The assessments imposed by this part in 1978 are due and payable on or before September 30, 1979; and the assessments imposed by this part for 1979 and subsequent years are due and payable to the board annually on or before the last day of the second calendar month next succeeding each calendar year or on or before the last day of the second calendar month next succeeding the close of such period as may be prescribed by the board pursuant to Section 42304. SEC. 5. (a) The provisions of this act shall apply to the assessment imposed on or after January 1, 1978

Accordingly, the Legislature hereby finds and declares that the reformulation of the assessment accomplished by such amendments and the refunds and remittances required to be made to taxpayers pursuant to this act promote a legitimate state purpose

(c) The revised schedule of assessments and the revised due date for the payment of assessments established by the amendments to, respectively, Sections 42103 and 42300 of the Revenue and Taxation Code made by this act shall apply to assessments, the liability for the payment of which accrues during the 1978 and subsequent tax years, unless a bill, which further revises or replaces such schedule of assessments, is chaptered on or before July 1, 1979.

SEC 3.8. Section 7262 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read·

7262. The use tax portion of any transactions and use tax ordinance adopted under this part shall impose a complementary tax upon the storage, use or other consumption in the district of tangible personal property purchased from any retailer for storage, use or other consumption in the district Such tax shall be at a rate of one-half of 1 percent of the sales price of the property whose storage, use or other consumption is subject to the tax, and the ordinance shall include provisions in substance as follows.

(a) Provisions identical to those contained in Part 1 (commencing with Section 6001) of this division, insofar as they relate to use taxes and are not inconsistent with this part, except that the name of the district as the taxing agency shall be substituted for that of the state. The name of the district shall be substituted for the word "state" in the phrase "retailer engaged in business in this state" in Section 6203 and in the definition of that phrase.

An additional provision shall be included that a retailer engaged in business in the district shall not be required to collect use tax from the purchaser of tangible personal property unless the retailer ships or delivers the property into the district or participates within the district in making the sale of the property, including, but not limited to soliciting or receiving the order, either directly or indirectly, at a place of business of the retailer in the district or through any representative, agent, canvasser, solicitor, subsidiary or person in the district under authority of the retailer.

(b) A provision that all amendments subsequent to the effective date of this part to the provisions of Part 1 (commencing with Section 6001) of this division relating to the use tax and not inconsistent with this part shall automatically become a part of the ordinance; provided, however, that no such amendment shall operate so as to affect the rate of tax imposed by the district's board.

(c) A provision that the amount subject to tax shall not include the amount of any sales tax or use tax imposed by the State of California or by any city, city and county, or county pursuant to the Bradley-Burns Uniform Local Sales and Use Tax Law, or the amount of any state-administered transactions or use tax.

(d) A provision that the storage, use or other consumption of tangible personal property, the gross receipts from the sale of which have been subject to a transations tax under any state-administered transactions and use taxes ordinance shall be exempt from the tax.

(e) A provision that, in addition to the exemptions provided in Sections 6366 and 6366.1 of this code, the storage, use, or other consumption of tangible personal property purchased by operators of aircraft and used or consumed by such operators directly and exclusively in the use of such aircraft as common carriers of persons or property for hire or compensation under a certificate of public convenience and necessity issued pursuant to the laws of this state, the United States, or any foreign government is exempt from the use tax.

(f) A provision that the storage, use, or other consumption in the district of tangible personal property is exempt from tax if purchaser is obligated to purchase the property for a fixed price pursuant to a contract entered into prior to the operative date of the ordinance. The possession of, or the exercise of any right or power over, tangible personal property under a lease which is a continuing purchase of such property is exempt from tax for any period of time for which the lessee is obligated to lease the property for an amount fixed by a lease prior to the operative date of the ordinance. For the purposes of this subdivision, storage, use, or other consumption, or possession, or exercise of any right or power over, tangible personal property shall be deemed not to be obligated pursuant to a contract or lease for any period of time for which any party to the contract or lease has the unconditional right to terminate the contract or lease upon notice, whether or not such right is exercised.

SEC. 3.9. Sections 3.1, 3.2, 3.3, 3.4, 3.5, 3.6, 3.7, and 3.8 of this act shall become operative on January 1, 1984.

SEC. 3.10. The Legislative Analyst shall report to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1983, on the net revenue effect of Sections 3.1, 3.2, 3.3, 3.4, 3.5, 3.6, 3.7, and 3.8 of this act, which shall include, but not be limited to, the change in economic activity, change of employment, and sales to and by the maritime industry and businesses serving the maritime industry, including any multiplier effect, the increase in tax revenue due to such activity, and to the extent practicable, an analysis of the impact of the above factors on a county-by-county or regional basis. Such report shall contain a recommendation that the Legislature either renew this exemption or that they allow it to be repealed.

SEC. 4. (a) Notwithstanding Section 2229 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act and the state shall not reimburse any local agency for any property tax revenues lost by it under this act.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 905.2 of the Government Code, Section 2253 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, or any other provision of law, no local agency or school district shall have standing to make a claim to the State Board of Control for any costs incurred by it under this act pursuant to Part 3 (commencing with Section 900) of Division 3.6 of Title 1 of the Government Code or pursuant to Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 2250) of Chapter 3 of Part 4 of Division 1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

SEC. 5 This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into effect immediately. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The present tax exemption for ocean cargo containers expires on March 1, 1979. Studies by the Legislative Analyst and a leading maritime research firm show that unless the exemption is extended, there will be some diversion of ocean containerized cargoes from California ports to other maritime states which do not impose a property tax on ocean cargo containers. One such state is Washington which is capturing a growing share of what was once California's container trade and where cargo containers are permanently exempt from property taxes. Such diversion could create overall economic losses to California of up to $7,000,000 a year greater than anticipated tax revenues on containers and result in loss of income to ocean carriers, added costs to California exporters and importers, and loss of employment earnings to California workers.

In order that the impact of this impending tax be minimized at the earliest possible time, it is, therefore, necessary that this act take effect immediately

CHAPTER 6

An act to amend Sections 33080.1 and 33080.3 of, and to add Section 33080 5 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to redevelopment, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor March 1, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State March 1, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows·

SECTION 1. Section 33080 1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read

33080 1. Every redevelopment agency shall present a report to its legislative body within six months of the end of the agency's fiscal year. The report shall contain all of the following:

(a) An independent financial audit report for the previous fiscal year. "Audit report" means an examination of, and opinion on, the financial statements of the agency which present the results of the operations and financial position of the agency. Such audit shall be conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and the rules governing audit reports promulgated by the State Board of Accountancy The audit report shall also include an opinion of the agency's compliance with laws, regulations and administrative requirements governing activities of the agency.

However, the legislative body may elect to omit from inclusion in the audit report, any distinct activity of the agency which is funded exclusively by the federal government and which is subject to audit by an agency or instrumentality of the federal government.

(b) A work program for the coming year, including goals.

(c) An examination of the previous year's achievements and a comparison of the achievements with the goals of the previous year's work program

(d) Recommendations for needed legislation to carry on properly a program of housing and community development in California.

SEC. 1.5 Section 33080 3 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

33080 3 Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 33080 or 33080 1, an opinion of the agency's compliance with laws, regulations and administrative requirements governing activities of the agency, as required by subdivision (a) of Section 33080.1, shall be included for the first time in the first report filed with the department and presented to the agency's legislative body for the agency's last fiscal year ended prior to January 1, 1980. The State Controller shall develop guidelines for the content of such portion of the report not later than July 1, 1979 The State Controller shall appoint an advisory committee to advise the State Controller in the development of the guidelines, consisting of, one member of a city council which serves as the governing body of its redevelopment agency, who shall be nominated by the League of California Cities, one member of a county board of supervisors which serves as the governing body of its redevelopment agency, who shall be nominated by the County Supervisors Association of California, and two representatives each from (1) the department, (2) the California Society of Certified Public Accountants, (3) municipal finance officers, (4) redevelopment agencies, and (5) independent authorities in the field.

That portion of the report required by subdivisions (b), (c) and (d) of Section 33080.1 for the fiscal year 1977–78, shall be filed with the department and presented to the agency's legislative body on or before March 1, 1979.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Redevelopment requires reporting and auditing to make it responsive and effective. Redevelopment agencies cannot meet the date for the completion of the audit procedure specified in existing law, because there are no guidelines from the state to direct the content of the required report. In order to provide guidelines for reporting and auditing redevelopment and to avoid violations of the law, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 7

An act to amend Section 16272 7 of the Government Code, relating to subventions to local agencies, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor March 7, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State March 7, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1 Section 16272.7 of the Government Code is amended to read:

16272.7. (a) The allocation for each governing body as determined in Section 16272.5 shall be distributed to each governing body by the State Controller as follows:

33 percent—on August 31, 1978, or a subsequent date if the information needed by the State Controller is not available by this date

33 percent—on December 10, 1978.

34 percent—on May 10, 1979, or at an earlier time as may be requested by the governing body if a determination is made pursuant to subdivision (b) of this section.

(b) If a governing body certifies that any district which was allocated funds pursuant to Section 16275 needs such funds earlier than May 10, 1979, and that such need is based on a determination by the governing body that such funds are needed in order to continue providing necessary services, the governing body may request that the Controller provide such funds prior to May 10, 1979. Upon such request the Controller shall disburse such funds. When received, the board shall immediately deposit such funds with such district.

(c) Where funds are disbursed earlier than May 10, 1979, any reconciliation and audit as may otherwise be required shall be made no later than July 1, 1979.

SEC 2 This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are·

Existing law provides for the distribution of state funds during the 1978–79 fiscal year to special districts in accordance with specified procedures for the purpose of implementing Article XIII A of the California Constitution The final allocation of such funds is now required to be made on May 10, 1979. However, many special districts will run out of money before that date. In order that the services provided by such special districts will not be interrupted, it is necessary that this act, which would provide for the allocation of such funds on or before March 1, 1979, take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 8

An act to add Section 25536 7 to the Government Code, relating to county property, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately

[Approved by Governor March 7, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State March 7, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows.

SECTION 1. Section 25536.7 is added to the Government Code, to read:

25536.7 Whenever real property has been granted to a county, prior to January 1, 1920, by gift-deed, for an art institute or other artistic or cultural purpose, and has been operated by the county for such purpose in conjunction with contiguous county-owned real property, the county board of supervisors, in addition to its other powers, may, without complying with the other provisions of this article, enter into an operating lease or management contract with a nonprofit corporation or association or with the governing board of a public or private school, college or university, or school or college district, for the management, operation, or maintenance of such gift-deeded and contiguous properties for uses and purposes consistent with the gift-deed. Any such lease or contract shall not exceed a term of 40 years and may contain such other terms and conditions as may be agreed upon, including the right of the lessee or contractor to use fixtures and personal property situated on the realty at the date of execution of such lease or contract and necessary for the operation of the realty for such uses and purposes, or as may be required to comply with the limitations and restrictions upon the use of the property contained in the gift-deed and with provisions of law regarding the public use.

The provisions of this section shall apply only to a county with a population of 4,000,000 or more as shown in the 1970 federal decennial census.

SEC. 2 This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution, and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Severe budgetary constraints have made it imperative that counties exceeding 4,000,000 in population discontinue general fund financing of publicly-owned art institutes. Such institutes do have numerous students whose health and education would be seriously interrupted and impaired by closing of the institutes. Transfer of the responsibility for operating such institutes to noncounty entities for operation under county direction and control would avert such closing. In order that an orderly transfer of such responsibility, as authorized by Section 1 of this act, may be accomplished in time to avert the closure of an art institute, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 9

An act to amend Sections 5000, 5002, 5004, 5005, 5017, 5018, 5022, 5091, 5203, 5204, 5229, 5231, 5326, and 35105 of, to repeal Section 5057 of, and to repeal and add Section 1008 of, the Education Code, and to amend Sections 2520 and 17088 of the Elections Code, relating to elections, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SEC. 2. Section 1008 is added to the Education Code, to read.

(b) Notwithstanding any provisions of law to the contrary, a regular election for members of the Long Beach Community College District governing board may be held, upon the adoption of an appropriate resolution by the governing board, on the same date upon which the election for members of the City Board of Education of the Long Beach Unified School District is held pursuant to the City Charter of the City of Long Beach and Article 3 (commencing with Section 5340) of Chapter 3 of this part.

SEC 3.5 Section 5002 of the Education Code is amended to read:

5002. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 5000, whenever, in a district which has been wholly absorbed into one or more other districts and continues in existence as a district pursuant to Section 4066 until the reorganization in which it has been included is effective for all purposes and a governing board member election is otherwise required to be held prior to such effective date of the reorganization, no such election shall be held Instead, the county superintendent of schools shall appoint successors to the members whose terms expire on the last Friday in November following the date upon which the election would otherwise have been held. Such appointees shall hold office until the reorganization becomes effective for all purposes

(b) The provisions of subdivision (a) shall apply to any school district governed by a city board of education whenever such school district has been included with other school district territory within a unification effected pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 4200) of Part 3 of this division, where:

(1) The charter of the city involved requires an election of city school district governing board members to be held prior to the date the new unified district becomes effective for all purposes; and

(2) The governing board of the new unified school district is organized to be subject to the provisions of this code rather than the provisions of the city charter

SEC 4. Section 5004 of the Education Code is amended to read:

5004 Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 35105 and 5000 to the contrary, when the first elected board of any newly formed district is elected on the same date that the election is held for adopting the proposal for the formation of the new district and when the terms of several members of the first governing board would expire prior to the date on which the district becomes effective for all purposes, no election shall be held in November of that odd-numbered year, but the several members whose terms expire shall serve until April 30th of the next succeeding even-numbered year. A governing board election shall be held on the second Tuesday in April of that even-numbered year to fill the offices of such members whose terms expire on April 30th next succeeding the election. The election shall be held annually on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November. The election shall be called, held and conducted by the county superintendent of schools in substantially the same manner as prescribed by Section 5000

SEC. 6. Section 5017 of the Education Code is amended to read.

5017 (a) Each person elected at a regular biennial governing board member election shall hold office for a term of four years commencing on the last Friday in November next succeeding his election. Any member of the governing board of any school district or community college district whose term has expired shall continue to discharge the duties of his office until his successor has qualified. The term of the successor shall begin upon the expiration of the term of his predecessor.

(b) Notwithstanding any provisions of law to the contrary, each person elected at a regular election held pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 5000 shall hold office for a term of four years commencing on the first day of the calendar month next succeeding his election. The term of his predecessor shall be deemed to expire on the first day of the calendar month next succeeding such election, regardless of the length of such term as otherwise established by law, provided, however, that such predecessor shall continue to discharge the duties of his office until his successor has qualified.

SEC 7 Section 5018 of the Education Code is amended to read:

5018 Any elementary school district having a governing board of three members may, and any elementary school district having a governing board of three members whose average daily attendance during the preceding fiscal year was 300 or more shall, do either of the following:

(a) By its own action determine that the number of members of the governing board shall be increased to five, in which case two additional members shall be elected at an upcoming regular election date, as specified in Section 2500 of the Elections Code, determined by the board.

(b) Request the county superintendent of schools having jurisdiction to submit the question of whether the number of members of the governing board shall be increased to five to the voters of the elementary school district at an upcoming regular election date, as specified in Section 2500 of the Elections Code, determined by the county superintendent of schools. At the same election, two additional members shall be elected to take office if the number of governing board members is increased.

Candidates for the two additional offices shall state in the declarations of candidacy filed for the election that the candidates are candidates for the two additional offices separately from the other offices to be filled in the election and shall clearly indicate to the voters that they may vote for two of the candidates to take office if the voters approve the proposed increase in the number of board members.

If the voters at the election do not approve such an increase in membership of the governing board, the same question may be submitted to the voters at subsequent governing board member elections. Requests to the county superintendent to submit the question to the voters of a district shall be filed with him by the governing board of the district no later than 100 days prior to the election.

If, pursuant to either subdivision (a) or subdivision (b) of this section, two additional governing board members are authorized and elected, the one receiving the higher number of votes shall hold office for a term commencing the first day of the month following the election until the last Friday in November in the second succeeding year following the election in which a regular governing board election is held, and the other one shall hold office for a term commencing the first day of the month following the election until the last Friday in November in the first succeeding year following the election in which a regular governing board election is held. 5091. (a) Whenever a vacancy occurs, or whenever a resignation has been filed with the county superintendent of schools containing a deferred effective date, the school district or community college district governing board shall, within 30 days of the vacancy or the filing of the deferred resignation, either order an election or make a provisional appointment to fill the vacancy. A governing board member may not defer the effective date of his or her resignation for more than 30 days after he or she files the resignation with the county superintendent of schools.

In the event that a governing board fails to make a provisional appointment or order an election within the prescribed 30-day period as required by this section, the county superintendent of schools shall call an election to fill the vacancy.

(b) When an election is ordered, it shall be held on the next regular election date provided pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 2500) of Division 4 of the Elections Code not less than 98 days after the occurrence of the vacancy or after the written resignation is filed with the county superintendent of schools.

(c) If a provisional appointment is made within the 30-day period, the registered voters of the district may, within 30 days from the date of the appointment, petition for the conduct of a special election to fill the vacancy. A petition shall be deemed to bear a sufficient number of signatures if signed by at least the appropriate percentage of registered voters of the district who voted in the last regular election for governing board members, as follows:

(1) In districts in which less than 75,000 voters voted 5 percent of the number of such voters.

(2) In districts in which 75,000 or more, but less than 200,000, voters voted 3,750 plus 2½ percent of the number, over 75,000, of such voters

(3) In districts in which 200,000 or more voted 6,875 plus 1 percent of the number, over 200,000, of such voters.

The petition shall be submitted to the county superintendent of schools having jurisdiction who shall have 30 days to verify the signatures. If the petition is determined to be legally sufficient by the county superintendent of schools, the provisional appointment is terminated, and the county superintendent of schools shall call a special election to be conducted no later than the 120th day after the determination; provided, however, if a regular election date, as defined in Section 2500 of the Elections Code, occurs between the 120th day and the 150th day following the determination, the county superintendent of schools may call such election to be conducted on the regular election date.

(d) A provisional appointment made pursuant to subdivision (a) confers no powers or duties of a governing board member upon the appointee during the 30-day period following his appointment and within which a petition calling for special election may be filed. If a petition is not filed within the 30-day period, the appointee shall thereafter have all the powers and perform all the duties of a governing board member.

(e) A person appointed to fill a vacancy shall hold office only until the next regularly scheduled election for district governing board members, whereupon an election shall be held to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the unexpired term. A person elected at an election to fill the vacancy shall hold office for the remainder of the term in which the vacancy occurs or will occur.

(f) Whenever a petition calling for a special election is circulated, the petition shall contain the clerk's estimate of the cost of conducting the special election.

(g) Elections held pursuant to subdivisions (b) and (c) shall be conducted in as nearly the same manner as practicable as other governing board member elections.

SEC 11. Section 5203 of the Education Code is amended to read:

5203. If the charter of any city provides for or has within two years prior to January 1, 1955, provided for a board of education of five members of a unified school district, and such charter has been or is hereafter amended so that it fails to provide for a board of education, a new board of education composed of five members is created under this section immediately upon the effective date of such amendment, the positions thereto shall be filled by appointment of the county superintendent of schools. The terms of the members first so appointed shall expire the last day of November of an odd-numbered year next following the effective date of such charter amendment, and an election shall be held for the members of such board at the time fixed by law for the regular election of members of governing boards of school districts, and the members so elected shall assume office on the last Friday in November following. If the effective date of such charter amendment is such that a legal election for board members cannot be held as aforesaid prior to the first day of December of an odd-numbered year next following such charter amendment, then the county superintendent of schools shall again appoint the members of such board who shall assume office on the last Friday in November as aforesaid. The terms of the board members who take office on the last Friday in November as aforesaid and thereafter shall be as follows:

(a) If such members were elected, the three receiving the largest number of votes shall serve for four-year terms, and the remaining two members shall serve for two-year terms; and all subsequent members shall serve for four-year terms.

(b) If such members were appointed, the county superintendent of schools, upon making the appointments, shall designate three members to serve for four-year terms, and two members to serve for two-year terms.

Except as herein otherwise provided, the members of the board shall be elected at the last time fixed by law for the election of members of governing boards of school districts prior to the commencement of a new term of office. If a general municipal election is to be held within 60 days prior to the time when an election for board members would be held as aforesaid, the board of education may, by resolution filed with the governing body of such city at least 60 days prior to such municipal election, call the school district election to coincide with the municipal election and request the governing body of such city to consolidate such elections in that portion of the school district which lies within such city, and the governing body of such city shall order such elections to be consolidated and to be held as are consolidated elections under the provisions of the Elections Code relating to consolidated elections, in which event the school district shall simultaneously with the holding of such consolidated election conduct an election in any portion of the district not included within such municipality. In the event of the holding of such consolidated election, the school district shall reimburse the city for its proportionate share of the costs of conducting such consolidated election in an amount to be agreed upon between the governing bodies of such school district and such city.

SEC. 12 Section 5204 of the Education Code is amended to read:

5204 Proceedings pursuant to Section 5203 may be conducted in conjunction with proceedings under Article 1 (commencing with Section 5000) of Chapter 1 of this part, including proceedings by the county committee on school district organization to establish trustee areas or to increase the number of members of the governing board of the school district or community college district from five to seven members, or both. In the event that the number of members of the governing board of the school district is so increased from five to seven members, the terms of office of the board members who take office at the expiration of the terms of office of the board members appointed by the county superintendent of schools shall be determined by lot. The terms of office of the majority of members of the board shall expire on the last Friday in November of the second succeeding odd-numbered year, and the terms of the other members shall expire on the last Friday in November of the first succeeding odd-numbered year. All subsequent members shall serve for four-year terms.

SEC 13. Section 5229 of the Education Code is amended to read:

5229. If a unified district governed by a board of education of five members includes a chartered city, the charter of which provides for a board of education, the members of which are to be elected pursuant to this code and to hold office for the terms provided by this code, and three members of such board of education were elected to hold office for a term expiring during the school year commencing on the date the district was formed for all purposes, the office of three members of the board of education shall be filled at the first election of governing board members following such date of formation for all purposes.

The term of office of such three members shall be determined by lot The term of one member shall expire on the last Friday in November of the first succeeding odd-numbered year following his election, and the terms of two members shall expire on the last Friday in November of the second succeeding odd-numbered year following their election. The persons elected to succeed such three members shall hold office for four years.

In a unified school district formed pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 4200) of Part 3 of this division which includes a chartered city, the governing board of the district shall be the board of education of such city or city and county; provided, that all qualified electors residing within the unified school district are eligible to vote at all elections held for the election of members of the city board of education and any elector residing in the district, or in a trustee area if the district is divided into trustee areas, is eligible to serve as a member of said board.

In the event a unified district includes a chartered city the governing board of the unified district shall consist of either five or seven members and shall be elected at large or by trustee areas, as designated by the unification proposal, and any elector residing in the district, or in a trustee area if the district is divided into trustee areas, is eligible to serve as a member of the board. The first governing board of any such unified school district shall be elected in the manner prescribed by Section 35101, except where the charter of the included chartered city expressly provides for the election of the first governing board of a newly formed unified school district, in which case such provisions of the charter shall control the election of the governing board

5231. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, when elections for school district governing board members in existing or newly formed school districts are conducted in conjunction with the municipal election of a chartered city on other than the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, newly elected members, unless the charter provides otherwise, shall take office 37 days after the day of election; provided, however, if the charter of a city provides for a municipal nominating or primary election and a general municipal election, the newly elected members shall take office 37 days after the date fixed by the charter for the general municipal election. The terms of office of outgoing members shall expire on the day before such newly elected members take office.

SEC. 15 Section 5326 of the Education Code is amended to read:

5326. If, immediately following the last time for filing pursuant to Sections 5012 and 5012 5, only one person has been nominated for each position of governing board member to be filled at that election or no person has been nominated for any such position, and a petition signed by 25 voters of the district indicating that a write-in campaign will be conducted has not been presented to the officer conducting the election by the 50th day prior to the election, an election shall not be held

For purposes of this section it shall be deemed that there is only one candidate for each position of governing board member to be filled when there is more than one such position to be filled from a list of candidates for all such positions collectively and the number of candidates does not exceed the number of positions to be filled; to the extent that the number of such positions exceeds the number of candidates therefor, it shall be deemed that no person has been nominated.

The provisions of this section shall apply to elections for membership on the county board of education.

For purposes of this section and Sections 5327, 5328, and 5329, "nominated" or "nomination" includes becoming a candidate by a declaration of candidacy.

SEC. 16. Section 35105 of the Education Code is amended to read:

35105. Subject to the procedures prescribed by Sections 5010 and 5007 with respect to newly formed unified school districts, the majority of members of the first elected board of any newly formed school district, the members of which majority received the highest number of votes, shall serve until the last Friday in November of the second succeeding odd-numbered year. The other members' terms shall expire on the last Friday in November of the first succeeding odd-numbered year. All such members shall continue in office until their successors are elected and qualified.

SEC 17. Section 2520 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

2520. Except as provided in Sections 2604 and 23509.5, no election shall be held on any day other than a Tuesday nor shall any election be held on the day after a state holiday.

SEC 18. Section 17088 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

17088. The clerk shall prepare a certified statement of the results of the election and submit it to the governing body within 28 days of the election or, in the case of school district, community college district, county board of education, or special district elections conducted on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November of odd-numbered years, no later than the last Monday before the last Friday of that month.

SEC 19 Subject to the last paragraph set forth herein, and at the discretion of the governing board of a school district or community college district or the county board of education, this section shall apply to the filling of vacancies on a school district governing board, a community college district governing board, and a county board of education which vacancies exist on December 1, 1978, or which occur between December 1, 1978, and July 31, 1979. Compliance with this section shall, if implemented by a board, be deemed to be compliance with any other provision of law relating to the filling of vacancies on such boards

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for any vacancy on any school district or community college district governing board, or any county board of education, the school district, or community college district governing board, or county board of education, may make a provisional appointment to fill the vacancy within 30 days after the vacancy occurs or within 30 days of the effective date of this act, if the vacancy occurred before the effective date of this act

If such a provisional appointment is made, the registered voters of the district or county may, within 30 days of the appointment, petition pursuant to the procedures of subdivision (c) of Section 5091 of the Education Code for the vacancy to remain open until it can be filled in an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November of 1979. If such a petition is timely filed, the vacancy shall remain open until the last Friday in November, and the new member shall be elected to fill such vacancy on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November of 1979.

Such election shall be deemed to be in lieu of any special election which would otherwise have been required by any other provision of law.

This section shall not be applicable to a school district, community college district, or county board of education if, on or before the effective date of this act, the period has opened for filing declarations of candidacy to fill a vacancy on the board at a special election called in accordance with law.

SEC. 20. Section 2 of this act, adding Section 1008 to the Education Code, shall become operative on August 1, 1979.

SEC. 21. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Chapter 4, Statutes of 1978, which authorized the creation of a separate governing board for the Long Beach Community College District, allowed the college board member elections to be held on the same date as the election required by city charter held for board members of the coterminous Long Beach Unified School District for the purpose of saving the public the expense of a separate election. However, Chapter 1376, Statutes of 1978, extends the term of office of incumbent college district board members from March 31, 1979, to November 30, 1979, and from March 31, 1981, to November 27, 1981. Thus a person elected to the community college district board in March of 1979 or 1981 could not assume office without an unwarranted period of delay, thereby frustrating the will of the electorate of the district. Further, existing law would require costly special elections for short-term vacancies on governing boards occurring in 1979. Thus, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 10

An act to amend Section 14050 of the Education Code, relating to county superintendent of schools, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor March 20, 1979. Filed with Secretary of State March 21, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1 Section 14050 of the Education Code is amended to read:

14050 The county superintendent of schools shall on or before June 30 of each year submit to the Superintendent of Public Instruction a budget for the succeeding fiscal year, in such form as the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall prescribe, setting forth all known and estimated revenues of the county school service fund for such fiscal year from all sources, and the proposed expenditures from the county school service fund for such fiscal year. The budget shall be approved by the Superintendent of Public Instruction. When a budget is submitted to the Superintendent of Public Instruction for his approval, he shall make a review of each program prior to approving the budget. No allowance shall be made under Sections 14050 to 14056, inclusive, whichever are in effect, to a county superintendent of schools for any item of current expenses or capital outlay with respect to which the county superintendent has failed to comply with the regulations of the Superintendent of Public Instruction which he is herewith authorized to adopt applicable to such item. The regulations adopted by the Superintendent of Public Instruction hereunder shall not be limited to, but shall, among other matters:

(a) Prescribe procedures relating to budgeting, purchasing and replacing capital outlay items.

(b) Prescribe procedures relating to the purchase, replacement, operation and maintenance of automotive equipment.

(c) Prescribe the conditions under which the county superintendent of schools may provide services to districts by contract.

(d) Prescribe the conditions under which allowances may be made to the county superintendent of schools to contract for the services of special consultants.

(e) Prescribe the conditions under which allowances may be made to the county superintendent of schools to assume functions authorized by law to be performed either by the county superintendent of schools or another public agency.

(f) Prescribe conditions under which allowances will be made to meet conditions of an emergency nature requiring the establishment and maintenance of emergency schools, the providing of emergency teachers for regular elementary schools, the providing of emergency transportation to regular elementary schools, or emergency apportionments to school districts.

(g) Define county school service fund publications and prescribe the procedures to be followed relating to budgeting, printing and distributing such publications

Upon the approval of the budget by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, he shall note his approval thereon and transmit one copy thereof to the county superintendent of schools and one copy to the county auditor of the county.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The approval of Proposition 13 (Article XIII A of the California Constitution) by the voters of California at the June 6, 1978 Primary Election has necessitated complex budgetary analysis and adjustment. To assure an orderly budgetary process during the current year, it is necessary that the provisions of this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 11

An act relating to the Fresno Unified School District, declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor March 20, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State March 21, 1979.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Fresno Unified School District, the electorate of which on November 8, 1977, authorized the district to levy an ad valorem property tax for the purpose of nine school projects specified in the order of election, may locate the elementary school proposed in the order of election to be located on West Sierra Avenue, instead on a site at the corner of Road K and Road G between North Gates Avenue and West San Jose Avenue as shown on the tentative map of Tract No. 3011 in the City of Fresno.

SEC. 2. Because of unique circumstances concerning the lease-purchase of school facilities in the Fresno Unified School District, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the Constitution.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that the Fresno Unified School District may enter into the lease-purchase agreements authorized by the district's voters without further delay, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 12

An act to add Article 4 (commencing with Section 16279.1) to Chapter 3 of Part 1.5 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and to amend Section 35.5 of Chapter 332 of the Statutes of 1978, relating to subventions to local agencies, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor March 21, 1979. Filed with Secretary of State March 21, 1979]

I am reducing the appropriation contained in Section 1 of Senate Bill No. 31 from $35,710,000 to $30,000,000

This spending reduction is in keeping with the fiscal discipline required to avoid tax increases in the period ahead

With this reduction, I approve Senate Bill No 31.

EDMUND G BROWN JR., Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 4 (commencing with Section 16279.1) is added to Chapter 3 of Part 1.5 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, to read:

Article 4. Additional Assistance

16279.1. The Legislature finds and declares that Article XIII A of the Constitution, as added by the adoption of Proposition 13 on the ballot at the Direct Primary Election held on June 6, 1978, has substantially reduced the property tax revenues of many special districts, and that the remaining revenues, together with state assistance made available for special districts for the 1978–79 fiscal year, will not, in some instances, be sufficient to adequately finance the operation of special districts for the remainder of the 1978–79 fiscal year.

The Legislature further recognizes that there is a need to reduce the cost of local government and to provide local services in the most cost efficient manner possible. The Legislature urges all special districts to examine the services which they provide, to determine if such services duplicate those services provided by another public agency within the same service area, to determine which services could be eliminated or reduced, and to determine what steps can be taken, including, but not limited to, the consolidation of such districts or the realignment of their boundaries, so as to reduce the cost of providing services.

The purpose of this article is to provide financial assistance to those special districts which will be without sufficient funds to adequately provide services during the remainder of the 1978–79 fiscal year. The Legislature intends that only those special districts which have made a concerted effort to reduce their costs during the 1978–79 fiscal year shall be considered eligible to receive additional financial assistance for the remainder of such fiscal year. It is the intent of the Legislature that boards of supervisors, in distributing funds among eligible special districts, shall make such distribution to districts in such a manner that each district receives an amount commensurate with its 1978–79 revenue loss relative to the similar losses of other eligible districts within the county.

16279.2. (a) The sum of thirty-five million seven hundred ten thousand dollars ($35,710,000) is hereby appropriated from the Local Agency Emergency Loan Fund to the State Controller for allocation to special districts as provided in this article.

(b) The State Controller shall apply the percentages stated in the schedule set forth in subdivision (c) to the sum of thirty-five million seven hundred ten thousand dollars ($35,710,000) and allocate the amount determined thereby to the respective governing bodies.

(c) The following schedule contains the percentages to be applied as provided by subdivision (b):

(d) The State Controller shall distribute the amounts allocated pursuant to subdivision (b) to each governing body not later than March 20, 1979

(e) Each board of supervisors shall distribute the funds allocated to it pursuant to subdivision (b) to eligible special districts, including subsidiary districts, which the board of supervisors finds have a critical unmet need. The criteria contained in Section 16275 shall not apply to such distribution.

(f) In the event that a governing body made funds available to any eligible special district for the 1978–79 fiscal year from its own sources, such governing body may reimburse itself for any or all of such amount from the amount allocated to it pursuant to subdivision (b) or, in the case of a subsidiary district, for the amount allocated to such district pursuant to subdivision (e).

16279.4. Pursuant to a resolution adopted by its governing board, a county or city may distribute funds to any special district from any available county or city sources, including funds allocated to the county or city pursuant to Section 16272 of the Government Code or Section 35.5 of Chapter 332 of the Statutes of 1978.

16279.5. Pursuant to a resolution adopted by its governing board, a county or city may lend any of its available funds to any special district which will receive state funds pursuant to Section 16272.7 of the Government Code or Section 35.5 of Chapter 332 of the Statutes of 1978. Such loan shall be repaid upon the receipt of such state funds and prior to any other obligation of the district.

SEC. 2. Section 35.5 of Chapter 332 of the Statutes of 1978 is amended to read:

Sec. 35.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, there is hereby appropriated from the General Fund thirty-seven million dollars ($37,000,000) to the Department of Finance for allocation to special districts in accordance with the following provisions:

(1) The Department of Finance must find that there are unmet needs of special districts.

(2) The criteria for distribution of these funds shall follow criteria established for allocation pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 16270) of Part 1.5 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(3) No district shall receive any funds which would cause the total amount of special district revenues received pursuant to this section, Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 16270) of Part 1.5 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and Section 26912 of the Government Code in 1978–79 to exceed 90 percent of the total property tax revenue the district would have received in 1978–79, had its 1977–78 property tax revenues grown by seven percent. However, in the case of a district providing fire or police protection services which substantially reduced its property tax rate for the 1977–78 fiscal year, such total amount of revenue shall not exceed 90 percent of the total expenditures the district would have made had the district's 1977–78 total expenditures increased by seven percent.

(b) The Director of Finance shall report to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee the amount and detail of any funds allocated to special districts pursuant to this section, as well as the requests for funds that were denied, with the rationale therefor.

(c) All other provisions of this act which control the allocation of funds to special districts shall also apply to this allocation.

SEC 3 No appropriation is made by this act, nor is any obligation created thereby, pursuant to Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. Moreover, no claim shall be considered with respect to this act by the State Board of Control pursuant to Section 905.2 of the Government Code or Section 2250 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and the Department of Finance shall not review or report on this act pursuant to Section 2246 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

SEC. 4 This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The approval of Proposition 13 (Article XIII A of the California Constitution) by the voters of California at the June 6, 1978, Primary Election may, under certain circumstances, cause the curtailment or elimination of programs and services which are vital to the state's public health, safety, and welfare. In order that such services not be interrupted, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

An act to amend Section 1420 35 of the Labor Code, to amend Section 2656 of, to amend, repeal, and add Sections 2626.2 and 3100 of, and to add and repeal Section 2656.1 of, the Unemployment Insurance Code, and to repeal Section 4 of Chapter 1321 of the Statutes of 1978, relating to discrimination, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1420.35 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

1420.35 It shall be an unlawful employment practice unless based upon a bona fide occupational qualification:

(a) For any employer, because of the pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical condition of any female employee, to refuse to promote her, or to refuse to select her for a training program leading to promotion, provided she is able to complete the training program at least three months prior to the anticipated date of departure for her pregnancy leave, or to discharge her from employment or from a training program leading to promotion, or to discriminate against her in compensation or in terms, conditions, or privileges of employment.

(b) For any employer to refuse to allow a female employee affected by pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions either:

(1) To receive the same benefits or privileges of employment granted by that employer to other persons not so affected who are similar in their ability or inability to work, including to take disability or sick leave or any other accrued leave which is made available by the employer to temporarily disabled employees. For purposes of this section, pregnancy, childbirth, and related medical conditions are treated as any other temporary disability. However, no employer shall be required to provide a female employee disability leave on account of normal pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical condition for a period exceeding six weeks. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require an employer to provide his or her employees with health insurance coverage for the medical costs of pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions The inclusion in any such health insurance coverage of any provisions or coverage relating to medical costs of pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions shall not be construed to require the inclusion of any other provisions or coverage, nor shall coverage of any related medical conditions be required by virtue of coverage of any medical costs of pregnancy, childbirth, or other related medical conditions.

(2) To take a leave on account of pregnancy for a reasonable period of time; provided, such period shall not exceed four months. Such employee shall be entitled to utilize any accrued vacation leave during this period of time. Reasonable period of time means that period during which the female employee is disabled on account of pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions. Nothing herein shall be construed to limit the provisions of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of this section.

An employer may require any employee who plans to take a leave pursuant to this subdivision to give the employer reasonable notice of the date such leave shall commence and the estimated duration of such leave

(c) (1) For an employer who has a policy, practice, or collective-bargaining agreement requiring or authorizing the transfer of temporarily disabled employees to less strenuous or hazardous positions for the duration of the disability to refuse to transfer a pregnant female employee who so requests.

(2) For any employer to refuse to temporarily transfer a pregnant female employee to a less strenuous or hazardous position for the duration of her pregnancy if she so requests, with the advice of her physician, where such transfer can be reasonably accommodated, provided, however, that no employer shall be required by this section to create additional employment which the employer would not otherwise have created, nor shall such employer be required to discharge any employee, transfer any employee with more seniority, or promote any employee who is not qualified to perform the job.

(d) This section shall not be construed to affect any other provision of law relating to sex discrimination or pregnancy.

(e) The provisions of this section, except paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), shall be inapplicable to any employer subject to Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

SEC. 2. Section 2626.2 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read·

2626.2. Benefits relating to pregnancy shall be paid under this part only in accordance with the following:

(b) Disability benefits shall be paid upon a doctor's certification that a condition possibly arising out of pregnancy would disable the claimant without regard to the pregnancy, including but not limited to. anemia, diabetes, embolism, heart disease, hypertension, phlebitis, phlebothrombosis, pyelonephritis, thrombophlebitis, vaginitis, varicose veins, and venous thrombosis.

(c) Disability benefits shall be paid, upon a doctor's certification that the claimant is disabled because of a normal pregnancy, for a period not to exceed six weeks with respect to that pregnancy.

(d) To the extent a claimant has received or will receive benefits for pregnancy, childbirth, or pregnancy-related medical conditions from an employer as provided in Section 1420.35 of the Labor Code, there shall be no payment under this section of benefits to which the claimant might otherwise be entitled for that amount reimbursed the employer under Section 3100. This subdivision shall not apply to any day of disability occurring on or after the effective date of the amendment to this section during the 1979 portion of the 1979–80 Regular Session of the Legislature.

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1980, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1980, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 2.5. Section 2626.2 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

2626.2. Benefits relating to pregnancy shall be paid under this part only in accordance with the following.

(c) Disability benefits shall be paid, upon a doctor's certification that the claimant is disabled because of a normal pregnancy, for a period not to exceed six weeks with respect to that pregnancy.

(d) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1980.

SEC. 3. Section 2656 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

An individual eligible to receive disability benefits who receives wages or regular wages from his or her employer during the period of his or her disability shall be paid disability benefits for any day in an amount not to exceed his or her maximum daily amount which together with the wages or regular wages does not exceed for such day one-seventh of his or her weekly wage, exclusive of wages paid for overtime work, immediately prior to the commencement of his or her disability.

SEC. 4. Section 2656.1 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

2656.1. The amount payable to an individual under Section 2656 shall be exclusive of any amount for days of disability reimbursed to the employer under Section 3100. This section shall only be applicable with respect to disabilities occurring on or after January 1, 1979, and until the effective date of this act.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1980, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1980, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 5. Section 3100 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

3100. To the extent that pregnancy benefits would have been payable pursuant to Sections 2626 2 and 2656, the director shall, in accordance with authorized regulations, reimburse employers with private disability plans or paid sick leave plans, or both, but not including voluntary plans approved under Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 3251), to the extent that pregnancy benefits have been paid or will be paid for the same days by employers pursuant to Section 1420.35 of the Labor Code. Such reimbursement shall be from the Disability Fund to the extent permitted by Section 3304(a) (4) (A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and shall be made only if the claimant who has received or will receive pregnancy benefits from the employer has filed with the department a valid claim which complies with this part. This section shall not apply to any day of disability occurring on or after the effective date of the amendment to this section during the 1979 portion of the 1979–80 Regular Session of the Legislature

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1980, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1980, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 6. Section 4 of Chapter 1321 of the Statutes of 1978 is repealed.

SEC 7. The provisions of this act shall become operative with respect to periods of disability commencing on and after January 1, 1979.

SEC. 8. It is the intent of the Legislature that Section 2626.2 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, as amended by Section 2 of this act, Section 2656.1 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, as added by Section 4 of this act, and Section 3100 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, as amended by Section 5 of this act, shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1980, and as of such date are repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1980, deletes or extends such date.

It is the further intent of the Legislature that Section 2626.2 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, as added by Section 2.5 of this act, shall become operative on January 1, 1980.

SEC. 9. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Chapter 1321 of the Statutes of 1978 does not clearly express the intent of the Legislature to provide six weeks of pregnancy benefits to employees without the present restriction to the periods immediately before and after termination of the pregnancy, nor fully set forth the responsibilities of the Employment Development Department in the administration of such law. To avoid confusion and delay in the payment of pregnancy benefits and reimbursement to employers, this act must take effect as soon as possible.

CHAPTER 14

An act to amend Section 2019 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to depositions upon oral examination, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 2, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State April 3, 1979.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2019 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

2019. (a) (1) A party desiring to take the deposition of any person upon oral examination shall give notice in writing to every other party to the action. The notice shall state the time and place for taking the deposition and the name and address of each person to be examined, if known, and, if the name is not known, a general description sufficient to identify the person or the particular class or group to which the person belongs. Such notice must be at least 10 days, adding also one day for every 300 miles of the distance of the place of examination from the residence of the person to whom the notice is given, except that on motion of any party, with or without notice, and for good cause shown, the court may enlarge or shorten the time, or may stay the taking of the deposition until the hearing and determination of a motion for an order pursuant to subdivision (b) of this section. Service of such notice or motion may be made upon any party or his attorney in the manner provided in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 1010) of Title 14 of Part 2 of this code.

(2) Notwithstanding Section 1989 and the distance provisions specified in paragraph (4) of this subdivision, the deposition, whether of a party or any other person, shall be taken only in the county of residence of the deponent or at a place not more than 75 miles from the residence of the deponent or, if the deponent is a party, in the county of place of trial when the place of deposition is less than 150 miles from the residence of the deponent, unless the court, pursuant to paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (b) of this section, otherwise orders. If the parties so stipulate in writing, depositions may be taken before any person, at any time or place, upon any notice, and in any manner and when so taken may be used like other depositions.

(3) If an adverse party is in default for not appearing within the time allowed by the law or the court, or if, in a special proceeding, some or all of the parties interested have not appeared, a deposition may be taken without the giving of any notice to the party so in default or not appearing; and in any case on motion of any party, with or without notice, and for good cause shown, the court may authorize the taking of a deposition without the giving of notice to parties who have not been served with summons.

(4) In the case of depositions of a party to the record of any civil action or proceeding or of anyone who at the time of taking the deposition is an officer, director or managing agent of any such party, the service of a subpoena upon any such deponent is not required if proper notice of the taking of such deposition is given to the attorney for such party or to the party, if the party has no attorney. In the case of depositions of a person for whose immediate benefit an action or proceeding is prosecuted or defended or of anyone who at the time of taking the deposition is an officer, director or managing agent of any such person, the service of a subpoena upon any such deponent is not required if proper notice of the taking of such deposition is given to the attorney of the party prosecuting or defending the action or proceeding for the immediate benefit of the deponent or to such party, if the party has no attorney A notice to take the deposition of a person described in this paragraph cannot require the attendance of such person at a place more than 150 miles from the residence of such person, unless the party desiring to take such deposition first obtains an order pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of this section.

(5) In the case of depositions for which the production of books, documents, or other things is required of a party to the record of any civil action or proceeding or person for whose immediate benefit an action or proceeding is prosecuted or defended or anyone who is an officer, director, or managing agent of any such party or person, the service of a subpoena duces tecum and affidavit upon any such person is not required if proper notice is served upon the attorney of such party or person. Such notice shall specify the exact materials or things to be produced.

(6) A party may, in the party's notice or in a subpoena, name as the deponent a public or private corporation or partnership or association or governmental agency and describe with reasonable particularity the matters on which examination is requested. In that event, the organization so named shall designate one or more officers, directors, or managing agents, or other persons who consent, to testify on its behalf, and may set forth, for each person designated, the matters on which each person will testify in accordance with the demand. A subpoena shall advise a nonparty organization of its duty to make such a designation The person so designated shall testify as to matters known or reasonably available to the organization. This subdivision does not preclude taking a deposition by any other procedure authorized by law and does not preclude the party, on such terms as are just, from offering evidence by other witnesses regarding the matters specified in the notice or subpoena.

(b) (1) Upon motion seasonably made by any party or by the person to be examined or notified to produce books, documents, or other things and upon notice, or upon the court's own motion and after giving counsel an opportunity to be heard, and in either case for good cause shown, the court in which the action is pending may make an order that the deposition shall not be taken, or that it may be taken only at some designated time or place other than stated in the notice of taking the deposition, or that the deposition may be taken outside the county of residence and at a place more than 75 miles and less than 150 miles from the residence of the deponent in cases not provided for by paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of this section, or that it shall not be taken except by allowing written interrogatories by one or more parties, or that certain matters shall not be inquired into, or that the scope of the examination shall be limited to certain matters, books, documents, or other things, or that the examination shall be held with no one present except the parties to the action and their officers or counsel, or that after being sealed the deposition shall be opened only by order of the court, or that secret processes, developments, or research need not be disclosed, or that the parties shall simultaneously file specified documents or information enclosed in sealed envelopes to be opened as directed by the court, or the court may make any other order which justice requires to protect the party or witness from annoyance, embarrassment, or oppression. In granting or refusing such order the court may impose upon either party or upon the witness the requirement to pay such costs and expenses, including attorney's fees, as the court may deem reasonable.

(2) Notwithstanding Section 1989, the court may, upon motion on 10 days' written notice and for good cause shown, make an order requiring a deponent who is a party to the record of any civil action or proceeding or is a person for whose immediate benefit said action is prosecuted or defended or is at the time of the taking of the deposition an officer, director or managing agent of any such party or person to attend a deposition at a place more than 150 miles from the residence of such deponent. In granting or refusing such order, the court shall consider whether the moving party selected the forum, whether the deponent will be present at the trial, the convenience of the deponent, the suitability of discovery through a deposition by written interrogatories or other discovery methods, the number of depositions sought under this section, the expense to the parties of requiring the deposition to be taken within 150 miles of the residence of the deponent, the whereabouts of the deponent at the time the deposition is scheduled to be taken, and all other factors tending to show whether or not the interests of justice and the convenience of the parties and witnesses will be served by requiring the deponent to appear for the deposition at a place more than 150 miles from the deponent's residence. Such order may provide that the party desiring to take such deposition shall pay the reasonable expenses incurred by the deponent in attending such deposition and that the party furnish an undertaking approved by the court to secure such payment and may contain such other terms and conditions as are equitable and just.

(c) The officer before whom the deposition is to be taken shall put the witness on oath and shall personally, or by someone acting under the officer's direction and in the officer's presence, record the testimony of the witness The testimony shall be taken stenographically and transcribed unless the parties agree otherwise. All objections made at the time of the examination to the qualifications of the officer taking the deposition, or to the manner of taking it, or to the evidence presented, or to the conduct of any party, and any other objection to the proceedings, shall be noted by the officer upon the deposition Evidence objected to shall be taken subject to the objections. In lieu of participating in the oral examination, parties served with notice of taking a deposition may transmit written interrogatories to the officer, who shall propound them to the witness and record the answers verbatim.

(d) At any time during the taking of the deposition, on motion of any party or of the deponent, or upon the court's own motion and after giving counsel an opportunity to be heard, and in either case upon a showing that the examination is being conducted in bad faith or in such manner as unreasonably to annoy, embarrass, or oppress the deponent or party, the court in which the action is pending or the superior court in the county where the deposition is being taken may order the officer conducting the examination to cease forthwith from taking the deposition, or may limit the scope and manner of the taking of the deposition as provided in subdivision (b) of this section. If the order made terminates the examination, it shall be resumed thereafter only upon the order of the court in which the action is pending. Upon demand of the objecting party or deponent, the taking of the deposition shall be suspended for the time necessary to make a motion for an order. In granting or refusing such order the court may impose upon either party or upon the witness the requirement to pay such costs or expenses, including attorney's fees, as the court may deem reasonable.

(e) Unless the parties agree on the record to another procedure for reading, correcting, and signing the original of the deposition, when the testimony is fully transcribed the officer shall notify the deponent and counsel in writing that the original of the deposition is available for reading, correcting and signing at the office of the officer, and shall remain so available during business hours of business days for a period of 30 calendar days following such notification. The examination and reading of the transcribed testimony may be waived by the witness and by the parties. Any changes in form or substance which the witness desires to make shall be entered upon the deposition. The deponent may correct or approve or refuse to approve the deposition for a period of 30 days following the notification prescribed in this subdivision by means of a letter addressed and mailed or delivered to the transcribing officer indicating any changes to be made, approval, or refusal to approve the deposition. Such changes, approval, or refusal to approve the deposition, when made by letter, shall be equivalent to personal changes, approval, or refusal to approve the deposition.

If the deponent fails to appear at the office of the officer or notify him by letter as provided in this subdivision within such 30-day period, or if the witness so appears or sends such letter but refuses to approve or sign the deposition, the officer shall indicate on the original the fact that the deponent failed to appear, or the fact that the deponent refused to sign together with any reason given therefor. Thereafter the deposition shall have the same force and effect as though it had been read, corrected and signed by the deponent, unless on a motion to suppress under subdivision (d) of Section 2021 of this code the court holds that the reasons given for the refusal to sign require rejection of the deposition in whole or in part.

(f) (1) The officer shall certify on the deposition that the witness was duly sworn by such officer and that the deposition is a true record of the testimony given by the witness. The officer shall then securely seal the deposition in an envelope endorsed with the title of the action and marked "Deposition of (here insert name of witness)". Depositions shall not be filed unless and until their contents become relevant to an issue in the trial or other pending proceedings at which time the court may order that the deposition be filed as part of the record.

(2) The officer taking the deposition shall give prompt notice of the availability of the deposition to all other parties.

(3) Unless the parties agree on the record that the party noticing the deposition shall do so, the officer taking the deposition shall keep the deposition for six months following the final disposition of the case. If the officer discontinues his or her occupation of taking depositions, by reason of death or otherwise, the officer or an agent of the officer shall file the deposition with the court.

(g) (1) If the party giving the notice of the taking of a deposition fails to attend and proceed therewith and another party attends in person or by attorney pursuant to the notice, the court may order the party giving the notice to pay such other party the amount of the reasonable expenses incurred by such other party and such other party's attorney in so attending, including reasonable attorney's fees.

(2) If the party giving the notice of the taking of a deposition of a witness fails to serve a subpoena upon the witness and the witness because of such failure does not attend, and if another party attends in person or by attorney because that other party expects the deposition of that witness to be taken, the court may order the party giving the notice to pay to such other party the amount of the reasonable expenses incurred by such other party and such other party's attorney in so attending, including reasonable attorney's fees.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

There is doubt whether parties to an action can stipulate to custody of an original deposition. In order to clearly provide such a procedure and to remove the risk of sanctions from the officer taking the deposition in the event of such a stipulation, it is necessary for this bill to go into immediate effect.

This subdivision may be made applicable in any county of over six million population on the first day of the month after the board of supervisors of such county adopts by majority vote a resolution providing that this subdivision shall become applicable in such county.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to implement an accord in a memorandum of understanding recently reached by the County of Los Angeles and a coalition of county unions which provides for increased integration of the retirement system operated by that county with the federal social security system, it is necessary that this act become effective immediately.

CHAPTER 22

An act to add Section 10.3 to the County Water Authority Act (Chapter 545 of the Statutes of 1943), relating to county water authorities, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 4, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State April 5, 1979.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10.3 is added to the County Water Authority Act (Chapter 545 of the Statutes of 1943), to read:

Sec. 10.3. (a) A public agency whose corporate area is wholly within the corporate area of another public agency which is already included within a county water authority as a separate unit, may also become a separate unit of such county water authority in the manner provided in this section.

(1) The governing body of a public agency seeking status as a separate unit of a county water authority shall apply by resolution to the board of directors of such county water authority for consent to detach its corporate area from the existing separate unit of which it is a part and to become a separate unit of such county water authority

(2) The board of directors of the county water authority may grant or deny such application and in granting the same may fix the terms and conditions upon which such applying public agency may become a separate unit of the county water authority; provided, however, that such consent shall not be given unless and until by resolution the governing body of the existing separate unit of the county water authority also gives its consent to the proposed detachment of such territory and to the applying public agency becoming a separate unit of such county water authority.

(3) Proceedings for the detachment of the corporate area of the public agency seeking status as a separate unit of the county water authority from the corporate area of the existing separate unit shall be conducted in the manner prescribed by law; provided, however, that the effective date of such detachment shall be after the completion of the proceedings provided by paragraph (4) of this subdivision

(4) The detachment of the corporate area of the public agency seeking status as a separate unit from the corporate area of the existing separate unit shall not be effective until the secretary of the agency seeking status as a separate unit has filed with the secretary of the county water authority a certificate certifying the completion of all requirements of law for such detachment. A certificate of proceedings hereunder shall thereupon be prepared by the secretary of the county water authority and filed with the Secretary of State. Upon filing of such certificate of proceedings with the Secretary of State or upon the effective date of the detachment as set forth in any terms and conditions applicable thereto, whichever is later, the corporate area of the agency seeking separate unit status shall thereupon become a separate unit of the county water authority and shall have all of the rights and privileges thereof.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 11 of this act, if proceedings are conducted in accordance with this section, the territory detached from the existing separate unit of the county water authority shall remain at all times a part of the corporate area of such authority.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

There is no procedure in the County Water Authority Act by which an existing member unit can be divided into two member units, even though such division is deemed by the governing boards of all affected agencies to be in the interest of such agencies and of the people thereof. Immediate amendment of the act will allow the implementation of its provisions by the San Diego County Water Authority, the San Marcos County Water District, and the Bueno Colorado Municipal Water District prior to the close of the current fiscal year. It is necessary, therefore, that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 23

An act to add Section 22033 to the Elections Code, relating to special elections, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 4, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State April 5, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22033 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

22033 Cities, counties, and special districts, with 5,000 or less registered voters calculated as of the time of the last report of registration by the county clerk to the Secretary of State, may conduct a special election pursuant to the provisions of Section 22032 if the measure or measures on the ballot are restricted to the imposition of special taxes within the city, county, or district.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to facilitate certain special elections relating to the imposition of taxes, conducted by cities, counties and special districts, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 24

An act to amend Section 1603 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 4, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State April 5, 1979.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows.

SECTION 1 Section 1603 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Section 4 of Chapter 353 of the Statutes of 1978, is amended to read:

1603 (a) A reduction in an assessment on the local roll shall not be made unless the party affected or his agent makes and files with the county board a verified, written application showing the facts claimed to require the reduction and the applicant's opinion of the full value of the property. The form for such application shall be prescribed by the State Board of Equalization.

(b) In the case of a county of the first class, the application shall be filed between the third Monday in July and September 15. An application that is mailed and postmarked September 15 or earlier within such period shall be deemed to have been filed between the third Monday in July and September 15 For the 1978–79 fiscal year only, the September 15 deadline may be extended to May 1, 1979, upon adoption of a resolution by the county board of supervisors.

(c) In the case of a county of the second to ninth class, inclusive, the application shall be filed within the time period beginning July 2 and continuing through and including September 15 An application that is mailed and postmarked September 15 or earlier within such period shall be deemed to have been filed within the time period beginning July 2 and continuing through and including September 15 For the 1978–79 fiscal year only, the September 15 deadline may be extended to May 1, 1979, upon adoption of a resolution by the county board of supervisors

(d) In all other counties, the application shall be filed between July 2 and August 26 An application that is mailed and postmarked August 26 or earlier within such period shall be deemed to have been filed between July 2 and August 26. For the 1978–79 fiscal year only, the August 26 deadline may be extended to May 1, 1979, upon adoption of a resolution by the county board of supervisors.

(e) In the form provided for making application pursuant to this section, there shall be a notice that written findings of facts of the local equalization hearing will be available upon written request at the requester's expense and, if not so requested, the right to such written findings is waived. The form shall provide appropriate space for the applicant to request written findings of facts as provided by Section 1611.5.

(f) This section shall remain in effect only until July 1, 1979, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before July 1, 1979, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Because of the failure of assessees to receive timely notices of their 1978 assessments, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately in order to authorize the counties to provide such assessees with sufficient time to appeal their 1978 assessments.

An act to amend Section 5058 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to accountancy.

[Approved by Governor April 4, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State April 5, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5058 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5058. No person or partnership shall assume or use the title or designation "chartered accountant," "certified accountant," "enrolled accountant," "registered accountant" or "licensed accountant," or any other title or designation likely to be confused with "certified public accountant" or "public accountant," or any of the abbreviations "C.A.," "E.A.," "R.A.," or "L.A.," or similar abbreviations likely to be confused with "C.P.A." or "P.A."; provided, that any person qualified as a certified public accountant under this chapter who also holds a comparable title granted under the laws of another country may use such title in conjunction with the title of "certified public accountant" or "C.P.A." and provided, that any person enrolled to practice before the Internal Revenue Service and recognized as an enrolled agent may use the abbreviation "E.A."

CHAPTER 26

An act relating to continuous school programs, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 4, 1979. Filed with Secretary of State April 5, 1979.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 37611 to 37615, inclusive, of the Education Code, if the governing board of the Hesperia School District finds that a school housing emergency exists, and that the effects of the emergency can be reduced by implementing a continuous school program, it may establish and operate a mandatory continuous school program at one or more of the schools under its jurisdiction commencing with the 1979–80 school year.

(b) In order to continue to operate such program in any school year after the 1979–80 school year, the requirements of Sections 37611 and 37616 of the Education Code shall be met.

(c) A finding made pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section at any time during the 1978–79 school year shall be effective to permit the establishment and operation of a continuous school program in the 1979–80 school year, whether such finding was made before or after the effective date of this act.

SEC. 2. The governing board of the Hesperia School District has discovered that a school housing emergency exists in the district, and that the effects of this emergency can be reduced in the 1979–80 school year if the district were to operate a mandatory continuous school program. The Hesperia School District implemented a continuous school program for six years prior to the 1978–79 school year, but discontinued the program for the 1978–79 school year. Current statutory law requires that once a continuous school program is terminated, the governing board must wait at least two years before the governing board can again operate a continuous education program Since two years have not passed, and, since the absence of a continuous school program in the Hesperia School District will cause great hardship to the pupils thereof, it is essential to simplify the procedures for the establishment of the program during such emergency.

SEC. 3. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 37611 to 37615, inclusive, of the Education Code, if the governing board of the Apple Valley School District finds that a school housing emergency exists, and that the effects of the emergency can be reduced by implementing a continuous school program, it may establish and operate a mandatory continuous school program at one or more of the schools under its jurisdiction commencing with the 1979–80 school year.

(b) In order to continue to operate such program in any school year after the 1979–80 school year, the requirements of Sections 37611 and 37616 of the Education Code shall be met.

(c) A finding made pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section at any time during the 1978–79 school year shall be effective to permit the establishment and operation of a continuous school program in the 1979–80 school year, whether such finding was made before or after the effective date of this act.

SEC. 4. The governing board of the Apple Valley School District has discovered that a school housing emergency exists in the district, and that the effects of this emergency can be reduced in the 1979–80 school year if the district were to operate a mandatory continuous school program. However, current statutory law requires that the process to establish a mandatory continuous school program begin at least by November 1 of the school year prior to the school year in which the program is to begin operation. Since the current statutory deadline cannot be met, and since the absence of a continuous school program in the Apple Valley School District will cause great hardship to the pupils thereof, it is essential to simplify the procedures for the establishment of the program during such emergency.

SEC. 5. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 37611 to 37615, inclusive, of the Education Code, if the governing board of the Bear Valley Unified School District finds that a school housing emergency exists, and that the effects of the emergency can be reduced by implementing a continuous school program, it may establish and operate a mandatory continuous school program at one or more of the schools under its jurisdiction commencing with the 1979–80 school year.

(b) In order to continue to operate such program in any school year after the 1979–80 school year, the requirements of Sections 37611 and 37616 of the Education Code shall be met.

(c) A finding made pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section at any time during the 1978–79 school year shall be effective to permit the establishment and operation of a continuous school program in the 1979–80 school year, whether such finding was made before or after the effective date of this act.

SEC. 6 Due to the unique circumstances of the school housing emergency which exists in the Hesperia School District, the Apple Valley School District, and the Bear Valley Unified School District and the limited nature of the exemption from general statutory requirements which is provided for in Sections 1 and 3 of this act, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the Constitution.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that the governing boards of the Hesperia School District, the Apple Valley School District, and the Bear Valley Unified School District may commence operation of a continuous school program during the 1979–80 school year, and thus alleviate an existing school housing emergency at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 27

An act relating to property tax payments, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 4, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State April 5, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1 Notwithstanding Sections 4217 and 4222 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, if any person who elected to pay delinquent taxes in installments defaulted on such payments.

(1) By a failure to pay current taxes before such current taxes became delinquent,

(2) Such default resulted from the failure of such person's employee reasonably entrusted by such person with the duty and money to make payment of such taxes,

(3) The tax collector finds that the failure to make a timely payment was due to circumstances beyond such person's control and occurred notwithstanding the exercise of ordinary care and in the absence of willful neglect, and

(4) The default occurred during the 1978 calendar year, in the fourth or fifth year after the property was sold to the state, and prior to the deeding of the property to the state, the tax collector may reinstate the account upon receipt of evidence that the taxes for the 1977–78 fiscal year and the current fiscal year are not delinquent

SEC. 3 This act shall be applicable to any default on a delinquent property tax installment payment occurring in the 1978 calendar year

SEC 4 This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order for taxpayers who are currently delinquent in their property taxes on tax sold property and who face deeding of their property to the state on July 1, 1979, to avoid the loss of their property, and to allow sufficient time to effect the remedy provided by this act, it is necessary for this act to take immediate effect

An act relating to the State Capitol Restoration Project, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 5, 1979. Filed with Secretary of State April 5, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Of all interest earned, from July 1, 1973, to the effective date of this act, on the undisbursed balance of the money appropriated in Item 332.5 of the Budget Act of 1973 and of the money appropriated to the Contingent Funds of the Assembly and Senate by subdivision (a) of Section 3 of Chapter 246 of the Statutes of 1975, and credited to the General Fund, the sum of eighteen million eight hundred twenty-eight thousand dollars ($18,828,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund as follows:

(a) Seventeen million seven hundred twenty-eight thousand dollars ($17,728,000) to the Contingent Funds of the Assembly and Senate, to be usable without regard to fiscal years, for expenditure for purposes of restoration or rehabilitation of the west wing of the State Capitol, as provided in Section 9124 of the Government Code.

(b) One million one hundred thousand dollars ($1,100,000) to the Department of General Services, to be usable without regard to fiscal years, for expenditure for purposes of necessary electrical service work for both the east and west wings of the State Capitol, in connection with the restoration and rehabilitation of the west wing of the State Capitol, as provided in Section 9124 of the Government Code.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order for the funds provided by this act to be immediately available for the restoration of the State Capitol in a timely and expeditious manner, it is necessary for the act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 29

An act to add Section 53533 to the Government Code, to add Sections 33645.5 and 34354.5 to, and to add Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 33800) to Part 1 of Division 24 of, the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Section 2237 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to public finance, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 5, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State April 6, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows

SECTION 1 Section 53533 is added to the Government Code, to read

53533. Notwithstanding Section 53531 or any other provision of law establishing limitations on the rate of interest of any indebtedness or obligation of a city, county, or city and county the rate of interest on any indebtedness or obligation thereof which is payable to the federal government or any agency or instrumentality thereof or any indebtedness or obligation guaranteed by the federal government or any instrumentality thereof may be at a rate higher than the limitations established in any other law if such rate is the rate established by the federal government or any instrumentality thereof. Any such indebtedness or obligation shall be in such form and denomination, have such maturity, and be subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by the federal government or agency or instrumentality thereof.

SEC. 2. Section 33645.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read·

SEC 3 Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 33800) is added to Part 1 of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code, to read

CHAPTER 9. SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS

Article 1. Definitions

33800 The definitions contained in this article govern the construction of this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise.

33801 "Indebtedness" means any obligations incurred by a redevelopment agency prior to July 1, 1978, the payment of which is to be made in whole or in part out of taxes allocated to the agency pursuant to Section 33670 and includes

(a) Bonds, notes, interim certificates, debentures, or other obligations issued by an agency (whether funded, refunded, assumed or otherwise) pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 33640) of Chapter 6 of this part.

(b) Loans or moneys advanced to the agency, including, but not limited to, loans from federal, state or local agencies.

(c) A contractual obligation which, if breached, could subject the agency to damages or other liabilities or remedies.

(d) An obligation incurred pursuant to Section 33445.

(e) Indebtedness incurred pursuant to Section 33334.2.

(f) Obligations imposed by law with respect to activities which occurred prior to July 1, 1978.

33802. "Indebtedness" also means a loan from the Local Agency Indebtedness Fund pursuant to Article 6.5 (commencing with Section 16496) of Chapter 3 of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code for the purpose of making payments of principal or interest with respect to indebtedness specified in Section 33801.

33803 "Payment" means any payment of principal or interest payable with respect to indebtedness payable from taxes allocated pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 33670, which is as defined in Section 33801 or 33802, including redemption payments and any administrative costs associated with the payment of such indebtedness.

33804. "Persons and families of low or moderate income" has the same meaning as defined in Section 50093.

Article 2 Findings and Declarations

33810. The Legislature finds and declares that the security of millions of dollars of indebtedness incurred prior to July 1, 1978, and dependent upon taxes allocated pursuant to Section 16 of Article XVI of the California Constitution and subdivision (b) of Section 33670 for its security is seriously threatened.

33811. The Legislature further finds and declares that unless supplemental sources of revenue for the payment of such indebtedness can be established, a substantial portion of such indebtedness will not be repaid, which will include the default of bonds and the breach of contractual obligations, and that if such defaults and breaches of contract occur, the credit and future borrowing capacity of both local agencies and the state may be impaired.

33812 The Legislature further finds and declares that such defaults and breach of contracts may result in lengthy and costly legal actions against public agencies for the impairment of contractual rights.

33813. The Legislature further finds and declares that there is a need to establish a flexible procedure to enable legislative bodies to obtain necessary supplemental revenues to pay the incurred indebtedness because the need for state funds for such purpose will be decreased and because the facts and circumstances surrounding each project and the indebtedness incurred are different and different solutions may be required

33814. The Legislature further finds and declares that certain properties within the boundaries of redevelopment project areas established pursuant to the Community Redevelopment Law have increased in value and have received and will continue to receive special benefits from redevelopment activities undertaken by agencies, including, but not limited to, acquisition, assembly and disposition of lands, demolition and site clearance and the construction of public improvements financed by the proceeds of indebtedness incurred by redevelopment agencies.

33815. The Legislature further finds and declares that the establishment of special assessments on the properties so specially benefited from the activities described in Section 33814 is the most equitable method for providing supplemental revenues to be used to pay the indebtedness

33816 It is the purpose of this chapter to authorize and provide for the establishment of special assessment areas within redevelopment project areas and for the levy of special assessments on properties within such special assessment areas to obtain supplemental revenues to be used for the payment of indebtedness incurred prior to July 1, 1978, and temporary borrowing from the state incurred to avoid default thereon.

33817. A special assessment area may include any or all property within a project area as the project area existed on July 1, 1978, established pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 33300) of this part, and may, but need not be, coterminous with such project area; however, only properties benefited by redevelopment activities described in Section 33814 shall be included within the special assessment area. The properties included in a special assessment area may be either contiguous or noncontiguous; however, only properties within a single project area may be included within a single special assessment area

Article 3. Proceedings

33820. Special assessment areas wholly within redevelopment project areas may be established and special assessments levied within such special assessment areas pursuant to this chapter

33821. When, in the opinion of the governing board of an agency, it is determined that there will be insufficient tax revenues allocated to the agency to pay its incurred indebtedness, the agency shall file with the legislative body a report.

33822 The report shall contain all of the following·

(a) The total amount of outstanding indebtedness incurred by the agency with respect to the project area containing the special assessment area, a listing of the different kinds of indebtedness incurred together with the amount of debt incurred for each separate kind of indebtedness, and the annual payment required to be made for each such kind of indebtedness for each year during which the debt is outstanding.

(b) An estimate of the amount of taxes which will be received by the agency pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 33670 which will be available to make payments on the different kinds of indebtedness when due

(c) A description and estimated amounts of other revenues, funds and other moneys, other than tax revenues described in subdivision (b), which are or will be available to the agency for making the payments.

(d) An estimate of the total and annual amounts of the payments which the agency will be unable to make because of the insufficiency of funds available for that purpose.

(e) A schedule of payments and either (1) copies of contracts, agreements, or other documents creating the indebtedness, or (2) a list (including a summary of parties and purpose) of contracts, agreements, and other documents creating the indebtedness.

(f) A description of the redevelopment activities which have been or will be undertaken by the agency with the proceeds derived from the indebtedness.

(g) A diagram showing the following:

(1) The boundaries of a special area of the redevelopment project area which, in the opinion of the agency, has been specially benefited

(2) The dimensions or description of the parcels of property within the special area as they existed at the time of making the report Each such subdivision shall be given a separate number upon the diagram.

(3) The proposed assessment on each of the parcels of property within the special assessment area levied in proportion to benefits.

(h) A statement as to whether the proposed assessment district includes property containing residential dwelling units, an estimate of the number of such dwelling units occupied by persons and families of low or moderate income, and an estimate of the total amount of assessments to be levied on such dwelling units occupied by persons and families of low or moderate income

(i) A request that the legislative body proceed with the formation of a special assessment area and levy a special assessment on properties in the special assessment area.

(j) For each fiscal year in which the special assessment is proposed to be levied, the amount of taxes which was projected to be available for allocation to the agency pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 33670, based on the actual tax rates in effect for the 1977–78 fiscal year and on the projected assessed values under the applicable laws in effect for the 1977–78 fiscal year, with respect to its indebtedness incurred prior to July 1, 1978 The statement shall contain information upon which the assessed values were projected If any bonds have been issued and the official statement or bond resolution for such bonds contained an estimate of projected tax revenues which were to be received by the agency pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 33670, the information shall refer to the official statement or bond resolution.

33822.5. Copies of contracts, agreements, and other documents specified in subdivision (e) of Section 33822 shall be made available to the public at the time the report is filed with the legislative body.

33822.7. The agency shall notify the Department of Housing and Community Development within five days following the filing of a report with the legislative body pursuant to Section 33821.

33823. After the receipt of the report, the legislative body may adopt a resolution of intention to form a special assessment area and to levy special assessments on properties located therein to provide supplemental revenues for the purpose of making payments on the indebtedness when due.

33824. The resolution of intention shall:

(a) Describe the exterior boundaries of the special assessment area

(b) Include the estimated annual amounts needed to be levied on the properties within such area for the purpose of making such payments and the period during which such special assessments will be required, which in no case shall be longer than the time by which the debt is to be repaid.

(c) Include the proposed assessments.

The resolution shall incorporate by reference the report required by Section 33822

33825. The resolution shall contain a notice of the time and place at which any person may appear before the legislative body and object to the formation of the special assessment area and the levy of special assessments therein The hearing shall be held not less than 30 days after the passage of the resolution

33826. The notice shall contain all of the following:

(a) A statement of the time, place, and purpose of the hearing on the resolution of intention and report of the agency

(b) A statement of the total estimated payments of principal and interest and other payments required

(c) The amounts as shown on the report of the agency, to be assessed against each parcel of property annually

(d) A statement that any owner of property within the proposed assessment area may file a written protest as provided in Section 33831

(e) A statement that the city or county will pay the assessment levied on that portion of real property containing residential dwelling units occupied by persons and families of low or moderate income The statement shall set forth a schedule of the applicable maximum annual incomes by family size which may be received by persons and families of low or moderate income and notice as to where applications and information regarding the payments may be obtained.

33827 The clerk of the legislative body shall give notice of the time and place in the resolution of intention as provided in Section

33828 The notice shall be published pursuant to Section 6066 of the Government Code, the first publication of which shall be at least 20 days prior to the date set for hearing. Copies of the notice shall (1) be mailed by first class mail, postage prepaid, to the owners of property in the proposed special assessment area at the addresses of such owners as shown on the last equalized assessment roll used for tax purposes or as otherwise known to the clerk, (2) be mailed postage prepaid to the occupants of property in the proposed special assessment area, and (3) be posted conspicuously on all streets within the proposed special assessment area, not more than 300 feet apart on each street so posted, but not less than three in all. If property assessed pursuant to Section 19 of Article XIII of the Constitution is within such special assessment area, such notice shall be mailed to the owner of such property as shown on the roll last transmitted by the State Board of Equalization to the county auditor.

33829. No proceeding shall be held invalid for the failure to mail notice to any property owner or occupant or to post the notice if there has been substantial compliance with the requirements of this article.

33830 If no newspaper is published and circulated in the city, the notice shall be published in a newspaper published in any county in which the city is located

33831 Any owner of property within the proposed special assessment area may protest the formation of the special assessment area, the extent thereof, or the proposed assessment by filing a written protest with the clerk of the legislative body at or before the time set for the hearing Such protest shall contain a description of the property sufficient to identify the same and, if the signer is not shown on the last equalized assessment roll as the owner of such property, shall contain or be accompanied by written evidence that such signer is the owner of such property The clerk shall endorse on each protest the date of its receipt and at the time appointed for the hearing shall present to the legislative body all protests filed. No other protests shall be considered by the legislative body.

33832 At the time and place set for hearing on the formation of the special assessment area and levy of special assessments, the legislative body shall consider the report of the agency and hear and pass upon all written protests Such hearing may be continued from time to time by the legislative body

33833. If protests are filed against the special assessment area, and the legislative body finds that such protests are signed by the owners of more than one-half of the area of the property included within the proposed special assessment area, all further proceedings under the resolution of intention are barred, and no new resolution of intention for the same shall be passed within six months after the decision of the legislative body on the hearing, unless the protests are overruled by an affirmative vote of four-fifths of the members of the legislative body

33835.3. In no event shall a special assessment be levied pursuant to this chapter if the amount specified in the adopted report pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 33822 is equal to or greater than the amount determined by the legislative body pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 33835. If the amount established pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 33822 in the adopted report is less than the amount determined pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 33835, then the maximum amount which can be levied by special assessment pursuant to this chapter is the dollar difference between the amounts described in those two subdivisions plus any indebtedness described in Section 33802

33835.5. Prior to taking final action on the report pursuant to either Section 33821 or 33837, the legislative body shall find and determine that the total amount of revenues received by levying a special assessment pursuant to this chapter, plus the taxes which the legislative body has determined will be received pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 33822 of the adopted report, does not exceed the amount determined pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 33835 plus any indebtedness described in Section 33802

33836 If written protests by more than one-half of the area of the property in the special assessment area are either not received or are received and are overruled the legislative body may, by resolution, confirm, modify, or correct the report and order the formation of the special assessment area, and levy the assessments shown on the report as confirmed, modified or corrected. The resolution shall be final as to all persons and the assessments thereby levied upon the respective subdivisions of land in the special assessment area until changed pursuant to Section 33838. However, for the purposes of Section 33838, the assessment levied pursuant to this section shall be the assessment for the first fiscal year

33837 Prior to May 15th of each year, after the first fiscal year, during which the assessment district is to continue, the agency shall file with the legislative body a report which shall contain (1) an estimate of the total amount of funds including taxes received by the agency pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 33670 which will be available to pay the indebtedness for the next fiscal year, (2) an estimate of the amount of payments specified in the report pursuant to Section 33822 which the agency will be unable to pay because of insufficient funds, and (3) a diagram and a proposed assessment to be levied upon each parcel of property in the area for the next fiscal year

33838 After receiving a report pursuant to Section 33837, the legislative body shall review and adopt the report, either as presented or as modified, and shall take one of the following actions.

(a) Find that the existing levy will raise substantially the same amount as is needed to make the payments, in which case no change to the existing levy is needed

(b) Find that the existing levy will raise more than is needed to make the payments, in which case the legislative body shall reduce the levy for that fiscal year to an amount sufficient to make the payments

(c) Find that the existing levy will not raise sufficient funds to make the payments, in which case the legislative body may, after a notice and hearing pursuant to Sections 33825 to 33835, inclusive, levy an increased assessment for that fiscal year in an amount sufficient to make the payments.

33839 Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, all tax increments allocated to the agency pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 33670 with respect to a redevelopment project for which a special assessment district has been created pursuant to this chapter, shall first be used to pay indebtedness, as defined in this chapter.

Article 4 Collection of Assessments

33840 Immediately after the levy, but in all cases before July 15th, a certified copy of the diagram and assessment shall be filed with the county auditor The county auditor shall enter the amounts of the respective assessments on the county tax roll opposite the respective parcels of property. Immediately upon such recording, each of such assessments shall be a lien upon the property against which it is made and shall only be discharged by payment of the assessment and, if applicable, penalties, costs, or other charges resulting from delinquency in the payment of the assessment.

33840 5 A city or county which levies assessments pursuant to this chapter shall pay to the county tax collector all such assessments levied on real property containing one or more dwelling units occupied by persons and families of low or moderate income; provided, that where such real property contains uses other than residential dwelling units occupied by persons and families of low or moderate income only that portion of the assessment attributable to the portion of the property occupied by persons and families of low or moderate income shall be paid by the city or county. The city or county shall establish a reasonable method for determining such apportionments.

33840 7 (a) Each city or county which makes a finding that the assessment area includes property containing residential dwelling units shall establish procedures to enable persons and families of low or moderate income who occupy dwelling units within the assessment area, or owners of such dwelling units as provided in subdivision (b), to apply to the city or county to have the assessment paid. Such procedures may include (1) reasonable time deadlines for application, which, if not met by the applicant, will extinguish the obligation of the city or county to pay the assessment for that year and (2) a requirement that the applicant, not more than once each year, provide information which will enable the city or county to determine the dwelling unit in which the applicant resides and whether the applicant is a person or family of low or moderate income.

(b) As to properties or portions of properties in which the occupancy of dwelling units is restricted by a written agreement or by operation of law to persons and families of low or moderate income, the owner of the property may apply to the city or county to have the assessment paid on all such dwelling units and as to those properties or portions of properties the use of which the city or county knows is restricted by a written agreement or by operation of law to persons and families of low or moderate income, the city or county shall pay the assessment without requiring any application to be submitted. The city or county may require the owners of such properties to provide a copy of the subject written agreement, if any, and to provide other information annually which will enable the city or county to determine the number of dwelling units actually occupied by persons or families of low or moderate income

(c) Except as to dwelling units in which the occupancy is restricted by law to persons and families of low or moderate income, the information required of applicants may include copies of federal and state income tax returns of the subject low or moderate income residents

(d) The procedures established by a city or county pursuant to this section shall provide for annual reviews as to whether real property within the assessment area containing residential dwelling units is occupied by persons and families of low or moderate income. The procedures shall additionally provide for notice to occupants and owners of property within the special assessment area of the maximum annual income by family size which may be received by persons and families of low or moderate income; the notices shall be mailed to such occupants and owners not less than 30 days prior to the final date for receiving applications for payment of the assessment pursuant to Section 33840.5.

33841. The lien of an assessment levied pursuant to this chapter shall be subordinate to all fixed special assessment liens previously imposed upon the same property but it shall have priority over all fixed special assessment liens which may thereafter be created against the property.

33843. The special assessments provided for in the resolution adopted pursuant to Section 33836 shall be deemed to have been levied in each succeeding year until the assessment is revised pursuant to Section 33838 or rescinded and the county auditor is given notice thereof.

33844. All the proceeds of the assessment shall be placed in a separate fund of the legislative body and shall be transferred to the agency only for the payment of indebtedness.

33845. Upon receipt of any proceeds from the legislative body pursuant to Section 33844, the agency shall either immediately use such proceeds for the payment of indebtedness or it shall place such proceeds in a separate fund and shall thereafter only be removed and expended for the purpose of making such payments.

Article 5. Legal Actions, Exceptions

33850. The validity of any assessment levied under this chapter shall not be contested in any action or proceeding unless commenced within 60 days after the levy thereof. The provisions of Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 860) of Title 10 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall be applicable to any such action or proceeding.

33851. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as authorizing the sale or issuance of bonds.

33852. All proceedings and decisions undertaken or made pursuant to this chapter shall be exempt from the requirements of Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code.

33853. The Special Assessment Investigation, Limitation and Majority Protest Act of 1931, Division 4 (commencing with Section 2800) of the Streets and Highways Code, shall not apply to proceedings under this part.

33854. If any provision of this chapter or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this chapter which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this chapter are severable 33855 If Section 33840 5 or any portion thereof is held invalid such invalidity shall not affect other provisions of this chapter which can be given effect without such invalid section; however, after such section or portion thereof has been held to be invalid. (1) no assessment district shall be established which includes real property containing one or more residential dwelling units occupied by persons and families of low or moderate income, (2) no levy shall be imposed on any real property containing one or more residential dwelling units occupied by persons and families of low or moderate income, and (3) any existing levy imposed upon real property containing one or more residential units occupied by persons and families of low or moderate income shall be deemed to be rescinded and the lien discharged. If any provision in this section is held to be invalid no levy shall be imposed on any property within a special assessment area which includes real property containing one or more residential dwelling units occupied by persons and families of low or moderate income after such section or portion thereof is found to be invalid.

SEC 4 Section 34354.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read·

34354.5 Notwithstanding Section 34354 or any other provision of law, the rate of interest on any indebtedness or obligation of a housing authority which is payable to the federal government or any agency or instrumentality thereof or on any such indebtedness or obligation guaranteed by the federal government or any instrumentality thereof may be at a rate higher than the limitation established in Section 34354.5, or any other law, if such rate is the rate established by the federal government or any instrumentality thereof Any such indebtedness or obligation shall be in such form and denomination, have such maturity and be subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by the federal government or agency or instrumentality thereof

SEC 5 Section 2237 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read.

2237 (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, except as provided in subdivision (b), no local agency, school district, county superintendent of schools, or community college district shall levy an ad valorem property tax, other than that amount which is equal to the amount needed to make annual payments for the interest and principal on general obligation bonds or other indebtedness approved by the voters prior to July 1, 1978 or the amount levied pursuant to Part 10 (commencing with Section 15000) of Division 1 and Sections 39308, 39311, 81338, and 81341 of the Education Code In determining the tax rate required for the purposes specified in this subdivision, the amount of the levy shall be increased to compensate for any allocation and payment of tax revenues required pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 33670 and subdivision (d) of Section 33675 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) A county shall levy an ad valorem property tax on taxable assessed value at a rate equal to four dollars ($4) per one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed value. The revenue from such tax shall be distributed, subject to the allocation and payment as provided in subdivision (d) of Section 33675 of the Health and Safety Code, to local agencies, school districts, county superintendents of schools, and community college districts in accordance with the provisions of Section 26912 of the Government Code.

SEC. 6 The Legislature finds and declares that the amendment of Section 2237 of the Revenue and Taxation Code made by Section 5 of this act does not constitute a change in, but is declaratory of, the existing law. Accordingly, existing law requires the levy authorized by subdivision (a) of Section 2237 of the Revenue and Taxation Code to be increased for the 1978–79 tax year to compensate for any allocation and payment of tax revenues required pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 33670 and subdivision (d) of Section 33675 of the Health and Safety Code. In the event the 1978–79 tax rate established prior to the effective date of this act pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 2237 of the Revenue and Taxation Code was not adjusted to compensate for such allocation of tax revenues, where applicable, an affected taxing agency shall have the following alternatives:

(a) The taxing agency may, on or before March 1, 1979, and in accordance with subdivision (a) of Section 2237 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, revise the tax rate for the 1978–79 tax year, with the approval of the board of supervisors of the county, and the tax collector for the county shall issue conforming amended tax bills on or before April 1, 1979; or

(b) The property tax levy for the 1979–80 tax year may be increased in an amount sufficient to compensate for the deficiency caused by such allocation during the 1978–79 tax year. Any increase in the tax levy made pursuant to this subdivision for the 1979–80 tax year shall be in addition to the levy otherwise authorized by Section 2237 of the Revenue and Taxation Code

SEC 7 This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

It is necessary that this act take effect immediately in order (1) to timely provide a supplementary revenue source for the repayment of redevelopment indebtedness incurred prior to July 1, 1978, and to thereby avoid default or other repayment problems, (2) to promptly clarify existing statutory provisions governing property tax rates levied for payment of indebtedness approved by the voters prior to July 1, 1978, and (3) to enable cities, counties, redevelopment agencies, and housing authorities to continue to sell bonds and other indebtedness to the federal government, or bonds or other

(a) Property acquired by the United States that becomes exempt from taxation under the laws of the United States.

(b) Property acquired by the state or by a county, city, school district, or other public entity, that becomes exempt from taxation under the laws of the state.

(b) The date of actual possession by the acquiring entity.

(c) The date upon or after which the acquiring entity may take possession as authorized by an order for possession or by a declaration of taking.

5083. If exempt property is acquired either by negotiated purchase or eminent domain any lien on the property for ad valorem taxes is extinguished as a matter of law upon the acquisition of the property, and the lien immediately transfers and attaches to the proceeds constituting the purchase price or award.

5084 (a) No cancellation shall be made of all or any portion of any unpaid taxes or any penalties or costs levied for prior tax years that constitute a lien at the time of acquisition of exempt property.

(b) Such unpaid taxes, penalties, and costs shall be paid through escrow at the close of escrow or from the award in eminent domain, or if unpaid for any reason, shall be transferred to the unsecured roll pursuant to Section 5090 and are collectible from either the person from whom the property was acquired or the public entity that acquired the property.

5085. If exempt property is acquired by negotiated purchase, gift, devise, or eminent domain after the lien date but prior to the commencement of the fiscal year for which taxes are a lien on the property, the amount of the taxes for that fiscal year shall be canceled and are not collectible from either the person from whom the property was acquired or the public entity that acquired the property.

5086 If exempt property is acquired by negotiated purchase, gift, devise, or eminent domain after commencement of the fiscal year for which the current taxes are a lien on the property:

(b) The portion of the current taxes and any penalties and costs that are allocable to the part of the fiscal year that begins on the date of apportionment shall be canceled and are not collectible either from the person from whom the property was acquired or from the public entity that acquired the property.

5087. The board of supervisors of a county may provide that all unpaid taxes, penalties, and costs and the allocable portion of current taxes, penalties, and costs computed in accordance with this article shall not be paid through escrow at the close of escrow or from the award in eminent domain, but shall be transferred to the unsecured roll pursuant to Section 5090 and are collectible from the person from whom the property was acquired

5088. Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, unpaid taxes, penalties, or costs shall not be transferred to the unsecured roll with respect to property that has been tax deeded to the state for delinquency.

5089. The board of supervisors of a county may prescribe that, where the amount of unpaid taxes, penalties, and costs to be transferred to the unsecured roll pursuant to this article is less than ten dollars ($10), the unpaid taxes, penalties, and costs shall be canceled rather than transferred to the unsecured roll.

5090. (a) If taxes, penalties, and costs that are not subject to cancellation pursuant to this article are unpaid at the time set for the sale of property on the secured roll to the state, they shall be transferred to the unsecured roll pursuant to Section 2921.5, and collected as provided therein.

(b) The statute of limitations on any suit brought to collect taxes, penalties, and costs transferred to the unsecured roll commences to run on the date of transfer, which date shall be entered on the unsecured roll by the auditor opposite the name of the assessee at the time the transfer is made.

(c) The amount of taxes, penalties, and costs collectible on the unsecured roll from a public entity pursuant to this article shall not exceed the amount paid for the property or awarded in the proceeding public use that will make the property exempt from taxation, the public entity shall give notice to the county tax collector and to any public entities whose taxes are not collected by the county tax collector but who at the time exercise the right of assessment and taxation.

(b) The notice shall be given within a reasonable time following the initial budgeting of funds for the proposed acquisition, and shall state all of the following:

(1) The approximate extent of the proposed project.

(2) The estimated time of completion of all acquisitions necessary for the proposed project.

(c) This section creates no rights or liabilities and does not affect the validity of any property acquisitions by negotiated purchase or eminent domain.

SEC. 18. Section 5096.7 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

5096.7. If taxes have been paid on property acquired by negotiated purchase by any public entity designated in Section 5081 after the commencement of the fiscal year for which the taxes are a lien on the property, the portion of such taxes which are allocable to that part of the fiscal year which begins on the date of apportionment determined pursuant to Section 5082 and made uncollectible if unpaid by virtue of Section 5086, shall be deemed erroneously collected and shall be refunded to the person who has paid the tax, where the person was not otherwise reimbursed for that portion of the taxes by the public entity which acquired the property.

Refunds under this section shall be applicable to taxes paid on either the secured or unsecured rolls.

CHAPTER 32

An act to amend Section 205.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code and to amend Section 3 of Chapter 1276 of the Statutes of 1978, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor April 11, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State April 12, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 205.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Section 1.3 of Chapter 1276 of the Statutes of 1978, is amended to read.

205 5 (a) Property which is owned by, and which constitutes the principal place of residence of, a veteran is exempted from taxation on that part of the full value of the residence that does not exceed forty thousand dollars ($40,000), if the veteran is blind in both eyes, has lost the use of two or more limbs, or is totally disabled as a result of injury or disease incurred in military service. The exemption shall be sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) in the case of such a veteran whose household income as defined in Section 20504 does not exceed the amounts specified in Section 20585.

(b) For purposes of this section, "veteran" is defined as specified in subdivision (o) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the Constitution without regard to any limitation contained therein on the value of property owned by the veteran or the veteran's spouse.

(c) No veteran shall be eligible for this exemption unless he or she was a resident of California at the time of his or her entry into military or naval service, or unless he or she was a resident of the state on November 7, 1972, if he or she is blind or has lost the use of two or more limbs, or on January 1, 1975, if he or she is totally disabled; provided however, that no veteran who met a corresponding residency requirement under the law in effect prior to January 1, 1975, shall lose eligibility as the result of changes in residency requirement effective on January 1, 1975, or thereafter.

(d) Property which is owned by, and which constitutes the principal place of residence of, the unmarried surviving spouse of a veteran is exempt from taxation on that part of the full value of the residence that does not exceed forty thousand dollars ($40,000); provided, that the deceased veteran during his or her lifetime qualified in all respects for the exemption or would have qualified for the exemption under the laws effective on January 1, 1977, except that the veteran died prior to January 1, 1977; or provided that the veteran died from a disease which was service connected as determined by the Veterans Administration. The exemption shall be sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) in the case of such an unmarried surviving spouse whose household income as specified in Section 20504 does not exceed the amounts specified in Section 20585.

(e) As used in this section, "property which is owned by a veteran" or "property which is owned by the veteran's unmarried surviving spouse" includes:

(1) Property owned by the veteran with the veteran's spouse as a joint tenancy, tenancy in common or as community property;

(2) Property owned by the veteran or the veteran's spouse as separate property;

(3) Property owned with one or more other persons to the extent of the interest owned by the veteran, the veteran's spouse, or both the veteran and the veteran's spouse;

(4) Property owned by the veteran's unmarried surviving spouse with one or more other persons to the extent of the interest owned by the veteran's unmarried surviving spouse,

(5) So much of the property of a corporation as constitutes the principal place of residence of a veteran or a veteran's unmarried surviving spouse when the veteran, or the veteran's spouse, or the veteran's unmarried surviving spouse is a shareholder of the corporation and the rights of shareholding entitle one to the possession of property, legal title to which is owned by the corporation. The exemption provided by this paragraph shall be shown on the local roll and shall reduce the full value of the corporate property. Notwithstanding any provision of law or articles of incorporation or bylaws of a corporation described in this paragraph, any reduction of property taxes paid by such corporation shall reflect an equal reduction in any charges by such corporation to the person who, by reason of qualifying for the exemption, made possible such reduction for the corporation.

(f) For purposes of this section, being blind in both eyes means having a visual acuity of 5/200 or less; losing the use of a limb means that the limb has been amputated or its use has been lost by reason of ankylosis, progressive muscular dystrophies, or paralysis; and being totally disabled means that the United States Veterans Administration or the military service from which such veteran was discharged has rated the disability at 100 percent or has rated the disability compensation at 100 percent by reason of being unable to secure or follow a substantially gainful occupation.

(g) An exemption granted to a claimant in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be in lieu of the veteran's exemption provided by subdivisions (o), (p), and (r) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the Constitution and any other real property tax exemption to which the claimant may be entitled. No other real property tax exemption may be granted to any other person with respect to the same residence for which an exemption has been granted under the provisions of this section; provided, that if two or more veterans qualified pursuant to this section coown a property in which they reside, each is entitled to the exemption to the extent of his or her interest.

4730 The governing body of a sanitation district is a board of directors of not less than three members. The presiding officer of the governing body of each city, the whole or part of which is included in the sanitation district, is a member of the board. A member of the governing body of each sanitary district, the whole or part of which is included in the sanitation district, is a member of the board

If the sanitation district includes territory which is unincorporated and not included in a sanitary district, then the presiding officer of the county board of supervisors is a member of the board.

The governing body of each city with a population of under 2,500,000, as found by the latest census, and the board of supervisors shall each select one of its members, other than its presiding officer, as an alternate director to act as a member of the district board in place of the presiding officer, or in place of the other member of the governing body of the city or county where there are two members from the city or county on the board of directors of the district, during such person's absence, inability, or refusal to act.

SEC 3 The Monterey Regional County Sanitation District faces unique problems in connection with the furnishing of sewer services in the conversion from insufficient local treatment to centralized regional treatment. In order to solve such problems, it is necessary for such district to reconstitute its governing board and the weight of voting participation of each board member in a manner that will more adequately reflect the respective populations of the member agencies. Furthermore, it is necessary for such district, consisting of diverse agencies, to be empowered to designate central depositories for the custody of any or all money collected by the district. Because of the special situation involving the Monterey Regional County Sanitation District, it is necessary that Sections 1.5 and 2 of this act be adopted.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act pursuant to these sections because this act is in accordance with the request of a local governmental entity or entities which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of that code.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Existing law with respect to county sanitation districts does not provide for the method of appointment of alternate members to the governing board of such a district in certain circumstances. Additionally, the Monterey Regional County Sanitation District is currently concluding annexations to such district which will enable it to provide a financial base for centralized regional treatment. In order that such annexation may be brought to conclusion and the district's governing board have sufficient powers to accomodate the new situation arising after such annexation, and in order that a method for appointing alternate members to county sanitation district governing boards is provided as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 36

An act to amend Section 10133.1 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to real estate, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 19, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State April 19, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10133.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read.

10133.1. The provisions of subdivision (d) of Section 10131, subdivision (e) of Section 10131, Section 10131.1 and of Articles 5 (commencing with Section 10230), 6 (commencing with Section 10237), and 7 (commencing with Section 10240) of this chapter do not apply to the following:

(a) Any person or employee thereof doing business under any law of this state, any other state, or of the United States relating to banks, trust companies, savings and loan associations, industrial loan companies, pension trusts, credit unions, or insurance companies.

(b) Any lender making a loan guaranteed or insured by an agency of the federal government or for which a commitment to so guarantee or insure has been made by such agency.

(c) Any nonprofit cooperative association organized under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 54001) of Division 20 of the Food and Agricultural Code, in loaning or advancing money in connection with any activity mentioned therein.

(d) Any corporation, association, syndicate, joint stock company, or partnership engaged exclusively in the business of marketing agricultural, horticultural, viticultural, dairy, livestock, poultry, or bee products on a cooperative nonprofit basis, in loaning or advancing money to the members thereof or in connection with any such business.

(e) Any corporation securing money or credit from any federal intermediate credit bank organized and existing pursuant to the provisions of an act of Congress entitled the "Agricultural Credits Act of 1923," in loaning or advancing money or credit so secured

(f) Any person licensed to practice law in this state, not actively and principally engaged in the business of negotiating loans secured by real property, when such person renders services in the course of his practice as an attorney at law, and the disbursements of such person, whether paid by the borrower or other person, are not charges or costs and expenses regulated by or subject to the limitations of Article 7 (commencing with Section 10240) of this chapter, provided, such fees and disbursements shall not be shared, directly or indirectly, with the person negotiating the loan or the lender

(g) Any person licensed as a personal property broker when acting under the authority of such license.

(h) Any cemetery authority as defined by Section 7018 of the Health and Safety Code which is authorized to do business in this state or its authorized agent.

(i) Any person who makes collection of payments for lenders or on notes of owners in connection with loans secured directly or collaterally by liens on real property, insofar as such activities are concerned, and (1) who is not actively engaged in the business of negotiating loans secured by real property or (2) who is not acting as a principal or agent in the sale or exchange of promissory notes secured directly or collaterally by liens on real property; provided that.

(1) Such person has made application to the commissioner and has complied with all the provisions of Section 10133.25; or

(2) Such person makes such collections on 10 or less of such loans, or in amounts of forty thousand dollars ($40,000) or less in any calendar year.

(j) Any person authorized in writing by a savings and loan association to act as an agent, as defined in Section 5053 of the Financial Code, of that savings and loan association, when acting under the authority of such written authorization.

SEC. 2 This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect The facts constituting such necessity are:

Chapter 476 of the Statutes of 1978 repealed the licensing requirements for savings and loan association salesmen and agents. Salesmen and agents licensed by the Savings and Loan Commissioner are exempt from licensing under subdivision (j) of Section 10133.1 of the Business and Professions Code. By the repeal of Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 6200) of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Financial Code all savings and loan association salesmen and agents will be required to become licensed real estate brokers, an act which would be an unnecessary burden on savings and loan associations and their salesmen and agents with no additional protection to the public, given the unique role of savings and loan association agents Therefore, it is essential that this act take effect immediately.

An act to amend Section 34452 of the Government Code, relating to charter commissions, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 19, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State April 19, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 34452 of the Government Code is amended to read·

34452 (a) An election for choosing charter commissioners may be called by a majority vote of the governing body of a city or city and county, or on presentation of a petition signed by not less than 15 percent of the registered electors of such city or city and county

Any such petition shall be verified by the authority having charge of the registration records of the city or city and county and the expenses of such verification shall be provided by the governing body thereof. The governing body shall call such election not less than 75 nor more than 90 days from the date of its vote or the date of verification of the petition.

(b) If any vacancy arises in a charter commission established for a city or city and county pursuant to this chapter, such vacancy shall be filled by an appointment by the mayor of such city or city and county.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Existing law does not specifically prescribe any manner in which vacancies are to be filled in a charter commission established for a city or city and county. In order that uncertainty can be resolved as soon as possible as to how such vacancies on such commissions can be filled, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 38

An act relating to school finance, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 20, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State April 20, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1 Notwithstanding the provisions of Item 316.1 of the Budget Act of 1978 (Chapter 359 of the Statutes of 1978), if an elementary school district does not maintain at least a proportionate level of service for the programs specified in the second proviso of Item 316 1, the amount to which such district is entitled under the provisions of Chapter 292 of the Statutes of 1978, as amended by Chapter 332 of the Statutes of 1978, shall be reduced by any amount equal to four times 90 percent of the 1977–78 funding level for programs not maintained at the required proportionate level of service, provided that the Legislature reserves the right to modify the prescribed reduction in subsequent legislation during the 1978–79 fiscal year.

SEC. 2 This act shall apply only to an elementary school district in a county of the third class.

SEC. 3. Any reduction in state aid made pursuant to Section 1 of this act shall be reflected to the greatest extent possible in a corresponding reduction in the amounts allocated to governing board or administrative costs and shall not adversely affect instructional programs or staff of any noncomplying district Such corresponding reductions shall be determined only after a special meeting of the governing board of the noncomplying district called for such purpose Written certification of the manner in which such corresponding reductions are to be made shall be sent to and approved by the Superintendent of Public Instruction before any additional state aid is distributed to the noncomplying district.

SEC. 4. No appropriation is made by this act, nor is any obligation created thereby under Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, for the reimbursement of any local agency or school district for any costs that may be incurred by it in carrying on any program or performing any service required to be carried on or performed by it by this act. Moreover, there shall be no claim considered with respect to this act by the State Board of Control pursuant to Section 905.2 of the Government Code or Section 2250 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and the Department of Finance shall not review or report on this act pursuant to Section 2246 of the Revenue and Taxation Code

SEC. 5 This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The Legislature appropriated funds in Chapter 292 of the Statutes of 1978, as amended by Chapter 332 of the Statutes of 1978, to provide fiscal relief to local agencies affected by significant losses of property tax revenue due to the passage of Proposition 13 at the June 6, 1978, election. As a condition for receiving such fiscal relief funds, the Legislature required school districts to maintain at least a proportionate level of service in certain specified programs. These requirements were contained in the Budget Act of 1978 (Chapter 359 of the Statutes of 1978).

It was the intent of the Legislature to ensure the maintenance of proportionate levels of service in the specified programs, but it was not the intent of the Legislature to cause school districts not complying with the requirements to significantly curtail or completely cease their operations in the midst of the 1978–79 fiscal year. In their present state, the provisions of the Budget Act of 1978 cause such effects, thus seriously disrupting the education of many students in certain parts of the state.

This act imposes a significant penalty upon school districts which did not, and now cannot comply, with such provisions of the Budget Act of 1978, but at the same time, it permits the disbursement of vitally needed fiscal relief funds to these agencies and, therefore, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately

An act to amend Section 26205.1 of the Government Code, relating to destruction of records.

[Approved by Governor April 26, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State April 27, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 26205.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26205.1 (a) The county officer having custody of nonjudicial public records, documents, instruments, books, and papers may cause to be destroyed any or all of such records, documents, instruments, books and papers if each of the following conditions exist:

(i) The board of supervisors of the county has adopted a resolution authorizing such county officer to destroy records, documents, instruments, books, and papers pursuant to this subdivision. Such resolution may impose such conditions, in addition to those specified in this subdivision, as the board of supervisors determines are appropriate.

(ii) The county officer who destroys any record, document, instrument, book, or paper pursuant to the authority granted by this subdivision and a resolution of the board of supervisors adopted pursuant to clause (i) shall maintain for the use of the public a photographic or microphotographic film, electronic recorded video production or other duplicate of such record, document, instrument, book or paper destroyed.

(iii) Clause (ii) shall not apply to records prepared or received other than pursuant to a state statute or county charter, or records which are not expressly required by law to be filed and preserved.

For the purposes of this subdivision, every reproduction shall be deemed to be an original record and a transcript, exemplification or certified copy of any reproduction shall be deemed to be a transcript, exemplification or certified copy, as the case may be, of the original.

(b) The county clerk having custody of the original or a copy of the articles of any corporation may cause the destruction of any or all such documents "Articles" includes the articles of incorporation, amendments thereto, amended articles, restated articles, certificate of incorporation, certificates of determination of preferences, dissolution certificates, merger certificates, and agreements of consolidation or merger.

CHAPTER 40

An act to amend Section 32001 of the Education Code, relating to schools.

[Approved by Governor April 26, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State April 27, 1979.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 32001 of the Education Code is amended to read:

32001. Every public, private, or parochial school building having an occupant capacity of fifty (50) or more students or more than one classroom shall be provided with a dependable and operative fire warning system. Every person and public officer managing, controlling, or in charge of any public, private, or parochial school shall cause the fire alarm signal to be sounded upon the discovery of fire Every person and public officer managing, controlling, or in charge of any public, private, or parochial school, other than a two-year community college, shall cause the fire alarm signal to be sounded not less than once every calendar month at the elementary and intermediate levels, and not less than twice yearly at the secondary level, in the manner prescribed in this article except that when a fire alarm system having a distinctive tone, and which is used for no other purpose, is installed, the manner of sounding such alarm shall not be subject to the provisions of Sections 32002, 32003, and 32004.

A fire drill shall be held at the secondary level not less than twice every school year.

CHAPTER 41

An act to amend Sections 71811 and 71812 of the Water Code, relating to municipal water districts.

[Became law without Governor's signature April 30, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State April 30, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 71811 of the Water Code is amended to read:

71811. A district may issue negotiable promissory notes pursuant to this section to acquire funds for any district purposes. The maturity of such promissory notes shall not be later than five years from the date thereof. The total aggregate amount of such notes outstanding at any one time may be at least equal to seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) in any district but shall not exceed the lesser of either two million five hundred thousand dollars ($2,500,000) or 3 percent of the assessed valuation of the taxable property in the district, or, if the assessed valuation is not obtainable, 3 percent of the county auditor's estimate of the assessed valuation of the taxable property in the district evidenced by his certificate, except that in the Otay Municipal Water District the total aggregate amount of such notes outstanding at any one time shall not exceed the lesser of either three million five hundred thousand dollars ($3,500,000) or 3 percent of the assessed valuation of the taxable property within the district, or, if the assessed valuation is not obtainable, 3 percent of the county auditor's estimate of the assessed valuation of taxable property in the district evidenced by his certificate Promissory notes issued pursuant to Section 71812 may be disregarded in computing the aggregate amount of notes that may be issued pursuant to this section.

SEC 2. Section 71812 of the Water Code is amended to read:

71812. (a) A district may issue negotiable promissory notes pursuant to this section for the purpose of acquiring funds to finance the construction or acquisition of administrative offices, construction headquarters, commercial offices, or facilities for similar district purposes and for the acquisition of land for district purposes. The maturity of such promissory notes shall not be later than 10 years from the date thereof. The total aggregate amount of such notes outstanding at any one time may be at least equal to fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) in any district, but shall not exceed the lesser of either one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000) or 1 percent of the assessed valuation of the taxable property in the district, or, if the assessed valuation is not obtainable, 1 percent of the county auditor's estimate of the assessed valuation of the taxable property in the district evidenced by his certificate; provided, that no more than 50 percent of the increased borrowing capacity made available pursuant to the amendments made to this section at the 1975–76 Regular Session of the Legislature may be used for land acquisition purposes. Promissory notes issued pursuant to Section 71811 may be disregarded in computing the aggregate amount of notes that may be issued pursuant to this section

(b) The Otay Municipal Water District may issue notes pursuant to subdivision (a) except that the total aggregate amount of such notes outstanding at any one time may be at least equal to fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), but shall not exceed the lesser of either two million dollars ($2,000,000) or 1 percent of the assessed valuation of the taxable property in the district, or, if the assessed valuation is not obtainable, 1 percent of the county auditor's estimate of the assessed valuation of the taxable property in the district evidenced by his certificate The limitation on the amount of notes which may be used for land acquisition purposes prescribed in subdivision (a) shall not apply to the Otay Municipal Water District.

SEC 3 The Legislature finds and declares that a special law is necessary and that a general law cannot be made applicable because the Otay Municipal Water District is the only municipal water district seeking additional authority to issue promissory notes for the purpose of land acquisition.

CHAPTER 42

An act to add and repeal Section 23014.5 of the Government Code, relating to Sonoma County and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 1, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State May 1, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 23014.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

23014 5. (a) Pursuant to a resolution adopted by its board of supervisors by a four-fifths vote of all of the members of the Board of Supervisors of Sonoma County, such county may appropriate any of its available moneys to a revolving fund not to exceed four million dollars ($4,000,000) to be used for a public purpose of the County of Sonoma, as determined by the Board of Supervisors of Sonoma County, by any county sanitation district, flood control district, or county maintenance district, located wholly within the county, for the acquisition of real or personal property, environmental impact studies, fiscal analysis, engineering services, or the construction of structures or improvements needed for district purposes. The revolving fund shall be reimbursed by a district receiving funds pursuant to this section as provided for in Section 23014

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1985, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1985, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 2. The County of Sonoma faces unique problems in upgrading existing facilities and constructing new facilities for wastewater collection, treatment and disposal. The Sonoma County Public Works Department anticipates having seven construction contracts underway in this regard in the near future and the simultaneous cash demand needs of such contracts exceeds the five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) ceiling provided in existing law for county assistance. In order to solve such problems, it is necessary for the County of Sonoma to be authorized to provide four million dollars ($4,000,000) of assistance to such projects. Because of the special situation involving the County of Sonoma, it is necessary that this special act be adopted

SEC 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Various construction projects in Sonoma County with respect to the upgrading and construction of wastewater collection, treatment, and disposal facilities have obtained financial assistance under the State Clean Water Grant Program and the Federal Water Pollution Control Act of 1972 In order to resolve certain cash flow problems which will occur during the actual construction periods of such projects and to ensure such projects are constructed, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately

(d) If the site and related facility specified in the application is proposed to be located in the coastal zone, the commission shall transmit a copy of the application to the California Coastal Commission for its review and comments.

(e) If the site and related facility specified in the application is proposed to be located in the Suisun Marsh or the jurisdiction of the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission, the commission shall transmit a copy of the application to the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission for its review and comments

In the event the commission requires modification of the proposed facility, the commission shall consult with the Public Utilities Commission regarding the economic, financial, rate, system reliability, and service implications of such modifications.

(j) The commission shall transmit a copy of the application to any governmental agency not specifically mentioned in this act, but which it finds has any information or interest in the proposed site and related facilities, and shall invite the comments and recommendations of each such agency. The commission shall request any relevant laws, ordinances, or regulations which any such agency has promulgated or administered.

(k) An application for certification of any site and related facilities shall contain a listing of every federal agency from which any approval or authorization concerning the proposed site is required, specifying the approvals or authorizations obtained at the time of the application and the schedule for obtaining any approvals or authorizations pending.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Chapter 760 and Chapter 1375 of the Statutes of 1978 both amended Section 25519 of the Public Resources Code and Chapter 1375 chaptered out provisions which would have been made by Chapter 760. In order that the changes made by Chapter 760 may take effect at the earliest opportunity, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately

An act to amend Section 1141.11 of, and to add Title 9.2 (commencing with Section 1296) to, the Code of Civil Procedure, and Section 4 of Chapter 743 of the Statutes of 1978, relating to arbitration, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 1, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

(c) In each municipal court district, the municipal court district may provide by local rule, when it is determined to be in the best interests of justice, that all at-issue civil actions pending on or filed after the operative date of this chapter in such judicial district, shall be submitted to arbitration by the presiding judge or the judge designated under this chapter The provisions of this section shall not apply to any action maintained pursuant to Section 1781 of the Civil Code or Section 116.2 or 1161 of this code.

(d) The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to those actions filed in a superior or municipal court which has been selected pursuant to Section 1823.1 and is participating in a pilot project pursuant to Title 1 (commencing with Section 1823) of Part 3.5. Any action filed in such court after the conclusion of the pilot project shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter.

SEC. 2. Title 9.2 (commencing with Section 1296) is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

If the agreement so provides, a court shall, subject to Section 1286.4, vacate the award if after review of the award it determines either that the award is not supported by substantial evidence or that it is based on an error of law.

SEC. 3. Section 4 of Chapter 743 of the Statutes of 1978 is amended to read:

Sec. 4. The Auditor General, in consultation with the Judicial Council, the State Department of Finance, and local agencies, shall conduct studies of the effects of this act on superior court workload in each county affected by this act. The studies shall include but not be limited to, an analysis of the reduction in superior court workload, which resulted in a decreased need for additional superior court judgeships. In its studies the Auditor General shall take into account the impact of Proposition 13, of the June 6, 1978, election, on the requisition for additional superior court judgeships in the affected counties. The report shall also include a statement of the costs avoided in each affected county due to the effect of this act. The results of these studies shall be reported annually to the Legislature and the State Controller beginning on October 31, 1980.

SEC. 4. Section 1 of this act shall become operative on July 1, 1979.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into effect immediately. The facts constituting such necessity are:

This act must take effect prior to the operative date of Chapter 743 of the Statutes of 1978, July 1, 1979, in order to clarify procedures with regard to that chapter.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1 Section 3900 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read

(b) Generally for cleaning in industrial employment

(c) Used by mechanics and workmen for wiping from their hands and bodies soil incident to their employment.

CHAPTER 48

An act to amend Sections 987.60, 987.61, 987 65, and 987.92 of the Military and Veterans Code, relating to veterans, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately

[Approved by Governor May 1, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1 Section 987.60 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

987 60 The department may acquire such farm or home from the owner thereof or may contract with a veteran for the construction of a dwelling house and other improvements for a farm or home, upon the terms agreed if·

(a) The department is satisfied of the desirability of the property submitted.

(b) The veteran has agreed with the department that he or members of his immediate family will actually reside on the property within 60 days from the date of purchase by the department, or if the residence on the property is not complete on the date of purchase, within 60 days after the residence is completed.

(c) The sum to be expended by the department pursuant to a contract for the construction of a dwelling house and other improvements does not exceed fifty-five thousand dollars ($55,000).

(d) Where the department is to contract with a veteran for the construction of a dwelling house and other buildings, or for the purchase of a mobilehome:

(1) The veteran is the owner in fee of the real property on which the dwelling house and other buildings are to be constructed, or is the owner in fee of the real property or the owner of an undivided interest in common in a portion of a parcel of real property on which a mobilehome is to be situate, and agrees to convey that property to the department without cost.

(2) The veteran has paid a reasonable fee set by the department to cover the cost of such preliminary service of the department as may be necessary to process the application.

(3) The veteran has filed with the department adequate plans and specifications for the improvements to be constructed upon said real property, together with a contract, executed by a contractor licensed by the State of California for the construction of said improvements in accordance with said plans and specifications within eight months after the acquisition of said real property by the department, and a bond executed by the contractor providing for compliance with the terms of said contract and for the payment of materialmen and labor furnishing material or labor on the job, executed by a surety company, authorized to do business in the State of California.

(4) The plans, specifications, contract and bond are approved by the department.

(5) The veteran has placed in escrow, all sums of money to be advanced by him where the cost is in excess of the maximum that may be expended by the department.

As used in this section "immediate family" includes only the following:

Spouse, children, either natural or adoptive; and the parents if they are dependent upon the veteran for 50 percent or more of their support.

SEC 2. Section 987.61 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

987.61. The department may purchase property, subject to a participation contract providing for a loan term of not less than 23 years. In no event shall the purchase price plus the participation contract exceed fifty-five thousand dollars ($55,000) or equal more than 95 percent of the market value of the property as determined by department appraisal, whichever is the lower amount.

SEC. 3. Section 987.65 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

987.65. The purchase price of a home to the department shall not exceed the sum of fifty-five thousand dollars ($55,000), except that the purchase price of a mobilehome, as defined in subdivision (k) of Section 987.53, to the department shall not exceed thirty thousand dollars ($30,000), and a veteran purchasing the home may advance, subject to the provisions of Section 987.64, the difference between the total price or cost of the home and the sum of the purchase price of the home to the department and any amount the department is required under Section 987 69 of this code to add to the purchase price of the home in fixing the selling price thereof to the veteran. Any amount of the purchase price to the department may be provided by funds from participation contracts or revenue bonds. The purchase price of a farm to the department shall not exceed one hundred twenty thousand dollars ($120,000), and a veteran purchasing the farm may advance the difference between the total price of the farm or cost of the dwelling and improvements to be constructed on a farm under a contract and the sum of such purchase price to the department or contract price to the department and any amount which the department is required under Section 987.69 of this code to add to such purchase or contract price to the department in fixing the selling price of the farm to the veteran.

SEC. 4 Section 987 92 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

987.92. Notwithstanding other provisions of this article relating to maximum sums to be expended by the department and maximum purchase price, the department may acquire or construct a home equipped with solar energy heating devices at a purchase price not in excess of five thousand dollars ($5,000) over the maximum amounts specified in Sections 987.60, 987.61, and 987.65.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The costs of existing homes as well as construction, materials, and land for new homes are escalating at an unprecedented rate with the result that in order to meet the requirements for Cal-Vet benefits veterans must provide an increasingly large cash down payment so that many veterans are financially unable to take advantage of these veterans' benefits. In order that the benefits of this act may be available to veterans as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act become effective immediately

An act to amend Section 110 1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 1, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 110.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

110.1 (a) For purposes of subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, "full cash value" of real property, including possessory interests in real property, means the fair market value as determined pursuant to Section 110 for either·

(1) The 1975 lien date; or,

(2) For property which is purchased, is newly constructed, or changes ownership after the 1975 lien date:

(A) The date on which a purchase or change in ownership occurs; or

(B) The date on which new construction is completed, and if uncompleted, on the lien date.

(b) The value determined under subdivision (a) shall be known as the base year value for the property. Notwithstanding any provisions of Section 405 5 or 405.6, for property which was not purchased or newly constructed or has not changed ownership after the 1975 lien date, if the value as shown on the 1975–76 roll is not its 1975 lien date base year value and if the value of that property had not been determined pursuant to a periodic reappraisal under Section 405.5 for the 1975–76 assessment roll, a new 1975 lien date base year value shall be determined at any time until June 30, 1980, and placed on the roll being prepared for the current year. In determining the new base year value for any such property, the assessor shall use only those factors and indicia of fair market value actually utilized in appraisals made pursuant to Section 405.5 for the 1975 lien date Such new base year values shall be consistent with the values established by reappraisal for the 1975 lien date of comparable properties which were reappraised pursuant to Section 405.5 for the fiscal year. In the event such a determination is made, no escape assessment may be levied and the newly determined "full cash value" shall be placed on the roll for the current year only, provided, however, the preceding shall not prohibit a determination which is made prior to June 30 of a fiscal year from being reflected on the assessment roll for the current fiscal year.

If the value of any real property as shown on the 1975–76 roll was determined pursuant to a periodic appraisal under Section 405 5, such value shall be the 1975 lien date base year value of the property.

As used in this subdivision, a parcel of property shall be presumed to have been appraised for the 1975–76 fiscal year if the assessor's determination of the value of the property for the 1975–76 fiscal year differed from the value used for purposes of computing the 1974–75 fiscal year tax liability for the property, but the assessor may rebut such presumption by evidence that, notwithstanding such difference in value, such parcel was not appraised pursuant to Section 405.5 for the 1975–76 fiscal year

(c) For each lien date after the lien date in which the full cash value is determined pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (b), the full cash value of real property, including possessory interests in real property, shall reflect the percentage change in cost of living, as defined in Section 2212; provided, that such value shall not reflect an increase in excess of 2 percent of the full cash value of the preceding lien date.

SEC. 2. (a) Section 1 of this act shall be applied to the 1978–79 fiscal year and fiscal years thereafter.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, if the value of any property is reduced pursuant to Section 110.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, the reduced taxes resulting therefrom shall be reflected in a corresponding reduction in the next succeeding tax installment or installments for such property in the 1979–80 fiscal year unless there was a change in the assessee or assessees of record between July 1, 1978, and June 30, 1979, in which case a refund of such reduced taxes shall be prorated between such assessees of record in the same proportion as they participated in the payment of such taxes. In the event that the current address of a former assessee of record of such property entitled to share in any such refund is not known to the county, that portion of such refund shall be withheld by the county and the assessee may claim a refund from the county treasurer at any time prior to July 1, 1980. No reduction or refund shall be given pursuant to this subdivision of any amount previously collected to pay the interest and redemption charges on any indebtedness approved by the voters prior to July 1, 1978.

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature to correct an improper assessment practice which has resulted from the misinterpretation of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, as added to the California Constitution pursuant to the approval by the voters, of Proposition 13 on the ballot for the Direct Primary Election held June 6, 1978, and Section 110.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 292 of the Statutes of 1978, amended by Chapter 332 of the Statutes of 1978, and further amended by Chapter 576 of the Statutes of 1978.

It is further the intent of the Legislature that this act be construed as an act necessary for the implementation of Proposition 13, and, as such, is not a cost mandated by the state.

No appropriation is made by this act, nor is any obligation created thereby, pursuant to Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. Moreover, no claim shall be considered with respect to this act by the State Board of Control pursuant to Section 905.2 of the Government Code or Section 2250 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and the Department of Finance shall not review or report on this act pursuant to Section 2246 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

SEC. 4. This act clarifies the intent of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and Chapters 292 and 332 of the Statutes of 1978, to correct the administrative interpretation of such provisions which has resulted in the incorrect assessment of certain properties, and does not make a substantive change. It is the intent of the Legislature that counties which have established base year values in conformity with the intent of Section 110.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as clarified by this act, shall not be required to redetermine such base year values.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Proposition No. 13 on the ballot for the Direct Primary Election held on Tuesday, June 6, 1978, added a new Article XIII A to the California Constitution to limit ad valorem taxes on real property to 1 percent of full cash value and specified that such value would be the full cash value of such property for the 1975–76 fiscal year, or thereafter when such property was purchased, newly constructed or a change of ownership has occurred, as adjusted to reflect specified growth in the cost of living. Uncertainty exists in the determination of full cash value for the 1975–76 fiscal year, resulting in the reappraisal of property with regard to the 1975–76 fiscal year although such property had been timely appraised for the 1975–76 fiscal year and which therefore was correctly assessed for the 1975–76 fiscal year, within the meaning of Proposition 13. Therefore, in order to correct the 1978–79 property tax rolls to prevent undue financial hardship resulting from the erroneous tax levies for the 1978–79 fiscal year and to correct the collection of such taxes with a minimum of administrative difficulty, this act must go into effect immediately.

CHAPTER 50

An act to amend Section 53643 of the Government Code, relating to local agencies

[Approved by Governor May 4, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State May 4, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 53643 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53643. The treasurer may deposit any part of the money for a definite term agreed upon between the treasurer and the depositary

CHAPTER 51

An act to amend Section 6 of Chapter 292 of the Statutes of 1978, relating to school finance, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 4, 1979. Filed with Secretary of State May 4, 1979.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6 of Chapter 292 of the Statutes of 1978, as amended by Chapter 332 of the Statutes of 1978, is amended to read:

SEC. 6. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall apportion state aid to county offices of education pursuant to the provisions of this section.

(b) The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall determine the estimated budget of each county office of education for the 1978–79 fiscal year. Such estimated budget shall include:

(1) The estimated revenue limit for the 1978–79 fiscal year for programs operated pursuant to Section 2500, Section 2502 as it relates to regional occupational centers and programs, and Section 56364 of the Education Code.

(2) Revenues received in the 1977–78 fiscal year by the county superintendent of schools from taxes levied pursuant to Sections 1510, 2501, 2502, 2503, 2504, 2505, 2506, 2520, and 8330 of the Education Code multiplied by 1.068.

(c) The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall multiply this estimated 1978–79 fiscal year budget by 0.90 and subtract from the product the sum of (1) the property tax revenues received in the 1978–79 fiscal year from the county property tax pursuant to Section 26912 of the Government Code and any balances and tax revenues received pursuant to Section 2 of the act of the 1979–80 Regular Session which amends this section, (2) state and federal categorical aid, (3) the local foundation program contribution of districts pursuant to Section 1705 of the Education Code, and (4) contributions or payments made pursuant to Sections 52321 and 56364 of the Education Code.

If the county superintendent of schools receives revenues pursuant to Section 2 of the act of the 1979–80 Regular Session which amends this section and if the remainder determined pursuant to this subdivision is a negative number, an amount of the funds of the county superintendent equal to such negative number shall be deemed restricted and not available for expenditure in the 1978–79 fiscal year.

(d) The remainder computed pursuant to subdivision (c) shall be distributed as state aid in a manner consistent with state aid to school districts under this act, provided that no more than one hundred eight million four hundred seven thousand five hundred dollars ($108,407,500) shall be disbursed pursuant to this section

(e) The state aid prescribed by subdivision (d) of this section shall be reduced by an amount equal to one-third of the amount by which the county superintendent of school's general fund reserves exceed 5 percent of the county superintendent's general fund total revenue as adjusted at the end of the 1977–78 fiscal year, or fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), whichever is the greater.

For purposes of this subdivision, general fund reserves shall not include:

(1) Noncash assets, such as stores, inventory, property and buildings, or other investments purchased prior to June 6, 1978.

(2) Any amounts for self-insurance for contractual obligations, or reserves established by law or a governing board policy adopted prior to June 6, 1978.

(3) Any amounts restricted by law or court order.

(4) Any amounts committed to a capital outlay project approved prior to June 6, 1978, by the governing board of the district.

SEC 2. (a) For the purposes of the allocations of property tax revenues during the 1978–79 fiscal year pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 26912 of the Government Code, property tax revenues received in the 1977–78 fiscal year pursuant to Sections 41203 and 84203 of the Education Code shall be deemed to be property tax revenues received by the county superintendent of schools.

(b) The county auditor immediately shall adjust the county superintendent's share of the 1978–79 property tax revenue prescribed by subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 26912 of the Government Code pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section.

(c) All unencumbered balances remaining as of June 30, 1978, that were derived from the levy of taxes pursuant to Sections 41203 and 84203 of the Education Code in the 1977–78 fiscal year and prior fiscal years and any amount received pursuant to subdivision (b) of this section shall be deposited in the county school service fund. The county superintendent may expend such unencumbered balances and such amount for the purposes specified in Section 6 of Chapter 292 of the Statutes of 1978, as amended by Chapter 332 of the Statutes of 1978.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall apportion additional state aid to county superintendents of schools pursuant to this section.

The superintendent shall perform the following computations for each county superintendent of schools·

(a) The superintendent shall subtract from the estimated 1978–79 budget of each county superintendent, as calculated pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 6 of Chapter 292 of the Statutes of 1978, as amended by Chapter 332 of the Statutes of 1978, the amount which each county superintendent actually received pursuant to subdivision (d), as adjusted pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 6 of Chapter 292 of the Statutes of 1978, as amended by Chapter 332 of the Statutes of 1978

(b) If the remainder determined in subdivision (a) of this section is a positive number, the superintendent shall subtract from such remainder the amount of each county superintendent of school's general fund reserves, excluding reserves identified in subdivision (e) of this section, which exceed 2 percent of total general fund revenues as adjusted at the end of the 1977–78 fiscal year, or fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), whichever is greater, less the amount actually deducted pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 6 of Chapter 292 of the Statutes of 1978, as amended by Chapter 332 of the Statutes of 1978.

(c) If the remainder determined in subdivision (b) is a positive number, the superintendent shall divide that remainder by the statewide total of such positive remainders for any county superintendent of schools in the state.

(d) The superintendent shall multiply the quotient determined in subdivision (c) by the appropriation contained in Section 4 of this act. This amount shall be apportioned to each county superintendent of schools with a positive remainder pursuant to subdivision (c) of this section.

(e) For purposes of this section, general fund reserves shall not include:

(1) Noncash assets, such as stores, inventory, property and buildings, or other investments purchased prior to June 6, 1978.

(2) Any amounts for self-insurance, contractual obligations, or reserves established by law or a governing board policy adopted prior to June 6, 1978.

(3) Any amounts restricted by law or court order, except that surpluses or deficits from taxes collected pursuant to Section 1806, 2500, 2520, 8330, 42909, 52317, 56364, or 56811 of the Education Code shall not be deemed to be restricted by law.

(4) Any amounts committed to a capital outlay project approved prior to June 6, 1978, by the governing board of the district.

SEC. 4. In addition to the appropriation made pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1 of Chapter 292 of the Statutes of 1978, as amended by Chapter 332 of the Statutes of 1978, there is hereby appropriated to the Superintendent of Public Instruction twenty-eight million eight hundred thousand dollars ($28,800,000) from the General Fund for allocation pursuant to Section 3 of this act.

SEC. 5. If the apportionment computed pursuant to this act is reduced because of the operation of subdivision (b) of Section 3 of this act, or if the total amount appropriated pursuant to Section 4 of this act is insufficient to fund the apportionment required by subdivision (d) of Section 3 of this act, any county superintendent of schools shall be authorized to expend general fund reserves to offset either or both reductions as if the reserves were the proceeds of taxes levied by the county superintendent of schools during the 1978–79 fiscal year. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, general fund reserves as defined in this act may be used for any purpose specified in Sections 1 and 3 of this act.

SEC. 6. Sections 1 and 2 of this act shall be deemed to have been operative since July 1, 1978 If the Superintendent of Public Instruction has apportioned to any county superintendent of schools an amount in excess of the amount computed pursuant to Sections 1 and 2 of this act, such county superintendent shall refund such excess apportionment to the Superintendent of Public Instruction for reappropriation pursuant to this act.

SEC. 7. The reference to Section 42238 of the Education Code contained in Section 2 of Chapter 332 of the Statutes of 1978 is to Section 42238 as amended by Chapter 894 of the Statutes of 1977.

SEC. 8. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The appropriation contained in Section 1 of Chapter 292 of the Statutes of 1978, as amended by Chapter 332 of the Statutes of 1978, was inadequate due to an unanticipated growth in state and federally mandated classes for physically handicapped, mentally retarded, and other students with special needs, and inadequate funding for these programs could result in harm to the students affected and in violations of state and federal law. Thus, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 52

An act to add Section 429.5 to the Government Code, relating to the state historical society.

[Approved by Governor May 9, 1979. Filed with Secretary of State May 9, 1979.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 429.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

429.5. The California Historical Society is the official state historical society.

SEC. 2. In declaring the California Historical Society to be the official state historical society, the Legislature does not intend to establish a new state agency but is merely designating the California Historical Society as the state historical society.

CHAPTER 53

An act to amend Section 22555 of the Streets and Highways Code, relating to districts, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 11, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State May 11, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22555 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read·

22555. (a) Posted notices of hearings for the formation or consolidation of an assessment district or for the annexation of territory to an existing district shall be headed "Notice of Improvement" in letters at least one inch in height. The notices, not less than three in all, shall be posted at intervals of not more than 300 feet along all streets within the proposed assessment district or within the territory proposed to be annexed to or consolidated with an existing district, as the case may be. Posting of notice of those hearings shall be completed at least 10 days prior to the date of hearing specified therein.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), notices of hearings for the formation or consolidation of an assessment district or for the annexation of territory to an existing district need not be posted when such notices are mailed to all property owners, whether resident or nonresident, within the district as provided in Section 22556.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

(a) The approval of Proposition 13 (Article XIII A of the California Constitution) by the voters of California has substantially reduced the tax revenues available to lighting districts. Annexations and consolidations of districts for street lighting will allow economies and efficiencies in the operation of street lighting systems and thus mitigate the effect of reduced revenues.

(b) The Landscaping and Lighting Act of 1972 requires that notices of hearings on the formation or consolidation of an assessment district or annexation of territory thereto be posted at not more than 300 foot intervals as well as published and mailed. Completion of posting in large proposed districts may not be financially feasible and should be dispensed with if notices are mailed to all property owners. Due to the foregoing, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

Where inspection verifies that the owner or operator of a labor camp is proceeding with reasonable diligence, or where conditions beyond the control of the owner or operator prevent conformance, the enforcement agency may grant time extensions not to exceed 30 days in duration. No more than two such extensions shall be allowed by the enforcement agency prior to initiation of action to abate the public nuisance.

(b) Any violation of this part, the regulations adopted pursuant thereto, or the provisions of the permit which constitute an immediate or material hazard to the health or safety of the occupants of a labor camp, shall be remedied within five days after written notice by the enforcement agency, or shorter time in case of emergency. In the event of failure to comply with this section, the Attorney General, or the attorney for the enforcement agency, shall, by verified complaint setting forth the facts, apply to the superior court for an order granting the relief for which the action or proceeding is brought until the entry of a final judgment or order.

The Director of Housing and Community Development shall make a finding as to the equivalency of alternate local standards to state standards. It is the intention of the Legislature that this section and the rules and regulations adopted by the commission pursuant to this section shall not be more restrictive than the requirements for new construction contained in the Uniform Building Code, 1970 edition, as adopted by the International Conference of Building Officials.

(c) The provisions of this section shall not apply to any existing apartment house, hotel, or motel having floors, as measured from the top of the floor surface, used for human occupancy located more than 75 feet above the lowest floor level having building access which is subject to the provisions of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 13210) of Part 2 of Division 12 relating to existing high-rise buildings.

The city or county may request a hearing before the commission pursuant to Section 17930 within said 30 days to show cause for nonenforcement. Enforcement by the department shall not be initiated until the decision of the commission, adverse to the city or county, is rendered.

provided, that all work to be accomplished with funds appropriated under this section shall be coordinated and administered by the Department of General Services, Office of State Architect.

Provided further that the funds appropriated under category (e) shall not be expended for the purchase, lease-purchase or lease with purchase option of temporary facilities unless the chairman of the committee in each house which considers appropriations and the Chairman of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, or his designee, are provided a report on the cost-benefit analysis and the programmatic need to obtain the subject facilities on a permanent basis. The chairmen shall be provided a 30-day review of the report or such lesser time as the chairman of said committee or his designee may determine.

SEC. 2. The State Public Works Board shall defer all augmentations in excess of 20 percent of the amount appropriated in this act and in Items 468 and 469 of the Budget Act of 1978 for each capital outlay project relating to fire, life safety, and environmental improvements in state hospitals of the State Department of Developmental Services and in state hospitals of the State Department of Mental Health, until the Legislature makes additional funds available for the specific project.

SEC. 3. No money appropriated by this act or Items 468 and 469 of the Budget Act of 1978 for fire, life safety, and environmental improvements in state hospitals of the State Department of Developmental Services and in state hospitals of the State Department of Mental Health may be expended unless and until the State Public Works Board and the Department of Finance have approved preliminary plans for the project to be financed from such appropriations for capital outlay, and unless and until the Chairman of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, or his designee, is provided with a copy of the preliminary plans for five working days or not sooner than such lesser time as the Chairman or his designee may in each instance determine.

The State Public Works Board shall approve the allocation of working drawings and construction funds as are requested upon approval of preliminary plans.

SEC. 4. The funds appropriated herein and those already appropriated in Items 468 and 469 of the Budget Act of 1978 shall be available for expenditure until June 30, 1982.

SEC. 5. The Legislature intends that:

(a) Clear standards be developed defining the types of developmentally and mentally disabled patients to be treated in state hospitals.

(b) Only those patients for whom state hospital treatment is the most appropriate form of treatment be cared for in state hospitals, except no patient whose treatment, condition, or development would be impaired by transfer from a state hospital to a community-based program should be so transferred.

(c) Community-based programs be developed, if necessary, and utilized to provide treatment and service of equal or superior quality to those rendered by state hospitals for those individuals transferred or diverted from state hospitals.

(d) State hospitals meet federal standards, prescribed by the federal Department of Health, Education, and Welfare relating to fire, life safety, and environmental quality, as a condition of reimbursement for both developmentally and mentally disabled patients under the provisions of Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act.

(e) Such capital modifications to state hospitals as are necessary to meet federal fire, life safety, and environmental quality standards be completed by July 1, 1982.

(f) Capital expenditures for state hospitals be limited to those structures, or parts thereof, which will actually be utilized on July 1, 1982, and thereafter, or are directly related to structures which will be so utilized.

SEC 6. The Departments of Mental Health and Developmental Services shall report to the Legislature no later than September 1, 1979, a statement of options and alternatives concerning:

(a) Clinical and administrative standards defining the types of clients to be served in state hospitals;

(b) Projections of the numbers and types of clients to be served at state hospitals each year through 1985, consistent with each alternative outlined in subdivision (a);

(c) The steps necessary to achieve the numbers of patients projected to be served in each alternative outlined in subdivision (b) at both the state and community levels, and the cost implications for both the state and community programs for each such alternative;

(d) Each department's recommendation on the alternative identified which should be utilized by the state, and the reasons therefor.

Among the alternatives presented by the Department of Developmental Services for developmentally disabled clients, the department shall include a description of the steps necessary to achieve a total number of state hospital clients to be served of no greater than 5,500 by 1982 and, alternatively, by 1985.

SEC 7. The Departments of Mental Health and Developmental Services shall report to the Legislature no later than February 1, 1980, with a plan based upon the preferred alternatives developed pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 6, unless the Legislature acts to require a different alternative. The plan should include, as a minimum, all of the following:

(a) A program and projected costs for developing community resources sufficient to accommodate all clients transferred or diverted from state hospital treatment including identification of the numbers and types of clients affected and a description of how each type of client will be accommodated;

(b) Identification of statutory and administrative regulation changes necessary to implement the plan.

In developing this plan, the departments shall supply to the regional centers a list of all clients currently in state hospitals who should appropriately be referred to community placement. Regional centers shall supply the departments with an individual evaluation for each client so designated and an indication of the appropriateness and feasibility of community placement as well as resources needed in order to place each client.

SEC. 8. It is the intention of the Legislature that funds appropriated by this act be administered by the State Department of Mental Health and the State Department of Developmental Services in a manner which avoids, to the fullest extent consistent with federal fire, life safety, and environmental requirements for reimbursement under Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act, expenditure for any project, directly related to the remodeling, replacement, or construction of a structure, for which there is substantial probability of nonuse for patient treatment after July 1, 1982 The aforementioned departments shall identify such projects to the Legislature, and the amounts to be expended. Any expenditure made for such projects shall be the minimal amount consistent with federal requirements.

SEC. 9. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to meet fire, life safety, and environmental requirements mandated by the federal government and to insure the welfare of residents in the state hospitals, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 65

An act to amend Section 255.3 of, to add Section 2615.5 to, and to repeal Section 255.4 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor May 19, 1979. Filed with Secretary of State May 19, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 255.3 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

255.3. For the 1974–75 fiscal year and thereafter, the assessor shall each year on or before March 15 mail a claim form for the homeowners' exemption to a person acquiring title to, and recording his ownership of an eligible dwelling after the immediately preceding lien date and before the lien date of the calendar year of the claim. The failure of a person to receive a claim form shall not, however, excuse the person from timely filing of the required affidavit.

SEC. 2. Section 255.4 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 2615.5 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

2615.5. When the county sends a tax bill or copy thereof to any homeowner who received the homeowners' exemption in the immediately preceding year, except where such person has transferred title in the property since the immediately preceding lien date, or to any person who has filed an exemption claim during the preceding assessment year, the tax bill or copy shall be accompanied by a notice concerning ineligibility for the homeowners' exemption. The notice shall inform the taxpayer of the circumstances under which he becomes ineligible for the exemption, of the penalties which are applicable if he allows the exemption to continue when he is not eligible for the exemption, and of his duty to inform the assessor when he is no longer eligible for the exemption Failure to receive the notice shall not excuse the taxpayer of the duty to inform the assessor of his ineligibility for the

CHAPTER 66

An act to amend Sections 682, 723.072, and 723.101 of the Code of Civil Procedure and to amend Sections 11 and 12 of Chapter 1133 of the Statutes of 1978, relating to the Employees' Earnings Protection Law, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 19, 1979. Filed with Secretary of State May 19, 1979.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 682 of the Code of Civil Procedure, as amended by Chapter 1419 of the Statutes of 1978, is amended to read:

682. The writ of execution must be issued in the name of the people, sealed with the seal of the court, and subscribed by the clerk or judge, and be directed to the sheriff, constable, or marshal, or registered process server, and it must intelligibly refer to the judgment, stating the court, the county, and in municipal and justice courts, the judicial district, where the judgment is entered, and if it be for money, the amount thereof, and the amount actually due thereon, and if made payable in a specified kind of money or currency, as provided in Section 667, the execution must also state the kind of money or currency in which the judgment is payable, and must require the officer to whom it is directed to proceed substantially as follows:

1. If it be against the property of the judgment debtor, it must require such officer to satisfy the judgment, with interest, out of the personal property of such debtor, and if sufficient personal property cannot be found, then out of his real property; or if the judgment be a lien upon real property, then out of the real property belonging to him on the day when the abstract of judgment was filed as provided in Section 674 of this code, or at any time thereafter.

2. If it be against real or personal property in the hands of the personal representatives, heirs, devisees, legatees, tenants, or trustees, it must require such officer to satisfy the judgment, with interest, out of such property.

3. If it be issued on a judgment made payable in a specified kind of money or currency, as provided in Section 667, it must also require such officer to satisfy the same in the kind of money or currency in which the judgment is made payable, and such officer must refuse payment in any other kind of money or currency; and in case of levy and sale of the property of the judgment debtor, he must refuse payment from any purchaser at such sale in any other kind of money or currency than that specified in the execution. Any such officer collecting money or currency in the manner required by this chapter, must pay to the plaintiff or party entitled to recover the same, the same kind of money or currency received by him, and in case of neglect or refusal to do so, he shall be liable on his official bond to the judgment creditor in three times the amount of the money so collected.

4. If it be for the delivery of the possession of real or personal property, it must require such officer to deliver the possession of the same, describing it, to the party entitled thereto, and may at the same time require such officer to satisfy any cost, damages, rents, or profits recovered by the same judgment, out of the personal property of the person against whom it was rendered, and the value of the property for which the judgment was rendered to be specified therein if a delivery thereof cannot be had; and if sufficient personal property cannot be found, then out of the real property, as provided in the first subdivision of this section.

SEC. 2. Section 723.072 of the Code of Civil Procedure, as added by Chapter 1133 of the Statutes of 1978, is amended to read:

723.072. (a) A "withholding order for taxes" is an earnings withholding order issued pursuant to this article to collect a state tax liability and shall be denoted as a withholding order for taxes on its face.

(b) A withholding order for taxes may only be issued under one of the following circumstances:

(1) The existence of the state tax liability appears on the face of the taxpayer's return, including a case where such tax liability is disclosed from the taxpayer's return after errors in mathematical computations in the return have been corrected.

(2) The state tax liability has been assessed or determined, as provided in the Revenue and Taxation Code or Unemployment Insurance Code, and the taxpayer had notice of the proposed assessment or determination and had available an opportunity to have the proposed assessment or determination reviewed by appropriate administrative procedures. If the taxpayer makes a timely request for review of the assessment or determination, the state shall not issue a withholding order for taxes until the administrative review procedure is completed. If the taxpayer is given notice of the proposed assessment or determination but does not make a timely request for review, the state may issue a withholding order for taxes.

(c) In any case where a state tax liability has been assessed or determined prior to January 1, 1980, and the state determines that the requirements of subdivision (b) may not have been satisfied, the state may send a "Notice of Proposed Issuance of Withholding Order for Taxes" to the taxpayer at the taxpayer's last known address by first-class mail, postage prepaid. The notice shall advise the taxpayer that the taxpayer may have the assessment or determination reviewed by appropriate administrative procedures and state how such a review may be obtained. If the taxpayer is sent such a notice and requests such a review within 30 days from the date the notice was mailed to the taxpayer, the state shall provide appropriate administrative procedures for review of the assessment or determination and shall not issue the withholding order for taxes until the administrative review procedure is completed. If the taxpayer is sent such a notice and does not request such a review within 30 days from the date the notice was mailed to the taxpayer, the state may issue the withholding order for taxes.

(d) A withholding order for taxes may be issued whether or not the state tax liability has been reduced to judgment.

SEC. 3. Section 723.101 of the Code of Civil Procedure, as added by Chapter 1133 of the Statutes of 1978, is amended to read:

723.101. (a) An earnings withholding order shall be served by the levying officer upon the employer by delivery of the order to any of the following:

(1) The managing agent or person in charge, at the time of service, of the branch or office where the employee works or the office from which the employee is paid.

(2) Any person to whom a copy of the summons and of the complaint may be delivered to make service on the employer under Article 4 (commencing with Section 416.10) of Chapter 4 of Title 5.

(b) Service of an earnings withholding order shall be made by personal delivery as provided in Section 415.10 or 415.20 or by delivery by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, with return receipt requested. When service is made by mail, service is completed at the time the return receipt is executed by or on behalf of the recipient. If the levying officer attempts service by mail under this subdivision and does not receive a return receipt within 15 days from the date of deposit in the mail of the earnings withholding order, the levying officer shall make service as provided in Article 3 (commencing with Section 415.10) of Chapter 4 of Title 5.

(c) Except as provided in subdivision (b), service of any notice or document under this chapter may be made by first class mail, postage prepaid. If service is made on the employer after the employer's return has been received by the levying officer, the service shall be made by first class mail, postage prepaid, on the person designated in the employer's return to receive notices and at the address indicated in the employer's return, whether or not such address is within the county. Nothing in this subdivision precludes service by personal delivery on the employer before the employer's return has been received by the levying officer, or on the person designated in the employer's return after its receipt. Service by personal delivery under this subdivision may be made by either the levying officer or, if the notice or document runs in the debtor's favor, by the debtor or the debtor's agent who obtains the levying officer's permission to do so.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), if the judgment creditor so requests, the levying officer shall make service of the earnings withholding order by personal delivery as provided in Section 415.10 or 415.20. If the judgment creditor requests that service be made under this subdivision, the fee provided in Section 26750 of the Government Code shall be increased by one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50).

SEC. 4. Section 11 of Chapter 1133 of the Statutes of 1978 is amended to read·

Sec. 11. Any levy of a writ of execution against the earnings of an employee pursuant to Section 682.3 of the Code of Civil Procedure that has been served on the employer prior to January 1, 1980, shall be given effect after the operative date of this act to the same extent as it would have been given effect had this act not been enacted, and the law in effect prior to the operative date of this act shall govern such levy. No earnings withholding order served pursuant to this act on or after January 1, 1980, shall be given any effect during the period that a levy made pursuant to a writ of execution against the earnings of an employee pursuant to Section 682.3 of the Code of Civil Procedure has been given effect, and any earnings withholding order served on an employer during the period such a levy is in effect shall be ineffective.

SEC. 5. Section 12 of Chapter 1133 of the Statutes of 1978 is amended to read:

Sec 12. This act shall become operative on January 1, 1980. The Judicial Council, the state agencies concerned with the implementation of Article 4 (commencing with Section 723.070) of Chapter 2.5, of Title 9, of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and the court clerks and levying officers shall, prior to that date, take all measures necessary in order that the provisions of this act may be implemented on January 1, 1980.

SEC. 6. Sections 1 to 3, inclusive, of this act shall become operative on January 1, 1980.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The Employees' Earnings Protection Law becomes operative on July 1, 1979, and requires the use of forms prepared by the Judicial Council. There is not sufficient time before the operative date for the Judicial Council to prepare the required forms or for counties to follow required public bid procedures for the purchase of forms. It is necessary that this act deferring the operative date of the law go into immediate effect so that the law does not become operative before the required forms are available

(c) Section 21201, relating to bicycle equipment.

(d) Any infraction involving equipment set forth in Division 12 (commencing with Section 24000).

SEC. 2. Section 40610 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

40610 (a) If after an arrest, accident investigation, or other law enforcement action, it appears that a violation has occurred involving a registration, license, or mechanical requirement of this code, and all of the conditions set forth in subdivision (b) are met and the investigating officer decides to take enforcement action, he may prepare, in triplicate, and the violator shall sign, a written notice containing his or her promise to correct the alleged violation and to deliver proof of correction of the violation to the issuing agency.

(b) Use of the notice to correct violation as provided by this section is authorized when all of the following conditions exist·

[Became law without Governor's signature May 20, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State May 21, 1979.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 429.11 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read.

SEC. 2. Section 24201 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

24201. The purpose of this chapter is to clarify and strengthen the provisions of state law applicable to the use of carcinogens in California. It is the intent of the Legislature to provide for effective implementation of the provisions of this chapter

(a) Pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 140) of Division 1 of the Labor Code, the standards board shall adopt standards for carcinogens at least as restrictive as the federal requirements for use of carcinogens promulgated under Section 6 of the Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970 (P.L. 91-596), as such federal requirements may be revised from time to time. Within six months after the effective date of any change in such federal requirements, the standards board shall amend its standards as necessary to comply with this subdivision.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that the state shall exercise strong leadership in preventing employees, employers, and other persons from being exposed to carcinogens. In this connection, it is the further intent of the Legislature that the standards board adopt standards for substances as to which there exists a preponderance of evidence of carcinogenicity, but for which the federal government has not yet promulgated requirements specified in subdivision (a). The division shall determine the necessity for such standards and shall develop and present such proposed standards to the standards board pursuant to Section 147.1 of the Labor Code. The standards board shall on or before January 5, 1978, report to the Legislature on whether it has adopted standards for carcinogens which are (1) not subject to federal requirements specified in subdivision (a) or (2) not specified in subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of Section 24204.

In order to prevent the confiscation of firearms and ammunition from persons who presently possess items which would be classified as curios or relics by this bill it is necessary that this act shall go into immediate effect.

An act making an appropriation for reimbursing local governments for peace officer training, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 23, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State May 23, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1 The sum of six hundred fifty thousand dollars ($650,000) is hereby appropriated from the Peace Officers' Training Fund to the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training in augmentation of Item 357 of the Budget Act of 1977 (Ch. 219, Stats 1977) for allocation to cities, counties, cities and counties, or districts for the purpose of reimbursing such jurisdictions for peace officer training.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The approval of Proposition 13 (now Article XIII A of the California Constitution) at the June 6, 1978 primary election has in certain instances caused a shortage of funds to meet operating and debt expenses of local governments, and has sometimes caused the curtailment or elimination of programs and services which are vital to California's public health, safety, education, and welfare. Local governmental agencies which had their peace officers complete state-mandated and other training during the 1977–78 fiscal year with the expectation of receiving reimbursement for such expenses at a rate previously announced by the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training, have in some instances not received such payment for expenses incurred. Since the reimbursement of such eligible local governmental agencies at the earliest possible time is of critical importance, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 80

An act to augment the Budget Act of 1978, relating to correctional programs, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 23, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State May 23, 1979.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of three million two hundred forty-three thousand thirty-two dollars ($3,243,032) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Controller for augmentation of the Budget Act of 1978 for correctional purposes, to be allocated as follows:

(a) Item 279—For support of Department of Corrections	$1,089,762
(b) Item 286—For support of Department of the Youth Authority	$2,153,270

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The fact constituting such necessity is:

Expanding inmate population has created the need for increased institutional bed capacity in both departments.

CHAPTER 81

An act to amend Section 21167.3 of the Public Resources Code, relating to projects, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 24, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State May 24, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature hereby finds that:

(a) The Congress of the United States, in enacting the Public Utility Regulatory Policies Act of 1978 (Public Law 95-617), has determined that expeditious federal and state decisions for west-to-east crude oil delivery systems are of the utmost priority.

(b) In order to achieve expeditious construction and operation of such crude oil delivery systems, the Congress established, in Title V of such statute, special procedures for ensuring expeditious actions on applications for federal permits, licenses, and approvals required for the construction and operation of west-to-east crude oil transportation systems, with specific reference to the Long Beach-Midland project, as defined in Section 503 of such statute.

SEC. 2. The Legislature hereby declares that it is the policy of the state, consistent with the federal policy established by Title V of the Public Utility Regulatory Policies Act of 1978, that all state, regional, and local agencies in California expedite, to the maximum possible extent, final decisions with respect to any lease, permit, license, certificate, or other entitlement for use required for the construction or operation of the Long Beach-Midland project.

SEC. 3. (a) In furtherance of the policy stated in Section 2 of this act, any action or proceeding to attack, review, set aside, void, or annul a determination, finding, or decision in connection with, or to in any way challenge, the issuance of, a lease, permit, license, certificate, or other entitlement for use required for the construction or operation of the Long Beach-Midland project shall be commenced in the appropriate superior court within 30 days after the effective date of this act or within 30 days after the issuance of such lease, permit, license, certificate, or other entitlement for use, whichever time period is longer. The provisions of this subdivision shall apply notwithstanding any other provision of law which may be inconsistent therewith.

(b) If no such action or proceeding is filed during the time period provided in subdivision (a), the issuance of such lease, permit, license, certificate, or other entitlement for use shall be conclusively presumed to comply with all requirements of law for such lease, permit, license, certificate, or other entitlement for use.

SEC. 4. (a) In furtherance of the policy stated in Section 2 of this act, any action or proceeding specified in subdivision (a) of Section

3 of this act, including the hearing of any such action or proceeding on appeal from the decision of a lower court, shall be given preference over all other civil actions or proceedings in any court, in the matter of setting such action or proceeding for hearing or trial, and in hearing the same, to the extent that all such actions or proceedings shall be quickly heard and determined. The provisions of this section shall supersede any provision of law requiring courts to give preference to other civil actions or proceedings.

(b) In view of the national interest in expediting final decisions on the Long Beach-Midland project, as expressed and determined in Title V of the Public Utility Regulatory Policies Act of 1978, the Legislature hereby respectfully requests the Supreme Court of California to exercise original jurisdiction, as provided by Section 10 of Article VI of the California Constitution, in any action or proceeding specified in subdivision (a) of Section 3 of this act.

SEC. 5. (a) Any action or proceeding specified in Section 3 of this act which challenges a decision of a public agency, which decision was made as a result of a proceeding in which, by law, a hearing has been required to be given, evidence has been required to be taken, and discretion in the determination of facts has been vested in such public agency, shall be in accordance with the provisions of Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

In any such action or proceeding, the court shall not exercise its independent judgment on the evidence but shall only determine whether the decision is supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record.

(b) In any action or proceeding specified in Section 3 of this act to which the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section are inapplicable, the inquiry shall extend only to whether there has been a prejudicial abuse of discretion. Abuse of discretion is established if the public agency has not proceeded in a manner required by law or if the decision is not supported by substantial evidence.

SEC. 6. Section 21167.3 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

21167.3. (a) If an action or proceeding alleging that an environmental impact report does not comply with the provisions of this division is commenced during the period described in subdivision (c) of Section 21167, and if an injunction is issued prohibiting the project from being carried out or approved pending final determination of the issue of such compliance, responsible agencies shall assume that the environmental impact report for the project does comply with the provisions of this division and shall issue a conditional approval or disapproval of such project according to the timetable for agency action in Article 5 (commencing with Section 65950) of Chapter 4.5 of Division 1 of Title 7 of the Government Code. A conditional approval shall constitute permission to proceed with a project when and only when such action or proceeding results in a final determination that the environmental impact report does comply with the provisions of this division.

(b) In the event that an action or proceeding is commenced as described in subdivision (a) but no injunction is sought and granted, responsible agencies shall assume that the environmental impact report for the project does comply with the provisions of this division and shall approve or disapprove the project according to the timetable for agency action in Article 5 (commencing with Section 65950) of Chapter 4.5 of Division 1 of Title 7 of the Government Code. Such approval shall constitute permission to proceed with the project at the applicant's risk pending final determination of such action or proceeding.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to eliminate procedural anomalies in existing law as soon as possible, and to expedite decisions required for the construction and operation of the Long Beach-Midland project for the transportation of crude oil, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 82

An act relating to school facilities, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 24, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State May 24, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Governing Board of the Mendocino Unified School District has actively pursued a plan for the replacement of its older school buildings which do not conform to the structural standards of the so-called Field Act. It has used district funds as well as state school building aid funds for this purpose. It has proved necessary to continue to use the former music building on the Mendocino High School campus. At the same time, the district, which formerly operated a junior-senior high school, found it necessary to establish a middle school to accommodate an increasing student population. The middle school is presently conducted in portable buildings located on the site of a discontinued grammar school. Pending the construction of permanent facilities for the middle school on another site, students attending the middle school must use the grammar school restroom and cafeteria facilities. It is not economically feasible to construct new restroom and cafeteria facilities at the former grammar school site for temporary use by the middle school

The State Allocation Board has granted approval for the former grammar school facilities to be used until June 30, 1977, or until the completion of replacement facilities for the grammar school.

Progress has been made in the replacement and discontinuance of all pre-Field Act buildings of the district, but construction of permanent facilities for the new middle school and the high school's former music building could not be undertaken until the district received voter approval for the commitment of additional local funds for that purpose.

The Comptche Elementary School, a two-room school located in the community of Comptche, is attended by 40 students in kindergarten through grade 4. The relocatable building on the Greenwood School campus serves the children of the town of Elk. Until district funds are available to reconstruct or replace these facilities, their continued use is necessary to serve children living in the Comptche and Elk areas.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 39227 of the Education Code, the Governing Board of the Mendocino Unified School District may use such buildings and related facilities of a former grammar school as the governing board finds necessary for the continued operation of the Mendocino Middle School on the grammar school site, and may continue to use the building and related facilities of the Comptche Elementary School. Use of the former grammar school may continue until permanent facilities for the middle school are constructed and ready for occupancy, or until June 30, 1982, whichever occurs earlier. Use of the Comptche Elementary School, the former music building on the Mendocino High School campus, and the relocatable building on the Greenwood School campus in Elk may continue until June 30, 1982. During the period of continued use authorized by this section, the buildings and related facilities of the former grammar school, the Comptche Elementary School, the former music building on the Mendocino High School campus, and the relocatable building on the Greenwood School campus in Elk shall not be subject to Article 3 (commencing with Section 39140) or Article 6 (commencing with Section 39210) of Chapter 2 of Part 23 of the Education Code.

SEC. 3. The Bolinas-Stinson Union School District has begun a building program to replace a shop facility and a large two-classroom building which is the original school, neither of which comply with the structural standards prescribed by the so-called Field Act. Since the building program will be completed and the new buildings ready for occupancy by June 1980, it is necessary that the district be authorized to use the nonconforming buildings until June 1980.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 39227 of the Education Code, the Governing Board of the Bolinas-Stinson Union School District may continue to use the buildings described in Section 3 of this act for the remainder of the 1978–79 school year and for the 1979–80 school year. During the period of continued use authorized by this section, such buildings shall not be subject to Article 3 (commencing with Section 39140) or Article 6 (commencing with Section 39210) of Chapter 2 of Part 23 of the Education Code.

SEC. 5 The Governing Board of the Modoc Joint Unified School District needs to conduct a continuation high school program in three classrooms of a school building in Alturas which does not conform to the so-called Field Act. As the district is unable under present law to sell bonds or to levy and collect an additional property tax to pay for a lease-purchase of additional buildings, it is necessary that the existing building be used for such purposes if the continuation high school program is to continue to exist.

SEC 6. Notwithstanding Section 39227 of the Education Code, the Modoc Joint Unified School District may use the existing school building in Alturas described in Section 5 to conduct a continuation high school program until permanent replacement facilities for such purposes are constructed and ready for occupancy, or until June 30, 1982, whichever occurs earlier. During the period of continued use authorized by this section, such buildings shall not be subject to Article 3 (commencing with Section 39140) or Article 6 (commencing with Section 39210) of Chapter 2 of Part 23 of the Education Code.

SEC. 7. In February, 1979, the Planada School District purchased a building to house a special program for mentally gifted minors. The purchase was canceled because of increased costs and difficulties with the manufacturer related to delivery dates. Unexpected increases in enrollment in the school district make it impossible for the district to use any facility for this program except a barracks classroom which does not comply with the standards prescribed by the so-called Field Act. Since the district will purchase or lease a portable classroom by September, 1979, it is necessary that the district be authorized to use the nonconforming building until September, 1979.

SEC. 8 Notwithstanding Section 39227 of the Education Code, the Governing Board of the Planada School District may continue to use the building described in Section 7 of this act until September 1, 1979. During the period of continued use authorized by this section, such building shall not be subject to Article 3 (commencing with Section 39140) or Article 6 (commencing with Section 39210) of Chapter 2 of Part 23 of the Education Code.

SEC. 9. Due to the unique circumstances concerning the construction of permanent facilities for the Mendocino Unified School District the Bolinas-Stinson Union School District, and the Modoc Joint Unified School District, as partially set forth in Sections 1, 3, and 5 of this act, the unique circumstances concerning the lease or purchase of a portable classroom for the Planada School District, as partially set forth in Section 7 of this act, and the limited nature of the exemption provided for in this act, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the Constitution.

SEC 10. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that certain buildings and facilities which are essential to the operation of schools in the Mendocino Unified School District, in the Bolinas-Stinson Union School District, and in the Modoc Joint Unified School District may continue to be utilized without interruption pending the construction of permanent facilities, and in order that a certain building essential to the operation of the Planada School District may continue to be used pending the lease or purchase of a portable classroom, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

SEC. 11. This act shall remain in effect only until June 30, 1982, and as of that date is repealed.

CHAPTER 83

An act to add Section 2006.1 to the Streets and Highways Code, relating to county road commissioner.

[Approved by Governor May 24, 1979. Filed with Secretary of State May 24, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2006.1 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

2006.1. Notwithstanding Section 2006 or Section 2006.5, the board of supervisors of any county may abolish the office of road commissioner if the board transfers all duties of the road commissioner to the county director of transportation. The director of transportation shall not be required to have any special permit, registration, or license. Any civil engineering functions which are required to be performed by the road commissioner shall be performed by a registered civil engineer acting under the authority of the director of transportation

[Approved by Governor May 29, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State May 30, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. In order for San Jose State University to continue to provide adequate student health facilities and proper medical care to its students, it is necessary for San Jose State University to add improvements to its student health center

SEC. 2. Pursuant to the requirement of Section 89702 of the Education Code, the Legislature hereby approves the construction and improvement of the student health center at San Jose State University, and further approves, confirms, validates, and declares legally effective the construction and improvement of the student health centers set forth in Resolution Chapter 25 of the Statutes of 1972, Resolution Chapter 151 of the Statutes of 1973, and Resolution Chapter 127 of the Statutes of 1976. The construction and improvement of the student health center at San Jose State University shall be subject to approval by the State Public Works Board.

SEC. 3. Section 3.4A is added to the Budget Act of 1978, to read:

Sec. 3.4A. The following sums of money, or so much thereof as may be necessary, are hereby appropriated for expenditure during the 1978–79, 1979–80, and 1980–81 fiscal years for expenditures only for the programs contemplated by the State Higher Education Construction Program Bond Act of 1966. All such appropriations shall be paid out of the State Construction Program Fund

Education

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to award a construction contract by June 1, 1979, the Chancellor's office of the State University and Colleges requires approval of an augmentation by the State Public Works Board on May 31, 1979. Unless funds are made available prior to May 31, 1979, the contract award period will have elapsed.

In order for construction of needed improvements to begin immediately at San Jose State University, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 85

An act to amend and repeal Section 2732.15 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to nursing.

[Approved by Governor May 30, 1979. Filed with Secretary of State May 30, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2732.15 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2732.15. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to encourage registered nurses to practice in rural areas which have insufficient numbers of registered nurses to provide comprehensive medical care, as determined by the State Department of Health Services.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any hospital of 100 beds or less and which lies within an area described in subdivision (a) may employ a person who has completed a course of nursing instruction meeting the requirements of Section 2736 in another state, district or territory of the United States, or Canada, to perform the duties of a registered nurse, provided such person has committed no act, which, if committed by a licensee would be a ground for disciplinary action. A person employed pursuant to this subdivision may engage in the practice of nursing upon the issuance of a permit issued pursuant to subdivision (c).

(c) A person, to be employed under subdivision (b), shall apply for the interim permit at the time of application for licensure by examination. The board shall issue such an applicant an interim permit authorizing the applicant to practice nursing pending the results of the first licensing examination following the applicant's employment. If the applicant passes the examination, the interim permit shall remain in effect until a regular renewable license is issued by the board. If the applicant fails the examination, the interim permit shall terminate upon notice thereof by certified mail return receipt requested, or if the applicant fails to receive the notice, upon the date specified in the interim permit.

This section shall remain in effect only until July 1, 1982, and on such date it is repealed.

CHAPTER 86

An act to add Section 1529.5 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to community care facilities.

[Approved by Governor May 30, 1979. Filed with Secretary of State May 31, 1979.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1529.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1529.5. A day care facility for children which provides care for six or fewer children, exclusive of children who reside at the facility, and which also serves as the residence of the licensee, shall be considered a residential use of property for the purposes of all local ordinances, and shall not be classified by a local zoning ordinance in any way which provides or implies that the facility is a business run for profit or differs in any other way from a single-family residence. No conditional use permit, zoning ordinance, or other zoning clearance shall be required for such a facility which is not required of a single-family residence in the same zone. Use of a single-family dwelling for purposes of a day care facility for children serving six or fewer children, exclusive of children who reside at the facility, shall not constitute a change of occupancy for purposes of Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 17910) of Division 13 or local building codes.

Nothing in this section is intended to supersede Section 13143 or Section 13143.6, to the extent that such sections are applicable to day care facilities for children. The provisions of this section shall not be construed to preclude any city, county, or other local public entity from placing restrictions on building heights, setback, or lot dimensions of a day care facility which serves six or fewer children as long as such restrictions are identical to those applied to other single-family residences. The provisions of this section shall not be construed to preclude the application to a day care facility for children of any local ordinance which deals with health and safety, building standards, environmental impact standards, or any other matter within the jurisdiction of a local public entity; provided, that such ordinance does not distinguish day care facilities which serve six or fewer children, exclusive of children who reside at the facility, from other single-family dwellings.

The Legislature finds and declares that there are insufficient numbers of licensed child day care facilities in California, that the need for such facilities will continue to grow with the increase in the number of working mothers, and that many parents prefer to have child day care provided in their neighborhoods in small family homes. The Legislature also finds and declares that some jurisdictions have adopted zoning restrictions which deter the development of small family day care homes. It is the intent of the Legislature to encourage the development of such homes.

CHAPTER 87

An act to amend Section 44270 of the Education Code, relating to certification requirements, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

Except as provided in Section 3542, the commission shall, on or after January 31, 1980, issue to the applicant a permit authorizing operation as a highway contract carrier, if it finds that such carrier was in bona fide operation as a radial highway common carrier on July 1, 1978, or at any time thereafter and on the date of filing.

Upon the issuance of the highway contract carrier permit, the radial highway common carrier permit held by the applicant shall be revoked.

SEC. 3. Section 3578 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

3578. Any person or corporation holding a radial highway common carrier permit on the effective date of this section shall be authorized to continue operations under such permit, unless suspended or revoked by the commission, or otherwise terminated by law or act of the holder, but in no event longer than one year after January 1, 1979, except that if such permit holder shall have filed an application for a certificate authorizing operation as a highway common carrier pursuant to Section 1063.5, or for a permit authorizing operation as a highway contract carrier pursuant to Section 3572 5, operations may be continued pending action by the commission on such application Such carriers, while operating under such radial highway common carrier permits, shall be subject to regulation as highway permit carriers under the provisions of this act.

SEC. 4. Section 3583.1 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

3583.1. Any person or corporation operating as a highway carrier on the effective date of this section, who was engaged in business as an agricultural carrier during the preceding past year, shall file with the commission prior to October 1, 1979, an application for a permit to operate as an agricultural carrier. In lieu of all other fees required by law, the applicant shall pay a fee of twenty-five dollars ($25). The commission shall issue such permit authorizing operation within the area requested in the application without further proceedings.

SEC 5. It is the purpose of the Legislature in enacting this statute to correct inequities that result from inadvertent failure of some radial highway common carriers to file for conversion of their permits before December 31, 1978; and, to correct inequities that result from disqualification of numerous radial highway common carriers to convert their permits due to technical suspension of their permits between July 1, 1978, and December 31, 1978. The Legislature does not intend the amendments enacted by this statute to affect the rights of the parties in pending court litigation.

SEC. 6 This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are Over 2,000 radial highway common carriers were not in bona fide operation continuously from July 1, 1978, to December 31, 1978, because their operating authorities had been suspended, in most cases due to minor technicalities Since this failure to be in bona fide operation continuously during such period has barred these carriers from converting their operating authorities and consequently will impose an unintended and unreasonable hardship upon them, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 93

An act relating to school facilities, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 1, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State June 1, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows

SECTION 1. It has not been possible for the Oakland Unified School District to bring Oakland Senior High School up to the standards prescribed by the so-called Field Act within the time allotted due to delays caused by budget problems, the original design architect, and the concentrated rainfall after the drought.

SEC 2. The governing board of the Oakland Unified School District may continue to use Oakland Senior High School until new school facilities that are being constructed to replace the buildings that comprise such school are completed, or until June 30, 1980, whichever occurs earlier During such period of continued use, the buildings shall not be subject to any of the provisions of Article 3 (commencing with Section 39140) or Article 6 (commencing with Section 39210) of Chapter 2 of Part 23 of Division 3 of the Education Code

SEC 3 Due to the unique circumstances concerning the construction of new school facilities in the Oakland Unified School District, as set forth in Section 1 of this act, and the limited nature of the exemption provided for in Section 2 of this act, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the Constitution.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that buildings which are presently serving the needs of pupils of the Oakland Unified School District may continue to be utilized without interruption while school facilities which meet Field Act standards are brought into use, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 94

An act to add and repeal Section 49557 of the Education Code, relating to school meals.

[Approved by Governor June 6, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State June 6, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature hereby finds that the Bear Valley School District because of transportation scheduling problems and lack of adequate facilities is unable to feasibly serve full meals for needy pupils pursuant to Article 11 (commencing with Section 49550) of Chapter 8 of Part 27 of the Education Code. Problems are most pronounced because Bear Valley School District is located in a rural mountainous area. The district is required to schedule double sessions and its pupils rely totally on bus transportation to get to and from school. Poor weather conditions and the fact that pupils must be bused nearly 40 miles to the closest school compound transportation problems for the Bear Valley School District.

If needy pupils are served full meals at noontime, the full complement of pupils would be on school grounds at the same time. The cafeterias have the capacity only for a fraction of these pupils. Adding to the transportation problem, morning-session pupils would be required to remain 30 minutes after school, and require afternoon-session pupils to arrive 30 minutes early. Therefore, to feed pupils at each separate session, meals would have to be served at the morning and afternoon recess. When this is the case pupils will be fed just two and one-half hours after arriving from home, and do not require a full meal.

Due to the unique circumstances in the Bear Valley School District, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable to it within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the Constitution.

SEC. 2. Section 49557 is added to the Education Code, to read:

49557 Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Bear Valley School District shall be permitted to meet the requirement to provide a nutritionally adequate meal for needy pupils as described in Sections 49550 and 49553 in the following manner:

(a) All needy students, kindergarten through grade 12, will be offered foods from the following five food groups:

(1) Two ounces of meat or a meat alternate.

(2) Vegetable or fruit.

(3) Vegetable or fruit.

(4) One serving of bread or the equivalent.

(5) One-half pint fresh fluid milk (whole, non-fat, low-fat, flavored or buttermilk).

The total serving of items (2) and (3) shall equal three-fourths of a cup.

(b) When pupils select foods from at least three of the five groups listed above, this constitutes a reimbursable meal pursuant to the provisions of Section 49536.

(c) The Bear Valley School District shall continue to emphasize nutrition education.

(d) The Legislative Analyst shall monitor the program and provide a report to the Legislature thereon by March 1, 1982.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1982, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1982, deletes or extends such date.

CHAPTER 95

An act to amend Sections 31453 and 31582 of the Government Code, relating to the County Employees Retirement Law of 1937.

[Approved by Governor June 6, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State June 6, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 31453 of the Government Code is amended to read:

31453. An actuarial valuation shall be made within one year after the date on which any system established under this chapter becomes effective, and thereafter at intervals not to exceed three years. The valuation shall be conducted under the supervision of an actuary and shall cover the mortality, service, and compensation experience of the members and beneficiaries, and shall evaluate the assets and liabilities of the retirement fund. Upon the basis of the investigation, valuation, and recommendation of the actuary, the board shall, at least 60 days prior to the beginning of the succeeding fiscal year, recommend to the board of supervisors such changes in the rates of interest, in the rates of contributions of members, and in county and district appropriations as are necessary. With respect to the rates of interest to be credited to members and to the county or district, the board may, in its sound discretion, recommend a rate which is higher or lower than the interest assumption rate established by the actuarial survey No adjustment shall be included in the new rates for time prior to the effective date of the revision.

SEC. 2. Section 31582 of the Government Code is amended to read.

31582. The county auditor shall certify to the board at the end of each month or at the end of each pay period the total amount of compensation paid safety members of the retirement association covered by Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 31662), and the total amount of compensation paid all other members of the retirement association, and the auditor shall thereupon transfer from the appropriation to the retirement fund the percentage of this amount determined pursuant to Sections 31453, 31453.5 and 31454. Until such determination, the amount of the transfer shall be 23.77 percent of the total compensation of all safety members covered by Article 7 5 (commencing with Section 31662) and 8.85 percent of the total amount of compensation of all other members.

The board of supervisors may authorize the county auditor to make an advance payment of all or part of the county's estimated annual contribution to the retirement fund, provided that the payment is made within 30 days of the commencement of the county's fiscal year. If the advance is only a partial payment of the county's estimated annual contribution, transfers from the appropriation to the retirement fund shall be made at the end of each month or at the end of each pay period until the total amount estimated for the year is contributed. This amount shall be adjusted at the end of the fiscal year to reflect the actual contribution required for that year 51057. Prior to the commitment of moneys under this part for the financing of a housing development as provided in Articles 1 to 4 inclusive, of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 51100) of this part, the agency shall take adequate measures to assure (a) the economic feasibility of the housing development, (b) the financial eligibility of the housing sponsors and tenants, (c) the consistency of the proposed housing development with the current housing objectives of the agency, (d) the sufficiency of access of the housing development to supporting social services, public mass transit services and other transportation, schools, employment, and retail merchants, and (e) that the location of the proposed housing development is consistent with the agency's policies of dispersing housing developments throughout communities and of avoiding undue concentration of lower income households. Wherever possible, the agency shall verify such facts before financing is committed.

In providing for dispersal of housing developments, the agency shall consider economic feasibility, which shall be determined in light of all relevant factors, including the assistance programs and funds which could be utilized to reduce costs. Nothing in this section shall prohibit the agency from financing housing developments in neighborhood preservation areas in a manner that would otherwise be in conflict with the agency's policies respecting dispersal of housing developments or concentration of lower income households, where necessary to accomplish the purposes for which financing or loan insurance is made available by the agency in such an area

SEC. 23. Section 51063 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

For purposes of this section, displacement includes relocation occurring because of a qualified person or family's inability to pay increased rentals resulting from rehabilitation, or involuntary temporary or permanent displacement of a qualified person or family to allow rehabilitation work to be done.

SEC. 24. Section 51065 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

51065. SEC. 25. Section 51066 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read

51066. The agency shall establish a grievance procedure or require housing sponsors to establish such a procedure, or both, for the purpose of resolving complaints by housing sponsors and tenants of housing sponsors and contractual disputes between two or more housing sponsors or between a housing sponsor and a tenant of such housing sponsor. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no individual or family shall be evicted from a housing development unless the following requirements are met·

(a) The eviction is for good cause as defined by rules and regulations of the agency.

(b) Eviction proceedings shall be commenced by the giving of notice as required by Section 1946 of the Civil Code or Section 1161 or 1161a of the Code of Civil Procedure and served as provided by Section 1162 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Before a right to a hearing vests, the tenant must pay rent for the two-week hearing period to the owner or to an escrow account of the agency, if not already paid.

A defendant in an unlawful detainer proceeding may assert as a defense the failure of the plaintiff or the agency to comply with the requirements of this section or regulations adopted pursuant to this section. (b) Establish minimum reserves to be maintained by nonprofit and limited-dividend housing sponsors of rental and cooperative housing developments.

(c) Fix and alter from time to time a schedule of rents such as may be necessary to provide residents of rental and cooperative housing developments who are persons and families of low or moderate income with affordable rents to the extent consistent with the maintenance of the financial integrity of the housing development and to provide profits to housing sponsors subject to the limitations of Section 51202. Income from commercial facilities constituting a portion of a single housing development financed pursuant to this part shall, to the extent they receive the benefit of below-market-interest financing from the agency, assist in the support of appurtenant residential facilities. No housing sponsor shall increase the rent charged on any assisted rental or cooperative unit of a housing development without the prior permission of the agency, which shall be given only if the housing sponsor affirmatively demonstrates that such increase is required to defray necessary operating costs or avoid jeopardizing the fiscal integrity of the housing development or to provide the agreed rate of return with respect to additional equity money contributed by investors pursuant to Section 51202, and additional debt service and necessary operating costs with respect to increases in mortgage loans for improvements to the housing development deemed necessary by the agency.

Applications to the agency for permission to adjust rents shall include a statement of the existing and proposed rent for each unit, a detailed statement of the necessity and authority for the increase under this subdivision, and the extent to which rent increases would be paid by residents of assisted units and not offset by increased subsidy payments. SEC. 27. Section 51228 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

51228. At the time a mortgage loan commitment is made to finance any rental or cooperative housing development, a written agreement between the agency and housing sponsor shall be executed, designating the number of units to be made available on a priority basis within such housing development to very low income households, to other persons and families of low or moderate income, and to other households. If the number of units occupied by very low income households in any housing development ever falls below the number agreed to by the agency and housing sponsor, then units which become available for occupancy shall, subject to available subsidies be made available on a priority basis to very low income households until the number of units so occupied equals at least the number specified in the agreement. The agency may from time to time review agreements designating the allocation of units and, subject to agreement with the housing sponsor, may increase the number of units to be made available to very low income households if consistent with maintenance of the financial integrity of the housing development and continuance of permitted earnings distributions, or may establish minimum rents or minimum incomes for occupancy of units becoming vacant and not otherwise allocated to very low income households if necessary to the financial integrity of the housing development and continuance of permitted earnings distributions.

SEC. 28 Section 51301 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read

51301. The agency shall, after public hearings, establish priorities for the allocation of financing assistance pursuant to this chapter among eligible areas and counties and cities throughout the state. In so doing, the agency shall take into account the following factors, to the extent applicable:

(a) The impact of financing assistance in upgrading substandard residential structures to decent, safe, and sanitary condition.

(b) The impact of financing assistance in stablilizing urban neighborhoods and preventing or arresting the process of deterioration.

(c) The impact of financing assistance in effectuating the efficient utilization of commitments of housing subsidies, thereby increasing housing opportunities for lower income households and very low income households.

(d) The impact of financing assistance in complementing the local utilization of community development funds made available pursuant to Title 1 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 (Public Law 93-383).

(e) The availability and feasibility of alternative means to achieve substantially the same results as financing assistance provided pursuant to this chapter.

(f) The availability of efficient and effective public mass transit service for the residents of the neighborhood assisted. Other things being equal, preference shall be given to preserving neighborhoods where efficient and effective public mass transit service exists.

SEC. 29. Section 51302 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

51302. Upon application by a local agency supplying such supporting information and data as the agency may require, the agency may designate an area within a city or county as a concentrated rehabilitation area if it makes the following findings:

(a) The area was selected by the legislative body after citizen participation.

(b) The area is an area of substantial deterioration of residential structures, as evidenced by a significant number of older and deteriorating residential structures in such area requiring rehabilitation.

(c) Rehabilitation assistance is necessary to enable and encourage residents in such area to cooperate in a local program of concentrated enforcement of rehabilitation standards.

(d) Rehabilitation of residential structures will arrest deterioration in the area.

(e) Rehabilitation of residential structures in the area is economically feasible.

(f) The local agency has offered to contract with the agency to (1) provide necessary supporting neighborhood public improvements and services, such as street improvements, landscaping and acquisition of open space, undergrounding of utility lines, and construction of drainage facilities in the area for which eligibility has been requested, and (2) provide concentrated and continuing enforcement of rehabilitation standards in such area.

(g) The local agency has agreed to make every effort to prevent unnecessary displacement in accomplishing rehabilitation and has an adequate program of relocation advisory assistance for persons unavoidably displaced due to rehabilitation.

(h) The supply of housing available to very low income households at affordable rents and the supply of housing available to other persons and families of low or moderate income at affordable rents will not be reduced within the area because those displaced will receive relocation payments and be able to obtain standard housing in the area. Alternatively, standard housing will be available at affordable rents in equally desirable neighborhoods, expanding the range of housing opportunities for minorities and lower income households.

(i) The local agency has adopted a housing element in compliance with Section 65302 of the Government Code, and with housing element guidelines, which sets forth an effective plan for systematic enforcement of state and local building and housing standards throughout its jurisdiction.

(j) The application is consistent with local housing assistance plans adopted pursuant to the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 (Public Law 93-383).

(k) The local agency has satisfied such other pertinent criteria as the agency may by regulation require.

(l) The local agency has investigated the current and planned levels of public transit service for the area.

SEC. 30. Section 51307 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

51307. In addition, neighborhood improvement loans may be provided, on the following terms:

(a) Neighborhood improvement loans shall not be subject to the conditions applicable to mortgage loans or construction loans made for housing developments, except as follows:

(1) Residential structures financed shall be deemed to be housing developments, and their owners housing sponsors, for purposes of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 50900) and Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 50950) of this part, but excluding Sections 50952 and 50958.

(2) All powers and duties specified in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 51050) as to housing developments shall apply to residential structures financed by neighborhood improvement loans, except that the exercise of powers specified in Section 51064 shall be permissive.

(3) Neighborhood improvement loans shall be subject to such conditions as may be provided by agreement between the agency and a local public entity administering the program and as provided for specifically in this part.

(b) Neighborhood loans shall be made at market interest, except that loans to persons and families of low or moderate income for residential structures of one to four units which are to be occupied by the owner may be made at lower interest rates based on income.

(c) Neighborhood improvement loans shall be made by the administering agency or local public entity or qualified mortgage lender.

(d) Neighborhood improvement loans shall be made only for residential structures.

(e) Refinancing may be provided, but only as necessary to permit the owner to afford the cost of rehabilitation or to minimize rent increases for occupants of the structure whose rents would otherwise exceed affordable rents due to the expense of rehabilitation, and provided that the cost of rehabilitation is at least 20 percent of the principal amount of the loan.

(f) Neighborhood improvement loans other than for refinancing shall be made for rehabilitation costs. In addition to the actual rehabilitation cost, if any, loans may be made for general repairs and improvements to the structure in amounts not in excess of the greatest of:

(1) Two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) per dwelling unit.

(2) Twenty percent of rehabilitation costs in the case of a residential structure other than a residential structure of one to four units to be occupied by the owner.

(3) Forty percent of rehabilitation costs in the case of a residential structure of one to four units to be occupied by the owner.

(g) The agency shall require that borrowers contract during the term of the loan not to raise residential rents over an amount which the agency by regulation establishes will yield a fair rate of return and will allow for increases reasonably necessary to provide and continue proper maintenance of the property.

"Rehabilitation costs," as used in this section, may include development costs, as defined, which are incurred in the rehabilitation of a housing development or residential structure and such other costs for general renovation of the building as are permitted by agency regulations.

Nothing in this section shall authorize financing for the acquisition of residential structures. The agency may by regulation provide for such additional conditions and agreements, not inconsistent with this section, as are deemed necessary to further the purposes of this part.

SEC. 31. Section 51611 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

51611. "Qualified rehabilitator" means a housing sponsor which is certified by the agency to be qualified according to experience, financial capability, and such other pertinent criteria as the agency may establish by regulation, to carry out activities to rehabilitate and revitalize neighborhood preservation areas through loans insured pursuant to this part.

SEC. 32. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to clarify the meaning of the term "persons and families of low and moderate income" in legislation taking effect January 1, 1979, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 97

An act to amend Sections 50002, 50003, 50004, 50005, 50407, 50452, 50557, 50952, and 51225 of, to add Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 50200) to Part 1 of Division 31 of, to repeal Section 50008 of, and to repeal and add Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 50150) of Part 1 of Division 31 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to housing, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately

[Approved by Governor June 6, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State June 6, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 50002 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50002. The Congress of the United States has established, as a national goal, the provision of a decent home and a suitable living environment for every American family and the Legislature finds and declares that the attainment of this goal is a priority of the highest order The national housing goal, as it applies to California, is deserving of adoption by the Legislature, with the accompanying commitment to guide, encourage, and direct where possible, the efforts of the private and public sectors of the economy to cooperate and participate in the early attainment of a decent home and a satisfying environment for every Californian

SEC. 2. Section 50003 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50003. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that, as a result of public actions involving highways, public facilities, and urban renewal projects, and as a result of poverty and the spread of slum conditions and blight to formerly sound neighborhoods, there exists within the urban and rural areas of the state a serious shortage of decent, safe, and sanitary housing which persons and families of low or moderate income, including the elderly and handicapped, can afford. This situation creates an absolute present and future shortage of supply in relation to demand, as expressed in terms of housing needs and aspirations, and also creates inflation in the cost of housing, by reason of its scarcity, which tends to decrease the relative affordability of the state's housing supply for all its residents

(b) To provide a decent home and suitable living environment for every California family is the basic housing goal of state government. The Legislature recognizes that the California Statewide Housing Plan shows the magnitude of this goal by documenting a substantial need for rehabilitation of existing housing, demolition and replacement of severely dilapidated housing, construction of new apartments, houses, and mobilehomes, construction or rehabiliation of housing for year-round hired and seasonal farmworkers as well as housing for migrant farmworkers, and the provision of financial assistance to a substantial number of lower income households in order to meet standards for affordable rent or housing cost. Private enterprise and investment, without governmental assistance, cannot economically achieve the needed construction of decent, safe, and sanitary housing at rents or purchase prices which persons and families of low or moderate income can afford, nor can it provide the urgently needed rehabilitation of existing housing.

(c) The shortage of decent, safe, and sanitary housing is inimical to the safety, health, and welfare of the residents of the state and sound growth of its communities.

(d) In order to remedy such shortages, it is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this division to provide a comprehensive and balanced approach to the solution of housing problems of the people of this state.

(e) This section shall not be interpreted as requiring state actions to meet housing goals without legislative authorization, or as requiring such legislative action.

SEC. 3. Section 50004 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50004. The Legislature finds and declares that it is to the economic benefit of the state and a public purpose to encourage the availability of adequate housing and home finance for persons and families of low or moderate income, and to develop viable urban and rural communities by providing decent housing, enhanced living environment, and increased economic opportunities for persons and families of low or moderate income.

SEC. 4. Section 50005 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50005. The Legislature finds and declares that full cooperation and coordination with the cities and counties of the state in meeting the housing needs of the state on a level of government which is as close as possible to the people it serves is essential if workable housing programs are to be developed and implemented.

The provision to local governments of financial resources, statistical data, and technical assistance is necessary to implementation of public programs to meet housing needs with adequate consideration of the relationship between housing and the community in which the housing is located.

SEC. 5. Section 50008 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 50150) of Part 1 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 50150) is added to Part 1 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 3. AGENCY AND DEPARTMENT RESPONSIBILITIES

50150. This chapter sets forth the general responsibilities and roles of the Business and Transportation Agency, the Department of Housing and Community Development, and the California Housing Finance Agency in carrying out state housing policies and programs. It is declaratory of existing law as to those roles and responsibilities, and shall not be construed as creating additional responsibilities.

50151. The Secretary of the Business and Transportation Agency shall be responsible for allocating financial aid and contributions made available directly to state government or to the agency by any agency of the United States for the purpose of subsidizing housing for persons and families of low or moderate income.

The agency shall have priority among all other units of state government for receipt of federal housing subsidies for use in connection with its lending and insurance programs.

50152. The department shall be the principal state department responsible for coordinating federal-state relationships in housing and community development, except for housing finance, and for evaluating the operations and accomplishments of other state departments as they affect housing and community development. It shall have primary responsibility for development and implementation of housing policy.

In addition, the department shall be the primary agency in the implementation of that policy. The types of programs for which the department is responsible include, but are not limited to, technical assistance, rental subsidies, predevelopment loans, loans and grants for solar energy installation, grants and loans for the construction and rehabilitation of housing for persons and families of low or moderate income, and financial and other assistance to local public entities and nonprofit organizations for housing-related services. The department is also responsible for the development and enforcement of building and housing standards and regulations as provided by law to protect the public's health and safety. Nothing in this section is, however, intended to supersede the provisions of Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 17910) of Division 13.

The department annually shall report on the department's progress toward the accomplishment of goals and objectives, and compliance with priorities stated in the plan. All housing programs not expressly assigned to other agencies shall be assigned to the department for implementation.

50153. To further the goals of this division and to enable the success of a statewide housing program, it is essential, and the Legislature intends, that the agency and the department shall closely coordinate their activities to assure that the goals and purposes of this division are realized To this end, the Secretary of the Business and Transportation Agency and the director of the department have been given a role on the board which administers the agency and approves major contractual agreements, and a veto power over agency regulations in certain policy areas as specified in Section 50462, and the agency is required to coordinate its activities with the department. Subject to these restrictions, however, and when carrying out its own unique responsibilities, the agency is relatively free of regulation by other agencies of state government.

50154 The California Housing Finance Agency, within the Business and Transportation Agency, is a primary agency in the implementation of state housing policy. The agency's role is to make financing opportunities available for the construction, rehabilitation, and purchase of housing for persons and families of low or moderate income by (a) borrowing in the securities markets and relending to housing sponsors, developers, and homeowners and (b) insuring loans made by the agency or by others for the same purposes. In general, the agency pays for its operations out of the excess of its interest revenue from loan repayments over the cost of the money it borrows or, in the case of insurance, by the excess of fees charged for the provision of insurance over the value of claims paid. The agency shall seek to implement the goals, policies, and objectives of the California Statewide Housing Plan and shall annually report on its progress toward compliance with priorities in the California Statewide Housing Plan.

SEC. 8. Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 50200) is added to Part 1 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 4. GENERAL PROVISIONS

50200. The exercise of powers specified in this division will be in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state, for their well-being and prosperity, and for the improvement of their social and economic conditions. Therefore, this division shall be liberally construed to effect its purposes. In the event of conflict between this division and any other provision of law, the provisions of this division shall be deemed controlling. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, or section of this division is held invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, the decision shall not affect or impair any of the remaining provisions.

50201. Nothing in this division shall preclude the establishment of direct relationships between the federal government and local public entities or shall in any way alter the authority of local public entities to directly receive federal funds, nor shall anything in this division be construed to supersede or affect any other provision of law relating to the control of funds by local public entities. Further, nothing in this division shall affect the authority or reduce the obligations specified in Chapter 16 (commencing with Section 7250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code with respect to payment of relocation assistance or prevent the receipt or disbursement of federal funds made available to any governmental agency for such purpose.

50202. Nothing in this division shall authorize the imposition of rent regulations or controls except by a regulatory contract between the agency or the department, as the case may be, and its housing sponsor or developer, for housing units financed, insured, or otherwise assisted by the agency or by the department, as the case may be. Except for the federal government, the right to control rent on such units shall reside exclusively in the agency or the department, as the case may be, and the housing sponsor or developer so regulated shall not otherwise be subject to controls on rent imposed by any state or local agency or other local public entity.

SEC. 9. Section 50407 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50407 The department shall be the principal state department responsible for coordinating federal-state relationships in housing and community development, except for housing finance. The department shall be the principal state department responsible for implementation of the California Statewide Housing Plan. The department shall continually evaluate the impact upon the state of federal policies and programs affecting housing and community development and encourage full utilization of federal programs available for assisting the residents of this state, the private housing industry, and local public entities in satisfying housing and community development needs in this state Such evaluation shall include an assessment of the coordination between federal housing assistance and public transit service availability. The department shall encourage and assist housing and community development in rural areas and among Indian residents of the state. The department shall encourage mutual self-help projects, home management training, and relocation assistance. The department shall promote maximum utilization of federal subsidies available to meet housing needs of very low income households and other persons and famililes of low or moderate income, or both. The department shall assist communities and persons to avail themselves of state housing programs.

SEC. 10. Section 50452 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50452 The department shall biennially update and provide to the commission, for review, comment, and submission to the Legislature, a revision of the California Statewide Housing Plan. Such proposed revisions shall contain the following segments:

(a) A comparison of the housing goals for the preceding two fiscal years with the amount of construction and rehabilitation achieved and housing assistance provided in such fiscal years

(b) A revision of the minimum housing construction and rehabilitation goals specified in subdivision (b) of Section 50451 for the current year and projected four additional fiscal years ahead.

(c) A revision of the housing assistance goals specified in subdivision (c) of Section 50451 for the current year and projected four additional fiscal years ahead.

(d) A revision of the evaluation required by subdivision (a) of Section 50451 as new census or other survey data become available.

(e) An updating of recommendations for state action which will facilitate the attainment of housing goals established for California.

The Legislature may review, revise, and adopt such biennial updates to the California Statewide Housing Plan.

SEC. 11. Section 50557 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50557. The commission shall review and comment on the California Statewide Housing Plan, and shall provide policy guidance to the Department of Housing and Community Development.

SEC. 12. Section 50952 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50952. The agency shall also seek to attain the following objectives:

(a) Acquisition of the maximum amount of funds available for subsidies for the benefit of persons and families of low or moderate income occupying units financed pursuant to this part.

(b) Housing developments providing a socially harmonious environment by meeting the housing needs of both very low income households and other persons and families of low or moderate income and by avoidance of concentration of very low income households that may lead to deterioration of a development.

(c) Emphasis on housing developments of superior design, appropriate scale and amenities, and on sites convenient to areas of employment, shopping, and public facilities.

(d) Increasing the range of housing choice for minorities in lower income households and other lower income households, rather than maintaining or increasing the impaction of low-income areas, and cooperation in implementation of local and areawide housing allocation plans adopted by cities, counties, and joint powers entities made up of counties and cities.

(e) Reducing the cost of mortgage financing for rental and cooperative housing to provide lower rent for persons and families of low or moderate income.

(f) Reducing the cost of mortgage financing for home purchase, in order to make homeownership feasible for persons and families of low or moderate income.

(g) Identification of areas of low-vacancy rates where construction is needed, of areas of substandard housing where rehabilitation is needed, and of areas of credit shortage where financing is needed for transfer of existing housing, so as to maximize the impact of financing activities on employment, reduction of housing costs, and maintenance of local economic activity.

(h) A balance between urban metropolitan, nonmetropolitan, and rural metropolitan housing developments, and between family housing and housing for the elderly and handicapped, in general proportion to the needs identified in the California statewide housing plan.

(i) Minimization of fees and profit allowances of housing sponsors so far as consistent with acceptable performance, in order to maximize the benefit to persons and families of low or moderate income occupying units financed by the agency.

(j) Full utilization of federal subsidy assistance for the benefit of persons and families of low or moderate income.

(k) Full cooperation and coordination with the local public entities of the state in meeting the housing needs of cities, counties, cities and counties, and Indian reservations and rancherias on a level of government that is as close as possible to the people it serves.

(l) Promoting the recovery and growth of economically depressed business located in areas of minority concentration and in mortgage-deficient areas.

(m) Revitalization of deteriorating and deteriorated urban areas by attracting a full range of income groups to central-city areas to provide economic integration with persons and families of low or moderate income in such areas.

(n) Implementation of the goals, policies, and objectives of the California Statewide Housing Plan.

(o) Location of housing in public transit corridors with high levels of service.

SEC. 13. Section 51225 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

51225. In selecting proposals for financing, the agency shall balance its activity between urban metropolitan, nonmetropolitan, and rural metropolitan areas of the state in general proportion to the needs identified in the California Statewide Housing Plan.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding Section 41603 of the Education Code, the maximum reduction pursuant to Section 41603 for the 1978–79 school year shall be such that no district's revenue is reduced below 85 percent of the sum of the district's projected revenues computed pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Chapter 292 of the Statutes of 1978 as amended by Chapter 332 of the Statutes of 1978, plus the miscellaneous revenues of the district for the 1978–79 school year.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Payments pursuant to these acts are deposited in the general fund of the school districts pursuant to Section 12307 of the Education Code. At least one school district in this state has been unfairly penalized by a reduction in its state aid pursuant to Section 41603 of the Education Code and Section 2 of Chapter 292 of the Statutes of 1978, as amended by Chapter 332 of the Statutes of 1978, as a result of payments deposited in its general fund pursuant to Section 12307 of the Education Code. CHAPTER 106

An act relating to an apportionment to the Bakersfield City School District, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 12, 1979. Filed with Secretary of State June 12, 1979.]

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds that certain school districts prior to June 6, 1978, entered into binding salary contracts for certificated and classified employees containing cost-of-living increases for the 1978–79 school year. The Legislature also finds that the adoption of Proposition 13 has made it extremely difficult for some of these districts to meet these legal obligations and that it would be in the interest of the state to make an advance apportionment to such a district from funds which would otherwise be apportioned to the district in the 1979–80 school year.

SEC. 2. The sum of nine hundred eighty-six thousand eight hundred eighty-seven dollars ($986,887) is hereby transferred from the General Fund to Section A of the State School Fund for apportionment pursuant to Section 41310 of the Education Code to the Bakersfield City School District during the 1978–79 school year. Any apportionments to which the district would otherwise be entitled in the 1979–80 school year shall be reduced by such amount.

SEC. 3. Due to the unique circumstances concerning the school district subject to the provisions of this act, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to permit the apportionment authorized by this act to be made available to the affected district during the 1978–79 school year, and so permit such district a year in which to make an adjustment within its budget, it is necessary that this act go into effect immediately.

Judgment shall be entered immediately by the court clerk in conformity therewith. The judgment so entered shall have the same force and effect as, and shall be subject to all of the provisions of law relating to, a judgment in a civil action; and it may be enforced in the same manner as any other judgment of the court in which it is entered. Enforcement of such judgment shall receive court priority.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (c) of this section, the Labor Commissioner may stay execution of any judgment entered upon an order, decision, or award which has become final upon good cause appearing therefore and may impose the terms and conditions of the stay of execution. A certified copy of such stay of execution shall be filed with the clerk entering the judgment.

(e) When a judgment is satisfied in fact, otherwise than by execution, the Labor Commissioner may, upon the motion of either party or on its own motion, order entry of satisfaction of judgment. The clerk of the court shall enter a satisfaction of judgment upon the filing of a certified copy of such order.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

There is presently considerable court congestion in the superior courts. In order to relieve this burden on the courts as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 108

An act to add Chapter 19 5 (commencing with Section 9780) to Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to aircraft repair

[Approved by Governor June 12, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State June 12, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 19.5 (commencing with Section 9780) is added to Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, to read:

CHAPTER 19.5. AIRCRAFT REPAIR

9780. Any person having a noncommercial aircraft in for repairs or service has the right to request, in advance of any work done, a written estimate or may specify a maximum charge on the total cost of repairs or service to be performed. No charge shall be made for work done or parts supplied in excess of the estimated price without the oral or written consent of the customer which shall be obtained at some time after it is determined that the estimated price is insufficient and before the work not estimated is done or the parts not estimated are supplied. Nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring any person to give a written estimated price if such person does not agree to perform the requested repair.

CHAPTER 109

An act to amend Section 1391 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to health care service plans, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 12, 1979. Filed with Secretary of State June 12, 1979.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1391 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1391. The commissioner may issue an order directing a plan, solicitor firm, or any representative thereof, or solicitor to cease and desist from engaging in any act or practice in violation of the provisions of this chapter.

Within 15 days after service of the order of cease and desist, the respondent may request a hearing on the question of whether acts or practices in violation of this chapter have occurred. If a timely request for a hearing is made, such request shall automatically stay the effect of the order only to the extent that such order either requires the cessation of operation of the plan or prohibits acceptance of new members by the plan. However, no automatic stay shall be issued if any examination or inspection of the plan performed by the commissioner discloses, or reports or documents submitted to the commissioner by the plan on their face show, that the plan is in violation of any fiscal requirement of this chapter or in violation of any requirement of Section 1384 or Section 1385. In the event of such automatic stay, only that portion of the order requiring cessation of operation or prohibiting enrollment shall be stayed and all other portions of the order shall remain effective. If a hearing is held, and a finding is made that the health or safety of the members and potential members of the plan might be adversely affected by its continued operation, the stay shall be terminated. Such a finding shall be made, if at all, not later than 30 days after the date of the hearing.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

A health care service plan may fail to submit reports or documents in compliance with reporting and recordkeeping requirements and such failure may prevent the commissioner from obtaining information demonstrating violations of fiscal requirements of the Knox-Keene Health Care Service Act of 1975 and yet the plan would be eligible for the automatic stay of a cease and desist order, which in view of the time necessary for an administrative hearing, could operate to the serious detriment of subscribers and enrollees of the plan.

CHAPTER 110

An act to add Section 1752.5 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to the Youth Authority.

[Approved by Governor June 15, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State June 15, 1979.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1752.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

1752.5. The director may establish and maintain at any institution or camp under his jurisdiction a canteen for the sale to persons confined therein of candy, nutritional snacks, toilet articles, tobacco products, sundries, and other articles. The canteen shall operate on a nonprofit basis. However, if sales should exceed costs, the surplus shall be deposited in a special fund, to be designated "Benefit Fund." Any moneys contained in such fund shall be used for the benefit of the wards resident at the institution or camp.

CHAPTER 111

An act relating to local agencies, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 15, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State June 15, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding Sections 54902, 54902.1, and 54903 of the Government Code, any exclusion of territory from an improvement district of a municipal water district pursuant to Part 8.5 (commencing with Section 72080) of Division 20 of the Water Code which is completed prior to February 26, 1979, shall be effective for assessment and taxation purposes for the 1979–1980 fiscal year if the required statement and map or plat is filed on or before March 1, 1979.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Sections 54902, 54902.1 and 54903 of the Government Code, any county service area which is formed to provide street lighting services, the formation of which is completed by January 26, 1979, shall be effective for assessment and taxation purposes for the 1979–80 fiscal year if the statement and map or plat required by Sections 54900 and 54901 of the Government Code were filed with the State Board of Equalization and each assessor whose roll is used for the levy on or before March 28, 1979.

SEC 3. Notwithstanding Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because this act is in accordance with the request of a local government entity or entities which desires legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Municipal water districts have utilized the procedures set forth in Part 8.5 (commencing with Section 72080) of Division 20 of the Water Code for exclusion of territory from improvement districts for the purpose of relieving such territory of taxes to be levied upon taxable property in such improvement districts for the payment of principal and interest on outstanding bonds during the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1979. However, Part 8.5 was added to Division 20 of the Water Code by Chapter 404 of the Statutes of 1978, and became effective on January 1, 1979, and it was not possible, therefore, for such municipal water districts to complete such exclusion proceedings and file the statement and map or plat required by Section 54902 of the Government Code before the deadlines specified therein. It is thus necessary, in order to relieve territory

excluded from such improvement districts of taxes levied in the fiscal year 1979–1980 that this act take effect immediately

In addition, in order that assessment and taxation of property in county service areas providing street lighting services may be accomplished in fiscal year 1979–80 in accordance with county service area boundary changes which have taken place, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 112

An act to repeal Division 5 (commencing with Section 14000) of, and to add Division 5 (commencing with Section 14000) to, the Financial Code, relating to credit unions.

[Approved by Governor June 15, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State June 15, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Division 5 (commencing with Section 14000) of the Financial Code is repealed

SEC. 2. Division 5 (commencing with Section 14000) is added to the Financial Code, to read:

CHAPTER 2. FORMATION

Article 1. Incorporation and Bylaws

14100. Credit unions may be incorporated under this division in the same manner as corporations under the General Corporation Law of this state, except as otherwise provided in this division.

14101. The articles of incorporation of every credit union shall set forth the following:

(a) The name of the corporation, which shall include the phrase "credit union."

(b) The authorized number of members or memberships or that the number thereof is unlimited, unless the corporation is formed with authorized shares of stock.

The 10 percent minimum vote may be obtained by accumulating the votes obtained at the meeting, in person or by proxy, or by a mail vote which shall be taken within 30 days prior to or subsequent to the meeting.

(b) The commissioner may approve the amendment according to the resolution adopted by the board of directors if approved by less than 10 percent of the entire membership as provided in this section if he finds, upon the written and verified application filed by the board of directors, that (1) notice of the meeting called to consider the amendment was mailed to each member entitled to vote upon the question, (2) such notice disclosed the purpose of the meeting and properly informed the membership that approval of the amendment might be sought pursuant to this section and (3) a majority of the votes cast upon the question were in favor of the amendment.

(n) The manner in which the guaranty fund shall be accumulated.

(o) The manner in which dividends may be determined and paid to members.

(p) The manner in which the bylaws may be amended.

14104. An amendment to the bylaws of a credit union pursuant to Section 14810 shall not be adopted except upon the submission of the proposed amendment by mail to all members entitled to vote and the affirmative vote of a majority of the members responding to such notice, given in person either at a meeting or by written ballot. Any such amendment to the bylaws adopted by written vote shall be certified by the president and secretary as to the manner by which the matter was submitted and the result of the voting.

Article 2. Certificate to Act as a Credit Union

14150. No membership shares, certificates for funds or other securities shall be issued by any credit union until it has applied for and obtained from the commissioner a certificate authorizing it to act as a credit union.

14151. Applications for a certificate to act as a credit union shall be made in writing to the commissioner, setting forth such information as the commissioner requires. The application shall be verified by one or more officers of the credit union authorized by its board of directors.

14153. Upon the filing of the application for a certificate to act as a credit union, the commissioner shall examine the application together with the other papers and documents filed therewith. The commissioner may make any further investigation of the applicant and its affairs that he deems advisable.

14154. If the commissioner is not satisfied, as provided in Section 14155, he shall deny the application and refuse such certificate and notify the applicant in writing of his decision.

14155. (a) If the commissioner is satisfied that the field of membership of the applicant is not contrary to the principles of organizing credit unions based on common bond of employment, membership, or residence, and does not substantially encroach upon that of any existing credit union to the extent that it will impair the successful operation of either credit union, that the applicant has made a showing as to the economic feasibility of the proposed credit union, that the number of persons eligible for membership is not less than 100, that the responsibility, character, and general fitness of the officers, committeemen, and directors of the applicant are such as to command the confidence of the community and to warrant belief that the business will be operated honestly, fairly, and efficiently within the purposes of this division, the commissioner shall issue to the applicant a certificate authorizing it to engage in and carry on business as a credit union.

(b) Subject to the appropriate findings specified in subdivision (a), nothing in this division shall prohibit the commissioner from issuing a certificate authorizing a credit union for an association or associations of employers located in one reasonably compact geographical area.

14156 Each certificate issued under this division remains in full force and effect until suspended or revoked by the commissioner.

Chapter 3. Administration and Powers of the Commissioner

Article 1. General

14200. The powers of supervision and examination of all credit unions organized under the provisions of this division are vested in the commissioner.

14201. The commissioner may establish such rules and regulations as may be reasonable or necessary to carry out the purposes and provisions of this division.

14203. Upon request of the commissioner, a credit union shall furnish to the commissioner an authorization for examination of financial records of any capital funds, undivided profits, and guaranty funds, maintained in a financial institution, in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 7473 of the Government Code.

14204. If the commissioner upon any examination, or from any report made to him, finds any credit union is violating the provisions of this division, or is insolvent, or is conducting its business in an unsafe or unauthorized manner, he may notify such credit union to, and such credit union shall, cease such practices in the conduct of its business as the commissioner finds unsafe or finds is being conducted in an unauthorized manner. The commissioner may notify such credit union to, and the credit union shall, temporarily suspend or entirely cease the transaction of any new business or such portion thereof as is ordered by the commissioner.

14205. The commissioner may, upon reasonable opportunity to be heard, suspend or revoke any certificate if he finds that the credit union has violated any provisions of this division or any rule or regulation of the commissioner made pursuant to this division.

14206. Whenever a hearing is required or granted by this division the proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and the commissioner has all the powers granted therein.

14207. In any proceeding under this law, the burden of proving an exemption or an exception from a definition is upon the person claiming it.

14208. The commissioner may, after appropriate notice and opportunity for hearing, by order censure, or suspend for a period not exceeding 12 months, or bar from any position of employment or management of, any credit union, any officer, director, or employee of, or person performing similar functions for, a credit union, if the commissioner finds that such censure, suspension or bar is in the public interest, that such person has committed a violation of this division or rule of the commissioner, and that such violation was either willful or caused, or will probably cause, material damage to the credit union or any member thereof.

Article 2. Examinations and Reports

14250. (a) For the purpose of discovering violations of this division or securing information required by him, the commissioner may at any time investigate the affairs and examine the books, accounts, records, and files used in the business of every credit union, whether it acts or claims to act under or without authority of this division. For the purposes of examination and investigation the commissioner and his duly designated representatives shall have free access to the offices and places of business, books, accounts, papers, records, files, safes, and vaults of all such credit unions.

(b) If during any calendar year the commissioner has not examined a credit union pursuant to subdivision (a) or requested an audit report pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 14252, he shall perform such an examination or request such an audit report, as authorized by this division.

14251. The commissioner upon the written consent of any credit union officer or director may make any examination of the credit union in any regularly established office of the commissioner.

14252. (a) In lieu of an annual examination of a credit union, the commissioner may request and the credit union may submit, or the commissioner may approve the request of a credit union to submit, at such credit union's own expense in either case, an audit report containing audited financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles covering the calendar year or, if such credit union has an established fiscal year, then for such fiscal year, within 105 days after the close of such calendar or fiscal year, together with such other relevant information as the commissioner may require. The audited financial statements shall include at least a balance sheet and a statement of income for the year ended on the balance sheet date.

(b) The report and audited financial statements referred to in subdivision (a) shall be accompanied by a report, certificate or opinion of an independent certified public accountant or independent public accountant and shall contain such relevant information as the commissioner may require. The audit shall be conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and the rules and regulations of the commissioner.

(c) If the report, certificate or opinion of the independent accountant referred to in subdivision (a) is in any way qualified, the commissioner may require the credit union to take such action as he deems appropriate to permit an independent accountant to remove such qualification from the report, certificate, or opinion.

(d) The commissioner may reject any financial statement, report, certificate, or opinion filed pursuant to this section by notifying the credit union of its rejection and the cause thereof. Within 30 days after the receipt of such notice, the credit union shall correct such deficiency, and the failure to do so shall be deemed a violation of this division. The commissioner shall retain a copy of all filings so rejected.

(e) The commissioner may by rule or regulation specify the form and content of the reports and financial statements required to be filed pursuant to this section and may require that such reports be verified by the credit union in such manner as he may prescribe.

14253. A credit union shall, when requested by the commissioner, submit its unaudited financial statements, prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and consisting of at least a balance sheet and statement of income as of the date and for the period specified by the commissioner. The commissioner may require the submission of such reports on a monthly or other periodic basis.

14254. On or before 45 days after the 31st day of December of each year every credit union shall make a written report to the commissioner which shall contain a statement of its condition as of December 31st of that year. The report shall be in the form and contain the matters prescribed by the commissioner. Every such report shall be verified by the oath of the president and secretary of the credit union. The verification shall state that the report is true and correct in all respects to the best of the knowledge and belief of the persons verifying it.

14255. Every credit union shall make other special reports to the commissioner as the commissioner may from time to time require. Such reports shall be in the form and filed at such date as prescribed by the commissioner, and shall if required by him, be verified in such manner as he prescribes.

14256. If any credit union fails to make any report required by this division on or before the day designated for the making thereof, or fails to include therein any matter required by the commissioner, such failure is grounds for the suspension or revocation of the certificate authorizing such credit union to act as a credit union, unless the time for filing the report is extended by the commissioner.

Article 3. Possession of Credit Union by Commissioner and Liquidation

14300. If the commissioner finds, after a hearing, unless waived in writing by the licensee, that a credit union has impaired capital or is operating in an unsafe or unsound manner, or has failed to comply with Section 14858, he may take possession of the business and assets of the credit union and maintain possession until such time as he shall permit it to continue business, or its affairs are finally liquidated.

If such credit union submits a satisfactory plan to restore any impairment of capital and to proceed with business in a sound, businesslike manner, the commissioner may permit such credit union to resume possession of the business and assets and operate as a credit union under such conditions as may be imposed by the commissioner in the public interest.

14301. On taking possession of the business and assets of any credit union as provided in this article, the commissioner may proceed to liquidate the credit union in the manner provided by Division 1 (commencing with Section 99) or he may appoint a liquidating agent or a liquidating committee of three members of the credit union to liquidate the business and assets of the credit union in the manner provided in Article 2 (commencing with Section 15250) of Chapter 9, except that in lieu of the certificate required under Section 15252 the commissioner shall prepare and file in the office of the Secretary of State a certificate of commencement of liquidation proceedings upon taking possession of the business and assets, and the commissioner or his authorized deputy shall countersign the certificate referred to in Sections 15257 and 15258 whenever liquidation is involuntary. The commissioner may, however, prepare and file such final certificate whenever he retains possession of the assets of any credit union for the purpose of liquidation. The liquidating agent need not be a member of the credit union to be liquidated and may be a person, firm or corporation as determined by the commissioner.

14302. The commissioner shall supervise the acts of the liquidating agent or the liquidating committee appointed under this article and may remove the liquidating agent or any member of the liquidating committee in his discretion.

14304. If the commissioner retains possession of the assets of such credit union for the purpose of liquidation, the commissioner shall use the services of civil service employees of the commissioner's office and the attorneys employed by the commissioner or the Department of Justice shall render all necessary legal services, as the commissioner may request.

Article 4 Costs of Administration

14350. To defray the costs of administration of this division, including investigations and supervision, but not including the costs of examination referred to in Section 14353, except as otherwise provided therein, the commissioner shall require every credit union licensed by him or coming under his supervision to pay in advance to him for the ensuing year charges and assessments in accordance with the following schedule:

Total assets of credit union	Amount of assessment
Assets of $1,000 or less	$20.00
Over $1,000, but not more than $50,000	$20.00 plus $2.00 per $1,000 of assets in excess of $1,000
Over $50,000, but not more than $150,000	$118.00 plus $1.75 per $1,000 of assets in excess of $50,000
Over $150,000, but not more than $300,000	$293.00 plus $1.50 per $1,000 of assets in excess of $150,000
Over $300,000, but not more than $500,000	$518.00 plus $1.00 per $1,000 of assets in excess of $300,000
Over $500,000, but not more than $750,000	$718.00 plus $0.50 per $1,000 of assets in excess of $500,000
Over $750,000	$843.00 plus $0.25 per $1,000 of assets in excess of $750,000

14351. On or before the 30th day of November of each year the commissioner shall notify each credit union by mail of the amount assessed and levied against it and that amount shall be paid on or before the 31st day of December of that year. If payment is not made to the commissioner by that time, the certificate then in effect authorizing such credit union to act as a credit union may by order be summarily suspended or revoked by the commissioner 10 days after the giving of notice by the commissioner that such amount is due and unpaid. If, after such an order is made, a request for hearing is filed in writing and a hearing is not held within 60 days thereafter, the order is rescinded as of its effective date.

14352. If the commissioner determines that the charges and assessments set forth in this division for any year are in excess of the amount necessary, or are insufficient, to meet the expenses of administration of this division, including examinations and supervision, for that year, the assessments and charges for the following year shall be adjusted on a pro rata basis in accordance with the percentage of such excess or insufficiency as related to the actual charges and assessments for the year for which such excess or insufficiency occurred, in order to recover the actual costs of administration.

14353. If an examination is made or services performed, the credit union examined or to which services are rendered shall pay to the commissioner the actual cost thereof, including the actual amount of salary or other compensation paid to the persons making such examination or rendering special services and overhead costs in connection therewith as fixed by the commissioner. If recovery of such costs cannot be made from the credit union, such costs may be added to the assessment provided for in Section 14350.

14354. All fees charged and collected under this division shall be paid at least once each week, accompanied by a detailed statement thereof, into the treasury of the state to the credit of the General Fund.

CHAPTER 4. MANAGEMENT AND OPERATIONS

Article 1. General

14400. The capital of a credit union consists of the payments made by members on shares.

14402. Every credit union may purchase and hold, either individually or jointly with other credit unions or affiliated organizations, a lot and building to be employed principally for the transaction of business, and to provide for future expansion of the facilities of such organizations. Any excess space which is not occupied by the organizations purhasing and holding the building may be leased to the public. The lot and building may be sold, if all the holders of the property join in its sale.

14403. Every credit union may purchase and hold, either individually or jointly with other credit unions or affiliated organizations, furniture, fixtures, vaults, and other personal property necessary to carry on its business, and to equip or furnish any space in any building purchased or held individually or jointly with other credit unions or affiliated organizations under authorization of Section 14402, whether occupied by the credit union or leased to the public. The personal property may be sold, if all the holders of the property join in its sale.

14404. No credit union shall invest more than one-fifth of its paid-in and unimpaired capital and surplus in the investments and property authorized by Sections 14402, 14403, 14650 and 14651.

14405. Every credit union may:

(a) Become a member of any organization or organizations composed of credit unions, credit associations, or chambers of commerce

(b) Pay such dues and assessments as may be levied upon it by any organization of which it is a member.

14406. The capital funds, undivided profits and guaranty fund of any credit union may be deposited in any of the following:

(a) Commercial banks or trust companies, incorporated under the laws of this state.

(b) National banks located in this state.

(c) Shares or certificates for funds received or any form of evidence of interest or indebtedness issued by any credit union in this state, organized under the provisions of this division or the statutes of the United States relating to credit unions.

(d) Accounts with, investment certificates or withdrawable shares of, any savings and loan association doing business in this state and which is an insured institution as defined by Title IV of the National Housing Act; provided that the total sum invested by any credit union in any one savings and loan association pursuant to this section shall not exceed the greater of one-fourth of 1 percent of such savings and loan association's total withdrawable accounts or the maximum amount of insurance on a single savings and loan account then provided by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation of the United States under the provisions of subdivision (b) of Section 401 (subdivision (b) of 12 U.S.C. 1724) and subdivision (a) of Section 405 (subdivision (a) of 12 U.S.C. 1728) of Title IV of the National Housing Act.

14407. (a) Whenever the losses of any credit union resulting from a depreciation in the value of its securities or otherwise exceed its undivided earnings and reserve fund so that the estimated value of its assets is less than the total amount due its shareholders, the credit union may, by a three-fourths vote of the entire membership at a meeting called to consider the matter, order a reduction of the liability to each of its shareholders, so as to divide the loss equitably among such shareholders. If thereafter the credit union shall realize from such assets a greater amount than was fixed in the order of reduction, such excess shall be divided among the shareholders whose assets were reduced, but to the extent of such reduction only

(b) The commissioner may approve a reduction in the liability on shares approved by less than three-fourths of the entire membership as provided in subdivision (a) if he finds, upon the written and verified application filed by the board of directors, that (1) notice of the meeting called to consider the question was mailed to each member entitled to vote upon such question, (2) such notice disclosed the purpose of the meeting and properly informed the membership that approval of such reduction in liability might be sought pursuant to this subdivision, and (3) that a majority of the votes cast upon the question were in favor of such reduction in liability.

14554. No member of the supervisory committee shall serve as a member of the credit committee or board of directors or as an employee of the credit union.

14555. Article 5. Credit Committee and Loan Officers

14600. Every credit union shall have a credit committee of at least three persons, each of whom shall be a member of the credit union. The bylaws of the credit union shall provide that either the members of the credit committee shall be elected by the members of the credit union at their annual meeting or they shall be appointed by the board of directors. Loan officers of credit unions with paid-in and unimpaired capital and surplus of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) or more may approve loan applications within the limits set by the credit committee, but in no event to exceed the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) plus the unpledged shares of the borrower for any 14603 The credit committee or a loan officer may approve in advance, upon their own motion or upon the application of any member, the extension of credit to any member and loans may be granted to such member within the limit of such extension of credit; however, a loan officer may not approve the extension of credit to any member in an amount greater than the unsecured loan limit of each borrower allowed by Section 15100. Where an extension of credit has been approved, applications for loans need not be approved by the credit committee or loan officer as long as the aggregate amount of such loan or loans does not exceed the limit of such extension of credit. The credit committee or loan officer shall review, from time to time, all extensions of credit approved by them and any extension of credit approved for any member shall expire if such member becomes ineligible for a loan or becomes more than 90 days delinquent in his obligations to the credit union.

such investment is approved by the commissioner. Such investment shall not exceed, in the aggregate, 5 percent of its paid-in and unimpaired capital and surplus.

14652 Every credit union may invest in securities authorized in Sections 1352 to 1366, inclusive, and in Section 1372 of the Banking Law

14653. With the written approval of the commissioner, credit unions may invest in trusts organized solely for the purpose of investing in United States government securities and United States government agency securities; provided such trust is formed by an organization composed of credit unions described in subdivision (a) of Section 14405 or an organization of credit union associations.

(b) At the close of each accounting period, 10 percent of the gross income of the corporation shall be transferred to such fund until the fund equals or exceeds 20 percent of the credit union's gross assets When the fund falls below 20 percent of the credit union's gross assets, it shall be replenished by contributions of 10 percent of the gross income of the corporation or in such lesser amounts as may be needed to maintain a level of 20 percent of gross assets, except that any credit union participating in a program of share insurance approved by the commissioner may, in lieu of compliance with this section, maintain such guaranty fund as may be specified by the commissioner.

(c) Any sums recovered on items previously charged to it shall be credited to such fund.

14701 Losses incurred by a credit union may be charged to its guaranty fund.

14702. In addition to the guaranty fund, special reserves shall be established when required by regulation or when found necessary by the board of directors of the credit union or by the commissioner.

Article 8. Penalties

14750. Any officer, director, member of a committee of a credit union, or loan officer appointed pursuant to Section 14602 who knowingly permits a loan to be made or participates in a loan to a nonmember of the corporation, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

14751. Any officer, director, member of a committee, or loan officer appointed pursuant to Section 14602 who violates Section 14750 is primarily liable to the corporation for the amount of the loan. The illegality of the loan is no defense in an action by the corporation to recover the amount of the loan.

Chapter 5. Members

14800. Every credit union may admit to membership those persons qualified for membership upon payment of an entrance fee or the purchase of a share in the credit union.

14801. Every credit union may expel members as provided in Section 14456 of this division.

14802. Each member shall keep the credit union informed of his current address. In the event a member fails to do this, a charge may be made to the member's share account for the actual cost of necessary locator service incurred in determining such an address; provided, however, that such charge shall not exceed five dollars ($5). Such charge shall be made only for amounts paid to a person or concern normally engaged in providing such service and shall be made against the account or accounts of any one member no more than once in any 12-month period.

14803. No credit union shall pay any commission or compensation for securing members.

14804. The members of a credit union shall hold an annual meeting for the election of directors and a supervisory committee upon such notice and, if provided for in its bylaws, the election of a credit committee at such time and place as the bylaws provide.

14805. Special meetings may be held upon order of the board of directors and shall be held upon the written request of 10 members or 3 percent of the membership, whichever is greater. 14806. In credit unions formed on or after September 15, 1945, no member shall have more than one vote irrespective of the number of shares held by him.

14807. Any member may withdraw from the credit union at any time. A withdrawing member shall give 60 days' notice of intention to withdraw shares and 30 days' notice of intention to withdraw certificates unless a longer period of notice is required by the commissioner.

14808. All amounts paid on shares or on certificates of an expelled or withdrawn member, with any dividends or interest credited thereto to the date of withdrawal or expulsion, shall be paid to such members as funds become available, and after deducting all amounts due from the member to the credit union. Withdrawing or expelled members have no further rights in the credit union, but are not by expulsion or withdrawal released from any liability to the credit union or its creditors.

14809. Members who leave the field of membership may be permitted to retain their membership in the credit union unless otherwise provided in the credit union's bylaws.

14810. The bylaws may provide that any action or specifically designated actions which may be taken at a meeting of the shareholders may be taken without a meeting by submitting the matter to all members who would be entitled to vote upon such action at a meeting, for their written vote. Any such bylaw shall require that each matter submitted to the members for their written vote shall be certified by the president and secretary as to the manner by which the matter was submitted and the result of the voting.

No member shall vote by proxy upon any matter referred to all members for their written vote pursuant to this section, and the powers of any previously issued or outstanding valid proxy are suspended as to any such action.

CHAPTER 6. SHARE ACCOUNTS AND CERTIFICATES FOR FUNDS

Article 1. General

14850 The Corporate Securities Law relating to the necessity of qualification of the sale of securities does not apply to the sale and issue of membership shares, certificates for funds, and other securities, by credit unions organized under this division.

14851. Every credit union may issue shares to any qualified member and issue such shares in joint tenancy to the member and any person designated by such member. If the shares are issued in joint tenancy with a member and any other person not a member, there shall be printed on the certificate or other evidence of shares, the words "Transferable only to qualified members."

14852. Every credit union may charge a reasonable fee for the transfer of its shares.

14853 A credit union may issue shares or investment certificates to a minor of any age or maintain any other account authorized for credit union members for a minor, and receive payments thereon by or for such minor. Such minor is entitled to withdraw, transfer, or pledge any shares or certificates or other moneys owned by him and to receive from the credit union all dividends, interest, or other money due thereon in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as an adult. The receipt or acquittance of a minor whose parent or guardian has consented to the account, whether before or after any transaction therein, constitutes a valid release and discharge of the credit union for the payment of dividends, interest, or other money due to such minors.

14854. Shares or certificates for funds owned in joint tenancy and all dividends and interest thereon may be paid to any of the joint tenants during their lifetime or to the survivor or any one of the survivors of them after the death of one or more of the joint tenants. By written instructions of all joint tenants given to the credit union, the joint tenants may require the signatures of more than one of such persons during their lifetimes or of more than one of the survivors after the death of any one of them on any notice of withdrawal, request for withdrawal, check endorsement or receipt, in which case the credit union shall pay withdrawals, dividends and interest only in accordance with such instructions, but no such instructions shall limit the right of the sole survivor or of all of the survivors to receive withdrawal payments, dividends and interest. Payment as provided in this section and the receipt or acquittance by any joint tenant is a valid and sufficient release and discharge of the depository credit union for all payments made on account of shares or certificates for funds owned in joint tenancy prior to the receipt by such credit union of notice in writing from any one of them not to make payments in accordance with the terms of such shares or certificates for funds or of such written instructions. After receipt of such notice a credit union may refuse, without liability, to pay withdrawals, dividends, or interest pending a determination of the rights of the parties.

14855. Every credit union may receive money and accumulate funds to be loaned and execute certificates for funds for the money received. The certificates for funds shall specify the date, amount, rate of interest, and when the principal and interest are payable.

14856. Every credit union may impress a lien upon the shares and dividends of any member to the extent of any loans made to him and for any dues or charges payable by him.

14857. Every credit union may cancel the shares of any member who withdraws or is expelled, and apply the value of the shares to the liquidation of the member's indebtedness to the credit union.

14858. Every credit union shall apply for and obtain insurance as provided for by Title II of the Federal Credit Union Act (Title 12 U.S.C., Sec. 1781 and following), or alternatively, a form of comparable insurance acceptable to the commissioner, for the purpose of insuring its members' share accounts, by January 1, 1980. In seeking and retaining such insurance, a credit union may do all things and assume and discharge all obligations required of it when not in conflict with the laws of this state. Credit unions who have not obtained insurance by January 1, 1980, shall commence with orderly liquidation or merger proceedings, subject to the provisions of this division.

14859. No credit union shall pay any commission or compensation for the sale of its shares.

14860. No credit union shall issue shares or accept funds in trust, except in the name of the trustee, as such, for a specified beneficiary whose residence shall be disclosed to the credit union by the trustee.

14861 No credit union shall issue shares to anyone not qualified for membership under its bylaws, except shares issued in joint tenancy as provided in Section 14851.

14862. The board of directors may classify the share accounts of the credit union relative to the rights, restrictions, and dividend rates as prescribed in regulations which shall be promulgated by the commissioner.

14863. (a) A credit union shall not impose any charge on a member or depositor holding a periodic certificate for funds for the failure of such member or depositor to invest, or for the late investment of, any agreed periodic installment investment in such a periodic certificate for funds. A credit union shall pay interest on periodic certificates for funds at the same rate of interest per annum as is paid on certificates for funds as to which a member or depositor has not agreed to make periodic installment investments

(b) As used in this section "periodic certificate for funds" means a certificate for funds under which a member or depositor undertakes to make periodic investments of a specified amount into one account, except, however, a periodic certificate for funds shall not mean an impound account established for the purpose of payment of taxes or other expenses and obligations in connection with a loan secured by real property.

14864. The shares and certificates for funds received of members of any credit union and all the accumulation on such shares and certificates are exempt from sale on execution and proceedings supplementary thereto, to the amount of one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500).

The procedure set forth in Section 690.50 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall be followed in claiming the exemption from execution pursuant to this section

Article 2. Dividends

14900. The board of directors of any credit union may declare dividends at such intervals and for such periods as the bylaws shall provide 14901 The rates of dividends and terms of payment may be established in advance by action of the board of directors.

14902. The directors of any credit union may, for the dividend period, declare dividends from its undivided profits as provided by law, but no credit union shall credit or pay any dividends to its shareholders until it has transferred to its guaranty fund such part of its gross income as is required by Section 14700.

14903. To determine the undivided profits, the credit union may credit the profit and loss account with the earnings from all sources during the dividend period. The credit union shall then deduct the following amounts for the dividend period:

(a) All expenses paid or incurred of whatever nature in the management of its affairs, the collection of its debts or the transaction of its business.

(b) The interest paid, or accrued and unpaid, on debts owing by it.

(c) All losses sustained by it in excess of its guaranty fund.

14904. The credit balance of the profit and loss account as determined pursuant to Section 14903 constitutes the undivided profit of the credit union at the close of such period.

14905. Shares which are fully paid by the first day of any calendar month of any period for which dividends are declared, are entitled to a proportionate part of the dividends calculated from the first day of that month.

14906. The bylaws of any credit union may provide that shares which are fully paid by the 10th day of any calendar month of any period for which dividends are declared are entitled to a proportionate part of the dividend calculated from the first day of that month. The bylaws of any credit union may provide that shares are entitled to dividends irrespective of the fact that any part or all the money paid upon such shares has been withdrawn during any portion of any dividend period. The bylaws of any credit union may provide that shares are entitled to a proportionate part of dividends calculated from the date the shares are fully paid to the date the shares have been withdrawn during any period for which dividends are declared.

14907. Amounts paid or credited by a credit union to its members or depositors on or before the 30th day after the close of its income year shall be deemed for all purposes as paid or credited by the credit union upon the last day of the income year. This section is applicable only to credit unions as entities and does not apply to the members or depositors thereof.

CHAPTER 7. LOANS

Article 1. General

14950. (a) Every credit union may make loans to its members upon such terms and conditions as the bylaws provide and as the credit committee approves.

(b) With the specific approval of the board of directors, a credit union may accept notes receivable from nonmembers as consideration for the sale of assets owned by the credit union through bona fide transactions. Transactions subject to this subdivision shall not be deemed to be loans to nonmembers subject to the provisions of Section 14750.

14951 Applications for loans shall be in writing and shall state the purpose for which the loan is desired and the security offered, except loans made pursuant to an extension of credit as provided in Section 14603.

14952. No credit union shall make a loan to a member under 18 years of age that will result in such member being obligated to the credit union in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000) unless such loan is secured in the manner provided for in subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 14955.

14953. (a) Any loan in excess of five thousand dollars ($5,000) shall be secured either (1) by real or personal property to the extent that the loan exceeds five thousand dollars ($5,000), or (2) in the manner provided in Section 14955 of this article.

(b) If the security offered is an endorsed note as provided in subdivision (a) of Section 14955, a signed and dated financial statement shall be taken from each person who endorses the note and the sufficiency of the financial responsibility of every such endorser shall be verified by a majority of the credit committee. Loans secured by the signatures of a borrower and endorser or endorsers shall not exceed the amount that may be loaned to the borrower without security pursuant to Section 15100 of this article, plus an equivalent amount for each endorser, plus the amount of shares or certificates for funds pledged to secure the obligation.

14954. Comakers other than the borrower are endorsers for the purposes of this chapter.

14955. "Security" includes, but is not limited to, the following:

(a) A note endorsed by any member of the credit union or by any other person.

(b) Any obligation wherein the payment of interest and principal is guaranteed by any municipal government, state government, the government of the United States, or by any instrumentality of the United States.

(c) The amounts which a member has invested in the credit union, either in the form of shares or in funds received. If the amount invested by a member is equal to the loan made to that member, he shall not be required to give further security.

14956. A credit union may make simultaneously to any member different classes of loans, either secured or unsecured.

14957 Whenever the directors or the credit committee deem any loan unsafe they may require additional security to be given by the borrower, and if such security is not furnished as required, they may declare the loan due and take action to collect the same.

Article 2. Maximum Charges and Fees

15000 No credit union shall charge more than 15 percent per annum simple interest on the unpaid balance, for any loan, including all charges incident to the making of the loan. Charges incident to the making of a loan, as used in this section, do not include the cost of any insurance or any cost of acknowledgment, certification, registration, recordation or filing, independent appraisals, separate escrows, and other fees actually paid by a credit union to third parties in connection with a loan. A charge for special services applied to a share account is not a charge incident to the making of a loan when an overdraft from the share account results in a loan advance, provided that the same charge is applied to the share account whether or not an overdraft occurs.

15001. Every credit union may assess charges to members for failure to meet punctually obligations to such credit union. No credit union shall impose late charges in case of failure of members to make payments when due, in excess of 3 percent of the payment due with a minimum charge of not less than five cents ($0.05). A late charge may be made only once for each delinquent payment and may not exceed five dollars ($5).

Article 3. Loans to Directors, Officers and Committee Members

15050. No credit union shall:

(a) Make loans to any director, officer, member of the credit committee, or member of the supervisory committee directly or indirectly unless the loan complies with all lawful requirements of this division with respect to loans to other borrowers and is not on terms more favorable than those extended to other borrowers.

(b) Make loans to any director, officer, member of the credit committee, or member of the supervisory committee, directly or indirectly, not fully secured by shares or certificates for funds unless all of the following requirements are satisfied:

(1) Upon the making of the loan, the aggregate amount of loans outstanding, except loans fully secured by shares, to directors, officers, members of the credit committee and their alternates, or members of the supervisory committee will not exceed 10 percent of the unimpaired capital and surplus of the credit union.

(2) The loan, except any portion fully secured by shares, does not exceed 1 percent of the unimpaired capital and surplus of the credit union, or the maximum obligation to the credit union prescribed by Section 15101, whichever is less.

(3) The loan is approved by the credit committee and by the board of directors.

(4) The borrower takes no part in the consideration of his application and does not attend any committee or board meeting while his application is under consideration.

(5) The names of members of the credit committee and board of directors who voted to authorize or ratify the loan shall be entered in their respective minutes.

(c) Permit any director, officer, member of the credit committee, or member of the supervisory committee to become surety for any loan or advance made by the credit union.

For the purpose of this section "loan" includes any extension of credit in which the board of directors of the credit union fixes an aggregate amount of credit which may be extended during a given period not in excess of 12 months.

15051. The board of directors shall declare the office of any director, officer, or committee member vacant if such person fails to reduce any indebtedness to the credit union for which he is liable in a timely manner according to the terms of the obligation.

Article 4. Limitations

15100. No credit union shall make any loan in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000) without security, except that credit unions with paid-in or unimpaired capital and surplus in excess of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) may make a loan, without security, of 1 percent of paid-in and unimpaired capital and surplus or two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500), whichever is less, provided, that credit unions with paid-in and unimpaired capital and surplus in excess of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) may make a loan, without security, of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) plus one-fourth of 1 percent of paid-in and unimpaired capital and surplus, or five thousand dollars ($5,000), whichever is less.

15101. No credit union shall make a loan which will result in any member being obligated to the credit union in excess of three thousand dollars ($3,000) or 10 percent of its paid-in and unimpaired capital and surplus, whichever is greater, but not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000) plus the then unpledged shares, except that credit unions with assets of one million dollars ($1,000,000) or more may make loans to members resulting in the member being obligated to the credit union up to, but not exceeding, the amounts indicated in the following schedule:

Paid-in and unimpaired capital and surplus	Maximum obligation to credit union per member
$1,000,000 but less than $2,000,000	$12,000 plus the amount secured by shares of the credit union or certificates for funds.
$2,000,000 but less than $3,000,000	$15,000 plus the amount secured by shares of the credit union or certificates for funds.

$3,000,000 or more	⅔ of 1% of the paid-in and unimpaired capital and surplus of the credit union plus the amount secured by shares of the credit union or certificates for funds, not to exceed a maximum total loan of $100,000 per member or such greater amount as the commissioner, in his discretion, may permit.

15102 Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 15101, no credit union shall make loans to any one family whereby total liability of the family to the credit union would be greater than double the amount permitted by Section 15101. "Family" as used in this article shall mean persons related by blood or marriage and residing in the same household.

15103. If a loan is made for educational purposes and such loan would cause the aggregate of loans to any one family to exceed the limitations imposed by Section 15102, such educational loan shall not be included in computing the aggregate of loans pursuant to Section 15102, provided (1) that such educational loan is secured in accordance with subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 14955 and (2) that the aggregate amount of such educational loan exempted by this subdivision from Section 15102 shall not exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

CHAPTER 8. DISCLOSURE OF CREDIT UNION ACCOUNT CHARGES

15150. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Account" means a withdrawable share account which is established by one or more natural persons, or an unincorporated association of natural persons, pursuant to which the depositor may from time to time make deposits and effect withdrawals and as to which the address shown on the records of the credit union is within the United States or its territories.

(b) "Depositor" means a person who is identified on the signature card for an account, or in the absence of a signature card, a person who has an interest in an account which is reflected on the records of the credit union for that account to whom statements of account or other notices are normally given, or the agent of such person.

(c) "Charges" means those charges which a credit union may, from time to time, impose on an account in the normal course of business in the operation of the account, and does not include:

(1) Charges which may be imposed for extraordinary services furnished at the specific request of the depositor.

(2) Charges or amounts required to be disclosed to the depositor pursuant to the Truth in Lending Act (15 U.S.C. 1601, et seq.) and Regulation Z (12 C.F.R. 226.1, et seq.), as amended.

15151. A credit union shall maintain a current written schedule or schedules containing (1) the amount or, if no amount can be stated, the method of determining the amount of each charge which the credit union may impose on an account; (2) provisions in the bylaws relating to the frequency and conditions under which dividends will be paid, including any provision for nonpayment of dividends on deposits made after the beginning of the dividend payment period or withdrawn before the end of such period; and (3) the effective date thereof. The schedule or schedules shall be available for inspection by the credit union members or prospective members at each branch office in California at which such accounts are maintained and written materials setting forth the information contained in such schedule shall be displayed and be available to the credit union members or prospective members in an area of the credit union which is open to the credit union members or prospective members. The schedule or schedules and written materials need not contain information relating to an account for an unincorporated association of natural persons.

If the depositor is not physically present at a branch office of the credit union at the time initial deposit is accepted and the written statement has not been furnished previously, the credit union shall deliver the written statement to the depositor personally, or mail or deliver it to the depositor at the address shown on the records of the credit union for that account, not later than 10 days after the date of the initial deposit

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), before any charge which has been disclosed in a statement furnished to a depositor is increased for that account, or any charge which has not been disclosed in a statement furnished to a depositor is imposed on that account, or any charge is imposed on an account if a statement has not been furnished as required by subdivision (a), the credit union shall deliver to the depositor personally, or mail or deliver to the depositor at the address shown on the records of the credit union for that account, a written statement or statements disclosing the increased charge or new charge in the manner provided in subdivision (a), or the written statement or statements required by subdivision (a), not less than 15 days prior to the date on which the charge is to be increased or first imposed unless such charge or change therein is required by law or regulation.

(c) With respect to an account established prior to July 1, 1977, unless previously furnished, a credit union shall deliver to its depositors personally, or mail or deliver to its depositors at the address shown on the records of the credit union not later than the date of the notice of the next succeeding meeting of members as set forth in the bylaws of the credit union pursuant to Section 14103 a current written statement or statements disclosing the information described in Section 15151 which is in effect at that time.

(d) If there is more than one depositor with respect to an account, the credit union need furnish the information required by this section to only one of them.

(e) An unincorporated association of natural persons may execute a written waiver of the requirements of this section when establishing an account which provides for specially negotiated arrangements with respect to the charges, interest rate, and method or frequency of computing and paying interest applicable to such account.

15153. (a) A credit union which imposes a charge or an increase thereof on an account in violation of Section 15152 is liable to the depositor of that account in an amount equal to the sum of all charges or the increases therein imposed on that account in violation of that section.

(b) A credit union shall not be liable for a violation of Section 15152 if the credit union shows by a preponderance of the evidence that the violation was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error, that the credit union maintains reasonable procedures to avoid such error, and that such error was corrected by furnishing the written statement or statements in the manner provided in Section 15152 within 60 days from the date on which the violation occurred, provided that the credit union credits to the depositor's account the amounts described in subdivision (a) not later than 20 days from the date on which the violation was discovered.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law but subject to the power of the court to transfer actions or proceedings under Title 4 (commencing with Section 392) of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the proper court for the trial of an action under this chapter is the court in the county in which the branch office of the credit union is located at which the account is maintained as to which a violation of this chapter is alleged to have occurred.

(d) Reasonable attorney's fees may be awarded by the court to the prevailing party in an action under this section which is brought by an aggrieved depositor.

(e) An action to enforce a liability established by subdivision (a) shall be commenced within one year from the date on which the violation of Section 15152 occurs.

(f) A credit union shall not be liable for any failure to comply with the provisions of this article to the extent that any of such provisions are inconsistent with federal statutes or regulations.

(g) The remedies and defenses provided in this section are cumulative to, in addition to, and not exclusive of, any other remedies or defenses which a depositor or a credit union may have in an action or proceeding arising out of the same facts but not brought pursuant to this article. If a credit union complies with the provisions of subdivision (c), any duties imposed by this chapter shall not result in a cause of action which did not exist prior to the operative date of this chapter.

15154. A credit union shall inform a depositor of the applicable period for the escheat of the account to the state and the circumstances under which escheat may occur pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1513 of the Code of Civil Procedure at the time of furnishing the written statement described in subdivision (a) of Section 15152, and the information described in this section may be included in the written statement. The failure to provide information pursuant to this section shall not constitute a violation of Section 15152.

CHAPTER 9. MERGER, DISSOLUTION AND CONVERSION

Article 1. Merger

15200 Any credit union may, with the approval of the commissioner, and in accordance with such rules as the commissioner makes, merge with another credit union of like community interest in membership, or with a central credit union, under the charter of such other credit union.

15201. (a) The merger shall be made pursuant to any plan agreed upon by the majority of the board of directors of each credit union joining in the merger, and approved by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the members of each such credit union, in person or by proxy, at meetings of the members called for that purpose or by written consent of a majority of the members of each credit union.

(b) The commissioner may approve a merger according to the plan agreed upon by the majority of the board of directors of each credit union if approved by less than a majority of the entire membership as provided in this section if he finds, upon the written and verified application filed by the board of directors, that (1) notice of the meeting called to consider the merger was mailed to each member entitled to vote upon the question, (2) such notice disclosed the purpose of the meeting and properly informed the membership that approval of the merger might be sought pursuant to this section and (3) a majority of the votes cast upon the question were in favor of the merger.

15202. After the agreement by the directors and approval by the members of each credit union of the plan of merger, a majority of the board of directors of each credit union shall execute a certificate, which shall be verified by their oath and shall set forth all of the following:

(a) Time and place of the meeting of the board of directors at which the plan was agreed upon, and a copy of the resolution or other action by which the plan was agreed upon.

(b) The vote in favor of adoption of the plan.

(c) The time and place of the meeting of the members at which the plan agreed upon was approved or if the voting was conducted by mail in lieu of a meeting pursuant to Section 14810, the date the results of the written votes were certified by the president and secretary.

(d) A statement of the mailing of notice of the time, place, and purpose of the meeting of the members or if the voting was conducted by mail in lieu of a meeting pursuant to Section 14810, a statement as to the mailing of a notice of the proposed merger to all members for their approval, and a ballot to all members.

(e) The vote by which the plan was approved by the members.

(f) The plan of merger agreed upon, and the written approval thereof, by the commissioner.

15203. The certificate of merger shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, and copies, certified by him, shall be filed in the office of the commissioner.

15204. (a) Upon any merger effectuated as provided in this article, all property, property rights, and interests of the merged credit union shall vest in the surviving credit union, without deed, endorsement or other instruments of transfer, and all debts, obligations and liabilities of the merged credit union are assumed by the surviving credit union under whose charter the merger has been effected. Thereafter the charter of the merged credit union is void, and the existence of the merged credit union as a legal entity separate from the surviving credit union terminates.

(b) Whenever a credit union having any real property in this state merges with another credit union and vests such real property in the surviving credit union, the filing for record in the office of the county recorder of any county in this state in which any of the real property of such disappearing credit union is located of a copy of the certificate of dissolution certified by the Secretary of State shall evidence record ownership in the surviving credit union of all interest of such disappearing credit union in and to the real property located in that county.

Article 2. Dissolution

15250. (a) Whenever the members of the board of directors by a three-fourths majority vote recommend the dissolution of any credit union, the members of the credit union, at any meeting specially called to consider the subject, may elect to dissolve the credit union, by the vote or written consent of a majority of members.

(b) The commissioner may approve a dissolution according to the recommendation of a three-fourths majority vote by the board of directors of any credit union if approved by less than a majority of the entire membership as provided in this section if he finds, upon the written and verified application filed by the board of directors, that (1) notice of the meeting called to consider the dissolution was mailed to each member entitled to vote upon the question, (2) such notice disclosed the purpose of the meeting and properly informed the membership that approval of the dissolution might be sought pursuant to this section, and (3) a majority of the votes cast upon the question were in favor of the dissolution.

(c) Whenever the members of the board of directors vote to recommend the dissolution of any credit union, the credit union shall not make any loans, withdrawal of shares, or withdrawal of certificates for funds until such time that the members either approve or disapprove the recommendation of the board of directors.

15251. If the dissolution of the credit union is voted the board of directors of the credit union shall elect a committee of three members or may by resolution appoint a liquidating agent to liquidate the assets of the credit union.

15252. Promptly thereafter the president or vice president and secretary or assistant secretary shall sign and verify a certificate stating that the credit union has elected to wind up and dissolve and showing by what vote or consent such election was made. The certificate shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, and copies of the certificate certified by the Secretary of State shall be filed with the commissioner.

15253. After a vote to dissolve a credit union no business may be carried on by the credit union except in the proper course of liquidation.

15254. The committee or the liquidating agent in charge of liquidation may sue in the name and on behalf of the credit union, and may sell or otherwise dispose of the assets of the credit union, in whole or in part, at public or private sale.

15255. After determining that all known debts and liabilities of the credit union have been paid or adequately provided for, the committee or the liquidating agent in charge of liquidation shall distribute all the remaining assets of the credit union among the members or shareholders. Each share is entitled to its proportionate amount of the assets according to the amount paid on that share.

15256. For the purpose of taxation pursuant to the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Law, the corporate existence of any credit union is terminated at the time of the filing of a certificate of election to dissolve with the Secretary of State.

15257. When a credit union has completely wound up, all of its known debts and liabilities actually paid or adequately provided for or paid as far as its assets permit, and its known assets distributed, a majority of the committee or the liquidating agent in charge of liquidation shall sign and acknowledge a certificate stating that the credit union has been completely wound up, its known assets distributed, any tax or penalty due under the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Law paid, and its other known debts and liabilities actually paid or adequately provided for or paid as far as its assets permit and that the credit union is dissolved.

15258 The certificate of dissolution shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State and copies, certified by him, shall be filed in the office of the commissioner.

15259. At any time during the liquidation process, the committee or the liquidating agent in charge of liquidation may be relieved of their duties at the discretion of the commissioner and the commissioner shall thereafter act as the liquidating agent or appoint a liquidating agent to complete the dissolution of the credit union.

15260. Where the commissioner finds that on the date of filing with the Secretary of State of the certificate of election to wind up and dissolve, the credit union does not have sufficient assets to return to its shareholders their investment in full, the credit union shall not be liable for the costs of administration assessed under Article 4 (commencing with Section 14350) of Chapter 3.

Article 3. Conversion Into Federal Credit Union

15300 A credit union may convert itself into a federal credit union by following the procedure contained in this article.

15301. Upon recommendation of the board of directors the members of any credit union may by an affirmative majority vote of such members resolve to convert such credit union into a federal credit union.

15302. Within 10 days after the meeting at which the members determine to convert into a federal credit union, the credit union shall file in the office of the commissioner a certificate verified by the affidavit of the board of directors of such credit union. The certificate shall contain a copy of the minutes of the meeting and a statement that the members have approved the determination to convert such credit union into a federal credit union. A like certificate shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State.

15303 A certified copy of the certificate required by Section 15302 filed in the office of the Secretary of State is presumptive evidence of the holding of the meeting and the action taken thereat.

15305 At the time the conversion into a federal credit union becomes effective, the credit union ceases to be supervised by this state and all of the property of the credit union, including all of its right, title, and interest in and to all property of every kind and character immediately, by operation of law and without any conveyance, or transfer and without any further act or deed, is vested in the credit union under its new name and style as a federal credit union and under its new jurisdiction.

15306. The converted federal credit union shall have, hold, and enjoy the property mentioned in Section 15305 in its own right as fully and to the same extent as the property was possessed, held, and enjoyed by it as a state credit union and the federal credit union shall continue responsible for all of the obligations of the state credit union to the same extent as though the conversion had not taken place. The federal credit union shall be merely a continuation of the state credit union under a new name and new jurisdiction and such revision of its corporate structure as is considered necessary for its proper operation under the new jurisdiction.

Article 4. Conversion of Federal Credit Union

15351. The officers and directors of the federal credit union shall be the officers and directors of the credit union after conversion takes effect, to hold office until their successors are elected and qualified.

15352. The commissioner may conduct a joint audit of the federal credit union with federal auditors. Upon completion of such audit, he shall issue a certificate to the National Credit Union Administration showing the results of such audit. The commissioner may also certify that the transfer of the assets and liabilities from the federal credit union to a credit union subject to the laws of this state has been effected in compliance with the applicable laws of this state. The costs of the audit mentioned in this section shall constitute a charge against the credit union.

15353 Copies of the minutes of the proceedings of the meeting of the members in which they voted to convert into a state credit union, verified by the affidavit of the board of directors of the credit union, shall be filed within 10 days after the meeting in the office of the commissioner, and, in duplicate, with the National Credit Union Administration.

15354. The verified copies of the minutes of the meeting, when filed as required by Section 15353, are presumptive evidence of the holding of, and the action taken at, the meeting.

15355. After a meeting as provided in Section 15350, the federal credit union shall take or cause to be taken such action in the manner prescribed and authorized by this division as shall make it a credit union of this state. The directors shall file the documents and take such proceedings as are required by this division in the case of the original incorporation of a credit union.

15356. The directors of a credit union converted from a federal credit union may insert in the articles of incorporation the following statement: "This credit union is incorporated by conversion from a federal credit union."

15357. Within 10 days after the filing of the articles of incorporation with the Secretary of State, there shall be filed, with the National Credit Union Administration, two copies of the articles of incorporation, certified by the Secretary of State.

15358. Upon the filing of the articles of incorporation with the Secretary of State, the credit union ceases to be a federal credit union and is a credit union under the laws of this state. All of the property of such credit union, including all of its right, title, and interest in and to all property of every kind and character immediately, by operation of law and without any conveyance or transfer, and without any further act or deed, is vested in the credit union under its new name and style as a credit union and under its new jurisdiction.

15359. The converted credit union shall have, hold, and enjoy the property mentioned in Section 15358 in its own right as fully and to the same extent as the property was possessed, held, and enjoyed by it as a federal credit union and the converted credit union continues responsible for all of the obligations of the federal credit union to the same extent as though conversion had not taken place. The converted credit union is merely a continuation of the federal credit union under a new name and new jurisdiction and such revision of its corporate structure as is considered necessary for its proper operation under the new jurisdiction.

CHAPTER 10. CENTRAL CREDIT UNIONS

Article 1. Definitions

15400. "Central credit union" means a credit union whose membership includes, but is not limited to, other credit unions, members of credit unions, credit union employees, employees of organizations serving credit unions, and the families of such members

Article 2 General

15450. Central credit unions may be organized and operated under this division Each such credit union shall use the word "central" in its official name.

15451. (a) A central credit union may, with the approval of the commissioner and under such regulations as he shall prescribe, admit to membership groups of employees of a common employer, of at least 25 in number and whose place of employment is located within 25 miles of the principal office of the central credit union, or is located within the boundaries of a greater or lesser geographic area prescribed by the commissioner, upon application made by the employer and approval of the board of directors of the central credit union.

(b) Whenever the employee group exceeds 500 in number, such employees may organize a separate credit union, and thereafter the employees will no longer be eligible for membership in the central credit union. The central credit union, upon a plan approved by the commissioner, shall transfer the member accounts of such employees to any credit union formed by them.

CHAPTER 113

An act to amend Section 12403.7 of the Penal Code, relating to tear gas

[Approved by Governor June 15, 1979. Filed with Secretary of State June 15, 1979.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12403.7 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12403.7. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any person may purchase, possess or use tear gas and tear gas weapons for the projection or release of tear gas if such tear gas and tear gas weapons are approved by the Department of Justice and are used solely for self-defense purposes, subject to the following requirements:

(1) No person convicted of a felony under the laws of the United States, of the State of California, or any other state, government, or country shall purchase, possess, or use tear gas or tear gas weapons.

(2) No person who is addicted to any narcotic drug shall purchase, possess, or use tear gas or tear gas weapons.

(3) No person shall sell or furnish any tear gas or tear gas weapon to a minor

(4) (i) No person shall purchase, possess or use any tear gas weapon which expels a projectile, or which expels the tear gas by any method other than an aerosol spray, or which is of a type, or size of container, other than authorized by regulation of the Department of Justice.

(ii) The department, with the cooperation of the State Department of Health Services, shall develop standards and promulgate regulations regarding the type of tear gas and tear gas weapons which may lawfully be purchased, possessed, and used pursuant to this section

(iii) The regulations of the department shall include a requirement that every tear gas container and tear gas weapon which may be lawfully purchased, possessed, and used pursuant to this section have a label which states: "WARNING: The use of this substance or device for any purpose other than self-defense is a felony under California law. The contents are dangerous—use with care."

(5) (i) No person shall purchase, possess, or use any tear gas or any tear gas weapon who has not completed a course certified by the Department of Justice in the use of tear gas and tear gas weapons pursuant to which a card is issued identifying the person who has completed such a course. Such a course shall be taken in any training institution approved by the Department of Justice to offer tear gas training. Such a training institution is authorized to charge a fee covering the actual cost of such training.

(ii) The Department of Justice, in cooperation with the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training, shall develop standards for a course in the use of tear gas and tear gas weapons.

(6) No person shall purchase, possess or use any tear gas or tear gas weapon if such person has not been issued a permit by the police chief or sheriff having jurisdiction over the person's place of legal residence. The police chief or sheriff shall issue a permit to any person who has completed the course of training specified in paragraph (5), and who meets the following criteria:

(i) Is not a minor.

The valid permit shall be carried on the person when carrying tear gas or tear gas weapons and shall be presented for examination to the vendor from whom any tear gas or tear gas weapons are purchased. The sale of tear gas or tear gas weapons by a vendor to a person who fails to present an identifying permit is a violation of Section 12420.

(8) Any person who has a valid permit, who uses tear gas or tear gas weapons except in self-defense or as authorized for training purposes by the department is guilty of a public offense and is punishable by imprisonment in a state prison for 16 months, or two or three years or in a county jail not to exceed one year or by fine not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(9) No person shall purchase, possess, or use any tear gas or tear gas weapon pursuant to this section prior to July 1, 1977.

(b) Such permit shall be valid for a period of seven years unless revoked because the person no longer meets the criteria specified under paragraph (6), and shall be nontransferable.

Applications and permits shall be uniform throughout the state on forms prescribed by the Department of Justice.

The Department of Justice may adopt and promulgate such regulations concerning the purchase and disposal of self-defense tear gas weapons, the standards for tear gas training courses, and the approval of facilities at which such training shall occur as are necessary to insure the safe use and possession of such tear gas weapons by permit holders.

(c) Any person who successfully completes training under this section for which the course and training facility must be approved by the Department of Justice is entitled to receive a certificate of completion issued by the Department of Justice. A fee shall be charged by the Department of Justice for the certificate. The fee shall be no more than is necessary to reimburse the Department of Justice for the costs of approving the courses, the facilities, maintaining control of the quality of the courses, and issuing the certificate of completion. The Department of Justice may provide by regulations the manner in which the fee is collected and paid.

The projects for which appropriations are made in this act are the best alternative projects, and funding will not remain sufficient for them unless appropriated on an urgent basis. It is thus necessary that this act take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 15, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State June 15, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1260 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

SEC. 2. It was the intent of the Legislature in enacting Chapter 993 of the Statutes of 1978 to increase the dollar value of property which may be selected and claimed as a homestead, and to provide that any declaration of homestead which had already been filed shall be deemed amended to reflect the increased value which may be claimed to the extent that such increase does not impair or defeat the right of any creditor to execute upon the property which existed prior to the operative date of Chapter 993 of the Statutes of 1978.

CHAPTER 119

An act to amend Section 2 of Chapter 292 of the Statutes of 1978 as amended by Chapter 332 of the Statutes of 1978, relating to financial support for public schools, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately

[Approved by Governor June 15, 1979. Filed with Secretary of State June 15, 1979.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2 of Chapter 292 of the Statutes of 1978, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 332 of the Statutes of 1978, is amended to read:

Sec. 2. (a) The county superintendent of schools shall determine for each school district in the county the sum of the following items:

(1) Using the average daily attendance of pupils during the 1978–79 school year, exclusive of summer school programs, plus the actual average daily attendance for summer programs in the 1977–78 school year, the school district's total revenue limit for the 1978–79 fiscal year pursuant to Sections 42212, 42238, 42239, 42241, 42241.3, 42241.7, 42243.5, 42243.6, the 1977–78 levied portion of 42244 or an authorized levy pursuant to Section 42244 which was not authorized to be levied prior to the 1978–79 fiscal year, 42245, 42950, and 46605 of the Education Code.

(2) Using the 1977–78 school year adult average daily attendance, the school district's total adult revenue limit for the 1978–79 school year pursuant to Sections 42241.7, 42243.6, 42244, 42245, 43001, and 46605 of the Education Code.

(3) The amount of property taxes levied in 1977–78 pursuant to Sections 4147, 8329, 16196, 16214, 42200, 46617, 49502, 52317, and 56811 of the Education Code and 5302.5 of the Streets and Highways Code.

(b) The county superintendent shall compute a factor for each school district as follows: Divide the sum of the amounts determined in paragraphs (1) and (3) of subdivision (a) by the total of the regular average daily attendance for the 1978–79 school year, exclusive of summer programs, plus the 1977–78 summer school average daily attendance. The resulting amount shall then be divided by one thousand two hundred forty-one dollars ($1,241) for elementary school districts, one thousand four hundred twenty-seven dollars ($1,427) for high school districts, and one thousand three hundred twenty-two dollars ($1,322) for unified school districts. The resulting quotient is the adjustment factor of the school district.

For school districts with an average daily attendance of less than 10,000 which maintain necessary small schools, exclusive of continuation high schools and special education schools, and which received funds in the 1977–78 fiscal year pursuant to Section 41701 or 41703, or subdivision (a) of Section 41711, the county superintendent shall use such district's average foundation program per unit of average daily attendance for the 1978–79 fiscal year in lieu of the divisor in the factor calculated pursuant to this subdivision.

(c) If the factor of a school district, as computed pursuant to subdivision (b), is 1.1 or less, the amount determined for the district pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be reduced by 9 percent.

(d) If the factor for a school district, as computed pursuant to subdivision (b), is 1.5 or more, the amount determined for the district pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be reduced by 15 percent.

(e) (1) If the factor for a school district, as computed pursuant to subdivision (b), is more than 1.1 but less than 1.5, the county superintendent of schools shall compute a percentage as follows:

He or she shall subtract 1.1 from the factor, divide the remainder by 0.4, multiply the quotient by 6 percent, and add the product to 9 percent.

(2) The amount determined for the district pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be reduced by the percentage computed pursuant to paragraph (1) of this subdivision.

(f) In lieu of the foundation program aid computed pursuant to the Education Code, for the 1978–79 fiscal year, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall apportion to each school district the difference between its 1978–79 property tax revenue computed pursuant to Section 26912 of the Government Code and the amount determined pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section, as reduced pursuant to subdivisions (c), (d), and (e) of this section.

In no event shall more than four billion two hundred five million seven hundred thousand dollars ($4,205,700,000) be apportioned pursuant to this section.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The calculations required by Section 2 of Chapter 292 of the Statutes of 1978, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 332 of the Statutes of 1978, failed to recognize existing statutory provisions designed to address the unique fiscal needs of small school districts with the result that educational programs for students in such districts were disproportionately reduced In order to prevent this unwanted result at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

Upon execution of such agreement, a contracting agency which is an employer under Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 20740) of this part shall cease to have such status, and the accumulated contributions of the contracting agency shall be determined and thereafter held as provided in Section 20759.

The department may waive the initial payment in any case where the value of the property as determined by the department appraisal shall equal the amount to be paid by the department plus at least 5 percent where the purchase price is greater than thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000). In the case of homes where the purchase price is equal to or less than thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000), the department may waive the initial payment where the value of the property as determined by the department appraisal equals the amount to be paid by the department plus at least 3 percent. The balance of the purchase price may be amortized over a period fixed by the department, not exceeding 40 years for farms or homes, but not exceeding 25 years for mobilehomes, together with interest thereon at the rate as determined by the department pursuant to Section 987.87 for such amortization purposes. The department may, in order to allow the veteran to purchase the home selected without incurring excessive monthly payments, at the time of initial purchase postpone the commencement of payment of the principal balance for not to exceed five years, provided that the veteran's current income meets the standards for purchase on such terms and that the department determines, in accordance with previously established criteria for such determinations, that the veteran's income can reasonably be expected to increase sufficiently within the five-year period to make the transition to fully amortized principal and interest payments; and provided, that the total term of the contract of purchase does not exceed 40 years. The purchaser on any installment date may pay any or all installments still remaining unpaid. In any individual case the department may for good cause postpone from time to time upon terms as the department deems proper, the payment of the whole or any part of any installment of the purchase price or interest thereon. SEC. 7. Section 987.87 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

987.87. (a) The department shall establish the actual interest rate to be paid. To this end the department, by a two-thirds vote of California Veterans Board members and with the approval of the Veterans' Finance Committee of 1943, is empowered to establish a uniform rate of interest payable upon the amount remaining unpaid under any veteran's purchase contract executed on or after September 26, 1974. The California Veterans Board and the Veterans' Finance Committee shall periodically, at least once each year, make a finding as to the rate of interest to be charged, determined by a floating rate based upon the actual cost of general obligation bond sales, plus a certain percent for administrative costs to be determined annually by the board and committee, taking into consideration the current value of money and the solvency of the Veterans' Farm and Home Building Fund of 1943, the interest paid on participation contracts to which the interest of the department is subject. The California Veterans Board and the Veterans Finance Committee may raise or lower the effective rate of interest payable under such contracts for any given period as many times and as frequently as it deems to be for the best interests of the department, as well as the contract holders, if in so doing its action is made applicable alike to any and all contracts executed after the effective date of this section, and 90 days' advance notice be given of the time when the new rate of interest is to become effective.

(b) The total amount of any installment payment shall be raised or lowered to reflect a change in the effective rate of interest. However, the department shall, upon request of the purchaser, instead increase or decrease the period fixed by the department for amortization of the purchase price without changing the amount of the installment payment. The department shall provide the purchaser with full information as to the repayment options available to him under this subdivision and, upon request of the purchaser, the financial consequences of each such option. The actual interest rate to be paid on the amount remaining unpaid under any veteran's purchase contract shall be a rate of interest which, when combined with the interest paid on the unpaid balance of a participation contract to which the department's interest is subject equals the effective rate of interest.

SEC. 8. Section 987.93 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

987 93. (a) The Department of Veterans Affairs shall submit to the Legislature on June 30, 1976, a report concerning the utilization of veterans farm and home loan funds by lower income veterans and the feasibility of utilizing federal home mortgage programs and mortgage subsidy programs to make veterans farm and home loan funds available to lower income veterans.

(b) On January 1 of each year, the Department of Veterans Affairs shall submit to the Legislature a report on the utilization of veterans farm and home loan funds by lower income veterans, including an annual summary of the amounts and loan-to-value ratios of loans offered to lower income veterans, the number of lower income veterans who are rejected because of insufficient income, or who declined loan offers because of inability to afford downpayments, and of the utilization of lower initial monthly payments and longer term financing to make financing available to lower income veterans. The report shall incorporate the reports required by Section 5 of Chapter 1477 of the Statutes of 1974.

SEC. 9 It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 45 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1980, both bills amend Section 987.65 of the Military and Veterans Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 45, that Section 987.65 of the Military and Veterans Code, as amended by Section 3 of Assembly Bill No. 45, be further amended on the effective date of this act in the form set forth in Section 4.5 of this act to incorporate the changes in Section 987.65 proposed by this bill. Therefore, if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 45 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1980, and Assembly Bill No. 45 is chaptered before this bill and amends Section 987.65, Section 4.5 of this act shall become operative on the effective date of this act and Section 4 of this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 10. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Under present economic conditions, housing costs are rising faster than incomes so that many veterans will be unable to afford satisfactory housing. In order to make the benefits of deferred amortization financing available to veterans as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act become effective immediately.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 88205.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

88205.5. Such substitute holiday shall be provided as specified in Section 88205.

This section shall apply to districts that have adopted the merit system in the same manner and effect as if it were a part of Article 3 (commencing with Section 88060) of this chapter.

CHAPTER 124

An act to amend Section 4011 of the Penal Code, relating to prisoners.

[Approved by Governor June 19, 1979. Filed with Secretary of State June 20, 1979.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4011 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

4011. (a) When it is made to appear to any judge by affidavit of the sheriff or other official in charge of county correctional facilities or district attorney and oral testimony that a prisoner confined in any city or county jail within the jurisdiction of the court requires medical or surgical treatment necessitating hospitalization, which treatment cannot be furnished or supplied at such city or county jail, the court in its discretion may order the removal of such person or persons from such city or county jail to the county hospital in such county; provided, if there is no county hospital in such county, then to any hospital designated by such court; and it shall be the duty of the sheriff or other official in charge of county correctional facilities to maintain the necessary guards, who may be private security guards, for the safekeeping of such prisoner, the expense of which shall be a charge against the county.

(b) The cost of such medical services and such hospital care and treatment shall be charged against the county subject to subdivisions (c) and (d), in the case of a prisoner in or taken from the county jail, or against the city in the case of a prisoner in or taken from the city jail, and the city or county may recover the same by appropriate action from the person so served or cared for, or any person or agency responsible for his care and maintenance. If the prisoner is in the county jail under contract with a city or under some other arrangement with the city to keep the city prisoner in the county jail, then the city shall be charged, subject to subdivisions (c) and (d), for the prisoner's care and maintenance with the same right of recovery against any responsible person or any other agency.

(c) When such prisoner is poor and indigent the cost of such medical services and such hospital care and treatment shall, in the case of persons removed from the city jail be paid out of the general fund of such city, and in the case of persons removed from the county jail to a hospital other than a county hospital, such cost shall be paid out of the general fund of such county or city and county. In the case of city jail prisoners removed to the county hospital, the cost of such hospital care and treatment to be paid by the city to the county, shall be the rate per day fixed by the board of supervisors of such county. Such board of supervisors may, but need not, fix different rates for different classes of patients, or for different wards, and any and all such rates may be changed by such board of supervisors at any time, but shall at all times approximate as nearly as may be, the average actual cost to the county of such hospital care and treatment either in such wards or for such classes of patients or otherwise.

(d) In the event such prisoner is financially able to pay for his care, support and maintenance, the medical superintendent of such hospital other than a county hospital may, with the approval of such judge, enter into a special agreement with such person, or with his relatives or friends, for his care, support, maintenance, and other hospital expenses.

Any prisoner may decline such care or treatment and provide other care and treatment for himself at his own expense.

CHAPTER 125

An act to add Section 6381.5 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor June 19, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State June 20, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6381.5 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

6381.5. There are exempted from the sales taxes imposed by this part the gross receipts from the lease of tangible personal property to the United States or an agency or instrumentality thereof, a sale to which would have been exempt from sales tax prior to January 1, 1979, if the lease is pursuant to a contract for a fixed price in existence on September 26, 1978, which did not expressly provide for reimbursement to the lessor of any sales tax liability imposed on the lessor. This exemption shall not apply for any period of time for which the lessor has the unconditional right to terminate the lease upon notice, whether or not the right is exercised.

SEC. 1.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no interest shall be paid on any refunds made as a result of this act.

SEC. 2. The Legislature, in adopting Chapter 1211 of the Statutes of 1978, intended to make it clear that for both state and federal tax purposes, the incidence of the California sales tax is upon the retailer for the privilege of selling tangible personal property at retail and is not upon the purchaser. However, the Legislature did not intend to impose a tax on lessors who had existing contracts for the lease of tangible personal property the receipts from which were exempt prior to January 1, 1979, and who were bound without a contractual right of reimbursement of any sales tax levied on them. It is the intent of the Legislature to make it clear that no sales tax liability exists with respect to such leases.

SEC. 3. (a) Notwithstanding Section 2230 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act and the state shall not reimburse any local agency for any sales and use tax revenues lost by it under this act.

(b) (1) Notwithstanding Section 2230 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, counties and cities may not make claims for sales and use tax revenue losses to the three-man State Board of Control pursuant to Sections 905.2 and 945.4 of the Government Code, and claims to the five-man State Board of Control pursuant to Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 2250) of Chapter 3 of Part 4 of Division 1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code are only authorized for costs mandated by the state under Section 2231, and not for sales and use tax revenue losses under Section 2230, of such code.

(2) Therefore, notwithstanding Section 2230 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, counties and cities shall not present any claim to the Legislature alleging that the reimbursement requirements of such section have not been complied with, as the Legislature has considered and rejected such claims at the time of the enactment of this act.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 2230.5 or 2246 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, the Department of Finance shall not review this act to determine costs or revenue losses and shall not report on this act nor make recommendations to the Legislature on this act concerning reimbursements to local agencies or school districts.

(d) There shall be no reimbursement, review, or appropriation made by this act as revenue losses suffered by local agencies as a result of this act are revenues which local agencies would receive only as a consequence of the enactment of Chapter 1211 of the Statutes of 1978. This bill would eliminate those new sources of revenues created by Chapter 1211 of the Statutes of 1978 and reimbursement under such circumstances is unnecessary.

SEC. 4. This act shall be operative on and after January 1, 1979.

SEC. 5. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 126

An act to add Section 731.1 to the Public Resources Code, relating to forestry, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 19, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State June 20, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 731 1 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

731.1. The Legislature declares that some individuals appointed as members of the State Board of Forestry must be chosen from backgrounds in the forest products and range livestock industries in order to represent and further the interests of those industries and that such representation and furtherance serves the general public interest, as specified in Section 731. Accordingly, the Legislature finds that, for purposes of persons who hold such office, the forest products and the range livestock industries are tantamount to and constitute the public generally within the meaning of Section 87103 of the Government Code in those decisions affecting the forest products or range livestock industries, unless the results of their actions taken as board members have a material financial effect on them distinguishable from their effect on other members of their respective industries generally.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are·

In order to provide for the efficient functioning of the State Board of Forestry, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 127

An act to amend Section 1714.1 of the Civil Code, and to amend Sections 48909 and 76039 of the Education Code, relating to parental liability.

[Approved by Governor June 19, 1979. Filed with Secretary of State June 20, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1714.1 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1714.1. (a) Any act of willful misconduct of a minor which results in injury or death to another person or in any injury to the property of another shall be imputed to the parent or guardian having custody or control of the minor for all purposes of civil damages, and such parent or guardian having custody or control shall be jointly and severally liable with such minor for any damages resulting from such willful misconduct.

SECTION 1. Section 527 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

527. (a) An injunction may be granted at any time before judgment upon a verified complaint, or upon affidavits if the complaint in the one case, or the affidavits in the other, show satisfactorily that sufficient grounds exist therefor. A copy of the complaint or of the affidavits, upon which the injunction was granted, must, if not previously served, be served therewith.

No preliminary injunction shall be granted without notice to the opposite party; nor shall any temporary restraining order be granted without notice to the opposite party, unless it shall appear from facts shown by affidavit or by the verified complaint that great or irreparable injury would result to the applicant before the matter can be heard on notice and, except when applying for an order under Section 4357 or 4359 of the Civil Code, the applicant or the applicant's attorney certifies to the court under oath (i) that within a reasonable time prior to the application he informed the opposing party or his attorney at what time and where the application would be made; (ii) that he in good faith attempted to inform the opposing party and his attorney but was unable to so inform the opposing party or his attorney, specifying the efforts made to contact them; or (iii) that for reasons specified he should not be required to so inform the opposing party or his attorney. In case a temporary restraining order shall be granted without notice, in the contingency above specified, the matter shall be made returnable on an order requiring cause to be shown why the injunction should not be granted, on the earliest day that the business of the court will admit of, but not later than 15 days or, if good cause appears to the court, 20 days from the date of such order. When the matter first comes up for hearing the party who obtained the temporary restraining order must be ready to proceed and must have served upon the opposite party at least two days prior to such hearing, a copy of the complaint and of all affidavits to be used in such application and a copy of his points and authorities in support of such application; if he be not ready, or if he shall fail to serve a copy of his complaint, affidavits and points and authorities, as herein required, the court shall dissolve the temporary restraining order. The defendant, however, shall be entitled, as of course, to one continuance for a reasonable period, if he desires it, to enable him to meet the application for the preliminary injunction. The defendant may, in response to such order to show cause, present affidavits relating to the granting of the preliminary injunction, and if such affidavits are served on the applicant at least two days prior to the hearing, the applicant shall not be entitled to any continuance on account thereof. On the day upon which such order is made returnable, such hearing shall take precedence of all other matters on the calendar of said day, except older matters of the same character, and matters to which special precedence may be given by law. When the cause is at issue it shall be set for trial at the earliest possible date and shall take precedence of all other cases, except older matters of the same character, and matters to which special precedence may be given by law.

(b) A temporary restraining order may be granted with or without notice to restrain any person upon an affidavit which, to the satisfaction of a court, shows reasonable proof of a past act or acts of actual violence resulting in physical injury for the purpose of preventing a recurrence of actual domestic violence and assuring a period of separation of the parties involved. A temporary restraining order may be granted pursuant to this subdivision to any person who, prior to or at the time such order is granted, was actually residing with the person or persons at whom such order is directed, and, in the case of a marital relationship, notwithstanding that a petition for legal separation or annulment or dissolution of marriage has not been filed.

A temporary restraining order granted pursuant to this subdivision shall remain in effect, in the discretion of the court, not to exceed 90 days, unless otherwise terminated by the court.

In case a temporary restraining order is granted without notice, the matter shall be made returnable on an order requiring cause to be shown why the order should not be dissolved, on the earliest day that the business of the court will permit, but not later than 15 days or, if good cause appears to the court, 20 days from the date the temporary restraining order is granted.

Any willful disobedience of any temporary restraining order granted pursuant to this subdivision shall be a misdemeanor.

The county clerk shall transmit a copy of each temporary restraining order, or extension, modification or termination thereof, granted pursuant to this subdivision, by the close of the business day on which such order was granted, to the local law enforcement agency with jurisdiction over the residence of the party which obtained the restraining order or the residence at which the recurrence of actual domestic violence is the subject of the temporary restraining order, if requested by an attorney of record or a person who acted in propria persona and approved by the court. Each appropriate law enforcement agency may make available, through an existing system for verification, information as to the existence and current status of any temporary restraining order issued pursuant to this subdivision to any law enforcement officer responding to the scene of reported domestic violence.

All supplemental forms utilized by public postsecondary educational institutions must be approved by the commission, and such forms shall be identical for programs with similar objectives, as determined by the commission. Public postsecondary institutions may decide whether or not to use the single common application form and the single common financial statement for funds provided by private donors

SEC 5. Section 14132.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read

14132.5. In addition to the schedule of benefits available under this chapter, the department, subject to the provisions of Section 14132.6, shall furnish, as a demonstration program, in not more than three counties deemed most appropriate by the department, the following benefits:

(a) Orthomolecular medicine, when provided as part of the treatment methods of a physician, diagnostic tests deemed necessary for such treatment by the physician; and inpatient hospital care furnished in connection with such diagnostic and treatment methods; all of which shall be subject to utilization controls.

(b) Vitamins, minerals, amino acids, and glandular extracts, when prescribed in treatment of illness by a physician in the course of applying treatment methods of orthomolecular medicine, subject to utilization controls.

As used in this section, "orthomolecular medicine" means the preservation of good health, as well as the treatment of disease, by providing the optimum molecular environment in the human body by varying the concentrations in the body of vitamins, minerals, and other nutritional substances normally present in the body and required for health. "Orthomolecular medicine" also includes human ecology medicine, which means the removal, discharge or avoidance of substances that are toxic or allergy inducing to some patients.

The limitations on extent of coverage under subdivision (a) of Section 14132 shall apply to this section.

In order to control the cost of this demonstration program, the director may impose limits, which are consistent with the goals of the program, on the total number of patients allowed to participate.

Nothing contained in this section shall preclude the practice of chiropractic as authorized by the Chiropractic Initiative Act or to limit coverage of chiropractic services otherwise authorized under Section 14132

Nothing contained in this section shall authorize payment for any treatment which includes a substance prohibited to be prescribed or dispensed under state or federal law.

The program authorized by this section shall commence on April 1, 1979, and shall terminate on June 30, 1980

This section shall remain in effect only until July 1, 1980, and as of such date is repealed

SEC. 6 Section 14132.6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read

14132 6 The director shall select persons to constitute an evaluation committee for the purposes of the demonstration program referred to in Section 14132 5. The committee shall consist of one or more physicians who practice orthomolecular medicine, as defined by Section 14132.5, one or more physicians nominated by the California Medical Association, and one or more employees of the department

The committee shall prepare a plan for evaluating the program

The plan shall include the reporting procedures to be utilized by the participating providers in the demonstration program. The director shall approve, disapprove, or modify the plan.

The department shall provide staff for the evaluation committee.

The department shall adopt regulations to implement this section and Section 14132.5.

Any provider in the designated three counties may participate in this program with patients desiring such treatment, so long as the provider adheres to the evaluation committee's plan.

No patient shall participate in the program unless, prior to such participation, the patient or the patient's legal guardian gives written informed consent to such participation and to the disclosure of the patient's medical records to members of the evaluation committee and the staff of such committee.

The director may prohibit the use of any substance or procedure in connection with the program.

If any provision of this section or of Section 14132.5, or any provision of any regulation adopted by the department pursuant to such sections, is not in conformity with federal laws and regulations, such provision shall have no force or effect.

The department shall require each physician provider participating in the demonstration program to make periodic reports in accordance with the evaluation plan provided for in this section.

The evaluation committee shall prepare and submit to the director, by January 30, 1981, a report evaluating the demonstration program, including its conclusions on the efficacy of the program and a cost comparison of the cost of treating patients in the orthomolecular medicine demonstration program with the cost of treating comparable patients who are not in the program. The director shall transmit such report, together with any comments or recommendation he may make, to the Governor and to the Legislature by March 1, 1981.

No member of the evaluation committee, or its staff, and no officer or employee of the department shall disclose the name of a patient or information which would identify a patient in the program to any persons not authorized by written consent of the patient to have such information.

This section shall remain in effect only until June 30, 1981, and as of such date is repealed.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The time deadlines prescribed by statute for the demonstration program on coverage by Medi-Cal of orthomolecular medicine, related evaluations, and other related matters have proven inadequate and some will expire on July 1, 1979, which is long before the effective date of ordinary statutes enacted in 1979 in the 1979–1980 Regular Session of the Legislature. In order that this essential demonstration program may be completed without interruption or disruption, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

(d) The death of either party after the entry of the interlocutory judgment does not impair the power of the court to enter final judgment as hereinbefore provided; but such entry shall not validate any marriage contracted by either party before the entry of such final judgment, nor constitute any defense of any criminal prosecution made against either.

(b) In the case of an assignee, the request shall include two copies of the general assignment for the benefit of creditors.

(c) In the case of a trustee, interim trustee, or debtor in possession, the request shall include a certified copy of the petition in bankruptcy, together with a copy thereof.

(d) If immediate release of the attachment is sought, the request shall be accompanied by an undertaking to pay the plaintiff any damages resulting from an improper release of the attachment, in the amount of the plaintiff's claim to be secured by the attachment, executed by a corporate surety possessing a certificate of authority from the Insurance Commissioner as provided by Section 1056.

(e) Within five days after the filing of the request for release of attachment, the levying officer shall mail to the plaintiff:

(1) A copy of the request for release of the attachment, including the copy of the document filed pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c).

(2) If an undertaking has not been given, a notice that the attachment will be released pursuant to the request for release of attachment unless otherwise ordered by a court within 10 days after the date of mailing the notice.

(g) Where the attached property has been taken into custody, it shall be released to the person making the request for release of attachment or some other person designated in the request. Where the attached property has not been taken into custody, it shall be released as provided in subdivision (c) of Section 488.560.

(h) The levying officer is not liable for releasing an attachment in accordance with this section nor is any other person liable for acting in conformity with the release.

SEC. 3. Section 493.050 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read

493.050. (a) The lien of a temporary protective order or of attachment, which has terminated pursuant to Section 493.030, is reinstated with the same effect as if it had not been terminated in the following cases:

(1) Where the termination is the result of the making of a general assignment for the benefit of creditors and the general assignment for the benefit of creditors is set aside otherwise than by the filing of a petition commencing a case under Title 11 of the United States Code (Bankruptcy)

(2) Where the termination is the result of the filing of a petition commencing a case under Title 11 of the United States Code (Bankruptcy) and the petition is dismissed.

(3) Where the termination is the result of the filing of a petition commencing a case under Title 11 of the United States Code (Bankruptcy) and the trustee abandons property which had been subject to the lien of the temporary protective order or of attachment

(b) The period from the making of a general assignment for the benefit of creditors until reinstatement of the lien of the temporary protective order or of attachment is not counted in determining the duration of the temporary protective order or the lien of attachment.

SEC. 4. Section 493.060 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

493 060. (a) Upon the making of a general assignment for the benefit of creditors that terminates a lien under this chapter, the assignee is subrogated to the rights of the plaintiff under the temporary protective order or attachment.

(b) Upon the filing of a petition commencing a case under Title 11 of the United States Code (Bankruptcy), a lien terminated pursuant to this chapter is preserved for the benefit of the estate.

SEC 5. (a) The operative date of this act is October 1, 1979.

(b) This act does not apply to a case commenced under the Bankruptcy Act prior to October 1, 1979, and such a case is governed by the law applicable immediately prior to the operative date of this act.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The Bankruptcy Reform Act of 1978 (Pub.L. No. 95-598) becomes operative on October 1, 1979. The new bankruptcy law totally revises the manner of dealing with liens of attachment and temporary protective orders on property in the debtor's estate. This act makes conforming revisions in the Attachment Law; however, confusion and problems in treatment of liens under the two laws will arise unless both become operative at the same time. It is therefore necessary that this act take immediate effect so that it may become operative on October 1, 1979 while being operated in response to emergency calls for the immediate preservation of life or property.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that private security vehicles be authorized emergency vehicles and to use warning lights when responding to emergencies in order to shorten the response time and prevent possible loss of lives; therefore, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 179

An act to add Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 815) to Title 2 of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Civil Code, relating to conservation easements.

[Approved by Governor June 29, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State June 29, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 815) is added to Title 2 of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Civil Code, to read:

CHAPTER 4. CONSERVATION EASEMENTS

815. The Legislature finds and declares that the preservation of land in its natural, scenic, agricultural, historical, forested, or open-space condition is among the most important environmental assets of California. The Legislature further finds and declares it to be the public policy and in the public interest of this state to encourage the voluntary conveyance of conservation easements to qualified nonprofit organizations.

815.1. For the purposes of this chapter, "conservation easement" means any limitation in a deed, will, or other instrument in the form of an easement, restriction, covenant, or condition, which is or has been executed by or on behalf of the owner of the land subject to such easement and is binding upon successive owners of such land, and the purpose of which is to retain land predominantly in its natural, scenic, historical, agricultural, forested, or open-space condition.

815.2. (a) A conservation easement is an interest in real property voluntarily created and freely transferable in whole or in part for the purposes stated in Section 815.1 by any lawful method for the transfer of interests in real property in this state

(b) A conservation easement shall be perpetual in duration.

(c) A conservation easement shall not be deemed personal in nature and shall constitute an interest in real property notwithstanding the fact that it may be negative in character.

(d) The particular characteristics of a conservation easement shall be those granted or specified in the instrument creating or transferring the easement.

815.3. Only a tax-exempt nonprofit organization qualified under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and qualified to do business in this state which has as its primary purpose the preservation, protection, or enhancement of land in its natural, scenic, historical, agricultural, forested, or open-space condition or use may acquire and hold conservation easements.

815.4. All interests not transferred and conveyed by the instrument creating the easement shall remain in the grantor of the easement, including the right to engage in all uses of the land not affected by the easement nor prohibited by the easement or by law.

815.5. Instruments creating, assigning, or otherwise transferring conservation easements shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county where the land is situated, in whole or in part, and such instruments shall be subject in all respects to the recording laws.

815.7. (a) No conservation easement shall be unenforceable by reason of lack of privity of contract or lack of benefit to particular land or because not expressed in the instrument creating it as running with the land.

(b) Actual or threatened injury to or impairment of a conservation easement or actual or threatened violation of its terms may be prohibited or restrained, or the interest intended for protection by such easement may be enforced, by injunctive relief granted by any court of competent jurisdiction in a proceeding initiated by the grantor or by the owner of the easement.

(c) In addition to the remedy of injunctive relief, the holder of a conservation easement shall be entitled to recover money damages for any injury to such easement or to the interest being protected thereby or for the violation of the terms of such easement. In assessing such damages there may be taken into account, in addition to the cost of restoration and other usual rules of the law of damages, the loss of scenic, aesthetic, or environmental value to the real property subject to the easement.

(d) The court may award to the prevailing party in any action authorized by this section the costs of litigation, including reasonable attorney's fees.

815.9. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to impair or conflict with the operation of any law or statute conferring upon any political subdivision the right or power to hold interests in land comparable to conservation easements, including, but not limited to, Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 6950) of Division 7 of Title 1 of, Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 51050), Chapter 6.6 (commencing with Section 51070) and Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 51200) of Part 1 of Division 1 of Title 5 of, and Article 10.5

(commencing with Section 65560) of Chapter 3 of Title 7 of, the Government Code, and Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 421) of Chapter 3 of Part 2 of Division 1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

816. The provisions of this chapter shall be liberally construed in order to effectuate the policy and purpose of Section 815.

CHAPTER 180

(2) The term "molder" means any individual or entity, including, but not limited to, a tool or die maker, who fabricates, casts, or otherwise makes a die, mold, or form.

(b) In the absence of any agreement to the contrary, the customer shall have all rights and title to any die, mold, or form in the possession of the molder.

(c) If a customer does not claim possession from a molder of a die, mold, or form within three years following the last prior use thereof, all rights and title to any die, mold, or form may be transferred by operation of law to the molder for the purpose of destroying or otherwise disposing of such die, mold, or form, consistent with this section

(d) If a molder chooses to have all rights and title to any die, mold, or form transferred to the molder by operation of law, the molder shall send written notice by registered mail to the customer's last known address indicating that the molder intends to terminate the customer's rights and title by having all such rights and title transferred to the molder by operation of law pursuant to this section.

(e) If a customer does not respond in person or by mail to claim possession of the particular die, mold, or form within 30 days following the date the notice was sent, or does not make other contractual arrangements with the molder for storage thereof, all rights and title of the customer shall transfer by operation of law to the molder Thereafter, the molder may destroy or otherwise dispose of the particular mold, tool, or die as the molder's own property without any risk of liability to the customer, except that this section shall not be construed in any manner to affect any right of the customer, under federal patent or copyright law or any state or federal law pertaining to unfair competition

(f) The three-year waiting period set forth in subdivision (c) shall apply retroactively in the case of dies, molds, and forms in the possession of a molder upon the effective date of this section.

SEC. 2. CHAPTER 181

An act relating to donation of county property, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 29, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State June 29, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Following an inventory of its Packaged Disaster Hospitals and a determination of the nature of potential disasters which might otherwise require the use of such Packaged Disaster Hospitals, the board of supervisors of any county may donate any or all Packaged Disaster Hospitals, or any portion or portions thereof, which are not required for the public purposes of the county to any federally supported nonprofit private voluntary organization providing assistance to needy developing communities in Africa, Asia, the Caribbean, and Latin America

The donation of a Packaged Disaster Hospital or Hospitals, or any portions thereof, to such a nonprofit organization for use in health care programs of needy communities in Africa, Asia, the Caribbean, and Latin America is hereby declared to be for a public purpose when the donation supports nationally recognized United States development assistance objectives, the Packaged Disaster Hospitals are considered obsolete and are no longer usable by the county, and the storage and maintenance thereof is a financial burden on the county. In such a circumstance, the board of supervisors may authorize federally supported nonprofit private voluntary organizations which support the national interests of the United States to pick up and refurbish the Packaged Disaster Hospital or Hospitals, or any portions thereof, at no cost to the participating county, and to utilize the equipment in nonprofit health projects in developing communities in Africa, Asia, the Caribbean, and Latin America.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that health care equipment may be available at the earliest opportunity to assist in the health care program of needy communities in Africa, Asia, the Caribbean, and Latin America, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a violation by vehicles hauling bulk tomatoes, that does not exceed 50 percent of the tolerance provided by department regulations adopted pursuant to Section 12727 of the Business and Professions Code, shall be an infraction. Every person convicted of an infraction for a violation of this section shall be punished upon first conviction by a fine not exceeding fifty dollars ($50); for a second conviction within a period of one year by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100); and for a third or subsequent conviction within a period of one year by a fine not exceeding two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Tomato harvesting is imminent and the fuel crisis has compounded problems normally associated with this seasonally-oriented pressure on transportation capabilities. In order to take all possible steps to reduce the use of diesel fuel, as well as minimize impact of fuel uncertainties which can directly influence tare weight (such as consistency of quantities of available fuel), it is necessary that this act take effect at the earliest opportunity.

CHAPTER 183

An act to amend Section 718.5 of the Probate Code, relating to decedents' estates.

[Approved by Governor June 29, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State June 29, 1979.]

If under this section the court authorizes the tranfer of real property of the estate, conveyances shall be executed by the executor or administrator in the same manner as provided in Section 786 of this code and such conveyances shall have the same force and effect as conveyances executed pursuant to that section, and a certified copy of the order authorizing the transfer must be recorded in the office of the recorder of the county in which the real property or any portion thereof lies. After the completion of such approved compromise the executor or administrator shall incur no liability to anyone as a result of the approved compromise, composition, or settlement.

in the same manner as provided in Section 392 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The application shall be verified and describe the homestead and state whether the following facts exist:

(a) The homestead is subject to execution or forced sale, and the reasons therefor.

(b) The records of the county tax assessor indicate that there is a current homeowner's exemption claimed by either the debtor or the spouse of the debtor on the subject homestead but the judgment creditor believes for reasons which shall be stated in the application that the debtor or the spouse of the debtor is not entitled to the exemption provided in this chapter.

(2) The amount of excess remaining after deduction of the aggregate of all liens and encumbrances and the allowable exemption from the appraised value.

(3) If the appraised value, less the aggregate of all liens and encumbrances thereon, exceeds the allowable exemption, whether the property can be divided without material injury such that the claimant may retain a setoff of so much of the land including the residence and outbuildings as will amount in value to the allowable exemption over and above all liens and encumbrances thereon.

It shall also specify the amount of the exemption. A copy of the order shall be transmitted by the clerk of the court to the clerk of the court in which the judgment was rendered.

The writ of execution shall specify the amounts for distribution under the levy, including names and addresses of each person or entity having an encumbrance against the homestead.

SEC. 13. Section 1251 of the Civil Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 825) is added to Division 1 of the Public Resources Code, to read:

CHAPTER 4. AQUACULTURE DEVELOPMENT

825. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the California Aquaculture Development Act.

The Legislature finds and declares that it is in the interest of the people of the state that the practice of aquaculture be encouraged in order to augment food supplies, expand employment, promote economic activity, increase native fish stocks, enhance commercial and recreational fishing, and protect and better use the land and water resources of the state.

827. The purpose of this chapter is to establish a policy and program toward improving the science and practice of aquaculture as a means of expanding aquaculture industry and related economic activity in the state.

828. As used in this chapter, "aquaculture" means the culture and husbandry of aquatic organisms, including, but not limited to, fish, shellfish, mollusks, crustaceans, kelp, and algae. Aquaculture shall not mean the culture and husbandry of commercially utilized inland crops, including, but not limited to, rice, watercress, and bean sprouts.

The director shall select, and the department shall contract on behalf of the advisory committee with, a qualified nongovernmental institution to conduct a study. The advisory committee may disapprove the design of the study or the qualifications of the nongovernmental institution. The study shall address, but not be limited to, the following areas:

(c) Development and recommendation of criteria for the identification of those geographic areas, both coastal and inland, suitable for aquaculture.

(d) Recommendation of criteria for allocation of those areas determined to be suitable for aquaculture.

(e) The impact of aquaculture on existing fisheries, including, but not limited to, the release and capture of domestically reared anadromous fish in state waters.

(f) Compatibility with other land use policies, including recreation, scientific studies, and protection of estuarine and wetland areas.

The advisory committee shall report the results of the study, together with the recommendations for administrative and legislative actions, to the Governor and Legislature on or before June 30, 1980

833. The department shall be the lead agency for purposes of the California Environmental Quality Act (commencing with Section 21000 of the Public Resources Code) for any project involving the issuance of a permit required pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 6400) of Part 1 of Division 6 of the Fish and Game Code.

834. The director shall appoint an aquaculture advisory committee to assist the department in carrying out the provisions of this chapter. The advisory committee shall include, but not be limited to, the director; a representative of the Department of Food and Agriculture; representatives of a public institution of higher education, the commercial fishing industry, the recreational fishing industry, the freshwater fish farming industry, and the marine and brackish water aquaculture industry; a representative of the Assembly, to be selected by the Speaker of the Assembly; and a representative of the Senate, to be selected by the Senate Committee on Rules. Before selecting industry members of the advisory committee, the director shall consult with, and consider qualified delegates nominated by, organizations representing the aquaculture industry.

The advisory committee shall, in addition to its duties under Section 832, hold regular meetings, exchange information concerning activities of any state agency or institution involved in aquacultural activity, comment on the design of the study required pursuant to Section 832, and periodically review the progress of the study.

SEC. 3 Section 30411 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

30411. (a) The Department of Fish and Game and the Fish and Game Commission are the principal state agencies responsible for the establishment and control of wildlife and fishery management programs and neither the commission nor any regional commission shall establish or impose any controls with respect thereto that duplicate or exceed regulatory controls established by such agencies pursuant to specific statutory requirements or authorization.

(b) The Department of Fish and Game, in consultation with the commission and the Department of Boating and Waterways, may study degraded wetlands and identify those which can most feasibly be restored in conjunction with development of a boating facility as provided in subdivision (a) of Section 30233. Any such study shall include consideration of all of the following:

(1) Whether the wetland is so severely degraded and its natural processes so substantially impaired that it is not capable of recovering and maintaining a high level of biological productivity without major restoration activities

(2) Whether a substantial portion of the degraded wetland, but in no event less than 75 percent, can be restored and maintained as a highly productive wetland in conjunction with a boating facilities project.

(3) Whether restoration of the wetland's natural values, including its biological productivity and wildlife habitat features, can most feasibly be achieved and maintained in conjunction with a boating facility or whether there are other feasible ways to achieve such values.

(c) The Legislature finds and declares that salt water or brackish water aquaculture is a coastal-dependent use which should be encouraged to augment food supplies and to further the policies set forth in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 825) of Division 1. The Department of Fish and Game may identify coastal sites it deems appropriate for aquaculture facilities. If the department identifies such sites, it shall do so by October 1, 1980, and shall by the same date transmit information identifying such sites to the commission and the relevant local government agency. The commission, and where appropriate, local governments shall, consistent with the coastal planning requirements of this division, provide for as many coastal sites identified by the Department of Fish and Game for such uses as are consistent with the policies of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 30200) of this division

SEC. 4. The operative provisions of this act shall be implemented by the Department of Fish and Game and the Resources Agency as funds are available within the department or the agency, or may hereafter become available through legislative appropriation, for the purposes of this act.

SEC. 5 The unencumbered balance of the money appropriated in category (c) of Item 171 of the Budget Act of 1978 is hereby reappropriated to the Department of Fish and Game for expenditure for the purpose specified therein. Such money shall be available for encumbrance until June 30, 1980.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that the aquaculture program contemplated by Item 171 of the Budget Act of 1978 for the 1978–79 fiscal year may be commenced during the 1978–79 fiscal year, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

[Approved by Governor June 29, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State June 29, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding the proviso contained in Item 426.1 of the Budget Act of 1978, the Contractors' State License Board is hereby authorized to expend such funds from the Contractors' License Fund, in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 150) of Division 1 of, and Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 7000) of Division 3 of, the Business and Professions Code, as is deemed necessary to meet contingencies and emergencies during the 1978-79 fiscal year.

SEC. 2. Section 7124.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

7124.5. The board shall not make public disclosure of complaints against a licensee except pursuant to a uniform policy if adopted by the Department of Consumer Affairs, after public hearings, which is applicable to all boards, bureaus, commissions, divisions, offices, or officers subject to the jurisdiction of the department.

SEC. 3. There is hereby appropriated from the Contractors' License Fund to the Contractors' State License Board an amount equal to the unencumbered balance of such fund, but not to exceed two hundred eighty-three thousand two hundred twenty-eight dollars ($283,228), to carry out the provisions of Section 1 of this act.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The Contractors' State License Board is presently experiencing an overwhelming increase in license applications and consumer complaints and in order to meet staffing needs required to timely process the increased number of license applications and to investigate such complaints in a timely manner it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect

An act to add Section 7150.5 to the Fish and Game Code, relating to fish, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 29, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State June 29, 1979.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7150.5 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

7150.5. A sport fishing license, valid for only one designated day, may be issued to any person over the age of 16 years upon payment of a fee of two dollars ($2). Such license shall grant the privilege of taking fish, except for mollusks, crustaceans, invertebrates, or amphibians, from ocean waters as defined in Section 7150. A sport fishing license stamp may not be purchased for such license.

SEC. 2. Section 7150.5 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

7150.5. A sport fishing license, valid for only one designated day, may be issued to any person over the age of 16 years upon payment of a fee of two dollars ($2). Such license shall grant the privilege of taking fish, except for mollusks, crustaceans, invertebrates, or amphibians, from ocean waters as defined in Section 7150. A trout and salmon license stamp is required to authorize such person to take salmon or steelhead in ocean waters. Such stamp shall be issued upon payment of a base fee of three dollars ($3) plus an amount calculated in accordance with Section 713. An inland water license stamp may not be purchased for such license.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this act shall become operative only if Senate Bill No. 201 of the 1979–80 Regular Session is chaptered and contains provisions requiring the purchaser of a sport fishing license to obtain a trout and salmon license stamp in order to take salmon or steelhead in ocean waters, in which case Section 2 shall become operative at the same time Senate Bill No. 201 becomes operative. If Section 2 becomes operative as provided in this section, Section 1 of this act shall no longer be operative and is repealed.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The cost of a three-day fishing license increased to four dollars ($4) as of January 1, 1979, and as a consequence persons fishing in ocean waters aboard commercial fishing passenger vessels or party boats are now required to pay a license fee that is only one dollar ($1) less than the price to California residents of a fishing license good for one year five dollars ($5). In order that persons, including California residents, who will be fishing for one day only pay a more equitable fee for such privilege, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 190

An act to add Sections 1232.8, 1232.9, and 1232.10 to the Government Code, relating to continuation of state government, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 29, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State June 29, 1979.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1232.8 is added to the Government Code, to read:

1232.8. On or after June 30, 1979, no state officer or employee shall be deemed to have a break in service or to have terminated his employment, for any purpose, nor to have incurred any change in his authority, status, or jurisdiction or in his salary or other conditions of employment, solely because of the failure to enact a Budget Bill for the 1979–80 fiscal year prior to the end of the preceding fiscal year.

Every person who entered state service between June 30, 1979, and the effective date of the Budget Bill for the 1979–80 fiscal year shall be deemed a state officer or employee, as the case may be, from the time he entered state service until that date, notwithstanding the failure to enact a Budget Bill for the 1979–80 fiscal year prior to his entry into service.

SEC. 2. Section 1232.9 is added to the Government Code, to read:

1232.9. Funds from each appropriation made in the Budget Act of 1979 may be expended to pay such salary adjustments as are authorized by salary-fixing authorities to provide an increase in the compensation for officers and employees during the month of July 1979 to provide compensation equivalent to that which they would have otherwise received had the Budget Act of 1979 been adopted prior to July 1, 1979.

SEC. 3. Section 1232.10 is added to the Government Code, to read:

1232.10. Funds from each appropriation made in the Budget Act of 1979 may be expended to pay any obligation incurred between the commencement of the 1979–80 fiscal year and the effective date of the Budget Act of 1979, which would otherwise have been authorized by the Budget Act of 1979, had that act been adopted prior to July 1979 subject to the same limitations, conditions, and requirements.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The failure to enact prior to July 1, 1979, a Budget Bill for the 1979–80 fiscal year will create serious questions regarding the continuity of employment of state personnel, as well as other fiscal matters, and it is therefore essential that this act take immediate effect.

If payments have been made to employees pursuant to Section 1 or Section 1.5 of this act which violate this section, the payments shall constitute overpayments which the employees have no legal right to retain, and the State Controller, in cooperation with the various state agencies, shall set up accounts receivable to effect a return of the overpayments from the employees involved to the state. The State Controller may prorate the collection of the overpayments for the remainder of the 1979–80 fiscal year by deducting amounts monthly from the salaries otherwise owed the employees.

An act to amend Section 2982 of the Civil Code, to amend Sections 18008, 18064, 18211, and 18550 of, and to add Section 18550 5 to, the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Sections 396, 5350, 35112, and 35790 of the Vehicle Code, relating to mobilehomes.

[Approved by Governor July 2, 1979. Filed with Secretary of State July 2, 1979.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2982 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2982. (a) Every conditional sale contract for the sale of a motor vehicle, with or without accessories, shall be in writing and, if printed, shall be printed in type no smaller than 6 point, and shall contain in a single document all of the agreements of the buyer and seller with respect to the total cost and the terms of payment for the motor vehicle, including any promissory notes or any other evidences of indebtedness. The conditional sale contract or a purchase order shall be signed by the buyer or his authorized representative and by the seller or its authorized representative, and an exact copy thereof shall be furnished the buyer by the seller at the time the buyer and the seller have signed the contract or purchase order. No motor vehicle shall be delivered under this chapter until the seller delivers to the buyer a fully executed copy of the conditional sale contract or purchase order and any vehicle purchase proposal and any credit statement which the seller has required or requested the buyer to sign, and which he has signed, during the contract negotiations. The seller shall not obtain the signature of the buyer to a contract when it contains blank spaces to be filled in after it has been signed. Every conditional sale contract shall contain, although not necessarily in the sequence or order set forth below, the following separate items:

1. The cash price of the motor vehicle described in the conditional sale contract.

2. The amount of the buyer's downpayment, and whether made in cash or represented by the net agreed value of described property traded in, or both, together with a statement of the respective amounts credited for cash and for such property.

3. The unpaid balance of cash price, which is the difference between items 1 and 2.

4. The cost to the buyer of any insurance, the premium for which is included in the contract balance. Any such cost for credit life or disability insurance may be included in the finance charge if the amount thereof is separately stated on the face of the contract.

5. The amounts, if any, paid or to be paid to any public officer in connection with the transaction and for license, certificate of title, and registration fees imposed by law.

6. The amount, if any, charged by the dealer for documentary preparation If a dealer charges a buyer a documentary preparation charge, then the contract shall contain a notice advising the buyer that such charge is not a governmental fee.

7. The amount of the unpaid balance, which is the sum of items 3, 4, 5, and 6

8 The amount of the finance charge, and the annual percentage rate as defined in the Federal Truth-In-Lending Act (15 U.S.C. 1601 et seq.).

9. The total of payments, which is the sum of items 6 and 7, payable by the buyer to the seller, the number of installments required, the amount of each installment, and the date for payment of the installments.

10. The names and addresses of all persons to whom the notice required under Section 2983.2 and permitted under Sections 2983.5 and 2984 of this code is to be sent.

11. A notice, in at least 8-point bold type if the contract is printed, reading as follows: "Notice to the buyer: (1) Do not sign this agreement before you read it or if it contains any blank spaces to be filled in. (2) You are entitled to a completely filled-in copy of this agreement. (3) Under the law, you have the right to pay off in advance the full amount due and under certain conditions to obtain a partial refund of the finance charge. (4) If you default in the performance of your obligations under this agreement, the vehicle may be repossessed and you may be subject to suit and liability for the unpaid indebtedness evidenced by this agreement."

12. A notice to the buyer, in writing, and, if printed, in type no smaller than 8 point, that complaints concerning unfair or deceptive practices or methods by the seller shall be referred to the seller and, if the complaint is not resolved, may be referred to the Department of Motor Vehicles, Division of Compliance, 2570 24th Street, Sacramento, 95818.

(b) If any charge for insurance (other than for credit life or disability) is included in the contract balance and disbursement of any part thereof be made more than one year after the date of the conditional sale contract, any finance charge on the amount to be disbursed after one year shall be computed from the month the disbursement is to be made to the due date of the last installment under the conditional sale contract.

(c) The amount of the finance charge in any conditional sale contract for the sale of a motor vehicle, with or without accessories, shall not exceed 1 percent of the unpaid balance multiplied by the number of months (computed on the basis of a full month for any fractional month period in excess of 15 days) elapsing between the date of the contract and the due date of the last installment, or twenty-five dollars ($25), whichever is greater. The contract may provide for a delinquency charge or charges on any installment in default for a period of not less than 10 days in an amount not to exceed in the aggregate 5 percent of the installment, which amount may be collected only once on any installment regardless of the period during which it remains in default. The contract may provide for reasonable collection costs and fees in the event of delinquency.

(d) Any provision in any conditional sale contract for the sale of a motor vehicle to the contrary notwithstanding, the buyer shall have the privilege of paying at any time in full the indebtedness evidenced by the contract Whenever an indebtedness is liquidated prior to maturity by prepayment or refinancing, or upon surrender or repossession and disposition of the motor vehicle, the holder shall thereupon refund to the buyer the unearned portion of the finance charge. The refund may be made in cash or credited to the amount due on the obligation of the buyer. The amount of the refund shall represent at least as great a proportion of the finance charge as the sum of the periodic time balances payable more than 15 days after the date of prepaying (or other event entitling the buyer to the refund) bears to the sum of all of the periodic time balances under the schedule of installments in the contract. The provisions of this subdivision shall not impair the right of the seller or his assignee to receive delinquency charges on delinquent installments and reasonable costs and fees as provided in subdivision (c) of this section. Where the amount of such refund is less than one dollar ($1), no refund need be made. Where the finance charge, after computing the refund, amounts to less than twenty-five dollars ($25), there may be retained an amount equal to twenty-five dollars ($25)

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter to the contrary, in the event any required downpayment on which no finance charge is imposed is to be made by the buyer to the seller on a conditional sale contract after the date of such contract but prior to the date of the second payment otherwise scheduled, the amount of such payment may be shown in such contract as a deferred portion of the cash downpayment or as a deduction from the amount of the unpaid balance, and shall be included in the total of payments.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter to the contrary, in any instance in which vendor's single-interest insurance is to be written in connection with a conditional sale contract, a conditional sale contract complying with the applicable disclosure requirements of Regulation Z, as in effect on the date of such contract, shall be deemed to comply with the requirements of paragraphs 1 to 8, inclusive, of subdivision (a), irrespective of any difference between the provisions of that regulation and this chapter with respect to any information to be disclosed, the terminology, form or content of such disclosures, the amounts to be included in or manner of determining the unpaid balance, the finance charge or any other item of information to be disclosed, or otherwise. This subdivision shall have no application to the determination of the amount of the unpaid balance, the finance charge, or any other amount for the purpose of computing the maximum permissible finance charge or the refund of any unearned portion of the finance charge under subdivisions (c) and (d), respectively, or for the purpose of computing any penalty under Section 2983.1.

(g) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter to the contrary, any information required to be disclosed in a conditional sale contract under this chapter may be set forth in terminology required or permitted under Regulation Z, as in effect at the time such disclosure is made. Nothing contained in this chapter shall be deemed to prohibit the disclosure in such contract of additional information required or permitted under Regulation Z, as in effect at the time such disclosure is made.

(h) If the requirements of this section are otherwise met, the preparation and use of a separate document for agreements governing the ownership of the wheels, wheel hubs, and axles and for escrow instructions under Section 11950 of the Vehicle Code, relating to the sale of mobilehomes, shall not violate the single-document requirement of subdivision (a).

Without such an agreement governing the ownership of wheels, wheel hubs, and axles, no dealer or transporter shall remove or cause to be removed any wheel, wheel hub, or axle from any mobilehome. Any price quoted for any mobilehome in a conditional sale contract, purchase order, or security agreement pursuant to this section shall state whether such price includes or excludes the cost of wheels, wheel hubs, and axles. If such price does not include the wheels, wheel hubs, or axles, it shall show a deduction for the cost of such parts not included.

(b) Any mobilehome which is permanently attached with underpinning or foundation to the ground.

(c) A manufacturer may deliver a mobilehome to a dealer without the wheels, wheel hubs, or axles if such manufacturer complies with the provisions of Section 18064.

SEC. 7. Section 396 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

caps, rub rails, grab rails, electrical receptacles, bumper guards, window louvers, window frames, exhaust fans, and similar necessary appendages may extend two inches on each side of the main portion of the body of a trailer coach or a camp trailer; provided, that the maximum width of body and any or all of such appendages does not exceed 100 inches. Enactment of the foregoing provisions shall not be construed as a change in the existing law, but rather as declaratory thereof under the provisions of this chapter.

This section shall have no application to the national system of interstate and defense highways as described in Section 108 of the Federal-Aid Highway Act of 1956, and on such system the provisions of this chapter shall govern the permissible width of trailer coaches unless and until it be determined by the Attorney General of the State of California that the application of this section to trailer coaches using the national system of interstate and defense highways would not prevent the apportionments of federal funds to this state for expenditure upon such system of highways by reason of the provisions of the Federal-Aid Highway Act of 1956, relating to the use of public highways by vehicles having a width not exceeding the maximums permitted under laws or regulations established by appropriate state authorities in effect on July 1, 1956.

It is further provided, that regardless of the opinion of the Attorney General of the State of California, in the event of a determination by the Secretary of Commerce, or other officer of the federal government authorized to rule on this subject, that the application of this section to the national system of interstate and defense highways would result in the withholding of any apportionment of federal funds to this state, then this section shall forthwith become inoperative.

For purposes of this section, a mobilehome shall be treated as a trailer coach.

SEC. 10. Section 35790 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

35790. (a) The Department of Transportation or local authorities with respect to highways under their respective jurisdictions may upon application in writing and if good cause appears issue a special or annual permit in writing authorizing the applicant to move any trailer coach in excess of the maximum width but not exceeding 10 feet in width, exclusive of lights and devices provided for in Sections 35112, 35109, and 35110, upon any highway under the jurisdiction of the party granting such permit.

(b) A public agency in the exercise of its discretion in granting permits for the movement of overwidth trailer coaches, and in considering the individual circumstances of each case, may use merchandising or relocation of residence as a basis for movement for good cause.

(c) The application for a special permit shall specifically describe the trailer coach to be moved and the particular highways over which the permit to operate is requested, and whether the permit is requested for a single trip or for continuous operation.

The application for an annual permit shall specifically describe the power unit to be used to tow the overwidth trailers and the particular highways over which the permit to operate is requested. The annual permit shall be subject to all of the conditions of this section and any additional conditions imposed by the public agency.

(d) The Department of Transportation or local authority is authorized to establish seasonal or other time limitations within which a trailer coach may be moved on the highways indicated, and may require an undertaking or other security as may be deemed necessary to protect the highways and bridges from injury or to provide indemnity for any injury resulting from the operation.

(e) Permits for the movement of trailer coaches as provided for in this section may not be issued except to licensed manufacturers, dealers and transporters and only under the following conditions:

1. The power unit used to tow overwidth trailers having a gross weight of 18,000 pounds or less must be a three-quarter-ton truck or tractor, or a truck or tractor of greater power, equipped with dual wheels. The power unit used to tow an overwidth trailer having a gross weight of more than 18,000 pounds must be a ton-and-one-half truck or tractor or truck or tractor of greater power, equipped with dual wheels.

2. The trailer coach for which the permit is issued shall comply with the provisions of Sections 35550 and 35551 of this code.

3. A permit which has been issued for the movement of any trailer coach shall not be valid between sunset and sunrise of the following day, nor between sunset on Friday to sunrise on Monday following, nor on any days declared to be legal holidays by the state.

(f) The Department of Transportation or local authority shall have the authority to establish additional reasonable permit regulations as they may deem necessary in the interest of public safety, which regulations shall be consistent with this section.

(g) Every permit shall be carried in the trailer coach or power unit to which it refers and shall be open to inspection of any peace officer or traffic officer, any authorized agent of the Department of Transportation or any other officer or employee charged with the care and protection of the highways.

(h) It is unlawful for any person to violate any of the terms or conditions of any such permit.

(i) To the extent that the application of this section to highways which are a part of the National System of Interstate and Defense Highways (as referred to in subdivision (a) of Section 108 of the Federal-Aid Highway Act of 1956) would cause this state to be deprived of any federal funds for highway purposes, this section to such extent shall not be applicable to highways which are a part of such system.

(j) For purposes of this section, a mobilehome shall be treated as a trailer coach.

SEC. 11 Nothing in this act shall be construed to permit any person or entity to require the removal of wheels, wheel hubs, or axles from a mobilehome or to prevent the owner of a mobilehome from removing or causing to be removed such wheels, wheel hubs, or axles from such person's mobilehome.

135. (a) It is unlawful to cause or permit any petroleum, chemical, or other hazardous substance to be transferred between a vessel and a shore facility or another vessel by means of a pipeline or similar conduit unless the flow is continuously monitored by a properly installed, operated, and maintained mechanism that will warn of the imminent occurrence of an overflow of the substance being transferred so that the flow can be terminated in time to avert the overflow, and unless the vessel and the shore facility are each equipped with a properly installed, operated, and maintained mechanism that will warn whenever any person is no longer properly discharging his duties in connection with the transfer, is inattentive, or becomes disabled for any reason. Violation of this section is a misdemeanor. However, it shall be a defense to any prosecution for a violation of this section if the mechanism was properly installed and was at all times properly operated and maintained by the person responsible for the mechanism.

(b) This section does not apply to any transfer of fuel to any self-propelled vessel of less than 65 feet in length at any facility equipped with dispensing nozzles of the automatic shut-off type that do not have catch-locks and meet all federal standards.

(c) This section does not apply to any on-shore receiving tankage if appropriate containment or diversionary structures, or both, or other equipment that is adequate to prevent the overflowed substance from reaching the waters of the state is provided.

(d) This section shall become operative with respect to a tank vessel that is subject to examination by the United States Coast Guard not later than the first occasion on or after January 1, 1980, that it is required to be drydocked or hauled out for such examination, as provided in Section 31.10-20 of Title 46 of the Code of Federal Regulations. (b) Such lease shall prohibit the pollution or contamination of the ocean, tidelands, or navigable rivers or lakes, and shall prohibit the impairment of and interference with bathing, fishing, or navigation in the waters of the ocean, any bay or inlet thereof, or any navigable river or lake, and shall prohibit the impairment of and interference with developed shoreline recreational or residential areas. In addition, no oil, tar, residuary product of oil, or any refuse of any kind from any well or works shall be permitted to be deposited on or pass into the waters of the ocean, any bay or inlet thereof, or any navigable river or lake.

This subdivision does not apply to the deposit on or passage into such waters of water not containing any hydrocarbons or vegetable or animal matter.

This subdivision does not prohibit the deposit on or passage into the waters of the ocean or any bay or inlet thereof of drill cuttings or drilling mud which are free of oil and materials that are deleterious to marine life if such activities are under authorization of a regional water quality control board.

(c) If the lessee, as disclosed by information submitted with his bid, proposes to drill one or more wells from filled lands, whether contiguous or noncontiguous to the riparian or littoral lands or uplands, or from any pier or from platforms or other fixed or floating structures to be constructed for such purpose, and if permission from any federal or state agency is legally required in order to construct any such filled land or structures, the lessee shall be allowed a reasonable time following the execution of the lease within which to secure the necessary permission from such federal and state agencies as shall be legally required, and, upon the securing of such permission, a further reasonable time, determined with regard to the nature of the filled lands or structure or structures to be constructed, within which to commence operations for the drilling of such well or wells. The drilling term of the lease shall be extended by the commission by a period equal to such reasonable time to secure such permission, and, if necessary, to the date to which the time to commence operations for the drilling of such well or wells has been extended.

(d) Any offshore filled lands or structure or structures constructed for the purpose of drilling pursuant to this section shall conform to the rules and regulations of the commission in effect at the time of invitation for bids in pursuance of which the lease is awarded. Drilling, whether from upland, riparian, littoral or offshore locations, shall be conducted in conformance with such rules and regulations in effect at the time of invitation for bids in pursuance of which the lease is awarded

In the case of any existing lease of tide or submerged lands, the commission may, with the consent of the other party thereto, amend the same so as to contain or conform with subdivisions (a), (b), (c) and (d) hereof, or any of them, except that the provisions of said subdivision (d) when incorporated into such a lease by such an amendment shall refer to the rules and regulations in effect at the time such amendment is made rather than to those in effect at the time of invitation for bids in pursuance of which the lease is awarded and said subdivision (a) may not be incorporated into such a lease without also incorporating said subdivision (d) therein.

An act to amend Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to amend Sections 11370.3, 11505, 11517, and 11524 of the Government Code, and to amend Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code, relating to legal proceedings.

[Approved by Governor July 3, 1979. Filed with Secretary of State July 3, 1979.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1094.5. (a) Where the writ is issued for the purpose of inquiring into the validity of any final administrative order or decision made as the result of a proceeding in which by law a hearing is required to be given, evidence is required to be taken and discretion in the determination of facts is vested in the inferior tribunal, corporation, board or officer, the case shall be heard by the court sitting without a jury. All or part of the record of the proceedings before the inferior tribunal, corporation, board or officer may be filed with the petition, may be filed with respondent's points and authorities or may be ordered to be filed by the court. If the expense of preparing all or any part of the record has been borne by the prevailing party, such expense shall be taxable as costs.

(b) The inquiry in such a case shall extend to the questions whether the respondent has proceeded without, or in excess of jurisdiction; whether there was a fair trial; and whether there was any prejudicial abuse of discretion. Abuse of discretion is established if the respondent has not proceeded in the manner required by law, the order or decision is not supported by the findings, or the findings are not supported by the evidence.

(c) Where it is claimed that the findings are not supported by the evidence, in cases in which the court is authorized by law to exercise its independent judgment on the evidence, abuse of discretion is established if the court determines that the findings are not supported by the weight of the evidence; and in all other cases, abuse of discretion is established if the court determines that the findings are not supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (c), in cases arising from private hospital boards, abuse of discretion is established if the court determines that the findings are not supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record. Provided, however, in all cases in which the petition alleges discriminatory actions prohibited by Section 1316 of the Health and Safety Code, and the plaintiff makes a preliminary showing of substantial evidence in support of such allegation, the court shall exercise its independent judgment on the evidence and abuse of discretion shall be established if the court determines that the findings are not supported by the weight of the evidence.

(e) Where the court finds that there is relevant evidence which, in the exercise of reasonable diligence, could not have been produced or which was improperly excluded at the hearing before respondent, it may enter judgment as provided in subdivision (f) of this section remanding the case to be reconsidered in the light of such evidence; or, in cases in which the court is authorized by law to exercise its independent judgment on the evidence, the court may admit such evidence at the hearing on the writ without remanding the case.

(f) The court shall enter judgment either commanding respondent to set aside the order or decision, or denying the writ. Where the judgment commands that the order or decision be set aside, it may order the reconsideration of the case in the light of the court's opinion and judgment and may order respondent to take such further action as is specially enjoined upon it by law but the judgment shall not limit or control in any way the discretion legally vested in the respondent.

(g) Except as provided in subdivision (h), the court in which proceedings under this section are instituted may stay the operation of the administrative order or decision pending the judgment of the court, or until the filing of a notice of appeal from the judgment or until the expiration of the time for filing such notice whichever occurs first; provided that no such stay shall be imposed or continued if the court is satisfied that it is against the public interest; provided that the application for the stay shall be accompanied by proof of service of a copy of the application on the respondent. Service shall be made in the manner provided by Title 5 (commencing with Section 405) of Part 2 or Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 1010) of Title 14 of Part 2. If an appeal is taken from a denial of the writ, the order or decision of the agency shall not be stayed except upon the order of the court to which such appeal is taken; provided that, in cases where a stay is in effect at the time of filing the notice of appeal, such stay shall be continued by operation of law for a period of twenty (20) days from the filing of such notice. If an appeal is taken from the granting of the writ, the order or decision of the agency is stayed pending the determination of the appeal unless the court to which such appeal is taken shall otherwise order. Where any final administrative order or decision is the subject of proceedings under this section, if the petition shall have been filed while the penalty imposed is in full force and effect the determination shall not be considered to have become moot in cases where the penalty imposed by the administrative agency has been completed or complied with during the pendency of such proceedings.

(h) (1) The court in which proceedings under this section are instituted may stay the operation of the administrative order or decision of any licensed hospital or any state agency made after a hearing required by statute to be conducted under the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, as set forth in Part 1 (commencing with Section 11500) of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, conducted by the agency itself or a hearing officer on the staff of the Office of Administrative Hearings pending the judgment of the court, or until the filing of a notice of appeal from the judgment or until the expiration of the time for filing such notice whichever occurs first; provided that such stay shall not be imposed or continued unless the court is satisfied that the public interest will not suffer and that the licensed hospital or agency is unlikely to prevail ultimately on the merits; and provided further that the application for the stay shall be accompanied by proof of service of a copy of the application on the respondent. Service shall be made in the manner provided by Title 5 (commencing with Section 405) of Part 2 or Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 1010) of Title 14 of Part 2.

(2) The standard set forth in this subdivision for obtaining a stay shall apply to any administrative order or decision of an agency which issues licenses pursuant to Division 2 (commencing with Section 500) of the Business and Professions Code or pursuant to the Osteopathic Initiative Act or the Chiropractic Initiative Act. With respect to orders or decisions of other state agencies, the standard in this subdivision shall apply only when the agency has adopted the proposed decision of the hearing officer in its entirety or has adopted the proposed decision but reduced the proposed penalty pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 11517 of the Government Code; otherwise the standard in subdivision (g) shall apply.

(3) If an appeal is taken from a denial of the writ, the order or decision of the hospital or agency shall not be stayed except upon the order of the court to which such appeal is taken; provided that, in cases where a stay is in effect at the time of filing the notice of appeal, such stay shall be continued by operation of law for a period of twenty (20) days from the filing of such notice If an appeal is taken from the granting of the writ, the order or decision of the hospital or agency is stayed pending the determination of the appeal unless the court to which such appeal is taken shall otherwise order. Where any final administrative order or decision is the subject of proceedings under this section, if the petition shall have been filed while the penalty imposed is in full force and effect the determination shall not be considered to have become moot in cases where the penalty imposed by the administrative agency has been completed or complied with during the pendency of such proceedings.

SEC 2 Section 11370.3 of the Government Code is amended to

The director shall also appoint shorthand reporters and such other technical and clerical personnel as may be required to perform the duties of the office. The director shall assign a hearing officer for any proceeding arising under Chapter 5 of the Administrative Procedure Act and upon request from any agency may assign a hearing officer to conduct other administrative proceedings not arising under said chapter and shall assign hearing reporters as required Any hearing officer or other employee so assigned shall be deemed an employee of the office and not of the agency to which he is assigned. When not engaged in hearing cases, hearing officers may be assigned by the director to perform other duties vested in or required of the office including those provided for in Section 11370.5.

SEC 3 Section 11505 of the Government Code is amended to read·

The copy of the accusation shall include or be accompanied by (1) a statement that respondent may request a hearing by filing a notice of defense as provided in Section 11506 within 15 days after service upon him of the accusation, and that failure to do so will constitute a waiver of his right to a hearing, and (2) copies of Sections 11507.5, 11507.6, and 11507.7.

(b) The statement to respondent shall be substantially in the following form:

Unless a written request for a hearing signed by or on behalf of the person named as respondent in the accompanying accusation is delivered or mailed to the agency within 15 days after the accusation was personally served on you or mailed to you, (here insert name of agency) may proceed upon the accusation without a hearing The request for a hearing may be made by delivering or mailing the enclosed form entitled Notice of Defense, or by delivering or mailing a notice of defense as provided by Section 11506 of the Government Code to. The hearing may be postponed for good cause. If you have good cause, you are obliged to notify the agency within 10 working days after you discover the good cause. Failure to notify the agency within 10 days will deprive you of a postponement.

(c) The accusation and all accompanying information may be sent to respondent by any means selected by the agency. But no order adversely affecting the rights of the respondent shall be made by the agency in any case unless the respondent shall have been served personally or by registered mail as provided herein, or shall have filed a notice of defense or otherwise appeared. Service may be proved in the manner authorized in civil actions. Service by registered mail shall be effective if a statute or agency rule requires respondent to file his address with the agency and to notify the agency of any change, and if a registered letter containing the accusation and accompanying material is mailed, addressed to respondent at the latest address on file with the agency.

SEC. 4. Section 11517 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11517. (a) If a contested case is heard before an agency itself the hearing officer who presided at the hearing shall be present during the consideration of the case and, if requested, shall assist and advise the agency Where a contested case is heard before an agency itself, no member thereof who did not hear the evidence shall vote on the decision.

(b) If a contested case is heard by a hearing officer alone, he or she shall prepare within 30 days after the case is submitted a proposed decision in such form that it may be adopted as the decision in the case. The agency itself may adopt the proposed decision in its entirety, or may reduce the proposed penalty and adopt the balance of the proposed decision.

Thirty days after receipt of the proposed decision, a copy of the proposed decision shall be filed by the agency as a public record and a copy shall be served by the agency on each party and his or her attorney.

(c) If the proposed decision is not adopted as provided in subdivision (b), the agency itself may decide the case upon the record, including the transcript, with or without taking additional evidence, or may refer the case to the same hearing officer to take additional evidence. If the case is so assigned to a hearing officer he shall prepare a proposed decision as provided in subdivision (b) upon the additional evidence and the transcript and other papers which are part of the record of the prior hearing. A copy of such proposed decision shall be furnished to each party and his attorney as prescribed in subdivision (b). The agency itself shall decide no case provided for in this subdivision without affording the parties the opportunity to present either oral or written argument before the agency itself. If additional oral evidence is introduced before the agency itself no agency member may vote unless he heard the additional oral evidence.

(d) The proposed decision shall be deemed adopted by the agency 100 days after delivery to the agency by the Office of Administrative Hearings, unless within that time the agency commences proceedings to decide the case upon the record, including the transcript, or the agency refers the case to the hearing officer to take additional evidence. In a case where the agency itself hears the case, the agency shall issue its decision within 100 days of submission of the case. In a case where the agency has ordered a transcript of the proceedings, the 100-day period shall begin upon delivery of the transcript. If the agency finds that a further delay is required by special circumstances, it shall issue an order delaying the decision for no more than 30 days and specifying the reasons therefor. Such order shall be subject to judicial review pursuant to Section 11523.

(e) The decision of the agency shall be filed immediately by the agency as a public record and a copy shall be served by the agency on each party and his or her attorney.

SEC. 5. Section 11524 of the Government Code is amended to read:

When a hearing officer of the Office of Administrative Hearings has been assigned to such hearing, no continuance may be granted except by him or by the hearing officer in charge of the appropriate regional office of the Office of Administrative Hearings, for good cause shown.

(b) When seeking a continuance, a party shall apply for the continuance within 10 working days following the time the party discovered or reasonably should have discovered the event or occurrence which establishes the good cause for such continuance. A continuance may be granted for good cause after the 10 working days have lapsed if the party seeking the continuance is not responsible for and has made a good faith effort to prevent the condition or event establishing the good cause.

(c) In the event that an application for a continuance by a party is denied by a hearing officer of the Office of Administrative Hearings, and the party seeks judicial review thereof, the party shall, within 10 working days of such denial, make application for appropriate judicial relief in the superior court or be barred from judicial review thereof as a matter of jurisdiction. A party applying for judicial relief from such denial shall give notice to the agency and other parties. Notwithstanding Section 1010 of the Code of Civil Procedure, such notice may be either oral at the time of the denial of application for a continuance or written at the same time application is made in court for judicial relief. This subdivision does not apply to the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control.

SEC. 6. Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

interests of justice, determines that a defendant should be granted the relief available under this section, the defendant shall, at any time after the termination of the period of probation, if he is not then serving a sentence for any offense, on probation for any offense, or charged with the commission of any offense, be permitted by the court to withdraw his plea of guilty or plea of nolo contendere and enter a plea of not guilty; or, if he has been convicted after a plea of not guilty, the court shall set aside the verdict of guilty; and, in either case, the court shall thereupon dismiss the accusations or information against the defendant and except as noted below, he shall thereafter be released from all penalties and disabilities resulting from the offense of which he has been convicted, except as provided in Section 13555 of the Vehicle Code. The probationer shall be informed, in his probation papers, of this right and privilege and his right, if any, to petition for a certificate of rehabilitation and pardon. The probationer may make such application and change of plea in person or by attorney, or by the probation officer authorized in writing; provided, that, in any subsequent prosecution of the defendant for any other offense, the prior conviction may be pleaded and proved and shall have the same effect as if probation had not been granted or the accusation or information dismissed; and provided further that the order shall state, and the probationer shall be informed, that the order does not relieve him of the obligation to disclose the conviction in response to any direct question contained in any questionnaire or application for public office or for licensure by any state or local agency.

Dismissal of an accusation or information pursuant to this section does not permit a person to own, possess, or have in his custody or control any firearm capable of being concealed upon the person or prevent his conviction under Section 12021.

This subdivision shall apply to all applications for relief under this section which are filed on or after November 23, 1970.

[Approved by Governor July 3, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State July 3, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows.

SECTION 1. Section 4600 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4600. In any proceeding where there is at issue the custody of a minor child, the court may, during the pendency of the proceeding, or at any time thereafter, make such order for the custody of such child during his minority as may seem necessary or proper. If a child is of sufficient age and capacity to reason so as to form an intelligent preference as to custody, the court shall consider and give due weight to his wishes in making an award of custody or modification thereof. Custody should be awarded in the following order of preference:

(a) To either parent, or to both parents jointly pursuant to Section 4600.5, according to the best interests of the child, provided, however, that in making such an award to either parent, the court shall not prefer a parent as custodian because of that parent's sex.

(b) To the person or persons in whose home the child has been living in a wholesome and stable environment.

(c) To any other person or persons deemed by the court to be suitable and able to provide adequate and proper care and guidance for the child.

Before the court makes any order awarding custody to a person or persons other than a parent, without the consent of the parents, it shall make a finding that an award of custody to a parent would be detrimental to the child and the award to a nonparent is required to serve the best interests of the child. Allegations that parental custody would be detrimental to the child, other than a statement of that ultimate fact, shall not appear in the pleadings. The court may, in its discretion, exclude the public from the hearing on this issue.

SEC. 2. Section 4600.5 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

4600.5. (a) There shall be a presumption, affecting the burden of proof, that joint custody is in the best interests of a minor child where the parents have agreed to an award of joint custody or so agree in open court at a hearing for the purpose of determining the custody of the minor child or children of the marriage.

The court, in its discretion, may require the parents to submit to the court a plan for the implementation of the joint custody order. If the court declines to enter an order awarding joint custody pursuant to subdivision (a), the court shall state in its order the reasons for denial of an award of joint custody.

(b) Upon the application of either parent, joint custody may be awarded in the discretion of the court in other cases. For the purpose of assisting the court in making a determination whether an award of joint custody is appropriate under this subdivision, the court shall, upon the request of either party, direct that an investigation be conducted pursuant to the provisions of Section 4602.

(c) For the purposes of this section, "joint custody" means an order awarding legal custody of the minor child or children to both parents and providing that physical custody shall be shared by the parents in such a way as to assure the child or children of continuing contact with both parents; provided, however, that such order may award joint legal custody without awarding joint physical custody.

(d) Any order for joint custody may be modified or terminated upon the petition of one or both parents or on the court's own motion if it is shown that the best interests of the child require modification or termination of the order.

(e) Any order for the custody of the minor child or children of a marriage entered by a court in this state or any other state may, subject to the jurisdictional requirements set forth in Sections 5152 and 5163, be modified at any time to an order of joint custody in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(f) In counties having a conciliation court, the court or the parties may, at any time, pursuant to local rules of court, consult with the conciliation court for the purpose of assisting the parties to formulate a plan for implementation of the joint custody order or to resolve any controversy which has arisen in the implementation of a plan for joint custody.

SEC. 3. The Legislature finds and declares that it is the public policy of this state to assure minor children of close and continuing contact with both parents after the parents have separated or dissolved their marriage. The Legislature further finds and declares that it is the public policy of this state that there exists no preference in law that the custody of minor children be ordered or awarded to one parent because of that parent's sex.

[Approved by Governor July 3, 1979. Filed with Secretary of State July 3, 1979.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 2.1 (commencing with Section 275) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Article 2.1 (commencing with Section 275) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 2.1. Infant Medical Dispatch Centers

275 The Legislature finds that intensive care nurseries for at-risk infants are often at capacity. It further finds that serious delays can occur in placing critically ill newborn infants in intensive care nurseries due to calls being placed to many hospitals. Additionally, valuable staff time is often taken by a capacity nursery in attempting to find another nursery with an available bed. It is further found that, due to the lack of a centralized dispatch system, at-risk infants are often not placed in the intensive care nursery nearest their homes.

Therefore, the Legislature finds that in order to protect the health of critically ill newborn children and to more efficiently utilize space and staff in intensive care nurseries it is necessary to establish 24-hour-a-day, year-round medical dispatch centers linking all hospitals providing obstetrical services with intensive care nurseries.

276. The state department shall establish two dispatch centers, each to be located at a hospital containing an intensive care nursery that has been approved by the state department.

276.5. One of the centers established pursuant to Section 276 shall be located to serve the region of the state north of the Tehachapi Mountains, and one of the centers shall be located to serve the region south of the Tehachapi Mountains.

277. The centers shall locate bedspace for critically ill newborn infants nearest their homes, locate and dispatch transport for such infants and for appropriate medical personnel, advise the obstetrical nursery regarding maintenance care of the infant until transport is effected, and keep a daily record of the availability of bedspace in all intensive care nurseries.

Nothing in this article shall obligate the state for transport costs other than those already authorized by law.

278. Funds appropriated to carry out the purposes of this article shall be used for leasing or purchasing communication equipment or time; and for hiring, training, or contracting for personnel and administration of the centers.

279. Public and private nonprofit health facilities, organizations, and educational institutions are eligible to receive center funds under this article.

280. Each infant medical dispatch center established pursuant to this chapter shall annually report on the progress of the project, the status of the data base obtained pursuant to Section 277, and any necessary changes to meet the goals prescribed in Section 277 to the Legislature on or before November 1 of each year.

SEC. 3. The sum of two hundred seven thousand three hundred thirty-seven dollars ($207,337) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Department of Health Services for purposes of Article 2.1 (commencing with Section 275) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code in accordance with the following schedule:

(a) To the Northern California Infant Medical Dispatch Center	$88,000
(b) To the Southern California Infant Medical Dispatch Center	100,000
(c) To the State Department of Health Services for expenditure for personnel and administrative costs	19,337

The continued funding for the project which is funded pursuant to this section for the 1979–80 fiscal year, shall be included in the annual budget prepared and submitted through the State Department of Health Services and, thereby, included in the annual state budget.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are.

In order for infant medical dispatch centers to continue to provide services essential to the public health, it is necessary that this act take immediate effect

(b) By November 1 of each year the Student Aid Commission shall determine the appropriate adjustments for the awards for the succeeding fiscal year. The recommendation shall be reviewed for comment by the California Postsecondary Education Commission and shall be reported to the Department of Finance for approval and, if approved, shall be included in the Governor's Budget prepared pursuant to Section 12 of Article IV of the Constitution.

(c) In determining the appropriate adjustments at least the following factors shall be considered:

(1) The impact of inflation.

(2) The availability of financial aid from other sources for students who would qualify for a Cal Grant.

69546.5 The Student Aid Commission shall distribute federal state student incentive grant funds received which are in excess of amounts received in the 1978–1979 fiscal year according to the following formula; provided that all previously authorized awards which were originally funded by federal funds or designated for renewal for federal funds and which are eligible for renewal have been renewed:

renewal award winners receiving their initial award after July 1, 1979;

(b) Thirty-five percent shall be used to fund awards prescribed in subdivision (b) of Section 69532 which are in excess of the number of such awards authorized for the 1977–1978 fiscal year;

(c) Fifteen percent shall be used to fund awards prescribed in subdivision (c) of Section 69532 which are in excess of the number of such awards authorized for the 1977–1978 fiscal year.

The Student Aid Commission may recommend variations from such formula to the Department of Finance and to the Legislature if the number or amount of awards in one or more Cal Grant programs is sufficient to meet the needs of students eligible to participate. The Legislature and the Department of Finance shall review such recommendation, and if it is approved by the Department of Finance, such recommendation shall be included in the Governor's Budget prepared pursuant to Section 12 of Article IV of the Constitution.

SEC. 3 This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution, and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Chapter 1215 of the Statutes of 1978 made various changes in the law relating to the duties of the Student Aid Commission and prescribed a formula for the distribution of specified federal funds. Further amendments to the provisions enacted by Chapter 1215 are necessary to ensure the orderly implementation of that act. In order that these amendments may be operative simultaneously with Chapter 1215, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

49333. The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 597 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

597 When the answer pleads that the action is barred by the statute of limitations, or by a prior judgment, or that another action is pending upon the same cause of action, or sets up any other defense not involving the merits of the plaintiff's cause of action but constituting a bar or ground of abatement to the prosecution thereof, the court may, either upon its own motion or upon the motion of any party, proceed to the trial of such special defense or defenses before the trial of any other issue in the case, and if the decision of the court, or the verdict of the jury, upon any special defense so tried (other than the defense of another action pending) is in favor of the defendant pleading the same, judgment for such defendant shall thereupon be entered and no trial of other issues in the action shall be had unless such judgment shall be reversed on appeal or otherwise set aside or vacated; and where the defense of another action pending is sustained (and no other special defense is sustained) an interlocutory judgment shall be entered in favor of the defendant pleading the same to the effect that no trial of other issues shall be had until the final determination of such other action, and the plaintiff may appeal from such interlocutory judgment in the same manner and within the same time as is now or may be hereafter provided by law for appeals from judgments. If the decision of the court, or the verdict of the jury, upon the special defense or defenses so tried shall be in favor of the plaintiff, trial of the other issues shall thereafter be had either upon the court's own motion or upon the motion of any party, and judgment shall be entered thereon in the same manner and with the same effect as if all the issues in the case had been tried at one time. In such event any and all decisions or verdicts upon such special defense or defenses, and all rulings on the trial thereof shall be deemed excepted to and may be reviewed on motion for a new trial or upon appeal from such judgment.

The provisions of this section shall also apply to the trial of special defenses pleaded in an answer to a cross-complaint, and if the decision of the court or the verdict of the jury upon the special defense or defenses shall be in favor of the cross-defendant, no further trial shall be had upon the issues raised by the cross-complaint, but trial of the other issues in the action shall thereafter be had either upon the court's own motion or upon the motion of any party, and after the trial thereof such judgment shall be entered in the action as shall be justified by the decision or verdict on such other issues, considered in connection with the decision or verdict upon the trial of such affirmative defense raised in the answer to the cross-complaint.

If the issue raised by the statute of limitations is finally determined in favor of the plaintiff, the remaining issues shall then be tried.

SEC. 3. Section 598 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

598. The court may, when the convenience of witnesses or the ends of justice would be promoted thereby, either upon its own motion or upon the motion of any party, after notice and hearing, make and order, no later than the close of pretrial conference in cases in which such pretrial conference is to be held, or, in other cases, no later than 30 days before the trial date, that the trial of any issue or any part thereof shall precede the trial of any other issue or any part thereof in the case, except for special defenses which may be tried first pursuant to Sections 597 and 597.5. Where trial of the issue of liability as to all causes of action precedes the trial of other issues or parts thereof, and the decision of the court, or the verdict of the jury upon such issue so tried is in favor of any party on whom liability is sought to be imposed, judgment in favor of such party shall thereupon be entered and no trial of other issues in the action as against such party shall be had unless such judgment shall be reversed upon appeal or otherwise set aside or vacated.

The adoption of Proposition 13 (Article XIII A of the California Constitution) by the voters of California at the June 6, 1978, primary election has, in certain circumstances, resulted in school districts having a shortage of funds to meet operating and certain debt service expenses. Furthermore, many public school entities, faced with the uncertainties of future financial support, are as a practical matter unable to formulate a final budget for the 1979–80 fiscal year by August 10 of 1979. Thus, in order to facilitate the orderly administration and operation of the public schools of California in the 1979–80 school year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

(B) For each local agency, the county auditor shall compute a factor equal to the average amount of property tax revenue received in the three fiscal years prior to the 1978–79 fiscal year by each local agency within the county, divided by the average amount of property tax revenue received by all such agencies during the three fiscal years prior to the 1978–79 fiscal year. The county auditor shall multiply the factor for each local agency by the amount of revenue determined pursuant to subparagraph (A).

For the purpose of this paragraph, local agencies formed after January 1, 1976, shall be considered school districts.

(3) For the purpose of this subdivision, the amount of proceeds of any property tax actually and separately levied for the specific purpose of making annual payments for the interest and principal on outstanding general obligation bonds or other indebtedness approved by the voters prior to July 1, 1978, including tax rates levied pursuant to Part 10 (commencing with Section 15000) of Division 1 of Sections 39308, 39311, 81338, and 81341 of the Education Code, shall be excluded from all calculations.

(5) As used in this section, "property tax revenue" includes the amount of state reimbursement for the homeowners' and business inventory exemptions.

(c) For the 1978–79 fiscal year only, the amount of state reimbursement to each county with respect to property tax losses pursuant to the homeowners' exemption under Section 218 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, the business inventory exemption under Section 219 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and the special treatment accorded livestock, motion pictures and wine and brandy under Sections 5523, 988, and 992, respectively, of the Revenue and Taxation Code, shall be allocated by each county auditor, subject to the allocation and payment of funds, as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 33670 of the Health and Safety Code, to local agencies, school districts, county superintendents of schools, and community college districts within the county pursuant to the proportions established in subdivision (b). This subdivision shall not apply to reimbursements with respect to tax rates levied to pay the interest or principal on outstanding general obligation bonds or other indebtedness approved by the voters prior to July 1, 1978.

(d) For local agencies, school districts, and community college districts located in more than one county, the county auditor of each county in which such local agency or district is located shall, for the purposes of computing the amount for such local agency or district pursuant to paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (b), treat the portion of the local agency or district located within that county as a local agency or district

SEC 2 The amendments to Section 26912 of the Government

Code made by this act do not constitute a change in, but are declaratory of, the existing law.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Included in such legislation were provisions providing a method for allocation of property tax revenues for the 1978–79 fiscal year. Uncertainties in the application of such provisions require immediate clarification in order to enable proper distribution of such funds.

[Approved by Governor July 9, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State July 9, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 61601.7 is added to the Government Code, to read:

61601.7. Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 61600 and 61601, whenever the Board of Directors of the Golden Hills Community Services District determines by resolution that it is feasible, economically sound, and in the public interest for such district to exercise its power for the purpose of enforcing the covenants, conditions, and restrictions adopted for each tract within the boundaries of the district, and to assume the duties of the architectural control committee for each tract within the boundaries of the district and for such other tracts as may be annexed from time to time, for the purpose of maintaining uniform standards of development within the district as adopted in the covenants, conditions, and restrictions, the board shall adopt such additional purpose by resolution entered in the minutes and such power of such district may be exercised thereafter.

Such board may thereafter divest the district of the power to carry on such activities in the same manner as it may acquire such power.

For the purposes of this section, "tract" means any parcel of land for which the county has authorized development.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that the Golden Hills Community Services District has a special need for the power to enforce the covenants, conditions, and restrictions adopted for each tract within the boundaries of the district and to assume the duties of the architectural control committee for each tract within the boundaries of the district and for such other tracts as may be annexed from time to time, for the purpose of maintaining uniform standards of development within the district as adopted in such covenants, conditions, and restrictions. It is, therefore, hereby declared that a general law cannot be made applicable and that enactment of Section 61601.7 of the Government Code is necessary for the solution of problems existing in the Golden Hills Community Services District.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The existing members of the property owners association who are carrying out the duties of the architectural control committee have given notice that they will terminate such service on June 30, 1979 In order that uniform standards of development and enforcement of covenants, conditions, and restrictions on land use are maintained, it is, therefore, necessary that this act take immediate effect.

(c) Certificates shall be awarded on the basis of a combination of training, education, experience, and other prerequisites, as determined by the commission.

(d) Persons who are determined by the commission to be eligible peace officers may make application for such certificates, provided they are employed by an agency which participates in the Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST) program.

(e) Certificates remain the property of the commission and the commission shall have the power to cancel any certificate.

CHAPTER 232

An act relating to the Public Employees' Retirement System, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Became law without Governor's signature July 10, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State July 10, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1 The sum of thirty-four thousand forty-one dollars ($34,041) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Board of Administration of the Public Employees' Retirement System to be transferred to and in augmentation of Item 122 of the Budget Act of 1978 for the use and support of the Board of Administration of the Public Employees' Retirement System during the 1978–79 fiscal year.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to provide for deficiencies in funds available to the Public Employees' Retirement System for administrative expenses during the 1978–79 fiscal year, it is necessary that this act become effective immediately.

CHAPTER 233

An act to amend Section 20870 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to petroleum dealers.

[Approved by Governor July 10, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State July 10, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20870 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

20870. It is unlawful for any distributor or for any broker to sell any product to a retailer or to any person, when the quantity distributed in any single delivery to a single location is 5,000 or more gallons, as, or purporting to be, gasoline or diesel fuel, unless, the distributor or broker, as the case may be, offers to invoice the purchaser for such gasoline or diesel fuel on the basis of temperature-corrected gallonage to 60 degrees Fahrenheit for all such deliveries to the purchaser over a period of twelve (12) consecutive months and settles his accounts with the purchaser on the same basis.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no appropriation made by this act pursuant to these sections because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local agencies and school districts which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes. Paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 2253.2 of that code precludes the State Board of Control from considering claims for costs incurred by the creation of a new crime or infraction or by changes in the penalty for a crime or infraction, but the Department of Finance shall make the report required by Section 2246 of that code on costs mandated by this act.

CHAPTER 234

An act to amend Section 2356 of, and to add Section 2307.1 to, the Civil Code, relating to agency.

[Approved by Governor July 10, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State July 10, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2307.1 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

2307.1. When a principal designates another his attorney in fact or agent by a power of attorney in writing, signed by the principal and acknowledged, and the writing contains the words "This power of attorney shall not be affected by the subsequent disability or incapacity of the principal until one year after the disability or incapacity occurs, or such lesser period specified by the principal," or similar words showing the intent of the principal that the authority conferred shall be exercisable notwithstanding his or her later disability or incapacity, then the authority of the attorney in fact or agent is exercisable by him or her as provided in the power on behalf of the principal until one year after the disability or incapacity occurs, or such lesser period specified by the principal, notwithstanding later disability or incapacity of the principal at law, provided, however, that the authority of the attorney in fact or agent under a power created pursuant to this section to engage in any transaction involving the sale, conveyance, exchange, transfer, partition, lease, or encumbrance of real property, or any rights or security interest therein, shall be limited to real property which comprises the principal place of residence of the principal. A principal may limit the time period that a power of attorney survives that disability or incapacity to a period less than one year.

All acts done by the attorney in fact or agent, pursuant to the power during any period of disability or incapacity, have the same effect and inure to the benefit of and bind the principal or his or her heirs, devisees, and personal representatives as if the principal were competent and not disabled. Any bona fide purchaser or encumbrancer for value may conclusively rely upon, and need not inquire into, the capacity of the principal at the time a durable power of attorney is created pursuant to this section.

If a conservator or guardian shall thereafter be appointed for the property or estate of the principal, the attorney in fact or agent shall, during the continuance of the appointment, account to the conservator or guardian rather than the principal. The conservator or guardian has the same power the principal would have had if he or she were not disabled or incapacitated to revoke, suspend, or terminate all or any part of the power of attorney or agency

SEC 2 Section 2356 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2356 (a) Unless the power of an agent is coupled with an interest in the subject of the agency, it is terminated by: (1) its revocation by the principal; (2) his death; or, (3) his incapacity to contract, except for a power of attorney created pursuant to Section 2307.1, which power terminates upon the expiration of one year from the occurrence of disability or incapacity of the principal, or of such lesser period specified by the principal.

(b) However, any bona fide transaction entered into with such agent by any person acting without actual knowledge of such revocation, death, or incapacity shall be binding upon the principal, his heirs, devisees, legatees, and other successors in interest

Under this subdivision, in the case of an agent of a principal who is an absentee as defined in Section 1751.5 of the Probate Code, while the absentee continues in his missing status, and until receipt by the parties of notice from the secretary of the department or head of the agency concerned, or his delegate, of the termination of such missing status by the making of a finding of the death of the absentee, the parties shall be deemed to be without actual knowledge of any such revocation, death, or incapacity of the principal.

(c) Nothing in this section shall affect the provisions of Section 1216

CHAPTER 235

An act to amend Sections 40508, 40509, 40510, 40514, and 40515 of, and to add Section 40506 5 to, the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor July 10, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State July 10, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1 Section 40506.5 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read

40506.5 Prior to the date upon which he promised to appear and without depositing bail, the defendant may request a continuance of his written promise to appear. The judge of a municipal or justice court may authorize the clerk to grant the continuance.

SEC 2 Section 40508 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read.

40508. (a) Any person willfully violating his written promise to appear or a lawfully granted continuance of his promise to appear in court or before a person authorized to receive a deposit of bail is guilty of a misdemeanor regardless of the disposition of the charge upon which he was originally arrested

(b) Any person willfully failing to pay a lawfully imposed fine for a violation of any provision of this code or a local ordinance adopted pursuant to this code within the time authorized by the court and without lawful excuse having been presented to the court on or before the date the fine is due is guilty of a misdemeanor regardless of the full payment of the fine after such time.

(c) If a person convicted of an infraction fails to pay a fine or any installment thereof within the time authorized by the court, the court may, except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, impound the person's driver's license and order him not to drive for a period not to exceed 30 days. Before returning the license to the person the court shall endorse on the reverse side of the license that the person was ordered not to drive, the period for which such order was made, and the name of the court making the order. If the defendant satisfies the court that impounding his driver's license and ordering him not to drive will affect his livelihood, the court shall order that the person limit his driving for a period not to exceed 30 days to such driving as is essential in the court's determination to the person's employment, including his driving to and from his place of employment if other means of transportation are not reasonably available. The court shall provide for the endorsement of such limitation on the person's license. The impounding of the license and ordering the person not to drive or the order limiting the person's driving does not constitute a suspension of the license, but a violation of the order constitutes contempt of court.

SEC. 3. Section 40509 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

40509. (a) Whenever any person has for a period of 15 or more days violated his written promise to appear or a lawfully granted continuance of his promise to appear in court or before the person authorized to receive a deposit of bail or violated an order to appear in court or to pay a fine pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 42003, the magistrate or clerk of the court may give notice of such fact to the department. Such notice shall be given not less than 30 days nor more than 60 days after issuance of a warrant. Whenever thereafter the case in which such promise was given is adjudicated or the person who has violated the court order appears in court or otherwise satisfies the order of the court, the magistrate or clerk of the court hearing the case shall sign and file with the department a certificate to that effect.

(b) Whenever any person has for a period of 15 or more days willfully failed to pay a lawfully imposed fine within the time authorized by the court, the magistrate or clerk of such court may give notice of such fact to the department for any violation which is required to be reported pursuant to Section 1803. Whenever thereafter the fine is fully paid, the magistrate or clerk of such court shall sign and file with the department a certificate showing that the fine has been paid.

SEC. 4. Section 40510 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

40510. The defendant may, prior to the date upon which he promised to appear or prior to the expiration of any lawful continuance of such date, deposit bail with the magistrate or the person authorized to receive a deposit of bail.

For any offense which is not declared to be a felony, such deposit of bail may be by the personal check of the person who has signed a written promise to appear, if he furnishes to the person authorized to receive a deposit of bail satisfactory evidence of residence in this state and if such personal check is drawn on a banking institution located in this state.

SEC. 5 Section 40514 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

40514. No warrant shall issue on the charge for the arrest of a person who has given his written promise to appear in court or before a person authorized to receive a deposit of bail, unless he has violated the promise, the lawfully granted continuance of his promise, or has failed to deposit bail, to appear for arraignment, trial or judgment, or to comply with the terms and provisions of the judgment, as required by law.

SEC. 6. Section 40515 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

40515. (a) When a person signs a written promise to appear or is granted a continuance of his promise to appear at the time and place specified in the written promise to appear or the continuance thereof, and has not posted bail, the magistrate may issue and have delivered for execution a warrant for his arrest within 20 days after his failure to appear before the magistrate, or if the person promises to appear before an officer authorized to accept bail other than a magistrate and fails to do so on or before the date on which he promised to appear, then, within 20 days after the delivery of the written promise to appear by the officer to a magistrate having jurisdiction over the offense.

(b) When the person violates his promise to appear before an officer authorized to receive bail other than a magistrate, the officer shall immediately deliver to a magistrate having jurisdiction over the offense charged the written promise to appear and the complaint, if any, filed by the arresting officer.

CHAPTER 240

An act to amend Sections 20165, 20685, 20750.9, 20803, 21033, 21102, 21200 3, 21330, and 21331 of, and to add Sections 20803.2, 20809.1, and 20809.2 to, the Government Code, relating to the Public Employees' Retirement System.

[Approved by Governor July 10, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State July 10, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20165 of the Government Code is amended to read·

20165. If more or less than the correct amount of contribution required of members, the state, or any contracting agency, is paid, proper adjustment shall be made in connection with subsequent payments, or such adjustments may be made by direct cash payments between the member, state, or contracting agency concerned and the board. Adjustments to correct any other errors in payments to or by the board, including adjustments of contributions, with interest, which are found to be erroneous as the result of corrections of dates of birth, may be made in the same manner. Adjustments to correct overpayment of a retirement allowance may also be made by adjusting the allowance so that the retired person or the retired person and his beneficiary, as the case may be, will receive the actuarial equivalent of the allowance to which the member is entitled. Losses or gains resulting from error in amounts within the limits set by the State Board of Control for automatic writeoff, and losses or gains in greater amounts specifically approved for writeoff by the State Board of Control, shall be debited or credited, as the case may be, to the reserve against deficiencies in interest earned in other years, losses under investments, and other contingencies.

No adjustment shall be made because less than the correct amount of normal contributions was paid by a member if, upon application of the member made within 90 days of discovery of the error by the system, the board finds that the error was not known to the member and was not the result of erroneous information provided by him to the system or to his employer and such failure to adjust will not preclude action under Section 20180 correcting the date upon which the person became a member.

The actuarial equivalent under this section shall be computed on the basis of the mortality tables and actuarial interest rate in effect under the system on December 1, 1970, for retirements effective through December 31, 1979. Commencing with retirements effective January 1, 1980, and at corresponding 10-year intervals thereafter, or more frequently at the board's discretion, the board shall change the basis for calculating actuarial equivalents under this article to agree with the interest rate and mortality tables in effect at the commencement of each such 10-year or succeeding interval.

SEC. 2. Section 20685 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20685. (a) If a basic death benefit has become or becomes payable before the payment of the total amount the member elected to pay under any election with respect to normal contributions permitted under this part, the member's entire compensation, or the service upon which that total amount was based, as the case may be, shall be included in the computation of the portion of the death benefit which is provided in subdivision (b) of Section 21361, and the unpaid balance of the total amount shall not be paid to this system, nor shall it be included in the member's accumulated contributions which constitute a part of the basic death benefit.

(b) Any balance of any such total amount remaining unpaid at the death of the member on account of whom a special death benefit is payable or at the retirement of a member for industrial disability shall become due and payable forthwith, except that the survivor of a member who died under circumstances under which a special death benefit is payable and who had authorized payroll deductions, in accordance with Section 20654, may elect to continue such deductions from the survivor allowance in lieu of the lump-sum payment otherwise required. If the balance is not paid, the portion of such unpaid amount representing contributions on compensation earned in the membership applicable to the member at the time of injury resulting in death shall be deducted from the benefit otherwise payable and the system shall be discharged from any liability for any annuity or benefit with respect to any remainder of such unpaid contribution.

(c) Any balance of such total amount remaining unpaid at the time of retirement for service or ordinary disability, or at death, with respect to which a benefit is payable under Section 21365.5 shall become due and payable forthwith, except that the survivor of a member who died under circumstances under which a benefit under Section 21365.5 is payable and who had authorized payroll deductions, in accordance with Section 20654, may elect to continue such deductions from the survivor allowance in lieu of a lump-sum payment of the balance due. If the balance is not paid, the service credit included in the election shall be reduced proportionately and any prior service dependent on completion of payments eliminated for purposes of computing the allowance but not for purposes of determining entitlement to an allowance.

(d) Notwithstanding any provision of subdivision (b) or (c), a member who retires after January 1, 1976, before payment of the total amount which he elected to pay, may elect to pay the balance due by deductions from his retirement allowance equal to those which he authorized as payroll deductions in accordance with Section 20654. In such case service credit included in the election shall not be reduced, nor shall any prior service dependent on completion of payments be eliminated for purposes of computing the allowance. Any balance of such total amount remaining unpaid upon the death of such member shall be treated in the same manner as unpaid balances are treated if a special death benefit is payable, except that the survivor of a retired member who had authorized deductions from his retirement allowance in accordance with this subdivison, and who is eligible for a monthly allowance, may elect to continue such deductions from his allowance in lieu of the lump-sum payment otherwise required.

SEC. 3. Section 20750.9 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20750.9. The rates of contribution fixed under this chapter shall be effective on the operative date of the amendments to this section at the 1971 Regular Session; provided that if such rate is greater than the current rate of a contracting agency, its effectivity shall be deferred and the current rate continued with respect to such agency on request of its governing body until July 1, 1972, in which case an amount equal to the additional contributions which would have been made by the contracting agency had such deferral not occurred shall be transferred from the contributions of the contracting agency held for liability to be funded pursuant to Section 20750.8 to the contributions held for liabilities of all employers in accordance with Section 20758. Rates of contributions as fixed under this chapter shall be adjusted thereafter from time to time by the board pursuant to actuarial valuation of the liability for benefits on account of the employees of all public employers. Any adjustment of such rate of contribution shall be effective on the July 1 following notice as provided in this section The board shall report such adjustment to the Governor, the Legislature, and the governing body of every other public employer before March 1 of the fiscal year preceding that in which the adjustment becomes effective.

SEC. 4 Section 20803 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20803. "Local safety service" means state service rendered as a local firefighter, local police officer, county peace officer, local safety officer, or positions defined as local safety member in Section 20019.3 except as provided in this article and Article 4.

SEC. 5. Section 20803.2 is added to the Government Code, to read:

20803.2. Past local miscellaneous service shall be converted to local safety service if the past service:

(a) Was rendered by a current employee of the same agency for which the miscellaneous service was performed; and

(c) Is credited to an employee who has other local safety service credit for service performed with the agency.

SEC. 6. Section 20809.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

20809.1. A member who is receiving military retirement pay based on 20 or more years of active duty with the armed forces shall be deemed to have received credit in a publicly supported retirement system for all service performed with the armed forces. Credit toward military retirement pay which is earned by a combination of active duty and nonactive duty with a reserve component of the armed forces and where the retirement pay is payable only upon the attainment of a specified age shall not be deemed credit in a publicly supported retirement system.

SEC. 7. Section 20809.2 is added to the Government Code, to read:

20809.2. A member who is receiving disability retirement pay which is paid by one of the armed forces shall be deemed to be receiving military retirement pay based on active duty, regardless of the number of years of active duty served. A member who is receiving disability compensation from the Veterans' Administration and is not receiving retirement pay from one of the armed forces shall not be considered to be receiving military retirement pay.

SEC. 8. Section 21033 of the Government Code is amended to read·

21033. If the retirement allowance of any person retired for disability is canceled for any cause other than reentrance into state service, and if he does not reenter state service, an amount which is the actuarial equivalent of his annuity at cancellation, based on a disabled life, but not exceeding the amount of his accumulated contributions at the time of his retirement for disability, shall be credited to his individual account, and shall be refunded to him unless he elects, under Section 20393, to allow his accumulated contributions to remain in the retirement fund.

The actuarial equivalent under this section shall be computed on the basis of the mortality tables and actuarial interest rate in effect under the system on December 1, 1970, for retirements effective through December 31, 1979. Commencing with retirements effective January 1, 1980, and at corresponding 10-year intervals thereafter, or more frequently at the board's discretion, the board shall change the basis for calculating actuarial equivalents under this article to agree with the interest rate and mortality tables in effect at the commencement of each such 10-year or succeeding interval.

SEC. 9. Section 21102 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21102. When any person is reinstated from retirement under this article, his retirement allowance shall be canceled forthwith, and he shall become a member of this system as of the date of reinstatement. His individual account shall be credited with an amount which is the actuarial equivalent of his annuity at the date of reinstatement, not to exceed the amount of his accumulated contributions as it was at the date of retirement. His future rate of contributions and his retirement allowance upon subsequent retirement shall be determined in accordance with Chapter 5 and Chapter 9 of this part, respectively.

The actuarial equivalent under this section shall be computed on the basis of the mortality tables and actuarial interest rate in effect under the system on December 1, 1970, for retirements effective through December 31, 1979. Commencing with retirements effective January 1, 1980, and at corresponding 10-year intervals thereafter, or more frequently at the board's discretion, the board shall change the basis for calculating actuarial equivalents under this article to agree with the interest rate and mortality tables in effect at the commencement of each such 10-year or succeeding interval.

SEC. 10. Section 21200.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21200.3. Notwithstanding Section 21200.1, the board may fix the effective date of a member's retirement as of a date earlier than the first of the month in which an application for retirement is received in the office of the board, if the board finds: (1) an application is in fact received within nine months following the member's separation from state service; (2) the member separated from state service with the intention of retiring; (3) the member failed to submit an application for retirement due to misunderstanding of the requirement therefor, or the member or member's employer undertook to transmit an application for such retirement and failed or delayed unreasonably in such transmission; and (4) the member is living on the date the application is actually received at the office of the board. An effective date fixed pursuant to this section may not be earlier than the effective date found to have been specified in the original application or earlier than the day following the last day for which salary was payable. For purposes of this section, the member's intention to retire may be determined by personnel documents prepared by the employer at the time of the member's separation or by affidavit of the member, coworkers or the employer. This section shall also apply to persons retired on and after December 1, 1975, who transmit a request in writing to the board prior to March 1, 1977, for a lump-sum payment for the amount of allowance that they would have received if this section had been in effect on the effective date of their retirement

SEC. 11. Section 21330 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21330. In lieu of the retirement allowance for his life alone, a member or retired member may elect, or revoke or change a previous election prior to the approval of the previous election, to have the actuarial equivalent of his retirement allowance as of the date of retirement applied to a lesser retirement allowance, in accordance with one of the optional settlements specified in this article. Said election or revocation or change thereof, with respect to a member subject to Section 21263 at retirement, shall apply to all of the retirement allowance, if, at the effective date of retirement for service or for industrial disability, said member has no spouse, children or dependent parents who would qualify for an allowance under Section 21263 after the death of said member; or, if at retirement there are persons who would so qualify, then said election, or revocation, or change thereof, with respect to any optional settlement other than optional settlement one, shall apply only to the portion of the allowance which exceeds the amount of the allowance payable to the survivor.

An actuarial equivalent under this article shall be computed on the basis of the mortality tables and actuarial interest rate in effect under the system on December 1, 1970, for retirements effective through December 31, 1979. Commencing with retirements effective January 1, 1980, and at corresponding 10-year intervals thereafter, or more frequently at the board's discretion, the board shall change the basis for calculating actuarial equivalents under this article to agree with the interest rate and mortality tables in effect at the commencement of each such 10-year or succeeding interval.

SEC. 11.5. Section 21330 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21330. In lieu of the retirement allowance for his life alone, a member or retired member may elect, or revoke or change a previous election prior to the approval of the previous election, to have the actuarial equivalent of his retirement allowance as of the date of retirement applied to a lesser retirement allowance, in accordance with one of the optional settlements specified in this article. Said election or revocation or change thereof, with respect to a member subject to Section 21263 at retirement, shall apply to all of the retirement allowance, if, at the effective date of retirement, said member has no spouse, children or dependent parents who would

Commencing with retirements effective January 1, 1980, and at corresponding 10-year intervals thereafter, or more frequently at the board's discretion, the board shall change the basis for calculating actuarial equivalents under this article to agree with the interest rate and mortality tables in effect at the commencement of each such 10-year or succeeding interval.

SEC. 12. Section 21331 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21331. Such election, revocation, or change of election shall be made prior to the making of the first payment on account of any retirement allowance or, in event of a change of retirement status after retirement, prior to the making of the first payment on account of any retirement allowance following the change in retirement status. "Change in retirement status" includes but is not limited to change from service to disability retirement, from disability retirement to service retirement, from nonindustrial disability retirement to industrial disability retirement, or from industrial to nonindustrial disability retirement.

For purposes of this section only, the mailing of a warrant shall be deemed payment and the date of the mailing of the warrant shall be deemed the date of payment.

It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Senate Bill 248 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1980, both bills amend Section 21330 of the Government Code, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill 248, that the amendments to Section 21330 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 21330 in the form set forth in Section 11.5 of this act. Therefore, Section 11.5 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Senate Bill 248 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1980, both amend Section 21330, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill 248, in which case Section 11 of this act shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 241

An act to amend Section 6314 of the Labor Code, relating to occupational safety and health, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 10, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State July 10, 1979.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6314 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

6314. (a) To make an investigation or inspection, the chief of the division and all qualified divisional inspectors and investigators authorized by him shall, upon presenting appropriate credentials to the employer, have free access to any place of employment to investigate and inspect during regular working hours, and at other reasonable times when necessary for the protection of safety and health, and within reasonable limits and in a reasonable manner. The chief or his authorized representative may, during the course of any investigation or inspection, obtain any statistics, information, or any physical materials in the possession of the employer which are directly related to the purpose of the investigation or inspection, conduct any tests necessary to the investigation or inspection, and take photographs. Photographs taken by the division during the course of any investigation or inspection shall be considered to be confidential information pursuant to the provisions of Section 6322, and shall not be deemed to be public records for purposes of the California Public Records Act.

(b) If permission to investigate or inspect the place of employment is refused, or the facts or circumstances reasonably justify the failure to seek such permission, the chief or his authorized representative may obtain an inspection warrant pursuant to the provisions of Title 13 (commencing with Section 1822.50) of the Code of Civil Procedure. Cause for the issuance of a warrant shall be deemed to exist if there has been an industrial accident, injury, or illness reported, if any complaint that violations of occupational safety and health standards exist at the place of employment has been received by the division, or if the place of employment to be inspected has been chosen on the basis of specific neutral criteria contained in a general administrative plan for the enforcement of this division

(c) The chief and his authorized representatives may issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers, records, and physical materials, administer oaths, examine witnesses under oath, take verification or proof of written materials, and take depositions and affidavits for the purpose of carrying out the duties of the division

or place of employment by an authorized representative of the division, a representative of the employer and a representative authorized by his employees shall have an opportunity to accompany him on the tour of inspection. Any employee or employer, or their authorized representatives, shall have the right to discuss safety violations or safety problems with the inspector privately during the course of an investigation or inspection. Where there is no authorized employee representative, the chief or his authorized representatives shall consult with a reasonable number of employees concerning matters of health and safety of the place of employment.

(e) If, during any investigation of an industrial accident or occupational illness conducted by the division pursuant to the provisions of Section 6313, the chief or his authorized representative are refused entry by the employer, the chief or his authorized representative may issue an order to preserve physical materials or the accident site as they were at the time the accident or illness occurred if, in the opinion of the division, it is necessary to do so in order to determine the cause or causes of the accident or illness.

A conspicuous notice that such an order has been issued shall be prepared by the division and shall be posted by the employer in the area or on the article to be preserved. Any such order shall be limited to the immediate area and the machines, devices, apparatus, or equipment directly associated with the accident or illness.

The division shall make application, to the court having jurisdiction, for the issuance of an inspection warrant not later than the next court day following the day on which entry was refused. Failure to do so shall render the division's order to preserve the accident site void

If, upon presentation of such inspection warrant the division is refused entry at the place of employment where the accident has occurred, the order to preserve the accident site shall be void on the next court day following the day on which access was refused unless the division applies, after notice to the employer, to the court which issued such inspection warrant for an extension of the division's order to preserve the accident site.

Any order issued by the division to preserve an accident site shall remain in effect no longer than 72 hours from the time of its issuance unless a court directs otherwise and such order shall immediately be void if the division gains access to the place of employment.

Any person who knowingly violates an order issued by the division pursuant to this subdivision shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000).

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The United States Supreme Court, on May 23, 1978, held that a provision of the federal Occupational Safety and Health Act which generally authorized warrantless inspections of an employer's premises was unconstitutional. The California Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1973 contains a similar provision and makes the refusal of an employer to allow a Cal-OSHA inspector entry into the place of employment a misdemeanor. In view of the Supreme Court's decision, it is deemed necessary to urgently repeal these unconstitutional provisions of the California Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1973 and establish procedures for conducting Cal-OSHA inspections, and for obtaining administrative inspection warrants, which are in accordance with the Supreme Court's holding.

PART 0.5. IMPLEMENTATION OF ARTICLE XIII A OF THE CALIFORNIA CONSTITUTION

CHAPTER 1. BASE YEAR VALUES

50. For purposes of base year values as determined by Section 110.1, values determined for property which is purchased or changes ownership after the 1975 lien date shall be entered on the roll for the lien date next succeeding the date of the purchase or change in ownership. (a) The creation, renewal, sublease, assignment, or other transfer of the right to produce or extract oil, gas, or other minerals for so long

(b) Any transfer for the purpose of perfecting title to the property.

(c) (1) The creation, assignment, termination, or reconveyance of a security interest; or (2) the substitution of a trustee under a security instrument

(e) Any transfer by an instrument whose terms reserve to the transferor an estate for years or an estate for life; however, the termination of such an estate for years or estate for life shall constitute a change in ownership, except as provided in subdivision (d) of Section 62 and in Section 63.

(f) The creation or transfer of a joint tenancy interest if the transferor, after such creation or transfer, is one of the joint tenants.

(g) Any transfer of a lessor's interest in taxable real property subject to a lease with a remaining term (including renewal options) of 35 years or more.

63 Notwithstanding Sections 60, 61, 62, and 65, a change of ownership shall not include any interspousal transfer, including, but not limited to

(b) Transfers which take effect upon the death of a spouse,

(c) Transfers to a spouse or former spouse in connection with a property settlement agreement or decree of dissolution of a marriage or legal separation, or

64. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (h) of Section 61 and subdivision (c) of this section, the purchase or transfer of ownership interests in legal entities, such as corporate stock or partnership interests, shall not be deemed to constitute a transfer of the real property of the legal entity.

(b) Any corporate reorganization, by merger or consolidation, where all of the corporations involved are members of an affiliated group, and which qualifies as a reorganization under Section 368 of the United States Internal Revenue Code and which is accepted as a nontaxable event by similar California statutes or any transfer of real property among members of an affiliated group, shall not be a change of ownership The taxpayer shall furnish proof, under penalty of perjury, to the assessor that the transfer meets the requirements of this subdivision.

For purposes of this subdivision "affiliated group" means one or more chains of corporations connected through stock ownership with a common parent corporation if:

(1) One hundred percent of the voting stock, exclusive of any share owned by directors, of each of the corporations, except the parent corporation, is owned by one or more of the other corporations; and

(2) The common parent corporation owns, directly, 100 percent of the voting stock, exclusive of any shares owned by directors, of at least one of the other corporations.

(c) When one corporation obtains control, as defined in Section 25105, in another corporation through the purchase or transfer of corporate stock, exclusive of any shares owned by directors, such purchase or transfer of such stock shall be a change of ownership of property owned by the corporation in which the controlling interest is obtained.

65. Whenever real property is purchased or a change in ownership of real property occurs, the assessor shall reappraise such real property at its full cash value.

(a) Upon the termination of a joint tenancy interest, only the interest or portion which is thereby transferred from one owner to another owner shall be reappraised, except that upon the termination of an original transferor's interest in any joint tenancy interest described in subdivision (f) of Section 62, the entire portion of the property held by the transferor prior to the creation of the joint tenancy shall be reappraised and upon the termination of an interest in any joint tenancy interest described in subdivision (f) of Section 62, other than an original transferor's interest, there shall be no reappraisal if the interest thereby reverts to an original transferor.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (a), if a 5 percent or more undivided interest in or a portion of real property is purchased or changes ownership, then only the interest or portion transferred shall be reappraised. A purchase or change in ownership of an undivided interest of less than 5 percent shall not be reappraised, provided, however, that transfers to affiliated transferees during any assessment year shall be cumulated for the purpose of determining the percentage transferred.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions (a) and (b), where real property has been damaged or destroyed by misfortune or calamity, "newly constructed" and "new construction" does not mean any timely reconstruction of the real property, or portion thereof, where the property after reconstruction is substantially equivalent to the property prior to damage or destruction. Any reconstruction of real property, or portion thereof, which is not substantially equivalent to the damaged or destroyed property, shall be deemed to be new construction and only that portion which exceeds substantially equivalent reconstruction shall have a new base year value determined pursuant to Section 110.1.

71. The assessor shall determine the new base year value for the portion of any taxable real property which has been newly constructed. The base year value of the remainder of the property assessed, which did not undergo new construction, shall not be changed. New construction in progress on the lien date shall be appraised at its full value on such date and each lien date thereafter until the date of completion, at which time the entire portion of property which is newly constructed shall be reappraised at its full value.

72. A copy of any building permit issued by any city, county, or city and county, shall be transmitted by each such entity to the county assessor as soon as possible after the date of issuance.

(1) The base year value determined by a local board of equalization or by the State Board of Equalization, originally or on remand by a court, or by a court shall be conclusively presumed to be the base year value for any 1975 assessment which was appealed.

(2) The base year value determined pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 110.1 shall be conclusively presumed to be the base year value unless an equalization application is filed no later than the regular filing period following the 1980 lien date. Once an application is filed, the base year value determined pursuant to that application shall be conclusively presumed to be the base year value for such assessment.

(3) The base year value determined pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 110.1 shall be conclusively presumed to be the base year value, unless an application for equalization is filed during the regular equalization period for the year in which the assessment is placed on the assessment roll or in any of the three succeeding years.

Once an application is filed, the base year value determined pursuant to that application shall be conclusively presumed to be the base year value for such assessment.

(4) Any reduction in assessment made as the result of an appeal under this section shall apply for the assessment year in which the appeal is taken and prospectively thereafter.

(b) This section does not prohibit the filing of an application for appeal where a new value was placed on the roll pursuant to Section 51.

(c) An application for equalization made pursuant to Section 620 or Section 1605 when determined, shall be conclusively presumed to be the base year value in the same manner as provided herein.

81. Where real property has been assessed using a base value other than the 1975 base value, the applicant in equalization proceedings pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1601) of Part 3 may establish the correct base year value applicable to the current year's assessment, subject to the limitations of Section 80.

CHAPTER 2.5. DISASTER RELIEF

170. (a) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the board of supervisors may, by ordinance, provide that every person who at 12:01 a.m. on March 1 was the owner of, or had in his possession, or under his control, any taxable property, or who acquired such property after such lien date and is liable for the taxes thereon for the fiscal year commencing on the immediately following July 1, which property was damaged or destroyed in excess of the amounts specified in subdivision (b) without his fault, after such lien date, by any of the following:

(1) A major misfortune or calamity, in an area or region subsequently proclaimed by the Governor to be in a state of disaster, if such property was damaged or destroyed by the major misfortune or calamity which caused the Governor to proclaim the area or region to be in a state of disaster.

(2) A misfortune or calamity.

(3) A misfortune or calamity to a possessory interest in land owned by the state or federal government and the permit or other right to enter upon the land has been suspended without his fault, because of a misfortune or calamity, may, within the time specified in the ordinance, or, if no time is specified, within 60 days of such misfortune or calamity, apply for reassessment of such property by delivering to the assessor a written application requesting reassessment showing the condition and value, if any, of the property immediately after the damage or destruction, and the dollar amount of the damage. The application shall be executed under penalty of perjury, or if executed outside the State of California, verified by affidavit.

An ordinance may be made applicable to a major misfortune or calamity specified in paragraph (1) or to any misfortune or calamity specified in paragraph (2), or to both, as the board of supervisors determines An ordinance may not be made applicable to a misfortune or calamity specified in paragraph (3), unless an ordinance making paragraph (2) applicable is operative in the county The ordinance may specify a period of time within which the ordinance shall be effective, and, if no period of time is specified, it shall remain in effect until repealed.

As used in paragraph (1), "damage" includes property which was diminished in value as a result of restricted access to the property where such diminution in value was caused by the major misfortune or calamity. As used in paragraph (3), "damage" means a possessory interest in land owned by the state or federal government wherein the permit or other right to use the land has been suspended because of a misfortune or calamity such as a drought condition in California.

(b) Upon receiving a proper application, the assessor shall appraise the real property according to the full cash value of land and improvements immediately before and after the damage or destruction. The assessor shall determine a new base year value, which shall be the sum of (1) the lesser of the full cash value of the land determined pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 51 or the base year value of the land determined pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 51; plus (2) the lesser of full cash value of the improvement determined pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 51 or the base year value of the improvement determined pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 51. If the damaged full cash value of the property is not at least five thousand dollars ($5,000) less than the full cash value, no adjustment shall be made to the roll and no taxes shall be canceled or refunded. If the damaged full cash value of the property is more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) of full cash value, the assessor shall reduce the value as appearing on the assessment roll to the value computed pursuant to this subdivision.

(c) The assessor shall notify the applicant in writing of the amount of the proposed reassessment. The notice shall state that the applicant may appeal the proposed reassessment to the local board of equalization within 14 days of the date of mailing the notice. If an appeal is requested within the 14-day period, the board shall hear and decide the matter as if the proposed reassessment had been entered on the roll as an assessment made outside the regular assessment period The decision of the board regarding the damaged value of the property shall be final, provided that a decision of the local board of equalization regarding any reassessment made pursuant to this section shall create no presumption as regards the value of the affected property subsequent to the date of the damage.

Those reassessed values resulting from reductions in full cash value of amounts, as determined above, shall be forwarded to the auditor by the assessor or the clerk of the local equalization board, as the case may be. The auditor shall enter the reassessed values on the roll. After being entered on the roll, such reassessed values shall not be subject to review, except by a court of competent jurisdiction

(d) If no such application is made and the assessor determines that a property has suffered damage caused by misfortune or calamity, which may qualify the property owner for relief under an ordinance adopted under this section, the assessor shall provide the last known owner of the property with an application for reassessment. The property owner shall file the completed application within 30 days of notification by the assessor. Upon receipt of a properly completed, timely filed application, the property shall be reassessed in the same manner as required in subdivision (b).

(e) The tax rate fixed for property on the roll on which the property so reassessed appeared, at the time of its original assessment, shall be applied to the amount of the reassessment as determined in accordance with this section. In the event that the resulting figure is less than the tax computed prior to the reassessment, the tax shall be determined as follows:

(1) With respect to property on the secured roll, the assessee shall be liable for a prorated portion of the tax due on the property as originally assessed at the rate established for property on the secured roll for the current fiscal year, such proration to be determined on the basis of the number of months in the year during which the property was in an undamaged condition plus a proration of the tax due on the property as reassessed in its damaged or destroyed condition at the rate established for property on the secured roll for such fiscal year, such proration to be determined on the basis of the number of months in the year in which the property was in a damaged condition, including the month in which the damage was incurred.

(2) With respect to property on the unsecured roll, the assessee shall be liable for a prorated portion of the tax computed on the original assessment of the property and a prorated portion of the tax computed on the reassessment of the property as determined in the preceding paragraph.

(f) Any tax paid in excess of the total tax due shall be refunded to the taxpayer pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 5096) of Part 9, as an erroneously collected tax or by order of the board of supervisors without the necessity of a claim being filed pursuant to Chapter 5

(g) The assessment of the property, in its damaged condition, as determined by this section, shall be reviewed at the lien date next following the date of the misfortune or calamity and shall be assessed in the same manner as prescribed by law for any other assessable property.

(h) This section applies to all counties, whether operating under a charter or under the general laws of this state

(i) Any ordinance in effect pursuant to Section 155 1, 155 13, or 402.2. If during the assessment year the assessor receives the notice required by Section 65863.5 of the Government Code, the assessor shall reassess the property as of the next succeeding lien date, to the extent permitted by law.

SEC. 12. Section 405.1 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

405.1. Notwithstanding any other provision of the law, when tax deeded or publicly owned property is sold and the deed issued to the purchaser is recorded between the lien date and July 1, the property shall be assessed by the assessor as though it was owned by the purchaser on the preceding lien date and shall be entered by the assessor on the rolls being prepared.

SEC. 13. Section 407 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

407. Annually, on the second Monday in July, the assessor shall transmit a statistical statement to the board, supplying any statistical information which the board may require, and shall supply from time to time any other information required by the board. For the 1979–80 fiscal year only, the date on which the assessor shall transmit a statistical statement to the board shall be the second Monday in August.

SEC. 14. Section 434.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

434.5. (a) On March 1, 1977, and March 1 of each year thereafter, up to and including March 1, 1979, timberland shall be valued per acre according to the following schedule:

Redwood region		Pine-mixed conifer region
Site I	$80	Site I	$60
Site II	$60	Site II	$50
Site III	$50	Site III	$40
Site IV	$30	Site IV	$30
Site V (and inoperable)	$20	Site V (and inoperable)	$20

When the assessor, pursuant to Section 434, designates a timberland parcel or portion thereof as inoperable, such timberland parcel, or portion thereof, shall be valued as if it is Site V.

(b) On or before January 1, 1980, and every third year thereafter, the board after consultation with the timber advisory committee and in compliance with procedures set forth for adoption of rules under the Administrative Procedure Act, shall adopt schedules reestablishing the value of each grade of timberland graded pursuant to Section 434 as if it were bare of forest growth, and recognizing that the restricted use of the land is for growing and harvesting timber and compatible uses. The board shall certify such values to county assessors by January 10 of each year. Such schedule shall remain in effect until subsequent revision pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision.

(c) Commencing January 1, 1977, the board shall collect such data as may be necessary to accurately value timberland pursuant to subdivision (b).

(d) In promulgating regulations pursuant to subdivision (b) the board shall determine the value of such timberland subject to the following:

(1) The board shall base the value of such land upon the existence of a 10-year enforceable restriction using commonly accepted systems of valuation.

(2) When the board is valuing timberland property within a timberland preserve zone by comparison with sales of other timberland properties in order to be considered comparable, the properties sold shall be at least 160 acres in size and shall be similarly restricted under a timberland preserve zone. Size and any discount for size and amenities shall not be factors in determining the value of land zoned as timberland preserve which is valued by a method employing the use of comparable sales.

(e) For purposes of this section, the value of each acre of timberland within each site class, within a timberland preserve zone, shall be presumed no greater than the value derived pursuant to subdivision (f).

(f) The board shall:

(1) Prepare, or cause to be prepared, timberland site capability tables which shall prescribe by site classification the potential annual yield of wood by species or mixture of species per acre.

(2) Multiply the potential annual yield by 10 percent

(3) Multiply the result of paragraph (2) by an immediate harvest value, averaged for the previous 20 quarters, that is appropriate for the geographical area wherein such timberland values shall be applied.

(4) Divide the result of paragraph (3) by a capitalization rate of 10 percent expressed as a decimal.

Pursuant to paragraph (2) of this subdivision, the Legislature declares that 10 percent is the average percent of income from potential annual yield of wood that can be attributed to timberland as a productive component contributing to such income, and the Legislature finds that it is in the public interest that values derived from analysis of sales of timberland restricted under timberland preserve zones shall not exceed this percentage

(g) For the purposes of this section, the value of each acre of timberland within a timberland preserve zone shall be presumed to be no less than twenty dollars ($20) per acre

(h) For the purposes of this section, the term "value" (and its derivatives) means "full value" as defined in Section 110 5

(i) The Legislature finds and declares that the foregoing values are consistent with the taxation of timberland used primarily for growing timber and that these values are consistent with the intent of subdivision (j) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the Constitution.

SEC. 15. Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 480) is added to Chapter 3 of Part 2 of Division 1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

Article 2.5. Change in Ownership Reporting

480. Whenever any change in ownership of real property occurs, the transferee shall file a signed change in ownership statement in the county where the real property is located, as provided for in subdivision (b).

(a) The change in ownership statement shall be declared to be true under penalty of perjury and shall give such information relative to the real property acquisition transaction as the assessor shall prescribe. Such information shall include, but not be limited to, a description of the property, the parties to the transaction, the date of acquisition, the amount, if any, of the consideration paid for the property, whether paid in money or otherwise, and the terms of the transaction. The change in ownership statement shall not include any question which is not germane to the assessment function. The statement shall contain a notice that is printed in at least 14-point boldface type in the following form:

"Important Notice"

"The law requires any person acquiring an interest in real property to file a change in ownership statement with the county recorder or assessor. The change in ownership statement must be filed within 45 days of the date of recording or, if the transfer is not recorded, within 45 days of the date of the change in ownership. The failure to file a change in ownership statement within 45 days after receipt of a written request by the assessor results in a penalty of one hundred dollars ($100) or 10 percent of the current year's taxes on the real property, whichever is greater. This penalty will be added on the current assessment roll and becomes a lien against real property in the same manner as any other property tax, unless paid by the end of the month following the month in which it is enrolled. Thereafter, the lien will be subject to interest and penalties as any other delinquent tax on real property."

(b) If the document evidencing a change in ownership is recorded in the county recorder's office, then the statement shall be filed either with the recorder at the time of recordation or with the assessor within 45 days from the date of recordation. If the document evidencing a change in ownership is not recorded, then the statement shall be filed with the assessor no later than 45 days from the date the change in ownership occurs.

(c) Whenever a change in ownership statement is filed with the county recorder's office, the recorder shall transmit, as soon as possible, the original statement or a true copy thereof to the assessor along with a copy of every recorded document as required by Section 255.7.

(d) The change in ownership statement may be filed with the assessor through the United States mail, properly addressed with the postage prepaid.

(e) Upon receipt of a change in ownership statement which has either been transmitted by the county recorder's office or been filed directly by the transferee, the assessor shall enter the prior assessment year value and an indication as to whether a change in ownership, as defined in Section 60, has occurred on the statement.

(f) In the case of a corporate transferee of property, the change in ownership statement shall be signed either by an officer of the corporation or an employee or agent who has been designated in writing by the board of directors to sign such statements on behalf of the corporation

481. All information requested by the assessor pursuant to this article or furnished in the change in ownership statement shall be held secret by the assessor. The statement is not a public document and is not open to inspection, except as provided in Section 408.

482. If any person who is requested by the assessor to make a change in ownership statement fails to file such statement within 45 days from the date of request, a penalty of the greater of one hundred dollars ($100) or 10 percent of the current year's taxes on the real property shall be added to the assessment made on the current roll. The penalty shall be added to the current assessment roll and shall become a lien against the real property in the same manner as any other property tax, unless paid by the end of the month following the month in which it is enrolled. Thereafter, the lien shall be subject to interest and penalties as any other delinquent tax on real property.

Notice of any penalty added to the roll pursuant to this section shall be mailed by the assessor to the assessee at his address as contained in any recorded instrument or document evidencing a change in ownership or at any address reasonably known to the assessor.

483. If the assessee establishes to the satisfaction of the county board of supervisors that the failure to file the change in ownership statement within the time required by Section 480 was due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, and has filed the statement with the assessor, the board of supervisors may order the penalty abated, provided the assessee has filed with the board of supervisors written application for abatement of the penalty no later than 60 days after the date on which the assessee was notified of the penalty.

If the penalty is abated it shall be canceled or refunded in the same manner as an amount of tax erroneously charged or collected.

484. With the exception of the penalty provision of Section 463, the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 441) shall be available to the assessor for the purposes of securing change in ownership information required for assessment purposes.

485. If, after written request by the assessor, any person fails to comply with any provision of law for furnishing information required by Section 480, the assessor, based upon information in his possession, shall estimate the value of the property and, based upon this estimate, promptly assesses the property.

SEC. 16 Section 531.6 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

531.6. The taxpayer who has filed a claim for the homeowners' exemption which has not been denied by the assessor is responsible for notifying the assessor when the property is no longer eligible for the exemption.

Upon any indication that a homeowners' exemption has been incorrectly allowed, the assessor shall make a redetermination of eligibility for the homeowners' exemption. If the assessor determines that the property is no longer eligible for the exemption, he shall immediately cancel the exemption on the property.

If a homeowners' exemption has been incorrectly allowed, an escape assessment as allowed by Section 531.1 in the amount of the exemption with interest as provided in Section 506 shall be made, except that where the exemption was allowed as the result of an assessor's error, the amount of interest shall be forgiven. If the exemption was incorrectly allowed because of erroneous or incorrect information submitted by the claimant with knowledge that such information was erroneous or incomplete or because the claimant failed to notify the assessor in a timely manner that the property was no longer eligible for the exemption, the penalty provided in Section 504 shall be added to the assessment. If the property subject to this paragraph has been transferred or conveyed to a bona fide purchaser for value during the period commencing with the lien date and ending July 1 of the fiscal year for which such exemption was incorrectly allowed, and the claimant is not the purchaser, any amount of penalty provided by Section 504 or any amount of interest provided by Section 506 imposed pursuant to the escape assessment due to such incorrect homeowners' exemption shall be forgiven.

CHAPTER 243

An act to add Article 15 (commencing with Section 33480) to Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to redevelopment agencies, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 10, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State July 10, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1 Article 15 (commencing with Section 33480) is added to Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 15 Merger of Redevelopment Project Areas in the Cities of Chula Vista, San Jose, and Santa Fe Springs

33480. For the purpose of allocating taxes pursuant to Section 33670 and subject to the provisions of this article, redevelopment project areas under the jurisdiction of the redevelopment agency of the Cities of Chula Vista, San Jose, and Santa Fe Springs, for which redevelopment plans have been adopted pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 33360) of this chapter, may be merged, irrespective of contiguity, by the amendment of each affected redevelopment plan as provided in Article 12 (commencing with Section 33450) of this chapter. Each constituent project area so merged shall continue under its own redevelopment plan, but, except as otherwise provided in this article, taxes attributable to each project area merged pursuant to this section which are allocated to the redevelopment agency pursuant to Section 33670 may be allocated, as provided in subdivision (b) of such section, to the entire merged project area for the purpose of paying the principal of and interest on loans, moneys advanced to, or indebtedness (whether funded, refunded, assumed, or otherwise) incurred by the redevelopment agency to finance or refinance, in whole or in part, such merged redevelopment project.

33481 If the redevelopment agency has, prior to merger of redevelopment project areas pursuant to Section 33480, incurred any indebtedness on account of a constituent project area so merged, taxes attributable to that area which are allocated to the agency pursuant to Section 33670 shall be first used to comply with the terms of any bond resolution or other agreement pledging such taxes from the constituent project area.

33482 The redevelopment plan for a project area which is merged pursuant to Section 33480 shall be amended in the same manner as other redevelopment plans are amended. Notice of the public hearing shall be mailed to the last known assessee of each parcel of land not owned by the agency within the boundaries of the project area described in the redevelopment plan being amended. Notice of the public hearing need not be mailed to assessees of parcels of land within the boundaries of other project areas combined into a merged project area pursuant to Section 33480, except that notice of the public hearing shall be given to the project area committee for each project area which is part of the merged project area.

33483 Not less than 20 percent of all taxes which are allocated to the redevelopment agency pursuant to Section 33670 for redevelopment projects merged pursuant to this article, irrespective of the date of adoption of the final redevelopment plans, shall be used for the purposes set forth in Section 33334.2.

33484. This article shall be applicable only to redevelopment projects of the redevelopment agency of the Cities of Chula Vista, San Jose, and Santa Fe Springs for which a final redevelopment plan was adopted by ordinance on or before January 1, 1979

The Legislature finds and declares that conditions unique to the financing of redevelopment in the Cities of Chula Vista, San Jose, and Santa Fe Springs require the granting of authority to merge project areas

There is presently a serious lack of adequate housing within certain redevelopment project areas of the Cities of Chula Vista, San Jose, and Santa Fe Springs. It is, therefore, imperative to facilitate the merger of redevelopment project areas so that the Redevelopment Agency will have available financial resources, including resources available from tax increment financing, to implement the provision of decent, safe, and sanitary housing within its redevelopment project areas

An act to amend Section 232 of the Civil Code, and to amend Section 5361 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to evidence.

[Approved by Governor July 10, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State July 10, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1 Section 232 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

232. (a) An action may be brought for the purpose of having any person under the age of 18 years declared free from the custody and control of either or both of his parents when such person comes within any of the following descriptions:

(1) Who has been left without provision for his identification by his parent or parents or by others or has been left by both of his parents or his sole parent in the care and custody of another for a period of six months or by one parent in the care and custody of the other parent for a period of one year without any provision for his support, or without communication from such parent or parents, with the intent on the part of such parent or parents to abandon such person. Such failure to provide identification, failure to provide, or failure to communicate shall be presumptive evidence of the intent to abandon Such person shall be deemed and called a person abandoned by the parent or parents abandoning him If in the opinion of the court the evidence indicates that such parent or parents have made only token efforts to support or communicate with the child, the court may declare the child abandoned by such parent or parents. In those cases in which the child has been left without provision for his identification and the whereabouts of the parents are unknown, a petition may be filed after the 120th day following the discovery of the child and citation by publication may be commenced The petition may not be heard until after the 180th day following the discovery of the child

The fact that a child is in a foster care home, licensed under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1500) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, shall not prevent a licensed adoption agency which is planning adoption placement for the child, from instituting, under this subdivision, an action to declare such child free from the custody and control of his parents. When the requesting agency is a licensed county adoption agency, the county counsel, and if there is no county counsel, the district attorney shall institute such action.

(2) Who has been cruelly treated or neglected by either or both of his parents, if such person has been a dependent child of the juvenile court, and such parent or parents have been deprived of his custody for the period of one year prior to the filing of a petition praying that he be declared free from the custody and control of such cruel or neglectful parent or parents.

(3) Whose parent or parents suffer a disability because of the habitual use of alcohol, or any of the controlled substances specified in Schedules I to V, inclusive, of Division 10 (commencing with Section 11000) of the Health and Safety Code, except when such controlled substances are used as part of a medically prescribed plan, or are morally depraved, if such person has been a dependent child of the juvenile court, and the parent or parents have been deprived of his custody because of such disability, or moral depravity, for the period of one year continuously immediately prior to the filing of the petition praying that he be declared free from the custody and control of such parent or parents As used in this subdivision, "disability" means any physical or mental incapacity which renders the parent or parents unable to adequately care for and control the child

(4) Whose parent or parents are convicted of a felony, if the facts of the crime of which such parent or parents were convicted are of such nature as to prove the unfitness of such parent or parents to have the future custody and control of the child.

(5) Whose parent or parents have been declared by a court of competent jurisdiction wherever situated to be developmentally disabled or mentally ill, if, in the state or country in which the parent or parents reside or are hospitalized, the Director of Mental Health or the Director of Developmental Services, or his equivalent, if any, and the superintendent of the hospital of which, if any, such parent or parents are inmates or patients certify that such parent or parents so declared to be developmentally disabled or mentally ill will not be capable of supporting or controlling the child in a proper manner

(6) Whose parent or parents are, and will remain incapable of supporting or controlling the child in a proper manner because of mental deficiency or mental illness, if there is testimony to this effect from two physicians and surgeons each of whom must have been certified either by the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology or under Section 6750 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or licensed psychologists who have a doctoral degree in psychology and at least five years of postgraduate experience in the diagnosis and treatment of emotional and mental disorders If, however, the parent or parents reside in another state or in a foreign country, the testimony herein may be supplied by two physicians and surgeons who are residents of such state or foreign country, if such physicians and surgeons have been certified by a medical organization or society of that state or foreign country to practice psychiatric or neurological medicine and if the court determines that the certification requirements of such organization or society are comparable to those of the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology.

The parent or parents shall be cited to be present at the hearing, and if he or they have no attorney, the court shall appoint an attorney or attorneys to represent the parent or parents and fix the compensation to be paid by the county for such services, if he determines the parent or parents are not financially able to employ counsel.

(7) Who has been cared for in one or more foster homes, residential facilities licensed pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1500) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, or health facilities licensed pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, under the supervision of the juvenile court, the county welfare department or other public or private licensed child-placing agency for two or more consecutive years, providing that the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that return of the child to his parent or parents would be detrimental to the child and that the parent or parents have failed during such period, and are likely to fail in the future, to do the following:

(i) Provide a home for the child;

(ii) Provide care and control for the child; and

(iii) Maintain an adequate parental relationship with the child.

Physical custody of the child by the parent or parents for insubstantial periods of time during the required two-year period will not serve to interrupt the running of such period

(b) A licensed adoption agency may institute under this section, an action to declare a child, as described in this section, free from the custody and control of his parents. When the requesting agency is a licensed county adoption agency, the county counsel, or if there is no county counsel, the district attorney shall in a proper case institute such action.

SEC. 2. Section 5361 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5361 Conservatorship initiated pursuant to this chapter shall automatically terminate one year after the appointment of the conservator by the superior court The period of service of a temporary conservator shall not be included in the one-year period. Where the conservator has been appointed as conservator of the estate, the conservator shall, for a reasonable time, continue to have such power and authority over the estate as the superior court, on petition by the conservator, may deem necessary for (1) the collection of assets or income which accrued during the period of conservatorship, but were uncollected before the date of termination, (2) the payment of expenses which accrued during period of conservatorship and of which the conservator was notified prior to termination, but were unpaid before the date of termination, and (3) the completion of sales of real property where the only act remaining at the date of termination is the actual transfer of title. If upon the termination of an initial or a succeeding period of conservatorship the conservator determines that conservatorship is still required, he may petition the superior court for his reappointment as conservator for a succeeding one-year period. The petition must include the opinion of two physicians or licensed psychologists who have a doctoral degree in psychology and at least five years of postgraduate experience in the diagnosis and treatment of emotional and mental disorders that the conservatee is still gravely disabled as a result of mental disorder or impairment by chronic alcoholism. In the event that the conservator is unable to obtain the opinion of two physicians or psychologists, he shall request that the court appoint them

Any facility in which a conservatee is placed must release the conservatee at his request when the conservatorship terminates. A petition for reappointment filed by the conservator or a petition for appointment filed by a public guardian shall be transmitted to the facility at least 30 days before the automatic termination date. The facility may detain the conservatee after the end of the termination date only if the conservatorship proceedings have not been completed and the court orders the conservatee to be held until the proceedings have been completed

1170. (a) (1) The Legislature finds and declares that the purposes of imprisonment for crime is punishment. This purpose is best served by terms proportionate to the seriousness of the offense with provision for uniformity in the sentences of offenders committing the same offense under similar circumstances The Legislature further finds and declares that the elimination of disparity and the provision of uniformity of sentences can best be achieved by determinate sentences fixed by statute in proportion to the seriousness of the offense as determined by the Legislature to be imposed by the court with specified discretion

(2) In any case in which the punishment prescribed by statute for a person convicted of a public offense is a term of imprisonment in the state prison of 16 months, two or three years; two, three, or four years, two, three, or five years; three, four, or five years, two, four, or six years; three, four, or six years; three, five, or seven years; three, six, or eight years; five, seven, or nine years; five, seven, or 11 years, or any other specification of three time periods, the court shall sentence the defendant to one of the terms of imprisonment specified unless such convicted person is given any other disposition provided by law, including a fine, jail, probation, or the suspension of imposition or execution of sentence or is sentenced pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1168 because he had committed his crime prior to July 1, 1977. In sentencing the convicted person, the court shall apply the sentencing rules of the Judicial Council. The court, unless it determines that there are circumstances in mitigation of the punishment prescribed, shall also impose any other term which it is required by law to impose as an additional term. Nothing in this article shall affect any provision of law which imposes the death penalty, which authorizes or restricts the granting of probation or suspending the execution or imposition of sentence, or expressly provides for imprisonment in the state prison for life In any case in which the amount of preimprisonment credit under Section 2900.5 or any other provision of law is equal to or exceeds any sentence imposed pursuant to this chapter, the entire sentence, including any period of parole under Section 3000, shall be deemed to have been served and the defendant shall not be actually delivered to the custody of the Director of Corrections. However, any such sentence shall be deemed a separate prior prison term under Section 667.5, and a copy of the judgment and other necessary documentation shall be forwarded to the Director of Corrections.

(b) When a judgment of imprisonment is to be imposed and the statute specifies three possible terms, the court shall order imposition of the middle term, unless there are circumstances in aggravation or mitigation of the crime. At least four days prior to the time set for imposition of judgment either party may submit a statement in aggravation or mitigation to dispute facts in the record or the probation officer's report, or to present additional facts. In determining whether there are circumstances that justify imposition of the upper or lower term, the court may consider the record in the case, the probation officer's report, other reports including reports received pursuant to Section 1203.03 and statements in aggravation or mitigation submitted by the prosecution or the defendant, and any further evidence introduced at the sentencing hearing. The court shall set forth on the record the facts and reasons for imposing the upper or lower term. The court may not impose an upper term by using the fact of any enhancement upon which sentence is imposed under Section 667 5, 1170 1, 12022, 12022 5, 12022.6, or 12022.7. A term of imprisonment shall not be specified if imposition of sentence is suspended.

(c) The court shall state the reasons for its sentence choice on the record at the time of sentencing The court shall also inform the defendant that as part of the sentence after expiration of the term he may be on parole for a period as provided in Section 3000.

(d) When a defendant subject to this section or subdivision (b) of Section 1168 has been sentenced to be imprisoned in the state prison and has been committed to the custody of the Director of Corrections, the court may, within 120 days of the date of commitment on its own motion, or at any time upon the recommendation of the Director of Corrections or the Board of Prison Terms, recall the sentence and commitment previously ordered and resentence the defendant in the same manner as if he had not previously been sentenced, provided the new sentence, if any, is no greater than the initial sentence The resentence under this subdivision shall apply the sentencing rules of the Judicial Council so as to eliminate disparity of sentences and to promote uniformity of sentencing. Credit shall be given for time served.

(e) Any sentence imposed under this article shall be subject to the provisions of Sections 3000 and 3057 and any other applicable provisions of law

(f) In all cases the Board of Prison Terms shall, not later than one year after the commencement of the term of imprisonment, review the sentence and shall by motion recommend that the court recall the sentence and commitment previously ordered and resentence the defendant in the same manner as if he had not been previously sentenced if the board determines the sentence is disparate. The review under this section shall concern the decision to deny probation and the sentencing decisions enumerated in subdivisions (b), (c), (d), and (e) of Section 1170.3 and apply the sentencing rules of the Judicial Council and the information regarding the sentences in this state of other persons convicted of similar crimes so as to eliminate disparity of sentences and to promote uniformity of sentencing.

(b) If the calculation required under subdivision (a) is less than the time to be served prior to a release date set prior to July 1, 1977, or if a release date had not been set, the Board of Prison Terms shall establish the prisoner's parole date, subject to subdivision (d), on the date calculated under subdivision (a) unless at least two of the members of the Board of Prison Terms after reviewing the prisoner's file, determine that due to the number of crimes of which the prisoner was convicted, or due to the number of prior convictions suffered by the prisoner, or due to the fact that the prisoner was armed with a deadly weapon when the crime was committed, or used a deadly weapon during the commission of the crime, or inflicted or attempted to inflict great bodily injury on the victim of the crime, the prisoner should serve a term longer than that calculated in subdivision (a), in which event the prisoner shall be entitled to a hearing before a panel consisting of at least two members of the Board of Prison Terms as provided for in Section 3041.5. scheduled for such a hearing within 90 days of July 1, 1977, or within 90 days of the date the prisoner is received by or returned to the custody of the Department of Corrections, whichever is later. The hearing shall be held before October 1, 1978, or within 120 days of receipt of the prisoner, whichever is later It is the intent of the Legislature that the hearings provided for in this subdivision shall be accomplished in the most expeditious manner possible. At such hearing the prisoner shall be entitled to be represented by legal counsel, a release date shall be set, and the prisoner shall be informed in writing of the extraordinary factors specifically considered determinative and on what basis the release date has been calculated In fixing a term under this section the board shall be guided by, but not limited to, the term which reasonably could be imposed on a person who committed a similar offense under similar circumstances on or after July 1, 1977, and further, the board shall be guided by the following finding and declaration hereby made by the Legislature: that the necessity to protect the public from repetition of extraordinary crimes of violence against the person is the paramount consideration

(c) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to keep an inmate in the custody of the Department of Corrections for a period of time longer than he would have been kept in its custody under the provisions of law applicable to him prior to July 1, 1977 Nothing in this section shall be deemed to require the release of an inmate sentenced to consecutive sentences under the provisions of law applicable to him prior to July 1, 1977, earlier than if he had been sentenced to concurrent sentences.

(d) In the case of any prisoner who committed a felony prior to July 1, 1977, who would have been sentenced under Section 1170 if the felony was committed on or after July 1, 1977, the good behavior and participation provisions of Article 2 5 (commencing with Section 2930) of Chapter 7 of Title 1 of Part 3 shall apply from July 1, 1977, and thereafter.

(f) In the case of any inmate who committed a felony prior to July 1, 1977, the length, conditions, revocation, and other incidents of parole shall be the same as if the prisoner had been sentenced for an offense committed on or after July 1, 1977.

(g) Nothing in this chapter shall affect the eligibility for parole under Article 3 (commencing with Section 3040) of Chapter 8 of Title 1 of Part 3 of an inmate sentenced pursuant to Section 1168 as operative prior to July 1, 1977, for a period of parole as specified in subdivision (b) of Section 3000.

(h) In fixing a term under this section, the Board of Prison Terms shall utilize the terms of imprisonment as provided in Chapter 1139 of the Statutes of 1976 and Chapter 165 of the Statutes of 1977

The written notice shall include the specific charge, the date, the time, the place that the alleged misbehavior took place, the evidence relied upon, a written explanation of the procedures that will be employed at the proceedings and the prisoner's rights at such hearing, and in the case where the prisoner has been notified more than 30 days after the alleged misbehavior why the evidence was not reasonably discoverable within the 30 days or any sooner than it was discovered Such hearing shall be conducted by an individual who shall be independent of the case and shall take place within 10 days of such written notice; unless for good cause shown by the Department of Corrections that extraordinary circumstances prevented the hearing from being conducted within 10 days and the prisoner is not prejudiced by the delay the Department of Corrections shall notify the prisoner in writing specifying the extraordinary circumstances and shall conduct the hearing as soon as possible but in no case later than 30 days after the initial written notice of possible good behavior or participation denial

3000 The Legislature finds and declares that the period immediately following incarceration is critical to successful reintegration of the offender into society and to positive citizenship. It is in the interest of public safety for the state to provide for the supervision of and surveillance of parolees and to provide educational, vocational, family and personal counseling necessary to assist parolees in the transition between imprisonment and discharge. A sentence pursuant to Section 1168 or 1170 shall include a period of parole, unless waived, as provided in this section. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in Article 3 (commencing with Section 3040) of this chapter:

(a) At the expiration of a term of imprisonment of one year and one day, or a term of imprisonment imposed pursuant to Section 1170, or at the expiration of such term as reduced pursuant to Section 2931, if applicable, the inmate shall be released on parole for a period not exceeding three years, unless the board for good cause waives parole and discharges the inmate from custody of the department.

(b) In the case of any inmate sentenced under Section 1168, the period of parole shall not exceed five years in the case of an inmate imprisoned under a life sentence, and shall not exceed three years in the case of an inmate whose prison sentence does not consist of imprisonment under a life sentence, unless in either case the board for good cause waives parole and discharges the inmate from custody of the department. This subdivision shall be also applicable to inmates who committed crimes prior to July 1, 1977, to the extent specified in Section 1170.2.

(c) The board shall consider the request of any inmate regarding the length of his parole and the conditions thereof.

(d) Upon successful completion of parole, or at the end of the maximum statutory period of parole specified for the inmate under subdivision (a) or (b), as the case may be, whichever is earlier, the inmate shall be discharged from custody. The date of the maximum statutory period of parole under this subdivision and subdivisions (a) and (b) shall be computed from the date of initial parole, or July 1, 1977, whichever is later, and shall be a period chronologically determined. Time during which parole is suspended because the prisoner has absconded or has been returned to custody as a parole violator shall not be credited toward such period of parole unless the prisoner is found not guilty of the parole violation. However, in no case, except as provided in Section 3064, may a prisoner sentenced pursuant to Section 1170 be retained under parole supervision or in custody for a period longer than four years from the date of his initial parole, and, except as provided in Section 3064, in no case may a prisoner sentenced pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1168 be retained under parole supervision or in custody for a period longer than seven years from the date of his initial parole.

(e) It is not the intent of this section to diminish resources presently allocated to the Department of Corrections for parole functions.

(f) The Department of Corrections shall meet with each inmate at least 30 days prior to his good time release date, unless such release date is within 30 days of July 1, 1977, and shall provide, under guidelines specified by the Board of Prison Terms, the conditions of parole and the length of parole up to the maximum period of time provided by law The inmate has the right to reconsideration of the length of parole and conditions thereof by the Board of Prison Terms.

One year prior to the inmate's minimum eligible parole release date a panel consisting of at least two members of the Board of Prison Terms shall again meet with the inmate and shall normally set a parole release date as provided in Section 3041.5. In case of such a review. a majority vote of the full Board of Prison Terms in favor of parole is required to grant parole to any prisoner.

(b) The panel or board shall set a release date unless it determines that the gravity of the current convicted offense or offenses, or the timing and gravity of current or past convicted offense or offenses, is such that consideration of the public safety requires a more lengthy period of incarceration for this individual, and that a parole date, therefore, cannot be fixed at this meeting.

(c) For the purpose of reviewing the suitability for parole of those prisoners eligible for parole under prior law at a date earlier than that calculated under Section 1170.2, the board shall appoint panels of at least two persons to meet annually with each such prisoner until such time as the person is released pursuant to such proceedings or reaches the expiration of his term as calculated under Section 1170.2.

However, if at least two of the members of the board after reviewing the person's file determine that a longer term should be imposed for the reasons specified in Section 1170.2 of the Penal Code, a longer term may be imposed following the procedures and guidelines set forth in Section 1170 2 of the Penal Code, except that any hearings deemed necessary by the board shall be held before April 1, 1978. Within 90 days of July 1, 1977, or of the date the person is received by the State Department of Mental Health, whichever is later, the Board of Prison Terms shall provide each person committed pursuant to Section 6316 with the determination of his maximum term of commitment or shall notify such person that he will be scheduled for a hearing to determine his term.

CHAPTER 256

An act to amend Sections 10725 and 14105 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to public social services, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 11, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State July 11, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10725 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read·

10725. The director may adopt regulations, orders, or standards of general application to implement, interpret, or make specific the law enforced by the department, and such regulations, orders, and standards shall be adopted, amended, or repealed by the director only in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 11371), Part 1, Division 3, Title 2 of the Government Code, provided that regulations relating to services need not be printed in the California Administrative Code or California Administrative Register if they are included in the publications of the department. Such authority also may be exercised by the director's designee.

In adopting regulations the director shall strive for clarity of language which may be readily understood by those administering services or subject to such regulations.

The rules of the department need not specify or include the detail of forms, reports or records, but shall include the essential authority by which any person, agency, organization, association or institution subject to the supervision or investigation of the department is required to use, submit or maintain such forms, reports or records.

SEC. 2. Section 14105 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read.

14105 (a) The director shall prescribe the policies to be followed in the administration of this chapter, may limit the rates of payment for health care services, and shall adopt such rules and regulations as are necessary for carrying out, not inconsistent with, the provisions thereof

Such policies and regulations shall include rates for payment for services not rendered under a contract pursuant to Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 14200) of this part. Standards for costs shall be based on payments of the reasonable cost for such services. In order to implement expeditiously the budgeting decisions of the Legislature, the director shall, to the extent permitted by federal law, adopt regulations setting rates which reflect such decisions 30 days after the enactment of the Budget Act and of any other appropriation which changes the level of funding for Medi-Cal services The proposed regulations shall be submitted to the Department of Finance five days prior to the date of adoption. With the written approval of the Department of Finance, the director shall adopt such regulations as emergency regulations in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 4 5 (commencing with Section 11371), Part 1, Division 3, Title 2 of the Government Code) For purposes of such act, the adoption of such regulations shall be deemed an emergency and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety or general welfare

(b) Insofar as practical, consistent with the efficient and economical administration of this part, the department shall afford recipients of public assistance free choice of arrangements under which they shall receive health care benefits

(c) If, in the judgment of the director, the actions taken by the director under subdivision (c) of Section 14120 will not be sufficient to operate the Medi-Cal program within the limits of appropriated funds, he may limit the scope and kinds of health care services, except for minimum coverage as defined in Section 14056, available to persons who are not eligible under Section 14005.1. When and if necessary, such action shall be taken by the director in ways consistent with the requirements of the federal Social Security Act.

SEC 3 This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect The facts constituting such necessity are

While current law requires that all Medi-Cal provider reimbursement rates be adopted as regulations in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act, there is no clear authority to adopt such regulations on an emergency basis Adoption of regulations using the Administrative Procedure Act's nonemergency regulation procedures involves delays of a minimum of 60 to 90 days As a result, Medi-Cal provider reimbursement rate regulations frequently do not become effective until long after the date which was intended by the Legislature when it enacted the appropriation which mandates a rate change This measure provides clear authority to avoid these procedural delays by using the emergency regulation adoption process It is necessary to adopt this measure as an urgency statute in order to permit the utilization of emergency procedures for Medi-Cal provider reimbursement rate regulation changes reflecting the appropriations in the 1978 Budget Act

An act to add Section 2954.1 to the Civil Code, relating to impound accounts, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 11, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State July 11, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2954.1 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

2954.1. No lender or person who purchases obligations secured by real property, or any agent of such lender or person, who maintains an impound, trust, or other type of account for the payment of taxes and assessments on real property, insurance premiums, or other purposes relating to such property shall do either of the following:

(a) Require the borrower or vendee to deposit in such account in any month an amount in excess of that which would be permitted in connection with a federally related mortgage loan pursuant to Section 10 of the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act of 1974 (12 U S C. 2609), as amended.

(b) Require the sums maintained in such account to exceed at any time the amount or amounts reasonably necessary to pay such obligations as they become due. Any sum held in excess of the reasonable amount shall be refunded within 30 days unless the parties mutually agree to the contrary. Such an agreement may be rescinded at any time by any party.

Nothing contained herein shall prohibit requiring additional amounts to be paid into an impound account in order to recover any deficiency which may exist in the account.

Any person harmed by a violation of this section shall be entitled to sue to recover his or her damages or for injunctive relief; but such violation shall not otherwise affect the validity of the loan or sale

This section applies to all such accounts maintained after the effective date of this act.

SEC. 2. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

SEC. 3 This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The approval of Proposition 13 by the electorate in June, 1978, caused a remarkable reduction in property tax liabilities and a commensurate reduction in the amounts necessary to be maintained in real property impound accounts Some financial institutions maintaining or servicing impound accounts have refused to lower monthly impound account payments thereby forcing many borrowers to make excessive and unnecessary monthly payments In order to halt this unwarranted drain on borrowers' resources, it is necessary for this act to go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 258

(a) "Bank" means any institution in this state defined in Section 102 of the Financial Code except that such term does not include a title insurance company authorized to transact a trust business under the provisions of Article 4 (commencing with Section 12390) of Chapter 1, Part 6, of Division 2 or a trust company controlled by or under common control with a title insurance company

(b) "Bank holding company" means the same as the definition of that term set forth in Section 2 of the Federal "Bank Holding

GENERAL SECTIONS

SEC 4. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this act, no appropriations made by this act, or funds obtained from any other source may be expended by any state entity for electronic data-processing services, equipment, facilities, personnel, or supplies for any electronic data-processing activity, unless the procedures, including those relating to confidentiality and security of data, set forth in the State Administrative Manual to implement this section have been met and followed. The Department of Finance is authorized to approve proposed expenditures subject to this section for the purpose of ensuring that required procedures have been followed. The provisions of this section shall not apply to expenditures for continuing previously approved efforts, as defined in the State Administrative Manual, including added costs due to merit salary increases and inflation.

If funds subject to this section are to be encumbered pursuant to a contract, each such contract encumbering funds in excess of $75,000 for electronic data-processing activities shall be competitively procured except (a) when the Department of Finance concurs that an article or service is the only article or service which can meet the needs of the state entity, or (b) in cases of emergency where immediate acquisition is necessary for the protection of the public health, welfare, or safety, as concurred in by the Director of Finance

The procurement mode to be used and the procedure to be followed in letting such a contract shall be approved by the Director of Finance. The Department of Finance, with the assistance of the Department of General Services, shall maintain in the State Administrative Manual appropriate criteria and procedures to ensure compliance with the contract-letting policies set forth in this section. The Department of Finance shall maintain in the State Administrative Manual procurement and contracting guidelines to be followed by state agencies with respect to expenditures subject to this section. Such guidelines may be in the form of standard formats or model formats which provide sufficient flexibility to enable the state to obtain contracts which take advantage of the vendor's best financing alternative while at the same time ensuring that reasonable protection for the state is not compromised.

In any procurement subject to this section involving the replacement of a computer central processing unit, if only one bid is received and that bid is from the vendor whose equipment is being replaced, a notification of an intent to award a contract to such sole bidder shall be submitted to the chairman of the committee in each house which considers appropriations and the Chairman of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee 30 days prior to an award of contract The notification of intent to award a contract to such sole bidder shall describe the rationale for the award and the measures taken by the state to elicit more than one bid.

The Department of Finance may impose additional requirements that are more stringent than those set forth in the State Administrative Manual with respect to any particular expenditure if the Director of Finance determines that such requirements will best serve the needs of the state

The Auditor General shall, upon approval by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, seek to identify significant issues which appear to be limiting the state's effective use of electronic data processing technology, recommend a plan to address these issues, and report annually to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, the chairman of the committee in each house which considers appropriations, the California Information Systems Implementation Committee, and the Director of Finance.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to the University of California, the State Compensation Insurance Fund, the community college districts, agencies provided for by Article VI of the Constitution, or the Legislature.

SEC 5. Because it is necessary to insure the availability of adequate equipment for physical facilities constructed for the operation of custodial, mental health, educational, administrative, military, and other agencies of the state government; because uncertainties as to completion dates make precise advance planning of equipment purchases impossible; and since delivery of some kinds of equipment cannot be made for six months or longer from the date of ordering; state agencies are therefore authorized to incur obligations, to be met during the 1980–81 fiscal year, for the purchase of equipment related to capital outlay projects for which the Legislature has appropriated construction funds, provided, that no obligation shall be incurred under the provisions of this section without the approval of the Department of Finance and the State Public Works Board Purchase orders issued and contracts entered into under the provisions of this section shall not exceed a total of three million dollars ($3,000,000) in estimated cost.

SEC 5 1 Because it is necessary to insure the availability of the adequate transfer of equipment and furnishings for the physical facilities for the Schools for the Blind, Deaf and Multihandicapped at Fremont currently under construction; and because uncertainties as to completion dates make precise advance planning of the transfer of equipment and furnishings impossible, the Department of Education is therefore authorized to incur obligations from funds appropriated for that purpose, to be met during the 1980–81 fiscal year, for the sole purpose of relocating existing equipment and furnishings from the Berkeley site to the Fremont site; provided, that no obligation shall be incurred under the provisions of this section without the approval of the Department of Finance Contracts entered into under the provisions of this section shall not exceed a total of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) in estimated costs.

SEC. 5 4 There is hereby appropriated, from the reserve account established pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 71 of Chapter 161 of the Statutes of 1979 in the State Highway Account in the State Transportation Fund, to the State Highway Account an amount sufficient to fund the appropriations made by this act from the State Highway Account to the Department of Transportation in the event that funds in the State Highway Account, other than funds in such reserve account, are insufficient to fund such appropriations.

SEC. 5 5. To the Department of Transportation, for advance authority for the department to incur equipment purchase obligations in an amount not to exceed $3,000,000 during the 1979–80 fiscal year, for delivery beginning in the 1980–81 fiscal year, the sum of $3,000,000 is hereby appropriated from the State Highway Account, State Transportation Fund

SEC 5 8. The sum of thirty million dollars ($30,000,000) is hereby appropriated from the State Highway Account in the State Transportation Fund to the Department of Transportation for advancement to the San Diego Metropolitan Transit Development Board during the 1979–80 fiscal year pursuant to Section 199 2 of the Streets and Highways Code

SEC. 5 9 For allocation by executive order of the Department of Finance to the Office of Traffic Safety, for the purpose of providing a state match of not more than 25 percent of the planning and administration portion of the budget for the 1979 federal fiscal year commencing October 1, 1978, and ending September 30, 1979, $320,000 is hereby appropriated from the Motor Vehicle Account in the State Transportation Fund Such allocation shall be subject to approval by the Director of Finance and approval shall be granted only (1) if necessary to ensure the availability of federal funds for the Office of Traffic Safety for the 1979 federal fiscal year and (2) if requested prior to September 30, 1979

SEC. 6 1 None of the funds appropriated under Section 2 of this act may be expended for any project for the alteration of a state building requiring total expenditures of $5,000 or more Any such project requiring total expenditures of less than $5,000 during the 1978–79 fiscal year shall be reported by the Director of General Services to the Chairman of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, or his designee, by October 1, 1979

SEC. 7. Any acquisition of land or other real property included in any appropriation made herein except appropriations from the California Water Fund or the State Highway Account, State Transportation Fund or appropriations to the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges for allocation to the community college districts shall be subject to the provisions of the Property Acquisition Law.

All property acquisitions, notwithstanding other exemptions of this section, shall be reported to the State Public Works Board

SEC 8 No money appropriated herein in any item for capital outlay may be expended by any state agency, including the University of California, the California State University and Colleges and the community colleges, except amounts for acquisition of land or other real property, amounts needed for equipment, minor projects and amounts appropriated specifically for preliminary surveys, studies and planning until the State Public Works Board and the Department of Finance have approved preliminary plans for the project to be financed from such item of appropriation for capital outlay and until the Chairman of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, or his designee, is provided a 20-day review of the preliminary plans or not sooner than such lesser time as the chairman, or his designee, may in each instance determine, with the exception that community college approvals by the State Public Works Board will apply only to the allocation of state capital outlay funds appropriated heretofore and hereafter by the Legislature, including land acquisition and equipment funds; provided further, that unless excepted by the conditions of Section 81844 of the Education Code, the Public Works Board shall not approve for allocation any appropriated amounts for working drawings or construction where said working drawings or construction have been started by a community college prior to approval of the state-appropriated amounts by the Public Works Board, and all such amounts not approved by the board under this criterion shall be reverted to the unappropriated balance of the appropriate fund, provided further, no major project for which appropriation is made hereunder regarding which the Director of Finance or his authorized representative requests review of working plans shall be put out to bid until the working plans therefor have been approved by the Department of Finance, provided further, that no money appropriated herein may be spent for working drawings for any project as to which there has been made substantial change or changes from the preliminary plans as approved by the State Public Works Board and the Department of Finance unless there has first been obtained the approval of the Department of Finance to make such change or changes; provided further, that no more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) of the money appropriated herein may be spent for any single unit of equipment until prior approval for purchase of such equipment shall have been given by the Department of Finance

The State Public Works Board shall defer all augmentations in excess of 20 percent of the amount appropriated herein for each capital outlay project until the Legislature makes additional funds available for the specific project

The State Public Works Board shall defer action with respect to approval of any portion of an acquisition project when it is determined that the estimated cost of the total acquisition project approved by the Legislature is in excess of 20 percent of the amount appropriated, unless it is determined that a lesser portion of the property is sufficient to meet the objectives of the project approved by the Legislature, and the Chairman of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, or his designee, is provided a 20 day prior notification of the proposed reductions in the acquisition project, or not sooner than such lesser time as the chairman, or his designee, may in each instance determine.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or control the Department of Transportation in the expenditure of State Highway Account, State Transportation Fund money appropriated for capital outlay purposes, except those nontransportation projects such as the construction or improvement of departmental buildings, maintenance buildings, district headquarters, and similar support facilities and nonhighway land acquisition shall be subject to this section.
