(d) Upon a finding by the court that the motion was made within the period permitted by subdivision (b) and that the action was not commenced in the proper court, it shall set aside the default or default judgment on such terms as may be just and shall allow such a party to defend the action in the proper court.

(e) Unless the plaintiff can show that the plaintiff used reasonable diligence to avoid filing the action in the improper court, upon a finding that the action was commenced in the improper court the court shall award the defendant actual damages and costs, including reasonable attorney's fees.

SEC. 37. Section 667 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

667. In an action to recover the possession of personal property, judgment for the plaintiff may be for the possession or the value thereof, in case a delivery cannot be had, and damages for the detention. If the property has been delivered to the plaintiff, and the defendant claim a return thereof judgment for the defendant may be for a return of the property or the value thereof, in case a return cannot be had, and damages for taking and withholding the same.

SEC. 38. Section 673 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

673. (a) An assignee of a right represented by a judgment may become an assignee of record by filing with the clerk of the court which entered the judgment an acknowledgment of assignment of judgment.

(b) An acknowledgment of assignment of judgment shall contain all of the following:

(1) The title of the court where the judgment is entered and the cause and number of the action.

(2) The date of entry of the judgment and of any renewals of the judgment and where entered in the records of the court.

(3) The name and address of the judgment creditor and name and last known address of the judgment debtor.

(4) A statement describing the right represented by the judgment that is assigned to the assignee.

(5) The name and address of the assignee.

(c) The acknowledgment of assignment of judgment shall be:

(1) Made in the manner of an acknowledgment of a conveyance of real property.

(2) Executed and acknowledged by the judgment creditor or by the prior assignee of record if there is one.

(d) This section is in addition to, and does not limit or restrict, any other means by which an assignee may become an assignee of record.

SEC. 39. Section 674 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

674. An abstract of a judgment or decree requiring the payment of money shall be certified by the clerk of the court where the judgment or decree was entered and shall contain all of the following:

(a) The title of the court where the judgment or decree is entered and cause and number of the action.

(b) The date of entry of the judgment or decree and of any renewals of the judgment or decree and where entered in the records of the court.

(c) The name and last known address of the judgment debtor and the address at which the summons was either personally served or mailed to the judgment debtor or the judgment debtor's attorney of record.

(d) The name and address of the judgment creditor.

(e) The amount of the judgment or decree as entered or as last renewed.

(f) The social security number and driver's license number of the judgment debtor if they are known to the judgment creditor; and, if either or both of such numbers are not known to the judgment creditor, that fact shall be indicated on the abstract of judgment.

(g) Whether a stay of enforcement has been ordered by the court and, if so, the date the stay ends.

(h) The date of issuance of the abstract.

SEC. 40. Section 674.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 41. Section 674.7 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 42. Section 675 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 43. Section 675b of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 44. Section 675c of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 45. Section 725a of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

725a. The beneficiary or trustee named in a deed of trust or mortgagee named in a mortgage with power of sale upon real property or any interest therein to secure a debt or other obligation, or if there be a successor or successors in interest of such beneficiary, trustee or mortgagee, then such successor or successors in interest, shall have the right to bring suit to foreclose the same in the manner and subject to the provisions, rights and remedies relating to the foreclosure of a mortgage upon such property.

SEC. 46. Section 726 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

726. (a) There can be but one form of action for the recovery of any debt or the enforcement of any right secured by mortgage upon real property, which action must be in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. In such action the court may, by its judgment, direct the sale of the encumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the application of the proceeds of the sale to the payment of the costs of court, the expenses of levy and sale, and the amount due plaintiff, including, where the mortgage provides for the payment of attorney's fees, such sum for such fees as the court shall find reasonable, not exceeding the amount named in the mortgage.

(b) The decree for the foreclosure of a mortgage or deed of trust secured by real property or any interest therein shall declare the amount of the indebtedness or right so secured and, unless judgment for any deficiency there may be between the sale price and the amount due with costs is waived by the judgment creditor or a deficiency judgment is prohibited by Section 580b, shall determine the personal liability of any defendant for the payment of the debt secured by such mortgage or deed of trust and shall name such defendants against whom a deficiency judgment may be ordered following the proceedings hereinafter prescribed. In the event of such waiver, or if the prohibition of Section 580b is applicable the decree shall so declare and there shall be no judgment for a deficiency. In the event that a deficiency is not waived or prohibited and it is decreed that any defendant is personally liable for such debt, then upon application of the plaintiff filed at any time within three months of the date of the foreclosure sale and after a hearing thereon at which the court shall take evidence and at which hearing either party may present evidence as to the fair value of the property or the interest therein sold as of the date of sale, the court shall render a money judgment against such defendant or defendants for the amount by which the amount of the indebtedness with interest and costs of levy and sale and of action exceeds the fair value of the property or interest therein sold as of the date of sale; provided, however, that in no event shall the amount of the judgment, exclusive of interest from the date of sale and of costs exceed the difference between the amount for which the property was sold and the entire amount of the indebtedness secured by the mortgage or deed of trust. Notice of the hearing shall be served upon all defendants who have appeared in the action and against whom a deficiency judgment is sought, or upon their attorneys of record, at least 15 days before the date set for the hearing. Upon application of any party made at least 10 days before the date set for the hearing the court shall, and upon its own motion the court at any time may, appoint one of the inheritance tax referees provided for by law to appraise the property or the interest therein sold as of the time of sale. The inheritance tax referee shall file the appraisal with the clerk and the appraisal is admissible in evidence. The inheritance tax referee shall take and subscribe an oath to be attached to the appraisal that he or she has truly, honestly and impartially appraised the property to the best of his or her knowledge and ability. Any inheritance tax referee so appointed may be called and examined as a witness by any party or by the court itself. The court must fix the compensation, in an amount as determined by the court to be reasonable, but such fees shall not exceed similar fees for similar services in the community where such services are rendered, which may be taxed and allowed in like manner as other costs.

(c) No person holding a conveyance from or under the mortgagor of the property mortgaged, or having a lien thereon, which conveyance or lien does not appear of record in the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action need be made a party to such action, and the judgment therein rendered, and the proceedings therein had, are as conclusive against the person holding such unrecorded conveyance or lien as if the person had been a party to the action. Notwithstanding Section 701.630, the sale of the encumbered property does not affect the interest of a person who holds a conveyance from or under the mortgagor of the property mortgaged, or has a lien thereon, if the conveyance or lien appears of record in the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action and the person holding the recorded conveyance or lien is not made a party to the action.

(d) If the land mortgaged consists of a single parcel, or two or more contiguous parcels, situated in two or more counties, the court may, in its judgment, direct the whole thereof to be sold in one of such counties, and upon such proceedings, and with like effect, as if the whole of the property were situated in that county.

(e) If a deficiency judgment is waived or prohibited, the property shall be sold as provided in Section 716.020. If a deficiency judgment is not waived or prohibited, the property shall be sold subject to the right of redemption as provided in Sections 729.010 to 729.090, inclusive.

SEC. 47. Section 729 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 48. Section 729.010 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

729.010. (a) If the decree of foreclosure of a mortgage or deed of trust on real property pursuant to Section 726 determines that a deficiency judgment may be ordered against the defendant, the real property (other than a leasehold estate with an unexpired term of less than two years at the time of levy) shall be sold subject to the right of redemption.

(b) If the property is to be sold subject to the right of redemption, the sale is governed by Section 716.020, except that:

(1) The notice of sale of the property shall state that the property will be sold subject to the right of redemption and shall state the amount of the secured indebtedness with interest and costs.

(2) Notice of sale may be given upon entry of the judgment for sale of the property and the provision of Section 701.545 delaying notice of sale does not apply.

(3) Notice of sale may be given to persons having liens on the property upon entry of the judgment for sale of the property and the provision of subdivision (h) of Section 701.540 delaying such notice does not apply.

SEC. 49. Section 729.020 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

729.020. Property sold subject to the right of redemption may be redeemed only by the judgment debtor or the judgment debtor's successor in interest. For the purpose of this article, the purchaser of the property at the foreclosure sale is not a successor in interest.

SEC. 50. Section 729.030 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

729.030. The redemption period during which property may be redeemed from a foreclosure sale under this chapter ends:

(a) Three months after the date of sale if the proceeds of the sale are sufficient to satisfy the secured indebtedness with interest and costs of action and of sale.

(b) One year after the date of sale if the proceeds of the sale are not sufficient to satisfy the secured indebtedness with interest and costs of action and of sale.

SEC. 51. Section 729.040 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

729.040. (a) Notwithstanding Section 701.660, when the purchaser of an interest in real property sold subject to the right of redemption pays the amount due, the levying officer conducting the sale shall execute and deliver a certificate of sale to the purchaser and record a duplicate of the certificate of sale in the office of the county recorder.

(b) The certificate of sale shall contain the information required by Section 701.670 and shall also contain the following:

(1) The price paid for each distinct lot or parcel of real property sold subject to the right of redemption.

(2) The total price paid.

(3) A statement that the property is subject to the right of redemption, indicating the applicable redemption period.

SEC. 52. Section 729.050 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

729.050. If property is sold subject to the right of redemption, promptly after the sale the levying officer who conducted the sale shall serve notice of the right of redemption on the judgment debtor. Service shall be made personally or by mail. The notice of the right of redemption shall indicate the applicable redemption period.

SEC. 53. Section 729.060 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

729.060. (a) A person who seeks to redeem the property shall deposit the redemption price with the levying officer who conducted the sale before the expiration of the redemption period. If a successor in interest to the judgment debtor seeks to redeem the property, the successor in interest shall, at the time the redemption price is deposited, file with the levying officer either (1) a certified copy of a recorded conveyance or (2) a copy of an assignment or any other evidence of the interest verified by an affidavit of the successor in interest or of a subscribing witness thereto.

(b) The redemption price is the total of the following amounts, less any offset allowed under subdivision (c).

(1) The purchase price at the sale.

(2) The amount of any assessments or taxes and reasonable amounts for fire insurance, maintenance, upkeep, and repair of improvements on the property.

(3) Any amount paid by the purchaser on a prior obligation secured by the property to the extent that the payment was necessary for the protection of the purchaser's interest.

(4) Interest on the amounts described in paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) at the rate of interest on money judgments from the time such amount was paid until the date the deposit is made.

(c) Rents and profits from the property paid to the purchaser or the value of the use and occupation of the property to the purchaser may be offset against the amounts described in subdivision (b).

SEC. 54. Section 729.070 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

729.070. (a) If the purchaser and the person seeking to redeem the property disagree on the redemption price or as to whether the person is entitled to redeem the property, or if the purchaser refuses the tender of the redemption price pursuant to Section 729.080, the person seeking to redeem may file a petition with the court for an order determining the redemption price or whether the person is entitled to redeem the property. The petition shall be filed before the expiration of the redemption period. At the time the petition is filed, the petitioner shall deposit the undisputed amount of the redemption price with the levying officer, if deposit has not previously been made, and give written notice to the levying officer of the filing of the petition.

(b) The petition shall be in writing and shall include the following statements:

(1) The amounts demanded to which the person seeking to redeem objects and the reasons for the objection.

(2) Any amounts offset to which the purchaser objects and the justification for such offset.

(3) The status of the petitioner that qualifies the petitioner to redeem the property. A copy of the papers required by subdivision (a) of Section 729.060 shall be filed with the petition.

(c) The hearing on the petition shall be held not later than 20 days after the date the petition was filed unless continued by the court for good cause.

(d) Not less than 10 days before the hearing, the person seeking to redeem the property shall personally serve on the purchaser a copy of the petition together with a notice of the time and place of the hearing.

(e) At the hearing on the petition, the person seeking to redeem the property has the burden of proof.

(f) At the conclusion of the hearing, the court shall determine by order the amount required to redeem the property. The determination shall be made upon affidavit or evidence satisfactory to the court.

(g) If an amount in addition to that deposited with the levying officer is required to redeem the property, the person seeking to redeem shall, within 10 days after the issuance of the order, pay such additional amount to the levying officer.

SEC. 55. Section 729.080 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

729.080. (a) If the redemption price is not deposited pursuant to Section 729.060 before the expiration of the redemption period, or if no additional deposit is made pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 729.070 before the expiration of the time therein provided, the levying officer who conducted the sale shall promptly execute and deliver to the purchaser a deed of sale that complies with the requirements of Section 701.670.

(b) If the person seeking to redeem the property deposits the redemption price pursuant to Section 729.060 or 729.070 during the redemption period, the levying officer shall tender the deposit to the purchaser. If the purchaser accepts the tender or if the redemption price determined by court order is tendered, the levying officer shall promptly execute and deliver a certificate of redemption to the person seeking to redeem and shall immediately thereafter record a duplicate of the certificate in the office of the recorder of the county where the property is located.

(c) Tender of the redemption price determined by court order or agreed upon by the purchaser and the person seeking to redeem the property is equivalent to payment. If the tender is refused, the levying officer shall deposit the amount tendered with the county treasurer of the county where the property is located, payable to the order of the purchaser. If the amount deposited is not claimed by the purchaser, or the legal representative of the purchaser, within five years after the deposit is made, by making application to the treasurer or other official designated by the county, it shall be paid into the general fund of the county.

(d) Except as provided in subdivision (e), upon redemption the effect of the sale is terminated and the person who redeemed the property is restored to the estate therein sold at the sale.

(e) Liens extinguished by the sale as provided in Section 701.630 do not reattach to the property after redemption and the property that was subject to the extinguished lien may not be applied to the satisfaction of the claim or judgment under which the lien was created.

SEC. 56. Section 729.090 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

729.090. (a) From the time of the sale until a redemption, the purchaser is entitled to receive from the person in possession the rents and profits from the property or the value of the use and occupation of the property.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the purchaser is liable to the person who redeems for any rents or profits that have been received by the purchaser pursuant to subdivision (a).

(c) The purchaser, from the time of sale until redemption, is entitled to enter the property during reasonable hours to repair and maintain the premises and is entitled to an order restraining waste on the property from the court. Such order may be granted with or without notice in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 57. Section 745 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

745. The court may, by injunction, on good cause shown, restrain the party in possession from doing any act to the injury of real property:

(a) During the foreclosure of a mortgage on the property.

(b) After levy on the property and before the possession of the property is transferred pursuant to sale under the levy.

SEC. 58. Section 746 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

746. When real property has been sold pursuant to a levy, the purchaser of the property, or any person who has succeeded to the interest of the purchaser, may recover damages from the person causing the injury for injury to the property after levy and before possession is delivered to the purchaser or the person who has succeeded to the interest of the purchaser.

SEC. 60. Section 874.140 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

874.140. A judgment for unpaid costs of partition may be enforced by the person entitled to the costs in the manner provided for enforcement of money judgments generally against the share of the party specified in the judgment or against other property of the party.

SEC. 61. The heading of Title 11 (commencing with Section 875) of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

TITLE 11. CONTRIBUTION AMONG JOINT JUDGMENT DEBTORS

SEC. 62. A heading is added immediately preceding Section 875 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

CHAPTER 1. RELEASES FROM AND CONTRIBUTION AMONG JOINT TORTFEASORS

SEC. 63. Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 881) is added to Title 11 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

CHAPTER 2. CONTRIBUTION AMONG OTHER JUDGMENT DEBTORS

881. This chapter governs contribution among joint judgment debtors other than joint tortfeasors.

882. If two or more judgment debtors are jointly liable on a money judgment:

(a) A judgment debtor who has satisfied more than his or her due proportion of the judgment, whether voluntarily or through enforcement procedures, may compel contribution from another judgment debtor who has satisfied less than his or her due proportion of the judgment.

(b) If the judgment is based upon an obligation of one judgment debtor as surety for another and the surety satisfies the judgment or any part thereof, whether voluntarily or through enforcement procedures, the surety may compel repayment from the principal.

883. (a) A judgment debtor entitled to compel contribution or repayment pursuant to this chapter may apply on noticed motion to the court that entered the judgment for an order determining liability for contribution or repayment. The application shall be made at any time before the judgment is satisfied in full or within 10 days thereafter.

(b) The order determining liability for contribution or repayment entitles the judgment debtor to the benefit of the judgment to enforce the liability, including every remedy that the judgment creditor has against the persons liable, to the extent of the liability.

(c) Nothing in this section limits any other remedy that a judgment debtor entitled to contribution or repayment may have.

SEC. 64. Section 916 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

916. (a) Except as provided in Sections 917.1 through 917.9 and in Section 117.7, the perfecting of an appeal stays proceedings in the trial court upon the judgment or order appealed from or upon the matters embraced therein or affected thereby, including enforcement of the judgment or order, but the trial court may proceed upon any other matter embraced in the action and not affected by the judgment or order.

(b) When there is a stay of proceedings other than the enforcement of the judgment, the trial court shall have jurisdiction of proceedings related to the enforcement of the judgment as well as any other matter embraced in the action and not affected by the judgment or order appealed from.

SEC. 65. Section 918 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

918. (a) Subject to subdivision (b), the trial court may stay the enforcement of any judgment or order.

(b) If the enforcement of the judgment or order would be stayed on appeal only by the giving of an undertaking, a trial court shall not have power, without the consent of the adverse party, to stay the enforcement thereof pursuant to this section for a period which extends for more than 10 days beyond the last date on which a notice of appeal could be filed.

(c) This section applies whether or not an appeal will be taken from the judgment or order and whether or not a notice of appeal has been filed.

SEC. 66. Section 918.5 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

918.5. (a) The trial court may, in its discretion, stay the enforcement of a judgment or order if the judgment debtor has another action pending on a disputed claim against the judgment creditor.

(b) In exercising its discretion under this section, the court shall consider all of the following:

(1) The likelihood of the judgment debtor prevailing in the other action.

(2) The amount of the judgment of the judgment creditor as compared to the amount of the probable recovery of the judgment debtor in the action on the disputed claim.

(3) The financial ability of the judgment creditor to satisfy the judgment if a judgment is rendered against the judgment creditor in the action on the disputed claim.

SEC. 67. Section 1007 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 68. Section 1027 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1027. When the decision of a court of inferior jurisdiction in a special proceeding is brought before a court of higher jurisdiction for a review, in any other way than by appeal, the same costs must be allowed as in cases on appeal, and may be collected in the manner provided for enforcement of money judgments generally, or in such manner as the court may direct, according to the nature of the case.

SEC. 69. Section 1032.6 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 70. Section 1033.7 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 71. Section 1034 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1034. In appeals from the superior and municipal courts, costs shall be awarded as provided in rules adopted by the Judicial Council. In appeals from other courts, the prevailing party on appeal shall be entitled to his costs excepting when judgment is modified and in that event the matter of costs is within the discretion of the appellate court. The party entitled to costs, or to whom costs are awarded, may recover all amounts actually paid out by the party in connection with the appeal, and the preparation of the record for the appeal. The appellate court may reduce costs in case of the insertion of unnecessary matter in the record.

Whenever costs are awarded to a party by an appellate court, if the party claims such costs, the party must, within 30 days after the remittitur is filed with the clerk below, serve upon the adverse party and file with such clerk a memorandum of costs, verified as prescribed by Section 1033. The party dissatisfied with the costs claimed may move to have the same taxed in the same manner and within a like time after service of a copy of the bill of costs, as prescribed by Section 1033. After the costs have been taxed, or the time for taxing the costs has expired, the award of costs may be enforced in the manner provided for enforcement of a money judgment.

SEC. 72. Section 1034.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1034.5. In unlawful detainer proceedings, the plaintiff who recovers judgment for possession of premises, and who advances or pays to the sheriff or marshal the costs required for the eviction of any persons in possession or occupancy of the premises and the personal property of such persons, shall, within 10 days after being advised by the sheriff or marshal of the exact amount necessarily used and expended to effect the eviction, file a supplemental costs bill in the court in which the judgment was rendered claiming such additional costs and specify the items paid and the amount thereof. The defendant may move to retax such costs within 10 days after service of the supplemental cost bill. When costs are fixed by the court, or upon failure of the defendant to file notice of motion to retax costs within 10 days after service of the supplemental cost bill, judgment for the costs shall be immediately entered by the clerk and may be enforced in the manner provided for enforcement of a money judgment.

SEC. 73. Section 1095 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1095. If judgment be given for the applicant, the applicant may recover the damages which the applicant has sustained, as found by the jury, or as may be determined by the court or referee, upon a reference to be ordered, together with costs; and a peremptory mandate must also be awarded without delay. Damages and costs may be enforced in the manner provided for money judgments generally. In all cases where the respondent is an officer of a public entity, all damages and costs, or either, which may be recovered or awarded, shall be recovered and awarded against the public entity represented by the officer, and not against the officer so appearing in the proceeding, and are a proper claim against the public entity for which the officer appeared and shall be paid as other claims against the public entity are paid; but in all such cases, the court shall first determine that the officer appeared and made defense in the proceeding in good faith. For the purpose of this section, "public entity" includes the state, a county, city, district or other public agency or public corporation. For the purpose of this section, "officer" includes officer, agent or employee.

SEC. 74. Section 1161a of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1161a. In any of the following cases, a person who holds over and continues in possession of real property after a three-day written notice to quit the property has been served upon the person, or if there is a subtenant in actual occupation of the premises, also upon such subtenant, as prescribed in Section 1162, may be removed therefrom as prescribed in this chapter:

1. Where the property has been sold pursuant to a writ of execution against such person, or a person under whom such person claims, and the title under the sale has been duly perfected.

2. Where the property has been sold pursuant to a writ of sale, upon the foreclosure by proceedings taken as prescribed in this code of a mortgage, or under an express power of sale contained therein, executed by such person, or a person under whom such person claims, and the title under the foreclosure has been duly perfected.

3. Where the property has been sold in accordance with Section 2924 of the Civil Code, under a power of sale contained in a deed of trust executed by such person, or a person under whom such person claims, and the title under the sale has been duly perfected.

4. Where the property has been sold by such person, or a person under whom such person claims, and the title under the sale has been duly perfected.

SEC. 75. Section 1162a of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1162a. In any case in which service or exhibition of a receiver's or levying officer's deed is required, in lieu thereof service of a copy or copies of the deed may be made as provided in Section 1162.

SEC. 75.5. Section 1166a of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1166a. (a) Upon filing the complaint, the plaintiff may, upon motion, have immediate possession of the premises by a writ of possession of real property issued by the court and directed to the sheriff of the county, or constable or marshal, for execution, where it appears to the satisfaction of the court, after a hearing on the motion, from the verified complaint and from any affidavits filed or oral testimony given by or on behalf of the parties, that the defendant resides out of state, has departed from the state, cannot, after due diligence, be found within the state, or has concealed himself or herself to avoid the service of summons.

(b) Written notice of the hearing on the motion shall be served on the defendant by the plaintiff in accordance with the provisions of Section 1011, and shall inform the defendant as follows: "You may file affidavits on your own behalf with the court and may appear and present testimony on your own behalf. However, if you fail to appear, the plaintiff will apply to the court for a writ of possession of real property."

(c) The plaintiff shall file an undertaking with good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the judge, in such sum as shall be fixed and determined by the judge, to the effect that, if the plaintiff fails to recover judgment against the defendant for the possession of the premises or if the suit is dismissed, the plaintiff will pay to the defendant such damages, not to exceed the amount fixed in the undertaking, as may be sustained by the defendant by reason of such dispossession under the writ of possession of real property. An action to recover such damages shall be commenced by the defendant in a court of competent jurisdiction within one year from the date of entry of dismissal or of final judgment in favor of the defendant.

(d) If, at the hearing on the motion, the findings of the court be in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, an order shall be entered for the immediate possession of the premises.

(e) The order for the immediate possession of the premises may be enforced as provided in Division 3 (commencing with Section 712.010) of Title 9 of Part 2.

(f) For the purposes of this section, references in Division 3 (commencing with Section 712.010) of Title 9 of Part 2 and in subdivisions (e) to (m), inclusive, of Section 1174, to the "judgment debtor" shall be deemed references to the defendant, to the "judgment creditor" shall be deemed references to the plaintiff, and to the "judgment of possession or sale of property" shall be deemed references to an order for the immediate possession of the premises.

SEC. 76. Section 1174 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1174. (a) If upon the trial, the verdict of the jury, or, if the case be tried without a jury, the findings of the court be in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, judgment shall be entered for the possession of the premises; and if the proceedings be for an unlawful detainer after neglect, or failure to perform the conditions or covenants of the lease or agreement under which the property is held, or after default in the payment of rent, the judgment shall also declare the forfeiture of such lease or agreement if the notice required by Section 1161 states the election of the landlord to declare the forfeiture thereof, but if such notice does not so state such election, the lease or agreement shall not be forfeited.

Except as provided in Section 1166a, in any action for unlawful detainer brought by a petroleum distributor against a gasoline dealer, possession shall not be restored to the petroleum distributor unless the court in the unlawful detainer action determines that the petroleum distributor had good cause under Section 20999.1 of the Business and Professions Code to terminate, cancel, or refuse to renew the franchise of the gasoline dealer.

In any action for unlawful detainer brought by a petroleum distributor against the gasoline dealer, the court may, at the time of request of either party, require the tenant to make rental payments into the court, for the lessor, at the contract rate, pending the resolution of the action.

(b) The jury or the court, if the proceedings be tried without a jury, shall also assess the damages occasioned to the plaintiff by any forcible entry, or by any forcible or unlawful detainer, alleged in the complaint and proved on the trial, and find the amount of any rent due, if the alleged unlawful detainer be after default in the payment of rent. If the defendant is found guilty of forcible entry, or forcible or unlawful detainer, and malice is shown, the plaintiff may be awarded either damages and rent found due or punitive damages in an amount which does not exceed three times the amount of damages and rent found due. The trier of fact shall determine whether damages and rent found due or punitive damages shall be awarded, and judgment shall be entered accordingly.

(c) When the proceeding is for an unlawful detainer after default in the payment of rent, and the lease or agreement under which the rent is payable has not by its terms expired, and the notice required by Section 1161 has not stated the election of the landlord to declare the forfeiture thereof, the court may, and, if the lease or agreement is in writing, is for a term of more than one year, and does not contain a forfeiture clause, shall order that a writ shall not be issued to enforce the judgment until the expiration of five days after the entry of the judgment, within which time the tenant, or any subtenant, or any mortgagee of the term, or any other party interested in its continuance, may pay into the court, for the landlord, the amount found due as rent, with interest thereon, and the amount of the damages found by the jury or the court for the unlawful detainer, and the costs of the proceedings, and thereupon the judgment shall be satisfied and the tenant be restored to the tenant's estate. If payment as provided in this subdivision is not made within five days, the judgment may be enforced for its full amount and for the possession of the premises. In all other cases the judgment may be enforced immediately.

(d) Subject to subdivision (c), the judgment for possession of the premises may be enforced as provided in Division 3 (commencing with Section 712.010) of Title 9 of Part 2.

(e) Personal property remaining on the premises which the landlord reasonably believes to have been lost shall be disposed of pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 2080) of Chapter 4 of Title 6 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code. The landlord is not liable to the owner of any property which is disposed of in this manner. If the appropriate police or sheriff's department refuses to accept such property, it shall be deemed not to have been lost for the purposes of this subdivision.

(f) The landlord shall give notice pursuant to Section 1983 of the Civil Code to any person (other than the tenant) reasonably believed by the landlord to be the owner of personal property remaining on the premises.

(g) The landlord shall store the personal property in a place of safekeeping until it is either released pursuant to subdivision (h) or disposed of pursuant to subdivision (i).

(h) The landlord shall release the personal property to the tenant or, at the landlord's option, to a person reasonably believed by the landlord to be its owner if such tenant or other person pays the costs of storage as provided in Section 1990 of the Civil Code and claims the property not later than the date specified in the writ of possession before which the tenant must make his claim or the date specified in the notice before which a person other than the tenant must make his claim.

(i) Personal property not released pursuant to subdivision (h) shall be disposed of pursuant to Section 1988 of the Civil Code.

(j) Where the landlord releases personal property to the tenant pursuant to subdivision (h), the landlord is not liable with respect to that property to any person.

(k) Where the landlord releases personal property pursuant to subdivision (h) to a person (other than the tenant) reasonably believed by the landlord to be its owner, the landlord is not liable with respect to that property to:

(1) The tenant or to any person to whom notice was given pursuant to subdivision (f); or

(2) Any other person, unless such person proves that, prior to releasing the property, the landlord believed or reasonably should have believed that such person had an interest in the property and also that the landlord knew or should have known upon reasonable investigation the address of such person.

(l) Where personal property is disposed of pursuant to Section 1988 of the Civil Code, the landlord is not liable with respect to that property to:

(1) The tenant or to any person to whom notice was given pursuant to subdivision (f); or

(2) Any other person, unless such person proves that, prior to disposing of the property pursuant to Section 1988 of the Civil Code, the landlord believed or reasonably should have believed that such person had an interest in the property and also that the landlord knew or should have known upon reasonable investigation the address of such person.

(m) For the purposes of subdivisions (e), (f), (h), (k), and (l), the terms "owner," "premises," and "reasonable belief" have the same meaning as provided in Section 1980 of the Civil Code.

SEC. 77. Section 1206 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1206. Upon the levy under a writ of attachment or execution not founded upon a claim for labor, any miner, mechanic, salesman, servant, clerk, laborer or other person who has performed work or rendered personal services for the defendant within 90 days prior to the levy may file a verified statement of the claim therefor with the officer executing the writ, file a copy thereof with the court which issued the writ, and give copies thereof, containing his or her address, to the plaintiff and the defendant, or any attorney, clerk or agent representing them, or mail copies to them by registered mail at their last known address, return of which by the post office undelivered shall be deemed a sufficient service if no better address is available, and such claim, not exceeding nine hundred dollars ($900), unless disputed, must be paid by such officer, immediately upon the expiration of the time for dispute of the claim as prescribed in Section 1207, from the proceeds of such levy remaining in the officer's hands at the time of the filing of such statement or collectible by the officer on the basis of the writ.

The court issuing the writ must make a notation on its docket of every preferred labor claim of which it receives a copy and must endorse on any writ of execution or abstract of judgment issued subsequently in the case that it is issued subject to the rights of a preferred labor claimant or claimants thereunder and giving the names and amounts of all such preferred labor claims of which it has notice. In levying under any writ of execution the officer making the levy shall include in the amount due under the execution any and all preferred labor claims that have been filed in the action and of which the officer has notice, except any claims which may have been finally disallowed by the court under the procedure provided for herein and of which disallowance the officer has actual notice. The amount due on preferred labor claims that have not been finally disallowed by the court shall be considered a part of the sum due under any writ of attachment or execution in augmentation of the amount thereof and it shall be the duty of any person, firm, association or corporation on whom a writ of attachment or execution is levied to immediately pay to the levying officer the amount of such preferred labor claims, out of any money belonging to the defendant in the action, before paying the principal sum called for in the writ.

If any claim is disputed within the time, and in the manner prescribed in Section 1207, and a copy of the dispute is mailed by registered mail to the claimant or the claimant's attorney at the address given in the statement of claim and the registry receipt is attached to the original of the dispute when it is filed with the levying officer, or is handed to the claimant or the claimant's attorney, the claimant, or the claimant's assignee, must within 10 days after such copy is deposited in the mail or is handed to the claimant or the claimant's attorney petition the court having jurisdiction of the action on which the writ is based, for a hearing before it to determine the claim for priority, or the claim to priority is barred. If more than one attachment or execution is involved, the petition shall be filed in the court having jurisdiction over the senior attachment or execution. The hearing shall be held within 20 days from the filing of the petition unless the court continues it for good cause. Ten days' notice of the hearing shall be given by the petitioner to the plaintiff and the defendant, and to all parties claiming an interest in the property, or their attorneys. The notice may be informal and need specify merely the name of the court, names of the principal parties to the senior attachment or execution and name of the wage claimant or claimants on whose behalf it is filed but shall specify that the hearing is for the purpose of determining the claim for priority. The plaintiff or the defendant, or any other party claiming an interest may contest the amount or validity of the claim in spite of any confession of judgment or failure to appear or to contest the claim on the part of any other person.

There shall be no cost for filing or hearing the petition and the hearing on the petition shall be informal but all parties testifying must be sworn. Any claimant may appear on the claimant's own behalf at the hearing and may call and examine witnesses to substantiate his or her claim. An appeal may be taken from a judgment in a proceeding under this section in the manner provided for appeals from judgments of the court where the proceeding is had.

The officer shall retain in possession until the determination of the claim for priority so much of the proceeds of the writ as may be necessary to satisfy the claim, and if the claim for priority is allowed, the officer shall pay the amount due, including the claimant's cost of suit, from such proceeds, immediately after the order allowing the claim becomes final.

SEC. 78. Section 1208 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1208. If the claims presented under Section 1206 and not disputed, or, if disputed, established by judgment, exceed the proceeds of the writ not disposed of before their presentation, such proceeds shall be distributed among the claimants in proportion to the amount of their respective claims after the costs incurred by the senior attaching plaintiff or judgment creditor in such action have first been taken care of.

If sufficient money to pay in full all preferred labor claims filed under an attachment or execution does not become available immediately upon the expiration of the time for dispute of such claims under Section 1207, any of the claimants, or their assignees, have the right to proceed directly against the money or other property levied on in individual or joint actions by themselves or their assignees against the defendant, and the attachment or execution under which the preferred claims were filed shall be considered set aside as far as such claimants, or their assignees, are concerned so as to enable them, or any of them, or any of their assignees, to proceed directly against any or all of the money or other property in question by means of their own attachments or executions; provided, however, that any money collected on behalf of any such labor claimant, or his or her assignee, on the basis of such new attachment or execution shall be shared in by the other preferred labor claimants who have filed claims that have not been disputed, or, if disputed, established by judgment, in proportion to the amount of their respective claims, deducting only the costs in the action brought by the said labor claimant, or his or her assignee, and the costs in the original action brought by the senior attaching plaintiff or judgment creditor.

If such senior attaching plaintiff or judgment creditor requests a release of his or her original attachment or execution, and the preferred labor claims filed under same are not released, the officer who levied the writ must first mail notices of such request to release to each of the labor claimants who have filed claims, or their attorneys, which notices must specify that unless the claimants bring attachment actions of their own and levy on the money or property in question within five days from the date thereof the money or property will be released from the attachment or execution; provided, however, that such officer may instead collect sufficient money on the basis of the original writ to pay off the preferred labor claims in full and then release the attachment or execution, but in no case shall the officer release the attachment or execution without first taking care of the labor claims until the five-day period has expired, unless the officer's costs, keepers' fees or storage charges have not been immediately taken care of by some of the parties involved. In any case it shall be lawful for a garnishee to pay over to the officer levying the writ any money held by the garnishee without waiting for execution to be levied and the officer's receipt for the money shall be a sufficient quittance, and the officer shall collect such money and immediately pay off the established preferred labor claims in all cases where it is possible to do so without additional court proceedings on the officer's part.

SEC. 79. Section 1710.30 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1710.30. (a) Notice of entry of judgment shall be served promptly by the judgment creditor upon the judgment debtor in the manner provided for service of summons by Article 3 (commencing with Section 415.10) of Chapter 4 of Title 5 of Part 2. Notice shall be in a form prescribed by the Judicial Council and shall inform the judgment debtor that the judgment debtor has 30 days within which to make a motion to vacate the judgment.

(b) The fee for service of the notice of entry of judgment under this section is an item of costs recoverable in the same manner as statutory fees for service of a writ as provided in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 685.010) of Division 1 of Title 9 of Part 2, but such fee may not exceed the amount allowed to a public officer or employee in this state for such service.

SEC. 80. Section 1710.45 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1710.45. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a writ of execution on a judgment entered pursuant to this chapter shall not issue, nor may the judgment be enforced by other means, until at least 30 days after the judgment creditor serves notice of entry of the judgment upon the judgment debtor, proof of which has been made in the manner provided by Article 5 (commencing with Section 417.10) of Chapter 4 of Title 5 of Part 2.

(b) A writ of execution may be issued, or other enforcement sought, before service of the notice of entry of judgment if the judgment debtor is any of the following:

(1) An individual who does not reside in this state.

(2) A foreign corporation not qualified to do business in this state under the provisions of Chapter 21 (commencing with Section 2100) of Division 1 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code.

(3) A foreign partnership which has not filed a statement pursuant to Section 15700 of the Corporations Code designating an agent for service of process.

(c) The court may order that a writ of execution be issued, or may permit enforcement by other means, before service of the notice of entry of judgment if the court finds upon an ex parte showing that great or irreparable injury would result to the judgment creditor if issuance of the writ or enforcement were delayed as provided in subdivision (a).

(d) Property levied upon pursuant to a writ issued under subdivision (b) or (c) or otherwise sought to be applied to the satisfaction of the judgment shall not be sold or distributed before 30 days after the judgment creditor serves notice of entry of the judgment upon the judgment debtor, proof of which has been made in the manner provided by Article 5 (commencing with Section 417.10) of Chapter 4 of Title 5 of Part 2. However, if property levied upon is perishable, it may be sold in order to prevent its destruction or loss of value, but the proceeds of the sale shall not be distributed to the judgment creditor before the date sale of nonperishable property is permissible.

SEC. 81. The heading of Title 11b (commencing with Section 1800) of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended and renumbered to read:

TITLE 11.7. RECOVERY OF PREFERENCES AND EXEMPT PROPERTY IN AN ASSIGNMENT FOR THE BENEFIT OF CREDITORS

SEC. 81.5. Section 1800 of the Code of Civil Procedure, as amended by Chapter 35 of the Statutes of 1982, is amended to read:

1800. (a) In this section:

(1) The term "insolvent" means:

(A) With reference to a person other than a partnership, a financial condition such that the sum of such person's debts is greater than all of such person's property, at a fair valuation, exclusive of:

(i) Property transferred, concealed, or removed with intent to hinder, delay, or defraud such person's creditors; and

(ii) Property that is exempt from property of the estate pursuant to the election of such person made pursuant to Section 1801; and

(B) With reference to a partnership, financial condition such that the sum of such partnership's debts are greater than the aggregate of, at a fair valuation—

(i) All of such partnership's property, exclusive of property of the kind specified in subparagraph (A) (i); and

(ii) The sum of the excess of the value of each general partner's separate property, exclusive of property of the kind specified in subparagraph (A) (ii), over such partner's separate debts.

(2) The term "inventory" means personal property leased or furnished, held for sale or lease, or to be furnished under a contract for service, raw materials, work in process, or materials used or consumed in a business, including farm products such as crops or livestock, held for sale or lease.

(3) The term "insider" means:

(A) If the assignor is an individual, any of the following:

(i) A relative of the assignor or of a general partner of the assignor.

(ii) A partnership in which the assignor is a general partner.

(iii) A general partner of the assignor.

(iv) A corporation of which the assignor is a director, officer, or person in control.

(B) If the assignor is a corporation, any of the following:

(i) A director of the assignor.

(ii) An officer of the assignor.

(iii) A person in control of the assignor.

(iv) A partnership in which the assignor is a general partner.

(v) A general partner of the assignor.

(vi) A relative of a general partner, director, officer, or person in control of the assignor.

(C) If the assignor is a partnership, any of the following:

(i) A general partner in the assignor.

(ii) A relative of a general partner in, general partner of, or person in control of the assignor.

(iii) A partnership in which the assignor is a general partner.

(iv) A general partner of the assignor.

(v) A person in control of the assignor.

(D) An affiliate of the assignor or an insider of an affiliate as if such affiliate were the assignor.

(E) A managing agent of the assignor.

As used in this paragraph, "relative" means an individual related by affinity or consanguinity with the third degree as determined by the common law, or an individual in a step or adoptive relationship within such third degree; and an "affiliate" means a person that directly or indirectly owns, controls or holds with power to vote 20 percent or more of the outstanding voting securities of the assignor or 20 percent or more of whose outstanding voting securities are directly or indirectly owned, controlled or held with power to vote by the assignor (excluding securities held in a fiduciary or agency capacity without sole discretionary power to vote, or held solely to secure a debt if the holder has not in fact exercised the power to vote), or a person who operates the business of the assignor under a lease or operating agreement or whose business is operated by the assignor under a lease or operating agreement.

(4) The term "judicial lien" means a lien obtained by judgment, levy, sequestration, or other legal or equitable process or proceeding.

(5) The term "new value" means money or money's worth in goods, services, or new credit, or release by a transferee of property previously transferred to such transferee in a transaction that is neither void nor voidable by the assignor or the assignee under any applicable law, but does not include an obligation substituted for an existing obligation.

(6) The term "receivable" means a right to payment, whether or not such right has been earned by performance.

(7) The term "security agreement" means an agreement that creates or provides for a security interest.

(8) The term "security interest" means a lien created by an agreement.

(9) The term "statutory lien" means a lien arising solely by force of a statute on specified circumstances or conditions, or lien of distress for rent, whether or not statutory, but does not include security interest or judicial lien, whether or not such interest or lien is provided by or is dependent on a statute and whether or not such interest or lien is made fully effective by statute.

(10) The term "transfer" means every mode, direct or indirect, absolute or conditional, voluntary or involuntary, or disposing of or parting with property or with an interest in property, including retention of title as a security interest.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), the assignee of any general assignment for the benefit of creditors (as defined in Section 493.010) may recover any transfer of property of the assignor:

(1) To or for the benefit of a creditor;

(2) For or on account of an antecedent debt owed by the assignor before such transfer was made;

(3) Made while the assignor was insolvent;

(4) Made on or within 90 days before the date of the making of the assignment or made between 90 days and one year before the date of making the assignment if the creditor, at the time of the transfer, was an insider and had reasonable cause to believe the debtor was insolvent at the time of the transfer; and

(5) That enables such creditor to receive more than another creditor of the same class.

(c) The assignee may not recover under this section a transfer:

(1) To the extent that such transfer was:

(A) Intended by the assignor and the creditor to or for whose benefit such transfer was made to be a contemporaneous exchange for new value given to the assignor; and

(B) In fact a substantially contemporaneous exchange;

(2) To the extent that such transfer was:

(A) In payment of a debt incurred in the ordinary course of business or financial affairs of the assignor and the transferee;

(B) Made not later than 45 days after such debt was incurred;

(C) Made in the ordinary course of business or financial affairs of the assignor and the transferee; and

(D) Made according to ordinary business terms;

(3) Of a security interest in property acquired by the assignor:

(A) To the extent such security interest secures new value that was:

(i) Given at or after the signing of a security agreement that contains a description of such property as collateral;

(ii) Given by or on behalf of the secured party under such agreement;

(iii) Given to enable the assignor to acquire such property; and

(iv) In fact used by the assignor to acquire such property; and

(B) That is perfected within 10 days after such security interest attaches;

(4) To or for the benefit of a creditor, to the extent that, after such transfer, such creditor gave new value to or for the benefit of the assignor:

(A) Not secured by an otherwise unavoidable security interest; and

(B) On account of which new value the assignor did not make an otherwise unavoidable transfer to or for the benefit of such creditor;

(5) Of a perfected security interest in inventory or a receivable or the proceeds of either, except to the extent that the aggregate of all such transfers to the transferee caused a reduction, as of the date of the making of the assignment and to the prejudice of other creditors holding unsecured claims, of any amount by which the debt secured by such security interest exceeded the value of all security interest for such debt on the later of:

(A) Ninety days before the date of the making of the assignment; and

(B) The date on which new value was first given under the security agreement creating such security interest; or

(6) That is the fixing of a statutory lien.

(d) An assignee of any general assignment for the benefit of creditors (as defined in Section 493.010), may avoid a transfer of property of the assignor transferred to secure reimbursement of a surety that furnished a bond or other obligation to dissolve a judicial lien that would have been avoidable by the assignee under subdivision (b) of this section. The liability of such surety under such bond or obligation shall be discharged to the extent of the value of such property recovered by the assignee or the amount paid to the assignee.

(e) (1) For the purposes of this section:

(A) A transfer of real property other than fixtures, but including the interest of a seller or purchaser under a contract for the sale of real property, is perfected when a bona fide purchaser of such property from the debtor against whom applicable law permits such transfer to be perfected cannot acquire an interest that is superior to the interest of the transferee; and

(B) A transfer of a fixture or property other than real property is perfected when a creditor on a simple contract cannot acquire a judicial lien that is superior to the interest of the transferee.

(2) For the purposes of this section, except as provided in paragraph (3), a transfer is made:

(A) At the time such transfer takes effect between the transferor and the transferee, if such transfer is perfected at, or within 10 days after, such time;

(B) At the time such transfer is perfected, if such transfer is perfected after such 10 days; or

(C) Immediately before the date of the making of the assignment if such transfer is not perfected at the later of:

(i) The making of the assignment; and

(ii) Ten days after such transfer takes effect between the transferor and the transferee.

(3) For the purposes of this section, a transfer is not made until the assignor has acquired rights in the property transferred.

(f) For the purposes of this section, the assignor is presumed to have been insolvent on and during the 90 days immediately preceding the date of the making of the assignment.

(g) An action by an assignee under this section must be commenced within one year after the making of the assignment.

SEC. 82. Section 1801 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

1801. In any general assignment for the benefit of creditors (as defined in Section 493.010), the assignor, if an individual, may choose to retain as exempt property either the property which is otherwise exempt under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 703.010) of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 or, in the alternative, the following property:

(a) The assignor's aggregate interest, not to exceed seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500) in value, in real property or personal property that the assignor or a dependent of the assignor uses as a residence, in a cooperative that owns property that the assignor or a dependent of the assignor uses as a residence, or in a burial plot for the assignor or a dependent of the assignor.

(b) The assignor's interest, not to exceed one thousand two hundred dollars ($1,200) in value, in one motor vehicle.

(c) The assignor's interest, not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200) in value in any particular item, in household furnishings, household goods, wearing apparel, appliances, books, animals, crops, or musical instruments, that are held primarily for the personal, family, or household use of the assignor or a dependent of the assignor.

(d) The assignor's aggregate interest, not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500) in value, in jewelry held primarily for the personal, family, or household use of the assignor or a dependent of the assignor.

(e) The assignor's aggregate interest, not to exceed in value four hundred dollars ($400) plus any unused amount of the exemption provided under subdivision (a), in any property.

(f) The assignor's aggregate interest, not to exceed seven hundred fifty dollars ($750) in value, in any implements, professional books, or tools, of the trade of the assignor or the trade of a dependent of the assignor.

(g) Any unmatured life insurance contract owned by the assignor, other than a credit life insurance contract.

(h) The assignor's aggregate interest, not to exceed in value four thousand dollars ($4,000) in any accrued dividend or interest under, or loan value of, any unmatured life insurance contract owned by the assignor under which the insured is the assignor or an individual of whom the assignor is a dependent.

(i) Professionally prescribed health aids for the assignor or a dependent of the assignor.

(j) The assignor's right to receive any of the following:

(1) A social security benefit, unemployment compensation, or a local public assistance benefit.

(2) A veterans' benefit.

(3) A disability, illness, or unemployment benefit.

(4) Alimony, support, or separate maintenance, to the extent reasonably necessary for the support of the assignor and any dependent of the assignor.

(5) A payment under a stock bonus, pension, profit sharing, annuity, or similar plan or contract on account of illness, disability, death, age, or length of service, to the extent reasonably necessary for the support of the assignor and any dependent of the assignor, unless:

(i) The plan or contract was established by or under the auspices of an employer of which the assignor was a partner, officer, director or controlling person at the time the assignor's rights under the plan or contract arose;

(ii) The payment is on account of age or length of service; and

(iii) Such plan or contract does not qualify under Section 401(a), 403(a), 403(b), 408, or 409 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (26 U.S.C. 401(a), 403(a), 403(b), 408, or 409).

(k) The assignor's right to receive, or property that is traceable to any of the following:

(1) An award under a crime victim's reparation law.

(2) A payment on account of the wrongful death of an individual of whom the assignor was a dependent, to the extent reasonably necessary for the support of the assignor and any dependent of the assignor.

(3) A payment under a life insurance contract that insured the life of an individual of whom the assignor was a dependent on the date of such individual's death, to the extent reasonably necessary for the support of the assignor and any dependent of the assignor.

(4) A payment, not to exceed seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500), on account of personal bodily injury, as compensation for pain and suffering or actual pecuniary loss (other than loss of future earnings), of the assignor or an individual of whom the assignor is a dependent.

(5) A payment in compensation of loss of future earnings of the assignor or an individual of whom the assignor is or was a dependent, to the extent reasonably necessary for the support of the assignor and any dependent of the assignor.

In this section, "dependent" includes spouse, whether or not actually dependent, "assignor" means each spouse, if the assignment is made by a married couple, and "value" means fair market value as of the date of the making of the assignment.

SEC. 82.5. Section 9301 of the Commercial Code is amended to read:

9301. (1) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (2), an unperfected security interest is subordinate to the rights of:

(a) Persons entitled to priority under Section 9312.

(b) A person who becomes a lien creditor before the security interest is perfected.

(c) In the case of goods, instruments, documents, and chattel paper, a person who is not a secured party and who is a transferee in bulk or other buyer not in ordinary course of business to the extent that he gives value and receives delivery of the collateral without knowledge of the security interest and before it is perfected.

(d) In the case of accounts and general intangibles, a person who is not a secured party and who is a transferee to the extent that he gives value without knowledge of the security interest and before it is perfected.

(2) If the secured party files with respect to a purchase money security interest before or within 10 days after the debtor receives possession of the collateral, he takes priority over the rights of a transferee in bulk or of a lien creditor which arise between the time the security interest attaches and the time of filing.

(3) A "lien creditor" means a creditor who has acquired a lien on the property involved by attachment, levy or the like, or by filing a notice of judgment lien on personal property, and includes an assignee for benefit of creditors from the time of assignment, and a trustee in bankruptcy from the date of the filing of the petition or a receiver in equity from the time of appointment.

(4) A person who becomes a lien creditor while a security interest is perfected takes subject to the security interest only to the extent that it secures advances made before he becomes a lien creditor or within 45 days thereafter or made without knowledge of the lien or pursuant to a commitment entered into without knowledge of the lien.

(5) For the purpose of subdivision (4), a secured party shall be deemed not to have knowledge of a judgment lien on personal property acquired pursuant to Section 697.510 of the Code of Civil Procedure until the time the judgment creditor serves a copy of the notice of judgment lien on the secured party personally or by mail pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 684.010) of Division 1 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure. If service on the secured party is by mail, it shall be sent to the secured party at the address shown in the financing statement or security agreement.

SEC. 82.7. Section 9304 of the Commercial Code is amended to read:

9304. (1) A security interest in chattel paper or negotiable documents may be perfected by filing. A security interest in money or instruments (other than instruments which constitute part of chattel paper) can be perfected only by the secured party's taking possession, except as provided in subdivisions (4), (5), and (7) of this section and subdivisions (2) and (3) of Section 9306 on proceeds.

(2) During the period that goods are in the possession of the issuer of a negotiable document therefor, a security interest in the goods is perfected by perfecting a security interest in the document, and any security interest in the goods otherwise perfected during such period is subject thereto.

(3) A security interest in goods in the possession of a bailee other than one who has issued a negotiable document therefor is perfected by issuance of a document in the name of the secured party or by the bailee's receipt of notification of the secured party's interest or by filing as to the goods.

(4) A security interest in instruments or negotiable documents is perfected without filing or the taking of possession for a period of 21 days from the time it attaches to the extent that it arises for new value given under a written security agreement.

(5) A security interest remains perfected for a period of 21 days without filing where a secured party having a perfected security interest in an instrument, a negotiable document or goods in possession of a bailee other than one who has issued a negotiable document therefor

(a) Makes available to the debtor the goods or documents representing the goods for the purpose of ultimate sale or exchange or for the purpose of loading, unloading, storing, shipping, transshipping, manufacturing, processing or otherwise dealing with them in a manner preliminary to their sale or exchange, but priority between conflicting security interests in the goods is subject to subdivision (3) of Section 9312; or

(b) Delivers the instrument to the debtor for the purpose of ultimate sale or exchange or of presentation, collection, renewal or registration of transfer.

(6) After the 21-day period in subdivisions (4) and (5) perfection depends upon compliance with applicable provisions of this division.

(7) If an instrument claimed as proceeds (other than cash proceeds) under Section 9306 is in the custody of a levying officer, a secured party may perfect a security interest in such instrument by filing a third-party claim with the levying officer pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 720.210) of Division 4 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure within the 10-day period allowed under Section 9306.

SEC. 82.8. Section 9306 of the Commercial Code is amended to read:

9306. (1) "Proceeds" includes whatever is received upon the sale, exchange, collection or other disposition of collateral or proceeds. Insurance payable by reason of loss or damage to the collateral is proceeds, except to the extent that it is payable to a person other than a party to the security agreement. Money, checks, deposit accounts, and the like are "cash proceeds." All other proceeds are "noncash proceeds."

(2) Except where this division otherwise provides, a security interest continues in collateral notwithstanding sale, exchange or other disposition thereof unless the disposition was authorized by the secured party in the security agreement or otherwise, and also continues in any identifiable proceeds including collections received by the debtor.

(3) The security interest in proceeds is a continuously perfected security interest if the interest in the original collateral was perfected but it ceases to be a perfected security interest and becomes unperfected 10 days after receipt of the proceeds by the debtor unless

(a) A filed financing statement covers the original collateral and the proceeds are collateral in which a security interest may be perfected by filing in the office or offices where the financing statement has been filed and, if the proceeds are acquired with cash proceeds, the description of collateral in the financing statement indicates the types of property constituting the proceeds; or

(b) A filed financing statement covers the original collateral and the proceeds are identifiable cash proceeds; or

(c) The security interest in the proceeds is perfected before the expiration of the 10-day period.

Except as provided in this section, a security interest in proceeds can be perfected only by the methods or under the circumstances permitted in this division for original collateral of the same type.

(4) In the event of insolvency proceedings instituted by or against a debtor, a secured party with a perfected security interest in proceeds has a perfected security interest only in the following proceeds

(a) In identifiable noncash proceeds and in a separate deposit account containing only proceeds;

(b) In identifiable cash proceeds in the form of money which is neither commingled with other money nor deposited in a deposit account prior to the insolvency proceedings;

(c) In identifiable cash proceeds in the form of checks and the like which are not deposited in a deposit account prior to the insolvency proceedings; and

(d) In all cash and deposit accounts of the debtor in which proceeds have been commingled with other funds, but the perfected security interest under this paragraph (d) is

(i) Subject to any right of setoff; and

(ii) Limited to an amount not greater than the amount of any cash proceeds received by the debtor within 10 days before the institution of the insolvency proceedings less the sum of (I) the payments to the secured party on account of cash proceeds received by the debtor during such period and (II) the cash proceeds received by the debtor during such period to which the secured party is entitled under paragraphs (a) through (c) of this subdivision (4).

(5) If a sale of goods results in an account or chattel paper which is transferred by the seller to a secured party, and if the goods are returned to or are repossessed by the seller or the secured party, the following rules determine priorities:

(a) If the goods were collateral at the time of sale, for an indebtedness of the seller which is still unpaid, the original security interest attaches again to the goods and continues as a perfected security interest if it was perfected at the time when the goods were sold. If the security interest was originally perfected by a filing which is still effective, nothing further is required to continue the perfected status; in any other case, the secured party must take possession of the returned or repossessed goods or must file.

(b) An unpaid transferee of the chattel paper has a security interest in the goods against the transferor. Such security interest is prior to a security interest asserted under paragraph (a) to the extent that the transferee of the chattel paper was entitled to priority under Section 9308.

(c) An unpaid transferee of the account has a security interest in the goods against the transferor. Such security interest is subordinate to a security interest asserted under paragraph (a).

(d) A security interest of an unpaid transferee asserted under paragraph (b) or (c) must be perfected for protection against creditors of the transferor and purchasers of the returned or repossessed goods.

(6) Cash proceeds retain their character as cash proceeds while in the possession of a levying officer pursuant to Title 6.5 (commencing with Section 481.010) or Title 9 (commencing with Section 680.010) of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 83. Section 9409 of the Commercial Code is amended to read:

9409. (a) Upon request of any person, the Secretary of State shall issue a combined certificate showing the information as to financing statements as specified in Section 9407 of this code, the information as to state tax liens as specified in Section 7226 of the Government Code, the information as to attachment liens as specified in Section 488.340 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the information as to judgment liens as specified in Section 697.580 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and, if the name requested appears to be other than an individual, the information as to federal liens as specified in Section 2103 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The fee for such a combined certificate is five dollars ($5).

(b) The Secretary of State shall construe a request for a certificate as one for a combined certificate pursuant to this section unless the request is specifically limited to federal liens, state tax liens, judgment liens, or attachment liens.

SEC. 83.5. Section 9504 of the Commercial Code is amended to read:

9504. (1) A secured party after default may sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any or all of the collateral in its then condition or following any commercially reasonable preparation or processing. Any sale of goods is subject to the division on sales (Division 2). The proceeds of disposition shall be applied in the order following to

(a) The reasonable expenses of retaking, holding, preparing for sale or lease, selling, leasing and the like and, to the extent provided for in the agreement and not prohibited by law, the reasonable attorneys' fees and legal expenses incurred by the secured party;

(b) The satisfaction of indebtedness secured by the security interest under which the disposition is made;

(c) The satisfaction of indebtedness secured by any subordinate security interest in the collateral if written notification of demand therefor is received before distribution of the proceeds is completed and to the satisfaction of any subordinate attachment lien or execution lien pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 701.040 of the Code of Civil Procedure if notice of the levy of attachment or execution is received before distribution of the proceeds is completed. If requested by the secured party, the holder of a subordinate security interest must seasonably furnish reasonable proof of his interest, and unless he does so, the secured party need not comply with his demand.

(2) If the security interest secures an indebtedness, the secured party must account to the debtor for any surplus except as provided in Section 701.040 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and, unless otherwise agreed, the debtor is liable for any deficiency. But if the underlying transaction was a sale of accounts or chattel paper, the debtor is entitled to any surplus or is liable for any deficiency only if the security agreement so provides and the provisions of Section 701.040 of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to payment of proceeds and the liability of the secured party apply only if the security agreement provides that the debtor is entitled to any surplus.

(3) A sale or lease of collateral may be as a unit or in parcels, at wholesale or retail and at any time and place and on any terms, provided the secured party acts in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner. Unless collateral is perishable or threatens to decline speedily in value or is of a type customarily sold on a recognized market, the secured party must give to the debtor, if he has not signed after default a statement renouncing or modifying his right to notification of sale, and to any other person who has a security interest in the collateral and who has filed with the secured party a written request for notice giving his address (before that secured party sends his notification to the debtor or before debtor's renunciation of his rights), a notice in writing of the time and place of any public sale or of the time on or after which any private sale or other intended disposition is to be made. Such notice must be delivered personally or be deposited in the United States mail postage prepaid addressed to the debtor at his address as set forth in the financing statement or as set forth in the security agreement or at such other address as may have been furnished to the secured party in writing for this purpose, or, if no address has been so set forth or furnished, at his last known address, and to any other secured party at the address set forth in his request for notice, at least five days before the date fixed for any public sale or before the day on or after which any private sale or other disposition is to be made. Notice of the time and place of a public sale shall also be given at least five days before the date of sale by publication once in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which the sale is to be held. Any public sale shall be held in the county or place specified in the security agreement, or if no county or place is specified in the security agreement, in the county in which the collateral or any part thereof is located or in the county in which the debtor has his residence or chief place of business, or in the county in which the secured party has his residence or a place of business if the debtor does not have a residence or chief place of business within this state. If the collateral is located outside of this state or has been removed from this state, a public sale may be held in the locality in which the collateral is located. Any public sale may be postponed from time to time by public announcement at the time and place last scheduled for the sale. The secured party may buy at any public sale and if the collateral is customarily sold in a recognized market or is the subject of widely or regularly distributed standard price quotations he may buy at private sale. Any sale of which notice is delivered or mailed and published as herein provided and which is held as herein provided is a public sale.

(4) When collateral is disposed of by a secured party after default, the disposition transfers to a purchaser for value all of the debtor's rights therein, discharges the security interest under which it is made and any security interest or lien subordinate thereto. The purchaser takes free of all such rights and interest even though the secured party fails to comply with the requirements of this chapter or of any judicial proceedings

(a) In the case of a public sale, if the purchaser has no knowledge of any defects in the sale and if he does not buy in collusion with the secured party, other bidders or the person conducting the sale; or

(b) In any other case, if the purchaser acts in good faith.

(5) A person who is liable to a secured party under a guaranty, indorsement, repurchase agreement or the like and who receives a transfer of collateral from the secured party or is subrogated to his rights has thereafter the rights and duties of the secured party. Such a transfer of collateral is not a sale or disposition of the collateral under this division.

SEC. 84. Section 15025 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

15025. (1) A partner is coowner with the other partners of specific partnership property holding as a tenant in partnership.

(2) The incidents of this tenancy are such that:

(a) A partner, subject to the provisions of this chapter and to any agreement between the partners, has an equal right with the other partners to possess specific partnership property for partnership purposes; but a partner has no right to possess such property for any other purpose without the consent of the other partners.

(b) A partner's right in specific partnership property is not assignable except in connection with the assignment of rights of all the partners in the same property.

(c) A partner's right in specific partnership property is not subject to enforcement of a money judgment, except on a claim against the partnership. When partnership property is levied upon for a partnership debt, the partners, or any of them, or the representatives of a deceased partner, cannot claim any right under the exemption laws.

(d) On the death of a partner, the partner's right in specific partnership property vests in the surviving partner or partners, except where the deceased was the last surviving partner, when the deceased partner's right in such property vests in his or her legal representative. Such surviving partner or partners, or the legal representative of the last surviving partner, has no right to possess the partnership property for any but a partnership purpose.

(e) A partner's right in specific partnership property is not subject to dower, curtesy, or allowances to widows, heirs, or next of kin, and is not community property.

SEC. 85. Section 24002 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

24002. A money judgment against an unincorporated association may be enforced only against the property of the association.

SEC. 86. Section 22005 of the Education Code is amended to read:

22005. The right of a person to an annuity, a retirement salary, or a retirement allowance, to the return of contributions, the annuity, retirement salary, or retirement allowance itself, any optional benefit, any other right or benefit accrued or accruing to any person under this part, and the moneys in the fund created under this part are not subject to execution or any other process whatsoever except to the extent permitted by Section 704.110 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and are unassignable except as specifically provided in this part.

SEC. 87. Section 864 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

864. (a) For the purposes of this section:

(1) "Customer" means one or more natural persons.

(2) "Debt" means an interest-bearing obligation or an obligation which by its terms is payable in installments, which has not been reduced to judgment, arising from an extension of credit to a natural person primarily for personal, family, or household purposes, and does not mean a charge for bank services or a debit for uncollected funds or for an overdraft of an account imposed by a bank on a deposit account.

(b) A bank is limited in exercising any setoff for a debt claimed to be owed to the bank by a customer in that a setoff shall not result in an aggregate balance of less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) as shown on the records of the bank for all demand deposit accounts maintained by a customer with the bank or any branch thereof.

(c) Not later than the day following the exercise of any setoff with respect to a deposit account for any debt claimed to be owed to the bank by a customer, the bank shall deliver to each customer personally or send by first-class mail postage prepaid to the address of each customer as shown on the records of the bank a written notice in at least 10-point type containing the following:

(1) A statement that the bank has set off a debt or a portion thereof against the customer's deposit account, identifying the account, and giving the respective balances before and after the setoff.

(2) A statement identifying the debt set off against the account and giving the respective balances due before and after the setoff.

(3) A statement that if the customer claims that the debt has been paid or is not now owing, or that the funds in the deposit account consist of moneys expressly exempt pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 703.010) of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and listed in the notice, the customer may execute and return the notice to the bank by mail at the address shown or personally to the bank branch where the customer's account is maintained not later than 20 days after the date of mailing or personal delivery.

(4) A statement that if the notice is executed and returned, the bank may file an action in court to collect the debt; that if a lawsuit is filed, the customer will be notified and have an opportunity to appear and defend; and that if the bank is successful, the customer will be liable for court costs, and attorney's fees, if the debt so provides.

(5) A response form in at least 10-point type containing substantially the following:

"The debt described in the Notice of Setoff received from the bank is _____ is not _____ my debt or the debt of another person in whose name the account is maintained.

"I claim that the debt:

_____has been paid.

_____is not now owing.

_____is not subject to setoff because the money in the account is:

_____Paid earnings (CCP 704.070)

_____Proceeds from execution sale of or insurance for loss of a motor vehicle (CCP 704.010)

_____Proceeds from execution sale of household furnishings or other personal effects (CCP 704.020)

_____Relocation benefits (CCP 704.180)

_____Life insurance proceeds (CCP 704.100)

_____Disability and health insurance benefits (CCP 704.130)

_____Unemployment or strike benefits (CCP 704.120)

_____Retirement benefits including, but not limited to, social security benefits (CCP 704.080, 704.110, 704.115)

_____Public assistance benefits including welfare payments and supplemental security income (SSI) or charitable aid (CCP 704.170)

_____Proceeds from sale of or insurance for damage or destruction of a dwelling (CCP 704.720)

_____Proceeds from execution sale of or insurance for loss of tools of a trade (CCP 704.060)

_____Award of damages for personal injury (CCP 704.140) or wrongful death (CCP 704.150)

"I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

(Customer)

(d) If the response form described in subdivision (c) executed by the customer is received by the bank not later than 20 days after the date of mailing or personal delivery of the written notice, the amount of the setoff for any debt claimed to be owed to the bank by a customer, and any bank service charges resulting from the setoff, shall be reversed and such amount shall be credited to the deposit account not later than the end of the business day following receipt of such executed response form.

(e) The limitations provided in this section do not apply to a deposit account, other than a demand deposit account, in which the bank has a security interest expressed by a written contract as collateral for the debt owing to the bank by the customer.

(f) The limitations provided in this section do not apply when a customer previously has authorized a bank in writing to periodically debit a deposit account as the agreed method of payment of the debt.

(g) The limitations provided in this section shall apply only to the exercise by a bank a setoff with respect to debts claimed to be owing to it by customers on or after July 1, 1976.

(h) Nothing in this section shall prejudice a person's right to assert exemptions under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 703.010) of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, or to assert a claim or defense as to the validity of the debt, in a judicial proceeding.

SEC. 88. Section 1875 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1875. No funds, less fees due agents, received by any agent of a licensee from the sale of travelers checks issued by such licensee, while held by such agent, nor any property impressed with a trust pursuant to Section 1874 shall be subject to enforcement of a money judgment or sequestration by order of any court, except by such licensee.

SEC. 89. Section 3105 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3105. No attachment shall be issued against the property of any bank or trust company.

SEC. 90. Section 7609.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

7609.5. (a) For the purposes of this section:

(1) "Customer" means one or more natural persons.

(2) "Debt" means an interest-bearing obligation or an obligation which by its terms is payable in installments, which has not been reduced to judgment, arising from an extension of credit to a natural person primarily for personal, family, or household purposes, and does not mean a charge for savings and loan services or a debit for uncollected funds or for an overdraft account imposed by a savings and loan association on a deposit account.

(3) "Deposit account" includes investment certificate, share account and withdrawable share.

(b) A savings and loan association is limited in exercising any setoff for a debt claimed to be owed to the savings and loan association by a customer in that a setoff shall not result in an aggregate balance of less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) as shown on the records of the savings and loan association for all demand deposit accounts maintained by a customer with the savings and loan association or any branch thereof.

(c) Not later than the day following the exercise of any setoff with respect to a deposit account for any debt claimed to be owed to the savings and loan association by a customer, the savings and loan association shall deliver to each customer personally or send by first-class mail postage prepaid to the address of each customer as shown on the records of the savings and loan association a written notice in at least 10-point type containing the following:

(1) A statement that the savings and loan association has set off a debt or a portion thereof against the customer's deposit account, identifying the account, and giving the respective balances before and after the setoff.

(2) A statement identifying the debt set off against the account and giving the respective balances due before and after the setoff.

(3) A statement that if the customer claims that the debt has been paid or is not now owing, or that the funds in the deposit account consist of moneys expressly exempt pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 703.010) of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and listed in the notice, the customer may execute and return the notice to the savings and loan association by mail at the address shown or personally to the savings and loan branch where the customer's account is maintained not later than 20 days after the date of mailing or personal delivery.

(4) A statement that if the notice is executed and returned, the savings and loan association may file an action in court to collect the debt; that if a lawsuit is filed, the customer will be notified and have an opportunity to appear and defend; and that if the savings and loan association is successful, the customer will be liable for court costs, and attorney's fees, if the debt so provides.

(5) A response form in at least 10-point type containing substantially the following:

"The debt described in the Notice of Setoff received from the savings and loan association is _____ is not _____ my debt or the debt of another person in whose name the account is maintained.

"I claim that the debt:

(Customer)

(d) If the response form described in subdivision (c) executed by the customer is received by the savings and loan association not later than 20 days after the date of mailing or personal delivery of the written notice, the amount of the setoff for any debt claimed to be owed to the savings and loan association by a customer, and any savings and loan association service charges resulting from the setoff, shall be reversed and such amount shall be credited to the deposit account not later than the end of the business day following receipt of such executed response form.

(e) The limitations provided in this section do not apply to a deposit account in which the savings and loan association has a security interest expressed by a written contract as collateral for the debt owing to the savings and loan association by the customer.

(f) The limitations provided in this section do not apply when a customer previously has authorized a savings and loan association in writing to periodically debit a deposit account as the agreed method of payment of the debt.

(g) The limitations provided in this section shall apply only to the exercise by a savings and loan association of a setoff with respect to debts claimed to be owing to it by customers on or after July 1, 1976.

(h) Nothing in this section shall prejudice a person's right to assert exemptions under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 703.010) of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, or to assert a claim or defense as to the validity of the debt, in a judicial proceeding.

SEC. 91. Section 11209 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

11209. No attachment shall be issued against such association or its property in any suit, action or proceeding arising out of the claim of any holder of shares or share accounts to withdraw.

SEC. 92. Section 14864 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14864. The shares and certificates for funds received of members of any credit union and all the accumulation on such shares and certificates are exempt from enforcement of a money judgment in the amount and in the manner provided in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 703.010) of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 93. Section 17410 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17410. (a) Escrow or trust funds are not subject to enforcement of a money judgment arising out of any claim against the licensee or person acting as escrow agent, and in no instance shall such escrow or trust funds be considered or treated as an asset of the licensee or person performing the functions of an escrow agent.

(b) Interest paid or payable on funds deposited in escrow by a licensee are not subject to enforcement of a money judgment arising out of any claim against the licensee or person acting as escrow agent.

SEC. 94. Section 965.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

965.5. (a) A judgment for the payment of money against the state or a state agency is enforceable until 10 years after the time the judgment becomes final or, if the judgment is payable in installments, until 10 years after the final installment becomes due.

(b) A judgment for the payment of money against the state or a state agency is not enforceable under Title 9 (commencing with Section 680.010) of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure but is enforceable under this chapter.

SEC. 95. Section 970.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

970.1. (a) A judgment is enforceable until 10 years after the time the judgment becomes final or, if the judgment is payable in installments, until 10 years after the final installment becomes due.

(b) A judgment, whether or not final, is not enforceable under Title 9 (commencing with Section 680.010) of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure but is enforceable under this article after it becomes final.

SEC. 96. Section 1587 of the Government Code is amended to read:

1587. If separate judgments are recovered on the bonds for the same cause of action, the injured party may enforce both judgments, but may only collect, by execution or otherwise, the costs of both suits and the amount actually adjudged on the same causes of action in one of the suits.

SEC. 97. Section 6103.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

6103.2. Section 6103 does not apply to any fee or charge or expense for official services rendered by a sheriff, marshal or constable in connection with the levy of writs of attachment, execution, possession, or sale. Such fee, charge or expense may be advanced to the sheriff, marshal, or constable, as otherwise required by law.

SEC. 98. Section 7170 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7170. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c), a state tax lien attaches to all property and rights to property whether real or personal, tangible or intangible, including all after-acquired property and rights to property, belonging to the taxpayer and located in this state.

(b) A state tax lien is not valid as to real property against the right, title, or interest of any of the following persons where the person's right, title, or interest was acquired or perfected prior to recording of the notice of state tax lien in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the real property is located pursuant to Section 7171:

(1) A successor in interest of the taxpayer without knowledge of the lien.

(2) A holder of a security interest.

(3) A mechanic's lienor.

(4) A judgment lien creditor.

(c) A state tax lien is not valid as to personal property against:

(1) The holder of a security interest in the property whose interest is perfected pursuant to Section 9303 of the Commercial Code prior to the time the notice of the state tax lien is filed with the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 7171.

(2) Any person (other than the taxpayer) who acquires an interest in the property under the law of this state without knowledge of the lien or who perfects an interest in accordance with the law of this state prior to the time that the notice of state tax lien is filed with the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 7171.

(3) A buyer in ordinary course of business who, under Section 9307 of the Commercial Code, would take free of a security interest created by the seller.

(4) Any person (other than the taxpayer) who, notwithstanding the prior filing of the notice of the state tax lien:

(A) Is a holder in due course of a negotiable instrument.

(B) Is a holder to whom a negotiable document of title has been duly negotiated.

(C) Is a bona fide purchaser of a security.

(D) Is a purchaser of chattel paper or an instrument who gives new value and takes possession of the chattel paper or instrument in the ordinary course of business.

(I) Acquires without actual knowledge of the state tax lien a security interest in or a claim in or under any policy of insurance including unearned premiums.

(J) Acquires any right or interest in property subject to a certificate of title statute of another jurisdiction under the law of which indication of a security interest on the certificate of title is required as a condition of perfection of the security interest.

(5) A judgment lien creditor whose lien was created by the filing of a notice of judgment lien on personal property with the Secretary of State prior to the time the notice of state tax lien is filed with the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 7171.

SEC. 99. Section 7173 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7173. (a) If the taxpayer is a party to an action or special proceeding in which the taxpayer may become entitled to property or a money judgment, a state tax lien extends to the taxpayer's cause of action and any judgment in favor of the taxpayer subsequently procured in the action or proceeding. Notice of the lien shall be given to all parties who, prior thereto, have made an appearance in the action or proceeding. The lien has priority from the time of filing of the notice in the action or proceeding.

(b) No compromise, dismissal, settlement, or satisfaction shall be entered into by or on behalf of the taxpayer with any other party, lienor, or intervenor in the action or proceeding without the consent of the agency unless the lien is sooner released or otherwise discharged; but, until a person receives notice of the lien under subdivision (a) or has actual notice of the lien, the rights of the person are not affected by this subdivision.

(c) The court clerk shall endorse upon the judgment recovered in the action or proceeding a statement of the existence of the lien and the time of the filing of the notice in the action or proceeding. Any abstract issued on the judgment shall include a statement of the lien in favor of the agency.

SEC. 100. Section 9359.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

9359.3. The right of a person to any benefit or other right under this chapter and the money in the Legislators' Retirement Fund are not subject to execution or any other process whatsoever except to the extent permitted by Section 704.110 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and are unassignable except as specifically provided in this chapter.

SEC. 101. Section 16211.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

16211.5. (a) In the event that the real property securing the state's lien provided for in Article 1 (commencing with Section 16180) is the residential dwelling of a claimant under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 20581) of Part 10.5 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code and is voluntarily sold, the funds derived from the voluntary sale of the residential dwelling shall be placed in an impound account for a period of six months. In connection with the establishment of such account, the Controller shall release the state's lien in the manner prescribed by Section 16186.

(b) The claimant under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 20581) of Part 10.5 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code whose residential dwelling was voluntarily sold may draw upon the amount in the account to purchase a new residential dwelling, and the amount so drawn shall be secured by a new lien against the new residential dwelling from the time the Controller records the new lien against the new residential dwelling as provided for under Section 16182.

The Controller shall subordinate such new lien to the note and deed of trust of the purchase money obligations used in the acquisition of the new residential dwelling, provided the claimant has an equity of at least 20 percent of the full value of the property, as required by paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 20583 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, prior to recordation of such subordination. Such lien shall have priority over all subsequent liens, except as provided in Section 2192.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

SEC. 102. Section 21201 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21201. The right of a person to any benefit or other right under this part and the money in the retirement fund are not subject to execution or any process whatsoever except to the extent permitted by Section 704.110 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and are unassignable, except as specifically provided in this part.

cost to the division except for keeper's fees, service fees, and storage charges.

SEC. 131. Section 270.5 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

270.5. (a) No person, agent or officer thereof, or logging contractor, or sawmill operations contractor, engaged in the business of logging or operating a sawmill for converting logs into lumber, except in the case of logging or sawmill operations of persons having a free and unencumbered title to the fee of real property in this state, of a market value sufficient to pay the wages of every person employed in connection with such operations in any period for which a single payment of wages is made, shall fail or neglect, before commencing work in any period for which such single payment of wages is made, or for four calendar weeks, whichever is the longer, to do one of the following:

(1) Have on hand or on deposit with a bank or trust company, in the county where such business is conducted, or if there is no bank or trust company in the county, then in the bank or trust company nearest such operations, cash or readily salable securities of a market value sufficient to pay the wages of every person employed in connection with such operations for such period.

(2) Deposit with the Labor Commissioner the bond of a surety company authorized to do business within the state, acceptable to the Labor Commissioner, conditioned upon the payment of all wages found by the Labor Commissioner to be due and unpaid in connection with such operations.

(b) The cash and securities on deposit referred to in subdivision (a) shall not be commingled with other deposits, securities or property of the employer and shall be held in trust and shall not be used for any other purpose than paying the wages due employees. Such moneys so held in trust are not subject to the enforcement of a money judgment by any other creditor of the employer.

(c) Any person, agent or officer thereof, or logging contractor, or sawmill operations contractor, who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 132. Section 270.6 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

270.6. (a) No person or agent or officer thereof, without a permanent and fixed place of business or residence in this state who uses or employs any person in the door-to-door selling of any merchandise, or in any similar itinerant activity, or in any telephone solicitation, shall fail or neglect before commencing work in any period for which any single payment of wages is made or for four calendar weeks, whichever is longer, to do one of the following:

(1) Have on hand or on deposit with a bank or trust company in the county where such business is conducted, or if there is no bank or trust company in the county, then in the bank or trust company nearest such operations, cash or readily salable securities of a market value sufficient to pay the wages of every person employed in connection with such operations for such period, or

(2) Deposit with the Labor Commissioner the bond of a surety

company authorized to do business within the state, acceptable to the Labor Commisioner, conditioned upon the payment of all wages found to be due and unpaid in connection with such operations under any provision of this code, or

(3) Deposit with the Labor Commissioner a time certificate of deposit indicating that the person, agent or officer subject to the provisions of this section has deposited with a bank or trust company cash payable to the order of the Labor Commissioner sufficient to pay the wages of every person employed in connection with such operations for such period.

(b) The cash and securities on deposit referred to in subdivision (a) shall not be commingled with other deposits, securities, or property of the employer and shall be held in trust and shall not be used for any other purpose than paying the wages due employees. Such moneys so held in trust are not subject to enforcement of a money judgment by any other creditor of the employer.

(c) Any person, or agent or officer thereof, who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 132.5. Section 300 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

300. (a) As used in this section, the phrase "assignment of wages" includes the sale or assignment of, or giving of an order for, wages or salary but does not include an order or assignment made pursuant to Section 4701 or 4801.6 of the Civil Code or Section 3088 of the Probate Code.

(b) No assignment of wages, earned or to be earned, is valid unless all of the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) The assignment is contained in a separate written instrument, signed by the person by whom the wages or salary have been earned or are to be earned, and identifying specifically the transaction to which the assignment relates.

(2) Where the assignment is made by a married person, the written consent of the spouse of the person making the assignment is attached to the assignment. No such consent is required of any married person (i) after entry of a judgment decreeing a legal separation from such person's spouse or (ii) if the married person and the spouse of the married person are living separate and apart after entry of an interlocutory judgment of dissolution of their marriage, if a written statement by the person making the assignment, setting forth such facts, is attached to or included in the assignment.

(3) Where the assignment is made by a minor, the written consent of a parent or guardian of the minor is attached to the assignment.

(4) Where the assignment is made by a person who is unmarried or who is an adult or who is both unmarried and an adult, a written statement by the person making the assignment, setting forth such facts, is attached to or included in the assignment.

(5) No other assignment exists in connection with the same transaction or series of transactions and a written statement by the person making the assignment to that effect is attached to or included in the assignment.

(6) A copy of the assignment and of the written statement provided for in paragraphs (2), (4), and (5), authenticated by a notary public, is filed with the employer, accompanied by an itemized statement of the amount then due to the assignee.

(7) At the time the assignment is filed with the employer, no other assignment of wages of the employee is subject to payment and no earnings withholding order against the employee's wages or salary is in force.

(c) Under any assignment of wages, a sum not to exceed 50 per centum of the assignor's wages or salary shall be withheld by, and be collectible from, the assignor's employer at the time of each payment of such wages or salary.

(d) The employer is entitled to rely upon the statements of fact in the written statement provided for in paragraphs (2), (4), and (5) of subdivision (b), without the necessity of inquiring into the truth thereof, and the employer shall incur no liability whatsoever by reason of any payments made by the employer to an assignee under any assignment in reliance upon the facts so stated.

(e) An assignment of wages to be earned is revocable at any time by the maker thereof. Any power of attorney to assign or collect wages or salary is revocable at any time by the maker thereof. No revocation of such an assignment or power of attorney is effective as to the employer until the employer receives written notice of revocation from the maker.

(f) No assignment of wages, earned or to be earned, is valid under any circumstances if the wages or salary earned or to be earned are paid under a plan for payment at a central place or places established under the provisions of Section 204a.

(g) This section does not apply to deductions which the employer may be requested by the employee to make for the payment of life, retirement, disability or unemployment insurance premiums, for the payment of taxes owing from the employee, for contribution to funds, plans or systems providing for death, retirement, disability, unemployment, or other benefits, for the payment for goods or services furnished by the employer to the employee or the employee's family at the request of the employee, or for charitable, educational, patriotic or similar purposes.

(h) No assignment of wages is valid unless at the time of the making thereof, such wages or salary have been earned, except for necessities of life and then only to the person or persons furnishing such necessities of life directly and then only for the amount needed to furnish such necessities.

SEC. 133. Section 404 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

404. Any money put up as a bond under Sections 401, 402 and 403:

(a) Is not subject to enforcement of a money judgment except in an action between the employer and the employee or applicant, or their successors or assigns.

(b) Shall be returned to the employee or applicant together with accrued interest thereon, immediately upon the return of the money or property entrusted to the employee or applicant and upon the fulfillment of the agreement, subject only to the deduction necessary to balance accounts between the employer and employee or applicant.

SEC. 134. Section 3862 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3862. Any employer entitled to and who has been allowed and has perfected a lien upon the judgment or award in favor of an employee against any third party for damages occasioned to the same employer by payment of compensation, expenses of medical treatment, and any other charges under this act, may enforce payment of the lien against the third party, or, in case the damages recovered by the employee have been paid to the employee, against the employee to the extent of the lien, in the manner provided for enforcement of money judgments generally.

SEC. 135. Section 597e of the Penal Code is amended to read:

597e. Any person who impounds, or causes to be impounded in any pound, any domestic animal, shall supply it during such confinement with a sufficient quantity of good and wholesome food and water, and in default thereof, is guilty of a misdemeanor. In case any domestic animal is at any time so impounded and continues to be without necessary food and water for more than 12 consecutive hours, it is lawful for any person, from time to time, as may be deemed necessary, to enter into and upon any pound in which the animal is confined, and supply it with necessary food and water so long as it remains so confined. Such person is not liable for the entry and may collect the reasonable cost of the food and water from the owner of the animal, and the animal is subject to enforcement of a money judgment for the reasonable cost of such food and water.

SEC. 136. Section 987.8 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

987.8. (a) In any case in which a defendant is provided legal assistance, either through the public defender or private counsel appointed by the court, upon conclusion of the criminal proceedings in the trial court, the court may, after a hearing, make a determination of the present ability of the defendant to pay all or a portion of the cost thereof. The court may, in its discretion, hold one such additional hearing within six months of the conclusion of the criminal proceedings. The court may, in its discretion, order the defendant to appear before a county officer designated by the court to make an inquiry into the ability of the defendant to pay all or a portion of the legal assistance provided. At a hearing, the defendant shall be entitled to have, but shall not be limited to, the opportunity to be heard in person, to present witnesses and other documentary evidence, and to confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses; disclosure of the evidence against the defendant, and a written statement of the findings of the court. If the court determines that the defendant has the present ability to pay all or part of the cost, the court shall set the amount to be reimbursed and order the defendant to pay that sum to the county in the manner in which the court believes reasonable and compatible with the defendant's financial ability. The order to pay all or part of the costs may be enforced in the manner provided for enforcement of money judgments generally but may not be enforced by contempt.

(b) Prior to the furnishing of counsel or legal assistance by the court, the court shall give notice to the defendant that upon the conclusion of the criminal proceedings in the trial court, the court may, after a hearing, make a determination of the present ability of the defendant to pay all or a portion of the cost of counsel. The court shall also give notice that, if the court determines that the defendant has such present ability, the court shall order the defendant to pay all or part of such cost. The notice shall inform the defendant that the order shall have the same force and effect as a judgment in a civil action and shall be subject to enforcement against the property of the defendant the same as any other money judgment.

(c) Definitions:

(1) The term "legal assistance provided" means legal counsel and supportive services including, but not limited to, medical and psychiatric examinations, investigative services, expert testimony and any other form of services provided to assist the defendant in the preparation and presentation of the defendant's case.

(2) The term "ability to pay" means the overall capability of the defendant to reimburse the costs, or a portion of the costs, of the legal assistance provided, and shall include, but not be limited to the defendant's:

(i) Present financial position;

(ii) Reasonably discernible future financial position. In no event shall the court consider a period of more than six months from the date of the hearing for purposes of determining reasonably discernible future financial position. Unless the court finds unusual circumstances, a defendant sentenced to state prison shall be determined not to have a reasonably discernible future financial ability to reimburse the costs of the defendant's defense;

(iii) Likelihood that the defendant shall be able to obtain employment within a six month period from the date of the hearing.

(iv) Any other factor or factors which may bear upon the defendant's financial capability to reimburse the county for the costs of the legal assistance provided.

(d) At any time during the pendency of the judgment rendered according to the terms of this section, a defendant against whom a judgment has been rendered may petition the rendering court to modify or vacate its previous judgment on the grounds of a change in circumstances with regard to the defendant's ability to pay the judgment. The court shall advise the defendant of this right at the time of rendering the judgment.

SEC. 137. Section 1206 of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 138. Section 1214 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1214. If the judgment is for a fine with or without imprisonment, the judgment may be enforced in the manner provided for the enforcement of money judgments generally.

SEC. 139. Section 1306 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1306. (a) When any bond is forfeited and the period of time specified in Section 1305 has elapsed without the forfeiture having been set aside, the court which has declared the forfeiture, regardless of the amount of the bail, shall enter a summary judgment against each bondsman named in the bond in the amount for which the bondsman is bound. In no event shall the judgment exceed the amount of the bond, with costs, and notwithstanding any other provision of law, no penalty assessments shall be levied or added to the judgment.

(b) If, because of the failure of any court to promptly perform the duties enjoined upon it pursuant to this section, summary judgment is not entered within 90 days after the date upon which it may first be entered, the right to do so expires and the bail is exonerated.

(c) A dismissal of the complaint, indictment or information after the default of the defendant shall not release or affect the obligation of the bail bond or undertaking.

(d) The district attorney or civil legal adviser of the board of supervisors shall:

(1) Demand immediate payment of the judgment within five days after the summary judgment becomes final.

(2) If the judgment remains unpaid for a period of 20 days after demand has been made, shall forthwith enforce the judgment in the manner provided for enforcement of money judgments generally.

(e) The right to enforce a summary judgment entered against a bondsman pursuant to this section shall expire two years after the entry of the judgment.

SEC. 140. Section 1397 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1397. When a fine is imposed upon a corporation on conviction, it may be collected by virtue of the order imposing it in the manner provided for enforcement of money judgments generally.

SEC. 141. Section 1448 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1448. If the prosecutor does not pay the costs, or give security therefor, the court may enter judgment against the prosecutor for the amount thereof, which may be enforced in the manner provided for enforcement of money judgments generally.

SEC. 141.1. Section 205 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

205. (a) Except as provided by Section 951.1, upon the death of a married person, the surviving spouse is personally liable for the debts of the deceased spouse chargeable against the community property and the debts of the deceased spouse chargeable against the separate property of the deceased spouse to the extent such separate property is characterized as quasi-community property under Section 201.5 by the provisions of Title 8 (commencing with Section 5100) of Part 5 of Division 4 of the Civil Code, unless the interests of both spouses in the community property or quasi-community property, or both, are administered under Division 3 (commencing with Section 300). The personal liability shall not exceed the value at the date of death, less the amount of any liens and encumbrances, of the interest of the surviving spouse (1) in the community property immediately prior to the death and (2) in quasi-community property arising by virtue of the death which is not exempt from enforcement of a money judgment plus the interest of the deceased spouse in such property passing to the surviving spouse without administration.

(b) If proceedings are commenced in this state for the administration of the estate of the deceased spouse and the time for filing or presenting claims has commenced, any action upon the liability of the surviving spouse pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be barred to the same extent as provided for claims under Article 1 (commencing with Section 700) of Chapter 12 of Division 3 except as to the following:

(1) Creditors who had commenced judicial proceedings for the enforcement of the debts and had served the surviving spouse with process prior to the expiration of the time for filing or presenting claims.

(2) Creditors who secure the acknowledgment in writing of the liability of the surviving spouse for the debts.

(3) Creditors who file a timely claim in the proceedings.

(c) Except as provided by subdivision (b), any debt described in subdivision (a) may be enforced against the surviving spouse in the same manner as it could have been enforced against the deceased spouse if the deceased spouse had not died. In any action based upon the debt, the surviving spouse may assert any defenses, counterclaims, or setoffs which would have been available to the deceased spouse if the deceased spouse had not died.

SEC. 141.3. Section 660 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

660. (a) Until the inventory is filed and for a period of 60 days thereafter or such other period as is ordered by the court for good cause, the decedent's surviving spouse and minor children are entitled to remain in possession of the family dwelling, the wearing apparel of the family, the household furniture and other property of the decedent exempt from enforcement of a money judgment.

(b) Upon the filing of the inventory or at any subsequent time during the administration, the court, on petition therefor, may in its discretion:

(1) Set apart to the surviving spouse, or, in case of his or her death, to the minor children of the decedent, all or any part of the property of the decedent exempt from enforcement of a money judgment other than the dwelling.

(2) Select and set apart one homestead in the manner provided in this article.

SEC. 141.5. Section 663 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

663. (a) Property of the decedent set apart as a homestead is liable for claims against the estate of the decedent, subject to the homestead right. The homestead right in property of the decedent is liable for claims that are secured by liens and encumbrances on the property at the time of the decedent's death but is exempt to the extent of the homestead exemption provided by Article 4 (commencing with Section 704.710) of Chapter 4 of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure as to any claim that would have been subject to such homestead exemption at the time of the decedent's death.

(b) The homestead right in the property of the decedent is not liable for claims against the person for whose use the homestead is set apart.

(c) Property of the decedent set apart as a homestead is liable for claims against the testate or intestate successors of the decedent or other successors to the property after administration, subject to the homestead right.

SEC. 141.7. Section 704.2 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

704.2. A claim may be filed by the surviving spouse or the personal representative, guardian of the estate, or conservator of the estate of the surviving spouse for the payment of the debts of the deceased spouse described in Section 205. The claim must be filed prior to the filing of a petition for final distribution. It shall set forth the reason why the debts are not barred by subdivision (b) of Section 205 and a statement whether the debts remain unpaid or have been paid by the surviving spouse. If the surviving spouse is personally liable for the debts, the claim shall also include an inventory of the separate property of the surviving spouse and any community property not administered in the estate and a statement of the value of the property less the amount of the liens and encumbrances upon the property as of the date of death of the deceased spouse. The statement may identify any property which is exempt from enforcement of a money judgment.

SEC. 141.9. Section 704.4 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

704.4. If any community property is administered in the estate, the surviving spouse or the personal representative, guardian of the estate, or conservator of the estate of the surviving spouse may file a claim against the estate for the payment of the debts of the surviving spouse for which the community property is liable. The claim must be filed prior to the filing of a petition for final distribution. It shall include a statement whether the debts remain unpaid or have been paid by the surviving spouse. It shall also include an inventory of the separate property of the surviving spouse and any community property not administered in the estate and a statement of the value of the property less the amount of the liens and encumbrances upon the property as of the date of death of the deceased spouse. The statement may identify any property which is exempt from enforcement of a money judgment.

SEC. 142. Section 732.5 of the Probate Code is repealed.

SEC. 143. Section 734 of the Probate Code is repealed.

SEC. 144. Section 954 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

954. When an order is made for the payment of creditors, the executor or administrator is personally liable to each creditor for the creditor's allowed claim, or the dividend thereon. The order may be enforced in the manner provided for the enforcement of money judgments generally. The executor or administrator is liable therefor on his bond to each creditor.

SEC. 145. The heading of Part 6 (commencing with Section 3000) of Division 4 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

PART 6. MANAGEMENT OR DISPOSITION OF COMMUNITY PROPERTY WHERE SPOUSE LACKS LEGAL CAPACITY

CHAPTER 1. DEFINITIONS AND GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1. Definitions

SEC. 146. Section 3002 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

3002. "Community property" means community real property and community personal property, including but not limited to a community property business that is or was under the sole management and control of one of the spouses, but does not include community property in a revocable trust described in Section 5113.5 of the Civil Code.

SEC. 147. Section 3010 of the Probate Code is repealed.

SEC. 148. Section 3012 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

3012. (a) Unless the spouse lacks legal capacity under the applicable standard prescribed in subdivision (b), a spouse has legal capacity to:

(1) Manage and control community property, including legal capacity to dispose of community property.

(2) Join in or consent to a transaction involving community property.

(b) A spouse lacks legal capacity to:

(1) Manage and control, including legal capacity to dispose of, community property if the spouse is substantially unable to manage or control the community property.

(2) Join in or consent to a transaction involving community property if the spouse does not have legal capacity for the particular transaction measured by principles of law otherwise applicable to the particular transaction.

(3) Do any act, or engage in any activity, described in paragraph (1) or (2) if the spouse has a conservator.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to deny a spouse, whether or not lacking legal capacity, any of the following:

(1) The right to control an allowance provided under Section 2421.

(2) The right to control wages or salary to the extent provided in Section 2601.

(3) The right to make a will subject to the limitations of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 20) of Division 1.

(4) The right to enter into transactions to the extent reasonable to provide the necessities of life to the spouse, the other spouse, and the minor children of the spouses.

SEC. 149. Section 3021 of the Probate Code is repealed.

SEC. 150. Section 3022 of the Probate Code is repealed.

SEC. 151. Section 3023 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

3023. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c), where one or both of the spouses has a conservator, the court in which any of the conservatorship proceedings is pending may hear and determine whether property is community property or the separate property of either spouse when the issue is raised in any proceeding under this division.

(b) Any person having or claiming title to or an interest in the property, at or prior to the hearing on the issue, may object to the hearing if the court is not the proper court under any other provision of law for the trial of an action to determine the issue. If the objection is established, the court shall not hear and determine the issue.

(c) If a civil action is pending with respect to the issue and jurisdiction has been obtained in the court in which the civil action is pending, upon request of any party to the civil action, the court shall abate the hearing until the conclusion of the civil action.

SEC. 152. Section 3052 of the Probate Code is repealed.

SEC. 153. Section 3053 of the Probate Code is repealed.

SEC. 154. Section 3054 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

3054. When community property is included or proposed to be included in the conservatorship estate of a spouse, the court in which the conservatorship proceeding is pending, upon its own motion or upon petition of a spouse having legal capacity or the conservator of either spouse and upon such notice to such persons as the court prescribes, may do any of the following:

(a) Determine that the inclusion of some or all of the community property that is proposed to be included in the conservatorship estate would not be in the best interest of the spouses or their estates and order that such property not be included.

(b) Permit revocation of a written consent for inclusion of property in the conservatorship estate, with or without terms or conditions.

(c) Determine that the continued inclusion of some or all of the community property in the conservatorship estate is not in the best interest of the spouses or their estates and order that the inclusion of such property in the conservatorship estate be terminated, with or without terms or conditions.

(d) Make such other orders as may be appropriate for the orderly administration of the conservatorship estate or to protect the interests of the spouses.

SEC. 155. Section 3055 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

3055. (a) If consent is given under this article that community property be included in the conservatorship estate of a spouse, the death of either spouse terminates the consent.

(b) If a spouse consents under this article that community property be included in the conservatorship estate of the other spouse:

(1) Subject to paragraph (2), the subsequent lack of legal capacity of the spouse giving the consent has no effect on the inclusion of the property in the conservatorship estate of the other spouse.

(2) The appointment of a conservator for the spouse giving the consent terminates the consent.

SEC. 156. Section 3056 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

3056. Except as otherwise provided in this part and subject to Section 3071, when community property is included in a conservatorship estate under this article for the purpose of management, control, and disposition, the conservator has the same powers and duties with respect to such property as the conservator has with respect to other property of the conservatorship estate.

SEC. 157. Section 3071 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

3071. (a) In case of a transaction for which the joinder or consent of both spouses is required by Section 5125 or 5127 of the Civil Code or by any other statute, if one or both spouses lacks legal capacity for the transaction, the requirement of joinder or consent shall be satisfied as provided in this section.

(b) Where one spouse has legal capacity for the transaction and the other spouse has a conservator, the requirement of joinder or consent is satisfied if both of the following are obtained:

(1) The joinder or consent of the spouse having legal capacity.

(2) The joinder or consent of the conservator of the other spouse given in compliance with Section 3072.

(c) Where both spouses have conservators, the joinder or consent requirement is satisfied by the joinder or consent of each such conservator given in compliance with Section 3072.

(d) In any case, the requirement of joinder or consent is satisfied if the transaction is authorized by an order of court obtained in a proceeding pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 3100).

SEC. 158. Section 3073 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

3073. (a) The joinder or consent under Section 3071 of a spouse having legal capacity shall be in such manner as complies with Section 5125 or 5127 of the Civil Code or other statute that applies to the transaction.

(b) The joinder or consent under Section 3071 of a conservator shall be in the same manner as a spouse would join in or consent to the transaction under the statute that applies to the transaction except that the joinder or consent shall be executed by the conservator and shall refer to the court order, if one is required, authorizing the conservator to join in or consent to the transaction.

SEC. 158.5. Section 3088 of the Probate Code, as added by Chapter 9 of the Statutes of 1981, is amended to read:

3088. (a) The court may order the spouse who has the management or control of community property to apply the income or principal, or both, of the community property to the support and maintenance of the conservatee (including care, treatment, and support of a conservatee who is a patient in a state hospital under the jurisdiction of the State Department of Mental Health or the State Department of Developmental Services) as ordered by the court.

(b) In determining the amount ordered for support and maintenance, the court shall consider the following circumstances of the spouses:

(1) The earning capacity and needs of each spouse.

(2) The obligations and assets, including the separate property, of each spouse.

(3) The duration of the marriage.

(4) The age and health of the spouses.

(5) The standard of living of the spouses.

(6) Any other relevant factors which it considers just and equitable.

(c) At the request of any interested person, the court shall make appropriate findings with respect to the circumstances.

(d) The court may order the spouse who has the management or control of community property to make a specified monthly or other periodic payment to the conservator of the person of the conservatee or to such other person as is designated in the order. The court may order the spouse required to make the periodic payments to give reasonable security therefor.

(e) The court may order the spouse required to make the periodic payments to assign, to the person designated in the order to receive the payments, that portion of the earnings of the spouse due or to be due in the future as will be sufficient to pay the amount ordered by the court for the support and maintenance of the conservatee. Such order shall operate as an assignment and shall be binding upon any existing or future employer upon whom a copy of the order is served. The order shall be in the form for an order assigning salary or wages prescribed by the Judicial Council for use in family law proceedings. The employer may deduct the sum of one dollar ($1) for each payment made pursuant to the order. Any such assignment made pursuant to court order shall have priority as against any execution or other assignment unless otherwise ordered by the court or unless the other assignment is made pursuant to Section 4701 of the Civil Code. No employer shall use any assignment authorized by this subdivision as grounds for the dismissal of such employee. As used in this subdivision, "employer" includes the United States government and any public entity as defined in Section 811.2 of the Government Code. The provisions of this subdivision apply to the money and benefits described in Sections 704.110 and 704.113 of the Code of Civil Procedure to the extent that such moneys and benefits are subject to a wage assignment for support under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 703.010) of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(f) The court shall retain jurisdiction to modify or to vacate an order made under this section where justice requires, except as to any amount that may have accrued prior to the date of the filing of the petition to modify or revoke the order. At the request of any interested person, the order of modification or revocation shall include findings of fact and may be made retroactive to the date of the filing of the petition to revoke or modify, or to any date subsequent thereto. At least 15 days before the hearing on the petition to modify or vacate the order, the petitioner shall mail a notice of the time and place of the hearing on the petition, accompanied by a copy of the petition, to the spouse who has the management or control of the community property. Notice shall be given for the period and in the manner provided in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1460) of Part 1 to any other persons entitled to notice of the hearing under that chapter.

(g) In a proceeding under Title 3 (commencing with Section 4500) of Part 5 of Division 4 of the Civil Code, the court has jurisdiction to modify or vacate an order made under this section to the same extent as it may modify or vacate an order made in a proceeding under that title.

SEC. 159. Section 3100 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

3100. As used in this chapter, "transaction" means a transaction that involves community real or personal property, tangible or intangible, or an interest therein or a lien or encumbrance thereon, including, but not limited to, those transactions with respect thereto as are listed in Section 3102.

SEC. 160. Section 3101 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

3101. (a) A proceeding may be brought under this chapter for a court order authorizing a proposed transaction, whether or not the proposed transaction is one that otherwise would require the joinder or consent of both spouses, if both of the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) One of the spouses is alleged to lack legal capacity for the proposed transaction, whether or not that spouse has a conservator.

(2) The other spouse either has legal capacity for the proposed transaction or has a conservator.

(b) A proceeding may be brought under this chapter for a court order declaring that one or both spouses has legal capacity for a proposed transaction.

(c) One proceeding may be brought under this chapter under both subdivision (a) and subdivision (b).

(d) In a proceeding under this chapter, the court may determine whether the property that is the subject of the proposed transaction is community property or the separate property of either spouse, but such determination shall not be made in the proceeding under this chapter if the court determines that the interest of justice requires that the determination be made in a civil action.

(e) This chapter is permissive and cumulative for the transactions to which it applies.

SEC. 161. Section 3121 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

3121. The petition shall set forth all of the following information:

(a) The name, age, and residence of each spouse.

(b) If one or both spouses is alleged to lack legal capacity for the proposed transaction, a statement that the spouse has a conservator or a statement of the facts upon which the allegation is based.

(c) If there is a conservator of a spouse, the name and address of the conservator, the county in which the conservatorship proceeding is pending, and the court number of the proceeding.

(d) If a spouse alleged to lack legal capacity for the proposed transaction is a patient in or on leave of absence from a state institution under the jurisdiction of the State Department of Mental Health or the State Department of Developmental Services, the name and address of the institution.

(e) The names and addresses of the adult relatives within the second degree of each spouse alleged to lack legal capacity for the proposed transaction, if known to the petitioner.

(f) A sufficient description of the property that is the subject of the proposed transaction.

(g) An allegation that the property is community property.

(h) The estimated value of the property.

(i) The terms and conditions of the proposed transaction, including the names of all parties thereto.

(j) The relief requested.

SEC. 162. Section 3122 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

3122. If the proceeding is brought for a court order authorizing a proposed transaction, the petition shall set forth, in addition to the information required by Section 3121, all of the following:

(a) An allegation that one of the spouses has a conservator or facts establishing lack of legal capacity of the spouse for the proposed transaction.

(b) An allegation that the other spouse has legal capacity for the proposed transaction or has a conservator.

(c) An allegation that each spouse either: (1) joins in or consents to the proposed transaction, (2) has a conservator, or (3) is substantially unable to manage his or her financial resources or resist fraud or undue influence.

(d) Facts that may be relied upon to show that the authorization sought is for one or more of the following purposes:

(1) The advantage, benefit, or best interests of the spouses or their estates.

(2) The care and support of either spouse or of such persons as either spouse may be legally obligated to support.

(3) The payment of taxes, interest, or other encumbrances or charges for the protection and preservation of the community property.

(4) The providing of gifts for such purposes, and to such charities, relatives (including one of the spouses), friends, or other objects of bounty, as would be likely beneficiaries of gifts from the spouses.

SEC. 163. Section 3144 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

3144. (a) The court may authorize the proposed transaction if the court determines all of the following:

(1) The property that is the subject of the proposed transaction is community property of the spouses.

(2) One of the spouses then has a conservator or otherwise lacks legal capacity for the proposed transaction.

(3) The other spouse either has legal capacity for the proposed transaction or has a conservator.

(4) Each of the spouses either (i) joins in or consents to the proposed transaction, (ii) has a conservator, or (iii) is substantially unable to manage his or her own financial resources or resist fraud or undue influence. Substantial inability may not be proved by isolated incidents of negligence or improvidence.

(5) The proposed transaction is one that should be authorized under this chapter.

(b) If the proposed transaction is to provide gifts for such purposes, and to such charities, relatives (including one of the spouses), friends, or other objects of bounty, as would be likely beneficiaries of gifts from the spouses, the court may authorize the transaction under this chapter only if the transaction is one that the court would authorize under Article 10 (commencing with Section 2580) of Chapter 6 of Part 4 (substituted judgment) in the case of a conservatorship.

(c) If the court determines under subdivision (a) that the transaction should be authorized, the court shall so order and may authorize the petitioner to do and perform all acts and to execute and deliver all papers, documents, and instruments necessary to effectuate the order.

(d) In an order authorizing a transaction, the court may prescribe such terms and conditions as the court in its discretion determines appropriate, including but not limited to requiring joinder or consent of another person.

SEC. 164. Section 12337 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

12337. All money received by any person as an annuity, pension, retirement allowance, disability payment, or death benefit from the retirement system, and all contributions and interest thereon returned to any member of the retirement system, whether in the actual possession of such person or deposited, loaned, or invested by him, is unassignable, and is exempt from execution or any other process except to the extent permitted by Section 704.110 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 168. Section 95836 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

95836. All money received by any person as an annuity, pension, retirement allowance, disability payment or death benefit, from the retirement system, and all contributions and interest thereon returned to any member of the retirement system, whether in the actual possession of such member or deposited, loaned, or invested by him, is exempt from execution or any other process except to the extent permitted by Section 704.110 of the Code of Civil Procedure and is unassignable.

SEC. 169. Section 98196 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

98196. All money received by any person as an annuity, pension, retirement, allowance, disability payment or death benefit, from the retirement system, and all contributions and interest thereon returned to any member of the retirement system, whether in the actual possession of such member or deposited, loaned, or invested by him, is exempt from execution or any other process except to the extent permitted by Section 704.110 of the Code of Civil Procedure and is unassignable.

SEC. 170. Section 32373 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

32373. At the sale the property shall be sold by the board or by its authorized agent in accordance with law and the notice, and the board shall deliver to the purchaser a bill of sale for the personal property and a deed for any real property sold. The bill of sale or deed vests title in the purchaser. The unsold portion of any property seized may be left at the place of sale at the risk of the taxpayer.

SEC. 171. Section 5422 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

5422. The court in which an action for the recovery of an assessment is commenced shall have power to adjudge and decree a lien against the premises assessed, and to order such premises to be sold on execution, as in other cases of the sale of real estate by the process of the courts. On appeal, the appellate courts shall be vested with the same power to adjudge and decree a lien and to order such premises to be sold on execution or decree as is conferred on the court from which an appeal is taken.

SEC. 172. Section 6617 of the Streets and Highways Code is repealed.

SEC. 173. Section 8832 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8832. The court shall have the power to adjudge and decree a lien against the lot or parcel of land covered by the assessment or reassessment for the amount of the judgment and to order the premises to be sold on execution as in other cases of the sale of real property by the process of the court.

The foreclosure action shall be governed and regulated by the provisions of this chapter, and also where not in conflict with this chapter, by the codes of this state.

SEC. 174. Section 9356 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

9356. The court may adjudge and decree a lien against the lot or parcel of land covered by the reassessment for the amount of the judgment and may order the premises to be sold on execution as in other cases of the sale of real estate by the process of the court.

SEC. 175. Section 988 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

988. In case of the insolvency or bankruptcy of an employer, contributions by workers, payable as provided in this article, shall not be considered any part of the employer's assets and shall be paid to the director prior to the payment of any other claim against the employer.

SEC. 176. Section 1342 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1342. Any waiver by any person of any benefit or right under this code is invalid. Benefits under this code, incentive payments provided by Division 2 (commencing with Section 5000), and payments to an individual under a plan or system established by an employer which makes provisions for his employees generally, or for a class or group of his employees, for the purpose of supplementing unemployment compensation benefits, are not subject to assignment, release, or commutation. Any agreement by any individual in the employ of any person or concern to pay all or any portion of the contributions required of his employer under this division is void.

SEC. 177. Section 1788 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is

SEC. 178. Section 8537 of the Water Code is repealed.

SEC. 179. Section 22142 of the Water Code is repealed.

SEC. 180. Section 908 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

908. (a) Where the juvenile court has ordered payment of money to be made for the cost of legal services referred to by Section 903.1, for the cost of probation supervision referred to by Section 903.2, or for the cost of care, support, or maintenance in any county institution, or as reimbursement to the county for the expense of support and maintenance of any ward, dependent child, or other minor person as provided in this article, or as additional payment for the expense of support and maintenance of such ward, dependent child, or other minor person to the person, association, or institution that, under court order, is caring for and maintaining such ward, dependent child, or other minor person, either from the earnings, property, or estate of such ward, dependent child, or other minor person, or by his or her parents or guardian, or by any other person liable for his or her support, upon affidavit of the county officers designated by the board of supervisors that any payment is due and has not been made, execution may issue for such payment upon the order and at the discretion of the court after 15 days' prior notice to the person or estate ordered to make such payment.

(b) Whenever an order for execution may issue pursuant to subdivision (a) for the total amount due, the court may, upon the same notice required for an order of execution under subdivision (a), enter an order for payment of such amount, and such order shall be considered a judgment for purposes of Article 2 (commencing with Section 697.310) of Chapter 2 of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 181. Section 929 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

929. The earnings of the minor shall be collected by the juvenile work furlough administrator, and it shall be the duty of the minor's employer to transmit such wages to the administrator at the latter's request. Earnings levied upon pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 706.010) of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall not be transmitted to the administrator. If the administrator has requested transmittal of earnings prior to levy, such request shall have priority. When an employer transmits such earnings to the administrator pursuant to this section the employer shall have no liability to the minor for such earnings. From such earnings the administrator shall pay the minor's board and personal expenses, both inside and outside the juvenile detention facility, and shall deduct so much of the costs of administration of this article as is allocable to such minor. If sufficient funds are available after making the foregoing payments, the administrator may, with the consent of the minor, pay, in whole or in part, the preexisting debts of the minor. Any balance shall be retained until the minor's discharge and thereupon shall be paid to the minor.

SEC. 182. Section 11002 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11002. All aid given under a public assistance program shall be absolutely inalienable by any assignment, sale, or otherwise.

SEC. 182.5. Section 11477 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11477. As a condition of eligibility for aid paid under this chapter, each applicant or recipient shall:

(a) Assign to the county any rights to support from any other person such applicant may have in their own behalf or in behalf of any other family member for whom the applicant is applying for or receiving aid, and which have accrued at the time such assignment is made. Receipt of public assistance under this chapter shall operate as an assignment by operation of law. An assignment of support rights to the county shall also constitute an assignment to the state. If support rights are assigned pursuant to this subdivision, the assignee may become an assignee of record by the district attorney or other public official filing with the court clerk an affidavit showing that an assignment has been made or that there has been an assignment by operation of law. This procedure does not limit any other means by which the assignee may become an assignee of record.

(b) Cooperate with the county welfare department and district attorney in establishing the paternity of a child born out of wedlock with respect to whom aid is claimed, and in obtaining any support payments due any person for whom aid is requested or obtained. The State Department of Social Services shall establish an exclusive list of acts, in accordance with federal law, which shall be the only acts deemed to be a refusal to offer reasonable cooperation and assistance. The county welfare department shall verify that the applicant or recipient refused to offer reasonable cooperation prior to determining that such applicant or recipient is ineligible. The granting of aid shall not be delayed or denied if the applicant is otherwise eligible, if the applicant completes the necessary forms and agrees to cooperate with the district attorney in securing support and determining paternity, where applicable.

A recipient shall be considered to be cooperating with the county welfare department or the district attorney's office and they shall be eligible for aid, if otherwise eligible, if they cooperate to the best of their ability or have good cause for refusal to cooperate. The department, in accordance with federal law, shall establish standards for determining good cause for refusal to cooperate. With respect to any application or any questionnaire relating to any application, no questions on paternity shall be asked in cases where paternity is not legally an issue. Persons eligible for immediate aid pursuant to Section 11056 or Section 11266 shall receive such aid prior to completing the forms required to obtain child and spousal support and establish paternity, provided that they indicate they will cooperate in these matters. Appearances at public agencies required pursuant to this section, subsequent to certification of the applicant shall be scheduled with due regard for his parental duties and employment responsibilities. If an appearance is required at a time other than normal working hours, a statement as to the reason for such appearance shall be inserted in the file of the applicant.

If the relative with whom a child is living is found to be ineligible because of failure to comply with the provisions of this section, any aid for which such child is eligible will, to the extent required by federal law, be provided in the form of protective payments.

The county welfare department shall insure that all applicants for or recipients of aid under this chapter are properly notified of the conditions imposed by this section.

SEC. 183. Section 14115.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14115.5. Moneys payable or rights existing under this chapter shall be subject to any claim, lien or offset of the State of California, and any claim of the United States of America made pursuant to federal statute, but shall not otherwise be subject to enforcement of a money judgment or other legal process, and no transfer or assignment, at law or in equity, of any right of a provider of health care to any payment shall be enforceable against the state, a fiscal intermediary or carrier.

SEC. 184. Section 17409 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

17409. There shall be exempt from the transfers and grants authorized by Section 17109 and from execution on claims under Section 17403 against property acquired by persons for the support of whom public moneys have been expended all of the following property:

(a) Cash to the amount of fifty dollars ($50).

(b) Personal effects and household furniture to the value of five hundred dollars ($500).

(c) An interment space, crypt, or niche intended for the interment of the applicant or recipient of aid.

(d) Funds placed in trust for funeral or burial expenses to the extent that such funds do not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars ($500).

(e) Insurance policies having an actual cash surrender value of not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500).

(f) Real or personal property of a recipient of public assistance, with respect to aid or county hospital care granted after May 21, 1963.

(g) For a period of six months from the date of receipt, the compensation received from a public entity which acquires for a public use a dwelling actually owned and occupied by the recipient. Such compensation shall be exempt in the amount, over and above all liens and encumbrances, provided by Section 704.730 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(h) Relocation benefits shall be exempt as provided by Section 704.180 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

No county shall withhold emergency medical or hospital care from any person pending the person giving security for reimbursement to the county for the care or hospitalization to be provided to the person.

SEC. 185. This act shall become operative only if Assembly Bill No. 707 is chaptered and becomes effective January 1, 1983, and in such case this act shall become operative on July 1, 1983, the same as Assembly Bill No. 707.

SEC. 186. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill is chaptered, that Sections 682.1 and 685.010 of the Code of Civil Procedure, as amended and added, respectively, by Chapter 150 of the Statutes of 1982 shall become effective on January 1, 1983 and shall remain operative until July 1, 1983, at which time they shall be repealed as provided by Section 1 of Assembly Bill 707.

CHAPTER 498

An act to amend Section 69598 of the Government Code, relating to courts, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor July 12, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State July 12, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 69598 of the Government Code is amended to read:

69598. In the County of San Joaquin there shall be 10 judges of the superior court; provided, that if the board of supervisors adopts a resolution stating that a vacancy will occur in the office of juvenile court referee upon the appointment of an eleventh judge, there shall be 11 judges of the superior court. The referee may continue to serve until the eleventh judge has been appointed.

SEC. 2. The sum of two hundred twenty-seven thousand five hundred thirty-four dollars ($227,534) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Controller for allocation and disbursement, as follows:

(a) To San Joaquin County, in augmentation of Item 0420-101-001 of the Budget Act of 1982, for the state share of salaries of judges of the superior court as provided by Section 68206 of the Government Code	$53,767
(b) To San Joaquin County, in augmentation of Item 0440-101-011 of the Budget Act of 1982, for reimbursement of costs incurred pursuant to this act as provided in Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code	120,000

(c) To San Joaquin County, without regard to fiscal year, for the state share of salaries of judges of the superior court as provided in Section 68206 of the Government Code upon the occurrence of a vacancy in the office of juvenile court referee and the establishment of an additional judgeship as provided in Section 69598 of the Government Code as amended by Section 1 of this act 53,767

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature that no block grant be provided for the eleventh superior court judge in San Joaquin County because the position replaces the existing juvenile court referee position.

SEC. 4. No appropriation is made by this act pursuant to Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code or Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act. Furthermore, this act does not create any present or future obligation to reimburse the agency or district for any costs incurred because of this act.

An act to add Division 18 (commencing with Section 40000) to the Financial Code, relating to housing, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor July 12, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State July 12, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Division 18 (commencing with Section 40000) is added to the Financial Code, to read:

DIVISION 18. CALIFORNIA HOME LOAN MORTGAGE ASSOCIATION

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS AND DEFINITIONS

40000. This division shall be known and may be cited as the California Home Loan Mortgage Act.

40001. The Legislature finds and declares that historically, California has been a state in which the need for residential mortgage funds has greatly exceeded the supply of such funds within the state. A substantial portion of this deficit has been met in the past by the sale by California institutional lenders of residential mortgages to out-of-state sources, including federal mortgage finance agencies, out-of-state institutional loan buyers and the public capital markets. In recent years, increasingly high interest rates have created an acute shortage of mortgage funds from these traditional sources. This shortage is inimical to the safety, health, and welfare of the residents of this state and the sound growth of its communities. In order to supply the need in California for residential mortgage funds, it is necessary to implement a public program to make California residential mortgages more salable to sources of capital.

40002. The Legislature declares that the purposes of this division are to establish secondary market facilities for home mortgages, to provide that the operations thereof shall be financed by private capital to the maximum extent feasible, and to authorize such facilities to:

(a) Provide supplementary assistance to the secondary market for home mortgages by providing a degree of liquidity for mortgage investments, thereby improving the distribution of investment capital available for home mortgage financing.

(b) Provide assistance for the financing of home mortgages as a means of retarding or stopping a decline in mortgage lending and home building activities which materially threatens the stability of a high level state economy.

40003. The following definitions shall govern the construction of this division:

(a) "Association" means the California Home Loan Mortgage Association.

(b) "Board" means the board of directors of the association.

(c) "Eligible issuer" means a mortgage lender having all of the following qualifications:

(1) Has adequate experience, management capability, and facilities to issue and service mortgage-backed securities, in accordance with the bylaws and regulations of the association.

(2) Is authorized to do business in the State of California.

(3) Owns at all times, except as may otherwise be provided in Section 40108, mortgage capital certificates issued pursuant to Section 40150 with a total face amount equal to a minimum amount fixed by the association.

(4) Meets the requirements, conditions, and limitations which may be imposed by the bylaws or regulations of the association.

(5) Satisfies any other requirements contained in Section 40102.

(d) "Minimum Guarantee Reserve Account requirement" means the total amounts in the Guarantee Reserve Account established pursuant to Section 40156 for all outstanding securities guaranteed by the association, as of any particular date of computation by the association, required to ensure the continued payment of principal and interest on such securities in the event of default by the issuer.

(e) "Modified pass-through securities" means securities which provide for the payment by the issuer to the holders of a proportionate share of the proceeds of principal and interest, whether or not collected, on account of a pool of mortgages, less servicing fees and other specified costs approved by the association, with all prepayments being passed through to the holder.

(f) "Mortgage capital certificates" means interest-bearing obligations issued by the association to enable the association to carry out its functions under this part.

(g) "Straight pass-through securities" means securities which provide for the payment by the issuer to the holders of a proportionate share of the proceeds of principal and interest, as collected, on account of a pool of mortgages, less servicing fees and other specified costs approved by the association, with all prepayments being passed through to the holder.

CHAPTER 2. OPERATIONS AND POWERS

40050. There is in the state government the California Home Loan Mortgage Association. The association constitutes a public instrumentality and a political subdivision of the state, and the exercise of the powers conferred by this division shall be deemed and held to be the performance of an essential public function.

40051. (a) The association shall be administered by a board of directors consisting of seven voting members, including a chairperson, each of whom shall serve for a term of one year, beginning on January 1. Except as otherwise provided by this section, the board shall consist of one director appointed by the Governor and confirmed by the Senate, one director appointed by the Senate Rules Committee, one director appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly and four directors chosen by a plurality of the eligible issuers in an election conducted in accordance with the procedures adopted pursuant to subdivision (b).

(b) Notwithstanding anything contained in subdivision (a), the board during the term first beginning after the effective date of this division shall consist of seven directors, three of whom shall be appointed by the Governor and confirmed by the Senate, two of whom shall be appointed by the Senate Rules Committee, and two of whom shall be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly. Two of the directors appointed by the Governor and one each of the directors respectively appointed by the Senate Rules Committee and Speaker of the Assembly pursuant to this subdivision shall be appointed from the savings and loan, mortgage banking, or commercial banking industry. By July 31, 1982, the board shall adopt bylaws and regulations governing the qualifications of eligible issuers and the procedures for conducting elections under subdivision (a).

(c) Any vacancy occurring on the board during a term shall be filled by a person appointed by the same authority which appointed the vacating member to his or her position, and, if appointed by the Governor, the appointment shall be confirmed by the Senate.

40052. Board members shall be removable solely for cause.

40053. The board shall elect a chairperson who, when present, shall preside at meetings of the board.

40054. The board shall elect a president of the association who shall be the chief executive officer and shall serve at the pleasure of the board. The board shall select and effect the appointment of qualified persons to fill the offices of vice president, and such other offices as may be provided for in the bylaws. Persons elected or appointed under this section shall perform such executive functions, powers, and duties as may be prescribed by the regulations and bylaws prescribed under this chapter and such persons shall be executive officers of the association and shall discharge all such executive functions, powers and duties. The president may from time to time employ technical experts and such other employees as may, in his or her judgment, be necessary for the conduct of the business of the association.

The compensation of the president shall be established by the board in such amount as is reasonably necessary, in the discretion of the board, to attract and hold a person of superior qualifications. Members of the board shall not receive a salary but shall be entitled to a per diem allowance in accordance with the rules and regulations promulgated under Section 13920 of the Government Code by the State Board of Control.

40055. Upon request of the association, the Attorney General shall represent the agency or the department and the state in litigation concerning affairs of the association, unless the Attorney General represents another state agency, in which case the agency or the association shall be authorized to employ other counsel.

40056. The president shall prepare a preliminary budget on or before November 1, of each year for the ensuing fiscal year for review and comment by the board of directors, and such preliminary budget, together with the comments of the board, shall be submitted by December 1, to be reviewed by the Secretary of the Business, Transportation, and Housing Agency, the Director of Finance, and the Joint Legislative Budget Committee. An analysis of the association's proposed budget prepared by the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, together with any comments of the committee, shall be transmitted to the chairpersons of the fiscal committee of each house of the Legislature and to the chairperson of the board of directors prior to the board's final adoption of the association's budget.

40057. The association shall, within 90 days following the close of each fiscal year, submit an annual report of its activities under this division for the preceding year to the Governor, the Secretary of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency, the State Treasurer, and the Legislature. Within 90 days following the close of each fiscal year, the agency shall also submit an annual report to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee. Each report shall set forth a complete operating and financial statement of the association during the concluded fiscal year. The report shall also include a statement of accomplishment during the previous year with respect to the association's progress and priorities. The association shall cause an audit of its books and accounts with respect to its activities under this division to be made at least once during each fiscal year by an independent certified public accountant and the agency shall be subject to audit by the Department of Finance not more often than once each fiscal year.

Within 90 days following receipt of the association's annual report, the Joint Legislative Budget Committee shall submit a report on the association's activities under this division to the Legislature.

40058. (a) The board shall authorize the guarantee or sale of obligations or securities and shall approve other major contractual agreements. Any other contractual agreements or debt obligations may be approved by the president pursuant to regulations of the board.

(b) Actions of the board may be taken only by a concurrence of a majority of the entire membership thereof.

40059. The association shall have all of the following powers:

(a) To adopt, alter, and use a corporate seal, which shall be judicially noticed.

(b) To enter into and perform contracts and all other instruments necessary or convenient for the exercise of its powers and functions under this part on such terms as it may deem appropriate, with any government agency, or with any person, firm, association, or corporation.

(c) To execute, in accordance with its bylaws, all instruments necessary or appropriate in the exercise of any of its powers.

(d) In the name of the association, to sue and to be sued, and to complain and to defend, in any court of competent jurisdiction, state or federal, but no attachment, injunction, or other similar process, mesne or final, shall be issued against the property of the association or against the association with respect to its property.

(e) To lease, purchase, or acquire any property, real, personal, or mixed, or any interest therein, to hold, rent, maintain, modernize, renovate, improve, use, and operate such property, and to sell, for cash or credit, lease, or otherwise dispose of the same, at such time and in such manner as and to the extent that it may deem necessary or appropriate to procure insurance against any loss in connection with its property and other assets, in such amounts and from such insurers as it deems desirable.

(f) To borrow money and issue guarantee payment of principal and interest on securities, as provided in this part.

(g) To prescribe, repeal, and amend or modify, rules, regulations, bylaws, or requirements governing the manner in which its general business may be conducted.

(h) To accept gifts or donations of services, or of property, real, personal, or mixed, tangible, or intangible, in aid of any of its purposes.

(i) The association shall have the power to select and appoint or employ such officers, employees, and agents, to vest them with such powers and duties, and to fix and to cause the association to pay such compensation to them for their services, as it may determine with the approval of the Department of Personnel Administration, payable out of the California Home Loan Mortgage Fund in the State Treasury.

(j) To do all things as are necessary or incidental to the proper management of its affairs and the proper conduct of its business.

40060. The exercise of the powers specified in this part will be in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state, for their well-being and prosperity, and for the improvement of their social and economic conditions, and the association shall not be required to pay any tax or assessment on any property owned by the association under the provisions of this part or upon the income therefrom.

CHAPTER 3. GUARANTEE OF PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST ON PASS-THROUGH SECURITIES

40100. The association is hereby authorized to guarantee the timely payment of principal of, and of interest on, such securities as shall be based on and backed by a pool composed of mortgages meeting the requirements of Section 40103. In the event any payment of principal of, or interest on, any security guaranteed under this section is not made, the association shall, subject to rules and regulations, make such payment as and when due in cash, and thereupon shall be subrogated fully to the rights satisfied by such payment. Any state law to the contrary notwithstanding, the association is hereby empowered, in connection with any guarantee under this chapter, whether before or after any default, to provide by contract with the issuer for the extinguishment, upon default by the issuer, of any redemption, equitable, legal, or other right, title, or interest of the issuer in any mortgage or mortgages constituting the pool against which the guaranteed securities are issued and to make the mortgages the absolute property of the association. No provision of this part, however, shall create, extinguish, enlarge, or diminish any right or interest of the association with respect to the mortgagor of any mortgage constituting all or part of any such pool, in relationship to the right or interest of the issuer. The guarantee provided under this chapter shall not constitute a debt or obligation of the State of California or any agency or instrumentality thereof other than the association.

40101. (a) A mortgage lender who qualifies as an eligible issuer shall be eligible to issue and service mortgage-backed securities guaranteed by the association.

(b) The association shall not make a commitment to guarantee, or guarantee pursuant to a commitment or otherwise, any issue of mortgage-backed securities unless the mortgage lender requesting such commitment or guarantee then qualifies as an eligible issuer.

(c) A mortgage lender shall not qualify as an eligible issuer at any time in which the lending policies of the issuer permit any discrimination based on race, religion, color, national origin, marital status, or sex of a borrower.

(d) A mortgage lender shall qualify as an eligible issuer only so long as it conducts its business operations in accordance with accepted mortgage lending practices, ethics, and standards, as determined by the association, and shall maintain its books and records in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

(e) In the event that a mortgage lender who has qualified as an eligible issuer should subsequently fail to comply with any of the requirements prescribed in this section, the association may withhold further commitments to guarantee securities until such time as the association is satisfied that the mortgage lender has resumed business operations in compliance with such requirements.

(f) If any issuer, subsequent to the issuance of securities guaranteed by the association, should fail in a material way to be in compliance with any of the requirements prescribed in this section or in the guarantee agreement, the association may bring proceedings to default such issuer, in accordance with the procedures established under this chapter. The association shall serve the issuer, by hand delivery or by certified or registered mail, with a written notice stating the facts incident to such failure and setting forth such affirmative requirements as the association may consider necessary to correct such failure to be in compliance. Steps to correct or otherwise remedy such failure shall be carried out in accordance with such procedures as may be set forth in the guarantee agreement.

40102. (a) Securities to be issued pursuant to the provisions of this section may, at the option of the issuer, be of one of the following types, but only one of such types may be issued against any single pool of mortgages: (1) straight pass-through securities; and (2) modified pass-through securities.

(b) In the case of delinquent mortgages in a pool backing modified pass-through securities, the issuer is required to make advances if necessary to maintain the specified schedule of interest and principal payments to the holders, or at its option, at any time 90 days or more after default of any such mortgage, the issuer may repurchase such mortgage.

(c) Both straight pass-through and modified pass-through securities shall specify the dates by which payments are to be made to the holders thereof, and shall indicate the accounting period for collections on the pool's mortgages relating to each such payment, and the securities shall also specify a date on which the entire principal to be collected will have been paid or will be payable.

(d) Each issue of guaranteed securities shall be in a minimum face amount of four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000), provided that in the case of modified pass-through securities based on, and backed by, mortgages on mobilehomes or projects, the minimum face amount is two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000). The total face amount of any issue of securities cannot exceed the aggregate unpaid principal balances of the mortgages in the pool.

(e) The face amount of any security shall not be less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000).

(f) Securities are transferable, but the share of the proceeds collected on account of the pool of mortgages may not be payable to more than one holder with respect to any security.

(g) The mortgages comprising a particular pool are not required to have been issued by the same mortgage lender, so long as all such mortgages are originated by eligible issuers.

40103. Each issue of guaranteed securities shall be backed by a separate pool of mortgages which satisfy all of the following requirements:

(a) Are covered by policies of title insurance, hazard insurance, and other types of insurance prescribed by the association, in accordance with the association's regulations.

(b) Will be replaced by the issuer if found defective by the association at any time prior to four months after the date on which the association issues its guarantee of the securities.

(c) Are liens upon residential real estate wholly located within the State of California or upon mobilehomes sited in California.

(d) Meet such other standards of acceptability as may be prescribed by the association.

40104. The association shall not guarantee securities unless the pool arrangement proposed by the issuer satisfactorily provides for all of the following:

(a) Servicing of the mortgages in the pool.

(b) Timely payment of principal and interest, in accordance with the terms of the guaranteed securities.

(c) Notification to the association of an impending default, on the part of the issuer, in adequate time for the association to make timely payments on the securities.

(d) Delivery to a designated custodial agent satisfactory to the association of the mortgage notes or other evidences of indebtedness secured by the mortgages in the pool and protection of the association's interest in all assets in the pool as collateral for its guarantee.

40105. The issuer shall maintain, for the benefit of the association, fidelity bond coverage, acceptable to the association, that assures the faithful performance of the fiduciary responsibilities of the issuer.

40106. (a) With respect to straight pass-through securities the following shall apply:

(1) The association shall guarantee the timely payment to the security holder of the proceeds of principal and interest, as collected, as undertaken in the association's guarantee appearing on the face of the security.

(2) Any failure or inability of the issuer to make payments as due to the holders of the securities from the proceeds from the pool of mortgages which have been collected, or because of failure to make collections under reasonable and accepted standards of mortgage servicing, shall constitute a default of the issuer.

(b) With respect to modified pass-through securities the following shall apply:

(1) The association shall guarantee the timely payment, whether or not collected, of interest on the outstanding balance and the specified principal installments, as undertaken in the association's guarantee appearing on the face of the security.

(2) Any failure or inability of the issuer to make fixed or other payments as due as well as such other failures as may be identified by the association and included in the guarantee agreement, shall constitute a default of the issuer.

(c) Upon any default by the issuer and payment under its guarantee by the association, or any failure of the issuer to comply wtih the terms of the guarantee agreement, the association may institute a claim against the issuer's fidelity bond, or may pursuant to Section 40100, extinguish all the right, title, or other interest of the issuer in the pooled mortgages, by letter directed to the issuer and making the mortgages the absolute property of the association, subject only to unsatisfied rights therein of the holders of the securities, or the association may do both.

40107. The association shall establish a schedule of application and guarantee fees, which may vary for straight pass-through and modified pass-through issuances, and of such fees as it may determine to be reasonable for the analysis of any trust or other security arrangement proposed by the issuer.

The association may alter the schedule of fees as it reasonably deems appropriate. To assure that, to the maximum extent, and as rapidly as possible, the association will become self-supporting, the schedule of fees shall be established according to sound business practices such that the proceeds of such fees are sufficient to fund the association's total operating expenses, the guarantee of payment of principal and interest on securities issued pursuant to this chapter, and the repurchase and retirement of outstanding mortgage capital certificates.

40108. Proceeds of fees charged under Section 40107 shall be applied to defray the operating expenses of the association. The remaining proceeds shall be deposited in the Guarantee Reserve Account. When the amount of the Guarantee Reserve Account equals or exceeds five million dollars ($5,000,000), or the minimum Guarantee Reserve Account requirement, whichever is greater, the additional proceeds of fees shall be applied by the association to the purchase of outstanding mortgage capital certificates.

40109. The securities guaranteed by the association pursuant to this chapter shall be legal investments in which all public officers and public bodies of this state, its political subdivisions, all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, banking institutions, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, credit unions, industrial loan companies, all administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries, including without limitation fiduciaries and administrators of pension and retirement plans and funds, and all other persons whomsoever who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or in other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds, including capital, in their control or belonging to them. The securities guaranteed by the association pursuant to this chapter may be used by any such private financial institution, person, or association as security for public deposits. The securities guaranteed by the association pursuant to this chapter are also hereby made securities which may properly and legally be deposited with and received by all public officers and bodies of the state or any agency or political subdivision of the state and all municipalities and public corporations for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of the state is now or may hereafter be authorized by law, including deposits to secure public funds.

CHAPTER 4. FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

40151. The state does hereby pledge to and agree with the holders of any mortgage capital certificates issued under this part that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the association to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders thereof or in any way impair the rights and remedies of such holders until such mortgage capital certificates, together with the interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of such holders, are fully met and discharged. The association is authorized to include this pledge and agreement of the state in any agreement with the holders of such mortgage capital certificates.

40152. No guarantee issued by the association under the provisions of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 40100) or mortgage capital certificate issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be deemed to constitute a debt or liability of the state or of any political subdivision thereof, other than the association, or a pledge of the faith and credit of the state or of any such political subdivision, other than the association, but shall be payable solely from funds herein provided therefor. All such mortgage capital certificates and securities evidencing the association's guarantees and any prospectus or other printed representation of the association concerning such mortgage capital certificates or guarantees shall contain on the face thereof a statement to the following effect: "Neither the faith and credit nor the taxing power of the State of California is pledged to the payment of the principal of or interest on this security."

The issuance of mortgage capital certificates and guarantees by the association shall not directly or indirectly or contingently obligate the state or any political subdivision thereof to levy or to pledge any form of taxation whatever therefor or to make any appropriation for their payment. Nothing contained in this section shall prevent or be construed to prevent the association from pledging its full faith and credit to the payment of mortgage capital certificates or guarantees or to issue the mortgage capital certificates or guarantees authorized pursuant to this division.

Except as otherwise provided in Section 40060, funds invested in and earned from the mortgage capital certificates shall be subject to all applicable taxation.

40153. Proceeds derived from the issuance of mortgage capital certificates and any interest or other increment derived from the investment thereof may be used for any of the purposes of the association, including, but not limited to, operating costs, payments into the Guarantee Reserve Account, and other expenses.

40154. There is hereby created in the State Treasury the California Home Loan Mortgage Fund. All moneys collected or received by the association under this part shall be deposited in this fund.

40155. The association shall create and establish a special account in the California Home Loan Mortgage Fund which shall be known as the "Operating Account" which shall be used to defray salaries and all other operating expenses.

fees by the association under Section 40107 and to the extent such moneys are not applied to the association's operating costs, and (3) any other moneys which the association may make available for the purpose of the Guarantee Reserve Account from any other source or sources; provided, however, that payments into the Guarantee Reserve Account are not required by this section whenever the amount of the Guarantee Reserve Account equals or exceeds the minimum Guarantee Reserve Account requirement.

All moneys held in the Guarantee Reserve Account, except as otherwise provided in this part, shall be used, as required, solely for the payment of principal and interest on securities guaranteed by the association pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 40100). Any income or interest earned by, or increment to the Guarantee Reserve Account due to the investment thereof may be transferred by the association to other funds or accounts of the association to the extent such transfer does not reduce the amount of the Guarantee Reserve Account below the minimum Guarantee Reserve Account requirement.

In computing the amount of the Guarantee Reserve Account for purposes of this section, securities in which all or a portion of the Guarantee Reserve Account is invested shall be valued at par, if purchased at par, and shall be valued at amortized value, as such term is defined by resolution of the association, if purchased at other than par.

(b) For each issue of securities guaranteed by the association pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 40100), the association shall determine according to sound actuarial and business practices the amount, if any, by which the Guarantee Reserve Account should be increased to ensure the continued payment of principal and interest on such securities in the event of default by the issuer. This amount shall be set forth in the resolution or resolutions of the association authorizing the guarantee of such issue of securities.

(c) The association shall not at any time guarantee the payment of principal and interest on securities issued pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 40100) if, upon issuance of the securities, the amount in the Guarantee Reserve Account will be less than the minimum Guarantee Reserve Account requirement.

40157. The association shall create and establish such other accounts in the California Home Loan Mortgage Fund as it may deem necessary or desirable.

40158. Moneys of the association not invested in operating facilities shall be kept in cash on hand or on deposit or invested in obligations, participations, or other instruments which are lawful investments for fiduciary, trust, or public funds.

CHAPTER 500

An act to amend Sections 5621, 5624, 5626, and 5627 of the Public Resources Code, relating to open-space and recreation programs, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor July 12, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State July 12, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5621 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

5621. As used in this chapter:

(a) "City" includes the City and County of San Francisco; "county" does not include the City and County of San Francisco.

(b) "Districts" means regional park districts formed under Article 3 (commencing with Section 5500) of Chapter 3, and recreation and park districts formed under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 5780), of this division; and any public utility district formed under Division 7 (commencing with Section 15501) of the Public Utilities Code in a nonurbanized area that employs a full-time park and recreation director and offers year-round park and recreation services on lands and facilities owned by the district; and the Malaga County Water District exercising powers authorized under Section 31133 of the Water Code.

(c) "Urbanized area" consists of a central city or cities and surrounding closely settled territory, as determined by the Department of Parks and Recreation in cooperation with the Department of Finance on the basis of the most recent verifiable census data. "Urbanized county" means any county, except the City and County of San Francisco, with a population of 200,000 or more, as determined by the Department of Parks and Recreation in cooperation with the Department of Finance on the basis of the most recent verifiable census data.

(d) "Heavily urbanized area" means a large city with a population of 300,000 or more and a large county or regional park district with a population of 1,000,000 or more, as determined by the Department of Parks and Recreation in cooperation with the Department of Finance on the basis of the most recent verifiable census data.

(e) "Nonurbanized area" means any city, county, or district which does not qualify as an urbanized area or urbanized county under the definitions set forth in subdivision (c) of this section.

(f) "Block grant" means the allocation of moneys for one or more projects for the acquisition or development of recreational lands and facilities.

(g) "Need basis grant" means the allocation of moneys for one or more projects for the acquisition or development of recreational lands and facilities on a project-by-project basis, based upon need.

(h) "Account" means the Roberti-Z'berg Urban Open-Space and Recreation Program Account in the General Fund.

SEC. 2. Section 5624 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

5624. (a) The program established by this chapter shall be administered by the Department of Parks and Recreation.

(b) The Roberti-Z'berg Urban Open-Space and Recreation Program Account is hereby created in the General Fund and the money therein is hereby continuously appropriated, without regard to fiscal years, to the department for the program established by this chapter and funded pursuant to Item 271 of the Budget Act of 1976, Item 227 of the Budget Act of 1977, Item 222 of the Budget Act of 1978, Item 235 of the Budget Act of 1979, and Section 4 of Chapter 1166 of the Statutes of 1979, and pursuant to statutes enacted subsequent thereto that appropriate funds for this program.

(c) The unallocated balance in the General Fund appropriated pursuant to Item 271 of the Budget Act of 1976, Item 227 of the Budget Act of 1977, Item 222 of the Budget Act of 1978, Item 235 of the Budget Act of 1979, and Section 4 of Chapter 1166 of the Statutes of 1979 is hereby transferred to the account.

SEC. 3. Section 5626 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

5626. (a) The property acquired or developed pursuant to this chapter shall be used by the grant recipient only for the purpose for which the grant moneys were requested and no other use of the area shall be permitted except by the specific act of the Legislature. Any project funded with grant moneys received pursuant to this chapter shall conform to the recreation element of any applicable city or county general plan.

(b) Notwithstanding Item 271 of the Budget Act of 1976, Item 227 of the Budget Act of 1977, Item 222 of the Budget Act of 1978, Section 5627, 5628, 5629, or 5630, or any other provisions of law, jurisdictions eligible to receive need basis or block grant moneys pursuant to this chapter shall have one year from the effective date of each act appropriating grant moneys to apply for such grant moneys. Such moneys that are not applied for during the one-year period shall be allocated by the department pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 5630 during the succeeding fiscal year as grants to cities and recreation and park districts in urbanized areas on a project-by-project basis and on the basis of need.

(c) (1) Grant moneys shall be encumbered by the recipient of such moneys within three years of the date of approval by the director of the application for such moneys. Any part of grant moneys not encumbered within the three-year period shall revert to the unallocated balance in the account and may be reallocated by the department pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 5630 not later than the end of the next succeeding fiscal year.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (1) of this subdivision, grant moneys appropriated by Item 271 of the Budget Act of 1976, Item 227 of the Budget Act of 1977, Item 222 of the Budget Act of 1978, Item 235 of the Budget Act of 1979, and Section 4 of Chapter 1166 of the Statutes of 1979, if the grant application is approved by the director prior to September 17, 1980, may be encumbered within three years of the date of grant approval or by December 31, 1981, whichever date is later.

(d) The legal counsel of the grant recipient shall certify to the department that the grant recipient has met, or will meet, all federal, state, and local environmental, public health, relocation, affirmative action, and clearinghouse requirements and all other appropriate codes, laws, and regulations prior to the expenditure of the grant funds.

SEC. 4. Section 5627 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

5627. (a) Grant moneys received pursuant to this chapter shall be expended for high-priority projects that satisfy the most urgent park and recreation needs, with emphasis on unmet needs in the most heavily populated and most economically disadvantaged areas within each jurisdiction.

(b) Notwithstanding Item 222 of the Budget Act of 1978, Item 235 of the Budget Act of 1979, Section 5627, 5628, 5629, or 5630, or any other provisions of law, 2 percent of need basis and block grant moneys appropriated by Item 222 of the Budget Act of 1978, Item 235 of the Budget Act of 1979, and any act enacted subsequent thereto may be expended by the recipient for innovative recreational programs for the handicapped and up to 31 percent of such moneys may be expended by the recipient for the operation and maintenance of recreational lands and facilities that are acquired or developed with such grant moneys or for innovative recreational programs. Such moneys may be expended only for operation and maintenance costs not fully compensated for by revenues generated by such lands or facilities. Recipients of grant moneys that are to be used for operation and maintenance shall examine alternative methods to finance the operation and maintenance of recreational lands and facilities.

For the purposes of this section, "operation and maintenance costs" are limited to the direct costs of operating and maintaining recreational lands and facilities and in no case shall include administrative costs.

For the purposes of this section, "innovative recreational programs" means projects which involve new and imaginative techniques for meeting special recreational needs or that appear to be particularly promising in terms of promoting self-sufficiency, personal development, and leadership skills of the elderly, handicapped, mentally retarded, and others who have special recreational requirements. The expenditure of grant funds for innovative recreation programs is not limited to public recreational lands and facilities previously funded under this program.

(c) Grants to cities, counties, and districts pursuant to this chapter shall be on the basis of 75 percent state money and 25 percent local matching money for the project. Grants for acquisition shall be matched only by money or property donated to be part of the acquisition project. Grants for development may be matched by monetary contributions or, if nonmonetary contributions, as provided in regulations and standards which shall be established by the director after a public hearing.

(d) The grant recipient shall certify to the department that there is available, or will become available prior to the commencement of any work on the project for which application for a grant has been made, matching money from a nonstate source. Such certification of the source and amount of such funds shall be set forth in the application for a grant submitted to the department. Local matching money shall not be required with respect to a grant recipient that has urgent unmet needs for recreational lands and lacks the financial resources to acquire recreational lands, as determined pursuant to a formula set forth in regulations adopted by the Director of Parks and Recreation after a public hearing.

(e) Criteria, rules, and procedures for the expenditure of grant moneys for operation and maintenance costs or for innovative recreational programs shall be established by the director after a public hearing. Such criteria, rules, and procedures shall ensure that grant moneys shall be used to supplement rather than to supplant local revenues that are generated by recreational facilities and lands.

CHAPTER 501

An act to add Chapter 5.65 (commencing with Section 2585) to Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to dietitians.

[Approved by Governor July 12, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State July 12, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 5.65 (commencing with Section 2585) is added to Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code, to read:

CHAPTER 5.65. DIETITIANS

2585. (a) Any person representing himself or herself as a dietitian shall meet one of the following qualifications:

(1) Been granted, prior to January 1, 1981, the right to use the term "dietitian" by a public or private agency or institution recognized by the State Department of Health Services as qualified to grant that title, provided that person continues to meet all requirements and qualifications periodically prescribed by the agency or institution for the maintenance of that title.

(2) Possess all of the following qualifications:

(A) Be 18 years of age or older.

(B) Satisfactory completion of appropriate academic requirements for the field of dietetics and related disciplines and receipt of a baccalaureate or higher degree from a college or university accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges or other regional accreditation agency.

(C) Satisfactory completion of a program of supervised clinical experience of not less than six months in length that is designed to prepare entry level practitioners through instruction and assignments in a clinical setting. Supervisors of the program shall meet minimum qualifications established by public or private agencies or institutions recognized by the State Department of Health Services to establish such qualifications.

(b) Any person representing himself or herself as a registered dietitian shall meet the following qualifications:

(1) Been granted, prior to January 1, 1981, the right to use the term "registered dietitian" by a public or private agency or institution recognized by the State Department of Health Services as qualified to grant such title, provided that person continues to meet all requirements and qualifications periodically prescribed by the agency or institution for the maintenance of that title.

(2) Possess all of the following qualifications:

(A) Satisfactory completion of the requirements set forth in subdivision (a).

(B) Satisfactory completion of an examination administered by a public or private agency or institution recognized by the State Department of Health Services as qualified to administer the examinations.

(C) Satisfactory completion of continuing education requirements established by a public or private agency or institution recognized by the State Department of Health Services to establish the requirements.

(c) It is a misdemeanor for any person not meeting the criteria of subdivision (a) or (b) to use, in connection with his or her name or place of business, the words "dietitian," "dietician," "registered dietitian," "registered dietician," or the letters "D," "RD," or any other words, letters, abbreviations, or insignia indicating or implying that the person is a dietitian, or registered dietitian, or to represent, in any way, orally, in writing, in print or by sign, directly or by implication, that he or she is a dietitian or a registered dietitian.

(d) Any person employed by a licensed health care facility as a registered dietitian on the effective date of this chapter may continue to represent himself or herself as a registered dietitian while employed by a licensed health care facility, if he or she has satisfied the requirements of either paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), except that he or she shall not be required to satisfy the examination requirement of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (b).

2586. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a registered dietitian meeting the qualifications set forth in Section 2585 may, upon referral by a health care provider authorized to prescribe dietary treatments, provide nutritional and dietary counseling, conduct nutritional and dietary assessments, and develop nutritional and dietary treatments, including therapeutic diets, for individuals or groups of patients in licensed institutional facilities or in private office settings. The referral shall be accompanied by a written prescription signed by the health care provider detailing the patient's diagnosis and including a statement of the desired objective of dietary treatment.

(b) It is a misdemeanor for a registered dietitian to practice in a manner inconsistent with the requirements set forth in this section.

(c) Nothing in this section shall preclude a registered dietitian from providing information as permitted by Section 2068.

(d) For purposes of this section, "health care provider" means any person licensed or certified pursuant to this division, or licensed pursuant to the Osteopathic Initiative Act.

(e) The requirement of a written prescription shall be deemed to be satisfied by an entry in the patient records of a patient who is undergoing treatment at a licensed health care facility if the contents of the patient records reflect the information required by this section.

SEC. 2. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 502

An act to add and repeal Part 12.5 (commencing with Section 15925) of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and to amend, repeal, and add Section 17204 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to transportation, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor July 12, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State July 12, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Part 12.5 (commencing with Section 15925) is added to Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, to read:

PART 12.5. RIDESHARING

15925. This part shall be known and may be cited as the "Rideshare Support and Improvement Act."

15926. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that:

(a) The national security and economic prosperity of the United States is threatened by a heavy dependence upon energy imports.

(b) The economy of California and the economic well-being of its citizens are threatened by this dependence.

(c) The Legislature has the responsibility and duty to devise policies to reduce this dependence by increasing the energy efficiency of our transportation system.

(d) Inflation is undermining the financial feasibility of expanding capacity and making needed improvements to state highways and local streets and roads.

(e) Motor vehicles are the major mode of transportation in California.

(f) The transportation sector, particularly with respect to the use of private automobiles, is significantly energy inefficient.

(g) Nonessential and inefficient utilization of private automobiles has resulted in all of the following:

(1) Waste of precious fuel resources by inefficiently moving travelers to common destinations, particularly workers going from their residences to their places of employment.

(2) An increase in automotive pollution and a corresponding risk to public health.

(3) An increase in traffic congestion which wastes gasoline by lowering the average speed of vehicles.

(h) Ridesharing, in its many forms such as carpooling, vanpooling, buspooling, public transit, and shared-ride taxis, has been demonstrated to result in significant energy savings without a significant decrease in the quality of personal lifestyles.

(i) Present ridesharing assistance service projects have not been tapped to their full potential for environmental, economic, and energy conservation benefits due to inadequate funding.

(j) Benefits which would stem from aggressive and sustained efforts to promote and encourage ridesharing in its many forms include:

(1) Reductions in transportation-related energy consumption, air pollution, and highway congestion.

(2) Reduced need for additional capacity on existing state highway and local streets and roads systems.

(3) Reduced dependency on foreign sources of oil.

(4) Increases in disposable income available to California citizens for nontransportation-related purposes.

(5) Increases in consumer transportation choice and mobility, especially in times of gasoline shortages.

(6) Stimulation of local and regional economies due to shifts in consumer spending from extractive to nonextractive goods and services.

(k) These benefits will be maximized by close cooperation and interaction between employers, transportation planning and implementation agencies, and providers of ridesharing assistance services.

(l) Therefore, it is necessary to provide adequate funding for the establishment and support of effective ridesharing programs in both urbanized and nonurbanized areas throughout the state.

15927. It is the intent of the Legislature, in enacting this part, to:

(a) Promote and facilitate availability and use of alternatives to the single-occupant motor vehicle for both work and nonwork trips.

(b) Establish effective multiyear ridesharing assistance service demonstration projects in urbanized and nonurbanized areas where none exist and support and enhance existing projects.

15928. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in this section shall govern the construction of this part.

(a) "County transportation commission" means a commission created pursuant to Division 12 (commencing with Section 130000) of the Public Utilities Code.

(b) "Department" means the Department of Transportation.

(c) "Fund" means the Ridesharing and Alternative Transportation Fund.

(d) "Ridesharing" means travel by any mode other than the single-occupant motor vehicle, including, but not limited to, carpooling, vanpooling, public or private buspooling, subscription taxipool, and public transit, either in mixed-flow traffic or on exclusive high-occupancy vehicle facilities.

(e) "Ridesharing arrangement" means the transportation of persons in a motor vehicle where the transportation is incidental to another purpose of the driver.

(f) "Ridesharing assistance services" means services provided to public or private employers and individual citizens which facilitate formation of ridesharing arrangements or other modes of travel other than the single-occupant motor vehicle. The assistance may be provided by state or local governmental entities or private third-party entities. Ridesharing assistance services include, but are not limited to, dial-in matching assistance, employer matching assistance, outreach efforts, and coordination of efforts with other public and private entities.

(g) "Secretary" means the Secretary of Business, Transportation and Housing Agency.

15929. The Ridesharing and Alternative Transportation Fund is hereby created in the State Treasury and the money therein is continuously appropriated to the secretary for purposes of this part.

15930. The funds appropriated pursuant to Section 15929 shall be allocated by the secretary as follows:

(a) To the department for its planning activities not payable from the State Highway Account in the State Transportation Fund and for its statewide ridesharing planning responsibilities. The allocation under this subdivision shall not exceed 1 percent of the total funds appropriated for the purposes of this part.

(b) To each transportation planning agency, each county transportation commission, and the San Diego Metropolitan Transit Development Board for the planning and implementation of ridesharing programs, an amount determined on the basis of the following two equally weighted factors:

(1) The population of the area under the jurisdiction of the entity to the total state population.

(2) The population of the urbanized areas under the jurisdiction of the entity to the total state population in urbanized areas.

The allocation for purposes of this subdivision shall not be less than 85 percent of the total funds appropriated for the purposes of this part.

(c) Funds not allocated under subdivision (a) or (b) shall be allocated to the department for the planning and implementation of

The secretary shall allocate any moneys appropriated for the Ridesharing and Alternative Transportation Fund, which are not transferred pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (d) of Section 5 of the act that added this section to the Government Code, only with the approval of the California Transportation Commission.

To the maximum extent possible, funds allocated pursuant to subsection (b) of this section shall be used for implementing ridesharing programs rather than planning and related functions.

15931. (a) In the case of a transportation planning agency with county transportation commissions within its area of jurisdiction, the allocation to the transportation planning agency shall be determined by excluding the areas also under the jurisdiction of the county transportation commission.

(b) In the case of a transportation planning agency with the San Diego Metropolitan Transit Development Board within its area of jurisdiction, the allocation to the transportation planning agency shall be determined by excluding the area also under the jurisdiction of the board.

15932. Eligible claimants of funds allocated pursuant to this part shall include any public entity or private nonprofit entity with authority to administer ridesharing programs or projects involving expenditure of federal aid highway funds, urban mass transportation assistance, or state transportation funds available for ridesharing purposes.

Within metropolitan areas, in order to coordinate with other ongoing related planning activities, the programming of planning funds shall be made a part of the transportation planning process.

15933. Funds allocated under this part for ridesharing assistance services shall be programmed and allocated by transportation planning agencies, county transportation commissions, the San Diego Metropolitan Transit Development Board, and the department pursuant to existing laws and regulations relating to the transportation planning and programming process. In addition, the funds shall be allocated to the maximum extent possible to support providers of ridesharing assistance services and not to the above entities for other purposes even though the purposes may be related to ridesharing in general.

15934. This part shall not result in adverse impacts on the funding of programs eligible for funding from the Transportation Planning and Development Account in the State Transportation Fund prior to January 1, 1982.

15935. A transportation planning agency, a county transportation commission, the San Diego Metropolitan Development Board, or the department shall not allocate funds to a claimant pursuant to Section 15933, unless it first makes all of the following findings:

(a) That the proposed ridesharing program is consistent with the regional transportation plan and has been developed in cooperation with the department, providers of ridesharing services, operators of publicly owned transit systems, owners and operators of taxi services, and appropriate representatives of the private sector.

(b) That the proposed ridesharing program has been developed in a manner which will ensure that the various modes of ridesharing are implemented in a complementary rather than competitive manner. Carpooling, vanpooling, buspooling, and high-occupancy vehicle programs shall be developed with the full coordination of, and participation by, the operators of publicly owned transit systems.

(c) That funds allocated under this part will not be used for construction of high-occupancy vehicle facilities or the purchase or operation of public transit vehicles or vans, but that the proposed ridesharing program is closely coordinated at state, regional, and local levels with the planning of high-occupancy vehicle facilities and public transit programs.

(d) That funds allocated under this part will be used to the maximum extent feasible to support existing providers of ridesharing assistance services and will not result in wasteful duplication of efforts by existing or new entities.

(e) That the proposed ridesharing program will encourage but not require or coerce employers or employees to sponsor or participate in ridesharing programs or arrangements.

15936. (a) The Legislative Analyst shall, commencing not later than October 1, 1985, conduct an investigation of the effectiveness of ridesharing programs throughout the state with respect to all of the following:

(1) Increasing vehicle occupancy during peak and nonpeak hours.

(2) Reducing gasoline consumption.

(3) Reducing air pollution attributable to vehicular sources.

(4) Increasing the disposable income for nontransportation-related purposes of individuals who rideshare.

(5) Effects on automobile ownership of individuals who rideshare.

(6) Direct and economic effects of ridesharing programs on local and state economies.

(b) Not later than January 1, 1986, the Legislative Analyst shall submit to the Legislature the findings of the investigation which shall include a recommendation as to whether this part should be extended, amended, or repealed.

15939. This part shall remain in effect only until July 1, 1988, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before July 1, 1988, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 2. Section 17204 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17204. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section and Section 17205, the following taxes and assessments shall be allowed as a deduction for the taxable year within which paid or accrued:

(1) State and local, and foreign, real property taxes, less any amounts received from the state pursuant to the authorization contained in Section 1d of Article XIII of the Constitution.

(2) State and local personal property taxes.

(3) State and local general sales taxes.

(4) (A) State and local taxes on the sale of gasoline, diesel fuel, and other motor fuels as provided in this paragraph.

(B) (i) The Franchise Tax Board shall establish a schedule of deductions which is substantially the same as the California State Gasoline Tax Guide as published in the 1980 Form 540 Individual Income Tax Instructions, subject to the limitation specified in subparagraph (C).

(ii) The schedule shall remain in effect until such time as the existing seven cents ($.07) per gallon state gasoline tax is changed.

(iii) At such time as the state gasoline tax is changed, the Franchise Tax Board may establish a new schedule of deductions which substantially conforms to the existing schedule in that the allowable deduction is approximately proportional to the number of miles driven, except that, in areas of the state specified in subparagraph (C), no additional deduction shall be allowed for miles driven in excess of 15,000 per year per return.

(C) For taxpayers who reside in urban areas which do not meet the national ambient air quality standards for carbon monoxide or ozone pursuant to requirements of the National Clean Air Act, as amended (42 U.S.C. 7401 et seq.), the deduction claimed under subparagraph (A) shall not exceed eighty-four dollars ($84) per year per return filed. At that time as the state gasoline tax is changed, the maximum allowable deduction shall be proportionately adjusted to reflect the change.

This deduction limitation shall be applicable to the following areas which fail to meet national ambient air quality standards for carbon monoxide or ozone: the South Coast Air Basin; the San Francisco Bay Area Air Basin; the San Diego Air Basin; the Ventura County portion of the South Central Coast Air Basin; the Sacramento urbanized area; and the Fresno County portion of the San Joaquin Air Basin. This limitation shall also be applicable to any area which subsequently fails to meet national ambient air quality standards for carbon monoxide or ozone as determined by the State Air Resources Board. For purposes of this subparagraph, a taxpayer's place of residence shall be his or her principal place of residence as of April 15 of the taxable year for which the deduction is being claimed.

(D) Subparagraph (C) shall have no force or effect in any area specified in that subparagraph after such time as the State Air Resources Board finds that the area meets the national ambient air quality standards for carbon monoxide and ozone.

(E) In addition to the deduction for taxes on gasoline, diesel fuel, and other motor fuels as provided for in subparagraph (B) or (C), as applicable, there shall be allowed a ridesharing tax deduction for either or both of the following:

(i) The cost of monthly transit passes purchased for use by the taxpayer, or for use principally in this state by dependents listed on the return, except that no deduction shall be allowed for transit passes issued for the use of or used by elementary and secondary school students traveling to and from school. In the case of a husband and wife filing a joint return, the deduction provided by this clause shall be allowed to each spouse if a monthly transit pass is purchased by each spouse. The deduction shall be for the cost of each pass purchased, but shall not exceed seven dollars ($7) per month for each pass for any taxable year. For purposes of this clause, "monthly transit passes" means any single purchase of transit rides that entitles the purchaser to 40 or more rides per month (whether at a discount or at the base fare rate) within this state where evidence of purchase is furnished to the purchaser. For purposes of this clause, "transit" means transportation service for use by the general public that utilizes buses, railcars, or ferries with a seating capacity of 16 or more persons.

(ii) The cost of participation principally in this state, by the taxpayer or any dependent listed on the return, in a private, third-party or employer-sponsored vanpool, buspool, or subscription taxipool. The deduction shall be allowed for the cost of participation to each vanpool, buspool, or subscription taxipool participant, but shall not exceed seven dollars ($7) per month for each person for any taxable year. For purposes of this clause, "vanpool" means eight or more persons commuting on a daily basis to and from work by means of a vehicle with a seating arrangement designed to carry eight to 15 passengers; "buspool" means 16 or more persons commuting on a daily basis to and from work by means of a vehicle with a seating arrangement designed to carry more than 15 passengers; "subscription taxipool" means a type of service in which employers or groups of employees contract with a public or private taxi operator to provide daily commuter service for a group of preassembled subscribers on a prepaid or daily fare basis, following a relatively fixed route tailored to meet the needs of the subscribers; and "third-party vanpool" means a vanpool that is not administered and operated by an employer or his or her employees, but is administered and operated by an outside organization, including a government agency, which makes vehicles and other equipment and services available for use by employers and their employees.

(5) Standby or availability charges or special taxes for fire suppression and police protection services imposed pursuant to Chapter 397 of the Statutes of 1979.

In addition, there shall be allowed as a deduction state and local, and foreign, taxes not described in this subdivision which are paid or accrued within the taxable year in carrying on a trade or business or an activity described in Section 17252 (relating to expenses for production of income).

(b) For purposes of this section and Section 17205—

(1) "Personal property tax" means an ad valorem tax which is imposed on an annual basis in respect of personal property, and for the purpose of allowing a deduction under this part, includes, but is not limited to, fees imposed as an excise tax under Section 10751 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(2) (A) "General sales tax" means a tax imposed at one rate in respect of the sale at retail of a broad range of classes of items.

(B) In the case of items of food, clothing, medical supplies, and motor vehicles—

(i) The fact that the tax does not apply in respect of some or all of such items shall not be taken into account in determining whether the tax applies in respect of a broad range of classes of items, and

(ii) The fact that the rate of tax applicable in respect of some or all of such items is lower than the general rate of tax shall not be taken into account in determining whether the tax is imposed at one rate.

(C) Except in the case of a lower rate of tax applicable in respect of an item described in subparagraph (B), no deduction shall be allowed under this section for any general sales tax imposed in respect of an item at a rate other than the general rate of tax.

(D) A compensating use tax in respect of an item shall be treated as a general sales tax. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the term "compensating use tax" means, in respect of any item, a tax which—

(i) Is imposed on the use, storage, or consumption of such item, and

(ii) Is complementary to a general sales tax, but only if a deduction is allowable under subdivision (a) (3) in respect of items sold at retail in the taxing jurisdiction which are similar to such item.

(3) A state or local tax includes only a tax imposed by a state, a possession of the United States, or a political subdivision of any of the foregoing, or by the District of Columbia.

(4) A foreign tax includes only a tax imposed by the authority of a foreign country.

(5) If the amount of any general sales tax or of any tax on the sale of gasoline, diesel fuel, or other motor fuel is separately stated, then, to the extent that the amount so stated is paid by the consumer (otherwise than in connection with the consumer's trade or business) to his seller, such amount shall be treated as a tax imposed on, and paid by, such consumer.

(c) No deduction shall be allowed for the following taxes:

(1) Taxes paid or accrued to the state under this part.

(2) Taxes on or according to or measured by income or profits paid or accrued within the taxable year imposed by the authority of any of the following:

(A) The government of the United States or any foreign country.

(B) Any state, territory, county, city and county, school district, municipality, or other taxing subdivision of any state or territory.

(C) Taxes imposed by authority of the government of the United States include—

(i) The tax imposed by Section 3101 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (relating to the tax on employees under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act);

(ii) The taxes imposed by Sections 3201 and 3211 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (relating to the taxes on railroad employees and railroad employee representatives); and

(iii) The tax withheld on wages under Section 3402 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

(3) Federal war profits and excess profits taxes.

(4) Estate, inheritance, legacy, succession, and gift taxes.

(5) Taxes computed as an addition to, or as a percentage of, taxes which are not deductible under this section.

(6) Taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the property assessed, but this does not exclude the allowance as a deduction of so much of the taxes assessed against local benefits as is properly allocable to maintenance or interest charges.

(7) Taxes on real property, to the extent that Section 17205 requires such taxes to be treated as imposed on another taxpayer.

(8) Taxes imposed by Sections 4971–4975 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended by the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (P.L. 93-406) (relating to excise taxes on prohibited transactions and contributions).

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1988, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1988, deletes or extends such date, and shall be applicable in the computation of taxes for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1982, and ending on or before December 31, 1987.

SEC. 3. Section 17204 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17204. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section and Section 17205, the following taxes and assessments shall be allowed as a deduction for the taxable year within which paid or accrued:

(1) State and local, and foreign, real property taxes, less any amounts received from the state pursuant to the authorization contained in Section 1d of Article XIII of the Constitution.

(2) State and local personal property taxes.

(3) State and local general sales taxes.

(4) State and local taxes on the sale of gasoline, diesel fuel, and other motor fuels.

(5) Standby or availability charges or special taxes for fire suppression and police protection services imposed pursuant to Chapter 397 of the Statutes of 1979.

In addition, there shall be allowed as a deduction state and local, and foreign, taxes not described in this subdivision which are paid or accrued within the taxable year in carrying on a trade or business or an activity described in Section 17252 (relating to expenses for production of income).

(b) For purposes of this section and Section 17205—

(1) "Personal property tax" means an ad valorem tax which is imposed on an annual basis in respect of personal property, and for the purpose of allowing a deduction under this part, includes, but is not limited to, fees imposed as an excise tax under Section 10751 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(2) (A) "General sales tax" means a tax imposed at one rate in respect of the sale at retail of a broad range of classes of items.

(B) In the case of items of food, clothing, medical supplies, and motor vehicles—

(i) The fact that the tax does not apply in respect of some or all of such items shall not be taken into account in determining whether the tax applies in respect of a broad range of classes of items, and

(ii) The fact that the rate of tax applicable in respect of some or all of such items is lower than the general rate of tax shall not be taken into account in determining whether the tax is imposed at one rate.

(C) Except in the case of a lower rate of tax applicable in respect of an item described in subparagraph (B), no deduction shall be allowed under this section for any general sales tax imposed in respect of an item at a rate other than the general rate of tax.

(D) A compensating use tax in respect of an item shall be treated as a general sales tax. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the term "compensating use tax" means, in respect of any item, a tax which—

(i) Is imposed on the use, storage, or consumption of such item, and

(ii) Is complementary to a general sales tax, but only if a deduction is allowable under subdivision (a) (3) in respect of items sold at retail in the taxing jurisdiction which are similar to such item.

(3) A state or local tax includes only a tax imposed by a state, a possession of the United States, or a political subdivision of any of the foregoing, or by the District of Columbia.

(4) A foreign tax includes only a tax imposed by the authority of a foreign country.

(5) If the amount of any general sales tax or of any tax on the sale of gasoline, diesel fuel, or other motor fuel is separately stated, then, to the extent that the amount so stated is paid by the consumer (otherwise than in connection with the consumer's trade or business) to his seller, such amount shall be treated as a tax imposed on, and paid by, such consumer.

(c) No deduction shall be allowed for the following taxes:

(1) Taxes paid or accrued to the state under this part.

(2) Taxes on or according to or measured by income or profits paid or accrued within the taxable year imposed by the authority of any of the following:

(A) The government of the United States or any foreign country.

(B) Any state, territory, county, city and county, school district, municipality, or other taxing subdivision of any state or territory.

(C) Taxes imposed by authority of the government of the United States include—

(i) The tax imposed by Section 3101 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (relating to the tax on employees under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act);

(ii) The taxes imposed by Sections 3201 and 3211 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (relating to the taxes on railroad employees and railroad employee representatives); and

(iii) The tax withheld on wages under Section 3402 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

(3) Federal war profits and excess profits taxes.

(4) Estate, inheritance, legacy, succession, and gift taxes.

(5) Taxes computed as an addition to, or as a percentage of, taxes which are not deductible under this section.

(6) Taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the property assessed, but this does not exclude the allowance as a deduction of so much of the taxes assessed against local benefits as is properly allocable to maintenance or interest charges.

(7) Taxes on real property, to the extent that Section 17205 requires such taxes to be treated as imposed on another taxpayer.

(8) Taxes imposed by Sections 4971–4975 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended by the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (P.L. 93-406) (relating to excise taxes on prohibited transactions and contributions).

(d) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1988, and shall be applicable in the computation of taxes for taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1988.

SEC. 4. The Legislature hereby finds and declares as follows:

(a) Existing levels of carbon monoxide and ozone pollution seriously decrease the air quality in six of 14 air basins in the State of California, and thus pose a threat to the health and well-being of residents of those basins.

(b) The consumption of gasoline, diesel fuel, and other motor vehicle fuels is the major contributor to carbon monoxide and ozone air pollution in these basins.

(c) It is in the public interest to reduce such fuel consumption, both for purposes of air quality and energy conservation.

(d) The single-occupant automobile is an especially energy-inefficient mode of transportation and significantly contributes to carbon monoxide and ozone air pollution in these air basins.

(e) Therefore, it is in the public interest that incentives to utilize more energy-efficient transportation modes be provided to taxpayers and their dependents whose predominant mode of transportation is currently the single-occupant automobile.

SEC. 5. (a) For the 1982–83 fiscal year, the sum of six million dollars ($6,000,000) in increased revenues anticipated as a result of the provisions of Section 2 of this act shall be transferred from the General Fund to the Ridesharing and Alternative Transportation Fund established by Section 1 of this act.

(b) On July 1, 1983, the Controller shall transfer six million dollars

($6,000,000) from the General Fund to the Ridesharing and Alternative Transportation Fund established by Section 1 of this act in anticipation of increased revenues as a result of the provisions of Section 2 of this act.

(c) On May 1, 1984, and on every May 1 thereafter, through May 1, 1988, the Franchise Tax Board shall provide to the Controller an estimate of the net revenue gain to the General Fund resulting from the amendments to Section 17204 of the Revenue and Taxation Code made by Section 2 of this act. The estimate shall include, but is not limited to, all of the following:

(1) An estimate of the revenue gain or loss to the General Fund which would have resulted if Section 2 of this act had not been enacted.

(2) A separate estimate of the revenue gain or loss to the General Fund resulting from each of the following provisions of Section 17204 of the Revenue and Taxation Code contained in Section 2 of this act:

(A) Subparagraph (B) of paragraph (4) of subdivision (a).

(B) Subparagraph (C) of paragraph (4) of subdivision (a).

(C) Subparagraph (E) of paragraph (4) of subdivision (a).

(d) On July 1, 1984, and on every July 1 thereafter, through July 1, 1987, the Controller shall transfer each fiscal year from the General Fund to the Ridesharing and Alternative Transportation Fund an amount equal to the net anticipated gain to the General Fund resulting from the provisions of Section 2 of this act, as estimated by the Franchise Tax Board pursuant to subdivision (c). The transfer shall not exceed six million dollars ($6,000,000) in any fiscal year.

SEC. 6. (a) The Franchise Tax Board, in cooperation with the Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, shall, after one or more public hearings, prescribe regulations as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of Section 2 of this act.

(b) The Franchise Tax Board shall report to the Legislature on or before October 1, 1984, on the effects of Section 2 of this act, including any revenue losses resulting therefrom and the number and categories of claims filed for deductions pursuant thereto. In cooperation with the Franchise Tax Board, the Energy Conservation and Development Commission shall report to the Legislature on or before October 1, 1984, on any energy savings resulting from Sections 1 and 2 of this act.

CHAPTER 503

An act to add and repeal Section 18212.2 of the Financial Code, relating to industrial loan companies.

[Approved by Governor July 12, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State July 13, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18212.2 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

18212.2. In addition to the charges authorized by Section 18212 or 18212.1 a licensee may contract for and receive an acquisition fee, which shall be fully earned immediately upon making the loan, with respect to a loan of a principal amount of not more than two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) at a rate not in excess of 5 percent of the principal amount or fifty dollars ($50), whichever is lesser. Only one acquisition fee may be contracted for or received until the loan has been repaid in full. No acquisition fee may be contracted for or received in connection with refinancing a loan with respect to which an acquisition fee has been received.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1985, and as of that date is repealed.

CHAPTER 504

An act to amend Section 7155 of the Financial Code, relating to loans.

[Approved by Governor July 12, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State July 13, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7155 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

7155. An association may make loans on the security of unimproved real property in an amount not in excess of the following amounts:

(a) Seventy percent of the appraised value for an initial or extended term which either singly or in the aggregate may not exceed 10 years, after which the loan may not be further extended and may be refinanced or modified only with an amortized loan.

(b) Seventy-five percent of the appraised value for a term of not to exceed 10 years, if the real property is a building lot or site or building lots or sites, ready for the construction on each such building lot or site of a structure designed for residential use for one family or, if the property is a site for the construction of a mobilehome park development as defined in Section 7187.1. Such loan may be extended for an additional period not in excess of three years, provided interest on the loan is then current and the outstanding balance of the loan is or has been reduced to an amount not in excess of 75 percent of the current appraised value of the security property. No loan shall be made under the sole authority of this subdivision if the aggregate amount of such loan and of the balance of all outstanding loans made pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision exceeds 5 percent of the association's assets.

(c) Seventy-five percent of the appraised value for a term of not to exceed 10 years, if the real property is a building lot or site ready for construction of a structure designed for residential use for one family. Each loan made pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision shall provide for equal, or substantially equal, monthly payments of principal and interest, or equal monthly payments of principal with interest payable monthly on the unpaid balance, beginning not more than 60 days after disbursement of the loan, sufficient to amortize at least 40 percent of the original principal amount of the loan prior to the end of the loan term. The borrower, including a purchaser who assumes the loan, shall execute a certification in writing stating that no lien or charge on such property, other than the lien of the association or liens or charges which will be discharged from the proceeds of the loan or liens in favor of any public entity or authority to secure payment of taxes, assessments or similar items, has been given or executed by the borrower or has been contracted or agreed to be so given or executed by the borrower or has been contracted or agreed to be so given or executed. The borrower shall further certify in writing that:

(1) It is his intention that the lot which is security for the loan will be the site for construction of his permanent home and is not a site for a seasonal or vacation home, and

(2) Such borrower does not own and is not purchasing any other lot intended to be the site for construction of his permanent home.

CHAPTER 505

An act to amend Sections 31208, 31258, 31351, 31352, and 31354 of, and to add Sections 31104.2, 31115.5, and 31251.2 to, the Public Resources Code, relating to the State Coastal Conservancy, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

I am deleting the appropriation language contained in Section 9 of Assembly Bill No. 523.

This bill does not extend the current eligibility for local government reimbursement in connection with the local coastal program process. The inclusion of Section 9 in AB 523 is therefore inappropriate.

With this deletion, I approve Assembly Bill No. 523.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 31104.2 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

31104.2. The conservancy is the designated agency in the state for planning and coordinating federal surplus land sales in the coastal zone.

SEC. 2. Section 31115.5 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

31115.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the conservancy may undertake projects in the City of San Juan Capistrano pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 31150) and Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 31350).

SEC. 3. Section 31208 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

31208. (a) Following completion of a coastal restoration plan, the conservancy shall forward the proposed plan to the commission for determination of conformity of the plan with the policies and objectives of Division 20 (commencing with Section 30000). The commission shall have 60 days to review the project and transmit the findings on such plan to the conservancy. If no comments are received within that period, the coastal restoration plan shall be deemed to be in accord with Division 20 (commencing with Section 30000).

(b) Following the certification of a local coastal program, the city or county or city and county with jurisdiction over the certified area, rather than the commission, shall review the coastal restoration plan where: (1) the proposed restoration plan will be implemented entirely within one local public agency's jurisdiction; (2) the area proposed for restoration is identified pursuant to the provisions of Section 31201; and (3) implementation of the coastal restoration plan does not require an amendment to the certified local coastal program. The local public agency shall review the coastal restoration plan to determine consistency with the certified local coastal program within 60 days after transmittal of the plan from the conservancy and shall transmit its findings to the conservancy immediately upon completion of plan review. If no comments are received at the end of the 60-day period, the plan shall be deemed to be in accord with the provisions of the certified local coastal program.

Where the coastal restoration plan will be implemented in whole or in part in an area in which the commission retains coastal development permit jurisdiction pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 30519, or in an area in which two or more local governments have coastal development permit jurisdiction, or where a local coastal program amendment is required to implement the plan, the commission shall be responsible for coastal restoration plan review and shall conduct the review in the following manner. The commission shall review the coastal restoration plan for consistency with the policies and objectives of Division 20, as provided in subdivision (a), for an area subject to retained coastal development permit jurisdiction pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 30519 and where a local coastal program amendment is required, and shall review the plan for consistency with certified local coastal programs for areas under local government coastal development permit jurisdiction.

SEC. 4. Section 31251.2 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

31251.2. (a) In order to enhance the natural or scenic character of coastal resources within the coastal zone, the conservancy may undertake a project or award a grant, consistent with subdivision (a) of Section 30200 and pursuant to this chapter, to enhance a watershed resource, other than an anadromous fish stream or riparian corridor, that is partly outside of the coastal zone.

Neither the conservancy nor any other state agency shall undertake a project affecting an area outside the coastal zone under this chapter, except at the request of the local public agency or agencies having jurisdiction over the entire project area.

(b) Any enhancement activity carried out pursuant to this section shall not be subject to any commission review, as set forth in Section 31258, for that portion of the activity located outside the coastal zone. However, the commission through its executive director and the Department of Fish and Game may review and comment on the enhancement plan's consistency with the policies and objectives of Division 20 (commencing with Section 30000).

(c) No funds set forth in subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 5096.151 of the Public Resources Code, shall be expended on enhancement activities that are outside the coastal zone.

(d) This section shall not apply to any portion of the Santa Monica Mountains Zone as set forth in Division 23 (commencing with Section 33000).

SEC. 5. Section 31258 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

31258. (a) Following completion of a coastal resource enhancement plan, the conservancy shall forward the plan to the commission for determination of conformity of the plan with the policies and objectives of Division 20 (commencing with Section 30000). The commission shall have 60 days to review the project and transmit the findings on the plan to the conservancy. If no comments are received within the period, the restoration plan shall be deemed to be in accord with Division 20 (commencing with Section 30000).

(b) Following the certification of a local coastal program, the city or county or city and county with jurisdiction over the certified area, rather than the commission, shall review the coastal resource enhancement plan where: (1) the proposed enhancement plan will be implemented entirely within one local public agency's jurisdiction; (2) the area proposed for enhancement is identified pursuant to the provisions of Section 31251; and (3) implementation of the enhancement plan does not require an amendment to the certified local coastal program. The local public agency shall review the enhancement plan to determine consistency with the certified local coastal program within 60 days after transmittal of the plan from the conservancy and shall transmit its findings to the conservancy immediately upon completion of plan review. If no comments are received at the end of the 60-day period, the plan shall be deemed to be in accord with the provisions of the certified local coastal program.

Where the enhancement plan will be implemented in whole or in part in an area in which the commission retains coastal development permit jurisdiction pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 30519, or in an area in which two or more local governments have jurisdiction, or where a local coastal program amendment is required to implement the plan, the commission shall be responsible for enhancement plan review and shall conduct the review in the following manner. The commission shall review the enhancement plan for consistency with the policies and objectives of Division 20, as provided in subdivision (a), for the area subject to retained coastal development permit jurisdiction pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 30159 and where a local coastal program amendment is required, and shall review the plan for consistency with certified local coastal programs for areas under local government coastal development permit jurisdiction.

SEC. 6. Section 31351 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

31351. (a) The conservancy shall cooperate with the commission, bay commission, and other state, local, and federal public agencies and with nonprofit organizations in ensuring the reservation of lands for park, recreation, fish and wildlife habitat, historical preservation, or scientific study required to meet the policies and objectives of the California Coastal Act of 1976 (commencing with Section 30000) or a certified local coastal plan or program, or, in the case of San Francisco Bay, the sites identified in the bay plan, the Suisun Marsh Protection Plan, or in any other local plan which the bay commission determines to be consistent with those plans.

(b) The provisions of this division shall not diminish or otherwise affect the authority of the bay commission to approve, deny, or modify permits as provided in Section 66632 of the Government Code.

SEC. 7. Section 31352 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

31352. In the event that any state, local, or federal public agency or any nonprofit organization is unable, due to limited financial resources or other circumstances of a temporary nature, to acquire a site as provided in Section 31351, the conservancy may acquire and hold the site for subsequent conveyance to the appropriate public agency or nonprofit organization. The conservancy may provide such technical assistance as is required to aid public agencies and nonprofit organizations in completing such acquisition and related functions.

SEC. 8. Section 31354 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

31354. The conservancy shall not hold lands acquired in accordance with this chapter more than 10 years from the time of acquisition. A federal, state, or local public agency shall have the right to acquire the land at any time during this period for public purposes indicated in a certified local coastal plan or program, or in any local plan which the commission determines to be consistent with the policies and objectives of Division 20 (commencing with Section 30000), or, in the case of San Francisco Bay, the sites identified in the San Francisco Bay Plan, the Suisun Marsh Protection Plan, or any other local plan which the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission determines to be consistent with those plans, as well as any other area of importance to coastal resources, including unfilled historic tidal wetlands identified by the state. At any time during this period, a nonprofit organization may acquire those lands if the city or county within which the lands are located approves the acquisition, and, when deemed appropriate by the conservancy, the instrument of conveyance of those lands to a nonprofit organization includes a restriction permanently limiting use of those lands to the public purposes indicated in a certified approved plan or program. The acquisition price to federal, state, or local agencies or to nonprofit organizations shall be based upon the cost of acquisition under this division, plus administrative and management costs in reserving the land. The payment of this acquisition price shall be either monetary or conservancy approved property of an equivalent value, or a combination thereof. The lands acquired under this section shall not be disposed of under Section 11011.1 of the Government Code.

If, at the expiration of this 10-year period, no public agency or nonprofit organization is willing or able to acquire the lands, the conservancy shall request the Department of General Services to dispose of those lands at fair market value without restriction on subsequent land use under this division.

Any funds received by the state upon disposition of lands acquired in accordance with Section 31352 shall be deposited with the conservancy and shall be available for expenditure when appropriated by the Legislature for the purposes of funding the programs specified in this division.

SEC. 9. Local governments shall be reimbursed pursuant to Sections 30340.5 and 30340.6 of the Public Resources Code for any costs that may be incurred by them in carrying out any program or performing any service required to be carried on or performed by Sections 3 and 5 of this act.

SEC. 10. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order not to delay, and thus jeopardize, projects which rely on willing sellers, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 506

An act to repeal and add Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 4700) to Division 4.5 of, and to repeal Section 5328.5 of, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to developmental disabilities.

[Approved by Governor July 13, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State July 13, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 4700) of Division 4.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 4700) is added to Division 4.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

CHAPTER 7. APPEAL PROCEDURE

Article 1. Definitions

4700. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in this article govern the construction of this chapter.

4701. "Adequate notice" means a written notice informing the applicant, recipient, and authorized representative of at least all of the following:

(a) The action that the service agency proposes to take.

(b) The reason or reasons for that action.

(c) The effective date of that action.

(d) The specific law, regulation, or policy supporting the action.

(e) The responsible state agency with whom a state appeal must be filed, including the address of the state agency director.

(f) Information on availability of advocacy assistance, including referral to the state hospital or regional center rights advocate, area board, publicly funded legal services, corporations, and other publicly or privately funded advocacy organizations, including the protection and advocacy system required under federal Public Law 95-602, the Developmental Disabilities Assistance and Bill of Rights Act.

(g) The fair hearing appeal procedure, including deadlines and the right to waive the appeals board hearing, and access to service agency records under Article 5 (commencing with Section 4725).

(h) That if a request for a fair hearing by a recipient is postmarked not later than 10 days prior to the effective date of the proposed action, current services shall continue as provided in Section 4715. The notice shall be in clear, nontechnical language in English and such other languages as the claimant comprehends.

4701.5. "Applicant" means a person who has applied for services from a service agency, or on whose behalf services have been applied for.

4701.6. "Authorized representative" means the legal guardian, conservator, or parent or person having legal custody of a minor claimant, or person or agency authorized in writing by the claimant or by the legal guardian, conservator, or parent or person having legal custody of a minor claimant to act for or represent the claimant under this chapter.

4702. "Claimant" means an applicant for or recipient of services who has filed for a fair hearing.

4702.5. "Days" means calendar days unless otherwise noted.

4702.6. "Hearing request form" means a document which shall include the name of the persons requesting a hearing, name of applicant or recipient, date of request, reason for the request, and authorized representative, if any.

4703. "Persons who have the right to request a fair hearing" means applicant, recipient, applicant or recipient's legal guardian or conservator, applicant or recipient's parent, if a minor, and applicant or recipient's authorized representative.

4703.5. "Recipient" means a person with a developmental disability who is eligible for and receives services from a service agency.

4703.6. "Responsible state agency" means the state agency with which a state appeal is required to be filed.

4703.7. "Services" means the type and amount of services and service components set forth in the recipient's individual program plan pursuant to Section 4646.

4704. "Service agency" means any public or private agency that receives state funds to provide services for persons with developmental disabilities.

Article 2. General Provisions

4705. (a) Every service agency shall, as a condition of continued receipt of state funds, have an agency fair hearing procedure for resolving conflicts between the service agency and recipients of, or applicants for, service. The State Department of Developmental Services shall promulgate uniform regulations for fair hearings under this chapter by October 1, 1983, which shall be binding on every regional center.

(b) A service agency that employs a fair hearing procedure mandated by any other statute shall be considered to have an approved procedure for purposes of this chapter.

(c) The service agency's fair hearing procedure shall be stated in writing, in English and such other language as may be appropriate to the needs of the consumers of the agency's service. A copy of the procedure and a copy of the provisions of this chapter shall be prominently displayed on the premises of the service agency.

(d) All recipients, applicants and persons having legal responsibility for such recipients or applicants shall be informed verbally of, and shall be notified in writing in a language which they comprehend of, the service agency's fair hearing procedure when they apply for service, when they are denied service, and when notice of service modification is given pursuant to Section 4710.

Article 3. Fair Hearing Procedure

4710. (a) Adequate notice shall be sent to the applicant or recipient by certified mail at least 30 days prior to any of the following actions:

(1) The agency makes a decision without the mutual consent of the service recipient or authorized representative to reduce, terminate, or change services set forth in an individual program plan.

(2) A recipient is determined to be no longer eligible for agency services.

(b) If the reason for denial of services or modification of services in a recipient's individual program plan is a lack of funds in the regional center budget, the regional center shall be the service agency responsible for giving adequate notice and participating in the fair hearing procedure under this chapter.

(c) If a lack of funds in the regional center budget is the reason for (1) the denial of services to an applicant or (2) the denial of services to a current regional center client requesting services not included in the client's individual program plan but determined to be necessary by the interdisciplinary team, or (3) denial, cutback, or termination of current services to a recipient set forth in the individual program plan, the regional center shall, within 30 days after written notice is mailed to the applicant or client, notify the department in writing of the denial. The notification to the department shall include the nature of the service requested, a request that the department allocate sufficient funds to the regional center within 30 days to provide the service, the projected cost for such service for the balance of the fiscal year, and information substantiating the reason for the lack of funds to purchase such service.

(d) If a person requests regional center services and is found to be ineligible for such services, the regional center shall give adequate notice pursuant to Section 4701. Notice shall be sent within five days of the time limits set forth in Sections 4642 and 4643.

(e) The advance notice specified in subdivision (a) shall not be required when a reduction, termination, or change in services is determined to be necessary for the health and safety of the recipient. However, adequate notice shall be given within 10 days after such service agency action.

4710.5. (a) Any applicant for or recipient of services, or authorized representative of such applicant or recipient who is dissatisfied with any action of the service agency which he or she believes to be illegal, discriminatory, or not in the recipient's or applicant's best interests, who has received adequate notice pursuant to Section 4710, who is dissatisfied with a request to correct records or remove information under Section 4715 or who is refused the right to apply for services, shall, upon filing a request within 30 days after the action complained of, be afforded an opportunity for a fair hearing.

(b) The request for a fair hearing shall be stated in writing on a hearing request form provided by the service agency, or in other written form.

(c) If any person makes a verbal request for a fair hearing, the employee of the service agency who hears the request shall provide the person with a fair hearing form and shall assist the person in filling out such form if the person requires or requests assistance. Any employee who willfully fails to comply with this requirement shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

(d) The hearing request shall be directed to the director of the service agency responsible for the action complained of under subdivision (a). In the case of an appeal submitted to the director of a regional center, a state hospital, or a service agency authorized by the regional center pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 4648, the service agency director shall send a copy of the appeal form to the department within five days of the service agency director's receipt of the request. The department shall keep a file of all hearing request forms.

(e) If the claimant waives the appeals board hearing, the appeal request and notice of waiver shall be sent directly to the director of the responsible state agency for a state level hearing pursuant to Section 4712.

4710.6. (a) Upon receipt by the service agency director of the appeal form, the service agency director shall immediately notify in writing the claimant, the claimant's guardian or conservator, parent of a minor, and authorized representative of the claimant's fair hearing rights, including:

(1) The right to waive the appeals board hearing.

(2) The opportunity to be present in all proceedings and to present written and oral evidence.

(3) The opportunity to confront and cross-examine witnesses.

(4) The right to appear in person with counsel or other representatives of his or her own choosing.

(5) The right to access to records pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 4725).

(6) The right to an interpreter.

(b) The written notification of rights pursuant to subdivision (a) shall also include the following:

(1) Information on availability of advocacy assistance, including referral to the state hospital or regional center rights advocate, area board, publicly funded legal services corporations, and other publicly or privately funded advocacy organizations, including the protection and advocacy system required under federal Public Law 95-602, the Developmental Disabilities Assistance and Bill of Rights Act.

(2) The proposed date, time and place for the appeals board hearing.

(3) Information that the appeals board hearing shall be held within 30 days of the receipt of the hearing request specified in subdivision (a) of Section 4710.6, unless both parties agree to an extension pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 4711.5, or the appeals board hearing is waived.

(c) After the informal meeting held pursuant to Section 4710.7, and upon notification that the appellant is continuing the hearing procedure, the service agency director shall immediately send a copy of the hearing request to the area board.

4710.7. Within 10 days of the receipt of the request for a fair hearing, the agency director, or his or her designated representative, shall meet informally with the claimant and his or her authorized representative to resolve the issue or issues that are the subject of the appeal, as follows:

(a) The informal meeting shall be conducted by the service agency director or his or her designee. Any designee shall have the authority to resolve the issue or issues. The service agency director or his or her designee shall notify the applicant or recipient or his or her authorized representative of the decision of the informal meeting in writing within five days of the meeting.

(b) Prior to the meeting, the applicant or his or her authorized representative shall have the right to examine any documents contained in the individual's service agency file. Access to records shall be provided pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 4725).

(c) If the informal meeting does not resolve the issues, the fair hearing shall continue.

4711. (a) Within 30 days of the receipt of the fair hearing request by the service agency director, the appeals board hearing shall be conducted unless the appellant waives the appeals board hearing pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 4710.6.

(b) The appeals board shall be composed of three persons, one selected by the agency's governing board, one selected by the person or persons requesting the hearing, and the third selected by the area board.

(c) No member of the appeals board shall be an employee, agent, board member, or contractor of the service agency against whose action the appeal has been filed, spouse, parent, child, brother, sister, grandparent, legal guardian or conservator of the appellant, or any person who has a direct financial interest in the outcome of the fair hearing or any other interest which would preclude a fair and impartial hearing.

(d) The appeals board hearing shall be held at a time and place reasonably convenient to the claimant.

(e) The service agency may reimburse each member of the appeals board a reasonable per diem and transportation cost for participation in the appeals board. Such costs shall be those normally authorized by the service agency for its employees.

(f) Each member of the appeals board shall be knowledgeable of the federal and state laws, regulations, and policies pertaining to services for persons with developmental disabilities.

(h) The chairperson of the appeals board shall be selected by its members.

4711.5. (a) The hearing need not be conducted according to the technical rules of evidence and those related to witnesses. Any relevant evidence shall be admitted. All testimony shall be under oath or affirmation which the chairperson of the panel is empowered to administer.

(b) At the hearing, the claimant shall have the rights stated pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 4710.6. If, in the opinion of any person the rights or best interests of a claimant who has not personally authorized a representative will not be properly protected or advocated in any appeals procedure, the area board shall be notified, and the area board may appoint a representative to assist the claimant in such appeals procedure.

(c) A recording shall be made of the proceedings before the appeals board. Any cost of recording shall be borne by the service agency.

(d) The hearing shall be conducted in the English language. However, if any of the parties does not comprehend English, then an interpreter shall be provided who is competent and acceptable to the party requiring the interpreter and to the hearing panel. Any cost of interpreter shall be borne by the service agency.

(e) The appeals board hearing shall be held within 30 days of receipt of the request for the hearing. Either party to the appeals board hearing may request a continuance, which shall be granted upon a showing of good cause. Any continuance shall not extend the time of the hearing beyond 45 days from the receipt of the request for appeal unless the claimant is agreeable to such an extension.

(f) Appeals board hearings shall be open to the public except at the request of the claimant or authorized representative or when personnel matters are being reviewed.

4711.6. (a) Within 15 days of the concluding day of the appeals board hearing, the appeals board shall render a written decision based upon a majority vote of its members.

(b) The appeals board's written decision shall be in ordinary and concise language. If any of the parties cannot comprehend English, then the written decision for that party shall be translated into a language which such party can comprehend. The decision shall contain a summary of facts, a statement of the evidence relied upon from the proceedings, a decision on each of the issues presented, and identification of the law, regulations, and policies supporting the decision. The notification of the decision shall state that the decision shall go into effect 30 days after claimant's receipt of decision and that it shall be the final administrative decision unless either party appeals to the responsible state agency. The notification shall state that either party has a right of appeal to the responsible state agency within 30 days.

4712. (a) If either party disagrees with the decision of the appeals board, he or she shall submit a written request for appeal to the director of the responsible state agency within 30 days of receipt of the appeals board decision.

If a claimant chooses to waive the appeals board hearing, the claimant shall submit a written request for a state appeal within 10 days of receipt of notification in Section 4710.6.

(b) Upon receipt of the request for appeal the responsible state agency director shall immediately notify the service agency, claimant, claimant's legal guardian or conservator, parent of minor claimant, and claimant's authorized representative in writing of the receipt of request for state level hearing, rights pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 4710.6, and the availability of advocacy assistance pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 4710.6.

(c) The hearing shall be held within 15 days of the receipt of request for state hearing, or 15 days from receipt of the decision to waive the appeals board hearing. Either party may request a continuance, which shall be granted upon a showing of good cause. Any continuance shall not extend the time for a hearing beyond 30 days of receipt of the request.

(d) The state hearing shall be conducted by a person knowledgeable in the law and regulations governing services to developmentally disabled individuals and administrative hearings. The hearing officer shall review the findings and decision of the appeals board hearing if one has been held, and may incorporate them in the state agency decision. The hearing officer may request additional information or evidence.

A hearing officer shall voluntarily disqualify himself or herself and withdraw from any case in which he or she cannot accord a fair and impartial hearing or consideration. Any party may request the disqualification of any hearing officer by filing an affidavit, prior to the taking of evidence at a hearing, stating with particularity the grounds upon which it is claimed that a fair and impartial hearing cannot be accorded. The issue shall be determined by the hearing officer.

(e) Both parties to the hearing shall have the rights specified in subdivision (a) of Section 4710.6.

(f) The state hearing shall be conducted according to the rules stated in subdivisions (a), (b), (c), and (f), of Section 4711.5 except that the costs of an interpreter and recording shall be borne by the responsible state agency.

4712.5. (a) Within 15 days of the concluding day of the state hearing, the hearing officer shall render a written decision which shall contain a summary of facts, a statement of the evidence from the proceedings which was relied on, a decision on each of the issues presented, and identification of the statutes, regulations, and policies supporting the decision. The decision shall be in ordinary and concise language. If any of the parties cannot comprehend English, then the written decision shall be translated for that person into a language which such party can comprehend. The decision shall include notification that this is the final administrative decision, and both parties shall be bound thereby. Either party may appeal any final administrative decision to a court of competent jurisdiction within 90 days.

(b) The decision shall not be implemented until 30 days after it is received by the claimant.

Article 4. Services Pending Final Administrative Decision

4715. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, if a request for a hearing is postmarked not later than 10 days prior to the effective date of the proposed action, services that are being provided pursuant to a recipient's individual program plan shall be continued during the appeal procedure up to and including the 30th day after certified mailing of either of the following final administrative decisions:

(1) The appeals board decision if the right to appeal from the appeals board is not exercised.

(2) The responsible state agency's decision if the right to appeal from the appeals board is exercised or if the appeals board hearing is waived.

(b) Services continued pursuant to subdivision (a) may be modified by agreement of the parties in accordance with the decision of the interdisciplinary team and the individual program plan.

(c) Any appeal to a court by either party shall not operate as a stay of enforcement of the final administrative decision, provided that either party may seek a stay of enforcement from any court of competent jurisdiction.

4716. Nothing in this chapter shall presume the incompetence of any person with a developmental disability to participate in any of the appeals procedures established herein.

Article 5. Access to Records

4725. For the purposes of this article:

(a) "Access" means the right to inspect, review, and obtain an accurate copy of any record obtained in the course of providing services under this division. A service agency may make a reasonable charge in an amount not to exceed the actual cost of reproducing the record, unless the imposition of the cost would prohibit the exercise of the right to obtain a copy. No charge may be made to search for or retrieve any record.

(b) "Record" means any item of information directly relating to a person with developmental disabilities or to one who is believed to have a developmental disability which is maintained by a service agency, whether recorded by handwriting, print, tapes, film, microfilm, or other means.

4726. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 5328, access to records shall be provided to an applicant for, or recipient of, services or to his or her authorized representative for purposes of the appeal procedure under this chapter.

4727. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to compel a physician, psychologist, social worker, nurse, attorney, or other professional person to reveal information which has been given to him or her in confidence by members of a recipient's or applicant's family.

4728. Each service agency shall adopt procedures for granting of requests by persons authorized under Section 4726 for access to records during regular business hours, provided that access shall be granted no later than five days following the date of receipt of the oral or written request for access. Procedures shall include notice of the location of all records and providing qualified personnel to interpret records if requested.

4729. Whenever access to service agency records is requested, the service agency shall provide at least the following information:

(a) The types of records maintained by the service agency.

(b) The position of the official responsible for the maintenance of records.

(c) The right of access to the records, and the policies of the service agency for obtaining access, including the cost, if any, consistent with subdivision (a) of Section 4725, to be charged for reproducing copies of records.

4730. Any person who willfully and knowingly violates the provisions of this article is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 3. Section 5328.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 507

An act to amend Sections 18906 and 18941 of, and to add Section 17960.5 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to building standards, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 13, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State July 13, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17960.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

17960.5. The building standards for residential buildings in Chapter 2-53 of Part 2, and Chapter 4-10 of Part 4, of Title 24 of the California Administrative Code effective July 13, 1982, shall not apply to the construction of new residential housing projects which received approval by an advisory agency or other appropriate local agency on or before June 15, 1982, provided application for the permits to construct single-family detached dwellings are submitted or filed on or before June 15, 1983, and the application for all other residential building permits are submitted or filed on or before December 31, 1983.

For the purposes of this section, "approval" includes, but is not limited to, approval or conditional approval of a tentative subdivision or tentative parcel map or parcel map pursuant to the Subdivision Map Act (Division 2 (commencing with Section 66410) of Title 7 of the Government Code), condominium plan or other permit for a residential housing project.

SEC. 2. Section 18941 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18941. All building standards and regulations shall be administered and enforced and, whenever practicable, written on a performance basis consistent with state and nationally recognized standards for building construction in view of the use and occupancy of each structure to best preserve and protect the public health and safety.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act for the purpose of making reimbursement pursuant to these sections. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of that code.

SEC. 5. Notwithstanding Section 2231.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, this act does not contain a repealer, as required by that section; therefore, Sections 2 and 3 of this act shall remain in effect unless and until they are amended or repealed by a later enacted act.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that state agencies may adopt building standards in the proper form at the earliest possible time and to prevent the significant increase of the cost of residential buildings when the new Title 24 standards become operable, it is necessary for this act to go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 508

An act to amend Sections 53601 and 53635 of, and to add Section 45308.7 to, the Government Code, relating to funds of local agencies.

[Approved by Governor August 13, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 15, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 45308.7 is added to the Government Code, to read:

45308.7. The city retirement board, if there is one, or the city treasurer with the approval of the city council, may enter into security loan agreements with broker-dealers and with California or national banks for the purpose of prudently supplementing the income normally received from investments.

(b) "Security loan agreement" means a written contract whereby a legal owner, the lender, agrees to lend specific marketable corporate or government securities for a period not to exceed one year. The lender retains the right to collect from the borrower all dividends, interest, premiums, rights, and any other distributions to which the lender would otherwise have been entitled. The lender waives the right to vote the securities during the term of the loan. The lender may terminate the contract upon not more than five business days' notice as agreed, and the borrower may terminate the contract upon not less than two business days' notice as agreed. The borrower shall provide collateral to the lender in the form of cash or bonds or other interest-bearing notes and obligations of the United States or federal instrumentalities eligible for investment by a lending retirement fund.

Such collateral shall be in an amount equal to at least 102 percent of the market value of the loaned securities as agreed. The lender shall monitor the market value of the loaned securities daily. The loan agreement shall provide for payment of additional collateral on a daily basis, or at such times as the value of the loaned securities increases, to agreed-upon ratios. In no event, shall the amount of the collateral be less than the market value of the loaned securities.

(c) "Marketable securities" means securities that are freely traded on recognized exchanges or marketplaces.

(d) Each board or city treasurer entering into security loan agreements shall do all of the following:

(1) Maintain detailed records of all security loans.

(2) Develop controls and reports to monitor the conduct of the transactions.

(3) Publicize the net results of the security loan transaction separate from the results of other investment activities.

SEC. 2. Section 53601 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53601. The legislative body of a local agency having money in a sinking fund of, or surplus money in, its treasury not required for the immediate necessities of the local agency may invest such portion of the money as it deems wise or expedient in:

(a) Bonds issued by it, including bonds payable solely out of the revenues from a revenue-producing property owned, controlled, or operated by it or by a department, board, agency, or authority thereof.

(b) United States Treasury notes, bonds, bills, or certificates of indebtedness, or those for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(c) Registered state warrants or treasury notes or bonds of this state, including bonds payable solely out of the revenues from a revenue-producing property owned, controlled, or operated by the state or by a department, board, agency, or authority thereof.

(d) Bonds, notes, warrants, or other evidences of indebtedness of any local agency within this state, including bonds payable solely out of the revenues from a revenue-producing property owned, controlled, or operated by the local agency, or by a department, board, agency, or authority thereof.

(e) Obligations issued by banks for cooperatives, federal land banks, federal intermediate credit banks, federal home loan banks, the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, the Tennessee Valley Authority, or in obligations, participations, or other instruments of or issued by, or fully guaranteed as to principal and interest by, the Federal National Mortgage Association; or in guaranteed portions of Small Business Administration notes; or in obligations, participations, or other instruments of or issued by a federal agency or a United States government-sponsored enterprise.

(f) Bills of exchange or time drafts drawn on and accepted by a commercial bank, otherwise known as bankers acceptances, which are eligible for purchase by the Federal Reserve System. Purchases of bankers acceptances may not exceed 270 days maturity or 30 percent of the agency's surplus money which may be invested pursuant to this section.

The provisions of this subdivision shall not preclude a municipal utility district from investing any surplus money in its treasury in any manner authorized by the Municipal Utility District Act.

(g) Commercial paper of "prime" quality of the highest ranking or of the highest letter and numerical rating as provided for by Moody's Investors Service, Inc., or Standard and Poor's Corporation. Eligible paper is further limited to issuing corporations that are organized and operating within the United States and having total assets in excess of five hundred million dollars ($500,000,000) and having an "A" or higher rating for the issuer's debentures, other than commercial paper, as provided for by Moody's Investors Service, Inc., or Standard and Poor's Corporation. Purchases of eligible commercial paper may not exceed 180 days maturity nor represent more than 10 percent of the outstanding paper of an issuing corporation. Purchases of commercial paper may not exceed 15 percent of the agency's surplus money which may be invested pursuant to this section.

(h) Negotiable certificates of deposits issued by a nationally or state-chartered bank or a state or federal savings and loan association. Purchases of negotiable certificates of deposit may not exceed 30 percent of the agency's surplus money which may be invested pursuant to this section. For purposes of this section, negotiable certificates of deposits do not come within the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 53630) of Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5.

(i) Investments in repurchase agreements or reverse repurchase agreements of any securities authorized by this section. For purposes of this section, the term "repurchase agreement" means a purchase of securities by the local agency pursuant to an agreement by which the seller will repurchase such securities on or before a specified date and for a specified amount.

For purposes of this section, the term "reverse repurchase agreement" means a sale of securities by the local agency pursuant to an agreement by which the local agency will repurchase such securities on or before a specified date and for a specified amount.

SEC. 3. Section 53635 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53635. As far as possible, all money belonging to, or in the custody of, a local agency, including money paid to the treasurer or other official to pay the principal, interest, or penalties of bonds, shall be deposited for safekeeping in state or national banks or state or federal savings and loan associations in the state selected by the treasurer or other official having the legal custody of the money, or may be invested in the following unless otherwise directed by the legislative body pursuant to Section 53601:

(a) Bonds issued by it, including bonds payable solely out of the revenues from a revenue-producing property owned, controlled, or operated by it or by a department, board, agency, or authority thereof.

(b) United States Treasury notes, bonds, bills, or certificates of indebtedness, or those for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(c) Registered state warrants or treasury notes or bonds of this state, including bonds payable solely out of the revenues from a revenue-producing property owned, controlled, or operated by the state or by a department, board, agency, or authority thereof.

(d) Bonds, notes, warrants, or other evidences of indebtedness of any local agency within this state, including bonds payable solely out of the revenues from a revenue-producing property owned, controlled, or operated by the local agency, or by a department, board, agency, or authority thereof.

(e) Obligations issued by banks for cooperatives, federal land banks, federal intermediate credit banks, federal home loan banks, the Federal Home Loan Bank, the Tennessee Valley Authority, or in obligations, participations, or other instruments of or issued by, or fully guaranteed as to principal and interest by, the Federal National Mortgage Association; or in guaranteed portions of Small Business Administration notes; or in obligations, participations, or other instruments of or issued by a federal agency or a United States government-sponsored enterprise.

(f) Bills of exchange or time drafts drawn on and accepted by a commercial bank, otherwise known as bankers acceptances, which are eligible for purchase by the Federal Reserve System. Purchases of bankers acceptances may not exceed 270 days maturity or 30 percent of the agency's surplus funds which may be invested pursuant to this section.

The provisions of this subdivision shall not preclude a municipal utility district from investing any surplus money in its treasury in any manner authorized by the Municipal Utility District Act.

(g) Commercial paper of "prime" quality of the highest ranking or of the highest letter and numerical rating as provided for by Moody's Investors Service, Inc., or Standard and Poor's Corporation. Eligible paper is further limited to issuing corporations that are organized and operating within the United States and having total assets in excess of five hundred million dollars ($500,000,000) and having an "A" or higher rating for the issuer's debentures, other than commercial paper, as provided for by Moody's Investors Service, Inc., or Standard and Poor's Corporation. Purchases of eligible commercial paper may not exceed 180 days maturity nor represent more than 10 percent of the outstanding paper of an issuing corporation. Purchases of commercial paper may not exceed 15 percent of the agency's surplus money which may be invested pursuant to this section.

(h) Negotiable certificates of deposits issued by a nationally or state-chartered bank or a state or federal savings and loan association. Purchases of negotiable certificates of deposit may not exceed 30 percent of the agency's surplus money which may be invested pursuant to this section. For purposes of this section, negotiable certificates of deposits do not come within the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 53630) of Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5.

(i) Investments in repurchase agreements or reverse repurchase agreements of any securities authorized by this section. For purposes of this section, the term "repurchase agreement" means a purchase of securities by the local agency pursuant to an agreement by which the seller will repurchase such securities on or before a specified date and for a specified amount.

For purposes of this section, the term "reverse repurchase agreement" means a sale of securities by the local agency pursuant to an agreement by which the local agency will repurchase such securities on or before a specified date and for a specified amount.

Investment in a reverse purchase agreement shall be made only upon prior approval of the legislative body of the local agency.

CHAPTER 509

An act to amend Sections 17510.3 and 17510.7 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to charitable solicitations.

[Approved by Governor August 13, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 15, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17510.3 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

17510.3. (a) Prior to any solicitation or sales solicitation for charitable purposes, the solicitor or seller shall exhibit to the prospective donor or purchaser a card entitled "Solicitation or Sale for Charitable Purposes Card." The card shall be signed and dated under penalty of perjury by an individual who is a principal, staff member, or officer of the soliciting organization. The card shall give the name and address of the soliciting organization or the person who signed the card and the name and business address of the paid individual who is doing the actual soliciting.

In lieu of exhibiting a card, the solicitor or seller may distribute during the course of the solicitation any printed material, such as a solicitation brochure, provided such material complies with the standards set forth below, and provided that the solicitor or seller informs the prospective donor or purchaser that such information as required below is contained in the printed material.

Information on the card or printed material shall be presented in at least 10-point type and shall include the following:

(1) The name and address of the combined campaign, each organization, or fund on behalf of which all or any part of the money collected will be utilized for charitable purposes;

(2) If there is no organization or fund, the manner in which the money collected will be utilized for charitable purposes;

(3) The amount, stated as a percentage of the total gift or purchase price, that will be used for charitable purposes.

(4) If paid fund raisers are paid a set fee rather than a percentage of the total amount raised, the card shall show the total cost that is estimated will be used for direct fundraising expenses.

(5) If the solicitation is not a sale solicitation, the card may state, in place of the amount of fundraising expenses, that an audited financial statement of such expenses may be obtained by contacting the organization at the address disclosed.

(6) The nontax-exempt status of the organization or fund, if the organization or fund for which the money or funds are being solicited does not have a charitable tax exemption under both federal and state law;

(7) The percentage of the total gift or purchase price which may be deducted as a charitable contribution under both federal and state law. If no portion is so deductible the card shall state that "This contribution is not tax deductible."

(b) Knowing and willful noncompliance by any individual volunteer who receives no compensation of any type from or in connection with a solicitation by any charitable organization shall subject the solicitor or seller to the penalties of the law.

(c) When the solicitation is not a sales solicitation, any individual volunteer who receives no compensation of any type from, or in connection with, a solicitation by any charitable organization may comply with the disclosure provisions by providing the name and address of the charitable organization on behalf of which all or any part of the money collected will be utilized for charitable purposes, by stating the charitable purposes for which the solicitation is made, and by stating to the person solicited that information about revenues and expenses of such organization, including its administration and fundraising costs, may be obtained by contacting the organization's office at the address disclosed. Such organization shall provide such information to the person solicited within seven days after receipt of the request.

(d) A volunteer who receives no compensation of any type from, or in connection with, a solicitation or sales solicitation by a charitable organization which has qualified for a tax exemption under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, and who is 18 years of age or younger, is not required to make any disclosures pursuant to this section.

SEC. 2. Section 17510.7 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

17510.7. Compliance with any city or county ordinance which provides for disclosure of information relating to solicitations or sales solicitations for charitable purposes substantially similar to and no less than the disclosure requirements of this article shall be deemed to satisfy the requirements of this article. The provisions of this article are not intended to preempt any city or county ordinance.

CHAPTER 510

An act to amend Sections 128 and 1209 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to contempt.

[Approved by Governor August 13, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 15, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 128 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

128. (a) Every court shall have power:

1. To preserve and enforce order in its immediate presence;

2. To enforce order in the proceedings before it, or before a person or persons empowered to conduct a judicial investigation under its authority;

3. To provide for the orderly conduct of proceedings before it, or its officers;

4. To compel obedience to its judgments, orders, and process, and to the orders of a judge out of court, in an action or proceeding pending therein;

5. To control in furtherance of justice, the conduct of its ministerial officers, and of all other persons in any manner connected with a judicial proceeding before it, in every matter appertaining thereto;

6. To compel the attendance of persons to testify in an action or proceeding pending therein, in the cases and manner provided in this code;

7. To administer oaths in an action or proceeding pending therein, and in all other cases where it may be necessary in the exercise of its powers and duties;

8. To amend and control its process and orders so as to make them conformable to law and justice.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 1211 or any other provision of law, if an order of contempt is made affecting an attorney, his agent, investigator, or any person acting under the attorney's direction, in the preparation and conduct of any action or proceeding, the execution of any sentence shall be stayed pending the filing within three judicial days of a petition for extraordinary relief testing the lawfulness of the court's order, the violation of which is the basis of the contempt except for such conduct as may be proscribed by subdivision (b) of Section 6068 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to an attorney's duty to maintain respect due to the courts and judicial officers.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 1211 or any other provision of law, if an order of contempt is made affecting a public safety employee acting within the scope of employment for reason of the employee's failure to comply with a duly issued subpoena or subpoena duces tecum, the execution of any sentence shall be stayed pending the filing within three judicial days of a petition for extraordinary relief testing the lawfulness of the court's order, a violation of which is the basis for the contempt.

As used in this subdivision, "public safety employee" includes any peace officer, firefighter, paramedic, or any other employee of a public law enforcement agency whose duty is either to maintain official records or to analyze or present evidence for investigative or prosecutorial purposes.

SEC. 2. Section 1209 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1209. (a) The following acts or omissions in respect to a court of justice, or proceedings therein, are contempts of the authority of the court:

1. Disorderly, contemptuous, or insolent behavior toward the judge while holding the court, tending to interrupt the due course of a trial or other judicial proceeding;

2. A breach of the peace, boisterous conduct, or violent disturbance, tending to interrupt the due course of a trial or other judicial proceeding;

3. Misbehavior in office, or other willful neglect or violation of duty by an attorney, counsel, clerk, sheriff, coroner, or other person, appointed or elected to perform a judicial or ministerial service;

4. Abuse of the process or proceedings of the court, or falsely pretending to act under authority of an order or process of the court;

5. Disobedience of any lawful judgment, order, or process of the court;

6. Rescuing any person or property in the custody of an officer by virtue of an order or process of such court;

7. Unlawfully detaining a witness, or party to an action while going to, remaining at, or returning from the court where the action is on the calendar for trial;

8. Any other unlawful interference with the process or proceedings of a court;

9. Disobedience of a subpoena duly served, or refusing to be sworn or answer as a witness;

10. When summoned as a juror in a court, neglecting to attend or serve as such, or improperly conversing with a party to an action, to be tried at such court, or with any other person, in relation to the merits of such action, or receiving a communication from a party or other person in respect to it, without immediately disclosing the same to the court;

11. Disobedience by an inferior tribunal, magistrate, or officer, of the lawful judgment, order, or process of a superior court, or proceeding in an action or special proceeding contrary to law, after such action or special proceeding is removed from the jurisdiction of such inferior tribunal, magistrate, or officer.

(b) No speech or publication reflecting upon or concerning any court or any officer thereof shall be treated or punished as a contempt of such court unless made in the immediate presence of such court while in session and in such a manner as to actually interfere with its proceedings.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 1211 or any other provision of law, if an order of contempt is made affecting an attorney, his agent, investigator, or any person acting under the attorney's direction, in the preparation and conduct of any action or proceeding, the execution of any sentence shall be stayed pending the filing within three judicial days of a petition for extraordinary relief testing the lawfulness of the court's order, the violation of which is the basis of the contempt, except for such conduct as may be proscribed by subdivision (b) of Section 6068 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to an attorney's duty to maintain respect due to the courts and judicial officers.

(d) Notwithstanding Section 1211 or any other provision of law, if an order of contempt is made affecting a public safety employee acting within the scope of employment for reason of the employee's failure to comply with a duly issued subpoena or subpoena duces tecum, the execution of any sentence shall be stayed pending the filing within three judicial days of a petition for extraordinary relief testing the lawfulness of the court's order, a violation of which is the basis for the contempt.

As used in this subdivision, "public safety employee" includes any peace officer, firefighter, paramedic, or any other employee of a public law enforcement agency whose duty is either to maintain official records or to analyze or present evidence for investigative or prosecutorial purposes.

CHAPTER 511

An act to amend Sections 35162, 54799.1, and 56275 of the Government Code, relating to local agency formation commissions.

[Approved by Governor August 13, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 15, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 35162 of the Government Code is amended to read:

35162. The conducting authority or any affected county, city, district, landowner, voter, taxpayer, inhabitant, or other interested person desiring any addition, deletion, amendment, or revision of any commission resolution making determinations or of any term, condition, or other provision therein, including the boundaries of the affected territory determined and established by the commission, shall file written application therefor with the executive officer within 30 days of the adoption of the commission resolution, who shall present the same to the commission at its next meeting.

Once a request for a rehearing is filed with the executive officer, the conducting authority shall be notified by the executive officer, and the conducting authority shall not take final action until the commission has made a determination on the requested change.

Reconsideration of the commission resolution shall be made prior to final action of the conducting authority and in no case to exceed 60 days from the date of notification by the executive officer. The filed application may be withdrawn by the applicant at any time prior to its having been denied or approved by the commission.

The commission, in its discretion, may either (a) without further notice and hearing, deny or approve the application in whole or in part, or (b) provide for notice and hearing upon the application in the same manner as for the original proposal, prior to denying or approving the same.

The determinations of the commission as specified in its resolution, or in any such amended resolution, including the commission's determinations as to boundaries of the affected territory, shall be final and conclusive, and no further changes shall be made except as provided in this section.

SEC. 2. Section 54799.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54799.1. If any legislative body, landowner, voter, or other interested person shall desire any addition, deletion, amendment, or revision of any commission resolution making determinations or any term, condition, or other provision contained therein, including minor or major changes in boundaries of proposed new cities or annexations to existing cities, such legislative body, landowner, voter, or other interested person, shall prior to the completion of proceedings, but not more than 30 days after adoption of the commission's resolution making determinations, file written application therefor with the executive officer who shall present the same to the commission at its next meeting. The filed application may be withdrawn by the applicant at any time prior to its having been denied or approved by the commission. The commission, in its discretion, may either (a) without further notice and hearing, deny or approve such application in whole or in part, or (b) provide for notice and hearing upon the application, in the same manner as for the original proposal, prior to denying or approving the same. Any determination made by a commission pursuant to this section shall be final and conclusive and no further application shall be made pursuant to this section requesting the same or substantially the same addition, deletion, amendment, or revision of the commission's resolution making determinations.

SEC. 3. Section 56275 of the Government Code is amended to read:

56275. Any legislative body conducting a proceeding for a change of organization or reorganization, or any affected county, city, district, landowner, voter, or other interested person desiring any addition, deletion, amendment, or revision of any commission resolution making determinations or any term, condition, or other provision contained therein, may within 30 days after adoption of the commission's resolution making determinations file written application therefor with the executive officer who shall present the same to the commission at its next meeting. The filed application may be withdrawn by the applicant at any time prior to its having been denied or approved by the commission. When such a written application is filed with the commission, the time within which the legislative body conducting proceedings is directed to act shall be tolled from the date upon which written application is made to the commission to the date upon which the legislative body receives notification of the commission's final action on the application. The commission, in its discretion, may either (a) without further notice and hearing, deny or approve such application, in whole or in part, or (b) provide for notice and hearing upon the application, in the same manner as for the original proposal, prior to denying or approving the same. Any determinations made by a commission pursuant to this section shall be final and conclusive and no further application shall be made pursuant to this section requesting the same or substantially the same addition, deletion, amendment, or revision of the commission's resolution making determinations.

An act to amend Sections 1805.4 and 1810.4 of the Civil Code, and to add Sections 18218.5, 22458.7 and 24458.7 to the Financial Code, relating to credit.

[Approved by Governor August 13, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 15, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1805.4 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1805.4. The finance charge shall be inclusive of all charges incident to investigating and making the contract and for the extension of the credit provided for in the contract, and no fee, expense or other charge whatsoever shall be taken, received, reserved or contracted for except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

The seller or holder of a retail installment contract may charge and collect a five dollar ($5) fee for the return by a depository institution of a dishonored check, negotiable order of withdrawal, or share draft issued in connection with the retail installment contract. The fee is not included in charges as defined in this chapter or in determining the applicable charges which may be made under this chapter.

SEC. 2. Section 1810.4 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1810.4. The finance charge shall include all charges incident to investigating and making the retail installment account. No fee, expense, delinquency, collection, or other charge whatsoever shall be taken, received, reserved, or contracted by the seller or holder of a retail installment account except as provided in this section. A seller may, however, in an agreement which is signed by the buyer and of which a copy is given or furnished to the buyer provide for the payment of attorney's fees and costs in conformity with Article 11 (commencing with Section 1811.1).

The seller or holder of a retail installment account may charge and collect a five dollar ($5) fee for the return by a depository institution of a dishonored check, negotiable order of withdrawal, or share draft issued in connection with the retail installment account. The fee is not included in charges as defined in this chapter or in determining the applicable charges which may be made under this chapter.

SEC. 3. Section 1810.4 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1810.4. The finance charge shall include all charges incident to investigating and making the retail installment account. No fee, expense, delinquency, collection, or other charge whatsoever shall be taken, received, reserved, or contracted by the seller or holder of a retail installment account except as provided in this section. A seller may, however, in an agreement which is signed by the buyer and of which a copy is given or furnished to the buyer provide for the payment of attorney's fees and costs in conformity with Article 11 (commencing with Section 1811.1). When credit cards are issued in connection with a retail installment account, the seller, either in the agreement or after giving the notice required by subdivision (d) of Section 1810.3, may require the payment of an annual fee of not more than fifteen dollars ($15) for membership in the credit card plan, which fee shall not be deemed a finance charge or interest for any purpose of the law.

The seller or holder of a retail installment account may charge and collect a five dollar ($5) fee for the return by a depository institution of a dishonored check, negotiable order of withdrawal, or share draft issued in connection with the retail installment account. The fee is not included in charges as defined in this chapter or in determining the applicable charges which may be made under this chapter.

SEC. 4. Section 18218.5 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

18218.5. With respect to a loan subject to maximum charges under this article, a five dollar ($5) fee for return by a depository institution of a dishonored check, negotiable order of withdrawal, or share draft may be charged and collected by the licensee. The fee is not included in charges as defined in this division or in determining the applicable maximum charges which may be made under this article.

SEC. 5. Section 22458.7 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

22458.7. With respect to a loan subject to maximum charges under this article, a five dollar ($5) fee for return by a depository institution of a dishonored check, negotiable order of withdrawal, or share draft may be charged and collected by the licensee. The fee is not included in charges as defined in this division or in determining the applicable maximum charges which may be made under this article.

SEC. 6. Section 24458.7 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

24458.7. With respect to a loan subject to maximum charges under this article, a five dollar ($5) fee for return by a depository institution of a dishonored check, negotiable order of withdrawal, or share draft may be charged and collected by the licensee. The fee is not included in charges as defined in this division or in determining the applicable maximum charges which may be made under this article.

SEC. 7. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1366 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1983, both bills amend Section 1810.4 of the Civil Code, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1366, that the amendments to Section 1810.4 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 1810.4 in the form set forth in Section 3 of this act. Therefore, Section 3 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1366 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1983, both amend Section 1810.4, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1366, in which case Section 2 of this act shall not become operative.

An act to amend Section 14790 of, to repeal Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 14816) of Chapter 6 of Part 5.5 of Division 3 of Title 2 of, the Government Code, and to add Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 12100) to Part 2 of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code, relating to public contracts.

[Approved by Governor August 13, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 15, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14790 of the Government Code, as amended by Section 7 of Chapter 867 of the Statutes of 1981, is amended to read:

14790. Purchases by the Regents of the University of California or the Trustees of the California State University are not subject to this article or to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 12100) of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code. The Trustees of the California State University, however, shall comply with the competitive bidding requirements prescribed by law and shall follow the purchasing criteria published by the Department of General Services.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1987, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1987, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 14790 of the Government Code, as added by Section 7.5 of Chapter 867 of the Statutes of 1981, is amended to read:

14790. Purchases by the Regents of the University of California are not subject to this article or to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 12100) of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, purchases by the Trustees of the California State University not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000) are exempt from this article and Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 12100) of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code.

This section shall become operative January 1, 1987.

SEC. 3. Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 14816) of Chapter 6 of Part 5.5 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 12100) is added to Part 2 of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code, to read:

CHAPTER 3. ACQUISITION OF ELECTRONIC DATA-PROCESSING GOODS AND SERVICES

12100. The Legislature finds that the unique aspects of electronic data-processing systems and the importance of such systems to state programs warrant a separate acquisition authority for electronic data-processing goods and services. The Legislature further finds that such separate authority should enable the timely acquisition of goods and services in order to meet the state's needs in the most cost-effective manner.

All contracts for the acquisition of electronic data-processing services and all contracts for the acquisition of electronic data-processing goods, whether by lease or purchase, shall be made by or under the supervision of the Department of General Services.

12101. It is the intent of the Legislature that policies developed by the Department of Finance and procedures developed by the Department of General Services in accordance with Section 12102 provide for:

(a) The expeditious and cost-effective acquisition of electronic data-processing systems to satisfy state requirements.

(b) The acquisition of electronic data-processing goods and services within a competitive framework.

(c) The delegation of authority by the Department of General Services to each state agency which has demonstrated to the department's satisfaction the ability to conduct cost-effective electronic data-processing goods and services acquisitions.

(d) The exclusion from state bid processes, at the state's option, of any vendor having failed to meet prior contractual requirements related to electronic data-processing goods and services.

(e) The review and resolution of protests submitted by a vendor or vendors with respect to any electronic data-processing goods and services acquisition.

Further, it is the intent of the Legislature that, if a state electronic data-processing advisory committee is established by the Governor or the Director of Finance, the policies and procedures developed by the Director of Finance and the Director of General Services in accordance with this chapter shall be submitted to such committee for review and comment, and that such comment be considered by both departments prior to the adoption of any such policy or procedure.

12102. The Department of Finance and the Department of General Services shall maintain in the State Administrative Manual, policies and procedures governing the acquisition and disposal of electronic data-processing goods and services. Such policies and procedures shall, in accordance with the intent of the Legislature as expressed in Section 12101, provide for the following:

(a) Acquisition of electronic data-processing goods and services shall be conducted through competitive means, except when the Director of General Services determines that (1) the goods and services proposed for acquisition are the only goods and services which can meet the state's need, or (2) the goods and services are needed in cases of emergency where immediate acquisition is necessary for the protection of the public health, welfare, or safety. The acquisition mode to be used and the procedure to be followed shall be approved by the Director of General Services. The Department of General Services shall maintain in the State Administrative Manual appropriate criteria and procedures to ensure compliance with the intent of this chapter. These criteria and procedures shall include acquisition and contracting guidelines to be followed by state agencies with respect to the acquisition of electronic data-processing goods and services. Such guidelines may be in the form of standard formats or model formats.

(b) Contract awards shall be based on the proposal which provides the most cost-effective solution to the state's requirements, as determined by the evaluation criteria contained in the solicitation document. Such evaluation procedures may provide for the selection of a vendor on a basis other than cost alone.

(c) Evaluation of bidders' proposals for the purpose of determining contract award shall provide for consideration of a bidder's best financing alternative unless the acquiring agency can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Department of General Services that a particular financing alternative should not be so considered.

(d) Acquisition authority may be delegated by the Director of General Services to any state agency which has been determined by the Department of General Services to be capable of effective use of such authority. Such authority may be limited by the Department of General Services. Acquisitions conducted under delegated authority shall be reviewed by the Department of General Services on a selective basis.

(e) To the extent practical, the solicitation documents shall provide for a contract to be written to enable acquisition of additional items to avoid essentially redundant acquisition processes when it can be determined that it is economical to do so.

(f) Protest procedures shall be developed to provide bidders an opportunity to protest formally with respect to any acquisition conducted in accordance with this chapter. Authority to protest may be limited to participating bidders. The Director of General Services, or a person designated by the director, is authorized to consider and decide on initial protests. A decision regarding an initial protest shall be final. If prior to making the award, any vendor who has submitted an offer files a protest with the department against the awarding of the contract or purchase order on the ground that his bid or proposal should have been selected in accordance with the selection criteria in the solicitation document, such contract or purchase order shall not be awarded until either the protest has been withdrawn or the State Board of Control has made a final decision as to the action to be taken relating to the protest. Within 10 calendar days after filing a protest, the protesting vendor shall file with the State Board of Control a full and complete written statement specifying in detail the grounds of the protest and the facts in support thereof.

(g) Electronic data-processing goods which have been determined to be surplus to state needs shall be disposed of in a manner which will best serve the interests of the state. Procedures governing the disposal of surplus goods may include auction or transfer to local governmental entities.

(h) A vendor may be excluded from bid processes if the vendor's performance with respect to a previously awarded contract has been unsatisfactory, as determined by the state in accordance with established procedures which shall be maintained in the State Administrative Manual. Such exclusion may not exceed 360 calendar days for any one determination of unsatisfactory performance. Any vendor excluded in accordance with this section shall be reinstated as a qualified vendor at any time during this 360-day period, upon demonstrating to the department's satisfaction that the problems which resulted in the vendor's exclusion have been corrected.

12103. In addition to the mandatory requirements enumerated in Section 12102 the acquisition policies developed and maintained by the Department of Finance and procedures developed and maintained by the Department of General Services in accordance with this chapter may provide for:

(a) Price negotiation with respect to contracts entered into in accordance with this chapter.

(b) System or equipment component performance, or availability standards, including an assessment of the added cost to the state to receive contractual guarantee of a level of performance.

(c) Requirement of a bond or assessment of a cost penalty with respect to a contract or consideration of a contract offered by a vendor whose performance has been determined unsatisfactory in accordance with established procedures maintained in the State Administrative Manual as required by Section 12102.

12104. In any acquisition subject to this chapter involving the replacement of a computer central processing unit, if only one bid is received, and that bid is from the vendor whose equipment is being replaced, a notification of intent to award a contract to such sole bidder shall be submitted to the chairman of the committee in each house which considers appropriations and the Chairman of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee not less than 30 days prior to an award of contract. Such notification shall describe the rationale for the award and the measures taken by the state to elicit more than one bid.

12105. The Department of General Services and the Department of Finance shall coordinate in the development of policies and procedures which implement the intent of this chapter. The Department of Finance shall have the final authority in the determination of any such general policy and the Department of General Services shall have the final authority in the determination of any such procedure.

12106. The Department of General Services may, in addition to fulfilling the mandatory requirements enumerated in Section 12102, adopt such rules and regulations as are necessary for the purposes of this chapter.

12107. The Department of General Services shall report by January 15th of each year to the chairman of the committee in each house which considers appropriations and the Chairman of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee as to acquisitions accomplished in accordance with this chapter. Such reports shall address any significant problems encountered in the implementation and use of the authority provided in this chapter, measures taken to resolve such problems, and to the extent deemed necessary, recommended changes to this chapter or other statutes. The information to be provided regarding acquisitions may be summarized, but shall include such information as: (1) the number of noncompetitive awards and the reasons for each such award; (2) the extent to which acquisitions have been delegated, and to which departments; (3) information as to formal protests by bidders; and (4) such other information as will provide a meaningful accounting of acquisitions made in accordance with this chapter.

This section shall be operative until January 1, 1983, at which time it is repealed.

12108. Until such time as the Department of General Services has published in the State Administrative Manual the procedures required in accordance with Section 12102, acquisitions of electronic data-processing goods and services shall be accomplished in accordance with either existing State Administrative Manual procedures for the acquisition of electronic data-processing goods and services, or Article 2 (commencing with Section 14790) of Chapter 6 of Part 5.5 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, as determined by the Department of General Services.

12109. The Director of General Services may make the services of the department under this chapter available, upon such terms and conditions as may be deemed satisfactory, to any tax-supported public agency in the state, including a school district, for assisting the agency in the purchase or lease of electronic data-processing goods or services.

12110. The Department of General Services is authorized to make purchases or leases of electronic data-processing goods and services, other than printed material, on behalf of any city, county, city and county, district, or other local governmental body or corporation empowered to expend public funds for the acquisition of goods or services, upon written request of such local agency; provided that such purchase or lease can be made by the Department of General Services upon the same terms, conditions and specifications at a price lower than the local agency can obtain through its normal acquisition procedures. The state shall incur no financial responsibility in connection with purchases for local agencies under this section. No purchase or lease shall be for less than five hundred dollars ($500) and the local agency shall accept sole responsibility for payment to the vendor. All purchases and leases shall be subject to audit and inspection by the local agency for which made.

Purchases and leases under this section shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter.

A charge shall be made to each local agency availing itself of this service, such charge to be not less than the estimated cost to the department of rendering the service, including costs incurred by the department in preparation for a purchase or lease requested by a local agency in instances where such request is canceled or withdrawn by the local agency prior to award of the contract or purchase order by the department.

12111. The definitions pertaining to electronic data-processing as contained in Section 11700 of the Government Code and the State Administrative Manual shall apply to this chapter.

12112. Any contract for electronic data-processing goods or services, to be manufactured or performed by the contractor especially for the state and not suitable for sale to others in the ordinary course of the contractor's business may provide, on such terms and conditions as the department deems necessary to protect the state's interests, for progress payments for work performed and costs incurred at the contractor's shop or plant, provided that not less than 10 percent of the contract price is required to be withheld until final delivery and acceptance of the goods or services, and provided further, that the contractor is required to submit a faithful performance bond, acceptable to the department, in a sum not less than one-half of the total amount payable under the contract securing the faithful performance of the contract by the contractor.

CHAPTER 514

An act to add Section 37 to the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to preferences in trials of civil actions.

[Approved by Governor August 13, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 15, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 37 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

37. (a) A civil action shall be entitled to preference, if the action is one in which the plaintiff is seeking damages for personal injuries which were alleged to have been caused by the defendant during the commission of a felony offense for which the defendant has been criminally convicted.

(b) The court shall endeavor to try the action within 120 days of the grant of preference.

CHAPTER 515

An act to amend Section 1203.1 of the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor August 13, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 15, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1203.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.1. (a) The court or judge thereof, in the order granting probation, may suspend the imposing, or the execution of the sentence and may direct that such suspension may continue for such period of time not exceeding the maximum possible term of such sentence, except as hereinafter set forth, and upon such terms and conditions as it shall determine. The court, or judge thereof, in the order granting probation and as a condition thereof may imprison the defendant in the county jail for a period not exceeding the maximum time fixed by law in the instant case; provided, however, that where the maximum possible term of such sentence is five years or less, then such period of suspension of imposition or execution of sentence may, in the discretion of the court, continue for not over five years; may fine the defendant in such sum not to exceed the maximum fine provided by law in such case; or may in connection with granting probation, impose either imprisonment in county jail, or fine, or both, or neither; may provide for reparation in proper cases; and may require bonds for the faithful observance and performance of any or all of the conditions of probation.

(b) The court shall consider whether the defendant as a condition of probation shall make restitution to the victim or the Indemnity Fund if assistance has been granted to the victim pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 13959) of Chapter 5 of Part 4 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. In counties or cities and counties where road camps, farms, or other public work is available the court may place the probationer in such camp, farms, or other public work instead of in jail, and Section 25359 of the Government Code shall apply to probation and the court shall have the same power to require adult probationers to work, as prisoners confined in the county jail are required to work, at public work as therein provided; and supervisors of the several counties are hereby authorized to provide public work and to fix the scale of compensation of such adult probationers in their respective counties. In all cases of probation the court is authorized to require as a condition of probation that the probationer go to work and earn money for the support of his or her dependents or to pay any fine imposed or reparation condition, to keep an account of his or her earnings, to report the same to the probation officer and apply such earnings as directed by the court.

(c) In all such cases if as a condition of probation a judge of the superior court sitting by authority of law elsewhere than at the county seat requires a convicted person to serve sentence at intermittent periods such sentence may be served on the order of the judge at the city jail nearest to the place at which the court is sitting, and the cost of his or her maintenance shall be a county charge.

(d) The court may impose and require any or all of the above-mentioned terms of imprisonment, fine and conditions and other reasonable conditions, as it may determine are fitting and proper to the end that justice may be done, that amends may be made to society for the breach of the law, for any injury done to any person resulting from such breach and generally and specifically for the reformation and rehabilitation of the probationer, that should the probationer violate any of the terms or conditions imposed by the court in the instant matter, it shall have authority to modify and change any and all such terms and conditions and to reimprison the probationer in the county jail within the limitations of the penalty of the public offense involved. Upon the defendant being released from the county jail under the terms of probation as originally granted or any modification subsequently made, and in all cases where confinement in a county jail has not been a condition of the grant of probation, the court shall place the defendant or probationer in and under the charge of the probation officer of the court, for the period or term fixed for probation; provided, however, that upon the payment of any fine imposed and the fulfillment of all conditions of probation, probation shall cease at the end of the term of probation, or sooner, in the event of modification. In counties and cities and counties in which there are facilities for taking fingerprints, such marks of identification of each probationer must be taken and a record thereof kept and preserved.

(e) Any other provision of law to the contrary notwithstanding, all fines collected by a county probation officer in any of the courts of this state, as a condition of the granting of probation, or as a part of the terms of probation, shall be paid into the county treasury and placed in the general fund, for the use and benefit of the county.

(f) If the court orders restitution to be made to the victim, the board of supervisors may add a fee to cover the actual administrative cost of collecting restitution but not to exceed 2 percent of the total amount ordered to be paid. The fees shall be paid into the general fund of the county treasury for the use and benefit of the county.

(g) When the court grants probation and suspends sentence after a plea of guilty or nolo contendere pursuant to Section 1192.5, it shall specify whether the negotiated sentence maximum will apply upon revocation of probation. If the negotiated sentence maximum is not to apply, the court shall inform the defendant that upon revocation the court could impose the longest sentence prescribed for the offense. If the court does not so inform the defendant, the negotiated maximum sentence shall apply.

CHAPTER 516

An act to add Section 1050.5 to the Penal Code, relating to criminal actions.

[Approved by Governor August 13, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 15, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1050.5 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

1050.5. Whenever an attorney for the prosecution or the defense in a criminal case knows of the inability of a material witness or the defendant to attend a hearing, including the trial, and the attorney intends to seek a continuance based upon the inability of the witness or defendant to attend, the attorney shall notify the opposing counsel of that intent at least two court days prior to the hearing. The court upon finding a violation of this section has occurred, may impose a penalty not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) upon the attorney who has failed to comply with this section.

CHAPTER 517

[Approved by Governor August 13, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 15, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 125.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

125.5. (a) The superior court for the county in which any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act which constitutes a violation of a chapter of this code administered or enforced by a board within the department may, upon a petition filed by the board with the approval of the director, issue an injunction or other appropriate order restraining such conduct. The proceedings under this section shall be governed by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure. As used in this section, "board" includes commission, bureau, division, agency and a medical quality review committee.

(b) The superior court for the county in which any person has engaged in any act which constitutes a violation of a chapter of this code administered or enforced by a board within the department may, upon a petition filed by the board with the approval of the director, order such person to make restitution to persons injured as a result of such violation.

(c) The court may order a person subject to an injunction or restraining order, provided for in subdivision (a) of this section, or subject to an order requiring restitution pursuant to subdivision (b), to reimburse the petitioning board for expenses incurred by the board in its investigation related to its petition.

(d) The remedy provided for by this section shall be in addition to, and not a limitation on, the authority provided for in any other section of this code.

SEC. 2. Section 125.7 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

125.7. In addition to the remedy provided for in Section 125.5, the superior court for the county in which any licensee licensed under Division 2 (commencing with Section 500), or any initiative act referred to in such division, has engaged or is about to engage in any act which constitutes a violation of a chapter of this code administered or enforced by a board referred to in Division 2, may, upon a petition filed by the board and accompanied by an affidavit or affidavits in support thereof and a memorandum of points and authorities, issue a temporary restraining order or other appropriate order restraining the licensee from engaging in the business or profession for which the person is licensed or from any part thereof, in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(a) If the affidavits in support of the petition show that the licensee has engaged or is about to engage in acts or omissions constituting a violation of a chapter of this code and if the court is satisfied that permitting the licensee to continue to engage in the business or profession for which the license was issued will endanger the public health, safety, or welfare, the court may issue an order temporarily restraining the licensee from engaging in the profession for which he is licensed.

(b) Such order may not be issued without notice to the licensee unless it appears from facts shown by the affidavits that serious injury would result to the public before the matter can be heard on notice.

(c) Except as otherwise specifically provided by this section, proceedings under this section shall be governed by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(d) When a restraining order is issued pursuant to this section, or within a time to be allowed by the superior court, but in any case not more than 30 days after the restraining order is issued, an accusation shall be filed with the board pursuant to Section 11503 of the Government Code. The accusation shall be served upon the licensee as provided by Section 11505 of the Government Code. The licensee shall have all of the rights and privileges available as specified in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code; however, if the licensee requests a hearing on the accusation, the board must provide the licensee with a hearing within 30 days of the request and a decision within 15 days of the date of the conclusion of the hearing, or the court may nullify the restraining order previously issued. Any restraining order issued pursuant to this section shall be dissolved by operation of law at such time the board's decision is subject to judicial review pursuant to Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 3. Section 125.8 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

125.8. In addition to the remedy provided for in Section 125.5, the superior court for the county in which any licensee licensed under Division 3 (commencing with Section 5000) or Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 18600) or Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 19000) of Division 8 has engaged or is about to engage in any act which constitutes a violation of a chapter of this code administered or enforced by a board referred to in Division 3 (commencing with Section 5000) or Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 18600) or Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 19000) of Division 8 may, upon a petition filed by the board and accompanied by an affidavit or affidavits in support thereof and a memorandum of points and authorities, issue a temporary restraining order or other appropriate order restraining the licensee from engaging in the business or profession for which the person is licensed or from any part thereof, in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(a) If the affidavits in support of the petition show that the licensee has engaged or is about to engage in acts or omissions constituting a violation of a chapter of this code and if the court is satisfied that permitting the licensee to continue to engage in the business or profession for which the license was issued will endanger the public health, safety, or welfare, the court may issue an order temporarily restraining the licensee from engaging in the profession for which he is licensed.

(b) Such order may not be issued without notice to the licensee unless it appears from facts shown by the affidavits that serious injury would result to the public before the matter can be heard on notice.

(c) Except as otherwise specifically provided by this section, proceedings under this section shall be governed by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(d) When a restraining order is issued pursuant to this section, or within a time to be allowed by the superior court, but in any case not more than 30 days after the restraining order is issued, an accusation shall be filed with the board pursuant to Section 11503 of the Government Code. The accusation shall be served upon the licensee as provided by Section 11505 of the Government Code. The licensee shall have all of the rights and privileges available as specified in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code; however, if the licensee requests a hearing on the accusation, the board must provide the licensee with a hearing within 30 days of the request and a decision within 15 days of the date of the conclusion of the hearing, or the court may nullify the restraining order previously issued. Any restraining order issued pursuant to this section shall be dissolved by operation of law at such time the board's decision is subject to judicial review pursuant to Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 4. Section 656 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

656. Whenever any person has engaged, or is about to engage, in any acts or practices which constitute, or will constitute, a violation of any provision of this article, the superior court in and for the county wherein the acts or practices take place, or are about to take place, may issue an injunction, or other appropriate order, restraining such conduct on application of the State Board of Optometry, the Board of Medical Quality Assurance of the State of California, the Board of Osteopathic Examiners, the Attorney General, or the district attorney of the county.

The proceedings under this section shall be governed by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 5. Section 1705.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

1705.5. Whenever any person has engaged or is about to engage in any acts or practices which constitute or will constitute an offense against this chapter, the superior court of any county, on application of 10 or more persons holding licenses to practice dentistry issued under this chapter, may issue an injunction or other appropriate order restraining such conduct. Proceedings under this section shall be governed by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 6. Section 2311 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2311. Whenever any person has engaged in or is about to engage in any acts or practices which constitute or will constitute an offense against this chapter, the superior court of any county, on application of the board, any division of the board, or of 10 or more persons licensed as physicians and surgeons or as podiatrists in this state may issue an injunction or other appropriate order restraining such conduct. Proceedings under this section shall be governed by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 7. Section 2545 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2545. Whenever any person has engaged, or is about to engage, in any acts or practices which constitute, or will constitute, an offense against this chapter, the superior court in and for the county wherein the acts or practices take place, or are about to take place, may issue an injunction, or other appropriate order, restraining such conduct on application of the State Board of Optometry, the Division of Allied Health Professions of the Board of Medical Quality Assurance of the State of California, the Board of Osteopathic Examiners of the State of California, the Attorney General, or the district attorney of the county.

The proceedings under this section shall be governed by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 8. Section 2559 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2559. Whenever any person has engaged, or is about to engage, in any acts or practices which constitute, or will constitute, a violation of any provision of this chapter, or Chapter 5.4 (commencing with Section 2540), the superior court in and for the county wherein the acts or practices take place, or are about to take place, may issue an injunction, or other appropriate order, restraining such conduct on application of the Division of Allied Health Professions of the Board of Medical Quality Assurance, the Attorney General or the district attorney of the county.

The proceedings under this section shall be governed by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 9. Section 2672 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2672. Whenever any person has engaged or is about to engage in any acts or practices which constitute or will constitute an offense against this chapter, the superior court of any county, on application of the Division of Allied Health Professions or the examining committee or 10 or more persons holding physical therapist licenses issued under this chapter, may issue an injunction or other appropriate order restraining such conduct. Proceedings under this section shall be governed by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 10. Section 2971 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2971. Whenever any person other than a licensed psychologist has engaged in any act or practice which constitutes an offense against this chapter, the superior court of any county, on application of the Division of Allied Health Professions, may issue an injunction or other appropriate order restraining such conduct. Proceedings under this section shall be governed by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The division may commence action in the superior court under the provisions of this section on its own motion, or on the written request of the committee.

SEC. 11. Section 3131 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

against this chapter, the superior court in and for the county wherein the acts or practices take place, or are about to take place, may issue an injunction, or other appropriate order, restraining such conduct on application of the board, the Attorney General, the district attorney of the county, or on application of 10 or more persons holding certificates issued under this chapter.

The proceedings under this section shall be governed by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525 of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 12. Section 3430 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

3430. In addition to other proceedings provided for in this chapter, whenever any person has engaged, or is about to engage, in any acts or practices which constitute, or will constitute, an offense against this chapter, the superior court for the county wherein the acts or practices take place or are about to take place, may issue an injunction or other appropriate order, restraining such conduct on application of the board, the Attorney General, or the district attorney of the county. If such acts or practices constitute, or will constitute, an offense against Section 3306.5, such application to the superior court may be made by the State Board of Optometry. The proceedings under this section shall be governed by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 13. Section 3533 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

3533. Whenever any person has engaged in any act or practice which constitutes an offense against this chapter, the superior court of any county, on application of the board, may issue an injunction or other appropriate order restraining such conduct. Proceedings under this section shall be governed by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The board or the committee may commence action in the superior court under the provisions of this section.

SEC. 14. Section 5122 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5122. Whenever in the judgment of the board, or with its approval any administrative committee, any person who has engaged, or is about to engage, in any acts or practices which constitute, or will constitute, an offense against this chapter, the board may make application to the appropriate court for an order enjoining such acts or practices, and upon showing by the board that such person has engaged, or is about to engage, in any such acts or practices, an injunction, restraining order, or such other order as may be appropriate shall be granted by the court.

SEC. 15. Section 5527 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5527. Whenever any person has engaged in or is about to engage in any act or practice which constitutes or which will constitute an offense against this chapter, the superior court of the county in which the offense has occurred or is about to occur, on application of the board, may issue an injunction or other appropriate order restraining such act or practice.

The proceedings authorized by this section shall be in accordance with the provisions contained in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 16. Section 6872 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6872. The superior court in and for the county wherein any person carries on, or attempts to carry on, business as a collection agency without first having obtained a license pursuant to this chapter, or carries on such business after the revocation or expiration of any license or during the period of suspension of any license, may, on application of the director, issue an injunction or other appropriate order restraining such conduct.

The proceedings under this section shall be governed by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, except that the director shall not be required to allege facts necessary to show or tending to show lack of an adequate remedy at law or irreparable injury.

SEC. 17. Section 7028.3 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7028.3. In addition to all other remedies, when it appears to the registrar, either upon complaint or otherwise, that a licensee has engaged in, or is engaging in, any act, practice, or transaction which constitutes a violation of this chapter whereby another person may be substantially injured, or that any person, who does not hold a state contractor's license in any classification, has engaged in, or is engaging in, any act, practice, or transaction which constitutes a violation of this chapter, whether or not there is substantial injury, the registrar may, either through the Attorney General or through the district attorney of the county in which the act, practice, or transaction is alleged to have been committed, apply to the superior court of that county or any other county in which such person maintains a place of business or resides, for an injunction restraining such person from acting in the capacity of a contractor without a license in violation of this chapter, or from acting in violation of this chapter when another person may be substantially injured, and, upon a proper showing, a temporary restraining order, a preliminary injunction, or a permanent injunction shall be granted.

SEC. 18. Section 7071.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7071.5. The contractor's bond required by this article shall be executed by an admitted surety in favor of the State of California, in a form acceptable to the registrar and filed with the registrar by the licensee or applicant. The contractor's bond shall be for the benefit of the following:

(a) Any homeowner contracting for home improvement upon the homeowner's personal family residence damaged as a result of a violation of this chapter by the licensee.

(b) Any person damaged as a result of a willful and deliberate violation of this chapter by the licensee, or by the fraud of the licensee in the execution or performance of a construction contract.

(c) Any employee of the licensee damaged by the licensee's failure to pay wages.

(d) Any express trust fund, or the trustees of any express trust fund, damaged as the result of the licensee's failure to pay fringe benefits for eligible employees represented by the union which is signatory to the collective-bargaining agreement. Damage to an express trust fund is limited to actual loss sustained by the trust fund due to a licensee's failure to pay the fringe benefits. Liability on the contractor's bond shall be limited to the difference between the actual loss to the trust fund and the amount realized by the trust fund from the proceeds of any other bond required by a collective-bargaining agreement to secure the payment of fringe benefits. The trust fund shall diligently proceed against any such other bond. If an eligible employee is not represented by a union, the damaged employee may enforce the liability on the bond on the employee's own behalf to recover fringe benefits. As used in this subdivision:

(1) "Eligible employees" means the employees of the signatory licensee performing work covered by the applicable collective-bargaining agreement for whom payment of fringe benefits should have been made and who would be entitled to credit towards fringe benefits pursuant to the terms and provisions of the express trust funds if payment had in fact been made by the signatory licensee.

(2) "Express trust fund" means an express trust fund established pursuant to a collective-bargaining agreement and to which the licensee is obligated to make payments on account of fringe benefits.

SEC. 19. Section 7071.6 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7071.6. (a) Except as provided in Section 7071.8 and subdivision (b), the board shall require, as a condition precedent to the issuance, reinstatement, reactivation, or renewal of a license, that the applicant file or have on file a contractor's bond in the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000). No bond shall be required of a holder of an inactive license during the period the license is inactive.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the board shall require, as a condition precedent to the issuance, reinstatement, reactivation, or renewal of a license for the license classification of swimming pool contractor, that the applicant file or have on file a contractor's bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000). No bond shall be required of a holder of an inactive license during the period the license is inactive.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of the law to the contrary, the board shall require, as a condition to the continued maintenance of any active license, that the holder of a license file, or have on file, on and after January 1, 1980, a contractor's bond in the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000); provided, that the holder of a license for the classification of swimming pool contractor file, or have on file, a contractor's bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

SEC. 20. Section 7071.8 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7071.8. (a) This section applies to an application for a license, or for restoration of a license, made by any of the following persons:

(1) Any person whose license has been suspended or revoked as a result of disciplinary action for violation of this chapter.

(2) Any person who was an officer, director, member, partner or qualifying individual for a licensee at any time during which cause for disciplinary action occurred resulting in suspension or revocation of the licensee's license and who had knowledge of or participated in the act or omission which was the cause for the disciplinary action for violation of this chapter.

(3) Any partnership, corporation, firm or association of which any officer, director, member, partner or qualifying person has had the license suspended or revoked as a result of disciplinary action for violation of this chapter.

(4) Any partnership, corporation, firm or association of which any officer, director, member, partner or qualifying person was a member, officer, director, partner or qualifying person of a licensee at any time during which cause for disciplinary action occurred resulting in suspension or revocation of the license, and who had knowledge of or participated in the act or omission which was the cause for the disciplinary action for violation of this chapter.

(b) The board shall require as a condition precedent to the issuance, reissuance or restoration of a license to the applicant, or removal of suspension, that the applicant file or have on file a contractor's bond in a sum to be fixed by the registrar based upon the seriousness of the violation, but which sum shall not be less than three times nor more than 10 times that amount required by Section 7071.6. The bond shall remain on file with the registrar for a period of at least two years and for such additional time as the registrar may determine. Each applicant or licensee shall be required to file only one contractor's bond of the type described in this section.

(c) Nothing contained in this section shall apply to a person or firm whose license has been suspended or revoked for a failure to comply with Section 7083.

SEC. 21. Section 7071.9 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7071.9. (a) In addition to the contractor's bond required pursuant to Sections 7071.5 to 7071.8, inclusive, the board shall require, as a condition precedent to the issuance, reinstatement, reactivation or reissuance of a license and, as a condition precedent to the renewal of a license, that the qualifying individual as referred to in Sections 7068 and 7068.1, when the qualifying individual is not either the proprietor, a general partner, or joint licensee, shall file or have on file a qualifying individual's bond as provided in Section 7071.10 in the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000). In the event the responsible managing officer of a corporation owns 10 percent or more of the voting stock of the corporation, the officer shall not be required to file or have on file a contractor's bond as provided for in Section 7071.10. The registrar shall determine the nature and form of the proof required of the responsible managing officer applying for this exemption. No bond shall be required of the holder of an inactive license during the period the license is inactive.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of the law to the contrary, the board shall require, as a condition to the continued maintenance of any active license, that the qualifying individual, as referred to in Sections 7068 and 7068.1, when such individual is not personally either the proprietor, a general partner, or joint licensee, file, or have on file, on and after January 1, 1980, a contractor's bond in the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000).

SEC. 22. Section 7071.10 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7071.10. (a) The qualifying individual's bond required by this article shall be executed by an admitted surety insurer in favor of the State of California, in a form acceptable to the registrar and filed with the registrar by the qualifying individual. The qualifying individual's bond shall be for the benefit of the following persons:

(1) Any homeowner contracting for home improvement upon the homeowner's personal family residence damaged as a result of a violation of this chapter by the licensee.

(2) Any person damaged as a result of a willful and deliberate violation of this chapter by the licensee, or by the fraud of the licensee in the execution or performance of a construction contract.

(3) Any employee of the licensee damaged by the licensee's failure to pay wages.

(4) The trustees of any express trust fund damaged as the result of the licensee's failure to pay fringe benefits for eligible employees represented by the union which is signatory to the collective-bargaining agreement. Damage to an express trust fund is limited to actual loss sustained by a licensee's failure to pay the subject fringe benefits and after all other sources of recovery have been realized by the express trust fund. If an eligible employee is not represented by a union, the damaged employee may enforce the liability on the bond on the employee's own behalf to recover fringe benefits. As used in this paragraph:

(A) "Eligible" means entitlement to fringe benefits pursuant to the terms and provisions of the express trust fund.

(B) "Express trust fund" means an express trust fund established pursuant to a collective-bargaining agreement and to which the licensee is obligated to make payments on account of fringe benefits.

(b) The qualifying individual's bond shall not be required in addition to the contractor's bond when the qualifying individual is himself the proprietor under subdivision (a) or a general partner under subdivision (b) of Section 7068.

SEC. 23. Section 7071.11 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7071.11. (a) A copy of the complaint in a civil action commenced by a person claiming against a bond required by this article shall be served by registered or certified mail upon the registrar by the clerk of the court at the time the action is commenced and the registrar shall maintain a record, available for public inspection, of all actions so commenced. The claim of any employee of the contractor for wages and fringe benefits shall be a preferred claim against the bond. The aggregate liability of a surety on a claim for wages and fringe benefits brought against any bond required by this article, other than a bond required by Section 7071.8, shall not exceed the sum of three thousand dollars ($3,000). If any bond which may be required is insufficient to pay all claims in full, the sum of the bond shall be distributed to all claimants in proportion to the amount of their respective claims with priority to claims for wages and fringe benefits. Any action, other than an action to recover fringe benefits, against a bond filed by an active licensee shall be brought within two years after the expiration of the license period or periods for which a bond has been provided, or within two years of the date the license of the active licensee was inactivated by the board, whichever first occurs. A claim to recover fringe benefits shall be brought within six months from the date that the fringe benefit delinquencies were discovered, but in no event shall a civil action thereon be brought later than two years from the date the fringe benefit contributions were due.

(b) When the surety makes payment on any claim against a bond required by this article, whether or not payment is made through a court action or otherwise, the surety shall, within 30 days of the payment, notify the registrar. The notice shall contain, on a form prescribed by the registrar, the name and license number of the contractor, the surety bond number, the amount of payment, the statutory basis upon which the claim is made, and the names of the person or persons to whom payments are made.

(c) Any judgment or admitted claim against any bond required by this article shall constitute grounds for disciplinary action against the licensee. The license may not be reissued or reinstated while any judgment or admitted claim in excess of the amount of the bond remains unsatisfied. Further, the license may not be reissued or reinstated while any surety remains unreimbursed for loss and expense sustained on any bond issued for the licensee or for any entity of which any officer, director, member, partner, or qualifying person was an officer, director, member, partner, or qualifying person of the licensee while the licensee was subject to disciplinary action under this section. The board shall require the licensee to file a new bond in an amount as required pursuant to Section 7071.8.

(d) Legal fees may not be charged against the bond by the board.

(e) In any case in which a claim is filed against a deposit given in lieu of a bond by any employee or by an employee organization on behalf of an employee, concerning wages or fringe benefits based upon the employee's employment, claims for the nonpayment thereof shall be filed with the Labor Commissioner. The Labor Commissioner shall, pursuant to the authority vested by Section 96.5 of the Labor Code, conduct hearings to determine whether or not the wages or fringe benefits should be paid to the complainant. Upon a finding by the commissioner that the wages or fringe benefits should be paid to the complainant, the commissioner shall notify the registrar of the findings. The registrar shall not make payment from the deposit on the basis of findings by the commissioner for a period of 10 days following determination of the findings. If, within the period, the complainant or the contractor files written notice with the registrar and the commissioner of an intention to seek judicial review of the findings pursuant to Section 11523 of the Government Code, the registrar shall not make payment, if an action is actually filed, except as determined by the court. If, thereafter, no action is filed within 60 days following determination of findings by the commissioner, the registrar shall make payment from the deposit to the complainant.

SEC. 24. Section 7071.12 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 24.5. Section 7071.12 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

7071.12. Instead of the bond provided by this article a deposit may be given pursuant to Article 7 (commencing with Section 995.710) of Chapter 2 of Title 14 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 25. Section 7074 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7074. (a) An application for an original license shall become void when any of the following occurs:

(1) The applicant or the examinee for the applicant, after having been notified to do so, fails to appear for the qualifying examination within six months from the date of filing the application.

(2) The applicant or the examinee for the applicant has failed the qualifying examination, and after having been notified to do so, fails to appear for reexamination within six months from the date of filing an application for reexamination.

(3) The applicant or the examinee for the applicant has failed to achieve a passing grade in the qualifying examination within one year from the date of filing the application.

(4) The applicant, after having been notified to do so, fails to pay the initial license fee within six months from the date of such notice.

(5) The applicant, after having been accepted for filing and before issuance of the license, withdraws the application.

(6) The applicant, after having been notified to do so, fails to file within six months from the date of such notice any bond which may be required pursuant to this chapter.

(7) The application is denied after a hearing conducted in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

(b) An application voided pursuant to the provisions of this section shall remain in possession of the registrar for such period as the registrar deems necessary and shall not be returned to the applicant. Any reapplication for a license shall be accompanied by the fee fixed by this chapter.

SEC. 26. Section 7074.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7074.5. An application for an additional classification pursuant to the provisions of Section 7059 or an application to replace a responsible managing officer or employee pursuant to the provisions of Section 7068.2 shall become void when:

(a) The applicant or the examinee for the applicant, after having been scheduled for the qualifying examination, fails to attain a passing grade within six months from the date of filing the application.

(b) The applicant, prior to approval and after acceptance for filing, withdraws his application.

(c) The application is denied after a hearing conducted in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

(d) The applicant, or his responsible managing officer or employee, after having been notified to do so, fails to file within six months from the date of such notice any bond which may be required pursuant to this chapter.

An application voided pursuant to the provisions of this section shall remain in possession of the registrar for such period as he deems necessary and shall not be returned to the applicant. Any reapplication shall be accompanied by the fee fixed by this chapter.

SEC. 27. Section 7398 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7398. (a) Every school shall post with the board a surety bond executed by an admitted surety insurer in the amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(b) The bond shall be in the form approved by the board and shall be conditioned upon compliance with the provisions of this chapter and upon faithful compliance with the terms and conditions of any and all contracts, verbal or written, made by the school to furnish instruction to any person. The bond shall be to the State of California in favor of every person who pays or deposits any money with the school as payment for any instruction. Every bond shall continue in force and effect until notice of termination is given by registered mail to the board and every bond shall set forth this fact.

SEC. 28. Section 7873 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7873. Whenever any person has engaged in or is about to engage in any act or practice which constitutes or which, in the opinion of the board, will constitute an offense against this chapter, the superior court of the county in which the offense has occurred or is about to occur, on application of the board, may issue an injunction or other appropriate order restraining such act or practice.

The proceedings authorized by this section shall be in accordance with the provisions contained in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 29. Section 8693 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8693. In lieu of the insurance policy specified in this article an applicant for a license or renewal of a license may file with the board a bond executed by an admitted surety insurer in the penalty of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) with the State of California as obligee.

SEC. 30. Section 8697 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8697. Each operator licensed under the provisions of this chapter, except an operator who is an employee of another operator, shall maintain a bond executed by an admitted surety insurer in the amount of two thousand dollars ($2,000).

SEC. 31. Section 8697.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8697.2. The bonds required by this article shall be in favor of the State of California for the benefit of any person who, after entering into a contract with the licensee, is damaged by fraud or dishonesty of the licensee in the performance of the contract, or any person who is damaged as a result of a violation of this chapter by the licensee.

SEC. 32. Section 8697.6 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 33. Section 9533.6 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9533.6. The operation of any establishment, plant, shop, store, school, or agency in violation of this chapter may be enjoined by the superior court of any county upon petition by the board. Proceedings under this section shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 34. Section 9547 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9547. (a) The board shall require that all licensees that conduct, maintain, or operate establishments licensed by the board file with the board a surety bond in the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000) unless, after a determination as provided in this section, the bond is waived. The bond shall be executed by an admitted surety insurer and shall be in favor of the people of the State of California. The total aggregate liability on the bond shall in no event exceed the face amount of the bond. The bond shall be conditioned that the principal is liable for fraud of or all claims for damaged articles of clothing of persons with whom the licensee may deal as a licensee.

(b) If upon application and such proof as the board may require, the board determines that the financial responsibility of any licensee is acceptable in the public interest, the board may waive the filing of the bond in accordance with such conditions as may be prescribed by the rules and regulations of the board.

(c) Payments which are to be made pursuant to any bond which is required by this section shall be limited to payments of claims which have been approved by the final decision of a court.

SEC. 35. Section 9547.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9547.1. Any person injured by the breach of any condition to secure which the bond is given may enforce the liability on the bond for not in excess of one hundred dollars ($100) suffered by reason of the breach.

SEC. 36. Section 9547.4 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 37. Section 9702.3 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 38. Section 9851 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9851. The superior court in and for the county wherein any person carries on, or attempts to carry on, business as a service dealer in violation of the provisions of this chapter, or any regulation thereunder, shall, on application of the director, issue an injunction or other appropriate order restraining such conduct.

The proceedings under this section shall be governed by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, except that the director shall not be required to allege facts necessary to show or tending to show lack of an adequate remedy at law or irreparable injury.

SEC. 39. Section 9884.14 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9884.14. The superior court in and for the county wherein any person carries on, or attempts to carry on, a business as an automotive repair dealer or as a mechanic in violation of the provisions of this chapter, or any regulation made pursuant to this chapter, shall, on application of the director or the chief, issue an injunction or other appropriate order restraining such conduct. This section shall be cumulative to and shall not prohibit the enforcement of any other law.

The proceedings under this section shall be governed by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, except that the director or chief shall not be required to allege facts necessary to show or tending to show lack of an adequate remedy at law or irreparable injury.

SEC. 40. Section 9890.81 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9890.81. The surety bond shall be payable to the people of the State of California and shall be conditioned that the person applying for the license will comply with this chapter.

SEC. 41. Section 9891.35 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9891.35. A tax preparer shall deposit with the division, prior to registration or registration renewal, a bond executed by an admitted surety insurer payable to the people of the State of California in the penal sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000). The bond shall be conditioned that the person applying for registration or registration renewal will comply with this chapter and will pay all damages occasioned to any person by reason of misstatement, misrepresentation, fraud, deceit or any unlawful acts or omissions by the tax preparer, or its agents, employees, or representatives while acting in the scope of their agency, employment or representation.

SEC. 42. Section 10072 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

10072. The commissioner shall execute to the people of the State of California a bond in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000), to be approved by the Governor, for the faithful discharge of the duties of the office.

SEC. 43. Section 10133.25 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

10133.25. The exemption provided by paragraph (1) of subdivision (i) of Section 10133.1 is conditioned upon compliance with all of the following:

(a) An application has been filed with the commissioner on a form to be prescribed by the commissioner, which application shall include but not be limited to the name and address of the firm, names of the owners, and, if a corporation, the officers and directors of the firm, the names of the lenders on whose behalf the collections are to be made, and a financial statement as of the close of the last fiscal or calendar year of the applicant.

(b) The application shall be accompanied by a fee of two hundred dollars ($200). The applicant shall be notified and the exemption effective only upon satisfaction of all of the provisions of this section. The exemption is valid for one year from the date of issuance. Annual renewals shall be issued upon payment of a renewal fee of two hundred dollars ($200) and a showing of compliance with the provisions of this section.

(c) The applicant shall agree to comply with those provisions of Sections 10145 and 10148 and regulations of the Real Estate Commissioner relating to trust fund handling applicable to real estate licensees.

(d) The applicant shall file and maintain with the commissioner both of the following:

(1) A bond satisfactory to the commissioner in the amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000), issued by an admitted surety insurer approved by the commissioner, and running to the people of the State of California. The board shall be conditioned that the applicant will obey all of the provisions of this section and of Sections 10145 and 10148 and regulations of the Real Estate Commissioner relating to trust fund handling applicable to real estate licensees, and that the applicant will perform and comply with all obligations assumed and will honestly and faithfully apply all funds received. When an action is commenced on the bond the commissioner may require the filing of a new bond. Immediately upon the recovery in any action on the bond the applicant shall file a new bond.

(2) A bond in an amount sufficient to cover the maximum liability for collections of loan payments plus tax, insurance and other loan-servicing impound funds in the custody or control of the applicant. The bond shall be satisfactory to the commissioner, executed by an admitted surety insurer approved by the commissioner, to indemnify the applicant against fraudulent or dishonest acts, or loss of money or securities deposited in trust with the applicant. The sufficiency of the sureties on the bond are at all times subject to the approval of the commissioner. The bonds shall be filed in the commissioner's office.

(e) The applicant shall agree to comply with such other requirements of the commissioner as are consistent with the provisions of this section to protect clients' funds.

SEC. 44. Section 10237.8 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

10237.8. Every real property securities dealer shall file and maintain with the commissioner a bond in the penal sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000), executed by an admitted surety insurer approved by the commissioner, and running to the people of the State of California, for the use and benefit of interested persons. The bond shall be conditioned that the dealer will obey all the provisions of this article, will perform and comply with all obligations assumed by the dealer and will honestly and faithfully apply all funds received.

SEC. 46. Section 10540 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

10540. Every mineral, oil and gas licensee shall file and maintain with the commissioner a bond in the penal sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000), executed by an admitted surety insurer, and running to the people of the State of California. The bond shall be conditioned that the licensee will obey all the provisions of this part relating to mineral, oil and gas brokerage, and complete compliance with all obligations assumed by the licensee under the mineral, oil and gas license.

SEC. 47. Section 10541 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 48. Section 10542 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 49. Section 11013.4 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

11013.4. If a subdivision is not subject to a blanket encumbrance, as defined in Section 11013, it is unlawful for the owner, subdivider, or agent to sell or lease lots or parcels within a subdivision unless one of the following conditions is complied with:

(a) The entire sum of money paid or advanced by the purchaser or lessee of any lot or parcel, or such portion thereof as the commissioner determines is sufficient to protect the interest of the purchaser or lessee, is deposited into an escrow depository acceptable to the commissioner or into a trust account acceptable to the commissioner to be held in the escrow depository or trust account until the legal title or other interest contracted for, whether title of record or other interest, is delivered to the purchaser or lessee or until (1) either the owner, subdivider, or agent or the purchaser or lessee defaults under the contract of sale or lease and a determination is made as to the disposition of the money; or (2) the owner, subdivider, or agent orders the return of the money to the purchaser or lessee.

(b) A bond to the State of California is furnished to the commissioner for the benefit and protection of purchasers or lessees of the lots or parcels, in such amount and subject to such terms as may be approved by the commissioner, which provides for the return of the money paid or advanced by any purchaser or lessee, for or on account of the purchase or lease of any lot or parcel in the event that the owner, subdivider, or agent does not, within the time specified in the contract to sell or lease, or any extension thereof, deliver the legal title or other interest contracted for, whether title of record or other interest, to the purchaser or lessee for any reason other than an uncured default of the purchaser or lessee.

(c) An association, approved by the commissioner, files with the commissioner a certificate in which it certifies that the owner, subdivider, or agent is a member of the association and that there is on file with the commissioner a bond, of the kind specified in subdivision (b), which has been approved by the commissioner as to amount, terms and coverage, and which is for the benefit and protection of all purchasers and lessees of subdivided lots or parcels to be sold or leased by members of the association (all which the commissioner may, at the commissioner's option, verify or require to be verified).

(d) Proof, satisfactory to the commissioner, is furnished: (1) that security provided or contemplated to be given pursuant to the provisions of Section 66493 and Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 66499) of Division 2 of Title 7 of the Government Code, has been given in an amount, the commissioner approves, or that the giving of such security is unnecessary; and (2) that a lien and completion bond or bonds, approved by the commissioner as to amount, terms and coverage and including within its scope all onsite construction work to be undertaken on the lots or parcels, has been written and issued by an admitted surety insurer; provided, however, that this subdivision applies only to an owner, subdivider, or agent who proposes to sell or lease the lots or parcels with improvements thereon in the nature of residential structures.

(e) The entire sums of moneys paid or advanced by the purchasers or lessees of the lots or parcels, or such portion of the money as the commissioner determines is sufficient to protect the interest of the purchaser or lessee, is deposited into an escrow depository or other agency, acceptable to the commissioner, to be held, in whole or in part, by the escrow depository or other agency as provided by subdivision (a) or, at the election of the owner, subdivider, or agent, to be disbursed, in whole or in part, for the construction of residential or other structures to be built on the lots or parcels within the subdivision, or such unit or units thereof as the commissioner determines, in such manner and pursuant to such instructions as the commissioner approves; provided, however, that the provisions of this subdivision apply only to an owner, subdivider, or agent who proposes to sell or lease the lots or parcels with improvements thereon in the nature of residential structures.

(f) There is conformance to such other alternative requirement or method the commissioner deems acceptable to carry into effect the intent and provisions of this part.

SEC. 50. Section 17540.7 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

17540.7. (a) "Adequate bond" means a bond executed by an admitted surety insurer in an amount at least equal to the amount required under the contract between the travel promoter and the transportation carrier or company or person providing any other services in conjunction with such transportation, for the benefit of every person injured by the wrongful act of the principal acting in the course and scope of his or her occupation or business or by any official, agent or employee of the principal acting in the course or scope of his or her employment or agency. A travel promoter filing such a bond shall maintain the bond in force in the proper amount as a condition of continuing to engage in business.

(b) No person may recover upon the bond a sum greater than that which such person paid to the principal, provided that this limitation shall not restrict a person from recovering sums greater than those paid to the principal from sources other than the bond.

SEC. 51. Section 17766.3 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

17766.3. The costs incurred by the commissioner or a receiver in performing the duties set forth in Sections 17766 and 17766.1 shall constitute a proper charge against the trading stamp company, or, in the event of the trading stamp company's failure to pay, against the bond filed by that company or if no bond is filed against the money or securities filed with the State Treasurer. The costs shall constitute a prior claim against such company, the bond, or the money or securities filed with the State Treasurer.

SEC. 52. Section 17773.1 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 53. Section 18690 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

18690. (a) Before any license is granted to any club to conduct, hold, or give a boxing contest or a sparring match, other than an amateur boxing contest or sparring match, or to conduct, hold, or give a wrestling match or a wrestling exhibition, the applicant therefor shall file a bond of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) with the commission, conditioned for the faithful performance by the club of the provisions of this chapter and the payment of the taxes herein imposed. Only one such bond shall be required of a club regardless of the number of licenses held as long as no two events are staged by that club on the same date.

(b) Before any license is granted to any club to conduct, hold, or give an amateur boxing contest, sparring or wrestling match for which an admission fee is received, the applicant therefor shall file a bond of not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) with the commission, conditioned for the faithful performance by the club of the provisions of this chapter and the payment of taxes herein imposed. Only one such bond shall be required of a club regardless of the number of licenses held as long as no two events are staged by that club on the same date.

The professional and amateur club bonds shall guarantee, in order of priority, the payment of all taxes due and payable to the state, the payment of contributions for medical insurance or for an emergency medical fund, and to the pension and disability fund, the payment of the purses to the competitors, and the repayment to consumers of purchased tickets. The circumstances and allocations of bond payment shall be determined by the commission.

SEC. 54. Section 22353 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

22353. A certificate of registration shall be accompanied by a bond of two thousand dollars ($2,000) which is executed by an admitted surety insurer and conditioned upon compliance with the provisions of this chapter and all laws governing the service of process in this state. The total aggregate liability on the bond is limited to two thousand dollars ($2,000).

SEC. 55. Section 22357 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

22357. (a) Any person who recovers damages in any action or proceeding for injuries caused by a service of process which was made by a registrant and did not comply with the provisions of law governing the service of process in this state may recover the amount of the damages from the bond required by Section 22353.

(b) Whenever there has been a recovery against a bond under subdivision (a), the registrant shall file a new bond within 30 days to reinstate the bond or cash deposit to the amount required by Section 22353. If the registrant does not file the bond within 30 days, the certificate of registration shall be revoked and the remainder of the bond forfeited to the county treasury.

SEC. 56. Section 22390 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

22390. The bond required by Section 22389 shall be in favor of the State of California for the benefit of any person who, after entering into a contract for invention development services with an invention developer is damaged by fraud or dishonesty or failure to provide the services of the invention developer in performance of the contract.

SEC. 57. Section 22391 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 58. Section 1812.54 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1812.54. (a) Every contract for dance studio lessons and other services shall provide that performance of the agreed-upon lessons will begin within 12 months from the date the contract is entered into.

(b) Every contract for dance studio lessons and other services shall further provide:

(1) That the contract may be canceled within 180 days after the date of receipt by the customer of a copy of the contract by written notice to the other party at the address specified in the contract, and all moneys paid pursuant to the contract shall be refunded within 10 days of receipt of the notice of cancellation, except that payment shall be made for any dance studio lessons and other services received prior to cancellation.

(2) That the contract may be canceled after 180 days after the date of receipt by the customer of a copy of the contract by written notice to the other party at the address specified in the contract, and the student canceling the contract shall be thereafter entitled to a refund, within 10 days of receipt by the dance studio of notice of cancellation, of all moneys paid pursuant to the canceled contract with the exception that the dance studio shall be entitled to 10 percent of the unpaid balance pursuant to the terms of the canceled contract, and except further that, in addition to the foregoing, payment shall be made for any dance studio lessons and other services received prior to the cancellation.

(c) Every contract for dance studio lessons and other services shall contain a written statement of the hourly rate charged for each type of lessons for which the student has contracted. If the contract includes dance studio lessons which are sold at different per-hour rates, the contract shall contain separate hourly rates for each different type of lessons sold. All other services for which the student has contracted which are not capable of a per-hour charge shall be set forth in writing in specific terms. The statement shall be contained in the dance studio contract before the contract is signed by the buyer.

(d) Every dance studio subject to the provisions of Sections 1812.64 and 1812.65 shall include in every contract for dance studio lessons or other services a statement that the studio is bonded and that information concerning the bond may be obtained by writing to the office of the Secretary of State, 111 Capitol Mall, Sacramento, California 95814. If the studio has elected to make a deposit in lieu of procuring a bond, the contract shall contain a description of the deposit.

SEC. 59. Section 1812.65 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1812.65. The bond required by Section 1812.64 shall be in favor of the State of California for the benefit of any person who, after entering into a contract for dance studio lessons and other services with the dance studio, is damaged by fraud or dishonesty or failure to provide the services of the studio in performance of the contract.

SEC. 60. Section 1812.66 of the Civil Code is repealed.

SEC. 61. Section 1812.67 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1812.67. Sections 1812.64 and 1812.65 do not apply to any dance studio which requires or receives less than fifty dollars ($50) in advance payments from or on behalf of each student for dance lessons or other services which are to be rendered by the studio in the future and such advance payments are not required or received by the studio from each student more frequently than once every 30 days.

SEC. 62. Section 1812.104 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1812.104. The bond required by Section 1812.103 shall be in favor of the State of California for the benefit of any person who is damaged by any violation of this title or by fraud or dishonesty or failure to provide the services of the discount buying organization in performance of the contract. The surety shall be liable only for the actual damages plus restitution and not the treble damages permitted under subdivision (a) of Section 1812.123.

SEC. 63. Section 1812.105 of the Civil Code is repealed.

SEC. 64. Section 1812.214 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1812.214. (a) Every seller of seller-assisted marketing plans other than a California corporation shall file with the Secretary of State an irrevocable consent appointing the Secretary of State or successor in office to act as the seller's attorney to receive service or any lawful process in any noncriminal suit, action or proceeding against the seller or the seller's successor, executor or administrator, which may arise under this title. When service is made upon the Secretary of State, it shall have the same force and validity as if served personally on the seller. Service may be made by leaving a copy of the process in the office of the Secretary of State, but it shall not be effective unless:

(1) The plaintiff forthwith sends by first-class mail a notice of the service upon the Secretary of State and a copy of the process to the defendant or respondent at the last address on file with the Secretary of State; and

(2) The plaintiff's affidavit of compliance with this section is filed in the case on or before the return date of the process, if any, or within such further time as the court allows.

(b) If, pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 1812.204, a seller must obtain a surety bond or establish a trust account, the following procedures apply:

(1) If a bond is obtained, a copy of it shall be filed with the office of the Secretary of State; if a trust account is established, notification of the depository, the trustee and the account number shall be filed with the office of the Secretary of State.

(2) The bond or trust account required shall be in favor of the State of California for the benefit of any person who is damaged by any violation of this title or by the seller's breach of a contract subject to this title or of any obligation arising therefrom. The trust account shall also be in favor of any person damaged by such practices.

(3) Any person claiming against the trust account for a violation of this title may maintain an action at law against the seller and the trustee. The surety or trustee shall be liable only for actual damages and not the punitive damages permitted under Section 1812.218. The aggregate liability of the trustee to all persons damaged by a seller's violation of this title shall in no event exceed the amount of the trust account.

(4) The bond or the trust account shall be in an amount equal to the total amount of the "initial payment" section of all seller-assisted marketing plan contracts the seller has entered into during the previous year or three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000), whichever is less, but in no case shall the amount be less than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000). The amount required shall be adjusted twice a year, no later than the tenth day of the first month of the seller's fiscal year and no later than the tenth day of the seventh month of the seller's fiscal year. A seller need only establish a bond or trust account in the amount of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) at the commencement of business and during the first six months the seller is in business. By the tenth day of the seller's seventh month in business, the amount of the bond or trust account shall be established as provided for herein as if the seller had been in business for a year.

SEC. 65. Section 1861.12 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1861.12. The writ of possession shall meet all of the following requirements:

(a) Be directed to the levying officer within whose jurisdiction the property is located.

(b) Generally describe the property to be seized.

(c) Specify the apartment, motel, or other boarding premises that may be entered to take possession of the property, or some part of it.

(d) Direct the levying officer to levy on the property pursuant to Section 1861.18 if found on the described premises, and to retain custody of it until released or sold pursuant to Section 1861.19.

(e) Inform the defendant of the right to object to the plaintiff's undertaking, a copy of which shall be attached to the writ, or to obtain the delivery of the property by filing an undertaking as prescribed by Section 1861.22.

SEC. 66. Section 1861.19 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1861.19. (a) After the levying officer takes possession pursuant to the writ of possession, the levying officer shall keep the property in a secure place. Except as otherwise provided in Section 1861.6:

(1) If notice of the filing of an undertaking for redelivery or notice of objection to the undertaking is not received by the levying officer within 10 days after levy of the writ of possession, the levying officer shall deliver the property to plaintiff, upon receiving the fees for taking, and necessary expenses for keeping, the property.

(2) If notice of the filing of an undertaking for redelivery is received by the levying officer within 10 days after levy of the writ of possession, and no objection is made to the defendant's undertaking, the levying officer shall redeliver the property to defendant upon expiration of the time to object, upon receiving the fees for taking and necessary expenses for keeping the property not already paid or advanced by the plaintiff.

(3) If notice of objection to the plaintiff's undertaking or notice of the filing of an undertaking for redelivery is received within 10 days after levy of the writ of possession, and objection is made to the defendant's undertaking, the levying officer shall not deliver or redeliver the property until the time provided in Section 1861.23.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), when not otherwise provided by contract, and where an undertaking for redelivery has not been filed, upon a showing that the property is perishable, or will greatly deteriorate or depreciate in value, or for some other reason that the interest of the parties will be best served thereby, the court may order that the property be sold and the proceeds deposited in the court to abide the judgment in the action.

SEC. 67. Section 1861.21 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1861.21. The court shall not issue a temporary restraining order or a writ of possession until the plaintiff has filed with the court an undertaking. The undertaking shall provide that the sureties are bound to the defendant in the amount of the undertaking for the return of the property to the defendant, if the return thereof be ordered, and for the payment to the defendant of any sum recovered against plaintiff. The undertaking shall be in an amount not less than twice the value of the property.

SEC. 68. Section 1861.22 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1861.22. (a) The defendant may prevent the plaintiff from taking possession of property, pursuant to a writ of possession, or regain possession of property so taken, by filing with the court in which the action was brought an undertaking in an amount equal to the amount of the plaintiff's undertaking required by Section 1861.21. The undertaking shall state that, if the plaintiff recovers judgment on the action, the defendant shall pay all costs awarded to the plaintiff and all damages that the plaintiff may sustain by reason of the loss of possession of the property, not exceeding the amount of the undertaking.

(b) The defendant's undertaking may be filed at any time before or after the levy of the writ of possession. The defendant shall mail a copy of the undertaking to the levying officer.

(c) If an undertaking for redelivery is filed, and no objection is made to the undertaking, the levying officer shall deliver the property to the defendant, or, if the plaintiff has previously been given possession of the property, the plaintiff shall deliver the property to the defendant. If an undertaking for redelivery is filed and an objection to the undertaking is made, the provisions of Section 1861.23 apply.

SEC. 69. Section 1861.23 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1861.23. (a) The defendant may object to the plaintiff's undertaking not later than 10 days after levy of the writ of possession. The defendant shall mail notice of objection to the levying officer.

(b) The plaintiff may object to the defendant's undertaking not later than 10 days after the defendant's undertaking is filed. The plaintiff shall mail notice of objection to the levying officer .

(c) If the court determines that the plaintiff's undertaking is not sufficient and a sufficient undertaking is not given within the time provided by statute, the court shall vacate the temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction, if any, and the writ of possession and, if levy has occurred, order the levying officer or the plaintiff to return the property to the defendant. If the court determines that the plaintiff's undertaking is sufficient, the court shall order the levying officer to deliver the property to the plaintiff.

(d) If the court determines that the defendant's undertaking is not sufficient and a sufficient undertaking is not given within the time required by statute, the court shall order the levying officer to deliver the property to the plaintiff, or, if the plaintiff has previously been given possession of the property, the plaintiff shall retain possession. If the court determines the defendant's undertaking is sufficient, the court shall order the levying officer or the plaintiff to deliver the property to the defendant.

SEC. 70. Section 1861a of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1861a. (a) Keepers of furnished and unfurnished apartment houses, apartments, cottages, or bungalow courts have a lien upon the baggage and other property of value belonging to their tenants or guests, and upon all the right, title and interest of their tenants or guests in and to all property in the possession of the tenants or guests which may be in the apartment house, apartment, cottage, or bungalow court, for the proper charges due from the tenants or guests, for their accommodation, rent, services, meals, and such extras as are furnished at their request, and for all moneys expended for them, at their request, and for the costs of enforcing the lien.

(b) The lien may be enforced only after final judgment in an action brought to recover the charges or moneys. During the pendency of the proceeding, the plaintiff may take possession of the baggage and property upon an order issued by the court, where it appears to the satisfaction of the court from an affidavit filed by or on behalf of the plaintiff that the baggage or property is about to be destroyed, substantially devalued, or removed from the premises. Ten days written notice of the hearing on the motion for the order shall be served on the defendant and shall inform the defendant that the defendant may file affidavits and present testimony and that if the defendant fails to appear the plaintiff will apply to the court for the order. The plaintiff shall file an undertaking in such sum as may be fixed by the court.

(c) Upon the order, the plaintiff has the right to enter peaceably the unfurnished apartment house, apartment, cottage, or bungalow court used by the guest or tenant without liability to the guest or tenant, including any possible claim of liability for conversion, trespass, or forcible entry. The plaintiff has the same duties and liabilities as a depository for hire as to property which the plaintiff takes into possession. An entry shall be considered peaceable when accomplished with a key or passkey or through an unlocked door during the hours between sunrise and sunset.

(d) Unless the judgment is paid within 30 days from the date when it becomes final, the plaintiff may sell the baggage and property, at public auction to the highest bidder. The plaintiff shall give notice of sale by publication of a notice containing the name of the debtor, the amount due, a brief description of the property to be sold, and the time and place of sale, pursuant to Section 6064 of the Government Code in the county in which the apartment house, apartment, cottage, or bungalow court is situated. The plaintiff shall mail, at least 15 days prior to the date of sale, a copy of the notice addressed to the tenant or guest at the residence or other known address of the tenant or guest, and if not known, addressed to the tenant or guest at the place where the apartment house, apartment, cottage, or bungalow court is situated.

(e) After satisfying the lien out of the proceeds of sale, together with any reasonable costs that may have been incurred in enforcing the lien, the residue of the proceeds of sale, if any, shall, upon demand made within six months after sale, be paid to the tenant or guest. If not demanded within six months from the date of sale, the residue, if any, shall be paid into the treasury of the county in which the sale took place. If the residue is not claimed by the owner or the owner's legal representative within one year after the date of sale, the residue shall be paid into the general fund of the county.

(f) The sale shall be a perpetual bar to any action against the keeper for the recovery of the baggage or property, or of the value thereof, or for any damages, growing out of the failure of the tenant or guest to receive the baggage or property.

(g) When the baggage and property are not in the possession of the keeper as provided in this section, the lien shall be enforced only by writ of execution.

(h) This section does not apply to:

(1) Any musical instrument of any kind or description which is used by the owner thereof to earn all or a part of the owner's living.

(2) Any prosthetic or orthopedic appliance, or any medicine, drug, or medical equipment or health apparatus, personally used by a tenant or guest, or a member of the tenant's or guest's family who is residing with the tenant or guest.

(3) Table and kitchen furniture, including one refrigerator, washing machine, sewing machine, stove; bedroom furniture, one overstuffed chair, one davenport, one dining table and chairs, and also all tools, instruments, clothing and books used by the tenant or guest in gaining a livelihood; beds, bedding and bedsteads, oil paintings and drawings drawn or painted by any member of the family of the tenant or guest, and any family portraits and their necessary frames.

(4) All other household, table or kitchen furniture not expressly mentioned in paragraph (c), including but not limited to radios, television sets, phonographs, records, motor vehicles that may be stored on the premises except so much of any such articles as may be reasonably sufficient to satisfy the lien provided for by this section; and provided further, that the lien shall be secondary to the claim of any prior bona fide holder of a chattel mortgage on and the rights of a conditional seller of such articles, other than the tenant or guest. Any property which is exempt from attachment or execution under the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure shall not be subject to the lien provided for in this section.

SEC. 71. Section 2780 of the Civil Code is repealed.

SEC. 72. Section 2781 of the Civil Code is repealed.

SEC. 73. Section 2845 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2845. A surety may require the creditor, subject to Section 996.440 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to proceed against the principal, or to pursue any other remedy in the creditor's power which the surety cannot pursue, and which would lighten the surety's burden; and if the creditor neglects to do so, the surety is exonerated to the extent to which the surety is thereby prejudiced.

SEC. 74. Section 2851 of the Civil Code is repealed.

SEC. 75. Section 2852 of the Civil Code is repealed.

SEC. 76. Section 3061.5 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

3061.5. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (d), any person who as an employee shall, by his or her own labor, do or perform any work harvesting or transporting harvested crops or farm products as defined in Section 55403 of the Food and Agricultural Code which are owned and grown or produced by a limited partnership as defined in Section 15501 of the Corporations Code, has a lien upon any and all of the severed crops or severed farm products or proceeds from their sale for the value of the labor done up to a maximum of earnings for two weeks. The liens attach whether the work was done at the instance of the owner who is the grower or producer of severed crops or severed farm products or of any other person acting by or under the owner's authority, directly or indirectly, as contractor or otherwise; and every contractor, subcontractor, or other person having charge of the harvesting or transporting of the severed crops or severed farm products shall be held to be the agent of the owner for the purposes of this section.

(b) The liens provided for in this section attach from the date of the commencement of the work or labor, and are preferred liens, prior in dignity to all other liens, claims, or encumbrances. Except as provided in subdivisions (a) and (c) they shall not be limited as to amount by any contract price agreed upon between the owner who is the grower or producer of the severed crops or severed farm products and any contractor, but the several liens shall not in any case exceed in amount the reasonable value of the labor done, nor the price agreed upon for the labor between the claimant and his or her employer. In no event, where the claimant was employed by a contractor, or subcontractor, shall the lien extend to any labor not contemplated by, covered by, or reasonably necessary to the execution of, the original contract between the contractor and the owner who is the grower or producer of severed crops or severed farm products and of which contract, or modification thereof, the claimant had actual notice before the performance of the labor.

(c) The maximum liability of severed crops, severed farm products or the proceeds from their sale subject to liens under this section is limited to the lesser of actual proved claims or 25 percent of the fair market value of the severed crops, severed farm products, or 25 percent of the proceeds after their sale.

(d) No person has a lien if the owner who is the grower or producer of the severed crops, severed farm products, or their proceeds, who otherwise would be subject to a lien pursuant to subdivision (a), either gives directly, or requires a person or entity hired or used to furnish labor in connection with harvesting or transporting the severed crops, to give to the Labor Commissioner prior to the harvest and for 45 days after its completion, a bond executed by an admitted surety insurer in an amount and form acceptable to the Labor Commissioner, which is conditioned upon the payment of all wages found to be due and unpaid in connection with such operations under any provision of this code.

(e) A buyer in the ordinary course of business, as defined in subdivision (9) of Section 1201 of the Commercial Code, shall take free of any security interest created by this section, notwithstanding the fact that the lien is perfected and the buyer knows of its existence.

SEC. 77. Section 3080.10 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

3080.10. After hearing, the court may enter an order directing the lienholder to release all or a portion of the livestock to the owner, or to the owner's agent. The order shall be conditioned upon the filing by the owner of an undertaking as set forth in Section 3080.11, and shall include all of the following:

(1) The amount of the undertaking required.

(2) The basis for the court's finding as to the fair market value of the livestock.

(3) A statement that the lienholder has the right to object to the undertaking pursuant to Section 995.910 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(4) A description of the livestock to be substituted.

(5) A statement of the date, time, place and manner in which the lienholder is to turn over the livestock to the owner.

SEC. 78. Section 3080.11 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

3080.11. The undertaking to be substituted for livestock shall be by the owner to pay to the lienholder an amount equal to the sum of (1) the fair market value of the livestock sought to be recovered, and (2) the costs to be incurred by the lienholder in order to assemble and turn over the livestock.

SEC. 79. Section 3080.12 of the Civil Code is repealed.

SEC. 80. Section 3080.13 of the Civil Code is repealed.

SEC. 81. Section 3080.14 of the Civil Code is repealed.

SEC. 82. Section 3227 of the Civil Code is repealed.

SEC. 83. Section 3228 of the Civil Code is repealed.

SEC. 84. Section 3248 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

3248. To be approved the payment bond shall satisfy all of the following requirements:

(a) Be in a sum not less than that prescribed in the following paragraph which is applicable to the total amount payable:

(1) One-half of the total amount payable by the terms of the contract when the total amount payable does not equal or exceed five million dollars ($5,000,000).

(2) One-fourth of the total amount payable by the terms of the contract when the total amount payable is not less than five million dollars ($5,000,000) and does not exceed ten million dollars ($10,000,000).

(3) If the total amount payable by the terms of the contract exceeds ten million dollars ($10,000,000), a payment bond in the sum of two million five hundred thousand dollars ($2,500,000) is sufficient.

(b) Provide that if the original contractor or a subcontractor fails to pay any of the persons named in Section 3181, or amounts due under the Unemployment Insurance Code with respect to work or labor performed under the contract, or for any amounts required to be deducted, withheld, and paid over to the Employment Development Department from the wages of employees of the contractor and subcontractors pursuant to Section 13020 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, with respect to such work and labor that the sureties will pay for the same, and also, in case suit is brought upon the bond, a reasonable attorney's fee, to be fixed by the court. The original contractor may require of the subcontractors a bond to indemnify the original contractor for any loss sustained by the original contractor because of any default by the subcontractors under this section.

(c) By its terms inure to the benefit of any of the persons named in Section 3181 so as to give a right of action to such persons or their assigns in any suit brought upon the bond.

(d) Be in the form of a bond and not a deposit in lieu of a bond.

SEC. 85. Section 3415 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

3415. (a) An action may be maintained by any person interested in any private document or instrument in writing, which has been lost or destoyed, to prove or establish the document or instrument or to compel the issuance, execution and acknowledgment of a duplicate of the document or instrument.

(b) If the document or instrument is a negotiable instrument, the court shall compel the owner of the negotiable instrument to give an indemnity bond to the person reissuing, reexecuting or reacknowledging the same, against loss, damage, expense, or other liability which may be suffered by the person by reason of the issuance of the duplicate instrument or by the original instrument still remaining outstanding.

SEC. 86. A chapter heading is added immediately preceding Section 3439 of the Civil Code, to read:

CHAPTER 1. UNIFORM FRAUDULENT CONVEYANCE ACT

SEC. 87. Section 3439 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

3439. This chapter may be cited as the Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act.

SEC. 88. A chapter heading is added immediately preceding Section 3440 of the Civil Code, to read:

CHAPTER 2. CONVEYANCE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY WITHOUT DELIVERY

SEC. 89. Section 3440 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

3440. Every transfer of personal property and every lien on personal property made by a person having at the time the possession or control of the property, and not accompanied by an immediate delivery followed by an actual and continued change of possession of the things transferred, is conclusively presumed fraudulent and void as against the transferor's creditors while the transferor remains in possession and the successors in interest of those creditors, and as against any person on whom the transferor's estate devolves in trust for the benefit of others than the transferor and as against purchasers or encumbrancers in good faith subsequent to the transfer.

SEC. 90. Section 3441 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

3441. This chapter shall not apply to any of the following:

(a) Things in action.

(b) Ships or cargoes at sea or in a foreign port.

(c) Security interests and the sale of accounts, contract rights, or chattel paper governed by the Uniform Commercial Code, and contracts of bottomry or respondentia.

(d) Wines or brandies in the wineries, distilleries, or wine cellars of the makers or owners of the wines or brandies, or other persons having possession, care, and control of the wines or brandies, and the pipes, casks, and tanks in which the wines or brandies are contained, if the transfers are made in writing and executed and acknowledged, and if the transfers are recorded in the book of official records in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the wines, brandies, pipes, casks, and tanks are situated.

(e) The transfer or assignment made for the benefit of creditors generally or by any assignee acting under an assignment for the benefit of creditors generally, or to any security agreement made for the benefit of creditors generally.

(f) Property exempt from enforcement of a money judgment.

(g) Standing timber if the contract or instrument in relation to the standing timber is recorded as provided in Section 1220.

(h) A transfer of personal property if all of the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) The personal property is leased back to the transferor immediately following the transfer.

(2) The transferor (lessee) or the transferee (lessor) records at least 10 days before the date of the transfer and leaseback in the office of the county recorder in the county or counties in which the personal property is situated, a notice of the intended transfer and leaseback which states the name and address of the transferor (lessee) and transferee (lessor). The notice shall contain a general statement of the character of the personal property intended to be transferred and leased back, and show the date when and place where the transaction is to be consummated.

(3) The transferor (lessee) or the transferee (lessor) publishes a copy of the notice pursuant to Section 6061 of the Government Code in a newspaper of general circulation published in the judicial district in which the personal property is situated, if there is one, and if there is none in the judicial district, then in a newspaper of general circulation in the county embracing the judicial district. The publication shall be completed not less than five days before the date of the intended transfer and leaseback.

SEC. 91. Section 3442 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

3442. This chapter shall not affect the rights of a secured party who acquires from the transferee or the transferee's successor a security interest in the personal property transferred if all of the following conditions are satisfied:

(a) The intended debtor or secured party records at least 10 days before the consummation of the security agreement in the office of the county recorder in the county or counties in which the personal property is situated, a notice of the transfer and intended security agreement which states the names and addresses of the transferor and transferee and of the intended debtor and secured party. The notice shall contain a general statement of the character of the personal property transferred and intended to be subject to the security interest, and show the date when and place where the security agreement is to be consummated.

(b) The intended debtor or secured party publishes a copy of the notice pursuant to Section 6061 of the Government Code in a newspaper of general circulation published in the judicial district in which the personal property is situated, if there is one, and if there is none in the judicial district, then in a newspaper of general circulation in the county embracing the judicial district. The publication shall be completed not less than five days before the date of the intended security agreement.

SEC. 92. Section 3443 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

3443. Subdivision (2) of Section 2402 of the Commercial Code is not restricted by the provisions of this chapter.

SEC. 93. Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 3445) is added to Title 2 of Part 2 of Division 4 of the Civil Code, to read:

CHAPTER 3. UNDERTAKING IN FRAUDULENT CONVEYANCE ACTION

3445. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Conveyance" means "conveyance" as defined in Section 3439.01.

(b) "Creditor" means "creditor" as defined in Section 3439.01.

(c) "Transferee" means the person to whom property was conveyed or an obligation was incurred, or the successors or assigns of the person.

3446. (a) In an action by a creditor to set aside a conveyance or annul an obligation on the ground that the conveyance or obligation is fraudulent as to the creditor, the transferee may give an undertaking as provided in this chapter.

(b) If an undertaking is given as provided in this chapter, the transferee may sell, encumber, transfer, convey, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise dispose of the property or obligation, or a part thereof, and the purchaser, encumbrancer, transferee, mortgagee, grantee, or pledgee of the property or obligation takes, owns, holds, and possesses the property or obligation unaffected by the action and any judgment that is rendered in the action.

3447. The undertaking shall be conditioned that, if it is determined in the action that the conveyance or obligation was fraudulent as to the creditor, the transferee will pay to the creditor the lesser of the following amounts:

(a) The value of the property or obligation as estimated in the undertaking.

(b) The amount determined in the action to be due and owing to the creditor by the person who conveyed the property or incurred the obligation.

3448. The undertaking shall be in the lesser of the following amounts:

(a) Double the value of the property or obligation.

(b) Double the amount of the creditor's claim in the action.

3449. The undertaking becomes effective 10 days after service of the undertaking on the creditor.

SEC. 94. Section 166 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

166. (a) The judge or judges of the superior, municipal and justice courts may, at chambers, in the matters within the jurisdiction of their respective courts, do all of the following:

(1) Grant all orders and writs which are usually granted in the first instance upon an ex parte application, and hear and dispose of such orders and writs.

(2) Appoint appraisers, receive inventories and accounts to be filed, suspend the powers of executors, administrators, guardians, or conservators in the cases allowed by law, grant special letters of administration and letters of temporary guardianship or conservatorship, approve claims, and direct the issuance from the court of all writs and process necessary in the exercise of their powers in matters of probate.

(3) Hear and determine all motions made pursuant to Section 657 or 663.

(4) Hear and determine all uncontested actions, proceedings, demurrers, motions, petitions, applications, and other matters pending before the court other than actions for dissolution of marriage, for legal separation, or for a judgment of nullity of the marriage, and except also applications for confirmation of sale of real property in probate proceedings.

(5) Approve bonds and undertakings.

(b) A judge, may, out of court, anywhere in the state, exercise all the powers and perform all the functions and duties conferred upon a judge as contradistinguished from the court, or which a judge may exercise or perform at chambers.

SEC. 95. Section 259 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

259. Subject to the supervision of the court every court commissioner shall have power to do all of the following:

(1) Hear and determine ex parte motions, for orders and alternative writs and writs of habeas corpus in the superior court for which the court commissioner is appointed.

(2) Take proof and make and report findings thereon as to any matter of fact upon which information is required by the court. Any party to any contested proceeding may except to the report and the subsequent order of the court made thereon within five days after written notice of the court's action, a copy of the exceptions to be filed and served upon opposing party or counsel within the five days. The party may argue any exceptions before the court on giving notice of motion for that purpose within 10 days from entry thereof. After a hearing before the court on the exceptions, the court may sustain, or set aside, or modify its order.

(3) Take and approve any bonds and undertakings in actions or proceedings, and determine objections to the bonds and undertakings.

(4) Administer oaths and affirmations, and take affidavits and depositions in any action or proceeding in any of the courts of this state, or in any matter or proceeding whatever, and take acknowledgments and proof of deeds, mortgages, and other instruments requiring proof or acknowledgment for any purpose under the laws of this or any other state or country.

(5) Act as temporary judge when otherwise qualified so to act and when appointed for that purpose. While acting as temporary judge the commissioner shall receive no compensation therefor other than compensation as commissioner.

(6) Hear and report findings and conclusions to the court for approval, rejection, or change, all preliminary matters including motions or petitions for the custody and support of children, the allowance of temporary alimony, costs and attorneys' fees, and issues of fact in contempt proceedings in divorce, maintenance, and annulment of marriage cases.

(7) Hear, report on, and determine all uncontested actions and proceedings other than actions for divorce, maintenance, or annulment of marriage.

(8) Charge and collect the same fees for the performance of official acts as are allowed by law to notaries public in this state for like services. This paragraph does not apply to any services of the commissioner, the compensation for which is expressly fixed by law. The fees so collected shall be paid to the treasurer of the county, for deposit in the general fund of the county.

(9) Provide an official seal, upon which must be engraved the words "Court Commissioner" and the name of the county, or city and county, in which the commissioner resides.

(10) Authenticate with the official seal the commissioner's official acts.

SEC. 96. Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 304) of Title 5 of Part 1 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 97. Section 340 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

340. Within one year:

(1) An action upon a statute for a penalty or forfeiture, when the action is given to an individual, or to an individual and the state, except when the statute imposing it prescribes a different limitation.

(2) An action upon a statute for a forfeiture or penalty to the people of this state.

(3) An action for libel, slander, assault, battery, false imprisonment, seduction of a person below the age of legal consent, or for injury to or for the death of one caused by the wrongful act or neglect of another, or by a depositor against a bank for the payment of a forged or raised check, or a check that bears a forged or unauthorized endorsement, or against any person who boards or feeds an animal or fowl or who engages in the practice of veterinary medicine as defined in Section 4826 of the Business and Professions Code, for such person's neglect resulting in injury or death to an animal or fowl in the course of boarding or feeding such animal or fowl or in the course of the practice of veterinary medicine on such animal or fowl.

(4) An action against an officer to recover damages for the seizure of any property for a statutory forfeiture to the state, or for the detention of, or injury to property so seized, or for damages done to any person in making any such seizure.

(5) An action by a good faith improver for relief under Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 871.1) of Title 10 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The time begins to run from the date upon which the good faith improver discovers that the good faith improver is not the owner of the land upon which the improvements have been made.

SEC. 98. Section 391 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

391. As used in this title, the following terms have the following meanings:

(a) "Litigation" means any civil action or proceeding, commenced, maintained or pending in any court of this state.

(b) "Vexatious litigant" means any person:

(1) Who, in the immediately preceding seven-year period has commenced, prosecuted or maintained in propria persona at least five litigations other than in a small claims court that have been (i) finally determined adversely to the person; or (ii) unjustifiably permitted to remain pending at least two years without having been brought to trial or hearing; or

(2) Who, after a litigation has been finally determined against the person, repeatedly relitigates or attempts to relitigate, in propria persona, either (i) the validity of the determination against the same defendant or defendants as to whom the litigation was finally determined or (ii) the cause of action, claim, controversy, or any of the issues of fact or law, determined or concluded by the final determination against the same defendant or defendants as to whom the litigation was finally determined.

(c) "Security" means an undertaking to assure payment, to the party for whose benefit the undertaking is required to be furnished, of the party's reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees and not limited to taxable costs, incurred in or in connection with a litigation instituted, caused to be instituted, or maintained or caused to be maintained by a vexatious litigant.

(d) "Plaintiff" means the person who commences, institutes or maintains a litigation or causes it to be commenced, instituted or maintained.

(e) "Defendant" means a person (including corporation, association, partnership and firm) against whom a litigation is brought or maintained or sought to be brought or maintained.

SEC. 99. Section 391.3 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

391.3. If, after hearing the evidence upon the motion, the court determines that the plaintiff is a vexatious litigant and that there is no reasonable probability that the plaintiff will prevail in the litigation against the moving defendant, the court shall order the plaintiff to furnish, for the benefit of the moving defendant, security in such amount and within such time as the court shall fix.

SEC. 100. Section 391.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 101. Section 431.60 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 102. Section 489.010 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 103. Section 489.020 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 105. Section 489.040 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 106. Section 489.050 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 107. Section 489.060 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

489.060. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), all undertakings given pursuant to this title shall be presented to a proper court for approval and upon approval shall be filed with the court in which the action is pending.

(b) If the surety on the undertaking is an admitted surety insurer, the undertaking is not required to be approved by the court.

SEC. 108. Section 489.070 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 109. Section 489.080 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 110. Section 489.090 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 111. Section 489.100 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 112. Section 489.110 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 113. Section 489.120 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 114. Section 489.230 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

489.230. (a) The notice of attachment shall include a statement, in a form adopted by the Judicial Council, advising the defendant that the undertaking has been filed and informing the defendant of the right to object to the undertaking.

(b) The form for the temporary protective order shall include a statement comparable to the one required by subdivision (a).

SEC. 115. Section 489.420 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

489.420. If a defendant appeals and the enforcement of the judgment against the defendant is stayed by the filing of a sufficient undertaking on appeal as provided by this code, all property of the defendant which has been attached in the action shall be released from the attachment upon the failure of the respondent to object to the undertaking within the time prescribed by statute or, if an objection is made, upon a determination that the undertaking is sufficient.

SEC. 116. Section 490.030 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 117. Section 493.040 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

493.040. (a) Where a lien of attachment terminates pursuant to Section 493.030, the assignee under a general assignment for the benefit of creditors or, in the case of a bankruptcy, the trustee, interim trustee, or the debtor in possession if there is no trustee or interim trustee, may secure the release of the attachment by filing with the levying officer a request for release of attachment stating the grounds for release and describing the property to be released, executed under oath, together with a copy thereof.

(b) In the case of an assignee, the request shall include two copies of the general assignment for the benefit of creditors.

(c) In the case of a trustee, interim trustee, or debtor in possession, the request shall include a certified copy of the petition in bankruptcy, together with a copy thereof.

(d) If immediate release of the attachment is sought, the request shall be accompanied by an undertaking to pay the plaintiff any damages resulting from an improper release of the attachment, in the amount of the plaintiff's claim to be secured by the attachment, executed by an admitted surety insurer.

(e) Within five days after the filing of the request for release of attachment, the levying officer shall mail to the plaintiff:

(1) A copy of the request for release of the attachment, including the copy of the document filed pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c).

(2) If an undertaking has not been given, a notice that the attachment will be released pursuant to the request for release of attachment unless otherwise ordered by a court within 10 days after the date of mailing the notice.

(3) If an undertaking has been given, a notice that the attachment has been released.

(f) Unless otherwise ordered by a court, if an undertaking has not been given, the levying officer shall release the attachment pursuant to the request for release of attachment after the expiration of 10 days from the date of mailing the papers referred to in subdivision (e) to the plaintiff. If an undertaking has been given, the levying officer shall immediately release the attachment pursuant to the request for release of attachment.

(g) Where the attached property has been taken into custody, it shall be released to the person making the request for release of attachment or some other person designated in the request. Where the attached property has not been taken into custody, it shall be released as provided in subdivision (c) of Section 488.560.

(h) The levying officer is not liable for releasing an attachment in accordance with this section nor is any other person liable for acting in conformity with the release.

SEC. 118. Section 512.080 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

512.080. The writ of possession shall meet all of the following requirements:

(a) Be directed to the levying officer within whose jurisdiction the property is located.

(b) Describe the specific property to be seized.

(c) Specify any private place that may be entered to take possession of the property or some part of it.

(d) Direct the levying officer to levy on the property pursuant to Section 514.010 if found and to retain it in custody until released or sold pursuant to Section 514.030.

(e) Inform the defendant of the right to object to the plaintiff's undertaking, a copy of which shall be attached to the writ, or to obtain redelivery of the property by filing an undertaking as prescribed by Section 515.020.

SEC. 119. Section 514.030 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

514.030. (a) After the levying officer takes possession pursuant to a writ of possession, the levying officer shall keep the property in a secure place. Except as otherwise provided by Sections 512.020 and 514.050:

(1) If notice of the filing of an undertaking for redelivery or notice of objection to the plaintiff's undertaking is not received by the levying officer within 10 days after levy of the writ of possession, the levying officer shall deliver the property to plaintiff, upon receiving the fees for taking and necessary expenses for keeping the property.

(2) If notice of the filing of an undertaking for redelivery is received by the levying officer within 10 days after levy of the writ of possession and defendant's undertaking is not objected to, the levying officer shall redeliver the property to defendant upon expiration of the time to so object, upon receiving the fees for taking and necessary expenses for keeping the property not already paid or advanced by the plaintiff.

(3) If notice of objection to the plaintiff's undertaking or notice of the filing of an undertaking for redelivery is received within 10 days after levy of the writ of possession and defendant's undertaking is objected to, the levying officer shall not deliver or redeliver the property until the time provided in Section 515.030.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), where not otherwise provided by contract and where an undertaking for redelivery has not been filed, upon a showing that the property is perishable or will greatly deteriorate or depreciate in value or for some other reason that the interests of the parties will be best served thereby, the court may order that the property be sold and the proceeds deposited in the court to abide the judgment in the action.

SEC. 120. Section 515.010 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

515.010. The court shall not issue a temporary restraining order or a writ of possession until the plaintiff has filed with the court an undertaking. The undertaking shall provide that the sureties are bound to the defendant in the amount of the undertaking for the return of the property to the defendant, if return of the property is ordered, and for the payment to the defendant of any sum recovered against plaintiff. The undertaking shall be in an amount not less than twice the value of defendant's interest in the property. The value of the defendant's interest in the property is determined by the market value of the property less the amount due and owing on any conditional sales contract or security agreement and all liens and encumbrances on the property, and such other factors as may be necessary to determine the defendant's interest in the property.

SEC. 121. Section 515.020 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

515.020. (a) The defendant may prevent the plaintiff from taking possession of property pursuant to a writ of possession or regain possession of property so taken by filing with the court in which the action was brought an undertaking in an amount equal to the amount of the plaintiff's undertaking required by Section 515.010. The undertaking shall state that, if the plaintiff recovers judgment on the action, the defendant shall pay all costs awarded to the plaintiff and all damages that the plaintiff may sustain by reason of the loss of possession of the property, not exceeding the amount of the undertaking. The damages recoverable by the plaintiff pursuant to this section shall include all damages proximately caused by the plaintiff's failure to gain or retain possession.

(b) The defendant's undertaking may be filed at any time before or after levy of the writ of possession. A copy of the undertaking shall be mailed to the levying officer.

(c) If an undertaking for redelivery is filed and defendant's undertaking is not objected to, the levying officer shall deliver the property to the defendant, or, if the plaintiff has previously been given possession of the property, the plaintiff shall deliver such property to the defendant. If an undertaking for redelivery is filed and defendant's undertaking is objected to, the provisions of Section 515.030 apply.

SEC. 122. Section 515.030 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

515.030. (a) The defendant may object to the plaintiff's undertaking not later than 10 days after levy of the writ of possession. The defendant shall mail notice of objection to the levying officer.

(b) The plaintiff may except to the defendant's sureties not later than 10 days after the defendant's undertaking is filed. The plaintiff shall mail notice of objection to the levying officer.

(c) If the court determines that the plaintiff's undertaking is insufficient and a sufficient undertaking is not filed within the time required by statute, the court shall vacate the temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction, if any, and the writ of possession and, if levy has occurred, order the levying officer or the plaintiff to return the property to the defendant. If the court determines that the plaintiff's undertaking is sufficient, the court shall order the levying officer to deliver the property to the plaintiff.

(d) If the court determines that the defendant's undertaking is insufficient and a sufficient undertaking is not filed within the time required by statute, the court shall order the levying officer to deliver the property to the plaintiff, or, if the plaintiff has previously been given possession of the property, the plaintiff shall retain possession. If the court determines that the defendant's undertaking is sufficient, the court shall order the levying officer or the plaintiff to deliver the property to the defendant.

SEC. 123. Section 529 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

529. (a) On granting an injunction, the court or judge must require an undertaking on the part of the applicant to the effect that the applicant will pay to the party enjoined such damages, not exceeding an amount to be specified, as the party may sustain by reason of the injunction, if the court finally decides that the applicant was not entitled to the injunction. Within five days after the service of the injunction, the person enjoined may object to the undertaking. If the court determines that the applicant's undertaking is insufficient and a sufficient undertaking is not filed within the time required by statute, the order granting the injunction must be dissolved.

(b) This section does not apply to any of the following persons:

(1) Either spouse against the other in a proceeding for legal separation or dissolution of marriage.

(2) The plaintiff in proceedings pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 540).

(3) The plaintiff in proceedings pursuant to Section 7020 of the Civil Code.

(4) A public entity or officer described in Section 995.220.

SEC. 124. Section 529.1 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

529.1. (a) In all actions in which the court has granted an injunction sought by any plaintiff to enjoin a construction project which has received all legally required licenses and permits, the defendant may apply to the court by noticed motion for an order requiring the plaintiff to furnish an undertaking as security for costs and any damages that may be incurred by the defendant by the conclusion of the action or proceeding as the result of a delay in the construction of the project. The motion shall be made on the grounds that there is no reasonable possibility that the plaintiff will obtain a judgment against the moving defendant and that the plaintiff will not suffer undue economic hardship by filing the undertaking.

(b) If the court, after hearing, determines that the grounds for the motion have been established, the court shall order that the plaintiff file the undertaking in an amount specified in the court's order as security for costs and damages of the defendant. The liability of the plaintiff pursuant to this section for the costs and damages of the defendant shall not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000).

(c) As used in this section, a construction project includes, but is not restricted to, the construction, surveying, design, specifications, alteration, repair, improvement, maintenance, removal, or demolition of any building, highway, road, parking facility, bridge, railroad, airport, pier or dock, excavation or other structure, development or other improvement to real or personal property.

(d) The Office of Planning and Research shall review the operation of this section and report to the Governor and the Legislature by January 1, 1985.

SEC. 124.5. Section 529.2 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

529.2. (a) In all civil actions, including, but not limited to, actions brought pursuant to Section 21167 of the Public Resources Code, brought by any plaintiff to challenge a housing project which is a development project, as defined by Section 65928 of the Government Code, and which meets or exceeds the requirements for low- or moderate-income housing as set forth in Section 65915 of the Government Code, a defendant may, if the bringing of the action or the seeking by the plaintiff of particular relief including, but not limited to, injunctions, has the effect of preventing or delaying the project from being carried out, apply to the court by noticed motion for an order requiring the plaintiff to furnish an undertaking as security for costs and any damages that may be incurred by the defendant by the conclusion of the action or proceeding as the result of a delay in carrying out the development project. The motion shall be made on the grounds that: (1) the action was brought in bad faith, vexatiously, for the purpose of delay, or to thwart the low- or moderate-income nature of the housing development project, and (2) the plaintiff will not suffer undue economic hardship by filing the undertaking.

(b) If the court, after hearing, determines that the grounds for the motion have been established, the court shall order that the plaintiff file the undertaking in an amount specified in the court's order as security for costs and damages of the defendant. The liability of the plaintiff pursuant to this section for the costs and damages of the defendant shall not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000).

(c) If at any time after the plaintiff has filed an undertaking the housing development plan is changed by the developer in bad faith so that it fails to meet or exceed the requirements for low- or moderate-income housing as set forth in Section 65915 of the Government Code, the developer shall be liable to the plaintiff for the cost of obtaining the undertaking.

SEC. 125. Section 532 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

532. (a) If an injunction is granted without notice to the person enjoined, the person may apply, upon reasonable notice to the judge who granted the injunction, or to the court in which the action was brought, to dissolve or modify the injunction. The application may be made upon the complaint or the affidavit on which the injunction was granted, or upon affidavit on the part of the person enjoined, with or without the answer. If the application is made upon affidavits on the part of the person enjoined, but not otherwise, the person against whom the application is made may oppose the application by affidavits or other evidence in addition to that on which the injunction was granted.

(b) In all actions in which an injunction or restraining order has been or may be granted or applied for, to prevent the diversion, pending the litigation, of water used, or to be used, for irrigation or domestic purposes only, if it is made to appear to the court that great damage will be suffered by the person enjoined, in case the injunction is continued, and that the person in whose behalf it issued can be fully compensated for any damages suffered by reason of the continuance of the acts enjoined during the pendency of the litigation, the court in its discretion, may dissolve or modify the injunction. The dissolution or modification shall be subject to the person enjoined giving a bond in such amount as may be fixed by the court or judge, conditioned that the enjoined person will pay all damages which the person in whose behalf the injunction issued may suffer by reason of the continuance, during the litigation, of the acts complained of. Upon the trial the amount of the damages must be ascertained, and in case judgment is rendered for the person in whose behalf the injunction was granted, the amount fixed as damages must be included in the judgment, together with reasonable attorney's fees. In any proceedings to enforce the liability on the bond, the amount of the damages as fixed in the judgment is conclusive.

SEC. 126. Section 535 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 127. Section 566 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

566. (a) No party, or attorney of a party, or person interested in an action, or related to any judge of the court by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree, can be appointed receiver therein without the written consent of the parties, filed with the clerk.

(b) If a receiver is appointed upon an ex parte application, the court, before making the order, must require from the applicant an undertaking in an amount to be fixed by the court, to the effect that the applicant will pay to the defendant all damages the defendant may sustain by reason of the appointment of the receiver and the entry by the receiver upon the duties, in case the applicant shall have procured the appointment wrongfully, maliciously, or without sufficient cause.

SEC. 128. Section 567 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

567. Before entering upon the duties of a receiver:

(a) The receiver must be sworn to perform the duties faithfully.

(b) The receiver shall give an undertaking to the State of California, in such sum as the court or judge may direct, to the effect that the receiver will faithfully discharge the duties of receiver in the action and obey the orders of the court therein. The receiver shall be allowed the cost of the undertaking.

SEC. 129. Section 571 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

571. If a referee or commissioner is appointed by a court and the duties of the referee or commissioner will, or are reasonably anticipated to, involve the custody of personal property or the receipt or disbursement of moneys, the order of appointment shall provide that before entering upon the duties, the referee or commissioner shall execute an undertaking to the State of California, to the effect that the referee or commissioner will faithfully discharge the duties of referee or commissioner, as the case may be, and obey the orders of the court therein. The order of appointment shall specify the amount of the undertaking, but a failure to so specify shall not invalidate the order.

SEC. 130. Section 581 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

581. An action may be dismissed in the following cases:

1. By plaintiff, by written request to the clerk, filed with the papers in the case, or by oral or written request to the judge where there is no clerk, at any time before the actual commencement of trial, upon payment of the costs of the clerk or judge; provided, that affirmative relief has not been sought by the cross-complaint of the defendant, and provided further that there is no motion pending for an order transferring the action to another court under the provisions of Section 396b. A trial shall be deemed to be actually commenced at the beginning of the opening statement of the plaintiff or his counsel, and if there shall be no opening statement, then at the time of the administering of the oath or affirmation to the first witness, or the introduction of any evidence.

2. By either party, upon the written consent of the other. No dismissal mentioned in subdivisions 1 and 2 of this section shall be granted unless upon the written consent of the attorney of record of the party or parties applying therefor, or if such consent is not obtained upon order of the court after notice to such attorney.

3. By the court, when either party fails to appear on the trial and the other party appears and asks for the dismissal, or when a demurrer is sustained without leave to amend, or when, after a demurrer to the complaint has been sustained with leave to amend, the plaintiff fails to amend it within the time allowed by the court, and either party moves for such dismissal.

4. By the court, with prejudice to the cause, when upon the trial and before the final submission of the case, the plaintiff abandons it.

5. The provisions of subdivision 1, of this section shall not prohibit a party from dismissing with prejudice, either by written request to the clerk or oral or written request to the judge, as the case may be, any cause of action at any time before decision rendered by the court. Provided, however, that no such dismissal with prejudice shall have the effect of dismissing a cross-complaint filed in said action. Dismissals without prejudice may be had in either of the manners provided for in subdivision 1 of this section, after actual commencement of the trial, either by consent of all of the parties to the trial or by order of court on showing of just cause therefor.

6. By the court without prejudice when no party appears for trial following 30 days notice of time and place for trial.

SEC. 131. Section 674 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

674. (a) An abstract of the judgment or decree of any court of this state, including a judgment entered pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1710.10) of Title 11 of Part 3, or a judgment of any court sitting as a small claims court, or any court of record of the United States, the enforcement of which has not been stayed on appeal or pursuant to Section 1710.50, certified by the clerk, judge or justice of the court where such judgment or decree was rendered, may be recorded with the recorder of any county. From the recording the judgment or decree becomes a lien upon all the real property of the judgment debtor, not exempt from execution, in the county, owned by the judgment debtor at the time, or which the judgment debtor may afterward and before the lien expires, acquire. The lien continues for 10 years from the date of the entry of the judgment or decree unless the enforcement of the judgment or decree is stayed by an undertaking on appeal or pursuant to Section 1710.50, or by the statutes of the United States, in which case the lien of the judgment or decree, and any lien or liability created by virtue of an attachment that has been issued and levied in the action, unless otherwise by statutes of the United States provided, ceases, or upon an undertaking on release of attachment, or unless the judgment or decree is previously satisfied, or the lien otherwise discharged.

(b) The abstract shall contain the following:

(1) Title of the court and cause and number of the action.

(2) Date of entry of the judgment or decree.

(3) Names of the judgment debtor and of the judgment creditor and the address at which the summons was either personally served or mailed to the judgment debtor or the judgment debtor's attorney of record.

(4) Amount of the judgment or decree, and where entered in judgment book or minutes.

(5) Social security number or driver's license number or both of the judgment debtor if they are known to the judgment creditor. If such numbers are not known to the judgment creditor, that fact shall be indicated on the abstract.

(c) An order made pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 908 of the Welfare and Institutions Code shall be considered a judgment for the purposes of this section.

(d) With respect to real property containing a dwelling house judicially determined to be exempt from levy of execution pursuant to the provisions of Section 690.31, as distinguished from property subject to a declared homestead created pursuant to Title 5 (commencing with Section 1237) of Part 4 of Division 2 of the Civil Code, a judgment lien created pursuant to this section shall attach to the real property notwithstanding the exemption provided by Section 690.31.

SEC. 132. Section 676 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 133. Section 677 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 134. Section 677½ of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 135. Section 678 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 136. Section 678½ of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 137. Section 679 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 138. Section 679½ of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 139. Section 680 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 140. Section 680½ of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 141. Section 681a of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

681a. The court, or the judge thereof, may stay the execution of any judgment or order. No court has power, without the consent of the adverse party, to stay the execution of any judgment or order, the execution of which would be stayed on appeal only by the giving of an undertaking, for a longer period than 30 days. If a motion for a new trial or for judgment notwithstanding the verdict is pending, execution may be stayed until 10 days after the determination of the motion.

SEC. 142. Section 682a of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

682a. (a) If the debt, credit, or other personal property sought to be levied upon is any of the following, this section shall also be complied with or the levy is not effectual for any purpose and shall be disregarded:

(1) A bank account, or interest therein, not standing in the name of the judgment debtor or judgment debtors or standing in the name of the judgment debtor or judgment debtors and one or more other persons who are not judgment debtors.

(2) A savings and loan association share, investment certificate, or account, or interest therein, not standing in the name of the judgment debtor or judgment debtors or standing in the name of the judgment debtor or judgment debtors and in one or more other persons who are not judgment debtors.

(3) Property in a safe-deposit vault or box maintained by a bank, trust company, savings and loan association, or other corporation authorized and empowered to conduct a safe-deposit business and rented by it to a person or persons other than the judgment debtor or judgment debtors or rented by it to one or more judgment debtors and to one or more other persons who are not judgment debtors.

(b) The plaintiff shall provide and concurrently with the levy the sheriff, constable, or marshal or registered process server shall deliver to the bank, trust company, savings and loan association, or safe-deposit corporation a bond in an amount not less than twice the amount of the judgment or twice the amount sought to be reached by the levy, if less than the amount of the judgment, indemnifying the person or persons, other than the judgment debtor or judgment debtors whose interest is sought to be levied upon, rightfully entitled to the debt, credit, or other personal property (which person or persons need not be named specifically in the bond but may be referred to generally in the same manner as in this sentence), against actual damage by reason of the taking of the debt, credit, or other personal property and assuring to the person or persons the return thereof upon proof of the right thereto. Upon delivery of the bond the bank, trust company, savings and loan association, or safe-deposit corporation shall immediately notify the person in whose name the account stands, other than the judgment debtor, or the person to whom the safe-deposit box is rented, other than the judgment debtor, by registered mail addressed to the last address of the person known to the bank, trust company, savings and loan association or safe-deposit corporation of the fact of the service of the writ and of the delivery of the bond.

(c) From the time of the levy and the delivery of the bond the bank, trust company, savings and loan association or safe-deposit corporation shall not honor a check or other order for the payment of money drawn against the account or other credit levied upon, the savings and loan association shall not permit withdrawals in respect of the share, investment certificate, or account so levied upon, and the bank, trust company, savings and loan association or safe-deposit corporation shall not permit the removal of any of the contents of the safe-deposit vault or box levied upon for a period of 15 days from the mailing of the notice or until the levy is sooner released. After 15 days from the making of the levy and the delivery of the bond, if no objection to the bond is made, or if an objection is made, when the court makes an order determining that the board is sufficient, the bank, trust company, savings and loan association or safe-deposit corporation shall comply with the levy, unless it has been sooner released, and shall not be liable to any person by reason of any of the following:

(1) Compliance with the levy.

(2) Nonpayment of any check or other order for the payment of money drawn against the account or other credit so levied upon and presented while the levy is in force.

(3) Refusal, while the levy is in force, to pay any withdrawal in respect of the share, investment certificate or account levied upon.

(4) Removal, pursuant to the levy, of any of the contents of the safe-deposit vault or box.

(5) Refusal of the bank, trust company, savings and loan association, or safe-deposit corporation to permit access to the safe-deposit vault or box by the renter thereof.

(d) The bond provided by this section may be objected to by any person claiming to be the rightful owner of the debt, credit, or other personal property levied upon. The bank, trust company, savings and loan association, or safe-deposit corporation to whom the bond is delivered shall deliver it as directed by the beneficiaries.

(e) Before giving access to any safe-deposit vault or box the bank, trust company, savings and loan association, or safe-deposit corporation may demand payment to it of all costs and expenses of opening the safe-deposit vault or box and all costs and expenses of repairing any damage to the safe-deposit vault or box caused by the opening thereof.

SEC. 143. Section 689 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

689. (a) If tangible or intangible personal property levied on, whether or not in the actual possession of the levying officer, is claimed by a third person as the third person's property by a written claim verified by oath, setting out the reasonable value of the property, the third person's title and right to the possession of the property and the claim is delivered, together with a copy thereof, to the officer making the levy, the officer must release the property and the levy unless the plaintiff, or the person in whose favor the writ runs, within five days after written demand by the officer, made by registered or certified mail within five days after being served with such verified claim, gives the officer an undertaking in a sum equal to double the value of the property levied upon.

(b) The undertaking shall be made in favor of and shall indemnify the third person against loss, liability, damages, costs and counsel fees, by reason of the levy or the seizing, taking, collecting, withholding, or sale of the property by the officer. If the property levied upon is required by law to be registered or recorded in the name of the owner and it appears that at the time of the levy the defendant or judgment debtor was the registered or record owner of the property and the plaintiff, or the person in whose favor the writ runs, caused the levy to be made and maintained in good faith, and in reliance upon the registered or record ownership, there is no liability thereunder to the third person by the plaintiff, or the person in whose favor the writ runs, or the sureties, or the levying officer.

(c) The officer making the levy may demand and exact the undertaking provided in this section notwithstanding any defect, informality or insufficiency of the verified claim delivered to him. The officer is not liable for damages to any third person for the levy upon, or the collection, taking, keeping or sale of the property if no claim is delivered as herein provided, nor, in any event, is the officer liable for the levy upon, or the holding, release or the other disposition of the property in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(d) If the undertaking is given, the levy shall continue and the officer shall retain possession of the property for the purposes of the levy under the writ. Notice of any objection to the undertaking shall be given as provided by statute and in addition delivered to the levying officer. If a notice of objection is not received by the levying officer within the time required by statute for making an objection, or if the court determines upon an objection that the undertaking is insufficient and a sufficient undertaking is not given in its place, the levying officer shall release the property and the levy.

(e) Whenever a verified third party claim is delivered to the officer as provided in this section, upon levy of execution or attachment (whether any undertaking is given or not), the plaintiff, or the person in whose favor the writ runs, the third party claimant, or any one or more joint third party claimants, is entitled to a hearing in the court in which the action is pending or from which the writ issued for the purpose of determining title to the property in question. The hearing must be granted by the court upon petition therefor, which must be filed within 15 days after the delivery of the third party claim to the officer. The hearing must be held within 20 days from the filing of the petition, unless continued as provided in this section. Ten days' notice of hearing must be given to the officer, to the plaintiff or the person in whose favor the writ runs, and to the third party claimant, or their attorneys. The notice must specify that the hearing is for the purpose of determining title to the property in question. No notice need to be given to the party filing the petition. The court may continue the hearing beyond the 20-day period, but good cause must be shown for any such continuance. Whenever the petition for hearing is filed by the third party claimant, or by any one or more joint third party claimants, neither the petition nor proceedings pursuant thereto may be dismissed without consent of the plaintiff or the person in whose favor the writ runs. The court may order the sale of any perishable property held by the officer and direct the disposition of the proceeds of sale. The court may, by order, stay execution sale, or forbid a transfer or other disposition of the property involved, until the proceedings for the determination of title can be commenced and prosecuted to termination, and may require, as a condition of the order, such bond as the court may deem necessary. The orders may be modified or vacated by the judge granting the orders, or by the court in which the proceeding is pending, at any time prior to the termination of the proceedings, upon such terms as may be just. At the hearing held for the purpose of determining title, the third party claimant has the burden of the proof. The third party claim delivered to the officer shall be filed by the officer with the court and shall constitute the pleading of the third party claimant, subject to the power of the court to permit an amendment in the interest of justice, and it shall be deemed controverted by the plaintiff or other person in whose favor the writ runs. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to deprive anybody of the right to a jury trial in any case where, by the Constitution, the right is given, but a jury trial shall be waived in any such case in like manner as in the trial of an action. No findings shall be required in any proceedings under this section. At the conclusion of the hearing the court shall give judgment determining the title to the property in question, which shall be conclusive as to the right of the plaintiff, or other person in whose favor the writ runs, to have the property levied upon, taken, or held, by the officer and to subject the property to payment or other satisfaction of judgment. In the judgment the court may make all proper orders for the disposition of the property or the proceeds thereof. If the property or levy has been released by the officer for want of an undertaking, and final judgment is for the plaintiff or other person in whose favor the writ runs, the officer shall retake or levy upon the property on the writ if the writ is in the officer's hands, or if the writ has been returned, another writ may be issued on which the officer may take or otherwise levy upon the property. An appeal lies from any judgment determining title under this section. The appeal shall be taken in the manner provided for appeals from the court in which the proceeding is held.

(f) Notwithstanding subdivision (d), if an undertaking is given pursuant to Section 7106, the property and the levy shall be released.

SEC. 144. Section 689b of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

689b. (1) Where the property levied upon is a vehicle or a vessel required to be registered with the Department of Motor Vehicles, the officer shall forthwith determine from the department the name and address of the legal owner of the vehicle or vessel and shall notify any legal owner who is not also the registered owner of the vehicle or vessel of the levy by registered mail or certified mail or personal service.

(2) A seller or mortgagee may file with the officer levying on personal property a verified written claim, together with a copy thereof, containing a detailed statement of the sales contract or mortgage and the total amount of sums due or to accrue under the contract or mortgage, above setoffs, with interest to date of tender, and also stating therein an address within this state for the purpose of permitting service by mail of any notice in connection with the claim. The officer making the levy may demand and exact the payment or undertaking provided for in this section, notwithstanding any defect, informality or insufficiency of the verified claim delivered to the officer.

(3) Within five days after being served with the verified claim the officer levying on the property must make demand by registered mail or certified mail on the plaintiff or attorney for the amount of the claimed debt and interest due to date of tender or the delivery to the officer of an undertaking and statement as provided in this section, which demand shall include the copy of the claim.

(4) Within five days after receipt by the plaintiff or attorney of the officer's demand the plaintiff shall deposit with the officer the amount of the debt and interest or deliver the undertaking and statement provided in this section, or the levying officer must release the property.

(5) Within five days after receipt of the deposit the officer must pay or tender the deposit to the seller or mortgagee. If the deposit is made by check the officer shall be allowed a reasonable time for the check to clear.

(6) If the tender is accepted, all right, title, and interest of the seller or mortgagee in the property levied upon passes to the party to the action making the payment.

(7) If the tender is refused, the amount shall be deposited with the county treasurer, payable to the order of the seller or mortgagee.

(8) Until the payment or deposit covering the claim is made, or the undertaking and statement provided in this section is delivered to the officer, the property cannot be sold under the levy; but when made (and also in case the seller or mortgagee fails to render a claim within 30 days after the personal service of a written demand therefor, which service must be attested by the certificate of the serving officer, filed before the sale with the papers of the action wherein the attachment or execution was issued), then the officer must retain the property, and, in the case of an execution sell it in the manner provided by law, free of all liens or claims of the seller or mortgagee. The written demand of the levying officer may be served by the levying officer, or for the levying officer by any sheriff, marshal, or constable whose office is closer to the place of service, and whose fees and mileage shall be paid out of the prepaid fees in the possession of the levying officer.

(9) When an attachment or execution creditor presents to the officer, within the time allowed from the officer's demand, a verified statement that the sales contract or mortgage is void or invalid for the reasons specified therein, and delivers to the officer an undertaking in double the amount of the indebtedness claimed by the seller or mortgage or double the value of the personal property, the officer shall retain the property and in case of an execution sell it in the manner provided by law, free of all liens or claims of the seller or mortgagee.

The undertaking shall be made to the seller or mortgagee and shall indemnify the seller or mortgagee for the taking of the property against loss, liability, damages, costs and counsel fees. Notice of any objection to the undertaking shall be given as provided by statute and in addition delivered to the levying officer. If a notice of objection is not received by the levying officer within the time required by statute for making an objection, or if the court determines upon an objection that the undertaking is unsufficient and a sufficient undertaking is not given in its place, the levying officer shall release the property and the levy.

If the undertaking is given, the officer is not liable for damages to any claimant for the taking, keeping, or sale of the property in accordance with the provisions of this code.

(10) Whenever a verified claim herein is delivered to the officer as herein provided, upon levy of execution or attachment (whether any undertaking provided in this section is given or not), the plaintiff, or the person in whose favor the writ runs, the claimant, or any one or more joint claimants, are entitled to a hearing in the court in which the action is pending or from which the writ issued for the purpose of determining the validity of the sales contract or chattel mortgage. The hearing may be held, and stay of execution or other order made in the same manner as on third party claims under Section 689. At the conclusion of the hearing the court shall give judgment determining the validity of the claim under the sales contract or chattel mortgage which shall be conclusive between the claimant and the plaintiff, or other person in whose favor the writ runs. The court in which the action is pending, or which issued the writ, shall have original jurisdiction in all proceedings under this section.

If the property has been released by the officer for want of an undertaking or payment, and final judgment is for the plaintiff or other person in whose favor the writ runs, the officer shall retake the property on the writ, if the writ is still in the levying officer's hands, or if the writ has been returned, another writ may be issued on which the officer may take the property.

(11) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (9), if an undertaking is given pursuant to Section 7106, the property and the levy shall be released.

SEC. 145. Section 710c of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

710c. The undertaking provided in Section 710b shall describe the property claimed and shall be in double the estimated value of the property; provided, in no case need the undertaking be for a greater sum than double the amount for which the execution is levied. The undertaking shall be conditioned that if the property is finally adjudged to be the property of the judgment debtor, the claimant will pay of the judgment upon which execution has issued a sum equal to the value, as estimated in the undertaking, of the property. The undertaking becomes effective 10 days after it is served on the beneficiary.

SEC. 147. Section 711½ of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 148. Section 712 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 149. Section 712½ of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 150. Section 713 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 151. Section 713½ of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 152. Section 726 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

726. (a) There can be but one form of action for the recovery of any debt, or the enforcement of any right secured by mortgage upon real property, which action must be in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. In the action the court may, by its judgment, direct the sale of the encumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the application of the proceeds of the sale to the payment of the costs of court, and the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiff, including, where the mortgage provides for the payment of attorney's fees, such sum for such fees as the court shall find reasonable, not exceeding the amount named in the mortgage.

(b) The court may, by its judgment, or at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the encumbered property. It must require of the commissioner an undertaking in an amount fixed by the court, to the effect that the commissioner will faithfully perform the duties of the office according to law. Before entering upon the discharge of duties the commissioner must file the undertaking together with the oath that the commissioner will faithfully perform the duties of the office.

(c) The decree for the foreclosure of a mortgage or deed of trust secured by real property or any interest therein shall declare the amount of the indebtedness or right so secured and, unless judgment for any deficiency there may be between the sale price and the amount due with costs is waived by the judgment creditor or a deficiency judgment is prohibited by Section 580b, shall determine the personal liability of any defendant for the payment of the debt secured by the mortgage or deed of trust and shall name the defendants against whom a deficiency judgment may be ordered following the proceedings prescribed in this section. In the event of waiver, or if the prohibition of Section 580b is applicable the decree shall so declare and there shall be no judgment for a deficiency. In the event that a deficiency is not waived or prohibited and it is decreed that any defendant is personally liable for the debt, then upon application of the plaintiff filed at any time within three months of the date of the foreclosure sale and after a hearing thereon at which the court shall take evidence and at which hearing either party may present evidence as to the fair value of the property or the interest therein sold as of the date of sale, the court shall render a money judgment against the defendant or defendants for the amount by which the amount of the indebtedness with interest and costs of sale and of action exceeds the fair value of the property or interest therein sold as of the date of sale. In no event shall the amount of the judgment, exclusive of interest from the date of sale and of costs, exceed the difference between the amount for which the property was sold and the entire amount of the indebtedness secured by the mortgage or deed of trust. Notice of the hearing must be served upon all defendants who have appeared in the action and against whom a deficiency judgment is sought, or upon their attorneys of record, at least 15 days before the date set for hearing. Upon application of any party made at least 10 days before the date set for such hearing the court shall, and upon its own motion the court at any time may, appoint one of the inheritance tax referees provided for by law to appraise the property or the interest therein sold as of the time of sale. The inheritance tax referee shall file the appraisal with the clerk and the same shall be admissible in evidence. The inheritance tax referee shall take and subscribe an oath to be attached to the appraisal that the referee has truly, honestly and impartially appraised the property to the best of the referee's knowledge and ability. Any inheritance tax referee so appointed may be called and examined as a witness by any party or by the court itself. The court must fix the compensation, in an amount as determined by the court to be reasonable, but the fees shall not exceed similar fees for similar services in the community where the services are rendered, which may be taxed and allowed in like manner as other costs.

(d) No person holding a conveyance from or under the mortgagor of the property mortgaged, or having a lien thereon, which conveyance or lien does not appear of record in the proper office at the time of the commencement of the action need be made a party to the action, and the judgment therein rendered, and the proceedings therein had, are as conclusive against the party holding the unrecorded conveyance or lien as if the person had been a party to the action.

(e) If the court appoints a commissioner for the sale of the property, the commissioner must sell it in the manner provided by law for the sale of like property by the sheriff upon execution; and the provisions of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 681) of Title 9 of Part 2, are hereby made applicable to a sale made by the commissioner, and the powers therein given and the duties therein imposed on sheriffs are extended to the commissioner.

(f) In the event of the death, absence from the state, other disability or disqualification of the commissioner appointed to sell encumbered property under this section, the court may, upon the happening of either the death, absence from the state, other disability or disqualification of the commissioner, appoint an elisor to perform the duties of the commissioner which are then to be performed in the action. The elisor so appointed shall give the undertaking, and take the oath provided to be given and taken by a commissioner, before entering upon the discharge of the duties, and shall thereafter perform all duties left unperformed by the commissioner whom the elisor is appointed to succeed, with like effect as if the duties had been performed by the commissioner.

(g) If the land mortgaged consists of a single parcel, or two or more contiguous parcels, situated in two or more counties, the court may, in its judgment, direct the whole thereof to be sold in one of the counties by the sheriff, commissioner or elisor, as the case may be, and upon such proceedings, and with like effect, as if the whole of the property were situated in that county.

SEC. 153. Section 729 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

729. Within 30 days after the sale, the commissioner must file with the clerk of the court in which the action is pending, a verified report and account of the sale, together with the proper affidavits, showing that the regular and required notice of the time and place of the sale was given, which report and account shall have the same force and effect as the sheriff's return in sales under execution. In all cases of sales made by a commissioner, the court in which the proceedings are pending shall fix a reasonable compensation for the commissioner's services, but in no case to be less than the sum of ten dollars ($10).

SEC. 154. Section 731c of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

731c. Injury to formations bearing oil or gas or to oil or gas wells caused by the subsurface migration of any substance as a result of secondary recovery operations for oil or gas conducted in accordance with good oilfield practices shall not be grounds for enjoining the secondary recovery operations if an undertaking is given for the payment of any compensable damages to which the owners of interests in the formations or wells may be entitled resulting from the injury. Any benefit to the injured property from the secondary recovery operation shall be considered in mitigation of damages for the injury.

SEC. 155. Section 917.1 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

917.1. (a) The perfecting of an appeal shall not stay enforcement of the judgment or order in the trial court if the judgment or order is for money or directs the payment of money, whether consisting of a special fund or not, and whether payable by the appellant or another party to the action, unless an undertaking is given.

(b) The undertaking shall be on condition that if the judgment or order or any part of it is affirmed or the appeal is withdrawn or dismissed, the party ordered to pay shall pay the amount of the judgment or order, or the part of it as to which the judgment or order is affirmed, as entered after the receipt of the remittitur, together with any interest which may have accrued pending the appeal and entry of the remittitur, and costs which may be awarded against the appellant on appeal. This section shall not apply in cases where the money to be paid is in the actual or constructive custody of the court; and such cases shall be governed, instead, by the provisions of Section 917.2. The undertaking shall be for double the amount of the judgment or order unless given by an admitted surety insurer in which event it shall be for one and one-half times the amount of the judgment or order. The liability on the undertaking may be enforced if the party ordered to pay does not make the payment within 30 days after the filing of the remittitur from the reviewing court.

(c) If a surety on the undertaking pays the judgment, either with or without action, after the judgment is affirmed, the surety is substituted to the rights of the creditor and is entitled to control, enforce, and satisfy the judgment, in all respects as if the surety had recovered the judgment.

SEC. 156. Section 917.4 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

917.4. The perfecting of an appeal shall not stay enforcement of the judgment or order in the trial court if the judgment or order appealed from directs the sale, conveyance or delivery of possession of real property which is in the possession or control of the appellant or the party ordered to sell, convey or deliver possession of the property, unless an undertaking in a sum fixed by the trial court is given that the appellant or party ordered to sell, convey or deliver possession of the property will not commit or suffer to be committed any waste thereon and that if the judgment or order appealed from is affirmed, or the appeal is withdrawn or dismissed, the appellant shall pay the damage suffered by the waste and the value of the use and occupancy of the property, or the part of it as to which the judgment or order is affirmed, from the time of the taking of the appeal until the delivery of the possession of the property. If the judgment or order directs the sale of mortgaged real property and the payment of any deficiency, the undertaking shall also provide for the payment of any deficiency.

SEC. 157. Section 917.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

917.5. The perfecting of an appeal shall not stay enforcement of the judgment or order in the trial court if the judgment or order appealed from appoints a receiver, unless an undertaking in a sum fixed by the trial court is given on condition that if the judgment or order is affirmed or the appeal is withdrawn, or dismissed, the appellant will pay all damages which the respondent may sustain by reason of the stay in the enforcement of the judgment.

SEC. 158. Section 917.9 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

917.9. (a) The perfecting of an appeal shall not stay enforcement of the judgment or order in cases not provided for in Sections 917.1 through 917.8 if the trial court, in its discretion, requires an undertaking and the undertaking is not given. The undertaking shall be in the sum fixed by the court; it shall be conditioned upon the performance of the judgment or order appealed from if the judgment or order is affirmed or the appeal is withdrawn or dismissed, and it shall provide that if the judgment or order appealed from or any part of it is affirmed, or the appeal is withdrawn or dismissed, the appellant will pay all damages which the respondent may sustain by reason of the stay in the enforcement of the judgment.

(b) For the purpose of this section, "damages" means reasonable compensation for the loss of use of the money or property.

SEC. 159. Section 920 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 160. Section 921 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

921. An appeal by a party who has levied an attachment shall not continue in force the attachment, unless an undertaking is executed and filed on the part of the appellant that the appellant will pay all costs and damages which the respondent may sustain by reason of the attachment, in case the order of the court below is sustained in favor of the respondent; and unless, within five days after written notice of the entry of the order appealed from, the appeal is perfected. The amount of the undertaking on appeal required by this section shall be such amount as is fixed by the trial court on motion of the respondent as provided in Section 489.410 and if no such order has been made, the undertaking shall be in double the amount of the debt claimed by the appellant. If the respondent is not satisfied with the undertaking in double the amount of the debt or the amount fixed by order under Section 489.410, the trial court upon motion of the respondent made within 60 days after perfecting the appeal may order an increase in the amount of the undertaking in such amount as is justified by the detriment reasonably to be anticipated by continuing the attachment. If such an order is made, the attachment shall be discharged and the property released therefrom, unless the undertaking is executed and filed within 10 days after the order is made.

SEC. 161. Section 922 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

922. If an undertaking required or permitted by this title is objected to by the respondent and the court determines the undertaking is insufficient and a sufficient undertaking is not given within the time provided by statute, enforcement of the judgment or order appealed from is no longer stayed and property which has been levied upon under execution issued upon such judgment shall not be released from levy.

SEC. 162. Section 1029.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1029.5. (a) Whenever a complaint for damages is filed against any architect, landscape architect, engineer, building designer, or land surveyor, duly licensed as such under the laws of this state, in an action for error, omission, or professional negligence in the creation and preparation of plans, specifications, designs, reports or surveys which are the basis for work performed or agreed to be performed on real property, any such defendant may, within 30 days after service of summons, move the court for an order, upon notice and hearing, requiring the plaintiff to file an undertaking in a sum not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500) as security for the costs of defense as provided in subdivision (d), which may be awarded against the plaintiff. The motion shall be supported by affidavit showing that the claim against the defendant is frivolous.

At the hearing upon the motion, the court shall order the plaintiff to file the undertaking if the defendant shows to the satisfaction of the court that (i) the plaintiff would not suffer undue economic hardship in filing the undertaking, and (ii) there is no reasonable possibility that the plaintiff has a cause of action against each named defendant with respect to whom the plaintiff would otherwise be required to file the undertaking. No appeal shall be taken from any order made pursuant to this subdivision to file or not to file the undertaking.

A determination by the court that the undertaking either shall or shall not be filed or shall be filed as to one or more defendants and not as to others, shall not be deemed a determination of any one or more issues in the action or of the merits thereof. If the court, upon any such motion, makes a determination that an undertaking be filed by the plaintiff as to any one or more defendants, the action shall be dismissed as to the defendant or defendants, unless the undertaking required by the court has been filed within such reasonable time as may be fixed by the court.

(b) This section does not apply to a complaint for bodily injury or for wrongful death, nor to an action commenced in a small claims court.

(c) Whenever more than one such defendant is named, the undertaking shall be increased to the extent of not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500) for each additional defendant in whose favor the undertaking is ordered not to exceed the total of three thousand dollars ($3,000).

(d) In any action requiring an undertaking as provided in this section, upon the dismissal of the action or the award of judgment to the defendant, the court shall require the plaintiff to pay the defendant's costs of defense authorized by law. Any sureties shall be liable for such costs in an amount not to exceed the sum of five hundred dollars ($500) or the amount of the undertaking, whichever is lesser, for each defendant with respect to whom the sureties have executed an undertaking.

SEC. 163. Section 1029.6 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1029.6. (a) Whenever a complaint for damages for personal injuries is filed against a physician and surgeon, dentist, registered nurse, dispensing optician, optometrist, pharmacist, registered physical therapist, podiatrist, licensed psychologist, osteopath, chiropractor, clinical laboratory bioanalyst, clinical laboratory technologist, or veterinarian, duly licensed as such under the laws of this state, or a licensed hospital as the employer of any such person, in an action for error, omission, or negligence in the performance of professional services, or performance of professional services without consent, any such defendant may, within six months after service of summons, move the court for an order, upon notice to plaintiff and all defendants having appeared in the action, and hearing, requiring the plaintiff to file an undertaking in a sum not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500) as security for the costs of defense as provided in subdivision (d), which may be awarded against the plaintiff. The motion shall be supported by affidavit showing that the claim against the defendant is frivolous. Any defendant having appeared in the action and within 30 days after receipt of notice may join with the moving party requesting an order under this section as to such additional defendant. The failure of any defendant to join with the moving party shall preclude each such defendant from subsequently requesting an order under this section.

At the hearing upon the motion, the court shall order the plaintiff to file the undertaking if the defendant shows to the satisfaction of the court that: (i) the plaintiff would not suffer undue economic hardship in filing the undertaking and (ii) there is no reasonable possibility that the plaintiff has a cause of action against each named defendant with respect to whom the plaintiff would otherwise be required to file the undertaking.

A determination by the court that an undertaking either shall or shall not be filed or shall be filed as to one or more defendants and not as to others, shall not be deemed a determination of any one or more issues in the action or of the merits thereof. If the court, upon any such motion, makes a determination that an undertaking be filed by the plaintiff as to any one or more defendants, the action shall be dismissed as to such defendant or defendants, unless the undertaking required by the court shall have been filed within such reasonable time as may be fixed by the court.

(b) This section does not apply to a complaint in an action commenced in a small claims court.

(c) Whenever more than one such defendant is named, the undertaking shall be increased to the extent of not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500) for each additional defendant in whose favor the undertaking is ordered, not to exceed the total of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(d) In any action requiring an undertaking as provided in this section, upon the dismissal of the action or the award of judgment to the defendant, the court shall require the plaintiff to pay the defendant's court costs. Any sureties shall be liable for such costs in an amount not to exceed the sum of five hundred dollars ($500) or the amount of the undertaking, whichever is lesser, for each defendant with respect to whom the sureties have executed an undertaking. If the plaintiff prevails in the action against any defendant with respect to whom an undertaking has been filed, the defendant shall pay the costs to plaintiff incurred in defending the motion for dismissal authorized by this section.

(e) Any defendant filing a motion under this section or joining with a moving party under this section is precluded from subsequently filing a motion for summary judgment.

(f) Any defendant filing a motion for summary judgment is precluded from subsequently filing a motion, or joining with a moving party, under this section.

SEC. 164. Section 1030 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1030. (a) When the plaintiff in an action or special proceeding resides out of the state, or is a foreign corporation, the defendant may at any time apply to the court by noticed motion for an order requiring the plaintiff to file an undertaking to secure an award of costs and attorney's fees which may be awarded in the action or special proceeding. For the purposes of this section, "attorney's fees" means reasonable attorney's fees a party may be authorized to recover by a statute apart from this section or by contract.

(b) The motion shall be made on the grounds that the plaintiff resides out of the state or is a foreign corporation and that there is a reasonable possibility that the moving defendant will obtain judgment in the action or special proceeding. The motion shall be accompanied by an affidavit in support of the grounds for the motion and by a memorandum of points and authorities. The affidavit shall set forth the nature and amount of the costs and attorney's fees the defendant has incurred and expects to incur by the conclusion of the action or special proceeding.

(c) If the court, after hearing, determines that the grounds for the motion have been established, the court shall order that the plaintiff file the undertaking in an amount specified in the court's order as security for costs and attorney's fees.

(d) The plaintiff shall file the undertaking not later than 30 days after service of the court's order requiring it or within a greater time allowed by the court. If the plaintiff fails to file the undertaking within the time allowed, the plaintiff's action or special proceeding shall be dismissed as to the defendant in whose favor the order requiring the undertaking was made.

(e) If the defendant's motion for an order requiring an undertaking is filed not later than 30 days after service of summons on the defendant, no pleading need be filed by the defendant and all further proceedings are stayed until 10 days after the motion is denied or, if granted, until 10 days after the required undertaking has been filed and the defendant has been served with a copy of the undertaking. If the defendant's motion for an order requiring an undertaking is filed later than 30 days after service of summons on the defendant, if the defendant objects to the undertaking, the court may in its discretion stay the proceedings not longer than 10 days after a sufficient undertaking has been filed and the defendant has been served with a copy of the undertaking.

(f) The determinations of the court under this section have no effect on the determination of any issues on the merits of the action or special proceeding and may not be given in evidence nor referred to in the trial of the action or proceeding.

(g) An order granting or denying a motion for an undertaking under this section is not appealable.

SEC. 165. Section 1035 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 166. Section 1041 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 167. Section 1042 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 168. Section 1054 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1054. (a) When an act to be done, as provided in this code, relates to the pleadings in the action, or the preparation of bills of exceptions, or of amendments thereto, or to the service of notices other than of appeal and of intention to move for a new trial, the time allowed therefor, unless otherwise expressly provided, may be extended, upon good cause shown, by the judge of the court in which the action is pending, or by the judge who presided at the trial of the action; but the extension so allowed shall not exceed 30 days, without the consent of the adverse party.

(b) In all cases in which the court or judge is authorized by this section to grant an extension of time, the extension of time shall be granted when all attorneys of record of parties who have appeared in the action agree in writing to the extension of time, and any extension of time previously granted by stipulation of all attorneys of record of parties who have appeared in the action shall not be included in the computation of the 30-day limitation upon extensions of time allowed by the court or judge.

SEC. 169. Section 1054.1 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1054.1. (a) When an act to be done in any action or proceeding in any court of this state or before any state administrative agency, as provided by law or rule, relates to the pleadings in the action, or the preparation of bills of exceptions, or of amendments thereto, or to the service of notices (other than of appeal, of intention to move for a new trial, and of intention to move to vacate a judgment), and such act is not a motion for a judgment notwithstanding the verdict, the time allowed therefor, unless otherwise expressly provided, shall be extended to a date certain by the judges of the court or by the agency in which the action or proceeding is pending, or by the judge who presided at the trial of the action, when it appears to the judge of any court or to the agency to whom the application is made that an attorney of record for the party applying for the extension is a Member of the Legislature of this state, and that the Legislature is in session or in recess not exceeding a recess of 40 days or that a legislative committee of which the attorney is a duly appointed member is meeting or is to meet within a period which the court or agency finds does not exceed the time reasonably necessary to enable the member to reach the committee meeting by the ordinary mode of travel. When the Legislature is in session or in recess, extension shall be to a date not less than 30 days next following the final adjournment of the Legislature or the commencement of a recess of more than 40 days. If a date is available during recess, extension shall be to such earlier date. When a legislative committee is meeting or is to meet within a period which the court or agency finds does not exceed the time reasonably necessary to enable the member to reach the committee meeting by the ordinary mode of travel, extension shall be for such period as the court or agency finds will be reasonably necessary to enable the member to perform the act to be done in the action or proceeding, unless the extension would expire when the Legislature is to be in session; and in that case the extension shall be to a date not less than 30 days following the final adjournment of the Legislature or the commencement of a recess of more than 40 days. If the act may be reasonably done by the member within the recess, continuance shall be to such earlier date. However, any postponement granted under the provisions of this section shall suspend for the same period of time as the postponement, the running of any period of time for any ruling or proceeding by a court, board, commission, or officer, or for the performance by any party of any act affected by the postponement.

(b) Extension of time pursuant to this section is mandatory unless the court determines that the extension would defeat or abridge a right to relief pendente lite in a paternity action or a right to invoke a provisional remedy such as pendente lite support in a domestic relations controversy, attachment and sale of perishable goods, receivership of a failing business, and temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction, and that the continuance should not be granted.

SEC. 177. Section 1059 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 178. Section 1166a of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1166a. (a) Upon filing the complaint, the plaintiff may, upon motion, have immediate possession of the premises by a writ of possession issued by the court and directed to the sheriff of the county, or constable or marshal, for execution, where it appears to the satisfaction of the court, after a hearing on the motion, from the verified complaint and from any affidavits filed or oral testimony given by or on behalf of the parties, that the defendant resides out of state, has departed from the state, cannot, after due diligence, be found within the state, or has concealed himself or herself to avoid the service of summons. Written notice of the hearing on the motion shall be served on the defendant by the plaintiff in accordance with the provisions of Section 1011, and shall inform the defendant that the defendant may file affidavits with the court and may appear and present testimony, and that, if the defendant fails to appear, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the writ of possession.

(b) The plaintiff shall file an undertaking in such sum as shall be fixed and determined by the judge, to the effect that, if the plaintiff fails to recover judgment against the defendant for the possession of the premises or if the suit is dismissed, the plaintiff will pay to the defendant such damages, not to exceed the amount fixed in the undertaking, as may be sustained by the defendant by reason of such dispossession under the writ of possession.

SEC. 179. Section 1210 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1210. Every person dispossessed or ejected from any real property by the judgment or process of any court of competent jurisdiction, who, not having right so to do, reenters into or upon or takes possession of the real property, or induces or procures any person not having right so to do, or aids or abets such a person therein, is guilty of a contempt of the court by which the judgment was rendered or from which the process issued. Upon a conviction for contempt the court must immediately issue an alias process, directed to the proper officer, and requiring the officer to restore possession to the party entitled under the original judgment or process, or to the party's lessee, grantee, or successor in interest. No appeal from the order directing the issuance of an alias writ of possession stays the execution of the writ, unless an undertaking is executed on the part of the appellant to the effect that the appellant will not commit or suffer to be committed any waste on the property, and if the order is affirmed, or the appeal dismissed, the appellant will pay the value of the use and occupation of the property from the time of the unlawful reentry until the delivery of the possession of the property, pursuant to the judgment or order, not exceeding a sum to be fixed by the judge of the court by which the order for the alias writ was made.

SEC. 179.5. Section 1213 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1213. Whenever a warrant of attachment is issued pursuant to this title the court or judge must direct, by an endorsement on the warrant, that the person charged may give an undertaking for the person's appearance in an amount to be specified in such endorsement.

SEC. 180. Section 1215 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1215. The person arrested must be discharged from the arrest upon executing and delivering to the officer, at any time before the return day of the warrant, an undertaking to the effect that the person arrested will appear on the return of the warrant and abide the order of the court or judge thereupon.

SEC. 181. Section 1220 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1220. When the warrant of arrest has been returned served, if the person arrested does not appear on the return day, the court or judge may issue another warrant of arrest or may order the undertaking to be enforced, or both. If the undertaking is enforced, the measure of damages is the extent of the loss or injury sustained by the aggrieved party by reason of the misconduct for which the warrant was issued.

SEC. 182. Section 1255.240 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1255.240. (a) If the court determines that an applicant is entitled to withdraw any portion of a deposit that another party claims or to which another person may be entitled, the court may require the applicant, before withdrawing such portion, to file an undertaking. The undertaking shall secure payment to such party or person of any amount withdrawn that exceeds the amount to which the applicant is entitled as finally determined in the proceeding, together with interest as provided in Section 1255.280. If withdrawal is permitted notwithstanding the lack of personal service of the application for withdrawal upon any party to the proceeding, the court may also require that the undertaking indemnify the plaintiff against any liability it may incur under Section 1255.230. The undertaking shall be in such amount as is fixed by the court, but if executed by an admitted surety insurer the amount shall not exceed the portion claimed by the adverse claimant or appearing to belong to another person. If executed by two or more sufficient sureties, the amount shall not exceed double such portion.

(b) If the undertaking is required primarily because of an issue as to title between the applicant and another party or person, the applicant filing the undertaking is not entitled to recover the premium reasonably paid for the undertaking as a part of the recoverable costs in the eminent domain proceeding.

SEC. 183. Section 1255.250 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1255.250. (a) If the amount originally deposited is increased pursuant to Section 1255.030 and the total amount sought to be withdrawn exceeds the amount of the original deposit, the applicant, or each applicant if there are two or more, shall file an undertaking. The undertaking shall be in favor of the plaintiff and shall secure repayment of any amount withdrawn that exceeds the amount to which the applicant is entitled as finally determined in the eminent domain proceeding, together with interest as provided in Section 1255.280. If the undertaking is executed by an admitted surety insurer, the undertaking shall be in the amount by which the total amount to be withdrawn exceeds the amount originally deposited. If the undertaking is executed by two or more sufficient sureties, the undertaking shall be in double such amount, but the maximum amount that may be recovered from such sureties is the amount by which the total amount to be withdrawn exceeds the amount originally deposited.

(b) If there are two or more applicants, the applicants, in lieu of filing separate undertakings, may jointly file a single undertaking in the amount required by subdivision (a).

SEC. 184. Section 6103 of the Commercial Code is amended to read:

6103. The following transfers are not subject to this division:

(1) A transfer subject to subdivision (h) of Section 3441 of the Civil Code;

(2) Assignments for the benefit of all the creditors of the transferor, and subsequent transfers by the assignee thereunder;

(3) Transfers of property subject to a lien or other security interest in settlement or realization of such lien or other security interest;

(4) Sales by executors, administrators, receivers, trustees in bankruptcy, or any public officer under judicial process;

(5) Sales made in the course of judicial or administrative proceedings for the dissolution or reorganization of a corporation and of which notice is sent to the creditors of the corporation pursuant to order of the court or administrative agency;

(6) Transfers of property which is exempt from enforcement of a money judgment;

(7) The transfer of goods in a warehouse where a warehouse receipt has been issued therefor by a warehouseman (Section 7102) and a copy of such receipt is kept at the principal place of business of the warehouseman and at the warehouse in which said goods are stored;

(8) A transfer which is subject to and complies with Article 5 (commencing with Section 24070) of Chapter 6 of Division 9 of the Business and Professions Code, except that such transfer shall be subject to subdivision (1) of Section 6105 insofar as it refers to Section 6107, Section 6107 other than paragraph (e) of subdivision (1) thereof, and subdivision (a) of Section 6111.

SEC. 185. Section 7601 of the Commercial Code is amended to read:

7601. (1) If a document has been lost, stolen or destroyed, a court may order delivery of the goods or issuance of a substitute document and the bailee may without liability to any person comply with such order. If the document was negotiable the claimant must post an undertaking approved by the court to indemnify any person who may suffer loss as a result of nonsurrender of the document. If the document was not negotiable, an undertaking may be required at the discretion of the court. The court may also in its discretion order payment of the bailee's reasonable costs and counsel fees.

(2) A bailee who without court order delivers goods to a person claiming under a missing negotiable document is liable to any person injured thereby, and if the delivery is not in good faith becomes liable for conversion. Delivery in good faith is not conversion if made in accordance with a filed classification or tariff or, where no classification or tariff is filed, if the claimant posts an undertaking with the bailee in an amount at least double the value of the goods at the time of posting to indemnify any person injured by the delivery who files a notice of claim within one year after the delivery.

SEC. 186. Section 800 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

800. (a) As used in this section, "corporation" includes an unincorporated association; "board" includes the managing body of an unincorporated association; "shareholder" includes a member of an unincorporated association; and "shares" includes memberships in an unincorporated association.

(b) No action may be instituted or maintained in right of any domestic or foreign corporation by any holder of shares or of voting trust certificates of the corporation unless both of the following conditions exist:

(1) The plaintiff alleges in the complaint that plaintiff was a shareholder, of record or beneficially, or the holder of voting trust certificates at the time of the transaction or any part thereof of which plaintiff complains or that plaintiff's shares or voting trust certificates thereafter devolved upon plaintiff by operation of law from a holder who was a holder at the time of the transaction or any part thereof complained of; provided, that any shareholder who does not meet these requirements may nevertheless be allowed in the discretion of the court to maintain the action on a preliminary showing to and determination by the court, by motion and after a hearing, at which the court shall consider such evidence, by affidavit or testimony, as it deems material, that (i) there is a strong prima facie case in favor of the claim asserted on behalf of the corporation, (ii) no other similar action has been or is likely to be instituted, (iii) the plaintiff acquired the shares before there was disclosure to the public or to the plaintiff of the wrongdoing of which plaintiff complains, (iv) unless the action can be maintained the defendant may retain a gain derived from defendant's willful breach of a fiduciary duty, and (v) the requested relief will not result in unjust enrichment of the corporation or any shareholder of the corporation; and

(2) The plaintiff alleges in the complaint with particularity plaintiff's efforts to secure from the board such action as plaintiff desires, or the reasons for not making such effort, and alleges further that plaintiff has either informed the corporation or the board in writing of the ultimate facts of each cause of action against each defendant or delivered to the corporation or the board a true copy of the complaint which plaintiff proposes to file.

(c) In any action referred to in subdivision (b), at any time within 30 days after service of summons upon the corporation or upon any defendant who is an officer or director of the corporation, or held such office at the time of the acts complained of, the corporation or the defendant may move the court for an order, upon notice and hearing, requiring the plaintiff to furnish a bond as hereinafter provided. The motion shall be based upon one or both of the following grounds:

(1) That there is no reasonable possibility that the prosecution of the cause of action alleged in the complaint against the moving party will benefit the corporation or its shareholders.

(2) That the moving party, if other than the corporation, did not participate in the transaction complained of in any capacity.

The court on application of the corporation or any defendant may, for good cause shown, extend the 30-day period for an additional period or periods not exceeding 60 days.

(d) At the hearing upon any motion pursuant to subdivision (c), the court shall consider such evidence, written or oral, by witnesses or affidavit, as may be material (1) to the ground or grounds upon which the motion is based, or (2) to a determination of the probable reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, of the corporation and the moving party which will be incurred in the defense of the action. If the court determines, after hearing the evidence adduced by the parties, that the moving party has established a probability in support of any of the grounds upon which the motion is based, the court shall fix the amount of the bond, not to exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), to be furnished by the plaintiff for reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, which may be incurred by the moving party and the corporation in connection with the action, including expenses for which the corporation may become liable pursuant to Section 317. A ruling by the court on the motion shall not be a determination of any issue in the action or of the merits thereof. If the court, upon the motion, makes a determination that a bond shall be furnished by the plaintiff as to any one or more defendants, the action shall be dismissed as to the defendant or defendants, unless the bond required by the court has been furnished within such reasonable time as may be fixed by the court.

(e) If the plaintiff shall, either before or after a motion is made pursuant to subdivision (c), or any order or determination pursuant to the motion, furnish a bond in the aggregate amount of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) to secure the reasonable expenses of the parties entitled to make the motion, the plaintiff has complied with the requirements of this section and with any order for a bond theretofore made, and any such motion then pending shall be dismissed and no further or additional bond shall be required.

(f) If a motion is filed pursuant to subdivision (c), no pleadings need be filed by the corporation or any other defendant and the prosecution of the action shall be stayed until 10 days after the motion has been disposed of.

SEC. 187. Section 5710 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

5710. (a) Subdivisions (c) through (f) notwithstanding, no motion to require a bond shall be granted in an action brought by 100 members or the authorized number (Section 5036), whichever is less.

(b) No action may be instituted or maintained in the right of any corporation by any member of such corporation unless both of the following conditions exist:

(1) The plaintiff alleges in the complaint that plaintiff was a member at the time of the transaction or any part thereof of which plaintiff complains; and

(2) The plaintiff alleges in the complaint with particularity plaintiff's efforts to secure from the board such action as plaintiff desires, or the reasons for not making such effort, and alleges further that plaintiff has either informed the corporation or the board in writing of the ultimate facts of each cause of action against each defendant or delivered to the corporation or the board a true copy of the complaint which plaintiff proposes to file.

(c) Subject to subdivision (a), in any action referred to in subdivision (b), at any time within 30 days after service of summons upon the corporation or upon any defendant who is an officer or director of the corporation, or held such office at the time of the acts complained of, the corporation or such defendant may move the court for an order, upon notice and hearing, requiring the plaintiff to furnish a bond as hereinafter provided. The motion shall be based upon one or both of the following grounds:

(1) That there is no reasonable possibility that the prosecution of the cause of action alleged in the complaint against the moving party will benefit the corporation or its members, economically or otherwise.

(2) That the moving party, if other than the corporation, did not participate in the transaction complained of in any capacity.

The court on application of the corporation or any defendant may, for good cause shown, extend the 30-day period for an additional period or periods not exceeding 60 days.

(d) At the hearing upon any motion pursuant to subdivision (c), the court shall consider such evidence, written or oral, by witnesses or affidavit, as may be material (1) to the ground or grounds upon which the motion is based, or (2) to a determination of the probable reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, of the corporation and the moving party which will be incurred in the defense of the action. If the court determines, after hearing the evidence adduced by the parties, that the moving party has established a probability in support of any of the grounds upon which the motion is based, the court shall fix the amount of the bond, not to exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), to be furnished by the plaintiff for reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, which may be incurred by the moving party and the corporation in connection with the action, including expenses for which the corporation may become liable pursuant to Section 5238. A ruling by the court on the motion shall not be a determination of any issue in the action or of the merits thereof. If the court, upon the motion, makes a determination that a bond shall be furnished by the plaintiff as to any one or more defendants, the action shall be dismissed as to such defendant or defendants, unless the bond required by the court has been furnished within such reasonable time as may be fixed by the court.

(e) If the plaintiff shall, either before or after a motion is made pursuant to subdivision (c), or any order or determination pursuant to the motion, furnish a bond or bonds in the aggregate amount of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) to secure the reasonable expenses of the parties entitled to make the motion, the plaintiff has complied with the requirements of this section and with any order for a bond theretofore made, and any such motion then pending shall be dismissed and no further or additional bond shall be required.

(f) If a motion is filed pursuant to subdivision (c), no pleadings need be filed by the corporation or any other defendant and the prosecution of the action shall be stayed until 10 days after the motion has been disposed of.

SEC. 188. Section 6513 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

6513. If, at the time of the filing of a complaint for involuntary dissolution or at any time thereafter, the court has reasonable grounds to believe that unless a receiver of the corporation is appointed the interests of the corporation or the public or charitable purpose of the corporation will suffer pending the hearing and determination of the complaint, upon the application of the plaintiff, and after a hearing upon such notice to the corporation as the court may direct and upon the giving of security pursuant to Sections 566 and 567 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the court may appoint a receiver to take over and manage the affairs of the corporation and to preserve its property pending the hearing and determination of the complaint for dissolution.

SEC. 189. Section 7710 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

7710. (a) Subdivisions (c) through (f) notwithstanding, no motion to require a bond shall be granted in an action brought by 100 members or the authorized number (Section 5036), whichever is less.

(b) No action may be instituted or maintained in the right of any corporation by any member of such corporation unless both of the following conditions exist:

(1) The plaintiff alleges in the complaint that plaintiff was a member at the time of the transaction or any part thereof of which plaintiff complains, or that plaintiff's membership thereafter devolved upon plaintiff by operation of law from a holder who was a holder at the time of transaction or any part thereof complained of; and

(2) The plaintiff alleges in the complaint with particularity plaintiff's efforts to secure from the board such action as plaintiff desires, or the reasons for not making such effort, and alleges further that plaintiff has either informed the corporation or the board in writing of the ultimate facts of each cause of action against each defendant or delivered to the corporation or the board a true copy of the complaint which plaintiff proposes to file.

(c) Subject to subdivision (a), in any action referred to in subdivision (b), at any time within 30 days after service of summons upon the corporation or upon any defendant who is an officer or director of the corporation, or held such office at the time of the acts complained of, the corporation or such defendant may move the court for an order, upon notice and hearing, requiring the plaintiff to furnish a bond as hereinafter provided. The motion shall be based upon one or both of the following grounds:

(1) That there is no reasonable possibility that the prosecution of the cause of action alleged in the complaint against the moving party will benefit the corporation or its members economically or otherwise.

(2) That the moving party, if other than the corporation, did not participate in the transaction complained of in any capacity.

The court on application of the corporation or any defendant may, for good cause shown, extend the 30-day period for an additional period or periods not exceeding 60 days.

(d) At the hearing upon any motion pursuant to subdivision (c), the court shall consider such evidence, written or oral, by witnesses or affidavit, as may be material (1) to the ground or grounds upon which the motion is based, or (2) to a determination of the probable reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, of the corporation and the moving party which will be incurred in the defense of the action. If the court determines, after hearing the evidence adduced by the parties, that the moving party has established a probability in support of any of the grounds upon which the motion is based, the court shall fix the amount of the bond, not to exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), to be furnished by the plaintiff for reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, which may be incurred by the moving party and the corporation in connection with the action, including expenses for which the corporation may become liable pursuant to Section 7237. A ruling by the court on the motion shall not be a determination of any issue in the action or of the merits thereof. If the court, upon any such motion, makes a determination that a bond shall be furnished by the plaintiff as to any one or more defendants, the action shall be dismissed as to such defendant or defendants, unless the bond required by the court has been furnished within such reasonable time as may be fixed by the court.

(e) If the plaintiff shall, either before or after a motion is made pursuant to subdivision (c), or any order or determination pursuant to such motion, furnish a bond or bonds in the aggregate amount of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) to secure the reasonable expenses of the parties entitled to make the motion, the plaintiff has complied with the requirements of this section and with any order for a bond theretofore made, and any such motion then pending shall be dismissed and no further or additional bond shall be required.

(f) If a motion is filed pursuant to subdivision (c), no pleadings need be filed by the corporation or any other defendant and the prosecution of the action shall be stayed until 10 days after the motion has been disposed of.

SEC. 190. Section 8513 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

8513. If, at the time of the filing of a complaint for involuntary dissolution or at any time thereafter, the court has reasonable grounds to believe that unless a receiver of the corporation is appointed the interests of the corporation or its members will suffer pending the hearing and determination of the complaint, upon the application of the plaintiff, and after a hearing upon such notice to the corporation as the court may direct and upon the giving of security pursuant to Sections 566 and 567 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the court may appoint a receiver to take over and manage the affairs of the corporation and to preserve its property pending the hearing and determination of the complaint for dissolution.

SEC. 191. Section 15038 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

15038. (a) When dissolution is caused in any way, except in contravention of the partnership agreement, each partner, as against the copartners and all persons claiming through them in respect of their interests in the partnership, unless otherwise agreed, may have the partnership property applied to discharge its liabilities, and the surplus applied to pay in cash the net amount owing to the respective partners. But if dissolution is caused by expulsion of a partner, bona fide under the partnership agreement and if the expelled partner is discharged from all partnership liabilities, either by payment or agreement under Section 15036(2), the expelled partner shall receive in cash only the net amount due from the partnership.

(b) When dissolution is caused in contravention of the partnership agreement the rights of the partners shall be as follows:

(1) Each partner who has not caused dissolution wrongfully shall have:

(A) All the rights specified in subdivision (a).

(B) The right, as against each partner who has caused the dissolution wrongfully, to damages for breach of the agreement.

(2) The partners who have not caused the dissolution wrongfully, if they all desire to continue the business in the same name, either by themselves or jointly with others, may do so, during the agreed term for the partnership and for that purpose may possess the partnership property; provided, they secure the payment by bond or pay to any partner who has caused the dissolution wrongfully, the value of the partner's interest in the partnership at the dissolution, less any damages recoverable under subdivision (b) (1) (B), and in like manner indemnify the partner against all present or future partnership liabilities.

(3) A partner who has caused the dissolution wrongfully shall have:

(A) If the business is not continued under the provisions of subdivision (b) (2), all the rights of a partner under subdivision (a), subject to subdivision (b) (1) (B).

(B) If the business is continued under subdivision (b) (2) the right as against the copartners and all claiming through them in respect of their interests in the partnership, to have the value of the partner's interest in the partnership, less any damages caused to the copartners by the dissolution, ascertained and paid to the partner in cash, or the payment secured by bond, and to be released from all existing liabilities of the partnership; but in ascertaining the value of the partner's interest the value of the good will of the business shall not be considered.

SEC. 192. Section 25100 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

25100. The following securities are exempted from the provisions of Sections 25110, 25120, and 25130:

(a) Any security (including a revenue obligation) issued or guaranteed by the United States, any state, any city, county, city and county, public district, public authority, public corporation, public entity, or political subdivision of a state or any agency or corporate or other instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing; or any certificate of deposit for any of the foregoing.

(b) Any security issued or guaranteed by the Dominion of Canada, any Canadian province, any political subdivision or municipality of any such province, or by any other foreign government with which the United States currently maintains diplomatic relations, if the security is recognized as a valid obligation by the issuer or guarantor; or any certificate of deposit for any of the foregoing.

(c) Any security issued or guaranteed by and representing an interest in or a direct obligation of a national bank or a bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of this state, and any security issued by a bank to one or more other banks and representing an interest in an asset of the issuing bank.

(d) Any security issued or guaranteed by a federal savings and loan association or federal land bank or joint land bank or national farm loan association or by any savings and loan association which is subject to the supervision and regulation of the Savings and Loan Commissioner of this state.

(e) Any security (other than an interest in all or portions of a parcel or parcels of real property which are subdivided land or a subdivision or in a real estate development), the issuance of which is subject to authorization by the Insurance Commissioner, the Public Utilities Commission, or the Real Estate Commissioner of this state.

(f) Any security consisting of any interest in all or portions of a parcel or parcels of real property which are subdivided lands or a subdivision or in a real estate development; provided that the exemption in this subdivision shall not be applicable to any investment contract sold or offered for sale with, or as part of, any such interest, or to any person engaged in the business of selling, distributing or supplying water for irrigation purposes or domestic use which is not a public utility.

(g) Any shares, investment certificates or borrower's membership certificates (as defined in the Savings and Loan Association Law) issued by a savings and loan association holding a license then in force from the Savings and Loan Commissioner of this state.

(h) Any security issued or guaranteed by any federal credit union, or by any credit union organized and supervised, or regulated, under the Credit Union Law.

(i) Any security issued or guaranteed by any railroad, other common carrier, public utility, or public utility holding company which is (1) subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission or (2) a holding company registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 or a subsidiary of such a company within the meaning of that act or (3) regulated in respect of the issuance or guarantee of the security by a governmental authority of the United States, of any state, of Canada or of any Canadian province; and the security is subject to registration with or authorization of issuance by such authority.

(j) Any security (except evidences of indebtedness, whether interest bearing or not) of an issuer (1) organized exclusively for educational, benevolent, fraternal, religious, charitable, social, or reformatory purposes and not for pecuniary profit, if no part of the net earnings of the issuer inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, or (2) organized as a chamber of commerce or trade or professional association. The fact that amounts received from memberships or dues or both will or may be used to construct or otherwise acquire facilities for use by members of the nonprofit organization does not disqualify the organization for this exemption. This exemption does not apply to the securities of any nonprofit organization if any promoter thereof expects or intends to make a profit directly or indirectly from any business or activity associated with the organization or operation of such nonprofit organization or from remuneration received from such nonprofit organization.

(k) Any agreement, commonly known as a "life income contract," of an issuer (1) organized exclusively for educational, benevolent, fraternal, religious, charitable, social, or reformatory purposes and not for pecuniary profit and (2) which the commissioner designates by rule or order, with a donor in consideration of a donation of property to such issuer and providing for the payment to the donor or persons designated by him of income or specified periodic payments from the donated property or other property for the life of the donor or such other persons.

(l) Any note, draft, bill of exchange, or banker's acceptance which is freely transferable and of prime quality, arises out of a current transaction or the proceeds of which have been or are to be used for current transactions, and which evidences an obligation to pay cash within nine months of the date of issuance, exclusive of days of grace, or any renewal of such paper which is likewise limited, or any guarantee of such paper or of any such renewal, provided that such paper is not offered to the public in amounts of less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) in the aggregate to any one purchaser. In addition, the commissioner may, by rule or order, exempt any issuer of any notes, drafts, bills of exchange or banker's acceptances from qualification of such securities when the commissioner finds that such qualification is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

(m) Any security issued by any corporation organized and existing under the provisions of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 54001) of Division 20 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

(n) Any beneficial interest in an employees' pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus or similar benefit plan which meets the requirements for qualification under Section 401 of the Federal Internal Revenue Code or any statute amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto. A determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service stating that an employees' pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus or similar benefit plan meets such requirements shall be conclusive evidence that such plan is an employees' pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus or similar plan within the meaning of the first sentence of this subdivision until the date such determination letter is revoked in writing by the Internal Revenue Service, regardless of whether or not such revocation is retroactive.

(o) Any security listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance on a national securities exchange certified by rule or order of the commissioner and any warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to any such security.

Such certification of any exchange shall be made by the commissioner upon the written request of the exchange if the commissioner finds that the exchange, in acting on applications for listing of common stock substantially applies each of the minimum standards set forth in subparagraph (1) below, and in considering suspension or removal from listing, substantially applies each of the criteria set forth in subparagraph (2) below.

(1) Listing standards:

(i) Net tangible assets of at least two million dollars ($2,000,000).

(ii) Net income of at least two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) after all charges including federal income taxes in the fiscal year immediately preceding the filing of a listing application and net income before such taxes of at least five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000).

(iii) Minimum public distribution of 250,000 shares excluding the holdings of officers, directors, controlling shareholders and other concentrated or family holdings among not less than 900 holders including not less than 600 holders of lots of 100 shares or more, with a corresponding requirement that such securities not be largely held in blocks by institutional investors.

(iv) Minimum price of four dollars ($4) per share for a reasonable period of time prior to the filing of a listing application.

(v) An aggregate market value for publicly held shares of at least one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000).

(2) Criteria for consideration of suspension or removal from listing:

(i) If a company which (A) has net tangible assets of less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) has sustained net losses in each of its two most recent fiscal years, or (B) has net tangible assets of less than three million dollars ($3,000,000) and has sustained net losses in three of its four most recent fiscal years.

(ii) If the number of shares publicly held (excluding the holdings of officers, directors, controlling shareholders and other concentrated or family holdings) is less than 150,000.

(iii) If the total number of shareholders of record is less than 450 or if the number of shareholders of lots of 100 shares or more is less than 300.

(iv) If the aggregate market value of shares publicly held is less than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000).

(v) If shares of common stock sell at a price of less than four dollars ($4) per share for a substantial period of time and the issuer shall fail to effectuate a reverse stock split of such shares within a reasonable period of time after being requested by the exchange to take such action.

The commissioner after appropriate notice and opportunity for hearing in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, may by rule or order, decertify any exchange previously certified which ceases substantially to apply the standards or criteria as set forth above. A rule or order of certification shall conclusively establish that any security listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance on any exchange named in a rule or order of certification and any warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to any such security is exempt under this subdivision until the adoption of any rule or order decertifying such exchange.

(p) A promissory note secured by a lien on real property, which is not one of a series of notes secured by interests in the same real property.

(q) Any unincorporated interindemnity or reciprocal or interinsurance contract, which qualifies under the provisions of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code, between members of a cooperative corporation, organized and operating under Part 2 (commencing with Section 12200) of Division 3 of Title 1, and whose members consist only of physicians and surgeons licensed in California, which contracts indemnify solely in respect to medical malpractice claims against such members, and which do not collect in advance of loss any moneys other than contributions by each member to a collective reserve trust fund or for necessary expenses of administration.

(1) Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code, the commissioner may in the commissioner's discretion bring an action in the name of the people of the State of California in the superior court to enjoin the acts or practices or to enforce compliance with Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code. Upon a proper showing a permanent or preliminary injunction, restraining order or writ of mandate shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets.

(2) The commissioner may, in the commissioner's discretion, (A) make such public or private investigations within or outside of this state as the commissioner deems necessary to determine whether any person has violated or is about to violate any provision of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code or to aid in the enforcement of that section, and (B) publish information concerning the violation of Section 1280.7.

(3) For the purpose of any investigation or proceeding under this section, the commissioner or any officer designated by the commissioner may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, agreements, or other documents or records which the commissioner deems relevant or material to the inquiry.

(4) In case of contumacy by, or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to, any person, the superior court, upon application by the commissioner, may issue to the person an order requiring the person to appear before the commissioner, or the officer designated by the commissioner, there to produce documentary evidence, if so ordered, or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt.

(5) No person is excused from attending or testifying or from producing any document or record before the commissioner or in obedience to the subpoena of the commissioner or any officer designated by the commissioner, or in any proceeding instituted by the commissioner, on the ground that the testimony or evidence (documentary or otherwise), required of the person may tend to incriminate the person or subject the person to a penalty or forfeiture, but no individual may be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which the person is compelled, after validly claiming the privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence (documentary or otherwise), except that the individual testifying is not exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury or contempt committed in testifying.

(r) Any shares or memberships issued by any corporation organized and existing pursuant to the provisions of Part 2 (commencing with Section 12200) of Division 3 of Title 1; provided (1) the corporation limits its shareholders or members primarily to ultimate consumers only or producers only and (2) the aggregate investment of any shareholder or member in shares or memberships sold pursuant to this subdivision does not exceed one hundred dollars

($100). This exemption does not apply to the shares or memberships of any such corporation if any promoter thereof expects or intends to make a profit directly or indirectly from any business or activity associated with the corporation or the operation of such corporation or from remuneration, other than reasonable salary, received from such corporation.

(s) Any security consisting of or representing an interest in a pool of mortgage loans which meets each of the following requirements:

(1) The pool consists of mortgage loans originated or acquired in the ordinary course of business by a national bank or federal savings and loan association having its principal office in this state, by a bank incorporated under the laws of this state or by a savings and loan association which is subject to the supervision and regulation of the Savings and Loan Commissioner and which at the time of transfer to the pool is an authorized investment for such origination or acquiring institution;

(2) The pool of mortgage loans is held in trust by a trustee which is a financial institution specified in paragraph (1) as trustee or otherwise;

(3) The loans are serviced by a financial institution specified in paragraph (1);

(4) Such security is not offered in amounts of less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) in the aggregate to any one purchaser; and

(5) Such security is offered pursuant to a registration under the Securities Act of 1933, or pursuant to an exemption under Regulation A under such act, or in the opinion of counsel for the issuer, is offered pursuant to an exemption under Section 4(2) of that act.

SEC. 193. Section 25216 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

25216. (a) No broker-dealer or agent shall effect any transaction in, or induce or attempt to induce the purchase or sale of, any security in this state by means of any manipulative, deceptive or other fraudulent scheme, device, or contrivance. The commissioner shall, for the purposes of this subdivision, by rule define such schemes, devices or contrivances as are manipulative, deceptive, or otherwise fraudulent.

(b) No broker-dealer or agent shall effect any transaction in, or induce or attempt to induce the purchase or sale of, any security in this state in connection with which such broker-dealer or agent engages in any fraudulent, deceptive or manipulative act or practice or makes any fictitious quotation. The commissioner shall, for the purposes of this subdivision, by rule define and prescribe means reasonably designed to prevent such acts and practices as are fraudulent, deceptive, or manipulative and such quotations as are fictitious.

(c) No broker-dealer or agent shall effect any transaction in, or induce or attempt to induce the purchase or sale of, any security in this state in contravention of such rules as the commissioner may prescribe as necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors to provide safeguards with respect to the financial responsibility of broker-dealers. Such rules may require a minimum capital for broker-dealers or prescribe a ratio between net capital and aggregate indebtedness or both and a fidelity bond.

(d) No broker-dealer or agent shall effect or attempt to effect in this state, in contravention of such rules as the commissioner may prescribe as necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors, (1) any transaction in connection with any security whereby any party to such transaction acquires any put, call, straddle, or other option or privilege of buying or selling the security, or (2) any transaction in connection with any security with relation to which the broker-dealer or agent has, directly or indirectly, any interest in any such put, call, straddle, option, or privilege, or (3) any transaction in any security for the account of any person who the broker-dealer or agent has reason to believe has, and who actually has, directly or indirectly, any interest in any such put, call, straddle, option, or privilege with relation to such security.

(e) The commissioner may by rule require any issuer who employs agents in connection with any security or transaction not exempted by Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 25100) of Part 2 of this division to post a surety bond in an amount not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000), conditioned that the issuer will comply with the provisions of this law and the rules and orders issued thereunder. The bond, unless previously canceled, shall cover for the entire period that the qualification is in effect. If a deposit in lieu of a bond is made pursuant to Article 7 (commencing with Section 995.710) of Chapter 2 of Title 14 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the deposit may include an appropriate deposit of securities. No suit may be maintained to enforce any liability on the bond unless brought within two years after the contract of sale or other act upon which the suit is based.

SEC. 194. Section 25530 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

25530. (a) Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of this law or any rule or order hereunder, the commissioner may in the commissioner's discretion bring an action in the name of the people of the State of California in the superior court to enjoin the acts or practices or to enforce compliance with this law or any rule or order hereunder. Upon a proper showing a permanent or preliminary injunction, restraining order, or writ of mandate shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets, or such other ancillary relief may be granted as appropriate.

A receiver or conservator appointed by the superior court pursuant to this section may, with the approval of the court, exercise all of the powers of the defendant's officers, directors, partners, trustees or persons who exercise similar powers and perform similar duties, including the filing of a petition for bankruptcy. No action at law or in equity may be maintained by any party against the commissioner, or a receiver or conservator, by reason of their exercising such powers or performing such duties pursuant to the order of, or with the approval of, the superior court.

(b) If the commissioner determines it is in the public interest, the commissioner may include in any action authorized by subdivision (a) a claim for ancillary relief, including but not limited to, a claim for restitution or disgorgement or damages on behalf of the persons injured by the act or practice constituting the subject matter of the action, and the court shall have jurisdiction to award such additional relief.

SEC. 195. Section 31113 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

31113. If the commissioner finds that it is necessary and appropriate for the protection of prospective franchisees or subfranchisors because the applicant has failed to demonstrate that adequate financial arrangements have been made to fulfill the franchisor's obligations to provide real estate, improvements, equipment, inventory, training, or other items included in the offering, the commissioner may by rule or order require the escrow or impound of franchisee fees and other funds paid by the franchisee or subfranchisor until such obligations have been satisfied. At the option of the franchisor, the franchisor may furnish a surety bond as provided by rule of the commissioner.

SEC. 196. Section 31400 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

31400. Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of this law or any rule or order hereunder, the commissioner may in the commissioner's discretion bring an action, or the commissioner may request the Attorney General to bring an action in the name of the people of the State of California, in the superior court to enjoin the acts or practices or to enforce compliance with this law or any rule or order hereunder. Upon a proper showing a permanent or preliminary injunction, restraining order or writ of mandate shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets.

SEC. 197. Section 39450 of the Education Code is amended to read:

39450. (a) After considering all proposals submitted, the governing board of the school district shall have the authority, subject to the provisions of Section 39451, to select the plan or proposal which best meets the needs of the school district and to enter into a contract incorporating that plan or proposal either as submitted or as revised by the school district's governing board; provided, however, that the governing board shall not approve any proposal nor enter into a lease or contract incorporating a proposal until the governing board has submitted the proposal to the State Board of Education, and the State Board of Education has approved such proposal. The State Board of Education shall, within 45 days of the date of submission, notify the governing board of its approval or disapproval.

(b) The governing board shall require any person, firm or corporation with whom it enters into a lease or agreement pursuant to this article to file one of the following, as determined by the governing board:

(1) A bond for the performance of the lease or agreement.

(2) An irrevocable letter of credit issued by a state or national bank for the performance of the lease or agreement.

SEC. 198. Section 48269 of the Education Code is amended to read:

48269. If the parent, guardian, or other person having control or charge of the child, within three days after the rendition of the judgment executes a bond to the governing board of the school district in the sum of two hundred dollars ($200), conditioned that the child will, during the remainder of the current school year, regularly attend some public or private school in the city, or city and county, or school district, and not be insubordinate or disorderly during attendance, then the court may make an order suspending the execution of the judgment so long as the condition of the bond is complied with. The bond shall be filed with the secretary of the board of education, or clerk of the board of trustees. All money paid or collected on the bond shall be paid into the county treasury as provided in Section 41001.

SEC. 199. Section 48270 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 200. Section 48271 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 201. Section 81400 of the Education Code is amended to read:

81400. (a) After considering all proposals submitted, the governing board of the community college district shall have the authority, subject to the provisions of Section 81401, to select the plan or proposal which best meets the needs of the district and to enter into a contract incorporating that plan or proposal either as submitted or as revised by the district's governing board.

(b) The governing board shall require any person, firm or corporation with whom it enters into a lease or agreement pursuant to this article to file one of the following, as determined by the governing board:

(1) A bond for the performance of the lease or agreement.

(2) An irrevocable letter of credit issued by a state or national bank for the performance of the lease or agreement.

SEC. 202. Section 90225 of the Education Code is amended to read:

90225. No payment shall be made upon the contract to the contractor or any assignee of the contractor until an order by the trustees that a sufficient surety be substituted on the bond or that a new, additional, or supplemental bond be given, is satisfied.

SEC. 203. Section 1824 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1824. An appeal may be taken from the judgment of the court by the superintendent or by the licensee in the manner provided by law for appeals from the judgment of a superior court.

SEC. 204. Section 1881 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1881. (a) Whenever it appears to the superintendent that any person has violated, or that there is reasonable cause to believe that any person is about to violate, any provision of this chapter or of any regulation or order issued under this chapter, the superintendent may bring an action in the name of the people of this state in the superior court to enjoin such violation or to enforce compliance with this chapter or with any regulation or order issued under this chapter. Upon a proper showing, a restraining order, preliminary or permanent injunction, or writ of mandate shall be granted, and a receiver or conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets.

(b) Any receiver or conservator appointed by the court pursuant to subdivision (a) may, with the approval of the court, exercise all of the powers of the defendant's directors, officers, partners, trustees, or persons who exercise similar powers and perform similar duties, including the filing of a petition for bankruptcy. No action at law or in equity may be maintained by any party against the superintendent or such receiver or conservator by reason of the exercise of such powers or the performance of such duties pursuant to the order, or with the approval of, the court.

(c) The superintendent may include in any action authorized under subdivision (a) a claim for ancillary relief, including a claim for restitution or damages on behalf of the persons injured by the act constituting the subject matter of such action, and the court shall have jurisdiction to award such additional relief.

SEC. 205. Section 1893 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1893. (a) If the superintendent finds that any of the factors set forth in Section 1889 is true with respect to any licensee and that it is necessary for the protection of the interests of purchasers or holders of travelers checks issued by the licensee or for the protection of the public interest that the superintendent take immediate possession of the property and business of the licensee, the superintendent may by order forthwith take possession of the property and business of the licensee and retain possession until the licensee resumes business or is finally liquidated. The licensee may, with the consent of the superintendent, resume business upon such conditions as the superintendent may prescribe.

(b) Whenever the superintendent takes possession of the property and business of a licensee pursuant to subdivision (a), the licensee may, within 10 days, apply to the superior court in any county of this state in which an office of the licensee is located (or, in case the licensee has no office in this state, in the County of Sacramento, in the City and County of San Francisco, or in the County of Los Angeles) to enjoin further proceedings. The court may, after citing the superintendent to show cause why further proceedings should not be enjoined and after a hearing, dismiss the application or enjoin the superintendent from further proceedings and order the superintendent to surrender the property and business of the licensee to the licensee or make such further order as may be just. The judgment of the superior court may be appealed by the superintendent or by the licensee in the manner provided by law for appeals from the judgment of a superior court.

(c) Whenever the superintendent takes possession of the property and business of a licensee pursuant to subdivision (a), the superintendent shall conserve or liquidate the property and business of the licensee pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 3100) of Chapter 17, and the provisions of that article (except Sections 3100, 3101, and 3102) apply as if the licensee were a bank.

SEC. 206. Section 3102 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3102. An appeal may be taken from the judgment of the court by the superintendent or by the bank in the manner provided by law for appeals from the judgment of a superior court.

SEC. 207. Section 5611 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

5611. The commissioner shall prescribe the amount and form of the bond required by Section 5610 and the term during which it shall run. The sufficiency of the sureties on such bond is at all times subject to the approval of the commissioner. Each officer and employee shall renew his bond upon the expiration of its term. All bonds shall be retained at the association's principal office.

SEC. 208. Section 9004 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

9004. An appeal from a judgment enjoining the commissioner from further proceedings and directing the commissioner to surrender the business, property, and assets to the association does not operate as a stay of the judgment, unless the trial court in its discretion so orders. If the judgment dismisses the action an appeal therefrom does not operate as a stay of the judgment but the court rendering the judgment may, in its discretion enjoin the commissioner pending the appeal, from further proceedings and direct the commissioner, pending the appeal, to surrender the business, property, and assets to the association, if an undertaking is given as required by Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 916) of Title 13 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 209. Section 9517 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

9517. An appeal from an order of court referred to in this chapter is not effectual unless the appellant, within 30 days after the entry of the order appealed from, files with the clerk of the court a bond to the effect that the appellant, if the order is affirmed on appeal, will pay all of the respondents' costs and expenses arising from the appeal, not including respondents' attorneys fees. The amount of the bond shall be determined by the superior court.

SEC. 210. Section 12206 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

12206. If the applicant is to engage in the business of check selling or receiving money for the purpose of paying bills, invoices or accounts of an obligor, the applicant shall file with the commissioner concurrently with its application for a license, a bond to be approved by the commissioner, in which the applicant is the principal, in the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000). A deposit given instead of the bond required by this section shall not be deemed an asset of the applicant or licensee for the purpose of complying with Section 12205.

SEC. 211. Section 12206.1 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 212. Section 12207 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

12207. The bond shall be approved by the commissioner. The bond shall run to the state for the use of the state and of any person who has a cause of action against the principal under the provisions of this division.

SEC. 213. Section 12210 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 214. Section 12211 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 215. Section 12223 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

12223. The commissioner may require a licensee, in addition to the bond provided in Section 12206, to obtain an adequate fidelity bond for each officer, employee, agent, or any person having access to funds collected by or for the licensee or having authority to draw against such funds if in the commissioner's opinion such a bond is necessary for the protection of the public. The bond shall be for the protection of the public against loss suffered through embezzlement by any person having access to funds collected by or for the licensee or having authority to draw against such funds, or from mysterious disappearance, theft, holdup or burglary. A deposit given instead of the bond required by this section shall not be deemed an asset of the licensee for the purpose of complying with Section 12205.

SEC. 216. Section 12224 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 217. Section 17202 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17202. At the time of filing an application for an escrow agent's license, the applicant shall deposit with the commissioner a bond satisfactory to the commissioner in the amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000). The bond shall run to the state for the use of the state and of any person who has cause against the obligor of the bond under the provision of this division. A deposit given instead of the bond required by this section shall not be deemed an asset of the applicant or licensee for the purpose of complying with Section 17210.

SEC. 218. Section 17202.1 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 219. Section 17203 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17203. The bond of an escrow agent shall be conditioned that the licensee will faithfully conform to and abide by the provisions of this division and all the rules made by the commissioner under this division. The bond shall be conditioned that the licensee will honestly and faithfully apply all funds received, will faithfully and honestly perform all obligations and undertakings under this division, and will pay to the state and any person all amounts which become due or owing to the state or to such person under the provisions of this division, including the costs in any conservatorship, or liquidation, whether by the commissioner or by a receiver. In determining the liability of the principal and the sureties under the bond, escrow money held in trust and any money recovered to restore any deficiency in the trust shall not be considered as an asset of the liquidation subject to assessment for the cost of the liquidation. The surety under the bond may pay the full amount of its liability thereunder to the commissioner or a conservator appointed by the commissioner pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 17621) in lieu of payment to the state or persons having a cause of action against the principal, and upon such payment the surety is completely released from further liability under the bond.

SEC. 220. Section 17203.1 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17203.1. All officers, directors, trustees, and employees of an escrow agent, whether or not compensated, who have access to money or negotiable securities belonging to the escrow agent or in the possession of the escrow agent in the regular discharge of their duties, or persons who draw checks upon the escrow agent or upon the trust funds of the escrow agent in the regular discharge of their duties, before entering upon their duties and throughout the entire term of their office and employment and any subsequent term thereof, shall furnish to the escrow agent a bond indemnifying the escrow agent against loss of money or property. The commissioner shall prescribe the amount of the bond on each individual employee, officer, director, or trustee, and the aggregate amount and the terms during which the bond runs. The sufficiency of the sureties on the bond are at all times subject to the approval of the commissioner. The bonds shall be filed in the commissioner's office. A deposit given instead of the bond required by this section shall not be deemed an asset of the applicant or licensee for the purpose of complying with Section 17210.

SEC. 221. Section 17203.2 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 222. Section 17204 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 223. Section 17205 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17205. No action may be brought on an escrow agent's bond by any person after the expiration of two years from the time when the act or default complained of occurs.

SEC. 224. Section 17213.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17213.5. (a) Licensees of this division shall be entitled to establish additional business office locations by compliance with all of the following:

(1) Filing with the commissioner notice of the intended address, or addresses.

(2) Payment of the fees prescribed in subdivisions (a) and (c) of Section 17207.

(3) Filing with the commissioner additional bond or bonds as prescribed in Sections 17202, 17203, 17203.1, and 17204 appropriately for each additional office location or, in lieu thereof, the applicant shall cause the surety under the existing bond or bonds to file with the commissioner a written amendment signifying that coverage is appropriately extended.

(4) Filing with the commissioner financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Except as otherwise permitted in writing by the commissioner, the financial statements shall be covered by a report or certificate of an independent certified public accountant or independent public accountant, showing an additional tangible net worth in the amount set forth in Section 17210 for each additional office location, and should not be more than six months old.

(5) Filing with the commissioner the names and addresses of the licensee's owners and employees to be stationed at the new location, showing that the operation of the additional office, or offices, will be under the complete management and control of the parent licensee.

(6) Filing with the commissioner statements offsetting and meeting each of the conditions set forth in Section 17209.3.

(b) With respect to all applications for authorization to establish additional locations, the commissioner shall promptly dispatch the notice set forth in Section 17209.1 and shall immediately commence investigation and review of the application.

(c) The commissioner shall within 45 days from the receipt by the commissioner of a separate and complete application, license the designated premises as a branch of the parent licensee, unless the commissioner finds any of the following:

(1) The applicant has failed to comply with all of the requirements of this section.

(2) The applicant then fails to meet any of the standards applicable for the issuance of a license pursuant to Section 17209.3.

(3) A hearing shall be held to determine whether the application should be granted or denied.

SEC. 225. Section 17623 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17623. An appeal from a judgment enjoining the commissioner from further proceedings and directing the commissioner to surrender the business, property, and assets to the licensee does not operate as a stay of the judgment, unless the trial court in its discretion so orders. If the judgment dismisses the action an appeal therefrom does not operate as a stay of the judgment but the court rendering the judgment may, in its discretion enjoin the commissioner pending the appeal, from further proceedings and direct the commissioner, pending the appeal, to surrender the business, property, and assets to the licensee, if an undertaking is given as required by Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 916) of Title 13 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 226. Section 18346 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

18346. The commissioner may require each industrial loan company to file with the commissioner a fidelity bond indemnifying the industrial loan company against loss of money or property by act of any officer, director or employee of such company, having access to assets owned by or pledged with the company. The fidelity bond shall contain a rider which provides that the coverage of the bond extends to all officers, directors and employees of the insured who are compensated by the insured. The commissioner may require that the fidelity bond contain a rider which provides that coverage of the bond extends to all officers and directors who are not compensated by the insured. The fidelity bond may be either a primary commercial blanket bond, a blanket position bond, or a banker's blanket bond, but shall be written by an admitted surety insurer. The commissioner shall by regulation prescribe the amount of fidelity coverage to be required. The sufficiency of the sureties on the bond are at all times subject to the approval of the commissioner.

SEC. 227. Section 18370 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

18370. An appeal may be taken from the judgment of the court by the commissioner or by the industrial loan company in the manner provided by law for appeals from the judgment of a superior court.

SEC. 228. Section 18495 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

18495. An appeal may be taken from the judgment of the court by the commissioner or by Guaranty Corporation in the manner provided by law for appeals from the judgment of a superior court. An appeal from the judgment of the court does not operate as a stay of the judgment unless the court, on good cause, so orders.

SEC. 229. Section 30606 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

30606. (a) If a securities depository fails to comply with a final order and has not secured a court order restraining the enforcement of the final order, the commissioner may revoke the license of the securities depository or may institute proceedings under subdivision (b) to enforce the final order.

(b) Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of this law or any rule or order under this law, the commissioner may in the commissioner's discretion bring an action in the superior court to enjoin the acts or practices or to enforce compliance with this law or any rule or order under this law.

Upon a proper showing, a permanent or preliminary injunction, restraining order, or writ of mandate shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets.

SEC. 230. Section 34101 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

34101. (a) Whenever it appears to the superintendent that any person has violated, or that there is reasonable cause to believe that any person is about to violate, any provision of this division or of any regulation or order issued under this division, the superintendent may bring an action in the name of the people of this state in the superior court to enjoin the violation or to enforce compliance with this division or with any regulation or order issued under this division. Upon a proper showing, a restraining order, preliminary or permanent injunction, or writ of mandate shall be granted, and a receiver or conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets.

(b) Any receiver or conservator appointed by the court pursuant to subdivision (a) may, with the approval of the court, exercise all of the powers of the defendant's directors, officers, partners, trustees, or persons who exercise similar powers and perform similar duties, including the filing of a petition for bankruptcy. No action at law or in equity may be maintained by any party against the superintendent or the receiver or conservator by reason of the exercise of powers or the performance of duties pursuant to the order, or with the approval of, the court.

(c) The superintendent may include in any action authorized under subdivision (a) a claim for ancillary relief, including a claim for restitution or damages on behalf of the persons injured by the act constituting the subject matter of the action, and the court shall have jurisdiction to award such additional relief.

SEC. 231. Section 34113 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

34113. (a) If the superintendent finds that any of the factors set forth in Section 34109 is true with respect to any licensee and that it is necessary for the protection of the interests of purchasers or holders of payment instruments issued by the licensee or for the protection of the public interest that the superintendent take immediate possession of the property and business of the licensee, the superintendent may by order forthwith take possession of the property and business of the licensee and retain possession until the licensee resumes business or is finally liquidated. The licensee may, with the consent of the superintendent, resume business upon such conditions as the superintendent may prescribe.

(b) Whenever the superintendent takes possession of the property and business of a licensee pursuant to subdivision (a), the licensee may, within 10 days, apply to the superior court in any county of this state in which an office of the licensee is located (or, in case the licensee has no office in this state, in the County of Sacramento, in the City and County of San Francisco, or in the County of Los Angeles) to enjoin further proceedings. The court may, after citing the superintendent to show cause why further proceedings should not be enjoined and after a hearing, dismiss the application or enjoin the superintendent from further proceedings and order the superintendent to surrender the property and business of the licensee to the licensee or make such further order as may be just. The judgment of the superior court may be appealed by the superintendent or by the licensee in the manner provided by law for appeals from the judgment of a superior court.

(c) Whenever the superintendent takes possession of the property and business of a licensee pursuant to subdivision (a), the superintendent shall conserve or liquidate the property and business of the licensee pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 3100), Chapter 17, Division 1, and the provisions of the article (except Sections 3100, 3101, and 3102) apply as if the licensee were a bank.

SEC. 232. Section 12150.6 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

12150.6. (a) Any person who has been prohibited from taking any bird or mammal pursuant to Section 12150 or 12151 shall not apply for a hunting license or take any bird or mammal unless the person has filed with the department proof of ability to respond in damages in an amount of at least ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for personal injury or death of any person, subject to a maximum of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) for such injury or the death of two or more persons in any one accident and at least five thousand dollars ($5,000) for property damage resulting from any one accident.

(b) Proof of ability to respond in damages may be given by any of the following:

(1) The written certificate of any insurance carrier duly authorized to do business within the state that it has issued to or for the benefit of the person named a public liability insurance policy which is, at the date of the certificate, in full force and effect. The certificate shall certify that the policy therein cited shall not be canceled except upon 10 days' prior written notice to the department.

(2) A bond in the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) approved by a judge of a court of record. The bond shall be conditioned for the payment of the amounts specified in this section and shall provide for the entry of judgment on motion of the state in favor of any holder of any final judgment on account of damages to property or injury to any person caused while the licensee is taking any bird or mammal.

SEC. 233. Section 11935 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

11935. Proof of such financial responsibility may be made by furnishing security in an amount not less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000). The security may consist of any of the following:

(a) A surety bond in favor of any person that may suffer damage by reason of any pest control operation by the operator which is executed by an admitted surety insurer.

(b) An insurance policy which insures the operator against liability for damages pursuant to the judgment.

SEC. 234. Section 55649 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

55649. In an action that is filed by any such lien claimant, the defendant processor may file with the court in which the action is pending a surety bond in an amount that is sufficient to cover the demand of plaintiff's complaint, including the costs, whereupon the court may order the release of a portion or the whole of any product or processed product upon which the lien of plaintiff has attached.

SEC. 235. Section 57193 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

57193. If judicial review of the decision of the director is sought, the decision of the director shall remain in effect pending the determination of the review, unless the party that seeks the review files with the court a bond in a sum to be fixed by the court, in favor of the people and conditioned upon the faithful performance of all those things which are ordered to be done, or the faithful observance of such restraint as may be directed by the director. The bond shall be for the benefit of any person that has dealings with the person that seeks the review.

SEC. 236. Section 57194 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 237. Section 59958 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

59958. The director, in addition to other remedies which are provided by law, may direct suit in the name of the people of this state as plaintiff, to be brought for the recovery of fees as provided in this chapter. In such case, the director may make the necessary affidavit for and a writ of attachment may issue. All fees collected in this manner shall be handled as provided in this article.

SEC. 238. Section 1502 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 239. Section 1503 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 240. The heading of Article 4 (commencing with Section 1530) of Chapter 3 of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

Article 4. Qualifications of Sureties

SEC. 241. Section 1530 of the Government Code is amended to read:

1530. The officer whose duty it is to approve official bonds required of officers of a county or judicial district not named in Section 1458 shall not accept or approve any such bond unless the affidavit of each of the personal sureties on the bond contains a statement that the surety is a resident, and either an owner of real property or householder, within the county or within an adjoining county.

SEC. 242. Section 1531 of the Government Code is amended to read:

1531. The sureties on the bonds of all officers of a county or judicial district named in Section 1458 shall first be approved by the judge or judges of the superior court as is provided for the approval of the bond of their principals, before their principals' bonds may be recorded and filed.

SEC. 243. Article 5 (commencing with Section 1550) of Chapter 3 of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 244. Article 6 (commencing with Section 1580) of Chapter 3 of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 245. Article 7 (commencing with Section 1600) of Chapter 3 of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 246. Section 4201 of the Government Code is amended to read:

4201. A bidder shall not be relieved of the bid unless by consent of the awarding authority nor shall any change be made in the bid because of mistake, but the bidder may bring an action against the public entity in a court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the bids were opened for the recovery of the amount forfeited, without interest or costs. If the plaintiff fails to recover judgment, the plaintiff shall pay all costs incurred by the public entity in the suit, including a reasonable attorney's fee to be fixed by the court.

SEC. 246.5. Section 8212 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8212. Every person appointed a notary public shall execute an official bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000). The bond shall be in the form of a bond executed by an admitted surety insurer and not a deposit in lieu of bond.

SEC. 247. Section 8213 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8213. (a) No later than 30 days after the beginning of the term prescribed in the commission, every person appointed a notary public shall file an official bond, and take, subscribe, and file an oath of office in the office of the county clerk of the county within which the person maintains a principal place of business as shown in the application submitted to the Secretary of State, and the commission shall not take effect unless this is done within the 30-day period. Upon filing the oath and bond, the county clerk shall forthwith transmit to the Secretary of State a certificate setting forth the fact of such filing and containing a copy of the official oath, personally signed by the notary public in the form set forth in the commission and shall forthwith deliver the bond to the county recorder for recording.

(b) If a notary public transfers the principal place of business from one county to another, the notary public may file a new oath of office and bond, or a duplicate of the original bond with the county clerk to which the principal place of business was transferred. If the notary public elects to make a new filing, the notary public shall, within 30 days of the filing, obtain an official seal which shall include the name of the county to which the notary public has transferred. In such a case, the same filing and recording fees are applicable as in the case of the original filing and recording of the bond.

(c) A recording fee of three dollars ($3) shall be paid by the person appointed a notary public. The fee may be paid to the county clerk who shall transmit it to the county recorder.

(d) The county recorder shall record the bond and shall thereafter mail, unless specified to the contrary, it to the person named in the instrument and, if no person is named, to the party leaving it for recording.

SEC. 248. Section 8214 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8214. For the official misconduct or neglect of a notary public, the notary public and the sureties on the notary public's official bond are liable in a civil action to the persons injured thereby for all the damages sustained.

SEC. 249. Section 8216 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8216. When a surety of a notary desires to be released from responsibility on account of future acts, the release shall be pursuant to Article 11 (commencing with Section 996.110), and not by cancellation or withdrawal pursuant to Article 13 (commencing with Section 996.310), of Chapter 2 of Title 14 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure. For this purpose the surety shall make application to the superior court of the county in which the notary public's principal place of business is located and the copy of the application and notice of hearing shall be served on the Secretary of State as the beneficiary.

SEC. 250. Section 8217 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 251. Section 8218 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 252. Section 8222 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8222. (a) Whenever it appears to the Secretary of State that any person has engaged or is about to engage in any acts or practices which constitute or will constitute a violation of any provision of this chapter or any rule or regulation prescribed under the authority thereof, the Secretary of State may apply for an injunction, and upon a proper showing, any court of competent jurisdiction has power to issue a permanent or temporary injunction or restraining order to enforce the provisions of this chapter, and any party to the action has the right to prosecute an appeal from the order or judgment of the court.

(b) The court may order a person subject to an injunction or restraining order provided for in this section to reimburse the Secretary of State for expenses incurred in the investigation related to the petition. The Secretary of State shall refund any amount received as reimbursement should the injunction or restraining order be dissolved by an appellate court.

SEC. 253. Section 25549.11 of the Government Code is amended to read:

25549.11. (a) After considering all proposals submitted, the board of supervisors shall have the authority to select the plan or proposal which best meets the needs of the county or city and county and to enter into a lease or agreement incorporating that plan or proposal either as submitted or as revised by the board.

(b) The board shall require any person, firm, or corporation with whom it enters into a lease or agreement pursuant to this article to file a bond for the performance of the lease or agreement for the completion of the building to be constructed.

SEC. 254. Section 26855.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26855.3. The fee for issuing a certificate pursuant to Section 995.640 of the Code of Civil Procedure is three dollars ($3).

SEC. 255. Section 50512 of the Government Code is amended to read:

50512. If the property is offered for lease at a monthly rental, all bids shall be accompanied by a bond in the amount fixed by the legislative body.

SEC. 256. Section 50513 of the Government Code is amended to read:

50513. If the petition requires the making of improvements upon the property and the payment of rentals in products from the land, royalties, or commissions, the bidder shall furnish with the bid a bond in the amount fixed by the legislative body and conditioned for the faithful performance of the obligations assumed by the bidder.

SEC. 257. Section 53461 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53461. The legislative body of a local agency may issue a new bond similar to the original to replace it if:

(a) By competent proof it is made to appear to the legislative body that a bond issued by the local agency is lost or destroyed.

(b) The owner gives an undertaking approved by the legislative body to indemnify the local agency against any loss incurred on account of the bond.

(c) The owner pays all cost of the issuance of the new bond.

SEC. 258. Section 53464 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53464. The court shall inquire into the truth of the facts stated in the petition and hear the proofs and allegations of the petition. If satisfied that the petitioner is the lawful owner of the bond described in the petition, that it has been lost or destroyed and can not after due diligence be found, and that no sufficient cause has been shown why a new bond to replace it should not be issued, the court shall make an order requiring the legislative body to issue and deliver, or cause to be issued and delivered, to the petitioner a new bond in place of the lost or destroyed bond, upon the petitioner giving such an undertaking to the legislative body as the court directs.

SEC. 259. Section 53466 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53466. The undertaking required by this article, duly indorsed as approved, shall be filed in the office of the clerk or the treasurer of the issuing local agency as the legislative body directs.

SEC. 260. Section 71682 of the Government Code is amended to read:

71682. The fee for taking and approving a bond or undertaking, is one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50).

SEC. 261. Section 495.5 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

495.5. The owner, or the master agent, or consignee of the vessel, may, on behalf of the owner, appear and answer or plead to the action and may object to the undertaking filed on behalf of the plaintiff.

SEC. 262. Section 495.6 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

495.6. After the attachment is levied, the owner, or the master, agent, or consignee of the vessel, may, in behalf of the owner, have the attachment discharged, upon filing with the court, subject to the provisions of Section 489.060 of the Code of Civil Procedure, an undertaking in an amount sufficient to satisfy the demand in the suit, besides costs. Upon receiving notice of the filing of the undertaking with the court, the sheriff, marshal, or constable shall restore to the owner, or the master, agent, or consignee of the owner, the vessel attached.

SEC. 263. Section 515 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

515. Before making the order, the judge shall require from the claimant a bond to the people to be approved by the judge and filed with the county clerk, in a penalty double the value of the property or proceeds. The bond shall be conditioned upon the payment of all damages that may be recovered against the claimant or the claimant's representatives, within three years after its date, by any person establishing title to the property or proceeds.

SEC. 264. Section 731 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

731. A deposit given instead of the bond required by Section 730 shall be held by the department during the life of the license and for a period of four years subsequent to the expiration of the license.

SEC. 265. Section 4042 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

4042. (a) Each commissioner shall, within 20 days after receiving notice of appointment, qualify by taking and subscribing the constitutional oath of office, and by executing and filing with the clerk of the county wherein the commissioner is appointed, a bond in a sum to be fixed by the board of supervisors which bond, when approved by the judge or judges of the superior court of the county, shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder, as other official bonds are recorded, at any time subsequent to 20 days after the appointment.

(b) The commissioners, or a majority of them having qualified, shall meet at some convenient place in the county and organize by electing one of their number chairman.

SEC. 266. Section 1318 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1318. (a) The director shall require as a condition precedent to the issuance, or renewal, of any license for a health facility, if the licensee handles or will handle any money of patients within the health facility, that the applicant for the license or the renewal of the license file or have on file with the state department a bond executed by an admitted surety insurer in a sum to be fixed by the state department based upon the magnitude of the operations of the applicant, but which sum shall not be less than one thousand dollars ($1,000), running to the State of California and conditioned upon the licensee's faithful and honest handling of the money of patients within the health facility.

(b) Every person injured as a result of any improper or unlawful handling of the money of a patient of a health facility may bring an action in a proper court on the bond required to be posted by the licensee pursuant to this section for the amount of damage the person suffered as a result thereof to the extent covered by the bond.

(c) The failure of any licensee under this section to maintain on file with the state department a bond in the amount prescribed by the director or who embezzles any patient's trust funds shall constitute cause for the revocation of the license.

(d) The provisions of this section shall not apply if the licensee handles less than twenty-five dollars ($25) per patient and less than five hundred dollars ($500) for all patients in any month.

(e) The director may exempt licensed health facilities of the types specified in subdivisions (a), (b), (c), and (f) of Section 1250 from the requirements of this section. However, the exemption from the bond purchase requirements of this section shall not affect the financial liability of such health facilities.

SEC. 267. Section 1376 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1376. (a) No plan shall conduct any activity regulated by this chapter in contravention of such rules and regulations as the commissioner may prescribe as necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of plans, subscribers, and enrollees to provide safeguards with respect to the financial responsibility of plans. Such rules and regulations may require a minimum capital or net worth, limitations on indebtedness, procedures for the handling of funds or assets, including segregation of funds, assets and net worth, the maintenance of appropriate insurance and a fidelity bond, and the maintenance of a surety bond in an amount not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(b) The surety bond referred to in subdivision (a) shall be conditioned upon compliance by the licensee with the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter and orders issued under this chapter. Every surety bond shall provide that no suit may be maintained to enforce any liability thereon unless brought within two years after the act upon which such suit is based.

(c) For purposes of computing any minimum capital requirement which may be prescribed by the rules and regulations of the commissioner under subdivision (a), any operating cost assistance or direct loan made to a plan by the United States Department of Health, Education and Welfare pursuant to Public Law 93-222, as amended, may be treated as a subordinated loan, notwithstanding any express terms thereof to the contrary.

(d) Each solicitor and solicitor firm shall handle funds received for the account of plans, subscribers, or groups in accordance with such rules as the commissioner may adopt pursuant to this subdivision.

(e) The commissioner may, by regulation, designate requirements of this section or regulations adopted pursuant to this section, from which public entities and political subdivisions of the state shall be exempt.

SEC. 268. Section 1392 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1392. (a) In the case of any violation of the provisions of this chapter, the commissioner may institute a proceeding, or the commissioner may request the Attorney General to institute a proceeding, to obtain injunctive or other equitable relief, including the appointment of a receiver or conservator for the defendant or the defendant's assets, in the superior court in and for the county in which the violation occurs, or in which the principal place of business of the plan is located. The proceeding under this section shall conform with the requirements of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, except that the commissioner shall not be required to allege facts necessary to show lack of adequate remedy at law, or to show irreparable loss or damage.

(b) Upon a proper showing, the court shall grant the relief provided by law and requested by the commissioner.

(c) A receiver or conservator appointed by the superior court pursuant to this section may, with the approval of the court, exercise all of the powers of the officers and directors of the plan, including the filing of a petition for bankruptcy. No action at law or in equity may be maintained by any party against the commissioner, or a receiver or conservator, by reason of their exercising the powers of the officers and directors of a plan pursuant to the order of, or with the approval of, the superior court.

SEC. 269. Section 1560 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1560. (a) The director shall require as a condition precedent to the issuance, or renewal, of any license or special permit for a community care facility, if the licensee or holder of a special permit handles or will handle any money of a person within the community care facility, that the applicant for the license or special permit or the renewal of the license or special permit file or have on file with the state department a bond issued by a surety company admitted to do business in this state in a sum to be fixed by the state department based upon the magnitude of the operations of the applicant, but which sum shall not be less than one thousand dollars ($1,000), running to the State of California and conditioned upon his or her faithful and honest handling of the money of persons within the facility.

(b) The failure of any licensee under this chapter to maintain on file with the state department a bond in the amount prescribed by the director or who embezzles the trust funds of a person in the facility shall constitute cause for the revocation of the license.

(c) The provisions of this section shall not apply if the licensee meets both of the following requirements:

(1) The licensee operates a community care facility which is licensed to care for children including, but not limited to, a family day care home or foster family home.

(2) The licensee handles moneys of persons within the community care facility in amounts less than fifty dollars ($50) per person and less than five hundred dollars ($500) for all persons in any month.

SEC. 270. Section 1712 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1712. (a) Any violation of this chapter, of the regulations promulgated thereunder or of a cease and desist order issued by the department under Section 1711 or 1711.1 may be enjoined by the superior court in any county, on application of the department.

(b) Proceedings under this section shall be governed by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 271. Section 1773 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1773. Before issuing the certificate of authority, the state department may, if it deems it necessary to safeguard the interests of the aged in the state, require any applicant for a certificate to file with the state department, and maintain in effect during the period that the certificate of authority is in force, a bond executed by an admitted surety insurer, in an amount satisfactory to the state department, conditioned that the principal will faithfully perform all obligations undertaken by the principal pursuant to the certificate of authority, to and for the use and benefit of all persons who may be injured or aggrieved by the failure of the principal to perform any such obligation.

SEC. 272. Section 1812 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1812. If it appears from the complaint in the action that the property on which the lien is to be foreclosed is likely to be removed from the jurisdiction of the court, the court may appoint a receiver to take possession of the property and hold it while the action is pending or until the defendant executes and files a bond, conditioned for the payment of any judgment that may be recovered against the defendant in the action and of all costs.

SEC. 273. Section 8734 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

8734. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b), (c), and (d), the board of trustees or corporate trustee of an endowment care fund or one or more special care funds shall file a fidelity bond executed by an admitted surety insurer with the Cemetery Board in the amount of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), guaranteeing payment to each such fund of any monetary loss incurred by the fund occasioned by acts of fraud or dishonesty by the trustees or trustee. The board of trustees or corporate trustee of both an endowment care fund and one or more special care funds need file only one such bond.

(b) Any cemetery authority which has a fidelity bond on all officers and employees issued by an admitted surety insurer and which by its terms would cover any acts of fraud or dishonesty by the trustees or corporate trustee of its endowment and special care funds need not file a separate bond with the Cemetery Board as provided in subdivision (a), but shall submit to the Cemetery Board satisfactory evidence of such a fidelity bond. Such fidelity bond, except as provided in subdivision (c), shall provide at least fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) specifically designated to guarantee payment of any monetary loss incurred by the endowment care or special care funds of the cemetery authority occasioned by any acts of fraud or dishonesty by the board of trustees or corporate trustee thereof.

(c) Upon application, the Cemetery Board may reduce the amount of the bond required pursuant to this section if moneys in the endowment care fund and special care funds administered by the applicant board of trustees or corporate trustee are substantially less than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000). In such cases, the Cemetery Board may permit filing of a bond pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) which, while the bond is on file, is not less than the aggregate amount of all moneys in the endowment care fund and special care funds administered by the applicant. If the Cemetery Board permits exceptions pursuant to this subdivision, it shall adopt procedures to assure that affected bonds do not fall below such amount.

(d) The trustees or corporate trustee of an endowment care fund or special care fund shall take no action respecting trust funds unless there is on file with the board a bond as required by this section. The Cemetery Board may suspend the certificate of authority of any cemetery authority having endowment or special care funds with respect to which there is no bond on file with the board as required by this section, or whenever such a bond falls below the amount required by this section.

(e) Any state or national bank authorized to engage in the trust business pursuant to Division 1 (commencing with Section 99) of the Financial Code shall be exempt from the requirements of this section.

SEC. 274. Section 11126 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 275. Section 11574 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11574. On granting the temporary writ the court or judge shall require an undertaking on the part of the applicant to the effect that the applicant will pay to the defendant enjoined such damages, not exceeding an amount to be specified, as the defendant sustains by reason of the injunction if the court finally decides that the applicant was not entitled to the injunction.

SEC. 276. Section 11586 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11586. (a) If the owner of the building or place has not been guilty of any contempt of court in the proceedings, and appears and pays all costs, fees, and allowances that are a lien on the building or place and files a bond in the full value of the property conditioned that the owner will immediately abate any nuisance that may exist at the building or place and prevent it from being established or kept thereat within a period of one year thereafter, the court, or judge may, if satisfied of the owner's good faith, order the building or place to be delivered to the owner, and the order of abatement canceled so far as it may relate to the property.

(b) The release of property under the provisions of this division does not release it from any judgment, lien, penalty, or liability to which it may be subject.

SEC. 277. Section 42355 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

42355. (a) The hearing board may require, as a condition of granting a variance, that a bond be posted by the party to whom the variance was granted to assure performance of any construction, alteration, repair, or other work required by the terms and conditions of the variance. The bond may provide that, if the party granted the variance fails to perform the work by the agreed date, the bond shall be forfeited to the district having jurisdiction, or the sureties shall have the option of promptly remedying the variance default or paying to the district an amount, up to the amount specified in the bond, that is necessary to accomplish the work specified as a condition of the variance.

(b) The provisions of this section do not apply to vessels so long as the vessels are not operating in violation of any federal law enacted for the purpose of controlling emissions from combustion of vessel fuels.

SEC. 278. Section 847 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

847. At the time of filing an application for a broker's certificate, the applicant shall file with the commissioner a bond for five thousand dollars, payable to the people of the State of California, for the use and benefit of any interested person, to be approved by the commissioner. The bond shall be conditioned upon the following conduct by the broker, the broker's agents, and employees:

(a) Strict compliance with the provisions of this article.

(b) Honest and faithful application of all funds received.

(c) Honest and faithful performance of all obligations and undertakings in the purchase or sale of securities.

(d) Payment of all damages suffered by any person damaged or defrauded by reason of the violation of any of the provisions of this article, or by reason of any fraud connected with or growing out of any transaction contemplated by the provisions of this article.

SEC. 279. Section 848 of the Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 280. Section 849 of the Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 281. Section 1300.5 of the Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 282. Section 1326 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1326. The attorney's bond shall be in the penal sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), conditioned that the attorney will faithfully account for all moneys and other property which come into his or her hands or are handled by him or her under the terms of the power of attorney and the rules of the exchange, and that the attorney will neither withdraw nor cause to be withdrawn nor appropriate for his or her own use, from the funds of the exchange, anything of value to which he or she is not entitled under the terms of the power of attorney and the rules.

SEC. 283. Section 1616 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1616. Before any nonadmitted foreign or alien insurer shall file or cause to be filed any pleading in any action, suit or proceeding instituted against it, the insurer shall either (1) procure a certificate of authority to transact insurance in this state; or (2) give a bond in the action, suit or proceeding in an amount to be fixed by the court sufficient to secure the payment of any final judgment which may be rendered in the action, suit, or proceeding.

SEC. 284. Section 1620 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1620. (a) The provisions of the preceding sections of this article shall not apply to any action, suit or proceeding against any unauthorized foreign or alien insurer arising out of any contract of insurance effected in accordance with Sections 1760.5 and 1763 where such contract contains a provision designating a resident of this state or any firm of which one member is a resident of this state to be its true and lawful attorney upon whom may be served all lawful process in any such action, suit or proceeding.

(b) In any such action, suit or proceeding arising out of any such contract of insurance, the court may require the insurer to file a bond, in an amount sufficient to secure the payment of any final judgment which may be rendered unless the insurer makes a showing satisfactory to the court that it maintains in a state of the United States funds or securities in trust or otherwise, sufficient and available to satisfy any such final judgment and that it will pay the judgment without requiring suit to be brought thereon in the state where the securities or funds are located.

SEC. 285. Section 1664 of the Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 286. Section 1665 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1665. The bond of an insurance broker shall be in the amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000). The bond shall be contingent on the accounting by the broker to any person requesting the broker to obtain insurance, for moneys or premiums collected by the broker for insurance other than life.

SEC. 287. Section 1760.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1760.5. (a) The provisions of this chapter limiting the insurance which may be placed with nonadmitted insurers and requiring any report thereof shall not apply to:

(1) Reinsurance of the liability of an admitted insurer.

(2) Insurance against perils of navigation, transit or transportation upon hulls, freights or disbursements, or other shipowner interests; upon goods, wares, merchandise and all other personal property and interests therein, in course of exportation from or importation into any country, or transportation coastwise, including transportation by land or water from point of origin to final destination and including war risks; and marine builder's risks, drydocks and marine railways, including insurance of ship repairer's liability, and protection and indemnity insurance, but excluding insurance covering bridges or tunnels.

(3) Aircraft insurance.

(4) Insurance on property or operations of railroads engaged in interstate commerce.

(b) The insurance specified in paragraphs (2), (3), and (4) of subdivision (a) may be placed with a nonadmitted insurer only by and through a special lines' surplus line broker. The license of a special lines' surplus line broker shall be applied for and procured and shall be subject to the same fees for filing on issuance in the same manner as the license of a surplus line broker, except that in lieu of the bond required by Section 1765, there shall be delivered to the commissioner a bond in the form, amounts, and conditions specified in Sections 1663 and 1665 for an insurance broker and only one fee shall be collected from one person for both licenses. The licensee in respect to the business shall be subject to all the provisions of this chapter except Sections 1761, 1763, and 1775.5.

(c) The commissioner may, in respect to business written or placed under the provisions of this section, require such information and reports thereof as the commissioner considers necessary, convenient or advisable for tax or statistical purposes.

(d) Each placing of insurance in violation of this chapter is a misdemeanor.

(e) The commissioner may revoke, suspend or deny any license granted pursuant to this code in accordance with the procedure provided in Article 13 (commencing with Section 1737) of Chapter 5, or any certificate of authority granted pursuant to this code in accordance with the procedure provided in Section 704 whenever the commissioner finds that the licensee or holder of the certificate has committed a violation of this section.

(f) The premium for insurance placed by or through a special lines' surplus line broker pursuant to this section shall not be subject to the tax imposed upon the broker based upon gross premiums paid for insurance placed under authority conferred by the license.

SEC. 288. Section 1765 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1765. (a) A license under this chapter shall be applied for and renewed by the filing with the commissioner of a written application therefor, in accordance with the provisions of Section 1652.

(b) Subject to subdivision (f) of this section, the commissioner shall issue a license authorizing any applicant who is trustworthy and competent to transact an insurance brokerage business in such manner as to safeguard the interest of the insured, to act as a surplus line broker from the date of the license until the expiration date specified in subdivision (b) of Section 1630.

(c) An applicant for a surplus line broker's license shall, as part of the application and a condition of the issuance of the license, file a bond to the people of the State of California in the sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), conditioned that the licensee will fully and faithfully comply with the requirements of this chapter, and all applicable provisions of this code. The bond shall be subject to the provisions of Sections 1662 and 1663.

(d) The filing fee for a license to act as a surplus line broker, and naming up to two natural persons on the license, shall be two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per year, or for any initial fractional license year. If more than two natural persons are named on the license, an additional fee of seventy dollars ($70) per year, or for any initial fractional license year, shall be paid for each additional natural person named on the license.

(e) Such license shall be renewed in accordance with and subject to, the provisions of Sections 1717, 1718, 1719, and 1720.

(f) The commissioner may deny, suspend or revoke any license applied for or granted pursuant to this chapter on all or any one of the grounds and in accordance with the procedures provided in Article 6 (commencing with Section 1666) and Article 13 (commencing with Section 1737) of Chapter 5, whenever the commissioner finds that the applicant or licensee has committed a violation of any provision of this code.

SEC. 289. Section 1766 of the Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 290. Section 1803.5 of the Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 291. Section 1841 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1841. (a) Every applicant for a license to act as a life insurance analyst shall file with the application or maintain in effect a bond to the people of the State of California, duly executed by an admitted surety insurer, approved by the commissioner, in the amount of two thousand dollars ($2,000).

(b) The bond shall indemnify any person who may be damaged by any fraudulent act or conduct of the licensee in connection with the licensee's activities as a life insurance analyst and shall be conditioned upon the faithful accounting and application of all moneys coming into the licensee's possession in connection with the activities as a life insurance analyst.

SEC. 292. Section 11011 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11011. The articles of incorporation, duly certified copies of the constitution, laws and rules, copies of all proposed forms of certificates, applications therefor, and circulars to be issued by the society, and a bond, conditioned upon the return to applicants of the advanced payments if the organization is not completed within one year, such bond to be in the amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) and approved by the commissioner, shall be filed with the commissioner, who may require such further information as the commissioner deems necessary. All documents filed are to be in the English language. If the purposes of the society conform to the requirements of this chapter and all provisions of the law have been complied with, the commissioner shall so certify, retain and file the articles of incorporation and furnish the incorporators a preliminary certificate authorizing the society to solicit members as hereinafter provided. Copies of the articles of incorporation shall also be filed with the Secretary of State.

SEC. 293. Section 11696 of the Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 294. Section 11698 of the Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 295. Section 11711 of the Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 296. Section 11712 of the Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 297. Section 12629.43 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

12629.43. No appeal from an order of the superior court approving or modifying a plan shall be effectual for any purpose unless within 30 days after the entry of the order the appellant or appellants file with the clerk of the court a bond to the effect that the appellant or appellants, in the event the order is affirmed on appeal, will pay all of respondent's costs, expenses and reasonable attorney's fees arising from the appeal, and also all losses and damages to the certificate holders, creditors and other persons, if any, affected by the plan, arising from any delay in consummating the plan during the pendency of the appeal. The form of the bond shall be approved and the amount of the bond fixed by the superior court. In no case shall the bond be for an amount greater than 1 percent of the total liabilities of the insurer, provided that if mortgage participation certificates are affected by the plan the bond shall be for an amount not more than 1 percent of the total liabilities of the insurer plus 1 percent of the aggregate face amount of all mortgage participation certificates of the insurer outstanding.

SEC. 298. Section 240 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

240. (a) If any employer has been convicted of a violation of any provision of this article, or if any judgment against an employer for nonpayment of wages remains unsatisfied for a period of 10 days after the time to appeal therefrom has expired, and no appeal therefrom is then pending, the Labor Commissioner may require the employer to deposit a bond in such sum as the Labor Commissioner may deem sufficient and adequate in the circumstances, to be approved by the Labor Commissioner. The bond shall be payable to the Labor Commissioner and shall be conditioned that the employer shall, for a definite future period, not exceeding six months, pay the employees in accordance with the provisions of this article, and shall be further conditioned upon the payment by the employer of any judgment which may be recovered against the employer pursuant to the provisions of this article.

(b) If within 10 days after demand for the bond, which demand may be made by mail, the employer fails to deposit the bond, the Labor Commissioner may bring an action in the name and on behalf of the people of the State of California against the employer in a court of competent jurisdiction to compel the employer to furnish the bond or to cease doing business until the employer has done so. The employer has the burden of proving either that the bond is unnecessary or that the amount demanded is excessive. If the court finds that there is just cause for requiring the bond, and that the bond is reasonably necessary or proper to secure prompt payment of the wages of the employees of the employer and the employer's compliance with the provisions of this article, the court may enjoin the employer, whether an individual, partnership, corporation, company, trust, or association, and such other person or persons as may have been or may be concerned with or in any way participating in the failure to pay the wages resulting in the conviction or in the judgment, from doing business until the requirement is met, and make other and further orders appropriate to compel compliance with the requirement.

SEC. 299. Section 1684 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

1684. The Labor Commissioner shall not issue to any person a license to act as a farm labor contractor, nor shall the Labor Commissioner renew such license, until all of the following conditions are satisfied:

(a) The person has executed a written application therefor in a form prescribed by the Labor Commissioner, subscribed and sworn to by the person, and containing (1) a statement by the person of all facts required by the Labor Commissioner concerning the applicant's character, competency, responsibility, and the manner and method by which the person proposes to conduct operations as a farm labor contractor if the license is issued, and (2) the names and addresses of all persons except bona fide employees on stated salaries, financially interested, either as partners, associates or profit sharers, in the proposed operation as a farm labor contractor, together with the amount of their respective interests.

(b) The Labor Commissioner, after investigation, is satisfied as to the character, competency, and responsibility of the person.

(c) The person has deposited with the Labor Commissioner a surety bond in the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000). The bond shall be payable to the people of the State of California and shall be conditioned that the farm labor contractor will comply with all the terms and provisions of this chapter and will pay all damages occasioned to any person by failure so to do, or by any violation of the provisions of this chapter, or false statements or misrepresentations made in the procurement of the license. If a deposit is given instead of a bond, the Labor Commissioner may charge reasonable legal fees against the deposit for handling claims, other than wage claims, filed against the deposit.

(d) The person has paid to the Labor Commissioner a license fee of one hundred dollars ($100) plus a filing fee of ten dollars ($10). However, where a timely application for renewal is filed, the ten-dollar ($10) filing fee is not required. The Labor Commissioner shall deposit twenty-five dollars ($25) of each licensee's annual license fee into a separate account. Funds from this account shall be disbursed by the Labor Commissioner only to persons determined by the Labor Commissioner to have been damaged by any licensee when the damage exceeds the limits of the licensee's bond. Any disbursed funds subsequently recovered by the Labor Commissioner pursuant to Section 1693, or otherwise, shall be returned to the separate account.

(e) The person in an oral or written examination, or both, demonstrates a degree of knowledge of the laws and administrative regulations concerning farm labor contractors as the Labor Commissioner deems necessary for the safety and protection of farmers, farmworkers and the public. The Labor Commissioner may charge a fee of not more than thirty-five dollars ($35) to cover the cost of administration of the examination. The Labor Commissioner may also renew a license without requiring the applicant for renewal to take an oral or written examination if the Labor Commissioner finds that the applicant has complied with the requirements of this chapter.

(f) The person has registered as a farm labor contractor pursuant to the Federal Farm Labor Contractor Registration Act (Chapter 52 (commencing with Section 2041), Title 7, United States Code), when registration is required pursuant to federal law.

SEC. 300. Section 1687 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

1687. (a) Each license shall contain, on the face thereof, all of the following:

(1) The name and address of the licensee and the fact that the licensee is licensed to act as a farm labor contractor for the period upon the face of the license only.

(2) The number, date of issuance, and date of expiration of the license.

(3) The amount of the surety bond deposited by the licensee.

(4) The fact that the license may not be transferred or assigned.

(b) The license shall contain on the back thereof the definition of a farm labor contractor, as defined by subdivision (b) of Section 1682.

SEC. 301. Section 1688 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

1688. The license when first issued shall run to the next birthday of the applicant, and each license shall then be renewed within the 30 days preceding the licensee's birthday and shall run from birthday to birthday. In case the applicant is a partnership or corporation, the license for a partnership shall be renewed within the 30 days preceding the birthday of the oldest partner, and the license for a corporation shall be renewed within the 30 days preceding the anniversary of the date the corporation was lawfully formed. Renewal shall require the filing of an application for renewal, a renewal bond, and the payment of the annual license fee, but the Labor Commissioner may demand that a new application or a new bond be submitted.

SEC. 302. Section 1688.5 of the Labor Code is repealed.

SEC. 303. Section 1691 of the Labor Code is repealed.

SEC. 304. Section 1693 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

1693. The Labor Commissioner and the deputies and representatives authorized by the Labor Commissioner in writing may take assignments of actions on the bond against licensees by persons damaged and may prosecute such actions on behalf of persons who, in the judgment of the Labor Commissioner, are financially unable to employ counsel, in the same manner that claims are prosecuted under Section 98.

SEC. 305. Section 1697 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

1697. (a) Any person who violates any provisions of this chapter, or who causes or induces another to violate any provisions of this chapter, is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500), or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or both.

(b) Any employee aggrieved by any violation of this chapter, other than acts and conduct also proscribed by Sections 1153, 1154, and 1155, may do all of the following:

(1) Bring a civil action for injunctive relief or damages, or both, against the farm labor contractor and, upon prevailing, shall recover reasonable attorney's fees.

(2) Enforce the liability on the farm labor contractor's bond.

SEC. 306. Section 1700.17 of the Labor Code is repealed.

SEC. 307. Section 1700.42 of the Labor Code is repealed.

SEC. 308. Section 1700.43 of the Labor Code is repealed.

SEC. 309. Section 3712 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3712. (a) The securing of the payment of compensation in a way provided in this division is essential to the functioning of the expressly declared social public policy of this state in the matter of workers' compensation. The conduct or operation of any business or undertaking without full compensation security, in continuing violation of social policy, shall be subject to imposition of business strictures and monetary penalties by the director, including, but not limited to, resort to the superior court of any county in which all or some part of the business is being thus unlawfully conducted or operated, for carrying out the intent of this article.

(b) In a proceeding before the superior court in matters concerned with this article, no filing fee shall be charged to the plaintiff; nor may any charge or cost be imposed for any act or service required of or done by any state or county officer or employee in connection with the proceeding. If the court or the judge before whom the order to show cause in the proceeding is made returnable, finds that the defendant is conducting or operating a business or undertaking without the full compensation security required, the court or judge shall forthwith, and without continuance, issue an order restraining the future or further conduct and operation of the business or undertaking so long as the violation of social public policy continues. The action shall be prosecuted by the Attorney General of California, the district attorney of the county in which suit is brought, the city attorney of any city in which such a business or undertaking is being operated or conducted without full compensation security, or any attorney possessing civil service status who is an employee of the Department of Industrial Relations who may be designated by the director for that purpose. No finding made in the course of any such action is binding on the appeals board in any subsequent proceeding before it for benefits under this division.

SEC. 310. Section 6000 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

6000. The operation of any order, decision, or award of the appeals board under the provisions of this division or any judgment entered thereon, shall not at any time be stayed by the court to which petition is made for a writ of review, unless an undertaking is executed on the part of the petitioner.

SEC. 311. Section 7303 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

7303. Whenever any elevator in any place of employment is being operated without the permit herein required, and is in such condition that its use is dangerous to the life or safety of any employee, the division or any person affected thereby may apply to the superior court of the county in which the elevator is located for an injunction restraining the operation of the elevator until the condition is corrected. Proof by certification of the division that a permit has not been issued, together with the affidavit of any safety inspector of the division that the operation of the elevator is dangerous to the life or safety of any employee, is sufficient ground, in the discretion of the court, for the immediate granting of a temporary restraining order.

SEC. 312. Section 7343 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

7343. Whenever an aerial passenger tramway in any place is being operated without the permit herein required, and is in such condition that its use is dangerous to the life or safety of any person, the division, or any person affected thereby, may apply to the superior court of the county in which the aerial passenger tramway is located for an injunction restraining the operation of the aerial passenger tramway until the condition is corrected. Proof by certification of the division that a permit has not been issued, together with the affidavit of any safety engineer of the division that the operation of the aerial passenger tramway is dangerous to the life or safety of any person, is sufficient ground, in the discretion of the court, for the immediate granting of a temporary restraining order.

SEC. 313. Section 7912 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

7912. No person shall operate an amusement ride unless at the time there is in existence either a policy of insurance in an amount of not less than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) insuring the owner or operator against liability for injury suffered by persons riding the amusement ride or a bond in a like amount.

SEC. 314. Section 925 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

925. (a) No money shall be transferred to any person under this article except to the treasurer or financial officer whose name is given in the statement required by Section 922.

(b) The treasurer or financial officer shall, before receiving any money hereunder, file with the board of supervisors a bond or undertaking in an amount fixed by the board of supervisors. The bond shall inure to the benefit of the county and shall be conditioned upon the faithful and honest administration of the funds intrusted to the officer.

SEC. 315. Section 706 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

706. If, however, there is just reason to fear the commission of the offense, the person complained of may be required to enter into an undertaking in such sum, not exceeding five thousand dollars, as the magistrate may direct, to keep the peace towards the people of this state, and particularly towards the informer. The undertaking is valid and binding for six months, and may, upon the renewal of the information, be extended for a longer period, or a new undertaking may be required.

SEC. 316. Section 1276 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

1276. (a) A bail bond or undertaking of bail of an admitted surety insurer shall be accepted or approved by a court or magistrate without further acknowledgment if executed by a licensed bail agent of the insurer under penalty of perjury and issued in the name of the insurer by a person authorized to do so by an unrevoked power of attorney on file in the office of the clerk of the county in which the court or magistrate is located.

(b) One person may both execute and issue the bail bond or undertaking of bail if qualified as provided in this section.

SEC. 317. Section 1447 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1447. When the defendant is acquitted in an inferior court, if the court certify in the minutes that the prosecution was malicious and without probable cause, the court may order the complainant to pay the costs of the action, or to give an undertaking to pay the costs within 30 days after the trial.

SEC. 318. Section 1448 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1448. If the complainant does not pay the costs, or give an undertaking therefor, the court may enter judgment against the complainant for the amount of the costs, which may be enforced in all respects in the same manner as a judgment rendered in a civil action.

SEC. 319. Section 11202 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

11202. Whenever the existence of a nuisance is shown in an action brought under this article to the satisfaction of the court or judge thereof, either by verified complaint or affidavit, and the court or judge is satisfied that the owner of the property has received written notice of the existence of the nuisance, signed by the complainant or the district attorney at least two weeks prior to the filing of the complaint, the court or judge shall allow a temporary writ of injunction to abate and prevent the continuance or recurrence of the nuisance. On granting such writ the court or judge shall require an undertaking on the part of the applicant to the effect that the applicant will pay to the party enjoined such damages, not exceeding an amount to be specified, as the opposing party may sustain by reason of the injunction, if the court finally decides that the applicant was not entitled to the injunction.

SEC. 320. Section 11232 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

11232. If the owner of the building or place is not guilty of any contempt of court in the proceedings, and appears and pays all costs, fees and allowances which are a lien on the building or place and files a bond in the full value of the property, to be ascertained by the court, conditioned that the owner will immediately abate any nuisance that may exist at the building or place and prevent the nuisance from being established or kept thereat within a period of one year thereafter, the court, or judge thereof, may, if satisfied of the owner's good faith, order the premises closed under the order of abatement, to be delivered to the owner, and the order of abatement canceled so far as the order relates to the property. The release of the property under the provisions of this section does not release it from any judgment, lien, penalty or liability to which it may be subject by law.

SEC. 321. Section 11308 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

11308. If the existence of a nuisance as defined in this article is shown in any action brought under this article to the satisfaction of the court or judge, either by verified complaint or affidavit, the court or judge shall allow a temporary writ of injunction to abate and prevent the continuance or recurrence of the nuisance. On granting the temporary writ the court or judge shall require an undertaking on the part of the applicant to the effect that the applicant will pay to the defendant enjoined such damages, not exceeding an amount to be specified, as the defendant sustains by reason of the injunction if the court finally decides that the applicant was not entitled to it.

SEC. 322. Section 11314 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

11314. If the owner of the means of conveyance has not been guilty of any contempt of court in a proceeding brought under this article, and appears and pays all costs, fees, and allowances that are a lien on the means of conveyance and files a bond in the full value of the means of conveyance, to be ascertained by the court, conditioned that the owner will immediately abate the nuisance and prevent it from being established or resumed within a period of one year thereafter, the court or judge may, if satisfied of the owner's good faith, order the means of conveyance to be delivered to the owner, and the order of abatement canceled so far as it may relate thereto. The release of such means of conveyance under the provisions of this section does not release it from any judgment, lien, penalty, or liability to which it may be subject.

SEC. 323. Section 287 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

287. In case any person shall, within the period of three years after the appointment and qualification of a representative, file a verified petition, claiming to be the missing person and shall also cause a copy thereof to be served personally or by registered mail upon the legal representative and upon each of the heirs, legatees and devisees, an issue shall thereupon be presented to the court to determine the identity of the claimant which issue shall be tried and determined by the court. The court may upon application or of its own motion require the claimant to give an undertaking to be approved by the court for all costs, and expenses involved in the hearing and ultimate determination thereof, in case the issue be decided against the claimant.

SEC. 324. Section 541 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

541. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, every person to whom letters testamentary or of administration are directed to issue (unless the testator has waived such requirement) shall, before receiving them, execute a bond to the State of California, to be approved by a judge of the superior court, conditioned that the executor or administrator shall faithfully execute the duties of the trust according to law. If the bond is to be given by personal sureties, the amount shall be not less than twice the value of the personal property and twice the value of the probable annual income from the real property belonging to the estate, which values shall be ascertained by the court or judge by examining on oath the party applying, and any other persons. If the bond is to be given by an admitted surety insurer, the court in its discretion may fix the amount of the bond at not less than the value of the personal property and the probable value of the annual rents, issues and profits of all of the property belonging to the estate.

(b) Unless the will provides for a requirement of a bond, if a verified petition for letters testamentary or of administration alleges that all beneficiaries under the last will and testament of the decedent, or that all heirs at law of the decedent, have waived the filing of a bond, the court, on the hearing of the petition, if the petition so requests, shall direct that no bond be filed.

SEC. 325. Section 541.3 of the Probate Code is repealed.

SEC. 326. Section 545 of the Probate Code is repealed.

SEC. 327. Section 546 of the Probate Code is repealed.

SEC. 328. Section 547 of the Probate Code is repealed.

SEC. 329. Section 548 of the Probate Code is repealed.

SEC. 330. Section 549 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

549. If the court orders that a sufficient surety be substituted or that a new, additional, or supplemental bond be filed, and this is not done within the time fixed by the order, the right of the executor or administrator to the administration shall cease, and the person next entitled to administer the estate, who will execute a sufficient bond, must be appointed. If letters have already been issued to the executor or administrator, the letters shall be revoked, and the authority of the executor or administrator shall thereupon cease.

SEC. 331. Section 550 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

550. When a petition is presented praying that an executor or administrator be required to give bond, where no bond was originally required, or an objection is made to the sufficiency of the bond, and it is alleged, on oath, that the executor or administrator is wasting the property of the estate, the judge, by order, may suspend the powers of the executor or administrator until the matter can be heard and determined.

SEC. 332. Section 551 of the Probate Code is repealed.

SEC. 333. Section 552 of the Probate Code is repealed.

SEC. 334. Section 553 of the Probate Code is repealed.

SEC. 335. Section 553.3 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

553.3. If an administrator or executor moves to have the amount of the bond reduced, the motion shall include an affidavit setting forth the condition of the estate and notice of hearing shall be given in the manner required by Section 1200.5.

SEC. 336. Section 553.5 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

553.5. Any executor or administrator who applies for a substitution and release of a surety shall file with the application an accounting as required by Section 921. The court shall not order a substitution unless the accounting is approved.

SEC. 337. Section 553.6 of the Probate Code is repealed.

SEC. 338. Section 554 of the Probate Code is repealed.

SEC. 339. Section 580 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

580. (a) A creditor making such application must pay such part of the cost and expenses of the suit, or give an undertaking to the executor or administrator therefor, as the court or a judge thereof shall direct.

(b) All property so recovered must be sold for the payment of debts, in the same manner as if the decedent had died seised or possessed thereof, and the proceeds must be appropriated in payment of the debts of the decedent in the same manner as other property in the hands of the executor or administrator. The remainder of the proceeds, after all the debts of the decedent have been paid, must be paid to the person from whom such property was recovered.

SEC. 340. Section 684 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

684. No stay shall be had of payment of any family allowance, or of any installment thereof, pending appeal from an order relating thereto, even though the court, acting under the provisions of Section 916 of the Code of Civil Procedure, shall dispense with or limit the security required of an appellant, if the person in whose favor the allowance is made shall, at any time before the making of such payment, execute and file an undertaking in double the amount of such payment or payments. The undertaking shall be conditioned that if the judgment or order appealed from, or any part thereof, is so modified or reversed that the payment, or any part thereof, proves to be unwarranted, the payment shall, unless deducted from any final or partial distribution ordered in favor of the person for whom the allowance was awarded, be repaid and refunded into the estate within 30 days after the trial court so orders following modification or reversal, together with interest and costs.

SEC. 341. Section 759 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

759. If there is any neglect or misconduct in the proceedings of the executor or administrator in relation to any sale, by which any person interested in the estate suffers damage, the party aggrieved may recover the damage by enforcing the liability upon the bond of the executor or administrator, or otherwise.

SEC. 342. Section 2329 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

2329. (a) If a guardian or conservator moves the court for reduction in the amount of the bond, the motion shall include an affidavit setting forth the condition of the estate.

(b) Notice of hearing shall be given for the period and in the manner provided in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1460) of Part 1.

(c) Nothing in this section limits the authority of the court to reduce the amount of the bond with or without notice under Section 2328.

SEC. 343. Section 2331 of the Probate Code is repealed.

SEC. 344. Section 2332 of the Probate Code is repealed.

SEC. 345. Section 2334 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

2334. When a petition is filed requesting an order under this section that a guardian or conservator be required to give a bond where no bond was originally required, or an objection is made to the sufficiency of the bond, and the petition alleges facts showing that the guardian or conservator is failing to use ordinary care and diligence in the management of the estate, the court, by order, may suspend the powers of the guardian or conservator until the matter can be heard and determined.

SEC. 346. Section 2335 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

2335. A guardian or conservator who applies for a substitution and release of a surety shall file with the application an accounting. The court shall not order a substitution unless the accounting is approved.

SEC. 347. Section 2336 of the Probate Code is repealed.

SEC. 348. Section 3150 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

3150. (a) Unless the court for good cause dispenses with the bond, the court shall require the petitioner to give a bond, in the amount fixed by the court, conditioned on the duty of the petitioner to account for and apply the proceeds of the transaction to be received by the petitioner only as the court may by order direct.

(b) Unless the court for good cause fixes the amount of the bond in a lesser amount, if given by an authorized surety company, the bond shall be in an amount not less than the value of the personal property (including cash and any notes) to be received by the petitioner, as determined by the court.

(c) If the sureties on the bond are individual sureties, the bond shall be approved by the court and shall be for twice the amount required for a bond given by an authorized surety company.

(d) Section 2328 is applicable to the bond of the petitioner under this chapter.

SEC. 348.3. Section 10200 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

10200. A bidder shall not be relieved of the bid nor shall any change be made in the bid because of mistake, but the bidder may bring an action against the department in a court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the bids were opened for the recovery of the amount forfeited, without interest or costs. If the plaintiff fails to recover judgment, the plaintiff shall pay all costs incurred by the department in the suit, including a reasonable attorney's fee to be fixed by the court.

SEC. 348.4. Section 10221 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

10221. Every contract shall provide for the filing of separate performance and payment bonds by the contractor in the form of bonds executed by an admitted surety insurer and not deposits in lieu of bond, subject to the approval of the department.

SEC. 348.5. Section 10225 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

10225. No payment shall be made upon the contract to the contractor or any assignee of the contractor until any order by the director that a sufficient surety be substituted on the bond or that a new, additional, or supplemental bond be given, is satisfied. No cancellation of or withdrawal of a surety from a bond is effective unless approved by the director.

SEC. 349. Section 3205.5 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

3205.5. In lieu of the bond required by Sections 3204, 3205, and 3205.1, a deposit may, with the written approval of the supervisor, be given pursuant to Article 7 (commencing with Section 995.710) of Chapter 2 of Title 14 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, other than a deposit of money or bearer bonds or bearer notes.

SEC. 350. Section 3344 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

3344. (a) Whenever it appears that any person is violating or threatening to violate any provision of this article, or any rule, regulation or order of the supervisor, the supervisor may bring suit against the person in the superior court of any county where the violation occurs or is threatened, to restrain the person from continuing the violation or from carrying out the threat of violation. Upon the filing of the suit, summons issued to the person may be directed to the sheriff or his or her deputies. In the suit, the court has jurisdiction to grant to the supervisor such prohibitory and mandatory injunctions either preliminary or final as the facts may warrant.

(b) If the supervisor fails to bring suit to enjoin a violation or threatened violation of any provision of this article, or any rule, regulation or order of the supervisor within 10 days after receipt of written request to do so by any person who is or will be adversely affected by the violation, the person making the request may bring suit in the person's own behalf to restrain the violation or threatened violation in any court in which the supervisor might have brought suit. If in the suit, the court should hold that injunctive relief should be granted, then the supervisor shall be made a party and shall be substituted for the person who brought the suit, and the injunction shall be issued as if the supervisor had at all times been the plaintiff.

(c) No civil action for damages shall lie against any person for the violation of this article or any rule, regulation or order of the supervisor, except against an owner of the working interest, and particularly no such suit or action shall lie against any lessor, royalty owner, contractor or purchaser of the oil and gas, and no such suit or action shall lie against an owner of the working interest, except suits or actions for damages occurring subsequent to the entry of an order or decision of the supervisor which result from a failure to comply with the order or decision.

(d) If the supervisor brings a suit or action pursuant to this article, no defendant or intervenor shall be permitted to cross-complain or otherwise bring an action in the same proceeding against any other person for damages or for any other purpose.

SEC. 351. Section 3728.5 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

3728.5. In lieu of the bond required by Sections 3723.5, 3725, 3725.5, and 3726, a deposit may, with the written approval of the supervisor, be given pursuant to Article 7 (commencing with Section 995.710) of Chapter 2 of Title 14 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, other than a deposit of money or bearer bonds or bearer notes.

SEC. 352. Section 4606 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

4606. If upon a hearing to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not be issued, or upon a hearing of any motion for a preliminary injunction, or if the court should find in any such action that any such defendant is violating, threatens to violate, or has violated, any provision of this chapter or rules and regulations of the board, the court may not only order the discontinuance of any timber operations in which the violation has occurred, is threatening to occur, or is occurring, but may also enjoin any further timber operations by the defendant in this state until the violations complained of have been corrected or until satisfactory provisions have been approved by the court for the violations to be corrected at a specified date. Any defendant in such proceedings may enter into a written agreement with the department assuring that such defendant will resume operations in compliance with the provisions of this chapter or the rules and regulations of the board and correct the violations on such reasonable terms and conditions as the department may require. Upon approval by the court, any temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction, or permanent injunction may include or be amended to include an order that any defendant entering into such an agreement comply with the terms of the agreement as a condition for engaging in any timber operations enjoined by the temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction, or permanent injunction. The court may require a bond payable to the department in such amount as the court deems proper to insure correction of any such violation in accordance with the agreement or any other provisions required by the court. The court may make any other orders reasonable and necessary to carry out the intent of this article.

SEC. 353. Section 1074 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

1074. Every common carrier subject to Section 1061 who engages subhaulers or leases equipment from employees shall file with the commission a bond, the amount of which shall be determined by the commission but which shall be not less than two thousand dollars ($2,000), executed by an admitted surety insurer, subject to the approval of the commission, which bond shall secure the payment of the claims of subhaulers and employee-lessors of the common carrier.

SEC. 354. Section 3575 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

3575. Every highway carrier who engages subhaulers or leases equipment from employees shall file with the commission a bond, the amount of which shall be determined by the commission but which shall be not less than two thousand dollars ($2,000), executed by an admitted surety insurer, subject to the approval of the commission, which bond shall secure the payment of the claims of subhaulers and employee-lessors of the highway carrier.

SEC. 355. Section 4839 of the Public Utilities Code is repealed.

SEC. 356. Section 4840 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

4840. No suit or action against the surety on any bond given in compliance with this chapter shall be brought later than one year from the accrual of the cause of action thereon.

SEC. 357. Section 6010 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

6010. (a) The advertisement may also contain a statement that the successful bidder for any franchise or privilege struck off, sold, and awarded under this article shall file a bond running to the county, city and county, or city, approved by the governing body. The advertisement may require a bond executed by an admitted surety insurer. The bond shall be in a penal sum prescribed by the governing body and set forth in the advertisement for bids, and conditioned that the bidder shall well and truly observe, fulfill, and perform each term and condition of the franchise, and that in case of any breach of condition of the bond, the whole amount of the penal sum therein named shall be deemed to be liquidated damages.

(b) The bond if required shall be filed with the governing body within the time specified in the advertisement and if no time is specified within five days after the franchise is awarded. The franchise shall be granted by ordinance to the person, firm, or corporation to whom it has been struck off, sold or awarded. If the bond is not filed within the time required, the award of the franchise may be set aside at any time prior to the filing and, if set aside, any money paid for the franchise shall be forfeited, and if an ordinance has been enacted granting the franchise, the governing or legislative body may repeal the ordinance and the franchise shall, in the discretion of the governing or legislative body, be readvertised and again offered for sale in the same manner and under the same restrictions, as provided in this article.

SEC. 358. Article 3 (commencing with Section 6066) of Chapter 1 of Division 3 of the Public Utilities Code is repealed.

SEC. 359. Section 6301 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

6301. (a) The grantee of a franchise under this chapter may be required to file a bond running to the municipality approved by the legislative body, in a penal sum prescribed by the legislative body and set forth in the resolution of intention to grant the franchise, conditioned that the grantee shall well and truly observe, fulfill, and perform each term and condition of the franchise, and that in case of any breach of condition of the bond the amount of the penal sum therein named shall be recoverable.

(b) The bond, if required by the legislative body, shall be filed with the legislative body within five days after the date of the granting of the franchise. If the bond is not so filed, or does not receive the approval of the legislative body, the franchise may be refused or forfeited and any money paid to the municipality in connection therewith shall be retained by the municipality.

SEC. 360. Section 16541 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

16541. All contracts shall be made with the lowest responsible bidder, who shall give bonds for the faithful performance of the contract.

SEC. 361. Section 2954 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2954. (a) An assessee may challenge a seizure of property made pursuant to Section 2953 by petitioning for a writ of prohibition or writ of mandate in the superior court alleging:

(1) That there are no grounds for the seizure;

(2) That the declaration of the tax collector is untrue or inaccurate; and

(3) That there are and will be sufficient funds to pay the taxes prior to the date such taxes become delinquent.

(b) As a condition of maintaining the special proceedings for a writ, the assessee shall file with the tax collector a bond sufficient to pay the taxes and all fees and charges actually incurred by the tax collector as a result of the seizure, and shall furnish proof of the bond with the court. Upon the filing of the bond, the tax collector shall release the property to the assessee.

SEC. 362. Section 2955 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2955. If the assessee prevails in the special proceeding for a writ under Section 2954, the assessee is entitled to recover from the county all costs, including attorney's fees, incurred by virtue of the seizure and subsequent actions, and the tax collector shall bear the costs of seizure and any fees and expenses of keeping the seized property. If, however, subsequent to the date the taxes in question become delinquent, the taxes are not paid in full and it becomes necessary for the tax collector to seize property of the assessee in payment of the taxes or to commence an action against the assessee for recovery of the taxes, in addition to all taxes and delinquent penalties, the assessee shall reimburse the county for all costs incurred at the time of the original seizure and all other costs charged to the tax collector or the county as a result of the original seizure and any subsequent actions.

SEC. 363. Section 3006 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

3006. (a) The tax collector may commence an action for recovery of taxes on property on the unsecured roll prior to the date such taxes become delinquent if, in the tax collector's opinion, it is necessary to do so in order to insure payment of such taxes because of the financial condition of the assessee or for other appropriate reasons. The tax collector shall file a declaration under penalty of perjury, as part of the complaint, setting forth the grounds and necessity for the action prior to the delinquency date. The tax collector shall also be entitled, upon application, to an ex parte writ of attachment of so much of the assessee's property as is necessary to satisfy the taxes on the basis of the tax collector's declaration.

(b) An assessee named in an action under subdivision (a) may file with the court a bond sufficient to pay the taxes alleged due in the complaint and petition the court to release the attached property.

(c) If the court determines that the action and writ of attachment prior to the delinquency date are unnecessary, the court shall require the county to pay all costs of suit, including attorney's fees, incurred by the assessee, and the sureties shall be released from liability on the bond. The court may, in its discretion, require payment of the taxes in question as a condition of releasing the sureties. In that case, however, the assessee shall be entitled to interest from the county at the rate of 7 percent per annum from the date the taxes are paid until the date the taxes would have become delinquent.

(d) In any case where an action by the tax collector under this section is dismissed and the assessee is not required by the court to pay the taxes as a condition of dismissal and subsequent to the delinquency date the taxes remain unpaid, the county shall be entitled to recover, in addition to the taxes and all penalties and costs accruing thereon, all costs ordered by the court to be paid by the county to the assessee in the first action and all costs incurred by the county in any subsequent actions of the county in collecting the taxes.

(e) In all actions and proceedings brought under this section, all courts in which the actions and proceedings are pending shall, upon the request of any party thereto, give the actions and proceedings precedence over all other civil actions and proceedings, except actions and proceedings to which special precedence is otherwise given by law, in the matter of setting them for hearing or trial, and in their hearing or trial, to the end that all the actions and proceedings shall be quickly heard and determined.

SEC. 364. Section 7390 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

7390. Every person desiring to become an aircraft jet fuel dealer shall first secure from the board an aircraft jet fuel dealer permit. Applications for permits shall be made to the board on forms prescribed by the board. Before issuing the permit the board may require the applicant to furnish the bond required under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 7451).

SEC. 365. Section 7391 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

7391. Upon receipt of the application and after the deposit of such bond as the board may require, the board shall issue to the applicant an aircraft jet fuel dealer permit authorizing the applicant to become a dealer in aircraft jet fuel. The permit is valid until canceled, suspended or revoked.

SEC. 366. Section 7401 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

7401. (a) The provisions of this part requiring the payment of license taxes do not apply to any of the following:

(1) Natural gasoline distributed to a duly licensed distributor under such regulations as the board may prescribe.

(2) Motor vehicle fuel exported from this state by the distributor or delivered by the distributor to any vessel clearing from a port of this state for a port outside of this state and actually exported from this state in the vessel.

(3) Motor vehicle fuel distributed, or delivered on the order of the owner, to a distributor who has furnished bond as prescribed by Sections 7486 and 7487 of not less than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), nor more than five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), and who has established to the satisfaction of the board that this bond, together with property to which the lien imposed by Section 7872 attaches, is sufficient security to assure payment of all license taxes as they may become due to the state from the distributor under this part.

(4) Motor vehicle fuel sold to the United States armed forces for use in ships or aircraft, or for use outside this state.

(5) Motor vehicle fuel distributed to any licensed distributor, or to any licensed broker who has furnished bond in the form and amount required of distributors under Article 1 (commencing with Section 7451) of Chapter 4, for sale to the United States armed forces for use in ships or aircraft or use outside this state. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this part, the receiving of motor vehicle fuel in this state from a licensed distributor and the sale and delivery of the fuel to the United States armed forces pursuant to this subdivision shall not constitute a broker a distributor under this part.

(b) Every distributor claiming an exemption shall report the exports, sales or distributions to the board in such detail as the board may require; otherwise the exemption granted in this section shall be null and void and all the fuel shall be considered distributed in this state subject fully to the provisions of this part.

SEC. 366.3. Section 7486 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

7486. Before granting a license authorizing a person to engage in business as a distributor or broker, the board may require the person to file with the board, in such form as it prescribes, a bond or bonds duly executed by an admitted surety insurer, payable to the state, conditioned upon faithful performance of all the requirements of this part, and expressly providing for the payment of all license taxes, penalties, and other obligations of the person arising out of this part.

SEC. 366.5. Section 7488 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 366.7. Section 7489 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 367. Section 14178 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 368. Section 15937 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 369. Section 30141 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

30141. Every applicant for a license as a distributor shall file with the board, in such amount and in such form as the board prescribes, a bond or bonds executed by an admitted surety insurer, payable to the people of the State of California, conditioned upon the payment of all taxes, penalties, and other obligations of the distributor arising under this part.

SEC. 370. Section 30745 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 371. Section 32102 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

32102. Every taxpayer shall file with the board, in such form as the board prescribes, a bond or bonds executed by an admitted surety insurer, payable to the people of the State of California, conditioned upon the payment of all taxes, penalties, and other obligations of the taxpayer arising under this part.

SEC. 372. Section 32105 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 373. Section 41117 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

41117. In the action a writ of attachment may issue, and no affidavit previous to the issuing of the attachment is required.

SEC. 374. Section 1052 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

1052. The petitioner shall accompany the petition with a bond, approved by the board of supervisors, in double the amount of the probable cost of the proceedings, including the market value for land taken and any severance damage resulting from the taking, and shall be conditioned that the petitioner will pay all costs of the proceedings, including any compensation which may be awarded to any landowner. The bond shall be further conditioned that the petitioner will pay to the person over whose land the private byroad is sought to be opened or altered, the necessary costs and disbursements in contesting the opening or alteration of the private byroad, in case the petition is not granted or the private byroad is finally not opened or altered.

SEC. 375. Section 1183 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

1188. The board shall cause the highway work, provided for in this article, to be done in accordance with the provisions of Sections 1071 to 1075, inclusive, except that the notice calling for bids shall be published in a newspaper published in the division if there is such a newspaper. The successful bidder shall give a bond in such sum as the board requires, conditioned on the faithful performance of the contract, and on the payment of all labor employed and material used in the work.

SEC. 376. Section 5242 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

5242. All proposals or bids offered shall be accompanied by cash, a cashier's check or a certified check payable to the city, for an amount which shall not be less than 10 percent of the aggregate of the proposal, or by a bond for that amount and so payable, to the satisfaction and approval of the superintendent of streets.

SEC. 377. Section 5254 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

5254. All contractors, contracting owners included, shall, at the time of executing any contract for the work, execute a bond to the satisfaction and approval of the superintendent of streets and payable to the city, in a sum not less than 25 percent of the amount of the contract, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the contract.

SEC. 378. Section 5291 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

5291. The bond shall provide that the contractor or subcontractor shall pay for any materials, provisions, provender, or other supplies or use of implements or machinery used in, upon, for or about the performance of the work contracted to be done, or for any work or labor done thereon of any kind.

SEC. 379. Section 10502 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

10502. (a) Each bid shall be accompanied by cash, a cashier's check or a certified check, amounting to 10 percent of the bid, payable to the order of the clerk of the legislative body, or by a bond for that amount and so payable to the satisfaction and approval of the superintendent of streets. The amount so posted shall be forfeited to the municipality if the bidder does not, within 15 days after written notice that the contract has been awarded to the bidder, enter into a contract with the municipality for the work.

(b) The faithful performance of the contract shall be secured by an undertaking in such penal sum as the legislative body requires, but not less than 25 percent of the contract price, satisfactory to the legislative body. When the proceedings include the acquisition or construction of works, appliances, or improvements to be owned, managed or controlled by a public agency other than the municipality making the acquisitions or ordering the work done, the legislative body of the municipality may require that the undertaking also inure to the benefit of the public agency to the extent of its interest in the entire project. The contractor shall also furnish a labor and material bond as required by law in a sum not less than 50 percent of the contract price.

SEC. 380. Section 26022 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

26022. At the time of the filing of the petition for the formation of the district the petitioners shall file a bond with the board of supervisors for not more than three hundred dollars ($300), approved by the board, upon the condition that the petitioners will pay the expense and cost of the election in an amount not exceeding the amount of the bond if the proposition to organize the district is defeated.

SEC. 381. Section 30158 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

30158. The department may issue permits for the use of any toll bridge or other toll highway crossing acquired or constructed pursuant to this chapter on a credit basis. Except in the case of municipal or other public corporations, governmental agencies, or common carriers having contracts directly with the authority for operation of the transportation facilities of the bridge or crossing, the holder of a permit to use any toll bridge or other toll highway crossing on a credit basis shall furnish to and maintain in force with the department a bond executed by an admitted surety insurer, approved by the department, in an amount equal to twice the department's estimate of the toll charges to be incurred under the permit during one month.

SEC. 382. Section 30159 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

30159. The department may revoke any permit granted for failure of the holder to comply with its terms.

SEC. 383. Section 30867 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

30867. The owner or keeper of the toll bridge or ferry shall furnish a bond in the sum fixed by the board of supervisors and conditioned that the toll bridge or toll ferry will be kept in good repair and condition, and that the keeper will faithfully comply with the laws of the state and all legal orders of the board of supervisors regulating it, and pay all damages recovered against the owner or keeper by any person injured or damaged by reason of delay at or defect in the bridge or ferry, or in any manner resulting from non-compliance with the laws or lawful orders regulating it. The bond shall be approved by the chairman and filed with the clerk of the board of supervisors.

SEC. 384. Section 31127 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

31127. The authority may issue permits for the use of the toll tunnel on a credit basis. The holder of such a permit shall furnish to and maintain in force with the authority a bond executed by an admitted surety insurer, in an amount equal to twice the authority's estimate of the toll charges to be incurred under such permit during one month.

SEC. 385. Section 31128 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

31128. The authority may revoke any permit granted for failure of the holder to comply with its terms.

SEC. 386. Section 1815 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

1815. The bond shall be to the satisfaction of the director and shall obligate the principal and sureties to compensate the officers of the department and any other person who may suffer loss or damage by reason of any failure or neglect of the principal, the principal's agents, or employees to preserve carefully and surrender any records examined in the department and by reason of any act of the principal, the principal's agents, or employees in respect to the loss, alteration, substitution, or mutilation of any records of the department.

SEC. 387. Section 4158 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

4158. In the event the vehicle is no longer registered in this state and the currently valid certificate of ownership is surrendered to the department, the bond or undertaking shall be returned and surrendered at the end of three years or prior thereto.

SEC. 388. Section 9801 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

9801. (a) The department shall collect the fee, or any penalty, or both, plus costs, not exceeding two hundred dollars ($200), but at least equal to the cost, incurred by the department arising from the preparation for the seizure of the vehicle by due notice or by seizure of the vehicle from the person or persons in possession thereof, if any, and by the sale of such vehicle if fees and costs are not paid upon notice to pay all fees due and herein provided for except as otherwise provided.

(b) When a lien for the fee, or any penalty, or both, exists against more than one vehicle in possession of the same person or persons, the department may seize and sell a sufficient number of the vehicles to pay the fees, or penalties, or both, plus costs, to equal at least the cost of conducting the seizure and sale proceedings but not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200), for each vehicle incident to such seizure, against all such vehicles.

(c) When the lien for the fee, or any penalty, or both, exists on a vehicle sold by a dealer, the department may withhold seizure and sale of the vehicle pending notification of the selling dealer and sureties of the dealer's liability under Section 4456 and pursuant to the bond provided in Section 11710. The department may proceed with seizure and sale of the vehicle if the fee and any penalty is not paid within 30 days after due and proper notice to the dealer and sureties.

(d) The Department of the California Highway Patrol shall assist with the seizure and impounding of the vehicle. Any municipality or county law enforcement agency may assist with the seizure and impounding of the vehicle. No vehicle may be seized or impounded pursuant to the provisions of this section unless there are outstanding registration or transfer fees due.

SEC. 389. Section 9924 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

9924. In the event the vessel is no longer registered in this state and the currently valid certificate of ownership is surrendered to the department or the vessel has been destroyed or lost, the bond or undertaking shall be returned and surrendered after three years.

SEC. 390. Section 11102 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11102. (a) A driving school owner shall:

(1) Be a person who has not been convicted of a crime involving an act of dishonesty, fraud, or deceit with the intent to benefit himself or herself or another substantially, or to injure another substantially; or has not committed any act which, if done as a licensed driving school owner, would be grounds for the suspension or revocation of the license.

(2) Pay to the department an application fee of fifty dollars ($50) and upon original application, in addition to the fifty dollars ($50), an initial investigation and inspection fee of fifty dollars ($50).

(3) Maintain an established place of business open to the public. No office or place of business shall be situated within 500 feet of any building used by the department as an office, unless the owner was established at such location on or before January 1, 1976.

(4) Have the proper equipment necessary to giving instruction in the operation of the class of vehicles for which the course is designed.

(5) Procure and file with the department a bond in the amount of two thousand dollars ($2,000) executed by an admitted surety insurer and conditioned that the applicant shall not practice any fraud or make any fraudulent representation which will cause a monetary loss to a person taking instruction from the applicant.

(6) Meet the requirements of Section 11102.5. If the owner is not the operator of the driving school, the owner shall designate an operator who shall meet the requirements of Section 11102.5.

(7) File with the department a good and sufficient instrument in writing in which the owner shall appoint the director as the true and lawful agent of the applicant upon whom all process may be served in any action, or actions, which may thereafter be commenced against the applicant, arising out of any claim for damages suffered by any firm, person, association, or corporation by reason of the violation of the applicant of any of the terms and provisions of this code or any condition of the driving school owner's bond. The applicant shall stipulate and agree in such appointment that any process directed to the applicant, when personal service of process upon him or her cannot be made in this state after due diligence, in such a case which is served upon the director, or in the event of the director's absence from the office, upon any employee in charge of the office of the director, shall be of the same legal force and effect as if served upon the applicant personally. The applicant shall further stipulate and agree in writing that the agency created by the appointment shall continue for and during the period covered by the license and so long thereafter as the applicant may be made to answer in damages for a violation of this code or any condition of the bond. The instrument appointing the director as agent for the applicant for service of process shall be acknowledged by the applicant before a notary public. In any case wherein the licensee is served with process by service thereof upon the director, one copy of the summons and complaint shall be left with the director or in the director's office in Sacramento or mailed to the office of the director in Sacramento. A fee of five dollars ($5) shall also be paid to the director at the time of service of the copy of the summons and complaint. The service on the director shall be a sufficient service on the licensee; provided, that a notice of the service and a copy of the summons and complaint shall be forthwith sent by registered mail by the plaintiff or his or her attorney to the licensee. A copy of the summons and complaint shall be mailed by the plaintiff or his attorney to the surety of the applicant's bond at the address of the surety given in the bond, postpaid and registered with request for return receipt. The director shall keep a record of all process so served upon him or her which record shall show the day and hour of service and shall retain the summons and complaint so served on the licensee on file. Where the licensee is served with process by service thereof upon the director, the licensee shall be allowed 30 days from and after the service thereof within which to answer any complaint or other pleading which may be filed in the cause; and provided, further, that for purposes of venue, where the licensee is served with process by service thereof upon the director, the service shall be deemed to have been made upon the licensee in the county in which the licensee has or last had his or her established place of business.

(b) The qualifying requirements referred to in this section shall be met within one year from the date of application for a license, or a new application and fee shall be required.

SEC. 391. Section 11102.1 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11102.1. If a deposit is given instead of the bond required by Section 11102:

(a) The director may order the deposit returned at the expiration of three years from the date a driving school licensee has ceased to do business, or three years from the date a licensee has ceased to be licensed, if the director is satisfied that there are no outstanding claims against the deposit. A judge of a municipal or superior court may order the return of the deposit prior to the expiration of three years upon evidence satisfactory to the judge that there are no outstanding claims against the deposit.

(b) If either the director, department, or state is a defendant in any action instituted to recover all or any part of the deposit, or any action is instituted by the director, department, or state to determine those entitled to any part of the deposit, the director, department, or state shall be paid reasonable attorney fees and costs from the deposit. Costs shall include those administrative costs incurred in processing claims against the deposit.

SEC. 392. Section 11110 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11110. The department may cancel, suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew any license under the provisions of this chapter:

(a) Whenever the department is satisfied that the licensee fails to meet the requirements to receive or hold a license under this chapter.

(b) Whenever the licensee fails to keep the records required by this chapter.

(c) Whenever the licensee permits fraud or engages in fraudulent practices either with reference to the applicant or the department, or induces or countenances fraud or fraudulent practices on the part of any applicant for a driver's license.

(d) Whenever the holder fails to comply with any provisions of this chapter or any of the regulations or requirements of the department made pursuant thereto.

(e) Whenever the licensee represents himself or herself as an agent or employee of the department or uses advertising designed to create the impression, or which would reasonably have the effect of leading persons to believe, that the licensee was in fact an employee or representative of the department, or whenever the licensee advertises in any manner or means whatever any statement which is untrue or misleading, and which is known, or which by the exercise of reasonable care should be known, to be untrue or misleading.

(f) Whenever the licensee or any employee or agent of such licensee solicits driver training or instruction in an office of the department or within 200 feet of any such office.

(g) Whenever the licensee is convicted of violating Section 14606, 20001, 20002, 20003, 20004, 20006, 20008, 23103, 23104, 23152, or 23153 of this code or Section 192 of the Penal Code. A conviction after a plea of nolo contendere shall be deemed to be a conviction within the meaning of this section.

(h) Whenever the licensee does any act or series of acts, or is guilty of conduct, which action or conduct manifests a disability or unfitness to perform properly the licensee's occupational duties. The department, in proceeding pursuant to this subdivision, shall conform its procedures to the provisions of Division 1.5 (commencing with Section 475) of the Business and Professions Code. Whenever disability or unfitness to perform properly the occupational duties of the licensee is the basis of suspension or revocation, the referee, hearing officer, or board shall make a specific finding as to the manner in which the action or conduct manifests disability or unfitness, which finding shall be incorporated in the order suspending or revoking the license.

(i) Whenever contrary to provisions of this code or of regulations established by the department, the licensee teaches or permits a student to be taught the specific tests administered by the department through use of the department's forms or testing facilities.

(j) Whenever the licensee conducts driver training, or permits driver training by any employee, in an unsafe manner or contrary to safe driving practices.

(k) Whenever the driving school owner or driving school operator teaches or permits an employee to teach driving instruction without a valid driving instructor's license.

(l) Whenever a driving school owner does not have in effect a bond as provided in Section 11102.

SEC. 393. Section 11301.3 of the Vehicle Code is repealed.

SEC. 394. Section 11301.5 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11301.5. If a deposit is given instead of the bond required by Section 11301:

(a) The Director of Motor Vehicles may order the refund of the deposit three years from the date a vehicle verifier has ceased to be licensed, if the director is satisfied that there are no outstanding claims against the deposit. A judge of a municipal or superior court may order the return of the deposit prior to the expiration of three years from the date a vehicle verifier has ceased to be licensed if there is evidence satisfactory to the court that there are no outstanding claims against the deposit.

(b) If either the director, department, or state is a defendant in any action instituted to recover all or any part of the deposit, or any action is instituted by the director, department, or state to determine those entitled to any part of the deposit, the director, department, or state shall be paid reasonable attorney fees and costs from deposit. Costs shall include those administrative costs incurred in processing claims against the deposit.

SEC. 395. Section 11612 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11612. (a) Before any lessor-retailer license shall be issued or renewed by the department to any applicant therefor, the applicant shall procure and file with the department a bond meeting the same requirements as specified for a vehicle dealer's license in Sections 11710 and 11710.2.

(b) Any cause of action or claim specified in Section 11711 against a vehicle dealer's bond shall also be a cause of action or claim against a lessor-retailer's bond.

SEC. 396. Section 11614 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11614. It shall be unlawful and a violation of this code for a lessor-retailer licensed under this chapter in connection with any activity for which this license is required:

(a) To make or disseminate or cause to be made or disseminated before the public in this state, in any newspaper or other publication, or any advertising device, or by oral representation, or in any other manner or means whatever, any statement which is untrue or misleading, and which is known, or which by the exercise of reasonable care should be known, to be untrue or misleading; or to so make or disseminate or cause to be so disseminated any such statement as part of a plan or scheme with the intent not to sell any vehicle or sell service so advertised at the price stated therein, or as so advertised.

(b) To advertise or offer for sale in any manner, any vehicle not actually for sale at the premises of the lessor-retailer or available within a reasonable time to lessor-retailer at the time of the advertisement or offer.

(c) To fail within 48 hours in writing to give notification to withdraw any advertisement of a vehicle that has been sold or withdrawn from sale.

(d) To advertise any specific vehicle for sale without identifying the vehicle by either its vehicle identification number or license number.

(e) To advertise the total price of a vehicle without including all costs to the purchaser at the time of delivery at the lessor-retailer's premises, except sales tax, vehicle registration fees and finance charges.

(f) To advertise or otherwise represent, or knowingly to allow to be advertised or represented on the lessor-retailer's behalf or at the lessor-retailer's place of business, that no downpayment is required in connection with the sale of a vehicle when a downpayment is in fact required and the buyer is advised or induced to finance the downpayment by a loan in addition to any other loan financing the remainder of the purchase price of the vehicle.

(g) To refuse to sell a vehicle to any person at the advertised total price, exclusive of sales tax, vehicle registration fees, and finance charges, while the vehicle remains unsold or unleased unless the advertisement states the advertised total price is good only for a specified time and the time has elapsed.

(h) To engage in the business for which licensee is licensed without having in force and effect a bond as provided in Section 11612.

(i) To engage in the business for which the lessor-retailer is licensed without at all times maintaining a principal place of business and a branch office location or locations as required by this chapter.

(j) To permit the use of the lessor-retailer license, supplies or books by any other person for the purpose of permitting that person to engage in the sale of vehicles required to be registered under this code, or to permit the use of the lessor-retailer license, supplies or books to operate a branch office location to be used by any other person, if, in either situation, the licensee has no financial or equitable interest or investment in the vehicles sold by, or the business of, or branch office location used by, the person, or has no such interest or investment other than commissions, compensations, fees or any other thing of value received for the use of the lessor-retailer license, supplies or books to engage in the sale of vehicles.

(k) To violate any of the provisions of Article 10 (commencing with Section 28050) of Chapter 5 of Division 12.

SEC. 397. Section 11710 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11710. (a) Before any dealer's license shall be issued or renewed by the department to any applicant therefor, the applicant shall procure and file with the department a bond in the amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) executed by an admitted surety insurer, approved as to form by the Attorney General, and conditioned that the applicant shall not practice any fraud or make any fraudulent representation which will cause a monetary loss to a purchaser, seller, financing agency, or governmental agency.

(b) Liability under the bond is to remain at five thousand dollars ($5,000). If the amount of liability under the bond is decreased or there is outstanding a final court judgment for which the dealer and sureties are liable, the dealer's license shall be automatically suspended. In order to reinstate the license and special plates, the licensee shall either file an additional bond or restore the bond on file to the original amount, or shall terminate the outstanding judgment for which the dealer and sureties are liable.

(c) A dealer's license, or renewal of the license, shall not be issued to any applicant therefor, unless and until the applicant files with the department a good and sufficient instrument in writing in which the applicant appoints the director as the true and lawful agent of the applicant upon whom all process may be served in any action, or actions, which may thereafter be commenced against the applicant, arising out of any claim for damages suffered by any firm, person, association or corporation, by reason of the violation of the applicant of any of the terms and provisions of this code or any condition of the dealer's bond. The applicant shall stipulate and agree in the appointment that any process directed to the applicant, when personal service of process upon the applicant cannot be made in this state after due diligence, in such a case which is served upon the director, or in the event of the director's absence from the office, upon any employee in charge of the office of the director, shall be of the same legal force and effect as if served upon the applicant personally. The applicant shall further stipulate and agree in writing that the agency created by the appointment shall continue for and during the period covered by any license that may be issued and so long thereafter as the applicant may be made to answer in damages for a violation of this code or any condition of the bond. The instrument appointing the director as the agent for the applicant for service of process shall be acknowledged by the applicant before a notary public. In any case where the licensee is served with process by service upon the director, one copy of the summons and complaint shall be left with the director or in the director's office in Sacramento or mailed to the office of the director in Sacramento. A fee of five dollars ($5) shall also be paid to the director at the time of service of the copy of the summons and complaint. Service on the director shall be a sufficient service on the licensee; provided, a notice of service and a copy of the summons and complaint shall be forthwith sent by registered mail by the plaintiff or the plaintiff's attorney to the licensee. A copy of the summons and complaint shall also be mailed by the plaintiff or the plaintiff's attorney to the surety on the applicant's bond at the address of the surety given in the bond, postpaid and registered with request for return receipt. The director shall keep a record of all process so served upon the director which record shall show the day and hour of service and shall retain the summons and complaint so served on file. Where the licensee is served with process by service upon the director, the licensee shall have and be allowed 30 days from and after the service within which to answer any complaint or other pleading which may be filed in the cause; and provided further, that for purposes of venue, where the licensee is served with process by service upon the director, the service shall be deemed to have been made upon the licensee in the county in which the licensee has or last had an established place of business.

SEC. 398. Section 11710.1 of the Vehicle Code is repealed.

11710.2. If a deposit is given instead of the bond required by Section 1710:

(a) The Director of Motor Vehicles may order the deposit returned at the expiration of three years from the date an applicant for a dealer's license who has operated a business of selling vehicles under a temporary permit has ceased to do business, or three years from the date a licensee has ceased to be licensed, if the director is satisfied that there are no outstanding claims against the deposit. A judge of a municipal or superior court may order the return of the deposit prior to the expiration of three years upon evidence satisfactory to the judge that there are no outstanding claims against the deposit.

(b) If either the director, department, or state is a defendant in any action instituted to recover all or any part of the deposit, or any action is instituted by the director, department, or state to determine those entitled to any part of the deposit, the director, department, or state shall be paid reasonable attorney fees and costs from the deposit. Costs shall include those administrative costs incurred in processing claims against the deposit.

SEC. 400. Section 11713 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11713. It shall be unlawful and a violation of this code for the holder of any license issued under this article:

(a) To make or disseminate or cause to be made or disseminated before the public in this state, in any newspaper or other publication, or any advertising device, or by public outcry or proclamation, or in any other manner or means whatever, any statement which is untrue or misleading, and which is known, or which by the exercise of reasonable care should be known, to be untrue or misleading; or to so make or disseminate or cause to be so disseminated any such statement as part of a plan or scheme with the intent not to sell any vehicle or service so advertised at the price stated therein, or as so advertised.

(b) To advertise or offer for sale or exchange in any manner, any vehicle not actually for sale at the premises of the dealer or available to the dealer from the manufacturer or distributor of the vehicle at the time of the advertisement or offer; provided however, that this subdivision does not apply to advertising or offering for sale or exchange any used mobilehome, as defined by Section 18008 of the Health and Safety Code, or used commercial coach, as defined by Section 18012 of the Health and Safety Code, other than a recreational vehicle, as defined by Section 18010.5 of the Health and Safety Code, where such advertising or offering for sale is not contrary to any terms of a contract between the seller of the mobilehome or commercial coach and the owner of the mobilehome park, and which mobilehome or commercial coach is either in place on a lot rented or leased for human habitation within an established mobilehome park, as defined in Section 18214 of the Health and Safety Code, or is otherwise located, pursuant to a local zoning ordinance or permit, on a lot where its presence has been authorized or its continued presence and such use would be authorized, for a total and uninterrupted period of at least one year.

(c) To fail within 48 hours in writing to withdraw any advertisement of a vehicle that has been sold or withdrawn from sale.

(d) To advertise or represent a vehicle as a new vehicle if the vehicle falls within the purview of Section 665.

(e) To engage in the business for which licensee is licensed without having in force and effect a bond as provided in Section 11710.

(f) For any licensed dealer to engage in the business for which the dealer is licensed without at all times maintaining an established place of business as required by this code.

(g) To include as an added cost to the selling price of a vehicle, an amount for licensing or transfer of title of the vehicle, which amount is not due to the state unless, prior to the sale, such amount has been paid by a dealer to the state in order to avoid penalties that would have accrued because of late payment of such fees. However, a dealer may collect, from the second purchaser of a vehicle, a prorated fee based upon the number of months remaining in the registration year for that vehicle, if the vehicle had been previously sold by the dealer and the sale was subsequently rescinded and all the fees that were paid, as required by this code and Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 10751) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, were returned to the first purchaser of the vehicle.

(h) To employ any person as a salesman who has not been licensed pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 11800), and whose license is not displayed on the premises of the dealer as provided in Section 11812.

(i) To deliver, following sale, a vehicle for operation on California highways, if the vehicle does not meet all of the equipment requirements of Division 12 (commencing with Section 24000).

(j) To use or permit the use of the special plates assigned to the license holder for any purpose other than permitted by Section 11715.

(k) To advertise or otherwise represent, or knowingly to allow to be advertised or represented on behalf of or at the place of business of the license holder, that no downpayment is required in connection with the sale of a vehicle when a downpayment is in fact required and the buyer is advised or induced to finance the downpayment by a loan in addition to any other loan financing the remainder of the purchase price of the vehicle.

(l) To participate in the sale of a vehicle reported to the Department of Motor Vehicles under the provisions of Section 5900 or 5901 without making the return and payment of any sales tax due and required by Section 6451 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(m) To permit the use of the dealer's license, supplies, or books by any other person for the purpose of permitting that person to engage in the sale of vehicles required to be registered under this code, or to permit the use of the dealer's license, supplies, or books to operate a branch location to be used by any other person, if, in either situation, the licensee has no financial or equitable interest or investment in the vehicles sold by, or the business of, or branch location used by, the person, or has no such interest or investment other than commissions, compensations, fees, or any other thing of value received for the use of the dealer's license, supplies, or books to engage in the sale of vehicles.

(n) To violate any of the provisions of Article 10 (commencing with Section 28050) of Chapter 5 of Division 12.

(o) To fail to deliver or honor the terms and conditions of any warranty as set forth in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1797) of Title 1.7 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code.

(p) To violate any of the terms or provisions of Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 11950) of Division 5.

(q) To violate any of the provisions of Part 2 (commencing with Section 18000) of Division 13 of, or Section 18613 of, the Health and Safety Code or any rules and regulations issued pursuant thereto.

SEC. 401. Section 16434 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

16434. Proof of ability to respond in damages may be given by a bond approved by a judge of a court of record. The bond shall be conditioned for the payment of the amount specified in Section 16430, and shall provide for the entry of judgment on motion of the state in favor of any holder of any final judgment on account of damages to property over five hundred dollars ($500) in amount, or injury to any person caused by the operation of the person's motor vehicle.

SEC. 402. Section 38055 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

38055. In the event the vehicle is no longer identified in this state and the currently valid certificate of ownership is surrendered to the department, the bond or undertaking shall be returned and surrendered at the end of three years or prior thereto.

SEC. 403. Section 2020 of the Water Code is amended to read:

2020. (a) At any time after filing of the report by the board as provided in Section 2016 the board, if it appears that underground water is being pumped in an amount which, if not restricted, would destroy or irreparably injure the waters of the basin due to ocean water intrusion before final judgment can be had, may, on notice, pursuant to the provisions of Section 527 of the Code of Civil Procedure, apply to the court for a preliminary injunction, restricting the pumping of water of the basin so as to avoid irreparable injury to, or destruction of, the waters of the basin, and the court may issue the injunction, subject to the provisions of Section 2021, equitably restricting and apportioning the reduction in the pumping of water.

(b) The provisions of this section apply only to actions to determine rights to waters of underground basins located in the arid, southern coastal area defined by the exterior boundaries of the Counties of Santa Barbara, Ventura, Los Angeles, Orange, and San Diego.

SEC. 404. Section 22308 of the Water Code is amended to read:

22308. Any person to whom a contract may be awarded pursuant to this article shall provide a bond approved by the board, payable to the district for at least 25 percent of the estimated contract price, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the contract.

SEC. 405. Section 43308 of the Water Code is amended to read:

43308. Any person to whom a contract is awarded shall enter into a bond, to be approved by the board, payable to the district for its use, for 25 percent of the amount of the contract price, conditioned for the full and faithful performance of the contract. The work shall be done under the direction and to the satisfaction of, and be approved by, the board.

SEC. 406. Section 50658 of the Water Code is amended to read:

50658. No warrant for the creation or replenishment of a revolving fund shall be paid by the county treasurer unless a bond in double the amount of the fund, signed by the members of the board and conditioned as security for the safety and proper disbursements of the fund, approved by the board of supervisors, has been filed with the county treasurer.

SEC. 407. Section 50659 of the Water Code is amended to read:

50659. A revolving fund shall be disbursed only by checks or drafts, signed by at least two members of the board, or by some person who is authorized to do so by unanimous vote of the board. No person shall be so authorized until the person has filed with the board a bond in the amount required by the board and in no event less than double the amount of the fund. The bond shall be conditioned as security for the safety and proper disbursements of the fund.

SEC. 408. Section 60339 of the Water Code is amended to read:

60339. (a) The superior court of the county in which the major portion of the district lies may issue a temporary restraining order upon the filing by the district with the court of a verified petition or complaint setting forth that the person named therein as defendant is the operator of a water-producing facility which has not been registered with the district or that the defendant is delinquent in the payment of a replenishment assessment. The temporary restraining order shall be returnable to the court on or before ten (10) days after its issuance.

(b) The court may issue and grant an injunction restraining and prohibiting the named defendant from the operation of any water-producing facility when it is established by the preponderance of the evidence at a hearing that the defendant has failed to register the water-producing facility with the district or that the defendant is delinquent in the payment of a replenishment assessment. The court may provide that the injunction so made and issued shall be stayed for a period not to exceed 10 days to permit the defendant to register the water-producing facility or to pay the delinquent replenishment assessment.

(c) Service of process shall be made by posting a copy of the summons and complaint upon the water-producing facility or the parcel of land upon which the water-producing facility is located and by personal service of summons and complaint upon the named defendant.

(d) The right to proceed for injunctive relief as provided in this section shall be in addition to any other right which may be provided elsewhere in this act or which may be otherwise allowed by law. The procedure provided in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure regarding injunctions shall be followed except insofar as it may be otherwise provided in this section.

SEC. 409. Section 70176 of the Water Code is amended to read:

70176. Any person to whom a contract may be awarded pursuant to this chapter, shall provide a bond approved by the board, payable to the district for at least 50 percent of the estimated contract price, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the contract.

SEC. 410. Section 71689.3 of the Water Code is amended to read:

71689.3. (a) The superior court of the principal county may issue a temporary restraining order upon the filing by the district with the court of a verified petition or complaint setting forth that the person named therein as defendant is the operator of a water-producing facility which has not been registered with the district or that the defendant is delinquent in the payment of a replenishment assessment. The temporary restraining order shall be returnable to the court on or before 10 days after its issuance.

(b) The court may issue and grant an injunction restraining and prohibiting the named defendant from the operation of any water-producing facility when it is established by the preponderance of the evidence at a hearing that the defendant has failed to register the water-producing facility with the district or that the defendant is delinquent in the payment of a replenishment assessment. The court may provide that the injunction so made and issued shall be stayed for a period not to exceed 10 days to permit the defendant to register the water-producing facility or to pay the delinquent replenishment assessment.

(c) Service of process shall be made by posting a copy of the summons and complaint upon the water-producing facility or the parcel of land upon which the water-producing facility is located and by personal service of summons and complaint upon the named defendant.

(d) The right to proceed for injunctive relief as provided in this section shall be in addition to any other right which may be provided elsewhere in this act or which may be otherwise allowed by law. The procedure provided in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure regarding injunctions shall be followed except insofar as it may be otherwise provided in this section.

SEC. 411. Section 75632 of the Water Code is amended to read:

75632. The right to proceed for injunctive relief granted by this article is an additional right to those which may be provided elsewhere in this division or otherwise allowed by law. The procedure provided in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, regarding injunctions, shall be followed except insofar as it is otherwise provided in this article.

SEC. 412. Section 75633 of the Water Code is amended to read:

75633. The district may bring a suit in any court having jurisdiction against any operator of a water-producing facility within the district for the collection of any delinquent groundwater charge. The court may, in addition to allowing recovery of costs to the district as allowed by law, fix and allow as part of the judgment interest and penalties as provided in Sections 75615 and 75616.

SEC. 413. Section 75902 of the Water Code is amended to read:

75902. Before calling the election, the board may require an undertaking from the petitioners for the inclusion of the land, conditioned that the petitioners or the sureties will pay all the costs of holding the election in case the inclusion is denied.

SEC. 414. If a bond or undertaking is given before January 1, 1983:

(a) The bond or undertaking remains in effect notwithstanding the repeal or amendment by this act of all or part of the statute pursuant to which the bond or undertaking is given.

(b) Except to the extent provided in Section 995.020 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the law governing the bond or undertaking is the law applicable to the bond or undertaking immediately before January 1, 1983, and for this purpose the law is continued in effect as it then existed.

SEC. 415. This act shall become effective only if Assembly Bill No. 2751 is chaptered and becomes effective January 1, 1983, and in such case this act shall become effective on January 1, 1983, the same as Assembly Bill No. 2751.

SEC. 416. Any section of any act enacted by the Legislature during the 1982 portion of the 1981–82 Regular Session, which takes effect on or before January 1, 1983, and which amends, amends and renumbers, adds, repeals and adds, or repeals a section amended, amended and renumbered, repealed and added, or repealed by this act, shall prevail over this act, whether such act is enacted prior to or subsequent to this act.

CHAPTER 518

An act to amend Sections 66428, 66445, 66452.6, 66474, 66474.60, and 66474.61 of the Government Code, relating to subdivisions.

[Approved by Governor August 13, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 15, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 66428 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66428. Local ordinances may require a tentative map where a parcel map is required by this chapter. A parcel map shall be required for subdivisions as to which a final or parcel map is not otherwise required by this chapter, unless the preparation of such parcel map is waived by local ordinance as provided in this section. A parcel map shall not be required for: (a) subdivisions of a portion of the operating right-of-way of a railroad corporation defined as such by Section 230 of the Public Utilities Code, which are created by short-term leases (terminable by either party on not more than 30 days' notice in writing), or (b) land conveyed to or from a governmental agency, public entity, public utility, or for land conveyed to a subsidiary of a public utility for conveyance to such public utility for rights-of-way, unless a showing is made in individual cases, upon substantial evidence, that public policy necessitates such a parcel map.

A local agency shall, by ordinance, provide a procedure for waiving the requirement for a parcel map, imposed by this division, including the requirements for a parcel map imposed by Section 66426. The procedure may include provisions for waiving the requirement for a tentative and final map for the construction of a condominium project on a single parcel. The ordinance shall require a finding by the legislative body or advisory agency, that the proposed division of land complies with such requirements as may have been established by this division or local ordinance enacted pursuant thereto as to area, improvement and design, floodwater drainage control, appropriate improved public roads, sanitary disposal facilities, water supply availability, environmental protection, and other requirements of this division or local ordinance enacted pursuant thereto. In any case, where the requirement for a parcel map is waived by local ordinance pursuant to provisions of this section, a tentative map may be required by local ordinance.

SEC. 2. Section 66445 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66445. The parcel map shall be prepared by or under the direction of a registered civil engineer or licensed land surveyor, shall show the location of streets and property lines bounding the property and shall conform to all of the following provisions:

(a) It shall be legibly drawn, printed or reproduced by a process guaranteeing a permanent record in black on tracing cloth or polyester base film. Certificates may be legibly stamped or printed upon the map with opaque ink. If ink is used on polyester base film, the ink surface shall be coated with a suitable substance to assure permanent legibility.

(b) The size of each sheet shall be 18 by 26 inches. A marginal line shall be drawn completely around each sheet, leaving an entirely blank margin of one inch. The scale of the map shall be large enough to show all details clearly and enough sheets shall be used to accomplish this end. The particular number of the sheet and the total number of sheets comprising the map shall be stated on each of the sheets, and its relation to each adjoining sheet shall be clearly shown.

(c) Each parcel shall be numbered or otherwise designated.

(d) The exterior boundary of the land included within the subdivision shall be indicated by distinctive symbols and clearly so designated.

(e) The map shall show the location of each parcel and its relation to surrounding surveys. The location of a designated remainder parcel shall be indicated but need not be indicated as a matter of survey but only by deed reference to the existing record boundaries of such remainder if such remainder has a gross area of five acres or more.

(f) Subject to the provisions of Section 66436, a certificate, signed and acknowledged by all parties having any record title interest in the real property subdivided, consenting to the preparation and recordation of the parcel map is required, except that less inclusive requirements may be provided by local ordinance.

With respect to a division of land into four or fewer parcels, where dedications or offers of dedications are not required, the certificate shall be signed and acknowledged by the subdivider only. If the subdivider does not have a record title ownership interest in the property to be divided, the local agency may require that the subdivider provide the local agency with satisfactory evidence that the persons with record title ownership have consented to the proposed division. For purposes of this paragraph, "record title ownership" shall mean fee title of record unless a leasehold interest is to be divided, in which case "record title ownership" shall mean ownership of record of such leasehold interest; "record title ownership" does not include ownership of mineral rights or other subsurface interests which have been severed from ownership of the surface.

(g) It shall also satisfy any additional map requirements of local ordinances consistent with this division.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, local agencies may require that those certificates and acknowledgments required pursuant to this subdivision and subdivision (f) be made by separate instrument to be recorded concurrently with the parcel map being filed for record.

(h) Whenever a certificate or acknowledgment is made by separate instrument, there shall appear on the final map a reference to the separately recorded document. This reference shall be completed by the county recorder pursuant to Section 66468.1.

(i) The parcel map shall contain a certificate by the engineer or surveyor responsible for the preparation of the map that states that all monuments are of the character and occupy the positions indicated, or that they will be set in such positions on or before a specified date. The certificate shall also state that the monuments are, or will be, sufficient to enable the survey to be retraced.

SEC. 3. Section 66452.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66452.6. (a) An approved or conditionally approved tentative map shall expire 24 months after its approval or conditional approval, or after such additional period of time as may be prescribed by local ordinance, not to exceed an additional 12 months.

(b) The period of time specified in subdivision (a) shall not include any period of time during which a development moratorium, imposed after approval of the tentative map, is in existence, provided however, that the length of the moratorium does not exceed five years.

Once a moratorium is terminated, the map shall be valid for the same period of time as was left to run on the map at the time that the moratorium was imposed. However, if the remaining time is less than 120 days, the map shall be valid for 120 days following the termination of the moratorium.

(c) The period of time specified in subdivision (a) shall not include any period of time during which a lawsuit has been filed and is pending in a court of competent jurisdiction involving the approval or conditional approval of a tentative map if a stay of the time period is approved by the local agency pursuant to this section. Within 10 days of the service of the initial petition or complaint in the lawsuit upon the local agency, the subdivider may apply to the local agency for a stay pursuant to the local agency's adopted procedures. Within 40 days after receiving the application, the local agency shall either stay the time period for up to five years or deny the requested stay. The local agency may, by ordinance, establish procedures for reviewing the requests, including, but not limited to, notice and hearing requirements, appeal procedures and other administrative requirements.

(d) The expiration of the approved or conditionally approved tentative map shall terminate all proceedings and no final map or parcel map of all or any portion of the real property included within the tentative map shall be filed with the legislative body pursuant to Section 66457 without first processing a new tentative map. Once a timely filing is made pursuant to Section 66457, subsequent actions of the local agency, including, but not limited to, processing, approving, and recording, may lawfully occur after the date of expiration of the tentative map.

(e) Upon application of the subdivider filed prior to the expiration of the approved or conditionally approved tentative map, the time at which the map expires may be extended by the legislative body or by an advisory agency authorized to approve or conditionally approve tentative maps for a period or periods not exceeding a total of three years. If the advisory agency denies a subdivider's application for extension, the subdivider may appeal to the legislative body within 15 days after the advisory agency has denied the extension.

(f) For purposes of this section, a development moratorium shall include a water or sewer moratorium or a water and sewer moratorium, as well as other actions of public agencies which regulate land use, development, or the provision of services to the land, other than the public agency with the authority to approve or conditionally approve the tentative map, which thereafter prevents, prohibits, or delays the approval of a final or parcel map.

SEC. 4. Section 66474 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66474. A legislative body of a city or county shall deny approval of a tentative map, or a parcel map for which a tentative map was not required, if it makes any of the following findings:

(a) That the proposed map is not consistent with applicable general and specific plans as specified in Section 65451.

(b) That the design or improvement of the proposed subdivision is not consistent with applicable general and specific plans.

(c) That the site is not physically suitable for the type of development.

(d) That the site is not physically suitable for the proposed density of development.

(e) That the design of the subdivision or the proposed improvements are likely to cause substantial environmental damage or substantially and avoidably injure fish or wildlife or their habitat.

(f) That the design of the subdivision or type of improvements is likely to cause serious public health problems.

(g) That the design of the subdivision or the type of improvements will conflict with easements, acquired by the public at large, for access through or use of, property within the proposed subdivision. In this connection, the governing body may approve a map if it finds that alternate easements, for access or for use, will be provided, and that these will be substantially equivalent to ones previously acquired by the public. This subsection shall apply only to easements of record or to easements established by judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction and no authority is hereby granted to a legislative body to determine that the public at large has acquired easements for access through or use of property within the proposed subdivision.

SEC. 5. Section 66474.60 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66474.60. (a) In cities having a population of more than 2,800,000, the design, improvement and survey data of subdivisions and the form and content of tentative and final maps thereof, and the procedure to be followed in securing official approval are governed by the provisions of this chapter and by the additional provisions of local ordinances dealing with subdivisions, the enactment of which is required by this chapter.

(b) Local ordinances may provide a proper and reasonable fee to be collected from the subdivider for the examination of tentative and final maps.

SEC. 6. Section 66474.61 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66474.61. In cities having a population of more than 2,800,000, the advisory agency, appeal board or legislative body shall deny approval of a tentative map, or a parcel map for which a tentative map was not required, if it makes any of the following findings:

(a) That the proposed map is not consistent with applicable general and specific plans as specified in Section 65451.

(b) That the design or improvement of the proposed subdivision is not consistent with applicable general and specific plans.

(c) That the site is not physically suitable for the type of development.

(d) That the site is not physically suitable for the proposed density of development.

(e) That the design of the subdivision or the proposed improvements are likely to cause substantial environmental damage or substantially and avoidably injure fish or wildlife or their habitat.

(f) That the design of the subdivision or the type of improvements is likely to cause serious public health problems.

(g) That the design of the subdivision or the type of improvements will conflict with easements, acquired by the public at large, for access through or use of property within the proposed subdivision. In this connection, the legislative body may approve a map if it finds that alternate easements, for access or for use, will be provided, and that these will be substantially equivalent to ones previously acquired by the public.

This subdivision shall apply only to easements of record or to easements established by judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction and no authority is hereby granted to a legislative body to determine that the public at large has acquired easements for access through or use of property within the proposed subdivision.

CHAPTER 519

An act to amend Sections 3, 5, and 8 of Chapter 833 of the Statutes of 1980, relating to the Tahoe region, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 13, 1982 Filed with Secretary of State August 15, 1982]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3 of Chapter 833 of the Statutes of 1980 is amended to read:

Sec. 3. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature to create the Tahoe Area Land Acquisition Commission to study all aspects of a state land purchase program for the Lake Tahoe region and to report thereon to the Legislature and the Governor, together with recommendations thereon, in accordance with the provisions of this act.

(b) Subdivision (a) of this section and Sections 4 to 11, inclusive, of this act shall not be implemented and no funds shall be encumbered thereunder or therefor unless Senate Bill No. 12 is enacted into law during the second year of the 1981–82 Regular Session of the Legislature and the voters of the State of California approve the issuance of state general obligation bonds as provided therein in conjunction with an election to be held in 1982.

SEC. 2. Section 5 of Chapter 833 of the Statutes of 1980 is amended to read:

Sec. 5. The Tahoe Area Land Acquisition Commission shall study and make recommendations concerning the use of funds which are or may become available to the state for the purpose of purchasing land to protect the resources of the Lake Tahoe region, including, but not limited to, funds that may become available pursuant to the Lake Tahoe Acquisitions Bond Act (Title 7.43 (commencing with Section 66950) of the Government Code) as proposed by Senate Bill No. 12 of the 1981–82 Regular Session.

SEC. 3. Section 8 of Chapter 833 of the Statutes of 1980 is amended to read:

Sec. 8. The Tahoe Area Land Acquisition Commission shall report to the Legislature as follows:

(a) By March 1, 1983, on the questions posed in subdivisions (a), (b), (c), and (d) of Section 6 of this act;

(b) By June 30, 1983, on the remaining questions posed in subdivisions (e), (f), (g), (h), (i), and (j) of Section 6 of this act.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that changes made by this act in the operation and implementation of the Tahoe Area Land Acquisition Commission and the dates by which the commission must report to the Legislature may be extended at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 520

An act to amend Section 1183 of the Civil Code, to amend Sections 162, 328, 333, 441, 630, 680, 681, 1000, 1025.5, and 1200.5 of, and to add Section 845 to, the Probate Code, relating to administration of estates.

[Approved by Governor August 13, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 15, 1982]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 162 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

162. General pecuniary legacies, including general pecuniary legacies in trust, if not paid prior to the first anniversary of the testator's death, bear interest thereafter at the rate of interest upon a judgment rendered in any court of this state pursuant to Article XV of the California Constitution. Annuities commence at the testator's death and are due at the end of the annual, monthly or other specified period. Whenever an annuitant, legatee of a legacy for maintenance or beneficiary of a trust may be entitled to periodic payments or trust income commencing at the testator's death, he shall be entitled to interest on the amount of any unpaid accumulations of such payments or income held by the executor or administrator on each anniversary of the decedent's death, computed from the date of such anniversary at the rate of interest upon a judgment rendered in any court of this state pursuant to Article XV of the California Constitution.

SEC. 2. Section 328 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

328. At least 10 days before the hearing, notice of the hearing must be personally served upon each heir of the testator and each devisee and legatee named in the will and each person named as executor who is not petitioning, or mailed, postage prepaid, from a post office within this state, addressed to each such person at his or her respective place of residence or mailing address, if known to the petitioner, if not, at the county seat of the county where the proceedings are pending. This notice shall also advise the person receiving the notice that the person may serve upon the executor or administrator, or upon the attorney for the executor or administrator, and file with the court with proof of service, a written request stating that the person desires special notice of the filing of an inventory and appraisement of estate assets or of the petitions or accounts mentioned in Sections 1200 and 1200.5.

Whenever the instrument offered for probate involves or may involve a testamentary trust of property for charitable purposes other than a charitable trust with a designated trustee, resident in this state, or involves or may involve a bequest or devise for a charitable purpose without an identified legatee, devisee, or beneficiary, notice of the hearing on the petition for probate accompanied by a copy of the petition and the will, must be personally served upon the Attorney General or mailed, postage prepaid from a post office within this state, addressed to him or her at the office of the Attorney General at Sacramento, California.

As used in this section "post office" includes mailbox, subpost office, substation and mail chute or other like facility regularly maintained by the government of the United States.

SEC. 3. Section 333 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

333. (a) Publication of notice pursuant to this section shall be for at least 10 days. Three publications in a newspaper published once a week or more often, with at least five days intervening between the first and last publication dates, not counting such publication dates, are sufficient. Notice shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city where the decedent resided at time of death, or where the decedent's property is located if the court has jurisdiction over the estate pursuant to subdivision (3) of Section 301. If there is no such newspaper, the decedent did not reside in a city, or the property is not located in a city, then notice shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county which is circulated within the community in which the decedent resided or the property is located. If there is no such newspaper, notice shall be given in written or printed form, posted at three of the most public places within such community. For purposes of this section, "city" means a charter city as defined in Section 34101 of the Government Code or a general law city as defined in Section 34102 of the Government Code.

(b) Whether published or posted, the caption of such notice and decedent's name shall be in at least 8-point type, the text of the notice shall be in at least 7-point type, and the notice shall state substantially as follows:

"NOTICE OF DEATH OF

AND OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE NO._____

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors and contingent creditors of _____ and persons who may be otherwise interested in the will and/or estate:

A petition has been filed by _____ in the Superior Court of _____ County requesting that _____ be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of _____ [under the Independent Administration of Estates Act]. The petition is set for hearing in Dept. No. _____ at _____ _____ on _____ at _____ .

(Address)

(Date of hearing) (Time of hearing)

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should either appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the deceased, you must file your claim with the court or present it to the personal representative appointed by the court within four months from the date of first issuance of letters as provided in Section 700 of the Probate Code of California. The time for filing claims will not expire prior to four months from the date of the hearing noticed above.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are interested in the estate, you may serve upon the executor or administrator, or upon the attorney for the executor or administrator, and file with the court with proof of service, a written request stating that you desire special notice of the filing of an inventory and appraisement of estate assets or of the petitions or accounts mentioned in Section 1200 and 1200.5 of the California Probate Code.

(Name and address of petitioner, or his or her attorney)"

(c) No petition filed pursuant to Section 326 or 440 may be heard by the court unless an affidavit showing due publication of notice has been filed with the clerk upon completion of the publication. Such affidavit shall contain a copy of the notice, and state the date of its first publication.

(d) When, however, notice has been previously published and an affidavit showing due publication of notice, containing a copy of the notice, and stating the date of its first publication, has been filed with the clerk upon completion of the publication, then, whether published or posted, the caption of any subsequent notice and decedent's name shall be in at least 8-point type, the text of the notice shall be in at least 7-point type, and the notice shall state substantially as follows:

"NOTICE OF

PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE NO._____

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors and contingent creditors of _____ and persons who may be otherwise interested in the will and/or estate:

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should either appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are interested in the estate, you may serve upon the executor or administrator, or upon the attorney for the executor or administrator, a written request stating that you desire special notice of the filing of an inventory and appraisement of estate assets or of the petitions or accounts mentioned in Sections 1200 and 1200.5 of the California Probate Code.

(Name and address of petitioner, or his or her attorney)"

SEC. 4. Section 441 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

441. The clerk shall set the petition for hearing by the court and cause notice thereof to be published pursuant to Section 333. The clerk shall also cause notice of the hearing to be mailed, postage prepaid, to each heir of the decedent named in the petition at least 10 days before the hearing, addressed to each heir at the heir's residence or mailing address as set forth in the petition, otherwise at the county seat of the county where the proceedings are pending. Such mailed notice shall also advise the person receiving such notice that the person may serve upon the executor or administrator, or upon the attorney for the executor or administrator, and file with the court with proof of service, a written request stating that the person desires special notice of the filing of an inventory and appraisement of estate assets or of the petitions or accounts mentioned in Sections 1200 and 1200.5.

SEC. 5. Section 630 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

630. When a decedent leaves no real property, nor interest therein nor lien thereon, in this state, and the total value of the decedent's property in this state, excluding any motor vehicle, or mobilehome or commercial coach registered under the provisions of Part 2 (commencing with Section 18000) of Division 13 of the Health and Safety Code, of which the decedent is the owner or legal owner, over and above any amounts due to the decedent for services in the armed forces of the United States, and over and above the amount of salary not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000), including compensation for unused vacation, owing to decedent for services from any employment, does not exceed thirty thousand dollars ($30,000), the surviving spouse, the children, lawful issue of deceased children, a parent, brothers or sisters of the decedent, the lawful issue of a deceased brother or sister, or the guardian or conservator of the estate of any person bearing such relationship to the decedent, or the trustee named under a trust agreement executed by the decedent during his lifetime, the primary beneficiaries of which bear such relationship to the decedent, if such person or persons has or have a right to succeed to the property of the decedent, or the sole beneficiary, or all of the beneficiaries under the last will and testament of the decedent, regardless of whether or not any beneficiary is related to the decedent, may, without procuring letters of administration, or awaiting the probate of the will, collect any money due the decedent, receive the property of the decedent, and have any evidences of interest, indebtedness or right transferred to such person or persons upon furnishing the person, representative, corporation, officer or body owing the money, having custody of such property or acting as registrar or transfer agent of such evidences of interest, indebtedness or right, with an affidavit or declaration under penalty of perjury showing the right of the person or persons to receive such money or property, or to have such evidences transferred.

SEC. 6. Section 680 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

680. (a) The surviving spouse, minor children, and adult children who are physically or mentally incapacitated from earning a living and were actually dependent in whole or in part upon the decedent for support are entitled to such reasonable allowance out of the estate as shall be necessary for their maintenance according to their circumstances, during the progress of the settlement of the estate.

(b) Other adult children who were actually dependent in whole or in part upon the decedent for support may be given such reasonable allowance out of the estate as the court in its discretion determines is necessary for their maintenance according to their circumstances during the progress of the settlement of the estate.

(c) In case of an insolvent estate, a family allowance must not continue longer than one year after granting letters. Such allowance must be paid in preference to all other charges, except funeral charges, expenses of the last illness and expenses of administration, and may, in the discretion of the court or judge granting it, take effect from the death of the decedent.

SEC. 7. Section 681 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

681. (a) The allowance provided for in subdivision (a) of Section 680 may be granted before the inventory is filed, either by the court or a judge thereof; in which case it shall continue until modified by the court. After the inventory is filed, the court may grant the allowance, or may modify any allowance made before the filing of the inventory, upon the petition of any person interested and a hearing, after notice is given by the petitioner for the period and in the manner required by Section 1200.5.

(b) The allowance provided for in subdivision (b) of Section 680 may be granted at any time upon the petition of any person interested and a hearing, after notice is given by the petitioner to all legatees or devisees and in case of intestacy to all known heirs of the decedent, and to all persons (or their attorneys, if they have appeared by attorney) who have requested special notice as provided in Section 1202, or who have given notice of appearance in person or by attorney, for the period and in the manner required by Section 1200.5.

SEC. 8. Section 845 is added to the Probate Code, to read:

845. The term "lease," as used in this article, shall include without limitation a lease which includes an option to purchase the real property of the estate, provided, however, that the applicable provisions for court approval in both this article and Section 584.3 shall apply to the execution of such a lease.

SEC. 9. Section 1000 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

1000. When two months have elapsed after the first issuance of letters as provided in Section 700 and upon bond—or with or without bond, as the court determines, when the time for filing or presenting claims has expired and all uncontested claims have been paid or are sufficiently secured by mortgage, or otherwise, but the estate is not in a condition to be finally closed and distributed—the executor or administrator, or any heir, devisee, or legatee, or the assignee, grantee, or successor in interest of any heir, devisee, or legatee, may petition the court for distribution of a legacy, devise, or share of the estate or any portion or portions thereof to which he or she is entitled or a payment on account of the legacies to the heirs, devisees, or legatees or any assignees, grantees, or successors in interest or where there are priorities, to those of the class or classes having priorities; or, if the decedent was a nonresident and left a will which has been duly proved or allowed in the state of his or her residence, and the will has been admitted to probate in this state pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 360) of Chapter 1 of Division 3, or if the decedent died intestate, and an administrator has been duly appointed and qualified in the state of his or her residence, and it is necessary, in order that the estate or any part thereof may be distributed according to the will, or it is for the best interests of the estate, that any part of the estate in this state should be delivered to the executor or administrator in the state of the decedent's residence, the executor or administrator may petition the court for an order authorizing the delivery of such portion of the estate as the court shall deem safe and proper and for the best interests of the estate, to the executor or administrator in the state of decedent's residence.

The clerk shall set the petition for hearing by the court. At least 10 days before the hearing of the petition, notice of the hearing must be served upon the executor or administrator when he or she is not the petitioner, upon the devisees and legatees whose interest in the estate is affected by such petition for distribution, to the heirs of the decedent in intestate estates, to the State of California if any portion of the estate is to escheat to it, and to persons who have filed a request for special notice pursuant to Section 1202. Such notice shall be delivered personally or sent by first-class mail, or sent by airmail to any person residing outside the jurisdiction of the United States, at his or her last known mailing address. Any person interested in the estate or any coexecutor or coadministrator may resist the petition.

SEC. 10. Section 1025.5 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

1025.5. Within one year from the date of issuance of letters in estates not required to file a federal estate tax return and within 18 months from the date of issuance of letters in estates where such return is required, the executor or administrator must either petition for final distribution of the estate or file a verified report of status of administration. If such report is filed, it shall show the condition of the estate and the reasons why the estate cannot be distributed and closed. The clerk shall set such report for hearing by the court and the executor or administrator shall give notice thereof to all legatees or devisees, and in case of intestacy, to all known heirs of the decedent, and to all persons (or their attorneys, if they have appeared by attorney) who have requested special notice as provided in Section 1202, or who have given notice of appearance in person or by attorney, for the period and in the manner required by Section 1200.5. Upon the hearing of such report, the court may either order that the administration of the estate continue for such time and upon such terms and conditions as it determines reasonable, provided that it finds that such continuance is in the best interests of the estate or the persons interested therein, or it may order the executor or administrator to file the petition for final distribution.

If such petition or report is not filed by the executor or administrator within the times set forth herein or prescribed by the court, then, upon petition of any person interested in the estate or upon its own motion, the court may cite the executor or administrator to appear before the court and show the condition of the estate and the reasons why the estate cannot be distributed and closed. Upon the hearing of such citation, the court may either order the administration of the estate to continue as above provided or may order the executor or administrator to file the petition for final distribution.

Failure of the executor or administrator to comply with any order made under this section shall be grounds for revocation of letters.

If, upon the hearing for final distribution or for an allowance upon the commissions of the executor or administrator or upon the fees of the attorney, the court finds that the time taken for administration of the estate exceeds the applicable time set forth herein or prescribed by the court, and was caused by factors within the control of the executor or administrator or the attorney and that such time taken was not in best interests of the estate or the persons interested therein, the court may, notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 901 and 910, reduce the fees or commissions of the person or persons having control of such factors by such amount as the court deems appropriate, regardless of whether the fees or commissions otherwise allowable under the provisions of Sections 901 and 910 would be reasonable compensation for the services rendered by such person or persons.

This section shall be applicable only to the estates of persons dying on or after January 1, 1977.

SEC. 11. Section 1200.5 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

1200.5. (a) Notice shall be given in the manner prescribed in subdivision (b) upon the filing of any of the following:

(1) A petition under Section 641 of this code for the setting aside of an estate.

(2) A petition to set apart a homestead or exempt property.

(3) A petition relating to the family allowance filed after the return of the inventory.

(4) A petition for leave to settle or compromise a claim against a debtor of the decedent or a claim against the estate or a suit against the executor or administrator as such.

(5) A petition for the sale of stocks or bonds.

(6) A petition for confirmation of a sale or a petition to grant an option to purchase real property.

(7) A petition for leave to enter into an agreement to sell or give an option to purchase a mining claim or real property worked as a mine.

(8) A petition for leave to execute a promissory note or mortgage or deed of trust or give other security.

(9) A petition for leave to lease or to exchange property, or to institute an action for the partition of property.

(10) A petition for an order authorizing or directing the investment of money.

(11) An account of an executor or administrator or trustee.

(12) A petition for partial or ratable or preliminary or final distribution.

(13) A petition for the delivery of the estate of a nonresident.

(14) A petition for determination of heirship or interests in an estate.

(15) A petition of a trustee for instructions.

(16) A petition for the appointment of a trustee.

(17) Any petition for letters of administration or for probate of will, or for letters of administration-with-will annexed, which is filed after letters of administration or letters testamentary have once been issued.

(18) A report of status of administration.

(19) A petition for family allowance.

(b) At least 10 days before the time set for the hearing of the petition or account, the petitioner or person filing the account shall cause notice of the time and place of hearing to be mailed to the executor or administrator, when he or she is not the petitioner, to any coexecutor or coadministrator not petitioning, and to all persons (or to their attorneys, if they have appeared by attorney), who have requested notice or who have given notice of appearance in the estate in person or by attorney, as heir, devisee, legatee or creditor, or as otherwise interested, addressed to them at their respective post office addresses given in their request for special notice, if any, otherwise at their respective offices or places of residence, if known, and if not, at the county seat of the county where the proceedings are pending, or to be personally served upon such person.

(c) Proof of the giving of notice shall be made at the hearing; and, if it appears to the satisfaction of the court that the notice has been regularly given, the court shall so find in its order, and the order shall be conclusive upon all persons when it becomes final.

(d) This section shall not apply to proceedings under Division 4 (commencing with Section 1400). When a provision of Division 4 applies the provisions of this code applicable to executors or administrators to proceedings under Division 4, a reference to this section in the provisions applicable to executors or administrators shall be deemed to be a reference to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1460) of Part 1 of Division 4.

(e) The notice required by this section shall be in addition to the notice, if any, required to be given in the manner specified in Section 1200.

SEC. 12. The amendment to Section 162 of the Probate Code contained in Section 1 of this act shall not affect the estate of any person dying before the effective date thereof.

SEC. 13. Section 1183 of the Civil Code, is amended to read:

1183. The proof or acknowledgment of an instrument may be made without the United States, before any of the following:

(1) A minister, commissioner, or chargé d'affaires of the United States, resident and accredited in the country where the proof or acknowledgment is made.

(2) A consul, vice consul, or consular agent of the United States, resident in the country where the proof or acknowledgment is made.

(3) A judge of a court of record of the country where the proof or acknowledgment is made.

(4) Commissioners appointed by the Governor or Secretary of State for that purpose.

(5) A notary public.

If the proof or acknowledgment is made before a notary public, the signature of the notary public must be proved or acknowledged before a judge of a court of record of the country where the proof or acknowledgment is made or by the certificate ("apostille") and in the manner provided for in the Convention Abolishing the Requirement of Legislation for Foreign Public Documents (effected at the Hague, the 5th October 1961).

CHAPTER 521

An act to amend Section 2934a of the Civil Code, relating to deeds of trust.

[Approved by Governor August 13, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 15, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2934a of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2934a. (a) (1) The trustee under a trust deed upon real property given to secure an obligation to pay money and conferring no other duties upon the trustee than those which are incidental to the exercise of the power of sale therein conferred, may be substituted by the recording in the county in which the property is located of a substitution executed and acknowledged by all of the beneficiaries under the trust deed, or their successors in interest, and the substitution shall be effective notwithstanding any contrary provision in any trust deed executed on or after January 1, 1968.

(2) The substitution shall contain the date of recordation of the trust deed, the name of the trustor, the book and page where the trust deed is recorded and the name of the new trustee. From the time the substitution is filed for record, the new trustee shall succeed to all the powers, duties, authority, and title granted and delegated to the trustee named in the deed of trust. A substitution may be accomplished with respect to multiple deeds of trust which are recorded in the same county in which the substitution is being recorded and which all have the same trustee and beneficiary or beneficiaries by recording a single document, complying with the requirements of this section, substituting trustees for all such deeds of trust.

(b) If the substitution is effected after a notice of default has been recorded but prior to the giving of the notice of sale, the beneficiary or beneficiaries shall cause a copy of the substitution to be mailed, prior to the recording thereof, in the manner provided in Section 2924b, to all persons to whom a copy of the notice of default would be required to be mailed by the provisions of Section 2924b, and shall also give a copy of the substitution to the trustee then of record. In those cases, the substitution shall contain an acknowledgment signed and acknowledged by the trustee then of record of a receipt of a copy, or an affidavit of personal service of a copy, or of publication of notice of it in accordance with Section 6061 of the Government Code (showing also that a copy of the substitution had been mailed to the trustee at the trustee's last known address), and an affidavit shall be attached to the substitution that notice has been given to those persons and in the manner required by this subdivision.

(c) Notwithstanding any provision of this section or any provision in any deed of trust, unless a new notice of sale containing the name, street address, and telephone number of the substituted trustee is given pursuant to Section 2924f, any sale conducted by the substituted trustee shall be void.

CHAPTER 522

An act to amend Sections 26840.7 and 26840.8 of the Government Code, and to amend Section 18305 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to marriage license fees.

[Approved by Governor August 17, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 17, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 26840.7 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26840.7. In addition to the fee prescribed by Section 26840 and as authorized by Section 26840.3, the county clerk shall collect a fee of thirteen dollars ($13) at the time of issuance of the license. The fee shall be disposed of by the clerk pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 18290) of Part 6 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

SEC. 2. Section 26840.8 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26840.8. In addition to the fee prescribed by Section 26840.1 and as authorized by Section 26840.3, the person issuing an authorization for the performance of a marriage or the county clerk, upon providing a blank authorization form pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 4213, shall collect a fee of thirteen dollars ($13) at the time of filing the certificate. The fee shall be disposed of pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 18290) of Part 6 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

SEC. 2.5. Section 26840.8 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26840.8. In addition to the fee prescribed by Section 26840.1 and as authorized by Section 26840.3, the person issuing an authorization for the performance of a marriage pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 4213 of the Civil Code or the county clerk, upon providing a blank authorization form pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 4213 of the Civil Code, shall collect a fee of thirteen dollars ($13) at the time of providing the authorization. The fee shall be disposed of pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 18290) of Part 6 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

SEC. 3. Section 18305 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

18305. At the time of issuance of a marriage license pursuant to Section 26840 of the Government Code, thirteen dollars ($13) of each fee paid shall be collected by the county clerk for deposit at the county's election into the county domestic violence programs special fund. The fees collected in this special fund shall be disbursed to approved programs on a yearly or more frequent basis commencing July 1, 1980.

The county clerk shall, at the request of the board of supervisors, deposit thirteen dollars ($13) of each fee into a county domestic violence programs special fund. The county domestic violence programs special fund shall fund programs established pursuant to Section 18304. No more than 10 percent of the funds shall be expended for the administrative costs associated with the collection and segregation of the additional marriage license fees, administration of the county special fund, monitoring of the programs, and meeting the other administrative requirements imposed by this chapter. Counties which do not participate in the establishing or funding of domestic violence programs pursuant to this chapter, shall be entitled to retain up to 4 percent of the funds for the administrative costs associated with the collection and segregation of the additional marriage license fees and the deposit of these fees in the General Fund in the State Treasury. Any money not used by the county for programs described pursuant to this chapter, shall be deposited in the General Fund.

The Controller shall ensure that the amount deposited in the General Fund pursuant to this section shall be obligated to repay any General Fund appropriation made in the 1983 Budget Act; and thereafter shall be used to finance domestic violence programs in those counties where the revenue generated pursuant to this chapter does not exceed two thousand dollars ($2,000) per year.

SEC. 4. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Senate Bill 1301 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1983, both bills amend Section 26840.8 of the Government Code, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill 1301, that the amendments to Section 26840.8 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 26840.8 in the form set forth in Section 2.5 of this act. Therefore, Section 2.5 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Senate Bill 1301 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1983, both amend Section 26840.8, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill 1301, in which case Section 2 of this act shall not become operative.

An act relating to reparations for salary losses caused by the dismissal of state civil service employees pursuant to Senate Concurrent Resolution 15 of the 1941–42 First Extraordinary Session.

[Approved by Governor August 17, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 17, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares the following:

(a) The dismissal of various state civil service employees during the wartime years of World War II was based largely on fear and suspicion rather than on factual justification therefor.

(b) Various dismissals resulted directly from the enactment of Senate Concurrent Resolution 15 (Res. Ch. 49, Stats. 1941–42, 1st Ex. Sess.), which called into question the loyalty of state civil service employees, particularly those with dual citizenship, and their children, and called upon the State Personnel Board to dismiss those persons from, or prevent them from obtaining, state civil service employment based upon their disloyalty.

(c) It is fair and just that reparations should be made to those employees who were terminated from state civil service during the wartime years as a result of the enactment of SCR 15.

(d) To this end, the Legislature finds that equity and fairness will be served by authorizing the filing of claims with the state for salary losses suffered by the civil service employees directly affected, and authorizing the payment thereof, subject to the provisions of this act.

SEC. 2. Any person who, due to the enactment of SCR 15, was dismissed, terminated from a temporary position, rejected during their probationary period, or voluntarily resigned in lieu of dismissal from state civil service and who incurred salary losses as a result thereof, is eligible to file a claim with the state for the reparation of those losses. Claims must be postmarked by May 15 of each year.

SEC. 3. The claim may be submitted for the reparation of the salary losses suffered during the years 1942 to 1947. The claim shall be supported by appropriate verification, such as the person's name at the time of the dismissal, the name of the employing department, a social security number, or by evidence of official action, such as a letter of termination.

SEC. 4. Claims shall be filed with the Department of Personnel Administration, which shall determine the eligibility of a claimant to receive reparations authorized by this act. The department may enact regulations that will assist in the fair determination of eligibility and the processing of claims. The department, however, shall have no obligation to directly notify any person of possible eligibility for reparation of salary losses pursuant to this act.

SEC. 5. A claimant who is determined eligible by the department shall receive one thousand two hundred fifty dollars ($1,250) each year for up to four years. All claims which the department determines are eligible for reparation shall be forwarded to the Controller, who shall issue warrants in the appropriate amounts. In the event of the death of an eligible claimant, payment shall be made to the claimant's estate.

SEC. 6. No person other than a person who suffered a loss of salary as a result of state action taken pursuant to SCR 15, shall be eligible to file a claim pursuant to this act. No claim may be filed by the survivor of any such person. The death of a claimant prior to a claim shall terminate the claim.

SEC. 7. It is the intent of the Legislature that the appropriation for the payment of reparations authorized by this act shall be made in the Budget Act of 1983, and that the payment of those eligible claims shall be made upon the effective date of that act.

CHAPTER 524

An act to amend Section 26003 of the Public Resources Code, relating to energy resources.

[Approved by Governor August 17, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 18, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 26003 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

26003. As used in this division, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Authority" means the California Alternative Energy Source Financing Authority established pursuant to Section 26004 and any board, commission, department, or officer succeeding to the functions thereof, or to whom the powers conferred upon the authority by this division shall be given.

(b) "Cost" as applied to a project or portion thereof financed under the provisions of this division means all or any part of the cost of construction and acquisition of all lands, structures, real or personal property or an interest therein, rights, rights-of-way, franchises, easements, and interests acquired or used for a project; the cost of demolishing or removing any buildings or structures on land so acquired, including the cost of acquiring any lands to which such buildings or structures may be moved; the cost of all machinery, equipment, and furnishings, financing charges, interest prior to, during, and for a period after, completion of such construction as determined by the authority; provisions for working capital; reserves for principal and interest and for extensions, enlargements, additions, replacements, renovations, and improvements; the cost of architectural, engineering, financial, accounting, auditing and legal services, plans, specifications, estimates, administrative expenses, and other expenses necessary or incident to determining the feasibility of constructing any project or incident to the construction, acquisition, or financing of any project.

(c) "Participating party" means any person, company, corporation, partnership, firm, or other entity or group of entities engaged in operations within this state which requires financing pursuant to the terms of this division to aid and assist in the promotion of alternative energy sources in the state.

(d) "Alternative sources" means the application of cogeneration technology, as defined in Section 25134; the conservation of energy; or the use of solar, biomass, wind, geothermal, hydroelectricity under 30 megawatts, or any other source of energy, the efficient use of which will reduce the use of fossil and nuclear fuels.

(e) "Project" means any land, building, improvement thereto, rehabilitation, work, property, or structure, real or personal, including, but not limited to, machinery and equipment, whether or not in existence or under construction, utilizing or designed to utilize an alternative source.

(f) "Revenue" means all rents, receipts, purchase payments, loan repayments, and all other income or receipts derived by the authority from the sale, lease, or other disposition of alternative source facilities, or the making of loans to finance alternative source facilities, and any income or revenue derived from the investment of any money in any fund or account of the authority.

(g) "Public agency" means any federal or state agency, board, or commission, or any county, city and county, city, regional agency, public district, or other political subdivision.

CHAPTER 525

An act to amend Section 39619 of the Education Code, relating to school property.

[Approved by Governor August 17, 1982 Filed with Secretary of State August 18, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 39619 of the Education Code is amended to read:

39619. (a) Whenever, in any given fiscal year, a school district has budgeted, exclusive of state matching funds and district funds previously matched pursuant to subdivision (b), in its deferred maintenance fund established pursuant to Section 39618 an amount equal to, or greater than, that amount the district expended from its general fund for major maintenance, repair, or modernization of existing school buildings, as specified in Section 39618, exclusive of categorical aid funds and any proceeds from the sale of district property which were expended for the purpose of the district deferred maintenance account, in either the 1978–79 or 1979–80 fiscal year, adjusted annually to the current fiscal year in conformance with the percentage change in the district revenue limit computed pursuant to Section 42237 or 42238, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall so certify to the State Allocation Board.

(b) The State Allocation Board shall apportion, from the State School Deferred Maintenance Fund, to school districts an amount equal to one dollar ($1) for each one dollar ($1) of local funds up to a maximum of ½ percent of the total general funds and adult education funds budgeted by the district for the fiscal year, exclusive of any amounts budgeted for capital outlay or debt service, to the extent of funds available pursuant to Chapter 24 (commencing with Section 17780) of Part 10.

CHAPTER 526

An act to amend Section 18555 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor August 17, 1982 Filed with Secretary of State August 18, 1982]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that the existing statutory provisions designed to relieve "innocent spouses" of liability from income tax deficiencies are in fact so limiting that many truly deserving spouses are being denied freedom from liability, because the Franchise Tax Board and the courts lack the statutory flexibility to grant justice on a case-by-case basis. This act liberalizes the standards applied to eligibility for "innocent spouse" status, and recognizes that a spouse's financial problems may stem not only from back taxes resulting from any type of erroneous income tax computation, but also from nonpayment or underpayment of tax due.

SEC. 2. Section 18555 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18555. (a) The spouse who controls the disposition of or who receives or spends community income as well as the spouse who is taxable on the income is liable for the payment of the taxes imposed by this part on that income.

(b) Whenever a joint return is filed by a husband and wife, the liability for the tax on the aggregate income is joint and several. The liability may be revised by a court in a proceeding for dissolution of the marriage of the husband and wife, provided:

(1) The order revising tax liability may not relieve a spouse of tax liability on income earned by or subject to the exclusive management and control of the spouse. The liability of the spouse for the tax, penalties, and interest due for the taxable year shall be in the same ratio to total tax, penalties, and interest due for the taxable year as the income earned by or subject to the management and control of the spouse is to total gross income reportable on the return.

(2) The order revising tax liability:

(A) Must separately state the taxable years for which revision of tax liability is granted.

(B) Shall not revise a tax liability that has been fully paid prior to the effective date of the order; however, any unpaid amount may be revised.

(C) Shall become effective when the Franchise Tax Board is served with or acknowledges receipt of the order.

(D) Shall not be effective if the gross income reportable on the return exceeds fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or the amount of tax liability the spouse is relieved of exceeds two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) unless a tax revision clearance certificate is obtained from the Franchise Tax Board and filed with the court.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (b), whenever a joint return is filed by a husband and wife and the tax liability is not fully paid, that liability, including interest and penalties, may be revised by the Franchise Tax Board as to one spouse.

(1) However, the liability shall not be revised:

(A) To relieve a spouse of tax liability on income earned by or subject to the exclusive management and control of the spouse. The liability of the spouse for the tax, penalties, and interest due for the taxable year shall be in the same ratio to total tax, penalties, and interest due for the taxable year as the income earned by or subject to the management and control of the spouse is to total gross income reportable on the return.

(B) To relieve a spouse of liability below the amount actually paid on the liability prior to the granting of relief, including credit from any other taxable year available for application to the liability.

(2) The liability may be revised only if the spouse whose liability is to be revised establishes that he or she did not know of, and had no reason to know of, the nonpayment at the time the return was filed. For purposes of this paragraph, "reason to know" means whether or not a reasonably prudent person would have had reason to know of the nonpayment.

(3) For purposes of this section, the determination of the spouse to whom items of gross income are attributable shall be made without regard to community property laws.

(4) The determination of the Franchise Tax Board as to whether the liability is to be revised as to one spouse shall be made not less than 30 days after notification of the other spouse and shall be based upon whether, under all of the facts and circumstances surrounding the nonpayment, it would be inequitable to hold the spouse requesting revision liable for the nonpayment. Any action taken under this section shall be treated as though it were action on a protest taken under Section 18592 and shall become final upon the expiration of 30 days from the date that notice of the action is mailed to both spouses, unless, within that 30-day period, one or both spouses appeal the determination to the board as provided in Section 18593.

(5) This subdivision shall apply to all taxable years subject to the provisions of this part, but shall not apply to any taxable year which has been closed by a statute of limitations, res judicata, or otherwise.

SEC. 3. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 527

An act relating to aviation.

[Approved by Governor August 17, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 18, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Allocations totaling thirteen thousand eight hundred thirty-six dollars ($13,836) made from the Aeronautics Account in the State Transportation Fund by the Division of Aeronautics of the Department of Transportation to the City of Oceanside between July 1, 1975, and June 30, 1979, are hereby ratified, validated, confirmed, and declared legally effective for all purposes.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that Section 1 of this act is necessary since special facts and circumstances applicable to the City of Oceanside and not generally applicable make the accomplishment of this purpose impossible by any general law. The funds referred to in Section 1 were expended by the City of Oceanside at a time when the city was ineligible to receive the funds. The city, believing it was eligible to receive the funds, expended them in good faith for otherwise qualified airport purposes, and the city's eligibility problems have since been corrected. The Legislature further finds and declares that this is the only such expenditure of funds involved, that the purpose of this act is impossible to accomplish by any general law within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution, and that special legislation applicable to the City of Oceanside is therefore necessary.

CHAPTER 528

An act to amend Section 3332 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to the California Exposition and State Fair, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 17, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 18, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3332 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

3332. The board has authority to do any of the following:

(a) Contract.

(b) Accept funds or gifts of value from the United States or any person to aid in carrying out the purposes of this part.

(c) Conduct or contract for programs, either independently or in cooperation with any individual, public or private organization, or federal, state, or local governmental agency.

(d) Establish and maintain a bank checking account or a savings and loan association account, approved by the Director of Finance in accordance with Sections 16506 and 16605 of the Government Code, for depositing funds appropriated to the California Exposition and State Fair pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 19622 of the Business and Professions Code. The Department of Finance shall audit the account at the end of each fiscal year.

(e) Make or adopt all necessary orders, rules, or regulations for governing the activities of the California Exposition and State Fair.

(f) Delegate to the officers and employees of the California Exposition and State Fair the authority to appoint civil service personnel according to state civil service procedures.

(g) Delegate to the officers and employees of the California Exposition and State Fair the exercise of powers vested in the board as the board may deem desirable for the orderly management and operation of the California Exposition and State Fair.

(h) Appoint all necessary marshals and police to keep order and preserve peace at the California Exposition and State Fair premises on a year-round basis who shall have the powers of peace officers specified in Section 830.3 of the Penal Code.

(i) Lease, with the approval of the Department of General Services, any of its property for any purpose for any period of time.

(j) Use or manage any of its property, with the approval of the Department of General Services, jointly or in connection with any lessee or sublessee, for any purpose approved by the board.

SEC. 2. Section 3332 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

3332. The board has authority to do any of the following:

(a) Contract.

(b) Accept funds or gifts of value from the United States or any person to aid in carrying out the purposes of this part.

(c) Conduct or contract for programs, either independently or in cooperation with any individual, public or private organization, or federal, state, or local governmental agency.

(d) Establish and maintain a bank checking account or a savings and loan association account, approved by the Director of Finance in accordance with Sections 16506 and 16605 of the Government Code, for depositing funds appropriated to the California Exposition and State Fair pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 19622 of the Business and Professions Code. The Department of Finance shall audit the account at the end of each fiscal year.

(e) Make or adopt all necessary orders, rules, or regulations for governing the activities of the California Exposition and State Fair.

(f) Delegate to the officers and employees of the California Exposition and State Fair the authority to appoint civil service personnel according to state civil service procedures.

(g) Delegate to the officers and employees of the California Exposition and State Fair the exercise of powers vested in the board as the board may deem desirable for the orderly management and operation of the California Exposition and State Fair.

(h) Appoint all necessary marshals and police to keep order and preserve peace at the California Exposition and State Fair premises on a year-round basis who shall have the powers of peace officers specified in Section 830.3 of the Penal Code. A member of the California State Police Division may be employed as such a marshal or police officer while off duty from his or her regular employment, subject to such conditions as may be set forth by the Chief of the California State Police. At least 75 percent of the persons appointed pursuant to this subdivision must possess the basic certificate issued by the Commission on Peace Officers Standards and Training. The remaining 25 percent may be appointed if the person has completed a Peace Officer Standards and Training certified academy or possesses a Level One Reserve Certificate (as defined in Section 832.6 of the Penal Code).

(i) Lease, with the approval of the Department of General Services, any of its property for any purpose for any period of time.

(j) Use or manage any of its property, with the approval of the Department of General Services, jointly or in connection with any lessee or sublessee, for any purpose approved by the board.

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Assembly Bill 2405 are both chaptered and become effective, both bills amend Section 3332 of the Food and Agricultural Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill 2405, that Section 3332 of the Food and Agricultural Code, as amended by Section 1 of Assembly Bill 2405 be further amended on the effective date of this act in the form set forth in Section 2 of this act to incorporate the changes in Section 3332 proposed by this bill. Therefore, Section 2 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Assembly Bill 2405 are both chaptered and become effective, both bills amend Section 3332, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill 2045, in which case Section 2 of this act shall become operative on the effective date of this act and Section 1 of this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that the specific powers and the management flexibility provided the Board of Directors of the California Exposition and State Fair by this act may be applicable to the 1982 exposition and fair, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 529

An act to amend Section 461 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to agriculture.

[Approved by Governor August 17, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 18, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 461 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

461. The department may conduct surveys or investigations of any nursery, orchard, vineyard, agricultural commodity, agricultural appliance, farm, or other premises within the state liable to be infested or infected with any pest as defined in Section 5006 or disease, including any infectious, transmissible, and contagious diseases of livestock and poultry, for the purpose of detecting the presence of, or determining the status of, the pest or disease. The director and the county agricultural commissioner shall consult concerning these surveys or investigations and in the conduct or implementation of any control or eradication activity when the provisions of this code provide joint responsibilities in connection with the pest or disease.

SEC. 2. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because provisions of the Food and Agricultural Code presently provide a reimbursement mechanism for local agencies to be reimbursed for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

CHAPTER 530

An act to add Section 13412 to the Business and Professions Code, and to repeal Section 19955.6 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to disabled persons, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 17, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 18, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13412 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

13412. (a) Every person, firm, partnership, association, trustee, or corporation which operates a gasoline service station, or other facility which offers gasoline or other motor vehicle fuel for sale to the public from such a facility, shall provide, upon request, refueling service to a disabled driver of a vehicle which displays a disabled person's plate or placard, or disabled veteran's plate or placard, issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles. The price charged for the motor vehicle fuel in such a case shall be no greater than that which the facility otherwise would charge the public generally to purchase motor vehicle fuel without refueling service.

(b) The provisions of this section do not apply to any of the following facilities:

(1) Exclusive self-service gas stations which have remotely controlled gas pumps, which are operated by a single cashier, and which never provide pump island service.

(2) Convenience stores which sell gasoline, which have remotely controlled gas pumps, which are operated by a single cashier, and which never provide pump island service.

(c) Any person who, as a responsible managing individual setting service policy of a station or facility or as an employee acting independently against set service policy, acts in violation of this section is guilty of an infraction punishable by a fine of twenty-five dollars ($25).

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 12103.5 and 13590, the provisions of this section shall be enforced by the Director of the Department of Rehabilitation, the district attorney, city attorney, or the Attorney General.

(e) The Director of the Department of Rehabilitation may, upon his or her own motion, and shall, upon the verified complaint of any person or public agency, investigate the actions of any person, firm, partnership, association, trustee, or corporation alleged to have violated this section. If the director determines that there may have been a violation, he or she shall refer the matter for prosecution to the district attorney, the city attorney, or the Attorney General.

(f) In addition to those matters referred pursuant to subdivision (e), the district attorney, the city attorney, or the Attorney General, upon his or her own motion, may investigate and prosecute alleged violations of this section.

(g) A notice setting forth the provisions of this section shall be provided by the Board of Equalization, in its quarterly newsletter, to every person, firm, partnership, association, trustee, or corporation which operates a gasoline service station, or other facility which offers gasoline or other motor vehicle fuel for sale to the public from such a facility.

(h) A notice setting forth the provisions of this section shall be provided by the Department of Motor Vehicles to every person who is issued a disabled person's plate or placard or a disabled veteran's plate or placard.

(i) For the purposes of this section, "refueling service" means the service of pumping motor vehicle fuel into the fuel tank of a motor vehicle.

SEC. 2. Section 19955.6 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

To ensure that disabled persons are able to receive refueling services for their vehicles as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act go into effect immediately.

CHAPTER 531

An act to repeal and add Section 4840.7 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to veterinary medicine.

[Approved by Governor August 17, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 18, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4840.7 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 4840.7 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

4840.7. (a) An animal health technician who has been examined by the board in the area of radiation safety and techniques may operate radiographic equipment under the indirect supervision of a licensed veterinarian.

(b) An unregistered assistant may operate radiographic equipment under the direct supervision of an animal health technician or a licensed veterinarian.

CHAPTER 532

An act to amend Section 12205 of, and to repeal and add Section 12024.55 of, the Business and Professions Code, relating to weights and measures.

[Approved by Governor August 17, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 18, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12024.55 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 12024.55 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

12024.55. Packages of meat, fish, or poultry offered for sale by door-to-door salespersons shall display the price per pound for each type and cut in the package. The price per pound shall be separately and accurately stated and shall be preceded by the words "price per pound" on each principal display panel of the package, as the term "principal display panel" is defined by regulations of the director adopted pursuant to Section 12610. All numbers and letters of the price per pound shall be of uniform size, at least one-quarter inch (6.35 millimeters) in height, and shall be generally parallel to the net quantity statement. There shall in addition be an area surrounding the statement of price at least equal in width to the height of the letters and numbers in the statement of price which shall be free of any printed material.

SEC. 3. Section 12205 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

12205. For the purpose of advising himself on the best and most efficacious methods of performing his duties and conducting his office, every county sealer serving in a county shall attend the annual meeting of the California Association of Weights and Measures Officials and such other meetings as the department or the board of supervisors requires.

The county sealer shall be allowed all actual and necessary traveling expenses incurred while on any service that requires him to go outside the county. Those expenses shall be a charge against the county in which the county sealer is employed.

SEC. 4. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 533

An act to amend Section 32000.5 of the Vehicle Code, relating to hazardous materials.

[Approved by Governor August 17, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 18, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 32000.5 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

32000.5. (a) Every motor carrier who directs the transportation of an explosive and, on and after July 1, 1982, any motor carrier who directs the transportation of a hazardous material, who is required to display placards pursuant to Section 27903, and every retailer, wholesaler, distributor, manufacturer, refiner, or commercial motor carrier who transports in excess of 500 pounds of hazardous material, shall be licensed in accordance with the provisions of this code, unless specifically exempted by this code or regulations adopted pursuant to this code. This license shall be available for examination and shall be displayed in accordance with the regulations adopted by the commissioner.

(b) This division shall not apply to any person hauling only hazardous waste, as defined in Section 25115 or 25117 of the Health and Safety Code, and who is registered pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25163 of the Health and Safety Code or who is exempt from that registration pursuant to subdivision (b) of that section.

(c) This division shall not apply to implements of husbandry, as defined in Section 36000.

CHAPTER 534

An act to amend Section 22381 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to invention development services contracts.

[Approved by Governor August 17, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 18, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22381 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

22381. In the first oral communication with a customer or in the first written response to an inquiry by a customer other than an oral communication or written response, the primary purpose of which is to arrange an appointment with the invention developer for presentation of his or her invention development services, the invention developer shall cause the following written disclosures to be made and given to each customer at the time of the disclosure:

(a) A statement of the fee charged, if known, or a statement of the approximate range of fees charged; a statement that a portion of the fee charged will be paid as a commission or other similar payment, if in fact it is intended to be so paid, to a person inducing, directly or indirectly, a customer to contract for the services of the invention developer; and a statement of the approximate portion of the fee charged, if any, that will be expended for services relating to patent matters.

(b) A statement that the invention developer does not intend to expend more for the invention development services than the fee charged the customer, if, in fact, it does not, and if it does, a statement of the estimated expenditures of the invention developer in excess of the fee received from the customer.

(c) A single statement setting forth both (1) the total number of customers who have contracted with the invention developer; however, the number need not reflect those customers who have contracted within the last 30 days; and (2) the number of customers that have received by virtue of the invention developer's performance of invention development services an amount of money in excess of the amount of money paid by those customers to the invention developer.

(d) A statement as follows:

"Any contract for invention development services between you and our firm will be regulated by law. Our firm is not qualified or permitted to advise you whether protection of your idea or invention is available under the patent, copyright or trademark laws of the United States or any other law. The contract does not provide any patent, copyright or trademark protection for your idea or invention. If your idea or invention is patentable, copyrightable or subject to trademark protection, or infringes an existing valid patent, copyright or trademark or a patent, copyright or trademark for which application has been made, your failure to inquire into these matters may affect your rights to your idea or invention."

SEC. 2. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 535

An act to amend Sections 11707, 11712, and 11713 of the Vehicle Code, relating to occupational licenses.

[Approved by Governor August 17, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 18, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11707 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11707. (a) The director may, following the filing of an accusation against a licensee under this chapter and prior to conducting a hearing pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, exercise an option, with the consent of the licensee, to enter into and adopt a stipulated penalty whereby the licensee agrees to accept the terms and conditions of the penalty without hearing or appeal by any party thereto.

(b) The director may, following the filing of an accusation against a licensee or prior to adopting any recommendation resulting from a hearing held pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, exercise an option, with the consent of the licensee, to impose and require the payment of a monetary penalty of a minimum and maximum amount for each violation alleged and stipulated to by the licensee, as established by a schedule under regulations adopted pursuant to this code, without further hearing or appeal.

(c) Each compromise settlement agreement and each monetary penalty agreement effected pursuant to this section shall be signed by the respondent licensee, the director, and the accuser, or by their authorized representatives, and filed with the Office of Administrative Hearings, together with the department's notice of withdrawal of the accusation upon which the action was initiated if the compromise settlement agreement or monetary payment agreement is effected before the hearing.

(d) Failure of the respondent to honor the terms and conditions of any agreement effected under this section shall render the agreement null and void, and shall be cause for action pursuant to Section 11705 in the same manner as the department may have otherwise proceeded notwithstanding the agreement.

The amount of the penalty provided for in subdivision (b) shall not exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) and shall be based upon the nature of the violation and the seriousness of the effect of the violation upon the effectuation of the purposes and provisions of this chapter.

SEC. 2. Section 11712 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11712. (a) The department shall not issue a dealer's license to any applicant therefor who has not an established place of business as defined in this code. Should the dealer change the site or location of his established place of business, he or she shall, immediately upon making that change, so notify the department. Should a dealer for any reason whatsoever, cease to be in possession of an established place of business from and on which he or she conducts the business for which he or she is licensed, he or she shall immediately notify the department and, upon demand by the department, shall deliver to the department the dealer's license, dealer's special plate or plates, and all report of sale books in his or her possession.

(b) Should the dealer change to, or add another franchise for the sale of new vehicles, or cancel or, for any cause whatever, otherwise lose a franchise for the sale of new vehicles, he or she shall immediately so notify the department.

(c) Any person licensed under this article who has closed his or her established place of business may be served with process issued pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code by registered mail at that place of business, unless the person has notified the department in writing of another address where service may be made.

SEC. 3. Section 11713 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11713. It shall be unlawful and a violation of this code for the holder of any license issued under this article:

(a) To make or disseminate or cause to be made or disseminated before the public in this state, in any newspaper or other publication, or any advertising device, or by public outcry or proclamation, or in any other manner or means whatever, any statement which is untrue or misleading, and which is known, or which by the exercise of reasonable care should be known, to be untrue or misleading; or to so make or disseminate or cause to be so disseminated any such statement as part of a plan or scheme with the intent not to sell any vehicle or service so advertised at the price stated therein, or as so advertised.

(b) To advertise or offer for sale or exchange in any manner, any vehicle not actually for sale at the premises of the dealer or available to the dealer from the manufacturer or distributor of the vehicle at the time of the advertisement or offer; provided, however, that this subdivision does not apply to advertising or offering for sale or exchange any used mobilehome or used commercial coach, as defined by Section 18014 of the Health and Safety Code, other than a recreational vehicle, as defined by Section 18010 of the Health and Safety Code, where the advertising or offering for sale is not contrary to any terms of a contract between the seller of the mobilehome or commercial coach and the owner of the mobilehome park, and which mobilehome or commercial coach is either in place on a lot rented or leased for human habitation within an established mobilehome park, as defined in Section 18214 of the Health and Safety Code, or is otherwise located, pursuant to a local zoning ordinance or permit, on a lot where its presence has been authorized or its continued presence and the use would be authorized, for a total and uninterrupted period of at least one year.

(c) To fail within 48 hours in writing to withdraw any advertisement of a vehicle that has been sold or withdrawn from sale.

(d) To advertise or represent a vehicle as a new vehicle if the vehicle falls within the purview of Section 665.

(e) To engage in the business for which licensee is licensed without having in force and effect a good and sufficient bond with corporate surety as hereinbefore provided.

(g) To include, as an added cost to the selling price of a vehicle, an amount for licensing or transfer of title of the vehicle, which amount is not due to the state unless, prior to the sale, that amount has been paid by a dealer to the state in order to avoid penalties that would have accrued because of late payment of the fees. However, a dealer may collect from the second purchaser of a vehicle a prorated fee based upon the number of months remaining in the registration year for that vehicle, if the vehicle had been previously sold by the dealer and the sale was subsequently rescinded and all the fees that were paid, as required by this code and Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 10751) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, were returned to the first purchaser of the vehicle.

(h) To employ any person as a salesman who has not been licensed pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 11800), and whose license is not displayed on the premises of the dealer as provided in Section 11812.

(i) To deliver, following sale, a vehicle for operation on California highways, if the vehicle does not meet all of the equipment requirements of Division 12 (commencing with Section 24000).

(j) To use or permit the use of the special plates assigned to him for any purpose other than as permitted by Section 11715.

(k) To advertise or otherwise represent, or knowingly to allow to be advertised or represented on his behalf or at his place of business, that no downpayment is required in connection with the sale of a vehicle when a downpayment is in fact required and the buyer is advised or induced to finance the downpayment by a loan in addition to any other loan financing the remainder of the purchase price of the vehicle.

(l) To participate in the sale of a vehicle reported to the Department of Motor Vehicles under the provisions of Section 5900 or Section 5901 of this code without making the return and payment of any sales tax due and required by Section 6451 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(m) To permit the use of the dealer's license, supplies, or books by any other person for the purpose of permitting that person to engage in the sale of vehicles required to be registered under this code, or to permit the use of the dealer's license, supplies, or books to operate a branch location to be used by any other person, whether or not the licensee has any financial or equitable interest or investment in the vehicles sold by, or the business of, or branch location used by, the other person.

(n) To violate any of the provisions of Article 10 (commencing with Section 28050) of Chapter 5 of Division 12.

(o) To fail to deliver or honor the terms and conditions of any warranty as set forth in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1797) of Title 1.7 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code.

(p) To violate any of the provisions of Part 2 (commencing with Section 18000) of Division 13 of, or Section 18613 of, the Health and Safety Code or any rules and regulations issued pursuant thereto.

SEC. 4. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 536

An act to amend Sections 18320 and 18455 of, to repeal and add Section 18272 of, and to repeal Section 18314.6 of, the Financial Code, relating to industrial loan companies.

[Approved by Governor August 17, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 18, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18272 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 18272 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

18272. An industrial loan company shall diversify the loans and lease obligations it makes and other obligations it acquires, both as to the types of debtors and obligors and types of collateral. The requirement for diversification notwithstanding, an industrial loan company may specialize in its lending, leasing, and other authorized practices under this division. The commissioner shall promulgate rules and regulations pursuant to this section.

SEC. 3. Section 18314.6 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 18320 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

18320. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 18319, an industrial loan company shall in no event:

(a) Have outstanding at any time during its first 12 months of operation as an industrial loan company under this division, its investment certificates (exclusive of those hypothecated with the company issuing them) in an aggregate sum in excess of three times the aggregate amount of its paid-up and unimpaired capital and unimpaired surplus not available for dividends pursuant to Section 18319.

(b) After 12 months of operation as an industrial loan company under this division and during the next 12 months of operation the industrial loan company may file an application with the commissioner seeking authority to increase the aggregate sum of its investment certificates which (exclusive of those investment certificates hypothecated with the company issuing them) in no event shall exceed six times the aggregate amount of its paid-up and unimpaired capital and unimpaired surplus not available for dividends pursuant to Section 18319.

(c) After 24 months of operation as an industrial loan company under this division and during the next 12 months of operation the company may file an application with the commissioner seeking authority to increase the aggregate sum of its investment certificates which (exclusive of those investment certificates hypothecated with the company issuing them) in no event shall exceed eight times the aggregate amount of its paid-up and unimpaired capital and unimpaired surplus not available for dividends pursuant to Section 18319.

(d) After 36 months of operation as an industrial loan company under this division and during the next 24 months of operation the company may file an application with the commissioner seeking authority to increase the aggregate sum of its investment certificates which (exclusive of those investment certificates hypothecated with the company issuing them) in no event shall exceed 10 times the aggregate amount of its paid-up and unimpaired capital and unimpaired surplus not available for dividends pursuant to Section 18319.

(e) After 60 months of operation as an industrial loan company under this division, the company may file an application with the commissioner seeking authority to increase the aggregate sum of its investment certificates which it may have outstanding, which (exclusive of those investment certificates hypothecated with the company issuing them) in no event shall exceed fifteen times the aggregate amount of its paid-up and unimpaired capital and unimpaired surplus not available for dividends pursuant to Section 18319, and which may exceed 10 times the amount of its paid-up and unimpaired capital and unimpaired surplus not available for dividends pursuant to Section 18319 only if both of the following requirements are met:

(1) A company shall maintain a liquidity reserve in cash, or cash equivalent, equal to 1½ percent of its total investment certificates outstanding. Cash equivalent is defined as investments legal for commercial banks under the laws of this state, with a maturity of not more than 12 months.

(2) In addition to the reserve for losses required by the commissioner pursuant to Section 18343, a company shall establish and maintain such special reserves for losses as the commissioner, by rule or order, may require.

(f) Whenever the commissioner deems it reasonable and necessary or advisable for the protection of the public, the commissioner may at any time by order authorize said industrial loan company to have its investment certificates outstanding in either a lesser aggregate sum than the maximum aggregate amounts permitted by subdivision (a), (b), (c), (d), or (e), or none at all.

(g) The request for authority filed with the commissioner pursuant to subdivisions (b), (c), (d), and (e) shall be set forth in an application in such form and containing such information as the commissioner may require.

(h) The commissioner shall by rule or regulation set forth the criteria that must be met before an industrial loan company can be granted authority to increase the aggregate sum of its outstanding investment certificates.

(i) If the commissioner does not within 60 days of the filing of an application grant a request by an industrial loan company operating under this division, for authority to increase the aggregate sum of its outstanding investment certificates to the requested amount, or issues an order pursuant to subdivision (f) such company may file with the commissioner its written request for hearing in accordance with the provisions of subdivisions (d) and (e) of Section 18315.

SEC. 5. Section 18455 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

18455. An industrial loan company shall not, directly or indirectly, make any loan to, or purchase a contract or chose in action from, hold a lease obligation of, or purchase a lease contract from:

(a) A person who is an officer or director of the industrial loan company or of its holding or affiliated company.

(b) A person who is a holder of record or beneficiary of the shares of the industrial loan company or of any holding or affiliated company. This restriction shall not apply to persons holding less than 10 percent of the shares of a holding company or affiliate company which is exempt from the qualification requirements of the Corporate Securities Law of 1968 contained in Section 25130 of the Corporations Code, pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 25101 of the Corporations Code.

(c) A person in which an officer or director of the industrial loan company or of any holding or affiliated company directly or indirectly is financially interested, directly or indirectly.

(d) A person in which the holder of record or beneficiary of the shares of the industrial loan company or of any holding or affiliated company directly or indirectly is financially interested, directly or indirectly. This restriction shall not apply to persons holding less than 10 percent of the shares of a holding company or affiliate company which is exempt from the qualification requirements of the Corporate Securities Law of 1968 contained in Section 25130 of the Corporations Code, pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) of Section

25101 of the Corporations Code.

(e) A person who acquired such contracts directly or indirectly or through intervening assignments from a person described in subdivision (a), (b), (c), or (d).

Any officer, director or shareholder of an industrial loan company who directly or indirectly makes or procures or participates in making or procuring a loan or contract in violation of this section or knowingly approves the same is personally liable for any loss resulting to an industrial loan company from such loan or contract, in addition to any other penalties provided by law.

The prohibition contained in this section shall not apply to the purchase by an industrial loan company of a contract or chose in action from a personal property broker, provided written authorization for such purchase is obtained from the commissioner.

CHAPTER 537

An act to amend Section 53654 of the Government Code, relating to funds of local agencies.

[Approved by Governor August 17, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 18, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 53654 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53654. (a) The depository may add securities to the pool or substitute securities of equal value for those in the pool at any time.

(b) Withdrawal of securities from the pool without replacement at equal value may be ordered only by a bonded officer or employee of the depository who has satisfied such requirements as may be set by the administrator. The agent of depository is responsible for the safekeeping and disbursement of securities placed in its custody by a depository. It shall release securities only upon presentation by the depository of the most reasonably current statement of the total deposits subject to this article held by the depository, such statement to be verified and countersigned by a bonded officer, other than one who may have ordered the withdrawal of securities. A copy of this statement shall be forwarded to the administrator concurrently by the agent of depository.

CHAPTER 538

An act to amend Section 9801 of, and to add Section 9806 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to electronic and appliance repair dealers.

[Approved by Governor August 17, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 18, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9801 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9801. The following terms as used in this chapter have the meaning expressed in this section:

(a) "Person" includes firm, partnership, association, or corporation.

(b) "Department" means the Department of Consumer Affairs.

(c) "Director" means the Director of Consumer Affairs.

(d) "Bureau" means the Bureau of Electronic and Appliance Repair.

(e) "Chief" means the Chief of the Bureau of Electronic and Appliance Repair.

(f) "Board" means the Electronic and Appliance Repair Advisory Board.

(g) "Service dealer" means a person who, for compensation, engages in the business of:

(1) Repairing, servicing, or maintaining television, radio, audio or video recorders or playback equipment, video cameras, video games, or computer systems normally used or sold for personal, family, or household use.

(2) Installing, repairing, servicing, or maintaining radios, antennas, audio recorders or audio playback equipment normally used or sold for use in private motor vehicles.

(3) Installing, repairing, servicing, or maintaining television or radio receiver antennas located on or adjacent to a residence and not involving a function which is subject to and regulated under the provisions of Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 7000).

(4) Repairing, servicing, or maintaining major home appliances.

(h) "Equipment" for the purposes of this chapter means a set, appliance, antenna, rotator, and accessories.

(i) "Set" means any television, radio, audio or video recorder or playback equipment, video camera, video game, or computer system normally used or sold for personal, family, or household use.

(j) "Appliance" or "major home appliance" means any refrigerator, freezer, range, microwave oven, washer, dryer, dishwasher, trash compactor, or room air conditioner normally used or sold for personal, family, or household use.

(k) "Antenna" or words of like import, means a resonant device designed especially for the purpose of capturing electromagnetic energy transmitted by direct satellite or commercial radio or television stations. An antenna, and its associated accessories, is not deemed to be a part of a set, and shall be considered, under this section, to be located outside or in the attic of a residence.

(l) "Rotator," when used in connection with an antenna installation or repair, means an electromechanical device operated from a remote location to rotate an antenna on a horizontal plane. A rotator and its associated accessories is not deemed to be a part of a set and shall be considered under this section, with the exception of the directional control unit, to be located outside or in the attic of a residence.

(m) "Accessories," when used in connection with an antenna or rotator installation or repair, means masts, towers, clamps, guy wires, eye hooks, standoff insulators, roof saddles, vent pipe mounts, chimney mount kits, signal amplifiers/boosters, multiset couplers, transmission lines, control cables, directional control units, and such other devices as may be used from time to time to effect such installation or repair.

(n) "Computer system" means a central processing unit which performs data manipulation functions, and any associated peripheral devices, including, but not limited to, keyboards, display terminals, printers, or disk drives.

(o) "Video game" means any electronic amusement device which utilizes a computer, microprocessor, or similar electronic circuitry and its own cathode ray tube or a television set or a monitor.

(p) "Complainant" means the customer of a service dealer who has complained to the director concerning such service dealer.

SEC. 2. Section 9806 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

9806. An automobile dealer or manufacturer, licensed pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 11700) of Division 5 of the Vehicle Code shall not be required to be registered under this chapter where such dealer or manufacturer installs or replaces an automobile radio or antenna as a function related to the sale of a motor vehicle.

SEC. 3. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 539

An act to amend Section 8 of the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 1617 of the Statutes of 1951), relating to the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District.

[Approved by Governor August 17, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 18, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8 of the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 1617 of the Statutes of 1951) is amended to read:

Sec. 8. The board shall have power to make and enforce all needful rules and regulations for the administration and government of the district, and in addition to the officers and employees herein otherwise prescribed, the board may, in its discretion, appoint a chairman, a secretary, and other officers, agents, and employees for the board or district as, in its judgment, may be deemed necessary, prescribe their duties, and fix their compensation.

CHAPTER 540

An act to add Section 31149.3 to the Water Code, relating to county water districts.

[Approved by Governor August 17, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 18, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 31149.3 is added to the Water Code, to read:

31149.3. The North Marin County Water District may construct, maintain, and operate one or more plants for the generation of power from wind or solar radiation, and the transmission lines for the conveyance thereof, and in connection therewith shall have all the powers set forth in this article for the generation of hydroelectric power.

SEC. 2. The North Marin County Water District has a potential source of power from wind or solar radiation. This potential source of power is not common to other county water districts. The Legislature therefore finds and declares that a special law is necessary with respect to the North Marin County Water District, that the provisions of Section 1 of this act are needed to meet the special circumstances within the district, and that a general law cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 541

An act to amend Section 7.1 of the Ventura County Flood Control Act (Chapter 44 of the Statutes of 1944, Second Extraordinary Session), relating to districts.

[Approved by Governor August 17, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 18, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7.1 of the Ventura County Flood Control Act (Chapter 44 of the Statutes of 1944, Second Extraordinary Session) is amended to read:

Sec. 7.1. (a) In addition to the powers described in Section 7, the district shall have the power by ordinance or resolution to prescribe, revise, and collect fees and charges in any zone and in any special zone as a condition of development of land. Land to be developed within a special zone shall be subject both to the fees and charges of the zone in which it is located and the fees and charges of the special zone in which it is located. Development of land for the purposes of this section shall include, but not be limited to, subdivision development as governed by the Subdivision Map Act; construction of new buildings, structures and improvements for residential, commercial or industrial purposes; and any development of land requiring either zone variance or special use permit.

(b) (1) The amount of fees and charges levied for each zone and for each special zone shall be determined separately and shall be based upon the need created by development of land for flood control facilities within the zone or special zone.

(2) The amount of fees and charges levied for any zone, other than a special zone, shall not exceed one thousand six hundred dollars ($1,600) for each acre or portion thereof of land to be developed. The district, by ordinance or resolution, may annually adjust the maximum amount of the fees and charges for each acre or portion thereof of land to be developed based upon a recognized cost index. An ordinance or resolution adjusting the maximum amount of the fees and charges shall become operative upon approval of two-thirds of the electors voting on the proposition in the zone.

(3) Fees and charges prescribed as a condition of development of land pursuant to this section shall be in addition to any other conditions imposed on the development by any other agency having power to prescribe such other conditions.

(c) Except as hereinafter provided, revenues derived from fees and charges prescribed for any zone may be used only for the acquisition, engineering, design, construction, reconstruction, maintenance, or operation of flood control or storm drainage facilities within that zone, or within any special zone located in that zone, or used to pay the interest on or reduce the principal of any bonded indebtedness of that zone. At the discretion of the board of supervisors, all or part of the fees and charges prescribed for any zone which are collected as a condition of development of land located within a special zone may be used to pay the interest on or reduce the principal of any bonded indebtedness of that special zone.

(d) Except as hereinafter provided, revenues derived from fees and charges prescribed for any special zone shall be used only for the acquisition, engineering, design, construction, reconstruction, maintenance, or operation of flood control or storm drainage facilities within that special zone or used to pay the interest on or reduce the principal of any bonded indebtedness of that special zone.

(e) At the discretion of the board of supervisors, all or part of fees and charges prescribed for any zone or special zone need not be collected as a condition of development of land located within a protection district established under the Protection District Act of 1907 or if collected from that land, all or part of those fees may be remitted to the protection district to be used to pay the interest on or reduce the principal of any bonded indebtedness of that protection district.

(f) Whenever the development of land within any zone or within any special zone is made subject to fees or charges by the board of supervisors pursuant to this section, the board of supervisors may allow a credit against those fees for the acquisition, engineering, design, construction, reconstruction, maintenance, or operation costs of any flood control or storm drainage facility within the zone or special zone which has been constructed or paid for in connection with the development of land within that zone or special zone.

(g) The board of supervisors may also reduce fees or charges prescribed for any part of the land to be developed within the zone or special zone if they find that because of special circumstances the payment thereof would be inequitable or would cause undue hardship and the reduction of the fees would be in the public interest.

(h) The consent and approval of the legislative body of a city shall be necessary before any fees or charges may be levied on the development of land located within the corporate boundaries of a city which are higher than any fees or charges levied on the development of land located outside the corporate boundaries of that city.

CHAPTER 542

An act to amend Section 27400 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 17, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 18, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 27400 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

27400. No person operating any motor vehicle shall wear any headset covering, or any earplugs in, both ears. The provisions of this section shall not apply to:

(a) Persons operating authorized emergency vehicles, as defined in Section 165, under emergency conditions.

(b) Any person engaged in the operation of either special construction equipment or equipment for use in the maintenance of any highway.

(c) Any person engaged in the operation of refuse collection equipment who is wearing a safety headset or safety earplugs.

(d) Any person wearing personal hearing protectors in the form of custom earplugs or molds that are designed to attenuate injurious noise levels. The custom plugs or molds shall be designed in such a manner as to not inhibit the wearer's ability to hear a siren or horn from an emergency vehicle or a horn from another motor vehicle.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Considerations of public safety make it essential that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 543

An act to amend Section 8574.8 of the Government Code, and to amend Section 2454 of the Vehicle Code, relating to highways.

[Approved by Governor August 17, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 18, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8574.8 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8574.8. (a) A state toxic disaster contingency plan established pursuant to this article shall provide for an integrated and effective state procedure to respond to the occurrence of toxic disasters within the state. The plan shall provide for specified state agencies to implement the plan, for interagency coordination of the training conducted by state agencies pursuant to the plan, and for on-scene coordination of response actions.

Notwithstanding any provision of the plan, the authority for the management of the scene of an on-highway toxic spill or disaster shall be vested in the appropriate law enforcement agency having primary traffic investigative authority on the highway where the incident occurs. During the preparation of the state toxic disaster contingency plan, the Office of Emergency Services shall adopt the recommendations of the Department of the California Highway Patrol in developing response and on-scene procedures for toxic disasters which occur upon the highways, based upon previous studies for such procedures, insofar as the procedures are not inconsistent with the overall plan for initial notification of toxic disasters by public agencies and for after-incident evaluation and reporting.

(b) The Office of Emergency Services shall establish a central notification and reporting system to facilitate operation of the state toxic disaster response procedures designated by the state toxic disaster contingency plan.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the law enforcement agency having primary traffic investigative authority may enter into written agreements with other public agencies to facilitate management at the scene of an on-highway hazardous substance spill or disaster on local streets and roads other than freeways.

SEC. 2. Section 2454 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

2454. The authority for the management of the scene of an on-highway hazardous substance spill or disaster shall be vested in the appropriate law enforcement agency having primary traffic investigative authority on the highway where the spill occurs.

Notwithstanding the above provisions, the law enforcement agency having primary traffic investigative authority may enter into written agreements with other public agencies to facilitate management at the scene of an on-highway hazardous substance spill or disaster on local streets and roads other than freeways.

CHAPTER 544

An act to amend Sections 99209.5 and 99215 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to transportation.

[Approved by Governor August 17, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 18, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 99209.5 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

99209.5. "Operates" for purposes of Sections 99209 and 99215, and "operation" for purposes of paragaraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 99289, mean that the operator owns or leases the equipment, establishes routes and frequency of service, regulates and collects fares, and otherwise controls the efficiency and quality of the operation of the system, but does not require that operators of rolling stock be employees of a public agency.

SEC. 2. Section 99215 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

99215. "Transit development board" means a public entity created pursuant to state law and designated in the enabling legislation as a transit development board including, solely for purposes of submission of claims, receipt of funds, and provision of service as an operator under this chapter, any nonprofit corporation or other legal entity wholly owned or controlled by the transit development board which operates a public transportation system.

CHAPTER 545

An act to amend Sections 1747.02, 1747.05, and 1747.50 of, to add Section 1747.01 to, to repeal Section 1747.30 of, and to repeal and add Sections 1747.10, 1747.20, and 1747.90 of, the Civil Code, relating to credit cards.

[Approved by Governor August 17, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 18, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1747.01 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

1747.01. It is the intent of the Legislature that the provisions of this title as to which there are similar provisions in the federal Truth in Lending Act, as amended (15 U.S.C. 1601, et seq.), essentially conform, and be interpreted by anyone construing the provisions of this title to so conform, to the Truth in Lending Act and any rule, regulation, or interpretation promulgated thereunder by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, and any interpretation issued by an official or employee of the Federal Reserve System duly authorized to issue such interpretation.

SEC. 2. Section 1747.02 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1747.02. As used in this title:

(a) "Credit card" means any card, plate, coupon book, or other single credit device existing for the purpose of being used from time to time upon presentation to obtain money, property, labor, or services on credit. "Credit card" shall not mean any single credit device used to obtain telephone property, labor or services in any transactions under public utility tariffs, nor shall it mean any device that may be used to obtain credit pursuant to an electronic fund transfer but only if such credit is obtained under an agreement between a consumer and a financial institution to extend credit when the consumer's asset account is overdrawn or to maintain a specified minimum balance in the consumer's asset account.

(b) "Accepted credit card" means any credit card which the cardholder has requested or applied for and received or has signed, or has used, or has authorized another person to use, for the purpose of obtaining money, property, labor, or services on credit. Any credit card issued in renewal of, or in substitution for, an accepted credit card becomes an accepted credit card when received by the cardholder, whether such card is issued by the same or a successor card issuer.

(c) "Card issuer" means any person who issues a credit card or the agent of such person for such purpose with respect to such card.

(d) "Cardholder" means a natural person to whom a credit card is issued for consumer credit purposes, or a natural person who has agreed with the card issuer to pay consumer credit obligations arising from the issuance of a credit card to another natural person. For purposes of Sections 1747.05, 1747.10, and 1747.20, the term includes any person to whom a credit card is issued for any purpose, including business, commercial, or agricultural use, or a person who has agreed with the card issuer to pay obligations arising from the issuance of such a credit card to another person.

(e) "Retailer" means every person other than a card issuer who furnishes money, goods, services, or anything else of value upon presentation of a credit card by a cardholder.

(f) "Unauthorized use" means the use of a credit card by a person, other than the cardholder, (i) who does not have actual, implied, or apparent authority for such use and (ii) from which the cardholder receives no benefit. "Unauthorized use" does not include the use of a credit card by a person who has been given authority by the cardholder to use the credit card. Any attempted termination by the cardholder of such person's authority is ineffective as against the card issuer until such time as the cardholder complies with such procedures as may be required by the card issuer to terminate such authority. Notwithstanding the above, following the card issuer's receipt of oral or written notice from a cardholder indicating that it wishes to terminate the authority of a previously authorized user of a credit card, the card issuer shall follow its usual procedures for precluding any further use of a credit card by an unauthorized person.

(g) An "inquiry" is a writing which is posted by mail to the address of the card issuer to which payments are normally tendered, unless another address is specifically indicated on the statement for such purpose, then to such address, and which is received by the card issuer no later than 60 days after the card issuer transmitted the first periodic statement that reflects the alleged billing error, and which:

(1) Sets forth sufficient information to enable the card issuer to identify the cardholder and the account;

(2) Sufficiently identifies the billing error; and

(3) Sets forth information providing the basis for the cardholder's belief that such billing error exists.

(h) A "response" is a writing which is responsive to an inquiry and mailed to the cardholder's address last known to the card issuer.

(i) A "timely response" is a response which is mailed within two complete billing cycles, but in no event later than 90 days, after the card issuer receives an inquiry.

(j) A "billing error" means an error by omission or commission in (1) posting any debit or credit, or (2) in computation or similar error of an accounting nature contained in a statement given to the cardholder by the card issuer. A "billing error" does not mean any dispute with respect to value, quality or quantity of goods, services or other benefit obtained through use of a credit card.

(k) "Adequate notice" means a printed notice to a cardholder which sets forth the pertinent facts clearly and conspicuously so that a person against whom it is to operate could reasonably be expected to have noticed it and understood its meaning.

SEC. 3. Section 1747.05 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1747.05. No credit card shall be issued except:

(a) In response to an oral or written request or application therefor; or

(b) As a renewal of, or in substitution for, an accepted credit card whether such card is issued by the same or a successor card issuer.

SEC. 4. Section 1747.10 of the Civil Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 1747.10 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

1747.10. A cardholder shall be liable for the unauthorized use of a credit card only if all of the following conditions are met:

(a) The card is an accepted credit card.

(b) The liability is not in excess of fifty dollars ($50).

(c) The card issuer gives adequate notice to the cardholder of the potential liability.

(d) The card issuer has provided the cardholder with a description of a means by which the card issuer may be notified of loss or theft of the card.

(e) The unauthorized use occurs before the card issuer has been notified that an unauthorized use of the credit card has occurred or may occur as the result of loss, theft, or otherwise.

(f) The card issuer has provided a method whereby the user of such card can be identified as the person authorized to use it.

SEC. 6. Section 1747.20 of the Civil Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 1747.20 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

1747.20. If 10 or more credit cards are issued by one card issuer for use by the employees of an organization, Section 1747.10 does not prohibit the card issuer and the organization from agreeing to liability for unauthorized use without regard to Section 1747.10. However, liability for unauthorized use may be imposed on an employee of the organization, by either the card issuer or the organization, only in accordance with Section 1747.10.

SEC. 8. Section 1747.30 of the Civil Code is repealed.

SEC. 9. Section 1747.50 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1747.50. (a) Every card issuer shall correct any billing error made by the card issuer within two complete billing cycles, but in no event later than 90 days, after receiving an inquiry.

(b) Any card issuer who fails to correct a billing error made by the card issuer within the period prescribed by subdivision (a) shall not be entitled to the amount by which the outstanding balance of the cardholder's account is greater than the correct balance, nor any interest, finance charges, service charges, or other charges on the obligation giving rise to the billing error.

(c) Any cardholder who is injured by a willful violation of this section may bring an action for the recovery of damages. Judgment may be entered for three times the amount at which actual damages are assessed. The cardholder shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred in the action.

SEC. 10. Section 1747.90 of the Civil Code is repealed.

SEC. 11. Section 1747.90 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

1747.90. (a) (1) Subject to the limitation contained in subdivision (b), a card issuer who has issued a credit card to a cardholder pursuant to an open-end consumer credit plan shall be subject to all claims and defenses, other than tort claims, arising out of any transaction in which the credit card is used as a method of payment or extension of credit if the following conditions are met:

(A) The cardholder has made a good faith attempt to obtain satisfactory resolution of a disagreement or problem relative to the transaction from the person honoring the credit card.

(B) The amount of the initial transaction exceeds fifty dollars ($50).

(C) The place where the initial transaction occurred was in California, or, if not within California, then within 100 miles from the cardholder's current designated address in California.

(2) The limitations set forth in subparagraphs (B) and (C) of paragraph (1) with respect to a cardholder's right to assert claims and defenses against a card issuer shall not be applicable to any transaction in which the person honoring the credit card satisfies any of the following requirements:

(A) Is the same person as the card issuer.

(B) Is controlled by the card issuer.

(C) Is under direct or indirect common control with the card issuer.

(D) Is a franchised dealer in the card issuer's products or services.

(E) Has obtained the order for such transaction through a mail solicitation made by or participated in by the card issuer in which the cardholder is solicited to enter into such transaction by using the credit card issued by the card issuer.

(b) The amount of claims or defenses asserted by the cardholder may not exceed the amount of credit outstanding with respect to such transaction at the time the cardholder first notifies the card issuer or the person honoring the credit card of such claim or defense. For the purpose of determining the amount of credit outstanding, payments and credits to the cardholder's account are deemed to have been applied, in the order indicated, to the payment of the following:

(1) Late charges in the order of their entry to the account.

(2) Finance charges in order of their entry to the account.

(3) Debits to the account other than those set forth above, in the order in which each debit entry to the account was made.

(c) This section does not apply to the use of a check guarantee card or a debit card in connection with an overdraft credit plan, or to a check guarantee card used in connection with cash advance checks.

CHAPTER 546

An act to add Section 1274.35 to the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to unemployment insurance, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 23, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 23, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1274.35 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

1274.35. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, any unemployed individual who, as determined by the director, has been laid off from work as a result of a plant closure or a substantial reduction in employment at the individual's most recent workplace, and whose benefit year has expired and who is not entitled to establish a benefit year, and who has exhausted benefits payable under this part, Part 3 (commencing with Section 3501), and Part 4 (commencing with Section 4001) after January 1, 1982, and who applies for a determination of potential eligibility for benefits under this article no later than December 31, 1982, and who is determined otherwise eligible for benefits under this article is eligible for an additional maximum of 26 times his or her most recent weekly benefit amount and shall not be denied benefits under this division in any week he or she is otherwise eligible for benefits under this article.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, any other unemployed individual receiving benefits payable under this part, Part 3 (commencing with Section 3501), or Part 4 (commencing with Section 4001) or under any other federal unemployment compensation law, who, by December 31, 1982, applies for a determination of potential eligibility for benefits under this article and is determined otherwise eligible for benefits under this article, is eligible for an additional maximum of 26 times his or her weekly benefit amount under the provisions of this article, except that to the extent permitted by federal law, no individual may receive more than 52 times his or her weekly benefit amount under the provisions of this article.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, any unemployed individual receiving benefits payable under this part, Part 3 (commencing with Section 3501), or Part 4 (commencing with Section 4001), or any other federal unemployment compensation law, who, after December 31, 1982, but before July 1, 1983, applies for a determination of potential eligibility for benefits under this article and is determined eligible for benefits under this article, is eligible for a maximum of 52 times his or her weekly benefit amount under the provisions of this article if the individual applies no later than the 14th week of his or her unemployment.

(d) The filing of a claim for additional benefits uander this section shall constitute an election to claim these benefits to the exclusion of filing a new claim for benefits payable under this part for any week of unemployment subsequent to the date of the individual's potential eligibility for benefits under this section for which the individual receives benefits under this article.

(e) Additional benefits paid under this section, and not otherwise payable under this division, shall be charged to individual employer reserve accounts, consistent with other provisions of this code.

(f) No benefits shall be payable under this section for any week beginning after July 1, 1983.

(g) To the extent permitted by federal law, benefits payable under any federal unemployment compensation law shall be included as benefits payable under the provisions of this section.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act for the purpose of making reimbursement pursuant to these sections. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of that code.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to allow workers to take advantage of immediate training opportunities to alleviate severe problems of long-term unemployment caused by the current recession, and to avoid additional public assistance costs to the state, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 547

An act to add Article 6 (commencing with Section 1086) to Chapter 1 of Title 4 of Part 4 of Division 2 of the Civil Code, relating to property.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 24, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 6 (commencing with Section 1086) is added to Chapter 1 of Title 4 of Part 4 of Division 2 of the Civil Code, to read:

Article 6. Agency Listings for the Transfer of Certain Property

1086. As used in this article, the following terms have the meanings stated in this section:

(a) "Property" means real property or a mobilehome, as defined in Section 18008 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) "Sell" and "sale" include lease and exchange.

(c) "Buyer" includes a lessee in case of a lease and the party with whom property is exchanged in case of an exchange.

(d) An "agent" is one authorized by law to act in that capacity for that type of property, and is licensed as a real estate broker under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 10130) of Part 1 of Division 4 of the Business and Professions Code or is a licensee, as defined in Section 18006 of the Health and Safety Code.

(e) A "listing" is a written contract between an owner of property and an agent by which the agent has been authorized to sell the property or to find or obtain a buyer.

A listing may be any of the following:

(1) An "exclusive right to sell listing" is a listing whereby the owner grants to an agent, for a specified period of time, the exclusive right to sell or to find or obtain a buyer for the property, and the agent is entitled to the agreed compensation if during that period of time the property is sold, no matter who effected the sale, or the listing agent receives and presents to the owner any enforceable offer from a ready, able, and willing buyer on terms authorized by the listing or accepted by the owner. The exclusive right to sell listing may provide for compensation of the listing agent if the property is sold within a specified period after termination of the listing to anyone with whom the agent has had negotiations before that termination.

(2) An "exclusive agency listing" is the same as an "exclusive right to sell listing," except that the owner reserves the right to sell directly but not through any other agent and, in that event, without obligation to pay compensation to the agent.

(3) An "open listing" is a listing which grants no exclusive rights or priorities to the listing agent, and a commission is payable to the agent only if the agent procures and presents to the owner an enforceable offer from a ready, able, and willing buyer on the terms authorized by the listing or accepted by the owner, before the property is otherwise sold either through another agent or by the owner directly and before the listing expires by its terms or is revoked.

(4) A "probate listing" is a contract conforming to Section 760 of the Probate Code.

(f) A "listing agent" is one who has obtained a listing of property of the kind in respect of which he or she is authorized by law to act as an agent for compensation.

(g) A "selling agent" is an agent participant in a multiple listing service who acts in cooperation with a listing agent and who sells, or finds and obtains a buyer for, the property.

(h) "Sold" includes leased and exchanged. A property is sold when a legally binding commitment to sell the property comes into existence.

1087. A multiple listing service is a facility of cooperation of agents, operating through an intermediary which does not itself act as an agent, through which agents establish express or implied legal relationships with respect to listed properties. If an open listing is placed in the multiple listing service, the total compensation that the owner is to pay shall go to the selling agent who procures an enforceable offer from a ready, able, and willing buyer on the terms accepted by the owner. An open listing need specify no compensation to the selling agent, but may state that the compensation is to be negotiated between the selling agent and the owner.

1088. A listing may not be placed in a multiple listing service unless authorized or directed by the owner in the listing.

If an agent places a listing in the multiple listing service for compensation or in expectation of compensation, that agent shall be responsible for the truth of all representations and statements in the listing of which that agent had knowledge or reasonably should have had knowledge to anyone injured by their falseness or inaccuracy.

1089. An open listing may contain an agreement by the owner to pay the listing agent compensation in any amount, at any time, and for any services, other than for selling the property or procuring or finding a buyer, as the agreement may specify.

1090. Nothing in this article shall preclude a listing agent from also being the selling agent.

CHAPTER 548

An act to amend Section 3332 of, and to add Article 7 (commencing with Section 4200) to Chapter 6 of Part 3 of Division 3 of, the Food and Agricultural Code, and to amend Section 830.3 of, and to add Section 1463.15 to, the Penal Code, relating to the California Exposition and State Fair, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 24, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3332 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

3332. The board has authority to do any of the following:

(a) Contract.

(b) Accept funds or gifts of value from the United States or any person to aid in carrying out the purposes of this part.

(c) Conduct or contract for programs, either independently or in cooperation with any individual, public or private organization, or federal, state, or local governmental agency.

(d) Establish and maintain a bank checking account or a savings and loan association account, approved by the Director of Finance in accordance with Sections 16506 and 16605 of the Government Code, for depositing funds appropriated to the California Exposition and State Fair pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 19622 of the Business and Professions Code. The Department of Finance shall audit the account at the end of each fiscal year.

(e) Make or adopt all necessary orders, rules, or regulations for governing the activities of the California Exposition and State Fair.

(f) Delegate to the officers and employees of the California Exposition and State Fair the authority to appoint civil service personnel according to state civil service procedures.

(g) Delegate to the officers and employees of the California Exposition and State Fair the exercise of powers vested in the board as the board may deem desirable for the orderly management and operation of the California Exposition and State Fair.

(h) Appoint all necessary marshals and police to keep order and preserve peace at the California Exposition and State Fair premises on a year-round basis who shall have the powers of peace officers specified in Section 830.3 of the Penal Code. A member of the California State Police Division may be employed as such a marshal or police officer while off duty from his or her regular employment, subject to such conditions as may be set forth by the Chief of the California State Police. At least 75 percent of the persons appointed pursuant to this subdivision must possess the basic certificate issued by the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training. The remaining 25 percent may be appointed if the person has completed a Peace Officer Standards and Training certified academy or possesses a Level One Reserve Certificate (as defined in Section 832.6 of the Penal Code).

SEC. 1.5. Section 3332 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

3332. The board has authority to do any of the following:

(a) Contract.

(b) Accept funds or gifts of value from the United States or any person to aid in carrying out the purposes of this part.

(c) Conduct or contract for programs, either independently or in cooperation with any individual, public or private organization, or federal, state, or local governmental agency.

(d) Establish and maintain a bank checking account or a savings and loan association account, approved by the Director of Finance in accordance with Sections 16506 and 16605 of the Government Code, for depositing funds appropriated to the California Exposition and State Fair pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 19622 of the Business and Professions Code. The Department of Finance shall audit the account at the end of each fiscal year.

(e) Make or adopt all necessary orders, rules, or regulations for governing the activities of the California Exposition and State Fair.

(f) Delegate to the officers and employees of the California Exposition and State Fair the authority to appoint civil service personnel according to state civil service procedures.

(g) Delegate to the officers and employees of the California Exposition and State Fair the exercise of powers vested in the board as the board may deem desirable for the orderly management and operation of the California Exposition and State Fair.

(h) Appoint all necessary marshals and police to keep order and preserve peace at the California Exposition and State Fair premises on a year-round basis who shall have the powers of peace officers specified in Section 830.3 of the Penal Code. A member of the California State Police Division may be employed as such a marshal or police officer while off duty from his or her regular employment, subject to such conditions as may be set forth by the Chief of the California State Police. At least 75 percent of the persons appointed pursuant to this subdivision must possess the basic certificate issued by the Commission on Peace Officers Standards and Training. The remaining 25 percent may be appointed if the person has completed a Peace Officer Standards and Training certified academy or possesses a Level One Reserve Certificate (as defined in Section 832.6 of the Penal Code).

(i) Lease, with the approval of the Department of General Services, any of its property for any purpose for any period of time.

(j) Use or manage any of its property, with the approval of the Department of General Services, jointly or in connection with any lessee or sublessee, for any purpose approved by the board.

SEC. 2. Article 7 (commencing with Section 4200) is added to Chapter 6 of Part 3 of Division 3 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

Article 7. 52nd District Agricultural Association and the California Exposition and State Fair

4200. The Legislature finds and declares that the 52nd District Agricultural Association has contributed over three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) towards the construction and development of a horse show arena located on the site of the California Exposition and State Fair. The Legislature further finds and declares that, since the transfer from the former fair site of the 52nd District Agricultural Association located in Galt, the association has not had a permanent fair site of its own and that it is in the public interest that the association continue to carry out its activities at the site of the California Exposition and State Fair and that the association and the California Exposition and State Fair maintain a harmonious relationship.

4201. (a) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the 52nd District Agricultural Association shall have the right to use each year, during its annual spring fair and fall horse show, the horse show arena and other related facilities of the California Exposition and State Fair, or an alternative mutually acceptable to both parties. The association shall adhere to the standard fee policy of the California Exposition and State Fair for all events. In order to provide incentive for maximum efficiency and cooperation, all subordinate contracts occurring as a result of the association's use of facilities as provided herein shall be based first on equal recovery of costs by both parties, and thereafter all annualized net operating revenues shall be divided equally, with the exceptions of concessions, souvenirs, novelties, and parking which shall remain at the sole discretion of the California Exposition and State Fair. The California Exposition and State Fair shall provide approximately 1,000 square feet of permanent office space at no cost to the association. Adequate notice shall be given to the California Exposition and State Fair of any use proposed by the association. During all association events, the association shall compensate the California Exposition and State Fair for the services, utilities, and equipment used during its events pursuant to the State Administrative Manual.

(b) During the period of use of the facilities of the California Exposition and State Fair by the association, all capital improvement entitlements accruing to the association shall be expended on the facilities of the California Exposition and State Fair in accordance with the Capital Improvements and Maintenance Master Plan of the facility.

4202. In the event of a dispute between the 52nd District Agricultural Association and the California Exposition and State Fair, the Division of Fairs and Expositions shall represent the interests of the association. If mediation of any matter fails to reach a consensus, the Department of General Services shall arbitrate all matters on the basis of the best economic interests of the state and the decision of the department in the matter shall be final. Reasonable notice shall be given by the department to all parties to a disputed matter and an opportunity to present evidence shall be provided to all parties. Arbitration costs shall be shared equally between the parties.

SEC. 2.5. Section 830.3 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

830.3. The following persons are peace officers whose authority extends to any place in the state for the purpose of performing their primary duty or when making an arrest pursuant to Section 836 of the Penal Code as to any public offense with respect to which there is immediate danger to person or property, or of the escape of the perpetrator of such offense, or pursuant to Section 8597 or Section 8598 of the Government Code. Those peace officers may carry firearms only if authorized and under terms and conditions specified by their employing agencies:

(a) Persons employed by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control for the enforcement of the provisions of Division 9 (commencing with Section 23000) of the Business and Professions Code and designated by the Director of Alcoholic Beverage Control, provided that the primary duty of the peace officer shall be the enforcement of the laws relating to alcoholic beverages, as that duty is set forth in Section 25755 of the Business and Professions Code.

(b) Persons employed by the Division of Investigation of the Department of Consumer Affairs, and investigators of the Board of Medical Quality Assurance and the Board of Dental Examiners, and designated by the Director of Consumer Affairs, provided that the primary duty of the peace officer shall be the enforcement of the law as that duty is set forth in Section 160 of the Business and Professions Code.

(c) Employees or classes of employees of the Department of Forestry and voluntary fire wardens as are designated by the Director of Forestry pursuant to Section 4156 of the Public Resources Code, provided that the primary duty of the peace officer shall be the enforcement of the law as that duty is set forth in that section.

(d) Employees of the Department of Motor Vehicles designated in Section 1655 of the Vehicle Code, provided that the primary duty of the peace officer shall be the enforcement of the law as that duty is set forth in that section.

(e) Investigators of the California Horse Racing Board designated by the board, provided that the primary duty of the peace officer shall be the enforcement of the provisions of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 19400) of Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code and Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 330) of Title 9 of Part 1 of the Penal Code.

(f) The State Fire Marshal and assistant or deputy state fire marshals appointed pursuant to Section 13103 of the Health and Safety Code, provided that the primary duty of the peace officer shall be the enforcement of the law as that duty is set forth in Section 13104 of that code.

(g) Inspectors of the food and drug section as are designated by the chief pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 216 of the Health and Safety Code, provided that the primary duty of the peace officer shall be the enforcement of the law as that duty is set forth in that section.

(h) All investigators of the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement, as designated by the Labor Commissioner, provided that the primary duty of the peace officer shall be enforcement of the law as prescribed in Section 95 of the Labor Code.

(i) All investigators of the State Departments of Health Services, Social Services, Mental Health, Developmental Services, and Alcohol and Drug Programs and the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development, provided that the primary duty of the peace officer shall be the enforcement of the law relating to the duties of the peace officer's department or office.

(j) Marshals and police appointed by the Board of Directors of the California Exposition and State Fair, pursuant to Section 3332 of the Food and Agricultural Code, provided that the primary duty of the peace officer shall be the enforcement of the law as prescribed in that section.

(k) The Chief of the Bureau of Fraudulent Claims of the Department of Insurance and the investigators as designated by the chief, provided that the primary duty of the investigators shall be enforcement of the provisions of Section 556 of the Insurance Code.

(l) Employees of the Department of Housing and Community Development designated under Section 18023 of the Health and Safety Code, provided that the primary duty of any such peace officer shall be the enforcement of the law as that duty is set forth in that section.

SEC. 3. Section 1463.15 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

1463.15. The California State Fair Police Special Account in the General Fund is hereby established. All moneys in the fund shall be used by the Board of Directors of the California Exposition and State Fair, upon appropriation by the Legislature, solely for law enforcement activities, training of personnel, and safety equipment, for marshals and police appointed pursuant to Section 3332 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1463, out of moneys deposited with the Treasurer of Sacramento County or any other county in which there is property under the control of the California Exposition and State Fair, pursuant to Section 1463, there shall be transferred, first, once a month, to the California State Fair Police Special Account in the General Fund an amount equal to 50 percent of all fines and forfeitures collected during the preceding month upon conviction or upon the forfeitures of bail from any person arrested or notified by marshals or police appointed pursuant to Section 3332 of the Food and Agricultural Code and charged with a violation of this code, or the Health and Safety Code, Vehicle Code, or Welfare and Institutions Code, which occurred on the grounds or premises of the California Exposition and State Fair or any other property under the control of the California Exposition and State Fair, and an amount equal to the remaining 50 percent shall be transferred into the General Fund of Sacramento County.

The Board of Directors of the California Exposition and State Fair and Sacramento County, or any other county in which there is property under the control of the California Exposition and State Fair may by mutual agreement adjust the percentages of fines and forfeitures to be received by the California State Fair Police Special Account in the General Fund, and the county respectively. In the absence of any such agreement, the percentages fixed by this section shall prevail.

SEC. 4. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because this act will provide additional revenue to the local agency which shall be used to provide for any costs which may be incurred pursuant to this act.

SEC. 5. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Assembly Bill 2442 are both chaptered and become effective, both bills amend Section 3332 of the Food and Agricultural Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill 2442, that Section 3332 of the Food and Agricultural Code, as amended by Section 1 of Assembly Bill 2442 be further amended on the effective date of this act in the form set forth in Section 1.5 of this act to incorporate the changes in Section 3332 proposed by this bill. Therefore, Section 1.5 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Assembly Bill 2442 are both chaptered and become effective, both bills amend Section 3332, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill 2442, in which case Section 1.5 of this act shall become operative on the effective date of this act and Section 1 of this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Two statutes were enacted in 1980 by the Legislature relating to marshals and police employed by the California Exposition and State Fair resulting in obsolete references in the law concerning these peace officers. In order to clarify any possible ambiguity concerning the appointment and authority of these peace officers, and in order that the 52nd District Agricultural Association may use specified facilities of the California Exposition and State Fair as soon as possible, it is necessary for this act to go into effect immediately.

CHAPTER 549

An act to add Sections 8029.5, 10012, 12826, and 16487 to the Public Utilities Code, and to add Section 22124 to the Water Code, relating to electricity.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 24, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8029.5 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

8029.5. No person shall place, erect, or maintain on any pole any transformer, capacitor, or other electrical device containing polychlorinated biphenyls for transforming electric current, when the pole or transformer is required to be marked pursuant to applicable regulations of the United States Environmental Protection Agency, unless the person owning or controlling the pole on which the device is situated, upon request of any fire protection agency within the person's electrical service area, either marks the pole with a reflective band specified by the fire protection agency or furnishes to the fire protection agency the location of every pole within the fire protection agency on which such a device is located, at the person's option.

SEC. 2. Section 10012 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

10012. Every public utility shall comply with Section 8029.5.

SEC. 3. Section 12826 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

12826. Every district shall comply with Section 8029.5.

SEC. 4. Section 16487 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

16487. Every district shall comply with Section 8029.5.

SEC. 5. Section 22124 is added to the Water Code, to read:

22124. Every district furnishing electrical power shall comply with Section 8029.5 of the Public Utilities Code.

SEC. 6. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act and the only other costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 550

An act to add Section 4707 to the Civil Code, relating to child support.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 24, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4707 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

4707. In any case in which the support of a minor child is at issue, the court may, upon a showing of good cause, order a separate trial on that issue. The separate trial shall be given preference over other civil cases, except matters to which special precedence may be given by law, for assigning a trial date. If the court has also ordered a separate trial on the issue of custody pursuant to Section 4600.6, the two issues shall be tried together.

CHAPTER 551

An act to amend Sections 6701 and 31680.2 of the Government Code, relating to counties, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 24, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6701 of the Government Code is amended to read:

6701. If January 1st, January 15th, February 12th, July 4th, September 9th, November 11th, or December 25th falls upon a Sunday, the Monday following is a holiday. If November 11th falls upon a Saturday, the preceding Friday is a holiday.

If any holiday designated in Section 6700 falls on a Saturday, the board of supervisors of any county may by ordinance or resolution provide that an alternate day shall be a holiday for the employees of the county and the superior, municipal, and justice courts in the county.

SEC. 2. Section 31680.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

31680.2. Any person who has retired may be employed in a position requiring special skills or knowledge, as determined by the county or district employing him, for not to exceed 90 working days in any one fiscal year and may be paid for that employment. That employment shall not operate to reinstate the person as a member of this system or to terminate or suspend his retirement allowance, and no deductions shall be made from his salary as contributions to this system.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act for the purpose of making reimbursement pursuant to these sections. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of that code.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 2231.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, this act does not contain a repealer, as required by that section; therefore, the provisions of this act shall remain in effect unless and until they are amended or repealed by a later enacted act.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

There is a critical shortage of nurses in Los Angeles County. In order to allow the county to hire retired nurses for a limited period to relieve this shortage, and in order to coordinate certain court holidays with other county holidays to avoid the unnecessary overtime work, it is necessary that this act become effective immediately.

CHAPTER 552

An act to amend, repeal, and add Section 8183 of the Fish and Game Code, relating to fish.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 24, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8183 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8183. No anchovies may be taken for any purpose in Humboldt Bay, except under the following conditions:

(a) Anchovies may be taken for live bait only between September 1 and December 1. Anchovies may only be taken by the operator of a vessel for use in his or her own fishing operation, except that the operator may make incidental sales of anchovies so taken to local sport fishermen for their use as bait.

The provisions in this subdivision shall not prevent the cooperative effort of two or more vessel operators or their crews working together with one net if each operator has complied with the notification requirement contained in subdivision (b).

(b) An observer who is an employee of the department shall inspect any bait operation and shall be authorized to halt that operation in the event that the operation cannot be conducted without adversely affecting the game species of the bay. Notification of all bait operations shall be dispatched so as to be received by the department at least 12 hours prior to the commencement of the operation.

(c) Anchovies may be taken in Humboldt Bay only north of a line extending through channel markers 9 and 10 in Humboldt Bay.

(d) The seasonal take of anchovy shall not exceed five tons, plus the additional amount, if any, that the department may determine, upon observation, may be taken in any given season without damage to the fisheries. As a condition of authorizing the additional amount over five tons, the department shall first find that anchovies are not available in sufficient quantities to meet the needs of commercial fishermen in the waters off of Crescent City and shall so notify the Board of Supervisors of Humboldt County.

(e) Bait nets, as defined in Section 8780, shall be the only nets used to take anchovy.

(f) Any game fish caught incidentally in nets shall be released by use of a hand scoop net or by dipping the cork line.

On January 1, 1980, and annually thereafter, the department shall submit a report to the Legislature describing the status of the Humboldt Bay anchovy fishery. The report shall include an assessment of the environmental impact of the bait fishery on the marine resources of the bay, including any possible adverse effects thereon.

The commission shall promulgate any other regulation it deems necessary to protect the Humboldt Bay anchovy resource.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1988, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1988, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 8183 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

8183. No anchovies may be taken for any purpose in Humboldt Bay, except under the following conditions:

(a) Anchovies may be taken for live bait only between September 1 and December 1. Anchovies may only be taken by the operator of a vessel for use in his or her own fishing operation, except that the operator may make incidental sales of anchovies so taken to local sport fishermen for their use as bait.

(b) An observer who is an employee of the department shall inspect any bait operation and shall be authorized to halt that operation in the event that the operation cannot be conducted without adversely affecting the game species of the bay. Notification of all bait operations shall be dispatched so as to be received by the department at least 12 hours prior to the commencement of the operation.

(c) Anchovies may be taken in Humboldt Bay only north of a line extending through channel markers 9 and 10 in Humboldt Bay.

(d) The seasonal take of anchovy shall not exceed five tons.

(e) Bait nets, as defined in Section 8780, shall be the only nets used to take anchovy.

(f) Any game fish caught incidentally in nets shall be released by use of a hand scoop net or by dipping the cork line.

On January 1, 1980, and annually thereafter, the department shall submit a report to the Legislature describing the status of the Humboldt Bay anchovy fishery. The report shall include an assessment of the environmental impact of the bait fishery on the marine resources of the bay, including any possible adverse effects thereon.

The commission shall promulgate any other regulation it deems necessary to protect the Humboldt Bay anchovy resource.

This section shall become operative on January 1, 1988.

CHAPTER 553

An act to amend Sections 1463.10 and 1463.13 of, and to add Section 1463.20 to, the Penal Code, relating to the disposition of fines and forfeitures.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 24, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1463.10 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1463.10. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1463, out of the moneys deposited with the county treasurer pursuant to Section 1463, there shall be credited, once a month, to any community service district for which the county treasurer is the depositary an amount equal to 86 percent of all fines and forfeitures collected during the preceding month upon the conviction or upon the forfeiture of bail from any person arrested or notified by a member of the police department or fire department of such district, and an amount equal to the remaining 14 percent shall be transferred into the general fund of the county.

SEC. 1.5. Section 1463.13 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1463.13. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1463, of the moneys deposited with the county treasurer pursuant to Section 1463, there shall be transferred, once a month to the treasurer of any port district or harbor district in the county for deposit in the district fund, an amount equal to 20 percent of all fines and forfeitures collected during the preceding month upon the conviction of, or upon the forfeiture of bail by, any person arrested or issued a citation by any of the persons designated in Section 6070.6 or 6309.6 of the Harbors and Navigation Code and charged with a violation of any provision of an ordinance of a port district or harbor district committed on property or waters owned or controlled by the district within the county, and the remaining amount shall be transferred into the general fund of the county and allocated as provided in Section 1463.

SEC. 2. Section 1463.20 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

1463.20. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1463, out of the moneys deposited with the county treasurer pursuant to Section 1463, there shall be credited, once a month, to any fire protection district for which the county treasurer is the depositary an amount equal to 86 percent of all fines and forfeitures collected during the preceding month upon the conviction or upon the forfeiture of bail from any person arrested or notified by an officer of such district, an amount equal to the remaining 14 percent shall be transferred into the general fund of the county.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act for the purpose of making reimbursement pursuant to these sections. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of that code.

CHAPTER 554

An act to amend Section 23826.8 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to alcoholic beverages.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982 Filed with Secretary of State August 24, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 23826.8 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

23826.8. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the director may authorize the conversion of any on-sale general license for seasonal business to an on-sale general license if the on-sale general license for seasonal business was originally issued before May 1, 1982, or if an application for original issuance of such a license was filed before May 1, 1982. An application for conversion shall be accompanied by the fee required by Section 23954.5 for an on-sale general license. The department shall not accept any applications for original issuance of an on-sale general license for seasonal business on or after January 1, 1983.

An on-sale general license for seasonal business which is converted to an on-sale general license under this section may not be transferred for a period of two years from the date of issuance, except as provided in Section 24071, and except when the department determines that the transfer is necessary to prevent undue hardship. The purchase price or consideration that may be paid by a transferee or received by a transferor of an on-sale general license created by conversion under this section shall not exceed six thousand dollars ($6,000), except that after a period of five years from the date of issuance of the license there shall be no restriction as to the purchase price or consideration that may be paid by a transferee or received by a transferor.

CHAPTER 555

An act to amend Section 987.87 of the Military and Veterans Code, relating to veterans' farm and home loans, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 24, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 987.87 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

987.87. (a) The department shall establish the actual interest rate to be paid. To this end, the department, by a two-thirds vote of California Veterans Board members and with the approval of the Veterans' Finance Committee of 1943, is empowered to establish a uniform rate of interest payable upon the amount remaining unpaid under any veteran's purchase contract executed on or after September 26, 1974. The board and the committee shall periodically, at least once each year, make a finding as to the rate of interest to be charged, determined by a floating rate based upon the actual cost of general obligation bond and revenue bond sales, plus a certain percent for administrative costs to be determined annually by the board and committee, taking into consideration the current value of money, the solvency of the Veterans' Farm and Home Building Fund of 1943, and the interest paid on any participation contracts to which the interest of the department may be subject. The board and the committee may raise or lower the effective rate of interest payable under such contracts annually as they deem to be for the best interests of the department, as well as the contractholders, if in so doing such action is made applicable alike to any and all such contracts, and 90 days' advance notice is given of the time when the new rate of interest is to become effective. The interest rate shall not be raised so that the effective date of a higher rate of interest occurs more than once in any calendar year, unless the board and committee, by a two-thirds vote of the members of each, make a finding that an additional increase in the interest rate is necessary to enable the department to maintain the financial solvency of the fund or to meet its obligations to bondholders or purchasers.

(b) The total amount of any installment payment shall be raised or lowered to reflect any change in the effective rate of interest. The department may, however, adjust or postpone any installment payment for good cause pursuant to Section 987.71 and, for these purposes, good cause shall include a consideration of whether a purchaser's financial circumstances are such that an increased installment payment would be excessively burdensome. The department shall include notice of this provision in the 90 days' advance notice required under subdivision (a).

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Under present economic conditions, when the interest rate on a Cal-Vet purchase contract is raised to reflect increasing costs of bond funds and to permit the Department of Veterans Affairs to thereby accumulate sufficient monthly debt service receipts and thereby continue the financial solvency of the Cal-Vet program, many veteran purchasers elect the statutory option of extending their Cal-Vet contract period, thus denying the department the additional funds needed. In order to eliminate this option so as to prevent the possibility of default or the need to unreasonably or artificially inflate the Cal-Vet interest rate, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 556

An act to amend Section 26227 of the Government Code, relating to counties.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 24, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 26227 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26227. The board of supervisors of any county may appropriate and expend money from the general fund of the county to establish county programs or to fund other programs deemed by the board of supervisors to be necessary to meet the social needs of the population of the county, including but not limited to, the areas of health, law enforcement, public safety, rehabilitation, welfare, education and legal services, and the needs of physically, mentally and financially handicapped persons and aged persons.

The board of supervisors may contract with other public agencies or private agencies or individuals to operate such programs which the board of supervisors determines will serve public purposes. In the furtherance of any such program, the board of supervisors may make available to a public agency, nonprofit corporation, or nonprofit association any real property of the county which is not, and during the time of possession, will not be needed for county purposes, to be used to carry out such programs, upon terms and conditions determined by the board of supervisors to be in the best interests of the county and the general public, without complying with any other provisions of this code relating to leasing or granting the use of county property.

CHAPTER 557

An act to add and repeal Sections 24007 and 24212 of the Education Code, relating to the State Teachers' Retirement System, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 24, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 24007 is added to the Education Code, to read:

24007. Upon retirement for service after the operative date of this section, any member who is an employee of a community college with 25 years of credited service may retire at age 50 or older and receive an annual allowance equal to 2 percent of final compensation for each year of credited service with the allowance reduced by one-quarter of 1 percent for each full month or fraction of a month which will elapse until the member would have reached age 55 and one-half of 1 percent for each full month or fraction thereof between age 55 and age 60.

This section shall not be applicable to any school district or other employing agency until such district or agency notifies the board, in writing of its election to be subject thereto.

This section shall become operative on January 1, 1983, and shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1986, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1986, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 2. Section 24212 is added to the Education Code, to read:

24212. The board shall develop, adopt, and implement an additional alternative retirement plan which will allow a school district or other employing agency to permit those members with 30 years of credited service that the school district or agency deems appropriate to retire at age 55 or older and receive an annual allowance equal to 2 percent of final compensation for each year of credited service with the allowance reduced by one-quarter of 1 percent for each full month or fraction of a month which will elapse until the member would have reached age 60 if the member retires on and after June 1, 1979.

The employing school district or other employing agency shall pay the amount which is determined by the board to be the present value of the benefits provided under this section. The board shall permit such payments to be made over a three-year period in equal amounts. Interest shall be charged on the unpaid balance at a rate approximating the average yield on moneys invested by the board during the previous year from the effective date of the member's retirement.

This section shall become operative on July 1, 1982, and shall remain in effect only until July 1, 1985, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before July 1, 1985, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 2.5. It is the intent of the Legislature that if this bill is not enacted by June 30, 1982, this act shall be construed as becoming operative on July 1, 1982.

SEC. 3. The Legislative Analyst shall report to the Legislature by January 1, 1985, on the fiscal effects of the participation by school districts in the early retirement programs extended by this act and the desirability of further extensions.

SEC. 3.5. Notwithstanding Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act for the purpose of making reimbursement pursuant to these sections. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of that code.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure the benefits of this act to continue to provide school districts and other employing agencies with a method to solve personnel management problems which may arise, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 558

An act to amend Section 214.6 of, and to add Section 201.2 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 24, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 201.2 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

201.2. (a) A nonprofit corporation which has contracted with the board of supervisors pursuant to Section 25905, 25906, 25907, or 25908 of the Government Code for the conduct of an agricultural fair, shall be deemed to be an agency of the county for purposes of this part and for no other purpose, and county-owned property, including possessory interests in that property, used or possessed by the nonprofit corporation in the conduct of an agricultural fair shall be exempt from taxation under subdivision (b) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the State Constitution.

(b) Any tax which is levied as a result of an assessment made of property described in subdivision (a) after January 1, 1982, shall, if unpaid, be canceled and, if paid, be refunded.

(c) This section shall not be construed to exempt any profit-making organization or concessionaire from any property tax, including a property tax on a possessory interest, for the use of property which is used by a nonprofit corporation for the conduct of a fair.

SEC. 2. Section 214.6 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

214.6. (a) Property which is owned by an organization meeting the requirements of subdivision (b) of Section 4 of Article XIII of the State Constitution and complying with the requirements of subdivisions (1) to (7), inclusive, of Section 214 and which is leased to an exempt governmental entity for the purpose of conducting an activity which if conducted by the owner would qualify the property for an exemption, or leased to a community college, state college, or state university for educational purposes, shall be deemed to be within the exemption provided for in subdivision (b) of Section 4 of Article XIII of the State Constitution if:

(1) The total income received by the organization in the form of rents, fees or charges from such lease does not exceed the ordinary and usual expenses in maintaining and operating the leased property; and

(2) With respect to entities which are political subdivisions of the state, the property is located within the boundaries of the exempt governmental entity leasing the same.

(b) To claim the exemption provided by this section for property leased by a church to a school district, the church need only file a lessor's exemption claim and affirm each of the following:

(1) The total income received by the organization in the form of rents, fees or charges from the lease does not exceed the ordinary and usual expenses in maintaining and operating the leased property.

(2) With respect to entities which are political subdivisions of the state, the property is located within the boundaries of the exempt governmental entity leasing the same.

SEC. 3. The Legislature finds and declares that the type of property described in Section 201.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by this act, is property of a type which was not being assessed and taxed on January 1, 1973. Therefore, there shall be no reimbursement of local government of any property tax loss, and the State Board of Control shall accept no claims for reimbursement in that regard.

CHAPTER 559

An act to amend Section 664.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to notice of judgment, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 24, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 664.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

664.5. (a) In any contested action or special proceeding in a superior court, other than a proceeding for voidable marriage pursuant to the Family Law Act (Title 2 (commencing with Section 4400) or dissolution of marriage, legal separation and summary dissolution pursuant to Title 3 (commencing with Section 4500) of the Civil Code), the party submitting an order or judgment for entry shall prepare and mail a copy of the notice of entry of judgment to all parties who have appeared in the action or proceeding and shall file with the court the original notice of entry of judgment together with the proof of service by mail.

(b) Promptly upon entry of judgment in a contested action or special proceeding in a municipal or justice court, the clerk of the court shall mail notice of entry of judgment to all parties who have appeared in the action or special proceeding and shall execute a certificate of such mailing and place it in the court's file in the cause.

(c) For purposes of this section, "judgment" includes any judgment, decree, or signed order from which an appeal lies.

Upon order of the court in any action or special proceeding, the clerk shall mail notice of entry of any judgment or ruling, whether or not appealable.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to correct ambiguities in the law with regard to the preparation of notices of judgment in municipal and justice courts, and to alleviate technical problems regarding appeals in dissolution cases, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 560

An act to amend Section 409.55 of, and to add Section 409.8 to, the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to lis pendens.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 24, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 409.55 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

409.55. At any time after notice of pendency of an action has been recorded pursuant to Section 409 or other law, the notice may be withdrawn by recording in the office of the county recorder in which the notice of the pendency of the action was recorded a notice of withdrawal executed by the party who recorded the notice of pendency of the action or by the party's successor in interest.

Upon recordation of the notice of withdrawal in the manner provided by this section, neither the notice of the pendency of the action nor any information derived therefrom, prior to the recording of a certified copy of the judgment or decree issued therein, shall constitute constructive or actual notice of any of the matters contained therein, or any of the matters relating to such action, or create any duty of inquiry in any person thereafter dealing with the property described therein. Such notice of withdrawal shall be acknowledged.

SEC. 2. Section 409.8 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

409.8. Upon the withdrawal of a notice of pendency of an action pursuant to Section 409.55 or upon recordation of a certified copy of an order expunging a notice of pendency of an action pursuant to Section 409.1 or 409.2, no person, except a person who is a nonfictitious party to the action at the time of the recording of the withdrawal or order of expungement, who thereafter becomes, by conveyance recorded prior to the recording of a certified copy of the judgment or decree issued therein, a purchaser, transferee, mortgagee, or other encumbrancer for a valuable consideration of any interest in the real property subject to the action shall be deemed to have actual knowledge of the action or any matter claimed, alleged, or contended therein, irrespective of whether such person actually possessed actual knowledge of the action or matter and irrespective of when or how such knowledge was obtained. It is the intention of the Legislature that this section shall provide for the absolute and complete free transferability of real property after the expungement or withdrawal of a notice of pendency of action.

CHAPTER 561

An act to amend Sections 1955, 1956, 1957, and 1958 of the Civil Code, relating to bailments of personal property.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 24, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1955 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1955. Except as otherwise agreed by the lessor and the lessee in lease agreements for a term of more than 20 days, one who leases personal property must deliver it to the lessee, secure his or her quiet enjoyment thereof against all lawful claimants, put it into a condition fit for the purpose for which he or she leases it, and repair all deteriorations thereof not occasioned by the fault of the lessee and not the natural result of its use.

SEC. 2. Section 1956 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1956. Except as otherwise agreed by the lessor and lessee, a lessee of personal property must bear all such expenses concerning it as might naturally be foreseen to attend it during its use by him or her, and all other expenses must be borne by the lessor.

SEC. 3. Section 1957 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1957. If a lessor fails to fulfill his or her obligations, as prescribed by Section 1955, the lessee, after giving him or her notice to do so, if the notice can conveniently be given, may expend any reasonable amount necessary to make good the lessor's default, and may recover such amount from him or her.

SEC. 4. Section 1958 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1958. At the expiration of the term for which personal property is leased, the lessee must return it to the lessor at the place contemplated by the parties at the time of leasing; or, if no particular place was so contemplated by them, at the place at which it was at that time.

SEC. 5. Except as Section 1 relates to lease agreements for a term of not more than 20 days, Sections 1 to 4, inclusive, of this act do not constitute a change in, but are declaratory of, the existing law.

CHAPTER 562

An act to add and repeal Section 23358.3 to the Business and Professions Code, relating to alcoholic beverages, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 23358.3 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

23358.3. A winegrape growers' storage license authorizes the holder to store bulk wine, made from grapes produced by the holder, on the premises of a licensed winegrower and to sell that wine, within this state, to winegrowers, distilled spirits manufacturers, and vinegar producers.

The annual fee for a winegrape growers' storage license shall be fifty-six dollars ($56).

This section shall be operative until January 1, 1986, and on that date is repealed.

CHAPTER 563

An act to amend, repeal, and add Section 467 of the Military and Veterans Code, relating to the California National Guard, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 467 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

467. For the purpose of collecting fines or penalties imposed by a court-martial, the president of any general or special court-martial and the summary court officer of any summary court shall make a list of all fines and penalties and of the persons against whom they have been imposed, and may thereafter issue a warrant under his hand directed to any sheriff, marshal, or constable of the county, commanding him to levy and collect the fines and penalties, together with the costs, upon and out of the property of the person against whom the fine or penalty is imposed. The warrant shall be executed and renewed in the same manner as executions from the justices' courts.

All fines collected under this section or imposed and collected under Section 450.1 shall be paid by the officer collecting them to the commanding officer of the organization of which the person fined is or was a member and shall be deposited by the commanding officer into the AWOL Abatement Program Fund, which is hereby created in the State Treasury. All money in the AWOL Abatement Program Fund is hereby appropriated to the Military Department for the 1983–84 fiscal year for programs to reduce the rate of absence without leave among members of the California National Guard.

This section shall remain in effect only until July 1, 1984, and on that date is repealed unless a later enacted statute which is chaptered on or before that date deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 467 is added to the Military and Veterans Code, to read:

467. For the purpose of collecting fines or penalties imposed by a court-martial, the president of any general or special court-martial and the summary court officer of any summary court shall make a list of all fines and penalties and of the persons against whom they have been imposed, and may thereafter issue a warrant under his hand directed to any sheriff, marshal, or constable of the county, commanding him to levy and collect the fines and penalties, together with the costs, upon and out of the property of the person against whom the fine or penalty is imposed. The warrant shall be executed and renewed in the same manner as executions from the justices' courts.

All fines collected shall be paid by the officer collecting them to the commanding officer of the organization of which the person fined is or was a member and accounted for by the commanding officer in the same manner as other state funds.

This section shall become operative on July 1, 1984.

CHAPTER 564

An act to amend Sections 25100, 25104, 25111, 25165, and 25608 of the Corporations Code, relating to securities, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25100 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

25100. The following securities are exempted from the provisions of Sections 25110, 25120, and 25130:

(a) Any security (including a revenue obligation) issued or guaranteed by the United States, any state, any city, county, city and county, public district, public authority, public corporation, public entity, or political subdivision of a state or any agency or corporate or other instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing; or any certificate of deposit for any of the foregoing.

(b) Any security issued or guaranteed by the Dominion of Canada, any Canadian province, any political subdivision or municipality of any such province, or by any other foreign government with which the United States currently maintains diplomatic relations, if the security is recognized as a valid obligation by the issuer or guarantor; or any certificate of deposit for any of the foregoing.

(c) Any security issued or guaranteed by and representing an interest in or a direct obligation of a national bank or a bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of this state, and any security issued by a bank to one or more other banks and representing an interest in an asset of the issuing bank.

(d) Any security issued or guaranteed by a federal savings and loan association or federal land bank or joint land bank or national farm loan association or by any savings and loan association which is subject to the supervision and regulation of the Savings and Loan Commissioner of this state.

(e) Any security (other than an interest in all or portions of a parcel or parcels of real property which are subdivided land or a subdivision or in a real estate development), the issuance of which is subject to authorization by the Insurance Commissioner, the Public Utilities Commission, or the Real Estate Commissioner of this state.

(f) Any security consisting of any interest in all or portions of a parcel or parcels of real property which are subdivided lands or a subdivision or in a real estate development; provided that the exemption in this subdivision shall not be applicable to any investment contract sold or offered for sale with, or as part of, any such interest, or to any person engaged in the business of selling, distributing or supplying water for irrigation purposes or domestic use which is not a public utility.

(g) Any shares, investment certificates or borrower's membership certificates (as defined in the Savings and Loan Association Law) issued by a savings and loan association holding a license then in force from the Savings and Loan Commissioner of this state.

(h) Any security issued or guaranteed by any federal credit union, or by any credit union organized and supervised, or regulated, under the Credit Union Law.

(i) Any security issued or guaranteed by any railroad, other common carrier, public utility, or public utility holding company which is (1) subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission or (2) a holding company registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 or a subsidiary of such a company within the meaning of that act or (3) regulated in respect of the issuance or guarantee of the security by a governmental authority of the United States, of any state, of Canada or of any Canadian province; and the security is subject to registration with or authorization of issuance by such authority.

(j) Any security (except evidences of indebtedness, whether interest bearing or not) of an issuer (1) organized exclusively for educational, benevolent, fraternal, religious, charitable, social, or reformatory purposes and not for pecuniary profit, if no part of the net earnings of the issuer inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, or (2) organized as a chamber of commerce or trade or professional association. The fact that amounts received from memberships or dues or both will or may be used to construct or otherwise acquire facilities for use by members of the nonprofit organization does not disqualify the organization for this exemption. This exemption does not apply to the securities of any nonprofit organization if any promoter thereof expects or intends to make a profit directly or indirectly from any business or activity associated with the organization or operation of such nonprofit organization or from remuneration received from such nonprofit organization.

(k) Any agreement, commonly known as a "life income contract," of an issuer (1) organized exclusively for educational, benevolent, fraternal, religious, charitable, social, or reformatory purposes and not for pecuniary profit and (2) which the commissioner designates by rule or order, with a donor in consideration of a donation of property to such issuer and providing for the payment to the donor or persons designated by him of income or specified periodic payments from the donated property or other property for the life of the donor or such other persons.

(l) Any note, draft, bill of exchange, or banker's acceptance which is freely transferable and of prime quality, arises out of a current transaction or the proceeds of which have been or are to be used for current transactions, and which evidences an obligation to pay cash within nine months of the date of issuance, exclusive of days of grace, or any renewal of such paper which is likewise limited, or any guarantee of such paper or of any such renewal, provided that such paper is not offered to the public in amounts of less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) in the aggregate to any one purchaser. In addition, the commissioner may, by rule or order, exempt any issuer of any notes, drafts, bills of exchange or banker's acceptances from qualification of such securities when he finds that such qualification is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

(m) Any security issued by any corporation organized and existing under the provisions of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 54001) of Division 20 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

(n) Any beneficial interest in an employees' pension, profit sharing, stock bonus or similar benefit plan which meets the requirements for qualification under Section 401 of the Federal Internal Revenue Code or any statute amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto. A determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service stating that an employees' pension, profit sharing, stock bonus or similar benefit plan meets such requirements shall be conclusive evidence that such plan is an employees' pension, profit sharing, stock bonus or similar plan within the meaning of the first sentence of this subdivision until the date such determination letter is revoked in writing by the Internal Revenue Service, regardless of whether or not such revocation is retroactive.

(o) Any security listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance on a national securities exchange certified by rule or order of the commissioner and any warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to any such security.

Such certification of any exchange shall be made by the commissioner upon the written request of the exchange if he finds that the exchange, in acting on applications for listing of common stock substantially applies each of the minimum standards set forth in subparagraph (1) below, and in considering suspension or removal from listing, substantially applies each of the criteria set forth in subparagraph (2) below.

(1) Listing standards:

(i) Net tangible assets of at least two million dollars ($2,000,000).

(ii) Net income of at least two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) after all charges including federal income taxes in the fiscal year immediately preceding the filing of a listing application and net income before such taxes of at least five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000).

(iii) Minimum public distribution of 250,000 shares excluding the holdings of officers, directors, controlling shareholders and other concentrated or family holdings among not less than 900 holders including not less than 600 holders of lots of 100 shares or more, with a corresponding requirement that such securities not be largely held in blocks by institutional investors.

(iv) Minimum price of four dollars ($4) per share for a reasonable period of time prior to the filing of a listing application.

(v) An aggregate market value for publicly held shares of at least one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000).

(2) Criteria for consideration of suspension or removal from listing:

(i) If a company which (A) has net tangible assets of less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) has sustained net losses in each of its two most recent fiscal years, or (B) has net tangible assets of less than three million dollars ($3,000,000) and has sustained net losses in three of its four most recent fiscal years.

(ii) If the number of shares publicly held (excluding the holdings of officers, directors, controlling shareholders and other concentrated or family holdings) is less than 150,000.

(iii) If the total number of shareholders of record is less than 450 or if the number of shareholders of lots of 100 shares or more is less than 300.

(iv) If the aggregate market value of shares publicly held is less than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000).

(v) If shares of common stock sell at a price of less than four dollars ($4) per share for a substantial period of time and the issuer shall fail to effectuate a reverse stock split of such shares within a reasonable period of time after being requested by the exchange to take such action.

The commissioner after appropriate notice and opportunity for hearing in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, may by rule or order, decertify any exchange previously certified which ceases substantially to apply the standards or criteria as set forth above. A rule or order of certification shall conclusively establish that any security listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance on any exchange named in a rule or order of certification and any warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to any such security is exempt under this subdivision until the adoption of any rule or order decertifying such exchange.

(p) A promissory note secured by a lien on real property, which is neither one of a series of notes of equal priority secured by interests in the same real property nor a note in which beneficial interests are sold to more than one person or one entity.

(q) Any unincorporated interindemnity or reciprocal or interinsurance contract, which qualifies under the provisions of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code, between members of a cooperative corporation, organized and operating under Part 2 (commencing with Section 12200) of Division 3 of Title 1, and whose members consist only of physicians and surgeons licensed in California, which contracts indemnify solely in respect to medical malpractice claims against such members, and which do not collect in advance of loss any moneys other than contributions by each member to a collective reserve trust fund or for necessary expenses of administration.

(l) Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code, he may in his discretion bring an action in the name of the people of the State of California in the superior court to enjoin the acts or practices or to enforce compliance with Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code. Upon a proper showing a permanent or preliminary injunction, restraining order or writ of mandate shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets. The court shall not require the commissioner to post a bond.

(2) The commissioner may, in his discretion, (A) make such public or private investigations within or outside of this state as he deems necessary to determine whether any person has violated or is about to violate any provision of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code or to aid in the enforcement of such Section 1280.7, and (B) publish information concerning the violation of such Section 1280.7.

(3) For the purpose of any investigation or proceeding under this section, the commissioner or any officer designated by him may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, agreements, or other documents or records which the commissioner deems relevant or material to the inquiry.

(4) In case of contumacy by, or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to, any person, the superior court, upon application by the commissioner, may issue to the person an order requiring him to appear before the commissioner, or the officer designated by him, there to produce documentary evidence, if so ordered, or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt.

(5) No person is excused from attending or testifying or from producing any document or record before the commissioner or in obedience to the subpoena of the commissioner or any officer designated by him, or in any proceeding instituted by the commissioner, on the ground that the testimony or evidence (documentary or otherwise), required of him may tend to incriminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture, but no individual may be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which he is compelled, after validly claiming his privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence (documentary or otherwise), except that the individual testifying is not exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury or contempt committed in testifying.

(r) Any shares or memberships issued by any corporation organized and existing pursuant to the provisions of Part 2 (commencing with Section 12200) of Division 3 of Title 1; provided (1) the corporation limits its shareholders or members primarily to ultimate consumers only or producers only and (2) the aggregate investment of any shareholder or member in shares or memberships sold pursuant to this subdivision does not exceed one hundred dollars ($100). This exemption does not apply to the shares or memberships of any such corporation if any promoter thereof expects or intends to make a profit directly or indirectly from any business or activity associated with the corporation or the operation of such corporation or from remuneration, other than reasonable salary, received from such corporation.

(s) Any security consisting of or representing an interest in a pool of mortgage loans which meets each of the following requirements:

(1) The pool consists of mortgage loans originated or acquired in the ordinary course of business by a national bank or federal savings and loan association having its principal office in this state, by a bank

incorporated under the laws of this state or by a savings and loan association which is subject to the supervision and regulation of the Savings and Loan Commissioner and which at the time of transfer to the pool is an authorized investment for such origination or acquiring institution;

(2) The pool of mortgage loans is held in trust by a trustee which is a financial institution specified in paragraph (1) as trustee or otherwise;

(3) The loans are serviced by a financial institution specified in paragraph (1);

(4) Such security is not offered in amounts of less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) in the aggregate to any one purchaser; and

(5) Such security is offered pursuant to a registration under the Securities Act of 1933, or pursuant to an exemption under Regulation A under such act, or in the opinion of counsel for the issuer, is offered pursuant to an exemption under Section 4(2) of that act.

SEC. 2. Section 25104 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

25104. The following transactions are exempted from the provisions of Section 25130:

(a) Any offer or sale of a security by the bona fide owner thereof for his own account if the sale (1) is not accompanied by the publication of any advertisement and (2) is not effected by or through a broker-dealer in a public offering.

(b) Any offer or sale effected by or through a licensed broker-dealer pursuant to an unsolicited order or offer to buy. For the purpose of this subdivision (b) an inquiry regarding a written bid for a security or a written solicitation of an offer to sell a security made by another broker-dealer within the previous 60 days, shall not be considered the solicitation of an order or offer to buy.

(c) Any offer or sale to a bank, savings and loan association, trust company, insurance company, investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, pension or profit-sharing trust (other than a pension or profit-sharing trust of the issuer, a self-employed individual retirement plan, or individual retirement account), or such other institutional investor or governmental agency or instrumentality as the commissioner may designate by rule, whether the purchaser is acting for itself or as trustee; provided the purchaser represents that it is purchasing for its own account (or for such trust account) for investment and not with a view to or for sale in connection with any distribution of the security.

(d) Any transaction or agreement between a person on whose behalf an offering is made and an underwriter or among underwriters, if the sale of the securities is exempt from qualification at the time of or qualified prior to distribution in this state, if any.

(e) Any offer or sale of any security by or for the account of a bona fide secured party selling the security in the ordinary course of business to liquidate a bona fide debt.

(f) Any transaction by an executor, administrator, sheriff, marshal, receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, guardian or conservator.

(g) Any offer (but not a sale) of a security for which a registration statement has been filed under the Securities Act of 1933 but has not yet become effective, if no stop order or refusal order is in effect and no public proceeding or examination looking toward such an order is pending under Section 8 of that act and no order under Section 25140 or subdivision (a) of Section 25143 is in effect under this law.

(h) Any offer or sale of a security if a qualification under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 25110) of this part for any securities of the same class has become effective within 18 months prior to such offer or sale or if a qualification under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 25120) or Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 25130) of this part for any securities of the same class has become effective within 12 months prior to such offer or sale, provided no order under Section 25140 or subdivision (a) of Section 25143 is in effect under this law with respect to such qualification, and, provided further, that this exemption does not apply to such securities offered pursuant to a registration under the Securities Act of 1933 or pursuant to an exemption under Regulation A under that act if the aggregate offering price of the securities offered under such exemption exceeds fifty thousand dollars ($50,000). The commissioner may, by rule or order, withhold this exemption with respect to securities qualified only pursuant to a limited offering qualification.

SEC. 3. Section 25111 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

25111. (a) Any security for which a registration statement has been filed under the Securities Act of 1933 in connection with the same offering may be qualified by coordination under this section either in an issuer or nonissuer transaction.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (d), an application for qualification under this section shall contain the following information and be accompanied by the following documents, in addition to the information specified in Section 25160 and the consent to service of process required by Section 25165: (1) a copy of the registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933, together with all exhibits (other than exhibits incorporated by reference and those specified by rule of the commissioner, unless requested by the commissioner); (2) an undertaking to forward to the commissioner all future amendments to the registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933, other than an amendment which merely delays the effective date of the registration statement, promptly and in any event not later than the first business day after the day they are forwarded to or filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, whichever first occurs; and (3) such other information as may be required to evidence compliance with any rules of the commissioner. Such application must be filed with the commissioner not later than the fifth business day following filing of the registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission, unless such time is extended by rule or order of the commissioner.

(c) Except as provided in subdivision (d), qualification of the sale of securities under this section automatically becomes effective (and the securities may be offered and sold in accordance with the terms of the application as amended) at the moment the federal registration statement becomes effective if all the following conditions are satisfied: (1) no stop order or order under subdivision (a) of Section 25143 is in effect under this law; (2) the application has been on file with the commissioner for at least 10 days; and (3) a statement of the maximum and minimum proposed offering prices and the maximum underwriting discounts and commissions has been on file for two business days or such shorter period as the commissioner permits by rule or order and the offering is made within those limitations. The applicant shall promptly notify the commissioner by telephone or telegram of the date and time when the federal registration statement became effective and the content of the price amendment, if any, and shall promptly file a posteffective amendment to the application containing the information and documents in the price amendment. "Price amendment" means the final federal amendment which includes a statement of the offering price, underwriting and selling discounts or commissions, amount of proceeds, interest, dividend or conversion rates, call prices and other matters related to the offering price. Upon failure to receive the required notification and posteffective amendment with respect to the price amendment, the commissioner may enter a stop order, without notice or hearing, retroactively denying effectiveness to the application for qualification or suspending its effectiveness until compliance with this subdivision, if he promptly notifies the applicant by telephone or telegram (and promptly confirms by letter or telegram when he notifies by telephone) of the issuance of the order. If the applicant proves compliance with the requirements of this subdivision as to notice and posteffective amendment, the stop order is void as of the time of its entry. The commissioner may by rule or order waive either or both of the conditions specified in clauses (2) and (3) of this subdivision. If the federal registration statement becomes effective before all the conditions in this subdivision are satisfied and they are not waived, the application for qualification automatically becomes effective as soon as all the conditions are satisfied. If the applicant advises the commissioner of the date when the federal registration statement is expected to become effective, the commissioner shall promptly advise the applicant by telephone or telegram, at the applicant's expense, whether all the conditions are satisfied and whether he then contemplates the institution of a proceeding under Section 25140 or 25143; but this advice by the commissioner does not preclude the institution of such a proceeding at any time.

(d) (1) An open-end investment company or a unit investment trust which has previously qualified the sale of its securities pursuant to this section shall, in lieu of filing the application specified in subdivision (b), file pursuant to this subdivision if it has made no material change in its offering and if it is in compliance with all terms of its prior qualification. An application filed pursuant to this subdivision shall contain the following information and be accompanied by the following documents, in addition to the information specified in Section 25160 and the consent to service of process required by Section 25165: (A) a statement that the applicant has made no material change in its offering and that it is in compliance with the terms of its qualification; and (B) a copy of its current registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933.

(2) A unit investment trust which has not previously applied to qualify the sale of its securities pursuant to this section but which is substantially the same as one or more unit investment trusts previously qualified under this section by the same sponsor, shall file pursuant to this subdivision if it can make the statements specified below. An application filed pursuant to this subdivision shall contain the following information and be accompanied by the following documents, in addition to the information specified in Section 25160 and the consent to service of process required by Section 25165: (A) a statement that the applicant, in its organization, its plan of business, its securities and its offering, is substantially the same as a unit investment trust previously qualified under this section by the same sponsor; (B) a statement that such previously qualified unit investment trusts are in compliance with the terms of their qualifications and (C) a copy of its current registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933.

(3) If no stop order or orders under subdivision (a) of Section 25143 are in effect under this law, qualification of the sale of securities under this subdivision automatically becomes effective (and the securities may be offered and sold in accordance with the terms of the application) upon the day following the expiration of its prior qualification pursuant to this section or, if such qualification has expired, upon the first business day following the filing of the application pursuant to this subdivision. Nothing contained in this subdivision shall restrict the authority of the commissioner pursuant to Section 25140 or 25143.

SEC. 4. Section 25165 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

25165. Every applicant for qualification of the sale of securities under this law or every person filing an application or request for or notice of an exemption from qualification (other than a California corporation or a person licensed as a broker-dealer in this state) shall file with the commissioner, in such form as prescribed by rule, an irrevocable consent appointing the commissioner or his or her successor in office to be the applicant's or person's attorney to receive service of any lawful process in any noncriminal suit, action or proceeding against the applicant or person or the successor, executor or administrator thereof, which arises under this law or any rule or order hereunder after the consent has been filed, with the same force and validity as if served personally on the person filing the consent. A person who has filed such a consent in connection with a previous qualification under this law (or application for a permit under any prior law if the application under this law states that such consent is still effective) need not file another. Service may be made by leaving a copy of the process in the office of the commissioner but it is not effective unless (1) the plaintiff, who may be the commissioner in a suit, action or proceeding instituted by him or her, forthwith sends notice of the service and a copy of the process by registered or certified mail to the defendant or respondent at the last address on file with the commissioner, and (2) the plaintiff's affidavit of compliance with this section is filed in the case on or before the return day of the process, if any, or within such further time as the court allows.

SEC. 5. Section 25608 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

25608. (a) The commissioner shall charge and collect the fees fixed in this section. All fees charged and collected under this section shall be transmitted to the State Treasurer at least weekly, accompanied by a detailed statement thereof and shall be credited to the General Fund.

(b) The fee for filing an application for a negotiating permit under subdivision (c) of Section 25102 is fifty dollars ($50).

(c) The fee for filing a notice pursuant to clause 5 of subdivision (h) of Section 25102 and the fee for filing a notice pursuant to clause 4 of subdivision (f) of Section 25102, in addition to the fee prescribed in that clause, if applicable, is twenty-five dollars ($25).

(d) The fee for filing an application for designation of an issuer pursuant to subdivision (k) of Section 25100 is fifty dollars ($50).

(e) The fee for filing an application for qualification of the sale of securities by notification under Section 25112 or by permit under Section 25113 (except applications for qualification by permit of the sale of any guarantee of any security, the fees for which applications are fixed in subdivision (j) of this section) is one hundred dollars ($100) plus one-tenth of 1 percent of the aggregate value of the securities sought to be sold in this state up to a maximum aggregate fee of one thousand seven hundred fifty dollars ($1,750).

(f) The fee for filing an application for qualification of the sale of securities by coordination under Section 25111 is one hundred dollars ($100) plus one-tenth of 1 percent of the aggregate value of the securities sought to be sold in this state up to a maximum aggregate fee of one thousand five hundred fifty dollars ($1,550).

(g) For the purpose of determining the fees fixed in subdivisions (e) and (f):

(1) The value of the securities shall be the price at which the company proposes to sell the securities, or the value, as alleged in the application, or the actual value, as determined by the commissioner, of the consideration (if other than money) to be received in exchange therefor, or of the securities when sold, whichever is greater.

(2) Interim or voting trust certificates shall have a value equal to the aggregate value of the securities to be represented by the interim or voting trust certificates.

(3) The value of a warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to another security of the same or another issuer shall be an amount equal to the consideration to be paid for such warrant or right plus an amount equal to the consideration to be paid upon purchase of the additional securities, provided that if such latter amount is not determinable at the time of qualification, such amount shall be the then value of such additional securities as determined by the commissioner.

(4) In the case of a share dividend where the shareholders are given an option to accept either cash or additional shares of common stock, the value of the securities to be sold shall be the maximum amount of cash which would be payable in the event that all shareholders elected to accept cash.

(h) The fee for filing an application for qualification of the sale of securities by permit under Section 25121 is:

(1) One hundred dollars ($100) in connection with any change (including any stock split or reverse stock split or stock dividend, except a stock dividend where the shareholders are given an option to accept either cash or additional shares of common stock) in the rights, preferences, privileges, or restrictions of or on outstanding securities;

(2) One hundred dollars ($100) plus one-tenth of 1 percent of the value, as alleged in the application, or the actual value, as determined by the commissioner, of the consideration to be received in exchange therefor, up to a maximum aggregate fee of one thousand seven hundred fifty dollars ($1,750), in any exchange of securities by the issuer with its existing security holders exclusively, or in any exchange in connection with any merger or consolidation or purchase of corporate assets in consideration of the issuance of securities.

(i) The fee for filing an application for qualification of the sale of securities by notification under Section 25131 shall be sixty dollars ($60).

(j) The fee for an application for the removal of any condition under Section 25141 is fifty dollars ($50).

(k) The fee for filing any application for a permit to execute or issue any guarantee of any security is fifty dollars ($50).

(l) The fee for acting as escrow holder for securities under Section 25149 is fifty dollars ($50). In addition, a fee of two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) shall be paid for the deposit with the commissioner of each new certificate or other document resulting from a transfer in escrow.

(m) The fee for filing an application for an order (1) consenting to the transfer in escrow of securities, (2) consenting to the transfer of securities subject to any condition imposed by the commissioner requiring the commissioner's consent to such transfer, or (3) consenting to the transfer of securities subject to a legend stamped or printed on the certificates evidencing such securities pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 25102, is ten dollars ($10) for each transferor.

(n) The filing fee for an amendment to an application filed after the effective date of the qualification of the sale of securities is fifty dollars ($50) plus any additional fee which would have been required to be paid with the original application for qualification of the sale of securities under this section if the matters set forth in the amendment had been included in the original application.

(o) (1) The fee for filing an application for a broker-dealer certificate under Section 25211 is three hundred dollars ($300).

(2) Each broker-dealer shall pay to the commissioner its pro rata share of all costs and expenses, reasonably incurred in the administration of the broker-dealer program under this division, as estimated by the commissioner for the ensuing year and any deficit actually incurred or anticipated in the administration of the program in the year in which such assessment is made. The pro rata share shall be the proportion which the broker-dealer's number of agents and offices in this state bears to the aggregate number of broker-dealer offices and agents in this state as shown by the annual reports to the commissioner. The pro rata share shall not include the costs of any examinations, audit, or investigation provided for in subdivision (r), unless they cannot be collected from the licensee examined, audited, or investigated.

(3) On or before the 30th day of May in each year, the commissioner shall notify each broker-dealer by mail of the amount assessed and levied against it and that amount shall be paid within 20 days thereafter. If payment is not made within 20 days, the commissioner shall assess and collect a penalty in addition to the assessment, of 1 percent of the assessment for each month or part of a month that the payment is delayed or withheld.

(4) In the levying and collection of the assessment, a broker-dealer shall not be assessed for nor be permitted to pay less than one hundred fifty dollars ($150) per year.

(5) If a broker-dealer fails to pay the assessment on or before the 30th day of June following the day upon which payment is due, the commissioner may by order summarily suspend or revoke the certificate issued to such broker-dealer. If, after such an order is made, a request for hearing is filed in writing and a hearing is not held within 60 days thereafter, the order is deemed rescinded as of its effective date. During any period when its certificate is revoked or suspended, a broker-dealer shall not conduct business pursuant to this division except as may be permitted by order of the commissioner; provided, however, that the revocation, suspension or surrender of a certificate shall not affect the powers of the commissioner as provided in this division.

(p) The commissioner may by rule fix a fee of not to exceed twenty-five dollars ($25) for the filing of a notice or report required by rule adopted pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 25210.

(q) The fee for filing an application for an investment adviser under Section 25231 is two hundred fifty dollars ($250), and payment of this amount shall keep the certificate, if granted, in effect during the calendar year during which it is granted, and if that year is an even-numbered year during the following calendar year. Every investment adviser who has secured from the commissioner a certificate shall, in order to keep such certificate in effect for an additional two-year period, pay a renewal fee of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) on or before the 15th day of December preceding the additional period.

(r) The fee for any examination, audit, or investigation is the actual amount of the salary or other compensation paid to the persons making the examination, audit, or investigation plus the actual amount of expenses including overhead reasonably incurred in the performance of the work.

(s) The fee for any hearing held by the commissioner pursuant to Section 25142 shall be the sum determined by the commissioner to cover the actual expense of noticing and holding such hearing.

(t) The commissioner may fix by rule a reasonable charge for any publications issued under his authority; provided, however, that such charges shall not be applicable to reports of the commissioner in the ordinary course of distribution.

(u) The fee for filing an offer under subdivision (b) of Section 25507 shall be the amount of filing fee payable under subdivision (e), (f), (h) or (i) of this section if an application had been filed to qualify the transaction in which the securities upon which the offer is to be made were sold in violation of the qualification provisions of this law.

(v) The fee for filing an application for exemption pursuant to subdivision (l) of Section 25100 is two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Unit investment trusts generally file an annual application to qualify the sale of their shares in California which will cover anticipated sales in California during the ensuing year. This act provides for a continuous registration process for a sponsor of unit investment trusts once it has initially qualified its securities for sale in this state. In order for the provisions of this act to apply to pending applications and applications which will be filed before the end of the year, it is necessary for this act to go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 565

An act to add Section 14839.1 to the Government Code, relating to small businesses.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14839.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

14839.1. The department shall have sole responsibility for certifying and determining the eligibility of small businesses under this chapter.

CHAPTER 566

An act to add Section 16366.81 to the Government Code, relating to federal employment and training block grants.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 16366.81 is added to the Government Code, to read:

16366.81. It shall be the policy of this state to provide mechanisms for allocating federal employment and training block grant funds which maximize local control and coordination among local public and private agencies, as well as local business, labor and educational representatives.

CHAPTER 567

An act to add Section 52332 to the Education Code, relating to vocational education.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 52332 is added to the Education Code, to read:

52332. The State Department of Education shall annually, on or before March 1 of each year, submit to the Legislature a report on the costs of a representative sample of individual programs offered at regional occupational centers and programs and on the relationship of these costs to the average daily attendance revenue limits in the regional occupational centers and programs examined by the study.

CHAPTER 568

An act to add Sections 472 and 27904 to the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982 Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 472 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

472. A "pilot car" is a motor vehicle, except a motorcycle, motorized bicycle, or motorized quadricycle, which is used to escort one or more other vehicles, when required, due to the vehicles' size or character of load, in accordance with conditions set forth in a permit issued by the appropriate state agency or by a local authority.

SEC. 2. Section 27904 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

27904. There shall be displayed in a conspicuous place on both the right and left sides of a pilot car a sign showing the name of the company or the owner or driver of the pilot car. The sign shall also contain the business address and telephone number of the owner or driver. The letters of the sign shall be not less than 2½ inches in height and the lettering shall be in contrast to the color of the background upon which they are placed.

SEC. 3. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 569

An act to repeal and add Section 21651 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 21651 of the Vehicle Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 21651 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

21651. (a) Whenever a highway has been divided into two or more roadways by means of intermittent barriers or by means of a dividing section of not less than two feet in width, either unpaved or delineated by curbs, lines, or other markings on the roadway, it is unlawful to do either of the following:

(1) To drive any vehicle over, upon, or across the dividing section.

(2) To make any left, semicircular, or U-turn with the vehicle on the divided highway, except through an opening in the barrier designated and intended by public authorities for the use of vehicles or through a plainly marked opening in the dividing section.

(b) It is unlawful to drive any vehicle upon a highway, except to the right of an intermittent barrier or a dividing section which separates two or more opposing lanes of traffic.

(c) A violation of subdivision (b) on a freeway is a misdemeanor.

SEC. 3. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 570

An act to amend Sections 19255 and 19994.9 of the Government Code, relating to state officers and employees.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19255 of the Government Code is amended to read:

19255. A person shall not be assigned to perform the duties of any class other than that to which his or her position is allocated except as described in Section 19994.9.

SEC. 2. Section 19994.9 of the Government Code is amended to read:

19994.9. The State Personnel Board may prescribe rules governing the temporary assignment or loan of employees within an agency or between agencies or jurisdictions for not to exceed two years for any of the following purposes:

(a) To provide training to employees.

(b) To enable an agency to obtain expertise needed to meet a compelling program or management need.

(c) To facilitate the return of injured employees to work.

These temporary assignments or loans shall be deemed to be in accord with the provisions of this part limiting employees to duties consistent with their class and may be used to meet minimum requirements for promotional as well as open examinations. An employee participating in such an arrangement shall have the absolute right to return to his or her former position. Any temporary assignment or loan of an employee made for the purpose specified in subdivision (b) shall be made only with the voluntary consent of the employee.

In addition, out-of-class experience obtained in a manner not described in this section may be used to meet minimum requirements for promotional as well as open examinations, only if it was obtained by the employee in good faith and was properly verified under standards prescribed by State Personnel Board rule.

CHAPTER 571

An act to amend Sections 11103, 11508, 11620, 11717, and 11812 of, and to add Sections 11508.1, 11620.1, and 11717.1 to, the Vehicle Code, relating to licenses.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11103 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11103. A driving school owner and an independent instructor licensed under Section 11105.5 shall maintain bodily injury and property damage liability insurance on motor vehicles while being used in driving instruction, insuring the liability of the driving school, the driving instructor, and any person taking instruction in at least the following amounts: one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) for bodily injury to or death of one person in any one accident and, subject to the limit for one person, two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) for bodily injury to or death of two or more persons in any one accident, and the amount of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) for damage to property of others in any one accident.

The owner or instructor shall file evidence of that insurance coverage in the form of a certificate from the insurance carrier with the department, and the certificate shall stipulate that the insurance shall not be canceled except upon 30 days' prior written notice to the department.

SEC. 2. Section 11508 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11508. (a) Every special plate and license issued under this chapter shall be valid for a period of one year from the date of issuance. New plates and license for the ensuing year may be obtained by the person to whom any expired plates and license were issued upon application to the department and payment of the fee provided in this code.

(b) Every application for the renewal of special plates and license which expire pursuant to this section shall be made by the person to whom issued not more than 90 days prior to the expiration date, and shall be made by presenting the application form provided by the department and by payment of the full annual renewal fee for the plates and license.

SEC. 3. Section 11508.1 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

11508.1. In order to accomplish the conversion of the license from the term in effect on December 31, 1982, to the term prescribed in Section 11508, the director may either establish an initial renewal period of less than one year or extend the renewal period to more than one year during the conversion period, except that any new or reinstated license issued on or after January 1, 1983, shall be for the term prescribed in Section 11508.

SEC. 4. Section 11620 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11620. (a) Every special plate and license issued under this chapter shall be valid for a period of one year from the date of issuance. New plates and a license for the ensuing year may be obtained by the person to whom any expired plates and license were issued upon application to the department and payment of the fee provided in this code.

(b) Every application for the renewal of special plates and license which expire pursuant to this section shall be made by the person to whom issued not more than 90 days prior to the expiration date, and shall be made by presenting the completed application form provided by the department and by payment of the full annual renewal fee for the plates and license.

SEC. 5. Section 11620.1 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

11620.1. In order to accomplish the conversion of the license from the term in effect on December 31, 1982, to the term prescribed in Section 11620, the director may either establish an initial renewal period of less than one year or extend the renewal period to more than one year during the conversion period, except that any new or reinstated license issued on or after January 1, 1983, shall be for the term prescribed in Section 11620.

SEC. 6. Section 11717 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11717. (a) Every special plate and license issued under this chapter shall be valid for a period of one year from the date of issuance. New plates and license for the ensuing year may be obtained by the person to whom any expired plates and license were issued upon application to the department and payment of the fee provided in this code.

(b) Every application for the renewal of special plates and license which expire pursuant to this section shall be made by the person to whom issued not more than 90 days prior to the expiration date, and shall be made by presenting the application form provided by the department and by payment of the full annual renewal fee for the plates and license.

SEC. 7. Section 11717.1 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

11717.1. In order to accomplish the conversion of the license from the term in effect on December 31, 1982, to the term prescribed in Section 11717, the director may either establish an initial renewal period of less than one year or extend the renewal period to more than one year during the conversion period, except that any new or reinstated license issued on or after January 1, 1983, shall be for the term prescribed in Section 11717.

SEC. 8. Section 11812 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11812. (a) Every vehicle salesman shall, at time of employment, deliver to his employing dealer his salesman's license to be posted in a place conspicuous to the public on the premises where he is actually engaged in the selling of vehicles for the employing dealer.

(b) The license shall be displayed continuously during such employment. If a vehicle salesman's employment is terminated, the license shall be returned to the salesman.

(c) Every vehicle salesman shall report in writing to the department every change of residence address within five days of the change.

CHAPTER 572

An act to amend Sections 88091 and 81119 of, and to amend, add, and repeal Sections 88076, 88080, and 88084 of, the Education Code, relating to community college districts.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 88076 of the Education Code is amended to read:

88076. (a) The commission shall classify all employees and positions within the jurisdiction of the governing board or of the commission, except those which are exempt from the classified service, as specified in subdivision (b). The employees and positions shall be known as the classified service. "To classify" shall include, but not be limited to, allocating positions to appropriate classes, arranging classes into occupational hierarchies, determining reasonable relationships within occupational hierarchies, and preparing written class specifications.

(b) Exempt from the classified service shall be:

(1) Positions which require certification qualifications,

(2) Part-time playground positions,

(3) Full-time students employed part time,

(4) Part-time students employed part time in any college work-study program, or in a work experience education program conducted by a community college district pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 78240) of Chapter 2 of Part 48 of this division and which is financed by state or federal funds,

(5) Apprentice positions,

(6) Positions established for the employment of professional experts on a temporary basis for a specific project by the governing board or by the commission when so designated by the commission.

Employment of either full-time or part-time students in any college work-study program, or in a work experience education program shall not result in the displacement of classified personnel or impair existing contracts for services.

However, nothing in this section shall prevent an employee, who has attained regular status in a full-time position, from taking a voluntary reduction in time and retaining his or her regular status under the provisions of this law.

No person whose contribution consists solely in the rendition of individual personal services and whose employment does not come within the scope of the exceptions listed above shall be employed outside the classified service.

A part-time position is one for which the assigned time, when computed on an hourly, daily, weekly, or monthly basis, is less than 87½ percent of the normally assigned time of the majority of employees in the classified service.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1989, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 88076 is added to the Education Code, to read:

88076. The commission shall classify all employees and positions within the jurisdiction of the governing board or of the commission, except those which are exempt from the classified service. The employees and positions shall be known as the classified service. Exempt from the classified service shall be:

(a) Positions which require certification qualifications.

(b) Part-time playground positions.

(c) Full-time students employed part time.

(d) Part-time students employed part time in any college work-study program, or in a work experience education program conducted by a community college district pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 78240) of Chapter 2 of Part 48 and which is financed by state or federal funds.

(e) Apprentice positions.

(f) Positions established for the employment of professional experts on a temporary basis for a specific project by the governing board or by the commission when so designated by the commission.

Employment of either full-time or part-time students in any college work-study program, or in a work experience education program shall not result in the displacement of classified personnel or impair existing contracts for services.

However, nothing in this section shall prevent an employee, who has attained regular status in a full-time position, from taking a voluntary reduction in time and retaining his or her regular status under the provisions of this law.

No person whose contribution consists solely in the rendition of individual personal services and whose employment does not come within the scope of the exceptions listed above shall be employed outside the classified service.

A part-time position is one for which the assigned time, when computed on an hourly, daily, weekly, or monthly basis, is less than 87½ percent of the normally assigned time of the majority of employees in the classified service.

This section shall become operative January 1, 1989.

SEC. 3. Section 88080 of the Education Code is amended to read:

88080. The commission shall prescribe, amend, and interpret, subject to this article, such rules as may be necessary to ensure the efficiency of the service and the selection and retention of employees upon a basis of merit and fitness. The rules shall not apply to bargaining unit members if the subject matter is within the scope of representation, as defined in Section 3543.2 of the Government Code, and is included in a negotiated agreement between the governing board and that unit. The rules shall be binding upon the governing board, but shall not restrict the authority of the governing board provided pursuant to other sections of this code.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1989, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. Section 88080 is added to the Education Code, to read:

88080. The commission shall prescribe and amend, subject to this article, such rules as may be necessary to ensure the efficiency of the service and the selection and retention of employees upon a basis of merit and fitness. The rules shall be binding upon the governing board.

This section shall become operative January 1, 1989.

SEC. 5. Section 88084 of the Education Code is amended to read:

88084. The commission shall appoint a personnel director within 90 days after the adoption of a merit system from an eligibility list established from a competitive examination given under the auspices of the commission. The commission shall appoint all employees paid from funds budgeted for the support of the commission and shall supervise the activities of those employees that are performed as a part of the functions of the commission. These employees shall be appointed from eligibility lists established pursuant to the provisions of this article, be classified employees of the community college district and shall be accorded all the rights, benefits, and burdens of any other classified employee serving in the regular service of the district, including representation by the appropriate exclusive representative, if any.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1989, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 6. Section 88084 is added to the Education Code, to read:

88084. The commission shall appoint a personnel director within 90 days after the adoption of a merit system from an eligibility list established from a competitive examination given under the auspices of the commission. The commission shall also appoint all other employees paid from funds budgeted for the support of the commission from eligibility lists established pursuant to the provisions of this article. Such employees shall be classified employees of the community college district and shall be accorded all the rights, benefits, and burdens of any other classified employee serving in the regular service of the district.

This section shall become operative January 1, 1989.

SEC. 7. Section 88091 of the Education Code is amended to read:

88091. All vacancies in the classified service shall be filled pursuant to this article and the rules of the commission, from applicants on eligibility lists which, wherever practicable, as determined by the commission, shall be made up from promotional examinations, or appointments may be made by means of transfer, demotion, reinstatement, and reemployment in accordance with the rules of the commission. All applicants for promotional examinations shall have the required amount of service in classes designated by the commission or meet the minimum qualifications of education, training, experience, and length of service, which shall be determined by the commission to be appropriate for the class for which they have applied. Any promotional applicant who has served the required amount of time in a designated class or who meets the minimum qualifications for admission to a promotional examination shall be admitted to the examination. Applicants shall be placed on the eligibility lists in the order of their relative merit as determined by competitive examinations. The final scores of candidates shall be rounded to the nearest whole percent for all eligibles. All eligibles with the same percentage score will be considered as having the same rank. Appointments shall be made from the eligibles having the first three ranks on the list who are ready and willing to accept the position.

Nothing contained in this section shall authorize the selection of eligible candidates in circumvention of the affirmative action programs of any community college district.

SEC. 8. Section 88119 of the Education Code is amended to read:

88119. Eligibility lists shall be established for a period of not less than one year except that when a list is exhausted for appointments to current vacancies, through use and eligibles being unavailable, the commission may, upon the recommendation of the officer charged with certifying eligibles, and after due notice to eligibles who may have made themselves unavailable for appointment, terminate it before a year has expired.

Eligibility lists may be established for a period of six months upon the approval of the personnel commission so long as the six months' duration of such a list is noted in the recruitment bulletin announcing the examination. If a list is exhausted for appointments to current vacancies, through use and eligibles being unavailable, the commission may, upon the recommendation of the officer charged with certifying eligibles, and after due notice to eligibles who may have made themselves unavailable for appointment, terminate it before the expiration date.

A list may be extended for an additional period of one year or less in the discretion of the commission.

SEC. 9. Notwithstanding Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act for the purpose of making reimbursement pursuant to these sections because no new duties are required by this act.

CHAPTER 573

An act to amend Section 27356 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 27356 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

27356. This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1984, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1984, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 574

An act to repeal Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 14700) of Division 6 of the Business and Professions Code, and to amend Sections 980, 981, 982, and 983 of the Civil Code, relating to copyright.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 14700) of Division 6 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 980 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

980. (a) (1) The author of any original work of authorship that is not fixed in any tangible medium of expression has an exclusive ownership in the representation or expression thereof as against all persons except one who orginally and independently creates the same or similar work. A work shall be considered not fixed when it is not embodied in a tangible medium of expression or when its embodiment in a tangible medium of expression is not sufficiently permanent or stable to permit it to be perceived, reproduced, or otherwise communicated for a period of more than transitory duration, either directly or with the aid of a machine or device.

(2) The author of an original work of authorship consisting of a sound recording initially fixed prior to February 15, 1972, has an exclusive ownership therein until February 15, 2047, as against all persons except one who independently makes or duplicates another sound recording that does not directly or indirectly recapture the actual sounds fixed in such prior sound recording, but consists entirely of an independent fixation of other sounds, even though such sounds imitate or simulate the sounds contained in the prior sound recording.

(b) The inventor or proprietor of any invention or design, with or without delineation, or other graphical representation, has an exclusive ownership therein, and in the representation or expression thereof, which continues so long as the invention or design and the representations or expressions thereof made by him remain in his possession.

SEC. 3. Section 981 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

981. (a) Unless otherwise agreed, an original work of authorship not fixed in any tangible medium of expression and in the creation of which several persons are jointly concerned, is owned by them in equal proportion.

(b) Unless otherwise agreed, an invention or design in the production of which several persons are jointly concerned is owned by them as follows:

(1) If the invention or design is single, in equal proportions.

(2) If it is not single, in proportion to the contribution of each.

SEC. 4. Section 982 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

982. (a) The owner of any rights in any original works of authorship not fixed in any tangible medium of expression may transfer the ownership therein.

(b) The owner of any invention or design, or of any representation or expression thereof, may transfer his or her proprietary interest in it.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision in this section, whenever a work of fine art is transferred, whether by sale or on commission or otherwise, by or on behalf of the artist who created it, or that artist's heir, legatee, or personal representative, the right of reproduction thereof is reserved to such artist or such heir, legatee, or personal representative until it passes into the public domain by act or operation of law, unless that right is expressly transferred by a document in writing in which reference is made to the specific right of reproduction, signed by the owner of the rights conveyed or that person's duly authorized agent. If the transfer is pursuant to an employment relationship, the right of reproduction is transferred to the employer, unless it is expressly reserved in writing. If the transfer is pursuant to a legacy or inheritance, the right of reproduction is transferred to the legatee or heir, unless it is expressly reserved by will or codicil. Nothing contained herein, however, shall be construed to prohibit the fair use of such work of fine art.

(d) As used in subdivision (c):

(1) "Fine art" means any work of visual art, including but not limited to, a drawing, painting, sculpture, mosaic, or photograph, a work of calligraphy, work of graphic art (including an etching, lithograph, offset print, silk screen, or a work of graphic art of like nature), crafts (including crafts in clay, textile, fiber, wood, metal, plastic, and like materials), or mixed media (including a collage, assemblage, or any combination of the foregoing art media).

(2) "Artist" means the creator of a work of fine art.

(3) "Right of reproduction", at the present state of commerce and technology shall be interpreted as including, but shall not be limited to, the following: reproduction of works of fine art as prints suitable for framing; facsimile casts of sculpture; reproductions used for greeting cards; reproductions in general books and magazines not devoted primarily to art, and in newspapers in other than art or news sections, when such reproductions in books, magazines, and newspapers are used for purposes similar to those of material for which the publishers customarily pay; art films; television, except from stations operated for educational purposes, or on programs for educational purposes from all stations; and reproductions used in any form of advertising, including magazines, calendars, newspapers, posters, billboards, films or television.

(e) The amendments to this section made at the 1975–76 Regular Session shall only apply to transfers made on or after January 1, 1976.

SEC. 5. Section 983 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

983. If the owner of any invention or design intentionally makes it public, a copy or reproduction may be made public by any person, without responsiblily to the owner, so far as the law of this state is concerned.

SEC. 6. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 575

An act to add Section 25503.16 to the Business and Professions Code, relating to alcoholic beverages.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25503.16 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

25503.16. (a) Nothing in this division shall prohibit the issuance or transfer of any retail onsale or offsale license to any person with respect to premises which are an integral part of the operations of a hotel or motel owned by, or operated by or on behalf of, the licensee notwithstanding that a manufacturer, winegrower, manufacturer's agent, California winegrower's agent, rectifier, distiller, bottler, importer, or wholesaler holds the ownership of any interest, directly or indirectly, in the premises or in the retail licensee, provided that each of the following conditions is met:

(1) The hotel or motel consists of not less than 150 guestroom accommodations.

(2) No more than one-quarter of the total gross annual revenues of such hotel or motel is derived from the sale by such hotel or motel of alcoholic beverages.

(3) The retail licensee shall purchase no beer or distilled spirits for sale in this state other than from a wholesale licensee, and the retail licensee shall purchase no alcoholic beverages for sale in this state from any wholesale licensee holding the ownership of any interest, directly or indirectly, in the premises or in the retail licensee.

(b) For purposes of this section, "hotel" and "motel" shall mean an establishment containing guestroom accommodations with respect to which the predominant relationship existing between the occupants thereof and the owner or operator of the establishment is that of innkeeper and guest; for purposes of this subdivision, the existence of other legal relationships as between some occupants and the owner or operator thereof shall be immaterial.

(c) The Legislature finds that it is necessary and proper to require a separation between manufacturing interests, wholesale interests, and retail interests in the production and distribution of alcoholic beverages in order to prevent suppliers from dominating local markets through vertical integration and to prevent excessive sales of alcoholic beverages produced by overly aggressive marketing techniques. The Legislature further finds that the exception established by this section to the general prohibition against tied interests must be limited to its express terms so as not to undermine the general prohibition, and intends that this section be construed accordingly.

CHAPTER 576

An act to amend Sections 5001, 5001.5, and 5002 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION. 1. Section 5001 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

5001. The department may issue license plates for vehicles exempt from registration fees in the same series as plates issued for nonexempt vehicles. The plates may be issued for a one-year period and only upon the certification of the department that the issuance of the plates has been requested by the head of a criminal justice or a law enforcement agency of a city, county, or state or federal department, that the vehicle is assigned to persons responsible for investigating actual or suspected violations of the law or the supervision of persons liberated from a state prison or other institution under the jurisdiction of the Department of Corrections by parole or the supervision of persons liberated from an institution under the jurisdiction of the Department of the Youth Authority by parole, and is intended for use in the line of duty.

SEC. 2. Section 5001.5 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

5001.5. The director may enter into agreements or arrangements with motor vehicle departments in other states to provide for a reciprocal exchange of regular series license plates for the purposes of and under the conditions provided in Sections 5001 and 5003.

SEC. 3. Section 5002 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

5002. The department may issue regular series plates to the Department of General Services for use on motor vehicles maintained within motor vehicle pools of state-owned vehicles when the vehicles are used for the purposes set forth in Section 5001, except that the Department of General Services shall not assign, dispatch, or otherwise make any of those vehicles available for use by any agency of the state except upon the certification of the department.

CHAPTER 577

An act to amend Section 31595 of the Government Code, relating to the County Employees Retirement Law of 1937.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 31595 of the Government Code is amended to read:

31595. All funds received by the county treasurer not required for current disbursements shall be invested only in:

(a) Securities which are legal for savings bank investments in the state or which have been certified as legal investments for savings banks pursuant to Division 10 of the Water Code, or any bonds which, pursuant to the statutes or laws providing for the issuance of such bonds are entitled to the same force or value or use as bonds issued by any municipality, or any bonds issued pursuant to those acts, statutes or laws of this state wherein such law specifically states by reference or otherwise that such bonds shall be legal investments for either savings banks, insurance companies, all trust funds, state school funds and any funds which may be invested in bonds of cities, counties, cities and counties, school districts, or municipalities in the state, or any bonds which have been investigated and approved by a commission or board now or hereafter authorized by law to conduct such investigation and give such approval and by authority of which said bonds are declared to be legal investments for insurers.

(b) Deposits at interest in any state or national bank in accordance with law authorizing and controlling the deposit of public funds in banks.

(c) Certificates and shares of a building and loan association or a federal savings and loan association if the certificates or shares are insured as defined in Title IV of the National Housing Act.

(d) Registered warrants of any political subdivision of this state.

(e) Real property or improvements constructed or to be constructed on real property when such real property or such improvements are acquired for sale or lease to a county of this state and subject to the limitations of this article, except as provided by Section 31595.6.

(f) Deeds of trust and mortgages. Not to exceed 25 percent of all funds invested may be invested pursuant to this subdivision. Such investment may be made by the board with the approval of the board of supervisors of said county.

(g) Real property or improvements constructed or to be constructed on real property when such real property or such improvements are acquired for sale or lease to a county board of education to whom the provisions of Chapter 2 (commencing at Section 20400), Division 15 of the Education Code have become applicable and to whom the board of supervisors has transferred the duty and function of providing housing for all the services of the county superintendent of schools as authorized by Section 671 of the Education Code and subject to the limitations of this article.

(h) Insurance contracts of life insurers admitted to do business in California. As used in this subdivision, "insurance contracts" include, but are not limited to, insurance policies, annuity contracts, and other contracts and agreements supplemental thereto which may provide for participation in one or more commingled accounts of a life insurance company, including its separate accounts.

CHAPTER 578

An act to amend Section 547 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to domestic violence.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 547 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

547. The court may issue upon notice and a hearing, any of the following orders:

(a) Any of the orders set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 4359 of the Civil Code, or in the case of a nonmarital relationship between the plaintiff and the defendant, any of the orders set forth in paragraphs (2), (3), (5) and (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 4359 of the Civil Code and where there is a minor child of the plaintiff and the defendant an order determining the temporary custody of the child.

(b) Where there exists a presumption that the defendant is the natural father of any minor child, pursuant to Section 7004 of the Civil Code, and the child is in the custody of the plaintiff, the court may order a party to pay any amount necessary for the support and maintenance of the child if such an order would otherwise be authorized in an action brought pursuant to Part 7 of Division 4 (commencing with Section 7000) of the Civil Code. However, any order pursuant to this subdivision shall be without prejudice in any such action.

(c) An order that restitution be paid, (1) to the family or household member for loss of earnings and out-of-pocket expenses, including, but not limited to, expenses for medical care, psychological care, and temporary housing, incurred as a direct result of the abuse or any actual physical injuries sustained therefrom; (2) to any individual or agency for the reasonable value of any services provided to a family or household member as a direct result of the abuse, including, but not limited to, medical care, housing, living expenses, advocacy (including counseling and referral services), child care, and transportation; or (3) by plaintiff for out-of-pocket expenses incurred by a party as a result of any order issued ex parte which is found by the court to have been issued upon facts shown at a noticed hearing to be insufficient to support the order.

(d) An order requiring any party to participate in counseling where the parties so stipulate or where it is shown that the parties intend to continue to reside in the same household or have continued to reside in the same household after previous instances of domestic violence.

(e) An order for the payment of attorneys' fees and costs of the prevailing party.

CHAPTER 579

An act to amend Section 10178 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10178 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10178. No admitted insurer, union trust fund which administers health, medical, or surgical insurance, or employer which has an insurance company administering its health services program, shall deny, for the reason that the insured incurred no expense, a claim for hospital, medical or surgical services rendered by a nongovernmental charitable research hospital in this state which makes no charge for its services in the absence of insurance. No expense-incurred, group hospital, medical or surgical policy or certificate or union trust fund which administers health, medical, or surgical insurance, or employer which has an insurance company administering its health services program, shall except, limit or reduce benefits for services rendered by a nongovernmental charitable research hospital because it does not charge for its services in the absence of insurance. No expense-incurred individual hospital, medical or surgical policy or certificate or union trust fund which administers health, medical, or surgical insurance, or employer which has an insurance company administering its health services program, shall except, limit, or reduce benefits for services rendered by a nongovernmental charitable research hospital because it does not charge for its services in the absence of insurance.

This section shall apply to every group policy or certificate of expense-incurred hospital, medical, or surgical insurance covering or delivered to a covered individual in this state, notwithstanding the situs of the group master policy pursuant to which the coverage is provided.

As used in this section, charitable research hospital means a hospital that meets all the following criteria:

(1) Is internationally recognized as devoting itself primarily to medical research.

(2) Expends not less than 10 percent of its operating budget in each fiscal year exclusively on medical research activities which are not directly related to the provision of services to patients.

(3) Derives not less than one-third of its gross revenues in each fiscal year from contributions, donations, grants, gifts, or other gratuitous forms from individuals, groups, persons, or entities unrelated to the hospital. Contributions, donations, grants, gifts or other gratuitous sources of revenue received as compensation for medical services provided patients shall not be considered for purposes of this subdivision.

(4) Accepts patients without regard to the patient's ability to pay for medical services.

(5) Not less than two-thirds of the patients admitted have a primary diagnosis or suspected disease or condition directly related to the specific area or areas in which the hospital conducts research. Patients admitted because of an emergent life-threatening condition who could not be safely transported to another hospital shall not be considered as patients for purposes of this section.

CHAPTER 580

An act to amend Section 14523 of the Government Code, relating to transportation.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14523 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14523. The commission shall prepare an independent evaluation of the department's budget regarding the adequacy of funding levels and the relative needs of program categories as defined in Section 167 of the Streets and Highways Code and submit its recommendations to the Legislature not later than March 1 of each year. The report shall reflect the commission's judgment regarding the overall funding levels for each program category and shall not duplicate the item by item analysis conducted by the Legislative Analyst.

The evaluation and recommendations of the commission shall include recommended adjustments of the motor vehicle fuel tax rates and commercial vehicle weight fees necessary to fund the state highway programs for the maintenance, rehabilitation, reconstruction, and operational improvements of the existing state highway system.

CHAPTER 581

An act to amend, repeal, and add Section 10500 to the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10500 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

10500. Every peace officer, upon receiving a report based on reliable information that any vehicle has been stolen, taken, or driven in violation of Section 10851, Section 487 of the Penal Code, or subdivision (b) of Section 499 of the Penal Code, or that license plates for any vehicle have been lost or stolen, shall, immediately after receiving that information, report the information to the Department of Justice Stolen Vehicle System. An officer, upon recovery of any vehicle which has been previously reported as stolen, taken, or driven in violation of Section 10851, Section 489 of the Penal Code, or subdivision (b) of Section 499 of the Penal Code, or of the recovery of plates which have been previously reported as lost or stolen, shall immediately report the fact of the recovery to the Department of Justice Stolen Vehicle System. At the same time, the recovering officer shall advise the Department of Justice Stolen Vehicle System and the original reporting police agency of the location and condition of the vehicle or license plates recovered. The original reporting police agency, upon receipt of the information from the recovering officer, shall within 48 hours, excluding weekends and holidays, notify the victim of the location and condition of the vehicle recovered.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1989, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 10500 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

10500. Every peace officer, upon receiving a report based on reliable information that any vehicle registered under this code has been stolen, taken, or driven in violation of Section 10851, or that license plates for any vehicle have been lost or stolen, shall, immediately after receiving that information, report the information to the Department of Justice. An officer, upon receiving information of the recovery of any vehicle which has been previously reported as stolen, taken, or driven in violation of Section 10851, or of the recovery of plates which have been previously reported as lost or stolen, shall immediately report the fact of the recovery to the Department of Justice. At the same time, the recovering officer shall advise the Department of Justice and the original reporting police agency of the location and condition of the vehicle or license plates recovered.

This section shall become operative January 1, 1989.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act for the purpose of making reimbursement pursuant to these sections. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of that code.

CHAPTER 582

An act to amend and repeal Sections 9853, 9855, 9860, 9867, and 9901 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vessels, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9853 of the Vehicle Code, as amended by Section 1 of Chapter 881 of the Statutes of 1980, is amended to read:

9853. The owner of each vessel requiring numbering by this state shall file an initial application for a number with the department or with an agent authorized by the department on forms approved by the department. Such forms shall be prepared in cooperation with the Department of Boating and Waterways. The application shall contain the true name and address of the owner and of the legal owner, if any, and the hull identification number of the vessel as may be required by the department. The application shall be signed by the owner of the vessel and shall be accompanied by a fee of nine dollars ($9).

SEC. 2. Section 9853 of the Vehicle Code, as added by Section 1.5 of Chapter 881 of the Statutes of 1980, is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 9855 of the Vehicle Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 881 of the Statutes of 1980, is amended to read:

9855. If the ownership of an undocumented vessel changes, the existing certificate of ownership and a new application form accompanied by a fee of eight dollars ($8) shall be filed with the department and a new certificate of ownership and a new certificate of number shall be issued in the same manner as provided for in the initial issuance of number and the number shall be reassigned to the new owner.

SEC. 4. Section 9855 of the Vehicle Code, as added by Section 2.5 of Chapter 881 of the Statutes of 1980, is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 9860 of the Vehicle Code, as amended by Section 3 of Chapter 881 of the Statutes of 1980, is amended to read:

9860. Certificates of number shall be renewed between January 1 and the first Friday of February every year by presentation of the certificate of number last issued for the vessel or by presentation of a potential registration card issued by the department. The fee for renewal shall be five dollars ($5) per year and shall accompany the request for such renewal.

SEC. 6. Section 9860 of the Vehicle Code, as added by Section 3.5 of Chapter 881 of the Statutes of 1980, is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 9867 of the Vehicle Code, as amended by Section 5 of Chapter 881 of the Statutes of 1980, is amended to read:

9867. A fee of five dollars ($5) shall be charged for a duplicate of certificate of number, certificate of ownership, or current year registration stickers.

SEC. 8. Section 9867 of the Vehicle Code, as added by Section 5.5 of Chapter 881 of the Statutes of 1980, is repealed.

SEC. 9. Section 9901 of the Vehicle Code, as amended by Section 6 of Chapter 881 of the Statutes of 1980, is amended to read:

9901. Whenever any person has received as transferee a properly endorsed certificate of ownership and the certificate of number of the vessel described in the certificates, he shall within 10 days thereafter file the certificates accompanied by a fee of eight dollars ($8) with the department, and thereby make application for a certificate of ownership and certificate of number.

SEC. 10. Section 9901 of the Vehicle Code, as added by Section 6.5 of Chapter 881 of the Statutes of 1980, is repealed.

SEC. 11. It is the intent of the Legislature that money derived from increased vessel registration fees be available and used as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 9863 of the Vehicle Code exclusively for boating safety and enforcement programs, and that such programs shall be self-sufficient through such fees.

CHAPTER 583

An act to amend Section 800 of the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 800 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

800. (a) An indictment for any felony, except murder, the embezzlement of public money, or a violation of Section 209 of the Penal Code, and except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c), shall be found, or an arrest warrant issued by the municipal or, where appropriate, the justice court within three years after its commission.

(b) An indictment for a violation of Section 261, 264.1, 288, or 289 of, or subdivision (c), (d), or (f) of Section 286, or subdivision (c), (d), or (f) of Section 288a, or for the acceptance of a bribe by a public official or a public employee, a felony, shall be found, or an arrest warrant issued by the municipal or, where appropriate, the justice court within six years after its commission.

(c) An indictment for grand theft, felony welfare fraud in violation of Section 11483 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, felony Medi-Cal fraud in violation of Section 14107 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, forgery, voluntary manslaughter, or involuntary manslaughter, a violation of Section 72, 118, 118a, 132 or 134, of the Penal Code, Section 25540 or 25541 of the Corporations Code, or Section 1090 or 27443 of the Government Code, shall be found, or an arrest warrant issued by the municipal or, where appropriate, the justice court within three years after its discovery.

SEC. 2. Section 800 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

800. (a) An indictment for any felony, except murder, the embezzlement of public money, or a violation of Section 209 of the Penal Code, and except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c), shall be found, an information filed, or case certified to the superior court within three years after its commission.

(b) An indictment for a violation of Section 261, 264.1, 288, or 289 of, or subdivision (c), (d), or (f) of Section 286, or subdivision (c), (d), or (f) of Section 288a, or for the acceptance of a bribe by a public official or a public employee, a felony, shall be found, an information filed, or case certified to the superior court within six years after its commission.

(c) An indictment for grand theft, felony welfare fraud in violation of Section 11483 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, felony Medi-Cal fraud in violation of Section 14107 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, forgery, voluntary manslaughter, or involuntary manslaughter, a violation of Section 72, 118, 118a, 132 or 134, of the Penal Code, Section 25540 or 25541 of the Corporations Code, or Section 1090 or 27443 of the Government Code, shall be found, an information filed, or case certified to the superior court within three years after its discovery.

SEC. 3. Section 800 of the Penal Code as amended by Section 1 of this act shall remain in effect only until a decision of a court of appeal or of the California Supreme Court becomes final, or an amendment to the California Constitution takes effect, whichever occurs first, which decision or amendment provides that a person charged by indictment with a felony is not entitled to a preliminary hearing, and as of such date Section 800 as amended by Section 1 of this act shall be repealed, and Section 800 shall be added to the Penal Code in the form set forth in Section 2 of this act.

As used in this section, a decision of a court of appeal is final if not reviewed by the California Supreme Court or United States Supreme Court, and a decision of the California Supreme Court is final if not reviewed by the United States Supreme Court.

CHAPTER 584

An act to add Sections 26667 and 74007 to the Government Code, relating to courts.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 26667 is added to the Government Code, to read:

26667. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Board of Supervisors of Orange County shall have the authority to consolidate duplicate services provided by the sheriff's department and the marshal's office within that county in the manner set forth in this section.

(a) In the event the board of supervisors desire to effect such a consolidation it shall create a sheriff/marshal consolidation advisory committee composed of two members of the board of supervisors, appointed by that board; the presiding judge of the Orange County Superior Court or his or her designee, who shall be a judge of the superior court; a person selected by a majority of the judges of the municipal courts in that county, who shall be a municipal court judge; and a fifth person whose selection shall be concurred in by unanimous vote of the other members.

(b) The advisory committee shall prepare a plan for the consolidation of the above services. The plan shall be approved by affirmative vote of at least three of the members of the committee.

(c) If so approved, the plan shall be forwarded to the judges of the superior and municipal courts for ratification. The plan may not be implemented unless ratified by a majority of the trial court judges of the county and by the Legislature. The plan shall be deemed ratified by the Legislature if this section is not repealed by legislation taking effect within 90 legislative days following ratification by the trial court judges of the county.

SEC. 2. Section 74007 is added to the Government Code, to read:

74007. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Board of Supervisors of Orange County shall have the authority to consolidate duplicate services provided by the sheriff's department and the marshal's office within that county pursuant to Section 26667.

SEC. 3. The provisions of this act are necessary because Orange County is the only county where the judges of the municipal court and judges of the superior court and the board of supervisors, the sheriff, the marshal, and the county clerk have all accepted the terms of consolidation of the offices of marshal and sheriff set forth in this act. It is hereby declared that a general law cannot be made applicable because Orange County is the only county where all the parties of interest have agreed to such consolidation, and the county needs legislative authorization to implement consolidation of these offices. Accordingly, it is necessary that this special act be adopted.

CHAPTER 585

An act to amend Section 7152 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to contractors, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7152 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7152. "Home improvement salesman" is a person employed by a contractor licensed under this chapter, to solicit, sell, negotiate or execute home improvement contracts under which home improvements may be performed by the contractor, or a swimming pool contract subject to Section 7167. "Home improvement salesman" is also a person who solicits, sells, negotiates or executes contracts for the sale, installation, or furnishing of home improvement goods or services. Officers of corporations licensed pursuant to this chapter, persons who qualify under Section 7068.1, sales persons whose sales are all made pursuant to prior negotiations between the parties at a business establishment at a fixed location where goods or services are offered or exhibited for sale, sales persons whose sales are all made pursuant to negotiations between the parties initiated by the prospective buyer at or to such business establishment, and bona fide service repairmen who are in the employ of a licensed contractor and who are responding to a buyer-initiated service, repair, or emergency repair call shall not be considered home improvement salesmen.

SEC. 2. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 586

An act to add Section 14838.4 to the Government Code, relating to state government.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14838.4 is added to the Government Code, to read:

14838.4. No small business preference shall be allowed if allowing the small business preference would result in a computed bid of the preference recipient which would exceed the amount of funds appropriated by the Legislature for the construction project, plus any augmentation that may be made by the State Public Works Board pursuant to authority granted in the annual Budget Act.

CHAPTER 587

An act to amend Section 1820 of the Military and Veterans Code, relating to veterans.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1820 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

1820. Any person who willfully wears or uses the badge, lapel button, rosette, or other recognized and estimable insignia of the American Legion, Disabled American Veterans, or Veterans of Foreign Wars, unless he is entitled to wear or use it under the rules and regulations and with the express permission of the American Legion, Disabled American Veterans, or Veterans of Foreign Wars, is guilty of a misdemeanor and is punishable for a first conviction by imprisonment for a term not to exceed 30 days in the county jail, or a fine not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250), except that if the person has been previously convicted of a violation of this section, that conviction shall be specified in the accusation and if found to be true or admitted by the person, a second or succeeding violation of this section is punishable by imprisonment not to exceed six months in the county jail, or a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500), or both such fine and imprisonment.

Nothing in this section shall preclude prosecution for violation of any other law.

SEC. 3. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 588

An act to add and repeal Section 21655.6 to the Vehicle Code, relating to exclusive highway lanes, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 21655.6 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

21655.6. Whenever the Department of Transportation authorizes or permits exclusive or preferential use of highway lanes for high-occupancy vehicles on any highway located within the territory of a regional transportation planning agency or the local transportation commission, the department shall obtain the approval of the regional transportation planning agency or the local transportation commission prior to establishing the exclusive or preferential use of the highway lanes.

This section shall remain in effect only until July 1, 1984, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before July 1, 1984, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to prevent the expenditure of state funds for unnecessary exclusive or preferential highway lanes projects which would not have been approved by the affected regional transportation planning agency or local transportation commission, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 589

An act to add Section 7254 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to mental health, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7254 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

7254. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the State Department of Mental Health shall have the authority to require that patients committed to a state mental health facility pursuant to Section 1026 of, and Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 1367) of Title 10 of Part 2 of the Penal Code, and Sections 6316 and 6321 of this code shall wear identifiable clothing in a secured area of the facility.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to protect the public health and safety in light of recent escapes at Patton State Hospital and other state health facilities, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 590

An act to amend Section 51241 of the Education Code, relating to curriculum.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 51241 of the Education Code is amended to read:

51241. (a) The governing board of any school district or the office of the county superintendent of any county may grant temporary exemption to a pupil from courses in physical education, if the pupil is one of the following:

(1) Ill or injured and a modified program to meet the needs of the pupil cannot be provided.

(2) Enrolled for one-half, or less, of the work normally required of full-time pupils.

(b) The governing board of any school district or the office of the county superintendent of any county may grant permanent exemption from courses in physical education if the pupil complies with any one of the following:

(1) Has completed the 10th grade.

(2) Is 16 years of age or older and has been enrolled in the 10th grade for one academic year or longer.

(3) Is enrolled as a postgraduate pupil.

(4) Is enrolled in a juvenile home, ranch, camp, or forestry camp school where pupils are scheduled for recreation and exercise pursuant to the requirements of Section 4346 of Title XV of the California Administrative Code.

(c) No pupil exempted under paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (b) shall be permitted to attend fewer total hours of courses and classes if the pupil elects not to enroll in a physical education course than he or she would have attended if he or she had elected to enroll in a physical education course.

SEC. 2. Section 51241 of the Education Code is amended to read:

51241. (a) The governing board of any school district or the office of the county superintendent of schools of any county may grant temporary exemption to a pupil from courses in physical education, if the pupil is one of the following:

(1) Ill or injured and a modified program to meet the needs of the pupil cannot be provided.

(2) Enrolled for one-half, or less, of the work normally required of full-time pupils.

(b) The governing board of any school district or the office of the county superintendent of schools of any county may, with the consent of a pupil, grant the pupil exemption from courses in physical education for two years any time during grades 10 to 12, inclusive.

(c) The governing board of any school district or the office of the county superintendent of any county may grant permanent exemption from courses in physical education if the pupil complies with any one of the following:

(1) Is 16 years of age or older and has been enrolled in the 10th grade for one academic year or longer.

(2) Is enrolled as a postgraduate pupil.

(3) Is enrolled in a juvenile home, ranch, camp, or forestry camp school where pupils are scheduled for recreation and exercise pursuant to the requirements of Section 4346 of Title XV of the California Administrative Code.

(d) No pupil exempted under subdivision (b) or paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) shall be permitted to attend fewer total hours of courses and classes if he or she elects not to enroll in a physical education course than he or she would have attended if he or she had elected to enroll in a physical education course.

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Senate Bill 2064 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1983, both bills amend Section 51241 of the Education Code, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill 2064, that the amendments to Section 51241 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 51241 in the form set forth in Section 2 of this act. Therefore, Section 2 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Senate Bill 2064 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1983, both amend Section 51241, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill 2064, in which case Section 1 of this act shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 591

An act to amend Sections 1155, 1156, and 1158 of the Civil Code, and to amend Section 186 of the Probate Code, relating to gifts to minors.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982 Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1155 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1155. In this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) An "adult" is a person who has attained the age of 18 years.

(b) A "bank" is any bank authorized to do business in this state.

(c) A "broker" is a person lawfully engaged in the business of effecting transactions in securities for the account of others. The term includes a bank which effects such transactions. The term also includes a person lawfully engaged in buying and selling securities for his own account, through a broker or otherwise, as a part of a regular business.

(d) "Court" means the superior court.

(e) "The custodial property" includes:

(1) All securities, money, life or endowment insurance policies, annuity contracts, real estate, tangible personal property, or any other type of property under the supervision of the same custodian for the same minor as a consequence of a gift or gifts made to the minor in a manner prescribed in this article.

(2) The income from the custodial property; and

(3) The proceeds, immediate and remote, from the sale, exchange, conversion, investment, reinvestment, surrender, or other disposition of such securities, money, life or endowment insurance policies, annuity contracts, real estate, tangible personal property, other property, or income.

(f) A "custodian" is a person so designated in a manner prescribed in this article. The term includes a successor custodian.

(g) A "financial institution" is a bank, a federal savings and loan association, a savings institution chartered and supervised as a savings and loan or similar institution under federal law or the laws of a state or a federal credit union or a credit union chartered and supervised under the laws of a state or an industrial loan company licensed and supervised under the laws of the State of California. An "insured financial institution" is one, where deposits, including a savings, share, certificate or deposit account, in which are, in whole or in part, insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, or in the case of a California industrial loan company, by membership in Thrift Guaranty Corporation.

(h) A "guardian" of a minor means the general guardian, guardian, tutor, or curator of his property or estate appointed or qualified by a court of this state or another state.

(i) An "issuer" is a person who places or authorizes the placing of his name on a security (other than as a transfer agent) to evidence that it represents a share, participation or other interest in his property or in an enterprise or to evidence his duty or undertaking to perform an obligation evidenced by the security, or who becomes responsible for or in place of any such person.

(j) A "legal representative" of a person is his executor or the administrator, general guardian, guardian, committee, conservator, tutor or curator of his property or estate.

(k) "Life or endowment insurance policies and annuity contracts," means only life or endowment insurance policies and annuity contracts on the life of a minor or a member of the minor's family as defined in subdivision (l) of this section.

(l) A "member" of a "minor's family" means any of the minor's parents, grandparents, brothers, sisters, uncles and aunts, whether of the whole blood or the half blood, or by or through legal adoption.

(m) A "minor" is a person who has not attained the age of 18 years.

(n) A "savings and loan association" includes a federal savings and loan association, or a state-chartered savings and loan association or building and loan association doing business in this state; an "insured savings and loan association" is a savings and loan association which is an "insured institution" as defined in Title IV of the National Housing Act; and an "account in an insured savings and loan association" has the same meaning as in Section 1406 of the Probate Code.

(o) A "security" includes any note, stock, treasury stock, bond, debenture, evidence of indebtedness, interest in a partnership or limited partnership, account in an insured savings and loan association, certificate of interest or participation in an oil, gas or mining title or lease or in payments out of production under such a title or lease, collateral trust certificate, transferable share, voting trust certificate or, in general, any interest or instrument commonly known as a security, or any certificate of interest or participation in, any temporary or interim certificate, receipt or certificate of deposit for, or any warrant or right to subscribe to or purchase, any of the foregoing. The term does not include a security of which the donor is the issuer. A security is in "registered form" when it specifies a person entitled to it or to the rights it evidences and its transfer may be registered upon books maintained for that purpose by or on behalf of the issuer.

(p) A "transfer agent" is a person who acts as authenticating trustee, transfer agent, registrar or other agent for an issuer in the registration of transfers of its securities or in the issue of new securities or in the cancellation of surrendered securities.

(q) A "trust company" means a trust company as defined by Sections 107 and 109 of the Financial Code.

SEC. 1.5. Section 1155 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1155. In this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) An "adult" is a person who has attained the age of 18 years.

(b) A "bank" is any bank authorized to do business in this state.

(c) A "broker" is a person lawfully engaged in the business of effecting transactions in securities for the account of others. The term includes a bank which effects such transactions. The term also includes a person lawfully engaged in buying and selling securities for his own account, through a broker or otherwise, as a part of a regular business.

(d) "Court" means the superior court.

(e) "The custodial property" includes:

(1) All securities, money, life or endowment insurance policies, annuity contracts, real estate, tangible personal property, or any other type of property under the supervision of the same custodian for the same minor as a consequence of a gift or gifts made to the minor in a manner prescribed in this article.

(2) The income from the custodial property; and

(3) The proceeds, immediate and remote, from the sale, exchange, conversion, investment, reinvestment, surrender, or other disposition of such securities, money, life or endowment insurance policies, annuity contracts, real estate, tangible personal property, other property, or income.

(f) A "custodian" is a person so designated in a manner prescribed in this article. The term includes a successor custodian.

(g) A "financial institution" is a bank, a federal savings and loan association, a savings institution chartered and supervised as a savings and loan or similar institution under federal law or the laws of a state or a federal credit union or a credit union chartered and supervised under the laws of a state or an industrial loan company, licensed and supervised under the loans of the State of California. An "insured financial institution" is one, where deposits, including a savings, share, certificate or deposit account, in which are, in whole or in part, insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, or in the case of a California industrial loan company, by membership in Thrift Guaranty Corporation, or by the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund or, in the case of a state-licensed credit union not participating in the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund, by participation in the California Credit Union Share Guaranty Corporation or as provided in Section 14858 of the Financial Code.

(h) A "guardian" of a minor means the general guardian, guardian, tutor, or curator of his property or estate appointed or qualified by a court of this state or another state.

(i) An "issuer" is a person who places or authorizes the placing of his name on a security (other than as a transfer agent) to evidence that it represents a share, participation or other interest in his property or in an enterprise or to evidence his duty or undertaking to perform an obligation evidenced by the security, or who becomes responsible for or in place of any such person.

(j) A "legal representative" of a person is his executor or the administrator, general guardian, guardian, committee, conservator, tutor or curator of his property or estate.

(k) "Life or endowment insurance policies and annuity contracts," means only life or endowment insurance policies and annuity contracts on the life of a minor or a member of the minor's family as defined in subdivision (l) of this section.

(l) A "member" of a "minor's family" means any of the minor's parents, grandparents, brothers, sisters, uncles and aunts, whether of the whole blood or the half blood, or by or through legal adoption.

(m) A "minor" is a person who has not attained the age of 18 years.

(n) A "savings and loan association" includes a federal savings and loan association, or a state-chartered savings and loan association or building and loan association doing business in this state; an "insured savings and loan association" is a savings and loan association which is an "insured institution" as defined in Title IV of the National Housing Act; and an "account in an insured savings and loan association" has the same meaning as in Section 1406 of the Probate Code.

(o) A "security" includes any note, stock, treasury stock, bond, debenture, evidence of indebtedness, interest in a partnership or limited partnership, account in an insured savings and loan association, certificate of interest or participation in an oil, gas or mining title or lease or in payments out of production under such a title or lease, collateral trust certificate, transferable share, voting trust certificate or, in general, any interest or instrument commonly known as a security, or any certificate of interest or participation in, any temporary or interim certificate, receipt or certificate of deposit for, or any warrant or right to subscribe to or purchase, any of the foregoing. The term does not include a security of which the donor is the issuer. A security is in "registered form" when it specifies a person entitled to it or to the rights it evidences and its transfer may be registered upon books maintained for that purpose by or on behalf of the issuer.

(p) A "transfer agent" is a person who acts as authenticating trustee, transfer agent, registrar or other agent for an issuer in the registration of transfers of its securities or in the issue of new securities or in the cancellation of surrendered securities.

(q) A "trust company" means a trust company as defined by Sections 107 and 109 of the Financial Code.

SEC. 2. Section 1156 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1156. (a) An adult person may, during his lifetime, make a gift of a security, money, a life or endowment insurance policy, an annuity contract, real estate, tangible personal property, or any other property to a person who is a minor on the date of the gift:

(1) If the subject of the gift is a security in registered form, by registering it in the name of the donor, another adult person, a guardian of the minor or a trust company, followed, in substance, by the words:

"as custodian for _____
(Name of minor)
under the California Uniform Gifts to Minors Act.";

(2) If the subject of the gift is a security not in registered form, by delivering it to an adult person, other than the donor, a guardian of the minor or to a trust company, accompanied by a statement of gift in the following form, in substance, signed by the donor and the person designated as custodian:

"Gift Under the California Uniform Gifts to Minors Act

I, _____ , (Name of donor) hereby deliver to _____ (Name of custodian)
as custodian for _____
(Name of minor)
under the California Uniform Gifts to Minors Act, the following security(ies): (insert an appropriate description of the security or securities delivered sufficient to identify it or them)

(Signature of donor)

hereby acknowledges receipt of the above-described security(ies) as custodian for the above minor under the California Uniform Gifts to Minors Act.

Dated: _____ _____
(Signature of custodian)

(3) If the subject of the gift is money, by paying or delivering it to a broker or a financial institution, for credit to an account in the name of the donor, another adult person, a guardian of the minor, or a bank with trust powers, followed, in substance, by the words:

"as custodian for _____
(Name of minor)
under the California Uniform Gifts to Minors Act."

(4) If the subject of the gift is a life or endowment insurance policy or an annuity contract, such policy or contract shall be assigned to the donor, another adult person, or a bank with trust powers, followed, in substance, by the words:
"as custodian for _____
(Name of minor)
under the California Uniform Gifts to Minors Act."

(5) If the subject of the gift is an interest in real estate, by executing and delivering in the appropriate manner a deed, assignment, or similar instrument to the donor or to another adult, or guardian of the minor, or a trust company, followed, in substance, by the words:
"as custodian for _____
(Name of minor)
under the California Uniform Gifts to Minors Act.

(6) If the subject of the gift is an interest in any property not described in paragraphs (1)—(5), above, inclusive, by causing the ownership of the property to be transferred by any written document to the donor or to another adult, a guardian of the minor, or a trust company, followed, in substance, by words:
" as custodian for_____
(Name of minor)
under the California Uniform Gifts to Minors Act.

(b) Any gift made in a manner prescribed in subdivision (a) may be made to only one minor and only one person may be the custodian.

(c) A donor who makes a gift to a minor in a manner prescribed in subdivision (a) shall promptly do all things within his power to put the subject of the gift in the possession and control of the custodian, but neither the donor's failure to comply with this subdivision, nor his designation of an ineligible person as custodian, nor renunciation by the person designated as custodian affects the consummation of the gift.

SEC. 3. Section 1158 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1158. (a) The custodian shall collect, hold, manage, invest and reinvest the custodial property.

(b) The custodian shall pay over to the minor for expenditure by him, or expend for the minor's benefit, so much of or all the custodial property as the custodian deems advisable for the support, maintenance, education, and benefit of the minor in the manner, at the time or times, and to the extent that the custodian in his discretion deems suitable and proper, with or without court order, with or without regard to the duty of himself or of any other person to support the minor or his ability to do so, and with or without regard to any other income or property of the minor which may be applicable or available for any such purpose.

(c) The court, on the petition of a parent or guardian of the minor or of the minor, if he has attained the age of 14 years, may order the custodian to pay over to the minor for expenditure by the minor or to expend so much of or all the custodial property as is necessary for the minor's support, maintenance, or education.

(d) To the extent that the custodial property is not so expended, the custodian shall deliver, convey, or pay it over, with an accounting, to the minor on his attaining the age of 18 years or, if the minor dies before attaining the age of 18 years, he shall thereupon deliver or pay it over, with an accounting, to the estate of the minor.

(e) The custodian, notwithstanding statutes restricting investments by fiduciaries, shall invest and reinvest the custodial property as would a prudent man of discretion and intelligence who is seeking a reasonable income and the preservation of his capital, except that he may, in his discretion and without liability to the minor or his estate, retain a security given to the minor in a manner prescribed in this article.

(f) The custodian may sell, exchange, convert, surrender or otherwise dispose of custodial property in the manner, at the time or times, for the price or prices and upon the terms he deems advisable. He may vote in person or by general or limited proxy a security which is custodial property. He may consent, directly or through a committee or other agent, to the reorganization, consolidation, merger, dissolution, or liquidation of an issuer, a security of which is custodial property, and to the sale, lease, pledge or mortgage of any property by or to such an issuer, and to any other action by such an issuer. He may execute and deliver any and all instruments in writing which he deems advisable to carry out any of his powers as custodian. With respect to any interest in real estate, the custodian may perform the same acts that any unmarried adult could perform including, but not limited to, the power to buy, sell, assign, transfer, convey, dedicate, partition, exchange, mortgage, create or redeem ground rents, deed, grant or exercise options, effect and keep in force fire, rent, liability, casualty, and other insurance; make, execute, acknowledge, and deliver deeds, conveyances, mortgages, releases, leases, including leases for 99 years renewable forever, and leases extending beyond the minority of the minor; collect rents; improve, subdivide, or develop property; construct, alter, demolish, or repair property; settle boundary lines and easements; pay taxes; and protect assessments. With respect to any interest in real property, a person who in good faith either assists a custodian or deals with the custodian for value is protected as if the custodian properly exercised his or her power. The fact that a person is known to be acting in his or her capacity as custodian does not impose any obligation on other parties to inquire into the existence of the custodian's power or the propriety of its exercise. If the exercise of power is improper, the custodian is liable to interested parties for their damage or loss from the breach of fiduciary duty as the trustee of an express trust.

(g) The custodian shall register each security which is custodial property and in registered form in the name of the custodian, followed, in substance, by the words:

"As custodian for _____
(Name of minor)

under the California Uniform Gifts to Minors Act." The custodian shall hold all money which is custodial property in an account with a broker or an insured financial institution in the name of the custodian, followed, in substance, by the words:

"As custodian for _____
(Name of minor)

under the California Uniform Gifts to Minors Act." The custodian shall keep all other custodial property separate and distinct from his own property in a manner to identify it clearly as custodial property.

(h) The custodian shall keep records of all transactions with respect to the custodial property and make them available for inspection at reasonable intervals by a parent or legal representative of the minor or by the minor, if he has attained the age of 14 years.

(i) A custodian has and holds as powers in trust, with respect to the custodial property, in addition to the rights and powers provided in this article, all the rights and powers which a guardian has with respect to property not held as custodial property.

(j) If the subject of the gift is a life or endowment insurance policy or annuity contract, the custodian (1) in his capacity as custodian, has all the incidents of ownership in the policy or contract to the extent as if he were the owner, except that the designated beneficiary of any policy or contract on the life of the minor shall be the minor's estate and the designated beneficiary of any policy or contract on the life of a person other than the minor shall be the custodian as custodian for the minor for whom he is acting; and (2) may pay premiums on the policy or contract out of the custodial property.

SEC. 4. Section 186 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

186. A testator may bequeath securities, money, life or endowment policies, annuity contracts, real estate, tangible personal property, or any other type of property, as such terms are defined or used in the California Uniform Gifts to Minors Act (Article 4 (commencing with Section 1154) of Chapter 3 of Title 4 of Part 4 of Division 2 of the Civil Code), to a person who is a minor as provided in this chapter.

SEC. 5. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Assembly Bill 3359 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1983, both bills amend Section 1155 of the Civil Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill 3359, that the amendments to Section 1155 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 1155 in the form set forth in Section 1.5 of this act. Therefore, Section 1.5 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Assembly Bill 3359 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1983, both amend Section 1155, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill 3359, in which case Section 1 of this act shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 592

An act to amend Sections 22709 and 22719 of the Education Code, relating to the State Teachers' Retirement System.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982 Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22709 of the Education Code is amended to read:

22709. Service shall be computed by school years and not by calendar years, portions of years served being accumulated and counted as service. All of the service performed during any one school year in a position requiring membership in this system shall not count for more than one year.

In lieu of any other benefits provided by this part, any member who performed service prior to July 1, 1956, shall receive retirement benefits for that service at least equal to the benefits which he would have received for that service under the provisions of this part as they existed on June 30, 1956. The provisions of this paragraph do not apply to service which is credited in the San Francisco City and County Employees Retirement System.

SEC. 2. Section 22719 of the Education Code is amended to read:

22719. A member shall be credited at retirement for each day of accumulated and unused leave of absence for illness or injury for which full salary is allowed that the member was entitled to on the final day the member performed service for the school district or other employing agency by which the member was last employed in a position requiring membership in the system.

The number of years of service credit to be granted shall be determined by dividing the number of days of accumulated and unused leave of absence for illness or injury by the number of days of service required by the member's contract of employment during the final year of service in a position requiring membership in the system. In no event shall the divisor be less than 175.

When the member has made application for retirement under this part, the school district or other employing agency shall certify to the board, within 30 days following the effective date of the member's retirement, the number of days of accumulated and unused leave of absence for illness or injury that the employee is entitled to on the final day of employment. The board may assess a penalty on delinquent reports.

This section shall not be applicable to any person who became a member of the system on or after July 1, 1980, whether or not the person was ever a member prior to that date.

CHAPTER 593

An act to amend Sections 69017, 69022, 69081, and 69085 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to the California Pistachio Commission, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 69017 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

69017. "Handler" means any person who engages in the operation of selling, marketing, or distributing pistachios which he or she has produced or purchased or acquired from a producer, or which he or she is marketing on behalf of a producer, whether as owner, agent, employee, broker, or otherwise. It does not, however, include a retailer, except a retailer who purchases or acquires from, or handles on behalf of, any producer pistachios which were not previously subject to regulation by the commission.

SEC. 2. Section 69022 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

69022. (a) "Processor" means any person engaged, within this state, as a handler in the business of selling, marketing, or distributing pistachios, and employees thereof so engaged.

(b) For purposes of the collection of assessments, "processor" also means a person, business, or corporation which prepares for market pistachios he or she has produced or received from producers, and in so doing establishes the commodity's marketability. If the marketable pistachios are returned to the producer for handling, the processor shall collect from the producer the assessments provided for under this chapter, and shall handle these funds in accordance with Section 69085 and be subject to the requirements of Article 6 (commencing with Section 69081).

SEC. 3. Section 69081 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

69081. The commission shall, not later than September 1 of each year, establish the assessment for the following 12 months which shall not exceed 5 percent of the average price paid to producers, computed on a per pound basis or computed in any other manner determined by the commission to be reasonably equivalent to the per pound computation.

SEC. 4. Section 69085 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

69085. Assessments shall be upon the producer. The first handler of pistachios being assessed shall deduct the assessment from amounts paid by him or her to the producer, and shall be a trustee of the funds until they are paid to the commission at the time and in the manner prescribed by the commission. Processors, as provided for in subdivision (b) of Section 69022 shall collect the assessment from the producer, and shall be a trustee of the funds until they are paid to the commission in the same time and manner provided for a handler.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that this act may apply to the fiscal year of the California Pistachio Commission commencing September 1, 1982, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 594

An act to amend Section 12689 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to explosives.

[Approved by Governor August 24, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12689 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

12689. (a) It is unlawful for any person to sell, give, or deliver any dangerous fireworks to any person under 18 years of age.

(b) It is unlawful for any person who is a retailer to sell or transfer any safe and sane fireworks to a person who is under 16 years of age.

(c) It is unlawful for any person who is a retailer to sell or transfer to a person under the age of 18 any rocket, rocket propelled projectile launcher, or similar device containing any explosive or incendiary material whether or not the device is designed for emergency or distance signaling purposes. It is also unlawful for a minor to possess such a device unless he or she has the written permission of, or is accompanied by, his or her parent or guardian while it is in his or her possession.

SEC. 2. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 595

An act to add Sections 777, 5612.5, 11110, and 14409.2 to the Financial Code, relating to financial institutions.

[Approved by Governor August 25, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 777 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

777. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 1051, 1052, and 1054 of the Labor Code and Section 2947 of the Penal Code, a commercial bank licensed to do business in California under the laws of this state or of the United States, or officer or employee thereof, may deliver fingerprints taken of an applicant for employment to local, state, or federal law enforcement agencies for the purpose of obtaining information as to the existence and nature of a criminal record, if any, of the applicant relating to convictions, and to any arrest for which the applicant is released on bail or on his or her own recognizance pending trial, for the commission or attempted commission of a crime set forth in Section 115, 211, 337a, 459, 464, 470, 471, 472, 475, 475a, 476, 476a, 477, 480, 484, 484e, 484f, 484g, 484h, 484i, 487, 496, 502, 503, 504b, 506, 506a, 508, 532, 532a, or 648 of the Penal Code, or of a comparable crime committed in another state.

(b) The Department of Justice shall, pursuant to Section 11105 of the Penal Code, and a local agency may, pursuant to Section 13300 of the Penal Code, furnish to the officer of the bank responsible for the final decision regarding employment of the applicant, or to his or her designees having responsibilities for personnel or security decisions in the usual scope and course of their employment with the bank, summary criminal history information when requested pursuant to this section.

(c) No request shall be submitted without the written consent of the applicant.

SEC. 2. Section 5612.5 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

5612.5. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 1051, 1052, and 1054 of the Labor Code and Section 2947 of the Penal Code, a savings and loan association or officer or employee thereof may deliver fingerprints taken of an applicant for employment to local, state, or federal law enforcement agencies for the purpose of obtaining information as to the existence and nature of a criminal record, if any, of the applicant relating to convictions, and to any arrest for which the applicant is released on bail or on his or her own recognizance pending trial, for the commission or attempted commission of a crime set forth in Section 115, 211, 337a, 459, 464, 470, 471, 472, 475, 475a, 476, 476a, 477, 480, 484, 484e, 484f, 508, 532, 532a, or 648 of the Penal Code, or of a comparable crime committed in another state.

(b) The Department of Justice shall, pursuant to Section 11105 of the Penal Code, and a local agency may pursuant to Section 13300 of the Penal Code, furnish to the officer of the savings and loan association responsible for the final decision regarding employment of the applicant, or to his or her designees having responsibilities for personnel or security decisions in the usual scope and course of their employment with the savings and loan association, summary criminal history information when requested pursuant to this section.

(c) No request shall be submitted without the written consent of the applicant.

SEC. 3. Section 11110 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

11110. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 1051, 1052, and 1054 of the Labor Code and Section 2947 of the Penal Code, a federal savings and loan association officer or employee thereof may deliver fingerprints taken of an applicant for employment to local, state, or federal law enforcement agencies for the purpose of obtaining information as to the existence and nature of a criminal record, if any, of the applicant relating to convictions, and to any arrest for which the applicant is released on bail or on his or her own recognizance pending trial, for the commission or attempted commission of a crime set forth in Section 115, 211, 337a, 459, 464, 470, 471, 472, 475, 475a, 476, 476a, 477, 480, 484, 484e, 484f, 484g, 484h, 484i, 487, 497, 502, 503, 504b, 506, 506a, 508, 532, 532a, or 648 of the Penal Code, or of a comparable crime committed in another state.

(b) The Department of Justice shall pursuant to Section 11105 of the Penal Code, and a local agency may, pursuant to Section 13300 of the Penal Code, furnish to the officer of the savings and loan association responsible for the final decision regarding employment of the applicant, or to his or her designees having responsibilities for personnel or security decisions in the usual scope and course of their employment with the savings and loan association, summary criminal history information when requested pursuant to this section.

(c) No request shall be submitted without the written consent of the applicant.

SEC. 4. Section 14409.2 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

14409.2. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 1051, 1052, and 1054 of the Labor Code and Section 2947 of the Penal Code, any credit union or officer or employee thereof may deliver fingerprints taken of an applicant for employment by the credit union to local, state, or federal law enforcement agencies for the purpose of obtaining information as to the existence and nature of a criminal record, if any, of the applicant relating to convictions, and to any arrest for which the applicant is released on bail or on his or her own recognizance pending trial, for the commission or attempted commission of a crime set forth in Penal Code Section 115, 211, 337a, 459, 464, 470, 484f, 484g, 484h, 484i, 487, 496, 502, 503, 504b, 506, 506a, 508, 532, 532a, or 648, or of a comparable crime committed in another state.

(b) The Department of Justice shall, pursuant to Section 11105 of the Penal Code, and a local agency may, pursuant to Section 13300 of the Penal Code, furnish to the officer of the credit union responsible for the final decision regarding employment of the applicant, or to his or her designees having responsibilities for personnel or security decisions in the usual scope and course of their employment with the credit union, summary criminal history information when requested pursuant to this section.

(c) No request shall be submitted without the written consent of the applicant.

CHAPTER 596

An act to add Section 19641 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to blind persons, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 25, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19641 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

19641. The surviving spouse of a blind vendor operating a facility pursuant to this article shall have the right after the death of the blind vendor to operate the facility operated by the blind vendor immediately prior to his or her death if the spouse meets all of the following conditions:

(a) The spouse is blind as that term is defined for purposes of this article.

(b) The spouse has been certified as qualified to operate a vending facility prior to the death of the blind vendor, even if the spouse is not currently certified as qualified to operate a vending facility.

(c) The spouse, within a period of one year after the death of the blind vendor, becomes recertified as qualified to operate a vending facility by passing a certification examination with a score of at least 70 percent.

(d) The spouse has assisted the blind vendor in the operation of the vending facility.

A license shall be issued to a surviving spouse who meets the requirements in subdivisions (a) through (d). If the spouse needs to be recertified as qualified to operate a vending facility, the spouse shall have undergone at least a two-month supervised on-the-job training experience at the facility which the blind vendor operated.

A spouse seeking to operate a vending facility pursuant to this section shall be permitted to operate the facility during the one-year period after the death of the blind vendor operating the facility without regard to the status of the spouse's certification, and the spouse shall be eligible during the one-year period after the death of the blind vendor for any training provided by the department, or any agency designated by the department, to persons seeking to become certified as qualified to operate a vending facility.

This section shall apply to vending facilities where the death of the blind vendor operating the facility occurs on or after January 1, 1981.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide for emergency assistance to families of deceased blind vendors, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 597

An act to amend Sections 19612, 19612.1, 19612.3, and 19612.6 of, to add Section 19549.2 to, and to add and repeal Section 19414.6 of, the Business and Professions Code, relating to horseracing, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 25, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19414.6 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

19414.6. Notwithstanding Section 19414.5, the board may allocate racing weeks consisting of four or five racing days to an association conducting racing meetings pursuant to Section 19549.2 if the association and the organization representing the horsemen agree to the allocation. Upon agreement between the racing association and the organization representing the horsemen that racing on a state or national holiday will be uneconomical, there need not be racing on such day but such day would qualify as one of the days required to meet the racing day requirements set by the board.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 31, 1984, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 31, 1984, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 19549.2 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

19549.2. Notwithstanding subdivision (b) of Section 19531 and Section 19549, the board may allocate a maximum of 12 additional weeks of harness racing to the 22nd District Agricultural Association to be conducted on the 22nd District Agricultural Association grounds. The additional racing shall be conducted by a person other than the 22nd District Agricultural Association. The board shall allocate the weeks authorized by this section only during the months of January, October, November, and December.

SEC. 3. Section 19612 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19612. (a) Except as otherwise provided, every association which conducts a harness or quarter horse race meeting shall pay a daily license fee at the following rates based upon its daily conventional and exotic parimutuel handle:

Daily Handle	License Fee Rate
$550,000 or less	2.5 percent of handle
$550,001 to $750,000	$13,750 plus 5.5 percent of the handle in excess of $550,001
$750,001 and more	$24,750 plus 4.7 percent of the handle in excess of $750,001

In addition, every association subject to this subdivision shall pay an additional license fee at the rate of 0.75 percent of its daily exotic parimutuel handle. Except as provided in Section 19610.5, no such association shall pay a license fee in excess of 3.8 percent of the daily conventional parimutuel handle and 4.55 percent of the daily exotic parimutuel handle.

(b) With respect to quarter horse meetings, all funds remaining from the deductions provided in Sections 19610, 19491, and 19491.5, after distribution of the applicable license fee, shall be distributed 55 percent as commissions and 45 percent as purses. With respect to harness meetings, except for meetings conducted pursuant to Section 19549.2, the funds remaining from deductions provided in Section 19610, after distribution of the applicable license fee, shall be distributed 59.5 percent as commissions and 40.5 percent as purses. For meetings conducted pursuant to Section 19549.2, the funds remaining from deductions provided in Section 19610, after distribution of the applicable license fee, shall be distributed 50 percent as commissions and 50 percent as purses.

(c) Every harness association which conducted its racing meeting in a single continuous period prior to January 1, 1979, or any transferee or successor or subsequent transferee or successor of the business or assets of the association, and thereafter conducts a split racing meeting, shall pay a daily license fee based upon its daily conventional and exotic parimutuel handle in accordance with the following schedule:

Daily Handle	License Fee Rate
$1,000,000 or less	1.5 percent of handle
$1,000,001 and more	$15,000 plus 10.7 percent of the handle in excess of $1,000,001

In addition, every such association shall pay an additional license fee at the rate of 0.75 percent of its daily exotic parimutuel handle. Except as provided in Section 19610.5, no such association shall pay a license fee in excess of 3.04 percent of its daily conventional parimutuel handle and 3.79 percent of its daily exotic parimutuel handle.

(d) Any association qualified to operate its meetings pursuant to Section 19612.6 shall be entitled to continue to distribute license fees, commissions, and purses as provided by that section.

(e) Every quarter horse association which conducted its racing meeting in the northern zone prior to January 1, 1979, shall pay a daily license fee based upon its daily conventional and exotic parimutuel handle in accordance with the following schedule:

Daily Handle	License Fee Rate
$550,000 or less	1.5 percent of handle
$550,001 to $750,000	$8,250 plus 2.75 percent of the handle in excess of $550,001
$750,001 and more	$13,750 plus 4.7 percent of the handle in excess of $750,001

In addition, every such association shall pay an additional license fee at the rate of 0.75 percent of its daily exotic parimutuel handle. Except as provided in Section 19610.5, no such association shall pay a license fee in excess of 3.8 percent of the daily conventional parimutuel handle and 4.55 percent of its daily exotic parimutuel handle.

(f) Every association which conducted a quarter horse racing meeting in the southern zone during the daytime prior to January 1, 1979, and thereafter conducts such a meeting at night, shall be entitled to the following license fee adjustment:

For each 1 percent that such association's average daily handle in the 1981 year, during the period from the commencement of such meeting to December 25, and for a like period of five meetings thereafter, falls below its 1980 average daily handle during the same period, the amount of the applicable license fee as set forth in subdivision (a) shall be reduced by 2 percent.

(g) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), for every association which conducts a quarter horse meeting in the northern zone pursuant to subdivision (e), the amount remaining after deduction of the state license fee shall be distributed between commissions and purses as agreed to by the association conducting the meeting and the organization representing the horsemen participating at the meeting.

SEC. 4. Section 19612.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19612.1. (a) In addition to the amounts otherwise deducted pursuant to this chapter, except for associations conducting meetings pursuant to Section 19549.2, every association with an average daily handle of more than six hundred fifty thousand dollars ($650,000), which conducts a harness, quarter, or Appaloosa horse meeting may deduct from the total amount handled in daily double, quinella, exacta, and other multiple wagering pools approved by the board up to 3 percent thereof to be distributed as additional commissions and purses in the following percentage ratio: to the association as additional commission, 59.5 percent; to the horsemen as additional purses, 40.5 percent. Any association conducting a meeting pursuant to Section 19549.2 may deduct from the total amount handled in daily double, quinella, exacta, and other multiple wagering pools approved by the board up to 3 percent thereof to be distributed as additional commissions and purses in the following percentage ratio: to the association as additional commissions, 50 percent; to the horsemen as additional purses, 50 percent.

(b) From the amount deducted for quarter or Appaloosa horse purses under subdivision (a), a sum equal to 13.33 percent thereof shall be held by the association to be paid as owners' premiums for California breds winning at the meeting. The premiums shall be distributed within 30 days of the close of the meeting on a prorated percentage basis of first moneys earned to persons owning California-bred quarter horses and California-bred Appaloosa horses at the time of their wins at races having a total purse value in excess of the average purse value for races conducted during the previous year. Except for fair meetings, the maximum award made to an owner in any one race shall not exceed 10 percent of the total awards fund.

The board shall designate the officially recognized organizations representing quarter horse and Appaloosa horsemen to administer this subdivision and to distribute premiums. The organizations may, with the approval of the board, make a deduction for expenses not to exceed 5 percent of the total awards fund.

(c) At least 30 days prior to the commencement of its meeting, the association shall file with the board a statement of the additional deduction to be made pursuant to subdivision (a). Except with the consent of the board, the amount of the deduction shall not be changed during the course of the meeting.

(d) In addition to the amounts otherwise deducted pursuant to this section, every harness racing association shall deduct an additional 2 percent of its exotic parimutuel pools to be distributed equally as commissions and purses.

SEC. 4.5. Section 19612.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19612.1. (a) In addition to the amounts otherwise deducted pursuant to this chapter, except for associations conducting meetings pursuant to Section 19549.2, every association with an average daily handle of more than six hundred fifty thousand dollars ($650,000), which conducts a harness, quarter, or Appaloosa horse meeting may deduct from the total amount handled in daily double, quinella, exacta, and other multiple wagering pools approved by the board up to 3 percent thereof to be distributed as additional commissions and purses in the following percentage ratio: to the association as additional commission, 59.5 percent; to the horsemen as additional purses, 40.5 percent. Any association conducting a meeting pursuant to Section 19549.2 may deduct from the total amount handled in daily double, quinella, exacta, and other multiple wagering pools approved by the board up to 3 percent thereof to be distributed as additional commissions and purses in the following percentage ratio: to the association as additional commissions, 50 percent; to the horsemen as additional purses, 50 percent.

(b) From the amount deducted for quarter or Appaloosa horse purses under subdivision (a), a sum equal to 13.33 percent thereof shall be held by the association to be paid as owners' premiums for California breds winning at the meeting. The premiums shall be distributed within 30 days of the close of the meeting on a prorated percentage basis of first moneys earned to persons owning California-bred quarter horses and California-bred Appaloosa horses at the time of their wins in races having a total purse value in excess of the average purse value for races, other than stakes races, won by California-bred horses during the previous year. Except for fair meetings, the maximum award made to an owner in any one race shall not exceed 15 percent of the total awards fund.

The board shall designate the officially recognized organizations representing quarter horse and Appaloosa horsemen to administer this subdivision and to distribute premiums. The organizations may, with the approval of the board, make a deduction for expenses not to exceed 5 percent of the total awards fund.

(c) At least 30 days prior to the commencement of its meeting, the association shall file with the board a statement of the additional deduction to be made pursuant to subdivision (a). Except with the consent of the board, the amount of the deduction shall not be changed during the course of the meeting.

(d) In addition to the amounts otherwise deducted pursuant to this section, every harness racing association shall deduct an additional 2 percent of its exotic parimutuel pools to be distributed equally as commissions and purses.

SEC. 5. Section 19612.3 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19612.3. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, with respect to harness racing associations other than those conducting a meeting pursuant to Sections 19612.5 and 19612.6, an additional 1 percent of the parimutuel pool shall be retained and shall be distributed equally between license fees, purses, and commissions from January 1, 1977, until December 31, 1986. From January 1, 1987, and thereafter, the additional retention from such harness racing parimutuel pools shall be decreased to 0.5 percent and shall be distributed equally between license fees, purses, and commissions.

(b) With respect to harness racing associations conducting a meeting pursuant to Section 19549.2 or 19612.6, an additional 1 percent of the parimutuel pool shall be retained and shall be distributed as additional commissions until December 31, 1986.

SEC. 6. Section 19612.6 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19612.6. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, any association with an average daily handle of six hundred fifty thousand dollars ($650,000) or less which conducts a racing meeting pursuant to Sections 19549, 19549.1, 19549.2, 19549.5, 19549.6, 19549.7, or 19701 shall deduct the amounts specified in Section 19610 to be distributed as license fees, commissions, and purses as provided by this section.

(b) Each such association shall pay a daily license fee based on its conventional and exotic parimutuel handle at the following rates:

Daily handle	License fee rate
$300,000 and under	1.0 percent of the handle
$300,001 to $350,000	$3,000 plus 1.5 percent of the handle in excess of $300,000
$350,001 to $400,000	$3,750 plus 2.0 percent of the handle in excess of $350,000
$400,001 to $450,000	$4,750 plus 2.5 percent of the handle in excess of $400,000
$450,001 to $500,000	$6,000 plus 3.0 percent of the handle in excess of $450,000
$500,001 to $550,000	$7,500 plus 3.5 percent of the handle in excess of $500,000
$550,001 or more	$9,250 plus 4.0 percent of the handle in excess of $550,000

(c) For harness and mixed meetings the amount remaining after deduction of the state license fee pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be distributed equally between commissions and purses. For quarter horse and muleracing meetings, the amount remaining after deduction of the state license fee pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be distributed between commissions and purses as agreed to by the association conducting the meeting and the organization representing the horsemen or mulemen participating in the meeting. For fair meetings conducted pursuant to Section 19549, the amount remaining after deduction of the state license fee pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be distributed 48 percent to commissions and 52 percent to purses.

Every association which conducts a racing meeting pursuant to Section 19549 shall, in addition, deduct from its parimutuel pools the amount specified in subdivision (d) of Section 19614.

(d) In the event that any association qualified to operate its meeting pursuant to the provisions of this section conducts two separate programs of racing on any day, each such program shall be considered a separate racing day for purposes of determining the daily handle and computing the distribution of license fees, commissions, and purses thereon. For the purposes of this subdivision, a program shall consist of at least nine races.

(e) In addition to any deductions pursuant to this section, every association conducting a racing meeting pursuant to Section 19549.1 shall also deduct an additional 1 percent of its parimutuel pools to be distributed as commissions.

(f) In addition to any deductions pursuant to this section, every association conducting a racing meeting pursuant to Section 19549.1 shall also deduct an additional 2 percent of its exotic parimutuel pools to be distributed equally as commissions and purses.

SEC. 7. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Assembly Bill 3645 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1983, both bills amend Section 19612.1 of the Business and Professions Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill 3645, that Section 19612.1 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Section 1 of Assembly Bill 3645, be further amended on the operative date of this act in the form set forth in Section 4.5 of this act to incorporate the changes in Section 19612.1 proposed by this bill. Therefore, Section 4.5 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Assembly Bill 3645 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1983, and Assembly Bill 3645 is chaptered before this bill and amends Section 19612.1, in which case Section 4 of this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 8. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that additional weeks of racing may be implemented at the 22nd District Agricultural Association, thereby providing urgently needed additional state revenues, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 598

An act relating to fish and game, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 25, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby appropriated from the Fish and Game Preservation Fund in the State Treasury the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) to the Department of Fish and Game for the purpose of making a grant to the County of Del Norte for purposes of assisting the county in the payment of litigation costs involving violations of Sections 8685.5 and 8685.6 of the Fish and Game Code.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to expeditiously carry on the litigations for which appropriation is provided for under this act, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 599

An act to amend Section 21150.1 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to petroleum franchises.

[Approved by Governor August 25, 1982 Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 21150.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

21150.1. (a) In all future franchise agreements no retail gasoline dealer who operates pursuant to a franchise shall be required by the franchisor to operate the service station during hours that are not profitable to the franchisee, provided that the hours of operation that are maintained by the franchisee are for a continuing period of time.

(b) In the event that the terms and conditions of the franchise require the franchisee to maintain hours of operation that the franchisee has determined in good faith to be unprofitable, the franchisee shall notify the franchisor in writing of his or her determination that a certain period or periods are not profitable and provide the franchisor with any statements, studies, analyses, summaries, business records, or other documents that the franchisee prepared or reviewed to determine that operation of the service station during the period or periods specified in the notice were unprofitable.

(c) In the event that the franchisor in good faith is not satisfied that the operation of the service station is not profitable during the periods specified in the notice after the franchisor has reviewed the statements, studies, analyses, summaries, business records, or other documents submitted by the franchisee, the franchisor may prepare its own statements, studies, analyses, summaries, business records, or other documents regarding the profitability of operation of the service station during the period specified by the franchisee. The franchisee shall reimburse the franchisor for the actual cost incurred by the franchisor in preparing any statements, studies, analyses, summaries, business records, or other documents to verify the franchisee's determination that it is not profitable to operate during the period or periods specified in the notice, not to exceed the sum of three hundred dollars ($300).

(d) In the event that the franchisor and franchisee still do not agree regarding the profitability of certain hours of operation, the franchisor and franchisee shall conduct arbitration in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final.

(e) The franchisee may establish and maintain the hours of operation of the service station without regard to the hours specified in the franchise:

(1) If the franchisor fails to notify the franchisee of his or her intent to prepare statements, studies, analyses, summaries, business records, or other documents to verify the franchisee's determination that it is not profitable to operate during the period or periods specified in the notice within 15 days after receipt of the franchisee's notice.

(2) If the franchisor fails to complete the preparation of the statements, studies, analyses, summaries, business records, or other documents within 30 days after the receipt of notice from the franchisee.

(3) If it is established pursuant to subdivisions (b) to (d), inclusive, that the operation of the service station is not profitable during the period or periods specified by the franchisee.

(f) For the purposes of this section, the terms "unprofitable" and "not profitable" shall mean that the amount of the gross revenues generated by the sales of motor fuels and other petroleum products, as well as related automotive accessories, is less than the amount of the expenses incurred by the franchisee to operate during the period or periods the franchisee specified in the written notice, including the proportionate costs for rent, labor, or other fixed or variable overhead costs that may be reasonably allocated to the operation of the service station during the period or periods that the franchisee specified in the written notice.

(g) This section shall not apply:

(1) Where specific hours of business or operation are required under the franchisor's prime lease or license from any governmental entity, airport, parking, marine or port authority, shopping center, or any private investor not affiliated with or controlled by the franchisor; or,

(2) Where the retail gasoline station subject to the franchise agreement is located within one-half mile access of any highway which is a part of the California freeway and expressway system, provided, however, that if there is not commercial property developed as a service station within one-half mile of an entry to or exit from any such highway, the exception shall extend to the first such development and extend one-quarter mile beyond in all directions. This section is also not applicable to any business which is not primarily a gasoline station, but which sells gasoline incidentally to its business.

CHAPTER 600

An act to amend Section 581a of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to actions.

[Approved by Governor August 25, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 581a of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

581a. (a) No action heretofore or hereafter commenced by complaint shall be further prosecuted, and no further proceedings shall be had therein, and all actions heretofore or hereafter commenced shall be dismissed by the court in which the action shall have been commenced, on its own motion, or on the motion of any party interested therein, whether named as a party or not, unless the summons on the complaint is served and return made within three years after the commencement of the action, except where the parties have filed a stipulation in writing that the time may be extended or the party against whom the action is prosecuted has made a general appearance in the action.

(b) No action heretofore or hereafter commenced by cross-complaint shall be further prosecuted, and no further proceedings shall be had therein, and all actions heretofore or hereafter commenced shall be dismissed by the court in which the action shall have been commenced, on its own motion, or on the motion of any party interested therein, whether named as a party or not, unless, if a summons is not required, the cross-complaint is served within three years after the filing of the cross-complaint or unless, if a summons is required, the summons on the cross-complaint is served and return made within three years after the filing of the cross-complaint, except where the parties have filed a stipulation in writing that the time may be extended or, if a summons is required, the party against whom service would otherwise have to be made has made a general appearance in the action.

(c) All actions, heretofore or hereafter commenced, shall be dismissed by the court in which the action may be pending, on its own motion, or on the motion of any party interested therein, if no answer has been filed after either service has been made or the defendant has made a general appearance, if plaintiff fails, or has failed, to have judgment entered within three years after service has been made or such appearance by the defendant, except where the parties have filed a stipulation in writing that the time may be extended.

(d) The time during which the defendant was not amenable to the process of the court shall not be included in computing the time period specified in this section.

(e) A motion to dismiss pursuant to the provisions of this section shall not, nor shall any extension of time to plead after the motion, or stipulation extending time for service of summons and return thereof, constitute a general appearance.

(f) Except as provided in this section, the provisions of this section are mandatory and are not excusable, and the times within which acts are to be done are jurisdictional. Compliance may be excused only for either of the following reasons:

(1) Where the defendant or cross-defendant is estopped to complain.

(2) Where it would be impossible, impracticable, or futile to comply due to causes beyond a party's control. However, failure to discover relevant facts or evidence shall not excuse compliance.

CHAPTER 601

An act to add and repeal Section 37101.2 of the Government Code, relating to city business licenses.

[Approved by Governor August 25, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 37101.2 is added to the Government Code, to read:

37101.2. (a) Whenever a city requires a license pursuant to Section 37101, solely for revenue purposes, and does not require the licensee to furnish verification of state licensure for the licensed activity, or the basis of exemption therefrom, the following statement shall be conspicuously printed upon the face of the license: "This license is issued without verification that the licensee is subject to or exempt from licensing by the State of California."

(b) A city subject to subdivision (a) may exhaust its supply of any printed license forms on hand which do not contain the statement required by that subdivision.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1989, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute which is chaptered before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act for the purpose of making reimbursement pursuant to these sections. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of that code.

CHAPTER 602

An act making an appropriation to pay the settlement of the wrongful death claim of Kay M. Breneiser, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 25, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Department of Justice to pay the settlement of the claim of the plaintiff against the State of California in the wrongful death action entitled Kay M. Breneiser v. State of California, No. 21911, brought in the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of Madera.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to pay the settlement arising out of an action brought by the plaintiff and ending a hardship to such person as quickly as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 603

An act to amend Section 188.8 of the Streets and Highways Code, relating to state highways.

[Approved by Governor August 25, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 188.8 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

188.8. From the money expended pursuant to Section 188, the commission shall allocate and the department shall expend, or cause to be expended, in each county of County Group No. 1 and in each county of County Group No. 2 during the period commencing July 1, 1983, and ending June 30, 1987, and for each period of four years thereafter, not less than an amount computed as follows:

(a) The commission shall compute, for each period of four years, an amount equal to 70 percent of the money to be expended in County Groups Nos. 1 and 2, respectively, as provided in Section 188.

(b) From the amount computed for County Group No. 1 in subdivision (a) for each four-year period, the commission shall determine the minimum expenditure for each county in the group based on a formula which is based 75 percent on the population of the county to the total population of County Group No. 1 and 25 percent on state highway miles in the county to the total state highway miles in County Group No. 1.

(c) From the amount computed for County Group No. 2 in subdivision (a) for each four-year period, the commission shall determine the minimum expenditure for each county in the group based on a formula which is based 75 percent on the population of the county to the total population of County Group No. 2 and 25 percent on state highway miles in the county to the total state highway miles in County Group No. 2.

(d) A county board of supervisors may adopt a resolution to pool its county minimum expenditure with adjacent counties adopting similar resolutions. The resolution shall provide for pooling the county minimum expenditures for expenditure in any of the pooling counties for a four-year period and shall be submitted to the commission not later than May 1 immediately preceding the commencement of the four-year period.

(e) Except as provided in this paragraph, the entire obligation under a contract awarded or a day labor project commenced during any of the periods shall be deemed an expenditure within the period in which the contract was awarded or day labor project commenced. Obligations under contracts which have been awarded or day labor projects which have been commenced, but which are to be budgeted over more than one fiscal year pursuant to Section 170, shall be deemed expenditures in each of the fiscal years in which the work is to be performed in an amount equal to the final amount budgeted for each of the fiscal years for the work.

(f) For the purpose of this section, the population in each county is that determined by the last preceding federal census, or a subsequent census validated by the Population Research Unit of the Department of Finance, at the beginning of each four-year period.

(g) For the purpose of this section, "state highway miles," are the miles of state highways open to vehicular traffic at the beginning of each four-year period.

(h) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a), (b), and (c), the commission shall program and allocate funds for projects that were included in the 1980 state transportation improvement program. This subdivision shall be limited to projects, as defined in the 1980 state transportation improvement program, and shall provide for inflationary cost increases, but shall not provide for cost increases which are caused by any change in the scope or nature of the project. This subdivision shall not apply to projects that cannot proceed due to changes in federal law or other causes beyond the commission's and department's authority. During the four-year period beginning July 1, 1983, the commission may deviate from subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) for the purpose of meeting the requirements of this subdivision, but shall make a reasonable effort to comply with subdivisions (a), (b), and (c).

CHAPTER 604

An act to amend Sections 1798.3, 1798.9, 1798.10, 1798.17, 1798.24, 1798.34, 1798.40, 1798.41, and 1798.42 of the Civil Code, relating to the Information Practices Act.

[Approved by Governor August 25, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1798.3 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1798.3. As used in this chapter:

(a) The term "confidential information" means any of the following:

(1) Any information in any record maintained by an agency or component thereof which performs as its principal function any activity pertaining to the enforcement of criminal laws, including efforts of the Department of Justice to prevent, control, or reduce crime or to apprehend criminals if the information is (i) compiled for the purpose of identifying individual criminal offenders and alleged offenders and consists only of identifying data and notations of arrests, the nature and disposition of criminal charges, sentencing, confinement, release, and parole and probation status; or (ii) compiled for the purpose of a criminal investigation of suspected criminal activities, including reports of informants and investigators, and associated with an identifiable individual; or (iii) contained in any record which could identify an individual and which is compiled at any stage of the process of enforcement of the criminal laws, from the arrest or indictment stage through release from supervision and including the process of extradition or the exercise of executive clemency.

(2) Information consisting solely of written testing or examination material, or scoring keys used solely to determine individual qualifications for appointment or promotion in public service, or used to administer a licensing examination, or academic examination, the disclosure of which would compromise the objectivity or fairness of the testing or examination process.

(3) Information containing medical, psychiatric or psychological material, if the holder of the record determines that disclosure of the information would be medically or psychologically detrimental to the individual. Such information shall, upon written authorization, be disclosed to a physician, psychiatrist or other licensed medical or psychological personnel designated by the data subject.

(4) Information, other than that referred to in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), consisting solely of investigative materials maintained by an agency for the purpose of investigating a specific grievance, complaint, or violation of state law, but only so long as an investigation is in progress and such investigative information has not been maintained for a period longer than is necessary to complete a criminal, civil, or administrative prosecution or initiate other remedial action. An agency may keep the source or sources of information used for an investigation under this section confidential so long as it determines that confidentiality is necessary to protect its law enforcement activities.

(5) Records consisting of information used solely for the purpose of verifying and paying government health care service claims made pursuant to Division 9 (commencing with Section 10000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(6) Any information which is required by statute to be withheld from the individual to whom it pertains.

(b) The term "personal information" means any information in any record about an individual that is maintained by an agency, including, but not limited to, his or her education, financial transactions, medical or employment history. It does not mean information found to be confidential or nonpersonal under subdivision (a) or (c) of Section 1798.3.

(c) The term "nonpersonal information" means all of the following:

(1) Information consisting only of names, addresses, telephone numbers and other limited factual data, which could not, in any reasonable way (i) reflect or convey anything detrimental, disparaging, or threatening to an individual's reputation, rights, benefits, privileges, or qualifications or (ii) be used by an agency to make a determination that would affect an individual's rights, benefits, privileges, or qualifications.

(2) An agency telephone book or directory which is used exclusively for telephone and directory information.

(3) Any card catalog of any library, or the contents of any book listed within such card catalog.

(4) Any mailing list which is used exclusively for the purpose of mailing agency information.

(5) Records required by law to be maintained and used solely as a system of statistical records, but only if such records are maintained for statistical research or reporting purposes only and are not used in whole or in part in making any determination about an identifiable individual.

(6) Records to which an individual has the right of examination pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 11120) of Chapter 1 of Title 1 of Part 4 of the Penal Code.

(d) The term "agency" means every state office, officer, department, division, bureau, board, commission, or other state agency, except that the term agency shall not include:

(1) The California Legislature.

(2) Any agency established under Article VI of the California Constitution.

(3) The State Compensation Insurance Fund, except as to any records which contain personal information about the employees of the State Compensation Insurance Fund.

(e) The term "disclose" means to disclose, release, transfer, disseminate, or otherwise communicate all or any part of any record orally, in writing, or by electronic or any other means to any person or entity.

(f) The term "individual" means a natural person.

(g) The term "maintain" includes maintain, acquire, use, or disclose.

(h) The term "person" means any natural person, corporation, partnership, firm, or association.

(i) The term "record" means any file or grouping of information about an individual that is maintained by an agency, including, but not limited to, his or her education, financial transactions, medical or employment history and that contains his or her name, identifying number, symbol, or other identifying particular assigned to the individual, including, but not limited to, a finger or voice print or photograph and is maintained by reference to such an identifying particular.

(j) The term "system of records" means one or more records, which pertain to one or more individuals, which is maintained by any agency, from which information is retrieved by the name of an individual or by some identifying number, symbol or other identifying particular assigned to the individual.

(k) The term "governmental entity," except as used in Section 1798.26, means any branch of the federal government or of the local government.

(l) The term "commercial purpose" means any purpose which has financial gain as a major objective. It does not include the gathering or dissemination of newsworthy facts by a publisher or broadcaster.

SEC. 1.5. Section 1798.9 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1798.9. Each agency maintaining a system of records containing personal or confidential information shall file with the Office of Information Practices the notice specified in Section 1798.10. Such notices shall be filed with that office by such agencies on the first day of July of each year. Such notices shall be permanent public records. The Office of Information Practices may establish regulations prescribing the form and method of updating the notices required by Section 1798.10 to implement this section. Any agency maintaining more than one system of records may combine such notices when convenient and appropriate. Upon a showing of good cause by an agency, the Office of Information Practices may extend the time for filing notices for a period not to exceed 120 days.

SEC. 2. Section 1798.10 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1798.10. Notices required to be filed by Section 1798.9 shall specify each of the following:

(a) The name of the agency and the division within the agency that is maintaining the records containing personal or confidential information and the name or title of the system of records, if any, in which such information is maintained.

(b) A brief description of the kinds of personal and confidential information contained in the record system, including the categories of individuals and the approximate number of individuals on whom records containing personal or confidential information are maintained in the system.

(c) Each major use or purpose within the agency for the personal or confidential information within the system.

(d) Disclosures of the information that will be made pursuant to subdivision (e) or (f) of Section 1798.24.

(e) The legal authority which authorizes the maintenance of personal or confidential information.

(f) Retention and disposal policies for the personal or confidential information.

(g) The general source or sources of the information in the system.

(h) The title and business address of the agency official responsible for maintaining the records.

(i) The procedures to be followed for an individual to gain access to, and contest the contents of, records containing personal information.

If an agency fails to file such a report, the office promptly shall inform the agency and if the agency fails to comply within 30 days thereafter, the office shall report on such violation in accordance with subdivision (b) of Section 1798.6.

SEC. 2.5. Section 1798.17 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1798.17. Each agency shall provide with any form used to collect personal or confidential information from individuals the following notice unless the same information is already contained in the form itself or the individual has already received the same information during the previous year at the time of the request:

(a) The name of the agency and the division within the agency that is requesting the information.

(b) The title, business address, and telephone number of the agency official who is responsible for the system of records and who shall, upon request, inform an individual regarding the location of his or her records and the categories of any persons who use the information in those records.

(c) The authority, whether granted by statute, regulation, or executive order which authorizes the maintenance of the information.

(d) With respect to each item of information, whether submission of such information is mandatory or voluntary.

(e) The consequences, if any, of not providing all or any part of the requested information.

(f) The principal purpose or purposes within the agency for which the information is to be used.

(g) Any known or foreseeable disclosures which may be made of the information pursuant to subdivisions (e) or (f) of Section 1798.24.

(h) The individual's right of access to records containing personal information which are maintained by the agency. This subdivision shall not apply to any confidential information.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to any enforcement document issued by an employee of a law enforcement agency in the performance of his or her duties wherein the violator is provided an exact copy of the document, or to accident reports whereby the parties of interest may obtain a copy of the report pursuant to Section 20012 of the Vehicle Code.

SEC. 3. Section 1798.24 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1798.24. No agency may disclose any personal or confidential information unless the disclosure of such information is:

(a) To the individual to whom the record pertains.

(b) With the prior written voluntary consent of the individual to whom the record pertains, but only if such consent has been obtained not more than 30 days before the disclosure, or in the time limit specified by the individual in the written consent.

(c) To the duly appointed guardian or conservator of the individual or a person representing the individual provided that it can be proven with reasonable certainty through the possession of agency forms, documents or correspondence that such person is the authorized representative of the individual to whom the information pertains.

(d) To those officers, employees, attorneys, or volunteers of the agency which has custody of the information if such disclosure is relevant and necessary in the ordinary course of the performance of their official duties and is related to the purpose for which the information was acquired.

(e) To a person, or to another agency where the transfer is necessary for the transferee agency to perform its constitutional or statutory duties, and such use is compatible with a purpose for which the information was collected and such use or transfer is listed in the notice provided pursuant to Section 1798.9 or accounted for in accordance with the provisions of Section 1798.25.

(f) To a governmental entity when required by state or federal law.

(g) Pursuant to the California Public Records Act, Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(h) To a person who has provided the agency with advance adequate written assurance that the information will be used solely for statistical research or reporting purposes, but only if the information to be disclosed is in a form that will not identify any individual.

(i) Pursuant to a determination by the agency which maintains the information that compelling circumstances exist which affect the health or safety of an individual, if upon such disclosure notification is transmitted to the individual to whom the information pertains at his or her last known address. Disclosure shall not be made if it is in conflict with other state or federal law.

(j) To the State Archives of the State of California as a record which has sufficient historical or other value to warrant its continued preservation by the California state government, or for evaluation by the Director of General Services or his designate to determine whether the record has further administrative, legal, or fiscal value.

(k) To any person pursuant to a subpoena, court order, or other compulsory legal process if, before the disclosure, the agency reasonably attempts to notify such individual to whom the record pertains, and if such notification is not prohibited by law.

(l) To any person pursuant to a search warrant.

(m) Pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 1800) of Chapter 1 of Division 2 of the Vehicle Code.

(n) For the sole purpose of verifying and paying government health care service claims made pursuant to Division 9 (commencing with Section 10000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(o) To a law enforcement agency when required for an investigation of unlawful activity, unless such disclosure is otherwise prohibited by law.

(p) To another person or governmental organization to the extent necessary to obtain information from such person or governmental organization as necessary for an investigation by the agency of a failure to comply with a specific state law which the agency is responsible for enforcing.

(q) Personal information only to the Office of Information Practices when the transfer is necessary for that office to investigate a complaint it has received regarding an alleged violation of any provision of this chapter or to perform its mediation functions, provided that the Office of Information Practices has received the written voluntary consent of the individual to whom the information pertains for such a transfer.

(r) To an adopted person and is limited to general background information pertaining to the adopted person's natural parents, provided that such information does not include or reveal the identity of the natural parents.

(s) To a committee of the Legislature or to a Member of the Legislature, or his or her staff when authorized in writing by the Member, where such Member has permission to obtain the information from the individual to whom it pertains or where the Member provides reasonable assurance that he or she is acting in behalf of the individual.

(t) To the University of California or a nonprofit educational institution conducting scientific research, provided the request for information includes assurances of the need for personal or confidential information, procedures for protecting the confidentiality of the information and assurances that the personal identity of the subject shall not be further disclosed in individually identifiable form.

The provisions of this article shall not be construed to require the disclosure of confidential information to the individual to whom the information pertains.

SEC. 4. Section 1798.34 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1798.34. (a) Each agency shall permit any individual upon request and proper identification to inspect all the personal information in any record containing personal information and maintained by reference to an identifying particular assigned to such individual within 30 days of the request for active records, and within 60 days of the request for inactive records that are in central storage.

Failure to respond within these time limits shall be deemed denial. In addition, such individual shall be permitted to inspect any record containing personal information in which an identifying particular assigned to such individual appears, if the agency knows or should know that such a record exists. The individual also shall be permitted to inspect the accounting made pursuant to Article 7 (commencing with Section 1798.25) of this chapter.

(b) The agency shall permit the individual, and, upon the individual's request, another person of the individual's own choosing to inspect all the personal information in the record and have an exact copy made of all or any portion thereof within 15 days of such inspection. It may require the individual to furnish a written statement authorizing disclosure of such individual's record to another person of the individual's choosing.

(c) The agency shall present the information in the record in a form reasonably comprehensible to the general public.

(d) Whenever an agency is unable to access a record by reference to name only, or when access by name only would impose an unreasonable administrative burden, it may require the individual to submit such other identifying information as will facilitate access to the record.

(e) When an individual is entitled under this chapter to gain access to the information in a record containing personal information, such information or a true copy thereof shall be made available to the individual at a location near the residence of the individual or by mail, whenever reasonable.

SEC. 5. Section 1798.40 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1798.40. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (c), if the agency determines that information requested pursuant to Section 1798.34 is confidential it shall inform the individual in writing of the agency's finding that the information contained in the record is confidential, and that disclosure of the contents is not required by law.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), each agency shall conduct a review of its determination that particular information is confidential, as defined in this chapter, within 30 days from the receipt of a request by an individual directly affected by such determination, and inform the individual in writing of the findings of such review. The review shall be conducted by the head of such agency or an official specifically designated by the head of such agency.

(c) If the agency believes that compliance with subdivision (a) of this section would seriously interfere with attempts to apprehend persons who are wanted for committing a crime or attempts to prevent the commission of a crime or would endanger the life of an informant or other person submitting information contained in the confidential record, it may petition the presiding judge of the superior court of the county in which the record is maintained to issue an ex parte order authorizing the agency to respond to the individual that no record is maintained. All proceedings before the court shall be in camera. If the presiding judge finds that there are reasonable grounds to believe that compliance with subdivision (a) will seriously interfere with attempts to apprehend persons who are wanted for committing a crime or attempts to prevent the commission of a crime or will endanger the life of an informant or other person submitting information contained in the confidential record, he shall issue an order authorizing the agency to respond to the individual that no record is maintained by the agency. Such order shall not be issued for longer than 30 days but can be renewed at thirty (30) day intervals. If a request pursuant to this section is received after the expiration of the order, the agency must either respond pursuant to subdivision (a) or seek a new order pursuant to this subdivision.

SEC. 6. Section 1798.41 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1798.41. In disclosing information contained in a record to an individual, an agency shall not disclose any personal information relating to another individual which may be contained in such record. To comply with this section, an agency shall, in disclosing information, delete from disclosure such information as may be necessary. This section shall not be construed to authorize withholding the indentities of sources except as provided in Sections 1798.3 and 1798.38.

SEC. 7. Section 1798.42 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1798.42. In disclosing information contained in a record to an individual, an agency need not disclose any confidential information pertaining to that individual which may be contained in a record containing personal information. To comply with this section, an agency may, in disclosing personal information contained in a record, delete from such disclosure any confidential information.

CHAPTER 605

An act to amend Sections 116 and 117.12 of, and to add Section 117.22 to, the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to small claims court.

[Approved by Governor August 25, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 116 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

116. (a) In each justice and municipal court there shall be a small claims division. The Judicial Council shall provide by rule for the practice and procedure and for the forms and use in proceedings in such division consistent with the provisions of this chapter. Each small claims division may formulate and distribute to litigants and the public a manual on small claims court rules and procedures. The manual shall explain how to fill out the necessary forms, how to determine the proper court to hear the matter, how to take defaults and have them set aside, how to pursue or defend against claims, how to appeal, how to collect after judgment, how to protect property that is exempt from execution, and such other matters as the court deems necessary or desirable.

(b) Provided that the department determines there are sufficient private or public funds available in addition to the funds available within the department's current budget in order to print an adequate number of manuals, the Department of Consumer Affairs, in cooperation with the Judicial Council, shall prepare a manual on small claims court rules and procedures for distribution to the general public. The manual shall be designed to provide information regarding the use of the small claims court and the manner in which defaults can be avoided. The department shall distribute sufficient copies of the manual to each small claims division.

(c) The Judicial Council, in cooperation with the Department of Consumer Affairs, shall, if federal or other funding is available, formulate and distribute to each judge who sits in a small claims court a bench book describing all state and federal consumer protection laws reasonably likely to be applicable in actions brought in that court.

SEC. 2. Section 117.12 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

117.12. The judgment of the superior court shall be final and not appealable. If the judgment is affirmed in whole or in part or the appeal is dismissed, the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff the amount of the judgment as affirmed, together with interest and costs and the sum of fifteen dollars ($15) as an attorney's fee upon such terms and conditions as the judge shall prescribe.

SEC. 3. Section 117.22 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

117.22. (a) Prior to March 1, 1983, there shall be established an advisory committee, constituted as set forth in subdivision (b), to study small claims practice and procedure, with particular attention given to the improvement of procedures for the collection of judgments. The members of the advisory committee shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for expenses actually and necessarily incurred by them in the performance of their duties. Such advisory committee shall report its findings and recommendations to the Judicial Council and the Legislature no later than December 1, 1984.

(b) The advisory committee shall be composed, as follows:

(1) The Attorney General or a representative.

(2) Two consumer representatives from consumer groups or agencies to be appointed by the Secretary of the State and Consumer Services Agency.

(3) One representative appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly and one representative appointed by the President pro Tempore of the Senate.

(4) Two representatives to be appointed by the Board of Governors of the State Bar.

(5) Two representatives of the business community to be appointed by the Secretary of the Business, Transportation, and Housing Agency.

(6) Six judges of the municipal court or justice court who have extensive experience presiding in small claims court, to be appointed by the Judicial Council.

(7) One representative appointed by the Governor.

(8) Two clerks of the court to be appointed by the Judicial Council.

(c) Staff assistance to the advisory committee shall be provided by the Department of Consumer Affairs, with the assistance of the Judicial Council, as needed.

(d) This section shall become operative only if the Department of Consumer Affairs determines that sufficient private or public funds are available in addition to the funds available in the department's current budget to cover the costs imposed pursuant to this section.

CHAPTER 606

An act to amend Section 11506 of the Government Code, relating to administrative adjudication.

[Approved by Governor August 25, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11506 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11506. (a) Within 15 days after service upon him of the accusation the respondent may file with the agency a notice of defense in which he may:

(1) Request a hearing.

(2) Object to the accusation upon the ground that it does not state acts or omissions upon which the agency may proceed.

(3) Object to the form of the accusation on the ground that it is so indefinite or uncertain that he cannot identify the transaction or prepare his defense.

(4) Admit the accusation in whole or in part.

(5) Present new matter by way of defense.

(6) Object to the accusation upon the ground that, under the circumstances, compliance with the requirements of a regulation would result in a material violation of another regulation enacted by another department affecting substantive rights.

Within the time specified respondent may file one or more notices of defense upon any or all of these grounds but all such notices shall be filed within that period unless the agency in its discretion authorizes the filing of a later notice.

(b) The respondent shall be entitled to a hearing on the merits if he files a notice of defense, and any such notice shall be deemed a specific denial of all parts of the accusation not expressly admitted. Failure to file such notice shall constitute a waiver of respondent's right to a hearing, but the agency in its discretion may nevertheless grant a hearing. Unless objection is taken as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (a), all objections to the form of the accusation shall be deemed waived.

(c) The notice of defense shall be in writing signed by or on behalf of the respondent and shall state his mailing address. It need not be verified or follow any particular form.

(d) Respondent may file a statement by way of mitigation even if he does not file a notice of defense.

CHAPTER 607

An act to amend Section 7028 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to contractors.

[Approved by Governor August 25, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7028 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7028. It is a misdemeanor for any person to engage in the business or act in the capacity of a contractor within this state without having a license therefor, unless such person is particularly exempted from the provisions of this chapter. If such a person has been previously convicted of the offense described in this section, the court shall impose a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than two thousand dollars ($2,000), or imprisonment in the county jail for not less than 10 days nor more than six months, or both. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, an indictment for any violation of this section with respect to work done by the unlicensed contractor shall be found or an information or complaint filed within three years from the date of completion of the work.

CHAPTER 608

An act to amend Sections 6751 and 8742 of, and to repeal and add Section 6753 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to the Board of Registration for Professional Engineers.

[Approved by Governor August 25, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 25, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6751 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6751. (a) The applicant for registration as a professional engineer shall:

(1) Not have committed acts or crimes constituting grounds for denial of registration under Section 480;

(2) Except as provided in Section 6767, furnish evidence of six years or more of experience in engineering work satisfactory to the board evidencing that applicant is competent to practice the character of engineering in the branch for which he is applying for registration, and successfully pass the second division of the examination.

(b) The applicant for certification as an engineer-in-training shall:

(1) Not have committed acts or crimes constituting grounds for denial of registration under Section 480;

(2) Successfully pass the first division of the examination.

SEC. 2. Section 6753 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 6753 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

6753. With respect to applicants for registration as professional engineers, the board:

(a) Shall count graduation from an engineering school or college where the curriculum has been approved as four years of experience and each year of study completed without graduation in an engineering school or college where the curriculum has been approved as one-half year of experience, except that applicants for registration in any branch of professional engineering shall not receive credit for more than four years of experience because of undergraduate educational qualifications. The board may, in its discretion consider graduation in a nonapproved engineering curriculum or graduation in an approved engineering technology curriculum, as equivalent to not more than two years' experience.

(b) May at its discretion give credit as experience not in excess of one year, for satisfactory postgraduate work in a school of engineering where the curriculum has been approved by the board.

(c) May consider engineering teaching, if of a character satisfactory to the board, as engineering experience not in excess of one year.

(d) May at its discretion give credit as experience not in excess of four years, for successfully passing the first division of the examination prescribed in Section 6755.

SEC. 4. Section 8742 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8742. (a) The educational qualifications and experience in land surveying, which an applicant for the second division examination shall possess, shall be not less than the following prescribed minima:

(1) Graduation from a four-year curriculum with an emphasis in land surveying approved by the board or accredited by a national or regional accrediting agency recognized by the United States Office of Education at a postsecondary educational institution and two years of actual experience in land surveying, including one year of responsible field training and one year of responsible office training; or

(2) Actual experience in land surveying for at least six years, including one year of responsible field training and one year of responsible office training; or

(3) Registration as a civil engineer.

(b) With respect to applicants for license as a land surveyor, the board:

(1) Shall count one year of postsecondary education in land surveying as one year of experience in land surveying up to a maximum of four years, provided the applicant has graduated from the course in land surveying and the curriculum in land surveying is approved by the board or is accredited by a regional or national accrediting agency recognized for the purpose by the United States Office of Education. Each year of study in an approved or an accredited course in land surveying without graduation shall be counted the same as one-half year of experience.

Each applicant claiming equivalent credit for education may be required to produce a complete transcript of all college level courses completed.

(2) May at its discretion give credit as experience in land surveying, not in excess of two years, for successfully passing the first division of the examination prescribed in Section 8741.

CHAPTER 609

An act to add and repeal Section 21606 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to aviation.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 21606 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

21606. The department may assist any political subdivision in the development of regional and local heliport system plans.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1985, and on that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute chaptered on or before January 1, 1985, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 610

An act to amend Sections 4808, 4850, 4851, and 4853 of, to amend and repeal Section 3005.7 of, to amend, add, and repeal Section 3950 of, to add Sections 4855 and 4856 to, to repeal Chapter 10.5 (commencing with Section 4850) of Part 3 of Division 4 of, and to repeal and add Sections 4854 and 4189 of, the Fish and Game Code, relating to mountain lions.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3005.7 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

3005.7. It is unlawful to capture any mountain lion or to possess or confine any live mountain lion taken from the wild, except as provided by this code or regulations made pursuant thereto. Any mountain lion possessed or confined in violation of this section shall be seized by the department.

The commission may promulgate regulations permitting the temporary confinement of mountain lions for the purpose of treating them, if injured or diseased.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1986, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered on or before January 1, 1986, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 3950 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

3950. Game mammals are: deer (genus Odocoileus), elk (genus Cervus), prong-horned antelope (genus Antilocapra), feral pigs and European wild boars (genus Sus), black and brown or cinnamon bears (genus Euarctos), jackrabbits and varying hares (genus Lepus), cottontails, brush rabbits, pigmy rabbits (genus Sylvilagus), and tree squirrels (genus Sciurus and Tamiasciurus).

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1986, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered on or before January 1, 1986, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 3950 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

3950. Game mammals are: deer (genus Odocoileus), elk (genus Cervus), prong-horned antelope (genus Antilocapra), feral pigs and European wild boars (genus Sus), black and brown or cinnamon bears (genus Euarctos), mountain lions (genus Felis), jackrabbits and varying hares (genus Lepus), cottontails, brush rabbits, pigmy rabbits (genus Sylvilagus), and tree squirrels (genus Sciurus and Tamiasciurus).

This section shall become operative on January 1, 1986.

SEC. 4. Section 4189 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 4189 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

4189. Any owner or tenant, or the agent of the owner or tenant, of land or property that is being damaged or destroyed or is in immediate danger of being damaged or destroyed by mountain lions may take those mountain lions at any time and in any manner except by means of poison or traps. The taking of the mountain lion shall be reported in writing within 30 days to the Department of Fish and Game headquarters office in Sacramento.

This section shall become operative on January 1, 1986.

SEC. 6. Section 4808 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

4808. This chapter shall become operative on January 1, 1986.

SEC. 7. Section 4850 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

4850. (a) The mountain lion (genus Felis) is a specially protected mammal under the laws of this state.

(b) It is unlawful to take, injure, possess, transport, import, or sell any mountain lion or parts thereof, except as otherwise provided in this chapter or in Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 1000) of Chapter 3 of Division 2, or except as authorized under a domestic game breeder's license.

(c) Any violation of this section is a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not exceeding one year or a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or both.

SEC. 8. Section 4851 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

4851. (a) Any person, or the employee of a person, whose livestock is being or has been damaged or destroyed by a mountain lion may report that fact to the department on or before the next day the offices of the department are open following discovery of the damage or destruction.

(b) The department shall conduct and complete an investigation within 48 hours of receiving the report, and, if satisfied that there has been depredation by a mountain lion as reported, may promptly issue a permit, to expire 10 days after issuance, to the person, or the employee or agent of the person, whose livestock was damaged or destroyed by the mountain lion. The permit shall authorize the holder to begin pursuit not more than one mile from the livestock depredation site, and to take the depredating mountain lion up to 10 miles from the location of the reported damage or destruction. No mountain lion shall be taken pursuant to this section except by a person eligible to be issued a hunting license pursuant to Articles 2 (commencing with Section 3031) and 2.5 (commencing with Section 3049) of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 4.

(c) Any person issued a permit pursuant to this section shall report by phone within 24 hours the capturing, injuring, or killing of any mountain lion thereunder to an office of the department if the taking thereof has not already been reported pursuant to subdivision (a); or, if telephoning is not practicable, then in writing within five days after the capturing, injuring, or killing of the mountain lion. The holder of the permit shall also turn over the entire carcass of the mountain lion to a representative of the department in a timely manner, and shall make arrangements therefor at the time of making the report to the department required by this subdivision.

(d) Any mountain lion that is encountered while in the act of inflicting injury to, or killing, livestock may be taken immediately by the owner of the livestock or the owner's employee so long as the taking is promptly reported to the department, the department investigates the depredation, and the carcass is turned over to the department, as provided in this section. Upon satisfactorily completing the investigation and receiving the carcass, the department shall issue a permit confirming that the requirements of this section have been met with respect to the particular mountain lion taken under these circumstances.

SEC. 9. Section 4853 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

4853. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit the department or its authorized agents from pursuing or capturing mountain lions alive for the purpose of scientific research.

SEC. 10. Section 4854 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

SEC. 11. Section 4854 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

4854. The department may issue a permit to any person to pursue any mountain lion, subject to the regulations of the commission.

No mountain lion may be captured, injured, or killed pursuant to a permit issued under this section.

SEC. 12. Section 4855 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

4855. When the department confirms with written findings that numerous and repeated individual incidents of damage to livestock, which cannot be controlled under individual depredation permits, have been caused by mountain lions, the department shall notify the commission. The commission shall direct the department to develop a plan for the management of mountain lions within the area of concern, with the objective of the plan being to maintain a healthy, viable mountain lion population and to alleviate economic losses in compliance with Section 1801. After receiving the plan and holding at least one public hearing in the area concerned, the commission may direct the take of mountain lions by departmental personnel or persons under contract to the department.

SEC. 13. Section 4856 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

4856. This chapter shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1986, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered on or before January 1, 1986, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 14. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 611

An act to add Sections 3236.5 and 3754.5 to the Public Resources Code, relating to oil and gas.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3236.5 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

3236.5. (a) Any person who violates any provision of this chapter may be liable, in lieu of the penalty specified in Section 3236, for a civil penalty not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500) for each violation.

(b) The Attorney General, upon the request of the supervisor, shall bring a civil action to impose and recover those amounts.

(c) Any amount collected under this section shall be deposited in the General Fund.

SEC. 2. Section 3754.5 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

3754.5. (a) Any person who violates any provision of this chapter may be liable, in lieu of the penalty specified in Section 3754, for a civil penalty not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500) for each violation.

(b) The Attorney General, upon the request of the supervisor, shall bring a civil action to impose and recover those amounts.

(c) Any amount collected under this section shall be deposited in the General Fund.

CHAPTER 612

An act to amend Sections 13556 and 14904 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13556 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

13556. (a) Unless otherwise specifically provided in this chapter, no suspension of a license by the department shall be for a longer period than six months, except that the department may suspend a license for a maximum period of 12 months in those cases when a discretionary revocation would otherwise be authorized pursuant to this chapter.

(b) Any discretionary suspension, the ending of which is dependent upon an action by the person suspended and which has been in effect for eight years, may be ended at the election of the department.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this code, a suspension based upon a physical or mental condition shall continue until evidence satisfactory to the department establishes that the cause for which the action was taken has been removed or no longer renders the person incapable of operating a motor vehicle safely.

SEC. 2. Section 14904 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

14904. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this code, before a driver's license may be issued, reissued, or returned to the licensee after a suspension or a revocation of a person's driving privilege ordered by the department has been terminated or reinstated, there shall, in addition to any other fees required by this code, be paid the department a fee sufficient to pay the actual costs of the issuance, reissuance, or return as determined by the department.

(b) This section shall not apply to any suspension or revocation that is set aside by the department or a court.

(c) This section shall not apply to any suspension or revocation based upon a physical or mental condition.

CHAPTER 613

An act to amend Section 49554 of the Education Code, relating to schools.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 49554 of the Education Code is amended to read:

49554. Any school district or county superintendent of schools which has had no food service employees since July 1, 1977, or has inadequate or no food preparation facilities as determined by the State Department of Education, and is, therefore, unable to provide a nutritionally adequate breakfast or lunch, or both, may contract for the preparation, delivery, and service of those meals. Any contract for the preparation, delivery, and service of meals shall not be deemed to establish food service positions for the purposes of Section 39902.

Prior to contracting for preparation, delivery, and service of such meals, a school district shall certify to the State Department of Education that no school district in the county nor the county superintendent of schools has the facilities and is willing to furnish those services.

CHAPTER 614

An act to amend Section 384.5 of the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 384.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

384.5. (a) Except within the Counties of Santa Barbara, Ventura, Los Angeles, Orange, San Diego, San Bernardino, Riverside, and Imperial, any person who removes any minor forest products from the property where such products were cut and transports such products upon any public road or highway shall have in his or her possession a valid bill of sale for such products or a written permit issued by the owner of the property from which such products were removed authorizing such removal and transport. Any such permit or bill of sale shall include, but is not limited to, all of the following:

(1) The name, address, and signature of the landowner, and phone number, if available.

(2) The name, address, and signature of the permittee or purchaser.

(3) The amount, species, and type of minor forest products to be removed and transported.

(4) A description sufficient to identify the property from which the minor forest products are to be removed.

(5) The date of issuance of the permit or bill of sale and the duration of the period of time within which the minor forest products may be removed.

(6) Such conditions or additional information which the landowner may impose or include.

Any permit for the removal of minor forest products from public lands that is issued by the United States Forest Service or the Bureau of Land Management is sufficient for the purposes of this subdivision, regardless of whether such permit conforms to the specific requirements as to content set forth in this subdivision.

For the purposes of this subdivision "minor forest products" means firewood, posts, shakeboards, shake and shingle bolts, or split products, in quantities exceeding 20 cubic feet in volume, and burlwood or stumps, in quantities of two or more.

(b) The provisions of this section shall not apply to the transport of any minor forest products carried in a passenger vehicle, as defined in Section 465 of the Vehicle Code.

(c) Violation of subdivision (a) is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) or by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than six months or by both such fine and imprisonment.

CHAPTER 615

An act to amend Sections 70631 and 70632 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to plants, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 70631 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

70631. The following native plants, or any parts thereof, may not be harvested except for scientific or educational purposes under a permit issued by the commissioner of the county in which the native plants are growing:

(a) All species of Burseraceae family (elephant tree).
(b) Carnegiea gigantea (sahuaro cactus).
(c) Ferocactus acanthodes (barrel cactus).
(d) Castela emoryi (crucifixion thorn).
(e) Dudleya saxosa (panamint dudleya).
(f) Pinus longaeva (bristlecone pine).
(g) Washingtonia filifera (fan palm).

SEC. 2. Section 70632 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

70632. The following native plants, or any part thereof, may not be harvested except under a permit issued by the agricultural commissioner or the sheriff of the county in which the native plants are growing:

(a) All species of the family Agavaceae (century plants, nolinas, yuccas).

(b) All species of the family Cactaceae (cacti), except for the plants listed in subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 70631 which may be harvested under a permit obtained pursuant to that section.

(c) All species of the family Fouquieriaceae (ocotillo, candlewood).

(d) All species of the genus Prosopis (mesquites).

(e) All species of the genus Cercidium (palos verdes).

(f) Acacia greggii (catclaw).

(g) Atriplex hymenelytra (desert-holly).

(h) Dalea spinosa (smoke tree).

(i) Olneya tesota (desert ironwood), including both dead and live desert ironwood.

The fruit from the native plants listed in this section may be harvested without a permit.

The commissioner may establish limits on the quantity of desert ironwood which may be taken under any permit and on the number of permits for the taking of desert ironwood which may be issued. The county agricultural commissioner may adopt such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the protection of the ironwood resource.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, the director may add desert ironwood to, or remove it from, the jurisdiction of this division pursuant to Section 70633.

SEC. 3. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIIIB of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to conform state law respecting endangered native plants to federal law, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 616

An act to add Section 816 to the Government Code, and to amend Sections 321, 640, 641, 642, 643, and 643.1 of, and to add Section 642.1 to, the Military and Veterans Code, relating to military service.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 816 is added to the Government Code, to read:

816. A public entity is not liable for injury arising out of any activity conducted by a member of the California National Guard pursuant to Section 316, 502, 503, 504, or 505 of Title 32 of the United States Code and compensated pursuant to the Federal Tort Claims Act.

It is the intent of the Legislature, in enacting this section, to conform state law regarding liability for activities of the National Guard to federal law as expressed in Public Law 97-124.

SEC. 2. Section 321 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

321. Enlisted personnel, while on active duty in the service of the state, shall receive the same pay and allowances as enlisted personnel of similar grade in the United States Army, United States Air Force, and United States Navy, except that enlisted personnel in the pay grade of E1 through E4 ordered to active duty pursuant to Section 143 or 146 shall receive not less than the minimum daily rate of pay applicable to pay grade of E5 in the active military service of the United States while on such active duty. It is the intent of the Legislature that the foregoing minimum payments to enlisted men in the pay grade of E1 through E4 may be paid from the State Emergency Fund when, in the judgment of the Director of Finance, there is a case of actual necessity for which no appropriation has been made. All full-time active duty previously or hereafter performed in the service of the state shall be credited for purposes of determining longevity and service within the provisions of this section and Section 340.

SEC. 3. Section 640 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

640. The following decorations are authorized for members of the National Guard, State Military Reserve, and Naval Militia:

(a) Medal of Valor
(b) Military Cross
(c) Order of California
(d) Medal of Merit
(e) Commendation Ribbon
(f) Service Medal
(g) Good Conduct Medal

The Order of California, Medal of Merit and Commendation Ribbon are also authorized for award to civilians and members of other military services who bring honor to the State of California by their actions.

The Commanding General of the State Military Forces may provide and procure appropriate emblematic devices for each such decoration, together with suitable ribbons and insignia to be worn therewith or in lieu thereof.

SEC. 4. Section 641 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

641. A Medal of Valor may be presented to each person who, while an officer or enlisted member of the National Guard or Naval Militia, distinguishes himself or herself by courageous conduct at the risk of life, above and beyond the call of duty while in the service of the state or of the United States.

No award of the Medal of Valor shall be made except upon clear and incontestable proof by affidavit of at least one eyewitness or person having personal knowledge of the act or deed.

A Medal of Valor may be presented to each person who has been awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor, and proof by affidavit or otherwise of the act or deed shall not be required in those cases.

SEC. 5. Section 642 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

642. A Military Cross may be presented to each person who, while an officer or enlisted member of the National Guard or Naval Militia, distinguishes himself or herself by extraordinary heroism while in the service of the state or of the United States.

SEC. 6. Section 642.1 is added to the Military and Veterans Code, to read:

642.1. The Order of California may be presented to an officer or enlisted member of the National Guard or Naval Militia who has distinguished himself or herself by exceptionally meritorious conduct in the performance of outstanding service to the state or the United States in a position of great responsibility. The performance of duty shall have been such as to merit recognition of service rendered in a clearly exceptional manner within the scope of a special requirement or of an extremely difficult duty performed in a clearly outstanding manner. Performance of duties normal to the grade and branch, specialty or assignment, and experience of an individual is not an adequate basis for this decoration, except that justification of the award may accrue by virtue of outstanding meritorious service in a succession of important positions.

The accomplishment of the duty or period of service for which the decoration is recommended should have been completed prior to submitting a recommendation. However, if the person being recommended is transferred or will retire prior to completion, the action or accomplishment shall have reached a point of progression that will clearly establish the individual's contribution to be outstanding or represent significant accomplishment.

The Order of California may also be awarded to civilians and members of other military services who distinguish themselves as indicated in this section.

SEC. 7. Section 643 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

643. A Medal of Merit may be presented to each person who, while an officer, warrant officer, or enlisted member of the National Guard or Naval Militia, distinguishes himself or herself by exceptionally meritorious service to the state or the United States in a duty of great responsibility or to any person who, by unselfish and untiring activities in connection with the National Guard or Naval Militia, has rendered a distinct service in furthering the interests of and in promoting the security and welfare of the state.

The Medal of Merit may also be awarded to civilians and members of other military services who distinguish themselves as indicated in this section.

SEC. 8. Section 643.1 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

643.1. A commendation ribbon with pendant may be presented to each person who, while an officer, warrant officer, or enlisted member of the National Guard, State Military Reserve, or Naval Militia distinguishes himself or herself while serving in any capacity with the National Guard, State Military Reserve, or Naval Militia by meritorious achievement or meritorious service. The meritorious achievement or meritorious service is less exceptional than that required for the Medal of Merit but shall be accomplished with distinction.

The commendation ribbon with pendant may also be awarded to civilians and members of other military services who distinguish themselves as indicated in this section.

The term "public body" and the plural thereof, as used in this act, shall include only those entities which are specifically enumerated in this section.

(b) The term "bonds" means all instruments evidencing an indebtedness of a public body incurred or to be incurred for any public purpose, and all instruments evidencing the borrowing of money in anticipation of taxes, revenues, or other income of such body, and all instruments payable from revenues or special funds of such public bodies, and all instruments funding or refunding any thereof or any indebtedness.

SEC. 2. All public bodies heretofore organized or existing under, or under color of, any law are hereby declared to have been legally organized and to be legally functioning as such public body. Every such public body shall have all the rights, powers, and privileges, and be subject to all the duties and obligations, of such a public body regularly formed pursuant to law.

SEC. 3. The boundaries of every public body as heretofore established, defined, or recorded, or as heretofore actually shown on maps or plats used by the assessor, are hereby confirmed, validated, and declared legally established.

SEC. 4. All acts and proceedings heretofore taken by any public body or bodies under any law, or under color of any law, for the annexation or inclusion of territory into any such public body or for the annexation of any such public body to any other such public body or for the withdrawal or exclusion of territory from any such public body or for the consolidation, merger, or dissolution of any public bodies are hereby confirmed, validated, and declared legally effective. This shall include all acts and proceedings of the governing board of any such public body and of any person, public officer, board, or agency heretofore done or taken upon the question of the annexation or inclusion or of the withdrawal or exclusion of such territory or the consolidation, merger, or dissolution of such public bodies.

SEC. 5. All acts and proceedings heretofore taken by or on behalf of any public body under any law, or under color of any law, for the authorization, issuance, sale, or exchange of bonds of any such public body for any public purpose are hereby confirmed, validated, and declared legally effective. This shall include all acts and proceedings of the governing board of such public body and of any person, public officer, board, or agency heretofore done or taken upon the question of the authorization, issuance, sale, or exchange of such bonds.

All bonds of any public body heretofore issued shall be, in the form and manner in which issued and delivered, the legal, valid, and binding obligations of the public body. All bonds of any public body heretofore awarded and sold to a purchaser and hereafter issued and delivered in accordance with the contract of sale and other proceedings for the award and sale shall be the legal, valid, and binding obligations of the public body. All bonds of any public body heretofore authorized to be issued by ordinance, resolution, order, or other action adopted or taken by or on behalf of the public body and hereafter issued and delivered in accordance with such authorization shall be the legal, valid, and binding obligations of the public body. All bonds of any public body heretofore authorized to be issued at an election and hereafter issued and delivered in accordance with such authorization shall be the legal, valid, and binding obligations of the public body. Whenever an election has heretofore been called for the purpose of submitting to the voters of any public body the question of issuing bonds for any public purpose, such bonds, if hereafter authorized by the required vote and in accordance with the proceedings heretofore taken, and issued and delivered in accordance with such authorization, shall be the legal, valid, and binding obligations of the public body.

SEC. 6. (a) The foregoing provisions of this act shall operate to supply such legislative authorization as may be necessary to validate any such acts and proceedings heretofore taken which the Legislature could have supplied or provided for in the law under which such acts or proceedings were taken.

(b) The foregoing provisions of this act shall be limited to the validation of acts and proceedings to the extent to which the same can be effectuated under the State and Federal Constitutions.

(c) The foregoing provisions of this act shall not operate to confirm, validate, or legalize any act, proceeding, or other matter the legality of which is being contested or inquired into in any legal proceeding now pending and undetermined or which may be pending and undetermined during the period of 30 days from and after the effective date of this act, and shall not operate to confirm, validate, or legalize any act, proceeding, or other matter which has heretofore been determined in any legal proceeding to be illegal, void, or ineffective.

(d) This act shall not operate to confirm, validate, or legalize a contract between any district and the United States.

SEC. 7. Any action or proceeding contesting the validity of any action or proceeding heretofore taken under any law, or under color of any law, for the formation, organization, or incorporation of any public body, or for any annexation thereto, exclusion therefrom, or other change of boundaries thereof, or for the consolidation, merger, or dissolution of any public bodies, or for the authorization, issuance, sale, or exchange of bonds thereof upon any ground involving an alleged defect or illegality not effectively validated by the prior provisions of this act and not otherwise barred by any statute of limitations or by laches must be commenced within six months of the effective date of this act; otherwise each and all of said matters shall be held to be valid and in every respect legal and incontestable. This section shall not extend the period in which any action may be brought beyond the period in which it would be barred by any presently existing valid statute of limitations.

SEC. 8. Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to render the creation of any city or district, or any change in the boundaries of any city or district, effective for purposes of assessment or taxation unless the statement, together with the map or plat, required to be filed under Sections 54900 to 54904, inclusive, of the Government Code, is filed within the time and substantially in the manner required by said sections.

SEC. 9. As used in this act, the word "now" means the date this act takes effect; the word "heretofore" means any time prior to such effective date; and the word "hereafter" means any time subsequent to such effective date.

SEC. 10. This act may be cited as the First Validating Act of 1982.

SEC. 11. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

To validate the organization, boundaries, acts, proceedings, and bonds of public bodies as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act take immediate effect.

CHAPTER 618

An act to amend and renumber Section 2115 of, and to add Section 2115 to, the Public Utilities Code, relating to public utilities.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2115 of the Public Utilities Code is amended and renumbered to read:

1710. No documents or records of a public utility or person or corporation which purport to be statements of fact shall be admitted into evidence or shall serve as any basis for the testimony of any witness, unless the documents or records have been certified under penalty of perjury by the person preparing or in charge of preparing them as being true and correct. If the person preparing them is dead or has been declared incompetent, any other person having knowledge of such statements of fact may certify the records. If certification pursuant to this section is not possible for any reason, the documents or records shall not be admitted into evidence unless admissible under the Evidence Code.

This section shall not apply to any documents not prepared, directly or indirectly, by, or under the supervision or direction of, the public utility or person or corporation offering the documents into evidence.

SEC. 2. Section 2115 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

2115. Whenever the commission determines that a railroad corporation has violated any order of the commission concerning the adequacy, condition, or safety of the corporation's cars or tracks or any related fixture or appliance, the commission may impose upon the corporation a fine of not exceeding two thousand dollars ($2,000) for each violation or a fine of not exceeding two hundred dollars ($200) for each day that a violation continues uncorrected. The commission may assess interest upon any fine imposed, which shall commence upon the day the payment of the fine is delinquent.

CHAPTER 619

An act to amend Sections 1791 and 1793.02 of the Civil Code, relating to consumer warranties.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1791 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1791. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Consumer goods" means any new product or part thereof that is used or bought for use primarily for personal, family, or household purposes, except for clothing and consumables. "Consumer goods" shall include new and used assistive devices sold at retail.

(b) "Buyer" or "retail buyer" means any individual who buys consumer goods from a person engaged in the business of manufacturing, distributing, or selling such goods at retail. As used in this subdivision, "person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal entity which engages in any such business.

(c) "Clothing" means any wearing apparel, worn for any purpose, including under and outer garments, shoes, and accessories composed primarily of woven material, natural or synthetic yarn, fiber, or leather or similar fabric.

(d) "Consumables" means any product which is intended for consumption by individuals, or use by individuals for purposes of personal care or in the performance of services ordinarily rendered within the household, and which usually is consumed or expended in the course of such consumption or use.

(e) "Distributor" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal relationship which stands between the manufacturer and the retail seller in purchases, consignments, or contracts for sale of consumer goods.

(f) "Independent repair or service facility" or "independent service dealer" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal entity, not an employee or subsidiary of a manufacturer or distributor, which engages in the business of servicing and repairing consumer goods.

(g) "Manufacturer" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal relationship which manufactures, assembles, or produces consumer goods.

(h) "Place of business" means, for the purposes of any retail seller that sells consumer goods by catalog or mail order, the distribution point for such goods.

(i) "Retail seller," "seller," or "retailer" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal relationship which engages in the business of selling consumer goods to retail buyers.

(j) "Return to the retail seller" means, for the purposes of any retail seller that sells consumer goods by catalog or mail order, the retail seller's place of business, as defined in subdivision (h).

(k) "Sale" means (1) the passing of title from the seller to the buyer for a price, or (2) a consignment for sale.

(l) "Service contract" means a contract in writing to perform, over a fixed period of time or for a specified duration, services relating to the maintenance or repair of a consumer product.

(m) "Assistive device" means any instrument, apparatus, or contrivance, including any component or part thereof or accessory thereto, which is used or intended to be used, to assist a physically disabled person in the mitigation or treatment of an injury or disease or to assist or affect or replace the structure or any function of the body of a physically disabled person, except that this term does not include prescriptive lenses and other ophthalmic goods unless they are sold or dispensed to a blind person, as defined in Section 19153 of the Welfare and Institutions Code and unless they are intended to assist the limited vision of the person so disabled.

(n) "Catalogue or similar sale" means a sale in which neither the seller nor any employee or agent of the seller nor any person related to the seller nor any person with a financial interest in the sale participates in the diagnosis of the buyer's condition or in the selection or fitting of the device.

SEC. 2. Section 1793.02 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1793.02. (a) All new and used assistive devices sold at retail in this state shall be accompanied by the retail seller's written warranty which shall contain the following language: "This assistive device is warranted to be specifically fit for the particular needs of you, the buyer. If the device is not specifically fit for your particular needs, it may be returned to the seller within 30 days of the date of actual receipt by you or completion of fitting by the seller, whichever occurs later. If you return the device, the seller will either adjust or replace the device or promptly refund the total amount paid. This warranty does not affect the protections and remedies you have under other laws." In lieu of the words "30 days" the retail seller may specify any longer period.

(b) The language prescribed in subdivision (a) shall appear on the first page of the warranty in at least 10-point bold type. The warranty shall be delivered to the buyer at the time of the sale of the device.

(c) If the buyer returns the device within the period specified in the written warranty, the seller shall, without charge and within a reasonable time, adjust the device or, if appropriate, replace it with a device that is specifically fit for the particular needs of the buyer. If the seller does not adjust or replace the device so that it is specifically fit for the particular needs of the buyer, the seller shall promptly refund to the buyer the total amount paid, the transaction shall be deemed rescinded, and the seller shall promptly return to the buyer all payments and any assistive device or other consideration exchanged as part of the transaction and shall promptly cancel or cause to be cancelled all contracts, instruments, and security agreements executed by the buyer in connection with the sale. When a sale is rescinded under this section, no charge, penalty, or other fee may be imposed in connection with the purchase, fitting, financing, or return of the device.

(d) With respect to the retail sale of an assistive device to an individual, organization, or agency known by the seller to be purchasing for the ultimate user of the device, this section and subdivision (b) of Section 1792.2 shall be construed to require that the device be specifically fit for the particular needs of the ultimate user.

(e) This section and subdivision (b) of Section 1792.2 shall not apply to any of the following sales of assistive devices:

(1) A catalogue or similar sale, as defined in subdivision (n) of Section 1791.

(2) A sale which involves a retail sale price of less than fifteen dollars ($15).

(3) A surgical implant performed by a physician and surgeon, or a restoration or dental prosthesis provided by a dentist.

(f) The rights and remedies of the buyer under this section and subdivision (b) of Section 1792.2 are not subject to waiver under Section 1792.3. The rights and remedies of the buyer under this section and subdivision (b) of Section 1792.2 are cumulative, and shall not be construed to affect the obligations of the retail seller or any other party or to supplant the rights or remedies of the buyer under any other section of this chapter or under any other law or instrument.

(g) Section 1795.5 shall not apply to a sale of used assistive devices, and for the purposes of the Song-Beverly Consumer Warranty Act the buyer of a used assistive device shall have the same rights and remedies as the buyer of a new assistive device.

(h) The language in subdivision (a) shall not constitute an express warranty for purposes of Sections 1793.2 and 1793.3.

CHAPTER 620

An act to amend Section 10144 of, and to repeal Section 10650 of, the Insurance Code, relating to discrimination.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10144 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10144. No insurer issuing, providing, or administering any contract of individual or group insurance providing life, annuity, or disability benefits applied for and issued on or after January 1, 1984, shall refuse to insure, or refuse to continue to insure, or limit the amount, extent, or kind of coverage available to an individual, or charge a different rate for the same coverage solely because of blindness, partial blindness, or a physical or mental impairment, except where the refusal, limitation or rate differential is based on sound actuarial principles or is related to actual and reasonably anticipated experience.

"Blindness or partial blindness" means central visual acuity of not more than 20/200 in the better eye, after correction, or visual acuity greater than 20/200 but with a limitation in the fields of vision so that the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angle no greater than 20 degrees, certified by a licensed physician and surgeon who specializes in diseases of the eye or a licensed optometrist.

"Physical or mental impairment" means any physical, sensory, or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more of that person's major life activities.

SEC. 2. Section 10650 of the Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. This act shall become operative on January 1, 1984.

CHAPTER 621

An act to amend Section 1141.23 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to judicial arbitration.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1141.23 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1141.23. The arbitration award shall be in writing, signed by the arbitrator and filed in the court in which the action is pending. If there is no request for a de novo trial and the award is not vacated, the award shall be entered in the judgment book in the amount of the award. Such award shall have the same force and effect as a judgment in any civil action or proceeding, except that it is not subject to appeal and it may not be attacked or set aside except as provided by Section 473, 1286.2, or Judicial Council rule.

CHAPTER 622

An act to amend Sections 1063.5 and 1063.14 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance guarantee, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1063.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1063.5. Each time an insurer becomes insolvent then, to the extent necessary to secure funds for the association for payment of covered claims of that insolvent insurer and also for payment of reasonable costs of adjusting such claims, the association shall collect premium payments from its member insurers sufficient to discharge its obligations. The association shall allocate its claim payments and costs, incurred or estimated to be incurred, to one or more of the following categories: (a) workers' compensation claims; (b) automobile claims, which shall include: automobile material damage, automobile liability (both personal injury and death and property damage), medical payments and uninsured motorist claims; and (c) claims other than workers' compensation and automobile, as above defined. Separate premium payments shall be required for each category. The premium payments for each category shall be used to pay the claims and costs allocated to such category. The rate of premium charged shall be a uniform percentage of net direct written premium in the preceding calendar year applicable to such category. The rate of premium charges to each member in the appropriate categories shall initially be based on the written premium of each insurer as shown in the latest year's annual financial statement on file with the commissioner. The initial premium shall be adjusted by applying the same rate of premium charge as initially used to each insurer's written premium as shown on the annual statement for the year following the year in which the initial premium charge is made. The difference between the initial premium charge and the adjusted premium charge shall be refunded or charged to each member insurer by the association as soon as practical after the filing of the annual statements of the member insurers with the commissioner for the year on which the adjusted premium is based. "Net direct written premiums" shall mean the amount of gross premiums, less return premiums and policyholder's dividends paid or allowed, received in such calendar year upon business done in this state, other than premiums received for reinsurance. In cases of a dispute as to the amount of any such net direct written premium between the association and one of its members the written decision of the commissioner shall be final. The premium charged to any member insurer for any of the three categories or a category established by the association shall not be more than 1 percent of the net direct premium written in that category in this state by such member insurer; provided that in no event shall the total premium charged a member insurer in one calendar year exceed 1 percent of the net direct premium written by the member insurer in one calendar year.

The association may exempt or defer, in whole or in part, the assessment of any member insurer, if the assessment would cause the member insurer's financial statement to reflect amount of capital or surplus less than the minimum amounts required for a certificate of authority by any jurisdiction in which the member insurer is authorized to transact insurance. However, during the period of deferment, no dividends shall be paid to shareholders or policyholders by the company whose assessment was deferred. Deferred assessments shall be paid when the payment will not reduce capital or surplus below required minimums. These payments shall be refunded to those companies receiving larger assessments by virtue of the deferment, or, in the discretion of any such company, credited against future assessments. Such premium charges shall be recognized in the ratemaking procedures for insurance rates in the same manner that losses are recognized or as otherwise provided in this article. After all covered claims of the insolvent insurer and expenses of administration have been paid, any unused premiums and any reimbursements or claims dividends from the liquidator remaining in any category either shall be refunded by the association to the member insurers who paid the premiums for such category in proportion to their premiums paid or retained by the association and applied to reduce future premium charges in the appropriate category. However, an insurer which ceases to be a member of the association shall have no right to a refund of any premium previously remitted to the association. The commissioner may suspend or revoke the certificate of authority to transact business in this state of a member insurer which fails to pay a premium when due and after demand has been made.

Interest at a rate equal to the current federal reserve discount rate plus 2½ percent per annum shall be added to the premium of any member insurer which fails to submit the premium requested by the association within 30 days after such mailing request. However, in no event shall the interest rate exceed the legal maximum.

SEC. 2. Section 1063.14 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1063.14. (a) The plan of operation adopted pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 1063 shall contain provisions whereby each member insurer is required to recoup over a reasonable length of time a sum reasonably calculated to recoup the assessments paid by the member insurer under this article by way of a surcharge on premiums charged for insurance policies to which this article applies. Amounts recouped shall not be considered premiums for any other purpose, including the computation of gross premium tax or agents' commission.

(b) The amount of any surcharge shall be separately stated on either a billing or policy declaration sent to an insured, except for billings or declarations covering policies of insurance subject to the provisions of Section 660 or 675 which need not separately state a surcharge. The association shall determine the rate of the surcharge and the collection period for each category and these shall be mandatory for all member insurers of the association who write business in those categories. Member insurers who collect surcharges in excess of premiums paid pursuant to Section 1063.5 for an insolvent insurer shall remit the excess to the association as an additional premium within 120 days after the end of the collection period determined by the association. The excess shall be applied to reduce future premium charges for that insurer in the appropriate category.

(c) The plan of operation may permit a member insurer to omit collection of the surcharge from its insureds when the expense of collecting the surcharge would exceed the amount of the surcharge. However, nothing in this section shall relieve the member insurer of its obligation to recoup the amount of surcharge otherwise collectible.

SEC. 3. The provisions of Section 1063.14 of the Insurance Code and the amendments made to Section 1063.1 of the Insurance Code by Chapter 1154 of the Statutes of 1981 shall only be effective with respect to insolvencies occurring on or after January 1, 1982.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Because the provisions of Chapter 1154 of the Statutes of 1981 increase the potential liability of the Guarantee Fund and make substantial changes in its operations, it is necessary that this bill take effect as soon as possible so that the increased liabilities of the Guarantee Fund with respect to insolvencies occurring on or after January 1, 1982, shall be subject to the provisions of this act.

CHAPTER 623

An act to amend Section 53205.3 of the Government Code, relating to public education agencies, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982 Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 53205.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53205.3. School districts and community college districts may join with other school districts or community college districts, or any combination of those districts, in providing for the payment of health and welfare benefits by entering into a pooling arrangement under a joint exercise of powers agreement or on a self-insured or self-funded basis or partly by means of self-insurance or self-funding and partly by means of insurance or service agreements as herein described. Any such arrangement, otherwise valid under this section, as amended by the Statutes of 1982, which was entered into prior to, and is in effect on the effective date of such amendments to this section, is hereby validated and confirmed.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that school districts and community college districts which include more than one county within their boundaries and thus come under the jurisdiction of more than one county superintendent of schools may join with other districts to provide for health and welfare benefits as soon as possible, and so permit the more efficient and orderly operation of health and welfare benefit systems at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 624

An act to amend Sections 11550, 12800, 12803, 12804, 12806, 12808, 12809, 12810, and 12855 of, and to add Sections 12811, 12811.1, and 12811.2 to, the Government Code, to amend Sections 3510, 5000, 6024, 6025, and 6028.2 of the Penal Code, and to amend Sections 1710, 1716, 3150, and 3300 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to the reorganization of the executive branch of the California state government.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11550 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11550. An annual salary of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000) shall be paid to each of the following:

(a) Director of Finance.
(b) Secretary of Business and Transportation Agency.
(c) Secretary of Resources Agency.
(d) Secretary of Health and Welfare Agency.
(e) Secretary of State and Consumer Services Agency.
(f) Director of Industrial Relations.
(g) Commissioner, California Highway Patrol.
(h) Secretary of Youth and Adult Correctional Agency.

SEC. 2. Section 12800 of the Government Code is amended to read:

12800. There are in the state government the following agencies: State and Consumer Services; Business, Transportation and Housing; Health and Welfare; Resources; and Youth and Adult Correctional.

Whenever the term "Agriculture and Services Agency" appears in any law, it means the "State and Consumer Services Agency," and whenever the term "Secretary of Agriculture and Services Agency" appears in any law, it means the "Secretary of State and Consumer Services Agency."

Whenever the term "Business and Transportation Agency" appears in any law, it means the "Business, Transportation and Housing Agency," and whenever the term "Secretary of the Business and Transportation Agency" appears in any law, it means the "Secretary of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency."

SEC. 3. Section 12803 of the Government Code is amended to read:

12803. The Health and Welfare Agency consists of the following departments: Health Services; Mental Health; Developmental Services; Social Services; Alcohol and Drug Abuse; Aging; Employment Development; and Rehabilitation.

The agency also includes the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development and the State Council on Developmental Disabilities.

SEC. 4. Section 12804 of the Government Code is amended to read:

12804. The Agriculture and Services Agency is hereby renamed the State and Consumer Services Agency.

The State and Consumer Services Agency consists of the following: the Department of General Services; the Department of Veterans Affairs; the Department of Consumer Affairs; the Franchise Tax Board; the Public Employees' Retirement System; the State Fire Marshal; the State Teachers' Retirement System; the Department of Fair Employment and Housing; the California Museum of Science and Industry; and the State Building and Standards Commission.

SEC. 5. Section 12806 of the Government Code is amended to read:

12806. (a) The Health and Welfare Agency succeeds to and is vested with all the duties, powers, purposes, responsibilities, and jurisdiction vested in the Human Relations Agency in respect to the various agencies in the Human Relations Agency listed in Section 12803 on the effective date of the 1972 amendment of this section, with the exception of the Office of Atomic Energy Development and Radiation Protection, which, by Section 12803, is renamed the Office of Nuclear Energy and transferred to the Resources Agency and the California Commission on Aging (formerly the Citizens' Advisory Commission on Aging).

The Secretary of the Health and Welfare Agency succeeds to and is vested with all the duties, powers, purposes, responsibilities, and jurisdiction vested in the Administrator of the Human Relations Agency in respect to the various agencies in the Human Relations Agency listed in Section 12803 on the effective date of the 1972 amendment of this section, with the exceptions of the Office of Atomic Energy Development and Radiation Protection and the California Commission on Aging.

(b) Any reference in any law to the Human Relations Agency or to the administrator of that agency with respect to any agency listed in Section 12803 on the effective date of the 1972 amendment of this section, except the Office of the Atomic Energy Development and Radiation Protection or the California Commission on Aging, shall be considered a reference to the Health and Welfare Agency or to the Secretary of the Health and Welfare Agency, as the case may be, unless the context otherwise requires.

SEC. 6. Section 12808 of the Government Code is amended to read:

12808. The Health and Welfare Agency and the Resources Agency may use the unexpended balances of funds available for use by the Human Relations Agency in connection with the functions of the Human Relations Agency that are transferred to or vested in the Health and Welfare Agency or the Resources Agency by Section 12803, 12806, or 12807, as the case may be. Such funds shall be used by the Health and Welfare Agency and the Resources Agency only for the purposes for which they were originally appropriated or otherwise made available to the Human Relations Agency.

SEC. 7. Section 12809 of the Government Code is amended to read:

12809. All officers and employees of the Human Relations Agency who, on the effective date of the 1972 amendment of this section, are serving in the state civil service, other than as temporary employees, and engaged in the performance of a function transferred to or vested in the Health and Welfare Agency or the Resources Agency by Section 12803, 12806, or 12807 shall be transferred to the Health and Welfare Agency or the Resources Agency, as the case may be. The status, positions, and rights of such persons shall not be affected by the transfer, and shall be retained by them as officers and employees of the Health and Welfare Agency or the Resources Agency pursuant to the State Civil Service Act, except as to positions exempt from civil service in the Human Relations Agency.

SEC. 8. Section 12810 of the Government Code is amended to read:

12810. The Health and Welfare Agency and the Resources Agency shall have the possession and control of all records, papers, offices, equipment, supplies, moneys, funds, appropriations, land and other property, real or personal, held for the benefit or use of the Human Relations Agency in the performance of the duties, powers, purposes, responsibilities, and jurisdiction of the Human Relations Agency that are transferred to or vested in the Health and Welfare Agency or the Resources Agency by Section 12803, 12806, or 12807.

SEC. 9. Section 12811 is added to the Government Code, to read:

12811. The Youth and Adult Correctional Agency consists of the Department of Corrections, the Department of the Youth Authority, the Board of Prison Terms, the Youthful Offender Parole Board, the Board of Corrections, the Correctional Industries Commission, the Institutional Review Board, and the Narcotic Addict Evaluation Authority.

SEC. 10. Section 12811.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

12811.1. The Governor, upon recommendation of the Secretary of the Youth and Adult Correctional Agency, may appoint not to exceed two deputies for the secretary.

SEC. 11. Section 12811.2 is added to the Government Code, to read:

12811.2. Any reference in any law in effect on June 30, 1979, to the Health and Welfare Agency or to the secretary of that agency, with respect to the Department of Corrections or the Department of the Youth Authority shall be considered a reference to the Youth and Adult Correctional Agency or to the Secretary of the Youth and Adult Correctional Agency, as the case may be, unless the context otherwise requires.

SEC. 12. Section 12855 of the Government Code is amended to read:

12855. For the purpose of this chapter, "agency" means the State and Consumer Services Agency, the Health and Welfare Agency, or the Resources Agency, or the Youth and Adult Correctional Agency, and "secretary" means the secretary of any such agency. The general powers of the Business and Transportation Agency and its secretary are those specified in Part 4.5 (commencing with Section 13975) of Division 3 of Title 2 of this code.

SEC. 13. Section 3510 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

3510. There is in the Youth and Adult Correctional Agency, the Institutional Review Board which shall be composed of at least seven members representing persons of diverse racial and cultural backgrounds.

SEC. 14. Section 5000 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

5000. There is in the Youth and Adult Correctional Agency the Department of Corrections.

SEC. 15. Section 6024 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

6024. There is in the Youth and Adult Correctional Agency a Board of Corrections.

SEC. 16. Section 6025 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

6025. (a) The Board of Corrections shall be composed of 11 members, one of whom shall be the Secretary of the Youth and Adult Correctional Agency who shall be designated as the chairman, one of whom shall be the Director of Corrections, one of whom shall be the Director of the Youth Authority, and eight of whom shall be appointed by the Governor after consultation with, and with the advice of, the Secretary of the Youth and Adult Correctional Agency, and with the advice and consent of the Senate. There shall be one representative from each of the following categories:

(1) A member of a statewide parole board of this state.
(2) A county sheriff.
(3) A county supervisor or county administrative officer.
(4) A chief probation officer.
(5) An employee of a state correctional facility who is involved in either custody or care and treatment.
(6) An administrator of a local community-based correctional program.
(7) Two public members.

(b) Of the members first appointed by the Governor, two shall be appointed for a term of two years, three for a term of three years, and three for a term of four years. The length of the original term to be served by each such member first appointed shall be determined by lot. Their successors shall serve for a term of three years and until appointment and qualification of their successors, each term to commence on the expiration date of the term of the predecessor. The terms of the two persons last appointed as qualified persons, by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate, under the provisions of this section as it read prior to January 1, 1977, shall expire on that date.

(c) The board shall select a vice chairman from among its members. Six members of the board shall constitute a quorum.

(d) When the Board of Corrections is hearing charges against any member, the individual concerned shall not sit as a member of the board for the period of hearing of charges and the determination of recommendations to the Governor.

(e) If any appointed member is not in attendance for three consecutive meetings the board shall recommend to the Governor that the member be removed and the Governor shall make a new appointment, with the advice and consent of the Senate, for the remainder of the term.

SEC. 17. Section 6028.2 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

6028.2. The Secretary of the Youth and Adult Correctional Agency may furnish for the use of any such commission such facilities, supplies, and personnel as may be available therefor.

SEC. 18. Section 1710 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

1710. There is in the Youth and Adult Correctional Agency a Department of the Youth Authority.

SEC. 19. Section 1716 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

1716. (a) There is in the Youth and Adult Correctional Agency a Youthful Offender Parole Board, which shall be composed of seven members, each of whom shall be appointed by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, for a term of four years and until the appointment and qualification of his or her successor, and who shall devote their entire time to its work.

(b) The individuals who were members of the Youth Authority Board immediately prior to the effective date of this section, other than the individual who was Director of the Department of the Youth Authority and Chairman of the Youth Authority Board, shall continue in their respective terms of office as members of the Youthful Offender Parole Board. The term of the member appointed to the term commencing March 15, 1976 shall expire March 15, 1980. The terms of the two members appointed to the terms commencing March 15, 1977 shall expire March 15, 1981. The terms of the two members appointed to the terms commencing March 15, 1978 shall expire March 15, 1982. The terms of the two members appointed to the terms commencing March 15, 1979 shall expire March 15, 1983. The members shall be eligible for reappointment and shall hold office until the appointment and qualification of their successors, with the term of each new appointee to commence on the expiration date of the term of his or her predecessor.

(c) All appointments to a vacancy occurring by reason of any cause other than the expiration of a term shall be for the unexpired term. Each member shall hold office until the appointment and qualification of his or her successor.

(d) If the Senate, in lieu of failing to confirm, finds that it cannot consider all or any of the appointments to the Youthful Offender Parole Board adequately because the amount of legislative business and the probable duration of the session does not permit, it may adopt a single house resolution by a majority vote of all members elected to the Senate to that effect and requesting the resubmission of the unconfirmed appointment or appointments at a succeeding session of the Legislature, whether regular or extraordinary, convening on or after a date fixed in the resolution. This resolution shall be filed immediately after its adoption in the office of the Secretary of State and the appointee or appointees affected shall serve subject to later confirmation or rejection by the Senate.

SEC. 20. Section 3150 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

3150. (a) There is in the Youth and Adult Correctional Agency a Narcotic Addict Evaluation Authority, hereafter referred to in this article as the "authority." The authority shall be composed of seven members, each of whom shall be appointed by the Governor, for a term of four years and until the appointment and qualification of his successor. Members shall be eligible for reappointment. The chairman of the authority shall be designated by the Governor from time to time. The terms of the members first appointed to the authority shall expire as follows: one on January 15, 1965, one on January 15, 1966, one on January 15, 1967, and one on January 15, 1968. The terms of the three members first appointed to the authority pursuant to amendments to this section enacted at the 1979–80 Regular Session of the Legislature shall expire as follows: one on January 15, 1983, one on January 15, 1984, and one on January 15, 1985. Their successors shall hold office for terms of four years, each term to commence on the expiration date of the term of the predecessor. The Governor shall fill every vacancy for the balance of the unexpired term. Insofar as practicable, persons appointed to the authority shall have a broad background in law, sociology, law enforcement, medicine, or education, and shall have a deep interest in the rehabilitation of narcotic addicts.

(b) Each member of the authority shall devote such time to the duties of his or her office as required for performance of his or her duties and shall be entitled to an annual salary of nine thousand five hundred dollars ($9,500) for attendance upon business of the authority. The chairman shall be entitled to an annual salary of ten thousand dollars ($10,000). In addition, each member shall be allowed actual expenses incurred in the discharge of his duties, including travel expenses.

(c) The authority shall maintain its headquarters at the California Rehabilitation Center and shall be provided with necessary office space, equipment and services from funds appropriated to the California Rehabilitation Center.

(d) The authority shall meet at the center or its branches at such times as may be necessary for a full and complete study of the cases of all patients who are certified by the Director of Corrections to the authority as having recovered from addiction or imminent danger of addiction to such an extent that release in an outpatient status is warranted. Other times and places of meetings may also be fixed by the authority. Where the authority performs its functions by meeting en banc in either public or executive sessions to decide matters of general policy, at least three members shall be present, and no such action shall be valid unless it is concurred in by a majority vote of those present. The authority may meet and transact business in panels. Each authority panel shall consist of at least two members of the authority. Two members of the authority shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business of a panel. No action shall be valid unless concurred in by a majority of the members present.

(e) Members of other similar boards may be assigned to hear cases and make recommendations to the authority. Such recommendations shall be made in accordance with policies established by a majority of the total membership of the authority.

SEC. 21. Section 3300 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

3300. There is hereby established an institution and branches, under the jurisdiction of the Department of Corrections, to be known as the California Rehabilitation Center. Branches may be established in existing institutions of the Department of Corrections or of the Department of the Youth Authority, in halfway houses as described in Section 3153, in such other facilities as may be made available on the grounds of other state institutions, and in city and county correctional facilities where treatment facilities are available. Branches shall not be established on the grounds of such other institutions in any manner which will result in the placement of patients of such institutions into inferior facilities. Branches placed in a facility of the State Department of Mental Health shall have prior approval of the Director of Mental Health, and branches placed in a facility of the State Department of Developmental Services shall have the prior approval of the Director of Developmental Services. The branches in the Department of the Youth Authority shall be established on order of the Secretary of the Youth and Adult Correctional Agency and shall be subject to the administrative direction of the Director of the Youth Authority. Branches placed in city or county facilities shall have prior approval of the legislative body of the city or county.

Persons confined pursuant to this section in branches established in city and county correctional facilities shall be housed separately from the prisoners therein, and shall be entitled to receive treatment substantially equal to that which would be afforded such persons if confined in the main institution of the California Rehabilitation Center.

CHAPTER 625

An act to amend Section 1538.5 of the Penal Code, relating to suppression of evidence, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982 Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1538.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1538.5. (a) A defendant may move for the return of property or to suppress as evidence any tangible or intangible thing obtained as a result of a search or seizure on either of the following grounds:

(1) The search or seizure without a warrant was unreasonable.

(2) The search or seizure with a warrant was unreasonable because (i) the warrant is insufficient on its face; (ii) the property or evidence obtained is not that described in the warrant; (iii) there was not probable cause for the issuance of the warrant; (iv) the method of execution of the warrant violated federal or state constitutional standards; (v) there was any other violation of federal or state constitutional standards.

(b) When consistent with the procedures set forth in this section and subject to the provisions of Sections 170 through 170.6 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the motion should first be heard by the magistrate who issued the search warrant if there is a warrant.

(c) Whenever a search or seizure motion is made in the municipal, justice or superior court as provided in this section, the judge or magistrate shall receive evidence on any issue of fact necessary to determine the motion.

(d) If a search or seizure motion is granted pursuant to the proceedings authorized by this section, the property or evidence shall not be admissible against the movent at any trial or other hearing unless further proceedings authorized by this section, Section 871.5, Section 1238, or Section 1466 are utilized by the people.

(e) If a search or seizure motion is granted at a trial, the property shall be returned upon order of the court unless it is otherwise subject to lawful detention. If the motion is granted at a special hearing, the property shall be returned upon order of the court only if, after the conclusion of any further proceedings authorized by this section or Section 1238 or Section 1466, the property is not subject to lawful detention or if the time for initiating such proceedings has expired, whichever occurs last. If the motion is granted at a preliminary hearing, the property shall be returned upon order of court after 10 days unless the property is otherwise subject to lawful detention or unless, within that time, further proceedings authorized by this section, Section 871.5, or Section 1238 are utilized; if they are utilized, the property shall be returned only if, after the conclusion of such proceedings, the property is no longer subject to lawful detention.

(f) If the property or evidence relates to a felony offense initiated by a complaint, the motion shall be made in the superior court only upon filing of an information, except that the defendant may make the motion at the preliminary hearing in the municipal or justice court but the motion in the municipal or justice court shall be restricted to evidence sought to be introduced by the people at the preliminary hearing.

(g) If the property or evidence relates to a misdemeanor complaint, the motion shall be made in the municipal or justice court before trial and heard prior to trial at a special hearing relating to the validity of the search or seizure. If the property or evidence relates to a misdemeanor filed together with a felony, the procedure provided for a felony in this section and Sections 1238 and 1539 shall be applicable.

(h) If, prior to the trial of a felony or misdemeanor, opportunity for this motion did not exist or the defendant was not aware of the grounds for the motion, the defendant shall have the right to make this motion during the course of trial in the municipal, justice or superior court.

(i) If the property or evidence obtained relates to a felony offense initiated by complaint and the defendant was held to answer at the preliminary hearing, or if the property or evidence relates to a felony offense initiated by indictment, the defendant shall have the right to renew or make the motion in the superior court at a special hearing relating to the validity of the search or seizure which shall be heard prior to trial and at least 10 days after notice to the people unless the people are willing to waive a portion of this time. The defendant shall have the right to litigate the validity of a search or seizure de novo on the basis of the evidence presented at a special hearing. After the special hearing is held in the superior court, any review thereafter desired by the defendant prior to trial shall be by means of an extraordinary writ of mandate or prohibition filed within 30 days after the denial of his motion at the special hearing.

(j) If the property or evidence relates to a felony offense initiated by complaint and the defendant's motion for the return of the property or suppression of the evidence at the preliminary hearing is granted, and if the defendant is not held to answer at the preliminary hearing, the people may file a new complaint or seek an indictment after the preliminary hearing, and the ruling at the prior hearing shall not be binding in any subsequent proceeding. In the alternative, the people may move to reinstate the complaint, or those parts of the complaint for which the defendant was not held to answer, pursuant to Section 871.5. If the property or evidence relates to a felony offense initiated by complaint and the defendant's motion for the return or suppression of the property or evidence at the preliminary hearing is granted, and if the defendant is held to answer at the preliminary hearing, the ruling at the preliminary hearing shall be binding upon the people unless, upon notice to the defendant and the court in which the preliminary hearing was held and upon the filing of an information, the people within 15 days after the preliminary hearing request in the superior court a special hearing, in which case the validity of the search or seizure shall be relitigated de novo on the basis of the evidence presented at the special hearing, and the defendant shall be entitled, as a matter of right, to a continuance of the special hearing for a period of time up to 30 days. If defendant's motion is granted at a special hearing in the superior court, the people, if they have additional evidence relating to the motion and not presented at the special hearing, shall have the right to show good cause at the trial why such evidence was not presented at the special hearing and why the prior ruling at the special hearing should not be binding, or the people may seek appellate review as provided in subdivision (o), unless the court prior to the time such review is sought has dismissed the case pursuant to Section 1385. If the property or evidence seized relates solely to a misdemeanor complaint, and the defendant made a motion for the return of property or the suppression of evidence in the municipal court or justice court prior to trial, both the people and defendant shall have the right to appeal any decision of that court relating to that motion to the superior court of the county in which such inferior court is located, in accordance with the California Rules of Court provisions governing appeals from municipal and justice courts in criminal cases. If the people prosecute review by appeal or writ to decision, or any review thereof, in a felony or misdemeanor case, it shall be binding upon them.

(k) If the defendant's motion to return property or suppress evidence is granted and the case is dismissed pursuant to Section 1385, or the people appeal in a misdemeanor case pursuant to subdivision (j), the defendant shall be released pursuant to Section 1318 if he is in custody and not returned to custody unless the proceedings are resumed in the trial court and he is lawfully ordered by the court to be returned to custody.

If the defendant's motion to return property or suppress evidence is granted and the people file a petition for writ of mandate or prohibition pursuant to subdivision (o) or a notice of intention to file such a petition, the defendant shall be released pursuant to Section 1318 unless (1) he is charged with a capital offense in a case where the proof is evident and the presumption great, or (2) he is charged with a noncapital offense defined in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 187) of Title 8 of Part 1 and the court orders that the defendant be discharged from actual custody upon bail.

(l) If the defendant's motion to return property or suppress evidence is granted, the trial of a criminal case shall be stayed to a specified date pending the termination in the appellate courts of this state of the proceedings provided for in this section, Section 871.5, Section 1238, or Section 1466 and, except upon stipulation of the parties, pending the time for the initiation of such proceedings. Upon the termination of such proceedings, the defendant shall be brought to trial as provided by Section 1382, and subject to the provisions of Section 1382, whenever the people have sought and been denied appellate review pursuant to subdivision (o), the defendant shall be entitled to have the action dismissed if he is not brought to trial within 30 days of the date of the order which is the last denial of the petition. Nothing contained in this subdivision shall prohibit a court, at the same time as it rules upon the search and seizure motion, from dismissing a case pursuant to Section 1385 when such dismissal is upon the court's own motion and is based upon an order at the special hearing granting defendant's motion to return property or suppress evidence. In a misdemeanor case, the defendant shall be entitled to a continuance of up to 30 days if he intends to file a motion to return property or suppress evidence and needs this time to prepare for the special hearing on the motion. In case of an appeal by the defendant in a misdemeanor case from the denial of such motion, he shall be entitled to bail as a matter of right, and, in the discretion of the trial or appellate court, may be released on his own recognizance pursuant to Section 1318.4.

(m) The proceedings provided for in this section, Section 995, Section 1238, and Section 1466 shall constitute the sole and exclusive remedies prior to conviction to test the unreasonableness of a search or seizure where the person making the motion for the return of property or the suppression of evidence is a defendant in a criminal case and the property or thing has been offered or will be offered as evidence against him. A defendant may seek further review of the validity of a search or seizure on appeal from a conviction in a criminal case notwithstanding the fact that such judgment of conviction is predicated upon a plea of guilty. Such review on appeal may be obtained by the defendant providing that at some stage of the proceedings prior to conviction he has moved for the return of property or the suppression of the evidence.

(n) Nothing contained in this section shall prohibit a person from making a motion, otherwise permitted by law, to return property, brought on the ground that the property obtained is protected by the free speech and press provisions of the Federal and State Constitutions. Nothing in this section shall be construed as altering (i) the law of standing to raise the issue of an unreasonable search or seizure; (ii) the law relating to the status of the person conducting the search or seizure; (iii) the law relating to the burden of proof regarding the search or seizure; (iv) the law relating to the reasonableness of a search or seizure regardless of any warrant which may have been utilized; or (v) the procedure and law relating to motions made pursuant to Section 871.5 or 995 or the procedures which may be initiated after the granting or denial of such a motion.

(o) Within 30 days after a defendant's motion is granted at a special hearing in the superior court, the people may file a petition for writ of mandate or prohibition, seeking appellate review of the ruling regarding the search or seizure motion. If the trial of a criminal case is set for a date which is less than 30 days from the granting of a defendant's motion at a special hearing in the superior court, the people, if they have not filed such a petition and wish to preserve their right to file such a petition, shall file in the superior court on or before the trial date or within 10 days after the special hearing, whichever occurs last, a notice of intention to file such a petition and shall serve a copy of the notice upon the defendant.

SEC. 2. The amendment of Section 1538.5 of the Penal Code by this act does not create any new grounds for exclusion of evidence that did not exist prior to this act. The Legislature intends that the changes made by this act are procedural only.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that procedures relating to motions to suppress evidence may be made more uniform and economical as soon as possible, thus contributing to the public safety and improving the criminal justice system, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 626

An act to amend Section 2943 of the Civil Code, relating to secured obligations.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982 Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2943 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2943. As used in this section:

(a) "Beneficiary" means a mortgagee or beneficiary of a deed of trust, or his or her assignees.

(b) "Entitled person" means the trustor or mortgagor, or his or her successor in interest, in the mortgaged or trust property, or any part thereof, any beneficiary under a subordinate deed of trust, any other person having a subordinate lien or encumbrance of record thereon, the escrow holder licensed as an agent pursuant to Division 6 (commencing with Section 17000) of the Financial Code, or the party exempt by virtue of Section 17006 of the Financial Code who is acting as the escrow holder.

A beneficiary, or the beneficiary's authorized agent, shall, on the written demand of an entitled person, or the entitled person's authorized agent, made at any time before, or within two months after, the recording of a notice of default under a mortgage or deed of trust, if the power of sale therein is to be exercised, or otherwise made more than 30 days prior to entry of the decree of foreclosure, prepare and deliver to the person demanding it a written statement showing:

(1) The amount of the unpaid balance of the obligation secured by the mortgage or deed of trust and the interest rate, together with the total amounts, if any, of all overdue installments of either principal or interest, or both.

(2) The amounts of periodic payments, if any.

(3) The date on which the obligation is due in whole or in part.

(4) The date to which real estate taxes and special assessments have been paid to the extent such information is known to the lender.

(5) The amount of hazard insurance in effect and the term and premium of such insurance to the extent such information is known to the lender.

(6) The amount in an account, if any, maintained for the accumulation of funds with which to pay taxes and insurance premiums.

(7) The nature and, if known, the amount of any additional charges, costs, or expenses paid or incurred by the beneficiary which have become a lien on the real property involved.

(8) A certified true, correct, and complete copy of the note and trust deed or mortgage and any subsequent modifications thereto.

The beneficiary may, before delivering a statement, require reasonable proof that the person making the demand is, in fact, an entitled person or an authorized agent of an entitled person, in which event the beneficiary shall not be subject to the penalties of this section until 21 days after receipt of the proof herein provided for. A statement in writing signed by the entitled person appointing an authorized agent when delivered personally to the beneficiary or delivered by registered return receipt mail shall constitute reasonable proof as to the identity of an agent. Similar delivery of a policy of title insurance, preliminary report issued by a title company, original or photographic copy of a grant deed or certified copy of letters testamentary, guardianship, or conservatorship shall constitute reasonable proof as to the identity of a successor in interest, provided the person demanding a statement is named as successor in interest in the document.

Delivery of the statement by the beneficiary, as herein referred to, shall mean depositing or causing to be deposited in the United States mail an envelope, with postage prepaid, containing a copy of the statement, addressed to the person whose name and address is set forth in the demand therefor.

If a beneficiary for a period of 21 days after receipt of such written demand willfully fails to prepare and deliver such statement, the beneficiary is liable to the entitled person for all damages which the entitled person may sustain by reason of such refusal and, whether or not actual damages are sustained, the beneficiary shall forfeit to the entitled person the sum of one hundred dollars ($100). Each such failure to prepare and deliver such a statement, occurring at a time when, pursuant to this section, the beneficiary is required to prepare and deliver the statement, creates a separate cause of action, but a judgment awarding an entitled person such forfeiture, or damages and forfeiture, for any such failure to prepare and deliver a statement bars recovery of such damages and forfeiture for any other failure to prepare and deliver a statement, with respect to the same obligation, in compliance with a demand therefor made within six months before or after the demand as to which the award was made.

If the beneficiary has more than one branch, office, or other place of business, then the demand shall be made to the branch or office at which the payments of the obligation are made, and the statement, unless it specifies otherwise, shall be deemed to apply only to the unpaid balance owing to or payable at the branch or office secured by the mortgage or deed of trust.

The beneficiary may make a charge not to exceed fifteen dollars ($15) for furnishing the required statement, except that no charge shall be made for the statement unless such charge has been specifically provided for in the mortgage or deed of trust, and that this requirement for provision for such charge in the instrument shall not apply to mortgages or deeds of trust insured by the Federal Housing Administrator or guaranteed by the Administrator of Veterans Affairs.

This section applies only to mortgages and deeds of trust executed on or after January 1, 1964.

CHAPTER 627

An act to add Section 1857.7 to the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1857.7 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

1857.7. (a) Any insurer issuing a policy of products liability insurance in this state shall transmit the following information, based on its nationwide products liability insurance writings, to the department each year in the annual report of the insurer:

(1) Premiums written.

(2) Premiums earned.

(3) Unearned premiums.

(4) The dollar amount of claims paid.

(5) The number of outstanding claims.

(6) Net loss reserves for outstanding claims excluding claims incurred but not reported.

(7) Net loss reserves for claims incurred but not reported.

(8) Losses incurred as a percentage of premiums earned.

(9) Net investment gain or loss and other income or gain or loss allocated to products liability lines.

(10) Net income before federal and foreign income taxes.

(11) Expenses incurred including loss adjustment expense, commission and brokerage expense, other acquisition expense and general expense.

(b) The reports provided pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be available for public inspection and shall be retained on file by the department for five years.

(c) The reports required by subdivision (a) shall only contain information for the year for which the reports are being filed.

(d) Any information provided by any insurer to the department pertaining to a specific claim or a products liability insurance policy shall be classified as confidential and shall not be revealed by the department.

CHAPTER 628

An act to amend Section 4532 of the Penal Code, relating to escaped prisoners.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4532 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

4532. (a) Every prisoner arrested and booked for, charged with, or convicted of a misdemeanor, and every person committed under the terms of Section 5654, 5656, or 5677 of the Welfare and Institutions Code as an inebriate, who is confined in any county or city jail or prison or industrial farm or industrial road camp or who is engaged on any county road or other county work or who is in the lawful custody of any officer or person, or who is employed or continuing in his regular educational program or authorized to secure employment or education away from the place of confinement, pursuant to the Work Furlough Rehabilitation Law (Section 1208), or who is authorized for temporary release for family emergencies or for purposes preparatory to his return to the community pursuant to Section 4018.6, and who thereafter escapes or attempts to escape from such county or city jail, prison, industrial farm or industrial road camp or from the custody of the officer or person in charge of him while engaged in or going to or returning from such county work or from the custody of any officer or person in whose lawful custody he is, is guilty of a felony and, if such escape or attempt to escape was not by force or violence, is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for not exceeding one year and one day to be served consecutively, regardless of any prior convictions, or in the county jail not exceeding one year; provided, however, that if such escape or attempt to escape is by force or violence, such person is guilty of a felony and is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for two, four, or six years to be served consecutively, or in the county jail not exceeding one year; provided, that when said second term of imprisonment is to be served in the county jail it shall commence from the time such prisoner would otherwise have been discharged from said jail.

The willful failure of a prisoner, whether convicted of a felony or a misdemeanor, employed or continuing in his regular educational program or authorized to secure employment or education pursuant to the Work Furlough Rehabilitation Law (Section 1208) or authorized for temporary release for family emergencies or for purposes preparatory to his return to the community pursuant to Section 4018.6, to return to the place of confinement not later than the expiration of a period during which, pursuant to that law, he is authorized to be away from such place of confinement, is an escape from such place of confinement punishable as provided in this subdivision.

A conviction of violation of this subdivision, not by force or violence, shall not be charged as a prior felony conviction in any subsequent prosecution for a public offense.

(b) Every prisoner arrested and booked for, charged with, or convicted of a felony who is confined in any county or city jail or prison or industrial farm or industrial road camp or who is engaged on any county road or other county work or who is in the lawful custody of any officer or person, or who is confined pursuant to Section 4011.9, who escapes or attempts to escape from such county or city jail, prison, industrial farm or industrial road camp or from the custody of the officer or person in charge of him while engaged in or going to or returning from such county work or from the custody of any officer or person in whose lawful custody he is, or from such confinement pursuant to Section 4011.9, is guilty of a felony and, if such escape or attempt to escape was not by force or violence, is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years to be served consecutively, or in the county jail not exceeding one year; provided, that if such escape or attempt to escape is by force or violence, such person is guilty of a felony and is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for two, four, or six years to be served consecutively, or in the county jail not exceeding one year; provided that when such second term of imprisonment is to be served in the county jail it shall commence from the time such prisoner would otherwise have been discharged from such jail.

(c) Except in unusual cases where the interests of justice would best be served if the person is granted probation, probation shall not be granted to any person who is convicted of a felony offense under this section in that he or she escaped or attempted to escape from a secure main jail facility, from a court building or while being transported between the court building and the jail facility. In any case in which a person is convicted, of such an offense designated as a misdemeanor, he or she shall be confined in the county jail for not less than 90 days nor more than one year except in unusual cases where the interests of justice would best be served by the granting of probation. For the purposes of this subdivision, "main jail facility" is the facility used for the detention of persons pending arraignment, after arraignment, during trial and upon sentence or commitment. Such facility shall not include an industrial farm, industrial road camp, work furlough facility, or any other nonsecure facility used primarily for sentenced prisoners. As used in this subdivision "secure" means that the facility contains an outer perimeter characterized by the use of physically restricting construction, hardware, and procedures designed to eliminate ingress and egress from the facility except through a closely supervised gate or doorway.

If the court grants probation under this subdivision, it shall specify the reason or reasons for such order on the court record.

Any sentence imposed under this subdivision shall be served consecutive to any other sentence in effect or pending.

SEC. 2. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 629

An act to add Section 53961 to the Government Code, relating to cemetery districts.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 53961 is added to the Government Code, to read:

53961. Notwithstanding Section 53952, the governing board of a public cemetery district organized pursuant to the public cemetery district laws in Part 4 (commencing with Section 8890) of Division 8 of the Health and Safety Code, may by resolution provide for the establishment of a revolving fund in an amount not to exceed 110 percent of one-twelfth of the district's adopted budget for that fiscal year. This fund may be used to pay any authorized expenditures of the district.

SEC. 2. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the Legislature finds and declares that there are savings as well as costs in this act which, in the aggregate, do not result in additional net costs.

CHAPTER 630

An act to add Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 13400) to Part 3 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, relating to state government.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 13400) is added to Part 3 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 5. THE FINANCIAL INTEGRITY AND STATE MANAGER'S ACCOUNTABILITY ACT OF 1983

13400. This act shall be known and may be cited as the Financial Integrity and State Manager's Accountability Act of 1983.

13401. (a) The Legislature hereby finds that:

(1) Fraud and errors in state programs are more likely to occur from a lack of effective systems of internal accounting and administrative control in the state agencies.

(2) Effective systems of internal accounting and administrative control provide the basic foundation upon which a structure of public accountability must be built.

(3) Effective systems of internal accounting and administrative control are necessary to assure that state assets and funds are adequately safeguarded, as well as to produce reliable financial information for the agency.

(4) Systems of internal accounting and administrative control are necessarily dynamic and must be continuously evaluated and, where necessary, improved.

(5) Reports regarding the adequacy of the systems of internal accounting and administrative control of each state agency are necessary to enable the executive branch, the Legislature, and the public to evaluate the agency's performance of its public responsibilities and accountability.

(b) The Legislature declares it to be the policy of the State of California that:

(1) Each state agency must maintain effective systems of internal accounting and administrative control as an integral part of its management practices.

(2) The systems of internal accounting and administrative control of each state agency shall be evaluated on an ongoing basis and, when detected, weaknesses must be promptly corrected.

(3) All levels of management of the state agencies must be involved in assessing and strengthening the systems of internal accounting and administrative control to minimize fraud, errors, abuse, and waste of government funds.

13402. State agency heads are responsible for the establishment and maintenance of a system or systems of internal accounting and administrative control within their agencies. This responsibility includes documenting the system, communicating system requirements to employees, and assuring that the system is functioning as prescribed and is modified, as appropriate, for changes in conditions.

13403. (a) Internal accounting and administrative controls are the methods through which reasonable assurances can be given that measures adopted by state agency heads to safeguard assets, check the accuracy and reliability of accounting data, promote operational efficiency, and encourage adherence to prescribed managerial policies are being followed. The elements of a satisfactory system of internal accounting and administrative control, shall include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) A plan of organization that provides segregation of duties appropriate for proper safeguarding of state agency assets.

(2) A plan that limits access to state agency assets to authorized personnel who require these assets in the performance of their assigned duties.

(3) A system of authorization and recordkeeping procedures adequate to provide effective accounting control over assets, liabilities, revenues, and expenditures.

(4) An established system of practices to be followed in performance of duties and functions in each of the state agencies.

(5) Personnel of a quality commensurate with their responsibilities.

(6) An effective system of internal review.

(b) State agency heads shall follow these standards of internal accounting and administrative control in carrying out the requirements of Section 13402.

13404. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Governor" means the Governor of California.

(b) "Controller" means the Controller of California.

(c) "Director" means the Director of Finance.

13405. (a) To ensure that the requirements of this section are fully complied with, the head of each agency which the director determines is covered by this section shall prepare and submit a report on the adequacy of the agency's systems of internal accounting and administrative control by December 31, 1983, and by December 31 following the end of each odd-numbered fiscal year thereafter.

(b) The report, including the state agency's response to report recommendations, shall be signed by the head of the agency and addressed to the agency secretary or the director of finance for agencies without an agency secretary. Copies of the reports shall be forwarded to the Legislature, the Auditor General, the Governor, and the Director of Finance. Copies of these reports shall also be forwarded to the State Library where they shall be available for public inspection.

(c) By January 1, 1983, the director, in consultation with the Auditor General and the Controller, shall establish a system of reporting and a general framework to guide the agencies in performing evaluations on their systems of internal accounting and administrative control. The director, in consultation with the Auditor General and the Controller, may modify the format for the report or the framework for conducting the evaluations from time to time as deemed necessary.

(d) Any material inadequacy or material weakness in an agency's systems of internal accounting and administrative control which prevents the head of the agency from stating that the agency's systems of internal accounting and administrative control provided reasonable assurances that each of the objectives specified above was achieved, shall be identified and the plans and schedule for correcting any such inadequacy described in detail.

13406. (a) The head of the internal audit staff of a state agency or a division, as specified by the director, or, in the event there is no internal audit function, a professional accountant, if available on the staff, designated as the internal control person by the head of the state agency or a division, shall receive and investigate any allegation that an employee of the agency provided false or misleading information in connection with the evaluation of the agency's systems of internal accounting and administrative control or in connection with the preparation of the annual report on the systems of internal accounting and administrative control.

(b) If, in connection with any investigation under subdivision (a), the head of the internal audit staff or the designated internal control person determines that there is reasonable cause to believe that false or misleading information was provided, he or she shall report in writing that determination to the head of the agency or the division.

(c) The head of the agency or division shall review any matter referred to him under subdivision (b), shall take such disciplinary or corrective action as he deems necessary, and shall forward a copy of the report, indicating therein the action taken, to the director within 90 days of the date of the report.

13407. Because sound internal controls and the monitoring of those internal controls significantly inhibits waste of resources and thereby creates savings, the director and agencies and divisions shall carry out the provisions of this chapter by using existing resources.

CHAPTER 631

An act to amend Section 1203.07 of the Penal Code, relating to drugs, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1203.07 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.07. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1203, probation shall not be granted to, nor shall the execution or imposition of sentence be suspended for, any of the following persons:

(1) Any person who is convicted of violating Section 11351 of the Health and Safety Code by possessing for sale one-half ounce or more of a substance containing heroin.

(2) Any person who is convicted of violating Section 11352 of the Health and Safety Code by selling or offering to sell one-half ounce or more of a substance containing heroin.

(3) Any person convicted of violating Section 11351 of the Health and Safety Code by possessing heroin for sale or convicted of violating Section 11352 of the Health and Safety Code by selling or offering to sell heroin, and who has one or more prior convictions for violating Section 11351 or Section 11352 of the Health and Safety Code.

(4) Any person who is convicted of violating Section 11378.5 of the Health and Safety Code by possessing for sale one-half ounce or more of a liquid or crystalline substance containing phencyclidine.

(5) Any person who is convicted of violating Section 11379.5 of the Health and Safety Code by selling or offering to sell phencyclidine or by manufacturing phencyclidine.

(6) Any person who is convicted of violating Section 11380.5 of the Health and Safety Code by the use of a minor as an agent or who solicits, induces, encourages, or intimidates a minor with the intent that the minor shall violate the provisions of Section 11378.5 or 11379.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

(7) Any person who is convicted of violating subdivision (b) of Section 11383 of the Health and Safety Code by possessing piperidine and cyclohexanone with intent to manufacture.

(b) The existence of any fact which would make a person ineligible for probation under subdivision (a) shall be alleged in the information or indictment, and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

SEC. 2. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to more effectively control the use of the dangerous drug phencyclidine, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 632

An act to amend Section 12403.7 of the Penal Code, relating to tear gas.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12403.7 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12403.7. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any person may purchase, possess or use tear gas and tear gas weapons for the projection or release of tear gas if such tear gas and tear gas weapons are approved by the Department of Justice and are used solely for self-defense purposes, subject to the following requirements:

(1) No person convicted of a felony or any crime involving an assault under the laws of the United States, of the State of California, or any other state, government, or country or convicted of misuse of tear gas under paragraph (8) shall purchase, possess, or use tear gas or tear gas weapons.

(2) No person who is addicted to any narcotic drug shall purchase, possess, or use tear gas or tear gas weapons.

(3) No person shall sell or furnish any tear gas or tear gas weapon to a minor.

(4) No person who is a minor shall purchase, possess, or use tear gas or tear gas weapons.

(5) (A) No person shall purchase, possess or use any tear gas weapon which expels a projectile, or which expels the tear gas by any method other than an aerosol spray, or which is of a type, or size of container, other than authorized by regulation of the Department of Justice.

(B) The department, with the cooperation of the State Department of Health Services, shall develop standards and promulgate regulations regarding the type of tear gas and tear gas weapons which may lawfully be purchased, possessed, and used pursuant to this section.

(C) The regulations of the department shall include a requirement that every tear gas container and tear gas weapon which may be lawfully purchased, possessed, and used pursuant to this section have a label which states: "WARNING: The use of this substance or device for any purpose other than self-defense is a felony under the law. The contents are dangerous—use with care."

(D) The regulations of the department shall include a requirement that after January 1, 1984, every tear gas container and tear gas weapon which may be lawfully purchased, possessed, and used pursuant to this section have a label which discloses the date on which the useful life of the tear gas weapon expires.

(6) (A) No person shall purchase, possess, or use any tear gas or any tear gas weapon who has not completed a course certified by the Department of Justice in the use of tear gas and tear gas weapons pursuant to which a card is issued identifying the person who has completed such a course. Such a course shall be taken under the auspices of any institution approved by the Department of Justice to offer tear gas training. Such a training institution is authorized to charge a fee covering the actual cost of such training. The requirements of this paragraph shall not apply to a person who is a retired peace officer, as peace officer is defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2, if the person prior to retirement had satisfactorily completed a course of instruction approved by the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training in the use of tear gas and tear gas weapons.

(B) The Department of Justice, in cooperation with the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training, shall develop standards for a course in the use of tear gas and tear gas weapons.

(7) If the purchase of tear gas or any tear gas weapon is denied, the vendor denying such purchase shall inform the person in writing of the reason for such denial. The valid identification card specified in paragraph (6) shall be carried on the person when carrying tear gas or tear gas weapons and shall be presented for examination to the vendor from whom any tear gas or tear gas weapons are purchased. The sale of tear gas or tear gas weapons by a vendor to a person who fails to present a valid identification card specified in paragraph (6) is a violation of Section 12420.

(8) Any person who has a valid identification card as specified in paragraph (6), who uses tear gas or tear gas weapons except in self-defense or as authorized for training purposes by the department is guilty of a public offense and is punishable by imprisonment in a state prison for 16 months, or two or three years or in a county jail not to exceed one year or by fine not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(b) Such identification card as specified in paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) shall be valid so long as the person meets the requirements in subdivision (a), and shall be nontransferable.

All forms, cards, and other documentation necessary to administer the provisions of this section shall be uniform throughout the state as prescribed by the Department of Justice.

The Department of Justice may adopt and promulgate such regulations concerning the purchase and disposal of self-defense tear gas weapons, the standards for tear gas training courses, and the approval of facilities at which such training shall occur as are necessary to insure the safe use and possession of such tear gas weapons.

(c) Any person who successfully completes training under this section for which the course and training facility must be approved by the Department of Justice is entitled to receive a certificate of completion issued by the Department of Justice. A fee shall be charged by the Department of Justice for the certificate. The fee shall be no more than is necessary to reimburse the Department of Justice for the costs of approving the courses, the facilities, maintaining control of the quality of the courses, and issuing the certificate of completion. The Department of Justice may provide by regulation the manner in which the fee is collected and paid.

CHAPTER 633

An act to amend Section 1597.62 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to community care facilities.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1597.62 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1597.62. (a) A pilot project of registration of family day care homes for children is hereby continued. This project shall be established in three counties consisting of one urban, one suburban, and one rural county as provided in subdivision (e). Registration shall be limited to such facilities, which care for six or fewer children. The intent of this project is to determine whether a simplified registration procedure can expand and improve availability of care while substantial compliance with health and safety regulations is maintained. The project shall terminate on January 1, 1984.

(b) The department shall develop simplified forms for collecting information from prospective registrants. Such forms shall request from the registrant the following information:

(1) Name.
(2) Age and sex.
(3) Address.
(4) Telephone number.
(5) Age and number of children the registrant expects to care for.
(6) Size of home.
(7) Outdoor space available.
(8) Records maintained on children in care.
(9) Provisions for meals and snacks.
(10) Fingerprint application.
(11) Evidence of negative tuberculosis test.
(12) A statement signed under penalty of perjury, from the registrant and every other adult living at the same location, that he or she has never been convicted of a crime other than a minor traffic violation involving a fine of fifty dollars ($50), or less.
(13) A statement, signed under penalty of perjury, from the registrant that fire safety, poison control, first aid procedures, disaster and emergency plans, and swimming pool safety are appropriate and in substantial conformity with regulations adopted by the department. The department shall provide a copy of the appropriate sections of health and safety regulations, adopted by the department, to the registrant. Completion of registration, as specified in this section, shall be sufficient for the continued operation of a day care facility for children.

(c) If, after registration by the provider, it is determined that the registrant is not in substantial compliance with regulations adopted by the department for licensed family day care, the department may proceed as provided in Section 1597.61.

(d) The department shall institute a system of random visits to 10 percent of the registered homes during the pilot registration program, with appropriate reporting on the extent to which the system is working satisfactorily.

(e) The department shall develop procedures to be followed in the event of complaints about the home, including procedures for visits, procedures to obtain corrections of unsafe conditions, procedures for suspension and revocation of registrations and licenses, and procedures to invoke criminal sanctions against operators who fail to correct unsafe conditions.

(f) The department shall select the counties to be chosen for the pilot project in the following manner:

(1) It shall confirm the existence of an information and referral system in the county with the capability of providing information to parents and prospective operators about the system.

(2) It shall make certain that the counties have procedures for ensuring that current licenses can be maintained upon appropriate applicant recertification that requirements are met.

(3) It shall make certain that procedures will be established to ensure that current licenses can be maintained upon appropriate applicant recertification that requirements are met.

(4) The county shall demonstrate its willingness to operate such a program.

(g) The department shall develop, with local information and referral offices, procedures for informing parents of their selection and complaint responsibilities under registration systems.

(h) The pilot registration program shall be implemented by counties which maintain contracts with the state for family day care licensing. Those funds normally allocated to such counties for their licensing programs shall be allocated in full for registration, except as otherwise provided for in Section 8 of Chapter 1063 of the Statutes of 1979. Such funds will cover the costs of administering the pilot registration program, and the costs of public education, followup on parent complaints, random visits, and other program elements.

(i) The board of supervisors shall establish a voluntary advisory committee to advise on the development and implementation of the pilot registration program. It shall consist of three parent consumers of family day care services, three providers of family day care who represent at least two different associations where applicable, two representatives of resource and referral agencies, and one representative of the general public.

(j) The Department of Finance shall provide an evaluation of the registration program provided by this section to determine the impact of the pilot registration program in the following areas:

(1) The extent to which such program has expanded the amount of family day care available.

(2) The extent to which such program has encouraged the registration of unlicensed care providers.

(3) The impact such program has had on state and local administrative costs.

(4) An analysis of the extent and types of complaints which occur under the registration system with a comparison of the extent and types of complaints under current licensing procedures.

(k) The evaluation required by subdivision (g) shall be submitted to the Legislature on or before March 1, 1983.

(l) During the existence of the pilot registration program, for the purposes of this chapter, "licensee" includes a registrant.

CHAPTER 634

An act to amend Section 33105 of, and to add Section 33204.5 to, the Public Resources Code, relating to the Santa Monica Mountains Conservancy.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 33105 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

33105. "Zone" means the Santa Monica Mountains Zone, which includes that part of the land area of the greater Los Angeles metropolitan region, landward of the Pacific Coast Highway (State Highway Route 1) bounded by Calleguas Creek, thence following Calleguas Creek northward to its intersection with the corporate boundary of Camarillo, thence following the southern boundary of the City of Camarillo eastward until it intersects the Ventura Freeway (State Highway Route 101), thence following the Ventura Freeway eastward to a point of intersection with the western boundary of the Malibu Creek Watershed. The northern boundary continues thence along the boundary of the Watershed to its intersection again with the Ventura Freeway on the east; thence eastward along this freeway to its intersection with the corporate boundary of the City of Los Angeles, thence continuing on a line drawn one-quarter of a mile south of the Ventura Freeway to its intersection with Ventura Boulevard and continuing on a line one-quarter mile south from Ventura Boulevard eastward to its intersection with Sepulveda Boulevard; thence continuing eastward along Valley Vista Boulevard to its intersection with Dixie Canyon Avenue and from this point continuing eastward on a line one-quarter mile south of Ventura Boulevard to its intersection with a linear projection of Lankershim Boulevard and thence northeasterly on this projection and continuing on Lankershim Boulevard to its intersection with Cahuenga Boulevard, thence east along Cahuenga Boulevard to its intersection with a linear projection of Barham Boulevard, and hence northeasterly along such projection and continuing upon Barham Boulevard to its intersection with the Los Angeles River, and eastward along the south bank of the Los Angeles River to its intersection with the boundary of Griffith Park, including Griffith Park, and thence following a direct line drawn southwest from the southernmost boundary point of Griffith Park to the intersection of Sunset Boulevard with the corporate boundary of the City of Los Angeles near the intersection of Sunset Boulevard and Marmount Lane, thence continuing westward following the Los Angeles corporate boundary to its intersection with the boundary of the City of Beverly Hills, thence following the northern boundary of the City of Beverly Hills until it returns to Sunset Boulevard, thence following Sunset Boulevard westward to its point of intersection with the Pacific Coast Highway (State Highway Route 1).

The zone shall also include Elysian Park and El Pueblo de Los Angeles State Historic Park and, for purposes of providing a recreational trail corridor, it shall also include hiking and equestrian trail connections and accessways between Griffith Park, Elysian Park, and El Pueblo de Los Angeles State Historic Park.

SEC. 2. Section 33204.5 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

33204.5. (a) The conservancy shall conduct a study and implement a program to provide recreational access from downtown Los Angeles and the inner city to the zone in order to provide recreational opportunities for all income and ethnic groups wishing to enjoy the Santa Monica Mountains. In undertaking the study, the conservancy shall cooperate with the National Park Service, the El Pueblo de Los Angeles State Historic Park Advisory Committee, the Department of Parks and Recreation, and the City of Los Angeles.

(b) The executive director of the conservancy shall file by June 30, 1983, with the Secretary of State and the City Council of the City of Los Angeles a map showing a feasible recreational trail corridor between El Pueblo de Los Angeles State Historic Park and Griffith Park.

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature that the study referred to in Section 2 shall be undertaken within existing budgetary limitations, that the conservancy shall solicit the volunteer assistance of community organizations and groups, and that the conservancy seek in-kind matching contributions from the City of Los Angeles in preparing the study.

CHAPTER 635

An act to amend Section 26708 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 26708 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

26708. (a) (1) No person shall drive any motor vehicle with any object or material placed, displayed, installed, affixed, or applied upon the windshield or side or rear windows.

(2) No person shall drive any motor vehicle with any object or material placed, displayed, installed, affixed, or applied in or upon the vehicle which obstructs or reduces the driver's clear view through the windshield or side windows.

(b) This section shall not apply to:

(1) Rearview mirrors.

(2) Adjustable nontransparent sunvisors which are mounted forward of the side windows and are not attached to the glass.

(3) Signs, stickers, or other materials which are displayed in a 7-inch square in the lower corner of the windshield farthest removed from the driver, signs, stickers, or other materials which are displayed in a 7-inch square in the lower corner of the rear window farthest removed from the driver, or signs, stickers, or other materials which are displayed in a 5-inch square in the lower corner of the windshield nearest the driver.

(4) Side windows which are to the rear of the driver.

(5) Direction, destination, or termini signs upon a passenger common carrier motor vehicle, providing such signs do not interfere with the driver's clear view of approaching traffic.

(6) Rear window wiper motor.

(7) Rear trunk lid handle or hinges.

(8) The rear window or windows, when the motor vehicle is equipped with outside mirrors on both the left- and right-hand sides of the vehicle that are so located as to reflect to the driver a view of the highway through each mirror for a distance of at least 200 feet to the rear of the vehicle.

(9) A clear, transparent lens affixed to the side window opposite the driver on a vehicle greater than 80 inches in width and which occupies an area not exceeding 50 square inches of the lowest corner toward the rear of that window and which provides the driver with a wide-angle view through the lens.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), transparent material may be installed, affixed, or applied to the topmost portion of the windshield if:

(1) The bottom edge of the material is at least 29 inches above the undepressed driver's seat when measured from a point 5 inches in front of the bottom of the backrest with the driver's seat in its rearmost and lowermost position with the vehicle on a level surface.

(2) The material is not red or amber in color.

(3) There is no opaque lettering on the material and any other lettering does not affect primary colors or distort vision through the windshield.

(4) The material does not reflect sunlight or headlight glare into the eyes of occupants of oncoming or following vehicles to any greater extent than the windshield without the material.

CHAPTER 636

An act to amend Section 5453 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to mental health.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5453 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5453. The State Director of Mental Health shall use the following as criteria in determining the eligibility of each applicant:

(a) Facilities:

(1) Settings, whether residential or day, shall be as close to a normal home environment as possible without sacrificing client safety or care.

(2) Residential treatment centers shall be relatively small, preferably 15 beds or less, but in any case with the appearance of a noninstitutional setting.

(3) The individual elements of the system shall, where possible, be in separate facilities, and not part of one large facility attempting to serve an entire range of clients.

(b) Staffing patterns:

(1) Staffing patterns shall reflect, to the maximum extent feasible, at all levels, the cultural, linguistic, ethnic, sexual and other social characteristics of the community the facility serves.

(2) The programs shall be designed to use appropriate multidisciplinary professional consultation and staff to meet the specific diagnostic and treatment needs of the clients.

(3) Programs shall use paraprofessionals and persons who have been consumers of mental health services where appropriate.

(c) Programs:

(1) The programs shall, to the maximum extent feasible, be designed so as to reduce the dependence on psychiatric medications as a primary treatment tool. Programs in which prescriptions for medication are a component of the program shall be subject to the medications-monitoring provisions of subdivision (c) of Section 5624. Programs in which prescriptions for medication are not a component of the program shall be subject to the provisions of evaluation developed by the State Department of Mental Health pursuant to Section 5460.

(2) The programs shall have a rehabilitation focus which encourages the client to develop the skills to become self-sufficient and capable of increasing levels of independent functioning. Where appropriate, they shall include prevocational and vocational programs.

(3) The program shall encourage the participation of the clients in the daily operation of the setting in development of treatment and rehabilitation planning and evaluation.

(4) Participation in any element of the system shall not preclude the involvement of clients in individual therapy. Individual therapists of clients shall, where possible, be directly involved in the development and implementation of a treatment plan, including medication and day program decisions.

(d) Coordination:

The programs shall demonstrate specific linkages with one another, and with the general treatment and social service system, as a whole. These connections should not be limited to the mental health system, but should include, whenever possible, community resources utilized by the general population.

CHAPTER 637

An act to amend Section 1387 of the Penal Code, relating to dismissal of prosecutions.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1387 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1387. An order terminating an action pursuant to this chapter, or Section 859b, 861, 871, or 995, is a bar to any other prosecution for the same offense if it is a felony or it is a misdemeanor charged together with a felony and the action has been previously terminated pursuant to this chapter, or Section 859b, 861, 871, or 995, or if it is a misdemeanor not charged together with a felony, except in those felony cases, or those cases where a misdemeanor is charged with a felony, where subsequent to the dismissal of the felony or misdemeanor the judge or magistrate finds that substantial new evidence has been discovered by the prosecution which would not have been known through the exercise of due diligence at or prior to the time of termination of the action or that the termination of the action was the result of the direct intimidation of a material witness, as shown by a preponderance of the evidence.

However, if the previous termination was pursuant to Section 859b, 861, 871, or 995, the subsequent order terminating an action is not a bar to prosecution if either:

(a) Good cause is shown why the preliminary examination was not held within 60 days from the date of arraignment or plea.

(b) The motion pursuant to Section 995 was granted because of (1) present insanity of the defendant or (2) a lack of counsel after the defendant elected to represent himself or herself rather than being represented by appointed counsel.

CHAPTER 638

An act to amend Section 21002 of, and to add Section 21258 to, the Public Utilities Code, relating to aviation.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 21002 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

21002. The purpose of this part is to further and protect the public interest in aeronautics and aeronautical progress by the following means:

(a) Encouraging the development of private flying and the general use of air transportation.

(b) Fostering and promoting safety in aeronautics.

(c) Effecting uniformity of the laws and regulations relating to aeronautics consistent with federal aeronautics laws and regulations.

(d) Granting to a state agency powers, and imposing upon it duties, so that the state may properly perform its functions relative to aeronautics and effectively exercise its jurisdiction over persons and property, assist in the development of a statewide system of airports, encourage the flow of private capital into aviation facilities, and cooperate with and assist political subdivisions and others engaged in aeronautics in the development and encouragement of aeronautics.

(e) Establishing only those regulations which are essential and clearly within the scope of the authority granted by the Legislature, in order that persons may engage in every phase of aeronautics with the least possible restriction consistent with the safety and the rights of others.

(f) Providing for cooperation with the federal authorities in the development of a national system of civil aviation and for coordination of the aeronautical activities of those authorities and the authorities of this state.

(g) Assuring that persons residing in the vicinity of airports are protected to the greatest possible extent against intrusions by unreasonable levels of aircraft noise.

(h) Fostering and promoting the development of a stable and efficient regional air carrier system to provide access for small and rural communities to the national air transportation system consistent with federal policies favoring deregulation.

SEC. 2. Section 21258 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

21258. The department shall represent the state and local agencies before the Civil Aeronautics Board and other federal agencies in all matters related to the Airline Deregulation Act of 1978 (P.L. 95-504, as amended) and the essential air service program created by that act. The department shall assist and cooperate with federal, state, and local agencies and private entities in the development of a stable and efficient regional air carrier system.

CHAPTER 639

An act to amend Section 41362 of, to amend and renumber the heading of Article 10 (commencing with Section 41551) and Article 11 (commencing with Section 41581) of Chapter 4 of Division 16 of, to add Article 4 (commencing with Section 41421) and Article 5 (commencing with Section 41441) to Chapter 4 of Division 16 of, and to repeal Article 4 (commencing with Section 41391), Article 5 (commencing with Section 41421), Article 6 (commencing with Section 41451), Article 7 (commencing with Section 41471), Article 8 (commencing with Section 41501), and Article 9 (commencing with Section 41521) of Chapter 4 of Division 16 of, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to olives.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 41362 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

41362. In addition to the standards and requirements which are prescribed by Section 41361, the standard of quality, condition, and fill of container and requirements for marking of canned fruits and

Article 7. Abatement

SEC. 12. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 640

An act to amend Section 4002 of the Penal Code, relating to jails.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4002 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

4002. Persons committed on criminal process and detained for trial, persons convicted and under sentence, and persons committed upon civil process, shall not be kept or put in the same room, nor shall male and female prisoners, except husband and wife, sleep, dress or undress, bathe, or perform eliminatory functions in the same room. However, persons committed on criminal process and detained for trial may be kept or put in the same room with persons convicted and under sentence for the purpose of participating in supervised activities and for the purpose of housing, provided, that the housing occurs as a result of a classification procedure which is based upon consideration of criminal sophistication, seriousness of crime charged, presence or absence of assaultive behavior, age, and other criteria that will provide for the safety of the prisoners and staff. Nothing in this section shall be construed to impose any requirement upon a county to confine male and female prisoners in the same or an adjoining facility or impose any duty upon a county to establish or maintain programs which involve the joint participation of male and female prisoners.

CHAPTER 641

An act to amend Sections 58845, 58937, 59735, 59947, 64631, and 64696 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to agriculture, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 58845 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

58845. The director may authorize an advisory board to do all of the following:

(a) Enter into contracts or agreements.

(b) Employ necessary personnel, including attorneys engaged in the private practice of the law, and fix their compensation and terms of employment.

(c) Incur such expenses, to be paid from moneys which are collected as provided in Article 10 (commencing with Section 58921), as the director may deem necessary and proper to enable the advisory board properly to perform its duties as authorized by this chapter.

(d) Receive, invest, and disburse funds pursuant to the provisions of Article 10 (commencing with Section 58921).

SEC. 2. Section 58937 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

58937. (a) Any money which is collected by the director pursuant to this chapter shall be deposited in a bank or other depository which is approved by the Director of Finance, allocated to each marketing order under which it is collected. Except as provided in Section 58941, these funds shall be disbursed by the director or the advisory board only for the necessary expenses which are incurred by the advisory board and which are approved by the director with respect to each marketing order. Allowable expenses include expenses generated by the auditing requirement imposed by subdivision (b).

Funds so collected shall be deposited and disbursed in conformity with appropriate rules and regulations which are prescribed by the director. The expenditure of such funds is exempt from the provisions of Section 925.6 of the Government Code.

(b) All such expenditures by the director shall be audited at least once every two years by one of the following means:

(1) By contract with a certified public accountant.

(2) By contract with a public accountant holding a valid permit issued by the State Board of Accountancy.

(3) By contract with a public accounting firm.

(4) By agreement with the Department of Finance.

A copy of the audit shall be delivered within 30 days after the completion of the audit to the Governor, the director, and the Controller.

SEC. 3. Section 59735 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

59735. The marketing program committee, with the approval of the director, may do all of the following:

(a) Appoint subcommittees in any producing areas within the proration zone to facilitate the carrying out of the purposes of this chapter.

(b) Collaborate and cooperate with any agency or organization with similar purposes, whether of this state, any other state, or of the United States, in the formulation and execution of any marketing program or marketing order which has common objectives. In any proper case, the director may require such collaboration and cooperation.

(c) Cooperate with any duly constituted authority in the enforcement of other laws of this state, or of the United States, which are enacted to protect producers or the consuming public from fraud or deception.

(d) Make contracts and agreements in the furtherance of any of the powers of the marketing program committee.

(e) Receive, invest, and disburse funds, pursuant to the provisions of Article 12 (commencing with Section 59941).

SEC. 4. Section 59947 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

59947. (a) The funds which are deposited pursuant to Section 59946 shall be disbursed by the director or the marketing program committee, pursuant to regulations prescribed by him, only for the expenditures which are incurred by the marketing program committee in carrying out the specific purposes and provisions of the marketing program, including all necessary expenses which are incurred in the formulation, administration, and enforcement of the marketing program, and expenses generated by the auditing requirement imposed by subdivision (b).

(b) All such expenditures shall be audited at least once every two years by one of the following means:

(1) By contract with a certified public accountant.

(2) By contract with a public accountant holding a valid permit issued by the State Board of Accountancy.

(3) By contract with a public accounting firm.

(4) By agreement with the Department of Finance.

A copy of the audit shall be delivered, within 30 days after the completion thereof, to the Governor, the director, and the Controller.

SEC. 5. Section 64631 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

64631. The duties of the council shall be advisory, except as to those duties which may be delegated to it by the director. The council may, subject to the approval of the director, exercise any of the following powers which may be delegated to the council by the director:

(a) To recommend to the director administrative regulations which relate to the administration and enforcement of this chapter.

(b) To investigate all matters which affect the administration of this chapter, and to report violations of it to the director.

(c) To employ and, at its pleasure, discharge a manager and such clerical help and other employees as it deems necessary, and to prescribe their duties and powers and fix their compensation.

(d) To contract with, or employ, and, at its pleasure, discharge such other persons as it deems necessary, and in the cases of such of them as it shall employ, to outline their powers and duties and fix their compensation.

(e) To establish offices, and incur expenses incidental thereto.

(f) To make such contracts and other agreements as may be proper to promote the sale of beef and beef products on either a local, state, national, or international basis.

(g) To cooperate with any other local, state, or national commission, organization, or agency, whether voluntary or created by state or federal law, and engaged in work or activities similar to the work and activities of the council, and recommend to the director the making of contracts and agreements with such organizations or agencies for carrying on joint programs of education, research, publicity, and advertising. In matters of research, however, the council shall cooperate with organizations of recognized professional standing which are adequately equipped with facilities for the research which is contemplated.

(h) To recommend to the director the institution and promotion of scientific research to develop or discover, or both, the health, food, therapeutic, dietetic, industrial, or other uses of beef and its products.

(i) To receive, invest, and disburse funds, pursuant to the provisions of Article 8 (commencing with Section 64691).

Funds may be allocated to agencies not specifically or solely engaged in carrying on research or promotion for beef, if the council and the director are satisfied that such allocations will be beneficial to the California beef industry, and will tend to effectuate the declared purposes of this chapter.

SEC. 6. Section 64696 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

64696. (a) All money which is collected by the director pursuant to this chapter shall be deposited in any bank, or other depository which is approved by the Director of Finance, allocated to the purposes of this chapter only, and disbursed by the director or the council only for the necessary expenses which are incurred by the council and the director in carrying out the purposes and provisions of this chapter, including expenses generated by the auditing requirement contained in this section. Money which is so collected shall be deposited and disbursed in conformity with appropriate auditing regulations which are prescribed by the director. The expenditure of such money is exempt from the provisions of Sections 925.6 and 16304 of the Government Code.

(b) All such expenditures by the council and the director shall be audited at least once every two years by one of the following means:

(1) By contract with a certified public accountant.

(2) By contract with a public accountant holding a valid permit issued by the State Board of Accountancy.

(3) By contract with a public accounting firm.

(4) By agreement with the Department of Finance.

A copy of the audit shall be delivered within 30 days after completion of the audit to the Governor, the director, and the Controller.

CHAPTER 642

An act to amend Sections 6537.2, 6548 and 6548.5 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to barbering.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6537.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6537.2. A barber college may engage any one of the following persons, who are not licensed California barber instructors, to lecture or demonstrate under the supervision of the barber college:

(a) A physician and surgeon to lecture on or demonstrate sanitation, sterilization, skin, or scalp diseases.

(b) A person whose experience or education qualifies him to lecture on phases of subjects applicable to the barber business, such as business administration, economics, bookkeeping, and taxes.

(c) A manufacturer of barbering products or his representative to demonstrate products usable in the practice of barbering.

(d) A hairstylist licensed in this state or in any other state or country to practice barbering to lecture on or demonstrate any phase of hairstyling.

(e) An organizer or officer of a barber organization to lecture on a subject affecting the welfare of the barber business.

No person engaged by a barber college, pursuant to this section, shall be engaged for more than eight hours per week.

SEC. 2. Section 6548 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6548. Not less than four times each year, two times in the southern part of the state and two times in the northern part of the state, the board shall conduct examinations to ascertain the educational qualifications of each of the following:

(a) Applicants for certificates of registration to practice as registered barbers.

(b) Applicants for certificates of registration to practice as instructors in a barber college.

The examination of applicants for certificates of registration as registered barbers shall include both a practical demonstration and a written test and shall embrace the subjects usually taught in colleges of barbering approved by the board. The examination for a certificate of registration as a registered barber shall include the standard methods for dressing all textures of hair, including hair relaxing. The written examination shall be limited to the following subjects:

(a) Sanitation, antiseptics, sterilization, hygiene, and bacteria.

(b) Hair tonics, hairdressing preparations, and rinses.

(c) Facials and scalp massages or treatments with creams, lotions, oils, or other cosmetic preparations either by hand or mechanical appliances, but such appliances shall not be galvanic nor faradic.

(d) Shop management, implements, and a brief study of the history of barbering.

(e) Laws and regulations governing the practice of barbering.

(f) Common skin and hair diseases of the scalp, face, and neck.

(g) The structure and functions of the skin and hair of the scalp, face, and neck.

(h) Cosmetic preparations and chemicals used in the practice of barbering.

(i) Circulations, muscles, nerves, and cells of the scalp, face, and neck only as such subjects are related to massaging or other acts of barbering.

(j) Fundamentals of hair coloring and bleaching.

(k) Fundamentals of hair straightening (also known as hair relaxing).

(l) Hairpieces (toupees), measuring, fitting, and servicing.

(m) Waving of hair, except that waving shall not include permanent waving.

In the event that an applicant fails to appear for a scheduled examination, the board may assess a penalty fee of not more than 50 percent of the examination fee and in no event to exceed five dollars ($5). The board shall reschedule the examination date for the applicant upon the applicant's payment of the penalty fee.

SEC. 3. Section 6548.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6548.5. Certificates of registered barber or of registered instructor shall be issued by the board to any applicant who satisfactorily passes an examination making a grade of not less than 75 percent, who possesses the other qualifications required by law and who has remitted the certificate of registration fee required by this chapter.

An applicant taking the examination for a certificate of registration to practice as a registered barber, or registered barber instructor shall be informed on the day of the examination, the applicant's grade on the examination. Provided that the applicant has met all of the requirements of this section, the board shall issue the appropriate certificate to the applicant on the day of examination.

CHAPTER 643

An act to amend Section 2 of Chapter 297 of the Statutes of 1976, relating to genetic diseases.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2 of Chapter 297 of the Statutes of 1976 is amended to read:

Sec. 2. The State Department of Health Services may enter into grants or contracts with facilities having research experience for programs by such facilities for basic research on lupus erythematosus.

The grants or contracts are to be approved and the programs are to be monitored by a board composed of a person appointed by the Secretary of the Health and Welfare Agency, a person appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly, and a person appointed by the President pro Tempore of the Senate. By unanimous vote, the board may, by contract, retain the services of a part-time consultant or one of its members to do onsite monitoring of the research programs, analyze grant applications, perform duties prescribed by the board, and coordinate the functions of the board. Except for the one employee assigned to perform the duties specified in this section, the board shall employ no other employee. No more than 5 percent of the amount appropriated for lupus erythematosus, research shall be used for administrative expense of the board, including its consultant.

With regards to grants, the State Department of Health Services shall comply with advance payment schedules adopted by the board, provided that the research is being performed at a campus site of the University of California. The payment schedule shall not be more frequently than quarterly, and payments shall be spread out equally over the term of the project. The first payment shall coincide with the actual commencement of the research project and the department shall have at least a 30-day notice before the first payment shall be required to be made.

CHAPTER 644

An act to amend Section 56344 of, and to add Section 56343.5 to, the Education Code, relating to special education.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 56344 of the Education Code is amended to read:

56344. An individualized education program required as a result of an assessment of a pupil shall be developed within a total time not to exceed 50 days, not counting days in July and August, from the date of receipt of the parent's written consent for assessment, unless the parent agrees, in writing, to an extension. However, such an individualized education program shall be developed within 30 days after the commencement of the subsequent regular school year for each pupil for whom a referral has been made 20 days or less prior to the end of the regular school year.

SEC. 2. Section 56343.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

56343.5. A meeting of an individualized education program team requested by a parent to review an individualized education program pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 56343 shall be held within 30 days, not counting days in July and August, from the date of receipt of the parent's written request. If a parent makes an oral request, the school district shall notify the parent of the need for a written request and the procedure for filing a written request.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act for the purpose of making reimbursement pursuant to these sections. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of that code.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 2231.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, this act does not contain a repealer, as required by that section; therefore, the provisions of this act shall remain in effect unless and until they are amended or repealed by a later enacted act.

CHAPTER 645

An act to add Section 14136.5 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to Medi-Cal.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14136.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14136.5. No entity which has received funds under paragraph (2) of subsection (b) of Section 1601 of the federal Urban Mass

Transportation Act shall receive reimbursement for medical transportation services rendered to beneficiaries of the Medi-Cal program in any amount greater or higher than the fee charged by the provider to persons for whom services are not reimbursed by Medi-Cal.

CHAPTER 646

An act to amend Sections 1747.02 and 1747.03 of the Civil Code, relating to credit cards.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1747.02 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1747.02. As used in this title:

(a) "Credit card" means any card, plate, coupon book, or other credit device existing for the purpose of being used from time to time upon presentation to obtain money, property, labor, or services on credit. "Credit card" shall not mean any of the following:

(1) Any single credit device used to obtain telephone property, labor, or services in any transaction under public utility tariffs.

(2) Any device that may be used to obtain credit pursuant to an electronic fund transfer but only if such credit is obtained under an agreement between a consumer and a financial institution to extend credit when the consumer's asset account is overdrawn or to maintain a specified minimum balance in the consumer's asset account.

(3) Any key or card key used at an automated dispensing outlet to obtain or purchase petroleum products, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 13401 of the Business and Professions Code, which will be used primarily for business rather than personal or family purposes.

(b) "Accepted credit card" means any credit card which the cardholder has requested or applied for and received or has signed, or has used, or has authorized another person to use, for the purpose of obtaining money, property, labor, or services on credit. Any credit card issued in renewal of, or in substitution for, an accepted credit card becomes an accepted credit card when received by the cardholder, whether such card is issued by the same or a successor card issuer.

(c) "Card issuer" means any person who issues a credit card or the agent of such person for such purpose with respect to such card.

(d) "Cardholder" means any person to whom a credit card is issued or any person who has agreed with the card issuer to pay obligations arising from the issuance of a credit card to another person.

(e) "Retailer" means every person other than a card issuer who furnishes money, goods, services, or anything else of value upon presentation of a credit card by a cardholder.

(f) "Unauthorized use" means the use of a credit card by a person, other than the cardholder, (i) who does not have actual, implied, or apparent authority for such use and (ii) from which the cardholder receives no benefit.

(g) An "inquiry" is a writing which is posted by mail to the address of the card issuer to which payments are normally tendered, unless another address is specifically indicated on the statement for such purpose, then to such address, and which:

(1) Sets forth sufficient information to enable the card issuer to identify the cardholder and the account;

(2) Sufficiently identifies the billing error; and

(3) Sets forth information providing the basis for the cardholder's belief that such billing error exists.

(h) A "response" is a writing which is responsive to an inquiry and mailed to the cardholder's address last known to the card issuer.

(i) A "timely response" is a response which is mailed within 60 days from the date on which an inquiry was mailed.

(j) A "billing error" means an error by omission or commission in (1) posting any debit or credit, or (2) in computation or similar error of an accounting nature contained in a statement given to the cardholder by the card issuer. A "billing error" does not mean any dispute with respect to value, quality or quantity of goods, services or other benefit obtained through use of a credit card.

(k) "Adequate notice" means a printed notice to a cardholder which sets forth the pertinent facts clearly and conspicuously so that a person against whom it is to operate could reasonably be expected to have noticed it and understood its meaning.

SEC. 1.5. Section 1747.02 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1747.02. As used in this title:

(a) "Credit card" means any card, plate, coupon book, or other single credit device existing for the purpose of being used from time to time upon presentation to obtain money, property, labor, or services on credit. "Credit card" shall not mean any of the following:

(1) Any single credit device used to obtain telephone property, labor or services in any transaction under public utility tariffs.

(2) Any device that may be used to obtain credit pursuant to an electronic fund transfer but only if such credit is obtained under an agreement between a consumer and a financial institution to extend credit when the consumer's asset account is overdrawn or to maintain a specified minimum balance in the consumer's asset account.

(3) Any key or card key used at an automated dispensing outlet to obtain or purchase petroleum products, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 13401 of the Business and Professions Code, which will be used primarily for business rather than personal or family purposes.

(b) "Accepted credit card" means any credit card which the cardholder has requested or applied for and received or has signed, or has used, or has authorized another person to use, for the purpose of obtaining money, property, labor, or services on credit. Any credit card issued in renewal of, or in substitution for, an accepted credit card becomes an accepted credit card when received by the cardholder, whether such card is issued by the same or a successor card issuer.

(c) "Card issuer" means any person who issues a credit card or the agent of such person for such purpose with respect to such card.

(d) "Cardholder" means a natural person to whom a credit card is issued for consumer credit purposes, or a natural person who has agreed with the card issuer to pay consumer credit obligations arising from the issuance of a credit card to another natural person. For purposes of Sections 1747.05, 1747.10, and 1747.20, the term includes any person to whom a credit card is issued for any purpose, including business, commercial, or agricultural use, or a person who has agreed with the card issuer to pay obligations arising from the issuance of such a credit card to another person.

(e) "Retailer" means every person other than a card issuer who furnishes money, goods, services, or anything else of value upon presentation of a credit card by a cardholder.

(f) "Unauthorized use" means the use of a credit card by a person, other than the cardholder, (i) who does not have actual, implied, or apparent authority for such use and (ii) from which the cardholder receives no benefit. "Unauthorized use" does not include the use of a credit card by a person who has been given authority by the cardholder to use the credit card. Any attempted termination by the cardholder of such person's authority is ineffective as against the card issuer until such time as the cardholder complies with such procedures as may be required by the card issuer to terminate such authority. Notwithstanding the above, following the card issuer's receipt of oral or written notice from a cardholder indicating that it wishes to terminate the authority of a previously authorized user of a credit card, the card issuer shall follow its usual procedures for precluding any further use of a credit card by an unauthorized person.

(g) An "inquiry" is a writing which is posted by mail to the address of the card issuer to which payments are normally tendered, unless another address is specifically indicated on the statement for such purpose, then to such address, and which is received by the card issuer no later than 60 days after the card issuer transmitted the first periodic statement that reflects the alleged billing error, and which:

(1) Sets forth sufficient information to enable the card issuer to identify the cardholder and the account;

(2) Sufficiently identifies the billing error; and

(3) Sets forth information providing the basis for the cardholder's belief that such billing error exists.

(h) A "response" is a writing which is responsive to an inquiry and mailed to the cardholder's address last known to the card issuer.

(i) A "timely response" is a response which is mailed within two complete billing cycles, but in no event later than 90 days, after the card issuer receives an inquiry.

(j) A "billing error" means an error by omission or commission in (1) posting any debit or credit, or (2) in computation or similar error of an accounting nature contained in a statement given to the cardholder by the card issuer. A "billing error" does not mean any dispute with respect to value, quality or quantity of goods, services or other benefit obtained through use of a credit card.

(k) "Adequate notice" means a printed notice to a cardholder which sets forth the pertinent facts clearly and conspicuously so that a person against whom it is to operate could reasonably be expected to have noticed it and understood its meaning.

SEC. 2. Section 1747.03 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1747.03. (a) Any rights or responsibilities created by this title that are based on the use of a credit card shall have no effect with respect to:

(1) Those transactions that constitute an electronic fund transfer as defined by Regulation E of the Federal Reserve Board (12 CFR, Part 205).

(2) Those transactions involving the use of any key or a card key used at an automated dispensing outlet to obtain or purchase petroleum products, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 13401 of the Business and Professions Code, which will be used primarily for business rather than personal or family purposes.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a person, company, or corporation that has been issued a key or card key described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) shall not be liable for losses due to the loss or theft of the key or card key incurred after receipt by the issuer of the key or card key of written or oral notification of the loss or theft.

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Senate Bill 1919 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1983, both bills amend Section 1747.02 of the Civil Code, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill 1919, that the amendments to Section 1747.02 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 1747.02 in the form set forth in Section 1.5 of this act. Therefore, Section 1.5 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Senate Bill 1919 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1983, both amend Section 1747.02, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill 1919, in which case Section 1 of this act shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 647

An act to amend Section 24100.1 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to lifeguards.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 24100.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

24100.1. "Lifeguard service," as used in this article, means the attendance at a public swimming pool during periods of use, of one or more lifeguards who possess, as minimal qualifications, current Red Cross advanced lifesaving certificates or Y.M.C.A. senior lifesaving certificates, or have equivalent qualifications and who are trained to administer first aid, including, but not limited to, cardiopulmonary resuscitation in conformance with Section 217 and the regulations promulgated thereunder, and who have no duties to perform other than to supervise the safety of participants in water-contact activities.

CHAPTER 648

An act to add Section 5483 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to mental health.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5483 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

5483. The State Department of Mental Health shall conduct a review of each primary prevention project at the end of one year of operation.

The purposes of such reviews are project improvement and compliance with the guidelines set forth in this chapter. The review procedure shall be adequately flexible for application to primary prevention projects of varying sizes and models.

SEC. 2. Section 1 of this act shall become operative only if Senate Bill No. 845 is chaptered and becomes effective and, in such case, shall become operative January 1, 1983.

CHAPTER 649

An act to add Section 13075 to the Government Code, relating to the Department of Finance.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13075 is added to the Government Code, to read:

13075. (a) When authorized or required by the Legislature in the Budget Act, the Department of Finance may exercise control over the adoption of regulations as provided in this section. The Legislature shall not authorize or require the Department of Finance in the Budget Act to review and approve regulations adopted by state agencies except:

(1) Regulations adopted by the Department of Social Services which add to the cost of any public assistance programs as these are defined in Section 10061 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(2) Regulations adopted by a state agency which would have the effect of increasing expenditures from the Health Care Deposit Fund under the Medical Assistance Program.

The Department of Finance shall limit its review of a regulation under this section to making a determination as to whether sufficient funds are available to fund the added program expenditures which would be incurred if the regulation were adopted. In making the determination concerning the sufficiency of funds to meet the costs of the regulation, the Director of Finance shall consider the amount of the costs which would be added to the program or the increased expenditures from the Health Care Deposit Fund for the fiscal year during which the costs or expenditures would be incurred, the effect such a change would have on the expenditure limitations established in the Budget Act for that year, and the extent to which the regulation constitutes a deviation from the program requirements, the assumptions, and the estimates which were the basis for establishing the expenditure limitations in the Budget Act.

(b) The Department of Finance shall issue written instructions to the state agencies which adopt regulations subject to the provisions of this section. The instructions shall include the data requirements, methods of estimating costs or expenditures, and the narrative explanation which the department requires in order to review regulations which it is authorized or required to review. The instructions shall also include an explanation of the department's review procedures and the methods the department uses in making decisions concerning the sufficiency of funds to pay for added program costs or increased expenditures.

(c) The Department of Finance shall complete the review of any regulation subject to the provisions of this section within 15 working days following its receipt. If the department fails to act within that period of time, the regulation shall be deemed approved by the department.

CHAPTER 650

An act to amend Section 1026.5 of the Penal Code, relating to mental disorder, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1026.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1026.5. (a) (1) In the case of any person committed to a state hospital or other treatment facility pursuant to Section 1026 or placed on outpatient status pursuant to Section 1604, who committed a felony on or after July 1, 1977, the court shall state in the commitment order the maximum term of commitment, and the person may not be kept in actual custody longer than the maximum term of commitment, except as provided in this section. For the purposes of this section, "maximum term of commitment" shall mean the longest term of imprisonment which could have been imposed for the offense or offenses of which the person was convicted, including the upper term of the base offense and any additional terms for enhancements and consecutive sentences which could have been imposed less any applicable credits as defined by Section 2900.5, and disregarding any credits which could have been earned under Sections 2930 to 2932, inclusive.

(2) In the case of a person confined in a state hospital or other treatment facility pursuant to Section 1026 or placed on outpatient status pursuant to Section 1604, who committed a felony prior to July 1, 1977, and who could have been sentenced under Section 1168 or 1170 if the offense was committed after July 1, 1977, the Board of Prison Terms shall determine the maximum term of commitment which could have been imposed under paragraph (1), and the person may not be kept in actual custody longer than the maximum term of commitment, except as provided in subdivision (b). The time limits of this section are not jurisdictional.

In fixing a term under this section, the board shall utilize the upper term of imprisonment which could have been imposed for the offense or offenses of which the person was convicted, increased by any additional terms which could have been imposed based on matters which were found to be true in the committing court.

However, if at least two of the members of the board after reviewing the person's file determine that a longer term should be imposed for the reasons specified in Section 1170.2, a longer term may be imposed following the procedures and guidelines set forth in Section 1170.2, except that any hearings deemed necessary by the board shall be held within 90 days of September 28, 1979. Within 90 days of the date the person is received by the state hospital or other treatment facility, or of September 28, 1979, whichever is later, the Board of Prison Terms shall provide each person with the determination of the person's maximum term of commitment or shall notify such person that a hearing will be scheduled to determine the term.

Within 20 days following the determination of the maximum term of commitment the board shall provide the person, the prosecuting attorney, the committing court, and the state hospital or other treatment facility with a written statement setting forth the maximum term of commitment, the calculations, and any materials considered in determining the maximum term.

(3) In the case of a person committed to a state hospital or other treatment facility pursuant to Section 1026 or placed on outpatient status pursuant to Section 1604 who committed a misdemeanor, the maximum term of commitment shall be the longest term of county jail confinement which could have been imposed for the offense or offenses which the person was found to have committed, and the person may not be kept in actual custody longer than this maximum term.

(4) Nothing in this subdivision limits the power of any state hospital or other treatment facility or of the committing court to release the person, conditionally or otherwise, for any period of time allowed by any other provision of law.

(b) (1) A person may be committed beyond the term prescribed by subdivision (a) only under the procedure set forth in this subdivision and only if such person has been committed under Section 1026 for a felony of murder, mayhem, a violation of Section 207 or 209 in which the victim suffers intentionally inflicted great bodily injury, robbery with a dangerous or deadly weapon or in which the victim suffers great bodily injury, a violation of subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 451, a violation of subdivision 2 or 3 of Section 261, a violation of Section 459 in the first degree, assault with intent to commit murder, a violation of Section 220 in which the victim suffers great bodily injury, a violation of Section 288, a violation of Section 12303.1, 12303.2, 12303.3, 12308, 12309, or 12310, or if the defendant has been found guilty of a felony involving death, great bodily injury, or an act which poses a serious threat of bodily harm to another person, and who by reason of a mental disease, defect, or disorder represents a substantial danger of physical harm to others.

(2) Not later than 180 days prior to the termination of the maximum term of commitment prescribed in subdivision (a), the medical director of a state hospital or other treatment facility shall submit to the prosecuting attorney his or her opinion as to whether or not the patient is a person described in paragraph (1). If requested by the prosecuting attorney, the opinion shall be accompanied by supporting evaluations and relevant hospital records. The prosecuting attorney may then file a petition for extended commitment in the superior court which issued the original commitment. Such petition shall be filed no later than 90 days before the expiration of the original commitment. Such petition shall state the reasons for the extended commitment, with accompanying affidavits specifying the factual basis for believing that the person meets each of the requirements set forth in paragraph (1).

(3) When such a petition is filed, the court shall advise the person named in the petition of the right to be represented by an attorney and of the right to a jury trial. The rules of discovery in criminal cases shall apply.

(4) The court shall conduct a hearing on the petition for extended commitment. The trial shall be by jury unless waived by both the person and the prosecuting attorney. The trial shall commence no later than 30 calendar days prior to the time the person would otherwise have been released, unless such time is waived by the person.

(5) The person shall be entitled to the rights guaranteed under the federal and state Constitutions for criminal proceedings. All proceedings shall be in accordance with applicable constitutional guarantees. The state shall be represented by the district attorney who shall notify the Attorney General in writing that a case has been referred under this section. If the person is indigent, the county public defender or State Public Defender shall be appointed. The State Public Defender may provide for representation of the person in any manner authorized by Section 15402 of the Government Code. Appointment of necessary psychologists or psychiatrists shall be made in accordance with this article and Penal Code and Evidence Code provisions applicable to criminal defendants who have entered pleas of not guilty by reason of insanity or asserted diminished capacity defenses.

(6) If the court or jury finds that the patient is a person described in paragraph (1), the court may order the patient recommitted to the facility in which the patient was confined at the time the petition was filed for an additional period of two years from the date of termination of the previous commitment.

(7) A person committed under this subdivision shall be eligible for release to outpatient status or parole pursuant to the provisions of Title 15 (commencing with Section 1600) of Part 2.

(8) Prior to termination of a commitment under this subdivision, a petition for recommitment may be filed to determine whether the patient remains a person described in paragraph (1). Such recommitment proceeding shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision.

(9) Any commitment under this subdivision places an affirmative obligation on the treatment facility to provide treatment for the underlying causes of the person's mental disorder.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (b) of former Section 6316.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, in any case subject to the provisions of that section, not later than 180 days prior to the termination of the maximum term of commitment the Director of Mental Health shall submit to the prosecuting attorney his or her opinion as to whether or not the patient is a person described in subdivision (a) of former Section 6316.2. If requested by the prosecuting attorney, the opinion shall be accompanied by supporting evaluations and relevant hospital records. The prosecuting attorney may then file a petition for extended commitment in the superior court which issued the original commitment. Such petition shall be filed no later than 90 days before the expiration of the original commitment. Such petition shall state the reasons for the extended commitment, with accompanying affidavits specifying the factual basis for believing that the person meets each of the requirements set forth in subdivision (a) of former Section 6316.2.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to advance the interest of public safety by providing prosecutors with consistent and expeditious means of filing extended commitment petitions for persons committed under Section 1026 of the Penal Code and mentally disordered sex offenders who pose a substantial danger of bodily harm to others, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 651

An act to amend, repeal, and add Section 8574.8 of, the Government Code, relating to toxic disasters.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8574.8 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8574.8. (a) A state toxic disaster contingency plan established pursuant to this article shall provide for an integrated and effective state procedure to respond to the occurrence of toxic disasters within the state. The plan shall provide for specified state agencies to implement the plan, for interagency coordination of the training conducted by state agencies pursuant to the plan, and for on-scene coordination of response actions.

Notwithstanding any provision of the plan, the authority for the management of the scene of an on-highway toxic spill or disaster shall be vested in the appropriate law enforcement agency having primary traffic investigative authority on the highway where the incident occurs. During the preparation of the toxic disaster contingency plan, the Office of Emergency Services shall adopt the recommendations of the Department of the California Highway Patrol in developing response and on-scene procedures for toxic disasters which occur upon the highways, based upon previous studies for such procedures, insofar as the procedures are not inconsistent with the overall plan for initial notification of toxic disasters by public agencies and for after-incident evaluation and reporting.

(b) The Office of Emergency Services shall establish a central notification and reporting system to facilitate operation of the state toxic disaster response procedures designated by the toxic disaster contingency plan.

(c) Any state or local agency having knowledge of a toxic disaster shall ensure that the disaster is promptly reported to the Office of Emergency Services. State or local agencies may comply with the requirement of this subdivision for on-highway toxic disasters by completing the notification specified in Section 2453 of the Vehicle Code. However, if the California Highway Patrol is notified of an on-highway toxic disaster pursuant to Section 2453 of the Vehicle Code, it shall promptly notify the Office of Emergency Services.

(d) The Office of Emergency Services shall establish and maintain a listing of all toxic disasters occurring in California, including a description of the disaster, the location, the time and date, the state and local agencies responding to the disaster, the actions taken by these agencies, and the agency which had primary authority for responding to the disaster.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1989, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 8574.8 is added to the Government Code, to read:

8574.8. (a) A state toxic disaster contingency plan established pursuant to this article shall provide for an integrated and effective state procedure to respond to the occurrence of toxic disasters within the state. The plan shall provide for specified state agencies to implement the plan, for interagency coordination of the training conducted by state agencies pursuant to the plan, and for on-scene coordination of response actions.

Notwithstanding any provision of the plan, the authority for the management of the scene of an on-highway toxic spill or disaster shall be vested in the appropriate law enforcement agency having primary traffic investigative authority on the highway where the incident occurs. During the preparation of the toxic disaster contingency plan, the Office of Emergency Services shall adopt the recommendations of the Department of the California Highway Patrol in developing response and on-scene procedures for toxic disasters which occur upon the highways, based upon previous studies for such procedures, insofar as the procedures are not inconsistent with the overall plan for initial notification of toxic disasters by public agencies and for after-incident evaluation and reporting.

(b) The Office of Emergency Services shall establish a central notification and reporting system to facilitate operation of the state toxic disaster response procedures designated by the toxic disaster contingency plan.

(c) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1989.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act for the purpose of making reimbursement pursuant to these sections. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of that code.

CHAPTER 652

An act to amend Section 5705.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to mental health.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5705.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5705.2. Negotiated net amounts or rates may be used as the cost of services only in accordance with the following subdivisions:

(a) Negotiated net amounts may be used as the cost of services in a contract which provides for the delivery of all or part of the total county Short-Doyle annual plan for each fiscal year. The negotiated net amount shall be approved by the State Department of Mental Health prior to commencing services for reimbursement. Providers under this subdivision shall report to the State Department of Mental Health and the local mental health program cost accounting and any other information required by the State Department of Mental Health in accordance with procedures established by the Director of Mental Health emphasizing success in program outcome versus providers' expenditures. Contracts entered into pursuant to this paragraph shall be financed within an approved Short-Doyle plan. For negotiated net amounts contracts that provide for the delivery of 75 percent or more of the total county Short-Doyle annual plan, the contracting organization shall bear the financial responsibility for the local match requirement, which shall not include state or federal funds directly allocated to the contracting organizations, for the portion of the county program covered by the contract.

(b) Negotiated rates may be used as the cost of services in contracts by providers with counties. The negotiated rate shall be approved by the State Department of Mental Health prior to commencing services for reimbursement. Providers under this subdivision shall report to the State Department of Mental Health and the local mental health program cost accounting and any other information required by the State Department of Mental Health in accordance with procedures established by the Director of Mental Health.

CHAPTER 653

An act to amend Section 234 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to public utilities.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 234 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

234. "Telephone corporation" includes every corporation or person owning, controlling, operating, or managing any telephone line for compensation within this state.

"Telephone corporation" does not include any hospital, hotel, motel, or similar place of temporary accommodation owning or operating message switching or billing equipment solely for the purpose of reselling services provided by a telephone corporation to its patients or guests.

CHAPTER 654

An act to add Section 58842.5 to the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to agriculture.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 58842.5 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

58842.5. Any raisin marketing order or agreement involving producers operating under this chapter shall provide for, and the director shall appoint, a person to represent cooperative bargaining associations organized pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 54401) of Division 20 from nominations made by the associations to the advisory board.

The person so appointed shall be a voting member of the advisory board.

CHAPTER 655

An act to amend Sections 13350 and 13361 of, to add Section 14601.3 to, and to repeal and add Section 13351 to, the Vehicle Code, relating to driving offenses.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13350 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

13350. (a) The department shall immediately revoke the privilege of any person to drive a motor vehicle upon receipt of a duly certified abstract of the record of any court showing that the person has been convicted of any of the following crimes or offenses:

(1) Failure of the driver of a vehicle involved in an accident resulting in injury or death to any person to stop or otherwise comply with Section 20001.

(2) Any felony in the commission of which a motor vehicle is used, except as provided for in Sections 13352 and 13357.

(3) Reckless driving causing bodily injury.

(b) The department shall not renew the privilege revoked under subdivision (a) until the expiration of one year after the date of revocation and until the person whose privilege was revoked gives proof of ability to respond in damages as defined in Section 16430.

SEC. 2. Section 13351 of the Vehicle Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 13351 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

13351. (a) The department shall immediately revoke the privilege of any person to drive a motor vehicle upon receipt of a duly certified abstract of the record of any court showing that the person has been convicted of any of the following crimes or offenses:

(1) Manslaughter resulting from the operation of a motor vehicle except when convicted under paragraph (b) of subdivision 3 of Section 192 of the Penal Code.

(2) Upon conviction of three or more violations of Section 20001, 20002, 23103, or 23104 within a period of 12 months from the time of the first offense to the third or subsequent offense, or upon a combination of three or more convictions of violations within a like period.

(b) The department shall not renew the privilege revoked under subdivision (a) until the expiration of three years after the date of revocation and until the person whose privilege was revoked gives proof of ability to respond in damages as defined in Section 16430.

SEC. 4. Section 13361 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

13361. The department may suspend the privilege of any person to operate a motor vehicle upon receipt of a duly certified abstract of the record of any court showing that the person has been convicted of any of the following crimes or offenses:

(a) Failure to stop in the event of an accident resulting in damage to property only, or otherwise failing to comply with the requirements of Section 20002.

(b) A second or subsequent conviction of reckless driving.

(c) Manslaughter resulting from the operation of a motor vehicle as provided in paragraph (b) of subdivision 3 of Section 192 of the Penal Code.

In any case under this section the department is authorized to require proof of ability to respond in damages as defined in Section 16430.

SEC. 5. Section 14601.3 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

14601.3. (a) It is unlawful for a person whose driving privilege has been suspended or revoked to accumulate a driving record history which results from driving during the period of suspension or revocation. A person who violates this subdivision is designated a habitual traffic offender.

For purposes of this section, a driving record history means any of the following, provided that the driving occurred during the period of suspension or revocation:

(1) Two or more convictions within a 12-month period of an offense given a violation point count of two pursuant to Section 12810.

(2) Three or more convictions within a 12-month period of an offense given a violation point count of one pursuant to Section 12810.

(3) Three or more accidents within a 12-month period that are subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16000.

(4) Three or more instances within a 12-month period of failure to appear in a court after promising or being ordered to do so on a traffic violation matter.

(b) Knowledge of suspension or revocation of the driving privilege shall be presumed if notice has been given by the department to the person. The presumption established by this subdivision is a presumption affecting the burden of proof.

(c) The department, within 30 days of receipt of a duly certified abstract of the record of any court or accident report which results in a person being designated a habitual traffic offender, shall execute and transmit by certified mail a notice of that designation to the office of the district attorney having jurisdiction over the location of the person's last known address as contained in the department's records.

(d) The district attorney, within 30 days of receiving the notice required in subdivision (c), shall inform the department of whether or not the person will be prosecuted for being a habitual traffic offender.

(e) Any person convicted under this section of being a habitual traffic offender shall be punished as follows:

(1) Upon a first conviction, by imprisonment in the county jail for 30 days and by a fine of five hundred dollars ($500).

(2) Upon a second or any subsequent offense within seven years of a prior conviction under this section, by imprisonment in the county jail for 180 days and by a fine of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

SEC. 6. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 656

An act to amend Sections 701, 825, and 826 of, and to add Article 8 (commencing with Section 830) to Chapter 2 of Division 1 of, the Elections Code, relating to elections.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 701 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

701. The county clerk shall cancel the registration in the following cases:

(a) At the request of the person registered.

(b) When the mental incompetency of the person registered is legally established as provided in Sections 707.5, 707.6, and 707.7.

(c) Upon proof that the person is presently imprisoned or on parole for conviction of a felony.

(d) Upon the production of a certified copy of a judgment directing the cancellation to be made.

(e) Upon the death of the person registered.

(f) Pursuant to the provisions of Section 706, 801, or 830.

SEC. 2. Section 825 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

825. From moneys appropriated by the Legislature, the Controller shall reimburse counties for additional costs incurred by counties for purging voter registration files pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 700), Article 6 (commencing with Section 800), and Article 8 (commencing with Section 830). Reimbursement shall be made for costs incurred only in connection with purges for the direct primary election and the general election, as defined by Sections 20 and 23.

The amount reimbursable to each county shall be determined by multiplying the statewide average cost per registered voter by the number of registered voters in the county as determined by the Secretary of State under subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 607. The statewide average cost per registered voter shall be determined by the Secretary of State based on the claims submitted for reimbursement for the 1978 purge of voter registration files, which cost shall not exceed ten cents ($0.10).

SEC. 3. Section 826 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

826. Any claim submitted to the Controller pursuant to this article shall state whether the purge was conducted pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 700), Article 6 (commencing with Section 800), or Article 8 (commencing with Section 830), that the county had reimbursable costs and the number of registered voters in the county as determined by the Secretary of State under subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 607. The claims shall be made to the Controller by October 31 of the next even-numbered year in which a primary and general election are held.

SEC. 4. Article 8 (commencing with Section 830) is added to Chapter 2 of Division 1 of the Elections Code, to read:

Article 8. Alternative Procedures and Costs

830. The provisions of this article establish a pilot project in the County of Alameda. The project shall terminate on December 30, 1984.

830.5. (a) In lieu of the procedures for the cancellation of affidavits of registration for failure to vote following a statewide general election provided for in Article 5 (commencing with Section 700) and Article 6 (commencing with Section 800), the county clerk shall adopt the provisions of this article.

(b) If a voter fails to vote at the previous general election, the county clerk shall, no later than the first day of the following January, mail to the voter at the address shown on his or her affidavit of registration or that shown on the last application for transfer of registration, a forwardable, prepaid, postcard notice, with a return notice to the clerk. One portion of the postcard shall contain a notice which shall be substantially in the following form:

"Our records indicate that you did not vote in the General Election on November _____, 19__.

If you still live at the residence address shown on your affidavit of registration and wish to remain a registered voter, check the appropriate box on the attached card, sign the card and mail it postage free.

If you have moved to a new address within

_____ County,

(name)

write the new address and your signature on the attached card and mail it postage free.

If the attached card is not signed and returned within thirty days of the date shown below, your registration will be cancelled and you will be required to reregister before you will again be entitled to vote.

If you are no longer a resident of _____ County,

(name)

your registration will be cancelled and you will be required to register in your new county or state before being entitled to vote.

Dated _____ "

(c) The second portion of the postcard, which shall be a postage-prepaid postcard return notice to the clerk, shall indicate that the voter, under penalty of perjury, continues to reside at the address shown on his or her affidavit of registration and wishes to remain a registered voter or wishes to enter a change of address in the same county in which he or she was registered. The postage-prepaid return notice to the clerk shall include space for the correction of the address shown on the affidavit of registration and space for the signature of the voter.

(d) If, within 30 days after mailing the postcard, the clerk receives a signed, written notice that a voter has not moved, or has moved within the county, that voter's affidavit of registration shall still be valid and the clerk shall make all appropriate corrections.

(e) The affidavit of registration of any voter who did not vote at the previous general election and who does not return the postage-prepaid return notice pursuant to subdivision (c) within the prescribed period shall be canceled. The affidavit of registration shall be deemed to be canceled on the 30th day following the date the forwardable postcard notice was mailed to the voter.

831. Before every election and on election day the clerk shall:

(a) Assign a sufficient number of qualified persons in the office of the clerk to receive and verify claims of erroneous cancellations of affidavits of registration, and cause those affidavits to be immediately reinstated.

(b) Or, in the alternative, supply each polling place with a list of voters in the precinct whose affidavits of registration were canceled pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 830.

At every election the clerk shall provide a page in the Roster of Voters for the signature, under oath, attesting to continuous residency in the precinct, of any voter whose affidavit may have been canceled pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 830. Canceled affidavits of registration of voters whose signatures appear on that roster page shall be reinstated by the clerk.

CHAPTER 657

An act to amend Section 66499 of the Government Code, relating to land subdivision.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 66499 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66499. (a) Whenever this division or a local ordinance authorizes or requires the furnishing of security in connection with the performance of any act or agreement, such security shall be one of the following at the option of and subject to the approval of the local agency:

(1) Bond or bonds by one or more duly authorized corporate sureties.

(2) A deposit, either with the local agency or a responsible escrow agent or trust company, at the option of the local agency, of money or negotiable bonds of the kind approved for securing deposits of public moneys.

(3) An instrument of credit from one or more financial institutions subject to regulation by the state or federal government and pledging that the funds necessary to carry out the act or agreement are on deposit and guaranteed for payment, or a letter of credit issued by such a financial institution.

(4) A lien upon the property to be divided, created by contract between the owner and the local agency, if the local agency finds that it would not be in the public interest to require the installation of the required improvement sooner than two years after the recordation of the map.

(5) Any form of security, including security interests in real property, which is acceptable to the local agency and specified by ordinance thereof.

(b) Any contract or security interest in real property entered into as security for performance pursuant to paragraph (4) or paragraph (5) of subdivision (a) shall be recorded with the county recorder of the county in which the subject real property is located. From the time of recordation of the written contract or document creating a security interest, a lien shall attach to the real property particularly described therein and shall have the priority of a judgment lien in an amount necessary to complete the agreed to improvements. The recorded contract or security document shall be indexed in the Grantor Index to the names of all record owners of the real property as specified on the map and in the Grantee Index to the local agency approving the map.

The local agency may at any time release all or any portion of the property subject to any lien or security interest created by this subdivision or subordinate the lien or security interest to other liens or encumbrances if it determines that security for performance is sufficiently secured by a lien on other property or that the release or subordination of the lien will not jeopardize the completion of agreed upon improvements.

CHAPTER 658

An act to amend Section 11019 of the Government Code, and to repeal Section 3 of Chapter 760 of the Statutes of 1979, relating to public contracts.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11019 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11019. (a) Any department specified in subdivision (b) may, upon determining that an advance payment is essential for the effective implementation of a program within the provisions of this section, and to the extent funds are available, and not more frequently than once each fiscal year, advance to a community-based private nonprofit agency with which it has contracted, pursuant to federal law and related state law, for the delivery of services, not to exceed 25 percent of the annual allocation to be made pursuant to the contract and such laws, during the fiscal year to the private nonprofit agency. Advances in excess of 25 percent may be made on contracts financed by a federal program when such advances are not prohibited by federal guidelines. Advance payments may be provided for services to be performed under any contract with a total annual contract amount of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) or less, or which the State Department of Finance determines has been entered into with any community-based private nonprofit agency with modest reserves and potential cash flow problems. No advance payment shall be granted if the total annual contract exceeds two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000), without the prior approval of the State Department of Finance.

The specific departments mentioned in subdivision (b) shall develop a plan to establish control procedures for advance payments. Each such plan shall include a procedure whereby the department determines whether or not an advance payment is essential for the effective implementation of a particular program being funded. Each such plan is required to be approved by the Department of Finance.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall apply to the Department of Aging, the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs, the Department of Corrections, the Employment Development Department, the State Department of Health Services, the State Department of Mental Health, the Department of Rehabilitation, the State Department of Social Services, the Department of the Youth Authority, and the Department of Education.

Subdivision (a) shall also apply to the Health and Welfare Agency which may make advance payments, pursuant to the requirements of that subdivision, to multipurpose senior services projects as established in Sections 9400 to 9413, inclusive, of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(c) A county may, upon determining that an advance payment is essential for the effective implementation of a program within the provisions of this section, and to the extent funds are available, and not more frequently than once each fiscal year, advance to a community-based private nonprofit agency with which it has contracted, pursuant to federal law and related state law, for the delivery of services, not to exceed 25 percent of the annual allocation to be made pursuant to the contract and such laws, during the fiscal year to the private nonprofit agency.

SEC. 2. Section 3 of Chapter 760 of the Statutes of 1979 is repealed.

CHAPTER 659

An act to amend Sections 25257 and 25258 of the Government Code, relating to financial powers of county boards of supervisors.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25257 of the Government Code is amended to read:

25257. Any department, officer, or employee of a county or a judicial district in the county, charged by law with the collection of any county or district tax assessment, penalty, cost, license fees, or any judicial district fine, assessment, or penalty, or any money, which is due and payable to the county or district for any reason, may apply to the board of supervisors for a discharge from accountability for the collection thereof if the amount is too small to justify the cost of collection, the likelihood of collection does not warrant the expense involved, or the amount thereof has been otherwise lawfully compromised or adjusted.

SEC. 2. Section 25258 of the Government Code is amended to read:

25258. The application for a discharge from accountability shall include:

(a) The amount owing.

(b) Except where disclosure of such information is prohibited by state or federal law, the names of the assessees or persons liable and the amounts owed by each, which may be by reference to specific documents incorporated thereby in the application.

(c) The estimated cost of collection, or a statement that the likelihood of collection does not warrant the expense involved, or a specific reference to the official records establishing that the amount owed has been compromised or adjusted. If requested by the board of supervisors, the applicant shall furnish such additional information as the board deems necessary to determine that the request for discharge is justified.

(d) Any other fact warranting the discharge, except where the board of supervisors determines that the circumstances do not warrant the furnishing of detailed information.

(e) A verification by the applicant that the facts stated in the application are true and correct, which may be made on information and belief.

CHAPTER 660

An act to add Sections 1640.1 and 1641.1 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1640.1 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

1640.1. (a) The clerk shall transmit by mail to the protesting party and shall transmit to the county board of equalization or assessment appeals board the hearing officer's report and recommendation on the assessment protest. The protesting party shall be informed that the county board of equalization or the assessment appeals board is not bound by the recommendation of the assessment hearing officer and that he or she is entitled to a full hearing before the county board or the assessment appeals board.

(b) The provision of this section shall supersede the provisions of Section 1641 in those counties in which the board of supervisors by resolution adopts the provisions of this section.

SEC. 2. Section 1641.1 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

1641.1. (a) Upon being notified of the recommendation of an assessment hearing officer, the protesting party may request the county board of equalization or assessment appeals board to accept the recommendation of the assessment hearing officer. The assessor may request the board to reject the recommendation of the assessment hearing officer. The county board of equalization or assessment appeals board shall, without further testimony, do either of the following:

(1) Accept the recommendation and change the assessed value in accordance with Section 1610.8.

(2) Reject the recommendation and set the application for reduction for hearing by the local board of equalization.

If a request is not filed with the county board of equalization or assessment appeals board, the protesting party may, within 14 days after mailing of the hearing officer's report and recommendation, make application for a hearing before the county board or the assessment appeals board, and the application shall be set for hearing by the county board or the assessment appeals board. The board may consider, but shall not be bound by, the recommendation of the assessment hearing officer.

(b) The provisions of this section shall supersede the provisions of Section 1641 in those counties in which the board of supervisors by resolution adopts the provisions of this section.

CHAPTER 661

An act to amend Sections 6, 7, 9, 22(a), 28, 32, 35, 38, 39, 40, and 43 of, and to repeal and add Sections 5, 8, 11, 13, 14, 15, 26, 31, and 46 of, the Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control Act (Chapter 503 of the Statutes of 1955), relating to the Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control District.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The legislative bodies of the City of Fresno, the City of Clovis, and the Board of Supervisors of the County of Fresno are joint parties of interest pursuant to this act and shall constitute the appointing bodies, appointing persons to the board of directors of the district as set forth in this act. The district shall be deemed an "advisory agency," as defined in Section 66415 of the Government Code, for the purpose of appeals which shall be conducted in the manner prescribed in Section 66452.5 of the Government Code.

SEC. 2. Section 5 of the Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control

District Act (Chapter 503 of the Statutes of 1955) is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 5 is added to the Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control Act (Chapter 503 of the Statutes of 1955), to read:

Sec. 5. The governing board of the district shall consist of a board of directors of seven members. The legislative body of the City of Fresno shall appoint four members to the board, none of whom shall be public officials of the city. The Board of Supervisors of the County of Fresno shall appoint two members to the board, none of whom shall be public officials of the county. The legislative body of the City of Clovis shall appoint one member to the board, who shall not be a public official of the City of Clovis. The appointing body may remove any member of the board appointed by it at any time by a majority vote of the whole number of members of such body. All members of the board of directors shall reside within the district. The County Assessor, County Tax Collector, County Auditor and County Treasurer of the County of Fresno, and their successors in office, shall be ex officio officers of the district, and their assistants, deputies, clerks and employees shall be ex officio assistants, deputies, clerks and employees, respectively, of the district, and those ex officio officers shall respectively perform, unless otherwise provided by the board of directors, without additional compensation, the same various duties for the district as for the County of Fresno, in order to carry out the provisions of this act. The secretary of the board of directors shall be appointed by the board. The board may also appoint such attorneys, engineers and other employees as it may see fit.

SEC. 4. Section 6 of the Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control Act (Chapter 503 of the Statutes of 1955) is amended to read:

Sec. 6. Within 30 days after creation of the district the appointive members of the Board of Directors shall be appointed by the legislative body of the city and the board of supervisors, respectively, and all of the directors shall qualify by taking and filing with the County Clerk of Fresno County the oath of office provided for public officials. They shall, as soon as convenient, meet and organize by the selection of one of their number as chairman of the board. They shall also select the secretary of the board. The members appointed to the board shall at the first meeting so classify themselves that of the appointive members one of the members appointed by the board of supervisors shall hold office for two years and one shall hold office for four years, and two of the members appointed by the legislative body of the city shall hold office for two years and two shall hold office for four years. After completion of the first terms of the first directors, all appointive directors shall be appointed and hold office for terms of four years. Within 30 days after the effective date of the amendment of this section enacted at the 1981–82 Regular Session of the Legislature, new appointive members required by this section shall be appointed by the legislative bodies of the City of Fresno and the City of Clovis, shall take and file the oath of office, and shall be seated as district directors. The director appointed by the legislative body of the City of Fresno shall assume the term now held by the member of the legislative body of the city serving as a director. The director appointed by the legislative body of the City of Clovis shall assume the term beginning August 3, 1982. The Director of Public Works of the City of Fresno shall continue to serve as a member of the board of directors until the City of Fresno appoints a new member to replace either public official of the City of Fresno now serving as a member or appoints a new member to replace any member previously appointed by the City of Fresno. The Director of Public Works of the County of Fresno shall continue to serve as a member of the board of directors until the City of Clovis appoints a new member pursuant to this section.

The chairman of the board shall hold office for a term of two years from the date of his election as chairman. The secretary of the board shall hold office at the pleasure of the board. Four members of the board shall constitute a quorum, and the decision of a majority of all of the members of the board shall be necessary to take any action, unless otherwise in this act provided; provided, however, that if a meeting is not attended by a majority of the members of the board a lesser number may adjourn the meeting to a specified time and any meeting may be adjourned by the vote of a majority of the members present.

The board shall by resolution fix a regular time and place of meeting, and no notice of regular meetings need be given. The board shall also provide the method of calling special meetings and of giving notice thereof, but no special meeting shall be called upon less than 24 hours notice, except that in an emergency a special meeting may be called upon not less than three hours notice or may be held pursuant to a waiver of notice signed by all members of the board and filed with the minutes of the meeting. Any such emergency call or waiver shall set forth a general statement of the facts deemed to create the emergency. No defect in such statement shall invalidate the special meeting. If any vacancy occurs in any appointive office of the board of directors, such vacancy shall be filled within 60 days from the date it occurs in the same manner as the original appointment was made. If any director is absent from three consecutive meetings of the board of directors, the secretary of the board shall report the absence to the appointing body. The board shall adopt a seal. It may also provide rules and regulations for the conduct of its meetings and may change such rules and regulations from time to time.

SEC. 5. Section 7 of the Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control Act (Chapter 503 of the Statutes of 1955) is amended to read:

Sec. 7. The objects and purposes of this act and of said district shall be to provide for (1) the control of flood, storm and other waste waters of or within said district, including waters which arise outside said district and which flow or drain into or through the said district; (2) the protection from damage by flood, storm or waste waters of private property and of public highways and other public property within said district; and (3) the conservation of flood, storm, waste, and other surface waters for beneficial and useful purposes by spreading, storing, retaining or causing such waters, or any part thereof, to percolate into the soil within or without said district or the saving and conservation in any manner of any or all of such waters.

SEC. 6. Section 8 of the Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control Act (Chapter 503 of the Statutes of 1955) is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 8 is added to the Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control Act (Chapter 503 of the Statutes of 1955), to read:

Sec. 8. The district shall be and constitute a public corporation, and as such has the powers enumerated in this act, all powers necessarily or reasonably implied therefrom, and all powers necessarily or reasonably implied from the creation and existence of such district. The powers include the following:

1. To have perpetual succession.

2. To sue and be sued in the name of the district in all actions and proceedings in all courts and tribunals of competent jurisdiction.

3. To have and exercise the power of eminent domain.

4. To take by grant, exchange, purchase, including for cash, promissory note secured by purchase money deed of trust, assumption of existing indebtedness, or any combination thereof, gift, lease, devise or otherwise and to hold, use and enjoy real or personal property of every kind within or without the district necessary to or convenient for the full exercise of its powers.

5. To acquire lands, rights-of-way, easements, privileges and property of every kind and nature, to construct, maintain and operate any or all works or improvements within or without the district necessary or proper to carry out any of the objects or purposes of this act, and to complete, extend, add to, repair or otherwise improve any works or improvements acquired by it as herein authorized, or, pursuant to a contract authorized by paragraph 10 of this section, any works or improvements owned or constructed by the City of Fresno, the City of Clovis, the County of Fresno, Fresno Irrigation District, or any other public agency, or any two or more thereof, and used in whole or in part for flood control, storm drainage or water conservation purposes.

6. To levy or cause to be levied as herein provided, upon real property in the district, taxes for the purpose of providing funds for the district and for paying any obligations thereof.

7. To levy or cause to be levied assessments or benefit assessments as provided by the Water Code, the Revenue and Taxation Code, the Government Code, or the Streets and Highways Code.

8. To incur indebtedness and to issue notes, bonds or other evidence of such indebtedness in the manner herein provided.

9. To make contracts and to employ appraisers, consultants, attorneys, engineers and other technical advisers and all employees necessary or convenient for the administration of the district, the maintenance and operation of any works under its jurisdiction, and the planning of any works or construction under this act.

10. To contract with the City of Fresno, County of Fresno, Fresno Irrigation District, or any other public agency or any public utility for the use of any rights-of-way, easements, lands, works or property owned by any thereof which are necessary, convenient or useful to the district or necessary or convenient for the construction or operation of any flood control works or storm drain works proposed to be financed by the flood control district; to contract with any of such public agencies for the acquisition or construction by such public agency of any flood control or storm drain works financed by the district, or the maintenance and operation thereof, or for any or all of the foregoing, and the flood control district may carry out any or all of its powers either separately or in conjunction with one or more of the public agencies, and may make any contract or lease or accept any conveyance of property necessary or convenient for the accomplishment of the purposes of the flood control district. The powers granted by this subparagraph shall be liberally construed.

11. To develop property for recreational uses and purposes in connection with the use thereof for control or conservation of waters or to lease to or contract with individuals or public or private agencies for use or for development and use thereof for the recreational purposes.

12. To sell or dispose of real property, rights to surface or groundwaters, or any interest therein or part thereof whenever, in the judgment of two-thirds of the board of directors, the real property, water rights, or interest therein or part thereof is no longer required for the purposes of the district and to pay any compensation received therefor into the general fund of the district and use the same for the purposes of this act. To lease or let real property or rights to surface or groundwaters and sell, dispose of, lease or let personal property, or any interest therein or part thereof, whenever, in the judgment of a majority of all the members of the board of directors, the real or personal property or interest therein or part thereof is no longer required for the purposes of the district or may be leased or let for any purpose without interfering with the use thereof for the purposes of the district, and to pay any compensation received therefor into the general fund of the district and use the same for the purposes of this act.

13. To acquire by grant, purchase, gift, lease, devise, permit, or otherwise and to hold, use, and enjoy the rights to surface and groundwaters and to undertake those acts necessary to the beneficial use of such waters.

14. To levy fees and charges for the services, supplies, or material provided by district, the fees and charges, duly adopted by resolution of the district, not to exceed the actual cost of the services, supplies, or material.

SEC. 8. Section 9 of the Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control Act (Chapter 503 of the Statutes of 1955) is amended to read:

Sec. 9. The district may enter into contracts and do any and all acts necessary or proper for the performance of any agreement with the United States or the State of California or the County of Fresno, the City of Fresno, the City of Clovis, or the Fresno Irrigation District, or any public or private corporation, association, firm or individual, or any number of them for the joint acquisition, construction, leasing, ownership, disposition, use, management, maintenance, repair or operation of any levees, works, canals or other property of any kind which might lawfully be acquired or owned by the district, and may acquire the right to carry water through any artificial watercourse, canal, ditch or conduit not owned or controlled by the district, and may grant to any owner or lessee of any such canal, ditch or conduit (including any artificial watercourse used in part for irrigation purposes) the right to the use of any water carried through any such artificial watercourse, canal, ditch or conduit, or any canal, ditch or conduit of the district. Said district may also agree to indemnify the United States of America, the State of California, or any county, city, or irrigation district which manages, controls, or operates works constructed by or for or used by the flood control district for flood control, drainage or water conservation purposes.

SEC. 9. Section 11 of the Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control Act (Chapter 503 of the Statutes of 1955) is repealed.

SEC. 10. Section 11 is added to the Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control Act (Chapter 503 of the Statutes of 1955), to read:

Sec. 11. Each member of the board of directors shall receive not to exceed fifty dollars ($50) for each day's attendance at meetings of the board or committees of the board, provided, however, that these members shall not be compensated for more than two such meetings in any calendar month. Further, each such member of the board of directors shall be entitled to a per diem not exceeding fifty dollars ($50) per day while engaged in other official business under the order of the board. Each member of the board of directors, whether or not an official of a public entity, shall receive his actual and necessary expenses while engaged in official business under the order of the board.

SEC. 11. Section 13 of the Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control Act (Chapter 503 of the Statutes of 1955) is repealed.

SEC. 12. Section 13 is added to the Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control Act (Chapter 503 of the Statutes of 1955), to read:

Sec. 13. All contracts for materials, supplies, or for the construction or repair of works or improvements which has a contract price exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000) shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder after notice inviting bids is published in the district pursuant to Section 6061 of the Government Code, the publication to be not less than 10 days prior to the date set for the opening of bids. Such contracts may be let by the board without public bidding where (1) they are entered into with any other public agency for governmental entity, (2) the contract price does not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000), or (3) an emergency threatening the public health, safety, and welfare has been declared by the board. Contracts for the maintenance or operation of district works or improvements may be negotiated when determined by board to be in the public interest.

SEC. 13. Section 14 of the Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control Act (Chapter 503 of the Statutes of 1955) is repealed.

SEC. 14. Section 14 is added to the Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control Act (Chapter 503 of the Statutes of 1955), to read:

Sec. 14. (a) The district may borrow money and incur indebtedness for its ordinary expenses and to pay engineers, attorneys, and other employees of the district. Each such borrowing shall be authorized by a resolution of the board of directors and shall be evidenced by a note or notes. The total amount so borrowed shall not at any time exceed the amount which could be raised by a ten cent ($0.10) tax levy upon all taxable real property which is subject to such levy in the district as shown by the last equalized assessment roll. If the borrowing comes before an assessment roll for the district has been equalized, the county auditor shall estimate the assessed value of the real property which is subject to such levy in the district and furnish his certificate of such estimate to the board of directors of the district. The board of directors may borrow an amount not to exceed the sum which could be raised by a ten cent ($0.10) levy upon such estimated value of real property which is subject to such levy. For the purpose of such borrowing the certificate of valuation of the county auditor shall be final and conclusive. Any moneys so borrowed with interest thereon shall be repaid from the proceeds of the next succeeding tax levy or earlier if funds become available therefor.

(b) The district may borrow money and incur indebtedness to construct, repair, operate, or maintain improvements required as a result of declared emergencies or disasters. Each such borrowing shall be authorized by resolution of the board of directors. The total amount so borrowed shall not exceed the sum which could be raised by a ten cent ($0.10) tax levy upon the taxable real property of the district. If such borrowed funds are provided through a designated emergency or disaster program, the district may repay such loan in accordance with the provisions of such program. The district may also borrow from the State of California or the United States moneys provided by such units of government for the performance of local responsibilities required in conjunction with state or federal flood control, drainage, or water conservation, projects. Where no repayment term is specified in the special loan programs relating to declared emergencies, disasters, or state or federal programs, the loans shall be repaid within a period not to exceed 40 years.

SEC. 15. Section 15 of the Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control Act (Chapter 503 of the Statutes of 1955) is repealed.

SEC. 16. Section 15 is added to the Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control Act (Chapter 503 of the Statutes of 1955), to read:

Sec. 15. The district may incur a bonded indebtedness for the acquisition and construction of flood control works, including the acquisition of easements and property, to provide for (a) the control of flood, storm, or other waste waters of or within the district, including waters which arise outside the district and which flow or drain into or through the district; (b) the protection from damage by flood, storm, or waste waters of highways and private and public property within the district; and (c) the conservation of flood, storm, waste, and other surface waters for beneficial and useful purposes. The election therefor shall be called by resolution, and the resolution shall state the amount of principal of the indebtedness proposed to be incurred for these purposes, the maximum rate of interest to be paid on the indebtedness which shall not exceed the maximum legal rate at the time of such election, the manner of holding such election and of voting for or against the incurring of such indebtedness.

SEC. 17. Section 22(a) of the Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control Act (Chapter 503 of the Statutes of 1955) is amended to read:

Sec. 22(a). If the board of directors determines that the money needed by the district for acquisition and construction of land and improvements has been reduced by reason of the completion of works of improvement in a natural drainage area with defined boundaries, then the board may proportionately reduce the amount to be assessed upon the taxable real property in such drainage area for the fiscal year, so that the property owners in such drainage area will not be assessed for costs of acquisitions and improvements outside of such drainage area not of benefit to the property owners, and the board of directors may request that the board of supervisors determine the rate of assessment tax separately for such drainage area.

SEC. 18. Section 26 of the Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control Act (Chapter 503 of the Statutes of 1955), is repealed.

SEC. 19. Section 26 is added to the Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control Act (Chapter 503 of the Statutes of 1955), to read:

Sec. 26. The power of eminent domain vested in the board of directors of the district shall be exercised pursuant to the California Eminent Domain Law (commencing with Section 1230.010ff of the Code of Civil Procedure).

SEC. 20. Section 28 of the Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control Act (Chapter 503 of the Statutes of 1955) is amended to read:

Sec. 28. The words hereinafter defined shall be given the meaning stated in this section, unless the context of the word as used at a particular place in the act indicates a different meaning at such place.

1. As used in this act,

(a) "District" means "Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control District";

(b) "Board" means "board of directors of said district";

(c) "County" means "County of Fresno";

(d) "City" means "City of Fresno" when the land and works are within the City of Fresno and the "City of Clovis" when the land or works are within that city;

(e) "Irrigation district" means "Fresno Irrigation District";

(f) "Board of supervisors" means "Board of Supervisors of the County of Fresno."

2. As used in this act, the words "flood control works" include dams, reservoirs, canals, ditches, drains, the improvement of natural or artificial watercourses, and the acquisition and construction of any and all improvements appurtenant to or necessary for any flood control, drainage, or water conservation work or works, and include the acquisition of any land, easements, property or rights necessary for said flood control, drainage, or water conservation works.

3. As used in this act, the term "public official" means all appointed or elected officials and officers, including employees, of the City of Fresno, the City of Clovis, and the County of Fresno.

SEC. 21. Section 31 of the Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control Act (Chapter 503 of the Statutes of 1955) is repealed.

SEC. 22. Section 31 is added to the Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control Act (Chapter 503 of the Statutes of 1955), to read:

Sec. 31. Any parcel of land may be annexed to the district, when such land shall have been found by the board of directors to benefit, and any parcel of land may be excluded from the district, when such land shall have been found by the board of directors not to benefit, pursuant to this section.

The board of directors of the district may initiate annexation or exclusion proceedings by the adoption of a resolution of intention, or such action may be commenced by the filing of a petition.

SEC. 23. Section 32 of the Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control Act (Chapter 503 of the Statutes of 1955) is amended to read:

Sec. 32. A petition for annexation or exclusion shall be filed by not less than 25 percent in number of the owners of land owning not less than 25 percent of the total surface acreage proposed to be annexed or excluded, and shall be addressed to and filed with the board.

"Owner" shall be defined as a holder of title or holder of a portion of title identified on the last equalized assessment roll of the County of Fresno. In all matters in this section, the last equalized assessment roll of the County of Fresno shall be prima facie evidence as to the ownership of real property, the names and number of persons who are the holders of title or portion of title. Executors, administrators, trustees or guardians may sign for a named holder of title when such signature is supported by written authorization to so represent the named holder of title.

SEC. 24. Section 35 of the Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control Act (Chapter 503 of the Statutes of 1955) is amended to read:

Sec. 35. The notice shall state:

1. The date on which the petition was filed, or the date of adoption of the resolution of intention,

2. The petitioners' names, if any,

3. The location and boundaries of land described in the petition or resolution of intention,

4. The prayer of the petition, if any,

5. The time and place fixed for hearing the petition,

6. If determined by the board of directors, a statement of the payment to be required pursuant to Section 44, and

7. That all persons interested in or affected by such change in the district boundaries may appear and show cause why the change should not be made,

8. That each holder of title or each joint holder of title may submit a signed written protest identifying the name of the protesting holder of title, the street address or other description sufficient to identify the protesting owner's property on the last equalized assessment roll, and that the signed written protest of any joint holder of title shall constitute a protest of an owner of land, and that executors, administrators, trustees, and guardians may sign such protest for a holder or joint holder of title when such signature is accompanied by written authorization to so represent the named holder of title,

9. The name and telephone number of the district representative from whom additional information regarding the annexation can be obtained,

10. The date by which written protests are to have been received by the secretary of the district.

SEC. 25. Section 38 of the Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control Act (Chapter 503 of the Statutes of 1955) is amended to read:

Sec. 38. If the board deems the annexation or exclusion of all or part of the land for the best interest of the district and if protests are not received from more than 50 percent in number of the owners of the land to be annexed or excluded, the board shall by resolution annex or exclude all or part of the land described in the petition and shall declare the district boundaries as changed.

SEC. 26. Section 39 of the Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control Act (Chapter 503 of the Statutes of 1955) is amended to read:

Sec. 39. If a majority of the owners of lands within the territory proposed to be annexed or excluded protest, in writing, such annexation or exclusion to the board, the board shall (1) call, an election within the area proposed to be annexed or excluded to decide whether the proposed annexation or exclusion shall occur, or (2) terminate the annexation or exclusion proceedings.

SEC. 27. Section 40 of the Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control Act (Chapter 503 of the Statutes of 1955) is amended to read:

Sec. 40. Upon determining that an election shall be called, the board shall adopt a resolution calling such election, which resolution shall describe the boundaries of the land to be annexed or excluded, the date of the election, whether the election shall be held at the polls or by mailed ballot, and if at the polls the hours which the polls shall be kept open, which need not exceed seven consecutive hours, the polling place, and shall state the proposition:

"Shall the territory described in the resolution adopted by the board of directors on _____, 19____, be (annexed to) (excluded from) the Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control District?"

Notice of election shall be given by publishing the resolution at least once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation, printed and circulated within the district, in which case no other notice of election need be given, or notice may be given as otherwise provided by law.

SEC. 28. Section 43 of the Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control Act (Chapter 503 of the Statutes of 1955) is amended to read:

Sec. 43. Exclusion of territory pursuant to board resolution, whether or not an election was held, shall not become effective until all debts and obligations existing pursuant to this act, including loans from the general fund of the district, have been fully paid. However, subsequent to the adoption of such resolution of exclusion, the territory shall not be subjected to any further debts or obligations pursuant to this act.

SEC. 29. Section 46 of the Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control Act (Chapter 503 of the Statutes of 1955) is repealed.

SEC. 30. Section 46 is added to the Fresno Metropolitan Flood Control Act (Chapter 503 of the Statutes of 1955), to read:

Sec. 46. (a) The board, by resolution thereof, adopted from time to time, may establish flood control zones within the district, setting forth in such resolutions descriptions of the zones by metes and bounds and entitling the zones by zone number, and institute zone projects for the specific benefit of such zones.

Proceedings for the establishment of such zones may be conducted concurrently with and as part of proceedings for the institution of projects relating to such zones, which proceedings shall be taken and had in the manner prescribed in subdivision (b) of this section.

(b) The board may institute projects for single zones and joint projects for two or more zones, for the financing, constructing, maintaining, operating, extending, repairing or otherwise improving any work or improvement authorized by this act and of common benefit to such zone or participating zones. For the purpose of acquiring authority to proceed with any such project, the board shall adopt a resolution specifying its intention to undertake such project, together with the engineering estimates of the cost of the project to be borne by the particular zone and, in the case of participating zones, the proportionate cost to be borne by each of the participating zones and fixing a time and place for public hearing of said resolution and which shall refer to a map or maps showing the general location and general construction of the project. Notice of such hearing shall be given by publication pursuant to Section 6066 of the Government Code in a newspaper of general circulation in such zone or each of said participating zones, if there be such a newspaper, and if there be no such newspaper then by posting notice for two consecutive weeks prior to said hearing in five public places designated by the board, in such zone or in each of said participating zones. The notice must designate a public place in such zone or in each of said participating zones where a copy or copies of the map or maps of said joint project may be seen by any interested person; the map shall be posted in each of said public places so designated in said notice at least two weeks prior to the hearing.

At the time and place fixed for the hearing, or at any time to which the hearing may be continued, the board shall consider all written and oral objections to the proposed project. Upon the conclusion of the hearing the board may abandon the proposed project or proceed with the same, unless, prior to the conclusion of said hearing, a written protest against the proposed project signed by a holder or holders of title to the real property, or assessable rights therein, or evidence of title thereto, representing more than a majority of the owners of property within such zone or within any of the participating zones for which said project was initiated, be filed with the board and not withdrawn in which event said proceedings shall be terminated and no new proceeding contemplating projects of the same zone or zones shall be commenced within a period of six months following the date of such termination.

In all matters in this section referred to, the last equalized assessment roll of the County of Fresno next preceding the filing of the protest shall be prima facie evidence as to the ownership of real property, the names and number of the persons who are the holders of title or evidence of title, or assessable rights therein.

Executors, administrators, trustees, and guardians may sign the protest provided for in this act on behalf of the estate represented by them when such signature is supported by written authorization to so represent the named holder of title.

Where real property is owned in common or jointly, the signed written protest of any joint holder of title shall constitute a protest of an owner of land; however, an owner may in a signed writing designate a representative to file a written protest on behalf of the owner.

The protest of any public or quasi-public corporation, private corporation or unincorporated association, may be signed by any person authorized by the board of directors or trustees or other managing body thereof, which authorization shall be in writing; and a proxy executed by an officer or officers thereof, attested by its seal, shall constitute sufficient evidence of such authority, and shall be filed with the board.

Where the real property has been contracted to be sold, the vendee shall be entitled to sign the protest, unless such real property is assessed in the name of the vendor, in which event the vendor shall be entitled to so do.

The board shall likewise be entitled to inquire and take evidence for the purpose of identifying any person claiming the right to sign the protest as being the person shown on the assessment roll or otherwise as entitled thereto. And, unless satisfactory evidence is furnished, the right to sign the protest may be denied.

(c) The board may levy assessments, benefit assessments, or taxes, as provided herein, or incur bonded indebtedness to pay the cost of any work or improvement or the operating, maintaining, repairing or extending any work or improvement within such zone or zones.

(d) The procedure for authorizing bonds shall be as follows:

(1) Whenever the board determines that a bonded indebtedness should be incurred to pay the cost of any work or improvement in any zones, the board may by resolution determine and declare the respective amounts of bonds necessary to be issued in each zone in order to raise the amount of money necessary for each work or improvement and the denomination and the maximum rate of interest of the bonds. The board shall cause a copy of the resolution, duly certified by the secretary, to be filed for record in the office of the Recorder of Fresno County within five days after its issuance. From and after the filing of the copy of the resolution the board shall be deemed vested with the authority to proceed with the bond election.

(2) After the filing for record of the resolution specified in (1) of this subdivision the board may call a special bond election in the zone or participating zones at which shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the zone or participating zones the question whether or not bonds shall be issued in the amount or amounts determined in the resolution and for the purpose or purposes therein stated. The bonds and the interest thereon shall be paid from revenue derived from annual assessments, benefit assessments, or assessment taxes levied as provided in this act.

(3) The board shall call such special bond election by resolution and submit to the qualified electors of the zone or participating zones the proposition of incurring a bonded debt in the zone or participating zones in the amount and for the purposes stated in said resolution and shall recite therein the objects and purposes for which the indebtedness is proposed to be incurred; provided, that it shall be sufficient to give a brief, general description of such objects and purposes, and refer to the recorded copy of the resolution specified in paragraph (1) of this subdivision, and on file for particulars; and said resolution shall also state the estimated cost of the proposed work and improvements, the amount of the principal of the indebtedness to be incurred therefor, and the maximum rate of interest to be paid on said indebtedness, and shall fix the date on which such special election shall be held, and the form and contents of the ballot to be used. The rate of interest to be paid on such indebtedness shall not exceed the maximum rate permitted by law. For the purposes of said election, said board shall provide in said resolution for such election by mailed ballot or shall in said resolution establish special bond election precincts within the boundaries of each zone and participating zone and may form election precincts by consolidating the precincts established for general elections in said district to a number not exceeding six general precincts for each such special bond election precinct, and shall designate a polling place and appoint one inspector, one judge and one clerk for each of such special bond election precincts.

The board shall cause a map or maps to be prepared covering a general description of the work to be done, which said map shall show the location of the proposed works and improvements and shall cause the map to be posted in a prominent place in the county courthouse for public inspection for at least 30 days before the date fixed for such election.

The resolution calling for such special bond election shall, prior to the date set for such election, be published in a newspaper of general circulation circulated in each zone and participating zone affected for six consecutive times, if published in a daily newspaper of general circulation, or two times, if published in a weekly newspaper of general circulation. The last publication of such resolution must be at least 14 days before said election, and if there be no such newspaper, then such resolution shall be posted in five public places, designated by the board, in each zone and participating zone for at least 30 days before the date fixed for such election. No other notice of such election need be given nor polling place cards be issued.

Any defect or irregularity in the proceedings prior to the calling of such special bond election shall not affect the validity of the bonds authorized by said election. Where a project affects a single zone only, if at such election a majority of the votes cast in said zone on the proposition of incurring a bonded indebtedness are in favor thereof, then bonds for such zone for the amount stated in such proceedings shall be issued and sold as in this act provided. Where the incurring of bonded indebtedness by participating zones is to be determined at such election, no bonds for any of such participating zones shall be issued or sold unless a majority of the votes cast on the proposition in each such participating zone are in favor of incurring the bonded indebtedness to be undertaken by such zone.

(e) The board shall, subject to the provisions of this act, prescribe by resolution the form of the bonds, which must include a designation of the zone or participating zone affected, and of the interest coupons attached thereto. The bonds shall be payable, annually or semiannually at the discretion of the board, each and every year on a day and date, and at a place, to be fixed by the board and designated in such bonds, together with the interest on all sums unpaid on such date until the whole of the indebtedness shall have been paid.

The board may divide the principal amount of any issue into two or more series and fix different dates for the bonds of each series. The bonds of one series may be made payable at different times from those of any other series. The maturity of each series shall comply with this section. The board may fix a date, not more than two years from the date of issuance for the earliest maturity of each issue or series of bonds. The final maturity date shall not exceed 40 years from the time of incurring the indebtedness evidenced by each issue or series.

The bonds shall be issued in such denomination as the board may determine, except that no bonds shall be of a less denomination than one hundred dollars ($100), nor of a greater denomination than ten thousand dollars ($10,000), and shall be payable on the days and at the place fixed in said bonds, and with interest at the rate specified in such bonds, which rate shall not be in excess of the maximum rate allowed by law, and shall be made payable annually or semiannually, and said bonds shall be numbered consecutively and shall be signed by the chairman of the board, and countersigned by the secretary of said district, and the seal of said district shall be affixed thereto by said secretary. Either or both of such signatures may be printed, engraved or lithographed. The interest coupons of said bonds shall be numbered consecutively and signed by the said secretary by his printed, engraved or lithographed signature. In case any such officers whose signatures or countersignatures appear on the bonds or coupons shall cease to be such officers before the delivery of such bonds to the purchaser, such bonds and coupons, and signatures or countersignatures shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes the same as if such officers had remained in office until the delivery of the bonds.

(f) The board may issue and sell the bonds of any such zones authorized as hereinbefore provided above or below par value, and the proceeds of the sale of such bonds shall be placed in the treasury of the County of Fresno to the credit of the district and the respective participating zones thereof, for the use and purposes of the zone or zones voting said bonds; and the proper record of such transactions shall be placed upon the books of said county treasurer, and the respective zone funds shall be applied exclusively to the purposes and objects mentioned in the resolution calling for such special bond election as aforesaid, subject to the provisions in this act contained. Payments from the zone funds shall be made upon demands prepared, presented, allowed and audited in the same manner as demands upon the funds of the County of Fresno.

(g) Any bonds issued under the provisions of this act, and the interest thereon, shall be paid by revenue derived from an annual tax consisting of a levy or assessment upon all real property within a zone or participating zones, including both land and improvements thereon.

(h) The board shall levy an assessment tax each year sufficient to pay the interest and such portion of the principal of said bonds as is due or to become due before the time for making the next general levy. Such assessment taxes shall be levied and collected in the respective zones of issuance together with and not separately from taxes for county purposes, and when collected shall be paid into the county treasury of Fresno County to the credit of the zone of issuance, and to be used for the payment of the principal and interest on said bonds and for no other purpose. The principal and interest on said bonds shall be paid by the county treasurer of said Fresno County in the manner provided by law for the payment of principal and interest on bonds of the county.

(i) The provisions of law of this state, prescribing the time and manner of levying, assessing, equalizing and collecting county property taxes, including the sale of property for delinquency and the redemption from such sale, and the duties of the several county officers with respect thereto, are, so far as they are applicable, and not in conflict with the specific provisions of this act, hereby adopted and made a part hereof.

(j) The bonds of the district issued for any zone thereof pursuant to this act, shall be legal investments for all trust funds, and for the funds of all insurance companies, banks, both commercial and savings, and trust companies, and for the state school funds, and whenever any money or funds may by law now or hereafter enacted be invested in bonds of cities, cities and counties, counties, school districts or municipalities in the State of California, such money or funds may be invested in the bonds of the district, issued in accordance with the provisions of this act, and whenever bonds of cities, cities and counties, counties, school districts or municipalities, may by any law now or hereafter enacted be used as security for the performance of any act, such bonds of the district may be so used.

This section of this act is intended to be and shall be considered the latest enactment with respect to the matters herein contained and any and all acts or parts of acts in conflict with the provisions hereof are hereby repealed.

(k) All bonds issued by the district under the provisions of this act shall be free and exempt from all taxation within the State of California. It is hereby declared that the district organized by this act is a legal government within the meaning of Section 26 of Article XIII of the Constitution of this state.

(l) The repeal or amendment of this act shall not in any way affect or release any of the property in said district or any zone thereof from the obligations of any outstanding bonds or indebtedness until all such bonds and outstanding indebtedness have been fully paid and discharged.

(m) Notwithstanding any provisions of this act to the contrary, in the event the proceeds from the sale of bonds of any zone are invested temporarily in United States bonds, notes, or certificates of indebtedness, or in other legal investments pending the expenditure of the funds for the purpose or purposes for which the indebtedness was incurred, any revenue or interest received or accruing therefrom may be used to pay the annual or semiannual installments of principal or interest on the bonds as the same becomes due.

SEC. 31. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act.

CHAPTER 662

An act to amend Sections 500, 502, 503, 5151, 5222, 5510, 5513, 6310, 6338, 7151, 7222, 7235, 7312, 7510, 7513, 8014, 8016, 8310, 8322, 8338, 8510, 9246, 9413, 9510, and 10014 of, to add Section 5342 to, and to repeal Sections 10006 and 10011 of, the Corporations Code, relating to corporations.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 500 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

500. Neither a corporation nor any of its subsidiaries shall make any distribution to the corporation's shareholders (Section 166) unless:

(a) The amount of the retained earnings of the corporation immediately prior thereto equals or exceeds the amount of the proposed distribution; or

(b) Immediately after giving effect thereto:

(1) The sum of the assets of the corporation (exclusive of goodwill, capitalized research and development expenses and deferred charges) would be at least equal to 1¼ times its liabilities (not including deferred taxes, deferred income and other deferred credits); and

(2) The current assets of the corporation would be at least equal to its current liabilities or, if the average of the earnings of the corporation before taxes on income and before interest expense for the two preceding fiscal years was less than the average of the interest expense of the corporation for such fiscal years, at least equal to 1¼ times its current liabilities; provided, however, that in determining the amount of the assets of the corporation profits derived from an exchange of assets shall not be included unless the assets received are currently realizable in cash; and provided, further, that for the purpose of this subdivision "current assets" may include net amounts which the board has determined in good faith may reasonably be expected to be received from customers during the 12-month period used in calculating current liabilities pursuant to existing contractual relationships obligating such customers to make fixed or periodic payments during the term of the contract or, in the case of public utilities, pursuant to service connections with customers, after in each case giving effect to future costs not then included in current liabilities but reasonably expected to be incurred by the corporation in performing such contracts or providing service to utility customers. The amount of any distribution payable in property shall, for the purpose of this chapter, be determined on the basis of the value at which such property is carried on the corporation's financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) is not applicable to a corporation which does not classify its assets into current and fixed under generally accepted accounting principles. For the purpose of applying this section to a distribution by a corporation of cash or property in payment in whole or in part of an obligation incurred by the corporation in connection with the purchase of its shares, there shall be added to retained earnings any amount that had been deducted therefrom at the time the obligation was incurred, but not in excess of the principal of the obligation which remains unpaid immediately prior to the distribution and there shall be deducted from liabilities any amount which had been added thereto at the time the obligation was incurred, but not in excess of the principal of the obligation which will remain unpaid after the distribution.

SEC. 2. Section 502 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

502. Neither a corporation nor any of its subsidiaries shall make any distribution to the corporation's shareholders (Section 166) on any shares of its stock of any class or series which are junior to outstanding shares of any other class or series with respect to distribution of assets on liquidation if, after giving effect thereto, the excess of its assets (exclusive of goodwill, capitalized research and development expenses and deferred charges) over its liabilities (not including deferred taxes, deferred income and other deferred credits) would be less than the liquidation preference of all shares having a preference on liquidation over the class or series to which the distribution is made; provided, however, that for the purpose of applying this section to a distribution by a corporation of cash or property in payment in whole or in part of an obligation incurred by the corporation in connection with the purchase of its shares, there shall be deducted from liabilities any amount which had been added thereto at the time the obligation was incurred, but not in excess of the principal of the obligation which will remain unpaid after the distribution.

SEC. 3. Section 503 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

503. Neither a corporation nor any of its subsidiaries shall make any distribution to the corporation's shareholders (Section 166) on any shares of its stock of any class or series which are junior to outstanding shares of any other class or series with respect to payment of dividends unless the amount of the retained earnings of the corporation immediately prior thereto equals or exceeds the amount of the proposed distribution plus the aggregate amount of the cumulative dividends in arrears on all shares having a preference with respect to payment of dividends over the class or series to which the distribution is made; provided, however, that for the purpose of applying this section to a distribution by a corporation of cash or property in payment in whole or in part of an obligation incurred by the corporation in connection with the purchase of its shares, there shall be added to retained earnings any amount that had been deducted therefrom at the time the obligation was incurred, but not in excess of the principal of the obligation which remains unpaid immediately prior to the distribution.

SEC. 4. Section 5151 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

5151. (a) The bylaws shall set forth (unless such provision is contained in the articles, in which case it may only be changed by an amendment of the articles) the number of directors of the corporation; or that the number of directors shall be not less than a stated minimum nor more than a stated maximum with the exact number of directors to be fixed, within the limits specified, by approval of the board or the members (Section 5034), in the manner provided in the bylaws, subject to subdivision (e) of Section 5151. The number or minimum number of directors may be one or more.

(b) Once members have been admitted, a bylaw specifying or changing a fixed number of directors or the maximum or minimum number or changing from a fixed to a variable board or vice versa may only be adopted by approval of the members (Section 5034).

(c) The bylaws may contain any provision, not in conflict with law or the articles, for the management of the activities and for the conduct of the affairs of the corporation, including but not limited to:

(1) Any provision referred to in subdivision (c) of Section 5132.

(2) The time, place and manner of calling, conducting and giving notice of members', directors' and committee meetings, or of conducting mail ballots.

(3) The qualifications, duties and compensation of directors; the time of their election; and the requirements of a quorum for directors' and committee meetings.

(4) The appointment and authority of committees.

(5) The appointment, duties, compensation and tenure of officers.

(6) The mode of determination of members of record.

(7) The making of reports and financial statements to members.

(8) Setting, imposing and collecting dues, assessments and admission fees.

(d) The bylaws may provide for the manner of admission, withdrawal, suspension, and expulsion of members, consistent with the requirements of Section 5341.

(e) The bylaws may require, for any or all corporate actions (except as provided in paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 5222, subdivision (c) of Section 5616, and Section 6610), the vote of a larger proportion of, or all of, the members or the members of any class, unit, or grouping of members, or the vote of a larger proportion of, or all of, the directors, than is otherwise required by this part. Such a provision in the bylaws requiring such greater vote shall not be altered, amended or repealed except by such greater vote, unless otherwise provided in the bylaws.

(f) The bylaws may contain a provision limiting the number of members, in total or of any class, which the corporation is authorized to admit.

SEC. 5. Section 5222 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

5222. (a) Subject to subdivisions (b) and (f) of this section, any or all directors may be removed without cause if:

(1) In a corporation with fewer than 50 members, such removal is approved by a majority of all members (Section 5033).

(2) In a corporation with 50 or more members, such removal is approved by the members (Section 5034).

(3) In a corporation with no members, such removal is approved by a majority of the directors then in office.

(b) Except for a corporation having no members pursuant to Section 5310:

(1) In a corporation in which the articles or bylaws authorize members to cumulate their votes pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 5616, no director may be removed (unless the entire board is removed) when the votes cast against removal, or not consenting in writing to such removal, would be sufficient to elect such director if voted cumulatively at an election at which the same total number of votes were cast (or, if such action is taken by written ballot, all memberships entitled to vote were voted) and the entire number of directors authorized at the time of the director's most recent election were then being elected.

(2) When by the provisions of the articles or bylaws the members of any class, voting as a class, are entitled to elect one or more directors, any director so elected may be removed only by the applicable vote of the members of that class.

(c) Any reduction of the number of directors authorized in the articles or bylaws does not remove any director prior to the expiration of such director's term of office.

(d) Except as provided in this section and Sections 5221 and 5223, a director may not be removed prior to the expiration of such director's term of office.

(e) Where a director removed under this section or Section 5221 or 5223 was chosen by designation pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 5220, then:

(1) Where a different person may be designated pursuant to governing article or bylaw provision, such new designation shall be made.

(2) Where the governing article or bylaw provision contains no provision under which a different person may be designated, the governing article or bylaw provision shall be deemed repealed.

(f) When by the provisions of the articles or bylaws a person or persons are entitled to designate one or more directors, then:

(1) Unless otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws at the time of designation, any director so designated may be removed without cause by the designating person or persons.

(2) Any director so designated may only be removed under subdivision (a) with the written consent of the designating person or persons.

SEC. 6. Section 5342 is added to the Corporations Code, to read:

5342. (a) An amendment of the articles or bylaws which would terminate all memberships or any class of memberships shall meet the requirements of this part and this section.

(b) Before such an amendment is adopted the corporation shall give written notice to members not less than 45 nor more than 90 days prior to any vote by the members on the amendment. The written notice shall describe the effect of the amendment on the corporation and the members.

(c) Any such amendment shall be approved by the members (Section 5034).

(d) The articles or bylaws may impose additional requirements regarding termination of all memberships or any class of memberships.

(e) Upon request of a member the corporation shall provide at its option the rights set forth in either paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 6330 as soon as reasonably possible to allow the member to communicate with other members regarding the proposed amendment.

(f) Any such amendment shall terminate the rights members have pursuant to this part as members (Section 5056).

(g) The provisions of Section 5341 shall not apply to termination of all memberships or any class of memberships pursuant to an amendment of the articles or bylaws.

SEC. 7. Section 5510 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

5510. (a) Meetings of members may be held at a place within or without the state that is stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. If no other place is so stated or fixed, meetings of members shall be held at the principal office of the corporation.

(b) A regular meeting of members shall be held on a date and time, and with the frequency stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws, but in any event in each year in which directors are to be elected at that meeting for the purpose of conducting such election, and to transact any other proper business which may be brought before the meeting.

(c) If a corporation with members is required by subdivision (b) to hold a regular meeting and fails to hold the regular meeting for a period of 60 days after the date designated therefor or, if no date has been designated, for a period of 15 months after the formation of the corporation, or after its last regular meeting, or if the corporation fails to hold a written ballot for a period of 60 days after the date designated therefor, then the superior court of the proper county may summarily order the meeting to be held or the ballot to be conducted upon the application of a member or the Attorney General, after notice to the corporation giving it an opportunity to be heard.

(d) The votes represented, either in person or by proxy, at a meeting called or by written ballot ordered pursuant to subdivision

(c), and entitled to be cast on the business to be transacted shall constitute a quorum, notwithstanding any provision of the articles or bylaws or in this part to the contrary. The court may issue such orders as may be appropriate including, without limitation, orders designating the time and place of the meeting, the record date for determination of members entitled to vote, and the form of notice of the meeting.

(e) Special meetings of members for any lawful purpose may be called by the board, the chairman of the board, the president, or such other persons, if any, as are specified in the bylaws. In addition, special meetings of members for any lawful purpose may be called by 5 percent or more of the members.

SEC. 8. Section 5513 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

5513. (a) Subject to subdivision (e), and unless prohibited in the articles or bylaws, any action which may be taken at any regular or special meeting of members may be taken without a meeting if the corporation distributes a written ballot to every member entitled to vote on the matter. Such ballot shall set forth the proposed action, provide an opportunity to specify approval or disapproval of any proposal, and provide a reasonable time within which to return the ballot to the corporation.

(b) Approval by written ballot pursuant to this section shall be valid only when the number of votes cast by ballot within the time period specified equals or exceeds the quorum required to be present at a meeting authorizing the action, and the number of approvals equals or exceeds the number of votes that would be required to approve at a meeting at which the total number of votes cast was the same as the number of votes cast by ballot.

(c) Ballots shall be solicited in a manner consistent with the requirements of subdivision (b) of Section 5511, and Section 5514. All such solicitations shall indicate the number of responses needed to meet the quorum requirement and, with respect to ballots other than for the election of directors, shall state the percentage of approvals necessary to pass the measure submitted. The solicitation must specify the time by which the ballot must be received in order to be counted.

(d) Unless otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, a written ballot may not be revoked.

(e) Directors may be elected by written ballot under this section, where authorized by the articles or bylaws, except that election by written ballot may not be authorized where the directors are elected by cumulative voting pursuant to Section 5616.

(f) When directors are to be elected by written ballot and the articles or bylaws prescribe a nomination procedure, the procedure may provide for a date for the close of nominations prior to the printing and distributing of the written ballots.

SEC. 9. Section 6310 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

6310. If any record subject to inspection pursuant to this chapter is not maintained in written form, a request for inspection is not complied with unless and until the corporation at its expense makes such record available in written form. For the purposes of this chapter "written" or "in writing" also includes cathode ray tube and similar electronic communications methods.

SEC. 10. Section 6338 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

6338. (a) A membership list is a corporate asset. Without consent of the board a membership list or any part thereof may not be used by any person for any purpose not reasonably related to a member's interest as a member. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, without the consent of the board a membership list or any part thereof may not be:

(1) Used to solicit money or property unless such money or property will be used solely to solicit the vote of the members in an election to be held by their corporation.

(2) Used for any purpose which the user does not reasonably and in good faith believe will benefit the corporation.

(3) Used for any commercial purpose or purpose in competition with the corporation.

(4) Sold to or purchased by any person.

(b) Any person who violates the provisions of subdivision (a) shall be liable for any damage such violation causes the corporation and shall account for and pay to the corporation any profit derived as a result of such violation. In addition, a court in its discretion may award exemplary damages for a fraudulent or malicious violation of subdivision (a).

(c) Nothing in this article shall be construed to limit the right of a corporation to obtain injunctive relief necessary to restrain misuse of a membership list or any part thereof.

(d) In any action or proceeding under this section, a court may award the corporation reasonable costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, in connection with such action or proceeding.

(e) As used in this section, the term "membership list" means the record of the members' names and addresses.

SEC. 11. Section 7151 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

7151. (a) The bylaws shall set forth (unless such provision is contained in the articles, in which case it may only be changed by an amendment of the articles) the number of directors of the corporation; or that the number of directors shall be not less than a stated minimum nor more than a stated maximum with the exact number of directors to be fixed, within the limits specified, by approval of the board or the members (Section 5034), in the manner provided in the bylaws, subject to subdivision (e) of Section 7151. The number or minimum number of directors may be one or more.

(b) Once members have been admitted, a bylaw specifying or changing a fixed number of directors or the maximum or minimum number or changing from a fixed to a variable board or vice versa may only be adopted by approval of the members (Section 5034).

(c) The bylaws may contain any provision, not in conflict with law or the articles, for the management of the activities and for the conduct of the affairs of the corporation, including but not limited to:

(1) Any provision referred to in subdivision (c) of Section 7132.

(2) The time, place and manner of calling, conducting and giving notice of members', directors' and committee meetings, or of conducting mail ballots.

(3) The qualifications, duties and compensation of directors; the time of their election; and the requirements of a quorum for directors' and committee meetings.

(4) The appointment of committees, composed of directors or nondirectors or both, by the board or any officer and the authority of any such committees.

(5) The appointment, duties, compensation and tenure of officers.

(6) The mode of determination of members of record.

(7) The making of reports and financial statements to members.

(8) Setting, imposing and collecting dues, assessments, and admission and transfer fees.

(d) The bylaws may provide for the manner of admission, withdrawal, suspension, and expulsion of members, consistent with the requirements of Section 7341.

(e) The bylaws may require, for any or all corporate actions (except as provided in paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 7222, subdivision (c) of Section 7615, and Section 8610) the vote of a larger proportion of, or all of, the members or the members of any class, unit, or grouping of members or the vote of a larger proportion of, or all of, the directors, than is otherwise required by this part. Such a provision in the bylaws requiring such greater vote shall not be altered, amended or repealed except by such greater vote, unless otherwise provided in the bylaws.

(f) The bylaws may contain a provision limiting the number of members, in total or of any class, which the corporation is authorized to admit.

SEC. 12. Section 7222 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

7222. (a) Subject to subdivisions (b) and (f) of this section, any or all directors may be removed without cause if:

(1) In a corporation with fewer than 50 members, such removal is approved by a majority of all members (Section 5033).

(2) In a corporation with 50 or more members, such removal is approved by the members (Section 5034).

(3) In a corporation with no members, such removal is approved by a majority of the directors then in office.

(b) Except for a corporation having no members, pursuant to Section 7310:

(1) In a corporation in which the articles or bylaws authorize members to cumulate their votes pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 7615, no director may be removed (unless the entire board is removed) when the votes cast against removal, or not consenting in writing to such removal, would be sufficient to elect such director if voted cumulatively at an election at which the same total number of votes were cast (or, if such action is taken by written ballot, all memberships entitled to vote were voted) and the entire number of directors authorized at the time of the director's most recent election were then being elected.

(2) When by the provisions of the articles or bylaws the members of any class, voting as a class, are entitled to elect one or more directors, any director so elected may be removed only by the applicable vote of the members of that class.

(c) Any reduction of the number of directors authorized in the articles or bylaws does not remove any director prior to the expiration of such director's term of office.

(d) Except as provided in this section and Sections 7221 and 7223, a director may not be removed prior to the expiration of such director's term of office.

(e) Where a director removed under this section or Section 7221 or 7223 was chosen by designation pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 7220, then:

(1) Where a different person may be designated pursuant to the governing article or bylaw provision, such new designation shall be made.

(2) Where the governing article or bylaw provision contains no provision under which a different person may be designated, the governing article or bylaw provision shall be deemed repealed.

(f) When by the provisions of the articles or bylaws a person or persons are entitled to designate one or more directors, then:

(1) Unless otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws at the time of designation, any director so designated may be removed without cause by the designating person or persons.

(2) Any director so designated may only be removed under subdivision (a) with the written consent of the designating person or persons.

SEC. 13. Section 7235 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

7235. (a) Unless prohibited by the articles or bylaws, a corporation may loan money or property to, or guarantee the obligation of, any director or officer of the corporation or of its parent, affiliate or subsidiary, provided:

(1) The board determines the loan or guaranty may reasonably be expected to benefit the corporation.

(2) Prior to consummating the transaction or any part thereof, the loan or guaranty is either:

(A) Approved by the members (Section 5034), without counting the vote of the director or officer, if a member, or

(B) Approved by the vote of a majority of the directors then in office, without counting the vote of the director who is to receive the loan or the benefit of the guaranty.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a corporation may advance money to a director or officer of the corporation or of its parent, affiliate or subsidiary, for any expenses reasonably anticipated to be incurred in the performance of the duties of the director or officer of the corporation or of its parent, affiliate or subsidiary, for any expenses reasonably anticipated to be incurred in the performance of the duties of the director or officer, provided that in the absence of such an advance the director or officer would be entitled to be reimbursed for these expenses by the corporation, its parent, affiliate, or subsidiary.

(c) The provisions of subdivisions (a) and (b) do not apply to credit unions, or to the payment of premiums in whole or in part by a corporation on a life insurance policy on the life of a director or officer so long as repayment to the corporation of the amount paid by it is secured by the proceeds of the policy and its cash surrender value, or to loans permitted under any statute regulating any special class of corporations.

SEC. 14. Section 7312 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

7312. No person may hold more than one membership, and no fractional memberships may be held, provided, however, that:

(a) Two or more persons may have an indivisible interest in a single membership when authorized by, and in such manner or under the circumstances prescribed by, the articles or bylaws subject to Section 7612.

(b) If the articles or bylaws provide for classes of membership and if the articles or bylaws permit a person to be a member of more than one class, a person may hold a membership in one or more classes.

(c) Any branch, division, or office of any person, which is not formed primarily to be a member, may hold a separate membership.

(d) In the case of membership in an owners association, (as defined in Section 11003.1 of the Business and Professions Code, and created in connection with any of the forms of development referred to in Section 11004.5 of the Business and Professions Code) the articles or bylaws may permit a person who owns an interest, or who has a right of exclusive occupancy, in more than one lot, parcel, area, apartment, or unit to hold a separate membership in the owners association for each such lot, parcel, area, apartment, or unit.

(e) In the case of membership in a mutual water company, as defined in Section 330.24 of the Civil Code, the articles or bylaws may permit a person entitled to membership by reason of the ownership, lease, or right of occupancy of more than one lot, parcel, or other service unit to hold a separate membership in the mutual water company for each such lot, parcel, or other service unit.

SEC. 15. Section 7510 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

7510. (a) Meetings of members may be held at a place within or without the state that is stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. If no other place is so stated or fixed, meetings of members shall be held at the principal office of the corporation.

(b) A regular meeting of members shall be held on a date and time, and with the frequency stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws, but in any event in each year in which directors are to be elected at that meeting for the purpose of conducting such election, and to transact any other proper business which may be brought before the meeting.

(c) If a corporation with members is required by subdivision (b) to hold a regular meeting and fails to hold the regular meeting for a period of 60 days after the date designated therefor or, if no date has been designated, for a period of 15 months after the formation of the corporation or after its last regular meeting, or if the corporation fails to hold a written ballot for a period of 60 days after the date designated therefor, then the superior court of the proper county may summarily order the meeting to be held or the ballot to be conducted upon the application of a member, after notice to the corporation giving it an opportunity to be heard.

(d) The votes represented, either in person or by proxy, at a meeting called or by written ballot ordered pursuant to subdivision (c) and entitled to be cast on the business to be transacted shall constitute a quorum, notwithstanding any provision of the articles or bylaws or in this part to the contrary. The court may issue such orders as may be appropriate including, without limitation, orders designating the time and place of the meeting, the record date for determination of members entitled to vote, and the form of notice of the meeting.

(e) Special meetings of members for any lawful purpose may be called by the board, the chairman of the board, the president, or such other persons, if any, as are specified in the bylaws. In addition, special meetings of members for any lawful purpose may be called by 5 percent or more of the members.

SEC. 16. Section 7513 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

7513. (a) Subject to subdivision (e), and unless prohibited in the articles or bylaws, any action which may be taken at any regular or special meeting of members may be taken without a meeting if the corporation distributes a written ballot to every member entitled to vote on the matter. Such ballot shall set forth the proposed action, provide an opportunity to specify approval or disapproval of any proposal, and provide a reasonable time within which to return the ballot to the corporation.

(b) Approval by written ballot pursuant to this section shall be valid only when the number of votes cast by ballot within the time period specified equals or exceeds the quorum required to be present at a meeting authorizing the action, and the number of approvals equals or exceeds the number of votes that would be required to approve at a meeting at which the total number of votes cast was the same as the number of votes cast by ballot.

(c) Ballots shall be solicited in a manner consistent with the requirements of subdivision (b) of Section 7511 and Section 7514. All such solicitations shall indicate the number of responses needed to meet the quorum requirement and, with respect to ballots other than for the election of directors, shall state the percentage of approvals necessary to pass the measure submitted. The solicitation must specify the time by which the ballot must be received in order to be counted.

(d) Unless otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, a written ballot may not be revoked.

(e) Directors may be elected by written ballot under this section, where authorized by the articles or bylaws, except that election by written ballot may not be authorized where the directors are elected by cumulative voting pursuant to Section 7615.

(f) When directors are to be elected by written ballot and the articles or bylaws prescribe a nomination procedure, the procedure may provide for a date for the close of nominations prior to the printing and distributing of the written ballots.

SEC. 17. Section 8014 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

8014. After approval of a merger by the board and any approval by the members (Section 5034) required by Section 8012, the surviving corporation shall file a copy of the agreement of merger with an officers' certificate of each constituent corporation attached stating the total number of memberships of each class entitled to vote on the merger, identifying any other person or persons whose approval is required, and that the principal terms of the agreement in the form attached were duly approved by the required vote of the members and, if applicable, any other person or persons. The merger and any amendment of the articles of the surviving corporation contained in the merger agreement shall thereupon be effective (subject to subdivision (c) of Section 5008 and subject to the provisions of Section 8018) and the several parties thereto shall be one corporation. The agreement shall not be filed, however, until there has been filed by or on behalf of each corporation taxed under the Bank and Corporation Tax Law (Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code), the existence of which is terminated by the merger, the certificate of satisfaction of the Franchise Tax Board that all taxes imposed by such law have been paid or secured. The Secretary of State may certify a copy of the merger agreement separate from the officers' certificates attached thereto.

SEC. 18. Section 8016 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

8016. The board may, in its discretion, abandon a merger, subject to the contractual rights, if any, of third parties, including other constituent corporations, without further approval by the members (Section 5034) or other persons entitled to approve the merger at any time before the merger is effective.

SEC. 19. Section 8310 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

8310. If any record subject to inspection pursuant to this chapter is not maintained in written form, a request for inspection is not complied with unless and until the corporation at its expense makes such record available in written form. For the purposes of this chapter "written" or "in writing" also includes cathode ray tube and similar electronic communications methods.

SEC. 20. Section 8322 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

8322. (a) Any provision of the articles or bylaws notwithstanding, every corporation shall furnish annually to its members and directors a statement of any transaction or indemnification of a kind described in subdivision (d) or (e), if any such transaction or indemnification took place. If the corporation issues an annual report to all members, this subdivision shall be satisfied by including the required information in the annual report. A corporation which does not issue an annual report to all members, pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 8321, shall satisfy this section by mailing or delivering to its members the required statement within 120 days after the close of the corporation's fiscal year.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), a covered transaction under this section is a transaction in which the corporation, its parent, or its subsidiary was a party, and in which either of the following had a direct or indirect material financial interest:

(1) Any director or officer of the corporation, or its parent or subsidiary.

(2) Any holder of more than 10 percent of the voting power of the corporation, its parent or its subsidiary.

For the purpose of subdivision (d), an "interested person" is any person described in paragraph (1) or (2) of this subdivision.

(c) Transactions approved by the members of a corporation (Section 5034), under subdivision (a) of Section 7233, are not covered transactions. For the purpose of subdivision (b), a mere common directorship is not a material financial interest.

(d) The statement required by subdivision (a) shall describe briefly:

(1) Any covered transaction (excluding compensation of officers and directors) during the previous fiscal year involving more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), or which was one of a number of covered transactions in which the same interested person had a direct or indirect material financial interest, and which transactions in the aggregate involved more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000).

(2) The names of the interested persons involved in such transactions, stating such person's relationship to the corporation, the nature of such person's interest in the transaction and, where practicable, the amount of such interest; provided, that in the case of a transaction with a partnership of which such person is a partner, only the interest of the partnership need be stated.

(e) The statement required by subdivision (a) shall describe briefly the amount and circumstances of any loans, guaranties, indemnifications or advances aggregating more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) paid or made during the fiscal year to any officer or director of the corporation pursuant to Section 7237; provided that no such report need be made in the case of a loan, guaranty, or indemnification approved by the members (Section 5034) or a loan or guaranty not subject to the provisions of subdivision (a) of Section 7235.

SEC. 21. Section 8338 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

8338. (a) A membership list is a corporate asset. Without consent of the board a membership list or any part thereof may not be used by any person for any purpose not reasonably related to a member's interest as a member. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, without the consent of the board a membership list or any part thereof may not be:

(1) Used to solicit money or property unless such money or property will be used solely to solicit the vote of the members in an election to be held by their corporation.

(2) Used for any purpose which the user does not reasonably and in good faith believe will benefit the corporation.

(3) Used for any commercial purpose or purpose in competition with the corporation.

(4) Sold to or purchased by any person.

(b) Any person who violates the provisions of subdivision (a) shall be liable for any damage such violation causes the corporation and shall account for and pay to the corporation any profit derived as a result of said violation. In addition, a court in its discretion may award exemplary damages for a fraudulent or malicious violation of subdivision (a).

(c) Nothing in this article shall be construed to limit the right of a corporation to obtain injunctive relief necessary to restrain misuse of a membership list or any part thereof.

(d) In any action or proceeding under this section, a court may award the corporation reasonable costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, in connection with such action or proceeding.

(e) As used in this section, the term "membership list" means the record of the members' names and addresses.

SEC. 22. Section 8510 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

8510. (a) A complaint for involuntary dissolution of a corporation on any one or more of the grounds specified in subdivision (b) may be filed in the superior court of the proper county by any of the following persons:

(1) One-half or more of the directors in office.

(2) A person or persons holding or authorized in writing by persons holding not less than 33⅓ percent of the voting power exclusive of memberships held by persons who have personally participated in any of the transactions enumerated in paragraph (5) of subdivision (b).

(3) Any member if the ground for dissolution is that the period for which the corporation was formed has terminated without extension thereof.

(4) Any other person expressly authorized to do so in the articles.

(5) In the case of a corporation holding assets in charitable trust, the Attorney General.

(6) The head organization under whose authority the corporation was created, where the corporation's articles include the provision authorized by subdivision (a), paragraph (4), clause (i), of Section 7132.

(b) The grounds for involuntary dissolution are that:

(1) The corporation has abandoned its activity for more than one year.

(2) The corporation has an even number of directors who are equally divided and cannot agree as to the management of its affairs, so that its activities can no longer be conducted to advantage or so that there is danger that its property will be impaired or lost or its activities impaired and the members are so divided into factions that they cannot elect a board consisting of an uneven number.

(3) There is internal dissension and two or more factions of members in the corporation are so deadlocked that its activities can no longer be conducted with advantage.

(4) When during any four-year period or when all voting power has been exercised at two consecutive meetings or in two written ballots for the election of directors, whichever period is shorter, the members have failed to elect successors to directors whose terms have expired or would have expired upon election of their successors.

(5) Those in control of the corporation have been guilty of or have knowingly countenanced persistent and pervasive fraud, mismanagement or abuse of authority or persistent unfairness toward any member or the corporation's property is being misapplied or wasted by its directors or officers.

(6) In the case of any corporation with 35 or fewer members, liquidation is reasonably necessary for the protection of the rights or interests of a complaining member or members.

(7) The period for which the corporation was formed has terminated without extension of such period.

(8) The corporation is required to dissolve under the terms of any article provision adopted pursuant to subdivision (a), paragraph (4), clause (i) of Section 7132.

(c) At any time prior to the trial of the action any member or creditor may intervene therein.

(d) This section does not apply to any corporation subject to:

(1) The Public Utilities Act (Part 1 (commencing with Section

201) of Division 1 of the Public Utilities Code) unless an order is obtained from the Public Utilities Commission authorizing the corporation either (a) to dispose of its assets as provided in Section 851 of the Public Utilities Code or (b) to dissolve.

(2) The provisions of Article 14 (commencing with Section 1010) of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 1 of the Insurance Code when the application authorized by Section 1011 of the Insurance Code has been filed by the Insurance Commissioner unless the consent of the Insurance Commissioner has been obtained.

(3) The California Credit Union Law (Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 14000) of Division 5 of the Financial Code).

(e) In the case of a corporation holding assets in charitable trust at the time of the filing of the complaint pursuant to subdivision (a), a copy thereof shall be served on the Attorney General who may intervene.

SEC. 23. Section 9246 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

9246. (a) For the purposes of this section, "agent" means any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or other agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of a foreign or domestic corporation which was a predecessor corporation of the corporation or of another enterprise at the request of such precedessor corporation; "proceeding" means any threatened, pending, or completed action or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative; and "expenses" includes without limitation attorneys' fees and any expenses of establishing a right to indemnification under subdivision (d) or paragraph (3) of subdivision (e).

(b) A corporation shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any proceeding (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor, an action brought under Section 9243, or an action brought by the Attorney General pursuant to Section 9230) by reason of the fact that such person is or was an agent of the corporation, against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with such proceeding if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person believed to be in the best interests of the corporation and, in the case of a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct of such person was unlawful. The termination of any proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which the person believed to be in the best interests of the corporation or that the person had reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was unlawful.

(c) A corporation shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action by or in the right of the corporation, or brought under Section 9243, or brought by the Attorney General pursuant to Section 9230, to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that such person is or was an agent of the corporation, against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action if the person acted in good faith, in a manner in which such person believed to be in the best interests of the corporation and with such care, including reasonable inquiry, as an ordinary prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances. No idemnification shall be made under this subdivision:

(1) In respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation in the performance of such person's duty to the corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which such proceeding is or was pending shall determine upon application that, in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for the expenses which such court shall determine;

(2) Of amounts paid in settling or otherwise disposing of a threatened or pending action, with or without court approval; or

(3) Of expenses incurred in defending a threatened or pending action which is settled or otherwise disposed of without court approval unless it is settled with the approval of the Attorney General.

(d) To the extent that an agent of a corporation has been successful on the merits in defense of any proceeding referred to in subdivision (b) or (c) or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, the agent shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by the agent in connection therewith.

(e) Except as provided in subdivision (d), any indemnification under this section shall be made by the corporation only if authorized in the specific case, upon a determination that indemnification of the agent is proper in the circumstances because the agent has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in either subdivision (b) or (c) by:

(1) A majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who are not parties to such proceeding;

(2) Approval of the members (Section 5034), with the persons to be indemnified not being entitled to vote thereon; or

(3) The court in which such proceeding is or was pending upon application made by the corporation or the agent or the attorney or other person rendering services in connection with the defense, whether or not such application by the agent, attorney or other person is opposed by the corporation.

(f) Expenses incurred in defending any proceeding may be advanced by the corporation prior to the final disposition of such proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the agent to repay such amount unless it shall be determined ultimately that the agent is entitled to be indemnified as authorized in this section.

(g) No provision made by a corporation to indemnify its or its susidiary's directors or officers for the defense of any proceeding, whether contained in the articles, bylaws, a resolution of members or directors, an agreement or otherwise, shall be valid unless consistent with this section. Nothing contained in this section shall affect any right to indemnification to which persons other than such directors and officers may be entitled by contract or otherwise.

(h) No indemnification or advance shall be made under this section, except as provided in subdivision (d) or paragraph (3) of subdivision (e), in any circumstance where it appears that:

(1) It would be inconsistent with a provision of the articles, bylaws, a resolution of the members or an agreement in effect at the time of the accrual of the alleged cause of action asserted in the proceeding in which the expenses were incurred or other amounts were paid, which prohibits or otherwise limits indemnification; or

(2) It would be inconsistent with any condition expressly imposed by a court in approving a settlement.

(i) A corporation shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any agent of the corporation against any liability asserted against or incurred by the agent in such capacity or arising out of the agent's status as such whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify the agent against such liability under the provisions of this section; provided, however, that a corporation shall have no power to purchase and maintain such insurance to indemnify any agent of the corporation for a violation of Section 9243.

(j) This section does not apply to any proceeding against any trustee, investment manager or other fiduciary of an employee benefit plan in such person's capacity as such, even though such person may also be an agent as defined in subdivision (a) of the employer corporation. A corporation shall have power to indemnify such trustee, investment manager or other fiduciary to the extent permitted by subdivision (f) of Section 207.

SEC. 24. Section 9413 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

9413. (a) Any action which may be taken at any regular or special meeting of members may be taken without a meeting if the written ballot of every member is solicited, if the required number of signed approvals in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is received, and if the requirements of subdivision (c) are satisfied.

(b) All solicitations of ballots shall indicate the time by which the ballot must be returned to be counted.

(c) Approval by written ballot pursuant to this section shall be valid only when the number of ballots cast on or before the time the ballot must be returned to be counted equals or exceeds the quorum required to be present at a meeting authorizing the action, and the number of approvals equals or exceeds the number of votes that would be required to approve at a meeting at which the total number of votes cast was the same as the number of ballots cast.

(d) A written ballot may not be revoked.

(e) Directors may be elected by written ballot under this section, where authorized by the articles or bylaws, except that election by written ballot may not be authorized where the directors are elected by cumulative voting pursuant to Section 9415.

SEC. 25. Section 9510 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

9510. (a) Each corporation shall keep:

(1) Adequate and correct books and records of account.

(2) Minutes of the proceedings of its members, board and committees of the board.

(3) A record of its members giving their names and addresses and the class of membership held by each.

(b) Minutes shall be kept in written form. Other books and records shall be kept either in written form or in any other form capable of being converted into written form. For purposes of this chapter "written" or "in writing" also includes cathode ray tube and similar electronic communications methods.

SEC. 26. Section 10006 of the Corporation Code is repealed.

SEC. 27. Section 10011 of the Corporation Code is repealed.

SEC. 28. Section 10014 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

10014. The declaration shall be submitted to the Secretary of State for filing in his office. If it conforms to law he shall file it and endorse the date of filing thereon. Thereupon the corporation shall cease to carry on business, except for the purpose of adjusting and winding up its affairs.

CHAPTER 663

An act to amend Sections 17200.8, 17207, 17209, 17209.1, 17209.2, 17209.3, 17213.1, 17213.5, and 17415 of, to add Sections 17005.6, 17209.4, and 17411.1 to, and to repeal and add Section 17611 to, the Financial Code, relating to escrow agents.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17005.6 of the Financial Code is added, to read:

17005.6. Except as provided for in Section 17004, "escrow agent" as used in this division includes joint control agents.

SEC. 2. Section 17200.8 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17200.8. Within the organization of each escrow agent corporation, either as an owner, officer, or employee, there shall be one or more persons possessing a minimum of five years of responsible escrow or joint control experience to be stationed at the main office of the corporation and one or more persons possessing a minimum of four years of responsible escrow or joint control experience stationed at each branch. At least one such qualified person shall be stationed on duty at each business location licensed by this division during the time the location is open for business. A person who has satisfied educational requirements established by the commissioner may substitute education for up to one year of experience.

SEC. 3. Section 17207 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17207. The commissioner shall charge and collect the following fees and assessments:

(a) For filing an application for an escrow agent's license, six hundred twenty-five dollars ($625) for the first office or location and four hundred twenty-five dollars ($425) for each additional office or location.

(b) For filing an application for a duplicate of an escrow agent's license lost, stolen, destroyed, or for replacement, upon a satisfactory showing of such loss, theft, destruction, or surrender of certificate for replacement, two dollars ($2).

(c) For investigation services in connection with each application, one hundred dollars ($100), and for investigation services in connection with each additional office application, one hundred dollars ($100).

(d) For holding a hearing in connection with the application, as set forth under Section 17209.2, the actual costs experienced in each particular instance.

(e) (1) Each escrow agent shall pay to the commissioner its pro rata share of all costs and expenses reasonably incurred in the administration of this division, as estimated by the commissioner for the ensuing year, and of any deficit actually incurred or anticipated in the administration of this division in the year in which such assessment is made. The total assessment for each year shall not exceed the amount of the first assessment following the effective date of this subdivision adjusted for changes in the cost of living. As used in this subdivision "cost of living" means the Consumer Price Index for the United States as reported by the United States Department of Labor or a successor agency of the United States government. The pro rata share shall be the proportion which a licensee's gross income from escrow operations bears to the aggregate gross income from escrow operations of all licensees as compiled by the commissioner. The pro rata share shall not include the costs of any examinations provided for in Section 17405.1, unless they cannot be collected from the company examined.

(2) On or before the 30th day of May in each year, the commissioner shall notify each escrow agent by mail of the amount assessed and levied against it and that amount shall be paid within 20 days thereafter. If payment is not made within 20 days, the commissioner shall assess and collect a penalty in addition to the assessment, of 1 percent of the assessment for each month or part of a month that the payment is delayed or withheld.

(3) In the levying and collection of the assessment, an escrow agent shall not be assessed for nor be permitted to pay less than two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per year, per location.

(4) If an escrow agent fails to pay the assessment on or before the 30th day of June following the day upon which payment is due, the commissioner may by order summarily suspend or revoke the certificate issued to such company. If, after such an order is made, a request for a hearing is filed in writing and a hearing is not held within 60 days therefter, the order is deemed rescinded as of its effective date. During any period when its certificate is revoked or suspended, a company shall not conduct business pursuant to this division except as may be permitted by order of the commissioner; provided, however, that neither the revocation, suspension, or surrender of a certificate shall affect the powers of the commissioner as provided in this division.

(f) Fifty dollars ($50) for investigation services in connection with each application for qualification of any person under Section 17200.8, other than investigation services under subdivision (c) of this section.

SEC. 4. Section 17209 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17209. An application for a license as an escrow agent shall be signed and verified by an authorized officer of the applicant, and such application shall be accompanied by a certified copy of the articles of incorporation and a copy of the bylaws of the proposed licensee. The application shall set forth:

(a) The names and addresses of the incorporators, directors, and officers.

(b) An itemized statement of the estimated receipts and expenditures of the proposed first year of operations.

(c) An audited financial statement showing compliance with Section 17210.

(d) The name and address of the person, or persons, meeting the requirements of Section 17200.8, and a statement supporting such persons' qualifications.

(e) The type of business for which the license is requested.

(f) Any other matters the commissioner may require.

SEC. 5. Section 17209.1 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17209.1. Upon the receipt of a proper and complete application for license, and all required fees, the commissioner shall immediately examine and investigate all facts connected with the proposal, including but not limited to its stockholders, directors, officers and managers, proposed location, and estimated receipts and expenditures.

SEC. 6. Section 17209.2 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17209.2. The commissioner may or may not require an applicant to submit to an appropriate hearing. If a hearing is held the commissioner shall, on or before 10 days prior to the hearing, mail notice thereof to the applicant. At such hearing any interested person may show cause either in favor of, or opposed to, the application.

SEC. 7. Section 17209.3 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17209.3. The commissioner may refuse to issue any license being applied for, and shall refuse to issue any license being applied for if upon his examination and investigation, and after appropriate hearing, he finds any of the following:

(a) That the corporation is to be formed for any business other than legitimate escrow agent services, or proposes to use a name that is misleading or in conflict with the name of an existing licensee.

(b) That any incorporator, officer, or director of the applicant has, within the last 10 years, been (1) convicted of or pleaded nolo contendere to a crime, or (2) committed any act involving dishonesty, fraud, or deceit, which crime or act is substantially related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of a person engaged in business in accordance with the provisions of this division.

(c) That there is no officer or manager possessing a minimum of five years of responsible escrow or joint control experience stationed or to be stationed at the main office of the corporation and that there is no officer, manager or employee possessing a minimum of four years of responsible escrow or joint control experience stationed or to be stationed at each branch.

(d) That the proposed licensee's financial program is unsound.

(e) A false statement of a material fact has been made in the application for license.

(f) The applicant or any officer, director, or incorporator of the applicant has violated any provision of this division or the rules thereunder or any similar regulatory scheme of a foreign jurisdiction.

SEC. 8. Section 17209.4 of the Financial Code is added, to read:

17209.4. The license shall state whether the licensee is licensed as an escrow agent or joint control agent.

SEC. 9. Section 17213.1 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17213.1. (a) An escrow agent's business shall not be removed from the premises or address shown on the license without the prior approval of the commissioner, and notice of any intended change shall be transmitted to the commissioner not less than 30 days prior to the date of the intended change of location; provided, however, that the commissioner may waive the 30-day notice requirement when the move is occasioned by fire, emergency, or other catastrophe. The commissioner's approval shall be granted or denied within 30 days from the date of the commissioner's receipt of the licensee's request containing such information as the commissioner may require.

(b) When a licensed business is to be moved a distance of five or more miles, and a change in ownership results from a transfer of 50 percent or more of the shares of the corporation, a licensee shall file an application for authorization to change location on a form furnished by the commissioner and the commissioner shall: (1) treat the matter as an application for a new license by invoking the provisions of Sections 17209, 17209.1, 17209.2, and 17209.3, and (2) require the payment of such fees as are applicable under Section 17207. The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply when the actual or contemplated change of ownership is to the transferor's ancestors, descendants, or spouse, or any custodian or trustee for the account of the transferor or the transferor's ancestors, descendants, or spouse.

SEC. 10. Section 17213.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17213.5. Licensees of this division shall be entitled to establish additional business office locations by compliance with all of the following:

(a) Filing with the commissioner notice of the intended address, or addresses.

(b) Payment of the fees prescribed in Section 17207.

(c) Filing with the commissioner additional bond or bonds as prescribed in Sections 17202, 17203, 17203.1, 17203.2, and 17204 appropriately for each additional office location or, in lieu thereof, the applicant shall cause the surety under his existing bond or bonds to file with the commissioner a written amendment signifying that coverage is appropriately extended.

(d) Filing with the commissioner financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. If the licensee's fiscal year end is more than six months before the date of filing the application, the commissioner may require current financial statements which shall not be more than 60 days old. The interim financial statements may be unaudited.

(e) Filing with the commissioner the names and addresses of the licensee's owners and employees to be stationed at the new location, showing that the operation of the additional office, or offices, will be under the complete management and control of the parent licensee.

(f) Filing with the commissioner statements offsetting and meeting each of the conditions set forth in Section 17209.3.

With respect to all applications for authorization to establish additional locations, the commissioner shall promptly commence his investigation and review of the application.

The commissioner shall within 30 days from the receipt by the commissioner of a separate and complete application, license the designated premises as a branch of the parent licensee, unless the commissioner finds (1) that the applicant has failed to comply with all of the requirements of this section, (2) that the applicant then fails to meet any of the standards applicable for the issuance of a license pursuant to Section 17209.3, or (3) that a hearing shall be held to determine whether the application should be granted or denied.

SEC. 11. Section 17411.1 of the Financial Code is added, to read:

17411.1. "Trust funds" or "escrow accounts" as used in Sections 17409, 17410, and 17411 shall include all funds required to be held by an escrow agent pursuant to a federal or state law, or requirement of a governmental agency.

SEC. 12. Section 17415 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17415. (a) If the commissioner, as a result of any examination or from any report made to him, shall find that any person subject to this division is in an insolvent condition, is conducting escrow business in such an unsafe or injurious manner as to render further operations hazardous to the public or to customers, has permitted its tangible net worth to be lower than the minimum required by law, has failed to maintain its liquid assets in excess of current liabilities as set forth in Section 17210, or has failed to comply with the bonding requirements of Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 17200) of this division, the commissioner may, by an order addressed to and served by registered or certified mail or by personal service on such person and on any other person having in his possession or control any escrowed funds, trust funds or other property deposited in escrow with said person, direct discontinuance of the disbursement of trust funds by the parties or any of them, the receipt of trust funds, the delivery or recording of documents received in escrow, or other business operations. No person having in his possession any of these funds or documents shall be liable for failure to comply with the order unless he or she has received written notice of the order. Subject to subdivision (b), the order shall remain in effect until set aside by the commissioner in whole or in part, the person has been adjudged bankrupt, or pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 17621) of this division the commissioner has assumed possession of the escrow agent.

(b) Within 10 days from the date of an order pursuant to subdivision (a), the person may request a hearing under the Administrative Procedure Act, Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. Neither the request for a hearing nor the hearing itself shall stay the order issued by the commissioner under subdivision (a).

SEC. 13. Section 17611 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 14. Section 17611 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

17611. (a) The commissioner may make such investigations as he or she deems necessary to determine whether any person has violated or is about to violate any provision of this division or any rule or order hereunder or to aid in the enforcement of this division. The commissioner may publish information concerning any violation of this division or any rule or order hereunder.

(b) In making any investigation authorized by subdivision (a), the commissioner may, for a reasonable time not exceeding 30 days, take possession of the books, records, accounts, and other papers pertaining to the business of any escrow agent or joint control agent and place a keeper in exclusive charge of them in the place where they are usually kept. During such possession no person shall remove or attempt to remove any of the books, records, accounts, or other papers except pursuant to a court order or with the consent of the commissioner. However, the directors, officers, partners, and employees of the escrow agent or joint control agent may examine the books, records, accounts, or other papers and the employees shall be permitted to make entries therein reflecting current transactions.

(c) For the purpose of any investigation or proceeding under this division, the commissioner or any officer designated by the commissioner may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, agreements, or other documents or records which the commissioner deems relevant or material to the inquiry.

(d) In case of contumacy by, or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to, any person, the superior court, upon application of the commissioner, may issue to the person an order requiring him or her to appear before the commissioner, or the officer designated by the commissioner, there to produce documentary evidence, if so ordered, or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt.

(e) No person is excused from attending and testifying or from producing any document or record before the commissioner, or in obedience to the subpoena of the commissioner, or any officer designated by the commissioner, or in any proceeding instituted by the commissioner, on the ground that the testimony or evidence (documentary or otherwise) required by the commissioner may tend to incriminate the person or subject him or her to a penalty or forfeiture. However, no individual may be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which he or she is compelled, after validly claiming his or her privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence (documentary or otherwise), except that the individual testimony is not exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury or contempt committed in testifying.

CHAPTER 664

An act to amend Section 9889.55 of the Business and Professions Code, to amend Sections 43654 and 43659 of the Health and Safety Code, to amend Section 6285 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and to amend Sections 4000.1 4602.1 and 22851.10 of, and to repeal and add Article 6 (commencing with Section 9800) of Chapter 6 of Division 3 of, the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9889.55 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9889.55. (a) The provisions of this chapter shall take effect in accordance with the following schedule:

(1) The inspection program shall be implemented on a trial basis by the department prior to January 1, 1979. A series of trial inspections of motor vehicles conducted by the department, in order to refine inspection standards and procedures adopted under the program, shall be completed by no later than January 1, 1979.

(2) The trial inspections shall be limited to the Counties of Orange, Riverside, and San Bernardino, or any portion of one or more of these counties as the department may specify, and to one or more classes of vehicles subject to the provisions of this chapter, for example, vehicles owned by governmental entities. The trial inspection program may include provision for voluntary maintenance or repair and reinspection of vehicles failing to pass initial inspections, undertaken at the owners' expense, and for mandatory maintenance or repair and reinspection of those vehicles, undertaken at the department's expense.

(3) Notwithstanding other provisions of this section and of Section 4602.1 of the Vehicle Code, the trial inspections shall not be enforced through renewal of registration of motor vehicles. The department may issue stickers which shall be affixed to vehicles in accordance with the rules and regulations of the department or the department may, in conjunction with other affected state agencies, prescribe by regulation other means of enforcement.

(b) Any motor vehicle subject to the provisions of this chapter shall be inspected by the department upon each transfer of registration, and in the case of a motor vehicle previously registered outside this state, upon registration, subsequent to January 1, 1979.

(c) Upon authorization by statute, the state board, subsequent to January 1, 1981, shall inspect motor vehicles subject to this chapter upon each renewal of registration.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, whenever registration of a motor vehicle previously registered outside this state, transfer of registration, or initial or renewed registration of a motor vehicle subject to the provisions of this chapter occurs within 60 days of an inspection conducted pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c) of this section, the inspection otherwise required upon the transfer or registration need not be conducted. The department may extend the 60-day period during which a motor vehicle need not be reinspected if the State Air Resources Board determines, from test data, that the period will not result in a significant increase in vehicular emissions.

(e) Any motor vehicles subject to the provisions of this chapter owned by a governmental entity or public utility and not required by law to have its registration renewed, shall be inspected by the department annually in accordance with a schedule established by the department to correspond with the schedule for inspections upon renewal of registration of all other motor vehicles pursuant to this chapter.

(f) The consumer handbook prepared by the department pursuant to Section 9889.53 shall be distributed by the Department of Motor Vehicles to every owner of a motor vehicle subject to the provisions of this chapter at the same time the owner is notified of his or her first inspection requirement pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c) of this section.

(g) The orientation or training seminars conducted by the department pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 9889.52, shall be conducted periodically on an ongoing basis commencing prior to the conducting of the first trial inspections by the department pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section.

SEC. 2. Section 43654 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

43654. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b), every 1966 through 1970 light-duty motor vehicle, subject to registration in this state, shall be equipped with a certified device to control its exhaust emission of oxides of nitrogen upon initial registration, upon transfer of ownership and registration, and upon registration of a motor vehicle previously registered outside this state.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall not apply to a 1966 through 1970 light-duty motor vehicle (1) which is registered to, or subject to registration by, an elderly low-income person, (2) which was purchased from a person other than a dealer or a person holding a retail seller's permit, and (3) which is used principally by or for the benefit of the elderly low-income person. However, only one vehicle described above shall be registered to, or subject to registration by, the elderly low-income person at any one time.

(c) For purposes of subdivision (b), the Department of Motor Vehicles may require satisfactory proof (1) of the age of the transferee of the motor vehicle, (2) of the combined adjusted gross income of the household in which the transferee resides, and (3) that the transferor of the motor vehicle is a person other than a dealer or a person holding a retail seller's permit.

SEC. 3. Section 43659 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

43659. (a) The state board shall annually review the requirement that an exhaust device be installed on every 1955 through 1965 model year light-duty motor vehicle upon initial registration, upon transfer of ownership and registration, or upon registration of a motor vehicle previously registered outside this state, to determine the contribution of that requirement to the maintenance of required ambient air quality standards in those air basins where the requirement is applicable.

(b) In making its determination, the state board shall consider all relevant factors, including, but not limited to, the fact that the requirement is being imposed on a constantly decreasing number of motor vehicles.

(c) Upon a determination by the state board by regulation that the requirement is no longer a significant factor to the maintenance of required ambient air quality standards in any applicable air basin, except as provided in subdivision (d), 1955 through 1965 model year light-duty motor vehicles in that air basin shall no longer be required to be so equipped.

(d) All 1955 through 1965 model year light-duty motor vehicles equipped with an exhaust device pursuant to the requirement prior to the adoption of the regulation by the state board pursuant to subdivision (c) shall continue to be so equipped.

SEC. 4. Section 6285 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6285. There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this part the gross receipts from the sale of and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of a mobilehome or commercial coach required to be registered annually under the Health and Safety Code, or of a vehicle required to be registered under the Vehicle Code, or of a vehicle subject to identification under Division 16.5 (commencing with Section 38000) of the Vehicle Code, or of a vessel or an aircraft, when the person selling the property is either the parent, grandparent, child, grandchild, or spouse, or the brother or sister if the sale between that brother or sister is between two minors related by blood or adoption, of the purchaser, and the person selling is not engaged in the business of selling the type of property for which the exemption is claimed.

SEC. 5. Section 4000.1 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

4000.1. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b) or (c) of this section or in subdivision (b) of Section 43654 of the Health and Safety Code, the department shall require, pursuant to this section or regulations of the State Air Resources Board adopted pursuant to Section 43655 of the Health and Safety Code, upon initial registration, upon transfer of ownership and registration, of any motor vehicle subject to Part 5 (commencing with Section 43000) of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, and upon registration of a motor vehicle previously registered outside this state which is subject to those provisions of the Health and Safety Code, a valid certificate of compliance from a licensed motor vehicle pollution control device installation and inspection station indicating that the vehicle is properly equipped with a motor vehicle pollution control device or devices which are in proper operating condition and which are in compliance with the provisions of Part 5 (commencing with Section 43000) of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, or a certificate of noncompliance, as appropriate.

With respect to new vehicles certified pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 43100) of Part 5 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, and having a gross vehicle weight of 6,000 pounds or less, the department shall accept a statement completed pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 24007 in lieu of the certificate of compliance.

For the purposes of determining the validity of a certificate of compliance or noncompliance submitted in compliance with the requirements of this section, the definitions of new and used motor vehicle contained in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 39010) of Part 1 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code shall control.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall not apply to a transfer of ownership and registration when:

(1) The transferor is either the parent, grandparent, child, grandchild, or spouse of the transferee.

(2) A vehicle registered to a sole proprietorship is transferred to such proprietor as owner.

(3) The transfer is between companies whose principal business is leasing vehicles, if there is no change in the lessee or operator of the vehicle.

(c) The State Air Resources Board, under Part 5 (commencing with Section 43000) of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, may exempt designated classifications of motor vehicles from the provisions of subdivision (a) as it deems necessary, and shall notify the department of that action.

SEC. 6. Section 4602.1 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

4602.1. (a) In addition to any other requirements with respect to the registration of motor vehicles, the department shall also require upon initial registration, upon transfer of ownership and registration, of a motor vehicle subject to the provisions of Chapter 20.4 (commencing with Section 9889.50) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, and upon registration of a motor vehicle previously registered outside this state which is subject to those provisions of the Business and Professions Code, subsequent to the first inspection of the vehicle required by that chapter, that the owner submit a valid certificate of compliance or waiver for the vehicle issued pursuant to Section 9889.56 of that code. In order to satisfy the provisions of this subdivision, the inspection certified shall have been conducted during the 60 days prior to the initial registration, renewal of registration, registration of a motor vehicle previously registered outside this state, or transfer of registration.

(b) The department shall, prior to the commencement of the inspection program to be conducted by the Department of Consumer Affairs pursuant to subdivision (a) or (c) of Section 9889.55 of the Business and Professions Code, notify any motor vehicle owner subject to the provisions of those sections of all of his or her rights and obligations under those programs and distribute to him or her free of charge the consumer handbook prepared by the Department of Consumer Affairs pursuant to Section 9889.53 of that code.

SEC. 7. Article 6 (commencing with Section 9800) of Chapter 6 of Division 3 of the Vehicle Code is repealed.

SEC. 8. Article 6 (commencing with Section 9800) is added to Chapter 6 of Division 3 of the Vehicle Code, to read:

Article 6. Enforcement of Liens

9800. (a) Payments for any of the following, and any interest, penalties or service fees added thereto, required to register or transfer the registration of a vehicle, constitute a lien on the vehicle on which they are due or which was involved in the offense:

(1) Registration fees.

(2) Transfer fees.

(3) License fees.

(4) Use taxes.

(5) Bail for offenses relating to the standing or parking of a vehicle.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a), if a person is cited for a foreign registered auxiliary dolly, semitrailer, or trailer having been operated under a trip permit beyond its date of expiration, an amount equal to the minimum registration fees or transfer fees, and penalty added thereto, from the date they became due, shall, by election of the power unit operator, constitute a lien upon the California registered power unit which was pulling the dolly, semitrailer, or trailer.

(c) Every lien arising under this section shall expire three years from the date the fee, tax, or bail first became due.

(d) Employees and members of the Department of the California Highway Patrol assigned to commercial vehicle scale facilities are agents of the department for the purposes of collecting fees and taxes which are a lien on commercial vehicles.

(e) Employees and members of the Department of the California Highway Patrol assigned to commercial vehicle scale facilities may possess and sell trip permits approved by the department.

9801. (a) When the registration of a vehicle has expired and has not been renewed as required by this code, the department may collect the amount on the lien of the vehicle plus cost, not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250), by the seizure and sale of the vehicle.

(b) At least 10 days before the seizure, notice of the lien and of the intent to seize and sell the vehicle shall be given by the department to the registered and legal owners, and to any other person known to be claiming an interest in the vehicle, by registered mail addressed to those persons at the last known addresses appearing on the records of the department.

(c) Any person receiving the notice of the lien and the intent to seize and sell the vehicle may request a hearing to contest the existence or amount of the lien. If no hearing is requested, the vehicle shall be seized and sold.

(d) If a hearing is requested, 10-days' notice shall be given of the time and place of the hearing, which shall be held within the county of residence of the person requesting the hearing or of the registered owner. The hearing shall be conducted by a referee who shall submit findings and recommendations to the Registrar of Vehicles or authorized representative, who shall decide the matter. The decision shall be effective on notice thereof to the interested parties.

(e) At any time before seizure or sale, any registered owner, legal owner, or person claiming an interest in the vehicle may pay the department the amount of the lien, plus costs. In that event, the seizure or sale shall not be held and the vehicle, if seized, shall be returned by the department to the person entitled to its possession. This payment shall not constitute a waiver of the right to a hearing.

(f) When the department or an authorized agent has reasonable cause to believe that the lien may be jeopardized within the 10-day notice-of-intent period, the vehicle may be seized without prior notice to the registered or legal owner, upon obtaining authorization for the seizure from the Registrar of Vehicles or authorized representative. In all those cases, a notice of the lien and the intent to sell the vehicle shall be immediately given by the department to the legal and registered owner, and to any other person known to be claiming an interest in the vehicle. Any hearing to contest the lien and the seizure shall be requested within 10 days.

(g) When a lien exists against one or more vehicles in the possession of the same person or persons, the department may seize and sell a sufficient number of the vehicles to pay the lien, plus costs, on all the vehicles.

(h) The Department of the California Highway Patrol shall assist with the seizure and impounding of the vehicle. Any municipality or county law enforcement agency may assist with the seizure and impounding of the vehicle.

(i) Any property found by the department in any vehicle seized under the provisions of this article shall be handled by the department in the same manner as is provided in Sections 2414 and 2415.

9802. (a) The Registrar of Vehicles or authorized representative shall conduct the sale in the same manner as provided by law for the seizure and sale of personal property by the assessor for the collection of taxes due on personal property.

(b) The department may bid for the vehicle an amount equal to the lien held by the department for registration, transfer, and license fees, use taxes, bail, and any interest, penalties, and costs added thereto. In all cases where the vehicle becomes the property of the department, it shall be reduced to junk and sold.

(c) Proceeds of any sale shall, upon appropriation therefor to the department, be distributed or used by the department for the following purposes and in the following order:

(1) Costs incurred by the department.

(2) Registration and transfer fees and any penalty added thereto.

(3) License fees and any penalty added thereto.

(4) Use taxes and any interest or penalty added thereto.

(5) Perfected mechanics' liens.

(6) Perfected security interests.

(7) Bail for offenses relating to the standing or parking of a vehicle and any administrative service fee added thereto.

(8) Any remainder to the person entitled to possession of the vehicle.

(d) The department shall transmit to the Board of Equalization all use taxes, interest, and penalties collected under this article within 60 days after receipt thereof in the form which may be prescribed and approved jointly by the department and the board.

SEC. 8. Section 22851.10 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

22851.10. (a) Any vehicle determined to have a value not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100) pursuant to Section 22670 which was stored pursuant to this chapter, and which remains unclaimed, or for which reasonable towing and storage charges remain unpaid, shall be disposed of only to a licensed dismantler or scrap iron processor not earlier than 15 days after the date the Notice of Intent to Dispose of a Vehicle Valued at $100 or Less form required pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 22851.8 was mailed, unless a Declaration of Opposition form has been signed and returned to the lienholder.

(b) If the vehicle has been disposed of to a licensed dismantler or scrap iron processor, the lienholder shall forward the following forms and information to the licensed dismantler or scrap iron processor within five days:

(1) A statement, signed under penalty of perjury, that a properly executed Declaration of Opposition form was not received.

(2) A copy of the notice sent to all interested parties.

(3) A certification from the public agency which made the determination of value pursuant to Section 22670.

(4) The proof of service pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 22851.8 or a copy of the court judgment, if any in favor of the lienholder entered pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 22851.8.

(5) The name, address, and telephone number of the licensed dismantler or scrap iron processor who received the vehicle.

(6) The amount the lienholder received for the vehicle.

CHAPTER 665

An act to add Section 6294 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to amend Sections 9859 and 9862 of, and to add Sections 9858.5 and 9928 to, the Vehicle Code, relating to vessels.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6294 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

6294. (a) When an undocumented vessel required to be registered under the Vehicle Code is sold at retail by other than a person holding a seller's permit and regularly engaged in the business of selling vessels, the retailer is not required or authorized to collect the use tax from the purchaser, but the purchaser of the vessel must pay the use tax to the Department of Motor Vehicles acting for, and on behalf of, the board pursuant to Section 9928 of the Vehicle Code.

(b) If the purchaser makes an application to the department which is not timely, and is subject to penalty because of delinquency in effecting registration or transfer of registration of the undocumented vessel, he or she then becomes liable also for penalty as specified in Section 6591, but no interest shall accrue.

(c) Application to the department by the purchaser shall relieve the purchaser of the obligation to file a return with the board under Section 6452.

(d) If the purchaser does not make application to either department, or does not pay the amount of use tax due, or files a return with the board under Section 6455 which is not timely, interest and penalties shall apply with respect to the unpaid amount as provided in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 6451).

SEC. 2. Section 9858.5 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

9858.5. Any licensed yacht and ship broker acting as an authorized agent of the department may collect use tax on a vessel transfer when applicable, and transmit the use tax and the registration application and applicable fees to the department, or may submit the registration application and applicable fees to the department for collection of any use tax due.

SEC. 3. Section 9859 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

9859. All money received by an agent from the sale of certificates of number or temporary certificates of number and use tax shall be kept separate and apart from any other funds of the agent, and shall at all times belong to the state.

In case of an assignment for the benefit of creditors, receivership, or bankruptcy, the state shall have a preferred claim against the agent, receiver, or trustee for all moneys owing the state for the sale of certificates as provided in this code and any use tax, and shall not be estopped from asserting such claim by reason of the commingling of funds or otherwise.

SEC. 4. Section 9862 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

9862. (a) If the initial application for a number is not received by the department on or before the date set by the department, a penalty of one-half the fee shall be assessed. If a certificate of number is not renewed on or before midnight of the first Friday in February after the expiration of the prior year certificate of number, a penalty of one-half the fee shall be assessed, except where the vessel has not been used on the waters of the state subsequent to the expiration date.

(b) Whenever any person has received as a transferee of a vessel a properly endorsed certificate of ownership and certificate of number describing that vessel and the transfer fee has not been paid as required by this code within 30 days, a penalty of one-half of the transfer fee specified in Section 9855 shall be assessed.

SEC. 5. Section 9928 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

9928. The department shall withhold the certificate of number or the transfer of registration of any vessel sold at retail to any applicant by any person other than a person holding a seller's permit pursuant to Section 6066 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and regularly engaged in the business of selling vessels, until the applicant pays to the department the use tax measured by the sales price of the vessel as required by the Sales and Use Tax Law, together with penalty, if any, unless the State Board of Equalization finds that no use tax is due. If the applicant so desires, he may pay the use tax and penalty, if any, to the department so as to secure immediate action upon his application for registration or transfer of registration and thereafter he may apply through the Department of Motor Vehicles to the State Board of Equalization under the provisions of the Sales and Use Tax Law for a refund of the amount so paid.

(b) The department shall transmit to the State Board of Equalization all collections of the use tax and penalty made under this section. This transmittal shall be made at least monthly, accompanied by a schedule in such form as the department and board may prescribe.

(c) The State Board of Equalization shall reimburse the department for its costs incurred in carrying out the provisions of this section.

(d) In computing any use tax or penalty thereon under the provisions of the section, dollar fractions shall be disregarded in the manner specified in Section 9559. Payment of tax and penalty on this basis shall be deemed full compliance with the requirements of the Sales and Use Tax Law insofar as they are applicable to the use of vessels to which this section relates.

(e) The department and the State Board of Equalization shall enter into an agreement for the collection of the use tax pursuant to this section and Section 6294 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. The agreement shall specify the procedures agreed upon by the department and the board for collection of the tax and the reimbursement provided for in subdivision (c). The agreement shall be approved by the Department of Finance.

CHAPTER 666

An act to amend Section 1985.3 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to subpoenas.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1985.3 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1985.3. (a) For purposes of this section, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Personal records" means the original or any copy of books, documents or other writings pertaining to a consumer and which are maintained by any "witness" which is a physician, hospital, state or national bank, state or federally chartered savings and loan association, state or federal credit union, trust company, security brokerage firm, insurance company, underwritten title company, attorney, accountant, institution of the Farm Credit System, as specified in Section 2002 of Title 12 of the United States Code, or telephone corporation which is a public utility, as defined in Section 216 of the Public Utilities Code.

(2) "Consumer" means any individual, partnership of five or fewer persons, association, or trust which has transacted business with or has used the services of such witness or for whom the witness has acted as agent or fiduciary.

(3) "Subpoenaing party" means the person or persons causing a subpoena duces tecum to be issued or served in connection with any civil action or proceeding pursuant to this code, but shall not include the state or local agencies described in Section 7465 of the Government Code, or any entity provided for under Article VI of the California Constitution in any proceeding maintained before an adjudicative body of that entity pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 6000) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code.

(b) The date specified in a subpoena duces tecum for the production of personal records shall not be less than 15 days from the date the subpoena is issued. Prior to the date called for in the subpoena duces tecum for the production of personal records, the subpoenaing party shall serve or cause to be served on the consumer whose records are being sought a copy of the subpoena duces tecum, of the affidavit supporting the issuance of the subpoena, and of the notice described in subdivision (e). Such service shall be made both:

(1) To the consumer personally, or at his or her last known address, or in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 1010) of Title 14 of Part 3, or, if he or she is a party, to his or her attorney of record.

(2) Not less than 10 days prior to the date for production specified in the subpoena duces tecum, plus the additional time provided by Section 1013 if service is by mail.

(c) Prior to the production of the records, the subpoenaing party shall do either of the following:

(1) Serve or cause to be served upon the witness a proof of personal service or of service by mail attesting to compliance with subdivision (b).

(2) Furnish the witness a written authorization to release the records signed by the consumer or by his or her attorney of record. The witness may presume that any attorney purporting to sign such authorization on behalf of the consumer acted with the consent of the consumer.

(d) A subpoena duces tecum for the production of personal records shall be served in sufficient time to allow the witness a reasonable time to locate and produce the records or copies thereof.

(e) Every copy of the subpoena duces tecum and affidavit served on a consumer or his or her attorney in accordance with subdivision (b) shall be accompanied by a notice, in a typeface designed to call attention to the notice, indicating that (1) records about the consumer are being sought from the witness named on the subpoena; (2) if the consumer objects to the witness furnishing the records to the party seeking the records, the consumer must file papers with the court prior to the date specified for production on the subpoena; and (3) if the party who is seeking the records will not agree in writing to cancel or limit the subpoena, an attorney should be consulted about the consumer's interest in protecting his or her rights of privacy. If a notice of taking of deposition is also served, that other notice may be set forth in a single document with the notice required by this subdivision.

(f) Any consumer whose personal records are sought by a subpoena duces tecum may, prior to the date for production, bring a motion under Section 1987.1 to quash or modify the subpoena duces tecum. Notice of the bringing of that motion shall be given to the witness prior to production. No witness shall be required to produce personal records after receipt of notice that such a motion has been brought, except upon order of the court in which the action is pending or by agreement of the parties, witnesses, and consumers affected.

(g) Upon good cause shown and provided that the rights of witnesses and consumers are preserved, a subpoenaing party shall be entitled to obtain an order shortening the time for service of a subpoena duces tecum or waiving the requirements of subdivision

(b) where due diligence by the subpoenaing party has been shown.

(h) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to apply to any subpoena duces tecum which does not request the records of any particular consumer or consumers and which requires a custodian of records to delete all information which would in any way identify any consumer whose records are to be produced.

(i) The provisions of this section shall not apply to proceedings conducted under Division 1 (commencing with Section 50), Division 4 (commencing with Section 3200), Division 4.5 (commencing with Section 6100), or Division 4.7 (commencing with Section 6200) of the Labor Code.

(j) Failure to comply with this section shall be sufficient basis for the witness to refuse to produce the personal records sought by a subpoena duces tecum.

CHAPTER 667

An act to amend Section 13531.5 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to motor vehicle fuel.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13531.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

13531.5. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), every sign, statement, or advertising medium which indicates the price of gasoline or other motor vehicle fuel for sale from the premises shall show the actual price per gallon or liter of gasoline or other motor vehicle fuel including taxes, together with the word or words "gasoline" or "motor fuel" and the trade name or brand and grade designation of the gasoline or other motor vehicle fuel product advertised for sale by the advertising medium.

(b) Until the time as 75 percent of the businesses selling gasoline or other motor vehicle fuel at retail in this state do so by the liter, such time to be determined by the department, a person selling gasoline or other motor vehicle fuel by the liter shall be authorized to advertise its price by displaying on the sign either its price per liter or its price per gallon. After that time, but not prior to July 1, 1981, every person selling gasoline or other motor vehicle fuel shall be required to advertise its price by displaying on the sign its price per liter, regardless of whether the gasoline or other motor vehicle fuel is sold by the liter or by the gallon.

(c) The numerals indicating the price on the sign shall be of uniform size and at least six inches in height. All letters or numerals used in designating the brand name, or the words "no brand," on the sign shall not be less than one-third the size of the numerals designating the price; and the height of the letters or numerals shall not be more than twice the dimension of the width. All letters or numerals used in designating the product, such as "gasoline" or other motor fuel, shall be not less than one-third the size of the numerals designating the price; and the height of the letters or numerals shall not be more than twice the dimension of the width, except that these letters or numerals need not be larger than four inches in height. All letters or numerals on the sign designating the grade of the gasoline or motor fuel shall be not less than one-sixth the size of the numerals designating the price; and the height of the letters or numerals shall not be more than twice the dimension of the width, except that these letters or numerals need not be larger than four inches in height. Except as provided in subdivision (b), if gasoline or other motor vehicle fuel is sold by the liter and advertised, the word "liter" shall be displayed on the sign in letters not less than one-third the size of the numerals designating the price; and the height of the letters shall not be more than twice the dimension of the width.

(d) (1) Except as specified in paragraph (2), no person offering for sale or selling any gasoline or motor vehicle fuel from any place of business in the State of California shall post or display a sign or statement or other advertising medium reading, in substance, "save" a designated amount, or a designated amount per gallon or liter, such as "save 5 cents" or "save 5 cents per gallon or liter," or using the expression "off" a designated amount, such as "5 cents off" or "5 cents less," or "discount" of a given amount, such as "5 cents discount," or otherwise using the words "save," "off," "discount," "less," "below," or any of them, or a word or words of similar meaning or other phraseology indicating a reduced price, unless there is posted and displayed in letters and numerals of at least equal size and as part of the same sign, statement, or other advertising medium, the total price, or prices per gallon or liter, including all taxes from which the reduction will be made, the reduction given and the total net price per gallon, including all taxes, at which gasoline or other motor vehicle fuel is being sold or offered for sale. Words shall be used to explain the reduced price, the amount of reduction, and the price from which the reduction is made. The words shall be clearly shown in letters at least one-third the size of the numerals indicating the prices.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, a person offering for sale or selling any motor vehicle fuel from any place of business in this state may post, as an attachment to an existing price sign, a sign or statement which uses the expression "cash discount" of a given amount, such as "less 5 cents per gallon cash discount," provided the following conditions are met:

(A) There is posted and displayed as part of the same advertising medium the price or prices per gallon or liter, including all taxes, from which the discount is taken, and the amount of the discount per gallon or liter. The height of the numerals indicating the discount shall not exceed the height of the numerals in the advertised price.

(B) (i) Words, clearly shown in letters at least one-third the size of the numerals indicating the prices, shall be used to explain the conditions and any limitations under which a discount is offered and shall clearly indicate that the discount is to be deducted from the advertised price or (ii) an advertising medium shall be displayed which complies with subdivisions (e) and (f).

(C) The advertising medium posted or displayed shall not be false, deceptive, or misleading in any particular.

(D) There shall be available for each customer's reference a chart showing the amount of discount for each type unit being sold (gallon/liter) or fraction thereof in one cent (0.01) increments, or the retail dispensers used to dispense fuel at the discount price shall be set to compute the total sale at the discounted price per gallon or liter and shall be clearly labeled "Includes Cash Discount" in letters not less than one inch in height.

For purposes of this paragraph, the gasoline or motor vehicle fuel shall be sold in the same unit of measurement (e.g., gallons or liters) in which the discount and the gross price are advertised. The "gross price" means the total price, including all taxes, but excluding the discount.

(e) In the event that the same brand or grade of gasoline or motor fuel is sold at different prices from the dispensing devices on the premises of any single place of business, it shall be unlawful for any person to post or display any sign or advertising medium which indicates or shows or advertises a price of the brand or grade unless the sign or advertising medium indicates, shows, or advertises in letters or numerals of equal size each of the higher prices, including all taxes, for which the brand or grade is sold, offered for sale, or advertised for sale and unless the sign or advertising medium explains the conditions under which the brand or grade is advertised for sale, at different prices. The words of explanation shall be clearly shown in letters at least one-third the size of the numerals indicating the prices.

(f) In the event that the same grade of gasoline or other motor vehicle fuel is sold at different prices from the dispensing devices on the premises of any single place of business, the various prices at which the same grade of gasoline or other motor vehicle fuel is sold shall all be advertised in the same form, either in the form of price per gallon or in the form of price per liter, as authorized or required by law.

SEC. 1.5. Section 13531.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

13531.5. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), every sign, statement, or advertising medium which indicates the price of gasoline or other motor vehicle fuel for sale from the premises shall show the actual price per gallon or liter of gasoline or other motor vehicle fuel including taxes, together with the word or words "gasoline" or "motor fuel" and the trade name or brand and grade designation of the gasoline or other motor vehicle fuel product advertised for sale by the advertising medium.

(b) Until the time that 75 percent of the businesses selling gasoline or other motor vehicle fuel at retail in this state do so by the liter, such time to be determined by the department, a person selling gasoline or other motor vehicle fuel by the liter shall be authorized to advertise its price by displaying on that sign either its price per liter or its price per gallon. After that time, but not prior to July 1, 1981, every person selling gasoline or other motor vehicle fuel shall be required to advertise its price by displaying on the sign its price per liter, regardless of whether the gasoline or other motor vehicle fuel is sold by the liter or by the gallon.

(c) The numerals indicating the price on the sign shall be of uniform size and at least six inches in height. All letters or numerals used in designating the brand name, or the words "no brand," on the sign shall not be less than one-third the size of the numerals designating the price; and the height of the letters or numerals shall not be more than twice the dimension of the width. All letters or numerals used in designating the product, such as "gasoline" or other motor fuel, shall be not less than one-third the size of the numerals designating the price; and the height of the letters or numerals shall not be more than twice the dimension of the width, except that these letters or numerals need not be larger than four inches in height. All letters or numerals on the sign designating the grade of the gasoline or motor fuel shall be not less than one-sixth the size of the numerals designating the price; and the height of the letters or numerals shall not be more than twice the dimension of the width, except that these letters or numerals need not be larger than four inches in height. Except as provided in subdivision (b), if gasoline or other motor vehicle fuel is sold by the liter and advertised, the word "liter" shall be displayed on the sign in letters not less than one-third the size of the numerals designating the price; and the height of the letters shall not be more than twice the dimension of the width.

(d) (1) Except as specified in paragraph (2), no person offering for sale or selling any gasoline or motor vehicle fuel from any place of business in the State of California shall post or display a sign or statement or other advertising medium reading, in substance, "save" a designated amount, or a designated amount per gallon or liter, such as "save 5 cents" or "save 5 cents per gallon or liter," or using the expression "off" a designated amount, such as "5 cents off" or "5 cents less," or "discount" of a given amount, such as "5 cents discount," or otherwise using the words "save," "off," "discount," "less," "below," or any of them, or a word or words of similar meaning or other phraseology indicating a reduced price, unless there is posted and displayed in letters and numerals of at least equal size and as part of the same sign, statement, or other advertising medium, the total price, or prices per gallon or liter, including all taxes from which the reduction will be made, the reduction given and the total net price per gallon, including all taxes, at which gasoline or other motor vehicle fuel is being sold or offered for sale. Words shall be used to explain the reduced price, the amount of reduction, and the price from which the reduction is made. The words shall be clearly shown in letters at least one-third the size of the numerals indicating the prices.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, a person offering for sale or selling any motor vehicle fuel from any place of business in this state may post, as an attachment to an existing price sign, a sign or statement which uses the expression "cash discount" of a given amount, such as "less 5 cents per gallon cash discount," provided the following conditions are met:

(A) There is posted and displayed as part of the same advertising medium the price or prices per gallon or liter, including all taxes, from which the discount is taken, and the amount of the discount per gallon or liter. The height of the numerals indicating the discount shall not exceed the height of the numerals in the advertised price.

(B) (i) Words, clearly shown in letters at least one-third the size of the numerals indicating the prices, shall be used to explain the conditions and any limitations under which a discount is offered and shall clearly indicate that the discount is to be deducted from the advertised price or (ii) an advertising medium shall be displayed which complies with subdivisions (e) and (f).

(C) The advertising medium posted or displayed shall not be false, deceptive, or misleading in any particular.

(D) There shall be available for each customer's reference a chart showing the amount of discount for each type unit being sold (gallon/liter) or fraction thereof in one cent increments, or the retail dispensers used to dispense fuel at the discount price shall be set to compute the total sale at the discounted price per gallon or liter and shall be clearly labeled "Includes Cash Discount" in letters not less than one inch in height.

For purposes of this paragraph, the gasoline or motor vehicle fuel shall be sold in the same unit of measurement (e.g., gallons or liters) in which the discount and the gross price are advertised. The "gross price" means the total price, including all taxes, but excluding the discount.

(e) In the event that the same brand or grade of gasoline or motor fuel is sold at different prices from the dispensing devices on the premises of any single place of business, it shall be unlawful for any person to post or display any sign or advertising medium which indicates or shows or advertises a price of the brand or grade unless the sign or advertising medium indicates, shows, or advertises in letters or numerals of equal size each of the higher prices, including all taxes, for which the brand or grade is sold, offered for sale, or advertised for sale and unless the sign or advertising medium explains the conditions under which the brand or grade is advertised for sale, at different prices. The words of explanation shall be clearly shown in letters at least one-third the size of the numerals indicating the prices.

(f) In the event that the same grade of gasoline or other motor vehicle fuel is sold at different prices from the dispensing devices on the premises of any single place of business, the various prices at which the same grade of gasoline or other motor vehicle fuel is sold shall all be advertised in the same form, either in the form of price per gallon or in the form of price per liter, as authorized or required by law.

(g) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit any person who has posted or displayed any sign or advertising medium in conformity with the requirements of this chapter from displaying any additional signs or advertising media that state the price of one or more brands or grades of gasoline sold or offered for sale at the premises, provided that the conditions of the sale of the brand or grade of gasoline are included in the additional sign or advertising. The words explaining the conditions shall be clearly shown in letters at least one-third the size of the numerals indicating the prices.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding the existing provisions of subdivision (d) of Section 13531.5, no criminal penalty shall be imposed on any person who posts a sign or statement authorized by paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) of that section as added by this act on and after January 1, 1982, and before the effective date of this act.

SEC. 2.5. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1341 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1983, both bills amend Section 13531.5 of the Business and Professions Code, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1341, that the amendments to Section 13531.5 of the Business and Professions Code proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 13531.5 of the Business and Professions Code in the form set forth in Section 1.5 of this act. Therefore, Section 1.5 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1341 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1983, both amend Section 13531.5 of the Business and Professions Code, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1341, in which case Section 1 of this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 3. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 668

An act to amend Section 13009 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to fire protection.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13009 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

13009. (a) Any person who negligently, or in violation of the law, sets a fire, allows a fire to be set, or allows a fire kindled or attended by him or her to escape onto any public or private property is liable for the fire suppression costs incurred in fighting the fire and for the cost of providing rescue or emergency medical services, and those costs shall be a charge against that person. The charge shall constitute a debt of that person, and is collectable by the person, or by the federal, state, county, public, or private agency, incurring those costs in the same manner as in the case of an obligation under a contract, expressed or implied.

(b) Any costs incurred by the Department of Forestry in suppressing any wildland fire originating or spreading from a prescribed burning operation conducted by the department pursuant to a contract entered into pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 4475) of Chapter 7 of Part 2 of Division 4 of the Public Resources Code shall not be collectable from any party to the contract, including any private consultant or contractor who entered into an agreement with that party pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 4475.5 of that code, as provided in subdivision (a), to the extent that those costs were not incurred as a result of a violation of any provision of the contract.

CHAPTER 669

An act to repeal Section 40517 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 40517 of the Vehicle Code is repealed.

CHAPTER 670

An act to amend Section 999e of the Penal Code, relating to career criminals.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 27, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 999e of the Penal Code is amended to read:

999e. (a) An individual shall be the subject of career criminal prosecution efforts who is under arrest for the commission or attempted commission of one or more of the following felonies: robbery, burglary, arson, any unlawful act relating to controlled substances in violation of Section 11351 or 11352 of the Health and Safety Code, receiving stolen property, grand theft and grand theft auto, and lewd or lascivious conduct upon a child; and who is either being prosecuted for three or more separate offenses not arising out of the same transaction involving one or more of such felonies, or has suffered at least one conviction during the preceding 10 years for any felony listed in paragraph (1) of this subdivision, or at least two convictions during the preceding 10 years for any felony listed in paragraph (2) of this subdivision:

(1) Robbery as defined in Section 211, burglary of the first degree, arson as defined in Section 451, unlawfully causing a fire as defined in Section 452, forcible rape, sodomy or oral copulation committed with force, lewd or lascivious conduct committed upon a child, kidnapping as defined in Section 209, or murder.

(2) Grand theft, grand theft auto, receiving stolen property, robbery other than that described in paragraph (1) above, burglary of the second degree, kidnapping as defined in Section 207, assault with a deadly weapon or instrument, or any unlawful act relating to controlled substances in violation of Section 11351 or 11352 of the Health and Safety Code.

For purposes of this chapter, the 10-year periods specified in this section shall be exclusive of any time which the arrested person has served in state prison.

(b) In applying the career criminal selection criteria set forth above, a district attorney may elect to limit career criminal prosecution efforts to persons arrested for any one or more of the felonies listed in subdivision (a) of this section if crime statistics demonstrate that the incidence of such one or more felonies presents a particularly serious problem in the county.

(c) In exercising the prosecutorial discretion granted by Section 999g, the district attorney shall consider the following: (1) the character, background, and prior criminal background of the defendant; and (2) the number and the seriousness of the offenses currently charged against the defendant.

CHAPTER 671

An act to amend Section 871.5 of the Penal Code, relating to criminal procedure, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 28, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 871.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

871.5. (a) When an action is dismissed by a magistrate pursuant to Section 859b, 861, 871, 1008, 1381, 1381.5, 1385, 1387, or 1389, or a portion thereof is dismissed pursuant to those same sections which may not be charged by information under the provisions of Section 739, the prosecutor may make a motion in the superior court within 15 days to compel the magistrate to reinstate the complaint or a portion thereof and to reinstate the custodial status of the defendant under the same terms and conditions as when the defendant last appeared before the magistrate and, where the magistrate's dismissal of the complaint or a portion thereof was the result of an erroneous ruling on a question of law, to issue an order of commitment for the offense or offenses reinstated, pursuant to Section 872.

(b) Notice of the motion shall be made to the defendant and the magistrate. The only ground for the motion shall be that, as a matter of law, the magistrate erroneously dismissed the action or a portion thereof.

(c) The superior court shall hear and determine the motion on the basis of the record of the proceedings before the magistrate. If the motion is litigated to decision by the prosecutor, the prosecution is prohibited from refiling the dismissed action, or portion thereof.

(d) Within 10 days after the magistrate has dismissed the action or a portion thereof, the prosecuting attorney may file a written request for a transcript of the proceedings with the clerk of the magistrate. The reporter shall immediately transcribe his or her shorthand notes pursuant to Section 869 and file with the clerk of the superior court an original plus one copy, and as many copies as there are defendants (other than a fictitious defendant). The reporter shall be entitled to compensation in accordance with the provisions of Section 869. The clerk of the superior court shall deliver a copy of the transcript to the prosecuting attorney immmediately upon its receipt and shall deliver a copy of the transcript to each defendant (other than a fictitious defendant) upon his or her demand without cost.

(e) When a court has ordered the resumption of proceedings before the magistrate, the magistrate shall resume the proceedings and when so ordered, issue an order of commitment for the reinstated offense or offenses within 10 days after the superior court has entered an order to that effect or within 10 days after the remittitur is filed in the superior court. Upon receipt of the remittitur, the superior court shall forward a copy to the magistrate.

(f) Pursuant to paragraph (9) of subdivision (a) of Section 1238 the people may take an appeal from the denial of the motion by the superior court to reinstate the complaint or a portion thereof. If the motion to reinstate the complaint is granted, the defendant may seek review thereof only pursuant to Sections 995 and 999a. Such review may only be sought in the event the defendant is held to answer pursuant to Section 872.

(g) Nothing contained herein shall preclude a magistrate, upon the resumption of proceedings, from considering a motion made pursuant to Section 1318.

If the superior court grants the motion for reinstatement and orders the magistrate to issue an order of commitment, the defendant, in lieu of resumed proceedings before the magistrate, may elect to waive his or her right to be committed by a magistrate, and consent to the filing of an amended or initial information containing the reinstated charge or charges. After arraignment thereon, he or she may adopt as a motion pursuant to Section 995 the record and proceedings of the motion taken pursuant to this section and the order issued pursuant thereto, and may seek review of the order in the manner prescribed in Section 999a.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that procedures throughout the state may be made uniform and more economical as soon as possible, thus contributing to the public safety through the resulting improvement in the criminal justice system, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 672

An act to amend Section 12157 of the Fish and Game Code, and to amend Section 259 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to fish and game.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 28, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12157 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

12157. The judge before whom any person is tried for a violation of any provision of this code or regulation made pursuant thereto may, in his discretion, upon the conviction of the accused, order the forfeiture of any device or apparatus designed to be, and capable of being, used to take birds, mammals, fish, reptiles, or amphibia and which was used in committing the offense charged. Any device or apparatus so forfeited shall be sold or destroyed by the department. The proceeds from all such sales shall be paid into the Fish and Game Preservation Fund. For the purpose of this section, forfeiture of bail shall constitute a conviction.

The provisions in this section authorizing a judge to order the forfeiture of a device or apparatus are applicable to the judge, referee, or traffic hearing officer in a juvenile court action brought under Section 259 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

Neither disposition of the criminal action other than by conviction nor the discretionary refusal of the judge to order forfeiture upon conviction shall impair the right of the department to commence proceedings to order the forfeiture of fish nets or traps pursuant to Section 8630.

SEC. 2. Section 259 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

259. Upon a hearing conducted in accordance with Section 257, upon admission by the minor of the commission of a violation of the Fish and Game Code charged, or upon a finding that the minor did in fact commit such violation of the Fish and Game Code, the judge, referee, or traffic hearing officer may do any of the following:

(a) Reprimand the minor and take no further action.

(b) Direct the probation officer to file a petition as provided for in Article 16 (commencing with Section 650) of this chapter.

(c) Make any or all of the following orders:

(1) That the fishing or hunting license involved be suspended or restricted.

(2) That the minor pay to the general fund of the county a sum, not to exceed twenty-five dollars ($25).

(3) That the minor work in a park or conservation area for a total of not to exceed eight hours over a period not to exceed 30 days, during times other than his hours of school attendance or employment.

(4) That the minor forfeit, pursuant to Section 12157 of the Fish and Game Code, any device or apparatus designed to be, and capable of being, used to take birds, mammals, fish, reptiles, or amphibia and which was used in committing the violation charged.

The judge, referee, or traffic hearing officer shall retain jurisdiction of the case until all orders made under this section have been fully complied with.

SEC. 3. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 673

An act to add Section 53971.3 to, and to repeal Section 53980 of, the Government Code, relating to county criminal justice facilities, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982 Filed with Secretary of State August 28, 1982]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 53971.3 is added to the Government Code, to read:

53971.3. As used in this article, "police protection services" includes county criminal justice facilities, which shall be limited to, jails, detention facilities, and juvenile halls. The cost of providing police protection services includes the cost of constructing, reconstructing, expanding, or improving county criminal justice facilities, and any necessary debt service associated therewith.

SEC. 2. Section 53980 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immmediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Throughout the state, counties are facing a property- and life-threatening crisis in attempting to afford their citizens essential police protection services. The level of service which the counties are able to furnish is directly related to the availability of adequate criminal justice facilities. In many instances counties are constrained in their efforts to provide an acceptable level of essential police protection services because of overcrowded, overused, and otherwise inadequate criminal justice facilities which the counties are unable to replace or improve because of reduced revenue sources. This act would enable the voters of a county to alleviate the potential crisis in the criminal justice system by approving additional sources of revenue for this specific purpose. In order that counties may employ the authorization afforded by this act and avert further deterioration of essential police protection services, it is essential that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 674

An act to amend Section 496 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to carriers.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 28, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 496 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

496. (a) For purposes of this section—

(1) The term "carrier" means any common carrier subject to regulation under this part.

(2) The term "antitrust laws" means the provisions of Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 16700) of Part 2 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to combinations in restraint of trade.

(b) Any carrier which is a party to an agreement between or among two or more carriers relating to rates, fares, classifications, divisions, allowances, or charges (including charges between carriers and compensation paid or received for the use of facilities and equipment), or rules and regulations pertaining thereto, or procedures for the joint consideration, initiation, or establishment thereof, may, under such rules and regulations as the commission may prescribe, apply to the commission for approval of the agreement, and the commission shall by order approve any such agreement, if approval thereof is not prohibited by subdivision (d), (e), or (f), if it finds that the agreement and the rules, regulations, and procedures provided for the operation thereof are fair and reasonable and not contrary to public policy; otherwise the application shall be denied. The approval of the commission shall be granted only upon such terms and conditions as the commission may prescribe as necessary to enable it to grant its approval in accordance with this subdivision.

(c) Each conference, bureau, committee, or other organization established or continued pursuant to any agreement approved by the commission under the provisions of this section shall maintain such accounts, records, files, and memoranda and shall submit to the commission such reports, as may be prescribed by the commission, and all such accounts, records, files, and memoranda shall be subject to inspection by the commission or its duly authorized representatives.

(d) The commission shall not approve under this section any agreement between a carrier by highway and a carrier by rail unless it finds that the agreement is of the character described in subdivision (b) and is limited to matters relating to transportation under joint rates or over through routes.

(e) The commission shall not approve under this section any agreement which it finds is an agreement with respect to the pooling or division of traffic, service, or earnings, unless the commission finds that the agreement will be in the interest of better service to the public or of economy of operation resulting in efficient utilization of fuel and will not unduly restrain competition.

(f) The commission shall not approve under this section any agreement which establishes a procedure for the determination of any matter through joint consideration, unless it finds that under the agreement there is accorded to each party the free and unrestrained right to take independent action either before or after any determination arrived at through such procedure.

(g) The commission may, upon complaint or upon its own initiative without complaint, investigate and determine whether any agreement previously approved by it under this section, or any term or condition upon which the approval was granted, is not in conformity with subdivision (b), or whether any such term or condition is not necessary for purposes of conformity with subdivision (b). After the investigation, the commission may by order terminate or modify its approval of such agreement if it finds such action necessary to insure conformity with subdivision (b), and may modify the terms and conditions upon which the approval was granted to the extent it finds necessary to insure conformity with subdivision (b) or to the extent it finds such terms and conditions unnecessary to insure such conformity. The effective date of any order terminating or modifying approval, or modifying terms and conditions, may be postponed for such period as the commission determines is reasonably necessary to avoid undue hardship.

(h) No order shall be entered under this section except after interested parties have been afforded reasonable opportunity for hearing.

(i) The parties to any agreement approved by the commission under this section and other persons are, if the approval of the agreement is not prohibited by subdivision (d), (e), or (f), hereby exempted from the antitrust laws with respect to the agreement under the terms and conditions prescribed by the commission.

(j) Any action of the commission under this section in approving an agreement, or in denying an application for such approval, or in terminating or modifying its approval of an agreement, or in prescribing the terms and conditions upon which its approval is to be granted, or in modifying such terms and conditions, shall be construed as having effect solely with reference to the applicability of subdivision (i).

CHAPTER 675

An act to amend Section 5353 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to transportation.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 28, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5353 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

5353. The provisions of this chapter do not apply to:

(a) Transportation service rendered wholly within the corporate limits of a single city or city and county.

(b) Transportation of school pupils conducted by or under contract with the governing board of any school district entered into pursuant to authority vested by the provisions of the Education Code.

(c) Common carrier transportation services between fixed termini or over a regular route which are subject to authorization pursuant to the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 1031), Chapter 5, Part 1, Division 1 of this code.

(d) Transportation services occasionally afforded for farm employees moving to and from farms on which employed when such transportation is performed by the employer in vehicles owned or leased by him, or by a nonprofit agricultural cooperative association organized and acting within the scope of its powers under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 1190), Division 6 of the Agricultural Code, and without any requirement for the payment of compensation therefor by the employees.

(e) Transportation service rendered by a publicly owned transit system.

(f) Passenger vehicles carrying passengers on a noncommercial enterprise basis.

(g) Taxicab transportation service licensed and regulated by a city or county, by ordinance or resolution, rendered in vehicles designed for carrying not more than eight persons excluding the driver.

(h) Passenger vehicles having a seating capacity of 15 passengers or less in a single daily round trip carrying at least three persons from place of residence to place of employment, if the driver himself is on the way to or from his place of employment.

(i) Medical transportation vehicles.

(j) Transportation services rendered solely within the Lake Tahoe Basin, comprising that area included within the Tahoe Regional Planning Compact as set forth in Section 66801 of the Government Code, when the operator of such services has obtained any permit required from the Tahoe Basin Transportation Authority or the City of South Lake Tahoe, or both.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that this act is necessary since special facts and circumstances applicable to the Lake Tahoe Basin, and not generally applicable, make the accomplishment of this purpose impossible by any general law. The great influx of visitors to this area has caused transportation and air quality problems for which a tri-agency transportation agency, the Tahoe Basin Transportation Authority, comprising areas both in California and Nevada, has been created. The Legislature finds and declares that this act is necessary to allow this regional agency authority to deal with regional transportation and air pollution problems on a regional basis. The Legislature further finds and declares that the purpose of this act is impossible to accomplish by any general law, and that special legislation applicable only to the Lake Tahoe Basin is therefore necessary.

CHAPTER 676

An act to amend Sections 1603, 2001, 2010, 2011, 2462, 2466, 2531, 2531.2, 2604, 2604.5, 2703, 2843, 2920, 2922, 3010, 3013, 3320, 3321, 3504, 3505, 3507, 3910, 3914, 4000, 4001, 4002, 4800, 4802, 4832, 4928, 4929, 4930, 5000, 5515, 5620, 5621, 6500, 6502, 6710, 6712, 6865, 6866, 7000.5, 7003, 7301, 7303, 7601, 7603, 7810, 7814, 8000, 8001, 8520, 8522, 9001, 9003, 9530, 9531, 9625, 9817, 9820, 9882.6, 9882.8, 9926, 9929, 19035, and 19035.3 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to licensing agencies in the Department of Consumer Affairs.

[Approved by Governor August 27, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 28, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1603 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

1603. Members of the board shall be appointed for a term of four years, and each member shall hold office until the appointment and qualification of his successor or until one year shall have elapsed since the expiration of the term for which he was appointed, whichever first occurs.

A vacancy occurring during a term shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term, within 30 days after it occurs.

No person shall serve as a member of the board for more than two terms.

The Governor shall appoint two of the public members and the eight licensed dentist members of the board. The Senate Rules Committee and the Speaker of the Assembly shall each appoint a public member, and their initial appointment shall be made to fill, respectively, the first and second public member vacancies which occur on or after January 1, 1983.

SEC. 2. Section 2001 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2001. There is in the Department of Consumer Affairs a Board of Medical Quality Assurance which consists of 19 members, seven of whom shall be public members.

The Governor shall appoint 17 members to the board, subject to confirmation by the Senate, five of whom shall be public members. The Senate Rules Committee and the Speaker of the Assembly shall each appoint a public member, and their initial appointment shall be made to fill, respectively, the first and second public member vacancies which occur on or after January 1, 1983.

SEC. 3. Section 2010 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2010. Each member of the board shall be appointed for a term of four years.

Vacancies occuring on the board shall be filled by appointment of the appointing power for the unexpired term.

SEC. 4. Section 2011 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2011. The appointing power may remove any member of the board for neglect of duty required by this chapter, incompetency, or unprofessional conduct.

SEC. 5. Section 2462 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2462. The committee shall consist of six members, two of whom shall be public members. Not more than one member of the committee shall be a full-time faculty member of a college or school of podiatric medicine. The Governor shall give consideration to recommendations of the board after the board has consulted with the committee, except with regard to the public members.

The Governor shall appoint the four members qualified as provided in Section 2463. The Senate Rules Committee and the Speaker of the Assembly shall each appoint a public member , and their initial appointment shall be made to fill, respectively, the first and second public member vacancies which occur on or after January 1, 1983.

SEC. 6. Section 2466 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2466. All members of the committee shall be appointed for terms of four years. Vacancies shall immediately be filled by the appointing power for the unexpired portion of the terms in which they occur. In filling vacancies, the Governor shall consider recommendations as provided in Section 2462. No person shall serve as a member of the committee for more than two consecutive terms.

appointed, shall be appointed for a term of four years and shall hold office until the appointment and qualification of his successor or until one year shall have elapsed since the expiration of the term for which he was appointed, whichever first occurs. Vacancies occurring shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term.

The Governor shall appoint four of the public members and the five licensed members qualified as provided in Section 9002 with the advice and consent of the Senate. The Senate Rules Committee and the Speaker of the Assembly shall each appoint a public member, and their initial appointment shall be made to fill, respectively, the first and second public member vacancies which occur on or after January 1, 1983.

SEC. 54. Section 9530 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9530. There is in the Department of Consumer Affairs the State Board of Fabric Care, which consists of seven members. The seven members of the board shall consist of four public members and three persons licensed or registered by the board. All board member licensees or registered persons shall have been actively engaged in the drycleaning industry for at least three years and after January 1, 1972, shall have been actively engaged in the drycleaning industry for at least five years. It is desirable that members from the drycleaning industry be so selected that there shall be a geographical balance.

Each member of the board shall receive a per diem and expenses as provided in Section 103.

SEC. 55. Section 9531 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9531. Members of the board shall be appointed for a term of four years, and they shall serve until the appointment and qualification of their successor, but in such case no member whose term of office has expired shall serve for a period longer than one year, unless reappointed to the board. No member shall serve more than two successive regular four-year terms.

Vacancies occurring shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term. Before entering upon the duties of his office, each member of the board shall take and subscribe to the constitutional oath of office. A majority of the membership shall constitute a quorum for transacting any business of the board. A vacancy on the board shall not impair the right of the remaining members of the board to perform all duties and exercise the authority therein vested in the board. The appointing power may remove a member for cause, and shall remove any member who ceases to be actively engaged in the drycleaning industry.

The Governor shall appoint two of the public members and the three licensed members qualified as provided in Section 9530 with confirmation of the Senate. The Senate Rules Committee and the Speaker of the Assembly shall each appoint a public member , and their initial appointment shall be made to fill, respectively, the first and second public member vacancies which occur on or after January 1, 1983.

SEC. 56. Section 9625 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9625. There is in the department a Cemetery Board which consists of six members, including four members representing the public at large.

Each appointment shall be for a four-year term expiring June 1 of the fourth year following the year in which the previous term expired.

The Governor shall appoint two of the public members and the two members qualified as provided in Section 9626 with confirmation of the Senate. The Senate Rules Committee and the Speaker of the Assembly shall each appoint a public member, and their initial appointment shall be made to fill, respectively, the first and second public member vacancies which occur on or after January 1, 1983.

SEC. 57. Section 9817 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9817. There is in the bureau an Electronic and Appliance Repair Advisory Board. It consists of nine members.

SEC. 58. Section 9820 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9820. Five members of the advisory board shall be selected to represent the public, two members shall be selected from the radio, television and audio or video recorder or playback equipment repair industry, and two members shall be selected from the appliance repair industry.

The Governor shall appoint three of the public members and the four members qualified as provided in this section subject to confirmation by the Senate. The Senate Rules Committee and the Speaker of the Assembly shall each appoint a public member, and their initial appointment shall be made to fill, respectively, the first and second public member vacancies which occur on or after January 1, 1983.

SEC. 59. Section 9882.6 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9882.6. There is in the bureau a board which consists of nine members. Of the nine members, five shall be selected from the public and four members shall be selected from the automotive repair industry. Each member of the board shall be a United States citizen, a resident of California, and of good moral character. All nonpublic members shall have had at least five years of experience in the industry, and whenever possible shall have been licensed under this act for a period of at least five years.

SEC. 60. Section 9882.8 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9882.8. Each member of the board shall be appointed for a term of four years and shall hold office until the appointment and qualification of his successor or until one year shall have elapsed since the expiration of the term for which he was appointed, whichever first occurs.

Vacancies occurring shall be filled by appointment to the unexpired term.

No person shall serve as a member of the board for more than two consecutive terms.

The Governor shall appoint three of the public members and the four members qualified as provided in Section 9882.6. The Senate Rules Committee and the Speaker of the Assembly shall each appoint a public member, and their initial appointment shall be made to fill, respectively, the first and second public member vacancies which occur on or after January 1, 1983.

SEC. 61. Section 9926 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9926. There is in the Bureau of Employment Agencies a California Advisory Board to the Bureau of Employment Agencies, which consists of seven members.

SEC. 62. Section 9929 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9929. Notwithstanding any other provision of this code, each member of the board shall hold office until the appointment and qualification of his successor or until one year shall have elapsed since the expiration of the term for which he was appointed, whichever first occurs.

Appointments to the board shall be made for a term of four years.

Vacancies occurring in the membership of the board for any cause shall be filled by appointment for the balance of the unexpired term.

No member shall serve more than two consecutive terms of office.

The Governor shall appoint two of the public members and the three industry members qualified as provided in Section 9927. The Senate Rules Committee and the Speaker of the Assembly shall each appoint a public member, and their initial appointment shall be made to fill, respectively, the first and second public member vacancies which occur on or after January 1, 1983.

SEC. 63. Section 19035 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19035. The California Advisory Board of Furniture and Bedding in the bureau, which consists of 11 members, is continued in existence as the California Advisory Board of Home Furnishings.

SEC. 64. Section 19035.3 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19035.3. Each member of the board shall be appointed for a term of four years and shall hold office until the appointment and qualification of his successor or until one year shall have elapsed since the expiration of his term, whichever first occurs.

Vacancies occurring in the membership of the board for any cause shall be filled by appointment for the balance of the unexpired term.

Each member appointed to the board, except the members appointed to represent the public at large, shall be from the same branch of the furniture and bedding industry as his predecessor.

No member shall serve more than two consecutive terms of office.

The Governor shall appoint four of the public members and the five members of the industry qualified as provided in Section 19035.1. The Senate Rules Committee and the Speaker of the Assembly shall each appoint a public member, and their initial appointment shall be made to fill, respectively, the first and second public member vacancies which occur on or after January 1, 1983.

CHAPTER 677

An act to amend Sections 70059.7, 74642, 74643, 74644, 74645, and 74647 of the Government Code, relating to courts.

[Became law without Governor's signature. Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 70059.7 of the Government Code is amended to read:

70059.7. In Santa Barbara County each regular official reporter shall be paid a biweekly salary which shall be one thousand one hundred twenty-three dollars and twenty-five cents ($1,123.25) which salary shall include payment for services in reporting all proceedings in the superior court, before the grand jury, and before coroners' inquests.

Reporters pro tempore shall be paid at the per diem rate of one hundred eleven dollars ($111) for the days they are actually on duty under order of the court, and shall receive from the county their necessary traveling and other expenses when necessarily called from other counties. Rates of compensation of regular official reporters and official reporters pro tempore may be adjusted by joint action and approval of the board of supervisors and a majority of the judges of the court, provided, however, that any changes in compensation which are made pursuant to this section shall be on an interim basis and shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1984, unless ratified by statute by the Legislature prior to that date.

In such a county, the fee required by Section 70053 shall be ten dollars ($10).

In addition to any fee otherwise required, in all contested civil trials wherein the services of a court reporter have been requested by any party to the action, a per diem fee shall be charged to the party requesting such service, or, at the discretion of the court, to the parties on a pro rata basis, for each day of court reporting service or portion thereof, equal to the per diem rate established for pro tempore reporters of the court. If the court assesses the reporter's fee on a pro rata basis, the reporter and fee attached thereto may be waived upon the timely stipulation of all parties. Fees in long-cause civil trials shall be posted with the clerk's office no later than 14 days prior to the date set for master calendar. Fees in short-cause civil trials of one day or less, shall be posted with the clerk's office no later than seven days prior to the date set for the short-cause calendar.

SEC. 2. Section 74642 of the Government Code is amended to read:

SEC. 5. Section 74645 of the Government Code is amended to read:

74645. (a) It is the purpose of this section to provide compensation for municipal court employees and officers which is comparable to that paid to county employees holding equal or comparable positions in the Santa Barbara classified service as such comparability is determined by the Santa Barbara County Board of Supervisors.

(b) Whenever reference to a numbered salary range is made in any section of this article, the schedule and the salary ordinance of the County of Santa Barbara in effect January 1, 1982, shall apply.

(c) If the board of supervisors adopts a revised salary schedule for county employees, the new schedule shall apply equally to employees of municipal courts and marshals' offices and conversion to the new schedule shall be made for such employees in the same manner on the same date as for the classified service.

(d) Notwithstanding any of the provisions of this article, the salary and benefits of municipal court employees and officers shall be changed in the same manner and at the same rate as a salary and benefit change is effective for other permanent county classified positions. Employees and officers of the municipal court shall be entitled to all employee benefits as they are provided and made applicable to positions within the classified service pursuant to Santa Barbara County ordinances or resolutions, to the extent that the benefits are not contrary to state law.

(e) All matters affecting the administration of salary and benefits, the selection, appointment, and reclassification of such municipal court officers and employees in those positions which they hold which are not specifically determined by the provision of state law shall be governed by the personnel ordinances and resolutions of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Barbara.

(f) Nothing in this article shall be construed to place marshals' or clerks' offices, their employees and attachés under the civil service system of Santa Barbara County but such employees and attachés may be placed under that civil service system by court rule adopted by the judges of their respective courts.

(g) Any changes in compensation made pursuant to this section shall be on an interim basis and shall expire January 1 of the second calendar year following such changes unless ratified by the Legislature.

SEC. 6. Section 74647 of the Government Code is amended to read:

74647. (a) Full-time official reporters appointed by the majority of the judges of the municipal court pursuant to the provisions of Section 72194 and so designated, shall be attachés of the court and shall receive a biweekly salary in accordance with the provisions of Section 70059.7. Such salary shall be paid at the same times and according to the same procedures as salaries of employees of the County of Santa Barbara. During the hours when the court is open for the transaction of judicial business, official reporters shall devote full time to the performance of the duties required of them by law and shall not engage in or solicit to engage in any other employment in their professional capacity.

(b) The judges of the court may appoint as many part-time additional reporters as the business of the court requires. The additional reporters shall be known as official reporters pro tempore, and they shall serve without salary but shall receive, for reporting, fees at the per diem rate fixed by Section 70059.7. Rates of compensation of regular official reporters and official reporters pro tempore may be adjusted by joint action and approval of the board of supervisors and a majority of the judges of the court, provided, however, that any changes in compensation which are made pursuant to this section shall be on an interim basis and shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1984, unless ratified by statute by the Legislature prior to that date. In criminal cases such fees upon order of the court shall be a charge against the general fund of the county.

(c) An official reporter when not engaged in the performance of duties of the municipal court, may be appointed to serve as such reporter for the Santa Barbara County Grand Jury or in any other court in the County of Santa Barbara.

SEC. 7. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act.

CHAPTER 678

An act to amend Section 5031 of the Education Code, relating to public education.

[Approved by Governor August 30, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5031 of the Education Code is amended to read:

5031. Whenever a school district or community college district is divided for governing board membership purposes into wards, supervisorial districts, or trustee areas, the county superintendent of schools shall prepare and keep in his or her office a map showing the boundaries of such subdivisions of all districts under his or her jurisdiction. Whenever a proposal to initiate a change in trustee area boundaries is submitted to a county committee on school district organization pursuant to Section 5019 by resolution of the governing board of a district, and the proposal is approved, the costs of preparing, developing, and duplicating the maps and legal descriptions shall be borne by the district.

The county superintendent shall also prepare and keep in his or her office a record of all actions taken by the county committee on district organization in connection with trustee area boundaries.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 35573, 35575, and 35576 of the Education Code, an election to be held in the Seal Beach School District on November 2, 1982, for the annexation of the Seal Beach School District to the Los Alamitos Unified School District may provide, pursuant to an approved plan for annexation, that the respective territories affected shall remain liable only for the school district bonded indebtedness for which they were liable prior to the effective date of the annexation.

CHAPTER 679

An act to amend Section 53066.1 of, and to add and repeal Section 53066.2 of, the Government Code, relating to community antenna television.

[Approved by Governor August 30, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) This act shall be known as the California Cable Television Development Act.

(b) After investigation, the Legislature finds and declares that:

(1) The cable television industry is an important news, entertainment, and information service whose economic health and continued growth and development are in the best interests of the people of the State of California and are matters of statewide concern.

(2) Cable television is an important source of news, information, culture, and ideas, entitled to the full protections afforded by the First Amendment to the United States Constitution and subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article I of the California Constitution.

(3) The cable television industry operates in a competitive multimedia environment, and within such an environment the cable television consumer is best served when the cable television system is free to respond to its consumers without unreasonable governmental restraint.

(4) The expansion of cable television channel and service capacity and the provision of community service programming is in the best interests of the people of the State of California.

(5) The regulation of subscriber rates, charges, or rate structures established by a cable television system is a matter of statewide concern; accordingly, the state hereby preempts under the terms and conditions prescribed by this act any control or regulation of subscriber rates, charges, or rate structures heretofore or hereinafter established by any franchisor pursuant to Section 53066 of the Government Code, to the extent such control or regulation is inconsistent with the terms of Section 53066.1 of the Government Code.

SEC. 2. Section 53066.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53066.1. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 53066, any cable television system which meets all of the following criteria:

(1) Has a capacity of 20 or more video channels,

(2) Receives television signals from a satellite earth receiving station,

(3) (A) Has a subscriber penetration ratio of less than 70 percent in the entire franchise area which is located in a county or portion of a county which has available three significantly viewed television stations, or two significantly viewed television stations and an educational television station; or (B) has a subscriber penetration ratio of 70 percent or greater in a franchise area which is located in a county or a portion of a county which has available five significantly viewed television stations, or four significantly viewed television stations and an educational television station, and

(4) Complies, upon the filing of a statement pursuant to subdivision (d), with the community services channel requirements set forth in subdivision (f), shall, upon written notice to the franchisor, be exempt from control by that franchisor or any other authority as to rates, charges, and rate structures, provided that such notice may not be given prior to the expiration of two years following the completion and activation of 80 percent of the plant miles required to be constructed by the franchisee pursuant to the original terms of its franchise.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 53066, any cable television system which is unable to meet all the requirements of subdivision (a), whose franchise area is located in a county or portion of a county which has available three significantly viewed television stations, or two significantly viewed television stations and an educational television station, and:

(1) Has a subscriber penetration ratio of 70 percent or more in its franchise area and meets all requirements of subdivision (a), except clause (B) of paragraph (3), or

(2) Has a capacity of at least 12 video channels in a franchise area with fewer than 3,500 subscribers in a community of less than 20,000 in population, and otherwise meets the requirements of paragraph (4) of subdivision (a), may, upon written notice to the franchisor, thereafter adjust its rates, charges, and rate structures at any time, without the approval of the franchisor or other authority, by an amount not to exceed 75 percent of the percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index for the period since the date of the last previous adjustment, or December 31, 1975, if there have been no adjustments since December 31, 1975.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 53066, a cable television system which satisfies the requirements of subdivision (b), and which, prior to January 1, 1980, had a capacity of less than 20 video channels, and subsequently rebuilds its system to a capacity of 20 or more video channels, may initially raise its rates, charges, and rate structures, without the approval of the franchisor or other authority, to a level not to exceed the statewide average rates for those cable television systems having a capacity of 20 or more video channels, and thereafter adjust its rates, charges, and rate structures at any time, without the approval of the franchisor or other authority, by an amount not to exceed 75 percent of the percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index for the period since the date of the last previous adjustment. The average rates shall be determined by multiplying each applicable cable television system's rates by the number of its subscribers, adding together that figure for all applicable cable television systems, and dividing that total by the total number of applicable subscribers.

(d) Within 15 working days of the issuance of the written notice to the franchisor under subdivision (a) or (b), the cable television system shall submit to the franchisor a statement, certified pursuant to Section 2015.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure, setting forth each of the following:

(1) The name under which the cable television system is doing business.

(2) The mailing address and telephone number of the system.

(3) The video channel capacity of the system.

(4) The subscriber penetration ratio of the system computed within 60 days prior to issuance of the notice to the franchisor.

(5) The method by which the system receives television signals from a satellite-earth receiving station.

(6) An identification of the significantly viewed television stations within the county in which the system operates.

(7) The facts demonstrating timely compliance with the community service channel requirement set forth in subdivision (f).

(e) Neither party to a franchise agreement or prospective franchise agreement, or any renewal thereof, shall request, demand, propose, or agree to any provision which by its terms or effect waives any right to which either party is entitled under this section. Any such provision shall be void. The provisions of this subdivision shall neither validate or invalidate any action by a party to a franchise agreement, prospective franchise agreement, or any renewal thereof entered into prior to January 1, 1983, which would otherwise be prohibited by its terms.

(f) A cable television system shall be deemed to be offering a community service channel program if the system does all of the following:

(1) (A) Provides, for those systems which have a capacity of not more than 20 video channels, one channel or its equivalent for use by local members of the public and government entities; or (B) provides for those systems which have a capacity of more than 20 video channels, a second such channel if the first channel is in use during 80 percent of the weekdays for 80 percent of the time during any consecutive 13-hour period for 10 consecutive weeks; or (C) provides, if such system has a capacity of more than 30 video channels, a third such composite channel if the second channel is in use during 80 percent of the weekdays for 80 percent of the time during any consecutive 13-hour period for 10 consecutive weeks.

Upon written request of the franchisor, for those systems which have a capacity of 20 or more channels, the first such channel shall, if possible, consistent with the requirements of federal law, and reserving three additional channels for programming by the system, be provided as part of the basic service of the system.

(2) Participates by payment of fifty cents ($0.50) per subscriber per year to a nonprofit foundation formed by cable operators with a board of directors which shall include cable operators and a group of directors representing both local nongovernmental user groups and governmental user groups selected to reflect the diversity of population of the state. The purposes of the foundation shall include the encouragement of and the provision of: (A) instruction and training for individuals, groups, entities, and agencies interested in using community service channels; (B) the nondiscriminatory employment and promotion of other opportunities for minorities and women in the cable television industry; and (C) public information on the effective use of cable television community service channels. Such foundation shall have grant-making authority.

(3) In the event the local franchising authority has established or designated an entity whose purpose is substantially similar to the foundation identified in paragraph (2), then, in lieu of the requirement of paragraph (2), the cable television system may elect to provide forty cents ($0.40) per subscriber per year to that local entity and ten cents ($0.10) per subscriber per year to the statewide foundation.

(4) Provides, if requested, to individuals, groups and entities using community service channels, technical advice by local program staff and reasonable access to local studio and earth station receiving facilities, if such facilities and staff are part of the local system.

(5) Notifies secondary schools and community colleges located within the franchise area which furnish training in the uses of community service channels of the availability of the system's community service channels.

(6) Has available for use without charge tape playback facilities for entrance into the system.

(7) Provides, by display information on the community service channels, written notice to subscribers, or published notice, information to potential users of the opportunity to have access to community service channels.

(8) Provides, upon election to deregulate and thereafter, as requested, the name, address, and telephone number of the system, the name of the system manager, and the status and utilization of the community service channels, to the foundation for community service channels.

(g) (1) If at the time of a cable television system's election under subdivision (a), (b), or (c), the cable television system does not meet the capacity, satellite-earth receiving station or penetration ratio requirements thereof, or is not in substantial compliance with the material provisions of its franchise, excluding the performance of any term or condition which the system is or has been excused or prevented from performing or which is, in whole or in part, in the control of a third party, or which is, in whole or in part, invalid, the franchisor may, within 90 days of receipt of the written notice of the system's election, notify the cable television system in writing of the noncompliance, setting forth in detail the grounds therefor. Within 30 days of receipt of the notice from the franchisor, the cable television system shall respond in writing to the grounds set forth therein. The franchisor shall have 30 days from the receipt of the system's response within which to renew its earlier objection and respond in writing to the cable television system, if the franchisor has reason to believe that the system does not meet the prescribed capacity, satellite-earth receiving station, or penetration ratio requirements, or that no good cause exists for the system's alleged failure to substantially comply with the material provisions of its franchise. The cable television system shall have 90 days from receipt of the second written notice from the franchisor within which to correct any such noncompliance and to notify the franchisor in writing of such correction.

(2) If the franchisor is not satisfied with the cable television system's attempts to meet the prescribed capacity, satellite-earth receiving station, or penetration ratio requirements, or to correct the alleged substantial noncompliance with the material provisions of its franchise within the 90-day period from receipt of the second notice from the franchisor, and the franchisor believes there is not valid excuse pursuant to paragraph (1), the franchisor shall notify the cable television system in writing of such dissatisfaction within 30 days from either the end of the 90-day period, or the receipt of notice from the system that it has corrected the noncompliance, whichever is sooner. If the franchisor does not provide such written notice within the 30-day period, it shall be barred, in any proceedings to determine the right to deregulate under this section, from alleging that the franchisee has failed to correct any of the items of noncompliance alleged in the original notice given by the franchisor to the franchisee. The cable television system may request a hearing before the governing body of the franchisor, which hearing shall be conducted within 30 days of the governing body's receipt of a request therefor, and a decision thereon rendered within 15 days following conclusion of the hearing.

(3) If the franchisor transmits written notice pursuant to paragraph (2), the franchisor or the cable television system may file a breach of contract action for breach of the franchise agreement in a court of competent jurisdiction. All factual and legal issues shall be determined by civil procedures and under rules of evidence applicable to breach of contract actions. If it is finally determined that the cable television system fails to meet prescribed capacity, satellite-earth receiving station, or penetration ratio requirements, or to comply with material provisions of its franchise, the remedy therefor shall be a refund in the form of a monthly credit to the subscriber of an amount no greater than any increase in rates obtained under this section, and resulting from and proportionate to such violation. The maximum number of monthly credits to subscribers shall be limited to the number of months during which the cable television system failed to meet prescribed capacity, satellite-earth receiving station, or penetration ratio requirements, or was in noncompliance with material provisions of its franchise. At the franchisor's option, this remedy may be utilized in lieu of any remedies provided for in the franchise. Notwithstanding a final determination that the cable television system fails to meet prescribed capacity, satellite-earth receiving station, or penetration ratio requirements, or to comply with the material provisions of its franchise, the cable television system may thereafter elect to be bound by the provisions of this section at the time of its compliance. The court may reserve jurisdiction to determine whether the cable television system has so complied and the date of such compliance.

(4) The alleged breaches of the material provisions of the franchise which may be considered in determining eligibility to deregulate shall be limited to those which (A) the franchisor has notified the franchisee of in writing within the one-year period immediately preceding the date of the election, (B) the franchisor has orally notified the franchisee of during the 6 months immediately preceding the date of the election, or (C) occurred within the 90 days immediately preceding the election to deregulate, if discovered within 20 days following the election to deregulate.

(h) (1) If at any time a cable television system, which has made an election pursuant to subdivision (a), (b), or (c), is not in compliance with subdivision (f), the franchisor shall notify the cable television system in writing of the alleged noncompliance, setting forth in detail the grounds therefor. Within 30 days of receipt of the notice, the cable television system shall respond in writing to the franchisor. The franchisor shall have 30 days from the receipt of the response within which to renew its earlier objections in writing to the cable television system, if the franchisor has reason to believe that no good cause exists for the system's failure to so comply with subdivision (f). The cable television system shall have 30 days from receipt of the second written notice within which to correct the alleged noncompliance.

(2) If the franchisor is not satisfied with the cable television system's attempts to correct its noncompliance within the 30-day period, the franchisor shall notify the cable television system in writing of its dissatisfaction within 30 days following the 30-day period allowed to correct the alleged noncompliance. If the franchisor does not provide such written notice within the 30-day period, it shall be barred, in any proceedings to determine the cable television system's compliance with subdivision (f), from alleging that the franchisee has failed to correct any of the items of noncompliance alleged in the original notice given by the franchisor to the franchisee.

(3) If the franchisor transmits written notice pursuant to paragraph (2) of this subdivision, the franchisor or the cable television system may file a breach of contract action for breach of the franchise agreement in a court of competent jurisdiction. All factual and legal issues shall be determined by civil procedures and under rules of evidence applicable to breach of contract actions. If it is finally determined that the cable television system fails to so comply with subdivision (f), the sole remedy therefor shall be a refund in the form of a monthly credit to the subscriber of an amount no greater than any increase in rates obtained under this section. The maximum number of monthly credits to subscribers shall be limited to the number of months which elapsed from the date of the second written notice of noncompliance pursuant to paragraph (1) of this subdivision to the date the noncompliance is corrected. In no event, however, shall the refund reduce the cable system's rates to a confiscatory level below that which will enable the cable system to earn a reasonable rate of return on its investment.

(i) The franchisee may utilize any community service channel which is not used for community service programming so long as community service programming is given scheduling priority.

(j) The franchisor may elect to act as public trustee of the community service channel, to ensure the use of such channel or channels as community service channels.

(k) Neither the franchisor nor the franchisee shall be liable for acts arising from the use of such channel or channels by persons other than the franchisee. The franchisee shall establish regulations governing the use of such channels which provide uniform and nondiscriminatory standards, ensure adequate opportunity for participation by local nongovernmental users and incorporate restrictions on libelous or slanderous or illegal programs.

(l) No cable television system which has made an election under subdivision (a), (b), or (c) shall discriminate as to its rates, charges, and rate structures against any portion of a franchise area because that portion of the franchise area has poor broadcast television signal reception.

(m) For purposes of this section, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Basic service" means the lowest level of service offered by the system to individual household subscribers.

(2) "Cable television system" means a community antenna television system, under common ownership and control, serving a franchise area or two or more contiguous or electronically connected franchise areas.

(3) "Capacity" means the number of video channels capable of being carried by a cable television system, including optional services, irrespective of programming or lack thereof, or authority to carry any programming.

(4) "Consumer Price Index" means the most recently issued consumer price index published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics for the area in which the cable television system is located or the nearest area for which such index is published.

(5) "Franchise" means any franchise or license granted pursuant to Section 53066, or any other authority, for the construction or operation of a cable television system.

(6) "Franchisor" means any city, county, or city and county, including any chartered city, county, or city and county, granting a franchise.

(7) "Satellite-earth receiving station" means any structure or device utilized to receive signals from a satellite.

(8) "Significantly viewed television station" means each station which: (A) is designated as such for the area by the Federal Communications Commission in its 1972 listing or any future such listings; or (B) satisfies the Federal Communications Commission requirements as to significantly viewed signals for the area as contained in the most recent Arbitron study; provided that in the event a cable television system has elected deregulation pursuant to clause (B) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a), the franchisor may require the system to submit the results of a test demonstrating that a minimum of five stations have sufficient signal strength in the geographic area served by the cable television system to meet the Grade B contour testing procedures outlined in Section 73.683, et seq., of Title 47 of the Code of Federal Regulations (particularly subsection (c) of Section 73.686, "collection of field strength data to determine television service in specific communities") from the rules and regulations of the Federal Communications Commission. Such request by the franchisor shall be made within 30 days from receipt of the statement provided for in subdivision (d).

(9) "Subscriber penetration ratio" means the number of subscribing residences divided by the total number of residences having cable available. For the purposes of this definition, a "residence" is a single-family dwelling unit which is or would be billed directly by the cable television system on an individual subscriber basis.

(n) In the absence of like provisions in the franchise, if a franchisee elects deregulation pursuant to this section, the franchisor may institute the use of any of the following mechanisms:

(1) The legislative body or bodies having jurisdiction over the franchise area may establish procedures, by ordinance, providing for resolution of individual consumer complaints. Those procedures may include mediation procedures, arbitration procedures, procedures for escrowing the disputed portion of the individual consumer's monthly service payments during pendency of the dispute and prohibition of service disconnection to the complaining consumer during pendency of the dispute if the moneys are paid into such escrow accounts. The ordinance shall provide procedures for administrative hearings and appeals. The legislative body or bodies may appoint mediators, arbitrators, or other persons or bodies to resolve such disputes. The ordinance may contain a schedule of penalties for consumer complaints, but the penalty for an individual complaint shall not exceed two hundred dollars ($200). Prior to enacting such an ordinance, the legislative body or bodies shall give the franchisee 15 days or more written notice of the franchisor's intent to enact the ordinance, together with an outline of the intended provisions or a copy of the proposed ordinance. If requested by the franchisee, the ordinance shall provide for three-person arbitration boards, with one arbitrator chosen by the franchisor, one by the franchisee, and the third arbitrator chosen by the first two arbitrators.

(2) The legislative body may, by ordinance, provide a schedule of penalties for violations of the material franchise terms, not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500) for each occurrence or series of related occurrences. Prior to enacting such an ordinance, the legislative body or bodies shall give the franchisee 15 days or more written notice of the franchisor's intent to enact the ordinance, together with an outline of the intended provisions or a copy of the proposed ordinance. Those penalties may be levied if the franchisor gives written notice to the franchisee to correct the breach, and the franchisee fails to correct the problem within a reasonable period of time after delivery of such notice. The franchisor may not levy such a penalty more than one year after the date it notifies the franchisee of the alleged franchise breach. The ordinance shall provide that if the franchisee objects to the penalty, in writing, to the franchisor, the franchisee and franchisor shall conduct arbitration in a manner mutually agreed upon, or in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final. The ordinance shall provide a limit on the time the franchisee has to object to a penalty, but the time limit may not be less than 60 days. The franchisor may require the franchisee to post a bond within 90 days of the franchisee's election to deregulate and require maintenance of the bond as a condition to continuing deregulation under this section. The bond may not exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for each 5,000 subscribers or fraction thereof in the franchise area, with a maximum limit of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000).

(3) The franchisor may require in the ordinance that the franchisee provide written notice to each subscriber at intervals of not more than one year, of the consumer protection sanctions and procedures enacted pursuant to paragraph (1). The telephone number and address of the franchisee and franchisor to whom complaints may be directed shall be included in such notice.

(o) The Director of Consumer Affairs may, pursuant to the director's authority under Section 321 of the Business and Professions Code, receive and act upon subscriber complaints regarding cable television service, and may initiate action thereon as authorized by that section.

(p) While the development and the regulation of cable television is a matter of statewide concern, the Legislature finds and directs that the exercise of the police power of the State of California concerning cable television should, except as otherwise directed by the Legislature, remain in the cities, counties, or cities and counties; and that the cable television companies and the cities, counties, or cities and counties should remain able, subject to the proper limits of that police power, to contract one with the other pursuant to the ordinary rules of, and subject to the ordinary remedies of, contract law; except that henceforth neither a cable television system nor a franchisor shall be entitled, with respect to any franchise agreement awarded or renewed on or after the effective date of amendments to this section enacted by the Statutes of 1982, to raise the defense of impairment of contract in any case where the due and proper exercise of police power, or the limits thereof, is at issue, and a provision to this effect shall be deemed to be incorporated in any such franchise agreements.

(q) This section, as amended by the Statutes of 1982, shall establish the state's preemption, under the terms and conditions prescribed herein, of the control and regulation of cable television subscriber rates, charges, and rate structures heretofore or hereinafter established by any franchisor pursuant to Section 53066, to the extent that such control or regulation is inconsistent with this section.

(r) This section shall cease to be operative on January 1, 1991, unless on or before such date its operative date is extended by the Legislature; except that rates, charges, and rate structures in effect on January 1, 1991, shall not be subject to reduction by a franchisor having rate reduction authority.

SEC. 3. Section 53066.2 is added to the Government Code, to read:

53066.2. With respect to the community service channels provided by cable television systems pursuant to Section 53066.1:

(a) The California Public Broadcasting Commission, in cooperation with the California Arts Council, the Office of Appropriate Technology, the State Department of Education and the State Department of Consumer Affairs, and such other agencies as requested by the commission, shall undertake efforts to encourage state and local government and educational use of the community service channel or channels and shall prepare a report by January 1, 1983, indicating the uses that government and educational agencies and community organizations have made of such channel or channels.

(b) The Regents of the University of California, if it so elects, the Trustees of the California State University and Colleges, the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges and the State Department of Education shall negotiate with representatives of cable television systems providing community service channels concerning appropriate provision for access to the community services channel or channels for educational agencies using such channels and shall implement by segment, or collectively, a program for the use of such community service channel or channels for educational purposes.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1984, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1984, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

CHAPTER 680

An act to add Section 22731 to the Education Code, and to amend Section 20816 of the Government Code, relating to public retirement systems, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 30, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22731 is added to the Education Code, to read:

22731. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this part, whenever the Governor, by executive order, determines that because of an impending curtailment of, or change in the manner of performing service, the best interests of the state would be served by encouraging the retirement of state employees, and that sufficient economies could be realized to offset any cost to state agencies resulting from this section, an additional two years of service shall be credited to members, who are state employees, if the following conditions exist:

(a) The member is credited with five or more years of service and retires during a period not to exceed 120 days or less than 60 days commencing no sooner than the date of issuance of the Governor's executive order which shall specify such period.

(b) The appointing power, as defined in Section 18524, of the Government Code, transmits to the retirement fund an amount determined by the board which is equal to the actuarial equivalent of the difference between the allowance the member receives after the receipt of service credit under this section and the amount the member would have received without the service credit. The transfer to the retirement fund shall be made in a manner and time period acceptable to the employer and the board.

(c) The appointing power determines that it is electing to exercise the provisions of this section, pursuant to the Governor's order, and certifies to the Department of Finance and to the Legislative Analyst, as to the specific economies that will be realized were the additional service credit towards retirement granted.

The amount of service credit shall be two years regardless of credited service, but shall not exceed the number of years intervening between the date of the member's retirement and the date the member would be required to be retired because of age. The appointing power shall make the payment with respect to all eligible employees who retired pursuant to this section.

Any member who qualifies under this section, upon subsequent re-entry to the system shall forfeit the service credit acquired under this section.

This section shall not be applicable to any member otherwise eligible if such member receives any unemployment insurance payments arising out of employment with an employer subject to this part during a period extending one year beyond the date of issuance of the executive order or if the member is not eligible to retire without the additional credit available under this section.

The benefit provided by this section shall not be applicable to the employees of any appointing power until the Director of Finance approves the transmittal of funds by that appointing power or the Board of Regents or the Board of Trustees to the retirement fund pursuant to subdivision (b).

The Director of Finance shall approve the transmittal of funds by the appointing power not sooner than 30 days after notification in writing of the necessity therefor to the chairperson of the committee in each house which considers appropriations and the chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, or not sooner than such lesser time as the chairperson of the committee, or his or her designee, may in each instance determine. If there is any written communication between the Director of Finance and the Legislative Analyst, a copy thereof shall be forthwith transmitted to the chairperson of each appropriate policy committee.

The Legislative Analyst and the Department of Finance shall report to the Governor and the Legislature as of the first legislative day of each year, as to the extent to which economies realized under the provisions of this section have equaled the cost to agencies as estimated by the board.

SEC. 2. Section 20816 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20816. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this part, whenever the Governor, by executive order, determines that because of an impending curtailment of, or change in the manner of performing service, the best interests of the state would be served by encouraging the retirement of state employees, and that sufficient economies could be realized to offset any cost to state agencies resulting from this section, an additional two years of service shall be credited to state members, other than school members, if the following conditions exist:

(a) The member is credited with five or more years of service and retires during a period not to exceed 120 days or less than 60 days commencing no sooner than the date of issuance of the Governor's executive order which shall specify such period.

(b) The appointing power, as defined in Section 18524, or the Board of Regents of the University of California or the Board of Trustees of the State University, transmits to the retirement fund an amount determined by the board which is equal to the actuarial equivalent of the difference between the allowance the member receives after the receipt of service credit under this section and the amount the member would have received without such service credit. The transfer to the retirement fund shall be made in a manner and time period acceptable to the employer and the board.

(c) The appointing power or the Board of Regents or the Board of Trustees determines that it is electing to exercise the provisions of this section, pursuant to the Governor's order, and certifies to the State Department of Finance and to the Office of Legislative Analyst, as to the specific economies that will be realized were the additional service credit towards retirement granted.

The amount of service credit shall be two years regardless of credited service, but shall not exceed the number of years intervening between the date of the member's retirement and the date the member would be required to be retired because of age. The appointing power or the Board of Regents or the Board of Trustees shall make such payment with respect to all eligible employees who retired pursuant to this section.

Any member who qualifies under this section, upon subsequent re-entry to the system shall forfeit the service credit acquired under this section.

This section shall not be applicable to any member otherwise eligible if such member receives any unemployment insurance payments arising out of employment with an employer subject to this part during a period extending one year beyond the date of issuance of the executive order or if the member is not eligible to retire without the additional credit available under this section.

The benefit provided by this section shall not be applicable to the employees of any appointing power or the Board of Regents or the Board of Trustees until the Director of Finance approves the transmittal of funds by that appointing power or the Board of Regents or the Board of Trustees to the retirement fund pursuant to subdivision (c).

The Director of Finance shall approve the transmittal of funds by the appointing power or the Board of Regents or the Board of Trustees not sooner than 30 days after notification in writing of the necessity therefor to the chairperson of the committee in each house which considers appropriations and the Chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, or not sooner than such lesser time as the chairperson of the committee, or his or her designee, may in each instance determine. If there is any written communication between the Director of Finance and the Legislative Analyst, a copy thereof shall be forthwith transmitted to the chairperson of each appropriate policy committee.

The Office of the Legislative Analyst and the Department of Finance shall report to the Governor and the Legislature as of the first legislative day of each year, as to the extent to which economies realized under the provisions of this section have equaled the cost to agencies as estimated by the board.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that this act shall become operative during the 1981–1982 fiscal year, it must take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 681

An act to amend Section 5250 of the Business and Professions Code, to amend Sections 1240.690 and 1245.210 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to amend Sections 39005, 39006, 39007, and 41964 of the Education Code, to amend Sections 11005, 11005.2, 11012, 11041, 11272, 26004, 29530, 54003, 65080, 65080.1, 65080.5, 66455, 66514, 66515, and 66521 of, to add Sections 14035.1, 14051, and 14502.5 to, and to repeal Sections 14008.5, 14009, 14010.5, and 66516 of, the Government Code, to amend Sections 2760, 2761, 2762, 2770, 2773, 2774, and 2780.1 of, and to add Section 2760.1 to, the Penal Code, to amend Section 13070 of the Public Resources Code, to amend Sections 21658, 21659, 21669.2, and 21688 of the Public Utilities Code, to amend Sections 8352.3 and 8352.4 of, and to repeal Section 8352.8 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, to amend Sections 117, 118.6, 141, 160, 161, 162, 165, 166, 166.5, 167, 168, 191, 208, 213, 215.5, 216, 253.1, 253.5, 263.8, 307.2, 360, 374, 381, 391, 506, 559, 700, 820, 1712, 1754.5, 2104.1, 2107.6, 2118.5, 2544, 25034, 30100.5, 30306, 30352, 30353, 30884, 30885, 30886, 30887, and 30888 of, and to add Section 515 to, and to repeal Sections 3, 4, 156.7, 188.5, 195, 199.8, 221, 494, 2179, and 30608 of, the Streets and Highways Code, to amend Sections 21101, 22364, 23272, 35701, and 35712 of, to repeal Section 39010 of, and to repeal Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 23340) of Division 11 of, the Vehicle Code, to amend Section 1 of Chapter 1044 of the Statutes of 1970, and to amend Sections 62 and 64 of Chapter 161 of the Statutes of 1979, relating to transportation.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 31, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5250 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5250. The director may make orders and regulations for the enforcement of this chapter and may authorize the Department of Transportation to enforce its provisions.

SEC. 2. Section 1240.690 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1240.690. (a) When property described in Section 1240.670 or 1240.680 is sought to be acquired for state highway purposes, and the property was dedicated or devoted to a use described in those sections prior to the initiation of highway route location studies, an action for declaratory relief may be brought by the public entity or nonprofit organization owning the property in the superior court to determine the question of which public use is the best and most necessary public use for the property.

(b) The action for declaratory relief shall be filed and served within 120 days after the California Transportation Commission has published in a newspaper of general circulation pursuant to Section 6061 of the Government Code, and delivered to the public entity or nonprofit organization owning the property a written notice that a proposed route or an adopted route includes the property. In the case of nonprofit organizations, the written notice need only be given to nonprofit organizations that are on file with the Registrar of Charitable Trusts of this state.

(c) In the declaratory relief action, the resolution of the California Transportation Commission is not conclusive evidence of the matters set forth in Section 1240.030.

(d) With respect to property described in Section 1240.670 or 1240.680 which is sought to be acquired for state highway purposes:

(1) If an action for declaratory relief is not filed and served within the 120-day period established by subdivision (b), the right to bring the action is waived and Sections 1240.670 and 1240.680 do not apply.

(2) When a declaratory relief action may not be brought pursuant to this section, Sections 1240.670 and 1240.680 do not apply.

SEC. 3. Section 1245.210 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1245.210. As used in this article, "governing body" means:

(a) In the case of a taking by a local public entity, the legislative body of the local public entity.

(b) In the case of a taking by the Sacramento and San Joaquin Drainage District, the State Reclamation Board.

(c) In the case of a taking by the State Public Works Board pursuant to the Property Acquisition Law (Part 11 (commencing with Section 15850) of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code), the State Public Works Board.

(d) In the case of a taking by the Department of Fish and Game pursuant to Section 1348 of the Fish and Game Code, the Wildlife Conservation Board.

(e) In the case of a taking by the Department of Transportation (other than a taking pursuant to Section 21633 of the Public Utilities Code or Section 30100 of the Streets and Highways Code), the California Transportation Commission.

(f) In the case of a taking by the Department of Transportation pursuant to Section 21633 of the Public Utilities Code, the California Transportation Commission.

(g) In the case of a taking by the Department of Transportation pursuant to Section 30100 of the Streets and Highways Code, the California Transportation Commission.

(h) In the case of a taking by the Department of Water Resources, the California Water Commission.

(i) In the case of a taking by the University of California, the Regents of the University of California.

(j) In the case of a taking by the State Lands Commission, the State Lands Commission.

(k) In the case of a taking by Hastings College of Law, the board of directors of that college.

SEC. 4. Section 39005 of the Education Code is amended to read:

39005. To promote the safety of pupils, comprehensive community planning, and greater educational usefulness of school sites, the governing board of each school district, including districts governed by a city board of education if the proposed site is within two miles, measured by air line, of that point on an airport boundary which is nearest the site and excluding them if the property is not so located, before acquiring title to property for a new school site or for an addition to a present site, shall give the Department of Education notice in writing of the proposed acquisition and shall submit any information required by the Department of Education.

Immediately after receiving notice of the proposed acquisition of property which is within two miles, measured by air line, of that point on an airport boundary which is nearest the site, the Department of Education shall notify the Department of Transportation, in writing, of the proposed acquisition. The Department of Transportation shall make an investigation and report to the Department of Education within 25 days after receipt of the notice. If the Department of Transportation is no longer in operation, the Department of Education shall, in lieu of notifying the Department of Transportation, notify the Civil Aeronautics Board or any other appropriate agency, in writing, of the proposed acquisition for the purpose of obtaining from the board or other agency any information or assistance that it may desire to give.

The Department of Education shall investigate the proposed site and, within 30 days after receipt of the notice, shall submit to the governing board a written report and its recommendations concerning acquisition of the site. The governing board shall not acquire title to the property until the report of the Department of Education has been received. If the report does not favor the acquisition of the property for a school site or an addition to a present school site, the governing board shall not acquire title to the property until 30 days after the department's report is received and until the department's report has been read at a public hearing duly called after 10 days' notice published once in a newspaper of general circulation within the school district or, if there is no such newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation within the county in which the property is located.

SEC. 5. Section 39006 of the Education Code is amended to read:

39006. Notwithstanding Section 39005, immediately after receiving notice of a proposed acquisition of property which is within two miles, measured by air line, of that point on an airport boundary which is nearest the site, the Department of Education shall notify the Department of Transportation, in writing, of the proposed acquisition. The Department of Transportation shall make an investigation and report to the Department of Education within 25 days after receipt of the notice. As part of the investigation, the Department of Transportation shall give notice thereof to the owner and operator of the airport who shall be granted the opportunity to comment upon the proposed school site.

Notwithstanding Section 39005, if the report of the Department of Education required by that section does not favor the acquisition of the property for a school site, or an addition to a present school site, the governing body shall not acquire title to the property until 30 days after the department's report is received and until the department's report has been read at a public hearing duly called after 10 days' notice by publication in a newspaper of general circulation within the school district or, if there is no such newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation within the county in which the property is located.

SEC. 6. Section 39007 of the Education Code is amended to read:

39007. If, with respect to a proposed site located within two miles of an operative airport runway, the report of the Department of Education submitted to a school district governing board under Section 39005 or 39006 does not favor the acquisition of the site on the sole or partial basis of the unfavorable recommendation of the Department of Transportation, no state agency or officer shall grant, apportion, or allow to the school district for expenditure, in connection with that site, any state funds otherwise made available under any state law whatever for school site acquisition or school building construction, or for expansion of existing sites and buildings, and no funds of the school district or of the county in which the district lies shall be expended for those purposes, except that the provisions of this section shall not apply to sites acquired prior to January 1, 1966, nor to any additions or extensions to those sites.

If the recommendation of the Department of Transportation is unfavorable, the recommendation shall not be overruled without the express approval of the Department of Education and the State Allocation Board.

SEC. 6.5. Section 41964 of the Education Code is amended to read:

41964. On or before each May 25th, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall determine and certify to the Controller the amount of severance aid computed and to be allowed to school districts under Section 41960 or 41961 for the fiscal year. On or before each June 15th, the Controller shall order the transfer, from the Motor Vehicle Transportation Tax Account in the Transportation Tax Fund to the State School Fund, of the amount of severance aid computed and to be allowed to school districts for the fiscal year as so certified, and the amount so computed and certified is hereby appropriated for purposes of the transfer. The Department of Transportation may charge or allocate to the appropriate particular projects on account of which severance aid was computed, the amounts so transferred. In the case of severance aid determined pursuant to Section 41961, the allowance shall be apportioned to the school district in two equal annual installments.

SEC. 7. Section 11005 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11005. Unless the Legislature specifically provides that approval is not required, every gift to the state of personal property, or every gift to the state of real property in fee or in any lesser estate or interest, shall be approved by the Director of Finance, and every contract for the acquisition or hiring of real property in fee or in any lesser estate or interest, entered into by or on behalf of the state, shall be approved by the Director of General Services. Any contract entered into in violation of this section is void. This section shall apply to any state agency which, by general or specific statute, is expressly or impliedly authorized to enter into transactions referred to in this section. This section does not apply (1) to unconditional gifts of money, (2) to the acquisition or hiring by the Department of Transportation of real property in fee or in any lesser estate or interest for highway purposes, but does apply to the hiring by that department of office space in any office building, or (3) to contracts entered into under the authority of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 11770) of Part 3 of Division 2 of the Insurance Code.

SEC. 8. Section 11005.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11005.2. Unless the Legislature specifically provides that approval by the Director of General Services is not required, every conveyance, contract, or agreement whereby an interest of the state in any real property is conveyed, demised, or let to any person, shall, before the conveyance, contract, or agreement is executed or entered into, be approved by the Director of General Services. Any conveyance, contract, or agreement executed or entered into in violation of this section is void. This section shall apply to any state agency which, by general or specific statute, is expressly or impliedly authorized to enter into transactions referred to in this section.

This section does not apply to real property acquired by the Department of Transportation for highway purposes or real property administered by the State Lands Commission, the Controller, or the State Compensation Insurance Fund.

SEC. 9. Section 11012 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11012. Whenever any state agency, including, but not limited to, state agencies acting in a fiduciary capacity, is authorized to invest funds, or to sell or exchange securities, prior approval of the Department of Finance to the investment, sale, or exchange shall be secured.

Every state agency shall furnish the Department of Finance with the reports and in the form, relating to the funds or securities, their acquisition, sale, or exchange, as may be requested by the Department of Finance from time to time.

This section does not apply to the following state agencies:

(a) Any state agency when issuing or dealing in securities authorized to be issued by it.

(b) The State Treasurer.

(c) The Regents of the University of California.

(d) Employment Development Department.

(e) Department of Veterans Affairs.

(f) Hastings College of Law.

(g) Board of Administration of the Public Employees' Retirement System.

(h) State Compensation Insurance Fund.

(i) California Transportation Commission and Department of Transportation when acting in accordance with bond resolutions adopted under the California Toll Bridge Authority Act (Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 30000) of Division 17 of the Streets and Highways Code) prior to September 15, 1945.

(j) Teachers' Retirement Board of the State Teachers' Retirement System.

SEC. 10. Section 11041 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11041. Sections 11042 and 11043 are not applicable to the Regents of the University of California, Legal Division of the Department of Transportation, Division of Labor Standards Enforcement, Workers' Compensation Appeals Board, Public Utilities Commission, State Compensation Insurance Fund, Legislative Counsel Bureau, Inheritance Tax Department, Secretary of State, State Lands Commission, Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (except when the board affirms the decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control), and Department of Education, nor to any other state agency which, by law enacted after August of 1933, is authorized to employ legal counsel.

SEC. 11. Section 11272 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11272. In determining or redetermining the fair share, the State Board of Control may consider the factors of cost distribution and cost estimation as it deems necessary, except that, as to the proceeds of those taxes, the use of which is restricted by Article XIX of the California Constitution, the State Board of Control shall assess only those administrative costs ascertained as being necessarily incurred in connection with highway purposes as set forth in the article.

SEC. 13. Section 14008.5 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 14. Section 14009 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 15. Section 14010.5 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 15.2. Section 14035.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

14035.1. Notwithstanding Sections 14035 and 14038, state funds for the construction of new stations at locations not receiving rail service and the added operating costs of state-supported trains stopping at the new stations may not be expended on any route except as provided in this section. The construction of stations and the initiation of rail service to new stations shall follow the following priority:

(a) First priority shall be given to a proposed station stop located in a county along the rail route which has the fewest stations among all the counties along that rail route.

(b) Within each county, the priority of the station stop projects shall be determined on the basis of the projected ridership, with the station stop project having the highest ridership having the highest priority and the project with the least ridership having the lowest priority.

SEC. 15.5. Section 14051 is added to the Government Code, to read:

14051. At the commencement of each Regular Session of the Legislature, the department shall submit to the Legislature a report summarizing information required under, and programs authorized by, Sections 118.6, 216, and 820 of, Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 156) of Chapter 1 of Division 1 of, and Chapter 4.6 (commencing with Section 2170) and Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 2540) of Division 3 of, the Streets and Highways Code.

Information on other program activities may be included in the biennial report at the discretion of the department.

SEC. 15.7. Section 14502.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

14502.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Governor may appoint to the commission a member of the board of supervisors of a county in which there is a county transportation commission, which supervisor is not a member of that county transportation commission.

SEC. 16. Section 26004 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26004. The board of supervisors may install and maintain watering troughs along any state highway subject to agreement as to location with the Department of Transportation, and along any county road or stock trail in the county.

SEC. 17. Section 29530 of the Government Code is amended to read:

29530. If the board of supervisors so agrees by contract with the State Board of Equalization, the board of supervisors shall establish a local transportation fund in the county treasury and shall deposit in the fund all revenues transmitted to the county by the State Board of Equalization under Section 7204 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, which are derived from that portion of the taxes imposed by the county at a rate in excess of 1 percent pursuant to Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 7200) of Division 2 of that code, less an allocation of the cost of the services of the State Board of Equalization in administering the sales and use tax ordinance related to the rate in excess of 1 percent and of the Secretary of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency in administering the responsibilities assigned to him or her in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 99200) of Part 11 of Division 10 of the Public Utilities Code.

Any interest or other income earned by investment or otherwise of the local transportation fund shall accrue to and be a part of the fund.

SEC. 18. Section 54003 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54003. An equestrian group may be granted the right to erect and maintain suitable trail markers for the convenience and guidance of horseback riders, but a structure shall not be erected on state-owned property without the approval of the State Lands Commission.

SEC. 19. Section 65080 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65080. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (c) and (d), each transportation planning agency designated under subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 29532 shall prepare a regional transportation plan and a regional transportation improvement program directed at the achievement of a coordinated and balanced regional transportation system, including, but not limited to, mass transportation, highway, railroad, maritime, and aviation facilities and services. The plan shall be action-oriented and pragmatic considering both the short- and long-term future and shall present clear, concise policy guidance to local and state officials. The program shall support and be consistent with the plan. Each transportation planning agency shall consider and incorporate, as appropriate, the transportation plans of cities, counties, special districts, private organizations, and state and federal agencies.

(b) Each transportation planning agency shall adopt a regional transportation plan and, if it prepares a regional transportation improvement program, shall adopt a program. Prior to adoption, a public hearing shall be held, after the giving of notice of the hearing by publication in the affected county or counties pursuant to Section 6061. Prior to the adoption of the program, the governing body or the designated policy committee of the transportation planning agency shall consider the relationship between the program and the adopted plan. Each transportation planning agency shall adopt and submit annually, not later than April 1, an updated regional transportation improvement program as specified in Section 65082, and biennially, not later than November 1, an updated regional transportation plan to the California Transportation Commission and the Department of Transportation.

(c) A transportation planning agency designated under subdivision (b) of Section 29532 may have the regional transportation plan for the area under its jurisdiction prepared by the Department of Transportation by adopting a resolution to that effect prior to July 1, 1978. In that case, Section 65080.5 shall be applicable to the agency.

(d) The regional transportation improvement program shall be prepared and adopted only by the transportation planning agencies and by county transportation commissions representing urbanized areas of 50,000 or more in population. The department shall prepare the programs, on a state transportation district basis, for all other areas of the state.

SEC. 20. Section 65080.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65080.1. Once preparation of a regional transportation plan has been commenced by or on behalf of a designated transportation planning agency, the Secretary of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency shall not designate a new transportation planning agency pursuant to Section 29532 for all or any part of the geographic area served by the originally designated agency unless he or she first determines that redesignation will not result in the loss to California of any substantial amounts of federal funds.

SEC. 21. Section 65080.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65080.5. (a) For each area for which a transportation planning agency is designated under subdivision (c) of Section 29532, or adopts a resolution pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 65080, the Department of Transportation, in cooperation with the transportation planning agency, and subject to subdivision (e), shall prepare the regional transportation plan, and the updating thereto, for that area and submit it to the governing body or designated policy committee of the transportation planning agency for adoption. Prior to adoption, a public hearing shall be held, after the giving of notice of the hearing by publication in the affected county or counties pursuant to Section 6061. Prior to the adoption of the regional transportation improvement program by the transportation planning agency if it prepared the program, the transportation planning agency shall consider the relationship between the program and the adopted plan. The adopted plan and program, and the updating thereto, shall be submitted to the California Transportation Commission and the department pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 65080.

(b) In the case of a transportation planning agency designated under subdivision (c) of Section 29532, the transportation planning agency may prepare the regional transportation plan for the area under its jurisdiction pursuant to this chapter, if the transportation planning agency, prior to July 1, 1978, adopts by resolution a declaration of intention to do so.

(c) In those areas that have a county transportation commission created pursuant to Section 130050 of the Public Utilities Code, the multicounty designated transportation planning agency, as defined in Section 130004 of that code, shall prepare the regional transportation plan and the regional transportation improvement program in consultation with the county transportation commissions.

(d) Any transportation planning agency which did not elect to prepare the initial regional transportation plan for the area under its jurisdiction, may prepare the updated plan if it adopts a resolution of intention to do so at least one year prior to the date when the updated plan is to be submitted to the California Transportation Commission.

(e) If the department prepares or updates a regional transportation improvement program or regional transportation plan, or both, pursuant to this section, the state-local share of funding the preparation or updating of the plan and program shall be calculated on the same basis as though the preparation or updating were to be performed by the transportation planning agency and funded under Sections 99311, 99313, and 99314 of the Public Utilities Code.

SEC. 22. Section 66455 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66455. The Department of Transportation may file with the legislative body of any local agency having jurisdiction, a map or an amended map of any territory within one mile on either or both sides of any state highway routing in which territory it believes the subdivision would have an effect upon an existing state highway or a future state highway, the route of which has been adopted by the California Transportation Commission.

The city or county having jurisdiction shall issue a receipt for the territorial map and shall transmit, within three days of receipt, to the district office of the department in which the proposed subdivision is located, one copy of each tentative map of any subdivision located, in whole or in part, within the territory outlined on the territorial map.

The department, within 15 days after receiving a copy of the map, may make recommendations to the local agency regarding the effect of the proposed subdivision upon the highway or highway route.

SEC. 23. Section 66514 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66514. The construction of any transbay bridge in the region shall not be commenced without the approval of the commission. This section shall not apply to modifications of existing bridges, except modifications which provide for the construction of additional lanes of traffic on existing bridges or for the construction of rapid transit facilities on existing bridges.

SEC. 24. Section 66515 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66515. No public multicounty transit system using an exclusive right-of-way which is proposed to be constructed within the region shall be constructed or operated without the approval of the commission.

SEC. 25. Section 66516 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 26. Section 66521 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66521. (a) It is the intention of the Legislature that the federal government, the state, and local agencies in the region will participate in support of the commission. The Legislature further intends that financial support of the activities of the commission will be made available from federal, state, and local sources normally available for transportation and general planning purposes in the region.

(b) The commission and the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency shall negotiate contracts or agreements whereby federal-aid highway funds available for planning, and the necessary state matching funds from the State Highway Account in the State Transportation Fund, may be made available for support of the activities of the commission insofar as they relate to highway, road, and street planning for the region.

(c) The commission shall also negotiate, either directly or through the Office of Planning and Research or other appropriate agency, with the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development for grants or contributions of federal funds which may be available to support the study and planning activities of the commission.

(d) The commission shall negotiate equitable agreements with the City and County of San Francisco, and other counties and cities within the region, the Association of Bay Area Governments, the San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit District, the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District, and the Golden Gate Bridge, Highway and Transportation District for the contribution of funds or services for the general support of the activities of the commission and for required matching of federal funds as may be made available. Any county, city and county, or city may use its apportionments from the Motor Vehicle License Fee Account in the Transportation Tax Fund for these purposes.

SEC. 28. Section 2760 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

2760. The department may employ or cause to be employed, prisoners confined in the state prisons in the construction, improvement, and maintenance of any state highway.

SEC. 29. Section 2760.1 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

2760.1. "Department," as used in this article, means the Department of Transportation.

SEC. 30. Section 2761 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

2761. The Director of Corrections shall determine which prisoners shall be eligible for employment by the department in the construction, improvement, and maintenance of state highways, and shall establish lists of prisoners eligible for that employment. Upon the requisition of the department, the Director of Corrections shall send to the place, and at the time designated, the number of prisoners requisitioned or the number thereof as have been determined to be eligible for employment and are available.

The director may return to prison any prisoner transferred to camp pursuant to this section, when the need for the prisoner's labor has ceased or when the prisoner is guilty of any violation of the rules and regulations of the prison or camp.

SEC. 31. Section 2762 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

2762. The department shall fix the rate to be expended for the labor at an amount not to exceed three dollars and fifty cents ($3.50) per day for each day which each convict actually performs labor upon the construction, improvement, or maintenance of a state highway, and shall monthly set aside funds to pay for the labor. The department shall set up an account for each convict which shall be credited monthly with an amount computed by multiplying the daily rate by the number of days the convict actually performed labor during the month. The account shall be debited monthly with the convict's proportionate share of all expenses of camp maintenance, including the expenses for food, medicine, medical attendance, and clerical and accounting personnel, and the expenses necessary to maintain care and welfare facilities such as camp hospital for first aid, barber shop, and cobbler shop, and the convict's personal expenses covering his drawings from the commissary for clothing, toilet articles, tobacco, candy, and other personal items. The charge for camp maintenance may be made at a standard rate determined by the department to be adequate to cover all expenses and shall be adjusted periodically at the discretion of the department as needs of the camp require. No charge shall be made against the account for the costs of transporting prisoners to and from prison and camp or for the expense of guarding prisoners, which items shall be paid by the Department of Corrections from appropriations made for the support of the Department of Corrections. The net credits to each convict's account shall not be permitted to exceed an average of seventy-five cents ($0.75) per day for each day of actual work performed in the road camp.

The department, in computing the debits to be made to the convict's accounts, may add an amount not to exceed 10 percent on all items.

SEC. 32. Section 2770 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

2770. The department shall designate and supervise all road work done under the provisions of this article. It shall provide, supervise, and maintain necessary camps and commissariat.

SEC. 33. Section 2773 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

2773. The Director of Corrections, with the approval of the Department of Finance, is hereby authorized to transfer to the control of the department an amount or amounts of money, not to exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), which may be available from the appropriation for the support of institutions under the jurisdiction of the Department of Corrections, by reason of the transfer of inmates from the institutions to prison road camps, to be used by the department for the purpose of paying the compensation of prisoners in accordance with this article.

SEC. 34. Section 2774 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

2774. Upon receipt of a certified copy of an order of the Director of Corrections, with the approval of the Department of Finance, authorizing the transfer, the Controller shall transfer to the control of the department the amount or amounts prescribed in the order, which shall be available for the purposes specified in Section 2773.

SEC. 35. Section 2780.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

2780.1. Money received from the rendering of services under the prison camp work program shall be paid to the State Treasurer monthly and shall be credited to the support appropriation of the prison rendering the services, in augmentation thereof. The appropriation to be credited shall be the appropriation current at the time of rendering the services. Nothing in this section shall apply to prison road camps established under Article 4 (commencing with Section 2760), except that, by mutual agreement between the department and the Department of Corrections, subject to the approval of the Department of Finance, the prison road camps may be administered, instead, under Article 5 (commencing with Section 2780).

SEC. 36. Section 13070 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

13070. The district may acquire, construct, maintain, and operate property, works, and facilities for any one or more of the following purposes:

(a) To supply the inhabitants of the district with water for domestic use, irrigation, sanitation, industrial use, fire protection, and recreation.

(b) The collection, treatment, or disposal of sewage, waste, and storm water of the district and its inhabitants.

(c) Protection against fire.

(d) Comprehensive planning for the physical growth of the area within the district.

(e) The collection or disposal of garbage or refuse matter.

(f) Public recreation by means of parks, including, but not limited to, acquatic parks and recreational harbors, playgrounds, golf courses, swimming pools, or recreation buildings for all-year recreation, including, but not limited to, facilities for public and private meetings, and other public squares and places.

(g) Street lighting.

(h) Mosquito abatement.

(i) The equipment and maintenance of a police department or other police protection to protect and safeguard life and property.

(j) The opening, widening, extending, straightening, and surfacing, in whole or part, of any street in the district, subject to the consent of the Department of Transportation, with respect to state highways, and local authorities, as defined in Section 385 of the Vehicle Code, with respect to highways under their jurisdiction.

(k) The construction and improvement of bridges, culverts, curbs, gutters, drains, and works incidental to the purposes specified in subdivision (j), subject to the consent of the Department of Transportation, with respect to state highways, and local authorities, as defined in Section 385 of the Vehicle Code, with respect to highways under their jurisdiction.

(l) The construction and maintenance of parking facilities and other transportation facilities.

SEC. 37. Section 21658 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

21658. No public utility shall construct any pole, pole line, distribution or transmission tower, or tower line, or substation structure in the vicinity of the exterior boundary of an aircraft landing area of any airport open to public use, in a location with respect to the airport and at a height so as to constitute an obstruction to air navigation, as an obstruction is defined in accordance with Part 77 of the Federal Aviation Regulations, Federal Aviation Administration, or any corresponding rules or regulations of the Federal Aviation Administration, unless the Federal Aviation Administration has determined that the pole, line, tower, or structure does not constitute a hazard to air navigation. This section shall not apply to existing poles, lines, towers, or structures or to the repair, replacement, or reconstruction thereof if the original height is not materially exceeded and this section shall not apply unless just compensation shall have first been paid to the public utility by the owner of any airport for any property or property rights which would be taken or damaged hereby.

SEC. 38. Section 21659 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

21659. No person shall construct any structure or permit any natural growth to grow within one statute mile of the exterior boundary of any airport open to public use at a height so as to constitute a hazard to air navigation, as a hazard to air navigation is defined in accordance with Part 77 of the Federal Aviation Regulations of the Federal Aviation Administration, unless a permit allowing the construction or growth is issued by the department. The permit shall not be required if the Federal Aviation Administration has determined that the construction or growth does not constitute a hazard to air navigation or would not create an unsafe condition for air navigation. This section shall not apply to a pole, pole line, distribution or transmission tower, or tower line or substation of a public utility. The foregoing exceptions to this section shall continue, however, to be subject to Section 21658.

SEC. 39. Section 21669.2 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

21669.2. In its deliberations, the department shall be governed by the following guidelines:

(a) Statewide uniformity in standards of acceptable airport noise need not be required, and the maximum amount of local control and enforcement shall be permitted.

(b) Due consideration shall be given to the economic and technological feasibility of complying with the standards promulgated by the department.

SEC. 40. Section 21688 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

21688. (a) No payments shall be made from the Aeronautics Account for expenditure on any airport or for the acquisition or development of any airport, if the department determines that the height restrictions around the airport are inadequate to provide reasonable assurance that the landing and taking off of aircraft at the airport will be conducted without obstruction or will be otherwise free from hazards.

Height restrictions shall be considered adequate if as a minimum they meet the obstruction standards of subchapter C of Part 77 of the Federal Aviation Regulations of the Federal Aviation Administration, as these standards apply to civil airport imaginary surfaces related to runways.

The airport-owning entity shall have sufficient control over obstructions in the airspace in the vicinity of the airport to assure that height restrictions can be maintained. This control may be in the form of ownership of any land from which obstructions may rise, air navigation easements to guarantee maintenance of restrictions, or height limitation or land use zoning which will prohibit obstructions which would violate the obstruction standards.

(b) This section shall not prevent or prohibit the department from assisting any public agency or public entity in planning airport development or in planning the zoning needs around an airport.

SEC. 41. Section 8352.3 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

8352.3. Subject to Sections 8352 and 8352.1, there shall be transferred to the Aeronautics Account in the State Transportation Fund all moneys deposited to the credit of the Motor Vehicle Fuel Account attributable to the distribution of motor vehicle fuel for use or used in propelling an aircraft in the state, for allocation as follows:

(a) To pay the refunds authorized by Section 8101.5.

(b) To pay the pro rata cost of the Controller and the board under subdivisions (b), (c), and (d) of Section 8352.1.

(c) To pay for the support of the Division of Aeronautics of the Department of Transportation.

(d) Remaining balance to be available for the California Aid to Airports Program.

SEC. 42. Section 8352.4 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

8352.4. Subject to Sections 8352 and 8352.1, there shall be transferred from the money deposited to the credit of the Motor Vehicle Fuel Account to the Harbors and Watercraft Revolving Fund, for expenditure in accordance with Division 1 (commencing with Section 30) of the Harbors and Navigation Code, the sum of six million six hundred thousand dollars ($6,600,000) per annum, representing the amount of money in the Motor Vehicle Fuel Account attributable to taxes imposed on distributions of motor vehicle fuel used or usable in propelling vessels. The actual amount shall be calculated using the annual reports of registered boats prepared by the Department of Motor Vehicles for the United States Coast Guard and the formula and method of the December 1972 report prepared for this purpose and submitted to the Legislature on December 26, 1972, by the Director of Transportation. If the amount transferred during each fiscal year is in excess of the calculated amount, the excess shall be retransferred from the Harbors and Watercraft Revolving Fund to the Motor Vehicle Fuel Account. If the amount transferred is less than the amount calculated, the difference shall be transferred from the Motor Vehicle Fuel Account to the Harbors and Watercraft Revolving Fund. No adjustment shall be made if the computed difference is less than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), and the amount shall be adjusted to reflect any temporary or permanent increase or decrease that may be made in the rate under the Motor Vehicle Fuel License Tax Law. Payments pursuant to this section shall be made prior to payments pursuant to Section 8352.2.

When deemed necessary by the Department of Transportation and the Department of Boating and Waterways, the Department of Transportation, after consultation with the Department of Boating and Waterways, shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, an updated report setting forth the current estimate of the amount of money credited to the Motor Vehicle Fuel Account attributable to taxes imposed on distributions of motor vehicle fuel used or usable in propelling vessels. The Department of Transportation shall submit the report to the Legislature upon its completion.

SEC. 43. Section 8352.8 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 44. Section 3 of the Streets and Highways Code is repealed.

SEC. 45. Section 4 of the Streets and Highways Code is repealed.

SEC. 46. Section 117 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

117. Unless otherwise specifically provided in the instrument conveying title, the acquisition by the department of any right-of-way over any real property for state highway purposes, includes the right of the department to issue, under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 660), permits for the location in the right-of-way of any structures or fixtures necessary to telegraph, telephone, or electric power lines or of any ditches, pipes, drains, sewers, or underground structures.

SEC. 46.5. Section 118.6 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

118.6. The department shall, to the greatest extent possible, offer to sell or exchange excess real property within one year from the date that it is determined by the department to be excess.

"Excess real property," for the purposes of this section, means all land and improvements situated outside of calculated highway right-of-way lines not needed or used for highway or other public purposes, including, but not limited to, those leased to public agencies pursuant to Section 104.15, and available for sale or exchange.

The department shall adopt rules and regulations to determine which real property outside of calculated right-of-way lines is no longer needed or used for highway or other public purposes, and which is available for sale or exchange. The department is authorized to lease all real property not presently needed or used for highway purposes pending the sale or exchange of such property.

Excess real property which consists of lands of notable environmental value, such as, but not limited to, lands of extraordinary scenic beauty, lands fronting on waterway, lakes, and marshes, lands within the boundaries of parks, recreational areas, wildlife preserves or refuges, and lands providing wildlife habitat shall first be offered for sale or exchange to public agencies operating parks and recreational areas as follows:

(a) To any park or recreation department of any city within which the land may be situated.

(b) To any park or recreation department of the county within which the land is situated.

(c) To any regional park authority having jurisdiction within the area in which the land is situated.

(d) To the State Resources Agency or any agency which may succeed to its powers.

The public agency desiring to purchase such land for park or recreation use shall notify the department within 60 days of its intent to purchase the land after receipt of the department's notification of intent to sell the land. If the public agency desiring to purchase the land and the department are unable to arrive at a mutually satisfactory sales price for the land during the 60-day period, the land may be disposed of in the normal manner.

The failure of the department to first offer excess real property which consists of lands of notable environmental value to public agencies operating parks and recreational areas shall not affect the validity of any conveyance of such excess real property to any person or entity unaware of the failure of the department to do so; however, this shall in no way be construed as releasing the department from its responsibility in offering such property to such public agencies first.

SEC. 47. Section 141 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

141. In addition to the other powers relating to state highways granted to it by laws, the department may do all of the following:

(a) Make investigations to place, at the service of the state, the most approved method of highway construction, improvement, and maintenance.

(b) Compile statistics relative to the highways of the various counties and cities and of the districts formed to construct, improve, or maintain the highways.

(c) Determine the methods of highway construction, improvement, and maintenance best adapted to the various sections of the state, and the best methods of construction, improvement, and maintenance of highways, making experiments with respect thereto from time to time.

(d) Call upon any state, county, city, or district official to furnish any information the official has relating to, or is in any way necessary to the proper performance of, the highway work of the department. The official shall furnish the information without charge.

(e) Join associations of highway and transportation officials of other states and others which have been established for not less than 10 years, having as their purpose the interchange of information relating to highway construction, improvement, maintenance, and administration and other transportation matters.

(f) Direct any of its officers or employees to travel to places outside this state at state expense for the purposes, and when approved, as provided in Section 11032 of the Government Code.

SEC. 47.5. Section 156.7 of the Streets and Highways Code is repealed.

SEC. 48. Section 160 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

160. The width of the right-of-way for all state highways shall be at least 40 feet.

The department may maintain any state highway having a lesser width of right-of-way, but shall not expend any money thereon for major construction or improvement until the width of the right-of-way is at least 40 feet.

SEC. 49. Section 161 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

161. On construction projects, the department shall install on the surface of state highways upon which the operation of bicycles is permitted only those types of grates which are not hazardous to bicycle riders.

SEC. 50. Section 162 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

162. (a) Unless the commission finds that it would be impractical, any state highway exclusive and preferential lane for buses and other high occupancy vehicles constructed on new alignment or new structures shall be designed and constructed on horizontal and vertical alignments, including the grade, curvature, and horizontal and vertical clearances, so that the lane may readily be reconstructed as an exclusive public mass transit guideway, using the department's rail transit design criteria.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), prior to designing a state highway in conformance with this section, the department shall consider all of the following:

(1) Cost effectiveness.

(2) Any added environmental impact.

(3) The likelihood of a guideway project ever being developed.

SEC. 51. Section 165 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

165. The department shall prepare and submit to the Governor a proposed budget. The department shall include, within the proposed budget, the portion of that budget that is to be funded from the State Highway Account.

The department shall inform the commission of all pertinent assumptions and policy directions it intends to use in preparing the budget. This information shall be forwarded to the commission as soon as available. The commission shall review the assumptions and policy directions used in preparing the budget and forward its comments and recommendations to the department.

SEC. 52. Section 166 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

166. The portion of the proposed budget to be funded from the State Highway Account shall be included in the printed fiscal year budget submitted to the Legislature. The degree of detail contained in the portion of the proposed budget shall be established jointly by the Department of Transportation and the Department of Finance. That portion of the proposed budget shall be, for the State Highway Account, the complete and detailed budget as required by Section 13320 of the Government Code. In case of inconsistency between that section and this article, the provisions of this article shall control.

Notwithstanding Section 13321 of the Government Code, the Department of Transportation, in administering the budget of the State Highway Account, shall be responsible for determining the expenditures or incurrence of obligations by quarter or other period of the fiscal year.

SEC. 53. Section 166.5 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

166.5. In order to support its proposed budgets and to improve its program management, the Department of Transportation shall develop budgeting, accounting, fiscal control, and management information systems to provide at least the following information:

(a) Documentation and control of positions and personnel services expenditures.

(b) Accounting and reporting of revenues and expenditures on a basis generally consistent with provisions of the Government Code.

These systems shall be developed to better inform the Legislature so that responsible legislative oversight of the program and budget of the Department of Transportation would be possible. These systems shall recognize the special characteristics of the department's program.

Development of these systems shall be closely coordinated with the Department of Finance, the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, the Committees on Transportation of the Senate and Assembly, the Subcommittee on General Government and Transportation of the Senate Committee on Finance, and the Subcommittee on Resources and Transportation of the Assembly Committee on Ways and Means.

SEC. 54. Section 167 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

167. With respect to the funds in the State Highway Account, the proposed budget shall be organized on a program basis. The proposed budget shall list the proposed expenditures for the highway program under the following program elements:

(a) Administration.
(b) Program development.
(c) Maintenance.
(d) Operation.
(e) Rehabilitation.
(f) Operational improvements.
(g) New facilities.
(h) Local assistance.

The basis for defining major and minor capital outlay projects shall be established by the commission.

SEC. 55. Section 168 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

168. During the fiscal year, the department, with the approval of the commission, may transfer funds appropriated from the State Highway Account between programs and between program elements.

Transfers shall not decrease the amount of funds to be expended for any programs or program elements by more than 10 percent of the total amount appropriated and identified in the appropriation schedules.

Transfers may only be made with the approval of the commission and the Director of Finance and after submitting a five-day notice of intent to make the transfers to the chairman of Senate Finance Committee and the Assembly Ways and Means Committee and to the Chairman of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee.

SEC. 57. Section 188.5 of the Streets and Highways Code is repealed.

SEC. 58. Section 191 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

191. Prior to each July 15, the department shall prepare and forward to the Controller a report identifying the amounts to be deducted from the allocations under Sections 2104 and 2107 as provided in Sections 2104.1 and 2107.6. The amounts shall be a proration of five million dollars ($5,000,000), less the federal subventions for grade separation projects included in allocations made pursuant to Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 2400) of Division 3 in the preceding fiscal year in excess of three million dollars ($3,000,000). The proration shall be based on the ratio that grade separation allocations to cities, and grade separation allocations to counties, bears to the total allocations in the preceding fiscal year.

SEC. 59. Section 195 of the Streets and Highways Code is repealed.

SEC. 60. Section 199.8 of the Streets and Highways Code is repealed.

SEC. 61. Section 208 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

208. The Controller shall, from time to time, determine whether any portion of the money or investment in the Department of Motor Vehicles Uncleared Collections Account in the Special Deposit Fund is not necessary for immediate use and, if so, the amount thereof shall thereupon be designated as "available money." On demand of the Department of Transportation from time to time, the amounts demanded, not exceeding ten million dollars ($10,000,000) in the aggregate, shall, on order of the Controller, be transferred to the State Highway Account from the "available money" and shall be available for the acquisition of properties to constitute rights-of-way for state highway purposes. On demand of the Controller, the money shall be retransferred to the Department of Motor Vehicles Uncleared Collections Account.

SEC. 62. Section 213 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

213. The commission shall cause to be filed and published, in accordance with Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, copies of the procedural resolution. All revisions made subsequent to the time of filing of the first resolution shall be filed and published in the same manner. In addition to the filing and publication, the department and the commission shall furnish copies of the procedural resolutions to any person or organization requesting them.

SEC. 63. Section 215.5 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

215.5. (a) The department shall develop and implement a system of priorities for ranking the need for installation of noise attenuation barriers along freeways in the California freeway and expressway system. The priority system shall include as criteria the existing and future intensity of sound generated by the freeway.

(b) When all freeways have been ranked in priority order, the department shall, consistent with available funding, include in its proposed state transportation improvement program a program of construction of noise attentuation barriers beginning with the highest priority.

(c) If any city or county construct a sound attenuation barrier along a freeway using public funds prior to the time that the barrier reaches a high enough priority for state funding, then, when the funding priority is reached, the department shall reimburse the city or county without interest for the cost of the construction when constructed, but the reimbursement may not exceed the cost of the department to construct the barrier. Reimbursement shall be made only if the city or county constructs the sound attenuation barrier to the standards approved by department, follows bidding and contracting procedures approved by the department, and the project is approved by the commission.

SEC. 63.5. Section 216 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

216. The noise level produced by the traffic on, or by the construction of, a state freeway shall be measured in the classrooms, libraries, multipurpose rooms, and spaces used for pupil personnel services of a public or private elementary or secondary school if the classrooms, libraries, multipurpose rooms, or spaces used for pupil personnel services were constructed prior to the award of the initial construction contract for the freeway route and prior to January 1, 1974, or were constructed after December 31, 1973, and were constructed prior to the issuance of a statement of present and projected noise levels of the freeway route by the department pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 65302 of the Government Code, and are being used for the purpose for which they were constructed.

The measurements shall be made at appropriate times during regular school hours and shall not include noise from sources that exceed the maximum permitted by law.

If the noise level produced from the freeway traffic, or the construction of the freeway, exceeds 50 decibels on the "A" scale, the department shall undertake a noise abatement program in any such classroom, library, multipurpose room, or space used for pupil personnel services to reduce the freeway traffic noise level therein to 50 or fewer decibels on the "A" scale by, but not limited to, installing acoustical materials, eliminating windows, installing air conditioning, or constructing sound baffle structures.

If the department determines that the construction of the freeway will result in a noise level exceeding 50 decibels on the "A" scale, the department shall complete the temporary or permanent noise abatement program prior to commencing such construction, or as soon as practicable thereafter.

If it becomes necessary to convert the classrooms, libraries, multipurpose rooms, or spaces used for pupil personnel services to other school-related purposes because the freeway traffic noise level therein exceeds 50 decibels on the "A" scale, the department shall pay the cost of the conversions.

If the noise level generated from sources within and without the classrooms, libraries, multipurpose rooms, or spaces used for pupil personnel services exceeds 50 decibels on the "A" scale prior to construction of the freeway and the noise from the freeway, or the construction thereof, also exceeds 50 decibels on the "A" scale, the department shall be required to undertake a noise abatement program that will reduce the noise to its preconstruction level.

Priority for noise abatement programs shall be given to those public and private elementary and secondary classrooms, libraries, multipurpose rooms, and spaces used for pupil personnel services constructed in conformance with Article 3 (commencing with Section 39140) of Chapter 2 of Part 23 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Education Code.

As used in this section, the "A" scale means the "A" weighting described in Section 3.1 of the American National Standard specification for sound level meters, S1.4-1971, approved April 27, 1971, and published by the American National Standards Institute.

SEC. 64. Section 221 of the Streets and Highways Code is repealed.

SEC. 64.2. Section 253.1 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

253.1. The California freeway and expressway system shall include:

Routes 5, 6, 7, 8, 10, 14, 15, 18, 24, 28, 30, 32, 34, 37, 40, 44, 47, 48, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 59, 60, 61, 63, 65, 67, 68, 70, 71, 73, 74, 78, 80, 81, 83, 85, 87, 88, 89, 90, 93, 97, 100, 102, 105, 107, 108, 118, 121, 122, 124, 125, 126, 133, 134, 136, 139, 140, 141, 145, 148, 149, 154, 156, 157, 161, 163, 164, 171, 179, 181, 183, 184, 199, 205, 208, 210, 215, 217, 221, 223, 230, 232, 234, 235, 237, 238, 239, 242, 247, 249, 251, 252, 256, 257, 258, 259, 280, 330, 371, 380, 405, 505, 580, 605, 680, 780, 805, and 980 in their entirety.

SEC. 64.4. Section 253.5 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

253.5. The California freeway and expressway system shall also include:

Route 79 from:

(a) Route 8 near Descanso to Route 78.

(b) Route 371 near Aguanga to Route 15 near Temecula.

(c) Route 15 near Temecula to Route 74 near Hemet.

Route 395 from Route 14 near Little Lake to Route 89 near Coleville.

Route 680 from the Santa Clara-Alameda County line to Route 24 in Walnut Creek.

SEC. 65. Section 307.2 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

307.2. If the Cities of Los Angeles, Pasadena, and South Pasadena, and the Los Angeles County Transportation Commission reach an agreement by January 1, 1983, as to the location to be adopted for the portion of Route 7 between Routes 10 and 210, the department shall take the necessary steps to remove that portion of Route 7 from the federal aid urban system and place it in the federal aid primary system.

SEC. 65.1. Section 360 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

360. Route 60 is from:

(a) Route 10 near the Los Angeles River in Los Angeles to Route 215 via Pomona and Riverside.
(b) Route 215 to Route 10 near Beaumont.

SEC. 65.2. Section 374 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

374. Route 74 is from:

(a) Route 5 near San Juan Capistrano to Route 15.
(b) Route 15 to Route 215 near Perris.
(c) Route 215 near Perris to Route 10 near Indio.

SEC. 65.3. Section 381 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

381. Route 81 is from Route 215 east of Riverside to Route 15 south of Devore.

SEC. 65.4. Section 391 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

391. Route 91 is from Route 1 near Hermosa Beach to Route 215 via Santa Ana Canyon.

SEC. 65.5. Section 494 of the Streets and Highways Code is repealed.

SEC. 65.6. Section 506 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

506. Route 206 is from Route 30 in San Bernardino via Little Mountain to Route 215 near Verdemont.

SEC. 65.7. Section 515 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

515. Route 215 is from Route 15 near Temecula to Route 15 near Devore via San Bernardino and passing near Riverside.

SEC. 65.8. Section 559 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

559. Route 259 is from Route 215 to Route 30 in San Bernardino.

SEC. 66. Section 700 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

700. (a) "Person," in addition to the definition in Section 19, includes any city, county, public corporation, or public district.

(b) "Utility facility" means any pole, poleline, pipe, pipeline, conduit, cable, aqueduct, or other structure or appurtenance thereof used for public or privately owned utility services or used by any mutual organization supplying water or telephone service to its members.

(c) "Utility" means any person maintaining any utility facility.

(d) "Freeway" includes any toll bridge, including approaches, under the jurisdiction of the commission.

SEC. 66.5. Section 820 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

820. The State of California assents to the provisions of Title 23 of the United States Code, as amended and supplemented, other acts of Congress relative to federal aid, or other cooperative highway work, or to emergency construction of public highways with funds apportioned by the government of the United States. All work done under the provisions of Title 23 or other acts of Congress relative to highways shall be performed as required under acts of Congress and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. Laws, or rules and regulations, of this state inconsistent with the laws, or rules and regulations, of the United States, shall not apply to such work, to the extent of the inconsistency.

Any major conflicts between the laws, or rules and regulations, of this state and the federal law, or rules and regulations, which have been resolved under this section during a calendar year shall be described in a report which the department shall submit to the Legislature pursuant to section 14051 of the Government Code.

SEC. 67. Section 1712 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

1712. (a) A county and a city or cities may join in the acquisition of rights-of-way, construction, maintenance, improvement, or repair of bicycle routes or paths, or portions thereof, located within or without the city or cities.

(b) The cost or expense thereof shall be apportioned among the county and the city or cities as the legislative bodies thereof determine by agreement.

(c) The authority and responsibility for the acquisition and work shall vest in the county or in the city or cities, or in both, as provided in the agreement apportioning the cost or expense thereof.

SEC. 68. Section 1754.5 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

1754.5. When a navigable bay forms a boundary between two counties, the boards of supervisors of the counties may establish and operate any ferry across the bay, subject to any restrictions in Article 7 (commencing with Section 30350) of Chapter 1 of Division 17 or in any bond resolution of the commission which may be applicable.

SEC. 69. Section 2104.1 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

2104.1. The Controller shall deduct annually, from the amount apportioned pursuant to Section 2104, the amount identified as applicable to counties in the report submitted in the preceding fiscal year pursuant to Section 191, and shall transfer the amount to the State Highway Account.

SEC. 70. Section 2107.6 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

2107.6. The Controller shall deduct annually, from the amount apportioned pursuant to Section 2107, the amount identified as applicable to cities in the report submitted in the preceding fiscal year pursuant to Section 191, and shall transfer the amount to the State Highway Account.

SEC. 71. Section 2118.5 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

2118.5. All or a portion of the cost of furnishing warranted traffic control personnel whose function is to assist students in crossing streets and highways and avoiding traffic hazards may be charged against money apportioned to cities, cities and counties, or counties from the Highway Users Tax Account in the Transportation Tax Fund. The amount charged shall not exceed the portion of money derived from the tax under the Motor Vehicle Account in the State Transportation Fund. The department may assist local agencies in establishing warrants for crossing guard protection.

SEC. 71.5. Section 2179 of the Streets and Highways Code is repealed.

SEC. 71.6. Section 2544 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

2544. The department shall prepare and submit to the Legislature not later than July 1, 1976, a priority list of abandoned railroad lines having rights-of-way that may be developed for public transportation uses. The department shall prepare and submit to the Legislature a revised priority list thereafter pursuant to Section 14051 of the Government Code.

In preparing the list, the department shall consider the State Rail Plan prepared pursuant to Section 7701 of the Public Utilities Code and shall also consult with any city, county, transit district, or regional transportation planning entity within whose boundaries such abandoned railroad lines are located.

The department may consider contributions by local agencies toward the purchase of such rights-of-way as a factor in ranking the rights-of-way on the priority list.

SEC. 72. Section 25034 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

25034. The Secretary of State shall furnish and transmit to the clerk of the board of supervisors of the county adopting the initial resolution for the organization of the district a certificate of organization of the district. Within 10 days after the receipt of the certificate, the clerk shall notify (a) the clerks of the several boards of supervisors of the counties constituting the district, (b) the state Director of Transportation, and (c) each supervisor appointed as a member of the board of directors of the district that the district has been organized.

SEC. 73. Section 30100.5 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

30100.5. Notwithstanding Section 30100 or any other provision of law, no bridge or other highway crossing shall be constructed across San Francisco Bay by the commission, the department, or the Golden Gate Bridge, Highway and Transportation District, except to replace bridges or highway crossings on a one-for-one basis.

SEC. 74. Section 30306 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

30306. The money remaining in each separate toll revenue fund, after providing the amount required for interest and redemption of bonds, shall be held and applied as provided in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of the bonds. If the proceedings authorizing the issuance of the bonds do not require surplus revenues to be held or applied in any particular manner, they shall be allocated and used for other purposes incidental to the acquisition, construction, operation, and maintenance of the particular toll bridge or other highway crossing, transportation facilities, or additional transportation facilities as the commission determines.

SEC. 75. Section 30352 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

30352. As long as any of the bonds issued pursuant to this chapter for the acquisition, construction, enlargement, extension, or change in design or structure of any toll bridge or other highway crossing acquired or constructed pursuant to this chapter or the transportation facilities or additional transportation facilities thereon or thereto are outstanding and unpaid, any ferry or any similar means of crossing the waters within 10 miles from either side of the toll bridge shall not be operated, except as between the particular points of landing between which the ferry or other similar means of crossing was operated and only as to the particular classes of service in which the ferry or other similar means of crossing was actually engaged at the time the construction of the toll bridge or other highway crossing was authorized by the commission. Any ferry or other similar means of crossing shall not be restored to operation between any points of landing or as to any class of traffic operation discontinued subsequent to the authorization by the commission of any bridge or highway crossing.

"Ferry," as used in this article, includes vessels of any kind or character operating upon the inland waters of this state for the transportation of persons or vehicles other than railway freight cars, including vessels operated by, or in conjunction with, any railroad, interurban railroad, or other common carrier.

SEC. 76. Section 30353 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

30353. Sections 30350 and 30351 are binding upon the commission, the state, all of its departments, agencies, or instrumentalities, any and all private, political, municipal, and public corporations and subdivisions, including cities, counties, and districts of any nature whatever. The prohibitions of those sections restrict and limit the powers of the Legislature with respect to the matters mentioned in those sections as long as any bonds are outstanding and unpaid and constitute a contract to that effect for the benefit of the holders of all bonds.

SEC. 77. Section 30608 of the Streets and Highways Code is repealed.

SEC. 78. Section 30884 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

30884. "Net revenues" means those revenues of a toll bridge that are in excess of the amount required (a) to pay necessary costs of operation, rehabilitation, and necessary safety improvements, (b) to meet the obligations assumed by the California Transportation Commission under any bond resolution applicable to the toll bridge, and (c) to repay any advances made to the department from any other source for studies and work preliminary to the financing of any toll bridge project.

SEC. 79. Section 30885 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

30885. "Toll bridge" means any bridge under the jurisdiction of the California Transportation Commission, including the approaches to the toll bridge from the nearest highway that is not for the exclusive use of toll bridge traffic, and located within the region under the jurisdiction of the commission.

SEC. 80. Section 30886 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

30886. Upon securing the required consent of the holders of outstanding bonds on the toll bridge, and of the federal government where necessary, the Metropolitan Transportation Commission may adopt a toll schedule in lieu of the one adopted by the California Transportation Commission for a toll bridge located within the region under its jurisdiction and allocate the net revenues therefrom pursuant to this article.

SEC. 81. Section 30887 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

30887. The Metropolitan Transportation Commission shall adopt a toll schedule only after (a) it has held public hearings within the region under its jurisdiction and (b) the California Transportation Commission has approved the proposed toll schedule.

However, the California Transportation Commission may increase the toll rates specified in the adopted toll schedule if this is necessary in order to enable the California Transportation Commission to meet its obligations under any bond resolution.

SEC. 82. Section 30888 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

30888. The California Transportation Commission shall expeditiously approve the toll schedule proposed by the Metropolitan Transportation Commission, unless the California Transportation Commission finds and determines that the proposed toll schedule will result in either of the following:

(a) Will not generate sufficient revenues (1) to pay required costs of operation, rehabilitation, and necessary safety improvements, (2) to meet the obligations assumed by the California Transportation Commission under any bond resolution applicable to the toll bridge, and (3) to repay any advances made to the department from any source for studies and work preliminary to the financing of any toll bridge project.

(b) Will adversely affect any state interest, including, but not limited to, the safe and efficient movement of traffic and the collection of tolls.

SEC. 83. Section 21101 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

21101. Local authorities may adopt rules and regulations by ordinance or resolution on any of the following matters:

(a) Closing any highway to vehicular traffic when, in the opinion of the legislative body having jurisdiction, the highway is no longer needed for vehicular traffic.

(b) Designating any highway as a through highway and requiring that all vehicles observe official traffic control devices before entering or crossing the highway or designating any intersection as a stop intersection and requiring all vehicles to stop at one or more entrances to the intersection.

(c) Prohibiting the use of particular highways by certain vehicles, except as otherwise provided by the Public Utilities Commission pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 1031) of Chapter 5 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Public Utilities Code. No ordinance adopted pursuant to this subdivision after November 10, 1969, shall apply to any state highway included in the National System of Interstate and Defense Highways, except an ordinance approved by a two-thirds vote of the California Transportation Commission.

(d) Closing particular streets during regular school hours for the purpose of conducting automobile driver training programs in the secondary schools and colleges of this state.

(e) Temporarily closing a portion of any street for celebrations, parades, local special events, and other purposes when, in the opinion of local authorities having jurisdiction, the closing is necessary for the safety and protection of persons who are to use that portion of the street during the temporary closing.

SEC. 84. Section 22364 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

22364. Whenever the Department of Transportation determines, upon the basis of an engineering and traffic survey, that the safe and orderly movement of traffic upon any state highway will be facilitated by the establishment of different speed limits for the various lanes of traffic, the department may place signs upon the state highway, or any portion thereof. The signs shall designate the speed limits for each of the lanes of traffic.

SEC. 85. Section 23272 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

23272. When any vehicle or object on any vehicular crossing, upon which towing service is maintained, is stopped for any reason and is obstructing or may obstruct traffic, the vehicle or object shall be towed by the towing service either to the nearest property of the Department of Transportation designated for the parking or storing of vehicles, or to a suitable parking location on a public street or highway and thereupon left in the custody of the owner or operator of the vehicle or object, or his agent, or, if no owner, operator, or agent is present, or if an owner, operator, or agent so requests, to a public garage or off-street parking facility. The department may prescribe the limits within which the towing service shall be operated.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, the department may furnish and deliver fuel to vehicles, the supply of which is exhausted, or change tires, and may charge a reasonable sum for the services and materials furnished or, if the department deems it safe and advisable, and the owner or operator of the vehicle or object so requests, it may be towed from the vehicular crossing.

SEC. 86. Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 23340) of Division 11 of the Vehicle Code is repealed.

SEC. 87. Section 35701 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

35701. (a) Any city may, by ordinance, prohibit the use of a street by any commercial vehicle or by any vehicle exceeding a maximum gross weight limit, except with respect to any vehicle which is subject to Sections 1031 to 1036, inclusive, of the Public Utilities Code.

(b) The ordinance shall not be effective until appropriate signs are erected indicating either the streets affected by the ordinance or the streets not affected, as the local authority determines will best serve to give notice of the ordinance.

(c) No ordinance adopted pursuant to this section after November 10, 1969, shall apply to any state highway which is included in the National System of Interstate and Defense Highways, except an ordinance which has been approved by a two-thirds vote of the California Transportation Commission.

SEC. 88. Section 35712 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

35712. (a) Any county may, by ordinance, prohibit the use of any highway located in an unincorporated residential or subdivision area by any commercial vehicle exceeding a gross weight of 14,000 pounds.

(b) Any county of the third class, as defined by Section 28024 of the Government Code, or of the ninth class, as defined by Section 28030 of the Government Code, may, by ordinance, prohibit the use of any highway located in an unincorporated residential or subdivision area by any commercial vehicle exceeding a gross weight of 5,000 pounds.

(c) This section does not apply to a vehicle operated by, or on behalf of, a public utility in connection with the installation, operation, maintenance, or repair of its facilities.

(d) No ordinance adopted pursuant to this section after November 10, 1969, shall apply to any state highway which is included in the National System of Interstate and Defense Highways, except an ordinance approved by a two-thirds vote of the California Transportation Commission.

SEC. 89. Section 39010 of the Vehicle Code is repealed.

SEC. 90. Section 1 of Chapter 1044 of the Statutes of 1970 is amended to read:

Section 1. Future widening of the existing roadway of Route 14 from a point near the proposed Palmdale Airport to Route 5 shall be designed by the Department of Transportation so as to reserve sufficient space for exclusive or preferential lane facilities for mass transit vehicles.

SEC. 91. Section 62 of Chapter 161 of the Statutes of 1979 is amended to read:

Sec. 62. From funds appropriated to it for such purposes from the Transportation Planning and Development Account in the State Transportation Fund, the California Transportation Commission shall, on the recommendation of the Department of Transportation, allocate funds to public transportation projects to improve the interface of various transportation modes for the purpose of matching available federal or local funds. Priority shall be given to projects for which local funds have been committed.

The commission may augment the original project allocation by not more than 10 percent for contingency and administrative purposes.

SEC. 92. Section 64 of Chapter 161 of the Statutes of 1979 is amended to read:

Sec. 64. The allocation for each project funded pursuant to Section 61 or 62 of this act shall be subject to the terms and conditions set forth in an allocation agreement between the Department of Transportation and each responsible entity. All agreements shall be exempt from the review provisions of Section 14780 of the Government Code. The California Transportation Commission may reallocate funds designated for any applicant upon receipt of a written waiver of funds, to other projects eligible for funding pursuant to Section 62 of this act.

SEC. 93. Any section of any act enacted by the Legislature during the 1982 portion of the 1981–82 Regular Session which takes effect on or before January 1, 1983, and which amends, amends and renumbers, adds, repeals and adds, or repeals a section amended, amended and renumbered, repealed and added, or repealed by this act, shall prevail over this act, whether that act is enacted prior to or subsequent to this act.

CHAPTER 682

An act to amend, repeal, and add Sections 1700.4 and 1700.44 of, to repeal Section 1700.46 of, and to add and repeal Article 4 (commencing with Section 1701) to Chapter 4 of Part 6 of Division 2 of, the Labor Code, relating to talent agencies.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State August 31, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1700.4 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

1700.4. (a) A talent agency is hereby defined to be a person or corporation who engages in the occupation of procuring, offering, promising, or attempting to procure employment or engagements for an artist or artists, except that the activities of procuring, offering, or promising to procure recording contracts for an artist or artists shall not of itself subject a person or corporation to regulation and licensing under this chapter. Talent agencies may, in addition, counsel or direct artists in the development of their professional careers.

The word "artists" as used herein refers to actors and actresses rendering services on the legitimate stage and in the production of motion pictures; radio artists; musical artists; musical organizations; directors of legitimate stage, motion picture and radio productions; musical directors; writers; cinematographers; composers; lyricists; arrangers; and other artists and persons rendering professional services in motion picture, theatrical, radio, television and other entertainment enterprises.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1985, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1985, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 1700.4 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

1700.4. (a) A talent agency is hereby defined to be a person or corporation who engages in the occupation of procuring, offering, promising, or attempting to procure employment or engagements for an artist or artists. Talent agencies may, in addition, counsel or direct artists in the development of their professional careers.

The word "artists" as used herein refers to actors and actresses rendering services on the legitimate stage and in the production of motion pictures, radio artists, musical artists, musical organizations, directors of legitimate stage, motion picture and radio productions, musical directors, writers, cinematographers, composers, lyricists, arrangers, and other artists and persons rendering professional services in motion picture, theatrical, radio, television and other entertainment enterprises.

(b) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1985.

SEC. 3. Section 1700.44 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

1700.44. In cases of controversy arising under this chapter the parties involved shall refer the matters in dispute to the Labor Commissioner, who shall hear and determine the same, subject to an appeal within 10 days after determination, to the superior court where the same shall be heard de novo. To stay any award for money, the party aggrieved shall execute a bond approved by the superior court in a sum not exceeding twice the amount of the judgment. In all other cases the bond shall be in a sum of not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) and approved by the superior court.

The Labor Commissioner may certify without a hearing that there is no controversy within the meaning of this section if he has by investigation established that there is no dispute as to the amount of the fee due. Service of such certification shall be made upon all parties concerned by registered or certified mail with return receipt requested and such certification shall become conclusive 10 days after the date of mailing if no objection has been filed with the Labor Commissioner during that period.

No action or proceeding may be prosecuted under this chapter with respect to any violation occurring or alleged to have occurred more than one year prior to commencement of the action or proceeding.

It shall not be unlawful for a person or corporation who is not licensed under this chapter to act in conjunction with, and at the request of, a duly licensed and franchised talent agency in the negotiations of an employment contract.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1985, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1985, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. Section 1700.44 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

1700.44. (a) In cases of controversy arising under this chapter the parties involved shall refer the matters in dispute to the Labor Commissioner, who shall hear and determine the same, subject to an appeal within 10 days after determination, to the superior court where the same shall be heard de novo. To stay any award for money, the party aggrieved shall execute a bond approved by the superior court in a sum not exceeding twice the amount of the judgment. In all other cases the bond shall be in a sum of not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) and approved by the superior court.

The Labor Commissioner may certify without a hearing that there is no controversy within the meaning of this section if he has by investigation established that there is no dispute as to the amount of the fee due. Service of such certification shall be made upon all parties concerned by registered or certified mail with return receipt requested and such certification shall become conclusive 10 days after the date of mailing if no objection has been filed with the Labor Commissioner during that period.

This section shall become operative on January 1, 1985.

SEC. 5. Section 1700.46 of the Labor Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Article 4 (commencing with Section 1701) is added to Chapter 4 of Part 6 of Division 2 of the Labor Code, to read:

Article 4. California Entertainment Commission

1701. There is hereby created in state government the California Entertainment Commission consisting of 10 members. Three members of the commission shall be appointed by the Governor, three members by the Speaker of the Assembly, and three members by the Senate Rules Committee. Each appointing power shall appoint a licensed talent agent, a personal manager of at least three artists, and an artist. The Labor Commissioner shall also be a member of the commission.

1702. The commission shall study the laws and practices of this state, the State of New York, and other entertainment capitals of the United States relating to the licensing of agents and representatives of artists in the entertainment industry in general, and the recording industry in particular, so as to enable the commission to recommend to the Legislature a model bill regarding this licensing.

1703. The commission shall report to the Legislature and the Governor not later than October 1, 1984. All expenses of the commission shall be appropriated in the Budget Act.

1704. This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1985, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1985, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 683

An act making an appropriation for fiscal affairs, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 31, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 1, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of three hundred fifty thousand dollars ($350,000) is hereby transferred from the Special Account for Capital Outlay in the General Fund to the Controller for allocation to the Department of General Services for expenditure during the 1982–83, 1983–84, and 1984–85 fiscal years, except that appropriations for studies, planning, and working drawings, and minor capital outlay shall be available for expenditure only during the 1982–83 fiscal year. In addition, every appropriation made in this section for construction, or working drawings and construction, that has not been approved by the State Public Works Board on or before June 30, 1983, shall revert as of that date to the fund from which the appropriation was made.

For capital outlay, Department of General Services....	$350,000
Schedule:
(a) Land Acquisition—New State Office Building, Van Nuys.....	$350,000

The appropriation contained in this section is in addition to any other amounts heretofore appropriated for this project and subject to all of the limitations applicable thereto.

SEC. 2. There is hereby appropriated from the Environmental License Plate Fund to the State Department of Forestry three hundred forty-five thousand dollars ($345,000) for the purpose of testing fire suppression equipment.

This section shall become operative only if Senate Bill 1408 of the 1981–82 Regular Session is chaptered.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for the benefits and savings which will result from this act to be maximized, it is necessary that this act go into effect immediately.

CHAPTER 684

An act to add Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 13170) to Part 7 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 2, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 2, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 13170) is added to Part 7 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

CHAPTER 10. ADMINISTRATION

13170. The board, the Insurance Commissioner, and the Controller may each prescribe, adopt, and enforce rules and regulations relating to the administration and enforcement of this part for which the agency has a constitutional or statutory responsibility. Each agency may prescribe the extent to which any rule and regulation it has adopted shall be applied without retroactive effect.

CHAPTER 685

An act to amend Section 2435 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to the Board of Medical Quality Assurance, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 2, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 2, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2435 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2435. The following fees apply to physician's and surgeon's certificates, certificates to practice podiatric medicine, certificates of drugless practitioners and certificates to practice midwifery:

(a) Each applicant for a certificate by written examination, unless otherwise provided by this chapter, shall pay an application fee fixed by the board at an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) or less than twenty-five dollars ($25) and an examination fee fixed by the board at an amount not to exceed the cost of purchase and administration of any licensure examination, but in no event shall the fee exceed two hundred dollars ($200). If the applicant's credentials are insufficient or if the applicant does not desire to take the examination, only the examination fee is returnable to the applicant. The board may charge an examination fee for any subsequent reexamination of the applicant.

The board may require applicants to remit all or part of the examination fee directly to the organization furnishing examination materials pursuant to Section 2176. The organization furnishing those materials shall refund any fee to the applicant if the applicant does not desire to take the examination.

(b) Each applicant for a certificate based upon a national board diplomate certificate, and each applicant for a certificate based upon reciprocity, shall pay an application fee of ten dollars ($10) at the time the application is filed. If the applicant qualifies for a certificate, he or she shall pay a fee which shall be fixed by the board at an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) nor less than five dollars ($5) for the issuance of the certificate.

(c) Each applicant who qualifies for a certificate, as a condition precedent to its issuance, in addition to other fees required herein, shall pay an initial license fee, if any. The initial license fee shall be fixed by the board at a sum not in excess of two hundred dollars ($200), except that if the license will expire less than one year after its issuance, then the initial license fee is an amount equal to 50 percent of the initial license fee fixed by the board. Any licensee enrolled in an approved residency program shall be required to pay only 50 percent of the initial license fee in effect. The board may waive or refund the initial license fee where the license will expire within 45 days after it is issued.

(d) The biennial renewal fee shall be fixed by the board at an amount not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200). Any licensee enrolled in an approved residency program shall be required to pay only 50 percent of the biennial renewal fee at the time of his or her first renewal.

(e) The delinquency fee is twenty-five dollars ($25).

(f) The duplicate certificate fee is two dollars ($2).

(g) The endorsement fee is five dollars ($5).

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that appropriate fees may be collected prior to December examinations which will cover costs incurred as a result of those examinations, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 686

An act to amend Sections 36600 and 36610 of the Vehicle Code, relating to implements of husbandry.

[Approved by Governor September 2, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 2, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 36600 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

36600. (a) The limitations as to width as set forth in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 35100) of Division 15 do not apply to implements of husbandry incidentally operated, transported, towed, or otherwise moved over a highway.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), when an implement of husbandry is transported or moved over a highway which is a part of the National System of Interstate and Defense Highways (as referred to in Section 108 of the Federal-aid Highway Act of 1956) as a load on another vehicle, if the load exceeds 96 inches in width, the vehicle and load shall not be operated for a distance in excess of 25 miles from the point of origin of the trip. The operator of the transporting vehicle shall be a farmer or a person regularly employed by a farmer or farm corporation, and the operator transporting the load shall have in his or her immediate possession a writing signed by the farmer or farm corporation agent which states the origin and destination of the trip.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), when an implement of husbandry is transported or moved over any other highway as a load on another vehicle, if the load exceeds 120 inches in width, the vehicle and load shall not be operated for a distance in excess of 25 miles from the point of origin of the trip. The operator of the transporting vehicle shall be a farmer or a person regularly employed by a farmer or farm corporation, and the operator transporting the load shall have in his or her immediate possession a writing signed by the farmer or farm corporation agent which states the origin and destination of the trip.

SEC. 2. Section 36610 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

36610. (a) The limitations as to height of vehicles contained in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 35250) of Division 15 do not apply to implements of husbandry incidentally operated, transported, towed, or otherwise moved over a highway.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), when an implement of husbandry is transported or moved over a highway as a load on another vehicle and the load exceeds 14 feet in height, the vehicle and load shall not be operated for a distance in excess of 25 miles from the point of origin of the trip. The operator of the transporting vehicle shall be a farmer or a person regularly employed by a farmer or farm corporation, and the operator transporting the vehicle shall have in his or her immediate possession a writing signed by the farmer or farm corporation agent which states the origin and destination of the trip.

SEC. 3. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 687

An act to amend Section 215.5 of the Streets and Highways Code, relating to state highways.

[Approved by Governor September 2, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 2, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 215.5 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

215.5. (a) The department shall develop and implement a system of priorities for ranking the need for installation of noise attenuation barriers along freeways in the California freeway and expressway system. In establishing a priority system, the department shall give the highest consideration to residential areas which were developed prior to the opening of the freeway. If alterations have been made to the freeway since its original opening which result in a significant and measurable increase in ambient noise levels, the opening date for that segment of the freeway, for the purposes of determining priorities under this section, is the completion date of that alteration project. Other criteria for determining priorities shall include the existing and future intensity of sound generated by the freeway, the increase in traffic flow since the original construction of the freeway, the cost of building the sound wall in relation to the expected noise reduction, and the number of persons living in close proximity to the freeway.

(b) When all freeways have been ranked in priority order, the department shall, consistent with available funding, recommend in the six-year plan, and in succeeding six-year plans, a program of construction of noise attentuation barriers beginning with the highest priority.

(c) If any city or county construct a noise attenuation barrier along a freeway using public funds prior to the time that the barrier reaches a high enough priority for state funding, then, when the funding priority is reached, the department shall reimburse the city or county without interest for the cost of construction, but the reimbursement may not exceed the cost of the department to construct the barriers. Reimbursement shall be made only if the city or county constructs the noise attenuation barrier to the standards approved by department, follows bidding and contracting procedures approved by the department, and the project is approved by the commission.

CHAPTER 688

An act to amend Section 14785.1 of the Government Code, relating to recycling.

[Approved by Governor September 2, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 2, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14785.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14785.1. Fitness and quality being equal, all local public agencies shall purchase recycled paper and paper products instead of unrecycled paper or paper products whenever available at no more than the total cost of unrecycled paper and paper products. All local public agencies may and state agencies shall give preference to the suppliers of recycled paper or paper products if the bids of such suppliers do not exceed by more than 5 percent the lowest bid or price quoted by suppliers offering unrecycled paper or paper products.

CHAPTER 689

An act to repeal Section 39384 of, to add and repeal Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 39295) of Chapter 3 of Part 23 of, and to repeal, add, and repeal Article 9 (commencing with Section 39470) of Chapter 3 of Part 23 of, the Education Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor September 2, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 2, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 39295) is added to Chapter 3 of Part 23 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 1.5. Advisory Committees

39295. It is the intent of the Legislature that leases entered into pursuant to this chapter provide for community involvement by attendance area at the district level. This community involvement should facilitate making the best possible judgments about the use of excess school facilities in each individual situation.

It is the intent of the Legislature to have the community involved before decisions are made about school closure or the use of surplus space, thus avoiding community conflict and assuring building use that is compatible with the community's needs and desires.

39296. The governing board of any school district may, and the governing board of each school district, prior to the sale, lease, or rental of any excess real property, except rentals not exceeding 30 days, shall, appoint a district advisory committee to advise the governing board in the development of districtwide policies and procedures governing the use or disposition of school buildings or space in school buildings which is not needed for school purposes.

39297. A school district advisory committee appointed pursuant to Section 39296 shall consist of not less than seven nor more than 11 members, and shall be representative of each of the following:

(a) The ethnic, age group, and socioeconomic composition of the district.

(b) The business community, such as store owners, managers, or supervisors.

(c) Landowners or renters, with preference to be given to representatives of neighborhood associations.

(d) Teachers.

(e) Administrators.

(f) Parents of students.

(g) Persons with expertise in environmental impact, legal contracts, building codes, and land use planning.

39298. The school district advisory committee shall:

(a) Review the projected school enrollment and other data as provided by the district to determine the amount of surplus space.

(b) Establish a priority list of use of surplus space that will be acceptable to the community.

(c) Cause to have circulated throughout the attendance area a priority list of surplus space and provide for hearings of community input to the committee on acceptable uses of space.

(d) Make a final determination of limits of tolerance of use of space.

(e) Forward to the district governing board a report recommending uses of surplus space.

39299. The governing board may elect not to appoint an advisory committee pursuant to Section 39295 in the case of a lease or rental to a private educational institution for the purpose of offering summer school in a facility of the district.

39299.5. This article shall remain in effect only until December 31, 1986, and as of that date is repealed unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before December 31, 1986, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 39384 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Article 9 (commencing with Section 39470) of Chapter 3 of Part 23 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Article 9 (commencing with Section 39470) is added to Chapter 3 of Part 23 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 9. Joint Use

39470. (a) The governing board of any school district may enter into agreements to make vacant classrooms or other space in operating school buildings available for rent or lease to other school districts, educational agencies, except private educational institutions which maintain kindergarten or grades 1 to 12, inclusive, governmental units, nonprofit organizations, community agencies, professional agencies, commercial and noncommercial firms, corporations, partnerships, businesses, and individuals, including during normal school hours if the school is in session.

(b) The governing board shall give first priority in leasing or renting vacant classroom space or other space to educational agencies for conducting special education programs and second priority to other educational agencies.

39471. As used in this article, "building" includes onsite and offsite facilities, utilities, and improvements which, as agreed upon by the parties, are appropriate for the proper operation or function of the building to be jointly occupied and used. It also includes the permanent improvement of school grounds.

39472. Prior to entering into a lease or agreement pursuant to this article, the school district governing board shall determine that the proposed joint occupancy and use of school district property or buildings will not do any of the following:

(a) Interfere with the educational program or activities of any school or class conducted upon the real property or in any building.

(b) Unduly disrupt the residents in the surrounding neighborhood.

(c) Jeopardize the safety of the children of the school.

39473. The governing board of a school district entering into a lease pursuant to this article shall comply with the applicable provisions of Article 4 (commencing with Section 39360).

39474. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b) of this section and Section 39475, the amount of classroom space leased pursuant to this article in any school site during normal school hours shall not exceed 45 percent of the total classroom space of that school, and in no event shall the leased classroom space in the school district during normal school hours exceed 30 percent of the district's total classroom space in operating schools.

(b) The governing board of a school district may, upon a two-thirds vote, enter into lease agreements which exceed the 45-percent limit per school upon making a finding that the leases are compatible with the educational purpose of the school. The board, however, shall not exceed, pursuant to this subdivision, the 30-percent limit of classroom space for the entire school district.

(c) The provisions of this section shall not apply to agreements for the lease of classroom space entered into by districts on or before March 4, 1981

39475. The governing board of a school district may lease vacant classroom space the total area of which exceeds the 30-percent districtwide limit of classroom space available pursuant to this article, if a lease is for any day care center, nursery school, or special education class.

39476. A local agency having general planning jurisdiction may require adherence to appropriate zoning ordinances, use permits, construction or safety codes, by a school district seeking to lease a portion of a school building for uses other than public or education-related uses.

39477. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), the term of any agreement entered into by a school district pursuant to this article shall not exceed five years.

(b) The provisions of subdivision (a) shall not apply to agreements under or pursuant to which capital outlay improvements are made on school property for park and recreation purposes by public entities and nonprofit corporations.

39478. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), no agreement entered into by a school district pursuant to this article shall rent or lease vacant classrooms or other space in operating schools for less than fair market rental for comparable facilities.

(b) A district may enter into an agreement to rent or lease vacant classrooms or other space in operating schools to public entities for less than fair market rental for comparable facilities.

39479. This article shall remain in effect only until December 31, 1986, and as of that date is repealed unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before December 31, 1986, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 5. The provisions of this act shall apply only to leases entered into after January 1, 1983.

CHAPTER 690

An act to amend Section 5151 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 2, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 2, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5151 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

5151. Interest at the rate of 9 percent per annum shall be paid, when such interest is ten dollars ($10) or more, on amounts refunded under Section 5096.7, or refunded as a result of the reduction of assessed value following an application for equalization by a board of equalization or by a court action to recover taxes, or as a consequence of an assessor's clerical error. However, no interest shall be paid under the provisions of this section if the taxpayer has been given the notice required by Section 2635 and has failed to apply for the refund within 30 days after the mailing of such notice.

Interest allowed under this section shall be computed using whichever of the three following periods provides the longest period:

(a) The date of the recording of the deed to the public agency acquiring the property in eminent domain to the date of the filing of the claim for refund.

(b) The date of the payment of the tax on property subject to an application for equalization of the assessed value thereof to the date of the determination of the equalized value of the property.

(c) The date of the payment of the tax on property subject to a refund as a result of an assessor error in assessing the property to a date 15 days after the date of approval of the correction to the tax roll.

The interest charged shall be apportioned to the appropriate funds, as determined by the county auditor.

CHAPTER 691

An act to amend Sections 14409, 14410, 14551, 14552, 14554, 14600, 14601, 14602, 14603, 14604, 14750, 14751, 15050, 15051, and 15451 of, and to add Sections 14006 and 14605 to, the Financial Code, relating to credit unions.

[Approved by Governor September 2, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 2, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14006 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

14006. "Credit manager" means a natural person approved by the board of directors and employed by a credit union to supervise the lending activities of the credit union in accordance with the loan policies established by the board of directors and consistent with the applicable state and federal law and regulations. A credit manager may be but is not required to be a member of the credit union.

SEC. 2. Section 14409 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14409. Every credit union shall:

(a) Obtain adequate surety bond coverage for the treasurer and any assistant treasurer conditioned upon the honest performance of his or her trust. The minimum principal amount of such bond shall be based on the gross assets of the credit union, according to the following schedule:

Gross assets	Amount of bond
0 to $5,000	$1,000
5,001 to 10,000	2,000
10,001 to 20,000	4,000
20,001 to 30,000	5,000
30,001 to 40,000	8,000
40,001 to 50,000	10,000
50,001 to 75,000	15,000
75,001 to 100,000	20,000
100,001 to 150,000	30,000
150,001 to 200,000	40,000
200,001 to 300,000	50,000
300,001 to 400,000	60,000
400,001 to 500,000	70,000
500,001 to 750,000	85,000
750,001 to 1,000,000	100,000
1,000,001 to 50,000,000	100,000 plus 50,000 for each additional million or fraction thereof of assets over 1,000,000
Over 150,000,000	5,000,000

(b) Obtain adequate fidelity bond coverage for each officer and employee having control of or access to funds or securities owned by or pledged with a credit union commensurate with risks involved.

(c) Obtain fidelity bond coverage for its credit manager.

SEC. 3. Section 14410 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14410. No member of the board of directors, supervisory committee, or credit committee shall receive any compensation for his or her services as such, but he or she may be provided with reasonable health, accident and similar insurance under such terms and conditions as specified by the commissioner in the credit union regulations, provided that insurance protection shall exclude life insurance, shall be limited to areas of risk, including accidental death and dismemberment, to which the official is exposed by virtue of carrying out the duties or responsibilities of his or her credit union position and shall cease immediately when the insured person leaves office without providing residual benefits other than from pending claims, if any. A director or committee member may be reimbursed for actual expenses incurred in the performance of his or her duties. Nothing in this section shall prevent any person from receiving compensation for actual services as a general manager, credit manager, loan officer, or other position as an employee of the credit union.

SEC. 4. Section 14551 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14551. The supervisory committee may:

(a) Suspend at any time by unanimous vote, at a meeting called for that purpose, the credit committee, or any member thereof, or the credit manager, or any member of the board of directors, or any officer.

(b) By a majority vote call a meeting of the members to consider any violation of this division or the bylaws, or any practices of the credit union which, in the opinion of the committee, are unsafe or unauthorized.

(c) Inspect the securities, cash, and accounts of the credit union and supervise the acts of its board of directors, officers, and credit committee or credit manager.

(d) Fill vacancies in the supervisory committee until the next annual meeting of the members.

(e) Declare vacant any office of a member of the supervisory committee if such member is absent from three consecutive regular meetings of the supervisory committee unless excused therefrom or is completely inactive as a member of the supervisory committee for a consecutive 12 months' period.

SEC. 5. Section 14552 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14552. The supervisory committee shall, within seven days after suspension of any or all members of the credit committee, or the credit manager, or any member of the board of directors, or any other officer, cause notice of a special meeting to be given to the members to take such action regarding the suspension as the members deem necessary.

SEC. 6. Section 14554 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14554. No member of the supervisory committee shall serve as a member of the credit committee, as the credit manager, as a member of the board of directors, or as an employee of the credit union.

SEC. 7. Section 14600 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14600. Every credit union shall have a credit committee of at least three persons, each of whom shall be a member of the credit union, or in the alternative, a credit manager, to have general supervision of all loans to members. The bylaws of the credit union shall provide that either: (1) the members of the credit committee shall be elected by the members of the credit union at their annual meeting, or (2) they shall be appointed by the board of directors, or (3) that the board of directors may establish the position of credit manager in lieu of a credit committee. The bylaws of the credit union shall provide for the terms of office of the credit committee, where the credit committee has been provided for in the bylaws, which shall not exceed three years, and which may be staggered.

SEC. 8. Section 14601 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14601. No member of the credit committee or the credit manager or any loan officer shall serve as a member of the supervisory committee. A credit manager shall not be a member of the board of directors.

SEC. 9. Section 14602 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14602. (a) No credit union shall make any loan or extension of credit without the written approval of a majority of the members of the credit committee or the credit manager or of a loan officer appointed as provided in this section.

(b) The credit committee or the credit manager may, with the approval of the board of directors, appoint one or more loan officers who shall be authorized to approve loan applications within the limits set by the credit committee or the credit manager, but in no event to exceed the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000) plus the unpledged shares of the borrower for any one loan if the paid-in and unimpaired capital and surplus of the credit union are less than five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000). Loan officers of credit unions with paid-in and unimpaired capital and surplus of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) or more may approve loan applications within the limits set by the credit committee or the credit manager, but in no event to exceed the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) plus the unpledged shares of the borrower for any one loan. Loan officers of credit unions with paid-in and unimpaired capital and surplus of one million dollars ($1,000,000) but less than five million dollars ($5,000,000) may approve loan applications within the limits set by the credit committee or the credit manager, but in no event in excess of the sum of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) plus the unpledged shares of the borrower for any one loan. Loan officers of credit unions with paid-in and unimpaired capital and surplus of five million dollars ($5,000,000) or more may approve loan applications within the limits set by the credit committee or the credit manager, but in no event in excess of the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) plus the unpledged shares of the borrower for any one loan. Such loan officer must be a member of the credit union and may, but need not be, a member of the credit committee or an officer or director of the credit union.

(c) A credit committee, a credit manager, and any loan officer shall not have the power to approve membership applications.

(d) No loan officers shall be permitted to approve any extension agreement of any delinquent loan or the refinancing of any delinquent loan except as prescribed in regulations promulgated by the commissioner.

(e) The credit committee, or in the alternative, the credit manager shall be provided with a record of each loan approved or not approved by any loan officer within seven days of such approval or disapproval.

(f) The credit manager shall prepare a weekly report to the chief executive officer or the general manager of the credit union containing the following:

(1) The number, amount, and, if applicable, the terms of any loan, any extension of credit, or any agreement to extend credit to a credit union member that was approved.

(2) The number, amount, and, if applicable, the terms of any loan, any extension of credit, or any agreement to extend credit to a credit union member that was denied.

(3) The dollar amount and number of months delinquent for each loan that is more than 45 days delinquent in order to permit the credit union to establish delinquency reserves as is required pursuant to regulations that may be issued by the commissioner from time to time. The board of directors shall review the credit manager's weekly reports no less frequently than on a monthly basis.

SEC. 10. Section 14603 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14603. The credit committee, the credit manager, or a loan officer may approve in advance, upon their own motion or upon the application of any member, the extension of credit to any member and loans may be granted to such member within the limit of such extension of credit; however, a loan officer may not approve the extension of credit to any member in an amount greater than the unsecured loan limit of each borrower allowed by Section 15100. Where an extension of credit has been approved, applications for loans need not be approved by the credit committee, the credit manager, or loan officer as long as the aggregate amount of such loan or loans does not exceed the limit of such extension of credit. The credit committee, the credit manager, or loan officer shall review, from time to time, all extensions of credit approved by them and any extension of credit approved for any member shall expire if such member becomes ineligible for a loan or becomes more than 90 days delinquent in his obligations to the credit union.

SEC. 11. Section 14604 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14604. Any applicant for a loan, loans, or an extension of credit may appeal from the decision of the credit committee, the credit manager, or loan officer to the board of directors.

SEC. 12. Section 14605 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

14605. A credit manager shall not disburse or have the authority to authorize any person to disburse the proceeds of any loan. A credit manager shall not authorize or make loans to other credit unions.

SEC. 13. Section 14750 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14750. Any officer, director, member of a committee of a credit union, credit manager, or loan officer appointed pursuant to Section 14602 who knowingly permits a loan to be made or participates in a loan to a nonmember of the credit union, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 14. Section 14751 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14751. Any officer, director, member of a committee, credit manager, or loan officer appointed pursuant to Section 14602 who violates Section 14750 is primarily liable to the credit union for the amount of the loan. The illegality of the loan is no defense in an action by the credit union to recover the amount of the loan.

SEC. 15. Section 15050 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

15050. No credit union shall:

(a) Make loans to any director, officer, member of the credit committee or in the alternative, the credit manager, or member of the supervisory committee directly or indirectly unless the loan complies with all lawful requirements of this division with respect to loans to other borrowers and is not on terms more favorable than those extended to other borrowers.

(b) Make loans to any director, officer, member of the credit committee or in the alternative, the credit manager, or member of the supervisory committee, directly or indirectly, not fully secured by shares or certificates for funds unless all of the following requirements are satisfied:

(1) Upon the making of the loan, the aggregate amount of loans outstanding, except loans fully secured by shares, to directors, officers, members of the credit committee and their alternates, or in the alternative, the credit manager, or members of the supervisory committee will not exceed 10 percent of the unimpaired capital and surplus of the credit union.

(2) The loan, except any portion fully secured by shares, does not exceed 1 percent of the unimpaired capital and surplus of the credit union, or the maximum obligation to the credit union prescribed by Section 15101, whichever is less.

(3) The loan is approved by the credit committee, or in the alternative, the credit manager and by the board of directors except that the credit manager shall not take part in any credit decision directly or indirectly for his or her benefit. The board of directors may select a loan officer to prepare a report and recommendation as to any extension of credit requested by the credit manager.

(4) The borrower takes no part in the consideration of his application and does not attend any committee or board meeting while his application is under consideration.

(5) The names of members of the credit committee, or in the alternative, the credit manager, and board of directors who voted to authorize or ratify the loan shall be entered in their respective minutes.

(c) Permit any director, officer, member of the credit committee, or in the alternative, the credit manager, or member of the supervisory committee to become surety for any loan or advance made by the credit union.

SEC. 16. Section 15051 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

15051. The board of directors shall declare the office of any director, officer, committee member, or the credit manager vacant if such person fails to reduce any indebtedness to the credit union for which he is liable in a timely manner according to the terms of the obligation.

SEC. 17. Section 15451 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

15451. (a) A central credit union may, with the approval of the commissioner and under such regulations as he shall prescribe, admit to membership groups of employees of a common employer, including the employer, whose place of employment is located within 25 miles of the principal office of the central credit union, or is located within the boundaries of a greater or lesser geographic area prescribed by the commissioner, upon application made by the employer and approval of the board of directors of the central credit union.

(b) In the event the employee group qualifies under the provisions of Section 14154, these employees may organize a separate credit union. The central credit union may, upon a plan approved by the commissioner, transfer the member accounts of these employees to any credit union formed by them.

SEC. 18. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 692

An act to add Section 4541 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to developmental disabilities.

[Approved by Governor September 2, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 2, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4541 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

4541. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that assurance of high quality services to persons with developmental disabilities is adversely affected by the lack of clear standards, the lack of a method for setting rates of reimbursement based upon these standards, and the lack of effective enforcement of these standards.

(b) The State Council on Developmental Disabilities, in consultation with the Health and Welfare Agency, shall conduct a study to determine the most feasible method of establishing and enforcing quality assurance standards and the most feasible method of setting rates based upon these standards.

Participants in this study shall include, but not be limited to, the State Department of Developmental Services, the California Association of Rehabilitation Facilities, the Association for Retarded Citizens—California, The Association of Regional Center Agencies, and other interested community and provider groups.

The study shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) The feasibility of creating a standards and rates commission.

(2) The feasibility of providing an existing state agency with the authority to set standards and rates as an alternative to paragraph (1).

(3) The results of the state council's study of alternative reimbursement mechanisms for day programs as required by Chapter 168 of the Statutes of 1982.

(c) On or before September 1, 1983, the State Council on Developmental Disabilities shall submit the results of the study pursuant to subdivision (b) to the Legislature together with a detailed plan, based upon the results of the study, to implement standards for quality assurance, rates based upon the standards, a method to enforce the standards, and processes for the vendorization or accreditation of service providers. The report shall include recommendations for specific legislation necessary to implement the proposed plan.

(d) For the purpose of the study required by this section, the Health and Welfare Agency and all departments under its jurisdiction shall make available personnel, equipment, and information required for completion of the study.

CHAPTER 693

An act to add Section 31393 to the Water Code, relating to county water districts, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 2, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 2, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 31393 is added to the Water Code, to read:

31393. (a) Any time following the establishment of an improvement district pursuant to this article, the board, by a four-fifths majority vote, may exempt part or all of the territory within the improvement district from liability for payment of principal, interest, and any other amounts which become due on account of any outstanding or then authorized but thereafter issued bonds of the county water district other than bonds issued for the improvement district. The board may adopt a resolution pursuant to this section only if it first makes all of the following findings:

(1) Bonds for the improvement district have received the voter approval required by this chapter and part or all of the improvement district bonds have been issued to provide benefit to the improvement district.

(2) The territory for which exemption is proposed was annexed to the district after the bonds of the county water district were authorized and prior to formation of the improvement district.

(3) The territory proposed for exemption from the county water district bonds receives or will receive greater benefit from the improvement district bonds than it receives or will receive from county water district bonds from which the territory is proposed for exemption.

(b) When the county water district adopts a resolution pursuant to this section, it shall file it, together with a sufficient description of the territory to be exempted from the bonded indebtedness, in accordance with Section 54902 of the Government Code. The county assessor and the State Board of Equalization shall give the resolution the same effect as a term and condition adopted pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 56470 of the Government Code; provided, however, the effective date of the resolution for tax purposes shall be determined by the filing date in accordance with Sections 54902 and 54902.1 of the Government Code.

(c) The provisions of this section apply only to the Yorba Linda County Water District.

SEC. 2. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that a special law is necessary and that a general law cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution because of unique and special water management problems within Improvement District No. 1 of the Yorba Linda County Water District which are not common to other districts organized pursuant to the County Water District Law. This act is necessary to permit elimination of certain overlapping bonded indebtedness within the improvement district and to provide for fair allocation of taxes among landowners according to the benefit derived from tax-supported general obligation bonds.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to eliminate inequitable double taxation for water facilities and to permit the equitable financing of vital water development facilities within county water districts at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 694

An act to amend Sections 2621, 2706, 2764, 3362, and 3372 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 2, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 2, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2621 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2621. After the second installment of taxes on the secured roll is delinquent, the tax collector shall collect a cost of ten dollars ($10) for preparing the delinquent tax records and giving notice of delinquency on each separate valuation on the secured roll of:

(a) Real property, except possessory interests.

(b) Possessory interests.

(c) Personal property cross-secured to real property.

The cost shall be collected even though the property appears on the roll due to a special assessment and no valuation of the property is given.

SEC. 2. Section 2706 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2706. After the second installment of taxes on the secured roll is delinquent, the tax collector shall collect a cost of ten dollars ($10) for preparing the delinquent tax records and giving notice of delinquency on each separate valuation on the secured roll of:

(a) Real property, except possessory interests.

(b) Possessory interests.

(c) Personal property cross-secured to real property.

The cost shall be collected even though the property appears on the roll due to a special assessment and no valuation of the property is given.

SEC. 3. Section 2764 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2764. After the fourth installment of taxes on the secured roll is delinquent, the tax collector shall collect a cost of ten dollars ($10) for preparing the delinquent tax records and giving notice of delinquency on each separate valuation of the secured roll of:

(a) Real property, except possessory interests.

(b) Possessory interests.

(c) Personal property cross-secured to real property.

The costs shall be collected even though the property appears on the roll due to a special assessment and no valuation of the property is given.

SEC. 4. Section 3362 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

3362. The published notice of intent to deed to the state shall show:

(a) The date of the notice.

(b) That the number of years prescribed by law will have elapsed on the date set for deeding to the state since the property was sold to the state.

(c) That the property will be deeded to the state, unless sooner redeemed or an installment plan of redemption is initiated.

(d) The date and time at which the property will be deeded to the state, which date and time shall not be less than 21 days after the first publication.

(e) That the amount for which the deed will be issued will be the total amount due for which the property was sold to the state.

(f) That if the property is deeded to the state, the right of redemption will terminate upon any subsequent sale, or other conveyance, by the state.

(g) The official who will furnish all information concerning redemption.

(h) The fact that if the property is deeded to the state, the state shall have exclusive power to rent tax-deeded property, and to receive certain proceeds arising in any manner from the property.

(i) The year of the sale to the state and the fiscal year for which the taxes were levied.

(j) A description of the property. The assessments contained in this notice of deeding shall be numbered in ascending numerical order.

(k) The amount for which the property is to be deeded, opposite the description of the property.

(l) The name of the assessee on the current roll.

(m) The street address of the property, if any, shown on the county assessment records.

SEC. 5. Section 3372 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

3372. The notice shall show:

(a) The affidavit of sale to the state.

(b) The fact that the real property may be redeemed by the payment of the amount of sold taxes together with such additional penalties and fees as prescribed by law, or that the real property may be redeemed under an installment plan of redemption.

(c) The official who will furnish all information concerning redemption.

(d) The following information relating to each assessment of tax-sold property:

(1) The name of the assessee, and where there is more than one valuation the name of the assessee need be listed only once. For the purposes of this section, the name of the assessee may be the name of the assessee as shown on the current roll.

(2) The description of the property.

(3) The total amount for which the property was sold.

(4) The street address of the property, if any, shown on the county assessment records.

This information required to be published is the "published delinquent list." If any property on the published delinquent list is redeemed, the information relating to the property may be omitted from any subsequent publications.

SEC. 6. The amendments to Sections 2621, 2706, 2764, 3362, and 3372 of the Revenue and Taxation Code made by this act shall become operative on July 1, 1983.

SEC. 7. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

CHAPTER 695

An act to repeal Article 9.5 (commencing with Section 5300) of, and to add Article 9.5 (commencing with Section 5301) to, Chapter 1 of Division 3 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 2, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 2, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 9.5 (commencing with Section 5300) of Chapter 1 of Division 3 of the Vehicle Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Article 9.5 (commencing with Section 5301) is added to Chapter 1 of Division 3 of the Vehicle Code, to read:

Article 9.5. Registration of Fleet Vehicles

5301. Notwithstanding any other provision of this code and Part 5 (commencing with Section 10701) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, the registered owner or lessee of a fleet of vehicles consisting of commercial motor vehicles or commercial trailers or passenger automobiles may, upon payment of appropriate fees, apply to the department for permanent license plates or decals and registration cards.

Fleets shall consist of at least 500 vehicles to qualify for this program.

5302. (a) Vehicles registered in any state other than California shall not be permitted to participate in this program.

(b) Section 4604 does not apply to vehicles registered under this article.

(c) The department may conduct an audit of the records of each fleet owner or lessee of the vehicle fleets electing to participate in the program. The department shall be fully reimbursed by the fleet owner or lessee for the costs of conducting the audits.

(d) Vehicles registered under this article shall display in a conspicuous place on both the right and the left side of each vehicle, the name, trademark, or logo of the company. The display of the name, trademark, or logo shall be in letters in sharp contrast to the background and shall be of such size, shape, and color as to be readily legible during daylight hours from a distance of 50 feet.

5303. (a) The applicant for initial issuance of permanent registration or renewal of registration shall file an application in such form as the department shall require.

(b) Upon initial application, the department shall issue a distinguishing license plate or decal which indicates that the vehicle has been registered under this article.

(c) Display of the distinguishing license plate or decal and registration card shall constitute prima facie evidence that the vehicle is currently registered.

5304. Renewal fees shall be paid pursuant to a schedule established by the department.

5305. In addition to any other fees due for vehicles registered pursuant to this article, the department may charge and collect a service fee of one dollar ($1) per fleet vehicle at the time the initial application is submitted to the department and a service fee of one dollar ($1) at the time of registration renewal of each fleet vehicle.

5306. Upon payment of appropriate fees, the license plate or decal and registration card issued pursuant to this article for the vehicle shall remain valid until the provisions of Section 5307 have been met.

5307. (a) A fleet vehicle registered under this article may be deleted from the identified fleet when the fleet operator notifies the department of the proposed deletion on a form approved by the department and the distinguishing license plate or decal and registration card issued for the vehicle are surrendered to the department.

(b) Failure to comply with subdivision (a) will require that the payment of fees due for the registration of the vehicle shall be the responsibility of the fleet owner as though the vehicle remained part of the fleet.

(c) The fees determined to be due and owing under this article shall be a lien upon all vehicles of the applicant of a type subject to registration under this code, and the provisions of Article 6 (commencing with Section 9800) of Chapter 6 shall apply.

5308. The director shall adopt procedures for initial application, payment of fees, fleet additions or deletions, and for the cancellation of the distinguishing plates or decals and registration card issued to a vehicle of a fleet owner or lessee who does not comply with this article.

5309. The registration of any identified fleet vehicle is required annually.

CHAPTER 696

An act to amend Sections 19173 and 19574 of the Government Code, relating to state civil service.

[Approved by Governor September 2, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 2, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19173 of the Government Code is amended to read:

19173. Any probationer may be rejected by the appointing power during the probationary period for reasons relating to the probationer's qualifications, the good of the service, or failure to demonstrate merit, efficiency, fitness, and moral responsibility, but he or she shall not be rejected for any cause constituting prohibited discrimination as set forth in Sections 19700 to 19703, inclusive.

A rejection during probationary period is effected by the service upon the probationer of a written notice of rejection which shall include: (a) an effective date for the rejection which shall not be later than the last day of the probationary period; and (b) a statement of the reasons for the rejection. Service of the notice shall be made prior to the effective date of the rejection, as defined by board rule for service of notices of adverse actions. Notice of rejection shall be served prior to the conclusion of the prescribed probationary period. The probationary period may be extended when necessary to provide the full notice period required by board rule. Within 15 days after the effective date of the rejection, a copy thereof shall be filed with the board.

SEC. 2. Section 19574 of the Government Code is amended to read:

19574. The appointing power, or its authorized representative, may take adverse action against an employee for one or more of the causes for discipline specified in this article. Adverse action is valid only if a written notice is served on the employee prior to the effective date of the action, as defined by board rule. The notice shall be served upon the employee either personally or by mail and shall include: (a) a statement of the nature of the adverse action; (b) the effective date of the action; (c) a statement of the reasons therefor in ordinary language; (d) a statement advising the employee of the right to answer the notice orally or in writing; and (e) a statement advising the employee of the time within which an appeal must be filed. The notice shall be filed with the board not later than 15 calendar days after the effective date of the adverse action.

CHAPTER 697

An act to amend Section 19140 of, and to add Section 19144 to, the Government Code, relating to state civil service.

[Approved by Governor September 2, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 2, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19140 of the Government Code is amended to read:

19140. In addition to reinstatement required under any other section, an appointing power may in his discretion, reinstate any person having probationary or permanent status who was separated from his position (a) by resignation, (b) by service retirement, (c) by termination from limited-term, temporary, career executive assignment, or exempt appointment, (d) under the provisions of Section 19503, or (e) without a break in continuity of state service to accept another civil service or exempt appointment.

Such reinstatement shall be:

(a) Subject to board rule; and

(b) Within three years unless the employee, other than members of the California Highway Patrol, has remained in state service without a break in the continuity of state service due to a permanent separation; and

(c) Subject to certification regarding eligibility pursuant to Section 20983.5, if applicable; and

(d) To a vacant position

(1) In the class vacated or from which separated, or

(2) In a lower class in the same series, or

(3) In a lower class in a related series requiring similar types of qualifications, knowledge, and abilities, or

(4) In another class having substantially similar duties, responsibilities, and qualifications, and substantially the same salary range; and

(e) Within five years for a state employee who was a miscellaneous member and who retired prior to January 1, 1979, due to mandatory retirement age provisions then in effect.

An employee separated from state service by layoff, or by resignation in lieu of layoff, may be reinstated at the discretion of the appointing power within five years or throughout the duration of the employee's reemployment list eligibility, whichever is longer; provided, however, that the reinstatement shall be subject to the requirements of this section and shall not be to a position that is specifically subject to the employee's reemployment list eligibility.

For reinstatement after separation, the time spent (a) in a position which is exempt from civil service or (b) as a temporary employee in another governmental agency engaged in a technical cooperation program under an agreement approved by the state or (c) in the recognized military service shall not be considered in computing the three-year period or the five-year period prescribed by this section.

SEC. 2. Section 19144 is added to the Government Code, to read:

19144. Subject to Sections 21152 and 21153, a person who has retired from state service may be employed temporarily in a civil service position at any time following retirement, provided that the position is either:

(a) In the class in which the person had permanent or probationary status at the time of retirement.

(b) In another class to which the person could have been permanently transferred, reinstated, or demoted at the time of retirement.

CHAPTER 698

An act to amend Section 44203 of the Education Code, relating to school employees.

[Approved by Governor September 4, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 44203 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44203. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Commission" means the Commission on Teacher Credentialing.

Whenever the term "Commission for Teacher Preparation and Licensing" appears in any law or regulation, it means the Commission on Teacher Credentialing.

(b) "Approved institution" means any institution approved by the commission.

(c) "Subject matter examination" means any objective examination approved by the commission as an instrument to measure subject matter knowledge. Successful passage of a subject matter examination or its waiver shall be mandatory for any intern or any applicant for a teaching credential.

(d) "Professional preparation" means either (1) at least nine semester units of professional education courses and one semester of approved full-time student teaching or its equivlent under the supervision of an approved college or university, or (2) an approved internship program of at least one year.

(e) "Fifth year" means a full academic year, or its equivalent, taken at an approved college or university after completion of a baccalaureate program. Institutions of higher education and public schools may be authorized to attest to a teacher's completion of this requirement. Minimum requirements for teaching credentials shall not include more than the equivalent of one-fifth of a five-year program in, or one year of, professional preparation of which at least one-half will be in student teaching.

(f) "In-service training" means any program of teacher education or preparation offered jointly by a school district and an approved college or university for the purposes of improving or upgrading a teacher's skills, knowledge, or instructional methods which is offered for credit and is approved by the commission.

(g) "Authorization" means the designation appearing on the teaching or service credential identifying the areas of instruction or service which the credential holder is permitted to perform.

(h) "Any grades" and "all grades" means grade 12 or below.

(i) "Rules, regulations, and determinations" means every rule, regulation, order, standard, or determination of general application or the amendment, supplement, or revision of any such rule, regulation, order, standard, or determination adopted by the commission to implement, interpret, or make specific the law enforced and administered by the commission.

CHAPTER 699

An act to add and repeal Chapter 1.8 (commencing with Section 13195) of Part 2 of Division 12 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to fire extinguisher systems.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 1.8 (commencing with Section 13195) is added to Part 2 of Division 12 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 1.8. AUTOMATIC FIRE EXTINGUISHER SYSTEMS

13195. The State Fire Marshal shall adopt and administer the regulations and building standards he or she deems necessary in order to (1) establish and control a program for servicing, testing, and maintaining all automatic fire extinguishing systems, including but not limited to, fire sprinkler systems, engineered and preengineered fixed extinguishing systems, standpipe systems, and water flow alarm devices and (2) establish minimum frequencies of service, inspection, and testing for the various types of automatic fire extinguishing systems. All tests of automatic sprinkler systems shall include a test of all supervisory signaling equipment that is provided to determine whether a condition exists that will impair the satisfactory operation of the system.

The regulations and building standards established by the State Fire Marshal for servicing, testing, and maintaining automatic fire extinguishing systems shall consider the requirements of the applicable standards of the National Fire Protection Association and the voluntary standards published by the State Fire Marshal entitled the "California Voluntary Standards for Residential Sprinkler Systems," dated January 1982.

13195.5. Every automatic fire extinguishing system, including, but not limited to, fire sprinkler systems, engineered and preengineered fixed extinguishing systems, standpipe systems, and alarm and supervisory equipment attached to those systems shall be serviced, tested, and maintained in accordance with the regulations and building standards adopted by the State Fire Marshal pursuant to Section 13195.

13196. The regulations and building standards adopted pursuant to Section 13195 shall be enforced pursuant to Sections 13145 and 13146.

13196.5. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c), no person shall engage in the business of servicing or testing automatic fire extinguishing systems without a license issued by the State Fire Marshal pursuant to this chapter.

(b) Persons who engage in the business of servicing or testing fire alarm devices, water flow alarm devices, or the supervisory signaling components of automatic fire extinguishing systems shall not be subject to the licensing requirements contained in this chapter.

(c) Industrial systems may be serviced or tested by, or under the supervision of, an engineer employed by a private entity who shall not be subject to the licensing requirements contained in this chapter unless he or she performs the service or testing for a fee outside of the employment relationship.

13197. The State Fire Marshal shall adopt regulations to establish and maintain the licensing program required by this chapter. To the extent the State Fire Marshal determines is necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter, the regulations may provide for, but need not be limited to, requirements that the applicant for a license pass an examination or possess the qualifications necessary to perform the prescribed service, maintenance, and testing, or both.

13197.5. A license may be denied or revoked by the State Fire Marshal for either of the following reasons:

(a) The applicant made a material misrepresentation or false statement in the application.

(b) Violation of any provision of this chapter or any regulation adopted by the State Fire Marshal pursuant to this chapter.

13198. The State Fire Marshal shall adopt a schedule of fees to be paid by licensees in an amount which is necessary to cover the cost of administering and enforcing the provisions of this chapter by the State Fire Marshal. Any city or county fire department, or any district providing fire protection services may adopt a schedule of fees as required to cover the cost of enforcing the provisions of this chapter.

13198.5. It is the legislative intention in enacting this chapter that the provisions of this chapter and the regulations and building standards adopted by the State Fire Marshal pursuant to Section 13195 shall apply uniformly throughout the State of California, and no state agency, county, city and county, or district shall adopt or enforce any ordinance or rule or regulation regarding automatic fire extinguishing systems which is inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter or the regulations and standards adopted by the State Fire Marshal.

13199. Any person who violates any provisions of this chapter or any regulation or building standard adopted by the State Fire Marshal pursuant to Section 13195 is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or by imprisonment for not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

A person is guilty of a separate offense each day during which he or she commits, continues, or permits a violation of this chapter or any regulation or building standards adopted pursuant to this chapter.

13199.5. This chapter shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1989, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act for the purpose of making reimbursement pursuant to these sections. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of that code.

CHAPTER 700

An act to amend Section 16302.1 of the Government Code, to amend Sections 18591.1, 18592, 18593, 23186, and 25666 of, and to add Sections 17208, 18685.08, 19412, 20645.7, 20645.9, 24349, and 25662.1 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, and to amend Section 5 of Chapter 903 of the Statutes of 1980, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 16302.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

16302.1. Whenever any person pays to any state agency pursuant to law an amount covering taxes, penalties, interest, license or other fees, or any other payment, and it is subsequently determined by the state agency responsible for the collection thereof that such amount includes an overpayment of ten dollars ($10) or less of the amount due the state pursuant to the assessment, levy, or charge to which the payment is applicable, the amount of such overpayment may be disposed of in either of the following ways:

(1) The state agency responsible for the collection to which the overpayment relates may apply the amount of such overpayment as a payment by such person on any other taxes, penalties, interest, license or other fees, or any other amount due the state from such person; provided, such state agency is responsible by law for the collection to which such overpayment is to be applied as a payment.

(2) Upon written request of the state agency responsible for the collection to which the overpayment relates, the amount of such overpayment shall, on order of the Controller, be deposited as revenue in the fund in the State Treasury into which such collection, exclusive of overpayments, is required by law to be deposited.

The State Board of Control may adopt rules and regulations to permit state agencies to retain such overpayments where a demand for refund permitted by law is not made within six months after the refund becomes due; and such retained overpayments shall belong to the state.

Except as provided in the foregoing paragraph, the provisions of this section shall not affect the right of any person making overpayment of any amount to the state to make claim for refund of such overpayment, nor the authority of any state agency or official to make payment of any amount so claimed, if otherwise authorized by law.

SEC. 1.5. Section 17208 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17208. (a) There shall be allowed as a depreciation deduction a reasonable allowance for the exhaustion, wear and tear (including a reasonable allowance for obsolescence)—

(1) Of property used in the trade or business; or

(2) Of property held for the production of income.

(b) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1958, the term "reasonable allowance" as used in subdivision (a) shall include (but shall not be limited to) an allowance computed in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board, under any of the following methods:

(1) The straight line method.

(2) The declining balance method, using a rate not exceeding twice the rate which would have been used had the annual allowance been computed under the method described in paragraph (1).

(3) The sum of the years-digits method.

(4) Any other consistent method productive of an annual allowance which, when added to all allowances for the period commencing with the taxpayer's use of the property and including the taxable year, does not, during the first two-thirds of the useful life of the property, exceed the total of such allowances which would have been used had such allowances been computed under the method described in paragraph (2).

Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to limit or reduce an allowance otherwise allowable under subdivision (a).

(c) Paragraphs (2), (3), and (4) of subdivision (b) shall apply only in the case of property (other than intangible property) described in subdivision (a) with a useful life of three years or more—

(1) The construction, reconstruction, or erection of which is completed after December 31, 1958, and then only to that portion of the basis which is properly attributable to the construction, reconstruction, or erection after December 31, 1958; or

(2) Acquired after December 31, 1958, if the original use of such property commences with the taxpayer and commences after that date.

(d) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1984.

SEC. 2. Section 18591.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18591.1. (a) For purposes of this part, the term "deficiency" means the amount by which the tax imposed by this part exceeds the excess of—

(1) The sum of—

(A) The amount shown as the tax by the taxpayer upon his return, if a return was made by the taxpayer and an amount was shown as the tax by the taxpayer thereon, plus

(B) The amounts previously assessed (or collected without assessment) as a deficiency, over—

(2) The amount of rebates, as defined in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), made.

(b) For purposes of this section—

(1) The tax imposed by this part and the tax shown on the return shall both be determined without regard to payments on account of estimated tax, and without regard to the credit under Section 18551.1.

(2) The term "rebate" means so much of an abatement, credit, refund, or other repayment, as was made on the ground that the tax imposed by this part was less than the excess of the amount specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) over the rebates previously made.

(3) The term "deficiency" shall include the amount by which a credit subject to carryover is reduced by any action of the Franchise Tax Board.

SEC. 3. Section 18592 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18592. If a protest is filed, the Franchise Tax Board shall reconsider the assessment of the deficiency and, if the taxpayer has so requested in his protest, shall grant the taxpayer or his authorized representatives an oral hearing. The Franchise Tax Board may act on the protest in whole or in part. In the event the Franchise Tax Board acts on the protest in part only, the remaining part of the protest shall continue to be under protest until the Franchise Tax Board acts on that part.

SEC. 4. Section 18593 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18593. The Franchise Tax Board's action upon the protest, whether in whole or in part, is final upon the expiration of 30 days from the date when it mails notice of its action to the taxpayer, unless within that 30-day period the taxpayer appeals in writing from the action of the Franchise Tax Board to the board.

SEC. 5. Section 18685.08 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

18685.08. (a) In addition to the criminal penalty provided by Section 19412, any tax preparer who endorses or otherwise negotiates (directly or through an agent) any warrant made in respect of the taxes imposed by this part which is issued to a taxpayer (other than the tax preparer) shall pay a penalty of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) with respect to each such warrant. The preceding sentence shall not apply with respect to the deposit by a bank (as defined by Section 581 of the Internal Revenue Code) of the full amount of the warrant in the taxpayer's account in that bank for the benefit of the taxpayer.

(b) For purposes of subdivision (a), "tax preparer" means any person who prepares for compensation, or who employs one or more persons to prepare for compensation, any return of tax imposed by this part or any claim for refund of tax imposed by this part. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the preparation of a substantial portion of a return or claim for refund shall be treated as if it were the preparation of that return or claim for refund.

A person shall not be a "tax preparer" merely because the person—

(1) Furnishes typing, reproducing, or other mechanical assistance.

(2) Prepares a return or claim for refund of the employer (or of an officer or employee of the employer) by whom that person is regularly and continuously employed.

(3) Prepares as a fiduciary a return or claim for refund for any person.

(c) This section shall not apply where the tax preparer has advanced the taxpayer an amount of money equal to or greater than the amount of the taxpayer's refund.

SEC. 6. Section 19412 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

19412. Any tax preparer, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 18685.08, who endorses or otherwise negotiates (directly or through an agent) any warrant made in respect of the taxes imposed by this part which is issued to a taxpayer (other than the tax preparer) shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or imprisoned not more than one year, or both, together with the costs of prosecution.

This section shall not apply where the tax preparer has advanced the taxpayer an amount of money equal to or greater than the amount of the taxpayer's tax refund.

SEC. 7. Section 20645.7 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

20645.7. (a) In addition to the criminal penalty provided by Section 20645.9, any tax preparer who endorses or otherwise negotiates (directly or through an agent) any warrant made with respect to assistance claimed under this part which is issued to a claimant (other than the tax preparer) shall pay a penalty of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) with respect to each such warrant. The preceding sentences shall not apply with respect to the deposit by a bank (as defined by Section 581 of the Internal Revenue Code) of the full amount of the warrant in the claimant's account in that bank for the benefit of the claimant.

(b) For purposes of subdivision (a), "tax preparer" means any person who prepares for compensation, or who employs one or more persons to prepare for compensation, any claim for assistance under this part. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the preparation of a substantial portion of such a claim shall be treated as if it were the preparation of the claim.

A person shall not be a "tax preparer" merely because the person—

(1) Furnishes typing, reproducing, or other mechanical assistance.

(2) Prepares as a fiduciary a claim for assistance for any person.

(c) This section shall not apply where the tax preparer has advanced the taxpayer an amount of money equal to or greater than the amount of the taxpayer's tax refund.

SEC. 8. Section 20645.9 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

20645.9. Any tax preparer, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 20645.7, who endorses or otherwise negotiates (directly or through an agent) any warrant made with respect to assistance claimed under this part which is issued to a claimant (other than the tax preparer) shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or imprisoned not more than one year, or both, together with the costs of prosecution.

This section shall not apply where the tax preparer has advanced the taxpayer an amount of money equal to or greater than the amount of the taxpayer's tax refund.

SEC. 9. Section 23186 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23186. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b) or subdivision (c), the rate of tax on banks and financial corporations shall be a percentage equal to the percentage of the total amount of net income, allocable to this state, of every corporation taxable under Section 23151 or subdivision (c) of Section 23151.1 or paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 23151.1, as the case may be, other than public utilities as defined in the Public Utilities Act, for the next preceding calendar year or fiscal years ended during such calendar year, required to be paid to this state as franchise taxes according to or measured by such net income, and required to be paid to this state or its political subdivisions by such corporations as personal property taxes during the preceding calendar year or fiscal years ended in such calendar year; provided, however, that said rate of tax shall not exceed 13 percent. The percentage of the net income of every corporation taxable under Section 23151, or subdivision (c) of Section 23151.1, or paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 23151.1, as the case may be, other than public utilities as defined in the Public Utilities Act, required to be paid to this state or its political subdivisions in personal property taxes shall be determined by ascertaining the ratio which the total amount of such personal property taxes, less 9 percent thereof, bears to the total amount of net income of such corporations allocable to California, increased by the amount of such personal property taxes; provided, however, that if any such corporation sustains a net loss allocable to California the personal property taxes required to be paid by such corporation to this state or its political subdivisions during the preceding calendar year or fiscal year ended during such calendar year shall be considered for the purpose of determining such ratio only to the extent which such personal property taxes exceed such net loss allocable to California.

(b) For income years ending in 1980, the rate of tax on banks and financial corporations shall be 11.6 percent. For income years ending in 1981 and thereafter, the rate shall be the rate prescribed in subdivision (d) of Section 23151, plus 2.0 percent.

(c) For income years ending in 1982 and thereafter, the rate of tax on banks and financial corporations shall be a percentage equal to the percentage of the total amount of net income, allocable to this state, of every corporation taxable under Section 23151 or subdivision (c) of Section 23151.1 or paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 23151.1, as the case may be, other than public utilities as defined in the Public Utilities Act, for the next preceding calendar year or fiscal years ended during such calendar year, required to be paid to this state as franchise taxes according to or measured by such net income, and required to be paid to this state or its political subdivisions by such corporations as personal property taxes and business license taxes during the preceding calendar year or fiscal years ended in such calendar year; provided, however, that said rate of tax shall not exceed 12 percent. The percentage of the net income of every corporation taxable under Section 23151, or subdivision (c) of Section

23151.1, or paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 23151.1, as the case may be, other than public utilities as defined in the Public Utilities Act, required to be paid to this state or its political subdivisions in personal property taxes and business license taxes shall be determined by ascertaining the ratio which the total amount of such personal property taxes and business license taxes, less the rate prescribed in subdivision (e) or (f) of Section 23151, whichever is the applicable percent thereof, bears to the total amount of net income of such corporations allocable to California, increased by the amount of such personal property taxes and business license taxes; provided, however, that if any such corporation sustains a net loss allocable to California the personal property taxes and business license taxes required to be paid by such corporation to this state or its political subdivisions during the preceding calendar year or fiscal years ended during such calendar year shall be considered for the purpose of determining such ratio only to the extent which such personal property taxes and business license taxes exceed such net loss allocable to California.

(d) For income years ending in 1982 and thereafter, for the purposes of subdivision (c), the total amount of personal property taxes and business license taxes required to be paid during the income year shall be based on a statistical sample by the Franchise Tax Board, consisting of all of the following:

(1) Every corporation with a net income of more than five million dollars ($5,000,000) for the income year.

(2) Every corporation required to pay one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) or more of personal property tax or business license tax, or a combination thereof, during the income year.

(3) Two percent or more of all other corporations on a random basis.

For the purposes of this subdivision, corporation means a corporation taxable under Section 23151, or subdivision (c) of Section 23151.1, or paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 23151.1, as the case may be, other than public utilities as defined in the Public Utilities Act.

(e) For the purpose of verifying local business license taxes reported by corporations taxable under Section 23151, or subdivision (c) of Section 23151.1 or paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 23151.1, as the case may be, other than public utilities as defined in the Public Utilities Act, the Franchise Tax Board is authorized to receive source information listings directly from the cities as to the amount of business license taxes paid and the date of payment for each taxpayer subject to the business license tax, notwithstanding any city ordinance prohibiting that disclosure.

(f) The Franchise Tax Board shall redetermine the rate of tax for banks and corporations determined in 1979 (and 1980 if applicable), taking into account additional local tax billings prior to January 1, 1982, resulting from the final court decision not to uphold the application of the tax rate provided by Article XIII A of the Constitution to the 1978–79 unsecured roll. Any additional taxes resulting from the redetermined rate will be due and payable within 30 days of mailing of a notice and demand by the Franchise Tax Board. In making the redetermination, the Franchise Tax Board shall utilize the statistical sampling method provided in subdivision (d), except that business license taxes shall not be taken into account.

SEC. 10. Section 24349 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

24349. (a) There shall be allowed as a depreciation deduction a reasonable allowance for the exhaustion, wear, and tear (including a reasonable allowance for obsolescence)—

(1) Of property used in the trade or business; or

(2) Of property held for the production of income.

(b) For income years ending after December 31, 1958, the term "reasonable allowance" as used in subdivision (a) shall include (but shall not be limited to) an allowance computed in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board, under any of the following methods:

(1) The straight line method.

(2) The declining balance method, using a rate not exceeding twice the rate which would have been used had the annual allowance been computed under the method described in paragraph (1).

(3) The sum of the years-digits method.

(4) Any other consistent method productive of an annual allowance which, when added to all allowances for the period commencing with the taxpayer's use of the property and including the income year, does not, during the first two-thirds of the useful life of the property, exceed the total of such allowances which would have been used had such allowances been computed under the method described in paragraph (2).

Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to limit or reduce an allowance otherwise allowable under subdivision (a).

(c) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1984.

SEC. 11. Section 25662.1 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

25662.1. (a) For purposes of this part, the term "deficiency" means the amount by which the tax imposed by this part exceeds the excess of—

(1) The sum of—

(A) The amount shown as the tax by the taxpayer upon its return, if a return was made by the taxpayer and an amount was shown as the tax by the taxpayer thereon, plus

(B) The amounts previously assessed (or collected without assessment) as a deficiency, over—

(2) The amount of rebates, as defined in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), made.

(b) For purposes of this section—

(1) The tax imposed by this part and the tax shown on the return shall both be determined without regard to payments on account of estimated tax.

(2) "Rebate" means so much of an abatement, credit, refund, or other repayment, as was made on the ground that the tax imposed by this part was less than the excess of the amount specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) over the rebates previously made.

(3) The term "deficiency" shall include the amount by which a credit subject to carryover is reduced by any action of the Franchise Tax Board.

SEC. 12. Section 25666 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

25666. (a) If a protest is filed, the Franchise Tax Board shall reconsider the proposed assessment, and if the taxpayer has so requested in its protest, shall grant the taxpayer, or its authorized representatives an oral hearing. The Franchise Tax Board may act on the protest in whole or in part. In the event the Franchise Tax Board acts on the protest in part only, the remaining part of the protest shall continue to be under protest until the Franchise Tax Board acts on that part.

(b) The Franchise Tax Board's action upon the protest is final, whether in whole or in part, upon the expiration of 30 days from the date when it mails notice of its action to the taxpayer unless within the 30-day period the taxpayer appeals in writing from the action of the Franchise Tax Board to the board.

SEC. 13. Section 5 of Chapter 903 of the Statutes of 1980 is amended to read:

Sec. 5. The provisions of this act shall have no force or effect in the computation of taxes for taxable years and income years which begin after December 31, 1983; provided, however, that any unused credit may be used beyond that date on the same basis and to the same extent as permitted under the law immediately prior to January 1, 1984; and provided further, that the 36-month period for depreciation of a solar energy system and allowable conservation measures may, if begun in taxable years and income years prior to January 1, 1984, be continued beyond that date until the 36-month period is completed.

The provisions of this act shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1984, and as of such date are repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before such date, deletes or extends such date; however, the provisions of Sections 1 and 2 of this act shall be used in the computation of taxes for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1984, and the provisions of Sections 3 and 4 of this act shall be used in the computation of taxes for income years beginning before January 1, 1984.

SEC. 14. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 701

An act to amend Section 22229 of the Education Code, relating to the State Teachers' Retirement System.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22229 of the Education Code is amended to read:

22229. The members of the Teachers' Retirement Board who are not members of the system and who are appointed by the Governor pursuant to Section 22200 shall receive one hundred dollars ($100) for every day of actual attendance at meetings of the board or any meeting of any committee of the board of which committee such person is a member, and which committee is conducted for the purpose of carrying out the powers and duties of the board, together with their necessary traveling expenses incurred in connection with performance of their official duties.

CHAPTER 702

An act to amend Sections 18530, 19080, and 19080.5 of, and to add Section 19080.3 to, the Government Code, relating to state employees.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18530 of the Government Code is amended to read:

18530. "Limited term employee" means an employee whose appointment as a result of reinstatement or certification from an employment list shall not exceed two years, as specified by Section 19080.3.

SEC. 2. Section 19080 of the Government Code is amended to read:

19080. Whenever an appointing power requires the appointment of a person on a limited term basis, the request for certification shall state the duration of the position.

SEC. 3. Section 19080.3 is added to the Government Code, to read:

19080.3. Limited term appointments shall be made only for temporary staffing needs and shall not individually or consecutively exceed one year, provided that the board may authorize limited term appointments of up to a total of two years' duration when a permanent appointment would be likely to cause a layoff, demotion, or mandatory transfer requiring a change of residence upon the conclusion of the temporary staffing need. Limited term appointments may be extended within the time limits prescribed by this section without making an additional appointment.

SEC. 4. Section 19080.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

19080.5. (a) Notwithstanding Section 19080.3, a limited term appointment for a period not to exceed two years may be made to professional education classifications established for use by the Department of Education to facilitate the professional development of experienced professional educators. Any individual may not receive more than one such appointment within a five-year period. The number of such appointments at any point in time shall not exceed 10 percent of the professional education staff employed by the Department of Education. The request for certification shall state the duration of the appointment. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any person employed by the Department of Education in a civil service position on the effective date of this section.

(b) If the provisions of this section are in conflict with the provisions of a memorandum of understanding reached pursuant to Section 3517.5, the memorandum of understanding shall be controlling without further legislative action, except that if such provisions of a memorandum of understanding require the expenditure of funds, the provisions shall not become effective unless approved by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act.

CHAPTER 703

An act to amend Section 27454 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 27454 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

27454. No tire on any vehicle upon any highway shall have on its periphery any block, stud, flange, cleat, ridge, bead, or any other protuberance of metal or wood which projects beyond the tread of the traction surface of the tire.

This section does not apply to the following:

(a) Tire chains of reasonable size used to prevent skidding when upon wet surfaces or when upon snow or ice.

(b) Pneumatic tires which have embedded therein wire not to exceed 0.075 of an inch in diameter and which are so constructed that under no conditions will the percentage of metal in contact with the roadway exceed 5 percent of the total tire area in contact with the roadway, except that during the first 1,000 miles of use or operation of any such tire, the metal in contact with the roadway may exceed 5 percent of the tire area in contact with the roadway, but shall in no event exceed 20 percent of such area.

(c) Vehicles operated upon unimproved roadways when necessary in the construction or repair of highways.

(d) Traction engines or tractors when operated under the conditions of a permit first obtained from the Department of Transportation.

(e) Pneumatic tires containing metal-type studs of tungsten carbide or other suitable material and which are so inserted or constructed that under no conditions will the number of studs or the percentage of metal in contact with the roadway exceed 3 percent of the total tire area in contact with the roadway, between the first day of November and the first day of April. The Commissioner of the California Highway Patrol, after consultation with the Department of Transportation, may extend the period during which studded pneumatic tires may be used in any area of the state for the protection of the public because of adverse weather conditions.

This subdivision shall remain in effect until April 1, 1984, and shall have no force or effect after that date.

(f) Pneumatic tires used on an authorized emergency vehicle as defined in Section 165, containing metal-type studs of tungsten carbide or other suitable material, and which are so inserted or constructed that under no conditions will the number of studs or the percentage of metal in contact with the roadway exceed 3 percent of the total tire area in contact with the roadway. Notwithstanding subdivision (e), emergency vehicles shall be permitted the unrestricted use of pneumatic tires throughout the year.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that the period, within which the use of pneumatic metal studded tires is permitted, may be extended for the protection of drivers upon the highways from hazards resulting from unpredictable and often severe snowstorms, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 704

An act to amend Sections 396b, 431.10, 435, 472a, 585, 586, 589, and 591 of, and to add Sections 436, 437, and 1019.5 to, and to repeal Section 453 of, the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to procedure in civil cases.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 396b of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

396b. (a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 396a, if an action or proceeding is commenced in a court having jurisdiction of the subject matter thereof, other than the court designated as the proper court for the trial thereof, under the provisions of this title, the action may, notwithstanding, be tried in the court where commenced, unless the defendant, at the time he or she answers, demurs, or moves to strike, or, at his or her option, without answering, demurring, or moving to strike and within the time otherwise allowed to respond to the complaint, files with the clerk, or with the judge if there is no clerk, a notice of motion for an order transferring the action or proceeding to the proper court, together with proof of service, upon the adverse party, of a copy of such papers. Upon the hearing of such motion the court shall, if it appears that the action or proceeding was not commenced in the proper court, order the action or proceeding transferred to the proper court.

(b) In its discretion, the court may order the payment to the prevailing party of reasonable expenses and attorney's fees incurred in making or resisting such motion whether or not such party is otherwise entitled to recover his or her costs of action. In determining whether such order for expenses and fees shall be made, the court shall take into consideration (1) whether an offer to stipulate to change of venue was reasonably made and rejected, and (2) whether such motion or selection of venue was made in good faith given the facts and law the party making the motion or selecting the venue knew or should have known. As between the party and his or her attorney, such expenses and fees shall be the personal liability of the attorney not chargeable to the party.

(c) The court in a proceeding for dissolution of marriage or legal separation, may, prior to the determination of the motion to transfer, consider and determine motions for allowance of temporary alimony, support of children, counsel fees and costs, and make all necessary and proper orders in connection therewith.

(d) In any case, if an answer is filed, the court may consider opposition to the motion to transfer, if any, and may retain the action in the county where commenced if it appears that the convenience of the witnesses or the ends of justice will thereby be promoted.

(e) If the motion to transfer is denied, the court shall allow the defendant time to move to strike, demur, or otherwise plead if the defendant has not previously filed a response.

SEC. 2. Section 431.10 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

431.10. (a) A material allegation in a pleading is one essential to the claim or defense, which could not be stricken from the pleading without leaving it insufficient.

(b) An immaterial allegation is any of the following:

(1) An allegation that is not essential to the claim or defense.

(2) An allegation that has no proper relationship to a claim or defense otherwise properly pleaded.

(3) A demand for judgment requesting relief not supported by the allegations of the complaint or cross-complaint.

(c) An "immaterial allegation" means "irrelevant matter" as that term is used in Sections 436 and 589.

SEC. 3. Section 435 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

435. (a) As used in this section:

(1) The term "complaint" includes a cross-complaint.

(2) The term "pleading" means a demurrer, answer, complaint, or cross-complaint.

(b) (1) Any party, within the time allowed to respond to a pleading may serve and file a notice of motion to strike the whole or any part thereof.

(2) A notice of motion to strike the answer or the complaint, or a portion thereof, shall specify a hearing date set in accordance with Section 1005.

(3) A notice of motion to strike a demurrer, or a portion thereof, shall set the hearing thereon concurrently with the hearing on the demurrer.

(c) If a party serves and files a notice of motion to strike without demurring to the complaint, the time to answer is extended and no default may be entered against that defendant, except as provided in Sections 585 and 586.

(d) The filing of a notice of motion to strike an answer or complaint, or portion thereof, shall not extend the time within which to demur.

SEC. 3.5. Section 436 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

436. The court may, upon a motion made pursuant to Section 435, or at any time in its discretion, and upon terms it deems proper:

(a) Strike from any pleading any irrelevant, false, or improper matter inserted therein.

(b) Strike any pleading or part thereof not drawn or filed in conformity with the laws of this state, a court rule, or an order of the court.

SEC. 4. Section 437 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

437. (a) The grounds for a motion to strike shall appear on the face of the challenged pleading or from any matter of which the court is required to take judicial notice.

(b) Where the motion to strike is based on matter of which the court may take judicial notice pursuant to Section 452 or 453 of the Evidence Code, such matter shall be specified in the notice of motion, or in the supporting points and authorities, except as the court may otherwise permit.

SEC. 5. Section 453 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 472a of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

472a. (a) A demurrer is not waived by an answer filed (or entered in the docket in the justice court) at the same time.

(b) Except as otherwise provided by rule adopted by the Judicial Council, when a demurrer to a complaint or to a cross-complaint is overruled and there is no answer filed (or entered), the court shall allow an answer to be filed (or entered) upon such terms as may be just. If a demurrer to the answer is overruled, the action shall proceed as if no demurrer had been interposed, and the facts alleged in the answer shall be considered as denied to the extent mentioned in Section 431.20.

(c) When a demurrer is sustained, the court may grant leave to amend the pleading and shall fix the time within which the amendment or amended pleading shall be filed, or entered in the docket.

SEC. 6.5. Section 585 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

585. Judgment may be had, if the defendant fails to answer the complaint, as follows:

(a) In an action arising upon contract or judgment for the recovery of money or damages only, if the defendant has, or if more than one defendant, if any of the defendants have, been served, other than by publication, and no answer, demurrer, notice of motion to strike (of the character hereinafter specified), notice of motion to transfer pursuant to Section 396b, notice of motion to quash service of summons or to stay or dismiss the action pursuant to Section 418.10, or notice of the filing of a petition for writ of mandate as provided in Section 418.10 has been filed with the clerk or judge of the court within the time specified in the summons, or such further time as may be allowed, the clerk, or the judge if there is no clerk, upon written application of the plaintiff, and proof of the service of summons, shall enter the default of the defendant or defendants, so served, and immediately thereafter enter judgment for the principal amount demanded in the complaint or a lesser amount if credit has been acknowledged, together with interest allowed by law or in accordance with the terms of the contract, and the costs against the defendant, or defendants, or against one or more of the defendants. If, by rule of court, a schedule of attorneys' fees to be allowed has been adopted, the clerk may include in the judgment attorneys' fees in accordance with such schedule (1) if the contract provides that attorneys' fees shall be allowed in the event of an action thereon, or (2) if the action is one in which the plaintiff is entitled by statute to recover attorneys' fees in addition to money or damages. The plaintiff shall have the right, however, upon filing a written request at the time of application for entry of the default of the defendant or defendants, to have attorneys' fees fixed by the court, whereupon, after the entry of the default, the court shall hear the application for determination of the attorneys' fees and shall render judgment for such fees and for the other relief demanded in the complaint, or a lesser amount if credit has been acknowledged, and the costs against the defendant, or defendants, or against one or more of the defendants.

(b) In other actions, if the defendant has been served, other than by publication, and no answer, demurrer, notice of motion to strike (of the character hereinafter specified), notice of motion to transfer pursuant to Section 396b, notice of motion to quash service of summons or to stay or dismiss the action pursuant to Section 418.10 or notice of the filing of a petition for writ of mandate as provided in Section 418.10 has been filed with the clerk or judge of the court within the time specified in the summons, or such further time as may be allowed, the clerk, or the judge if there is no clerk, upon written application of the plaintiff, shall enter the default of the defendant. The plaintiff thereafter may apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint; the court shall hear the evidence offered by the plaintiff, and shall render judgment in his or her favor for such sum (not exceeding the amount stated in the complaint), as appears by such evidence to be just. If the taking of an account, or the proof of any fact, is necessary to enable the court to give judgment or to carry the judgment into effect, the court may take the account or hear the proof, or may, in its discretion, order a reference for that purpose. If the action is for the recovery of damages, in whole or in part, the court may order the damages to be assessed by a jury; or if, to determine the amount of damages, the examination of a long account is involved by a reference as above provided.

(c) In all actions where the service of the summons was by publication the plaintiff, upon the expiration of the time for answering, may, upon proof of the publication, and that no answer, demurrer, notice of motion to strike (of the character hereinafter specified), notice of motion to transfer pursuant to Section 396b, notice of motion to quash service of summons or to stay or dismiss the action pursuant to Section 418.10, or notice of the filing of a petition for writ of mandate as provided in Section 418.10 has been filed, apply in writing for judgment. The court shall thereupon require proof to be made of the allegations of the complaint; and if the defendant is not a resident of the state, shall require the plaintiff, or his agent, to be examined, on oath, respecting any payments that have been made to the plaintiff, or to anyone for his or her use, on account of any demand mentioned in the complaint, and may render judgment for the amount which he or she is entitled to recover. In all cases affecting the title to or possession of real property, where the service of the summons was by publication and the defendant has failed to answer, no judgment shall be rendered upon proof of mere occupancy, unless such occupancy shall have continued for the time and shall have been of the character necessary to confer title by prescription. In all cases where the plaintiff bases his or her claim upon a paper title, the court shall require evidence establishing plaintiff's equitable right to judgment before rendering judgment. In actions involving only the possession of real property where the complaint is verified and shows by proper allegations that no party to the action claims title to the real property involved, either by prescription, accession, transfer, will, or succession, but only the possession thereof, the court may render judgment upon proof of occupancy by plaintiff and ouster by defendant.

A notice of motion to strike within the meaning of this section is a notice of motion to strike the whole or any part of a pleading filed within the time which the moving party is required otherwise to plead to such pleading. The notice of motion to strike shall specify a hearing date set in accordance with Section 1005. The filing of such notice of motion does not extend the time within which to demur.

(d) In the cases referred to in subdivisions (b) and (c), or upon an application to have attorneys' fees fixed by the court pursuant to subdivision (a), the court in its discretion may permit the use of affidavits, in lieu of personal testimony, as to all or any part of the evidence or proof required or permitted to be offered, received, or heard in such cases. The facts stated in such affidavit or affidavits shall be within the personal knowledge of the affiant and shall be set forth with particularity, and each affidavit shall show affirmatively that the affiant, if sworn as a witness, can testify competently thereto.

SEC. 7. Section 586 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

586. In the following cases the same proceedings shall be had, and judgment shall be rendered in the same manner, as if the defendant had failed to answer:

1. If the complaint has been amended, and the defendant fails to answer it, as amended, or demur thereto, or file a notice of motion to strike, of the character specified in Section 585, within 30 days after service thereof or within the time allowed by the court.

2. If the demurrer to the complaint is overruled and a motion to strike, of the character specified in Section 585, is denied, or where only one thereof is filed, if the demurrer is overruled or the motion to strike is denied, and the defendant fails to answer the complaint within the time allowed by the court.

3. If a motion to strike, of the character specified in Section 585, is granted in whole or in part, and the defendant fails to answer the unstricken portion of the complaint within the time allowed by the court, no demurrer having been sustained or being then pending.

4. If a motion to quash service of summons or to stay or dismiss, the action has been filed or writ of mandate sought and notice thereof given, as provided in Section 418.10, and upon denial of such motion or writ, defendant fails to plead to the complaint, within the time provided in such section or as otherwise provided by law.

5. If the demurrer to the answer is sustained and the defendant fails to amend the answer within the time allowed by the court.

6. (a) If a motion to transfer pursuant to Section 396b is denied and the defendant fails to respond to the complaint within the time allowed by the court pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 396b or within the time provided in subdivision (c).

(b) If a motion to transfer pursuant to Section 396b is granted and the defendant fails to respond to the complaint within 15 days of the mailing of notice of the filing and case number by the clerk of the court to which the action or proceeding is transferred or within the time provided in subdivision (c).

(c) If the order granting or denying a motion to transfer pursuant to Section 396a or 396b is the subject of an appeal pursuant to Section 904.2 or 904.3 in which a stay is granted or of a mandate proceeding pursuant to Section 400, the court having jurisdiction over the trial, upon application or on its own motion after such appeal or mandate proceeding becomes final or upon earlier termination of a stay, shall allow the defendant a reasonable time to respond to the complaint. Notice of the order allowing the defendant further time to respond to the complaint shall be promptly served by the party who obtained such order or by the clerk if the order is made on the court's own motion.

(d) For the purposes of this section, "to respond" means: to answer, to demur, or to move to strike.

SEC. 8. Section 589 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

589. An issue of law arises:

(a) Upon a demurrer to the complaint, cross-complaint, or answer, or to some part thereof.

(b) Upon a motion to strike when the grounds thereof are that the matter inserted in the pleading is false, irrelevant, or improper.

SEC. 9. Section 591 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

591. An issue of law must be tried by the court, unless it is referred upon consent; provided, however, that failure on the part of any person filing any demurrer to prosecute the same may be construed as a waiver of such demurrer, except as otherwise provided in Section 430.80 of this code.

SEC. 10. Section 1019.5 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

1019.5. When a motion is granted or denied, unless the court otherwise orders, notice of the court's decision or order shall be given by the prevailing party to all other parties or their attorneys, in the manner provided in this chapter, unless notice is waived by all parties in open court and is entered in the minutes.

CHAPTER 705

An act to amend Sections 43.7 and 43.8 of the Civil Code, and to amend Section 1157 of the Evidence Code, relating to immunity.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 43.7 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

43.7. (a) There shall be no monetary liability on the part of, and no cause of action for damages shall arise against, any member of a duly appointed mental health professional quality assurance committee that is established in compliance with Sections 4070 and 5624 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, for any act or proceeding undertaken or performed within the scope of the functions of any such committee which is formed to review and evaluate the adequacy, appropriateness, or effectiveness of the care and treatment planned for, or provided to, mental health patients in order to improve quality of care by mental health professionals if such committee member acts without malice, has made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acts, and acts in reasonable belief that the action taken by him or her is warranted by the facts known to him or her after such reasonable effort to obtain facts.

(b) There shall be no monetary liability on the part of, and no cause of action for damages shall arise against, any member of a duly appointed committee of a state or local professional society, or duly appointed member of a committee of a professional staff of a licensed hospital (provided the professional staff operates pursuant to written bylaws that have been approved by the governing board of the hospital), for any act or proceeding undertaken or performed within the scope of the functions of any such committee which is formed to maintain the professional standards of the society established by its bylaws, or any member of any peer review committee whose purpose is to review the quality of medical, dental, or veterinary services rendered by physicians and surgeons, dentists, dental hygienists, podiatrists, veterinarians, or psychologists which committee is composed chiefly of physicians and surgeons, dentists, dental hygienists, podiatrists, veterinarians, or psychologists for any act or proceeding undertaken or performed in reviewing the quality of medical, dental, or veterinary services rendered by physicians and surgeons, dentists, dental hygienists, podiatrists, veterinarians, or psychologists or any member of the governing board of a hospital in reviewing the quality of medical services rendered by members of the staff if such committee or board member acts without malice, has made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acts, and acts in reasonable belief that the action taken by him or her is warranted by the facts known to him or her after such reasonable effort to obtain facts. "Professional society" includes legal, medical, psychological, dental, dental hygiene, accounting, optometric, podiatric, pharmaceutic, chiropractic, physical therapist, veterinary, and engineering organizations having as members at least a majority of the eligible licentiates in the geographic area served by the particular society.

(c) The provisions of this section do not affect the official immunity of an officer or employee of a public corporation.

(d) There shall be no monetary liability on the part of, and no cause of action for damages shall arise against, any physician and surgeon or podiatrist who is a member of an underwriting committee of an interindemnity or reciprocal or interinsurance exchange or mutual company for any act or proceeding undertaken or performed in evaluating physicians and surgeons or podiatrists for the writing of professional liability insurance, or any act or proceeding undertaken or performed in evaluating physicians and surgeons for the writing of an interindemnity, reciprocal, or interinsurance contract as specified in Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code, if such evaluating physician or surgeon or podiatrist acts without malice, has made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acts, and acts in reasonable belief that the action taken by him or her is warranted by the facts known to him or her after such reasonable effort to obtain such facts.

(e) This section shall not be construed to confer immunity from liability on any quality assurance committee established in compliance with Sections 4070 and 5624 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, professional society, or hospital. In any case in which, but for the enactment of the preceding provisions of this section, a cause of action would arise against a quality assurance committee established in compliance with Sections 4070 and 5624 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, hospital, or professional society, such cause of action shall exist as if the preceding provisions of this section had not been enacted.

SEC. 2. Section 43.8 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

43.8. In addition to the privilege afforded by Section 47, there shall be no monetary liability on the part of, and no cause of action for damages shall arise against, any person on account of the communication of information in the possession of such person to any hospital, hospital medical staff, veterinary hospital staff professional society, medical, dental, or veterinary school, professional licensing board or division, committee or panel of such licensing board, peer review committee, quality assurance committees established in compliance with Sections 4070 and 5624 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or underwriting committee described in Section

43.7 when such communication is intended to aid in the evaluation of the qualifications, fitness, character, or insurability of a practitioner of the healing or veterinary arts and does not represent as true any matter not reasonably believed to be true. The immunities afforded by this section and by Section 43.7 shall not affect the availability of any absolute privilege which may be afforded by Section 47.

SEC. 3. Section 1157 of the Evidence Code is amended to read:

1157. Neither the proceedings nor the records of organized committees of medical, medical-dental or veterinary staffs in hospitals having the responsibility of evaluation and improvement of the quality of care rendered in the hospital or medical or dental review or dental hygienist review or chiropractive review or veterinary review committees of local medical, dental, dental hygienist, veterinary, or chiropractic societies shall be subject to discovery. Except as hereinafter provided, no person in attendance at a meeting of any such committee shall be required to testify as to what transpired thereat. The prohibition relating to discovery or testimony shall not apply to the statements made by any person in attendance at such a meeting who is a party to an action or proceeding the subject matter of which was reviewed at such meeting, or to any person requesting hospital staff privileges, or in any action against an insurance carrier alleging bad faith by the carrier in refusing to accept a settlement offer within the policy limits.

The prohibitions contained in this section shall not apply to medical, dental, dental hygienist, veterinary or chiropractic society committees that exceed 10 percent of the membership of the society, nor to any such committee if any person serves upon the committee when his own conduct or practice is being reviewed.

CHAPTER 706

An act to add Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 740) to Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 1 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 740) is added to Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 1 of the Insurance Code, to read:

Article 4.5. Special Provisions Regarding Health Coverage

740. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, and except as provided herein, any person or other entity which provides coverage in this state for medical, surgical, chiropractic, physical therapy, speech pathology, audiology, professional mental health, dental, hospital, or optometric expenses, whether such coverage is by direct payment, reimbursement, or otherwise, shall be presumed to be subject to the jurisdiction of the department unless the person or other entity shows that while providing such services it is subject to the jurisdiction of another agency of this or another state or the federal government.

(b) A person or entity may show that it is subject to the jurisdiction of another agency of this or another state or the federal government by providing to the commissioner the appropriate certificate or license issued by the other governmental agency which permits or qualifies it to provide those services for which it is licensed or certificated.

(c) Any person or entity which is unable to show that it is subject to the jurisdiction of another agency of this or another state or the federal government, shall submit to an examination by the commissioner to determine the organization and solvency of the person or the entity, and to determine whether or not such person or entity is in compliance with the applicable provisions of this code.

(d) Any person or entity unable to show that it is subject to the jurisdiction of another agency of this or another state or the federal government shall be subject to all appropriate provisions of this code regarding the conduct of its business.

(e) The department shall prepare and maintain for public inspection a list of those persons or entities described in subdivision (a) which are not subject to the jurisdiction of another agency of this or another state or the federal government and which the department knows to be operating in this state. There shall be no liability of any kind on the part of the state, the department, and its employees for the accuracy of such list or for any comments made with respect to it.

(f) Any administrator licensed by the department who advertises or administers coverage in this state described in subdivision (a), which is provided by any person or entity described in subdivision (c), and where such coverage does not meet all pertinent requirements specified in this code and which is not provided or completely underwritten, insured or otherwise fully covered by an admitted life or disability insurer, hospital service plan or health care service plan, shall advise and disclose to any purchaser, prospective purchaser, covered person or entity, and any production agency licensed by the department involved in the transaction, all financial and operational information relative to the content and scope of the plan and, specifically, as to the lack of insurance or other coverage.

Any production agency obtaining knowledge of any coverage relative to the content and scope of a hospital service plan or health care service plan, as required under this subdivision, shall advise and disclose to any purchaser, prospective purchaser, covered person or entity, such knowledge regarding the content and scope of the plan and, specifically, as to the lack of insurance by an admitted carrier or other qualified plan.

(g) A health care service plan, as defined in Chapter 2.2 (commencing with Section 1340) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, shall not be subject to the provisions of this section.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

There are entities operating within this state which provide insurance coverage; however, they are not presently regulated. In order to protect the interests of consumers in this state, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 707

An act to add and repeal Section 4511 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to fairs.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4511 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

4511. (a) All county fairs and citrus fruit fairs shall, prior to entering into a carnival contract, do both of the following:

(1) Notify all persons on the department's list of qualified carnival contractors of the contract opportunity at least 180 days prior to entering into the contract.

(2) Provide all applicants for the carnival contract a hearing before the board or governing authority on their proposal.

(b) If a county fair or citrus fruit fair enters into a carnival contract with a person other than the highest bidder, it shall submit a justification for that action to the department.

(c) No county fair or citrus fruit fair shall enter into a carnival contract for a term which exceeds three years without the approval of the department.

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1989, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act for the purpose of making reimbursement pursuant to these sections. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of that code.

CHAPTER 708

An act to add Sections 6375.5 and 6901.5 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6375.5 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

6375.5. There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this part the gross receipts from the sale of, and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of, new children's clothing which is sold to a nonprofit organization for its distribution without charge to elementary school children.

For purposes of this section, "nonprofit organization" means an organization which meets all of the following criteria:

(a) Is organized and operated for charitable purposes.

(b) Has exempt status under Section 23701d.

(c) Is engaged in the relief of poverty and distress.

(d) Distributes new children's clothing principally as a matter of assistance to recipients in distressed financial conditions.

SEC. 2. Section 6901.5 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

6901.5. When an amount represented by a person to a customer as constituting reimbursement for taxes due under this part is computed upon an amount that is not taxable or is in excess of the taxable amount and is actually paid by the customer to the person, the amount so paid shall be returned by the person to the customer upon notification by the Board of Equalization or by the customer that such excess has been ascertained. In the event of his or her failure or refusal to do so, the amount so paid, if knowingly or mistakenly computed by the person upon an amount that is not taxable or is in excess of the taxable amount, shall be remitted by that person to this state. However, those amounts remitted to the state shall be credited by the board on any amounts due and payable under this part on the same transaction from the person by whom it was paid to this state and the balance, if any, shall constitute an obligation due from the person to this state.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 2230 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act and the state shall not reimburse any local agency for any sales and use tax revenues lost by it under this act.

SEC. 4. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting Section 2 of this act to make a procedural change in the manner in which the sales tax is remitted and to affect all applicable pending proceedings.

SEC. 5. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. However, Section 1 of this act shall become operative on the first day of the first calendar quarter commencing more than 90 days after the effective date of this act.

CHAPTER 709

An act to amend Section 53112 of the Government Code, relating to telephones.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 53112 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53112. All systems shall be designed to meet the specific requirements of each community and public agency served by the system. Every system, whether basic or sophisticated, shall be designed to have the capability of utilizing at least three of the methods specified in Sections 53103 to 53106, inclusive, in response to emergency calls. The Legislature finds and declares that the most critical aspect of the design of any system is the procedure established for handling a telephone request for emergency services.

In addition, to maximize efficiency and utilization of the system, all pay telephones within each system shall, by December 31, 1985, enable a caller to dial "911" for emergency services, and to reach an operator by dialing "0", without the necessity of inserting a coin. At those "911" public safety answering points serving an area where 5 percent or more of the population, in accordance with the latest United States census information, speak a specific primary language other than English, operators who speak each such other language, in addition to English, shall be on duty or available through interagency telephone conference procedures at all times for "911" emergency services.

In addition, all systems shall require installation of a telecommunications device capable of servicing the needs of the deaf or severely hearing impaired at the "911" public safety answering point or points. The device shall be compatible with devices furnished by telephone corporations pursuant to Section 2831 of the Public Utilities Code.

SEC. 2. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the Legislature has provided a fund and funding mechanism in Section 41140 of the Revenue and Taxation Code to pay local agency or school district costs incurred pursuant to this act.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 2231.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, this act does not contain a repealer, as required by that section; therefore, the provisions of this act shall remain in effect unless and until they are amended or repealed by a later enacted act.

CHAPTER 710

An act to amend Section 21100 of, and to add Section 21101.2 to, the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that the cruising of vehicles in business areas of cities and communities in this state for the purpose of socializing and assembling interferes with the conduct of business, wastes precious energy resources, impedes the progress of general traffic and emergency vehicles, and promotes the generation of local concentrations of air pollution and undesirable noise levels.

The Legislature further finds and declares that the remedies to prevent the massive traffic jams and the other undesirable effects of cruising, without unreasonably interfering with constitutionally protected rights to peacefully assemble, to be free from unreasonable search and seizure, and to be treated equally by the law, necessarily must vary depending upon local conditions, including, but not limited to, the local street width, businesses, hours of the day, and capability of the road to carry traffic.

Therefore, the Legislature declares that local regulation of local traffic problems caused by cruising in motor vehicles should be implemented by the local authorities.

SEC. 2. Section 21100 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

21100. Local authorities may adopt rules and regulations by ordinance or resolution regarding the following matters:

(a) Regulating or prohibiting processions or assemblages on the highways.

(b) Licensing and regulating the operation of vehicles for hire and drivers of passenger vehicles for hire.

(c) Regulating traffic by means of traffic officers.

(d) Regulating traffic by means of official traffic control devices meeting the requirements of Section 21400.

(e) Regulating traffic by means of any person given temporary or permanent appointment for such duty by the local authority whenever official traffic control devices are disabled or otherwise inoperable, at the scenes of accidents or disasters, or at such locations as may require traffic direction for orderly traffic flow.

No person shall, however, be appointed pursuant to this subdivision unless and until the local authority has submitted to the commissioner or to the chief law enforcement officer exercising jurisdiction in the enforcement of traffic laws within the area in which such person is to perform such duty, for review, a proposed program of instruction for the training of a person for such duty, and unless and until the commissioner or such other chief law enforcement officer approves the proposed program. The commissioner or such other chief law enforcement officer shall approve such a proposed program if he reasonably determines that the program will provide sufficient training for persons assigned to perform the duty described in this subdivision.

(f) Regulating traffic at the site of road or street construction or maintenance by persons authorized for such duty by the local authority.

(g) Licensing and regulating the operation of tow car service.

(h) Operation of bicycles, and, as specified in Section 21114.5, electric carts by physically disabled persons, or persons 50 years of age or older, on the public sidewalks.

(i) Providing for the appointment of nonstudent school crossing guards for the protection of persons who are crossing a street or highway in the vicinity of a school or while returning thereafter to a place of safety.

(j) Regulating the methods of deposit of garbage and refuse in streets and highways for collection by the local authority or by any person authorized by the local authority.

(k) Regulating cruising. The ordinance or resolution adopted pursuant to this subdivision shall regulate cruising, which shall be defined as the repetitive driving of a motor vehicle past a traffic control point in traffic which is congested at or near the traffic control point, as determined by a peace officer, within a specified time period and after the vehicle operator has been given an adequate written notice that further repetitive driving will be a violation of the ordinance or resolution. The ordinance or resolution shall include, but not be limited to, the maximum number of times, which shall be at least twice, that an operator may drive a motor vehicle past the control point within the time period before being subject to notice. No person is in violation of an ordinance or resolution adopted pursuant to this subdivision unless that person has been given the written notice on a previous driving trip past the control point within the same time interval and then again passes the control point in that same time interval.

SEC. 3. Section 21101.2 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

21101.2. Local authorities may adopt rules and regulations by ordinance or resolution to provide that if a peace officer, as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2 of the Penal Code, determines that the traffic load on a particular street or highway, or a portion thereof, is such that little or no vehicular flow is occurring and, additionally, if the peace officer finds that a significant number of vehicles are not promptly moving when an opportunity arises to do so, then the peace officer may divert vehicles, excepting public safety or emergency vehicles, from that street or highway, or portion thereof, subject to traffic congestion until such time as reasonably flowing traffic is restored.

SEC. 4. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that local authorities may regulate undesirable cruising on streets under their jurisdiction at the earliest possible date, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 711

An act to amend Section 10133.1 of, and to repeal Sections 10133.25 and 10133.35 of, the Business and Professions Code, and to add Section 2924.3 to the Civil Code, relating to loans.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10133.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

10133.1. The provisions of subdivision (d) of Section 10131, subdivision (e) of Section 10131, Section 10131.1, Article 5 (commencing with Section 10230), Article 6 (commencing with Section 10237), and Article 7 (commencing with Section 10240) of this chapter and Section 1695.13 of the Civil Code do not apply to the following:

(a) Any person or employee thereof doing business under any law of this state, any other state, or of the United States relating to banks, trust companies, savings and loan associations, industrial loan companies, pension trusts, credit unions, or insurance companies.

(b) Any lender making a loan guaranteed or insured by an agency of the federal government or for which a commitment to so guarantee or insure has been made by such agency.

(c) Any nonprofit cooperative association organized under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 54001) of Division 20 of the Food and Agricultural Code, in loaning or advancing money in connection with any activity mentioned therein.

(d) Any corporation, association, syndicate, joint stock company, or partnership engaged exclusively in the business of marketing agricultural, horticultural, viticultural, dairy, livestock, poultry, or bee products on a cooperative nonprofit basis, in loaning or advancing money to the members thereof or in connection with any such business.

(e) Any corporation securing money or credit from any federal intermediate credit bank organized and existing pursuant to the provisions of an act of Congress entitled the "Agricultural Credits Act of 1923," in loaning or advancing money or credit so secured.

(f) Any person licensed to practice law in this state, not actively and principally engaged in the business of negotiating loans secured by real property, when such person renders services in the course of his practice as an attorney at law, and the disbursements of such person, whether paid by the borrower or other person, are not charges or costs and expenses regulated by or subject to the limitations of Article 7 (commencing with Section 10240) of this chapter, provided, such fees and disbursements shall not be shared, directly or indirectly, with the person negotiating the loan or the lender.

(g) Any person licensed as a personal property broker or as a consumer finance lender when acting under the authority of such license.

(h) Any cemetery authority as defined by Section 7018 of the Health and Safety Code which is authorized to do business in this state or its authorized agent.

(i) Any person who makes collection of payments for lenders or on notes of owners in connection with loans secured directly or collaterally by liens on real property if:

(1) The person makes collections on 10 or less of such loans, or in amounts of forty thousand dollars ($40,000) or less in any calendar year; or

(2) The person is a corporation licensed as an escrow agent under Division 6 (commencing with Section 17000) of the Financial Code, and the payments are deposited and maintained in the escrow agent's trust account.

(j) Any person authorized in writing by a savings and loan association to act as an agent, as defined in Section 5053 of the Financial Code, of that savings and loan association, when acting under the authority of such written authorization.

SEC. 1.5. Section 10133.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

10133.1. Subdivision (d) of Section 10131, subdivision (e) of Section 10131, Section 10131.1, Article 5 (commencing with Section 10230), Article 6 (commencing with Section 10237), and Article 7 (commencing with Section 10240) and Section 1695.13 of the Civil Code do not apply to any of the following:

(a) Any person or employee thereof doing business under any law of this state, any other state, or of the United States relating to banks, trust companies, savings and loan associations, industrial loan companies, pension trusts, credit unions, or insurance companies.

(b) Any lender making a loan guaranteed or insured by an agency of the federal government or for which a commitment to so guarantee or insure has been made by the agency.

(c) Any nonprofit cooperative association organized under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 54001) of Division 20 of the Food and Agricultural Code, in loaning or advancing money in connection with any activity mentioned therein.

(d) Any corporation, association, syndicate, joint stock company, or partnership engaged exclusively in the business of marketing agricultural, horticultural, viticultural, dairy, livestock, poultry, or bee products on a cooperative nonprofit basis, in loaning or advancing money to the members thereof or in connection with any such business.

(e) Any corporation securing money or credit from any federal intermediate credit bank organized and existing pursuant to the provisions of an Act of Congress entitled the "Agricultural Credits Act of 1923," in loaning or advancing money or credit so secured.

(f) Any person licensed to practice law in this state, not actively and principally engaged in the business of negotiating loans secured by real property, when that person renders services in the course of his or her practice as an attorney at law, and the disbursements of that person, whether paid by the borrower or other person, are not charges or costs and expenses regulated by or subject to the limitations of Article 7 (commencing with Section 10240), provided, the fees and disbursements shall not be shared, directly or indirectly, with the person negotiating the loan or the lender.

(g) Any person licensed as a personal property broker, a consumer finance lender, or a commercial finance lender when acting under the authority of that license.

(h) Any cemetery authority as defined by Section 7018 of the Health and Safety Code which is authorized to do business in this state or its authorized agent.

(i) Any person who makes collection of payments for lenders or on notes of owners in connection with loans secured directly or collaterally by liens on real property, if:

(1) The person makes collections on 10 or less of such loans, or in amounts of forty thousand dollars ($40,000) or less in any calendar year; or

(2) The person is a corporation licensed as an escrow agent under Division 6 (commencing with Section 17000) of the Financial Code and the payments are deposited and maintained in the escrow agent's trust account.

(j) Any person authorized in writing by a savings and loan association to act as an agent, as defined in Section 5053 of the Financial Code, of that savings and loan association, when acting under the authority of such written authorization.

SEC. 2. Section 10133.25 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 10133.35 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 2924.3 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

2924.3. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c), a person who has undertaken as an agent of a mortgagee, beneficiary, or owner of a promissory note secured directly or collaterally by a mortgage or deed of trust on real property, to make collections of payments from an obligor under the note, shall mail the following notices, postage prepaid, to each mortgagee, beneficiary or owner for whom the agent has agreed to make collections from the obligor under the note:

(1) A copy of the notice of default filed in the office of the county recorder pursuant to Section 2924 on account of a breach of obligation under the promissory note on which the agent has agreed to make collections of payments, within 15 days after recordation.

(2) Notice that a notice of default has been recorded pursuant to Section 2924 on account of a breach of an obligation secured by a mortgage or deed of trust against the same property having priority over the mortgage or deed of trust securing the obligation described in paragraph (1), within 15 days after recordation or within three business days after the agent receives the information, whichever is later.

(3) Notice of the time and place scheduled for the sale of the real property pursuant to Section 2924f under a power of sale in a mortgage or deed of trust securing an obligation described in paragraphs (1) or (2), not less than 15 days before the scheduled date of the sale or not later than the next business day after the agent receives the information, whichever is later.

(b) An agent who has undertaken to make collections on behalf of mortgagees, beneficiaries or owners of promissory notes secured by mortgages or deeds of trust on real property shall not be required to comply with the provisions of sudivision (a) with respect to a mortgagee, beneficiary or owner who is entitled to receive notice pursuant to subdivision (3) of Section 2924b or for whom a request for notice has been recorded pursuant to subdivision (2) of Section 2924b if the agent reasonably believes that the address of the mortgagee, beneficiary, or owner described in Section 2924b is the current business or residence address of that person.

(c) An agent who has undertaken to make collections on behalf of mortgagees, beneficiaries or owners of promissory notes secured by mortgages or deeds of trust on real property shall not be required to comply with the provisions of paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (a) if the agent knows or reasonably believes that the default has already been cured by or on behalf of the obligor.

(d) Any failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall not affect the validity of a sale in favor of a bona fide purchaser or the rights of an encumbrancer for value and without notice.

SEC. 5. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Assembly Bill 2591 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1983, both bills amend Section 10133.1 of the Business and Professions Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill 2591, that the amendments to Section 10133.1 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 10133.1 in the form set forth in Section 1.5 of this act. Therefore, Section 1.5 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Assembly Bill 2591 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1983, both amend Section 10133.1, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill 2591, in which case Section 1 of this act shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 712

An act to amend Section 6555 of the Elections Code, relating to elections.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6555 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

6555. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, a candidate may submit a petition containing signatures of registered voters in lieu of a filing fee as follows:

(1) For the office of California State Assembly, 1,500 signatures.

(2) For the office of California State Senate and the United States House of Representatives, 3,000 signatures.

(3) For candidates running for statewide office, 10,000 signatures.

(4) For all other offices for which a filing fee is required, if the number of registered voters in the district in which he seeks nomination is 2,000 or more, a candidate may submit a petition containing four signatures of registered voters for each dollar of the filing fee, or 10 percent of the total of registered voters in the district in which he seeks nomination, whichever is less.

(5) For all other offices for which a filing fee is required, if the number of registered voters in the district in which he seeks nomination is less than 2,000, a candidate may submit a petition containing four signatures of registered voters for each dollar of the filing fee, or 20 percent of the total of registered voters in the district in which he seeks nomination, whichever is less.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a candidate seeking the nomination of a qualified party with whom he is registered, the registered voters of which who were eligible to vote at the last statewide election constituted less than 5 percent of all registered voters eligible to vote at the last statewide election, may submit a petition containing signatures of 10 percent of the registered voters of that party in the district in which he seeks nomination, or 150 signatures, whichever is less.

(7) A voter may sign both a candidate's nomination papers and his or her in-lieu-filing-fee petition. However, if signatures appearing on such documents are counted towards both the nomination paper and the in-lieu-filing-fee petition signature requirements, a person may only sign one of the documents.

(b) Each clerk shall furnish to each candidate, upon request, and without charge therefor, forms for securing signatures. The number of forms which a clerk shall furnish a candidate shall be a quantity which provides the candidates with spaces for signatures sufficient in number to equal the number of signatures which the candidate is required to secure pursuant to subdivision (a) if the candidate desires that number of forms. However, the clerk may, rather than provide the candidate with the number of forms set forth in the preceding sentence, or, upon the request of a candidate, provide the candidate with a master form, which may be duplicated by the candidate at the candidate's expense for the purpose of circulating additional petitions. The Secretary of State shall prescribe the format of the master form. All forms shall be made available commencing 45 days before the first day for circulating nomination papers. However, in cases of vacancies for which a special election is authorized or required to be held to fill the vacancy, and where the prescribed nomination period would commence less than 45 days after the creation of the vacancy, the forms shall be made available within five working days after the creation of the vacancy. No other form except the form furnished by the county clerk or forms duplicated from a master form shall be used to secure signatures. Each petition section shall bear an affidavit signed by the circulator, in substantially the same form as set forth in Section 6494. The substitution of signatures for fees shall be subject to the following provisions:

(1) Any registered voter may sign an in-lieu-filing-fee petition for any candidate for whom he is eligible to vote.

(2) If a voter signs more candidates' petitions than there are offices to be filled, the voter's signatures shall be valid only on those petitions which, taken in the order they were filed, do not exceed the number of offices to be filled.

(3) In-lieu-filing-fee petitions shall be filed at least 15 days prior to the close of the nomination period. Upon receipt of the minimum number of in-lieu-filing-fee signatures required, or a sufficient combination of such signatures and pro rata filing fee, the clerk shall issue nomination papers provisionally. Within 10 days after receipt of a petition, the clerk shall notify the candidate of any deficiency. The candidate shall then, prior to the close of the nomination period, either submit a supplemental petition, or pay a pro rata portion of the filing fee, to cover the deficiency.

(4) If the petition is circulated for an office in more than one county, the candidate shall submit the signatures to the county clerk in the county in which the petition was circulated. The county clerk shall at least two days after verifying the signatures on the petition, notify the Secretary of State of the total number of valid signatures. If the number of signatures is insufficient, the Secretary of State shall notify the candidate and the county clerks of the fact. The candidate may submit the necessary number of valid signatures at any time prior to the close of the period for circulating nomination papers. Each circulator of an in-lieu-filing-fee petition shall have the qualifications required under Section 42.

(5) Each candidate may submit a greater number of signatures to allow for subsequent losses due to invalidity of some signatures. The clerk shall not be required to determine the validity of a greater number of signatures than that required by this section.

(c) For the purposes of this section, the requisite number of signatures shall be computed from the latest registration figures forwarded to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 607 prior to the first day on which petitions are available.

(d) All valid signatures obtained pursuant to this section shall be counted towards the number of voters required to sign a nomination paper in accordance with Section 6494.1 or 6834.1.

CHAPTER 713

An act to add Section 26209 to the Government Code, relating to local government.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 26209 is added to the Government Code, to read:

26209. The Board of Supervisors of the County of Humboldt may establish a uniform procedure for the payment of rewards, payable from county funds, for ideas or suggestions made by county employees or members of the public which the board determines, in its discretion, would reasonably result in financial savings to the county.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that this act is declaratory of existing law and does not constitute a change in existing law.

SEC. 3. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the County of Humboldt has a special need to clarify its existing authority to establish an employee awards program. It is, therefore, declared that due to the unique circumstances concerning the County of Humboldt a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the Constitution.

SEC. 4. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act.

CHAPTER 714

An act to amend Sections 11265, 11265.1, and 15151.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to county social services.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11265.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as added by Chapter 327 of the Statutes of 1982, is amended to read:

11265.1. In addition to the requirement for the annual redetermination of eligibility, the department shall establish regulations consistent with federal law to implement a recipient monthly reporting system for use in determining monthly eligibility and the amount of the grant. The department shall define what constitutes a complete report and shall specify the deadlines for submitting a complete report, as well as the consequences of, and good cause for, failure to submit a complete report. The department shall adopt fair and equitable regulations implementing the monthly reporting requirement.

SEC. 2. Section 11265.1. of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as added by Chapter 327 of the Statutes of 1982, is amended to read:

11265.1. In addition to the requirement for the annual redetermination of eligibility, the department shall establish regulations consistent with federal law to implement a recipient monthly reporting system for use in determining monthly eligibility and the amount of the grant. The department shall define what constitutes a complete report and shall specify the deadlines for submitting a complete report, as well as the consequences of, and good cause for, failure to submit a complete report. The department shall adopt fair and equitable regulations implementing the monthly reporting requirement.

Each adult member of the family shall provide, under penalty of perjury, the information necessary to complete the report.

SEC. 3. Section 15151.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, is amended to read:

15151.5. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (2) of Section 15150 and Section 15151, the counties shall receive at least 66 percent of the amounts payable to the state with respect to the services subject to the limitations of Title XX of the Social Security Act, provided:

(a) That the total federal allocation of funds for social services under the public assistance programs shall be fully distributed and utilized in each fiscal year;

(b) That in the event that federal funds so allocated have not been utilized, the department shall reallocate the unused funds in such a manner that they may be fully utilized for the purposes for which they are received.

SEC. 4. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Senate Bill 1325 are both chaptered and amend Section 11265.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill 1325, that the amendments to Section 11265.1 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 11265.1 in the form set forth in Section 2 of this act. Therefore, Section 2 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Senate Bill 1325 are both chaptered, both amend Section 11265.1, and Senate Bill 1325 is chaptered before this bill, in which case Section 1 of this act shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 715

An act to amend Sections 11053 and 11102 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to public assistance.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11053 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11053. It shall be the responsibility of a recipient changing residence from one county to another within the state to promptly notify the county paying aid to the recipient of the move and to apply for a redetermination of eligibility within the new county of residence. The first county shall notify the second county of the recipient's move as soon as the recipient's location in the second county is known. The county to which the recipient has moved will be responsible for determining the recipient's continued eligibility for payment of aid and, to the extent possible, as determined by the Director of Health Services, eligibility for the Medi-Cal program, as of the first day of the month following 30 days after the first county has notified the second county of the recipient's relocation. The first county shall provide the second county with copies of those documents, as specified by the department, necessary to establish current eligibility and grant amount.

SEC. 2. Section 11102 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11102. County residence is not a qualification for aid under any public assistance program.

County responsibility for making aid payments is determined as follows:

(a) The county where the applicant lives shall accept the application and shall be responsible for paying the aid.

(b) Responsibility for payment of aid to any person qualifying for and receiving aid from any county, who moves to another county in this state to make his home, shall be transferred to the second county as soon as administratively possible, but not later than the first day of the month following 30 days after notification to the second county.

For purposes of public assistance the county in which an applicant or recipient lives is:

(1) For a patient in a state hospital or institution, voluntary, nonprofit, or proprietary facility or other public or private institution, the county from which he was admitted.

(2) For a person who has had to leave the county in which he normally lives, solely for the purpose of securing care not otherwise available to him in a medical facility, the county in which he last maintained a living arrangement outside a medical facility.

(3) For a person who on or after July 1, 1969, has been released or discharged from a state hospital, for a period not to exceed three years from the date of such release, the county from which he was admitted to the hospital.

(4) For a person who prior to July 1, 1969, has been released on leave of absence from a state hospital, the county from which he was admitted.

SEC. 3. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the Legislature finds and declares that there are savings as well as costs in this act which, in the aggregate, do not result in additional net costs.

CHAPTER 716

An act to amend Sections 14204, 14208, 14300, 14750, 14800, 14867, and 16125 of, and to add Sections 14004, 14005, 14209, and 14752 to, the Financial Code, relating to credit unions.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14004 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

14004. "Impaired capital" means that the losses or projected losses of a credit union are such that the book value of a member's share is reduced below 100 percent of the monetary amount of that share when initially purchased plus any accumulated dividends.

SEC. 2. Section 14005 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

14005. Unless otherwise defined in this division, "insolvent" means a credit union has ceased to pay its debts in the ordinary course of business, or cannot pay its debts as they become due, or is insolvent within the meaning of the federal bankruptcy law.

SEC. 3. Section 14204 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14204. If the commissioner upon any examination, or from any report made to the commissioner, finds any credit union is violating the provisions of this division or the rules made pursuant to this division, or has impaired capital, or is insolvent, or is conducting its business in an unsafe or unauthorized manner, the commissioner may notify the credit union to, and the credit union shall, cease these practices. The commissioner may notify the credit union to, and the credit union shall, temporarily suspend or entirely cease the transaction of any new business or the portion thereof as is ordered by the commissioner. Within 10 days from the date of a notification or order pursuant to this section, the credit union may request a hearing under the Administrative Procedure Act, Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. Neither the request for a hearing nor the hearing itself shall stay the notification or order issued by the commissioner under this section.

SEC. 4. Section 14208 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14208. The commissioner may, after appropriate notice and opportunity for hearing, by order censure, or suspend for a period not exceeding 12 months, or bar from any position of employment or management of, any credit union, any officer, director, or employee of, or person performing similar functions for, a credit union, if the commissioner finds that:

(1) The censure, suspension or bar is in the public interest, that the person has committed a violation of this division or rule of the commissioner, and that the violation was either willful or caused, or will probably cause, material damage to the credit union or any member thereof.

(2) Any officer, director, employee of, or person performing similar functions for a credit union has been convicted of, or pleaded nolo contendere to, a crime, or has been held liable in a civil action by final judgment if the crime or civil action involved fraud, embezzlement, fraudulent conversion or misappropriation of property.

SEC. 5. Section 14209 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

14209. The commissioner may commence and prosecute actions and proceedings to enjoin violations of this division or violations of orders or decisions of the commissioner rendered pursuant to this division, and for the enforcement of any and all civil penalties provided for by this division.

SEC. 6. Section 14300 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14300. If the commissioner finds, after a hearing, unless waived in writing by the licensee, that a credit union has impaired capital, or is insolvent, or is operating in an unsafe or unsound manner, or has failed to comply with Section 14858, the commissioner may take possession of the business and assets of the credit union and maintain possession until such time as the commissioner shall permit it to continue business, or its affairs are put in order, or it is finally liquidated.

If the credit union submits a satisfactory plan to restore any impairment of capital, or cure its insolvency, and to proceed with business in a sound, businesslike manner, the commissioner may permit the credit union to resume possession of the business and assets and operate as a credit union under such conditions as may be imposed by the commissioner in the public interest.

SEC. 7. Section 14750 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14750. Any officer, director, member of a committee of a credit union, or loan officer appointed pursuant to Section 14602, or employee who knowingly permits a loan to be made or participates in a loan to a nonmember of the credit union, or knowingly permits a loan to be made or participates in a loan which is not made in conformity with the requirements of this division, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 8. Section 14752 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

14752. Except as provided for in Sections 14051 and 14750, any person who willfully violates any provision of this division, or who willfully violates any rule or order issued pursuant to this division, shall upon conviction be fined not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or imprisoned in the state prison, or in a county jail for not more than one year, or be punished by both such fine and imprisonment, but no person may be imprisoned for the violation of any rule or order unless he or she had knowledge of the rule or order.

Conviction under this section shall not bar the exercise of the administrative authority of the commissioner provided in Section 14208.

SEC. 9. Section 14800 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14800. (a) Every credit union may admit to membership those persons qualified for membership, as provided in the credit union bylaws, upon payment of an entrance fee or the purchase of a share in the credit union.

(b) No officer, director, committee member, or employee of any credit union shall approve a person for admission to membership or admit an applicant for membership in the credit union or extend any benefit or service of the credit union to any person, either directly or indirectly, unless that person is admitted to membership in the credit union pursuant to subdivision (a).

SEC. 10. Section 14867 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14867. (a) Shares, including special shares, and certificates for funds may be withdrawn for payment to the owner or for any third party, in the manner and in accordance with written procedures which shall be established by the board of directors.

(b) The board of directors may waive any requirement of notice of intent to withdraw, except where requirement of the notice is imposed by applicable law.

SEC. 11. Section 16125 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

16125. (a) The operation of the corporation shall at all times be subject to the regulation of the commissioner and his or her duly designated representatives may at any time investigate the affairs and examine the books, accounts, records, and files of the corporation. The commissioner and his or her duly designated representatives shall have free access to the offices, books, accounts, papers, records, files, safes, and vaults of the corporation.

(b) If an examination or investigation is made, the corporation shall pay to the commissioner the cost thereof, including the salary or other compensation paid to the persons making the examination or rendering special services and overhead cost incurred in connection with the examination or investigation, as fixed by the commissioner. In determining the cost of services or examinations, the commissioner may use the estimated average hourly cost for all persons performing services for, or examinations of, the corporation for the fiscal year. If recovery of these costs cannot be made from the corporation, these costs shall become the immediate, direct proportionate obligation of each member credit union and shall be payable to the commissioner within 30 days of the written demand of the commissioner.

(c) The corporation shall file with the commissioner an audit report containing audited financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and in accordance with the requirements of Section 14252, and an annual report prepared in accordance with the requirements of Section 14254. Upon request by the commissioner, the corporation shall also file unaudited financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and in accordance with the requirements of Section 14253, and a special report prepared in accordance with the requirements of Section 14255.

SEC. 12. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 717

An act to amend Sections 2626, 2626.1, and 2627 of, and to add Section 2626.2 to, the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to unemployment disability insurance, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2626 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

2626. An individual shall be deemed disabled on any day in which, because of his or her physical or mental condition, he or she is unable to perform his or her regular or customary work.

"Disability" or "disabled" includes:

(a) Illness or injury, whether physical or mental, including any illness or injury resulting from pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical condition.

(b) Inability to work because of a written order from a state or local health officer to an individual infected with, or suspected of being infected with, a communicable disease.

(c) Acute alcoholism being medically treated or, to the extent specified in Section 2626.1, resident status in an alcoholic recovery home.

(d) Acute drug-induced illness being medically treated or, to the extent specified in Section 2626.2, resident status in a drug-free residential facility.

SEC. 2. Section 2626.1 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

2626.1. (a) An individual who is a resident in an alcoholic recovery home pursuant to referral or recommendation by a physician shall be eligible for disability benefits for a period not in excess of 30 days in any disability benefit period while receiving resident services, if an authorized representative of the alcoholic recovery home certifies that the individual is a resident participating in an alcoholic recovery program which has satisfied a program review by the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs. The individual shall be eligible for disability benefits for an additional period not in excess of 30 days if the referring physician certifies to the need of the individual for continuing resident services.

(b) The department shall reimburse the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs from the Disability Fund, in a reasonable amount as determined by the department, for the expense of reviewing any alcoholic recovery program, as required by the department in the administration of subdivision (a) which is not funded under an approved county alcohol plan as provided for in Article 4 (commencing with Section 11810) of Chapter 4 of Part 2 of Division 10.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 3. Section 2626.2 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

2626.2. (a) An individual who is a resident in a drug-free residential facility pursuant to referral or recommendation by a physician shall be eligible for disability benefits for a period not in excess of 45 days in any disability benefit period while receiving resident services, if an authorized representative of the drug-free residential facility certifies that the individual is a resident participating in a drug-free residential facility which has satisfied a program review by the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs. The individual shall be eligible for disability benefits for an additional period not in excess of 30 days if the referring physician certifies to the need of the individual for continuing resident services.

(b) The department shall reimburse the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs from the Disability Fund, in a reasonable amount as determined by the department, for the expense of reviewing any drug-free residential facility, as required by the department in the administration of subdivision (a), which is not funded under the federal Drug Abuse Office and Treatment Act of 1972 (Public Law 92-255) or in conformance with Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 11980) of Part 3 of Division 10.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 4. Section 2627 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

2627. A disabled individual is eligible to receive disability benefits equal to one-seventh of his or her weekly benefit amount for each full day during which he or she is unemployed due to a disability only if the director finds that:

(a) He or she has made a claim for disability benefits as required by authorized regulations.

(b) Except as provided in Sections 2627.3, 2627.5, and 2627.7, he or she has been unemployed and disabled for a waiting period of seven consecutive days during each disability benefit period with respect to which waiting period no disability benefits are payable.

(c) Except as provided in Sections 2626.1, 2626.2, and 2709, he or she has submitted to such reasonable examinations as the director may require for the purpose of determining his or her disability.

(d) Except as provided in Section 2708.1, he or she has filed a certificate as required by Section 2708 or 2709.

SEC. 5. The amendment of Sections 2626, 2626.1 and 2627 of, and the addition of Section 2626.2 to, the Unemployment Insurance Code made by this act shall become operative with respect to periods of disability commencing on or after January 1, 1983. The provisions of law in effect prior to the amendment or addition of such provisions made by this act shall continue to be applicable with respect to periods of disability commencing prior to January 1, 1983.

CHAPTER 718

An act relating to environmental protection, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding subdivision (d) of Section 21191 of the Public Resources Code, the sum of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) is hereby appropriated from the California Environmental License Plate Fund to the City of Walnut Creek in support of the Heather Farm Garden Center project.

CHAPTER 719

An act to add Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 18615) to Chapter 5 of Part 2.1 of Division 13 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to health.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 18615) is added to Chapter 5 of Part 2.1 of Division 13 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 2.5. Formaldehyde Vapors

18615. The Legislature finds and declares that:

(a) Energy-saving features in new conventional and manufactured housing and commercial and other buildings have substantially reduced the air exchanges in those structures.

(b) Contaminants in indoor air present a potential health hazard to occupants of such structures.

(c) Off-gassing of formaldehyde vapors has been shown to occur in housing utilizing building materials of plywood and particle board.

(d) Occupants of mobilehomes have reported instances of symptoms consistent with those produced by exposure to formaldehyde vapors.

18615.5. It is the intent and purpose of the Legislature that the State Department of Health Services shall conduct a toxic research and information program, that a part of this program be devoted to the development of standard methods for measuring indoor air quality, the determination of the source of contaminants, and the making of recommendations for laws or regulations, where appropriate. It is the intent of the Legislature that three hundred sixty-seven thousand seventy-six dollars ($367,076) of the funds appropriated by Schedule (b) of Item 4260-001-001 of the Budget Act of 1982, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be used to fund the indoor air pollution component of the toxic research and information program which shall include a study of formaldehyde emissions in mobilehomes.

18616. The State Department of Health Services shall make a recommendation to the department and the Legislature regarding the appropriate level of formaldehyde vapors in new mobilehomes, on or before June 15, 1983.

CHAPTER 720

An act to amend Section 6250 of the Penal Code, relating to community correctional centers.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6250 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

6250. The Director of Corrections may establish and operate facilities to be known as community correctional centers. No later than 60 days prior to award of a contract for the establishment of such a center, the director shall notify the county board of supervisors or city council in whose jurisdiction the center will be located of the pending contract. The notice may be delivered by hand or sent by any form of mail requiring a return receipt. Failure to provide the notice shall be grounds for extinguishing the contract upon motion of the board of supervisors or city council.

CHAPTER 721

An act to add Section 5004.1 to the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicle license plates.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5004.1 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

5004.1. (a) An owner of any motor vehicle eligible for registration pursuant to Section 5004 may, after the requirements for the registration of the motor vehicle have been complied with and with the approval of the department, utilize license plates of this state with the date of year corresponding to the model year date when the vehicle was manufactured, if the model year date license plate is legible and serviceable, as determined by the department, in lieu of the license plates otherwise required by this code. The department may consult with an organization of old car hobbyists in determining whether the date of year of the license plate to be used corresponds to the model year date when the vehicle was manufactured.

Vehicles subject to this section shall display evidence of current registration.

(b) A fee of thirty-five dollars ($35) shall be charged for the application for use of the special plates.

(c) In addition to the regular renewal fee for the vehicle for which the plates are authorized, the applicant for a renewal of the plates shall be charged an additional fee of ten dollars ($10).

(d) Whenever any person who has been authorized to utilize the special license plates applies to the department for transfer of the plates to another vehicle, a transfer fee of twelve dollars ($12) shall be charged in addition to all other appropriate fees.

(e) Commencing July 1, 1983, applications may be submitted to the department for the use of model year date license plates.

(f) The department shall not approve any application under this section until 2,000 applications have been received.

(g) If the department does not receive at least 2,000 applications on or before December 31, 1984, this section is repealed on January 1, 1985, except that the department shall submit a report pursuant to subdivision (h). In that event, no application fees received pursuant to this section are refundable.

(h) The department shall submit a report to the Legislature not later than January 1, 1985, on the implementation of this section, including whether sufficient applications have been received.

CHAPTER 722

An act to amend Sections 12975.1, 12975.7, and 12995 of, to add Sections 12975.1, 12975.7, 12975.8, 12978, and 12995 to, and to repeal Sections 12975.1, 12975.7, 12975.8, 12978, and 12995 of, the Insurance Code, relating to insurance, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12975.1 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

12975.1. All examination expense moneys collected by the Department of Insurance under the provisions of Sections 736, 1061, and 1857.4 are hereby appropriated to the department and shall be deposited in the Insurance Fund to the credit of the support appropriation for the department current at the time of the deposit.

SEC. 2. Section 12975.1 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

12975.1. All examination expense moneys collected by the Department of Insurance under the provisions of Sections 736, 1061, and 1857.4 are hereby appropriated to the department and shall be deposited in the General Fund to the credit of the support appropriation for the department current at the time of the deposit.

SEC. 3. Section 12975.7 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

12975.7. All moneys received by the commissioner in payment of lawful fees or reimbursements pursuant to this code shall be transmitted to the State Treasurer to be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the Insurance Fund. All moneys received by the commissioner in fines and penalties pursuant to this code shall be transmitted to the State Treasury for deposit in the General Fund. The money in the Insurance Fund received from the commissioner pursuant to this section is hereby appropriated as follows:

(a) To pay the refunds authorized by this code.

(b) The balance of the money in the fund shall be used for the support of the Department of Insurance as authorized by the Budget Act and for related cash flow needs.

SEC. 4. Section 12975.7 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

12975.7. Except as provided in Sections 12975.1 and 12995, all moneys received by the commissioner pursuant to this code shall be transmitted to the State Treasurer to be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the Insurance Fund. The money in the Insurance Fund received from the commissioner pursuant to this section is hereby appropriated as follows:

(a) To pay the refunds authorized by this code.

(b) The balance of the money in the fund shall, on order of the Controller, be transferred to the State General Fund.

SEC. 5. Section 12975.8 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

12975.8. (a) The Insurance Fund shall, in addition to the funds specified in Section 12975.7, consist of all of the following:

(1) All moneys appropriated to the fund in accordance with law.

(2) All moneys deposited into the State Treasury from any source whatever in payment of lawful fees or reimbursements collected by the Department of Insurance.

(3) The balance remaining in the Insurance Fund at the end of any fiscal year, whether the moneys received are from an appropriation, fees, or from reimbursements for services rendered.

(b) All moneys in the Insurance Fund shall be subject to an annual appropriation each fiscal year for the support of the Department of Insurance.

(c) Any balance remaining in the Insurance Fund at the end of any fiscal year may be carried forward to the next succeeding fiscal year to the extent necessary to cover expenditures and cash flow needs as authorized by the Budget Act. Any moneys in excess of the authorized budget shall revert to the General Fund.

(d) Whenever the balance in the Insurance Fund is not sufficient to cover cash flow in the payment of authorized expenditures, the department may borrow such funds as may be necessary from whatever source and under terms and conditions as may be determined by the Director of Finance. Repayment shall be made from revenues received by the department for the same fiscal year for which the loan is made.

SEC. 6. Section 12978 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

12978. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the commissioner may increase or decrease the fees set forth in this code as necessary to allow the department to meet the appropriation authorized by the annual Budget Act. However, any increase or decrease so made shall be made only in accordance with this section.

Any increase or decrease in the statutory fees made by the department pursuant to this section shall be by a uniform percentage for all fees, and shall be announced by bulletin not later than January 31 of any year, to be effective on July 1 of that calendar year. The bulletin shall be sent to all affected parties and to both houses of the Legislature. Any such fee increase or decrease may be rescinded by a majority vote of both houses of the Legislature not later than April 30 after the issuance of the bulletin announcing the increase or decrease.

The limit on the amount which the fees may be increased or decreased in any year shall be the increase or decrease in the Gross National Product Implicit Price Deflator for the immediately preceding calendar year, as established by the United States Department of Commerce, Bureau of Economic Analysis. In the event this indicator is discontinued by the federal government, the department shall request the United States Department of Commerce to supply a formula for the conversion of the Gross National Product Implicit Price Deflator to a similar indicator or index then available, and the formula shall thereafter be the basis for the computation. In addition to the other limits imposed by this section, the commissioner shall not, before July 1, 1986, increase any statutory fee by an amount greater than 30 percent of that in effect on June 30, 1983.

SEC. 7. Section 12995 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

12995. The costs of administration and operation of the Bureau of Fraudulent Claims shall be borne by all of the insurers admitted to transact insurance in this state. The commissioner shall divide such costs among all such companies, assessing each such company an identical amount adequate to provide the funds for each fiscal year of operation of the bureau; provided, however, the assessment for each company shall not exceed five hundred dollars ($500) in each fiscal year. All moneys received by the commissioner from insurers pursuant to this section shall be transmitted to the State Treasurer to be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the Insurance Fund. All moneys which are deposited in the fund after receipt by the commissioner from insurers pursuant to this section are hereby appropriated to the department and are to be exclusively used for the support of the Bureau of Fraudulent Claims. To the extent the assessments against insurers made pursuant to this section are not sufficient to fund the entire operations of the bureau, other money appropriated to the department, if available, may be used, in the commissioner's discretion, to fund those operations not covered by the assessments. The total budget of the bureau shall be as determined annually in the Budget Act.

SEC. 8. Section 12995 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

12995. All costs of administration and operation of the Bureau of Fraudulent Claims shall be borne by all of the insurers admitted to transact insurance in this state. The commissioner shall divide such costs among all such companies, assessing each such company an identical amount adequate to provide the total cost of each fiscal year of operation of the bureau; provided, however, the assessment for each company shall not exceed five hundred dollars ($500) in each fiscal year. All moneys received by the commissioner pursuant to this section shall be transmitted to the State Treasurer to be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the Insurance Commissioner's Regulatory Trust Fund, which shall be created for this purpose. All moneys in such fund received from the commissioner pursuant to this section are hereby appropriated to the department and are to be exclusively used for the support of the Bureau of Fraudulent Claims. The total budget of the bureau shall be as determined annually in the Budget Act.

SEC. 9. All moneys collected by the Insurance Commissioner pursuant to Section 12995 of the Insurance Code, but which are not expended in the 1982–83 budget year, shall be deposited in the Insurance Fund on July 1, 1983.

SEC. 10. Sections 12975.1 and 12975.7 of the Insurance Code, as amended by Sections 1 and 3 of this act, and Sections 12975.8 and 12978 of the Insurance Code, as added by Sections 5 and 6 of this act, shall remain in effect until July 1, 1986, and as of that date are repealed. Sections 12975.1 and 12975.7 of the Insurance Code, as added by Sections 2 and 4 of this act, shall become operative on July 1, 1986.

SEC. 11. Section 12995 of the Insurance Code, as amended by Section 7 of this act shall remain in effect until July 1, 1986, or the date on which Article 5 (commencing with Section 12990) of Chapter 2 of Division 3 of the Insurance Code is repealed, whichever date is earlier and on such date is repealed.

Section 12995 of the Insurance Code, as added by Section 8 of this act, shall become operative only if, on July 1, 1986, Article 5 (commencing with Section 12990) of Chapter 2 of Division 3 of the Insurance Code, has not been repealed, in which case it shall become operative on July 1, 1986.

SEC. 12. This act shall become operative on July 1, 1983.

CHAPTER 723

An act to amend Section 827 of, and to add and repeal Section 1202.1 of, the Elections Code, relating to elections.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 827 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

827. From moneys appropriated by the Legislature, the Controller shall allocate and disburse to the counties the amounts necessary to reimburse them for the net costs incurred by them in complying with the voter registration provisions, including the provisions authorizing voter registration by mail and voter outreach programs, as set forth in Chapter 704 of the Statutes of 1975, as these provisions have been amended. The Secretary of State, in consultation with the Controller, shall develop a formula for the reimbursement of these costs. The Controller shall prescribe the forms for filing claims pursuant to this section. These claims shall be submitted to the Controller by October 31 in the year following the fiscal year in which the costs were incurred.

SEC. 2. Section 1202.1 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

1202.1. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of the law, a special absentee voter who qualifies pursuant to this section may apply not earlier than 60 days before the election for a special absentee voter ballot.

(b) If a special absentee voter submits an application containing a statement that provides that due to military or other contingencies that preclude normal mail delivery, as specified by the voter, the voter cannot vote an absentee ballot during the normal absentee voting period, and the voter is otherwise qualified to vote as a special absentee voter, the clerk shall immediately send the voter a ballot in a form prescribed and provided by the Secretary of State, or a ballot and voter registration card if required by Section 1200. The clerk shall send with the ballot a list of all candidates who have filed nomination papers and a list of all measures which are to be submitted to the voters and to which the voter is qualified to vote. The voter shall be entitled to write in the name of any specific candidate seeking the nomination or election to any office listed on the ballot.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 17101 or any other provision of law, any name written upon a ballot for a particular office pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be counted for the office or nomination.

(d) The clerk shall receive and canvass special absentee voter ballots described in this section under the same procedure as absent voter ballots, insofar as that procedure is not inconsistent with the provisions of this section, except that prior to election day, special absentee voter ballots shall be secured separately in a sealed ballot box reserved for that purpose.

(e) In the event that a voter executes a special absentee ballot pursuant to this section and the military or other contingency does not exist during the normal absentee voting period, that voter may make an application for an absentee ballot pursuant to Sections 1200 and 1201. If an application is made pursuant to this subdivision, the clerk shall reject the voted ballot previously cast and process the application in accordance with Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1000).

(f) This section shall be operative until January 1, 1989, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act for the purpose of making reimbursement pursuant to these sections. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of that code.

CHAPTER 724

An act relating to community colleges, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature hereby finds that the Butte Community College District assumed by written agreement the responsibility for conducting the adult education classes required to be offered by the Chico Unified School District pursuant to Section 41976 of the Education Code. The written agreement was effective March 31, 1981, and in accordance with the agreement the Butte Community College District conducted the adult education classes formerly offered by the Chico Unified School District for the remainder of the 1980–81 fiscal year.

(b) The Legislature further finds that, because of the midyear transfer of the responsibility for conducting the adult education classes, in the 1981–82 fiscal year, the Butte Community College District will report a substantial increase in the units of average daily attendance generated by the adult education classes. It is the intent of the Legislature that this increase in the units of average daily attendance for those adult education classes not be deemed an expansion of a program and, therefore, shall not subject the Butte Community College District to any limitation imposed on growth in average daily attendance pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 84605 of the Education Code.

SEC. 2. (a) In addition to any other adjustment in the base revenues of the Butte Community College District in the 1981–82 fiscal year determined pursuant to Section 84606 of the Education Code, the base revenues of the Butte Community College District in the 1981–82 fiscal year shall be further adjusted according to the following procedure:

(1) In consultation with the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges shall determine the total units of average daily attendance reported by both the Butte Community College District and the Chico Unified School District in the 1980–81 fiscal year for the adult education classes which were required to be offered by the Chico Unified School District pursuant to Section 41976 of the Education Code and which were transferred during that fiscal year to the Butte Community College District pursuant to a written agreement effective March 31, 1981.

(2) The chancellor shall subtract from the amount determined in paragraph (1) the number of units of average daily attendance reported by the Butte Community College District in the 1980–81 fiscal year for the adult education classes transferred during that fiscal year from the Chico Unified School District.

(3) The chancellor shall multiply the result determined in paragraph (2) by seven hundred thirteen dollars and eighty-five cents ($713.85).

(b) In no event shall the amount computed pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) be included in the computation prescribed by subdivision (g) of Section 84605 of the Education Code for the 1981–82 fiscal year.

(c) For the 1982–83 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, the number of units of average daily attendance determined in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) and the revenue derived in paragraph 3 of subdivision (a) shall be included in the computation of the base revenues of the Butte Community College District in those fiscal years.

SEC. 3. In no event shall any of the units of average daily attendance which were transferred from the Chico Unified School District to the Butte Community College District pursuant to this act be credited to the Chico Unified School District for any purpose in the 1981–82 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter.

SEC. 4. There is hereby reappropriated from category (a) of Item 610-101-001 of the Budget Act of 1981 to the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges, in augmentation of category (e) of Item 687-101-001 of the Budget Act of 1981, an amount to be determined by the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, in consultation with the Superintendent of Public Instruction, by multiplying the number of units of average daily attendance determined pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 2 of this act times the adult revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance of the Chico Unified School District in the 1981–82 fiscal year.

In no event shall the amount apportioned to the Butte Community College District in the 1981–82 fiscal year pursuant to Section 2 of this act exceed the amount reappropriated from category (a) of Item 610-101-001 of the Budget Act of 1981 to the Board of Governors of California Community Colleges pursuant to this section.

SEC. 5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Controller shall not make the transfer required by Proviso 10 of the provisions applicable to Item 6870-101-001 of the Budget Act of 1982 (Ch. 326, Stats. 1982). On the effective date of this act, the Controller shall transfer from Item 6100-156-001 of the Budget Act of 1982 to category (a) of Item 6870-101-001 of the Budget Act of 1982, an amount equal to the amount calculated pursuant to Section 4 of this act for apportionment in the 1982–83 fiscal year.

SEC. 6. Due to the unique circumstances concerning the transfer of adult education classes from the Chico Unified School District to the Butte Community College District in the 1980–81 fiscal year, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the Constitution.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide sufficient funding for the Butte Community College District at the earliest possible time, and to facilitate the orderly operation of its program, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 725

An act relating to domestic water supply systems, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A grant not to exceed the amount of one hundred forty-four thousand dollars ($144,000) is hereby authorized from the California Safe Drinking Water Fund pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 13861 of the Water Code to the Coast Joint Union High School District for the purpose of improving its domestic water supply system to meet, at a minimum, safe drinking water standards. The Department of Water Resources shall determine eligibility for the grant in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 10.6 (commencing with Section 13880) of Division 7 of the Water Code and may make a grant in accordance with those provisions.

SEC. 2. A grant not to exceed the amount of four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000) is hereby authorized from the California Safe Drinking Water Fund pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 13861 of the Water Code to the Ralph Lane County Service Area for the purpose of improving its domestic water supply system to meet, at a minimum, safe drinking water standards. The Department of Water Resources shall determine eligibility for the grant in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 10.6 (commencing with Section 13880) of Division 7 of the Water Code and may make a grant in accordance with those provisions.

SEC. 3. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that in order to meet the minimum safe drinking water standards there is a critical need within the Coast Joint Union High School District and the Ralph Lane County Service Area to immediately undertake certain improvements necessary to enable the residents of those communities to have a dependable and potable water supply.

SEC. 4. The Legislature further finds and declares that the water systems of the Coast Joint Union High School District and the Ralph Lane County Service Area have critical deficiencies which pose a serious threat to the public health and welfare of consumers within those communities and that each entity is only barely meeting the demand for water within the community.

SEC. 5. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) There are not enough funds remaining for purposes of the California Safe Drinking Water Grant Program to provide grants to all eligible applicant public agencies.

(b) As of June 15, 1982, of the thirty million dollars ($30,000,000) available for grants under the California Safe Drinking Water Grant Program, the sum of twenty-one million one hundred thousand dollars ($21,100,000) has been designated for specific public agencies by the Department of Water Resources.

(c) It is essential that the remaining funds available for purposes of the California Safe Drinking Water Grant Program be granted to the eligible public agencies with critical public health problems in their domestic water supplies and severe financial needs as determined by the Department of Water Resources and the State Department of Health Services.

SEC. 6. Subject to the provisions of Chapters 10.5 (commencing with Section 13850) and 10.6 (commencing with Section 13880) of Division 7 of the Water Code, and notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the funds available for purposes of the California Safe Drinking Water Grant Program not subject to a letter of commitment by the Department of Water Resources as of June 15, 1982, shall be provided to those agencies selected by the Department of Water Resources and the State Department of Health Services from among those for which the Legislature has specifically approved grants. Selection criteria for funding shall include relative severity of public health problems, financial need, and timely completion of program requirements.

SEC. 7. In no event shall the outstanding grant commitment under the California Safe Drinking Water Grant Program total more than thirty million dollars ($30,000,000).

SEC. 8. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to authorize grants from the California Safe Drinking Water Fund to the Coast Joint Union High School District and the Ralph Lane County Service Area to resolve the critical water supply problem of the community at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 726

An act to amend Section 5681 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to fees, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5681 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5681. The amount of fees prescribed by this chapter is that fixed by the following schedule:

(a) The application fee for examination shall be fixed by the board in an amount not to exceed two hundred twenty-five dollars ($225).

(b) The fee for an original certificate is an amount equal to the renewal fee in effect on the last regular renewal date before the date on which the certificate is issued, except that, if the certificate is issued less than one year before the date on which it will expire, then the fee is an amount equal to 50 percent of the renewal fee in effect on the last regular renewal date before the date on which the certificate is issued. The board may, by appropriate regulation, provide for the waiver or refund of the initial certificate fee where the certificate is issued less than 45 days before the date on which it will expire.

(c) The fee for a temporary certificate shall be fixed by the board in an amount not to exceed fifty dollars ($50).

(d) The fee for a duplicate certificate shall be fixed by the board in an amount not to exceed twenty-five dollars ($25).

(e) The renewal fee shall be fixed by the board in such amount as it determines is reasonably necessary to provide sufficient funds to carry out the purpose of this chapter, but not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200).

(f) The penalty for failure to notify the board of a change of address within 30 days from an actual change in address shall be fixed by the board in an amount not to exceed twenty-five dollars ($25).

(g) The delinquency fee shall not exceed twenty-five dollars ($25).

(h) The fee for a branch office shall be fixed by the board in an amount not to exceed twenty-five dollars ($25).

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that the increase in fees provided in this act may be applied to the next renewal period, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 727

An act to amend Section 91005 of, and to add Section 91005.5 to, the Government Code, relating to the Political Reform Act.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 91005 of the Government Code is amended to read:

91005. (a) Any person who makes or receives a contribution, gift or expenditure in violation of Section 84300, 84304, 86202, 86203 or 86204 is liable in a civil action brought by the civil prosecutor or by a person residing within the jurisdiction for an amount up to five hundred dollars ($500) or three times the amount of the unlawful contribution, gift or expenditure, whichever is greater.

(b) Any designated employee or public official specified in Section 87200, other than an elected state officer, who realizes an economic benefit as a result of a violation of Section 87100 or of a disqualification provision of a Conflict of Interest Code is liable in a civil action brought by the civil prosecutor or by a person residing within the jurisdiction for an amount up to three times the value of the benefit.

SEC. 2. Section 91005.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

91005.5. Any person who violates any provision of this title, except Sections 84305, 84307, and 89001, for which no specific civil penalty is provided, shall be liable in a civil action brought by the commission or the district attorney pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 91001, or the elected city attorney pursuant to Section 91001.5, for an amount up to two thousand dollars ($2,000).

No civil action alleging a violation of this title may be filed against a person pursuant to this section if the criminal prosecutor is maintaining a criminal action against that person pursuant to Section 91000.

The provisions of this section shall be applicable only as to violations occurring after the effective date of this section.

SEC. 3. The Legislature finds and declares that the provisions of this act further the purposes of the Political Reform Act of 1974 within the meaning of subdivision (a) of Section 81012 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 728

An act to amend Sections 19825 and 19826 of, and to add Section 19826.5 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to building standards.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19825 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

19825. Every city or county, which requires the issuance of a permit as a condition precedent to the construction, alteration, improvement, demolition, or repair of any building or structure, shall, in addition to any other requirements, print the following declarations in substantially the following form upon the front side, left column of any building permit issued:

SEC. 2. Section 19826 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

19826. No city or county, whether general law or chartered, shall issue a building permit which does not contain all applicable declarations required by Section 19825 properly executed by the owner, applicant, contractor, or agent of the owner, contractor, or applicant. The properly executed declarations shall be a condition for issuance of the building permit. However, no city or county or its employees shall be responsible for determining the truth or accuracy of the declarations, and no monetary liability on the part of, and no cause of action for damages against them, shall arise from their failure to verify the truth or accuracy of the declarations.

A city or county may require that within 15 days of issuance, the issuing agency of the city or county deliver copies of all building permits to the assessor of the county.

SEC. 3. Section 19826.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

19826.5. A city or county may require that the agency of such city or county issuing a building permit inform the assessor of the county of issuance of the final inspection of a property for which a permit has been issued within 15 calendar days of conducting a final inspection.

CHAPTER 729

An act to amend Section 19996.21 of the Government Code, relating to state employees, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19996.21 of the Government Code is amended to read:

19996.21. (a) It is the policy of the state that to the extent feasible, reduced worktime be made available to employees who are unable, or who do not desire, to work standard working hours on a full-time basis. Further, it is the intent of the Legislature that nothing in this act shall be used to reduce the number of full-time equivalency positions authorized to any department.

(b) If the department determines that a reduction in the personnel of departments or agencies of state government equivalent to 1 percent or more of full-time equivalent jobs is contemplated in a single fiscal year, the director may conduct or may direct each affected department or agency to conduct a survey of either all permanent full-time employees or those permanent full-time employees most likely to be affected by the personnel reduction. The purpose of the survey shall be to determine the extent of the desire of employees to participate in voluntary reduced worktime.

The survey shall contain information clearly informing employees of potential worktime options, the effect reduced worktime would have on benefits, and the right to return to full-time work as specified in Section 19996.24.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In recognition of the fact that the unemployment level in California is high and in order to minimize the impact that a reduction in the number of persons employed by the state would have on the state's economy, this act must take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 730

An act to amend Sections 1797, 1797.1, 1797.2 and 1797.3 of the Civil Code, and to amend Section 18054 of, and to amend, repeal, and add Section 18054.7 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to mobilehomes.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1797 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1797. All new mobilehomes and manufactured homes sold to a buyer shall be covered by the warranty set forth in this chapter.

SEC. 2. Section 1797.1 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1797.1. As used in this chapter, "mobilehome" is defined pursuant to Section 18008 of the Health and Safety Code and "manufactured home" is defined pursuant to Section 18007 of the Health and Safety Code. Both shall include, in addition to the structure thereof, the plumbing, heating, and electrical systems and all appliances and other equipment installed or included therein by the manufacturer or dealer.

SEC. 3. Section 1797.2 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1797.2. The warranty provided for in this chapter shall apply to the manufacturer of the mobilehome or the manufactured home as well as to the dealer who sells the mobilehome or the manufactured home to the buyer.

SEC. 4. Section 1797.3 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1797.3. The mobilehome/manufactured home warranty from the manufacturer or dealer to the buyer shall be set forth in a separate written document entitled "Mobilehome/Manufactured Home Warranty," shall be delivered to the buyer by the dealer at the time the contract of sale is signed, and shall contain, but is not limited to, the following terms:

(a) That the mobilehome or manufactured home is free from any substantial defects in materials or workmanship.

(b) That the manufacturer or dealer or both shall take appropriate corrective action at the site of the mobilehome or manufactured home in instances of substantial defects in materials or workmanship which become evident within one year from the date of delivery of the mobilehome or manufactured home to the buyer, provided the buyer or his or her transferee gives written notice of such defects to the manufacturer or dealer at their business address not later than one year and 10 days after date of delivery.

(c) That the manufacturer and dealer shall be jointly and severally liable to the buyer for the fulfillment of the terms of warranty, and that the buyer may notify either one or both of the need for appropriate corrective action in instances of substantial defects in materials or workmanship.

(d) That the address and the phone number of where to mail or deliver written notices of defects shall be set forth in the document.

(e) That the one-year warranty period applies to the structures, plumbing, heating, electrical systems and all appliances and other equipment installed and included therein by the manufacturer or dealer.

(f) That while the manufacturers of any or all appliances may also issue their own warranties, the primary responsibility for appropriate corrective action under the warranty rests with the dealer and manufacturer, and the buyer should report all complaints to the dealer and manufacturer initially.

SEC. 5. Section 18054 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18054. (a) The department, upon granting a license, shall issue to the applicant a license with a size and format established by the department containing at least the applicant's name and address, the general distinguishing number assigned to the applicant and expiration date. For salespersons, the license shall also state the name and address of the employing dealer.

(b) Upon presentation of authority from the Public Utilities Commission showing valid status as a transporter, a transporter may apply for, and the department, subject to the requirements of Section 18063.8, shall issue, transportation decals or other visual displays which shall have a general distinguishing number assigned to the applicant. Fees for the decal or visual display shall be established by the department and shall be paid by the applicant at the time the application is made.

(c) The department shall also furnish books and forms as it may determine necessary. All books, forms, and licenses and decals shall remain the property of the department and may be taken up at any time for inspection.

(d) A licensee shall promptly obtain a duplicate license when the original is either lost or mutilated.

(e) Whenever the department cancels, suspends, or revokes a license or decal, the licensee or person in possession shall immediately return the license, documents, plates, certificates, and other evidence of licensure to the department.

SEC. 6. Section 18054.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18054.7. (a) Every occupational license and decal issued to a manufacturer, distributor, dealer, or transporter expires at midnight, December 31, of each year. The application for renewal and fees shall be mailed or delivered to the department between November 1 and November 30 of each year. Applications postmarked or delivered in person to the department during the month of December shall be subject to a penalty of 50 percent of the license fee. A license may not be renewed after its expiration date.

(b) Licenses or decals, including temporary permits, issued to a manufacturer, distributor, dealer, or transporter which expire on December 31, 1983, when renewed, shall be issued for a term of not less than three months or greater than 26 months, as designated by the department, in order to establish staggered renewal periods. Renewal fees shall be prorated consistent with the term of the license.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1984, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered on or before January 1, 1984, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 5. Section 18054.7 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

18054.7. (a) Every occupational license or decal issued to a manufacturer, distributor, dealer or transporter, shall expire on the last day of the 24th month following the date of issuance of the temporary permit, pursuant to Section 18052.

(b) Every occupational license or decal renewed by a manufacturer, distributor, dealer or transporter shall be for a term of 24 months.

(c) Applications to renew an occupational license or decal held by a manufacturer, distributor, dealer or transporter must be either received by the department or postmarked during the month preceding the month of expiration. Applications postmarked or delivered in person to the department during the month of expiration shall be subject to a 50 percent penalty. A license may not be renewed after its expiration date.

(d) This section shall become operative January 1, 1984.

CHAPTER 731

An act to amend, repeal, and add Section 35401 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 35401 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

35401. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), no combination of vehicles coupled together, including any attachments thereto, shall exceed a total length of 65 feet.

(b) The following combinations of vehicles coupled together, including any attachments thereto, shall not exceed a total length of 60 feet:

(1) A truck tractor and semitrailer.

(2) A truck tractor, auxiliary dolly, and semitrailer.

(3) A motortruck and semitrailer, if the pivot point of the semitrailer connection is less than two feet to the rear of the center of the rearmost axle of the motortruck, or the distance from the pivot point to the center of the rearmost axle of the semitrailer exceeds 34 feet.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), a combination of vehicles coupled together which consists of a truck tractor and semitrailer, each of which was first registered in this state between January 1, 1977, and December 31, 1978, and the semitrailer of which is designed with a split bed capable of tilting to provide a loading ramp for tractors and other mobile equipment, shall not exceed a total length of 65 feet, provided that the truck tractor wheelbase does not exceed 23 feet, and the dimension from the kingpin to the center of the rearmost semitrailer axle does not exceed 34 feet.

(d) Any city or county may, by ordinance, prohibit a combination of vehicles of a total length in excess of 60 feet upon highways under its respective jurisdiction. The ordinance shall not be effective until appropriate signs are erected indicating either the streets affected by the ordinance or the streets not affected, as the local authority determines will best serve to give notice of the ordinance.

(e) The Legislature, in enacting this section, does not intend to reduce, and this section shall not be construed to reduce, any maximum total length of any combination of vehicles permitted under the statutes as they existed on January 1, 1974.

(f) This section shall remain in effect only until December 31, 1985, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before December 31, 1985, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 35401 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

35401. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), no combination of vehicles coupled together, including any attachments thereto, shall exceed a total length of 65 feet.

(b) The following combinations of vehicles coupled together, including any attachments thereto, shall not exceed a total length of 60 feet:

(1) A truck tractor and semitrailer.

(2) A truck tractor, auxiliary dolly and semitrailer.

(3) A motortruck and semitrailer, if the pivot point of the semitrailer connection is less than two feet to the rear of the center of the rearmost axle of the motortruck, or the distance from the pivot point to the center of the rearmost axle of the semitrailer exceeds 34 feet.

(c) Any city or county may, by ordinance, prohibit a combination of vehicles of a total length in excess of 60 feet upon highways under their respective jurisdiction. Such an ordinance shall not be effective until appropriate signs are erected indicating either the streets affected by the ordinance or the streets not affected, as the local authorities determine will best serve to give notice of the ordinance.

The Legislature in enacting this section does not intend to reduce, and this section shall not be construed to reduce, any maximum total length of any combination of vehicles permitted under the statutes as they existed on January 1, 1974.

(d) This section shall become operative January 1, 1986.

CHAPTER 732

An act to amend Sections 14031.7 and 14036 of, and to repeal Section 14538 of, the Government Code, and to repeal and add Section 730.7 of, and to add Section 730.8 to, the Public Utilities Code, relating to transportation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14031.7 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14031.7. Prior to any allocation pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 14031.6, for any recommended new service, the department shall submit a report to the commission consisting of the following:

(a) The speeds and other service attributes needed.

(b) Needed facilities and manpower specifications.

(c) The avoidable costs of direct services joint-use arrangements, capital facilities, and other necessary arrangements.

(d) An estimate of total costs for proposed services.

(e) An inventory and evaluation of other existing transportation services in the corridor.

(f) The market potential encompassing modal diversion and operating revenues.

(g) For any commuter service, the compatibility of the service with the affected regional transportation plan.

During the preparation of this report, the department shall draw upon the resources of the Public Utilities Commission and any other available resource. This report shall become a part of the department's proposed state transportation improvement program.

SEC. 2. Section 14036 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14036. The department shall prepare a rail passenger development plan annually for submission to the Legislature, the Governor, the Public Utilities Commission, and the California

Transportation Commission. The plan shall be submitted to the commission by January 1, 1983, and each January 1 thereafter for its advice and consent and to the Legislature, the Governor, and the Public Utilities Commission by the following March 1. The plan shall consist of all of the following:

(a) For capital and operating subsidies, all actual encumbrances for the prior year; and for state operations, all actual expenditures for the prior year. All revenues shall be identified by source. Variances in expenditures from the prior year's plan for capital and operating subsidies shall be identified for each route.

(b) For capital and operating subsidies, estimated encumbrances and revenues for the current year; and for state operations, estimated expenditures for the current year. The department shall use the same format as is required for prior year expenditures pursuant to subdivision (a).

(c) For the budget year and the four following fiscal years, proposed encumbrances for capital and operating subsidies shall be reported in the same format as is required for prior year's expenditures. For state operations, proposed expenditures for the budget year shall be reported.

(d) The identification and cost of capital facilities necessary to enhance competitiveness of rail passenger services.

(e) A performance evaluation of all services in operation, including performance trends, potential for efficiency and effectiveness, possible improvements, and strategies to achieve that potential.

(f) A recommendation of a level of and program for services over a five-year period.

(g) An evaluation of reports by regional planning agencies and county transportation commissions on commuter service alternatives in their regions, including presentation of their recommendations.

(h) A map showing all existing intercity and commuter passenger rail routes and services, all proposed intercity and commuter passenger rail routes and services, and all intercity and commuter passenger rail routes and services that are the subject of feasibility studies.

This report shall be prepared in consultation with the Public Utilities Commission and the National Rail Passenger Corporation. The department may consult with other agencies, organizations, and persons with expertise. The department shall employ realistic assumptions, using Public Utilities Commission cost data whenever possible, with respect to the level of services it can provide and the cost of these services when developing the plan.

SEC. 3. Section 14538 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 730.7 of the Public Utilities Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 730.7 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

730.7. In determining reimbursement to railroad corporations for the operation of rail passenger service, the commission shall not exceed that compensation which would be payable if calculated pursuant to the standards of the Rail Services Planning Office of the Interstate Commerce Commission contained in Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Part 1127.

SEC. 6. Section 730.8 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

730.8. Whenever a state agency files with the commission an application for an increase in rates or fares or for any change in the level of service for passenger transportation by a railroad corporation and the state agency has prior to the application held a public hearing on the matter which the commission finds to be complete and adequate, the commission may determine not to hold any further hearing on the matter and in this event shall approve, modify and approve as so modified, or disapprove the application within 90 days of the date of filing with the commission.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for the Department of Transportation and the Public Utilities Commission to determine their staffing needs and other requirements relative to their duties and responsibilities concerning rail passenger services for the 1982–83 fiscal year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 733

An act to add Section 29504 to the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to agriculture.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 29504 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

29504. The director may promulgate regulations to permit the preparation, packing, shipment, or sale of honey in an experimental type of container which does not conform to the standards prescribed in this article. These regulations shall include container labeling standards which comply with the requirements of this chapter.

SEC. 2. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 734

An act to amend Sections 2218, 2231, 2231.5, 2238, 2241, 2246, 2251, 2252, 2253.2, 2253.8, and 2256 of, to amend and renumber Sections 2256.4 and 2256.5 of, and to add Sections 2218.5 and 2256.4 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to state-mandated local programs, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1 Section 2218 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2218. For the purposes of this chapter, "claim" shall include three types of claims which local agencies and school districts may file with the state:

(a) "Test claim" or "claim of first impression" means the first claim filed with the State Board of Control alleging that a particular statute or executive order imposes a mandated cost on such local agency or school district.

(b) "Estimated claim" means a claim filed with the Controller, during the fiscal year in which the mandated costs are to be incurred by the local agency or school district, against an appropriation made to the Controller for the purpose of paying such estimated claims.

(c) "Reimbursement claim" is a claim for costs incurred by a local agency or school district filed with the Controller against an appropriation made for the purpose of paying such claims in the prior fiscal year.

SEC. 2. Section 2218.5 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

2218.5. Reimbursement for state mandated costs may be claimed as follows:

(a) A local agency or school district may file an estimated claim by November 30 of the fiscal year in which costs are to be incurred, and, by November 30 following that fiscal year shall file a reimbursement claim which details the costs actually incurred for that fiscal year; or

(b) A local agency or school district shall, by November 30 following the fiscal year in which costs are incurred, file a reimbursement claim which details the costs actually incurred for that fiscal year.

SEC. 3. Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2231. (a) The state shall reimburse each local agency for all "costs mandated by the state", as defined in Section 2207. The state shall reimburse each school district only for those "costs mandated by the state" as defined in Section 2207.5.

(b) For the initial fiscal year during which such costs are incurred reimbursement funds shall be provided as follows: (1) any statute mandating such costs shall provide an appropriation therefor, and (2) any executive order mandating such costs shall be accompanied by a bill appropriating the funds therefor, or, alternatively, an appropriation for such funds shall be included in the Budget Bill for the next following fiscal year, and such executive order shall cite the appropriate Budget Bill item or other bill as the source from which the Controller may pay the claims of local agencies and school districts.

In subsequent fiscal years appropriations for such costs shall be included in the State Budget and in the Budget Bill. In addition, appropriations to reimburse local agencies and school districts for continuing costs resulting from chaptered bills or executive orders for which claims have been awarded pursuant to subdivision (b), (c), or (d) of Section 2253 shall be included in the State Budget and in the Budget Bill subsequent to the enactment of the local government claims bill pursuant to Section 2255 which includes the amounts awarded relating to such chaptered bills or executive orders.

(c) The amount appropriated for such purposes shall be appropriated to the Controller for disbursement.

(d) The Controller shall disburse reimbursement funds to local agencies or school districts if the costs of such mandates are not payable to state agencies, or to state agencies who would otherwise collect the costs of such mandates from local agencies or school districts in the form of fees, premiums, or payments. When disbursing reimbursement funds to local agencies or school districts, the Controller shall disburse them as follows:

(1) For the initial fiscal year during which such costs will be incurred, each local agency or school district to which the mandate is applicable shall submit to the Controller, within 45 days of the operative date of the mandate, or, if the board is requested to do so pursuant to Section 2253.4, within 45 days after the board reviews the claiming instructions for reimbursement issued by the Controller, whichever is later, a claim for payment of its estimated costs required by such mandate for the current fiscal year. If the local agency or school district does not submit such claim within the 45-day period, it may submit its claim for reimbursement as specified in Section 2218.5. The Controller shall pay such claims from the funds appropriated therefor, provided that he (i) may audit the records of any local agency or school district to verify the actual amount of the mandated costs, and (ii) may reduce any claim which he determines is excessive or unreasonable. The amendments to this paragraph during 1978 shall apply to all claims submitted on or after January 1, 1978.

(2) In subsequent fiscal years each local agency or school district shall submit its claims as specified in Section 2218.5. The Controller shall pay such claims from funds appropriated therefor, provided that he (i) may audit the records of any local agency or school district to verify the actual amount of the mandated costs, (ii) may reduce any claim, which he determines is excessive or unreasonable, and (iii) shall adjust the payment to correct for any underpayments or overpayments which occurred in the previous fiscal year.

(3) In the case of unfunded mandates when funds are appropriated to the Controller to pay for these costs, claims for initial year costs, and subsequent years for which costs have been incurred prior to the enactment of the claims bill, shall be filed within 120 days from the date of notification by the Controller of the enactment of the claims bill. These claims shall be based upon parameters and guidelines issued by the board and as approved by the Legislature. The Controller shall promptly notify the relevant local agencies or school districts subsequent to enactment of the claims bill of the right to file these claims.

(4) Prior to payment of claims, the Controller shall only require information from local agencies or school districts that is actually necessary to perform such audits.

SEC. 4. Section 2231.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2231.5. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the increasing revenue constraints on state and local government and the increasing costs of financing state-mandated local programs make evaluation of the cumulative effects of state-mandated local programs imperative. Accordingly, it is the intent of the Legislature to establish a method for regularly reviewing the costs of state-mandated local programs, by requiring the sunset of new mandates and evaluating the benefit of previously enacted mandates.

(b) No provision of law enacted by the Legislature after January 1, 1981, which created "costs mandated by the state" for which reimbursement is made shall be effective for more than six years after the operative date of the law, and each bill containing those provisions of law shall also include language repealing those provisions no more than six years after the operative date of those provisions. The Legislature, prior to the end of the six-year period, may enact a bill continuing the provisions of law and reimbursement. The law may be continued for successive periods, but in no case shall it be continued for more than one six-year period at a time. This subdivision shall not apply to "costs mandated by the state" for which reimbursement is made if the reimbursement is to fund benefits for the State Teachers Retirement System or the Public Employees Retirement System.

(c) Prior to the end of each calendar year, commencing with 1981, the Department of Finance shall review all statutes which created "costs mandated by the state" for which reimbursement was made enacted in the fifth preceding year, except that the department's initial review shall also include all those statutes enacted in 1973, 1974, and 1975. The department shall report to the Legislature on the effectiveness of each statute which created costs mandated by the state and the amount of reimbursements made for each statute to local agencies and school districts for each fiscal year. This report may be incorporated in the department's annual Chaptered Bill Report on Local Mandates, required by Section 2246. The department may recommend that the Legislature continue or modify any provision of law reviewed pursuant to this subdivision.

(d) The Legislative Analyst may review and report to the Legislature with regard to any statute or executive order which creates a state-mandated local program. The Legislative Analyst may recommend that the Legislature continue, eliminate, or modify any provision of law reviewed pursuant to this subdivision.

SEC. 5. Section 2238 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2238. (a) If a local agency or school district submits an otherwise valid reimbursement claim to the Controller after the deadline specified in Section 2218.5, the Controller shall pay the reimbursement claim in an amount equal to 80 percent of the amount which would have been allowed had the reimbursement claim been timely filed. In no case shall a reimbursement claim be paid which is submitted more than one year after the deadline specified in Section 2218.5. Estimated claims which were filed by the deadline specified in that section shall be paid in full before payments are made on estimated claims filed after the deadline. In the event the amount appropriated to the Controller for reimbursement purposes is not sufficient to pay the estimated claims approved by the Controller, the Controller shall prorate those claims in proportion to the dollar amount of approved claims filed after the deadline and shall report to the State Board of Control or the Legislature in the same manner as described in Section 2236 in order to assure appropriation of funds sufficient to pay those claims.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a), any otherwise valid claim filed with the Controller's office on or before October 31, 1979, for costs incurred in the 1977–78 and prior fiscal years, shall be considered under this section and shall be paid at 80 percent or the lesser prorated amount after payment of the timely filed claims.

SEC. 6. Section 2241 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2241. When a bill is introduced in the Legislature, and each time a bill is amended, the Legislative Counsel shall determine whether the bill requires state reimbursement to local agencies or school districts pursuant to Section 2229, 2230, or 2231. He shall make this determination known in the digest of the bill and shall describe in the digest the basis for this determination. For purposes of this section, whenever a bill requires a state agency to issue an executive order which would impose a cost mandated by the state pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 2207 or subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 2207.5, the bill shall be deemed to require state reimbursement pursuant to Section 2231 and the Legislative Counsel shall make this determination known in the digest of the bill.

In making any determination required by this section the Legislative Counsel shall disregard any provision in a bill which would make inoperative the reimbursement requirements of Section 2229, 2230, or 2231, and shall make his determination irrespective of any provision to that effect.

SEC. 7. Section 2246 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2246. Before the end of each calendar year the Department of Finance shall review all statutes enacted during such calendar year which (1) contain provisions making inoperative Section 2229, 2230, 2231, or 2234 or (2) which create costs mandated by the state and do not contain a "sunset" provision as required by subdivision (b) of Section 2231.5 or (3) have resulted in costs or revenue losses mandated by the state which were not identified when the statute was enacted. The review shall identify the costs or revenue losses involved in complying with the provisions of the statutes. The Department of Finance shall also review all statutes enacted in the calendar year which may result in cost savings authorized by the state. The Department of Finance shall submit to the Legislature an annual report of the review required by this section, together with the recommendations as it may deem appropriate.

SEC. 8. Section 2251 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2251. For the purpose of hearing and deciding upon such claims the membership of the Board of Control shall consist of those members provided by Part 4 (commencing with Section 13900) of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code and two additional members, who shall be local government elected officials. Such additional members shall be appointed by the Governor and shall serve for a term of two years. Terms of members appointed pursuant to this section shall begin on January 1. A member appointed pursuant to this section shall continue to serve until his successor has been appointed and qualified.

The Governor shall also appoint an alternate member for the local government members who shall vote as a member of the board only in the event that either or both of the regular local government members are absent from a board meeting for any cause. The alternate shall be eligible for reimbursement of expenses while attending board meetings.

The alternate shall be appointed for a period of two years beginning on January 1, 1983, or the operative date of the act amending this section during the second year of the 1981–82 Regular Session of the Legislature, whichever occurs first.

SEC. 9. Section 2252 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2252. The Board of Control shall adopt procedures for receiving claims pursuant to this article and for providing a hearing on such claims. Such procedures shall fall within the scope of subdivision (b) of Section 13920 of the Government Code, except that such procedures shall be adopted by a majority vote of the board membership prescribed by Section 2251. The hearing procedure shall provide for presentation of evidence by the claimant and by the Department of Finance and any other affected department or agency. A vote of a majority of the board members shall be required to sustain a claim submitted pursuant to this article. Hearing of a claim may be postponed at the request of the claimant, without prejudice. A claim pursuant to this article or Article 3.6 (commencing with Section 2256) which fails to obtain the approval of a majority of board members, but which is not rejected by a majority of the board members, may be resubmitted at a later date by the claimant.

SEC. 10. Section 2253.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2253.2. (a) The Board of Control shall, within ten days after receipt of the first claim based upon each chaptered bill or executive order as described in subdivisions (b) and (d) of Section 2253, set a date for a public hearing on such claim within a reasonable time. The claim may be based upon estimated costs that a local agency or school district may incur as a result of the mandate and may be filed at any time after a bill is chaptered or executive order adopted. Such claims shall be submitted in a form prescribed by the board. After a hearing in which the claimant and any other interested organization or individual may participate, the board, if it determines a cost was mandated, shall adopt parameters and guidelines for reimbursement of any claims relating to such bill or executive order. A local agency, school district, and the state may file a claim or request with the board to amend, modify, or supplement such parameters or guidelines. The board may, after due public notice and hearing, amend, modify, or supplement such parameters and guidelines.

The board shall include in its report to the Legislature required under Section 2255 the number of mandates found pursuant to this section and shall include an estimate of the statewide costs to be incurred by local agencies or school districts affected by the mandate. Such statewide estimate shall be approved by the board after receiving and reviewing recommendations from the Department of Finance and any other interested parties. The local government claims bill, specified in Section 2255, at the time of its introduction shall provide for an appropriation sufficient to pay future claims based upon estimated statewide costs resulting from all mandates found by the board.

(b) The Board of Control shall not find a reimbursable mandate, pursuant to either Section 2250 of this code or to Section 905.2 of the Government Code, in any claim submitted by a local agency or school district, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 2218, if, after a hearing, the board finds that:

(1) The claim is submitted by a local agency or school district which requested legislative authority for that local agency or school district to implement the program specified in the chaptered bill or executive order, and that chaptered bill or executive order imposes costs upon that local agency or school district requesting such legislative authority. For purposes of this paragraph, a resolution from the governing body or a letter from a delegated representative of the governing body of a local agency or school district which requests authorization for that local agency or school district to implement a given program shall constitute a request within the meaning of this paragraph, except that a request to implement an existing reimbursable mandate in an alternative manner shall not constitute a request; or

(2) The chaptered bill or executive order affirmed for the state that which had been declared existing law or regulation by action of the courts; or

(3) The chaptered bill or executive order implemented a federal law or regulation and resulted in "costs mandated by the federal government", as defined in Section 2206, unless such chaptered bill or executive order mandates costs which exceed the mandate in such law or regulation; or

(4) The local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees or assessments sufficient to pay for the mandated program or level of service.

(5) The chaptered bill or executive order provides for offsetting savings to local agencies or school districts which result in no net costs to such local agencies or school districts.

(c) The Board of Control shall not consider, pursuant to either Section 2250 of this code or to Section 905.2 of the Government Code, any claims submitted by a local agency or school district if:

(1) The chaptered bill or executive order imposed duties which were expressly included in a ballot measure approved by the voters in a statewide election; or

(2) The chaptered bill created a new crime or infraction, eliminated a crime or infraction, or changed the penalty for a crime or infraction, but only for that portion of the chaptered bill relating directly to the enforcement of the crime or infraction; or

(3) The claim is for two hundred dollars ($200) or less.

(d) The Legislature declares that the purpose of this section is to encourage local agencies and school districts to file claims for reimbursement with much more advance knowledge of the extent of possible reimbursement and to provide for a more expeditious and efficient claims process.

SEC. 11. Section 2253.8 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2253.8. The parameters and guidelines prepared by the Board of Control shall specify the fiscal years for which claims may be filed.

The period prescribed in the parameters and guidelines shall not provide for reimbursement of costs incurred in fiscal years preceding the eligibility date established by the date of submission of the first or "test" claim on a specified statute or executive order. The test claim shall be submitted on or before November 30 following a fiscal year in order to establish eligibility for that fiscal year.

SEC. 12. Section 2256 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2256. The State Board of Control shall hear and decide upon a claim by any state agency, that a local agency or school district has realized a cost savings authorized by the state as defined in Section 2219 or 2219.5.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, this article shall provide the sole and exclusive procedure by which the State Board of Control shall hear and decide upon a claim that a local agency or school district has realized a cost savings authorized by the state.

For the purpose of hearing and deciding upon such claims, the membership of the State Board of Control shall consist of those members specified in Section 2251.

No claim shall be made to the State Board of Control pursuant to this article unless the cost savings identified by such claim exceeds two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500), on a statewide basis, per fiscal year.

Any state agency with the authority to audit the records of any local agency or school district may do so for the purpose of establishing that there were cost savings authorized by the state in excess of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) for which a claim may be filed with the State Board of Control.

SEC. 13. Section 2256.4 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

2256.4. The State Board of Control may recommend an allocation formula based on actual savings.

SEC. 14. Section 2256.4 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended and renumbered to read:

2256.5. (a) Each local agency or school district which submits a claim pursuant to the provisions of Section 2231 shall submit a report on the amount of cost savings authorized by the state which it realized in the preceding fiscal year. Such report shall be submitted by the deadline for filing reimbursement claims specified in Section 2218.5.

(b) Subsequent to the enactment of a local government claims bill requiring the Controller to deduct cost savings realized by local agencies or school districts pursuant to a specific law or executive order, the Controller shall distribute the claiming instructions for reporting cost savings to all applicable local agencies and school districts.

(c) The Controller shall reduce the payments to each local agency or school district for "costs mandated by the state made pursuant to Section 2231" by 50 percent of the amount of "cost savings authorized by the state" realized by such local agency or school district in the preceding fiscal year. The first fiscal year for which the Controller shall reduce such payments shall be the fiscal year during which the local government claims bill requiring such deduction is enacted. The Controller shall not reduce any payment unless the cost savings authorized by the state and realized by a local agency or school district exceeds two hundred dollars ($200).

(d) No claim for mandated costs shall be paid by the Controller unless the local agency or school district which submitted the claim has also submitted all savings reports required by this section or a certification that such local agency or school district did not realize any savings which exceed two hundred dollars ($200).

SEC. 15. Section 2256.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended and renumbered to read:

2256.6. A school district, local agency, or the state may commence a proceeding in accordance with the provisions of Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure to set aside a decision of the State Board of Control on the grounds that the board's decision is not supported by substantial evidence. The court may order the board to hold another hearing regarding such claim and may direct the board on what basis the claim is to receive a rehearing.

SEC. 16. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to implement the provisions of this act at the earliest possible time, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 735

An act to amend Sections 39148 and 81138 of, and to add Sections 39157 and 81147 to, the Education Code, relating to public education.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 39148 of the Education Code is amended to read:

39148. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), all plans, specifications, and estimates shall be prepared by a licensed architect holding a valid certificate under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 5500) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code or by a structural engineer holding a valid certificate to use the title structural engineer under Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 6700) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, and the observation of the work of construction shall be under the responsible charge of such an architect or structural engineer.

(b) For the purposes of this section, a mechanical or electrical engineer holding a valid certificate under Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 6700) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code may be in responsible charge of preparation of plans, specifications, and estimates, and observation of the work of construction where the work is, as determined by the Department of General Services, of the kind normally performed by engineers certified in the particular branch of engineering for which the engineer is certified. Any architectural or structural work involved shall be the respective responsibility of a licensed architect holding a valid certificate under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 5500) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, or a structural engineer holding a valid certificate to use the title structural engineer under Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 6700) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code.

SEC. 2. Section 39157 is added to the Education Code, to read:

39157. (a) When a school building constructed in accordance with plans and specifications approved by the Department of General Services is completed, the notice of completion is filed, and all final verified reports and all testing and inspection documents, as required by this article or as required by the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this article, are submitted to and on file with the Department of General Services, and all required fees paid by the school district, the department shall issue a certification that the school building complies with the requirements of this article. Nothing in this article shall prevent beneficial occupancy by a school district prior to the issuance of this certification.

(b) When a school building, constructed in accordance with approved plans and specifications, is completed but final verified reports, as are required under Section 39151, have not been submitted to the Department of General Services due to the incapacitating illness, death, or the default of any persons required to file such reports, the Department of General Services shall, upon written request of the school district, review all of the project records and make such examinations as it deems necessary to enable it to certify that the school building otherwise complies with the requirements of this article. The Department of General Services may request the school district to have made, reported, and verified any other tests and inspections which the department deems necessary to complete its examinations of the construction.

(c) The costs incurred by the Department of General Services in connection with this section shall be paid by the school district. The actual costs to perform the examinations, tests, and inspections shall be an appropriate cost of the project to be paid from the building funds of the district. Certification of the project by the Department of General Services shall be withheld until all the costs have been paid by the school district.

(d) This section shall not relieve any individual of his or her responsibility to file verified reports, as required in Section 39151, or any other documents required by the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this article. This section shall not abrogate the provisions of Section 39154.

SEC. 3. Section 81138 of the Education Code is amended to read:

81138. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), all plans, specifications, and estimates shall be prepared by a licensed architect holding a valid certificate under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 5500) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code or by a structural engineer holding a valid certificate to use the title structural engineer under Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 6700) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, and the observation of the work of construction shall be under the responsible charge of such an architect or structural engineer.

(b) For the purposes of this section, a mechanical or electrical engineer holding a valid certificate under Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 6700) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code may be in responsible charge of preparation of plans, specifications, and estimates, and observation of the work of construction where the work is, as determined by the Department of General Services, of the kind normally performed by engineers certified in the particular branch of engineering for which the engineer is certified. Any architectural or structural work involved shall be the respective responsibility of a licensed architect holding a valid certificate under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 5500) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, or a structural engineer holding a valid certificate to use the title structural engineer under Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 6700) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code.

SEC. 4. Section 81147 is added to the Education Code, to read:

81147. (a) When a school building constructed in accordance with plans and specifications approved by the Department of General Services is completed, the notice of completion is filed, and all final verified reports and all testing and inspection documents, as required by this article or as required by the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this article, are submitted to and on file with the Department of General Services, and all required fees paid by the community college district, the department shall issue a certification that the school building complies with the requirements of this article. Nothing in this article shall prevent beneficial occupancy by a community college district prior to the issuance of this certification.

(b) When a school building, constructed in accordance with approved plans and specifications, is completed but final verified reports, as are required under Section 81141, have not been submitted to the Department of General Services due to the incapacitating illness, death, or the default of any persons required to file such reports, the Department of General Services shall, upon written request of the community college district, review all of the project records and make such examinations as it deems necessary to enable it to certify that the school building otherwise complies with the requirements of this article. The Department of General Services may request the community college district to have made, reported, and verified any other tests and inspections which the department deems necessary to complete its examinations of the construction.

(c) The costs incurred by the Department of General Services in connection with this section shall be paid by the community college district. The actual costs to perform the examinations, tests, and inspections shall be an appropriate cost of the project to be paid from the building funds of the district. Certification of the project by the Department of General Services shall be withheld until all the costs have been paid by the community college district.

(d) This section shall not relieve any individual of his or her responsibility to file verified reports, as required in Section 81141, or any other documents required by the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this article. This section shall not abrogate the provisions of Section 81144.

CHAPTER 736

An act to amend Sections 11580.1 and 11580.2 of the Insurance Code, relating to automobile insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11580.1 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11580.1. (a) No policy of automobile liability insurance described in Section 16054 of the Vehicle Code covering liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of any motor vehicle shall be issued or delivered in this state on or after the effective date of this section unless it contains the provisions set forth in subdivision (b). However, none of the requirements of subdivision (b) shall apply to the insurance afforded under any such policy (1) to the extent that such insurance exceeds the limits specified in subdivision (a) of Section 16056 of the Vehicle Code, or (2) if such policy contains an underlying insurance requirement, or provides for a retained limit of self-insurance, equal to or greater than the limits specified in subdivision (a) of Section 16056 of the Vehicle Code.

(b) Every policy of automobile liability insurance to which subdivision (a) applies shall contain all of the following provisions:

(1) Coverage limits not less than the limits specified in subdivision (a) of Section 16056 of the Vehicle Code.

(2) Designation by explicit description of, or appropriate reference to, the motor vehicles or class of motor vehicles to which coverage is specifically granted.

(3) Designation by explicit description of the purposes for which coverage for such motor vehicles is specifically excluded.

(4) Provision affording insurance to the named insured with respect to any motor vehicle covered by such policy, and to the same extent that insurance is afforded to the named insured, to any other person using, or legally responsible for the use of, such motor vehicle, provided such use is by the named insured or with his permission, express or implied, and within the scope of such permission, except that: (i) with regard to insurance afforded for the loading or unloading of any such motor vehicle, the insurance may be limited to apply only to the named insured, a relative of the named insured who is a resident of the named insured's household, a lessee or bailee of the motor vehicle, or an employee of any such person; and (ii) the insurance afforded to any person other than the named insured need not apply to: (A) any employee with respect to bodily injury sustained by a fellow employee injured in the scope and course of his employment, or (B) any person, or to any agent or employee thereof, employed or otherwise engaged in the business of selling, repairing, servicing, delivering, testing, road-testing, parking, or storing automobiles with respect to any accident arising out of the maintenance or use of a motor vehicle in connection therewith.

(c) In addition to any exclusion as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (b), the insurance afforded by any such policy of automobile liability insurance to which subdivision (a) applies, including the insurer's obligation to defend, may, by appropriate policy provision, be made inapplicable to any or all of the following:

(1) Liability assumed by the insured under contract.

(2) Liability for bodily injury or property damage caused intentionally by or at the direction of the insured.

(3) Liability imposed upon or assumed by the insured under any workers' compensation law.

(4) Liability for bodily injury to any employee of the insured arising out of and in the course of his employment.

(5) Liability for bodily injury to an insured or liability for bodily injury to an insured whenever the ultimate benefits of that indemnification accrue directly or indirectly to an insured.

(6) Liability for damage to property owned, rented to, transported by, or in the charge of, an insured. A motor vehicle operated by an insured shall be considered to be property in the charge of an insured.

(7) Liability for any bodily injury or property damage with respect to which insurance is or can be afforded under a nuclear energy liability policy.

(8) Any motor vehicle or class of motor vehicles, as described or designated in the policy, with respect to which coverage is explicitly excluded, in whole or in part.

The term "the insured" as used in paragraphs (1), (2), (3), and (4) shall mean only that insured under the policy against whom the particular claim is made or suit brought. The term "an insured" as used in paragraphs (5) and (6) shall mean any insured under the policy.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (4) of subdivision (b), or the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 16450) of Chapter 3 of Division 7, or Article 2 (commencing with Section 17150) of Chapter 1 of Division 9, of the Vehicle Code, the insurer and any named insured may, by the terms of any policy of automobile liability insurance to which subdivision (a) applies, or by a separate writing relating thereto, agree as to either or both of the following limitations, such agreement to be binding upon every insured to whom such policy applies and upon every third party claimant:

(1) That coverage and the insurer's obligation to defend under such policy shall not apply nor accrue to the benefit of any insured or any third party claimant while any motor vehicle is being used or operated by a natural person or persons designated by name. The insurer shall have an obligation to defend the named insured when all of the following apply to such designated natural person:

1. He or she is a resident of the same household as the named insured.

2. As a result of operating the insured motor vehicle of the named insured, he or she is jointly sued with the named insured.

3. He or she is an insured under a separate automobile liability insurance policy issued to him as a named insured, which policy does not provide a defense to the named insured.

Such agreement shall remain in force as long as the policy remains in force, and shall apply to any continuation, renewal, or replacement of such policy by the named insured, or reinstatement of such policy within 30 days of any lapse thereof.

(2) That with regard to any such policy issued to a named insured engaged in the business of leasing vehicles for those vehicles which are leased for a term in excess of six months, or selling, repairing, servicing, delivering, testing, road-testing, parking, or storing automobiles, coverage shall not apply to any person other than the named insured or his agent or employee, except to the extent that the limits of liability of any other valid and collectible insurance available to such person are not equal to the limits of liability specified in subdivision (a) of Section 16056 of the Vehicle Code. If the policy is issued to a named insured engaged in the business of leasing vehicles, which business includes the lease of vehicles for a term in excess of six months, the named insured shall incorporate a provision in each vehicle lease contract advising the lessee of the provisions of this subdivision and the fact that this limitation is applicable except as otherwise provided for by statute or federal law.

(e) Nothing in this section or in Section 16054 or 16450 of the Vehicle Code shall be construed to constitute a homeowner's policy, personal and residence liability policy, personal and farm liability policy, general liability policy, comprehensive personal liability policy, manufacturers' and contractors' policy, premises liability policy, special multiperil policy, or any policy or endorsement where automobile liability coverage is offered as incidental to some other basic coverage as an "automobile liability policy" within the meaning of Section 16054 of the Vehicle Code, or as a "motor vehicle liability policy" within the meaning of Section 16450 of the Vehicle Code, nor shall any provision of this section apply to a policy which provides insurance covering liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of any motor vehicle in the Republic of Mexico issued or delivered in this state by a nonadmitted Mexican insurer, notwithstanding that any such policy may provide automobile or motor vehicle liability coverage on insured premises or the ways immediately adjoining.

(f) On and after January 1, 1976, no policy of automobile liability insurance described in subdivision (a) shall be issued, amended, or renewed in this state if it contains any provision which expressly or impliedly excludes from coverage under such policy the operation or use of an insured motor vehicle by the named insured in the performance of volunteer services for a nonprofit charitable organization or governmental agency by providing social service transportation. This subdivision shall not apply in any case in which the named insured receives any remuneration of any kind other than reimbursement for actual mileage driven in the performance of such services at a rate not to exceed the following:

(1) For the 1980–81 fiscal year, the maximum rate authorized by the State Board of Control, which shall also be known as the "base rate."

(2) For each fiscal year thereafter, the greater of either (A) the maximum rate authorized by the State Board of Control or (B) the base rate as adjusted by the California Consumer Price Index.

No policy of insurance issued under this section may be canceled by an insurer solely for the reason that the named insured is performing volunteer services for a nonprofit charitable organization or governmental agency consisting of providing social service transportation.

For the purposes of this section, "social service transportation" means transportation services provided by private nonprofit organizations or individuals to either individuals who are senior citizens or individuals or groups of individuals who have special transportation needs because of physical or mental conditions and supported in whole or in part by funding from private or public agencies.

(g) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) of this section, or the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 16450) of Chapter 3 of Division 7 of, or Article 2 (commencing with Section 17150) of Chapter 1 of Division 9 of, the Vehicle Code, a Mexican nonadmitted insurer and any named insured may, by the terms of any policy of automobile insurance for use solely in the Republic of Mexico to which subdivision (a) applies, or by a separate writing relating thereto, agree to the limitation that coverage under such policy shall not apply to any person riding in or occupying a vehicle owned by the insured or driven by another person with the permission of the insured. Such agreement shall be binding upon every insured to whom any such policy applies and upon any third party claimant.

(h) No policy of automobile insurance which provides insurance covering liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance or use of any motor vehicle solely in the Republic of Mexico issued by a nonadmitted Mexican insurance company, shall be subject to, or provide coverage for, those coverages provided in Section 11580.2.

SEC. 2. Section 11580.2 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11580.2. (a) (1) No policy of bodily injury liability insurance covering liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of any motor vehicle, except for policies which provide insurance in the Republic of Mexico issued or delivered in this state by nonadmitted Mexican insurers, shall be issued or delivered in this state to the owner or operator of a motor vehicle, or shall be issued or delivered by any insurer licensed in this state upon any motor vehicle then principally used or principally garaged in this state, unless the policy contains, or has added to it by endorsement, a provision with coverage limits at least equal to the limits specified in subdivision (m) and in no case less than the financial responsibility requirements specified in Section 16056 of the Vehicle Code insuring the insured, his heirs or his legal representative for all sums within such limits which he or they, as the case may be, shall be legally entitled to recover as damages for bodily injury or wrongful death from the owner or operator of an uninsured motor vehicle. The insurer and any named insured, prior to or subsequent to the issuance or renewal of a policy, may, by agreement in writing, in the form specified in paragraph (2), delete the provision covering damage caused by an uninsured motor vehicle (1) completely, or (2) delete such coverage when a motor vehicle is operated by a natural person or persons designated by name, or agree to provide such coverage in an amount less than that required by subdivision (m) but not less than the financial responsibility requirements specified in Section 16056 of the Vehicle Code. Any such agreements by any named insured or agreement for the amount of coverage shall be binding upon every insured to whom such policy or endorsement provisions apply while such policy is in force, and shall continue to be so binding with respect to any continuation, renewal, or replacement of such policy by the named insured, or with respect to reinstatement of such policy within 30 days of any lapse thereof. A policy shall be excluded from the application of this section if the only coverage with respect to the use of any motor vehicle is limited to the contingent liability arising out of the use of nonowned motor vehicles.

(2) The agreement specified in paragraph (1) shall be in the following form:

"The California Insurance Code requires an insurer to provide uninsured motorists coverage in each bodily injury liability insurance policy it issues covering liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of a motor vehicle. Such section also permits the insurer and the applicant to delete such coverage completely or to delete such coverage when a motor vehicle is operated by a natural person or persons designated by name, or agree to provide such coverage in an amount less than that required by subdivision (m) of Section 11580.2 of the Insurance Code, but not less than the financial responsibility requirements. Uninsured motorists coverage insures the insured, his heirs, or legal representatives for all sums within the limits established by law, which such person or persons are legally entitled to recover as damages for bodily injury, including any resulting sickness, disease, or death, to him from the owner or operator of an uninsured motor vehicle not owned or operated by the insured."

Such agreement may contain additional statements not in derogation of or conflict with the foregoing. The execution of such agreement shall relieve the insurer of liability under this section while such agreement remains in effect.

(b) As used in (a) above, "bodily injury" includes sickness or disease, including death, resulting therefrom; the term "named insured" means only the individual or organization named in the declarations of the policy of motor vehicle bodily injury liability insurance referred to in (a) above; as used in (a) above the term "insured" means the named insured and the spouse of the named insured and, while residents of the same household, relatives of either while occupants of a motor vehicle or otherwise, heirs and any other person while in or upon or entering into or alighting from an insured motor vehicle and any person with respect to damages he is entitled to recover for care or loss of services because of bodily injury to which the policy provisions or endorsement apply; the term "insured motor vehicle" means the motor vehicle described in the underlying insurance policy of which the uninsured motorist endorsement or coverage is a part, a temporary substitute automobile for which liability coverage is provided in the policy or a newly acquired automobile for which liability coverage is provided in the policy if the motor vehicle is used by the named insured or with his permission or consent, express or implied, and any other automobile not owned by the named insured or any resident of the same household, or by a natural person or persons for whom coverage has been deleted in accordance with subdivision (a) while being operated by the named insured or his spouse if a resident of the same household, but the term "insured motor vehicle" shall not include any automobile while used as a public or livery conveyance. As used in this section, the term "uninsured motor vehicle" means a motor vehicle with respect to the ownership, maintenance or use of which there is no bodily injury liability insurance or bond applicable at the time of the accident, or there is such applicable insurance or bond but the company writing the same denies coverage thereunder or refuses to admit coverage thereunder except conditionally or with reservation, or a motor vehicle used without the permission of the owner thereof if there is no bodily injury liability insurance or bond applicable at the time of the accident with respect to the owner or operator thereof, or the owner or operator thereof be unknown, provided that, with respect to an "uninsured motor vehicle" whose owner or operator is unknown:

(1) The bodily injury has arisen out of physical contact of such automobile with the insured or with an automobile which the insured is occupying.

(2) The insured or someone on his behalf shall have reported the accident within 24 hours to the police department of the city where the accident occurred or, if the accident occurred in unincorporated territory then either the sheriff of the county where the accident occurred or the local headquarters of the California Highway Patrol, and have filed with the insurer within 30 days thereafter a statement under oath that the insured or his legal representative has or the insured's heirs have a cause of action arising out of such accident for damages against a person or persons whose identity is unascertainable and set forth facts in support thereof. As used in this section, the term "uninsured motor vehicle" shall not include a motor vehicle owned by the named insured or any resident of the same household or self-insured within the meaning of the Safety Responsibility Law of the state in which the motor vehicle is registered or which is owned by the United States of America, Canada, a state or political subdivision of any such government or an agency of any of the foregoing, or a land motor vehicle or trailer operated on rails or crawler treads or while located for use as a residence or premises and not as a vehicle, or a farm-type tractor or equipment designed for use principally off public roads, except while actually upon public roads.

As used in this section, the term "uninsured motor vehicle" also means an insured motor vehicle where the liability insurer thereof is unable to make payment with respect to the legal liability of its insured within the limits specified therein because of insolvency. An insurer's solvency protection shall be applicable only to accidents occurring during a policy period in which its insured's motor vehicle coverage is in effect where the liability insurer of the tortfeasor becomes insolvent within one year of such accident. In the event of payment to any person under the coverage required by this section and subject to the terms and conditions of such coverage, the insurer making such payment, shall to the extent thereof, be entitled to any proceeds which may be recoverable from the assets of the insolvent insurer through any settlement or judgment of such person against the insolvent insurer.

(c) The insurance coverage provided for in this section does not apply either as primary or as excess coverage to:

(1) To property damage sustained by the insured.

(2) To bodily injury of the insured while in or upon or while entering into or alighting from a motor vehicle other than the described motor vehicle if the owner thereof has insurance similar to that provided in this section.

(3) To bodily injury of the insured with respect to which the insured or his representative shall, without the written consent of the insurer, make any settlement with or prosecute to judgment any action against any person who may be legally liable therefor.

(4) In any instance where it would inure directly or indirectly to the benefit of any workers' compensation carrier or to any person qualified as a self-insurer under any workers' compensation law, or directly to the benefit of the United States, or any state or any political subdivision thereof.

(5) To establish proof of financial responsibility as provided in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) of Section 16054 of the Vehicle Code.

(6) To bodily injury of the insured while occupying a motor vehicle owned by an insured, unless the occupied vehicle is an insured motor vehicle.

(7) To bodily injury of the insured when struck by a vehicle owned by an insured.

(d) Subject to paragraph (2) of subdivision (c), the policy or endorsement may provide that if the insured has insurance available to him under more than one uninsured motorist coverage provision, any damages shall not be deemed to exceed the higher of the applicable limits of the respective coverages, and such damages shall be prorated between the applicable coverages as the limits of each coverage bears to the total of such limits.

(e) The policy or endorsement added thereto may provide that if the insured has valid and collectible automobile medical payment insurance available to him, the damages which he shall be entitled to recover from the owner or operator of an uninsured motor vehicle shall be reduced for purposes of uninsured motorist coverage by the amounts paid or due to be paid under such automobile medical payment insurance. This subdivision shall become operative on January 1, 1971.

(f) The policy or an endorsement added thereto shall provide that the determination as to whether the insured shall be legally entitled to recover damages, and if so entitled, the amount thereof, shall be made by agreement between the insured and the insurer or, in the event of disagreement, by arbitration. The arbitration shall be conducted by a single neutral arbitrator. An award or a judgment confirming an award shall not be conclusive on any party in any action or proceeding between (i) the insured, his insurer, his legal representative, or his heirs and (ii) the uninsured motorist to recover damages arising out of the accident upon which the award is based. If the insured has or may have rights to benefits, other than nonoccupational disability benefits, under any workers' compensation law, the arbitrator shall not proceed with the arbitration until the insured's physical condition is stationary and ratable. In those cases in which the insured claims a permanent disability, such claims shall, unless good cause be shown, be adjudicated by award or settled by compromise and release before the arbitration may proceed. Any demand or petition for arbitration shall contain a declaration, under penalty of perjury, stating whether (i) the insured has a workers' compensation claim; (ii) such claim has proceeded to findings and award or settlement on all issues reasonably contemplated to be determined in that claim; and (iii) if not, what reasons amounting to good cause are grounds for the arbitration to proceed immediately. The provisions of Article 3 (commencing with Section 2016) of Chapter 3 of Title 3 of Part 4 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall be applicable to such determinations, and all rights, remedies, obligations, liabilities and procedures set forth in such Article 3 shall be available to both the insured and the insurer at any time after the accident, both before and after the commencement of arbitration, if any, with the following limitations:

(1) Whenever in such Article 3, reference is made to the court in which the action is pending, or provision is made for application to the court or obtaining leave of court or approval by the court, the court which shall have jurisdiction for the purposes of this section shall be the superior court of the State of California, in and for any county which is a proper county for the filing of a suit for bodily injury arising out of the accident, against the uninsured motorist, or any county specified in the policy or an endorsement added thereto as a proper county for arbitration or action thereon.

(2) Any such proper court to which application is first made by either the insured or the insurer under the provisions of such Article 3 for any discovery or other relief or remedy, shall thereafter be the only court to which either of the parties shall make any applications under such Article 3 with respect to the same accident, subject, however, to the right of such court to grant a change of venue after a hearing upon notice, upon any of the grounds upon which change of venue might be granted in an action filed in the superior court.

(3) A deposition pursuant to the provisions of Section 2016 of the Code of Civil Procedure may be taken without leave of court, except that leave of court, granted with or without notice and for good cause shown, must be obtained if the notice of the taking of the deposition is served by either party within 20 days after the accident.

(4) The provisions of paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 2019 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall not be applicable to discovery under this section.

(5) For the purposes of discovery under this section, the insured and the insurer shall each be deemed to be "a party to the record of any civil action or proceedings," where that phrase is used in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 2019 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(6) Interrogatories under the provisions of Section 2030 of the Code of Civil Procedure and requests for admission under Section 2033 of the Code of Civil Procedure may be served by either the insured or the insurer upon the other at any time more than 20 days after the accident without leave of court.

(7) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the rights of any party to discovery in any action pending or which may hereafter be pending in any court.

(g) The insurer paying a claim under an uninsured motorist endorsement or coverage shall be entitled to be subrogated to the rights of the insured to whom such claim was paid against any person legally liable for such injury or death to the extent that payment was made. Such action may be brought within three years from the date that payment was made hereunder.

(h) An insured entitled to recovery under the uninsured motorist endorsement or coverage shall be reimbursed within the conditions stated herein without being required to sign any release or waiver of rights to which he may be entitled under any other insurance coverage applicable; nor shall payment under this section to such insured be delayed or made contingent upon the decisions as to liability or distribution of loss costs under other bodily injury liability insurance or any bond applicable to the accident. Any loss payable under the terms of the uninsured motorist endorsement or coverage to or for any person may be reduced:

(1) By the amount paid and the present value of all amounts payable to him, his executor, administrator, heirs, or legal representative under any workers' compensation law, exclusive of nonoccupational disability benefits.

(2) By the amount the insured is entitled to recover from any other person insured under the underlying liability insurance policy of which the uninsured motorist endorsement or coverage is a part.

(i) No cause of action shall accrue to the insured under any policy or endorsement provision issued pursuant to this section unless within one year from the date of the accident:

(1) Suit for bodily injury has been filed against the uninsured motorist, in a court of competent jurisdiction, or

(2) Agreement as to the amount due under the policy has been concluded, or

(3) The insured has formally instituted arbitration proceedings.

(j) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions (b) and (i), in the event the accident occurs in any other state or foreign jurisdiction to which coverage is extended under the policy and the insurer of the tortfeasor becomes insolvent, any action authorized pursuant to the provisions of this section may be maintained within three months of the insolvency of the tortfeasor's insurer, but in no event later than the pertinent period of limitation of the jurisdiction in which the accident occurred.

(k) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (i), any insurer whose insured has made a claim under his or her uninsured motorist coverage, and such claim is pending, shall, at least 30 days before the expiration of the applicable statute of limitation, notify its insured in writing of the statute of limitation applicable to such injury or death. Failure of the insurer to provide such written notice shall operate to toll any applicable statute of limitation or other time limitation for a period of 30 days from the date such written notice is actually given. The notice shall not be required if the insurer has received notice that the insured is represented by an attorney.

(l) As used in subdivision (b), "public or livery conveyance," or terms of similar import, shall not include the operation or use of a motor vehicle by the named insured in the performance of volunteer services for a nonprofit charitable organization or governmental agency by providing social service transportation as defined in subdivision (f) of Section 11580.1. This subdivision shall apply only to policies of insurance issued, amended, or renewed on or after January 1, 1976.

(m) Coverage provided under an uninsured motorist endorsement or coverage shall be offered with coverage limits equal to the limits of liability for bodily injury in the underlying policy of insurance, but shall not be required to be offered with limits in excess of the following amounts:

(1) A limit of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) because of bodily injury to or death of one person in any one accident.

(2) Subject to the limit for one person set forth in paragraph (1), a limit of sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) because of bodily injury to or death of two or more persons in any one accident.

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the amendments made by this act which are contained in the first paragraph of subdivision (c) of Section 11580.1 of the Insurance Code to ensure that there is no duty to provide a defense where there is no reasonable possibility of an obligation to provide insurance coverage under subdivision (c). Further, it is the intent of the amendments made by this act which are contained in paragraph (5) of subdivision (c) of Section 11580.1 of the Insurance Code to ensure that there is no duty to indemnify an insured named in a cross-complaint where there would be no duty to indemnify if the insured were sued directly.

CHAPTER 737

An act to amend Sections 14591, 55601.6, and 62212 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to agriculture, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14591 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

14591. (a) Every lot, parcel, or package of commercial fertilizer which is distributed into or within this state shall have attached to it, or be accompanied by, a label which states all of the following:

(1) Net weight or volume as required by law.

(2) Brand name and grade.

(3) Name and address of the licensed manufacturer.

(4) Guaranteed analysis statement which includes information regarding the ingredients of the fertilizer as specified by the director by regulation.

(b) When the name of a fertilizer material appears on the label of a mixed fertilizer, outside the required listing in the nutrient source list, the percentage of that ingredient present shall also appear on the label in print of the same size and color.

(c) When the name of a fertilizer material is used as a part of the name of a mixed fertilizer, as for example, blood, bone, or fish, the nitrogen or phosphoric acid shall be derived from or supplied entirely by the material named. When the name of a fertilizer material is used as a brand or as part of a brand and the nitrogen or phosphoric acid is not supplied by the material named, the word "brand" shall follow the name of the material.

(d) When the director finds, after public hearing following due notice, that the requirement for expressing the guaranteed analysis of phosphorus and potassium in elemental form would not impose an economic hardship on distributors and users of fertilizer by reason of conflicting labeling requirements among the states, he thereafter may require, by regulation, that the "guaranteed analysis" for phosphorous and potassium shall be in the following form:

Available Phosphorus (P)	percent.
Soluble Potassium (K)	percent.

The effective date of the regulation shall not be less than six months following its issuance, and, for a period of two years following the effective date of the regulation, the equivalent of phosphorus and potassium may also be shown in the form of phosphoric acid and potash. However, after the effective date of any regulation issued under the provisions of this paragraph which requires that phosphorus and potassium be shown in the elemental form, the guaranteed analysis for nitrogen, phosphorus, and potassium shall constitute the grade.

(e) The director may require proof of labeling statements and claims made for any commercial fertilizer. As evidence of proof, the director may rely on experimental data, evaluations, or advice furnished by scientists such as those of the University of California, and may accept or reject additional sources of proof. The director may disapprove a commercial fertilizer label if he determines adequate proof of label claims does not exist. The director, after hearing, may cancel the license or licenses of any licensee who distributes a commercial fertilizer under a disapproved label.

SEC. 2. Section 55601.6 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

55601.6. To provide funds to carry out the provisions of Section 55601.5, each processor who crushes more than 100 tons of grapes in California shall pay to the director the amount determined by the director to be necessary to cover these costs, but not to exceed three cents ($0.03) per ton of grapes received for crushing, fresh weight equivalent, during each marketing season beginning July 1 and ending the following June 30, provided that one and one-half cents ($0.015) per ton of grapes received for crushing, or one-half of the fee if the fee is less than three cents ($0.03), shall be paid by the processor who crushes grapes and that one and one-half cents ($0.015) per ton of grapes received for crushing including any grapes produced by the processor, or one-half of the fee if the fee is less than three cents ($0.03), shall be paid by the processor who crushes grapes and may be deducted from moneys owed to the producer.

The amount of the fee shall be paid to the director on or before January 10 of each year on all grapes received for crushing through December 15. The amount of the fee on any grapes received for crushing after December 15 shall be paid to the director on or before June 30 of that marketing season.

The director may fix the fee at a lesser amount and may adjust the fee from marketing season to marketing season.

Any processor who crushes grapes who fails, neglects, or refuses to pay the required fee shall be in violation of this chapter as provided for in subdivision (i) of Section 55601.5. Any processor who crushes grapes shall not be entitled to pass any such penalty on to the producer of the grapes.

All moneys received under the provisions of this section shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund.

SEC. 3. Section 62212 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

62212. The director may fix the rates of assessments or fees required by Section 62211 at lesser amounts, and may adjust the rates of assessments or fees from time to time, whenever he or she finds that the cost of administering the provisions of this chapter, including any allocation of funds made pursuant to Section 38986, can be defrayed from revenues derived from the lower rates. However the rate of assessments deducted from payments to producers for market milk, including the handler's own production, and the rate of fees paid by handlers shall at all times be in the ratio of 2 to 1.

CHAPTER 738

An act to amend Section 22658 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22658 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

22658. (a) The owner or person in lawful possession of any private property may, subsequent to notifying, by telephone or, if impractical, by the most expeditious means available, the city police or county sheriff, whichever is appropriate, cause the removal of a vehicle parked on such property to the nearest public garage, if there is displayed, in plain view at all entrances to the property, a sign prohibiting public parking and indicating that vehicles will be removed at the owner's expense, and containing the telephone number of the local traffic law enforcement agency. The sign shall be of such size as specified by ordinance.

(b) The person causing removal of such vehicle shall, if the person knows or is able to ascertain from the registration records of the Department of Motor Vehicles the name and address of the registered and legal owner thereof, immediately give, or cause to be given, notice in writing to the registered and legal owner of the fact of such removal, the grounds for the removal, and indicate the place to which the vehicle has been removed. In the event the vehicle is stored in a public garage, a copy of the notice shall be given to the proprietor of the garage. The notice provided for in this section shall include the amount of mileage on the vehicle at the time of removal. If the person does not know and is not able to ascertain the name of the owner or for any other reason is unable to give the notice to the owner as provided in this section, the person causing removal of a vehicle shall comply with the requirements of Section 22853 relating to notice in the same manner as applicable to an officer removing a vehicle from private property.

(c) The provisions of this section shall not limit or affect any right or remedy which the owner or person in lawful possession of private property may have by virtue of other provisions of law authorizing the removal of a vehicle parked upon such property.

(d) The owner of a vehicle removed from private property pursuant to subdivision (a) may recover for any damage to the vehicle resulting from any intentional or negligent act of any person causing the removal of, or removing, the vehicle.

(e) Any owner or person in lawful possession of any private property causing the removal of a vehicle parked on that property, shall be liable for any storage or towing charges whenever there has been a failure to post a sign as provided for in subdivision (a).

(f) No person shall cause the removal of any vehicle from a privately owned and operated fee-paid parking facility until at least 12 hours after the expiration of the period for which the fee is paid for the vehicle. This subdivision does not apply to any parking space or stall rented to a person and reserved or otherwise clearly marked or designated for the use of that person.

SEC. 2. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 739

An act to amend Section 1716 of, to add Sections 1504, 3707, and 7191 to, and to add Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11675) to Part 4 of Division 2 of, the Financial Code, relating to financial institutions.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1504 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

1504. Pursuant to the authority contained in Section 1 of Article XV of the California Constitution, the restrictions upon rates of interest contained in Section 1 of Article XV of the California Constitution shall not apply to any obligations of, loans made or arranged by, or forbearances of, any state bank or national bank whose principal place of business is in the State of California, which is authorized to transact a trust business, or any trust company authorized to engage in the trust business, when the bank or company is acting in its fiduciary capacity.

This section creates and authorizes an exempt class of persons pursuant to Section 1 of Article XV of the Constitution.

SEC. 2. Section 1716 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1716. Any foreign (other nation) bank which, at the time it makes a loan or forbearance or executes a contract therefor, has assets equal to at least one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000), is licensed to maintain an office in California, is licensed or otherwise authorized by another state of the United States to maintain an agency or branch office in that state, or which maintains a federal agency or federal branch in any state of the United States and any foreign (other state) bank is exempted from the restrictions of Section 1 of Article XV of the Constitution relating to rates of interest upon the loan or forbearance of any money, goods, or things in action or on accounts after demand.

This section creates and authorizes an exempt class of persons pursuant to Section 1 of Article XV of the Constitution.

SEC. 3. Section 3707 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

3707. Pursuant to the authority contained in Section 1 of Article XV of the California Constitution, the restrictions upon rates of interest contained in Section 1 of Article XV of the California Constitution shall not apply to any obligations of, loans made or arranged by, or forbearances of or arranged by, a bank holding company or a subsidiary of a bank holding company which is not a bank. As used in this section, the terms "bank holding company" and "subsidiary" mean a bank holding company or subsidiary as defined in Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 1841) of Title 12 of the United States Code.

This section creates and authorizes an exempt class of persons pursuant to Section 1 of Article XV of the Constitution. This section does not exempt a bank holding company or a subsidiary of a bank holding company from complying with all other applicable provisions of law regulating the business of these companies.

SEC. 4. Section 7191 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

7191. Pursuant to the authority contained in Section 1 of Article XV of the California Constitution, the restrictions upon rates of interest contained in Section 1 of Article XV of the California Constitution shall not apply to any obligations of, loans made or arranged by, or forbearances of, a state or federal savings and loan association which is authorized to exercise trust powers when the association is acting in its fiduciary capacity.

This section creates and authorizes an exempt class of persons pursuant to Section 1 of Article XV of the Constitution.

SEC. 5. Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11675) is added to Part 4 of Division 2 of the Financial Code, to read:

CHAPTER 5. USURY EXEMPTION

11675. Pursuant to the authority contained in Section 1 of Article XV of the California Constitution, the restrictions upon rates of interest contained in Section 1 of Article XV of the California Constitution shall not apply to any obligations of, loans made or arranged by, or forbearances of, an entity that is a savings and loan holding company, a subsidiary of a savings and loan holding company that is not a savings and loan association, or a service corporation which is a subsidiary of a savings and loan association or a federal savings and loan association. As used in this section, the terms "savings and loan holding company" and "subsidiary," mean a savings and loan holding company or a subsidiary, as defined in Section 408 of the National Housing Act (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1730a(a)(1)), as amended, and the term "service corporation" means a service corporation described in Section 5(c)(4)(B) of the Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933 (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1464), as amended, or Section 6702.1.

This section creates and authorizes an exempt class of persons pursuant to Section 1 of Article XV of the Constitution. This section does not exempt a savings and loan holding company, a subsidiary of a savings and loan holding company, or a service corporation which is a subsidiary of a savings and loan association or a federal savings and loan assocation from complying with all other applicable provisions of law regulating the business of these companies.

CHAPTER 740

An act to amend Sections 8920, 8921, 8922, 8924, 8925, 8926, 8943, 8944, 8945, and 8950 of the Government Code, relating to the Legislature.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8920 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8920. (a) No Member of the Legislature, state elective or appointive officer, or judge or justice shall, while serving as such, have any interest, financial or otherwise, direct or indirect, or engage in any business or transaction or professional activity, or incur any obligation of any nature, which is in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of his duties in the public interest and of his responsibilities as prescribed in the laws of this state.

(b) No Member of the Legislature shall do any of the following:

(1) Accept other employment which he has reason to believe will either impair his independence of judgment as to his official duties or require him, or induce him, to disclose confidential information acquired by him in the course of and by reason of his official duties.

(2) Willfully and knowingly disclose, for pecuniary gain, to any other person, confidential information acquired by him in the course of and by reason of his official duties or use any such information for the purpose of pecuniary gain.

(3) Accept or agree to accept, or be in partnership with any person who accepts or agrees to accept, any employment, fee, or other thing of monetary value, or portion thereof, in consideration of his appearing, agreeing to appear, or taking any other action on behalf of another person before any state board or agency.

This subdivision shall not be construed to prohibit a member who is an attorney at law from practicing in that capacity before any court or before the Workers' Compensation Appeals Board and receiving compensation therefor. This subdivision shall not act to prohibit a member from acting as an advocate without compensation or making inquiry for information on behalf of a constituent before a state board or agency, or from engaging in activities on behalf of another which require purely ministerial acts by the board or agency and which in no way require the board or agency to exercise any discretion, or from engaging in activities involving a board or agency which are strictly on his or her own behalf. The prohibition contained in this subdivision shall not apply to a partnership or firm of which the Member of the Legislature is a member if the Member of the Legislature does not share directly or indirectly in the fee, less any expenses attributable to that fee, resulting from the transaction. The prohibition contained in this subdivision as it read immediately prior to January 1, 1983, shall not apply in connection with any matter pending before any state board or agency on or before January 2, 1967, if the affected Member of the Legislature was an attorney of record or representative in the matter prior to January 2, 1967. The prohibition contained in this subdivision, as amended and operative on January 1, 1983, shall not apply to any activity of any Member in connection with a matter pending before any state board or agency on January 1, 1983, which was not prohibited by this section prior to that date, if the affected Member of the Legislature was an attorney of record or representative in the matter prior to January 1, 1983.

(4) Receive or agree to receive, directly or indirectly, any compensation, reward, or gift from any source except the State of California for any service, advice, assistance or other matter related to the legislative process, except fees for speeches or published works on legislative subjects and except, in connection therewith, reimbursement of expenses for actual expenditures for travel and reasonable subsistence for which no payment or reimbursement is made by the State of California.

(5) Participate, by voting or any other action, on the floor of either house, in committee, or elsewhere, in the passage or defeat of legislation in which he has a personal interest, except as follows:

(i) If, on the vote for final passage by the house of which he is a member, of the legislation in which he has a personal interest, he first files a statement (which shall be entered verbatim on the journal) stating in substance that he has a personal interest in the legislation to be voted on and, notwithstanding that interest, he is able to cast a fair and objective vote on that legislation, he may cast his vote without violating any provision of this article.

(ii) If the member believes that, because of his personal interest, he should abstain from participating in the vote on the legislation, he shall so advise the presiding officer prior to the commencement of the vote and shall be excused from voting on the legislation without any entry on the journal of the fact of his personal interest. In the event a rule of the house requiring that each member who is present vote aye or nay is invoked, the presiding officer shall order the member excused from compliance and shall order entered on the journal a simple statement that the member was excused from voting on the legislation pursuant to law.

The provisions of this section do not apply to persons who are members of the state civil service as defined in Article VII of the California Constitution.

SEC. 2. Section 8921 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8921. A person subject to this article has an interest which is in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of his duties in the public interest and of his responsibilities as prescribed in the laws of this state or a personal interest, arising from any situation, within the scope of this article, if he has reason to believe or expect that he will derive a direct monetary gain or suffer a direct monetary loss, as the case may be, by reason of his official activity. He does not have an interest which is in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of his duties in the public interest and of his responsibilities as prescribed in the laws of this state or a personal interest, arising from any situation, within the scope of this article, if any benefit or detriment accrues to him as a member of a business, profession, occupation, or group to no greater extent than any other member of that business, profession, occupation, or group.

SEC. 3. Section 8922 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8922. A person subject to the provisions of this article shall not be deemed to be engaged in any activity which is in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of his duties in the public interest and of his responsibilities as prescribed in the laws of this state, or have a personal interest, arising from any situation, within the scope of this article, solely by reason of any of the following:

(a) His relationship to any potential beneficiary of any situation is one which is defined as a remote interest by Section 1091 or is otherwise not deemed to be a prohibited interest by Section 1091.1 or 1091.5.

(b) Receipt of a campaign contribution regulated, received, reported, and accounted for pursuant to Title 9 (commencing with Section 81000), so long as the contribution is not made on the understanding or agreement, in violation of law, that the person's vote, opinion, judgment, or action will be influenced thereby.

SEC. 4. Section 8924 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8924. (a) No employee of either house of the Legislature shall, during the time he is so employed, commit any act or engage in any activity prohibited by any provision of this article. The provisions of this article and Article 3 (commencing with Section 8940) which are applicable to a Member of the Legislature are also applicable to any employee of either house of the Legislature.

(b) Nothing in this part shall be construed to prohibit an employee of either house of the Legislature from serving in an elective or appointive office of any regional or local public agency.

SEC. 4.2. Section 8925 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8925. No person shall induce or seek to induce any Member of the Legislature to violate any provision of this article.

SEC. 4.4. Section 8926 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8926. Every person who knowingly and willfully violates any provision of this article is guilty of a misdemeanor. Every person who conspires to violate any provision of this article is guilty of a felony.

SEC. 5. Section 8943 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8943. (a) The committee shall have power, pursuant to the provisions of this article, to investigate and make findings and recommendations concerning alleged violations by Members of the Legislature of the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 8920).

(b) The committee may, on its own action, initiate an investigation of a Member of the Legislature. The action may be taken only if the requirements of Section 8954 are satisfied.

SEC. 6. Section 8944 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8944. (a) Any person may file a statement alleging a violation of Article 2 (commencing with Section 8920) with the committee.

(b) To constitute a valid complaint, the statement shall satisfy all of the following requirements:

(1) It shall be in writing.

(2) It shall state the name of the Member of the Legislature alleged to have committed a violation.

(3) It shall set forth allegations which, if true, would constitute a violation of Article 2 (commencing with Section 8920). These allegations shall be stated with sufficient clarity and detail to enable the committee to make a determination pursuant to Section 8945.

(4) It shall be signed by the complainant under penalty of perjury.

(5) It shall include a statement that the facts are true of the complainant's own knowledge or that the complainant believes them to be true.

(c) As used in this article, the term "complaint" means a valid complaint as specified in subdivision (b).

(d) If a complaint is filed with the committee, the committee shall promptly send a copy of the complaint to the Member of the Legislature alleged to have committed the violation complained of, who shall thereafter be designated as the respondent, and the committee may send a copy of the complaint to the house in which the respondent serves, the Attorney General, the Fair Political Practices Commission, and the district attorney of the county in which the alleged violation occurred.

(e) No complaint may be filed with the committee after the expiration of 12 months from the date upon which the alleged violation occurred.

SEC. 7. Section 8945 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8945. (a) If the committee determines that the complaint does not allege facts, directly or upon information and belief, sufficient to constitute a violation of any of the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 8920), it shall dismiss the complaint and notify the complainant and respondent thereof. If the committee has sent a copy of the complaint to any other person or entity specified in subdivision (d) of Section 8944, the committee shall also notify that person or entity of its determination under this subdivision.

(b) If the committee determines that the complaint does allege facts, directly or upon information and belief, sufficient to constitute a violation of any of the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 8920), the committee shall promptly investigate the alleged violation and, if after the preliminary investigation, the committee finds that probable cause exists for believing the allegations of the complaint, it shall fix a time for a hearing in the matter, which shall be not more than 30 days after the finding. If, after the preliminary investigation, the committee finds that probable cause does not exist for believing the allegations of the complaint, the committee shall dismiss the complaint. In either event the committee shall notify the complainant and respondent of its determination.

(c) If a result of an investigation initiated pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 8943, determines that probable cause exists for believing that a Member of the Legislature has violated any of the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 8920), the committee shall fix a time for a hearing in the matter, which shall be not more than 30 days after the determination.

(d) The committee shall make its determination under subdivision (a) or (b) not later than 90 days after first receiving a complaint which contains all of the information required by Section 8944. The committee may, however, seek an extension, not to exceed 90 days, which may be granted by a majority vote of the membership of each house. If the committee has requested a law enforcement agency to investigate the complaint or if the committee knows that the complaint is being investigated by a law enforcement agency, the time limits set forth in this subdivision shall be tolled until the investigation is completed.

(e) The committee's determination under subdivision (b) or (c) shall be stated in writing, with reasons given therefor, and shall be provided to the house in which the respondent serves, the Attorney General, the Fair Political Practices Commission, and the district attorney of the county in which the alleged violation occurred. The written determination provided pursuant to this subdivision is a public record and open to public inspection.

(f) Any deliberations of the committee from the time of receipt of a complaint until it decides to dismiss the complaint or to set a hearing shall not be open to the public unless the respondent requests a public meeting.

SEC. 8. Section 8950 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8950. (a) After the hearing the committee shall state its findings of fact. If the committee finds that the respondent has not violated any provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 8920), it shall order the action dismissed, and shall notify the respondent and complainant thereof and shall also transmit a copy of the complaint and the fact of dismissal to the house in which the respondent serves, the Attorney General, the Fair Political Practices Commission, and the district attorney of the appropriate county. The complaint and the fact of dismissal transmitted pursuant to this subdivision are public records and open to public inspection.

(b) If the committee finds that the respondent has violated any provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 8920), it shall state its findings of fact and submit a report thereon, which may include any recommendations as to actions which the committee believes would be appropriate to take against the respondent, to the house in which the respondent serves, send a copy of the findings and report to the complainant and respondent, and the committee shall also report thereon to the Attorney General, the Fair Political Practices Commission, and the district attorney of the appropriate county. The report submitted pursuant to this subdivision is a public record and open to public inspection.

(c) The house in which the respondent serves shall have 90 days after the receipt of a copy of the findings and report described in subdivision (b) within which to take action with respect to the respondent and may take no action against a respondent after that time regarding the allegations in the complaint which resulted in the findings and report described in subdivision (b).

SEC. 9. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 741

An act to amend Sections 21453, 21950 and 22100 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 21453 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

21453. (a) A driver facing a steady circular red signal alone shall stop at a marked limit line, but if none, before entering the crosswalk on the near side of the intersection or, if none, then before entering the intersection, and shall remain stopped until an indication to proceed is shown, except as provided in subdivision (b).

(b) Except when a sign is in place prohibiting a turn, a driver, after stopping as required by subdivision (a), facing a steady circular red signal, may turn right, or turn left from a one-way street onto a one-way street. A driver making such a turn shall yield the right-of-way to pedestrians lawfully within an adjacent crosswalk and to traffic lawfully using the intersection.

(c) A driver facing a steady red arrow signal shall not enter the intersection to make the movement indicated by the arrow and, unless entering the intersection to make a movement permitted by another signal, shall stop at a clearly marked limit line, but if none, before entering the crosswalk on the near side of the intersection, or if none, then before entering the intersection, and shall remain stopped until an indication permitting movement is shown.

(d) Unless otherwise directed by a pedestrian control signal as provided in Section 21456, a pedestrian facing a steady circular red or red arrow signal shall not enter the roadway.

SEC. 2. Section 21950 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

21950. (a) The driver of a vehicle shall yield the right-of-way to a pedestrian crossing the roadway within any marked crosswalk or within any unmarked crosswalk at an intersection, except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

(b) The provisions of this section shall not relieve a pedestrian from the duty of using due care for his or her safety. No pedestrian shall suddenly leave a curb or other place of safety and walk or run into the path of a vehicle which is so close as to constitute an immediate hazard. No pedestrian shall unnecessarily stop or delay traffic while in a marked or unmarked crosswalk.

(c) The provisions of subdivision (b) shall not relieve a driver of a vehicle from the duty of exercising due care for the safety of any pedestrian within any marked crosswalk or within any unmarked crosswalk at an intersection.

SEC. 3. Section 22100 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

22100. Except as provided in Section 22100.5 or 22101, the driver of any vehicle intending to turn upon a highway shall do so as follows:

(a) Right Turns. Both the approach for a right-hand turn and a right-hand turn shall be made as close as practicable to the right-hand curb or edge of the roadway except:

(1) Upon a highway having three marked lanes for traffic moving in one direction which terminates at an intersecting highway accommodating traffic in both directions, the driver of a vehicle in the middle lane may turn right into any lane lawfully available to traffic moving in that direction upon the roadway being entered.

(2) When a right-hand turn is made from a one-way highway at an intersection, a driver shall approach the turn as provided in subdivision (a) and shall complete the turn in any lane lawfully available to traffic moving in that direction upon the roadway being entered.

(3) Upon a highway having an additional lane or lanes marked for a right turn by appropriate signs or markings, the driver of a vehicle may turn right from any lane designated and marked for that turning movement.

(b) Left Turns. The approach for a left turn shall be made as close as practicable to the left-hand edge of the extreme left-hand lane or portion of the roadway lawfully available to traffic moving in the direction of travel of such vehicle and, when turning at an intersection, the left turn shall not be made before entering the intersection. After entering the intersection, the left turn shall be made so as to leave the intersection in a lane lawfully available to traffic moving in that direction upon the roadway being entered, except:

(1) Upon a highway having three marked lanes for traffic moving in one direction which terminates at an intersecting highway accommodating traffic in both directions, the driver of a vehicle in the middle lane may turn left into any lane lawfully available to traffic moving in that direction upon the roadway being entered.

SEC. 4. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 742

An act to amend Section 710.5 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to unemployment insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 710.5 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

710.5. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 709, any public agency, as defined in Section 3501 of the Government Code, may elect to become an employer subject to Part 2 (commencing with Section 2601) of this division, with respect to all employees who are a part of an appropriate unit established pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 3500) of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code, provided such election is the result of a negotiated agreement between the public agency and the recognized employee organization, as such terms are defined in Section 3501 of the Government Code. The public agency employer also may elect to provide coverage to its management and confidential employees and to its employees who are not a part of an appropriate unit, but such election shall not be contingent upon coverage of other employees of the public agency employer.

Upon filing of such an election, the filing entity shall, upon approval by the director, become an employer subject to Part 2 (commencing with Section 2601) of this division to the same extent as other employers, and services performed by its employees who are subject to an election under this section shall constitute employment subject to such part. Beginning at that time, the public agency shall withhold from the wages of such employees the contributions required for unemployment compensation disability benefits.

(b) No public agency, as defined in Section 3501 of the Government Code, may file an election pursuant to this section after December 31, 1984, provided that this subdivision shall not affect any election made pursuant to this section before January 1, 1985.

(c) The department shall study the impact on the Disability Fund of elections made pursuant to this section and report its findings to the Legislature before January 1, 1984.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act for the purpose of making reimbursement pursuant to these sections. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of that code.

CHAPTER 743

An act to amend Section 7018.5 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to contractors.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7018.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7018.5. The board shall prescribe a form entitled "Notice to Owner" which shall describe, in nontechnical language and in a clear and coherent manner using words with common and everyday meaning, the pertinent provisions of this state's mechanics' lien laws and the rights and responsibilities of an owner of property and a contractor thereunder, including the provisions relating to the filing of a contract concerning a work of improvement with the county recorder and the recording in such office of a contractor's payment bond for private work. Each contractor licensed under this chapter, prior to entering into a contract with an owner for work specified as home improvement or swimming pool construction pursuant to Section 7159 or 7167, shall give a copy of this "Notice to Owner" to the owner, the owner's agent, or the payer.

The notice contained in the contract form prescribed by Section 7159 or 7167 shall be deemed to meet the requirements of this section.

This section shall become operative on June 30, 1980.

CHAPTER 744

An act to add Section 37602 to the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to dairy products.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 37602 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

37602. For commercial purposes, the name "jack cheese" may only be used to describe, or as an abbreviation for, "Monterey jack cheese" as that term is used in Section 37571 or "high moisture jack cheese" as that term is used in Section 37601.

SEC. 2. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 745

An act to amend Section 7512.4, 7514, 7521, 7523, and 7543.5 of, to add Sections 7526.5, 7538.10, 7538.11, 7538.12, 7538.13, 7543.7, 7550.6, and 7580.1 to, and to add Article 4.1 (commencing with Section 7548) to Chapter 11.5 of Division 3 of, the Business and Professions Code, relating to protection dog operators, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 7, 1982. Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1982.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7512.4 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7512.4. As used in this chapter, "licensee" means a person licensed under this chapter and includes, but is not limited to, private investigator, private patrol operator, protection dog operator, alarm company operator, and armored contract carrier.

SEC. 1.5. Section 7512.4 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7512.4. As used in this chapter, "licensee" means a person licensed under this chapter and includes, but is not limited to, private investigator, private patrol operator; protection dog operator, and armored contract carrier.

SEC. 2. Section 7514 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7514. The director may adopt and enforce reasonable rules:

(a) Classifying licensees according to the type of business regulated by this chapter in which they are engaged, including but not limited to private investigators, persons employed by any lawful business as security guards or patrolpersons, protection dog operators, alarm company operators, and armored contract carriers and limiting the field and scope of the operations of a licensee to those in which he is classified and qualified to engage.

(b) Fixing the qualifications of licensees and managers, in addition to those prescribed in this chapter, necessary to promote and protect the public welfare.

(c) Carrying out generally the provisions of this chapter, including regulation of the conduct of licensees.

(d) For a change in the classification of a licensee, or in the type of business organization upon application therefor by a licensee, and to prescribe the fee, if any, to be paid.

(e) Establishing the qualifications which any person employed by a private patrol operator or any lawful business as a security guard or patrolperson, or (subject to the provisions of subdivision (a) of Section 7514.1) employed by an armored contract carrier, or employed by an alarm company operator as an alarm agent must meet as a condition of becoming eligible to carry firearms pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 12031 of the Penal Code and Section 7514.1.

(f) Requiring each uniformed employee of a private patrol operator and each armored vehicle guard, as defined in this chapter, and any other person employed and compensated by a private patrol operator or any lawful business as a security guard or patrolperson and who in the course of such employment carries a deadly weapon to be registered with the bureau upon application on a form prescribed by the director accompanied by the registration fee and by two classifiable sets of fingerprints of the applicant or its equivalent as determined by the director and approved by the Department of Justice; establishing the term of the registration for a period of not less than two nor more than four years; and providing for the renewal thereof upon proper application and payment of the renewal fee. The director may, after opportunity for hearing, refuse such registration to any person who lacks good moral character, and may impose such reasonable additional requirements as are necessary to meet local needs and are not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter.

(g) Requiring each alarm agent of an alarm company operator, as defined in this chapter, to be registered with the bureau upon application on a form prescribed by the director accompanied by the registration fee and by two classifiable sets of fingerprints of the applicant or its equivalent as determined by the director and approved by the Department of Justice; establishing the term of the registration for a period of not less than two nor more than four years; and providing for the renewal thereof upon proper application and payment of the renewal fee. The director may, after opportunity for hearing, refuse such registration to any person who lacks good moral character, and may impose such reasonable additional requirements as are necessary to meet local needs and are not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter.

(h) Establishing procedures whereby the local authorities of any city, county, or city and county may file charges with the director alleging that any registered security guard or patrolperson or protection dog operator, or anyone who is an applicant for registration, with the bureau fails to meet standards for registration, and providing further for the investigation of such charges.

(i) Requiring private patrol operators and any lawful business to maintain detailed records identifying all firearms in their possession or under their control, and the employees or persons authorized to carry or have access to such firearms.

(j) Establishing the qualifications which a uniformed employee of a licensee who operates a private patrol must meet as a condition of handling guard dogs which regulations shall be in addition to any regulations relating to protection dogs.

SEC. 2.5. Section 7514 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7514. The director may adopt and enforce reasonable rules:

(a) Classifying licensees according to the type of business regulated by this chapter in which they are engaged, including but not limited to private investigators, persons employed by any lawful business as security guards or patrolpersons, protection dog operators, and armored contract carriers and limiting the field and scope of the operations of a licensee to those in which he is classified and qualified to engage.

(b) Fixing the qualifications of licensees and managers, in addition to those prescribed in this chapter, necessary to promote and protect the public welfare.

(c) Carrying out generally the provisions of this chapter, including regulation of the conduct of licensees.

(d) For a change in the classification of a licensee, or in the type of business organization upon application therefor by a licensee, and to prescribe the fee, if any, to be paid.

(e) Establishing the qualifications which any person employed by a private patrol operator or any lawful business as a security guard or patrolperson, or (subject to the provisions of subdivision (a) of Section 7514.1) employed by an armored contract carrier, must meet as a condition of becoming eligible to carry firearms pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 12031 of the Penal Code and Section 7514.1.

(f) Requiring each uniformed employee of a private patrol operator and each armored vehicle guard, as defined in this chapter, and any other person employed and compensated by a private patrol operator or any lawful business as a security guard or patrolperson and who in the course of such employment carries a deadly weapon to be registered with the bureau upon application on a form prescribed by the director accompanied by the registration fee and by two classifiable sets of fingerprints of the applicant or its equivalent as determined by the director and approved by the Department of Justice; establishing the term of the registration for a period of not less than two nor more than four years; and providing for the renewal thereof upon proper application and payment of the renewal fee. The director may, after opportunity for hearing, refuse such registration to any person who lacks good moral character, and may impose such reasonable additional requirements as are necessary to meet local needs and are not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter.

(g) Establishing procedures whereby the local authorities of any city, county, or city and county may file charges with the director alleging that any registered security guard or patrolperson, or protection dog operator, or anyone who is an applicant for registration, with the bureau fails to meet standards for registration, and providing further for the investigation of such charges.

(h) Requiring private patrol operators and any lawful business to maintain detailed records identifying all firearms in their possession or under their control, and the employees or persons authorized to carry or have access to such firearms.

(i) Establishing the qualifications which a uniformed employee of a licensee who operates a private patrol must meet as a condition of handling guard dogs which regulations shall be in addition to any regulations relating to protection dogs.

SEC. 3. Section 7521 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7521. (a) A private investigator within the meaning of this chapter is a person, other than an insurance adjuster subject to the provisions of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 14000) of Division 5 of the Insurance Code, who, for any consideration whatsoever engages in business or accepts employment to furnish, or agrees to make, or makes, any investigation for the purpose of obtaining, information with reference to:

Crime or wrongs done or threatened against the United States of America or any state or territory of the United States of America; the identity, habits, conduct, business, occupation, honesty, integrity, credibility, knowledge, trustworthiness, efficiency, loyalty, activity, movement, whereabouts, affiliations, associations, transactions, acts, reputation, or character of any person; the location, disposition, or recovery of lost or stolen property; the cause or responsibility for fires, libels, losses, accidents, or damage or injury to persons or to property; or securing evidence to be used before any court, board, officer, or investigating committee. For the purposes of this subdivision, a private investigator is any person, firm, company, association, partnership or corporation acting for the purpose of investigating, obtaining, and reporting to any private employer, its agent, supervisor, or manager, information concerning such employer's employees involving questions of integrity, honesty, breach of rules or other standards of performance of job duties.

This subdivision shall not apply to either of the following:

(1) A public utility regulated by the State Public Utilities Commission, or its employees.

(2) A theater exhibition business or its employees.

(b) A private patrol operator, or operator of a private patrol service, within the meaning of this chapter is a person, other than an armored contract carrier, who, for any consideration whatsoever:

Agrees to furnish, or furnishes, a watchman, guard, patrolman, or other person to protect persons or property or to prevent the theft, unlawful taking, loss, embezzlement, misappropriation, or concealment of any goods, wares, merchandise, money, bonds, stocks, notes, documents, papers, or property of any kind; or performs the service of such watchman, guard, patrolman, or other person, for any of said purposes.

(c) A person licensed as a private patrol operator only may not make any investigation or investigations except those that are incidental to the theft, loss, embezzlement, misappropriation, or concealment of any property, or any other thing enumerated in this section, which he has been hired or engaged to protect, guard, or watch.

(d) An alarm company operator within the meaning of this chapter shall mean and include any business operated for any consideration whatsoever, engaged in the installation, maintenance, alteration, or servicing of alarm systems or which responds to such alarm systems. "Alarm company operator," however, shall not include a business which merely sells from a fixed location or manufacture alarm systems unless such business services, installs, monitors or responds to alarm systems at the protected premises.

(e) An alarm agent within the meaning of this chapter is a person employed by an alarm company operator whose duties include altering, installing, maintaining, moving, repairing, replacing, or servicing an alarm system. The term "alarm system" shall mean any assembly of equipment and devices arranged to signal the presence of a hazard requiring urgent attention and to which police are expected to respond.

(f) An armored contract carrier within the meaning of this chapter is a contract carrier operating armored vehicles pursuant to California Highway Patrol and Public Utilities Commission authority.

(g) An armored vehicle guard within the meaning of this chapter is any person employed by an armored contract carrier who in the course of such employment carries a deadly weapon.

(h) A protection dog operator within the meaning of this chapter is any person who, for any consideration whatsoever, engages in business to furnish, or agree to furnish, or train, a protection dog for others. A "protection dog" means any dog trained to guard, protect, patrol or defend any premises, area or yard, or any dog trained to protect, defend or guard any person or property, with or without the necessity of direct human supervision.

SEC. 3.5. Section 7521 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7521. (a) A private investigator within the meaning of this chapter is a person, other than an insurance adjuster subject to the provisions of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 14000) of Division 5 of the Insurance Code, who, for any consideration whatsoever engages in business or accepts employment to furnish, or agrees to make, or makes, any investigation for the purpose of obtaining, information with reference to:

Crime or wrongs done or threatened against the United States of America or any state or territory of the United States of America; the identity, habits, conduct, business, occupation, honesty, integrity, credibility, knowledge, trustworthiness, efficiency, loyalty, activity, movement, whereabouts, affiliations, associations, transactions, acts, reputation, or character of any person; the location, disposition, or recovery of lost or stolen property; the cause or responsibility for fires, libels, losses, accidents, or damage or injury to persons or to property; or securing evidence to be used before any court, board, officer, or investigating committee. For the purposes of this subdivision, a private investigator is any person, firm, company, association, partnership or corporation acting for the purpose of investigating, obtaining, and reporting to any private employer, its agent, supervisor, or manager, information concerning such employer's employees involving questions of integrity, honesty, breach of rules or other standards of performance of job duties.

This subdivision shall not apply to either of the following:

(1) A public utility regulated by the State Public Utilities Commission, or its employees.

(2) A theater exhibition business or its employees.

(b) A private patrol operator, or operator of a private patrol service, within the meaning of this chapter is a person, other than an armored contract carrier, who, for any consideration whatsoever:

Agrees to furnish, or furnishes, a watchman, guard, patrolman, or other person to protect persons or property or to prevent the theft, unlawful taking, loss, embezzlement, misappropriation, or concealment of any goods, wares, merchandise, money, bonds, stocks, notes, documents, papers, or property of any kind; or performs the service of such watchman, guard, patrolman, or other person, for any of said purposes.

(c) A person licensed as a private patrol operator only may not make any investigation or investigations except those that are incidental to the theft, loss, embezzlement, misappropriation, or concealment of any property, or any other thing enumerated in this section, which he has been hired or engaged to protect, guard, or watch.

(d) An armored contract carrier within the meaning of this chapter is a contract carrier operating armored vehicles pursuant to California Highway Patrol and Public Utilities Commission authority.

(e) An armored vehicle guard within the meaning of this chapter is any person employed by an armored contract carrier who in the course of such employment carries a deadly weapon.

(f) A protection dog operator within the meaning of this chapter is any person who, for any consideration whatsoever, engages in business to furnish, or agree to furnish, or train, a protection dog for others. A "protection dog" means any dog trained to guard, protect, patrol or defend any premises, area or yard, or any dog trained to protect, defend or guard any person or property, with or without the necessity of direct human supervision.

SEC. 4. Section 7523 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7523. (a) The provisions of this chapter shall not prevent the local authorities of any city, county, or city and county, by ordinance and within the exercise of the police power of such city, county, or city and county from imposing local regulations upon any street patrol special officer or upon any person who furnishes street patrol service or street patrol special officers requiring registration with an agency to be designated by the city, county, or city and county, including in such registration full information as to the identification and employment and subject to the right of the city, county, or city and county to allocate certain portions of the territory in such city, county, or city and county within which the activities of any such street patrol service or person shall be confined. Any city, county, or city and county may refuse such registration to any person of bad moral character and may impose such reasonable additional requirements as are necessary to meet local needs and are not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter.

(b) The provisions of this chapter shall not prevent the local authorities of any city, county, or city and county, by ordinance and within the exercise of the police power of such city, county, or city and county from imposing local regulations upon any employees of a private patrol operator who are unable to furnish evidence of current registration pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 7514.

(c) The provisions of this chapter shall not prevent the local authorities in any city, county, or city and county, by ordinance and within the exercise of the police power of such city, county, or city and county from requiring private patrol operators and their employees or alarm agents or protection dog operators and their employees to register their name and a file copy of their state identification card with the city, county, or city and county. Except with regard to registration of protection dog operators, no fee may be charged nor may any application be required by the city, county, or city and county for such registration.

(d) The provisions of this chapter shall not prevent the local authorities in any city, county, or city and county, by ordinance and within the exercise of the police power of the city, county, or city and county from imposing reasonable additional requirements necessary to regulate and control protection dogs according to their local needs and not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter.

(e) The provisions of this chapter which provide for the licensing and regulation of protection dog operators shall not apply to any city, county, or city and county which has adopted an ordinance for the licensing and regulation of protection dog operators which imposes requirements which are equal to or greater than those imposed by this chapter, as determined by the bureau upon application of the city, county, or city and county.

(f) Any city, county, or city and county which is not otherwise subject to the provisions of this chapter which provide for the licensing and regulation of protection dog operators, pursuant to subdivision (e), shall provide a current list of the names and addresses of the protection dog operators licensed by it to the bureau.

SEC. 4.4. Section 7523 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7523. (a) The provisions of this chapter shall not prevent the local authorities of any city, county, or city and county, by ordinance and within the exercise of the police power of such city, county, or city and county from imposing local regulations upon any street patrol special officer or upon any person who furnishes street patrol service or street patrol special officers requiring registration with an agency to be designated by the city, county, or city and county, including in such registration full information as to the identification and employment and subject to the right of the city, county, or city and county to allocate certain portions of the territory in such city, county, or city and county within which the activities of any such street patrol service or person shall be confined. Any city, county, or city and county may refuse such registration to any person of bad moral character and may impose such reasonable additional requirements as are necessary to meet local needs and are not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter.

(b) The provisions of this chapter shall not prevent the local authorities of any city, county, or city and county, by ordinance and within the exercise of the police power of such city, county, or city and county from imposing local regulations upon any employees of a private patrol operator who are unable to furnish evidence of current registration pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 7514.

(c) The provisions of this chapter shall not prevent the local authorities in any city, county, or city and county, by ordinance and within the exercise of the police power of such city, county, or city and county from requiring private patrol operators and their employees or protection dog operators and their employees to register their name and a file copy of their state identification card with the city, county, or city and county. Except with regard to registration of protection dog operators, no fee may be charged nor may any application be required by the city, county, or city and county for such registration.

(d) The provisions of this chapter shall not prevent the local authorities in any city, county, or city and county, by ordinance and within the exercise of the police power of the city, county, or city and county from imposing reasonable additional requirements necessary to regulate and control protection dogs according to their local needs and not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter.

(e) The provisions of this chapter which provide for the licensing and regulation of protection dog operators shall not apply to any city, county, or city and county which has adopted an ordinance for the licensing and regulation of protection dog operators which imposes requirements which are equal to or greater than those imposed by this chapter, as determined by the bureau upon application of the city, county, or city and county.

(f) Any city, county, or city and county which is not otherwise subject to the provisions of this chapter which provide for the licensing and regulation of protection dog operators pursuant to subdivision (e), shall provide a current list of the names and addresses of the protection dog operators licensed by it to the bureau.

SEC. 4.5. Section 7526.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

7526.5. An applicant for a license as a protection dog operator, owner or manager shall have had previous experience in training a protection dog for others, and shall take and pass an examination administered by the bureau.

SEC. 5. Section 7538.10 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

7538.10. No person licensed as a protection dog operator shall do any of the following:

(a) Fail to maintain a record of the name, address, and commencing and termination date of employment, of each employee.

(b) Fail to certify proof of current and valid registration of all employees subject to registration.

(c) Sell, let, or train any protection dog that has not been immunized against rabies. Proof of immunization shall consist of a valid certificate of rabies vaccination and shall be provided to any person who in any way obtains a protection dog from a protection dog operator.

(d) Fail to have a current and valid certificate of rabies vaccination for every protection dog owned by the operator.

(e) Fail to register each protection dog which it handles or trains with the local animal control officer, the local law enforcement agency and with the state, city, county, or district fire department which has the responsibility for the prevention and suppression of fires in the area in which the protection dog operator does business.

(f) Fail to notify such appropriate local law enforcement agency and such appropriate fire department by mail not more than 15 days before a protection dog is sent on an assignment of the location and duration of such assignment.

(g) Print, or cause to be printed, any advertisement or brochure without including his or her protection dog operator's license number in the advertisement.

(h) Train a protection dog with the intent that the dog shall be engaged in an exhibition of fighting or knowingly sell or let a protection dog which is intended to be engaged in an exhibition of fighting.

(i) Fail to provide a protection dog confined in an enclosed area with an adequate exercise area. If the protection dog is restricted by a leash, rope, or chain, the leash, rope, or chain shall be affixed in such a manner that it will prevent the dog from becoming entangled or injured and permit the dog's access to adequate shelter, food, and water.

SEC. 5.5. Section 7538.11 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

7538.11. No person licensed as a protection dog operator or registered as employee of a protection dog operator shall do any of the following:

(a) Fail to transport a protection dog anywhere in a secure, humane manner that will reasonably prevent its possible escape.

(b) Fail to visit a protection dog which is on actual duty at least once every 12 hours to ensure that the dog's physical condition, its shelter, and its food and water supply are adequate, and if inadequate, shall do whatever may be necessary to correct or remedy the situation.

(c) Fail to accompany and remain with a protection dog which is assigned to duty in any portion of any business establishment which is open to the general public for the entire length of time that the protection dog is on duty.

(d) Knowingly overwork, or torture, torment, neglect, abandon, deprive of necessary sustenance or care, drink or shelter, beat, mutilate, or unjustifiably kill any protection dog. The words "torment" and "torture" include every act, omission, or neglect whereby unnecessary or unjustifiable physical pain or suffering is caused or permitted.

SEC. 5.7. Section 7538.12 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

7538.12. Each protection dog shall at all times wear an identification tag. The identification tag shall be provided by the protection dog operator who furnishes the dog for hire. The identification tag shall contain, but not be limited to, the name, address, and telephone number of the protection dog operator. The telephone shall be monitored 24 hours a day so that calls of the public may be received and answered.

The identification tag required by this section shall be in addition to any tag required or issued by any agency of government to show that a dog has been immunized or inoculated against disease.

SEC. 5.9. Section 7538.13 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

7538.13. A protection dog operator shall furnish a statement containing the following to any person who in any way obtains a protection dog from the licensee: "Protection dog operators are regulated by the Bureau of Collection and Investigative Services, 1920 20th Street, Sacramento, CA 95814."

SEC. 6. Section 7543.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7543.5. If, upon investigation, the director determines a licensee, including a corporation, or registrant is in violation of Section 7538.6, 7538.7, 7538.10, 7538.11, 7538.12, 7538.13, or 7551.3 of this chapter, the director may issue a citation to such licensee or registrant. The citation shall be in writing and shall describe with particularity the nature of the violation, including specific reference to the provision of law determined to have been violated. If the director deems it appropriate, the citation may contain an order of abatement fixing a reasonable time for abatement of the violation and may contain assessment of an administrative fine. The amount of the fine shall in no event exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000).

A citation or fine assessment shall inform the licensee or registrant that if he or she desires a hearing to contest the finding of a violation, such hearing shall be requested by written notice to the director within 20 days of the issuance of the citation or assessment, as appropriate. If a hearing is not requested pursuant to this section, payment of any fine shall not constitute an admission of the violation charged. Hearings shall be held pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

If the licensee or registrant neither requests a hearing nor pays the assessed fine within 20 days of the assessment, the director shall suspend the license or registration of such person 30 days after the assessment.

Administrative fines collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Private Investigator Fund.

SEC. 7. Section 7543.7 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

7543.7. The director may assess fines for the following acts only as follows:

(a) Violation of subdivision (a) of Section 7538.10; twenty-five dollars ($25) per violation.

(b) Violation of subdivision (b) of Section 7538.10; twelve dollars ($12) per violation for the first 10 violations and fifty dollars ($50) per violation for each violation thereafter.

(c) Violation of subdivision (c) or (d) of Section 7538.10; one hundred dollars ($100) per violation.

(d) Violation of subdivisions (e) and (f) of Section 7538.10; ten dollars ($10) per violation for the first 10 violations and twenty-five dollars ($25) per violation for each violation thereafter.

(e) Violation of subdivision (g) of Section 7538.10; one hundred dollars ($100) per violation.

(f) Violation of subdivision (h) of Section 7538.10; not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500) per violation.

(g) Violation of subdivision (i) of Section 7538.10; not to exeed five hundred dollars ($500) per violation.

(h) Violation of subdivisions (a) or (b) of Section 7538.11; not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500) per violation.

(i) Violation of subdivisions (c) or (d) of Section 7538.11; not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) per violation.

(j) Violation of Section 7538.12; not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) per violation.

(k) Violation of Section 7538.13; not to exceed twenty-five dollars ($25) per violation.

SEC. 8. Article 4.1 (commencing with Section 7548) is added to Chapter 11.5 of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, to read:

Article 4.1. Registration of Employees of Protection Dog Operators

7548. As used in this article the term "licensee" means a protection dog operator licensed under this chapter.

7548.1. Every person employed by a licensee who engages in the providing, handling, training, and selling of protection dogs shall be registered with the director in the manner prescribed by this article.

7548.2. Every person entering the employ of a licensee shall file with the director an application for registration within three days after the commencement of such employment. "Within three working days after employment" means within 72 hours from the time an employee is first compensated by a licensee for services. No application is required to be submitted if the employee terminates employment within the three working days.

7548.3. The application for registration under this article shall be on a form prescribed by the director and shall be accompanied by the fee prescribed in this chapter.

7548.4. The application shall be verified and shall include all of the following:

(a) The full name, residence address, telephone number, date of birth, and social security number of the employee.

(b) The name, address, telephone number, and license number of the employer and the date employment commenced.

(c) The signature of the employee.

(d) A statement as to whether the employee has been convicted of a misdemeanor, excluding minor traffic violations.

(e) A statement as to whether the employee has been convicted of a felony.

7548.5. Managers who comply with other provisions of this chapter are not required to register under this article.

7548.6. Upon approval of an application for registration, the chief shall cause to be issued to the applicant at his or her last known residential address a registration card in a form approved by the director. In the event of the loss or destruction of the card, the cardholder may apply to the bureau for a certified replacement of the card, stating the circumstances surrounding the loss, and pay a two dollar ($2) certification fee, whereupon the bureau shall issue a certified replacement of the card.

7548.7. The director may refuse to register any employee, or may suspend or revoke a previously issued registration, if the individual has committed any act which, if committed by a licensee, would be grounds for refusing to issue a license, or for the suspension or revocation of a license under this chapter.

7548.8. (a) A registration shall expire on the 31st day of December of the second calendar year following the date of issuance, and every two years thereafter. At least 60 days prior to the expiration of a registration, a registrant who desires to renew his or her registration shall forward to the bureau a copy of his or her current registration card, with the renewal fee as set forth in this chapter, for renewal of his or her registration.

(b) An expired registration may not be renewed.

(c) If the renewed registration card has not been delivered to the registrant prior to the date of expiration of the prior registration, the registrant may present evidence of renewal to substantiate continued registration for a period not to exceed 90 days after the date of expiration.

SEC. 8.3. Section 7550.6 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

7550.6. A person licensed as a protection dog operator or registered as a protection dog operator employee shall be deemed to be a licensee for the purposes of this article.

SEC. 8.5. Section 7580.1 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

7580.1. The amount of fees prescribed by this chapter for protection dog operator licensees and registrants shall be as follows:

(a) An application fee for a protection dog operator license of twenty-five dollars ($25).

(b) An initial license fee and annual renewal fee for a protection dog operator license of two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

(c) A delinquency fee which shall be 50 percent of the renewal fee, but not more than twenty-five dollars ($25).

(d) A reexamination fee for an applicant or his or her manager of ten dollars ($10).

(e) A registration fee for a protection dog operator employee of twelve dollars ($12).

(f) A registration renewal fee for a protection dog operator employee of ten dollars ($10).

(g) A reinstatement fee for a protection dog operator license of an amount equal to the renewal fee plus the delinquency fee.

SEC. 9. This act shall become operative on July 1, 1983.

SEC. 10. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Senate Bill 673 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1983, both bills amend Sections 7512.4, 7514, 7521, and 7523 of the Business and Professions Code, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill 673, that the amendments to Sections 7512.4, 7514, 7521, and 7523 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Sections 7512.4, 7514, 7521, and 7523 in the form set forth in Sections 1.5, 2.5, 3.5, and 4.4 of this act. Therefore, Sections 1.5, 2.5, 3.5, and 4.4 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Senate Bill 673 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1983, both amend Sections 7512.4, 7514, 7521, and 7523, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill 673, in which case Sections 1, 2, 3, and 4 of this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 11. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.
