county alcoholism program budget submitted pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 11850.6.

11850.1. (a) In utilizing any such program, the court shall require periodic reports concerning the performance of each person referred to and participating in a program and the immediate report of any failure of any such person to comply with the program's rules and regulations. If, at any time after referral to or while participating in a program, a participant fails to comply with the rules and regulations of the program, the court, upon finding such fact, shall immediately suspend, or order suspension or revocation of, the privilege of such person to operate a motor vehicle for the period prescribed by law.

(b) If, at any time after referral to or while participating in a program, a participant refuses, for any reason, to consent to a chemical test that he or she is required to submit to pursuant to Section 13353 of the Vehicle Code, his or her participation in the program shall be terminated and the Department of Motor Vehicles shall immediately suspend or revoke his or her privilege to operate a motor vehicle for the period prescribed in Section 13352 of the Vehicle Code, according to the offense for which he or she was convicted immediately prior to referral to the program. Such period of suspension or revocation shall be in addition to the period of suspension imposed by the Department of Motor Vehicles pursuant to Section 13353 of the Vehicle Code.

(c) In the event the state department withdraws approval of a program, the Department of Motor Vehicles shall suspend or revoke, for the period prescribed by law, the privilege to operate a motor vehicle of every person previously participating in the program who does not commence participation, in a manner satisfactory to the court, in an approved program within 21 days after the date approval was withdrawn from the previous program.

(d) In addition to any other condition of probation, the court shall have the discretion to determine whether any person desiring to participate in a program shall be required to furnish proof of ability to respond in damages, as defined in Section 16430 of the Vehicle Code, as a condition to participation in the program.

11850.2. (a) The court may, subject to the provisions of Section 11851.2, refer persons only to approved programs. Subject to such provisions, a person is eligible to participate in such a program if it is operating in (1) the county where such person is convicted, or (2) the county where such person resides, or (3) a county that has an agreement with such person's county of residence pursuant to Section 11851, or (4) a county to which a person may request transfer pursuant to subdivision (d). If such person cannot be referred to an approved program pursuant to this section, the provisions of Section 13352 of the Vehicle Code shall apply.

(b) Subject to the provisions of Section 11851.2, if a person has consented to participate in an approved program and the county where such person is convicted is the same county in which such person resides, the court may order such person to participate in an approved program within such county or, if such county does not have an approved program, the court may order such person to participate in such program within another county, pursuant to the provisions of Section 11851.

(c) Subject to the provisions of Section 11851.2, if a person has consented to participate in an approved program in the county in which such person resides or in a county in which such person's county of residence has an agreement pursuant to Section 11851, and the county where such person is convicted is not the county where such person resides, and if the court grants such person summary probation, the court may order the person to participate in an approved program in such county. In lieu of summary probation, the court may utilize the probation officer to implement the orders of the court. If the county in which such person resides does not have an approved program or an agreement with another county pursuant to Section 11851 and such person consents, the court may order such person to participate in an approved program within the county where such person is convicted, or a county in which such county has an agreement pursuant to Section 11851.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (e), subsequent to a person's commencement of participation in a program, such person may request transfer to another approved program (1) in the same county in which such person has commenced participation in such program, upon approval of such county's alcoholism administrator, or (2) in a county other than the county in which such person has commenced participation in such program, upon approval of the alcoholism administrators of the county in which such person is participating and the county in which such person is requesting transfer.

(e) Subdivision (d) shall not be applicable if (1) the court has ordered the person to participate in a specific approved program, unless such court orders the transfer or, (2) the person is under formal probation, unless the probation officer consents to the transfer. The state department shall establish reporting forms and procedures to ensure that the court receives notice of any program transfer pursuant to this subdivision or subdivision (d).

(f) Jurisdiction of all postconviction matters arising pursuant to this section may be retained by the court of conviction.

(g) Upon receiving notice from the court of conviction that a person has not commenced participation in an approved program within 21 days after the date of sentencing, excluding any days of imprisonment served for such offense, the Department of Motor Vehicles shall suspend or revoke such person's privilege to operate a motor vehicle for the period prescribed by law.

(h) The state department, in cooperation with the Department of Motor Vehicles and alcoholism administrators, shall establish procedures to ensure the effective implementation of this section.

11850.3. No person may be admitted or readmitted into a program for the supervision and treatment of problem drinking or alcoholism pursuant to this article until four years after such person ceases his or her prior participation in such a program. The four-year period shall commence either on the date the court orders the suspension or revocation of such person's privilege to operate a motor vehicle pursuant to Section 11850.1 or on the date such person successfully completes the program, whichever is later. With respect to any person convicted for the offense of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or under the combined influence of intoxicating liquor and any drug subsequent to the commencement of a four-year period, such person's eligibility to participate in the program again shall be determined on the basis of the date on which such person is alleged to have committed that offense.

11850.4. (a) The state department shall have sole authority to approve programs pursuant to this article. No program, regardless of how it is funded, may be approved unless it meets the standards established by the state department, which shall include, but need not be limited to, the following:

(1) Each program shall provide for close and regular supervision of the person, including face-to-face interviews at least once every other calendar week, regarding the person's progress in the program. Such interviews shall be conducted individually with each person being supervised and shall occur at times other than when such person is participating in any group or other activities of the program. No program activity in which such person is participating shall be interrupted in order to conduct such individual interviews.

(2) The state department shall approve all fee schedules for such programs and shall require that each program make provision for persons who cannot afford such fees in order to enable such persons to participate. The state department shall ensure that such fees are set at amounts which will enable programs to provide adequately for the services required pursuant to this article. Such fees shall be used only for the purposes set forth in this article, except that any profit or surplus, that does not exceed the maximum level established by the state department, may be utilized for any purposes allowable under any other provisions of law. In its standards, the state department shall define, for the purposes of this paragraph, the terms profits and surplus. The state department may not approve any program if the state department finds that any element of the administration of the program does not assure the fiscal integrity of the program.

(3) Each program shall include a variety of treatment services for problem drinkers and alcoholics or shall have the capability of referring such persons to, and regularly and closely supervising such persons while in, appropriate treatment services for their problem drinking or alcoholism. In addition to the requirements of paragraph (1) of this subdivision, the state department shall prescribe in its standards what other services the program shall provide its participants, which services may include lectures, classes, group discussions, individual counseling in addition to the interviews required by paragraph (1), or any combination thereof. However, any class or group discussion, other than lectures, shall not exceed 15 persons at any one meeting

(4) In order to assure effective treatment and supervision in any program, the state department shall require, whenever appropriate, that the program provides services to ethnic minorities, women, youth, or any other group that has particular needs relating to the program.

(5) The goal of each program shall be to enable the person participating in the program to address successfully his or her alcohol abuse or alcoholism problem, to eliminate any dependence on alcoholic beverages, and to protect the public's health and safety upon the highways.

(b) Each program may be an extension of an existing program or a new program. No such program may be approved, however, unless the county complies with the requirements of Section 11817.

(c) Not later than March 1, 1979, the state department shall adopt standards by regulation in order to assure effective implementation of the procedure established by this article, which shall be in addition to any of the standards set forth in this section.

(d) A county or program may not prescribe additional program requirements unless such requirements are specifically approved by the state department.

11850.5. (a) No person may participate in any program that has not been approved or reapproved by the state department pursuant to the standards established pursuant to this article. The state department shall reapprove existing programs in the demonstration counties that were selected pursuant to Section 13201.5 of the Vehicle Code, as added by Chapter 1133 of the Statutes of 1975, if such programs meet the standards established pursuant to this article; and no person may participate in any such program until it is reapproved pursuant to this article.

(b) The state department may charge a reasonable fee for approval or reapproval of a program. The fee shall be set at a level sufficient to cover all administrative costs of the program incurred by the state department and the Department of Motor Vehicles. All such fees received by the state department shall be deposited in the General Fund for reimbursing the state department and the Department of Motor Vehicles their costs incurred in approving or reapproving programs and their administrative costs, when appropriated for that purpose by the Legislature.

11850.6. (a) The Legislature recognizes that were the state department to be charged with monitoring closely the programs established pursuant to this article, it would require significantly increased staff. The Legislature also recognizes that such monitoring by state agencies often is ineffective and misleads the Legislature and public into believing that the state can and has adequately fulfilled such responsibilities. The Legislature also recognizes that the governing body and responsible county staff are much closer to, and more informed about, the daily activities of the programs approved pursuant to this article and about the impact that failure of such programs might have for the citizens of their county. The Legislature also recognizes that if a program is deficient, clients may receive inadequate supervision and treatment and may therefore remain a danger to the public health and safety and a burden to themselves, their family, and the community. Therefore, the Legislature places the major responsibility for assuring programmatic and fiscal integrity of each program with the governing body of each county utilizing a program pursuant to this article.

(b) The governing body shall delegate to the alcoholism administrator, pursuant to the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 11790) of this chapter, the responsibility to assure compliance with the standards of the state department by any program designated by the county for operation therein and approved by the state department. In any county in which such an administrator has not been appointed, the head of the health-related agency or department designated pursuant to Section 11793 shall assume the duties of the alcoholism administrator and administer the program pursuant to the provisions of this article.

(c) The alcoholism administrator shall submit to the governing body a description of each program to be utilized in the county in the form of a proposed amendment to the county alcoholism program budget required by Article 3 (commencing with Section 11810) of this chapter. Prior to such submission, the advisory board shall review the proposal, and its comments shall be included in the submission to the governing body. If the governing body approves the amendment, it shall submit the amendment to the state department for approval. The state department shall approve the amendment if it finds that the program meets the requirements of this article. The state department may approve a program on a provisional basis.

(d) In addition to the provisions of Section 11797, no person may serve as a member of the advisory board who is an employee, director, or member of any advisory body, or holds any similar position or title on a compensated or noncompensated basis in any program which seeks or possesses approval pursuant to this article.

11850.7. (a) The alcoholism administrator, or the advisory board acting through the alcoholism administrator, shall inform the governing body immediately if it is determined that any program is not meeting the standards established by the state department. The governing body shall immediately notify the state department, which, if it finds that such program does not meet such standards or cannot meet such standards within 30 days of notice by the state department, shall withdraw approval of the program.

(b) If the state department modifies any of its standards, the alcoholism administrator shall assure within a time period established by the state department that each program within his or her county has met such standards. The state department shall withdraw approval of any program that does not at any time meet the standards established by the state department.

(c) The alcoholism administrator, chief probation officer, the director, or their authorized representatives may enter, in a nondisruptive manner, any class, lecture, group discussion, or any other program element to observe such activities.

(d) Within its staff and time limitations, the state department may require reapproval of all programs on a periodic basis commencing January 1, 1979, and may charge a fee pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 11850.5 for such reapproval.

(e) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a) of Section 11850.6, the state department may audit, or contract for the auditing of, any approved program.

11850.8. (a) The state department shall authorize each alcoholism administrator to retain, in an amount not in excess of that specified by the state department, a portion of the fees charged for participation in the program that is sufficient to reimburse the county for the costs and expenses which the administrator reasonably incurs in discharging his or her duties pursuant to this article.

(b) A county may not use for any purpose set forth in this article any funds allocated to it by the state department pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 11830) of this chapter. The governing body may authorize the use of any other funds for any such purpose.

11850.9. As an element of the program, the probation department may provide any of the face-to-face interviews required pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 11850.4 and may supplement any of the other services required to be provided by a program. The participation of the probation department shall be described in the amendment to the county alcoholism program budget.

11851. (a) The Legislature encourages all counties to utilize the procedure described in this article, but recognizes that it is not feasible for every county to establish its own programs. Accordingly, two or more counties may jointly establish programs pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 11790 of this code or Article 1 (commencing with Section 6500) of Chapter 5 of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code or may furnish by contract such program services to residents of another county pursuant to Section 11803 of this code. The governing body of the county in which the program is located shall be responsible for assuring the integrity of the program as required pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 11850.6.

(b) For the purpose of determining a person's eligibility to participate in an approved program where such person's county of residence establishes a program with another county or contracts for services pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section, the following eligibility requirements shall apply:

(1) Where two or more counties jointly establish a program pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 11790 of this code or Article 1 (commencing with Section 6500) of Chapter 5 of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, subdivision (b) of Section 11851.2 shall apply.

(2) Where a county contracts for program services from another county, only those residents alleged to have committed the offense of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or under the combined influence of intoxicating liquor and any drug on or after the date their county of residence executes a contract pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section to provide program services to their residents shall be eligible to participate in such approved program pursuant to Section 11850.2.

Counties which contract for services pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section shall notify the state department not later than 14 days following such action.

11851.1. The state department, in cooperation with the Department of Motor Vehicles, shall establish uniform statewide reporting procedures and forms for the submission of any appropriate documents or information from governing bodies, alcoholism administrators, administrators of programs, and program participants to assure effective implementation of this article.

11851.2. The Legislature finds and declares that, in order to provide for orderly and effective implementation of this article, to prevent the courts and programs in each county from being overburdened at the commencement of the implementation of this article, and to protect the public health and safety, this article shall apply only on a prospective basis. Therefore, this article shall apply only to persons who are alleged to have committed the offense of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or under the combined influence of intoxicating liquor and any drug, and who committed such an offense, if at all, on or after the date when a program to which such persons may be referred by the court has been approved by the state department. Such persons who qualify for participation in the program may be referred to such a program, within the discretion of the court of jurisdiction, only subsequent to conviction for that offense.

The Legislature finds and declares that the provisions of this section are declaratory of existing law, as enacted by Chapter 890, Statutes of 1977. The Legislature further finds and declares that the provisions of this section are not intended to alter the application of Chapter 890, Statutes of 1977; rather, the provisions of this section are intended to clarify the original intent of the Legislature in enacting such chapter.

SEC. 1.5. Section 1803 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

1803. (a) Every clerk of a court, or judge if there be no clerk, in which a person was convicted of any violation of this code, and of any offense involving use or possession of narcotic controlled substances under Division 10 (commencing with Section 11000) of the Health and Safety Code, and of any violation of any other statute relating to the safe operation of vehicles shall prepare within 10 days after conviction and immediately forward to the department at its office at Sacramento an abstract of the record of the court covering the case in which the person was so convicted, unless sentencing is not pronounced in conjunction with the conviction in which case the abstract shall be forwarded to the department within 10 days after sentencing, which abstract must be certified by the person so required to prepare the same to be true and correct.

For the purposes of this section, a forfeiture of bail shall be equivalent to a conviction.

(b) The following violations are not required to be reported under subdivision (a) of this section:

(1) Division 3.5 (commencing with Section 9840).

(2) Section 21113, with respect to parking violations.

(3) Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 22500) of Division 11.

(4) Division 12 (commencing with Section 24000), except Sections 24002, 24004, 24250, 24409, 24604, 24800, 25103, Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 26301), 26707, 27151, 27800, and 27801.

(5) Division 15 (commencing with Section 35000), except Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 35550).

(6) Violations for which a person was cited as a pedestrian or while operating a bicycle.

(7) Division 16.5 (commencing with Section 38000).

(c) If the court impounds a license or orders a person to limit his driving pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 40508, the court shall notify the department concerning the impoundment or limitation on an abstract prepared pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section or on a separate abstract, which shall be prepared within 10 days after the impoundment or limitation was ordered and immediately forwarded to the department at its office in Sacramento.

SEC. 2. Section 13352.5 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

13352.5. (a) The department may not suspend or revoke, pursuant to subdivision (a), (c), or (e) of Section 13352, the privilege of any person to operate a motor vehicle upon a conviction or finding that the person was driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or under the combined influence of intoxicating liquor and any drug, if the court has certified to the department that such person has consented to participate for at least one year, and is participating, in a manner satisfactory to the court, in a public or private program for the supervision of such persons and the treatment of their problem drinking or alcoholism pursuant to the provisions of Article 5 (commencing with Section 11850) of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 10.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) All abstracts of record showing such a conviction that are forwarded to the department pursuant to Section 1803 shall indicate whether the person convicted has consented to participate, and is participating, in such a program.

SEC. 3. Section 23102.1 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

23102.1. Notwithstanding the requirements of subdivisions (e) and (f) of Section 23102, the court may suspend execution of the sentence, as to the imprisonment of any person convicted for a second offense under Section 23102, if the person has consented to participate, for at least one year and in a manner satisfactory to the court, in a program approved pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 11850) of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 10.5 of the Health and Safety Code and the court has referred the person to such a program. If at any time the person is found by the court to have failed to comply with the rules and regulations of the program or does not successfully complete the program, the court shall revoke such suspension or shall revoke and terminate probation, or both, and shall proceed in the manner provided in subdivision (c) of Section 1203.2 of the Penal Code.

This section shall not be applicable to any person convicted for a third or subsequent offense, under Section 23102, and shall not affect the imposition of any fines on persons convicted for any offense under Section 23102.

SEC. 4. Article 5 (commencing with Section 19975.01) of Chapter 1 of Division 11 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. This act shall become operative on the effective date of this act or July 1, 1978, whichever is later.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The recent state government reorganization, effective July 1, 1978, abolished the Office of Alcoholism and transferred its functions and duties to the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Abuse, repealing the relevant provisions in the Welfare and Institutions Code and adding them to the Health and Safety Code. In order to make the provisions for the treatment of drinking drivers, added to the Welfare and Institutions Code prior to the effective date of the reorganization by Chapter 890 of the Statutes of 1977, conform to such reorganization, and in order to clarify and make more effective the implementation of Chapter 890 of the Statutes of 1977, it is necessary that the provisions of this act take effect at the earliest possible time.

CHAPTER 955

An act relating to physicians and surgeons.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. As used in this act, the following definitions shall apply:

(a) "Division" means the Division of Medical Quality.

(b) "Committee" means a medical quality review committee.

(c) "County medical society" means those county medical societies who have volunteered and have been designated by the division to participate in the pilot project.

(d) "Quality assessment organization" means any nonpublic medical or medically related institution that administers a program to evaluate the performance or competence of persons holding physicians' and surgeons' certificates issued pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 2000) of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code. Quality assessment organizations include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) Hospital participation shall include the involvement, when appropriate, of internal peer review committees charged with reviewing physician performance.

(2) Professional medical and medical specialty society review committees, conduct and ethics committees, and judicial councils.

(3) Insurance underwriters' claims review committees and medical advisory groups.

(4) The quality review committees of foundations for medical care, health clinics, and medical laboratories.

(e) "Professional standards review organization" means any nonprofit corporation under contract to the United States Department of Health, Education, and Welfare as a professional standards review organization which conducts its affairs within the State of California.

SEC. 2. The Division of Medical Quality shall conduct a pilot program for the evaluation of the competence of holders of physicians' and surgeons' certificates by quality assessment organizations and professional standards review organizations in conjunction with medical quality review committees. Participation by such assessment and review organizations shall be on a voluntary basis.

SEC. 3. The division shall select, by July 1, 1979, no less than three medical quality review committees to participate in the pilot project.

SEC. 4. (a) Each committee shall meet with quality assessment organizations and professional standards review organizations active in the district to develop screening criteria capable of indicating substandard medical practices.

(b) The division shall solicit the participation of professional medical societies, consumer groups, and insurance underwriters in drafting prototype screening criteria for use by the committees.

SEC. 5. Each committee shall designate a county medical society or societies to receive copies of reports made pursuant to Section 6.

SEC. 6. Upon approval by the division of the screening criteria adopted by a committee, participating assessment and review organizations shall conduct their evaluation in accordance with that screening criteria, shall identify deviations from criteria, and shall determine, through review of relevant medical information, whether the exception is justified as acceptable medical practice. When, in the opinion of the review organization, the exception is unjustified, that organization shall report the circumstances both to the committee and the county medical society designated by the committee.

SEC. 7. The county medical society designated pursuant to Section 5 may review all reports made to it pursuant to Section 6, take action as it deems appropriate within its lawful authority and make recommendations to the committee regarding disposition of the case of any certificate holder whose conduct has been found to be substandard pursuant to the criteria adopted pursuant to Section 4.

SEC. 8. Each assessment and review organization participating in the project shall report to the committee the number of cases reviewed by the organization, the number of cases of substandard conduct identified, and the number of cases referred to the medical society designated by the committee.

SEC. 9. At intervals specified by the committee, the designated medical society shall report on the number of allegations of substandard conduct referred to it for review, the number of such allegations deemed justifiable, and the number of cases pending final disposition.

SEC. 10. Nothing in this act shall be construed to limit the authority of the division or a committee or a county medical society to take disciplinary action against a certificate holder as otherwise authorized by law.

SEC. 11. No civil or criminal liability on the part of, and no cause of action for damages shall arise against, any person or hospital for the communication of information in the possession of such person or hospital to any agency, society, organization, body, or person whatsoever, when such communication is authorized by this chapter and if the person or hospital making such communication acts without malice, has made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter, and acts in a reasonable belief that the action taken is warranted by facts known to the communicator after a reasonable effort to obtain such facts. The communications authorized by this chapter shall not, however, be construed to constitute a waiver of confidentiality of medical records, medical committee reports, or other documents protected under applicable sections of the Evidence Code.

SEC. 12. The Division of Medical Quality shall make an interim report evaluating the success of the pilot project authorized by this act, and alternative methods of financing the remainder of the project, to both the Legislature and the Governor by September 1, 1980. It shall make a final report thereto by March 1, 1981, which shall include its recommendations as to the feasibility of statewide implementation of the program.

SEC. 13. On and after January 1, 1980, the Board of Medical Quality Assurance shall seek to fund the program for the evaluation of the competence of holders of physicians' and surgeons' certificates established by this act in a manner other than from the revenues derived by the board from license fees received from holders of such certificates, including, but not limited to, general state revenues.

SEC. 14. The provisions of this act shall be operative until July 1, 1981, and shall have no force or effect on and after that date.

CHAPTER 956

An act to amend Section 21222.3 of the Government Code, relating to the Public Employees' Retirement System, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 21222.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21222.3. In addition to the increase in allowance authorized by and granted pursuant to the provisions of Section 21222, and notwithstanding the limitation in subdivision (b) of Section 21224, any monthly allowance computed under or limited by Section 21251.1 prior to its repeal by Chapter 266, Statutes of 1972, shall be increased by 15 percent. Such percentage shall be applied to the allowance payable on July 1, 1974, and the allowance as so increased shall be paid for time on and after that date and until the first day of April, 1975. The base allowance shall be increased by the same percentage for annual adjustments beginning with the adjustment effective for time commencing on April 1, 1975.

Notwithstanding Sections 20019.1 and 20493 of this code, this section shall not apply to allowances based on service in employment in which the member was a school member or a local miscellaneous member.

The amendments to this section during the 1975–76 Regular Session shall be applicable to allowances paid on and after July 1, 1974, to retired state members who did not receive an increase under this section prior to such amendment solely because their effective date of retirement was on or after July 1, 1971.

SEC. 2. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to provide a one-time payment to reflect an equity adjustment, and it is not the intention of the Legislature to institute a policy or establish any precedent for providing retroactive retirement benefit increases.

SEC. 3. The sum of six thousand two hundred thirty dollars and sixteen cents ($6,230.16) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Public Employees' Retirement Fund for expenditure by the Board of Administration of the Public Employees' Retirement System for carrying out the purposes of Section 21222.3 of the Government Code as amended by this act.

CHAPTER 957

An act to amend Section 2542 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to registered dispensing opticians.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2542 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2542. Only a physician and surgeon or optometrist in connection with the fitting of a contact lens or lenses may utilize the service of a registered dispensing optician acting on the advice, direction and responsibility of such physician and surgeon or optometrist A registered dispensing optician shall not fit a contact lens or lenses unless the prescription specifically refers to and authorizes contact lenses.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there by any appropriation made by this act because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local government entities and school districts which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes.

CHAPTER 958

An act to amend Section 3351 and to repeal Section 3359 of the Labor Code, relating to workers' compensation.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3351 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3351. "Employee" means every person in the service of an employer under any appointment or contract of hire or apprenticeship, express or implied, oral or written, whether lawfully or unlawfully employed, and includes:

(a) Aliens and minors.

(b) All elected and appointed paid public officers.

(c) All officers and members of boards of directors of quasi-public or private corporations while rendering actual service for such corporations for pay; provided that, where the officers and directors of any such private corporation are the sole shareholders thereof, the corporation and such officers and directors shall come under the compensation provisions of this division only by election as provided in subdivision (a) of Section 4151.

(d) Except as provided in subdivision (h) of Section 3352, any person employed by the owner or occupant of a residential dwelling whose duties are incidental to the ownership, maintenance, or use of the dwelling, including the care and supervision of children, or whose duties are personal and not in the course of the trade, business, profession, or occupation of such owner or occupant.

(e) All persons incarcerated in a state penal or correctional institution while engaged in assigned work.

(f) All working members of a partnership receiving wages irrespective of profits from such partnership; provided that where the working members of the partnership are general partners, the partnership and such partners shall come under the compensation provisions of this division only by election as provided in subdivision (a) of Section 4151.

SEC. 2. Section 3359 of the Labor Code is repealed.

CHAPTER 959

An act to add Section 6369.4 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6369.4 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

6369.4. There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this part the gross receipts from the sale, and the storage, use, or other consumption, in this state of items and materials when used to modify a vehicle for physically handicapped persons

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 2230 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act and the state shall not reimburse any local agency for any sales and use tax revenues lost by it under this act.

SEC. 3. There are no state-mandated local costs in this act that require reimbursement under Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because there are no new duties, obligations, or responsibilities imposed on local government by this act.

SEC. 4. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. However, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the first day of the first calendar quarter commencing more than 25 days after the effective date of this act.

CHAPTER 960

An act to add Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 54980) to Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, relating to municipal services.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 54980) is added to Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 11. MUNICIPAL SERVICES AND FUNCTIONS

54980. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Legislative body" means the board of supervisors in the case of a county or a city and county, the city council or board of trustees in the case of a city, and the board of directors or other governing body in the case of a district.

(b) "Local agency" means any county, city, city and county, or public district which provides or has authority to provide or perform municipal services or functions.

(c) "Municipal services or functions" includes, but is not limited to, firefighting, police, ambulance, utility services, and the improvement, maintenance, repair, and operation of streets and highways.

54981. The legislative body of any local agency may contract with any other local agency for the performance by the latter of municipal services or functions within the territory of the former.

54982. Any agreement entered into pursuant to this chapter shall be for valuable consideration.

54983. Authority for entering into agreements pursuant to this chapter shall be construed as supplementing existing authority for legislative bodies of local agencies to enter into agreements for the providing of municipal services and functions and shall not be construed as authorizing the legislative body of any local agency to enter into an agreement for the providing of municipal services or functions which it is prohibited to provide by law or which exceeds the force account limit applicable to the lead agency performing the work.

CHAPTER 961

An act to add and repeal Sections 7852.5, 7852.6, and 7852.7 to the Fish and Game Code, relating to fish, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7852.5 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

7852.5. A commercial fishing salmon stamp, in addition to a commercial fishing license, shall entitle the holder to take salmon during the commercial salmon season, and no salmon may be taken for commercial purposes by anyone who does not have such a stamp. Stamps shall be issued annually for a fee, as determined by the department, but not to exceed thirty dollars ($30), and shall be valid during the commercial salmon season of the year in which issued.

This section shall remain in effect only until December 31, 1986, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before December 31, 1986, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 2. Section 7852.6 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

7852.6. Moneys collected from the sale of salmon stamps shall be used for raising chinook salmon to a yearling size, at which size they shall be released into state waters. The amount of salmon stamp revenues expended for this purpose in any fiscal year shall not exceed the amount expended by the department for the same purpose during the same period. The calculation of the amount expended by the department for this purpose shall not include expenditures made by the department for which reimbursements are received from state or federal agencies, public utilities, or private entities for raising chinook salmon to yearling size as part of a fish mitigation program instituted to compensate for the adverse effect of a dam on natural salmon production. If the department expends no funds other than moneys collected from the sale of salmon stamps or moneys for which reimbursements are received as part of an anadromous fish mitigation program for the raising of chinook salmon to yearling size within the period of a fiscal year, the commercial fishing salmon stamp program, as specified in Section 7852.5, shall be discontinued and no fee shall thereafter be collected for the issuance of a salmon stamp.

If the salmon stamps issued pursuant to Section 7852.5 raise more money than is necessary to match the funds expended by the department during any fiscal year, then the excess salmon stamp revenue may be carried over into the following fiscal year.

This section shall remain in effect only until December 31, 1986, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before December 31, 1986, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 3. Section 7852.7 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

7852.7. It is the intent of the Legislature that the department use the moneys generated from the sale of commercial fishing salmon stamps and the matching share contributed by the department to raise approximately two million chinook salmon annually to yearling size to contribute to the replenishing of California's salmon resource. In no case shall moneys from the General Fund be used to match the salmon stamp revenues expended for this program. It is the further intent of the Legislature that the salmon stamp fee authorized in Section 7852.5 shall be determined, subject to the thirty dollar ($30) maximum, so as to generate revenues equal to one-half the amount necessary to raise this number of salmon to yearling size.

This section shall remain in effect only until December 31, 1986, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before December 31, 1986, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local governmental entities and school districts which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant, identifiable cost changes.

CHAPTER 962

An act to amend Section 14998.2 of, and to add Section 14998.8 to, the Government Code, relating to the Motion Picture Development Council, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14998.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14998.2. There is in the state government the Motion Picture Council consisting of 14 members. The Governor shall appoint 10 members, the Senate Rules Committee shall appoint two members and the Speaker of the Assembly shall appoint two members. The members of the council appointed by the Governor may include representatives of state and local government, motion picture development companies, employee and professional organizations composed of persons employed in the motion picture industry, and other appropriate members of this or related industries. The Motion Picture Council shall work to encourage motion picture and television filming in California and shall exercise the powers provided in this section of the code and elsewhere in the Government Code. In addition to other duties provided by law, the Motion Picture Council shall also make recommendations to the Department of Economic and Business Development and the agencies of state government on legislative or administrative actions that may be necessary or helpful to maintain and improve the position of the state's motion picture industry in the national and world market.

One of the members appointed by the Senate Rules Committee shall be a Senator and one of the members appointed by the Speaker shall be a member of the Assembly at the time of appointment. Such persons shall be appointed for terms of four years.

Each legislator serving on January 1, 1979, shall serve a term of four years, commencing on that date. The other person appointed by the Senate Rules Committee and by the Speaker shall serve an initial term which shall end on December 31, 1980. The 10 members appointed by the Governor shall serve staggered terms of four years each with the terms of two members to expire December 31, 1979, the terms of three members to expire December 31, 1980, the terms of two to expire December 31, 1981, and the terms of three to expire December 31, 1982. The members appointed by the Governor with the least seniority on the Motion Picture Council shall be assigned to the terms with the earliest expiration date unless the Governor, prior to January 1, 1979, shall designate a different order. Each term thereafter shall expire four years subsequent to the expiration date of the prior term.

SEC. 3. Section 14998.8 is added to the Government Code, to read:

14998.8. The Motion Picture Council is authorized to appoint an advisory commission, production consultants, and other advisory personnel, provided, however, that no such advisory personnel shall receive any compensation other than reimbursement of expenses for attendance at council meetings. No advisory person appointed may use the name of the council on any letterhead, business card, or identification badge except to the extent that the person is authorized to do so by the council.

SEC. 4. There is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Economic and Business Development forty thousand dollars ($40,000) during fiscal year 1979–80 for use by the Motion Picture Council for motion picture development work in the State of California and to be used for staff, office space rental, office expenses and industry communications. After the 1979–80 fiscal year the Legislature shall appropriate annual support funds for the Motion Picture Council as a portion of the budget of the Department of Economic and Business Development and said funds shall be expended in the manner provided in this section. It is the intent of the Legislature that the remainder of support funds for the Motion Picture Council for each year, other than the annual appropriation for the Motion Picture Council to be provided through the Department of Economic and Business Development, shall come from industry fees collected by the Motion Picture Council as otherwise provided by law.

SEC. 5. It is the intention of the Legislature in enacting this act to make the Motion Picture Council self-sufficient with respect to its industry-service function and to provide a General Fund expenditure for an annual appropriation, through the Department of Economic and Business Development, to pay for the functions of the Motion Picture Council in promoting and developing motion picture filming in California for the benefit of the state's economy. With respect to the annual appropriation to the Department of Business Development, the Motion Picture Council shall have authority to determine how such funds shall be spent, subject to normal budgetary controls by the Department of Finance. The Motion Picture Council shall, however, report annually to the Director of Finance and to the Director of the Department of Economic and Business Development as to how all funds received have been spent.

CHAPTER 963

An act to amend Section 217 of the Health and Safety Code, and to add Section 13517 to the Penal Code, relating to peace officers, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 217 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

217. All ocean and public beach lifeguards, and firemen in this state shall be trained to administer first aid, including, but not limited to, cardiopulmonary resuscitation. The training shall meet the standards for first aid training prescribed by the state department and shall be satisfactorily completed by such ocean and public beach lifeguards, and firemen, as soon as practical, but in no event more than one year after the date of employment. Satisfactory completion of a refresher course approved by the state department in cardiopulmonary resuscitation and other first aid every three years shall also be required.

The state department shall designate a public agency or private nonprofit agency to provide for each county the training required by this section. Such training shall be provided at no cost to the trainee.

This section shall not apply to firemen whose duties are primarily clerical or administrative.

As used in this section, "ocean and public beach lifeguard" means any regularly employed and paid officer, employee, or member of a public aquatic safety department or marine safety agency of the State of California, a city, county, city and county, district, or other public or municipal corporation or political subdivision of this state.

As used in this section, "fireman" means any regularly employed and paid officer, employee, or member of a fire department or fire protection or firefighting agency of the State of California, a city, county, city and county, district, or other public or municipal corporation or political subdivision of this state or member of an emergency reserve unit of a volunteer fire department or fire protection district.

SEC. 2. Section 13517 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

13517. (a) All policemen, sheriffs, deputy sheriffs, and members of the California Highway Patrol shall be trained to administer first aid, including, but not limited to, cardiopulmonary resuscitation. Satisfactory completion of a refresher course in cardiopulmonary resuscitation and other first aid every three years shall also be required.

(b) The course of training leading to the basic certificate issued by the commission shall, on and after July 1, 1979, include adequate instruction in the procedures described in subdivision (a). No reimbursement shall be made to local agencies based on attendance on or after such date at any such course which does not comply with the requirements of this subdivision.

CHAPTER 964

An act to amend Sections 51213, 51227, and 78202 of the Education Code, relating to curriculum.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 51213 of the Education Code is amended to read:

51213. Instruction in social sciences shall include the early history of California and a study of the role and contributions of both men and women, black Americans, American Indians, Mexicans, Asians, Pacific Island people, and other ethnic groups to the economic, political, and social development of California and the United States of America, with particular emphasis on portraying the roles of these groups in contemporary society.

SEC. 2. Section 51227 of the Education Code is amended to read:

51227. Instruction in social sciences shall include the early history of California and a study of the role and contributions of both men and women, black Americans, American Indians, Mexicans, Asians, Pacific Island people, and other ethnic groups to the economic, political, and social development of California and the United States of America, with particular emphasis on portraying the roles of these groups in contemporary society.

SEC. 3. Section 78202 of the Education Code is amended to read:

78202. The courses of instruction in social sciences shall include a study of the role, participation, and contribution of both men and women, black Americans, American Indians, Mexicans, Asians, Pacific Island people, and other ethnic groups to the economic, political, and social development of California and the United States of America.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because the duties, obligations or responsibilities imposed on local governmental entities or school districts by this act are such that related costs are incurred as part of their normal operating procedures.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 101 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

101. All provisions of law applicable to corporations generally (including, but not limited to, the General Corporation Law (Division 1 (commencing with Section 100), Title 1 of the Corporations Code)) shall apply to banks. However, whenever any provision of this division or of any regulation or order issued under any provision (other than this section) of this division applicable to banks is inconsistent with any provision of law applicable to corporations generally, such provision of this division or of such regulation or order shall apply and such provision of law applicable to corporations generally shall not apply.

SEC. 2. Section 102 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

102. The word "bank" as used in this division means any incorporated banking institution which shall have been incorporated to engage in commercial banking business or trust business. The soliciting, receiving, or accepting of money or its equivalent on deposit as a regular business shall be deemed to be doing a commercial banking business whether such deposit is made subject to check or is evidenced by a certificate of deposit, a passbook, a note, a receipt, or other writing; provided, that nothing herein shall apply to or include money or its equivalent left in escrow, or left with an agent pending investment in real estate or securities for or on account of his principal. It shall be unlawful for any corporation, partnership, firm, or individual to engage in or transact a banking business within this state except by means of a corporation duly organized for such purpose.

SEC. 3. Section 114 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 118 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

118. (a) All references in this division and in Division 1 (commencing with Section 100), Title 1 of the Corporations Code to financial statements, balance sheets, income statements and statements of changes in financial position of a bank and all references to assets, liabilities, earnings, retained earnings, shareholders' equity, and similar accounting items of a bank mean such financial statements or such items prepared or determined in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles then applicable, fairly presenting in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles the matters which they purport to present, subject to any specific accounting treatment required by any provision of Division 1 (commencing with Section 100), Title 1 of the Corporations Code, of this division, or of any regulation or order issued under this division.

(b) The superintendent may, by regulation or order, require that any financial statement or accounting item of a bank be prepared or determined in a manner other than in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles if he finds that such other manner is necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes or provisions of this division.

SEC. 5. Section 119 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

119. References in this division to the voting of shares shall be construed in accordance with Section 111 of the Corporations Code.

SEC. 6. Section 120 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

120. If the articles of a bank provide for more or less than one vote for any share on any matter, the references in Sections 123 and 124 to a majority or other proportion of shares means, as to such matter, a majority or other proportion of the votes entitled to be cast. Whenever, under Division 1 (commencing with Section 100), Title 1 of the Corporations Code or this division, shares are disqualified from voting on any matter, they shall not be considered outstanding for the determination of a quorum at any meeting to act upon, or the required vote to approve action upon, such matter under any provision of Division 1 (commencing with Section 100), Title 1 of the Corporations Code, of this division, or of the articles or bylaws.

SEC. 7. Section 121 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

121. Any requirement in this division for a vote of each class of outstanding shares shall be construed in accordance with Section 117 of the Corporations Code.

SEC. 8. Section 122 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

122. "Approved by (or approval of) the board" has the meaning set forth in Section 151 of the Corporations Code.

SEC. 9. Section 123 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

123. "Approved by (or approval of) the outstanding shares" has the meaning set forth in Section 152 of the Corporations Code and shall include approval by the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of each class or series entitled, by any provision of the articles, of this division, or of Division 1 (commencing with Section 100), Title 1 of the Corporations Code, to vote as a class or series on the subject matter being voted upon, and shall also include approval by the affirmative vote of such greater proportion (including all) of the outstanding shares of any class or series if such greater proportion is required by the articles, by this division, or by Division 1 (commencing with Section 100), Title 1 of the Corporations Code.

SEC. 10. Section 124 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

124. "Approved by (or approval of) the shareholders" has the meaning set forth in Section 153 of the Corporations Code and shall include approval or ratification by the affirmative vote or written consent of such proportion (including all) greater than a majority of the shares of any class or series as may be provided in the articles, in this division, or in Division 1 (commencing with Section 100), Title 1 of the Corporations Code for all or any specified shareholder action.

SEC. 11. Section 125 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

125. "Articles" has the meaning set forth in Section 154 of the Corporations Code.

SEC. 12. Section 126 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

126. "Board" has the meaning set forth in Section 155 of the Corporations Code.

SEC. 13. Section 127 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

127. "Certificate of correction" means a certificate executed and filed with the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 109 of the Corporations Code, subject, however, to the provisions of Section 600.10.

SEC. 14. Section 128 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

128. "Certificate of determination" has the meaning set forth in Section 156 of the Corporations Code, subject, however, to the provisions of Section 600.8.

SEC. 15. Section 129 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

129. "Certificate of revocation" means a certificate executed and filed with the Secretary of State pursuant to the second and third sentences of subdivision (c) of Section 110 of the Corporations Code, subject, however, to the provisions of Section 600.12.

SEC. 16. Section 130 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

130. "Common shares" has the meaning set forth in Section 159 of the Corporations Code.

SEC. 17. Section 131 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

131. "Constituent bank" means a bank which is a constituent corporation.

SEC. 18. Section 132 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

132. "Constituent corporation":

(a) When used with respect to a merger, has the meaning set forth in Section 161 of the Corporations Code.

(b) When used with respect to a consolidation, means a corporation which is consolidated with one or more other corporations.

SEC. 19. Section 133 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

133. "Constituent trust company" means a trust company which is a constituent corporation.

SEC. 20. Section 134 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

134. (a) "Contributed capital" means all of shareholders' equity other than retained earnings. However, nothing in this subdivision shall prohibit a bank from transferring amounts from time to time from its retained earnings to its contributed capital, subject to any applicable statutes, regulations, and generally accepted accounting principles.

(b) For purposes of this division, the contributed capital of a bank shall be deemed to be impaired whenever such bank has deficit retained earnings in an amount exceeding 40 percent of such contributed capital.

SEC. 21. Section 135 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

135. "Directors" has the meaning set forth in Section 164 of the Corporations Code.

SEC. 22. Section 136 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

136. "Disappearing bank" means a bank which is a disappearing corporation.

SEC. 23. Section 137 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

137. "Disappearing corporation" has the meaning set forth in Section 165 of the Corporations Code.

SEC. 24. Section 138 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

138. "Disappearing trust company" means a trust company which is a disappearing corporation.

SEC. 25. Section 139 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

139. "Distribution to its shareholders" has the meaning set forth in Section 166 of the Corporations Code. However, in Division 1 (commencing with Section 100), Title 1 of the Corporations Code and in this division, "distribution to its shareholders" does not include any purchase of shares by a bank or by a majority-owned subsidiary of a bank which is necessary to reduce or avoid loss to such bank or to such subsidiary on an extension of credit previously made in good faith. Also, in this division, "distribution to its shareholders" includes any distribution made by a bank or by a majority-owned subsidiary of a bank to the shareholders of any corporation of which such bank is a majority-owned subsidiary.

SEC. 26. Section 140 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

140. "Majority-owned subsidiary" has the meaning set forth for "subsidiary" in subdivision (a) of Section 189 of the Corporations Code.

SEC. 27. Section 141 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

141. "Resulting bank" means a bank which is a resulting corporation.

SEC. 28. Section 142 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

142. "Resulting corporation":

(a) When used with respect to a consolidation, means the corporation into which the constituent corporations are consolidated.

(b) When used with respect to a conversion, means the corporation into which the converting corporation is converted.

SEC. 29. Section 143 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

143. "Resulting trust company" means a trust company which is a resulting corporation.

SEC. 30. Section 144 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

144. "Series," when used with respect to shares, has the meaning set forth in Section 183 of the Corporations Code.

SEC. 31. Section 145 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

145. "Shares" has the meaning set forth in Section 184 of the Corporations Code.

SEC. 32. Section 146 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

146. "Shareholder" has the meaning set forth in Section 185 of the Corporations Code.

SEC. 33. Section 147 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

147. "Surviving bank" means a bank which is a surviving corporation.

CHAPTER 1.5. TRANSITION PROVISIONS

180. In this chapter, unless the provision or context requires otherwise:

(a) "New General Corporation Law" means Division 1 (commencing with Section 100), Title 1 of the Corporations Code, as in effect on and after January 1, 1977.

(b) "Prior Banking Law" means this division, as in effect on December 31, 1978.

(c) "Prior General Corporation Law" means Division 1 (commencing with Section 100), Title 1 of the Corporations Code, as in effect on December 31, 1976.

(d) "Revised Banking Law" means this division, as in effect on and after January 1, 1979.

(e) "Subject institution" means:

(1) Any corporation incorporated under the laws of this state which is, with the approval of the superintendent, incorporated for the purpose of engaging in, or which is authorized by the superintendent to engage in, the commercial banking business;

(2) Any corporation (other than a corporation described in paragraph (3) of this subdivision) incorporated under the laws of this state which is, with the approval of the superintendent, incorporated for the purpose of engaging in, or which is authorized by the superintendent to engage in, the trust business;

(3) Any corporation incorporated under the laws of this state which is authorized by the Commissioner of Insurance and the superintendent to maintain a title insurance department to engage in title insurance business and a trust department to engage in trust business; or

(4) Any corporation incorporated under the laws of this state which is, with the approval of the superintendent, incorporated for the purpose of engaging in, or which is authorized by the superintendent to engage in, business under Article 1 (commencing with Section 3500), Chapter 19 of this division.

181. For purposes of Chapter 23 (commencing with Section 2300) of the new General Corporation Law, in the case of any subject institution existing on January 1, 1979:

(a) The term "new law" shall mean the new General Corporation Law, subject, however, to the provisions of Section 101 of the revised banking law.

(b) The term "prior law" shall mean the prior General Corporation Law, subject, however, to the provisions of Section 101 of the prior Banking Law.

(c) The term "effective date" shall mean January 1, 1979.

182. (a) Sections 600 and 600.2 of the revised Banking Law shall not apply to any subject institution existing on January 1, 1979, unless and until an amendment of the articles of such subject institution is filed with the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 2302 of the new General Corporation Law.

(b) An amendment of the articles of a subject institution existing on January 1, 1979, which is filed with the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 2302 of the new General Corporation Law may be adopted by approval of the board alone in accordance with the second sentence of Section 2302 of the new General Corporation Law, notwithstanding the fact that such amendment changes such articles to conform to the provisions of Sections 600 and 600.2 of the revised Banking Law.

(c) Neither Article 6 (commencing with Section 690), Chapter 5 of the revised Banking Law nor Section 904 of the new General Corporation Law shall apply to an amendment of the articles of a subject institution existing on January 1, 1979, which is filed with the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 2302 of the new General Corporation Law on account of the fact that such amendment conforms such articles to the provisions of Section 600.2 of the revised Banking Law.

183. Section 662 of the revised Banking Law shall apply to any subject institution existing on January 1, 1979, whether or not such subject institution amends its articles to conform to the provisions of Section 600.2 of the new Banking Law.

184. In case the board of a subject institution has, prior to January 1, 1979, adopted a resolution levying an assessment on the common shares of such subject institution in accordance with an order issued by the superintendent pursuant to Section 661 of the prior Banking Law:

(a) If the assessment has, prior to January 1, 1979, become a lien on the common shares in accordance with Section 2704 of the prior General Corporation Law, the assessment shall be collected pursuant to the prior General Corporation Law:

(b) Otherwise, the resolution shall be deemed to be rescinded on January 1, 1979.

185. Article 3 (commencing with Section 640), Chapter 5 of the revised Banking Law applies to any distribution to its shareholders made after January 1, 1979. by a subject institution existing on January 1, 1979, except that any such distribution effected pursuant to a contract for the purchase or redemption of shares entered into by such subject institution prior to January 1, 1979, may be made if permissible under the applicable provisions of the revised Banking Law and the new General Corporation Law or under the applicable provisions of the prior Banking Law and the prior General Corporation Law in effect at the time such contract was entered into.

186. Chapter 16 (commencing with Section 2050) of the revised Banking Law shall apply to any purchase, sale, merger, or consolidation which is of a type subject to Chapter 16 of the revised Banking Law and which is consummated after January 1, 1979, unless a required approval of the outstanding shares has been given prior to January 1, 1979, or has been given after January 1, 1979, but at a meeting of shareholders initially called for a date prior to January 1, 1979, in which case the prior Banking Law shall apply.

SEC. 38. Section 256 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

256. During the month of October of each year the superintendent shall, through the Secretary of the Business and Transportation Agency, report to the Governor. The report shall contain the following:

(a) An aggregate abstract of condition for the preceding fiscal year showing assets and liabilities and shareholders' equity of all banks and trust companies required to report to him.

(b) A statement of all banks and trust companies authorized by him to do business during the preceding fiscal year ended June 30th, giving their names and locations, and the date on which they commenced to transact a banking or trust business.

(c) A statement of the banks and trust companies whose business has been closed during the year.

(d) The names of banks and trust companies in process of liquidation under his supervision and the amount of dividends paid thereon.

(e) The names and compensation of all persons employed by the department, as of the preceding June 30th, the receipts and expenses of the department during the fiscal year, and the balance in the State Banking Fund at the end of the fiscal year.

(f) Any amendments to the laws affecting banks or trust companies or the department which in his judgment may be desirable.

(g) Such other information as in his judgment may prove useful.

SEC. 39. Section 258 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

258. The superintendent shall keep in his office in a place accessible to the general public a bulletin board upon which he shall cause to be posted at noon on Friday of each week a detailed statement signed by him, or, in case of his absence from San Francisco or inability to act, by the deputy superintendent in charge, giving general information with regard to the work of the department since the preceding statement. The detailed statement shall include the following:

(a) The name and location of every proposed bank whose application for authorization to establish a bank has been filed in the department and the date the application was filed.

(b) The name and location of every bank authorized by the superintendent to commence business, its contributed capital, and the date of authorization.

(c) The name and location of every bank to which a certificate of authorization has been refused by the superintendent and the date of notice of refusal.

(d) The name and location of every bank which has applied for approval of a change of name and the name proposed.

(e) The name and location of the principal office of every bank which has applied for permission to open a branch office or to change the location of a branch office and the location of the new branch office or of the relocated branch office.

(f) The date on which a call for a report by banks was issued by the superintendent and the day designated as the day with reference to which the report shall be made.

(g) The name and location of every bank whose creditors or depositors have been paid in full by the superintendent and a meeting of whose stockholders has been called, together with date of notice of meeting and date of meeting.

(h) The name and location of every bank supervised by the department whose affairs and business are in course of liquidation or which has been finally liquidated.

(i) The name and residence of every person appointed by the superintendent as an officer or employee of the department, the title of the office or position to which appointed, the rate of compensation and the date of appointment.

Every such bulletin after having been posted for one week shall be placed on a file for such bulletins in the office of the superintendent. All such bulletins shall be public documents and shall be open to public inspection at all reasonable times during the usual hours when the superintendent's office is open.

SEC. 40. Section 350 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

350. When authorized by the superintendent as provided in this chapter a corporation may be formed by one or more persons in accordance with the laws of this state for the purpose of conducting a commercial banking business or a trust business, or both of them. The Corporate Securities Law shall not apply to securities issued by and representing an interest in or a direct obligation of a bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of this state.

SEC. 41. Section 351 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

351. No bank shall be a close corporation (as defined in Section 158 of the Corporations Code).

SEC. 43. Section 399 is added to the Financial Code immediately following the heading of Article 4 (commencing with Section 400) of Chapter 3 of Division 1, to read:

399. In this article:

(a) "Preopening expenditure" means any obligation incurred, or sum disbursed, by a bank prior to the time when it commences to transact banking business, for the purpose of organizing such bank.

(b) "Preopening noncapital expenditure" means any preopening expenditure other than such preopening expenditures as may be capitalized.

SEC. 44. Section 400 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

400. The articles of incorporation of the proposed bank or trust company shall be submitted to the superintendent for his approval before they are filed with the Secretary of State pursuant to the Corporations Code. After the articles have been filed with the Secretary of State the proposed bank or trust company shall:

(a) File with the superintendent a copy of its articles of incorporation, certified by the Secretary of State, and a copy of its bylaws certified by its secretary.

(b) File with the superintendent a statement in such form and with such supporting data as he may require showing that the entire contributed capital has been fully paid in lawful money, unconditionally, and that the funds representing such contributed capital, less sums spent as authorized by this article for preopening expenditures are on deposit in a state or national bank in this state, subject to withdrawal on demand.

(c) Pay to the superintendent a fee of two thousand dollars ($2,000).

SEC. 45. Section 403 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

403. No corporation organized to transact a commercial banking or trust business shall transact any business until the superintendent has issued his certificate authorizing it to transact such business. No bank or trust company shall incur any indebtedness except that which is incidental to its organization until the amount of its contributed capital has been fully paid in lawful money to the cashier or chief financial officer thereof.

SEC. 46. Section 406 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

406. It is unlawful to apply any part of the funds collected from subscribers or shareholders to the payment of commissions or fees for obtaining subscriptions or selling shares or, except with the prior approval of the superintendent, to the payment of preopening noncapital expenditures.

SEC. 47. Section 500 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

500. When authorized by the superintendent as provided in this chapter, a bank or trust company, with the approval of its board, may establish and maintain one or more branch offices within the state.

SEC. 48. Section 502 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 49. Section 503 of the Financial is amended to read:

503. The superintendent may give or withhold his approval of an application in his discretion but he shall not approve an application until he has examined into the matters referred to in subdivisions (b), (c), and (f) of Section 361 and until he has ascertained to his satisfaction that the following are true:

(a) That the public convenience and advantage will be promoted by the establishment of the proposed branch office.

(b) That the bank or trust company has adequate shareholders' equity.

SEC. 50. Section 530 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

530. A bank having adequate shareholders' equity may establish branches in foreign countries or in dependencies or insular possessions of the United States for the furtherance of the foreign commerce of the United States upon obtaining the approval of the superintendent and upon such conditions and under such regulations as he may prescribe.

SEC. 51. Section 535 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

535. The total investment of a bank in all foreign branches shall not exceed 10 percent of its shareholders' equity.

SEC. 52. The heading of Article 1 (commencing with Section 600) of Chapter 5 of Division 1 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

Article 1. Articles, Bylaws, and Name

SEC. 53. Section 600 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 54. Section 600 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

600. The articles of each bank shall contain the applicable one of the following statements:

(a) In case the bank is, or is proposed to be, a commercial bank not authorized to engage in trust business, that the purpose of the corporation is to engage in commercial banking business and any other lawful activities which are not, by applicable laws or regulations, prohibited to a commercial bank;

(b) In case the bank is, or is proposed to be, a commercial bank authorized to engage in trust business, that the purpose of the corporation is to engage in commercial banking business and trust business and any other lawful activities which are not, by applicable laws or regulations, prohibited to a commerical bank authorized to engage in trust business;

(c) In case the bank is, or is proposed to be, a trust company (other than a commercial bank authorized to engage in trust business or a corporation authorized to maintain a title insurance department to engage in title insurance business and a trust department to engage in trust business), that the purpose of the corporation is to engage in trust business and any other lawful activities which are not, by applicable laws or regulations, prohibited to a trust company; or

(d) In case the bank is a corporation which is, or is proposed to be, a corporation authorized to maintain a title insurance department to engage in title insurance business and a trust department to engage in trust business, that the purpose of the corporation is to engage in title insurance business and trust business and any other lawful activities which are not, by applicable laws or regulations, prohibited to a corporation authorized to maintain a title insurance department to engage in title insurance business and a trust department to engage in trust business.

SEC. 55. Section 600.2 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

600.2. (a) The articles of each bank (other than a bank which is, or is proposed to be, a corporation authorized to maintain a title insurance department to engage in title insurance business and a trust department to engage in trust business) shall provide that the common shares of such bank are subject to assessment by the bank upon order of the superintendent for the purpose of correcting an impairment of contributed capital in the manner and to the extent provided in this division.

(b) The articles of each bank that is a corporation which is, or is proposed to be, authorized to maintain a title insurance department to engage in title insurance business and a trust department to engage in trust business, shall provide that the common shares of such corporation are subject to assessment by the corporation upon order of the superintendent for the purpose of correcting an impairment of the contributed capital apportioned or segregated to the trust department of the corporation in the manner and to the extent provided in this division.

SEC. 56. Section 600.4 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

600.4. (a) No amendment of the articles of a bank (other than an amendment set forth in an agreement of merger or in a certificate of ownership executed pursuant to Section 1110 of the Corporations

Code which requires the approval of the superintendent pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 2070) or Article 3 (commencing with Section 2090) of Chapter 16 shall become effective unless the certificate of amendment or other instrument setting forth such amendment is filed with the Secretary of State with the superintendent's approval endorsed thereon. Promptly after the amendment becomes effective, such bank shall file with the superintendent a copy of such certificate of amendment or other instrument certified by the Secretary of State.

(b) Any amendment of the articles of a bank set forth in an agreement of merger or in a certificate of ownership executed pursuant to Section 1110 of the Corporations Code which requires the approval of the superintendent pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 2070) or Article 3 (commencing with Section 2090) of Chapter 16, shall become effective at the time when such merger becomes effective pursuant to this division.

SEC. 57. Section 600.6 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

600.6. No restated articles of a bank shall become effective unless the certificate setting forth such restated articles is filed with the Secretary of State with the superintendent's approval endorsed thereon. Promptly after the restated articles become effective, such bank shall file with the superintendent a copy of such certificate certified by the Secretary of State.

SEC. 58. Section 600.8 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

600.8. No certificate of determination of a bank shall become effective unless such certificate of determination is filed with the Secretary of State with the superintendent's approval endorsed thereon. Promptly after the certificate of determination becomes effective, such bank shall file with the superintendent a copy of the certificate of determination certified by the Secretary of State.

SEC. 59. Section 600.10 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

600.10. No certificate of correction of a bank shall become effective unless such certificate of correction is filed with the Secretary of State with the superintendent's approval endorsed thereon. Promptly after the certificate of correction becomes effective, such bank shall file with the superintendent a copy of the certificate of correction certified by the Secretary of State.

SEC. 60. Section 600.12 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

600.12. No certificate of revocation of a bank shall become effective unless such certificate of revocation is filed with the Secretary of State with the superintendent's approval endorsed thereon. Promptly after the certificate of revocation becomes effective, such bank shall file with the superintendent a copy of the certificate of revocation certified by the Secretary of State.

SEC. 61. Section 620 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 62. Section 620 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

620. A bank may, with the approval of its board, determine and from time to time redetermine the par value of any class or series of its shares unless its articles provide that such shares shall have par value and specify the par value of such shares.

SEC. 63. Section 622 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

622. No bank shall issue any shares in consideration of:

(a) Services rendered in the organization of such bank; or

(b) Any note (whether or not negotiable and whether or not secured) made by the purchaser of such shares.

SEC. 64. Article 3 (commencing with Section 640) of Chapter 5 of Division 1 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 65. Article 3 (commencing with Section 640) is added to Chapter 5 of Division 1 of the Financial Code, to read:

Article 3. Distributions to Shareholders

640. This article does not apply to any distribution made to the shareholders of a bank in any proceeding to wind up and dissolve or to liquidate such bank.

641. Section 500 of the Corporations Code does not apply to the making by a bank or by any majority-owned subsidiary of a bank of any distribution to the shareholders of such bank.

642. Neither a bank nor any majority-owned subsidiary of a bank shall make any distribution to the shareholders of such bank in an amount which exceeds the lesser of:

(a) The retained earnings of the bank; or

(b) The net income of the bank for its last three fiscal years, less the amount of any distributions made by the bank or by any majority-owned subsidiary of the bank to the shareholders of the bank during such period.

643. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 642, a bank or a majority-owned subsidiary of a bank may, with the prior approval of the superintendent, make a distribution to the shareholders of such bank in an amount not exceeding the net income of the bank for its last fiscal year.

644. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 642, a bank may:

(a) With the prior approval of the superintendent, make a distribution to its shareholders by means of redeeming its redeemable shares; and

(b) With the prior approval of its outstanding shares and of the superintendent, otherwise make a distribution to its shareholders in connection with a reduction of its contributed capital.

645. If the superintendent finds that the shareholders' equity of a bank is not adequate or that the making by a bank or by any majority-owned subsidiary of a bank of a distribution to the shareholders of such bank would be unsafe or unsound for the bank, the superintendent may order such bank and its majority-owned subsidiaries not to make any distribution to the shareholders of the bank.

646. (a) For purposes of Section 506 of the Corporations Code, the making by a bank or by any majority-owned subsidiary of a bank of a distribution to any shareholder of such bank in violation of any provision of this article shall be deemed to be prohibited by, and to be a violation of, Section 500 of the Corporations Code.

(b) The superintendent may, in the name of the people of this state, bring or intervene in an action under Section 506 of the Corporations Code for the benefit of a bank against any shareholder of such bank on account of receiving, with knowledge of facts indicating the impropriety thereof, any distribution prohibited by any provision of this article or by any provision of Sections 501, 502, and 503 of the Corporations Code, to the same extent as a creditor of the bank who did not consent to the illegal distribution to such shareholder and who had a valid claim against the bank which arose prior to the time of the illegal distribution to the shareholder and which exceeded the amount of the illegal distribution to the shareholder, might bring such an action in the name of the bank.

SEC. 66. The heading of Article 4 (commencing with Section 660) of Chapter 5 of Division 1 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

Article 4. Shareholders' Equity

SEC. 67. Section 660 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 68. Section 660 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

660. In determining for purposes of this division whether the shareholders' equity of a bank or of a proposed bank is adequate, the superintendent shall consider:

(a) The nature and volume of the business of the bank;

(b) The amount, nature, quality, and liquidity of the assets of the bank;

(c) The amount and nature of the liabilities (including, but not limited to, any capital notes or debentures and any contingent liabilities) of the bank;

(d) The amount and nature of the fixed charges of the bank;

(e) The history of, and prospects for, the bank to earn and retain income;

(f) The quality of the operations of the bank;

(g) The quality of the management of the bank;

(h) The nature and quality of the ownership of the bank; and

(i) Such other factors as are in the opinion of the superintendent relevant.

SEC. 69. Section 661 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

661. For purposes of any statute, regulation, or requirement of any governmental official or agency which refers to the capital (including, without limitation, stated capital, paid-in capital, and paid-up capital, but excluding contributed capital), surplus, or undivided profits of a bank, a bank, with the approval of its board, may establish and maintain capital, surplus, and undivided profits accounts and may from time to time allocate and reallocate its shareholders' equity among such accounts; provided, however:

(a) That no part of the contributed capital of the bank shall be allocated to the undivided profits account of the bank;

(b) That the undivided profits account of the bank shall at no time exceed the retained earnings of the bank; and

(c) That, in case the articles of the bank provide that any of the bank's shares shall have par value and specify the par value of such shares or in case the bank has determined the par value of any of its shares pursuant to Section 620, the capital account of the bank shall be not less than the aggregate par value of such shares which are outstanding.

SEC. 70. Section 661 of the Financial Code, as amended by Chapter 394 of the Statutes of 1978, is amended and renumbered to read:

662. Whenever it appears that the contributed capital of a bank or trust company is impaired, the superintendent shall order the bank to correct such impairment within 60 days of the date of his order. The bank or trust company to which the order is issued, unless the impairment of contributed capital is otherwise corrected, shall levy and collect an assessment upon its common shares pursuant to Section 423 of the Corporations Code. The common shares of every corporation doing a banking business in this state are subject to such assessment, whether or not the fact that the shares are subject to such assessment is noted on the certificates representing such shares, and if the shares are subject to assessment only upon order of the superintendent as provided in this section no statement of that fact need be noted on the certificates.

SEC. 71. Section 663 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

663. A bank which has deficit retained earnings may, with the prior approval of its outstanding shares and of the superintendent, readjust its accounts in a quasi-reorganization. Such readjustment may include, without limitation, eliminating such deficit retained earnings.

SEC. 71.1. The heading of Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 670) is added to Chapter 5 of Division 1 of the Financial Code immediately following Section 663, to read:

Article 4.5. Capital Notes and Debentures

SEC. 71.2. Section 662 of the Financial Code is amended and renumbered to read:

670. A bank at any time may, with the approval of its board, issue, sell or hypothecate its capital notes or debentures which may be payable upon such terms and may bear such rate of interest, if any, as may be provided therein or which may be convertible into shares. Such capital notes and debentures shall be subordinate to the claims of creditors and depositors and it shall be provided in any such capital notes or debentures that in the event of liquidation all depositors and other creditors of the bank shall be entitled to be paid in full with such interest as may be provided by law before any payment shall be made on account of principal of or interest on such capital notes or debentures and it may be provided in any such capital notes or debentures that after payment in full of all sums owing to such depositors and creditors the holders of such capital notes or debentures shall be entitled to be paid from the remaining assets of the bank the unpaid principal amount of the capital notes or debentures plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon before any payment or other distribution, whether in cash, property or otherwise, shall be made on account of any shares of the bank. It shall be provided in such capital notes or debentures that no payment shall at any time be made on account of the principal thereof, unless following such payment the aggregate of the shareholders' equity and capital notes or debentures thereafter outstanding shall be the equal of such aggregate at the date of the original issue of such capital notes or debentures, or as may be otherwise authorized by the superintendent.

SEC. 72. Section 679 is added to the Financial Code immediately following the heading of Article 5 (commencing with Section 680) of Chapter 5 of Division 1, to read:

679. Any reference in this article to the time a notice is given or sent shall be construed in accordance with Section 118 of the Corporations Code.

SEC. 73. Section 680 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

680. The board of a bank or trust company hereafter organized shall consist of not less than five nor more than 25 directors, and no bank or trust company shall amend its articles or bylaws so as to reduce the number of directors below five.

SEC. 74. Section 681 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 75. Section 682 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

682. Each director of a bank or trust company, upon taking office, shall make an oath or affirmation that he will administer the affairs of the bank or trust company diligently and honestly, so far as the duty devolves upon him; and that he will not knowingly violate or willfully permit to be violated any of the provisions of law applicable to the bank or trust company. Such oath shall be subscribed by the director, certified by the officer before whom it is taken, and be immediately filed with the superintendent.

SEC. 76. Section 683 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

683. The board of each bank and of each trust company shall hold a meeting at least once each calendar month. Regular meetings of the board shall be held within this state. Any regular or special meeting is valid wherever held if held upon written consent of all members of the board given either before or after the meeting and filed with the secretary of the corporation. Special meetings of the board may be held upon four days' notice by mail, unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, or 24 hours' notice delivered personally or by telephone or by telegraph, unless the articles or bylaws provide for a shorter period.

SEC. 77. Section 684 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

684. (a) The superintendent, whenever in his opinion such action is necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes and provisions of this division, may call a meeting of the board of a bank.

(b) A meeting of the board of a bank called by the superintendent shall be held upon four days' notice by mail or 24 hours' notice delivered personally or by telephone or telegraph. Such notice shall be given by the superintendent or, if the superintendent so orders, by an officer of such bank.

(c) A meeting of the board of a bank called by the superintendent shall be held at such place within this state as may be designated by the superintendent and specified in the notice of such meeting.

(d) The expenses of a meeting of the board of a bank called by the superintendent shall be paid by such bank.

SEC. 78. Section 685 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

685. The superintendent may, in the name of the people of this state, bring or intervene in an action under Section 709 of the Corporations Code to determine the validity of any election or appointment of any director of a bank to the same extent as a shareholder of such bank might bring such an action.

SEC. 79. Section 686 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

686. (a) The superintendent shall be deemed to be a party in interest within the meaning of Section 306 of the Corporations Code with respect to a bank and may, in the name of the people of this state, bring or intervene in an action under Section 306 of the Corporations Code for the appointment of directors of a bank.

(b) The superintendent may, in the name of the people of this state, bring or intervene in an action under Section 308 of the Corporations Code for the appointment of a provisional director or directors of a bank to the same extent as a shareholder who held 50 percent of the voting power of such bank might bring such an action.

SEC. 80. Section 687 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

687. (a) For purposes of Section 316 of the Corporations Code, to the extent that the making by a bank or by any majority-owned subsidiary of a bank of a distribution to any shareholder of such bank is contrary to any provision of Article 3 (commencing with Section 640), the making of such distribution shall, to such extent, be deemed to be contrary to the provisions of Section 500 of the Corporations Code.

(b) The superintendent may, in the name of the people of this state, bring or intervene in an action under Section 316 of the Corporations Code for the benefit of a bank against any or all of the directors of such bank or of any majority-owned subsidiary of such bank on account of the making of a distribution to any shareholder of the bank contrary to any provision of Article 3 (commencing with Section 640) or any provision of Sections 501, 502, and 503 of the Corporations Code, to the same extent as a creditor of the bank who did not consent to the illegal distribution and who had a valid claim against the bank which arose prior to the time of the illegal distribution, and which exceeded the amount of the illegal distribution, might bring such an action in the name of the bank.

SEC. 81. Section 688 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

688. (a) For purposes of Section 316 of the Corporations Code, the making of a loan or guarantee by a bank or any other extending of credit by a bank contrary to any provision of this division shall be deemed to be contrary to Section 315 of the Corporations Code.

(b) The superintendent may, in the name of the people of this state, bring or intervene in an action under Section 316 of the Corporations Code for the benefit of a bank against any or all of the directors of such bank on account of the making of a loan or guarantee or any other extending of credit contrary to any provision of this division, to the same extent as a creditor of the bank who did not consent to the illegal making of the loan or guarantee or the other illegal extending of credit and who had a valid claim against the bank which arose prior to the time of the illegal making of the loan or guarantee or the other illegal extending of credit and which exceeded the amount of loss suffered by the bank as a result of the illegal making of the loan or guarantee or the other illegal extending of credit, might bring such an action in the name of the bank.

SEC. 82. Article 5.5 (commencing with Section 689) is added to Chapter 5 of Division 1 of the Financial Code, to read:

Article 5.5. Shareholders

689. (a) Paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 1501 of the Corporations Code does not apply to the annual report of any bank with respect to any transaction consisting of an extension of credit by such bank or by any of its majority-owned subsidiaries.

(b) The annual report of a bank which would, but for the provisions of subdivision (a), be subject to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 1501 of the Corporations Code, shall disclose such information regarding debts owing to such bank or to any of its majority-owned subsidiaries and transactions consisting of extensions of credit by the bank or by any of its majority-owned subsidiaries, as the superintendent may by regulation require. In issuing any such regulation, the superintendent shall give due consideration to regulations regarding such matters issued by federal bank regulatory agencies under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

SEC. 83. Section 696.5 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

696.5. Whenever a bank applies for a permit to issue any security or to deliver any other consideration (whether or not such security or such transaction is exempt from, or not subject to, the provisions of Section 691) in exchange for one or more bona fide outstanding securities (as defined in Section 25019 of the Corporations Code), claims, or property interests, or partly in such exchange and partly for cash, the superintendent is authorized to approve the terms and conditions of such issuance and exchange or such delivery and exchange and the fairness of such terms and conditions and is authorized to hold a hearing on the fairness of such terms and conditions, at which all persons to whom it is proposed to issue any security or to deliver any other consideration in such exchange shall have the right to appear.

SEC. 84. Section 751 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

751. Any real property not held for any purpose permitted by subdivision (a) of Section 750 shall be sold whenever the same can be sold for an amount sufficient to reimburse the bank or trust company for all loss arising out of the loan for which such real property was security or arising out of the original investment. A bank or trust company shall not by the retention of any real property acquired pursuant to this section engage in any business not authorized by this division except to the extent necessary in the orderly liquidation of an indebtedness owing to the bank.

SEC. 85. Section 753 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 86. Section 754 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

754. A bank or trust company may become a member of the Federal Reserve System, may subscribe for, purchase, and hold such amounts of the capital stock of the Federal Reserve bank serving the district in which such bank or trust company is located as may be required to maintain such membership and, when not in conflict with the laws of this state, may exercise all powers conferred upon such members and may assume and discharge all obligations required of such members.

With the written consent of the superintendent a bank or trust company may become a member of a federal home loan bank in the manner provided in the Federal Home Loan Bank Act, and, for the purpose of becoming a member, may invest such part of its shareholders' equity in the capital stock of such federal home loan bank as may be required by the provisions of the Federal Home Loan Bank Act.

SEC. 87. Section 758 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

758. With the prior written consent of the superintendent, a bank or trust company may purchase and hold not less than 75 percent of the outstanding shares of the stock of a corporation authorized to conduct a safe deposit business, organized and existing under the laws of this state and conducting a safe deposit business in the same city or locality in which an office of such bank or trust company is situated. No such safe deposit corporation shall conduct a safe deposit business in any city or locality in which such bank or trust company does not maintain an office. The aggregate investment of any bank or trust company in such corporation at any one time shall not exceed 10 percent of the shareholders' equity of such bank or trust company.

SEC. 88. Section 759 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

759. With the prior written consent of the superintendent, a bank may purchase and hold the whole or any part of the stock of not more than one corporation authorized to conduct a trust business, organized and existing under the laws of this state and transacting a trust business in the same county in which the head office of such bank is situated. No bank's investment in any such corporation at any one time shall exceed 25 percent of the bank's shareholders' equity.

No such trust company shall engage in or combine the business of a commercial bank or a title insurance company.

SEC. 89. Section 760 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 90. Section 760.1 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

760.1. A bank may invest in shares of the stock of one or more corporations which are engaged primarily in civic, public, or social welfare activities. The total amount invested by a bank in shares of the stock of any one such corporation shall not exceed 2 percent of the bank's shareholders' equity and the total amount invested by a bank in shares of the stock of all such corporations shall not exceed 5 percent of the bank's shareholders' equity.

SEC. 91. Section 762 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

762. A bank or trust company may acquire stock in settlement or reduction of a loan or in exchange for an investment previously made in good faith where the acquisition of such stock is necessary in order to minimize or avoid loss arising out of such loan or investment. Whenever any such stock can be sold for an amount sufficient to reimburse the bank or trust company for all loss arising out of the loan for which such stock was security or arising out of the original investment the bank or trust company shall sell the same. A bank or trust company shall not by the retention of any stock acquired pursuant to this section engage in any business not authorized by this division except to the extent necessary in the orderly liquidation of an indebtedness owing to the bank.

SEC. 92. Section 769 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

769. A bank may purchase and hold the stock of small business investment companies authorized to operate under the Small Business Investment Act, as amended, in an amount not aggregating more than 10 percent of the bank's shareholders' equity.

SEC. 93. Section 771 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

771. With the prior written consent of the superintendent, two or more banks may invest in the stock of a corporation engaged exclusively in the business of performing for one or more banks such bank services as check and deposit sorting and posting, computation and posting of interest and other credits and charges, preparation and mailing of checks, statements, notices and similar items, or any other clerical, bookkeeping, accounting, statistical, or similar functions performed for a bank; provided that the aggregate investment of any bank in such corporation at any one time shall not exceed 10 percent of the shareholders' equity of the bank; and provided, further, that the corporation shall furnish to the superintendent satisfactory assurances that the performance of services by such corporation will be subject to regulation and examination by the superintendent to the same extent as if such services were being performed by the bank itself on its own premises.

SEC. 94. Section 856 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

856. A bank shall not have on deposit at any one time moneys of the State of California, of the cities, counties, and other political subdivisions of the state, and of the public corporations and districts of the state, which, in the aggregate, exceed in amount 400 percent of its entire shareholders' equity. The amount of such moneys on deposit secured by surety bonds shall not at any time, in the aggregate, exceed the amount of the bank's entire contributed capital.

SEC. 95. Section 859 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 96. Section 1202 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1202. A commercial bank may borrow money for temporary purposes by discounting or otherwise to an amount not in excess of its shareholders' equity, but shall not borrow money except as provided in Sections 1204 and 1205 in excess of such amount without the prior written approval of the superintendent.

The amounts of moneys so borrowed by a commercial bank together with the amount of any of its deposits secured by surety bonds shall not at any one time exceed the amount of its shareholders' equity without the prior written approval of the superintendent.

SEC. 97. Section 1221 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1221. The obligations, as defined in Section 1220, excepting the obligations described in Section 1226 and the obligations described in Section 1224, of any one person owing to a commercial bank at any one time shall not exceed the following limitations:

(a) Obligations which are unsecured shall not exceed 10 percent of the sum of the shareholders' equity, capital notes, and debentures of the bank.

(b) Obligations, secured and unsecured, in all shall not exceed 20 percent of the sum of the shareholders' equity, capital notes, and debentures of the bank.

Obligations arising out of the discount of commercial or business paper actually owned by the person negotiating the same and endorsed by such person without limitation, together with the secured and unsecured obligations, if any, of such person, shall not exceed 40 percent of the sum of the shareholders' equity, capital notes, and debentures of the bank.

No commercial bank shall be required, solely by reason of the amendments of this article, to dispose of or reduce any loan which complied with the applicable limitations of this division at the time such loan was made, nor shall any such bank be prevented solely by reason of the provisions of this article from renewing any such loan from time to time.

SEC. 98. Section 1224 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1224. In addition to the limitations contained in Section 1221 a commercial bank may issue letters of credit and a commercial bank may accept drafts or bills of exchange drawn upon it having not more than six months' sight to run, exclusive of days of grace, which grow out of transactions involving the importation or exportation of goods, or which grow out of transactions involving the domestic shipment of goods; provided, shipping documents conveying or securing title are attached at the time of acceptance, or which are secured at the time of acceptance by a warehouse receipt or other such document conveying or securing title covering readily marketable staples. A commercial bank shall not accept such drafts or bills in the aggregate to an amount exceeding 50 percent of the sum of its shareholders' equity, capital notes, and debentures or, when authorized by the superintendent, to an amount exceeding 100 percent of the sum of its shareholders' equity, capital notes, and debentures nor accept such drafts or bills for any one person to an amount exceeding 10 percent of the sum of its shareholders' equity, capital notes, and debentures, unless the bank is and remains secured by either attached documents or some other actual security growing out of the same transaction as the acceptance.

SEC. 99. Section 1225 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1225. With the approval of the superintendent a commercial bank may accept drafts or bills of exchange drawn upon it having not more than three months' sight to run, exclusive of days of grace, drawn by banks or bankers in foreign countries for the purpose of furnishing dollar exchange as required by the usages of trade in the respective countries; provided, no commercial bank shall accept such drafts or bills of exchange for any one bank to any amount exceeding 10 percent of the sum of the shareholders' equity, capital notes, and debentures of the accepting bank unless the draft or bill of exchange is accompanied by documents conveying or securing title or unless the bank is secured by some other adequate security. A commercial bank shall not accept such drafts or bills, whether secured or unsecured, in the aggregate to an amount exceeding 50 percent of the sum of its shareholders' equity, capital notes, and debentures.

SEC. 100. Section 1231 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1231. No loan shall be made by any commercial bank upon the securities of one or more corporations, the payment of which loan is undertaken, in whole or in part, severally, but not jointly, by two or more persons:

(a) If the borrowers or underwriters are obligated absolutely or contingently to purchase the securities, or any of them, collateral to such loan, unless the borrowers or underwriters have paid on account of the purchase of such securities an amount in cash, or its equivalent, equal to at least 25 percent of the several amounts for which they remain obligated in completing the purchase of such securities.

(b) If the commercial bank making such loan is liable, directly or indirectly, or contingently, for the repayment of such loan or any part thereof.

(c) If its term, including any renewal thereof by agreement, express or implied, exceeds the period of one year.

(d) Or to an amount under any circumstances in excess of 25 percent of the sum of the commercial banks' shareholders' equity, capital notes, and debentures.

SEC. 101. Section 1257 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1257. A bank or trust company, by a majority vote of all its directors, may nominate another bank or other banks located within the United States as its reserve depositary or depositaries. The superindendent, in his discretion, may approve or disapprove such nomination. If he approves the same he shall designate the bank so nominated as a reserve depositary of the nominating bank.

SEC. 102. Section 1336 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1336. A commercial bank shall not invest an amount exceeding 10 percent of its shareholders' equity in the securities of any one obligor or maker, except:

(a) Obligations of the United States and those for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest;

(b) Bonds, consolidated bonds, collateral trust debentures, or other obligations issued by the Federal Financing Bank, the United States Postal Service, federal land banks or federal intermediate credit banks established under the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended; in debentures and consolidated debentures issued by the Central Bank for Cooperatives and banks for cooperatives established under the Farm Credit Act of 1933, as amended; in consolidated notes, bonds, debentures and other obligations issued by federal land banks, federal intermediate credit banks, and banks for cooperatives under the Farm Credit Act of 1971; in bonds or debentures of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board established under the Federal Home Loan Bank Act; in the bonds of any federal home loan bank established under said act; and in stock, bonds, debentures, participations, and other obligations of or issued by the Student Loan Marketing Association, the Federal National Mortgage Association and the Government National Mortgage Association;

(c) Obligations of the State of California and those for which the credit of the State of California is pledged for the payment of principal and interest; and

(d) Obligations of a local agency or district of the State of California having the power, without limit as to rate or amount, to levy taxes to pay the principal and interest of such bonds upon all property within its boundaries subject to taxation by such local agency or district.

SEC. 103. Section 1370 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 104. Section 1500 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1500. No corporation shall engage in the trust business unless:

(a) Its articles comply with the requirements of subdivision (b), (c), or (d) of Section 600; and

(b) It has received from the superintendent a certificate of authority pursuant to Section 401 to engage in the trust business, or, if it is a bank, has received the authorization of the superintendent to engage in the trust business pursuant to Section 1500.1; and

(c) It has deposited with the State Treasurer money or securities in compliance with Article 3 (commencing with Section 1540) of this chapter.

SEC. 105. Section 1500.1 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1500.1. Any commercial bank, with the prior authorization of the superintendent, may engage in the trust business, if its articles comply with the requirements of subdivision (b) of Section 600. Any bank so authorized shall, in the conduct of its trust business, comply with and be governed by all of the provisions of this chapter, except the provisions of Section 1560. An application for such authorization shall be in such form and contain such information as the superintendent may require, and be accompanied by a fee of five hundred dollars ($500).

SEC. 106. Section 1501 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1501. A corporation authorized to transact a title insurance business under the Insurance Code may engage in the trust business and maintain a trust department as well as a title insurance department if it complies with the following requirements:

(a) It shall first obtain the consent of both the superintendent and the Commissioner of Insurance. The application for such consent of the superintendent shall be in such form and contain such information as the superintendent may require and be accompanied by a fee of five hundred dollars ($500).

(b) In its application for such consent it shall include a statement making a segregation of its shareholders' equity for each department. When such apportionment is approved by the superintendent and the Commissioner of Insurance the part of such shareholders' equity apportioned to each department shall be segregated and shall be treated as the separate shareholders' equity of each such department as if each such department was a separate business.

(c) (1) It shall amend its articles to comply with the requirements of subdivision (d) of Section 600. (2) It shall amend its articles to comply with the requirements of subdivision (b) of Section 600.2. Section 904 of the Corporations Code shall not apply to such amendment; however, the amendment must be approved by not less than two-thirds of each class of its outstanding shares which would become assessable under the amendment.

(d) It shall make the deposits of money or securities with the State Treasurer pursuant to Article 3 of this chapter.

(e) As to its trust department it shall be subject to and shall comply with all the requirements of this division applicable to trust companies and the rules and regulations of the superintendent.

SEC. 107. Section 1503 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1503. No foreign corporation, other than a national banking association which is authorized to conduct a trust business in this state, shall have or exercise the powers of a trust company nor directly or indirectly transact or conduct in this state a trust business as defined in Section 106; but any foreign corporation which is authorized by its articles to exercise trust powers may act as trustee for the following purposes:

(a) To deliver bonds and receive payments therefor.

(b) To deliver permanent bonds in exchange for temporary bonds of the same issue.

(c) To deliver refunding bonds in exchange for those of a prior issue or issues.

(d) To register bonds or to exchange registered bonds for coupon bonds of coupon bonds for registered bonds.

(e) To pay interest on such bonds, and take up and cancel coupons representing such interest payment.

(f) To redeem and cancel bonds when called for redemption or to pay and cancel bonds when due.

(g) To certify registered bonds for the purpose of exchanging registered bonds for coupon bonds.

A foreign corporation which is authorized by its articles to exercise trust powers may be appointed and may accept appointment and act as trustee under any mortgage, deed of trust, or other instrument securing bonds or other obligations issued or to be issued by any railroad corporation which owns a railroad operating in the State of California and extending into another state.

A foreign corporation exercising in this state the powers conferred by this section shall not establish or maintain directly or indirectly any branch office or agency in this state unless it has complied with all of the applicable provisions of Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 1750).

SEC. 108. Article 2 (commencing with Section 1520) of Chapter 12 of Division 1 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 109. Section 1560 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1560. A trust company may invest its contributed capital only in the securities and properties in which a commercial bank is permitted to invest its funds pursuant to Sections 1352 to 1366, inclusive, of Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 1200) and in loans on real property which commercial banks are permitted to make pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 1220) of Chapter 10.

SEC. 110. Section 1561 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1561. Trust funds received by any trust company in connection with its trust business, if invested, shall be invested as provided in the Civil Code, subject to such provisions as may be contained in any trust instrument.

SEC. 110.1. Section 1564 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1564. For purposes of this section, two or more trust companies shall be deemed to be affiliated if they are members of the same affiliated group, within the meaning of Section 1504 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Any trust company may establish and administer common trust funds composed of property permitted by law for the investment of trust funds, for the purpose of furnishing investments to any one or more of the following: (1) itself, as fiduciary; (2) itself and others, as cofiduciaries; (3) any affiliated trust company (including, without limitation, any foreign affiliated trust company), as fiduciary; and (4) any affiliated trust company (including, without limitation, any foreign affiliated trust company) and others, as cofiduciaries. Any trust company may as such fiduciary or cofiduciary invest funds which it lawfully holds for investment in interests in such common trust funds administered by itself or by any affiliated trust company organized under laws of this state, if such investment is not prohibited by the instrument, judgment, decree, order, or statute creating or governing such fiduciary relationship, and if, in the case of cofiduciaries, the trust company procures the consent of its cofiduciaries to such investment.

Each common trust fund established hereunder shall be treated as an entity separate and distinct from the fiduciary relationships participating therein. No fiduciary in administering a participating fiduciary relationship shall be required to make any apportionment or allocation between the principal and income of such relationship different from that made for such common trust fund. No such participating fiduciary relationship, nor any person having an interest in such relationship, shall have or be deemed to have any ownership in any particular property of such common trust fund, but each such participating fiduciary relationship shall have a proportionate undivided interest in such fund and its income; and the ownership of all property of such common trust fund shall be in the trustee of such fund.

This section shall apply to fiduciary relationships now in existence or hereafter established, whether the same be revocable or irrevocable. The superintendent, at his direction, may make an examination of any common trust fund established hereunder at such times and to such extent as he may deem advisable. The provisions of the Corporate Securities Law shall not apply to the creation, administration, or termination of common trust funds, nor to participation therein.

SEC. 111. Section 1751 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1751. A foreign banking corporation shall not after October 1, 1949, commence to do business in this state until it has met the following requirements:

(a) It is authorized by its charter to transact the character of business described in Section 1756 and has complied with the laws of the state or country under which it is incorporated.

(b) It has filed with the superintendent a certified copy of its charter or articles and of its bylaws and an application in such form and containing such information as the superintendent may require, accompanied by a fee of one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500).

(c) It has furnished to the superintendent such proof of the nature and character of its business and its financial condition, stock ownership, and management as he may require.

(d) It has designated the superintendent and his successor in office by a duly executed instrument in writing, its agent, upon whom process directed to the corporation may be served. The superintendent shall forward by mail, postage prepaid, a copy of every process served upon him under the provisions of this subdivision, addressed to the manager or agent of such corporation at its principal place of business in this state. For each copy of process the superintendent shall collect the sum of twenty-five dollars ($25) which shall be paid by the plaintiff or moving party at the time of service, to be recovered by him as a part of his costs.

(e) It has complied with all applicable requirements of the Corporations Code of California relating to foreign corporations, subject, however, to the provisions of Section 101.

(f) Its manager or agent residing in this state has taken an oath that he will, as far as the duty devolves upon him, diligently and honestly administer the affairs of the corporation and will not knowingly violate or willfully permit to be violated any of the provisions of law applicable to the corporation and the oath, subscribed by the manager or agent taking it, has been transmitted to the superintendent and filed in his office.

(g) It has deposited with the State Treasurer for the faithful performance of all obligations entered into in California cash in an amount, or securities of the kind described in Section 1542 having a market value in an amount, not less than such amount as the superintendent may determine to be adequate.

(h) It has received from the superintendent his certificate licensing it to do business.

SEC. 112. Section 1751.5 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

1751.5. (a) Whenever the superintendent finds that the amount, if any, of cash or securities which a foreign banking corporation is required to maintain on deposit with the State Treasurer is not adequate, he may order such foreign banking corporation to deposit and thereafter maintain on deposit with the State Treasurer cash in an amount, or securities of the kind described in Section 1542 having a market value in an amount, not less than such higher amount as the superintendent may determine to be adequate.

(b) Whenever the superintendent finds that the amount of cash or securities which a foreign banking corporation is required to maintain on deposit with the State Treasurer is more than adequate, he may by order relieve such foreign banking corporation of the requirement that it maintain such amount of cash or securities on deposit with the State Treasurer and require that it deposit and thereafter maintain on deposit with the State Treasurer cash in an amount, or securities of the kind described in Section 1542 having a market value in an amount, not less than such lower amount as he may determine to be adequate.

SEC. 112.1. Section 1751.9 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

1751.9. In determining for purposes of this article whether an amount of cash or securities deposited or to be deposited by a foreign banking corporation with the State Treasurer is adequate, the superintendent shall consider:

(a) The nature (including, but not limited to, whether the foreign banking corporation is authorized to transact in this state the business of accepting deposits under subdivision (c) of Section 1756 and Section 1756.1 or under Section 1756.2) and volume of the California business of the foreign banking corporation;

(b) The amount, nature, quality, and liquidity of the assets of the California business of the foreign banking corporation;

(c) The amount and nature of the liabilities (including, but not limited to, any contingent liabilities) of the foreign banking corporation;

(d) The quality of the operations of the California business of the foreign banking corporation;

(e) The quality of the management of the California business of the foreign banking corporation;

(f) Such other factors as are in the opinion of the superintendent relevant.

SEC. 113. Section 1752 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1752. Money or securities deposited with the State Treasurer by a foreign banking corporation pursuant to Section 1751 or 1751.5 shall first be approved by the superintendent and upon his order shall be deposited with the State Treasurer.

Upon receiving any such deposit the State Treasurer shall give his receipt therefor and shall hold such deposit for the sole benefit of the creditors of such corporation's California business. The state is responsible for the custody and safe return of any such deposits excepting only money or securities applied for the benefit of such creditors pursuant to an order of court. The State Treasurer shall deposit any such moneys under the provisions of Sections 16370 to 16375 of the Government Code.

Securities deposited pursuant to this section may be exchanged from time to time, with the approval of the superintendent, for other like securities of equal market value. Upon written request to the superintendent, any such corporation shall be entitled to withdraw from the State Treasurer, from time to time, any amount of its securities so deposited in excess of the amount it is required to maintain on deposit in order to conform with the requirements of this chapter Upon receiving a written request for such withdrawal or exchange, and satisfactory proof of the facts warranting the same, the superintendent shall forthwith deliver to the State Treasurer a written order directing the withdrawal or exchange of such securities so as to conform with the provisions of this chapter. The State Treasurer shall comply with such written order. So long as the corporation so depositing such securities shall continue solvent and shall discharge its California obligations promptly, it shall have the right and shall be permitted by the State Treasurer to receive the interest and dividends on any securities deposited by it.

Should any security so depreciate in value as to reduce the deposit below the amount required, additional money or securities shall be deposited promptly in amount sufficient to meet such requirements. The superintendent may make an investigation of the value of any security deposited at the time such security is presented for deposit or at any time thereafter. The superintendent may make such charge as may be reasonable and proper for such investigation.

The State Treasurer may sell and transfer any securities deposited pursuant to this chapter and may dispose of the proceeds only on the order of a court of competent jurisdiction and for the benefit of the creditors of such corporation's business in California.

SEC. 114. Section 1756.1 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1756.1. A foreign banking corporation shall not commence to transact in this state the business of accepting deposits, or transact such business thereafter unless it has met the following requirements:

(a) It has been approved for Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation insurance.

(b) It holds in this state currency, bonds, notes, debentures, drafts, bills of exchange or other evidences of indebtedness or other obligations payable in the United States or in United States funds or, with the prior approval of the superintendent, in funds freely convertible into United States funds, in an amount not less than 108 per centum of the aggregate amount of liabilities of such foreign banking corporation payable at or through its branch or branches in this state, including acceptances, but excluding (1) accrued expenses, and (2) amounts due and other liabilities to other offices or branches of, and wholly owned (except for a nominal number of directors' shares) subsidiaries of, such foreign banking corporation. For the purposes of this subdivision, the superintendent shall value marketable securities at principal amount or market value, whichever is lower, shall have the right to determine the value of any nonmarketable bond, note, debenture, draft, bill of exchange, other evidence of indebtedness, or of any other obligation held by or owed to the foreign banking corporation or its branch or branches within the state, and in determining the amount of assets for the purpose of computing the above ratio of assets to liabilities, shall have the power to exclude any particular asset but shall give credit to assets required to be maintained pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section, to reserves required to be maintained pursuant to subdivision (c) of this section, and, subject to such rules and regulations as the superintendent may from time to time promulgate, to deposits and credit balances with unaffiliated banking institutions outside this state if such deposits or credit balances are payable in United States funds or in currencies freely convertible into United States funds; provided that credit given for such deposits and credit balances shall not exceed in aggregate amount such percentage, but not less than 8 per centum, as the superintendent may from time to time prescribe of the aggregate amount of liabilities of such foreign banking corporation, determined as hereinabove provided in this subdivision. If, by reason of the existence or the potential occurrence of unusual and extraordinary circumstances, the superintendent deems it necessary or desirable for the maintenance of a sound financial condition, the protection of depositors and the public interest, and to maintain public confidence in the business of the branch or branches of a foreign banking corporation, he may, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this subdivision, reduce the credit to be given as above provided for deposits and credit balances with unaffiliated banking institutions outside this state and he may require such foreign banking corporation to deposit, in accordance with such rules and regulations as he shall from time to time promulgate, the assets required to be held in this state pursuant to this subdivision with such banks or trust companies or national banks located in this state, as such foreign banking corporation may designate and the superintendent may approve.

(c) It has such reserves against such deposits as may be required from time to time by the laws of this state to be maintained by banks and trust companies. Amounts carried on the books of any such foreign banking corporation as credits to the account of another office or branch or wholly owned (except for a nominal number of directors' shares) subsidiary of such foreign banking corporation shall not be deemed to be deposits.

(d) It certifies, at such intervals of time as the superintendent may require, the amount of its shareholders' equity, expressed in the currency of the country of its incorporation, the dollar equivalent of which amount as determined by the superintendent, shall be deemed to be the amount of its shareholders' equity. Loans, purchases, and discounts of notes, bills of exchange, bonds, debentures and other obligations, and extensions of credit and acceptances by such foreign banking corporation within this state shall be subject to the same limitations as to amount in relation to shareholders' equity as may be imposed from time to time by the laws of this state upon banks and trust companies.

SEC. 115. Section 1902 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1902. The board of every bank and of every trust company, or a committee thereof composed of at least three directors, none of whom is an officer of such bank or trust company, shall examine such bank or trust company at least once in each calendar year. No such examination shall be commenced within three months of the completion of the examination for the preceding year. Such examination shall show the actual financial condition of the bank or trust company and shall set forth such matters and shall be in such form as the superintendent may require. Such examination shall include an examination of the books, papers, and affairs of the bank and particularly of its loans and discounts and of the security given therefor. The board may employ such assistance in making any examination as it deems necessary. Within 30 days after the examination is completed, a report thereof, verified by the directors who made it, shall be filed with the board and thereafter shall be kept available for inspection by the superintendent.

SEC. 116 Section 1903 of the Financial Code is amended to read.

1903. If the board of any bank or trust company fails to make such examination or to cause it to be made or to file copies of the report in the manner and within the time required by Section 1902, the superintendent may cause an extra examination of such bank or trust company to be made at its expense.

SEC. 117. Section 1904 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1904. In lieu of an examination pursuant to Section 1902, the board of any bank or trust company may request the superintendent to cause a special examination or audit to be made. Within 60 days after the receipt of a certified copy of the board's resolution requesting such examination, the superintendent shall cause a special examination or audit to be made either by the department or by certified public accountants at the expense of such bank or trust company. Within 30 days after the completion of the examination or audit, the superintendent shall deliver to the board a true copy of the report of the examination or audit.

SEC. 118. Section 1912 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1912. If it appears to the superintendent that a bank, trust company, or foreign banking corporation is violating or failing to comply with its articles or with any law of this state, he may direct such bank, trust company, or foreign banking corporation to comply with its articles or with the law by an order issued over his official seal, or if it appears to the superintendent that any bank, trust company, or foreign banking corporation is conducting its business in an unsafe or injurious manner he may in like manner direct it to discontinue the unsafe or injurious practices. The order shall require the bank, trust company, or foreign banking corporation to show cause before the superintendent at a time and place to be fixed by him why the order should not be observed.

SEC. 119. Section 1930 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1930. Every bank and every trust company shall make and file with the superintendent whenever required by him a report in such form as he may prescribe, verified by two of its principal officers, showing its financial condition and such other information as the superintendent may require at the close of business on any past day designated by him. The verification shall state that each of the officers making it has a personal knowledge of the matters in the report and that each of them believes that each statement in the report is true.

SEC. 120. Section 1950 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 121. Section 2052 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 122. Section 2052 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

2052. The agreement of purchase and sale shall be approved by the purchasing bank and by the selling bank, as follows:

(a) In case the bank is a bank organized under the laws of this state.

(1) If the purchase and sale constitutes a reorganization (as defined in Section 181 of the Corporations Code), as required by Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 1200), Division 1, Title 1 of the Corporations Code;

(2) Otherwise, by the board of the bank and by the outstanding shares of the bank.

(b) In case the bank is any bank other than a bank organized under the laws of this state, in accordance with the laws of the jurisdiction under the laws of which the bank is organized.

SEC. 123. Section 2053 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

2053. When the agreement has been executed by the appropriate officers of each of the banks and when the same has been approved by each of the banks in accordance with Section 2052, the original or a duplicate original thereof shall be filed with the superintendent. There shall be attached to the agreement filed with the superintendent certificates executed by the secretary of each of the banks respectively, certifying that the agreement has been approved by the bank of which he is secretary in accordance with Section 2052. Such agreement shall not become effective until it has been approved in writing by the superintendent. An application for such approval shall be in such form and contain such information as the superintendent may require, and be accompanied by a fee of one thousand dollars ($1,000). When the agreement has been executed and approved by each of such banks in accordance with Section 2052 and has been approved by the superintendent notice of such agreement shall be published once a week for four successive weeks in a newspaper published in the county in which the selling bank has its principal place of business, or if a branch or a branch business is sold then in a newspaper published in the county in which such branch office is located, and in the county in which the purchasing bank has its principal place of business. Within 10 days after the last publication of such notice an affidavit showing publication in compliance herewith shall be filed in the office of the superintendent.

SEC. 124. Section 2055 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

2055. The selling bank shall maintain for a period of at least one year after the last date of the publication of the notice provided for in Section 2053, such amount, if any, of its contributed capital or its shareholders' equity as the superintendent in his discretion may require.

SEC. 125. Section 2058 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

2058. Subject to the prior approval of the Superintendent of Banks, the affirmative vote of two-thirds of all of its directors, and, in case the transaction constitutes a reorganization (as defined in Section 181 of the Corporations Code), to the provisions of Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 1200), Division 1, Title 1 of the Corporations Code, a bank or trust company may purchase in one transaction 100 percent of the outstanding shares of any state bank or of a national banking association, or trust company operating in this State, in accordance with a plan by which:

(a) The bank whose stock has been purchased shall immediately be merged with the purchasing bank in the manner contemplated by law; or

(b) The bank whose stock has been purchased, shall immediately be dissolved, its assets vested in its shareholders and its deposits and all other liabilities, including trust liabilities, shall be assumed by the acquiring bank or trust company, subject to the right of each depositor of the bank whose stock has been purchased to withdraw his deposit and of the right of trustors and beneficiaries under trusts held by such bank to nominate another trustee as in the case of the purchase and sale of the business of a bank under Section 2051.

The acquiring bank may permit directors of the bank or trust company, whose shares are so acquired, to retain their respective qualifying shares until dissolution; provided, that each such director agrees to accept the purchase price of his shares in lieu of his proportionate share of the assets upon dissolution.

Upon the approval by the superintendent of the plan, he shall fix a time when the consummation of such plan shall become effective. Upon completion of the plan, the acquiring bank ipso facto and by operation of law and without further transfer, substitution, act or deed, succeeds to the rights, properties, assets, investments, deposits, demands, agreements and trusts of the bank or trust company whose stock has been purchased under all trusts, executorships, administrations, guardianships, agencies, and all other fiduciary or representative capacities to the same extent as though it had originally assumed the same and shall succeed to and be entitled to take and execute the appointment to all executorships, trusteeships, guardianships and other fiduciary and representative capacities to which the bank whose stock has been purchased may be named, or is thereafter named, in wills whenever probated or to which it is, or may be named, or appointed by any other instrument, all subject to all other provisions of this code.

Before granting the approval required by this section, the superintendent may direct the purchasing bank to continue banking facilities at the location, or locations, of the purchased bank, if, in his judgment, public convenience would require the continuation of such banking facilities. The superintendent may also impose such other terms and conditions as will, in his judgment, be considered necessary to insure the faithful carrying out of the requirements hereof.

SEC. 126. Section 2059 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

2059. The provisions of Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 1300), Division 1, Title 1 of the Corporations Code shall not apply to the shareholders of a purchasing bank in any purchase and sale which is subject to this article or to the shareholders of a surviving bank in any merger which is subject to Section 2058.

SEC. 127. Section 2070 of the Financial Code, as amended by Chapter 394 of the Statutes of 1978, is amended to read:

2070. Any two or more banks and trust companies organized under the laws of this state may be merged into one of such constituent banks or trust companies upon compliance with the provisions of this article and upon compliance with the provisions of Chapters 11 (commencing with Section 1100), 12 (commencing with Section 1200), and 13 (commencing with Section 1300), Division 1, Title 1 of the Corporations Code,; provided, that the provisions of Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 1300), Division 1, Title 1 of the Corporations Code shall not apply to shareholders of the surviving bank or trust company. The merger of such banks shall have the same force and effect as is provided in the Corporations Code for the merger or consolidation of domestic corporations.

SEC. 127.1. Section 2071 of the Financial Code, as amended by Chapter 394 of the Statutes of 1978, is amended to read:

2071. Any agreement for the merger of two or more banks or trust companies and any certifiate of ownership executed pursuant to Section 1110 of the Corporations Code pertaining to such a merger shall have the approval of the superintendent endorsed thereon before the same is filed with the Secretary of State. An application for such approval shall be in such form and contain such information as the superintendent may require, and be accompanied by a fee of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

SEC. 127.2 Section 2072 of the Financial Code, as amended by Chapter 394 of the Statutes of 1978, is amended to read:

2072. When any agreement for merger or any certificate of ownership has been filed with the Secretary of State with the approval of the superintendent endorsed thereon, a copy thereof, certified by the Secretary of State, shall immediately be filed with the superintendent and upon, but not until, such filing the merger or consolidation shall be and become effective for all purposes. If the surviving corporation acquires additional powers by such merger, the superintendent shall issue to it his certificate authorizing it to engage in the commercial banking or trust business or both of such businesses, as the case may be.

SEC. 127.3. Section 2073 of the Financial Code, as amended by Chapter 394 of the Statutes of 1978, is amended to read:

2073. Whenever any bank qualified to do a trust business or any trust company has been merged into a bank or trust company, the surviving bank or trust company ipso facto and by operation of law and without further transfer, substitution, act, or deed succeeds to the rights, properties, assets, investments, deposits, demands, agreements, and trusts of the disappearing bank or trust company under all trusts, executorships, administrations, guardianships, agencies, and all other fiduciary or representative capacities to the same extent as though it had originally assumed the same and succeeds to and is entitled to take and execute the appointment to all executorships, trusteeships, guardianships, and other fiduciary and representative capacities to which the disappearing corporation may be named or is thereafter named in wills, whenever probated, or to which it is or may be named or appointed by any other instrument.

SEC 127.4. Section 2093 of the Financial Code, as amended by Chapter 394 of the Statutes of 1978 is amended to read:

2093. Nothing in this division restricts one or more national banking associations from merging into a bank organized under the laws of this state. For the purpose of effecting any such merger a national banking association shall be deemed a "foreign corporation" as that term is used in Section 1108 of the Corporations Code and the laws of Congress shall be deemed the "laws of the state" in which a national banking association is formed. The provisions of Chapters 11 (commencing with Section 1100) and 12 (commencing with Section 1200), Division 1, Title 1 of the Corporations Code shall apply to such a merger; however, the provisions of Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 1300), Division 1, Title 1 of the Corporations Code shall not apply to such a merger.

SEC. 128. Section 2094 of the Financial Code, as amended by Chapter 394 of the Statutes of 1978, is amended to read:

2094. Whenever a state bank survives the merger of one or more national banking associations with a state bank and the agreement for merger has been filed with the Secretary of State with the approval of the superintendent endorsed thereon (An application for such approval of the superintendent shall be filed in such form and contain such information as the superintendent may require, and be accompanied by a fee of one thousand dollars ($1,000).), a copy thereof, certified by the Secretary of State, shall immediately be filed with the superintendent and upon, but not until, such filing the merger shall be and become effective for all purposes. If the surviving corporation acquires additional powers by such merger, the superintendent shall issue to it his certificate authorizing it to engage in the commercial banking or trust business or both of such businesses, as the case may be.

SEC. 129. Section 2095 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

2095. Whenever: (a) a national banking association authorized and qualified to conduct a trust business in this state has been heretofore or is hereafter created by the conversion of a state bank likewise authorized and qualified; or (b) a state bank likewise authorized and qualified has been heretofore or is hereafter created by the conversion of a national banking association likewise authorized and qualified; or (c) one or more national banks likewise authorized and qualified has been heretofore or is hereafter merged or consolidated with one or more other national banking associations likewise authorized and qualified; or (d) one or more state banks likewise authorized and qualified consolidate with or merge into one or more national banking associations likewise authorized and qualified; or (e) one or more national banking associations likewise authorized and qualified merge into a state bank likewise authorized and qualified; or (f) a national banking association authorized and qualified to conduct a trust business in this state purchases or has purchased the trust business and assets of another national banking association or of a bank organized under the laws of this state, the resulting or surviving state bank or national banking association, or the purchasing national banking association, as the case may be, ipso facto and by operation of law and without further transfer, substitution, act, or deed succeeds to the rights, obligations, properties, assets, investments, deposits, demands, agreements, and trusts of the former or selling state bank or national banking association under all trusts, executorships, administrations, guardianships, agencies, and under all other fiduciary or representative capacities to the same extent as though it had originally assumed the same and succeeds to and is entitled to take and execute the appointment to all executorships, trusteeships, guardianships, and other fiduciary or representative capacities to which the former or selling state bank or national banking association, as the case may be, is or may be named in wills, whenever probated, or to which the former or selling state bank or national banking association is or may be named or appointed by any other instrument.

SEC. 130. Section 2096 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

2096. Whenever one or more state banks and one or more national banking associations have been merged or consolidated, the resulting national banking association or the surviving state bank or national banking association, as the case may be, succeeds without other transfer to all the rights and property of each of the constituent banks or national banking associations and is subject to all the debts and liabilities of each such constituent bank or national banking association in the same manner as if the resulting national banking association or the surviving state bank or national banking association had incurred them.

All rights of creditors and all liens upon the property of each of the constituent banks or national banking associations are preserved unimpaired, limited in lien to the property affected by such liens immediately prior to the time of the consolidation or merger.

Any action or proceeding pending by or against any one of the constituent banks or national banking associations may be prosecuted through judgment, which binds the resulting national banking association or the surviving state bank or national banking association; or the resulting national banking association or the surviving state bank or national banking association may be proceeded against or substituted in the place of the constituent state bank or national banking association.

SEC. 131. Section 3010 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3010. Whenever: (a) a sale of the whole of the business of any bank authorized to engage in the trust business, or of the trust business of any bank or of any branch office of any bank has been completed; or (b) two or more state banks, one or more of which is authorized to engage in the trust business, are merged; or (c) one or more national banks, one or more of which is authorized to engage in the trust business, are merged into a state bank, the superintendent, upon request, shall issue under his official seal a certificate in writing duly acknowledged by him in substantially the following form:

"State Banking Department

State of California
City and County of San Francisco } ss.

I, _____, Superintendent of Banks of the State of California, do hereby certify (1) that _____ has purchased (the whole of the business, or the whole of the _____ business or the whole of the _____ business of the _____ branch or the whole of the business of the _____ branch, as the case may be) of _____ bank, and that the agreement of purchase and sale as approved by me on _____ has been filed in my office; or (2) that _____ bank has merged into the _____ bank and that the agreement of merger or certificate of ownership certified to by the Secretary of State was filed in my office at _____ o'clock on _____ _____, _____; and I do further certify that the (purchase and sale) (merger) above referred to has been approved by me in the manner required by law and that such (purchase and sale) (merger) has been fully completed and consummated.

Given under my official seal this _____ day of _____, 19__.

_____, Superintendent of Banks."

The recordation of such certificate in the office of the recorder of any county shall be to all persons constructive notice that all of the rights, benefits, privileges, duties, and obligations of whatever kind or nature held or possessed by or imposed upon the selling or disappearing bank are retained by and imposed upon the purchasing or surviving bank.

Such certificate shall be prima facie evidence in all courts and places of the regularity of the proceedings taken and of the fact of such sale or merger.

SEC. 132. Section 3011 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3011. Whenever: (a) a national banking association authorized and qualified to conduct a trust business in this state is created by the conversion of a state bank likewise authorized and qualified; or (b) a state bank, likewise authorized and qualified, is created by the conversion of a national banking association, likewise authorized and qualified; or (c) one or more national banks, likewise authorized and qualified, are merged with or consolidated into one or more other national banking associations likewise authorized and qualified; or (d) one or more state banks, likewise authorized and qualified, are merged with or consolidated into one or more national banking associations likewise authorized and qualified; or (e) a national banking association authorized and qualified to conduct a trust business in this state purchases or has purchased the trust business and assets of another national banking association or of a bank organized under the laws of this state, there may be executed by the president and secretary or the cashier of the resulting state bank or the resulting, surviving, or purchasing national banking association, as the case may be, its certificate in substantially the following form:

"State of California } ss.
County of _____ }

The undersigned, _____, president, and _____ (secretary or cashier) of _____ (name of bank), being duly sworn, each for himself, certifies as follows:

WHEREAS, The _____ (name of bank) is a (national bank organized under the laws of the United States, or a bank organized under the laws of the State of California, as the case may be); and

WHEREAS, Said _____ (name of bank) was created in the following manner: (by consolidation, merger or conversion, as the case may be) or said _____ (name of bank) purchased the trust business and assets of _____ (name of bank); and

WHEREAS, The _____ (name of bank) is authorized and qualified under the laws of the State of California to conduct a trust business in this state; and

WHEREAS, Said _____ (name of bank) has received from (the Comptroller of the Currency or the Superintendent of Banks, or both, as the case may be) authorization or approval for the conduct of said business under the name of _____, of which authorization the following is a full, true and correct copy:

(Insert copy of authorization or approvals)

Now, Therefore, It Is Hereby Certified that the business formerly conducted by _____ has been succeeded to and is now being conducted by _____, with its principal place of business in the (City of _____, County of _____, or city and county, as the case may be)."

Such certificate shall be sworn to and duly acknowledged before a notary public by the persons executing the same.

The recordation of such certificate in the office of the recorder of any county shall be to all persons constructive notice that all of the rights, benefits, privileges, duties, and obligations of whatsoever kind or nature held or possessed by or imposed upon the bank so converted, merged, consolidated, or whose trust business and assets have been sold, are retained by and imposed upon the successor bank or national banking association. Any such certificate shall be prima facie evidence in all courts and places of the regularity of the proceedings taken and of the fact of such conversion.

SEC. 133. Section 3012 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3012. Whenever all of the business and assets of any bank or trust company have been purchased by another bank or trust company or whenever any bank or trust company has been merged into another bank or trust company or whenever one or more banks or trust companies have been consolidated into a new bank or trust company or whenever a state bank has been converted into a national banking association the selling bank or trust company, the disappearing bank or trust company, the constituent banks or trust companies, or the converted bank, as the case may be, shall surrender their respective certificates of authority to do a banking business to the superintendent for cancellation.

SEC. 134. Section 3013 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3013. Whenever a national banking association has converted into a state bank and whenever a state bank has converted into a national banking association, the resulting state bank or national banking association, as the case may be, shall be deemed the same corporate entity as the bank from which it was converted and any reference to the converting bank in any writing, whether executed or taking effect before or after the conversion, shall be deemed a reference to the resulting bank if not inconsistent with the other provisions of such writing.

SEC. 135. Section 3014 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3014. Whenever a state bank or a national banking association has merged into a state bank and whenever a national banking association or state bank has merged into a national banking association the surviving state bank or national banking association, as the case may be, shall be deemed the same corporate entity as the disappearing bank and any reference to the disappearing bank in any writing, whether executed or taking effect before or after the merger, shall be deemed a reference to the surviving bank if not inconsistent with the other provisions of such writing.

SEC. 136. Section 3015 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3015. Whenever one or more state banks or national banking associations have consolidated into a new national banking association, the resulting national banking association shall be deemed the same corporate entity as the constituent state bank or banks or national banking association or associations, as the case may be, and any reference to the constituent state bank or banks or to the national banking association or associations in any writing, whether executed or taking effect before or after the consolidation, shall be deemed a reference to the resulting national banking association if not inconsistent with the other provisions of such writing.

SEC. 137. Section 3100 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3100. Whenever it appears to the superintendent that:

(a) The contributed capital of any bank is impaired;

(b) Any bank has violated its articles or any law of this state;

(c) Any bank is conducting its business in an unsafe or unauthorized manner;

(d) Any bank refuses to submit its books, papers, and affairs to the inspection of any examiner;

(e) Any officer of any bank refuses to be examined upon oath touching the concerns of such bank;

(f) Any bank has suspended payment of its obligations;

(g) Any bank is in such condition that it is unsound, unsafe, or inexpedient for it to transact business; or

(h) Any bank neglects or refuses to observe any order of the superintendent made pursuant to Section 1913 unless the enforcement of such order is restrained in a proceeding brought by the bank; the superintendent may forthwith take possession of the property and business of such bank and retain possession until such bank resumes business or its affairs be finally liquidated as herein provided. Such bank, with the consent of the superintendent, may resume business upon such conditions as he may prescribe. The term "bank" wherever used in this chapter includes trust companies and foreign banking corporations licensed to do and doing a banking business in this state.

SEC. 138. Section 3110.1 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 139. Section 3110.1 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

3110.1. (a) The superintendent may, with the approval of the court and of the superintendent, sell any part or the whole of the business of the bank to any other bank. Such purchase and sale shall be approved by the purchasing bank, as follows:

(1) In case the purchasing bank is a bank organized under the laws of this state, by two-thirds of all of its directors.

(2) In case the bank is any bank other than a bank organized under the laws of this state, in accordance with the laws of the jurisdiction under the laws of which the bank is organized.

(b) (1) Subject to any applicable federal statutes and regulations, any bank organized under the laws of this state may, with the approval of two-thirds of all of its directors and of the superintendent, purchase from the receiver of a national banking association the whole or any part of the business of such national banking association.

(2) Subject to any applicable federal statutes and regulations and any applicable laws of the jurisdiction under the laws of which such foreign banking corporation is organized, any foreign banking corporation which is licensed by the superintendent under Article 1 (commencing with Section 1750) of Chapter 14 to transact banking business in this state and which is authorized under Sections 1756 and 1756.1 to accept deposits in this state, may, with the approval of the superintendent, purchase from the receiver of a national banking association the whole or any part of the business of such national banking association.

(c) The provisions of Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 1200) and Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 1300), Division 1, Title 1 of the Corporations Code shall not apply to any purchase and sale of the type described in subdivision (a) or (b).

(d) When a purchase and sale of the type described in subdivision (a) or (b) becomes effective or, in case the receiver of a national banking association sells the whole or any part of the business of such national banking association to another national banking association, when such purchase and sale becomes effective, the purchasing bank shall, ipso facto and by operation of law and without further transfer, substitution, act, or deed, to the extent provided in the agreement of the purchase and sale or in the order of the court approving the purchase and sale and except as withheld or limited by such agreement or by such order:

(1) Succeed to the rights, obligations, properties, assets, investments, deposits, demands, and agreements of the bank whose business is sold, subject to the right of every depositor of such bank whose deposit is sold to withdraw his deposit in full on demand after such sale, irrespective of the terms under which the deposit was made;

(2) Succeed to the rights, obligations, properties, assets, investments, deposits, demands, and agreements of the bank whose business is sold under all trusts, executorships, administrations, guardianships, agencies, and other fiduciary or representative capacities, to the same extent as though the purchasing bank had originally assumed, acquired, or owned the same, subject to the rights of trustors and beneficiaries under the trusts so sold to nominate another or succeeding trustee of the trust so sold after the sale; and

(3) Succeed to and be entitled to take and execute the appointment to executorships, trusteeships, guardianships, and other fiduciary and representative capacities to which the bank whose business is sold is or may be named in wills, whenever probated, or to which it is or may be named or appointed by any other instrument.

(e) For purposes of subdivision (d), any purchase and sale of the type referred to in subdivision (d) shall be deemed to be effective at such time as is provided in the agreement of such purchase and sale or in the order of the court approving the purchase and sale.

SEC. 140. Section 3126 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 141. Section 3126 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

3126. (a) When the superintendent has completed the liquidation of the bank, he shall petition the court for an order declaring the bank duly wound up and dissolved.

(b) After such notice as the court may direct and a hearing, the court may make an order declaring the bank duly wound up and dissolved. Such order shall declare:

(1) That the bank has been duly wound up;

(2) That any tax or penalty due under the Bank and Corporation Tax Law has been paid or secured and that the bank's other known debts and liabilities have been paid or adequately provided for, or that such taxes, penalties, debts, and liabilities have been paid so far as the bank's assets permitted, as the case may be. If there are known debts or liabilities for the payment of which adequate provision has been made, the order shall describe such provision, setting forth such information as may be necessary to enable the creditor or other person to whom payment is to be made to appear and claim payment of the debt or liability;

(3) That all known assets of the bank have been distributed to its shareholders or wholly applied on account of the bank's debts and liabilities; and

(4) That the bank is dissolved.

(c) The court may make such additional orders and grant such further relief as it deems proper upon the evidence submitted.

(d) Upon the making of the order declaring the bank dissolved, the corporate existence of the bank shall cease, except for the purposes of any necessary further winding up.

(e) Upon the making of the order declaring the bank dissolved, the superintendent shall forthwith file with the Secretary of State a copy of such order, certified by the clerk of the court. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 23334 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there need not be filed with the Secretary of State any certificate of satisfaction of the Franchise Tax Board that all taxes due from the bank have been paid or secured.

SEC. 142. Section 3127 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 143. Section 3128 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 144. Section 3129 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 145. Section 3130 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 146. Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 3135) of Chapter 17 of Division 1 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 147. Section 3185 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3185. If the superintendent becomes satisfied that it may safely be done and that it would be in the public interest he may terminate the conservatorship and permit the bank for whom a conservator was appointed to resume the transaction of its business under the direction of its board, subject to such terms, conditions, restrictions, and limitations as he may prescribe.

SEC. 148. Section 3186 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3186. In any case in which a bank for which a conservator has been appointed has been permitted to accept deposits since the appointment of a conservator, the conservator, before the date upon which the bank may be permitted to resume business under direction of its board, shall cause to be published in a newspaper selected by him as most likely to give proper notice, a notice giving the date on which the affairs of the bank will be returned to its board and stating that the provisions of Section 3184 will not be effective after 30 days from such date. The form of such notice and the newspaper in which the same is to be published shall be first approved by the superintendent. On the date of the publication of such notice the conservator shall mail to every person who made any deposit in such bank after the date of the appointment of the conservator a copy of such notice addressed to such person at the address appearing upon the books of the bank and shall mail a similar notice to every person making a deposit in the bank after the date of the publication of such notice and prior to the time when the affairs of the bank are returned to its board.

SEC. 149. Section 3204 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3204. When any plan of reorganization becomes effective all books, records, and assets of such bank shall be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of the plan and the affairs of the bank shall be conducted by its board in the manner provided by the plan and under the conditions, restrictions, and limitations which may have been prescribed by the superintendent. When any plan of reorganization adopted and approved as herein provided becomes effective all depositors and other creditors and stockholders of the bank, whether or not they have consented to the plan of reorganization, shall be fully and in all respects subject to and bound by its provisions and claims of all depositors and other creditors shall be treated as if they had consented to the plan of reorganization.

SEC. 150. Section 3241 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 151. Section 3358 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3358. No bank shall publish a statement of its resources or liabilities in connection with those of any other bank, unless such statement shall show the resources and liabilities of each bank separately.

SEC. 152. Section 3359 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3359. (a) A bank shall not purchase or invest in its own shares or loan on the security of its own shares unless such purchase or loan shall be necessary to prevent loss to the bank on debts previously contracted in good faith. A bank violating this section shall be liable to the people of the state for twice the market or book value of the shares, whichever is greater.

(b) Subdivision (a) does not apply to the redemption by a bank of any of its redeemable shares in accordance with applicable provisions of this division and of Division 1 (commencing with Section 100), Title 1 of the Corporations Code.

SEC. 153. Section 3366 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3366. Any officer or employee of any bank organized under the laws of this state, who intentionally conceals from the directors of the bank any discounts or loans made by it between the regular meetings of its board, or the purchase of any securities or the sale of its securities during that period, or knowingly fails to report to the board when required to do so by law, all discounts or loans made by it and all securities purchased or sold by it between the regular meetings of its board, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 154. Section 3373 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3373. For the purpose of this article "loan" includes any extension of credit. The board of the bank may fix the aggregate amount of credit which may be extended during a given period not in excess of 12 months to any borrower pursuant to this article. Such bank may make advances and renewals pursuant to the board's authorization without further action by the board.

SEC. 155. Section 3374 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3374. Whenever a bank is required to report a loan to the superintendent such report shall show the following information in form satisfactory to him:

(a) Name of the borrower;

(b) Name of each director or officer interested and the extent of his interest. If to a corporation, the number of shares outstanding of the borrowing corporation and the number of shares owned by any officer or director of the bank;

(c) Amount, date, maturity, and interest rate of the loan;

(d) Description of security, if any;

(e) Names of directors who voted to authorize or ratify the loan.

The action of the board in authorizing, confirming, or refusing to confirm such loan shall be reported to the superintendent within five days after the time when the board authorizes, confirms, or refuses to confirm the same, and in any event the fact of the making of the loan shall be reported to the superintendent within 45 days after the same is made. When any loan required to be reported to the superintendent is paid, the bank shall report such fact and the date thereof to the superintendent.

SEC. 156. Section 3379 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

3379. Notwithstanding any provision of this article or of Article 2 (commencing with Section 1220) of Chapter 10, a bank may advance money to a director, officer, employee or agent of such bank pursuant to Section 317 of the Corporations Code.

SEC. 157. Section 3380 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

3380. Notwithstanding any provision of this article, a bank may advance money to a director, officer, or employee of such bank for expenses reasonably anticipated to be incurred in the performance of the duties of such director, officer, or employee, provided that in the absence of such advance such director, officer, or employee would be entitled to be reimbursed for such expenses by such bank.

SEC. 158. Section 3500 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3500. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires, "corporation" means a corporation organized under the laws of this state for the purpose of transacting business pursuant to this article.

SEC. 159. Section 3500.5 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

3500.5. The provisions of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 99) applicable to, or with respect to, banks shall apply to, or with respect to, as the case may be, corporations.

SEC. 160. Section 3501 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3501. When authorized by the previous written consent of the superintendent as provided by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 350) one or more persons may organize a corporation.

SEC. 161. Section 3502 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 162. Section 3502 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

3502. The articles of a corporation shall provide that the purpose of the corporation is to engage in the business of international and foreign banking and other international and foreign financial operations, the business of banking and other financial operations in any dependency or insular possession of the United States, and any other lawful activities which are not, by applicable laws or regulations, prohibited to a corporation transacting business under this article.

SEC. 163. Section 3504 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3504. Each corporation shall have power, under such rules and regulations as the superintendent may prescribe:

(a) To purchase, sell, discount, and negotiate, with or without its endorsement or guaranty, notes, drafts, checks, bills of exchange, acceptances, including bankers' acceptances, cable transfers, and other evidences of indebtedness; to purchase and sell, with or without its endorsement or guaranty, securities, including the obligations of the United States or of any state thereof but not including shares of stock in any corporation except as herein provided; to accept bills or drafts drawn upon it subject to such limitations and restrictions as the superintendent may impose; to issue letters of credit; to purchase and sell coin, bullion, and exchange; to borrow and to lend money; to issue debentures, bonds, and promissory notes under such general conditions as to security and such limitations as the superintendent may prescribe, but in no event having liabilities outstanding thereon at any one time exceeding 10 times its shareholders' equity; to receive deposits outside of the United States and to receive only such deposits in this state or in any other state of the United States as may be incidental to or for the purpose of carrying out transactions in foreign countries or dependencies or insular possessions of the United States.

(b) Generally, to exercise such powers as are incidental to the powers conferred by this article or as may be usual, in the determination of the superintendent, in connection with the transaction of the business of banking or other financial operations in the countries, colonies, dependencies, or possessions in which it shall transact business and not inconsistent with the power specifically granted herein. Nothing contained in this article shall be construed to prohibit the superintendent, under his power to prescribe rules and regulations, from limiting the aggregate amount of liabilities of any or all classes incurred by the corporation and outstanding at any one time. Whenever a corporation receives deposits in the United States authorized by this article it shall carry reserves in such amounts as the superintendent may prescribe, but in no event less than 10 per centum of its deposits.

(c) To establish and maintain for the transaction of its business branches or agencies in foreign countries, their dependencies or colonies, and in any state of the United States, and in the dependencies or insular possessions of the United States, at such places as may be approved by the superintendent and under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, including any state of the United States, or countries or dependencies not specified in the original organization certificate.

(d) With the consent of the superintendent to purchase and hold stock or other certificates of ownership in any other corporation organized under the laws of this state for the purpose of transacting business pursuant to this article, or under the laws of the United States, or under the laws of any foreign country or a colony of dependency thereof, or under the laws of any state, dependency or insular possession of the United States but not engaged in the general business of buying or selling goods, wares, merchandise, or commodities in the United States, and not transacting any business in the United States except such as in the judgment of the superintendent may be incidental to its international or foreign business.

SEC. 164. Section 3505 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3505. Except with the approval of the superintendent, no corporation shall invest in any one corporation an amount in excess of 10 per centum of its own shareholders' equity, except in a corporation engaged in the business of banking, when 15 per centum of its shareholders' equity may be so invested.

SEC. 165. Section 3508 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3508. No corporation shall carry on any part of its business in the United States except such as, in the judgment of the superintendent, shall be incidental to its international or foreign business. Except such as is incidental and preliminary to its organization no corporation shall exercise any of the powers conferred by this article until it has been duly authorized by the superintendent to commence business under the provisions of this article.

SEC. 166. Section 3511 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3511. No corporation shall be organized without adequate shareholders' equity.

SEC. 167. Section 3512 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 168. Section 3512 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

3512. The provisions of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 600) (except the provisions of Section 621) applicable to, or with respect to, banks shall apply to, or with respect to, as the case may be, corporations.

SEC. 169. Section 3513 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3513. Any bank may invest in the shares of any corporation organized under the provisions of this article, but the aggregate amount of stock held in all corporations engaged in business of the kind described in this chapter, together with such bank's investment in foreign branches established under the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 530) of Chapter 4, shall not exceed 10 per centum of the subscribing bank's shareholders' equity.

SEC. 170. Section 3515 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3515. Whenever it shall appear to the superintendent that any corporation has violated the provisions of its articles of incorporation or any law of this state, or is conducting its business in an unsafe or unauthorized manner, or if the contributed capital of any such corporation is impaired, or if the corporation shall refuse to submit its books, papers and concerns to the inspection of any examiner of the department or if any officer thereof shall refuse to be examined upon oath touching the concerns of the corporation or if the corporation shall suspend payment of its obligations, or if from any examination or report provided for by this article the superintendent shall have reason to conclude that the corporation is in an unsound or unsafe condition to transact the business for which it is organized, or that it is unsafe and inexpedient for it to continue business, or if any corporation shall neglect or refuse to observe any order of the superintendent specified in Section 662, 1912, or 1913, the superintendent may forthwith take possession of the property and business of such corporation and retain such possession until such corporation shall resume business, or its affairs be finally liquidated as provided by this code for the liquidation of banks.

SEC. 171. Section 3521 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3521. Each official communication directed by the superintendent to a corporation or to any officer thereof, relating to an examination or investigation conducted by the department or containing suggestions or recommendations as to the conduct of the business of such corporation, shall be submitted, by the officer receiving it, to the board at the next meeting of such board, and duly noted in the minutes of the meetings of such board.

SEC. 172. Section 3528 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 173. Section 3530 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3530. No officer, director, clerk or other employee of any corporation shall borrow, directly or indirectly, from such corporation any sum of money without the written approval of a majority of all of the directors thereof filed in the office of such corporation or embodied in a resolution adopted by a majority vote of all of the directors exclusive of the director to whom the loan is made. If an officer, director, clerk or other employee of any such corporation shall own or control a majority of the stock of any other corporation a loan to that corporation shall be considered as a loan to such officer, director, clerk or other employee. Every person violating this section shall, for each offense, forfeit to the people of the state twice the amount which he shall have borrowed.

SEC. 174. Section 3535 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3535. At the time the application certificate is first submitted to the superintendent, such corporation shall also submit a duly authenticated copy of its charter, or articles, and its bylaws.

SEC. 175. Section 3545 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3545. Nothing in this division restricts one or more international or foreign banking or financing corporations organized under the laws of the United States from merging into one or more state, international or foreign banking or financing corporations. For the purpose of effecting any such merger any such international or foreign banking or financing corporation shall be deemed a "foreign corporation" as that term is used in Section 1108 of the Corporations Code and the laws of Congress shall be deemed the "laws of the state" in which such international or foreign banking or financing corporation is formed.

SEC. 176. Section 3546 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3546. Whenever a state international or foreign banking or financing corporation survives the merger of one or more international or foreign banking or financing corporations and the agreement for merger has been filed with the Secretary of State with the approval of the superintendent endorsed thereon, a copy thereof, certified by the Secretary of State, shall immediately be filed with the superintendent and upon, but not until, such filing the merger shall be and become effective for all purposes.

SEC. 177. Section 3547 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3547. Whenever one or more state international or foreign banking or financing corporations and one or more international or foreign banking or financing corporations organized under the laws of the United States have been merged or consolidated, the surviving or resulting international or foreign banking or financing corporation succeeds without other transfer to all the rights and property of each constituent international or foreign banking or financing corporation and is subject to all the debts and liabilities of each such constituent corporation in the same manner as if the surviving or resulting international or foreign banking or financing corporation had incurred them.

All rights of creditors of each constituent international or foreign banking or financing corporation are preserved unimpaired, limited in lien to the property affected by such liens immediately prior to the time of the consolidation or merger.

Any action or proceeding pending by or against any one of the constituent international or foreign banking or financing corporations may be prosecuted through judgment, which binds the resulting or surviving international or foreign banking or financing corporation; or such consolidated or surviving corporation may be proceeded against or substituted in the place of any such constituent corporation.

SEC. 178. Section 3548 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3548. Whenever an international or foreign banking or financing corporation organized under the laws of the United States converts into a state international or foreign banking or financing corporation, or whenever such state corporation converts into such corporation organized under the laws of the United States, or if any such state corporation merges or consolidates with any such corporation organized under the laws of the United States, the surviving or resulting corporation shall be deemed to be the same corporate entity as the converting or constituent corporation and any reference to the converting corporation or to any constituent corporation, whether executed or taking effect before or after the conversion, merger or consolidation, shall be deemed a reference to the surviving or resulting corporation.

SEC. 179. Section 3560 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3560. Any bank may, with the consent of the Superintendent of Banks, upon such conditions and under such regulations as he may prescribe, invest in the stock of one or more corporations organized under the laws of the United States for the purpose of engaging in international or foreign banking or other international or foreign financial operations, or in banking or other financial operations in a dependency or insular possession of the United States, either directly or through the agency, ownership or control of local institutions in foreign countries, or in such dependencies or insular possessions and to act when required by the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States as fiscal agents of the United States; provided, however, that the aggregate amount of stock held in all corporations engaged in business of the kind described in this chapter, together with such bank's investment in foreign branches established under the provisions of Article 2 (commencing at Section 530) of Chapter 4, shall not exceed 10 per centum of the subscribing bank's shareholders' equity.

SEC. 180. Section 3570 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3570. Any bank may, with the consent of the superintendent, upon such conditions and under such regulations as he may prescribe, invest in the stock of one or more corporations organized under the laws of any state of the United States (other than a corporation organized under the laws of this state for the purposes of transacting business under the provisions of Article 1 (commencing with Section 3500) of this chapter) and principally engaged in international or foreign banking, or banking in a dependency or insular possession of the United States either directly or through the agency, ownership, or control of local institutions in foreign countries, or in such dependencies or insular possessions; provided, however, that said stock at the time of the acquisition would constitute a permissible investment for a national bank; and provided, further, that the aggregate amount of stock held in all corporations engaged in business of the kind described in this chapter, together with such bank's investment in foreign branches established under the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 530) of Chapter 4, shall not exceed 10 percent of the subscribing bank's shareholders' equity. Nothing in this section shall be construed in any way to limit the powers conferred by Section 3513.

SEC. 181. Section 3580 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3580. Any bank may, with the consent of the superintendent, upon such conditions and under such regulations as he may prescribe, acquire and hold, directly or indirectly, the stock or other evidences of ownership in one or more banks organized under the laws of a foreign country or a dependency or insular possession of the United States and not engaged, directly or indirectly, in any activity in the United States except as, in the judgment of the superintendent, shall be incidental to the international or foreign business of such bank. An application for such consent shall be in such form and contain such information as the superintendent may require, and be accompanied by a fee of five hundred dollars ($500). The aggregate amount invested by any bank in such stock or other evidences of ownership shall not in any way be subject to, or included in, the limitations prescribed in Sections 535, 3513, 3560, and 3570, but such aggregate amount invested directly or indirectly (other than through a corporation organized under the laws of this state for the purpose of transacting business under Article 1 (commencing with Section 3500) or operating under Article 2 (commencing with Section 3560) or Article 3 (commencing with Section 3570) in the stock or other evidences of ownership of all foreign banks, taken together with investments by the subscribing bank in the shares of corporations organized under the laws of this state for the purpose of transacting business under Article 1 (commencing with Section 3500) or operating under Article 2 (commencing with Section 3560) or Article 3 (commencing with Section 3570) and in foreign branches established under the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 530) of Chapter 4, shall not at any one time exceed 25 percent of the subscribing bank's shareholders' equity.

SEC 182. Chapter 23 (commencing with Section 4000) is added to Division 1 of the Financial Code, to read:

CHAPTER 23. APPROVAL OF NAMES OF NONBANK CORPORATIONS

3900. In this chapter:

(a) "Nonbank corporation" means any corporation incorporated or proposed to be incorporated under the laws of this state, other than (1) any bank or (2) any corporation incorporated or proposed to be incorporated under the laws of this state for the purpose of transacting business under Article 1 (commencing with Section 3500) of Chapter 19.

(b) "Subject name", means a name of a nonbank corporation which, as set forth, or as proposed to be set forth, in the articles of such nonbank corporation, includes "bank", "trust", "trustee", or related words.

3901. An application for a certificate of approval of the subject name of a nonbank corporation shall be in such form, shall contain such information, shall be signed in such manner, and shall (if the superintendent so requires by regulation or order) be verified in such manner, as the superintendent may by regulation or order require.

3902. The fee for filing with the superintendent an application for a certificate of approval of the subject name of a nonbank corporation shall be twenty-five dollars ($25).

3903 If the superintendent finds, with respect to an application for a certificate of approval of the subject name of a nonbank corporation, that such subject name does not indicate that such nonbank corporation is engaged in the banking or trust business, he shall issue a certificate of approval of the subject name. If the superintendent finds otherwise, he shall deny the application.

3904. Promptly after the articles of a nonbank corporation, with the certificate of approval of the subject name of such nonbank corporation attached thereto, are filed with the Secretary of State, such nonbank corporation shall file with the superintendent a copy of such articles certified by the Secretary of State.

SEC. 183. Section 31220 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31220. Notwithstanding any other law of this state, but subject to the provisions of Section 31550:

(a) Any commercial bank or trust company organized under the laws of this state may, with the prior approval of the superintendent, acquire and hold securities issued by a licensee; provided, however, that the aggregate amount of securities issued by licensees which are held by such commercial bank or trust company shall not at any time exceed 2½ percent of the shareholders' equity of such commercial bank or trust company. This subdivision shall not apply to any loan or other extension of credit made by a commercial bank organized under the laws of this state to a licensee in acccordance with the Banking Law (Division 1 (commencing with Section 99)).

(b) Any savings and loan association organized under the laws of this state may, with the prior approval of the Savings and Loan Commissioner, acquire and hold securities issued by a licensee; provided, however, that the aggregate amount of securities issued by licensees which are held by such savings and loan association shall not at any time exceed ½ percent of the total outstanding loans of such savings and loan association.

(c) Any insurance company admitted to transact insurance business in this state may, with the approval of the Insurance Commissioner, acquire and hold securities issued by a licensee; provided, however, that the aggregate amount of securities issued by licensees which are held by such insurance company shall not at any time exceed 2½ percent of the unassigned surplus of such insurance company.

(d) Any public utility licensed or regulated by the Public Utilities Commission may, with the approval of the Public Utilities Commission, acquire and hold securities issued by a licensee; provided, however, that the aggregate amount of securities issued by licensees which are held by such public utility company shall not at any time exceed ½ percent of the total assets of such public utility company.

SEC. 184. Section 31951 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31951. Except as otherwise provided in Sections 31004 and 31952, the provisions of the General Corporation Law (Division 1 (commencing with Section 100), Title 1 of the Corporations Code) shall, on and after the effective date of this division, apply to each old corporation; provided, however, that, for purposes of the provisions of Chapter 23 (commencing with Section 2300) of the General Corporation Law, with respect to each old corporation:

(a) The term "effective date" shall mean the effective date of this division.

(b) The term "prior law" shall mean the old law.

(c) Each old corporation shall be deemed to be a corporation referred to in Section 162 of the Corporations Code.

69592. In the County of Riverside there shall be 16 judges of the superior court.

SEC. 2. Section 74143.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

74143.1. In the Three Lakes Judicial District the clerk may appoint the traffic referee-assistant clerk appointed pursuant to Section 74141 to also serve as the traffic referee-assistant clerk in the Three Lakes Judicial District. Upon such appointment, one-fifth of the traffic referee-assistant clerk's salary and benefits shall be apportioned to the Three Lakes Judicial District and four-fifths of such salary and benefits to the Mt. San Jacinto Judicial District.

SEC. 3. The sum of ninety thousand dollars ($90,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Controller for allocation and disbursement to local agencies or school districts pursuant to Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code to reimburse such agencies for costs incurred on or after January 1, 1979, by them pursuant to this act.

CHAPTER 970

An act to amend and renumber Section 6460.1 of, to add Section 6460.1 to, and to add Chapter 14.5 (commencing with Section 5330) to Division 7 of, the Streets and Highways Code, relating to the Improvement Act of 1911, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 14.5 (commencing with Section 5330) is added to Division 7 of the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

CHAPTER 14.5. ASSESSMENTS OF INDIAN-OWNED PROPERTY

5330. Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, the provisions of this chapter shall apply to, and govern the assessment of, Indian-owned property.

5331. As used in this chapter, "Indian-owned property" means any tax exempt trust property to which an American Indian has rights as determined by federal laws, as administered by the Bureau of Indian Affairs of the Department of Interior.

5332. Whenever Indian-owned property is leased, and a possessory interest is created thereby, the leasehold interest may be subject to assessment in proceedings conducted under this division. In such instances, the city shall first obtain the written consent of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, the owner of the underlying fee, and any owner of an existing prior recorded possessory interest in the property.

5333. Any such assessment shall be secured by an assignment to the city of the possessory interest which shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the real property is located.

5334. When bonds are to be issued to represent unpaid assessments against a possessory interest created by a lease in Indian-owned property, the term of the lease remaining at the time of issuance shall exceed, by at least 15 years, the term of the bonds issued.

If bonds are to be issued to represent assessments against such a possessory interest, the legislative body shall so declare in the resolution of intention.

5335. All notices required by this division to be given to the owner of property subject to an assessment, shall be given to the fee owner, the owner of an existing prior recorded possessory interest, and the assignor of the possessory interest created by a lease. The notices shall refer to the possessory interest against which the assessment is made.

Where the provisions of this division otherwise require any notice or documents to refer to the property subject to assessment, the notice or document shall refer instead to the possessory interest and shall contain a legal description of the possessory interest created by the lease on such property. If the legal description of the possessory interest describes an area less than the entire property ownership, the notice or document shall also contain a reference to the record of the acquisition instrument to the entire parcel from which the possessory interest was created.

SEC. 2. Section 6460.1 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended and renumbered to read:

6460.5. The bond shall be manually signed by the treasurer of the city or county, except that a facsimile signature may be reproduced thereon whenever the treasurer is authorized by law to have a deputy, in which event such bond may be manually signed or countersigned on behalf of the treasurer by any deputy who has been authorized by the treasurer in writing to countersign.

A facsimile signature of the treasurer is one that is printed, lithographed, engraved, stamped, or otherwise mechanically reproduced.

A facsimile signature of the treasurer may be reproduced upon the coupons without reproducing the signature of the deputy.

SEC. 3. Section 6460.1 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

6460.1. Bonds issued pursuant to Chapter 14.5 (commencing with Section 5330) to represent an assessment against a possessory interest created by a lease in Indian-owned property shall be substantially in the following form:

STREET IMPROVEMENT BOND

Series (designating it), in the City (or County) of (naming it)
$_____ No._____

Under and by virtue of the Improvement Act of 1911 (Part 5 (commencing with Section 6400) of Division 7 of the Streets and Highways Code), I, out of the fund of the above-designated streets improvement bonds, series _____, will pay to _____ or order, the sum of _____ dollars ($_____) with interest at the rate of _____ percent per annum, all as specified herein, and at the office of the Treasurer of the _____ of _____, State of California.

This bond is issued to represent the cost of certain street work upon _____, in the _____ of _____, as the work is more fully described in assessment number _____ issued by the street superintendent of the _____, after the acceptance of the work, and recorded in his office. Its amount is the amount assessed in the assessment against the possessory interest created by a lease in the lot or parcel of land numbered therein, and in the diagram attached thereto, as number _____, and which now remains unpaid, and is secured by the assignment of a possessory interest, as it is described herein and in the recorded assessment with its diagram, to wit: the lot or parcel of land in the _____ of _____, County of _____, State of California.

This bond is payable exclusively from the fund, and neither the (insert here the city or county) nor any officer thereof is to be holden for payment otherwise of its principal or interest. The term of this bond is _____ years from the second day of January next succeeding the next September 1st following its date and, at the expiration of that time, the whole sum then unpaid shall be due and payable. On the second day of January of each year, following the next September 1st after its date, an even annual proportion of its whole amount is due and payable, upon presentation of the coupon therefor, until the whole is paid, with all accrued interest at the rate of _____ percent per annum.

The interest is payable semiannually on the second days of January and of July in each year hereafter, upon presentation of the coupons therefor, hereto attached, the first of which is for the interest to the next second day of _____, and thereafter the interest coupons are for semiannual interest.

This bond may be redeemed by the owner or any person interested in any possessory interest in the lot or parcel of land described herein, in the manner provided in the Streets and Highways Code, at any time before maturity, and before commencement of proceedings for sale, upon payment to the treasurer, for the holder of this bond, of the amount then unpaid on the principal sum thereof, with interest thereon (if not previously paid) up to the next succeeding January 2nd or July 2nd, as the case may be, at the rate named in the bond, and all penalties accrued and unpaid.

Should default be made in the annual payment upon the principal, or in any payment of interest from the holder of the possessory interest, or anyone in his behalf, the holder of this bond is entitled, on or after the second day of January or July, as the case may be, following such default to declare the whole unpaid amount to be due and payable, and to have the possessory estate advertised and sold forthwith, in the manner provided by law for the sale of a lot or parcel of land pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 6500).

At the _____ of _____ this _____ day of _____, in the year one thousand nine hundred and _____.

Treasurer of the _____ of _____.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that improvements may be made at the earliest opportunity to eliminate dangers of flood in portions of the state, it is necessary that this act take immediate effect.

CHAPTER 971

CHAPTER 972

An act to amend Section 94304 of, and to repeal and add Article 7 (commencing with Section 8120) of Chapter 1 of Part 6 of Division 1 of Title 1 of the Education Code, relating to the California Occupational Information System.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 7 (commencing with Section 8120) of Chapter 1 of Part 6 of Division 1 of Title 1 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Article 7 (commencing with Section 8120) is added to Chapter 1 of Part 6 of Division 1 of Title 1 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 7. California Occupational Information System

8120. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this article to insure that all employment training and vocational education programs are planned and implemented so as to provide trainees and students with skills which will be in demand by employers at the conclusion of such training and vocational education.

8121. In creating the California Occupational Information System pursuant to this article, the Legislature finds that accurate and timely labor market information, including information relating to current and future labor supply as well as job and skill demands, is presently not available to vocational education and employment training entities to permit careful planning of programs and prudent allocation of resources. The Legislature further finds that:

(a) The educational system, state and local governments, and all entities involved in developing job skills for California youth and other unemployed and underemployed persons, will more effectively use their resources by modifying curricula and training programs if timely information is provided about current and future career skills that will be needed by employers.

(b) Accurate information regarding how many students and trainees in a labor market area are being prepared for specific job categories in relation to projected job demands will be of assistance in making vocational education and training program evaluations and decisions.

(c) Students, in making career choices, and their counselors, need information about future job demands, job duties, and other job characteristics, and the supply of students and trainees preparing to enter the various job categories.

(d) Information about future job demands and labor supply would be of substantial benefit to private industry in identifying locations where projected skill needs arising from new industrial sitings or expansions can be met.

(e) Industry has offered to provide to the state information about projected job skill needs and has formally recommended through the Job Development and Business Expansion Task Force that the state proceed with developing a comprehensive California Occupational Information System.

8122. The California Occupational Information System is hereby designated as the official state program for the production of occupational planning, administration and guidance information for use by vocational educators, education and training planners, students, and counselors.

8123. The Director of Employment Development, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, the Director of the Department of Rehabilitation, and the Chairperson of the California Employment and Training Advisory Council shall each designate a representative, and the Council for Private Postsecondary Educational Institutions in the Department of Education shall designate a proprietor of a private postsecondary institution, who shall cooperate jointly as the State Occupational Information Coordinating Committee (hereafter referred to as the SOICC) to develop and implement the California Occupational Information System. The SOICC shall consult with other potential users of the system to maximize the collection of data and the development of a uniform system that can be used to the greatest extent feasible.

8124. The Employment Development Department, in consultation with the Department of Education, the California Community Colleges, the Department of Rehabilitation, the California Employment and Training Advisory Council, the Council for Private Postsecondary Educational Institutions, and other potential users, including but not limited to the California Postsecondary Education Commission and the Division of Apprenticeship Standards in the Department of Industrial Relations, shall be responsible for the preparation of occupational employment demand information concerning job skills that employers are projected to need in the future in the various labor markets.

8125. The Department of Education and the California Community Colleges, in consultation with the other entities listed in Section 8124, and other potential users, shall be responsible for the production of uniform public and private educational supply information concerning the number of students and trainees in courses related to each job category and in each school or center.

8126. The Employment Development Department, in consultation with other entities listed in Section 8124, and other potential users, shall develop and produce, to the maximum extent feasible, socioeconomic information that is related to employment and training.

8127. The California Employment and Training Advisory Council, in consultation with other entities listed in Section 8124, and other potential users, shall be responsible for the production of federal Comprehensive Employment and Training Act training supply information concerning trainees enrolled in and completing training programs in each job category in each prime sponsor or labor market area.

8128. The Department of Rehabilitation, in consultation with the other entities listed in Section 8124, and other potential users, shall be responsible for the production of information concerning training activities and other rehabilitation data required for the California Occupational Information System.

8129. The entities listed in Section 8124 shall jointly develop and produce, to the extent feasible, other data required for the California Occupational Information System.

8130. The SOICC shall seek to maximize the dissemination and effective use of information developed pursuant to this article. The respective roles of each of the entities shall be fully set out in written agreements. Each entity is authorized to enter into agreements with each other and with any other entity for the purposes of this article. Appropriations to each entity for the purpose of administration of the California Occupational Information System under this article shall be separately identified by purpose and amount and shall not be included in appropriations to the entity for any other purpose.

8131. The information produced by the California Occupational Information System shall be used by the entities listed in Section 8124 to plan programs, curricula, staff developmental training for vocational education and training personnel; to counsel students; and for all other uses related to effectively carrying out the intent and purposes of this article. The information shall be available to students to aid them in making career choices, to operators of employment and training programs, and to other potential users to the maximum extent feasible.

8132. The Department of Rehabilitation and the California Employment and Training Advisory Council shall cooperate with the Employment Development Department, the Department of Education, and the California Community Colleges, which three entities shall report annually to the Legislature, not later than the fifth legislative day, on the progress made toward the establishment of the program and on the use by the entities listed in Section 8124 of the information provided pursuant to this article.

8133. Each entity responsible for any function or activity pursuant to this article shall seek and obtain funds or in-kind contributions to the maximum extent possible from federal and private sources, and may accept and use any such funds or in-kind contributions for the purposes of this article. Each entity shall perform the function or activity with which it is charged under this article to the maximum extent possible with the appropriations, funds and in-kind contributions made available.

8134. This article shall remain in effect only until December 31, 1982, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before December 31, 1982, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 3. Section 94304 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94304. (a) There is in the Department of Education a Council for Private Postsecondary Educational Institutions consisting of the superintendent, or his designee, and 14 additional members who shall be appointed by the superintendent, subject to the concurrence of the State Board of Education, as follows:

(1) Seven members shall be administrative heads of institutions operating under the authority of this chapter. Four such members shall be selected from institutions operating under subdivision (c) or (d) of Section 94311; one member shall be selected from an institution operating under subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 94310; and one member shall be selected from an institution operating under subdivision (c) of Section 94310. If an individual ceases to be an administrative head of an institution operating under the authority of this chapter, then the council position becomes vacant.

(2) Seven shall represent the public. Four members shall be appointed who have a strong interest in developing private postsecondary academic, vocational, technical, and professional education; two members representing the public shall be representatives of business and labor that employ substantial numbers of persons in positions requiring vocational and technical skills.

(3) In addition, the following shall serve as ex officio members of the council:

(i) The Director of the Department of Consumer Affairs, or his or her designee.

(ii) The Director of the Department of Employment Development, or his or her designee.

(iii) The Director of the California Postsecondary Education Commission, or his or her designee.

Ex officio members have no vote.

It is the intent of the Legislature that the council shall provide leadership and direction in the continuing development of private postsecondary education as an integral and effective element in the structure of postsecondary education in California. The work of the council shall at all times be directed toward maintaining and continuing, to the maximum degree permissible, private control and autonomy in the administration of the private postsecondary schools amd colleges in this state.

(b) The first members shall be appointed on or before January 15, 1973, and the superintendent shall designate the date of the first meeting of the council.

The terms of office of the members of the council shall commence on January 15, 1973, and the members shall enter upon their terms of office by lot so that the terms of four members shall expire on January 15, 1974; the terms of four members shall expire on January 15, 1975; and the terms of four members shall expire on January 15, 1976.

The terms of the members of the council shall be four years. No appointee shall serve on the council for more than eight consecutive years.

Any member of the council who misses two consecutive regular meetings of the council without cause forfeits the office, thereby creating a vacancy.

No person shall be deemed to be a member of the council until his appointment has been concurred in by the State Board of Education, which shall take action regarding such appointment at the board meeting next following the appointment.

At the first meeting of the council, and annually thereafter, the members shall select one of their number to serve as chairman and one to serve as vice chairman. The vice chairman shall preside over all meetings of the council in the absence of the chairman.

(c) Any vacancy on the council shall be filled in the same manner as provided for appointment of council members in subdivision (a). The appointee to fill a vacancy shall hold office only for the balance of the unexpired term.

(d) Appointed members of the council shall receive no compensation but shall receive their actual expenses for attendance at official council meetings, and when on official council business approved by the director, not to exceed Board of Control expense allowances.

(e) The council shall determine the time and place of council meetings which shall not be fewer than six times in each calendar year.

(f) The council shall:

(1) Advise the superintendent on the establishment of policy for the administration of this chapter.

(2) Establish a process, in cooperation with the superintendent, for the development and promulgation of rules and regulations. The process developed should not be inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter and allow for the input of consumers and institutions.

(3) Adopt procedures necessary or appropriate for the conduct of its work and the implementation of the provisions of this chapter consistent with rules and regulations.

(4) Review minimum criteria utilized by the superintendent in conformity with subdivision (b) of Section 94310 and subdivision (d) of Section 94311 and Section 94312, including quality of education, ethical and business practices, health and safety, and fiscal responsibility, which applicants for authorization to operate, or for an agent's permit, shall meet before such authorization or permit may be issued, and to continue such authorization or permit in effect. Criteria to be developed hereunder shall be such as will effectuate the purposes of this chapter but will not unreasonably hinder legitimate education innovation.

(5) In cooperation with the superintendent, prepare and submit an annual report to the California Postsecondary Education Commission to be used by the commission for the review and inclusion in the annual update of the five-year plan for postsecondary education.

(6) Review appeals and complaints from educational institutions, agents and consumers. Make recommendations to the superintendent regarding the disposition of such appeals and complaints.

(7) Represent private postsecondary educational institutions on the State Occupational Information Coordinating Committee.

(g) All actions with the exception of those regarding the operating procedures of the council shall be adopted according to the affirmative vote of the majority of the council and shall be in writing.

SEC. 4. Section 94304 of the Education Code, as amended by Section 2 of Assembly Bill No. 3744, is amended to read:

94304. (a) There is in the Department of Education a Council for Private Postsecondary Educational Institutions consisting of the superintendent, or his designee, and 14 additional members who shall be appointed by the superintendent, subject to the concurrence of the State Board of Education, as follows:

(1) Seven members shall be administrative heads of institutions operating under the authority of this chapter. Four such members shall be selected from institutions operating under subdivision (c) or (d) of Section 94311; one member shall be selected from an institution operating under subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 94310; and one member shall be selected from an institution operating under subdivision (c) of Section 94310. If an individual ceases to be an administrative head of an institution operating under the authority of this chapter, then the council position becomes vacant.

The terms of office of the two members added to the council pursuant to Chapter 1202 of the Statutes of 1977 shall expire on January 15, 1982.

The terms of the members of the council shall be four years. No appointee shall serve on the council for more than eight consecutive years.

Any member of the council who misses two consecutive regular meetings of the council without cause forfeits the office, thereby creating a vacancy.

No person shall be deemed to be a member of the council until his appointment has been concurred in by the State Board of Education, which shall take action regarding such appointment at the board meeting next following the appointment.

(7) Represent private postsecondary educational institutions on the State Occupational Information Coordinating Committee.

(g) All actions with the exception of those regarding the operating procedures of the council shall be adopted according to the affirmative vote of the majority of the council and shall be in writing.

SEC. 5. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 3744 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 94304 of the Education Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 3744, that Section 94304 of the Education Code, as amended by Section 2 of Assembly Bill No. 3744 be further amended on the operative date of this act in the form set forth in Section 4 of this act to incorporate the changes in Section 94304 proposed by this bill. Therefore, Section 4 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 3744 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 94304, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 3744, in which case Section 4 of this act shall become operative on the operative date of this act and Section 3 of this act shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 973

An act to amend Sections 5091 and 5342 of the Education Code, relating to school elections.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5091 of the Education Code is amended to read:

5091. (a) Whenever a vacancy occurs, or whenever a resignation has been filed with the county superintendent of schools containing a deferred effective date, the school district or community college district governing board shall, within 30 days of the vacancy or the filing of the deferred resignation, either order an election or make a provisional appointment to fill the vacancy. A governing board member may not defer the effective date of his or her resignation for more than 30 days after he or she files the resignation with the county superintendent of schools.

In the event that a governing board fails to make a provisional appointment or order an election within the prescribed 30-day period as required by this section, the county superintendent of schools shall call an election to fill the vacancy.

(b) When an election is ordered, it shall be held on the next established election date provided pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 2500) of Division 4 of the Elections Code not less than 98 days after the occurrence of the vacancy or after the written resignation is filed with the county superintendent of schools.

(c) If a provisional appointment is made within the 30-day period, the registered voters of the district may, within 30 days from the date of the appointment, petition for the conduct of a special election to fill the vacancy. A petition shall be deemed to bear a sufficient number of signatures if signed by at least the appropriate percentage of registered voters of the district who voted in the last regular election for governing board members, as follows:

(1) In districts in which less than 75,000 voters voted 5 percent of the number of such voters.

(2) In districts in which 75,000 or more, but less than 200,000, voters voted 3,750 plus 2½ percent of the number, over 75,000, of such voters.

(3) In districts in which 200,000 or more voted 6,875 plus 1 percent of the number, over 200,000, of such voters.

The petition shall be submitted to the county superintendent of schools having jurisdiction who shall have 30 days to verify the signatures. If the petition is determined to be legally sufficient by the county superintendent of schools, the provisional appointment is terminated, and the county superintendent of schools shall call a special election to be conducted no later than the 120th day after the determination.

(d) A provisional appointment made pursuant to subdivision (a) confers no powers or duties of a governing board member upon the appointee during the 30-day period following his appointment and within which a petition calling for special election may be filed. If a petition is not filed within the 30-day period, the appointee shall thereafter have all the powers and perform all the duties of a governing board member.

(e) A person appointed to fill a vacancy shall hold office only until the next regularly scheduled election for district governing board members, whereupon an election shall be held to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the unexpired term. A person elected at an election to fill the vacancy shall hold office for the remainder of the term in which the vacancy occurs or will occur.

(f) Whenever a petition calling for a special election is circulated, the petition shall contain the clerk's estimate of the cost of conducting the special election.

(g) Elections held pursuant to subdivisions (b) and (c) shall be conducted in as nearly the same manner as practicable as other governing board member elections.

SEC. 2. Section 5342 of the Education Code is amended to read:

5342. Whenever any school district election or community college district election is scheduled to be held on the same day, in the same territory, or in territory that is in part the same, as an election or elections called to be held by any other district, city, county or other political subdivision, the district election may be either completely or partially consolidated with such election or elections pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 23300) of Part 2 of Division 14 of the Elections Code.

Such consolidation may be effected by the officer conducting the election upon receipt of resolutions from two or more political subdivisions calling elections to be held on the same day whose boundaries are totally or partially the same territory; provided such resolutions are delivered to the officer conducting the election at least 74 days prior to the date of the election.

CHAPTER 974

An act to amend Sections 1806, 16072, and 16075 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1806 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

1806. The department shall file all accident reports and abstracts of court records of convictions received under this code, and in connection therewith, shall maintain convenient records or make suitable notations in order that an individual record of each license showing the convictions of the licensee and the traffic accidents for which he was cited for a violation under this code are readily ascertainable. At its discretion the department may file and maintain these accident reports and abstracts by electronic recording and storage media and after transcribing electronically all available data from the accident reports and abstracts of conviction may destroy the original documents. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the recorded facts from any electronic recording and storage device maintained by the department shall constitute evidence of such facts in any administrative actions instituted by the department.

SEC. 2. Section 16072 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

16072. The suspension of the driving privilege as provided in Section 16070 shall not be terminated until three years have elapsed from the date of the accident or until such person files and thereafer maintains proof of ability to respond in damages pursuant to Section 16022.

SEC. 3. Section 16075 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

16075. (a) The suspension provisions of this article shall not apply to a driver or owner until 20 days after the department sends to the driver or owner notice of its intent to suspend his driving privilege and advises the driver or owner of his right to a hearing as hereinafter provided.

(b) The department shall conduct the hearing upon written demand of the driver or owner, within 60 days of such demand, to determine the applicability of this chapter to such driver or owner, including a determination of whether:

(1) The accident has resulted in property damage of less than two hundred fifty dollars ($250), or bodily injury, or death.

(2) The driver or owner has established financial responsibility, as provided in Article 3 (commencing with Section 16050) of this chapter, was in effect at the time of the accident.

(c) The demand for the hearing shall be in writing. The application for hearing made by the affected person within 20 days of receiving notice of the department's action shall operate to stay the suspension by the department from the date of such demand until the hearing is completed and a decision has been made.

(d) The hearing provided for by this section shall be held in the county of residence of the person requesting the hearing. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 14100) of Chapter 3 of Division 6.

SEC 4. Section 16075 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read.

16075. (a) The suspension provisions of this article shall not apply to a driver or owner until 20 days after the department sends to the driver or owner notice of its intent to suspend his driving privilege and advises the driver or owner of his right to a hearing as hereinafter provided.

(b) The department shall conduct the hearing upon written demand of the driver or owner, within 60 days of such demand, to determine the applicability of this chapter to such driver or owner, including a determination of whether:

(1) The accident has resulted in property damage of less than three hundred fifty dollars ($350), or bodily injury, or death.

(2) The driver or owner has established financial responsibility, as provided in Article 3 (commencing with Section 16050) of this chapter, was in effect at the time of the accident.

(c) The demand for the hearing shall be in writing. The application for hearing made by the affected person within 20 days of receiving notice of the department's action shall operate to stay the suspension by the department from the date of such demand until the hearing is complete and the decision made.

(d) The hearing provided for by this section shall be held in the county of residence of the person requesting the hearing. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 14100) of Chapter 3 of Division 6.

SEC. 5. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1446 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 16075 of the Vehicle Code and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1446, that the amendments to Section 16075 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 16075 in the form set forth in Section 4 of this act. Therefore, Section 4 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1446 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both amend Section 16075, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1446, in which case Section 3 of this act shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 975

An act to add Sections 94342, 94343, 94343.5, and 94344 to the Education Code, relating to private educational institutions, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds that continuing and recent consumer interest exists with respect to the responsibility of the Department of Education to insure that students enrolled in privately supported postsecondary educational institutions do not incur financial loss due to the closure or business failure of an authorized or approved private educational institution. Under Chapter 1202 of the Statutes of 1977, there are provisions which set forth criteria regarding the operation of private postsecondary educational institutions. Specifically, Section 94312 of the Education Code provides certain minimum standards for the protection of some consumer interests; however, no specific provision exists to financially protect students in the case of an institution's business failure. After substantial review and study of this matter, the Legislature hereby declares its intent that the Department of Education, as a part of its increasing active consumer protection responsibilities, provide for a state supported tuition indemnification system for students enrolled in private postsecondary educational institutions. Further, the Legislature encourages those institutions to assist students to complete their education through alternatives, such as "teach outs," in the event of a midterm school closure or business failure.

SEC. 2. Section 94342 is added to the Education Code, to read:

94342. The superintendent shall establish and maintain a Student Tuition Recovery Fund for the purpose of relieving or mitigating pecuniary losses suffered by any California resident who is a student of an approved or authorized postsecondary educational institution which charges prepaid tuition, as a result of such institution ceasing its operation for any reason. The Council for Private Postsecondary Educational Institutions acting in its established capacity and relationship may offer advice with regard to the administration of this section.

Payments from the fund to any student shall be at the discretion of the superintendent and shall be subject to such regulations and conditions as the superintendent shall prescribe. The provisions of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code shall be applicable to any determination of the superintendent made pursuant to this section.

SEC. 3. Section 94343 is added to the Education Code, to read:

94343. Commencing January 1, 1979, the superintendent may annually assess institutions authorized, or approved, under this chapter, who charge and collect prepaid tuition. Each such institution shall be assessed a charge of one-tenth of 1 percent, maximum charge not to exceed two dollars ($2), of tuition paid by each student enrolled during each fiscal, calendar, or school year, in such institutions. Said assessments shall be paid into the State Treasury and credited to the Student Tuition Recovery Fund, and said deposits shall be allocated, except as otherwise provided for in this act, solely for the payment of valid claims to students. In no event shall assessments be levied if, on June 30 of any year, the balance in the fund exceeds seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000); provided that, regardless of the balance in the fund, assessments shall be made on any newly approved or authorized institution. The moneys so deposited in the Student Tuition Recovery Fund are continuously appropriated to the Department of Education for the purpose of paying claims to students pursuant to Section 94342. Not more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) per fiscal year shall be used for the administration of the tuition recovery program authorized by Section 94342 and this section. The interest earned on money in the fund shall be credited to the fund. Institutions which are accredited by a regional accrediting association recognized by the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, or which meet the student tuition indemnification requirements of a California state agency, or which demonstrate to the superintendent that an acceptable alternative method of protecting their students against loss of prepaid tuition has been established, shall be exempted from the provisions of this section.

In the event of a closure by any institution authorized, or approved under this chapter, any assessments which have been made against such institutions, but have not been paid into the State Treasury, shall be recovered by appropriate action taken by the Superintendent of Public Instruction. The moneys so deposited in the Student Tuition Recovery Fund shall be exempt from execution and shall not be the subject of litigation or liability on the part of creditors of such institutions or students.

SEC. 3.5. Section 94343.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

94343.5. Students enrolling in institutions which come under provisions of Sections 94342 and 94343, shall disclose in writing, if applicable, the source of any and all guaranteed or insured loans granted for the purposes of paying tuition to such institution. In the event of a closure of any such institution, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall provide any lending institution which is the source of any guaranteed or insured student loan with the names of students maintaining loans with any such lending institution.

SEC. 4. Section 94344 is added to the Education Code, to read:

94344. The superintendent with the advice of the Council for Private Postsecondary Educational Institutions, shall adopt rules and regulations necessary to implement Sections 94342 and 94343.

CHAPTER 976

An act to add Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 175) to Division 1 of the Labor Code, relating to liquefied petroleum gas.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 175) is added to Division 1 of the Labor Code, to read:

CHAPTER 7.5. DIVISION OF OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH ADMINISTRATION

175. The Division of Occupational Safety and Health Administration shall be the lead agency in providing for public health and safety as well as worker health and safety in the construction, maintenance, and operation of any liquefied petroleum gas storage facility, other than a facility owned or maintained by a public utility, having a capacity of 100,000 barrels or more, including storage vessels, and related piping, pumping, distribution, and transfer apparatus. As the lead agency, the division shall request any state or local agency having statutory public health and safety jurisdiction over any part of the construction, maintenance, or operation of any such liquefied petroleum gas storage facility, other than a facility owned or maintained by a public utility, to exercise its statutory jurisdiction in relation to such facility, and shall report to the Legislature any instance in which such jurisdiction was not exercised.

CHAPTER 977

An act making an appropriation for the state park system.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 5098.2 of the Public Resources Code, the sum of one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) is hereby appropriated from the Park and Recreation Revolving Account in the General Fund to the Department of Parks and Recreation for expenditure, without regard to fiscal years, for planning and for working drawings of a visitors' center, biking and hiking trails, and other facilities and extension of utilities at the San Pasqual Battlefield State Historic Park; provided, that such funds shall not be encumbered unless and until the Department of Parks and Recreation approves the lease of additional lands from the City of San Diego to the state for the state historic park.

CHAPTER 978

An act making an appropriation for the state park system.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 5098.2 of the Public Resources Code, the sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) is hereby appropriated from the Park and Recreation Revolving Account in the General Fund to the Department of Parks and Recreation for expenditure, without regard to fiscal years, for planning and preliminary site preparation for an interpretive center, museum, and related facilities in connection with the Poppy Preserve Project.

CHAPTER 979

An act making an appropriation for cooperative salmon and steelhead rearing facilities.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) is hereby appropriated from the Wildlife Restoration Fund to the Department of Fish and Game for the purpose of funding cooperative agreements for management and operation of rearing facilities for salmon and steelhead made pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 1200) of Chapter 3 of Division 2 of the Fish and Game Code.

CHAPTER 980

An act to amend Section 8016 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to shorthand reporters.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8016 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8016. No person shall engage in the practice of shorthand reporting as defined in this chapter, unless such person is the holder of a certificate in full force and effect issued by the board. This section does not apply to a salaried, full-time employee of a district attorney or of any department or agency of the state who is employed as a hearing reporter. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit the employment of any shorthand reporter not holding a certificate until a certified shorthand reporter is available. Oral depositions may be reported by a person not certified under this chapter only upon stipulation on the record, at the commencement of the deposition, by the parties or their counsel present at the deposition.

CHAPTER 981

An act to add and repeal Section 72246.5 of the Education Code, relating to community colleges, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 72246.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

72246.5. The governing board of any community college district may require community college students to secure medical insurance coverage as a prerequisite to enrollment and participation in courses involving hazardous activities, and may require such students to sign a statement waiving all claims against the community college district or the State of California for any injury, accident, illness, or death arising out of ordinary negligence and caused by participation in community college courses defined as hazardous. A student shall not be precluded from enrolling and participating in any course if the cost to the student of obtaining medical insurance exceeds four dollars ($4) per semester.

The Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges shall adopt regulations within 90 days after the operative date of this section for the effective implementation of this section.

The Chancellor of the California Community Colleges shall conduct a study concerning the extent of problems incidental to obtaining student medical insurance coverage for hazardous courses, and assessing the impact of this section. The Chancellor shall, within one year of the effective date of this section, submit to the Legislature a report on the results of such study.

This section shall remain in effect only until one year after the effective date thereof, and as of such time is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered prior to such time deletes or extends the time of such repeal.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that community colleges may have the opportunity to continue to provide courses that involve hazardous activities and yet keep the taxpayers' expense for such courses at a minimum, commencing with the 1978–79 school year, it is essential that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 982

An act to amend Sections 25915, 25921, and 25926 of, and to add Section 25921.1 to, the Public Resources Code, relating to energy, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25915 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25915. (a) "Approved testing lab" means any testing facility which is determined by rule and regulation of the commission to have adequate personnel, facilities, equipment, and expertise to carry out the testing of such systems. Testing of insulation material by the manufacturer in his own approved testing lab or in an approved independent testing lab under contract to the manufacturer may be utilized in the initial certification process and the continued maintenance of such certifications.

(b) "Insulation material" means any material placed within or contiguous to a wall, ceiling, or floor of a room or building, or contiguous to the surface of any appliance or its intake or outtake mechanism, for the purpose of reducing heat transfer and thus the electrical or gas energy requirements for heating or cooling the building or operating the appliance, or reducing adverse temperature fluctuations of the building, room, or appliance.

(c) "R-value" means a measure of thermal resistance of material or composite materials. "R-value" as used here is equal to the reciprocal of the conductance of a given material, or where the conductance of the material is: Btu (hour × square foot × Fahrenheit degree average temperature difference between two surfaces).

(d) "Quality assurance program" means a system of procedures employed at the place of manufacture of insulation material designed to assure that insulation material produced at that place continues to meet the standards established by the commission pursuant to this chapter. Such program shall include, without limitation, regular periodic testing by an approved testing lab.

SEC. 2. Section 25921 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25921. One hundred and eighty days after the date of adoption of such standards and testing criteria insulation material may only be sold or installed in the state which has been certified by the manufacturer to have been tested in accordance with such standards and which bears a visible commission-approved statement by the manufacturer certifying that the insulation material meets such standards and has been tested and approved by an approved testing laboratory. Such testing criteria shall be designed to determine whether insulation materials have met or exceeded minimum established standards.

SEC. 3. Section 25921.1 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

25921.1. Within 180 days after the date of adoption of such standards, each manufacturer of insulation material shall develop and implement a quality assurance program. Each manufacturer shall keep a record of any testing performed pursuant to such program for a period of three years after it is performed.

SEC. 4. Section 25926 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25926. After one hundred and eighty days following the adoption of these standards, the commission may monitor compliance with its standards by conducting periodic inspections with its own personnel, or by requiring inspections conducted by an approved independent third party laboratory, of manufacturers, distributors, or retailers of insulation material sold within the state in order to determine their compliance with this article. The commission may require those manufacturers, distributors, or retailers that are inspected and found not in compliance with this article, or any regulation implementing it, to pay such reasonable fees as are necessary to cover the costs of inspections and testing necessary to investigate and enforce compliance by those manufacturers, distributors, and retailers. The commission may also conduct, or contract with approved independent third party laboratories to conduct, independent performance tests of insulation materials sold in the state, in order to determine compliance with its adopted standards.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to allow insulation material standards to be implemented this year for the protection of insulation material consumers, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 983

An act to amend Section 2 of Chapter 297 of the Statutes of 1976, relating to genetic diseases, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that the state's policy to detect sickle cell anemia as early as possible requires that the public screening of normal and asymptomatic individuals be carried out in a manner which provides the maximum positive benefits to such individuals, and limits as much as possible stigmatization and breaches of individual rights to privacy.

SEC. 2. The sum of one hundred seventy thousand three hundred fifty-five dollars ($170,355) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Department of Health Services for the purpose of implementing regulations adopted pursuant to the provisions of Section 325 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of Chapter 297 of the Statutes of 1976, is amended to read:

Sec. 2. The sum of four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Department of Health Services for expenditure pursuant to grants or contracts with facilities having research experience for programs by such facilities for basic research on lupus erythematosus. The State Department of Health Services may enter into such grants or contracts.

Such grants or contracts are to be approved and such programs are to be monitored by a committee composed of a person appointed by the Secretary of the Health and Welfare Agency, a person appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly, and a person appointed by the President pro Tempore of the Senate.

With regards to grants, the State Department of Health Services shall comply with advance payment schedules adopted by the committee, provided that the research is being performed at a campus site of the University of California. The payment schedule shall not be more frequently than quarterly, and payments shall be spread out equally over the term of the project. The first payment shall coincide with the actual commencement of the research project and the department shall have at least a 30-day notice before the first payment shall be required to be made.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that the State Department of Health Services may implement the sickle cell testing regulations at the earliest possible date and hire the personnel to monitor the program to assure fulfillment of the criteria, and in order that greater precautions for lupus erythematosus research are provided at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take immediate effect.

CHAPTER 984

An act to add Chapter 3.7 (commencing with Section 50540) to Part 2 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to mobilehome parks.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 3.7 (commencing with Section 50540) is added to Part 2 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 3.7. MOBILEHOME PARKS FOR SENIOR CITIZENS DEMONSTRATION PROJECT

50540. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that mobilehomes provide a significant source of home ownership for elderly persons of low income but that the costs of mobilehome park development and construction, the costs of financing such parks, and the low vacancy rates in existing mobilehome parks increasingly render mobilehome living unaffordable to those elderly most in need of affordable housing.

(b) The Legislature finds and declares that state government can play an important role in meeting the problems which confront elderly mobilehome park residents through financing the development of demonstration mobilehome parks which reduce the costs of mobilehome living. It is the intent of the Legislature, in enacting this chapter, to establish a demonstration program which provides state financing and is designed to reduce rental space charges, to allow mobilehome park residents to own their own mobilehome park, and to encourage and assist the efforts of private and public entities seeking to assist the development of mobilehome parks for elderly persons of low income.

50541. For the purposes of this chapter:

(a) "Mobilehome park" means a "mobilehome park" as defined by Section 18214.

(b) "Mobilehome" means any housing unit, construction of which is subject to the provisions of Part 2 (commencing with Section 18000) of Division 13.

(c) "Nonprofit corporation" means a corporation incorporated pursuant to Part 1 (commencing with Section 9000) of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code or a cooperative housing corporation which is a "cooperative corporation," as defined by Section 12201 of the Corporations Code, and which is also a "stock cooperative," as defined by Section 11003.2 of the Business and Professions Code.

50542. The department shall select and make loans to one local governmental agency and one nonprofit corporation for the development and construction of mobilehome parks to be occupied by elderly persons of low income. Funds loaned pursuant to this section may be used for site acquisition and development, predevelopment costs provided for by Section 50515, and any other costs associated with the development of such mobilehome parks. Loan funds may be used for the construction of necessary support, recreational, and community facilities. Loan funds may not be used for the acquisition and installation of mobilehomes.

50543. The local governmental agency and nonprofit corporation receiving loans pursuant to Section 50542 shall repay to the General Fund the full amount of such loans over a period not to exceed 40 years and pursuant to a repayment and installment schedule established by the department. The loans shall not bear interest.

50544. With respect to the mobilehome park owned by a local governmental agency and financed pursuant to this chapter, the department shall fix and may alter, from time to time, a schedule of rents for mobilehome spaces as may be necessary to meet the repayment schedule established by the department pursuant to Section 50543 and to provide mobilehome park residents with affordable rents to the extent consistent with the maintenance of the financial integrity of the mobilehome park and with the requirements for repayment established by the department. The local governmental agency may not alter such rent without the prior permission of the department which shall be given only if such an alteration is necessary to avoid jeopardizing the financial integrity of the mobilehome park.

50545. With respect to the mobilehome park owned by a nonprofit corporation and financed pursuant to this chapter, the department shall establish the amount of the initial membership payment and shall fix the amount of monthly carrying charges in such a manner as may be necessary to meet the repayment schedule established by the department pursuant to Section 50543 and to provide the mobilehome park residents with affordable monthly carrying charges to the extent consistent with the maintenance of the financial integrity of the mobilehome park and with the requirements for repayment established by the department. The nonprofit corporation may not alter monthly carrying charges without the prior permission of the department which shall be given only if such an alteration is necessary to avoid jeopardizing the financial integrity of the mobilehome park.

50546. Within two years of the completion of the mobilehome parks financed pursuant to this chapter and, in any event, no later than January 1, 1983, the department shall undertake an evaluation of such mobilehome parks to determine the feasibility and desirability of establishing a more comprehensive program of state financing for mobilehome park development. The department shall submit a report with its recommendations to the Legislature no later than March 1, 1983. Such report shall also include an examination of rental and carrying charges; the affordability of such charges to residents; the average income of residents and the distribution of income among such residents; data, if any, on delinquencies in repayment; and the costs of development and recommendations on ways in which such costs can be reduced.

50547. The department shall attempt to secure funding from an agency or agencies of the United States for the purposes of, and in an amount sufficient to, make the loans and defray costs of administering the loan program specified in this chapter. The department shall not undertake any other activities under this chapter until such time as, and to the extent that, federal funding is available therefor.

CHAPTER 985

An act to amend Section 7090.5 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to contractors.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7090.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7090.5. In the event a licensee commits a fraudulent act which is a ground for disciplinary action under Section 7116 of this article, the correction of any condition resulting from such act shall not in and of itself preclude the registrar from taking disciplinary action under this article.

If the registrar finds a licensee has engaged in repeated acts which would be grounds for disciplinary action under this article, and if by correction of conditions resulting from those acts the licensee avoided disciplinary action as to each individual act, the correction of those conditions shall not in and of itself preclude the registrar from taking disciplinary action under this article.

CHAPTER 986

An act relating to school buildings, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The governing board of a school district which has leased facilities for a continuation high school under a lease which terminates in 1978 and which has not completed construction of new facilities, or been able to acquire other adequate facilities to lease or buy, may continue to use such facilities until October 1, 1979, or until suitable replacement facilities are obtained and such lease is terminated, whichever occurs first. During such period of extended use, such leased facilities shall not be subject to Article 3 (commencing with Section 39140) or Article 6 (commencing with Section 39210) of Chapter 2 of Part 23 of the Education Code.

This section shall apply only to a high school district which had an average daily attendance of less than 22,000 in the 1977–78 fiscal year and which, during the 1978 calendar year and prior to the effective date of this act, has been unable to obtain replacement facilities for use following expiration of the original term of the lease and will be unable, because of a decline in revenue for fiscal year 1978–79, to construct suitable replacement facilities prior to October 1, 1979.

This section shall remain in effect until October 1, 1979, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to permit the use of highly functional facilities to continue for a continuation high school until new facilities can be located or constructed, thus avoiding harm to presently functioning successful programs and their student participants, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 987

An act making an appropriation for the state park system, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Of the unencumbered balance of moneys reappropriated from the Bagley Conservation Fund by subdivision (d) of Section 1 of Chapter 1521 of the Statutes of 1974, the sum of one hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($175,000), or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby reappropriated to the Department of Parks and Recreation for expenditure, without regard to fiscal years, for the acquisition of the following described lands adjacent to the Marshall Gold Discovery State Historic Park as an addition to the state historic park:

(a) Property identified by the El Dorado County Assessor as parcel #06-281-04, containing six acres, more or less.

(b) Property identified by the El Dorado County Assessor as parcel #06-281-03, containing 5.33 acres, more or less.

SEC. 2. None of the funds appropriated for acquisition of parklands by this act may be encumbered for the purchase of real property until the State Public Works Board has determined that the procedures and criteria established by the Attorney General relating to implied dedication and public prescriptive rights or claims have been complied with in the investigations and appraisals of the Department of General Services. All material relating to implied dedication and public prescriptive rights or claims shall be retained in the files of the Department of General Services and shall be available for postaudit on a selective basis by the Attorney General.

SEC. 3. The acquisitions authorized by this act shall be made pursuant to the Property Acquisition Law (commencing with Section 15850 of the Government Code).

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that the state may acquire and preserve lands of significant environmental and recreational value, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 988

An act to amend the heading of Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 19600) of Part 11 of, and Section 19600 of, and to add Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 19670) to Chapter 9 of Part 11 of the Education Code, relating to unincorporated towns or villages.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The heading of Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 19600) of Part 11 of the Education Code is amended to read:

CHAPTER 9. LIBRARY DISTRICTS AND MUSEUMS IN UNINCORPORATED TOWNS AND VILLAGES

SEC. 2. Section 19600 of the Education Code is amended to read:

19600. Any unincorporated town or village of this state may establish, equip, and maintain a public library for the dissemination of knowledge of the arts, sciences, and general literature, in accordance with this chapter. Any unincorporated town or village of this state may also establish, equip, and maintain a public museum in accordance with this chapter.

SEC. 3. Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 19670) of Chapter 9 of Part 11 is added to the Education Code, to read:

Article 2.5. Museums

19670. The board of library trustees may vote to establish a public museum in the library district and to constitute the board of library trustees as the board of museum trustees for the purposes of managing such museum in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

19671. The board of museum trustees shall meet at least once a month, at such time and place as it may fix by resolution.

19672. Special meetings may be called at any time by three trustees, by written notices served upon each member at least 12 hours before the time specified for the meeting.

19673. Three members constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

19674. At its first meeting held after being constituted, the board shall organize by electing one of its number president, and another one of its number secretary. They shall serve as such for one year or until their successors are elected and qualified.

19675. The board shall cause a proper record of its proceedings to be kept, and at the first meeting of the board of trustees, it shall immediately cause to be made out and filed with the Department of Education at Sacramento a certificate showing that the museum has been established, with the date thereof, the names of the trustees, and the officers of the board chosen for the current fiscal year.

19676. The board of museum trustees shall make and enforce all rules, regulations, and bylaws necessary for the administration, government, and protection of the museum under its management, and all property belonging to it.

19677. The board of museum trustees shall administer any trust declared or created for the museum, and receive by gift, devise, or bequest, and hold in trust or otherwise, property situated in this state or elsewhere, and where not otherwise provided, dispose of the property for the benefit of the museum.

Any funds from private sources which are used for the support of any public museum established pursuant to this chapter shall be deposited in a special fund in the county treasury of the county in which the public museum is located. Such fund shall be under the control of and administered by the board of museum trustees.

19678. The board of museum trustees shall prescribe the duties and powers of the curator, secretary, and other officers and employees of the museum, determine the number of and appoint all officers and employees, and fix their compensation. The officers and employees shall hold their offices and positions at the pleasure of the board.

19679. The board of museum trustees shall purchase necessary objects of artistic, scientific, or historical interest, and other personal property.

19680. The board of museum trustees shall also purchase such real property, and erect or rent and equip, such building or rooms, as in its judgment is necessary to properly carry out the provisions of this chapter.

19681. The board of museum trustees shall do and perform any and all other acts and things necessary or proper to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

19682. The board of museum trustees shall designate the hours during which the museum is open for the use of the public. All public museums established under this chapter shall be open for the use of the public during every day in the year except on legal holidays as may be determined by the board of museum trustees.

19683. In any library district formed under the provisions of this chapter, which maintains a public museum, in accordance with this chapter, the board of museum trustees shall furnish to the board of supervisors of the county in which the library district is situated, each and every year, on or before the first day of September, an estimate of the cost of any or all of the following:

(a) Leasing temporary quarters.

(b) Purchasing a suitable lot.

(c) Procuring plans and specifications and erecting a suitable building.

(d) Furnishing and equipping the building and fencing and ornamenting the grounds, for the accommodation of the public museum.

(e) Conducting and maintaining the museum for the ensuing fiscal year.

19684. The title to all property acquired for the purposes of the museum, when not inconsistent with the terms of its acquisition, or not otherwise designated, vests in the district in which museums are, or are to be situated.

19685. It is the intent of the Legislature that public museums established pursuant to this chapter shall be funded primarily by private funds. The board of supervisors of the county in which such a public museum is located is authorized, but not required, to allocate county funds for the support of such museum.

CHAPTER 989

An act to amend Sections 33080, 33080.1, and 37912 of, and to add Section 33080.3 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to housing, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 33080 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

33080. Every agency shall file with the department, within six months of the end of the agency's fiscal year, a copy of the report required by Section 38080.1.

SEC. 1.5. Section 33080.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

33080.1. Every redevelopment agency shall present a report to its legislative body within six months of the end of the agency's fiscal year. The report shall contain all of the following:

(a) An independent financial audit report for the previous fiscal year. "Audit report" means an examination of, and opinion on, the financial statements of the agency which present the results of the operations and financial position of the agency. Such audit shall be conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and the rules governing audit reports promulgated by the State Board of Accountancy. The audit report shall also include an opinion of the agency's compliance with laws, regulations and administrative requirements governing activities of the agency.

(b) A work program for the coming year, including goals.

(c) An examination of the previous year's achievements and a comparison of the achievements with the goals of the previous year's work program, and

(d) Recommendations for needed legislation to carry on properly a program of housing and community development in California.

SEC. 1.7. Section 33080.3 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

33080.3. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 33080 or 33080.1, that portion of the report required by subdivision (a) of Section 33080.1 for the 1977–78 fiscal year which includes an opinion of the agency's compliance with laws, regulations and administrative requirements governing activities of the agency, and that portion required by subsections (b), (c) and (d) of Section 33080.1 for the fiscal year 1977–78, shall be filed with the department and presented to the agency's legislative body on or before March 1, 1979.

SEC. 2. Section 37912 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

37912. Unless the context otherwise requires, the following definitions shall govern the construction of this part:

(a) "Bonds" means any bonds, notes, interim certificates, debentures, or other obligations issued by a local agency pursuant to this part and which are payable exclusively from the revenues, as defined in subdivision (k), and from any other funds specified in this part upon which the bonds may be made a charge and from which they are payable.

(b) "Citizen participation" means action by the local agency to provide persons who will be affected by residential rehabilitation financed under the provisions of this part with opportunities to be involved in planning and carrying out the residential rehabilitation program. "Citizen participation" shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following and in the order provided below:

(1) Holding a public meeting prior to the hearing by the legislative body considering selection of the area for designation.

(2) Consultation with an elected or appointed citizen advisory board of a proposed residential rehabilitation area. The members of the board shall include, to the greatest extent feasible, representatives of resident owners, nonresident owners, and resident tenants of both single-family and multiple-family residential structures who are not apartment managers, resident agents, or employees of property owners. The duties of the board are to develop a plan for public improvements and the rules and regulations for implementation of the proposed residential rehabilitation program.

(3) Dissemination, at least seven days prior to the original hearing, by mailing to property owners within the proposed residential rehabilitation area at the address shown on the latest assessment roll and by distribution to residents of such area by a manner determined appropriate by the local agency, of information relating to the time and location of the hearing, boundaries of the proposed residential rehabilitation area, and a general description of the proposed residential rehabilitation program.

"Citizen participation" also includes any other means of citizen involvement determined appropriate by the legislative body.

Public meetings and consultations held to implement the requirements of citizen participation shall be conducted by a planning or rehabilitation official designated by the legislative body. Public meetings shall be held at times and places convenient to residents and property owners.

(c) "Financing" means the lending of moneys or any other thing of value for the purpose of residential rehabilitation and includes refinancing of outstanding indebtedness of the participating party with respect to property which is subject to residential rehabilitation or the purchase of structures rehabilitated by a redevelopment agency functioning pursuant to Part 1 (commencing with Section 33000) of this division.

(d) "Legislative body" means the city council, board of supervisors, or other legislative body of the local agency.

(e) "Local agency" means any of the following:

(1) Any city, county, or city and county.

(2) Any redevelopment agency functioning pursuant to Part 1 (commencing with Section 33000) of this division.

(3) Any housing authority functioning pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 34200) of this division.

(f) "Participating party" means any person, company, corporation, partnership, firm, local agency, political subdivision of the state, or other entity or group of entities requiring financing for residential rehabilitation pursuant to the provisions of this part. No elective officer of the state or any of its political subdivisions shall be eligible to be a participating party under the provision of this part.

(g) "Qualified mortgage lender" means a mortgage lender authorized by a local agency to do business with the agency and to aid in financing pursuant to this part on behalf of the agency, for which service the qualified mortgage lender will be reasonably compensated. Such a mortgage lender shall be a state or national bank, federal or state-chartered savings and loan association, or trust company or mortgage banker which is capable of providing service or otherwise aiding in the financing authorized by this part. Nothing in any other provision of state law shall prevent such a lender from serving as a qualified mortgage lender pursuant to this part.

(h) "Residential rehabilitation" means the construction, reconstruction, renovation, replacement, extension, repair, betterment, equipping, developing, embellishing, or otherwise improving residences consistent with standards of strength, effectiveness, fire resistance, durability, and safety, so that such structures are satisfactory and safe to occupy for residential purposes and are not conducive to ill health, transmission of disease, infant mortality, juvenile delinquency, or crime because of any one or more of the following factors:

(1) Defective design and character of physical construction.

(2) Faulty interior arrangement and exterior spacing.

(3) Inadequate provision for ventilation, lighting, and sanitation.

(4) Obsolescence, deterioration, and dilapidation.

(i) "Residence" means real property improved with a residential structure and, in residential rehabilitation areas only, also includes real property improved with a commercial or mixed residential and commercial structure which, in the judgment of the local agency, is an integral part of a residential neighborhood. "Residence" also includes condominium and cooperative dwelling units, and includes both real property improved with single-family residential structures and real property improved with multiple-family residential structures.

(j) "Rehabilitation standards" means the applicable local or state standards for the rehabilitation of residences located in residential rehabilitation areas or rehabilitated pursuant to Section 37922.1, including any higher standards adopted by the local agency as part of its residential rehabilitation financing program.

(k) "Revenues" means all amounts received as repayment of principal, interest, and all other charges received for, and all other income and receipts derived by, the local agency from the financing of residential rehabilitation, including moneys deposited in a sinking, redemption, or reserve fund or other fund to secure the bonds or to provide for the payment of the principal of, or interest on, the bonds and such other moneys as the legislative body may, in its discretion, make available therefor.

(l) "Residential rehabilitation area" means the geographical area designated by the local agency as one for inclusion in a comprehensive residential rehabilitation financing program pursuant to the provisions of this part.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Housing and redevelopment requires broad participation and reporting to make it responsive and effective. Redevelopment agencies cannot meet the date for the completion of the audit procedure specified in existing law and tenant representatives are being excluded from participating in residential rehabilitation advisory boards. In order that broad participation and reporting in housing and redevelopment occurs, and that there are not violations of the law and exclusion from citizen participation, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 990

An act to add and repeal Section 52178.5 of the Education Code, relating to bilingual education.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 52178.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

52178.5. An extension of a waiver granted pursuant to Section 52178 shall be provided until July 1, 1980, for a teacher teaching in those languages where there is no preparation or examination available for obtaining a certificate of competence for bilingual-crosscultural instruction, as determined by the Commission for Teacher Preparation and Licensing.

No waivers shall be granted pursuant to this section for teachers teaching in classrooms utilizing the Spanish or the Cantonese dialect of the Chinese language.

This section shall remain operative only until July 1, 1980, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute which is chaptered before July 1, 1980, deletes or extends such date.

CHAPTER 991

An act to amend Sections 1791, 1791.1, 1791.2, 1792, 1792.1, 1792.2, 1793, 1793.2, 1793.3, 1793.35, 1793.4, 1794, 1795.1, and 1795.5 of, to add Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1796) to Title 1.7 of Part 4 of Division 3 of, the Civil Code, relating to consumer warranties.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1791 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1791. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Consumer goods" means any new product or part thereof that is used or bought for use primarily for personal, family, or household purposes, except for clothing and consumables.

(b) "Buyer" or "retail buyer" means any individual who buys consumer goods from a person engaged in the business of manufacturing, distributing, or selling such goods at retail. As used in this subdivision, "person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal entity which engages in any such business.

(c) "Clothing" means any wearing apparel, worn for any purpose, including under and outer garments, shoes, and accessories composed primarily of woven material, natural or synthetic yarn, fiber, or leather or similar fabric.

(d) "Consumables" means any product which is intended for consumption by individuals, or use by individuals for purposes of personal care or in the performance of services ordinarily rendered within the household, and which usually is consumed or expended in the course of such consumption or use.

(e) "Distributor" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal relationship which stands between the manufacturer and the retail seller in purchases, consignments, or contracts for sale of consumer goods.

(f) "Independent repair or service facility" or "independent service dealer" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal entity, not an employee or subsidiary of a manufacturer or distributor, which engages in the business of servicing and repairing consumer goods.

(g) "Manufacturer" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal relationship which manufactures, assembles, or produces consumer goods.

(h) "Place of business" means, for the purposes of any retail seller that sells consumer goods by catalog or mail order, the distribution point for such goods.

(i) "Retail seller," "seller," or "retailer" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal relationship which engages in the business of selling consumer goods to retail buyers.

(j) "Return to the retail seller" means, for the purposes of any retail seller that sells consumer goods by catalog or mail order, the retail seller's place of business, as defined in subdivision (h).

(k) "Sale" means (1) the passing of title from the seller to the buyer for a price, or (2) a consignment for sale.

(l) "Service contract" means a contract in writing to perform, over a fixed period of time or for a specified duration, services relating to the maintenance or repair of a consumer product.

SEC. 2. Section 1791.1 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1791.1. As used in this chapter.

(a) "Implied warranty of merchantability" or "implied warranty that goods are merchantable" means that the consumer goods meet each of the following:

(1) Pass without objection in the trade under the contract description.

(2) Are fit for the ordinary purposes for which such goods are used.

(3) Are adequately contained, packaged, and labeled

(4) Conform to the promises or affirmations of fact made on the container or label.

(b) "Implied warranty of fitness" means that when the retailer, distributor, or manufacturer has reason to know any particular purpose for which the consumer goods are required, and further, that the buyer is relying on the skill and judgment of the seller to select and furnish suitable goods, then there is an implied warranty that the goods shall be fit for such purpose

(c) The duration of the implied warranty of merchantability and where present the implied warranty of fitness shall be coextensive

in duration with an express warranty which accompanies the consumer goods, provided the duration of the express warranty is reasonable; but in no event shall such implied warranty have a duration of less than 60 days nor more than one year following the sale of new consumer goods to a retail buyer. Where no duration for an express warranty is stated with respect to consumer goods, or parts thereof, the duration of the implied warranty shall be the maximum period prescribed above.

(d) Any buyer of consumer goods injured by a breach of the implied warranty of merchantability and where applicable by a breach of the implied warranty of fitness has the remedies provided in Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 2601) and Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 2701) of Division 2 of the Commercial Code, and, in any action brought under such provisions, Section 1794 of this chapter shall apply.

SEC. 2.5. Section 1791.2 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1791.2. (a) "Express warranty" means:

(1) A written statement arising out of a sale to the consumer of a consumer good pursuant to which the manufacturer, distributor, or retailer undertakes to preserve or maintain the utility or performance of the consumer good or provide compensation if there is a failure in utility or performance; or

(2) In the event of any sample or model, that the whole of the goods conforms to such sample or model.

(b) It is not necessary to the creation of an express warranty that formal words such as "warrant" or "guarantee" be used, but if such words are used then an express warranty is created. An affirmation merely of the value of the goods or a statement purporting to be merely an opinion or commendation of the goods does not create a warranty.

(c) Statements or representations such as expressions of general policy concerning customer satisfaction which are not subject to any limitation do not create an express warranty.

SEC. 3. Section 1792 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1792 Unless disclaimed in the manner prescribed by this chapter, every sale of consumer goods that are sold at retail in this state shall be accompanied by the manufacturer's and the retail seller's implied warranty that the goods are merchantable. The retail seller shall have a right of indemnity against the manufacturer in the amount of any liability under this section.

SEC. 4. Section 1792.1 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1792.1. Every sale of consumer goods that are sold at retail in this state by a manufacturer who has reason to know at the time of the retail sale that the goods are required for a particular purpose and that the buyer is relying on the manufacturer's skill or judgment to select or furnish suitable goods shall be accompanied by such manufacturer's implied warranty of fitness.

SEC. 5. Section 1792.2 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1792.2. Every sale of consumer goods that are sold at retail in this state by a retailer or distributor who has reason to know at the time of the retail sale that the goods are required for a particular purpose, and that the buyer is relying on the retailer's or distributor's skill or judgment to select or furnish suitable goods shall be accompanied by such retailer's or distributor's implied warranty that the goods are fit for that purpose.

SEC. 6. Section 1793 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1793. Nothing in this chapter shall affect the right of the manufacturer, distributor, or retailer to make express warranties with respect to consumer goods. However, a manufacturer, distributor, or retailer, in transacting a sale in which express warranties are given, may not limit, modify, or disclaim the implied warranties guaranteed by this chapter to the sale of consumer goods.

SEC. 7. Section 1793.2 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1793.2. (a) Every manufacturer of consumer goods sold in this state and for which the manufacturer has made an express warranty shall:

(1) Maintain in this state sufficient service and repair facilities reasonably close to all areas where its consumer goods are sold to carry out the terms of such warranties or designate and authorize in this state as service and repair facilities independent repair or service facilities reasonably close to all areas where its consumer goods are sold to carry out the terms of such warranties.

As a means of complying with paragraph (1) of this subdivision, a manufacturer shall be permitted to enter into warranty service contracts with independent service and repair facilities. The warranty service contracts may provide for a fixed schedule of rates to be charged for warranty service or warranty repair work, however, the rates fixed by such contracts shall be in conformity with the requirements of subdivision (c) of Section 1793.3. The rates established pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 1793.3, between the manufacturer and the independent service and repair facility, shall not preclude a good-faith discount which is reasonably related to reduced credit and general overhead cost factors arising from the manufacturer's payment of warranty charges direct to the independent service and repair facility. The warranty service contracts authorized by this paragraph shall not be executed to cover a period of time in excess of one year.

(2) In the event of a failure to comply with paragraph (1) of this subdivision, be subject to the provisions of Section 1793.5.

(b) Where such service and repair facilities are maintained in this state and service or repair of the goods is necessary because they do not conform with the applicable express warranties, service and repair shall be commenced within a reasonable time by the manufacturer or its representative in this state. Unless the buyer agrees in writing to the contrary, the goods must be serviced or repaired so as to conform to the applicable warranties within 30 days. Delay caused by conditions beyond the control of the manufacturer or his representatives shall serve to extend this 30-day requirement.

Where such delay arises, conforming goods shall be tendered as soon as possible following termination of the condition giving rise to the delay.

(c) It shall be the duty of the buyer to deliver nonconforming goods to the manufacturer's service and repair facility within this state, unless, due to reasons of size and weight, or method of attachment, or method of installation, or nature of the nonconformity, such delivery cannot reasonably be accomplished. Should the buyer be unable to effect return of nonconforming goods for any of the above reasons, he shall notify the manufacturer or its nearest service and repair facility within the state. Written notice of nonconformity to the manufacturer or its service and repair facility shall constitute return of the goods for purposes of this section. Upon receipt of such notice of nonconformity the manufacturer shall, at its option, service or repair the goods at the buyer's residence, or pick up the goods for service and repair, or arrange for transporting the goods to its service and repair facility. All reasonable costs of transporting the goods when, pursuant to the above, a buyer is unable to effect return shall be at the manufacturer's expense. The reasonable costs of transporting nonconforming goods after delivery to the service and repair facility until return of the goods to the buyer shall be at the manufacturer's expense.

(d) Should the manufacturer or its representative in this state be unable to service or repair the goods to conform to the applicable express warranties after a reasonable number of attempts, the manufacturer shall either replace the goods or reimburse the buyer in an amount equal to the purchase price paid by the buyer, less that amount directly attributable to use by the buyer prior to the discovery of the nonconformity.

SEC. 8. Section 1793.3 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1793.3. If the manufacturer of consumer goods sold in this state for which the manufacturer has made an express warranty does not provide service and repair facilities within this state pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1793.2, the buyer of such manufacturer's nonconforming goods may follow the course of action prescribed in either subdivision (a), (b), or (c), below, as follows:

(a) Return the nonconforming consumer goods to the retail seller thereof. The retail seller shall do one of the following:

(1) Service or repair the nonconforming goods to conform to the applicable warranty.

(2) Direct the buyer to a reasonably close independent repair or service facility willing to accept service or repair under this section.

(3) Replace the nonconforming goods with goods that are identical or reasonably equivalent to the warranted goods.

(4) Refund to the buyer the original purchase price less that amount directly attributable to use by the buyer prior to the discovery of the nonconformity.

(b) Return the nonconforming consumer goods to any retail seller of like goods of the same manufacturer within this state who may do one of the following:

(1) Service or repair the nonconforming goods to conform to the applicable warranty.

(2) Direct the buyer to a reasonably close independent repair or service facility willing to accept service or repair under this section.

(3) Replace the nonconforming goods with goods that are identical or reasonably equivalent to the warranted goods.

(4) Refund to the buyer the original purchase price less that amount directly attributable to use by the buyer prior to the discovery of the nonconformity.

(c) Secure the services of an independent repair or service facility for the service or repair of the nonconforming consumer goods, when service or repair of the goods can be economically accomplished. In that event the manufacturer shall be liable to the buyer, or to the independent repair or service facility upon an assignment of the buyer's rights, for the actual and reasonable cost of service and repair, including any cost for parts and any reasonable cost of transporting the goods or parts, plus a reasonable profit. It shall be a rebuttable presumption affecting the burden of producing evidence that the reasonable cost of service or repair is an amount equal to that which is charged by the independent service dealer for like services or repairs rendered to service or repair customers who are not entitled to warranty protection. Any waiver of the liability of a manufacturer shall be void and unenforceable.

The course of action prescribed in this subdivision shall be available to the buyer only after the buyer has followed the course of action prescribed in either subdivision (a) or (b) and such course of action has not furnished the buyer with appropriate relief. In no event, shall the provisions of this subdivision be available to the buyer with regard to consumer goods with a wholesale price to the retailer of less than fifty dollars ($50). In no event shall the buyer be responsible or liable for service or repair costs charged by the independent repair or service facility which accepts service or repair of nonconforming consumer goods under this section. Such independent repair or service facility shall only be authorized to hold the manufacturer liable for such costs.

(d) A retail seller to which any nonconforming consumer good is returned pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) shall have the option of providing service or repair itself or directing the buyer to a reasonably close independent repair or service facility willing to accept service or repair under this section. In the event the retail seller directs the buyer to an independent repair or service facility, the manufacturer shall be liable for the reasonable cost of repair services in the manner provided in subdivision (c).

(e) In the event a buyer is unable to return nonconforming goods to the retailer due to reasons of size and weight, or method of attachment, or method of installation, or nature of the nonconformity, the buyer shall give notice of the nonconformity to the retailer. Upon receipt of such notice of nonconformity the retailer shall, at its option, service or repair the goods at the buyer's residence, or pick up the goods for service or repair, or arrange for transporting the goods to its place of business. The reasonable costs of transporting the goods shall be at the retailer's expense. The retailer shall be entitled to recover all such reasonable costs of transportation from the manufacturer pursuant to Section 1793.5. The reasonable costs of transporting nonconforming goods after delivery to the retailer until return of the goods to the buyer, when incurred by a retailer, shall be recoverable from the manufacturer pursuant to Section 1793.5. Written notice of nonconformity to the retailer shall constitute return of the goods for the purposes of subdivisions (a) and (b).

(f) The manufacturer of consumer goods with a wholesale price to the retailer of fifty dollars ($50) or more for which the manufacturer has made express warranties shall provide written notice to the buyer of the courses of action available to him under subdivision (a), (b), or (c).

SEC. 8.5. Section 1793.35 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1793.35. (a) Where the retail sale of clothing or consumables is accompanied by an express warranty and such items do not conform with the terms of the express warranty, the buyer thereof may return the goods within 30 days of purchase or the period specified in the warranty, whichever is greater. The manufacturer may, in the express warranty, direct the purchaser to return nonconforming goods to a retail seller of like goods of the same manufacturer for replacement.

(b) When clothing or consumables are returned to a retail seller for the reason that they do not conform to an express warranty, the retailer shall replace the nonconforming goods where the manufacturer has directed replacement in the express warranty. In the event the manufacturer has not directed replacement in the express warranty, the retailer may replace the nonconforming goods or reimburse the buyer in an amount equal to the purchase price paid by the buyer for the goods, at the option of the retailer. Costs of reimbursement or replacement are recoverable by a retailer from the manufacturer in the manner provided in Section 1793.5.

(c) Where the retail sale of draperies is not accompanied by an express warranty and the sale of such draperies is accompanied by a conspicuous writing disclaiming the retailer's implied warranty of merchantability on the fabric, the retailer's implied warranty of merchantability shall not apply to the fabric.

SEC. 9. Section 1793.4 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1793.4. Where an option is exercised in favor of service and repair under Section 1793.3, such service and repair must be commenced within a reasonable time, and, unless the buyer agrees in writing to the contrary, goods conforming to the applicable express warranties shall be tendered within 30 days. Delay caused by conditions beyond the control of the retail seller or his representative shall serve to extend this 30-day requirement Where such a delay arises, conforming goods shall be tendered as soon as possible following termination of the condition giving rise to the delay.

SEC. 10. Section 1794 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1794. Any buyer of consumer goods injured by a willful violation of the provisions of this chapter or a willful violation of the implied or express warranty or service contract may bring an action for the recovery of three times the amount of actual damages and other legal and equitable relief, and, if the buyer prevails in any action brought under this section, he or she may be allowed by the court to recover as part of the judgment a sum equal to the aggregate amount of costs and expenses (including attorney's fees based on actual time expended) determined by the court to have been reasonably incurred by the plaintiff for or in connection with the commencement and prosecution of such action.

SEC. 11. Section 1795.1 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1795.1. This chapter shall apply to any equipment or mechanical, electrical, or thermal component of a system designed to heat, cool, or otherwise condition air, but shall not apply to the system as a whole where such a system becomes a fixed part of a structure.

SEC. 12. Section 1795.5 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1795.5. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a) of Section 1791 defining consumer goods to mean "new" goods, the obligation of a distributor or retail seller of used consumer goods shall be the same as that imposed on manufacturers under this chapter in a sale in which an express warranty is given, except:

(a) It shall be the obligation of the distributor or retail seller making express warranties with respect to used consumer goods (and not the original manufacturer, distributor, or retail seller making express warranties with respect to such goods when new) to maintain sufficient service and repair facilities within this state to carry out the terms of such express warranties.

(b) The provisions of Section 1793.5 shall not apply to the sale of used consumer goods sold in this state.

(c) The duration of the implied warranty of merchantability and where present the implied warranty of fitness with respect to used consumer goods sold in this state, where the sale is accompanied by an express warranty, shall be coextensive in duration with an express warranty which accompanies the consumer goods, provided the duration of the express warranty is reasonable, but in no event shall such implied warranties have a duration of less than 30 days nor more than three months following the sale of used consumer goods to a retail buyer Where no duration for an express warranty is stated with respect to such goods, or parts thereof, the duration of the implied warranties shall be the maximum period prescribed above.

(d) The obligation of the distributor or retail seller who makes express warranties with respect to used goods that are sold in this state, shall extend to the sale of all such used goods, regardless of when such goods may have been manufactured.

SEC. 13. Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1796) is added to

Title 1.7 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, to read:

CHAPTER 2. STANDARDS FOR WARRANTY WORK

1796. Any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal relationship which engages in the business of installing new or used consumer goods, has a duty to the buyer to install them in a good and workmanlike manner.

1796.5. Any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal relationship which engages in the business of providing service or repair to new or used consumer goods has a duty to the purchaser to perform those services in a good and workmanlike manner.

CHAPTER 992

An act to amend Section 45206.5 of the Education Code, relating to holidays.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 45206.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

45206.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if the governing board of a school district does not designate September 9 known as "Admission Day" as a paid holiday for classified employees pursuant to Section 37222, the school district shall provide a substitute holiday for such employee. Such substitute holiday shall be provided as specified in Section 45205.

This section shall apply to districts that have adopted the merit system in the same manner and effect as if it were a part of Article 6 (commencing with Section 45240) of this chapter.

CHAPTER 993

An act to amend Section 1260 of the Civil Code, and to amend Section 690.3 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to exemptions from execution of judgments.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1260 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1260. Homesteads may be selected and claimed:

1. By any head of a family, of not exceeding forty thousand dollars ($40,000) in actual cash value, over and above all liens and encumbrances on the property at the time of any levy of execution thereon.

2. By any person 65 years of age or older, of not exceeding forty thousand dollars ($40,000) in actual cash value, over and above all liens and encumbrances on the property at the time of any levy of execution thereon.

3. By any other person, of not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) in actual cash value, over and above all liens and encumbrances.

Any declaration of homestead which has been filed prior to January 1, 1977 shall be deemed to be amended on such date by increasing the value of any property selected and claimed to the value permitted by this section on such date to the extent that such increase does not impair or defeat the right of any creditor to execute upon the property which existed prior to such date.

SEC. 2. Section 690.3 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

690.3. (a) One housetrailer, mobilehome, houseboat, boat, or other waterborne vessel in which the debtor, or the family of such debtor, actually resides, of a value not exceeding the following values:

(1) For any head of a family, of a value not exceeding forty thousand dollars ($40,000) in actual cash value, ever and above all liens and encumbrances on that housetrailer, mobilehome, houseboat, boat, or other waterborne vessel;

(2) For any person 65 years of age or older of a value not exceeding forty thousand dollars ($40,000) in actual cash value, over and above all liens and encumbrances on that housetrailer, mobilehome, houseboat, boat, or other waterborne vessel; and

(3) For any other person, of a value not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) in actual cash value, over and above all liens and encumbrances on that housetrailer, mobilehome, houseboat, boat, or other waterborne vessel.

(b) The exemption provided by this section shall not apply if such debtor or the spouse of such debtor has an existing homestead as provided by Title 5 (commencing with Section 1237) of Part 4 of Division 2 of the Civil Code or has obtained a prior judicial determination that the dwelling house of the debtor or the family of the debtor is exempt from execution under Section 690.31.

CHAPTER 994

An act making an appropriation to the Department of Justice to pay the claim of Bonnie Jean Marsh, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) is hereby appropriated from the Motor Vehicle Account in the State Transportation Fund to the Department of Justice for the payment of the claim of Bonnie Jean Marsh against the State of California in the action entitled Bonnie Jean Marsh v. State of California, brought in the Superior Court in the County of Los Angeles.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to settle an action against the state for wrongful death, thereby terminating a lengthy court procedure and ending a hardship to Bonnie Jean Marsh as quickly as possible, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 995

An act to amend Sections 6011 and 6013 of, and to add Section 6013.4 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to the State Bar.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6011 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6011. The board consists of 22 members.

SEC. 2. Section 6013 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6013. The attorney membership of the board is composed of:

(a) One member from each of State Bar Districts 1, 2, 5, 6, 8 and 9.

(b) Two members from each of State Bar Districts 3 and 4.

(c) Five members from State Bar District 7.

(d) One member from the membership of the California Young Lawyers Association appointed pursuant to Section 6013.4.

SEC. 3. Section 6013.4 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

6013.4. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, one member of the board shall be elected by the board of directors of the California Young Lawyers Association, from the membership of that association.

Such member shall serve for a term of one year, commencing at the conclusion of the annual meeting next succeeding the election and is eligible for reelection. A vacancy shall be filled by election in the manner provided herein for the unexpired term.

CHAPTER 996

An act to amend Section 4548 of, and to add Section 4544.5 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to psychiatric technicians, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4544.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

4544.5. The board may establish a biennial renewal period.

SEC. 2. Section 4548 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4548. The amounts of the fees payable pursuant to this chapter shall be fixed by the board according to the following schedule:

(a) The application fee at no more than ten dollars ($10).

(b) The renewal fee at no more than twenty-five dollars ($25) nor less than two dollars ($2). In the event that the board establishes a biennial renewal fee pursuant to Section 4544.5, that fee shall not exceed fifty dollars ($50).

(c) The delinquency fee at no more than 50 percent of the renewal fee.

CHAPTER 997

An act to amend Sections 16000, 16021, 16070, 16075, 16251, 16377, 16430 and 16434 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 16000 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

16000. The driver of every motor vehicle which is in any manner involved in an accident originating from the operation of a motor vehicle on any street or highway which accident has resulted in damage to the property of any one person in excess of three hundred fifty dollars ($350) or in bodily injury or in the death of any person shall within 15 days after the accident, report the accident on a form approved by the department to the office of the department at Sacramento, subject to the provisions of this chapter. A report shall not be required in the event that the motor vehicle involved in the accident was owned or leased by or under the direction of the United States, this state, or any political subdivision of this state or municipality thereof.

SEC. 1.5. Section 16021 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

16021. Financial responsibility of the driver or owner is established if the driver or owner of the vehicle involved in an accident described in Section 16000 is:

(a) A self-insurer under the provisions of this division.

(b) An insured or obligee under a form of insurance or bond which complies with the requirements of this division and which covers the driver for the vehicle involved in the accident.

(c) The United States of America, this state, any municipality or subdivision thereof, or the lawful agent thereof.

(d) A depositor in compliance with subdivision (a) of Section 16054.2.

(e) In compliance with the requirements authorized by the department by any other manner which effectuates the purposes of this chapter.

SEC. 2. Section 16070 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

16070. (a) Whenever a driver involved in an accident described in Section 16000 has failed to establish proof of financial responsibility pursuant to Section 16022, the department shall, if the accident has resulted in damage to the property of any one person in excess of three hundred fifty dollars ($350) or in bodily injury or in the death of any person, suspend the privilege of the driver or owner to drive a motor vehicle, including the driving privilege of a nonresident in this state. The suspension shall become effective not earlier than the 76th day after receipt of the first accident report described in Section 16000 by the department.

(b) The suspension provisions of this section shall not apply whenever evidence that the accident has resulted in damage to the property of any one person in excess of three hundred fifty dollars ($350) or in bodily injury or in the death of any person is not submitted to the department within sixty (60) days following the date of the accident.

SEC. 3. Section 16075 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

16075. (a) The suspension provisions of this article shall not apply to a driver or owner until 20 days after the department sends to the driver or owner notice of its intent to suspend his driving privilege and advises the driver or owner of his right to a hearing as hereinafter provided.

(b) The department shall conduct the hearing upon demand of the driver or owner, within 60 days of such demand, to determine the applicability of this chapter to such driver or owner, including a determination of whether:

(1) The accident has resulted in property damage in excess of three hundred fifty dollars ($350), or bodily injury, or death.

(2) The driver or owner has established that proof of financial responsibility, as required by Article 3 (commencing with Section 16050) of this chapter, was in effect at the time of the accident.

(c) The hearing provided for by this section shall be held in the county of residence of the person requesting the hearing. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 14100) of Chapter 3 of Division 6.

SEC. 3.5. Section 16075 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

16075. (a) The suspension provisions of this article shall not apply to a driver or owner until 20 days after the department sends to the driver or owner notice of its intent to suspend his driving privilege and advises the driver or owner of his right to a hearing as hereinafter provided.

(b) The department shall conduct the hearing upon written demand of the driver or owner, within 60 days of such demand, to determine the applicability of this chapter to such driver or owner, including a determination of whether:

(1) The accident has resulted in property damage in excess of three hundred fifty dollars ($350), or bodily injury, or death.

(2) The driver or owner has established financial responsibility, as provided in Article 3 (commencing with Section 16050) of this chapter, was in effect at the time of the accident.

(c) The demand for the hearing shall be in writing. The application for hearing made by the affected person within 20 days of receiving notice of the department's action shall operate to stay the suspension by the department from the date of such demand until the hearing is completed and a decision has been made.

(d) The hearing provided for by this section shall be held in the county of residence of the person requesting the hearing. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 14100) of Chapter 3 of Division 6.

SEC. 4. Section 16251 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

16251. As used in this chapter and Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 16430) of this division, "cause of action" means any cause of action for damage to property in excess of three hundred fifty dollars ($350) or for damage in any amount on account of bodily injury to or death of any person resulting from the operation by the defendant or any other person of any motor vehicle upon a highway, except a cause of action based upon statutory liability by reason of signing the application of a minor for a driver's license.

SEC. 5. Section 16377 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

16377. Every judgment shall for the purposes of this chapter be deemed satisfied:

(a) When fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) has been credited, upon any judgment in excess of that amount, or upon all judgments, collectively, which together total in excess of that amount, for personal injury to or death of one person as a result of any one accident.

(b) When, subject to the limit of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) as to one person, the sum of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) has been credited, upon any judgment in excess of that amount, or upon all judgments, collectively, which together total in excess of that amount, for personal injury to or death of more than one person as a result of any one accident.

(c) When five thousand dollars ($5,000) has been credited, upon any judgment in excess of that amount, or upon all judgments, collectively, each of which is in excess of three hundred fifty dollars ($350), and which together total in excess of five thousand dollars ($5,000), for damage to property of others as a result of any one accident.

(d) When the judgment debtor or a person designated by him has deposited with the department a sum equal to the amount of the unsatisfied judgment for which the suspension action was taken and presents proof, satisfactory to the department, of inability to locate the judgment creditor.

SEC. 6. Section 16430 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

16430. Proof of ability to respond in damages when required by this code means proof of ability to respond in damages resulting from the ownership or operation of a motor vehicle and arising by reason of personal injury to, or death of, any one person, of at least fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000), and, subject to the limit of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) for each person injured or killed, of at least thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) for such injury to, or the death of, two or more persons in any one accident, and for damages to property (in excess of three hundred fifty dollars ($350)), of at least five thousand dollars ($5,000) resulting from any one accident. Proof of ability to respond in damages may be given in any manner authorized in this chapter.

SEC. 7. Section 16434 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

16434. Proof of ability to respond in damages may be given by the bond of a surety company duly authorized to do business within the state, or a bond of individual sureties each owning unencumbered real estate, approved by a judge of a court of record. The bond shall be conditioned for the payment of the amount specified in Section 16430, and shall provide for the entry of judgment on motion of the state in favor of any holder of any final judgment on account of damages to property over three hundred fifty dollars ($350) in amount, or injury to any person caused by the operation of such person's motor vehicle, in the same manner as provided in Section 917.1 of the Code of Civil Procedure for the entry of judgment upon appeal bonds.

SEC. 8. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 2799 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 16075 of the Vehicle Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2799, that the amendments to Section 16075 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 16075 in the form set forth in Section 3.5 of this act. Therefore, Section 3.5 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 2799 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both amend Section 16075, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2799, in which case Section 3 of this act shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 998

An act to amend Sections 8081 and 8084 of the Education Code, relating to instruction in cosmetology.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8081 of the Education Code is amended to read:

8081. After November 23, 1970, no programs, courses, classes, or instruction in cosmetology, as defined by Section 7321 of the Business and Professions Code, shall be initiated or expanded by any regional occupational center, high school, public community college, or campus of the California State University and Colleges unless and until a determination has been made, by the appropriate body pursuant to Section 8080, that a definite need exists for the initiation or expansion of such instruction and that existing private institutions offering the same or similar instruction are not adequately meeting that need.

SEC. 2. Section 8084 of the Education Code is amended to read:

8084. The appropriate body, as referred to in Section 8080, shall report its findings at a public meeting within 90 days from the date of being notified by a regional occupational center, high school, community college, or campus of the California State University and Colleges of its intent to initiate or expand its teaching of cosmetology

CHAPTER 999

An act to amend Section 12702 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to fireworks.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12702 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

12702. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 12700:

(a) Any person who violates the provisions of this part by selling, giving, or delivering any dangerous fireworks to any person under 18 years of age is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon a first conviction shall be punished as prescribed in Section 12700. Upon any second or subsequent conviction of such offense, such person shall be punished by the penalties of a fine of not less than five hundred dollars ($500) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) and by imprisonment in the county jail for one year. No such person shall be granted probation and the execution of the sentence imposed upon such person shall not be suspended by the court.

(b) Any person who violates the provisions of this part involving any dangerous fireworks item, as defined in Section 12505, or any combination of such dangerous fireworks items, having the total net weight of explosive material of 7,500 grains or more, is guilty of a public offense, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison, or in the county jail for not more than one year, or by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000), or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local governmental entities and school districts which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes.

CHAPTER 1000

An act to amend Section 345 of, and to repeal Article 2.3 (commencing with Section 281) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1 of, the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Section 1 of Chapter 1507 of the Statutes of 1974, relating to health services.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 2.3 (commencing with Section 281) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 345 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

345. Reimbursement under this article shall not be made for any services which are available to the recipient under any other private, state, or federal programs or under other contractual or legal entitlements, except for those instances where the State Department of Health Services determines that prolonged use of employer health insurance would jeopardize the recipient's employment. However, no provision in this article shall be construed as limiting in any way state participation in any federal governmental program for medical care of persons with genetically handicapping conditions.

SEC. 3. Section 1 of Chapter 1507 of the Statutes of 1974 is amended to read:

Section 1. The Legislature finds that there are at least 2,200 identified victims of the diseases of cystic fibrosis (100), hemophilia (1,600), and sickle cell disease (500) in this state, and that cystic fibrosis, hemophilia, and sickle cell disease are generally excluded from any private medical insurance coverage except in an employment situation under group coverage which is usually ended upon termination of employment, and that there is a need for a statewide program for the medical care of persons with cystic fibrosis, hemophilia, sickle cell disease, and other genetically handicapping conditions who are unable to pay for their necessary medical services, wholly or in part, or whose employment may be jeopardized by prolonged use of employer health insurance.

CHAPTER 1001

An act to amend Sections 25910 and 25913 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to asbestos.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25910 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Chapter 303 of the Statutes of 1978, is amended to read:

25910. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (c), (d), or (e), no person shall cause or permit the spraying of any substance containing any amount of asbestos in or upon a building or other structure during its construction, alteration, or repair.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), (d), or (e), no person shall sell, transfer, purchase, or manufacture, including mix, compound, slurry, suspend, or in any other way prepare any substance containing any amount of asbestos which would, if sprayed in or upon a building or other structure during its construction, alteration, or repair, be regulated pursuant to subdivision (a).

(c) (1) Portland cement plaster containing less than one-half of 1 percent asbestos shall be exempt from the provisions of this chapter until July 1, 1979.

(2) Pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 140) of Division 1 of the Labor Code, on or before June 1, 1979, the Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board shall conduct public hearings for the purpose of establishing classifications of methods and processes which are exempt from the prohibition of subdivision (a) for the use of portland cement plaster which contains less than one-half of 1 percent asbestos if no economically feasible method or process of spraying portland cement plaster which does not contain asbestos is commercially available. The board shall, on or before July 1, 1979, establish by regulation such classifications, if any, of methods and processes for the use of portland cement plaster which contains less than one-half of 1 percent asbestos which the board determines are exempt from the prohibition of subdivision (a). After July 1, 1979, the board may, after public hearings, amend, add, or repeal such regulations.

(3) During any use, spraying, application, handling, storage, repair, disposal, processing, or transportation of portland cement plaster containing asbestos, the person who causes or permits such acts pursuant to an exemption provided in, or adopted pursuant to, this subdivision shall comply with the provisions of Section 5208, Title 8, California Administrative Code as it exists on the effective date of the amendments to this section enacted by the Statutes of 1978 or as such provisions may, thereafter, be amended. However, on or before July 1, 1979, the board shall adopt regulations, and make such regulations operative on July 1, 1979, to establish the time weighted average concentration limits and ceiling concentration limits for employee exposure to airborne asbestos fibers arising from any use, spraying, application, handling, storage, repair, disposal, processing, or transportation of portland cement plaster containing asbestos pursuant to an exemption adopted pursuant to this subdivision at levels no higher than the levels contained in subparagraph (A), paragraph (1), subdivision (g) of Section 5208, Title 8, California Administrative Code, as it exists on the effective date of the amendments to this section enacted by the Statutes of 1978 or as such regulations may, thereafter, be amended.

(d) (1) Exterior and interior coatings and laminating resins containing encapsulated asbestos fibers bound within the finished product from manufacture through application, and cold process asphalt roof coatings, shall be exempt from the provisions of this chapter until July 1, 1979.

(2) Pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 140) of Division 1 of the Labor Code, on or before June 1, 1979, the Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board shall conduct public hearings for the purpose of establishing classifications of use of products defined in paragraph (1) of this subdivision which are exempt from the prohibition of subdivision (a). The board shall, on or before July 1, 1979, establish by regulation such classifications, if any, of the use of products defined in paragraph (1) of this subdivision which the board determines are exempt from the prohibition of subdivision (a). After July 1, 1979, the board may, after public hearings, amend, add, or repeal such regulations.

During any use, spraying, application, handling, storage, repair, disposal, processing, or transportation of such products, the person who causes or permits such acts pursuant to an exemption provided in, or adopted pursuant to, this subdivision shall comply with the provisions of Section 5208, Title 8, California Administrative Code as it exists on the effective date of the amendments to this section enacted by the Statutes of 1978 or may, thereafter, be amended. However, on or before July 1, 1979, the board shall adopt regulations, and make such regulations operative on July 1, 1979, to establish the time weighted average concentration limits for employee exposure to airborne asbestos fibers arising from any use, spraying, application, handling, storage, repair, disposal, processing, or transportation of exterior and interior coatings and laminating resins containing asbestos fibers contained within the finished product from manufacture through application, and cold process asphalt roof coatings pursuant to an exemption adopted pursuant to this subdivision at levels no higher than the levels contained in subparagraph (A), paragraph (1), subdivision (g) of Section 5208, Title 8, California Administrative Code, as it exists on the effective date of the amendments to this section enacted by the Statutes of 1978 or as such regulations may, thereafter, be amended.

(e) (1) Any substance which contains less than one-quarter of 1 percent asbestos which occurs solely as a result of naturally occurring impurities in the substance or its components shall be exempt from the provisions of this chapter until July 1, 1979.

(2) Pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 140) of Division 1 of the Labor Code, on or before June 1, 1979, the Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board shall conduct public hearings for the purpose of establishing classifications of use of products defined in paragraph (1) of this subdivision which are exempt from the prohibition of subdivision (a). The board shall, on or before July 1, 1979, establish by regulation such classifications, if any, of the use of products defined in paragraph (1) of this subdivision which the board determines are exempt from the prohibition of subdivision (a). After July 1, 1979, the board may, after public hearings, amend, add, or repeal such regulations.

(3) During any use, spraying, application, handling, storage, repair, disposal, processing, or transportation of such products, the person who causes or permits such acts pursuant to an exemption provided in, or adopted pursuant to, this subdivision shall comply with the provisions of Section 5208, Title 8, California Administrative Code as it exists on the effective date of the amendments to this section enacted by the Statutes of 1978 or may, thereafter, be amended. However, on or before July 1, 1979, the board shall adopt regulations, and make such regulations operative on July 1, 1979, to establish the time weighted average concentration limits and ceiling concentration limits for employee exposure to airborne asbestos fibers arising from any use, spraying, application, handling, storage, repair, disposal, processing, or transportation of any substance which contains less than one-quarter of 1 percent asbestos which occurs solely as a result of naturally occurring impurities in the substance or its components pursuant to an exemption adopted pursuant to this subdivision at levels no higher than the levels prescribed in subparagraph (A), paragraph (1), subdivision (g) of Section 5208, Title 8, California Administrative Code, as it exists on the effective date of the amendments to this section enacted by the Statutes of 1978 or as such regulations may, thereafter, be amended.

(f) The adoption of classifications of methods or processes or uses which are exempted from the prohibition of subdivision (a) by the Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board made pursuant to this section shall not in any way limit or prevent any inspections by the Division of Industrial Safety of the Department of Industrial Relations. The provisions of this section shall not supersede or in any way limit the requirements for monitoring and complying with the airborne asbestos fiber exposure limits, employee protective requirements, and reporting requirements of Section 24230 of this code, of Section 142.3 or 6500 of the Labor Code, or of the rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

SEC. 2. Section 25913 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25913. (a) (1) The Division of Industrial Safety of the Department of Industrial Relations shall enforce this chapter with respect to the safety of employees as provided in Part 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Division 5 of the Labor Code.

(2) However, the Division of Industrial Safety shall be responsible for the enforcement of subdivision (b) of Section 25910 only with respect to the manufacture of the substances described there, only when workers are handling such substances, and only if the division or any employee or agent of the division becomes aware of such manufacture. Furthermore, in such cases, the division shall enforce subdivision (b) of Section 25910 by issuing an order prohibiting use or entry, pursuant to the procedure described in Sections 6325 to 6327, inclusive, of the Labor Code, regardless of whether there exists employee exposure, a dangerous condition, improper guarding, dangerous placement, or an imminent hazard, and at any hearing concerning the validity of such an order, no proof need be tendered by the division concerning employee exposure, dangerous condition, improper guarding, dangerous placement, or imminent hazard.

(b) The State Department of Health Services shall have the responsibility for the administration and enforcement of this chapter with respect to its environmental and public health purposes and may commence and maintain all proper and necessary actions to enjoin activities constituting violations of this chapter or to compel the performance of any act specifically required of any person, officer, or board by this chapter with respect to the environmental and public health purposes of this chapter. The state department shall enforce the provisions of Section 25910 in any circumstances or facilities except as provided in subdivision (a) of this section, and, in such event, may notify the Division of Industrial Safety of any violations of such provisions within its jurisdiction.

SEC. 3. The provisions of Sections 1 and 2 of this act shall become operative on July 1, 1979.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be any appropriation made by this act because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local governmental entities and school districts which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes.

CHAPTER 1002

An act to amend Sections 9504 and 9511 of the Welfare and Institutions Code and to amend Section 12 of Chapter 1199 of the Statutes of 1977, relating to Nutrition and Volunteer Services Program for Senior Citizens, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9504 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

9504. (a) Senior citizen volunteers may be utilized in any project facility to help provide meals or other activities to meet a variety of community service needs.

(b) Senior citizen volunteers utilized pursuant to this chapter shall not be employees of the grantee agency and shall serve without compensation, except as provided in subdivision (d), or other benefits, including workers' compensation benefits, which are afforded employees of the entity administering the project.

(c) Senior citizen volunteers utilized to help provide meals to senior citizens under this chapter shall not be subject to any requirements of law governing the licensing or certifying of kitchen help, except that minimum standards for such volunteers shall include health standards established by the county for food service workers.

(d) Senior citizen volunteers utilized to help provide meals for senior citizens may be provided expenses for transportation to and from their home to the place where they render their services or may have transportation in schoolbuses or other transportation made available to them by the entity for which they render services. In addition, such senior citizen volunteers shall receive a free meal for each meal which they help to provide.

(e) No entity administering a program which is a school or community college district may abolish any of its classified positions and utilize senior citizen volunteers, as authorized herein, in lieu of classified employees who are laid off as a result of the abolition of a position; nor may a district refuse to employ a person in a vacant classified position and use senior citizen volunteers in lieu thereof.

(f) It is the intent of the Legislature to encourage the use of senior citizen volunteers but not to permit displacement of classified or regular employees or to allow the use of senior citizen volunteers in lieu of normal employee requirements.

SEC. 2. Section 9511 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

9511. The department shall conduct an evaluation of each pilot project and submit a report to the Legislature and the Governor on or before July 1, 1980. The evaluation and report shall include, but not be limited to, the following areas of inquiry:

(a) A comparison of the meals component of the pilot project with the nutrition program currently administered by the department under the provisions of Title VII of the Older Americans Act of 1965, as amended, including the average cost per meal and the number of persons served.

(b) An examination of the impact of the volunteer service component both in terms of the individual and the agency receiving services.

SEC. 3. Section 12 of Chapter 1199 of the Statutes of 1977 is amended to read:

Sec. 12. (a) There is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Aging, the sum of nine hundred thousand dollars ($900,000), without regard to fiscal year, for the purposes of carrying out the nutrition component established pursuant to Sections 9505, 9506, and subdivision (a) of 9507 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as added by this act.

(b) There is hereby appropriated from the Transportation Planning and Research Account in the State Transportation Fund for allocation by the Secretary of Business and Transportation to the Department of Aging, the following sums for the following fiscal years for the purposes of carrying out the transportation component established pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 9507 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as added by this act:

(1) For fiscal year 1977–78 ..... $25,000
(2) For fiscal year 1978–79 50,000
(3) For fiscal year 1979–80 50,000
(4) For fiscal year 1980–81 25,000

(c) Not more than 7 percent of the funds appropriated in any fiscal year may be used for administrative costs incurred by the department.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to resolve technical problems which are impeding the implementation of the Nutrition and Volunteer Services Program for Senior Citizens, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1003

An act to add Section 11743 to the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11743 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

11743. Any insurer adopting a change in the classifications of an employer which results in an increased premium shall notify in writing the employer, or where the insurance was transacted through an insurance agent or broker the insurer shall notify such agent or broker who shall notify in writing the employer, of the change and the reasons therefor. Any employer receiving such notice shall have the right to request reconsideration and appeal the reclassification pursuant to Section 11753.1. The notice required by this section shall inform the employer of his rights pursuant to Section 11753.1. No such notification shall be required when such change is as a result of a regulation adopted by the Department of Insurance or other action by or under the authority of the commissioner.

SEC. 2. Nothing in this act shall be construed to change the existing procedures whereby classifications are assigned to employers.

CHAPTER 1004

An act to amend Section 4144 of the Public Resources Code, relating to fire prevention and control.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4144 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

4144. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 4142, the director shall enter into a cooperative agreement with any county with a population of 130,000 or less, when any such county so requests, for the purpose of preventing and suppressing forest fires or other fires within the county, upon such terms and under such conditions as are mutually determined by the parties to be necessary or desirable to accomplish such purpose. Such cooperative agreement shall provide, in a reasonable manner, for the efficient utilization of necessary fire prevention and suppression related equipment, personnel, and buildings under the jurisdiction of the director located in the county during that period of the year commonly designated as the "nonfire season". Such equipment, personnel, and buildings shall be limited to those owned or leased by the state, or their replacements, and to such equipment, personnel, and buildings used during the fire season to protect state responsibility areas. Whenever the cooperative agreement provides for the employment of personnel during the "nonfire season" who would be in addition to the personnel required for the necessary operation and maintenance, during the "nonfire season," of equipment and buildings under the jurisdiction of the director, the full salaries and all benefits of such additional personnel shall be apportioned as costs to the county. The cooperative agreement shall also provide for a cost to the county and the state that reasonably reflects the cost apportionment between the county and the state pursuant to a cooperative agreement entered into by and between the director and the county on or before June 30, 1972, pursuant to Section 4142, except that the nonfire mission salary rates for state personnel shall not be included in determining such cost apportionment, or, if the county has not so entered into such prior cooperative agreement, the director shall use the cost apportionment figures available to him from any other county pursuant to this section. Any salary rates above the nonfire mission rate, including the difference between fire mission rate and nonfire mission rate total overtime pay at either regular or premium rate holiday pay, will be apportioned as costs to the county.

The director shall establish a three-year pilot program to implement the provisions of this section. Upon the completion of such three-year pilot program, the department shall submit a report to the Legislature on the cost and effectiveness of the program.

These provisions are necessary because sparsely populated rural counties lack the sufficient tax base to provide the necessary firefighting resources for year-round fire protection, and it is the intent of the Legislature that, pursuant to this section, fire protection will be provided until such time as a county has an adequate tax base to support its own fire protection.

CHAPTER 1005

An act to amend Sections 3051, 3051a, 3052, 3068, 3071, 3071.3, 3071.5, 3072, 3073, and 3074 of, and to add Section 3072.2 to, the Civil Code, and to amend Section 22705 of, to add Sections 22705.1 and 22707 to, and to repeal Section 22707 of, the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicle liens, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3051 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

3051. Every person who, while lawfully in possession of an article of personal property, renders any service to the owner thereof, by labor or skill, employed for the protection, improvement, safekeeping, or carriage thereof, has a special lien thereon, dependent on possession, for the compensation, if any, which is due to him from the owner for such service; a person who makes, alters, or repairs any article of personal property, at the request of the owner, or legal possessor of the property, has a lien on the same for his reasonable charges for the balance due for such work done and materials furnished, and may retain possession of the same until the charges are paid; and livery or boarding or feed stable or feed yard proprietors, and persons pasturing horses or stock, have a lien, dependent on possession, for their compensation in caring for, boarding, feeding, or pasturing such horses or stock; and foundry proprietors and persons conducting a foundry business, have a lien, dependent on possession, upon all patterns in their hands belonging to a customer, for the balance due them from such customers for foundry work; and plastic fabricators and persons conducting a plastic fabricating business, have a lien, dependent on possession, upon all patterns and molds in their hands belonging to a customer, for the balance due them from such customer for plastic fabrication work; and laundry proprietors and persons conducting a laundry business, and drycleaning establishment proprietors and persons conducting a drycleaning establishment, have a general lien, dependent on possession, upon all personal property in their hands belonging to a customer, for the balance due them from such customer for laundry work, and for the balance due them from such customers for drycleaning work, but nothing in this section shall be construed to confer a lien in favor of a wholesale drycleaner on materials received from a drycleaning establishment proprietor or a person conducting a drycleaning establishment; and veterinary proprietors and veterinary surgeons shall have a lien dependent on possession, for their compensation in caring for, boarding, feeding, and medical treatment of animals.

This section shall have no application to any vessel as defined in Section 21 of the Harbors and Navigation Code or to any vehicle as defined in Section 670 of the Vehicle Code.

SEC. 2. Section 3051a of the Civil Code is amended to read:

3051a. That portion of any lien, as provided for in the next preceding section, in excess of three hundred dollars ($300) for any work, services, or care, or in excess of two hundred dollars ($200) for any safekeeping, rendered or performed at the request of any person other than the holder of the legal title, shall be invalid, unless prior to commencing any such work, service, care, or safekeeping, the person claiming such lien shall give actual notice in writing either by personal service or by registered letter addressed to the holder of the legal title to such property, if known.

SEC. 3. Section 3052 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

3052. If the person entitled to the lien provided in Section 3051 is not paid the amount due, and for which such lien is given, within 10 days after the same shall have become due, then such lienholder may proceed to sell such property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy such lien and costs of sale at public auction, and by giving at least 10 days' but not more than 20 days' previous notice of such sale by advertising in some newspaper published in the county in which such property is situated; or if there be no newspaper printed in such county, then by posting notice of sale in three of the most public places in the town and at the place where such property is to be sold, for 10 days previous to the date of the sale; provided, however, that within 20 days after such sale, the legal owner may redeem any such property so sold to satisfy such lien upon the payment of the amount thereof, all costs and expenses of such sale, together with interest on such sum at the rate of 12 percent per annum from the due date thereof or the date when the same were advanced until the repayment. The proceeds of the sale must be applied to the discharge of the lien and the cost of keeping and selling the property; the remainder, if any, must be paid over to the legal owner thereof.

SEC. 4. Section 3068 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

3068. (a) Every person has a lien dependent upon possession for the compensation to which he is legally entitled for making repairs or performing labor upon, and furnishing supplies or materials for, and for the storage, repair or safekeeping of, and for the rental of parking space for, any vehicle of a type subject to registration under the Vehicle Code, subject to the limitations set forth in this chapter.

(b) That portion of the lien in excess of three hundred dollars ($300) for any work or services, or in excess of two hundred dollars ($200) for any storage safekeeping or rental of parking space or, if an application for an authorization to conduct a lien sale has been filed pursuant to Section 3071 within 30 days after the commencement of the storage or safekeeping, three hundred dollars ($300) for any storage or safekeeping, rendered or performed at the request of any person other than the holder of the legal title, is invalid, unless prior to commencing any such work services, storage, safekeeping or rental of parking space the person claiming the lien gives actual notice in writing either by personal service or by registered letter addressed to the legal owner named in the registration certificate, and the consent of the holder of the legal title is obtained before any such work services, storage, safekeeping or rental of parking space are performed. If any portion of a lien includes charges for the care, storage or safekeeping of, or for the rental of parking space for, a vehicle for a period in excess of 60 days, the portion of the lien which accrued after the expiration of such period is invalid unless the provisions of Sections 10650 and 10652 of the Vehicle Code have been complied with by the holder of the lien.

SEC. 5. Section 3071 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

3071. (a) When a lienholder under Section 3068 is not paid the amount due, and for which the lien is given, within 10 days after the same becomes due, then the lienholder may proceed to conduct a sale under this chapter to satisfy the lien and costs of sale, if (1) an authorization to conduct a lien sale has been issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles pursuant to this section, (2) a judgment has been entered in favor of the lienholder on the claim which gives rise to the lien, or (3) the registered and legal owners of the vehicle have signed, after the lien has arisen, a release of any interest in the vehicle in the form prescribed by Section 3071.5.

(b) A lienholder may apply to the department for the issuance of an authorization to conduct a lien sale under Section 3072. The application shall be executed under penalty of perjury and shall include all of the following:

(1) A description of the vehicle including make, vehicle identification number, and license number and state issued For motorcycles, the engine number shall also be included.

(2) The names and addresses of the registered and legal owners of the vehicle, if ascertainable from registration certificates within the vehicle, and the names and addresses of any other persons who the lienholder knows or reasonably should know claim an interest in the vehicle.

(3) A statement of the amount of the lien and the facts concerning the claim which gives rise to the lien.

(4) A statement that the lienholder has no information or belief that there is a valid defense to the claim which gives rise to the lien.

(c) Upon receipt of an application which is made pursuant to subdivision (a), the department shall send a notice and a copy of the application and a preaddressed return envelope by certified mail to the registered and legal owners at their addresses of record with the department and any other persons whose names and addresses are listed in the application. The notice shall include all of the following:

(1) A statement that an application has been made with the department for the issuance of an authorization to conduct a lien sale.

(2) A statement that (i) the person has a legal right to a hearing in court, (ii) if a hearing in court is desired, the enclosed declaration under penalty of perjury must be signed and returned, and (iii) if the declaration is signed and returned, the lienholder will be allowed to sell the vehicle only if he obtains a judgment in court or obtains a release from the registered and legal owners.

(3) A statement that (i) if the declaration is signed and returned, the lienholder must file an action in court, (ii) the registered and legal owners will be notified of the lawsuit, and (iii) the registered and legal owners may then appear to contest the claim of the lienholder.

(4) A statement that the department will issue the authorization to conduct a lien sale unless the person signs and returns, within 20 days after the date on which the notice was mailed, the enclosed declaration stating that the person desires to contest the claim which gives rise to the lien.

(5) A statement that the person shall be liable for costs if the lienholder brings an action and a judgment is entered in favor of the lienholder on the claim which gives rise to the lien.

(6) A declaration which may be executed by the person under penalty of perjury stating that he desires to contest the claim which gives rise to the lien and an address at which the person may be served in any action in court arising out of the lien.

(d) If the department receives a declaration described in paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) which is mailed within 20 days after the date upon which the notice described in subdivision (c) is mailed, it shall notify the lienholder that he may not conduct a lien sale unless (1) a judgment has been entered in his favor on the claim which gives rise to the lien or (2) the registered and legal owners of the vehicle have signed, after the lien has arisen, a release of any interest in the vehicle in the form prescribed by Section 3071.5. In any other case, the department shall issue an authorization to conduct a lien sale. Any lien under this chapter which arises because work or services have been performed on a vehicle with the consent of the registered owner shall be extinguished unless the lienholder files an action in court within 20 days after the lienholder receives a notice from the department under this subdivision.

(e) Upon the filing of an application, the department shall charge a fee which shall be established by the department in an amount equal to the actual costs of the department incurred in processing the application. The fee shall be recoverable as a cost by the lienholder if a lien sale is conducted.

(f) Any lien under this chapter which arises because work or services have been performed on a vehicle with the consent of the registered owner shall be extinguished and no lien sale under Section 3072 shall be conducted unless (1) the lienholder applies for an authorization to conduct a lien sale under subdivision (b) within 10 days after the lien has arisen or (2) if no application is made under subdivision (b), an action in court is filed within 30 days after the lien has arisen. For the purposes of this subdivision, a lien shall be deemed to arise at the time a written statement of charges for completed work or services is presented to the registered owner.

(g) The form of the applications, notices, and declarations described in this section shall be prescribed by the department. The language used in the applications, notices, and declarations should be simple and nontechnical. The notice and declaration described in subdivision (c) shall be printed in both English and Spanish.

(h) The procedure described in this section shall not be applicable if the vehicle is a mobilehome as defined in Section 396 of the Vehicle Code. A lien sale of the mobilehome may be conducted only if a judgment has been entered in favor of the lienholder on the claim which gives rise to the lien or the registered and legal owners have signed, after the lien has arisen, a release of any interest in the mobilehome in the form prescribed by Section 3071.5.

SEC. 6. Section 3071.3 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

3071.3. (a) A person who holds a lien on a vehicle under Section 3068 and who declares under penalty of perjury that the value of the vehicle does not exceed two hundred dollars ($200), and who is not paid within 10 days after the amount becomes due, may proceed to sell the property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the lien and costs of sale pursuant to Section 3073, if (1) the registered and legal owners, and any other person having an interest in the vehicle do not sign and return to the Department of Motor Vehicles a declaration of opposition stating a desire to contest the claim, or (2) a judgment has been entered in favor of the lienholder on the claim which gives rise to the lien, or (3) the registered and legal owners of the vehicle have signed, after the lien has arisen, a release of any interest in the vehicle on the form prescribed by Section 3071.5.

(b) A lienholder who intends to conduct a sale under Section 3073 shall send by certified mail, return receipt requested, a certificate of lien as specified in subdivision (c) and a notice that a lien sale may be conducted under Section 3073 to (1) the registered and legal owners at their addresses of record with the Department of Motor Vehicles and (2) any other person identified under paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of this section Copies of the certificate and notice shall be sent concurrently by certified mail to the department.

(c) The certificate shall be executed under penalty of perjury and shall include all of the following

(1) A description of the vehicle including make, vehicle identification number, and license number and state issued. For motorcycles, the engine number shall also be included.

(2) The names and addresses of the registered and legal owners of record, of any transferee under Section 5900 of the Vehicle Code, and of any other person who the lienholder knows or reasonably should know claims an interest in the vehicle.

(3) A statement of the amount of the lien and the facts concerning the claim which gives rise to the lien.

(4) A statement that the lienholder has no information or belief that there is a valid defense to the claim which gives rise to the lien.

(d) A lienholder shall send concurrently with the certificate and notice a form for declaring opposition and a return envelope preaddressed to the department, to the registered and legal owners and any other person identified under paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) who may have a claim of interest in the vehicle. This form shall include all of the following:

(1) A statement that (i) the person has a legal right to a hearing in court, and (ii) if a hearing in court is desired, the enclosed declaration under penalty of perjury must be signed and returned, and (iii) if the declaration is signed and returned, the lienholder will be allowed to sell the vehicle only if he obtains a judgment in court or obtains a release from the registered and legal owners.

(2) A statement that (i) if the declaration is signed and returned to the department, the lienholder must file an action in court, (ii) the person who contests the validity of the lien will be notified of the lawsuit, and (iii) such person may then appear to contest the claim of the lienholder.

(3) A statement that the lienholder will conduct a lien sale, as indicated in the notice of sale under Section 3073, unless the person signs and returns, within 20 days after the date on which the certificate and notice were mailed, the enclosed declaration stating that the person desires to contest the claim which gives rise to the lien.

(4) A statement that the person shall be liable for costs if the lienholder brings an action and a judgment is entered in favor of the lienholder on the claim which gives rise to the lien.

(5) A declaration of opposition which may be executed by the person under penalty of perjury stating that he desires to contest the claim which gives rise to the lien and an address at which the person may be served in any action in court arising out of the lien.

(e) If the department receives a declaration of opposition described in subdivision (d) which is mailed within 20 days after the date upon which the certificate and notice were mailed, the department shall notify the lienholder, within 10 days, that he may not conduct a lien sale unless (i) a judgment has been entered in his favor on the claim which gives rise to the lien or (ii) the registered and legal owners of the vehicle have signed, after the lien has arisen, a release of any interest in the vehicle in the form prescribed by Section 3071.5. If the lienholder is not notified by the department within 36 days after mailing of the notice under subdivision (b) the lienholder may conduct a lien sale pursuant to Section 3073 and in compliance with the notice sent under subdivision (b). Any lien under this chapter which arises because work or services have been performed on a vehicle with the consent of the registered owner shall be extinguished unless the lienholder files an action in court within 20 days after the lienholder receives a notice from the department under this subdivision.

(f) The form of the notices, certificates, and declarations referred to in this section shall be prescribed by the department. The language used in the notices and declarations should be simple and nontechnical. The certificates, notices of lien sale under Section 3073 and declarations of opposition shall be printed in both English and Spanish.

(g) Any lien under this chapter which arises because work or services have been performed on a vehicle with the consent of the registered owner shall be extinguished and no lien sale under Section 3072 shall be conducted unless (1) the lienholder sends notice under this section within 10 days after the lien has arisen or (2) if this section is not used, an action in court is filed within 30 days after the lien has arisen. For the purposes of this subdivision, a lien shall be deemed to arise at the time a written statement of charges for completed work or services is presented to the registered owner.

(h) The procedure described in this section shall not be applicable if the vehicle is a mobilehome as defined in Section 396 of the Vehicle Code. A lien sale of the mobilehome may be conducted only if a judgment has been entered in favor of the lienholder on the claim which gives rise to the lien or the registered and legal owners have signed, after the lien has arisen, a release of any interest in the mobilehome on the form prescribed by Section 3071.5.

SEC. 7. Section 3071.5 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

3071.5. (a) A registered or legal owner of a vehicle in the possession of a person holding a lien under this chapter may release any interest in the vehicle after the lien has arisen. The release shall be dated when signed and a copy shall be given at the time the release is signed to the person releasing the interest.

(b) The release shall be in at least 12-point type and shall contain all of the following information in simple, nontechnical language:

(1) A description of the vehicle, including the year and make, the engine or vehicle identification number, and the license number, if available.

(2) The names and addresses of the registered and legal owners of record with the Department of Motor Vehicles, if available.

(3) A statement of the amount of the lien and the facts concerning the claim which gives rise to the lien.

(4) A statement that the person releasing the interest understands that (i) he has a legal right to a hearing in court prior to any sale of the vehicle to satisfy the lien and (ii) he is giving up the right to appear to contest the claim of the lienholder.

(5) A statement that (i) the person releasing the interest gives up any interest he may have in the vehicle and (ii) he is giving the lienholder permission to sell the vehicle.

(c) The release required by this section shall not be filed with the department in connection with any transfer of interest in a vehicle

SEC. 8. Section 3072 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

3072. Prior to any such sale the lienholder shall give at least 10 days' but not more than 20 days' notice of the sale by advertising for one issue in some newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which the property is situated. If there is no newspaper published in such county, notice shall be given by posting notice of sale in three of the most public places in the town and at the place where the property is to be sold, for 10 days previous to the date of the sale. Prior to the sale of any vehicle to satisfy any such lien, 20 days' notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, shall be given to the legal owner and to the registered owner of the vehicle, if registered in this state, as the same appear in the registration certificate, and also to the Department of Motor Vehicles by registered mail or certified mail whether or not the vehicle is registered in this state. All notices required by this chapter shall specify the make, the vehicle identification number, and license number, and state of issuance, and the date, time, and place of the sale. For motorcycles, the engine number shall be included.

SEC. 9. Section 3072.2 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

3072.2. The proceeds of all lien sales conducted pursuant to this chapter shall be disposed of as follows:

(a) To the discharge of the lien and actual costs of selling the property. The cost of selling shall be the actual cost, not to exceed fifty dollars ($50) for each vehicle.

(b) The balance, if any, shall be forwarded to the Department of Motor Vehicles within five days of a sale conducted pursuant to Section 3073, or within 25 days of a sale conducted pursuant to Section 3072, for payment to the legal owner of any unpaid obligation, whether or not a claim has been filed pursuant to subdivision (c) or for deposit in the Motor Vehicle Account.

(c) Any person claiming an interest in the vehicle may file a claim with the Department of Motor Vehicles for any portion of the funds from such lien sale which were forwarded to the department pursuant to subdivision (b).

Upon determination of the Department of Motor Vehicles that the claimant is entitled to an amount from the balance deposited with the department, the department shall pay the amount which in no case shall exceed the amount forwarded to the department pursuant to subdivision (b) in connection with the sale of the vehicle in which the claimant claims an interest. The department shall not honor any claim unless the claim has been filed within three years of the date such funds were forwarded to the department.

(d) Those funds in the Motor Vehicle Account which are received by the department pursuant to subdivision (b) are hereby continuously appropriated for the purpose of paying claims pursuant to subdivision (c).

SEC. 10. Section 3073 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

3073. (a) With respect to abandoned vehicles only, within ten working days following the date of possession of a vehicle pursuant to Section 22705 of the Vehicle Code from the public agency, the lienholder shall make a request to the Department of Motor Vehicles for the names and addresses of all persons having an interest in the vehicle. The lienholder shall immediately, upon receipt of this information from the Department of Motor Vehicles, notify all persons pursuant to this section and Section 3071.3.

(b) For vehicle liens acquired other than pursuant to Section 22705 of the Vehicle Code, when the lienholder certifies under penalty of perjury that the value of the vehicle subject to the lien does not exceed two hundred dollars ($200), the lienholder may sell such vehicle at public sale, upon the giving of notice as provided in this section and Section 3071.3. The lienholder shall notify the legal owner and the registered owner by certified mail, return receipt requested, and the department by certified mail, or United States Post Office certificate of mailing, of the time and place of the sale. At least 10 days before the sale, the lienholder shall also post a notice of the sale in a conspicuous place on the premises where the vehicle is stored, and the business office of the lienholder giving the date and time of the sale and a description of the vehicle, including the make, vehicle identification number, and license number, and state of issuance For motorcycles the engine number shall also be included.

SEC. 11. Section 3074 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

3074. Within 20 days after the sale of any vehicle under the authority of Section 3071, the legal or registered owner may redeem such vehicle upon the payment of the amount thereof, all costs and expenses of such sale, together with interest on such sum at the rate of 12 percent per annum from the due date thereof or the date when the same were advanced until the repayment. This section shall not be applicable to vehicles sold under the authority of Section 3073.

SEC. 12. Section 22705 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

22705. If the vehicle is appraised at a value not exceeding two hundred dollars ($200), the public agency which removed the vehicle shall.

(a) Within 48 hours after appraisal notify the Department of Justice in Sacramento of the removal of such vehicle.

(b) Prepare a certificate containing a description of the vehicle (including the location of any license plates thereon), stating the appraisal value of the vehicle and that the vehicle will be sold to an automobile dismantler or a scrap metal processor, and indicating one of the following·

(1) A lienholder has submitted a statement under penalty of perjury to the public agency that the registered and legal owners and other persons having an interest in the vehicle did not sign and return within 20 days to the Department of Motor Vehicles a declaration of opposition stating a desire to contest the claim which gives rise to the lien pursuant to Section 3071.3 of the Civil Code.

(2) The registered and legal owners have signed a release under penalty of perjury disclaiming any interest, which release shall be included with the certificate.

(3) The vehicle is in such condition that vehicle identification numbers are not available to determine owners of record with the department, in which event the vehicle may be disposed of.

(c) Upon completion of the certificate, execute and deliver a bill of sale free of any lien for fees and penalties due and payable to the department together with a copy of the certificate either to the lienholder, who shall endorse the bill of sale to a licensed automobile dismantler, or to the licensed automobile dismantler or the public agency for disposal, whichever has the vehicle in possession.

(d) Licensed dismantlers acquiring vehicles which are the subject of certificates prepared and forwarded pursuant to this section shall be excused from any fees and penalties which would otherwise be due to the Department of Motor Vehicles, if a copy of the certificate forwarded to the Department of Motor Vehicles pursuant to this section is retained in the licensed dismantler's business record.

(e) A public agency may authorize by contract or franchise the removal, disposal, or removal and disposal, of such vehicles by other than a licensed automobile dismantler if it has first requested bids for removal, disposal, or removal and disposal, of such vehicles. Such franchise or contract shall be issued to or executed with the lowest responsible bidder. The bill of sale shall then be executed and delivered pursuant to subdivision (c) to the franchisee or contractor.

SEC. 13. Section 22705.1 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

22705.1. After acquiring possession of a vehicle under the provisions of Section 22705, the lienholder shall, within ten working days following the date of possession of a vehicle pursuant to Section 22705, make a request to the Department of Motor Vehicles for the names and addresses of all persons having an interest in the vehicle. The lienholder shall immediately, upon receipt of this information from the Department of Motor Vehicles, notify all persons pursuant to Sections 3071.3 and 3073 of the Civil Code.

SEC. 14. Section 22707 of the Vehicle Code is repealed.

SEC. 15. Section 22707 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

22707. The proceeds of a lien sale under this article shall be disposed of as follows:

(a) To discharge the lien and actual cost of selling the property. The cost of selling shall be the actual cost, not to exceed fifty dollars ($50) for each vehicle.

(b) The balance, if any, shall be forwarded to the Department of Motor Vehicles within five days of the sale for payment to the legal owner of any unpaid obligation, whether or not a claim has been filed pursuant to subdivision (c), or for deposit in the Motor Vehicle Account.

(c) Any person claiming an interest in the vehicle may file a claim with the Department of Motor Vehicles for any portion of the funds from such lien sale which were forwarded to the department pursuant to subdivision (b).

Upon determination of the Department of Motor Vehicles that the claimant is entitled to an amount from the balance deposited with the department, the department shall pay the amount which in no case shall exceed the amount forwarded to the department pursuant to subdivision (b) in connection with the sale of the vehicle in which the claimant claims an interest. The department shall not honor any claim unless the claim has been filed within three years of the date such funds were forwarded to the department.

(d) Those funds in the Motor Vehicle Account which are received by the department pursuant to subdivision (b) are hereby continuously appropriated for the purpose of paying claims pursuant to subdivision (c).

CHAPTER 1006

An act to add Chapter 2.6 (commencing with Section 5410) to Division 5 of the Public Resources Code, relating to parks.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 2.6 (commencing with Section 5410) is added to Division 5 of the Public Resources Code, to read:

CHAPTER 2.6. PUBLIC PLAYGROUND EQUIPMENT

5410. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that playground equipment accessible to and usable by all persons regardless of physical condition is becoming increasingly available. The Legislature further finds and declares that it is a matter of statewide interest and concern that all public agencies providing playgrounds utilize such facilities to the maximum extent possible, and, where feasible, provide playground equipment usable by both able-bodied and physically disabled persons so as to integrate able-bodied and physically disabled persons within such playgrounds.

5411 All public agencies operating playgrounds, including state agencies, cities, counties, a city and county, school districts and other districts, shall, with respect to new playground equipment purchased on or after January 1, 1979, provide that a portion of the equipment within the playground is accessible and usable by all persons regardless of their physical condition whenever such equipment is available at a quality and cost which is comparable to the quality and cost of standard equipment.

SEC. 2. Nothing in this act is intended to reduce the obligation of any school district or other public agency to provide accessible and usable facilities for physically disabled persons as required by federal or state law.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act. The Legislature estimates that there will be no additional costs to local agencies because new playground equipment will be purchased pursuant to this act at no greater cost than would be the cost for the purchase of standard equipment.

CHAPTER 1007

An act to amend Section 68046 of, and to add Sections 66786.4 and 68046.5 to, the Government Code, and to amend Section 42652 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to methane gas recovery

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that:

(a) In view of the uncertain availability of domestic supplies of natural gas and California's increased reliance on imported sources of fossil fuels, it is the policy of the state to actively encourage the development of new domestic sources of natural gas or equivalent fuels, for use in California homes, commercial enterprises, and industries.

(b) During the natural decomposition of wastes, such as refuse and sewage sludge deposited at landfills, substantial quantities of gases, and especially methane gas, are produced having significant energy potential; however, much of this valuable methane gas is not now being productively used.

(c) Techniques are available to collect and treat such unused methane gas for use in heating, production of steam, and generation of electricity.

(d) Landfills will continue, at least in the short term, to be a major waste management technique and methane recovery at landfills should be encouraged where other resource and energy recovery opportunities are not available.

(e) The collection and treatment of landfills gas may also reduce the potential hazards of explosive gas migration and odor nuisance at landfills

SEC. 2. Section 66786.4 is added to the Government Code, to read:

66786.4. (a) It is the policy of the state and the intent of the Legislature to encourage the recovery and utilization of methane gas produced during the natural decomposition of wastes at landfills in California, to the extent that such recovery and utilization is technologically and economically feasible and when other more productive resource and energy recovery options or opportunities are not available. It is further the policy of the state and the intent of the Legislature to encourage private sector participation in this effort.

(b) The State Solid Waste Management Board shall undertake a study regarding the feasibility of recovering methane gas from landfills. The feasibility study shall include, but not be limited to, an assessment of the available information on all of the following:

(1) The state of the art of methane recovery technology and the development of examples of demonstrated or experimental methane recovery systems.

(2) Landfill requirements necessary for effective methane recovery, including, but not limited to, landfill size, depth, venting, amount of water, and composition of waste.

(3) Methods for estimating the life of the gas resource at landfill sites and for determining gas production potential.

(4) Capital requirements for methane recovery technology and the impact of state assistance in funding.

(5) Institutional arrangements.

(6) Potential end uses for recovered methane, including the mixture of purified gas with natural gas, direct industrial applications of low BTU gas, electrical generation from raw gas, and conversion to methanol; a comparison of the energy value and costs of for each end use.

(7) Landfill sites in California which have significant potential for effective, economical methane recovery.

(8) The role of methane recovery in waste management and resource recovery programs; brief comparison of methane recovery with other energy and material recovery options as regards energy potential, environmental impacts, and capital costs.

(c) Based upon the findings of the feasibility study, the board shall develop a proposed program to implement maximum feasible recovery of methane gas at landfills in the state. The program shall include recommendations on each of the following subjects, indicating where action or financial support by the state is appropriate.

(1) The role of methane recovery in the resource recovery program adopted by the board pursuant to Section 66785, including priorities for funding.

(2) Appropriate roles for state and local government in implementing methane recovery at landfills and the role of the State Solid Waste Management Board in providing technical assistance to private and public entities undertaking methane recovery projects.

(3) Requirements for further data analysis.

(4) Demonstration projects.

(5) Sources of funding for methane recovery projects.

(6) Financial incentives necessary to facilitate private sector investment in methane recovery, including the possibility of investment tax credits, state assistance in funding, and Public Utilities Commission deregulation governing sales to multiple customers.

(7) Study of the feasibility of improving the design and engineering of future landfills to enhance methane recovery.

(8) Legislative and executive actions necessary to implement the program.

(d) The board shall submit the feasibility study and the recommendations for the program to implement maximum feasible recovery of methane at landfills to the Legislature and to the Governor on or before December 31, 1979.

SEC. 3. Section 68046 of the Government Code, as amended by Chapter 87 of the Statutes of 1978, is amended to read:

68046. Twenty percent of the State Litter Control, Recycling, and Resource Recovery Fund shall be expended by the board for grants and loans to public agencies, private entities, or combinations thereof, as determined by the board, for implementation of the state research and development program for recovery of resources and energy from wastes mandated by Section 66785 and for expenditure by the board pursuant to Section 68046.5 Grants or loans for the planning, design, construction, operation, or maintenance, or a combination thereof, of resources and energy recovery projects authorized by this section shall be made by the board only if the project:

(a) Is not in potential conflict with the state policy for solid waste management required by Section 66770 or the solid waste management plans required by Section 66780.

(b) Is designed to make a substantial, long-term contribution to regional or areawide solution of the solid and liquid waste disposal problems.

(c) Advances the development of technologically and economically feasible, operational resources and energy recovery systems.

(d) Provides an equitable procedure for financing and distributing, among the users, the costs associated with the planning, design, construction, operation, and maintenance of the project and a reserve for contingencies.

(e) Is proposed by the public agency or private entity, or combination thereof, which:

(1) Demonstrates a capacity to provide satisfactory performance of solid waste management activities;

(2) Possesses sufficient financial resources and stability to ensure protection of the public interest in the project by bonding or other sureties deemed appropriate by the board;

(3) Is capable of producing plans and specifications susceptible to implementation; and

(4) To the extent practicable, provides written confirmation of the economic viability of the project in the form of contracts for recovered resources or energy with guaranteed purchasers at guaranteed prices for the period of time deemed satisfactory by the board.

SEC. 4. Section 68046.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

68046.5. Funds allocated pursuant to Section 68046 may also be used by the board to carry out the provisions of Section 66786.4, including, but not limited to, the encumbering of funds from the State Litter Control, Recycling, and Resource Recovery Fund, upon appropriation therefor by the Legislature, as specified in Section 42652 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. The board shall not, however, encumber more than seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) during the 1978–79 fiscal year. The Legislature finds and declares that such provisions promote and carry out the purposes set forth in Section 68002 and in this article.

SEC. 5. Section 42652 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 87 of the Statutes of 1978, is amended to read.

42652. The money in the State Litter Control, Recycling, and Resource Recovery Fund shall, upon order of the State Controller, be drawn therefrom as follows:

(a) To pay the refunds authorized by this part.

(b) To pay the State Board of Equalization for the cost of administration of this part.

(c) The balance to be expended by the State Solid Waste Management Board, as provided in Title 7.8 (commencing with Section 68000) of the Government Code; provided, such money shall not be expended for purposes of Section 66786.4 of the Government Code, and as provided in Section 68046.5 of the Government Code, without appropriation therefor by the Legislature.

SEC. 5.5. Section 42652 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 87 of the Statutes of 1978, is amended to read:

42652. The money in the State Litter Control, Recycling, and Resource Recovery Fund shall, upon order of the State Controller, be drawn therefrom as follows:

(a) To pay the refunds authorized by this part.

(b) To pay the State Board of Equalization for the cost of administration of this part.

(c) The balance to be expended by the State Solid Waste Management Board, as provided in Title 7.8 (commencing with Section 68000) of the Government Code; provided, such money shall not be expended for purposes of Article 8 (commencing with Section 32370) of Chapter 3 of Part 19 of the Education Code, and as provided in Section 68042 of the Government Code, without appropriation therefor by the Legislature, and provided further, such money shall not be expended for purposes of Section 66786.4 of the Government Code, and as provided in Section 68046.5 of the Government Code, without appropriation therefor by the Legislature.

SEC. 6. On or before March 1, 1979, the State Solid Waste Management Board shall consider and adopt official board policy concerning the board's recommendation to the Secretary of the Resources Agency regarding the eligibility of methane recovery projects for California Pollution Control Financing Authority funding, specifically considering the statutory and constitutional requirement that projects certified for such funding result in significant reduction in pollution.

SEC. 7. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 2636 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 42652 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2636, that the amendments to Section 42652 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 42652 in the form set forth in Section 5.5 of this act. Therefore, Section 5.5 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 2636 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both amend Section 42652, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2636, in which case Section 5 of this act shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1008

An act to add Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 25650) to Division 15 of the Public Resources Code, relating to energy, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 25650) is added to Division 15 of the Public Resources Code, to read:

CHAPTER 7.5. COAL GASIFICATION

25650. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Coal Gasification Generation Act.

25651. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares that a reliable supply of energy is essential for rational and efficient business planning and activity, and for the maintenance of high levels of employment, production, and income for the people of the state, and that it is the responsibility of state government to ensure that energy is produced and distributed in a manner consistent with the protection of environmental quality and the general welfare.

(b) The Legislature further finds and declares that uncertainties in the supply and price of traditional fuels, and the increasing knowledge of the environmental hazards of existing conventional technologies, have created an urgent need to develop, demonstrate, and commercialize new and advanced energy technologies, and that coal gasification shows near-term promise as a reliable source of energy.

(c) The Legislature further finds and declares that financial commitment by public agencies, public and private utilities, and private industry for the expeditious development of advanced coal gasification generation technologies depends upon credible and timely demonstrations of the feasibility, efficiency, environmental acceptability, and reliability of those technologies in units of commercial scale.

(d) The Legislature further finds and declares that timely demonstration, development, and commercialization of advanced energy technologies requires expanded authority for direct participation in energy development projects by state government, that there is a statewide need to expedite decisions on developing and financing such projects, that there is a need to establish and consolidate the state's responsibility for participation in such projects, and that all governmental action necessary for implementing this policy and intent be coordinated and expedited by state agencies to the maximum extent possible.

(e) The Legislature further finds that the methods for participation in energy projects provided by this division are in the public interest and serve a public purpose and will promote the health, welfare, and economic security of the citizens of the state.

25652. It is the purpose of this division to carry out and make effective the findings of the Legislature and to that end to aid industry, utilities, and public agencies within the state in providing and establishing coal gasification generation facilities which are needed to accomplish the purposes of this division.

25653. The commission shall evaluate coal gasification generation projects and the Business and Transportation Agency shall evaluate the economic benefits of such projects to the people of the State of California. The commission and the Business and Transportation Agency may call upon any agency, board, or department of the state government or the University of California for aid and assistance in the preparation of plans and specifications and in the development of this technology necessary to develop energy projects in the State of California.

25654. The commission is hereby authorized to negotiate, enter into contracts and participate in agreements with any public or private utility, public agency, private research institution or any other party, consistent with the purposes of this division, to support the construction of a coal gasification electric generation commercial determination project in California.

25655. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, if a person proposes a coal gasification combined cycle demonstration plant for construction in California, no notice of intention shall be required, and the commission shall issue its final decision on the application, as specified in Section 25523 within 12 months after the filing of the application for certification of such facility, or at such later time as is mutually agreed by the commission and the applicant.

Such facility may not exceed 300 megawatts unless the commission, by regulation, authorizes a greater capacity. The provisions of Section 25524 shall not apply to any such powerplant and related facility or facilities.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to allow for the expeditious development of advanced coal gasification generation technologies, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1009

An act to add Sections 25004.2 and 25134 to the Public Resources Code, and to amend Sections 216 and 218 of, and to add Section 218.5 to, the Public Utilities Code, relating to energy.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25004.2 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

25004.2. The Legislature further finds that cogeneration technology is a potential energy resource and should be an important element of the state's energy supply mix. The Legislature further finds that cogeneration technology can assist meeting the state's energy needs while reducing the long-term use of conventional fuels, is readily available for immediate application, and reduces negative environmental impacts. The Legislature further finds that cogeneration technology is important with respect to the providing of a reliable and clean source of energy within the state and that cogeneration technology should receive immediate support and commitment from state government.

SEC. 2. Section 25134 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

25134. "Cogeneration technology" means the use for the generation of electricity of exhaust steam, waste steam, heat, or resultant energy from an industrial, commercial, or manufacturing plant or process, or the use of exhaust steam, waste steam, or heat from a thermal powerplant for an industrial, commercial, or manufacturing plant or process. For purposes of this division, the industrial, commercial, or manufacturing plant or process shall not be considered a thermal powerplant or portion thereof. Cogeneration technology shall not include steam or heat developed solely for electrical power generation.

SEC. 3. Section 216 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

216. (a) "Public utility" includes every common carrier, toll bridge corporation, pipeline corporation, gas corporation, electrical corporation, telephone corporation, telegraph corporation, water corporation, sewer system corporation, wharfinger, warehouseman, and heat corporation, where the service is performed for or the commodity delivered to the public or any portion thereof.

(b) Whenever any common carrier, toll bridge corporation, pipeline corporation, gas corporation, electrical corporation, telephone corporation, telegraph corporation, water corporation, sewer system corporation, wharfinger, warehouseman, or heat corporation performs a service or delivers a commodity to the public or any portion thereof for which any compensation or payment whatsoever is received, such common carrier, toll bridge corporation, pipeline corporation, gas corporation, electrical corporation, telephone corporation, telegraph corporation, water corporation, sewer system corporation, wharfinger, warehouseman, or heat corporation, is a public utility subject to the jurisdiction, control, and regulation of the commission and the provisions of this part.

(c) When any person or corporation performs any service or delivers any commodity to any person, private corporation, municipality or other political subdivision of the state, which in turn either directly or indirectly, mediately or immediately, performs such service or delivers such commodity to or for the public or some portion thereof, such person or corporation is a public utility subject to the jurisdiction, control, and regulation of the commission and the provisions of this part.

(d) In no event shall ownership or operation of a facility which employs cogeneration technology be deemed to make a corporation or person a public utility, within the meaning of this section, solely because of the ownership or operation of such a cogeneration facility.

SEC. 4. Section 218 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

218. "Electrical corporation" includes every corporation or person owning, controlling, operating, or managing any electric plant for compensation within this state, except where electricity is generated on or distributed by the producer through private property alone solely for his own use or the use of his tenants and not for sale to others.

"Electrical corporation" shall not include a corporation or person employing cogeneration technology solely for the generation of electricity for its own use or the use of its tenants or for sale to an electrical corporation or state or local public agency, but not for sale to others, unless such corporation or person is otherwise an electrical corporation.

SEC. 5. Section 218.5 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

218.5. "Cogeneration technology" means the use for the generation of electricity of exhaust steam, waste steam, heat, or resultant energy from an industrial, commercial, or manufacturing plant or process, or the use of exhaust steam, waste steam, or heat from a thermal powerplant for an industrial, commercial, or manufacturing plant or process. For purposes of this division, the industrial, commercial, or manufacturing plant or process shall not be considered a thermal powerplant or portion thereof. Cogeneration technology shall not include steam or heat developed solely for electrical power generation.

CHAPTER 1010

An act to amend Sections 25503 and 25524 of, to add Section 25134 to, and to add Section 25540.6 to, the Public Resources Code, to amend Section 218 of the Public Utilities Code, and to amend Section 6353 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to energy.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25134 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

25134. "Cogeneration technology" means the use for the generation of electricity of exhaust steam, waste steam, heat, or resultant energy from an industrial, commercial, or manufacturing plant or process, or the use of exhaust steam, waste steam, or heat from a thermal powerplant for an industrial, commercial, or manufacturing plant or process. For purposes of this division, the industrial, commercial, or manufacturing plant or process shall not be considered a thermal powerplant or portion thereof. Cogeneration technology shall not include steam or heat developed solely for electrical power generation.

SEC. 2. Section 25503 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25503. Each notice of intention to file an application shall contain at least three alternative sites and related facilities, at least one of which shall not be located in whole or in part in the coastal zone. In addition, the alternative sites and related electrical facilities may be proposed from an inventory of sites which have previously been approved by the commission in a notice of intent or may be proposed from sites previously examined.

SEC. 3. Section 25524 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25524 The commission shall not certify any facility contained in the application, unless its findings with respect to subdivision (f) of Section 25523 are in the affirmative.

SEC. 4. Section 25540.6 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

25540.6. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, if a person proposes any of the following, no notice of intention shall be required, and the commission shall issue its final decision on the application, as specified in Section 25523, within 12 months after the filing of the application for certification of such powerplant and related facility or facilities, or at such later time as is mutually agreed by the commission and the applicant:

(a) A thermal powerplant which will employ cogeneration technology. Such facility may not exceed 300 megawatts unless the commission, by regulation, authorizes a greater capacity.

(b) A modification of an existing facility.

(c) A thermal powerplant which it is only technologically or economically feasible to site at or near the energy source.

(d) A thermal powerplant with a generating capacity of up to 100 megawatts.

(e) A thermal powerplant designed to develop or demonstrate technologies which have not previously been built or operated on a commercial scale. Such research, development, or commercial demonstration project may include, but not be limited to, use of renewable or alternative fuels, improvements in energy conversion efficiency, or use of advanced pollution control systems. Such facility may not exceed 300 megawatts unless the commission, by regulation, authorizes a greater capacity. The provisions of Section 25524 shall not apply to any such powerplant and related facility or facilities.

SEC. 5. Section 218 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

218. "Electrical corporation" includes every corporation or person owning, controlling, operating, or managing any electric plant for compensation within this state, except where electricity is generated on or distributed by the producer through private property alone solely for his own use or the use of his tenants and not for sale to others.

Electrical corporation shall not include a corporation or person employing cogeneration technology solely for the generation of electricity for its own use or the use of its tenants or for sale to an electrical corporation or state or local public agency, but not for sale to others, unless such corporation or person is otherwise an electrical corporation.

SEC. 6. Section 6353 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6353. There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this part the gross receipts from the sales, furnishing, or service of and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of gas, electricity, and water when delivered to consumers through mains, lines, or pipes, and water when sold to an individual in bulk quantities of 50 gallons or more for general household use in his residence if the residence is located in an area not serviced by mains, lines or pipes, and of exhaust steam, waste steam, heat, or resultant energy, produced in connection with cogeneration technology, as defined in Section 25134 of the Public Resources Code.

CHAPTER 1011

An act to amend Sections 54309.1, 54310, 66786, 68040, 68041, and 68042 of, and to add Sections 6579.5, 54307.3, 66780.8, 66786.1, 66786.2, and 66786.3 to, the Government Code, and to amend Section 44532.5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to solid waste, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6579.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

6579.5. In addition to other powers, any agency, commission, or board provided for by a joint powers agreement entered into pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 6500) of this chapter, if such entity has the power to acquire, construct, maintain, or operate systems, plants, buildings, works, or other facilities or property for the purposes of disposal, treatment, or conversion to energy and reusable materials of solid waste, may issue revenue bonds pursuant to the Revenue Bond Law of 1941, Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 54300) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5, to pay the cost and expenses of acquiring, constructing, improving, and financing a project for any and all such purposes.

Upon adopting the resolution referred to in Article 3 (commencing with Section 54380) of Chapter 6 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5, the entity shall implement the resolution by conducting an election in its own territory as provided in Section 54307.3. The proposition authorizing the bonds shall be deemed adopted if it receives the affirmative vote of a majority of all the voters voting on the proposition within the entity.

SEC. 2. Section 54307.3 is added to the Government Code, to read:

54307.3. "Local agency" also means any entity or agency created pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 6500) of Chapter 5 of Division 7 of Title 1 for the purpose of acquiring, constructing, maintaining, or operating systems, plants, buildings, works or other facilities or property for the purposes of disposal, treatment, or conversion to energy and reusable materials of solid waste. Any proposition submitted to an election held within such local agency for the purpose of authorizing bonds shall be deemed adopted if it receives the affirmative vote of a majority of all the voters voting on the proposition. Such an election shall be held within the combined territory of all local agencies which, pursuant to such Article 1, have jointly created such entity or agency.

SEC. 3. Section 54309.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54309.1. "Enterprise" includes, but is not limited to, all parts of the enterprise, all appurtenances to it, and:

(a) Lands, easements, rights in land, water rights, contract rights, and franchises;

(b) Approaches, dams, reservoirs, trunk, connecting, and other water mains, filtration works, pumping stations, water supply, storage, and distribution facilities and equipment;

(c) Garbage trucks, equipment, dumps, garbage disposal plants, and incinerators or other disposal facilities, including facilities to sort and prepare components of solid waste for sale and facilities to convert solid waste to energy and reusable materials;

(d) Sewage treatment plants, sewage disposal plants, intercepting and collecting sewers, outfall sewers, trunk, connecting, and other sewer mains;

(e) The franchises or licenses to operate a ferry or ferry system, all boats and vessels, all land and interest in land, all slips, wharves, piers, landing places, approaches, and all facilities and equipment used in the maintenance and operation of a ferry or ferry system, or harbor, including small boat harbors, marinas, aquatic playgrounds, and similar recreational facilities;

(f) Ambulances, both inpatient and outpatient facilities, laboratories, pharmacies, surgical instruments, and equipment of such nature as may be reasonably necessary for the treatment of patients; and

(g) All buildings, structures, improvements, equipment, ditches, canals, and facilities whatsoever appurtenant or relating to the enterprise.

SEC. 4. Section 54310 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54310. "Enterprise" does not include, and this chapter does not authorize a local agency to borrow money and issue bonds for, systems, plants, works, or undertakings for:

(a) The distribution of electric energy for lighting, heating, and power for public or private uses.

(b) The generation, production, transmission, and distribution of gas for public or private uses.

These exclusions shall not apply to systems, plants, works, or undertakings which result in conversion to energy and reusable materials of solid waste as defined in Section 66719.

SEC. 5. Section 66780.8 is added to the Government Code, to read:

66780.8. (a) Before implementation of a project selected by the board pursuant to Section 66786, each county which is the location for such a project shall have amended the county solid waste management plan to include the project, to define the project's waste sources, and to be in accordance with the state policy regarding solid waste management plans. If the waste sources of any project are located in one or more counties, the counties concerned shall define them cooperatively by amendment to the respective county solid waste management plans using, if necessary, a joint powers agreement or other formal and enforceable method.

(b) In defining the waste sources for a project, the county or counties involved shall ensure that, given current and reasonably anticipated source separation, recycling, and waste reduction efforts, the waste sources will furnish more than sufficient quantities of waste to maintain the project's economic feasibility for the life of the bonded indebtedness of the project. In any event, the determination of the waste sources shall be subject to the board's approval and the board shall have the right at any time to require an adequate identification of the project's waste sources in the county solid waste management plan.

(c) All waste generated by the waste sources, identified and defined pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (b), shall be specifically committed as necessary to the project, for the life of the bonded indebtedness of the project or until such time as the project permanently ceases to operate, whichever occurs first.

SEC. 6. Section 66786 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66786. The Legislature finds and declares that effective solid waste management can aid in the development of alternative sources of energy through the conversion of solid waste material into energy, synthetic fuels, and reusable materials. It is the policy of the state and the intent of the Legislature that a well-coordinated governmental effort be directed toward achieving an efficient process for the conversion of solid wastes into energy, synthetic fuels, and reusable materials. Such policy is specifically designed to encourage the dual objectives of materials recovery and the development of supplemental energy resources. Not later than July 1, 1977, and after consultation with interested cities and counties, the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, the State Air Resources Board, and the State Water Resources Control Board, the board shall select one or more sites that are suitable for the establishment of facilities for the conversion of solid waste into energy, synthetic fuels, or reusable materials. This selection shall be predicated upon information that shows the feasibility of the particular process based upon availability of markets, project economics, impact of any such facility on local employment, local needs for new energy sources, conformance with local land use planning, and a guaranteed volume of waste or feedstock.

The State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission and the California Pollution Control Financing Authority shall assist the board in identifying appropriate sources of funding and developing a plan for financing the facilities. The board shall submit the plan and its recommendations to the Legislature not later than December 31, 1977.

The board shall consult with the State Air Resources Board, State Water Resources Control Board, and State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, and shall cause specifications for the construction and operation of the solid waste conversion facilities to be prepared. The board may call upon any other commission, board, department, or agency of the state or upon any agency of local government for assistance in selection of the site or sites, preparation of plans, and development of specifications.

The board shall enter into one or more agreements to facilitate the construction and operation of solid waste conversion facilities with selected cities, counties, or private entities, or with any other agencies having jurisdiction over the site or sites selected for such facilities. However, the board shall not enter into any agreement for the construction or operation of any facility the financing of which requires further action of the Legislature until the Legislature has so acted.

Any such agreement shall provide that the construction and operation of any such facilities shall be done in accordance with specifications approved by the board and that the facilities shall be operational within a period of time as determined by the board.

SEC. 7. Section 66786.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

66786.1. (a) Funds appropriated to the board for the purpose of financing projects selected pursuant to Section 66786 for the conversion of solid waste to energy shall be disbursed as grants to the project proponents for some or all of the following preconstruction activities:

(1) Technical and economic feasibility studies and environmental impact reports.

(2) Pilot tests of air and water pollution control methods and equipment to meet California standards conducted in cooperation with the State Air Resources Board and the State Water Resources Control Board.

(3) Construction designs and specifications.

(4) Construction cost estimates and implementation schedules.

(5) Facility operation specifications and annual operation and maintenance cost estimates.

(6) Plans for private or public financing or joint private and public financing of the selected projects.

(b) The project proponents shall submit detailed work programs, schedules, estimates, and such other pertinent information as may be required by the board before a grant may be made.

(c) Project proponents may be awarded grants as reimbursement for moneys previously expended for project-related activities if such moneys were not originally grants of state or federal funds.

(d) As a condition to making any grant, the board shall require project proponents to provide matching funds in a reasonable amount determined by the board.

SEC. 8. Section 66786.2 is added to the Government Code, to read:

66786.2. The board shall establish criteria for the selection of projects to be financed pursuant to Section 66786.1. The criteria shall provide for an assessment of the feasibility of each project and its relationship to the other projects selected pursuant to Section 66786 and for a determination of the availability of waste sources that are to be committed to each project, as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 66780.7. In addition, the criteria shall recognize that it is the intent of the Legislature that the board select and provide substantial support for at least one project that will demonstrate the feasibility of such projects statewide and their suitability as an alternative to landfill.

SEC. 9. Section 66786.3 is added to the Government Code, to read:

66786.3. The board shall submit an annual report, together with recommendations for legislation, on the status of the projects and their financing to the Legislature commencing on April 1, 1979, and annually thereafter.

SEC. 10. Section 68040 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68040. Except as otherwise provided by law, all money deposited in the State Litter Control, Recycling, and Resource Recovery Fund shall be available for the purposes set forth in this article.

SEC. 11. Section 68041 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68041. A public agency or private entity eligible to receive a grant or loan pursuant to this article may make an application for such grant to the board in such form as the board shall require.

SEC. 12. Section 68042 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68042. (a) The board shall disburse funds from the State Litter Control, Recycling, and Resource Recovery Fund to eligible public agencies or private entities that have submitted applications for such funds when the board determines that the plan submitted by any such agency or entity is qualified and suitable for the purposes of the program.

(b) The board shall adopt guidelines for the determination of eligibility of public agencies and private entities and the determination of qualification and suitability of plans submitted by such agencies or entities. Such guidelines shall be consistent with the policy and provisions of this chapter.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature that the money in the fund be substantially expended each year, with the total commitments to each of the various classes of expenditure in this article adhering closely to the specified percentages. Any money in the fund not encumbered in the year received shall be retained in the class of expenditure to which it was allocated and shall be available for encumbrance in the next year for that same purpose.

(d) It is the intent of the Legislature that funds made available by this chapter shall be used to supplement and not replace existing funding for the same purposes.

SEC. 12.5. Section 68042 of the Government Code, as amended by Section 12 of this act, is amended to read:

68042. (a) The board shall disburse funds from the State Litter Control, Recycling, and Resource Recovery Fund to eligible public agencies or private entities that have submitted applications for such funds when the board determines that the plan submitted by any such agency or entity is qualified and suitable for the purposes of the program.

(b) The board shall adopt guidelines for the determination of eligibility of public agencies and private entities and the determination of qualification and suitability of plans submitted by such agencies or entities. Such guidelines shall be consistent with the policy and provisions of this chapter.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature that the money in the fund be substantially expended each year, with the total commitments to each of the various classes of expenditure in this article adhering closely to the specified percentages. Any money in the fund not encumbered in the year received shall be retained in the class of expenditure to which it was allocated and shall be available for encumbrance in the next year for that same purpose.

(d) It is the intent of the Legislature that funds made available by this chapter shall be used to supplement and not replace existing funding for the same purposes.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, the board may also carry out the provisions of Article 8 (commencing with Section 32370) of Chapter 3 of Part 19 of the Education Code, including, but not limited to, the encumbering of funds from the State Litter Control, Recycling, and Resource Recovery Fund upon appropriation therefor by the Legislature as specified in Section 42652 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. The board shall not, however, encumber more than two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) during the 1978–79 fiscal year. The Legislature finds and declares that such provisions promote and carry out the purposes set forth in Section 68002 and in this article.

SEC. 13. Section 44532.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44532.5. To the extent that funding has been separately authorized for financing solid waste disposal projects pursuant to Section 44541.5, the authority shall, throughout each calendar quarter, accept separate applications for such projects. Eligible applicants shall be limited to participating parties who propose projects which have been certified as provided in Section 44531.5.

After the close of each calendar quarter, the authority shall determine, by resolution, those projects which it proposes to finance pursuant to this section. The following projects shall be considered for financing:

(a) Projects utilizing recognized resource recovery or energy conversion processes.

(b) Projects utilizing new technologies or processes for resource recovery or energy conversion.

Such projects may include elements which provide for new refuse removal vehicles, transfer stations, resource recovery or energy conversion plants, source separation, or any solid waste disposal facilities involved in resource recovery systems. "Solid waste disposal facilities" means any property, or portion thereof, used for the collection, storage, treatment, utilization, processing, or final disposal of solid waste in resource recovery systems. The authority shall ensure, by seeking comment from the State Solid Waste Management Board prior to approving a project, that the project's financing conforms to any requirements relating to funds granted by the board for the project.

Projects approved for financing pursuant to this section shall not exceed fifty million dollars ($50,000,000) in the aggregate for each calendar quarter. However, the authority may, at the beginning of any calendar quarter, determine by resolution to finance a lesser aggregate amount of projects pursuant to this section during such calendar quarter.

The fifty million dollar ($50,000,000) limitation prescribed by this section shall not apply to projects selected pursuant to Section 66786 of the Government Code.

SEC. 14. The Office of Planning and Research shall render maximum support to the proponents of the projects selected under Section 66786 of the Government Code in determining what permits will be necessary for facility construction and operation, and in obtaining these permits.

SEC. 15. (a) The first and second provisos to Item 175 of the Budget Act of 1978 (Ch. 359, Stats. 1978) are void and without force or effect. In lieu of such provisos, of the eighteen million dollars ($18,000,000) appropriated in Item 175 from the State Litter Control, Recycling, and Resource Recovery Fund, the sum of two million dollars ($2,000,000) is hereby reappropriated to the State Solid Waste Management Board for encumbrance during the 1978–79, 1979–80, and 1980–81 fiscal years for the purposes of Section 66786.1 of the Government Code. The two million dollars ($2,000,000) thus appropriated shall be allocated by the board as money to be expended pursuant to Section 68046 of the Government Code and shall reduce by two million dollars ($2,000,000) the amount otherwise available for expenditure pursuant to that section. In addition, of the revenues deposited in the State Litter Control, Recycling, and Resource Recovery Fund during the 1978–79 fiscal year that are in excess of eighteen million dollars ($18,000,000), the first three million dollars ($3,000,000) available, after repayment of the loans from the General Fund made in Section 19 of Chapter 87 of the Statutes of 1978 and Item 175.1 of the Budget Act of 1978 (Ch. 359, Stats. 1978) and after discharge of the obligations specified in subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 42652 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, is hereby appropriated to the State Solid Waste Management Board for encumbrance during the 1978–79, 1979–80, and 1980–81 fiscal years for the purposes of Section 66786.1 of the Government Code.

(b) The first and second provisos to Item 175.1 of the Budget Act of 1978 (Ch. 359, Stats. 1978) are void and without force or effect.

SEC. 16. During the 1978–79 fiscal year only, the requirement of subdivision (d) of Section 68042 of the Government Code does not apply to any grant or loan made to a public agency.

SEC. 16.5. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 2636 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 68042 of the Government Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2636, that Section 68042 of the Government Code, as amended by Section 12 of this act shall remain operative until the operative date of Assembly Bill No. 2636, and that on the operative date of Assembly Bill No. 2636, Section 68042 of the Government Code as amended by Section 12 of this act be further amended in the form set forth in Section 12.5 of this act to incorporate the changes in Section 68042 proposed by Assembly Bill No. 2636. Therefore, Section 12.5 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 2636 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 68042, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2636, in which case Section 12.5 of this act shall become operative on the operative date of Assembly Bill No. 2636.

SEC. 17. There are no state-mandated local costs in this act that require reimbursement under Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because there are no new duties, obligations or responsibilities imposed on local government by this act.

SEC. 18. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

This act relates to an appropriation made for the support of, and programs to be conducted by, the State Solid Waste Management Board during the 1978–79 fiscal year, and it is, therefore, necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1012

An act to amend Section 25705 of the Public Resources Code, relating to energy resources.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25705 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25705. If the commission determines that all reasonable conservation, allocation, and service restriction measures may not alleviate an energy supply emergency, and upon a declaration by the Governor or by an act of the Legislature that a threat to public health, safety, and welfare exists and requires immediate action, the commission shall authorize the construction and use of generating facilities under such terms and conditions as specified by the commission to protect the public interest.

Within 60 days after the authorization of construction and use of such generating facilities, the commission shall issue a report detailing the full nature, extent, and estimated duration of the emergency situation and making recommendations to the Governor and the Legislature for further energy conservation and energy supply measures to alleviate the emergency situation as alternatives to use of such generating facilities.

An act to amend Section 66645 of the Government Code, to amend Sections 25300, 25304, 25305, 25308, 25309, 25507, 25509, 25510, 25511, 25512, 25513, 25514, 25514.5, 25515, 25516, 25516.5, 25523, 25524, 25531, and 30413 of, and to add Sections 25323, 25509.5, 25512.5, and 25516.6 to, the Public Resources Code, relating to energy resources.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 66645 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66645. (a) In addition to the provisions of Sections 25302, 25500, 25507, 25508, 25514, 25516.1, 25519, 25523, and 25526 of the Public Resources Code, the provisions of this section shall apply to the commission and the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission with respect to matters within the statutory responsibility of the latter.

(b) After one or more public hearings, and prior to January 1, 1979, the commission shall designate those specific locations within the Suisun Marsh, as defined in Section 29101 of the Public Resources Code, or the area of jurisdiction of the commission, where the location of a facility, as defined in Section 25110 of the Public Resources Code, would be inconsistent with this title or Division 19 (commencing with Section 29000) of the Public Resources Code. The following locations, however, shall not be so designated: (1) any property of a utility that is used for such a facility or will be used for the reasonable expansion thereof; (2) any site for which a notice of intention to file an application for certification has been filed pursuant to Section 25502 of the Public Resources Code prior to January 1, 1978, and is subsequently approved pursuant to Section 22516 of the Public Resources Code; and (3) the area east of Collinsville Road that is designated for water-related industrial use on the Suisun Marsh Protection Plan Map. Each designation made pursuant to this section shall include a description of the boundaries of such locations, the provisions of this title or Division 19 (commencing with Section 29000) of the Public Resources Code with which they would be inconsistent, and detailed findings concerning the significant adverse impacts that would result from development of a facility in the designated area. The commission shall consider the conclusions, if any, reached by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission in its most recently promulgated comprehensive report issued pursuant to Section 25309 of the Public Resources Code. The commission also shall request the assistance of the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission in carrying out the requirements of this section. The commission shall transmit a copy of its report prepared pursuant to this subdivision to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission.

(c) Every two years the commission shall revise and update the designations specified in subdivision (b) of this section. The provisions of subdivision (b) of this section shall not apply to any sites and related facilities specified in any notice of intention to file an application for certification filed pursuant to Section 25502 of the Public Resources Code prior to designation of additional locations made by the commission pursuant to this subdivision.

(d) Whenever the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission exercises its siting authority and undertakes proceedings pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 25500) of Division 15 of the Public Resources Code with respect to any thermal powerplant or transmission line to be located, in whole or in part, within the Suisun Marsh or the area of jurisdiction of the commission, the commission shall participate in such proceedings and shall receive from the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission any notice of intention to file an application for certification of a site and related facilities within the Suisun Marsh or the area of jurisdiction of the commission. The commission shall analyze each notice of intention and, prior to commencement of the hearings conducted pursuant to Section 25513 of the Public Resources Code, shall forward to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission a written report on the suitability of the proposed site and related facilities specified in such notice. The commission's report shall contain a consideration of, and findings regarding, the following:

(1) If it is to be located within the Suisun Marsh, the consistency of the proposed site and related facilities, with the provisions of this title and Division 19 (commencing with Section 29000) of the Public Resources Code, the policies of the Suisun Marsh Protection Plan (as defined in Section 29113 of the Public Resources Code) and the certified local protection program (as defined in Section 29111 of the Public Resources Code) if any.

(2) If it is to be located within the area of jurisdiction of the commission, the consistency of the proposed site and related facilities with the provisions of this title and the San Francisco Bay Plan.

(3) The degree to which the proposed site and related facilities could reasonably be modified so as to be consistent with the provisions of this title, Division 19 (commencing with Section 29000) of the Public Resources Code, the Suisun Marsh Protection Plan, or the San Francisco Bay Plan.

(4) Such other matters as the commission deems appropriate and necessary to carry out the provisions of Division 19 (commencing with Section 29000) of the Public Resources Code.

SEC. 1.5. Section 25300 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25300. Every electric utility in the state shall prepare and transmit to the commission on or before March 1, 1976, and every two years thereafter, a report specifying 5-, 12-, and 20-year forecasts or assessments of loads and resources for its service area. The report shall set forth the facilities which, as determined by the electric utility, will be required to supply electric power during the forecast or assessment periods. The report shall be in a form specified by the commission and shall include all of the following:

(a) A tabulation of estimated peak loads, resources, and reserve margins for each year during the 5- and 12-year forecast or assessment periods, and an estimate of peak load, resources, and reserve margins for the last year in the 20-year forecast or assessment period.

(b) A list of existing electric generating plants in service, with a description of planned and potential generating capacity at existing sites.

(c) A list of facilities which will be needed to serve additional electrical requirements identified in the forecasts or assessments, the general location of such facilities, and the anticipated types of fuel to be utilized in the proposed facilities.

(d) A description of additional system capacity which might be achieved through, among other things, improvements in (1) generating or transmission efficiency, (2) importation of power, (3) interstate or interregional pooling, and (4) other improvements in efficiencies of operation.

(e) An estimation of the availability and cost of fuel resources for the 5-, 12-, and 20-year forecast or assessment periods with a statement by the electric utility describing firm commitments for supplies of fuel required during the forecast or assessment periods.

(f) An annual load duration curve and a forecast of anticipated peak loads for each forecast or assessment period for the residential, commercial, industrial, and such other major demand sectors in the service area of the electric utility as the commission shall determine.

(g) A description of projected population growth, urban development, industrial expansion, and other growth factors influencing increased demand for electric energy and the bases for such projections.

SEC. 2. Section 25304 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25304. The commission shall review and evaluate the electric utilities' forecasts of loads and resources, and the comments of the Public Utilities Commission on such forecasts, in relation to the population growth estimates prepared by the Department of Finance, Population Research Unit, and in relation to statewide and regional land use, transportation, and economic development programs and forecasts. The commission shall also examine the implications of the forecast level of loads and resources on, among other things, all of the following:

(a) Critical environmental and other resources of the state, including air and water quality, coastal, natural, and other unique areas, and energy resources.

(b) Public health and safety, general welfare, and the state's economy.

(c) Capital requirements for new facilities and costs to consumers of electricity and other forms of energy.

(d) Other significant factors which relate to the provision of electrical energy in the amounts and in the manner proposed by the electric utilities.

The commission shall also identify reasonable alternative technologies to those proposed by the electric utilities for consideration pursuant to subdivisions (j) and (k) of Section 25309.

SEC. 3. Section 25305 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25305. Within six months after receipt of the reports specified in Section 25300, the commission shall prepare and distribute a preliminary report, setting forth its findings and conclusions regarding the electric utilities' forecasts. The report shall be based upon information and views presented in the comments received under Section 25303 and the commission's independent analysis, and shall contain all of the following:

(a) The commission's evaluation of the probable service area and statewide, environmental, and economic impact and the health and safety aspect of constructing and operating the facilities proposed by the electric utilities and a description of the measures considered necessary by the commission to avoid or ameliorate any adverse impacts.

(b) Identification of reasonable alternative technologies to those proposed by the electrical utilities for consideration pursuant to subdivisions (j) and (k) of Section 25309.

(c) After consideration of the factors listed in subdivision (b) of Section 25309, including reasonable conservation, load management, or other demand reducing measures, the anticipated 5- and 12-year level of demand for energy to be utilized as a basis for certification of facilities, and an anticipated 20-year level of demand for energy to be utilized as a basis for recommending energy conservation policies and actions.

(d) Statement, on a statewide and service area basis, of the probable capacity additions consistent with the anticipated level of demand.

(e) An analysis and evaluation of the means by which the projected annual rate of demand growth of electrical energy may be reduced, together with an estimate of the amount of such reduction to be obtained by each of the means analyzed and evaluated, including a statement of the impact of such reduction on the factors reviewed by the commission set forth in Section 25304 and subdivision (a) of this section.

SEC. 4. Section 25308 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25308. Within 12 months after receipt of the reports required in Section 25300, the commission shall include within its biennial report to the Governor and the Legislature, as specified in Section 24309, its final report on the electric utilities' forecasts and on the commission's independent analyses and evaluations, as specified in Section 25305.

SEC. 5. Section 25309 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25309. Beginning January 1, 1977, and every two years thereafter, the commission shall transmit to the Governor and the Legislature a comprehensive report designed to identify emerging trends related to energy supply, demand, and conservation and public health and safety factors, to specify the level of statewide and service area electrical energy demand for each year in the forthcoming 5-, 12-, and 20-year periods, and to provide the basis for state policy and actions in relation thereto, including, but not limited to, approval of new sites for additional facilities. The report shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(a) An overview, looking 20 years ahead, of statewide growth and development as they relate to future requirements for energy, including patterns of urban metropolitan expansion, statewide and service area economic growth, shifts in transportation modes, modifications in building types and design, and other trends and factors which, as determined by the commission, will significantly affect energy consumption and need to be considered in formulating state energy policy and programs.

(b) The level of statewide and service area electrical energy demand for the forthcoming 5- and 12-year forecast or asssessment period which, in the judgment of the commission, will reasonably balance requirements of state and service area growth and development, protection of public health and safety, preservation of environmental quality, maintenance of a sound economy, and conservation of energy and resources reasonably expected to occur. Such 5- and 12-year forecasts or assessments established by the commission shall serve as the basis for planning and certification of facilities proposed by electric utilities. Conservation, load management, or other demand reducing measures reasonably expected to occur shall be explicitly taken into account only in the determination pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision, of the level of demand, and shall not be considered as alternatives to a proposed facility during the siting process specified in Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 25500) of this division.

(c) Statement, on a statewide and service area basis, of the probable capacity additions consistent with the level of demand determined by the commission pursuant to subdivision (b) of this section.

(d) The anticipated level of statewide and service area electrical energy demand for 20 years, which shall serve as the basis for recommendations by the commission to the Governor, the Legislature, and other appropriate public and private agencies in the following:

(1) Demand-reducing policies.

(2) Conservation of energy.

(3) Development of potential sources of energy.

(4) Other policies and actions designed to affect the rate of growth in demand for electrical energy.

(e) A list, including maps, of existing electrical power generating sites, indicating those where the commission has determined that expansion is feasible within the forthcoming 12-year period.

(f) A list, including maps, of possible areas appropriate for additional electrical generating sites, including the generating capacity to be installed at the sites and the type of fuel and other general characteristics of the facilities which, as determined by the commission, will be required to meet the 12-year level of electrical energy demand established by the commission as specified in subdivision (b) of this section.

(g) Based upon the commission's 20-year forecasts or assessment of growth trends in energy consumption and production, identification of potential adverse social, economic, or environmental impacts which might be imposed by continuation of the present trends, including, but not limited to, the costs of electricity and other forms of energy to consumers, significant increases in air, water, and other forms of pollution, threats to public health and safety, and loss of scenic and natural areas.

(h) Assessment of the energy resources available to the state, including among others, fossil fuels and nuclear, solar, geothermal, cogeneration, and purchased power resources and power pooling; assessment of the potential of, and examination of the availability of, commercially developable fuels, including imported fuels, during the forthcoming 12- and 20-year periods; and recommendations regarding measures to be applied to conserve energy and fuels.

(i) An analysis and evaluation of the means by which the projected annual rate of demand growth of energy may be reduced, together with an estimate of the amount of such reduction to be obtained by each of the means analyzed and evaluated, including, but not limited to, a statement of the impact of such reduction on the factors reviewed by the commission set forth in Section 25304 and subdivision (a) of this section.

(j) The commission's determination, after generic proceedings, of the commercial availability of technologies for the generation of electrical energy or capacity, and a list of the issues which may affect the ability to employ such technologies at a proposed site.

(k) The commission's determination, after generic proceedings, of nongeneration technologies which are available or are reasonably expected to become available for use to reduce demand determined pursuant to subdivision (b) of this section, and the issues which may affect the ability to employ such technologies to reduce demands.

(l) An indication of those technologies which merit continued consideration or support in the commission's long range assessment efforts and its research and development program. The report shall indicate the status of the commission's ongoing research and development program directed to energy supply, demand, and conservation and describe the new projects which have been proposed for funding as specified in Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 25600) of this division.

(m) Description of the commission's adopted plan for emergency measures to be applied in the event of impending serious shortage of electrical and other forms of energy as provided in Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 25700) of this division.

(n) Recommendations to the Governor and the Legislature for administrative and legislative actions based on the results of commission studies and evaluations as specified in this section and in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 25400).

(o) A list, including maps, of sites and potential multiple-facility sites which have been found to be acceptable by the commission pursuant to Sections 25516 and 25516.5, including the generating capacity to be installed at the site and the type of fuel and other general characteristics of the facilities at such sites.

SEC. 6 Section 25323 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

25323. Nothing in this division shall authorize the commission in the performance of its analytical, planning, siting, or certification responsibilities to mandate a specified supply plan for any utility.

SEC. 7. Section 25507 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25507. (a) If any alternative site and related facility proposed in the notice is proposed to be located, in whole or in part, within the coastal zone, the commission shall transmit a copy of the notice to the California Coastal Commission. The California Coastal Commission shall analyze the notice and prepare the report and findings prescribed by subdivision (d) of Section 30413 prior to commencement of hearings pursuant to Section 25513.

(b) If any alternative site and related facility proposed in the notice is proposed to be located, in whole or in part, within the Suisun Marsh, or within the jurisdiction of the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission, the commission shall transmit a copy of the notice to the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission. The San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission shall analyze the notice and prepare the report and findings prescribed by subdivision (d) of Section 66645 of the Government Code prior to commencement of hearings pursuant to Section 25513.

SEC. 8. Section 25509 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25509. Within 45 days of the filing of the notice, the commission shall conduct public informational presentations in the county or counties in which the proposed sites and related facilities are located. The place of such public informational presentations shall be as close as practicable to the proposed sites. Such presentations shall be for the purpose of setting forth the electrical demand basis for the proposed site and related facility and providing knowledge and understanding of the proposed facilities and sites.

SEC. 9. Section 25509.5 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

25509.5. No sooner than 15 days after the conclusion of the presentations pursuant to Section 25509, the commission shall commence nonadjudicatory hearings. Such hearings shall identify issues for adjudication in hearings pursuant to Section 25513, issues which may be eliminated from further consideration in the notice proceedings, and issues which should be deferred to the certification proceeding. Any person may participate to the extent deemed reasonable and relevant by the presiding member of the commission in any such hearing. In scheduling such hearings the presiding member shall confer with the public adviser to provide that the hearing dates and locations are as convenient as possible for interested parties and the public. Such hearings shall be conducted in order to accomplish all of the following purposes:

(a) To set forth the electrical demand basis for the proposed site and related facility.

(b) To provide knowledge and understanding of proposed facilities and sites.

(c) To obtain the views and comments of the public, parties, and concerned governmental agencies on the environmental, public health and safety, economic, social, and land use impacts of the facility at the proposed sites.

(d) To solicit information regarding reasonable alternative sources of the electric generating capacity or energy to be provided by alternative sites and related facilities, or combinations thereof, which will better carry out the policies and objectives of this division.

SEC. 10. Section 25510 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25510. After the conclusion of such hearings, and no later than 150 days after filing of the notice, the commission shall prepare and make public a summary and hearing order on the notice of intention to file an application. The commission may include within the summary and hearing order any other alternatives proposed by the commission or presented to the commission at a public hearing prior to preparation of the summary and hearing order. The summary and hearing order shall be published and made available to the public and to interested local, regional, state, and federal agencies.

SEC. 10.5. Section 25511 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25511. The commission shall review the factors related to safety and reliability of the facilities at each of the alternative sites designated in the notice. In addition to other information requested of the applicant, the commission shall, in determining the appropriateness of sites and related facilities, require detailed information on proposed emergency systems and safety precautions, plans for transport, handling and storage of wastes and fuels, proposed methods to prevent illegal diversion of nuclear fuels, special design features to account for seismic and other potential hazards, proposed methods to control density of population in areas surrounding nuclear powerplants, and such other information as the commission may determine to be relevant to the reliability and safety of the facility at the proposed sites. The commission shall analyze the information provided by the applicant, supplementing it, where necessary, by onsite investigations and other studies. The commission shall determine the adequacy of measures proposed by the applicant to protect public health and safety, and shall include its findings in the final report required by Section 25514.

SEC. 11. Section 25512 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25512. The summary and hearing order shall be based upon the record of the proceeding including statements or documents presented during any hearing or informational presentation on the notice, the comments transmitted by the Public Utilities Commission and local, regional, state, and federal agencies and the public to the commission, and independent studies conducted by the commission's staff.

The summary and hearing order shall:

(a) Identify those issues for consideration in hearings pursuant to Section 25513.

(b) Identify those issues which may be eliminated from further consideration in the notice of intention proceedings.

(c) Identify those issues which should be deferred to the certification proceeding.

(d) Contain proposed findings on matters relevant to the provisions of Section 25514.

(e) Specify dates for the adjudicatory hearings.

SEC. 12. Section 25512.5 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

25512.5. Within 15 days of the publication of the summary and hearing order, a copy will be distributed to any person who requests such copy.

SEC. 13. Section 25513 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25513. No earlier than 30 days after distribution of the summary and hearing order, the commission shall commence adjudicatory hearings pursuant to the hearing order.

SEC. 14. Section 25514 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25514. After conclusion of the hearings held pursuant to Section 25513 and no later than 300 days after filing of the notice, a final report shall be prepared and distributed. The final report shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(a) The findings and conclusions of the commission regarding the conformity of alternative sites and related facilities designated in the notice or considered in the notice of intention proceeding with both of the following:

(1) The 12-year forecast of statewide and service area electric power demands adopted pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 25309, except as provided in Section 25514.5.

(2) Applicable local, regional, state, and federal standards, ordinances, and laws, including any long-range land use plans or guidelines adopted by the state or by any local or regional planning agency, which would be applicable but for the exclusive authority of the commission to certify sites and related facilities; and the standards adopted by the commission pursuant to Section 25216.3.

(b) Any findings and comments submitted by the California Coastal Commission pursuant to Section 25507 and subdivision (d) of Section 30413.

(c) Any findings and comments submitted by the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission pursuant to Section 25507 of this code and subdivision (d) of Section 66645 of the Government Code.

(d) The commission's findings on the acceptability and relative merit of each alternative siting proposal designated in the notice or presented at the hearings and reviewed by the commission. The specific findings of relative merit shall be made pursuant to the provisions of Sections 25502 to 25516, inclusive. In its findings on any alternative siting proposal, the commission may specify modification in the design, construction, location, or other conditions which will meet the standards, policies, and guidelines established by the commission.

(e) Findings and conclusions with respect to the safety and reliability of the facility or facilities at each of the sites designated in the notice, as determined by the commission pursuant to Section 25511, and any conditions, modifications, or criteria proposed for any site and related facility proposal resulting from such findings and conclusions.

SEC. 15. Section 25514.5 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25514.5. In considering the acceptability of a site proposed to accommodate ultimately additional power-generating capacity, the commission, in determining, pursuant to Sections 25514 and 25512, the conformity of the facilities proposed in the notice with the 12-year forecast of statewide and service area electric power demands adopted pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 25309, shall base its determination only on such initial facilities as are proposed for operation within the forthcoming 12-year period. Additional facilities projected to be operating at the site at a time beyond the forthcoming 12-year period shall not be considered in the determination of conformity with the electric power demand forecast.

SEC. 16. Section 25515 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25515. No later than 30 days after the final report is distributed, a hearing or hearings on the final report shall be commenced. Such hearings shall be concluded within 15 days of their commencement.

SEC. 17. Section 25516 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25516. The approval of the notice by the commission shall be based upon findings pursuant to Section 25514. The notice shall not be approved unless the commission finds at least two alternative site and related facility proposals considered in the commission's final report as acceptable. If the commission does not find at least two sites and related facilities acceptable, additional sites and related facilities may be proposed by the applicant which shall be considered in the same manner as those proposed in the original notice.

If the commission finds that a good faith effort has been made by the person submitting the notice to find an acceptable alternative site and related facility and that there is only one acceptable site and related facility among those submitted, the commission may approve the notice based on the one site and related facility. If a notice is approved based on one site and related facility, the commission may require a new notice to be filed to identify acceptable alternative sites and related facilities for the one site and related facility approved unless suitable alternative sites and related facilities have been approved by the commission in previous notice of intention proceedings.

If the commission finds that additional electric generating capacity is needed to accommodate the electric power demand forecast pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 25309 and, after the commission finds that a good faith effort was made by the person submitting the notice to propose an acceptable site and related facility, it fails to find any proposed site and related facility to be acceptable, the commission shall designate, at the request of and at the expense of the person submitting the notice, a feasible site and related facility for providing the needed electric generating capacity.

SEC. 18. Section 25516.5 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25516.5. On a notice which proposes an expanded ultimate electric generating capacity for a site, the commission may, based upon findings pursuant to Section 25514, either approve the notice only for the initial facility or facilities proposed for operation within the forthcoming 12-year period or may approve the notice for the initial facility or facilities and find the site acceptable for additional generating capacity of the type tentatively proposed. The maximum allowable amount and type of such additional capacity shall be determined by the commission.

If a notice is approved which includes a finding that a particular site is suitable to accommodate a particular additional generating capacity, the site shall be designated a potential multiple-facility site. The commission may, in determining the acceptability of a potential multiple-facility site, specify conditions or criteria necessary to insure that future additional facilities will not exceed the limitations of the site.

SEC. 19. Section 25516.6 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

25516.6. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this division, the commission shall issue its written decision on the notice not later than 12 months after such notice is filed, or at such later time as is mutually agreed upon by the commission and the applicant.

SEC. 20. Section 25523 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25523. The commission shall prepare a written decision after the public hearing on an application, which shall include all of the following:

(a) Specific provisions relating to the manner in which the proposed facility is to be designed, sited, and operated in order to protect environmental quality and assure public health and safety

(b) In the case of a site to be located in the coastal zone, specific provisions to meet the objectives of Division 20 (commencing with Section 30000) as may be specified in the report submitted by the California Coastal Commission pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 30413, unless the commission specifically finds that the adoption of the provisions specified in the report would result in greater adverse effect on the environment or that the provisions proposed in the report would not be feasible.

(c) In the case of a site to be located in the Suisun Marsh or in the jurisdiction of the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission, specific provisions to meet the requirements of Division 19 (commencing with Section 29000) of this code or Title 7.2 (commencing with Section 66600) of the Government Code as may be specified in the report submitted by the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 66645 of the Government Code, unless the commission specifically finds that the adoption of the provisions specified in the report would result in greater adverse effect on the environment or the provisions proposed in the report would not be feasible.

(d) Findings regarding the conformity of the proposed site and related facilities with standards adopted by the commission pursuant to Section 25216.3 and subdivision (d) of Section 25402, with public safety standards and the applicable air and water quality standards, and with other relevant local, regional, state, and federal standards, ordinances, or laws. If the commission finds that there is noncompliance with any state, local, or regional ordinance or regulation in the application, it shall consult and meet with the state, local, or regional governmental agency concerned to attempt to correct or eliminate the noncompliance. If the noncompliance cannot be corrected or eliminated, the commission shall inform the state, local, or regional governmental agency if it makes the findings required by Section 25525.

(e) Provision for restoring the site as necessary to protect the environment, if the commission denies approval of the application.

(f) Findings regarding the conformity of the proposed facility with the 12-year forecast of statewide and service area electric power demands adopted pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 25309.

SEC. 21. Section 25524 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25524. The commission shall not certify any facility contained in the application, unless its findings with respect to subdivision (f) of Section 25523 are in the affirmative.

SEC. 22. Section 25531 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25531. (a) The decisions of the commission on any application of any electric utility for certification of a site and related facility shall be subject to judicial review in the same manner as the decisions of the Public Utilities Commission on the application for a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity for the same site and related facility.

(b) No new or additional evidence may be introduced upon review and the cause shall be heard on the record of the commission as certified to by it. The review shall not be extended further than to determine whether the commission has regularly pursued its authority, including a determination of whether the order or decision under review violates any right of the petitioner under the United States Constitution or the California Constitution. The findings and conclusions of the commission on questions of fact shall be final and shall not be subject to review, except as provided in this article. Such questions of fact shall include ultimate facts and the findings and conclusions of the commission. A report prepared by, or an approval of, the commission pursuant to Section 25510, 25514, 25516, or 25516.5, or subdivision (b) of Section 25520.5, shall not constitute a decision of the commission subject to judicial review.

(c) Subject to the right of judicial review of decisions of the commission, no court in this state shall have jurisdiction to hear or determine any case or controversy concerning any matter which was, or could have been, determined in a proceeding before the commission, or to stop or delay the construction or operation of any thermal powerplant except to enforce compliance with the provisions of a decision of the commission.

(d) Notwithstanding Section 1250.370 of the Code of Civil Procedure:

(1) If the commission requires pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25528, as a condition of certification of any site and related facility, that the applicant acquire development rights, such requirement conclusively establishes the matters referrred to in Sections 1240.030 and 1240.220 of the Code of Civil Procedure in any eminent domain proceeding brought by the applicant to acquire such development rights.

(2) If the commission certifies any site and related facility, such certification conclusively establishes the matters referred to in Sections 1240.030 and 1240.220 of the Code of Civil Procedure in any eminent domain proceeding brought to acquire such site and related facility.

(e) No decision of the commission pursuant to Section 25516, 25522, or 25523 shall be found to mandate a specific supply plan for any utility as prohibited by Section 25323.

SEC. 23. Section 30413 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

30413. (a) In addition to the provisions set forth in subdivision (f) of Section 30241, and in Sections 25302, 25500, 25507, 25508, 25514, 25516.1, 25519, 25523, and 25526, the provisions of this section shall apply to the commission and the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission with respect to matters within the statutory responsibility of the latter.

(b) The commission shall, prior to January 1, 1978, and after one or more public hearings, designate those specific locations within the coastal zone where the location of a facility as defined in Section 25110 would prevent the achievement of the objectives of this division; provided, however, that specific locations that are presently used for such facilities and reasonable expansion thereof shall not be so designated. Each such designation shall include a description of the boundaries of such locations, the objectives of this division which would be so affected, and detailed findings concerning the significant adverse impacts that would result from development of a facility in the designated area. The commission shall consider the conclusions, if any, reached by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission in its most recently promulgated comprehensive report issued pursuant to Section 25309. The commission shall transmit a copy of its report prepared pursuant to this subdivision to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission.

(c) The commission shall every two years revise and update the designations specified in subdivision (b) of this section. The provisions of subdivision (b) of this section shall not apply to any sites and related facilities specified in any notice of intention to file an application for certification filed with the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission pursuant to Section 25502 prior to designation of additional locations made by the commission pursuant to this subdivision.

(d) Whenever the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission exercises its siting authority and undertakes proceedings pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 25500) of Division 15 with respect to any thermal powerplant or transmission line to be located, in whole or in part, within the coastal zone, the commission shall participate in such proceedings and shall receive from the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission any notice of intention to file an application for certification of a site and related facilities within the coastal zone. The commission shall analyze each notice of intent and shall, prior to commencement of the hearings conducted pursuant to Section 25513, forward to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission a written report on the suitability of the proposed site and related facilities specified in such notice of intent. The commission's report shall contain a consideration of, and findings regarding, all of the following:

(1) The compatibility of the proposed site and related facilities with the goal of protecting coastal resources.

(2) The degree to which the proposed site and related facilities would conflict with other existing or planned coastal-dependent land uses at or near the site.

(3) The potential adverse effects that the proposed site and related facilities would have on aesthetic values.

(4) The potential adverse environmental effects on fish and wildlife and their habitats.

(5) The conformance of the proposed site and related facilities with certified local coastal programs in those jurisdictions which would be affected by any such development.

(6) The degree to which the proposed site and related facilities could reasonably be modified so as to mitigate potential adverse effects on coastal resources, minimize conflict with existing or planned coastal-dependent uses at or near the site, and promote the policies of this division.

(7) Such other matters as the commission deems appropriate and necessary to carry out the provisions of this division.

(e) The commission may, at its discretion, participate fully in other proceedings conducted by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission pursuant to its powerplant siting authority. In the event the commission participates in any public hearings held by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, it shall be afforded full opportunity to present evidence and examine and cross-examine witnesses.

(f) The State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission shall forward a copy of all reports it distributes pursuant to Sections 25302 and 25306 to the commission and the commission shall, with respect to any report that relates to the coastal zone or coastal zone resources, comment on such reports, and shall in its comments include a discussion of the desirability of particular areas within the coastal zone as designated in such reports for potential powerplant development. The commission may propose alternate areas for powerplant development within the coastal zone and shall provide detailed findings to support the suggested alternatives.

CHAPTER 1014

An act to amend Section 74131 of the Government Code, relating to courts.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 22, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 74131 of the Government Code is amended to read:

74131. There shall be five judges in the Riverside Judicial District, which shall include the City of Riverside. There shall be five judges in the Desert Judicial District, which shall include the Cities of Palm Springs, Indio, and Blythe. SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because this act is in accordance with the request of a local government entity which desired legislative authority to act to carry out the program specified in this act.

CHAPTER 1016

An act to amend Sections 16430, 16521, 16522, and 16612 of the Government Code, relating to investment of state funds.

[Approved by Governor September 21, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 22, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 16430 of the Government Code, as amended by Chapter 643 of the Statutes of 1977, is amended to read:

16430. Eligible securities for the investment of surplus moneys shall be·

(a) Bonds or interest-bearing notes or obligations of the United States, or those for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(b) Bonds or interest-bearing notes or obligations that are guaranteed as to principal and interest by a federal agency of the United States.

(c) Bonds of this state, or those for which the faith and credit of this state are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(d) Bonds or warrants, including, but not limited to, revenue warrants, of any county, city, metropolitan water district, California water district, California water storage district, irrigation district in the State of California municipal utility district, or school district of this state.

(e) Bonds, consolidated bonds, collateral trust debentures, consolidated debentures, or other obligations issued by federal land banks or federal intermediate credit banks established under the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended, in debentures and consolidated debentures issued by the Central Bank for Cooperatives and banks for cooperatives established under the Farm Credit Act of 1933, as amended, in bonds or debentures of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board established under the Federal Home Loan Bank Act, in stock, bonds, debentures and other obligations of the Federal National Mortgage Association established under the National Housing Act as amended, and in the bonds of any federal home loan bank established under said act, obligations of the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, and in bonds, notes, and other obligations issued by the Tennessee Valley Authority under the Tennessee Valley Authority Act as amended.

(f) Commercial paper of "prime" quality as defined by a nationally recognized organization which rates such securities. Eligible paper is further limited to issuing corporations: (1) organized and operating within the United States; (2) having total assets in excess of five hundred million dollars ($500,000,000); and (3) approved by the Pooled Money Investment Board. Purchases of eligible commercial paper may not exceed 180 days' maturity, represent more than 10 percent of the outstanding paper of an issuing corporation, nor exceed 30 percent of the resources of an investment program At the request of the Pooled Money Investment Board, such investment shall be secured by the issuer by depositing with the Treasurer securities authorized by Section 53651 of a market value at least 10 percent in excess of the amount of the state's investment.

(g) Bills of exchange or time drafts drawn on and accepted by a commercial bank, otherwise known as bankers acceptances, which are eligible for purchase by the Federal Reserve System.

(h) Negotiable certificates of deposits purchased from a nationally or state-chartered bank or savings and loan association. For the purposes of this section, negotiable certificates of deposits do not come within the provisions of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 16500) of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(i) The portion of bank loans and obligations guaranteed by the United States Small Business Administration or the United States Farmers Home Administration.

SEC. 1.1. Section 16430 of the Government Code is amended to read:

16430. Eligible securities for the investment of surplus moneys shall be:

(a) Bonds or interest-bearing notes or obligations of the United States, or those for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(b) Bonds or interest-bearing notes on obligations that are guaranteed as to principal and interest by a federal agency of the United States.

(c) Bonds of this state, or those for which the faith and credit of this state are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(d) Bonds or warrants, including, but not limited to, revenue warrants, of any county, city, metropolitan water district, California water district, California water storage district, irrigation district in the State of California municipal utility district, or school district of this state.

(e) Bonds, consolidated bonds, collateral trust debentures, consolidated debentures, or other obligations issued by federal land banks or federal intermediate credit banks established under the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended, in debentures and consolidated debentures issued by the Central Bank for Cooperatives and banks for cooperatives established under the Farm Credit Act of 1933, as amended, in bonds or debentures of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board established under the Federal Home Loan Bank Act, in stock, bonds, debentures and other obligations of the Federal National Mortgage Association established under the National Housing Act as amended, and in the bonds of any federal home loan bank established under said act, obligations of the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, and in bonds, notes, and other obligations issued by the Tennessee Valley Authority under the Tennessee Valley Authority Act as amended.

(f) Commercial paper of "prime" quality as defined by a nationally recognized organization which rates such securities. Eligible paper is further limited to issuing corporations: (1) organized and operating within the United States; (2) having total assets in excess of five hundred million dollars ($500,000,000); and (3) approved by the Pooled Money Investment Board. Purchases of eligible commercial paper may not exceed 180 days' maturity, represent more than 10 percent of the outstanding paper of an issuing corporation, nor exceed 30 percent of the resources of an investment program. At the request of the Pooled Money Investment Board, such investment shall be secured by the issuer by depositing with the Treasurer securities authorized by Section 53651 of a market value at least 10 percent in excess of the amount of the state's investment.

(g) Bills of exchange or time drafts drawn on and accepted by a commercial bank, otherwise known as bankers acceptances, which are eligible for purchase by the Federal Reserve System.

(h) Negotiable certificates of deposits purchased from a nationally or state-chartered bank or savings and loan association. For the purposes of this section, negotiable certificates of deposits do not come within the provisions of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 16500) of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(i) The portion of bank loans and obligations guaranteed by the United States Small Business Administration or the United States Farmers Home Administration.

(j) Obligations issued, assumed, or guaranteed by the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, the Inter-American Development Bank, the Asian Development Bank, or the Government Development Bank of Puerto Rico.

SEC. 1.2. Section 16430 of the Government Code is amended to read:

16430. Eligible securities for the investment of suplus moneys shall be:

(a) Bonds or interest-bearing notes or obligations of the United States, or those for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(f) Commercial paper of "prime" quality as defined, by a nationally recognized organization which rates such securities. Eligible paper is further limited to issuing corporations (1) organized and operating within the United States; (2) having total assets in excess of five hundred million dollars ($500,000,000); and (3) approved by the Pooled Money Investment Board. Purchases of eligible commercial paper may not exceed 180 days' maturity, represent more than 10 percent of the outstanding paper of an issuing corporation, nor exceed 30 percent of the resources of an investment program. At the request of the Pooled Money Investment Board, such investment shall be secured by the issuer by depositing with the Treasurer securities authorized by Section 53651 of a market value at least 10 percent in excess of the amount of the state's investment.

(g) Bills of exchange or time drafts drawn on and accepted by a commercial bank, otherwise known as bankers acceptances, which are eligible for purchase by the Federal Reserve System.

(h) Negotiable certificates of deposits purchased from a nationally or state-chartered bank or savings and loan association. For the purposes of this section, negotiable certificates of deposits do not come within the provisions of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 16500) of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(i) The portion of bank loans and obligations guaranteed by the United States Small Business Administration or the United States Farmers Home Administration.

(j) Student loan notes under the Guaranteed Student Loan Program established pursuant to the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended (20 U.S.C. 1001, et seq.) and eligible for resale to the Student Loan Marketing Association established pursuant to Section 133 of the Education Amendments of 1972, as amended (20 U.S.C. 1087-2).

SEC. 1.3. Section 16430 of the Government Code is amended to read:

16430. Eligible securities for the investment of surplus moneys shall be:

(a) Bonds or interest-bearing notes or obligation of the United States, or those for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(b) Bonds on interest-bearing notes or obligation that are guaranteed as to principal and interest by a federal agency of the United States.

(c) Bonds of this state, or those for which the faith and credit of this state are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(d) Bonds or warrants, including, but not limited to, revenue warrants, of any county, city, metropolitan water district, California water district, California water storage district, irrigation district in the State of California municipal utility district, or school district of this state.

(e) Bonds, consolidated bonds, collateral trust debentures, consolidated debentures, or other obligations issued by federal land banks or federal intermediate credit banks established under the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended, in debentures and consolidated debentures issued by the Central Bank for Cooperatives and banks for cooperatives established under the Farm Credit Act of 1933, as amended, in bonds or debentures of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board established under the Federal home Loan Bank Act, in stock, bonds, debentures and other obligations of the Federal National Mortgage Association established under the National Housing Act amended, and in the bonds of any federal home loan bank established under said act, obligation of the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, and in bonds, notes, and other obligation issued by the Tennessee Valley Authority under the Tennessee Valley Authority Act as amended.

(f) Commercial paper of "prime" quality as defined by nationally recognized organization which rates such securities. Eligible paper is further limited to issuing corporations, (1) organized and operating within the United States; (2) having total assets in excess of five hundred million dollars ($500,000,000); and (3) approved by the Pooled Money Investment Board. Purchases of eligible commercial paper may not exceed 180 days' maturity, represent more than 10 percent of the outstanding paper of an issuing corporation, nor exceed 30 percent of the resources of an investment program. At the request of the Pooled Money Investment Board, such investment shall be secured by the issuer by depositing with the Treasurer securities authorized by Section 53851 of a market value at least 10 percent in excess of the amount of the state's investment.

(g) Bills of exchange or time drafts drawn on and accepted by a commercial bank, otherwise known as bankers acceptances, which are eligible for purchase by the Federal Reserve System.

(h) Negotiable certificates of deposits purchased from a nationally or state-chartered bank or savings and loan association. For the purposes of this section, negotiable certificates of deposits do not come within the provisions of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 16500) of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(i) The portion of bank loans and obligations guaranteed by the United States Small Business Administration or the United States Farmers Home Administration.

(j) Student loan notes insured under the Guaranteed Student Loan Program established pursuant to the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended (20 U.S.C. 1001, et seq.) and eligible for resale to the Student Loan Marketing Association established pursuant to Section 133 of the Education Amendments of 1972, as amended (20 U S.C. 1087-2).

(k) Obligations issued, assumed, or guaranteed by the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, the Inter-American Development Bank, the Asian Development Bank, or the Government Development Bank of Puerto Rico.

SEC. 2. Section 16521 of the Government Code is amended to read:

16521. To be eligible to receive and retain demand or time deposits, a bank shall deposit with the Treasurer as security for such deposits, securities specified in Section 16522, and approved by the Treasurer, in an amount in value at least 10 percent in excess of the amount deposited with the bank. Uncollected funds shall be excluded from the amount deposited in a demand account with a bank when determining the security requirements for such deposits.

SEC. 3. Section 16522 of the Government Code is amended to read:

16522. The following securities may be received as security for demand and time deposits:

(a) Bonds, notes, or other obligations of the United States, or those for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest, including the guaranteed portions of small business administration loans, so long as such loans are obligations for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(b) Notes or bonds or any obligations of a local public agency (as defined in the United States Housing Act of 1949) or any obligations of a public housing agency (as defined in the United States Housing Act of 1937) for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(c) Bonds of this state or of any county, city, town, metropolitan water district, municipal utility district, municipal water district, bridge and highway district, flood control district, school district, water district, water conservation district or irrigation district within this state, and, in addition, revenue or tax anticipation notes, and revenue bonds payable solely out of the revenues from a revenue-producing property owned, controlled or operated by this state, or such local agency or district, or by a department, board, agency, or authority thereof.

(d) Registered warrants of this state.

(h) Bonds issued by the State of Israel.

SEC. 3.5. Section 16522 of the Government Code is amended to read:

16522. The following securities may be received as security for demand and time deposits:

(a) Bonds, notes, or other obligations of the United States, or those for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest, including the guaranteed portions of small business administration loans, so long as such loans are obligations for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(b) Notes or bonds or any obligations of a local public agency (as defined in the United States Housing Act of 1949) or any obligations of a public housing agency (as defined in the United States Housing Act of 1937) for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(c) Bonds of this state or of any county, city, town, metropolitan water district, municipal utility district, municipal water district, bridge and highway district, flood control district, school district, water district, water conservation district or irrigation district within this state, and, in addition, revenue or tax anticipation notes, and revenue bonds payable solely out of the revenues from a revenue-producing property owned, controlled or operated by this state, or such local agency or district, or by a department, board, agency, or authority thereof.

(d) Registered warrants of this state.

(e) Bonds, consolidated bonds, collateral trust debentures, consolidated debentures, or other obligations issued by the United States Postal Service, federal land banks or federal intermediate credit banks established under the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended, debentures and consolidated debentures issued by the Central Bank for Cooperatives and banks for cooperatives established under the Farm Credit Act of 1933, as amended, consolidated obligations of the Federal Home Loan Banks established under the Federal Home Loan Bank Act, bonds, debentures and other obligations of the Federal National Mortgage Association and of the Government National Mortgage Association established under the National Housing Act as amended, in the bonds of any federal home loan bank established under said act, bonds, debentures, and other obligations of the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation established under the Emergency Home Finance Act of 1970, and in bonds, notes, and other obligations issued by the Tennessee Valley Authority under the Tennessee Valley Authority Act, as amended.

(f) Bonds and notes of the California Housing Finance Agency issued pursuant to Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 41700) of Part 3 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code.

(g) Promissory notes secured by first mortgages and first trust deeds upon residential real property located in California, provided that:

(1) Notwithstanding Section 16521, the promissory notes shall at all times be in an amount in value at least 50 percent in excess of the amount deposited with the bank;

(2) The State Treasurer issues regulations, establishes procedures for determining the value of the promissory notes and develops standards necessary to protect the security of the deposits so collateralized;

(3) The depository may exercise, enforce, or waive any right or power granted to it by promissory note, mortgage, or deed of trust; and

(4) The following may not be used as security for deposits:

(i) Any promissory note on which any payment is more than 90 days past due,

(ii) Any promissory note secured by a mortgage or deed of trust as to which there is a lien prior to the mortgage or deed of trust, or

(iii) Any promissory note secured by a mortgage or deed of trust as to which a notice of default has been recorded pursuant to Section 2924 of the Civil Code or an action has been commenced pursuant to Section 725a of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(h) Bonds issued by the State of Israel.

(i) Obligations issued, assumed, or guaranteed by the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, the Inter-American Development Bank, the Asian Development Bank, or the Government Development Bank of Puerto Rico.

SEC. 4. It is the intent of the Legislature that if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1330 or Senate Bill No. 1776, or both, are chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, each of the bills amend Section 16430 of the Government Code, and this bill is chaptered last, that amendments proposed by each of the bills which are chaptered be given effect as follows:

(1) If this bill and Senate Bill No. 1330 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 16430 of the Government Code, but Senate Bill No. 1776 is not chaptered or as chaptered does not amend that section, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1330, the amendments proposed by both bills shall be given effect and incorporated in Section 16430 in the form set forth in Section 1.1 of this act. Therefore, if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1330 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 16430, this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1330, and Senate Bill No. 1776 is not chaptered or as chaptered does not amend that section, Section 1.1 of this act shall be operative and Sections 1, 1.2, and 1.3 of this act shall not become operative.

(2) If this bill and Senate Bill No. 1776 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 16430 of the Government Code, but Senate Bill No. 1330 is not chaptered or as chaptered does not amend that section, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1776, the amendments proposed by both bills shall be given effect and incorporated in Section 16430 in the form set forth in Section 1.2 of this act. Therefore, if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1776 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 16430, this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1776, and Senate Bill No. 1330 is not chaptered or as chaptered does not amend that section, Section 1.2 shall be operative and Sections 1, 1.1, and 1.3 of this act shall not become operative.

(3) If this bill and Senate Bill No. 1330 and Senate Bill No. 1776 are all chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, all three bills amend Section 16430 of the Government Code, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1330 and Senate Bill No. 1776, the amendments proposed by all three bills shall be given effect and incorporated in Section 16430 in the form set forth in Section 1.3 of this act. Therefore, if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1330 and Senate Bill No. 1776 are all chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, all three bills amend Section 16430 of the Government Code, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1330 and Senate Bill No. 1776, Section 1.3 of this act shall be operative and Sections 1, 1.1, and 1.2 of this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 4. Section 16612 of the Government Code is amended to read:

16612. The following securities may be received as security for deposits:

(a) Bonds, notes, or other obligations of the United States, or those for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest, including the guaranteed portions of small business administration loans, so long as such loans are obligations for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(b) Notes or bonds or any obligations of a local public agency (as defined in the United States Housing Act of 1949 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1452 et seq.)) or any obligations of a public housing agency (as defined in the United States Housing Act of 1937) for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(c) Bonds of this state or of any county, city, town, metropolitan water district, municipal utility district, municipal water district, bridge and highway district, flood control district, school district, water district, water conservation district or irrigation district within this state, and, in addition, revenue on tax anticipation notes, and revenue bonds payable solely out of the revenues from a revenue-producing property owned, controlled or operated by this state, or such local agency or district, or by a department, board, agency, or authority thereof.

(d) Registered warrants of this state.

(e) Bonds, consolidated bonds, collateral trust debentures, consolidated debentures, or other obligations issued by the United States Postal Service, federal land banks or federal intermediate credit banks established under the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended, debentures and consolidated debentures issued by the Central Bank for Cooperatives and banks for cooperatives established under the Farm Credit Act of 1933, as amended, consolidated obligations of the Federal Home Loan Banks established under the Federal Home Loan Bank Act, bonds, debentures and other obligations of the Federal National Mortgage Association and of the Government National Mortgage Association established under the National Housing Act as amended, in the bonds of any federal home loan bank established under said act, bonds, debentures, and other obligations of the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation established under the Emergency Home Finance Act of 1970, and in bonds, notes, and other obligations issued by the Tennessee Valley Authority under the Tennessee Valley Authority Act, as amended.

(f) Bonds and notes of the California Housing Finance Agency issued pursuant to Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 41700) of Part 3 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code.

(g) Promissory notes secured by first mortgages and first trust deeds upon residential real property located in California, provided that:

(1) Notwithstanding Section 16611, the promissory notes shall at all times be in an amount in value at least 50 percent in excess of the amount deposited with the savings and loan association;

(2) The State Treasurer issues regulations, establishes procedures for determining the value of the promissory notes and develops standards necessary to protect the security of the deposits so collateralized;

(3) The depository may exercise, enforce, or waive any right or power granted to it by promissory note, mortgage, or deed of trust; and

(4) The following may not be used as security for deposits:

(i) Any promissory note on which any payment is more than 90 days past due,

(ii) Any promissory note secured by a mortgage or deed of trust as to which there is a lien prior to the mortgage or deed of trust, or

(iii) Any promissory note secured by a mortgage or deed of trust as to which a notice of default has been recorded pursuant to Section 2924 of the Civil Code or an action has been commenced pursuant to Section 725a of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(h) Bonds issued by the State of Israel.

SEC. 5. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1330 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 16522 of the Government Code, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1330, that the amendments to Section 16522 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 16522 in the form set forth in Section 3.5 of this act. Therefore, Section 3.5 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1330 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both amend Section 16522, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1330, in which case Section 3 of this act shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1017

An act relating to the sale and purchase of property of the 48th District Agricultural Association, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 21, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 22, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Department of General Services with the approval of the State Public Works Board shall convey to the City of Commerce, for current market value, approximately 25 acres of land fronting on Eastern Avenue occupied by the Great Western Exhibit Center which is the property of the 48th Agricultural Association in Commerce, California.

The property shall be conveyed for the purpose of construction of residential development to provide an expanded supply of low and moderately priced housing. Such housing shall include but not be limited to low-income senior citizen housing and family housing units.

SEC. 2. Any cost or expense incurred by the Department of General Services in the sale of the parcel may be reimbursed from the proceeds of such disposition.

SEC. 3. The Director of General Services shall except and reserve in the state all geothermal resources and all deposits of minerals, including oil and gas, together with the right to prospect for, mine and remove such resources and deposits. Such rights to prospect for, mine and remove shall be limited to those areas of the property conveyed which the director determines to be reasonably necessary for the removal of such resources and deposits.

SEC. 4. The property described in Section 1 of this act shall be exempt from the provisions of Sections 21000 to 21174, inclusive, of the Public Resources Code.

SEC. 4.5. The 48th District Agricultural Association shall not expend for obtaining another fair and exposition site an amount in excess of the proceeds that it receives from the sale under Section 1.

SEC. 5. The Department of General Services shall not enter into such transaction unless all moneys, excepting those described in Section 2, derived from the sale of such property are forwarded to the 48th District Agricultural Association to be expended for the sole purpose of obtaining another fair and exposition site for the 48th District Agricultural Association.

SEC. 6. All proceeds received from the sale under Section 1, less costs and expenses of sale, are hereby appropriated to the 48th District Agricultural Association for expenditure by the district in accordance with the provisions of Section 5.

CHAPTER 1018

An act to add Section 13146.1 to the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Sections 6030 and 6031.1 of the Penal Code, relating to fire safety, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 21, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 22, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13146.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

13146.1. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 13146, the State Fire Marshal, or the State Fire Marshal's authorized representative, shall inspect every jail or place of detention for persons charged with or convicted of a crime, unless the chief of any city or county fire department or fire protection district, or such chief's authorized representative, annually indicates in writing to the State Fire Marshal that inspections of such jails or places of detention, therein, shall be conducted by the chief, or such person's authorized representative.

(b) Such inspections shall be made at least annually for the purpose of enforcing the regulations adopted by the State Fire Marshal, pursuant to Section 13143, and the minimum standards pertaining to fire and life safety adopted by the Board of Corrections, pursuant to Section 6030 of the Penal Code.

(c) Reports of such inspections shall be submitted to the official in charge of the facility, the local governing body, the State Fire Marshal, and the Board of Corrections.

SEC. 2. Section 6030 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

6030. (a) The Board of Corrections shall establish minimum standards for local detention facilities by July 1, 1972. The Board of Corrections shall review such standards biennially and make any appropriate revisions.

(b) The standards shall include, but not be limited to, the following: health and sanitary conditions, fire and life safety, security, rehabilitation programs, recreation, treatment of persons confined in local detention facilities, and personnel training.

(c) Such standards shall require that at least one person on duty at the facility is knowledgeable in the area of fire and life safety procedures.

(d) In establishing minimum standards, the Board of Corrections shall seek the advice of the following:

(1) For health and sanitary conditions:

The State Department of Health Services, physicians, psychiatrists, local public health officials, and other interested persons.

(2) For fire and life safety:

The State Fire Marshal, local fire officials, and other interested persons.

(3) For security, rehabilitation programs, recreation, and treatment of persons confined in local detention facilities:

The Department of Corrections, the Department of the Youth Authority, local juvenile justice commissions, local correction officials, experts in criminology and penology, and other interested persons.

(4) For personnel training:

The Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training, psychiatrists, experts in criminology and penology, the Department of Corrections, the Department of the Youth Authority, local correctional officials, and other interested persons.

SEC. 3. Section 6031.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

6031.1. Inspections of local detention facilities shall be made biennially. Inspections shall include, but not be limited to, the following.

(a) Health and safety inspections conducted pursuant to Section 459 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) Fire suppression preplanning inspections by the local fire department.

(c) Security, rehabilitation programs, recreation, treatment of persons confined in local detention facilities, and personnel training by the staff of the Board of Corrections.

Reports of each facility's biennial inspection shall be furnished to the official in charge of the local detention facility, the local governing body, the grand jury, and the presiding or sole judge of the superior court in the county where the detention facility is located. Such reports shall set forth the areas wherein the local detention facility has complied and has failed to comply with the minimum standards established pursuant to Section 6030.

SEC. 4. The sum of forty-one thousand dollars ($41,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Fire Marshal for purposes of making the inspections required by Section 13146.1 of the Health and Safety Code.

CHAPTER 1019

An act to add Sections 6365 and 6366.3 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor September 21, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 22, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6365 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

6365. (a) There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this part the gross receipts from the sale of, and the storage, use or other consumption in this state of, original works of art, which are:

(1) Purchased by this state or any city, county, city and county, or other local governmental entity;

(2) Purchased by any nonprofit organization operating any public museum for, and pursuant to contract with, any such governmental entity;

(3) Purchased by any nonprofit organization which has qualified for exemption pursuant to Section 23701d for a museum regularly open to the public not less than 20 hours per week for not less than 35 weeks of the calendar year and operated by the purchaser of such art or operated by another nonprofit organization which has qualified for exemption pursuant to Section 23701d; or

(4) Purchased for donation and actually donated by delivery by the retailer pursuant to the instructions of the buyer to any such governmental entity, or nonprofit organization, and evidenced by a written transfer of title from the buyer to such governmental entity or nonprofit organization.

(b) The exemption provided by this section shall apply only to works of art purchased to become part of the permanent collection of a museum, as defined in Section 6366.4.

(c) For purposes of this section, "work of art" means a work of visual art, including, but not limited to, a drawing, painting, mural, fresco, sculpture, mosaic, film, or photograph, a work of calligraphy, a work of graphic art (including, but not limited to, an etching, lithograph, offset print, silk screen, or a work of graphic art of like nature), crafts (including, but not limited to, crafts in clay, textile, fiber, wood, metal, plastic, glass, and like materials), or mixed media (including, but not limited to, a collage, assemblage, or any combination of the foregoing art media).

(d) For purposes of this section, a "museum" shall only include:

(1) A museum which has a significant portion of its space open to the public without charge; or

(2) A museum open to the public without charge for not less than six hours during any month the museum is open to the public; or

(3) A museum which is open to a segment of the student or adult population without charge.

SEC. 2. Section 6366.3 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

6366.3. (a) There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this part the gross receipts from the sale of and the storage, use or other consumption in this state of tangible personal property purchased by a nonprofit museum regularly open to the public which is operated by or for a local or state government entity, or operated by a nonprofit organization which has qualified for exemption pursuant to Section 23701d, provided:

(1) The property is purchased to replace property which has been physically destroyed by fire, flood, earthquake, or other calamity;

(2) The property is purchased and used exclusively for display purposes within such museum; and

(3) The property is purchased within three years from the date the calamity occurred.

(b) The aggregate amount of the exemption provided by this section shall not exceed the value of the property destroyed on the date the calamity occurred.

(c) The exemption provided by this section extends only to items which have value as museum pieces and does not extend to display cases, shelving, lamps, lighting fixtures, or other items of tangible personal property utilized in the operation of a museum.

(d) For purposes of this section, a "museum" shall only include:

(1) A museum which has a significant portion of its space open to the public without charge; or

(2) A museum open to the public without charge for not less than six hours during any month the museum is open to the public; or

(3) A museum which is open to a segment of the student or adult population without charge.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 2230 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act and the state shall not reimburse any local agency for any sales and use tax revenues lost by it under this act.

SEC. 4. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. However, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the first day of the first calendar quarter commencing more than 90 days after the effective date of this act.

CHAPTER 1020

An act to amend Section 72190 of the Government Code, relating to court commissioners.

[Approved by Governor September 21, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 22, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 72190 of the Government Code is amended to read:

72190. Within the jurisdiction of the court and under the direction of the judges, commissioners of municipal courts shall exercise all the powers and perform all of the duties authorized by law to be performed by commissioners of superior courts and such additional powers and duties as may be prescribed by law. At the direction of the judges, commissioners may have the same jurisdiction and exercise the same powers and duties as the judges of the court with respect to any infraction or small claims action. The commissioners of municipal courts shall possess the same qualifications the law requires of a judge and shall hold office during the pleasure of the court appointing them and shall not engage in the private practice of law. They shall be ex officio deputy clerks.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a commissioner of a municipal court of any judicial district in Los Angeles County or San Diego County who has been duly appointed and has thereafter been retired for service, and a commissioner of a superior court in this state who has been duly appointed and has thereafter been retired for service, may be assigned by the presiding judge of a municipal court to serve as a court commissioner of such court for such periods of time as he is needed for the prompt and efficient discharge of the business of that court. While so serving, he shall be paid the full compensation of a court commissioner, payable as follows: He shall continue to receive his retirement allowance, and in addition the county shall pay him the amount equal to the difference between such retirement allowance and such full compensation. Such employment shall not operate to reinstate him as a member of the county retirement system or to terminate or suspend his retirement rights or allowance, and no deductions shall be made from his compensation as contributions to the retirement system.

CHAPTER 1021

An act to amend Section 1542 of the Financial Code, and to amend Sections 16430, 16522, and 53651 of the Government Code, relating to security for the investment of state funds and for deposit.

[Approved by Governor September 21, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 22, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1542 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1542. Security deposited with the State Treasurer by trust companies pursuant to Section 1540 or 1541 shall consist of the following:

(a) Bonds or other interest-bearing notes or obligations of the United States or those for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(b) Bonds of the State of California or those for which the faith and credit of the State of California are pledged for the payment of principal and interest or in registered warrants of the State of California.

(c) Bonds and revenue securities of any city, county, city and county, political subdivision, public corporation, or district of the State of California (herein referred to generally as "public corporations"), and of any department, board, agency, or authority of any such public corporation, which qualify as an investment for the funds of commercial banks under the provisions of Article 4 (commencing with Section 1335) of Chapter 10 of this division.

(d) Bonds of any state of the United States which qualify as an investment for the funds of commercial banks under the provisions of Article 4 (commencing with Section 1335) of Chapter 10 of this division.

(e) Loans secured by a first lien on real property and otherwise complying with the provisions of subdivision (a) of Section 1227.

(f) Obligations issued, assumed, or guaranteed by the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, the Inter-American Development Bank, or the Asian Development Bank.

SEC. 2. Section 16430 of the Government Code is amended to read:

16430. Eligible securities for the investment of surplus moneys shall be:

(a) Bonds or interest-bearing notes or obligations of the United States, or those for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(b) Bonds of this state, or those for which the faith and credit of this state are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(c) Bonds or warrants, including, but not limited to, revenue warrants, of any county, city, metropolitan water district, California water district, California water storage district, irrigation district in the State of California, municipal utility district, or school district of this state.

(d) Bonds, consolidated bonds, collateral trust debentures, consolidated debentures, or other obligations issued by federal land banks or federal intermediate credit banks established under the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended, in debentures and consolidated debentures issued by the Central Bank for Cooperatives and banks for cooperatives established under the Farm Credit Act of 1933, as amended, in bonds or debentures of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board established under the Federal Home Loan Bank Act, in stock, bonds, debentures and other obligations of the Federal National Mortgage Association established under the National Housing Act as amended, and in the bonds of any federal home loan bank established under said act, obligations of the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, and in bonds, notes, and other obligations issued by the Tennessee Valley Authority under the Tennessee Valley Authority Act as amended.

(e) Commercial paper of "prime" quality as defined by a nationally recognized organization which rates such securities. Eligible paper is further limited to issuing corporations: (1) organized and operating within the United States; (2) having total assets in excess of five hundred million dollars ($500,000,000); and (3) approved by the Pooled Money Investment Board. Purchases of eligible commercial paper may not exceed 180 days' maturity, represent more than 10 percent of the outstanding paper of an issuing corporation, nor exceed 30 percent of the resources of an investment program. At the request of the Pooled Money Investment Board, such investment shall be secured by the issuer by depositing with the Treasurer securities authorized by Section 53651 of a market value at least 10 percent in excess of the amount of the state's investment.

(f) Bills of exchange or time drafts drawn on and accepted by a commercial bank, otherwise known as bankers acceptances, which are eligible for purchase by the Federal Reserve System.

(g) Negotiable certificates of deposits purchased from a nationally or state-chartered bank or savings and loan association. For the purposes of this section, negotiable certificates of deposits do not come within the provisions of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 16500) of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(h) The portion of bank loans and obligations guaranteed by the United States Small Business Administration or the United States Farmers Home Administration.

(i) Obligations issued, assumed, or guaranteed by the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, the Inter-American Development Bank, the Asian Development Bank, or the Government Development Bank of Puerto Rico.

SEC. 2.1. Section 16430 of the Government Code is amended to read:

16430. Eligible securities for the investment of surplus moneys shall be:

(a) Bonds or interest-bearing notes or obligations of the United States, or those for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(b) Bonds or interest-bearing notes or obligations that are guaranteed as to principal and interest by a federal agency of the United States.

(c) Bonds of this state, or those for which the faith and credit of this state are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(d) Bonds or warrants, including, but not limited to, revenue warrants, of any county, city, metropolitan water district, California water district, California water storage district, irrigation district in the State of California municipal utility district, or school district of this state.

(e) Bonds, consolidated bonds, collateral trust debentures, consolidated debentures, or other obligations issued by federal land banks or federal intermediate credit banks established under the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended, in debentures and consolidated debentures issued by the Central Bank for Cooperatives and banks for cooperatives established under the Farm Credit Act of 1933, as amended, in bonds or debentures of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board established under the Federal Home Loan Bank Act, in stock, bonds, debentures and other obligations of the Federal National Mortgage Association established under the National Housing Act as amended, and in the bonds of any federal home loan bank established under said act, obligations of the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, and in bonds, notes, and other obligations issued by the Tennessee Valley Authority under the Tennessee Valley Authority Act as amended.

(f) Commercial paper of "prime" quality as defined by a nationally recognized organization which rates such securities. Eligible paper is further limited to issuing corporations: (1) organized and operating within the United States; (2) having total assets in excess of five hundred million dollars ($500,000,000); and (3) approved by the Pooled Money Investment Board. Purchases of eligible commercial paper may not exceed 180 days' maturity, represent more than 10 percent of the outstanding paper of an issuing corporation, nor exceed 30 percent of the resources of an investment program. SEC. 5. It is the intent of the Legislature that if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 2099 or Senate Bill No. 1776, or both, are chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, each of the bills amend Section 16430 of the Government Code, and this bill is chaptered last, that amendments proposed by each of the bills which are chaptered be given effect as follows:

(1) If this bill and Assembly Bill No. 2099 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 16430 of the Government Code, but Senate Bill No. 1776 is not chaptered or as chaptered does not amend that section, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2099, the amendments proposed by both bills shall be given effect and incorporated in Section 16430 in the form set forth in Section 2.1 of this act Therefore, if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 2099 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 16430, this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2099, and Senate Bill No. 1776 is not chaptered or as chaptered does not amend that section, Section 2.1 of this act shall be operative and Sections 2, 2.2, and 2.3 of this act shall not become operative.

(2) If this bill and Senate Bill No. 1776 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 16430 of the Government Code, but Assembly Bill No. 2099 is not chaptered or as chaptered does not amend that section, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1776, the amendments proposed by both bills shall be given effect and incorporated in Section 16430 in the form set forth in Section 2.2 of this act. Therefore, if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1776 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 16430, this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1776, and Assembly Bill No. 2099 is not chaptered or as chaptered does not amend that section, Section 2.2 shall be operative and Sections 2, 2.1, and 2.3 of this act shall not become operative.

(3) If this bill and Assembly Bill No. 2099 and Senate Bill No. 1776 are all chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, all three bills amend Section 16430 of the Government Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2099 and Senate Bill No. 1776, the amendments proposed by all three bills shall be given effect and incorporated in Section 16430 in the form set forth in Section 2.3 of this act. Therefore, if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 2099 and Senate Bill No. 1776 are all chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, all three bills amend Section 16430 of the Government Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2099 and Senate Bill No. 1776, Section 2.3 of this act shall be operative and Sections 2, 2.1, and 2.2 of this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 6. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 2099 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 16522 of the Government Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2099, that the amendments to Section 16522 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 16522 in the form set forth in Section 3.5 of this act. Therefore, Section 3.5 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 2099 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both amend Section 16522, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2099, in which case Section 3 of this act shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1022

An act to amend Section 653m of the Penal Code, relating to telephone calls.

[Approved by Governor September 21, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 22, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 653m of the Penal Code is amended to read:

653m. (a) Every person who with intent to annoy telephones another and addresses to or about such other person any obscene language or addresses to such other person any threat to inflict injury to the person or property of the person addressed or any member of his family, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(b) Every person who makes a telephone call with intent to annoy another and without disclosing his true identity to the person answering the telephone is, whether or not conversation ensues from making the telephone call, guilty of a misdemeanor.

(c) Any offense committed by use of a telephone as herein set out may be deemed to have been committed at either the place at which the telephone call or calls were made or at the place where the telephone call or calls were received.

(d) Subdivision (a) or (b) is violated when the person acting with intent to annoy makes a telephone call requesting a return call and performs the acts prohibited under such subdivision upon receiving the return call.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local governmental entities and school districts which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes.

CHAPTER 1023

An act to amend Sections 7514, 7514.1, and 7580 of the Business and Professions Code, and to amend Sections 12031 and 12033 of, and to repeal Section 12031.5 of, the Penal Code, relating to private investigators and adjusters, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 21, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 22, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7514 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7514. The director may adopt and enforce reasonable rules:

(a) Classifying licensees according to the type of business regulated by this chapter in which they are engaged, including but not limited to private investigators, persons employed by any lawful business as security guards or patrolpersons, insurance adjusters, repossessors, and alarm company operators and limiting the field and scope of the operations of a licensee to those in which he is classified and qualified to engage.

(b) Fixing the qualifications of licensees and managers, in addition to those prescribed in this chapter, necessary to promote and protect the public welfare.

(c) Carrying out generally the provisions of this chapter, including regulation of the conduct of licensees.

(d) For a change in the classification of a licensee, or in the type of business organization upon application therefor by a licensee, and to prescribe the fee, if any, to be paid.

(e) Establishing the qualifications which any person employed by a private patrol operator or any lawful business as a security guard or patrolperson or employed by an alarm company operator as an alarm agent must meet as a condition of becoming eligible to carry firearms pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 12031 of the Penal Code and Section 7514.1 of the Business and Professions Code.

(f) Requiring each uniformed employee of a private patrol operator, as defined in this chapter, and any other person employed and compensated by a private patrol operator or any lawful business as a security guard or patrolperson and who in the course of such employment carries a deadly weapon to be registered with the bureau upon application on a form prescribed by the director accompanied by the registration fee and by two classifiable sets of fingerprints of the applicant; establishing the term of the registration for a period of not less than two nor more than four years; and providing for the renewal thereof upon proper application and payment of the renewal fee. The director may, after opportunity for hearing, refuse such registration to any person who lacks good moral character, and may impose such reasonable additional requirements as are necessary to meet local needs and are not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter.

(g) Requiring each alarm agent of an alarm company operator, as defined in this chapter, to be registered with the bureau upon application on a form prescribed by the director accompanied by the registration fee and by two classifiable sets of fingerprints of the applicant; establishing the term of the registration for a period of not less than two nor more than four years; and providing for the renewal thereof upon proper application and payment of the renewal fee. The director may, after opportunity for hearing, refuse such registration to any person who lacks good moral character, and may impose such reasonable additional requirements as are necessary to meet local needs and are not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter.

(h) Establishing procedures whereby the local authorities of any city, county, or city and county may file charges with the director alleging that any registered security guard or patrolperson, or anyone who is an applicant for registration, with the bureau fails to meet standards for registration, and providing further for the investigation of such charges.

(i) Requiring private patrol operators and any lawful business to maintain detailed records identifying all firearms in their possession or under their control, and the employees or persons authorized to carry or have access to such firearms.

(j) Establishing the qualifications which a uniformed employee of a licensee who operates a private patrol must meet as a condition of handling guard dogs.

SEC. 2. Section 7514.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7514.1. (a) Every private investigator, private patrol operator, alarm company operator, alarm agent employed by an alarm company operator, and any person employed and compensated by a private patrol operator, other lawful business or public agency as a security guard or patrolperson, and who in the course of such employment or business carries a deadly weapon, shall complete a course of training in the exercise of the powers to arrest and a course of training in the carrying and use of firearms. The course of training in the carrying and use of firearms shall not be required of any employee who is not required or permitted by a licensee to carry or use firearms. The course in the carrying and use of firearms and the course of training in the exercise of the powers to arrest shall meet the standards which shall be prescribed by the Department of Consumer Affairs. The department shall encourage restraint and caution in the use of firearms.

(b) The department shall prescribe the minimum standards for a course of training in the exercise of powers of arrest.

(c) No uniformed employee of a licensee, who was licensed by the department on or before January 1, 1976, shall carry or use any firearm unless he has successfully completed the course of training prescribed in subdivision (a) on or before January 1, 1976. No uniformed employee of a licensee, who was licensed by the department after January 1, 1976, shall carry or use any firearm until he has successfully completed the course of training prescribed in subdivision (a).

(d) The department shall report to the Legislature on or before March 1, 1977 concerning the nature and scope of the training offered pursuant to subdivision (a), the number of employees so trained and the conformity of the industry to the standards established by the department.

SEC. 3. Section 7580 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7580. The amount of fees prescribed by this chapter, unless otherwise fixed, is that fixed in the following schedule:

(a) The application fee for an original license in any classification is twenty-five dollars ($25)

(b) The application fee for an original branch office certificate is fifteen dollars ($15)

(c) The fee for an original license is an amount equal to the renewal fee in effect on the last regular renewal date before the date on which the license is issued, except that, if the license will expire less than one year after its issuance, then the fee is an amount equal to 50 percent of the renewal fee in effect on the last regular renewal date before the date on which the license is issued. The director may, by appropriate regulation, provide for the waiver or refund of the initial license fee where the license is issued less than 45 days before the date on which it will expire.

(d) The renewal fee shall be fixed by the director as follows:

(1) For a license as an insurance adjuster, repossessor, private investigator, private investigator and private patrol operator, or alarm company operator, not more than one hundred dollars ($100).

(2) For a license as a private patrol operator, not more than fifty dollars ($50).

(3) For a branch office certificate, not more than twenty dollars ($20).

(e) The application and license fee for classifications prescribed by the director, in addition to those provided for in this chapter, and the application and license fees for a change in the type of business organization of a licensee, shall be in the amount prescribed by rule and regulation of the director.

(f) The delinquency fee shall be 50 percent of the renewal fee in effect on the date of expiration, but not more than twenty-five dollars ($25).

(g) The fee for reexamination of an applicant or his manager is ten dollars ($10).

(h) Fees to carry out the provisions of subdivisions (f) and (g) of Section 7514 shall be fixed by the director as follows:

(1) A registration fee of not more than ten dollars ($10).

(2) A registration renewal fee of not more than five dollars ($5).

(i) The firearms qualification fee is not more than five dollars ($5).

(j) A firearms requalification fee of not more than five dollars ($5).

SEC. 4. Section 12031 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12031. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), (c), or (d), every person who carries a loaded firearm on his person or in a vehicle while in any public place or on any public street in an incorporated city or in any public place or on any public street in a prohibited area of unincorporated territory is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall not apply to any of the following:

(1) Peace officers listed in Section 830.1 or 830.2, or subdivision (a) of Section 830.3, whether active or honorably retired, other duly appointed peace officers, full-time paid peace officers of other states and the federal government who are carrying out official duties while in California, or any person summoned by any such officers to assist in making arrests or preserving the peace while he is actually engaged in assisting such officer.

The agency from which a peace officer is honorably retired may, upon initial retirement of the peace officer, or at any time subsequent thereto, deny or revoke, for good cause, the retired officer's privilege to carry a weapon as provided in this paragraph. Any peace officer who has been honorably retired shall be issued an identification certificate containing an endorsement by the issuing agency indicating whether or not the retired peace officer has the privilege to carry a weapon pursuant to this paragraph.

(2) Members of the military forces of this state or of the United States engaged in the performance of their duties.

(3) Persons who are using target ranges for the purpose of practice shooting with a firearm, or who are members of shooting clubs while hunting on the premises of such clubs.

(4) The carrying of concealable weapons by persons who are authorized to carry such weapons pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 12050) of Chapter 1 of Title 2 of Part 4 of the Penal Code.

(c) Subdivision (a) shall not apply to any of the following who have completed a regular course in firearms training approved by the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training:

(1) Patrol special police officers appointed by the police commission of any city, county, or city and county under the express terms of its charter who also under the express terms of the charter (i) are subject to suspension or dismissal after a hearing on charges duly filed with the commission after a fair and impartial trial, (ii) must be not less than 18 years of age nor more than 40 years of age, (iii) must possess physical qualifications prescribed by the commission, and (iv) are designated by the police commission as the owners of a certain beat or territory as may be fixed from time to time by the police commission.

(2) The carrying of weapons by animal control officers or zookeepers, regularly compensated as such by a governmental agency when acting in the course and scope of their employment and when designated by a local ordinance or, if the governmental agency is not authorized to act by ordinance, by a resolution, either individually or by class, to carry such weapons, or by persons who are authorized to carry such weapons pursuant to Section 607f of the Civil Code, while actually engaged in the performance of their duties pursuant to such section.

(3) Harbor policemen designated pursuant to Section 663.5 of the Harbors and Navigation Code.

(d) Subdivision (a) shall not apply to any of the following who have been issued a certificate pursuant to Section 12033. Such certificate shall not be required of any person who is a peace officer, who has completed all training required by law for the exercise of his power as a peace officer, and who is employed while not on duty as such peace officer.

(1) Guards or messengers of common carriers, banks, and other financial institutions while actually employed in and about the shipment, transportation, or delivery of any money, treasure, bullion, bonds, or other thing of value within this state.

(2) Guards of contract carriers operating armored vehicles pursuant to California Highway Patrol and Public Utilities Commission authority (i) if hired prior to January 1, 1977; or (ii) if hired on or after January 1, 1977, if they have completed a course in the carrying and use of firearms as prescribed by the Department of Consumer Affairs.

(3) Private investigators, private patrol operators, and alarm company operators who are licensed pursuant to Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 7500) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, while acting within the course and scope of their employment.

(4) Uniformed security guards or night watchmen employed by any public agency, while acting within the scope and in the course of their employment.

(5) Uniformed security guards, regularly employed and compensated as such by persons engaged in any lawful business, while actually engaged in protecting and preserving the property of their employers and uniformed alarm agents employed by an alarm company operator while on duty. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to prohibit cities and counties from enacting ordinances requiring alarm agents to register their name.

(6) Uniformed employees of private patrol operators and uniformed employees of private investigators licensed pursuant to Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 7500) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code while acting within the course and scope of their employment as private patrolmen or private investigators.

(e) In order to determine whether or not a firearm is loaded for the purpose of enforcing this section, peace officers are authorized to examine any firearm carried by anyone on his person or in a vehicle while in any public place or on any public street in an incorporated city or prohibited area of an unincorporated territory. Refusal to allow a peace officer to inspect a firearm pursuant to the provisions of this section constitutes probable cause for arrest for violation of this section.

(f) As used in this section "prohibited area" means any place where it is unlawful to discharge a weapon.

(g) A firearm shall be deemed to be loaded for the purposes of this section when there is an unexpended cartridge or shell, consisting of a case which holds a charge of powder and a bullet or shot, in, or attached in any manner to, the firearm, including, but not limited to, in the firing chamber, magazine, or clip thereof attached to the firearm; except that a muzzle-loader firearm shall be deemed to be loaded when it is capped or primed and has a powder charge and ball or shot in the barrel or cylinder.

(h) Nothing in this section shall prevent any person engaged in any lawful business, including a nonprofit organization, or any officer, employee, or agent authorized by such person for lawful purposes connected with such business, from having a loaded firearm within such person's place of business, or any person in lawful possession of private property from having a loaded firearm on such property.

(i) Nothing in this section shall prevent any person from carrying a loaded firearm in an area within an incorporated city while engaged in hunting, during such time and in such area as the hunting is not prohibited by the city council.

(j) Nothing in this section is intended to preclude the carrying of any loaded firearm, under circumstances where it would otherwise be lawful, by a person who reasonably believes that the person or property of himself or another is in immediate danger and that the carrying of such weapon is necessary for the preservation of such person or property.

(k) Nothing in this section is intended to preclude the carrying of a loaded firearm by any person while engaged in the act of making or attempting to make a lawful arrest.

(l) Nothing in this section shall prevent any person from having a loaded weapon, if it is otherwise lawful, at his place of residence, including any temporary residence or campsite.

SEC. 5. Section 12031.5 of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 12033 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12033. The Department of Consumer Affairs may issue a certificate to any person referred to in subdivision (d) of Section 12031, upon notification by the school where the course was completed, that the person has successfully completed a course in the carrying and use of firearms and a course of training in the exercise of the powers of arrest which meet the standards prescribed by the department pursuant to Section 7514.1 of the Business and Professions Code.

CHAPTER 1024

An act to amend Section 24000 of, and to add Section 24210 to, the Education Code, relating to State Teachers' Retirement System.

[Approved by Governor September 21, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 22, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 24000 of the Education Code is amended to read·

24000. Upon retirement for service which became effective after June 30, 1972, a member shall receive a retirement allowance which shall consist of:

(a) An annual allowance payable in monthly installments, upon retirement at age 60 or over, equal to 2 percent of the final compensation for each year of credited service. If the retirement of a member is effective at less than age 60 and between the ages of 55 and 60 this allowance shall be reduced by one-half of 1 percent for each full month, or fraction of a month which will elapse until the member would have reached age 60, and

(b) An annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of the accumulated annuity deposit contributions standing to the credit of his account at the time of his retirement.

A school district or other employing agency may elect to permit all members with 30 years of credited service to retire at age 50 or older and receive an annual allowance equal to 2 percent of final compensation for each year of credited service. If the member is over age 50, but under age 55, the allowance shall be reduced by one-quarter of 1 percent for each full month or fraction of a month which will elaspe until the member would have reached age 55 and one-half of 1 percent for each full month, or fraction between 55 and 60.

In computing the above amounts, the age of the member at the last day of the month in which the retirement allowance begins to accrue or such later date as provided in Section 23900 shall be used.

SEC. 2. Section 24210 is added to the Education Code, to read:

24210. The board shall, in consultation with members, develop, adopt, and implement an additional optional retirement plan which will allow an employee to receive a minimum retirement allowance prior to age 60 if the employee has at least attained age 55. Under the plan, the member shall continue to receive the minimum retirement allowance past age 60 until the amounts paid prior to age 60 equal the difference between the minimum retirement allowance and the benefits which would have been provided to the member under regular service retirement at age 60, and thereafter shall be paid the regular service retirement allowance for age 60. The board shall determine the age past 60 at which the increase will be made by determining how long the minimum retirement allowance would have to be paid beyond age 60 in order for the amount paid prior to age 60 to equal the difference between the minimum retirement allowance and the amount that would have been provided to the member under regular service retirement at age 60. The board shall integrate the optional plan adopted under this section with the other retirement options that a member may elect under this part

For the purposes of this section, all contributions, liabilities, actuarial interest rates, and other valuation factors shall be determined on the basis of actuarial assumptions and methods which, in the aggregate, are reasonable and which, in combination, offer the actuary's best estimate of anticipated experience under the system

The additional employer contributions required, if any, under this section shall be computed as a level percentage of member compensation. The additional contribution rate required, if any, shall not be less than the sum of (1) the actuarial normal cost, plus (2) the additional contribution required to amortize the increase in accrued liability attributable to benefits elected under this section over a period of not more than 30 years from the date this section becomes effective.

CHAPTER 1025

An act to amend Sections 39015, 40200, 40260, 40261, and 40520 of, and to amend the chapter heading of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 40200) of Part 3 of Division 26 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to air pollution, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 21, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 22, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 39015 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

39015. "Bay district" means the Bay Area Air Quality Management District continued in existence pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 40200) of Part 3.

SEC. 2. The chapter heading of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 40200) of Part 3 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

CHAPTER 4. BAY AREA AIR QUALITY MANAGEMENT DISTRICT

SEC. 3. Section 40200 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

40200. A district, which is called the Bay Area Air Quality Management District, which was formerly known as the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District, is hereby continued in existence within the boundaries of the Counties of Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin, Napa, San Francisco, San Mateo, and Santa Clara and those portions of the Counties of Solano and Sonoma within the boundaries of the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District as it existed on January 1, 1976. Any reference to the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District shall be deemed to be a reference to the Bay Area Air Quality Management District.

SEC. 4. Section 40260 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

40260. As used in this article, "council" means the Bay Area Air Quality Management Advisory Council.

SEC. 5. Section 40261 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

40261. There is continued in existence the Bay Area Air Quality Management Council, which was formerly known as the Bay Area

Air Pollution Control Advisory Council, which council is appointed by the bay district board, to advise and consult with the bay district board and the bay district air pollution control officer in effectuating the purposes of this division. Any reference to the Bay Area Air Pollution Control Advisory Council shall be deemed to be a reference to the Bay Area Air Quality Management Council.

SEC. 6. Section 40520 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

40520. Upon adoption of its budget for the next fiscal year, the south coast district board shall apportion the amount that each county included within the south coast district shall pay to finance the operation of the south coast district in that fiscal year.

The apportionment to a county shall, as determined by the south coast district board, be that proportion of the amount that the population of the portion of the county included within the south coast district bears to the total population of the south coast district, either as determined from the latest federal decennial census or as determined from the latest annual population estimate by the Department of Finance made pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 13073.5 of the Government Code.

SEC. 7. No appropriation is made by this act, nor is any obligation created thereby under Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, for the reimbursement of any local agency for any costs that may be incurred by it in carrying on any program or performing any service required to be carried on or performed by it by this act because costs incurred pursuant to this act will be offset by savings.

SEC. 8. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The population ratio of the counties, in whole or in part within the South Coast Air Quality Management District, has shifted significantly since the last federal decennial census, and the activities of that district is most nearly proportional to population. Therefore, in order that the apportionment of costs of the district are most equitably distributed in proportion to the population served in the next budget year, it is necessary that this act take immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1026

An act to amend Sections 17687 and 24833 of, and to add Sections 17687.5 and 24833.5 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor September 21, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 22, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17687 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17687. The allowance for depletion under Section 17681 shall be:

(a) In the case of sand, gravel, slate, stone (including pumice and scoria), brick and tile clay, shale, oystershell, clamshell, granite, marble, sodium chloride, and, if from brine wells, calcium chloride, magnesium chloride, and bromide, 5 percent;

(b) In the case of coal, asbestos, brucite, dolomite, magnesite, perlite, wollastonite, calcium carbonates, and magnesium carbonates, 10 percent;

(c) In the case of metal mines, aplite, bauxite, fluorspar, flake graphite, vermiculite, beryl, garnet, feldspar, mica, talc (including pyrophyllite), lepidolite, spodumene, barite, ball clay, sagger clay, china clay, phosphate rock, rock asphalt, trona, bentonite, gilsonite, thenardite, borax, fuller's earth, tripoli, refractory and fire clay, quartzite, diatomaceous earth, metallurgical grade limestone, chemical grade limestone, and potash, 15 percent;

(d) In the case of sulfur, 22 percent; of the gross income from the property during the taxable year, excluding from such gross income an amount equal to any rents or royalties paid or incurred by the taxpayer in respect of the property. The allowance shall not exceed 50 percent of the taxable income of the taxpayer (computed without allowance for depletion) from the property except in no case shall the depletion allowance under Section 17681 be less than it would be if computed without reference to this section. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the allowable deductions taken into account with respect to expenses of mining in computing the taxable income from the property shall be decreased by an amount equal to so much of any gain which (1) is treated under Section 18211 (relating to gain from disposition of certain depreciable property) as gain from the sale or exchange of property which is neither a capital asset nor property described in Sections 18181 and 18182, and (2) is properly allocable to the property.

SEC. 2. Section 17687.5 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17687.5. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of any section in this chapter, the total accumulated amount of deduction allowed or allowable for depletion with respect to sulfur shall be limited to an amount equal to the adjusted cost of the taxpayer's interest in such property which is subject to recovery through depletion under this part, except as provided in this section.

(b) Where the total accumulated amount of deduction allowed or allowable for depletion exceeds an amount equal to the adjusted cost of the taxpayer's interest in any property which is subject to recovery through depletion under this part, percentage depletion shall be allowed in respect to such interest in such property, subject to the limitations and adjustments of subdivisions (c) and (d).

(c) Where the total depletion allowance for all properties in subdivision (b) exceeds one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000), the allowance in subdivision (b) shall be reduced by 125 percent of the excess.

(d) In any case where husband and wife file separate returns, the amount specified in subdivision (c) shall be seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000) in lieu of one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000).

SEC. 3. Section 24833 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24833. The allowance for depletion under Section 24835 shall be:

(a) In the case of sand, gravel, slate, stone (including pumice and scoria), brick and tile clay, shale, oystershell, clamshell, granite, marble, sodium chloride, and, if from brine wells, calcium chloride, magnesium chloride, and bromide, 5 percent;

(b) In the case of coal, asbestos, brucite, dolomite, magnesite, perlite, wollastonite, calcium carbonates, and magnesium carbonates, 10 percent;

(c) In the case of metal mines aplite, bauxite, fluorspar, flake graphite, vermiculite, beryl, garnet, feldspar, mica, talc (including pyrophyllite), lepidolite, spodumene, barite, ball clay, sagger clay, china clay, phosphate rock, rock asphalt, trona, bentonite, gilsonite, thenardite, borax, fuller's earth, tripoli, refractory and fire clay, quartzite, diatomaceous earth, metallurgical grade limestone, chemical grade limestone, and potash, 15 percent;

(d) In the case of sulfur, 22 percent; of the gross income from the property during the income year, excluding from such gross income an amount equal to any rents or royalties paid or incurred by the taxpayer in respect of the property.

Such allowance shall not exceed 50 percent of the net income of the taxpayer (computed without allowance for depletion) from the property except that in no case shall the depletion allowance under Section 24835 be less than it would be if computed without reference to this section.

SEC. 4. Section 24833.5 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

24833.5. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of any section in this chapter, the total accumulated amount of deduction allowed or allowable for depletion with respect to sulfur shall be limited to an amount equal to the adjusted cost of the taxpayer's interest in such property which is subject to recovery through depletion under this part, except as provided in this section.

(b) Where the total accumulated amount of deduction allowed or allowable for depletion exceeds an amount equal to the adjusted cost of the taxpayer's interest in any property which is subject to recovery allowable for depletion exceeds an amount equal to the adjusted cost of the taxpayer's interest in any property which is subject to recovery through depletion under this part, percentage depletion shall be allowed in respect to such interests in such property, subject to the limitations and adjustments of subdivisions (c) and (d).

(c) Where the total depletion allowance for all properties in subdivision (b) exceeds one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000), the allowance in subdivision (b) shall be reduced by 125 percent of the excess.

(d) When either (1) the income from sources within this state of two or more corporations which are commonly owned or controlled is determined in accordance with Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101) of this part or Part 18 (commencing wth Section 38001) of this division, or (2) two or more commonly owned or controlled corporations derive income from sources solely within this state, whose business activities are such that if conducted within and without this state, the income derived from sources within this state would be determined in accordance with Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101) of this part or Part 18 (commencing with Section 38001) of this division (hereinafter referred to as "wholly intrastate corporations"), then such corporations shall determine the percentage depletion prescribed in subdivision (b) as if such corporations were one corporation. As to "wholly intrastate corporations", if subdivision (c) applies, then the amount of percentage depletion (as adjusted and limited by subdivision (c)) shall be prorated among them in the ratio to which the percentage depletion of each prescribed in subdivision (b) (before the application of subdivision (c)) bears to the total percentage depletion prescribed in subdivision (b) for all corporations (before the application of subdivision (c)).

SEC. 5. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. However, Sections 1 and 2 of this act shall be applied in the computation of taxes for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1977, and Sections 3 and 4 of this act shall be applied in the computation of taxes for income years beginning after December 31, 1977.

CHAPTER 1027

An act to amend Section 60315 of, to add Section 46352 to, and to add and repeal Section 39250.5 of, the Education Code, relating to education, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 21, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 22, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 39250.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

39250.5. Any building which was being leased pursuant to this article by the governing board of any school district prior to January 1, 1979, and which is used exclusively for adult education purposes shall not be subject to the provisions of Article 3 (commencing with Section 39140) and Article 6 (commencing with Section 39210) of this chapter.

If any building so excluded was not constructed in accordance with Article 3 (commencing with Section 39140) of this chapter and was not repaired, reconstructed, or replaced in accordance with Article 6 (commencing with Section 39210) of this chapter, there shall be posted in a conspicuous place on such building a public notice stating that such building does not meet the structural standards imposed by law for earthquake safety.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1982, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1982, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 2. Section 46352 is added to the Education Code, to read:

46352. The governing board of any school district may determine not to include the attendance of any person or persons enrolled in classes for adults in the district's computation of its revenue limit and state apportionments. The district shall submit annually to the Superintendent of Public Instruction a report indicating the number of pupils in such category for the preceding fiscal year.

SEC. 3. Section 60315 of the Education Code is amended to read:

60315. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall lend to pupils entitled to attend the public elementary schools of the district, but in attendance at a school other than a public school under the provisions of Section 48222, the following items adopted by the state board for use in the public elementary schools:

(a) Textbooks and textbook substitutes for pupil use.

(b) Educational materials for pupil use.

(c) Tests for pupil use.

(d) Instructional materials systems for pupil use.

(e) Instructional materials sets for pupil use.

No charge shall be made to any pupil for the use of such adopted materials.

Items shall be loaned pursuant to this section only after, and to the same extent that, items are made available to students in attendance in public elementary schools. However, no cash allotment may be made to any nonpublic school.

Items shall be loaned for the use of nonpublic elementary school students after the nonpublic school student certifies to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction that such items are desired and will be used in a nonpublic elementary school by the nonpublic elementary school student.

SEC. 4 This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to provide for the efficient administration of educational systems in this state and to enable school districts to fulfill existing leases of facilities for adult education programs which will be maintained during the fall of 1978, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1028

An act to amend Section 84502 of, and to repeal and add Section 84521 to, the Education Code, relating to community colleges, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 21, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 22, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 84502 of the Education Code is amended to read:

84502. In any computation of average daily attendance made under, or necessitated by, any provision of law, the average daily attendance shall be computed to four decimal places and rounded to two decimal places for the purpose of reporting to the chancellor's office.

Whenever any reference is made to a specific whole number of units of average daily attendance said number shall include any fraction above said number which is less than one-half of a unit, and any fraction of one-half or more of a unit above the next lowest whole number.

SEC. 2. Section 84521 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 84521 is added to the Education Code, to read:

84521. (a) For the purposes of this chapter, average daily attendance of students enrolled in any credit course, as defined by Section 78201.5, which is scheduled for the full term of a quarter or a semester, or for other sessions as approved by the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges to meet the requirements of Section 84370, shall be computed pursuant to Section 84520.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 84520, average daily attendance of students enrolled in any credit course, other than courses offered pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 84500 or Section 84530, which is scheduled for a period of time other than the full term of a quarter or semester, or for other sessions approved for the purposes of Section 84370, shall be computed by dividing actual class hours of attendance by 525.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect The facts constituting such necessity are:

Provisions of law authorizing community college districts to receive apportionments for attendance in short-term classes will expire on July 1, 1978, and thus in order to assure community college districts of continuing credit for attendance in such classes, commencing on July 1, 1978, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1029

An act to amend Section 64 of Chapter 208 of the Statutes of 1973, relating to education, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 21, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 22, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows.

SECTION 1. Section 64 of Chapter 208 of the Statutes of 1973 is amended to read:

Sec. 64. This section shall apply only to the school districts of Santa Cruz County. Because of an unusual situation with respect to the junior high schools of that county, a general law cannot be made applicable.

All references to code sections in this section are to sections of the Education Code.

(a) The governing board of any elementary school district situated within a high school district maintaining a junior high school shall permit pupils who have completed the sixth year of the elementary school to attend the junior high school and shall pay to the high school district for the education of the pupils a tuition charge determined pursuant to this section.

(b) The base tuition revenue amount per unit of average daily attendance for each fiscal year, the tuition revenue amount per unit of average daily attendance of a junior high student for each fiscal year, and the total tuition to be paid each fiscal year to a high school district to which an elementary district sends junior high school students shall be computed jointly by the high school district superintendent and the county superintendent annually as follows:

(1) For the 1973–74 fiscal year only, they shall add the total of all payment received by the high school district in the 1972–73 fiscal year pursuant to Sections 37062, 42212, and former Section 5605.5, exclusive of funds received pursuant to Public Law 81-874, and any funds budgeted and expended in the 1972–73 fiscal year from restricted reserves derived under Section 42212. The total so determined shall be divided by the average daily attendance for the second period of attendance for the 1972–73 fiscal year for the junior high schools maintained by the high school district and shall be the base tuition revenue amount per average daily attendance for junior high school operation for the high school district.

(2) For the 1973–74 fiscal year, they shall divide the base tuition revenue amount per average daily attendance determined in paragraph (1) into one thousand thirty dollars ($1,030). If the result is greater than one, it shall be deemed to be one. The quotient so determined shall be multiplied by seventy dollars ($70) per unit of average daily attendance. The product so determined shall be added to the base tuition revenue amount per average daily attendance determined according to paragraph (1) and the sum shall be the tuition revenue limit per average daily attendance for the 1973–74 fiscal year for that high school district.

For the 1974–75 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter they shall divide the tuition revenue limit per average daily attendance for the prior fiscal year computed according to this subdivision into the appropriate foundation amount set according to subdivision (c) of Section 42238. If the result is more than one it shall be deemed to be one. The quotient so determined shall be multiplied by the inflation adjustment amount per average daily attendance for foundation programs determined pursuant to subdivisions (d) and (e) of Section 42238 and the result added to the tuition revenue limit per average daily attendance for the prior fiscal year. The sum shall be the tuition revenue limit per average daily attendance for the then current fiscal year.

(3) The sum computed pursuant to paragraph (2) for any fiscal year shall be multiplied by the estimated foundation program unit of average daily attendance in the second principal apportionment of the junior high schools of the high school district for that current fiscal year. The product shall be the total tuition revenue limit that the high school district may receive in that current fiscal year from the elementary districts sending students to a junior high school maintained by such high school district.

(4) From the total tuition revenue limit computed pursuant to paragraph (3) there shall be subtracted the total of the amounts that would be received by the high school district if each elementary district paid to the high school district the product of the estimated average daily attendance of seventh- and eighth-grade students attending a junior high school maintained by the high school district and the elementary district revenue limit per average daily attendance computed pursuant to Section 42233 or 42238, whichever is applicable, as computed prior to any adjustments in revenue limit for changes in junior high school tuition for that year pursuant to subdivision (g) or subdivision (h). The difference so computed according to this paragraph shall be the residual tuition amount for that current year.

(5) A computational tax rate expressed to four decimal places shall be set jointly by the high school district superintendent and the county superintendent of schools prior to July 15, 1973, in the 1973–74 fiscal year and prior to May 1 each fiscal year thereafter, which, when multiplied by the product of the attendance ratio and each one hundred dollars ($100) of the assessed valuation of each of the elementary districts will give a sum nearest the total residual tuition amount authorized to be received by the high school district as determined pursuant to paragraph (4).

The "attendance ratio" is the ratio which the average daily attendance of pupils of the elementary school district attending grades 7 and 8 of a junior high school maintained by the high school district bears to the total average daily attendance of the elementary school district, including such pupils in grades 7 and 8, during the current fiscal year.

The total amount so computed for each elementary district pursuant to paragraph (4) shall be divided by the estimated average daily attendance of seventh- and eighth-grade students from the elementary school district which are estimated to attend a junior high school maintained by the high school district in that year and the result shall be the residual tuition amount per average daily attendance for that fiscal year for that elementary school district.

(6) For each elementary school district, the tuition payments paid to the high school district in 1972–73 under Sections 37062 and former Section 5605.5 shall be added to the tax revenue derived by the high school district under Section 42212 from the assessed valuation of that elementary school district. The sum shall be divided by the average daily attendance of seventh- and eighth-grade students from the elementary school district attending a junior high school maintained by the high school district in the 1972–73 fiscal year. The result shall be increased by the sum of the amount spent per unit of average daily attendance for junior high school programs in the 1972–73 fiscal year from restricted reserves derived under Section 42212 and the inflation adjustment computed pursuant to paragraph (2), and shall be the comparison junior high school payment for the 1973–74 fiscal year.

(c) An elementary school district whose seventh- and eighth-grade pupils are entering junior high school and for which no tuition limit can be determined pursuant to subdivision (b) shall pay a tuition agreed upon between the high school district and the elementary school district, which shall be no less than the revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance of the elementary school district for that year.

(d) Each elementary school district sending students to a junior high school maintained by a high school district shall be billed by the county superintendent of schools, and shall pay to the high school district as tuition, an amount computed as follows:

(1) For the 1973–74 fiscal year, the sum of the revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance determined from the amount computed pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 42233, but without any adjustments for changes in junior high school tuition payment for that year pursuant to subdivision (h), and the residual tuition amount per average daily attendance for the 1973–74 fiscal year, shall be adjusted by one-half the difference between that sum and the comparison tuition amount per average daily attendance for the 1973–74 fiscal year computed pursuant to paragraph (6) of subdivision (b). The result shall be multiplied by the estimated average daily attendance for the 1973–74 fiscal year of seventh- and eighth-grade students attending a junior high school maintained by the high school district.

The product shall be the total tuition paid by the elementary district to the high school district as tuition for junior high attendance for the 1973–74 fiscal year.

In no case shall the tuition per unit of average daily attendance paid to the high school district be less than the local revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance of the elementary school district determined from the amount computed according to subdivision (i) of Section 42233 prior to adjustments for changes in junior high school tuition payments for that current year.

(2) For the 1974–75 fiscal year, and for each fiscal year thereafter, the sum of the revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance as computed pursuant to Section 42238 prior to any adjustments for changes in junior high tuition for that year pursuant to subdivision (h), and the residual tuition amount per average daily attendance for that current year, shall be multiplied by the estimated average daily attendance for the current fiscal year of seventh- and eighth-grade students attending a junior high school maintained by the high school district.

The product shall be the total tuition paid by the elementary school district to the high school district as tuition for junior high school attendance for that current fiscal year.

In no case shall the tuition per unit of average daily attendance paid to the high school district be less than the revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance of the elementary district computed according to Section 42238 prior to adjustments for changes in junior high school tuition payment for that current year.

(e) For the 1978–79 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, any elementary district in Santa Cruz County which sends seventh- and eighth-grade students to a junior high school operated by a high school district shall compute its elementary district revenue limit pursuant to Section 42238 by deleting from such computation the units of average daily attendance attributed to the elementary district by virtue of seventh- and eighth-grade students who attend the junior high schools of a high school district. The revenue limit for each elementary district thus computed shall be increased by the amount that the elementary district is charged as tuition for seventh- and eighth-graders which attend a junior high school of the high school district, as computed according to subdivision (d) of this section.

(f) If the amount of local tax revenue which is determined by the county superintendent of schools to have been derived by the elementary district in the 1977–78 fiscal year for the support of seventh- and eighth-grade students attending a junior high school of the high school district, which amount shall be on file with the State Department of Education and the county office of education, is greater than the amount of junior high tuition charged to the elementary district for the 1977–78 fiscal year, 80 percent of the difference shall be added to the revenue limit of the elementary district as computed pursuant to subdivision (e) of this section for the 1978–79 fiscal year. For the 1979–80 fiscal year, 60 percent of the difference shall be added to the revenue limit of the elementary district as computed pursuant to subdivision (e) of this section. For the 1980–81 fiscal year, 40 percent of the difference shall be added to the revenue limit of the elementary district as computed pursuant to subdivision (e) of this section. For the 1981–82 fiscal year 20 percent of the difference shall be added to the revenue limit of the elementary district as computed pursuant to subdivision (e) of this section. There shall be no adjustment pursuant to this subdivision after the 1981–82 fiscal year.

(g) For high school districts maintaining a junior high school system which is attended by seventh- or eighth-grade students from an elementary district pursuant to this section, the foundation program amount used as the dividend for computing the annual allowed adjustment in the tuition revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of this section shall be the average of the foundation amount set annually for elementary districts having an average daily attendance of 901 or more and high school districts having an average daily attendance of 301 or more.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 56041 and 56367 of the Education Code, for fiscal year 1978–79 the Superintendent of Public Instruction may provide for the certification of private schools and agencies offering special education services pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 56030) of Chapter 1 and Article 5 (commencing with Section 56360) of Chapter 2 of Part 30 of the Education Code for up to one year.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that the revised fiscal computations prescribed by this act with respect to the schools of Santa Cruz County may be utilized for the 1978–79 fiscal year, it is necessary that this act go into effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1030

An act to amend Section 9641 of, and to add Sections 9641.5 and 9641.7 to, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to horses and other Equidae, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 21, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 22, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1 Section 9641 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

9641. Except as otherwise provided in this article, it is unlawful for any person to bring into this state any horse or other Equidae, dairy cattle, breeding bull, goat, or sheep.

SEC. 2. Section 9641.5 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

9641.5 Any horse or other Equidae brought into this state shall be accompanied by the following:

(a) A certificate of health from the state of origin issued by an accredited veterinarian. The certificate shall state that the horse or other Equidae is free from evidence of any communicable disease.

(b) Verification that any horse or Equidae has been tested within the preceding six months and found negative to a test for equine infectious anemia. The test shall be approved by the director and conducted by a laboratory approved by the United States Department of Agriculture, and the necessary sample shall be taken, and the verification signed by, an accredited veterinarian.

A copy of the certificate and verification, accompanied by a filing fee set by the director at not to exceed two dollars ($2) per animal, shall be mailed to the department not later than the day of the shipment. Such moneys shall be deposited in the Department of Agriculture Fund and shall be used for the purpose of administering the provisions of this section and Section 9641.7.

A nursing foal of less than six months of age when accompanied by a negative dam and any horse or other Equidae consigned for immediate slaughter shall be exempt from the testing requirements of this section.

Any horse or other Equidae moved from California to another state for a period of not more than 14 days, are exempt from this section upon returning to California, provided, that the exemption does not apply to any horse or other Equidae that leaves the continental United States.

SEC. 3. Section 9641.7 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read.

9641.7. Any positive test for equine infectious anemia performed in a California laboratory shall be reported by telephone within 24 hours to the department by the laboratory making the test.

SEC. 4. No appropriation is made by this act, nor is any obligation created thereby under Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, for the reimbursement of any local agency for any costs that may be incurred by it in carrying on any program or performing any service required to be carried on or performed by it by this act.

CHAPTER 1031

An act to add Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 798) to Title 2 of Part 2 of Division 2 of, and to repeal Sections 789.4, 789.5, 789.5c, 789.6, 789.7, 789.7a, 789.7b, 789.7c, 789.8, 789.9, 789.10, 789.11, 789.12, 789.13, 789.14, and 789.15 of, the Civil Code, relating to mobilehome residences.

[Approved by Governor September 22, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 798) is added to Title 2 of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Civil Code, to read:

CHAPTER 2.5. MOBILEHOME RESIDENCY LAW

Article 1. General

798. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Mobilehome Residency Law."

798.1. Unless the provisions or context otherwise requires, the following definitions shall govern the construction of this chapter.

798.2. "Management" means the owner of a mobilehome park or an agent or representative authorized to act on his behalf in connection with matters relating to a tenancy in the park.

798.4. "Mobilehome park" is an area of land where two or more mobilehome sites are rented, or held out for rent, to accommodate mobilehomes used for human habitation.

798.5. "Park" is a mobilehome park.

798.6. "Rental agreement" is an agreement between the management and the tenant establishing the terms and conditions of a tenancy. A lease is a rental agreement.

798.7. "Resident" is a tenant or other person who lawfully occupies a mobilehome.

798.8. "Tenancy" is the right of a tenant to the use of a site within a mobilehome park on which to locate, maintain, and occupy a mobilehome and accessory structures for human habitation.

798.9. "Tenant" is a person who has a tenancy in a mobilehome park under a rental agreement.

Article 2. Rental Agreement

798.15. Prior to the creation or renewal of a tenancy, the management shall furnish the prospective tenant with a written rental agreement. The agreement shall contain, in addition to the provisions otherwise required by law to be included, all of the following:

(a) A provision specifying that it is the responsibility of the management to provide and maintain physical improvements in the common facilities in good working order and condition.

(b) A description of the physical improvements to be provided the tenant during his tenancy.

(c) A provision listing those services which will be provided at the time the rental agreement is executed and will continue to be offered for the period of tenancy and the fees, if any, to be charged for those services.

(d) A provision specifying that the management shall meet and consult with the tenants, either individually or collectively, on the following matters:

(1) Amendments to park rules and regulations.

(2) Standards for maintenance of physical improvements in the park.

(3) Addition, alteration, or deletion of services, equipment, or physical improvements.

The provision shall provide that the meeting shall be conducted only after notice thereof has been given to all tenants 10 days or more before the meeting.

798.16. The rental agreement may include the rules and regulations of the park and such other provisions permitted by law.

798.17. The rental agreement may provide that the tenancy may be terminated by the management giving written notice to the tenant in the manner and form prescribed in Article 6 (commencing with Section 798.55) of this chapter, to remove the mobilehome from the park within a period of more than 60 days, which period shall be specified in the notice.

798.18. A tenant whose tenancy is subject to termination under Article 6 (commencing with Section 798.55) of this chapter, may request that his tenancy be governed by a written rental agreement. If such a request is made, the management shall furnish the tenant with a written rental agreement for a term of not less than 12 months.

798.19. No rental agreement for a mobilehome that requires a permit to be moved upon a street or highway shall contain a provision by which the tenant waives his rights under the provisions of this chapter, except Sections 798.19, 798.75, 798.85, and 798.86. Any such waiver shall be deemed contrary to public policy and void.

798.20. Membership in any private club or organization which is a condition for tenancy in a park shall not be denied on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, ancestry, or marital status

Article 3. Rules and Regulations

798.25. The management shall provide each tenant with the park rules and regulations and the provisions of law set forth in Article 1 (commencing with Section 798) to Article 8 (commencing with Section 798.84), inclusive, except Section 798.75, in writing The provisions of law may be included either within the rules and regulations or the rental agreement.

Article 4. Fees and Charges

798.30. The management shall give a tenant written notice of any increase in his rent at least 60 days before the date of the increase.

798.31. A tenant shall not be charged a fee for other than rent, utilities, and incidental reasonable charges for services actually rendered.

798.32. A tenant shall not be charged a fee for services actually rendered which are not listed in the rental agreement unless he has been given written notice thereof by the management, at least 60 days before imposition of the charge.

798 33. A tenant shall not be charged a fee for keeping a pet in the park unless the management actually provides special facilities or services for pets If special pet facilities are maintained by the management, the fee charged shall reasonably relate to the cost and maintenance of the facilities or services and the number of tenants owning pets.

798.34. A tenant shall not be charged a fee for a guest who does not stay with him for more than a total of 14 days in any calendar month. Such a guest will not be required to register with the management

798.35. A tenant shall not be charged a fee based on the number of members in his immediate family. As used in this section, the "immediate family" includes the tenant, his spouse, and their children.

798.36. A tenant shall not be charged a fee for the enforcement of any of the rules and regulations of the park.

798.37 A tenant shall not be charged a fee for entry, installation, hookup, or landscaping as a condition of tenancy, but reasonable landscaping and maintenance requirements may be included in the park rules and regulations.

798 38. Where the management provides both master meter and submeter service of utilities to a tenant, for each billing period the cost of the charges for the period shall be separately stated along with the opening and closing readings for his meter The management shall post in a conspicious place, the prevailing residential utilities rate schedule as published by the serving utility

Article 5. Tenant Meetings

798.50. The management shall permit meetings by tenants or occupants of a mobilehome in the park, or any or all of them, relating to mobilehome living and affairs to be held in any of the park community or recreation halls if the meeting is held at a reasonable hour and when the facility is not otherwise in use.

798.51. The provisions of this article shall apply only to a mobilehome or trailer coach that requires a permit to be moved on a street or highway.

Article 6. Termination of Tenancy

798.55. No tenancy created on or after March 4, 1972, may be terminated by the management except for a reason specified in this article and upon the giving of written notice to the tenant in the manner prescribed by Section 1162 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to remove the mobilehome from the park within a period of not less than 60 days, which period shall be specified in the notice.

798.56. A tenancy shall be terminated by the management pursuant to this article only for one or more of the following reasons:

(a) Failure of the tenant to comply with a local ordinance or state law or regulation relating to mobilehomes within a reasonable time after the tenant receives a notice of noncompliance from the appropriate governmental agency.

(b) Conduct by the tenant, upon the park premises, which constitutes a substantial annoyance to other tenants.

(c) Failure of the tenant to comply with a reasonable rule or regulation of the park as set forth in the rental agreement at the inception of his tenancy or as amended thereafter with the consent of the tenant, or without the consent of the tenant upon written notice to him of not less than six months, except for regulations applicable to recreational facilities which may be amended without consent of the tenant upon written notice to him of not less than 60 days.

No act or omission of the tenant shall constitute such a failure to comply unless and until the management has given the tenant written notice of the alleged rule or regulation violation and the tenant has failed to adhere to the rule or regulation within seven days.

(d) Nonpayment of rent, utility charges, or reasonable incidental service charges.

(e) Condemnation of the park

(f) Change of use of the park, provided the management gives the tenants or prospective tenants written notice of the proposed change, 12 months or more before the date of the proposed change.

The notice requirements for termination of tenancy set forth in Sections 798.55 and 798.57 shall be followed if the proposed change actually occurs 798.57. The management shall set forth in a notice of termination, the reason relied upon for the termination with specific facts to permit determination of the date, place, witnesses, and circumstances concerning that reason. Neither reference to the section number or a subdivision thereof, nor a recital of the language of this article will constitute compliance with this section.

798.58. No tenancy shall be terminated for the purpose of making a tenant's site available for a person who purchased a mobilehome from the owner of the park or his agent.

798.59. A tenant shall give written notice to the management of not less than 60 days before vacating his tenancy.

798.60. Sections 798.55, 798.56, and 798.57 shall not affect any rights or proceedings set forth in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 1159) of Title 3 of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure except as otherwise provided in those sections.

798.61. Sections 798.55, 798.56, and 798.57 apply only to a mobilehome or trailer coach that requires a permit to be moved upon a street or highway.

Article 7. Transfer of Mobilehome

798.70. A tenant may advertise the sale or exchange of his mobilehome or, if not prohibited by the terms of an agreement with the management, may advertise the rental of his mobilehome. The advertising may include the display of a sign in the window of the mobilehome stating that the mobilehome is for sale or exchange or, if not prohibited, for rent by the owner of the mobilehome or his agent. The sign shall state the name, address, and telephone number of the owner of the mobilehome or his agent and may be at least 12 inches in width and 12 inches in length.

798.71. The management shall not show or list for sale a mobilehome without first obtaining the owner's written authorization. The authorization shall specify the terms and conditions regarding the showing or listing.

Nothing in this section shall be construed as affecting the provisions of the Vehicle Code governing the licensing of mobilehome salesmen.

798.72. The management shall not charge a tenant or his agent a transfer or selling fee as a condition of a sale of his mobilehome within a park unless the management performs a service in the sale. The management shall not perform any such service in connection with the sale unless so requested, in writing, by the tenant or his agent.

798.73. The management shall not require the removal of a mobilehome from the park in the event of its sale to a third party during the term of the tenant's rental agreement. However, in order to upgrade the quality of the park, the management may require that a mobilehome be removed from the park where:

(a) It is less than 10 feet in width.

(b) It is 15 years or older and manufactured on or before September 15, 1971.

(c) It is 25 years or older and manufactured after September 15, 1971, or

(d) It is in rundown condition or in disrepair. The management shall use reasonable discretion in determining the condition of the mobilehome and its accessory structures.

798.74. The management may require the right of prior approval of a purchaser of a mobilehome that will remain in the park and that the selling tenant or his agent give notice of the sale to the management before the close of the sale. Approval cannot be withheld if the purchaser has the financial ability to pay the rent and charges of the park unless the management reasonably determines that, based on the purchaser's prior tenancies, he will not comply with the rules and regulations of the park.

798.75. An escrow, sale, or transfer agreement involving a mobilehome located in a park at the time of the sale, where the mobilehome is to remain in the park, shall contain a provision signed by the purchaser stating that he has agreed to the terms of a rental agreement. A copy of a fully executed rental agreement signed by the purchaser will satisfy the requirements of this section.

798.76. The management may require that a purchaser of a mobilehome which will remain in the park, comply with any rule or regulation limiting residence to adults only.

798.77. No rental or sale agreement shall contain a provision by which the purchaser or tenant waives his rights under Section 798.70, 798.73, 798.74, or 798.76. Any such waiver shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable.

Article 8. Actions, Proceedings, and Penalties

798.84. A tenant may commence an action to enforce the provisions of this chapter or to recover damages for the breach of any provision of the rental agreement by the management.

798.85. In any action arising out of the provisions of this chapter, except Sections 798.18 and 798.75, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and costs. A party shall be deemed a prevailing party for the purposes of this section where the litigation is dismissed in his favor prior to or during the trial unless the parties otherwise agree in the settlement or compromise.

798.86. In the event a tenant, former tenant, or former resident of a park is the prevailing party in a civil action against the owner, to enforce his rights under the provisions of this chapter, except Sections 798.18 and 798.75, the tenant or resident, in addition to damages afforded by law, may, in the discretion of the court, be awarded an amount not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500) for each willful violation of those provisions by the owner.

Article 9. Subdivisions, Cooperatives, and Condominiums

799. As used in this article:

(a) "Ownership or management" means the ownership or management of a subdivision, cooperative, or condominium for mobilehomes.

(b) "Tenant" means a person who has a tenancy in a subdivision, cooperative, or condominium for mobilehomes.

799.1. A tenant may advertise the sale or exchange of his mobilehome or, if not prohibited by the terms of an agreement with the management or ownership, may advertise the rental of his mobilehome. A tenant may display a sign in the window of his mobilehome to advertise that the mobilehome is for sale or exchange or, if not prohibited, for rent by the owner of the mobilehome or his agent. The sign shall state the name, address, and telephone number of the owner of the mobilehome or his agent, and may be at least 12 inches in width and 12 inches in length.

799.2. The ownership or management shall not show or list for sale a mobilehome owned by a tenant without first obtaining the owner's written authorization. The authorization shall specify the terms and conditions regarding the showing or listing.

Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to affect the provisions of the Vehicle Code governing the licensing of mobilehome salesmen.

799.3. The ownership or management shall not require the removal of a mobilehome from a subdivision, cooperative, or condominium in the event of its sale to a third party. However, in order to upgrade the quality of the subdivision, cooperative, or condominium, the ownership or management may require that a mobilehome be removed where:

(a) It is less than 10 feet in width.

(b) It is 15 years or older and manufactured on or before September 15, 1971.

(c) It is 25 years or older and manufactured after September 15, 1971, or

(d) It is in rundown condition or in disrepair. The ownership or management shall use reasonable discretion in determining the condition of the mobilehome and its accessory structures.

799.4. The ownership or management may require the right to prior approval of the purchaser of a mobilehome that will remain in the subdivision, cooperative, or condominium for mobilehomes and that the selling tenant or his agent give notice of the sale to the ownership or management before the close of the sale. Approval cannot be withheld if the purchaser has the financial ability to pay the fees and charges of the subdivision, cooperative or condominium unless the ownership or management reasonably determines that, based on the purchaser's prior tenancies, he will not comply with the rules and regulations of the subdivision, cooperative, or condominium.

799.5 The ownership or management may require that a purchaser of a mobilehome which will remain in the subdivision, cooperative, or condominium for mobilehomes, comply with any rule or regulation limiting residence therein to adults only.

799.6. The ownership or management shall give written notice to a tenant of any rent increase, not less than 60 days before imposition of the increase.

799.7. Before vacating his tenancy, a tenant shall give a written notice thereof to the ownership or management of not less than 60 days

799.8. No agreement shall contain any provision by which the purchaser waives his rights under the provisions of Section 799.1, 799.3, 799.4, or 799.5. Any such waiver shall be deemed contrary to public policy and void and unenforceable

CHAPTER 1032

An act to amend Sections 789.14 and 798.18 of the Civil Code, relating to mobilehome park tenancies.

[Approved by Governor September 22, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 789.14 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

789.14. Any prospective tenant or tenant of a mobilehome park subject to the provisions of Section 789.5 may request that his tenancy in the mobilehome park be governed by a written rental agreement. If such a request is made, the ownership or management shall furnish the tenant with a written rental agreement for a term of not less than 12 months. No such agreement shall contain any terms or conditions with respect to charges for rent, utilities, or incidental reasonable service charges, which would be different during the first 12 months of the agreement from corresponding terms or conditions which would be offered to the prospective tenant or tenant on a month-to-month tenancy.

SEC. 2. Section 798.18 of the Civil Code, as added by Senate Bill No. 2119 of the 1977–78 Regular Session, is amended to read:

798.18. A tenant whose tenancy is subject to termination under Article 6 (commencing with Section 798.55) of this chapter, may request that his tenancy be governed by a written rental agreement. If such a request is made, the management shall furnish the tenant with a written rental agreement for a term of not less than 12 months.

No such agreement shall contain any terms or conditions with respect to charges for rent, utilities, or incidental reasonable service charges which would be different during the first 12 months of the agreement from the corresponding terms or conditions which would be offered to the prospective tenant or tenant on a month-to-month basis.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this act shall become operative only if Senate Bill No. 2119 of the 1977–78 Regular Session is enacted and adds Section 798.18 to the Civil Code, in which case Section 1 of this act shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1033

An act to amend Sections 798, 798.8, 798.15, 798.16, 798.18, 798.19, 798.33, 798.55, 798.56, 798.60, 798.70, 798.73, 798.77, 798.85, 798.86, 799.1, and 799.3 of, to amend and renumber Sections 789.16 and 799.8 of, to add Sections 798.3, and 798.25 to, and to repeal Sections 798, 798.17, 798.25, 798.51, 798.61, 798.84, 799.6, and 799.7 of, the Civil Code, relating to mobilehome residencies.

[Approved by Governor September 22, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 798 of the Civil Code, as added by Senate Bill No. 2119 of the 1977–78 Regular Session, is amended to read:

798. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Mobilehome Residency Law." It shall apply only to a mobilehome that requires a permit to be moved on a street or highway.

SEC. 1.5. Section 798 of the Civil Code, as added by Senate Bill No. 2119 of the 1977–78 Regular Session, is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 798.3 is added to Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 798) of Title 2 of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Civil Code, as added by Senate Bill No. 2119 of the 1977–78 Regular Session.

798.3. "Mobilehome" is a structure designed for human habitation and for being moved on a street or highway under a permit.

SEC. 3. Section 798.8 of the Civil Code, as added by Senate Bill No. 2119 of the 1977–78 Regular Session, is amended to read:

798.8. "Tenancy" is the right of a tenant to the use of a site within a mobilehome park on which to locate, maintain, and occupy a mobilehome, site improvements, and accessory structures for human habitation, including the use of the services and facilities of the park.

SEC. 4. Section 798.15 of the Civil Code, as added by Senate Bill No. 2119 of the 1977–78 Regular Session, is amended to read:

798.15. The rental agreement shall be in writing and shall contain, in addition to the provisions otherwise required by law to be included, all of the following:

(a) The term of the tenancy and the rent therefor.

(b) The rules and regulations of the park.

(c) The language of the provisions of this chapter.

(d) A provision specifying that it is the responsibility of the management to provide and maintain physical improvements in the common facilities in good working order and condition.

(e) A description of the physical improvements to be provided the tenant during his tenancy.

(f) A provision listing those services which will be provided at the time the rental agreement is executed and will continue to be offered for the term of tenancy and the fees, if any, to be charged for those services.

(g) A provision specifying that the management shall meet and consult with the tenants, either individually or collectively, on the following matters:

(1) Amendments to park rules and regulations.

(2) Standards for maintenance of physical improvements in the park.

(3) Addition, alteration, or deletion of service, equipment, or physical improvements.

The provision shall provide that any meeting shall be conducted only after notice thereof has been given to all tenants 10 days or more before the meeting.

(h) All other provisions governing the tenancy.

SEC. 5. Section 798.16 of the Civil Code, as added by Senate Bill No. 2119 of the 1977–78 Regular Session, is amended to read:

798.16 The rental agreement may include such other provisions permitted by law.

SEC. 6. Section 798.17 of the Civil Code, as added by Senate Bill No. 2119 of the 1977–78 Regular Session, is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 798.18 of the Civil Code, as added by Senate Bill No. 2119 of the 1977–78 Regular Session, is amended to read:

798.18. A tenant shall be given a rental agreement for such term as he may request, not to exceed 12 months, or such longer period as the management may approve.

SEC. 7.5. Section 798.18 of the Civil Code, as added by Senate Bill No. 2119 of the 1977–78 Regular Session, is amended to read:

798.18. A tenant shall be given a rental agreement for such term as he may request not to exceed 12 months, or such longer period as the management may approve. No such agreement shall contain any terms or conditions with respect to charges for rent, utilities, or incidental reasonable service charges which would be different during the first 12 months of the agreement from the corresponding terms or conditions which would be offered to the prospective tenant or tenants on a month-to-month basis

SEC. 8. Section 798.19 of the Civil Code, as added by Senate Bill No. 2119 of the 1977–78 Regular Session, is amended to read:

798.19. No rental agreement for a mobilehome shall contain a provision by which the tenant waives his rights under the provisions of Articles 1 to 8, inclusive, of this chapter. Any such waiver shall be deemed contrary to public policy and void.

SEC. 9. Section 798.25 of the Civil Code, as added by Senate Bill No. 2119 of the 1977–78 Regular Session, is repealed.

SEC. 10. Section 798.25 is added to Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 798) of Title 2 of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Civil Code, as added by Senate Bill No. 2119 to the 1977–78 Regular Session, to read:

798.25. A rule or regulation of the park may be amended at any time with the consent of a tenant, or without his consent upon written notice to him of not less than six months, except for regulations applicable to recreational facilities which may be amended without his consent upon written notice to him of not less than 60 days. Written notice to a new tenant, whose tenancy commences within the required period of notice, of a proposed amendment shall constitute compliance with this section where the written notice is given to him before the inception of his tenancy.

SEC. 10.5. Section 789.16 of the Civil Code, as added by Assembly Bill No. 2785, of the 1977–78 Regular Session, is amended and renumbered to read:

798.26. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), and notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the ownership or management of a park, subdivision, cooperative, or condominium for mobilehomes shall have no right of entry to a mobilehome without the prior written consent of the occupant. Such consent may be revoked in writing by the occupant at any time. The ownership or management shall have a right of entry upon the land upon which a mobilehome is situated for maintenance of utilities and protection of the mobilehome park, subdivision, cooperative, or condominium at any reasonable time, but not in a manner or at a time which would interfere with the occupant's quiet enjoyment.

(b) The ownership or management of a park, subdivision, cooperative, or condominium for mobilehomes may enter a mobilehome without the prior written consent of the occupant in case of an emergency or when the occupant has abandoned the mobilehome.

SEC. 11. Section 798.33 of the Civil Code, as added by Senate Bill No. 2119 of the 1977–78 Regular Session, is amended to read:

798.33. A tenant shall not be charged a fee for keeping a pet in the park unless the management actually provides special facilities or services for pets. If special pet facilities are maintained by the management, the fee charged shall reasonably relate to the cost of maintenance of the facilities or services and the number of pets kept in the park.

SEC. 12. Section 798.51 of the Civil Code, as added by Senate Bill No. 2119 of the 1977–78 Regular Session, is repealed.

SEC. 13. Section 798.55 of the Civil Code, as added by Senate Bill No. 2119 of the 1977–78 Regular Session, is amended to read:

798.55. The management shall not terminate or refuse to renew a tenancy, except for a reason specified in this article and upon the giving of written notice to the tenant in the manner prescribed by Section 1162 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to remove the mobilehome from the park within a period of not less than 60 days, which period shall be specified in the notice.

SEC. 14. Section 798.56 of the Civil Code, as added by Senate Bill No. 2119 of the 1977–78 Regular Session, is amended to read:

798.56. A tenancy shall be terminated by the management only for one or more of the following reasons:

(a) Failure of the tenant to comply with a local ordinance or state law or regulation relating to mobilehomes within a reasonable time after the tenant receives a notice of noncompliance from the appropriate governmental agency.

(b) Conduct by the tenant, upon the park premises, which constitutes a substantial annoyance to other tenants.

(c) Failure of the tenant to comply with a reasonable rule or regulation of the park as set forth in the rental agreement or any amendment thereto

No act or omission of the tenant shall constitute such a failure to comply unless and until the management has given the tenant written notice of the alleged rule or regulation violation and the tenant has failed to adhere to the rule or regulation within seven days.

(d) Nonpayment of rent, utility charges, or reasonable incidental service charges.

(e) Condemnation of the park.

(f) Change of use of the park, provided:

(1) The management gives the tenants written notice of the proposed change 12 months or more before the date of the proposed change.

(2) The management gives each proposed tenant whose tenancy will commence within 12 months of the proposed change, written notice thereof prior to the inception of his tenancy.

The notice requirements for termination of tenancy set forth in Sections 798.55, 798.56, and 798.57 shall be followed if the proposed change actually occurs.

SEC. 15. Section 798.60 of the Civil Code, as added by Senate Bill No. 2119 of the 1977–78 Regular Session, is amended to read:

798.60. The provisions of this article shall not affect any rights or proceedings set forth in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 1159) of Title 3 of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure except as otherwise provided herein.

SEC. 16. Section 798.61 of the Civil Code, as added by Senate Bill No. 2119 of the 1977–78 Regular Session, is repealed.

SEC. 17. Section 798.70 of the Civil Code, as added by Senate Bill No. 2119 of the 1977–78 Regular Session, is amended to read:

798.70. A tenant may advertise the sale or exchange of his mobilehome or, if not prohibited by the terms of an agreement with the management, may advertise the rental of his mobilehome by displaying a sign in the window of the mobilehome stating that the mobilehome is for sale or exchange or, if not prohibited, for rent by the owner of the mobilehome or his agent. The sign shall state the name, address, and telephone number of the owner of the mobilehome or his agent and may be at least 12 inches in width and 12 inches in length.

SEC. 18. Section 798.73 of the Civil Code, as added by Senate Bill No. 2119 of the 1977–78 Regular Session, is amended to read:

798.73. The management shall not require the removal of a mobilehome from the park in the event of its sale to a third party during the term of the tenant's rental agreement, except to upgrade the quality of the park, the management may require that a mobilehome be removed from the park where:

a. The mobilehome is less than 10 feet in width.

b. The mobilehome is 15 years or older and manufactured on or before September 15, 1971.

c. The mobilehome is 25 years or older and manufactured after September 15, 1971, or

d. The mobilehome is in rundown condition or in disrepair. The management shall use reasonable discretion in determining the condition of the mobilehome and its accessory structures.

SEC. 19. Section 798.77 of the Civil Code, as added by Senate Bill No. 2119 of the 1977–78 Regular Session, is amended to read:

798.77. No rental or sale agreement shall contain a provision by which the purchaser or tenant waives his rights under this article. Any such waiver shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable.

SEC. 20. Section 798.84 of the Civil Code, as added by Senate Bill No. 2119 of the 1977–78 Regular Session, is repealed.

SEC. 21. Section 798.85 of the Civil Code, as added by Senate Bill No. 2119 of the 1977–78 Regular Session, is amended to read:

798.85. In any action arising out of the provisions of this chapter the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and costs. A party shall be deemed a prevailing party for the purposes of this section if the judgment is rendered in his favor or where the litigation is dismissed in his favor prior to or during the trial, unless the parties otherwise agree in the settlement or compromise.

SEC. 22. Section 798.86 of the Civil Code, as added by Senate Bill No. 2119 of the 1977–78 Regular Session, is amended to read:

798.86. In the event a tenant, former tenant, or former resident of a park is the prevailing party in a civil action against the owner to enforce his rights under the provisions of this chapter, the tenant or resident, in addition to damages afforded by law, may, in the discretion of the court, be awarded an amount not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500) for each willful violation of those provisions by the owner.

SEC. 23. Section 799.1 of the Civil Code, as added by Senate Bill No. 2119 of the 1977–78 Regular Session, is amended to read:

799.1. A tenant may advertise the sale or exchange of his mobilehome or, if not prohibited by the terms of an agreement with the management or ownership, may advertise the rental of his mobilehome by displaying a sign in the window of his mobilehome stating that the mobilehome is for sale or exchange or, if not prohibited, for rent by the owner of the mobilehome or his agent. The sign shall state the name, address, and telephone number of the owner of the mobilehome or his agent, and may be at least 12 inches in width and 12 inches in length.

SEC. 24. Section 799.3 of the Civil Code, as added by Senate Bill No. 2119 of the 1977–78 Regular Session, is amended to read:

799.3. The ownership or management shall not require the removal of a mobilehome from a subdivision, cooperative, or condominium in the event of its sale to a third party, except to upgrade the quality of the subdivision, cooperative, or condominium, the ownership or management may require that a mobilehome may be removed where·

a. The mobilehome is less than 10 feet in width.

b. The mobilehome is 15 years or older and manufactured on or before September 15, 1971

c. The mobilehome is 25 years or older and manufactured after September 15, 1971, or

d. The mobilehome is in rundown condition or in disrepair. The ownership or management shall use reasonable discretion in determining the condition of the mobilehome and its accessory structures.

SEC. 25. Section 799.6 of the Civil Code, as added by Senate Bill No. 2119 of the 1977–78 Regular Session, is repealed.

SEC. 26. Section 799.7 of the Civil Code, as added by Senate Bill No. 2119 of the 1977–78 Regular Session, is repealed.

SEC. 27. Section 799.8 of the Civil Code, as added by Senate Bill No. 2119 of the 1977–78 Regular Session, is amended and renumbered to read:

799.6. No agreement shall contain any provision by which the purchaser waives his rights under the provisions of this article. Any such waiver shall be deemed contrary to public policy and void and unenforceable.

SEC. 28. It is the intent of the Legislature that this bill shall become operative only if Senate Bill No. 2119 is enacted and becomes effective January 1, 1979. If Senate Bill No. 2119 is not enacted to become effective on January 1, 1979, this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 29. Section 1.5 of this act shall become operative only if Assembly Bill No. 2291 is enacted and becomes effective January 1, 1979, and adds Section 798 to the Civil Code, in which case Section 1 of this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 30. Section 10.5 of this act shall become operative only if Assembly Bill No. 2785 is enacted and becomes effective January 1, 1979, and this bill is chaptered last.

SEC. 31. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 3315 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, Assembly Bill No. 3315 amends Section 789.14 of the Civil Code, and this bill amends Section 798.18 of the Civil Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 3315, that the amendments to Section 789.14 and Section 798.18 be given effect and incorporated in Section 798.18 in the form set forth in Section 7.5 of this act. Therefore, Section 7.5 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 3315 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, Assembly Bill No. 3315 amends Section 789.14 and this bill amends Section 798.18, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 3315, in which case Section 7 of this act, and Section 879.14 of the Civil Code, as amended by Assembly Bill No. 3315, shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1034

An act to amend Section 789.10 of, and to add Section 798.73 to, the Civil Code, relating to mobilehome park tenancies

[Approved by Governor September 22, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1 Section 789.10 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

789 10. The ownership or management of a park, subdivision, cooperative, or condominium for mobilehomes shall not make as a condition or precondition of residency or tenancy that the mobilehome be prohibited from remaining in the mobilehome park in the event of a sale to a third party during the term of the tenant's lease or any renewal or extension thereof; provided, however, in the event of a sale to a third party, in order to upgrade the quality of a mobilehome park, any mobilehome meeting any of the following criteria may be required to be removed from the park:

(a) The mobilehome is less than 10 feet wide;

(b) The mobilehome is more than 20 years old or 25 years old if manufactured after September 15, 1971, if such mobilehome is 20 feet wide or more;

(c) The mobilehome is more than 17 years old or 25 years old if manufactured after September 15, 1971, if such mobilehome is less than 20 feet wide; or

(d) The mobilehome is in rundown condition or in disrepair.

The ownership or management shall use reasonable discretion in determining the condition of the mobilehome and its accessory structures

Nothing in this section shall be construed to deny the ownership or management the right to require prior approval of a purchaser if the mobilehome will remain located in the mobilehome park or other facility and the selling tenant or his agent shall give notice to the ownership or management of the sale prior to the close of the sale; provided, however, that the approval of a purchaser cannot be withheld if the purchaser as a prospective tenant has the financial ability to pay the rent and charges of the park unless the ownership or management reasonably determines that the prospective tenant will not, based upon prior tenancies, comply with the requirements of the rules and regulations of the mobilehome park. The ownership or management may require that the purchaser as a prospective tenant comply with any rule and regulation of the mobilehome park limiting residence within the park to adults only.

A tenant shall be permitted to advertise the sale or exchange of his mobilehome, or the rental or lease of such mobilehome if rental or lease is not prohibited under terms of an agreement with the ownership or management of a park Such sign may (1) advertise that the mobilehome is for sale or exchange, or that it is for rental or lease if rental or lease is not prohibited, by the owner or his agent; (2) state the owner's or agent's name, address and telephone number; (3) be of reasonable dimensions but may be at least 12 inches in width and 12 inches in length; and (4) be displayed in the window of the mobilehome.

No rental, lease, or sale agreement shall contain any provision by which the purchaser or tenant waives his rights under this section, and any such waiver shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable.

SEC. 2. Section 798.73 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

798.73. The management shall not require the removal of a mobilehome from the park in the event of its sale to a third party during the term of the tenant's rental agreement. However, in the event of a sale to a third party, in order to upgrade the quality of the park, the management may require that a mobilehome be removed from the park where:

(a) It is less than 10 feet wide.

(b) It is more than 20 years old, or more than 25 years old if manufactured after September 15, 1971, and is 20 feet wide or more;

(c) The mobilehome is more than 17 years old, or more than 25 years old if manufactured after September 15, 1971, and is less than 20 feet wide;

(d) It is in rundown condition or in disrepair. The management shall use reasonable discretion in determining the condition of the mobilehome and its accessory structures.

SEC. 3. Section 798.73, as added to the Civil Code by Section 2 of this act, shall become operative only if Senate Bill No. 2119 is enacted and adds Section 798.73 to the Civil Code, in which case Section 1 of this act, and Section 798.73 as added to the Civil Code by Senate Bill No. 2119, shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1035

An act to amend Section 10131.6 of the Business and Professions Code, and to amend Section 789.5 of, and to add Sections 798 and 798.61 to, the Civil Code, relating to mobilehomes.

[Approved by Governor September 22, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows.

SECTION 1. Section 10131.6 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

10131.6 (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a person licensed as a real estate broker may sell or offer to sell, buy or offer to buy, solicit prospective purchasers of, solicit or obtain listings of, or negotiate the purchase, sale, or exchange of any mobilehome if the mobilehome has been registered under the provisions of Division 3 (commencing with Section 4000) of the Vehicle Code for at least one year.

(b) No real estate broker who engages in the activities authorized by this section shall maintain any place of business where two or more mobilehomes are displayed and offered for sale by such person, unless said broker is also licensed as a vehicle dealer pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 11700) of Division 5 of the Vehicle Code.

(c) As used in this chapter, "mobilehome" means a vehicle designed and equipped for human habitation which is greater than (1) eight feet in width and (2) 32 feet in length. "Mobilehome" does not include a motor vehicle.

(d) In order to carry out the provisions of this section, the commissioner shall prescribe by regulation, after consultation with the Department of Motor Vehicles, methods and procedures to assure compliance with requirements of the Vehicle Code pertaining to mobilehome registration, collection of sales and use taxes, and transaction documentation.

SEC. 2. Section 789.5 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

789.5. (a) No tenancy or other estate at will or lease, however created on or after the effective date of this section, in a mobilehome park may be terminated except upon the landlord's giving notice in writing to the tenant, in the manner prescribed by Section 1162 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to remove from the premises within a period of not less than 60 days, to be specified in the notice. No lease shall contain any provision by which the tenant waives his rights under this section or under Sections 789.6 to 789.15, inclusive, and any such waiver shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be unenforceable and void. However, any lease may provide that the tenancy may be terminated upon the landlord's giving notice in writing to the tenant, in such prescribed manner, to remove from the premises within a period of more than 60 days, to be specified in the notice.

(b) This section shall apply only to: (1) mobilehomes or trailer coaches which are required to be moved under permit; and (2) mobilehomes or trailer coaches, without an engine for locomotion, which are at least 32 feet, but less than 40 feet, in length if the tenant has resided continuously in the mobilehome park for nine months after January 1, 1979.

(c) This section shall not affect any rights or proceedings set forth in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 1159) of Title 3 of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure except as hereinafter provided.

(d) After the effective date of this subdivision, a tenancy shall be terminated pursuant to this section only for one or more of the following reasons:

(1) Failure of the tenant to comply with local ordinances and state laws and regulations relating to mobilehomes within a reasonable time after the tenant's receipt of notice of his noncompliance from the appropriate governmental agency

(2) Conduct of the tenant, upon the mobilehome park premises, which constitutes a substantial annoyance to other tenants.

(3) Failure of the tenant to comply with reasonable rules and regulations of the mobilehome park as established by the management in writing in the rental agreement at the inception of the tenancy or as amended subsequently with the consent of the tenant, or without his consent upon six months' written notice. However, regulations applicable to recreational facilities may be amended on 60 days' written notice. The management shall give at least one written notice to the tenant of an alleged rule or regulation violation and shall furnish the tenant with seven days to adhere to the rule prior to issuing a notice of termination.

(4) Nonpayment of rent, utility charges, or reasonable incidental service charges.

(5) Condemnation or change of use of the mobilehome park. However, upon a proposed change of use of the mobilehome park, the management shall give 12 months' written advice to the tenant and prospective tenants that a proposed change of use is contemplated. If the proposed change of use actually occurs, then the notice requirements of subdivisions (a) and (f) of this section shall be followed.

(e) Meetings by tenants, or residents in the mobilehome park, or by occupants of a mobilehome in the mobilehome park, or any or all of them, relating to mobilehome living and affairs in any of the park community or recreation halls shall not be subject to prohibition by the park management if such meetings are held at reasonable hours and when the facility is not otherwise in use

(f) The management of a mobilehome park shall specify, in the notice required by this section, the reason for the termination of any tenancy in such mobilehome park. The reason relied upon for the termination shall be set forth with specific facts so that the date, place, witnesses, and circumstances concerning the reason for termination can be determined Neither reference to subdivision and paragraph numbers of this section, nor recital of the language of this section, nor both, shall be compliance with this subdivision

SEC. 3. Section 789.5 of the Civil Code is amended to read·

789.5. (a) No tenancy or other estate at will or lease, however created on or after the effective date of this section, in a mobilehome park may be terminated except upon the landlord's giving notice in writing to the tenant, in the manner prescribed by Section 1162 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to remove from the premises within a period of not less than 60 days, to be specified in the notice. No lease shall contain any provision by which the tenant waives his rights under this section or under Sections 789.6 to 789.15, inclusive, and any such waiver shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be unenforceable and void. However, any lease may provide that the tenancy may be terminated upon the landlord's giving notice in writing to the tenant, in such prescribed manner, to remove from the premises within a period of more than 60 days, to be specified in the notice.

(b) This section shall apply only to: (1) mobilehomes or trailer coaches which are required to be moved under permit; and (2) mobilehomes or trailer coaches, without an engine for locomotion, which are at least 32 feet but less than 40 feet, in length if the tenant has resided continuously in the mobilehome park for nine months after January 1, 1979.

(c) This section shall not affect any rights or proceedings set forth in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 1159) of Title 3 of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure except as hereinafter provided.

(d) After the effective date of this subdivision, a tenancy shall be terminated pursuant to this section only for one or more of the following reasons:

(1) Failure of the tenant to comply with local ordinances and state laws and regulations relating to mobilehomes within a reasonable time after the tenant's receipt of notice of his noncompliance from the appropriate governmental agency.

(2) Conduct of the tenant, upon the mobilehome park premises, which constitutes a substantial annoyance to other tenants.

(3) Failure of the tenant to comply with reasonable rules and regulations of the mobilehome park. The management shall give at least one written notice to the tenant of an alleged rule or regulation violation and shall furnish the tenant with seven days to adhere to the rule prior to issuing a notice of termination.

(4) Nonpayment of rent, utility charges, or reasonable incidental service charges.

(5) Condemnation or change of use of the mobilehome park. However, upon a proposed change of use of the mobilehome park, the management shall give 12 months' written advice to the tenant and prospective tenants that a proposed change of use is contemplated. If the proposed change of use actually occurs, then the notice requirements of subdivision (a) and (f) of this section shall be followed.

(e) Meetings by tenants, or residents in the mobilehome park, or by occupants of a mobilehome in the mobilehome park, or any or all of them, relating to mobilehome living and affairs in any of the park community or recreation halls shall not be subject to prohibition by the park management if such meetings are held at reasonable hours and when the facility is not otherwise in use.

(f) The management of a mobilehome park shall specify, in the notice required by this section, the reason for the termination of any tenancy in such mobilehome park. The reason relied upon for the termination shall be set forth with specific facts so that the date, place, witnesses, and circumstances concerning the reason for termination can be determined Neither reference to subdivision and paragraph numbers of this section, nor recital of the language of this section, nor both, shall be compliance with this subdivision.

SEC. 4. Section 798 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

798. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Mobilehome Residency Law." It shall apply only to a mobilehome that requires a permit to be moved on a street or highway.

SEC. 5. Section 798.61 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

798.61. Sections 798.55, 798.56, and 798.57 apply only to: (1) a mobilehome or trailer coach that requires a permit to be moved upon a street or highway; and (2) a mobilehome or trailer coach, without an engine for locomotion, which is at least 32 feet, but less than 40 feet, in length if the tenant has resided continuously in the mobilehome park for nine months after January 1, 1979.

SEC. 6. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 3235 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 789.5 of the Civil Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 3235, that the amendments to Section 789.5 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 789.5 in the form set forth in Section 3 of this act. Therefore, Section 3 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 3235 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both amend Section 789.5, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 3235, in which case Section 2 of this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 7. Sections 4 and 5 of this act shall become operative only if Senate Bill No. 2119 and Senate Bill No. 2120 are both enacted and become effective January 1, 1979, in which case, Section 2 of this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 8. Section 5 of this act shall become operative only if Senate Bill No. 2119 is enacted and becomes effective January 1, 1979, and Senate Bill No. 2120 is not enacted, in which case, Sections 2 and 4 of this act shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1036

An act to amend Section 6316.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to mentally disordered sex offenders, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 22, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6316.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

6316.2. (a) A person may be committed beyond the term prescribed by Section 6316.1 only under the procedure set forth in this section and only if such person meets all of the following:

(1) The "sex offense" as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 6302 of which the person has been convicted is a felony, whether committed before or after July 1, 1977, or is a misdemeanor which was committed before July 1, 1977.

(2) Suffers from a mental disorder, and as a result of such mental disorder, is predisposed to the commission of sexual offenses to such a degree that he presents a serious threat of substantial harm to the health and safety of others.

(b) If during a commitment under this part, the Director of Mental Health has good cause to believe that a patient is a person described in subdivision (a), the director may submit such supporting evaluations and case file to the prosecuting attorney who may file a petition for extended commitment in the superior court which issued the original commitment. Such petition shall be filed no later than 90 days before the expiration of the original commitment. Such petition shall state the reasons for the extended commitment, with accompanying affidavits specifying the factual basis for believing that the person meets each of the requirements set forth in subdivision (a).

(c) At the time of filing a petition, the court shall advise the patient named in the petition of his right to be represented by an attorney and of his right to a jury trial. The rules of discovery in criminal cases shall apply.

(d) The court shall conduct a hearing on the petition for extended commitment. The trial shall be by jury unless waived by both the patient and the prosecuting attorney. The trial shall commence no later than 30 days prior to the time the patient would otherwise have been released by the State Department of Mental Health.

(e) The patient shall be entitled to the rights guaranteed under the Federal and State Constitutions for criminal proceedings. All proceedings shall be in accordance with applicable constitutional guarantees. The State Controller shall reimburse the counties for all expenses of transportation, care and custody of the patient and all trial and related costs. The state shall be represented by the Attorney General or the district attorney with the consent of the Attorney General. If the patient is indigent, the State Public Defender shall be appointed. The State Public Defender may provide for representation of the patient in any manner authorized by Section 15402 of the Government Code. Appointment of necessary psychologists or psychiatrists shall be made in accordance with this article and Penal Code and Evidence Code provisions applicable to criminal defendants who have entered pleas of not guilty by reason of insanity or asserted diminished capacity defenses.

(f) If the court or jury finds that the patient is a person described in subdivision (a), the court may order the patient committed to the State Department of Mental Health in a treatment facility A commitment or a recommitment under Section 6316.1 shall be for a period of one year from the date of termination of the previous commitment.

(g) A person committed under this section to the State Department of Mental Health shall be eligible for outpatient release as provided in this article.

(h) Prior to termination of a commitment under this section, a petition for recommitment may be filed to determine whether the person remains a person described in subdivision (a). Such recommitment proceeding shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of this article.

(i) Any commitment to the State Department of Mental Health under this article places an affirmative obligation on the department to provide treatment for the underlying causes of the person's mental disorder.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1979, and on such date is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 6316.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

6316.2. (a) A person may be committed beyond the term prescribed by Section 6316.1 only under the procedure set forth in this section and only if such person meets all of the following:

(1) The "sex offense" as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 6302 of which the person has been convicted is a felony, whether committed before or after July 1, 1977, or is a misdemeanor which was committed before July 1, 1977.

(2) Suffers from a mental disease, defect, or disorder, and as a result of such mental disease, defect, or disorder, is predisposed to the commission of sexual offenses to such a degree that he presents a danger to the health and safety of others.

(b) If during a commitment under this part, the Director of Mental Health has good cause to believe that a patient is a person described in subdivision (a), the director may submit such supporting evaluations and case file to the prosecuting attorney who may file a petition for extended commitment in the superior court which issued the original commitment. Such petition shall be filed no later than 90 days before the expiration of the original commitment. Such petition shall state the reasons for the extended commitment, with accompanying affidavits specifying the factual basis for believing that the person meets each of the requirements set forth in subdivision (a).

(c) At the time of filing a petition, the court shall advise the patient named in the petition of his right to be represented by an attorney and of his right to a jury trial. The rules of discovery in criminal cases shall apply.

(d) The court shall conduct a hearing on the petition for extended commitment. The trial shall be by jury unless waived by both the patient and the prosecuting attorney. The trial shall commence no later than 30 days prior to the time the patient would otherwise have been released by the State Department of Mental Health.

(e) The patient shall be entitled to the rights guaranteed under the Federal and State Constitutions for criminal proceedings. All proceedings shall be in accordance with applicable constitutional guarantees. The State Controller shall reimburse the counties for all expenses of transportation, care and custody of the patient and all trial and related costs. The state shall be represented by the Attorney General or the district attorney with the consent of the Attorney General. If the patient is indigent, the State Public Defender shall be appointed. The State Public Defender may provide for representation of the patient in any manner authorized by Section 15402 of the Government Code. Appointment of necessary psychologists or psychiatrists shall be made in accordance with this article and Penal Code and Evidence Code provisions applicable to criminal defendants who have entered pleas of not guilty by reason of insanity or asserted diminished capacity defenses.

(f) If the court or jury finds that the patient is a person described in subdivision (a), the court may order the patient committed to the State Department of Mental Health in a treatment facility. A commitment or a recommitment under Section 6316.1 shall be for a period of two years from the date of termination of the previous commitment.

(g) A person committed under this section to the State Department of Mental Health shall be eligible for outpatient release as provided in this article.

(h) Prior to termination of a commitment under this section, a petition for recommitment may be filed to determine whether the person remains a person described in subdivision (a). Such recommitment proceeding shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of this article.

(i) Any commitment to the State Department of Mental Health under this article places an affirmative obligation on the department to provide treatment for the underlying causes of the person's mental disorder

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1980, and on such date is repealed.

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 3645 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 6316.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 3645, that Section 6316.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as amended by Section 1 of this act, shall remain operative until the effective date of Assembly Bill No. 3645, and that on the effective date of Assembly Bill No. 3645, Section 6316.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as amended by Section 1 of this act, be further amended in the form set forth in Section 2 of this act to incorporate the changes in Section 6316.2 proposed by Assembly Bill No. 3645. Therefore, if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 3645 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1979, and Assembly Bill No. 3645 is chaptered before this bill and amends Section 6316.2, Section 2 of this act shall become operative on the effective date of Assembly Bill No. 3645.

SEC. 4. The sum of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Controller for allocation and disbursement to local agencies pursuant to Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code to reimburse such agencies for costs incurred by them pursuant to Section 6316.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code as enacted by Chapter 164 of the Statutes of 1977 and as amended by this act.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

This act is designed to correct a major technical flaw in Section 6316.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code as enacted by Chapter 164 of the Statutes of 1977. That section operates in conjunction with other provisions of law which became operative on July 1, 1977, and provides additional safeguards against the premature release of dangerous persons and this act should, therefore, take effect as soon as possible.

CHAPTER 1037

An act to amend Sections 14132 and 14133.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to Medi-Cal, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 22, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14132 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as amended by Section 3.7 of Chapter 1066 of the Statutes of 1977, is amended to read:

14132. The following is the schedule of benefits under this chapter:

(a) Outpatient services are covered as follows:

Physician, hospital or clinic outpatient, surgical center, optometric, chiropractic, psychology, podiatric, occupational therapy, physical therapy, speech therapy, audiology, and services of persons rendering treatment by prayer or healing by spiritual means in the practice of any church or religious denomination insofar as these can be encompassed by federal participation under an approved plan, subject to utilization controls.

(b) Inpatient hospital services, including, but not limited to, physician and podiatric services, physical therapy and occupational therapy, are covered subject to utilization controls.

(c) Skilled nursing facility services, including podiatry and physician services, and prescribed drugs, as described in subdivision (d), are covered subject to utilization controls. Physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech therapy, and audiology services for patients in skilled nursing facilities are covered subject to utilization controls.

(d) Purchase of prescribed drugs is covered subject to the Medi-Cal Drug Formulary and utilization controls.

(e) Outpatient dialysis services and home hemodialysis services, including physician services, medical supplies, drugs and equipment required for dialysis, are covered, subject to utilization controls.

(f) Anesthesiologist's services when provided as part of an outpatient medical procedure, nurse anesthetists services when rendered by an inpatient or outpatient setting under conditions set forth by the director, outpatient laboratory services, and X-ray services are covered to the extent prescribed.

(g) Blood and blood derivatives are covered.

(h) Emergency and essential diagnostic and restorative dental services, except for orthodontic, fixed bridgework, and partial dentures that are not necessary for balance of a complete artificial denture, are covered, subject to utilization controls. The utilization controls shall allow emergency and essential diagnostic and restorative dental services and prostheses that are necessary to prevent a significant disability or to replace previously furnished prostheses which are lost or destroyed due to circumstances beyond the beneficiary's control. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the director may by regulation provide for certain fixed artificial dentures necessary for obtaining employment or for medical conditions which preclude the use of removable dental prostheses, and for orthodontic services in cleft palate deformities administered by the department's crippled children services program.

(i) Medical transportation is covered, subject to utilization controls.

(j) Home health care services are covered, subject to utilization controls.

(k) Prosthetic and orthotic devices and eyeglasses are covered, subject to utilization controls. Utilization controls shall allow replacement of prosthetic and orthotic devices and eyeglasses necessary because of loss or destruction due to circumstances beyond the beneficiary's control. Frame styles for eyeglasses replaced pursuant to this subdivision shall not change more than once every two years, unless the department so directs.

(l) Hearing aids are covered, subject to utilization controls. Utilization controls shall allow replacement of hearing aids necessary because of loss or destruction due to circumstances beyond the beneficiary's control.

(m) Durable medical equipment and medical supplies are covered, subject to utilization controls. The utilization controls shall allow the replacement of durable medical equipment and medical supplies when necessary because of loss or destruction due to circumstances beyond the beneficiary's control.

(n) Intermediate care facility services, including physician services, and prescribed drugs as described in subdivision (d) are covered, subject to utilization controls. Physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech therapy and audiology services for patients in intermediate care facilities are covered subject to utilization controls.

(o) Family planning services are covered, subject to utilization controls.

(p) Inpatient intensive rehabilitation hospital services in a general acute care hospital are covered, subject to utilization controls, when the following criteria are met:

(1) A patient with a permanent disability or severe impairment requires an inpatient intensive rehabilitation hospital program as described in Section 14064 to develop function beyond the limited amount that would occur in the normal course of recovery; or

(2) A patient with a chronic or progressive disease requires an inpatient intensive rehabilitation hospital program as described in Section 14064 to maintain the patient's present functional level as long as possible.

(q) Adult day health care is covered in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 8.7 (commencing with Section 14520) of this part.

SEC. 1.1. Section 14132 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14132. The following is the schedule of benefits under this chapter:

(a) Outpatient services are covered as follows:

Physician, hospital or clinic outpatient, surgical center, optometric, chiropractic, psychology, podiatric, occupational therapy, physical therapy, speech therapy, audiology, acupuncture to the extent that federal matching funds are provided for acupuncture, and services of persons rendering treatment by prayer or healing by spiritual means in the practice of any church or religious denomination insofar as these can be encompassed by federal participation under an approved plan, subject to utilization controls.

(b) Inpatient hospital services, including, but not limited to, physician and podiatric services, physical therapy and occupational therapy, are covered subject to utilization controls.

(c) Skilled nursing facility services, including podiatry and physician services, and prescribed drugs, as described in subdivision (d), are covered subject to utilization controls. Physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech therapy, and audiology services for patients in skilled nursing facilities are covered subject to utilization controls.

(d) Purchase of prescribed drugs is covered subject to the Medi-Cal Drug Formulary and utilization controls.

Frame styles for eyeglasses replaced pursuant to this subdivision shall not change more than once every two years, unless the department so directs.

Orthopedic and conventional shoes are covered when provided by a prosthetic and orthotic supplier on the prescription of a physician and when at least one of the shoes will be attached to a prosthesis or brace, subject to utilization controls. Modification of stock conventional or orthopedic shoes when medically indicated, is covered subject to utilization controls. When there is a clearly established medical need that cannot be satisfied by the modification of stock conventional or orthopedic shoes, custom-made orthopedic shoes are covered, subject to utilization controls.

(l) Hearing aids are covered, subject to utilization controls. Utilization controls shall allow replacement of hearing aids necessary because of loss or destruction due to circumstances beyond the beneficiary's control.

(m) Durable medical equipment and medical supplies are covered, subject to utilization controls. The utilization controls shall allow the replacement of durable medical equipment and medical supplies when necessary because of loss or destruction due to circumstances beyond the beneficiary's control.

(n) Intermediate care facility services, including physician services, and prescribed drugs as described in subdivision (d) are covered, subject to utilization controls. Physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech therapy and audiology services for patients in intermediate care facilities are covered subject to utilization controls.

(o) Family planning services are covered, subject to utilization controls.

(p) Inpatient intensive rehabilitation hospital services in a general acute care hospital are covered, subject to utilization controls, when the following criteria are met:

(1) A patient with a permanent disability or severe impairment requires an inpatient intensive rehabilitation hospital program as described in Section 14064 to develop function beyond the limited amount that would occur in the normal course of recovery; or

(2) A patient with a chronic or progressive disease requires an inpatient intensive rehabilitation hospital program as described in Section 14064 to maintain the patient's present functional level as long as possible.

(q) Adult day health care is covered in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 8.7 (commencing with Section 14520) of this part.

SEC. 1.5. Section 14132 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14132. The following is the schedule of benefits under this chapter:

(a) Outpatient services are covered as follows:

Physician, hospital or clinic outpatient, surgical center, optometric, chiropractic, psychology, podiatric, occupational therapy, physical therapy, speech therapy, audiology, acupuncture to the extent that federal matching funds are provided for acupuncture, and services of persons rendering treatment by prayer or healing by spiritual means in the practice of any church or religious denomination insofar as these can be encompassed by federal participation under an approved plan, subject to utilization controls.

(b) Inpatient hospital services, including, but not limited to, physician and podiatric services, physical therapy and occupational therapy, are covered subject to utilization controls.

(c) Skilled nursing facility services, including podiatry and physician services, and prescribed drugs, as described in subdivision (d), are covered subject to utilization controls. Physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech therapy, and audiology services for patients in skilled nursing facilities are covered subject to utilization controls.

(d) Purchase of prescribed drugs is covered subject to the Medi-Cal Drug Formulary and utilization controls.

(n) Intermediate care facility services, including physician services, and prescribed drugs as described in subdivision (d) are covered, subject to utilization controls. Physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech therapy and audiology services for patients in intermediate care facilities are covered subject to utilization controls.

(o) Family planning services are covered, subject to utilization controls.

(p) Inpatient intensive rehabilitation hospital services in a general acute care hospital are covered, subject to utilization controls, when the following criteria are met:

(1) A patient with a permanent disability or severe impairment requires an inpatient intensive rehabilitation hospital program as described in Section 14064 to develop function beyond the limited amount that would occur in the normal course of recovery; or

(2) A patient with a chronic or progressive disease requires an inpatient intensive rehabilitation hospital program as described in Section 14064 to maintain the patient's present functional level as long as possible.

(q) Adult day health care is covered in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 8.7 (commencing with Section 14520) of this part.

(r) Application of fluoride, or other appropriate fluoride treatment as defined by the department, and other prophylaxis treatment for children 17 years of age and under are covered.

SEC. 2. Section 14133.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14133.1. The director shall determine which of the utilization controls in Section 14133 shall be applied to any specific service or group of services which are subject to utilization controls. Each utilization control shall be reasonably related to the purpose for which it is imposed.

Except as provided in Section 14103.6, neither prior authorization nor the limitation specified in subdivision (d) of Section 14133 shall be required for the first two services per month which are included among the services listed in subdivision (a) of Section 14132, or for the first two drug prescriptions purchased during any one month, provided that the prescription drugs are included in the Medi-Cal Drug Formulary and the prescription otherwise conforms to applicable formulary requirements.

SEC. 3. There is hereby appropriated from the General Fund in the State Treasury the sum of one million eight hundred thousand dollars ($1,800,000) to the State Department of Health Services for transfer to the Health Care Deposit Fund to pay for the increased costs of implementing Sections 14132 and 14133.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as amended by this act.

Such funds shall be apportioned according to the following schedule:

(a) For the 1978–1979 fiscal year	$600,000
(b) For the 1979–1980 fiscal year	$1,200,000

Funds appropriated for purposes of this act but not expended shall be carried over to the next fiscal year. If funds appropriated for the purposes of this act are fully expended prior to the end of a fiscal year, any application for replacement because of loss or destruction due to circumstances beyond a Medi-Cal beneficiary's control shall be granted only when additional funds are appropriated.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Because of the application of regulations adopted by the State Department of Health Services, Medi-Cal patients whose eyeglass frames, dentures, or hearing aids are destroyed or lost due to circumstances beyond their control are currently finding it extremely difficult or impossible to replace these basic devices. In order to supersede these regulations and make such devices replaceable under Medi-Cal under such circumstances, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

SEC. 5. It is the intent of the Legislature that if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 2424, Assembly Bill No. 2960, Assembly Bill No. 2961 are chaptered and amend Section 14132 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and this bill is chaptered last, that amendments proposed by each of the bills which are chaptered be given effect as follows:

(a) If this bill and Assembly Bill No. 2424 are both chaptered and amend Section 14132 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, but Assembly Bill No. 2960 and Assembly Bill No. 2961 are not chaptered or as chaptered do not amend that section, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2424, that Section 14132 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as amended by Section 1 of this act shall remain operative only until the operative date of Assembly Bill No. 2424, and that on the operative date of Assembly Bill No. 2424, the amendments proposed by both bills shall be given effect and incorporated in Section 14132 in the form set forth in Section 1.1 of this act. Therefore, if Assembly Bill No. 2424 is chaptered before this bill and both bills amend Section 14132, and Assembly Bill No. 2960 and Assembly Bill No. 2961 are not chaptered or as chaptered do not amend that section, Section 1.1 of this act shall be operative on the operative date of Assembly Bill No. 2424 and Sections 1, 1.2, 1.3, 1.4, 1.5, 1.6, and 1.7 of this act shall not become operative.

(b) If this bill and Assembly Bill No. 2960 are both chaptered and amend Section 14132 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, but Assembly Bill No. 2424 and Assembly Bill No. 2961 are not chaptered or as chaptered do not amend that section, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2960, that Section 14132 of the Welfare and Institutions Code as amended by Section 1 of this act shall remain operative only until the operative date of Assembly Bill No. 2960 and that on the operative date of Assembly Bill No. 2960 the amendments proposed by both bills shall be given effect and incorporated in Section 14132 in the form set forth in Section 1.2 of this act. Therefore, if Assembly Bill No. 2960 is chaptered before this bill and both bills amend Section 14132, and Assembly Bill No. 2424 and Assembly Bill No. 2961 are not chaptered or as chaptered do not amend that section, Section 1.2 shall be operative on the operative date of Assembly Bill No. 2960 and Sections 1, 1.1, 1.3, 1.4, 1.5, 1.6, and 1.7 of this act shall not become operative.

(c) If this bill and Assembly Bill No. 2961 are both chaptered and amend Section 14132 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, but Assembly Bill No 2424 and Assembly Bill No. 2960 are not chaptered or as chaptered do not amend that section, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2961, that Section 14132 of the Welfare and Institutions Code as amended by Section 1 of this act shall remain operative only until the operative date of Assembly Bill No. 2961 and that on the operative date of Assembly Bill No. 2961 the amendments proposed by both bills shall be given effect and incorporated in Section 14132 in the form set forth in Section 1.3 of this act. Therefore, if Assembly Bill No. 2961 is chaptered before this bill and both bills amend Section 14132, and Assembly Bill No. 2424 and Assembly Bill No. 2960 are not chaptered or as chaptered do not amend that section, Section 1.3 of this act shall be operative on the operative date of Assembly Bill No. 2961 and Sections 1, 1.1, 1.2, 1.4, 1.5, 1.6, and 1.7 of this act shall not become operative.

(d) If this bill, Assembly Bill No. 2424, and Assembly Bill No. 2960 are chaptered and all three amend Section 14132 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, but Assembly Bill No. 2961 is not chaptered or as chaptered does not amend that section, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2424 and Assembly Bill No. 2960, that Section 14132 of the Welfare and Institutions Code as amended by Section 1 of this act shall remain operative only until the operative date of Assembly Bill No. 2424 and Assembly Bill No. 2960 and that on the operative date of Assembly Bill No. 2424 and Assembly Bill No. 2960 the amendments proposed by all three bills shall be given effect and incorporated in Section 14132 in the form set forth in Section 1.4 of this act. Therefore, if Assembly Bill No. 2424 and Assembly Bill No. 2960 are chaptered before this bill and all three bills amend Section 14132, and Assembly Bill No. 2961 is not chaptered or as chaptered does not amend that section, Section 1.4 of this act shall be operative on the operative date of Assembly Bill No. 2424 and Assembly Bill No. 2960 and Sections 1, 1.1, 1.2, 1.3, 1.5, 1.6, and 1.7 of this act shall not become operative.

(e) If this bill, Assembly Bill No. 2424, and Assembly Bill No. 2961 are chaptered and all three amend Section 14132 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, but Assembly Bill No. 2960 is not chaptered or as chaptered does not amend that section, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2424 and Assembly Bill No. 2961, that Section 14132 of the Welfare and Institutions Code as amended by Section 1 of this act shall remain operative only until the operative date of Assembly Bill No. 2424 and Assembly Bill No. 2961 and that on the operative date of Assembly Bill No. 2424 and Assembly Bill No. 2961 the amendments proposed by all three bills shall be given effect and incorporated in Section 14132 in the form set forth in Section 1.5 of this act. Therefore, if Assembly Bill No. 2424 and Assembly Bill No. 2961 are chaptered before this bill and all three bills amend Section 14132, and Assembly Bill No. 2960 is not chaptered or as chaptered does not amend that section, Section 1.5 of this act shall be operative on the operative date of Assembly Bill No. 2424 and Assembly Bill No. 2961 and Sections 1, 1.1, 1.2, 1.3, 1.4, 1.6, and 1.7 of this act shall not become operative.

(f) If this bill, Assembly Bill No. 2960, and Assembly Bill No. 2961 are chaptered and all three amend Section 14132 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, but Assembly Bill No. 2424 is not chaptered or as chaptered does not amend that section, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2960 and Assembly Bill No. 2961, that Section 14132 of the Welfare and Institutions Code as amended by Section 1 of this act shall remain operative only until the operative date of Assembly Bill No. 2960 and Assembly Bill No. 2961 and that on the operative date of Assembly Bill No. 2960 and Assembly Bill No. 2961 the amendments proposed by all three bills shall be given effect and incorporated in Section 14132 in the form set forth in Section 1.6 of this act. Therefore, if Assembly Bill No. 2960 and Assembly Bill No. 2961 are chaptered before this bill and all three bills amend Section 14132, and Assembly Bill No. 2424 is not chaptered or as chaptered does not amend that section, Section 1.6 of this act shall be operative on the operative date of Assembly Bill No. 2960 and Assembly Bill No. 2961 and Sections 1, 1.1, 1.2, 1.3, 1.4, 1.5, and 1.7 of this act shall not become operative.

(g) If this bill, Assembly Bill No. 2424, Assembly Bill No. 2960, and Assembly Bill No. 2961 are all chaptered, and all four amend Section 14132 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, but this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2424, Assembly Bill No. 2960, and Assembly Bill No. 2961, that Section 14132 of the Welfare and Institutions Code as amended by Section 1 of this act shall remain operative only until the operative date of Assembly Bill No. 2424, Assembly Bill No. 2960, and Assembly Bill No. 2961 and that on the operative date of these three bills the amendments proposed by all four bills shall be given effect and incorporated in Section 14132 in the form set forth in Section 1.7 of this act. Therefore, if Assembly Bill No. 2424, Assembly Bill No. 2960 and Assembly Bill No. 2961 are chaptered before this bill and all four bills amend Section 14132 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, Section 1.7 of this act shall be operative on the operative date of Assembly Bill No. 2424, Assembly Bill No. 2960, and Assembly Bill No. 2961 and Sections 1, 1.1, 1.2, 1.3, 1.4, 1.5, and 1.6 of this act shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1038

An act to amend Sections 429.72, 429.76, 429.78, and 429.80 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to health.

[Approved by Governor September 22, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1 The Legislature finds that the health manpower project pilot program created by Chapter 1350 of the Statutes of 1972 has provided valuable experimentation with new kinds and combinations of health care delivery systems. Based on this program's history of safe and innovative approaches to health care training, the Legislature intends to extend eligibility for participation in this program to appropriate federal, state, and local government agencies.

SEC. 2. Section 429.72 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Chapter 429 of the Statutes of 1978, is amended to read:

429.72. The office may designate experimental health manpower projects as approved projects where such projects are sponsored by nonprofit educational institutions, nonprofit community hospitals or clinics, or government agencies engaged in health or education activities. Nothing in this section shall preclude approved projects from utilizing the offices of physicians, dentists, pharmacists, and other clinical settings as training sites.

SEC. 3. Section 429.76 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Chapter 429 of the Statutes of 1978, is amended to read:

429.76. The office, after one or more public hearings thereon, shall establish minimum standards, guidelines, and instructions for pilot projects. Advance notice of the hearing shall be sent to all interested parties and shall include a copy of the proposed minimum standards, guidelines, and instructions.

Organizations requesting designation as approved projects shall complete and submit to the office an application, which shall include a description of the project indicating the category of person to be trained, the tasks to be taught, the numbers of trainees and supervisors, a description of the health care agency to be used for training students, and a description of the types of patients likely to be seen or treated. Additionally, the application shall contain a description of all of the following:

(a) The evaluation process to be used.

(b) The baseline data and information to be collected.

(c) The nature of program data that will be collected and the methods for collecting and analyzing such data.

(d) Provision for protecting the safety of patients seen or treated in the project.

(e) A statement of previous experience in providing related health care services.

SEC. 4. Section 429.78 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Chapter 429 of the Statutes of 1978, is amended to read:

429.78. The office shall carry out periodic onsite visitations of each approved project and shall evaluate each project to determine the following:

(a) The new health skills taught or extent to which existing skills have been reallocated.

(b) Implication of the project for existing licensure laws with suggestions for changes in the law where appropriate.

(c) Implications of the project for health services curricula and for the health care delivery systems.

(d) Teaching methods used in the project.

(e) The quality of care and patient acceptance in the project.

(f) The extent to which persons with the new skills could find employment in the health care system, assuming laws were changed to incorporate their skill.

(g) The cost of care provided in the project, the likely cost of such care if performed by the trainees subsequent to the project, and the cost for provision of such care by current providers thereof.

The office shall report to the Legislature and appropriate licensing boards annually beginning July 1, 1974, concerning the results of each evaluation.

All data collected by the office and by projects approved pursuant to this article shall become public information, with due regard for the confidentiality of individual patient information. The raw data on which projects' reports are based and the data on which the office's evaluation is based shall be available on request for review by interested parties. The office shall provide a reasonable opportunity for interested parties to submit dissenting views or challenges to reports to the Legislature and professional licensing boards required by this section. The office shall publish those comments, subject only to nonsubstantive editing, as part of its annual, or any special, reports.

SEC. 5. Section 429.80 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Chapter 429 of the Statutes of 1978, is amended to read:

429.80. The office shall seek the advice of appropriate professional societies and appropriate healing arts licensing boards prior to designating approved projects. In the case of projects sponsored by a state agency, the following additional procedures shall apply:

(a) A hearing shall be conducted by a disinterested state government official selected by the Director of the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development from a state agency other than the office or the proponent of the project. The cost of the services of such disinterested state governmental official shall be paid by the office pursuant to an interagency agreement with the state agency represented by such state governmental official.

(b) A notice of hearing shall be sent by the office to interested parties, as designated by the director of the office, by registered mail no less than 30 days preceding the date of the hearing. The notice shall include, but not be limited to, the date, time, location, and subject matter of the hearing, and shall include a copy of the application for a pilot project which is the subject of the hearing.

(c) A verbatim transcript of the hearing shall be prepared and distributed to interested parties upon request.

(d) Within 60 days of the release of the transcript, the office shall submit a recommendation on the proposal to the director of the office and shall send copies to the interested parties.

(e) The director of the office shall accept comments on such recommendations, and, on or after 30 days after transmittal of the recommendations, the director of the office shall approve or disapprove such proposed project.

CHAPTER 1039

An act to amend Section 6316.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to mentally disordered sex offenders, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 22, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6316.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

6316.2. (a) A person may be committed beyond the term prescribed by Section 6316.1 only under the procedure set forth in this section and only if such person meets all of the following:

(1) The "sex offense" as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 6302 of which the person has been convicted is a felony, whether committed before or after July 1, 1977, or is a misdemeanor which was committed before July 1, 1977.

(2) Suffers from a mental disease, defect, or disorder, and as a result of such mental disease, defect, or disorder, is predisposed to the commission of sexual offenses to such a degree that he presents a serious threat of substantial harm to the health and safety of others.

(b) If during a commitment under this part, the Director of Mental Health has good cause to believe that a patient is a person described in subdivision (a), the director may submit such supporting evaluations and case file to the prosecuting attorney who may file a petition for extended commitment in the superior court which issued the original commitment. Such petition shall be filed no later than 90 days before the expiration of the original commitment. Such petition shall state the reasons for the extended commitment, with accompanying affidavits specifying the factual basis for believing that the person meets each of the requirements set forth in subdivision (a).

(c) At the time of filing a petition, the court shall advise the patient named in the petition of his right to be represented by an attorney and of his right to a jury trial. The rules of discovery in criminal cases shall apply.

(d) The court shall conduct a hearing on the petition for extended commitment. The trial shall be by jury unless waived by both the patient and the prosecuting attorney. The trial shall commence no later than 30 days prior to the time the patient would otherwise have been released by the State Department of Mental Health.

(e) The patient shall be entitled to the rights guaranteed under the Federal and State Constitutions for criminal proceedings. All proceedings shall be in accordance with applicable constitutional guarantees. Pursuant to Sections 4700, 4700.1, and 4700.2 of the Penal Code, the state shall bear all expenses of transportation, care and custody of the patient and all trial and related costs, and shall be represented by the Attorney General or the district attorney with the consent of the Attorney General. If the patient is indigent, the State Public Defender shall be appointed. The State Public Defender may provide for representation of the patient in any manner authorized by Section 15402 of the Government Code. Appointment of necessary psychologists or psychiatrists shall be made in accordance with this article and Penal Code and Evidence Code provisions applicable to criminal defendants who have entered pleas of not guilty by reason of insanity or asserted diminished capacity defenses.

(f) If the court or jury finds that the patient is a person described in subdivision (a), the court may order the patient committed to the State Department of Mental Health in a treatment facility. A commitment or a recommitment under Section 6316.1 shall be for a period of one year from the date of termination of the previous commitment.

(g) A person committed under this section to the State Department of Mental Health shall be eligible for outpatient release as provided in this article.

(h) Prior to termination of a commitment under this section, a petition for recommitment may be filed to determine whether the person remains a person described in subdivision (a). Such recommitment proceeding shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of this article.

(i) Any commitment to the State Department of Mental Health under this article places an affirmative obligation on the department to provide treatment for the underlying causes of the person's mental disorder.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1980, and on such date is repealed. The provisions of this section shall remain in effect for the remainder of the term of commitment for any person committed under this section prior to January 1, 1980.

SEC. 2. Section 6316.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

6316.2. (a) A person may be committed beyond the term prescribed by Section 6316.1 only under the procedure set forth in this section and only if such person meets all of the following:

(1) The "sex offense" as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 6302 of which the person has been convicted is a felony, whether committed before or after July 1, 1977, or is a misdemeanor which was committed before July 1, 1977.

(2) Suffers from a mental disease, defect, or disorder, and as a result of such mental disease, defect, or disorder, is predisposed to the commission of sexual offenses to such a degree that he presents a serious threat of substantial harm to the health and safety of others.

(b) If during a commitment under this part, the Director of Mental Health has good cause to believe that a patient is a person described in subdivision (a), the director may submit such supporting evaluations and case file to the prosecuting attorney who may file a petition for extended commitment in the superior court which issued the original commitment. Such petition shall be filed no later than 90 days before the expiration of the original commitment. Such petition shall state the reasons for the extended commitment, with accompanying affidavits specifying the factual basis for believing that the person meets each of the requirements set forth in subdivision (a).

(c) At the time of filing a petition, the court shall advise the patient named in the petition of his right to be represented by an attorney and of his right to a jury trial. The rules of discovery in criminal cases shall apply.

(d) The court shall conduct a hearing on the petition for extended commitment. The trial shall be by jury unless waived by both the patient and the prosecuting attorney. The trial shall commence no later than 30 days prior to the time the patient would otherwise have been released by the State Department of Mental Health.

(e) The patient shall be entitled to the rights guaranteed under the Federal and State Constitutions for criminal proceedings. All proceedings shall be in accordance with applicable constitutional guarantees. The State Controller shall reimburse the counties for all expenses of transportation, care and custody of the patient and all trial and related costs. The state shall be represented by the Attorney General or the district attorney with the consent of the Attorney General. If the patient is indigent, the State Public Defender shall be appointed. The State Public Defender may provide for representation of the patient in any manner authorized by Section 15402 of the Government Code. Appointment of necessary psychologists or psychiatrists shall be made in accordance with this article and Penal Code and Evidence Code provisions applicable to criminal defendants who have entered pleas of not guilty by reason of insanity or asserted diminished capacity defenses.

(f) If the court or jury finds that the patient is a person described in subdivision (a), the court may order the patient committed to the State Department of Mental Health in a treatment facility. A commitment or a recommitment under Section 6316.1 shall be for a period of one year from the date of termination of the previous commitment.

(g) A person committed under this section to the State Department of Mental Health shall be eligible for outpatient release as provided in this article.

(h) Prior to termination of a commitment under this section, a petition for recommitment may be filed to determine whether the person remains a person described in subdivision (a). Such recommitment proceeding shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of this article.

(i) Any commitment to the State Department of Mental Health under this article places an affirmative obligation on the department to provide treatment for the underlying causes of the person's mental disorder.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1980, and on such date is repealed. The provisions of this section shall remain in effect for the remainder of the term of commitment for any person committed under this section prior to January 1, 1980.

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Senate Bill No. 2136 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 6316.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 2136, that Section 6316.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as amended by Section 1 of Senate Bill No. 2136, be further amended on the effective date of this act in the form set forth in Section 2 of this act to incorporate the changes in Section 6316.2 proposed by this bill. Therefore, if this bill and Senate Bill No. 2136 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1979, and Senate Bill No. 2136 is chaptered before this bill and amends Section 6316.2, Section 2 of this act shall become operative on the effective date of this act and Section 1 of this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 4. There is hereby appropriated the sum of thirty-one thousand dollars ($31,000) from the General Fund to the State Department of Mental Health for the purpose of carrying out this act.

CHAPTER 1040

An act to amend and repeal Sections 283.4, 284.2, and 284.4 of the Health and Safety Code, and to repeal Section 2 of Chapter 1217 of the Statutes of 1975, relating to health, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 22, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 283.4 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

283.4. The State Department of Health Services may establish one or more pilot programs, not to exceed four years in duration, to provide personal health care services in the perinatal period to high-risk pregnant women.

SEC. 2. Section 284.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

284.2. The state department shall submit interim reports of its findings derived from the pilot programs to the Legislature and to the Secretary of the Health and Welfare Agency on or before June 30 of 1977, 1979, and 1980; and shall submit a final report on or before

June 30, 1981. The reports shall consider the effectiveness of the pilot programs in reducing the incidence and severity of defects or handicaps of children born to high-risk pregnant women and in reducing the infant and mother morbidity rate for such women and their infants, and shall consider the related economic impact of each such pilot program.

SEC. 3. Section 284.4 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

284.4. This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1982, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1982, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 4. Section 2 of Chapter 1217 of the Statutes of 1975 is repealed.

SEC. 5. From the amount appropriated by Section 2 of Chapter 1217 of the Statutes of 1975, as amended, and scheduled in subdivisions (a) and (d) thereof, there is hereby reappropriated to the State Department of Health Services the sum of two million dollars ($2,000,000), or such lesser amount of the moneys made available under subdivisions (a) and (d) as remains unencumbered on the effective date of this act, for expenditure during the 1978–79, 1979–80, and 1980–81 fiscal years without limitation as to the proportion of this reappropriation expended during any of those fiscal years for the purposes of Article 2.4 (commencing with Section 283) of Chapter 2 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to ensure that all available funds previously appropriated by Chapter 1217 of the Statutes of 1975 and reappropriated by Chapter 975 of the Statutes of 1976 may be expended when needed for necessary health services for high-risk pregnant women, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1041

An act to amend Section 2 of Chapter 36 of the Statutes of 1978, relating to the Indochinese Refugee Self-Support Project, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 22, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2 of Chapter 36 of the Statutes of 1978 is amended to read:

Sec. 2. The sum of three hundred thirty-seven thousand five hundred dollars ($337,500) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Department of Social Services for expenditure to enable that department to provide reimbursement for services under its Indochinese Refugee Self-Support Project for the period of January 1, 1978, through June 30, 1978. At the discretion of the department, these funds may be used as matching funds for unallocated Title XX Social Services Funds. The Director of Social Services, with the approval of the Director of Finance, shall provide the State Controller with a basic plan for the filing of claims and for the allocation of state and federal funds appropriated for the project. The plan shall establish necessary procedures and controls which permit advanced payments of such funds on a quarterly basis. Authority to make advanced payments shall be subject to the approval of the appropriate federal agency overseeing the project. The plan shall be utilized until the termination of the federal Indochina Migration and Refugee Assistance Act of 1975 on September 30, 1981 (Public Laws 95-145 and 95-240). All General Fund money appropriated hereby, any Title XX money matched hereby, and all money advanced by the Director of Finance pursuant to Section 28 of the Budget Act of 1977 shall be repaid to their respective sources when federal appropriations under P.L. 95-145 are made available to the State Department of Social Services to finance the Indochinese Refugee Self-Support Project.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are as follows:

In order to provide employment opportunities to those persons in greatest need and thereby reduce unemployment in this state at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1042

An act to add Section 208.7 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to the State Department of Health Services.

[Approved by Governor September 22, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 208.7 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

208.7. When a dispute arises as to the interpretation or enforcement of the legally adopted rules and regulations of the state department which are being enforced by a city, city and county, county, or district, a request for clarification or interpretation may be submitted to the state department. The state department shall make a determination of the proper interpretation and required enforcement thereof when so requested by a party to the dispute.

In making its determination the state department may conduct a hearing at which time all interested parties may present comments or arguments relative to the dispute.

Determinations of the state department made pursuant to this section shall be transmitted to the concerned local agency and the involved party or parties within 60 days after the receipt of the request. The determination of the state department shall be binding upon the local agency and the parties subject to the rules and regulations of the state department, except insofar as the matter may be subject to judicial review.

CHAPTER 1043

An act to amend Section 339 of the Streets and Highways Code, relating to state highways.

[Approved by Governor September 22, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 339 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

339. Route 39 is from:

(a) Route 1 near Huntington Beach to Route 72 in La Habra via Beach Boulevard.

(b) Beach Boulevard to Harbor Boulevard in La Habra via Route 72.

(c) Route 72 in La Habra to Route 2 via Harbor Boulevard to the vicinity of Fullerton Road, then to Azusa Avenue, Azusa Avenue to San Gabriel Canyon Road, San Gabriel Avenue southbound between Azusa Avenue and San Gabriel Canyon Road, and San Gabriel Canyon Road.

The department shall not assume maintenance of any portion of Route 39 until such portion has been constructed or reconstructed to the minimum state highway standards established pursuant to Sections 81 and 2109.

CHAPTER 1044

An act to amend Section 11475 of, and to repeal Section 10602.5 of, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to child support.

[Approved by Governor September 22, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10602.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 11475 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11475. (a) The department is hereby designated the single organizational unit whose duty it shall be to administer the state plan for securing child support and determining paternity. State plan functions shall be performed by other agencies as required by law, by delegation of the department, or by cooperative agreements. The director shall, not later than February 1, 1976, and annually thereafter, report to the Legislature on the administration of the state plan for securing support and determining paternity. Such report shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) Information on the administration of the program, including the number of cases and a summary of the amounts collected from noncustodial parents and an analysis of the disbursement of such funds to recipients, counties, and the state.

(2) An analysis of the cost effectiveness of the program.

(3) Any changes in federal statutes or regulations which have occurred on or after July 1, 1975.

The report shall be made available to the public.

(b) The director shall formulate, adopt, amend or repeal, in accordance with provisions of Section 10554, regulations and general policies affecting the purposes, responsibilities, and jurisdiction of the department and which are consistent with law and necessary for the administration of the state plan for securing child support and determining paternity. The department, with the cooperation of the Department of Justice, shall insure that there is an adequate organizational structure and sufficient staff to perform functions delegated to any governmental unit relating to Title IV-D of the Social Security Act.

CHAPTER 1045

An act to amend Section 7017 of the Civil Code, relating to parent and child.

[Approved by Governor September 22, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7017 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

7017. (a) (1) If a mother relinquishes or consents to or proposes to relinquish for adoption a child who has (1) a presumed father under subdivision (a) of Section 7004 or (2) a father as to whom the child is a legitimate child under prior law of this state or under the law of another jurisdiction, the father shall be given notice of the adoption proceeding and have the rights provided under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 221), Title 2, Part 3, Division 1 of the Civil Code, unless the father's relationship to the child has been previously terminated or determined by a court not to exist or the father has voluntarily relinquished or consented to the adoption of such child.

(2) If a father relinquishes or consents to or proposes to relinquish a child for adoption, the mother shall be given notice of the adoption proceeding and have the rights provided under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 221), Title 2, Part 3, Division 1 of the Civil Code, unless the mother's relationship to the child has been previously terminated by a court or the mother has voluntarily relinquished or consented to the adoption of such child.

(b) If a mother relinquishes for, consents to, or proposes to relinquish for or consent to the adoption of a child who does not have (1) a presumed father under subdivision (a) of Section 7004 or (2) a father as to whom the child is a legitimate child under prior law of this state or under the law of another jurisdiction, or if a child otherwise becomes the subject of an adoption proceeding and the alleged father, if any, has not, in writing, denied paternity, waived his right to notice, voluntarily relinquished or consented to the adoption, the agency or person to whom the child has been or is to be relinquished, or the mother or the person having custody of the child, shall file a petition in the superior court to terminate the parental rights of the father, unless the father's relationship to the child has been previously terminated or determined not to exist by a court.

(c) In an effort to identify the natural father, the court shall cause inquiry to be made of the mother and any other appropriate person by the State Department of Social Services, a licensed county adoption agency, or the licensed adoption agency to which the child is to be relinquished, or in the case of a stepparent adoption, at the option of the board of supervisors, a licensed county adoption agency, the county department designated by the board of supervisors to administer the public social services program, or the county probation department. The inquiry shall include the following: whether the mother was married at the time of conception of the child or at any time thereafter; whether the mother was cohabiting with a man at the time of conception or birth of the child; whether the mother has received support payments or promises of support with respect to the child or in connection with her pregnancy; or whether any man has formally or informally acknowledged or declared his possible paternity of the child. The department or the licensed adoption agency shall report the findings to the court.

(d) If, after the inquiry, the natural father is identified to the satisfaction of the court, or if more than one man is identified as a possible father, each shall be given notice of the proceeding in accordance with subdivision (f). If any of them fails to appear or, if appearing, fails to claim custodial rights, his parental rights with reference to the child shall be terminated. If the natural father or a man representing himself to be the natural father, claims custodial rights, the court shall proceed to determine parentage and custodial rights in whatever order the court deems proper. If the court finds that the man representing himself to be the natural father is a presumed father under subdivision (a) of Section 7004, then the court shall issue an order providing that the father's consent shall be required for an adoption of the child. In all other cases, the court shall issue an order providing that only the mother's consent shall be required for the adoption of the child.

(e) If, after the inquiry, the court is unable to identify the natural father or any possible natural father and no person has appeared claiming to be the natural father and claiming custodial rights, the court shall enter an order terminating the unknown natural father's parental rights with reference to the child.

(f) Notice of the proceeding shall be given to every person identified as the natural father or a possible natural father in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure for the service of process in a civil action in this state, provided that publication or posting of the notice of the proceeding shall not be required. Proof of giving the notice shall be filed with the court before the petition is heard. However, if a person identified as the natural father or possible natural father cannot be located or his whereabouts are unknown or cannot be ascertained, the court may issue an order dispensing with notice to such person.

(g) Any order requiring or dispensing with a father's consent for the adoption of a child may be appealed from in the same manner as an order of the juvenile court declaring a person to be a ward of the juvenile court.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be any appropriation made by this act because duties, obligations, or responsibilities imposed on local governmental entities or school districts by this act are such that related costs are incurred as a part of their normal operating procedures.

CHAPTER 1046

An act relating to domestic water supply systems, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 22, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A grant not to exceed the amount of four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000) is hereby authorized from the California Safe Drinking Water Fund pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 13861 of the Water Code to the City of Delano for the purpose of improving its domestic water supply system to meet, at a minimum, safe drinking water standards. The Department of Water Resources shall determine eligibility for such grant in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 10.6 (commencing with Section 13880) of Division 7 of the Water Code and may make a grant in accordance with such provisions.

SEC. 2. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that in order to meet the minimum safe drinking water standards there is a critical need within the City of Delano to immediately develop a secondary water supply in order to enable the residents of the community to have a dependable and potable water supply.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to authorize a grant from a California Safe Drinking Water Fund to the City of Delano to resolve the critical water supply problem of such city at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1047

An act to amend Sections 17.1, 23, 27, 27.1, 29, 31.5, 38, and 38.1 of, and to repeal Section 29.2 of, the Orange County Water District Act (Chapter 924 of the Statutes of 1933), relating to the Orange County Water District.

[Approved by Governor September 22, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17.1 of the Orange County Water District Act (Chapter 924 of the Statutes of 1933) is amended to read:

Sec. 17.1. "General reserve" means funds allocated from the general fund used to meet cash requirements before the proceeds from taxes are available and to meet emergency expenditures. The amount of said general reserve shall not at any time exceed the sum of one million dollars ($1,000,000).

"Appropriation for contingencies" means funds allocated from the general fund to cover expenditures that have not been provided for or that have been insufficiently provided for or for unappropriated requirements. Said appropriation for contingencies shall not at any time exceed the sum of three million dollars ($3,000,000).

SEC. 2. Section 23 of the Orange County Water District Act (Chapter 924 of the Statutes of 1933) is amended to read:

Sec. 23. Replenishment assessments levied pursuant to this act are declared to be in furtherance of district activities in the protection of the water supplies for users within the district which are necessary for the public health, welfare and safety of the people of this state. The replenishment assessments are authorized to be levied upon the production of ground water from all water-producing facilities, whether public or private, within said district for the benefit of all who rely directly or indirectly upon the ground water supplies of such district

The proceeds of the replenishment assessment levied, assessed and collected upon the production of water from the ground water supplies within said district shall be used to acquire water and to pay the costs of initiating, carrying on, and completing any of the powers, projects, and purposes for which this district is organized.

SEC. 3. Section 27 of the Orange County Water District Act (Chapter 924 of the Statutes of 1933) is amended to read:

Sec. 27. If the board of directors finds and determines that an overdraft, either annual or accumulated, does exist, then said board may levy and assess a charge or replenishment assessment against all persons operating water-producing facilities and producing water during the ensuing water year, which assessment or charge shall be computed and fixed at a uniform rate per acre-foot of such water production.

The total of the replenishment assessment levied in any year shall not exceed an amount of money found to be necessary to purchase sufficient water to replenish the average annual overdraft for the immediate past five water years plus an additional amount of water sufficient to eliminate over a period of not less than 10 years nor more than 20 years, the accumulated overdraft, plus an amount of money to pay the costs of initiating, carrying on, and completing any of the powers, projects, and purposes for which this district is organized.

On the date of the regular meeting of the board of directors in April of each year the board of directors shall hold a public hearing for the purpose of determining the need and desirability of levying a replenishment assessment and fixing the rate thereof. In computing and fixing the replenishment assessment rate, there shall be allowed such percent, not to exceed 10 percent, as shall be determined by the board of directors of the district for delinquencies. Notice of such hearing shall be published in the district pursuant to Section 6061 of the Government Code, at least 10 days prior to the date set for said hearing.

Any replenishment assessment levied by this section shall be in addition to any general assessment levied by said district.

Clerical errors occurring or appearing in the name of any person or in the description of the water-producing facility where the production of water therefrom is otherwise properly assessed, or in the making or extension of any assessment upon the records, which do not affect the substantial rights of the assessee or assessees, shall not invalidate the assessment.

SEC. 4. Section 27.1 of the Orange County Water District Act (Chapter 924 of the Statutes of 1933) is amended to read:

Sec. 27.1. At the time of the hearing specified in Section 27 of said act the board of directors may also hold a hearing for the purpose of determining the need and advisability of levying an additional replenishment assessment against all persons operating water-producing facilities for all purposes other than irrigation at a uniform rate per acre-foot for water produced during the ensuing year. Any such replenishment assessment levied and assessed under this section shall be in addition to the replenishment assessment authorized by said Section 27 and may be levied and assessed in such amounts necessary for the purposes set forth in Section 23 of this act, without regard to the limitations provided by said Section 27 Before levying said additional replenishment assessment, the board must find and determine by a vote of eight members that said additional replenishment assessment is necessary for the protection of the water supply purposes of the district and that the amount thereof is reasonable. In computing and fixing the additional replenishment assessment rate, there shall be allowed such percent, not to exceed 10 percent, as shall be determined by the board of directors of the district for delinquencies.

"Irrigation," as used in this act, means the act of first using water to place it on lands by any means for the commercial production of agricultural, horticultural, or floricultural crops and for pasture grown for commercial purposes.

SEC. 5. Section 29 of the Orange County Water District Act (Chapter 924 of the Statutes of 1933) is amended to read:

Sec. 29. Each operator of a water-producing facility within said district, until such time as said water-producing facility has been permanently abandoned, shall file with said district, on or before the thirty-first day of January and on or before the thirty-first day of July of each year, a statement setting forth the total production in acre-feet of water for the preceding six months period (excluding the month in which the statement is due), a general description or number locating each water-producing facility and the method or basis of the computation of such water production. If no water has been produced from said water-producing facility during the preceding six months period, said statement shall be filed as provided for herein setting forth that no water has been produced during said period. Said statement shall be verified by a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of perjury. The replenishment assessment and the additional replenishment assessment are payable to said district on or before the last date on which the water production statements shall be filed and are computed by multiplying the production in acre-feet of water as disclosed in the statement, by the replenishment assessment rate and the additional replenishment assessment rate. At such time as any said water-producing facility has been permanently abandoned, the operator thereof shall give written notice of such abandonment to said district.

If any operator of a water-producing facility shall fail to pay the replenishment assessements when due, said district shall charge interest at a rate of 1 percent each month on the delinquent amount of the replenishment assessments.

Should any operator of a water-producing facility fail to register each water-producing facility or fail to file on or before the thirty-first day of January and the thirty-first day of July of each year the water production statement, said district shall in addition to charging interest as provided herein assess a penalty charge against such operator in an amount of 10 percent of the amount found by said district to be due.

The board of directors may, at the time of fixing the replenishment assessment rate and additional replenishment assessment rate, provide by resolution that the operator of any water-producing facilities having a discharge opening not greater than two inches in diameter and which do not provide domestic or irrigation water for an area in excess of one acre may pay a fixed amount as his replenishment assessment and additional replenishment assessment, in lieu of filing a sworn statement as to the production of ground water.

SEC. 6. Section 29.2 of the Orange County Water District Act (Chapter 924 of the Statutes of 1933) is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 31.5 of the Orange County Water District Act (Chapter 924 of the Statutes of 1933) is amended to read:

Sec. 31.5. Basin equity assessments, as well as production requirements and limitations on persons and operators within the district are declared to be in furtherance of district activities in the protection of water supplies for users within the district which are necessary for the public health, welfare and safety of the people of this state. The basin equity assessments, as well as the production requirements and limitations provided for herein, are authorized to be levied upon and applied to all persons and producers within such district for the benefit of all who rely directly or indirectly upon the ground water supplies of such district.

The proceeds of the basin equity assessments levied and collected shall be used as provided for herein to equalize the cost of water to all persons and operators within the district, and to acquire water to replenish the ground water supplies of the district.

"Supplemental sources" as used in this act means sources of water outside the watershed of the Santa Ana River such as but not limited to water produced from the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California.

"Basin production percentage" as used in this act means the ratio that all water to be produced from ground water supplies within the district bears to all water to be produced by persons and operators within the district from supplemental sources as well as from ground water within the district during the ensuing fiscal year.

(a) Annually the district shall order an investigation and report to be prepared by an engineer or engineers employed by such district. The investigation and report shall set forth the following information, together with such other information as the district may desire, relating to the preceding fiscal year:

(1) Amount of water produced by persons and operators from ground water within district;

(2) Amount of water produced by persons and operators from supplemental sources;

(3) Amount of water produced by persons and operators from all other sources;

(4) Condition of ground water supplies within district;

(5) Information as to the probable availability of water from supplemental sources during the next succeeding fiscal year;

(6) The cost of producing water from ground water within the district, including any replenishment assessment of district;

(7) The cost of water produced within the distict from supplemental sources.

(b) On the second Wednesday in February of each year the engineering investigation and report provided for herein shall be delivered to the secretary of such district, in writing. The secretary shall publish, pursuant to Section 6061 of the Government Code, a notice of the receipt of such report and of the public hearing to be held on the date of the regular meeting of the board of directors in March, in a newspaper of general circulation printed and published within the district, at least 10 days prior to the date at which the public hearing regarding water supplies within the district shall be held. The notice, among other information which the district may provide therein, shall contain an invitation to all persons or operators within the district to call at the offices of said district to examine said engineering investigation and report. There shall be held, by the board of directors on the date of the regular meeting of the board of directors in March of each year, a public hearing at which time any person or operator within the district or any person interested in the amounts and source from which all persons and operators produce their total supply of water as well as the estimated difference in the cost of water produced from ground water within district or supplemental sources, may in person, or by representative, appear and be heard.

(c) On the date of the regular meeting of the board of directors in April of each year, the board of directors shall hold a public hearing for the purpose of determining the need and desirability of levying a basin equity assessment and the amount thereof as well as the need for establishing production requirements and limitations and the extent thereof as to each person or operator within the district for the ensuing fiscal year. In computing and fixing the amount of any such basin equity assessment the board may allow a percent not to exceed 10 percent, as shall be determined by the board of directors of the district, for delinquencies. Notice of the proposed hearing shall be published in the district pursuant to Section 6061 of the Government Code at least 10 days prior to the date set for said hearing.

Such notice shall set forth the following:

(1) That a report regarding water supplies within the district has been prepared;

(2) The date, time and place of the proposed hearing;

(3) The board shall consider at said hearing the need and desirability of levying a basin equity assessment and the amount thereof as well as the need for establishing production requirements and limitations on persons and operators within the district for the ensuing fiscal year and surcharges in connection therewith;

(4) An invitation to all persons and operators to appear at the public hearing and be heard in regard to any of the foregoing matters.

(d) At the hearing the board shall hear, take, and receive all competent evidence presented and offered in regard to the need for a basin equity assessment, production requirements and limitations in general, and specifically, the extent of such requirements or limitations as to each person or operator within the district, the amount of the basin equity assessment which shall be levied against all persons and operators for all purposes other than irrigation at a uniform rate and may be levied against all persons and operators for irrigation purposes at a different uniform rate for the ensuing fiscal year and the amount of surcharges for production in excess of the basin production limitations. Subsequent to the hearing, the board may, by adopting a resolution which resolution shall require the vote of eight members of the board, find and determine for the ensuing fiscal year as follows:

(1) The estimated total amount of water to be produced by all persons and operators within the district from the ground water within the district and the estimated amount to be produced by such persons and operators from supplemental sources;

(2) The basin production percentage,

(3) That a basin equity assessement and production requirement and limitation from ground water within the district are necessary for the protection of the water supply of the district;

(4) The surcharge, in an amount to be determined in the discretion of the board, for production in excess of the production limitations;

(5) The amount of the basin equity assessment to be levied against all persons and operators in a dollar amount per acre-foot of water produced from the ground water supply for all purposes other than irrigation and that such amount is reasonable;

(6) The amount of the basin equity assessment to be levied against all persons and operators in a dollar amount per acre-foot of water produced from the ground water supply for irrigation purposes and that such amount is reasonable;

(7) Production requirements or limitations and the surcharge for production in excess of the basin production limitations on persons and operators within the district shall be applicable during the ensuing fiscal year. Such requirements and limitations shall be on the amount of ground water produced by such persons and operators expressed in a percentage of overall water produced or obtained by such persons or operators from ground water within the district and from supplemental sources;

(8) That during the ensuing fiscal year, upon the district giving published notice thereof, pursuant to Section 6061 of the Government Code in a newspaper of general circulation printed and published within the district at least 10 days prior to such a hearing, a subsequent public hearing may be held to modify the basin production percentage, the basin equity assessment, any production requirement or limitation, or the surcharge for production in excess of the production limitation established by the district. Such modifications, if any, shall be effective on the date established by the board and the district shall give notice of such modification 10 days prior to the effective date thereof in the manner provided hereafter in subdivision (e).

The board may exclude all persons and operators who produced 25 acre-feet or less of water from ground water within the district during the ensuing fiscal year from the levy of the basin equity assessment and the production requirements and limitations provided for herein.

The findings and determinations of the board in regard to any of the foregoing shall be final, conclusive and binding upon all persons and parties.

(e) The district shall thereafter, and in any event prior to July 1 in each year, give notice to each person or operator within the district which notice shall state:

(1) The amount of the basin equity assessment per acre-foot of water produced for purposes other than irrigation and the amount of the basin equity assessment per acre-foot of water produced for irrigation purposes;

(2) The basin production percentage;

(3) The production requirement or limitation upon the person or operator, and

(4) The amount of surcharge imposed for production in excess of the basin production limitations.

The notice provided for herein and the notice of any subsequent modifications may be sent by post card or by other first-class mail with postage prepaid by the district.

(f) Each person or operator within the district not excluded from the levy of the basin equity assessment and the production requirements and limitations, shall file with the district, on or before the 30th day of September of each year, a basin equity assessment report in the form prescribed by the district setting forth the total amounts of water produced from ground water within the district and from supplemental sources during the preceding fiscal year by such person or operator. The statement shall be verified by a written declaration under penalty of perjury. In the event that the person or operator has been required by the district to produce or has in fact produced more water from ground water within the district than the equivalent of the basin production percentage determined by the district, such person or operator shall pay to the district, on or before September 30, an amount determined by the number of acre-feet of water which such person or operator has produced from ground water within the district in excess of the acre-foot equivalent of the basin production percentage multiplied by the applicable basin equity assessment rate, plus the amount of surcharge due for production in excess of the production limitations In the event that a person or operator, pursuant to the requirement of the district, has produced from ground water within the district less than the equivalent of the basin production percentage, such person or operator, on or before the 30th day of November, shall be paid by the district from the basin equity assessment fund an amount determined by the number of acre-feet by which the production of such person or operator from ground water as required by the district is less than the acre-foot equivalent of the basin production percentage multiplied by the applicable basin equity assessment rate, or if the production of such person or operator from ground water is more than the production required by the district and less than the equivalent of the basin equity production percentage, then such person or operator shall be paid by the district an amount determined by the number of acre-feet by which the actual production of such person or operator from ground water is less than the acre-foot equivalent of the basin production percentage multiplied by the applicable basin equity assessment.

(g) If any person or operator shall fail to pay the amount due by reason of the basin equity assessment or surcharge due for production in excess of the production limitations when due, the district shall charge interest at the rate of 1 percent each month on said delinquent amount due. Should any person or operator within the district fail to file a basin equity assessment report on or before the 30th day of September of any year, the district shall, in addition to charging interest as provided herein, assess a penalty charge against such operator in the amount of 10 percent of the amount found by said district to be due.

The district may, from time to time, require other reports from persons and operators as necessary and desirable in the application of the basin equity assessment procedures provided herein.

Upon good cause shown an amendment to any report required under this section may be filed or a correction of any such report may be made within six (6) months after the date such report was filed with the district.

SEC. 8. Section 38 of the Orange County Water District Act (Chapter 924 of the Statutes of 1933) is amended to read:

Sec. 38. Any water-producing facility which is not producing ground water from a zone replenished by the Santa Ana River or its tributaries may be excluded by order of the board of directors from the payment of the replenishment assessment and from the levy of the basin equity assessment and the production requirements and limitations provided by this act after the filing of a verified petition by the owner of a water-producing facility.

The petition shall be filed with the board of directors of the district and shall describe the land upon which the water-producing facility is located, a description of the water-producing facility, and the names and addresses of the owners of the water-producing facility, and shall set forth that such water-producing facility is not producing ground water from a zone replenished by the Santa Ana River or its tributaries. Petitioner shall pay to the district the expenses of advertising and costs incident to the proceedings

Upon the filing of the petition, the secretary of the district shall cause an investigation to be made by the district geologist or an engineer or engineers to determine whether the water-producing facility is or is not producing ground water from a zone replenished by the Santa Ana River or its tributaries. Upon completion of such investigation a report of the results thereof shall be filed with the board of directors and a copy shall be mailed to the petitioner

Upon the filing of the report, the board of directors shall fix a time for holding a hearing regarding the petition and report, which time shall be not less than 10 days and not more than 75 days after the filing of the report, and shall cause a notice of the filing thereof and time and place fixed for the holding of the hearing to be published one time at least 10 days before the date fixed for such hearing in a newspaper of general circulation printed and published within the district. The district shall also mail to the petitioner a notice of such hearing, not less than 7 days prior to the date of the hearing. Any owner of a water-producing facility within the district may appear in person or by representative at said hearing either in behalf or in opposition to the granting of the request of said petition If upon such hearing the board of directors determines that the petition complies with the provisions of this section, and determines and finds that such water-producing facility is not producing ground water from a zone replenished by the Santa Ana River or its tributaries, the board of directors shall make an order that such water-producing facility shall be excluded from the payment of the replenishment assessment and from the levy of the basin equity assessment and the production requirements and limitations as provided in this act. From the making of such order the water-producing facility so excluded shall no longer pay any replenishment assessment or basin equity assessment thereafter levied but such order of exclusion shall not invalidate in any manner any replenishment assesssment or basin equity assessment theretofore levied.

The exclusion provisions provided in this section apply only to exclusion of water-producing facilities from the payment of the replenishment assessments or basin equity assessments authorized by this act, but do not in any manner exclude or limit the rights of the district to levy and collect a general assessment as provided in this act.

The finding and determination by said board is final and conclusive.

SEC 9. Section 38.1 of the Orange County Water District Act (Chapter 924 of the Statutes of 1933) is amended to read:

Sec. 38.1. Any water-producing facility which is producing water within the exterior boundaries of the district may be exempted by order of the board of directors from the payment of the replenishment assessments and from the levy of the basin equity assessment and the production requirements and limitations provided for in this act upon the filing of a verifed petition by the owner of the water-producing facility.

The petition shall be filed with the board of directors of the district and shall include a description of the land upon which the water-producing facility is located, a description of the water-producing facility, a statement of water quality analysis of the water produced by the water-producing facility, the names and addresses of the owners of the water-producing facility, and shall set forth the purpose or purposes for which any water produced from the water-producing facility will be used. The petition may include one or more water-producing facilities located in the same general area, provided each of such facilities are owned by the same owner. Petitioner shall pay to the district the expenses of advertising and costs incident to the proceedings.

Upon the filing of the petition, the secretary of the district shall cause an investigation to be made by the district geologist or an engineer or engineers for the purpose of determining whether the water produced by the water-producing facility is suitable or unsuitable for domestic or agricultural purposes. Upon completion of the investigation, a report of the results thereof shall be filed with the board of directors and a copy shall be mailed to the petitioner. Upon filing of the report, the board of directors shall fix a time for a hearing upon said petition and report, which time shall be not less than ten (10) days and not more than seventy-five (75) days after the filing of said report, and shall cause a notice of the filing thereof and time and place fixed for the holding of the hearing to be published one time, at least ten (10) days before the date fixed for such hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation printed and published within the district A copy of such notice shall be mailed to the petitioner by first-class mail with postage prepaid not less than seven (7) days prior to the date of the hearing.

At the time of the hearing, the board of directors shall determine whether the water produced from the water-producing facility or facilities is suitable or unsuitable for domestic or agricultural purposes. If the board of directors finds and determines the water produced from such facility or facilities or any of them is unsuitable for domestic or agricultural purposes, and further finds and determines that the production of such unsuitable water will have no adverse effects on the ground water supplies of the district, the board of directors may make an order that water produced from the water-producing facility or facilities shall be exempted from the payment of the replenishment assessments and from the levy of the basin equity assessment and the production requirements and limitations as provided in this act.

Nothing contained in this section shall exclude the operator of any water-producing facility exempted from the payments of replenishment assessments from filing the water production statements provided for in Section 29.

The board of directors of the district may from time to time require that the owner of any water-producing facility or facilities, which are exempted from the payment of replenishment assessments and basin equity assessments, provide additional water quality analyses of water being produced from any water-producing facility which has been exempted from the payment of replenishment assessments and from the levy of the basin equity assessment and the production requirements and limitations as provided in this act.

The district shall at all times have the right to enter upon the premises where such exempted water-producing facility or facilities are located for the purpose of obtaining samples of the water being produced.

If at any time it appears that the quality of water being produced from a water-producing facility which has been exempted from payment of replenishment assessments and from the levy of the basin equity assessment and the production requirements and limitations has become suitable for domestic or irrigation purposes, the secretary of the district shall fix a time for a hearing to determine whether the water produced from the water-producing facility has become suitable for domestic or agricultural purposes. The secretary of the district shall cause a notice of the hearing to be published one time, at least ten (10) days before the date fixed for such hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation printed and published within the district A copy of such notice shall be mailed to the owner of the water-producing facility by first-class mail with postage prepaid not less than seven (7) days prior to the date of the hearing.

If upon such hearing, the board of directors finds and determines that the quality of the water being produced from such water-producing facility has become suitable for domestic or irrigation purposes or that the production of water therefrom will have an adverse effect on the ground water supplies of the district, the board of directors shall make an order that the exemption of payment of replenishment assessments and from the levy of the basin equity assessment and the production requirements and limitations on water being produced from said water-producing facility shall be canceled. Notice of such cancellation of exemption shall be sent to the owner of the specified water-producing facility by first-class mail with postage prepaid. The effective date of the cancellation of exemption from the payment of replenishment assessments and from the levy of the basin equity assessment and the production requirements and limitations shall be ten (10) days after the date of mailing of the notice of cancellation.

CHAPTER 1048

An act to add Sections 12757.5, 12758.5, and 12859 to, to repeal and add Section 12802 to, and to repeal Article 5 5 (commencing with Section 12871) of Chapter 2 of Division 7 of, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to economic poisons.

[Approved by Governor September 22, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12757.5 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

12757.5. "Service container" means any container, other than the original labeled container of a registered economic poison provided by the registrant, that is utilized to hold, store, or transport such economic poison or the use-dilution of such economic poison.

SEC. 2. Section 12758.5 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

12758.5. "Use-dilution" means a dilution specified on the label or labeling which produces the concentration of the economic poison for a particular purpose or effect.

SEC. 3. Section 12802 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 12802 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

12802. A person may mix or dilute any registered economic poison in accordance with its registered labeling for his or her own use or for use in his or her own business without having obtained a license or having become a registrant pursuant to this chapter.

SEC. 5. Section 12859 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

12859. The director shall adopt regulations governing the labeling of service containers. Such labeling regulations shall not apply to containers used by a person engaging in the business of farming when the containers are used on the property that the person is farming. The regulations shall provide that such labeling only include the following:

(a) Name and address of the person or firm responsible for such container.

(b) Identity of the economic poison contained within.

(c) The word "DANGER", "WARNING", or "CAUTION" in accordance with the label on the original container.

SEC. 6. Article 5.5 (commencing with Section 12871) of Chapter 2 of Division 7 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

CHAPTER 1049

An act to amend Section 12003 of, to amend and renumber Sections 12972, 12977, 12978, and 12979 of, to add Sections 12972 and 12977 to, to repeal and add Section 12973 to, and to repeal Sections 12971, 12974, 12975, and 12976 of, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to pesticides.

[Approved by Governor September 22, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12003 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

12003. Agricultural pest control advisers shall put all recommendations concerning any agricultural use in writing. One copy of each such written recommendation shall be signed and dated and shall be furnished to the grower. Where a pesticide use is recommended a copy shall also be furnished to the dealer and the applicator.

Each written recommendation shall include, when applicable, the following:

(a) The name and dosage of each pesticide to be used or description of method recommended.

(b) The identity of each pest to be controlled.

(c) The owner or operator, location of and acreage to be treated.

(d) The commodity, crop, or site to be treated.

(e) The suggested schedule, time, or conditions for the pesticide application or other control method.

(f) A warning of the possibility of damages by the pesticide application that are known to exist.

(g) The signature and address of the person making the recommendation, the date, and the name of the business such person represents.

(h) Any other information the director may require.

SEC. 2. Section 12971 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 12972 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended and renumbered to read:

12971. No recommendation shall be in conflict with the registered labeling for the product being recommended.

SEC. 4. Section 12972 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

12972. The use of any pesticide by any person shall be in such a manner as to prevent substantial drift to nontarget areas.

SEC. 5. Section 12973 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 12973 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

12973. The use of any pesticide shall not conflict with labeling registered pursuant to this chapter which is delivered with the pesticide or with any additional limitations applicable to the conditions of any permit issued by the director or commissioner.

SEC. 7. Section 12974 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 12975 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 9. Section 12976 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 10. Section 12977 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended and renumbered to read:

12974. Failure of a person using a pesticide to possess a written recommendation shall create a rebuttable presumption that he has assumed responsibility for the recommendation.

SEC. 11. Section 12977 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

12977. The director, and the commissioner of each county under the direction and supervision of the director, shall enforce the provisions of this article and the regulations adopted pursuant to it.

SEC. 12. Section 12978 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended and renumbered to read:

12975. A person making a written recommendation does not incur an obligation to insure that the actual use follows his or her recommendation

SEC. 13. Section 12979 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended and renumbered to read:

12976. The director, after investigation and hearing, may adopt regulations which govern the use of any pesticide which he finds necessary to carry out the purposes of Division 6 (commencing with Section 11401) or this division.

SEC. 14. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local governmental entities and school districts which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes.

CHAPTER 1050

An act to amend Sections 11405, 11407, 11410, 11411, 12024, and 12042 of, to add Section 11407.5 to, and to repeal Section 11904 of, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to pesticides.

[Approved by Governor September 22, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11405 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

11405. "Registrant" means any person that registers pursuant to Section 11732 or 12031.

SEC. 2. Section 11407 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

11407. "Pesticide dealer" means any person, including any manufacturer, distributor, or retailer who engages in any of the following business activities:

(a) Selling pesticides to users for an agricultural use.

(b) Selling to users any method or device for the control of agricultural pests, such as biological agents, lures, or insect-trapping devices.

(c) Soliciting sales of pesticides by making agricultural use recommendations through field representatives. or other agents.

(d) Selling to a user a pesticide classified pursuant to Section 14004.5 as a restricted material that requires either a permit for possession and use or which may be used only by or under the direct supervision of a certified applicator.

SEC. 3. Section 11407.5 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

11407.5. "Pesticide dealer" does not include either of the following:

(a) Any person licensed pursuant to Section 11701 to engage for hire in the business of agricultural pest control, as to pesticides recommended or sold by the licensee and applied by the licensee pursuant to the conditions of the license.

(b) Any person licensed to engage in any activity that is defined as structural pest control pursuant to Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 8500), of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, as to pesticides recommended or sold by the licensee and applied by the licensee pursuant to the conditions of the license.

SEC. 4. Section 11410 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read.

11410. Except as provided in Section 12001, "agricultural pest control advisor" means any person who offers a recommendation or who holds himself forth as an authority on any agricultural use, or a general advisor on any agricultural use who solicits services or sales.

SEC. 5. Section 11411 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

11411. "Recommendation" means the giving of any instruction or advice on any agricultural use as to any particular application on any particular piece of property. "Recommendation" does not include any summary that does not specify the use to be made for any designated pest, provided that such summary is not in conflict with any registered pesticide label or with the supplementary printed direction delivered therewith or with any rule or regulation of the director.

SEC. 6. Section 11904 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 12024 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

12024. The director by regulation shall establish the minimum requirement for pest control advisor by education, experience, and examination to carry out the purposes of this division.

SEC. 8. Section 12042 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

12042. The term of office of the members of the committee is three years. Vacancies shall be filled for an unexpired term.

CHAPTER 1051

An act to amend Section 12991 of, to add Article 5 (commencing with Section 11891) and Article 6 (commencing with Section 11896) to Chapter 4 of Division 6 of, and to add Article 12 (commencing with Section 12996) and Article 13 (commencing with Section 13101) of Chapter 2 of Division 7 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to pesticides, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 22, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 5 (commencing with Section 11891) is added to Chapter 4 of Division 6 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

Article 5. Penalties

11891. Every person who violates any provision of this division, or any regulation issued pursuant to a provision of the division, is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500), or by imprisonment of not less than 10 days nor more than six months, or by both fine and imprisonment. Each violation constitutes a separate offense.

11892. In lieu of seeking prosecution of any violation of this division as a misdemeanor, and the penalty prescribed in Section 11891, the director may prosecute civilly pursuant to Sections 11893 and 11894.

11893. Any person who violates any provision of this division, or any regulation issued pursuant to a provision of this division, shall be liable civilly in an amount not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) for each violation. Any money recovered under this section shall be paid into the Department of Agriculture Fund for use by the department in administering the provisions of this division, and Division 7 (commencing with Section 12501) of this code.

11894. Upon a complaint by the director, the Attorney General may bring an action for civil penalties in any court of competent jurisdiction in this state against any person violating any provision of this division, or any regulation issued pursuant to it. The Attorney General may bring an action for civil penalties on his own initiative if, after examining the complaint and the evidence, he or she believes a violation has occurred.

SEC. 2. Article 6 (commencing with Section 11896) is added to Chapter 4 of Division 6 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

Article 6. Cease and Desist

11896. The director, upon a finding that the use, handling, delivery, or sale of an economic poison in violation of any provision of this division, or any regulation issued pursuant to it, is taking place, or appears imminent, and such activity if allowed to proceed will present an immediate hazard or cause irreparable damage, may issue an order to the persons responsible for such activity to cease and desist from further commission of such violation

11897. The agricultural commissioner, upon a finding that the use, handling, delivery or sale of an economic poison in violation of any provision of this division, or any regulation issued pursuant to it, is taking place, or appears imminent, and such activity if allowed to proceed will present an immediate hazard or cause irreparable damage, may issue an order to the persons responsible for such activity to cease and desist from further commission of such violation.

Any person aggrieved by a cease and desist order issued by an agricultural commissioner may appeal the order to the director who shall affirm, modify, or rescind the order. The order of the agricultural commissioner shall remain in force during the appeal to the director, and until the director's decision has been rendered.

SEC. 3. Section 12991 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

12991. It is unlawful for any person, by himself, or through another, in connection with any substance or mixture of substances included within the scope of this chapter, to do any of the following:

(a) Make any material or substantial misrepresentation.

(b) Make any false promises of a character likely to influence, induce or deceive.

(c) Engage in illegitimate business or dishonest dealing.

(d) Cause to be published or distributed any false or misleading literature, or cause to be displayed any false or misleading advertisement

(e) For any person to use, store, transport, handle, or dispose of any economic poison, or of any container which holds or has held such economic poison, except in compliance with rules and regulations of the director.

SEC. 4. Article 12 (commencing with Section 12996) is added to Chapter 2 of Division 7 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

Article 12. Penalties

12996. Every person who violates any provision of this division, or any regulation issued pursuant to a provision of this division, is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500), or by imprisonment of not less than 10 days nor more than six months, or by both fine and imprisonment. Each violation constitutes a separate offense.

12997. In lieu of seeking prosecution of any violation of this division as a misdemeanor, and the penalty prescribed in Section 12996, the director may prosecute civilly pursuant to Sections 12998 and 12999.

12998. Any person who violates any provision of this division, or any regulation issued pursuant to a provision of this division, shall be liable civilly in an amount not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) for each violation. Any money recovered under this section shall be paid into the Department of Agriculture Fund for use by the department in administering the provisions of this division, and Division 6 of this code.

12999. Upon a complaint by the director, the Attorney General may bring an action for civil penalties in any court of competent jurisdiction in this state against any person violating any provision of this division, or any regulation issued pursuant to it. The Attorney General may bring an action for civil penalties on his own initiative if, after examining the complaint and the evidence, he or she believes a violation has occurred.

SEC. 5 Article 13 (commencing with Section 13101) is added to Chapter 2 of Division 7 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

Article 13. Cease and Desist

13101. The director, upon a finding that the use, handling, delivery or sale of economic poison in violation of any provision of this division, or any regulation issued pursuant to it, is taking place, or appears imminent, and such activity if allowed to proceed will present an immediate hazard or cause irreparable damage, may issue an order to the persons responsible for such activity to cease and desist from further commission of such violation.

13102. The agricultural commissioner, upon a finding that the use, handling, delivery or sale of an economic poison in violation of any provision of this division, or any regulation issued pursuant to it, is taking place, or appears imminent, and such activity if allowed to proceed will present an immediate hazard or cause irreparable damage, may issue an order to the persons responsible for such activity to cease and desist from further commission of such violation

Any person aggrieved by a cease and desist order issued by an agricultural commissioner may appeal the order to the director who shall affirm, modify, or rescind such order. The order of the agricultural commissioner shall remain in force during the appeal to the director, and until the director's decision has been rendered.

CHAPTER 1052

An act to amend, repeal, and add Section 12844 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to economic poisons.

[Approved by Governor September 22, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows.

SECTION 1. Section 12844 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

12844. Notwithstanding Section 12784, the director shall pay five-eighths of the money received pursuant to this article to the counties as reimbursement for costs incurred by the counties in the administration and enforcement of the provisions of Division 6 (commencing with Section 11401) and Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 12751), Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 14001), and Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 14101) of this division

The development of regulations pursuant to this section shall be the joint and mutual responsibility of the director and the county agricultural commissioners. After public hearing, the director shall adopt regulations specifying the criteria to be used in allocating pesticide mill assessment funds to the counties based upon each county's pest control activities, costs, workload, and performance. The criteria shall include, but is not limited to, the following:

(a) The effectiveness of the pesticide use enforcement program in each county.

(b) The number, comprehensiveness, and effectiveness of pest control inspections performed in each county.

(c) The number of licensed pest control advisers, pesticide dealers, pest control operators, and other persons, firms, and agencies using pesticides in each county.

(d) The work hours expended by certified pesticide use enforcement personnel in each county.

(e) The total amount of dollars expended by each county relating to pesticide regulatory activities.

(f) The number of private applicators certified in each county.

(g) The volume and type of pesticides used and the number of pesticide applications in each county.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1982, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 12844 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

12844. Notwithstanding Section 12784, the director shall pay five-eighths of the money received pursuant to this article to the counties as reimbursement for costs incurred by the counties in the administration and enforcement of the provisions of Division 6 (commencing with Section 11401) and Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 12751), Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 14001), and Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 14101) of this division.

Such payment shall be apportioned to the counties by the director in relation to each county's expenditures for such programs to the total amount expended by all counties for such programs. The director shall by regulation establish procedures for the determination and payment to the counties of such funds.

This section shall become operative on January 1, 1982.

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature that the amendments to Section 12844 of the Food and Agricultural Code which are made by Section 1 of this act shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1982, and on that date Section 2 of this act shall become operative to restore Section 12844 to the form in which it read immediately prior to the effective date of this act.

CHAPTER 1053

An act to amend Section 405 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to agriculture.

[Approved by Governor September 22, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 405 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

405. (a) With the prior approval of the Department of Fish and Game and the Department of Health Services, the department may reproduce or distribute biological control organisms that are not detrimental to the public health and safety which are known to be useful in reducing or preventing plant or animal damage due to pests or diseases.

(b) The department shall not engage in the production of beneficial organisms when such organisms are available for purchase from commercial sources.

CHAPTER 1054

An act to amend Section 1524 of, to repeal Section 3401 of, and to add Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 3410) to Title 2 of Part 3 of, the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor September 23, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1524 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1524. (a) A search warrant may be issued upon any of the following grounds:

(1) When the property was stolen or embezzled.

(2) When the property or things were used as the means of committing a felony.

(3) When the property or things are in the possession of any person with the intent to use it as a means of committing a public offense, or in the possession of another to whom he may have delivered it for the purpose of concealing it or preventing its being discovered.

(4) When the property or things to be seized consist of any item or constitutes any evidence which tends to show a felony has been committed, or tends to show that a particular person has committed a felony.

(b) The property or things described in subdivision (a) may be taken on the warrant from any place, or from any person in whose possession it may be.

(c) No warrant shall issue for any item or items described in Section 1070 of the Evidence Code.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds that the separation of infants from their mothers, while their mothers are in prison, can cause serious psychological damage to such infants. To alleviate the harm to such infants, consistent with the interest of public safety and justice, the following pilot program is enacted.

SEC. 3. Section 3401 of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 3410) is added to Title 2 of Part 3 of the Penal Code, to read:

CHAPTER 4. COMMUNITY TREATMENT PROGRAMS

3410. The term "community" shall, for the purposes of this chapter, mean an environment away from the prison setting which is in an urban or suburban area.

3411. The Department of Corrections shall on or before January 1, 1980, establish and implement a community treatment program under which mother inmates who have one or more children under the age of two years and two months, whether born prior to or after January 1, 1978, shall be eligible to participate within the provisions of this section. The community treatment program shall provide for the release of the mother and child or children to a public or private facility in the community suitable to the needs of the mother and child or children, and which will provide the best possible care for the mother and child. In establishing and operating such program, the department shall have as a prime concern the establishment of a safe and wholesome environment for the participating children.

3412. The Department of Corrections shall provide pediatric care consistent with medical standards and, to the extent feasible, shall be guided by the need to provide the following:

(a) A stable, care giving, stimulating environment for the children as developed and supervised by professional guidance in the area of child development.

(b) Programs geared to assure the stability of the parent-child relationship during and after participation in the program, to be developed and supervised by appropriate professional guidance. These programs shall, at a minimum, be geared to accomplish the following:

(1) The mother's mental stability.

(2) The mother's familiarity with good parenting and housekeeping skills.

(3) The mother's ability to function in the community, upon parole or release, as a viable member.

(4) The securing of adequate housing arrangements after participation in the program.

(5) The securing of adequate child care arrangements after participation in the program.

(c) Utilization of the least restrictive alternative to incarceration and restraint possible to achieve the objectives of correction and of this chapter consistent with public safety and justice.

3413. In determining how to implement this chapter, the Department of Corrections shall be guided by the need to utilize the most cost efficient methods possible. Therefore, the Director of Corrections may enter into contracts, with the approval of the Director of General Services, with appropriate public or private agencies, to provide housing, sustenance, and supervision for such inmates as are eligible for placement in community treatment programs. Prisoners in the care of such agencies shall be subject to all provisions of law applicable to them.

3414. The department shall establish reasonable rules and regulations concerning the operation of the program.

3415. (a) The probation department shall, on the day that any woman is sentenced to the state prison notify such woman of the provisions of this chapter, if the term of the state imprisonment does not exceed two years on the basis of either the probable release or parole date computed as if the maximum amount of good time credit would be granted. The probation department shall determine such term of state imprisonment at such time for the purposes of this section.

(b) The woman may, upon the receipt of such notice, give notice of her desire to be admitted to a program under this chapter. The probation department or the defendant shall transmit such notice to the Department of Corrections, and to the appropriate local social services agency that conducts investigations for child neglect and dependency hearings.

3416. If any woman received by or committed to the Department of Corrections has a child under two years of age, or gives birth to a child while an inmate under the jurisdiction of the Department of Corrections, such child and his or her mother shall, upon her request, be admitted to and retained in a community treatment program established by the Department of Corrections subject to the provisions of this chapter.

3417. Subject to reasonable rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to Section 3414, the Department of Corrections shall admit to the program any applicant whose child was born prior to the receipt of the inmate by the department, if all of the following requirements are met:

(a) The applicant has a probable release or parole date with a maximum time to be served of two years, calculated after deduction of any possible good time credit.

(b) The applicant had no prior convictions for which she served a state prison term.

(c) The applicant was the primary caretaker of the infant prior to incarceration. If the infant was living with anyone other than the applicant and was receiving primary care from that person, the applicant is not eligible.

(d) At the date of the mother's application, the infant cannot be older than:	If the applicant's release or parole date is:
2 months	2 years
8 months	16 months
18 months	5⅓ months

(e) The applicant had not been found to be an unfit parent in any court proceeding, and the mother's fitness is not challenged pursuant to Section 3420 or she is found to be fit in a court proceeding. An inmate applicant shall not be denied the opportunity to participate in the program based in whole or in part on a determination that she is an unfit mother unless that decision is made pursuant to Section 232 of the Civil Code, Section 2625 of the Penal Code, or Section 600 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(f) Not more than 30 days has elapsed from the receipt of the mother by the Department of Corrections to the date of her application.

The Department of Corrections shall determine if the applicant meets the requirements of this section. The department may establish an appeal procedure for the applicant to appeal an adverse decision by the department. However, given the need to quickly place the child, the department's first determination shall govern the applicant's initial status as to these eligibility requirements.

3418. In the case of any inmate who gave birth to a child after the date of sentencing, and in the case of any inmate who gave birth to a child prior to such date and meets the requirements of subdivisions (a), (b), and (d) of Section 3417 but has not yet made application for admission to a program, the department shall, upon the birth of the child, or the receipt of the inmate to the custody of the Department of Corrections, as the case may be, notify the inmate of the provisions of this chapter.

3419 In the case of any inmate who gives birth after her receipt by the Department of Corrections, the department shall, subject to reasonable rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to Section 3414, upon her request, declare the inmate eligible to participate in a program pursuant to this chapter if all of the requirements of subdivisions (a), (b), (d), (e), and (f) of Section 3417 are met.

3420 (a) Within five days after the receipt of an inmate by the Department of Corrections who has already applied for admission to a program, or of her application for admission to a program, whichever is later, the department shall give notice of her application to the child's current caretaker or guardian, if any, and if it has not already been notified pursuant to Section 3415, the appropriate local social services agency that conducts investigations for child neglect and dependency hearings

(b) The department and the individuals and agencies notified shall have five days from the date of such notice to decide whether or not to challenge the mother's fitness. Lack of a petition filed by that time shall result in an assumption of the mother's fitness for the purposes of this chapter.

(c) The local agency which has been notified pursuant to Section 3415 shall not initiate the process of considering whether or not to file until after the sentencing court has sentenced the applicant to state prison.

(d) The appropriate local agency that conducts investigations for child neglect and dependency hearings, the Department of Corrections, and the current guardian or caretaker of the child, shall have the authority to file for a fitness proceeding against the mother after the mother has applied in writing to participate in the program.

(e) The determination of whether or not to file shall be based in part on the likelihood of the mother being a fit parent for the child in question both during the program and afterwards. Program content shall be taken into account in this determination. There shall be a presumption affecting the burden of producing evidence in favor of filing for a fitness proceeding under the following circumstances:

(1) The applicant was convicted of one or more of the following violent felonies:

(i) Murder.

(ii) Mayhem.

(iii) Kidnapping as defined in Section 207 or 209.

(iv) Lewd acts on a child under 14 as defined in Section 288.

(v) Any other felony in which the defendant inflicts great bodily injury on a person other than accomplices which has been alleged and proven.

(vi) Forceable rape in violation of subdivision (2), (3), or (4) of Section 261.

(vii) Sodomy by force, violence, duress, menace, or threat of great bodily injury.

(viii) Oral copulation by force, violence, duress, menace, or threat of great bodily injury.

(2) The applicant was known to be addicted to any drug immediately prior to the date of her crime leading to the prison sentence, and the mother is not under the care of a doctor who has prescribed such drug.

(3) The applicant was convicted of child abuse in the current or any proceeding.

(f) Fitness petitions shall be resolved in the court of first instance as soon as possible for purposes of this section. Given the need to place the child as soon as possible, the first determination by the court as to the applicant's fitness as a mother shall determine her eligibility for the program for the current application. Outcomes of appeals shall not affect eligibility.

3421. Children of women inmates may only participate in the program until they reach the age of two years and two months, at which time the Community Release Board may arrange for their care elsewhere under any procedure authorized by statute and transfer the mother to another placement under the jurisdiction of the Department of Corrections if necessary; and provided further, that at its discretion in exceptional cases, including, but not limited to, cases where the mother's period of incarceration is extended, the board may retain such child and mother for a longer period of time.

3422. The costs for care of any mother and child placed in a community treatment program pursuant to this section shall be paid for out of funds allocated to the department in the normal budgetary process. The department shall make diligent efforts to procure the allocation of sufficient funds and shall limit its use of the General Fund to meet the matching fund requirements of other funding sources. However, in no event shall General Fund moneys exceed 25 percent of the overall costs of the project.

3423 Any woman inmate who would give birth to a child during her term of imprisonment may be temporarily taken to a hospital outside the prison for the purposes of childbirth, and the charge for hospital and medical care shall be charged against the funds allocated to the institution The board shall provide for the care of any children so born and shall pay for their care until suitably placed, including, but not limited to, placement in a community treatment program.

3424. On or before March 30, 1980, and on or before March 30, 1981, the Department of Corrections shall evaluate the cost efficiency and effect of this chapter and shall report back to the Legislature with the department's recommendations as to whether or not this chapter should be altered or repealed and if so, why.

CHAPTER 1055

An act to amend Sections 84500 and 84520 of the Education Code, relating to community college attendance.

[Approved by Governor September 23, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1 Section 84500 of the Education Code is amended to read:

84500. (a) (1) Except as otherwise provided, in computing the average daily attendance of a community college district, there shall be included only the attendance of students while engaged in educational activities required of such students and under the immediate supervision and control of an employee of the district who possessed a valid certification document, registered as required by law, authorizing him to render service in the capacity and during the period in which he served.

(2) A community college district may, until June 30, 1982, also include the attendance of students enrolled in approved courses or programs of independent study, including courses or programs formerly conducted as coordinated instruction systems, who are under the supervision, control, and evaluation but not necessarily in the immediate presence of an employee of the district who possesses a valid certification document; provided that such attendance may only be included for college level credit courses and programs which are accepted for completion of an appropriate educational sequence leading to an associate degree, and which generally are recognized upon transfer by an institution of the University of California or the California State University and Colleges.

The community college district shall determine the nature, manner, and place of conducting any independent study course or program in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges to implement the purposes of this subdivision. Such rules and regulations shall require community college districts to ensure that the components of each individual study course or program for each student shall be set out in a written record which includes the goals and methodology of the course or program, the number of units and hours of study required, the arrangements for consultation with the instructor, the work product to be evaluated, and the college facility required. Such rules and regulations shall also provide for input from, and participation by, faculty, who are selected by academic senates or faculty councils, and students, including, but not limited to, academic senates or faculty councils, in the development and evaluation of such approved educational courses and programs.

The board of governors or its designee shall study the educational and fiscal effects of the authorization provided by this subdivision and shall report to the Legislature prior to June 30, 1981, on the appropriateness of deleting or extending such authorization, as well as other changes that should be made.

(b) For the purpose of work experience education programs in the secondary schools meeting the standards of the California State Plan for Vocational Education, "immediate supervision" of off-campus work training stations means pupil participation in on-the-job training as outlined under a training agreement, coordinated by the school district under a state-approved plan, wherein the employer and certificated school personnel share the responsibility for on-the-job supervision. The pupil-teacher ratio in any such work experience program shall not exceed 125 students per full-time equivalent certificated coordinator. A pupil enrolled in such work experience program shall not be credited with more than one day of attendance in any calendar day, and shall be a full-time student enrolled in regular classes meeting the requirements set forth in Section 76313.

(c) For purposes of computing the average daily attendance of a community college district, attendance shall also include student attendance and participation in in-service training courses in the areas of police, fire, corrections, and other criminal justice system occupations that conform to all apportionment attendance and course of study requirements otherwise imposed by law; provided that such courses are fully open to the enrollment and participation of the public pursuant to subdivision (2) of Section 78450; and provided further, that prerequisites for such courses shall not be established or construed so as to prevent academically qualified persons not employed by agencies in the criminal justice system from enrolling in and attending such courses.

(d) In the event that certain in-service training courses are restricted to employees of police, fire, corrections, and other criminal justice agencies, attendance for such restricted courses shall not be reported for purposes either of state apportionments or district revenue limits computed pursuant to Sections 85132 and 85140. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 78450, a community college district which restricts enrollment in such in-service training courses may contract with any public agency to provide compensation for the cost of conducting such courses.

(e) Positive records of student admissions and daily attendance in all in-service training courses in the areas of police, fire, corrections, and other criminal justice system occupations, as described in subdivision (c), shall be maintained by each district and shall be separately reported annually to the chancellor's office of the California Community Colleges.

SEC. 2. Section 84520 of the Education Code is amended to read:

84520. Pursuant to the provisions of Section 84500, the units of average daily attendance for apportionment purposes of regularly enrolled students of a community college district during the academic year, as defined in Section 78008, and subject to the provisions of Section 78452 shall be computed by multiplying the weekly student contact hours of enrollment as recorded for the census day or days each semester or quarter by statewide factors heretofore established by the board of governors, subject to review by the Department of Finance. The census day shall be Monday of each of two census weeks of five or six consecutive days of regularly scheduled classes each term or session as approved by the board of governors.

For purposes of computing the units of average daily attendance for courses which do not have a regularly scheduled number of weekly student contact hours, one weekly student contact hour shall be counted for each unit of credit in which a student is enrolled during any census period. The nature, manner, and place of conducting courses and programs under this section shall be determined by the community college district pursuant to rules and regulations adopted by the board of governors.

Attendance of such students enrolled in classes conducted in summer sessions, as distinct from summer quarters, of four weeks or more shall be counted in the computation of average daily attendance for apportionment purposes under the provisions of this section using the following formula: Multiply the sum of the weekly student contact hours of enrollment in each class during the census week of each class of the summer session by the number of scheduled weeks for each class, multiply the product so derived by the statewide factors established by the board of governors, subject to review by the Department of Finance, and divide by 525. The census day shall be Monday of the second week. For classes of less than four weeks, the units of average daily attendance shall be computed by dividing the total actual class hours of attendance by 525.

CHAPTER 1056

An act relating to child care.

[Approved by Governor September 23, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. During the 1979–80 and 1980–81 school years, the Berkeley Unified School District may undertake a pilot project, in conjunction with its existing State Preschool Program, which allows children of low-middle-income families to be eligible to participate in the State Preschool Program. The purpose of such a pilot project shall be to determine the feasibility of increasing the cultural diversity of the State Preschool Program.

If the Berkeley Unified School District elects to undertake this pilot project, the project shall be administered according to the following provisions:

(a) The maximum income level for a family to be deemed a "low-middle-income family" for the purpose of determining eligibility to participate in the pilot project shall be determined by the State Department of Education, using the guidelines established by Title XX of the Social Security Act. The fee schedule developed by the State Department of Health Services and administered by the Department of Education in accordance with the provisions of Title XX of the Social Security Act shall be utilized for participants in this project from low-middle-income families. Funds collected from the fees imposed on participants from low-middle-income families shall be used to offset any local administrative costs incurred by the collection and recording of fees and to augment existing funds.

(b) During the two-year duration of this pilot project, the Berkeley Unified School District shall maintain the 175 state preschool slots presently allocated.

(c) The pilot project authorized by this act, for the purposes of administration and evaluation, shall be composed of both the state preschool places and the Berkeley Unified School District places which are funded by the adult education budget and parent fees.

(d) The State Preschool Program conducted in the Berkeley

Unified School District shall continue to maintain the priority given to low-income families during the duration of this pilot project and the active recruitment of children from low-income families shall continue during the life of the pilot project. To this end, since experience in the Berkeley Unified School District has shown that the State Preschool Program enrollment stabilizes in mid-October, the recruitment of low-middle-income families shall begin no earlier than mid-October to ensure that every effort has been made to place children from low-income families in the program. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act that children in low-income families, as identified in the Department of Education guidelines for the State Preschool Program, shall always have priority over children from low-middle-income families whenever there is competition for a place in the project.

SEC. 2. If the Berkeley Unified School District elects to undertake the pilot project authorized in Section 1 of this act, the district shall annually conduct an evaluation of the pilot project, and shall annually report thereon to the Legislature no later than August 31, 1980, and August 31, 1981. The report shall include, but need not be limited to, the following:

(a) A breakdown of the cultural and racial composition of the program participants.

(b) The changes in the cultural and racial composition of the program participants as a result of the project's implementation.

(c) Parent participation in the project and the extent of changes in such participation as a result of the project's implementation.

(d) A breakdown of the income levels of families participating in the entire project.

If, after the first report has been submitted to the Legislature, it is found that the recruitment timetable or the procedures for recruitment are not appropriate and need adjustment, the Department of Education may recommend any changes in the pilot project which are necessary to fulfill the intent of the pilot project prescribed by this act.

SEC. 3. Due to the unique circumstances concerning the school district subject to the provisions of this act, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the Constitution.

CHAPTER 1057

An act to amend Section 2982.8 of the Civil Code, relating to automobile sales.

[Approved by Governor September 23, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2982.8 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2982.8. (a) If a buyer is obligated under the terms of the conditional sale contract to maintain insurance on the vehicle and subsequent to the execution of the contract the buyer either fails to maintain or requests the holder to procure such insurance, any amounts advanced by the holder to procure such insurance may be added to the contract balance. Such amounts shall be secured by the motor vehicle provided that the holder notifies the buyer in writing of his or her option to repay such amounts in any one of the following ways:

(1) Full payment within 10 days from the date of giving or mailing the notice.

(2) Full amortization during the term of the insurance.

(3) Full amortization after the term of the conditional sale contract to be payable in installments which do not exceed the average payment allocable to a monthly period under the contract. The option offered under this subparagraph shall not apply to any industrial loan company licensed pursuant to Division 7 (commencing with Section 18000) of the Financial Code.

(4) If offered by the holder, any other amortization plan.

If the buyer neither pays in full the amounts advanced nor notifies the holder in writing of his or her choice regarding amortization options before the expiration of 10 days from the date of giving or mailing the notice by the holder, the holder may amortize the amounts advanced on a secured basis pursuant to either paragraph (2) or (3) of this subdivision.

(b) The written notification described in subdivision (a) shall also set forth the amounts advanced by the holder and, with respect to each amortization plan the amount of the additional finance charge, the sum of the amounts advanced and the additional finance charge, the number of installments required, the amount of each installment and the date for payment of the installments.

(c) The maximum finance charge which may be imposed on amounts advanced by the holder hereunder shall not exceed the rate specified in subdivision (c) of Section 2982.

CHAPTER 1058

An act to amend Sections 66901 and 66907 of the Education Code, relating to postsecondary education.

[Approved by Governor September 23, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 66901 of the Education Code is amended to read·

66901. There is hereby created the California Postsecondary Education Commission, which shall be advisory to the Governor, the Legislature, other appropriate governmental officials, and institutions of postsecondary education. The commission shall be composed of the following members:

(1) One representative of the Regents of the University of California designated by the regents, one representative of the Trustees of the California State University and Colleges designated by the trustees, and one representative of the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges designated by the board. Representatives of the regents, the trustees, and the board of governors shall be chosen from among the appointed members of their respective boards, but in no instance shall an ex officio member of a governing board serve on the commission.

(2) One representative of the independent California colleges and universities which are accredited by a national or regional association which is recognized by the United States Office of Education. This member shall be appointed by the Governor from a list or lists submitted by an association or associations of such institutions.

(3) The chair or the designee of the chair of the Council for Private Postsecondary Educational Institutions.

(4) The President of the State Board of Education or his or her designee from among the other members of the board.

(5) Nine representatives of the general public appointed as follows: three by the Governor, three by the Senate Rules Committee, and three by the Speaker of the Assembly. It is the intent of the Legislature that the commission be broadly and equitably representative of the general public in the appointment of its public members and that the appointing authorities, therefore, shall confer to assure that their combined appointments include adequate representation on the basis of sex and on the basis of the significant racial, ethnic, and economic groups in the state.

No person who is employed by any institution of public or private postsecondary education shall be appointed to or serve on the commission, except that a person who is not a permanent, full-time employee and who has part-time teaching duties which do not exceed six hours per week may be appointed to and serve on the commission.

The commission members designated in subdivisions (1), (3), and (4) shall serve at the pleasure of their respective appointing authorities. The member designated in subdivision (2) shall serve a three-year term The members designated in subdivision (5) shall each serve a six-year term The respective appointing authority may appoint an alternate for each member who may, during the member's absence, serve on the commission and vote on matters before the commission. When vacancies occur prior to expiration of terms, the respective appointing authority may appoint a member for the remainder of the term.

Any person appointed pursuant to this section may be reappointed to serve additional terms.

Any person appointed pursuant to this section who no longer has the position which made him or her eligible for appointment may nonetheless complete his or her term of office on the commission.

No person appointed pursuant to this section shall, with respect to any matter before the commission, vote for or on behalf of, or in any way exercise the vote of, any other member of the commission.

The commission shall meet as often as it deems necessary to carry out its duties and responsibilities.

Any member of the commission who in any calendar year misses more than one-third of the meetings of the full commission forfeits his office, thereby creating a vacancy.

The commission shall select a chair from among the members representing the general public. The chair shall hold office for a term of one year and may be selected to successive terms.

There is established an advisory committee to the commission and the director, consisting of the chief executive officers of each of the public segments, or their designees, the Superintendent of Public Instruction or his or her designee, and an executive officer from each of the groups of institutions designated in subdivisions (2) and (3) of Section 66901 to be designated by the respective commission representative from such groups. Commission meeting agenda items and associated documents shall be provided to the committee in a timely manner for its consideration and comments.

The commission may appoint such subcommittees or advisory committees as it deems necessary to advise it on matters of educational policy. Such advisory committees may consist of commission members or nonmembers or both, including students, faculty members, segmental representatives, governmental representatives, and representatives of the public.

The commission shall appoint and may remove a director in the manner hereinafter specified. The director shall appoint persons to such staff positions as the commission may authorize.

The commission shall prescribe rules for the transaction of its own affairs, subject, however, to the following requirement and limitations: (1) The votes of all representatives shall be recorded, (2) effective action shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of all the duly appointed members of the commission, not including vacant commission seats, and (3) the affirmative votes of two-thirds of all the duly appointed members of the commission, not including vacant commission seats, shall be necessary to the appointment of the director.

SEC 2 Section 66907 of the Education Code is amended to read:

66907. Initial appointments to the California Postsecondary Education Commission shall become effective on January 10, 1974. All subsequent terms will begin on January 1 of the year in which the respective terms are to start.

Responsibilities heretofore assigned to the Coordinating Council for Higher Education through legislative resolution and budget language shall be assumed by the commission on April 1, 1974. All ongoing projects, information, and files of the council shall be transferred to the commission on that date.

SEC. 3. For the purpose of effecting the reduction in membership of the California Postsecondary Education Commission required by this act, the following directions shall be observed:

(a) As of January 1, 1980, one of each of the offices hitherto filled by designation of the Regents of the University of California, the Trustees of the California University and Colleges, and the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges, pursuant to subdivision (1) of Section 66901, shall be abolished. The office to be abolished shall be determined by each of such designating authorities.

(b) As of January 1, 1980, one of the offices filled by designation of the Governor pursuant to subdivision (2) of Section 66901 shall be abolished, and one of each of the offices filled by designation of the Governor, the Senate Rules Committee, and the Speaker of the Assembly pursuant to subdivision (5) of Section 66901 shall be abolished. The office to be abolished shall be an office the term of which is already due to expire on January 1, 1980, pursuant to the provisions of 66907 as they read before the effective date of this act.

CHAPTER 1059

An act to add Part 2.7 (commencing with Section 60) to Division 1 of the Civil Code, relating to minors.

[Approved by Governor September 23, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Part 2.7 (commencing with Section 60) is added to Division 1 of the Civil Code, to read:

PART 2.7. EMANCIPATION OF MINORS

60. This part shall be known and may be cited as the "Emancipation of Minors Act."

61. The Legislature finds and declares that the case law of this state is unclear as to the definition and consequences of emancipation of minors; that a legislative statement is required; and that a process should be provided so that emancipated minors can obtain an official declaration of their status. It is the purpose of this part to provide a clear statement defining emancipation and its consequences and to permit an emancipated minor to obtain a court declaration of his status. This part is not intended to affect the status of minors who are now or may become emancipated under present decisional case law.

62. Any person under the age of 18 years who comes within the following description is an emancipated minor:

(a) Who has entered into a valid marriage, whether or not such marriage was terminated by dissolution; or

(b) Who is on active duty with any of the armed forces of the United States of America; or

(c) Who willingly lives separate and apart from his parents or legal guardian, with the consent or acquiescence of the parents or guardian, and who is managing his own financial affairs, regardless of the source of his income so long as it is not derived from any activity declared to be a crime by the laws of the State of California, or declared to be a crime by the laws of the United States.

63. An emancipated minor shall be considered as being over the age of majority for the following purposes:

(a) For the purpose of consenting to medical, dental, or psychiatric care, without parental consent, knowledge, or liability.

(b) For the purpose of his capacity to enter into a binding contract.

(c) For the purpose of his capacity to sue and be sued in his own name.

(d) For the purpose of his right to support by his parents.

(e) For purposes of the rights of his parents to his earnings, and to control him.

(f) For the purpose of establishing his own residence.

(g) For the purpose of buying or selling real property.

(h) For purposes of the application of Sections 300 and 601 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(i) For purposes of applying for a work permit pursuant to Section 49110 of the Education Code without the request of parents or guardian.

(j) For the purpose of ending all vicarious liability of the minor's parents or guardian for the minor's torts; provided, that nothing in this section shall affect any liability of a parent, guardian, spouse, or employer imposed by the Vehicle Code, or any vicarious liability which arises from an agency relationship.

(k) For the purpose of enrolling in any school or college.

64. (a) An emancipated minor may petition the superior court of the county in which he resides, for a declaration of emancipation. The petition shall be verified and shall set forth with specificity the facts bringing the minor within the provisions of Section 62.

(b) Before the petition is heard, such notice as the court deems reasonable must be given to the minor's parents, guardian, or other person entitled to the custody of the minor, or proof made to the court that their addresses are unknown, or that for other reasons such notice cannot be given. When a minor is a ward or dependent child of the court, notice shall be given to the probation department.

(c) The court shall sustain the petition if it finds that the minor is a person described by subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 62.

(d) If the petition is based solely upon subdivision (c) of Section 62, and the court finds that the minor is 16 years of age or older and is a person described by that subdivision, the court shall grant the petition unless, after having considered all of the evidence introduced at the hearing, it finds that granting the petition would be contrary to the best interests of the minor. If the court finds that the minor is under 16 years of age or is not a person described in subdivision (c) of Section 62, or finds that granting the petition would be contrary to the best interests of the minor, it shall deny the petition.

(e) If the petition is sustained, the court shall forthwith issue a declaration of emancipation, which shall be filed by the county clerk. Upon application of the emancipated minor, the Department of Motor Vehicles shall enter identifying information in its law enforcement computer network, and the fact of emancipation shall be stated on the department's identification cards issued to emancipated minors.

(f) If the petition is denied, the minor shall have a right to file a petition for a writ of mandate.

(g) If the petition is sustained, the parents or guardian shall have a right to file a petition for a writ of mandate if they have appeared in the proceeding and opposed the granting of the petition.

(h) A declaration shall be conclusive evidence that the minor is emancipated, but emancipation may also be proved by other evidence like any other fact.

65. (a) A minor declared emancipated under subdivision (c) of Section 64 or his conservator may petition the superior court of the county in which he resides, to rescind the declaration issued under Section 64.

(b) Before the petition is heard, such notice as the court deems reasonable must be given to the minor's parents or guardian or proof made to the court that their addresses are unknown, or that for other reasons such notice cannot be given, however, no liability shall accrue to any parent or guardian not given actual notice, as a result of rescission of the declaration of emancipation, until such parent or guardian is given actual notice.

(c) The court shall sustain the petition and rescind the declaration of emancipation if it finds that the minor is indigent and has no means of support.

(d) If the petition is sustained, the court shall forthwith issue a court order rescinding the declaration of emancipation granted under Section 64, which shall be filed by the county clerk. Notice shall be sent immediately to the Department of Motor Vehicles which shall remove the information relating to emancipation in its law enforcement computer network entered pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 64. Any identification card issued stating emancipation shall be invalidated.

(e) Rescission of the declaration of emancipation shall not alter any contractual obligations or rights or any property rights or interests which arose during the period that the declaration was in effect.

66. A person who, in good faith, has examined a minor's identification card and relies upon a minor's representation that he is emancipated, shall have the same rights and obligations as if the minor were in fact emancipated at the time of the representation.

67. The issuance of a declaration of emancipation shall not entitle the minor to any benefits under Division 9 (commencing with Section 10000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code which would not otherwise accrue to an emancipated minor.

68. No public entity or employee shall be liable for any loss or injury resulting directly or indirectly from false or inaccurate information contained in the Department of Motor Vehicles records system or identification cards as provided in this part.

CHAPTER 1060

An act to amend Section 23986 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to alcoholic beverages.

[Approved by Governor September 23, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 23986 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

23986. (a) Any applicant for an on-sale license shall cause a notice of the application, giving the name or names of the applicant and the premises where the business is to be conducted, to be published pursuant to Section 6061 of the Government Code in a newspaper of general circulation, other than a legal or professional trade publication, in the city in which the premises are situated, or if the premises are not in a city the publication shall be made in a newspaper of general circulation nearest the premises where the business is to be conducted. The form of the notice shall be prescribed by the department. Affidavit of publication shall be filed with the department prior to the issuance of any license. The department shall adopt rules and regulations to enforce the provisions of this section.

(b) Any applicant for an on-sale or off-sale license at a premises which is located in a census tract which has an undue concentration of licenses, as defined by departmental rule or regulation, shall cause a notice of the application to be published pursuant to Section 6063 of the Government Code in a newspaper of general circulation other than a legal or trade publication. Such publication shall be made in the city in which the premises is situated, or if the premises is not a city the publication shall be made in a newspaper of general circulation nearest the premises where the business is to be conducted. The form of the notice shall be prescribed by the department. Affidavit of publication shall be filed with the department prior to the issuance of any license. The department shall adopt rules and regulations to enforce the provisions of this subdivision.

CHAPTER 1061

An act to amend Section 207 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to juvenile court law, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 23, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 207 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

207. (a) No court, judge, referee, or peace officer shall knowingly detain in any jail or lockup any person under the age of 18 years, unless a judge of the juvenile court shall determine that there are no other proper and adequate facilities for the care and detention of such person, or unless such person has been transferred by the juvenile court to another court for proceedings not under the Juvenile Court Law and has been charged with or convicted of a felony. If any person under the age of 18 years is transferred by the juvenile court to another court and is charged with or convicted of a felony as herein provided and is not released pending hearing, such person may be committed to the care and custody of a sheriff, constable, or other peace officer who shall keep such person in the juvenile hall or in such other suitable place as such latter court may direct, provided that no such person shall be detained in or committed to any hospital except for medical or other remedial care and treatment or observation.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a), no minor shall be detained in any jail, lockup, juvenile hall, or other secure facility who is taken into custody solely upon the ground that he is a person described by Section 601 or adjudged to be such or made a ward of the juvenile court solely upon that ground, except as provided in subdivision (c). If any such minor, other than a minor described in subdivision (c), is detained, he shall be detained in a sheltered-care facility or crisis resolution home as provided for in Section 654, or in a nonsecure facility provided for in subdivision (a), (b), (c), or (d) of Section 727.

(c) A minor taken into custody upon the ground that he is a person described in Section 601, or adjudged to be a ward of the juvenile court solely upon that ground, may be held in a secure facility, other than a facility in which adults are held in secure custody, in any of the following circumstances:

(1) For up to 12 hours after having been taken into custody for the purpose of determining if there are any outstanding wants, warrants, or holds against the minor in cases where the arresting officer or probation officer has cause to believe that such wants, warrants, or holds exists.

(2) For up to 24 hours after having been taken into custody, in order to locate the minor's parent or guardian as soon as possible and to arrange the return of the minor to his parent or guardian.

(3) For up to 24 hours after having been taken into custody, in order to locate the minor's parent or guardian as soon as possible and to arrange the return of the minor to his parent or guardian, whose parent or guardian is a resident outside of the state wherein the minor was taken into custody, except that such period may be extended to no more than 72 hours when the return of the minor cannot reasonably be accomplished within 24 hours due to the distance of the parents or guardian from the county of custody, difficulty in locating the parents or guardian, or difficulty in locating resources necessary to provide for the return of the minor.

(d) Any minor detained in juvenile hall pursuant to subdivision (c) may not be permitted to come or remain in contact with any person detained on the basis that he has been taken into custody upon the ground that he is a person described in Section 602 or adjudged to be such or made a ward of the juvenile court upon that ground.

(e) Minors detained in juvenile hall pursuant to Sections 601 and 602 may be held in the same facility provided they are not permitted to come or remain in contact within that facility.

(e) Every county shall keep a record of each minor detained under subdivision (c), the place and length of time of such detention, and the reasons why such detention was necessary. Every county shall report, on a monthly basis, this information to the Department of the Youth Authority, on forms to be provided by that agency.

The Youth Authority shall not disclose the name of the detainee, or any personally identifying information contained in reports sent to the Youth Authority under this subdivision.

SEC. 2. The sum of one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of the Youth Authority for allocation and disbursement to local agencies for the purpose of providing financial assistance for capital costs associated with implementation of subdivision (d) of Section 207 of the Welfare and Institutions Code as amended by this act.

No allocation or disbursement, or both, may be made from the above appropriation for capital expenditures incurred under subdivision (d) of Section 207 of the Welfare and Institutions Code until the necessity for such expenditure is approved by the Department of the Youth Authority. The Department of the Youth Authority shall review all requests from counties for modification of existing facilities, the construction of new facilities, and the need for additional beds, pursuant to subdivsion (d) of Section 207 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, for purposes of determining the number of additional beds, if any, necessary to implement this section, and the reasonably necessary costs, if any, for modification or construction of such facilities.

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature in providing the appropriation contained in this act that the funds be used to assist local entities in meeting nonrecurring program costs and that such funds be considered as a one-time grant and not as reimbursement for costs incurred pursuant to Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. Further, it is the intent of the Legislature that implementation of the provisions of this act be at the option of any local entity affected and, consequently, be ineligible for reimbursement pursuant to Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

It is the intent of the Legislature that this act restores to local entities the ability to provide secure detention, under specified conditions, for persons described in Section 601 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to clarify the extensive changes made in the juvenile court law at the 1976 Regular Session of the Legislature, it is imperative that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1062

An act to add Section 49426 to the Education Code, relating to school nurses.

[Approved by Governor September 23, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 49426 is added to the Education Code, to read:

49426. A school nurse is a registered nurse currently licensed under Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 2700) of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code, and who has completed the additional educational requirements for, and possesses a current credential in, school nursing pursuant to Section 44877.

School nurses strengthen and facilitate the educational process by improving and protecting the health status of children and by identification and assistance in the removal or modification of health-related barriers to learning in individual children. The major focus of school health services is the prevention of illness and disability, and the early detection and correction of health problems. The school nurse is especially prepared and uniquely qualified in preventive health, health assessment, and referral procedures.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the scope of professional practice or otherwise to change the legal scope of practice for any registered nurse or other licensed healing arts practitioner. Rather, it is the intent of the Legislature to provide positively for the health services, many of which may be performed in the public schools only by physicians and school nurses. School nurses may perform, if authorized by the local governing board, the following services:

(a) Conduct immunization programs pursuant to Section 49403 and assure that every pupil's immunization status is in compliance with the law, including parental or guardian consent, and good health practice.

(b) Assess and evaluate the health and developmental status of pupils to identify specific physical disorders and other factors relating to the learning process, communicate with the primary care provider, and contribute significant information in order to modify the pupils' educational plans.

(c) Interpret the health and developmental assessment to parents, teachers, administrators, and other professionals directly concerned with the pupil.

(d) Design and implement a health maintenance plan to meet the individual health needs of the students, incorporating plans directed by a physician.

(e) Refer the pupil and his or her parent or guardian to appropriate community resources for necessary services.

(f) Maintain communication with parents and all involved community practitioners and agencies to promote needed treatment and secure reports of findings pertinent to educational planning.

(g) Interpret medical and nursing findings appropriate to the student's individual educational plan and make recommendations to professional personnel directly involved.

(h) Consult with, conduct in-service training to, and serve as a resource person to teachers and administrators, and act as a participant in implementing any section or sections of a comprehensive health instruction curriculum for students by providing current scientific information regarding nutrition, preventive dentistry, mental health, genetics, prevention of communicable diseases, self-health care, consumer education, and other areas of health.

(i) Counsel pupils and parents by:

(1) Assisting children and youth, parents, and school personnel in identifying and utilizing appropriate and mutually acceptable private and community health delivery services for professional care and remediation of defects.

(2) Counseling with parents, pupils and school staff regarding health-related attendance problems.

(3) Helping parents, school personnel and pupils understand and adjust to physical, mental and social limitations.

(4) Exploring with families and pupils, attitudes, information and values which affect their health behavior.

(j) Assist parents and pupils to solve financial, transportation and other barriers to needed health services.

CHAPTER 1063

An act to add Sections 42639.1 and 85239.1 to, the Education Code, relating to schools.

[Approved by Governor September 23, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 42639.1 is added to the Education Code, to read:

42639.1. The county auditor may authorize the destruction of any bill or supporting document received from a school district for purposes of Section 42639 if all of the following conditions are met:

(a) The record, paper, or document is photographed, microphotographed, or reproduced on film of a type approved for permanent photographic records by the National Bureau of Standards;

(b) The device used to reproduce such record, paper, or document on film is one which accurately reproduces the original thereof in all details; and

(c) The photographs, microphotographs, or other reproductions on film are placed in conveniently accessible files and provision is made for preserving, examining, and using the same.

SEC. 2. Section 85239.1 is added to the Education Code, to read:

85239.1. The county auditor may authorize the destruction of any bill or supporting document received from a school district for purposes of Section 85239 if all of the following conditions are met:

(a) The record, paper, or document is photographed, microphotographed, or reproduced on film of a type approved for permanent photographic records by the National Bureau of Standards;

(b) The device used to reproduce such record, paper, or document on film is one which accurately reproduces the original thereof in all details; and

(c) The photographs, microphotographs, or other reproductions on film are placed in conveniently accessible files and provision is made for preserving, examining, and using the same.

CHAPTER 1064

An act to amend Sections 44346, 44836, 45123, 87290, 87405, and 88022 of the Education Code, relating to school employees.

[Approved by Governor September 23, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 44346 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44346. (a) The commission shall deny any application for the issuance of a credential or for the renewal of a credential made by any applicant who comes within any of the following classes:

(1) Has been determined to be a sexual psychopath under the provisions of Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300), Chapter 2, Part 2, Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or under similar provisions of law of any other state.

(2) Has been convicted of any sex offense as defined in Section 44010.

(3) Has been convicted of a narcotics offense as defined in Section 44011.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (a), no person shall be denied a credential solely on the basis that he has been convicted of a crime specified in paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (a) if he has obtained a certificate of rehabilitation under Section 4852.01 and following of the Penal Code, and if his probation has been terminated and the information or accusation has been dismissed pursuant to Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code.

(c) Notwithstanding paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) or subdivision (b), the commission may issue a credential to a person convicted of a narcotics offense as defined in Section 44011 if the commission determines from the evidence presented that the person has been rehabilitated for at least five years, or has received a certificate of rehabilitation and pardon pursuant to Section 4852.01 of the Penal Code, or if the accusation or information against the person has been dismissed and he or she has been released from all disabilities and penalties resulting from the offense pursuant to Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code.

SEC. 2. Section 44836 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44836. Governing boards of school districts shall not employ or retain in employment persons in public school service who have been convicted of any sex offense as defined in Section 44010 or narcotics offense as defined in Section 44011. If, however, any such conviction is reversed and the person is acquitted of the offense in a new trial or the charges against him are dismissed, this section does not prohibit his employment thereafter.

However, a governing board may employ a person convicted of a narcotics offense in a position requiring certification qualifications if such person holds an appropriate credential issued by the Commission for Teacher Preparation and Licensing.

SEC. 3. Section 45123 of the Education Code is amended to read:

45123. No person shall be employed or retained in employment by a school district who has been convicted of any sex offense as defined in Section 44010 or narcotics offense as defined in Section 44011. If, however, any such conviction is reversed and the person is acquitted of the offense in a new trial or the charges against him are dismissed, this section does not prohibit his employment thereafter.

Further, the governing board of a school district may employ a person convicted of a narcotics offense if the governing board of the school district determines, from the evidence presented, that the person has been rehabilitated for at least five years.

The governing board shall determine the type and manner of presentation of the evidence, and the determination of the governing board as to whether or not the person has been rehabilitated is final.

SEC. 4. Section 87290 of the Education Code is amended to read:

87290. (a) The Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges shall deny any application for the issuance of a credential authorized by this article made by any applicant who comes within any of the following classes:

(1) Has been determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender under the provisions of Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300), Chapter 2, Part 2, Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or under similar provisions of law of any other state.

(2) Has been convicted of any sex offense as defined in Section 87010.

(3) Has been convicted of a narcotics offense as defined in Section 87011.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (a), no person shall be denied a credential solely on the basis that he has been convicted of a crime specified in paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (a) if he has obtained or applied for a certificate of rehabilitation under Section 4852.01 and following of the Penal Code, and if his probation has been terminated and the information or accusation has been dismissed pursuant to Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code.

(c) Notwithstanding paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) or subdivision (b), the board of governors may issue a credential to a person convicted of a narcotics offense as defined in Section 87011 if the board of governors determines from the evidence presented that the person has been rehabilitated for at least five years, or has received a certificate of rehabilitation and pardon pursuant to Section 4852.01 of the Penal Code, or if the accusation or information against the person has been dismissed and he or she has been released from all disabilities and penalties resulting from the offense pursuant to Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code.

SEC. 5. Section 87405 of the Education Code is amended to read:

87405. Governing boards of commmunity college districts shall not employ or retain in employment persons in public school service who have been convicted of any sex offense as defined in Section 87010 or narcotics offense as defined in Section 87011. If, however, any such conviction is reversed and the person is acquitted of the offense in a new trial or the charges against him are dismissed, this section does not prohibit his employment thereafter.

However, a governing board may employ a person convicted of a narcotics offense in a position requiring certification qualifications if such a person holds an appropriate credential issued by the board of governors.

SEC. 4. Section 88022 of the Education Code is amended to read:

88022. No person shall be employed or retained in employment by a community college district who has been convicted of any sex offense as defined in Section 87010 or narcotics offense as defined in Section 87011. If, however, any such conviction is reversed and the person is acquitted of the offense in a new trial or the charges against him are dismissed, this section does not prohibit his employment thereafter.

Further, the governing board of a community college district may employ a person convicted of a narcotics offense if the governing board of the district determines, from the evidence presented, that the person has been rehabilitated for at least five years.

The governing board shall determine the type and manner of presentation of the evidence, and the determination of the governing board as to whether or not the person has been rehabilitated is final.

CHAPTER 1065

An act to amend Sections 78008, 84504, 84520, 84522, 84526, and 84701 of the Education Code, relating to community colleges

[Approved by Governor September 23, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978]

1 1905 027370

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 78008 of the Education Code is amended to read:

78008. (a) The governing board of a community college district may maintain an intersession school during the period between the close of any academic semester or quarter and the beginning of the succeeding academic semester or quarter in accordance with rules and regulations of the board of governors and with the prior written approval of the board of governors.

(b) The term "academic year" as used in this section means that portion of the school year during which the regular day community college is maintained, which period must include not less than the number of days of teaching required to entitle the district to apportionments of state funds.

SEC. 2. Section 84504 of the Education Code is amended to read:

84504. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the average daily attendance of students enrolled in intersession schools shall be credited to the community college district in the fiscal year in which the last day of the intersession school falls.

SEC. 3. Section 84520 of the Education Code is amended to read:

84520. The units of average daily attendance for apportionment purposes of regularly enrolled students of a community college district during the academic year, as defined in Section 78008, and subject to the provisions of Section 78452 shall be computed by multiplying the weekly student contact hours of enrollment as recorded for the census day or days each semester or quarter by statewide factors heretofore established by the board of governors, subject to review by the Department of Finance. The census day shall be Monday of each of two census weeks of five or six consecutive days of regularly scheduled classes each term or session as approved by the board of governors.

Attendance of such students enrolled in classes conducted in intersession schools, as distinct from summer quarters, of four weeks or more shall be counted in the computation of average daily attendance for apportionment purposes under the provisions of this section using the following formula: Multiply the sum of the weekly student contact hours of enrollment in each class during the census week of each class of the intersession schools by the number of scheduled weeks for each class, multiply the product so derived by the statewide factors established by the board of governors, subject to approval by the Department of Finance, and divide by 525. The census day shall be Monday of the second week. For classes of less than four weeks, the units of average daily attendance shall be computed by dividing the total actual class hours of attendance by 525.

Attendance of a student in classes conducted in intersession school shall be reported and included in the computation of average daily attendance for apportionment purposes if, and only if, both of the following conditions are met:

(a) The student was regularly enrolled during the immediately preceding semester or quarter in a high school or in the community college district which reports such attendance; and

(b) Attendance is in a course or courses offered for credit.

The conditions imposed by this paragraph shall not be applicable to the reporting of attendance of students in classes conducted during summer intersession.

SEC. 3.5. Section 84520 of the Education Code is amended to read:

84520. Pursuant to the provisions of Section 84500, the units of average daily attendance for apportionment purposes of regularly enrolled students of a community college district during the academic year, as defined in Section 78008, and subject to the provisions of Section 78452 shall be computed by multiplying the weekly student contact hours of enrollment as recorded for the census day or days each semester or quarter by statewide factors heretofore established by the board of governors, subject to review by the Department of Finance. The census day shall be Monday of each of two census weeks of five or six consecutive days of regularly scheduled classes each term or session as approved by the board of governors.

For purposes of computing the units of average daily attendance for courses which do not have a regularly scheduled number of weekly student contact hours, one weekly student contact hour shall be counted for each unit of credit in which a student is enrolled during any census period. The nature, manner, and place of conducting courses and programs under this section shall be determined by the community college district pursuant to rules and regulations adopted by the board of governors.

Attendance of such students enrolled in classes conducted in intersession schools, as distinct from summer quarters, of four weeks or more shall be counted in the computation of average daily attendance for apportionment purposes under the provisions of this section using the following formula: Multiply the sum of the weekly student contact hours of enrollment in each class during the census week of each class of the intersession schools by the number of scheduled weeks for each class, multiply the product so derived by the statewide factors established by the board of governors, subject to approval by the Department of Finance, and divide by 525. The census day shall be Monday of the second week. For classes of less than four weeks, the units of average daily attendance shall be computed by dividing the total actual class hours of attendance by 525.

Attendance of a student in classes conducted in intersession school shall be reported and included in the computation of average daily attendance for apportionment purposes if, and only if, both of the following conditions are met:

(a) The student was regularly enrolled during the immediately preceding semester or quarter in a high school or in the community college district which reports such attendance; and

(b) Attendance is in a course or courses offered for credit.

The conditions imposed by this paragraph shall not be applicable to the reporting of attendance of students in classes conducted during summer intersession.

SEC. 4. Section 84522 of the Education Code is amended to read:

84522. The board of governors shall, with the approval of the Department of Finance, determine two census weeks for each term of the regular academic year, and a single census week for intersession schools.

The board of governors, after appropriate study, shall develop a drop date for reporting students in active attendance which shall be no later than the day prior to the beginning of the second census week in regular academic terms; and such census weeks shall be used for all apportionment purposes for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1975, and subsequent fiscal years.

In its study, the board of governors shall consider the needs of students, most particularly those who are unable to complete a term due to illness or other extenuating circumstances, while at the same time making the drop date meaningful to the measurement of average daily attendance.

In implementing the intent of this section, the board of governors shall insure that local governing boards maintain sufficient administrative flexibility to provide adequately for the academic needs of students.

Beginning with the fiscal year 1975–76, new census week or weeks factors shall be used for all computations of state apportionment.

The chancellor's office shall study and test the validity of such factors, and periodically the board of governors may make such adjustments as are necessary and as are agreed to by the Department of Finance.

SEC. 5. Section 84526 of the Education Code is amended to read:

84526. The attendance of all students not residents of a community college district enrolled in courses during the academic year shall be kept separately from all other attendance and the units of average daily attendance for such students shall be computed on an individual basis in the applicable manner prescribed in Section 84520 or Section 84524.5.

The units of average daily attendance of students who are not residents of the community college district enrolled in intersession schools and classes for adults shall be kept separately from all other attendance and be computed on an individual basis in the applicable manner prescribed in Section 84520 or Section 84524.5.

SEC. 6. Section 84701 of the Education Code is amended to read:

84701. For the purposes of this chapter, the governing board of each community college district shall report to the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges during each fiscal year the average daily attendance of the district for all full school months during (1)

1 1905 0 27480

the period between July 1st and December 31st, inclusive, to be known as the "first period" report for the first principal apportionment, and (2) the period between July 1st and April 15th, inclusive, to be known as the "second period" report for the second principal apportionment. If the average daily attendance in the regular day schools of a district for the period of time between July 1st and June 30th is greater or lesser than the average daily attendance in the regular day schools reported for the second period report, the appropriate increases and decreases in the several categories of attendance for which separate foundation programs are required to be computed shall be recomputed on the basis of the foundation program and assessed valuation of the district of the fiscal year in which such increases and decreases in average daily attendance were applicable and the appropriate increases and decreases in apportionments shall be added or withheld in the next succeeding fiscal year pursuant to Section 84330.

Each report shall be prepared in accordance with instructions on forms prescribed and furnished by the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges and average daily attendance shall be computed in the following manner:

(a) With the exception of days of attendance in special day classes convened, or other instruction provided a student for days in a school year which are in excess of the number of days in the school year on which the regular day schools of the district are convened, if the average daily attendance in schools and classes maintained by community college districts other than regular day schools and classes for the period of time between July 1st and June 30th is greater or lesser than the average daily attendance in such schools and classes reported for the second period report, the separate state support which is provided for attendance in such schools and classes shall be recomputed on the basis of the fiscal year average daily attendance, and increases and decreases in apportionments shall be added or withheld in the next succeeding fiscal year pursuant to Section 84330.

(b) The average daily attendance of each community college shall be determined pursuant to the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 84520) of Chapter 4 of this part. For community colleges under the provisions of this paragraph, the "first period" shall be the summer intersession school and the fall semester for semester system colleges, the summer and fall quarter for colleges on the three-quarter system, and the summer and fall quarters for colleges on the four-quarter system. The "second period" shall be the "academic year" which is any intersession school plus the first and second semester for semester system colleges, any intersession school plus the first and second quarters for three-quarter-system colleges and the summer, fall, and winter quarters for four-quarter-system colleges.

The "academic year" for three- or four-quarter-system colleges is reported on the annual report and adjustments shall be made as set forth in the first paragraph of this session.

(c) The average daily attendance in intersession schools and outdoor science and conservation education classes maintained in accordance with subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 78008 shall be reported on both the first period and second period reports. The hours of attendance shall be divided by 525 for all classes of less than four weeks duration. For intersession schools of four weeks or more, average daily attendance shall be computed as provided in Section 84520.

(d) The days of attendance in classes for adults maintained after the last full school month of the second period of the preceding year and prior to the end of each reporting period shall be reported on each report.

SEC. 7. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Senate Bill No. 941 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 84520 of the Education Code, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 941, that the amendments to Section 84520 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 84520 in the form set forth in Section 3.5 of this act. Therefore, Section 3.5 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Senate Bill No. 941 are both chaptered and become effective Janaury 1, 1979, both amend Section 84520, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 941, in which case Section 3 of this act shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1066

An act to add Section 6709 to the Government Code, relating to Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Day.

[Approved by Governor September 23, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6709 is added to the Government Code, to read:

6709. The governor shall proclaim January 15 to be known hereafter as Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Day.

CHAPTER 1067

An act relating to inundation maps, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 23, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of twenty-four thousand forty-nine dollars and thirty-three cents ($24,049.33) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Controller for disbursement to reimburse local agencies for costs incurred in the preparation of inundation maps pursuant to Section 8589.5 of the Government Code, in accordance with the following schedule:

(a) Merced Irrigation District	$10,000.00
(b) County of Fresno	3,311.59
(c) Nevada Irrigation District	5,820.09
(d) San Bernardino Valley Municipal Water District	4,917.65

SEC. 2. The funds to be reimbursed pursuant to this act shall be paid by the State Controller upon presentation of claims and satisfactory evidence of costs incurred by the local agencies in the preparation of inundation maps pursuant to Section 8589.5 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 1068

An act to amend, add and repeal Section 8836 of the Government Code, relating to public broadcasting, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immmediately.

[Approved by Governor September 23, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8836 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8836. The commission shall annually divide the total amount, less the commission's necessary administrative expenses, available from the California Public Broadcasting Fund for distribution to public broadcasting stations into three accounts, a television account to be used for television purposes, a radio account to be used for radio purposes, and a discretionary account to be used for radio or television purposes, or for both radio and television purposes, as the commission deems necessary. The television account shall be allocated no less than 70 percent of the amount available, the radio account shall be allocated no less than 15 percent of the amount available, and the balance shall be allocated to the discretionary account.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1981, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 8836 is added to the Government Code, to read:

8836. The commission shall annually divide the total amount, less the commission's necessary administrative expenses, available from the California Public Broadcasting Fund for distribution to public broadcasting stations into two accounts, one to be used for television purposes, and one to be used for radio purposes. The account used for television purposes shall be allocated 83.25 percent of the amount available and the account used for radio purposes shall be allocated 16.75 percent of the amount available.

This section shall become operative on January 1, 1981.

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature that the amendments to Section 8836 of the Government Code which are made by Section 1 of this act shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1981, and on that date Section 2 of this act shall become operative to restore Section 8836 to the form in which it read immediately prior to the effective date of this act.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to allow the California Public Broadcasting Commission the flexibility it needs to meet existing grant commitments and offer emergency assistance to public broadcasting stations, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1069

An act to add Article 4 (commencing with Section 2037) to Chapter 3 of Title 3 of Part 4 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to discovery.

[Approved by Governor September 23, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 4 (commencing with Section 2037) is added to Chapter 3 of Title 3 of Part 4 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

Article 4. Discovery of Expert Witnesses

2037. (a) Not later than the 10th day after a trial date is selected or 70 days prior to the date set for the commencement of trial, whichever is later, any party may file and serve on any party a demand to exchange lists of expert witnesses. Thereafter, the court may, upon noticed motion and a showing of good cause, permit any party to serve such a demand upon any other party.

The demand shall include a statement in substantially the following form:

"You are requested to serve and deposit with the clerk of court a list of expert witnesses in compliance with Section 2037 of the Code of Civil Procedure not later than the date of exchange thereby established. Except as otherwise provided in that article, your failure to do so will constitute a waiver of your right to call unlisted expert witnesses at the trial."

2037.1. For the purposes of this article, the "date of exchange" for the exchange of lists of expert witnesses shall be 20 days after the date of service of the demand on the party or 50 days prior to the date set for commencement of the trial, whichever is later.

2037.2. (a) Not later than the date of exchange:

(1) Each party who served a demand and each party upon whom a demand was served shall deposit with the clerk of the court their list of expert witnesses.

(2) A party who served a demand shall serve his list upon each party on whom he served his demand.

(3) Each party on whom a demand was served shall serve his list upon the party who served the demand.

(b) The clerk of the court shall make an entry in the register of actions for each list of expert witnesses deposited with him pursuant to this article. The lists shall not be filed in the proceeding, but the clerk shall make them available to the court at the commencement of the trial for the limited purpose of enabling the court to apply the provisions of this article. Unless the court otherwise orders, the clerk shall, at the conclusion of the trial, return all lists to the attorneys for the parties who deposited them. Lists ordered by the court to be retained may thereafter be destroyed or otherwise disposed of in accordance with the provisions of law governing the destruction or disposition of exhibits introduced in the trial.

2037.3. Each witness list shall include the name and business or residence address of each expert witness whom the party expects to call in person or through deposition and a brief narrative statement of the qualifications of such witnesses and the general substance of the testimony which the witness is expected to give.

2037.4. A party who is required to exchange lists of witnesses shall diligently give notice to the parties upon whom his list was served if, after service of his list he determines to call an expert witness not included in his list, and a party shall make available for deposition such expert witnesses as he has determined to call.

2037.6. (a) The court may, upon such terms as may be just (including but not limited to continuing the trial for a reasonable period of time and awarding costs and litigation expenses), permit a party to call a witness, or permit a witness called by a party to testify to an opinion or data on direct examination, during the party's case in chief where such witness, is required to be, but is not, included in such party's list of expert witnesses so long as the court finds that such party has made a good faith effort to comply with Sections 2037 through 2037.3, inclusive, that he has complied with Section 2037.4, and that as of the date of exchange he:

(1) Would not in the exercise of reasonable diligence have determined to call such witness; or

(2) Failed to determine to call such witness through mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect.

(b) In making a determination under this section, the court shall take into account the extent to which the opposing party has relied upon the list of expert witnesses and will be prejudiced if the witness is called.

2037.7. Any other provision of law notwithstanding, any party desiring to take the deposition of a person retained as an expert by another party to a case, shall pay the expert a reasonable fee not exceeding his customary hourly or daily fee for the time reasonably and necessarily spent in connection with such deposition including time spent in travel to and from the deposition, but excluding time spent in preparation. A fee based upon the anticipated length of the deposition shall be tendered to the expert. In the event the examination and necessary cross-examination of the expert takes longer than originally anticipated, the balance of the fee due the expert shall be paid by the party who noticed the deposition within five days of receipt of an itemized statement from the expert.

2037.8. (a) Upon the motion of any party or the expert witness, the court shall have the power to issue protective orders with respect to any matter under this title to protect the party or witness from annoyance, embarrassment, or oppression and to determine the reasonableness of fees claimed under Section 2037.7.

(b) Upon motion of any party or the expert witness, the court shall fix the compensation of the expert witness and shall order payment thereof by the party who noticed the deposition.

2037.9. This article does not apply to eminent domain proceedings.

CHAPTER 1070

An act to amend Section 12975.7 of, and to add and repeal Article 5 (commencing with Section 12990) to Division 3 of, the Insurance Code, relating to insurance fraud, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 23, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12975.7 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

12975.7. Except as provided in Sections 12975.1 and 12994, all moneys received by the commissioner pursuant to this code shall be transmitted to the State Treasurer to be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the Insurance Fund. The money in the Insurance Fund received from the commissioner pursuant to this section is hereby appropriated as follows:

(a) To pay the refunds authorized by this code.

(b) The balance of the money in the fund shall, on order of the Controller, be transferred to the State General Fund.

SEC. 2. Article 5 (commencing with Section 12990) is added to Division 3 of the Insurance Code, to read:

Article 5. Bureau of Fraudulent Claims

12990. There is created within the Division of Consumer Affairs of the department a Bureau of Fraudulent Claims to enforce the provisions of Section 556 of this Code.

12991. (a) If by its own inquiries or as a result of complaints, the Bureau of Fraudulent Claims has reason to believe that a person has engaged in, or is engaging in, an act or practice that violates Section 556, the commissioner in his discretion (1) may make such public or private investigations within or outside of this state as he deems necessary to determine whether any person has violated or is about to violate any provision of Section 556, or to aid in the enforcement of this law, and (2) may publish information concerning any violation of this law.

(b) For purposes of any investigation under this law, the commissioner or any officer designated by him may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, agreements, or other documents or records which the commissioner deems relevant or material to the inquiry, as provided by the provisions of Section 12924.

(c) If matter that the commissioner seeks to obtain by request is located outside the state, the person so requested may make it available to the commissioner or his representative to be examined at the place where it is located. The commissioner may designate representatives including officials of the state in which the matter is located, to inspect the matter on his behalf, and he may respond to similar requests from officials of other states.

(d) Except as provided in subdivision (e), the department's papers, documents, reports or evidence relative to the subject of an investigation under this section shall not be subject to public inspection for so long a period as the commissioner deems reasonably necessary to complete the investigation, to protect the person investigated from unwarranted injury, or to serve the public interest. Furthermore, such papers, documents, reports or evidence shall not be subject to subpoena or subpoena duces tecum until opened for public inspection by the commissioner, unless the commissioner otherwise consents or, after notice to the commissioner and a hearing, the superior court determines that the public interest and any ongoing investigation by the commissioner would not be unnecessarily jeopardized by obeyance of such a subpoena or subpoena duces tecum.

(e) The Bureau of Fraudulent Claims shall furnish all papers, documents, reports, complaints, or other facts or evidence to any police, sheriff or other law enforcement agency, when so requested, and will assist and cooperate with such law enforcement agencies.

12992. (a) Any company licensed to write insurance in this state which believes that a fraudulent claim is being made shall, within 60 days after determination by the insurer that the claim appears to be a fraudulent claim, send to the Bureau of Fraudulent Claims, on a form prescribed by the department, the information requested by the form and such additional information relative to the factual circumstances of the claim and the parties claiming loss or damages as the commissioner may require. The Bureau of Fraudulent Claims shall review each report and undertake such further investigation as it deems necessary and proper to determine the validity of the allegations. Whenever the commissioner is satisfied that fraud, deceit, or intentional misrepresentation of any kind has been committed in the submission of the claim, he shall report any such violations of law to the insurer, to the appropriate licensing agency and the district attorney of the county in which such offenses were committed, as provided by the provisions of Sections 12928 and 12930. If the commissioner is satisfied that fraud, deceit, or intentional misrepresentation has not been committed, he shall report such determination to the insurer. If prosecution by the district attorney concerned is not begun within 60 days of the receipt of the commissioner's report, the district attorney shall inform the commissioner and the insurer as to the reasons for the lack of prosecution regarding the reported violations.

(b) This section shall not require an insurer to submit to the bureau the information specified in subdivision (a) in either of the following:

(1) The insurer's initial investigation indicated a potentially fraudulent claim but which further investigation revealed not to be fraudulent.

(2) The insurer and the claimant have reached agreement as to the amount of the claim and the insurer does not have reasonable grounds to believe the claim to be fraudulent.

(c) Nothing contained in this article shall relieve an insurer of its existing obligations to also report suspected violations of law to appropriate local law enforcement agencies.

(d) Any police, sheriff or other law enforcement agency shall furnish all papers, documents, reports, complaints, or other facts or evidence to the Bureau of Fraudulent Claims, when so requested, and shall otherwise assist and cooperate with the bureau.

12993. No insurer, or the employees or agents of any insurer, shall be subject to civil liability for libel, slander or any other relevant tort cause of action by virtue of the filing of reports, without malice, or furnishing other information, without malice, required by this article or required by the commissioner under the authority granted in this article.

12994. Nothing contained in this article shall preempt the authority of local law enforcement agencies to investigate and prosecute suspected violations of law nor shall it relieve them of their duty to do so.

12995. All costs of administration and operation of the Bureau of Fraudulent Claims shall be borne by all of the insurers admitted to transact insurance in this state. The commissioner shall divide such costs among all such companies, assessing each such company an identical amount adequate to provide the total cost of each fiscal year of operation of the bureau; provided, however, the assessment for each company shall not exceed five hundred dollars ($500) in each fiscal year. All moneys received by the commissioner pursuant to this section shall be transmitted to the State Treasurer to be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the Insurance Commissioner's Regulatory Trust Fund, which shall be created for this purpose. All moneys in such fund received from the commissioner pursuant to this section are hereby appropriated to the department and are to be exclusively used for the support of the Bureau of Fraudulent Claims. The total budget of the bureau shall be as determined annually in the budget act.

12996. For purposes of this article, "insurer" means any person who undertakes to indemnify another against loss, damage, or liability arising from a contingent or unknown event, including reciprocals and interinsurance exchanges.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this act shall remain in effect until January 1, 1984, and on such date is repealed.

SEC. 4. No appropriation is made by this act, nor is any obligation created thereby under Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, for the reimbursement of any local agency for any costs that may be incurred by it in carrying on any program or performing any service required to be carried on or performed by it by this act.

CHAPTER 1071

An act to amend Section 20605 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to tax accounts.

[Approved by Governor September 23, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20605 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

20605. (a) The postponement of property taxes pursuant to this chapter shall not affect the obligation of a borrower to continue to make payments to a lender with respect to an impound, trust, or other type of account described in Section 2954 of the Civil Code which was established prior to the effective date of subdivision (b).

(b) Except where required by federal law or regulation and notwithstanding Sections 7153.2 and 7153.5 of the Financial Code, or in the case of a loan which is made, guaranteed, or insured by a federal governmental lending or insuring agency requiring the borrower to make payments to a lender with respect to an impound, trust, or other type of account described in Section 2954 of the Civil Code, or where this subdivision would impair the obligations of a loan agreement executed prior to the effective date of this subdivision, no lender shall require a borrower to maintain an impound, trust or other type of account with regard to taxes once such borrower has elected to postpone such taxes pursuant to this chapter and has first submitted to such lender evidence of tax postponement. Any payments made by such borrower, prior to the time of submission of such evidence of tax postponement, to such an impound, trust or other type of account with regard to taxes for any such period, if not previously used in payment or partial payment of such taxes, shall be refunded to such borrower within thirty days thereafter.

CHAPTER 1072

An act to amend Sections 1145 and 1149 of the Labor Code, relating to the Agricultural Labor Relations Act.

[Approved by Governor September 23, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1145 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

1145. The board may appoint an executive secretary and such attorneys, hearing officers, administrative law officers, and other employees as it may from time to time find necessary for the proper performance of its duties. Attorneys appointed pursuant to this section may, at the discretion of the board, appear for and represent the board in any case in court. All employees appointed by the board shall perform their duties in an objective and impartial manner without prejudice toward any party subject to the jurisdiction of the board.

SEC. 2. Section 1149 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

1149. There shall be a general counsel of the board who shall be appointed by the Governor, subject to confirmation by a majority of the Senate, for a term of four years. The general counsel shall have the power to appoint such attorneys, administrative assistants, and other employees as necessary for the proper exercise of his duties. The general counsel of the board shall exercise general supervision over all attorneys employed by the board (other than administrative law officers and legal assistants to board members), and over the officers and employees in the regional offices. He shall have final authority, on behalf of the board, with respect to the investigation of charges and issuance of complaints under Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 1160) of this part, and with respect to the prosecution of such complaints before the board. He shall have such other duties as the board may prescribe or as may be provided by law. All employees appointed by the general counsel shall perform their duties in an objective and impartial manner without prejudice toward any party subject to the jurisdiction of the board. In case of a vacancy in the office of the general counsel, the Governor is authorized to designate the officer or employee who shall act as general counsel during such vacancy, but no person or persons so designated shall so act either (1) for more than 40 days when the Legislature is in session unless a nomination to fill such vacancy shall have been submitted to the Senate, or (2) after the adjournment sine die of the session of the Senate in which such nomination was submitted.

CHAPTER 1073

An act to amend Sections 44253.5 and 52178 of the Education Code, relating to school certificated employees, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 23, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 44253.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44253.5. The Commission for Teacher Preparation and Licensing shall grant certificates of bilingual-crosscultural competence. The purpose of these certificates is to increase the number of persons qualified to provide appropriate bilingual-crosscultural instruction to children whose native language is other than English and who are non- or limited-English speaking. The Commission for Teacher Preparation and Licensing shall also develop an assessment program which will provide a method by which persons holding valid teaching credentials may demonstrate their competence as bilingual-crosscultural teachers without additional postsecondary education coursework. These certificates shall certify, as a minimum, the following:

(a) That the person is competent in both the oral and written skills of a language other than English;

(b) That the person has both the knowledge and understanding of the cultural and historical heritage of the students whose native language is other than English;

(c) That the person successfully can teach the basic teaching authorization in English and in a language other than English. The holder of this certificate is authorized to teach students whose native language is other than English.

The Commission for Teacher Preparation and Licensing shall require institutions of higher education to use the same rigorous assessment procedures as the assessor agencies prior to being eligible to recommend individuals for the certificate of bilingual-crosscultural competence.

SEC. 2. Section 52178 of the Education Code is amended to read:

52178. All principal teachers providing instruction in programs defined by subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of Section 52163 shall be bilingual-crosscultural teachers as defined pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 52163, or shall be bilingual in English and the primary language of the limited-English-speaking pupils in the bilingual class and hold an internship credential or an emergency bilingual-crosscultural credential.

In recognition of the shortage of qualified bilingual-crosscultural teachers, a school district may request a renewable one-year waiver from the board for each teacher who is not bilingual-crosscultural but who is enrolled and participating in a program leading to a certificate of competence for bilingual-crosscultural instruction pursuant to Section 44253.5. Such a teacher, with the assistance of a bilingual-crosscultural aide, may teach in a program of bilingual instruction mandated by Section 52165 for not more than three school years commencing September 1977.

Each school district which requests waivers for the 1977–78 or 1978–79, or 1979–80 school year shall file its application for such a waiver with the State Board of Education on or before October 1 of the appropriate year, and shall give assurance that all teachers receiving such a waiver will be participating in an appropriate program leading to a certificate of competence for bilingual-crosscultural instruction pursuant to Section 44253.5 during the school year for which the waiver is granted, and shall state who is in charge of the program and which institution or district is conducting it. The district shall further assure that all teachers receiving such a waiver have been notified in writing by the school board as to their obligations while under waiver. The waiver application shall list the names of the teachers who are to receive the waiver, the school to which they are assigned, and the date by which the teacher is expected to obtain the certificate of competence. If a district hires new teachers, no waiver shall be granted unless the board finds that the district made a good faith effort to recruit and hire bilingual-crosscultural teachers including contacting the bilingual-crosscultural teachers annually listed by the Commission for Teacher Preparation and Licensing and contacting and requesting assistance from the clearinghouse maintained by the commission pursuant to Section 10106.

All waivers granted pursuant to this section shall expire not later than September 1, 1980. After September 1, 1979, only those teachers who have satisfied the competence requirement of subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 44253.5 shall be eligible for a waiver.

No teacher employed after January 1, 1978, to teach in programs defined by subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of Section 52163 shall be eligible for a waiver unless such teacher has satisfied the competence requirement of subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 44253.5.

All waiver applications submitted for the 1979–80 school year shall include a certification by an assessor agency approved by the Commission for Teacher Preparation and Licensing, that the applicant teacher has satisfied the competence requirement of subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 44253.5.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In recognition of the fact that there are insufficient numbers of fully certificated bilingual-crosscultural teachers to meet the needs of limited-English-speaking public school students in the 1978–79, and 1979–80 school years, it is necessary to phase in the requirement that such teachers be provided by all school districts where they are needed, and therefore, it is essential that this act take immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1074

An act making an appropriation to pay the claims of the Secretary of the State Board of Control, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 23, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 25, 1978.]

I am reducing the General Fund appropriation contained in Assembly Bill No 2407 from $1,494,632 47 to $1,479,632 47 by deleting claim #802 for the Eastern Fire District

This claim in question constitutes payment for services that were the legal responsibility of the fire district under the mutual aid agreement

With this reduction, I approve Assembly Bill No. 2407

EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of two million four hundred thirty-two thousand eight hundred thirty-two dollars and fifty-nine cents ($2,432,832.59) is hereby appropriated from the funds indicated to the State Board of Control to pay the claims of the Secretary of the State Board of Control:

Total	$2,432,832.59

SEC. 2. After January 1, 1979, the Board of Control shall award out-of-class employee claims for a period no greater than one year preceding the filing of a grievance.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to settle claims against the state and ending a hardship to claimants as quickly as possible, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1075

An act to amend Sections 30008, 30114, 30210, 30212, 30312, 30314, 30413, 30500, 30501, 30518, 30604, 30610, 30621, 30624, and 31152 of, and to add Sections 21080.9, 30310.5, 30340.5, and 30340.6 to, the Public Resources Code, and to repeal Section 16 of Chapter 1330 of the Statutes of 1976, as amended by Chapter 1331 of the Statutes of 1976, relating to the California coastal resources, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 21080.9 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

21080.9. This division shall not apply to activities and approvals by any local government, as defined in Section 30109, necessary for the preparation and adoption of a local coastal program pursuant to Division 20 (commencing with Section 30000); provided, however, that certification of a local coastal program by the California Coastal Commission pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 30500) of Division 20 shall be subject to the requirements of this division. For the purpose of Section 21080.5, a certified local coastal program constitutes a plan for use in the California Coastal Commission's regulatory program.

SEC. 2. Section 30008 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

30008. This division shall constitute California's coastal zone management program within the coastal zone for purposes of the Federal Coastal Zone Management Act of 1972 (16 U.S.C. 1451, et seq.) and any other federal act heretofore or hereafter enacted or amended that relates to the planning or management of coastal zone resources; provided, however, that within federal lands excluded from the coastal zone pursuant to the Federal Coastal Zone Management Act of 1972, the State of California shall, consistent with applicable federal and state laws, continue to exercise the full range of powers, rights, and privileges it now possesses or which may be granted.

SEC. 3. Section 30114 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

30114. "Public works" means the following:

(a) All production, storage, transmission, and recovery facilities for water, sewerage, telephone, and other similar utilities owned or operated by any public agency or by any utility subject to the jurisdiction of the Public Utilities Commission, except for energy facilities.

(b) All public transportation facilities, including streets, roads, highways, public parking lots and structures, ports, harbors, airports, railroads, and mass transit facilities and stations, bridges, trolley wires, and other related facilities. For purposes of this division, neither the Ports of Hueneme, Long Beach, Los Angeles, nor San Diego Unified Port District nor any of the developments within these ports shall be considered public works.

(c) All publicly financed recreational facilities, all projects of the State Coastal Conservancy, and any development by a special district.

(d) All community college facilities.

SEC. 4. Section 30210 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

30210. In carrying out the requirement of Section 4 of Article X of the California Constitution, maximum access, which shall be conspicuously posted, and recreational opportunities shall be provided for all the people consistent with public safety needs and the need to protect public rights, rights of private property owners, and natural resource areas from overuse.

SEC. 5. Section 30310.5 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

30310.5. No provision of this division or any other law, including any doctrine of common law, shall preclude or prevent the appointment, as a public member, to the commission or any regional commission of any person who is not a locally elected official.

SEC. 6. Section 30212 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

30212. Public access from the nearest public roadway to the shoreline and along the coast shall be provided in new development projects except where (1) it is inconsistent with public safety, military security needs, or the protection of fragile coastal resources, (2) adequate access exists nearby, or (3) agriculture would be adversely affected. Dedicated accessway shall not be required to be opened to public use until a public agency or private association agrees to accept responsibility for maintenance and liability of the accessway.

Nothing in this division shall restrict public access nor shall it excuse the performance of duties and responsibilities of public agencies which are required by Sections 66478.1 to 66478.14, inclusive, of the Government Code and by Section 4 of Article X of the California Constitution.

SEC. 6.5. Section 30312 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

30312. The terms of office of commission and regional commission members shall be as follows:

(a) Any person qualified for membership because he or she holds a specified office as a locally elected official shall serve at the pleasure of his or her selecting or appointing authority; provided, however, that such membership shall cease when his or her term of office as a locally elected official ceases.

(b) Any member appointed by the Governor, the Senate Rules Committee, or the Speaker of the Assembly shall serve for two years at the pleasure of their appointing power, provided that such members may continue to serve beyond the two-year term until their appointing power has acted and the appointee is authorized to sit and serve on the commission or regional commission, as the case may be. Such members may be reappointed for succeeding two-year periods.

(c) Members of the commission who are representatives of a regional commission shall serve on the commission at the pleasure of the regional commission.

SEC. 7. Section 30314 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

30314. Except as provided in this section, members or alternates of the commission or any regional commission shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties to the extent that reimbursement for such expenses is not otherwise provided or payable by another public agency or agencies, and shall receive fifty dollars ($50) for each full day of attending meetings of the commission or of any regional commission. In addition, members or alternates of the commission shall receive twelve dollars and fifty cents ($12.50) for each hour actually spent in preparation for a commission meeting; provided, however, that for each meeting no more than eight hours of preparation time shall be compensated as provided herein.

An alternate shall be entitled to payment and reimbursement for the necessary expenses incurred in participating in regional commission or commission meetings; provided, however, that only the member or his or her alternate shall receive such payment and reimbursement, and if both the member and alternate prepare for, in the case of alternates to the commission, attend, and participate in any portion of a regional commission or commission meeting, only the alternate shall be entitled to such payment and reimbursement.

For the purposes of this section, "full day of attending a meeting" means presence at, and participation in, not less than 60 percent of the total meeting time of the commission or regional commission during any particular 24-hour period.

SEC. 8. Section 30340.5 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

30340.5. (a) It is the policy of the state that no less than 50 percent of funds received by the state from the federal government pursuant to the Federal Coastal Zone Management Act of 1972 (16 U.S.C. 1451, et seq.), shall be used for the preparation, review, approval, certification, and implementation of local coastal programs.

(b) Any local government subject to the provisions of this division may claim reimbursement of costs incurred as a direct result of the operation of or any requirement promulgated pursuant to this division. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, claims for reimbursement of mandated costs directly attributable to the operation of this division shall only be submitted, reviewed and approved in the manner set forth in this section.

(c) Claims pursuant to this section shall be submitted to the executive director of the commission no later than August 31, except that in 1978 such claim shall be submitted to the executive director of the commission no later than October 31. The executive director shall review such claims in accordance with the provisions of this section and shall submit all such claims to the Controller within 60 days after receipt of a claim but in no event later than October 31, provided however, that in 1978 such claims shall be submitted to the Controller no later than December 31.

(d) All claims submitted pursuant to this section shall be filed on forms approved and prepared by the commission in consultation with the Controller. Such forms shall specify the information needed to enable the executive director of the commission and the controller to make the determinations required by subdivision (e). The forms shall clearly set forth information requirements for the evaluation of the following categories of costs:

(1) Costs for work relating to the preparation, review, and approval of local coastal programs or any portion thereof.

(2) Costs for work which is not covered by paragraph (1).

The claim forms required by this section shall provide for claims of actual costs incurred during the fiscal year preceding submittal and for the costs the claimant local government estimates will be incurred during the then current fiscal year.

(e) The executive director shall review and evaluate each claim submitted pursuant to this section and shall determine whether:

(1) The costs claimed are not paid for or reimbursed from any other source of state or federal funding.

(2) The costs are for work which is the direct result of and is mandated by the operation of this division or by the commission or whether the work is optional.

(3) With respect to costs specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (d), the work done or to be done is reasonable and necessary for the preparation and approval of a local coastal program pursuant to a local coastal program work program approved by the commission, or for work which is not part of an approved work program if such work can be shown to be necessary for the completion of a certifiable local coastal program or if new information or other circumstances cause the commission to require that such work be carried out.

(f) The executive director of the commission shall submit to the Controller, on behalf of each claimant local government, all claims submitted pursuant to this section together with his or her recommendation whether the Controller should allow or deny, in whole or in part, the claim. The executive director's recommendation shall be based on his or her determinations made pursuant to subdivision (e). If the executive director fails to make a recommendation by the time claims must be submitted to the Controller as provided in subdivision (c), the executive director shall be deemed to have recommended approval of the claim.

(g) The provisions of Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code shall apply to claims filed pursuant to this section, provided however, where a conflict between Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code and this section occurs, such conflict shall be resolved in a manner that best carries out the purposes of this section. The Controller shall apply the criteria of subdivision (e) in determining whether to allow or deny, in whole or in part, any such claim and shall consider the recommendations of the executive director of the commission.

SEC. 9. Section 30340.6 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

30340.6. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature that all costs mandated by the operation of this division be paid either with state or federal funds or both. The Legislature hereby declares that Section 30340.5 is designed to ensure that local governments are paid for legitimate claims for costs mandated by this division or the commission, costs for work which is not optional, and costs which are not otherwise reimbursed.

(b) In the event a claimed mandated cost has been approved by the Controller pursuant to Section 30340.5 and the Legislature fails to appropriate the funds to pay such claims by special legislation or in the annual state budget for the fiscal year following approval of such claims by the Controller, except the date specified in Section 30518, any dates specified in this division or by order of the commission for the submission of a local coastal program or any portion thereof or for the performance of any task or duty by a claimant local government whose approved claim has not been paid shall, at the request of such claimant local government, be postponed by the number of years elapsing between such specified date and the year in which the funds to pay the approved claim are provided.

(c) The provisions of subdivision (b) shall not apply to any local government if the Legislature determines that such local government's claim should not be paid because such claim is not of the type intended to be subject to reimbursement pursuant to Section 30340.5.

SEC. 10. Section 30413 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

30413. (a) In addition to the provisions set forth in subdivision (f) of Section 30241, and in Sections 25302, 25500, 25507, 25508, 25510, 25514, 25516.1, 25523, and 25526, the provisions of this section shall apply to the commission and the State Energy Resources

Conservation and Development Commission with respect to matters within the statutory responsibility of the latter.

(b) The commission shall, prior to January 1, 1978, and after one or more public hearings, designate those specific locations within the coastal zone where the location of a facility as defined in Section 25110 would prevent the achievement of the objectives of this division; provided, however, that specific locations that are presently used for such facilities and reasonable expansion thereof shall not be so designated. Each such designation shall include a description of the boundaries of such locations, the objectives of this division which would be so affected, and detailed findings concerning the significant adverse impacts that would result from development of a facility in the designated area. The commission shall consider the conclusions, if any, reached by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission in its most recently promulgated comprehensive report issued pursuant to Section 25309. The commission shall transmit a copy of its report prepared pursuant to this subdivision to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission.

(c) The commission, after it completes its initial designations in 1978, shall, prior to January 1, 1980, and once every two years thereafter, revise and update the designations specified in subdivision (b) of this section. Such revisions shall be effective on January 1, 1980, or on January 1 of the first even-numbered year following adoption of the revisions. The provisions of subdivision (b) of this section shall not apply to any sites and related facilities specified in any notice of intention to file an application for certification filed with the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission pursuant to Section 25502 prior to designation of additional locations made by the commission pursuant to this subdivision.

(d) Whenever the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission exercises its siting authority and undertakes proceedings pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 25500) of Division 15 with respect to any thermal powerplant or transmission line to be located, in whole or in part, within the coastal zone, the commission shall participate in such proceedings and shall receive from the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission any notice of intention to file an application for certification of a site and related facilities within the coastal zone. The commission shall analyze each notice of intent and shall, prior to completion of the preliminary report required by Section 25510, forward to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission a written report on the suitability of the proposed site and related facilities specified in such notice of intent. The commission's report shall contain a consideration of, and findings regarding, all of the following:

(1) The compatibility of the proposed site and related facilities with the goal of protecting coastal resources.

(2) The degree to which the proposed site and related facilities would conflict with other existing or planned coastal-dependent land uses at or near the site.

(3) The potential adverse effects that the proposed site and related facilities would have on aesthetic values.

(4) The potential adverse environmental effects on fish and wildlife and their habitats.

(5) The conformance of the proposed site and related facilities with certified local coastal programs in those jurisdictions which would be affected by any such development.

(6) The degree to which the proposed site and related facilities could reasonably be modified so as to mitigate potential adverse effects on coastal resources, minimize conflict with existing or planned coastal-dependent uses at or near the site, and promote the policies of this division.

(7) Such other matters as the commission deems appropriate and necessary to carry out the provisions of this division.

(e) The commission may, at its discretion, participate fully in other proceedings conducted by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission pursuant to its powerplant siting authority. In the event the commission participates in any public hearings held by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, it shall be afforded full opportunity to present evidence and examine and cross-examine witnesses.

(f) The State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission shall forward a copy of all reports it distributes pursuant to Sections 25302 and 25306 to the commission and the commission shall, with respect to any report that relates to the coastal zone or coastal zone resources, comment on such reports, and shall in its comments include a discussion of the desirability of particular areas within the coastal zone as designated in such reports for potential powerplant development. The commission may propose alternate areas for powerplant development within the coastal zone and shall provide detailed findings to support the suggested alternatives.

SEC. 11. Section 30500 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

30500. (a) Each local government lying, in whole or in part, within the coastal zone shall prepare a local coastal program for that portion of the coastal zone within its jurisdiction. However, any such local government may request the commission to prepare a local coastal program, or a portion thereof for the local government; provided, such request is submitted to the commission, in writing, not later than July 1, 1979. Each local coastal program prepared pursuant to this chapter shall contain a specific public access component to assure that maximum public access to the coast and public recreation areas is provided.

(b) Amendments to a local general plan for the purpose of developing a certified local coastal program shall not constitute an amendment of a general plan for purposes of Section 65361 of the Government Code.

(c) The precise content of each local coastal program shall be determined by the local government, consistent with Section 30501, in full consultation with the commission and an appropriate regional commission, and with full public participation.

SEC. 12. Section 30501 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

30501. The commission shall, within 90 days after January 1, 1977, adopt, after public hearing, procedures for the preparation, submission, approval, appeal, certification, and amendment of any local coastal program, including, but not limited to, all of the following:

(a) A common methodology for the preparation of, and the determination of the scope of, the local coastal programs, taking into account the fact that local governments have differing needs and characteristics.

(b) A schedule for the processing of all local coastal programs and specific guidelines to be followed by each regional commission in establishing, within 30 days after the commission has adopted such guidelines, its own schedule for processing local coastal programs within its region; however, in no event shall a local coastal program that is prepared by a local government be required to be submitted to any regional commission prior to July 1, 1978, or later than January 1, 1981.

Local coastal programs or portions thereof, prepared by the commission shall be completed not later than December 1, 1980, and certified not later than June 1, 1981.

(c) Recommended uses that are of more than local importance that should be considered in the preparation of local coastal programs. Such uses may be listed generally or the commission may, from time to time, recommend specific uses for consideration by any local government.

SEC. 13. Section 30518 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

30518. If a local coastal program has not been certified and all implementing devices become effective on or before July 1, 1981, the commission may take any of the following actions, if it finds that, in the absence of a certified local coastal program, any new development in the coastal zone within the jurisdiction of the affected local government would not be consistent with the policies of this division:

(a) Prohibit or otherwise restrict, by regulation, the affected local government from issuing any permit or any type of entitlement for use for any development with the coastal zone, or any portion thereof, of such local government.

(b) By regulation, extend the permit requirements of Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 30600) by requiring a permit from the commission for any development within any area of the coastal zone under the jurisdiction of the affected local government.

SEC. 14. Section 30604 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

30604. (a) Prior to certification of the local coastal program, a coastal development permit shall be issued if the issuing agency, or the commission on appeal, finds that the proposed development is in conformity with the provisions of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 30200) of this division and that the permitted development will not prejudice the ability of the local government to prepare a local coastal program that is in conformity with the provisions of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 30200). A denial of a coastal development permit on grounds it would prejudice the ability of the local government to prepare a local coastal program that is in conformity with the provisions of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 30200) shall be accompanied by a specific finding which sets forth the basis for such conclusion.

(b) After certification of the local coastal program a coastal development permit shall be issued if the issuing agency or the commission on appeal finds that the proposed development is in conformity with the certified local coastal program.

(c) Every coastal development permit issued for any development between the nearest public road and the sea or the shoreline of any body of water located within the coastal zone shall include a specific finding that such development is in conformity with the public access and public recreation policies of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 30200).

(d) No development or any portion thereof which is outside the coastal zone shall be subject to the coastal development permit requirements of this division, nor shall anything in this division authorize the denial of a coastal development permit by the commission or any regional commission on the grounds the proposd development will have an adverse environmental effect outside the coastal zone.

SEC. 15. Section 30610 of the Public Resources Code, is amended to read:

30610. Notwithstanding any provision in this division to the contrary, no coastal development permit shall be required pursuant to this chapter for the following types of development and in the following areas:

(a) Improvements to existing single-family residences; provided, however, that the commission shall specify, by regulation, those classes of development which involve a risk of adverse environmental effect and shall require that a coastal development permit be obtained under this chapter.

(b) Maintenance dredging of existing navigation channels or moving dredged material from such channels to a disposal area outside the coastal zone, pursuant to a permit from the United States Army Corps of Engineers.

(c) Repair or maintenance activities that do not result in an addition to, or enlargement or expansion of, the object of such repair or maintenance activities; provided, however, that if the commission determines that certain extraordinary methods of repair and maintenance that involve a risk of substantial adverse environmental impact, it shall, by regulation, require that a permit be obtained under this chapter.

(d) Any category of development, or any category of development within a specifically defined geographic area, that the commission, after public hearing, and by two-thirds vote of its appointed members, has described or identified and with respect to which the commission has found that there is no potential for any significant adverse effect, either individually or cumulatively, on coastal resources or on public access to, or along, the coast and that such exclusion will not impair the ability of local government to prepare a local coastal program.

(e) The installation, testing, and placement in service or the replacement of any necessary utility connection between an existing service facility and any development approved pursuant to this division; provided, that the commission may, where necessary, require reasonable conditions to mitigate any adverse impacts on coastal resources, including scenic resources.

SEC. 16. Section 30621 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

30621. The regional commission or the commission shall provide for a de novo public hearing on applications for coastal development permits and any appeals brought pursuant to this division and shall give to any affected person a written public notice of the nature of the proceeding and of the time and place of the public hearing. Notice shall also be given to any person who requests, in writing, such notification. A hearing on any coastal development permit application or an appeal shall be set no later than 42 days after the date on which the application or appeal is filed with the regional commission or the commission.

SEC. 17. Section 30624 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

30624. The commission shall provide, by regulation, for the issuance of coastal development permits by the executive director of the commission or any regional commission without compliance with the procedures specified in this chapter in cases of emergency, other than an emergency provided for under Section 30611, or for improvements to any existing structure not in excess of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), any single family dwelling, and any other developments not in excess of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000). Such permit for nonemergency development shall not be effective until after reasonable public notice and adequate time for the review of such issuance has been provided. If any two members of the regional commission or the commission so request, at the first meeting following the issuance of such permit, such issuance shall not be effective, and, instead, the application shall be processed in accordance with the commission's procedures for permits and pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

No monetary limitations shall be required for emergencies covered by the provisions of this section.

SEC. 18. Section 31152 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

31152. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this division to the contrary, the conservancy shall not act to acquire any interests in lands in the coastal zone for agricultural purposes unless the conservancy finds that both of the following conditions apply to the proposed acquisition:

(a) The lands are specifically identified in a certified local coastal plan or program as agricultural lands.

(b) There is no other reasonable means, including the use of police power, of assuring continuous use of such lands for agricultural purposes.

SEC. 19. Section 16 of Chapter 1330 of the Statutes of 1976, as amended by Chapter 1331 of the Statutes of 1976, is repealed.

SEC. 20. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The state and local agencies are currently in the process of implementing the California Coastal Act of 1976. The provisions of the act directly affect the work of the California Coastal Commission and the regional coastal commissions, and because of the short statutory deadlines provided for in the act, it is necessary that the provisions of this act become effective immediately.

CHAPTER 1076

An act to amend Section 30305 of the Public Resources Code, relating to coastal resources.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 30305 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

30305. Each regional commission shall terminate within 30 days after the last local coastal program required within its region pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 30500) of this division has been certified and all implementing devices have become effective or June 30, 1981, whichever is the earlier date. Upon the termination of any regional commission, the commission shall succeed to any and all of such regional commission's obligations, powers, duties, responsibilities, benefits, or legal interests.

CHAPTER 1077

An act to amend Section 70141.10 of the Government Code, relating to courts.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 70141.10 of the Government Code is amended to read:

70141.10. In the County of Marin, the superior court may provide that the commissioner, in addition to the duties prescribed in Section 259 of the Code of Civil Procedure, shall perform the duties prescribed by Section 259a of the Code of Civil Procedure and in addition thereto the duties of a probate commissioner appointed pursuant to Section 69897 of this code.

Any commissioner appointed pursuant to this section shall have been admitted to practice law in California for not less than five years and shall receive a salary recommended by the superior court and approved by the board of supervisors.

If the board of supervisors, in its sole discretion, appropriates the necessary funds therefor, any court commissioner who has been duly appointed and has thereafter been retired from service, may be assigned by the presiding judge of the superior court to serve as a court commissioner for such periods as he is needed for the prompt and efficient discharge of the business of the court. If the board of supervisors, in its sole discretion, appropriates the necessary funds therefor, any court commissioner who has been duly appointed and has thereafter been retired from service, may be assigned by the presiding judge of the municipal court to serve as a court commissioner of the municipal court. While so serving, he shall receive his retirement allowance and, in addition, the county shall pay him the amount equal to the difference between such retirement allowance and the full compensation of a court commissioner. Such employment shall not operate to reinstate him as a member of the county retirement system or in any way affect his retirement rights or allowances, and no deduction shall be made from his compensation contributions to the retirement system.

CHAPTER 1078

An act to add Section 65403 to the Government Code, relating to local facilities planning.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 65403 is added to the Government Code, to read:

65403. (a) Each special district, each unified, elementary, and high school district, and each agency created by a joint powers agreement pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 6500) of Chapter 5 of Division 7 of Title 1 that constructs or maintains public facilities essential to the growth and maintenance of an urban population may prepare a five-year capital improvement program. This section shall not preclude, limit, or govern any other method of capital improvement planning and shall not apply to any district or agency unless it specifically determines to implement this section. As used in this section, "public facilities" means any of the following:

(1) Public buildings, including schools and related facilities.

(2) Facilities for the storage, treatment, and distribution of nonagricultural water.

(3) Facilities for the collection, treatment, reclamation, and disposal of sewage.

(4) Facilities for the collection and disposal of storm waters and for flood control purposes.

(5) Facilities for the generation of electricity and the distribution of gas and electricity.

(6) Transportation and transit facilities, including but not limited to streets, roads, harbors, ports, airports, and related facilities.

(7) Parks and recreation facilities; provided, however, that this section shall not apply to a special district which constructs or maintains parks and recreation facilities if the annual operating budget of such district does not exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000).

(b) The five-year capital improvement program shall indicate the location, size, time of availability, means of financing, including a schedule for the repayment of bonded indebtedness, and estimates of operation costs for all proposed and related capital improvements. The five-year capital improvement program shall also indicate a schedule for maintenance and rehabilitation and an estimate of useful life of all existing and proposed capital improvements.

(c) The capital improvement program shall be adopted by, and shall be annually reviewed and revised by, resolution of the governing body of the district or local agency. Annual revisions shall include an extension of the program for an additional year to update the five-year program. At least 60 days prior to its adoption or annual revision, as the case may be, the capital improvement program shall be referred to the planning agency of each affected city and county within which the district or agency operates, for review as to its consistency with the applicable general plan, any applicable specific plans, and all elements and parts of such city or county. Failure of the planning agency to report its findings within 40 days after receipt of a capital improvement program or revision thereof shall be conclusively deemed to constitute a finding that the capital improvement program is consistent with the general plan.

A district or local agency shall not carry out its capital improvement program or any part thereof if the planning agency finds that the capital improvement program or a part of the capital improvement program is not consistent with the applicable general plan, any specific plans, and all elements and parts thereof. A district or local agency may overrule the finding and carry out its capital improvement program.

(d) Before adopting its capital improvement program, or annual revisions thereof, the governing body of each special district, each unified, elementary, and high school district, and each agency created by a joint powers agreement shall hold at least one public hearing. Notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be given at least 10 calendar days before any such hearing. The notice shall be published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation distributed within the district or agency. In addition to notice by publication, the district or agency may give notice of a public hearing in such other manner as it may deem desirable.

CHAPTER 1079

An act to add Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 16378) to Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, relating to state motor vehicle insurance, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 16378) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, to read:

Article 2.5. State Motor Vehicle Insurance Account

16378. The State Motor Vehicle Insurance Account is hereby created as a special account in the General Fund.

16379. Amounts collected by the Department of General Services pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 11290 shall be deposited in the account and such amounts are continuously appropriated for the purposes set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 11290.

CHAPTER 1080

An act to amend Sections 10081, 10161.7, 10171.6, 10216.5, and 10221 of, to add Section 10161.75 to, and to repeal Sections 10161.7, 10171.6, 10216, 10216.5, 10218, 10219 and 10221 of, the Business and Professions Code, relating to real estate.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10081 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

10081. (a) Whenever the commissioner believes from evidence satisfactory to him that any person has violated or is about to violate any of the provisions of this part or of Chapter 1 of Part 2 or any order, license, permit, decision, demand or requirement, or any part or provision thereof, he may bring an action in the name of the people of the State of California in the superior court of the State of California against such person to enjoin such person from continuing such violation or engaging therein or doing any act or acts in furtherance thereof.

In this action an order or judgment may be entered awarding such preliminary or final injunction as may be proper, but no preliminary injunction or temporary restraining order shall be granted without at least five days' notice to the opposite party.

(b) The commissioner may include in any action authorized by subdivision (a), a claim for restitution on behalf of the persons injured by the act or practice constituting the subject matter of the action, and the court shall have jurisdiction to award appropriate relief to such persons.

SEC. 2. Section 10161.7 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

10161.7. The license of a real estate broker or salesperson may be inactivated within the period for which the license was issued by notifying the commissioner in writing of the inactivation. The change of status from active to inactive shall be made by the licensee on the active license by marking out all but the licensee's name on the face of the license; by typing or writing in ink on the reverse side the words "Inactive License"; and by typing or writing the licensee's residence address, and date and placing his initials thereon

An inactive license which is not suspended or revoked may be reinstated at any time during the period for which the license was issued, and may be renewed each four-year period upon the making of application therefor and the payment of the appropriate fee. Compliance with Section 10171 is not required for renewal of a license in an inactive status.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, on or after July 1, 1980, any license which has been inactive for a continuous period of five years may be reinstated or renewed provided the licensee complies with the provisions of Section 10171.6 and has met the examination requirement of an original applicant.

An inactive broker need not maintain a place of business as required by Section 10162.

An inactive licensee shall not be entitled to act in any capacity for which the license is required until the license has been reinstated.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1981, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1981, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 3. Section 10161.75 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

10161.75. On or after January 1, 1981, the holder of an inactive license may reinstate or renew such license on an active basis only, provided the licensee presents evidence of compliance with Section 10171 and is otherwise qualified.

SEC. 4. Section 10171.6 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

10171.6. Any licensee who applies for reinstatement of his license under the provisions of Section 10161.7, shall, if the previous active license issued to him was issued four or more years prior to his application for reinstatement, present evidence of compliance with Section 10171. If no such qualifying evidence is presented, the commissioner may reactivate the license for a period of 90 days upon a showing of hardship.

If the applicant presents evidence within such 90 days of compliance with Section 10171 and is otherwise qualified, the commissioner shall fully reactivate the license without additional fee.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1981, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1981, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 5. Section 10216 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 10216.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

10216.5. The fee for an inactive original or renewal license is one-half of the fee for an active license of the same class.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1981, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1981, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 7. Section 10218 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 10219 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 9. Section 10221 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

10221. The fee for reinstatement of a license within a license period is the difference, if any, between the fee previously paid for issuance of the license and the fee for an active license in effect at the time the renewal application is filed.

As used in this section, "reinstatement of a license" means the reissuance of a canceled or inactivated real estate broker's license, or the reissuance of a real estate salesperson's license which was canceled or inactivated during the period for which it was issued upon the salesperson's withdrawal from the employ of a real estate broker.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1981, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1981, deletes or extends such date.

CHAPTER 1081

An act to add Sections 12749.3 and 12749.4 to the Water Code, relating to flood control, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12749.3 is added to the Water Code, to read:

12749.3. The project for flood control runoff retardation and soil erosion prevention in the watershed of the Hagador-Tin Mine-Kroonen Oak Street Channel, as authorized by Section 216 of the Flood Control Act of 1950, Public Law 81-516, 81st Congress, 2nd Session (64 Stat. 163), is adopted and authorized at such cost to the state as may be appropriated for state cooperation by the Legislature upon the recommendation and advice of the department.

SEC. 2. Section 12749.4 is added to the Water Code, to read:

12749.4. The Riverside County Flood Control and Water Conservation District shall give the necessary assurances that the local cooperation required by the United States on the project adopted and authorized in Section 12749.3 shall be furnished by the district. The district shall execute the project in conjunction with the Secretary of Agriculture and may make such modifications and amendments to the project as may be necessary to execute it for the purposes of Chapters 1 (commencing with Section 12570) and 2 (commencing with Section 12639) of this part

SEC. 3. No appropriation is made by this act, nor is any obligation created thereby under Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, for the reimbursement of any local agency for any costs that may be incurred by it in carrying on any program or performing any service required to be carried on or performed by it by this act.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to properly safeguard lives and property from floods and debris on the Hagador-Tin Mine-Kroonen Oak Street Channel watershed, which has suffered a sudden impairment due to fires and other natural elements, it is essential that state authorization for this flood control project be provided immediately. Such authorization will facilitate the acquisition of lands, easements, and rights-of-way necessary for construction of the project. It is necessary therefore that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1082

An act to amend Sections 6710, 6711, and 6712 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to professional engineers.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6710 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6710. There is in the Department of Consumer Affairs a State Board of Registration for Professional Engineers, which consists of 13 members appointed by the Governor.

SEC. 2. Section 6711 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6711. Each member of the board shall be a citizen of the United States. Five members shall be registered under this chapter. One member shall be licensed under the Land Surveyors' Act, Chapter 15 (commencing with Section 8700) of this division, and seven shall be public members who are not registered under this act or licensed under the Land Surveyors' Act. Each member, except the public members, shall have at least 12 years active experience and shall be of good standing in his profession. Each member shall be at least 30 years of age, and shall have been a resident of this state for at least five years immediately preceding his appointment.

SEC. 3. Section 6712 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6712. All appointments to the board shall be for a term of four years. Vacancies shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term. Each appointment thereafter shall be for a four-year term expiring on June 1 of the fourth year following the year in which the previous term expired.

Each member shall hold office until the appointment and qualification of his successor or until one year shall have elapsed since the expiration of the term for which he was appointed, whichever first occurs. No person shall serve as a member of the board for more than two consecutive terms, but this provision shall not apply to any member in office on November 23, 1970.

The Governor shall appoint the public members provided for at the 1976 portion of the 1975–76 session of the Legislature to fill any vacancy, consistent with the requirements of licentiate representation, occurring in the office of a member who is a licentiate of the board.

The Governor shall appoint professional members so that one is licensed to practice engineering as a civil engineer, one as an electrical engineer, one as a mechanical engineer, another is authorized to use the title of structural engineer, and one is a member of one of the remaining branches of engineering.

CHAPTER 1083

An act to amend Section 41954 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to vehicles, and declaring the urgency thereof to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 41954 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

41954. (a) The state board shall, by March 1, 1976, adopt procedures for determining the compliance of any system designed for the control of gasoline vapor emissions during gasoline marketing operations, including storage and transfer operations, with performance standards which are reasonable and necessary to achieve or maintain any applicable ambient air quality standard.

(b) The state board shall certify any gasoline vapor control system, upon its determination that the system, if properly installed and maintained, will meet the requirements of subdivision (a). The state board shall enumerate the specifications used for issuing such certification. After a system has been certified, if circumstances beyond control of the state board cause the system to no longer meet the required specifications, the certification may be revoked or modified.

(c) The state board may test, or contract for testing, gasoline vapor control systems in order to certify them.

(d) The state board shall charge a reasonable fee for certification, not to exceed its estimated costs therefor. Payment of the fee shall be a condition of certification.

(e) No person shall install a gasoline vapor control system unless it has been certified by the state board.

(f) To the extent authorized by other provisions of law, any district may adopt stricter procedures and performance standards than those adopted by the state board pursuant to subdivision (a).

(g) With respect to those vapor recovery systems subject to certification by the state board, there shall be no criminal or civil proceedings commenced or maintained for failure to comply with any statute, rule, or regulation requiring a specified vapor recovery efficiency if the vapor control equipment which has been installed to comply with applicable vapor recovery requirements has been:

(1) Certified by the state board at an efficiency equal to or greater than the efficiency required by applicable statutes, rules, and regulations; and

(2) Installed, operated, and maintained in accordance with the instructions of the equipment manufacturer.

(h) Notwithstanding subdivision (f), for a period of three years after the effective date of the act amending this section in 1978, gasoline vapor control systems which have been installed and are operating in compliance with the requirements of the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District shall be exempt from any requirements for retrofitting such systems with new or additional equipment for the purpose of achieving greater vapor recovery efficiency. All necessary replacement parts shall be those certified by the state board. In all other areas of the state, the state board may implement its regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision (a).

(i) On or after July 1, 1980, but not later than January 1, 1981, the state board shall report to the Legislature on the actual in-use efficiency and durability of all gasoline vapor recovery systems certified pursuant to subdivision (a). If the air quality benefits of systems certified by the state board for a vapor recovery efficiency of 95 percent or greater are not as great as the technical reports of the state board currently indicate, the state board shall reconsider, at a formal public hearing, its regulations relative to installation of such systems.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that individuals not be cited by air pollution control districts on the basis that their gasoline vapor recovery systems are not operating at required efficiency even though the systems (1) were certified by the State Air Resources Board at an efficiency equal to or greater than the required efficiency and (2) are installed, operated, and maintained in accordance with instructions of the system manufacturer, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1084

An act to amend Section 4675 of, and to add Sections 2636, 2708, 2772, and 2927.6 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2636 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

2636. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in the case of a deficiency in the payment of taxes due and payable pursuant to this chapter, the tax collector, with the approval of the board of supervisors, may accept such partial payment from the taxpayer. The difference between the amount paid by the taxpayer and the amount due shall be treated as a delinquent tax in the same manner as any other delinquent tax.

SEC. 2. Section 2708 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

2708. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in the case of a deficiency in the payment of taxes due and payable pursuant to this chapter, the tax collector, with the approval of the board of supervisors, may accept such partial payment from the taxpayer. The difference between the amount paid by the taxpayer and the amount due shall be treated as a delinquent tax in the same manner as any other delinquent tax.

SEC. 3. Section 2772 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

2772. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in the case of a deficiency in the payment of taxes due and payable pursuant to this chapter, the tax collector, with the approval of the board of supervisors, may accept such partial payment from the taxpayer. The difference between the amount paid by the taxpayer and the amount due shall be treated as a delinquent tax in the same manner as any other delinquent tax.

SEC. 4. Section 2927.6 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

2927.6. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in the case of a deficiency in the payment of taxes due and payable pursuant to this chapter, the tax collector, with the approval of the board of supervisors, may accept such partial payment from the taxpayer. The difference between the amount paid by the taxpayer and the amount due shall be treated as a delinquent tax in the same manner as any other delinquent tax.

SEC. 5. Section 4675 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

4675. Any party of interest in the property at the time of sale by the state may file with the county a claim for the excess proceeds at any time prior to the expiration of one year following the execution of the tax collector's deed to the purchaser.

After the property has been sold by the state, a party of interest in the property at the time of the sale may assign his or her right to claim the excess proceeds only by a dated, written instrument that explicitly states that the right to claim the excess proceeds is being assigned, and only after each party to the proposed assignment has disclosed to each other party to the proposed assignment all facts of which he or she is aware relating to the value of the right that is being assigned. Any attempted assignment that does not comply with these requirements shall have no effect. This paragraph shall apply only with respect to assignments on or after the effective date of this paragraph.

The claims shall contain any information and proof deemed necessary by the board of supervisors to establish the claimant's rights to all or any portion of the excess proceeds.

No sooner than one year following the execution of the tax collector's deed to the purchaser, and if the excess proceeds have been claimed by any party of interest as provided herein, such excess proceeds shall be distributed only to those parties of interest who have claimed such excess proceeds on order of the board of supervisors to the parties of interest who have claimed such excess proceeds in the order of priority set forth in subdivisions (a) and (b). For the purposes of this article, parties of interest and their order of priority are:

(a) First, lienholders of record prior to the property becoming tax deeded to the state or to any other taxing agency, in the order of their priority, as to liens that were extinguished by the issuance of the deed to the state; and

(b) Then, any person who would be established with title to all or any portion of the property sold by the state by redemption of such property immediately prior to the sale by the state.

In the event more than one party of interest, as defined in subdivisions (a) and (b) of this section, files claims for the excess proceeds as provided herein, the board of supervisors shall give all claimants opportunity for a hearing to establish the priority and extent of their claim following a period of at least 30 days after written notice has been given to each claimant. Any action or proceeding to review the decision of the board of supervisors shall be commenced within 90 days after the date of such decision of the board of supervisors.

CHAPTER 1085

An act to amend Section 7.1 of the Ventura County Flood Control Act (Chapter 44 of the Statutes of 1944, Second Extraordinary Session), relating to water control, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7.1 of the Ventura County Flood Control Act (Chapter 44 of the Statutes of 1944, Second Extraordinary Session) is amended to read:

Sec. 7.1. In addition to the powers described in Section 7 of this act, the district shall have the power by ordinance or resolution to prescribe, revise and collect fees and charges in any zone and in any special zone as a condition of development of land. Land to be developed within a special zone shall be subject both to the fees and charges of the zone in which it is located and the fees and charges of the special zone in which it is located. Development of land for the purposes of this section shall include, but not be limited to, subdivision development as governed by the Subdivision Map Act; construction of new buildings, structures and improvements for residential, commercial or industrial purposes; and any development of land requiring either zone variance or special use permit. The amount of fees and charges levied for each zone and for each special zone shall be determined separately and shall be based upon the need created by development of land for flood control facilities within the zone or special zone. The amount of fees and charges levied for any zone, other than a special zone, shall not exceed one thousand two hundred dollars ($1,200) for each acre or portion thereof of land to be developed. Fees and charges prescribed as a condition of development of land pursuant to this section shall be in addition to any other conditions imposed on such development by any other agency having power to prescribe such other conditions. Except as hereinafter provided, revenues derived from fees and charges prescribed for any zone may be used only for the acquisition, engineering, design, construction, reconstruction, maintenance or operation of flood control or storm drainage facilities within such zone, or within any special zone located in such zone, or used to pay the interest on or reduce the principal of any bonded indebtedness of such zone. At the discretion of the board of supervisors, all or part of fees and charges prescribed for any zone which are collected as a condition of development of land located within a special zone may be used to pay the interest on or reduce the principal of any bonded indebtedness of such special zone. Except as hereinafter provided, revenues derived from fees and charges prescribed for any special zone shall be used only for the acquisition, engineering, design, construction, reconstruction, maintenance or operation of flood control or storm drainage facilities within such special zone or used to pay the interest on or reduce the principal of any bonded indebtedness of such special zone. At the discretion of the board of supervisors, all or part of fees and charges prescribed for any zone or special zone need not be collected as a condition of development of land located within a protection district established under the Protection District Act of 1907 or if collected from such land, all or part of such fees may be remitted to the protection district to be used to pay the interest on or reduce the principal of any bonded indebtedness of such protection district. Whenever the development of land within any zone or within any special zone is made subject to fees or charges by the board of supervisors pursuant to this section, said board of supervisors may allow a credit against such fees for the acquisition, engineering, design, construction, reconstruction, maintenance or operation costs of any flood control or storm drainage facility within such zone or special zone which has been constructed or paid for in connection with the development of land within such zone or special zone. The board of supervisors may also reduce fees or charges prescribed for any part of the land to be developed within such zone or special zone if they find that because of special circumstances the payment thereof would be inequitable or would cause undue hardship and the reduction of such fees would be in the public interest. The consent and approval of the legislative body of a city shall be necessary before any fees or charges may be levied on the development of land located within the corporate boundaries of a city which are higher than any fees or charges levied on the development of land located outside the corporate boundaries of such city.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Drainage relief in zones 1 and 3 of the Ventura County Flood Control District is presently needed, and fees levied under the four hundred dollars ($400) per acre limitation of the zones would not generate sufficient revenue to cover the cost of providing the needed relief. In order to provide such relief at the earliest possible time, it is essential that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1086

An act to amend Section 7634 of the Business and Professions Code, to amend Section 27491 45 of the Government Code, and to amend Section 7155.5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to human remains.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7634 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7634. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a licensed embalmer, at the request of a licensed physician, may remove tissue from a dead human body for transplant, or therapeutic, or scientific purposes specified in, and pursuant to, the provisions of the Uniform Anatomical Gift Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 7150) of Part 1 of Division 7 of the Health and Safety Code), if such embalmer has completed a course in tissue removal for transplant, or therapeutic, or scientific purposes approved by the Board of Medical Quality Assurance of the State of California.

SEC. 1.5. Section 27491.45 of the Government Code is amended to read:

27491.45. (a) The coroner shall have the right to retain tissues of the body removed at the time of autopsy as may, in the opinion of the coroner, be necessary or advisable for scientific investigation.

Such tissues may be submitted by the coroner to hospitals, medical educational research institutions, and law enforcement agencies for training, educational, and research purposes.

(b) The coroner may, in his or her discretion, allow removal of parts of the body by a licensed physician and surgeon or trained transplant technician for transplant, or therapeutic, or scientific purposes pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 7150) of Part 1 of Division 7 of the Health and Safety Code if the following conditions are met:

(1) The provision of the part will not unnecessarily mutilate the body or interfere with the autopsy.

(2) The decedent or other person, as specified in Section 7151.5 of the Health and Safety Code, has consented to the provision of the part, as prescribed by Section 7154 of the Health and Safety Code. If the decedent has not made such a gift of a part of his or her body, the coroner, or a person designated by the coroner, shall make diligent efforts to locate and secure such gift within 24 hours of the decedent's death from an appropriate person specified in Section 7151.5 of the Health and Safety Code. In obtaining such gift, the coroner shall notify the donor of the specific part or parts requested and shall obtain the donor's informed consent, as provided in subdivision (e) of Section 7154.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed as limiting any right provided for in Section 7151.7 of the Health and Safety Code.

(d) For purposes of this section, "trained transplant technician" means a person who has completed training in tissue removal for transplant or therapeutic, or scientific purposes, which the coroner determines to be adequate for the purposes.

SEC. 2. Section 7155.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

7155.5. (a) The donee may accept or reject a gift. If the donee accepts a gift of the entire body, the donee may, subject to the terms of the gift, authorize embalming and the use of the body in funeral services. If the gift is of a part of the body, the donee, upon the death of the donor and prior to embalming, shall cause the part to be removed without unnecessary mutilation. After removal of the part, custody of the remainder of the body vests in the surviving spouse, next of kin, or other persons specified in Section 7100.

(b) The donee, in order to receive a gift, may act through a licensed physician or trained transplant technician authorized by the donee, or through a licensed embalmer, pursuant to Section 7634 of the Business and Professions Code, who shall remove tissue from a legally dead individual for transplant, or therapeutic, or scientific purposes according to an established State Department of Health Services, protocol involved in removal.

(c) The time of death shall be determined by a physician who tends the donor at his death, or, if none, the physician or coroner who certifies the death. The physician shall not participate in the procedures for removing or transplanting a part.

(d) A person who acts in good faith in accord with the terms of this chapter shall not be liable for damages in any civil action or subject to prosecution in any criminal proceeding for his or her act.

(e) For purpose of this section, "trained transplant technician" means a person who has completed training in tissue removal for transplant or therapeutic or scientific purposes, which the donee determines to be adequate for the purpose.

CHAPTER 1087

An act to amend Section 2458, and to amend and renumber Section 2217.5, of the Business and Professions Code, relating to podiatrists, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2217.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended and renumbered to read:

2458.5. Every person holding a physician's and surgeon's certificate or a certificate to practice podiatry under this chapter is exempt from the payment of the renewal fee provided such physician and surgeon has practiced medicine for 20 years or more in the State of California, has reached the age of retirement under the Social Security Act, and customarily provides his or her services free of charge to any person, organization, or agency. In the event that charges are made, such charges shall be nominal and in no event shall the aggregate of such charges in any single year be in an amount which would result in his or her income being such as to make the practitioner ineligible for full social security benefits.

SEC. 2. Section 2458 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2458. The amount of fees and refunds prescribed by this chapter in connection with physician's and surgeon's certificates, certificates to practice podiatry, certificates to practice midwifery, and certificates of drugless practitioners is that fixed by the following schedule:

(a) The fee for each applicant for a certificate by written examination, unless otherwise provided in this chapter, shall be fixed by the board at an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) nor less than fifteen dollars ($15). If the applicant's credentials are insufficient or if he does not desire to take the examination, the sum of ten dollars ($10) shall be retained and the remainder of the fee is returnable on application.

(b) Each applicant for a certificate based upon a national board diplomate certificate, and each applicant for a reciprocity certificate, shall pay an application fee of ten dollars ($10) at the time his application is filed. If the applicant qualifies for a certificate, he shall be notified and, in addition to the initial license fee, shall pay a fee which shall be fixed by the board at a sum not in excess of one hundred dollars ($100) nor less than five dollars ($5) for the issuance of the certificate.

(c) Each applicant for a certificate under Article 6 (commencing with Section 2210) shall pay an application fee of ten dollars ($10) at the time his application is filed. If the applicant qualifies for a certificate, he shall be notified and, in addition to the initial license fee, shall pay a fee which shall be fixed by the board at a sum not in excess of forty dollars ($40) nor less than five dollars ($5) for the issuance of the certificate.

(d) The initial license fee shall be fixed by the board until January 1, 1982, at a sum not in excess of two hundred dollars ($200), except that if the certificate will expire less than one year after its issuance, then the initial license fee is an amount equal to 50 percent of the initial license fee fixed by the board. Any physician and surgeon, or podiatrist, enrolled in an approved residency program shall be required to pay only 50 percent of the initial license fee fixed by the board.

(e) The biennial renewal fee shall be fixed by the board at a sum not in excess of two hundred dollars ($200) until January 1, 1982. Any physician and surgeon, or podiatrist enrolled in an approved residency program shall be required to pay only 50 percent of the initial biennial renewal fee fixed by the board.

(f) The delinquency fee is twenty-five dollars ($25) until January 1, 1982.

(g) The duplicate certificate fee is two dollars ($2).
(h) The endorsement fee is five dollars ($5).

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that podiatric residents who will be initially licensed in the summer of 1978 may pay the reduced fee provided by this act it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1088

An act to repeal and add Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 400) of Division 1 of the Water Code, relating to weather resources management.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 400) of Division 1 of the Water Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 400) is added to Division 1 of the Water Code, to read:

CHAPTER 4. WEATHER RESOURCES MANAGEMENT

Article 1. General Provisions

400. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the California Weather Resources Management Act of 1978.

401. It is hereby declared that weather resources management within the state shall be regulated by the state in order to augment, develop, conserve, and protect the natural water resources of the state, protect the environment, and safeguard life and property. It is also hereby declared that atmospheric water within the state which is caused to fall by weather resources management activities, shall for the purpose of water rights determinations, be considered as if it occurred as natural precipitation.

402. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Cloud water conversion" means the conversion of cloud material into precipitation in a manner different from that which would have occurred naturally.

(b) "Inadvertent weather modification" means the unintentional deviations from natural weather resulting as byproducts of activities having primary purposes other than weather resources management. Either positive or negative effects on cloud water conversion, light adjustment, and weather hazard suppression, shall be included.

(c) "License" means a professional license issued by the department to an individual indicating that the individual has met the criteria for certification to design and direct weather resources management projects for which permits may be issued under the provisions of this chapter.

(d) "Operations" means each specific weather resources management activity not to exceed 24 hours in length undertaken as a part of a project.

(e) "Permit" means a conditional operating permit issued by the department indicating that approval has been given for conducting a specified project during a specified period of time within the state, subject to the conditions and within the limitations established pursuant to this chapter.

(f) "Person" means any individual, firm, association, organization, partnership, company, corporation, private or public, and any state, county, city, city and county, district, or other public agency.

(g) "Light adjustment" means the adjustment of solar radiation reaching the ground, of earth radiation reaching the sky, or of visibility by means of affecting the coverage of fog, stratus, cirrus, or other cloud formations.

(h) "Weather hazard suppression" means the reduction of hazardous aspects of the weather, such as hurricanes, tornados, hail, lightning, or excessive precipitation.

(i) "Weather resources management" means attempting to produce by physical means any of the following: cloud water conversion, light adjustment, or weather hazard suppression. Weather resources management does not include agricultural frost protection or inadvertent weather modification.

(j) "Weather resources management project" or "project" means the performance of weather resources management with a specified purpose within a specified geographical area over a specified time interval.

403. The department, after public notice and hearing, shall adopt regulations necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter. Such regulations shall include, but not be limited to, criteria and procedures for regulation of weather resources management activities in a manner which will augment, develop, conserve and protect the natural water resources of the state, protect the environment, and safeguard life and property.

Article 2. Licenses

405. No person shall engage in weather resources management within the state without a license.

406. Any person desiring to design or conduct weather resources management operations within the state shall file with the department an application in writing for a license. Each application shall be accompanied by a filing fee fixed by the department, but not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100), and shall be on a form supplied for such purpose by the department.

407. Every application shall set forth all of the following:

(a) The name and address of the applicant.

(b) The education, experience, and qualifications of the applicant.

(c) A general description of the operations which the applicant intends to design or conduct.

(d) Such other information as the department may require.

408. Upon the filing of the application upon a form supplied by the department and containing the information prescribed by this chapter and accompanied by the required filing fee, the department shall issue a license to the applicant, if the department determines that the applicant meets the minimum qualifications for a license as set by the state, entitling the applicant to design and conduct the operations described in the application for the year for which the license is issued, unless the license is sooner revoked or suspended. A license shall be effective for the period from October 1 to the next September 30. Applications shall be accepted beginning the April 1 prior to the licensing year and shall be acted upon by the department within 30 working days after the receipt of the application.

408.5. Minimum qualifications for a license shall include each of the following or the equivalent, as determined by the department:

(a) Experience in weather resources management, including design, planning, operations, and evaluation, totaling at least 36 months.

(b) A baccalaureate degree in engineering or science. For applications received before December 31, 1979, five additional years of experience under subdivision (a) may be substituted for the requirements of this subdivision.

(c) Additional requirements as defined by the department.

409. A current license may be renewed annually upon application to the department on or before the last day of September and payment of a renewal fee. The renewal fee shall be fixed by the department with the approval of the Department of General Services, but may not exceed fifty dollars ($50). The department may refuse to renew a license if the department finds that the licensee has failed or refused to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter, after notice and opportunity for hearing.

Article 3. Permits

410. On or after October 1, 1979, no person, without first securing a permit from the department, shall undertake a weather resources management project within the state. If conditions for the permit are satisfied, the department shall issue a permit subject to additional operating conditions as determined necessary by the department. The department may issue only one permit for a weather resources management project in a specified geographical area if two or more projects in such area would adversely interfere with each other, as determined by the department. Conflicts shall be resolved by giving priority to projects that provide the greater overall public benefit as measured by both the direct product of the project and its contribution to knowledge that will improve weather resources management technology. The department shall not issue a permit for any project which it finds may result in a high degree of risk of substantial harm to public health or safety, or the environment.

411. A person desiring to conduct a weather resources management project shall file with the department an application in writing for a permit. Each application shall be accompanied by a filing fee fixed by the department, but not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500), and shall be on a form to be supplied for such purpose by the department.

The permit application shall set forth all of the following:

(a) The name and address of the permit applicant and the licensee who shall supervise operations under the permit.

(b) The name, address, and qualifications of any individual conducting day-to-day operations of the project.

(c) The person or persons on whose behalf the project is to be conducted if other than the applicant.

(d) The nature and purpose of the intended project, and the equipment, seeding agents, seeding techniques, operational techniques, and method of evaluation to be used.

(e) The geographical area of the project and time interval in which, and the approximate conditions under which, the project will be conducted.

(f) The geographical target area which will be affected by the project, as near as it may be determined in advance, including an estimation of other areas which may be affected.

(g) A description of project operations, including operational methods and criteria, supervision and monitoring procedures, sources of wind and weather information, and type, location, and wavelength of radar, if any.

(h) Suspension criteria for the intended project which establish when project operations shall be suspended due to hazardous conditions. Suspension criteria shall consider, where relevant, the effect of projected increased precipitation to be caused by the weather resources management project on flood conditions, soil moisture capacity of the watershed, adverse runoff projections, reservoir storage capacity, and soil conditions.

(i) Proof of publication of a notice of intention as required by Section 422.

(j) Such other pertinent information as the department may require.

412. Before the issuance of a weather resources management permit, the department may hold one or more public hearings in or near an area which may be affected. The department shall hold such a public hearing if so requested by the board of supervisors of a county within an area which may be affected by a proposed weather resources management project.

The department may assess an additional permit fee to pay for the administrative costs of holding the public hearings, which shall not exceed five hundred dollars ($500) per day or two thousand dollars ($2,000) total.

413. A weather resources management permit shall normally expire four years after the date of issue. The department may renew the permit for a fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

413.5. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 413, the department shall issue a permit to any applicant filing in 1979 who has operated a project in essentially the same geographical area and in essentially the same manner, as determined by the department, in each of the last 10 years. Such permit shall be valid for a period of 10 years.

414. The department may revise the terms and conditions of a permit if the permittee is first given notice and a reasonable opportunity for a hearing on the need for such revision.

415. In the event of an emergency which affects public health and welfare, but which is not a part of project operations or suspension criteria, the department may immediately modify the conditions of a permit, or order temporary suspension of a permit. Failure to comply with an order temporarily suspending a project or modifying the conditions of a permit shall be grounds for immediate revocation of the permit and of the license. At the request of the permittee, the department shall hold a hearing to review the reasons for the temporary suspension or modification within two working days of the request.

416. After a permit is issued, the activities of the permittee shall be confined within the limits of time and area specified in the permit. The permittee shall comply with any terms and conditions of the permit as originally issued or as subsequently revised or modified by the department.

417. A request for a public hearing shall be made within 15 working days after the filing of the permit application. Within 20 working days after the filing of the application, the department shall either deny the application, grant the permit, or set a public hearing on the application. If a public hearing is held, the department shall issue its final decision within five working days of the end of the hearing.

418. The department may, at its own discretion, issue a temporary permit for a period not to exceed 30 days.

Article 4. Notice of Intention

420. Prior to applying for a permit, the applicant shall file with the department and cause to be published a notice of intention which sets forth information as specified by the department.

421. The applicant shall cause the notice of intention to be published pursuant to Section 6063 of the Government Code in a newspaper having a general circulation and published within any county wherein the project is to be conducted and in which the affected area is located, or, if the project is to be conducted in more than one county or if the affected area is located in more than one county or is located in a county other than the one in which the operation is to be conducted, then such notice shall be published in like manner in a newspaper having a general circulation and published within each of such counties. In case there is no newspaper published within the appropriate county, publication shall be made in a newspaper having a general circulation within the county. The applicant shall also send the notice of intention to the boards of supervisors of counties to be affected by the project.

422. Proof of publication shall be by copy of the notice as published attached to and made a part of the affidavit of the publisher or foreman of the newspaper publishing the notice.

Article 5. Reporting

425. The permittee shall keep a record of all operations conducted under a permit, showing the equipment, methods, and types, amounts, times, and places of seeding agents employed, a statement as to the estimated effect of the operation in relation to its intended purpose, the name and address of each person participating or assisting in the operation, and such other information as may be required by the department, and shall report the same to the department within 30 days of the completion of a project and at least annually. The permittee shall file with the department a summary of monthly activities by the 10th of the following month which shall include such information as required by the department. A report on the evaluation of project results shall be filed with the department within one year of the termination of the annual operations, unless this evaluation period is extended by the department.

426. The department shall publish annually a comprehensive report of all the projects.

Article 6. Suspension of Licenses

435. Any license or permit may be revoked or suspended if the department finds, after due notice to the licensee or permittee and a hearing thereon, that the licensee or permittee has failed or refused to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter. The proceedings herein referred to shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (commencing with Section 11500 of the Government Code), and the department shall have all the powers granted therein.

Article 7. Immunity to Liability

440. No action shall be brought against the state or the department or its agents or employees for the recovery of damages caused by any weather resources management operation upon the ground that such defendant is liable by virtue of any of the following:

(a) The issuance of any license or permit.

(b) The modification or suspension of any operation or project pursuant to Section 415.

Article 8. Penalties

445. Any person who violates any provision of this chapter is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be any appropriation made by this act because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local government entities and school districts which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes.

CHAPTER 1089

An act to add and repeal Section 25611 of the Public Resources Code, relating to wind energy, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares the following:

(a) That wind energy in California is abundant. The technology to convert wind to electricity is proven and the economics of electrical generation from wind are promising.

(b) That wind should be an important element of the state's energy supply mix and that 10 percent of California's electricity could be supplied cost effectively by wind energy by the year 2000. As stated in the 1977 Biennial Report of the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, 500 megawatts of wind electricity could be on line in California in the middle 1980's, given an aggressive program of wind exploration, demonstration of wind technologies, and development of wind turbine models suited to California conditions.

(c) The lack of quantifiable wind-site data, the lack of operations testing of existing wind turbine designs, and the lack of appropriate large-scale wind electric turbine prototypes for conditions in California are limiting the statewide implementation of wind electric systems.

(d) California needs a wind energy program which will result in siting of large-scale wind electric systems owned and operated by private and public utilities throughout the state.

SEC. 2. Section 25611 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

25611. (a) For the purposes of this section:

(1) "Large-scale wind electric turbine" means any wind device including blades, tower, and turbine, which uses wind as the primary source of energy to generate electricity and has a rated electrical generating capacity of at least 250 kilowatts.

(2) "Prospecting" means the initial mapping of wind resources and general indication of the wind potential of different locations.

(3) "Validation" means the verification of wind resources and wind potential at a given site by extensive instrumentation and testing of that site.

(4) "Wind electric system" means a group of large-scale wind electric turbines which are sited together in order to take maximum advantage of wind resources in a particular location.

(5) "Wind energy" means electricity generated by any device which uses wind as its primary source of power.

(b) The commission shall implement a state wind energy program to speed commercialization of wind electric systems at appropriate locations throughout the state. The goal of the program shall be to obtain 10 percent of the state's electricity from wind by the year 2000. It is the intent of the Legislature to encourage public- and investor-owned utility participation, and also private sector participation in this program, to the greatest extent possible.

(c) The program shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following tasks:

(1) An assessment of wind resources in the state, including: prospecting for sites with commercial wind potential; validation of sites; and establishment of a wind information center to gather, analyze, map, and centralize wind information from all available sources and to disseminate such information to all potential users.

(2) Operations testing of wind electric systems using currently available wind electric turbines, including: selection and acquisition of one southern California and one northern California site; design and construction of test facilities at selected sites; and selection, ordering, and performance testing of currently available wind electric turbines.

(3) The research and development of large scale prototype wind electric turbines to meet California requirements.

(d) At least the following tasks shall be accomplished during the first year:

(1) Procurement and testing of one currently available medium scale wind electric turbine not to exceed 150 kilowatts.

(2) Establishment of the wind information center.

(3) Prospecting for sites in California with commercial wind potential.

(e) The commission shall report to the Legislature on the progress in the implementation of the provisions of this section on or before January 1, 1980, January 1, 1982, and January 1, 1984.

(f) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1984, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1984, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 25804 of the Public Resources Code, the sum of eight hundred thousand dollars ($800,000) is hereby appropriated from the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Reserve Account in the General Fund to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of Section 25611 of the Public Resources Code.

CHAPTER 1090

An act to amend Section 25535 of the Public Resources Code, relating to energy resources.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25535 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25535. Such reasonable and direct costs as the applicant incurs to comply with the provisions of this chapter shall be allowed for ratemaking purposes.

CHAPTER 1091

An act to add and repeal Article 3 (commencing with Section 9120) to Part 1 of Division 3 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, and to add and repeal Section 25406 to the Public Resources Code, relating to job training for low-income individuals.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 3 (commencing with Section 9120) is added to Part 1 of Division 3 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

Article 3. Training for Energy-Related Jobs

9120. The purpose of this article is to foster conditions which fulfill the needs of employers in the energy sector for trained personnel and to maximize the career opportunities of low-income, economically disadvantaged persons in energy-related employment.

9121. The Legislature hereby finds and declares:

(a) That the rapid implementation of energy conservation and timely development of domestic energy sources is essential to the maintenance of a healthy economy in California.

(b) That the Legislature has devised and adopted certain measures to encourage energy conservation and the use of renewable energy sources in California homes and businesses, which will encourage the expansion of new energy industries in California.

(c) That there is a need to ensure that new or expanding energy industries and small businesses in California are provided with a labor force which is adequately prepared and trained for employment in these industries and small businesses.

(d) That there is significant potential for the creation of expanded employment opportunities in the energy sector, and that it is the intent of the Legislature that employment in the energy industry be encouraged by the effective use of industry expertise and participation in providing energy skills training and vocational education.

(e) That there is presently a lack of access to employment opportunities in the energy sector for low-income and economically disadvantaged persons, and that it is the intent of the Legislature to concentrate existing employment training and vocational education resources to achieve greater access for low-income and economically disadvantaged persons for employment opportunities in the energy sector.

9122. The Employment Development Department shall:

(a) Compile, to the extent possible within existing resources, a listing and description of training programs for energy-related jobs and comment on the effectiveness of these programs, including the extent to which economically disadvantaged persons are served.

(b) Review and utilize, to the extent possible, data provided by the Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission on energy trends in power generation, energy conservation, and use of alternative technologies. The department shall further review available estimates of direct labor requirements expected due to energy trends in power generation, energy conservation, and use of alternative technologies.

(c) Develop information on the job skills in energy related industries currently in demand and expected to be in demand in 1980, 1981, and 1982. The information developed shall, to the extent possible, identify the skills in demand by energy source and labor market area. The information shall be developed to the extent possible within existing resources and available data, including data prescribed by Section 25406 of the Public Resources Code, except that if federal funds become available and are necessary to complete this task, such funds may be utilized.

9123. The Employment Development Department shall report to the Legislature by November 30, 1979, the findings from the tasks required pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (c) of Section 9122. The Employment Development Department shall forward two copies of these reports to the regional office of the United States Department of Labor and request such office to disseminate the same to local prime sponsors, public and private nonprofit agencies, and other agencies which it deems appropriate.

9124. The Employment Development Department shall utilize the information derived from the requirements of Section 9122 to assist in the assessment and planning of training programs the department funds for energy-related jobs. The information shall be available to the maximum extent feasible to applicants for employment services, to operators of employment and training programs, and to other persons who are deemed to benefit from such information.

9125. This article shall remain in effect only until July 31, 1980, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before July 1, 1980, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 2. Section 25406 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

25406. The Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission shall cooperate, to the extent possible, with the Employment Development Department and provide that department with information on energy trends in power generation, energy conservation, and use of alternative technologies, as well as provide available estimates of labor requirements on these trends.

This section shall remain in effect only until July 31, 1980, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before July 1, 1980, deletes or extends such date.

CHAPTER 1092

An act to amend and renumber Sections 52049 and 52049.5 of, to add Section 54167 to, the Education Code, relating to school programs, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 52049 of the Education Code is amended and renumbered to read:

52046. From funds appropriated for purposes of this article the superintendent shall make allowances to districts as follows:

(a) For schools with approved planning applications, planning grants in the amount of thirty dollars ($30) per unit of average daily attendance;

(b) For schools with approved school improvement plans, implementation grants in the amount of:

(1) One hundred forty-eight dollars ($148) per unit of average daily attendance in kindergarten and grades 1, 2, and 3, or their equivalent, exclusive of average daily attendance in summer school. For the 1977–78 and the 1978–79 fiscal years, an additional amount up to the level authorized by former Section 52014 and actually expended in the 1976–77 fiscal year may also be allowed.

(2) Ninety dollars ($90) per unit of average daily attendance in grades 4 to 8, inclusive, or their equivalent, exclusive of the average daily attendance of summer school, regional occupational centers and programs, and adult classes by regular high school pupils.

(3) Sixty-five dollars ($65) per unit of average daily attendance in grades 9 to 12, inclusive or their equivalent, exclusive of the average daily attendance of summer school, regional occupational centers and programs, and adult classes by regular high school pupils.

Implementation grants shall be spent pursuant to the approved school improvement plan as documented in the plan pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 52015.

Allowances provided in any fiscal year but not expended in that year may be expended in subsequent fiscal years.

SEC. 2. Section 52049.5 of the Education Code is amended and renumbered to read:

52047. Expenditures pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 52046 shall be considered to be categorical program expenditures within the meaning of Section 52167 and therefore subject to the requirements of the Chacon-Moscone Bilingual-Bicultural Education Act of 1976 (Article 3 (commencing with Section 52160) of Chapter 7 of this part).

SEC. 3. Section 54167 is added to the Education Code, to read:

54167. Any school district which receives allowances for programs authorized pursuant to this article may utilize such allowances in grades 4, 5, and 6 or in kindergarten and grades 1, 2, and 3, for the purposes of, and in the manner set forth in, this article.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that funds allocated for specialist teachers in reading in grades 1, 2, and 3 may be utilized as early as possible in the 1978–79 fiscal year for specialist teachers in reading in kindergarten, and grades 4, 5, and 6 as well and thereby improve the educational offering of our public elementary schools, at the earliest possible time, it is essential that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1093

An act to amend Section 21080 of the Public Resources Code, relating to environmental quality.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 21080 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

21080. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this division, this division shall apply to discretionary projects proposed to be carried out or approved by public agencies, including, but not limited to, the enactment and amendment of zoning ordinances, the issuance of zoning variances, the issuance of conditional use permits and the approval of tentative subdivision maps (except where such a project is exempt from the preparation of an environmental impact report pursuant to Section 21166).

(b) This division shall not apply to the following:

(1) Ministerial projects proposed to be carried out or approved by public agencies.

(2) Emergency repairs to public service facilities necessary to maintain service.

(3) Projects undertaken, carried out, or approved by a public agency to maintain, repair, restore, demolish, or replace property or facilities damaged or destroyed as a result of a disaster in a disaster-stricken area in which a state of emergency has been proclaimed by the Governor pursuant to Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 8550) of Division 1 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(4) Specific actions, necessary to prevent or mitigate an emergency.

(5) Projects which a public agency rejects or disapproves.

(6) Actions undertaken by a public agency relating to any thermal powerplant site or facility, including the expenditure, obligation, or encumbrance of funds by a public agency for planning, engineering, or design purposes, or for the conditional sale or purchase of equipment, fuel, water (except ground water), steam, or power for such a thermal powerplant, if the powerplant site and related facility will be the subject of an environmental impact report or negative declaration or other document, or documents, prepared pursuant to a regulatory program certified pursuant to Section 21080.5, which will be prepared by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, by the Public Utilities Commission, or by the city or county in which the powerplant and related facility would be located; provided that such environmental impact report, negative declaration or other document, or documents, shall include the environmental impact, if any, of the action described in this paragraph.

(7) Activities or approvals necessary to the bidding for, hosting or staging of, and funding or carrying out of, an Olympic games under the authority of the International Olympic Committee, except for the construction of facilities necessary for such Olympic games.

(8) The establishment, modification, structuring, restructuring, or approval of rates, tolls, fares or other charges by public agencies which the public agency finds are for the purpose of (1) meeting operating expenses, including employee wage rates and fringe benefits, (2) purchasing or leasing supplies, equipment or materials, (3) meeting financial reserve needs and requirements, (4) obtaining funds for capital projects, necessary to maintain service within existing service areas, or (5) obtaining funds necessary to maintain such intra-city transfers as are authorized by city charter. The public agency shall incorporate written findings in the record of any proceeding in which an exemption under this paragraph is claimed setting forth with specificity the basis for the claim of exemption.

(9) Actions taken prior to August 31, 1979, by a public agency to implement the transition from the property taxation system in effect prior to June 1, 1978, to the system provided for by Article XIII A of the California Constitution. Such actions shall be limited to projects defined in subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 21065 which initiate or increase fees, rates, or charges charged for any existing public service, program, or activity; reduce or eliminate the availability of an existing public service, program, or activity; close publicly owned or operated facilities; or reduce or eliminate the availability of an existing publicly owned transit service, program, or activity.

(c) In the event that a lead agency determines that a proposed project, not otherwise exempt from the provisions of this division, does not have a significant effect on the environment, such lead agency shall adopt a negative declaration to that effect.

SEC. 2. Section 21080 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

21080. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this division, this division shall apply to discretionary projects proposed to be carried out or approved by public agencies, including, but not limited to, the enactment and amendment of zoning ordinances, the issuance of zoning variances, the issuance of conditional use permits and the approval of tentative subdivision maps (except where such a project is exempt from the preparation of an environmental impact report pursuant to Section 21166).

(b) This division shall not apply to the following:

(1) Ministerial projects proposed to be carried out or approved by public agencies.

(2) Emergency repairs to public service facilities necessary to maintain service.

(3) Projects undertaken, carried out, or approved by a public agency to maintain, repair, restore, demolish, or replace property or facilities damaged or destroyed as a result of a disaster in a disaster-stricken area in which a state of emergency has been proclaimed by the Governor pursuant to Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 8550) of Division 1 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(4) Specific actions, necessary to prevent or mitigate an emergency.

(5) Projects which a public agency rejects or disapproves.

(6) Actions undertaken by a public agency relating to any thermal powerplant site or facility, including the expenditure, obligation, or encumbrance of funds by a public agency for planning, engineering, or design purposes, or for the conditional sale or purchase of equipment, fuel, water (except ground water), steam, or power for such a thermal powerplant, if the powerplant site and related facility will be the subject of an environmental impact report or negative declaration or other document, or documents, prepared pursuant to a regulatory program certified pursuant to Section 21080.5, which will be prepared by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, by the Public Utilities Commission, or by the city or county in which the powerplant and related facility would be located; provided that such environmental impact report, negative declaration or other document, or documents, shall include the environmental impact, if any, of the action described in this paragraph.

(7) Activities or approvals necessary to the bidding for, hosting or staging of, and funding or carrying out of, an Olympic games under the authority of the International Olympic Committee, except for the construction of facilities necessary for such Olympic games.

(8) The establishment, modification, structuring, restructuring, or approval of rates, tolls, fares or other charges by public agencies which the public agency finds are for the purpose of (1) meeting operating expenses, including employee wage rates and fringe benefits, (2) purchasing or leasing supplies, equipment or materials, (3) meeting financial reserve needs and requirements, (4) obtaining funds for capital projects, necessary to maintain service within existing service areas, or (5) obtaining funds necessary to maintain such intra-city transfers as are authorized by city charter. The public agency shall incorporate written findings in the record of any proceeding in which an exemption under this paragraph is claimed setting forth with specificity the basis for the claim of exemption.

(9) Actions taken prior to August 31, 1979, by a public agency to implement the transition from the property taxation system in effect prior to June 1, 1978, to the system provided for by Article XIII A of the California Constitution. Such actions shall be limited to projects defined in subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 21065 which initiate or increase fees, rates, or charges charged for any existing public service, program, or activity; reduce or eliminate the availability of an existing public service, program, or activity; close publicly owned or operated facilities; or reduce or eliminate the availability of an existing publicly owned transit service, program, or activity.

(c) In the event that a lead agency determines that a proposed project, not otherwise exempt from the provisions of this division, does not have a significant effect on the environment, such lead agency shall adopt a negative declaration to that effect.

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Senate Bill No. 2003 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 21080 of the Public Resources Code, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 2003, that the amendments to Section 21080 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 21080 in the form set forth in Section 2 of this act. Therefore, Section 2 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Senate Bill No. 2003 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both amend Section 21080, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 2003, in which case Section 1 of this act shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1094

An act to amend Sections 66637, 66638, and 66641 of, to add Sections 66643 and 66647 to, and to repeal Section 66606.5 of, the Government Code, relating to the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 66606.5 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 1.5. Section 66637 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66637. (a) When the executive director determines that any person or governmental agency has undertaken, or is threatening to undertake, any activity that (1) may require a permit from the commission without securing a permit; or (2) may be inconsistent with any permit previously issued by the commission, he may issue an order directing such person or governmental agency to cease and desist.

(b) Any cease and desist order issued by the executive director may be subject to such terms and conditions as the executive director may determine are necessary to ensure compliance with the provisions of this title, including the immediate removal of any fill or other material where such removal is necessary to avoid irreparable injury to any area within the jurisdiction of the commission pending action by the commission under Section 66638.

(c) Any cease and desist order issued by the executive director shall become null and void 30 days after issuance.

(d) A cease and desist order issued by the executive director shall be effective upon the issuance thereof, and copies shall be served forthwith by certified mail upon the person or governmental agency being charged with the actual or threatened violation of this title.

SEC. 2. Section 66638 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66638. (a) When the commission, after public hearing, determines that any person or governmental agency has undertaken, or is threatening to undertake, any activity that (1) requires a permit from the commission without securing a permit, or (2) is inconsistent with any permit previously issued by the commission, the commission may issue an order requiring such person or governmental agency to cease and desist.

(b) Any cease and desist order issued by the commission may be subject to such terms and conditions as the commission may determine are necessary to insure compliance with the provisions of this title, including immediate removal of any fill or other material or the setting of a schedule within which steps must be taken to obtain a permit pursuant to this title.

(c) Notice of the public hearing on a proposed cease and desist order shall be given to all affected persons and agencies and such orders shall be effective and final as to the commission upon issuance thereof. Copies shall be served forthwith by certified mail upon the person or governmental agency being charged with the actual or threatened violation of this title and upon other affected persons and agencies who appeared at the hearing and requested a copy.

SEC. 3. Section 66641 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66641. (a) Any person or governmental agency who intentionally or negligently violates any cease and desist order issued, reissued, or amended by the commission or the executive director may be liable civilly in a sum of not to exceed six thousand dollars ($6,000) for each day in which such violation persists.

(b) The Attorney General, upon request of the commission, shall petition the superior court to impose, assess and recover such sums. In determining such amount, the court shall take into consideration all relevant circumstances, including but not limited to, the extent of harm caused by the violation, the nature and persistence of the violation, the length of time over which the violation occurs and corrective action, if any, taken by the person or governmental agency charged.

(c) The provisions of Section 66640 shall apply to proceedings to impose, assess and recover an amount pursuant to this article.

(d) Remedies under this section are in addition to, and do not supersede or limit, any and all other remedies, civil or criminal.

SEC. 4. Section 66643 is added to the Government Code, to read:

66643. The commission may hold any hearings and conduct any investigations in any part of the state necessary to carry out the powers vested in it, and for such purposes shall have the same power to conduct investigations and hearings as those conferred upon the heads of state departments by Article 2 (commencing with Section 11180) of Chapter 2 of Division 3 of Title 2.

Upon authorization of the commission, any member of the commission or its designated representative may conduct a hearing or investigation of the commission. Any final action of the commission shall only be taken by a majority of all the members of the commission, at a meeting duly called and held.

All hearings held by the commission or by any designated representative of the commission shall be open and public.

SEC. 4.5. Section 66647 is added to the Government Code, to read:

66647. The commission may establish and administer a Bay Fill Clean-up and Abatement Fund. All moneys from the following sources are to be paid into the account:

(a) All moneys appropriated by the Legislature for the account.

(b) All moneys contributed to the account by any person and accepted by the commission.

(c) One-half of all moneys collected by way of criminal penalty and all moneys collected civilly under any proceeding brought pursuant to any provision of this chapter.

All moneys paid into the account are available without regard to fiscal years, for expenditure by the commission or executive director for the purposes of removing fill or performing any other remedial clean-up or abatement actions in the San Francisco Bay as required in accordance with this title.

CHAPTER 1095

An act to amend Section 3 of and to add Sections 8.5 and 18 to Chapter 1086 of the Statutes of 1970, relating to tide and submerged lands, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that certain tide and submerged lands in Humboldt Bay have been granted in trust to the City of Eureka by Chapter 82 of the Statutes of 1857, Chapter 438 of the Statutes of 1915, Chapter 187 of the Statutes of 1927, Chapter 225 of the Statutes of 1945, and Chapter 1086 of the Statutes of 1970.

The Legislature further finds and declares that the City of Eureka has, commensurate with its duties and responsibilities as trustee, conscientiously and vigorously defended the public interest in such granted tide and submerged lands in ongoing litigation involving the title to, and boundaries of, a major part of the downtown waterfront of the city and that the burden of the city in such litigation has been particularly difficult due to the absence of positive responses to the city's detailed settlement overtures and the complexity of the legal and factual issues involved.

The Legislature further finds and declares that the action of the City of Eureka in clearing and confirming title to the waterfront and in effecting its planned development is of statewide significance in that precedental issues, which may affect the public ownership and administration of tide and submerged lands throughout the state, are involved and is in the best interest of the state and will benefit the people of the state generally by virtue of the creation of physical and visual public access to Humboldt Bay and the waterfront thereof and by the establishment of facilities for recreational, boating, beach and park, fishing, commercial, and other uses authorized by such statutes. Further, as the state will share in the revenues derived from the lands granted to the city, and as the credit and funding provided in this act is needed by the city in order to enable it financially to continue its defense of the public interest in and around Humboldt Bay, the Legislature finds and declares that providing credit and funding to the city is justified as being in the statewide public interest.

SEC. 2. Section 3 of Chapter 1086 of the Statutes of 1970 is amended to read:

Sec. 3. The city shall establish the Humboldt Bay Fund in such manner as may be approved by the State Lands Commission, and the city shall deposit therein all moneys received directly from, or indirectly attributable to, the tide and submerged lands granted to the city. An annual statement of financial condition and operations, to conform with such requirements as the State Lands Commission may prescribe, shall be submitted to the State Lands Commission by the city on or before September 30th of each year for the preceding fiscal year. In furtherance of its management and administration over granted tide and submerged lands, the State Lands Commission shall audit, or cause to be audited, the operations and all books and records of the city. Further, the city shall prepare and submit to the State Lands Commission, for its review and approval, an annual budget with respect to all revenues and expenditures regarding tide and submerged lands granted to the city. All moneys received from the State Controller pursuant to Section 18 of this act shall be deposited in the Humboldt Bay Fund and may be used by the city for the purposes for which revenues accruing from or out of the use of the granted tidelands may be used pursuant to the provisions of this act.

Prior to June 30, 1979, and prior to June 30 of each succeeding year, the city shall pay to the State Controller a sum that is not less than 15 percent of the amount of the money deposited by the city into the Humboldt Bay Fund during the preceding fiscal year, after deducting from the fund the principal and interest payments required by the currently outstanding 1973 Municipal Harbor Improvement Revenue Bond issue. Moneys received from the State Controller pursuant to Section 18 of this act shall not be included in the calculation of the amount deposited into the Humboldt Bay Fund. Payments made to the State Controller pursuant to this section shall be in lieu of all obligations incurred by the city pursuant to this section as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 1252 of the Statutes of 1971 and prior to the amendment of this section during the 1977–78 Regular Session of the Legislature.

In the event the city fails to make any payment required to be made hereby for any reason whatsoever, the State Board of Equalization, upon the order of the State Controller, shall deduct the amount of that payment from the sales and use taxes to be paid to the city thereafter pursuant to Section 7204 of the Revenue and Taxation Code and shall pay the same to the State Controller.

All payments made by the city and the State Board of Equalization shall be considered as oil revenues and dry gas revenues payable to the state pursuant to Chapter 138 of the Statutes of 1964, First Extraordinary Session, during the year they are received.

For the purposes of Section 7 of this act, such amounts paid to the State Controller by the city shall be considered as current and accrued operating costs and expenditures directly related to the operation and maintenance of tideland trust activities.

SEC. 3. Section 8.5 is added to Chapter 1086 of the Statutes of 1970, to read:

Sec. 8.5. No lease or permit in excess of one year in duration for the use of granted tide and submerged lands entered into or issued by the City of Eureka shall be valid without the prior approval of the State Lands Commission. The commission shall have 60 days after submittal of a proposed lease or permit in which to approve any such lease or permit. If the commission takes no action within 60 days, the lease or permit shall be deemed approved. For purposes of this section, a lease or permit shall be deemed submitted for approval when all documents required by the commission have been received.

SEC. 4. Section 18 is added to Chapter 1086 of the Statutes of 1970, to read:

Sec. 18. The sum of seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000), or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated to the General Fund from the oil and dry gas revenues payable to the state under Chapter 138 of the Statutes of 1964, First Extraordinary Session, pursuant to Section 6217 of the Public Resources Code during the 1978–79 fiscal year, and shall be transferred by the State Controller to the General Fund during the 1978–79 fiscal year immediately prior to making the allocation to the California Water Fund pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 6217 and after making the allocations pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 6217. The sum thus transferred to the General Fund is hereby appropriated to the State Controller, who shall pay that sum to the Humboldt Bay Fund as follows: in the 1978–79 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, a sum equal to 50 percent of the sum expended by the City of Eureka during each fiscal year in the prosecution or defense of any action or proceeding involving the title to, or the boundaries of, tidelands or submerged lands granted to the City of Eureka by the Legislature along the Humboldt Bay waterfront; and during the 1978–79 fiscal year, the additional sum of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) from the seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000) appropriated by this section.

SEC. 5. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because the duties, obligations or responsibilities imposed on local governmental entities or school districts by this act are such that related costs are incurred as part of their normal operating procedures.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that litigation concerning the tide and submerged lands in the City of Eureka may be conducted properly, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1096

An act to amend Section 1024 of the Probate Code, to amend Sections 14143 and 14306 of, and to add Section 14213 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1024 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

1024. Before any decree of distribution is made, all personal property taxes due and payable by the estate shall be paid, and all inheritance taxes due and payable by the estate shall be paid or evidence of a written agreement for the payment of the inheritance taxes, executed between the State Controller and the executor, administrator, trustee, or other persons liable for the payment of the tax, shall be filed with the court; provided, however, that where a transferee has filed with the court a written election pursuant to the provisions of Section 14213 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, the estate may be distributed notwithstanding the fact that the tax imposed upon the transferee filing the written election has not been paid in full.

SEC. 2. Section 14143 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

14143. No executor, administrator, or trustee liable for the payment of any tax imposed by this part is entitled to credits in his accounts or to a discharge from liability for payment, nor shall the estate of the person who made the transfer on which the tax is imposed be distributed, unless a receipt countersigned and sealed by the Controller pursuant to this article, or a copy of such a receipt certified by the Controller, is filed with the superior court having jurisdiction; provided, however, that where a transferee has filed with the court a written election pursuant to the provisions of Section 14213, the estate may be distributed notwithstanding the fact that the tax imposed upon the transferee filing the written election has not been paid in full.

SEC. 3. Section 14213 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

14213. The transferee of a dwelling which was owned and occupied by the decedent at the date of death may elect to pay, in five annual installments, that portion of tax imposed by this part which is attributable to such dwelling if:

(1) The clear market value of the dwelling equals 75 percent or more of the clear market value of all transfers from the decedent subject to the tax imposed by this part;

(2) The clear market value of all transfers from the decedent is less than five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000);

(3) The portion of tax imposed by this part which is attributable to such dwelling exceeds one-half of the value of cash, securities listed on a stock exchange or sold in over the counter transactions and other assets converted to cash or such securities during the period of probate which is transferred to the transferee from the decedent, after deducting the entire costs of administration of the decedent's estate, including, but not limited to attorney's and administration fees, estate taxes, and the decedent's unsecured debts; and

(4) The dwelling is transferred by any transfer subject to this part to a person who was a bona fide resident of such dwelling at the date of death and who intends to maintain the dwelling as the person's principal place of residence.

If such transferee elects to make such payments in five annual installments, such payments shall be made under the following conditions and limitations:

(a) The transferee shall file a written election to pay the tax pursuant to the provisions of this section with the Controller and court having jurisdiction, or with the Controller alone in those cases where the tax is determined pursuant to the provisions of Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 14560) of Chapter 11 of this part. Such election shall include a declaration signed under penalty of perjury that the transferee intends to maintain the dwelling as the transferee's principal place of residence for one year from the date of such declaration and that the transferee understands that if the dwelling is sold, or if the transferee no longer maintains the dwelling as the transferee's principal place of residence, the total inheritance tax due which is attributable to such dwelling plus accrued interest shall be due and payable and the interest on the unpaid balance shall be increased to the rate specified in Section 14211. A similar declaration shall be filed annually with the Controller in a manner and on a form prescribed by the Controller.

(b) In the case of a probate proceeding, the election shall be filed more than 30 days prior to the date the petition for final distribution is filed with the court, but in no event shall the election be filed after the date which is one year after the date the tax becomes delinquent, and the court shall incorporate the agreement in the final decree of distribution. In all other cases, the election shall be filed with the Controller on or before the date which is one year after the date on which the tax becomes delinquent. Upon filing of the election with the Controller, the Controller shall record the election with the county recorder in the county in which such real property is located.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 14211, the tax attributable to the dwelling, which is imposed by this part upon a transferee who has filed an election pursuant to this section shall bear interest at the rate of 7 percent per annum from the date it becomes delinquent until it is paid, or until the provisions of subdivision (e) become applicable, or until the date which is five years after the date upon which the tax attributable to such dwelling becomes delinquent, whichever is first.

(d) The tax attributable to the dwelling which is imposed upon a transferee who elects to pay such tax pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be paid in five annual installments. The amount of the tax attributable to the dwelling shall be that portion of the total inheritance tax due from the transferee who received the dwelling which bears the same ratio to such total tax as the clear market value of the dwelling bears to the clear market value of all transfers subject to this part transferred to such transferee. The first installment shall be in an amount of not less than 20 percent of the tax imposed upon the transferee, which is applicable to such dwelling, and shall be paid, together with any interest then due, on or before the date which is one year from the date the tax becomes delinquent. Each subsequent installment shall be in an amount of not less than 20 percent of the tax imposed which is attributable to such dwelling, and shall be paid, together with accrued interest on the unpaid balance, on or before the anniversary date of the first installment. If the payment of any installment is delinquent, the interest for that year shall accrue at the rate of 12 percent per year.

(e) (1) The interest on the unpaid balance then owed shall be increased to the rate specified in Section 14211 from and after 60 days following the occurrence of any of the following:

(A) The dwelling is sold;

(B) The transferee no longer maintains the dwelling as the transferee's principal place of residence.

(2) The provisions of paragraph (1) shall not apply with respect to the death of the transferee and such event shall not result in the increase in such rate of interest.

(f) In any event in which the tax attributable to such dwelling, together with accrued interest, is not paid in full on or before the date which is five years from the date the tax becomes delinquent, the unpaid balance shall thereafter bear interest at the rate specified in Section 14211.

(g) The amount of the tax not attributable to the dwelling is due and payable as provided in Sections 14102 and 14103 and shall bear interest as provided in Section 14211.

SEC. 4. Section 14306 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

14306. (a) Upon the approval of a bond for the deferment of payment of the tax imposed on a transfer subject to a contingency or condition upon the occurrence of which the right, interest, or estate of the transferee may, in whole or in part, be created, defeated, extended, or abridged, the lien upon the property included in the transfer ceases.

(b) Upon entry of a decree of distribution incorporating the consent of the Controller pursuant to Section 14105, an agreement entered into pursuant to Section 14143.5, or an election pursuant to Section 14213, which consent, agreement, or election provides for the deferment of the tax imposed by this part, the lien upon property not subject to such consent, agreement, or election ceases.

SEC. 5. This act shall become operative on July 1, 1979.

CHAPTER 1097

An act to amend Section 16430 of the Government Code, relating to student loans.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 16430 of the Government Code is amended to read:

16430. Eligible securities for the investment of surplus moneys shall be:

(a) Bonds or interest-bearing notes or obligations of the United States, or those for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(b) Bonds of this state, or those for which the faith and credit of this state are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(c) Bonds or warrants, including, but not limited to, revenue warrants, of any county, city, metropolitan water district, California water district, California water storage district, irrigation district in the State of California municipal utility district, or school district of this state.

(d) Bonds, consolidated bonds, collateral trust debentures, consolidated debentures, or other obligations issued by federal land banks or federal intermediate credit banks established under the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended, in debentures and consolidated debentures issued by the Central Bank for Cooperatives and banks for cooperatives established under the Farm Credit Act of 1933, as amended, in bonds or debentures of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board established under the Federal Home Loan Bank Act, in stock, bonds, debentures and other obligations of the Federal National Mortgage Association established under the National Housing Act as amended, and in the bonds of any federal home loan bank established under said act, obligations of the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, and in bonds, notes, and other obligations issued by the Tennessee Valley Authority under the Tennessee Valley Authority Act as amended.

(e) Commercial paper of "prime" quality as defined by a nationally recognized organization which rates such securities. Eligible paper is further limited to issuing corporations: (1) organized and operating within the United States; (2) having total assets in excess of five hundred million dollars ($500,000,000); and (3) approved by the Pooled Money Investment Board. Purchases of eligible commercial paper may not exceed 180 days' maturity, represent more than 10 percent of the outstanding paper of an issuing corporation, nor exceed 30 percent of the resources of an investment program. At the request of the Pooled Money Investment Board, such investment shall be secured by the issuer by depositing with the Treasurer securities authorized by Section 53651 of a market value at least 10 percent in excess of the amount of the state's investment.

(f) Bills of exchange or time drafts drawn on and accepted by a commercial bank, otherwise known as bankers acceptances, which are eligible for purchase by the Federal Reserve System.

(g) Negotiable certificates of deposits purchased from a nationally or state-chartered bank or savings and loan association. For the purposes of this section, negotiable certificates of deposits do not come within the provisions of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 16500) of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(h) The portion of bank loans and obligations guaranteed by the United States Small Business Administration or the United States Farmers Home Administration.

(i) Student loan notes insured under the Guaranteed Student Loan Program established pursuant to the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended (20 U.S.C. 1001, et seq.) and eligible for resale to the Student Loan Marketing Association established pursuant to Section 133 of the Education Amendments of 1972, as amended (20 U.S.C. 1087-2).

SEC. 1.1. Section 16430 of the Government Code is amended to read:

16430. Eligible securities for the investment of surplus moneys shall be.

(a) Bonds or interest-bearing notes or obligations of the United States, or those for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(b) Bonds of this state, or those for which the faith and credit of this state are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(c) Bonds or warrants, including, but not limited to, revenue warrants, of any county, city, metropolitan water district, California water district, California water storage district, irrigation district in the State of California municipal utility district, or school district of this state.

(d) Bonds, consolidated bonds, collateral trust debentures, consolidated debentures, or other obligations issued by federal land banks or federal intermediate credit banks established under the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended, in debentures and consolidated debentures issued by the Central Bank for Cooperatives and banks for cooperatives established under the Farm Credit Act of 1933, as amended, in bonds or debentures of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board established under the Federal Home Loan Bank Act, in stock, bonds, debentures and other obligations of the Federal National Mortgage Association established under the National Housing Act as amended, and in the bonds of any federal home loan bank established under said act, obligations of the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, and in bonds, notes, and other obligations issued by the Tennessee Valley Authority under the Tennessee Valley Authority Act as amended.

(e) Commercial paper of "prime" quality as defined by a nationally recognized organization which rates such securities. Eligible paper is further limited to issuing corporations: (1) organized and operating within the United States; (2) having total assets in excess of five hundred million dollars ($500,000,000); and (3) approved by the Pooled Money Investment Board. Purchases of eligible commercial paper may not exceed 180 days' maturity, represent more than 10 percent of the outstanding paper of an issuing corporation, nor exceed 30 percent of the resources of an investment program. At the request of the Pooled Money Investment Board, such investment shall be secured by the issuer by depositing with the Treasurer securities authorized by Section 53651 of a market value at least 10 percent in excess of the amount of the state's investment.

(f) Bills of exchange or time drafts drawn on and accepted by a commercial bank, otherwise known as bankers acceptances, which are eligible for purchase by the Federal Reserve System.

(g) Negotiable certificates of deposits purchased from a nationally or state-chartered bank or savings and loan association. For the purposes of this section, negotiable certificates of deposits do not come within the provisions of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 16500) of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(h) The portion of bank loans and obligations guaranteed by the United States Small Business Administration or the United States Farmers Home Administration.

(i) Student loan notes insured under the Guaranteed Student Loan Program established pursuant to the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended (20 U.S.C. 1001, et seq.) and eligible for resale to the Student Loan Marketing Association established pursuant to Section 133 of the Education Amendments of 1972, as amended (20 U S.C. 1087-2).

(j) Obligations issued, assumed, or guaranteed by the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, the Inter-American Development Bank, the Asian Development Bank, or the Government Development Bank of Puerto Rico.

SEC. 1.2. Section 16430 of the Government Code is amended to read:

16430. Eligible securities for the investment of surplus moneys shall be:

(a) Bonds or interest-bearing notes or obligations of the United States, or those for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(b) Bonds or interest-bearing notes on obligations that are guaranteed as to principal and interest by a federal agency of the United States.

(c) Bonds of this state, or those for which the faith and credit of this state are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(d) Bonds or warrants, including, but not limited to, revenue warrants, of any county, city, metropolitan water district, California water district, California water storage district, irrigation district in the State of California municipal utility district, or school district of this state.

(e) Bonds, consolidated bonds, collateral trust debentures, consolidated debentures, or other obligations issued by federal land banks or federal intermediate credit banks established under the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended, in debentures and consolidated debentures issued by the Central Bank for Cooperatives and banks for cooperatives established under the Farm Credit Act of 1933, as amended, in bonds or debentures of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board established under the Federal Home Loan Bank Act, in stock, bonds, debentures and other obligations of the Federal National Mortgage Association established under the National Housing Act as amended, and in the bonds of any federal home loan bank established under said act, obligations of the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, and in bonds, notes, and other obligations issued by the Tennessee Valley Authority under the Tennessee Valley Authority Act as amended.

(f) Commercial paper of "prime" quality as defined by a nationally recognized organization which rates such securities. Eligible paper is further limited to issuing corporations: (1) organized and operating within the United States; (2) having total assets in excess of five hundred million dollars ($500,000,000); and (3) approved by the Pooled Money Investment Board. Purchases of eligible commercial paper may not exceed 180 days' maturity, represent more than 10 percent of the outstanding paper of an issuing corporation, nor exceed 30 percent of the resources of an investment program. At the request of the Pooled Money Investment Board, such investment shall be secured by the issuer by depositing with the Treasurer securities authorized by Section 53651 of a market value at least 10 percent in excess of the amount of the state's investment.

(g) Bills of exchange or time drafts drawn on and accepted by a commercial bank, otherwise known as bankers acceptances, which are eligible for purchase by the Federal Reserve System.

(h) Negotiable certificates of deposits purchased from a nationally or state-chartered bank or savings and loan association. For the purposes of this section, negotiable certificates of deposits do not come within the provisions of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 16500) of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(i) The portion of bank loans and obligations guaranteed by the United States Small Business Administration or the United States Farmers Home Administration.

(j) Student loan notes insured under the Guaranteed Student Loan Program established pursuant to the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended (20 U.S.C. 1001, et seq.) and eligible for resale to the Student Loan Marketing Association established pursuant to Section 133 of the Education Amendments of 1972, as amended (20 U.S.C. 1087-2).

SEC. 1.3. Section 16430 of the Government Code is amended to read:

16430. Eligible securities for the investment of surplus moneys shall be:

(a) Bonds or interest-bearing notes or obligations of the United States, or those for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(b) Bonds or interest-bearing notes on obligations that are guaranteed as to principal and interest by a federal agency of the United States.

(c) Bonds of this state, or those for which the faith and credit of this state are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(d) Bonds or warrants, including, but not limited to, revenue warrants, of any county, city, metropolitan water district, California water district, California water storage district, irrigation district in the State of California municipal utility district, or school district of this state.

(e) Bonds, consolidated bonds, collateral trust debentures, consolidated debentures, or other obligations issued by federal land banks or federal intermediate credit banks established under the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended, in debentures and consolidated debentures issued by the Central Bank for Cooperatives and banks for cooperatives established under the Farm Credit Act of 1933, as amended, in bonds or debentures of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board established under the Federal Home Loan Bank Act, in stock, bonds, debentures and other obligations of the Federal National Mortgage Association established under the National Housing Act as amended, and in the bonds of any federal home loan bank established under said act, obligations of the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, and in bonds, notes, and other obligations issued by the Tennessee Valley Authority under the Tennessee Valley Authority Act as amended.

(f) Commercial paper of "prime" quality as defined by a nationally recognized organization which rates such securities. Eligible paper is further limited to issuing corporations: (1) organized and operating within the United States; (2) having total assets in excess of five hundred million dollars ($500,000,000); and (3) approved by the Pooled Money Investment Board. Purchases of eligible commercial paper may not exceed 180 days' maturity, represent more than 10 percent of the outstanding paper of an issuing corporation, nor exceed 30 percent of the resources of an investment program. At the request of the Pooled Money Investment Board, such investment shall be secured by the issuer by depositing with the Treasurer securities authorized by Section 53651 of a market value at least 10 percent in excess of the amount of the state's investment.

(g) Bills of exchange or time drafts drawn on and accepted by a commercial bank, otherwise known as bankers acceptances, which are eligible for purchase by the Federal Reserve System.

(h) Negotiable certificates of deposits purchased from a nationally or state-chartered bank or savings and loan association. For the purposes of this section, negotiable certificates of deposits do not come within the provisions of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 16500) of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(i) The portion of bank loans and obligations guaranteed by the United States Small Business Administration or the United States Farmers Home Administration

(j) Student loan notes insured under the Guaranteed Student Loan Program established pursuant to the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended (20 U.S C. 1001, et seq.) and eligible for resale to the Student Loan Marketing Association established pursuant to Section 133 of the Education Amendments of 1972, as amended (20 U.S.C. 1087-2).

(k) Obligations issued, assumed, or guaranteed by the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, the Inter-American Development Bank, the Asian Development Bank, or the Government Development Bank of Puerto Rico.

SEC. 2. It is the intent of the Legislature that if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1330 or Assembly Bill No. 2099, or both, are chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, each of the bills amend Section 16430 of the Government Code, and this bill is chaptered last, that amendments proposed by each of the bills which are chaptered be given effect as follows:

(1) If this bill and Senate Bill No. 1330 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 16430 of the Government Code, but Assembly Bill No. 2099 is not chaptered or as chaptered does not amend that section, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1330, the amendments proposed by both bills shall be given effect and incorporated in Section 16430 in the form set forth in Section 1.1 of this act. Therefore, if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1330 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 16430, this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1330, and Assembly Bill No. 2099 is not chaptered or as chaptered does not amend that section, Section 1.1 of this act shall be operative and Sections 1, 1.2, and 1.3 of this act shall not become operative.

(2) If this bill and Assembly Bill No. 2099 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 16430 of the Government Code, but Senate Bill No. 1330 is not chaptered or as chaptered does not amend that section, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2099, the amendments proposed by both bills shall be given effect and incorporated in Section 16430 in the form set forth in Section 1.2 of this act. Therefore, if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 2099 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 16430, this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2099, and Senate Bill No. 1330 is not chaptered or as chaptered does not amend that section, Section 1.2 shall be operative and Sections 1, 1.1, and 1.3 of this act shall not become operative.

(3) If this bill and Senate Bill No. 1330 and Assembly Bill No. 2099 are all chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, all three bills amend Section 16430 of the Government Code, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1330 and Assembly Bill No. 2099, the amendments proposed by all three bills shall be given effect and incorporated in Section 16430 in the form set forth in Section 1.3 of this act. Therefore, if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1330 and Assembly Bill No. 2099 are all chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, all three bills amend Section 16430 of the Government Code, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1330 and Assembly Bill No. 2099, Section 1.3 of this act shall be operative and Sections 1, 1 1, and 1.2

of this act shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1098

An act to add Section 54126 to the Education Code, relating to specialist reading teachers, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 54126 is added to the Education Code, to read:

54126. The governing board of any school district maintaining kindergarten and grades 1 through 6, inclusive, may, in writing, appoint an elementary school teacher holding a credential issued pursuant to Section 44265 and having a minimum of three years teaching experience in kindergarten through the sixth grade, inclusive, to a specialist teacher position.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to be effective for the commencement of the 1978–79 school year, and thereby improve the educational offerings of school districts as soon as possible by providing greater flexibility in the hiring of specialist reading teachers, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1099

An act to add Sections 72255 and 89757 to, to add Article 5 (commencing with Section 92150) to Chapter 2 of Part 57 of, the Education Code, and to add Section 11015 to the Government Code, relating to public funds.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1 Section 72255 is added to the Education Code, to read

72255 No funds under the control of a community college district shall ever be used for membership or for any participation involving a financial payment or contribution, on behalf of the district or any individual employed by or associated therewith, in any private organization whose membership practices are discriminatory on the basis of race, creed, color, sex, religion, or national origin. This section does not apply to any public funds which have been paid to an individual officer or employee of the district as salary, or to any funds which are used directly or indirectly for the benefit of student organizations.

SEC. 2. Section 89757 is added to the Education Code, to read:

89757. None of the funds enumerated in Section 89756, nor any of the funds of an auxiliary organization, shall ever be used by any university or college for membership or for any participation involving a financial payment or contribution, on behalf of the institution, or any individual employed by or associated therewith, in any private organization whose membership practices are discriminatory on the basis of race, creed, color, sex, religion, or national origin. This section does not apply to any public funds which have been paid to an individual employee or officer as salary, or to any funds which are used directly or indirectly for the benefit of student organizations.

SEC. 3. Article 5 (commencing with Section 92150) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 57 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 5. Public Funds for Private Organizations

92150. No state funds under the control of an officer or employee of the University of California shall ever be used for membership or for any participation involving a financial payment or contribution, on behalf of the university, or any individual employed by or associated therewith, in any private organization whose membership practices are discriminatory on the basis of race, creed, color, sex, religion, or national origin. This section does not apply to any public funds which have been paid to an individual employee or officer of the university as salary, or to any funds which are used directly or indirectly for the benefit of student organizations.

SEC. 4. Section 11015 is added to the Government Code, to read:

11015. No state funds under the control of an officer or employee of the state, or of any agency thereof, shall ever be used for membership or for any participation involving a financial payment or contribution, on behalf of the state agency, or any individual employed by or associated therewith, in any private organization whose membership practices are discriminatory on the basis of race, creed, color, sex, religion, or national origin. This section does not apply to any public funds which have been paid to an individual employee or officer as salary.

CHAPTER 1100

An act to add Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 2851) to Part 2 of Division 1 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to public utilities.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 2851) is added to Part 2 of Division 1 of the Public Utilities Code, to read:

CHAPTER 8. SOLAR ENERGY SYSTEMS

2851. (a) The commission shall investigate the feasibility of alternative methods of providing low-interest, long-term financing of solar energy systems for utility customers, including, but not limited to, direct financing by investor-owned utilities and conventional financing through banks, savings and loan associations, or other sources.

(b) In conducting its investigation, the commission shall consider the economic and financial impact of each alternative on the investor-owned utilities, the relative costs and benefits of each alternative to all utility customers, and the extent to which each alternative would facilitate the implementation of cost-effective solar energy systems.

(c) The commission shall report its findings and recommendations to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1980.

CHAPTER 1101

An act to add Section 31052 to the Water Code, relating to county water districts.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 31052 is added to the Water Code, to read:

31052. The North Marin County Water District may purchase devices for generation of energy from solar radiation and may resell such devices for use within the district. Resales shall be on reasonable terms and conditions, which may include warranties and guarantees by the district of payment of purchase loans.

SEC. 2. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that a special law is necessary with respect to the North Marin County Water District, that the provisions of Section 1 are needed to meet the special circumstances within the district, and that a general law cannot be made applicable.

CHAPTER 1102

An act to add Section 2775.5 to the Public Utilities Code, relating to solar energy systems.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that it is in the best interest of the state to ensure competition in the solar energy industry because of the innovation, price competition, aggressive marketing, and freedom of entry which characterize competitive industries, and that the solar energy industry, because of the decentralized nature of its generation and distribution system, has the potential to be a truly competitive energy industry.

The Legislature further finds and declares that the current uncertainty with regard to the role of electrical and gas public utilities with regard to solar energy development hinders the full-scale development of the solar energy industry, and therefore requires legislative clarification.

The Legislature further finds and declares that there may be an inherent conflict for a public utility which furnishes gas and electricity on the one hand and develops solar energy on the other hand, and that it would be detrimental to the solar energy industry and to the state if privately owned public utilities used their status as monopolies to dominate the solar energy industry or exercise unfair market power.

The Legislature further finds and declares that the basis for regulation of public utilities extends to their participation in solar energy development as well as in the production and delivery of energy from conventional sources.

It is, therefore, the intent of the Legislature that the Public Utilities Commission be given a clear and explicit mandate to regulate the involvement of privately owned public utilities in solar energy development, and to ensure that the solar energy industry develops in a manner which is competitive and free from the potential dominance of regulated electrical and gas corporations.

SEC. 2. Section 2775.5 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

2775.5. (a) In the event that an electrical or gas corporation or any subsidiary thereof desires to manufacture, lease, sell, or otherwise own or control any solar energy system, it shall first obtain from the commission the authorization to do so as provided in this section. No such authorization shall be required for any solar energy system which is owned or controlled for experimental or demonstration purposes. As used in this subdivision, "experimental or demonstration purposes" means a limited program of installation, use, or development the sole purpose of which is to investigate the technical viability or economic cost-effectiveness of a solar application.

(b) In applying for authorization pursuant to this section, the corporation shall submit to the commission in such form as the commission may specify a description of the proposed program of solar energy development for which it seeks approval. The commission shall grant the authorization sought if it finds that the proposed program will not restrict competition nor restrict growth in the solar energy industry nor unfairly employ in a manner which would restrict competition in the market for solar energy systems any financial, marketing, distributing, or generating advantage which the corporation may exercise as a result of its authority to operate as a public utility. Before granting any such authorization, the commission shall find in addition that the program of solar energy development proposed by the corporation will accelerate the development and use of solar energy systems in this state for the duration of the program.

(c) The commission shall suspend or terminate any authorization granted pursuant to this section whenever it finds and determines that the program of solar energy development no longer meets the requirements of subdivision (b).

(d) As used in this section, "solar energy system" means equipment which uses solar energy to heat or cool or produce electricity and which has a useful life of at least three years. "Solar energy system" shall not include an electric plant as defined by Section 217.

CHAPTER 1103

An act to amend Sections 4036, 4036.2, 4047.5, and 4048 of the Business and Professions Code and to amend Sections 11164 and 26662 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to drugs.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4036 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4036. (a) "Prescription" means an oral order given individually for the person for whom prescribed, directly from the prescriber to the furnisher, or indirectly by means of a written order, signed by the prescriber, and shall bear the name and address of the patient, the name and quantity of the drug or device prescribed, directions for use, and the date of issue, and either rubber stamped, typed, or printed by hand or typeset the name, address, and telephone number of the prescriber, his license classification, and his federal registry number, if a controlled substance is prescribed. No person other than a physician, dentist, podiatrist, or veterinarian, or pharmacist acting within the scope of a project authorized under Article 18 (commencing with Section 429.70) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, or registered nurse acting within the scope of a project authorized under Article 18 (commencing with Section 429.70) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, or physician's assistant acting within the scope of a project authorized under Article 18 (commencing with Section 429.70) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, shall prescribe or write a prescription.

Nothing in the amendments made to this section at the 1969 Regular Session of the Legislature shall be construed as expanding or limiting the right which a chiropractor, while acting within the scope of his license, may have to prescribe a device.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a) of this section, a written order of the prescriber for a dangerous drug, except for any Schedule II controlled substance that is a narcotic drug, which contains at least the name and signature of the prescriber, the name and address of the patient in a manner consistent with paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 11164 of the Health and Safety Code, the name and quantity of the drug prescribed, directions for use, and the date of issue may be treated as a prescription by the dispensing pharmacist so long as any additional information required by subdivision (a) of this section is readily retrievable in the pharmacy.

(c) Except as provided in Section 4036.1, an oral prescription shall as soon as practicable be reduced to writing by the pharmacist and shall be filed by, or under the direction of, the pharmacist. The pharmacist need not reduce to writing the address, telephone number, license classification, federal registry number of the prescriber or the address of the patient if such information is readily retrievable in the pharmacy.

SEC. 2. Section 4036.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4036.2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a prescriber may authorize his employee on his behalf to orally transmit a prescription to the furnisher. The furnisher shall record the name of the employee of the prescriber who transmits the order.

This section shall not apply to orders for narcotics as defined in Division 10 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 3. Section 4047.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4047.5. A pharmacist shall not dispense any prescription except in a container correctly labeled with the following:

(a) Except where the prescriber orders otherwise, either the manufacturer's trade name of the drug or the generic name and the name of the manufacturer. Commonly used abbreviations may be used. Preparations containing two or more active ingredients may be identified by the manufacturer's trade name or the commonly used name or the principal active ingredients.

(b) The directions for the use of the drug.

(c) The name of the patient.

(d) The name of the prescriber.

(e) The date of issue.

(f) The name and address of the furnisher, and prescription number or other means of identifying the prescription.

(g) The strength of the drug or drugs dispensed.

(h) The quantity of the drug or drugs dispensed.

(i) The expiration date of the effectiveness of the drug dispensed if such information is required on the original label of the manufacturer of the drug.

If a pharmacist dispenses a prescribed drug by means of a unit dose medication system, as defined by administrative regulation, for a patient in a skilled nursing, intermediate care or other health care facility, the requirements of this section will be satisfied if the unit dose medication system contains the aforementioned information or the information is otherwise readily available at the time of drug administration.

SEC. 4. Section 4048 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4048. The label on any drugs furnished to a patient under the provisions of Section 4051 of this chapter, shall, in addition to any other information required to be stated thereon, contain the expiration date of the effectiveness of the drug if such information is required on the original label of the manufacturer of the drugs.

SEC. 5. Section 11164 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11164. Except as provided in Section 11167, no person shall prescribe a controlled substance, nor shall any person fill, compound, or dispense such a prescription unless it complies with the requirements of this section.

(a) Each prescription for a controlled substance classified in Schedule II which is a narcotic drug shall be wholly written in ink or indelible pencil in the handwriting of the prescriber upon the official prescription form issued by the Department of Justice. Such prescriptions shall be prepared in triplicate, signed and dated by the prescriber, and shall contain the name and address of the person for whom the controlled substance is prescribed, the name and quantity of the controlled substance prescribed, directions for use, and the address, category of professional licensure, and the federal controlled substance registration of the prescriber. The original and one copy of such a prescription shall be delivered to the pharmacist filling the prescription. The original shall be retained by the pharmacist and the copy, properly endorsed by him, shall be transmitted to the Department of Justice at the end of the month in which the prescription was filled.

(b) Each prescription for a controlled substance classified in Schedule II which is not a narcotic drug or for a controlled substance classified in Schedule III, IV, or V, except as authorized by subdivision (c), shall be subject to the following requirements:

(1) The prescription shall be signed and dated by the prescriber and shall contain the name of the person for whom the controlled substance is prescribed, the name and quantity of controlled substance prescribed, and directions for use. With respect to prescriptions for controlled substances classified in Schedule II which are not narcotic drugs, and any controlled substance classified in Schedule III, the signature, date, and information required by this paragraph shall be wholly written in ink or indelible pencil in the handwriting of the prescriber.

(2) In addition, the prescription shall contain the name, address, telephone number, category of professional licensure, and federal controlled substance registration number of the prescriber. The information required by this paragraph shall be either preprinted upon the prescription blank, typewritten, rubber stamped, or printed by hand. Notwithstanding any provision in this section, the prescriber's address, telephone number, category of professional licensure, or federal controlled substances registration number need not appear on the prescription if such information is readily retrievable in the pharmacy.

(3) The prescription shall also contain the address of the person for whom the controlled substance is prescribed. If the prescriber does not specify such address on the prescription, the pharmacist filling the prescription or an employee acting under his direction shall write or type the address on the prescription or maintain such information in a readily retrievable form in the pharmacy.

(c) Any controlled substance classified in Schedule III, IV, or V may be dispensed upon an oral prescription, which shall be reduced to writing by the pharmacist filling the prescription or by such other person as is expressly authorized by provisions of the Business and Professions Code. The date of issue of the prescription and all the information required for a written prescription by subdivision (b) shall be included in such written record of the prescription. The pharmacist need not reduce to writing the address, telephone number, license classification, or federal registry number of the prescriber or the address of the patient if such information is readily retrievable in the pharmacy. Pursuant to authorization of the prescriber, any employee of the prescriber on his behalf may orally transmit a prescription for a controlled substance classified in Schedule IV or V, if in such cases the written record of the prescription required by this subdivision specifies the name of the employee of the prescriber transmitting the prescription.

SEC. 5.5. Section 26662 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

26662. Any drug or device sold by filling or refilling a written or oral prescription of a practitioner licensed to prescribe such drug or device shall be exempt from the labeling requirements of Sections 26631, 26632, 26634, 26635, 26636, 26637, 26638, 26639, 26640, 26642, 26646, and 26647, if the drug or device bears a label displaying all the following:

(a) Except where the prescriber orders otherwise, either the manufacturer's trade name of the drug, or the generic name and the name of the manufacturer. Commonly used abbreviations may be used. Preparations containing two or more active ingredients may be identified by the manufacturer's trade name or the commonly used name or the principal active ingredients.

(b) The directions for the use of the drug or device.

(c) The name of the patient.

(d) The name of the prescriber.

(e) The date of issue.

(f) The name, address of the furnisher, and prescription number or other means of identifying the prescription.

(g) The strength of the drug or drugs dispensed.

(h) The quantity of the drug or drugs dispensed.

(i) The expiration date of the effectiveness of the drug or device if such information is included on the original label of the manufacturer of the drug or device.

If a pharmacist dispenses a prescribed drug by means of a unit dose medication system, as defined by administrative regulation, for a patient in a skilled nursing, intermediate care or other health care facility, the requirements of this section will be satisfied if the unit dose medication system contains the aforementioned information or the information is otherwise readily available at the time of drug administration.

The exemption shall not apply to any drug or device dispensed in the course of the conduct of a business of dispensing drugs or devices pursuant to diagnosis by mail, or to a drug or device dispensed in violation of Section 26660.

SEC. 6. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local governmental entities and school districts which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes.

CHAPTER 1104

An act to amend Section 423 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to property taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 423 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

423. Except as provided in Section 423.7, when valuing enforceably restricted open-space land, other than land use for the production of timber for commercial purposes, the board for purposes of surveys required by Section 1815 of this code and the county assessor shall not consider sales data on lands, whether or not enforceably restricted, but shall value such lands by the capitalization of income method in the following manner:

(a) The annual income to be capitalized shall be determined as follows:

(1) Where sufficient rental information is available the income shall be the fair rent which can be imputed to the land being valued based upon rent actually received for the land by the owner and upon typical rentals received in the area for similar land in similar use, where the owner pays the property tax. When the land being valued is actually encumbered by a lease, any cash rent or its equivalent considered in determining the fair rent of the land shall be the amount for which the land would be expected to rent were the rental payment to be renegotiated in the light of current conditions including applicable provisions under which the land is enforceably restricted.

(2) Where sufficient rental information is not available, the income shall be that which the land being valued reasonably can be expected to yield under prudent management and subject to applicable provisions under which the land is enforceably restricted. There shall be a rebuttable presumption that "prudent management" does not include use of the land for a recreational use, as defined in subdivision (n) of Section 51201 of the Government Code, unless the land is actually devoted to such use.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision herein, if the parties to an instrument which enforceably restricts the land stipulate therein an amount which constitutes the minimum annual income per acre to be capitalized, then the income to be capitalized shall not be less than the amount so stipulated.

For the purposes of this section income shall be determined in accordance with rules and regulations issued by the board and with this section and shall be the difference between revenue and expenditures. Revenue shall be the amount of money or money's worth, including any cash rent or its equivalent, which the land can be expected to yield to an owner-operator annually on the average from any use of the land permitted under the terms by which the land is enforceably restricted including, but not limited to, that from the production of salt and from typical crops grown in the area during a typical rotation period, not to exceed six years including the tax year and the next succeeding five years. When the land is planted to fruit-bearing or nut-bearing trees, vines, bushes or perennial plants, the revenue shall not be less than the land would be expected to yield to an owner-operator from other typical crops grown in the area during a typical rotation period, not to exceed six years including the tax year and the next succeeding five years. Proceeds from the sale of the land being valued shall not be included in the revenue from the land.

Expenditures shall be any outlay or average annual allocation of money or money's worth that can be fairly charged against the revenue expected to be received during the period used in computing such revenue. Those expenditures to be charged against revenue shall be only those which are ordinary and necessary in the production and maintenance of the revenue for that period. Expenditures shall not include depletion charges, debt retirement, interest on funds invested in the land, interest on funds invested in trees and vines valued as land as provided by Section 429, property taxes, corporation income taxes, or corporation franchise taxes based on income. When the income used is from operating the land being valued or from operating comparable land, amounts shall be excluded from the income to provide a fair return on capital investment and operating assets other than the land, to amortize depreciable property, and to fairly compensate the owner-operator for his operating and managing services.

(b) The capitalization rate to be used in valuing land pursuant to this article shall not be derived from sales data and shall be the sum of the following components:

(1) An interest component to be determined by the board and announced no later than September 1 of the year preceding the assessment year and which was the yield rate for long-term United States government bonds, as most recently published by the Federal Reserve Board, rounded to the nearest one-quarter percent;

(2) A risk component which shall be a percentage determined on the basis of the location and characteristics of the land, the crops to be grown thereon and the provisions of any lease or rental agreement to which the land is subject;

(3) A component for property taxes which shall be a percentage equal to the estimated total tax rate applicable to the land for the assessment year times the assessment ratio; and

(4) A component for amortization of any investment in perennials over their estimated economic life when the total income from land and perennials other than timber exceeds the yield from other typical crops grown in the area.

(c) The value of the land shall be the quotient of the income determined as provided in subdivision (a) divided by the capitalization rate determined as provided in subdivision (b).

(d) The ratio prescribed in Section 401 shall be applied to the value of the land determined in subdivision (c) to obtain its assessed value.

(e) If the parties to an instrument which creates an enforceable restriction expressly so provide therein, the valuation resulting from the capitalization of income method described in this section shall not exceed the valuation that would have resulted by the consideration of sales of otherwise comparable lands.

CHAPTER 1105

An act to amend Section 66499 of the Government Code, relating to improvement subdivisions.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 66499 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66499. (a) Whenever this division or a local ordinance authorizes or requires the furnishing of security in connection with the performance of any act or agreement, such security shall be one of the following at the option of and subject to the approval of the local agency:

(1) Bond or bonds by one or more duly authorized corporate sureties.

(2) A deposit, either with the local agency or a responsible escrow agent or trust company, at the option of the local agency, of money or negotiable bonds of the kind approved for securing deposits of public moneys.

(3) An instrument of credit from one or more financial institutions subject to regulation by the state or federal government and pledging that the funds necessary to carry out the act or agreement are on deposit and guaranteed for payment.

(4) A lien upon the property to be divided, created by contract between the owner and the local agency, if the local agency finds that it would not be in the public interest to require the installation of the required improvement sooner than two years after the recordation of the map.

(5) Any form of security, including security interests in real property, which is acceptable to the local agency and specified by ordinance thereof.

(b) Any written contract or security interest in real property entered into as security for performance pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be recorded with the county recorder of the county in which the subject real property is located. From the time of recordation of the written contract or document creating a security interest, a lien shall attach to the real property particularly described therein and shall have the priority of a judgment lien in an amount necessary to complete the agreed to improvements. The recorded contract or security document shall be indexed in the Grantor Index to the names of all record owners of the real property as specified on the map and in the Grantee Index to the local agency approving the map.

The local agency may at any time release all or any portion of the property subject to any lien or security interest created by this subdivision or subordinate the lien or security interest to other liens or encumbrances if it determines that security for performance is sufficiently secured by a lien on other property or that the release or subordination of the lien will not jeopardize the completion of agreed upon improvements.

CHAPTER 1106

An act to add Article 12 (commencing with Section 850) to Chapter 1 of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code, and to add Section 1276.1 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to standards for licensure or certification.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 12 (commencing with Section 850) is added to Chapter 1 of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code, to read:

Article 12. Standards for Licensure or Certification

850. No healing arts licensing board or examining committee under the Department of Consumer Affairs shall by regulation require an applicant for licensure or certification to be a member of, to be certified by, to be eligible to be certified or registered by, or otherwise meet the standards of a specified private voluntary association or professional society except as provided for in this article.

851. A healing arts licensure board or examining committee may by regulation require an applicant for licensure or certification to meet the standards of a specified private voluntary association or professional society when either of the following conditions is met:

(a) There is direct statutory authority or requirement that the board or examining committee utilize the standards of the specified private voluntary association or professional society; or

(b) The board or examining committee specifies in the regulation the amount of education, training, experience, examinations, or other requirements of the private voluntary association or professional society, which standards shall be consistent with the provisions of law regulating such licensees, and the board or examining committee adopts such standards in public hearing. The board or examining committee may, by regulation, require an applicant to successfully complete an examination conducted by or created by a relevant national certification association, testing firm, private voluntary association, or professional society.

Nothing in this section authorizes the Board of Medical Quality Assurance to limit the licensure of physicians and surgeons by specialty.

SEC. 2. Section 1276.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1276.1. In setting personnel standards for licensed health facilities pursuant to Section 1276, the department may set such standards itself or may adopt them by reference to named standard-setting organizations. If the department adopts standards for a category of health personnel by reference to a specified organization, the department shall either:

(a) List in the regulation the education, training, experience, examinations, or other requirements set by the specified organization; or

(b) Retain on file and available for public inspection a listing of the education, training, experience, examinations, or other requirements set by the specified organization; or

(c) Have direct statutory authority or requirement to use the standards of the specified organization.

SEC. 3. The provisions of Section 1 of this act shall only be applicable to regulations adopted on or after the effective date of this act.

SEC. 4. The provisions of Section 2 of this act shall be operative on and after January 1, 1981.

CHAPTER 1107

An act to amend Sections 40821, 40824, 40825, 41704, and 42351.5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to air pollution.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 40821 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

40821. A hearing board, with not less than four members being present, may, in its discretion, within 30 days, rehear any matter which was decided by three members or less.

SEC. 2. Section 40824 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

40824. In case of a hearing to consider an application for an interim variance, as authorized under Section 42351:

(a) The hearing board shall serve reasonable notice of the time and place of the hearing upon the district air pollution control officer and upon the applicant.

(b) Subdivision (b) of Section 40823 shall not apply.

(c) In districts with a population of less than 500,000 the chairman of the hearing board, or any other member of the hearing board designated by the board, may hear an application for an interim variance. If any member of the public contests a decision made by a single member of the hearing board, the application shall be reheard by the full hearing board within 10 days of the decision.

SEC. 3. Section 40825 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

40825. In case of a hearing to consider an application for a variance, or a series of variances, to be in effect for a period of not more than 90 days, or an application for modification of a schedule of increments of progress:

(a) The hearing board shall serve a notice of the time and place of a hearing to grant such a variance or modification upon the air pollution control officer, all other districts within the air basin, the state board, the Environmental Protection Agency, and upon the applicant or permittee, not less than 10 days prior to such hearing.

(b) Subdivision (b) of Section 40823 shall not apply.

(c) In districts with a population of less than 500,000 the chairman of the hearing board, or any other member of the hearing board designated by the board, may hear such an application. If any member of the public contests a decision made by a single member of the hearing board, the application shall be reheard by the full hearing board within 10 days of the decision.

SEC. 4. Section 41704 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

41704. Section 41701 shall not apply to:

(a) Fires set pursuant to Section 41801.

(b) Agricultural burning for which a permit has been granted pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 41850).

(c) Fires set or permitted by any public officer in the performance of his official duty for the improvement of watershed, range, or pasture.

(d) Use of any aircraft to distribute seed, fertilizer, insecticides, or other agricultural aids over lands devoted to the growing of crops or raising of fowl or animals.

(e) Open outdoor fires used only for cooking of food for human beings or for recreational purposes.

(f) The use of orchard and citrus grove heaters which are in compliance with the requirements set forth in Section 41860.

(g) Agricultural operations necessary for the growing of crops or raising of fowl or animals.

(h) The use of other equipment in agricultural operations necessary for the growing of crops or raising of fowl or animals.

(i) Fugitive dust emissions from rock crushing facilities within the Southeast Desert Air Basin, where such facilities were in existence prior to January 1, 1970, at a location where the population density is less than 10 persons per square mile in each square mile within a seven-mile radius of the facilities; provided, however, that under no circumstances shall such emissions cause a measurable degradation of the ambient air quality or create a nuisance. This subdivision shall not apply to any such rock crushing facilities which (1) process in excess of 100 tons of rock in any 24-hour period, averaged over any period of 30 consecutive days, (2) have 25 or more employees, (3) fail to operate and maintain in good working order any emission control equipment installed prior to the effective date of this act, or (4) undergo a change of ownership after January 1, 1977.

(j) The use of visible emission generating equipment in training sessions conducted by governmental agencies necessary for certifying persons to evaluate visible emissions for compliance with Section 41701 or applicable district rules and regulations. Any local or regional authority rule or regulation relating to visible emissions shall not be applicable to such equipment.

SEC. 4.5. Section 41704 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Section 1 of Senate Bill No. 2198, is amended to read:

41704. Section 41701 shall not apply to:

(a) Fires set pursuant to Section 41801.

(b) Agricultural burning for which a permit has been granted pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 41850).

(c) Fires set or permitted by any public officer in the performance of his official duty for the improvement of watershed, range, or pasture.

(d) Use of any aircraft to distribute seed, fertilizer, insecticides, or other agricultural aids over lands devoted to the growing of crops or raising of fowl or animals.

(e) Open outdoor fires used only for cooking of food for human beings or for recreational purposes.

(f) The use of orchard and citrus grove heaters which are in compliance with the requirements set forth in Section 41860.

(g) Agricultural operations necessary for the growing of crops or raising of fowl or animals.

(h) The use of other equipment in agricultural operations necessary for the growing of crops or raising of fowl or animals.

(i) Fugitive dust emissions from rock crushing facilities within the Southeast Desert Air Basin, where such facilities were in existence prior to January 1, 1970, at a location where the population density is less than 10 persons per square mile in each square mile within a seven-mile radius of the facilities; provided, however, that under no circumstances shall such emissions cause a measurable degradation of the ambient air quality or create a nuisance. This subdivision shall not apply to any such rock crushing facilities which (1) process in excess of 100 tons of rock in any 24-hour period, averaged over any period of 30 consecutive days, (2) have 25 or more employees, (3) fail to operate and maintain in good working order any emission control equipment installed prior to the effective date of this act, or (4) undergo a change of ownership after January 1, 1977.

(j) Emissions from vessels using steam boilers during emergency boiler shutdowns for safety reasons, safety and operational tests required by governmental agencies, and where maneuvering is required to avoid hazards.

(k) Emissions from vessels using steam boilers during cold boiler light-off operations and while drying wet or green refractory to the extent that such emissions, excluding uncombined water vapor, are not as dark or darker in shade than that designed as Number 2 on the Ringelmann chart or of an opacity equal to, or greater than, 40 percent for periods aggregating more than 15 minutes in any one hour. This subdivision shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1984, and shall be of no force and effect on and after such date.

(l) The use of visible emission generating equipment in training sessions conducted by governmental agencies necessary for certifying persons to evaluate visible emissions for compliance with Section 41701 or applicable district rules and regulations. Any local or regional authority rule or regulation relating to visible emissions shall not be applicable to such equipment.

SEC. 5. Section 42351.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

42351.5. If a person granted a variance with a schedule of increments of progress files an application for modification of the schedule and is unable to notify the hearing board sufficiently in advance to allow the hearing board to schedule a public hearing on the application, the hearing board may grant no more than one interim authorization valid for not more than 30 days, to that person to continue operation pending the decision of the hearing board on the application. In districts with a population of less than 500,000, the chairman of the hearing board or any other member designated by the board may hear such application. If any member of the public contests such a decision made by a single member of the hearing board, the application shall be reheard by the full hearing board within 10 days of the decision. The interim authorization shall not be granted for a requested extension of a final compliance date or where the original variance expressly required advance application for the modification of an increment of progress.

SEC. 6. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Senate Bill No. 2198 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 41704 of the Health and Safety Code, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No 2198, that Section 41704 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Section 1 of Senate Bill No. 2198 be further amended on the operative date of this act in the form set forth in Section 4.5 of this act to incorporate the changes in Section 41704 proposed by this bill. Therefore, Section 4.5 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Senate Bill No. 2198 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 41704, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 2198, in which case Section 4.5 of this act shall become operative on the operative date of this act and Section 4 of this act shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1108

An act to amend Sections 50911 and 51440 of, and to add Sections 50902, 50903, and 53042.5 to, the Water Code, relating to reclamation districts.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 50902 is added to the Water Code, to read:

50902. In addition to its other powers, a district may, by resolution of the board, fix and collect charges and fees, including minimum and standby charges, for the provision of benefits and services. The board, in fixing such charges and fees, may establish the dates of delinquency and may impose penalties for delinquency not exceeding 10 percent of the amount of the charge or fee and may, in addition, collect interest at the rate of 8 percent per annum from the date of delinquency on all delinquent charges and fees. The district may sue for the recovery of unpaid charges and fees or such unpaid charges or fees may be added to the operation and maintenance assessment in the same manner as unpaid water charges pursuant to Section 51440. The revenue obtained from charges and fees may be in lieu of, or supplemental to, revenue obtained in any other manner and may be used for any district purpose and the payment of any district obligation.

SEC. 2. Section 50903 is added to the Water Code, to read.

50903. A district may, by resolution of the board, provide a procedure for and collect charges and fees, by way of the tax bills of the county or counties in which such district is located Such charges and fees shall appear as a separate item on the tax bill, shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner as county ad valorem property taxes are collected, and shall be subject to the same penalties and the same procedure and sale in case of delinquency as provided for such taxes. The district shall, on or before August 1st of each year, certify to the county auditor the charges and fees to be collected The county may deduct from the revenue so collected for the district an appropriate amount for the billing and collection services rendered to the district.

SEC. 3. Section 50911 of the Water Code is amended to read:

50911 When a district has adopted plans for the irrigation of district lands it may:

(a) Adopt rules and regulations for the distribution of water.

(b) Adopt a schedule of rates to be charged by the district for furnishing water for the irrigation of district lands. The schedule of rates may include standby charges to holders of title to land to which water may be made available, whether the water is actually used or not. The standby charge shall not exceed twenty dollars ($20) per year for each acre of land or for a parcel less than one acre.

(c) Collect the charges from the persons to or for whom the water was furnished and from the holders of title to land to which water has been made available, whether used or not.

(d) Sue for the recovery of the unpaid charges.

SEC. 4 Section 51440 of the Water Code is amended to read·

51440. When the district has obtained an irrigation system pursuant to Section 50910, and the charges for furnishing water and making water available have been fixed pursuant to Section 50911, which remain unpaid at the time the board orders an operation and maintenance assessment, the board may order that such charges be included as a part of the operation and maintenance assessment levied upon the parcels to which water has been furnished and when so levied, shall be a lien against the land.

SEC. 5. Section 53042.5 is added to the Water Code, to read·

53042.5. Time warrants may be issued for more than the amount set forth in Section 53042 and with a maturity longer than five years, provided that a special election is held pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 50800) of Part 4 of this division, at which election the principal amount and maturity of such warrants and the purpose for which they are issued are approved by a majority of the votes cast

CHAPTER 1109

An act to amend Sections 41760.5, 42238, and 84730.5 of the Education Code, to amend Sections 27423 and 51117 of the Government Code, and to amend Sections 434.5, 38202, 38303, 38904, 38905, and 38906 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to timber taxation, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 41760.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

41760.5. (a) The assessed valuation used for apportionments wherein the formulas require a distribution of state aid based on the assessed valuation of the school district shall be determined by adding: (1) the taxable assessed valuation of each district, including the assessed valuation of timber in the district which is assessed as such, (2) the sum of assessed valuation equivalents of timber yield tax revenues, as provided in subdivision (b) or (c), and (3) the homeowners' and business inventory exemptions pursuant to Sections 218 and 219 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(b) For fiscal year 1977–78, the assessed valuation equivalents for revenue amounts certified pursuant to Section 27423 of the Government Code and Section 38905 of the Revenue and Taxation Code shall be derived by multiplying such amounts by a factor of 100 and dividing the product by the secured tax rate for the prior year.

(c) On or before November 15, 1978, and each December 1 thereafter, for fiscal years 1978–79 and thereafter, the sum of the following amounts for each school district shall be converted into assessed valuation equivalents by multiplying the sum of such amounts by a factor of 100 and dividing the product by the secured tax rate of the school district:

(1) The "average annual property tax revenue attributable to timber" as determined for the current fiscal year pursuant to Section 27423 of the Government Code, provided, that for purposes of this section, a school district which levied an areawide tax rate in one or more of fiscal years 1972–73 to 1974–75, inclusive, shall not use the amount provided for in the third paragraph of subdivision (b) of Section 27423, but rather an amount equal to the product of the areawide tax rate per $100 of assessed value and the annual assessed value attributable to timber, for each such year, and

(2) The allocation made to the school district in the prior calendar year from the State Timber Tax Reserve Fund, as provided in Section 38906 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(d) For purposes of this section, "secured tax rate" shall be the average of the secured tax rates levied by the school district in each of fiscal years 1972–73 to 1974–75, inclusive, for which the school district levied a secured tax rate.

(e) Each county auditor on or before November 15th shall report the assessed valuations to the Superintendent of Public Instruction on forms provided by him. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall require the assessed valuations to be reported in such an order that the appropriate assessed valuations may be modified pursuant to Section 41201.

(f) For the purposes of Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 42400) of Part 24, of Title 2, the portion of the timber yield tax revenues equal to the amount of the areawide aid computed from the assessed valuation equivalents prescribed in subdivision (b) or (c) shall be considered as part of the money received from the areawide tax.

SEC. 2. Section 42238 of the Education Code is amended to read:

42238. For the 1974–75 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, (a) the maximum general purpose tax rate for each elementary, high, and unified school district in the county shall be computed pursuant to this section by the county superintendent of schools.

(b) The revenue limit per foundation program unit of average daily attendance for the district for the prior fiscal year shall be divided into the appropriate foundation program amount per unit of average daily attendance for the prior year. If the quotient is greater than one, it shall be deemed to be one.

(c) The foundation program amount per unit of average daily attendance used as the dividend in subdivision (b) shall be determined by the Superintendent of Public Instruction pursuant to this subdivision. For elementary school districts, it shall be the foundation program for districts which have an average daily attendance of 901 or more. For high school districts it shall be the foundation program for districts with an average daily attendance of 301 or more. For unified districts, it shall be the sum of (1) the foundation program of elementary districts which have an average daily attendance of 901 or more multiplied by the elementary foundation program units of average daily attendance of unified districts in the second principal apportionment, plus (2) the foundation program for high school districts with an average daily attendance of 301 or more multiplied by the high school foundation program units of average daily attendance of unified districts in the second principal apportionment divided by the sum of the elementary and high school units of average daily attendance of unified districts in the second principal apportionment.

(d) The inflation adjustment shall be based on the increase in the foundation program amount per unit of average daily attendance for the budget year compared with the preceding year.

(e) The amount determined pursuant to subdivision (d) shall be multiplied by the quotient determined pursuant to subdivision (b). The resultant amount shall constitute the revenue limit inflation adjustment of the district per unit of average daily attendance.

(f) The revenue limit inflation adjustment shall be added to the prior year revenue limit per foundation program unit of average daily attendance of the district and the sum multiplied by the estimated foundation program average daily attendance of the budget year The product shall be the revenue limit of the district for the budget year.

(g) Any district which has a revenue limit computed pursuant to subdivision (f) which is equal to or less than the foundation program computed for the district pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 41700) of Chapter 5 of this part, excluding Section 41716, Article 2 (commencing with Section 41730) of Chapter 5 of this part, and subdivision (a) of Section 41840 as adjusted pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 14002 may increase its revenue limit computed pursuant to subdivision (f) to the lesser of the foundation program level of the district or the prior year revenue limit increased by 15 percent.

For the 1974–75 and 1975–76 fiscal years only, notwithstanding subdivision (g) if, due to changes in federal legislation or administrative policy, the entitlement under Public Law 81-874 is reduced or discontinued and is not replaced by other federal funding, and if a district experiencing such loss has a revenue limit less than the foundation program, it shall be allowed to increase the revenue limit by an amount equal to the difference between the Public Law 81-874 income per foundation program average daily attendance of the prior year and the estimated Public Law 81-874 income per unit of foundation program average daily attendance of the budget year, if any, multiplied by the estimated foundation program average daily attendance of the budget year. Such increased revenue limit shall not exceed the foundation program of the budget year.

(h) From the amount computed pursuant to subdivision (f) or (g), there shall be subtracted the basic state aid and state equalization aid to be received for the budget year, areawide aid to be received for the budget year, the amount of income to be received from the equalization offset tax pursuant to Section 41203, and the amount of yield tax revenues, if any, not previously considered as areawide aid pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 41760.5.

(i) The amount determined pursuant to subdivision (h) shall be (1) adjusted as provided in subdivision (d) of Section 46605 and (2) adjusted sufficiently to allow for the mandated increases for district contributions for the State Teachers' Retirement System as required by Section 23400. Such adjustment, together with any rate levied in any prior year pursuant to Section 23401, shall not exceed the revenue derived by the tax rate provided in Section 23401. The adjusted amount shall be the local revenue limit of the district for the budget year.

(j) From the amount computed pursuant to subdivision (i), there shall be subtracted the amount of money collected or to be collected as taxes on property on the unsecured roll of the budget year, excluding the amounts collected through the levy of taxes provided in Section 4147, 8329, 15250, 15742, 16090, 16196, 16204, 16205, 16214, 16302, 39229, 39230, 39308, 39311, 42200, 42402, 49502, or 56811 of the Education Code, Section 52317 of the Education Code for the purposes prescribed in Section 52312, but no greater than five cents ($0.05) per one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed valuation, and Section 5302.5 of the Streets and Highways Code, and (2) the income from the prior year's taxes.

(k) From the amount computed pursuant to subdivision (j) there shall be subtracted the amount of money collected or to be collected as timber yield tax receipts pursuant to Part 18.5 (commencing with Section 38101) of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(l) For the purposes of this subdivision, the assessed valuation used in computing the maximum tax rate is defined as the total actual assessed valuation, including business inventory and homeowners' exemption and exclusive of the assessed valuation increment used to allocate tax receipts to a redevelopment agency pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 33670) of Chapter 6 of Part 1 of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code.

The amount determined pursuant to subdivision (k) shall be divided by the amount of actual assessed valuation of the district on the secured roll after due allowance for delinquencies, pursuant to Section 14203. The quotient multiplied by 100 shall be the tax rate on each one hundred dollars ($100) of such assessed valuation and shall be the maximum general purpose tax rate which may be levied in the district, during the 1973–74 fiscal year exclusive of taxes provided in Section 4147, 8329, 15250, 15742, 16090, 16196, 16204, 16205, 16214, 16302, 39229, 39230, 39308, 39311, 42200, 42402, 49502, or 56811 of the Education Code, Section 52317 of the Education Code for the purposes prescribed in Section 52312 of the Education Code, but no greater than five cents ($0.05) per one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed valuation, and Section 5302.5 of the Streets and Highways Code. The revenue limit in subdivision (g) notwithstanding, in no case for districts receiving equalization aid, shall the tax rate be reduced below one dollar ($1) on the elementary level or eighty cents ($0.80) on the high school level or one dollar and eighty cents ($1.80) for a unified school district, except that when the district has levied upon it an areawide tax, such areawide tax rate levied shall be considered first as part of the minimum tax rate limit.

SEC. 3. Section 84730.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

84730.5. (a) The assessed valuation used for apportionments wherein the formulas require a distribution of state aid based on the assessed valuation of the community college district shall be determined by adding: (1) the taxable assessed valuation of each district, including the assessed valuation of timber in the district which is assessed as such, (2) the sum of assessed valuation equivalents of timber yield tax revenues, as provided in subdivision (b) or (c), and (3) the homeowners' and business inventory exemptions pursuant to Sections 218 and 219 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(b) For fiscal year 1977–78, the assessed valuation equivalents for revenue amounts certified pursuant to Section 27423 of the Government Code and Section 38905 of the Revenue and Taxation Code shall be derived by multiplying such amounts by a factor of 100 and dividing the product by the secured tax rate for the prior year.

(c) On or before November 15, 1978, and each December 1 thereafter, for fiscal years 1978–79 and thereafter, each community college district's share of both the county's annual yield tax revenue guarantee for the current fiscal year (as provided in Section 27423 of the Government Code) and the allocation made in the prior calendar year from the State Timber Tax Reserve Fund (as provided in Section 38906 of the Revenue and Taxation Code), shall be converted into assessed valuation equivalents by multiplying such amounts by a factor of 100 and dividing the product by the secured tax rate.

(d) Each county auditor, on or before November 15 of each calendar year, shall report the assessed valuations to the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges on forms provided by such chancellor. The Chancellor of the California Community Colleges shall require the assessed valuations to be reported in such an order that the appropriate assessed valuations may be modified pursuant to Section 84201.

(e) For purposes of this section, "secured tax rate" shall be the average of the secured tax rates levied by the community college in each of fiscal years 1972–73 to 1974–75, inclusive, for which the community college levied a secured tax rate.

SEC. 4. Section 27423 of the Government Code is amended to read:

27423. (a) On or before May 1, 1977, the assessor of each county for the local roll and the State Board of Equalization for the board roll shall determine the annual assessed value attributable to timber, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 431 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, of each tax rate area for the 1972–73 to 1974–75 fiscal years, inclusive. Such values shall be from the corrected, equalized assessment roll for each such year, including escape assessments subsequently added to the roll. Escape assessments determined subsequent to June 30, 1975, for any of the three fiscal years specified shall be reported to the county auditor who shall certify to the Controller a revision in the amounts of average annual property tax revenue attributable to timber for each affected taxing jurisdiction on or before July 15, 1977, and July 15 of each year thereafter.

(b) Using the assessed values determined pursuant to subdivision (a), on or before June 1, 1977, the auditor of each county shall determine the average annual property tax revenues attributable to timber of each taxing agency for the 1972–73 to 1974–75 fiscal years, inclusive, provided, that if a taxing agency was in existence for less than the entire period, the average for such agency shall be determined by dividing the appropriate amount of property tax revenues by either one year or two years, whichever figure corresponds most nearly to the duration of existence of the agency within such period.

If the average value of the secured roll of a community college district which is attributable to timber over the period of fiscal years 1972–73 to 1974–75, inclusive, meets or exceeds 20 percent, then the auditor shall use a rate which when multiplied by that district's average annual assessed value attributable to timber will produce an amount equivalent to the total amount of property taxes raised by that district in the 1976–77 fiscal year.

For purposes of this section, "average annual property tax revenue attributable to timber" of each school district which levied an areawide tax rate in one or more of fiscal years 1972–73 to 1974–75, inclusive, shall be the product of (1) the amount of money the district received as its reallocation from the areawide fund (not the amount of its own contribution raised from its actual areawide tax rate) for each such fiscal year, and (2) a factor produced by the amount of annual assessed value attributable to timber divided by the amount of all assessed value, within the school district, for each such fiscal year.

Each county auditor shall certify to the State Controller a list of this amount for each taxing agency in the county and the total of all such amounts for the county. The auditor shall keep such records for each tax rate area as necessary to make distribution of funds pursuant to Section 38906 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(c) The State Controller may require that all information pertinent to subdivisions (a) and (b) be retained and may inspect all calculations of the county assessor and county auditor. The Controller or the board may adjust and correct any calculation deemed to be inaccurate. The sum of each county's calculations as adopted by the Controller shall be known as that county's "annual yield tax revenue guarantee", and shall be certified to the county auditor on or before August 15, 1977.

(d) On or before July 15, 1977, and July 15 of each year thereafter, the auditor shall certify to the Controller the new or revised amount of property tax revenue attributable to timber for each taxing agency which, effective after July 1 of the preceding calendar year and on or before July 1 of the current calendar year, either (1) underwent "governmental reorganization," as described in Section 2295 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, or (2) underwent "functional consolidation," as described in Section 2305 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, or (3) gained approval from its voters to levy an additional property tax rate, effective with the next succeeding fiscal year.

For purposes of this subdivision, the average annual property tax revenue attributable to timber for a taxing agency formed subsequent to June 30, 1975, shall be calculated as follows:

(1) The average annual assessed value attributable to timber shall be the sum of the values of the tax rate areas, as determined by the assessor or the board pursuant to subdivision (a), which correspond to the new agency's boundaries, as if that agency had actually existed during fiscal years 1972–73 to 1974–75, inclusive, and this sum shall be multiplied by the new taxing agency was authorized by the voters to levy in its first full year of operation.

(2) A tax rate represented by 80 percent of the maximum tax rate

For purposes of this subdivision, the average annual property tax revenue attributable to timber for a taxing agency formed prior to June 30, 1975, which annexes territory subsequent to that date, shall have added to it the sum of the values of the tax rate areas, as determined by the assessor or the board pursuant to subdivision (a) which corresponds to the territory which was annexed, multiplied by the average total tax rate levied during fiscal years 1972–73 to 1974–75, inclusive, by the taxing agency which annexed the territory.

For purposes of this subdivision, the average annual property tax revenue attributable to timber for a taxing agency which subsequent to June 30, 1975, has transferred to it by functional consolidation the responsibility of levying a property tax rate to pay the cost of a new service or program shall have added to it the sum of the average annual assessed value attributable to timber for that agency multiplied by the additional property tax rate to be incurred in the first year pursuant to the functional consolidation. For a taxing agency which subsequent to June 30, 1975, has transferred from it the responsibility of levying a property tax rate for a service or program, the average annual property tax revenue attributable to timber shall be reduced by the sum of the annual assessed value attributable to timber for that agency multiplied by the average tax rate levied by the taxing agency during fiscal years 1972–73 to 1974–75, inclusive, for the support of such service or program.

For purposes of this subdivision, when an additional property tax rate is approved by the voters of a taxing agency in the preceding fiscal year, such agency shall have its average annual property tax revenue attributable to timber revised in the same manner as for a functional consolidation in which responsibility for the funding of a new service or program is added; provided, that such revision will extend only for the same period of time as that authorized by the voters for the existence of the additional voted property tax rate.

(e) On or before August 15, 1977, and August 15 of each year thereafter, the Controller shall certify to each county auditor the revisions certified by the auditor pursuant to subdivision (a) or (d) in the average annual property tax revenue attributable to timber for one or more taxing agencies, to take effect in the current fiscal year. The Controller shall adjust and correct any calculation deemed to be inaccurate, prior to such certification The amount added to or deducted from a county's previous annual yield tax revenue guarantee will be the property tax revenue attributable to timber, as certified to the Controller by the county auditor pursuant to subdivision (d) The revised annual yield tax revenue guarantee shall take effect for payments made to the county pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 38905 and subdivision (a) of Section 38906 of the Revenue and Taxation Code in the current fiscal year, and shall remain in effect until subsequent revision under this subdivision.

(f) Upon receipt of the amount certified by the Controller pursuant to subdivision (c) or (e), the county auditor shall within 10 days certify to each taxing agency its share of this amount, and shall deliver to the county treasurer a schedule of these amounts for all taxing agencies in the county, to govern distribution of moneys pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 38905 and subdivision (a) of Section 38906 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(g) For the purposes of this section, in the case of a change in the boundaries of a tax rate area, the assessor or the board shall determine the base year timber value by parcel in each tax rate area affected by the boundary change and the auditor shall apportion the property tax revenue attributable to timber according to this determination.

(h) For the purposes of this section "tax rate area" means a geographical area in which there is a unique combination of tax levies.

(i) For purposes of this section, a taxing agency is deemed to be in existence in any year in which the agency levies a property tax rate. Any taxing agency which was operational prior to June 30, 1975, but levied no property tax rate, may subsequent to that date establish an average annual property tax revenue attributable to timber pursuant to subdivision (d), as a governmental reorganization, in the year next succeeding the year in which it first levies a property tax rate

(j) For purposes of this section, when computing the property tax revenues attributable to timber for a school district which levied an areawide tax rate during one or more of fiscal years 1972–73 to 1974–75, inclusive, the county auditor shall in his computations of the revenues produced by such a rate use the revenues actually apportioned to the district from the county's areawide fund, and not the revenues raised from the levy of the areawide rate and contributed to the county's areawide fund by said district.

SEC. 5 Section 51117 of the Government Code is amended to read·

51117. When land is zoned as timberland preserve or subsequently rezoned from a timberland preserve zone and after exhaustion of appeals, a notice of timberland preserve zone status, together with a map and assessor's parcel numbers describing such land, shall be filed for record by the city or county in the recorder's office The notice and map shall become a part of the official records of the county recorder upon its acceptance by him for filing. The filing for record of a notice of timberland preserve, together with a map and assessor's parcel numbers describing such land, shall impart constructive notice thereof.

SEC. 6. Section 434 5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read.

434.5 (a) On March 1, 1977, for the 1977–78 fiscal year, timberland shall be valued according to the following schedule.

Redwood region		Pine-mixed conifer region
Site I	$80	Site I	$60
Site II	$60	Site II	$50
Site III	$50	Site III	$40
Site IV	$30	Site IV	$30
Site V (and inoperable)	$20	Site V (and inoperable)	$20

When the assessor, pursuant to Section 434, designates a timberland parcel or portion thereof as inoperable, such timberland parcel or portion thereof shall be valued as if it is Site V.

(b) For purposes of subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, the "full cash value" of timberland for fiscal year 1978–79 means the value of timberland as determined pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section increased by 2 percent, and for fiscal years 1979–80 and thereafter, the value of timberland shall be determined pursuant to subdivision (c) or (d) of this section.

(c) When timberland, or a portion thereof, has not been purchased, or when a change in ownership has not occurred since the preceding lien date, the full cash value of such timberland shall reflect the percentage change in the cost of living, as defined in Section 2212; provided, that such value shall not reflect an increase in excess of 2 percent of the full cash value of the preceding lien date.

(d) When timberland, or a portion thereof, has been purchased, or when a change in ownership has occurred since the preceding lien date:

(1) After March 1, 1978, and before March 1, 1979, the full cash value of such timberland shall reflect the percentage change in the cost of living, as defined in Section 2212; provided, that such value shall not reflect an increase in excess of 2 percent of the full cash value of the preceding lien date.

(2) After March 1, 1979, the full cash value of such timberland shall be determined according to the triennially updated schedules of timberland values prepared pursuant to subdivisions (e) to (l). The most recent schedule of values shall be applicable. Such value shall be enrolled on the lien date next succeeding the date when the timberland, or a portion thereof, is purchased, or when a change in ownership has occurred.

(e) On or before January 1, 1980, and every third year thereafter, the board after consultation with the timber advisory committee and in compliance with procedures set forth for adoption of rules under the Administrative Procedure Act, shall adopt schedules reestablishing the value of each grade of timberland graded pursuant to Section 434 as if it were bare of forest growth, and recognizing that the restricted use of the land is for growing and harvesting timber and compatible uses. The board shall certify such values to county assessors by January 10 of each year. Such schedule shall remain in effect until subsequent revision pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision.

(f) Commencing January 1, 1977, the board shall collect such data as may be necessary to accurately value timberland pursuant to subdivision (b).

(g) In promulgating regulations pursuant to subdivision (e) the board shall determine the value of such timberland subject to the following:

(1) The board shall base the value of such land upon the existence of a 10-year enforceable restriction using commonly accepted systems of valuation.

(2) When the board is valuing timberland property within a timberland preserve zone by comparison with sales of other timberland properties in order to be considered comparable, the properties sold shall be at least 160 acres in size and shall be similarly restricted under a timberland preserve zone. Size and any discount for size and amenities shall not be factors in determining the value of land zoned as timberland preserve which is valued by a method employing the use of comparable sales.

(h) For purposes of this section, the value of each acre of timberland within each site class, within a timberland preserve zone, shall be presumed no greater than the value derived pursuant to subdivision (f).

(i) The board shall:

(1) Prepare, or cause to be prepared, timberland site capability tables which shall prescribe by site classification the potential annual yield of wood by species or mixture of species per acre.

(2) Multiply the potential annual yield by 10 percent.

(3) Multiply the result of paragraph (2) by an immediate harvest value, averaged for the previous 20 quarters, that is appropriate for the geographical area wherein such timberland values shall be applied.

(4) Divide the result of paragraph (3) by a capitalization rate of 10 percent expressed as a decimal.

Pursuant to paragraph (2) of this subdivision, the Legislature declares that 10 percent is the average percent of income from potential annual yield of wood that can be attributed to timberland as a productive component contributing to such income, and the Legislature finds that it is in the public interest that values derived from analysis of sales of timberland restricted under timberland preserve zones shall not exceed this percentage.

(j) For the purposes of this section, the value of each acre of timberland within a timberland preserve zone shall be presumed to be no less than twenty dollars ($20) per acre.

(k) For the purposes of this section, the term "value" (and its derivatives) means "full value" as defined in Section 110.5.

(l) The Legislature finds and declares that the foregoing values are consistent with the taxation of timberland used primarily for growing timber and that these values are consistent with the intent of subdivision (j) of Section 3 Article XIII of the Constitution.

SEC. 7 Section 38202 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

38202. During December, 1978, and December of each subsequent year, after public hearings, the board shall adjust the yield tax rate to the nearest one-tenth of 1 percent in the same proportion that the average rate of general property taxation in the rate adjustment counties in the current tax year differs from the average rate of general property taxation in the rate adjustment counties in the preceding tax year. The board shall compute the average rate of general property taxation in the rate adjustment counties by (a) adding the county, city, school district, and other general taxes, but not the special taxes on intangibles, aircraft, baled cotton or any other property, which is subject to a uniform statewide tax rate, nor special assessments, and (b) dividing the amount obtained by the total assessed valuation in the rate adjustment counties, exclusive of the homeowners' and business inventory exemptions, as shown by the county tax rolls for the same year.

"Total assessed valuation," as used in this section, does not include the assessment of property which is subject to a uniform statewide tax rate.

"Special assessment" as used in this section, means any amount levied solely against land or land and improvements.

SEC. 8. Section 38303 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read· 38303. During December 1978 and each December thereafter, to and including December 1981, the board, after public hearings, shall establish a timber reserve fund tax rate for the 12-month period beginning on the next following January 1. In establishing this rate the board shall estimate the amount of timber which will be harvested during the year for which the rate is to be established and the immediate harvest value of that timber and shall establish a rate which it estimates will produce an amount equal to the amount certified by the Controller pursuant to Section 38907, plus an amount equal to the board's estimate of any shortfall in annual yield tax revenue guarantee payments to taxing agencies which the board estimates may occur in the subsequent calendar year, less the amounts reimbursed pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) or paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 38904 in the current calendar year. The board shall certify the rate established under this section to the Director of Finance and the Legislature.

SEC. 9. Section 38904 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

38904. The money in the Timber Tax Fund is appropriated as follows:

(a) To reimburse the General Fund for funds advanced for costs incurred by the board in administration of this part as follows:

(1) Four hundred sixty-seven thousand nine hundred thirty dollars ($467,930) for fiscal years 1975–76 and 1976–77.

(2) Amounts identified and approved in subsequent fiscal years as approved in the Budget Bill. One-half of this amount shall be reimbursed to the General Fund on November 30, and the remaining one-half on May 31. In the event that not all funds approved in the Budget Bill are actually expended by the board, then in the succeeding fiscal year, the amount to be reimbursed to the General Fund on November 30 shall be reduced by an amount equal to the unexpended appropriation of the preceding fiscal year.

(b) To reimburse the General Fund for funds advanced for costs incurred by the State Forester in administration of Section 4582.8 of the Public Resources Code as follows:

(1) Thirteen thousand five hundred dollars ($13,500) for fiscal years 1975–76 and 1976–77.

(2) Amounts identified and approved in subsequent fiscal years as approved in the Budget Bill.

(c) To the Controller to allocate pursuant to Section 38905.

(d) To pay refunds authorized by this part of taxes imposed pursuant to Section 38115 and interest, penalties, and other amounts paid or collected pursuant to this part and deposited in the Timber Tax Fund.

SEC. 10. Section 38905 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

38905. (a) For the 1977–78 fiscal year, the Controller shall transmit to the county treasurer 100 percent of the annual yield tax revenue guarantee certified pursuant to either subdivision (c) or (e) of Section 27423 of the Government Code for the 1977–78 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, less the county's proportional share of the annual costs incurred under subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 38904. Such proportional share shall be the ratio of each county's share, determined pursuant to subdivision (c) or (e) of Section 27423 of the Government Code, to the total of such shares in the state.

For the 1978–79 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, the Controller shall transmit to the county treasurer 100 percent of the annual yield tax revenue guarantee certified pursuant to either subdivision (c) or (e) of Section 27423 of the Government Code. These amounts shall be distributed on the following dates of the fiscal year for which they are made: 50 percent on November 30, and 50 percent on May 31. The county auditor shall allocate moneys received under this subdivision among taxing agencies in the proportions accorded the respective agencies in the county's annual yield tax revenue guarantee as certified pursuant to either subdivision (c) or (e) of Section 27423 of the Government Code.

(b) The Controller shall transmit to the Timber Tax Reserve Fund the balance of any money in excess of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) in the Timber Tax Fund on June 1, 1978, and on June 1 of each year thereafter following allocation pursuant to subdivision (a); provided, that if the balance in the Timber Tax Reserve Fund, following such transmittal, is eight million dollars ($8,000,000) or more, the amount above seven million dollars ($7,000,000) shall be distributed by the Controller as provided in subdivision (a) of Section 38906, and county auditors shall then distribute receipts as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 38906.

(c) In the event that the balance in the Timber Tax Fund is insufficient to make an allocation provided for in this section, the Controller shall transfer sufficient money to the fund from the Timber Tax Reserve Fund to make the allocation. In the event that there are insufficient funds in the Timber Tax Reserve Fund required to make the allocations provided in this section, each county's share shall be reduced pro rata, but any such reduction shall be restored in subsequent allocations.

SEC. 11. Section 38906 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

38906. (a) On August 1, 1978, and on August 1 of each year thereafter, the Controller shall transmit the balance of any money in the Timber Tax Reserve Fund in accordance with subdivision (b) of Section 38905 to the treasurer of each county in the proportion that the total taxes collected under this part in all previous quarters in that county bears to the total taxes collected in the state for the same period; provided that for all quarters beginning on or after October 1, 1982, such computation shall be made with respect to the previous 20 quarters. The transmittal to a county shall be accompanied by a tabulation showing the tax collections arising in each of the county's tax code areas, to govern distribution of moneys.

(b) Upon receipt of funds pursuant to subdivision (a), the county auditor shall within 10 days distribute the funds among the agencies levying taxes or ad valorem special assessments in each tax code area, in the proportion that each taxing agency's harvest factor calculated pursuant to subdivision (c) bears to the sum of the harvest factors for all taxing agencies in the county.

(c) On or before August 1, 1978, and each August 1, thereafter, the county auditor shall compute, and shall provide such to the State Controller, a schedule setting forth for each taxing agency or portion thereof lying within such county:

(1) The average of the aggregate value of all timber harvested within such district in each of the immediately preceding four quarters for 1978, eight quarters for 1979, and 12 quarters for 1980, and to a maximum of 20 quarters thereafter, as determined from the yield tax returns filed with the board;

(2) The aggregate dollar rate calculated pursuant to Section 2151 and actually utilized the immediately preceding October in extending real property taxes upon the tax rolls;

(3) A "harvest factor" which is the product of such quarterly average and such dollar rate; and

(4) The proportion that each taxing agency's harvest factor bears to the sum of the harvest factors for all taxing agencies in the county.

(d) In determining the harvest factor in subdivision (c), the auditor shall adjust for boundary changes as of the last lien date, and may require from the county information on boundary changes necessary to make such alterations. In establishing the harvest factor for a new district, an auditor shall assume that yield taxes have been collected within boundaries of the new district for the previous 12 quarters.

SEC. 12. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

At its 1975–76 Regular Session, the Legislature enacted Assembly Bill No. 1258 as Chapter 176 of the Statutes of 1976 to provide for an entirely new system for the taxation of timber and timberlands. This bill would correct errors in Assembly Bill No. 1258 which have resulted in school financing problems for school districts with a heavy dependence on timber-derived revenues, and would make corrective changes in the administration of the timber yield tax and the valuation of timberland necessitated by the passage of Proposition 13 on the June 6, 1978, ballot.

CHAPTER 1110

An act to amend Sections 73951 and 73952 of the Government Code, relating to courts.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 73951 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73951. There shall be seven judges, provided, that there shall be eight judges at such time as the San Diego County Board of Supervisors finds there are sufficient funds to provide for an eighth judge and adopts a resolution to that effect.

SEC. 2. Section 73952 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73952. There shall be one clerk-administrative officer, who shall be appointed by the judges of the court and who shall receive a biweekly salary at a rate specified in Range No. 57.46 of the salary schedule incorporated by Section 74343.1. In no event shall the salary of the clerk-administrative officer be less than 30 percent higher than that specified for the position of assistant clerk-administrative officer. Appointment to such position shall be at step C of the salary schedule unless the appointee is entitled to a higher step under the provisions of subdivision (c) of Section 74350.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be any appropriation made by this act because this act is in accordance with the request of a local government entity or entities which desired legislative authority to act to carry out the program specified in this act.

CHAPTER 1111

An act to amend Section 69595 of the Government Code, relating to courts, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 69595 of the Government Code is amended to read:

69595. In the county of San Diego there shall be 40 judges of the Superior Court.

SEC. 2. The sum of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Controller for allocation and disbursement to San Diego County as payment for the annual cost of judgeships created pursuant to this act

CHAPTER 1112

An act to amend Sections 33327, 33328.4, and 33457 of the Health and Safety Code, to amend Sections 155.14, 211, 214, 221, 251, 254, 255, 325, 531.6, 619, 1605, 1819, 11319, 11354, and 38104 of, and to amend and renumber the heading of Article 4 (commencing with Section 866) of Chapter 4 of Part 2 of Division 1 of, to repeal Sections 254.6 and 259.6 of, and to repeal Article 7 (commencing with Section 891) of Chapter 4 of Part 2 of Division 1 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to property taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 33327 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Chapter 246 of the Statutes of 1977, is amended to read:

33327. After receipt of any preliminary redevelopment plan pursuant to Section 33325, the agency shall transmit to the auditor, assessor, and tax collector of the county in which the proposed project is located, or to the officer or officers performing the functions of the auditor or assessor for any taxing agencies which, in levying or collecting its taxes, do not use the county assessment roll or do not collect its taxes through the county, to the legislative or governing bodies of such taxing agencies, and to the State Board of Equalization:

(1) A description of the boundaries of the project area and the property outside the project area specified in subdivision (g) of Section 33328.

(2) A statement that a plan for the redevelopment of the area is being prepared.

(3) A map indicating the boundaries of the project area and the property outside the project area specified in subdivision (g) of Section 33328.

Thereafter, if the boundaries of the proposed project are changed to increase the land within the project area, the agency shall notify such taxing officials and the State Board of Equalization within 30 days by transmitting a description and map indicating each such boundary change made. The State Board of Equalization shall prescribe the format of the description of boundaries and statements, and the form, size, contents, and number of copies of the map required to be transmitted pursuant to this section

SEC. 2. Section 33328.4 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

33328.4. The State Board of Equalization shall establish a schedule of fees for filing and processing the statements and maps which are required to be filed with the State Board of Equalization pursuant to Section 33327, 33328.3, 33375, or 33457. Such schedule shall not include any fee which exceeds the reasonably anticipated cost to the State Board of Equalization of performing the work to which the fee relates. The agency forwarding the statement and map pursuant to Section 33327, 33328.3, 33375, or 33457 shall accompany the statement and map with the necessary fee.

SEC. 3. Section 33457 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read.

33457. After the amendment of a redevelopment plan to add the provision permitted by Section 33670, or to increase or reduce the size of the project area, the clerk of the community shall transmit a copy of the ordinance amending the plan, a description of the annexed or detached land within the project area and a map or plat indicating the amendments to the redevelopment plan, to the following parties:

(1) The auditor and assessor of the county in which the project is located;

(2) The officer or officers performing the functions of the auditor or assessor for any taxing agencies which, in levying or collecting taxes, do not use the county assessment roll or do not collect taxes through the county;

(3) The governing body of each of the taxing agencies which levies taxes upon any property in the project area; and

(4) The State Board of Equalization.

Such documents shall be transmitted within 30 days following the adoption of the amended redevelopment plan. The legal effect of such transmittal shall be as set forth in Section 33674.

SEC. 4. Section 155.14 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

155.14. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the board of supervisors may, by ordinance, provide that every person who at 12:01 a.m. on March 1 had a possessory interest in land owned by the state or federal government or who acquired such interest after such date and is liable for the taxes thereon for the fiscal year commencing immediately following July 1 and the permit or other right to enter upon the land has been suspended without his fault, because of a misfortune or calamity; may apply for reassessment of such property by delivering to the assessor a written application showing the condition and value, if any, of the possessory interest immediately before and after the suspension. The damage to the interest must be shown in the application to be in excess of five thousand dollars ($5,000). The application shall be executed under penalty of perjury, or if executed outside the State of California, verified by affidavit.

Upon receiving a proper application, the assessor shall verify the amounts claimed on the application in the before and after condition. The assessor shall then compute a percentage relationship of loss and reduce the current assessed value by that percentage. The assessor shall notify the applicant in writing of the amount of the proposed reassessment. The notice shall state that the applicant may appeal the proposed reassessment to the local board of equalization within 14 days of the date of mailing the notice. If an appeal is requested within the 14-day period, the board shall hear and decide the matter as if the proposed reassessment had been entered on the roll as an assessment made outside the regular assessment period. The decision of the board regarding the value of the suspended permit shall be final, provided that a decision of the local board of equalization regarding any reassessment made pursuant to this section shall create no presumption as regards the value of the affected property subsequent to the date of the suspension.

If the amount of damage, as verified by the assessor, is not at least five thousand dollars ($5,000), no adjustment shall be made to said roll and no taxes shall be canceled or refunded. The reassessments resulting from those reductions, as determined above, shall be forwarded to the auditor by the assessor or the clerk of the board, as the case may be. The auditor shall enter the reassessed values on the roll. After being entered on the roll, said reassessments shall not be subject to review except by a court of competent jurisdiction.

If no such application is made and the assessor determines that a possessory interest has suffered damage caused by misfortune or calamity, which may qualify the assessee for relief under this section, the assessor shall provide the last known assessee of the property with an application for reassessment. The assessee shall file the completed application within 30 days of notification by the assessor. Upon receipt of a properly completed, timely filed application, the assessor shall proceed to reassess property in the same manner as required above.

The tax rate fixed for property on the roll on which the property so reassessed appeared at the time of its original assessment shall be applied to the amount of the reassessment determined in accordance with this section. In the event that the resulting figure is less than the tax theretofore computed, the tax shall be determined as follows:

(a) With respect to property on the secured roll a prorated portion of the tax due on the property as originally assessed at the rate established for property on the secured roll for the current fiscal year, such proration to be determined on the basis of the number of months in the year during which the property was in an undamaged condition plus a proration of the tax due on the property as reassessed in its damaged or destroyed condition at the rate established for property on the secured roll for the balance of the fiscal year.

(b) With respect to property on the unsecured roll, he shall be liable for a prorated portion of the tax computed on the original assessment of the property and a prorated portion of the tax computed on the reassessment of the property as determined in the preceding paragraph.

Any tax paid in excess of the total tax due shall be refunded to the taxpayer pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 5096) of Part 9 of this division, as an erroneously collected tax or by order of the board of supervisors without the necessity of a claim being filed pursuant to Chapter 5.

The assessment of the property, in its damaged condition, as determined by this section, shall be reviewed at the lien date next following the date of the misfortune or calamity and shall be assessed in the same manner as prescribed by law for any other assessable property.

As used in this section, "damage" means a possessory interest in land owned by the state or federal government wherein the permit or other right to use the land has been suspended because of a misfortune or calamity such as the drought condition in California.

This section applies to all counties, whether operating under a charter or under the general laws of this state.

This section shall not be operative in any county unless Section 155.13 of this code is operative in such county.

SEC. 5. Section 211 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

211. The exemption of fruit- and nut-bearing trees until four years after the season in which they were planted in orchard form and grapevines until three years after the season in which they were planted in vineyard form is as specified in subdivision (i) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the Constitution. The exemption of timber is as specified in subdivision (j) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the Constitution and Section 436.

SEC. 6. Section 214 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read.

214. Property used exclusively for religious, hospital, scientific, or charitable purposes owned and operated by community chests, funds, foundations or corporations organized and operated for religious, hospital, scientific, or charitable purposes is exempt from taxation if:

(1) The owner is not organized or operated for profit; provided, that in the case of hospitals, such organization shall not be deemed to be organized or operated for profit, if during the immediate preceding fiscal year the excess of operating revenues, exclusive of gifts, endowments and grants-in-aid, over operating expenses shall not have exceeded a sum equivalent to 10 percent of such operating expenses. As used herein, operating expenses shall include depreciation based on cost of replacement and amortization of, and interest on, indebtedness;

(2) No part of the net earnings of the owner inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual;

(3) The property is used for the actual operation of the exempt activity, and does not exceed an amount of property reasonably necessary to the accomplishment of the exempt purpose;

(4) The property is not used or operated by the owner or by any other person so as to benefit any officer, trustee, director, shareholder, member, employee, contributor, or bondholder of the owner or operator, or any other person, through the distribution of profits, payment of excessive charges or compensations or the more advantageous pursuit of their business or profession;

(5) The property is not used by the owner or members thereof for fraternal or lodge purposes, or for social club purposes except where such use is clearly incidental to a primary religious, hospital, scientific, or charitable purpose;

(6) The property is irrevocably dedicated to religious, charitable, scientific, or hospital purposes and upon the liquidation, dissolution or abandonment of the owner will not inure to the benefit of any private person except a fund, foundation or corporation organized and operated for religious, hospital, scientific, or charitable purposes;

(7) The property, if used exclusively for scientific purposes, is used by a foundation or institution which, in addition to complying with the foregoing requirements for the exemption of charitable organization in general, has been chartered by the Congress of the United States (except that this requirement shall not apply when the scientific purposes are medical research), and whose objects are the encouragement or conduct of scientific investigation, research and discovery for the benefit of the community at large.

The exemption provided for herein shall be known as the "welfare exemption." This exemption shall be in addition to any other exemption now provided by law. This section shall not be construed to enlarge the college exemption. Property used exclusively for school purposes of less than collegiate grade and owned and operated by religious, hospital or charitable funds, foundations or corporations, which property and funds, foundations or corporations meet all of the requirements of this section, shall be deemed to be within the exemption provided for in subdivision (b) of Section 4 and Section 5 of Article XIII of the Constitution of the State of California and this section

Property used exclusively for nursery school purposes and owned and operated by religious, hospital or charitable funds, foundations or corporations, which property and funds, foundations or corporations meet all the requirements of this section, shall be deemed to be within the exemption provided for in subdivision (b) of Section 4 and Section 5 of Article XIII of the Constitution of the State of California and this section.

Property used exclusively for a noncommercial educational FM broadcast station or an educational television station and owned and operated by religious, hospital, scientific or charitable funds, foundations or corporations meeting all of the requirements of this section, shall be deemed to be within the exemption provided for in subdivision (b) of Section 4 and Section 5 of Article XIII of the Constitution of the State of California and this section.

Property used exclusively for housing and related facilities for elderly or handicapped families and financed by the federal government pursuant to Section 202 of Public Law 86-372 (12 U.S.C. 1701q), as amended, or Section 236 of Public Law 90-448 (12 U.S.C. 1715z), and owned and operated by religious, hospital, scientific or charitable funds, foundations or corporations meeting all of the requirements of this section shall be deemed to be within the exemption provided for in subdivision (b) of Section 4 and Section 5 of Article XIII of the Constitution of the State of California and this section.

SEC. 7. Section 221 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

221. For the purposes of Section 214 a nursery school is any group facility for minors which has obtained a written license or permit to operate as such from the State Department of Social Services or from an inspection service approved or accredited by the State Department of Social Services, and which is owned and operated for one or more of the following purposes:

(a) The facility is owned and operated to provide day care for minors whose parent or parents are unable to supervise such minors due to the hours of employment of the parent or parents.

(b) The facility is owned and operated to provide training and education for minors of preschool age.

(c) The facility is owned and operated to provide instruction to parents on the subject of raising minors and to provide training and education for minors.

SEC. 8. Section 251 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Chapter 246 of the Statutes of 1977, is amended to read:

251. The board shall prescribe all procedures and forms required to carry into effect the veterans', veterans' organization, church, cemetery, college, exhibition, welfare, free public libraries, free museums, public schools, homeowners' and transshipment property tax exemption.

SEC. 8.5. Section 251 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Chapter 1183 of the Statutes of 1977, is amended to read:

251. The board shall prescribe all procedures and forms required to carry into effect the veterans', veterans' organization, church, cemetery, college, exhibition, welfare, free public libraries, free museums, public school, homeowners', residential rehabilitation, and transshipment property tax exemption.

SEC. 9. Section 254 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

254. Any person claiming the church, cemetery, college, exhibition, welfare, veterans' organization, free public libraries, free museums, or public schools property tax exemption and anyone claiming the classification of a vessel as a documented vessel eligible for assessment under Section 227, shall submit to the assessor annually an affidavit, giving any information required by the board.

SEC. 10. Section 254.6 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 11. Section 255 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

255. (a) Affidavits required for exemptions named in this article, except the church exemption, the veterans' exemption, the homeowners' exemption, and the transshipment exemption under Section 225, shall be filed with the assessor between the lien date and 5 p.m. on March 15. Affidavits for the veterans' exemption shall be filed with the assessor between the lien date and 5 p.m. on April 15.

(b) Affidavits for the homeowners' exemption except as otherwise provided in Sections 255.1, 255.2, and 275, shall be filed with assessor any time after the claimant becomes eligible but no later than 5 p.m. on April 15.

(c) Affidavits required for classification of vessels as documented vessels eligible for assessment under Section 227 shall be filed with the assessor between the lien date and 5 p.m. on April 1.

(d) Affidavits for the church exemption shall be filed with the assessor between the lien date and 5 p.m. on March 31.

(e) Affidavits required for the transshipment exemption shall be filed with the assessor at the same time the property statement is required to be filed pursuant to Section 441, unless the person claiming the exemption is not required to file a property statement, in which case the affidavit shall be filed with the assessor between the lien date and 5 p.m. on the last Friday in May.

SEC. 12. Section 259.6 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 13. Section 325 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

325. When a map has been adopted as an official map under Division 3 (commencing with Section 66499.50) of Title 7 of the Government Code, land may be described by numbers or letters as shown on the official map.

SEC. 14. Section 531.6 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

531.6. The taxpayer who has filed a claim for the homeowners' exemption which has not been denied by the assessor is responsible for notifying the assessor when the property is no longer eligible for the exemption.

Upon any indication that a homeowners' exemption has been incorrectly allowed, the assessor shall make a redetermination of eligibility for the homeowners' exemption. If the assessor determines that the property is no longer eligible for the exemption, he shall immediately cancel the exemption on the property.

If a homeowners' exemption has been incorrectly allowed, an escape assessment as allowed by Section 531.1 in the amount of the exemption with interest as provided in Section 506 shall be made, except that where the exemption was allowed as the result of an assessor's error, the amount of interest shall be forgiven. If the exemption was incorrectly allowed because of erroneous or incorrect information submitted by the claimant with knowledge that such information was erroneous or incomplete or because the claimant failed to notify the assessor in a timely manner that the property was no longer eligible for the exemption, the penalty provided in Section 504 shall be added to the assessment.

SEC. 14.5. Section 531.6 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

531.6. The taxpayer who has filed a claim for the homeowners' exemption which has not been denied by the assessor is responsible for notifying the assessor when the property is no longer eligible for the exemption.

Upon any indication that a homeowners' exemption has been incorrectly allowed, the assessor shall make a redetermination of eligibility for the homeowners' exemption. If the assessor determines that the property is no longer eligible for the exemption, he shall immediately cancel the exemption on the property.

If a homeowners' exemption has been incorrectly allowed, an escape assessment as allowed by Section 531.1 in the amount of the exemption with interest as provided in Section 506 shall be made, except that where the exemption was allowed as the result of an assessor's error, the amount of interest shall be forgiven. If the exemption was incorrectly allowed because of erroneous or incorrect information submitted by the claimant with knowledge that such information was erroneous or incomplete or because the claimant failed to notify the assessor in a timely manner that the property was no longer eligible for the exemption, the penalty provided in Section 504 shall be added to the assessment. If the property subject to this paragraph has been transferred or conveyed to a bona fide purchaser for value during the period commencing with the lien date and ending July 1 of the fiscal year for which such exemption was incorrectly allowed, and the claimant is not the purchaser, any amount of penalty provided by Section 504 or any amount of interest provided by Section 506 imposed pursuant to the escape assessment due to such incorrect homeowners' exemption shall be forgiven.

SEC. 15. Section 619 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

619. The assessor shall, upon or prior to completion of the local roll, either:

(a) Inform each assessee of real property on the local secured roll whose property's full value has increased of the assessed value of that property as it shall appear on the completed local roll; or

(b) Inform each assessee of real property on the local secured roll, or each assessee on the local secured roll and each assessee on the unsecured roll, of the assessed value of his real property or of both his real and his personal property as it shall appear on the completed local roll.

The information given by the assessor to the assessee pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) shall include a notification of hearings by the county board of equalization, which shall include the period during which assessment protests will be accepted and the place where they may be filed. The information shall also include an explanation of the stipulation procedure set forth in Section 1607 and the manner in which the assessee may request use of this procedure.

The information shall also include the assessment ratio for the county as provided in Section 401 and the full value of the property.

The information shall be furnished by the assessor to the assessee by regular United States mail directed to him at his latest address known to the assessor.

Neither the failure of the assessee to receive the information nor the failure of the assessor to so inform the assessee shall in any way affect the validity of any assessment or the validity of any taxes levied pursuant thereto.

SEC. 15.1. The heading of Article 4 (commencing with Section 866) of Chapter 4 of Part 2 of Division 1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended and renumbered to read:

Article 6. State Assessed Property Escaping Assessment

SEC. 15.2. Article 7 (commencing with Section 891) of Chapter 4 of Part 2 of Division 1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 15.5. Section 619 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

619. The assessor shall, upon or prior to completion of the local roll, either:

(a) Inform each assessee of real property on the local secured roll whose property's full value has increased of the assessed value of that property as it shall appear on the completed local roll; or

(b) Inform each assessee of real property on the local secured roll, or each assessee on the local secured roll and each assessee on the unsecured roll, of the assessed value of his real property or of both his real and his personal property as it shall appear on the completed local roll.

The information given by the assessor to the assessee pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) shall include a notification of hearings by the county board of equalization, which shall include the period during which assessment protests will be accepted and the place where they may be filed. The information shall also include an explanation of the stipulation procedure set forth in Section 1607 and the manner in which the assessee may request use of this procedure.

The information shall also include the full value of the property.

The information shall be furnished by the assessor to the assessee by regular United States mail directed to him at his latest address known to the assessor.

Neither the failure of the assessee to receive the information nor the failure of the assessor to so inform the assessee shall in any way affect the validity of any assessment or the validity of any taxes levied pursuant thereto.

(c) This section does not apply to increases in assessed value caused solely by changes in the assessment ratio provided for in Section 401.

SEC. 16. Section 1605 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

1605. (a) An assessment made outside of the regular assessment period is not effective for any purpose, including its review, equalization and adjustment by the county board, until the assessee has been notified thereof personally or by United States mail at his address as contained in the official records of the county assessor. Receipt by the assessee of a tax bill based on said assessment shall suffice as such notice.

(b) Upon application for reduction pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1603, such assessment shall be subject to review, equalization and adjustment by the county board. The application must be filed with the clerk no later than 60 days after the date on which the assessee was notified.

(c) In counties where assessment appeals boards have not been created and are not in existence, at any regular meeting, the board of supervisors, on the request of the assessor or any taxpayer, shall sit as the county board to equalize any assessments made by the assessor outside the regular assessment period for such assessments. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, in any county in which assessment appeals boards have been created and are in existence, the time for equalization of assessments made outside the regular assessment period for such assessments, including assessments made pursuant to Sections 501, 503, 504, 531, and 531.1 shall be prescribed by rules adopted by the board of supervisors.

SEC. 16.5. Section 1605 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

1605. (a) An assessment made outside of the regular assessment period is not effective for any purpose, including its review, equalization and adjustment by the county board, until the assessee has been notified thereof personally or by United States mail at his address as contained in the official records of the county assessor.

Receipt by the assessee of a tax bill based on said assessment shall suffice as such notice.

(b) Upon application for reduction pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1603, such assessment shall be subject to review, equalization and adjustment by the county board. The application must be filed with the clerk no later than 60 days after the date on which the assessee was notified.

(c) In counties where assessment appeals boards have not been created and are not in existence, at any regular meeting, the board of supervisors, on the request of the assessor or any taxpayer, shall sit as the county board to equalize any assessments made by the assessor outside the regular assessment period for such assessments. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, in any county in which assessment appeals boards have been created and are in existence, the time for equalization of assessments made outside the regular assessment period for such assessments, including assessments made pursuant to Sections 501, 503, 504, 531, and 531.1 shall be prescribed by rules adopted by the board of supervisors.

(d) If an audit of the books and records of any profession, trade, or business pursuant to Section 469 of this code discloses property subject to an escaped assessment for any year, then the original assessment of all property of the assessee at the location of the profession, trade, or business for that year shall be subject to review, equalization and adjustment by the county board of equalization or assessment appeals board pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1601) of Part 3 of this division, except in those instances when such property had previously been equalized for the year in question by the county board of equalization or assessment appeals board. The application must be filed with the clerk no later than 60 days after the mailing of the tax bill on such assessment to the assessee.

SEC. 17. Section 1819 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

1819. (a) As soon as tabulations have been made pursuant to Section 1818, the board shall give the assessor of each county a reasonable opportunity to examine that portion of the tabulations affecting property in this county. The assessor may, prior to August 1st, petition the board for reconsideration of the tabulations for his county and, if he has so requested in his petition, shall be granted an oral hearing by the board itself. After making any adjustment it deems appropriate, but not later than August 23rd, the board shall make available for public inspection all such tabulations and shall publish the ratio of assessed to full value of all locally assessable property for each county and for the state. "Tabulations" do not include appraisal data relating to individual properties.

(b) On or before May 15 of the following calendar year, the board shall publish a corrected ratio of assessed value to full value of all locally assessable property for each county and for the state.

This corrected ratio shall reflect changes in the total assessed value on the roll for the current fiscal year made by the assessor, auditor, county board of supervisors, and county board of equalization.

This corrected ratio shall be used to calculate a corrected factor pursuant to Sections 41201 and 84200 of the Education Code, and such corrected factor shall be certified to the Superintendent of Public Instruction on or before May 20. The superintendent shall use this factor in computing or recomputing the amount of school aid to which each school district in the state is entitled.

The corrections needed in the amount of state aid to school districts as a result of the recomputations shall be made in the apportionment not later than the following fiscal year.

The corrected ratio shall not be used for the purposes of Section 1605.

In computing the ratio of assessed value to the full value for any county, pursuant to Section 1817 and subdivision (a) of this section, the board shall not consider in any way the reduction of assessed value as a result of equalization for the previous assessment year.

SEC. 18. Section 11319 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

11319. If any assessment made pursuant to this article results in a tax that is paid after December 10 of the year to which the assessment relates, the tax shall bear interest of 1 percent per month for the period it remains unpaid from such date to the date of payment.

SEC. 19. Section 11354 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

11354. A jeopardy assessment is delinquent at the time it becomes final, and if unpaid at this time, a penalty of 10 percent of the tax shall be added thereto, plus interest on the amount of tax at the rate of 1 percent per month or fraction thereof, from the date on which the tax becomes due and payable until the date of payment.

SEC. 20. Section 38104 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

38104. "Timber owner" means any person who owns timber immediately prior to felling or the first person who acquires either the legal title or beneficial title to timber after it has been felled from land owned by a federal agency or any other person or agency or entity exempt from property taxation under the Constitution or laws of the United States or under the Constitution or laws of the State of California. "Timber owner" includes any person who owns or acquires legal title or beneficial title to downed timber in this state.

SEC. 21. There are no state-mandated local costs in this act that require reimbursement under Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because there are no new duties, obligations, or responsibilities imposed on local government by this act.

SEC. 22. Section 8.5 of this act shall become operative only if Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 29 of the 1977–78 Regular Session is approved by the voters and, in such case, Section 251 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Section 8 of this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 23. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 2411 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 531.6 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2411, that the amendments to Section 531.6 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 531.6 in the form set forth in Section 14.5 of this act. Therefore, Section 14.5 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 2411 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both amend Section 531.6, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2411, in which case Section 14 of this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 24. It is the intent of the Legislature that if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1464 or Senate Bill No. 1656, or both, are chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, the bills amend Section 619 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and this bill is chaptered last, that amendments proposed by each of the bills which are chaptered be given effect as follows:

(1) If this bill and Senate Bill No. 1464 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 619 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, but Senate Bill No. 1656 is not chaptered or as chaptered does not amend that section, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1464, that Section 619 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Section 15 of this act shall remain operative only until the operative date of Senate Bill No. 1464, and that on the operative date of Senate Bill No. 1464 Section 619 of the Revenue and Taxation Code as amended by Section 15 of this act be further amended in the form set forth in Section 15.5 of this act to incorporate the changes in Section 619 proposed by Senate Bill No. 1464. Therefore, Section 15.5 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1464 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 619, this bill is chaptered after Senate No. 1464, and Senate Bill No. 1656 is not chaptered or as chaptered does not amend that section, in which case Section 15.5 of this act shall become operative on the operative date of Senate Bill No. 1464.

(2) If this bill and Senate Bill No. 1656 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 619 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, but Senate Bill No. 1464 is not chaptered or as chaptered does not amend that section, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1656, that Section 619 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Section 15 of this act shall remain operative only until the operative date of Senate Bill No. 1656, and that on the operative date of Senate Bill No. 1656 Section 619 of the Revenue and Taxation Code as amended by Section 15 of this act be further amended in the form set forth in Section 15.5 of this act to incorporate the changes in Section 619 proposed by Senate Bill No. 1656. Therefore, Section 15.5 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1656 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 619, this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1656, and Senate Bill No. 1464 is not chaptered or as chaptered does not amend that section, in which case Section 15.5 of this act shall become operative on the operative date of Senate Bill No. 1656.

(3) If this bill and Senate Bill No. 1464 and Senate Bill No. 1656 are all chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, all three bills amend Section 619 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1464 and Senate Bill No. 1656, that Section 619 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Section 15 of this act shall remain operative only until the operative date of Senate Bill No. 1464 and Senate Bill No. 1656, and that on the operative date of Senate Bill No. 1464 and Senate Bill No. 1656 Section 619 of the Revenue and Taxation Code as amended by Section 15 of this act be further amended in the form set forth in Section 15.5 of this act to incorporate the changes in Section 619 proposed by Senate Bill No. 1464 and Senate Bill No. 1656. Therefore, Section 15.5 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1464 and Senate Bill No. 1656 are all chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, all three bills amend Section 619 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1464 and Senate Bill No. 1656, in which case Section 15.5 of this act shall become operative on the operative date of Senate Bill No. 1464 and Senate Bill No. 1656.

SEC. 25. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1752 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 1605 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1752, that the amendments to Section 1605 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 1605 in the form set forth in Section 16.5 of this act. Therefore, Section 16.5 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1752 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both amend Section 1605, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1752, in which case Section 16 of this act shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1113

An act to amend Sections 65922, 65924, 65927, 65928, 65930, 65941, 65944, 65950, 65955, 65956, and 65957 of, and to add Section 65957.1 to, the Government Code, and to amend Sections 21080.3, 21080.4, and 21151.5 of the Public Resources Code, relating to projects, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 65922 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65922. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to the following:

(a) Activities of the State Energy Resources Development and Conservation Commission established pursuant to Division 15 (commencing with Section 25000) of the Public Resources Code.

(b) Administrative appeals within a state or local agency or to a state or local agency.

(c) Approval or disapproval of a final subdivision map pursuant to the provisions of the Subdivision Map Act (commencing with Section 66410); provided however, that the approval or disapproval of a final subdivision map shall occur within one year from the date on which the final map is filed for approval.

SEC. 2. Section 65924 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65924. With respect to any development project an application for which has been accepted as complete prior to January 1, 1978, the deadlines specified in Sections 65950 and 65952 shall be measured from January 1, 1978. With respect to such application received prior to January 1, 1978, but not determined to be complete as of that date, a determination that the application is complete or incomplete shall be made not later than 60 days after the effective date of the act amending this section in 1978.

SEC. 3. Section 65927 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65927. "Development" means, on land, in or under water, the placement or erection of any solid material or structure; discharge or disposal of any dredged material or of any gaseous, liquid, solid, or thermal waste; grading, removing, dredging, mining, or extraction of any materials; change in the density of intensity of use of land, including, but not limited to, subdivision pursuant to the Subdivision Map Act (commencing with Section 66410 of the Government Code), and any other division of land except where the land division is brought about in connection with the purchase of such land by a public agency for public recreational use; change in the intensity of use of water, or of access thereto; construction, reconstruction, demolition, or alteration of the size of any structure, including any facility of any private, public, or municipal utility; and the removal or harvesting of major vegetation other than for agricultural purposes, kelp harvesting, and timber operations which are in accordance with a timber harvesting plan submitted pursuant to the provisions of the Z'berg-Nejedly Forest Practice Act of 1973 (commencing with Section 4511 of the Public Resources Code)

As used in this section, "structure" includes, but is not limited to, any building, road, pipe, flume, conduit, siphon, aqueduct, telephone line, and electrical power transmission and distribution line.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to subject the approval or disapproval of final subdivision maps to the provisions of this chapter.

"Development" does not mean a "change of organization", as defined in Section 56028, a "change of organization of a city", as defined in Section 35027, a "reorganization", as defined in Section 56068, or a "municipal reorganization", as defined in Section 35042.

SEC. 4. Section 65928 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65928. "Development project" means any project undertaken for the purpose of development. "Development project" includes a project involving the issuance of a permit for construction or reconstruction but not a permit to operate. "Development project" does not include any ministerial projects proposed to be carried out or approved by public agencies.

SEC. 4.3. Section 65930 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65930. "Local agency" means any public agency other than a state agency. For purposes of this chapter, a redevelopment agency is a local agency and is not a state agency.

SEC. 4.5. Section 65941 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65941. The information compiled pursuant to Section 65940 shall also indicate the criteria which such agency will apply in order to determine the completeness of any application submitted to it for a development project.

In the event that a public agency is a lead agency for purposes of Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code, such criteria shall not require the applicant to submit the informational equivalent of an environmental impact report as part of a complete application; provided, however, that such criteria may require sufficient information to permit the agency to make the determination required by Section 21080.1 of the Public Resources Code.

SEC. 5. Section 65944 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65944. (a) After a public agency accepts an application as complete, such agency shall not subsequently request of an applicant any new or additional information which, with respect to a state agency, was not specified in the list prepared pursuant to Section 65940, or, with respect to a local agency, was not required as part of the application. Such agency may, in the course of processing the application, request the applicant to clarify, amplify, correct, or otherwise supplement the information required for the application.

(b) The provisions of subdivision (a) shall not be construed as requiring an applicant to submit with his initial application the entirety of the information which a public agency may require in order to take final action on such application Prior to accepting an application, each state agency shall inform the applicant of any information included in the list prepared pursuant to Section 65940 which will subsequently be required from the applicant in order to complete final action on such application. Similarly, each local agency, prior to accepting an application, shall inform the applicant of any information which will subsequently be required from the applicant in order to complete final action on such application.

(c) This section shall not be construed as limiting the ability of a public agency to request and obtain information which may be needed in order to comply with the provisions of Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code.

SEC. 5.5. Section 65950 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65950. Any public agency which is the lead agency for a development project shall approve or disapprove such project within one year from the date on which an application requesting approval of such project has been received and accepted as complete by such agency. As specified in Sections 21100.2 and 21151.5 of the Public Resources Code, the period specified in such sections shall also begin on such date.

SEC. 6. Section 65955 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65955. The time limits established by this article shall not apply to applications to appropriate water where such applications have been protested pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 1330) of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Water Code, or to petitions for changes pursuant to Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 1700) of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Water Code.

SEC. 7. Section 65956 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65956. (a) In the event that a lead agency or a responsible agency fails to act to approve or to disapprove a development project within the time limits required by this article, such failure to act shall be deemed approval of the development project.

(b) Failure of an applicant to submit complete or adequate information may constitute grounds for disapproving a development project.

SEC. 8. Section 65957 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65957. The time limits established by Sections 65950 and 65952 may be extended once for a period not to exceed 90 days upon consent of the public agency and the applicant.

SEC 8.1. Section 65957.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

65957.1. In the event that a development project requires more than one approval by a public agency, such agency may establish time limits (1) for submitting the information required in connection with each separate request for approval and (2) for acting upon each such request; provided, however, that the time period for acting on all such requests shall not, in aggregate, exceed those limits specified in Sections 65950 and 65952

SEC. 8.2. Section 21080.3 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

21080.3. (a) Prior to determining whether a negative declaration or environmental impact report is required for a project, the lead agency shall consult with all responsible agencies and with any other public agency which has jurisdiction by law over natural resources affected by the project which are held in trust for the people of the State of California.

(b) In order to expedite the requirements of subdivision (a), the Office of Planning and Research, upon request of a lead agency, shall assist such lead agency in determining the various responsible agencies for a proposed project. In the case of a project described in subdivision (c) of Section 21065, such a request may also be made by the project applicant.

SEC. 8.3. Section 21080.4 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

21080.4. (a) In the event that a lead agency determines that an environmental impact report is required for a project, such lead agency shall immediately send notice of such determination by certified mail or an equivalent procedure to each responsible agency and to those public agencies having jurisdiction by law over natural resources affected by the project which are held in trust for the people of the State of California. Upon receipt of such notice, each responsible agency shall specify to the lead agency the scope and content of the environmental information which is germane to such responsible agency's statutory responsibilities in connection with the proposed project and which, pursuant to the requirements of this division, shall be included in the environmental impact report. Such information shall be specified in writing and shall be communicated to the lead agency by certified mail or equivalent procedure not later than 45 days after receipt of the notice of the lead agency's determination. The lead agency shall request similar guidance from appropriate federal agencies.

(b) In order to expedite the requirements of subdivision (a), the lead agency or any responsible agency or public agency having jurisdiction by law over natural resources affected by the project which are held in trust for the people of the State of California may request one or more meetings between representatives of such agencies for the purpose of assisting the lead agency to determine the scope and content of the environmental information such responsible agency may require. In the case of a project described in subdivision (c) of Section 21065, such a request may also be made by the project applicant. Such meetings shall be convened by the lead agency as soon as possible, but no later than 30 days, after they have been requested.

(c) In order to expedite the requirements of subdivision (a), the Office of Planning and Research, upon request of a lead agency, shall assist such lead agency in determining the various responsible agencies and any federal agencies which have responsibility for carrying out or approving a proposed project. In the case of a project described in subdivision (c) of Section 21065, such a request may also be made by the project applicant.

(d) In the event that a state agency is a responsible agency or a public agency having jurisdiction by law over natural resources affected by the project which are held in trust for the people of the State of California, subject to the requirements of subdivision (a), the Office of Planning and Research shall ensure that the information required by subdivision (a) is transmitted to the lead agency within the required time period.

SEC. 8.5. Section 21151.5 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

21151.5. Each local agency shall establish, by ordinance or resolution, time limits, not to exceed one year for completing and certifying environmental impact reports, and 105 days for completing negative declarations, for projects described in subdivision (c) of Section 21065. Such time limits shall apply only to those circumstances in which such local agency is the lead agency for a project. Such ordinances or resolutions may establish different time limits for different types or classes of projects, but all such limits shall be measured from the date on which an application requesting approval of such project is received and accepted as complete by the local agency. The ordinances or resolutions required by this section may provide for a reasonable extension of such time period in the event that compelling circumstances justify additional time and the project applicant consents thereto.

SEC. 9. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the amendment made to Section 65922 of the Government Code by Section 1 of this act, by the addition of subdivision (b) to Section 65922, is intended to clarify provisions of existing law which may be subject to ambiguous interpretation and that such amendment declares and restates existing law.

SEC. 10. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to eliminate the possibility of ambiguity and uncertainty in the implementation and administration of the provisions of Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 65920) of Division 1 of Title 7 of the Government Code, it is necessary that this act go into effect immediately

An act to amend Sections 94320 and 94336 of, and to add Article 8 (commencing with Section 32370) to Chapter 3 of Part 19 of, the Education Code, relating to education, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 8 (commencing with Section 32370) is added to Chapter 3 of Part 19 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 8. Prohibited Activities

32370. As used in this article:

(a) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, firm, or public board, agency, or entity.

(b) "Prepare" means to put into condition for intended use.

(c) "Degree" means any "academic degree" or "honorary degree" or title of any designation, mark, appellation, series of letters or words such as, but not limited to, associate, bachelor, master, doctor, or fellow which signifies, purports, or is generally taken to signify satisfactory completion of the requirements of an academic, educational, technological, or professional program of study or is an honorary title conferred for recognition of some meritorious achievement.

(d) "Diploma" means any diploma, certificate, transcript, document, or other writing in any language other than a degree representing that an individual has completed any course of study.

32371. Any person who prepares, manufactures, or prints, or who offers to prepare, manufacture, or print, for a fee or other compensation, any document purporting to be a degree or diploma without written authorization to do so from the school authority shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. As used in this section, "school authority" means any of the following:

(a) A governing board of a school district that issued or reissued the degree or diploma, as the case may be.

(b) A private school that issued or reissued the degree or diploma, as the case may be.

(c) Any public or private college, university, or other institution of higher learning that issued or reissued the degree or diploma, as the case may be.

Nothing in this section shall prohibit a person from reproducing, or having reproduced, for his personal use a degree or diploma issued to him by a school authority.

32372. No person shall:

(a) Sell, barter, offer to sell or barter, or conspire to sell or barter, any diploma or degree as defined in this article.

(b) Buy, obtain by barter, attempt to buy or obtain by barter, or conspire to obtain by barter or buy, any diploma or degree.

(c) Use in connection with any business, trade, profession, or occupation, or attempt to use in connection with any business, trade, profession or occupation, or conspire to use in connection with any business, trade, profession or occupation, any degree or diploma, which has been purchased, obtained by barter, fraudulently or illegally issued, illegally obtained, counterfeited, materially altered, or found.

(d) Use in connection with a business, trade, profession, or occupation, or give or receive, any degree or diploma which has been purchased, obtained by barter, fraudulently or illegally issued, illegally obtained, counterfeited, materially altered, or found.

(e) Attempt to use in connection with a business, trade, profession, or occupation, or attempt to give or receive, any degree or diploma, which has been purchased, obtained by barter, fraudulently or illegally issued, illegally obtained, counterfeited, materially altered, or found.

(f) Conspire to use in connection with a business, trade, profession, or occupation, or conspire to give or receive, any diploma or degree evidencing the undertaking or completion of any course of study or scholastic achievement attained if, in fact, such course of study has not been undertaken nor completed or if such scholastic achievement has not been attained.

32373. Any person willfully violating any provision of Section 32372 is guilty of a misdemeanor and is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail, or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or by both such fine and imprisonment.

32374. Any court of competent jurisdiction is hereby authorized to grant such relief as is necessary to enforce the provisions of this article, including the issuance of an injunction.

32375. Actions for injunction under the provisions of this article may be brought in the name of the people of the State of California upon their own complaint or upon the complaint of any person, or in the name of any authorized public or private school, college, university, or other authorized institution of learning, acting on its own behalf or the general public.

SEC. 2. Section 94320 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94320. No institution, or representative of such institution, shall:

(a) Operate in this state a postsecondary educational institution not exempted from the provisions of this chapter, unless said institution has a currently valid authorization to operate issued pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

(b) Offer, as or through an agent, enrollment or instruction in, or the granting of educational credentials from, an institution not exempted from the provisions of this chapter, whether such institution is within or outside this state, unless such agent is a natural person and has a currently valid agent's permit issued pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, nor accept contracts or enrollment applications from an agent who does not have a current permit as required by this chapter; provided, however, that the superintendent may promulgate rules and regulations to permit the rendering of legitimate public information services without such permit.

(c) Instruct or educate, or offer to instruct or educate, including soliciting for such purposes, enroll or offer to enroll, contract or offer to contract with any person for such purpose, or award any educational credential, or contract with any institution or party to perform any such act, in this state, whether such person, agent, group, or entity is located within or without this state, unless such person, agent, group, or entity observes and is in compliance with the minimum standards set forth in Section 94312, the criteria established by the superintendent and reviewed by the council pursuant to paragraph (4) of subdivision (f) of Section 94304, and the rules and regulations adopted by the superintendent pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 94305.

(d) Use, or allow the use of, any reproduction or facsimile of the Great Seal of the State of California on any diploma.

SEC. 3. Section 94336 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94336. Any person, firm, association, partnership, or corporation willfully violating subdivision (d) of Section 94320 is guilty of a felony and is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, or by a fine of not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Any person, firm, association, partnership, or corporation which willfully violates any other provision of this article, is punishable, for a first offense, by imprisonment in the county jail for not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500), or both; and any second or subsequent offense shall be a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, or by a fine not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local governmental entities and school districts which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that the preparation of degrees and diplomas in California may be done in a more reasonable manner at the earliest possible time, to insure the integrity of the educational offerings of this state, it is essential that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1115

An act to amend Section 11011.1 of, and to add Section 11011.9 to, the Government Code, relating to housing.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11011.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11011.1. (a) Land that has been declared surplus by the Legislature, pursuant to Section 11011, and is not needed by any state agency shall be offered to local governmental agencies. Except as authorized in subdivisions (b), (c), and (d), transfers of surplus land to local governmental agencies pursuant to this section shall be at fair market value.

(b) Where such land is to be used for park and recreation purposes and operated for such purposes by local agencies at no expense to the state, the Director of General Services with the approval of the State Public Works Board may, notwithstanding any provision in Section 11011, transfer the land to local governmental agencies at less than the fair market value of the land, if such transfer is in the public interest, under the following conditions:

(i) The local public agency has submitted a general development plan for the property which conforms to the agency's general plan pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 65300) of Chapter 3 of Title 7, and which general development plan has been approved by the Director of Parks and Recreation.

(ii) The land shall be developed according to plan within a time period determined by the state but not to exceed 10 years. The deed or other instrument of transfer shall provide that the land shall revert to the state if the land is not developed within the time period so determined by the state.

(iii) The deed or other instrument of transfer shall provide that the land would revert to the state if the use changed to a use not consistent with parks and recreation purposes during the period of 25 years following the sale.

(c) Where such land is to be used for open-space purposes, as defined herein, and operated by local agencies at no expense to the state, the Director of General Services with the approval of the State Public Works Board may transfer the land to local governmental agencies at fair market value of the land or at any lesser value of the land under the following conditions:

(i) The local public agency has submitted a plan for the use of the property which conforms to the agency's general plan pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 65300) of Chapter 3 of Title 7, and which plan has been approved by the Director of Parks and Recreation.

(ii) The land shall be used according to plan within a time period determined by the state but not to exceed 10 years.

(iii) The deed or other instrument of transfer shall provide that the land would revert to the state if the use changed to a use not consistent with open-space purposes during the period of 25 years following the sale.

(iv) For the purpose of this subdivision, "open-space purpose" means the use of land for public recreation, enjoyment of scenic beauty, or conservation or use of natural resources.

(d) Where such land is suitable to be used for the purpose of providing housing for persons and families of low or moderate income, as defined in Section 50093 of the Health and Safety Code, the Director of General Services, with the approval of the State Public Works Board, may offer the land to local agencies within whose jurisdiction the land is located. Provided, however, where such land is not used for the purposes for which it was acquired, and such land is declared surplus land and is not needed by any other state agency pursuant to the provisions of Section 11011, the state shall extend to the individual from whom the land was acquired an offer to purchase such land at current fair market value. Such offer shall extend for 60 days and if not exercised within such period shall be irrevocably terminated. This provision shall not apply to surplus land to which the state has held title for more than seven years. Such land may be transferred at a reasonable cost which will enable the provision of housing for persons and families of low or moderate income. Such cost may be less than fair market value. The Department of Housing and Community Development shall recommend to the Department of General Services a cost which will enable the provision of housing for persons and families of low or moderate income. All transfers of land pursuant to this subdivision shall be subject to the following conditions:

(1) The local agency has made all of the following findings:

(A) There is a need for such housing in the community.

(B) The land is suitable for development of such housing.

(2) The local agency develops a plan for such housing in accordance with criteria established by the Department of Housing and Community Development, which shall include, but not be limited to, criteria respecting the financial condition of the developer, if the housing is to be developed by a private sponsor, and the cost of the project. Such plan shall be approved by the Department of Housing and Community Development.

(3) After transfer of such property from the state to the local agency, the property shall be developed as housing for persons and families of low or moderate income. The local agency may lease such property to any nonprofit corporation, housing corporation, limited dividend housing corporation, or private developer if the local agency determines a private entity is best suited to develop housing for persons and families of low or moderate income. In authorizing such private development, the local agency shall impose reasonable terms and conditions as will further the purposes of this subdivision, which shall include, but not be limited to, continued use of the property for housing for persons and families of low or moderate income. A lessee of land pursuant to this subdivision shall agree to limitations on profit in the operation of such property which will benefit the public and assure that the housing provided thereon is within the means of persons and families of low or moderate income. Such agreement shall be binding upon successors in interest of the original lessee and shall inure to the benefit of, and be enforceable by, the state.

(4) The local agency shall assure that the land will be used for the purpose of providing low or moderate income housing and shall not permit the use of the dwelling accommodations of the project for any other purpose, except as provided in this section.

In the event a local agency does not comply with the land use requirements prescribed in this section, as determined by the Department of General Services, the Department of General Services may require that the local agency pay the state the difference between the actual price paid by the local agency for the property and the fair market value of such property, at the time of the department's determination of noncompliance, plus 6 percent interest on such amount for the period of time the land has been held by the local agency.

If the local agency, with the approval of the Department of General Services, and in consultation with the Department of Housing and Community Development, determines that there is no longer a need for low or moderate income housing within the jurisdiction of the local agency and another valid public purpose could be achieved by utilizing the land in an alternative manner, the local agency shall not be required to make any payment to the state for the difference between purchase price and fair market value or interest charges for the period of time the land has been held by the local agency.

(5) Failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall not invalidate the transfer, sale, or conveyance of the real property to a bona fide purchaser or encumbrancer for value.

(6) The project shall be commenced within 24 months of the original transfer to the local agency. However, the Department of General Services, in consultation with the Department of Housing and Community Development, may for justifiable cause extend the time for commencement of development for an additional 36 months. The aggregate time for commencing development shall not exceed 60 months. If development has not commenced within such time, the land shall revert to the Department of General Services for disposal pursuant to Section 11011.1 of the Government Code or as otherwise authorized by law.

(7) As used in this subdivision, "local agency" means and includes any county, city, city and county, redevelopment agency organized pursuant to Part 1 (commencing with Section 33000) of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code, or housing authority organized pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 34200) of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code, public district or other political subdivision of the state and any instrumentality thereof, which is authorized to engage in or assist in the development or operation of housing for persons and families of low or moderate income and also includes two or more such agencies acting jointly pursuant to Part 1 (commencing with Section 6500) of Division 7 of this code.

(e) The Department of Housing and Community Development, in consultation with the Department of General Services and the Office of Planning and Research, shall make a report to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1981, with respect to effectiveness of the program and shall recommend any necessary legislative changes to the provisions of subdivision (d).

(f) Where such land is to be used for public purposes other than specifically set forth in this section, is to be operated by the local agency at no expense to the state, and the use and enjoyment of the public purpose contemplated will be of broad public benefit, and not a benefit basically of local interest enjoyed and used primarily by the residents of the area of tax jurisdiction of the local agency, the Director of General Services, with the approval of the State Public Works Board, may transfer the land to local governmental agencies at a sales price not less than 50 percent of fair market value. Any such transfer shall provide that if the land is not used for the contemplated purpose during the period of 25 years following the sale, the land shall revert to the state. The Director of General Services may provide additional terms and conditions as he determines to be in the best interest of the state.

(g) If there is more than one appropriate use and more than one offer for the use of a parcel of surplus land, the Department of General Services, in consultation with the Department of Housing and Community Development, the Department of Parks and Recreation, and the Office of Planning and Research, shall determine the most appropriate use for the parcel and offer the land accordingly.

(h) Land that has been declared surplus by the Legislature, pursuant to Section 11011, is not needed by any state agency, is suitable for development for housing purposes, and is not in the process of being acquired pursuant to other provisions of this section, may upon the request of the Department of Housing and Community Development be retained by the Director of General Services for a period not exceeding five years, during which the Director of General Services shall continue to offer such lands for housing pursuant to subdivision (d).

(i) Transfer of state surplus lands under subdivision (d) shall be at a cost which will enable provision of economically feasible housing for persons and families of low or moderate income.

(j) The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to the disposal by a state agency of surplus residential property, as defined in subdivision (h) of Section 54221 of the Government Code, as amended by Senate Bill No. 1885 of the 1977–78 Regular Session, if Senate Bill No. 1885 is chaptered and becomes effective January 1, 1979, and adds Section 54226.5 to the Government Code.

SEC. 1.5. Section 11011.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11011.1. (a) Land that has been declared surplus by the Legislature, pursuant to Section 11011, and is not needed by any state agency shall be offered to local governmental agencies. Except as authorized in subdivisions (b), (c), and (e), transfers of surplus land to local governmental agencies pursuant to this section shall be at fair market value.

(b) Where such land is to be used for park and recreation purposes and operated for such purposes by local agencies at no expense to the state, the Director of General Services with the approval of the State Public Works Board may, notwithstanding any provision in Section 11011, transfer the land to local governmental agencies at less than the fair market value of the land, if such transfer is in the public interest, under the following conditions:

(i) The local public agency has submitted a general development plan for the property which conforms to the agency's general plan pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 65300) of Chapter 3 of Title 7, and which general development plan has been approved by the Director of Parks and Recreation.

(ii) The land shall be developed according to plan within a time period determined by the state but not to exceed 10 years. The deed or other instrument of transfer shall provide that the land shall revert to the state if the land is not developed within the time period so determined by the state.

(iii) The deed or other instrument of transfer shall provide that the land would revert to the state if the use changed to a use not consistent with parks and recreation purposes during the period of 25 years following the sale.

(c) Where such land is to be used for open-space purposes, as defined herein, and operated by local agencies at no expense to the state, the Director of General Services with the approval of the State Public Works Board may transfer the land to local governmental agencies at fair market value of the land or at any lesser value of the land under the following conditions:

(i) The local public agency has submitted a plan for the use of the property which conforms to the agency's general plan pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 65300) of Chapter 3 of Title 7, and which plan has been approved by the Director of Parks and Recreation.

(ii) The land shall be used according to plan with a time period determined by the state but not to exceed 10 years.

(iii) The deed or other instrument of transfer shall provide that the land would revert to the state if the use changed to a use not consistent with open-space purposes during the period of 25 years following the sale.

(iv) For the purpose of this subdivision, "open-space purpose" means the use of land for public recreation, enjoyment of scenic beauty, or conservation or use of natural resources.

(d) Any transfer of land pursuant to this section shall be subject to the applicable provisions regarding mineral reservations found in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 6401) of Part 1 of Division 6 of the Public Resources Code.

(e) Where such land is suitable to be used for the purpose of providing housing for persons and families of low or moderate income, as defined in Section 50093 of the Health and Safety Code, the Director of General Services, with the approval of the State Public Works Board, may offer the land to local agencies within whose jurisdiction the land is located. Provided, however, where such land is not used for the purposes for which it was acquired, and such land is declared surplus land and is not needed by any other state agency pursuant to the provisions of Section 11011, the state shall extend to the individual from whom the land was acquired an offer to purchase such land at current fair market value. Such offer shall extend for 60 days and if not exercised within such period shall be irrevocably terminated. This provision shall not apply to surplus land to which the state has held title for more than seven years. Such land may be transferred at a reasonable cost which will enable the provision of housing for persons and families of low or moderate income. Such cost may be less than fair market value. The Department of Housing and Community Development shall recommend to the Department of General Services a cost which will enable the provision of housing for persons and families of low or moderate income. All transfers of land pursuant to this subdivision shall be subject to the following conditions:

(1) The local agency has made all of the following findings:

(A) There is a need for such housing in the community.

(B) The land is suitable for development of such housing.

(2) The local agency develops a plan for such housing in accordance with criteria established by the Department of Housing and Community Development, which shall include, but not be limited to, criteria respecting the financial condition of the developer, if the housing is to be developed by a private sponsor, and the cost of the project. Such plan shall be approved by the Department of Housing and Community Development.

(3) After transfer of such property from the state to the local agency, the property shall be developed as housing for persons and families of low or moderate income. The local agency may lease such property to any nonprofit corporation, housing corporation, limited dividend housing corporation, or private developer if the local agency determines a private entity is best suited to develop housing for persons and families of low or moderate income. In authorizing such private development, the local agency shall impose reasonable terms and conditions as will further the purposes of this subdivision, which shall include, but not be limited to, continued use of the property for housing for persons and families of low or moderate income. A lessee of land pursuant to this subdivision shall agree to limitations on profit in the operation of such property which will benefit the public and assure that the housing provided thereon is within the means of persons and families of low or moderate income. Such agreement shall be binding upon successors in interest of the original lessee and shall inure to the benefit of, and be enforceable by, the state.

(4) The local agency shall assure that the land will be used for the purpose of providing low or moderate income housing and shall not permit the use of the dwelling accommodations of the project for any other purpose, except as provided in this section.

In the event a local agency does not comply with the land use requirements prescribed in this section, as determined by the Department of General Services, the Department of General Services may require that the local agency pay the state the difference between the actual price paid by the local agency for the property and the fair market value of such property, at the time of the department's determination of noncompliance, plus 6 percent interest on such amount for the period of time the land has been held by the local agency.

If the local agency, with the approval of the Department of General Services, and in consultation with the Department of Housing and Community Development, determines that there is no longer a need for low or moderate income housing within the jurisdiction of the local agency and another valid public purpose could be achieved by utilizing the land in an alternative manner, the local agency shall not be required to make any payment to the state for the difference between purchase price and fair market value or interest charges for the period of time the land has been held by the local agency.

(5) Failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall not invalidate the transfer, sale, or conveyance of the real property to a bona fide purchaser or encumbrancer for value.

(6) The project shall be commenced within 24 months of the original transfer to the local agency. However, the Department of General Services, in consultation with the Department of Housing and Community Development, may for justifiable cause extend the time for commencement of development for an additional 36 months. The aggregate time for commencing development shall not exceed 60 months. If development has not commenced within such time, the land shall revert to the Department of General Services for disposal pursuant to Section 11011.1 of the Government Code or as otherwise authorized by law.

(7) As used in this subdivision, "local agency" means and includes any county, city, city and county, redevelopment agency organized pursuant to Part 1 (commencing with Section 33000) of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code, or housing authority organized pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 34200) of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code, public district or other political subdivision of the state and any instrumentality thereof, which is authorized to engage in or assist in the development or operation of housing for persons and families of low or moderate income and also includes two or more such agencies acting jointly pursuant to Part 1 (commencing with Section 6500) of Division 7.

(f) The Department of Housing and Community Development, in consultation with the Department of General Services and the Office of Planning and Research, shall make a report to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1981, with respect to effectiveness of the program and shall recommend any necessary legislative changes to the provisions of subdivision (e).

(g) Where such land is to be used for public purposes other than specifically set forth in this section, is to be operated by the local agency at no expense to the state, and the use and enjoyment of the public purpose contemplated will be of broad public benefit, and not a benefit basically of local interest enjoyed and used primarily by the residents of the area of tax jurisdiction of the local agency, the Director of General Services, with the approval of the State Public Works Board, may transfer the land to local governmental agencies at a sales price not less than 50 percent of fair market value. Any such transfer shall provide that if the land is not used for the contemplated purpose during the period of 25 years following the sale, the land shall revert to the state. The Director of General Services may provide additional terms and conditions as he determines to be in the best interest of the state.

(h) If there is more than one appropriate use and more than one offer for the use of a parcel of surplus land, the Department of General Services, in consultation with the Department of Housing and Community Development, the Department of Parks and Recreation, and the Office of Planning and Research, shall determine the most appropriate use for the parcel and offer the land accordingly.

(i) Land that has been declared surplus by the Legislature, pursuant to Section 11011, is not needed by any state agency, is suitable for development for housing purposes, and is not in the process of being acquired pursuant to other provisions of this section, may upon the request of the Department of Housing and Community Development be retained by the Director of General Services for a period not exceeding five years, during which the Director of General Services shall continue to offer such lands for housing pursuant to subdivision (e).

(j) Transfer of state surplus lands under subdivision (e) shall be a a cost which will enable provision of economically feasible housing for persons and families of low or moderate income.

(k) The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to the disposal by a state agency of surplus residential property, as defined in subdivision (i) of Section 54221 of the Government Code, as amended by Senate Bill No. 1885 of the 1977–78 Regular Session, if Senate Bill No. 1885 is chaptered and becomes effective January 1, 1979 and adds Section 54226.5 to the Government Code.

SEC. 2. Section 11011.9 is added to the Government Code, to read.

11011.9. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that:

(1) Disposition of surplus property owned by public agencies should be utilized to further state policies.

(2) There exists within the urban and rural areas of the state a serious shortage of decent, safe, and sanitary housing which persons and families of low or moderate income can afford, and consequently there is a pressing and urgent need for the preservation and expansion of the supply of housing for such persons.

(3) The provision of decent housing for all Californians is a state goal of the highest priority. The disposal of surplus land is a direct and substantial public purpose of statewide concern and will serve an important public purpose, including mitigating the environmental effects of state activities. Therefore, it is the intent of the Legislature that priority be given in the disposal of surplus state land to housing for persons and families of low or moderate income, where such land is suitable for housing and there is a need for such housing in the community.

(4) There is an identifiable deficiency in the amount of recreational land available to the public for park, recreational, and open-space purposes, as well as for housing and general community development purposes in accord with state policies.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that state surplus property be disposed of in a manner which furthers state policies in the areas of parks, recreation, open space, and housing and community development.

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1723 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 11011.1 of the Government Code, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1723, that the amendments to Section 11011.1 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 11011.1 in the form set forth in Section 1.5 of this act. Therefore, Section 1.5 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1723 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both amend Section 11011.1, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1723, in which case Section 1 of this act shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1116

An act to add Section 14670.35 to the Government Code, relating to state property.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14670.35 is added to the Government Code, to read:

14670.35. Notwithstanding Section 14670, the Director of General Services, with the consent of the State Department of Developmental Services, may let in the best interests of the state and at a price which will permit the development of affordable housing for persons eligible under this section, to any person, including but not limited to any corporation or partnership, real property not exceeding 60 acres located within the grounds of Fairview State Hospital, for the purpose of developing affordable housing, which may include manufactured housing, for the employees of Fairview State Hospital, and for a period not to exceed 55 years. The lease authorized by this section shall be nonassignable and shall be subject to review every five years by the Director of General Services, to assure the state that the original purposes of the lease are being carried out.

In the event of default by the lessee under the terms of the lease, the state shall take all necessary steps to cure such default but in no event shall state general funds, except funds collected pursuant to Section 15863, be expended to operate the property.

The housing developed pursuant to this section shall be available for the employees of Fairview State Hospital and to provide transitional housing for patient-clients of Fairview State Hospital returning to the community; provided that the housing available for transitional housing for patient-clients shall not be in excess of 10 percent of the units developed. In the event that vacancies occur in the units which cannot be filled by either employees of Fairview State Hospital or transitional patient-clients, then the units may be made available to persons employed within the City of Costa Mesa who are in need of affordable housing and whose incomes do not exceed 80 percent of the median income for Orange County as that income may be defined from time to time by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development.

The Legislature finds and declares that the provision of decent and affordable housing for state employees and transitional patients, i.e. clients of state mental hospitals, is a public purpose of great statewide importance

An act to add Article 6 (commencing with Section 21660) to Chapter 9 of Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to swap meets.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 6 (commencing with Section 21660) is added to Chapter 9 of Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code, to read:

Article 6. Swap Meets

21660. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this article to require the statewide reporting of personal property exchanged, sold or offered for sale or exchange at "swap meets" in a uniform manner designed to permit the correlation of such reports with other reports of law enforcement agencies in order to assist in tracing and recovering stolen property and with the State Board of Equalization to detect possible sales tax evasion.

This article shall apply to swap meet operators and vendors, as defined herein, unless the personal property or the transaction is specifically exempt herein and shall not be superseded or supplanted by any provisions or ordinances or charters of any city, county, or city and county, nor supplemented by any such ordinances or charters or provisions. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to affect the land use and zoning regulatory power of a local agency, nor be construed to require any local agency to permit swap meets where such local land use or zoning regulations prohibit such operations.

Any transaction which is regulated by this article shall not be subject to the provisions of Article 4 (commencing with Section 21625), regulating transactions in identifiable secondhand tangible personal property. No person, partnership, or corporation shall be considered a "secondhand dealer" within the meaning of Section 21661 because of activities regulated by this article.

21661. As used in this article:

(a) "Swap meet" means any event:

(1) At which two or more persons offer personal property for sale or exchange; and

(2) At which a fee is charged for the privilege of offering or displaying personal property for sale or exchange; or

(3) At which a fee is charged to prospective buyers for admission to the area where personal property is offered or displayed for sale or exchange; or

(4) Regardless of the number of persons offering or displaying personal property or the absence of fees, at which used personal property is offered or displayed for sale or exchange if such event is held more than six times in any 12-month period.

(b) "Swap meet operator" means any person, partnership, organization or corporation which controls, manages, conducts or otherwise administers a swap meet.

(c) "Vendor" means any person, partnership, organization or corporation who exchanges, sells, or offers for sale or exchange any personal property at a swap meet.

(d) "Personal property" means:

(1) All serialized items of merchandise.

(2) All personal property commonly sold at swap meets which statistically is found through crime reports to the Attorney General to constitute a significant class of stolen goods. A list of such personal property shall be supplied by the Attorney General to all local law enforcement agencies. Such list shall be reviewed periodically by the Attorney General to insure that it addresses current problems with stolen goods.

21662. The provisions of this article shall not apply to:

(a) An event for the exclusive benefit of any community chest, fund, foundation, association or corporation organized and operated for religious, educational, hospital or charitable purposes, provided that no part of any admission fee charged vendors or prospective purchasers, or the gross receipts or net earnings from the sale or exchange of personal property, whether in the form of a percentage of such receipts or earnings, as salary, or otherwise, inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or person participating in the organization or conduct of the event.

(b) An event at which all of the personal property offered or displayed is new, and all persons selling, exchanging, or offering or displaying personal property for sale or exchange are manufacturers or licensed retail or wholesale merchants.

(c) Any vehicle or trailer.

(d) Any vehicle accessory or vehicle part exclusively for a motor vehicle eligible for vehicle registration under Section 5004 of the Vehicle Code.

21663. (a) Every vendor shall report all personal property offered or displayed for sale or exchange on a form, prescribed by the California Department of Justice, containing all the following information:

(1) The name and address of the vendor.

(2) A description of the personal property offered for sale or exchange, including serial numbers and personal identification marks, or where there is no serial number, other identification marks or symbols, if any.

(3) A certification by the vendor that to the vendor's knowledge and belief, the information contained on the form is true.

(4) The make, year, model, color and license number of the vehicle or vehicles in which the personal property is transported to the swap meet.

(5) The California seller's permit number (State Board of Equalization sales tax number), if any, of the vendor.

(6) The vendor's motor vehicle driver's license number or California identification card numbers.

(7) If the vendor is an agent of an individual, company, partnership or corporation, the name and business address of the principal.

(b) The reporting form shall consist of not less than an original and two copies.

21664. (a) The swap meet operator shall obtain sufficient blank forms from the Department of Justice at a cost not to exceed the actual cost to the department for the use of vendors attending the swap meet, and shall distribute them to vendors as needed. The vendor shall submit the completed form to the operator who shall note on the vendor's copy that the vendor has submitted such form. The operator shall collect the original and one copy of the completed forms and, if the swap meet occurs within the territorial limits of an incorporated city, shall submit the original to the chief of police of that city within 24 hours or the first working day following the meet. If the swap meet occurs outside a city, the swap meet operator shall submit the original to the sheriff of the jurisdiction in which the meet occurs within 24 hours or the first working day following the meet. The chief of police or sheriff receiving such reports shall forward the original to the California Department of Justice when the California Department of Justice specifically requests the reports of a particular meet. After duplication or use, these original reports shall be returned to the chief of police or sheriff who forwarded the reports. The original shall also be available to the State Board of Equalization to permit them to detect possible sales tax evasion. Such reports shall not be utilized by a chief of police, a sheriff, the Department of Justice, or any other governmental agency for the purpose of providing a permanent record of property ownership, nor shall the information derived from these reports form the basis for any record other than reports which assist in tracing and recovering of stolen property or assist in detecting sales tax evasion.

(b) Every vendor shall submit to the swap meet operator the form disclosing the information required by subdivision (a) of Section 21663 for each swap meet at which he is a vendor. Items described in reports previously submitted pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 21663 may be omitted from the description on the forms submitted at subsequent swap meets if the vendor furnishes the swap meet operator of each subsequent swap meet with two copies of the report previously submitted, marked to indicate personal property currently being offered or displayed.

(c) A vendor who regularly offers or displays for sale or exchange any new or used personal property or merchandise shall be required to submit to the swap meet operator the form disclosing the information required by subdivision (a) of Section 21663 only once every 60 days. Such vendor shall, however, submit a new report at any swap meet at which he is a vendor and offers or displays for sale or exchange any personal property not included by generic classification in the previously submitted report. For purposes of this subdivision, a vendor shall be deemed to regularly offer or display for sale or exchange any items of merchandise if such vendor participates for five or more days in a month at a swap meet conducted at the same location. Any vendor claiming to be a regular seller of new or used merchandise under the provisions of this subdivision shall so indicate on the bimonthly report.

21665. (a) Swap meet operators shall retain a copy of the reports collected by them for one year and shall make such copies available for inspection, upon request, by a peace officer as defined in Section 830.1 or subdivision (a) of Section 830.3 of the Penal Code, or members of the California State Police as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 830.2 of the Penal Code, when the swap meet occurs on state property, properly identified representatives of the State Board of Equalization.

(b) Vendors shall have available for inspection during the swap meet a completed copy of the report form which was submitted to the swap meet operator describing the goods offered or displayed for sale or exchange at the swap meet.

21666. Upon request, a vendor shall provide the purchaser a written receipt disclosing the vendor's name and address when the items purchased have a selling price in excess of fifteen dollars ($15).

21667. A violation of any provision of this article is a misdemeanor and may be punishable by up to six months in county jail, a fine of twenty-five dollars ($25) for the first violation, fifty dollars ($50) for the second violation, and one hundred dollars ($100) for the third and subsequent violations.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because the duties, obligations or responsibilities imposed on local governmental entities by this act are such that related costs are incurred as part of their normal operating procedures, and because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local governmental entities which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes.

CHAPTER 1118

An act to amend Section 13009 of the Health and Safety Code, to amend and renumber the headings of Article 1 (commencing with Section 4475) and Article 2 (commencing with Section 4491) of Chapter 7 of Part 2 of Division 4 of, and to add Article 1 (commencing with Section 4461) to Chapter 7 of Part 2 of Division 4 of, the Public Resources Code, relating to fire protection, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13009 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

13009. (a) Any person who negligently, or in violation of the law, sets a fire, allows a fire to be set, or allows a fire kindled or attended by him to escape onto any forest, range or nonresidential grass-covered land is liable for the expense of fighting the fire and such expense shall be a charge against that person. Such charge shall constitute a debt of such person, and is collectible by the person, or by the federal, state, county, public, or private agency, incurring such expenses in the same manner as in the case of an obligation under a contract, expressed or implied.

(b) Whenever the requirements of Article 1 (commencing with Section 4461) of Chapter 7 of Part 2 of Division 4 of the Public Resources Code have been fully complied with in the conduct of prescribed burning operations pursuant to a permit issued pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 4491) of such chapter, and the fire nonetheless escapes, firefighting and suppression costs incurred by any public agency shall not constitute a debt of the holder of the permit and shall not be collectible as provided in subdivision (a).

SEC. 2. Article 1 (commencing with Section 4461) is added to Chapter 7 of Part 2 of Division 4 of the Public Resources Code, to read:

Article 1. Experimental Program for Wildland Fire Protection and Resources Management

4461. This article shall be known and may be cited as the Wildland Fire Protection and Resources Management Act of 1978.

4462. The Legislature hereby finds and declares as follows:

(a) There has been an increase in the number of wildfires in the wildlands of this state, resulting in destruction of valuable timber and grasslands, loss of recreational opportunities and wildlife habitat, erosion and damage to streamflow and watersheds, extremely adverse effects on water quality through sedimentation, destruction of soil and loss of nutrients, invasions into burned areas of less desirable plant species, and an unacceptable level of hazards to public safety. Further, the increased cost of fire suppression implies the need for alternative methods of fire protection.

(b) The prevention of uncontrollable conflagrations of high-intensity wildfires may be achieved partly through the reduction of the volume and continuity of flammable vegetation in wildlands by a program of fuel management.

(c) Wildland and rangeland resources management planning and the provision of prescribed burn crews pursuant to this article serves a public purpose and will benefit all the citizens of the state.

4464. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the following definitions govern the construction of this article:

(a) "Wildlands" means any lands that are classified as state responsibility areas pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 4125) of Chapter 1 of this part. "Wildlands" includes rangelands having a plant cover consisting principally of grasses, forbs, or shrubs that are valuable for forage.

(b) "Wildland fuel" means any timber, brush, grass, or other flammable vegetation, living or dead, standing or down.

(c) "Wildland fire" means any uncontrolled fire in wildlands.

(d) "Prescribed burning" means the planned application and confinement of fire to wildland fuels in wildlands selected in advance of such application in order to achieve any specific objective.

(e) "Prescribed burn crew" means departmental firefighting equipment and personnel that are prepared to contain and suppress escaped fire occurring during prescribed burning operations.

(f) "Person" means any natural person, firm, association, partnership, business trust, corporation, company, or combination thereof.

4465. The department shall conduct an experimental program of wildland resources management through prescribed burning and other methods in two areas of wildlands.

4466. (a) The department shall prepare two model plans for the initial development and implementation of a program for wildland resources management through prescribed burning and other methods, one of which is appropriate for an area of wildlands in northern California, and one, in southern California. All state agencies, including the Departments of Fish and Game and Conservation and the State Water Resources Control Board, shall cooperate with the department in the creation of the plans, to the end that administrative and environmental considerations are carefully and effectively considered and included in the program.

(b) Upon completion of each plan, the director shall submit the plan to the board for its review and approval as to its conformity with the requirements set forth in Section 4467.

(c) The department shall apply for funding from nonstate sources for the purpose of carrying out its planning responsibilities pursuant to this article. The department may not commence such planning until such funding is available in an amount sufficient to meet the costs of one model plan.

(d) Neither plan may be implemented or used after January 1, 1983.

4467. (a) Each plan shall include, but shall not be limited to, elements regarding wildland fuel management and reduction, air and water quality, water conservation and watershed improvement, soil conservation, wildlife habitat improvement and protection, range and forage improvement, and timberland improvement and protection.

(b) The plan shall be prepared in accordance with the California Environmental Quality Act (commencing with Section 21000) and, when approved, shall constitute the environmental impact report for the implementation of the plan for each area of wildlands designated by the board.

(c) The department shall coordinate the development of each plan with the general plan of each county in which the experimental program is conducted and shall, to the maximum extent feasible, conform the plan to the land-use plans and objectives of state and local government.

(d) Copies of each plan shall be made available to each county, resource conservation district, and person owning land in the area in which the experimental program is conducted.

4468. During the prescribed burning season, the department shall maintain at least two prescribed burn crews, one each in northern and southern California, for the purpose of providing prescribed burn back-up in the event of an emergency during prescribed burning operations. The department shall prepare a schedule for each prescribed burning season so that the crews will be available to all persons or groups of persons participating in the program during that season. Crews may also be used for other firefighting operations engaged in by the department when not in use in connection with such prescribed burning operations.

4470. The department shall furnish a prescribed burn crew, and assume all costs thereof, to any person or group of persons who own or control land in a wildland area for which a plan has been approved pursuant to this article if such a person or group of persons obtains a brush-burning permit and agrees as a condition of issuance of the permit to comply with the plan in all aspects and to comply with the requirements of Article 3 (commencing with Section 4491) of this chapter, including the assumption of all liability for damage to the property of others.

4471. No person applying for a brush-burning permit pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 4491) of this chapter, applying for a slash-burning permit pursuant to Section 4423, or conducting timber operations pursuant to the Z'berg-Nejedly Forest Practice Act of 1973 (commencing with Section 4511) shall be required to comply with the provisions of this article as a condition to the issuance of a permit or other entitlement pursuant to such provisions.

4473. On or before January 1, 1982, the department shall submit to the board a report consisting of an analysis of the results obtained in the experimental program and recommendations for the further implementation and improvement of the program.

SEC. 3. The heading of Article 1 (commencing with Section 4475) of Chapter 7 of Part 2 of Division 4 of the Public Resources Code is amended and renumbered to read:

Article 2. Department of Forestry Burning Contracts

SEC. 4. The heading of Article 2 (commencing with Section 4491) of Chapter 7 of Part 2 of Division 4 of the Public Resources Code is amended and renumbered to read:

Article 3. Private Burning of Brush-Covered Lands Under Permit

SEC. 5. The sum of one hundred fifty-five thousand dollars ($155,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Forestry for expenditure, without regard to fiscal years, for the costs of prescribed burn crews furnished pursuant to Section 4470 of the Public Resources Code.

CHAPTER 1119

An act to add Section 25947 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to smoking.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25947 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25947. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), no person shall smoke any tobacco product in any retail food production and marketing establishment, as defined in Section 28802, during such hours as the establishment is open to the public.

(b) The provisions of subdivision (a) shall not apply to that portion of an establishment subject to Section 25944 nor to an area of an establishment set aside for employee smoking and not open to the public.

CHAPTER 1120

An act to amend Sections 51201, 51231, 51232, 51233, 51238, 51238.5, 51244.5, 51251, 51282, and 51283.3 of, to add Sections 51205.1, 51248.5, 51281.1, 51283.1, and 51283.4 to, the Government Code, and to amend Section 423 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to agricultural lands.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 51201 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51201. As used in this chapter, unless otherwise apparent from the context:

(a) "Agricultural commodity" means any and all plant and animal products produced in this state for commercial purposes.

(b) "Agricultural use" means use of land for the purpose of producing an agricultural commodity for commercial purposes.

(c) "Prime agricultural land" means any of the following:

(1) All land which qualifies for rating as class I or class II in the Soil Conservation Service land use capability classifications.

(2) Land which qualifies for rating 80 through 100 in the Storie Index Rating.

(3) Land which supports livestock used for the production of food and fiber and which has an annual carrying capacity equivalent to at least one animal unit per acre as defined by the United States Department of Agriculture.

(4) Land planted with fruit- or nut-bearing trees, vines, bushes or crops which have a nonbearing period of less than five years and which will normally return during the commercial bearing period on an annual basis from the production of unprocessed agricultural plant production not less than two hundred dollars ($200) per acre.

(5) Land which has returned from the production of unprocessed agricultural plant products an annual gross value of not less than two hundred dollars ($200) per acre for three of the previous five years.

~~(d)~~ (d) "Agricultural preserve" means an area devoted to either agricultural use, as defined in subdivision (b), recreational use as defined in subdivision (n), or open space use as defined in subdivision (o), or any combination of such uses and which is established in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

(e) "Compatible use" is any use determined by the county or city administering the preserve pursuant to Section 51231 or Section 51238 or by this act to be compatible with the agricultural, recreational, or open-space use of land within the preserve and subject to contract "Compatible use" includes agricultural use, recreational use or open-space use unless the board or council finds after notice and hearing that such use is not compatible with the agricultural, recreational or open space use to which the land is restricted by contract pursuant to this chapter.

(f) "Board" means the board of supervisors of a county which establishes or proposes to establish an agricultural preserve or which enters or proposes to enter into a contract on land within an agricultural preserve pursuant to this chapter.

(g) "Council" means the city council of a city which establishes or proposes to establish an agricultural preserve or which enters or proposes to enter into a contract on land within an agricultural preserve pursuant to this chapter.

(h) Except where it is otherwise apparent from the context, "county" or "city" means the county or city having jurisdiction over the land.

(i) A "scenic highway corridor" is an area adjacent to, and within view of, the right-of-way of:

(1) An existing or proposed state scenic highway in the state scenic highway system established by the Legislature pursuant to Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 260) of Chapter 2 of Division 1 of the Streets and Highways Code and which has been officially designated by the Department of Transportation as an official state scenic highway; or

(2) A county scenic highway established pursuant to Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 260) of Chapter 2 of Division 1 of the Streets and Highways Code, if each of the following conditions have been met:

(A) The scenic highway is included in an adopted general plan of the county or city; and

(B) The scenic highway corridor is included in an adopted specific plan of the county or city; and

(C) Specific proposals for implementing the plan, including regulation of land use, have been approved by the Advisory Committee on a Master Plan for Scenic Highways, and the county or city highway has been officially designated by the Department of Transportation as an official county scenic highway.

(j) A "wildlife habitat area" is a land or water area designated by a board or council, after consulting with and considering the recommendation of the Department of Fish and Game, as an area of great importance for the protection or enhancement of the wildlife resources of the state.

(k) A "saltpond" is an area which, for at least three consecutive years immediately prior to being placed within an agricultural preserve pursuant to this chapter, has been used for the solar evaporation of sea water in the course of salt production for commercial purposes.

(l) A "managed wetland area" is an area, which may be an area diked off from the ocean or any bay, river or stream to which water is occasionally admitted, and which, for at least three consecutive years immediately prior to being placed within an agricultural preserve pursuant to this chapter, was used and maintained as a waterfowl hunting preserve or game refuge or for agricultural purposes.

(m) A "submerged area" is any land determined by the board or council to be submerged or subject to tidal action and found by the board or council to be of great value to the state as open space.

(n) "Recreational use" is the use of land by the public, with or without charge, for any of the following: walking, hiking, picnicking, camping, swimming, boating, fishing, hunting, or other outdoor games or sports for which facilities are provided for public participation. Any fee charged for the recreational use of land as defined in this subdivision shall be in a reasonable amount and shall not have the effect of unduly limiting its use by the public.

(o) "Open-space use" is the use or maintenance of land in such a manner as to preserve its natural characteristics, beauty, or openness for the benefit and enjoyment of the public, to provide essential habitat for wildlife, or for the solar evaporation of sea water in the course of salt production for commercial purposes, if such land is within:

(1) A scenic highway corridor, as defined in subdivision (i).

(2) A wildlife habitat area, as defined in subdivision (j).

(3) A saltpond, as defined in subdivision (k).

(4) A managed wetland area, as defined in subdivision (l).

(5) A submerged area, as defined in subdivision (m).

SEC. 2. Section 51205.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

51205.1. Notwithstanding any provisions of this chapter to the contrary, land within a scenic highway corridor, as defined in subdivision (i) of Section 51201, shall, upon the request of the owner, be included in an agricultural preserve pursuant to this chapter. When such land is included within an agricultural preserve, the city or county within which it is situated shall contract with the owner for the purpose of restricting the land to agricultural use as defined in subdivision (b), recreational use as defined in subdivision (n), open-space use as defined in subdivision (o), compatible use as defined in subdivision (e), or any combination of such uses.

SEC. 3. Section 51231 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51231. For the purposes of this chapter, the board or council, by resolution, shall adopt rules governing the administration of agricultural preserves, including procedures for initiating, filing, and processing requests to establish agricultural preserves. Such rules shall be applied uniformly throughout the preserve. The board or council may require the payment of a reasonable application fee. The same procedure that is required to establish an agricultural preserve shall be used to disestablish or to enlarge or diminish the size of an agricultural preserve. In adopting rules related to compatible uses, the board or council may enumerate those uses which are to be considered to be compatible uses on contracted lands separately from those uses which are to be considered to be compatible uses on lands not under contract within the agricultural preserve.

SEC. 4. Section 51232 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51232. In the event any proposal to disestablish or to alter the boundary of an agricultural preserve will remove land under contract from such a preserve, notice of the proposed alteration or disestablishment and the date of the hearing shall be furnished by the board or council to the owner of the land by certified mail directed to him at his latest address known to the board or council. Such notice shall also be published pursuant to Section 6061 and shall be furnished by first-class mail to each owner of land under contract, any portion of which is situated within one mile of the exterior boundary of the land to be removed from the preserve.

SEC. 5. Section 51233 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51233. When a county proposes to establish, disestablish, or alter the boundary of an agricultural preserve it shall give written notice at least two weeks before the hearing to the local agency formation commission and to every city within the county within one mile of the exterior boundaries of the preserve.

SEC. 6. Section 51238 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51238. Notwithstanding any determination of compatible uses by the county or city pursuant to this article, unless the board or council after notice and hearing makes a finding to the contrary, the erection, construction, alteration, or maintenance of gas, electric, water, or communication facilities are hereby determined to be compatible uses within any agricultural preserve. No land occupied by gas, electric, water, or communication facilities shall be excluded from an agricultural preserve by reason of such use.

The board of supervisors may impose conditions on lands to be placed within preserves to permit and encourage compatible use of the land, particularly public outdoor recreational uses.

SEC. 7. Section 51238.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51238.5. If an owner of land agrees to permit the use of his land for free public recreation, the board or council may agree to indemnify such owner against all claims arising from such public use. The owner's agreement that his land be used for free, public recreation shall not be construed as an implied dedication to such use.

SEC. 8. Section 51244.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51244.5. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 51244, if the initial term of the contract is for more than 10 years, the contract may provide that on the anniversary date of the contract or such other annual date as specified by the contract beginning with the anniversary date on which the contract will have an unexpired term of nine years, a year shall be added automatically to the initial term unless notice of nonrenewal is given as provided in Section 51245.

SEC. 8.5. Section 51248.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

51248.5. Whenever any city or county is required to record any contract by this chapter, it may file a fictitious contract. Thereafter, any of the provisions of such fictitious contract may be included by reference in any contract required to be filed by this chapter. The provisions of Section 2952 of the Civil Code relating to the filing, indexing, and force and effect of fictitious mortgages shall be applicable to such fictitious contracts.

SEC. 9. Section 51251 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51251. The county, city, or landowner may bring any action in court necessary to enforce any contract, including, but not limited to, an action to enforce the contract by specific performance or injunction. An owner of land may bring any action in court to enforce a contract on land whose exterior boundary is within one mile of his land. An owner of land under contract may bring any action in court to enforce a contract on land located within the same county or city.

SEC. 10. Section 51281.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

51281.1. The board or council may require the payment of a reasonable application fee to be made at the time a petition for cancellation is filed.

SEC. 11. Section 51282 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51282. The landowner may petition the board or council for cancellation of any contract as to all or any part of the subject land. The board or council may approve the cancellation of a contract only if they find:

(a) That the cancellation is not inconsistent with the purposes of this chapter; and

(b) That cancellation is in the public interest.

The existence of an opportunity for another use of the land involved shall not be sufficient reason for the cancellation of a contract. A potential alternative use of the land may be considered only if there is no proximate, noncontracted land suitable for the use to which it is proposed the contracted land be put.

The uneconomic character of an existing agricultural use shall likewise not be sufficient reason for cancellation of the contract. The uneconomic character of the existing use may be considered only if there is no other reasonable or comparable agricultural use to which the land may be put.

The landowner's petition may be accompanied with a proposal for a specified alternative use of the land. The proposal for the alternative use shall list those governmental agencies known by the landowner to have permit authority related to the proposed alternative use.

SEC. 12. Section 51283.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

51283.1. In addition to the fee provided for in Section 51283, the board or council shall require the payment of additional deferred taxes, determined in the following manner:

(a) The county assessor shall determine and certify the following values to the board or council; provided that such values shall not consider the existence of any mines, minerals, and quarries in or upon the land being valued, including, but not limited to, oil, gas, and other hydrocarbons:

(1) The unrestricted assessed value, which is 25 percent of the fair market value of the land as though it were free of the contractual restriction. This value shall be arrived at by considering other uses that may be made of the land after the contract is no longer in effect.

(2) The current restricted assessed value, which is the assessed value of the land as enforceably restricted by the contract.

(3) The base-year unrestricted assessed value determined in the following manner:

(A) For contracts in existence for 10 years or less, the assessed value for the last year in which the land was not enforceably restricted.

(B) For contracts in existence for more than 10 years, that value which results from a straight-line interpolation of the assessed value of the land for the last year in which the land was not enforceably restricted and the unrestricted assessed value, as determined in paragraph (1) of this subdivision, at a point on such line 10 years prior to the date of the application.

(4) The base-year restricted assessed value, determined in the following manner:

(A) For contracts in existence for 10 years or less, the assessed value for the first year in which the land was enforceably restricted.

(B) For contracts in existence for more than 10 years, that value which results from a straight-line interpolation of the assessed value of the land for the first year in which the land was enforceably restricted and the current restricted assessed value, as determined in paragraph (2) of this subdivision, at a point on such line 10 years prior to the date of the application.

(b) The assessed values determined in subdivision (a) shall be averaged by:

(1) Subtracting the current restricted assessed value from the unrestricted assessed value,

(2) Subtracting the base-year restricted assessed value from the base-year unrestricted assessed value, and

(3) Averaging the figures determined in paragraphs (1) and (2).

(c) The average assessed value determined in subdivision (b) shall be multiplied by the current tax rate. This tax rate shall be equal to that used in determining the value of the land as prescribed in paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 423 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(d) The amount determined in subdivision (c) shall be multiplied by a factor from the following table:

Year	Factor
1	1.06000
2	2.18360
3	3.37462
4	4.63709
5	5.97332
6	7.39384
7	8.89747
8	10.49132
9	12.18080
10	13.97164

The multiple shall correspond to the number of years or fraction thereof, but in no event greater than 10, for which the land was under contract.

(e) From the amount computed in subdivision (d) there shall be subtracted the amount of the fee provided for in Section 51283, but in no event shall the result be less than zero.

If the board or council finds that it is in the public interest it may waive the payment of the additional deferred tax or any portion thereof.

The additional deferred taxes shall be collected in the same manner and at the same time as the cancellation fee provided for in Section 51283. The additional deferred taxes shall be distributed to the taxing agencies and revenue districts levying property taxes on the land during the current year in the same proportion as the current year tax rate bears to the total tax rate described in subdivision (c).

SEC. 13. Section 51283.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51283.3. (a) Upon tentative approval of a cancellation petition not accompanied with a proposal for a specified alternative use of the land, the clerk of the board or council shall record in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the land as to which the contract is canceled is located a certificate, which shall set forth the name of the owner of such land at the time the contract was canceled with the amount of the cancellation fee certified by the board or council as being due pursuant to this article, the contingency of any waiver or deferment of payments, and a legal description of the property. From the date of recording of such certificate, the contract shall be finally canceled and, to the extent the cancellation fee has not yet been paid, a lien shall be created and attach against the real property described therein and any other real property owned by the person named therein as the owner and located within the county. Such lien shall have the force, effect, and priority of a judgment lien. Nothing in this section or Section 51283 shall preclude the board or council from requiring payment in full of the cancellation fee prior to the cancellation becoming effective.

(b) In no case shall the cancellation of a contract be final until the notice of cancellation is actually recorded as provided in this section. Notwithstanding any provision of the Revenue and Taxation Code, any payments required by Sections 51283 and 51283.1 of this code shall not create nor impose a lien or charge on the land as to which a contract is canceled except as herein provided.

(c) Upon the payment of the cancellation fee or any portion thereof the clerk of the board or council shall record with the county recorder a written certificate of the release in whole or in part of the lien.

SEC. 14. Section 51283.4 is added to the Government Code, to read:

51283.4. (a) Upon tentative approval of a petition accompanied by a proposal for a specified alternative use of the land, the clerk of the board or council shall record in the office of the county recorder of the county in which is located the land as to which the contract is applicable a certificate of tentative cancellation, which shall set forth the name of the landowner requesting the cancellation, the fact that a certificate of cancellation of contract will be issued and recorded at such time as specified conditions and contingencies are satisfied, a description of the conditions and contingencies which must be satisfied, and a legal description of the property. Conditions to be satisfied shall include payment in full of the amount of the fee computed under the provisions of Sections 51283 and 51283.1, together with a statement that unless a certificate of cancellation of contract is issued within one year from the date of the recording of the certificate of tentative cancellation, such fee shall be recomputed as of the date of notice described in subdivision (b). Any provisions related to the waiver of such fee or portion thereof shall be treated in the manner provided for in the certificate of tentative cancellation. Contingencies to be satisfied shall include a requirement that the landowner obtain all permits required by any governmental agency relative to the proposed alternative use of the land.

(b) The landowner shall notify the board or council when he has satisfied the conditions and contingencies enumerated in the certificate of tentative cancellation. Within 30 days of receipt of such notice, and upon a determination that the conditions and contingencies have been satisfied, the board or council shall execute a certificate of cancellation of contract and cause the same to be recorded.

(c) If the landowner has been unable to satisfy the conditions and contingencies enumerated in the certificate of tentative cancellation, the landowner shall notify the board or council of the particular conditions or contingencies he is unable to satisfy. Within 30 days of receipt of such notice, and upon a determination that the landowner is unable to satisfy the conditions and contingencies listed, the board or council shall execute a certificate of withdrawal of tentative approval of a cancellation of contract and cause the same to be recorded.

SEC. 15. Section 423 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

423. Except as provided in Section 423.7, when valuing enforceably restricted open-space land, other than land used for the production of timber for commercial purposes, the board for purposes of surveys required by Section 1815 of this code and the county assessor shall not consider sales data on lands, whether or not enforceably restricted, but shall value such lands by the capitalization of income method in the following manner:

(a) The annual income to be capitalized shall be determined as follows:

(1) Where sufficient rental information is available the income shall be the fair rent which can be imputed to the land being valued based upon rent actually received for the land by the owner and upon typical rentals received in the area for similar land in similar use, where the owner pays the property tax. Any cash rent or its equivalent considered in determining the fair rent of the land shall be the amount for which comparable lands have been rented, determined by average rents paid to owners as evidenced by typical land leases in the area, giving recognition to the terms and conditions of the leases and the uses permitted within the leases and within the enforceable restrictions imposed.

(2) Where sufficient rental information is not available, the income shall be that which the land being valued reasonably can be expected to yield under prudent management and subject to applicable provisions under which the land is enforceably restricted. There shall be a rebuttable presumption that "prudent management" does not include use of the land for a recreational use, as defined in subdivision (n) of Section 5120 of the Government Code, unless the land is actually devoted to such use.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision herein, if the parties to an instrument which enforceably restricts the land stipulate therein an amount which constitutes the minimum annual income per acre to be capitalized, then the income to be capitalized shall not be less than the amount so stipulated.

For the purposes of this section income shall be determined in accordance with rules and regulations issued by the board and with this section and shall be the difference between revenue and expenditures. Revenue shall be the amount of money or money's worth, including any cash rent or its equivalent, which the land can be expected to yield to an owner-operator annually on the average from any use of the land permitted under the terms by which the land is enforceably restricted including, but not limited to, that from the production of salt and from typical crops grown in the area during a typical rotation period as evidenced by historic cropping patterns and agricultural commodities grown. When the land is planted to fruit-bearing or nut-bearing trees, vines, bushes or perennial plants, the revenue shall not be less than the land would be expected to yield to an owner-operator from other typical crops grown in the area during a typical rotation period, as evidenced by historic cropping patterns and agricultural commodities grown. Proceeds from the sale of the land being valued shall not be included in the revenue from the land.

Expenditures shall be any outlay or average annual allocation of money or money's worth that has been charged against the revenue received during the period used in computing such revenue. Those expenditures to be charged against revenue shall be only those which are ordinary and necessary in the production and maintenance of the revenue for that period. Expenditures shall not include depletion charges, debt retirement, interest on funds invested in the land, interest on funds invested in trees and vines valued as land as provided by Section 429, property taxes, corporation income taxes, or corporation franchise taxes based on income. When the income used is from operating the land being valued or from operating comparable land, amounts shall be excluded from the income to provide a fair return on capital investment in operating assets other than the land, to amortize depreciable property, and to fairly compensate the owner-operator for his operating and managing services.

(b) The capitalization rate to be used in valuing land pursuant to this article shall not be derived from sales data and shall be the sum of the following components:

(1) An interest component to be determined by the board and announced no later than September 1 of the year preceding the assessment year and which was the yield rate for long-term United States government bonds, as most recently published by the Federal Reserve Board, rounded to the nearest one-quarter (¼) percent.

(2) A risk component which shall be a percentage determined on the basis of the location and characteristics of the land, the crops to be grown thereon and the provisions of any lease or rental agreement to which the land is subject; and

(3) A component for property taxes which shall be a percentage equal to the estimated total tax rate applicable to the land for the assessment year times the assessment ratio. The estimated total tax rate shall be the cumulative rates used to compute the state's reimbursement of local governments for revenues lost on account of homeowners' property tax exemptions in the tax rate area in which the enforceably restricted land is situated.

(4) A component for amortization of any investment in perennials over their estimated economic life when the total income from land and perennials other than timber exceeds the yield from other typical crops grown in the area.

(c) The value of the land shall be the quotient for the income determined as provided in subdivision (a) divided by the capitalization rate determined as provided in subdivision (b).

(d) The ratio prescribed in Section 401 shall be applied to the value of the land determined in subdivision (c) to obtain its assessed value.

(e) If the parties to an instrument which creates an enforceable restriction expressly so provide therein, the valuation resulting from the capitalization of income method described in this section shall not exceed the valuation that would have resulted by the consideration of sales of otherwise comparable lands.

(f) If the parties to an instrument which creates an enforceable restriction expressly so provide therein, the assessor shall assess those improvements which contribute to the income of land in the manner provided herein. As used in this subsection "improvements which contribute to the income of the land" shall include, but are not limited to, wells, pumps, pipelines, fences, and structures which are necessary or convenient to the use of the land within the enforceable restrictions imposed.

SEC. 16. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because self-financing authority is provided in this act to cover such costs.

CHAPTER 1121

An act relating to the Pacific Elementary School District, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Pacific Elementary School District is in the process of constructing facilities to replace buildings heretofore found not to be conforming with the structural standards of the so-called Field Act. Due to various circumstances, including drainage problems and related necessary soil testing, the actual cost for completion of the buildings has increased since the original estimated cost was made at the inception of the construction. There is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Pacific Elementary School District the sum of one hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($125,000) for the 1978–79 fiscal year only for the purpose of meeting the increased construction costs of the Pacific Elementary School District. Any moneys of said appropriation not expended or encumbered before July 1, 1979, shall revert to the General Fund in the State Treasury.

SEC. 2. The allocation made pursuant to Section 1 of this act shall be repaid as follows:

For each of the fiscal years 1979–80 to 1988–89, inclusive, the State Controller shall deduct from the apportionment made to the Pacific Elementary School District from the State School Fund an amount equal to one-tenth of the amount actually allocated to the district pursuant to Section 1 of this act, together with amounts representing interest at a rate based on the most current investment rate of the Pooled Money Investment Account with reference to the fiscal year in which the repayment is to be withheld.

SEC. 3. Because of the unique circumstances concerning the construction of replacement school facilities for the Pacific Elementary School District, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the Constitution.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that the Pacific Elementary School District may complete the construction of replacement facilities by September 1979 and avoid interruption of the educational process and undue economic burdens upon such district, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1122

An act to provide for the sale of a specified parcel of real property of the Department of the Youth Authority in the City of Norwalk by the Director of General Services, relating to state land, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Director of General Services, upon approval of the Department of the Youth Authority and the State Public Works Board, is authorized to sell to the City of Norwalk, for open space purposes, as defined in Section 11011.1 of the Government Code, for 50 percent of current market value the following real property: 10 acres of a parcel of approximately 13 acres currently a part of the Department of the Youth Authority Southern Reception Center Clinic in the City of Norwalk, fronting on Shoemaker Avenue and north of Foster Road. The remaining 3 acres of the parcel shall be used as a buffer zone between the Department of the Youth Authority Southern Reception Center Clinic and the property purchased by the City of Norwalk for open space purposes.

SEC. 2. The Director of General Services is authorized to make such sale described in Section 1 above, upon such terms and conditions and with such reservations and exceptions as in his opinion may be for the best interest of the state. Any cost incurred in the sale may be reimbursed from the proceeds of such disposition.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to ensure continued and uninterrupted community access and use of the property, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

SEC. 4. As to any property sold pursuant to Section 1 of this act, the Director of General Services shall except and reserve to the state all mineral deposits, as defined in Section 6407 of the Public Resources Code, below a depth of 500 feet, without surface rights of entry.

CHAPTER 1123

An act to add Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 65420) to Chapter 3 of Title 7 of Division 3 of the Government Code, relating to local government planning.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 65420) is added to Chapter 3 of Title 7 of Division 3 of the Government Code, to read:

Article 7.5. Model Integrated Local Planning Act

65420. This article shall be known and may be cited as the Model Integrated Local Planning Act.

65421. The Legislature finds that managing the growth, development, and redevelopment of California's counties and cities requires a more comprehensive framework than that provided by the existing state-mandated local planning process; that the existing local planning processes including general plan planning, budget planning, and planning for federal program activities such as community development should be related to and coordinated with each other; that there is a need to involve local elected officials and chief management officials more directly in the planning process and to link their allocation of resources to the adopted plans. The Legislature further finds that while the existing state-mandated local planning process provides some guidance for physical development and environmental protection, it does not provide for integration of social and economic goals and policies and is therefore an incomplete guide to comprehensive community development; it does not facilitate integration of the various planning activities now undertaken by local government; it does not recognize that the capacity of California cities and counties to respond to state planning laws varies due to differences of population size and density, fiscal and administrative capabilities, the legal differences between cities and counties, both charter and general law and land use and development issues and human needs in communities within the state; and it does not link state goals, policies, and programs to local plans.

65422. In accordance with the findings in Section 65421, the Legislature declares that it is necessary to develop a new local planning process which will enhance the capacity of local elected officials and chief management officials to plan, manage, and budget for the physical, social, and economic development and redevelopment of their communities.

Among the purposes of such a process are the following:

(a) To promote integration of the physical, environmental, social, economic, and fiscal planning activities of local governments;

(b) To coordinate to the maximum extent possible the separate planning processes now required of local governments such as general plan planning, budget planning, and federal or state required functional planning, so that the process is more accessible to and understandable by the public;

(c) To strengthen the role of the legislative body and chief management official in the development and implementation of an integrated plan;

(d) To link public expenditures to implementation of an integrated general plan;

(e) To clarify differences in scope appropriate to the comprehensive planning activities of counties and cities and of cities of differing size;

(f) To encourage cooperation between and among cities and counties and to encourage and facilitate coordination of planning and development activities of cities and counties with the planning activities of special purpose districts, regional agencies, and state government; and

(g) To obtain the active involvement of the citizenry in the community development planning process.

65423. In order to accomplish the purposes enumerated in Section 65422, not more than three cities and not more than three counties shall be selected, upon their application therefor, to participate in a demonstration project to develop and test an alternative integrated local planning process. A city or county having a population of more than 2,000,000 may apply to the Office of Planning and Research to participate on a community plan level rather than a citywide or countywide basis. The demonstration project shall be administered by the Office of Planning and Research. In this capacity, the office shall:

(a) Form a committee to advise on the conduct of the demonstration which includes representation of the Planning Advisory and Assistance Council established pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 65040.6, state agencies and departments having responsibility for review and monitoring of local and regional plans, regional planning agencies, counties, cities, and such other public and private agencies and organizations as, in the judgment of the Director of the Office of Planning and Research, have an impact on the local planning process. The advisory committee shall serve for the duration of the demonstration project.

(b) In conjunction with the advisory committee, develop criteria for the selection of the demonstration sites which provide, to the extent possible, for a range of sizes, locations, and conditions in differing parts of the state, recognize and build on existing efforts to improve the local planning process, and give priority to those applications which have maximum potential for transferability of the new process to other jurisdictions in the state. The Director of the Office of Planning and Research shall select the demonstration counties and cities.

(c) Organize a technical assistance task force which includes representatives from other state agencies and departments dealing with transportation, economic development, housing and community development, air and water quality, and other appropriate fields, and the League of California Cities and the County Supervisors Association of California, to be available to the demonstration jurisdictions for consultation and advice. The Director of the Office of Planning and Research may, at his discretion, contract for such consultant services as he deems necessary.

(d) Develop procedures for the orderly evaluation of the demonstration project leading to specific recommendations to the Legislature for any needed changes in the state planning law. The report shall include, but not be limited to, a comparison of the demonstration integrated general plan with the existing general plan adopted pursuant to the provisions of Article 5 (commencing with Section 65300) of Chapter 3 of Division 1 of Title 7 of the Government Code and shall also discuss other state and federal functional planning requirements that may prevent local agencies from integrating the general plan process. The office shall submit its evaluation report and legislative recommendations to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1983.

65424. (a) Each demonstration county and city shall prepare an integrated general plan which contains the following:

(1) Goals, policies, and programs for the physical, social, and economic development of the community;

(2) Documentation of the data and analysis upon which these goals, policies, and programs are based;

(3) Assessment of the fiscal capacity of the county or city to implement the plan; and

(4) An implementation schedule which links the plan to the allocation of public resources, including capital expenditures, the annual budget, and federal and state funding for local programs.

(b) The planning process developed to prepare the integrated general plan shall include provision for:

(1) Integration, to the extent possible, of other required planning processes with the general plan process; including, in the case of counties, social services planning;

(2) To the extent feasible, integration of plans with required regional or county plans, plans and programs of special districts, and with statewide goals and policies;

(3) Assessment of the potential physical, environmental, social, and economic impacts of alternative plan proposals; and,

(4) Specific mechanisms for involvement of citizens in the planning process.

(c) The demonstration counties or cities shall record and analyze the cost of development, maintenance, and implementation of the alternative plan.

65425. Each demonstration county and city shall prepare a detailed work program which outlines an orderly sequence of planning activities leading to adoption and implementation of the integrated plan. The Office of Planning and Research shall review and approve the work program and monitor its implementation on a regular basis. The following activities shall be included in the planning cycle:

(a) Orientation of the local legislative body, appointed commissions, and citizen groups;

(b) Establishment of a process for maintaining the zoning ordinance and other planning requirements not subject to waiver such as conformance with the Environmental Quality Act;

(c) Collection and analysis of information describing the social, economic, environmental, and physical characteristics of the community and its population;

(d) Inventorying of the community's resources;

(e) Assessment of community need;

(f) Development and adoption, with full public input, of community goals and objectives;

(g) Preparation of specific plans;

(h) Allocation of resources consistent with the adopted plan;

(i) Evaluation of planning process and preparation of recommendations for legislative changes for submission to the Office of Planning and Research.

65426. For the demonstration cities and counties, the provisions of Article 5 (commencing with Section 65300) of Chapter 3 of Division 1 of Title 7 of the Government Code shall be waived for the duration of the demonstration project. Such waiver shall continue for a period of not more than two years following the termination of the demonstration project, during which time the integrated general plan shall be in effect. However, the existing general plan shall remain in effect and may be amended pursuant to existing law until such time as the integrated general plan has been adopted.

(a) Notwithstanding such waiver, applicable provisions of federal, state, and regional solid waste management, air, and water quality requirements, including all water quality plans and policies, standards, objectives, and beneficial uses established, and orders issued or actions taken pursuant to the provisions of Division 7 (commencing with Section 13000) of the Water Code, and regulations relating to such areas, as well as any requirements established pursuant to Division 20 (commencing with Section 30000) of the Public Resources Code, shall remain in effect.

(b) In reviewing the work program submitted by each demonstration county and city, the office shall assure that consideration is given to meeting existing state requirements and standards in those areas covered by Section 65302.

65427. Upon selection of the demonstration sites, the Director of the Office of Planning and Research shall notify state agencies empowered to plan for the development of physical facilities of the site locations and boundaries. Each state agency shall notify the legislative body of the demonstration county or city if it plans the acquisition, lease, rental, or construction of physical facilities within the jurisdiction of the demonstration county or city during the demonstration period, and, insofar as possible, shall coordinate its plans with those of the demonstration county or city.

65428. To the extent permitted under applicable federal laws, the governing body of a demonstration county or city may accept any federal grant funds available to the county or city for a purpose consistent with the purposes of this article from any federal grant which allows the expenditure therefrom of amounts sufficient to reimburse the Office of Planning and Research for costs incurred in the administration of a demonstration project utilizing the grant funds.

CHAPTER 1124

An act to amend Section 1463.11 of the Penal Code and to add Section 28766.5 to the Public Utilities Code, relating to San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit District.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1463.11 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1463.11. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1463, out of the moneys deposited with the county treasurer pursuant to Section 1463, there shall be transferred first, once a month, to the San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit District an amount equal to 85 percent of all fines and forfeitures collected during the preceding month upon the conviction or upon the forfeitures of bail from any person arrested or notified by a member of the police department of such district and charged with a violation of an ordinance, rule, or regulation of the district adopted pursuant to Section 28766.5 of the Public Utilities Code or a violation of parking or other traffic regulations adopted by or with the sanction of the district pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 21100) of Chapter 1 of Division 11 of the Vehicle Code which are applicable to parking or any other regulation of traffic upon property within the county under the possession or control of the district, and an amount equal to the remaining 15 percent shall be transferred into the general fund of the county.

The San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit District and any county in which property is located which is under the possession or control of the distict may by mutual agreement adjust the percentages of fines and forfeitures to be received by the district and county respectively. In the absence of any such agreement, the percentages fixed by this section shall prevail.

SEC. 2. Section 28766.5 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

28766.5. Violation of any ordinance, rule, or regulation enacted by the board relating to smoking in any transit facility owned or controlled by the district shall be an infraction punishable by a fine not exceeding fifty dollars ($50).

CHAPTER 1125

An act to amend Section 74001.5 of the Government Code, relating to courts.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1 Section 74001.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

74001.5. The judges of the West Orange County Judicial District may appoint two court commissioners, who shall have the additional powers and duties prescribed by Section 259a of the Code of Civil Procedure, insofar as they are applicable to the Municipal Court and the judges of the Orange County Harbor Judicial District may appoint one court commissioner.

Such an appointment of a second court commissioner by the judges of the West Orange County Judicial District, or of a court commissioner by the judges of the Orange County Harbor Judicial District, may only be made in lieu of appointing a traffic trial commissioner pursuant to Section 72450.

The commissioners shall possess the same qualifications as the law requires of a judge of the municipal court. The commissioners shall hold office at the pleasure of the judges and shall receive a monthly salary in the same sum as is paid a commissioner of the Los Angeles Municipal Court District. The commissioners shall be ex officio deputy clerks of the court and shall be members of any retirement system which includes the attachés of the court and shall receive the same fringe benefits as granted to such attachés. The commissioners shall not engage in the private practice of law.

SEC. 2. Section 74001.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

74001.5. The judges of the West Orange County Judicial District may appoint two court commissioners, who shall have the additional powers and duties prescribed by Section 259a of the Code of Civil Procedure, insofar as they are applicable to the municipal court, and the judges of the South Orange County Judicial District and the Orange County Harbor Judicial District may appoint one court commissioner for each district.

Such an appointment of a second court commissioner by the judges of the West Orange County Judicial District, by the judges of the South Orange County Judicial District, or of a court commissioner by the judges of the Orange County Harbor Judicial District, may only be made in lieu of appointing a traffic trial commissioner pursuant to Section 72450. The commissioners shall possess the same qualifications as the law requires of a judge of the municipal court. The commissioners shall hold office at the pleasure of the judges and shall receive a monthly salary in the same sum as is paid a commissioner of the Los Angeles Municipal Court District. The commissioners shall be ex officio deputy clerks of the court and shall be members of any retirement system which includes the attachés of the court and shall receive the same fringe benefits as granted to such attachés. The commissioners shall not engage in the private practice of law.

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 1405 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 74001.5 of the Government Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 1405, that the amendments to Section 74001.5 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 74001.5 in the form set forth in Section 2 of this act. Therefore, Section 2 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 1405 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both amend Section 74001.5, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 1405, in which case Section 1 of this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 4. No appropriation is made by this act, nor is any obligation created thereby under Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, for the reimbursement of any local agency for any costs that may be incurred by it in carrying on any program or performing any service required to be carried on or performed by it pursuant to this act.

CHAPTER 1126

An act to amend Sections 29373.1 and 29375.1 of the Government Code, to amend Sections 531.6, 1651, 2610.5, 2611.4, 2821, and 3101 of, and to add Sections 3104.5 and 4986.8 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to fiscal procedures.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 29373.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

29373.1. The cash difference fund when authorized by resolution of the board of supervisors may be used to increase the amount tendered to any county officer so as to equal the amount due the county, for any account when a difference in an amount of five dollars ($5) or less exists. A record of such use shall be maintained, containing sufficient information to identify the account, identify the person making the payment which was not equal to the amount due the county, and show the amount of the difference.

SEC. 2. Section 29375.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

29375.1. When an amount paid to any county officer exceeds the amount due the county for any account, and such excess does not exceed five dollars ($5), the officer may deposit such excess in the overage fund in the county treasury. If such excess is not so deposited, it shall be refunded to the person making the payment.

SEC. 3. Section 531.6 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

531.6. The taxpayer who has filed a claim for the homeowners' exemption which has not been denied by the assessor is responsible for notifying the assessor when the property is no longer eligible for the exemption.

Upon any indication that a homeowners' exemption has been incorrectly allowed, the assessor shall make a redetermination of eligibility for the homeowners' exemption. If the assessor determines that the property is no longer eligible for the exemption, he shall immediately cancel the exemption on the property.

If a homeowners' exemption has been incorrectly allowed, an escape assessment as allowed by Section 531.1 in the amount of the exemption with interest as provided in Section 506 shall be made, except that where the exemption was allowed as the result of an assessor's error, the amount of interest shall be forgiven. If the exemption was incorrectly allowed because of erroneous or incorrect information submitted by the claimant with knowledge that such information was erroneous or incomplete or because the claimant failed to notify the assessor in a timely manner that the property was no longer eligible for the exemption, the penalty provided in Section 504 shall be added to the assessment. If the property subject to this paragraph has been transferred or conveyed to a bona fide purchaser for value or becomes subject to a lien of a bona fide encumbrancer for value, the provisions of Section 531.2 shall apply.

SEC. 4. Section 1651 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

1651. Immediately upon completion of his duties under Section 1646, the auditor shall transmit the unsecured roll to the tax collector.

SEC. 5. Section 2610.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2610.5. On or before November 1 each year, the tax collector of every county shall mail a county tax bill or copy thereof for all property on the secured roll. This requirement need not be met where the computation of taxes results in a zero amount. The failure to receive a tax bill does not relieve the fee owner from the liability to pay taxes owed, nor does it relieve the imposition of penalties imposed by this code.

SEC. 5.1. Section 2610.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2610.5. On or before November 1 each year, the tax collector of every county shall mail a county tax bill or copy thereof for any property on the secured roll. This requirement need not be met where the computation of taxes results in a zero amount. The failure to receive a tax bill does not relieve the fee owner from the liability to pay taxes owed, nor does it relieve the imposition of penalties imposed by this code. However, the penalty imposed for delinquent taxes as provided in Section 2617, 2618, 2621, 2704, 2705, 2759, 2760, 2761, 2762, or 2922 shall be waived by the auditor or tax collector if the assessee or fee owner demonstrates that the delinquency is due to the failure of the tax collector to mail the tax bill to the address as provided on the tax assessor's roll.

SEC. 5.5. Section 2611.4 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2611.4. In addition to Sections 2611.1, 2611.2 and 2611.3 of this code, any county department, officer or employee may refrain from collecting any tax assessment, penalty or cost, license fees or money owing to the county where the amount to be collected is five dollars ($5) or less. Nothing in this section shall be construed as releasing any person from the payment of any tax assessment, penalty or cost, license fee or any other money which is due and owing to the county.

SEC. 6. Section 2821 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2821. Any person filing an affidavit of interest may apply to the tax collector to have any parcel separately valued on the current roll for the purpose of paying taxes. A county may, upon approval of the board of supervisors, require that the applicant notify the property owner.

The application shall be made during the current fiscal year, and shall set forth the fact that a duly executed and recorded deed, purchase contract, deed of trust, mortgage, or final decree of court describes the parcel sought to be separately valued. A county may, upon approval of the board of supervisors, prohibit such applications during the 10-day period preceding each tax installment delinquent date and during the 10-day period prior to June 30th of each year.

The application may request that the tax created by the assessment of personal property, or leasehold improvements, or possessory interests on the whole assessment be allowed to remain as a lien on the parcel sought to be separately valued.

If any lien not determined by the application of a tax rate on a valuation of property has been levied or placed on the whole assessment, the application may be accompanied by the certification of the taxing agency or revenue district authorized by law to levy or place the lien, setting forth the specific amount of that portion of the lien levied or placed on the whole assessment which is to continue to be levied or placed on the parcel sought to be separately valued.

The board of supervisors may provide that a parcel with a lien against it and other property, pursuant to the Improvement Act of 1911, Division 7 (commencing with Section 5000) of the Streets and Highways Code, or the Improvement Bond Act of 1915, Division 10 (commencing with Section 8500) of the Streets and Highways Code, will not be separately valued unless a request has been made to the agency levying the bond lien for a division of land and bond. A copy of the requested division of land and bond shall accompany the request for separate property tax valuation.

Any separations of property pursuant to this section are for valuing property for tax purposes only, and are not intended to create a legal building site or to supersede requirements pursuant to zoning, building, lot split or subdivision ordinances.

SEC. 7. Section 3101 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

3101. If any tax, interest, or penalty imposed under this part is not paid by the last day of the month succeeding the delinquency date, the official collecting taxes on the unsecured roll may file, no sooner than 10 days after the mailing of the notice required in subdivision (b), in the office of the county clerk, without fee, a certificate specifying as follows:

(a) The fact that a notice of intent to file said certificate had been sent, by registered mail, to the assessee, at his last known address, not less than 10 days prior to the date of the certificate.

(b) The fact that the notice required in subdivision (a) set forth the following information:

(1) The name of the assessee.

(2) The description of the property assessed.

(3) The assessed value of the property.

(4) The fact that judgment will be sought in the amount of the tax, penalty, or interest that will remain unpaid at the time of the filing of the certificate.

(5) The fact that, upon the issuance and recordation of such judgment, additional penalties will continue to accrue at the rate prescribed by law, and that any bond premium posted or other costs to enforce the judgment shall be an added charge.

(6) The fact that a recording fee of six dollars ($6) will be required to be paid for the purpose of the recordation of any release of the judgment lien.

(c) The name of the assessee.

(d) The amount for which judgment is to be entered.

(e) The fact that the county has complied with all provisions of this part in the computation and the levy of the tax, penalty, or interest.

(f) The fact that a request is therein made for the issuance and entry of judgment against the assessee.

SEC. 8. Section 3104.5 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

3104.5. In addition to any penalty or fee imposed pursuant to this part, a penalty equal to the amount of any bond premium posted, or other costs incurred to enforce the judgment entered pursuant to this chapter shall be imposed.

SEC. 9. Section 4986.8 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

4986.8. (a) On recommendation of the tax collector, the auditor may cancel any tax assessment, special district tax or special assessment if the amount is so small as not to justify the cost of collection.

(b) The amount of any tax which may be canceled pursuant to this section shall not exceed ten dollars ($10).

(c) Any penalties, costs or fees that are the result of nonpayment of any tax which is canceled pursuant to this section may also be canceled.

SEC. 10. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 2085 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 2610.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2085, that the amendments to Section 2610.5 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 2610.5 in the form set forth in Section 5.1 of this act. Therefore, Section 5.1 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 2085 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1979, both amend Section 2610.5, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2085, in which case Section 5 of this act shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1127

An act to add Section 29034.5 to the Public Utilities Code, relating to transit districts.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 29034.5 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

29034.5. The district may approve annexation of areas to the district pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 29500) or other forms of affiliation; however, it shall meet its service commitments within the boundaries of the district as they existed on January 1, 1971, before it may expend any district funds for the purpose of extending services and facilities outside of such boundaries.

This section does not, however, preclude (1) rail line extensions to other areas that may be annexed to, or in some other way are affiliated with, the district, if other than district funds are used to finance the construction and operation of such extensions or (2) improvements to existing district stations and yards.

As used in this section, "service commitments" means the extension of district services and facilities to the Cities of Antioch, Pittsburg, Pleasanton, Livermore, and Fremont and to the northwest section of the City and County of San Francisco.

SEC. 2. It is the intent of the Legislature that the San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit District begin to focus its attention on providing direct service to the eastern portion of Contra Costa County, whose residents have been paying the district's one-half of 1 percent transactions and use tax since April 1, 1970.

CHAPTER 1128

An act to add Section 71040 to the Education Code, relating to community colleges.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 71040 is added to the Education Code, to read:

71040. The board of governors may allow actual and necessary traveling expenses to community college students who serve on study teams, task forces, or similar groups formed by the board of governors or by the chancellor's office and who, as official student representatives, attend meetings of any association, organization, or agency which has as its principal purpose the study of matters pertinent to education or to a particular field or fields of education relevant to community colleges.

The board of governors shall not allow traveling expenses to student lobbyists or for student travel out of the state.

SEC. 2. The sum of seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges for the 1978–79 fiscal year for the purposes of Section 71040 of the Education Code.

CHAPTER 1129

An act to amend Sections 33262 and 33263 of, and to repeal and add Section 39461 to, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to milk and manufactured products.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 33262 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

33262. Any distributor or 10 percent of the producers within any approved inspection or established inspection area may file with the director a written protest as to the reasonableness of any inspection fee which is levied and collected from the producer or distributor pursuant to Section 33252.

SEC. 2. Section 33263 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

33263. The director shall, after 30 days' public notice of the hearing, and after five days' written notice to any approved milk inspection service which is concerned, hold a hearing on the protest. The director may deny, postpone, or consolidate hearings for good cause. The director shall provide in writing the reasons for the denial, postponement, or consolidation of hearings.

SEC. 3. Section 39461 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 39461 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

39461. Colored oleomargarine or colored margarine shall not be served to any patron in any restaurant or any other place where food is served to the public for consumption on the premises of sale unless the words "oleomargarine served here," "margarine served here," or "substitutes for butter served here," are printed on:

(a) Individual menus furnished to patrons in the legible type which is at least the size of type used to describe other food items on the menu. Such words shall appear on the menu where other food items are described, or, if no individual menus are furnished,

(b) A wall menu or next to a wall menu in legible type which is at least the size of type used to describe other food items on the menu.

SEC. 4. No appropriation is made by this act, nor is any obligation created thereby under Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, for the reimbursement of any local agency for any costs that may be incurred by it in carrying on any program or performing any service required to be carried on or performed by it by this act.

CHAPTER 1130

An act to add Section 1374.10 to the Health and Safety Code, to amend Section 10176 of, and to add Sections 10123.10 and 11512.20 to, the Insurance Code, relating to health.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1374.10 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1374.10. (a) Every health care service plan that covers hospital, medical or surgical expenses and which is not qualified as a health maintenance organization under Title XIII of the federal Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 300e, et seq.) shall make available and offer to include in every group contract entered into on or after January 1, 1979, benefits for home health care as set forth in this section provided by a licensed home health agency subject to the right of the subscriber group to reject the benefits or to select any alternative level of benefits as may be offered by the health care service plan.

In rural areas where there are no licensed home health agencies or in which the supply of home health agency services does not meet the needs of the community, the services of visiting nurses, if available, shall be offered under the health care service plan subject to the terms and conditions set forth in subdivision (b).

(b) As used in this section:

(1) "Home health care" means the continued care and treatment of a covered person who is under the direct care and supervision of a physician but only if (i) continued hospitalization would have been required if home health care were not provided, (ii) the home health treatment plan is established and approved by a physician within 14 days after an inpatient hospital confinement has ended and such treatment plan is for the same or related condition for which the covered person was hospitalized, and (iii) home health care commences within 14 days after the hospital confinement has ended. "Home health services" consist of, but shall not be limited to, the following: (i) part-time or intermittent skilled nursing services provided by a registered nurse or licensed vocational nurse; (ii) part-time or intermittent home health aide services which provide supportive services in the home under the supervision of a registered nurse or a physical, speech or occupational therapist; (iii) physical, occupational or speech therapy; and (iv) medical supplies, drugs and medicines prescribed by a physician and related pharmaceutical services, and laboratory services to the extent such charges or costs would have been covered under the plan if the covered person had remained in the hospital.

(2) "Home health agency" means a public or private agency or organization licensed by the State Department of Health Services in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 1725) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code.

(c) The plan may contain a limitation on the number of home health visits for which benefits are payable, but the number of such visits shall not be less than 100 in any calendar year or in any continuous 12-month period for each person covered under the plan. Except for a home health aide, each visit by a representative of a home health agency shall be considered as one home health care visit. A visit of four hours or less by a home health aide shall be considered as one home health visit.

(d) Home health benefits in this section shall be subject to all other provisions of this chapter. In addition, such benefits may be subject to an annual deductible of not more than fifty dollars ($50) for each person covered under a plan, and may be subject to a coinsurance provision which provides coverage of not less than 80 percent of the reasonable charges for such services.

(e) Nothing in this section shall preclude a plan offering other health care benefits provided in the home.

(f) Nothing in this section shall relieve any plan from providing all basic health care services as required by subdivision (i) of Section 1367 except that a plan subject to this section may fulfill that requirement with respect to home health services in connection with any particular group contract by providing benefits for home health care as set forth in this section if the subscriber group has not rejected such benefits.

SEC. 2. Section 10123.10 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

10123.10. (a) Every disability insurer transacting business in this state shall, on or after January 1, 1979, make available and offer to include in every group disability policy providing hospital, medical or surgical expense benefits payable on an expense incurred basis, to be delivered or issued for delivery in this state, benefits for home health care as set forth in this section provided by a licensed home health agency subject to the right of the group policyholder to reject the benefits or to select any alternative level of benefits as may be offered by the insurer.

In rural areas where there are no licensed health agencies or in which the supply of home health agency services does not meet the needs of the community, the services of visiting nurses, if available, may be substituted for the services of the home health agency, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in subdivision (c).

(b) Every self-insured employee welfare benefit plan containing hospital, medical, or surgical expense benefits or service benefits delivered on or after January 1, 1979, shall make available and offer to include benefits for home health care as set forth in this section provided by a licensed home health agency subject to the right of the employer or the employee organization to reject the benefits or accept any alternative level of benefits as may be offered by the self-insured welfare benefit plan.

In rural areas where there are no licensed health agencies or in which the supply of home health agency services does not meet the needs of the community, the services of visiting nurses, if available, may be substituted for the services of the home health agency, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in subdivision (c).

(c) As used in this section:

(1) "Home health care" means the continued care and treatment of an insured person who is under the direct care and supervision of a physician but only if (i) continued hospitalization would have been required if home health care were not provided, (ii) the home health treatment plan is established and approved by a physician within 14 days after an inpatient hospital confinement has ended and such treatment plan is for the same or related condition for which the insured person was hospitalized, and (iii) home health care commences within 14 days after the hospital confinement has ended. "Home health services" consist of, but shall not be limited to, the following: (i) part-time or intermittent skilled nursing services provided by a registered nurse or licensed vocational nurse; (ii) part-time or intermitent home health aide services which provide supportive services in the home under the supervision of a registered nurse or a physical, speech or occupational therapist; (iii) physical, occupational or speech therapy; and (iv) medical supplies, drugs and medicines prescribed by a physician and related pharmaceutical services, and laboratory services to the extent such charges or costs would have been covered under the policy if the insured person had remained in the hospital.

(2) "Home health agency" means a public or private agency or organization licensed by the State Department of Health Services in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 1725) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code.

(d) The policy may contain a limitation on the number of home health visits for which benefits are payable, but the number of such visits shall not be less than 100 in any calendar year or in any continuous 12-month period for each person covered under the policy. Except for a home health aide, each visit by a representative of a home health agency shall be considered as one home health visit.

A visit of four hours or less by a home health aide shall be considered as one home health visit.

(e) Home health care benefits may be subject to an annual deductible of not more than fifty dollars ($50) for each person covered under a policy, and may be subject to a coinsurance provision which provides coverage of not less than 80 percent of the reasonable charges for such services.

(f) Nothing in this section shall preclude an insurer or plan offering other health care benefits provided in the home.

SEC. 2.5. Section 10176 of the Insurance Code, as amended by Chapter 439 of the Statutes of 1978, is amended to read:

10176. In disability insurance the policy may provide for payment of medical, surgical, chiropractic, physical therapy, speech pathology, audiology, professional mental health, dental, hospital, or optometric expenses upon a reimbursement basis, or for the exclusion of any such services, and provision may be made therein for payment of all or a portion of the amount of charge for such services without requiring that the insured first pay such expenses. No such policy shall prohibit the insured from selecting any psychologist or other person who is the holder of a certificate or license under Section 1000, 1634, 2135, 2553, 2630, 2948, or 3055 of the Business and Professions Code to perform the particular services covered under the terms of the policy, such certificate holder or licensee being expressly authorized by law to perform such services.

Nor shall any such policy prohibit the insured, upon referral by a physician and surgeon licensed under Section 2135 of the Business and Professions Code, from selecting any licensed clinical social worker who is the holder of a license issued under Section 9040 of the Business and Professions Code or any occupational therapist as specified in Section 2570 of the Business and Professions Code, to perform the particular services covered under the terms of the policy, or from selecting any speech pathologist or audiologist licensed under Section 2530 of the Business and Professions Code to perform services deemed necessary by the referring physician, such certificate holder, licensee or otherwise regulated person, being expressly authorized by law to perform such services.

SEC. 3. Section 11512.20 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

11512.20. (a) Every nonprofit hospital service plan providing hospital, medical or surgical expense benefits delivered on or after January 1, 1979, shall make available and offer to include group benefits for home health care as set forth in this section provided by a licensed home health agency subject to the right of the contract holder to reject the benefits or accept any alternative level of benefits as may be offered by the nonprofit hospital service plan.

In rural areas where there are no licensed health agencies or in which the supply of home health agency services does not meet the needs of the community, the services of visiting nurses, if available, may be substituted for the services of the home health agency, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in subdivision (b).

(b) As used in this section:

(1) "Home health care" means the continued care and treatment of a covered member who is under the direct care and supervision of a physician but only if (i) continued hospitalization would have been required if home health care were not provided, (ii) the home health treatment plan is established and approved by a physician within 14 days after an inpatient hospital confinement has ended and such treatment plan is for the same or related condition for which the member was hospitalized, and (iii) home health care commences within 14 days after the hospital confinement has ended. "Home health services" consist of, but shall not be limited to, the following: (i) part-time or intermittent skilled nursing services provided by a registered nurse or licensed vocational nurse; (ii) part-time or intermittent home health aide services which provide supportive services in the home under the supervision of a registered nurse or a physical, speech or occupational therapist; (iii) physical, occupational or speech therapy; and (iv) medical supplies, drugs and medicines prescribed by a physician and related pharmaceutical services, and laboratory services to the extent such charges or costs would have been covered under the plan if the member had remained in the hospital.

(2) "Home health agency" means a public or private agency or organization licensed by the State Department of Health Services in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 1725) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code.

(c) The contract may contain a limitation on the number of home health visits for which benefits are payable, but the number of such visits shall not be less than 100 in any calendar year or in any continuous 12-month period for each member covered under the contract. Except for a home health aide, each visit by a representative of a home health agency shall be considered as one home health visit. A visit of four hours or less by a home health aide shall be considered as one home health visit.

(d) Home health care benefits may be subject to an annual deductible of not more than fifty dollars ($50) for each member covered under a contract, and may be subject to a coinsurance provision which provides coverage of not less than 80 percent of the reasonable charges for such services.

(e) Nothing in this section shall preclude a plan offering other health care service provided in the home.

CHAPTER 1131

An act to amend Section 41704 of, and to add Section 41704.5 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to air pollution, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1978 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1978.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 41704 of the Health and Safety Code, is amended to read:

41704. Section 41701 shall not apply to any of the following:

(a) Fires set pursuant to Section 41801.

(b) Agricultural burning for which a permit has been granted pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 41850).

(c) Fires set or permitted by any public officer in the performance of his official duty for the improvement of watershed, range, or pasture.

(d) Use of any aircraft to distribute seed, fertilizer, insecticides, or other agricultural aids over lands devoted to the growing of crops or raising of fowl or animals.

(e) Open outdoor fires used only for cooking of food for human beings or for recreational purposes.

(f) The use of orchard and citrus grove heaters which are in compliance with the requirements set forth in Section 41860.

(g) Agricultural operations necessary for the growing of crops or raising of fowl or animals.

(h) The use of other equipment in agricultural operations necessary for the growing of crops or raising of fowl or animals.

(i) Fugitive dust emissions from rock crushing facilities within the Southeast Desert Air Basin, where such facilities were in existence prior to January 1, 1970, at a location where the population density is less than 10 persons per square mile in each square mile within a seven-mile radius of the facilities; provided, however, that under no circumstances shall such emissions cause a measurable degradation of the ambient air quality or create a nuisance. This subdivision shall not apply to any such rock crushing facilities which (1) process in excess of 100 tons of rock in any 24-hour period, averaged over any period of 30 consecutive days, (2) have 25 or more employees, (3) fail to operate and maintain in good working order any emission control equipment installed prior to the effective date of this act, or (4) undergo a change of ownership after January 1, 1977.

(j) Emissions from vessels using steam boilers during emergency boiler shutdowns for safety reasons, safety and operational tests required by governmental agencies, and where maneuvering is required to avoid hazards.

(k) Emissions from vessels using steam boilers during cold boiler light-off operations and while drying wet or green refractory to the extent that such emissions, excluding uncombined water vapor, are not as dark or darker in shade than that designated as Number 2 on the Ringelmann chart or of an opacity equal to, or greater than, 40 percent for periods aggregating more than 15 minutes in any one hour. This subdivision shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1984, and shall be of no force and effect on and after such date.

SEC. 1.5. Section 41704 of the Health and Safety Code as amended by Section 1 of this act is amended to read:

41704. Section 41701 shall not apply to:

(a) Fires set pursuant to Section 41801.

(b) Agricultural burning for which a permit has been granted pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 41850).

(c) Fires set or permitted by any public officer in the performance of his official duty for the improvement of watershed, range, or pasture.

(d) Use of any aircraft to distribute seed, fertilizer, insecticides, or other agricultural aids over lands devoted to the growing of crops or raising of fowl or animals.

(e) Open outdoor fires used only for cooking of food for human beings or for recreational purposes.

(f) The use of orchard and citrus grove heaters which are in compliance with the requirements set forth in Section 41860.

(g) Agricultural operations necessary for the growing of crops or raising of fowl or animals.

(h) The use of other equipment in agricultural operations necessary for the growing of crops or raising of fowl or animals.

(i) Fugitive dust emissions from rock crushing facilities within the Southeast Desert Air Basin, where such facilities were in existence prior to January 1, 1970, at a location where the population density is less than 10 persons per square mile in each square mile within a seven-mile radius of the facilities; provided, however, that under no circumstances shall such emissions cause a measurable degradation of the ambient air quality or create a nuisance. This subdivision shall not apply to any such rock crushing facilities which (1) process in excess of 100 tons of rock in any 24-hour period, averaged over any period of 30 consecutive days, (2) have 25 or more employees, (3) fail to operate and maintain in good working order any emission control equipment installed prior to the effective date of this act, or (4) undergo a change of ownership after January 1, 1977.

(j) Emissions from vessels using steam boilers during emergency boiler shutdowns for safety reasons, safety and operational tests required by governmental agencies, and where maneuvering is required to avoid hazards.

(k) Emissions from vessels using steam boilers during cold boiler light-off operations and while drying wet or green refractory to the extent that such emissions, excluding uncombined water vapor, are not as dark or darker in shade than that designated as Number 2 on the Ringelmann chart or of an opacity equal to, or greater than, 40 percent for periods aggregating more than 15 minutes in any one hour. This subdivision shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1984, and shall be of no force and effect on and after such date.

(l) The use of visible emission generating equipment in training sessions conducted by governmental agencies necessary for certifying persons to evaluate visible emissions for compliance with Section 41701 or applicable district rules and regulations. Any local or regional authority rule or regulation relating to visible emissions shall not be applicable to such equipment.

SEC. 2. Section 41704.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

41704.5. The state board shall conduct a study in cooperation with the affected districts and representatives of the maritime industry to determine whether vessels using steam boilers can be brought into compliance with Section 41701 by January 1, 1984, or any earlier date, taking into account the age and physical condition of the affected vessels, vessel safety and operational requirements, and technological feasibility.

Following completion of such study, the state board shall conduct a public hearing to consider and, if appropriate, adopt a compliance schedule by which various classes of vessels will be brought into compliance with the standards specified in Section 41701 on and after January 1, 1984. Prior to taking any action to adopt any such compliance schedule, the state board shall report the results of its study to the Legislature, and in no event shall such study be filed with the Legislature later than January 1, 1983. The report shall also address emissions from diesel powered vessels.

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 3154 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 41704 of the Health and Safety Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 3154, that Section 41704 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Section 1 of this act shall remain operative only until the operative date of Assembly Bill No. 3154, and that on the operative date of Assembly Bill No. 3154, Section 41704 of the Health and Safety Code as amended by Section 1 of this act be further amended in the form set forth in Section 1.5 of this act to incorporate the changes in Section 41704 proposed by Assembly Bill No. 3154. Therefore, Section 1.5 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 3154 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1979, both bills amend Section 41704, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 3154, in which case Section 1.5 of this act shall become operative on the operative date of Assembly Bill No. 3154.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Vessels engaged in commerce are being cited under the California air pollution control laws as if they are stationary sources of emissions while studies have shown that vessel power plants are fundamentally different in design and have ever-fluctuating power demands and ever-changing crews. Situations regularly arise requiring vessels to produce emissions in excess of established opacity standards over which the vessel has little or no control. The cost of compliance, especially regarding foreign flag vessels, and interference with maritime trade does not justify strict conformance with provisions of law adopted to control stationary sources.

In order that the impact of enforcement of such provisions be minimized at the earliest possible time, it is, therefore, necessary that this act take effect immediately.
