[Approved by Governor September 12, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows

SECTION 1. Section 65302 of the Government Code is amended to read

65302. The general plan shall consist of a statement of development policies and shall include a diagram or diagrams and text setting forth objectives, principles, standards, and plan proposals The plan shall include the following elements

(a) A land use element which designates the proposed general distribution and general location and extent of the uses of the land for housing, business, industry, open space, including agriculture, natural resources, recreation, and enjoyment of scenic beauty, education, public buildings and grounds, solid and liquid waste disposal facilities, and other categories of public and private uses of land The land use element shall include a statement of the standards of population density and building intensity recommended for the various districts and other territory covered by the plan. The land use element shall also identify areas covered by the plan which are subject to flooding and shall be reviewed annually with respect to such areas

(b) A circulation element consisting of the general location and extent of existing and proposed major thoroughfares, transportation routes, terminals, and other local public utilities and facilities, all correlated with the land use element of the plan

(c) A housing element, to be developed pursuant to regulations established under Section 50459 of the Health and Safety Code, consisting of standards and plans for the improvement of housing and for provision of adequate sites for housing This element of the plan shall make adequate provision for the housing needs of all economic segments of the community Such element shall consider all aspects of current housing technology, to include provisions for not only site-built housing, but also manufactured housing, including mobilehomes and modular homes

(d) A conservation element for the conservation, development, and utilization of natural resources including water and its hydraulic force, forests, soils, rivers and other waters, harbors, fisheries, wildlife, minerals, and other natural resources That portion of the conservation element including waters shall be developed in coordination with any countywide water agency and with all district and city agencies which have developed, served, controlled or conserved water for any purpose for the county or city for which the plan is prepared The conservation element may also cover.

(1) The reclamation of land and waters.

(2) Flood control

(3) Prevention and control of the pollution of streams and other waters.

(4) Regulation of the use of land in stream channels and other areas required for the accomplishment of the conservation plan

(5) Prevention, control, and correction of the erosion of soils, beaches, and shores.

(6) Protection of watersheds

(7) The location, quantity and quality of the rock, sand and gravel resources.

The conservation element shall be prepared and adopted no later than December 31, 1973.

(e) An open-space element as provided in Article 10.5 (commencing with Section 65560) of this chapter.

The seismic safety element shall also include an appraisal of mudslides, landslides, and slope stability as necessary geologic hazards that must be considered simultaneously with other hazards such as possible surface ruptures from faulting, ground shaking, ground failure and seismically induced waves

To the extent that a county's seismic safety element is sufficiently detailed containing appropriate policies and programs for adoption by a city, a city may adopt that portion of the county's seismic safety element that pertains to the city planning area within the county's jurisdiction, in satisfaction of this subdivision

In adopting a county seismic safety element, a city shall follow all requirements regarding the content and adoption of general plan elements as set forth in this article and Article 6 (commencing with Section 65350) of this chapter.

Each county and city shall submit to the Division of Mines and Geology of the Department of Conservation one copy of the seismic safety element and any technical studies used for developing the seismic safety element

(g) A noise element, which shall recognize guidelines adopted by the Office of Noise Control pursuant to Section 46050 1 of the Health and Safety Code, and which quantifies the community noise environment in terms of noise exposure contours for both near- and long-term levels of growth and traffic activity Such noise exposure information shall become a guideline for use in development of the land use element to achieve noise compatible land use and also to provide baseline levels and noise source identification for local noise ordinance enforcement

The sources of environmental noise considered in this analysis shall include, but are not limited to, the following

(1) Highways and freeways

(2) Primary arterials and major local streets

(3) Passenger and freight on-line railroad operations and ground rapid transit systems

The noise exposure information shall be presented in terms of noise contours expressed in community noise equivalent level (CNEL) or day-night average level (L_{dn}) CNEL means the average equivalent A-weighted sound level during a 24-hour day, obtained after addition of five decibels to sound levels in the evening from 7 p m to 10 p m. and after addition of 10 decibels to sound levels in the night before 7 a m and after 10 p m L_{dn} means the average equivalent A-weighted sound level during a 24-hour day, obtained after addition of 10 decibels to sound levels in the night before 7 a m and after 10 p m

The contours shall be shown in minimum increments of 5db and shall continue down to 60db For areas deemed noise sensitive, including, but not limited to, areas containing schools, hospitals, rest homes, long-term medical or mental care facilities, or any other land-use areas deemed noise sensitive by the local jurisdiction, the noise exposure shall be determined by monitoring

A part of the noise element shall also include the preparation of a community noise exposure inventory, current and projected, which identifies the number of persons exposed to various levels of noise throughout the community

The noise element shall also recommend mitigating measures and possible solutions to existing and foreseeable noise problems

The state, local, or private agency responsible for the construction, maintenance, or operation of those transportation, industrial, or other commercial facilities specified in paragraph 2 of this subdivision shall provide to the local agency producing the general plan, specific data relating to current and projected levels of activity and a detailed methodology for the development of noise contours given this supplied data, or they shall provide noise contours as specified in the foregoing statements

It shall be the responsibility of the local agency preparing the general plan to specify the manner in which the noise element will be integrated into the city or county's zoning plan and tied to the land use and circulation elements and to the local noise ordinance The noise element, once adopted, shall also become the guideline for determining compliance with the state's noise insulation standards, as contained in Section 1092 of Title 25 of the California

Administrative Code

(h) A scenic highway element for the development, establishment, and protection of scenic highways pursuant to the provisions of Article 2 5 (commencing with Section 260) of Chapter 2 of Division 1 of the Streets and Highways Code.

(i) A safety element for the protection of the community from fires and geologic hazards including features necessary for such protection as evacuation routes, peak load water supply requirements, minimum road widths, clearances around structures, and geologic hazard mapping in areas of known geologic hazards.

The elements of the general plan may, at the discretion of the county or city, be combined, provided, however, the county or city complies with all requirements regarding the content and adoption of general plan elements of this article and Article 6 (commencing with Section 65350) of this chapter

The requirements of this section shall apply to charter cities

An act relating to aviation

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. That allocation of thirty-five thousand nine hundred nine dollars and fifty-two cents ($35,909.52) made from the Aeronautics Account in the State Transportation Fund by the Department of Transportation to the City of Tulare and expended by the city for airport purposes is hereby ratified, validated, confirmed, and declared legally effective for all purposes; provided, that the city establishes and maintains a separate aviation fund or account for the deposit of funds allocated from the Aeronautics Account in the State Transportation Fund.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that Section 1 of this act is necessary since special facts and circumstances applicable to the City of Tulare, and not generally applicable, make the accomplishment of this purpose impossible by any general law. There exists a dispute as to the validity of certain allocations made by the Department of Transportation to the City of Tulare, prior to the 1973–74 fiscal year from the Aeronautics Account in the State Transportation Fund for airport purposes based on a good faith expenditure of these funds together with an equal amount of county funds. The Legislature further finds and declares that this is the only such expenditure of funds involved, that the purpose of this act is impossible to accomplish by any general law, and that special legislation applicable only to the City of Tulare, is therefore necessary

CHAPTER 6.7. LIVESTOCK SERVICE LIEN

3080. As used in this chapter, the following definitions shall apply:

(a) "Livestock" means any cattle, sheep, swine, goat, or horse, mule, or other equine.

(b) "Livestock servicer" means any individual, corporation, partnership, joint venture, cooperative, association or any other organization or entity which provides livestock services.

(a) The provision of livestock services to the livestock in possession of the livestock servicer.

(b) The provision of livestock services to other livestock for which livestock services were provided in connection with or as part of the same livestock service transaction, if such livestock services were provided within the immediately preceding 12 months prior to the date upon which the lien arose. The lien shall have priority over all other liens upon and security interests in the livestock, shall arise as the charges for livestock services become due, and shall be dependent upon possession. The lien shall secure the owner's contractual obligations to the lienholder for the provision of livestock services, the lienholder's reasonable charges for the provision of livestock services after the lien has arisen as set forth in Section 3080 02, and the lienholder's costs of lien enforcement, including attorney's fees.

3080 02 In addition to any other rights and remedies provided by law, a lienholder may:

(c) A lienholder may commence a legal action on its claim against the owner of the livestock or any other person indebted to the lienholder for services to the livestock and reduce the claim to judgment. When the lienholder has reduced the claim to judgment, any lien or levy or other form of enforcement which may be made upon the livestock by virtue of any execution based upon the judgment shall relate back to the attachment of and have the same priority as the livestock service lien The lienholder may purchase at a judicial sale held pursuant to the execution on the judgment and thereafter hold the livestock free of any liens upon or security interests in the livestock

3080 03 Upon the filing of the complaint, or at any time

thereafter prior to judgment, the lienholder may apply to the court in which the action was commenced for an order authorizing sale of livestock

(a) The application shall include all of the following

(c) A hearing shall be held in the court in which the lienholder has brought the action before an order authorizing sale is issued under this chapter Except as provided in Section 3080 15, or as ordered by the court upon good cause shown, the defendant shall be served with a copy of all of the following at least 10 days prior to the date set for hearing·

(1) A summons and complaint,

(2) A notice of application and hearing, and

(3) An application and all affidavits filed in support thereof

3080.04. The notice of application and hearing shall inform the defendant of all of the following.

(a) The date, time and place of the hearing on the application;

(b) That the order will issue if the court finds, after hearing, that the lienholder has established the probable validity of the claim and has satisfied the other requirements set forth in this chapter,

(c) The hearing is not held for the purpose of determining the actual validity of the claim which determination will be made in other proceedings in the action and will not be affected by the findings made at the hearing on the application for the order,

(d) If the order authorizing sale is issued, the lienholder may proceed to sell the livestock in the manner set forth in the order, and the sale proceeds will be deposited with the court pending judgment on the lienholder's claim,

(e) If the defendant desires to oppose the issuance of the order, the defendant must file with the court and serve on the lienholder a notice of opposition and supporting affidavit as required by Section 3080 05 no later than three days prior to the date set for hearing,

(f) At the hearing, the court may deny the lienholder's application if the defendant files an undertaking as set forth in Section 3080.11; and

(g) The notice shall contain the following statement: "You may seek the advice of an attorney as to any matters concerning the lienholder's complaint and application. If an attorney is to assist you, he or she should be consulted promptly. You or your attorney or both of you may be present at the hearing."

3080.05. (a) If a defendant desires to oppose the issuance of an order authorizing sale the defendant shall file and serve upon the lienholder a notice of opposition no later than three days prior to the date set for hearing. The notice shall:

(1) State the grounds upon which the defendant opposes the order;

(2) Be accompanied by an affidavit or affidavits supporting any factual issues raised;

(3) State whether the defendant is prepared to file an undertaking as provided in Section 3080.11; and

(4) If the defendant is prepared to file an undertaking, include an estimate of the amount of such undertaking as set forth in Section 3080.09 and the defendant's basis for the estimate.

(b) Except when the lienholder has made an ex parte application for an order as set forth in Section 3080 15, or for good cause shown, a defendant shall not be permitted to oppose the issuance of an order if it has failed to file a notice of opposition within the time prescribed.

3080.06. (a) At the hearing, the court shall consider the showing made by the parties and shall issue an order authorizing the sale of the livestock if it finds all of the following:

(1) The claim upon which the lienholder's action is based is a claim giving rise to a lien upon which an order authorizing sale may be issued under this chapter;

(2) The lienholder has established the probable validity of the claim upon which the action is based;

(3) The lienholder has established the probable validity of the lien sought to be enforced by sale;

(4) The sale is necessary to prevent a possible decline in the value or condition of the livestock or that the sale should be held in the interest of equity,

(5) The sale is not sought for a purpose other than the recovery on the claim upon which the lien is based, and

(6) The sale, if conducted in the manner set forth in the application, would be conducted in a commercially reasonable manner

(b) The order authorizing sale shall:

(1) Identify the livestock for which sale is authorized,

(2) Specify the manner of sale including the date, time, place, necessary publication or other notice, and

(3) Except as may be ordered pursuant to subdivision (c), direct the lienholder to deposit the proceeds of sale with the clerk of the court pending final judgment in the action

(c) The court may in its discretion do either of the following:

(1) Authorize the lienholder to deduct and retain funds from the sale proceeds in an amount sufficient to compensate the lienholder for services provided to the livestock from the date that the lien arose until the date of sale.

(2) Determine the amount of sale proceeds reasonably necessary to satisfy the indebtedness secured by the livestock service lien and order any portion or all of the remaining sale proceeds distributed and applied as set forth in paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) of Section 3080 16

The balance of sale proceeds, if any, remaining after any deductions authorized in this section shall be deposited with the clerk of the court pursuant to this section

3080 07 (a) After hearing, the court may issue an order denying the lienholder's application if it finds that·

(1) A sale is not necessary prior to judgment; and

(2) The defendant has filed an undertaking pursuant to Section 3080.11.

(b) If the defendant has filed an undertaking pursuant to Section 3080 11, the order shall direct the lienholder to assemble and make the livestock available to defendant, or to defendant's agent, at a specified date, time and place.

3080 08. (a) The court's findings at the hearing shall be made upon the basis of the pleadings and other papers in the record. Upon cause shown, the court may receive and consider additional oral or documentary evidence or points and authorities at the hearing, or it may continue the hearing to allow the production of such additional evidence or points and authorities

(b) The court's findings at the hearing shall have no effect on the determination of any issues in the action other than issues relevant to the proceedings authorized by this chapter, nor shall they affect the rights of the defendant in any other action arising out of the same claim The court's determinations at the hearing shall neither be admissible as evidence nor referred to at the trial of any such action

(c) Neither the failure of the defendant to oppose the issuance of an order authorizing sale, nor the defendant's failure to rebut any evidence produced by the lienholder at the hearing held for the issuance of such order, shall constitute a waiver of any defense to the lienholder's claim in the action or in any other action or have any effect on the right of the defendant to produce or exclude evidence at the trial of such action

3080 09 (a) At any time after the lienholder has filed a complaint and claimed a lien under this chapter, or at any time after the owner of the livestock has commenced an action to recover possession of the livestock, the owner of the livestock may apply to the court in which the action was brought for an order for substitution of an undertaking which meets the requirements of Section 3080 11 for the livestock held by the lienholder

(b) The application for such order shall be executed under oath and, unless included within a notice of opposition to sale as set forth in Section 3080.05, or except for good cause shown, shall be made upon noticed motion. Unless the parties otherwise agree, a hearing shall be held on the motion not less than five nor more than 10 days after service of notice of motion. The application shall contain all of the following:

(1) A description of the livestock to be recovered;

(2) An estimate and the basis for the estimate of the fair market value of the livestock;

(3) A statement identifying and describing the sureties for the undertaking.

3080.10. After hearing, the court may enter an order directing the lienholder to release all or a portion of the livestock to the owner, or to the owner's agent. The order shall be conditioned upon the filing by the owner of an approved undertaking as set forth in Section 3080 11, and shall include all of the following:

(1) The amount of the undertaking required;

(2) The basis for the court's finding as to the fair market value of the livestock;

(3) An approval of the sureties proposed,

(4) A statement that the lienholder has the right to object to the undertaking pursuant to Section 3080.12;

(5) A description of the livestock to be substituted; and

(6) A statement of the date, time, place and manner in which the lienholder is to turn over the livestock to the owner.

3080.11 The undertaking to be substituted for livestock shall:

(a) Be an undertaking by the owner to pay to the lienholder an amount equal to the sum of (1) the fair market value of the livestock sought to be recovered, and (2) the costs to be incurred by the lienholder in order to assemble and turn over the livestock;

(b) Be presented to the court for approval and upon approval shall be filed with the clerk of the court in which the action is pending; and

(c) Be executed by two or more sureties. Where a surety on the undertaking is a corporate surety possessing a certificate of authority from the Insurance Commissioner, as provided by Section 1056 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and the undertaking conforms in all other respects to the court's order issued under Section 3080.10 and the requirements of this section, the undertaking is not required to be approved by the court before filing.

3080 12 (a) The lienholder may object to the undertaking on either or both of the following grounds:

(1) The sureties are insufficient, or

(2) The amount of the undertaking is insufficient

Where an objection is made on the ground that the amount of the undertaking is insufficient, the notice of motion shall state why the amount is insufficient and offer an estimate for a sufficient amount.

(b) Unless made at a hearing held pursuant to Section 3080 03 or Section 3080 09, or for good cause shown, the objection shall be made by noticed motion which specifies the ground for objection. If an objection is raised after the issuance of an order authorizing undertaking, unless the parties otherwise agree, a hearing on the objection shall be held not less than five nor more than 10 days after service of notice of motion.

3080.13. (a) If a separate hearing is held on an objection to undertaking, the hearing shall be conducted in such manner as the court deems proper. At any hearing at which an objection is heard, the court may permit witnesses to attend and evidence to be procured and introduced in the same manner as in the trial of a civil case. The court may appoint one or more disinterested persons to appraise the livestock for the purpose of ascertaining its value.

(b) If the court determines that an undertaking is insufficient, it shall specify in what respect it is insufficient and shall order that an undertaking with sufficient sureties and in a sufficient amount be filed within five days. If the order is not complied with, all rights obtained by filing the original undertaking immediately cease. If an order authorizing sale has issued, the lienholder may proceed to sell the livestock in accordance with the terms of such order.

(c) Where the court determines an undertaking is insufficient, the undertaking shall remain in effect until either an undertaking with sufficient sureties and in a sufficient amount has been filed, or the time in which to file such undertaking has expired, whichever shall first occur.

(d) Where the court has heard an objection and has determined that an undertaking is sufficient, no future objection to the undertaking may be made except upon a showing of changed circumstances.

3080.14. (a) Notwithstanding Section 2845, a judgment of liability on any undertaking shall be in favor of the beneficiary and against the sureties and may be enforced directly against the sureties. The liability of a surety is limited to the amount of the undertaking, and nothing in this section shall affect any right of subrogation of a surety against his principal.

(b) A motion to enforce liability on an undertaking shall not be filed or notice served prior to entry of final judgment in the action in which the undertaking is given and the time for appeal from such judgment has expired or, if an appeal is filed, until such appeal is finally determined.

3080.15. (a) Except as otherwise provided by statute, or upon noticed hearing as provided in this chapter, no order authorizing sale or order for substitution of undertaking for livestock may issue unless it appears from facts shown by affidavit that great or irreparable injury would result to the party seeking the order if the issuance of the order were delayed until the matter could be heard upon noticed hearing.

(b) In addition to a specific statement of the facts showing great or irreparable injury, any application made under this section for either an order authorizing sale or an order substituting undertaking for livestock shall include the substantive requirements of an application made under Section 3080.03 or Section 3080.09, respectively

(c) The court shall examine the ex parte application, supporting affidavits and other papers on record and may issue the order sought if it finds all of the following.

(1) The party seeking the order is entitled to the order under the substantive provisions of this chapter,

(2) The party seeking the order will suffer great and irreparable injury if the order is not issued; and

(3) If the ex parte application is made for an order authorizing sale, the court determines that the condition of the livestock will greatly deteriorate or the value of the livestock will greatly depreciate before an order authorizing sale could be obtained pursuant to noticed hearing.

(d) An order issued under this section shall contain such provisions as the court determines to be in the interests of justice and equity to the parties, taking into account the effects on all parties under the circumstances of the particular case. If an order authorizing sale issues under this section, the court may authorize the lienholder to take any action necessary to preserve the value of the livestock so long as the court has determined that such action would be commercially reasonable under the circumstances

(e) Upon ex parte application of any party affected by an order issued under this section or, if the court so orders, after a noticed hearing, the court may modify or vacate the order if it determines that such action would be proper under the circumstances.

3080 16. (a) Except as otherwise specified by the order authorizing sale or as agreed to by the parties after the lien has arisen, a sale of livestock under this chapter may be held in bulk or in parcels, at wholesale or retail, and at any time and place and on any terms, provided the lienholder acts in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner The livestock may be sold in its existing condition or following any commercially reasonable preparation or processing. The fact that a better price could have been obtained by a sale at a different time or in a different manner from that selected by the lienholder is not of itself sufficient to establish that the sale was not made in a commercially reasonable manner If the lienholder either sells the livestock in the usual manner in any recognized market therefor or sells at the price current in such market at the time of the sale or, if it has otherwise sold in conformity with reasonable commercial sales practices for the type of livestock sold, it has sold in a commercially reasonable manner

(b) Except as otherwise specified by order of the court, or as agreed to by all interested parties after the lien has arisen, the proceeds of sale shall be deposited with the clerk of the court in an interest-bearing account to abide the judgment in the action

(c) Except as otherwise specified in the judgment in the action, the proceeds of sale shall be applied in the following order:

(1) For reasonable expenses incurred by the lienholder in enforcing the lien, including, but not limited to, the charges for livestock services from the date the lien arose to the date of sale; the costs of transporting and preparing the livestock for sale and of conducting the sale; and, the reasonable attorneys' fees and legal costs and expenses incurred by the lienholder,

(2) For satisfaction of the contractual indebtedness secured by the lien; and

(3) For satisfaction of indebtedness secured by any subordinate lien or security interest in the livestock if written notification or demand therefor is received by the court or the lienholder before the proceeds have been distributed If requested by the lienholder, the holder of a subordinate lien or security interest must seasonably furnish reasonable proof to the court of its subordinate interest before the lienholder need comply with the demand.

(d) The lienholder must account to the owner of the livestock for any surplus and, unless otherwise provided in the judgment in the action, the owner shall be liable for any deficiency

3080.17 Except as otherwise agreed or specified by order of court, notice of sale shall be given as follows

(a) A notice in writing of the date, time and place of sale shall be delivered personally or be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the owner of the livestock, at his last known address, and to any other person claiming a lien upon or security interest in the livestock, who had on file with the California Secretary of State on the date the lien arose a financing statement covering the livestock for which livestock services secured by the lien were provided at least five days before the date fixed for any public sale or before the day on or after which any private sale or other disposition is to be made

(b) Notice of the time and place of a public sale shall also be given at least five days before the date of sale by publication once in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which the sale is to be held. If there is no such newspaper, notice shall be given by posting, for five days prior to sale, a notice of sale where the sale is to be conducted

3080.18. (a) Any sale of which notice is delivered or mailed and published as provided in this chapter and which is held as provided in this chapter is a public sale

(b) Any public sale may be postponed from time to time by public announcement at the time and place last scheduled for sale.

(c) The lienholder may purchase the livestock at a public sale

3080 19 (a) A sale of livestock held pursuant to this chapter shall.

(1) Transfer to a purchaser for value all of the owner's rights in the livestock, and

(2) Discharge the lien under which the sale is made and any lien or security interest subordinate thereto

(b) The purchaser shall take free of all such subordinate rights and interests even though the lienholder fails to comply with the requirements of this chapter or of any judicial proceeding if:

(1) In the case of a public sale, the purchaser has no knowledge of any defects in the sale and does not buy in collusion with the lienholder, other bidders or the person conducting the sale, or

(2) In any other case, the purchaser acts in good faith.

3080 20. (a) The owner of livestock or any other person claiming an interest in livestock may release its interest in the livestock at any time after the lien has arisen. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of that code

CHAPTER 605

An act to amend Section 2750.5 of the Labor Code, relating to employment

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows.

SECTION 1 Section 2750.5 of the Labor Code is amended to read.

2750.5 There is a rebuttable presumption affecting the burden of proof that a worker performing services for which a license is required pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 7000) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, or who is performing such services for a person who is required to obtain such a license is an employee rather than an independent contractor Proof of independent contractor status includes satisfactory proof of these factors

(a) That the individual has the right to control and discretion as to the manner of performance of the contract for services in that the result of the work and not the means by which it is accomplished is the primary factor bargained for

(b) That the individual is customarily engaged in an independently established business

(c) That the individual's independent contractor status is bona fide and not a subterfuge to avoid employee status. A bona fide independent contractor status is further evidenced by the presence of cumulative factors such as substantial investment other than personal services in the business, holding out to be in business for oneself, bargaining for a contract to complete a specific project for compensation by project rather than by time, control over the time and place the work is performed, supplying the tools or instrumentalities used in the work other than tools and instrumentalities normally and customarily provided by employees, hiring employees, performing work that is not ordinarily in the course of the principal's work, performing work that requires a particular skill, holding a license pursuant to the Business and Professions Code, the intent by the parties that the work relationship is of an independent contractor status, or that the relationship is not severable or terminable at will by the principal but gives rise to an action for breach of contract

In addition to the factors contained in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c), any person performing any function or activity for which a license is required pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 7000) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code shall hold a valid contractors' license as a condition of having independent contractor status

For purposes of workers' compensation law, this presumption is a supplement to the existing statutory definitions of employee and independent contractor, and is not intended to lessen the coverage of employees under Division 4 and Division 5

15366 It is the intent of the Legislature that the informational functions to be provided by state agencies under this chapter shall be accomplished by existing employees in the agencies who already handle inquiries relating to license or permit requirements of the particular agency and should not necessitate additional budgeted positions The provisions of this chapter will allow agencies to more effectively and efficiently carry out duties and services to the public that they are or should currently be performing

CHAPTER 655

An act to amend Section 10133 1 of, and to add Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 11700) to Part 2 of Division 4 of, the Business and Professions Code, and to amend Section 2924c of the Civil Code, relating to real property subject to foreclosure, declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 14, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows·

SECTION 1 The Legislature hereby finds and declares that

(a) The Legislature reaffirms its commitment to the protection and conservation of large equities now accumulated by California homeowners as expressed in Section 50007 of the Health and Safety Code, and further reaffirms its commitment to the national housing goal of a decent home and suitable living environment for every California family as expressed in Section 50002 of the Health and Safety Code.

The Legislature further reaffirms its finding that the subject of housing is of vital statewide importance to the health, safety, and welfare of the residents of California as expressed in Section 50001 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) The recent inflation of real property values in most urban areas of the state has resulted in an increase in the value of the equity of homes, of which many homeowners, particularly the poor and the elderly, are unaware.

(c) Many homeowners in this state are unaware of the legal rights and options available to them once foreclosure proceedings have been initiated against their homes. The present foreclosure process fails to provide sufficient meaningful information to homeowners to enable them to avoid foreclosure or save the equity in their homes

(d) Many homeowners in this state who possess substantial equities in homes subject to foreclosure have sold their homes to buyers for little or no money. Many of these buyers have made unconscionable profits by taking advantage of the homeowners financial plight and lack of knowledge regarding the legal rights and options available to them.

(e) Other homeowners in this state have been approached when their homes are subject to foreclosure by persons purporting to be expert in providing assistance to homeowners with respect to foreclosure proceedings. These persons, instead of providing assistance, employ a variety of schemes and devices to deprive homeowners of their homes and the equity they have accumulated therein.

(f) As a result of these and other injurious practices, homeowners throughout this state are losing their homes and the substantial equities they have accumulated in those homes.

(g) It is the policy of the State of California to preserve home ownership. The loss of homes resulting from these practices contributes to the destabilization of neighborhoods and the destruction of the character of urban communities.

It is therefore the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to prohibit unfair and unconscionable practices concerning residential real property in foreclosure. It is further the intent of the Legislature to increase the information provided to the homeowner with respect to foreclosure proceedings and to strengthen the remedies available to homeowners victimized by these practices

SEC 2 Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 11700) is added to Part 2 of Division 4 of the Business and Professions Code, to read:

CHAPTER 4 RESIDENTIAL REAL PROPERTY IN FORECLOSURE

11700 (a) As used in this chapter, the following terms have the following meanings:

(1) "Residential real property in foreclosure" means residential real property which is being sold (A) to enforce payment of a debt secured by a mortgage, deed of trust, or other lien on the real property, (B) to enforce a judgment, or (C) to enforce payment of taxes

(2) "Acquisition, sale, exchange, or transfer" shall include, but is not limited to, any transaction involving a grant of real property which purports to be defeasible upon the performance of certain conditions by the grantor.

(b) This chapter shall not apply to the following transactions:

(1) The acquisition of property for use as the personal residence of the buyer.

(2) The acquisition of property to be used for commercial or non-residential purposes.

(6) Loans made or arranged by real estate licensees acting within the meaning of subdivision (d) of Section 10131 of the Business and Professions Code.

11701 It is unlawful for any person to initiate, enter into, negotiate, or consummate any transaction involving residential real property in foreclosure, as defined in Section 11700, if such person, by the terms of such transaction, takes unconscionable advantage of the property owner in foreclosure.

11702. (a) Any transaction involving residential real property in foreclosure, as defined in Section 11700, which is in violation of Section 11701 is voidable and may be rescinded at the option of any other party to the transaction.

(b) Such rescission shall be effected by written notice directed to the other parties to the transaction and as provided for in Section 1691 of the Civil Code Such notice shall be given within three years of the date of such transaction and shall be entitled to be recorded with the county recorder of the county in which the real property is located. Upon delivery of the notice, the party holding record title or the successor in interest shall, within 20 days, reconvey title to the rescinding grantor free and clear of encumbrances created subsequent to the rescinded transaction. Upon failure to reconvey title within such time, the rescinding grantor may bring an action to enforce the rescission and for the cancellation of any deed pursuant to Section 1692 or 3412 of the Civil Code

(c) The provisions of this section shall not apply to any transfer of real property to a bona fide purchaser or encumbrancer for value if such transfer occurs prior to the recordation of the notice of rescission pursuant to subdivision (b).

(d) In any action brought to enforce a rescission pursuant to this section, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees

(e) The remedies provided by this section shall be in addition to any other remedies provided by statutory or decisional law.

The Commissioner of Corporations may by rule or order specify the form in which such list shall be filed and the procedures to be followed pursuant to this subdivision and may extend the time within which such list shall be filed and such fee shall be paid.

CHAPTER 666

An act to amend Sections 33006 and 44944 of the Education Code, relating to education

[Approved by Governor September 14, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1 Section 33006 of the Education Code is amended to read

33006 Members of the board shall receive their actual and necessary traveling expenses while on official business. Each member shall also receive fifty dollars ($50) for each day he or she is acting in an official capacity.

SEC. 2 Section 44944 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44944. (a) In the event a hearing is requested by the employee, the hearing shall be commenced within 60 days from the date of the employee's demand for a hearing. The hearing shall be initiated, conducted, and a decision made in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, provided, however, that the hearing date shall be established after consultation with the employee and the governing board, or their representatives, and the Commission on Professional Competence shall have all the power granted to an agency therein, except that the right of discovery of the parties shall not be limited to those matters set forth in Section 11507.6 of the Government Code but shall include the rights and duties of any party in a civil action brought in a superior court. In all cases, discovery shall be completed prior to seven calendar days before the date upon which the hearing commences. If any continuance is granted pursuant to Section 11524 of the Government Code, the time limitation for commencement of the hearing as provided in this subdivision shall be extended for a period of time equal to such continuance; provided, however, that such extension shall not include that period of time attributable to an unlawful refusal by either party to allow the discovery provided for in this section.

If the right of discovery granted under the preceding paragraph is denied by either the employee or the governing board, all the remedies in Section 2034 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall be available to the party seeking discovery and the court of proper jurisdiction, to entertain his motion, shall be the superior court of the county in which the hearing will be held.

The time periods in this section and of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code and of Article 3 (commencing with Section 2016) of Chapter 3 of Title 3 of Part 4 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall not be applied so as to deny discovery in a hearing conducted pursuant to this section.

No witness shall be permitted to testify at the hearing except upon oath or affirmation. No testimony shall be given or evidence introduced relating to matters which occurred more than four years prior to the date of the filing of the notice. Evidence of records regularly kept by the governing board concerning the employee may be introduced, but no decision relating to the dismissal or suspension of any employee shall be made based on charges or evidence of any nature relating to matters occurring more than four years prior to the filing of the notice

(b) The hearing provided for in this section shall be conducted by a Commission on Professional Competence. One member of the commission shall be selected by the employee, one member shall be selected by the governing board, and one member shall be a hearing officer of the Office of Administrative Hearings who shall be chairman and a voting member of the commission and shall be responsible for assuring that the legal rights of the parties are protected at the hearing. If either the governing board or the employee for any reason fails to select a commission member at least seven calendar days prior to the date of the hearing, such failure shall constitute a waiver of the right to selection, and the county board of education or its specific designee shall immediately make the selection. When the county board of education is also the governing board of the school district or has by statute been granted the powers of a governing board, the selection shall be made by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, who shall be reimbursed by the school district for all costs incident to the selection

The member selected by the governing board and the member selected by the employee shall not be related to the employee and shall not be employees of the district initiating the dismissal and shall hold a currently valid credential and have at least five years' experience within the past 10 years in the discipline of the employee

(c) The decision of the Commission on Professional Competence shall be made by a majority vote and the commission shall prepare a written decision containing findings of fact, determinations of issues and a disposition which shall be, solely, either:

(1) That the employee should be dismissed

(2) That the employee should not be dismissed

The commission shall not have the power to dispose of the charge of dismissal by imposing probation, suspension of a dismissal or a nondismissal, or other alternative sanctions.

The decision of the Commission on Professional Competence shall be deemed to be the final decision of the governing board

The board may adopt from time to time such rules and procedures not inconsistent with provisions of this section, as may be necessary to effectuate this section

The governing board and the employee shall have the right to be represented by counsel

(d) (1) If the member selected by the governing board or the member selected by the employee is employed by any school district in California, such member shall, during any service on a Commission on Professional Competence, continue to receive salary, fringe benefits, accumulated sick leave, and other leaves and benefits from the district in which the member is employed, but shall receive no additional compensation or honorariums for service on the commission.

(2) If service on a Commission on Professional Competence occurs during summer recess or vacation periods, the member shall receive compensation proportionate to that received during the current or immediately preceding contract period from the member's employing district, whichever amount is greater.

(e) If the Commission on Professional Competence determines that the employee should be dismissed, the governing board and the employee shall share equally the expenses of the hearing, including the cost of the hearing officer, and the state shall pay, any costs incurred under paragraph (2) of subdivision (d), the reasonable expenses, as determined by the hearing officer, of the member selected by the governing board and the member selected by the employee, including, but not limited to payments or obligations incurred for travel, meals, and lodging, and the cost of the substitute or substitutes, if any, for the member selected by the governing board and the member selected by the employee The State Controller shall pay all claims submitted pursuant to this paragraph from the General Fund, and may prescribe reasonable rules, regulations, and forms for the submission of such claims. The employee and the governing board shall pay their own attorney fees

If the Commission on Professional Competence determines that the employee should not be dismissed, the governing board shall pay the expenses of the hearing, including the cost of the hearing officer, any costs incurred under paragraph (2) of subdivision (d), the reasonable expenses, as determined by the hearing officer, of the member selected by the governing board and the member selected by the employee, including, but not limited to payments or obligations incurred for travel, meals, and lodging, the cost of the substitute or substitutes, if any, for the member selected by the governing board and the member selected by the employee, and reasonable attorney fees incurred by the employee.

As used in this section, "reasonable expenses" shall not be deemed "compensation" within the meaning of subdivision (d).

If either the governing board or the employee petitions a court of competent jurisdiction for review of the decision of the commission, the payment of expenses to members of the commission required by this subdivision shall not be stayed.

PART 2 STATE GOVERNMENT'S ROLE TO ALLEVIATE PROBLEMS RELATED TO THE INAPPROPRIATE USE OF ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES

CHAPTER 1 GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1 Statement of Problems Related to the Inappropriate Use of Alcoholic Beverages and the Reasons for and Limitations on State Government's Role

11760 The Legislature finds and declares that problems related to the inappropriate use of alcoholic beverages adversely affect the general welfare of the people of California These problems, which constitute the most serious drug problem in California, include, but are not limited, to the following

(a) Substantial fatalities, permanent disability, and property damage which result from driving under the influence of alcoholic beverages and a drain on law enforcement, the courts, and penal system which result from crimes involving inappropriate alcohol use

(b) Alcoholism in the individual, which is an addiction to the drug alcohol, with its attendant deterioration of physical and emotional health and social well-being

(c) Alcoholism in the family with its attendant deterioration of all relationships and the well-being of family members

(d) A risk of increased susceptibility to serious illnesses and other major health problems which ultimately create a burden on both public and private health facilities and resources

(e) A risk of fetal alcohol syndrome.

(f) Losses in production and tax revenues due to absenteeism, unemployment, and industrial accidents.

11760.1 The Legislature recognizes that any efforts to address the problems related to inappropriate alcohol use are greatly hindered by:

(a) The stigmatization of persons who have alcohol problems.

(b) Denial by the individual and the community, especially among members of the professional community, sometimes referred to as gatekeepers, regarding the nature and scope of alcohol problems.

(c) Services which, if uncoordinated, often are conflicting, inappropriate, ineffective, duplicative, and wasteful of limited public and private resources.

(d) Actions and attitudes which encourage consumption of alcoholic beverages in California, which lead to alcohol problems.

11760 2. The Legislature finds that state government has an affirmative role in alleviating problems related to the inappropriate use of alcoholic beverages and that its major objective is protection of the public health and safety, particularly where problems related to inappropriate alcohol use are likely to cause harm to individuals, families, and the community.

11760.3. The Legislature recognizes that state government's role should be limited for several reasons including, but not restricted to:

(a) State government should intervene in the activities of individuals only where such individuals' inappropriate use of alcoholic beverages is likely to cause significant harm to other persons, families, or the community, and

(b) The resources available to alleviate problems related to inappropriate alcohol use are limited; and

(c) Significant private resources, economic incentives, and voluntary actions of individuals and groups in the community are available and should be utilized and encouraged to preclude the necessity for governmental involvement.

11760 4 (a) The Legislature finds that, in order to utilize effectively the limited state funds available for programs whose purpose is to alleviate the problems related to inappropriate alcohol use and to overcome the barriers to their solution as described in Section 11760.1, the responsibility and authority for the encouragement of the planning for and the establishment of county-based programs and statewide alcohol projects be concentrated primarily in one state department

(b) The Legislature further recognizes the department's limited role in state government in trying to alleviate the problems related to inappropriate alcohol use because of

(1) The department's limited budget and staff; and

(2) The important role played by other state agencies in trying to alleviate the problems related to inappropriate alcohol use

(i) Develop and implement a statewide plan to alleviate problems related to inappropriate alcohol use and to overcome the barriers to their solution as described in Section 11760 1, and review and revise such plan annually. In preparing the plan, the department shall take into consideration the local plans submitted by counties pursuant to this part In order to avoid duplication of efforts in developing statewide plans, the department shall consult with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development to adopt a uniform format and policies for the development of the statewide alcohol plan to facilitate its incorporation in the state health plan The department shall submit an annual report to the Legislature no later than January 31st of each year which incorporates the state plan The report shall also include, but not be limited to, the information specifically required pursuant to provisions of this part

(d) To do or perform any other acts which may be necessary, desirable, or proper to carry out the purposes of this part.

11772 (a) Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary set forth in this part, the department may not contract directly for the provision of alcohol services except as follows

(b) The Legislature strongly encourages all counties to apply for funds under this part because of the seriousness of alcohol problems in California and the necessity for affirmative governmental involvement to help alleviate alcohol problems However, the Legislature has chosen not to mandate that counties provide such services and programs In the absence of local community control of the services and programs, the state shall not intervene to operate directly or through contract services and programs which the elected county board of supervisors has chosen not to provide to its constituents

Chapter 2 Relationship of the Department to Other Governmental Agencies and the Private Sector

Article 1 Federal Government

11775 (a) Each year the department shall apply for federal funds from the National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism and may expend such funds only upon appropriation or approval by the Legislature pursuant to the provisions of the Budget Act

(b) Whenever the National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism, as created pursuant to Public Law 91-6161 of 1970, conditions its allocation of funds to the department in a manner which would conflict with any provisions of this part, the department shall specifically describe such conflict in order to assist the Legislature in deciding upon whether to appropriate or approve expenditure of such funds

(c) The department shall discuss with the National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism counties, and counties shall discuss with individual grantees ways to address (1) the problems caused by declining or expiring federal grants to programs in California in light of limited funds available at the state and local level and (2) the need for coordination between programs funded directly by the National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism and state-funded programs

11778 9 It is the intent of the Legislature that the department cooperate closely with individuals and organizations concerned with alleviating problems related to inappropriate alcohol use. No member of the board may be an employee or member of the board of directors of an organization which is a direct recipient of any state funds pursuant to a contract with a department, which shall include compensation for contracted services or membership on an advisory body or board of directors of such recipient organization. (2) The Legislature finds and declares that periodic review and evaluation of advisory bodies is necessary to assure that such bodies operate according to legislative intent and perform services of real value, in a fiscally prudent manner, for the people of California. The Legislature further finds and declares that such review is best accomplished by the establishment in statute of a termination date for the advisory board which shall remain in effect unless upon presentations by the board and public, the Legislature deems it in the public interest to repeal the termination Such review also provides an opportunity to reevaluate the needs and functions of the board and to consider more efficient alternatives.

(3) The Legislature shall review the functions and performance of the board on a one-time basis pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision, and shall conclude such review, considering repeal of the relevant sections and reorganization alternatives, no later than January 1, 1982.

The Legislative Analyst shall evaluate the board on the basis of the statement and independent research and shall submit an evaluation of the board's purpose, organization, and performance and an estimate of the impact of reformation of the board no later than three months after receiving the statement.

(6) Upon receipt of the Legislative Analyst's evaluation, the Speaker of the Assembly and the Senate Rules Committee shall provide that the appropriate policy and fiscal committees of the Legislature, meeting in a joint hearing, shall conduct a review of the board's purpose, organization, and performance through hearings at which the testimony of the public and board representatives shall be taken. In such hearings, the board shall bear the burden of proof in demonstrating a public need for continued existence. Not later than December 31, 1981, the committees shall issue a statement of findings upon conclusion of the review If the committees find that the board should continue in existence, they shall assure the introduction of appropriate legislation

(7) No funds shall be appropriated or otherwise be made available from any source whatsoever to the board after the operative date of repeal without the express consent of the Legislature by statute

(8) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the Legislature from terminating the board at a date earlier than that provided herein, nor to prohibit the Legislature from considering any other legislation relating to such board

Chapter 3 Research

11785. The Legislature recognizes the importance of encouraging research to study the biological aspects of alcoholism and the social factors contributing to problems related to the inappropriate use of alcoholic beverages

The Legislature further recognizes the value of interpreting and applying research results through changes in public policy

11786 The department is authorized to contract with the Regents of the University of California or a private university or universities located within California for purposes of establishing and maintaining research centers on a campus or campuses of the University of California or such private university or universities for the study of the biological aspects of alcoholism and the social factors contributing to problems relating to the inappropriate use of alcoholic beverages Funds appropriated by the Legislature pursuant to this chapter may be expended for salaries of staff and necessary operating expenses and related research materials and may not be expended for capital outlay purposes

11787 (a) The department and the center or centers shall conduct informational forums and provide descriptive reports in order to encourage interaction between the center or centers and persons who provide services to alleviate problems relating to inappropriate alcohol use The department shall also assure that the research undertaken by such centers is explained and disseminated so that the Legislature and people concerned with the problems relating to inappropriate alcohol use may understand the purposes and findings of such research Wherever appropriate, the department shall recommend to the Legislature how such findings may be applied to public policy in order to alleviate the problems related to the inappropriate use of alcoholic beverages

(b) Within available resources, the department shall gather and disseminate information regarding activities and findings of other research projects undertaken by public and private agencies in California, and be able to refer people to sources of existing information on research topics

(c) In its annual report to the Legislature required pursuant to Section 11770, the department shall describe the status of the research center projects, the findings, if any, and the other activities, of the center or centers during the previous year.

Members shall have a professional interest in, or personal commitment to, alleviating problems related to inappropriate alcohol use in their community. The membership shall include representatives from various economic, social, and occupational groups and shall be broadly representative of the demographic characteristics of the county

11806 Each member of the board shall be appointed for a term of three years Persons appointed as members of the alcoholism advisory board established pursuant to former Section 11795 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 1128 of the Statutes of 1975, may continue to serve until the expiration of their terms, provided that they meet the other conditions for membership required pursuant to this article

11806.5. The county alcohol program administrator shall provide for the orientation of board members, including, but not limited to, provision of information and materials on alcohol problems and programs, planning procedures, and site visits to local alcohol programs.

11807. (a) Except as permitted under subdivision (c) of Section 11805, the advisory board shall not include any person, or his or her spouse, who is any of the following

(c) In the event that prior to the expiration of his or her term, a member ceases to retain the status which qualified him or her for appointment to the advisory board, his or her membership on the advisory board shall terminate and there shall be a vacancy on the advisory board to be filled by the board of supervisors

(d) The members of the advisory board may be removed for cause pursuant to standards adopted by the advisory board which are consistent with the provisions of this article and which are approved by the board of supervisors

11808. (a) The advisory board shall meet at least bimonthly and may meet at such other times as may be deemed necessary by the chair or alcohol program administrator. 11809.5 The advisory board may submit any comments regarding the county alcohol program or minutes of its meetings, in addition to the submissions required pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 11810) of this chapter, to the board of supervisors.

Article 4. County Alcohol Plan

11810. Counties that elect to apply for state funds under the provisions of this part shall determine their own priorities for alleviating problems related to inappropriate alcohol use in their communities and for provision of alcohol services pursuant to the planning process described in this article.

The Legislature recognizes the difficulty in balancing the justification for statewide standards that should be applied to every county's proposed application to the state for funds under this part and the values inherent in local community control. The Legislature emphasizes the need for a representative advisory board established pursuant to Section 11805 and a qualified alcohol program administrator appointed pursuant to Section 11800 who will reach out to the community to seek a diversity of opinions so as to assure that the county plan reflects as much as possible the needs of the community to alleviate the problems related to inappropriate alcohol use.

11810.5. (a) Each year, the county alcohol program administrator shall coordinate the planning process described in this section in cooperation with the alcohol advisory board and interested persons in the community The alcohol program administrator, in cooperation with the advisory board, shall prepare a written description of the process to be followed in the development of the county alcohol plan. The alcohol program administrator shall include such description in his or her submission of the plan to the board of supervisors. Such process shall provide for a reasonable opportunity for input from interested groups and individuals.

(b) Whenever appropriate, the county shall encourage coordination with the planning processes for other health programs to assure a unified planning process for all health programs, including the county alcohol program. However, such unified planning shall not delay or interfere with any of the procedures or applications for funding under this part.

(c) The alcohol program administrator, in cooperation with the advisory board, in preparing the plan, shall:

(1) Identify and describe the major problems in the county related to the inappropriate use of alcoholic beverages. Such descriptions shall identify specific populations affected by such problems and describe the impact of alcohol problems on the public's well-being.

(2) Describe the specific objectives the county expects to achieve in alleviating such problems.

(3) Describe the programs and services required to achieve such objectives, including:

(A) An identification of private and public alcohol programs and services available within the county, exclusive of services funded under this part, and how such services are coordinated with state or county funded services to achieve such objectives.

(B) An identification of the programs and services, which may include strategies to influence public attitudes, behaviors, and policies concerning alcohol problems, to be funded under this part to achieve such objectives

(C) An identification of unmet program and service needs, with an approximate cost

(4) Describe the evaluation methods that will be used by the county and providers of services funded under this part to measure achievement of such objectives utilizing the methods described in

Article 2 (commencing with Section 11827) of Chapter 6 of this part.

(5) Include a budget for providing programs and services identified in the plan Such budget shall identify by source and amount, including governmental funds, fees, contributions, grants, and other revenues, the funds available to the county for such purposes The budget shall provide estimates for expenditures for each provider of services and for the county's administrative expenses necessary to implement the plan

11811 Counties shall have broad discretion in the choice of services they utilize to alleviate the alcohol problems of specific population groups and the community identified pursuant to the planning process described in Section 11810.5 Such services shall include, but need not be limited to, the following broad categories:

(a) Direct services to (1) problem drinkers, and (2) the families of problem drinkers

(b) Indirect services, which include activities frequently referred to as "prevention", (1) to educate persons to enable them to recognize their own alcohol problems or to identify individuals with alcohol problems, (2) to make known the availability of direct services, and (3) to educate the community to affect its attitudes and responses to alcohol problems

11811 1 The major purposes of such indirect services include the following

(a) To lessen the stigmatization of persons who seek help for problems related to inappropriate alcohol use; and

(b) To provide information so that the public may make informed personal and public policy decisions regarding the inappropriate use and nonuse of alcoholic beverages, and

(c) To enlighten the "helping professions" to recognize persons with alcohol problems and to offer them appropriate services, and

(d) To encourage persons to seek early help for their alcohol problems

The Legislature recognizes that the effective provision of indirect services will result in an increased demand upon, and utilization of, existing direct services to problem drinkers and their families However, the Legislature believes that provision of effective indirect services over the next decade will result in saving taxpayers funds which might otherwise have to be expended for higher cost direct services

11811 3 In addition to the services described in Section 11811, a county may provide other services or programs pursuant to the provisions of this section, including, but not limited to, the following

(a) Occupational programs for county employees designed to help recognize employees with alcohol problems which affect their job performance and to encourage their seeking services to alleviate such problems

It is the intent of the Legislature to encourage every county to institute such a program for its own employees in order to set an example for the community regarding local government's attitude toward alcohol problems.

(b) Vocational rehabilitation services for which a county may contract directly with the State Department of Rehabilitation. Counties which do not choose to contract with the State Department of Rehabilitation may use the state share of funds allocated to them by the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs for any other services authorized in Section 11811 or this section.

It is the intent of the Legislature that counties make maximum utilization of vocational rehabilitation services, where reasonable and appropriate to do so, pursuant to a contract with the State Department of Rehabilitation. However, a county, pursuant to a resolution by the board of supervisors, may utilize the state share of such funds for other authorized services pursuant to Section 11811 if the State Department of Rehabilitation is not responsive to the needs of the county or the county has established, through the planning process, higher priorities for the use of such funds.

11811 5. A county may also utilize funds for:

(a) Planning, program development, and administration by the county and alcohol program administrator. The department shall establish uniform definitions of the elements of county alcohol program administration and shall set the minimum and maximum levels of administrative services, taking into account the total funds expended pursuant to the county alcohol plan.

In conducting planning, evaluation, and research activities to develop and implement the county alcohol program, counties may contract with appropriate public or private agencies.

(b) Actual and necessary expenses incurred by the alcohol program administrator relating to attendance at not more than four meetings each year of such administrators and reasonable dues for any related activities and meetings. Each administrator of a county which applies for funds under this part shall attend each such quarterly meeting, unless a waiver is provided for by the department.

It is not a prerequisite to an action under this section that the plaintiff suffer or be threatened with actual damages.

(d) The department may require that each county and any public or private provider of alcohol services which receives any state funds under this part provide such information as may be requested by the department relating to any application for or receipt of federal or other nonstate funds, including fees, donations, grants, and other revenues, for alcohol services provided by such agencies

11813 Nothing in this part shall prohibit a county from appropriating funds for alcohol programs and services in addition to the funds allocated by the department

11814. The department shall estimate an allocation of state and federal funds available for each county to implement the approved program plan In making allocations to counties, the department shall base its allocations on the population of each county. However, the department shall assure that each small population county receives a minimum amount of funds to provide adequate alcohol services The department may take into account other factors in making such allocations if the department finds that such factors relate to the level of alcohol problems in the county. Not later than 30 days after introduction of the Budget Bill, the department shall notify each county regarding its preliminary allocation under this division, pending enactment of the Budget Bill The allocation formula established pursuant to this section shall apply only to augmentations of funds to counties on or after July 1, 1980

Subject to review and any modification, the board of supervisors shall approve and authorize submission of the plan to the department pursuant to deadlines established by the department.

11815.5. If the county desires to redirect any funds allocated by the department from the purposes identified in the county alcohol plan previously submitted to the department, the county may amend such plan and submit it to the department for approval or disapproval pursuant to this article.

11815.7. Counties may develop and implement a plan for two fiscal years upon meeting all the following conditions:

(a) The planning process during the initial year of the budget cycle shall take into account the two-year plan period.

(b) The board of supervisors shall have the power to reapprove and modify the two-year plan pursuant to the provisions of this article.

(c) The two-year plans shall be subject to appropriations by the Legislature, allocations by the department, and continued appropriation of such funds by the board of supervisors.

(d) Each county which chooses to undertake a two-year plan shall submit to the department for its approval a schedule for the planning process and plan submission to the department.

(e) All the other relevant provisions of this part that apply to one-year plans shall also apply to two-year plans.

11815.9. The department shall specify forms and procedures for the preparation, submission, and amendment of the county alcohol plan.

11816. The department shall review and approve or disapprove each county plan. Such approval or disapproval shall be subject to the amount of funds appropriated to the department pursuant to the Budget Act or other statute for that fiscal year.

In reviewing the county plan which describes the services to be funded, the department may disapprove any funds to implement the plan, or any part thereof, for any of the following reasons:

(a) The county has not properly implemented the planning process pursuant to the provisions of this part.

(b) The plan violates any federal or state laws relating to discrimination against any person because of race, creed, age, religion, sex, sexual preference, or disabling condition. In such cases, the department shall cite the applicable law and explain the legal basis for the violation 11817.1. The department may reallocate among counties any savings which occur during the fiscal year in programs or services or any allocations either not applied for by a county or not in compliance with the provisions of this part. Reallocations may be made to counties by amendment to their county alcohol plans.

11817 3 There shall be a single state appropriation from the Budget Act to the department to fund programs and services to alleviate problems related to inappropriate alcohol use as provided for in this part.

11817 4 Alcohol services expenditures made by counties pursuant to this part shall be paid by the state pursuant to the provisions of this part.

11817 6 Payments or advances of funds to counties or other state agencies, which are properly chargeable to appropriations to the department may be made by a Controller's warrant drawn against state funds appropriated to the department or federal funds administered by the department.

11817.8. The department or the counties shall have the authority to audit or contract for auditing of any expenditure made pursuant to the state-funded alcohol program under this part The department may deny payments or advances of funds to counties if it finds by audit or otherwise that the county planning process or the county alcohol plan, or any part thereof, is not in compliance with the provisions of this part

11818. Expenditures made by counties and contract providers which may be reimbursed from funds under this part shall include expenditures for personnel, facilities, supplies, maintenance, utilities, and management services which are necessary to the provision of direct and indirect services specified in this article. 11818.5 Counties shall submit reports of expenditures of funds allocated by the department pursuant to this part after each fiscal year The procedures and forms for such reports, where appropriate, shall be coordinated with the procedures and forms utilized by other state health-related agencies Each county shall be responsible for reviewing its contracts with providers of services and the department may audit such contracts. Such reports shall be reviewed by the department and interim settlements of claims shall be made expeditiously with each county Final settlement shall be made at the time of audit, which shall be completed within three years of the date the report of expenditures was accepted for interim settlement by the department. If the audit is not completed within three years, the interim settlement shall be considered as the final settlement serve. In devising a system to assure that counties have expended their funds pursuant to their approved plans and budgets, the department shall take into account the flexibility that counties shall have in the provision of services and the changing nature of alcohol programs responding to the community's needs.

The department shall devise, not later than June 30, 1981, and implement, in consultation with the county administrators and other concerned groups and individuals, a program reporting method to evidence county compliance with this part. Until such date, the department shall assure that the "payment and cost reporting system" shall not impair the implementation of the provisions of this part.

11819.1. Each county shall commence implementation of the planning process under this chapter during the 1979–80 fiscal year, and shall fully implement such process on or before July 1, 1980, for the 1980–81 plan.

Chapter 5. State and County Relationships to Health Planning Agencies

Article 1. State Agencies

11820. The Legislature recognizes the potential positive impact that federal, state and local health planning agencies can have on the alleviation of alcohol problems through better coordinated planning and utilization of limited health resources. The Legislature encourages persons concerned with alcohol problems to become involved as much as possible as representatives on health planning agencies, and committees thereof, and in providing advice and comments on health plans of such agencies.

11820.1. The department shall work together with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development and any other statewide health planning agencies created pursuant to Public Law 93-641 in the preparation and implementation of the state health plan required under such act The department shall seek the advice and comments of public and private agencies and individuals concerned with alcohol problems prior to submission by the department of any draft plans to the office

Article 2. County Agencies

11821. In addition to the provisions of Section 11820, the Legislature also recognizes the increased potential for coordination between county alcohol programs and local health systems agencies established pursuant to Public Law 93-641 particularly in the review of grants and state formula grant allocations from the National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism to state and local agencies and individuals

11821 1. The county alcohol program administrator and the county advisory board on alcohol problems shall review and comment upon each application for provision of services to the National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism for federal funding by an agency or individual in the county. The alcohol program administrator shall forward such review and comments to the health systems agency in which the county is located and to the department The county shall also attempt to coordinate its planning process with the planning process of the health systems agency in order to assure that the county plan may be used by the health systems agency in its planning processes The county alcohol program administrator and the health systems agency in which the county is located, in cooperation with the department and the National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism, shall agree upon a memorandum of understanding, a copy of which shall be submitted with the county alcohol plan to the department, to assure effective and timely implementation of this section.

11821 3. The Legislature encourages the alcohol program administrator, members of the advisory board, and other persons concerned with alleviating alcohol problems to participate actively in the planning process undertaken by the health systems agency in which such county is located in order to assure provision of appropriate services to persons with alcohol problems in the county.

11821 5. The department shall provide for technical assistance and training to county alcohol program administrators in order to assure understanding of the provisions of Public Law 93-641 and encourage the involvement of people concerned with alleviating alcohol problems in the health systems agency planning process.

Chapter 6 Evaluation

Article 1. Statewide Evaluation

11825 It is imperative that the criteria be clearly set forth by which the effectiveness of the state-funded alcohol programs will be evaluated and that the department be required to collect in the least burdensome manner the relevant information necessary to conduct such an evaluation

11826. As provided in Section 11760 1, the Legislature has found that public attitudes toward alcohol problems and denial of alcohol problems are major barriers to alleviation and elimination of the problems related to inappropriate alcohol use. In addition, the Legislature recognizes that when people seek to overcome their alcohol problems, significant potential for successful recovery exists. The Legislature further recognizes, based upon current knowledge, that there exists a significant number of people who have alcohol problems who have not yet responded to direct or indirect services to alleviate their alcohol problems. The Legislature further recognizes that the effective provision of indirect services as described in Section 11811 will in the next few years increase demand upon, and utilization of, existing direct services. Therefore, the effectiveness of the programs funded by the department on a statewide basis may be measured by such factors, which may include but are not limited to:

(a) Changes in the number of persons who recognize their own problem drinking or the problem drinking of those close to them

(b) Changes in utilization of public and private programs, regardless of sources of funding, and the numbers of persons served in the state in such programs

(c) Changes in attitudes of the public towards abstinence, alcoholics, and other problem drinkers.

(d) Changes in the number of individuals who seek help for their drinking problems earlier as evidenced by factors of age, damage to health, and family and occupation status. For each factor, the department shall analyze and describe the meaning of such changes In making such an evaluation study, the department shall also estimate the number of people in California who have alcohol problems and describe their demograhic characteristics. In addition, the department shall also describe what efforts have been made or recommend what efforts should be made to increase the demand by such people and their families for direct services, regardless of how funded

Within its available resources, the department shall from time to time undertake a statewide survey on a sample basis to provide as soon as possible baseline data for such measurable elements. The department shall report the results of any such survey to the Legislature each year in its annual report.

Article 2. County Program Evaluation

11827 The Legislature recognizes that local program effectiveness may be evaluated in a variety of ways, but should reflect the needs and priorities of the local community and attempt to measure the achievement of objectives determined through the planning process described in this part The Legislature further recognizes that the conducting of such evaluations is essential to holding county alcohol programs accountable for their use of state funds and increasing program effectiveness The Legislature recognizes the beneficial results of the local evaluation process to those participating in such process, as described in the county plan.

The Legislature desires to encourage experimentation and diversity in the methods utilized by counties to evaluate the county alcohol programs' achievement of their objectives, including, but not limited to, evaluations of individuals' progress, changes in utilization rates, changes in community attitudes, and measurement of specific programmatic goals in order to advance our knowledge about the effectiveness of alcohol programs in alleviating alcohol problems as specified in the county alcohol plan. In addition, recognizing the difficulty and expense of conducting effective county alcohol program evaluation, the department may assist counties in developing evaluation designs for implementation by counties which may measure progress of individual problem drinkers, changes in community attitudes toward inappropriate alcohol use and problems, changes in the incidence and prevalence of alcohol problems within the county, or other objectives identified in the planning process. The department, in cooperation with counties that choose to participate, may assist and fund counties to implement the evaluation designs developed. Counties may contract with public or private agencies and utilize funds allocated under this part for purposes of conducting such evaluations.

11828 Each county shall assure the evaluation of all state-funded programs to determine whether they have achieved their objectives

11829. The department shall disseminate information about such evaluation projects to all counties and interested persons throughout the state in order to advance the knowledge of the field about such evaluation methodologies.

CHAPTER 7. QUALITY ASSURANCE STANDARDS

11830. The department, in consultation with the state advisory board, county alcohol program administrators, and other interested organizations and individuals, shall develop standards for direct and indirect services funded under this part Such standards shall be advisory unless imposed as requirements pursuant to regulation, and shall describe a minimal level of service quality and recognize and encourage elements of service quality that exceed such minimal levels.

11831. The department may certify programs, regardless of their source of funding, by applying such standards to these programs and assisting such programs to meet such standards. The department may contract with a private agency or encourage development of a private agency to assist in the certification of programs, regardless of how funded, specifically designed for problem drinkers and their families

11832. The department shall have the sole authority in state government to determine the qualifications, including the appropriate skills, education, training, and experience of personnel working within alcohol programs funded under this part.

11833. The department shall encourage the development of educational courses that provide core knowledge concerning alcohol problems and programs to personnel working within alcohol programs.

Chapter 8. Regulations

Article 1. Purposes

11835 The purposes of any regulations adopted by the department shall be to implement, interpret, or make specific the provisions of this part and shall not exceed the authority granted to the department pursuant to this part. To the extent possible, such regulations shall be written in clear and concise language and adopted only when necessary to further the purposes of this part.

Article 2 Process

11836. Except as provided for in this section, the department shall have the power to adopt regulations in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act necessary for the proper execution of the powers and duties granted to and imposed upon the department by this part However, such regulations may be adopted only upon the following conditions·

(a) The department shall present to the State Advisory Board at a meeting of the board the justification for considering regulations prior to the drafting and adoption of such specified regulations Subsequent to such presentation to and discussion with the board, the department shall decide whether to proceed with the drafting and adoption of such regulations

(b) Prior to adoption of regulations, the department shall consult with county alcohol program administrators and may consult with any other appropriate persons relating to such proposed regulations.

(c) If an absolute majority of the designated county alcohol program administrators, who represent counties which have submitted county alcohol plans, vote at a public meeting called by the department, for which 45 days' advance notice shall be given by the department, to reject such proposed regulations, the department shall refer the matter for a decision to a committee composed of five persons, consisting of a representative of the State Advisory Board, a representative of the alcohol administrators, the director, the secretary, and one designee of the secretary Such decision shall be made by a majority vote of such committee at a public meeting convened by the department. Upon a majority vote of such committee recommending adoption of such proposed regulations, the department may then adopt them. Upon a majority vote recommending that the department not adopt such proposed regulations, the department shall then consult again with the county administrators and advisory board and resubmit the proposed regulations to the administrators for a vote pursuant to this subdivision.

(d) In the voting process described in subdivision (c), no proxies shall be allowed nor may anyone other than the designated county alcohol program administrator, representative of the state advisory board, director, secretary, and secretary's designee vote at such meetings.

CHAPTER 9. SERVICES TO PERSONS CONVICTED FOR DRIVING WHILE UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF ALCOHOL

11837. (a) As an alternative to the provisions of law relating to suspension of a person's privilege to operate a motor vehicle upon conviction for driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or under the combined influence of intoxicating liquor and any drug, as set forth in Section 13201 5 and subdivisions (a), (c), and (e) of Section 13352 of the Vehicle Code, a court may refrain from suspending such privilege and the Department of Motor Vehicles may not suspend or revoke such privilege because of such a conviction if the person convicted of that offense has consented to participate, for at least one year and in a manner satisfactory to the court, in a program designed to offer alcohol services to problem drinkers that is approved pursuant to this chapter.

(b) In determining whether to refer such a person to an approved program, the court may consider any relevant information about the person made available pursuant to a presentence investigation, which is permitted but not required under Section 23102.3 of the Vehicle Code, or other screening procedure No such information may be furnished, however, by any person who also provides services in a privately operated, approved program or who has any direct interest in a privately operated, approved program. In addition, the court shall obtain from the Department of Motor Vehicles a copy of the person's driving record to determine whether the person is eligible to participate in an approved program pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

(c) The court may, subject to the provisions of Section 11838 2, refer a person to an approved program, even though the person's privilege to operate a motor vehicle is suspended or revoked.

(d) As used in this chapter, "program" means all the elements of the program described in the amendment to the county alcohol program plan submitted pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 11837.6.

11837.1 (a) In utilizing any such program, the court shall require periodic reports concerning the performance of each person referred to and participating in a program and the immediate report of any failure of any such person to comply with the program's rules and regulations If, at any time after referral to or while participating in a program, a participant fails to comply with the rules and regulations of the program, the court, upon finding such fact, shall immediately suspend, or order suspension or revocation of, the privilege of such person to operate a motor vehicle for the period prescribed by law

(b) If, at any time after referral to or while participating in a program, a participant refuses, for any reason, to consent to a chemical test that he or she is required to submit to pursuant to Section 13353 of the Vehicle Code, his or her participation in the program shall be terminated and the Department of Motor Vehicles shall immediately suspend or revoke his or her privilege to operate a motor vehicle for the period prescribed in Section 13352 of the Vehicle Code, according to the offense for which he or she was convicted immediately prior to referral to the program. Such period of suspension or revocation shall be in addition to the period of suspension imposed by the Department of Motor Vehicles pursuant to Section 13353 of the Vehicle Code.

(c) In the event the department withdraws approval of a program, the Department of Motor Vehicles shall suspend or revoke, for the period prescribed by law, the privilege to operate a motor vehicle of every person previously participating in the program who does not commence participation, in a manner satisfactory to the court, in an approved program within 21 days after the date approval was withdrawn from the previous program.

(d) In addition to any other condition of probation, the court shall have the discretion to determine whether any person desiring to participate in a program shall be required to furnish proof of ability to respond in damages, as defined in Section 16430 of the Vehicle Code, as a condition to participation in the program.

11837 2 (a) The court may, subject to the provisions of Section 11838.2, refer persons only to approved programs. Subject to such provisions, a person is eligible to participate in such a program if it is operating in (1) the county where such person is convicted, or (2) the county where such person resides, or (3) a county that has an agreement with such person's county of residence pursuant to Section 11851, or (4) a county to which a person may request transfer pursuant to subdivision (d). If such person cannot be referred to an approved program pursuant to this section, the provisions of Section 13352 of the Vehicle Code shall apply.

(b) Subject to the provisions of Section 11838.2, if a person has consented to participate in an approved program and the county where such person is convicted is the same county in which such person resides, the court may order such person to participate in an approved program within such county or, if such county does not have an approved program, the court may order such person to participate in such program within another county, pursuant to the provisions of Section 11838.

(c) Subject to the provisions of Section 11838.2, if a person has consented to participate in an approved program in the county in which such person resides or in a county in which such person's county of residence has an agreement pursuant to Section 11837, and the county where such person is convicted is not the county where such person resides, and if the court grants such person summary probation, the court may order the person to participate in an approved program in such county. In lieu of summary probation, the court may utilize the probation officer to implement the orders of the court. If the county in which such person resides does not have an approved program or an agreement with another county pursuant to Section 11838 and such person consents, the court may order such person to participate in an approved program within the county where such person is convicted, or a county in which such county has an agreement pursuant to Section 11838.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (e), subsequent to a person's commencement of participation in a program, such person may request transfer to another approved program (1) in the same county in which such person has commenced participation in such program, upon approval of such county's alcohol program administrator, or (2) in a county other than the county in which such person has commenced participation in such program, upon approval of the alcohol program administrator of the county in which such person is participating and the county in which such person is requesting transfer

(e) Subdivision (d) shall not be applicable if (1) the court has ordered the person to participate in a specific approved program, unless such court orders the transfer or, (2) the person is under formal probation, unless the probation officer consents to the transfer The department shall establish reporting forms and procedures to ensure that the court receives notice of any program transfer pursuant to this subdivision or subdivision (d).

(f) Jurisdiction of all postconviction matters arising pursuant to this section may be retained by the court of conviction

(g) Upon receiving notice from the court of conviction that a person has not commenced participation in an approved program within 21 days after the date of sentencing, excluding any days of imprisonment served for such offense, the Department of Motor Vehicles shall suspend or revoke such person's privilege to operate a motor vehicle for the period prescribed by law

(h) The department, in cooperation with the Department of Motor Vehicles and alcohol program administrators, shall establish procedures to ensure the effective implementation of this section

11837.3. No person may be admitted or readmitted into a program pursuant to this chapter until four years after such person ceases his or her prior participation in such a program The four-year period shall commence either on the date the court orders the suspension or revocation of such person's privilege to operate a motor vehicle pursuant to Section 11837 1 or on the date such person successfully completes the program, whichever is later With respect to any person convicted for the offense of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or under the combined influence of intoxicating liquor and any drug subsequent to the commencement of a four-year period, such person's eligibility to participate in the program again shall be determined on the basis of the date on which such person is alleged to have committed that offense.

11837 4 (a) The department shall have sole authority to approve programs pursuant to this chapter No program, regardless of how it is funded, may be approved unless it meets the standards established by the department, which shall include, but need not be limited to, the following:

(1) Each program shall provide for close and regular supervision of the person, including face-to-face interviews at least once every other calendar week, regarding the person's progress in the program. Such interviews shall be conducted individually with each person being supervised and shall occur at times other than when such person is participating in any group or other activities of the program. No program activity in which such person is participating shall be interrupted in order to conduct such individual interviews.

(2) The department shall approve all fee schedules for such programs and shall require that each program make provision for persons who cannot afford such fees in order to enable such persons to participate. The department shall ensure that such fees are set at amounts which will enable programs to provide adequately for the services required pursuant to this chapter. Such fees shall be used only for the purposes set forth in this chapter, except that any profit or surplus, that does not exceed the maximum level established by the department, may be utilized for any purposes allowable under any other provisions of law. In its standards, the department shall define, for the purposes of this paragraph, the terms profits and surplus. The department may not approve any program if the department finds that any element of the administration of the program does not assure the fiscal integrity of the program.

(3) Each program shall include a variety of alcohol services for problem drinkers and alcoholics or shall have the capability of referring such persons to, and regularly and closely supervising such persons while in, appropriate alcohol services for their problem drinking. In addition to the requirements of paragraph (1) of this subdivision, the department shall prescribe in its standards what other services the program shall provide its participants, which services may include lectures, classes, group discussions, individual counseling in addition to the interviews required by paragraph (1), or any combination thereof. However, any class or group discussion, other than lectures, shall not exceed 15 persons at any one meeting.

(4) In order to assure program effectiveness, the department shall require, whenever appropriate, that the program provides services to ethnic minorities, women, youth, or any other group that has particular needs relating to the program.

(5) The goal of each program shall be to assist persons participating in the program to recognize their problem drinking and to assist them to recover.

(b) Each program may be an extension of an existing program or a new program No such program may be approved, however, unless the county complies with the requirements of subdivision (b) of Section 11812

(c) A county or program may not prescribe additional program requirements unless such requirements are specifically approved by the department.

(d) The department may approve a program on a provisional basis.

11837.5. (a) No person may participate in any program that has not been approved by the department pursuant to the regulations adopted pursuant to this part.

(b) The department may charge a reasonable fee for approval or reapproval of a program. The fee shall be set at a level sufficient to cover all administrative costs of the program incurred by the department and the Department of Motor Vehicles. All such fees received by the department shall be deposited in the General Fund for reimbursing the department and the Department of Motor Vehicles their costs incurred in approving or reapproving programs and their administrative costs, when appropriated for that purpose by the Legislature.

11837.6. (a) The Legislature recognizes that were the department to be charged with monitoring closely the programs established pursuant to this article, it would require significantly increased staff. The Legislature also recognizes that such monitoring by state agencies often is ineffective and misleads the Legislature and public into believing that the state can and has adequately fulfilled such responsibilities. The Legislature also recognizes that the governing body and responsible county staff are much closer to, and more informed about, the daily activities of the programs approved pursuant to this chapter and about the impact that failure of such programs might have for the citizens of their county. Therefore, the Legislature places the major responsibility for assuring programmatic and fiscal integrity of each program with the governing body of each county utilizing a program pursuant to this chapter.

(b) The board of supervisors shall delegate to the alcohol program administrator, pursuant to the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 11800) of Chapter 4, the responsibility to assure compliance with the standards of the department by any program designated by the county for operation therein and approved by the department. In any county in which such an administrator has not been appointed, the head of the health-related agency or department designated pursuant to Section 11800 shall assume the duties of the alcohol program administrator and administer the program pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

(c) The alcohol program administrator shall submit to the board of supervisors a description of each plan as part of the county alcohol program

(d) In addition to the provisions of Section 11807, no person may serve as a member of the advisory board who is an employee, director, or member of any advisory body, or holds any similar position or title on a compensated or noncompensated basis in any program which seeks or possesses approval pursuant to this chapter.

11837.7 (a) The alcohol program administrator, or the advisory board acting through the alcohol program administrator, shall inform the board of supervisors immediately if it is determined that any program is not meeting the regulations adopted by the department The board of supervisors shall immediately notify the department, which, if it finds that such program does not meet such standards or cannot meet such standards within 30 days of notice by the department, shall withdraw approval of the program.

The department may contract with a private agency for the purpose of conducting such program approvals or reapprovals

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a) of Section 11837 6, the department may audit, or contract for the auditing of, any approved program.

11837 8 (a) The department shall authorize each alcohol program administrator to retain, in an amount not in excess of that specified by the department, a portion of the fees charged for participation in the program that is sufficient to reimburse the county for the costs and expenses which the administrator reasonably incurs in discharging his or her duties pursuant to this chapter

(b) A county may not use for any purpose set forth in this chapter any funds allocated to it by the department pursuant to Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 11840). The board of supervisors may authorize the use of any other funds for any such purpose.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), a county with a population of 20,000 or less may utilize funds allocated by the department to establish and administer a program if the department finds that such county cannot establish a self-supporting program at reasonable cost or is unable to establish jointly a program with another county If such an exception is granted, reasonable effort shall be made by the county to observe the intent of subdivison (b) that programs be self-supporting

11837.9 As an element of the program, the probation department may provide any of the face-to-face interviews required pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 11837 4 and may supplement any of the other services required to be provided by a program The participation of the probation department shall be described in the amendment to the county alcohol program plan

11838 (a) The Legislature encourages all counties to utilize the procedure described in this chapter, but recognizes that it is not feasible for every county to establish its own programs. Accordingly, two or more counties may jointly establish programs pursuant to Section 11796 of this code or Article 1 (commencing with Section 6500) of Chapter 5 of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code or may furnish by contract such program services to residents of another county pursuant to Section 11796 of this code. The board of supervisors of the county in which the program is located shall be responsible for assuring the integrity of the program as required pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 11837.6.

(b) For the purpose of determining a person's eligibility to participate in an approved program where such person's county of residence establishes a program with another county or contracts for services pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section, the following eligibility requirements shall apply.

(2) Where a county contracts for program services from another county, only those residents alleged to have committed the offense of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or under the combined influence of intoxicating liquor and any drug on or after the date their county of residence executes a contract pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section to provide program services to their residents shall be eligible to participate in such approved program pursuant to Section 11837.2.

Counties which contract for services pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section shall notify the department not later than 14 days following such action.

11838.1. The department, in cooperation with the Department of Motor Vehicles, shall establish uniform statewide reporting procedures and forms for the submission of any appropriate documents or information from boards of supervisors, alcohol program administrators, administrators of programs, and program participants to assure effective implementation of this chapter.

11838.2. The Legislature finds and declares that, in order to provide for orderly and effective implementation of this chapter, to prevent the courts and programs in each county from being overburdened at the commencement of the implementation of this chapter, and to protect the public health and safety, this chapter shall apply only on a prospective basis Therefore, this chapter shall apply only to persons who are alleged to have committed the offense of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or under the combined influence of intoxicating liquor and any drug, and who committed such an offense, if at all, on or after the date when a program to which such persons may be referred by the court has been approved by the department. Such persons who qualify for participation in the program may be referred to such a program, within the discretion of the court of jurisdiction, only subsequent to conviction for that offense.

The Legislature finds and declares that the provisions of this section are declaratory of existing law, as enacted by Chapter 890,

Statutes of 1977 The Legislature further finds and declares that the provisions of this section are not intended to alter the application of Chapter 890, Statutes of 1977; rather, the provisions of this section are intended to clarify the original intent of the Legislature in enacting such chapter

[Approved by Governor September 14, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows

SECTION 1 Section 9230 of the Corporations Code, as added by Chapter 567 of the Statutes of 1978, is amended to read

9230 (a) Upon reasonable grounds to believe that the following condition or conditions have occurred or do exist, the Attorney General may, at reasonable times, examine a corporation to determine whether

(1) The corporation fails to qualify as a religious corporation under this part, or

(2) There is or has been any fraudulent activity in connection with the corporation's property, or

(3) Any corporate property is or has been improperly diverted for the personal benefit of any person; or

(4) Property solicited and received from the general public, based on a representation that it would be used for a limited purpose other than general support of the corporation's religious activities, has been improperly used in a manner inconsistent with the stated purpose for which the property was solicited; or

(5) There has been a substantial diversion of corporate assets from stated corporate purposes

(b) Such examination shall respect privileges enumerated in Division 8 (commencing with Section 900) of the Evidence Code and shall protect the confidential nature of membership lists by using such lists only in connection with the examination and any subsequent court proceeding. In addition, such examination shall not unnecessarily interfere with normal operations and religious observances of the corporation

(c) The Attorney General may institute an action in the name of the state to enforce the right of examination set forth in subdivision (a)

(d) For reasonable cause, the Attorney General may institute an action in the name of the state

(1) To establish that the corporation fails to qualify as a religious corporation under this part, and if a court so finds it shall enter an order that the corporation shall no longer operate as a religious corporation under this part

(2) To correct any wrongful activity which has taken place in connection with or as a result of any condition or conditions set forth in paragraph (2), (3), (4) or (5) of subdivision (a)

SEC 1.5 Article 4 (commencing with Section 9240) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 4 of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, to read

Article 4. Standards of Conduct

9240. (a) Any duties and liabilities set forth in this article shall apply without regard to whether a director is compensated by the corporation.

(b) Article 2 (commencing with Section 2228) of Chapter 1, and Article 2 (commencing with Section 2258) of Chapter 2 of Title 8 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code shall not apply to the directors of any corporation.

(c) A director, in making a good faith determination, may consider what the director believes to be.

(1) The religious purposes of the corporation; and

(2) Applicable religious tenets, canons, laws, policies, and authority.

9241. (a) A director shall perform the duties of a director, including duties as a member of any committee of the board upon which the director may serve, in good faith, in a manner such director believes to be in the best interests of the corporation and with such care, including reasonable inquiry, as is appropriate under the circumstances.

(b) In performing the duties of a director, a director shall be entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, in each case prepared or presented by:

(1) One or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the director believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;

(2) Counsel, independent accountants, or other persons as to matters which the director believes to be within such person's professional or expert competence;

(3) A committee of the board upon which the director does not serve, as to matters within its designated authority, which committee the director believes to merit confidence; or

(4) Religious authorities and ministers, priests, rabbis, or other persons whose position or duties in the religious organization the director believes justify reliance and confidence and whom the director believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented, so long as, in any such case, the director acts in good faith, after reasonable inquiry when the need therefor is indicated by the circumstances, and without knowledge that would cause such reliance to be unwarranted.

(c) The provisions of this section, and not Section 9243, shall govern any action or omission of a director in regard to the compensation of directors, as directors or officers, or any loan of money or property to or guaranty of the obligation of any director or officer. No obligation, otherwise valid, shall be voidable merely because directors who benefited by a board resolution to pay such compensation or to make such loan or guaranty participated in making such board resolution.

(d) Except as provided in Section 9243, a person who performs the duties of a director in accordance with subdivisions (a) and (b) shall have no liability based upon any alleged failure to discharge his or her obligations as a director, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any actions or omissions which exceed or defeat any purpose to which the corporation, or assets held by it, may be dedicated 9242 (a) Section 9241 governs the duties of directors as to any acts or omissions in connection with the election, selection, or nomination of directors.

(b) This section shall not be construed to limit the provisions of Section 9241.

9243. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), for the purpose of this section, a self-dealing transaction means a transaction to which the corporation is a party and in which one or more of its directors has a material financial interest. Such a director is an "interested director" for the purpose of this section.

(2) A transaction which is part of a public, charitable or religious program of the corporation if it· (i) is approved or authorized by the corporation in good faith and without unjustified favoritism; and (ii) results in a benefit to one or more directors or their families because they are in the class of persons intended to be benefited by the public, charitable or religious program; or

(3) A transaction, of which the interested director or directors have no actual knowledge, and which does not exceed the lesser of 1 percent of the gross receipts of the corporation for the preceding fiscal year or one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000)

(c) Any of the following may bring an action in the superior court for the remedies specified in subdivision (h)

(1) The corporation, or a member asserting the right in the name of the corporation, provided that for the purpose of this paragraph the provisions of Section 5710 shall apply to such action;

(2) A director of the corporation,

(3) An officer of the corporation, or

(4) Any person authorized by the bylaws to bring an action.

(d) In any action brought under subdivision (c) the remedies specified in subdivision (h) shall not be granted if

(1) The Attorney General, or the court in an action in which the Attorney General is an indispensable party, has approved the transaction before or after it was consummated, or

(2) The person asserting the validity of the transaction sustains the burden of proving that

(A) The corporation entered into the transaction for its own benefit or for the benefit of the religious organization,

(B) The transaction was fair and reasonable as to the corporation or was in furtherance of its religious purposes at the time the corporation entered into the transaction;

(C) Prior to consummating the transaction or any part thereof the board authorized or approved the transaction in good faith by a vote of a majority of the directors then in office without counting the vote of the interested director or directors, and with knowledge of the material facts concerning the transaction and the director's interest in the transaction. Except as provided in paragraph (3) of this subdivision, action by a committee of the board shall not satisfy this paragraph; and

(D) Prior to authorizing or approving the transaction the board considered and in good faith determined after reasonable investigation under the circumstances that the transaction was fair and reasonable as to the corporation or that it was in furtherance of its religious purposes, or

(3) The person asserting the validity of the transaction sustains the burden of proving that·

(A) A committee or person authorized by the board approved the transaction in a manner consistent with the standards set forth in paragraph (2) of this subdivision;

(B) It was not reasonably practicable to obtain approval of the board prior to entering into the transaction; and

(C) The board, after determining in good faith that the conditions of subparagraphs (A) and (B) of this paragraph were satisfied, ratified the transaction at its next meeting by a vote of the majority of the directors then in office without counting the vote of the interested director or directors.

(e) Except as provided in subdivision (f), an action under subdivision (c) or Section 9230 shall be commenced within two years after written notice setting forth the material facts of the transaction is filed with the Attorney General in accordance with such regulations, if any, as the Attorney General may adopt or if no such notice is filed, 10 years after the cause of action has accrued.

(f) In any action for breach of an obligation of the corporation owed to an interested director, where the obligation arises from a self-dealing transaction which has not been approved as provided in subdivision (d), the court may, by way of offset only, make any order authorized by subdivision (h), notwithstanding the expiration of the applicable period specified in subdivision (e)

(g) Interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the board which authorizes, approves or ratifies a contract or transaction

(h) If a self-dealing transaction which has not been approved as provided in subdivision (d) has taken place, the interested director or directors shall do such things and pay such damages as in the discretion of the court will provide an equitable and fair remedy to the corporation taking into account any benefit received by the corporation and whether the interested director or directors acted in good faith and with intent to further the best interest of the corporation. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the court may order the director to do any or all of the following:

(1) Account for any profits made from such transaction, and pay them to the corporation;

(2) Pay the corporation the value of the use of any of its property used in such transactions; and

(3) Return or replace any property lost to the corporation as a result of such transaction, together with any income or appreciation lost to the corporation by reason of such transaction, or account for any proceeds of sale of such property, and pay the proceeds to the corporation together with interest at the legal rate.

The court may award prejudgment interest to the extent allowed in Sections 3287 and 3288 of the Civil Code. In addition, the court may, in its discretion, grant exemplary damages for a fraudulent or malicious violation of this section

9244 (a) No contract or other transaction between a corporation and any domestic or foreign corporation, firm or association of which one or more of its directors are directors is either void or voidable because such director or directors are present at the meeting of the board or a committee thereof which authorizes, approves or ratifies the contract or transaction, if:

(1) The material facts as to the transaction and as to such director's other directorship are fully disclosed or known to the board or committee, and the board or committee authorizes, approves or ratifies the contract or transaction in good faith by a vote sufficient without counting the vote of the common director or directors; or

(2) As to contracts or transactions not approved as provided in paragraph (1) of this subdivision, the contract or transaction is just and reasonable as to the corporation, taking into account its religious purposes, or is in furtherance of its religious purposes at the time it is authorized, approved or ratified

(b) This section does not apply to transactions covered by Section 9243.

9245 (a) Subject to the provisions of Section 9241, directors of a corporation who approve any of the following corporate actions shall be jointly and severally liable to the corporation for

(1) The making of any distribution

(2) The distribution of assets after institution of dissolution proceedings of the corporation, without paying or adequately providing for all known liabilities of the corporation, excluding any claims not filed by creditors within the time limit set by the court in a notice given to creditors under Section 9680 and those sections made applicable to this part by Section 9680

(3) The making of any loan or guaranty contrary to Section 9241

(b) Suit may be brought in the name of the corporation to enforce the liability

(1) Under paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) against any or all directors liable by the persons entitled to sue under subdivision (b) of Section 9610;

(2) Under paragraph (2) or (3) of subdivision (a) against any or all directors liable by any one or more creditors of the corporation whose debts or claims arose prior to the time of the corporate action who have not consented to the corporate action, whether or not they have reduced their claims to judgment.

(c) The damages recoverable from a director under this section shall be the amount of the illegal distribution, or the loss suffered by the corporation as a result of the illegal loan or guaranty.

(d) Any director sued under this section may implead all other directors liable and may compel contribution, either in that action or in an independent action against directors not joined in that action

(e) Directors liable under this section shall also be entitled to be subrogated to the rights of the corporation as follows·

(1) With respect to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), against members who received the distribution.

(2) With respect to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), against the members who received the distribution

(3) With respect to paragraph (3) of subdivision (a), against the person who received the loan or guaranty.

Any director sued under this section may file a cross-complaint against the person or persons who are liable to such director as a result of the subrogation provided for in this subdivision or may proceed against them in an independent action 9246. (a) For the purposes of this section, "agent" means any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or other agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of a foreign or domestic corporation which was a predecessor corporation of the corporation or of another enterprise at the request of such precedessor corporation; "proceeding" means any threatened, pending, or completed action or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative; and "expenses" includes without limitation attorneys' fees and any expenses of establishing a right to indemnification under subdivision (d) or paragraph (3) of subdivision (e).

corporation and, in the case of a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct of such person was unlawful. The termination of any proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which the person reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the corporation or that the person had reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was unlawful.

(c) A corporation shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action by or in the right of the corporation, or brought under Section 9243, or brought by the Attorney General pursuant to Section 9230, to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that such person is or was an agent of the corporation, against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action if the person acted in good faith, in a manner in which such person believed to be in the best interests of the corporation and with such care, including reasonable inquiry, as an ordinary prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances. No idemnification shall be made under this subdivision:

(1) In respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation in the performance of such person's duty to the corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which such proceeding is or was pending shall determine upon application that, in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for the expenses which such court shall determine;

(2) Of amounts paid in settling or otherwise disposing of a threatened or pending action, with or without court approval; or

(3) Of expenses incurred in defending a threatened or pending action which is settled or otherwise disposed of without court approval unless it is settled with the approval of the Attorney General

(d) To the extent that an agent of a corporation has been successful on the merits in defense of any proceeding referred to in subdivision (b) or (c) or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, the agent shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by the agent in connection therewith.

(e) Except as provided in subdivision (d), any indemnification under this section shall be made by the corporation only if authorized in the specific case, upon a determination that indemnification of the agent is proper in the circumstances because the agent has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in either subdivision (b) or (c) by

(1) A majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who are not parties to such proceeding;

(2) Approval of the members (Section 5034), with the persons to be indemnified not being entitled to vote thereon; or

(3) The court in which such proceeding is or was pending upon application made by the corporation or the agent or the attorney or other person rendering services in connection with the defense, whether or not such application by the agent, attorney or other person is opposed by the corporation

(f) Expenses incurred in defending any proceeding may be advanced by the corporation prior to the final disposition of such proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the agent to repay such amount unless it shall be determined ultimately that the agent is entitled to be indemnified as authorized in this section

(g) No provision made by a corporation to indemnify its or its susidiary's directors or officers for the defense of any proceeding, whether contained in the articles, bylaws, a resolution of members or directors, an agreement or otherwise, shall be valid unless consistent with this section Nothing contained in this section shall affect any right to indemnification to which persons other than such directors and officers may be entitled by contract or otherwise

(h) No indemnification or advance shall be made under this section, except as provided in subdivision (d) or paragraph (3) of subdivision (e), in any circumstance where it appears that

(1) It would be inconsistent with a provision of the articles, bylaws, a resolution of the members or an agreement in effect at the time of the accrual of the alleged cause of action asserted in the proceeding in which the expenses were incurred or other amounts were paid, which prohibits or otherwise limits indemnification, or

(2) It would be inconsistent with any condition expressly imposed by a court in approving a settlement

(i) A corporation shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any agent of the corporation against any liability asserted against or incurred by the agent in such capacity or arising out of the agent's status as such whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify the agent against such liability under the provisions of this section, provided, however, that a corporation shall have no power to purchase and maintain such insurance to indemnify any agent of the corporation for a violation of Section 9243

(j) This section does not apply to any proceeding against any trustee, investment manager or other fiduciary of an employee benefit plan in such person's capacity as such, even though such person may also be an agent as defined in subdivision (a) of the employer corporation A corporation shall have power to indemnify such trustee, investment manager or other fiduciary to the extent permitted by subdivision (f) of Section 207

SEC 2 Article 5 (commencing with Section 9250) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 4 of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, to read

Article 5. Investments

9250 In investing, reinvesting, purchasing, acquiring, exchanging, selling, and managing a corporation's investments, the board shall meet the standards set forth in Section 9241.

CHAPTER 687

An act to amend Sections 8516 and 8556 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to structural pest control.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State September 16, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8516 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8516. (a) The provisions of this section shall apply only to wood-destroying pests or organisms.

(b) No licensee shall commence work on a contract, or sign, issue or deliver any documents expressing an opinion or statement relating to the absence or presence of wood-destroying pests or organisms until an inspection has been made. The licensee shall retain for three years all field reports from which a verbal or written estimate of or solutions for work are made. A written inspection report conforming to this section and on a form prescribed by the board shall be prepared and delivered to the person requesting the inspection or his designated agent. A copy of each such report shall be filed with the board at the time the report is delivered or not later than five days after the date the inspection is made. The report shall be delivered to the person requesting the inspection, or his designated agent before work is commenced. The following shall be set forth in the report:

1 The date of the inspection and the name of the person making the inspection

2. The name and address of the person or firm ordering the report.

3 The name and address of any person who is a party in interest to whom the board is to send certified copies of inspection reports and completion notices as provided in subdivision (e) of this section.

4. The address or location of the property.

5 A general description of the building or premises inspected.

6. A foundation diagram or sketch of the structure or structures or portions of such structure or structures inspected, indicating thereon the approximate location of any infested or infected areas evident, and the parts of the structure where conditions exist which would ordinarily subject such parts to attack by wood-destroying pests or organisms

7 Information regarding the substructure, foundation walls and footings, porches, patios and steps, air vents, abutments, attic spaces or other parts subject to attack by wood-destroying pests or organisms. Conditions usually deemed likely to lead to infestation or infection, such as earth contacts, excessive cellulose debris, faulty grade levels, excessive moisture conditions and insufficient ventilation are to be reported.

8. Indication or description of any areas normally subject to damage which are inaccessible or for other reason not inspected, with suggestion for further inspection if practicable. If, after the report has been made in compliance with the provisions of this section, authority is given later to open inaccessible areas, a supplementary report on conditions in these areas shall be made.

9. Recommendations for corrective measures.

10 The inspection report shall clearly disclose that if requested by the person ordering the original report, a reinspection of the structure will be performed if an estimate or bid for making repairs was given with the original inspection report, or thereafter.

An estimate shall be given with the original inspection report if the person who ordered the original inspection report so requests, and if the licensee is regularly in the business of performing corrective measures.

If no estimate or bid was given with the original inspection report, or thereafter, then the licensee shall not be required to perform a reinspection.

A reinspection shall be an inspection of those items previously listed on an original report to determine if the recommendations have been completed. Each reinspection shall be reported on an original inspection report form and shall be labeled "Reinspection" in capital letters by rubber stamp or typewritten. Each reinspection shall also identify the original report by date and stamp numbers.

After four months from an original inspection, all inspections shall be original inspections and not reinspections.

Any reinspection shall be performed for not more than the price of the firm's original inspection price and shall be completed within 10 working days after such a reinspection has been ordered.

(c) Such report and any contract entered into shall also state specifically when any guarantee for the work is made, and if so, the specific terms of the guarantee and the period of time for which the guarantee shall be in effect

(d) Control service is defined as the regular reinspection of a property after a report has been made in compliance with the provisions of this section and such corrections as have been agreed upon have been completed. Under a control service agreement a licensee shall refer to the original report and contract in such manner as to identify them clearly, and said report shall be assumed to be a true report of conditions as originally issued, except it may be modified after a control service inspection. A licensee is not required to issue a report as outlined in subsections 1 to 9 inclusive after each control service inspection. If after control service inspection, no modification of the original report is made in writing, then it will be assumed that conditions are as originally reported. A control service contract shall state specifically the particular wood-destroying pests or organisms and the portions of the buildings or structures covered by such contract.

(e) Whenever a report is filed pursuant to subdivision (b) of this section, the board shall forthwith send to any person or firm designated under paragraph 3 of said subdivision a certified copy of all inspection reports and completion notices made on the property and filed with the board during the preceding two years.

(f) All work recommended by a structural pest control licensee, where an estimate or bid for making repairs was given with the original inspection report, or thereafter, shall be recorded on this report or a separate work agreement and shall specify a price for each recommendation. This information shall be provided to the person requesting the inspection, and shall be retained by the licensee with the inspection report copy for two years.

SEC. 2. Section 8556 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read·

8556. (a) Licensed contractors acting in their capacity as such, may remove and replace any structure or portions of a structure damaged by wood-destroying pests or organisms if such work is incidental to other work being performed on the structure involved or if such work has been identified by a structural pest control inspection report.

This exemption does not authorize the performance of any other acts defined in Section 8505

(b) A licensed contractor may contract for the performance of any soil treatment pest control work to eliminate, exterminate, control, or prevent infestations or infections of pests or organisms in the ground beneath or adjacent to any existing building or structure or in or upon any site upon which any building or structure is to be constructed, but the actual performance of any such work must be done by a structural pest control operator

SEC 3. Notwithstanding Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act pursuant to these sections because this act creates a new crime or infraction, eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty for a crime or infraction It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of that code.

CHAPTER 688

An act to amend Section 654 of, and to repeal and add Section 4080 5 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to pharmacy

SEC 2. Section 4080 5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read 4080 5. (a) The board shall not issue any new permit nor shall any existing permit be renewed after January 1, 1985, to conduct a pharmacy to any of the following.

(c) The board may require information necessary for the enforcement of this section

CHAPTER 689

An act to add Sections 27604 and 27605 to the Vehicle Code, relating to law enforcement vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State September 16, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 27604 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

27604. When a motor vehicle, painted, as required by Section 40800, and formerly used in the enforcement of the provisions of Division 10 (commencing with Section 20000) or 11 (commencing with Section 21000), is sold to any person and is used for purposes other than law enforcement, the vehicle shall be painted or partially painted by the seller or agency formerly using such vehicle so that it will no longer resemble a vehicle complying with Section 40800 and any insignia or other marking of the vehicle identifying it as a traffic law enforcement vehicle shall be removed by the seller or agency formerly using such vehicle before it shall be operated on any street or highway, other than to have the vehicle moved to be painted or to a place of storage

The provisions of this section do not apply to former law enforcement vehicles, without insignia, which are painted one solid color, or which are used exclusively for movie or television production and display signs stating "movie car" prominently on the doors.

SEC 2. Section 27605 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

SEC 3 Notwithstanding Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no appropriation made by this act pursuant to these sections because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local agencies and school districts which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes. Paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 2253 2 of that code precludes the State Board of Control from considering claims for costs incurred by the creation of a new crime or infraction or by changes in the penalty for a crime or infraction, but the Department of Finance shall make the report required by Section 2246 of that code on costs mandated by this act

An act to amend Sections 37000 and 37001 of, and to add Sections 37001.3 and 37001.5 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to housing.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State September 16, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows

SECTION 1 Section 37000 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read

37000 The Legislature finds and declares that Article XXXIV of the State Constitution was approved by the voters for the purpose of providing a mechanism for expressing community concern regarding the development, acquisition, or construction of federally subsidized conventional public housing projects Such developments typically were different from and inconsistent with housing developments provided by the private sector Such differences included architecture, design, and locational standards as well as the level of amenities provided. Such developments were occupied entirely by persons of low income, and usually were not subject to ad valorem property taxes.

The Legislature finds and declares that new forms of housing assistance can provide housing for persons of low income in a manner consistent with and supportive of optimum community improvement. Such forms of housing assistance may allow for mixed income occupancy in developments representative of and competitive with similar market rate developments provided by the private sector. Such mixed income developments are frequently comparable to market rate projects in terms of architecture, design, and locational standards as well as the level of amenities provided, and may be subject to ad valorem property taxes.

Recognizing that new forms of housing assistance provide new approaches for housing persons of low income, it is the intent of the Legislature in enacting Sections 37001, 37001.3, and 37001.5 to clarify ambiguities relating to the scope of the applicability of Article XXXIV which now exist. Therefore, and pursuant to Section 2 of Article XXXIV, this part is enacted in order to facilitate the operation of Article XXXIV and is consistent with the provisions of that article.

The terms "state public body" and "persons of low income" as used in this part have the same meaning as in Article XXXIV.

SEC 2 Section 37001 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read

37001 The term "low-rent housing project" as defined in Section 1 of Article XXXIV of the State Constitution, does not apply to any development composed of urban or rural dwellings, apartments, or other living accommodations, which meets any one of the following criteria

(a) (1) The development is privately owned housing, receiving no ad valorem property tax exemption not fully reimbursed to all taxing entities; and (2) not more than 49 percent of the dwellings, apartments, or other living accommodations of such development may be occupied by persons of low income.

(b) The development is privately owned housing, is not exempt from ad valorem taxation by reason of any public ownership, and is not financed with direct long-term financing from a public body.

(c) The development is intended for owner-occupancy, which may include cooperative or condominium ownership, rather than for rental-occupancy.

(d) The development consists of newly constructed, privately owned, one-to-four family dwellings not located on adjoining sites.

(e) The development consists of existing dwelling units leased by the state public body from the private owner of such dwelling units.

(f) The development consists of the rehabilitation, reconstruction, improvement or addition to, or replacement of, dwelling units of a previously existing low-rent housing project.

SEC 3 Section 37001 3 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read

37001 3 The maximum income of "persons of low income," as determined by the state public body, developing, constructing, or acquiring the property, for purposes of Section 1 of Article XXXIV of the State Constitution, shall not exceed the maximum income of lower income households, as defined in Section 50079 5

SEC. 4. Section 37001 5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read·

37001 5 The words "develop, construct, or acquire," as used in Section 1 of Article XXXIV of the State Constitution, shall not be interpreted to apply to activities of a state public body when such body does any of the following.

(a) Provides financing, secured by a deed of trust or other security instrument to a private owner of existing housing, or acquires a development, for which financing previously has been provided, as a temporary measure to protect its security and with an intention to change the ownership so that it will not continue to be the owner of a low-rent housing project.

(b) Acquires or makes improvements to land which is anticipated to be sold, ground leased, or otherwise transferred to a private owner prior to its development as a low-rent housing project, provided (1) the land and improvements thereon are not subject to an exemption from property taxation by reason of public ownership for more than five years following acquisition or improvement by the state public body, or (2) such an exemption from property taxation persists beyond the five-year period and no alternative use is designated for the land or improvements, but any property tax revenues lost by affected taxing agencies on account of the exemption of land or improvements from property taxes by reason of public ownership of the property, or any interest in the property after the five-year period, are fully reimbursed by payments in lieu of taxes following the expiration of the five-year period

(c) Leases existing dwelling units from the private owner of such units, provided the lease or a subtenancy thereunder does not result in a decrease of property tax revenues with respect to the dwelling units leased

(d) Provides assistance to the private owner or occupant of existing housing which enables an occupant to live in decent, safe, and sanitary housing at a rent he or she can afford to pay

(e) Provides assistance to a low-rent housing project and monitors construction or rehabilitation of such project and compliance with conditions of such assistance to the extent of

(1) Carrying out routine governmental functions,

(2) Performing conventional activities of a lender, or

(3) Imposing constitutionally mandated or statutorily authorized conditions accepted by a grantee of assistance

(f) Provides assistance to a development prior to its becoming a low-rent housing project without intending or expecting that the development will become a low-rent housing project, as defined

CHAPTER 693

14136. No city or county shall establish equipment and personnel standards for the furnishing of nonemergency medical transportation services for eligible Medi-Cal beneficiaries which are in conflict with equipment and personnel standards for reimbursement established by the department pursuant to this chapter Nothing in this section shall be construed to otherwise limit the authority of a city or county to license or regulate nonemergency medical transportation services so long as such regulation is not in conflict with standards established by the department.

This section shall not become operative unless or until the department has established equipment and personnel standards which nonemergency medical transportation services must satisfy to qualify for reimbursement.

The provisions of this section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1981, and on that date are repealed.

CHAPTER 694

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1979. Filed with Secretary of State September 18, 1979.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 14145) is added to Chapter 7 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

Article 4 5. Pilot Projects for Personal Care Services

14145. It is the intent of the Legislature to provide personal care services in a manner which is cost effective and minimizes fragmentation. The Legislature recognizes that personal care services can be provided under both the In-Home Supportive Services Program and the Medi-Cal program. It is the intent of the Legislature to examine the feasibility of providing personal care services under the Medi-Cal program in lieu of in-home supportive services and to test the effect on cost and fragmentation of services.

14145.1. Notwithstanding any other provision of the law, the department shall establish pilot projects in four or more counties to provide personal care services as a Medi-Cal benefit. Such pilot projects shall be operated in accordance with federal law The department is authorized to seek federal waivers wherever necessary to conduct the pilot projects. The pilot projects shall test the cost effectiveness of providing personal care services as a Medi-Cal benefit. The pilot projects shall determine the effect, if any, on the fragmentation or coordination of services being provided under the Medi-Cal program and the In-Home Supportive Services Program.

The department shall inform all counties about the pilot projects and the criteria for selecting the participating counties from the counties' indicating an interest in participating in the projects.

14145.2. The department shall be responsible for the development and supervision of the pilot projects. The State Department of Social Services shall participate in and cooperate with the department in the development and supervision of the pilot projects to assure that the in-home supportive services provided pursuant to Article 7 (commencing with Section 12300) of Chapter 3 of this part, and personal care services are effectively integrated and coordinated by the county welfare department

14145.3. As used in this article, "personal care services" include, but are not limited to, assistance with routine bodily functions such

Personal care services may include other services deemed appropriate by the department, if such services will reduce the fragmentation between the provision of in-home supportive and personal care services.

14145.4 Personal care services as part of a treatment plan shall be authorized by a social health team based upon a physician's prescription for such services. The composition of the social health team shall be determined by the department

The department shall test at least two methods of authorization using a social health team One method of authorization to be tested shall make maximum utilization of an existing county system for authorizing in-home supportive services. Another method of authorization to be tested shall make maximum utilization of the Medi-Cal prior authorization system

14145.5 The department shall test at least two methods of providing personal care services under Medi-Cal. These two methods are as follows

(a) Utilization of individual vendors qualified by the department or its designee and reimbursed at rates determined by the department.

(b) Through a negotiated contract with a public or private agency based upon rates and standards established by the department

14145 6. No individual recipient shall receive personal care services, the total monthly cost of which when added to the cost of in-home supportive services exceeds the maximum payment specified in Section 12303.5, unless the recipient is severely impaired as defined in Section 12304, or meets the conditions of Section 14145 7 No severely impaired individual shall receive personal care services, the total monthly cost of which when added to the cost of in-home supportive services exceeds the amount specified in Section 12304

14145 7 The maximum monthly cost of services provided to the recipients in Section 14145.6 may be increased, if in the judgment of the Medi-Cal consultant the recipient qualifies for care in an institutional setting the cost of which exceeds the monthly maximum amount and the recipient cannot remain in an independent living situation unless the monthly maximum amount is increased In such cases, the director shall authorize the increase of the monthly maximum amount provided to the recipient not to exceed the cost of care in an appropriate institution less the amount of income being received by the recipient, including cash assistance.

14145.8. (a) The department shall submit a report to the Legislature as soon as possible but no later than May 1, 1980, which describes the pilot project design, designates the counties to be included in each project, describes the evaluation design including procedures to be utilized in collecting the information specified by subdivision (c), and specifies the amount of the funds to be transferred from the in-home supportive services budget item to the Medi-Cal budget item. If the project design indicates a need for additional service funds, this amount shall also be identified. The department may develop an evaluation design which requires additional funds for evaluation. If such additional funds are requested, the project design should specify what information will be secured by this additional expenditure, the value of such information and the other methods and costs of securing such information.

(b) The Joint Budget Committee of the Legislature shall review and comment on the project design. The pilot projects shall be implemented as soon as feasible but no later than October 1, 1980, if no additional service funds are necessary and if the necessary federal waivers are obtained. The Department of Finance shall transfer the funds from the in-home services budget item to the Medi-Cal budget item. If additional service funds are required, the pilot projects shall be implemented as soon as feasible but no later than October 1, 1980, if the additional service funds and the necessary federal waivers are obtained

(2) A description of the social and health conditions which necessitated the services.

(3) A description of the services provided to each group described in paragraph (1).

(4) The cost of services provided to each group described in paragraph (1)

(5) A comparison of the services, the cost of providing services, and the impact of the services on the recipients receiving personal care services as a Medi-Cal benefit and recipients receiving personal care services as an in-home supportive service

(6) The number of persons receiving services who have been determined by a Medi-Cal consultant to qualify for placement in an intermediate care facility, skilled nursing facility, or acute care hospital, as well as the cost of providing services to this group as contrasted with the cost of care in the appropriate institution

(7) The number of persons receiving services who have been determined by a Medi-Cal consultant to not qualify for placement in an intermediate care facility, skilled nursing facility, or acute care hospital, as well as the cost of providing services to this group.

(8) The fiscal impact on the General Fund and the counties of providing personal care services as a Medi-Cal benefit.

(9) The effect of providing personal care services as a Medi-Cal benefit on the fragmentation or coordination of such services with in-home supportive services.

(10) The social health team's assessment of the availability of relatives to perform personal care services if such services were not available under this article and Article 7 (commencing with Section 12300) of Chapter 3 of this part.

In addition to the above, the final report shall include recommendations to the Governor and the Legislature with respect to the following:

(i) The provision of personal care services on a statewide basis as a Medi-Cal benefit.

(ii) The administration of personal care services, including the recommended method of authorizing and providing personal care services.

(iii) The administration of in-home supportive services, including the definition of such services and recommended method of authorizing such services.

14145.9. This article shall remain in effect only until June 30, 1983, and on such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before June 30, 1983, deletes or extends such date In this regard, it is the intent of the Legislature to evaluate the final report submitted pursuant to Section 14145.8 to determine whether the pilot projects conducted pursuant to this article have sufficient positive impact to warrant continuation.

CHAPTER 707

An act relating to aviation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1979. Filed with Secretary of State September 18, 1979.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. With respect to the sum of fourteen thousand three hundred ninety-three dollars and two cents ($14,393.02) demanded as repayment from the City of Dos Palos to the state as reimbursement to the Aeronautics Fund by reason of the closure and transfer to the United States of Eagle Field Airport, the city shall pay, on or before December 1, 1980, the sum of five thousand three hundred thirty-two dollars and fifty cents ($5,332.50) and on or before January 1, 1985, or whenever an application for an airport development grant to the City of Dos Palos is approved by either the state or federal government, whichever occurs first, to the state the sum of nine thousand sixty dollars and fifty-two cents ($9,060.52) such sum in settlement of all obligations to the state arising out of the closure and transfer to the United States of Eagle Field.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that Section 1 of this act is necessary since special facts and circumstances applicable to the City of Dos Palos and not generally applicable make the accomplishment of this purpose impossible by any general law. Allocations made by the Department of Transportation to the city from the Aeronautics Account in the State Transportation Fund for airport purposes were expended in good faith prior to the closure of the city airport and transfer of the airport property to the federal government. The Legislature further finds and declares that this is the only such expenditure of funds involved, that the purpose of this act is impossible to accomplish by any general law, and that special legislation applicable only to the City of Dos Palos is therefore necessary

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The City of Dos Palos is experiencing serious financial difficulties because of uncertainty as to the application of provisions of law relating to grants of state funds for airport purposes. In order to resolve this uncertainty as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act go into effect immediately.

CHAPTER 708

An act to amend Section 510 of, and to add Sections 510.1, 510.3, 510.5, and 510.7 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to health officers.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1979 Filed with Secretary of State September 18, 1979]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 510 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

510. Whenever the governing body of any city, county, or city and county determines that the expenses of its health officer in the enforcement of any statute, order, quarantine, rule or regulation prescribed by a state officer or department relating to public health, which either requires or authorizes the health officer to perform specified acts, are not met by any fees prescribed by the state, such governing body may adopt an ordinance or a resolution prescribing such fees as will pay the reasonable expenses of such officer incurred in such enforcement, and may authorize a direct assessment for such fees against the real property in cases where the real property is owned by the operator of a business and such property is the subject of the enforcement for which the fee is charged. The schedule of fees prescribed by ordinance or resolution of the governing body shall be applicable in the area in which the health officer enforces any statute, order, quarantine, rule or regulation prescribed by a state health officer or department relating to public health

510.1 On or before August of each year, the officer designated by the governing body to collect fees authorized by Section 510, shall prepare a list of parcels of real property which are subject to such fees On or before the tenth day of August of each year, such officer shall transmit such list to the county auditor and the auditor shall enter the amounts of the respective assessments against the respective parcels of land as they appear on the current assessment roll

SEC 3 Section 510 3 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read·

510 3 The tax collector shall include the amount of the assessment entered on the assessment roll pursuant to Section 510 1 on bills for taxes levied against the respective lots and parcels of land, and such assessment shall be listed separately on the tax bill. Thereafter, the amounts of such assessment shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner as county taxes are collected

If a county collects such assessments on behalf of a city, the county may deduct its reasonable costs incurred for its services in connection with such collection before remittal of the balance to the city treasury

SEC 4 Section 510 5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read

510 5 All laws applicable to the levy, collection, and enforcement of county taxes are applicable to such special assessments made pursuant to this article

SEC 5 Section 510 7 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read

510 7 In lieu of the assessment procedure provided in this article, if the officer charged with the billing and collection of such fees is a county officer, such officer may, with the approval of the governing body, record without fee, in the office of the county recorder of the county in which such real property is located, a certificate specifying the amount, interest, penalty due, and the name and last known address of the person liable therefor If the officer charged with the billing and collection of such fees is a city officer, such officer, with the approval of the governing body may, in lieu of the assessment procedure provided in this article, record with reasonable fee charge, in the office of the county recorder of the county in which such real property is located, a certificate specifying the amount, interest, penalty due, and last known address of the person liable therefor. From the time of recordation of the certificate, the amount required to be paid together with interest and penalty constitutes a lien upon all real property in the county owned or thereafter acquired by the liable person. The lien created by recording this certificate shall have the force, effect, and priority of a judgment lien and shall continue for 10 years from the time of the recording unless released or otherwise discharged prior to such time. Prior to recording the lien with the county recorder, the lienor shall notify the owner of the property by certified mail of the intent to record such certificate.

SEC. 6. Notwithstanding Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act pursuant to these sections because self-financing authority is provided in this act to cover costs that may be incurred by it in carrying on any program or performing any service required to be carried on or performed by it by this act. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code

75061. Any person who becomes a judge on or after January 1, 1980, shall not be eligible to be retired for disability unless the judge is credited with at least two years of judicial service or unless the disability is a result of injury or disease arising out of and in the course of judicial service.

(1) In a corporation in which the articles or bylaws authorize members to cumulate their votes pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 5616, no director may be removed (unless the entire board is removed) when the votes cast against removal, or not consenting in writing to such removal, would be sufficient to elect such director if voted cumulatively at an election at which the same total number of votes were cast (or, if such action is taken by written ballot, all memberships entitled to vote were voted) and the entire number of directors authorized at the time of the director's most recent election were then being elected, and

(2) When by the provisions of the articles or bylaws the members of any class, voting as a class, are entitled to elect one or more directors, any director so elected may be removed only by the applicable vote of the members of that class.

(d) Except as provided in this section and Sections 5221 and 5223, a director may not be removed prior to the expiration of such director's term of office.

(e) Where a director removed under this section or Section 5221 or 5223 was chosen by designation pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 5220, then:

Action for such appointment may be brought by any director or by members holding not less than 33⅓ percent of the voting power.

(b) If a corporation has an uneven number of directors and the members are deadlocked so that they cannot elect successor directors at the time prescribed therefor, the superior court of the proper county may, notwithstanding any provisions of the articles or bylaws, upon petition of members holding 50 percent of the voting power, appoint a provisional director or directors pursuant to this section or order such other equitable relief as the court deems appropriate

Any other proper business may be transacted at a regular meeting.

(c) If a corporation with members fails to hold the regular meeting for a period of 60 days after the date designated therefor or, if no date has been designated, for a period of 15 months after the formation of the corporation, or after its last regular meeting, or if the corporation fails to hold a written ballot for a period of 60 days after the date designated therefor, then the superior court of the proper county may summarily order the meeting to be held or the ballot to be conducted upon the application of a member or the Attorney General, after notice to the corporation giving it an opportunity to be heard.

(d) The votes represented, either in person or by proxy, at a meeting called or by written ballot ordered pursuant to subdivision (c), and entitled to be cast on the business to be transacted shall constitute a quorum, notwithstanding any provision of the articles or bylaws or in this part to the contrary. The court may issue such orders as may be appropriate including, without limitation, orders designating the time and place of the meeting, the record date for determination of members entitled to vote, and the form of notice of the meeting.

(e) Special meetings of members may be called by the board, the chairman of the board, the president, or such other persons, if any, as are specified in the bylaws. In addition, special meetings of members for the purpose of removal of directors and election of their replacements may be called by 5 percent or more of the members.

of Section 5512, such notice shall state the place, date and time of the meeting and (1) in the case of a special meeting, the general nature of the business to be transacted, and no other business may be transacted, or (2) in the case of the regular meeting, those matters which the board, at the time the notice is given, intends to present for action by the members, but, except as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 5512, any proper matter may be presented at the meeting for such action. The notice of any meeting at which directors are to be elected shall include the names of all those who are nominees at the time the notice is given to members.

(b) Notice of a members' meeting or any report shall be given either personally or by mail or other means of written communication, addressed to the member at the address of such member appearing on the books of the corporation or given by the member to the corporation for purpose of notice; or if no such address appears or is given, at the place where the principal office of the corporation is located or by publication at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the principal office is located. An affidavit of giving of any notice or report in accordance with the provisions of this part, executed by the secretary, assistant secretary or any transfer agent, shall be prima facie evidence of the giving of the notice or report.

If any notice or report addressed to a member at the address of such member appearing on the books of the corporation is returned to the corporation by the United States Postal Service marked to indicate that the United States Postal Service is unable to deliver the notice or report to the member at such address, all future notices or reports shall be deemed to have been duly given without further mailing if the same shall be available for the member upon written demand of the member at the principal office of the corporation for a period of one year from the date of the giving of the notice or report to all other members.

(c) Upon request in writing to the chairman of the board, president, vice president or secretary by any person (other than the board) entitled to call a special meeting of members, the officer forthwith shall cause notice to be given to the members entitled to vote that a meeting will be held at a time fixed by the board, not less than 35 nor more than 90 days after the receipt of the request. If the notice is not given within 20 days after receipt of the request, the persons entitled to call the meeting may give the notice or the superior court of the proper county shall summarily order the giving of the notice, after notice to the corporation giving it an opportunity to be heard. The court may issue such orders as may be appropriate, including, without limitation, orders designating the time and place of the meeting, the record date for determination of members entitled to vote and the form of notice.

(d) When a members' meeting is adjourned to another time or place, unless the bylaws otherwise require and except as provided in this subdivision, notice need not be given of the adjourned meeting

if the time and place thereof are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken. At the adjourned meeting the corporation may transact any business which might have been transacted at the original meeting. If the adjournment is for more than 45 days or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each member of record entitled to vote at the meeting.

(e) The transactions of any meeting of members, however called and noticed, and wherever held, are as valid as though had at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice, if a quorum is present either in person or by proxy, and if, either before or after the meeting, each of the persons entitled to vote, not present in person or by proxy, signs a written waiver of notice or a consent to the holding of the meeting or an approval of the minutes thereof. All such waivers, consents and approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting. Attendance of a person at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of and presence at such meeting, except when the person objects, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened and except that attendance at a meeting is not a waiver of any right to object to the consideration of matters required by this part to be included in the notice but not so included, if such objection is expressly made at the meeting. Neither the business to be transacted at nor the purpose of any regular or special meeting of members need be specified in any written waiver of notice, consent to the holding of the meeting or approval of the minutes thereof, unless otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, except as provided in subdivision (f).

(f) Any approval of the members required under Section 5222, 5224, 5812, or 6610, other than unanimous approval by those entitled to vote, shall be valid only if the general nature of the proposal so approved was stated in the notice of meeting or in any written waiver of notice.

(g) A court may find that notice not given in conformity with this section is still valid, if it was given in a fair and reasonable manner.

5512. (a) A majority of the voting power, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of members, but, subject to subdivisions (b) and (c), a bylaw may set a different quorum. Any bylaw amendment to increase the quorum may be adopted only by approval of the members (Section 5034). If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the majority of the voting power represented at the meeting, entitled to vote, and voting on any matter shall be the act of the members, unless the vote of a greater number or voting by classes is required by this part or the articles or bylaws.

(b) Where a bylaw authorizes a corporation to conduct a meeting with a quorum of less than one-third of the voting power, then the only matters that may be voted upon at any regular meeting actually attended, in person or by proxy, by less than one-third of the voting power are matters notice of the general nature of which was given, pursuant to the first sentence of subdivision (a) of Section 5511.

(c) Subject to subdivision (b), the members present at a duly called or held meeting at which a quorum is present may continue to transact business until adjournment notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough members to leave less than a quorum, if any action taken (other than adjournment) is approved by at least a majority of the members required to constitute a quorum.

(d) In the absence of a quorum, any meeting of members may be adjourned from time to time by the vote of a majority of the votes represented either in person or by proxy, but no other business may be transacted, except as provided in subdivision (c).

5513. (a) Subject to subdivision (e), and unless otherwise provided in the articles, any action which may be taken at any regular or special meeting of members may be taken without a meeting if the corporation distributes a written ballot to every member entitled to vote on the matter. Such ballot shall set forth the proposed action, provide an opportunity to specify approval or disapproval of any proposal, and provide a reasonable time within which to return the ballot to the corporation.

(b) Approval by written ballot pursuant to this section shall be valid only when the number of votes cast by ballot within the time period specified equals or exceeds the quorum required to be present at a meeting authorizing the action, and the number of approvals equals or exceeds the number of votes that would be required to approve at a meeting at which the total number of votes cast was the same as the number of votes cast by ballot.

(c) Ballots shall be solicited in a manner consistent with the requirements of subdivision (b) of Section 5511, and Section 5514. All such solicitations shall indicate the number of responses needed to meet the quorum requirement and, with respect to ballots other than for the election of directors, shall state the percentage of approvals necessary to pass the measure submitted. The solicitation must specify the time by which the ballot must be received in order to be counted.

(d) Unless otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, a written ballot may not be revoked.

(e) Directors may be elected by written ballot under this section, where authorized by the articles or bylaws, except that election by written ballot may not be authorized where the directors are elected by cumulative voting pursuant to Section 5616

(b) In any election of directors, any form of proxy or written ballot in which the directors to be voted upon are named therein as candidates and which is marked by a member "withhold" or otherwise marked in a manner indicating that the authority to vote for the election of directors is withheld shall not be voted either for or against the election of a director.

(c) Failure to comply with this section shall not invalidate any corporate action taken, but may be the basis for challenging any proxy at a meeting or written ballot and the superior court may compel compliance therewith at the suit of any member

SEC. 41 2 Section 5515 of the Corporations Code, as added by Chapter 567 of the Statutes of 1978, is amended to read:

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), a petition for an order to show cause why a protective order pursuant to subdivision (d) should not issue shall be filed within 10 business days after the demand by the authorized number under Section 6330 or receipt of a written rejection by the authorized number of an offer made pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 6330, whichever is later. (d) Upon the return day of the order to show cause, the court may issue a protective order staying production of the list demanded until final adjudication of the petition filed pursuant to this section. (e) If the corporation fails to file a petition within the time allowed by subdivision (b) or (c), whichever is applicable, or fails to obtain a protective order under subdivision (d), then the corporation shall comply with the demand, and no further action may be brought by the corporation under this section.

(1) That there is a reasonable probability that the requesting parties will permit use of the membership list for a purpose unrelated to their interests as members; or

(2) That the method offered by the corporation is a reasonable alternative in that it reasonably achieves the proper purpose set forth in the requesting parties' demand and that the corporation intends and is able to effectuate the reasonable alternative

(g) In the final order, the court may, in its discretion, order an alternative mechanism for achieving the proper purposes of the requesting parties, or impose just and proper conditions upon the use of the membership list which reasonably assures compliance with Sections 6330 and 6338

At the hearing, the court shall hear the parties summarily, by affidavit or otherwise, and shall issue a peremptory writ of mandamus unless it appears that the demand was not made by an authorized number (Section 5036), that the demand has been complied with, that the corporation, pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 6330, made an offer which was not rejected in writing within a reasonable time, or that a protective or final order properly issued under subdivision (d), (f) or (g) is then in effect No inquiry may be made in such proceeding into the use for which the authorized number seek the list. The court shall award reasonable costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, to persons granted an order under this subdivision.

(j) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the right of the corporation to obtain damages for any misuse of a membership list obtained under Section 6330, or otherwise, or to obtain injunctive relief necessary to restrain misuse of a member list. A corporation shall be entitled to recover reasonable costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred in successfully bringing any such action

A provisional director shall have all the rights and powers of a director until the deadlock in the board or among members is broken or until such provisional director is removed by order of the court or by approval of a majority of all members (Section 5033). Such person shall be entitled to such compensation as shall be fixed by the court unless otherwise agreed with the corporation.

7231. (a) A director shall perform the duties of a director, including duties as a member of any committee of the board upon which the director may serve, in good faith, in a manner such director believes to be in the best interests of the corporation and with such care, including reasonable inquiry, as an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances

(b) In performing the duties of a director, a director shall be entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, in each case prepared or presented by:

(1) One or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the director believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;

(2) Counsel, independent accountants or other persons as to matters which the director believes to be within such person's professional or expert competence; or

(3) A committee of the board upon which the director does not serve, as to matters within its designated authority, which committee the director believes to merit confidence, so long as, in any such case, the director acts in good faith, after reasonable inquiry when the need therefor is indicated by the circumstances and without knowledge that would cause such reliance to be unwarranted

(c) A person who performs the duties of a director in accordance with subdivisions (a) and (b) shall have no liability based upon any alleged failure to discharge the person's obligations as a director, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any actions or omissions which exceed or defeat a public or charitable purpose to which assets held by a corporation are dedicated.

7233. (a) No contract or other transaction between a corporation and one or more of its directors, or between a corporation and any domestic or foreign corporation, firm or association in which one or more of its directors has a material financial interest, is either void or voidable because such director or directors or such other corporation, business corporation, firm or association are parties or because such director or directors are present at the meeting of the board or a committee thereof which authorizes, approves or ratifies the contract or transaction, if:

(1) The material facts as to the transaction and as to such director's interest are fully disclosed or known to the members and such contract or transaction is approved by the members (Section 5034) in good faith, with any membership owned by any interested director not being entitled to vote thereon;

(2) The material facts as to the transaction and as to such director's interest are fully disclosed or known to the board or committee, and the board or committee authorizes, approves or ratifies the contract or transaction in good faith by a vote sufficient without counting the vote of the interested director or directors and the contract or transaction is just and reasonable as to the corporation at the time it is authorized, approved or ratified; or

(3) As to contracts or transactions not approved as provided in paragraph (1) or (2) of this subdivision, the person asserting the validity of the contract or transaction sustains the burden of proving that the contract or transaction was just and reasonable as to the corporation at the time it was authorized, approved or ratified

A mere common directorship does not constitute a material financial interest within the meaning of this subdivision. A director is not interested within the meaning of this subdivision in a resolution fixing the compensation of another director as a director, officer or employee of the corporation, notwithstanding the fact that the first director is also receiving compensation from the corporation.

(b) No contract or other transaction between a corporation and any corporation, business corporation or association of which one or more of its directors are directors is either void or voidable because such director or directors are present at the meeting of the board or a committee thereof which authorizes, approves or ratifies the contract or transaction, if

(1) The material facts as to the transaction and as to such director's other directorship are fully disclosed or known to the board or committee, and the board or committee authorizes, approves or ratifies the contract or transaction in good faith by a vote sufficient without counting the vote of the common director or directors or the contract or transaction is approved by the members (Section 5034) in good faith; or

(2) As to contracts or transactions not approved as provided in paragraph (1) of this subdivision, the contract or transaction is just and reasonable as to the corporation at the time it is authorized, approved or ratified

If such plan includes officers or directors, it shall be approved by the members (Section 5034) after disclosure of the right under such plan to include officers or directors thereunder. Such loan or guarantee or other assistance may be with or without interest and may be unsecured or secured in such manner as the board shall approve, including, without limitation, a pledge of memberships of the corporation. A corporation may advance money to a director or officer of the corporation or of its parent or any subsidiary for expenses reasonably anticipated to be incurred in the performance of the duties of such director or officer, provided that in the absence of such advance such director or officer would be entitled to be reimbursed for such expenses by such corporation, its parent or any subsidiary.

(c) The provisions of subdivisions (a) and (b) do not apply to credit unions, or to the payment of premiums in whole or in part by a corporation on a life insurance policy on the life of a director or officer so long as repayment to the corporation of the amount paid by it is secured by the proceeds of the policy and its cash surrender value, or to loans permitted under any statute regulating any special class of corporations.

Any procedure which conforms to the requirements of subdivision (c) is fair and reasonable, but a court may also find other procedures to be fair and reasonable when the full circumstances of the suspension, termination, or expulsion are considered.

(c) A procedure is fair and reasonable when:

(1) The provisions of the procedure have been set forth in the articles or bylaws, or copies of such provisions are sent annually to all the members as required by the articles or bylaws;

(2) It provides the giving of 15 days' prior notice of the expulsion, suspension or termination and the reasons therefor; and

(e) Any action challenging an expulsion, suspension or termination of membership, including any claim alleging defective notice, must be commenced within one year after the date of the expulsion, suspension or termination. In the event such an action is successful the court may order any relief, including reinstatement, it finds equitable under the circumstances, but no vote of the members or of the board may be set aside solely because a person was at the time of the vote wrongfully excluded by virtue of the challenged expulsion, suspension or termination, unless the court finds further that the wrongful expulsion, suspension or termination was in bad faith and for the purpose, and with the effect, of wrongfully excluding the member from the vote or from the meeting at which the vote took place, so as to affect the outcome of the vote

(f) This section governs only the procedures for expulsion, suspension or termination and not the substantive grounds therefor. An expulsion, suspension or termination based upon substantive grounds which violate contractual or other rights of the member or are otherwise unlawful is not made valid by compliance with this section.

as an obligation arising out of the ownership of an interest in real property, or otherwise. Article or bylaw provisions authorizing such dues, assessments or fees do not, of themselves, create such liability.

(d) The votes represented, either in person or by proxy, at a meeting called or by written ballot ordered pursuant to subdivision (c) and entitled to be cast on the business to be transacted shall constitute a quorum, notwithstanding any provision of the articles or bylaws or in this part to the contrary. (e) Special meetings of members may be called by the board, the chairman of the board, the president, or such other persons, if any, as are specified in the bylaws. In addition, special meetings of members for any lawful purpose may be called by 5 percent or more of the members

SEC 99. Section 7511 of the Corporations Code, as added by Chapter 567 of the Statutes of 1978, is amended to read·

7511 (a) Whenever members are required or permitted to take any action at a meeting, a written notice of the meeting shall be given not less than 10 nor more than 90 days before the date of the meeting to each member who, on the record date for notice of the meeting, is entitled to vote thereat; provided, however, that if notice is given by mail, and the notice is not mailed by first-class, registered, or certified mail, that notice shall be given not less than 20 days before the meeting Subject to subdivision (f), and subdivision (b) of Section 7512, such notice shall state the place, date and time of the meeting and (1) in the case of a special meeting, the general nature of the business to be transacted, and no other business may be transacted, or (2) in the case of the regular meeting, those matters which the board, at the time the notice is given, intends to present for action by the members, but, except as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 7512, any proper matter may be presented at the meeting for such action. The notice of any meeting at which directors are to be elected shall include the names of all those who are nominees at the time the notice is given to members.

(b) Notice of a members' meeting or any report shall be given either personally or by mail or other means of written communication, addressed to a member at the address of such member appearing on the books of the corporation or given by the member to the corporation for purpose of notice; or if no such address appears or is given, at the place where the principal office of the corporation is located or by publication at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the principal office is located. An affidavit of giving of any notice or report in accordance with the provisions of this part, executed by the secretary, assistant secretary or any transfer agent, shall be prima facie evidence of the giving of the notice or report.

If any notice or report addressed to the member at the address of such member appearing on the books of the corporation is returned to the corporation by the United States Postal Service marked to indicate that the United States Postal Service is unable to deliver the notice or report to the member at such address, all future notices or reports shall be deemed to have been duly given without further mailing if the same shall be available for the member upon written demand of the member at the principal office of the corporation for a period of one year from the date of the giving of the notice or report to all other members.

(c) Upon request in writing to the chairman of the board, president, vice president or secretary by any person (other than the board) entitled to call a special meeting of members, the officer forthwith shall cause notice to be given to the members entitled to vote that a meeting will be held at a time fixed by the board not less than 35 nor more than 90 days after the receipt of the request. If the notice is not given within 20 days after receipt of the request, the persons entitled to call the meeting may give the notice or the superior court of the proper county shall summarily order the giving of the notice, after notice to the corporation giving it an opportunity to be heard. The court may issue such orders as may be appropriate, including, without limitation, orders designating the time and place of the meeting, the record date for determination of members entitled to vote and the form of notice.

(d) When a members' meeting is adjourned to another time or place, unless the bylaws otherwise require and except as provided in this subdivision, notice need not be given of the adjourned meeting if the time and place thereof are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken At the adjourned meeting the corporation may transact any business which might have been transacted at the original meeting. If the adjournment is for more than 45 days or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each member of record entitled to vote at the meeting.

(e) The transactions of any meeting of members however called and noticed, and wherever held, are as valid as though had at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice, if a quorum is present either in person or by proxy, and if, either before or after the meeting, each of the persons entitled to vote, not present in person or by proxy, signs a written waiver of notice or a consent to the holding of the meeting or an approval of the minutes thereof. All such waivers, consents and approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting. Attendance of a person at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of and presence at such meeting, except when the person objects, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened and except that attendance at a meeting is not a waiver of any right to object to the consideration of matters required by this part to be included in the notice but not so included, if such objection is expressly made at the meeting. Neither the business to be transacted at nor the purpose of any regular or special meeting of members need be specified in any written waiver of notice, consent to the holding of the meeting or approval of the minutes thereof, unless otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, except as provided in subdivision (f).

(f) Any approval of the members required under Section 7222, 7224, 7233, 7812 or 8719 other than unanimous approval by those entitled to vote, shall be valid only if the general nature of the proposal so approved was stated in the notice of meeting or in any written waiver of notice.

(g) A court may find that notice not given in conformity with this section is still valid, if it was given in a fair and reasonable manner.

SEC. 100. Section 7512 of the Corporations Code, as added by Chapter 567 of the Statutes of 1978, is amended to read:

7512. (a) A majority of the voting power, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of members, but, subject to subdivisions (b) and (c), a bylaw may set a different quorum. Any bylaw amendment to increase the quorum may be adopted only by approval of the members (Section 5034). In the case of a mutual water company, the bylaws may not set a quorum of less than 20 percent of the voting power. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the majority of the voting power represented at the meeting, entitled to vote, and voting on any matter shall be the act of the members unless the vote of a greater number or voting by classes is required by this part or the articles or bylaws

(b) Where a bylaw authorizes a corporation to conduct a meeting with a quorum of less than one-third of the voting power, then the only matters that may be voted upon at any regular meeting actually attended, in person or by proxy, by less than one-third of the voting power are matters notice of the general nature of which was given, pursuant to the first sentence of subdivision (a) of Section 7511

(c) Subject to subdivision (b), the members present at a duly called or held meeting at which a quorum is present may continue to transact business until adjournment notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough members to leave less than a quorum, if any action taken (other than adjournment) is approved by at least a majority of the members required to constitute a quorum.

(d) In the absence of a quorum, any meeting of members may be adjourned from time to time by the vote of a majority of the votes represented either in person or by proxy, but no other business may be transacted, except as provided in subdivision (c).

SEC. 100.5. Section 7513 of the Corporations Code, as added by Chapter 567 of the Statutes of 1978, is amended to read:

7513. (a) Subject to subdivision (e), and unless otherwise provided in the articles, any action which may be taken at any regular or special meeting of members may be taken without a meeting if the corporation distributes a written ballot to every member entitled to vote on the matter. Such ballot shall set forth the proposed action, provide an opportunity to specify approval or disapproval of any proposal, and provide a reasonable time within which to return the ballot to the corporation

(b) Approval by written ballot pursuant to this section shall be valid only when the number of votes cast by ballot within the time period specified equals or exceeds the quorum required to be present at a meeting authorizing the action, and the number of approvals equals or exceeds the number of votes that would be required to approve at a meeting at which the total number of votes cast was the same as the number of votes cast by ballot.

(c) Ballots shall be solicited in a manner consistent with the requirements of subdivision (b) of Section 7511 and Section 7514 All such solicitations shall indicate the number of responses needed to meet the quorum requirement and, with respect to ballots other than for the election of directors, shall state the percentage of approvals necessary to pass the measure submitted. The solicitation must specify the time by which the ballot must be received in order to be counted

(d) Unless otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, a written ballot may not be revoked.

(e) Directors may be elected by written ballot under this section, where authorized by the articles or bylaws, except that election by written ballot may not be authorized where the directors are elected by cumulative voting pursuant to Section 7615

SEC. 101 Section 7514 of the Corporations Code, as added by Chapter 567 of the Statutes of 1978, is amended to read·

7514 (a) Any form of proxy or written ballot distributed to 10 or more members of a corporation with 100 or more members shall afford an opportunity on the proxy or form of written ballot to specify a choice between approval and disapproval of each matter or group of related matters intended, at the time the written ballot or proxy is distributed, to be acted upon at the meeting for which the proxy is solicited or by such written ballot, and shall provide, subject to reasonable specified conditions, that where the person solicited specifies a choice with respect to any such matter the vote shall be cast in accordance therewith.

(b) In any election of directors, any form of proxy or written ballot in which the directors to be voted upon are named therein as candidates and which is marked by a member "withhold" or otherwise marked in a manner indicating that the authority to vote for the election of directors is withheld shall not be voted either for or against the election of a director.

(c) Failure to comply with this section shall not invalidate any corporate action taken, but may be the basis for challenging any proxy at a meeting or written ballot and the superior court may compel compliance therewith at the suit of any member.

SEC. 101.2. Section 7515 of the Corporations Code, as added by Chapter 567 of the Statutes of 1978, is amended to read:

7515. (a) If for any reason it is impractical or impossible for any corporation to call or conduct a meeting of its members, delegates or directors, or otherwise obtain their consent, in the manner prescribed by its articles or bylaws, or this part, then the superior court of the proper county, upon petition of a director, officer, delegate or member, may order that such a meeting be called or that a written ballot or other form of obtaining the vote of members, delegates or directors be authorized, in such a manner as the court finds fair and equitable under the circumstances.

(b) The court shall, in an order issued pursuant to this section, provide for a method of notice reasonably designed to give actual notice to all parties who would be entitled to notice of a meeting held pursuant to the articles, bylaws and this part, whether or not the method results in actual notice to every such person, or conforms to the notice requirements that would otherwise apply. In a proceeding under this section the court may determine who the members or directors are.

(c) The order issued pursuant to this section may dispense with any requirement relating to the holding of and voting at meetings or obtaining of votes, including any requirement as to quorums or as to the number or percentage of votes needed for approval, that would otherwise be imposed by the articles, bylaws, or this part.

(d) Wherever practical any order issued pursuant to this section shall limit the subject matter of the meetings or other forms of consent authorized to items, including amendments to the articles or bylaws, the resolution of which will or may enable the corporation to continue managing its affairs without further resort to this section, provided, however, that an order under this section may also authorize the obtaining of whatever votes and approvals are necessary for the dissolution, merger, sale of assets or reorganization of the corporation.

(e) Any meeting or other method of obtaining the vote of members, delegates or directors conducted pursuant to an order issued under this section, and which complies with all the provisions of such order, is for all purposes a valid meeting or vote, as the case may be, and shall have the same force and effect as if it complied with every requirement imposed by the articles, bylaws, and this part.

SEC. 101.4 Section 7521 of the Corporations Code, as added by Chapter 567 of the Statutes of 1978, is amended to read:

(d) If after the close of nominations the number of people nominated for the board is not more than the number of directors to be elected, the corporation may without further action declare that those nominated and qualified to be elected have been elected.

If no record date is fixed, members at the close of business on the business day preceding the day on which notice is given or, if notice is waived, at the close of business on the business day preceding the day on which the meeting is held are entitled to notice of a meeting of members. A determination of members entitled to notice of a meeting of members shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting unless the board fixes a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

(b) The bylaws may provide or, in the absence of such provision, the board may fix, in advance, a date as the record date for the purpose of determining the members entitled to vote at a meeting of members. 7613. (a) Every person entitled to vote a membership may authorize another person or persons to act by proxy with respect to such membership except that this right may be limited or withdrawn by the articles or bylaws, subject to subdivision (f). Any proxy purported to be executed in accordance with the provisions of this part shall be presumptively valid.

(b) No proxy shall be valid after the expiration of 11 months from the date thereof unless otherwise provided in the proxy, except that the maximum term of any proxy shall be three years from the date of execution. Every proxy continues in full force and effect until revoked by the person executing it prior to the vote pursuant thereto, except as otherwise provided in this section. Such revocation may be effected by a writing delivered to the corporation stating that the proxy is revoked or by a subsequent proxy executed by the person executing the prior proxy and presented to the meeting, or as to any meeting by attendance at such meeting and voting in person by the person executing the proxy. The dates contained on the forms of proxy presumptively determine the order of execution, regardless of the postmark dates on the envelopes in which they are mailed.

(c) A proxy is not revoked by the death or incapacity of the maker or the termination of a membership as a result thereof unless, before the vote is counted, written notice of such death or incapacity is received by the corporation.

(d) Unless otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, the proxy of a member which states that it is irrevocable is irrevocable for the period specified therein (notwithstanding subdivision (c)) when it is held by any of the following or a nominee of any of the following:

(1) A person who has purchased or who has agreed to purchase the membership;

(2) A creditor or creditors of the corporation or the member who extended or continued credit to the corporation or the member in consideration of the proxy if the proxy states that it was given in consideration of such extension or continuation of credit and the name of the person extending or continuing the credit; or

(3) A person who has contracted to perform services as an employee of the corporation, if the proxy is required by the contract of employment and if the proxy states that it was given in consideration of such contract of employment, the name of the employee and the period of employment contracted for

Notwithstanding the period of irrevocability specified, the proxy becomes revocable when the agreement to purchase is terminated; the debt of the corporation or the member is paid; or the period of employment provided for in the contract of employment has terminated. In addition to the foregoing paragraphs (1) through (3), a proxy of a member may be made irrevocable (notwithstanding subdivision (c)) if it is given to secure the performance of a duty or to protect a title, either legal or equitable, until the happening of events which, by its terms, discharge the obligations secured by it.

(e) A proxy may be revoked, notwithstanding a provision making it irrevocable, by a transferee of a membership without knowledge of the existence of the provision unless the existence of the proxy and its irrevocability appears on the certificate representing the membership

(f) Subdivision (a) notwithstanding.

(1) No amendment of the articles or bylaws repealing, restricting, creating or expanding proxy rights may be adopted without approval by the members (Section 5034); and

(2) No amendment of the articles or bylaws restricting or limiting the use of proxies may affect the validity of a previously issued irrevocable proxy during the term of its irrevocability, so long as it complied with applicable provisions, if any, of the articles or bylaws at the time of its issuance, and is otherwise valid under this section.

(g) Anything to the contrary notwithstanding, any revocable proxy covering matters requiring a vote of the members pursuant to Section 7222, Section 7224; Section 7233; paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) of this section, Section 7812, paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 7911; Section 8012; subdivision (a) of Section 8015; Section 8610; or subdivision (a) of Section 8719 is not valid as to such matters unless it sets forth the general nature of the matter to be voted on.

7615. (a) If the articles or bylaws authorize cumulative voting, but not otherwise, every member entitled to vote at any election of directors may cumulate such member's votes and give one candidate a number of votes equal to the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of votes to which the member is entitled, or distribute the member's votes on the same principle among as many candidates as the member thinks fit An article or bylaw provision authorizing cumulative voting may be repealed or amended only by approval of the members (Section 5034), except that the governing article or bylaw provision may require the vote of a greater proportion of the members, or of the members of any class, for its repeal or candidates unless such candidate's name or candidates' names have been placed in nomination prior to the voting and the member has given notice at the meeting prior to the voting of the member's intention to cumulate votes. If any one member has given such notice, all members may cumulate their votes for candidates in nomination.

(b) No member shall be entitled to cumulate votes for a candidate

(c) In any election of directors, the candidates receiving the highest number of votes are elected, subject to any lawful provision specifying election by classes.

(d) Elections for directors need not be by ballot unless a member demands election by ballot at the meeting and before the voting begins or unless the bylaws so require.

8331 (a) Where the corporation, in good faith, and with a substantial basis, believes that the membership list, demanded under Section 8330 by the authorized number (Section 5036), will be used for a purpose not reasonably related to the interests as members of the person or persons making the demand (hereinafter called the requesting parties) as members or provides a reasonable alternative pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 8330, it may petition the superior court of the proper county for an order setting aside the demand.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), a petition for an order to show cause why a protective order pursuant to subdivision (d) should not issue shall be filed within 10 business days after the demand by the authorized number under Section 8330 or receipt of a written rejection by the authorized number of an offer made pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 8330, whichever is later. The petition shall be accompanied by an application for a hearing on the petition. Upon the filing of the petition, the court shall issue a protective order staying production of the list demanded until the hearing on the order to show cause. The court shall set the hearing on the order to show cause not more than 20 days from the date of the filing of the petition. The order to show cause shall be granted unless the court finds that there is no reasonable probability that the corporation will make the showing required under subdivision (f).

(c) A corporation may file a petition under this section more than 10 business days after the demand or rejection under Section 8330, but only upon a showing the delay was caused by excusable neglect. In no event, however, may any petition under this section be considered if filed more than 30 days after the requesting parties' demand or rejection, whichever is later.

(d) Upon the return day of the order to show cause, the court may issue a protective order staying production of the list demanded until final adjudication of the petition filed pursuant to this section. No protective order shall issue under this subdivision unless the court finds that the rights of the requesting parties can reasonably be preserved and that the corporation is likely to make the showing required by subdivision (f) or the court is likely to issue a protective order pursuant to subdivision (g).

(e) If the corporation fails to file a petition within the time allowed by subdivision (b) or (c), whichever is applicable, or fails to obtain a protective order under subdivision (d), then the corporation shall comply with the demand, and no further action may be brought by the corporation under this section.

(f) The court shall issue the final order setting aside the demand only if the corporation proves:

(1) That there is a reasonable probability that the requesting parties will permit use of the membership list for a purpose unrelated to their interests as members; or

(2) That the method offered by the corporation is a reasonable alternative in that it reasonably achieves the proper purpose set forth in the requesting parties' demand and that the corporation intends and is able to effectuate the reasonable alternative.

(g) In the final order, the court may, in its discretion, order an alternate mechanism for achieving the proper purposes of the requesting parties, or impose just and proper conditions upon the use of the membership list which reasonably assures compliance with Section 8330 and Section 8338

(h) The court shall award reasonable costs and expenses including reasonable attorneys' fees, to requesting parties who successfully oppose any petition or application filed pursuant to this section.

(i) Where the corporation has neither, within the time allowed, complied with a demand by the authorized number (Section 5036) under Section 8330, nor obtained a protective order staying production of the list, or a final order setting aside the demand, which is then in effect, the requesting parties may petition the superior court of the proper county for a writ of mandamus pursuant to Section 1085 of the Code of Civil Procedure compelling the corporation to comply with the demand. At the hearing, the court shall hear the parties summarily, by affidavit or otherwise, and shall issue a peremptory writ of mandamus unless it appears that the demand was not made by an authorized number (Section 5036), that the demand has been complied with, that the corporation, pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 8330, made an offer which was not rejected in writing within a reasonable time, or that a protective or final order properly issued under subdivision (d), (f) or (g) is then in effect. No inquiry may be made in such proceeding into the use for which the authorized number seek the list. The court shall award reasonable costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, to persons granted an order under this subdivision.

(j) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the right of the corporation to obtain damages for any misuse of a membership list obtained under Section 8330, or otherwise, or to obtain injunctive relief necessary to restrain misuse of a member list. A corporation shall be entitled to recover reasonable costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred in successfully bringing any such action.

The members may obtain such an order in a proceeding brought pursuant to Section 8331 upon the filing of a verified complaint in the proper county and after a hearing, notice of which shall be given to such persons and in such manner as the court may direct. Such right shall be in addition to any other legal or equitable remedies to which the member may be entitled.

CHAPTER 5. TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

1480. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Operative date" means January 1, 1981

(b) "Prior law" means the applicable law in effect on December 31, 1980.

1481. Subject to Sections 1484 and 1485, a guardianship or conservatorship in existence under this code on the operative date continues in existence and is governed by this division.

1482. (a) The bonds, security, and other similar obligations in effect immediately prior to the operative date shall continue to apply on and after the operative date the same as if filed, issued, taken, or incurred under this division after the operative date.

(b) If a guardian or conservator or surety is liable under prior law for any act or omission prior to the operative date, the repeals made by this act do not affect such liability. Such liability may be determined and enforced under prior law as fully and to the same extent as if such repeals had not been made.

1483. The changes made in prior law by this division on and after the operative date in the standards for appointment of a guardian shall not affect the validity of any nomination, appointment, or confirmation made under prior law, but any appointment on or after the operative date is governed by this division.

1484. (a) Any order, judgment, or decree made under prior law shall continue in full force and effect in accordance with its terms or until modified or terminated by the court.

(b) Any petition, report, account, or other matter filed or commenced before the operative date shall be continued under this division, so far as applicable, unless in the opinion of the court application of a particular provision of this division would substantially interfere with the effective conduct of the matter or with the rights of the parties or other interested persons, in which case the particular provision of this division does not apply and prior law applies.

1485. (a) A guardianship of an adult, or a guardianship of the person of a married minor, in existence under this code on the operative date shall be deemed to be a conservatorship and is governed by the provisions of law applicable to conservatorships without petition or order, whether or not the letters of guardianship or the title of the proceeding are amended as provided in this chapter.

(b) The validity of transactions and acts of a guardian or conservator shall not be affected by a misdescription of the office, nor shall any judgment, decree, or order of the court be invalidated by any such misdescription.

1487 (a) At or before the time of the court's first periodic review after the operative date under Section 1850, the court shall review the conservatorship to determine whether an order should be made under Section 1873 broadening the legal capacity of the conservatee.

(b) This section does not apply with respect to guardianships described in Section 1485 or to conservatorships where the conservator was appointed under prior law on the ground that the conservatee was a person for whom a guardian could have been appointed.

(c) Noncompliance with this section gives rise to no penalty.

1488. If, prior to the operative date, an adult has in a signed writing nominated a person to serve as guardian if a guardian is in the future appointed for such adult, such nomination shall be deemed to be a nomination of a conservator. This section applies whether or not the signed writing was executed in the same manner as a witnessed will so long as the person signing the writing had at the time the writing was signed sufficient capacity to form an intelligent preference.

1489. If, prior to the operative date, a parent or other person has in a signed writing appointed a person to serve as the guardian of the person or estate or both of a minor, or as the guardian of the property the minor receives from or by designation of the person making the appointment, such appointment shall be deemed to be a nomination of a guardian if the requirements of Section 1500 or 1501 are satisfied and, in such case, shall be given the same effect it would have under Section 1500 or 1501, as the case may be, if made after the operative date. This section applies whether or not the signed writing is a will or deed so long as the person signing the writing had at the time the writing was signed sufficient capacity to form an intelligent preference.

1490. (a) When used in any statute of this state with reference to an adult or to the person of a married minor, "guardian" means the conservator of that adult or the conservator of the person in case of the married minor

(b) Any reference in the statutes of this state to the term "absentee" or "secretary concerned" as defined in former Section 1751.5 of the Probate Code shall be deemed to be a reference to the definitions of those terms in this division

(c) Any reference in the statutes of this state to the definitions of the terms "account in an insured savings and loan association," "shares of an insured credit union," or "single-premium deferred annuity" in former Section 1510 of the Probate Code shall be deemed to be a reference to the definitions of those terms in this division

1491. The Judicial Council may provide by rule for the orderly transition of pending proceedings on the operative date, including but not limited to rules relating to amendment of title of the proceedings and amendment of, or issuance of, letters of guardianship or conservatorship.

1865. If the conservatee has been disqualified from voting pursuant to Section 707.5 or 707.6 of the Elections Code, upon termination of the conservatorship the court shall notify the county clerk of the county of residence of the former conservatee that the former conservatee's right to register to vote is restored.

CHAPTER 4. LEGAL CAPACITY OF CONSERVATEE

Article 1 Capacity to Bind or Obligate Conservatorship Estate

1870. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires, "transaction" includes, but is not limited to, making a contract, sale, transfer, or conveyance, incurring a debt or encumbering property, making a gift, delegating a power, and waiving a right.

1871. Nothing in this article shall be construed to deny a conservatee any of the following:

(a) The right to control an allowance provided under Section 2421.

(b) The right to control wages or salary to the extent provided in Section 2601.

(c) The right to make a will subject to the limitations of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 20) of Division 1.

(d) The right to enter into transactions to the extent reasonable to provide the necessaries of life to the conservatee and the spouse and minor children of the conservatee.

1872. Except as otherwise provided in this article, the appointment of a conservator of the estate is an adjudication that the conservatee lacks the legal capacity to enter into or make any transaction that binds or obligates the conservatorship estate.

1873. (a) In the order appointing the conservator or upon a petition filed under Section 1874, the court may by order authorize the conservatee, subject to Section 1876, to enter into such transactions or types of transactions as may be appropriate in the circumstances of the particular conservatee and conservatorship estate.

(b) In an order made under this section, the court may include such limitations or conditions on the exercise of the authority granted to the conservatee as the court determines to be appropriate including, but not limited to, the following:

(1) A requirement that for specific types of transactions or for all transactions authorized by the order, the conservatee obtain prior approval of the transaction by the court or conservator before exercising the authority granted by the order.

(2) A provision that the conservator has the right to avoid any transaction made by the conservatee pursuant to the authority of the order if the transaction is not one into which a reasonably prudent person might enter.

(c) The court, in its discretion, may provide in the order that, unless extended by subsequent order of the court, the order or specific provisions of the order terminate at a time specified in the order

(b) Notice of the hearing on the petition shall be given for the period and in the manner provided in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1460) of Part 1.

1875. A transaction that affects real property of the conservatorship estate, entered into by a purchaser or encumbrancer in good faith and for a valuable consideration and without knowledge of the establishment of the conservatorship, is not affected by any provision of this article or any order made under this article unless a notice of the establishment of the conservatorship has been recorded prior to the transaction in the county in which the property is located.

1876 The provisions of this article relating to the legal capacity of a conservatee to bind or obligate the conservatorship estate, and the provisions of any order of the court broadening such capacity, do not displace but are supplemented by general principles of law and equity relating to transactions including, but not limited to, capacity to contract, joinder or consent requirements, estoppel, fraud, misrepresentation, duress, coercion, mistake, or other validating or invalidating cause.

Article 2. Capacity to Give Informed Consent for Medical Treatment

1880 If the court determines that there is no form of medical treatment for which the conservatee has the capacity to give an informed consent, the court shall (1) adjudge that the conservatee lacks the capacity to give informed consent for medical treatment and (2) by order give the conservator of the person the powers specified in Section 2355 If an order is made under this section, the letters of conservatorship shall include a statement that the conservator has the powers specified in Section 2355.

1890. An order of the court under Section 1880 may be included in the order of appointment of the conservator if the order was requested in the petition for the appointment of the conservator or may be made subsequently upon a petition made, noticed, and heard by the court in the manner provided in this article

The affidavit or certificate is evidence only of the conservatee's inability to attend the hearing and shall not be considered in determining the issue of the legal capacity of the conservatee Emotional or psychological instability is not good cause for the absence of the conservatee from the hearing unless, by reason of such instability, attendance at the hearing is likely to cause serious and immediate physiological damage to the conservatee.

(c) Where the court investigator has reported to the court that the conservatee has expressly communicated that the conservatee (1) is not willing to attend the hearing and (2) does not wish to contest the petition, and the court makes an order that the conservatee need not attend the hearing

1894 If the petition alleges that the conservatee is not willing to attend the hearing or upon receipt of an affidavit or certificate attesting to the medical inability of the conservatee to attend the hearing, the court investigator shall do all of the following:

(g) Determine whether the appointment of legal counsel would be helpful to the resolution of the matter or is necessary to protect the interests of the conservatee in any case where the conservatee does not plan to retain legal counsel and has not requested the court to appoint legal counsel

(h) Report to the court in writing, at least five days before the hearing, concerning all of the foregoing, including the conservatee's express communications concerning both (1) representation by legal counsel and (2) whether the conservatee is not willing to attend the hearing and does not wish to contest the petition.

1895 (a) The conservatee, the spouse or any relative or friend of the conservatee, the conservator, or any other interested person may appear at the hearing to support or oppose the petition.

(b) Except where the conservatee is absent from the hearing and is not required to attend the hearing under the provisions of Section 1893 and any showing required by Section 1893 has been made, the court shall, prior to granting the petition, inform the conservatee of all of the following

(1) The nature and purpose of the proceeding

(2) The nature and effect on the conservatee's basic rights of the order requested

(3) The conservatee has the right to oppose the petition, to be represented by legal counsel if the conservatee so chooses, and to have legal counsel appointed by the court if unable to retain legal counsel

(b) The ward or conservatee.

(c) The spouse of the ward or conservatee.

(d) A relative or friend of the ward or conservatee.

(e) Any other interested person.

2213. The petition for transfer shall set forth all of the following:

(a) The county to which the proceeding is to be transferred.

(b) The name and address of the ward or conservatee

(c) A brief description of the character, value, and location of the property of the ward or conservatee.

(d) The reasons for the transfer.

(e) The names and addresses, so far as they are known to the petitioner, of the spouse and of the relatives of the ward or conservatee within the second degree.

(f) The name and address of the guardian or conservator if other than the petitioner

2214. Notice of the hearing shall be given for the period and in the manner provided in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1460) of Part 1. In addition, the petitioner shall mail a notice of the time and place of the hearing and a copy of the petition to all persons required to be listed in the petition at least 15 days before the date set for the hearing.

2215. (a) Any of the following persons may appear at the hearing to support or oppose the petition and may file written objections to the petition·

(1) Any person required to be listed in the petition.

(2) Any creditor of the ward or conservatee or of the estate.

(3) Any other interested person

(b) If the court determines that the transfer requested in the petition will be for the best interests of the ward or conservatee, it shall make an order transferring the proceeding to the other county.

2216 (a) Upon the order of transfer, the clerk shall transmit to the clerk of the court to which the proceeding is transferred a certified or exemplified copy of the order, together with all papers in the proceeding on file with the clerk.

(b) The clerk of the court from which the removal is made shall receive no fee therefor but shall be paid out of the estate all expenses incurred by the clerk in the removal. The clerk of the court to which the proceeding is transferred shall be entitled to such fees as are payable on the filing of a like original proceeding.

CHAPTER 3. TEMPORARY GUARDIANS AND CONSERVATORS

2250. (a) On or after the filing of a petition for appointment of a guardian or conservator, any person entitled to petition for appointment of the guardian or conservator may file a petition for appointment of:

(1) A temporary guardian of the person or estate or both.

(2) A temporary conservator of the person or estate or both.

(b) The petition shall state facts which establish good cause for appointment of the temporary guardian or temporary conservator. The court, upon such petition or other showing as it may require, may appoint a temporary guardian of the person or estate or both, or a temporary conservator of the person or estate or both, to serve pending the final determination of the court upon the petition for the appointment of the guardian or conservator.

(c) Unless the court for good cause otherwise orders, not less than five days before the appointment of the temporary guardian or temporary conservator, notice of the proposed appointment shall be personally delivered to the proposed ward if 14 years of age or older or to the proposed conservatee. The appointment of the temporary guardian or temporary conservator may be made with or without notice to other persons as the court may require

(d) One petition may request the appointment of a guardian or conservator and also the appointment of a temporary guardian or conservator or such appointments may be requested in separate petitions.

(e) If the court suspends powers of the guardian or conservator under Section 2334 or 2654 or under any other provision of this division, the court may appoint a temporary guardian or conservator to exercise those powers until the powers are restored to the guardian or conservator or a new guardian or conservator is appointed

2252. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivisions (b) and (c), a temporary guardian or temporary conservator has only the power and authority, and only the duties, of a guardian or conservator that are necessary to provide for the temporary care, maintenance, and support of the ward or conservatee and that are necessary to conserve and protect the property of the ward or conservatee from loss or injury.

(b) Unless the court otherwise orders:

(1) A temporary guardian of the person has the powers and duties specified in Section 2353 (medical treatment).

(2) A temporary conservator of the person has the powers and duties specified in Section 2354 (medical treatment).

(c) The temporary guardian or temporary conservator has such additional powers and duties as may be ordered by the court (1) in the order of appointment or (2) by subsequent order made with or without notice as the court may require.

(d) The terms of any order made under subdivision (b) or (c) shall be included in the letters of temporary guardianship or conservatorship.

(e) A temporary conservator shall not be permitted to sell or relinquish, on the conservatee's behalf, any lease or estate in real or personal property used as or within the conservatee's place of residence without the specific approval of the court. Such approval shall be granted only if the conservatee has been served with notice of the hearing, such notice to be personally delivered to the temporary conservatee unless the court for good cause otherwise orders, and only if the court finds that the conservatee will be unable to return to the residence and exercise dominion over it and that such action is necessary to avert irreparable harm to the conservatee. The temporary conservator shall not be permitted to sell or relinquish on the conservatee's behalf any estate or interest in other real or personal property without specific approval of the court, which may be granted only upon a finding that such action is necessary to avert irreparable harm to the conservatee. A finding of irreparable harm as to real property may be based upon a reasonable showing that the real property is vacant, that it cannot reasonably be rented, and that it is impossible or impractical to obtain fire or liability insurance on the property.

2253. (a) If a temporary conservator of the person proposes to fix the residence of the conservatee at a place other than that where the conservatee resided prior to the commencement of the proceedings, such power shall be requested of the court in writing, unless such change of residence is required of the conservatee by a prior court order. The request shall be filed with the petition for temporary conservatorship or, if a temporary conservatorship has already been established, separately. The request shall specify in particular the place to which the temporary conservator proposes to move the conservatee, and the precise reasons why it is believed that the conservatee will suffer irreparable harm if such change of residence is not permitted, and why no means less restrictive of the conservatee's liberty will suffice to prevent such harm

(b) If the court so directs, the court investigator shall do all of the following.

(1) Interview the conservatee personally.

(2) Inform the conservatee of the nature, purpose, and effect of the request made under subdivision (a), and of the right of the conservatee to oppose the request, attend the hearing, be represented by legal counsel if the conservatee so chooses, and to have legal counsel appointed by the court if unable to obtain legal counsel.

(3) Determine whether the conservatee is unable to attend the hearing because of medical inability and, if able to attend, whether the conservatee is willing to attend the hearing.

(4) Determine whether the conservatee wishes to oppose the request.

(5) Determine whether the conservatee wishes to be represented by legal counsel at the hearing and, if so, whether the conservatee has retained legal counsel and, if not, the name of an attorney the proposed conservatee wishes to retain or whether the conservatee desires the court to appoint legal counsel.

(6) If the conservatee does not plan to retain legal counsel and has not requested the appointment of legal counsel by the court, determine whether the appointment of legal counsel would be helpful to the resolution of the matter or is necessary to protect the interests of the conservatee.

(7) Determine whether the proposed change of place of residence is required to prevent irreparable harm to the conservatee and whether no means less restrictive of the conservatee's liberty will suffice to prevent such harm.

(8) Report to the court in writing, at least two days before the hearing, concerning all of the foregoing, including the conservatee's express communications concerning representation by legal counsel and whether the conservatee is not willing to attend the hearing and does not wish to oppose the request.

(c) Within seven days of the date of filing of a temporary conservator's request to remove the conservatee from his or her previous place of residence, the court shall hold a hearing on the request.

(d) The conservatee shall be present at the hearing except in the following cases:

(1) Where the conservatee is unable to attend the hearing by reason of medical inability. Emotional or psychological instability is not good cause for the absence of the conservatee from the hearing unless, by reason of such instability, attendance at the hearing is likely to cause serious and immediate physiological damage to the conservatee.

(2) Where the court investigator has reported to the court that the conservatee has expressly communicated that the conservatee is not willing to attend the hearing and does not wish to oppose the request, and the court makes an order that the conservatee need not attend the hearing.

(e) If the conservatee is unable to attend the hearing because of medical inability, such inability shall be established (1) by the affidavit or certificate of a licensed medical practitioner or (2) if the conservatee is an adherent of a religion whose tenets and practices call for reliance on prayer alone for healing and is under treatment by an accredited practitioner of that religion, by the affidavit of the practitioner. The affidavit or certificate is evidence only of the conservatee's inability to attend the hearing and shall not be considered in determining the issue of need for the establishment of a conservatorship.

(f) At the hearing, the conservatee has the right to be represented by counsel and the right to confront and cross-examine any witness presented by or on behalf of the temporary conservator and to present evidence on his or her own behalf

(g) The court may approve the request to remove the conservatee from the previous place of residence only if the court finds (1) that change of residence is required to prevent irreparable harm to the conservatee and (2) that no means less restrictive of the conservatee's liberty will suffice to prevent such harm. If an order is made authorizing the temporary conservator to remove the conservatee from the previous place of residence, the order shall specify the specific place wherein the temporary conservator is authorized to place the conservatee. The temporary conservator shall not be authorized to remove the conservatee from the State of California unless it is additionally shown that such removal is required to permit the performance of specified nonpsychiatric medical treatment, consented to by the conservatee, which is essential to the conservatee's physical survival. A temporary conservator who willfully removes a temporary conservatee from the State of California without authorization of the court is guilty of a felony

(h) Subject to subdivision (e) of Section 2252, the court shall also order the temporary conservator to take all reasonable steps to preserve the status quo concerning the conservatee's previous place of residence.

2254. (a) Notwithstanding Section 2253, a temporary conservator may remove a temporary conservatee from the temporary conservatee's place of residence without court authorization if an emergency exists. For the purposes of this section, an emergency exists if the temporary conservatee's place of residence is unfit for habitation or if the temporary conservator determines in good faith based upon medical advice that the case is an emergency case in which removal from the place of residence is required (1) to provide medical treatment needed to alleviate severe pain or (2) to diagnose or treat a medical condition which, if not immediately diagnosed and treated, will lead to serious disability or death.

(b) No later than one judicial day after the emergency removal of the temporary conservatee, the temporary conservator shall file a written request pursuant to Section 2253 for authorization to fix the residence of the temporary conservatee other than the temporary conservatee's previous place of residence.

(c) Nothing in this chapter prevents a temporary conservator from removing a temporary conservatee from the place of residence to a health facility for treatment without court authorization when the temporary conservatee has given informed consent to the removal.

(d) Nothing in this chapter prevents a temporary conservator from removing a temporary conservatee without court authorization from one health facility where the conservatee is receiving medical care to another health facility where the conservatee will receive medical care.

2255. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), an inventory and appraisement of the estate shall be filed by the temporary guardian or temporary conservator of the estate as required by Article 2 (commencing with Section 2610) of Chapter 7.

(b) A temporary guardian or temporary conservator of the estate may inventory the estate in the final account, without the necessity for an appraisal of the estate, if the final account is filed within 90 days after the appointment of the temporary guardian or temporary conservator.

2256. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), the temporary guardian or temporary conservator of the estate shall present his or her account to the court for settlement and allowance within 90 days after the appointment of a guardian or conservator of the estate or within such other time as the court may fix.

(b) If the temporary guardian or temporary conservator of the estate is appointed guardian or conservator of the estate, the guardian or conservator may account for the administration as temporary guardian or temporary conservator in his or her first regular account.

(c) Accounts are subject to Sections 2621 to 2626, inclusive, Sections 2630 to 2633, inclusive, and Sections 2640 to 2642, inclusive.

2257. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), the powers of a temporary guardian or temporary conservator terminate (except for the rendering of the account) at the earliest of the following times:

(1) The time the temporary guardian or conservator acquires notice that a guardian or conservator is appointed and qualified.

(2) Thirty days after the appointment of the temporary guardian or temporary conservator or such earlier time as the court may specify in the order of appointment

(b) With or without notice as the court may require, the court may for good cause order that the time for the termination of the powers of the temporary guardian or temporary conservator be extended pending final determination by the court of the petition for appointment of a guardian or conservator or pending the final decision on appeal therefrom or for other cause The order which extends the time for termination shall fix the time when the powers of the temporary guardian or temporary conservator terminate except for the rendering of the account.

2258. A temporary guardian or temporary conservator is subject to the provisions of this division governing the suspension, removal, resignation, and discharge of a guardian or conservator.

CHAPTER 4. OATH, LETTERS, AND BOND

Article 1. Requirement of Oath and Bond

2300. Before the appointment of a guardian or conservator is effective, the guardian or conservator shall:

(a) Take an oath to perform the duties of the office according to law, which oath shall be attached to or endorsed upon the letters of guardianship or conservatorship.

(b) File the required bond if a bond is required.

Article 2. Letters

2310. The appointment, the taking of the oath, and the filing of the bond, if required, shall thereafter be evidenced by the issuance by the clerk of the court of letters of conservatorship or guardianship, as the case may be.

2311. Except as otherwise required by the order of appointment, the letters shall be in substantially the same form as letters of administration.

2312. Before letters of guardianship or conservatorship may be issued, a copy of the order of the court appointing the guardian or conservator shall be mailed to the ward if 14 years of age or older or to the conservatee.

Article 3. Bonds of Guardians and Conservators

2320. (a) Except as otherwise provided by statute:

(1) Every guardian and conservator shall furnish a bond in the amount fixed by the court, conditioned upon the faithful execution of the duties of the office according to law, to protect the ward or conservatee and all persons interested in the guardianship or conservatorship estate.

(2) Unless the court increases or decreases the amount upon a showing of good cause, the amount of the bond shall be the lowest amount permitted under Section 541 for a bond given under that section by an authorized surety company.

(b) If the sureties on the bond are individual persons, the bond shall be one approved by the court and shall be for twice the amount required for a bond given by an authorized surety company.

2321. In a conservatorship proceeding, where the conservatee, having sufficient capacity to do so, has waived the filing of a bond, the court in its discretion may dispense with the requirement that a bond be filed or may permit the filing of a bond in an amount less than would otherwise be required under Section 2320.

2322. One appointed only as guardian of the person or conservator of the person need not file a bond unless required by the court

2323. (a) The court may dispense with the requirement of a bond if it appears likely that the estate will satisfy the conditions of subdivision (b) of Section 2628 for its duration.

(b) If at any time it appears that the estate does not satisfy the conditions of subdivision (b) of Section 2628, the court may require the filing of a bond

2324. If the person making the nomination has waived the filing of the bond, a guardian nominated under Section 1500 or 1501 need not file a bond unless required by the court.

2325. The surety on the bond of a nonprofit charitable corporation described in Section 2104 shall be an authorized surety company.

2326. (a) If joint guardians or conservators are appointed, the court may order that separate bonds or a joint bond or a combination thereof be furnished.

(b) If a joint bond is furnished, the liability on the bond is joint and several.

2327. If the proceeding involves more than one ward or conservatee, the court may order separate bonds or a single bond or a combination thereof.

2328. (a) In any proceeding to determine the amount of the bond of the guardian or conservator (whether at the time of appointment or subsequently), if the estate includes money, securities, or personal property which has been or will be deposited in a bank in this state or in a trust company authorized to transact a trust business in this state, or money which has been or will be invested in an account in an insured savings and loan association, upon condition that the money, securities, or other property, including any earnings thereon, will not be withdrawn except on authorization of the court, the court, in its discretion, with or without notice, may so order and may do either of the following:

(1) Exclude such money, securities, and other property in determining the amount of the required bond or reduce the amount of the bond to be required in respect to such money, securities, or other property to such an amount as the court determines is reasonable

(2) If a bond has already been furnished or the amount fixed, reduce the amount to such an amount as the court determines is reasonable

(b) The petitioner for letters, or the proposed guardian or conservator in advance of appointment of a guardian or conservator, may do any one or more of the following:

(1) Deliver to a bank in this state or a trust company authorized to transact a trust business in this state, money, securities, or personal property in such person's possession

(2) Deliver to an insured savings and loan association money in such person's possession.

(3) Allow a bank in this state or a trust company authorized to transact a trust business in this state to retain such money, securities, and personal property already in its possession.

(4) Allow an insured savings and loan association to retain any such money already invested with it.

(c) In the cases described in subdivision (b), the petitioner or proposed guardian or conservator shall obtain and file with the court a written receipt including the agreement of the bank, trust company, or insured savings and loan association that the money, securities, or other property, including any earnings thereon, shall not be allowed to be withdrawn except upon authorization of the court.

(d) In receiving and retaining money, securities, or other property under subdivisions (b) and (c), the bank, trust company, or insured savings and loan association shall be protected to the same extent as though it had received the money, securities, or other property from a person to whom letters had been issued.

2329. (a) A guardian or conservator may apply to the court for reduction in the amount of the bond. The application shall be made by filing a petition setting forth the condition of the estate.

(b) Notice of hearing shall be given for the period and in the manner provided in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1460) of Part 1. Upon the hearing, the court may reduce the amount of the bond to such amount as the court in its discretion determines is proper under the circumstances; but, except upon a showing of good cause, the amount of the bond shall not be reduced below the amount determined pursuant to Section 2320.

(c) The guardian or conservator may furnish new sureties who may be the same sureties as on the previous bond and who shall qualify for the reduced amount.

(d) Nothing in this section limits the authority of the court to reduce the amount of the bond with or without notice under Section 2328.

2330. Upon the confirmation of the sale of any real property of an estate, or upon the authorization of any mortgage or deed of trust with respect to real property of an estate by which money is to be raised, the guardian or conservator shall furnish such additional bond as is required by the court in order to make the sum of the bonds furnished by the guardian or conservator equal to the amount determined pursuant to Section 2320, taking into account the proceeds of the sale or mortgage or deed of trust.

2331. (a) A guardian or conservator may, instead of furnishing the required surety bond, file with the clerk of the court a cash bond, or an assigned interest in an account in a bank in this state or in an insured savings and loan association, or deposit with the clerk bearer or endorsed bonds of the United States or of the State of California, in the sum required for a surety bond given by an authorized surety company.

(b) The security furnished under subdivision (a) is subject to increase or decrease as provided with respect to the surety bond, shall be conditioned the same as required of the surety bond, and is returnable to the guardian or conservator on the termination of the service of the guardian or conservator or on later substitution of a surety bond or other adequate security.

2332 Every bond given by a guardian or conservator shall be filed and preserved in the office of the clerk of the court.

2333 (a) In case of a breach of a condition of the bond, an action may be brought against the sureties on the bond for the use and benefit of the ward or conservatee or of any person interested in the estate.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), no action may be maintained against the sureties on the bond unless commenced within three years from the discharge or removal of the guardian or conservator or within three years from the date the order surcharging the guardian or conservator becomes final, whichever is later.

(c) If at the time of the discharge or removal of the guardian or conservator or when the order of surcharge becomes final any person entitled to bring the action is under any legal disability to sue, such person may commence the action within three years after the disability is removed.

2334. (a) The ward or conservatee, or the spouse or any relative or friend of the ward or conservatee, or any interested person may apply to the court for an order that the guardian or conservator be required to furnish further security. The application shall be made by a petition showing that the sureties on the bond furnished by the guardian or conservator have become, or are becoming, insolvent, or that they have removed or are about to remove from the state, or that from any other cause the bond is insufficient.

(b) If it comes to the knowledge of the court that the bond of a guardian or conservator is from any cause insufficient, the court may on its own motion, without any application, make an order requiring the guardian or conservator to furnish further security.

(c) If the court is satisfied from the petition or from its own information that the matter requires investigation, the court shall issue a citation to the guardian or conservator directing the guardian or conservator to appear before the court at a designated time and place to show cause why further security should not be required The citation shall be served on the guardian or conservator personally at least 15 days before the return day. If the guardian or conservator cannot be found after due diligence and inquiry, the citation may be served in such manner as the court may order which is reasonably calculated to give actual notice to the guardian or conservator. On the return of the citation or at such other time as the court may fix, the court shall proceed to hear the matter, and if it satisfactorily appears that the security, from any cause, is insufficient, the court shall make an order requiring the guardian or conservator to give further security, or to file a new bond, within a reasonable time, not less than five days.

(d) If sufficient security or additional security is not given within the time fixed by the court's order, the court shall remove the guardian or conservator and revoke the letters of guardianship or conservatorship.

(e) When a petition is filed requesting an order under this section that a guardian or conservator be required to give further security, or to give a bond where no bond was originally required, and the petition alleges facts showing that the guardian or conservator is failing to use ordinary care and diligence in the management of the estate, the court, by order, may suspend the powers of the guardian or conservator until the matter can be heard and determined.

2335. (a) A guardian or conservator who desires a substitution and discharge of a surety may file a petition with the court for that purpose together with an accounting. The court shall issue a citation to the existing surety directing the surety to appear before the court at a designated time and place to show cause why the surety should not be substituted and discharged The citation shall be served on the surety personally at least 15 days before the return day If the surety cannot be found after due diligence and inquiry, the citation may be served in such manner as the court may order which is reasonably calculated to give actual notice to the surety.

(b) The court shall hear the matter on the return of the citation or at such other time as the court may appoint. If, upon the hearing, the accounting is approved and it appears to the court that the substitute surety is satisfactory and that no injury can result to the estate, the court may order a substitution of surety and discharge the existing surety from liability on the bond for any subsequent act, default, or misconduct of the guardian or conservator 2336. (a) A surety may apply to the court for an order that the surety be discharged from liability on the bond for any subsequent act, default, or misconduct of the guardian or conservator The court shall issue a citation to the guardian or conservator directing the guardian or conservator to appear before the court at a designated time and place and give other security. The citation shall be served on the guardian or conservator personally at least 15 days before the return day. If the guardian or conservator cannot be found after due diligence and inquiry, the citation may be served in such manner as the court may order which is reasonably calculated to give actual notice to the guardian or conservator.

(b) If the guardian or conservator fails to give new sureties to the satisfaction of the court on the return of the citation or within such reasonable time as the court shall allow, unless the surety making the application consents to a longer extension of time, the court shall remove the guardian or conservator and revoke the letters of guardianship or conservatorship

(c) If new sureties are given to the satisfaction of the court, the court shall thereupon make an order that the surety who applied for the order shall not be liable on the bond for any subsequent act, default, or misconduct of the guardian or conservator.

CHAPTER 5. POWERS AND DUTIES OF GUARDIAN OR CONSERVATOR OF THE PERSON

2350. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Conservator" means the conservator of the person.

(b) "Guardian" means the guardian of the person.

2351. (a) Subject to subdivision (b), the guardian or conservator has the care, custody, and control of, and has charge of the education of, the ward or conservatee.

(b) Where the court determines that it is appropriate in the circumstances of the particular conservatee, the court, in its discretion, may limit the powers and duties that the conservator would otherwise have under subdivision (a) by an order stating:

(1) The specific powers that the conservator does not have with respect to the conservatee's person and reserving the powers so specified to the conservatee; or

(2) The specific powers and duties the conservator has with respect to the conservatee's person and reserving to the conservatee all other rights with respect to the conservatee's person that the conservator otherwise would have under subdivision (a).

(c) An order under this section (1) may be included in the order appointing a conservator of the person or (2) may be made, modified, or revoked upon a petition subsequently filed, notice of the hearing on such petition having been given for the period and in the manner provided in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1460) of Part 1.

2352. (a) The guardian or conservator may fix the residence of the ward or conservatee at:

(1) Any place within this state without the permission of the court.

(2) A place not within this state if permission of the court is first obtained.

(b) An order under paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) shall require the guardian or conservator either to return the ward or conservatee to this state, or to cause a guardianship or conservatorship proceeding or its equivalent to be commenced in the place of the new residence, when the ward or conservatee has resided in the place of new residence for a period of four months or such longer or shorter period as is specified in the order.

(c) The guardian or conservator shall promptly mail to the court notice of all changes in the residence of the ward or conservatee.

(d) This section does not apply where the court has made an order under Section 2351 pursuant to which the conservatee retains the right to fix his or her own residence.

2353. (a) Subject to subdivision (b), the guardian has the same right as a parent having legal custody of a child to give consent to medical treatment performed upon the ward and to require the ward to receive medical treatment.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), if the ward is 14 years of age or older, no surgery shall be performed upon the ward without either (1) the consent of both the ward and the guardian or (2) a court order obtained pursuant to Section 2357 specifically authorizing such treatment.

(c) The guardian may consent to surgery to be performed upon the ward, and may require the ward to receive such surgery, in any case where the guardian determines in good faith based upon medical advice that the case is an emergency case in which the ward faces loss of life or serious bodily injury if the surgery is not performed In such a case, the consent of the guardian alone is sufficient and no person is liable because the surgery is performed upon the ward without the ward's consent.

(d) Nothing in this section requires the consent of the guardian for medical or surgical treatment for the ward in any case where the ward alone may consent to such treatment under other provisions of law

2354. (a) If the conservatee has not been adjudicated to lack the capacity to give informed consent for medical treatment, the conservatee may consent to his or her medical treatment. The conservator may also give consent to such medical treatment, but the consent of the conservator is not required if the conservatee has the capacity to give informed consent to the medical treatment, and the consent of the conservator alone is not sufficient under this subdivision if the conservatee objects to the medical treatment.

(b) The conservator may require the conservatee to receive medical treatment, whether or not the conservatee consents to such treatment, if a court order specifically authorizing such medical treatment has been obtained pursuant to Section 2357.

(c) The conservator may consent to medical treatment to be performed upon the conservatee, and may require the conservatee to receive such medical treatment, in any case where the conservator determines in good faith based upon medical advice that the case is an emergency case in which the medical treatment is required because (1) such treatment is required for the alleviation of severe pain or (2) the conservatee has a medical condition which, if not immediately diagnosed and treated, will lead to serious disability or death. In such a case, the consent of the conservator alone is sufficient and no person is liable because the medical treatment is performed upon the conservatee without the conservatee's consent.

2355 (a) If the conservatee has been adjudicated to lack the capacity to give informed consent for medical treatment, the conservator has the exclusive authority to give consent for such medical treatment to be performed on the conservatee as the conservator in good faith based on medical advice determines to be necessary and the conservator may require the conservatee to receive such medical treatment, whether or not the conservatee objects. In any such case, the consent of the conservator alone is sufficient and no person is liable because the medical treatment is performed upon the conservatee without the conservatee's consent.

(b) If prior to the establishment of the conservatorship the conservatee was an adherent of a religion whose tenets and practices call for reliance on prayer alone for healing, the treatment required by the conservator under the provisions of this section shall be by an accredited practitioner of that religion.

2356. (a) No ward or conservatee shall be placed in a mental health treatment facility under the provisions of this division against the will of the ward or conservatee. Involuntary civil mental health treatment for a ward or conservatee shall be obtained only pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 5150) or Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 5350) of Part 1 of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. Nothing in this subdivision precludes the placing of a ward in a state hospital under the provisions of Section 6000 of the Welfare and Institutions Code upon application of the guardian as provided in that section. The Director of Mental Health shall adopt and issue regulations defining "mental health treatment facility" for the purposes of this subdivision.

(b) No experimental drug as defined in Section 26668 of the Health and Safety Code may be prescribed for or administered to a ward or conservatee under the provisions of this division. Such an experimental drug may be prescribed for or administered to a ward or conservatee only as provided in Article 4 (commencing with Section 26668) of Chapter 6 of Division 21 of the Health and Safety Code.

(c) No convulsive treatment as defined in Section 5325 of the Welfare and Institutions Code may be performed on a ward or conservatee under the provisions of this division. (b) If the ward or conservatee requires medical treatment for an existing or continuing medical condition which is not authorized to be performed upon the ward or conservatee under Section 2252, 2353, 2354, or 2355, and the ward or conservatee is unable to give an informed consent to such medical treatment, the guardian or conservator may petition the court under this section for an order authorizing such medical treatment and authorizing the guardian or conservator to consent on behalf of the ward or conservatee to such medical treatment.

(e) The hearing on the petition may be held pursuant to an order of the court prescribing the notice to be given of the hearing. The order shall specify the period of notice of the hearing and the period so fixed shall take into account (1) the existing medical facts and circumstances set forth in the petition or in a medical affidavit attached to the petition or in a medical affidavit presented to the court and (2) the desirability, where the condition of the ward or conservatee permits, of giving adequate notice to all interested persons.

(f) A copy of the notice of hearing or of the order prescribing notice of hearing, and a copy of the petition, shall be personally served or mailed, as prescribed in the order, on all of the following:

(g) Notwithstanding subdivisions (e) and (f), the matter may be submitted for the determination of the court upon proper and sufficient medical affidavits or declarations if the attorney for the petitioner and the attorney for the ward or conservatee so stipulate and further stipulate that there remains no issue of fact to be determined

(h) The court may make an order authorizing the recommended course of medical treatment of the ward or conservatee and authorizing the guardian or conservator to consent on behalf of the ward or conservatee to the recommended course of medical treatment for the ward or conservatee if the court determines from the evidence all of the following:

(2) If untreated, there is a probability that the condition will become life-endangering or result in a serious threat to the physical health of the ward or conservatee.

(3) The ward or conservatee is unable to give an informed consent to the recommended course of treatment.

(i) Upon petition of the ward or conservatee or other interested person, the court may order that the guardian or conservator obtain or consent to, or obtain and consent to, specified medical treatment to be performed upon the ward or conservatee. Notice of the hearing on the petition under this subdivision shall be given for the period and in the manner provided in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1460) of Part 1.

2358. When a guardian or conservator is appointed, the court may, with the consent of the guardian or conservator, insert in the order of appointment conditions not otherwise obligatory providing for the care, treatment, education, and welfare of the ward or conservatee. Any such conditions shall be included in the letters of guardianship or conservatorship. The performance of such conditions is a part of the duties of the guardian or conservator for the faithful performance of which the guardian or conservator and the sureties on the bond are responsible.

2359. (a) Upon petition of the guardian or conservator or ward or conservatee or other interested person, the court may authorize and instruct the guardian or conservator or approve and confirm the acts of the guardian or conservator.

CHAPTER 6. POWERS AND DUTIES OF GUARDIAN OR CONSERVATOR OF THE ESTATE

Article 1. Definitions and General Provisions

2400. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Conservator" means the conservator of the estate.

(b) "Guardian" means the guardian of the estate.

2401. (a) The guardian or conservator has the management and control of the estate and, in managing and controlling the estate, shall use ordinary care and diligence. What constitutes use of ordinary care and diligence is determined by all the circumstances of the particular estate.

(b) The guardian or conservator:

(1) Shall exercise a power to the extent that ordinary care and diligence requires that the power be exercised.

(2) Shall not exercise a power to the extent that ordinary care and diligence requires that the power not be exercised.

2402. When a guardian or conservator is appointed, the court may, with the consent of the guardian or conservator, insert in the order of appointment conditions not otherwise obligatory providing for the care and custody of the property of the ward or conservatee. Any such conditions shall be included in the letters of guardianship or conservatorship. The performance of such conditions is a part of the duties of the guardian or conservator for the faithful performance of which the guardian or conservator and the sureties on the bond are responsible.

2403. (a) Upon petition of the guardian or conservator, the ward or conservatee, a creditor, or other interested person, the court may authorize and instruct the guardian or conservator, or approve and confirm the acts of the guardian or conservator, in the administration, management, investment, disposition, care, protection, operation, or preservation of the estate, or the incurring or payment of costs, fees, or expenses in connection therewith.

(b) Notice of the hearing on the petition shall be given for the period and in the manner provided in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1460) of Part 1.

2404. (a) If the guardian or conservator fails, neglects, or refuses to furnish comfortable and suitable support, maintenance, or education for the ward or conservatee as required by this division, or to pay a debt, expense, or charge lawfully due and payable by the ward or conservatee or the estate as provided in this division, the court shall, upon petition or upon its own motion, order the guardian or conservator to do so from the estate.

(b) The petition may be filed by the ward or conservatee or by the creditor or any other interested person. Notice of the hearing on the petition shall be given for the period and in the manner provided in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1460) of Part 1.

2405. If the guardian or conservator doubts the correctness of any claim against the ward or conservatee or the estate or rejects a claim against the ward or conservatee or the estate, the guardian or conservator may do either of the following.

(a) Enter into an agreement in writing with the claimant to refer the matter in controversy to a commissioner or referee who is regularly attached to the court and designated in the agreement or to a judge pro tempore designated in the agreement. The agreement shall be filed with the clerk, who shall thereupon, with the approval of the court, enter an order referring the matter to the designated person. The commissioner or referee shall have the powers of a judge pro tempore. The designated person shall proceed promptly to hear and determine the matter in controversy by summary procedure, without any pleadings, discovery, or jury trial. The designated person shall make and file a decision in writing in which the facts found and conclusions of law shall be separately stated, and cause a copy thereof to be mailed promptly to the parties. Judgment shall be entered on the decision and shall be as valid and effective as if it had been rendered by a judge of the court in a suit against the guardian or conservator commenced by ordinary process.

(b) Enter into an agreement in writing with the claimant that a judge sitting in probate, pursuant to the agreement and with the written consent of the judge, both filed with the clerk, may hear and determine the matter in controversy pursuant to the procedure provided in subdivision (a).

2406. The guardian or conservator may enter into an agreement in writing with a person having a disputed claim against the ward or conservatee or the estate, or with a person against whom the ward or conservatee or the estate has a disputed claim, to submit the matter in controversy to arbitration under Title 9 (commencing with Section 1280) of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure, but no such agreement is effective unless it has first been approved by the court and a copy of the approved agreement has been filed in the guardianship or conservatorship proceeding.

2407 This chapter applies to property owned by husband and wife as community property, or owned by husband and wife or either of them which is subject to a homestead, only to the extent authorized by Part 6 (commencing with Section 3000).

Article 2. Support and Maintenance of Ward or Conservatee and Dependents

2420. (a) Subject to Section 2422, the guardian or conservator shall apply the income from the estate, so far as necessary, to the comfortable and suitable support, maintenance, and education of the ward or conservatee (including care, treatment, and support of a ward or conservatee who is a patient in a state hospital under the jurisdiction of the State Department of Mental Health or the State Department of Developmental Services) and of those legally entitled to support, maintenance, or education from the ward or conservatee, taking into account the value of the estate and the condition of life of the persons required to be furnished such support, maintenance, or education.

(b) If the income from the estate is insufficient for the purpose described in subdivision (a), the guardian or conservator may sell or give a security interest in or other lien on any personal property of the estate, or sell or mortgage or give a deed of trust on any real property of the estate, as provided in this part.

(c) When the amount paid by the guardian or conservator for the purpose described in subdivision (a) satisfies the standard set out in that subdivision, and the payments are supported by proper vouchers or other proof satisfactory to the court, the guardian or conservator shall be allowed credit for such payments when the accounts of the guardian or conservator are settled

(d) Nothing in this section requires the guardian or conservator to obtain court authorization before making the payments authorized by this section, but nothing in this section dispenses with the need to obtain any court authorization otherwise required for a particular transaction.

(e) Nothing in this section precludes the guardian or conservator from seeking court authorization or instructions or approval and confirmation pursuant to Section 2403

2421 (a) Upon petition of the guardian or conservator or the ward or conservatee, the court may authorize the guardian or conservator to pay to the ward or conservatee out of the estate a reasonable allowance for the personal use of the ward or conservatee. The allowance shall be in such amount as the court may determine to be for the best interests of the ward or conservatee.

(b) Notice of the hearing on the petition shall be given for the period and in the manner provided in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1460) of Part 1.

(c) The guardian or conservator is not required to account for such allowance other than to establish that it has been paid to the ward or conservatee. The funds so paid are subject to the sole control of the ward or conservatee.

2422 (a) Upon petition of the guardian or conservator, the ward or conservatee, or any other interested person, the court may for good cause order the ward or conservatee to be wholly or partially supported, maintained, or educated out of the estate notwithstanding the existence of a third party legally obligated to provide such support, maintenance, or education. Such order may be made for a limited period of time. If not so limited, it continues in effect until modified or revoked.

(b) Notice of the hearing on the petition shall be given for the period and in the manner provided in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1460) of Part 1

2423. (a) On petition of the conservator, the conservatee, the spouse of the conservatee, or a relative within the second degree of the conservatee, the court may by order authorize or direct the conservator to pay and distribute surplus income of the estate or any part of such surplus income (not used for the support, maintenance, and education of the conservatee and of those legally entitled to support, maintenance, or education from the conservatee) to the spouse of the conservatee and to such relatives within the second degree of the conservatee whom the conservatee would, in the judgment of the court, have aided but for the existence of the conservatorship. The court in ordering payments under this section may impose conditions if the court determines that the conservatee would have imposed such conditions if the conservatee had the capacity to act.

(b) The granting of the order and the amounts and proportions of the payments are discretionary with the court, but the court shall consider all of the following:

(1) The amount of surplus income available after adequate provision has been made for the comfortable and proper support, maintenance, and education of the conservatee and of those legally entitled to support, maintenance, or education from the conservatee.

(2) The circumstances and condition of life to which the conservatee and the spouse and such relatives have been accustomed.

(3) The amount which the conservatee would in the judgment of the court have allowed the spouse and such relatives but for the existence of the conservatorship.

(c) Notice of the hearing on the petition shall be given for the period and in the manner provided in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1460) of Part 1.

Article 3. Payment of Debts and Expenses

2430. (a) Subject to subdivisions (b) and (c), the guardian or conservator shall pay the following from any principal and income of the estate:

(2) The debts incurred by the ward or conservatee during the guardianship or conservatorship to provide the necessaries of life to the ward or conservatee, and to the spouse and minor children of the ward or conservatee, to the extent the debt is reasonable. The guardian or conservator may deduct the amount of any payments for such debts from any allowance otherwise payable to the ward or conservatee.

(iii) An attorney for the ward or conservatee.

(iv) An attorney for the estate.

(c) The guardian or conservator may petition the court under Section 2403 for instructions when there is doubt whether a debt should be paid under this section.

2431. (a) Subject to subdivision (d), the guardian or conservator may petition the court under Section 2403 for instructions when there is doubt whether a wage claim should be paid under this section

The payments made pursuant to this subdivision shall not exceed six hundred dollars ($600) to each claimant If there is insufficient money to pay all the claims described in this subdivision up to six hundred dollars ($600), the money available shall be distributed among such claimants in proportion to the amount of their respective claims.

(c) After the payments referred to in subdivision (b) have been made, the guardian or conservator shall pay wage claims for work done or services rendered for the ward or conservatee within 90 days prior to the date the petition for appointment of the guardian or conservator was filed, excluding the claims described in subdivision (b) The payments made pursuant to this subdivision shall not exceed six hundred dollars ($600) to each claimant. If there is insufficient money to pay all the claims described in this subdivision up to six hundred dollars ($600), the money available shall be distributed among such claimants in proportion to the amounts of their respective claims.

(d) The guardian or conservator may require sworn claims to be presented If there is reasonable cause to believe that the claim is not valid, the guardian or conservator may refuse to pay the claim in whole or in part but shall pay any part thereof that is not disputed without prejudice to the claimant's rights as to the balance of the claim. The guardian or conservator shall withhold sufficient money to cover the disputed portion until the claimant has had a reasonable opportunity to establish the validity of the claim by bringing an action, either in the claimant's own name or through an assignee, against the guardian or conservator

(e) If the guardian or conservator neglects or refuses to pay all or any portion of a claim which is not in dispute, the court shall order the guardian or conservator to do so upon the informal application of any wage claimant or the assignee or representative of such claimant

Chapter 7 Inventory and Accounts

Article 1. Definitions and General Provisions

2600. As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Conservator" means the conservator of the estate.

(b) "Guardian" means the guardian of the estate.

2601. (a) Unless otherwise ordered by the court, if the ward or conservatee is at any time during the continuance of the guardianship or conservatorship employed:

(1) The wages or salaries for such employment are not a part of the estate and the guardian or conservator is not accountable for such wages or salaries.

(2) The wages or salaries for such employment shall be paid to the ward or conservatee and are subject to his or her control to the same extent as if the guardianship or conservatorship did not exist.

(b) Any court order referred to in subdivision (a) is binding upon the employer only after notice of the order has been received by the employer.

2602. (a) If the guardian or conservator fails to file an inventory and appraisement or any account within the time allowed by law or by court order, upon request of the ward or conservatee, the spouse or any relative or friend of the ward or conservatee, or any interested person, the court shall order the guardian or conservator to file the inventory and appraisement or to file the account, as the case may be, within such time as the order prescribes or to show cause why the guardian or conservator should not be removed. The person who requested the order shall serve it upon the guardian or conservator in the manner provided in Section 415.10 or 415.30 of the Code of Civil Procedure or in such manner as is ordered by the court.

(b) If the guardian or conservator fails to file the inventory and appraisement or to file the account as required by the order within the time prescribed in the order, unless good cause is shown for not doing so, the court, on its own motion or on petition, may remove the guardian or conservator, revoke the letters of guardianship or conservatorship, and enter judgment accordingly, and order the guardian or conservator to file an accounting and to surrender the estate to the person legally entitled thereto.

(c) The procedure provided in this section is optional and does not preclude the use of any other remedy or sanction when an inventory and appraisement or account is not timely filed.

Article 2. Inventory and Appraisement of Estate

2610. (a) Within 90 days after appointment, or within such further time as the court for reasonable cause upon ex parte petition of the guardian or conservator may allow, the guardian or conservator shall file with the clerk of the court an inventory and appraisement of the estate, made as of the date of the appointment of the guardian or conservator.

(b) The guardian or conservator shall take and subscribe to an oath that the inventory contains a true statement of all of the estate of the ward or conservatee of which the guardian or conservator has possession or knowledge. The oath shall be endorsed upon or annexed to the inventory.

(c) The property described in the inventory shall be appraised in the manner provided for the inventory and appraisement of estates of decedents. The guardian or conservator may appraise the assets which an executor or administrator could appraise under Section 605.

(d) If a conservatorship is initiated pursuant to the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act (Part 1 (commencing with Section 5000) of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code) and no sale of the estate will occur:

(1) The inventory and appraisement required by subdivision (a) shall be filed within 90 days after appointment of the conservator.

(2) The property described in the inventory may be appraised by the conservator and need not be appraised by an inheritance tax referee.

2611. If the ward or conservatee is or has been during the guardianship or conservatorship a patient in a state hospital under the jurisdiction of the State Department of Mental Health or the State Department of Developmental Services, the guardian or conservator shall mail a copy of the inventory and appraisement filed under Section 2610 to the director of the appropriate department at the director's office in Sacramento not later than 15 days after the inventory and appraisement is filed with the court. Compliance with this section is not required if an unrevoked certificate described in subdivision (c) of Section 1461 is on file with the court with respect to the ward or conservatee

2613. Whenever any property of the ward or conservatee is discovered that was not included in the inventory, or whenever any other property is inherited or acquired by the ward or conservatee (other than by the actions of the guardian or conservator in the investment and management of the estate), the guardian or conservator shall file a supplemental inventory and appraisement for the property so discovered, inherited, or acquired, and like proceedings shall be followed with respect thereto as in the case of an original inventory.

2614. (a) Within 30 days after the inventory and appraisement is filed, the guardian or conservator or any creditor or other interested person may file written objections to any or all appraisals. The clerk shall set the objections for hearing not less than 15 days after their filing

(1) The guardian or conservator

(2) The spouse and the relatives of the ward or conservatee within the second degree

(3) The inheritance tax referee.

(c) The court shall determine the objections and may fix the true value of any asset to which objection has been filed. For the purpose of this subdivision, the court may cause an independent appraisal or appraisals to be made by at least one additional appraiser at the expense of the estate or, if the objecting party is not the guardian or conservator and the objection is rejected by the court, the court may assess the cost of any such additional appraisal or appraisals against the objecting party.

2615. If a guardian or conservator fails to file any inventory required by this article within the time prescribed by law or by court order, the guardian or conservator is liable for damages for any injury to the estate, or to any interested person, resulting from the failure timely to file the inventory. Any damages awarded pursuant to this section are a charge upon the bond of the guardian or conservator. If the bond is insufficient, or if there is no bond, the damages are a charge against the personal assets of the guardian or conservator.

2616. (a) A petition may be filed under this section by any one or more of the following:

(1) The guardian or conservator.

(2) The ward or conservatee.

(3) A creditor or other interested person, including persons having only an expectancy or prospective interest in the estate.

(3) A named person asserts a claim against the ward or conservatee or the estate.

(4) The estate asserts a claim against a named person.

(c) Upon the filing of a petition under this section, the court may cite the named person to appear before the court, and the court and the petitioner may examine the named person under oath upon the matters recited in the petition. If the named person is not in the county where letters issued, the examination shall be made under this section but otherwise the procedure and the rights and duties of the parties shall be governed by the provisions of Sections 613, 614, and 615.

Article 3 Accounts

2620. (a) At the expiration of one year from the time of appointment and thereafter not less frequently than biennially, unless otherwise ordered by the court, the guardian or conservator shall present the account of the guardian or conservator to the court for settlement and allowance.

(b) The account shall state the period covered by the account and contain a summary showing all of the following:

(1) If the first account, the amount of appraisement; if a subsequent account, the amount chargeable from the prior account.

(e) The petition requesting approval of the account may include additional requests for authorization, instruction, approval, or confirmation authorized by this division, including, but not limited to, a request for any order authorized under Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 2640).

(f) When an account is rendered by or on behalf of two or more joint guardians or conservators, the court, in its discretion, may settle and allow the account upon the verification of any of them.

2621. Notice of the hearing on the account of the guardian or conservator shall be given for the period and in the manner provided in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1460) of Part 1. If notice is required to be given to the Director of Mental Health or the Director of Developmental Services under Section 1461, the account shall not be settled or allowed unless notice has been given as provided in Section 1461.

2622 The ward or conservatee, the spouse or any relative or friend of the ward or conservatee, or any creditor or other interested person may file written objections to the account of the guardian or conservator, stating the items of the account to which objection is made and the basis for the objection.

2623 The guardian or conservator shall be allowed all of the following:

(a) The amount of the reasonable expenses incurred in the exercise of the powers and the performance of the duties of the guardian or conservator (including, but not limited to, the cost of any surety bond furnished, reasonable attorney's fees, and such compensation for services rendered by the guardian or conservator of the person as the court determines is just and reasonable).

(b) Such compensation for services rendered by the guardian or conservator as the court determines is just and reasonable.

(c) All reasonable disbursements made before appointment as guardian or conservator.

(d) In the case of termination other than by the death of the ward or conservatee, all reasonable disbursements made after the termination of the guardianship or conservatorship but prior to the discharge of the guardian or conservator by the court.

(e) In the case of termination by the death of the ward or conservatee, all reasonable expenses incurred prior to the discharge of the guardian or conservator by the court for the custody and conservation of the estate and its delivery to the executor or administrator of the estate of the deceased ward or conservatee or in making other disposition of the estate as provided for by law.

2624. Upon each accounting, the guardian or conservator shall show that, during the period covered by the account, all cash has been kept invested in interest bearing accounts or investments authorized by law except for such amounts of cash as are reasonably necessary for the orderly administration of the estate.

2625. Any sale or purchase of property or other transaction not previously authorized, approved, or confirmed by the court is subject to review by the court upon the next succeeding accounting of the guardian or conservator occurring after the transaction. Upon such accounting and review, the court may hold the guardian or conservator liable for any violation of duties in connection with the sale, purchase, or other transaction. Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect the validity of any sale or purchase or other transaction.

2626. If it appears upon the settlement of any account that the estate has been entirely exhausted through expenditures or disbursements which are approved by the court, the court, upon settlement of the account, shall order the proceeding terminated and the guardian or conservator forthwith discharged unless the court determines that there is reason to continue the proceeding.

2627. (a) After a ward has reached majority, the ward may settle accounts with the guardian and give the guardian a release which is valid if obtained fairly and without undue influence.

(b) Except as otherwise provided by this code, a guardian is not entitled to a discharge until one year after the ward has attained majority.

2628. (a) As used in this section, "public benefit payments" means payments received or to be received under either or both of the following:

(1) Part 3 (commencing with Section 11000) of, or Part 5 (commencing with Section 17000) of, Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(2) Subchapter II (commencing with Section 401) of, or Part A of Subchapter XVI (commencing with Section 1382) of, Chapter 7, Title 42, of the United States Code.

(b) In lieu of accounting as otherwise required by this article, the guardian or conservator may follow the procedure provided by this section if all of the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) The estate at the beginning and end of the accounting period consisted of property of a total net value of less than two thousand dollars ($2,000)

(2) The income of the estate for each month of the accounting period, exclusive of public benefit payments, was less than one hundred fifty dollars ($150).

(3) All income of the estate, if not retained, was spent for the benefit of the ward or conservatee.

(c) The guardian or conservator may file with the court at the time the account is otherwise required to be presented an affidavit stating the amount of public benefit payments received by or on behalf of the ward or conservatee, and the other income of the estate, for each month covered by the account and stating that all the conditions prescribed in subdivision (b) are satisfied.

(d) If an affidavit is filed under subdivision (c), the ward or conservatee or any interested person may petition the court for an order requiring the guardian or conservator to present an account as otherwise required by this article or the court on its own motion may make such an order. An order under this subdivision may be made ex parte or on such notice of hearing as the court in its discretion requires.

Article 4. Accounts on Termination of Relationship

2630. The termination of the relationship of guardian and ward or conservator and conservatee by the death of either, by the ward attaining majority, by the determination of the court that the guardianship or conservatorship is no longer necessary, by the removal or resignation of the guardian or conservator, or for any other reason, does not cause the court to lose jurisdiction of the proceeding for the purpose of settling the accounts of the guardian or conservator or for any other purpose incident to the enforcement of the judgments and orders of the court upon such accounts or upon the termination of the relationship.

2631. (a) Upon the death of the ward or conservatee, the guardian or conservator may contract for and pay a reasonable sum for the expenses of the last illness and the funeral of the deceased ward or conservatee, or may pay the unpaid expenses of such last illness and funeral, in full or in part, to the extent reasonable, from any assets of the deceased ward or conservatee, other than real property or any interest therein, which are under the control of the guardian or conservator.

(b) When a claim for such expenses is presented to the guardian or conservator, the guardian or conservator shall endorse thereon an allowance or rejection, with the date thereof. If the claim is allowed, it shall be presented to the court and the court shall in like manner endorse thereon an allowance or rejection. If the claim is approved by the court, the claim shall be filed with the clerk within 30 days thereafter.

(c) After payment of such expenses, the guardian or conservator may transfer any remaining assets in accordance with and subject to the provisions of Section 630. The value of the property of the deceased ward or conservatee, for the purpose of ascertaining the right to transfer under Section 630, shall be determined after the deduction of the expenses so paid

2632 (a) If the guardian or conservator dies or has a conservator of the estate appointed, the account may be presented by:

(1) The executor or administrator of the deceased guardian or conservator.

(2) The conservator of the estate appointed for the guardian or conservator

(b) Upon petition of the successor of the guardian or conservator, the court shall compel the executor or administrator of the deceased guardian or conservator or the conservator of the estate appointed for the guardian or conservator to render the account and shall settle the account as in other cases.

(c) If the guardian or conservator dies and there is no executor or administrator, or if the guardian or conservator becomes incapable of rendering an account and has no conservator of the estate, or if the guardian or conservator absconds, the court may compel the attorney for the guardian or conservator or the attorney of record in the guardianship or conservatorship proceeding to render an account of the guardianship or conservatorship to the extent that information or records are available to the attorney. The account of the attorney need not be verified. A fee shall be allowed to the attorney by the court for this extraordinary service.

2633 Subject to Section 2630, where the guardianship or conservatorship terminates before the inventory of the estate has been filed, the court, in its discretion and upon such notice as the court may require, may make an order that the guardian or conservator need not file the inventory and appraisement and that the guardian or conservator shall file an account covering only those assets of the estate of which the guardian or conservator has possession or control.

CHAPTER 8 COMPENSATION OF GUARDIAN, CONSERVATOR, AND ATTORNEY

2640. (a) At any time after the filing of the inventory and appraisement, but not before the expiration of 90 days from the issuance of letters, the guardian or conservator of the estate may petition the court for an order fixing and allowing compensation to any one or more of the following:

(1) The guardian or conservator of the estate for services rendered in that capacity to that time.

(2) The guardian or conservator of the person for services rendered in that capacity to that time.

(3) The attorney for services rendered to that time by the attorney to the guardian or conservator of the person or estate or both.

(b) Notice of the hearing shall be given for the period and in the manner provided in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1460) of Part 1.

(c) Upon the hearing, the court shall make an order allowing (1) such compensation requested in the petition as the court determines is just and reasonable to the guardian or conservator of the estate for services rendered in that capacity or to the guardian or conservator of the person for services rendered in that capacity, or to both, and (2) such compensation requested in the petition as the court determines is reasonable to the attorney for services rendered to the guardian or conservator of the person or estate or both. The compensation so allowed shall thereupon be charged to the estate.

2641. (a) At any time permitted by Section 2640 and upon the notice therein prescribed, the guardian or conservator of the person may petition the court for an order fixing and allowing compensation for services rendered to that time in such capacity.

(b) Upon the hearing, the court shall make an order allowing such compensation as the court determines just and reasonable to the guardian or conservator of the person for services rendered. The compensation allowed shall thereupon be charged against the estate.

2642. (a) At any time permitted by Section 2640 and upon the notice therein prescribed, an attorney who has rendered legal services to the guardian or conservator of the person or estate or both, including services rendered under Section 2632, may petition the court for an order fixing and allowing compensation for such services rendered to that time.

(b) Upon the hearing, the court shall make an order allowing such compensation as the court determines reasonable to the attorney for services rendered to the guardian or conservator. The compensation so allowed shall thereupon be charged against the estate.

2643. (a) On petition by the guardian or conservator of the person or estate or both, the court may by order authorize periodic payments on account to any one or more of the following persons for the services rendered by such person during the period covered by each payment:

(1) The guardian of the person.

(2) The guardian of the estate.

(3) The conservator of the person.

(4) The conservator of the estate.

(5) The attorney for the guardian or conservator of the person or estate or both.

(b) Notice of the hearing on the petition shall be given for the period and in the manner provided in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1460) of Part 1.

(c) The petition shall describe the services to be rendered on a periodic basis and the reason why authority to make periodic payments is requested. In fixing the amount of the periodic payment, the court shall take into account the services to be rendered on a periodic basis and the reasonable value of such services. The guardian or conservator of the estate may make the periodic payments authorized by the order only if the services described in the petition are actually rendered. The payments made pursuant to the order are subject to review by the court upon the next succeeding accounting of the guardian or conservator of the estate to determine that the services were actually rendered and that the amount paid on account was not unreasonable, and the court shall make an appropriate order if the court determines that the amount paid on account was either excessive or inadequate in view of the services actually rendered.

2644. (a) When it is to the advantage, benefit, and best interest of the ward or conservatee or the estate, the guardian or conservator of the estate may contract with an attorney for a contingent fee for the attorney's services in representing the ward or conservatee or the estate in connection with a matter that is of a type that is customarily the subject of a contingent fee contract, but such a contract is valid only if (1) the contract is made pursuant to an order of the court authorizing the guardian or conservator to execute the contract or (2) the contract is approved by order of the court.

(b) To obtain an order under this section, the guardian or conservator shall file a petition with the court showing the advantage to the ward or conservatee or the estate of the contingent fee contract. A copy of the contingent fee contract shall be attached to the petition.

(c) Notice of the hearing on the petition shall be given for the period and in the manner provided in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1460) of Part 1.

(d) As used in this section, "court" includes either of the following:

(1) The court in which the guardianship or conservatorship proceeding is pending.

(2) Where the contract is in connection with a matter in litigation, the court in which the litigation is pending.

2651. The ward or conservatee, the spouse or any relative or friend of the ward or conservatee, or any interested person may apply by petition to the court to have the guardian or conservator removed. The petition shall state facts showing cause for removal.

2652. (a) At least 15 days before the hearing, a copy of the petition and a notice of the time and place of hearing shall be mailed to the following persons (other than the petitioner):

If the guardian or conservator cannot with reasonable diligence be so served, the court may dispense with service.

2653. (a) The guardian or conservator, the ward or conservatee, the spouse or any relative or friend of the ward or conservatee, and any interested person, may appear at the hearing and support or oppose the petition

2654. Whenever it appears that the ward or conservatee or the estate may suffer loss or injury during the time required for notice and hearing under this article, the court, on its own motion or on petition, may do either or both of the following:

(a) Suspend the powers of the guardian or conservator pending notice and hearing to such extent as the court deems necessary.

(b) Compel the guardian or conservator to surrender the estate to a custodian designated by the court.

Notice of the hearing on the petition shall be given for the period and in the manner provided in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1460) of Part 1. The court shall allow such resignation when it appears proper, to take effect at such time as the court shall fix, and may make any order as may be necessary to deal with the guardianship or conservatorship during the period prior to the appointment of a new guardian or conservator and the settlement of the accounts of the resigning guardian or conservator.

(b) If the ward is 18 years of age or older, for the purposes of this part, the ward shall be called a conservatee and the guardian shall be called a conservator

2903 (a) A petition for the appointment of a guardian may be filed in any court of competent jurisdiction by any relative or friend of the ward or by any person who is authorized by law to file such a petition If there is no person so authorized or if the person so authorized refuses or fails to file such a petition within 30 days after mailing of notice by the Veterans Administration to the last known address of such person, if any, indicating the necessity for the same, a petition for appointment may be filed by any resident of this state

(c) The petition shall also set forth the name and address of the person or institution, if any, having actual custody of the ward and the name, age, relationship, if any, occupation, and address of the person proposed for appointment as guardian. Notwithstanding any law as to priority of persons entitled to appointment, or the nomination in the petition, the court may appoint some other person as guardian, if the court determines it is for the best interest of the ward.

(d) In the case of a mentally incompetent ward, the petition shall show that such ward has been rated incompetent by the Veterans Administration on examination in accordance with the laws and regulations governing the Veterans Administration.

2904. Where a petition is filed for the appointment of a guardian for a minor, a certificate of the administrator or the administrator's authorized representative, setting forth the age of the minor as shown by the records of the Veterans Administration and the fact that the appointment of a guardian is a condition precedent to the payment of any moneys due the minor by the Veterans Administration, is prima facie evidence of the necessity for the appointment.

2905. Where a petition is filed for the appointment of a guardian for a mentally incompetent ward, a certificate of the administrator or the administrator's authorized representative, setting forth that the ward has been rated incompetent by the Veterans Administration on examination in accordance with the laws and regulations governing the Veterans Administration and that the appointment of a guardian is a condition precedent to the payment of any moneys due the ward by the Veterans Administration, is prima facie evidence of the necessity for the appointment

2906. Upon the filing of a petition for the appointment of a guardian under this part, notice of the time and place of hearing on the petition shall be given as provided in Section 1511. A signed duplicate or certified copy of the petition shall be sent, and notice of the hearing on the petition shall be given, to the proper office of the Veterans Administration in the same manner as is provided in the case of the hearing on a guardian's account under Section 2908.

2907. (a) Before making an appointment under the provisions of this part, the court shall be satisfied that the guardian whose appointment is sought is a fit and proper person to be appointed.

(b) Upon the appointment being made, the guardian shall execute and file the bond required by law. Where a bond is tendered by a guardian with personal sureties, such sureties shall file with the court a certificate under oath which shall describe the property owned, both real and personal, and that they are each worth the sum named in the bond as the penalty thereof over and above all their debts and liabilities and exclusive of property exempt from execution.

2908 (a) Every guardian who has received or shall receive on account of the ward any moneys or other thing of value from the Veterans Administration shall file with the court annually, or at such other intervals as are directed by the court, in addition to such other accounts as may be required by the court, a full, true, and accurate account of all moneys or other things of value so received by the guardian, all earnings, interest or profits derived therefrom and all property acquired therewith and of all disbursements therefrom, and showing the balance thereof in the hands of the guardian at the date of the account and how invested.

(b) At the time of filing in the court any account, a true copy thereof shall be sent by the guardian to the office of the Veterans Administration having jurisdiction over the area in which the court is located. The clerk shall fix a time and place for the hearing on the account, not less than 15 days nor more than 30 days from the date the account is filed, unless a different available date be stipulated in writing Not less than 15 days prior to the date fixed for the hearing, written notice of the time and place of hearing shall be mailed to the office of the Veterans Administration having jurisdiction over the area in which the court is located and to the guardian and to any others entitled to notice under subdivision (b) of Section 1460 or who have requested special notice pursuant to Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 2700) of Part 4.

(c) If the guardian is accountable for property derived from sources other than the Veterans Administration, the guardian is accountable as is or may be required under the applicable law of this state pertaining to the property of wards or conservatees who are not beneficiaries of the Veterans Administration, and as to such other property is entitled to the compensation provided by such law. The account for other property may be combined with the account filed in accordance with this section.

2909. If a guardian fails to file with the court any account as required by this part, or by an order of the court, when any account is due or within 30 days after citation issues as provided by law, or fails to furnish the Veterans Administration a true copy of any account as required by this part, such failure shall in the discretion of the court be ground for the removal of the guardian

2910 Compensation payable to guardians shall not exceed 5 percent of the income of the ward during the year, except that, in any case in which 5 percent of the money received during such period is less than twenty-five dollars ($25), the court may in its discretion, and without a showing of extraordinary services by the guardian, allow a reasonable compensation, not to exceed twenty-five dollars ($25) In the event of extraordinary services rendered by such guardian, the court may, upon petition and after hearing thereon, authorize additional compensation therefor payable from the estate of the ward A signed duplicate or certified copy of the petition shall be sent, and notice of the hearing on the petition shall be given, to the proper office of the Veterans Administration in the same manner as is provided in the case of the hearing on a guardian's account under Section 2908. No compensation shall be allowed on the corpus of an estate received from a preceding guardian. The guardian may be allowed from the estate of the ward reasonable premiums paid by the guardian to any corporate surety upon the guardian's bond.

2911. (a) Every guardian shall invest the surplus funds of the ward's estate in such securities or property as authorized under the laws of this state, or may deposit funds of the estate with any bank in this state or with a trust company authorized to transact a trust business in this state or in an account in an insured savings and loan association, but only upon prior order of the court. A signed duplicate or certified copy of the petition for authority to invest shall be sent, and notice of the hearing on the petition shall be given, to the proper office of the Veterans Administration in the same manner as is provided in the case of the hearing on a guardian's account under Section 2908.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the funds may be invested, without court authorization, in direct unconditional interest-bearing obligations of this state or of the United States and in obligations the interest and principal of which are unconditionally guaranteed by the United States

2912 A guardian shall not apply any portion of the income or the estate for the support or maintenance of any person other than the ward, except upon petition to and authorization by order of the court after a hearing. A signed duplicate or certified copy of the petition shall be sent, and notice of the hearing on the petition shall be given, to the proper office of the Veterans Administration in the same manner as is provided in the case of the hearing on a guardian's account under Section 2908.

2913. (a) The court may authorize the purchase of real property in this state in which the guardian has no interest, but only as a home for the ward, or to protect the interest of the ward, or (if the ward is not a minor) as a home for the ward's dependent family. Such purchase of real property shall not be made except upon the entry of an order of the court after hearing upon petition. A signed duplicate or certified copy of the petition shall be sent, and notice of the hearing on the petition shall be given, to the proper office of the Veterans Administration in the same manner as is provided in the case of the hearing on a guardian's account under Section 2908.

(b) Before authorizing the purchase of real property under this section, the court shall require written evidence of value and of title and of the advisability of acquiring the real property Title shall be taken in the ward's name.

(c) This section does not limit the right of the guardian on behalf of the ward to bid and to become the purchaser of real property at a sale thereof pursuant to decree of foreclosure of lien held by or for the ward, or at a trustee's sale, to protect the ward's right in the property so foreclosed or sold; nor does it limit the right of the guardian, if such be necessary to protect the ward's interests and upon prior order of the court in which the guardianship is pending, to agree with cotenants of the ward for a partition in kind, or to purchase from cotenants the entire undivided interest held by them, or to bid and purchase the same at a sale under a partition decree, or to compromise adverse claims of title to the ward's real property.

2914. When a copy of any public record is required by the Veterans Administration to be used in determining the eligibility of any person to participate in benefits made available by the Veterans Administration, the official charged with the custody of such public record shall without charge provide the applicant for such benefits or any person acting on the applicant's behalf or the authorized representative of the Veterans Administration with a certified copy of such record.

2915. A certificate by the Veterans Administration showing that a minor ward has attained majority, or that an incompetent ward has been rated competent by the Veterans Administration, and that the guardianship is no longer necessary as a condition to the payment of any moneys due the ward by the Veterans Administration, is prima facie evidence that the guardianship is no longer necessary Upon hearing after such notice as the court may require and the determination by the court that the guardianship is no longer necessary, an order shall be entered to that effect, and the guardian shall file a final account. Upon hearing after notice to the former ward and to the Veterans Administration in the same manner as is provided in the case of the hearing on a guardian's account under Section 2908, upon approval of the final account, and upon delivery to the ward of the assets due to the ward from the guardian, the guardian shall be discharged and the guardian's sureties released.

2916 The provisions of this part relating to surety bonds and the administration of estates of wards apply to all "income" and "estate" as defined in Section 2901 whether the guardian has been appointed under this part or under any other law of this state, special or general, prior or subsequent to the enactment of this part.

2917. The powers and duties of a guardian appointed under this part apply only to "income" and "estate" as defined in Section 2901. Except where inconsistent with this part, the laws of this state relating to guardian and ward or conservator and conservatee, as the case may be, and the judicial practice relating thereto, including the right of appeal, apply to the exercise of those powers and duties and to the settlement of accounts.

2918. This part shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it

(c) If a civil action is pending with respect to the issue and jurisdiction has been obtained in the court in which the civil action is pending, upon request of any party to the civil action, the court shall abate the hearing until the conclusion of the civil action.

CHAPTER 2 MANAGEMENT, CONTROL, AND DISPOSITION

Article 1 Management, Control, and Disposition Generally

3051. (a) Subject to Section 3071, the right of a spouse to manage and control community property, including the right to dispose of community property, is not affected by the lack or alleged lack of legal capacity of the other spouse.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), if one spouse has legal capacity and the other has a conservator:

(1) The spouse who has legal capacity has the exclusive management and control of the community property including, subject to Section 3071, the exclusive power to dispose of the community property

(2) The community property is not part of the conservatorship estate

(c) If one spouse has legal capacity and the other has a conservator, the spouse having legal capacity may consent, by a writing filed in the proceeding, that all or part of the community property be included in and, subject to Section 3071, be managed, controlled, and disposed of as a part of the conservatorship estate.

(d) Except as provided in subdivision (e), if both spouses have conservators, an undivided one-half interest in the community property shall be included in and, subject to Section 3071, be managed, controlled, and disposed of as a part of the conservatorship estate of each spouse

(e) If both spouses have conservators, when authorized by order of the court in which any of the conservatorship proceedings is pending, the conservators may agree in writing that all or specific parts of the community property shall be included in the conservatorship estate of one or the other of the spouses and, subject to Section 3071, be managed, controlled, and disposed of as a part of the conservatorship estate of that spouse

3052. If a spouse has a conservator and owns separate property subject to a homestead (other than separate property owned by both spouses as joint tenants, tenants in common, or otherwise), the property shall be included in and, subject to Section 3071, be dealt with and disposed of as a part of the conservatorship estate

3053. (a) As used in this section, "homestead property" means separate property subject to a homestead that is owned by both spouses as joint tenants, tenants in common, or otherwise.

(b) If one spouse has legal capacity and the other spouse has a conservator:

(1) The conservator may, after authorization by order of the court in which the conservatorship proceeding is pending, consent in writing that the spouse having legal capacity shall have the right to manage and control and, subject to Section 3071, dispose of the homestead property.

(2) The spouse having legal capacity may consent in writing that homestead property be included in and, subject to Section 3071, be dealt with and disposed of as a part of the conservatorship estate.

(c) Except as provided in subdivision (d), if both spouses have conservators, the interest of each spouse in the homestead property shall be included in and, subject to Section 3071, be dealt with and disposed of as a part of the conservatorship estate of that spouse.

(d) If both spouses have conservators, the conservators may, after authorization by order of the court in which any of the conservatorship proceedings is pending, agree in writing that the homestead property be included in the guardianship estate of one of the spouses and, subject to Section 3071, be dealt with and disposed of as a part of the conservatorship estate of that spouse.

3054. When homestead property as defined in Section 3053 or community property is included or proposed to be included in the conservatorship estate of a spouse, the court in which the conservatorship proceeding is pending, upon its own motion or upon petition of a spouse having legal capacity or the conservator of either spouse and upon such notice to such persons as the court prescribes, may do any of the following:

(a) Determine that the inclusion of some or all of the homestead property or community property that is proposed to be included in the conservatorship estate would not be in the best interest of the spouses or their estates and order that such property not be included.

(b) Permit revocation of a written consent for inclusion of property in the conservatorship estate, with or without terms or conditions.

(c) Determine that the continued inclusion of some or all of the homestead property or community property in the conservatorship estate is not in the best interest of the spouses or their estates and order that the inclusion of such property in the conservatorship estate be terminated, with or without terms or conditions.

(d) Make such other orders as may be appropriate for the orderly administration of the conservatorship estate or to protect the interests of the spouses.

3055. (a) If consent is given under this article that homestead property as defined in Section 3053 or community property be included in the conservatorship estate of a spouse, the death of either spouse terminates the consent

(b) If a spouse consents under this article that homestead property as defined in Section 3053 or community property be included in the conservatorship estate of the other spouse:

(1) Subject to paragraph (2), the subsequent lack of legal capacity of the spouse giving the consent has no effect on the inclusion of the property in the conservatorship estate of the other spouse.

(2) The appointment of a conservator for the spouse giving the consent terminates the consent.

3056. Except as otherwise provided in this part and subject to Section 3071, when homestead property or community property is included in a conservatorship estate under this article for the purpose of management, control, and disposition, the conservator has the same powers and duties with respect to such property as the conservator has with respect to other property of the conservatorship estate.

3057 (a) Where a spouse lacks legal capacity and does not have a conservator, any interested person who has knowledge or reason to believe that the rights of such spouse in the community property are being prejudiced may bring an action on behalf of such spouse to enforce the duty of good faith in the management and control of the community property and to obtain such relief as may be appropriate.

(b) If one spouse has a conservator and the other spouse is managing or controlling community property, the conservator has the duty to keep reasonably informed concerning the management and control, including the disposition, of the community property. If the conservator has knowledge or reason to believe that the rights of the conservatee in the community property are being prejudiced, the conservator may bring an action on behalf of the conservatee to enforce the duty of good faith in the management and control of the community property and to obtain such relief as may be appropriate.

Article 2 Substitute for Joinder or Consent Requirements

3070 If the requirements of this article are satisfied with respect to a transaction described in Section 3071, the transaction is deemed to satisfy the joinder or consent requirements of the statute referred to in that section.

3071 (a) In case of a transaction for which the joinder or consent of both spouses is required by Section 1242, 1243, 5125, or 5127 of the Civil Code or by any other statute, if one or both spouses lacks legal capacity for the transaction, the requirement of joinder or consent shall be satisfied as provided in this section

(b) Where one spouse has legal capacity for the transaction and the other spouse has a conservator, the requirement of joinder or consent is satisfied if both of the following are obtained

(1) The joinder or consent of the spouse having legal capacity.

(2) The joinder or consent of the conservator of the other spouse given in compliance with Section 3072.

(c) Where both spouses have conservators, the joinder or consent requirement is satisfied by the joinder or consent of each such conservator given in compliance with Section 3072.

(d) In any case, the requirement of joinder or consent is satisfied if the transaction is authorized by an order of court obtained in a proceeding pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 3100).

3072 (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), a conservator may join in or consent to a transaction under Section 3071 only after authorization by either of the following

(1) An order of the court obtained in the conservatorship proceeding upon a petition filed pursuant to Section 2403 or under Article 7 (commencing with Section 2540) or 10 (commencing with Section 2580) of Chapter 6 of Part 4

(2) An order of the court made in a proceeding pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 3100).

(b) A conservator may consent without court authorization to a sale, conveyance, or encumbrance of community personal property requiring consent under subdivision (c) of Section 5125 of the Civil Code if the conservator could sell or transfer such property under Section 2545 without court authorization if the property were a part of the conservatorship estate.

3073 (a) The joinder or consent under Section 3071 of a spouse having legal capacity shall be in such manner as complies with Section 1242, 1243, 5125, or 5127 of the Civil Code or other statute that applies to the transaction.

(b) The joinder or consent under Section 3071 of a conservator shall be in the same manner as a spouse would join in or consent to the transaction under the statute that applies to the transaction except that the joinder or consent shall be executed by the conservator and shall refer to the court order, if one is required, authorizing the conservator to join in or consent to the transaction

3074. Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, a transaction that affects real property, entered into by a purchaser or encumbrancer in good faith and for a valuable consideration, is not affected by the fact that one or both spouses have conservators unless a notice of the establishment of the conservatorship or conservatorships, as the case may be, has been recorded prior to the transaction in the county in which the property is located

CHAPTER 3. PROCEEDING FOR PARTICULAR TRANSACTION

Article 1. General Provisions

3100. As used in this chapter, "transaction" means a transaction that involves homestead property or community real or personal property, tangible or intangible, or an interest therein or a lien or encumbrance thereon, including, but not limited to, those transactions with respect thereto as are listed in Section 3102.

3101. (a) A proceeding may be brought under this chapter for a court order authorizing a proposed transaction, whether or not the proposed transaction is one that otherwise would require the joinder or consent of both spouses, if both of the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) One of the spouses is alleged to lack legal capacity for the proposed transaction, whether or not that spouse has a conservator.

(2) The other spouse either has legal capacity for the proposed transaction or has a conservator.

(b) A proceeding may be brought under this chapter for a court order declaring that one or both spouses has legal capacity for a proposed transaction.

(c) One proceeding may be brought under this chapter under both subdivision (a) and subdivision (b).

(d) In a proceeding under this chapter, the court may determine whether the property that is the subject of the proposed transaction is subject to a valid homestead and whether the property that is the subject of the proposed transaction is community property or the separate property of either spouse, but such determination shall not be made in the proceeding under this chapter if the court determines that the interest of justice requires that the determination be made in a civil action.

(e) This chapter is permissive and cumulative for the transactions to which it applies.

3102. The transactions that may be the subject of a proceeding under this chapter include, but are not limited to:

(a) Sale, conveyance, assignment, transfer, exchange, conveyance pursuant to a preexisting contract, encumbrance by security interest, deed of trust, mortgage, or otherwise, lease, including but not limited to a lease for the exploration for and production of oil, gas, minerals, or other substances, or unitization or pooling with other property for or in connection with such exploration and production.

(b) Assignment, transfer, or conveyance, in whole or in part, in compromise or settlement of an indebtedness, demand, or proceeding to which the property may be subject.

(c) Dedication or conveyance, with or without consideration, of (1) the property or an interest therein to a public entity (including but not limited to the United States or an agency or instrumentality thereof) for any purpose or (2) an easement over the property to any person for any purpose.

(d) Conveyance, release, or relinquishment to a public entity, with or without consideration, of any access rights to a street, highway, or freeway from the property.

(e) Consent as a lienholder to a dedication, conveyance, release, or relinquishment under subdivision (c) or (d) by the owner of property subject to the lien.

(f) Conveyance or transfer, without consideration, to provide gifts for such purposes, and to such charities, relatives (including one of the spouses), friends, or other objects of bounty, as would be likely beneficiaries of gifts from the spouses.

Article 2. Commencement of Proceeding

3110. (a) A proceeding under this chapter shall be brought by a petition filed in the superior court

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (d), if the proceeding affects real property or a lien or encumbrance on real property, the proper county for commencement of the proceeding is either of the following:

(1) The county in which the real property, or some part thereof, is situated.

(2) The county in which a conservatorship proceeding of one of the spouses is pending.

(c) Except as provided in subdivision (d), if the proceeding affects only personal property, other than a lien or encumbrance on real property, the proper county for commencement of the proceeding is any of the following:

(1) The county in which one or both of the spouses resides at the time the petition is filed.

(2) The county in which a conservatorship proceeding of one of the spouses is pending.

(3) Such other county as may be in the best interests of the spouses.

(d) If both spouses have conservators and the conservatorship proceedings are pending in the same county, the proper county for the commencement of the proceeding, whether the proceeding affects real or personal property, is the county in which the conservatorship proceedings are pending.

3111 (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), any of the following persons may file, or join in, a petition under this chapter:

(1) Either spouse, whether or not the spouse has legal capacity.

(2) The conservator of either spouse.

(b) If the petition requests approval of a proposed transaction, at least one of the petitioners shall be either a conservator or a spouse having legal capacity for the transaction.

3112. (a) If a petitioning spouse is one whose legal capacity for the proposed transaction is to be determined in the proceeding, the court may do any of the following:

(1) Permit the spouse to appear without a representative.

(2) Appoint a guardian ad litem for the spouse.

(3) Take such other action as the circumstances warrant.

(b) If a petitioning spouse lacks legal capacity for the proposed transaction, the court may do either of the following:

(1) Require the spouse to be represented by the conservator of the spouse

(2) Appoint a guardian ad litem for the spouse.

3113. A proceeding may be brought under this chapter by the conservator of a spouse, or by a spouse having legal capacity for the proposed transaction, without the necessity of appointing a conservator for the other spouse.

Article 3. Petition

3120. (a) Several proposed transactions may be included in one petition and proceeding under this chapter.

(b) The petition may contain inconsistent allegations and may request relief in the alternative.

3121. The petition shall set forth all of the following information:

(a) The name, age, and residence of each spouse.

(b) If one or both spouses is alleged to lack legal capacity for the proposed transaction, a statement that the spouse has a conservator or a statement of the facts upon which the allegation is based.

(c) If there is a conservator of a spouse, the name and address of the conservator, the county in which the conservatorship proceeding is pending, and the court number of the proceeding.

(d) If a spouse alleged to lack legal capacity for the proposed transaction is a patient in or on leave of absence from a state institution under the jurisdiction of the State Department of Mental Health or the State Department of Developmental Services, the name and address of the institution.

(e) The names and addresses of the adult relatives within the second degree of each spouse alleged to lack legal capacity for the proposed transaction, if known to the petitioner.

(f) A sufficient description of the property that is the subject of the proposed transaction.

(g) An allegation of the status of the property, whether community property, community property subject to a homestead, or separate property subject to a homestead.

(h) The estimated value of the property.

(i) The terms and conditions of the proposed transaction, including the names of all parties thereto.

(j) The relief requested.

3122. If the proceeding is brought for a court order authorizing a proposed transaction, the petition shall set forth, in addition to the information required by Section 3121, all of the following:

(a) An allegation that one of the spouses has a conservator or facts establishing lack of legal capacity of the spouse for the proposed transaction.

(b) An allegation that the other spouse has legal capacity for the proposed transaction or has a conservator.

(c) An allegation that each spouse either: (1) joins in or consents to the proposed transaction, (2) has a conservator, or (3) is substantially unable to manage his or her financial resources or resist fraud or undue influence.

(d) Facts that may be relied upon to show that the authorization sought is for one or more of the following purposes:

(1) The advantage, benefit, or best interests of the spouses or their estates.

(2) The care and support of either spouse or of such persons as either spouse may be legally obligated to support.

(3) The payment of taxes, interest, or other encumbrances or charges for the protection and preservation of the homestead or community property.

(4) The providing of gifts for such purposes, and to such charities, relatives (including one of the spouses), friends, or other objects of bounty, as would be likely beneficiaries of gifts from the spouses.

3123. If the proceeding is brought for a court order declaring that one or both spouses has legal capacity for a proposed transaction, the petition shall set forth, in addition to the information required by Section 3121, an allegation of the legal capacity of such spouse or spouses for the proposed transaction.

Article 4. Citation and Notice of Hearing

3130. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), upon the filing of the petition, the clerk shall issue a citation to each nonpetitioning spouse alleged to lack legal capacity for the proposed transaction, setting forth the time and place of hearing. The citation and a copy of the petition shall be served upon the spouse at least 15 days before the hearing.

(b) Unless the court otherwise orders, if a spouse alleged to lack legal capacity for the proposed transaction has a conservator, no citation to the spouse need be issued, and the petitioner shall cause a notice of the time and place of the hearing on the petition, accompanied by a copy of the petition, to be served on the conservator at least 15 days before the hearing.

(c) Service under this section shall be made in the manner provided in Section 415.10 or 415.30 of the Code of Civil Procedure or in such other manner as may be authorized by the court. If the person to be served is outside this state, service may also be made in the manner provided in Section 415.40 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

3131. (a) At least 15 days before the hearing on the petition, the petitioner shall cause a notice of the time and place of the hearing and a copy of the petition to be served upon any nonpetitioning spouse not alleged to lack legal capacity for the proposed transaction.

(b) Service under subdivision (a) shall be made in the manner provided in Section 415.10 or 415.30 of the Code of Civil Procedure or in such other manner as may be authorized by the court. If the person to be served is outside this state, service may also be made in the manner provided in Section 415.40 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(c) At least 15 days before the hearing on the petition, the petitioner shall mail a notice of the time and place of the hearing on the petition, accompanied by a copy of the petition, to the adult relatives named in the petition at the addresses set forth in the petition.

Article 5. Hearing and Order

3140. (a) A conservator served pursuant to this article shall, and the Director of Mental Health or the Director of Developmental Services given notice pursuant to Section 1461 may, appear at the hearing and represent a spouse alleged to lack legal capacity for the proposed transaction.

(b) If a spouse alleged to lack legal capacity is not otherwise represented, the court may in its discretion appoint the public guardian, public administrator, or a guardian ad litem to represent the interests of the spouse.

(c) If a spouse alleged to lack legal capacity is unable to retain legal counsel, upon request of the spouse, the court shall appoint the public defender or private counsel under Section 1471 to represent the spouse and, if such appointment is made, Section 1472 applies.

(d) Except as provided in subdivision (c), the court may fix a reasonable fee, to be paid out of the proceeds of the transaction or otherwise as the court may direct, for all services rendered by privately engaged counsel, the public guardian, public administrator, or guardian ad litem, and by counsel for such persons.

3141. (a) If a spouse is alleged to lack legal capacity for the proposed transaction and has no conservator, the spouse shall be produced at the hearing unless unable to attend the hearing.

(b) If the spouse is not able to attend the hearing because of medical inability, such inability shall be established (1) by the affidavit or certificate of a licensed medical practitioner or (2) if the spouse is an adherent of a religion whose tenets and practices call for reliance upon prayer alone for healing and is under treatment by an accredited practitioner of the religion, by the affidavit of the practitioner.

(c) Emotional or psychological instability is not good cause for absence of the spouse from the hearing unless, by reason of such instability, attendance at the hearing is likely to cause serious and immediate physiological damage.

(1) A determination of lack of legal capacity for the proposed transaction may result in approval of the proposed transaction.

(2) The spouse has the right to legal counsel of the spouse's own choosing, including the right to have legal counsel appointed by the court if unable to retain legal counsel.

(b) This section does not apply if the spouse is absent from the hearing and is not required to attend the hearing under the provisions of subdivision (a) of Section 3141 and any showing required by Section 3141 has been made

3143. (a) If the petition requests that the court make an order declaring a spouse to have legal capacity for the proposed transaction and the court determines that the spouse has legal capacity for the proposed transaction, the court shall so order.

(b) If the petition alleges that a spouse having no conservator lacks legal capacity for the proposed transaction and the court determines that the spouse has legal capacity for the transaction, the court shall make an order so declaring.

3144 (a) The court may authorize the proposed transaction if the court determines all of the following:

(1) The property that is the subject of the proposed transaction is homestead or community property of the spouses.

(2) One of the spouses then has a conservator or otherwise lacks legal capacity for the proposed transaction.

(3) The other spouse either has legal capacity for the proposed transaction or has a conservator.

(4) Each of the spouses either (i) joins in or consents to the proposed transaction, (ii) has a conservator, or (iii) is substantially unable to manage his or her own financial resources or resist fraud or undue influence. Substantial inability may not be proved by isolated incidents of negligence or improvidence.

(5) The proposed transaction is one that should be authorized under this chapter.

(b) If the proposed transaction is to provide gifts for such purposes, and to such charities, relatives (including one of the spouses), friends, or other objects of bounty, as would be likely beneficiaries of gifts from the spouses, the court may authorize the transaction under this chapter only if the transaction is one that the court would authorize under Article 10 (commencing with Section 2580) of Chapter 6 of Part 4 (substituted judgment) in the case of a conservatorship

(c) If the court determines under subdivision (a) that the transaction should be authorized, the court shall so order and may authorize the petitioner to do and perform all acts and to execute and deliver all papers, documents, and instruments necessary to effectuate the order.

(d) In an order authorizing a transaction, the court may prescribe such terms and conditions as the court in its discretion determines appropriate, including but not limited to requiring joinder or consent of another person.

3145. A court determination pursuant to this chapter that a spouse lacks legal capacity for the proposed transaction affects the legal capacity of the spouse for that transaction alone and has no effect on the legal capacity of the spouse for any other purpose.

Article 6. Consummation of Transaction

3150 (a) Unless the court for good cause dispenses with the bond, the court shall require the petitioner to give a bond, in the amount fixed by the court, conditioned on the duty of the petitioner to account for and apply the proceeds of the transaction to be received by the petitioner only as the court may by order direct.

(b) Unless the court for good cause fixes the amount of the bond in a lesser amount, if given by an authorized surety company, the bond shall be in an amount not less than the value of the personal property (including cash and any notes) to be received by the petitioner, as determined by the court.

(c) If the sureties on the bond are individual sureties, the bond shall be approved by the court and shall be for twice the amount required for a bond given by an authorized surety company.

(d) Sections 2328, 2329, 2331, 2334, 2335, and 2336 are applicable to the bond of the petitioner under this chapter.

3151 (a) The petitioner shall, upon receipt of the consideration therefor, execute, acknowledge, and deliver any necessary instruments or documents as directed by the court, setting forth therein that they are made by authority of the order.

(b) The petitioner shall cause a certified copy of the order to be recorded in the office of the recorder of each county in which is situated any real property affected by the order or any real property upon which there is a lien or encumbrance affected by the order.

(c) If a sale is made upon a credit pursuant to the order, the petitioner shall take the note of the person to whom the sale is made for the amount of the unpaid balance of the purchase money, with such security for the payment thereof as the court shall by order approve. The note shall be made payable to the petitioner or, if the petition was made by a conservator, to the petitioner as conservator.

3152. A sale, conveyance, assignment, transfer, exchange, encumbrance, security interest, mortgage, deed of trust, lease, dedication, release, or relinquishment, and any instrument or document, made pursuant to the court's order, is as valid and effectual as if the property affected thereby were the sole and absolute property of the person making it.

3153. Notes, encumbrances, security interests, mortgages, leases, or deeds of trust, executed as provided in this chapter by a petitioning conservator create no personal liability against the conservator so executing, unless the conservator is one of the spouses and then only to the extent that personal liability would have resulted had both spouses had legal capacity for the transaction and joined in the execution

3154 (a) If any party to the transaction, other than the petitioner, does not consummate a transaction authorized by the court, the court, on application of the petitioner, after such notice to the parties to the transaction as the court directs, may vacate the order authorizing the transaction

(b) If the order authorized the sale or encumbrance of property, the petitioner may by supplemental petition apply to the court for an order authorizing any other sale or encumbrance of the property to the advantage, benefit, or best interests of the spouses or their estates. The supplemental petition and a notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be served and mailed as provided in Article 4 (commencing with Section 3130) except that (1) no further citation shall be issued and (2) a copy of the supplemental petition and a notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be served upon any person who has appeared as representative of a nonpetitioning spouse or upon counsel of record for a nonpetitioning spouse or as the court may otherwise direct.

(c) If it appears to the court that the other sale or encumbrance is to the advantage, benefit, or best interests of the spouses or their estates and that the request in the supplemental petition that the transaction be authorized should be granted, the court may so order and may authorize the petitioner to do and perform acts and to execute and deliver all papers, documents, and instruments necessary to effectuate the order.

PART 7. AUTHORIZATION OF MEDICAL TREATMENT FOR ADULT WITHOUT CONSERVATOR

3200. As used in this part, "patient" means an adult who does not have a conservator of the person and who is in need of medical treatment

3201 If a patient requires medical treatment for an existing or continuing medical condition and the patient is unable to give an informed consent to such medical treatment, a petition may be filed under this part for an order authorizing such medical treatment and authorizing the petitioner to give consent to such treatment on behalf of the patient.

3202. The petition may be filed in the superior court of any of the following counties:

(a) The county in which the patient resides.

(b) The county in which the patient is temporarily living.

(c) Such other county as may be in the best interests of the patient

3203. A petition may be filed by any of the following:

(a) The patient

(b) The spouse of the patient

(c) A relative or friend of the patient or other interested person

(d) The patient's physician.

(e) A person acting on behalf of the medical facility in which the patient is located if the patient is in a medical facility

(f) The public guardian or such other county officer as is designated by the board of supervisors of the county in which the patient is located or resides or is temporarily living.

3204 The petition shall state, or set forth by medical affidavit attached thereto, all of the following so far as is known to the petitioner at the time the petition is filed.

(a) The nature of the medical condition of the patient which requires treatment.

(b) The recommended course of medical treatment which is considered to be medically appropriate.

(c) The threat to the health of the patient if authorization for the recommended course of treatment is delayed or denied by the court.

(d) The predictable or probable outcome of the recommended course of treatment.

(e) The medically available alternatives, if any, to the course of treatment recommended.

(f) The efforts made to obtain an informed consent from the patient.

(g) If the petition is filed by a person on behalf of a medical facility, the name of the person to be designated to give consent to the recommended course of treatment on behalf of the patient.

3205. Upon the filing of the petition, the court shall determine the name of the attorney the patient has retained to represent the patient in the proceeding under this part or the name of the attorney the patient plans to retain for that purpose. If the patient has not retained an attorney and does not plan to retain one, the court shall appoint the public defender or private counsel under Section 1471 to consult with and represent the patient at the hearing on the petition and, if such appointment is made, Section 1472 applies.

3206. (a) Notice of the time and place of the hearing on the petition shall be given for the period and in the manner prescribed by order of court. In determining the period of notice to be required, the court shall take into account (1) the existing medical facts and circumstances set forth in the petition or in a medical affidavit attached to the petition or in a medical affidavit presented to the court and (2) the desirability, where the condition of the patient permits, of giving adequate notice to all interested persons.

(b) A notice of the time and place of the hearing or a copy of the order prescribing the time and place of the hearing, and a copy of the petition, shall be given, as prescribed in the order, to all of the following:

(1) The patient.

(2) The attorney for the patient.

(3) Such other persons, if any, as the court in its discretion may require in the order, which may include the spouse of the patient and any known relatives of the patient within the second degree.

3207. Notwithstanding Section 3206, the matter presented by the petition may be submitted for the determination of the court upon proper and sufficient medical affidavits or declarations if the attorney for the petitioner and the attorney for the patient so stipulate and further stipulate that there remains no issue of fact to be determined.

3208. (a) The court may make an order authorizing the recommended course of medical treatment of the patient and designating a person to give consent to the recommended course of medical treatment on behalf of the patient if the court determines from the evidence all of the following:

(1) The existing or continuing medical condition of the patient requires the recommended course of medical treatment.

(2) If untreated, there is a probability that the condition will become life-endangering or result in a serious threat to the physical health of the patient.

(3) The patient is unable to give an informed consent to the recommended course of treatment.

(b) If the patient has the capacity to give an informed consent to the recommended course of medical treatment but refuses to do so, the court is not authorized to make an order under this part. If an order has been made under this part, the order shall be revoked if the court determines that the patient has recovered the capacity to give informed consent to the recommended course of medical treatment. Until revoked or modified, the order is effective authorization of the course of medical treatment.

3209. The court in which the petition is filed has continuing jurisdiction to revoke or modify an order made under this part upon a petition filed, noticed, and heard in the same manner as an original petition filed under this part.

3210. (a) This part is supplemental and alternative to other procedures or methods for obtaining medical consent.

(b) Nothing in this part limits the providing of medical treatment in an emergency case in which the medical treatment is required because (1) such treatment is required for the alleviation of severe pain or (2) the patient has a medical condition which, if not immediately diagnosed and treated, will lead to serious disability or death

3211. (a) No person may be placed in a mental health treatment facility under the provisions of this part

(b) No experimental drug as defined in Section 26668 of the Health and Safety Code may be prescribed for or administered to any person under this part.

(c) No convulsive treatment as defined in Section 5325 of the Welfare and Institutions Code may be performed on any person under this part.

(d) No person may be sterilized under this part.

(e) The provisions of this part are subject to any valid and effective directive of the patient under Chapter 3.9 (commencing with Section 7185) of Part 1 of Division 7 of the Health and Safety Code (Natural Death Act).

PART 8. OTHER PROTECTIVE PROCEEDINGS

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

3300 A parent who receives any money or property belonging to a minor under any provision of this part shall account to the minor for the money or other property when the minor reaches the age of majority

3301 Whenever it appears to the satisfaction of the superior court by application of the minor concerned that the consent of a parent or guardian is necessary to permit hospital or medical care or enlistment in the armed services for or by a minor of the age of 16 years or over residing in the State of California and that such minor has no parent or guardian available to give such consent, the court may summarily grant such consent. No fee shall be charged for proceedings under this section.

3302. A contract for attorney's fees for services in litigation, made by or on behalf of a minor, is void unless the contract is approved by the court in which the litigation is pending or the court having jurisdiction of the guardianship estate of the minor, upon petition of any interested person. When no such contract is approved and a judgment is recovered by or on behalf of a minor, the attorney's fees chargeable against the minor shall be fixed by the court rendering the judgment.

CHAPTER 2. MONEY OR PROPERTY BELONGING TO MINOR

Article 1. Total Estate Not in Excess of $5,000

3400. (a) As used in this article, "total estate of the minor" includes both the money and other property belonging to the minor and the money and other property belonging to the guardianship estate, if any, of the minor.

(b) In computing the "total estate of the minor" for the purposes of this article, all of the following shall be deducted:

(1) "Custodial property" held pursuant to the California Uniform Gifts to Minors Act, Article 4 (commencing with Section 1154) of Chapter 3 of Title 4 of Part 4 of Division 2 of the Civil Code.

(2) Any money or property subject to court order pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 3602 or Article 2 (commencing with Section 3610) of Chapter 4.

3401. (a) Where a minor does not have a guardian of the estate, money or other property belonging to the minor may be paid or delivered to a parent of the minor entitled to the custody of the minor to be held in trust for the minor until the minor reaches majority if the requirements of subdivision (c) are satisfied.

(b) Where the minor has a guardian of the estate, all the money and other property belonging to the guardianship estate may be paid or delivered to a parent entitled to the custody of the minor to be held in trust for the minor until the minor reaches majority if the requirements of subdivision (c) are satisfied.

(c) This section applies only if both of the following requirements are satisfied:

(1) The total estate of the minor, including the money and other property to be paid or delivered to the parent, does not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) in value.

(2) The parent to whom the money or other property is to be paid or delivered gives the person making the payment or delivery written assurance, verified by the oath of such parent, that the total estate of the minor, including the money or other property to be paid or delivered to the parent, does not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) in value

3402. The written receipt of the parent giving the written assurance under Section 3401 shall be an acquittance of the person making the payment of money or delivery of other property pursuant to this article.

Article 2. Property in the Form of Money

3410. (a) This article applies to both of the following cases:

(1) Where the minor has a guardian of the estate and the sole asset of the guardianship estate is money.

(2) Where the minor has no guardian of the estate and there is money belonging to the minor

(b) This article does not apply to, and there shall be excluded in computing "money belonging to the minor" for the purpose of this article, all of the following:

(1) Money or property which is or will be held as "custodial property" pursuant to the California Uniform Gifts to Minors Act, Article 4 (commencing with Section 1154) of Chapter 3 of Title 4 of Part 4 of Division 2 of the Civil Code.

(2) Any money or property subject to court order pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 3602 or Article 2 (commencing with Section 3610) of Chapter 4.

3411. (a) A parent of a minor entitled to custody of the minor, the guardian of the estate of the minor, or the person holding the money belonging to the minor may file a petition requesting that the court make an order under this article.

(b) The petition shall be filed in the superior court of:

(1) The county where the minor resides if the minor has no guardian of the estate.

(2) The county having jurisdiction of the guardianship estate if the minor has a guardian of the estate.

3412. If the minor has a guardian of the estate and the sole asset of the guardianship estate is money, the court may order that the guardianship of the estate be terminated and, if the court so orders, the court in its discretion shall also order any one or more of the following:

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a), any city, county, or city and county may adopt standards for structural fire

The Director of Housing and Community Development shall make a finding as to the equivalency of alternate local standards to state standards. (c) The provisions of this section shall not apply to any existing apartment house, hotel, or motel having floors, as measured from the top of the floor surface, used for human occupancy located more than 75 feet above the lowest floor level having building access which is subject to the provisions of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 13210) of Part 2 of Division 12 relating to existing high-rise buildings.

(d) The provisions of this part are not intended to prevent the use of any material, appliance, installation, device, arrangement, or method of construction not specifically prescribed by this part, provided any such alternate has been approved.

The building department of any city or county may approve any such alternate if it finds that the proposed design is satisfactory and that the material, appliance, installation, device, arrangement, method, or work offered is, for the purpose intended, at least the equivalent of that prescribed in this part in performance, safety, and for the protection of life and health

The building department of any city or county shall require evidence that any material, appliance, installation, device, arrangement, or method of construction conforms to, or that the proposed alternate is at least equivalent to, the requirements of this part, and rules and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto and in order to substantiate claims for alternates, the building department of any city or county may require tests as proof of compliance to be made at the expense of the owner or his agent by an approved testing agency.

The department may assess fees to defray the costs of enforcement, thereby reducing the cost to be borne by the city, county, city and county, or fire protection district, but the department need not assess such fees and may not require the city, county, city and county, or fire protection district to assess fees to offset department costs

17965 Where there is no local enforcement agency charged with the enforcement of this part pursuant to Section 17964, and to the extent that enforcement responsibility is not assigned to a local enforcement agency pursuant to Section 17960, 17961, or 17961.5, the department shall enforce all the applicable provisions of this part and rules and regulations promulgated by the department thereunder, or

Therefore, Section 1.5 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Senate Bill 812 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1980, both amend Section 17920, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill 812, in which case Section 1 of this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 8. Notwithstanding Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act pursuant to these sections because self-financing authority is provided in this act to cover costs that may be incurred by it in carrying on any program or performing any service required to be carried on or performed by it by this act and because revenue is provided in Section 17951 of the Health and Safety Code to cover these costs. hospital staff and completing normal hospitalization departure procedures. A conservatee may leave in a like manner if notice is given by his conservator.

A minor person who is a voluntary patient may leave the hospital or institution after completing normal hospitalization departure procedures after notice is given to the superintendent or person in charge by the parents, or the parent, guardian, conservator, or other person entitled to the custody of the minor, of their desire to remove him from the hospital.

No person received into a state hospital, private mental institution, or county psychiatric hospital as a voluntary patient during his minority shall be detained therein after he reaches the age of majority, but any such person, after attaining the age of majority, may apply for admission into the hospital or institution for care and treatment in the manner prescribed in this section for applications by adult persons.
