[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1203.1 of the Penal Code, as amended by Section 4 of Chapter 980 of the Statutes of 1984, is amended to read:

1203.1. The court or judge thereof, in the order granting probation, may suspend the imposing, or the execution of the sentence and may direct that the suspension may continue for a period of time not exceeding the maximum possible term of the sentence, except as hereinafter set forth, and upon those terms and conditions as it shall determine. The court, or judge thereof, in the order granting probation and as a condition thereof may imprison the defendant in the county jail for a period not exceeding the maximum time fixed by law in the case; however, where the maximum possible term of the sentence is five years or less, then the period of suspension of imposition or execution of sentence may, in the discretion of the court, continue for not over five years; may fine the defendant in a sum not to exceed the maximum fine provided by law in the case; or may in connection with granting probation, impose either imprisonment in county jail, or fine, or both, or neither; shall provide for restitution in proper cases; and may require bonds for the faithful observance and performance of any or all of the conditions of probation.

The court shall consider whether the defendant as a condition of probation shall make restitution to the victim or the Restitution Fund. Any restitution payment received by a probation department in the form of cash or money order shall be forwarded to the victim within 30 days from the date the payment is received by the department. Any restitution payment received by a probation department in the form of a check or draft shall be forwarded to the victim within 45 days from the date the payment is received by the department. In cases where the court has ordered the defendant to pay restitution to multiple victims and where the administrative cost of disbursing restitution payments to multiple victims involves a significant cost, any restitution payment received by a probation department shall be forwarded to multiple victims when it is cost effective to do so, but in no event shall restitution disbursements be delayed beyond 90 days from the date the payment is received by the probation department. In counties or cities and counties where road camps, farms, or other public work is available the court may place the probationer in such a road camp, farm, or other public work instead of in jail; Section 25359 of the Government Code shall apply to probation and the court shall have the same power to require adult probationers to work, as prisoners confined in the county jail are required to work, at public work. Each county board of supervisors may fix the scale of compensation of the adult probationers in that county. In all cases of probation the court may require as a condition of probation that the probationer go to work and earn money for the support of his or her dependents or to pay any fine imposed or reparation condition, to keep an account of his or her earnings, to report them to the probation officer and apply those earnings as directed by the court.

In all such cases if as a condition of probation a judge of the superior court sitting by authority of law elsewhere than at the county seat requires a convicted person to serve his or her sentence at intermittent periods the sentence may be served on the order of the judge at the city jail nearest to the place at which the court is sitting, and the cost of his or her maintenance shall be a county charge.

Upon conviction of any offense involving child abuse or neglect, the court may require, in addition to any or all of the above-mentioned terms of imprisonment, fine, and other reasonable conditions, that the defendant shall participate in counseling or education programs, or both, including, but not limited to, parent education or parenting programs operated by community colleges school districts, other public agencies, or private agencies.

The court may impose and require any or all of the above-mentioned terms of imprisonment, fine, and conditions, and other reasonable conditions, as it may determine are fitting and proper to the end that justice may be done, that amends may be made to society for the breach of the law, for any injury done to any person resulting from that breach, and generally and specifically for the reformation and rehabilitation of the probationer, and that should the probationer violate any of the terms or conditions imposed by the court in the matter, it shall have authority to modify and change any and all such terms and conditions and to reimprison the probationer in the county jail within the limitations of the penalty of the public offense involved. Upon the defendant being released from the county jail under the terms of probation as originally granted or any modification subsequently made, and in all cases where confinement in a county jail has not been a condition of the grant of probation, the court shall place the defendant or probationer in and under the charge of the probation officer of the court, for the period or term fixed for probation. However, upon the payment of any fine imposed and the fulfillment of all conditions of probation, probation shall cease at the end of the term of probation, or sooner, in the event of modification. In counties and cities and counties in which there are facilities for taking fingerprints, those of each probationer shall be taken and a record of them kept and preserved.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, except as provided in Sections 13967 and 13967.5 of the Government Code and Sections 1202.4, 1203.04, 1463.16, paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 1463.18, and Section 1464, all fines collected by a county probation officer in any of the courts of this state, as a condition of the granting of probation, or as a part of the terms of probation, shall be paid into the county treasury and placed in the general fund, for the use and benefit of the county.

If the court orders restitution to be made to the victim, the board of supervisors may add a fee to cover the actual administrative cost of collecting restitution but not to exceed 10 percent of the total amount ordered to be paid. The fees shall be paid into the general fund of the county treasury for the use and benefit of the county.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1989, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute which is chaptered before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 1203.1 of the Penal Code, as amended by Section 4 of Chapter 980 of the Statutes of 1984, is amended to read:

1203.1. The court or judge thereof, in the order granting probation, may suspend the imposing, or the execution of the sentence and may direct that the suspension may continue for a period of time not exceeding the maximum possible term of the sentence, except as hereinafter set forth, and upon those terms and conditions as it shall determine. The court, or judge thereof, in the order granting probation and as a condition thereof may imprison the defendant in the county jail for a period not exceeding the maximum time fixed by law in the case; however, where the maximum possible term of the sentence is five years or less, then the period of suspension of imposition or execution of sentence may, in the discretion of the court, continue for not over five years; may fine the defendant in a sum not to exceed the maximum fine provided by law in the case; or may in connection with granting probation, impose either imprisonment in county jail, or fine, or both, or neither; shall provide for restitution in proper cases; and may require bonds for the faithful observance and performance of any or all of the conditions of probation.

The court shall consider whether the defendant as a condition of probation shall make restitution to the victim or the Restitution Fund. Any restitution payment received by a probation department in the form of cash or money order shall be forwarded to the victim within 30 days from the date the payment is received by the department. Any restitution payment received by a probation department in the form of a check or draft shall be forwarded to the victim within 45 days from the date the payment is received by the department, provided, that payment need not be forwarded to a victim until 180 days from the date the first such payment is received, if the restitution payments for that victim received by the probation department total less than fifty dollars ($50). In cases where the court has ordered the defendant to pay restitution to multiple victims and where the administrative cost of disbursing restitution payments to multiple victims involves a significant cost, any restitution payment received by a probation department shall be forwarded to multiple victims when it is cost effective to do so, but in no event shall restitution disbursements be delayed beyond 180 days from the date the payment is received by the probation department. In counties or cities and counties where road camps, farms, or other public work is available the court may place the probationer in such a road camp, farm, or other public work instead of in jail; Section 25359 of the Government Code shall apply to probation and the court shall have the same power to require adult probationers to work, as prisoners confined in the county jail are required to work, at public work. Each county board of supervisors may fix the scale of compensation of the adult probationers in that county. In all cases of probation the court may require as a condition of probation that the probationer go to work and earn money for the support of his or her dependents or to pay any fine imposed or reparation condition, to keep an account of his or her earnings, to report them to the probation officer and apply those earnings as directed by the court.

In all such cases if as a condition of probation a judge of the superior court sitting by authority of law elsewhere than at the county seat requires a convicted person to serve his or her sentence at intermittent periods the sentence may be served on the order of the judge at the city jail nearest to the place at which the court is sitting, and the cost of his or her maintenance shall be a county charge.

Upon conviction of any offense involving child abuse or neglect, the court may require, in addition to any or all of the above-mentioned terms of imprisonment, fine, and other reasonable conditions, that the defendant shall participate in counseling or education programs, or both, including, but not limited to, parent education or parenting programs operated by community colleges, school districts, other public agencies, or private agencies.

The court may impose and require any or all of the above-mentioned terms of imprisonment, fine, and conditions, and other reasonable conditions, as it may determine are fitting and proper to the end that justice may be done, that amends may be made to society for the breach of the law, for any injury done to any person resulting from that breach, and generally and specifically for the reformation and rehabilitation of the probationer, and that should the probationer violate any of the terms or conditions imposed by the court in the matter, it shall have authority to modify and change any and all such terms and conditions and to reimprison the probationer in the county jail within the limitations of the penalty of the public offense involved. Upon the defendant being released from the county jail under the terms of probation as originally granted or any modification subsequently made, and in all cases where confinement in a county jail has not been a condition of the grant of probation, the court shall place the defendant or probationer in and under the charge of the probation officer of the court, for the period or term fixed for probation. However, upon the payment of any fine imposed and the fulfillment of all conditions of probation, probation shall cease at the end of the term of probation, or sooner, in the event of modification. In counties and cities and counties in which there are facilities for taking fingerprints, those of each probationer shall be taken and a record of them kept and preserved.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, except as provided in Sections 13967 and 13967.5 of the Government Code and Sections 1202.4, 1203.04, 1463.16, paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 1463.18, and Section 1464, all fines collected by a county probation officer in any of the courts of this state, as a condition of the granting of probation, or as a part of the terms of probation, shall be paid into the county treasury and placed in the general fund, for the use and benefit of the county.

If the court orders restitution to be made to the victim, the board of supervisors may add a fee to cover the actual administrative cost of collecting restitution but not to exceed 10 percent of the total amount ordered to be paid. The fees shall be paid into the general fund of the county treasury for the use and benefit of the county.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1989, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute which is chaptered before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Counties electing to increase the fees charged to cover the administrative cost of collecting restitution pursuant to Section 1 of this act shall report to the Legislature prior to January 1, 1988, relative to the need for and the effect of that increase.

SEC. 4. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 1203.1 of the Penal Code, as amended by Section 4 of Chapter 980 of the Statutes of 1984, proposed by both this bill and AB 1346. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1986, (2) each bill amends Section 1203.1 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1346, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1504

An act to amend Sections 66412, 66424.6, 66434, 66436, 66445, and 66497 of, and to add Section 66474.8 to, the Government Code, relating to subdivisions.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985. Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 66412 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66412. This division shall be inapplicable to:

(a) The financing or leasing of apartments, offices, stores or similar space within apartment buildings, industrial buildings, commercial buildings, mobilehome parks, or trailer parks.

(b) Mineral, oil or gas leases.

(c) Land dedicated for cemetery purposes under the Health and Safety Code.

(d) A lot line adjustment between two or more existing adjacent parcels, where the land taken from one parcel is added to an adjacent parcel, and where a greater number of parcels than originally existed is not thereby created, provided the lot line adjustment is approved by the local agency, or advisory agency. A local agency or advisory agency shall limit its review and approval to a determination of whether or not the parcels resulting from the lot line adjustment will conform to local zoning and building ordinances. An advisory agency or local agency shall not impose conditions or exactions on its approval of a lot line adjustment except to conform to local zoning and building ordinances, or except to facilitate the relocation of existing utilities, infrastructure, or easements. No tentative map, parcel map, or final map shall be required as a condition to the approval of a lot line adjustment. The lot line adjustment shall be reflected in a deed or record of survey which shall be recorded.

(e) Boundary line or exchange agreements to which the State Lands Commission or a local agency holding a trust grant of tide and submerged lands is a party.

(f) Any separate assessment under Section 2188.7 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(g) Unless a parcel or final map was approved by the legislative body of a local agency, the conversion of a community apartment project, as defined in Section 11004 of the Business and Professions Code, to a condominium, as defined in Section 783 of the Civil Code, but only if all of the following requirements are met:

(1) At least 75 percent of the units in the project were occupied by record owners of the project on March 31, 1982.

(2) A final or parcel map of the project was properly recorded, if the property was subdivided, as defined in Section 66424, after January 1, 1964, with all of the conditions of that map remaining in effect after the conversion.

(3) The local agency certifies that the above requirements were satisfied if the local agency, by ordinance, provides for that certification.

(h) Unless a parcel or final map was approved by the legislative body of a local agency, the conversion of a stock cooperative, as defined in Section 11003.2 of the Business and Professions Code, to a condominium, as defined in Section 783 of the Civil Code, but only if all of the following requirements are met:

(1) At least 51 percent of the units in the cooperative were occupied by stockholders of the cooperative on January 1, 1981, or individually owned by stockholders of the cooperative on January 1, 1981. As used in this paragraph, a cooperative unit is "individually owned" if and only if the stockholder of that unit owns or partially owns an interest in no more than one unit in the cooperative.

(2) No more than 25 percent of the shares of the cooperative were owned by any one person, as defined in Section 17, including an incorporator or director of the cooperative, on January 1, 1981.

(3) A person renting a unit in a cooperative shall be entitled at the time of conversion to all tenant rights in state or local law, including, but not limited to, rights respecting first refusal, notice, and displacement and relocation benefits.

(4) The local agency certifies that the above requirements were satisfied if the local agency, by ordinance, provides for that certification.

(i) The leasing of, or the granting of an easement to, a parcel of land, or any portion or portions thereof, in conjunction with the financing, erection, and sale or lease of a windpowered electrical generation device on the land, if the project is subject to discretionary action by the advisory agency or legislative body.

SEC. 2. Section 66424.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66424.6. (a) When a subdivision, as defined in Section 66424, is of a portion of any unit or units of improved or unimproved land, the subdivider may designate as a remainder that portion which is not divided for the purpose of sale, lease, or financing. The designated remainder shall not be counted as a parcel for the purpose of determining whether a parcel map or final map is required.

(b) For a designated remainder parcel described in subdivision (a), the fulfillment of construction requirements for improvements shall not be required until a permit or other grant of approval for development of the remainder parcel is issued by the local agency or, where provided by local ordinance, until the construction of the improvements is required pursuant to an agreement between the subdivider and the local agency. In the absence of that agreement, a local agency may require fulfillment of the construction requirements within a reasonable time following approval of the final map and prior to the issuance of a permit or other grant of approval for the development of a remainder parcel upon a finding by the local agency that fulfillment of the construction requirements is necessary for reasons of:

(1) The public health and safety; or

(2) The required construction is a necessary prerequisite to the orderly development of the surrounding area.

(c) A designated remainder may subsequently be sold without any further requirement of the filing of a parcel map or final map, but the local agency may require a certificate of compliance or conditional certificate of compliance.

SEC. 3. Section 66434 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66434. The final map shall be prepared by or under the direction of a registered civil engineer or licensed land surveyor, shall be based upon a survey, and shall conform to all of the following provisions:

(a) It shall be legibly drawn, printed, or reproduced by a process guaranteeing a permanent record in black on tracing cloth or polyester base film. Certificates, affidavits, and acknowledgments may be legibly stamped or printed upon the map with opaque ink. If ink is used on polyester base film, the ink surface shall be coated with a suitable substance to assure permanent legibility.

(b) The size of each sheet shall be 18 by 26 inches. A marginal line shall be drawn completely around each sheet, leaving an entirely blank margin of one inch. The scale of the map shall be large enough to show all details clearly and enough sheets shall be used to accomplish this end. The particular number of the sheet and the total number of sheets comprising the map shall be stated on each of the sheets, and its relation to each adjoining sheet shall be clearly shown.

(c) All survey and mathematical information and data necessary to locate all monuments and to locate and retrace any and all interior and exterior boundary lines appearing thereon shall be shown, including bearings and distances of straight lines, and radii and arc length or chord bearings and length for all curves, and any information which may be necessary to determine the location of the centers of curves and ties to existing monuments used to establish the subdivision boundaries.

(d) Each parcel shall be numbered and each block may be numbered or lettered. Each street shall be named or otherwise designated.

(e) The exterior boundary of the land included within the subdivision shall be indicated by distinctive symbols and clearly so designated. The map shall show the definite location of the subdivision, and particularly its relation to surrounding surveys. If the map includes a "designated remainder" parcel, and the gross area of the "designated remainder" parcel or similar parcel is five acres or more, that remainder parcel need not be shown on the map and its location need not be indicated as a matter of survey, but only by deed reference to the existing boundaries of the remainder parcel.

A parcel designated as "not a part" shall be deemed to be a "designated remainder" for purposes of this section.

(f) The map shall conform to any additional survey and map requirements of local ordinances.

SEC. 3.5. Section 66434 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66434. The final map shall be prepared by or under the direction of a registered civil engineer or licensed land surveyor, shall be based upon a survey, and shall conform to all of the following provisions:

(a) It shall be legibly drawn, printed, or reproduced by a process guaranteeing a permanent record in black on tracing cloth or polyester base film. Certificates, affidavits, and acknowledgments may be legibly stamped or printed upon the map with opaque ink. If ink is used on polyester base film, the ink surface shall be coated with a suitable substance to assure permanent legibility.

(b) The size of each sheet shall be 18 by 26 inches. A marginal line shall be drawn completely around each sheet, leaving an entirely blank margin of one inch. The scale of the map shall be large enough to show all details clearly and enough sheets shall be used to accomplish this end. The particular number of the sheet and the total number of sheets comprising the map shall be stated on each of the sheets, and its relation to each adjoining sheet shall be clearly shown.

(c) All survey and mathematical information and data necessary to locate all monuments and to locate and retrace any and all interior and exterior boundary lines appearing thereon shall be shown, including bearings and distances of straight lines, and radii and arc length or chord bearings and length for all curves, and any information which may be necessary to determine the location of the centers of curves and ties to existing monuments used to establish the subdivision boundaries.

(d) Each parcel shall be numbered and each block may be numbered or lettered. Each street shall be named or otherwise designated.

(e) The exterior boundary of the land included within the subdivision shall be indicated by distinctive symbols and clearly so designated. The map shall show the definite location of the subdivision, and particularly its relation to surrounding surveys.

If the map includes a "designated remainder" parcel, and the gross area of the "designated remainder" parcel or similar parcel is five acres or more, that remainder parcel need not be shown on the map and its location need not be indicated as a matter of survey, but only by deed reference to the existing boundaries of the remainder parcel.

A parcel designated as "not a part" shall be deemed to be a "designated remainder" for purposes of this section.

(f) On and after January 1, 1987, no additional requirements shall be included which do not affect record title interests. However, the map shall contain a notation or reference to additional information required by a local ordinance adopted pursuant to Section 66434.2.

SEC. 4. Section 66436 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66436. A certificate, signed and acknowledged by all parties having any record title interest in the real property subdivided, consenting to the preparation and recordation of the final map is required, except as follows:

(a) Neither a lien for state, county, municipal or local taxes, nor for special assessments, nor a trust interest under bond indentures, nor mechanics' liens constitute a record title interest in land for the purpose of this chapter or local ordinance.

(b) The signature of either the holder of beneficial interests under trust deeds or the trustee under the trust deeds, but not both, may be omitted. The signature of either shall constitute a full and complete subordination of the lien of the deed of trust to the map and any interest created by the map.

(c) Signatures of parties owning the following types of interests may be omitted if their names and the nature of their respective interests are stated on the final map:

(1) Rights-of-way, easements or other interests which cannot ripen into a fee, except those owned by a public entity, public utility, or subsidiary of a public utility for conveyance to the public utility for rights-of-way. If, however, the legislative body or advisory agency determines that division and development of the property in the manner set forth on the approved or conditionally approved tentative map will not unreasonably interfere with the free and complete exercise of the public entity or public utility right-of-way or easement, the signature of the public entity or public utility may be omitted. Where that determination is made, the subdivider shall send, by certified mail, a sketch of the proposed final map, together with a copy of this section, to any public entity or public utility which has previously acquired a right-of-way or easement.

If the public entity or utility objects to either (i) recording the final map without its signature; or (ii) the determination of the legislative body or advisory agency that the division and development of the property will not unreasonably interfere with the full and complete exercise of its right-of-way or easement, it shall so notify the subdivider and the legislative body or advisory agency within 30 days after receipt of the materials from the subdivider.

If the public entity or utility objects to recording the final map without its signature, the public entity or utility so objecting may affix its signature to the final map within 30 days of filing its objection with the legislative body or advisory agency.

If the public entity or utility either (i) does not file an objection with the legislative body or advisory agency; or (ii) fails to affix its signature within 30 days of filing its objection, to recording the map without its signature, the local agency may record the final map without such signature.

If the public entity or utility files an objection to the determination of the legislative body or advisory agency that the division and development of the property will not unreasonably interfere with the exercise of its right-of-way or easement, the legislative body or advisory agency shall set the matter for public hearing to be held not less than 10 nor more than 30 days of receipt of the objection. At the hearing, the public entity or public utility shall present evidence in support of its position that the division and development of the property will unreasonably interfere with the free and complete exercise of the objector's right-of-way or easement.

If the legislative body or advisory agency finds, following the hearing, that the development and division will in fact unreasonably interfere with the free and complete exercise of the objector's right-of-way or easement, it shall set forth those conditions whereby the unreasonable interference will be eliminated and upon compliance with those conditions by the subdivider, the final map may be recorded with or without the signature of the objector. If the legislative body or advisory agency finds that the development and division will in fact not unreasonably interfere with the free and complete exercise of the objector's right-of-way or easement, the final map may be recorded without the signature of the objector, notwithstanding its objections.

Failure of the public entity or public utility to file an objection pursuant to this section shall in no way affect its rights under a right-of-way or easement.

(2) Rights-of-way, easements, or reversions, which by reason of changed conditions, long disuse or laches appear to be no longer of practical use or value and signatures are impossible or impractical to obtain. A statement of the circumstances preventing the procurement of the signatures shall also be stated on the map.

(3) Interests in or rights to minerals, including but not limited to oil, gas or other hydrocarbon substances.

(d) Real property originally patented by the United States or by the State of California, which original patent reserved interest to either or both of such entities, may be included in the final map without the consent of the United States or the State of California to the map or to dedications made by it.

(e) No monetary liability shall be incurred by, and no cause of action shall arise against a local agency, a party, the subdivider, the subdivider's agent, or the engineer or land surveyor who prepared the map, on account of the omission of any signature, which omission is authorized by this section.

SEC. 5. Section 66445 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66445. The parcel map shall be prepared by or under the direction of a registered civil engineer or licensed land surveyor, shall show the location of streets and property lines bounding the property and shall conform to all of the following provisions:

(a) It shall be legibly drawn, printed, or reproduced by a process guaranteeing a permanent record in black on tracing cloth or polyester base film. Certificates, affidavits, and acknowledgments may be legibly stamped or printed upon the map with opaque ink. If ink is used on polyester base film, the ink surface shall be coated with a suitable substance to assure permanent legibility.

(b) The size of each sheet shall be 18 by 26 inches. A marginal line shall be drawn completely around each sheet, leaving an entirely blank margin of one inch. The scale of the map shall be large enough to show all details clearly and enough sheets shall be used to accomplish this end. The particular number of the sheet and the total number of sheets comprising the map shall be stated on each of the sheets, and its relation to each adjoining sheet shall be clearly shown.

(c) Each parcel shall be numbered and each block may be numbered or lettered. Each street shall be named or otherwise designated.

(d) The exterior boundary of the land included within the subdivision shall be indicated by distinctive symbols and clearly so designated.

The map shall show the location of each parcel and its relation to surrounding surveys. If the map includes a "designated remainder" parcel or similar parcel, and the gross area of the "designated remainder" parcel or similar parcel is five acres or more, that remainder parcel need not be shown on the map and its location need not be indicated as a matter of survey, but only by deed reference to the existing boundaries of the remainder parcel.

A parcel designated as "not a part" shall be deemed to be a "designated remainder" for purposes of this section.

(e) Subject to the provisions of Section 66436, a certificate, signed and acknowledged by all parties having any record title interest in the real property subdivided, consenting to the preparation and recordation of the parcel map is required, except that less inclusive requirements may be provided by local ordinance.

With respect to a division of land into four or fewer parcels, where dedications or offers of dedications are not required, the certificate shall be signed and acknowledged by the subdivider only. If the subdivider does not have a record title ownership interest in the property to be divided, the local agency may require that the subdivider provide the local agency with satisfactory evidence that the persons with record title ownership have consented to the proposed division. For purposes of this paragraph, "record title ownership" shall mean fee title of record unless a leasehold interest is to be divided, in which case "record title ownership" shall mean ownership of record of such leasehold interest; "record title ownership" does not include ownership of mineral rights or other subsurface interests which have been severed from ownership of the surface.

(f) It shall also satisfy any additional map requirements of local ordinances consistent with this division.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, local agencies may require that those certificates and acknowledgments required pursuant to this subdivision and subdivision (e) be made by separate instrument to be recorded concurrently with the parcel map being filed for record.

(g) Whenever a certificate or acknowledgment is made by separate instrument, there shall appear on the final map a reference to the separately recorded document. This reference shall be completed by the county recorder pursuant to Section 66468.1.

(h) If a field survey was performed, the parcel map shall contain a certificate by the engineer or surveyor responsible for the preparation of the map that states that all monuments are of the character and occupy the positions indicated, or that they will be set in those positions on or before a specified date, and that the monuments are, or will be, sufficient to enable the survey to be retraced.

SEC. 5.5. Section 66445 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66445. The parcel map shall be prepared by or under the direction of a registered civil engineer or licensed land surveyor, shall show the location of streets and property lines bounding the property and shall conform to all of the following provisions:

(a) It shall be legibly drawn, printed or reproduced by a process guaranteeing a permanent record in black on tracing cloth or polyester base film. Certificates, affidavits, and acknowledgments may be legibly stamped or printed upon the map with opaque ink. If ink is used on polyester base film, the ink surface shall be coated with a suitable substance to assure permanent legibility.

(b) The size of each sheet shall be 18 by 26 inches. A marginal line shall be drawn completely around each sheet, leaving an entirely blank margin of one inch. The scale of the map shall be large enough to show all details clearly and enough sheets shall be used to accomplish this end. The particular number of the sheet and the total number of sheets comprising the map shall be stated on each of the sheets, and its relation to each adjoining sheet shall be clearly shown.

(c) Each parcel shall be numbered and each block may be numbered or lettered. Each street shall be named or otherwise designated.

(d) The exterior boundary of the land included within the subdivision shall be indicated by distinctive symbols and clearly so designated.

The map shall show the location of each parcel and its relation to surrounding surveys. If the map includes a "designated remainder" parcel or similar parcel, and the gross area of the "designated remainder" parcel or similar parcel is five acres or more, that remainder parcel need not be shown on the map and its location need not be indicated as a matter or survey, but only by deed reference to the existing boundaries of the remainder parcel.

A parcel designated as "not a part" shall be deemed to be a "designated remainder" for purposes of this section.

(e) Subject to the provisions of Section 66436, a certificate, signed and acknowledged by all parties having any record title interest in the real property subdivided, consenting to the preparation and recordation of the parcel map is required, except that less inclusive requirements may be provided by local ordinance.

With respect to a division of land into four or fewer parcels, where dedications or offers of dedications are not required, the certificate shall be signed and acknowledged by the subdivider only. If the subdivider does not have a record title ownership interest in the property to be divided, the local agency may require that the subdivider provide the local agency with satisfactory evidence that the persons with record title ownership have consented to the proposed division. For purposes of this paragraph, "record title ownership" shall mean fee title of record unless a leasehold interest is to be divided, in which case "record title ownership" shall mean ownership of record of such leasehold interest; "record title ownership" does not include ownership of mineral rights or other subsurface interests which have been severed from ownership of the surface.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, local agencies may require that those certificates and acknowledgments required pursuant to subdivision (e) be made by separate instrument to be recorded concurrently with the parcel map being filed for record.

(g) On and after January 1, 1987, no additional survey and map requirements shall be included on a parcel map which do not affect record title interests. However, the map shall contain a notation of reference to survey and map information required by a local ordinance adopted pursuant to Section 66434.2.

(h) Whenever a certificate or acknowledgment is made by separate instrument, there shall appear on the final map a reference to the separately recorded document. This reference shall be completed by the county recorder pursuant to Section 66468.1.

(i) If a field survey was performed, the parcel map shall contain a certificate by the engineer or surveyor responsible for the preparation of the map that states that all monuments are of the character and occupy the positions indicated, or that they will be set in those positions on or before a specified date, and that the monuments are, or will be, sufficient to enable the survey to be retraced.

SEC. 6. Section 66474.8 is added to the Government Code, to read:

66474.8. No ordinance, regulation, policy, or procedure which regulates or prescribes standards for grading or drainage, adopted by or applicable to a local agency pursuant to Section 17922 or 17958 of the Health and Safety Code, shall apply to the construction of design or improvement work, including the rough grading of lots within the subdivision, performed pursuant to, or in connection with an approved or conditionally approved tentative map, final map, or parcel map unless the local agency has no other applicable ordinance, regulation, policy, or procedure which regulates or prescribes standards for grading or drainage for subdivision design or improvement.

SEC. 7. Section 66497 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66497. Within five days after the final setting of all monuments has been completed, the engineer or surveyor shall give written notice to the subdivider, and to the city engineer or the county surveyor or any other public official or employee authorized to receive these notices, that the final monuments have been set.

Upon payment to the engineer or surveyor for setting the final monuments, the subdivider shall present to the legislative body evidence of the payment and receipt thereof by the engineer or surveyor. In the case of a cash deposit, the legislative body shall pay the engineer or surveyor for the setting of the final monuments from the cash deposit, if so requested by the depositor.

If the subdivider does not present evidence to the legislative body that the engineer or surveyor has been paid for the setting of the final monuments, and if the engineer or surveyor notifies the legislative body that payment has not been received from the subdivider for the setting of the final monuments, the legislative body shall, within three months from the date of the notification, pay to the engineer or surveyor from any deposit the amount due.

SEC. 8. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and AB 621 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1986, both bills amend Section 66434 of the Government Code, and this bill is chaptered after AB 621, that the amendments to Section 66434 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 66434 in the form set forth in Section 3.5 of this act. Therefore, Section 3.5 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and AB 621 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1986, both amend Section 66434, and this bill is chaptered after AB 621, in which case Section 3 of this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 9. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and AB 621 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1986, both bills amend Section 66445 of the Government Code, and this bill is chaptered after AB 621, that the amendments to Section 66445 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 66445 in the form set forth in Section 5.5 of this act. Therefore, Section 5.5 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and AB 621 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1986, both amend Section 66445, and this bill is chaptered after AB 621, in which case Section 5 of this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 10. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

An act to add Section 11010.05 to the Business and Professions Code, and to amend Sections 51.3 and 1360 of, and to add Section 1368 to, the Civil Code, relating to housing.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11010.05 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

11010.05. A person who proposes to create a senior citizen housing development, as defined in Section 51.3 of the Civil Code, through phased development and marketing of subdivision interests, may apply for and obtain a public report for a phase of the subdivision as part of a senior citizen housing development even though the phase itself will not include a sufficient number of dwelling units to qualify as a senior citizen housing development. The applicant shall submit the following statement, signed under penalty of perjury, with the application for a public report:

(a) A statement of the applicant's intent that the subdivision phase shall ultimately be part of a senior citizen housing development.

(b) An explanation of the annexation of the subdivision phases for the creation of the senior citizen housing development.

(c) Evidence satisfactory to the department that the applicant owns or controls real property capable of being subdivided and annexed to the original subdivision to provide a sufficient number of dwelling units to satisfy the numerical requirements for a senior citizen housing development.

SEC. 2. Section 51.3 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

51.3. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that this section is essential to establish and preserve specially designed accessible housing for senior citizens. There are senior citizens who need special living environments and services, and find that there is an inadequate supply of this type of housing in the state.

(b) The Legislature finds and declares that different age limitations for senior citizen housing are appropriate in recognition of the size of a development in relationship to the community in which it is located.

(c) For the purposes of this section, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Qualifying resident" or "senior citizen" means a person 62 years of age or older, or 55 years of age or older in a senior citizen housing development.

(2) "Qualified permanent resident" means a person who meets all of the following requirements:

(A) Was residing with the qualifying resident or senior citizen prior to the death, hospitalization, or other prolonged absence of, or the dissolution of marriage with, the qualifying resident or senior citizen.

(B) Was 45 years of age or older, or was a spouse, cohabitant, or person providing primary physical or economic support to the qualifying resident or senior citizen.

(C) Has an ownership interest in, or is in expectation of an ownership interest in, the dwelling unit within the housing development that limits occupancy, residency, or use on the basis of age.

(3) "Senior citizen housing development" means a residential development consisting of at least 150 dwelling units in a standard metropolitan statistical area or at least 35 dwelling units in any other area which is developed for, or substantially rehabilitated or renovated for, senior citizens. For the purpose of computing the number of dwelling units within that development, the number of dwelling units developed, whether in single or multiple phases, shall be included in the computation. Developments commenced after July 1, 1986, shall be required to have been issued a public report as a senior citizen housing development under Section 11010.05 of the Business and Professions Code.

(4) "Dwelling unit" or "housing" means any residential accommodation other than a mobilehome.

(5) "Cohabitant" means persons who live together as husband and wife.

(d) The covenants, conditions, and restrictions or other documents or written policy shall not limit occupancy, residency, or use on the basis of age more proscriptively than to require that one person in residence in each dwelling unit may be required to be a senior citizen and that each other resident in the same dwelling unit may be required to be a qualified permanent resident.

(e) The covenants, conditions, and restrictions or other documents or written policy shall permit temporary residency, as a guest of a senior citizen or qualified permanent resident, by a person of less than 45 years of age for periods of time, not less than 60 days in any year, which are specified in the covenants, conditions, and restrictions or other documents or written policy.

(f) Upon the death or dissolution of marriage, or upon hospitalization, or other prolonged absence of the qualifying resident, any qualified permanent resident shall be entitled to continue his or her occupancy, residency, or use of the dwelling unit.

(g) The condominium, stock cooperative, limited-equity housing cooperative, planned development, or multiple-family residential rental property shall have been developed for, and initially been put to use as, housing for senior citizens, or shall have been substantially rehabilitated or renovated for, and immediately afterward put to use as, housing for senior citizens, as provided in this section.

The covenants, conditions, and restrictions or other documents or written policies applicable to any condominium, stock cooperative, limited-equity housing cooperative, planned development, or multiple-family residential property which contained age restrictions on January 1, 1984, shall be enforceable only to the extent permitted by this section, notwithstanding lower age restrictions contained in those documents or policies.

Any person who has the right to reside in, occupy, or use the housing or an unimproved lot subject to this section on January 1, 1985, shall not be deprived of the right to continue that residency, occupancy, or use as the result of the enactment of this section.

SEC. 3. Section 1360 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1360. (a) The owner of a lot or unit in any of the subdivisions referred to in Section 11004.5 of the Business and Professions Code, shall, as soon as practicable before transfer of title or the execution of a real property sales contract as defined in Section 2985, give all of the following to the prospective purchaser:

(1) A copy of the declarations of restrictions, and, if the restrictions limit occupancy, residency, or use on the basis of age in a manner different from that provided in Section 51.3, also a statement that the restrictions are only enforceable to the extent permitted by Section 51.3 and a statement specifying the applicable provisions of Section 51.3.

(2) Bylaws.

(3) Articles of incorporation affecting rights to the property being offered for transfer.

(5) A copy of the most current financial statements, as defined in Section 1730, which have already been distributed to the owner of such a unit.

(b) Upon written request, the governing body of any of the subdivisions referred to in subdivision (a) shall, within 10 days of the mailing or delivery of the request, provide the owner of a lot or unit in that subdivision with copies of the documents or statements specified in subdivision (a) which are applicable to the subdivision. The governing body may impose a fee for providing the documents and statement, but in no event shall the fee exceed the reasonable cost to prepare and reproduce the requested documents.

(c) The provisions of this section, except those provisions relating to a written statement of delinquent assessments and such other charges as may be authorized by the declaration of restrictions or management documents, shall not apply to the transfer of a lot or unit the transfer of which is required to be preceded by the furnishing to a prospective purchaser of a copy of a public report pursuant to Section 11018.1 of the Business and Professions Code.

(d) Any person or entity who willfully violates the provisions of this section shall be liable to the purchaser of a lot, or unit which is subject to the provisions of this section for the actual damages and in addition thereto shall pay a penal sum in an amount not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500), and in an action to enforce such liability, the prevailing party shall be awarded reasonable attorney's fees.

(e) Nothing in this section shall affect the validity of title to real property transferred in violation of the provisions of this section.

(2) Bylaws.

(3) Articles of incorporation affecting rights to the property being offered for transfer.

(4) A true statement in writing from the governing body of any of the subdivisions referred to in Section 11004.5 of the Business and Professions Code as to the amount of any delinquent assessments and information relating to penalties, attorney's fees, and other charges therein as provided by the declaration of restrictions of the subdivision or the management documents of the governing body on the lot or unit as of the date the statement is issued.

(5) A copy of the most current financial statements, as defined in Section 1730, which have already been distributed to the owner of such a unit.

(b) Upon written request, the governing body of any of the subdivisions referred to in subdivision (a) shall, within 10 days of the mailing or delivery of the request, provide the owner of a lot or unit in that subdivision (including the owner of a lot or unit prior to its initial sale or lease) with copies of the documents or statements specified in subdivision (a) which are applicable to the subdivision. The governing body may impose a fee for providing the documents and statement, but in no event shall the fee exceed the reasonable cost to prepare and reproduce the requested documents.

(c) Any person or entity who willfully violates the provisions of this section shall be liable to the purchaser of a lot or unit which is subject to the provisions of this section for the actual damages and in addition thereto shall pay the purchaser a penal sum in an amount not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500), and in an action to enforce this liability, the prevailing party shall be awarded reasonable attorney's fees.

The association may charge a fee for this service, which shall not exceed the association's reasonable cost to prepare and reproduce the requested items.

(c) Any person or entity who willfully violates this section shall be liable to the purchaser of a separate interest which is subject to this section for actual damages occasioned thereby and, in addition, shall pay a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500). In an action to enforce this liability, the prevailing party shall be awarded reasonable attorney's fees.

(1) A copy of the governing documents of the common interest development.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20134 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20134. Data filed by any member or beneficiary with the board is confidential, and no individual record shall be divulged by any official or employee having access to it to any person other than the member to whom the information relates or his authorized representative, the contracting agency or school district by which he is employed, any state department or agency, or the university. Such information shall be used by the board for the sole purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this part. Any information which is requested for retirement purposes by any public agency shall be treated as confidential by such agency.

The gross amount of any benefit is not confidential and may be released upon request to the board.

SEC. 3. The sum of sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Public Employment Relations Board for the purposes of this act.

CHAPTER 1509

An act to add Chapter 12.75 (commencing with Section 7060), to Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, relating to real property.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1 Chapter 12.75 (commencing with Section 7060) is added to Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 12.75. RESIDENTIAL REAL PROPERTY

7060. (a) No public entity, as defined in Section 811.2, shall, by statute, ordinance, or regulation, or by administrative action implementing any statute, ordinance or regulation, compel the owner of any residential real property to offer, or to continue to offer, accommodations in the property for rent or lease.

(b) For the purposes of this chapter, "accommodations" means the following:

(1) The residential rental units in any detached physical structure containing four or more residential rental units.

(2) With respect to a detached physical structure containing three or fewer residential rental units, the residential rental units in that structure and in any other structure located on the same parcel of land, including any detached physical structure specified in paragraph (1).

7060.1. Notwithstanding Section 7060, nothing in this chapter does any of the following:

(a) Prevents a public entity from enforcing any contract or agreement by which an owner of residential real property has agreed to offer the accommodations for rent or lease in consideration for a direct financial contribution or, with respect to written contracts or agreements entered into prior to July 1, 1986, for any consideration. Any contract or agreement specified in this subdivision is not enforceable against a person who acquires title to the accommodations as a bona fide purchaser for value (or successors in interest thereof), unless (1) the purchaser at the time of acquiring title to the accommodations has actual knowledge of the contract or agreement, or (2) a written memorandum of the contract or agreement which specifically describes the terms thereof and the affected real property, and which identifies the owner of the property, has been recorded with the county recorder prior to July 1, 1986, or not less than 30 days prior to transfer of title to the property to the purchaser. The county recorder shall index such a written memorandum in the grantor-grantee index.

As used in this subdivision, "direct financial contribution" includes contributions specified in Section 65916 and any form of interest rate subsidy or tax abatement provided to facilitate the acquisition or development of real property.

(b) Diminishes or enhances, except as specifically provided in Section 7060.2, any power which currently exists or which may hereafter exist in any public entity to grant or deny any entitlement to the use of real property, including, but not limited to, planning, zoning, and subdivision map approvals.

(c) (1) Diminishes or enhances any power which currently exists or which may hereafter exist in any public entity to mitigate any adverse impact on persons displaced by reason of the withdrawal from rent or lease of any accommodations in any residential hotel, as defined by Section 50519 of the Health and Safety Code, which is expressly reserved, or generally used, for occupancy by lower income households, as defined by Section 50079.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

(2) The reference to residential hotels in paragraph (1) is not intended by the Legislature to diminish or enhance any power which currently exists or which may hereafter exist in any public entity to require those same actions for other types of accommodations.

(d) Supersedes any provision of Chapter 16 (commencing with Section 7260) of this division, Part 2.8 (commencing with Section 12900) of Division 3 of Title 2 of this code, Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 17200) of Part 2 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code, Part 2 (commencing with Section 43) of Division 1 of the Civil Code, Title 5 (commencing with Section 1925) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 1159) of Title 3 of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure, or Division 24 (commencing with Section 33000) of the Health and Safety Code.

(e) Relieves any party to a lease or rental agreement of the duty to perform any obligation under that lease or rental agreement.

7060.2. If a public entity, by valid exercise of its police power, has in effect any control or system of control on the price at which accommodations may be offered for rent or lease, that entity may, notwithstanding any provision of this chapter, provide by statute or ordinance, or by regulation as specified in Section 7060.5, that any accommodations which have been offered for rent or lease and which were subject to that control or system of control at the time the accommodations were withdrawn from rent or lease, shall be subject to the following:

(a) If the accommodations are offered again for rent or lease for residential purposes within one year of the date the accommodations were withdrawn from rent or lease, the following provisions shall govern:

(1) The accommodations shall be subject to any control on the price at which they may be offered in the manner and to the same extent as if the accommodations had not been withdrawn from rent or lease. This paragraph shall prevail over any conflicting provision of law authorizing the landlord to establish the rental rate upon the initial hiring of the accommodations.

(2) The owner of the accommodations shall be liable to any tenant or lessee who was displaced from the property by that action for actual damages which were the proximate result of that displacement, as defined and limited by the standards for compensation or payments applied to public entities with respect to rental dwellings by Sections 7262 and 7264, and punitive damages in an amount which does not exceed the contract rent for six months. Any action by a tenant or lessee pursuant to this paragraph shall be brought within two years of that displacement. However, nothing in this paragraph precludes a tenant from pursuing any alternative remedy available under the law.

(3) A public entity which has acted pursuant to this section may institute a civil proceeding against any owner who has again offered accommodations for rent or lease subject to this subdivision, for exemplary damages for displacement of tenants or lessees. The exemplary damages shall not exceed the contract rent for six months for any unit or units from which a tenant or lessee was displaced by withdrawal of the unit from rent or lease pursuant to this chapter. Any action by a public entity pursuant to this paragraph shall be brought within three years of the withdrawal of the accommodations from rent or lease.

(4) Any owner who offers accommodations again for rent or lease shall first offer the unit for rent or lease to the tenant or lessee displaced from that unit by the withdrawal pursuant to this chapter, if the tenant has advised the owner in writing within 30 days of the displacement of his or her desire to consider an offer to renew the tenancy and has furnished the owner with an address to which that offer is to be directed. That tenant, lessee, or former tenant or lessee may advise the owner at any time during the eligibility of a change of address to which an offer is to be directed.

If the owner again offers the accommodations for rent or lease pursuant to this subdivision, and the tenant or lessee has advised the owner pursuant to this subdivision of a desire to consider an offer to renew the tenancy, then the owner shall offer to reinstitute a rental agreement or lease on terms permitted by law to that displaced tenant or lessee.

This offer shall be deposited in the United States mail, by registered or certified mail with postage prepaid, addressed to the displaced tenant or lessee at the address furnished to the owner as provided in this subdivision, and shall describe the terms of the offer. The displaced tenant or lessee shall have 30 days from the deposit of the offer in the mail to accept the offer by personal delivery of that acceptance or by deposit of the acceptance in the United States mail by registered or certified mail with postage prepaid.

(b) (1) If the accommodations are offered again for residential purposes more than one year after the date the accommodations were withdrawn from rent or lease, the accommodations shall be subject to any control on the price at which they may be offered in the manner and to the same extent as if the accommodations had not been withdrawn from rent or lease, subject to any adjustments otherwise available under the system of control. This subdivision shall prevail over any conflicting provision of law authorizing the landlord to establish the rental rate upon the initial hiring of the accommodations.

(2) A public entity which has acted pursuant to this section, may require by statute or ordinance, or by regulation as specified in Section 7060.5, that an owner who offers accommodations again for rent or lease within a period not exceeding 10 years from the date on which they are withdrawn, and which are subject to this subdivision, shall first offer the unit to the tenant or lessee displaced from that unit by the withdrawal, if that tenant or lessee requests the offer in writing within 30 days after the owner has notified the public entity of an intention to offer the accommodations again for residential rent or lease pursuant to a requirement adopted by the public entity under subdivision (c) of Section 7060.4. The owner of the accommodations shall be liable to any tenant or lessee who was displaced by that action for failure to comply with this paragraph, for punitive damages in an amount which does not exceed the contract rent for six months.

(c) If the accommodations are demolished, and new accommodations are constructed on the same property, and offered for rent or lease within five years of the date the accommodations were withdrawn from rent or lease, the newly constructed accommodations shall be subject to any system of controls on the price at which they would be offered on the basis of a fair and reasonable return on the newly constructed accommodations, notwithstanding any exemption from such a system of controls for newly constructed accommodations.

7060.3. If a public entity determines to apply constraints pursuant to Section 7060.2 to a successor in interest of an owner who has withdrawn accommodations from rent or lease, the public entity shall record a notice with the county recorder which shall specifically describe the real property where the accommodations are located and the dates applicable. The notice shall be indexed in the grantor-grantee index.

A person who acquires title to the real property subsequent to the date upon which the accommodations thereon have been withdrawn from rent or lease, as a bona fide purchaser for value, shall not be a successor in interest for the purposes of this chapter if the notice prescribed by this section has not been recorded with the county recorder at least one day before the transfer of title.

7060.4. (a) Any public entity which, by a valid exercise of its police power, has in effect any control or system of control on the price at which accommodations are offered for rent or lease, may require by statute or ordinance, or by regulation as specified in Section 7060.5, that the owner notify the entity of an intention to withdraw those accommodations from rent or lease and may require that the notice contain statements, under penalty of perjury, providing information on the number of accommodations, the address or location of those accommodations, the name or names of the tenants or lessees of the accommodations, and the rent applicable to each residential rental unit.

Information respecting the name or names of the tenants, the rent applicable to any residential rental unit, or the total number of accommodations, is confidential information and for purposes of this chapter shall be treated as confidential information by any public entity for purposes of the Information Practices Act of 1977, as contained in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1798) of Title 1.8 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code. A public entity shall, to the extent required by the preceding sentence, be considered an "agency," as defined by subdivision (d) of Section 1798.3 of the Civil Code.

The statute, ordinance, or regulation of the public entity may require that the owner record with the county recorder a memorandum summarizing the provisions, other than the confidential provisions, of the notice in a form which shall be prescribed by the statute, ordinance, or regulation, and require a certification with that notice that actions have been initiated as required by law to terminate any existing tenancies. In that situation, the date on which the accommodations are withdrawn from rent or lease for purposes of this chapter is 60 days from the delivery in person or by first-class mail of that notice to the public entity.

(b) The statute, ordinance, or regulation of the public entity adopted pursuant to subdivision (a) may also require the owner to notify any tenant or lessee displaced pursuant to this chapter that the public entity has been notified pursuant to subdivision (a), that the notice to the public entity specified the name and the amount of rent paid by the tenant or lessee as an occupant of the accommodations, and the amount of rent the owner specified in the notice to the public entity, together with a notice to the tenant or lessee of his or her rights under paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 7060.2.

(c) The statute, ordinance, or regulation of the public entity adopted pursuant to subdivision (a) may also require the owner to notify the public entity in writing of an intention to again offer the accommodations for rent or lease.

7060.5. The actions authorized by Sections 7060.2 and 7060.4 may be taken by regulation adopted after public notice and hearing by a public body of a public entity, if the members of the body have been elected by the voters of the public entity. The regulation shall be subject to referendum in the manner prescribed by law for the ordinances of the legislative body of the public entity except that:

(a) The decision to repeal the regulation or to submit it to the voters shall be made by the public body which adopted the regulation.

(b) The regulation shall become effective upon adoption by the public body of the public entity and shall remain in effect until a majority of the voters voting on the issue vote against the regulation, notwithstanding Section 4050, 4051, or 4055 of the Elections Code or any other law.

7060.6. If an owner seeks to displace a tenant or lessee from accommodations withdrawn from rent or lease pursuant to this chapter by an unlawful detainer proceeding, the tenant or lessee may appear and answer or demur pursuant to Section 1170 of the Code of Civil Procedure and may assert by way of defense that the owner has not complied with the applicable provisions of this chapter, or statutes, ordinances, or regulations of public entities adopted to implement this chapter, as authorized by this chapter.

7060.7. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this chapter to supersede any holding or portion of any holding in Nash v. City of Santa Monica, 37 Cal. 3d 97 to the extent that the holding, or portion of the holding, conflicts with this chapter, so as to permit landlords to go out of business. However, this act is not otherwise intended to do any of the following:

(1) Interfere with local governmental authority over land use, including regulation of the conversion of existing housing to condominiums or other subdivided interests.

(2) Override procedural protections designed to prevent abuse of the right to evict tenants.

(3) Permit an owner to withdraw from rent or lease less than all of the accommodations, as defined by paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 7060.

(4) Grant to any public entity any power which it does not possess independent of this chapter to control or establish a system of control on the price at which accommodations may be offered for rent or lease, or to diminish any such power which that public entity may possess, except as specifically provided in this chapter.

(5) Alter in any way either Section 65863.7 relating to the withdrawal of accommodations which comprise a mobilehome park from rent or lease or subdivision (f) of Section 798.56 of the Civil Code relating to a change of use of a mobilehome park.

SEC. 2. Section 1 of this act shall become operative on July 1, 1986.

SEC. 3. If any provision of Section 1 of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

CHAPTER 1510

An act to amend Section 987.9 of, to add Section 190.05 to, the Penal Code, relating to criminal justice.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985. Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 190.05 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

190.05. (a) The penalty for a defendant found guilty of murder in the second degree, who has served a prior prison term for murder in the first or second degree, shall be confinement in the state prison for a term of life without the possibility of parole or confinement in the state prison for a term of 15 years to life. For purposes of this section, a prior prison term for murder of the first or second degree is that time period in which a defendant has spent actually incarcerated for his or her offense prior to release on parole.

(b) A prior prison term for murder for purposes of this section includes either of the following:

(1) A prison term served in any state prison or federal penal institution, including confinement in a hospital or other institution or facility credited as service of prison time in the jurisdiction of confinement, as punishment for the commission of an offense which includes all of the elements of murder in the first or second degree as defined under California law.

(2) Incarceration at a facility operated by the Youth Authority for murder of the first or second degree when the person was subject to the custody, control, and discipline of the Director of Corrections.

(c) The fact of a prior prison term for murder in the first or second degree shall be alleged in the accusatory pleading, and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by a plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

(d) In case of a reasonable doubt as to whether the defendant served a prior prison term for murder in the first or second degree, the defendant is entitled to a finding that the allegation is not true.

(e) If the trier of fact finds that the defendant has served a prior prison term for murder in the first or second degree, there shall be a separate penalty hearing before the same trier of fact, except as provided in subdivision (f).

(f) If the defendant was convicted by the court sitting without a jury, the trier of fact at the penalty hearing shall be a jury unless a jury is waived by the defendant and the people, in which case the trier of fact shall be the court. If the defendant was convicted by a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, the trier of fact shall be a jury unless a jury is waived by the defendant and the people.

If the trier of fact is a jury and has been unable to reach a unanimous verdict as to what the penalty shall be, the court shall dismiss the jury and shall order a new jury impaneled to try the issue as to what the penalty shall be. If the new jury is unable to reach a unanimous verdict as to what the penalty shall be, the court in its discretion shall either order a new jury or impose a punishment of confinement in the state prison for a term of 15 years to life.

(g) Evidence presented at any prior phase of the trial, including any proceeding under a plea of not guilty by reason of insanity pursuant to Section 1026, shall be considered at any subsequent phase of the trial, if the trier of fact of the prior phase is the same trier of fact at the subsequent phase.

(h) In the proceeding on the question of penalty, evidence may be presented by both the people and the defendant as to any matter relevant to aggravation, mitigation, and sentence, including, but not limited to, the nature and circumstances of the present offense, any prior felony conviction or convictions whether or not such conviction or convictions involved a crime of violence, the presence or absence of other criminal activity by the defendant which involved the use or attempted use of force or violence or which involved the express or implied threat to use force or violence, and the defendant's character, background, history, mental condition, and physical condition.

However, no evidence shall be admitted regarding other criminal activity by the defendant which did not involve the use or attempted use of force or violence or which did not involve the express or implied threat to use force or violence. As used in this section, criminal activity does not require a conviction.

However, in no event shall evidence of prior criminal activity be admitted for an offense for which the defendant was prosecuted and acquitted. The restriction on the use of this evidence is intended to apply only to proceedings pursuant to this section and is not intended to affect statutory or decisional law allowing such evidence to be used in any other proceedings.

Except for evidence in proof of the offense or the prior prison term for murder of the first or second degree which subjects a defendant to the punishment of life without the possibility of parole, no evidence may be presented by the prosecution in aggravation unless notice of the evidence to be introduced has been given to the defendant within a reasonable period of time as determined by the court, prior to trial. Evidence may be introduced without such notice in rebuttal to evidence introduced by the defendant in mitigation.

In determining the penalty, the trier of fact shall take into account any of the following factors if relevant:

(1) The circumstances of the crime of which the defendant was convicted in the present proceeding and the existence of the prior prison term for murder.

(2) The presence or absence of criminal activity by the defendant which involved the use or attempted use of force or violence or the express or implied threat to use force or violence.

(3) The presence or absence of any prior felony conviction.

(4) Whether or not the offense was committed while the defendant was under the influence of extreme mental or emotional disturbance.

(5) Whether or not the victim was a participant in the defendant's homicidal conduct or consented to the homicidal act.

(6) Whether or not the offense was committed under circumstances which the defendant reasonably believed to be a moral justification or extenuation for his or her conduct.

(7) Whether or not the defendant acted under extreme duress or under the substantial domination of another person.

(8) Whether or not at the time of the offense the ability of the defendant to appreciate the criminality of his or her conduct or to conform his or her conduct to the requirements of law was impaired as a result of mental disease or defect, or the effects of intoxication

(9) The age of the defendant at the time of the crime.

(10) Whether or not the defendant was an accomplice to the offense and his or her participation in the commission of the offense was relatively minor.

(11) Any other circumstance which extenuates the gravity of the crime even though it is not a legal excuse for the crime.

After having heard and received all of the evidence, and after having heard and considered the arguments of counsel, the trier of fact shall consider, take into account, and be guided by the aggravating and mitigating circumstances referred to in this section, and shall impose a sentence of life without the possibility of parole if the trier of fact concludes that the aggravating circumstances outweigh the mitigating circumstances. If the trier of fact determines that the mitigating circumstances outweigh the aggravating circumstances, the trier of fact shall impose a sentence of confinement in the state prison for 15 years to life.

(i) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the charging of finding of any special circumstance pursuant to Sections 190.1, 190.2, 190.3, 190.4, and 190.5.

SEC. 2. Section 987.9 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

987.9. In the trial of a capital case or a case under subdivision (a) of Section 190.05 the indigent defendant, through his or her counsel, may request the court for funds for the specific payment of investigators, experts, and others for the preparation or presentation of the defense. The application for funds shall be by affidavit and shall specify that the funds are reasonably necessary for the preparation or presentation of the defense. The fact that an application has been made shall be confidential and the contents of the application shall be confidential. Upon receipt of an application, a judge of the court, other than the trial judge presiding over the case in question, shall rule on the reasonableness of the request and shall disburse an appropriate amount of money to the defendant's attorney. The ruling on the reasonableness of the request shall be made at an in camera hearing. In making the ruling, the court shall be guided by the need to provide a complete and full defense for the defendant.

The Controller shall not reimburse any county for costs that exceed Board of Control standards for travel and per diem expenses. The Controller may reimburse extraordinary costs in unusual cases if the county provides sufficient documentation of the need for such expenditures.

At the termination of the proceedings, the attorney shall furnish to the court a complete accounting of all moneys received and disbursed pursuant to this section.

SEC. 3. Section 987.9 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

987.9. In the trial of a capital case or a case under subdivision (a) of Section 190.05 the indigent defendant, through the defendant's counsel, may request the court for funds for the specific payment of investigators, experts, and others for the preparation or presentation of the defense. The application for funds shall be by affidavit and shall specify that the funds are reasonably necessary for the preparation or presentation of the defense. The fact that an application has been made shall be confidential and the contents of the application shall be confidential. Upon receipt of an application, a judge of the court, other than the trial judge presiding over the case in question, shall rule on the reasonableness of the request and shall disburse an appropriate amount of money to the defendant's attorney. The ruling on the reasonableness of the request shall be made at an in camera hearing. In making the ruling, the court shall be guided by the need to provide a complete and full defense for the defendant.

The Controller shall not reimburse any county for costs that exceed Board of Control standards for travel and per diem expenses. The Controller may reimburse extraordinary costs in unusual cases if the county provides sufficient documentation of the need for those expenditures.

At the termination of the proceedings, the attorney shall furnish to the court a complete accounting of all moneys received and disbursed pursuant to this section.

The Controller shall adopt regulations pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, controlling reimbursements under this section. The regulations shall consider compensation for investigators, expert witnesses, and other expenses that may or may not be reimbursable pursuant to this section. Notwithstanding the provisions of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, the Controller shall follow any regulations adopted until final approval by the Office of Administrative Law.

SEC. 4. Section 3 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 987.9 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 344. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1986, (2) each bill amends Section 987.9 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 344, in which case Section 2 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 5. Reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code and, if the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3041.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

3041.5. (a) At all hearings for the purpose of reviewing a prisoner's parole suitability, or the setting, postponing or rescinding of parole dates:

(2) The prisoner shall be permitted to be present, to ask and answer questions, and to speak on his own behalf.

(3) Unless legal counsel is required by some other provision of law, a person designated by the Department of Corrections shall be present to insure that all facts relevant to the decision be presented, including, if necessary, contradictory assertions as to matters of fact that have not been resolved by departmental or other procedures

(4) The prisoner shall be permitted to request and receive a stenographic record of all proceedings.

(5) If the hearing is for the purpose of postponing or rescinding of parole dates, the prisoner will have rights set forth in paragraphs (3) and (5) of subdivision (a) of Section 2932.

(b) (1) Within 10 days following any meeting where a parole date has been set, the board shall send the prisoner a written statement setting forth his parole date, the conditions he must meet in order to be released on the date set, and the consequences of failure to meet such conditions.

(2) Within 20 days following any meeting where a parole date has not been set for the reasons stated in subdivision (b) of Section 3041, the board shall send the prisoner a written statement setting forth the reason or reasons for refusal to set a parole date; and suggest activities in which he might participate that will benefit him while he is incarcerated.

The board shall hear each case annually thereafter, except the board may schedule the next hearing no later than (A) two years after any hearing at which parole is denied if the board finds that it is not reasonable to expect that parole would be granted at a hearing during the following year and states the bases for the finding or, (B) three years after any hearing at which parole is denied if the prisoner has been convicted, in the same or different proceedings, of more than one offense which involves the taking of a life, and the board finds that it is not reasonable to expect that parole would be granted at a hearing during the following years and states the bases for the finding.

(3) Within 10 days of any board action resulting in the postponement of a previously set parole date, the board shall send the prisoner a written statement setting forth a new date and the reason or reasons for such action and shall offer the prisoner an opportunity for review of such action.

Additionally, each alcohol rehabilitation facility shall be approved and monitored by the county probation department as to the adequacy of the custodial care provided, which shall, as near as possible, be equivalent to other types of facilities providing similar levels of custodial care.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that the Board of Prison Terms may properly conduct hearings, and in order to permit the proper utilization of sentencing alternatives, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1512

An act to add and repeal Section 99301.5 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to transportation.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 99301.5 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

99301.5. Notwithstanding Sections 99232, 99233, and 99301, the Orange County Transportation Commission may direct the transportation planning agency to allocate interest accruing on and after January 1, 1985, from money retained for the development of transit in the local transportation fund of the County of Orange, to the County of Orange, to cities within the county, and to the Department of Transportation to expend for purposes within the County of Orange, as determined by the Orange County Transportation Commission, which could be funded by motor vehicle fuel taxes pursuant to Section 1 of Article XIX of the California Constitution. When determining the purposes for which the money is to be expended, the Orange County Transportation Commission shall ensure that the money is allocated in substantially equal proportions to local streets and roads and to state highways for purposes which include, but are not limited to, the resurfacing, rehabilitation, and reconstruction of existing state highways and local streets and roads.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1989, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 1513

An act to amend Sections 1194.8 and 1194.85 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1194.8 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1194.8. (a) Excess fund investments may be made by a domestic insurer in real estate and leases thereof and in making improvements thereon for business or residential purposes as an investment for the production of income. The phrase "business or residential purposes" shall not include real estate or leases primarily intended for use or valued as agricultural, horticultural, farm, ranch or mineral property. Any such investment may be made by admitted insurers having admitted assets aggregating in value not less than twenty-five million dollars ($25,000,000).

Domestic insurers, other than life, title, mortgage and mortgage guaranty insurers, having admitted assets aggregating in value less than twenty-five million dollars ($25,000,000) but not less than ten million dollars ($10,000,000) may also qualify to make such investments for a period of 12 months with the prior approval of the commissioner. Real estate and leases acquired and improvements made thereon under this section shall not exceed in the aggregate an amount equal to 10 percent of the insurer's admitted assets. Real estate and leases acquired under this section shall be in addition to that which is authorized to be acquired under the provisions of paragraphs (a) to (h), inclusive, of Section 1150. Except upon the prior approval in writing of the commissioner, an investment may not be made under the authority of this section if at the time of the making of such investment it would result in the insurer then owning real estate and leases thereof, other than of the kind and for the purposes described in paragraphs (a), (b), and (f) of Section 1150, in an amount exceeding 10 percent of the insurer's admitted assets. Any investment in a single parcel of real estate or in a single leasehold including improvements thereon made under the authority of this section shall not be made in an amount in excess of 1 percent of the insurer's admitted assets or 10 percent of the aggregate of the insurer's capital paid-up and unassigned surplus, whichever amount is larger. A lease eligible for purchase hereunder shall be for a term which at the date of purchase shall not expire for at least 24 years. Percentage or dollar value of assets and capital paid-up and unassigned surplus as provided herein shall be determined by the insurer's last preceding annual statement of conditions and affairs made as of the December 31st last preceding and which has been filed with the commissioner pursuant to law.

(b) In computing the value of real estate held by a domestic insurer for the purpose of complying with the asset standards or percentage of asset standards, the insurer shall add the net equity of such real estate owned by the insured to the amount of encumbrances and liens against the property for which the insurer could be held liable for any deficiency in the event of foreclosure or other action to realize the value of such liens. "Net equity" as used in this section means book value less the value of liens and encumbrances.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a) or Section 1100, excess fund investments may be made by a domestic life insurer as an investment for the production of income in interests in publicly traded limited partnerships, limited partnerships in which the life insurer is the general partner, general partnerships, or in shares of beneficial interests in trusts substantially all the assets of which are real estate or leases thereof or improvements thereon for business or residential purposes. "Business or residential purposes" does not include real estate or leases primarily intended for use or valued as agricultural, horticultural, farm, ranch, or mineral property. Any investment authorized by this subdivision may be made by domestic life insurers having admitted assets aggregating in value not less than one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000).

Investments acquired pursuant to this subdivision shall be in addition to investments authorized to be acquired under subdivisions (a) to (h), inclusive, of Section 1150. Except upon the prior approval in writing of the commissioner, an investment may not be made under the authority of this subdivision in a general partnership or a nonpublicly traded trust if at the time of the making of the investment it would result in the life insurer owning aggregate interests in those investments in an amount exceeding 3 percent of the life insurer's admitted assets. Except upon the prior approval in writing of the commissioner, an investment may not be made if at the time it would result in the life insurer owning interests in general or limited partnerships or in shares of beneficial interests in trusts in an amount exceeding 10 percent of the life insurer's admitted assets.

An investment in a single partnership or shares of beneficial interest in a single trust made pursuant to this subdivision shall not be made in an amount in excess of 1 percent of the life insurer's admitted assets or 10 percent of the aggregate of the life insurer's capital paid-up and unassigned surplus, whichever is larger. Percentage or dollar value of assets and capital paid-up and unassigned surplus as provided herein shall be determined by the life insurer's last preceding annual statement of conditions and affairs made as of the December 31st last preceding and which has been filed with the commissioner pursuant to applicable provisions of law.

For purposes of this subdivision, "publicly traded" means securities of a limited partnership or trust listed and traded on a securities exchange subject to regulation, supervision, or control under a statute of the United States or listed on the NASDAQ system.

(d) Investments made pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (c) shall not exceed in the aggregate an amount equal to 10 percent of the insurer's admitted assets except with the prior written consent of the commissioner.

SEC. 2. Section 1194.85 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1194.85. In any case in which a domestic insurer has requested the approval of the commissioner to make the investments specified in subdivision (a) or (c) of Section 1194.8, that insurer shall reimburse the department for all actual expenses, not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500), incurred by it in making a determination of whether to approve or disapprove that request.

CHAPTER 1514

An act to amend Section 5536 of the Public Resources Code, relating to parks and recreation.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5536 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

5536. (a) The board shall establish rules for its proceedings.

(b) The board may provide, by ordinance or resolution, that each of its members may receive an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) per day for each attendance at a meeting of the board. For purposes of this section, a meeting of the board includes, but is not limited to, closed sessions of the board, board field trips, district public hearings, or meetings of a committee of the board. The maximum compensation allowable to a board member on any given day shall be one hundred dollars ($100). Board members shall not receive any other compensation, and no board member shall receive more than five hundred dollars ($500) compensation under this section in any one calendar month. A board member may elect to waive the per diem. In addition, the board may provide, by ordinance or resolution, that each of its members not otherwise eligible for an employer-paid or partially employer-paid group medical or group dental plan, or both, may participate in any of those plans available to permanent employees of the district on the same terms available to those district employees or on terms and conditions as the board may determine. A board member who elects to participate in any plan may also elect to have the premium for the plan charged against his or her per diem and may further elect to waive the balance of the per diem.

(c) All vacancies on the board shall be filled in accordance with the requirements of Section 1780 of the Government Code, except that, in the case of vacancies caused by the creation of new wards or subdistricts, the directors shall, prior to the vacancies being filled, determine by lot, for the purpose of fixing the terms of the first directors to be elected to the wards or subdistricts, which ward or subdistrict shall have a four-year term and which ward or subdistrict shall have a two-year term. The persons who fill the vacancies caused by the establishment of new wards or subdistricts shall hold office until the next general election and until their successors are elected and qualified for the terms previously determined by lot.

CHAPTER 1.12. ACQUIRED IMMUNE DEFICIENCY SYNDROME RESEARCH CONFIDENTIALITY ACT

199.30. Research records, in a personally identifying form, developed or acquired by any person in the course of conducting research or a research study relating to Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS) shall be confidential, and these confidential research records shall not be disclosed by any person in possession of the research record, nor shall these confidential research records be discoverable, nor shall any person be compelled to produce any confidential research record, except as provided by this chapter.

199.31. Confidential research records may be disclosed in accordance with the prior written consent of the research subject with respect to whom the research record is maintained, but only to the extent, under the circumstances, to the persons, and for the purposes the written consent authorizes. Any disclosure authorized by a research subject shall be accompanied by a written statement containing substantially the same language as follows:

"This information has been disclosed to you from a confidential research record the confidentiality of which is protected by state law and any further disclosure of it without specific prior written consent of the person to whom it pertains is prohibited. Violation of these confidentiality guarantees may subject you to civil or criminal liabilities."

199.32. (a) Confidential research records shall be protected in the course of conducting financial audits or program evaluations, and audit personnel shall not directly or indirectly identify any individual research subject in any report of a financial audit or program evaluation. To the extent it is necessary for audit personnel to know the identity of individual research subjects, authorized disclosure of confidential research records shall be made on a case-by-case basis, and every prudent effort shall be exercised to safeguard the confidentiality of these research records in accordance with this chapter. Information disclosed for audit or evaluation purposes should be used only for audit and evaluation purposes and may not be redisclosed or used in any other way.

(b) Nothing in this section imposes liability or criminal sanction for disclosure of confidential research records in accordance with any reporting requirement for a diagnosed case of AIDS by the State Department of Health Services or the Centers for Disease Control under the United States Public Health Services.

199.33. Notwithstanding Section 199.31, whether or not the research subject, with respect to whom any confidential research record is maintained, gives prior written consent, the content of the confidential research record may be disclosed in any of the following situations:

(a) To medical personnel to the extent it is necessary to meet a bona fide medical emergency of a research subject.

(b) To the state department to the extent necessary for the conduct of a special investigation pursuant to Section 211, in which case the confidentiality provisions of Section 211.5 shall apply.

199.34. The content of any confidential research record shall be disclosed to the research subject, the legal representative of the research subject if the research subject is a minor, or the personal representative of a deceased research subject to whom the record pertains, thirty (30) days after written request therefor by the research subject, the legal representative or the personal representative.

199.35. (a) No confidential research record may be compelled to be produced in any state, county, city or other proceeding in order to initiate or substantiate any criminal charge or charges against a research subject, or to conduct an investigation of a research subject, unless a court finds there is reasonable likelihood that the records in question will disclose material information or evidence of substantial value in connection with the criminal charge or charges or investigation, and there is no other practicable way of obtaining the information or evidence.

In addition, no confidential research record shall be disclosed, discoverable, or compelled to be produced in order to initiate or substantiate any criminal charge or charges against a research subject until after a showing of good cause. In assessing good cause, the court shall weigh the public interest and need for disclosure against the injury to the research subject and the harm to the research being undertaken. Upon the granting of an order to produce, the court, in determining the extent to which disclosure of all or any part of a confidential research record is necessary, shall impose appropriate safeguards against unauthorized disclosure, which shall include, but not necessarily be limited to, the individuals or bodies which may have access to the data, the purposes for which the data shall be used, prohibitions on further disclosure and protection of the identities of other research subjects.

(b) No confidential research record may be compelled to be produced in any state, county, city or other civil proceeding, except as expressly provided in this chapter.

199.36. Prior to participation of an individual in a research study relating to AIDS, both of the following requirements shall be met:

(a) The informed consent of each research subject shall be obtained in the method and manner required by Section 46.116, (a) and (b), of Part 46 of Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations and be documented in accordance with Section 46.117 of that part.

(b) Each research subject shall be provided with an explanation in writing, in language understandable to the research subject, of the rights and responsibilities of researchers and research subjects under this chapter.

199.37. (a) Any person who willfully or maliciously discloses the content of any confidential research record, to any third party, except pursuant to this chapter, shall be assessed a civil penalty in an amount not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) and not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) plus court costs, as determined by the court, which penalty and costs shall be paid to the subject of the test.

(b) Any person who maliciously discloses the content of any confidential research record, to a third party, except pursuant to this chapter, which results in economic, bodily, or psychological harm to the research subject, is guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not to exceed one year or a fine of not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or both.

(c) Any person who commits any act described in subdivision (a) or (b) shall be liable to the subject for all actual damages for economic, bodily, or psychological harm which is a proximate result of the act.

(d) Any person who negligently or willfully violates Section 199.36 is guilty of an infraction punishable by a fine of twenty-five dollars ($25).

(e) Each violation of this chapter is a separate and actionable offense.

(f) Nothing in this section limits or expands the right of an injured research subject to recover damages under any other applicable law.

199.38. In the event that the participation of an individual in a research study is disclosed, the information shall not be used to determine the employability or insurability of the research subject.

199.39. Nothing in this chapter shall preclude disclosure of information in order to further research efforts, including, but not limited to, the publication, dissemination, or sharing of raw data, statistics, or case studies, so long as no confidential research records concerning any research subject are disclosed.

199.40. For purposes of this chapter:

(a) "AIDS" means Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome.

(b) "Disclosed" means to disclose, release, transfer, disseminate, or otherwise communicate all or any part of any confidential research record orally, in writing, or by electronic means to any person or entity, or to provide the means for obtaining the records.

(c) "Confidential research record or records" means any data in a personally identifying form, including name, social security number, address, employer, or other information that could, directly or indirectly, in part or in sum, lead to the identification of the individual research subject, developed or acquired by any person in the course of conducting research or a research study relating to AIDS

SEC. 2. Reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code and, if the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

SECTION 1. Section 13176 is added to the Water Code, to read:

13176. (a) The analysis of any material required by this division shall be performed by a laboratory certified by the state board to be competent, properly staffed, and equipped to conduct the specific type of analysis to be performed.

(b) The state board shall adopt regulations setting forth the criteria for certification, the certification process, and the procedures to be used by the laboratories to analyze and identify the materials. The regulations shall include minimum standards for all phases of the laboratory certification quality assurance program. The quality assurance program shall include, but not be limited to, aspects of sample history, recordkeeping, personnel professionalism and training, reference standards, calibration procedures, equipment status, test methods, environment, handling of proprietary information, proficiency testing, and audits. The regulations shall include any additional requirements consistent with the provisions of this division, the state board deems necessary to carry out this division.

(c) The state board shall establish, by regulation, a schedule of fees to be paid by any person requesting laboratory certification. The fee schedule shall be set to cover the estimated reasonable costs of conducting the certification program. The fee shall be deposited in the General Fund. The Legislature shall, commencing with the 1986–87 fiscal year, appropriate the funds necessary for the operation of this program in the Budget Act.

The authority to levy fees pursuant to this subdivision shall expire on January 1, 1989. The state board shall report to the Legislature by April 1, 1988, on the fee schedule adopted pursuant to this subdivision, including the amount of revenue raised by the fees and the cost of the program.

(d) The issuance of a certification shall confirm the types of tests which the laboratory receiving certification is competent and equipped to conduct. Certificates shall expire three years after the date of issuance and shall be subject to renewal, except as specified in this section. The state board may revoke any certificate issued pursuant to this section upon its determination that the laboratory is no longer competent or equipped to conduct the tests. The state board shall maintain an up-to-date information file on all laboratories certified pursuant to this section, and that list shall be made available to individuals required to test water, sediment, or aquatic species pursuant to this division.

(e) At the time of application for certification, a laboratory shall specify, by name and professional qualifications, the personnel directly supervising the analysis. Laboratories shall notify the state board of any change in that personnel. A change considered significant by the state board shall be cause for reevaluation of the certification and payment of an appropriate fee.

(f) The state board may have all or any part of the certification program administered under contract with other governmental agencies or, subject to Article VII of the California Constitution, with private entities.

SEC. 2. The sum of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Water Resources Control Board for the program established in Section 13176 of the Water Code for the 1985–86 fiscal year.

The State Water Resources Contol Board shall, not later than January 1, 1988, reimburse the General Fund for the amount appropriated by this section from fees established by the board and deposited in the General Fund pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 13176 of the Water Code.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 16000) is added to Division 12.5 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 2. ESSENTIAL SERVICES BUILDINGS

Article 1. General Provisions

16000. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Essential Services Buildings Seismic Safety Act of 1986.

16001. It is the intent of the Legislature that essential services buildings, which shall be capable of providing essential services to the public after a disaster, shall be designed and constructed to minimize fire hazards and to resist, insofar as practical, the forces generated by earthquakes, gravity, and winds. It is also the intent of the Legislature that the structural systems and details set forth in working drawings and specifications be carefully reviewed by the responsible enforcement agencies using qualified personnel, and that the construction process be carefully and completely inspected. In order to accomplish these purposes, the Legislature intends to provide for the establishment of building standards for earthquake, gravity, fire, and wind resistance based upon current knowledge, and intends that procedures for the design and construction of essential services buildings be subjected to qualified design review and construction inspection.

It is further the intent of the Legislature that the nonstructural components vital to the operation of essential services buildings shall also be able to resist, insofar as practical, the forces generated by earthquakes, gravity, fire, and winds. The Legislature recognizes that certain nonstructural components housed in essential services buildings, including, but not limited to, communications systems, main transformers and switching equipment, and emergency backup systems, are essential to facility operations and that these nonstructural components should be given adequate consideration during the design and construction process to assure, insofar as practical, continued operation of the building after a disaster.

Article 2. Definitions

16002. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions in this article govern the construction of this chapter.

16003. "Architect" means a person who is certified under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 5500) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code.

16004. "Civil engineer" means a person who is registered as a civil engineer under Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 6700) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code.

16005. "Construction or alteration" includes any construction of, addition to, reconstruction of, or alteration to any essential services building.

16006. "Enforcement agency" means the agency of a city, city and county, or county responsible for building safety within its jurisdiction. The office of the State Architect is the enforcement agency for state-owned facilities or facilities leased by the state.

16008. "Structural engineer" means a person who is authorized to use the title structural engineer under Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 6700) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code.

Article 3. General Requirements and Administration

16009. The appropriate enforcement agency which meets the requirements of Sections 16017 and 16018 shall review the design and inspect the construction of essential services buildings or the reconstruction, alteration, or addition to any essential services building to the extent it deems necessary to ensure that drawings and specifications comply with the applicable sections of the Model Code, as defined in Section 18916 and specified in Title 24 of the California Administrative Code, and to ensure for the protection of life and property that the work of construction has been performed in accordance with the approved drawings and specifications and this chapter.

16010. Essential services buildings of one-story Type V and Type II N construction that are 2,000 square feet or less in floor area are exempt from the provisions of this chapter.

16012. In each case, the application for approval of the drawings and specifications for essential services buildings shall be accompanied by comprehensive and complete drawings, design calculations, and specifications, and required fees, all of which shall comply with the requirements prescribed by the enforcement agency. This review shall not preclude incremental submission and approval of drawings and specifications.

16013. The enforcement agency shall approve or reject all drawings and specifications for the construction or the alteration of all essential services buildings, and in doing so, shall review the design calculations, drawings, and specifications to ensure compliance with the requirements of this chapter. A record shall be kept by the enforcement agency indicating that design calculations, drawings, and specifications have been reviewed and conform with the applicable sections of the Model Code, as defined in Section 18916 and specified in Title 24 of the California Administrative Code.

16014. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b), drawings and specifications submitted pursuant to this chapter for construction, reconstruction, remodeling, additions, or alterations which affect structural elements of structures in existence on January 1, 1986, shall be based upon an assessment of the geological conditions of the site and the potential for earthquake damage, relying upon geologic and engineering investigations and studies by personnel who are competent to report on geologic conditions and their potential for causing earthquake damage. One-story Type V and Type II N construction of 4,000 square feet or less shall be exempt from this section, unless the project is within a special studies zone established pursuant to Section 2622 of the Public Resources Code.

(b) The requirements of subdivision (a) may be waived by the enforcement agency if it determines that these requirements for the proposed essential services building project are unnecessary and would not be beneficial to the safety of the public.

16015. All drawings and specifications shall be prepared under the responsible charge of an architect, civil engineer, or structural engineer, who shall sign all drawings and specifications for approval of the enforcement agency. Observation of the work of construction shall be under the general responsible charge of the same architect, civil engineer, or structural engineer when feasible, as determined by the enforcement agency, except that if drawings and specifications do not involve architectural or structural conditions, the drawings and specifications may be prepared and the work of construction may be administered by a registered professional engineer qualified in the branch of engineering that is appropriate to the drawings, specifications, estimates, and work of construction.

16016. Except as provided in Section 16011, on and after July 1, 1986, construction of an essential services building shall not begin unless the drawings and specifications comply with this chapter and the requirements prescribed by the enforcement agency and approval of those drawings and specifications has been obtained from the enforcement agency.

Article 4. Qualifications and Reporting

16017. During construction or alteration of an essential services building, the building owner shall provide for, and the local enforcement agency shall require, competent, adequate, and detailed inspection by a qualified inspector. To be qualified, inspectors shall have an adequate level of expertise and experience in the subject matter for which they have responsibilities for inspection as prescribed by this section. Qualification shall include current certification by the International Conference of Building Officials; or qualifications as an inspector meeting the requirements of subdivision (a) of Section 305 and subdivision (b) of Section 306 of, the 1982 Edition of the Uniform Building Code. Additionally, the architect, civil engineer, or structural engineer responsible for designing the essential services facility is qualified to inspect construction of the facility.

16018. An enforcement agency is qualified to undertake the review of plans, drawings, and specifications for essential services buildings if the enforcement agency has an architect, civil engineer, or structural engineer on its staff or under contract who is responsible for all design review conducted by the enforcement agency and the record prepared under Section 16013.

16019. A jurisdiction whose enforcement agency does not meet the qualifications specified in Sections 16017 and 16018 shall obtain necessary qualified personnel to meet the requirements of this chapter by contracting with other public agencies, private sector firms, or individuals qualified to perform the necessary services.

Periodically, as the work of construction or alteration progresses and whenever the enforcement agency requires, except as exempt under Section 16010, the architect, civil engineer, or structural engineer in general responsible charge of the work of construction, and the registered engineer shall make a report, duly verified by him or her through periodic review of construction, showing that the work during the period covered by the report has been performed and that the materials used and installed are in accordance with the approved drawings and specifications, setting forth any detailed statements of fact required by the enforcement agency.

"Periodic review of construction," as used in this section and as applied to the architect, civil engineer, or structural engineer and the registered engineer, means the knowledge which is obtained from periodic visits to the project site of reasonable frequency for the purpose of general observation of the work, and also which is obtained from the reporting of others as to the progress of the work, testing of materials, inspection and superintendence of the work that is performed between those periodic visits of the architect, civil engineer, or structural engineer, or the registered engineer. The exercise of reasonable diligence to obtain the facts is required. The term "periodic review of construction" does not include responsibility for superintendence of construction processes, site conditions, operations, equipment, personnel, or the maintenance of a safe place to work or any safety in, on, or about the site of work.

16021. Periodically, as the work of construction or alteration progresses and whenever the enforcement agency requires, except as exempt under Section 16010, the inspector on the work and the contractor shall each make a report, duly verified by him or her, showing in his or her own personal knowledge, that the work during the period covered by the report has been performed and that the materials used and installed are in accordance with the approved drawings and specifications, setting forth any detailed statements of fact required by the enforcement agency.

"Personal knowledge" as applied to the inspector, means the actual personal knowledge which is obtained from his or her personal continuous inspection of the work of construction in all stages of its progress at the site where he or she is responsible for inspection and when work is carried out away from the site, that personal knowledge which is obtained from the reporting of others of the testing or inspection of materials and workmanship for compliance with plans, specifications, or applicable standards. The exercise of reasonable diligence to obtain the facts is required.

"Personal knowledge," as applied to the contractor, means the personal knowledge which is obtained from the construction of the building. The exercise of reasonable diligence to obtain the facts is required.

Article 5. Offenses

16023. Any person who willfully violates this chapter is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 2. The sum of ninety-five thousand dollars ($95,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the office of the State Architect to carry out the activities required by Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 16000) of Division 12.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1523

An act to add and repeal Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 66150) to Part 40 of, and to repeal Section 66022 of, the Education Code, relating to postsecondary education, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 66022 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 66150) is added to Part 40 of the Education Code, to read:

CHAPTER 3.5. STUDENT FEES

66150. The following state policies regarding student fees are hereby established:

(a) To keep fees as low as possible, the state shall bear primary responsibility for the cost of providing postsecondary education.

(b) Students shall be responsible for a portion of the total cost of their education.

(c) Any necessary increases in mandatory systemwide student fees at the California State University, the University of California, or the Hastings College of the Law shall be gradual, moderate, predictable, and equitably borne by all students in each segment

66152. The Trustees of the California State University, the Regents of the University of California, and the Board of Directors of the Hastings College of the Law, after consultation with appropriate student representatives, shall establish long-term policies regarding student fees which meet all of the following requirements:

(a) Are consistent with the state policies established in Section 66150.

(b) Require student fees to be equitable.

(c) Ensure that any necessary fee increases are gradual and moderate.

66154. The Trustees of the California State University, the Regents of the University of California, and the Board of Directors of the Hastings College of the Law shall do all of the following:

(a) Establish policies for the expenditure of student fee revenues which are consistent with the long-term student fees policies established pursuant to Section 66152. The policies shall include, but not be limited to, a prohibition against the imposition of mandatory systemwide student fees upon resident students for purposes of producing revenues to offset the costs related to instruction, as determined pursuant to segmental policies.

(b) Establish formal consultative processes for the solicitation and consideration of recommendations developed in consultation with appropriate student representatives and submitted by the institution's administration. These consultative processes shall be utilized in the establishment of policies pursuant to subdivision (a) and in any subsequent modification of those policies.

66156. In order to avoid disrupting family and student expectations and ongoing institutional programs, all mandatory systemwide student fees at the California State University, the University of California, and the Hastings College of the Law shall be fixed at least 10 months prior to the fall term in which they become effective.

66158. In determining state appropriations for the California State University, the University of California, or the Hastings College of the Law, the Governor and the Legislature shall consider the level of mandatory systemwide student fees fixed by the governing board of the institution, if all of the following conditions are met:

(a) The governing board of the institution has adopted and applied, or plans to apply, long-term student fee policies which prescribe a specific methodology for determination of mandatory systemwide fees.

(b) The methodology for the determination of mandatory systemwide fees includes all of the following:

(1) The requirement that annual changes in student fees be indexed to a three-year moving average of changes in the amount of state support provided per unit of statewide equivalent full-time enrollment.

(2) The base is either of the following:

(A) All state support budget appropriations, excluding lottery revenues, for the support of the institution, except those for capital outlay, student financial aid, instruction, organized activities, research, public services, or teaching hospitals.

(B) All state support budget appropriations, excluding lottery revenues, for the support of the institution, except those for capital outlay or student financial aid.

(3) Any annual increases or decreases in a fee are limited to 10 percent of the amount of the fee fixed for the prior year, and any excess increase or decrease is carried forward and applied in subsequent years to adjust increases or decreases in the fee to the 10 percent limit.

(c) Funds provided by the Budget Act will be adjusted to reflect the difference between budgeted cost increases for salary and nonsalary expenditures and the revenues resulting from mandatory systemwide student fees determined according to the methodology described by subdivision (b).

66160. In the event that state revenues and expenditures are substantially imbalanced due to factors unforeseen by the Governor and the Legislature, including, but not limited to, initiative measures, natural disasters, or sudden deviations from expected economic trends, mandatory systemwide student fees may be increased or decreased by an amount not to exceed 10 percent of the amount of the fee fixed for the prior year.

66162. Whenever mandatory systemwide student fees are raised in accordance with the state policies established in Section 66150 at the California State University, the University of California, or the Hastings College of the Law, the state shall provide sufficient student financial aid to offset the additional fees charged students determined to have demonstrated financial need pursuant to Section 66021.

66163. The Trustees of the California State University, the Regents of the University of California, and the Board of Directors of the Hastings College of the Law shall not impose mandatory systemwide student fees upon postgraduate students which differ from those charged undergraduate students. This section shall not be construed to obligate the state for any costs associated with the elimination of any differential fees existing in the 1984–85 academic year.

66164. No provision of this chapter shall be applicable to the Regents of the University of California or to the Board of Directors of the Hastings College of the Law unless the regents or the board of directors, as appropriate, adopt a resolution to make those provisions applicable. No provision of this chapter shall be applicable to the California community colleges.

66165. This chapter shall remain in effect for the 1986–87, 1987–88, 1988–89, and 1989–90 school years, and as of August 31, 1990, is repealed.

SEC. 3. As a part of the annual state and segmental budgetary processes, and at any other times requested by the Governor or the Legislature, the Trustees of the California State University, and, if they so elect, the Board of Directors of the Hastings College of the Law, and the Regents of the University of California, and appropriate state executive and legislative fiscal agencies shall report on the state long-term student fee policy and the procedures and methodologies implementing that policy.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to implement the state requirement regarding student fees established by Section 66156 of the Education Code, as added by Section 2 of this act, prior to the commencement of the 1986–87 academic year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1524

For this purpose, the number of qualified registered voters in the district shall be determined pursuant to the most recent report submitted by the county clerk to the Secretary of State under Section 610 or 6460 of the Elections Code.

When any such proposal is made, the county committee shall call and conduct at least one hearing in the district on the matter. At the conclusion of the hearing, the county committee shall approve or disapprove the proposal.

If the county committee approves the rearrangement of the boundaries of trustee areas for a particular district, the rearrangement of the trustee areas shall be effectuated for the next district election occurring at least 120 days after its approval, unless at least 5 percent of the registered voters of the district sign a petition requesting an election on the proposed rearrangement of trustee area boundaries. Such a petition for an election shall be submitted to the elections official within 60 days of the proposal's adoption by the county committee.

CHAPTER 1525

An act to amend Section 17538.5 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to consumer goods and services.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1526

An act to amend Sections 53601, 53635, and 53646 of the Government Code, relating to funds of local agencies.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985. Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985.]

(b) United States Treasury notes, bonds, bills, or certificates of indebtedness, or those for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(c) Registered state warrants or treasury notes or bonds of this state, including bonds payable solely out of the revenues from a revenue-producing property owned, controlled, or operated by the state or by a department, board, agency, or authority thereof.

(d) Bonds, notes, warrants, or other evidences of indebtedness of any local agency within this state, including bonds payable solely out of the revenues from a revenue-producing property owned, controlled, or operated by the local agency, or by a department, board, agency, or authority thereof.

(f) Bills of exchange or time drafts drawn on and accepted by a commercial bank, otherwise known as bankers acceptances, which are eligible for purchase by the Federal Reserve System. Purchases of bankers acceptances may not exceed 270 days maturity or 40 percent of the agency's surplus money which may be invested pursuant to this section. However, no more than 30 percent of the agency's surplus funds may be invested in the bankers acceptances of any one commercial bank pursuant to this section.

The provisions of this subdivision shall not preclude a municipal utility district from investing any surplus money in its treasury in any manner authorized by the Municipal Utility District Act.

If that date is not deleted or extended, then, on and after January 1, 1988, pursuant to Section 9611 of the Government Code, Section 53601 of the Government Code, as amended by Section 1.5 of Chapter 567 of the Statutes of 1983, shall have the same force and effect as if this temporary provision had not been enacted.

percent of the agency's surplus money which may be invested pursuant to this section. However, no more than 30 percent of the agency's surplus funds may be invested in the bankers acceptances of any one commercial bank pursuant to this section.

The provisions of this subdivision shall not preclude a municipal utility district from investing any surplus money in its treasury in any manner authorized by the Municipal Utility District Act.

54685.7. The criteria to be used in selecting school sites as participants shall be based on the extent to which the school demonstrates all of the following:

(c) The particular period or periods of time for which each value of the variable interest rate shall remain in effect, or the times upon which any change in the variable interest rate will become effective.

Sec. 299. The board may also provide, in its discretion, for any of the following:

(a) The sale and issuance of the certificates, at the times, in the manner (either through public or private sale), in the amounts, with the maturities not exceeding the maximum maturities specified in the resolution or indenture pursuant to Section 298, at the rate of interest, the rate of discount from par, and with any other terms and conditions deemed appropriate by the general manager of the district or any other officer or employee designated by the board.

(b) The appointment of one or more banks or trust companies, either inside or outside the state, as depository for safekeeping and as agent for the authentication, registration, transfer, delivery, and payment of the certificates.

(c) The appointment of one or more persons or firms to assist the district in the sale of the certificates, whether as sales agents, dealer managers, or in some other comparable capacity.

(d) The refunding of the certificates from time to time without further action by the board, unless and until the board specifically revokes that authority to refund.

(e) Other terms and conditions the board may deem appropriate.

SEC. 6. Section 299.1 of the Metropolitan Water District Act (Chapter 209 of the Statutes of 1969) is amended to read:

Sec. 299.1. In order to enhance the marketability of the certificates, the board may arrange with one or more banks or other financial institutions to provide credit facilities, including, but not limited to, letters of credit, lines of credit, standby purchase agreements, and insurance policies, as an additional source of payment of the certificates. Any obligation of a district to repay amounts advanced pursuant to any credit facility established pursuant to this section may be evidenced by negotiable or nonnegotiable promissory notes or other evidences of indebtedness payable from revenues, in the form and with terms as the board may prescribe.

SEC. 7. Section 299.2 is added to the Metropolitan Water District Act (Chapter 209 of the Statutes of 1969), to read:

Sec. 299.2. This chapter is complete authority for the issuance of certificates and the obtaining of credit facilities under this chapter, and no action or proceeding not required by this chapter shall be necessary for the valid authorization of indebtedness under this chapter. The powers conferred by this chapter are in addition and supplemental to, and are not in substitution for, and the limitations imposed by this chapter shall not affect, the powers conferred by any other chapter of this act or by any other law.

SEC. 8. Section 299.5 is added to the Metropolitan Water District Act (Chapter 209 of the Statutes of 1969), to read:

299.5. Except as provided in Section 295.1, the maximum interest payable on bonds or other evidences of indebtedness issued pursuant to this part shall be that which is permitted under Section 53541 of the Government Code.

SEC. 9. Sections 3, 5, and 7 of this act are intended to clarify and do not constitute a change in existing law.

CHAPTER 1532

An act to amend Section 22229.2 of, and to add Sections 23000.1 and 23923 to, the Education Code, and to add Section 17091.5 to the Government Code, relating to state retirement systems, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22229.2 of the Education Code is amended to read:

22229.2. (a) The compensation of the members of the system who are appointed to the board, or by the board to a committee or subcommittee, or to a panel of the system, shall not be reduced by the employing agency or school district by which the members are regularly employed for any absence from service occasioned by attendance upon the business of the board, pursuant to Section 22229.1.

(b) Each school district which employs a member appointed pursuant to Section 22229.1 and which employs a person to replace such member during attendance at meetings of the board, or meetings of committees or subcommittees of the board, or when serving as a panel member of the system, thereof, or when carrying out other duties as may be approved by the board, shall be reimbursed from the Teachers' Retirement Fund for the cost incurred by employing a replacement.

SEC. 2. Section 23000.1 is added to the Education Code, to read:

23000.1. Notwithstanding Sections 22804, 23000, and 23404, each school district, community college district, county board of education, and county superintendent of schools, may pick up, for the sole purpose of deferring taxes, as authorized by Section

414(h)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code (26 U.S.C.A. Sec. 414(h)(2)) and Section 17501 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, all of the employee's contributions towards retirement made by members of the State Teachers' Retirement System.

SEC. 3. Section 23923 is added to the Education Code, to read:

23923. Any warrant in an amount less than two thousand dollars ($2,000) paid by the system, for the month in which a retirant or a disabilitant dies, shall not be invalidated by the system, except upon the request of the beneficiary of the retirant or disabilitant.

SEC. 4. Section 17091.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

17091.5. In the case of a lost or destroyed warrant issued by the Controller payable to a retirant, beneficiary, or disabilitant of a state retirement system, for a monthly allowance, the Controller may accept an application and affidavit filed by the state retirement system on behalf of the payee. No indemnity or hold harmless agreement shall be required with such an application.

SEC. 5. The amendments made by this act to Section 22229.2 of the Education Code shall be applicable to all pending related claims or requests based on services performed on or after July 1, 1984.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) and any other provisions of law.

SEC. 7. The sum of not to exceed four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000) is hereby appropriated from the State Teachers' Retirement Fund to the State Teachers' Retirement System, for expenditure as follows:

(a) Not to exceed two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), with the approval of the Department of Finance, to reimburse the State Teachers' Retirement System for any costs resulting from implementation of Section 2 of this act by school employers.

(b) Not to exceed one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) to finance a study of the system. The study shall focus exclusively upon a review of the adequacy of service provided the membership of the system, including an assessment of the interaction among the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the county superintendents of schools, the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, the individual school employers, and the system, in meeting the public service objectives of the system; the ease of identification and access of the present headquarters facility; and the need, if any, for additional offices. The selection of the consultant shall be made by the Legislative Analyst in consultation with the Teachers' Retirement Board and the Department of Finance. The study shall be based upon criteria developed by the Legislative Analyst, the Department of Finance, the Teachers' Retirement Board, and the staff of the Legislature. The consultant shall report the findings and recommendations to the Legislative Budget Committee by December 1, 1986. In addition to the study, the Office of Information Technology or the Stephen P. Teale Data Center or both shall examine the system's use of data processing and other technology for providing services to, and communication with, the system's clientele and shall report the resulting findings and recommendations to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee by December 1, 1986.

CHAPTER 1533

An act to amend Section 11366.5 of, and to add Section 11366.6 to, the Health and Safety Code, and to add Section 1203.074 to the Penal Code, relating to controlled substances.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985. Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11366.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11366.5. (a) Any person who has under his or her management or control any building, room, space, or enclosure, either as an owner, lessee, agent, employee, or mortgagee, who knowingly rents, leases, or makes available for use, with or without compensation, the building, room, space, or enclosure for the purpose of unlawfully manufacturing, storing, or distributing any controlled substance for sale or distribution shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or in the state prison.

(b) Any person who has under his or her management or control any building, room, space, or enclosure, either as an owner, lessee, agent, employee, or mortgagee, who knowingly allows the building, room, space, or enclosure to be fortified to suppress law enforcement entry in order to further the sale of any amount of cocaine, heroin, or phencyclidine and who obtains excessive profits from the use of the building, room, space, or enclosure shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or four years.

(c) Any person who violates this section after previously being convicted of a violation of this section shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or four years.

(d) For the purposes of this section, "excessive profits" means the receipt of consideration of a value substantially higher than fair market value.

SEC. 2. Section 11366.6 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

11366.6. Any person who utilizes a building, room, space, or enclosure specifically designed to suppress law enforcement entry in order to sell or possess for sale any amount of cocaine, heroin, or phencyclidine, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for three, four, or five years.

SEC. 3. Section 1203.074 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

1203.074. (a) A person convicted of a felony specified in subdivision (b) may be granted probation only in an unusual case where the interests of justice would best be served; when probation is granted in such a case, the court shall specify on the record and shall enter in the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by such a disposition.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (a), probation shall not be granted to, nor shall the execution or imposition of sentence be suspended for, any person who is convicted of violating Section 11366.6 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1534

An act to amend Section 17630 of, to add Sections 17522, 17523, and 17524 to, and to add Article 5 (commencing with Section 17615) to Chapter 4 of Part 7 of Division 4 of Title 2 of, the Government Code, and to amend Section 2239 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to costs mandated by the state, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985. Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17522 is added to the Government Code, to read:

17522. (a) "Reimbursement claim" means any claim for costs incurred by a local agency or school district filed with the Controller against an appropriation made for the purpose of paying these claims.

(b) "Approved reimbursement claim" means that amount of a claim filed pursuant to subdivision (a) which is determined by the Controller to be the actual cost of the claim.

(c) "Entitlement claim" means any claim filed by a local agency or school district with the Controller for the sole purpose of establishing or adjusting a base year entitlement. All entitlement claims shall be subject to the provisions of Section 17616.

SEC. 2. Section 17523 is added to the Government Code, to read:

17523. "Deflator" means the Implicit Price Deflator for the Costs of Goods and Services to Governmental Agencies, as determined by the Department of Finance.

SEC. 3. Section 17524 is added to the Government Code, to read:

17524. "Base year entitlement" means that amount determined to be the average for the approved reimbursement claims of each local agency or school district for the three preceding fiscal years adjusted by the change in the deflator. A base year entitlement shall not include any nonrecurring or initial startup costs incurred by a local agency or school district in any of those three fiscal years. For those mandates which become operative on January 1 of any year, the amount of the "approved reimbursement claim" for the first of the three years may be computed by annualizing the amount claimed for the six-month period of January through June in that first year, excluding nonrecurring or startup costs.

SEC. 4. Article 5 (commencing with Section 17615) is added to Chapter 4 of Part 7 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, to read:

Article 5. State Mandate Apportionments System

17615. The Legislature finds and declares that the existing system for reimbursing local agencies and school districts for actual costs mandated by the state on an annual claim basis is time consuming, cumbersome, and expensive at both the local and state levels. The Controller must process voluminous claims with all claims subject to a desk audit and selected claims also subject to a field audit. Local agencies are required to maintain extensive documentation of all claims in anticipation of such an audit. The volume of these records is substantial and will continue to grow with no relief in sight as new programs are mandated. The cost to local agencies and school districts for filing claims, and for maintaining documentation and responding to the Controller's audits is substantial. The current administrative cost to both state and local governments represents a significant expenditure of public funds with no apparent benefit to the taxpayers.

It is the intent of the Legislature to streamline the reimbursement process for costs mandated by the state by creating a system of state mandate apportionments to fund the costs of certain programs mandated by the state.

17615.1. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, the commission shall establish a procedure for reviewing, upon request, mandated cost programs for which appropriations have been made by the Legislature for the 1982–83, 1983–84, and 1984–85 fiscal years, or any three consecutive fiscal years thereafter. At the request of the Department of Finance, the Controller, or any local agency or school district receiving reimbursement for the mandated program, the commission shall review the mandated cost program to determine whether the program should be included in the State Mandates Apportionment System. If the commission determines that the State Mandates Apportionment System would accurately reflect the costs of the state mandated program, the commission shall direct the Controller to include the program in the State Mandates Apportionment System.

17615.2. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, after November 30, 1985, for those programs included in the State Mandates Apportionment System, after approval by the commission, there shall be disbursed by the Controller to each local agency and school district which has submitted a reimbursement claim for costs mandated by the state in the 1982–83, 1983–84, and the 1984–85 fiscal years, or any three consecutive fiscal years thereafter, an amount computed by averaging the approved reimbursement claims for this three-year period. The amount shall first be adjusted according to any changes in the deflator. Funds for these purposes shall be available to the extent they are provided for in the Budget Act of 1985 and the Budget Act for any subsequent fiscal year thereafter.

(b) When the Controller has made payment on claims prior to commission approval of the program for inclusion in the State Mandates Apportionment System, the payment shall be adjusted in the next apportionment to the amount which would have been subvened to the local agency or school district for that fiscal year had the State Mandates Apportionment System been in effect at the time of the initial payment.

17615.3. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, by November 30, 1986, and by November 30 of each year thereafter, for those programs included in the State Mandates Apportionment System, the Controller shall recalculate each allocation for each local agency and school district for the 1985–86 fiscal year, by using the actual change in the deflator for that year. That recalculated allocation shall then be adjusted by the estimated change in the deflator for the 1986–87 fiscal year, and each fiscal year thereafter, to establish the allocation amount for the 1986–87 fiscal year, and each fiscal year thereafter. The Controller shall then subvene that amount after adjusting it by any amount of overpayment or underpayment in the 1985–86 fiscal year, and each fiscal year thereafter, due to a discrepancy between the actual change and the estimated change in the deflator. Funds for these purposes shall be available to the extent they are provided for in the Budget Act of 1986 and the Budget Act for any subsequent fiscal year thereafter.

17615.4. (a) When a new mandate imposes costs which are funded either by legislation, in local government claims bills, or from the State Mandates Claim Fund, local agencies and school districts may file reimbursement claims as required by Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, for a minimum of three years after the initial funding of the new mandate.

(b) After actual cost claims are submitted for three fiscal years against such a new mandate, the commission shall determine, upon request of the Controller or a local entity or school district receiving reimbursement for the program, whether the amount of the base year entitlement adjusted by changes in the deflator accurately reflects the costs incurred by the local agency or school district. If the commission determines that the base year entitlement, as adjusted, does accurately reflect the costs of the program, the commission shall direct the Controller to include the program in the State Mandates Apportionment System.

(c) The Controller shall make recommendations to the commission and the commission shall consider the Controller's recommendations for each new mandate submitted for inclusion in the State Mandates Apportionment System. All claims included in the State Mandates Apportionment System pursuant to this section are also subject to the audit provisions of Section 17616.

17615.5. (a) If any local agency or school district has an established base year entitlement which does not include costs for a particular mandate, that local agency or school district may submit reimbursement claims for a minimum of three consecutive years, or entitlement claims covering a minimum of three consecutive years, after which time its base year entitlement may be adjusted by an amount necessary to fund the costs of that mandate.

(b) If any local agency or school district has no base year entitlement, but wishes to begin claiming costs of one or more of the mandates included in the State Mandates Apportionment System, that local agency or school district may submit reimbursement claims for a minimum of three consecutive years, or entitlement claims covering the preceding three consecutive years, after which time a base year entitlement may be established in an amount necessary to fund the costs of the mandate or mandates.

17615.6. If a local agency or school district realizes a decrease in the amount of costs incurred because a mandate is discontinued, or made permissive, the Controller shall determine the amount of the entitlement attributable to that mandate by determining the base year amount for that mandate for the local agency or school district plus the annual adjustments. This amount shall be subtracted from the annual subvention which would otherwise have been allocated to the local agency or school district.

17615.7. If a mandated program included in the State Mandates Apportionment System is modified or amended by the Legislature or by executive order, and the modification or amendment significantly affects the costs of the program, as determined by the commission, the program shall be removed from the State Mandate Apportionment System, and the payments reduced accordingly. Local entities or school districts may submit actual costs claims for a period of three years, after which the program may be considered for inclusion in the State Mandates Apportionment System, pursuant to the provisions of Section 17615.4.

17615.8. (a) The commission shall establish a procedure for reviewing, upon request, any apportionment or base year entitlement of a local agency or school district.

(b) Local agencies and school districts which request such a review shall maintain and provide those records and documentation as the commission or its designee determines are necessary for the commission or its designee to make the required determinations. With the exception of records required to verify base year entitlements, the records may not be used to adjust current or prior apportionments, but may be used to adjust future apportionments.

(c) If the commission determines that an apportionment or base year entitlement for funding costs mandated by the state does not accurately reflect the costs incurred by the local agency or school district for all mandates upon which that apportionment is based, the commission shall direct the Controller to adjust the apportionment accordingly. For the purposes of this section, an apportionment or a base year entitlement does not accurately reflect the costs incurred by a local agency or school district if it falls short of reimbursing, or overreimburses, that local agency's or school district's actual costs by 20 percent or by one thousand dollars ($1,000), whichever is less.

(d) If the commission determines that an apportionment or base year entitlement for funding costs mandated by the state accurately reflects the costs incurred by the local agency or school district for all mandates upon which that apportionment is based, the commission may, in its discretion, direct the Controller to withhold, and, if so directed, the Controller shall withhold the costs of the commission's review from the next apportionment to the local agency or school district, if the commission review was requested by the local agency or school district.

17615.9. The commission shall periodically review programs funded under the State Mandate Apportionments System to evaluate the effectiveness or continued statewide need for each such mandate.

17616. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, the Controller shall have the authority to do either or both of the following:

(a) Audit the fiscal years comprising the base year entitlement no later than three years after the year in which the base year entitlement is established. The results of such audits shall be used to adjust the base year entitlements and any subsequent apportionments based on that entitlement, in addition to adjusting actual cost payments made for the base years audited.

(b) Verify that any local agency or school district receiving funds pursuant to this article is providing the reimbursed activities.

SEC. 5. Section 17630 of the Government Code is amended to read:

17630. Except for Article 5, the provisions of this part shall be applicable to claims for state reimbursement of costs mandated by the state on and after January 1, 1985. All claims for state reimbursement filed under Article 1 (commencing with Section 2201), Article 2 (commencing with Section 2225), Article 3 (commencing with Section 2240), Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 2250), and Article 3.6 (commencing with Section 2256) of Chapter 3 of Part 4 of Division 1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code which have not been included in a local government claims bill pursuant to Section 2255 of the Revenue and Taxation Code enacted before January 1, 1985, shall be transferred to and considered by the commission pursuant to the provisions of this part.

SEC. 6. Section 2239 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2239. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b) and Article 5 (commencing with Section 17615) of Chapter 4 of Part 7 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, the provisions of Article 1 (commencing with Section 2201), Article 2 (commencing with Section 2225), Article 3 (commencing with Section 2240), Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 2250), and Article 3.6 (commencing with Section 2256) of this chapter relating to state reimbursement to local agencies and school districts shall be applicable to costs mandated by the state before July 1, 1980.

(b) All claims for state reimbursement which have not been included in a local government claims bill pursuant to Section 2255 enacted before January 1, 1985, shall be transferred to and considered by the Commission on State Mandates as claims filed pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 17551 of the Government Code.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

This act would provide significant cost savings to state and local agencies and in order for these savings to be realized as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1535

An act to amend Section 25291 of, and to add Section 25284.7 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous substances, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25284.7 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25284.7. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 25292 or the regulations adopted by the board pursuant to Section 25299.3, owners or operators, who have been issued interim permits in accordance with Section 25284.5, as amended by Assembly Bill 2239 of the 1985–86 Regular Session of the Legislature, and who select a monitoring alternative which has been adopted by the board and which requires annual testing, may conduct the first of the annual tests prior to March 1, 1986. If the monitoring alternative selected by the owner or operator is approved by the local agency, the second of the annual tests need not be conducted until 30 months after the first test. Thereafter, the test shall be repeated annually.

The provisions of this section shall be optional, at the discretion of a local agency as defined in Section 25281.

SEC. 2. Section 25291 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25291. Every underground storage tank installed after January 1, 1984, shall meet all of the following requirements:

(a) Be designed and constructed to provide primary and secondary levels of containment of the hazardous substances stored in it in accordance with the following performance standards:

(1) Primary containment shall be product-tight.

(2) Secondary containment shall be constructed to prevent structural weakening as a result of contact with any released hazardous substances, and also shall be capable of storing the hazardous substances for the maximum anticipated period of time necessary for the recovery of any released hazardous substance.

(3) In the case of an installation with one primary container, the secondary containment shall be large enough to contain at least 100 percent of the volume of the primary tank.

(4) In the case of multiple primary tanks, the secondary container shall be large enough to contain 150 percent of the volume of the largest primary tank placed in it, or 10 percent of the aggregate internal volume of all primary tanks, whichever is greater.

(5) If the facility is open to rainfall, then the secondary containment shall be able to additionally accommodate the maximum volume of a 24-hour rainfall as determined by a 25-year storm history.

(6) Single-walled containers do not fulfill the requirement of an underground storage tank providing both a primary and a secondary containment. However, an underground storage tank with a primary container constructed with a double complete shell shall be deemed to have met the requirements for primary and secondary containment set forth in this section if the outer shell is constructed primarily of nonearthen materials, including, but not limited to, concrete, steel, and plastic, which provide structural support and a continuous leak detection system with alarm is located in the space between the shells; the system is capable of detecting the entry of hazardous substances from the inner container into the space; and the system is capable of detecting water intrusion into the space from the outer shell.

(7) The design and construction of underground storage tanks for motor vehicle fuels storage need not meet the requirements of paragraphs (1) to (6), inclusive, if all of the following conditions exist:

(A) The primary containment construction is of glass fiber reinforced plastic, cathodically protected steel, or steel clad with glass fiber reinforced plastic.

(B) Any alternative primary containment is installed in conjunction with a system that will intercept and direct a leak from any part of the tank to a monitoring well to detect any release of motor vehicle fuels stored in the tank.

(C) The system designed to provide early leak detection and response, and to protect the groundwater from releases.

(D) The monitoring is in accordance with the alternative method identified in paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) of Section 25292.

(E) Pressurized piping systems connected to underground storage tanks used for the storage of motor vehicle fuels and monitored in accordance with paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) of Section 25292 also meet the requirements of this subdivision provided that the tank meets the conditions of subparagraphs (A) to (D), inclusive.

(b) Be designed and constructed with a monitoring system capable of detecting the entry of the hazardous substance stored in the primary containment into the secondary containment. If water could intrude into the secondary containment, a means of monitoring for water intrusion and for safely removing the water shall also be provided.

(c) When required by the local agency, a means of overfill protection for any primary tank, including an overfill prevention device or an attention-getting higher level alarm, or both. Primary tank filling operations of underground storage tanks containing motor vehicle fuels which are visually monitored and controlled by a facility operator satisfy the requirements of this subdivision.

(d) If different substances are stored in the same tank and in combination may cause a fire or explosion, or the production of flammable, toxic, or poisonous gas, or the deterioration of a primary or secondary container, then they shall be separated in both the primary and secondary containment so as to avoid potential intermixing.

(e) If water could enter into the secondary containment by precipitation or infiltration, the facility shall contain a means of removing the water by the owner or operator. This removal system shall also prevent uncontrolled removal of this water and provide for a means of analyzing the removed water for hazardous substance contamination and a means of disposing of the water, if so contaminated, at an authorized disposal facility.

(f) Before the underground storage tank is covered, enclosed, or placed in use, the standard installation testing for requirements for underground storage systems specified in Section 2-7 of the Flammable and Combustible Liquids Code, adopted by the National Fire Protection Association, (NFPA 30) as amended and published in the respective edition of the Uniform Fire Code, shall be followed.

(g) Before the underground storage tank is placed in service, the underground storage systems shall be tested in operating condition using a precision test as defined in National Fire Protection Association Pamphlet 329, "Recommended Practice for Handling Underground Leakage of Flammable and Combustible Liquids," as amended, for proving the integrity of an underground storage tank.

(h) If the underground storage tank is designed to maintain a water level in the secondary containment, the tank shall be equipped with a safe method of removing any excess water to a holding facility and the owner or operator shall inspect the holding facility monthly for the presence of excess water overflow. If excess water is present in the holding facility, the permitholder shall provide a means to analyze the water for hazardous substance contamination and a means to dispose of the water, if so contaminated, at an authorized disposal facility.

SEC. 3. Section 25291 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25291. Every underground storage tank installed after January 1, 1984, shall meet all of the following requirements:

(a) Be designed and constructed to provide primary and secondary levels of containment of the hazardous substances stored in it in accordance with the following performance standards:

(1) Primary containment shall be product-tight.

(2) Secondary containment shall be constructed to prevent structural weakening as a result of contact with any released hazardous substances, and also shall be capable of storing the hazardous substances for the maximum anticipated period of time necessary for the recovery of any released hazardous substance.

(3) In the case of an installation with one primary container, the secondary containment shall be large enough to contain at least 100 percent of the volume of the primary tank.

(4) In the case of multiple primary tanks, the secondary container shall be large enough to contain 150 percent of the volume of the largest primary tank placed in it, or 10 percent of the aggregate internal volume of all primary tanks, whichever is greater.

(5) If the facility is open to rainfall, then the secondary containment shall be able to additionally accommodate the maximum volume of a 24-hour rainfall as determined by a 25-year storm history.

(6) Single-walled containers do not fulfill the requirement of an underground storage tank providing both a primary and a secondary containment. However, an underground storage tank with a primary container constructed with a double complete shell shall be deemed to have met the requirements for primary and secondary containment set forth in this section if the outer shell is constructed primarily of nonearthen materials, including, but not limited to, concrete, steel, and plastic, which provide structural support and a continuous leak detection system with alarm is located in the space between the shells; the system is capable of detecting the entry of hazardous substances from the inner container into the space; and the system is capable of detecting water intrusion into the space from the outer shell.

(7) The design and construction of underground storage tanks for motor vehicle fuels storage need not meet the requirements of paragraphs (1) to (6), inclusive, if all of the following conditions exist:

(A) The primary containment construction is of glass fiber reinforced plastic, cathodically protected steel, or steel clad with glass fiber reinforced plastic.

(B) Any alternative primary containment is installed in conjunction with a system that will intercept and direct a leak from any part of the tank to a monitoring well to detect any release of motor vehicle fuels stored in the tank.

(C) The system designed to provide early leak detection and response, and to protect the groundwater from releases.

(D) The monitoring is in accordance with the alternative method identified in paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) of Section 25292.

(E) Pressurized piping systems connected to underground storage tanks used for the storage of motor vehicle fuels and monitored in accordance with paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) of Section 25292 also meet the requirements of this subdivision provided that the tank meets the conditions of subparagraphs (A) to (D), inclusive.

(b) Be designed and constructed with a monitoring system capable of detecting the entry of the hazardous substance stored in the primary containment into the secondary containment. If water could intrude into the secondary containment, a means of monitoring for water intrusion and for safely removing the water shall also be provided.

(c) When required by the local agency, a means of overfill protection for any primary tank, including an overfill prevention device or an attention-getting higher level alarm, or both. Primary tank filling operations of underground storage tanks containing motor vehicle fuels which are visually monitored and controlled by a facility operator satisfy the requirements of this subdivision.

(d) If different substances are stored in the same tank and in combination may cause a fire or explosion, or the production of flammable, toxic, or poisonous gas, or the deterioration of a primary or secondary container, then they shall be separated in both the primary and secondary containment so as to avoid potential intermixing.

(e) If water could enter into the secondary containment by precipitation or infiltration, the facility shall contain a means of removing the water by the owner or operator. This removal system shall also prevent uncontrolled removal of this water and provide for a means of analyzing the removed water for hazardous substance contamination and a means of disposing of the water, if so contaminated, at an authorized disposal facility.

(f) Before the underground storage tank is covered, enclosed, or placed in use, the standard installation testing for requirements for underground storage systems specified in Section 2-7 of the Flammable and Combustible Liquids Code, adopted by the National Fire Protection Association, (NFPA 30) as amended and published in the respective edition of the Uniform Fire Code, shall be followed.

(g) Before the underground storage tank is placed in service, the underground storage systems shall be tested in operating condition using a precision test as defined in National Fire Protection Association Pamphlet 329, "Recommended Practice for Handling Underground Leakage of Flammable and Combustible Liquids," as amended, for proving the integrity of an underground storage tank.

(h) If the underground storage tank is designed to maintain a water level in the secondary containment, the tank shall be equipped with a safe method of removing any excess water to a holding facility and the owner or operator shall inspect the holding facility monthly for the presence of excess water overflow. If excess water is present in the holding facility, the permitholder shall provide a means to analyze the water for hazardous substance contamination and a means to dispose of the water, if so contaminated, at an authorized disposal facility.

SEC. 4. Section 1 of this bill shall become operative only if this bill and Assembly Bill 2239 of the 1985–86 Regular Session of the Legislature, are both enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1986.

SEC. 5. Section 3 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 25291 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2239. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1986, (2) each bill amends Section 25291 of the Health and Safety Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2239, in which case Section 25291 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by AB 2239, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 3 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 2 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) and any other provisions of law.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Due to delays in the rulemaking process, and the need to commence testing of underground storage tanks as soon as possible in order to protect the state's groundwater, and in order to encourage voluntary early testing it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1537

An act to amend Section 27615 of, and to add and repeal Sections 26520.1, 26520.2, and 26520.3 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to food.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that products which contain the following sulfite compounds constitute a significant health threat to sulfite sensitive individuals:

(1) Sulphur dioxide.
(2) Sodium bisulfite.
(3) Sodium metabisulfite.
(4) Sodium sulfite.
(5) Potassium bisulfite.
(6) Potassium metabisulfite.

(b) The Legislature further finds and declares that use of the above-listed compounds to enhance the appearance of foods consumed in restaurants has resulted in deaths and permanent brain injuries. Due to the widespread use of sulfite compounds by wholesale food processing establishments, it is not feasible for restaurants and other retailers to adequately warn customers of the presence of sulfites in food. The Legislature also finds that substitutes for sulfite food fresheners which pose no threat to human health are readily available at comparable cost.

(c) Therefore, it is the purpose of this act to ban the use of sulfite compounds in certain foods for the protection of the public health.

SEC. 2. Section 26520.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

26520.1. (a) Sulfite compounds shall be deemed unsafe as food additives, as defined in Section 26013, for any of the following uses:

(1) Sulfite compounds added to any fruit or vegetable which is sold to be consumed in its raw or natural state.

(3) Sulfite compounds added to any fish or seafood at the wholesale or retail level.

(b) The prohibitions in this section shall not apply to each of the following:

(1) Fruits or vegetables to which sulfites are added prior to, or as part of, a cooking, fermenting, canning, freezing, drying, bottling, or dehydrating process.

(2) Use of sulfite compounds on shrimp or lobster at the production level which conforms with the United States Food and Drug Administration's Good Manufacturing Practices or sulfite compounds used on seafood or fish as a preservative in a manufacturing process provided that the application and labeling is in accordance with federal Food and Drug Administration regulations.

(c) For purposes of this section, "sulfite compounds" means:

(1) Sulphur dioxide.

(2) Sodium bisulfite.

(3) Sodium metabisulfite.

(4) Sodium sulfite.

(5) Potassium bisulfite.

(6) Potassium metabisulfite.

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1992, and as of that date is repealed unless a later statute which is enacted before January 1, 1992, extends or deletes that date.

SEC. 3. Section 26520.2 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

26520.2. (a) Anyone who, during the course of business, knowingly adds any of the sulfite compounds enumerated in Section 26520.1 as a food additive for purposes prohibited by that section shall be deemed to have sold adulterated food and is subject to this article.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1992, and as of that date is repealed unless a later statute which is enacted before January 1, 1992, extends or deletes that date.

SEC. 4. Section 26520.3 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

26520.3. (a) The State Department of Health Services shall notify all wholesale and retail food facilities as to which the department enforces the Sherman Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Law concerning the ban on products enumerated in Section 26520.1 containing sulfites. The counties shall notify all wholesale and retail food facilities as to which the counties enforce the Sherman Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Law concerning the ban on products enumerated in Section 26520.1 containing sulfites.

(b) The Legislature finds that the use of sulfites on potato products has been linked to severe reactions in sulfite sensitive individuals. The Legislature therefore requests the State Department of Health Services to investigate the use of sulfites on potato products used in any food facility, as defined in Section 27521, except a grocery store, as defined in Section 27523.5, to determine:

(1) What levels of sulfites are present in these potato products.

(2) Whether processing and handling procedures result in uniform levels of sulfites on these potato products.

(3) Whether the use of sulfites on these potato products presents a threat to the public health.

The Department of Health Services shall conclude its investigation and make findings as to any restrictions required on sulfited potato products by February 1, 1986, or within 60 days of that date if the state department determines that additional time is necessary, and shall make the findings available upon request.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1992, and as of that date is repealed unless a later statute which is enacted before January 1, 1992, extends or deletes that date.

SEC. 5. Section 27615 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

27615. Sulfites shall not be added to potentially hazardous foods.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) and any other provisions of law.

CHAPTER 1538

An act to add Section 52324.6 to the Education Code, relating to regional occupational centers and programs, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 52324.6 is added to the Education Code, to read:

52324.6. (a) Any regional occupational program shall be eligible to apply for apportionments as a necessary small regional occupational program under this section if it is a regional occupational program with an annual total average daily attendance of 350 or less in the prior fiscal year.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall annually certify the eligibility of regional occupational programs for funding under this section, based upon high school enrollments in the California Basic Educational Data System (CBEDS) reports.

(b) The superintendent shall annually allocate regional occupational program small school service funding, in accordance with the schedule prescribed in this subdivision, for each comprehensive high school with an enrollment of 350 or less which exists within an eligible regional occupational program. Regional occupational programs that do not certify the operation of the prescribed daily minutes of regional occupational program instruction at each school shall have the total small school regional occupational program service allocation reduced by a pro rata amount, based on the percentage of actual minutes operated in comparison to the total minutes required.

The necessary small regional occupational program service allocation schedule is as follows:

9th–12th Grade CBEDS Enrollment in a Comprehensive High School	Daily minutes of ROP Instruction for full funding	Small School ROP service allocation
0–50 students	180 minutes	$19,776
51–100 students	300 minutes	$33,026
101–150 students	360 minutes	$39,552
151–200 students	420 minutes	$46,078
201–250 students	480 minutes	$52,802
251–300 students	540 minutes	$59,328
301–350 students	600 minutes	$65,854

The small regional occupation program service allocation shall be adjusted annually by the same percentage cost-of-living adjustment applied to other regional occupational center and program revenue limits.

(c) If a regional occupational program applies for funding under this section, the regional occupational program shall certify to the Superintendent of Public Instruction all concurrently enrolled average daily attendance generated during the previous year in each school to which small regional occupational program service funds were allocated under subdivision (b). The average daily attendance certified under this subdivision shall be subtracted from the regional occupational program's prior year total allowable average daily attendance, and the remainder shall become the current year allowable regional occupational program average daily attendance for all nonconcurrently enrolled students and concurrently enrolled students from schools with enrollments larger than 351 students. The same annual growth rate applicable to all other regional occupational programs shall be applied to the adjusted allowable average daily attendance calculated for a regional occupational program under this subdivision.

(d) Total annual apportionments for regional occupational programs that qualify for funding under this section as necessary small regional occupational programs shall be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

Total Small School ROP Service Allocation Under Subdivision (b) X Instructional Minute Proration Factor +

Reported Average Students from Schools with Statewide Average

Daily Attendance for	Enrollments Over 351 and Nonconcurrently Enrolled Students up to the Maximum Adjusted Allowable Average Daily Attendance Under Subdivision (c)	X	ROP Revenue Limit or ROP Revenue Limit, Whichever is Greater =

Total Annual ROP Apportionment

(e) Nothing in this section shall be construed to require eligible regional occupational programs to apply for funding under this section. Eligible regional occupational programs shall have the option to apply for funding under this section, or to use the standard regional occupational program apportionment system.

(f) In fiscal years subsequent to the 1985–86 fiscal year, the prior year's apportionment under this section shall be annually adjusted by the same cost-of-living increase provided to regional occupational programs through the standard apportionment system.

SEC. 2. (a) The sum of up to five hundred forty thousand dollars ($540,000) is hereby reappropriated from the funds included for regional occupational center and program growth in Item 6100-102-001 of the Budget Act for the 1985–86 fiscal year to Section A of the State School Fund for purposes of funding the adjustments authorized pursuant to Section 52324.6 of the Education Code commencing with the 1985–86 fiscal year. It is the intent of the Legislature that funding for subsequent fiscal years be included in the annual Budget Act.

(b) Funding for purposes of Section 52324.6 shall be limited to five hundred forty thousand dollars ($540,000) in the 1985–86 fiscal year. If total claims exceed this amount, the difference shall be subtracted, on a pro rata basis, from the total entitlement computed under Section 52324.6 for each necessary small regional occupational program.

(c) Funds from Item 6100-102-001 of the Budget Act for the 1985–86 fiscal year remaining after reappropriation pursuant to this section, together with funds from paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) of Item 6100-226-001 of the Budget Act for the 1985–86 fiscal year, shall be deemed to fully fund all entitlements for the 1985–86 fiscal year for regional occupational centers and programs as of the effective date of this section, and a deficiency in these programs shall not be created by making this reappropriation.

SEC. 3. Funds appropriated for the purposes of this act shall not be included within "the total amount of money allocated for public education in California," as that term is used in Section 8880.1 of the Government Code, as added by the California State Lottery Act of 1984.

CHAPTER 1539

An act to amend and repeal Sections 6012.2 and 6276.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985. Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6012.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Section 2 of Chapter 1591 of the Statutes of 1982, is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 6012.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Section 1 of Chapter 1707 of the Statutes of 1984, is amended to read:

6012.2. (a) For purposes of this part, "gross receipts" from the sale of a used mobilehome, as defined in Section 18014 of the Health and Safety Code, and the "sales price" of a used mobilehome, sold or stored, used, or otherwise consumed in this state shall be based on the current value of the used mobilehome as specified by a recognized value guide, whenever a registered or legal owner sells a used mobilehome through a person licensed under the Health and Safety Code as a dealer and not on the dealer's own account or through a licensed real estate broker acting pursuant to Section 10131.6 of the Business and Professions Code, or whenever a purchaser of a used mobilehome is required to pay the use tax to the Department of Housing and Community Development. If the value guide does not specify the model or manufacturer of a used mobilehome, the value of the used mobilehome shall be established by reference to the highest value in the value guide according to age and size or the actual sales price, whichever is less. If the actual sales price of a used mobilehome is less than the current value specified in the value guide, the "sales price" and "gross receipts" shall be based on the actual sales price of the mobilehome as evidenced by purchase documents. The State Board of Equalization shall approve the value guides for use within this state through regulation.

(b) For the purposes of this part, "gross receipts" from the sale of a mobilehome, whether new or used, shall exclude the amount of separately stated escrow fees on the sale of such mobilehome.

(c) For the purposes of this section, the "actual sales price" means the total contract price, including, but not limited to, the value of the mobilehome, in place location, awning, skirting, carport, patio, landscaping, shrubs, unattached furnishings, or other items not part of the mobilehome, and documentation fees.

SEC. 3. Section 6276.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Section 4 of Chapter 1591 of the Statutes of 1982, is repealed.

(b) The disclosure requirements of subdivision (a) may be met by posting a conspicuous sign in an area which is likely to be seen by all patients who use the facility or by providing those patients with a written disclosure statement. Where referrals, billings, or other solicitations are between licensees who contract with multispecialty clinics pursuant to subdivision (l) of Section 1206 of the Health and Safety Code or who conduct their practice as members of the same professional corporation or partnership, and the services are rendered on the same physical premises, or under the same professional corporation or partnership name, the requirements of subdivision (a) may be met by posting a conspicuous disclosure statement at a single location which is a common area or registration area or by providing those patients with a written disclosure statement.

(c) For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the following meanings:

(e) (1) This section does not prohibit the acceptance of evaluation specimens for proficiency testing or referral of specimens or assignment from one clinical laboratory to another clinical laboratory, either licensed or exempt under this chapter, if the report indicates clearly the name of the laboratory performing the test.

(2) This section shall not apply to relationships governed by other provisions of this article nor is this section to be construed as permitting relationships or interests that are prohibited by existing law on the effective date of this section.

(3) The disclosure requirements of this section shall not be required to be given to any patient, customer, or his or her representative, if the licensee, organization, or entity is providing or arranging for health care services pursuant to a prepaid capitated contract with the State Department of Health Services.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

SEC. 2. This amount shall increase at the rate of 6 percent per year.

SEC. 6. Section 41851 of the Education Code is amended to read:

41851. (a) For the 1984–85 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, from Section A of the State School Fund the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall apportion to each school district and county superintendent of schools which received a transportation allowance in the prior fiscal year, an amount computed pursuant to this section. School districts and county superintendents of schools which provide transportation services by means of a joint powers agreement, a cooperative pupil transportation program, or a consortium shall receive transportation allowances pursuant to this section.

(b) Any school district or county superintendent which certifies to the Superintendent of Public Instruction at the end of a fiscal year that its approved transportation expenditures for that fiscal year were at least 95 percent of the state allowance received in that fiscal year for the prior fiscal year's approved transportation costs shall receive a transportation allowance for the current fiscal year equal to the amount of the transportation allowance received in the prior fiscal year, increased by the amount provided in the Budget Act.

(c) Any school district or county superintendent which certifies at the end of a fiscal year that its approved transportation expenditures for fiscal year were less than 95 percent of the state allowance received in that fiscal year for the prior fiscal year's approved transportation costs shall certify the applicable percentage and shall receive a transportation allowance for the current fiscal year equal to the certified percentage of the transportation allowance received in that fiscal year plus 5 percent, the sum increased by the amount provided in the Budget Act.

(d) For the purpose of receiving an allowance pursuant to this section, a school district, county superintendent, or joint powers agency which transfers any part of its pupil transportation service to another entity shall report to the Superintendent of Public Instruction the proportion of the costs in the fiscal year prior to the transfer that are attributable to the part of the service transferred. In determining the allowance for the fiscal years subsequent to the transfer, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, prior to the application of any cost-of-living adjustment, shall reduce the allowance of the entity transferring the service in proportion to the costs reported, and, if appropriate, increase or establish the allowance of the entity assuming the transferred service by that amount.

(e) For the 1985–86 fiscal year, and each fiscal year thereafter, for purposes of this section and Section 42238, the state allowance received in any fiscal year shall not include revisions to expenditure reports or other documents, schedules, or reports that are used in determining state apportionments pursuant to this section, submitted by a school district for any prior year apportionment, and received by the Superintendent of Public Instruction after June 30, 1985, that would result in a change in the adjustment to the district's revenue limit calculated pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 42241.4 as those provisions read in the 1982–83 or 1983–84 fiscal year.

(f) For the 1985–86 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, for purposes of this section and Section 42238, the state allowance received in any fiscal year shall not include revisions to expenditure reports or other documents, schedules, or reports that are used in determining state apportionments pursuant to this section, submitted by a school district for any prior fiscal year apportionment, and received by the Superintendent of Public Instruction after June 30, 1985, that would result in a change in the adjustment to the district's revenue limit calculated pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 42241.

(g) For the 1985–86 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, for purposes of this section, the state allowance received in any fiscal year shall not include revisions to transportation reports or other documents, schedules, or reports that are used in determining state apportionments pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 56770) of Chapter 7 of Part 30, submitted by a school district or county superintendent of schools for the 1981–82, 1982–83, or 1983–84 fiscal year apportionment, and received by the Superintendent of Public Instruction after June 30, 1985, for the purpose of other than home-to-school transportation of individuals with exceptional needs as specified in their individualized education plan, that would result in an increase in the district's or county superintendent of schools' state allowance pursuant to this section.

(h) Commencing in the 1985–86 fiscal year, all revisions to prior fiscal year expenditure reports and any other documents, schedules, or reports that are used in determining state allowances pursuant to this section, submitted by a school district or county office of education for purposes of receiving apportionments pursuant to this section, and received by the Superintendent of Public Instruction after June 30, 1985, shall be accompanied by a statement signed by the independent auditor of the school district or county office of education which certifies that the revisions are corrections of errors contained in a document, schedule, or report previously submitted to the Superintendent of Public Instruction, and that the information contained in the revised document, schedule, or report is true and accurate.

SEC. 7. Section 41853 of the Education Code is amended to read:

41853. If a school district or county superintendent of schools decides to discontinue its transportation services, any unencumbered funds remaining in the restricted home-to-school transportation account after transportation services are discontinued shall be transferred to the general fund of the district or county superintendent.

In the fiscal year in which the funds are transferred, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall reduce the state apportionment pursuant to Section 2558 or 42238 to the district or county superintendent by the amount of the funds transferred from the restricted home-to-school transportation account to the general fund of the district or county superintendent.

SEC. 8. Section 46200 of the Education Code is amended to read:

46200. (a) In the 1984–85 fiscal year, for each school district which certifies to the Superintendent of Public Instruction that it offers 180 days or more of instruction per school year, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall apportion thirty-five dollars ($35) per unit of average daily attendance, exclusive of adult average daily attendance, the average daily attendance of pupils while participating in regional occupation centers or programs, and average daily attendance for pupils attending summer school. A year-round school shall be deemed to be in compliance with the 180-day requirement if it certifies to the Superintendent of Public Instruction that it is a year-round school and maintains its school for five more days, or the equivalent thereof, than maintained in the 1982–83 fiscal year not to exceed 180 days. Each school district which received an apportionment pursuant to this subdivision in the 1984–85 fiscal year shall add thirty-five dollars ($35) to the district's base revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance for the 1985–86 fiscal year.

(b) For any school district which received an apportionment pursuant to subdivision (a) and which offers less than 180 days of instruction in the 1985–86 fiscal year or any fiscal year thereafter, and which does not provide the minimum number of instructional minutes specified in subdivision (a) of Section 46201 for that fiscal year, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall reduce the base revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance for that fiscal year by an amount attributable to the increase received pursuant to subdivision (a), as adjusted in fiscal years subsequent to the 1984–85 fiscal year.

SEC. 10. Section 51878.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

51878.5. Pursuant to Section 16370 of the Government Code, there is hereby authorized in the State Treasury a Special Deposit Fund Account, which shall consist of moneys collected from the sale of educational computer software to local educational agencies under this article. All of the moneys collected are hereby appropriated without regard to fiscal year for the support of the Department of Education to be used for the purchase and reproduction of new computer education materials.

SEC. 11. Section 54653 of the Education Code is amended to read:

54653. Beginning with the 1984–85 fiscal year, and each fiscal year thereafter, the State Board of Education shall compute the change in the performance of each school as measured by the change in the composite rating from the prior year. Except as otherwise provided in Sections 54653.5 and 54653.6, a school which demonstrates an improved performance from the prior year shall earn incentive funding in the fiscal year in which the performance improvement occurred. The State Board of Education shall compute the incentive funding earned by each school pursuant to this section as follows:

(a) For each school which demonstrates an improved performance, multiply the increase in the composite score of the school by the number of pupils in that school who took the test during the fiscal year in which the increase occurred.

(b) Add the individual products computed pursuant to subdivision (a) to determine the total statewide increase in school performance.

(c) Divide the product computed for the individual school pursuant to subdivision (a) by the total statewide increase in school performance computed pursuant to subdivision (b) to determine the individual school's proportional contribution to the statewide increase in school performance.

(d) Multiply the quotient obtained pursuant to subdivision (c) by the amount appropriated in that fiscal year for purposes of this article to determine the incentive funding earned by an individual school. In no case, shall the amount of incentive funding earned by an individual school exceed the product of the number of pupils who took the test during the fiscal year in which the increase occurred multiplied by four hundred dollars ($400).

The State Board of Education shall provide the Superintendent of Public Instruction with a list of the schools which have earned incentive funding, and the amount of that funding earned by each school. The board shall provide the governing board of each school district with a list of the schools within the district which have earned incentive funding, and the amount of that funding earned by each school.

54653.6. If a school's composite rating for the prior year is below the school's composite rating for the 1983–84 fiscal year by an amount as determined by a formula that shall be established by the State Board of Education and that shall account for the size of the school's grade 12 enrollment, then the computation of change in performance for that school shall be based on its composite rating for the 1983–84 fiscal year. The computation of incentive funding for schools subject to the provisions of this section shall be in accordance with Section 54653 based on improved performance as measured by the increase from the 1983–84 composite rating. The provisions of this section shall apply to the determination of incentive funding commencing with the 1985–86 fiscal year.

SEC. 13. Section 54656 of the Education Code is amended to read:

54656. (a) No funds allocated pursuant to Section 54654 shall be used for any of the following purposes:

54657.5. In order to ensure the validity of the composite ratings of 12th grade performance used for purposes of this article, the State Department of Education shall develop procedures for the 12th grade for the proctoring of tests administered as part of the testing program by persons not employed by the school district administering the test. At least one proctor shall be present in each classroom used for the administration of the test while the test is being conducted.

The proctor assigned to each classroom shall be given the responsibility of delivering the completed test forms to the State Department of Education for scoring. The department shall elicit assistance from geographically distributed county offices of education in developing and implementing these procedures.

CHAPTER 1547

An act to amend Sections 3715, 3720, and 3721 of, and to add Sections 3717.1, 3717.2, and 3720.1 to, the Labor Code, relating to workers' compensation.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985. Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) It is necessary for the fiscal integrity of the Uninsured Employers Fund that its ability to recover from uninsured employers the benefits it pays to the employees of the uninsured employers be assured.

(b) Many uninsured employers operate in an unlawful manner in ways in addition to being uninsured.

(c) Many uninsured employers commence to conceal their assets after an application is filed against them.

(d) Many uninsured employers do not have sufficient assets to discharge their obligations.

(e) It is necessary that the Uninsured Employers Fund have the ability to secure its right of repayment from uninsured employers to prevent the loss of the assets of the uninsured employers before the Uninsured Employers Fund can obtain its recovery.

(f) It is necessary to assure that uninsured employers will be accorded due process of law in the procedures by which the Uninsured Employers Fund acquires liens on their property prior to the issuance of findings and awards.

SEC. 2. Section 3715 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3715. (a) Any employee, except an employee as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 3351, whose employer has failed to secure the payment of compensation as required by this division, or his or her dependents in case death has ensued, may, in addition to proceeding against his or her employer by civil action in the courts as provided in Section 3706, file his or her application with the appeals board for compensation and the appeals board shall hear and determine the application for compensation in like manner as in other claims and shall make the award to the claimant as he or she would be entitled to receive if the employer had secured the payment of compensation as required, and the employer shall pay the award in the manner and amount fixed thereby or shall furnish to the appeals board a bond, in such an amount and with such sureties as the appeals board requires, to pay the employee the award in the manner and amount fixed thereby.

(b) Notwithstanding this section or any other provision of this chapter except Section 3708, any person described in subdivision (d) of Section 3351 who is (i) engaged in household domestic service who is employed by one employer for over 52 hours per week, (ii) engaged as a part-time gardener in connection with a private dwelling, if the number of hours devoted to the gardening work for any individual regularly exceeds 44 hours per month, or (iii) engaged in casual employment where the work contemplated is to be completed in not less than 10 working days, without regard to the number of men employed, and where the total labor cost of the work is not less than one hundred dollars ($100) (which amount shall not include charges other than for personal services), shall be entitled, in addition to proceeding against his or her employer by civil action in the courts as provided in Section 3706, to file his application with the appeals board for compensation. The appeals board shall hear and determine the application for compensation in like manner as in other claims, and shall make the award to the claimant as he or she would be entitled to receive if the person's employer had secured the payment of compensation as required, and the employer shall pay the award in the manner and amount fixed thereby, or shall furnish to the appeals board a bond, in such an amount and with such sureties as the appeals board requires, to pay the employee the award in the manner and amount fixed thereby.

It is the intent of the Legislature that the amendments to this section by Chapter 17 of the Statutes of 1977, make no change in the law as it applied to those types of employees covered by this subdivision prior to the effective date of Chapter 1263 of the 1975 Regular Session.

(c) In any claim in which it is alleged that the employer has failed to secure the payment of compensation, the director, only for purposes of this section and Section 3720, shall determine, on the basis of the evidence available to him or her, whether the employer was prima facie illegally uninsured. A finding that the employer was prima facie illegally uninsured shall be made when the director determines that there is sufficient evidence to constitute a prima facie case that the employer employed an employee on the date of the alleged injury and had failed to secure the payment of compensation, and that the employee was injured arising out of, and occurring in the course of, the employment.

Failure of the employer to furnish within 10 days the written statement in response to a written demand for a written statement prescribed in Section 3711, addressed to the employer at its address as shown on the official address record of the appeals board, shall constitute in itself sufficient evidence for a prima facie case that the employer failed to secure the payment of compensation.

A written denial by the insurer named in the statement furnished by the employer as prescribed in Section 3711, that the employer was so insured as claimed, or the nonexistence of a valid certificate of consent to self-insure for the time of the claimed injury, if the statement furnished by the employer claims the employer was self-insured, shall constitute in itself sufficient evidence for a prima facie case that the employer had failed to secure the payment of compensation.

The nonexistence of a record of the employer's insurance with the Workers' Compensation Insurance Rating Bureau shall constitute in itself sufficient evidence for a prima facie case that the employer failed to secure the payment of compensation.

The unrebutted written declaration under penalty of perjury by the injured employee, or applicant other than the employee, that the employee was employed by the employer at the time of the injury, and that he or she was injured in the course of his or her employment, shall constitute, in itself, sufficient evidence for a prima facie case that the employer employed the employee at the time of the injury, and that the employee was injured arising out of, and occurring in the course of, the employment.

(d) When the director determines that an employer was prima facie illegally uninsured, the director shall mail a written notice of the determination to the employer at his or her address as shown on the official address record of the appeals board, and to any other more recent address the director may possess. The notice shall advise the employer of its right to appeal the finding, and that a lien may be placed against the employer's and any parent corporation's property, or the property of substantial shareholders of a corporate employer as defined by Section 3717.

Any employer aggrieved by a finding of the director that it was prima facie illegally uninsured may appeal the finding by filing a petition before the appeals board. The petition shall be filed within 20 days after the finding is issued. The appeals board shall hold a hearing on the petition within 20 days after the petition is filed with the appeals board. The appeals board shall have exclusive jurisdiction to determine appeals of the findings by the director, and no court of this state has jurisdiction to review, annul, or suspend any such findings or the liens created thereunder, except as provided by Article 2 (commencing with Section 5950) of Chapter 7 of Part 4 of Division 4.

The director may adopt regulations to implement and interpret the procedures provided for in this section.

SEC. 3. Section 3717.1 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

3717.1. In any claim in which an alleged uninsured employer is a corporation, the director may cause substantial shareholders and parents, as defined by Section 3717, to be joined as parties. Substantial shareholders may be served as provided in this division for service on adverse parties, or if they cannot be found with reasonable diligence, by serving the corporation. The corporation, upon this service, shall notify the shareholder of the service, and mail the served document to him or her at the shareholder's last address known to the corporation.

SEC. 4. Section 3717.2 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

3717.2. Upon request of the director, the appeals board shall make findings of whether persons are substantial shareholders or parents, as defined in Section 3717. The director may in his or her discretion proceed against substantial shareholders and parents pursuant to Section 3717 without those findings of the appeals board.

SEC. 5. Section 3720 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3720. (a) When the appeals board or the director determines under Section 3715 or 3716 that an employer has not secured the payment of compensation as required by this division or when the director has determined that the employer is prima facie illegally uninsured, the director may file for record in the office of the county recorder in the counties where the employer's property is possibly located, a certificate of lien showing the date that the employer was determined to be illegally uninsured or the date that the director has determined that the employer was prima facie illegally uninsured. The certificate shall show the name and address of the employer against whom it was filed, and the fact that the employer has not secured the payment of compensation as required by this division. Upon the recordation, the certificate shall constitute a valid lien in favor of the director, and shall have the same force, effect and priority as a judgment lien and shall continue for 10 years from the time of the recording of the certificate unless sooner released or otherwise discharged. A copy of the certificate shall be served upon the employer by mail, by the director. A facsimile signature of the director accompanied by the seal imprint of the department shall be sufficient for recording purposes of liens and releases or cancellations thereof considered herein. Certificates of liens may be filed in any or all counties of the state, depending upon the information the director obtains concerning the employer's assets.

(b) For purposes of this section, in the event the employer is a corporation, those persons whom either the appeals board finds are the parent or the substantial shareholders of the corporation or its parent, or whom the director finds pursuant to Section 3720.1 to be prima facie the parent or the substantial shareholders of the corporation or its parent, as defined in Section 3717, shall be deemed to be the employer, and the director may file the certificates against those persons.

(c) A person who claims to be aggrieved by the filing of a lien against the property of an uninsured employer because he or she has the same or a similar name, may apply to the director to have filed an amended certificate of lien which shows that the aggrieved applicant is not the uninsured employer which is the subject of the lien. If the director finds that the aggrieved applicant is not the same as the uninsured employer, the director shall file an amended certificate of lien with the county recorder of the county in which the aggrieved applicant has property, which shall show, by reasonably identifying information furnished by the aggrieved applicant, that the uninsured employer and the aggrieved applicant are not the same. If the director does not file the amended certificate of lien within 60 days of application therefor, the applicant may appeal the director's failure to so find by filing a petition with the appeals board, which shall make a finding as to whether the applicant and the uninsured employer are the same.

SEC. 6. Section 3720.1 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

3720.1. (a) In any claim in which the alleged uninsured employer is a corporation, for purposes of filing certificates of lien pursuant to Section 3720, the director may determine, according to the evidence available to him or her, whether a person is prima facie a parent or substantial shareholder, as defined in Section 3717. A finding that a person was prima facie a parent or substantial shareholder shall be made when the director determines that there is sufficient evidence to constitute a prima facie case that the person was a parent or substantial shareholder.

(b) Any person aggrieved by a finding of the director that he or she was prima facie a parent or substantial shareholder may request a hearing on the finding by filing a written request for hearing with the director. The director shall hold a hearing on the matter within 20 days of the receipt of the request for hearing, and shall mail a notice of time and place of hearing to the person requesting hearing at least 10 days prior to the hearing. The hearing officer shall hear and receive evidence, and within 10 days of the hearing, file his or her findings on whether there is sufficient evidence to constitute a prima facie case that the person was a substantial shareholder or parent. The hearing officer shall serve with his or her findings a summary of evidence received and relied upon, and the reasons for the findings. A party may at his or her own expense require that the hearing proceedings be recorded and transcribed.

(c) A party aggrieved by the findings of the hearing officer may within 20 days apply for a writ of mandate to the superior court. Venue shall lie in the county in which is located the office of the director which issued the findings after the hearing.

SEC. 7. Section 3721 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3721. [Approved by Governor October 2, 1985 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 311.10 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

311.10. CHAPTER 1551

An act to amend Section 11489 of the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Sections 5458, 5476, 5478, 5479, 5480, 5481, 5482, and 5483 of, and to add Section 5481.5 to, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to mental health, and making an appropriation therefor.

state or local governmental entity as follows:

(a) To the bona fide or innocent purchaser, conditional sales vendor, or mortgagee of the property, if any, up to the amount of his or her interest in the property, when the court declaring the forfeiture orders a distribution to that person.

(3) The remaining funds shall be allocated equally to each of the following:

Each governmental agency seeking reimbursement under subdivision (b) shall notify the district attorney or the Attorney General prosecuting the forfeiture of the nature and amount of its claim. The prosecuting agency shall petition the court for these costs and the court shall order the forfeiture of proceeds distributed to the local governmental entity or the state for any agency expenditures. Should the amount forfeited be insufficient to pay all expenditures claimed, the court shall order the funds distributed on a pro rata basis. For purposes of this section, "local governmental entity" means any city, county, or city and county in the state.

All property seized and all proceeds from the sale of property seized pursuant to this chapter prior to the effective date of the amendments to this section made in the first year of the 1985–86 Regular Session shall be distributed in accordance with the provisions of this section in effect prior to those amendments.

For the purposes of this section, "local governmental entity" means any city, county, or city and county in this state.

All property seized and all proceeds from the sale of property seized pursuant to this chapter prior to the effective date of the amendments to this section made in the first year of the 1985–86 Regular Session shall be distributed in accordance with the provisions of this section in effect prior to those amendments.

SEC. 2. Section 5458 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5458. The following shall be the programs in the community residential treatment system. These programs shall be designed to provide, at every level, alternatives to institutional settings. Counties in applying for these funds shall show how each of these programs works with the current programs and in-place programs. Counties may apply for funds in the following programs:

(a) A program for a short-term crisis residential alternative to hospitalization for individuals experiencing an acute episode or situational crisis requiring temporary removal from their home environment. The program shall be available for admissions 24 hours a day, seven days a week. The primary focus of this program shall be on reduction of the crisis, on stabilization, and on a diagnostic assessment of the person's existing support system, including recommendations for referrals upon discharge.

The services in the program shall include, but not be limited to, provision for direct family work, connections to prevocational and vocational programs, and development of a support system, including income and treatment referrals. This program shall be designed for persons who would otherwise be referred to an inpatient unit, either locally or in the state hospital. It shall be a 24-hour program, with an emphasis on stabilization and appropriate referral for further treatment or support services, or both.

Respite care services may be provided as a component of this program.

(b) A long-term residential treatment program, with a full day treatment component as a part of the program, for persons who may require intensive support for as long as two or three years. This program shall be designed to provide a rehabilitation program for the so-called "chronic" patient who needs long-term support in order to develop independent living skills. The clients in this program are to be those who would otherwise be living marginally in the community with little or no service support, and who would return many times to the hospital for treatment. It also is to serve those who are referred to, and maintained in, state hospitals or nursing homes because they require long-term, intensive support. This program is to go beyond maintenance to provide an active rehabilitation focus for these individuals.

The services in this program shall include, but not be limited to, intensive diagnostic work, including learning disability assessment, full day treatment program with an active prevocational and vocational component, special education services, outreach to develop linkages with the general social service system, and counseling to aid clients in developing the skills to move toward a less structured setting.

(c) A transitional residential program designed for persons who are able to take part in programs in the general community, but who, without the support of counseling, as well as the therapeutic community, would be at risk of returning to the hospital. This program may employ a variety of staffing patterns and is for persons who may be expected to move toward a more independent living setting within approximately three months to one year. The clients shall be expected to play a major role in the functioning of the household, and shall be encouraged to accept increasing levels of responsibility, both in the residential community, and in the community as a whole. Residents are required to be involved in daytime activities outside of the house which are relevant to their personal goals and conducive to their achieving more self-sufficiency.

The services in this program include, but are not limited to, counseling and ongoing assessment, development of support systems in the community, a day program which encourages interaction between clients and the community-at-large, and an activity program that encourages socialization and utilization of general community resources.

(d) A program for semisupervised, independent, but structured living arrangement for persons who do not need the intensive support of the other system programs, but who, without some support and structure, are at risk to return to a condition requiring hospitalization. The individual apartments or houses are to be shared by three to five persons. These small cooperative housing units shall function as independent households with direct linkages to staff support in case of emergencies, as well as for regular assessment and evaluation meetings. Individuals may use satellite housing as a transition to independent living, or may remain in this setting indefinitely in order to avoid the need for more intensive settings.

This program is for persons who only need minimum support in order to live in the community. These individuals may require rent subsidy, as well as the backup of another system, in order to remain in this setting. The satellite units are to be as normative as the general living arrangements in the communities in which they are developed.

(e) In areas applying for a system where there is no day treatment program, or where the day treatment program is housed totally in a hospital, the county shall be encouraged to develop such a program, consistent with the principles and practices outlined above, in a noninstitutional setting and employing a rehabilitation focus. Where there are already existing services, efforts should be made to assure the capability of such day treatment services with the goals of the system programs. This may require the relocation of such services or the addition of staff.

(f) The program for socialization centers shall be designed to serve a broad range of clients, including those in the system programs, when appropriate, as well as persons living in the community in general. This program is designed to provide regular daytime, evening, and weekend activities for persons who require long-term, structured support, but who do not receive such services in their living setting. Although the socialization center is meant to provide a maintenance support program for those individuals who only wish or require regular socialization opportunities, the programs should also provide the opportunity to develop the skills to move toward more independent functioning.

The services in this program shall include, but not be limited to, outings, recreational activities, cultural events, linkages to community resources, as well as prevocational counseling, life skills training, and other rehabilitation efforts. This program is for persons who would lose contact with a social or treatment system, or both, if left to their isolated living situation, or their ability to participate in activities for the "general public." With this level of support, persons would be able to lead full and active lives, with the opportunity to develop the skills to move toward independent living. Also included in the program are adult education support programs which utilize community college and other adult education agencies. These services would provide opportunities to individuals throughout the community residential treatment system and in other living settings, including independent living, to develop skills necessary for independent living through the utilization of resources available to the general population.

(g) An in-home treatment program designed as an alternative to out-of-home placement for individuals who are otherwise not appropriate for, or do not choose to participate in, other elements of the community residential treatment system. This program is designed for those individuals who would benefit most from a treatment intervention in their home environment. It is a basic premise of this element that treatment focus on the development of family and other personal and community supports, rather than exclusively on the individual. The goal of the program is to reintegrate the individual with the family unit, when appropriate, and with the greater community without removing the person from his or her home environment.

The service may be designed as a crisis intervention for persons experiencing an acute episode or an ongoing independent living service, or both, for persons wishing to obtain or maintain housing and services in the community. Services provided shall include, but not be limited to, crisis intervention, family work, when appropriate, development of a specific treatment plan, development of an ongoing rehabilitation plan utilizing available resources in the community, and coordination with such services as case management, vocational rehabilitation, schools and other education services, and various special programs which would act as a support system for the individual.

(h) A volunteer-based companion program designed to encourage the development of personal relationships with residents of community care facilities with the goal of motivating and assisting residents to make a successful transition to independent living, or to programs of the community residential treatment system.

The service shall be provided primarily by volunteers, including students as a part of a college or university curriculum, who are supervised and coordinated by trained and experienced personnel. Services provided shall include, but not be limited to, recreation, one-to-one companionship, advocacy, and assistance in developing the knowledge and use of community resources, including housing and vocational services, and followup for persons who make the transition to independent living.

(i) A self-help independent living program that utilizes mentally disabled persons living independently in the community to work with clients of the mental health system. Staff for this program shall consist of unpaid volunteers who are or have been clients of the mental health system. Paid staff shall be limited to coordinators of volunteer activities. The duties of the volunteers shall include, but not be limited to, training in independent living skills, housing advocacy and referral, financial benefits counseling, and peer counseling.

(j) A continuum of vocational services which provide at least the three following distinct levels:

(a) Work preparation.

(b) Work experience.

(c) Work placement.

Vocational services shall be designed in the context of a business which provides goods or services to the community. These vocational services shall be transitional in nature and shall include, but not be limited to, counseling and ongoing assessment of the client's vocational performance and goals. The staffing patterns shall include individuals with experience in the type of business or service being provided and persons who have been consumers of mental health services.

This section shall not be construed to limit the services of the Department of Rehabilitation to the mentally disabled.

SEC. 3. Section 5476 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5476. Primary prevention projects shall be developed in accordance with the guidelines and principles set forth in this chapter. SEC. 4. Section 5478 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5478. (a) Each primary prevention project shall have a core team consisting of school-based mental health professionals, including pupil personnel professionals or local mental health program professionals, or both, a senior aide, and a group of from two to five child aides.

(b) The mental health professionals shall be responsible for accepting referred children into the program, program coordination and supervision of the senior and child aides, assignment of a child to an aide, evaluation of progress, and determination of termination from the program. The mental health professionals shall supervise the scoring and interpretation of screening test data, conduct conferences with parents, and evaluate the effectiveness of individual aides.

(c) The senior aide shall be responsible for communication among school personnel, the mental health professionals, including pupil personnel professionals, and the child aides and for the administrative functions of scheduling with aides and teachers, arranging case conferences, and maintaining records.

(d) Child aides, under supervision of a mental health professional, shall conduct the weekly sessions of expressive play with children served in the primary prevention projects. Child aides may be salaried school aides, unpaid volunteers such as students, elderly persons or other persons with time and interest in working with young children, or may be provided stipends to meet expenses.

(e) All aides shall undergo a time-limited period of training that is focused on the main intervention strategies of the particular program and is provided prior to direct contacts with the children served in the primary prevention projects. Training shall, at a minimum, include basic child development, crisis intervention, techniques of expressive play, other intervention skills appropriate to identified problem areas, and instruction in utilizing supervision and consultation.

SEC. 5. Section 5479 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5479. School districts and local mental health programs submitting joint proposals for grants under this chapter shall demonstrate a capability for referral to appropriate public and private community services. The referrals shall be made through contacts with families in response to information regarding the need for such referral arising from the child aide sessions.

SEC. 6. Section 5480 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5480. (a) The State Department of Mental Health shall award primary prevention project grants pursuant to a request for proposal consistent with the provisions of this chapter. The grant award shall be administered by the local mental health program.

(b) Prior to dissemination of a request for proposal, the department shall establish a maximum figure for the amount of project funds available per school site and for the number of schools that may be funded per school district. The department shall be guided in its decisions by the availability of uncommitted funds in the Mental Health Primary Prevention Fund.

(c) Primary prevention project grants shall be funded from funds allocated to the Department of Mental Health for primary prevention programs in accordance with Section 11489 of the Health and Safety Code.

(d) Upon approving a primary prevention grant, the State Department of Mental Health shall contract with the grant recipient to provide a primary prevention project for a period of three years.

(e) Costs of a primary prevention project shall be financed on a basis of:

(1) Fifty percent from primary prevention project grant funds or a maximum established by the department, whichever is less.

(2) At least 50 percent from a combination of school district and local mental health program funds.

(f) The school district share may be in-kind contributions, including staff, space, equipment, materials, and reasonable administrative services.

(1) Contributed space to be used for child aide sessions must be comfortable, attractive, and engaging to young children. Small individual rooms are preferable.

(2) Space to be used for group meetings and consultation sessions may also be contributed.

(3) Equipment and materials may be contributed if it includes items that encourage child participation in expressive play.

(g) The local mental health program share may include either the cost of the mental health professional as described in subdivision (b) of Section 5478 or the contribution of professional staff to provide case consultation to the child aides and assistance in child aide training.

SEC. 7. Section 5481 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

(c) Representation of a wide range of economic, ethnic, and cultural populations.

(d) Demonstration of strong support by the teaching, pupil services, and administrative school personnel and by the local mental health program.

CHAPTER 1552

An act to amend Section 11250 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to Aid to Families with Dependent Children.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11250 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11250. Aid, services, or both shall be granted under the provisions of this chapter, and subject to the regulations of the department, to families with related children under the age of 18 years, except as provided in Section 11253, in need thereof because they have been deprived of parental support or care due to:

(a) The death, physical or mental incapacity, or incarceration of a parent.

(b) The unemployment of a parent or parents.

(c) Continued absence of a parent from the home due to divorce, separation, desertion, or any other reason, except absence occasioned solely by reason of the performance of active duty in the uniformed services of the United States. "Continued absence" exists when the nature of the absence is such as either to interrupt or to terminate the parent's functioning as a provider of maintenance, physical care, or guidance for the child, and the known or indefinite duration of the absence precludes counting on the parent's performance of the function of planning for the present support or care of the child. If these conditions exist, the parent may be absent for any reason, and may have left only recently or some time previously.

SEC. 2. Reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code and, if the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

3500. For purposes of this title:

(a) "Behaviorial research" means studies involving, but not limited to, the investigation of human behavior, emotion, adaptation, conditioning, and response in a program designed to test certain hypotheses through the collection of objective data. Behavioral research does not include the accumulation of statistical data in the assessment of the effectiveness of programs to which inmates are routinely assigned, such as, but not limited to, education, vocational training, productive work, counseling, recognized therapies, and programs which are not experimental in nature.

(b) "Biomedical research" means research relating to or involving biological, medical, or physical science.

(c) "Psychotropic drug" means any drug that has the capability of changing or controlling mental functioning or behavior through direct pharmacological action. SECTION 1. Section 33413 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Chapter 31 of the Statutes of 1985, is amended to read:

33413. (a) Whenever dwelling units housing persons and families of low or moderate income are destroyed or removed from the low- and moderate-income housing market as part of a redevelopment project, the agency shall, within four years of the destruction or removal, rehabilitate, develop, or construct, or cause to be rehabilitated, developed, or constructed, for rental or sale to persons and families of low or moderate income, an equal number of replacement dwelling units at affordable housing cost within the territorial jurisdiction of the agency.

(b) (1) At least 30 percent of all new or rehabilitated dwelling units developed by an agency shall be available at affordable housing cost to persons and families of low or moderate income. Not less than 50 percent of the dwelling units required to be available at affordable housing cost to persons and families of low or moderate income shall be available at affordable housing cost to, and occupied by, very low income households.

(2) At least 15 percent of all new or rehabilitated dwelling units developed within the project area by public or private entities or persons other than the agency shall be available at affordable housing cost to persons and families of low or moderate income. Not less than 40 percent of the dwelling units required to be available at affordable housing cost to persons and families of low or moderate income shall be available at affordable housing cost to very low income households.

(3) The requirements of this subdivision shall apply independently of the requirements of subdivision (a) and in the aggregate to housing made available pursuant to paragraphs (1) and (2), respectively, and not to each individual case of rehabilitation, development, or construction of dwelling units.

(c) The agency shall require that the aggregate number of replacement dwelling units and other dwelling units rehabilitated, developed, or constructed pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) remain available at affordable housing cost to persons and families of low income, moderate income, and very low income households, respectively, for not less than the period of the land use controls established in the redevelopment plan.

(d) (1) This section applies only to redevelopment projects for which a final redevelopment plan is adopted pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 33360) on or after January 1, 1976, and to areas which are added to a project area by amendment to a final redevelopment plan adopted on or after January 1, 1976. However, any agency may, by resolution, elect to make all or part of the requirements of this section applicable to any redevelopment project of the agency for which the final redevelopment plan was adopted prior to January 1, 1976.

An act to amend Section 1950.5 of the Civil Code, relating to tenancies.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1950.5 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1950.5. (a) The provisions of this section shall apply to security for a rental agreement for residential property, that is, property used as the dwelling of the tenant.

(b) As used in this section, "security" means any payment, fee, deposit or charge, including, but not limited to, an advance payment of rent, used or to be used for any purpose, including, but not limited to, any of the following:

(1) The compensation of a landlord for a tenant's default in the payment of rent.

(2) The repair of damages to the premises caused by the tenant or by a guest or licensee of the tenant.

(3) The cleaning of the premises upon termination of the tenancy.

(c) A landlord may not demand or receive security, however denominated, in an amount or value in excess of an amount equal to two months' rent, in the case of unfurnished residential property, and an amount equal to three months' rent in the case of furnished residential property, in addition to any rent for the first month paid on or before initial occupancy. This subdivision shall not be construed to prohibit an advance payment of not less than six months' rent where the term of the lease is six months or longer.

This subdivision shall not be construed to preclude a landlord and a tenant from entering into a mutual agreement for the landlord, at the request of the tenant and for a specified fee or charge, to make structural, decorative, furnishing, or other similar alterations, if the alterations are other than cleaning or repairing for which the landlord may charge the previous tenant as provided by subdivision

(d) Any security shall be held by the landlord for the tenant who is party to the lease or agreement. The claim of a tenant to the security shall be prior to the claim of any creditor of the landlord.

(e) The landlord may claim of the security only those amounts as are reasonably necessary to remedy tenant defaults in the payment of rent, to repair damages to the premises caused by the tenant or by a guest or licensee of the tenant, exclusive of ordinary wear and tear, or to clean the premises, if necessary, upon termination of the tenancy. The landlord may not assert a claim against the tenant or the security for damages to the premises or any defective conditions that preexisted the tenancy, for ordinary wear and tear or the effects thereof, whether the wear and tear preexisted the tenancy or occurred during the tenancy, or for the cumulative effects of ordinary wear and tear occurring during any one or more tenancies.

(f) No later than two weeks after the tenant has vacated the premises, the landlord shall furnish the tenant with an itemized written statement of the basis for, and the amount of, any security received and the disposition of the security and shall return any remaining portion of the security to the tenant.

(g) Upon termination of the landlord's interest in the dwelling unit in question, whether by sale, assignment, death, appointment of receiver or otherwise, the landlord or his or her agent shall, within a reasonable time, do one of the following acts, either of which shall relieve the landlord of further liability with respect to the security held:

(1) Transfer the portion of the security remaining after any lawful deductions made under subdivision (e) to the landlord's successor in interest, and thereafter notify the tenant by personal delivery or certified mail of the transfer, of any claims made against the security, and of the transferee's name, address, and telephone number. If the notice to the tenant is made by personal delivery, the tenant shall acknowledge receipt of the notice and sign his or her name on the landlord's copy of the notice.

(2) Return the portion of the security remaining after any lawful deductions made under subdivision (e) to the tenant, together with an accounting as provided in subdivision (f).

(h) Upon receipt of any portion of the security under paragraph (1) of subdivision (g), the transferee shall have all of the rights and obligations of a landlord holding the security with respect to the security.

(i) The bad faith claim or retention by a landlord or transferee of a security or any portion thereof, in violation of this section, may subject the landlord or the landlord's transferee to damages not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200), in addition to any actual damages, plus interest on the security, or remaining portion thereof, at the rate of 2 percent per month from the due date until paid. In any action under this section, the landlord shall have the burden of proof as to the reasonableness of the amounts claimed.

(j) No lease or rental agreement shall contain any provision characterizing any security as "nonrefundable."

(k) Any action under this section may be maintained in small claims court if the damages claimed, whether actual or punitive or both, are within the jurisdictional amount allowed by Section 116.2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(l) The amendments to this section made during the 1985 portion of the 1985–86 Regular Session of the Legislature which are set forth in subdivision (e) are declaratory of existing law. The amendments to this section made during the 1985 portion of the 1985–86 Regular Session of the Legislature which are set forth in subdivision (i) shall be applicable to all leases and other tenancies of residential property terminated on or after January 1, 1987.

SEC. 2. Section 1950.5 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1950.5. (a) The provisions of this section shall apply to security for a rental agreement for residential property, that is, property used as the dwelling of the tenant.

(b) As used in this section, "security" means any payment, fee, deposit or charge, including, but not limited to, an advance payment of rent, used or to be used for any purpose, including, but not limited to, any of the following:

(1) The compensation of a landlord for a tenant's default in the payment of rent.

(2) The repair of damages to the premises caused by the tenant or by a guest or licensee of the tenant.

(3) The cleaning of the premises upon termination of the tenancy.

(c) A landlord may not demand or receive security, however denominated, in an amount or value in excess of an amount equal to two months' rent, in the case of unfurnished residential property, and an amount equal to three months' rent in the case of furnished residential property, in addition to any rent for the first month paid on or before initial occupancy. This subdivision does not prohibit an advance payment of not less than six months' rent where the term of the lease is six months or longer.

This subdivision does not preclude a landlord and a tenant from entering into a mutual agreement for the landlord, at the request of the tenant and for a specified fee or charge, to make structural, decorative, furnishing, or other similar alterations, if the alterations are other than cleaning or repairing for which the landlord may charge the previous tenant as provided by subdivision (e).

(d) Any security shall be held by the landlord for the tenant who is party to the lease or agreement. The claim of a tenant to the security shall be prior to the claim of any creditor of the landlord.

(e) The landlord may claim of the security only those amounts as are reasonably necessary to remedy tenant defaults in the payment of rent, to repair damages to the premises caused by the tenant, exclusive of ordinary wear and tear, or to clean the premises, if necessary, upon termination of the tenancy. The landlord may not assert a claim against the tenant or the security for damages to the premises or any defective conditions that preexisted the tenancy, for ordinary wear and tear or the effects thereof, whether the wear and tear preexisted the tenancy or occurred during the tenancy, or for the cumulative effects of ordinary wear and tear occurring during any one or more tenancies.

(f) No later than two weeks after the tenant has vacated the premises, the landlord shall furnish the tenant with an itemized written statement of the basis for, and the amount of, any security received and the disposition of the security and shall return any remaining portion of the security to the tenant.

(g) Upon termination of the landlord's interest in the dwelling unit in question, whether by sale, assignment, death, appointment of receiver or otherwise, the landlord or the landlord's agent shall, within a reasonable time, do one of the following acts, either of which shall relieve the landlord of further liability with respect to the security held:

(1) Transfer the portion of the security remaining after any lawful deductions made under subdivision (e) to the landlord's successor in interest, and thereafter notify the tenant by personal delivery or certified mail of the transfer, of any claims made against the security, of the amount of the security deposited, and of the names of the successors in interest, their address, and their telephone number. If the notice to the tenant is made by personal delivery, the tenant shall acknowledge receipt of the notice and sign his or her name on the landlord's copy of the notice.

(2) Return the portion of the security remaining after any lawful deductions made under subdivision (e) to the tenant, together with an accounting as provided in subdivision (f).

(h) Prior to the voluntary transfer of a landlord's interest in a dwelling unit the landlord shall deliver to the landlord's successor in interest a statement indicating the following:

(1) The security remaining after any lawful deductions are made.

(2) His or her election under paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (g).

Nothing in this subdivision shall affect the validity of title to the real property transferred in violation of the provisions of this subdivision.

(i) In the event of noncompliance with subdivision (g), the landlord's successors in interest shall be jointly and severally liable with the landlord for repayment of the security, or that portion thereof to which the tenant is entitled, when and as provided in subdivisions (e) and (f). A successor in interest of a landlord may not require the tenant to post any security to replace that amount not transferred to the tenant or successors in interest as provided in subdivision (g), unless and until the successor in interest first makes restitution of the initial security as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (g) or provides the tenant with an accounting as provided in subdivision (f).

Nothing in this subdivision shall preclude a successor in interest from recovering from the tenant compensatory damages that are in excess of the security received from the landlord previously paid by the tenant to the landlord.

Notwithstanding the provisions of this subdivision, if upon inquiry and reasonable investigation, a landlord's successor in interest has a good faith belief that the lawfully remaining security deposit is transferred to him or her or returned to the tenant pursuant to subdivision (g), he or she shall not be liable for damages as provided in subdivision (k), or any security not transferred pursuant to subdivision (g).

(j) Upon receipt of any portion of the security under paragraph (1) of subdivision (g), the landlord's successors in interest shall have all of the rights and obligations of a landlord holding the security with respect to the security.

(k) The bad faith claim or retention by a landlord or the landlord's successors in interest of the security or any portion thereof, in violation of this section or the bad faith demand of replacement security in violation of subdivision (i), may subject the landlord or the landlord's successors in interest to damages not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200), in addition to any actual damages, plus, from and after January 1, 1987, interest on the security, or remaining portion thereof, at the rate of 2 percent per month from the due date until paid. In any action under this section, the landlord or the landlord's successors in interest shall have the burden of proof as to the reasonableness of the amounts claimed or the authority pursuant to this section to demand additional security deposits.

(l) No lease or rental agreement shall contain any provision characterizing any security as "nonrefundable."

(m) Any action under this section may be maintained in small claims court if the damages claimed, whether actual or punitive or both, are within the jurisdictional amount allowed by Section 116.2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(n) Proof of the existence of and the amount of a security deposit may be established by any credible evidence, including, but not limited to, a canceled check, a receipt, a lease indicating the requirement of a deposit as well as the amount, prior consistent statements or actions of the landlord or tenant, or a statement under penalty of perjury which satisfies the credibility requirements set forth in Section 780 of the Evidence Code.

(o) The amendments to this section made during the 1985 portion of the 1985–86 Regular Session of the Legislature which are set forth in subdivision (e) are declaratory of existing law.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 1950.5 of the Civil Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1677. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1986, (2) each bill amends Section 1950.5 of the Civil Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1677, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

(d) Recommendations, with respect to both state computer hardware and software, for the creation of a fully integrated data base system in order to effectively meet the health and safety needs of the public.

25413. (a) The secretary shall, in preparing the report, utilize and build upon any relevant reports and studies on hazardous materials conducted by any state or local agency, committee, or task force. The secretary shall also seek to obtain input from appropriate and knowledgeable persons within and outside of government, including representatives from the field of public health, the academic community, and environmental groups.

Fidelity Corporation shall not commence operations, other than its organization, unless the board of directors of Fidelity Corporation first determines that sufficient money has been deposited in the fidelity fund and the fidelity bond required by Section 17314 has been purchased and is in effect. Neither the State of California, nor any officer, agent or employee thereof, including, but not limited to, the Department of Corporations, while acting in such capacity, shall be liable in any way for the conduct of Fidelity Corporation, its directors, officers, agents, employees, or members.

SEC. 10. Section 17312 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17313. The commissioner shall review and approve the articles of incorporation and bylaws of Fidelity Corporation before they are filed with the Secretary of State.

SEC. 12. Section 17314 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17314. Fidelity Corporation shall pay a member for loss of trust obligations sustained as a result of embezzlement, theft, or mysterious disappearance or because of checks which have not been paid by the drawee bank drawn by the escrow agent on its trust or escrow account resulting from embezzlement, theft, or mysterious disappearance by an officer, director, trustee, stockholder, managing agent, agent, or employee of the escrow agent.

The liability of Fidelity Corporation to be paid from the fidelity fund shall be as follows:

(a) Up to fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) per loss to a member during the first full year of operation of the Fidelity Corporation, for each loss discovered during this period.

(b) Up to one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) per loss to a member during the second full year of operation of the Fidelity Corporation, for each loss discovered during this period.

(c) Up to one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) per loss to a member during the third full year of operation of the Fidelity Corporation, and thereafter.

Losses in excess of the amounts covered in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c), shall be covered by a fidelity bond purchased by the Fidelity Corporation on behalf of its members or, when requested by the commissioner, a fidelity bond purchased by the member. Fidelity Corporation shall furnish a good and sufficient bond indemnifying the member against loss of trust obligations as a result of embezzlement, theft, or mysterious disappearance or because of checks, which have not been paid by the drawee bank, drawn by the escrow agent on its trust or escrow account resulting from embezzlement, theft, or mysterious disappearance by an officer, director, trustee, stockholder, or employee of the escrow agent, in excess of the amounts covered in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c). The bond shall be filed with the commissioner for approval pursuant to Section 17203.1.

The minimum amount of the bond shall be 1 percent of the total average trust obligations of all members as reported to the commissioner pursuant to Section 17348. When the amount of the bond is reduced below 1 percent of the total average trust obligations of all members because of a paid claim, Fidelity Corporation shall immediately purchase an additional bond to increase the bond coverage to 1 percent of the total average trust obligations of all members.

At all times, the bond shall equal 1 percent of the total average trust obligations of all members as reported to the commissioner pursuant to Section 17348.

SEC. 13. Section 17314.1 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17314.1. Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, Fidelity Corporation shall not be obligated to pay any claim made by a member unless the claim would, except for the dollar amount thereof, be a valid claim under the bond as prescribed by Section 17203.1. The protection to members provided by Fidelity Corporation and by the fidelity bond shall therefore be deemed to be coextensive except as to the dollar amounts as set forth in Section 17314. All defenses available to the insurer under the fidelity bond on any claim shall also be a defense to Fidelity Corporation on any claim brought against the corporation. No one other than a member of Fidelity Corporation is entitled to assert a claim against Fidelity Corporation for losses covered under this article.

SEC. 14. Section 17320 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17320. Fidelity Corporation shall establish and maintain a fidelity fund as follows:

(a) Upon organization and establishment of the Fidelity Corporation, each member shall pay to Fidelity Corporation a membership fee of two thousand two hundred fifty dollars ($2,250) for each member's licensed location. The membership fee shall be paid in three annual installments of seven hundred fifty dollars ($750) each on or before April 15 of each year.

(b) Each person licensed pursuant to this division who becomes a member subsequent to the organization and establishment of Fidelity Corporation shall pay to Fidelity Corporation a membership fee of two thousand two hundred fifty dollars ($2,250) for each member's licensed location. The first installment of the membership fee of seven hundred fifty dollars ($750) shall also be paid to Fidelity Corporation prior to the time the license is issued by the commissioner for each location. The second and third installments of the membership fee of seven hundred fifty dollars ($750) each shall be paid on or before May 15 of the first and second year, respectively, subsequent to the year in which the license is issued. Fidelity Corporation shall not deny membership to any escrow agent holding a valid unrevoked license under the Escrow Law. Each person licensed pursuant to this division who becomes a member on or after January 1, 1986, shall pay the membership fee in one installment at the time of applying for membership.

(c) A member who is granted authority by the commissioner to establish additional licensed locations shall pay to Fidelity Corporation, at the same time the authority is granted by the commissioner, the first installment of the membership fee for each licensed location. The second and third installments of the membership fee of seven hundred fifty dollars ($750) shall be paid on or before May 15 of the first and second years, respectively, subsequent to the year in which the authority is granted by the commissioner. Each person who is granted authority by the commissioner to establish additional licensed locations on or after January 1, 1986, shall pay the membership fee in one installment at the time the authority is granted.

(d) For the purpose of the annual assessment of each member to maintain the fidelity fund, Fidelity Corporation shall establish a fidelity fund account for each member, which shall require a cash payment from each member equal to the greater of the membership fee for each licensed location or 1 percent of the member's monthly average trust obligations as reported to the commissioner pursuant to Section 17348.

For those licensed persons who became members before January 1, 1986, if, on May 15 of the fourth year of membership and thereafter, the member's fidelity fund account does not equal the greater of the membership fee for each licensed location or 1 percent of the member's monthly average trust obligations, then Fidelity Corporation shall assess the member as follows:

(1) First, the remaining annual installments on the membership fee as set forth above.

(2) Then, after the membership fee is paid in full, an amount based on the member's average monthly trust obligations as follows:

(A) One-half of 1 percent of the average monthly trust obligations up to five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) plus

(B) One-fourth of 1 percent of the average monthly trust obligations from five hundred thousand one dollars ($500,001) to one million dollars ($1,000,000) plus

(C) One-eighth of 1 percent of the average monthly trust obligations in excess of one million dollars ($1,000,000).

For those licensed persons who become members on or after January 1, 1986, if the member's fidelity fund account does not equal the greater of the membership fee for each licensed location or 1 percent of the member's monthly average trust obligations on May 15 of the first year subsequent to the year in which the license is issued, and thereafter, Fidelity Corporation shall assess the member as set forth in paragraph (2) of subdivision (d).

Provided, however, in no event will a member be required to pay an annual assessment greater than one thousand dollars ($1,000) per licensed location.

(e) Whenever Fidelity Corporation is requested by a member to pay that member for loss of trust obligations as a result of embezzlement, theft, or mysterious disappearance, Fidelity Corporation shall pay its liability from the fidelity fund under Section 17314 by first charging the requesting member's fidelity fund account and then, to the extent that the member's fidelity fund account is insufficient to satisfy the claim, Fidelity Corporation shall charge the fidelity fund accounts of all members by an amount determined by the following formula: an amount resulting from multiplying the balance of the claim by a number, the numerator of which is a member's fidelity fund account and the denominator of which is the total of all members' fidelity fund accounts. Thereafter, Fidelity Corporation shall immediately assess the member filing the claim the amount charged to that member's fidelity fund account and immediately assess all members the amount charged to their fidelity fund accounts, if any, as provided for in Section 17321.

(f) In the event the amount in the fidelity fund equals 2 percent or more of the total average trust obligations for all members as reflected in the most recent report required by Section 17348, Fidelity Corporation may credit to each member an amount in the fidelity fund in excess of 1½ percent of the total trust obligations of all members. The amount which may be credited to each member shall be an amount equal to the ratio of the member's fidelity fund account to the total amount of all members' fidelity fund accounts. If a member has not paid any assessment or has not paid the full amount of any assessment or a membership fee, the amount to be credited shall first be applied to pay the member's unpaid assessment or membership fee liability.

(g) The membership fee may be considered a tangible asset of the member in all financial statements.

(h) Whenever any member has surrendered its license to engage in business as an escrow agent (and the commissioner has accepted the surrender of the license), and the member has disbursed its trust obligations in accordance with the requirements of the Escrow Law and escrow instructions, a member may request Fidelity Corporation to refund to the member the balance of its fidelity fund account. The member's fidelity fund account shall be refunded in accordance with Fidelity Corporation's bylaws. However, no refund shall be made to any member sooner than 24 months and one day from the date of acceptance of surrender of the license by the commissioner.

SEC. 15. Section 17320.1 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17320.1. Notwithstanding Section 17311, Fidelity Corporation shall bill and collect from each member the first annual installment of the membership fee, which shall be paid within 30 days from the effective date of this section. If the member fails to pay the first annual installment of the membership fee on or before the expiration of such 30-day period, the membership fee shall become delinquent and the commissioner may by order summarily suspend or revoke the certificate to engage in business as an escrow agent issued to the member. If, after such an order is made, a request for a hearing is filed in writing and a hearing is not held within 60 days thereafter, the order is deemed rescinded as of its effective date. During any period when its certificate is revoked or suspended, a member shall not conduct business pursuant to this division except as may be permitted by order of the commissioner; provided, however, that neither the revocation, suspension, or surrender of a certificate shall affect the powers of the commissioner as provided in this division.

SEC. 16. Section 17321 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17321. Fidelity Corporation shall send a written notice of assessment to each member assessed within 30 days after the levy of any assessment. Amounts assessed shall be paid to Fidelity Corporation by each member assessed not later than 90 days following written notice of assessment.

In the event that Fidelity Corporation has extraordinary expenses or claims paid from the fidelity fund during any fiscal year which reduces the fidelity fund by 25 percent or more and the reduction would result in the fidelity fund being less than 1 percent of the total trust obligations of all members, Fidelity Corporation shall immediately levy an assessment on each member to replenish the fidelity fund by an amount charged to each member's account pursuant to the method set forth in Section 17339; provided, the assessment limitation of one thousand dollars ($1,000) per year per location shall not apply.

SEC. 17. Section 17323 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17323. In the event any member fails to pay an assessment when due, Fidelity Corporation shall report the default in writing to the commissioner within 24 hours of the default, and shall within 30 days after default bring an action in law or in equity to enforce payment. If Fidelity Corporation does not bring such an action within the time specified, the commissioner may bring an action in law or in equity to enforce such payment.

SEC. 18. Section 17330 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17330. Any member who suffers a loss of trust obligations due to embezzlement, theft, or mysterious disappearance may file a claim with Fidelity Corporation for the amount of the loss.

SEC. 19. Section 17331 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17331. Fidelity Corporation shall not, in any one calendar year, be required to pay any claims that exceed in the aggregate the total in the fund after allowance for all amounts to be added to all members' accounts during the year by assessment as provided in this chapter. With the written consent of the commissioner, Fidelity Corporation shall have the authority to borrow against future assessments to pay claims which exceed in the aggregate the total amount in the fund.

SEC. 20. Section 17332 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17332. When either Fidelity Corporation or the insurer providing the fidelity bond under Section 17314, or both, pay an obligation on behalf of a member, Fidelity Corporation and the insurer shall be subrogated to the rights, claims, and remedies of the member up to the amount paid by Fidelity Corporation and the insurer on behalf of the member. In any subrogation action filed by Fidelity Corporation, the provider of the fidelity bond if payment was made thereunder, or both, Fidelity Corporation shall have the first right to the proceeds of any judgment or settlement obtained against the subrogees, up to the amount actually paid on the claim by Fidelity Corporation, plus reasonable costs and attorney's fees if awarded as part of any judgment. Amounts recouped by Fidelity Corporation through subrogation, minus all costs, attorney's fees, and other administrative expenses incurred in obtaining that recovery, shall be credited to members' accounts in proportion to the amounts charged and paid by those members pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 17320; except for any punitive damages, which shall be deposited into the members' fidelity fund and used for payment of future claims, however no member's account shall receive any credit therefor.

SEC. 21. Section 17333 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17333. The commissioner may forthwith take possession of the property and business of Fidelity Corporation and retain possession until Fidelity Corporation satisfies the commissioner that it will operate in conformity with this chapter whenever it appears to the commissioner that Fidelity Corporation has done any of the following:

(a) Violated its articles of incorporation or any law of this state.

17334. Whenever the commissioner has taken possession of the property and business of Fidelity Corporation, Fidelity Corporation within 10 business days after the taking, if it deems itself aggrieved thereby, may apply to the superior court in the county in which the head office of Fidelity Corporation is located to enjoin further proceedings. The court, after citing the commissioner to show cause why further proceedings should not be enjoined, and after a hearing and a determination of the facts upon the merits, may dismiss the application or enjoin the commissioner from further proceedings and direct the commissioner to surrender the property and business to Fidelity Corporation, or make a further order as may be just.

SEC. 23. Section 17335 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17335. An appeal may be taken from the judgment of the court by the commissioner or by Fidelity Corporation in the manner provided by law for appeals from the judgment of a superior court. An appeal from the judgment of the court does not operate as a stay of the judgment unless the court, on good cause, so orders. Each member's account shall receive credit ratably based on the account balance, for the amount of the excess. Income received by Fidelity Corporation, whether or not credited to members' accounts, shall be subject to a claim filed by a member made pursuant to Section 17330 except as to that portion reserved by the board of directors for expenses of administration during the calendar year.

SEC. 27. Section 17339 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17339. Expenses of administration that exceed income from investments at the end of the year shall be charged to members' accounts. Prior to incurring any extraordinary or nonrecurring expense, Fidelity Corporation shall first obtain the written consent of the commissioner.

The commissioner and the commissioner's duly designated representatives shall have free access to the offices, books, accounts, papers, records, files, safes, and vaults of Fidelity Corporation.

SEC. 33. Section 17345 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17345. Any member aggrieved by any action or decision of Fidelity Corporation may appeal to the commissioner within 30 days from the action or decision.

(1) That the censure, suspension, or bar is in the public interest and that the person has committed a violation of this division or rule or order of the commissioner, which violation was either willful or has caused material damage to the escrow agent.

(2) That the officer, director, employee of, or person performing similar functions for, an escrow agent, has been convicted of, or pleaded nolo contendere to, a crime, or has been held liable in a civil action by final judgment, if the crime or civil action involved fraud, embezzlement, fraudulent conversion, or misappropriation of property.

(b) Upon receipt of a notice of intention to issue an order pursuant to this section, the person who is the subject of the proposed order is immediately prohibited from disbursing any trust funds in the escrow agent's possession, custody or control, and the financial institution holding trust funds shall be so notified by service of the notice, accusation and other administrative pleadings. The prohibition against disbursement of trust funds may be set aside, in whole or in part, by the commissioner for good cause.

SEC. 39. Section 17602 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17602. If it appears to the commissioner that any licensed escrow agent has violated its articles of incorporation, or any law or rule binding upon it, the commissioner shall, by written order addressed to the agent direct the discontinuance of such violation. SEC. 41. Section 17624 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 42. Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 17700) is added to Division 6 of the Financial Code, to read:

CHAPTER 7. CRIMES AND CIVIL PENALTIES

17700. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this division, or who willfully violates any rule or order under this division, shall, upon conviction, be fined not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or imprisoned in the state prison for one year or more or in a county jail for not more than one year, or be punished by both such fine and imprisonment, but no person may be imprisoned for the violation of any rule or order unless he or she had knowledge of the rule or order. Conviction under this section shall not preclude the commissioner from exercising the authority provided in Section 17423.

17701. (a) Any person who violates any provision of this division, or who violates any rule or order under this division, shall be liable for a civil penalty not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) for each violation, which shall be assessed and recovered in a civil action brought in the name of the people of the State of California by the commissioner in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) As applied to the penalties for acts in violation of this division, the remedies provided by this section and by other sections of this division are not exclusive, and may be sought and employed in any combination to enforce the provisions of this division.

SEC. 43. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

SEC. 44. By January 1, 1988, the Commissioner of Corporations shall submit to the Legislature a report discussing the necessity of, and basis for, an increase in tangible net worth of licensed escrow agents above twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000). The commissioner, in the report, may discuss alternatives to the tangible net worth increases above twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) required by Section 17210 of the Financial Code, including, but not limited to, tangible net worth above twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) being based on a percentage of gross income or trust fund obligations of an escrow account.

SEC. 45. Sections 2, 3, and 4 of this act shall become operative on January 1, 1986.

SEC. 46. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Since the formation of the Escrow Agents' Guaranty Corporation over two years ago, trust fund losses have been unprecedented in both the number and amount. Additionally, the number of violations of the Escrow Law has also increased substantially. Studies by the Department of Corporations and the Escrow Agents' Guaranty Corporation concluded that for the continued viability of the independent escrow company business, it is necessary that the Escrow Law be amended at the earliest possible time to do all of the following:

(a) Increase the financial stake an individual has in the licensed business.

(b) Authorize substantial administrative, civil, and criminal sanctions for violations of the Escrow Law, the rules of the Commissioner of Corporations, and orders issued thereunder.

(c) Increase the funding and powers of the Escrow Agents' Guaranty (Fidelity) Corporation, a nonprofit, private corporation whose membership consists of licensed escrow agents and which is organized for the purpose of providing fidelity bond coverage to its members.

CHAPTER 1561

An act to add and to repeal Section 2884 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to public utilities.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares as follows:

(1) Information-access telephone services which are provided for a charge to callers through the recently instituted "976" telephone number prefix are becoming prevalent throughout California due to rapid development of telecommunications technologies and aggressive marketing by telephone corporations and information access service providers. These services, which include not only recorded messages and information but also interactive computer programs and which operate pursuant to special tariffs on a charge-per-call basis provide revenue for both the services provider and the telephone corporation.

(2) There have been instances of deceptive advertising and questionable marketing practices involving these toll telephone services with the result that persons placing these calls, including children, have done so without realization that charges would apply.

(3) The Public Utilities Commission is presently conducting an investigation into the operations of information-access telephone services to determine whether they represent a valid and proper type of business required by the people of California, and whether remedies for present abuses and excesses of the system should be developed.

(b) It is, therefore, the intent of the Legislature, in enacting this act, to declare that the right of the people to use information-access telephone services includes the right of residential telephone subscribers to reasonable protections from receiving messages which they determine to be inappropriate for themselves or for their families and from being levied with charges for the inadvertent, mistaken, or uniformed use of these services, especially by children. It is the further intent of the Legislature that the Public Utilities Commission diligently pursue its investigation into the conduct of information-access telephone services in accordance with the additional requirements contained in Section 2 of this act.

SEC. 2. Section 2884 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

2884. (a) The commission shall, pursuant to its existing authority, by rule or order, establish procedures governing telephone corporation billing practices and operations to require every telephone corporation, on and after July 1, 1986, or on and after another date or dates which the commission finds and determines to be appropriate and feasible with respect to the capability of particular telephone equipment, to offer residential subscribers the option of deleting access to a class of information-access telephone service, commonly referred to as "976 service," whereby recorded commercial, informational, or public service messages, interactive computer programs, and other services, are furnished for a charge, in addition to the basic local exchange charge, to the person calling. The commission shall specify a method or methods for telephone corporations to institute this deletion of access option for residential subscribers, taking into consideration the operational requirements of the various types of telephone equipment in use throughout the state. The commission shall further establish a charge to the subscriber, of not to exceed five dollars ($5), for the exercise of this option, and the commission shall require that any unrecompensed expenses in this regard be borne by providers of information-access telephone services rather than residential telephone subscribers.

(b) The commission shall require telephone corporations and providers of information-access telephone services to institute a method of handling subscriber complaints concerning these services, which shall include provision for a waiver of certain or all of the charges for these services for a first occasion of their inadvertent or mistaken use.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1988, and, as of January 1, 1989, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends the date on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 3. (a) The Public Utilities Commission shall, pursuant to its current investigation into the operations of information-access telephone services, also investigate and adopt necessary rules or orders concerning the following matters related to information-access services:

(1) Whether, by statute or by rule or order of the commission, any costs of deleting access to information-access telephone services in excess of five dollars ($5) per request may be passed on to those providers of information-access telephone services whose services generate the most requests for access deletion.

(2) Whether to institute requirements for, or restrictions upon, advertising of the services of providers of information-access services.

(3) Whether to determine which services are authorized and which are prohibited to be offered by a provider of information-access services.

(4) Whether a separate tariff should be required for the furnishing of interactive computer programs by a provider of information-access services.

(5) Whether telephone corporations should be permitted or directed to review the content of messages proposed to be offered by providers of information-access services and to permit or deny the offering of any service based on the content of the message.

(b) The commission shall complete its investigation and report to the Legislature thereon on or before March 1, 1986.

CHAPTER 1562

An act to add and repeal Section 8690.6 of the Government Code, relating to states of emergency, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985. Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8690.6 is added to the Government Code, to read:

8690.6. (a) There is hereby established in the Reserve for Economic Uncertainties a Disaster Response-Emergency Operations Account. Moneys in the account shall be allocated by the Director of Finance, upon an order of the Governor, to any state agencies for costs incurred related to emergencies declared by the Governor. For purposes of this section, an "emergency" means a fire, flood, storm, tidal wave, earthquake or similar public calamity.

(b) The Director of Finance shall allocate funds pursuant to this section in accordance with Section 28 of the annual Budget Act.

(c) This section shall become inoperative on June 30, 1988, and, as of January 1, 1989, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 2. The sum of twenty million dollars ($20,000,000) is hereby appropriated from the Reserve for Economic Uncertainties to the Disaster Response-Emergency Operations Account for the purposes of this act.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that funds shall be made available to provide immediate aid and assistance during a state of emergency, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1563

An act to add Section 11485 to, and to add and repeal Section 11361.8 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to controlled substances, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985. Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11361.8 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

11361.8. The Legislature finds and declares that the level of marijuana production in rural counties in this state and the criminality and violence associated with its production threaten the well-being not only of citizens of these counties, but of the rest of the state as well. Since some of these counties have experienced less growth in their general purpose revenues than the rest of the state and yet bear the burden of funding eradication efforts, the Legislature recognizes the need for the state to provide financial assistance for the law enforcement, criminal justice, and other costs associated with marijuana production.

This section shall remain in effect only until July 1, 1988, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 11485 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

11485. Any peace officer of this state who, incident to a search under a search warrant issued for a violation of Section 11358 with respect to which no prosecution of a defendant results, seizes personal property suspected of being used in the planting, cultivation, harvesting, drying, processing, or transporting of marijuana, shall, if the seized personal property is not being held for evidence or destroyed as contraband, and if the owner of the property is unknown or has not claimed the property, provide notice regarding the seizure and manner of reclamation of the property to any owner or tenant of real property on which the property was seized. In addition, this notice shall be posted at the location of seizure and shall be published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the property was seized. If, after 90 days following the first publication of the notice, no owner appears and proves his or her ownership, the seized personal property shall be deemed to be abandoned and may be disposed of by sale to the public at public auction as set forth in Article 1 (commencing with Section 2080) of Chapter 4 of Title 6 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, or may be disposed of by transfer to a government agency or community service organization. Any profit from the sale or transfer of the property shall be expended for investigative services with respect to crimes involving marijuana.

SEC. 3. The sum of one million two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($1,250,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Controller for the 1985–86 fiscal year to be distributed to counties for costs associated with marijuana production on or before October 1, in accordance with the following schedule:

SEC. 4. The sum of one million six hundred eighty-four thousand dollars ($1,684,000) is appropriated from the General Fund in accordance with the following schedule, for the following purposes:

(b) Five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) to the sheriff's department of Mendocino County for marijuana eradication.

(c) Two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) to the sheriff's department of Trinity County for marijuana eradication.

(d) Two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) to the sheriff's department of Butte County for marijuana eradication.

(e) Eighty-nine thousand dollars ($89,000) to the Office of Criminal Justice Planning for allocation under the California Major narcotic Vendors Prosecution Law (Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 13880) of Title 6 of Part 4 of the Penal Code) to the office of the district attorney of Butte County for the prosecution of crimes involving marijuana.

(f) Eighty-nine thousand dollars ($89,000) to the Office of Criminal Justice Planning for allocation under the California Major Narcotic Vendors Prosecution Law (Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 13880) of Title 6 of Part 4 of the Penal Code) to the office of the district attorney of Trinity County for the prosecution of crimes involving marijuana.

(g) Six thousand dollars ($6,000) to the Department of Fish and Game for allocation to the Wildlife Protection Branch for the publication of a brochure for distribution with hunting and fishing licenses, to alert persons who fish or hunt to the dangers in and around marijuana gardens.

(h) Of the sums appropriated in subdivisions (e) and (f), the Office of Criminal Justice Planning may retain up to 5 percent for administrative expenditures.

SEC. 5. Notwithstanding Section 19888.1 of the Government Code, or any regulations promulgated pursuant to that section, the Attorney General may make emergency appointments to the Campaign Against Marijuana Planting, the duration of which may exceed 60 working days, but shall not exceed 100 working days.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to effectively reduce the widespread cultivation, sale, and use of marijuana and the occurrence of marijuana-related crimes without delay, it is necessary that this bill go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1564

An act to add Sections 17053.7 and 24330 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, and to add and repeal Section 328 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act may be referred to as the "California Jobs Tax Credit Act of 1985."

SEC. 2. It is the purpose of this act to continue a program which encourages, through the use of state tax credits, the private sector employment of economically disadvantaged and disabled Californians, including refugees, who are dependent upon public aid. It is apparent to the Legislature that private sector jobs for California recipients of Aid to Families with Dependent Children, Supplemental Security Income/State Supplementary Program for the Aged, Blind, and Disabled, Refugee Cash Assistance, and General Assistance will not only provide income to these individuals but will at the same time save California tax dollars that would otherwise be spent on public assistance. It is also apparent to the Legislature that a tax credit program will provide incentives to private sector employers to hire public assistance recipients.

It is the expectation of the Legislature that the revenue reduction resulting from the tax credits provided herein and the administrative costs of the tax credit program will be more than offset by the reduction in public aid expenditures. It is therefore the intent of the Legislature that every effort be made to maximize participation in this program.

SEC. 3. Section 17053.7 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17053.7. (a) There shall be allowed as a credit against the "net tax" (as defined by Section 17039) an amount equal to 10 percent of the amount of wages paid to each employee who is certified by the Employment Development Department to meet the requirements of Section 328 of the Unemployment Insurance Code.

The credit under this section shall not apply to an individual unless, on or before the day on which that individual begins work for the employer, the employer:

(1) Has received a certification from the Employment Development Department, or

(2) Has requested in writing that certification from the Employment Development Department.

For the purposes of this subdivision, if on or before the day on which the individual begins work for the employer, the individual has received from the Employment Development Department a written preliminary determination that he or she is a member of a targeted group, then the requirement of paragraph (1) or (2) shall be applicable on or before the fifth day on which the individual begins work for the employer.

(b) The credit under this section shall not apply to wages paid in excess of three thousand dollars ($3,000) during a taxable year by a taxpayer to the same individual. With respect to each qualified employee, the aggregate credit under this section shall not exceed six hundred dollars ($600).

(c) The credit under this section shall not apply to wages paid to an individual:

(1) Who is a dependent, as described in Section 17056, of the taxpayer; or

(2) Who, if the taxpayer is an estate or trust, is a grantor, beneficiary, or fiduciary of the estate or trust, or is a dependent, as described in Section 17056, of a grantor, beneficiary, or fiduciary of the estate or trust.

(d) The credit under this section shall not apply to wages paid to an individual if, prior to the hiring date of that individual, that individual has been employed by the employer at any time during which he or she was not certified by the Employment Development Department to meet the requirements of Section 328 of the Unemployment Insurance Code.

(e) If the certification of an employment has been revoked pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 328 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, the credit under this section shall not apply to wages paid by the employer after the date on which notice of revocation is received by the employer.

(f) The credit under this section shall be in addition to any deduction under this part to which the taxpayer may be entitled, if any.

(g) The credit provided by this section shall be applied to wages paid to each qualifying employee during the 24-month period beginning on the date such employee begins working for the taxpayer.

(h) The term "wages" shall not include any amounts paid or incurred to an individual who begins work for the employer after December 31, 1985, or the same date specified for the same purpose for purposes of the federal Targeted Jobs Tax Credit program (if that program is extended beyond December 31, 1985), whichever is later.

SEC. 4. Section 24330 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

24330. (a) There shall be allowed as a credit against the taxes imposed by this part (except the minimum franchise tax and the tax on preference income) an amount equal to 10 percent of the amount of wages paid to each employee who is certified by the Employment Development Department to meet the requirements of Section 328 of the Unemployment Insurance Code.

The credit under this section shall not apply to an individual unless, on or before the day on which that individual begins work for the employer, the employer:

(1) Has received a certification from the Employment Development Department, or

(2) Has requested in writing that certification from the Employment Development Department.

For purposes of this subdivision, if on or before the day on which the individual begins work for the employer, the individual has received from the Employment Development Department a written preliminary determination that he or she is a member of a targeted group, then the requirement of paragraph (1) or (2) shall be applicable on or before the fifth day on which the individual begins work for the employer.

(b) The credit under this section shall not apply to wages paid in excess of three thousand dollars ($3,000) during an income year by a taxpayer to the same individual. With respect to each qualified employee, the aggregate credit under this section shall not exceed six hundred dollars ($600).

(c) The credit under this section shall not apply to wages paid to an individual who is a dependent, as described in Section 17056, of an individual who owns, directly or indirectly, more than 50 percent in value of the outstanding stock of the taxpayer (as determined pursuant to Section 24429).

(d) The credit under this section shall not apply to wages paid to an individual if, prior to the hiring date of that individual, that individual had been employed by the employer at any time during which he or she was not certified by the Employment Development Department to meet the requirements of Section 328 of the Unemployment Insurance Code.

(e) If the certification of an employee has been revoked pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 328 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, the credit under this section shall not apply to wages paid by the employer after the date on which notice of revocation is received by the employer.

(f) The credit under this section shall be in addition to any deduction under this part to which the taxpayer may be entitled, if any.

(g) The credit provided by this section shall be applied to wages paid to each qualifying employee during the 24-month period beginning on the date the employee begins working for the taxpayer.

(h) The term "wages" shall not include any amounts paid or incurred to an individual who begins work for the employer after December 31, 1985, or the same date specified for the same purpose for purposes of the federal Targeted Job Tax Credit program (if that program is extended beyond December 31, 1985), whichever is later.

(5) He or she is a "qualified summer youth employee," defined as an individual:

(d) As used in this section, "preemployment period" means the 60-day period ending on the hiring date.

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1986, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1986, deletes or extends that date, except that this section shall not be repealed and shall continue to be operative during the time the federal Targeted Jobs Tax Credit

SEC. 6. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. However, the provisions of this act shall be applied in the computation of taxes for taxable or income years beginning on or after the first day of the calendar year in which this act becomes effective provided the effective date is more than 90 days prior to the last day of the calendar year. The exchange shall be based on current market value and subject to such terms and conditions, and with such reservations and exceptions, as in the opinion of the Director of General Services are in the best interests of the state, including the condition that the exchange shall result in no net cost to the state.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to facilitate the exchange of real property with, and to mitigate the urgent need for space by, the City of Concord, this act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1566

An act to amend Sections 3062, 3066, and 11713.1 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicle dealers, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3062 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

3062. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b), if a franchisor seeks to enter into a franchise establishing an additional motor vehicle dealership within a relevant market area where the same line-make is then represented, or seeks to relocate an existing motor vehicle dealership, the franchisor shall, in writing, first notify the board and each franchisee in that line-make in the relevant market area of the franchisor's intention to establish an additional dealership or to relocate an existing dealership within or into that market area. Within 20 days of receiving that notice or within 20 days after the end of any appeal procedure provided by the franchisor, any such franchisee may file with the board a protest to the establishing or relocating of the dealership. If, within this time a franchisee files with the board a request for additional time to file a protest, the board or its secretary, upon a showing of good cause, may grant an additional 10 days to file the protest. When such a protest is filed, the board shall inform the franchisor that a timely protest has been filed, that a hearing is required pursuant to Section 3066, and that the franchisor shall not establish or relocate the proposed dealership until the board has held a hearing as provided in Section 3066, nor thereafter, if the board has determined that there is good cause for not permitting the dealership. In the event of multiple protests, hearings may be consolidated to expedite the disposition of the issue.

For the purposes of this section, the reopening in a relevant market area of a dealership that has not been in operation for one year or more shall be deemed the establishment of an additional motor vehicle dealership.

(b) Subdivision (a) does not apply to either of the following:

(1) The relocation of an existing dealership to any location which is both within the same city as, and is within one mile from, the existing dealership location.

(2) The establishment at any location which is both within the same city as, and is within one-quarter mile from, the location of a dealership of the same line-make that has been out of operation for less than 90 days.

(c) Subdivision (a) does not apply to any display of vehicles at a fair, exposition, or similar exhibit if no actual sales are made at the event and the display does not exceed 30 days. This subdivision shall not be construed to prohibit a new vehicle dealer from establishing a branch office for the purpose of selling vehicles at the fair, exposition, or similar exhibit, even though that the event is sponsored by a financial institution, as defined in Section 31041 of the Financial Code or by a financial institution and a licensed dealer. The establishment of these branch offices, however, shall be in accordance with subdivision (a) where applicable.

(d) For the purposes of this section, the reopening of a dealership that has not been in operation for one year or more shall be deemed the establishment of an additional motor vehicle dealership.

SEC. 2. Section 3066 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

3066. (a) Upon receiving a notice of protest pursuant to Section 3060, 3062, 3064, or 3065, the board shall fix a time, which shall be within 60 days of the order, and place of hearing, and shall send by registered mail a copy of the order to the franchisor, the protesting franchisee, and all individuals and groups which have requested notification by the board of protests and decisions of the board. Except in any case involving a franchisee who deals exclusively in motorcycles, the board or its secretary may, upon a showing of good cause, accelerate or postpone the date initially established for a hearing, but in no event shall the hearing be rescheduled more than 90 days after the board's initial order. For the purpose of accelerating or postponing a hearing date, "good cause" includes, but is not limited to, the effects upon, and any irreparable harm to, the parties or interested persons or groups if the request for a change in hearing date is not granted. The board, or a hearing officer designated by the board, shall hear and consider the oral and documented evidence introduced by the parties and other interested individuals and groups, and the board shall make its decision solely on the record so made. Sections 11507.6, 11507.7, except subdivision (c), 11510, 11511, 11513, 11514, 11515, and 11517 of the Government Code apply to these proceedings.

(b) In any hearing on a protest filed pursuant to Section 3060 or 3062, the franchisor shall have the burden of proof to establish that there is good cause to modify, replace, terminate, or refuse to continue a franchise. The franchisee shall have the burden of proof to establish that there is good cause not to enter into a franchise establishing or relocating an additional motor vehicle dealership.

(c) In any hearing on a protest filed pursuant to Section 3064 or 3065, the franchisee shall have the burden to establish that the schedule of compensation or the warranty reimbursement schedule is not reasonable.

(d) A member of the board who is a new motor vehicle dealer may not participate in, hear, comment, or advise other members upon, or decide, any matter involving a protest filed pursuant to this article.

SEC. 3. Section 11713.1 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11713.1. It is unlawful and a violation of this code for the holder of any dealer's license issued under this article to do any of the following:

(a) To advertise any specific vehicle for sale without identifying the vehicle by either its vehicle identification number or license number.

(b) To advertise the total price of a vehicle without including all costs to the purchaser at time of sale, except sales tax, vehicle registration fees, certificate of compliance or noncompliance fees not exceeding twenty dollars ($20) pursuant to any statute or a certificate of waiver pursuant to Section 9889.56 of the Business and Professions Code, finance charges, and any dealer documentary preparation charge. The dealer documentary preparation charge shall not exceed twenty dollars ($20).

(c) To exclude from the newspaper display advertisement of a vehicle for sale that there will be added to the advertised total price at the time of sale, charges for sales tax, vehicle registration fees, the fee charged by the state for the issuance of any certificate of compliance or noncompliance pursuant to any statute or a certificate of waiver pursuant to Section 9889.56 of the Business and Professions Code, finance charges, and any dealer documentary preparation charge.

For purposes of this subdivision, "newspaper display advertisement" means any advertisement in a newspaper which is two or more newspaper columns in width or one newspaper column in width and more than seven inches in length.

(d) To represent the dealer documentary preparation charge as a governmental fee.

(e) To fail to sell a vehicle to any person at the advertised total price, exclusive of sales tax, vehicle registration fees, the fee charged by the state for the issuance of any certificate of compliance or noncompliance pursuant to any statute or a certificate of waiver pursuant to Section 9889.56 of the Business and Professions Code, finance charges, mobilehome escrow fees, the amount of any city, county, or city and county imposed fee or tax for a mobilehome, and any dealer documentary preparation charge, which charges shall not exceed twenty dollars ($20) while the vehicle remains unsold, unless the advertisement states the advertised total price is good only for a specified time and the time has elapsed.

(f) To advertise for sale as new any new vehicle of a line-make for which the dealer does not hold a franchise, unless the dealer discloses prior to the sale of the new vehicle that the dealer is not franchised to sell the vehicle and that the dealer will receive a commission or other compensation as a result of the sale.

This subdivision does not apply to any transaction involving a mobilehome as defined in Section 396 of this code, a recreational vehicle as defined in Section 18010.5 of the Health and Safety Code, a commercial coach as defined in Section 18012 of the Health and Safety Code, an off-highway motor vehicle subject to identification as defined in Section 38012 of this code, or a commercial vehicle as defined in Section 260 of this code.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to restrict sales of certain new motor vehicles by nonfranchised dealers at fairs and expositions in this calendar year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding the requirement contained in provision 1.5 of Item 6100-001-001 of the Budget Act of 1984 (Chapter 258, Statutes 1984), that the funds specified in that provision be used only for the development and implementation of a California Assessment Program test instrument for the 10th grade, the State Department of Education may expend the unencumbered balance of the five hundred fifty thousand dollars ($550,000) appropriated by that item for the development and implementation of a California Assessment Program test instrument for the 8th grade and those funds are hereby reappropriated for this purpose.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

CHAPTER 1569

An act to amend Section 11004 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to public social services.

[Became law without Governor's signature. Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11004 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11004. The provisions of this code relative to public social services for which state grants-in-aid are made to the counties shall be administered fairly to the end that all persons who are eligible and apply for such public social services shall receive the assistance to which they are entitled promptly, with due consideration for the needs of applicants and the safeguarding of public funds.

(a) Any applicant for, or recipient or payee of, such public social services shall be informed as to the provisions of eligibility and his or her responsibility for reporting facts material to a correct determination of eligibility and grant.

(b) Any applicant for, or recipient or payee of, such public social services shall be responsible for reporting accurately and completely within his or her competence those facts required of him or her pursuant to subdivision (a) and to report promptly any changes in those facts.

(c) Current and future grants payable to an assistance unit may be reduced because of prior overpayments to an extent consistent with federal law. In every case, grant payments shall be reduced to a level no lower than 90 percent of the grant, when added to the family's liquid resources and income, appropriate to families in similar conditions to the assistance unit being adjusted. If permitted by federal law, grant payments to be adjusted because of prior overpayments caused by agency errors shall be reduced to a level no lower than 95 percent of the grant when added to the family's liquid resources and net income, appropriate to families in similar conditions to the assistance unit being adjusted. As used in this subdivision, "income" means gross income, and "net income" means gross income minus the otherwise applicable standard work expense and dependent care disregards.

(d) No determination of ineligibility shall be made retrospectively so as to result in an assessment of an overpayment in circumstances where there is a failure on the part of an applicant or recipient to perform an act constituting a condition of eligibility, if the failure is caused by an error made by a state agency or a county welfare department, and if the amount of the grant received by the applicant or recipient would not have been different had the act been performed.

(e) Prior to effectuating any reduction of current grants to recover past overpayments, the recipient shall be advised of the proposed reduction and of his or her entitlement to a hearing on the propriety of the reduction.

(f) If the department determines after a hearing that an overpayment has occurred, the county providing the public social services shall seek to recover in accordance with subdivision (c) the full amount of the overpayment to the assistance unit, including any amount paid while the hearing process was pending, if required in order to conform to federal law or regulation. Such adjustment shall be permitted concurrently with any suit for restitution, and recovery of overpayment by adjustment shall reduce by the amount of such recovery the extent of liability for restitution.

(g) If the individual responsible for the overpayment to the assistance unit is no longer eligible for public social services or if he or she becomes a member of another assistance unit, recoupment of overpayments shall be made against the individual or his or her present assistance unit, or both, to the extent consistent with the provisions of federal law.

(h) Where an overpayment has been made to an assistance unit which is no longer receiving public social services, recovery shall be made by appropriate action under state law against the income or resources of the individual responsible for the overpayment or against the family.

(i) No civil or criminal action may be commenced against any person based on alleged unlawful application for or receipt of public social services, where the case record of such person has been destroyed after the expiration of the four-year retention period pursuant to Section 10851.

(j) When an underpayment or denial of public social service occurs and as a result the applicant or recipient does not receive the amount to which he or she is entitled, the county shall provide public social services equal to the full amount of the underpayment unless prohibited by federal law.

Any corrective payments made pursuant to this subdivision shall be disregarded in determining the income of the family and shall be disregarded in determining the resources of the family in the month the corrective payment is made and in the following month.

(k) This subdivision shall be applicable only to applicants, recipients and payees under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) of Part 3 of Division 9. Any suits to recover overpayments described in subdivision (f) shall be brought on behalf of the county by the county counsel unless the board of supervisors delegates such duty to the district attorney by ordinance or resolution.

SEC. 2. Reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code and, if the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 2231.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, this act does not contain a repealer, as required by that section; therefore, the provisions of this act shall remain in effect unless and until they are amended or repealed by a later enacted act.

CHAPTER 1570

An act to add Section 11201.5 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to Aid to Families with Dependent Children.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11201.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

11201.5. (a) The department shall conduct a demonstration program in order to determine whether the definition of "unemployed parent" specified in Section 11201 discourages primary wage earners receiving assistance under this chapter from accepting employment offered to them

(b) The department shall seek the necessary waivers to implement this section.

The waivers shall provide that for recipients of aid under this chapter the definition of "unemployed parent" shall be the principal earner, whose wages after applicable earned income disregards, is less than the minimum basic standard of adequate care for the family size. This definition shall apply only to those families receiving Aid to Families with Dependent Children-Unemployed Parent assistance whose total applicable family income meets the gross and net income eligibility standards established by regulation.

(c) The demonstration program, provided for in this section, shall provide for one county to demonstrate whether this revised definition of "unemployed parent" would:

(1) Increase the number of principal earners accepting employment.

(2) Reduce the average level of grant payments being made in the Aid to Families with Dependent Children-Unemployed Parent Program.

The duration of the demonstration program shall be for two years from the date of implementation by the county.

(d) The department shall institute as soon as possible both of the following:

(1) Upon receipt of the federal waivers, the demonstration program described in subdivision (c).

(2) As part of the demonstration project, as described in subdivision (c), to test the impact of this revised definition of "unemployed parent" as part of the State-Only AFDC-U Program provided in Article 3.1 (commencing with Section 11315). If the federal waivers are obtained, this program shall be implemented concurrently with the program described in paragraph (1). If the federal waivers are denied, this program shall be implemented as soon as possible after such denial. The duration of the program shall be for two years from the date of implementation by the county.

For purposes of this demonstration program, the Aid to Families With Dependent Children-Unemployed Parent applicant shall not have quit a job without good cause within the 90 days immediately prior to the beginning date of aid. If the Aid to Families With Dependent Children-Unemployed Parent applicant quits a job without good cause within this 90-day period, the entire family shall be ineligible for aid under this chapter for 90 days from the date the applicant quit his or her job.

An Aid to Families With Dependent Children-Unemployed Parent recipient shall not refuse an offer of employment without good cause. Good cause does not exist when the wage, less applicable earned income disregards, would make the family financially ineligible for aid under this chapter.

The demonstration program established pursuant to this section shall be in addition to the refugee demonstration programs provided for during the 1983–84 Regular Session.

(e) The department shall report to the Legislature the results of the demonstration program.

(b) For the purposes of this section, a war involving the United States exists in any of the following circumstances:

(1) Whenever Congress has declared war and peace has not been formally restored.

(e) The minor child is found to be unavailable pursuant to paragraph (2) or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 240 or refuses to testify.

(f) The confession was memorialized in a trustworthy fashion by a law enforcement official.

If the prosecution intends to offer a statement of the complaining witness pursuant to this section, the prosecution shall serve a written notice upon the defendant at least 10 days prior to the hearing or trial at which the prosecution intends to offer the statement.

If the statement is offered during trial, the court's determination shall be made out of the presence of the jury. 120265. (a) The board shall provide a system of regional transit services for its area of jurisdiction, to be funded from the regional transit service fund which the board shall create. The board may provide the regional services directly, by contract with the corporation, or by contract with any other provider of services as it deems appropriate, and upon terms and conditions that the board finds in its best interests. The board shall complete an economic feasibility study of competitive bidding for regional transit service within 180 days from the date of acquisition of the San Diego Transit

Corporation and shall update the study at any time the board deems appropriate to consider changed circumstances. The board shall adopt a policy for contract services to permit prices and other factors to be compared and evaluated prior to negotiating any contract for regional service.

(b) The board shall determine the routes, fares, frequency of service, and hours of operation of regional services. The board shall create a regional transit service advisory committee consisting of a representative from each of the jurisdictions that contributes to the regional transit service funds from its apportionment as determined pursuant to Section 99231.

Periodic revisions to the regional route system may be made by the board upon review by the regional transit service advisory committee which shall meet on an as-needed basis, but not less than once a year to review the annual budget and assessment for regional transit services.

(c) The formula specified in subdivision (d) for funding regional services shall remain in effect for a minimum of three fiscal years and thereafter may be amended by agreement of all affected jurisdictions and the board. The regional transit service advisory committee shall review the assessment formula and recommend appropriate changes to the board and the jurisdictions.

(d) On an annual basis, at the time that the annual apportionment schedule is developed by the transportation planning agency, each jurisdiction shall be assessed a percentage of its apportionment equal to the percentage of its 1983–84 fiscal year apportionment claimed for support of regional services or 5 percent of its annual apportionment, whichever is greater. The assessment for the County of San Diego shall be applied only to that portion of the county apportionment attributable to the board's area of jurisdiction as defined in Section 120054. Any funds remaining after the annual assessment for regional services shall be made available to the jurisdictions for support of transit purposes.

(e) The board may enter into agreements with any local jurisdiction to provide local transit services by such means and upon terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed upon.

(f) The board shall, upon request of the City of Coronado, Poway, or Santee, or the County of San Diego, establish reserves consisting of that part of the board's allocation pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 99233.5, which otherwise would have been allocated to each requesting city or county for the first two fiscal years after the board's acquisition of the San Diego Transit Corporation. The reserves shall be used by the board for transit purposes within the requesting city or county.

(g) The acquisition of the San Diego Transit Corporation by the board shall not create or impose any financial liability upon the County of San Diego or the cities within the board's area of jurisdiction for any obligations and liabilities of the corporation by virtue of their membership on the board.

SEC. 17. Section 120451 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

120451. Violation of any ordinance, rule, or regulation enacted by the board prohibiting unauthorized operation or manipulation of transit facilities owned or controlled by the board, or prohibiting unauthorized tampering or interference with, or loitering in or about, transit facilities owned or controlled by the board, is an infraction punishable by a fine not exceeding fifty dollars ($50), except that such a violation by a person, after the first conviction under this section, is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) or by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by both that fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 18. Section 120478 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

120478. The rules and regulations adopted by the board shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(d) The procedure for mediation prior to a hearing before a transit coordination and service committee.

(e) The appointment, if mediation fails, of a transit coordination and service committee, consisting of board members, to hold a public hearing on the regional transit service dispute in the locality of the dispute and to make reports of its findings of fact and its recommendations regarding the dispute to the board.

(f) The adoption of one or more alternative procedures for the review and resolution of regional disputes involving the San Diego Transit Corporation, to be mutually agreed upon by the parties to the dispute.

(g) If the regional dispute involves one or more local agencies not within the area governed by the board, the adoption of one or more alternative procedures for the review and resolution of the dispute, to be mutually agreed upon by the parties to the dispute.

(h) Actions the board may take to resolve the dispute.

SEC. 19. Section 120520 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

120520. Whenever the board acquires ownership of existing facilities from a privately or publicly owned corporation or utility, either in proceedings by eminent domain or otherwise and terminates the legal existence of the corporation or utility, and operates the facilities itself, to the extent necessary for operation of facilities, any of the employees whose duties pertain to the facilities acquired who have been employed by the corporation or utility, as the case may be, for at least 75 days shall be appointed to comparable positions by the board without examination. These employees shall be given sick leave, seniority, and vacation credits in accordance with the records of the corporation or other acquired utility, as the case may be. No employee of the former corporation or utility shall suffer any worsening of wages, seniority, pension, vacation, or other benefits as they exist at the time of and by reason of the acquisition.

The board shall assume and observe all existing labor contracts of the former corporation or utility, as the case may be, insofar as they relate to the acquired facilities.

This section applies only to those officers or supervisory employees of the former corporation or utility, as the case may be, as shall be designated by the board.

SEC. 20. Section 120521 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

120521. Whenever the board acquires ownership of existing facilities from a privately or publicly owned corporation or public utility, either in proceedings in eminent domain or otherwise, and terminates the corporation or operates the facilities itself, that has a pension plan in operation, the members and beneficiaries of the pension plan shall continue to have the rights, privileges, benefits, obligations, and status with respect to the plan.

The board shall consider, and take into account, the outstanding obligations and liabilities of the corporation or of the publicly or privately owned public utility, as the case may be, by reason of the pension plan, and may negotiate an allowance in the purchase price of the corporation or the utility for the assumption of those obligations and liabilities when acquiring the corporation or the utility.

SEC. 21. Section 120522 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

120522. Whenever the board acquires ownership of existing facilities from a privately or publicly owned corporation or public utility, either in proceedings in eminent domain or otherwise and maintains the corporation or utility, by whatever name, as a separate, legal corporate entity, the board of directors of the corporation or utility shall continue its responsibilities with regard to its employees' wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment, existing labor contracts, and existing pension plans.

SEC. 22. A division heading is added immediately preceding Section 132000 of the Public Utilities Code, to read:

Article 5. Transactions and Use Tax

132300. The Legislature, by the enactment of this article, intends the additional funds provided government agencies by this article to supplement existing local revenues being used for public transportation purposes. The government agencies are further encouraged to maintain their existing commitment of local funds for public transportation purposes.

132301. A retail transactions and use tax ordinance applicable in the incorporated and unincorporated territory of the county shall be imposed by the commission in accordance with Section 132307 and Part 1.6 (commencing with Section 7251) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, if a majority of the electors voting on the measure vote to approve its imposition at a special election called for that purpose by the commission. The tax ordinance shall take effect at the close of the polls on the day of election at which the proposition is adopted. The initial collection of the transactions and use tax shall take place in accordance with Section 132304.

If, at any time, the voters do not approve the imposition of the transactions and use tax, this chapter remains in full force and effect. The commission may, at any time thereafter, submit the same, or a different, measure to the voters in accordance with this chapter.

132302. The commission, in the ordinance, shall state the nature of the tax to be imposed, the tax rate or the maximum tax rate, the purposes for which the revenue derived from the tax will be used, and may set a term during which the tax will be imposed. The purposes for which the tax revenues will be used may include, but are not limited to, the administration of this chapter, including legal actions related thereto, the construction, capital acquisition, maintenance, and operation of streets, roads, and highways, including state highways, and the construction, maintenance, and operation of public transit systems, including exclusive public mass transit guideway systems. These purposes include expenditures for the planning, environmental reviews, engineering and design costs, and related right-of-way acquisition. The ordinance shall contain an expenditure plan which shall include the allocation of revenues for the purposes authorized by this section.

132303. (a) The county shall conduct an election called by the commission pursuant to Section 132301.

(b) The election shall be called and conducted in the same manner as provided by law for the conduct of elections by a county.

132304. (a) Any transactions and use tax ordinance adopted pursuant to this article shall be operative on the first day of the first calendar quarter commencing more than 120 days after adoption of the ordinance.

(b) Prior to the operative date of the ordinance, the commission shall contract with the State Board of Equalization to perform all functions incident to the administration and operation of the ordinance.

132305. The revenues from the taxes imposed pursuant to this article may be allocated by the commission for public transportation purposes consistent with the adopted regional transportation improvement program and the regional transportation plan.

132307. (a) The commission, subject to the approval of the voters, may impose a maximum tax rate of 1 percent under this chapter and Part 1.6 (commencing with Section 7251) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and the commission may state the maximum tax rate in terms of not to exceed 1 percent, or any lesser percentage thereof. The commission shall not levy the tax at a rate other than 1 percent or three-fourths, one-half, or one-fourth of 1 percent, unless specifically authorized by the Legislature.

(b) The tax rate adopted pursuant to this article, unless otherwise prohibited, may be increased by the commission by ordinance adopted in the manner and by the vote stated in Section 132301 and approved by a majority of the electors voting on the measure at an election called for that purpose by the commission.

132308. The commission may reduce a tax rate to percentages lower than that approved by the voters and may further provide for an increase of the tax rate if it has previously been lowered. However, the tax rate may not be increased to a rate above the tax rate approved by the voters.

Any revised tax rate may be adopted only if the commission determines, by a two-thirds vote, that the proceeds of the taxes with the altered tax rate will be sufficient to provide for the payment of principal of, and interest on, any limited tax bonds and any other indebtedness incurred by the commission which was to be payable from the proceeds of the retail transactions and use tax.

132309. (a) The commission, as part of the ballot proposition to approve the imposition of a retail transactions and use tax, shall seek authorization to issue bonds payable from the proceeds of the tax and establish the appropriations limit of the commission.

(b) The maximum bonded indebtedness which may be outstanding at any one time shall be an amount equal to the sum of the principal of, and interest on, the bonds, but not to exceed the estimated proceeds of the transactions and use tax for a period of not more than the number of years for which the transactions and use tax authorized by this article is to be imposed.

132310. (a) The bonds authorized by the voters concurrently with the approval of the retail transactions and use tax may be issued by the commission at any time, and from time to time, payable from the proceeds of the tax. The bonds shall be referred to as "limited tax bonds." The bonds may be secured by a pledge of revenues from the proceeds of the tax.

(b) The pledge of retail transactions and use taxes to the limited tax bonds authorized under this article shall have priority over the use of any of the taxes for "pay-as-you-go" financing, except to the extent that the priority is expressly restricted in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

132310.5. The commission may provide for the bonds to bear a variable interest rate, for the manner and intervals in which the rate shall vary, and for the dates on which the interest shall be payable.

132311. Limited tax bonds shall be issued pursuant to a resolution adopted at any time, and from time to time, by the commission by a two-thirds vote of all members of the commission.

The commission may from time to time issue bonds in accordance with the Revenue Bond Law of 1941 (Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 54300) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code), for the purposes set forth in the ordinance adopted pursuant to Section 132302, which shall constitute an "enterprise" within the meaning of Section 54309 of the Government Code. Article 3 (commencing with Section 54380) of Chapter 6 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code and the limitations on the rate of interest set forth in subdivision (b) of Section 54402 of the Government Code do not apply to the issuance and sale of bonds pursuant to this chapter. Instead, the commission shall authorize the issuance of bonds by resolution, which resolution shall specify all of the following:

(a) The purposes for which the bonds are to be issued.

(b) The maximum principal amount of the bonds.

(c) The maximum term for the bonds.

(d) The maximum rate of interest to be payable upon the bonds shall not exceed the maximum rate permitted for bonds of the commission by Section 53531 of the Government Code or any other applicable provisions of law. In the case of bonds bearing a variable interest rate, the variable rate shall on no day exceed the maximum rate permitted for bonds of the commission on that day by Section 53531 of the Government Code or any other applicable provisions of law. However, the variable interest rate so permitted may on any day exceed that maximum rate if the interest paid on the bonds from their date of original issuance to that day does not exceed the total interest which would have been permitted to have been paid on the bonds if the bonds had borne interest at all times from the date of issuance to that day at the maximum rate permitted from time to time by Section 53531 of the Government Code or any other applicable provisions of law.

(e) The maximum discount on the sale of the bonds. However, the bonds shall not be sold at less than 95 percent of the principal amount in the manner determined by the commission. Each resolution shall provide for the issuance of bonds in the amounts as may be necessary, until the full amount of the bonds authorized has been issued. The full amount of bonds may be divided into two or more series with different dates of payment fixed for the bonds of each series. A bond need not mature on its anniversary date.

132312. Any bonds issued pursuant to this article are a legal investment for all trust funds; for the funds of insurance companies, commercial and savings banks, and trust companies; and for state school funds. Whenever any money or funds may, by any law now or hereafter enacted, be invested in bonds of cities, counties, school districts, or other districts within the state, those funds may be invested in the bonds issued pursuant to this article, and whenever bonds of cities, counties, school districts, or other districts within this state may, by any law now or hereafter enacted, be used as security for the performance of any act or the deposit of any public money, the bonds issued pursuant to this article may be so used. The provisions of this article are in addition to all other laws relating to legal investments and shall be controlling as the latest expression of the Legislature with respect thereto.

132313. Any action or proceeding wherein the validity of the adoption of the retail transactions and use tax ordinance provided for in this article or the issuance of any bonds thereunder or any of the proceedings in relation thereto is contested, questioned, or denied, shall be commenced within six months from the date of the election at wich the ordinance is approved; otherwise, the bonds and all proceedings in relation thereto, including the adoption and approval of the ordinance, shall be held to be valid and in every respect legal and incontestable.

132314. The commission has no power to impose any tax other than the transactions and use tax imposed upon approval of the voters in accordance with this chapter.

SEC. 24. Section 7252.7 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

7252.7. "District," as used in this part, also means the San Diego County Regional Transportation Commission, if authorized to impose transactions and use taxes pursuant to this part.

SEC. 25. Section 22 of this act shall become operative only if no statute is enacted during the 1985 portion of the 1985–86 Regular Session of the Legislature to add Division 12.5 (commencing with Section 131000) to the Public Utilities Code.

SEC. 26. No appropriation is made by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because (1) this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act, (2) self-financing authority is provided in Section 22003 of the Elections Code to cover any costs that may be incurred in carrying on any program or performing any service required to be carried on or performed by this act, and (3) the only other costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

An act to add Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 15399) to Part 6.7 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, relating to economic development, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985]

CHAPTER 8. THE CALIFORNIA MAIN STREET PROGRAM

15399. The Legislature finds and declares the following:

(a) Business districts of this state's smaller communities are essential elements to cities' sense of community and the state's economy.

(b) In recent years these central business districts have experienced economic difficulties due to shifting population bases, changes in the marketplace, and greater competition from suburban shopping malls.

(c) This decline has further eroded the ability of small businesses and property owners to renovate and enhance their commercial and residential properties.

(d) Merchants in the smaller cities are also experiencing greater difficulties in obtaining financial aid at reasonable interest rates, thereby further inhibiting their ability to develop new business as well as continue existing operations.

15399.1. It is the intent of the Legislature to establish in the Department of Commerce a program, the California Main Street Program, to provide technical assistance and training for small cities' government, business organizations, and merchants and property owners to accomplish community and economic revitalization and development of older central business districts and neighborhoods.

It is the further intent of the Legislature that this program shall employ the techniques developed by the National Trust of Historic Preservation's Main Street Center which are designed to stimulate business reinvestment, restore building facades, retain existing small businesses, strengthen the local tax base, create employment opportunities, promote new businesses in downtown areas, and help to create a renewed sense of community pride. The Legislature further intends that this program be a joint state, local government, and private sector partnership utilizing private and public financial resources.

For purposes of this chapter, "department" means the Department of Commerce.

15399.2. There is hereby created within the Department of Commerce a California Main Street Program which shall operate according to a plan developed by the department with the assistance of all of the following:

(a) Organizations representing merchants and governments of small cities, historic preservation interests, financial institutions, and economic development groups.

(1) The Assembly Select Committee on Small Business.

(2) The Senate Select Committee on Small Business Enterprises.

(3) The Assembly Committee on Economic Development and New Technologies.

(4) The Joint Committee on the State's Economy.

These chairpersons shall assist in the development of the plan to the extent that their participation is not incompatible with their positions as Members of the Legislature.

(g) The California Preservation Foundation.

15399.3. The plan required by Section 15399.2 shall describe the objectives and strategies of the California Main Street Program how the program will be coordinated with existing federal, state, local, and private sector small business development and historic preservation efforts, the means by which private investments will be solicited and employed, and methods of selecting and providing assistance to participating and demonstration communities.

15399.4. In order to implement this program, the department shall do all of the following:

(a) Contract with the National Main Street Center of the National Trust for Historic Preservation to assist in accomplishing the program's objectives, to provide technical assistance to the department, and to assist in developing criteria for the selection of, and aid in selecting, the participating and demonstration communities.

(b) Designate a program manager and staff.

(c) Develop objective criteria for selecting the participating and demonstration communities. The criteria shall include, but shall not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) Evidence of interest and commitment to downtown economic development and historic preservation by both the private and public sectors.

(2) Evidence of potential private investment in the downtown area.

(3) A downtown with sufficient historic fabric to become a foundation for an enhanced community image.

(4) Organization and financial commitment to implement a long-term economic revitalization program which includes a commitment to employ a full-time, professional project manager with an operating budget.

(d) Devise a method of inviting eligible communities to submit applications, and select five demonstration communities for the program's first year and additional participating communities in subsequent years.

(e) Include in the program, in addition to the demonstration communities, any city which has on the effective date of this chapter a contract with the National Trust's Main Street Center for a local Main Street Program.

15399.5. The program established pursuant to this chapter shall be made available only to cities and communities which have a population of under 50,000.

15399.6. In order to reduce costs to the state, the department shall include in the plan a means to solicit private contributions for state and local operations of the program.

15399.7. There is hereby established in the State Treasury the California Main Street Program Fund. All private contributions, state and federal funds, and fees for services, if levied, shall be deposited into the fund for the operation of the program.

15399.8. The department shall include in its annual report to the Legislature a special report on the effectiveness of this program on the economic vitality of smaller cities' business communities.

SEC. 2. (a) The sum of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the California Main Street Program Fund.

(b) The sum of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) is hereby appropriated from the California Main Street Program Fund to the Department of Commerce for the 1985–86 fiscal year for the purposes of hiring a program manager and support staff, and sufficient operating expenses and funding, including a contract with the National Main Street Center to operate the California Main Street Program pursuant to this act. From this amount, an amount not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000) shall be allocated to carry out subdivision (e) of Section 15399.4 of the Government Code, as added by this act.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the California Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 6 (commencing with Section 4910) is added to Chapter 11 of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code, to read:

Article 6. Veterinary Corporations

4910. A veterinary corporation is a corporation which is authorized to render professional services, as defined in Section 13401 of the Corporations Code, so long as that corporation and its shareholders, officers, directors, and employees rendering professional services who are licensed veterinarians are in compliance with the Moscone-Knox Professional Corporation Act (Part 4 (commencing with Section 13400) of Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code), this article, and all other statutes and regulations pertaining to the corporation and the conduct of its affairs. With respect to a veterinary corporation, the governmental agency referred to in the Moscone-Knox Professional Corporation

Act (Part 4 (commencing with Section 13400) of Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code) is the Board of Examiners in Veterinary Medicine.

4911. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the name of a veterinary corporation and any name or names under which it renders professional services shall include the words "veterinary corporation" or wording or abbreviations denoting corporate existence.

4912. Except as provided in Section 13403 of the Corporations Code, each director, shareholder, and officer of a veterinary corporation shall be a licensed person as defined in Section 13401 of the Corporations Code.

4913. The income of a veterinary corporation attributable to professional services rendered while a shareholder is a disqualified person (as defined in Section 13401 of the Corporations Code) shall not in any manner accrue to the benefit of that shareholder or his or her shares in the veterinary corporation.

4914. A veterinary corporation shall not do or fail to do any act the doing of which or the failure to do which would constitute unprofessional conduct under any statute, rule, or regulation now or hereafter in effect. In the conduct of its practice, it shall observe and be bound by such statutes, rules and regulations to the same extent as a person holding a license under Section 4848.

4916. The board may formulate and enforce rules and regulations to carry out the purposes and the objectives of this article, including rules and regulations requiring (1) that the articles of incorporation or bylaws of a veterinary corporation shall include a provision whereby the capital stock of the corporation owned by a disqualified person (as defined in Section 13401 of the Corporations Code), or a deceased person, shall be sold to the corporation or to the remaining shareholders of the corporation within such time as such rules and regulations may provide, and (2) that a veterinary corporation shall provide adequate security by insurance or otherwise for claims against it by its patients arising out of the rendering of professional services.

4917. Nothing in this article requires an applicant for or a holder of a certificate of registration of veterinary premises described in Section 4853 to be a veterinary corporation.

SEC. 2. Section 13401 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

13401. As used in this part:

(a) "Professional services" means any type of professional services which may be lawfully rendered only pursuant to a license, certification, or registration authorized by the Business and Professions Code or the Chiropractic Act.

(b) "Professional corporation" means a corporation organized under the General Corporation Law which is engaged in rendering professional services in a single profession, except as otherwise authorized in Section 13401.5, pursuant to a certificate of registration issued by the governmental agency regulating the profession as herein provided and which in its practice or business designates itself as a professional or other corporation as may be required by statute. However, any professional corporation rendering professional services by persons duly licensed by the Board of Medical Quality Assurance or any examining committee under the jurisdiction of the board, the State Board of Pharmacy, or the Board of Examiners in Veterinary Medicine shall not be required to obtain a certificate of registration in order to render those professional services.

(c) "Licensed person" means any natural person who is duly licensed under the provisions of the Business and Professions Code or the Chiropractic Act to render the same professional services as are or will be rendered by the professional corporation of which he or she is or intends to become, an officer, director, shareholder, or employee.

(d) "Disqualified person" means a licensed person who for any reason becomes legally disqualified (temporarily or permanently) to render the professional services which the particular professional corporation of which he or she is an officer, director, shareholder, or employee is or was rendering.

SEC. 3. Section 13402 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

13402. (a) This part shall not apply to any corporation now in existence or hereafter organized which may lawfully render professional services other than pursuant to this part, nor shall anything herein contained alter or affect any right or privilege, whether under any existing or future provision of the Business and Professions Code or otherwise, in terms permitting or not prohibiting performance of professional services through the use of any form of corporation permitted by the General Corporation Law.

(b) This part does not apply to any corporation in existence on January 1, 1986, or which is thereafter established, organized under the General Corporation Law (Division 1 (commencing with Section 100) of Title 1), which is engaged in any lawful business pursuant to the terms of those provisions of law.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

An act to amend Sections 14016.5, 14016.6, and 14462 of, and to add Article 8 (commencing with Section 14499.7) to Chapter 8 of Part 3 of Division 9 of, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to the medical assistance program.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14016.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14016.5. (a) At the time of determining or redetermining the eligibility of a Medi-Cal applicant or beneficiary who resides in an area served by a prepaid health plan or pilot program in which beneficiaries may enroll, the county shall inform the Medi-Cal applicant or beneficiary of options available regarding methods of receiving Medi-Cal benefits included in subdivisions (b) and (c).

(b) Each Medi-Cal beneficiary and eligible applicant shall indicate their choice in writing, as a condition of coverage for Medi-Cal benefits, of either of the following health care options:

(1) To obtain benefits by receiving a monthly Medi-Cal card, which may be used to obtain services from individual providers who choose to provide services to Medi-Cal beneficiaries.

(2) To obtain benefits by enrolling in a prepaid health plan or pilot program contracting with the department to service Medi-Cal beneficiaries.

(c) Until such time as a Medi-Cal beneficiary or eligible applicant makes a choice, the person shall be provided with a monthly Medi-Cal card.

(d) The department shall ensure that Medi-Cal beneficiaries eligible under Title XVI of the Social Security Act are provided with information about options available regarding methods of receiving Medi-Cal benefits included in subdivisions (b) and (c).

In areas where there is no prepaid health plan or pilot program which has contracted with the department to provide services to Medi-Cal beneficiaries, no explicit choice need be made, and the beneficiary or eligible applicant shall receive a monthly Medi-Cal card.

SEC. 2. Section 14016.6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14016.6. The State Department of Health Services shall develop a program to implement the provisions of Section 14016.5. The program shall include, but not be limited to, the following components:

(a) Development of a method to inform beneficiaries and applicants of their choices for receiving Medi-Cal benefits including the solicitation from representatives of the fee-for-service sector and from prepaid health plans, or pilot programs marketing materials including printed materials, films, and exhibits, to be provided to Medi-Cal beneficiaries and applicants when choosing methods of receiving health care benefits. The department shall not be responsible for the costs of developing this material.

The department may prescribe the format and edit such materials for factual accuracy, objectivity and comprehensibility. The department shall use such edited materials in informing beneficiaries and applicants of their choices for receiving Medi-Cal benefits.

(b) Provision of information that is necessary to implement this program in a manner that fairly and objectively explains to beneficiaries and applicants their choices for methods of receiving Medi-Cal benefits, including information prepared by the department summarizing the benefits and restrictions to beneficiaries enrolled in prepaid health plans as opposed to the fee-for-service system.

(c) Provision of information about providers who will provide services to Medi-Cal beneficiaries. This may be information about provider referral services of a local provider professional organization. The information shall be made available to Medi-Cal beneficiaries and applicants at the same time the beneficiary or applicant is being informed of the options available for receiving care.

(d) Training of specialized county employees to carry out the program.

(e) Monitoring the implementation of the program in those county welfare offices where choices are made available in order to assure that beneficiaries and applicants may make a well-informed choice, without duress.

The responsibilities outlined in this section shall, at the option of the department, be carried out by a specially trained county or state employee or by an independent contractor paid by the department. If a county sponsored prepaid health plan or pilot program is offered, the responsibilities outlined in this section shall be carried out either by a specially trained state employee or by an independent contractor paid by the department.

(f) The department shall adopt any regulations as are necessary to ensure that the informing of beneficiaries of their health care options is a part of the eligibility determination process.

SEC. 3. Section 14462 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as added by Chapter 523 of the Statutes of 1983, is amended to read:

14462. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, each prepaid health plan shall be responsible for all of the costs of services rendered under the provisions of this chapter to any Medi-Cal beneficiary enrolled in the plan.

(b) The department shall bear the costs of providing to each Medi-Cal beneficiary enrolled in a prepaid health plan the services covered under the plan, to the extent that the aggregate of these costs, based on Medi-Cal reimbursement levels, and exclusive of third-party recoveries, exceeds the 12-month risk limit. The risk limit shall not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) based on Medi-Cal reimbursement levels, shall be specified in the contract between the department and the plan, and shall be determined concurrently with the annual determination of rates of payment.

The department shall have the authority to adopt regulations to increase the risk limit, to an amount not to exceed thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000). Regulations to increase the risk limit shall be based upon and supported by:

(a) Changes in prepaid health plan rates paid by the department.

(b) Changes in the medical component of the Consumer Price Index (CPI) as actuarially determined by the department. It is the intent of the Legislature that these risk limit adjustments are not to exceed thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000) until the 1986–87 fiscal year or beyond. For plans having contracts in existence on the effective date of this section, the risk limit shall be announced on or before the first day of each state fiscal year, to become effective concurrently with the effective date for the new rates of payment for the next succeeding state fiscal year.

The department may negotiate with a prepaid health plan a mutually agreed-to risk limit in an amount in excess of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000).

Within 90 days of the receipt of the documentation required under paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), the department shall pay the reimbursement provided for by this section to the extent that it determines that the services rendered were medically necessary, and that the amount of the payments sought for those services is reasonable. The department may, if a dispute exists as to whether the services rendered were medically necessary or if the amount of the payments for those services was reasonable, delay paying the reimbursement for such services until a final determination of the dispute is made.

(1) Each prepaid health plan shall arrange and provide initial payment, at Medi-Cal reimbursement levels, for medically necessary care for any Medi-Cal beneficiary enrolled in the plan when the cost for this care exceeds the 12-month risk limit. No person shall be disenrolled by any prepaid health plan for the sole reason that the cost of his or her care under the plan has exceeded the risk limit.

(2) As a condition of reimbursement for costs of care in excess of the risk limit as to a Medi-Cal beneficiary enrolled in a prepaid health plan, the plan must submit to the department, in a format to be designated by the department, documentation of all costs incurred for services to the beneficiary during the 12-month period.

(c) No prepaid health plan may enter into any subcontract that would in any way limit its obligation assumed under this chapter to retain the significant risk of the cost of services rendered under this chapter to any Medi-Cal beneficiary enrolled in the plan.

(d) As a condition of the department's approval of any subcontract entered into by a prepaid health plan under this chapter, the plan shall specify its retention of significant risk by designating one of the options under subdivision (e) as its operating definition of significant risk, or by any other method approved by the department that would meet the requirement set forth in subdivision (c).

(e) "Significant risk" means financial responsibility for either of the following:

(1) All expenditures in excess of 115 percent of the specified total expenditures estimated under each subcontract.

(2) All inpatient hospitalization expenditures as determined by the department, including expenditures for services connected with hospitalization.

SEC. 4. Article 8 (commencing with Section 14499.7) is added to Chapter 8 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

Article 8. Medi-Cal At-Risk Fiscal Intermediaries

14499.7. The department may contract with one or more fiscal intermediaries in order to pay for benefits authorized under this chapter and Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 14000). Contracts entered into pursuant to this article may be awarded on a bid or nonbid basis.

14499.71. For the purposes of this article, "fiscal intermediary" means an entity that agrees to pay for covered services provided to Medi-Cal eligibles in exchange for a premium, subscription charge, or capitation payment; to assume an underwriting risk; and is either licensed by the Commissioner of Corporations under the Knox-Keene Health Care Service Plan Act of 1975 (Chapter 2.2 (commencing with Section 1340) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code) or is licensed as a nonprofit hospital service plan by the Insurance Commissioner pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 11493 of the Insurance Code and Sections 11501 to 11505, inclusive, of the Insurance Code.

14499.73. A contract entered into under this article shall provide that a fiscal intermediary meets both of the following criteria:

(a) The fiscal intermediary shall provide or arrange for an adequate number of primary care physicians and supportive specialty care physicians.

(b) The fiscal intermediary shall implement a management and information reporting system in order to determine the costs of each type of health care service rendered to Medi-Cal recipients.

14499.74. In determining the capitated rates to be paid to a fiscal intermediary during the first year of contracting under this article, the department shall utilize an acceptable actuarial process and historical data concerning Medi-Cal recipients in the geographical area which will, or is being, served by the fiscal intermediary. During the remaining years of the contract with the fiscal intermediary, the department shall utilize data concerning Medi-Cal expenditures for delivery of services based on the fee-for-service experience in comparable geographic areas. The capitated rates shall not exceed the total per capita amount (including the cost of adjustments to provide actuarial equivalence) which would be payable for all services and requirements covered under the fiscal intermediary contract adopted pursuant to this article if all those services and requirements were to be furnished to Medi-Cal beneficiaries under the fee-for-service Medi-Cal program provided for by Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 14000).

14499.75. A fiscal intermediary may contract for the provision of services with any provider who would be eligible to provide services if services were to be provided on a fee-for-service basis without the use of a fiscal intermediary pursuant to this article.

14499.77. All services, except those specified for exclusion by the department, received by Medi-Cal recipients residing in the geographical area served by the fiscal intermediary shall be paid for by the fiscal intermediary. Services shall be provided only by providers which have entered into agreements with the fiscal intermediary, unless authorized by the fiscal intermediary.

SEC. 5. The State Department of Health Services shall adopt any regulations necessary to implement this act.

SEC. 6. (a) Any provision of this act which is in conflict with any federal statute or regulation shall be inapplicable to the extent of the conflict, subject to subdivision (c), but the remainder of the provisions shall be unaffected to the extent no conflict exists.

(b) The State Department of Health Services shall seek all federal waivers necessary to implement this act. The provisions for which federal waivers cannot be obtained shall not be implemented, but provisions for which waivers are either obtained or found to be unnecessary shall be unaffected by the inability to obtain federal waivers for the other provisions.

(c) If any provisions of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

SEC. 7. No reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) and any other provisions of law.

CHAPTER 1580

An act to add Section 35155.5 to the Government Code, relating to local agencies.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 35155.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

35155.5. If the report filed pursuant to Section 54794 indicates that more than 50 percent of the land proposed for incorporation is owned by or dedicated to the use of a city or county and that the proposed incorporation would result in a revenue loss to that city or county, and at the hearing held pursuant to Section 35155 the board of supervisors of the county or city council of the city presents a resolution objecting to the incorporation, no further proceedings shall be conducted by the commission and no new proposal involving incorporation of substantially the same territory shall be initiated for one year.

In the absence of a resolution of objection from a city or county, the commission may approve the proposal only if it imposes as a condition thereto that the newly incorporated city may not adopt any regulation or policy which would have a negative fiscal impact on any contract existing at the time of the incorporation which is related to the publicly owned land.

This section shall not preclude the completion of proceedings to incorporate territory which is the subject of incorporation proceedings filed with the executive officer of the commission prior to February 15, 1986.

The task force members shall be appointed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The task force shall, by September 30, 1987, survey existing child health care training curricula, materials, and dissemination efforts, develop a child health care curriculum and materials to meet the intent of subdivision (a), and determine the most efficient cost-effective method of delivering this training in a readily accessible manner to licensed child care providers across the state, the feasibility of requiring this training as a condition of licensure for child day care facilities licensed as described in subdivision (a), reasonable time periods in which the training shall be acquired by persons who are in licensed facilities, how often child care providers shall update their training, the type of other coursework which may substitute for this training, and the feasibility of requiring this training for family day care operators.

(f) The State Department of Education may contract with an independent consultant to coordinate the efforts of this task force and shall provide secretarial support.

(g) The State Department of Education may contract with an independent consultant for the period of October 1, 1987, to March 31, 1988, to make the training program operational.

CHAPTER 1583

An act to amend Section 321.2 of the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Sections 14053 and 14132 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to health.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 321.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

321.2. The governing body of each county or counties shall establish a community child health and disability prevention program for the purpose of providing early and periodic assessments of the health status of children in the county or counties by July 1, 1974. However, this shall be the responsibility of the department for all counties which contract with the state for health services. Contract counties, at the option of the board of supervisors, may provide services pursuant to this article in the same manner as other county programs, provided such option is exercised prior to the beginning of each fiscal year. Each such plan shall include, but is not limited to, the following requirements:

(a) Outreach and educational services.

(b) Agreements with public and private facilities and practitioners to carry out the programs.

(c) Health screening and evaluation services including, for all children eligible for Medi-Cal, a physical examination, immunizations appropriate for their age and health history, and laboratory procedures appropriate for their age and population group.

(d) Referral for diagnosis or treatment when needed, including, for all children eligible for Medi-Cal, referral for treatment by a provider participating in the Medi-Cal program of the conditions detected, and methods for assuring referral is carried out.

(e) Recordkeeping and program evaluations.

The health screening and evaluation part of each community child health and disability prevention program plan shall include, but is not limited to, the following for each child:

(a) A health and development history.

(b) An assessment of physical growth.

(c) An examination for obvious physical defects.

(d) Ear, nose, mouth, and throat inspection, including inspection of teeth and gums, and for all children three years of age and older who are eligible for Medi-Cal, referral to a dentist participating in the Medi-Cal program.

(e) Screening tests for vision, hearing, anemia, tuberculosis, diabetes, and urinary tract conditions.

(f) An assessment of nutritional status.

(g) An assessment of immunization status.

(h) Where appropriate, testing for sickle cell trait, lead poisoning, and other tests which may be necessary to the identification of children with potential disabilities requiring diagnosis and possibly treatment.

(i) For all children eligible for Medi-Cal, necessary assistance with scheduling appointments for services and with transportation.

(j) The State Department of Health Services shall report to the Legislature, by April 15, 1986, on all necessary steps to improve access to preventive dental care for children eligible for Medi-Cal, such as streamlining reimbursement procedures, increasing fees for specific preventive dental procedures, or increasing fees in specific geographic areas.

(k) Dentists receiving referrals of children eligible for Medi-Cal under this section shall employ procedures to advise the child's parent or parents of the need for and scheduling of annual appointments.

Standards for procedures to carry out health screening and evaluation services and to establish the age at which particular tests should be carried out shall be established by the director, with review and recommendation by the board. However, a governing body may include additional health screening and evaluation procedures in its program if approved by the director and the board.

Each community child health and disability prevention program shall, pursuant to standards set by the director, establish a record system which contains a health case history for each child so that costly and unnecessary repetition of screening, immunization and referral will not occur and appropriate health treatment will be facilitated as specified in Section 323.5.

SEC. 2. Section 14053 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

Any individual under 21 years of age receiving inpatient psychiatric hospital services immediately preceding the date on which he or she attains age 21 may continue to receive these services until he or she attains age 22. The term also includes early and periodic screening, diagnosis, and treatment for any individual under 21 years of age.

the beneficiary's control. The department's utilization controls shall not require X-rays as a condition of reimbursement for fillings for children under 18 years of age. The department may, where available, use X-rays taken in the ordinary course of diagnosis to determine the necessity of, and appropriate reimbursement for, fillings. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the director may by regulation provide for certain fixed artificial dentures necessary for obtaining employment or for medical conditions which preclude the use of removable dental prostheses, and for orthodontic services in cleft palate deformities administered by the department's crippled children services program.

(t) In-home medical care services are covered when medically appropriate and subject to utilization controls, for beneficiaries who would otherwise require care for an extended period of time in an acute care hospital at a cost higher than in-home medical care services. The director shall have the authority under this section to contract with organizations qualified to provide in-home medical care services to such persons. Such services may be provided to patients placed in facilities such as skilled nursing or intermediate care facilities, or to persons in shared or congregate living arrangements, if a home setting is not medically appropriate or available to the beneficiary. The provisions for which appropriate federal waivers cannot be obtained shall not be implemented. (x) When a claim for treatment provided to a beneficiary includes both services which are authorized and reimbursable under this chapter, and services which are not reimbursable under this chapter, that portion of the claim for the treatment and services authorized and reimbursable under this chapter shall be payable.

An act to add and repeal Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 50840) and Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 50850) to Part 2 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code, and to amend and repeal Section 6217 of the Public Resources Code, relating to housing.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 50840) is added to Part 2 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 13. HOUSING TRUST FUND

50840. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that current economic conditions, federal housing policies, and declining resources on the federal and state level adversely affect the ability of lower and very low income households to obtain adequate and affordable housing.

The Legislature further finds that increasing rents result in hardships for those least able to afford housing. Approximately 1,600,000 lower income renters, which comprise over 18 percent of all households, pay more than 25 percent of their income for housing and nearly 1,100,000 pay more than 35 percent of their income for housing.

The Legislature further finds that many elderly renters pay excessive amounts of their income for housing. Over 65 percent of all elderly renter households pay more than 25 percent of their income for housing and over one-quarter pay more than 50 percent of their income for housing.

The Legislature further finds that over 650,000 persons, which is more than 7 percent of all households, live in overcrowded conditions which are threatening to their health and safety.

The Legislature declares that it is in the public interest to establish a housing trust fund to assist lower and very low income households in meeting their housing needs.

50841. There is hereby created in the State Treasury the California Housing Trust Fund which shall only be available for the exclusive trust purposes specified in Section 50842 upon appropriation by the Legislature. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, all money in the fund is continuously appropriated for the purposes of Section 50842. There shall be paid into the fund the following:

(a) Any moneys appropriated and made available by the Legislature for the purposes of the fund.

(b) Any other moneys which may be made available to the fund for the purposes of the fund from any other source or sources.

All interest or other increment resulting from investment or deposit of moneys in the fund shall be deposited in the fund, notwithstanding Section 16305.7 of the Government Code. Except as otherwise provided by this chapter, or unless specifically appropriated by the Legislature to other funds established pursuant to this division, moneys in the fund shall not be subject to transfer to any other fund pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 16300) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, except the Surplus Money Investment Fund.

50842. (a) Revenues deposited in the California Housing Trust Fund may only be expended for housing programs or those portions of housing programs authorized by law which serve lower and very low income households, as defined in Sections 50079.5 and 50105, respectively.

Not less than 20 percent of the revenues deposited annually in the fund shall be expended in rural areas, as defined by Section 50101, and one-fourth of the funds committed to rural areas in fiscal years 1986–87 and 1987–88 shall be distributed to the Farm Labor Housing Rehabilitation Loan Account established by Section 50854.

50843. This chapter shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1989, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 50850) is added to Part 2 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 14. FARM LABOR HOUSING REHABILITATION LOAN PROGRAM

50850. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that affordable housing for transient and resident farmworkers is a scarce and diminishing resource. Increasing numbers of these housing units are in deteriorating condition because they cannot be economically maintained and repaired.

(b) The Legislature finds and declares that it is to the economic benefit of the state and a public purpose to encourage the availability and preservation of decent, safe, and sanitary farmworker housing in order to add to the stock of low- and moderate-income housing in this state, to enhance the economic activities of all segments of the state's agricultural industry, and to rehabilitate existing substandard employee housing rather than destroy that housing.

50851. The Legislature finds that it is too speculative to determine the income levels of the agricultural workers residing in rehabilitated housing at any given time and that many agricultural workers earn sufficient income, when they are employed, to qualify as persons and families of moderate income. Therefore, the Legislature finds and declares that the farmworker housing assisted pursuant to this chapter is not a low-rent housing project, as defined by Section 1 of Article XXXIV of the California Constitution.

50852. For the purposes of this chapter:

(a) "Account" means the Farm Labor Housing Rehabilitation Loan Account created pursuant to Section 50854.

(b) "Agricultural worker" or "farmworker" has the same meaning as specified in subdivision (b) of Section 1140.4 of the Labor Code.

(c) "Farmworker housing" means housing within the meaning of the term labor camp, as defined by Section 17008.

50853. There is a Farm Labor Housing Rehabilitation Loan Program within the Division of Community Affairs in the department which shall be administered by the director. The director may make loans under the program to owners of farmworker housing. Those loans shall be utilized solely for the rehabilitation of that housing. Loans made by the director pursuant to this chapter shall be made in consultation with the local government in the jurisdiction in which the housing to be rehabilitated is located.

50854. (a) The Farm Labor Housing Rehabilitation Loan Account is hereby established in the Farmworkers Housing Grant Fund created by Section 50517.5. All money in the account shall, upon appropriation by the Legislature, be utilized for the purposes of this chapter. All interest or other increment resulting from investment or deposit of money in the account shall be deposited in the account, notwithstanding Section 16305.7 of the Government Code. Moneys in the account shall not be subject to transfer to any other fund or account pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 16300) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, except the Surplus Money Investment Fund.

(b) There shall be paid into the account all of the following.

(1) Any moneys appropriated to the account by the Legislature.

(2) Any moneys which the department receives in repayment of loans made from the account, including any interest or penalty on those loans.

(3) Any other moneys which may be made available to the department for the purposes of this chapter from any other source.

(c) No more than 3 percent of the funds appropriated to the account may be utilized by the department for personnel or to contract for services necessary to administer this chapter.

50855. The director may make loans from the account to private owners or operators of farmworker housing in an amount not to exceed 50 percent of the amount necessary to rehabilitate that housing in order to bring the housing into compliance with the requirements of the Employee Housing Act, Part 1 (commencing with Section 17000) of Division 13, as determined by the enforcement agency. The rate of interest on loans made pursuant to this chapter shall not exceed 7 percent per annum. The director shall rank requests for loans and shall grant priority to those requests which ensure that the lowest feasible rents, as determined by the department, will be charged for farmworker housing during the period of the loan.

50856. (a) The recipient of the loan shall enter into those agreements required by the department to further the purposes of this chapter. The recipient of the loan shall agree that housing units rehabilitated with the loan shall be utilized, maintained, and operated pursuant to this chapter for at least the term of the loan. If at any time prior to the end of the term of the loan the housing units cease to be utilized, maintained, and operated pursuant to this chapter, the department may declare any remaining balance on the loan immediately due and payable.

(b) The department shall develop and utilize security instruments necessary to ensure that the owner of the farmworker housing complies with the terms and conditions of the program. In addition, the owner and the department shall enter into a contract or regulatory agreement, or both, which shall include, but need not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) The location and number of housing units assisted under the program and the amounts of the rents charged.

(2) A requirement that the owner prepare an annual report to ensure that all relevant and applicable laws are complied with in the rehabilitation, use, operation, and maintenance of the units.

(3) A provision that permits the loan to be assumed and the covenants and conditions of the loan to be binding upon successors in interest of the owner of the units.

50857. The department shall adopt regulations in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code for the administration of this chapter. The regulations shall include, but need not be limited to, all of the following:

(a) A plan for distributing loans pursuant to this chapter based on all of the following factors:

(1) The availability of other public or private assistance to ensure lower rents or lower costs for housing assisted under the program.

(2) The degree of utilization of the housing.

(3) The seriousness of the condition of the housing as measured by the rehabilitation necessary to bring the housing into compliance with the Employee Housing Act, Part 1 (commencing with Section 1700) of Division 13, as determined by the enforcement agency.

(b) A provision for a loan term of five years with an option for an additional five years.

(c) Criteria for determining the interest rate at which loans shall be made, based on the rent to be paid by the residents, the period of time the housing will be available to farmworkers, and the number of units assisted.

(d) The terms, conditions, and interest rates on the loans, including, but not limited to, the rent to be paid by the residents, the period of time the housing will be available to farmworkers, and the number of units assisted.

50858. The farmworker housing assisted pursuant to this chapter shall only be available to, and occupied by, farmworkers. However, in the event of a natural disaster or other critical occurrence, as determined by the department, the housing may be utilized at the discretion of the owner for households without shelter for up to 30 days if there are no farmworkers who have submitted an application to reside in the housing.

50859. This chapter shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1989, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 6217 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

6217. With the exception of revenues derived from state school lands and from sources described in Sections 6217.6, 6301.5, 6301.6, 6855, and 8551 to 8558, inclusive, and Section 6406 (insofar as the proceeds are from property which has been distributed or escheated to the state in connection with unclaimed estates of deceased persons), the commission shall deposit in the State Treasury all revenues, moneys, and remittances received by it under this division, and under Chapter 138 of the Statutes of 1964, First Extraordinary Session, and these sums shall be applied to the following obligations in the following order:

(a) To the General Fund the revenue necessary to provide in any fiscal year for the following:

During the 1988–89 fiscal year, the Legislature shall consider recommendations from the Secretary of the Resources Agency and other interested parties on the benefits to the people of the State of California derived from this program and shall determine whether or not to continue similar appropriations for subsequent fiscal years.

There shall be an advisory panel to the Secretary of the Resources Agency consisting of 13 members, which shall do all of the following:

(1) Identify state needs which might be met through Sea Grant research projects, including, but not limited to, such fields as living marine resources, aquaculture, ocean engineering, marine minerals, public recreation, coastal physical processes and coastal and ocean resources planning and management, and marine data acquisition and dissemination, establish priorities for those needs, and transmit those needs and priorities to the Legislature not later than January 1 of each year and include them in all announcements of proposals for grants in the following fiscal year.

(2) Review all applications for funding under this section and make recommendations based upon the priorities it establishes.

(3) Periodically review progress on Sea Grant research projects subsequent to their approval and funding under this section.

(a) The department, in consultation with the commission, the Area Agency on Aging Advisory Council of California, the California Association of Area Agencies on Aging, and representatives of provider groups, shall review the existing intrastate funding formula, established pursuant to Section 9315, for the allocation of state and federal funds provided for programs under Title III of the federal Older Americans Act (42 U.S.C. 3021 et seq.). The department shall update the formula in accordance with federal regulations and shall submit a report thereon to the chairperson of the fiscal committee of each house of the Legislature and the Chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, no later than December 1, 1986. Changes to the intrastate funding formula may only be made by the Legislature.

(b) The department and commission shall hold hearings and present alternative criteria for public input relative to the funding formula provided for under subdivision (a).

(c) The department, based upon analysis and testimony provided for pursuant to subdivision (b), and information provided by the public, shall develop an implementation plan with cost factors to achieve parity amongst the area agencies on aging in California .

(d) The department shall ensure that priority consideration shall be given to criteria which reflect the state's intent to target services to those in greatest economic or social need, including, but not limited to, the low-income, non-English speaking, minority, and frail elderly.

(e) The department shall report to the Legislature on the activities provided for in this section no later than December 1, 1986.

SEC. 2. Section 9354 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

9354. (a) All planning and service areas shall use no more than 10 percent of their annual total baseline allocation received pursuant to Title III B of the federal Older Americans Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 3030(d)) for program development, advocacy, and coordination.

(b) Area agencies on aging shall not use state match funds for the purpose of program development, advocacy, and coordination.

(c) Program development activities are those activities which either establish a new service or improve, expand, or integrate existing services. These activities shall achieve a specific goal or objective and occur within a specific time frame.

(d) Of the allowable 10 percent available for program development, advocacy, and coordination activities, at least 20 percent shall be budgeted for advocacy activities by area agency on aging advisory councils.

(e) All other activities not specifically budgeted as advocacy, but undertaken on behalf of advisory council operations, shall be charged to area plan administration and shall be subject to any limitations on the amount of funds which are allocated for administration of the area plan.

(f) Any General Fund augmentation, made after the effective date of the Budget Act of 1985, of programs provided for under Title III of the federal Older Americans Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 3021, et seq.) that results in an expansion of activities or services at the local level shall include up to a 5 percent administrative allocation. The distribution of the administrative funds shall be proportionate to the distribution of the augmentation funds received by each area agency on aging.

SEC. 3. Section 9355 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

9355. (a) Transfers between Title III-(C)(1) and III-(C)(2) of the federal Older Americans Act (42 U.S.C. 3001, et seq.) may be made to the extent permitted by federal law.

Transfers between state congregate and home-delivered meals program funds shall be unrestricted to allow for maximum flexibility in meeting local nutrition needs.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), no more than 5 percent of the funds received under Title III-C of the Older Americans Act by either the department or by individual area agencies on aging, shall be transferred to provide services under other titles of the Older Americans Act or for other uses, until both of the following conditions, within each Planning and Service Area, have been satisfied:

(1) The priorities specified in subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 4 of Chapter 616, of the Statutes of 1984, which address the issues of reducing the number of elderly persons who are currently on waiting lists, and increasing the number of days per week that meals are provided under the home-delivered meals program from five to seven have been fully implemented.

(2) The proportion of the elderly minority and ethnic served within both the congregate and home-delivered meal programs is at least equal to the proportion of elderly minority and ethnic persons who reside within each of the thirty-three designated planning and service areas. Definitions of ethnic and minority proportions shall be based upon the most current United States Bureau of the Census data.

(c) Transfers from Title III-C (2) to Title III-B are only permitted either when the conditions specified in subdivision (b) have been met or upon the approval of the director. The department may allow unrestricted transfers in the thirty-three Planning and Service Areas that do not meet the requirements specified in subdivision (b) upon a demonstration to the director's satisfaction that a good faith effort has been made to meet these requirements and upon the submission of goals and methodologies to satisfy these requirements.

(d) This section shall supersede any contrary provisions of law, including language in the Budget Act of 1985.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

The existing formula for the distribution of Older Americans Act and General Fund dollars create significant underfunding for these crucial programs, and in order to ameliorate the underfunding as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1590

An act to add Section 51206 of the Education Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 51206 is added to the Education Code, to read:

51206. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the physical fitness and motor development of children in the public elementary schools is of equal importance to that of other elements of the curriculum.

The Legislature further finds that, in order to improve the level of physical education in the elementary grades, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall, through the regular budget process, employ an elementary physical education specialist to develop model curriculum standards in physical education for grades 1 to 8, inclusive, provide technical assistance to teachers, and assist school districts in the development of their physical education programs.

An act to add Section 25200.6 to, and to add Article 5.5 (commencing with Section 25159.10) to Chapter 6.5 of Division 20 of, the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Sections 13260, 13264, and 13360 of, and to add Sections 13051 and 13263.5 to, the Water Code, relating to waste.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985. Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 5.5 (commencing with Section 25159.10) is added to Chapter 6.5 of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 5.5. The Toxic Injection Well Control Act of 1985

25159.10. The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Specific state laws and regulations have been enacted to prevent leaks and hazardous waste discharges to land, such as those from underground storage tanks, surface impoundments, pits, ponds, or lagoons.

(b) The present federal law which regulates the discharge of hazardous waste to land in injection wells is inadequate to fully protect California's water supplies from contamination. As a result, underground injection of hazardous waste presents a serious short-term and long-term threat to the quality of waters in the state.

(c) State-of-the-art design and operation safeguards of injection wells without adequate groundwater monitoring, specific geological information, and other system safeguards cannot guarantee that migration of hazardous wastes into underground sources of drinking water will not occur.

(d) Monitoring requirements specified in federal law are not adequate to detect all leaks from injection wells and there are no requirements in federal law for monitoring the movement of wastes in the substrata to ensure that wastes have not escaped the injection zone or are not reacting with, or have not breached the confining strata.

(e) Injecting wastes into wells deep in the geological substrata is an unproven method for the containment of wastes because, among other things, hazardous wastes can react with geological substrata, rendering these containment barriers ineffective, pressure of the injected wastes can breach containment layers, and active or abandoned wells in the vicinity of waste injection can serve as a conduit for the wastes to migrate to drinking water supplies.

(f) Restoring contaminated groundwater to its original state after the fact and removal or cleanup of wastes once injected to these depths are formidable tasks which are not typically economically feasible.

(g) It is in the public interest to establish a continuing program for the purpose of preventing contamination from underground injection of waste. It is the intent of the Legislature to prohibit any injection of hazardous wastes into or above drinking water in the state, and to prohibit any injection of hazardous waste below drinking water in the state which is not properly permitted and monitored so as to prevent hazardous wastes from migrating to drinking water or otherwise endangering the environment of the state.

(h) It is the intent of the Legislature that the Legislature will provide a process for the public and industry to appeal the actions or inactions of the department under this article. However, the specific process cannot be developed until the Legislature determines the general organization of the department with regard to administration of hazardous waste management programs.

25159.11. This article shall be known and may be cited as the Toxic Injection Well Control Act of 1985.

25159.12. For purposes of this article, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Annulus" means the space between the outside edge of the injection tube and the well casing.

(b) "State board" means the State Water Resources Control Board.

(c) "Compatibility" means that waste constituents do not react with each other, with the materials constituting the injection well, or with fluids or solid geologic media in the injection zone or confining zone in such a manner as to cause leaching, precipitation of solids, gas or pressure buildup, dissolution, or any other effect which will impair the effectiveness of the confining zone or the safe operation of the injection well.

(d) "Confining zone" means the geological formation, or part of a formation, which is intended to be a barrier to prevent the migration of waste constituents from the injection zone.

(e) "Constituent" means an element, chemical, compound, or mixture of compounds which is a component of a hazardous waste or leachate and which has the physical or chemical properties that cause the waste to be identified as hazardous waste by the department pursuant to this chapter.

(f) "Discharge" means to place, inject, dispose of, or store hazardous wastes into, or in, an injection well owned or operated by the person who is conducting the placing, disposal, or storage.

(g) "Drinking water" has the same meaning as "potential source of drinking water," as defined in subdivision (s) of Section 25208.2.

(6) A description of any method used to monitor the well for leaks and migration into surrounding soils or groundwater.

(c) Each statement shall be accompanied by a fee specified in the fee schedule adopted by the department pursuant to Section 25159.19, set in an amount sufficient to cover the reasonable costs of the department in administering this section.

(d) Any person who fails to submit the statement and the fee for each injection well to the department by January 1, 1987, is subject to a civil penalty in an amount of not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) and not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) per day for each day the statement has not been received. Any person who submits false information to the department is subject to a civil penalty in an amount of not less than two thousand dollars ($2,000) and not more than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) per day for each day the false information goes uncorrected.

(e) The department shall compile the hazardous waste injection statements by each city and county within which the well is located. These compilations shall be transmitted to the state board, the appropriate regional boards, cities, and counties on or before July 1, 1987.

(f) The department shall submit to the Legislature, on or before January 1, 1988, a report, based on the compilation of the hazardous waste injection statements made pursuant to subdivision (e) and any other information available to the department, which details the injection well sites which have resulted in contamination of land, air, or water and describing any proposed enforcement and remedial actions.

(g) This section applies only to injection wells into which hazardous waste is discharged.

25159.15. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, on or after January 1, 1986, a person shall not discharge hazardous waste into an injection well which commences operation on or after January 1, 1986, and after January 1, 1988, a person shall not discharge hazardous waste into an injection well which commenced operation before January 1, 1986, unless all of the following conditions are met:

(1) Unless granted an exemption pursuant to subdivision (b), no point along the length of the injection well, as measured either horizontally or vertically, is located within one-half mile of drinking water.

(2) The person has received a hazardous waste facilities permit for the well issued pursuant to Section 25200.6.

(3) The injection well does not discharge hazardous waste into or above a formation which contains a source of drinking water within one-half mile of the well.

(b) A person may apply to the department to exempt an injection well from paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) if the person has received a hazardous waste facilities permit and the person has filed a report pursuant to Section 25159.18 with the department on or before January 1, 1987, which has been approved by the department, pursuant to Section 25159.18. If the person proposes to commence operation of an injection well on or after January 1, 1986, the person shall file the request for an exemption and the report at least one year before any proposed discharge or injection.

(c) The department shall either grant or deny an exemption from paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) on or before December 31, 1987, or within one year after receipt of the application for a proposed injection well. The department may grant an exemption from paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) only if the department makes all of the following written findings, and supports these findings by citing specific evidence presented in the report or provided to the department:

(1) The hydrogeology report prepared pursuant to Section 25159.18 is current, accurate, and complete.

(2) No hazardous waste constituents have migrated from that portion of the injection well located above the injection zone or have migrated from the injection zone.

(3) Practical alternative technologies, other than well injection, do not exist to reduce, treat, or dispose of the hazardous wastes which are to be discharged.

(4) Continuing or commencing the operation of the injection well does not pose a potential of hazardous waste constituents migrating from that portion of the injection well located above the injection zone or migrating from the injection zone and a monitoring program pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 25159.17 has been installed, or for a proposed injection well, the monitoring program has been designed and will be installed before any discharge or injections into the well.

(d) An exemption granted pursuant to subdivision (c) shall not be effective for more than five years. Applications for an exemption, or a renewal of an exemption, shall be accompanied by the fee specified in the fee schedules adopted by the department pursuant to Section 25159.19. A regional board shall not renew the exemption unless it makes all of the findings in subdivision (c).

(e) The department shall revoke an exemption granted pursuant to subdivision (c) if the department determines that there is migration of hazardous wastes, or a threat of migration of hazardous wastes, from the well into any strata or the waters of the state outside the injection zone. The department shall then prohibit the discharge of any hazardous waste into the injection well, require appropriate removal and remedial actions by the person granted the exemption, and require the responsible parties to take appropriate removal and remedial actions.

(f) The state board, the regional boards, and the department shall establish procedures providing for the interagency transfer and review of applications for exemption received pursuant to subdivision (b).

(g) This section applies only to injection wells into which hazardous waste is discharged.

25159.16. (a) If the department or regional board determines that there is migration of hazardous waste constituents, or a threat of migration of hazardous waste constituents, from an injection well into any strata or waters of the state outside the injection zone, the department shall prohibit the discharge of any hazardous waste into the injection well until removal and remedial actions have been conducted to abate the migration or threat.

(b) The department shall determine, after the remedial and removal actions required pursuant to subdivision (a) are completed, whether the injection well should be continued to be used for the discharge of hazardous wastes. The department shall not approve the continued use of the injection well for the discharge of hazardous waste unless the department makes both of the following determinations:

(1) The removal or remedial action abated the contamination, or threat of contamination, from the migration or threat of migration.

(2) There is no potential, in continuing the operation of the injection well, for any future migration of hazardous waste constituents, from that portion of the injection well located above the injection zone, or from the injection zone.

The department shall make these determinations pursuant to a public hearing for which the department shall provide notice to all residents in the affected area, as determined by the department, and by mail to all persons listed on any mailing lists compiled by the regional board.

(c) If the department determines, pursuant to subdivision (b), that an injection well should not continue to be used for the discharge of hazardous wastes, the department shall require that all hazardous waste discharges be permanently terminated at the well and that the owner of the well take all actions necessary to prepare the injection well for closure pursuant to subdivision (d) and for postclosure maintenance which are required pursuant to the Federal Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6901 et seq.), the regulations adopted by the United States Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to the Safe Drinking Water Act for proper closure, plugging, and monitoring of injection wells, and the regulations adopted by the state board and the department for closure of hazardous waste management units.

(d) Before any injection well used for the discharge of hazardous waste is closed, the department shall require the owner to certify that the well is in a state of static equilibrium, all defects or damages in the well casing are corrected prior to closure, that closure is sufficient to prevent the movement of fluids from the injection zone, and that all closure will commence within six months from the date the department orders closure. The injection well shall also be closed in accordance with the following requirements:

(1) Fluids and gases shall be confined to the stratum in which they occur by the use of cement grout or other suitable material. The amount, type, kind of material, and method of placement shall be approved by the department and the well shall be filled from bottom to top with the approved material.

(2) No well shall be sealed without the prior approval of the department. The person responsible for well closure shall submit a sealing plan to the department at least 90 days prior to the proposed date of sealing. The department may require that a representative of the department observe that sealing.

(e) The department shall consult with the regional board and the Division of Oil and Gas, where necessary, to fulfill the requirements of subdivision (d).

(f) This section applies only to injection wells into which hazardous waste is discharged.

25159.17. (a) The department shall make an inspection at least once each year of all facilities with injection wells into which hazardous waste is discharged. The owner shall tabulate the monitoring data recovered, pursuant to subdivision (c), monthly. The department shall review the data specified in paragraphs (1), (2), and (3), of subdivision (c) monthly and the data specified in paragraph (4) of subdivision (c) quarterly to ensure that all injection wells into which hazardous waste is discharged comply with this chapter and that any equipment or programs required pursuant to this article are operating properly.

(b) The department shall require complete mechanical integrity testing of the well bore at least once a year and shall require pressure tests at least once every six months. The testing program shall be designed to detect defects, damage, and corrosion in the well, well casings, injection tube, packer, cement, and the screened or perforated portion of the well.

(c) The operator of an injection well into which hazardous waste is discharged shall conduct monitoring of the surface equipment, the well, and the movement of injected wastes, in the following manner:

(1) Injection fluids shall be sampled and analyzed at least monthly to yield representative data of their characteristics at all injection wells located at onsite facilities. If the injection well is located at an offsite facility, the fluids shall be sampled and analyzed every time the composition of the hazardous waste discharged into the injection well is different than the waste discharged immediately prior to the new discharge.

(2) Pressure gauges shall be installed and maintained in proper operating condition at all times on the injection tubing and annulus.

(3) Continuous recording devices shall be installed and maintained in proper operating condition at all times to record injection temperatures and pressures, injection flow rates, injection volumes, and annulus pressure.

(4) The monistoring system, including all monitoring wells, shall be constructed and operated in accordance with the standards specified in subdivision (p) of Section 25159.18. The design of the monitoring system and location and number of monitoring wells shall be approved by the department. Monitoring wells shall be sufficient in number and location for compliance with the monitoring requirements specified in subdivision (p) of Section 25159.18, the federal regulations adopted pursuant to the Safe Drinking Water Act, and for determining all of the following:

(d) The operator of an injection well shall equip the surface facilities of an injection well into which hazardous waste is discharged with shutoff devices, alarms, and fencing.

(e) The department shall require all abandoned water wells within three miles of a facility to be closed in accordance with standards at least as stringent as those set forth in the Department of Water Resources Bulletin No. 74-81.

(f) The department may require any subsurface structure or hole which is contaminated, may become contaminated, provides a potential conduit for contamination, or penetrates a formation containing drinking water to be closed in accordance with standards at least as stringent as those set forth in the Department of Water Resources Bulletin No. 74-81. If the subsurface structure or hole is an oil or gas well, the well shall be closed pursuant to the regulations adopted by the Division of Oil and Gas. If the subsurface structure is an injection well into which hazardous waste is discharged, the injection well shall be closed in accordance with the procedures specified in subdivision (d) of Section 25159.16.

(g) The regional board shall revise any existing waste discharge requirements, issued for any injection well into which hazardous waste is discharged, pursuant to Section 13263 of the Water Code, based upon a review of the report, and shall include conditions in the waste discharge requirements to ensure that the waters of the state are not polluted or threatened with pollution.

(h) This section applies only to injection wells into which hazardous waste is discharged.

25159.18. Any person who applies to the department for a hazardous waste facilities permit, or for the renewal or revision of a hazardous waste facilities permit, for the discharge of hazardous wastes into an injection well, including any proposed injection well, shall submit a hydrogeological assessment report to the department and to the appropriate regional board six months before applying for a hazardous waste facilities permit. A qualified person shall be responsible for the preparation of the report and shall certify its completeness and accuracy. The department shall not approve the report unless the department finds that the report is current, accurate, and complete, and that no hazardous waste constituents have migrated from the portion of the injection well located above the injection zone or have migrated from the injection zone. (3) The geologic stability and long-term integrity of the receiving formation.

(4) An assessment of compatibility of waste, formation fluids, and formation lithology. This shall include a description of short range and long range changes anticipated in the physical and chemical state of the receiving formation in its fluids through chemical reaction and interaction with injection fluids.

(k) All of the following information for the confining zone:

(1) A description of its chemical and physical properties, including its age, composition, thickness, vertical and lateral continuity, unconformities, permeability, transmissivity, compressibility, porosity, density, and subsurface stress.

(2) The minimum amount of pressure which would fracture the confining zone, calculated specifically for the particular confining zone, a description of the number and types of existing fractures, faults, and cavities, and an analysis as to whether fractures were created or enlarged by past injection of wastes.

(3) The geologic stability and long-term integrity of the confining zone.

(4) Anticipated short range and long range changes in the physical state of the confining zone through chemical reaction and interaction with injection fluids.

(5) An estimate of the rate of migration of the hazardous waste constituents through the confining zone.

(l) A geologic cross section and description of the composition of each stratum through which the injection well is drilled. This description shall include a physical, chemical, and hydrogeolog cal characterization of both the consolidated and unconsolidated rock material, including lithology, mineralogy, texture, bedding, thickness, and permeability. It shall also include an analysis for pollutants, including those constituents discharged into the injection well. The report shall arrange all monitoring data in a tabular form so that the dates, the constituents, and the concentrations are readily discernible.

(m) A description of surface facilities, including, but not limited to, pressure gauges, automatic shutoff devices, alarms, fencing, specifications for valves and pipe fittings, and operator training and requirements.

(n) A description of contingency plans for well failures and shutdowns to prevent migration of contaminants from the well.

(o) A description of the monitoring being conducted to detect migration of hazardous waste constituents, including the number and positioning of the monitoring wells, the monitoring wells' distances from the injection well, the monitoring wells' design data, the monitoring wells' installation, the monitoring development procedures, the sampling and analytical methodologies, the sampling frequency, and the chemical constituents analyzed. The design data of the monitoring wells shall include the monitoring wells' depth, the monitoring wells' diameters, the monitoring wells' casing materials, the perforated intervals within the well, the size of the perforations, the gradation of the filter pack, and the extent of the wells' annular seals.

(p) Documentation demonstrating that the monitoring system and methods used at the facility can detect any seepage, including any leaks, cracks, or malfunctions in the well or a breach of the confining zone, before the hazardous waste constituents migrate from the well above the injection zone or from the confining zone. This documentation shall include, but is not limited to, substantiation of all of the following:

(1) The monitoring system is effective enough, and includes a sufficient number of monitoring wells in the major water bearing zones, which are located close enough to the injection well casing and to the injection zone, to verify that no lateral and vertical migration of any constituents discharged into the well is occurring outside of the injection zone.

(2) Monitoring wells are not located within the influence of any adjacent pumping wells which might impair their effectiveness.

(3) Monitoring wells are only screened in the aquifer to be monitored and are monitored for both pressure and water quality.

(4) The chosen casing material does not adversely react with the potential contaminants of major concern at the facility.

(5) The casing diameter allows an adequate amount of water to be removed during sampling and allows full development of the monitor well.

(6) Monitoring wells are constructed so as not to provide potential conduits for migration of pollution, and the wells' construction features, including annular seals, prevent pollutants from migrating up or down the monitoring well.

(7) The methods of water sample collection require that the samples are transported and handled in accordance with the regulations adopted by the United States Geological Survey (pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 31) of Title 43 of the United States Code) concerning the guidelines for collection and analysis of groundwater samples for selected unstable constituents. For all monitoring wells, except those extending into the injection zone, the sample shall be collected after at least five well volumes have been removed from the well.

(8) The hazardous waste constituents selected for analysis are specific to the facility, taking into account the chemical composition of hazardous wastes previously discharged into the injection well. The monitoring data shall be arranged in tabular form so that the date, the constituents, and the concentrations are readily discernible.

(9) The frequency of monitoring is sufficient to give timely warning of migration of hazardous waste constituents so that remedial action can be taken prior to any adverse changes in the quality of the groundwater.

(10) A written statement from the qualified person preparing the report indicating whether any constituents have migrated into the surface water bodies or any strata outside the injection zone, including water-bearing strata.

(11) A written statement from the qualified person preparing the report indicating whether any migration of hazardous waste constituents into surface water bodies or any strata outside the injection zone, including water-bearing strata is likely or not likely to occur within five years, and any evidence supporting that statement.

(q) This section applies only to injection wells into which hazardous waste is discharged.

25159.19. (a) On or before July 1, 1986, the department shall, by emergency regulation, adopt a fee schedule which assesses a fee upon any person discharging any hazardous wastes into an injection well. The department shall include in this fee schedule the fees charged for filing a hazardous waste injection statement specified in Section 25159.13, the report specified in Section 25159.18, and applications for, and renewals of, the exemptions specified in Section 25159.15. The department shall also include provisions in the fee schedule for assessing a penalty pursuant to subdivision (c). These fees shall be based on the reasonable anticipated costs which will be incurred by the department to implement and administer this article. The department may also request an appropriation to be used in combination with these fees to perform the monitoring, inspections, review of reports, or any other implementation and administrative actions required by this article.

(b) The emergency regulations which set the fee schedule shall be adopted by the department in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and for the purposes of that chapter, including Section 11349 6 of the Government Code, the adoption of these regulations is an emergency and shall be considered by the Office of Administrative Law as necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, and general welfare. Notwithstanding Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, any emergency regulations adopted by the department pursuant to this section shall be filed with, but not be repealed by, the Office of Administrative Law and shall remain in effect until revised by the department.

(c) The department shall send a notice to each person subject to the fee specified in subdivision (a). If a person fails to pay the fee within 60 days after receipt of this notice, the department shall require the person to pay an additional penalty fee. The department shall set the penalty fee at not more than 100 percent of the assessed fee, but in an amount sufficient to deter future noncompliance, as based upon that person's past history of compliance and ability to pay, and upon additional expenses incurred by this noncompliance.

(d) The department shall collect and deposit the fees and penalties collected pursuant to this section in the Hazardous Waste Injection Well Account, which is hereby created in the General Fund. The money within the Hazardous Waste Injection Well Account is available, upon appropriation by the Legislature, to the department for purposes of administering this article.

(e) This section applies only to injection wells into which hazardous waste is discharged.

25159.20. (a) The department shall specify, for purposes of paragraph (4) of Section 25200.6, the horizontal and vertical extent of any injection zone for an injection well. The department shall cite specific information presented in the report prepared pursuant to Section 25159.18 as the basis for specifying the extent of the injection zone and shall make a finding as to whether the injection wells' hydrogeological and operating conditions ensure that there is no potential for any migration of any hazardous waste constituents to any strata or waters of the state outside the injection zone.

(b) This section applies only to injection wells into which hazardous waste is discharged.

25159.21. (a) The state board, a regional board, or the department may enter and inspect a facility for determining compliance with this article, including, for this purpose, inspecting, at a reasonable time, records, files, papers, processes, and controls.

(b) Nothing in this article shall prevent the department from enforcing existing permit conditions for the land disposal of hazardous wastes that are more stringent than the restrictions of this article or prohibit the department, the state board, or the regional boards from imposing more stringent restrictions on the discharge of hazardous wastes at any particular hazardous waste disposal facility.

25159.22. This article shall not be construed to limit or abridge the powers and duties granted to the department pursuant to this chapter or pursuant to Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300) or to the state board or any regional board pursuant to Division 7 (commencing with Section 13000) of the Water Code, to the Division of Oil and Gas pursuant to Division 3 (commencing with Section 3000) of the Public Resources Code, or the authority of any city, county, or district to act pursuant to the local agency's ordinances or regulations.

25159.23. The State Oil and Gas Supervisor shall promptly report to the department and the state board any injection well regulated by the Division of Oil and Gas pursuant to Subpart F of Part 147 of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations that is not in compliance with these regulations because fluids not authorized by these regulations are discharged into the well

25159.24. (a) Any injection well used to inject contaminated groundwater that has been treated and is being reinjected into the same formation from which it was drawn for the purpose of improving the quality of the groundwater in the formation is exempt from this article if this method is part of a remedial program initiated in response to an order, requirement, or other action of a federal or state agency.

(b) Any injection well used for the reinjection of geothermal resources, as defined in Section 6903 of the Public Resources Code, is exempt from this article if the well is in compliance with Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 3700) of Division 3 of the Public Resources Code.

25159.25. Any action taken by the department pursuant to this article shall comply with and incorporate any waste discharge requirements issued by the state board or a regional board, and the action shall be consistent with all applicable water quality control plans adopted pursuant to Section 13170 of the Water Code and Article 3 (commencing with Section 13240) of Chapter 4 of Division 7 of the Water Code and with the state policies for water quality control adopted pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 13140) of Chapter 3 of Division 7 of the Water Code, and any amendments made to these plans, policies, or requirements. The department may also include any more stringent requirement which the department determines is necessary or appropriate to protect water quality.

SEC. 2. Section 25200.6 is added to the Health and Safety Code,

25200.6. (a) The department shall not issue a hazardous waste facilities permit for an injection well or for the discharge of hazardous waste into an injection well unless all of the following conditions are met:

(1) A hydrogeological assessment report has been approved pursuant to Section 25159.18.

(2) The groundwater monitoring required by Section 25159.16 is included as a permit condition.

(3) The department finds that the hazardous wastes to be discharged cannot be reasonably and adequately reduced, treated, or disposed of by an alternative method other than well injection. This finding shall be in writing and shall be supported by evidence citing specific evidence presented to the department or evidence which is otherwise made available to the department. The department shall provide public notice and opportunity for comment before making this finding.

(4) The horizontal and vertical extent of the permitted injection zone specified pursuant to Section 25159.20 is included as a permit condition.

(5) The permit complies with and incorporates as a permit condition any waste discharge requirements issued by the state board or a regional board and the permit is consistent with all applicable water quality control plans adopted pursuant to Section 13170 of the Water Code and Article 3 (commencing with Section 13240) of Chapter 4 of Division 7 of the Water Code and with the state policies for water quality control adopted pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 13140) of Chapter 3 of Division 7 of the Water Code, and any amendments made to these plans, policies, or requirements. The department may also include any more stringent requirement which the department determines is necessary or appropriate to protect water quality.

(b) Notwithstanding the requirement to submit a hydrogeological assessment report before application for a hazardous waste facility permit under Section 25259.18, or notwithstanding the requirement to have a hazardous waste facility permit or an approved hydrogeological assessment report before application for an exemption pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 25159.15, the department shall process any applications for a hazardous waste facility permit to construct a new injection well from any person who has applied between May 15, 1984, and December 31, 1984, for an underground injection control permit from the federal Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to the Safe Drinking Water Act and who has received that permit by July 1, 1986, in the following manner:

(1) The department shall accept a concurrent filing of the hydrogeological assessment report required pursuant to Section 25159.18, the application for the hazardous waste facilities permit filed pursuant to this section, and an application for an exemption filed pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 25159.15.

(2) The department shall grant or deny the hazardous waste facilities permit within six months of the concurrent filing of a completed application as specified in paragraph (1). However, the department shall grant the hazardous waste facilities permit only if the conditions in subdivision (a) are met.

SEC. 3. Section 13051 is added to the Water Code, to read:

13051. As used in this division, "injection well" means any bored, drilled, or driven shaft, dug pit, or hole in the ground into which waste or fluid is discharged, and any associated subsurface appurtenances, and the depth of which is greater than the circumference of the shaft, pit, or hole.

SEC. 4. Section 13260 of the Water Code is amended to read:

13260. (a) All of the following persons shall file with the regional board of that region a report of the discharge, containing the information which may be required by the board:

(1) Any person discharging waste or proposing to discharge waste within any region that could affect the quality of the waters of the state, other than into a community sewer system.

(2) Any person who is a citizen, domiciliary, or political agency or entity of this state discharging waste or proposing to discharge waste outside the boundaries of the state in a manner that could affect the quality of the waters of the state within any region.

(3) Any person proposing to construct an injection well.

No report need be filed when the requirement is waived pursuant to Section 13269.

(b) Every person discharging waste shall file with the regional board of that region a report of any material change or proposed change in the character, location, or volume of the discharge.

(c) Each report under this section shall be sworn to or submitted under penalty of perjury.

(d) Each report under this section shall be accompanied by a filing fee of not to exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) according to a reasonable fee schedule established by the state board. Fees shall be calculated on the basis of total flow, volume, number of animals, or area involved and shall be reasonably related to the costs to the regional board.

(e) When a report filed by any person pursuant to this section is not adequate in the judgment of the regional board, the board may require the person to supply the additional information which it deems necessary.

SEC. 5. Section 13263.5 is added to the Water Code, to read:

13263.5. (a) The state board or a regional board may require any person, including a person subject to a waste discharge requirement under Section 13263 of the Water Code, who is discharging, or who proposes to discharge, wastes or fluid into an injection well, to furnish the state board or regional board with a complete report on the condition and operation of the facility or injection well, or any other information that may be reasonably required to determine whether the injection well threatens to pollute the waters of the state.

(b) The state board or regional board shall request a report of waste discharge for each injection well within its region which has not been issued a waste discharge requirement as of July 1, 1986, and shall issue requirements for these wells pursuant to Section 13263.

(c) When the regional board issues waste discharge requirements for any injection well into which hazardous waste is discharged, the waste discharge requirements shall be based upon the information contained in the hydrogeological assessment report prepared pursuant to Section 25159.18 of the Health and Safety Code and shall include conditions in the waste discharge requirements to ensure that the waters of the state are not polluted or threatened with pollution.

(d) If the state board applies to the federal Environmental Protection Agency to administer the Underground Injection Control Program pursuant to Part 145 (commencing with Section 145.1) of Subchapter D of Chapter 1 of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations, that application shall not include a request to administer the Underground Injection Control Program for any oil, gas or geothermal injection wells supervised or regulated by the Division of Oil and Gas pursuant to Section 3106 or 3714 of the Public Resources Code.

SEC. 6. Section 13264 of the Water Code is amended to read:

13264. (a) No person shall initiate any new discharge of waste, make any material change in any discharge, initiate a discharge to, or construct an injection well prior to the filing of the report required by Section 13260 and no person shall take any of these actions after filing the report but before whichever of the following occurs first:

(1) The issuance of waste discharge requirements pursuant to Section 13263.

(2) The expiration of 120 days after compliance with Section 13260.

(3) The regional board's waiver pursuant to Section 13269.

(b) The Attorney General, at the request of a regional board, shall petition the superior court for the issuance of a temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction, or permanent injunction, or combination thereof, as may be appropriate, prohibiting any person who is violating or threatening to violate this section from doing any of the following, whichever is applicable:

(1) Discharging the waste in question.

(2) Making any material change in the waste in question.

SEC. 7. Section 13360 of the Water Code is amended to read:

13360. No waste discharge requirement or other order of a regional board or the state board or decree of a court issued under this division shall specify the design, location, type of construction, or particular manner in which compliance may be had with that requirement, order, or decree, and the person so ordered shall be permitted to comply with the order in any lawful manner. However, the restrictions of this section shall not apply to waste discharge requirements or orders or decrees with respect to any of the following:

(a) Regarding disposal sites other than evaporation ponds from which there is no drainage or seepage, the discharge of solid waste requiring the installation of riprap, the construction of walls and dikes, the installation of surface and underground drainage facilities to prevent runoff from entering the disposal area or leakage to underground or surface waters, or other reasonable requirements to achieve the above or similar purposes.

(b) Discharges of waste or fluid to an injection well.

(c) If the court, in an action for an injunction brought under this division, finds that the enforcement of an injunction restraining the discharger from discharging waste would be impracticable, the court may issue any order reasonable under the circumstances requiring specific measures to be undertaken by the discharger to comply with the discharge requirements, order, or decree.

SEC. 8. Reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code and, if the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund, except that no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

An act to add Article 4 (commencing with Section 16770) to Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code, to add Section 1342.6 to the Health and Safety Code, and to add Section 10133.6 to the Insurance Code, relating to health.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 4 (commencing with Section 16770) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code, to read.

Article 4. Health Care Services

16770. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature to ensure that the citizens of this state receive high-quality health care coverage in the most efficient and cost-effective manner possible.

(b) In furtherance of this intent, the Legislature finds and declares that it is in the public interest to enhance the ability of California purchasers, providers, and payors to form efficient-sized bargaining units for the purpose of contracting for the delivery of health care services.

(c) This Legislature has previously demonstrated its intent in this area by the recent enactment of Chapters 328, 329, and 1594 of the Statutes of 1982 authorizing various types of contracts to be entered into between public or private purchasers or payors of health care coverage, and institutional or professional providers of health care services.

(d) The Legislature further finds and declares that individual providers or purchasers, whether institutional, professional, or otherwise, have not proven to be efficient-sized bargaining units for these contracts, and that the formation of groups and combinations of institutional and professional providers and purchasing groups for the purpose of creating efficient-sized contracting units represents a meaningful addition to the health care marketplace.

(e) The Legislature, however, recognizes that the 1982 decision of the U.S. Supreme Court in Arizona v. Maricopa Medical Society serves as a disincentive to the development of contracting for health care services because purchasers, providers, and payors who enter into contracts bear the risk of being found guilty of committing per se antitrust violations.

(f) The Legislature further finds and declares that the public interest in ensuring that citizens of this state receive high-quality health care coverage in the most efficient and cost-effective manner possible is furthered by permitting negotiations for alternative rate contracts between purchasers or payers of health care services, and institutional and professional providers, or through a person or entity acting for, or on behalf of, a purchaser, payer, or provider.

(g) It is the intent of the Legislature, therefore, that the formation of groups and combinations of providers and purchasing groups for the purpose of creating efficient-sized contracting units be recognized as the creation of a new product within the health care marketplace, and be subject, therefore, only to those antitrust prohibitions applicable to the conduct of other presumptively legitimate enterprises.

These provisions are in addition to those provided for under Section 1342.6 of the Health and Safety Code, Section 10133.6 of the Insurance Code, and Section 14105.25 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(h) This section does not change existing antitrust law as it relates to any agreement or arrangement to exclude from any of the above-described groups or combinations, any person who is lawfully qualified to perform the services to be performed by the members of the group or combination, where the ground for the exclusion is failure to possess the same license or certification as is possessed by the members of the group or combination.

SEC. 2. Section 1342.6 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1342.6. It is the intent of the Legislature to ensure that the citizens of this state receive high-quality health care coverage in the most efficient and cost-effective manner possible. In furtherance of this intent, the Legislature finds and declares that it is in the public interest to promote various types of contracts between public or private payers of health care coverage, and institutional or professional providers of health care services. This intent has been demonstrated by the recent enactment of Chapters 328, 329, and 1594 of the Statutes of 1982, authorizing various types of contracts to be entered into between public or private payers of health care coverage, and institutional or professional providers of health care services. The Legislature further finds and declares that individual providers, whether institutional or professional, and individual purchasers, have not proven to be efficient-sized bargaining units for these contracts, and that the formation of groups and combinations of institutional and professional providers and combinations of purchasing groups for the purpose of creating efficient-sized contracting units represents a meaningful addition to the health care marketplace. The Legislature further finds and declares that negotiations between purchasers or payers of health services, and health care service plans governed by the provisions of this chapter, or through a person or entity acting for, or on behalf of, a purchaser or payer of health services, or a health care service plan, are in furtherance of the public's interest in obtaining quality health care services in the most efficient and cost-effective manner possible. It is the intent of the Legislature, therefore, that the formation of groups and combinations of providers and purchasing groups for the purpose of creating efficient-sized contracting units be recognized as the creation of a new product within the health care marketplace, and be subject, therefore, only to those antitrust prohibitions applicable to the conduct of other presumptively legitimate enterprises.

This section does not change existing antitrust law as it relates to any agreement or arrangement to exclude from any of the above-described groups or combinations, any person who is lawfully qualified to perform the services to be performed by the members of the group or combination, where the ground for the exclusion is failure to possess the same license or certification as is possessed by the members of the group or combination.

SEC. 3. Section 10133.6 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

10133.6. It is the intent of the Legislature to ensure that the citizens of this state receive high-quality health care coverage in the most efficient and cost-effective manner possible. In furtherance of this intent, the Legislature finds and declares that it is in the public interest to promote various types of contracts between public or private payers of health care coverage, and institutional or professional providers of health care services. This intent has been demonstrated by the recent enactment of Chapters 328, 329, and 1594 of the Statutes of 1982 authorizing various types of contracts to be entered into between public or private payers of health care coverage, and institutional or professional providers of health care services. The Legislature further finds and declares that individual providers, whether institutional or professional and individual purchasers, have not proven to be efficient-sized bargaining units for these contracts, and that the formation of groups and combinations of institutional and professional providers and purchasing groups for the purpose of creating efficient-sized contracting units represents a meaningful addition to the health care marketplace. The Legislature further finds and declares that the public interest in ensuring that citizens of this state receive high-quality health care coverage in the most efficient and cost-effective manner possible is furthered by permitting negotiations for alternative rate contracts between purchasers and payers and both institutional and professional providers, or through a person or entity acting for, or on behalf of, a health insurer or an institutional or professional provider, pursuant to Sections 10133 and 11512. It is the intent of the Legislature, therefore, that the formation of groups and combinations of purchasers, payers, and institutional and professional providers of health care services for the purpose of creating efficient-sized contracting units be recognized as the creation of a new product within the health care marketplace, and be subject, therefore, only to those antitrust prohibitions applicable to the conduct of other presumptively legitimate enterprises.

This section does not change existing antitrust law as it relates to any agreement or arrangement to exclude from any of the above-described groups or combinations, any person who is lawfully qualified to perform the services to be performed by the members of the group or combination, where the ground for the exclusion is failure to possess the same license or certification as is possessed by the members of the group or combination.

An act to amend Section 1596.853 of the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Section 11167.5 of, and to add Sections 11165.1, 11166.1, and 11174.1 to, the Penal Code, relating to child abuse, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1596.853 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1596.853. (a) Any person may request an inspection of any child day care facility in accordance with the California Child Day Care Facilities Act by transmitting to the department notice of an alleged violation of applicable requirements prescribed by the statutes or regulations of this state. A complaint may be made either orally or in writing.

(b) The substance of the complaint shall be provided to the licensee no earlier than at the time of the inspection. Unless the complainant specifically requests otherwise, neither the substance of the complaint provided the licensee nor any copy of the complaint or any record published, released, or otherwise made available to the licensee shall disclose the name of any person mentioned in the complaint, except the name of any duly authorized officer, employee, or agent of the department conducting the investigation or inspection pursuant to this chapter.

(c) Upon receipt of a complaint, other than a complaint alleging denial of a statutory right of access to a child day care facility, the department shall make a preliminary review and, unless the department determines that the complaint is willfully intended to harass a licensee or is without any reasonable basis, the department shall make an onsite inspection within 10 days after receiving the complaint. In either event, the complainant shall be promptly informed of the department's proposed course of action.

(d) Upon receipt of a complaint alleging denial of a statutory right of access to a child day care facility, the department shall review the complaint. The complainant shall be notified promptly of the department's proposed course of action.

(e) Upon denial, revocation, or temporary suspension of a license or within 24 hours of a finding that physical abuse or sexual abuse has occurred, the department shall notify the resource and referral agency funded under Section 8210 of the Education Code for that jurisdiction.

The resource and referral agency shall be notified of the final resolution.

(f) When the department substantiates an allegation which it deems to be serious, in a facility funded by the Child Development Division of the State Department of Education pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 8200) of Part 6 of the Education Code it shall notify the Child Development Division.

SEC. 1.5. Section 1596.853 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1596.853. (a) Any person may request an inspection of any child day care facility in accordance with the California Child Day Care Facilities Act by transmitting to the department notice of an alleged violation of applicable requirements prescribed by the statutes or regulations of this state. A complaint may be made either orally or in writing.

(b) The substance of the complaint shall be provided to the licensee no earlier than at the time of the inspection. Unless the complainant specifically requests otherwise, neither the substance of the complaint provided the licensee nor any copy of the complaint or any record published, released, or otherwise made available to the licensee shall disclose the name of any person mentioned in the complaint, except the name of any duly authorized officer, employee, or agent of the department conducting the investigation or inspection pursuant to this chapter.

(c) Upon receipt of a complaint, the department shall make a preliminary review and, unless the department determines that the complaint is willfully intended to harass a licensee or is without any reasonable basis, the department shall make an onsite inspection within 10 days after receiving the complaint. In either event, the complainant shall be promptly informed of the department's proposed course of action.

(d) Upon denial, revocation, or temporary suspension of a license or within 24 hours of a finding that physical abuse or sexual abuse has occurred, the department shall notify the resource and referral agency funded under Section 8210 of the Education Code for that jurisdiction.

The resource and referral agency shall be notified of the final resolution.

(e) When the department substantiates an allegation which it deems to be serious, in a facility funded by the Child Development Division of the State Department of Education pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 8200) of Part 6 of the Education Code it shall notify the Child Development Division.

SEC. 2. Section 11165.1 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

11165.1. For purposes of subdivision (f) of Section 11165, "abuse in out-of-home care" also means a situation of physical injury on a child which is inflicted by other than accidental means, or of sexual abuse or neglect or the willful cruelty or unjustifiable punishment of a child, as defined in this article, where the person responsible for the child's welfare is an administrator or employee of any facility licensed to care for children.

SEC. 3. Section 11166.1 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

11166.1. When a child protective agency receives a report of abuse alleged to have occurred in facilities licensed to care for children by the State Department of Social Services, it shall, within 24 hours, notify the licensing office with jurisdiction over the facility.

SEC. 9. Section 11172 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

11172. (a) No child care custodian, medical practitioner, nonmedical practitioner, employee of a child protective agency, or commercial film and photographic print processor who reports a known or suspected instance of child abuse shall be civilly or criminally liable for any report required or authorized by this article. Any other person reporting a known or suspected instance of child abuse shall not incur civil or criminal liability as a result of any report authorized by this article unless it can be proven that a false report was made and the person knew that the report was false. No person required to make a report pursuant to this article, nor any person taking photographs at his or her direction, shall incur any civil or criminal liability for taking photographs of a suspected victim of child abuse, or causing photographs to be taken of a suspected victim of child abuse, without parental consent, or for disseminating the photographs with the reports required by this article. However, the provisions of this section shall not be construed to grant immunity from this liability with respect to any other use of the photographs.

(b) Any child care custodian, medical practitioner, nonmedical practitioner, or employee of a child protective agency who, pursuant to a request from a child protective agency, provides the requesting agency with access to the victim of a known or suspected instance of child abuse shall not incur civil or criminal liability as a result of providing that access.

(c) The Legislature finds that even though it has provided immunity from liability to persons required to report child abuse, that immunity does not eliminate the possibility that actions may be brought against those persons based upon required reports of child abuse. In order to further limit the financial hardship that those persons may incur as a result of fulfilling their legal responsibilities, it is necessary that they not be unfairly burdened by legal fees incurred in defending those actions. Therefore, a child care custodian, medical practitioner, nonmedical practitioner, an employee of a child protective agency, or commercial film and photographic print processor may present a claim to the State Board of Control for reasonable attorneys' fees incurred in any action against that person on the basis of making a report required or authorized by this article if the court has dismissed the action upon a demurrer or motion for summary judgment made by that person, or if he or she prevails in the action. The State Board of Control shall allow that claim if the requirements of this subdivision are met, and the claim shall be paid from an appropriation to be made for that purpose. Attorneys' fees awarded pursuant to this section shall not exceed an hourly rate greater than the rate charged by the Attorney General of the State of California at the time the award is made and shall not exceed an hourly rate greater than the rate charged by the Attorney General of the State of California at the time the award is made and shall not exceed an aggregate amount of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000).

This subdivision shall not apply if a public entity has provided for the defense of the action pursuant to Section 995 of the Government Code.

(d) A court may award attorney's fees to a commercial film and photographic print processor when a suit is brought against the processor because of a disclosure mandated by this article and the court finds this suit to be frivolous.

(e) Any person who fails to report an instance of child abuse which he or she knows to exist or reasonably should know to exist, as required by this article, is guilty of a misdemeanor and is punishable by confinement in the county jail for a term not to exceed six months or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or by both.

SEC. 10. Section 11172 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

11172. (a) No child care custodian, health practitioner, or employee of a child protective agency, or commercial film and photographic print processor who reports a known or suspected instance of child abuse shall be civilly or criminally liable for any report required or authorized by this article. Any other person reporting a known or suspected instance of child abuse shall not incur civil or criminal liability as a result of any report authorized by this article unless it can be proven that a false report was made and the person knew that the report was false. No person required to make a report pursuant to this article, nor any person taking photographs at his or her direction, shall incur any civil or criminal liability for taking photographs of a suspected victim of child abuse, or causing photographs to be taken of a suspected victim of child abuse, without parental consent, or for disseminating the photographs with the reports required by this article. However, the provisions of this section shall not be construed to grant immunity from this liability with respect to any other use of the photographs.

(b) Any child care custodian, health practitioner, nonmedical practitioner, or employee of a child protective agency who, pursuant to a request from a child protective agency, provides the requesting agency with access to the victim of a known or suspected instance of child abuse shall not incur civil or criminal liability as a result of providing that access.

(c) The Legislature finds that even though it has provided immunity from liability to persons required to report child abuse, that immunity does not eliminate the possibility that actions may be brought against those persons based upon required reports of child abuse. In order to further limit the financial hardship that those persons may incur as a result of fulfilling their legal responsibilities, it is necessary that they not be unfairly burdened by legal fees incurred in defending those actions. Therefore, a child care custodian, health practitioner, an employee of a child protective agency, or commercial film and photographic print processor may present a claim to the State Board of Control for reasonable attorneys' fees incurred in any action against that person on the basis of making a report required or authorized by this article if the court has dismissed the action upon a demurrer or motion for summary judgment made by that person, or if he or she prevails in the action. The State Board of Control shall allow that claim if the requirements of this subdivision are met, and the claim shall be paid from an appropriation to be made for that purpose. Attorneys' fees awarded pursuant to this section shall not exceed an hourly rate greater than the rate charged by the Attorney General of the State of California at the time the award is made and shall not exceed an hourly rate greater than the rate charged by the Attorney General of the State of California at the time the award is made and shall not exceed an aggregate amount of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000).

This subdivision shall not apply if a public entity has provided for the defense of the action pursuant to Section 995 of the Government Code.

(d) A court may award attorney's fees to a commercial film and photographic print processor when a suit is brought against the processor because of a disclosure mandated by this article and the court finds this suit to be frivolous.

(e) Any person who fails to report an instance of child abuse which he or she knows to exist or reasonably should know to exist, as required by this article, is guilty of a misdemeanor and is punishable by confinement in the county jail for a term not to exceed six months or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or by both.

If, after the completion of the annexation, the city sells that territory or any part thereof, all of that territory which is no longer owned by the city shall cease to be a part of the city.

(b) If territory is annexed pursuant to this section, the annexing city may not annex any territory not owned by it and not contiguous to it although that territory is contiguous to the territory annexed pursuant to this section.

(c) When territory ceases to be part of a city pursuant to this section, the legislative body of the city shall adopt a resolution confirming the detachment of that territory from the city. (f) This section applies only to the City of Willits.

SEC. 5. Section 56375 of the Government Code, as added by Chapter 541 of the Statutes of 1985, is amended to read:

56375. The commission shall have all of the following powers and duties subject to any limitations upon its jurisdiction set forth in this part:

(a) To review and approve or disapprove with or without amendment, wholly, partially, or conditionally, proposals for changes of organization or reorganization. However, a commission shall not have the power to disapprove an annexation to a city, initiated by resolution, of contiguous territory which the commission finds is either:

(1) Surrounded or substantially surrounded by the city to which the annexation is proposed or by that city and a county boundary or the Pacific Ocean if the territory to be annexed is substantially developed or developing, is not prime agricultural land as defined in Section 56064, is designated for urban growth by the general plan of the annexing city, and is not within the sphere of influence of another city.

(2) Located within an urban service area which has been delineated and adopted by a commission, which is not prime agricultural land, as defined by Section 56064, and is designated for urban growth by the general plan of the annexing city.

As a condition to the annexation of an area, which is surrounded, or substantially surrounded, by the city to which the annexation is proposed, the commission may require, where consistent with the purposes of this division, that the annexation include the entire island of surrounded, or substantially surrounded, territory.

A commission shall not impose any conditions which would directly regulate land use density or intensity, property development, or subdivision requirements. When the development purposes are not made known to the annexing city, the annexation shall be reviewed on the basis of the adopted plans and policies of the annexing city or county. This paragraph does not prohibit a commission from requiring, as a condition to annexation, that a city prezone the territory to be annexed. However, the commission shall not specify how, or in what manner, the territory shall be prezoned.

(b) With regard to a proposal for annexation or detachment of territory to, or from, a city or district or with regard to a proposal for reorganization which includes annexation or detachment, to determine whether territory proposed for annexation or detachment, as described in its resolution approving the annexation, detachment, or reorganization, is inhabited or uninhabited.

(c) With regard to a proposal for consolidation of two or more cities or districts, to determine which city or district shall be the consolidated, successor city or district.

(d) To approve the annexation to a city after notice and hearing, and authorize the conducting authority to order annexation of the territory without an election, if the commission finds that the territory contained in an annexation proposal meets all of the following requirements:

(1) It does not exceed 75 acres in area, that area constitutes the entire island, and the island does not constitute a part of an unincorporated area which is more than 100 acres in area.

(2) It is surrounded in either of the following ways:

(A) Surrounded, or substantially surrounded, by the city to which annexation is proposed or by the city and a county boundary or the Pacific Ocean.

(B) Surrounded by the city to which annexation is proposed and adjacent cities.

(3) It is substantially developed or developing. The finding required by this subparagraph shall be based upon one or more factors, including, but not limited to, any of the following factors:

(i) The availability of public utility services.

(ii) The presence of public improvements.

(iii) The presence of physical improvements upon the parcel or parcels within the area.

(4) It is not prime agricultural land, as defined by Section 56064.

(5) It will benefit from the annexation or is receiving benefits from the annexing city.

(e) To approve the annexation of unincorporated, noncontiguous territory, subject to the limitations of Section 56111, located in the same county as that in which the city is located, and which is owned by a city and used for municipal purposes and to authorize the conducting authority to annex the territory without notice and hearing.

(f) Subject to Section 56029, to designate in the resolution making determinations the conducting authority for proceedings.

(g) When a change of organization or a reorganization includes the annexation of inhabited territory to a city and the assessed value of land within the territory equals one-half or more of the assessed value of land within the city, or the number of registered voters residing within the territory equals one-half or more of the number of registered voters residing within the city, to determine as a condition of the proposal that the change of organization or reorganization shall also be subject to confirmation by the voters in an election to be called, held, and conducted within the territory of the city to which annexation is proposed.

(h) With respect to the incorporation of a new city, to determine the number of registered voters residing within the proposed city.

(i) To adopt procedures for the evaluation of proposals. The commission may adopt standards for any of the factors enumerated in Section 56841.

(j) To adopt standards and procedures for the evaluation of service plans submitted pursuant to Section 56653.

(k) To make and enforce regulations for the orderly and fair conduct of hearings by the commission.

(l) To incur usual and necessary expenses for the accomplishment of its functions.

(m) To appoint and assign staff personnel and to employ or contract for professional or consulting services to carry out and effect the functions of the commission.

(n) To review the boundaries of the territory involved in any proposal with respect to the definiteness and certainty of those boundaries, the nonconformance of proposed boundaries with lines of assessment or ownership, and other similar matters affecting the proposed boundaries.

(o) To waive the restrictions of Section 56109 if it finds that the application of the restrictions would be detrimental to the orderly development of the community and that the area that would be enclosed by the annexation or incorporation is so located that it cannot reasonably be annexed to another city or incorporated as a new city.

(p) To waive the application of Section 25210.90 if it finds the application would deprive an area of a service needed to ensure the health, safety, or welfare of the residents of the area and if it finds that the waiver would not affect the ability of a city to provide any service. However, within 60 days of the inclusion of the territory within the city, the legislative body may adopt a resolution nullifying the waiver.

(q) If the proposal includes the incorporation of a city, as defined in Section 56043, or the formation of a district, as defined in Section 2215 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, the commission shall determine the property tax revenue to be exchanged by the affected local agencies pursuant to Section 56842.

SEC. 6. Section 56376.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

56376.5. (a) The commission shall not impose any condition on an annexing local agency with respect to the standards or frequency of maintenance of any existing street or road within the annexed territory.

(b) The commission shall not impose a condition which requires a local agency to improve an existing public facility which is not owned by the agency.

(c) This section shall not be construed as authorizing a commission to impose any conditions which it is not otherwise authorized to impose.

SEC. 7. Section 56426 of the Government Code, as added by Chapter 541 of the Statutes of 1985, is amended to read:

56426. (a) The commission shall develop, determine, and adopt the sphere of influence for each local governmental agency within its jurisdiction which provides facilities or services related to development no later than January 1, 1985. The commission shall develop, determine, and adopt the sphere of influence for all other local governmental agencies within its jurisdiction no later than June 30, 1985.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a) and Section 56377.5, a commission which has not adopted a sphere of influence for a local governmental agency which provides facilities or services related to development may review, approve, conditionally approve, or disapprove a proposal which includes territory which might be contained within the sphere of that local agency, or any proposal for annexation of territory or for the formation of a district, if the application was submitted to the executive officer pursuant to Section 56828, on or before December 31, 1984. Before approving or conditionally approving a proposal pursuant to this subdivision, a commission shall find that there is a reasonable probability that the proposal will be consistent with the spheres of influence being prepared for the local agency for which the proposal is proposed.

(c) Until June 30, 1985, a commission which has not adopted a sphere of influence for local governmental agencies which do not provide facilities or services related to development may review, approve, conditionally approve, or disapprove proposals which include territory which might be contained within the sphere of influence of these local agencies. When acting on a proposal pursuant to this subdivision, the commission shall prepare a written statement of determinations with respect to the existence of agricultural preserves in the area which could be considered within an agency's sphere of influence and the effect on maintaining the physical and economic integrity of those preserves in the event that the agricultural preserves are within a sphere of influence of a local governmental agency. If the proposal would result in the conversion of prime agricultural land within the agricultural preserves to nonagricultural use, the commission shall make written determinations explaining the reasons for its decision.

(d) A commission shall not approve or conditionally approve any proposal which would result in the conversion of agricultural land to nonagricultural use if the commission has not adopted a sphere of influence for each local governmental agency which might, as determined by the commission, include the subject territory in its sphere of influence and which provides facilities or services related to development.

(e) "Facilities or services related to development," as used in this section, means public works or service programs related to sewers, nonagricultural water, streets and roads, flood control, drainage, and structural fire protection.

56728.6. (a) Notwithstanding subdivision (d) of Section 56760, in the 1984–85 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, a special education local plan area shall be eligible for state funding of those instructional personnel service units operated and fundable at the second principal apportionment of the prior fiscal year, so long as the unduplicated pupil count divided by the number of instructional personnel units is equal to or greater than the following:

(1) For special classes and centers - 9.

(2) For resource specialist programs - 21.

(3) For designated instruction and services - 20.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (d) of Section 56760, in the 1984–85 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, a special education local plan area shall be eligible for state funding of instructional personnel service units in excess of the number of instructional personnel service units operated and fundable at the second principal apportionment of the prior fiscal year only with the authorization of the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

(d) A special education local plan area may apply for, and the superintendent may grant, a waiver of any of the standards and criteria specified in this section if compliance would prevent the provision of a free, appropriate public education or would create undue hardship. In granting the waivers, the superintendent shall consider the following:

(1) Pupil density of 25 or fewer units of average daily attendance per square mile in local plan areas of 30,000 or fewer average daily attendance.

(2) The location of licensed children's institutions, foster family homes, residential medical facilities, and other similar facilities within the boundaries of a local plan if 5 percent or more of the local plan's unduplicated pupil count resides in those facilities.

(e) For the purpose of this section, a special education local plan area may apply for, and the superintendent may grant, a waiver of the standards specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) if the waiver is programmatically justified.

(f) For the 1984–85 fiscal year only, a special education local plan area may apply for, and the superintendent may grant, a waiver of any of the standards and criteria specified in this section if either of the following applies:

(1) Compliance would require the termination of a contract employee in violation of Section 44949 or 44955.

If such an appropriation is made, units authorized by the superintendent pursuant to this subdivision that result in an increase in the statewide total number of instructional personnel service units are subject to the following restrictions:

(1) The units shall be funded only by such appropriation and no other funds may be apportioned for the units.

(2) All units shall be fully funded pursuant to Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 56700) of Part 30.

56728.6. (a) Notwithstanding subdivision (d) of Section 56760, in the 1985–86 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, a special education local plan area shall be eligible for state funding of those instructional personnel service units operated and fundable for services to children three years of age or older at the second principal apportionment of the prior fiscal year, so long as the pupil count divided by the number of instructional personnel service units is equal to or greater than the following:

(1) For special classes and centers - 9, based on the unduplicated pupil count.

(2) For resource specialist programs - 21, based on the unduplicated pupil count.

In granting the waivers, the superintendent shall consider the following:

(1) Pupil density of 25 or fewer units of average daily attendance per square mile in local plan areas of 30,000 or fewer average daily attendance, or pupil density of 20 or fewer units of average daily attendance per square mile in local plan areas of more than 30,000 average daily attendance.

(1) For special classes and centers - 12.

(2) For resource specialist programs - 24.

(e) Infant services in resource specialist programs funded pursuant to this item shall be supported by one aide.

(f) In determining the number of instructional personnel service units for which a special education local plan area may qualify, a minimum of six infants shall constitute eligibility for the initial unit.

However, programs operating pursuant to Section 56425 shall be allowed a minimum of one initial unit for the 1985–86 fiscal year. When units are allocated pursuant to this subsection, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall allocate only the least expensive unit appropriate.

In granting the waivers, the superintendent shall give priority to the following factors:

(1) Pupil density of 25 or fewer units of average daily attendance per square mile in local plan areas of 30,000 or fewer average daily attendance, or pupil density of 20 or fewer units of average daily attendance per square mile in local plan areas with an average daily attendance of more than 30,000.

(2) The methodology used to allocate direct support costs shall be readily supported by documentation or be the result of standards prescribed by the cost accounting procedures.

(3) For each category of support costs, a single allocation method shall be employed unless documentation as prescribed by the accounting procedures specified by the Superintendent of Public Instruction is available.

(b) Local education agencies shall be required to use the cost accounting procedures provided for under this section during the 1985–86 fiscal year, and to report their 1985–86 fiscal year costs to the State Department of Education using these procedures on forms prescribed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

SEC. 9.5. Section 56760 of the Education Code is amended to read:

(1) The ratio of pupils funded by the state by instructional personnel service during the regular school year, including pupils for whom education and services are provided for by contract with nonpublic, nonsectarian schools, to the enrollment in kindergarten and grades 1 to 12, inclusive, shall not exceed 0.10.

(b) The per-pupil entitlement determined pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be multiplied by the number of pupils with low incidence disabilities in each special education local plan area to determine the total funds available for each local plan.

(c) The superintendent shall apportion the amount determined pursuant to subdivision (b) to the responsible local agency in the special education local plan area for purposes of purchasing and coordinating the use of specialized books, materials, and equipment.

(d) As a condition of receiving these funds, the responsible local agency shall ensure that the appropriate books, materials, and equipment are purchased, that the use of the equipment is coordinated as necessary, and that the books, materials, and equipment are reassigned to local educational agencies within the special education local plan area once the agency that originally received the books, materials, and equipment no longer needs them.

SEC. 11. Section 56830 is added to the Education Code, to read:

56830. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares that, since the 1980–81 fiscal year, there have been significant annual deficiencies in special education funding that have created fiscal hardships for many school districts and county offices of education and adversely impacted the quality of services to many individuals with exceptional needs, in abrogation of the objectives set forth in Section 56000.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that the sum of at least sixty million dollars ($60,000,000) be appropriated in the Budget Act for the 1986–87 fiscal year, and at least one hundred twenty million dollars ($120,000,000) be appropriated in the Budget Act for the 1987–88 fiscal year, in excess of the appropriations and cost-of-living adjustments for the 1985–86 fiscal year, to support programs for individuals with exceptional needs.

(1) Priority for appropriation of these funds in the 1986–87 fiscal year shall be accorded to programs that directly improve special education program quality, including, but not limited to, the restoration of instructional aide time in special day classes for nonseverely handicapped students, and in the resource specialist program to the level originally required by this part; further expansion of infant services and vocationl programs; growth in low incidence funds; and additional growth in the number of instructional personnel service units.

(2) Based on the cost accounting information produced pursuant to Section 56730.5, consideration shall also be given in the 1987–88 fiscal year to revision of support services ratios, funding of the local general fund contribution computed pursuant to Section 56751 or 56753, and the expansion of low incidence funding to include specialized services, as appropriate, in addition to specialized materials and equipment.

SEC. 11.5. For the 1985–86 fiscal year, instructional personnel service units which were used in the 1984–85 fiscal year to provide services to children younger than three years of age shall be excluded from computations made pursuant to Section 56728.6 of the Education Code, but shall be included in computations made pursuant to Section 56728.8 of the Education Code.

(d) In determining the number of instructional personnel service units for which a special education local plan area may qualify, a minimum of six infants shall constitute eligibility for the initial unit in any settings; however, programs operating pursuant to Section 56425 of the Education Code will be allowed a minimum of one initial unit.

(e) Of the total units allocated to a special education local plan area for infant programs, no more than 50 percent shall be for special classes and centers. In cases where only one unit is allocated, that unit may be for special classes and centers, if appropriate.

(f) In the distribution of these funds, first priority shall be given to special education local plan areas that contain local education agencies which are mandated to serve infants according to the provisions of Section 56425 of the Education Code. Second priority shall be given to those special education local plan areas voluntarily serving infants at the 1984–85 Second Principal Apportionment. Third priority shall be given to special education local plan areas which did not serve infants at the 1984–1985 Second Principal Apportionment.

6. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in the 1985–86 fiscal year, for each county office of education which certifies to the Superintendent of Public Instruction that it offers 180 days or more of instruction per school year, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall determine an amount equal to seventy dollars ($70) per unit of current year second principal apportionment special day class average daily attendance. This computation shall be included in computations made by the Superintendent of Schools pursuant to Article 2 of Chapter 7, Part 30 of the Education Code.

County offices which operate an extended year or summer school program and receive funds for the additional days under those programs shall not be eligible to receive funds under this provision unless the number of days per pupil offered in 1985–86 is at least 180 days. County offices may elect to receive funds under this provision or under the extended year or summer school funding mechanism, but in no case shall a county office receive funding from both sources for the same days of instruction.

7. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in the 1985–86 fiscal year, for each county office of education which certifies to the Superintendent of Public Instruction that it offers at least the amount of instructional time specified in this subdivision, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall determine an amount equal to eighty dollars ($80) per unit of current year second principal apportionment special day class average daily attendance in kindergarten and grades 1 to 8, inclusive, and one hundred sixty dollars ($160) per unit of current year second principal apportionment special day class average daily attendance in grades 9 to 12, inclusive.

This computation shall be included in computations made by the Superintendent of Schools pursuant to Article 2 of Chapter 7, Part 30 of the Education Code.

The amount of time required for reimbursement under this provision is:

(A) 34,500 minutes in kindergarten.

(B) 47,016 minutes in grades 1 to 3, inclusive.

(C) 50,000 minutes in grades 4 to 8, inclusive.

(D) 57,200 minutes in grades 9 to 12, inclusive.

8. $3,500,000 of the funds appropriated in this item are available for the purpose of provisions 6 and 7 of this item.

9. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the number of units of instructional services funded pursuant to Article 7 of the Education Code for a local plan shall not exceed for special classes and centers an average of one teacher and 1.05 aides per special class or center actually operated. $5,500,000 of the funds appropriated in this item are available for the purposes of this provision.

11. $3,500,000 of the funds appropriated in this item are available for matching funds for the purposes of PL98–524, and for vocational training and job placement for special education students. As a condition of receiving these funds, each agency must certify that the amount of nonfederal resources, exclusive of funds received pursuant to this provision, devoted to the provision of vocational education for special education pupils shall be maintained at or above the level provided in 1984–85. The Superintendent of Public Instruction may waive this requirement for agencies which can demonstrate that the requirement would impose a severe hardship.

12. Of the funds appropriated in this item, $150,000 shall be available for the lease or rental of temporary classroom facilities for special education programs that meet the following criteria:

(a) The local education agency must have a support services quotient for the 1980–81 fiscal year greater than 1.5 times the statewide average quotient computed pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 56737 of the Education

Code.

(b) The local education agency's 1979–80 fiscal year total special education costs, computed pursuant to Section 56732 of the Education Code, must include costs for the rent or lease of temporary classroom facilities for special education.

(c) The local education agency must have certification from the State Allocation Board that no suitable alternative classroom facilities are available.

14. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in the event that two elementary school districts consolidate to form a single elementary district, effective July 1, 1985, and if one of the former elementary districts did not provide any special education programs during the 1984–85 fiscal year, then the base year special education unit rates, support service ratio, and local General Fund contribution for the newly consolidated district shall be equal to the base year unit rates, support service ratio, and local General Fund contribution for the one component district which did operate special education programs during the 1984–85 fiscal year.

SEC. 12. Reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code and, if the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

SEC. 13. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that essential revisions in the structure of special education funding may be made for application to the Budget Act for the 1985–86 fiscal year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1604

An act to amend Section 16367.6 of, and to add Sections 16367.61, 16367.65, 16367.7, 16367.71, and 16367.75 to, and to repeal and add Section 16367.5 of, the Government Code, relating to energy assistance, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1985 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1985]

I have approved Senate Bill No 724 because it will enhance the administration of the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) and provide assistance to the "working" poor

While the bill expresses legislative intent that General Fund monies be appropriated to the Department of Social Services in lieu of the 10 percent transfer from the LIHEAP block grant, I do not necessarily concur with this provision and such an action will be subject to prioritization with all proposed General Fund expenditures

I am deleting the $3 5 million appropriation for the methanol transit buses and a pilot driver education program because these programs are of low priority in relation to other alternative uses of PVEA funding

I am also deleting the $2 million appropriated for the Energy Crisis Intervention Program (ECIP) because these funds would be derived from a transfer from the General Fund which I believe is inappropriate The ECIP program is not eligible for funding under current PVEA program regulations

With these deletion, I approve Senate Bill No 724

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Residential utility rates have increased significantly during the last several years.

(b) Increased residential utility costs have the greatest impact on those individuals who have the least ability to pay them.

(c) While increases in residential utility costs can be mitigated by adoption of energy conservation practices and by installation of weatherization measures, low-income persons are frequently unfamiliar with state and utility programs that provide energy conservation education and weatherization services.

(d) Federal regulations require that states not differentiate between categorically eligible individuals and individuals who qualify solely by an income test when determining eligibility for low-income home energy assistance programs.

(e) The existing state distribution plan for low-income home energy assistance funds does not aid persons who have qualifying incomes, but are not recipients of, categorical assistance.

(f) Low-income home energy assistance programs funds were allocated by the United States Congress to provide energy assistance for the poor and elderly.

(g) The United States Congress also intends Petroleum Violation Escrow Account funding to provide restitution to individuals most seriously harmed by the overcharges.

For the purposes of this subdivision, weatherization shall include all energy conservation measures and energy efficient appliances that are cost effective and improve energy efficiency. For the purposes of this subdivision, these services shall be available to households in which one or more individuals are receiving aid under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) and Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 12000) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, county general assistance recipients under Part 5 (commencing with Section 17000) of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, Food Stamp Program recipients, provided for under Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 18900) of Part 6 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, payments under Section 415, 521, 541, or 542 of Title 38 of the United States Code, or under Section 306 of the Veterans' and Survivors' Pension Improvement Act of 1978, and other households with incomes that do not exceed an amount equal to 150 percent of the federally established poverty level.

(8) Insufficient funds to pay energy costs for a household in which a household member's medical condition requires use of life support or climate and temperature control systems.

The crisis intervention program shall not include advocacy, community mobilization, or community planning.

The Energy Crisis Intervention Program shall be available to households containing recipients of programs contained in Division 9 (commencing with Section 10000) of the Welfare and Insitutions Code and which are referred to in subdivision (b) and other households with incomes that do not exceed 130 percent of the federally established poverty level.

Sec. 601 et seq.) and Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, other than aid in the form of foster care received in accordance with Section 408 of the federal Social Security Act.

(B) Supplemental Security Income payments under Title XVI of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1381 et seq.) and Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 12000) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code).

Office of Planning and Research shall contract with local public or private nonprofit agencies for the education component. In order to maximize the efficiency of these programs, the Office of Planning and Research shall contract, to the extent feasible, with community-based organizations and community-action agencies providing crisis intervention grants under this section.

SEC. 4. Section 16367.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

16367.6. (a) The State Office of Economic Opportunity shall receive and administer all state and federal funds which are allocated for programs to provide energy assistance to qualified low-income individuals only, except for those funds which are allocated to, and distributed by, the California Energy Extension Service.

(b) No later than November 1, 1984, the State Office of Economic Opportunity shall promulgate a comprehensive procedure to assure that those energy assistance funds are utilized in the most productive and efficient manner, including a distribution system whereby all funds allocated for direct assistance payments are distributed by state and local agencies directly to the electrical or gas corporations or other suppliers of energy on behalf of the qualified low-income individuals or by two-party checks made payable to both the energy supplier and the individual. In establishing this system, the State Office of Economic Opportunity shall consult with representatives of electrical or gas corporations or other suppliers of energy and with local agencies that participate in distributing assistance funds.

The State Office of Economic Opportunity shall have the discretion to adjust payments to the energy supplier or the individual or to make direct payments to the individual for payment to an energy supplier in special or unique circumstances not otherwise provided for in this section.

(c) The State Office of Economic Opportunity shall submit an annual report to the Legislature no later than August 15 describing the following aspects of the Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program:

(1) The amount of money expended on the program.

(2) The number of individuals served by the program.

(3) The average amount of assistance provided to program recipients.

(4) The amount of unexpended Home Energy Assistance Program funds remaining after the close of the application period.

(5) An estimate of the number of individuals eligible under paragraph (2) of subdivision (e) of Section 16367.5 and the number and level of those eligible individuals served within available resources.

16367.65. The State Office of Economic Opportunity may enter into an agreement with the California Energy Extension Service to provide technical assistance and outreach programs to low-income individuals and the State Office of Economic Opportunity energy agencies which shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(a) Energy education programs for recipients of low-income energy assistance.

(b) Energy education to senior citizens, disabled individuals, Native Americans, seasonal migrant workers, and rural communities.

(c) Training programs and technical assistance for community action agencies and community-based organizations and other groups which administer the low-income home energy assistance programs at the local level.

SEC 7. The Legislature finds the following:

(a) The State Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO) has, in the past, been consistently late in providing payment to community-based organizations and community action agencies which administer the Energy Crisis Intervention Program (ECIP) component of the Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Block Grant Program.

(b) To continue funding ECIP when the program funding has not arrived on schedule from OEO, community-based organizations and community action agencies have borrowed money.

(c) Without these borrowed funds, community-based organizations and community action agencies would have to deny eligible individuals emergency energy assistance because OEO was late in providing promised payment.

(d) Eligible individuals face a shutoff of their utilities if the community-based organizations and community action agencies do not borrow money to cover mandated program expenses.

(e) The interest on these borrowed funds currently must be paid out of the budgets of the community-based organizations and community action agencies, thereby reducing the amount of money they have available to spend on their programs.

SEC. 8. Section 16367.7 is added to the Government Code, to read:

16367.7. Whenever the State Office of Economic Opportunity does not allocate Energy Crisis Intervention Program funds on schedule to a community-based organization or community action agency and the organization or agency finds it necessary to obtain a loan in order to cover its program costs, the office shall pay any interest charges on the loan out of the funds budgeted for the administration of the State Office of Economic Opportunity, unless the failure to allocate is due to an incomplete application or report and the office promptly gives notice of this fact to the organization or agency.

Any interest payable by the office pursuant to this section shall be paid by the Controller to the organization or agency from available funds in the office's budget. If any interest charge is paid by the office pursuant to this section, the office shall report this fact to the Legislature and describe what actions are being taken to prevent additional payments of interest charges.

SEC. 9. Section 16367.71 is added to the Government Code, to read:

16367.71. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, whenever a warrant distributed pursuant to Section 16367.5 or 16367.6 remains unclaimed, or the claimant cannot be found, for a period of six months following its disbursement, the face amount of the unclaimed warrant shall revert and be credited to the fund against which the warrant was drawn.

SEC. 10. Section 16367.75 is added to the Government Code, to read:

16367.75. The State Office of Economic Opportunity shall biennially, commencing January 1, 1987, submit a report to the Legislature on the results of the pilot projects and demonstration program, provided for under subdivision (f) of Section 16367.5 and Sections 16367.61 and 16367.65, and the impact of expanding program eligibility.

SEC. 11. (a) The sum of two million dollars ($2,000,000) is hereby appropriated from the Federal Trust Fund, which was created pursuant to Section 16360 of the Government Code, for the Energy Crisis Intervention Program provided under subdivision (c) of Section 16367.5 of the Government Code. This sum shall be allocated from the sum of two million dollars ($2,000,000) transferred from the General Fund to the Federal Trust Fund in repayment of interest earned on federal Petroleum Violation Escrow Account receipts deposited in the Federal Trust Fund.

State of California is entitled pursuant to the decision and order of the United States Department of Energy regarding allocation of National Helium Corporation overcharges in Case Number HQF-0501, to the Department of Transportation for assistance to local governments for improved traffic flow efficiency through optimized traffic signal timing and operation. This assistance shall give priority to projects located in low-income communities.

(c) The sum of three million three hundred thousand dollars ($3,300,000) is hereby appropriated from petroleum violation escrow funds to which the State of California is entitled pursuant to the decision and order of the United States Department of Energy, dated March 20, 1985, regarding the allocation of Charter Company overcharges in Case Number HQF-0480, to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission for a program to provide technical and financial assistance for public and private transit operators for the acquisition and operation of new and retrofitted methanol-powered transit buses.

(d) The sum of nine hundred thousand dollars ($900,000) of any other petroleum overcharge settlement funds to which the State of California is entitled and which are available to the state on or before September 1, 1985, is hereby appropriated to the Office of Appropriate Technology, Energy Extension Service, for a loan program to assist low-income fishing fleet operators to conserve fuel.

(e) The sum of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) of any other petroleum overcharge settlement funds to which the State of California is entitled and which are available to the state on or before September 1, 1985, is hereby appropriated to the State Department of Education to establish a pilot program to fit automobile driver training vehicles with instrumentation providing instructional information on fuel consumption and vehicle fuel efficiency, and provide in-service training to automobile driver training instructors on fuel efficient driving techniques and the use of this equipment. Any school district shall be eligible to apply for participation in the pilot program, with preference given to districts in regions with high vehicular air pollution. No more than one-third of the total appropriation under this section shall be used to evaluate the pilot program.

CHAPTER 13. OPTIONAL STATE FUNDING OF TRIAL COURTS

Article 1. General Provisions

77000. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Trial Court Funding Act of 1985.

77001. The following definitions govern the construction of this chapter:

(a) "Block grant" means the amount of state funds to be provided to a participating county for the support of the operation of the trial courts, as determined by the product of the rate of reimbursement under Section 77200 multiplied by the number of reimbursable positions.

(b) "Board" means the board of supervisors of a county.

(c) "Court operations" means the county share of superior and municipal court judges' salaries, benefits, and public agency retirement contributions, and the salary, benefits, and public agency retirement contributions for justice court judges, subordinate judicial officers, other court staff including all municipal court staff positions specifically prescribed by statute, one bailiff per authorized judicial position, and materials and supplies relating to court operations, and actual indirect costs, not to exceed 18 percent of the block grant, for county general services attributable to court operations, but specifically excluding, but not limited to, law library operations conducted by a trust pursuant to statute; courthouse construction; or district attorney services; probation services; indigent criminal defense; grand jury expenses and operations; and pretrial release services.

(d) "Filing fees" means any and all fees and charges, liberally construed, collected or collectible for filing, processing, copying, endorsing, or for any other service related to court operations as defined in subdivision (c).

(e) "Fine" means any monetary penalty collected for a violation of law, to the extent it would otherwise accrue to the benefit of a city, county, or city and county, including any penalty assessments or surcharges, whether collected by a court or agency of a county or city or city and county and regardless of the stage of the process after citation at which it is collected, except law library trust fund fees, criminal justice facility construction fees, courthouse construction fees, and money collected under any state law relating to the protection or propagation of fish and game.

(f) "Forfeiture" means all money forfeited by a person charged or cited for a violation of law, to the extent it would otherwise accrue to the benefit of a city, county, or city and county, except any money collected under any state law relating to the protection or propagation of fish and game, including bail, any penalty assessments or surcharges, whether collected by a court or agency of a county or city or city and county and regardless of the stage of the process after citation at which it is collected.

(g) "Option county" means a county or city and county which has adopted the provisions of this chapter for the current fiscal year.

(h) "Penalty assessment" means any amount charged as a proportion of any fine or forfeiture and collected in addition thereto, to the extent it would otherwise accrue to the benefit of a city, county, or city and county, except any money collected under any state law relating to the protection or propagation of fish and game.

(i) "State-mandated local program" means any and all reimbursements owed or owing by operation of either Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution, or Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, or both.

(j) "Subordinate judicial officer" means a court commissioner or referee authorized by statute.

(k) "Trial court" means a superior court, municipal court, or justice court.

Article 2. Legislative Findings

77100. The Legislature finds and declares that:

(a) The trial of civil and criminal actions is an integral and necessary function of the judicial branch of state government under Article VI of the California Constitution.

(b) All citizens of this state should enjoy equal and ready access to the trial courts.

(c) Local funding of trial courts may create disparities in the availability of the courts for the resolution of disputes and the dispensation of justice.

(d) The method of funding trial courts should not create financial barriers to the fair and proper resolution of civil and criminal actions.

(e) Many people defend their personal and property rights in the courts, and seek redress through the judicial system only when compelled by sheer necessity of circumstance.

(f) This chapter is enacted to promote the general welfare and to protect the public interest in a viable and accessible judicial system.

77101. The Legislature further finds and declares that the expenditure of the state funds under the provisions of this chapter is in the public interest and necessary to the accomplishment of the purposes set forth above.

Article 3. State Finance Provisions

77200. The Controller shall transmit to each option county from the Court Funding Trust Account quarterly payments on the block grant owing to that county based upon the following rate of reimbursement:

(a) Four hundred ninety-five thousand eight hundred ninety-five dollars ($495,895) for each superior court judgeship; plus

(b) Four hundred eighty-three thousand fifty-two dollars ($483,052) for each superior court commissioner or referee; plus

(c) Four hundred eighty-nine thousand six hundred fourteen dollars ($489,614) for each municipal court judgeship; plus

(d) Four hundred sixty-nine thousand four hundred thirty-five dollars ($469,435) for each municipal court commissioner or referee.

77201. The sums set forth in Section 77200 shall be increased for each fiscal year by a percentage equal to the overall average percentage increase, if any, granted to state employees for salaries for the preceding state fiscal year, as determined by the Controller. This increase shall be cumulative but not compounded beginning with an adjustment for the 1987–88 fiscal year based on the 1986–87 state employees adjustment.

77202. (a) The number of judges, commissioners, and referees for the purpose of calculating the block grant for a county shall be as follows:

(1) The number of judges for purposes of calculating the block grant shall be those authorized by statute.

(2) The number of subordinate judicial officers for purposes of calculating the block grant shall be the number of full-time commissioners and referees authorized by statute and funded, except that if a board of supervisors is authorized by statute to increase the number of subordinate judicial officers, then the number shall be those authorized and funded pursuant to that authority as of July 1, 1985.

(b) The number of commissioners and referees shall not be changed during the first three years in which this chapter is in operation, and thereafter by specific statutory creation. An option county shall report the nature and quantity of the work performed by commissioners and referees, including the amount of stipulated cases heard by subordinate judicial officers, as required by the Judicial Council. The Judicial Council shall report on this data by December 31, of the second year following the year in which this chapter becomes operative..

(d) It is the intent of the Legislature that judicial duties be performed to the extent possible by judges and not by subordinate judicial officers, that the number of commissioners and referees be reduced, that those not performing subordinate judicial duties be replaced by the equivalent number of judges, and that nothing in this chapter shall be construed as legislative intent to provide block grants permanently for subordinate judicial officers who perform the duties of judges.

77203. Reimbursement to an option county pursuant to this chapter shall be in lieu of any sixty thousand dollar ($60,000) block amount traditionally provided by the Legislature for superior court judgeships established since January 1, 1973, for which such grants would otherwise be provided, payment for any prior or current program for which reimbursement of state-mandated local programs for the trial courts is claimed, and payment as provided in Section 77203.5.

77203.5. The initial decision by a county to opt into the system pursuant to Section 77300 shall constitute a waiver of all claims of reimbursement for state-mandated local programs not theretofore approved by the State Board of Control, the Commission on State Mandates, or the courts to the extent the Governor, in his discretion, determines that waiver to be appropriate. The waiver shall not apply to or otherwise affect any claims accruing after initial notification. Renewal, renegotiation, or subsequent notification to continue in the program shall not constitute a waiver.

77204. An amount not less than the block grant owing to an option county shall be expended by the county for court operations. However, an option county shall also continue to provide the trial courts with the same proportionate level of indirect services as was provided in the 1984–85 fiscal year, shall also fulfill its shared financial and other obligations pursuant to Section 68073 of the Government Code, and shall budget for judicial arbitration and court mediation and conciliation services at a level of service proportionate to the number of cases filed subject to such programs in the 1984–85 fiscal year.

77205. The option county shall receive block grant disbursement from the state quarterly.

The Controller shall adopt appropriate regulations for recordkeeping, accounting, and reporting by an option county in order to determine the expenditures and revenues relating to this chapter. The Controller shall perform an annual financial and compliance audit of the reports submitted by option counties under this chapter. The Judicial Council may adopt other pertinent rules to further the implementation of this chapter.

Article 4. County Option Procedure

77300. An option county shall notify the state of its intent to opt into the system on or before August 1 of the year in which this chapter becomes operative, or on or before May 1 of any succeeding year, with annual renewal resolutions to be filed on or before May 1 of any succeeding calendar year, with regard to the immediately following fiscal year.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit the state and an option county by mutual agreement from entering into a two-year option term.

By accepting state funding of trial courts, the county agrees to perform all duties and provide services required by this chapter and all other provisions of law.

77301. A county shall notify the state of its intent to opt into the system by transmitting to the Secretary of State and the Controller a resolution, agreeing to be bound by the provisions of this chapter in consideration for state funding of trial courts in that county.

The resolution shall be signed by the chairperson of the board of supervisors, the presiding judge of the superior court, and the presiding judge of the municipal court district in which the county seat is located, if there is a municipal court, and shall certify that a majority of each of the board of supervisors, the judges of the superior court, and the judges of the municipal courts in the county request state funding.

Article 5. Revenue Recapture

77400. After disposition of all Vehicle Code fines and forfeitures, or portions thereof, in accordance with Sections 1463.02 to 1463.20, inclusive, of the Penal Code, all fines and forfeitures, or portions thereof, which otherwise would accrue to the benefit of a city or cities within an option county, and all filing fees and fines and forfeitures, or portions thereof, which otherwise would accrue to an option county, shall all be transmitted quarterly by the option county to the state.

77401. All moneys so transmitted to the state shall be deposited by the Controller into the Court Funding Trust Account, which is hereby created in the General Fund. Interest on the account shall be to the sole benefit of the state.

77403. In the second and each succeeding fiscal year, the county transmittal amount to the state shall be increased by any increase over and above the preceding year's total amount transmitted to the state or the actual transmittal amount in the preceding fiscal year, whichever is the greater amount.

77404. If the Controller has not received all fines and forfeitures transmitted pursuant to Section 77400 by the tenth day after the end of the month concluding the quarter, the Controller shall withhold subventions to the option county until the money is received by the state.

Article 6. Filing Fees and Inflator Factor

77500. The filing fees in the superior court of an option county shall be the same as those lawfully charged on January 1 of the year in which this chapter becomes operative, subject to the provisions of Section 77501.

The filing fees in a municipal or justice court in an option county shall be the same as those lawfully charged on January 1 of the year in which this chapter becomes operative, subject to the provisions of Section 77501.

77501. On January 1 of the year following the year in which this chapter becomes operative, and on January 1 of each year thereafter, the filing fees in each option county shall be increased by the overall average percentage increase granted to state employees for salaries for the preceding state fiscal year, as determined by the Controller.

Article 7. Reimbursement Distributions

77600. A city in an option county shall be reimbursed by the Controller in the amount it would have received in the prior fiscal year if that city were not in an option county. Such reimbursement shall be made from moneys in the Court Funding Trust Account in two substantially equal payments on or before August 1 and November 1.

77601. This chapter shall not apply in any county for any fiscal year in which the distribution of moneys to cities in that option county is not made as provided in this article.

77603. If an option county elects not to opt into this chapter in a succeeding year or the chapter otherwise becomes inoperative in the county for a succeeding year, then the state or city shall pay, as the case may be, the difference between the amount paid by the state to a city and the actual amount the city would have received from fines, forfeitures, and penalties in the preceding option year. This payment shall be made by November 1 of the succeeding year.

77604. If any portion of this chapter is declared to be unconstitutional or void, the entire chapter shall become inoperative.

SEC. 22. Sections 3 to 20, inclusive, of this act shall become operative on July 1, 1986.

SEC. 23. Sections 2 and 21 of this act shall become operative upon the effective date of a statute appropriating funds for the purposes of this act.

SEC. 24. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act.

2. To do any and all other things necessary or convenient to enable it fully and adequately to exercise its powers, perform its duties, and accomplish the objects and purposes of this resolution; and be it further

Resolved, That the Senate Committee on Rules or the Assembly Committee on Rules may make such money available from the contingent funds under their direction and control as they deem necessary for expenses of the joint committee and its members and the advisory council to the joint committee; that any expenditure of money shall be made in compliance with policies set forth by the rules committee making the money available and shall be subject to approval of that rules committee; and that the joint committee shall, within 15 days of authorization and annually thereafter, present its annual budget to the Joint Rules Committee for its review and comment; and be it further

Resolved, That the committee is authorized to act during this session of the Legislature, including any recess, until the end of the 1985–86 Regular Session, on which date the committee shall terminate.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 8

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 13—Relative to income tax deferral of employee contributions of legislative employees to public retirement systems.

[Filed with Secretary of State February 26, 1985.]

WHEREAS, Section 414 (h) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code allows contributions to a pension plan, although designated under the plan as employee contributions, when paid by the employer in lieu of contributions paid by the employee, under circumstances in which the employee does not have the option of choosing to receive the contributed amounts directly instead of having them paid by the employer, to be excluded, for federal income tax purposes, from the gross income of the employee until these amounts are distributed or made available to the employee (California conforms to that law for state income tax purposes); and

WHEREAS, Implementation of Section 414 (h) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code will result in a reduction of employee wages only for income tax purposes; and

WHEREAS, The following definitions apply for the purpose of implementing Section 414 (h) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code pursuant to this resolution:

(A) "Affected employees" means those employees of the Senate and Assembly of the State of California and of the Office of the Auditor General, the Office of the Legislative Analyst, and the Joint Rules Committee and those officers who are legislative statutory officers as defined by Section 9350.55 of the Government Code, who elect to become members of the retirement system.

(B) "Employee contributions" means those contributions to the retirement system which are deducted from the salary of employees and are credited to individual employees' accounts or required as a condition of obtaining benefits under the retirement system.

(C) "Employer" means the Senate and Assembly of the State of California and the Office of the Auditor General, the Office of the Legislative Analyst, and the Joint Rules Committee.

(D) "Gross income" means the total compensation paid to affected employees by the Legislature of the State of California, as defined in the Internal Revenue Code and rules and regulations established by the Internal Revenue Service.

(E) "Retirement system" means the Public Employees' Retirement System or the Legislators' Retirement System of the State of California.

(F) "Wages" means the salary paid to a hired person for his or her time worked or output of production; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California shall make employee contributions on behalf of affected employees and those contributions shall be treated as employer contributions in determining federal and state income tax under the Internal Revenue Code and the Revenue and Taxation Code. Those contributions shall be made in lieu of employee contributions. The wages of affected employees shall be reduced, solely for income tax purposes, by the amount of employee contributions made by the employer. The employee contributions shall be paid from the same source of funds as used in paying the wages of affected employees. Employee contributions made by the employer shall be treated for all purposes other than state and federal income taxation in the same manner and to the same extent as employee contributions made prior to the operative date of this resolution.

This resolution shall become operative on the 61st day following its adoption; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate shall transmit a copy of this resolution to the Legislators' Retirement System and the Public Employees' Retirement System.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 9

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 3—Relative to the Joint Rules.

[Filed with Secretary of State March 5, 1985.]

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the following rules be adopted as the Temporary Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly for the 1985–86 Regular Session.

Standing Committees

1. Each house shall appoint such standing committees as the business of the house may require, the committees, the number of members, and the manner of selection to be determined by the rules of each house.

Joint Meeting of Committees

3. Whenever any bill has been referred by the Senate to one of its committees, and the same or a like bill has been referred by the Assembly to one of its committees, the chairmen or chairwomen of the respective committees, when in their judgment the interests of legislation or the expedition of business will be better served thereby, shall arrange for a joint meeting of their committees for the consideration of such bill.

Effect of Adoption of Joint Rules

3.5. The adoption of the Joint Rules for any extraordinary session shall not be construed as modifying or rescinding the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly for any previous session, nor as affecting in any way the status or powers of the committees created by those rules.

Definition of Word Bill

4. Whenever the word "bill" is used in these rules, it shall include constitutional amendments, resolutions ratifying proposed amendments to the United States Constitution, and resolutions calling for constitutional conventions.

Concurrent and Joint Resolutions

5. Concurrent resolutions relate to matters to be treated by both houses of the Legislature.

Joint resolutions are those which relate to matters connected with the federal government.

Resolutions Treated as Bills

6. Concurrent and joint resolutions, other than resolutions ratifying proposed amendments to the United States Constitution and resolutions calling for constitutional conventions, shall be treated in all respects as bills except as follows:

(a) They shall be given only one formal reading in each house.

(b) They shall not be deemed bills within the meaning of subdivision (a) of Section 8 of Article IV of the Constitution.

(c) They shall not be deemed bills for the purposes of Rules 10.8, 53, 55, 56, and 61, and subdivisions (a) and (c) of Rule 54 and subdivisions (a) and (b) of Rule 62.

(d) They shall not, except for those relating to voting procedures on the floor or in committee, be deemed bills for the purposes of subdivision (c) of Rule 62.

PREPARATION AND INTRODUCTION OF BILLS

Title of Bill

7. The title of every bill introduced shall convey an accurate idea of the contents of the bill and shall be indicative of the scope of the act and the object to be accomplished. In amending a code section, the mere reference to the section by number shall not be deemed sufficient.

Division of Bill Into Sections

8. A bill amending more than one section of an existing law shall contain a separate section for each section amended.

Bills which are not amendatory of existing laws shall be divided into short sections, where this can be done without destroying the sense of any particular section, to the end that future amendments may be made without the necessity of setting forth and repeating sections of unnecessary length.

Digest of Bills Introduced

8.5. No bill shall be introduced unless it is contained in a cover attached by the Legislative Counsel and unless it is accompanied by a digest, prepared and attached to the bill by the Legislative Counsel, showing the changes in the existing law which are proposed by the bill. No bill shall be printed where the body of the bill or the Legislative Counsel's Digest has been altered, unless the alteration has been approved by the Legislative Counsel. If any bill is presented to the Secretary of the Senate or Chief Clerk of the Assembly for introduction, which does not comply with the foregoing requirements of this rule, the Secretary or Chief Clerk shall return it to the member who presented it. The digest shall be printed on the bill as introduced, commencing on the first page thereof.

Digest of Bills Amended

8.6. Whenever a bill is amended in either house, the Secretary of the Senate or the Chief Clerk of the Assembly, as the case may be, shall request the Legislative Counsel to prepare an amended digest and cause it to be printed on the first page of the bill as amended. The digest shall be amended to show changes in the existing law which are proposed by the bill as amended with any material changes in the digest indicated by the use of appropriate type.

Errors in Digest

8.7. If a material error in a printed digest referred to in Rule 8.5 or 8.6 is brought to the attention of the Legislative Counsel, he shall prepare a corrected digest which shall show the changes made in the digest as provided in Rule 10 for amendments to bills. He shall deliver the corrected digest to the Secretary of the Senate or the Chief Clerk of the Assembly, as the case may be. If the correction warrants it in the opinion of the President pro Tempore of the Senate or the Speaker of the Assembly, a corrected print of the bill as introduced shall be ordered with the corrected digest printed thereon.

Bills Amending Title 9 of the Government Code

8.8. A member who is the first-named author of a bill which would amend, add, or repeal any provision of Title 9 (commencing with Section 81000) of the Government Code, upon introduction or amendment of such bill in either house shall notify the Chief Clerk of the Assembly or the Secretary of the Senate, as the case may be, of the nature of such bill. Thereafter, the Chief Clerk of the Assembly or the Secretary of the Senate shall deliver a copy of such bill as introduced or amended to the Fair Political Practices Commission pursuant to Section 81012 of the Government Code.

Restrictions as to Amendments

9. A substitute or amendment must relate to the same subject as the original bill, constitutional amendment, or resolution under consideration. No amendment shall be in order when all that would be done to the bill is the addition of a coauthor or coauthors, unless the Rules Committee of the house in which such an amendment is to be offered grants prior approval.

Changes in Existing Law to Be Marked by Author

10. In a bill amending or repealing a code section or a general law, any new matter shall be underlined and any matter to be omitted shall be in type bearing a horizontal line through the center and commonly known as "strikeout" type. When printed the new matter shall be printed in italics, and the matter to be omitted shall be printed in "strikeout" type.

In any amendment to a bill which sets out for the first time a section being amended or repealed, any new matter to be added and any matter to be omitted shall be indicated by the author and shall be printed in the same manner as though the section as amended or repealed were a part of the original bill and was being printed for the first time.

When an entire code is repealed as part of a codification or recodification or when an entire title, part, division, chapter, or article of a code is repealed, the sections comprising such code, title, part, division, chapter, or article shall not be set forth in the bill or amendment in strikeout type.

Rereference to Fiscal and Rules Committees

10.5. Bills shall be rereferred to the fiscal committee of each house when they would do any of the following:

(1) Appropriate money.

(2) Result in substantial expenditure of state money by: (a) imposing new responsibilities on the state or (b) imposing new or additional duties on a state agency or (c) liberalizing any state program, function, or responsibility.

(3) Result in a substantial loss of revenue to the state.

(4) Result in substantial reduction of expenditures of state money by reducing, transferring, or eliminating any existing responsibilities of any state agency, program, or function.

Concurrent and joint resolutions shall be rereferred to the fiscal committee of each house when they contemplate any action which would involve any of the following:

(1) Any substantial expenditure of state money.

(2) Any substantial loss of revenue to the state.

The above requirements do not apply to bills or concurrent resolutions which contemplate the expenditure or allocation of contingent funds.

A bill which assigns a study to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee or to the Legislative Analyst shall be rereferred to the respective rules committees. Before the committee shall act upon such bill, it shall obtain from the Joint Legislative Budget Committee an estimate of the amount required to be expended to make the study.

Heading of Bills

10.7. No bill shall indicate in its heading or elsewhere that it was introduced at the request of a state agency or officer or any other person. No bill shall contain the words "By request" or words of similar import.

Consideration of Bills

10.8. The limitation contained in subdivision (a) of Section 8 of Article IV of the Constitution may be dispensed with as follows

(a) A written request for such dispensation entitled "Request to Consider and Act on Bill Within 30 Calendar Days" shall be filed with the Chief Clerk of the Assembly or the Secretary of the Senate, as the case may be, printed in the Journal and transmitted to the Committee on Rules of the appropriate house.

(b) The Committee on Rules of the Assembly or Senate, as the case may be, shall determine whether there exists an urgent need for dispensing with the 30-calendar-day waiting period following the bill's introduction.

(c) If the Committee on Rules recommends that the waiting period be dispensed with, the member may offer a resolution, without further reference thereof to committee, authorizing hearing and action upon the bill before the 30 calendar days have elapsed. The adoption of the resolution shall require an affirmative recorded vote of three-fourths of the elected members of the house in which the resolution is presented.

Printing of Amendments

11. (a) All bills amended by either house shall be immediately reprinted. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b), if new matter is added by the amendment, the new matter shall be printed in italics in the printed bill; if matter is omitted, the matter to be omitted shall be printed in strikeout type. When a bill is amended in either house, the first or previous markings shall be omitted.

(b) If amendments to a bill, including the report of a committee on conference, are adopted that omit the entire contents of the bill, the matter omitted need not be reprinted in the amended version of the bill. Instead, the Secretary of the Senate or the Chief Clerk of the Assembly, as the case may be, may select any such amended bill and cause to be printed a brief statement to appear after the last line of the amended bill identifying which previously printed version of the bill contains the complete text of the omitted matter.

Manner of Printing Bills

12. The State Printer shall observe the directions of the Joint Rules Committee in printing all bills, constitutional amendments, and concurrent and joint resolutions.

Distribution of Legislative Publications

13. The Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the Assembly shall order a sufficient number of bills and legislative publications as may be necessary for legislative requirements.

No complete list of bills shall be delivered except upon payment therefor of such sum as may be fixed by the Joint Rules Committee for any regular or extraordinary session. No more than one copy of any bill or other legislative publication, nor more than a total of 100 bills or other legislative publications during a session, shall be distributed free to any person, office, or organization. The limitations imposed by this paragraph do not apply to Members of the Legislature, the President of the Senate, the Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the Assembly for the proper functioning of their respective houses; the Legislative Counsel Bureau; Attorney General's office; Secretary of State's office; Controller's office; Governor's office; the Clerk of the Supreme Court; the clerk of the court of appeal for each district; the Judicial Council; the California Law Revision Commission; the State Library; the Library of Congress; the libraries of the University of California at Berkeley and at Los Angeles; and accredited members of the press. The State Printer shall fix the cost of such bills and publications, including postage, and such moneys as may be received by him shall, after deducting the cost of handling and mailing, be remitted on the first day of each month, one-half each to the Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the Assembly for credit to legislative printing. Legislative publications heretofore distributed through the Bureau of Documents shall be distributed through the Bill Room. Unless otherwise provided for, the total number of each bill to be printed shall not be more than 2,500.

Summary Digest and Legislative Index

13.1. The Legislative Counsel shall provide for the periodic publication of a cumulative Legislative Index which shall include tables of sections affected by pending legislation. The State Printer shall print the Legislative Index in such quantities, and at such times, as are determined by the Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the Assembly. The costs of such printing shall be paid from the legislative printing appropriation.

13.3. The Legislative Counsel shall compile and prepare for publication a summary digest of legislation passed at each regular and extraordinary session, which digest shall be prepared in a form suitable for inclusion in the publication of statutes. The digest shall be printed as a separate legislative publication on the order of the Joint Rules Committee and may be made available to the public in such quantities and at such prices as the Joint Rules Committee may determine.

13.5. The Legislative Counsel shall prepare for publication from time to time a cumulative statutory record. The statutory record shall be printed as a legislative publication on the order of the Secretary of the Senate or the Chief Clerk of the Assembly.

OTHER LEGISLATIVE PRINTING

Printing of the Daily Journal

14. The State Printer shall print in such quantity as directed by the Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the Assembly, copies of the journal of each day's proceedings of each house. At the end of the session he shall also print, as directed by the Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the Assembly a sufficient number of copies properly paged after being corrected and indexed by the Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the Assembly, to bind in book form as the journal of the respective houses of the Legislature.

What Shall Be Printed in the Journal

15. The following shall always be printed in the journal of each house:

(a) Messages from the Governor and messages from the other house, and the titles of all bills, joint and concurrent resolutions, and constitutional amendments when introduced in, offered to, or acted upon by the house.

(b) Every vote taken in the house, and a statement of the contents of each petition, memorial, or paper presented to the house.

(c) A true and accurate account of the proceedings of the house, when not acting as a Committee of the Whole.

Printing of the Daily File

16. A daily file of bills ready for consideration shall be printed each day for each house when the Legislature is not in joint recess except days when a house does not meet.

Printing of History

17. Each house shall cause to be printed, once each week, a complete history of all bills; constitutional amendments; and concurrent, joint, and house resolutions originating in, considered, or acted upon by the respective houses and committees thereof. A regular form shall be prescribed by the Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the Assembly. Such history shall show the action taken upon each measure up to and including the legislative day preceding its issuance. Except for periods when the houses are in joint recess, for each day intervening there shall be printed a daily history showing the consideration given to or action taken upon any measure since the issuance of the complete history.

Authority for Printing Orders

18. The State Printer shall not print for use of either house nor charge to legislative printing any matter other than provided by law or by the rules, except upon a written order signed by the Secretary of the Senate, on behalf of the Senate, or the Chief Clerk of the Assembly or other person authorized by the Assembly, on behalf of the Assembly. Persons authorized to order printing under this rule may, when necessity requires it, order certain matter printed in advance of the regular order, by the issuance of a rush order.

The Secretary of the Senate, on behalf of the Senate, and the Chief Clerk of the Assembly or other person authorized by the Assembly, on behalf of the Assembly, are hereby authorized and directed to order and distribute for the members stationery and legislative publications for which there is a demand, and, subject to the rules of their respective houses, to approve the bills covering such orders. All bills for printing must be presented by the State Printer within 30 days after the completion of the printing.

RECORD OF BILLS

Secretary and Chief Clerk to Keep Records

19. The Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the Assembly shall keep a complete and accurate record of every action taken by the Senate and Assembly on every bill.

Secretary and Chief Clerk Shall Endorse Bills

20. The Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the Assembly shall endorse on every original or engrossed bill a statement of any action taken by the Senate or Assembly concerning such bill.

ACTION IN ONE HOUSE ON BILL TRANSMITTED FROM THE OTHER

After a Bill Has Been Passed by the Senate or Assembly

21. When a bill has been passed by either house it shall be transmitted promptly to the other unless a motion to reconsider or a notice of motion to reconsider has been made or it is held pursuant to some rule or order of the house.

The procedure of referring bills to committees shall be determined by the respective houses.

Messages to Be in Writing Under Proper Signatures

22. Notice of the action of either house to the other shall be in writing and under the signature of the Secretary of the Senate or the Chief Clerk of the Assembly from which such message is to be conveyed. A receipt shall be taken from the officer to whom such message is delivered.

Uncontested Bills

22.1. Each standing committee may report an uncontested bill out of committee with the recommendation that it be placed on the consent calendar. The Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the Assembly shall provide to each committee chairman or chairwoman appropriate forms for such report. As used in this rule, "uncontested bill" means a bill, except a revenue measure or a measure as to which the 30-day limitation prescribed by subdivision (a) of Section 8 of Article IV of the Constitution has been dispensed with, which: (a) receives a do-pass or do-pass-as-amended recommendation from the committee to which it is referred, by unanimous vote of the members present provided a quorum is present; and (b) has no opposition expressed by any person present at the committee meeting with respect to the final version of the bill as approved by the committee; and (c) prior to final action by the committee has been requested, by the author, to be placed on the consent calendar.

Consent Calendar

22.2. Following their second reading and the adoption of any committee amendments thereto, all bills certified by the committee chairman or chairwoman as uncontested bills shall be placed by the Secretary of the Senate or the Chief Clerk of the Assembly on the consent calendar, and shall be known as "consent calendar bills." Any consent calendar bill which is amended from the floor shall cease to be a consent calendar bill and shall be replaced on the third reading file. Upon objection of any member to the placement or retention of any bill on the consent calendar, such bill shall cease to be a consent calendar bill and shall be replaced on the third reading file. No consent calendar bill shall be considered for adoption until the second legislative day following the day of its placement on the consent calendar.

Consideration of Bills on Consent Calendar

22.3. Bills on the consent calendar are not debatable, except that the President of the Senate or the Speaker of the Assembly shall allow a reasonable time for questions from the floor and shall permit the proponents of such bills to answer such questions. Immediately prior to voting on the first bill on the consent calendar, the President of the Senate or the Speaker of the Assembly shall call to the attention of the members the fact that the next rollcall will be the rollcall on the first bill on the consent calendar.

The consent calendar shall be considered as the last order of business on the daily file.

PASSAGE AND ENROLLING OF BILLS

Procedure on Defeat of More Than Majority Bill

23.5. Whenever a bill containing a section or sections requiring for passage an affirmative recorded vote of more than 21 votes in the Senate and more than 41 votes in the Assembly is being considered for passage and the urgency clause, if the bill is an urgency bill, or the bill, in any case, fails to receive the necessary votes to make all sections effective, no further action may be taken on the bill; provided that an amendment to remove all sections requiring the higher vote for passage from the bill shall be in order prior to consideration of further business. If the amendment is adopted, the bill shall be reprinted to reflect such amendment. When the bill is reprinted, it shall be returned to the same place on the file as when it failed to receive the necessary votes.

Enrollment of Bill After Passage

24. After a bill has passed both houses it shall be printed in enrolled form, omitting symbols indicating amendments, and shall be compared by the Engrossing and Enrolling Clerk and the proper committee of the house where it originated to determine that it is in the form approved by the houses. The enrolled bill shall thereupon be signed by the Secretary of the Senate and Chief Clerk of the Assembly and, except as otherwise provided by these rules, presented without delay to the Governor. The committee shall report the time of presentation of the bill to the Governor to the house and the record shall be entered in the journal. After enrollment and signature by the officers of the Legislature, constitutional amendments, and concurrent and joint resolutions shall be filed without delay in the office of the Secretary of State and the time of filing shall be reported to the house and the record entered in the journal.

AMENDMENTS AND CONFERENCES

Amendments to Amended Bills Must Be Attached

25. Whenever a bill or resolution which shall have been passed in one house shall be amended in the other, it shall immediately be reprinted as amended by the house making such amendment or amendments. Two copies of such amendment or amendments shall be attached to the bill or resolution so amended, and endorsed "adopted" and such amendment or amendments, if concurred in by the house in which such bill or resolution originated, shall be endorsed "concurred in," and such endorsement shall be signed by the Secretary or Assistant Secretary of the Senate, or the Chief Clerk or Assistant Clerk of the Assembly, as the case may be; provided, however, that an amendment to the title of a bill adopted after the passage of such bill shall not necessitate reprinting, but such amendment must be concurred in by the house in which such bill originated.

Amendments to Concurrent and Joint Resolutions

25.5. When a concurrent or joint resolution is amended, and the only effect of the amendments is to add coauthors, the joint or concurrent resolution shall not be reprinted unless specifically requested by one of the added coauthors, but a list of the coauthors shall appear in the journal and history.

To Concur or Refuse to Concur in Amendments

26. In case the Senate amends and passes an Assembly bill, or the Assembly amends and passes a Senate bill, the Senate (if it be a Senate bill) or the Assembly (if it be an Assembly bill) must either "concur" or "refuse to concur" in the amendments. If the Senate concurs (if it be a Senate bill), or the Assembly concurs (if it be an Assembly bill), the Secretary or Chief Clerk shall notify the house making the amendments and the bill shall be ordered to enrollment.

Reference to Committee

26.5. Pursuant to Rule 26, whenever a bill is returned to its house of origin for a vote on concurrence in an amendment made in the other house, the Legislative Counsel shall promptly prepare and transmit to the Chief Clerk of the Assembly and the Speaker of the Assembly in the case of an Assembly bill, or to the Secretary of the Senate and Chairman of the Senate Committee on Rules in the case of a Senate bill, a brief digest summarizing the effect of the amendment made in the other house. The Secretary or Chief Clerk shall cause the digest to be printed in the Daily File immediately following any reference to the bill covered by the digest. A motion to concur or refuse to concur in the amendment shall not be in order until such time as the Legislative Counsel's Digest has appeared in the file.

If the digest discloses that the amendment of the other house has made a substantial substantive change in the bill as first passed by the house of origin, the bill shall on motion of the Chairman of the Senate Committee on Rules, if it be a Senate bill, be referred to the Senate Committee on Rules for reference to an appropriate standing committee. If the bill is an Assembly bill it shall be referred by the Chief Clerk of the Assembly, with the approval of the Speaker, to the committee of first reference. If the Speaker, upon evaluation of the bill, determines that the committee of first reference is not an appropriate committee to hear the amended bill, the Speaker shall not approve referral to that committee, but shall instead refer the bill to the Assembly Committee on Rules for rereferral.

Upon receipt of such a bill, the committee may vote to recommend concurrence or nonconcurrence in the amendment or the committee may hold the bill. The committee shall be subject to all the requirements for procedure provided under Rule 62 for committees other than for committees of first referral, and such other requirements for normal committee procedure as the Assembly or Senate may separately provide in the standing rules of their respective houses.

Any of the provisions of this rule may be dispensed with regard to a particular bill in its house of origin upon an affirmative vote of a majority of the members of that house.

Concurring in Amendments Adding Urgency Section

27. When a bill which has been passed in one house is amended in the other by the addition of a section providing that the act shall take effect immediately as an urgency statute and is returned to the house in which it originated for concurrence in the amendment or amendments thereto, the procedure and vote thereon shall be as follows:

The presiding officer shall first direct that the urgency section be read and put to a vote. If two-thirds of the members elected to the house vote in the affirmative, the presiding officer shall then direct that the question of whether the house shall concur in the amendment or amendments shall be put to a vote. If two-thirds of all the members elected to the house vote in the affirmative, concurrence in the amendments shall be effective.

If the affirmative vote on either of such questions is less than two-thirds of all the members elected to such house, the effect is a refusal to concur in the amendment or amendments, and the procedure thereupon shall be as provided in Rule 28.

When Senate or Assembly Refuse to Concur

28. If the Senate (if it be a Senate bill) or the Assembly (if it be an Assembly bill) refuses to concur in amendments to the bill made by the other house, and when the other house has been notified of such refusal to concur, a conference committee shall be appointed for each house in the manner prescribed by these rules. The Committee on Rules in the case of the Senate and the Speaker of the Assembly in the case of the Assembly shall each appoint a committee of three on conference, and the Secretary of the Senate or the Chief Clerk of the Assembly shall immediately notify the other house of the action taken.

Committee on Conference

28.1. The Senate Committee on Rules and the Speaker of the Assembly, in appointing a committee on conference, shall each select two members from those voting with the majority on the point about which the difference has arisen, and the other member from the minority, in the event there is a minority vote.

Whether a member has voted with the majority or minority on the point about which the difference has arisen is determined by his vote on the appropriate rollcall, as follows:

(1) In the Assembly—

(a) The rollcall on the question of final passage of a Senate bill amended in the Assembly when the Senate has refused to concur with the Assembly amendments.

(b) The rollcall on the question of concurrence with Senate amendments to an Assembly bill.

(2) In the Senate—

(a) The rollcall on the question of final passage of an Assembly bill amended in the Senate when the Assembly has refused to concur with the Senate amendments.

(b) The rollcall on the question of concurrence with Assembly amendments to a Senate bill.

Meetings and Reports of Committees on Conference

29. The first Senator named on the conference committee shall act as chairman or chairwoman of the committee from the Senate, and the first Member of the Assembly named on such committee shall act as chairman or chairwoman of the committee from the Assembly. The chairman or chairwoman of the committee on conference for the house of origin of the bill shall arrange the time and place of meeting of the conference committee and shall prepare or direct the preparation of reports. It shall require an affirmative vote of not less than two of the Assembly Members and two of the Senate Members constituting the committee on conference to agree upon a report, and the report shall be submitted to both the Senate and the Assembly. The committee on conference shall report to both the Senate and the Assembly. Such report is not subject to amendment, and if either house refuses to adopt such report, the conferees shall be discharged and other conferees appointed; provided, however, that no more than three different conference committees shall be appointed on any one bill. No member who has served on a committee on conference shall be appointed a member of another committee on conference on the same bill. It shall require the same affirmative recorded vote to adopt any conference report as required by the Constitution upon the final passage of the bill affected by such report. It shall require an affirmative recorded vote of two-thirds of the entire elected membership of each house to adopt any conference report affecting any bill which contains an item or items of appropriation which are subject to subdivision (d) of Section 12 of Article IV of the Constitution. The report of a conference committee shall be in writing, and shall have affixed thereto the signatures of each Senator and each Member of the Assembly consenting to the report. Space shall also be provided where a member of a conference committee may indicate his dissent in the committee's findings. Any dissenting member may have attached to a conference committee report a dissenting report which shall not exceed, in length, the majority committee report. A copy of any amendments proposed in the majority report shall be placed on the desk of each member of the house before it is acted upon by the house.

The vote on concurrence or upon the adoption of such conference report shall be deemed the vote upon final passage of such bill.

Conference Committees

29.5. (a) All meetings of any conference committee on the Budget Bill shall be open and readily accessible to the public.

No conference committee on any bill may meet, consider, or act on the subject matter of the bill except in a meeting that is open and readily accessible to the public; unless the action is on a report determined by the Legislative Counsel to be nonsubstantive. The Legislative Counsel shall examine each proposed report and shall note upon the face of the report that the amendments proposed are "substantive" or "nonsubstantive" as the case may be.

The chairman or chairwoman of the conference committee of each house shall give notice to the file clerk of their respective houses of the time and place of such meeting. Notice of each public meeting shall be published in the file of each house one calendar day prior to the meeting, except that such notice shall not be required for a meeting of a conference committee on the Budget Bill. When the provisions of this subdivision are waived with respect to a meeting of any public conference committee, and when there is a meeting of a conference committee on the Budget Bill, every effort shall be made to inform the public that such a meeting has been called. When the provisions of this subdivision have been waived with respect to meeting of any public conference committee, the chairman or chairwoman of the conference committee of each house shall immediately notify the chairman or chairwoman of the policy committee of their respective houses that considered the bill in question of the waiver, and of the time and place of the meeting.

(b) The first committee on conference of the Budget Bill, if such a committee is appointed, shall submit its report to each house no later than 15 days after the Budget Bill has been passed by both houses. If such report is not submitted by such date, the conference committee shall be deemed to have reached no agreement and shall so inform each house pursuant to Rule 30.7.

(c) A committee on conference of the Budget Bill shall only consider differences between the Assembly version of the Budget Bill as passed by the Assembly and the Senate version of the Budget Bill as passed by the Senate and shall not approve any item of expenditure nor control which exceeds that contained in one of the two versions before the conference committee.

(d) No conference committee on any bill, other than the Budget Bill, shall approve any substantial financial provision in any bill if such financial provision has not been heard by the fiscal committee of each house, nor shall any such conference committee approve substantial policy changes which have not been heard by the policy committee of each house.

(e) No waiver of the one calendar day file notice requirement of subdivision (a) shall be effective for longer than three calendar days.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORTS

30. Upon submission of the report of a committee on conference, if the report recommends that the bill be further amended, the bill shall be reprinted incorporating the amendments recommended by the conference committee. The consideration of the report of a committee on conference shall not be in order until the bill in the form recommended by the report of the committee on conference has both been in print and been noticed in the Daily File for not less than one legislative day.

If the conference committee's report recommends only that the amendments of the Senate or the Assembly "be concurred in", consideration of the report shall be in order at any time, and reprinting of the bill shall not be required, but notice shall appear in the Daily File for not less than one legislative day.

No conference committee report shall be in order unless it has been received by the Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the Assembly at least three calendar days preceding the scheduled commencement of the summer, interim, or final recesses of the Legislature.

The provisions of this rule may be suspended as to any particular conference committee report by a two-thirds vote of the membership of either house.

This rule shall not apply to a report of a committee on conference on the Budget Bill.

Conference Committee Reports on Urgency Statutes

30.5. When the report of a committee on conference recommends the amendment of a bill by the addition of a section providing that the act shall take effect immediately as an urgency statute, the procedure and the vote thereon shall be as follows:

The presiding officer shall first direct that the urgency section be read and put to a vote. If two-thirds of the members elected to the house vote in the affirmative, the presiding officer shall then direct that the question of whether the house shall adopt the report of the committee on conference shall be put to a vote. If two-thirds of the members elected to the house vote in the affirmative, the adoption of the report and the amendments proposed thereby shall be effective.

If the affirmative vote on either of such questions is less than two-thirds of the members elected to such house, the effect is a refusal to adopt the report of the committee on conference.

Failure to Agree on Report

30.7. A conference committee may find and determine that it is unable to submit a report to the respective houses, upon the affirmative vote to that effect of not less than two of the Assembly Members and not less than two of the Senate Members constituting the committee. Such finding may be submitted to the Chief Clerk of the Assembly and the Secretary of the Senate in the form of a letter from the chairman of the committee on conference for the house of origin of the bill, containing the signatures of the members of the committee consenting to the finding and determination that the committee is unable to submit a report. The Chief Clerk of the Assembly and the Secretary of the Senate, upon being notified that a conference committee is unable to submit a report, shall so inform each house, whereupon the conferees shall be discharged and other conferees appointed, in accordance with the provisions of Rule 29.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Authority When Rules Do Not Govern

31. All relations between the houses which are not covered by these rules shall be governed by Mason's Manual.

Press Rules

32. (a) Persons desiring privileges of accredited press representatives shall make application to the Joint Rules Committee. Such application shall constitute compliance with any provisions of the Rules of the Assembly or the Senate with respect to registration of news correspondents. Applications shall state in writing the names of the daily newspapers, periodic publications, news associations, or radio or television stations by which they are employed, and what other occupations or employment they may have, if any; and they shall further declare that they are not employed, directly or indirectly, to assist in the prosecution of the legislative business of any person, corporation, or association, and will not become so employed while retaining the privilege of accredited press representatives.

(b) The applications required by subdivision (a) of this rule shall be authenticated in a manner that shall be satisfactory to the Standing Committee of the Capitol Correspondents Association which shall see that occupation of seats and desks in the Senate and the Assembly Chambers is confined to bona fide correspondents of reputable standing in their business, who represent daily newspapers requiring a daily file of legislative news, qualified periodic publications, or news associations requiring daily telegraphic or radio or television service on legislative news. It shall be the duty of the standing committee at its discretion, to report violation of accredited press privileges to the Speaker of the Assembly, or to the Senate Committee on Rules, and pending action thereon the offending correspondent may be suspended by the standing committee.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, persons engaged in other occupations whose chief attention is not given to newspaper correspondence or to news associations requiring telegraphic or radio or television service shall not be entitled to the privileges accorded accredited press representatives; and the press list in the Handbook of the California Legislature and the Senate and Assembly Histories shall be a list only of persons authenticated by the standing committee of correspondents. Accreditation may be granted to bona fide correspondents of reputable standing employed by periodic publications of general circulation, providing that the applicants are employed on a full-time basis in the capitol area preparing articles dealing with state government and politics and that their publications are not organs or organizations involved in legislative advocacy.

(d) The press seats and desks in the Senate and Assembly Chambers shall be under the control of the standing committee of correspondents, subject to the approval and supervision of the Speaker of the Assembly and the Senate Committee on Rules. Press cards shall be issued by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the Assembly only to correspondents properly accredited in accordance with the provisions of this rule.

(e) One or more rooms shall be assigned for the exclusive use of correspondents during the legislative session, which rooms shall be known as the Press Room. The Press Room shall be under the control of the Chief of the Bureau of Buildings and Grounds; provided, that all rules and regulations shall be approved by the Senate Committee on Rules and the Speaker of the Assembly.

(f) No accredited member of the Capitol Correspondents Association shall, for compensation, perform any service for state constitutional officers or members of their staffs, for state agencies, for the Legislature, for candidates for state office, or for a state officeholder, or for any person registered or performing as a legislative advocate.

(g) An accredited member of the association who violates subdivision (a) or (f) of this rule shall be subject to the following penalties:

(1) For the first offense, the Standing Committee of the Capitol Correspondents Association shall send a letter of admonition to the offending member, his employer, and the Joint Rules Committee. The letter shall state the nature of the member's rule violation and shall warn of an additional penalty for a second offense.

(2) For a second offense, the Standing Committee of the Capitol Correspondents Association shall recommend to the Joint Rules Committee that the member's accreditation be suspended or revoked and that he lose all rights and privileges attached thereto. The Standing Committee of the Capitol Correspondents Association shall also dismiss the member from the association.

Any member of the Standing Committee of the Capitol Correspondents Association may propose that the committee make an inquiry to determine if an association member has violated subdivision (a) or (f) of this rule. Upon a majority vote of the Standing Committee of the Capitol Correspondents Association, an inquiry shall be made.

Upon receipt of a signed, written notice from any association member of his belief that another association member may have violated subdivision (a) or (f) of this rule, the Standing Committee of the Capitol Correspondents Association shall commence an inquiry into the possible violation.

If the Standing Committee of the Capitol Correspondents Association determines by majority vote that an association member has broken an association rule, it shall inform the member of its finding. Within two weeks of notification, the member may request a meeting of the membership. If the member makes such a request, the Standing Committee of the Capitol Correspondents Association shall promptly schedule a meeting at the earliest possible time. After hearing the member and the committee review the circumstances of the alleged violation, the membership may, by majority vote, nullify the finding of the Standing Committee of the Capitol Correspondents Association. If nullification does not occur, the Standing Committee of the Capitol Correspondents Association shall impose immediately the appropriate penalty.

Dispensing With Joint Rules

33. No joint rule shall be dispensed with except by a vote of two-thirds of each house, except as otherwise provided in these rules. If either house shall violate a joint rule, a question of order may be raised in the other house and decided in the same manner as in the case of the violation of the rules of such house; and if it shall be decided that the joint rules have been violated, the bill involving such violations shall be returned to the house in which it originated, and such disputed matter be considered in like manner as in conference committee.

Opinions of Legislative Counsel

34. Whenever the Legislative Counsel issues an opinion to any person other than the first-named author analyzing the constitutionality, operation, or effect of a bill or other legislative measure which is then pending before the Legislature or of any amendment made or proposed to be made to such bill or measure, he is authorized and instructed to deliver two copies of the opinion to the first-named author as promptly as feasible after the delivery of the original opinion and also to deliver a copy to any other author of the bill or measure who so requests. A copy of any letter prepared by the Legislative Counsel for the sole purpose of advising a member of a conflict between two or more bills as to the sections of law being amended, repealed, or added shall be submitted to the chairman of the committee to which each such bill has been referred.

Resolutions Prepared by Legislative Counsel

34.1. Whenever the Legislative Counsel has been requested to draft a resolution commemorating or taking note of any event, or a resolution congratulating or expressing sympathy toward any person, and subsequently receives a similar request from another Member of the Legislature, he shall inform that requester and each subsequent requester that such a resolution is being, or has been, prepared, and he shall inform them of the name of the member for whom the resolution was, or is being, prepared.

Resolutions

34.2. A concurrent resolution, Senate resolution, or House resolution may be introduced to memorialize the death of a present or former state or federal elected official or a member of their immediate families. In all other instances, a resolution other than a concurrent resolution, as specified by the Committee on Rules of each house, or as provided by the Joint Rules Committee in those cases which require that such resolution should emanate from both houses, shall be used for the purpose of commendation, congratulation, sympathy, or regret with respect to any person, group, or organization.

No concurrent resolution requesting the Governor to issue a proclamation shall be introduced without the prior approval of the Committee on Rules of the house in which the resolution is to be introduced.

Identical Drafting Requests

34.5. Whenever it shall come to the attention of the Legislative Counsel that a member has requested the drafting of a bill which will be substantially identical to one already introduced, he shall inform such member of that fact.

Expense of Members

35. As provided in Section 8902 of the Government Code, each Member of the Legislature is entitled to reimbursement for living expenses while required to be in Sacramento to attend a session of the Legislature, or while traveling to and from or in attendance at a committee meeting, or while attending to any legislative function or responsibility as authorized or directed by legislative rules or the Committee on Rules of the house of which he or she is a member at the same rate as may be established by the State Board of Control for other elected state officers. Each member shall be reimbursed for travel expenses incurred in traveling to and from a session of the Legislature, or when traveling to and from a meeting of a committee of which he or she is a member, or when traveling pursuant to any other legislative function or responsibility as authorized or directed by legislative rules or the Committee on Rules of the house of which he or she is a member at the rate prescribed by Section 8903 of the Government Code.

Expense allowances for Members of the Senate and Assembly shall be approved and certified to the Controller by the Secretary of the Senate, on behalf of the Senate, and the Chief Clerk of the Assembly or other person authorized by the Assembly Committee on Rules, on behalf of the Assembly, weekly or as otherwise directed by either house, and upon such certification the Controller shall draw his or her warrants in payment of the allowances to the respective members.

Investigating Committees

36. In order to expedite the work of the Legislature either house, or both houses jointly, may by resolution or statute provide for the appointment of committees to ascertain facts and to make recommendations as to any subject within the scope of legislative regulation or control.

The resolution providing for the appointment of a committee shall state the purpose of the committee, and the scope of the subject concerning which it is to act and may authorize it to act either during sessions of the Legislature or, when such authorization may lawfully be made, after final adjournment.

In the exercise of the power granted by this rule, each committee may employ such clerical, legal, and technical assistants as may be authorized by: (a) the Joint Committee on Rules in the case of a joint committee, (b) the Senate Committee on Rules in the case of a Senate committee, or (c) the Assembly Committee on Rules in the case of an Assembly committee.

Except as otherwise provided herein for joint committees or by the Rules of the Senate or the Assembly for single house committees, each committee may adopt and amend such rules governing its procedure as may appear necessary and proper to carry out the powers granted and duties imposed under this rule. Such rules may include provisions fixing the quorum of the committee and the number of votes necessary to take action on any matter. With respect to all joint committees, a majority of the membership from each house constitutes a quorum and an affirmative vote of a majority of the membership from each house is necessary for the committee to take action.

Each such committee is authorized and empowered to summon and subpoena witnesses, require the production of papers, books, accounts, reports, documents, records, and papers of every kind and description, to issue subpoenas, and to take all necessary means to compel the attendance of witnesses and to procure testimony, oral and documentary.

Each member of such committees is authorized and empowered to administer oaths, and all of the provisions of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 9400), Part 1, Division 2, Title 2 of the Government Code, relating to the attendance and examination of witnesses before the Legislature and the committees thereof, shall apply to such committees.

The Sergeant at Arms of the Senate or Assembly, or such other person as may be designated by the chairman or chairwoman of the committee, shall serve any and all subpoenas, orders, and other process that may be issued by the committee, when directed to do so by the chairman, chairwoman, or by a majority of the membership of the committee.

Every department, commission, board, agency, officer, and employee of the state government, including the Legislative Counsel and the Attorney General and their subordinates, and of every political subdivision, county, city, or public district of or in this state, shall give and furnish to these committees and to their subcommittees upon request such information, records, and documents as the committees deem necessary or proper for the achievement of the purposes for which each such committee was created.

Each committee or subcommittee of either house in accordance with the rules of that respective house and each joint committee or subcommittee thereof, may meet at any time during the period in which it is authorized to act, either at the State Capitol, or at any other place in the State of California, in public or executive session, and do any and all things necessary or convenient to enable it to exercise the powers and perform the duties herein granted to it or accomplish the objects and purposes of the resolution creating it with the following exceptions:

(a) When the Legislature is not in joint recess:

(1) No committee or subcommittee of either house shall meet outside the State Capitol without the prior approval of the Senate Committee on Rules with respect to Senate committees and subcommittees and the Speaker of the Assembly with respect to Assembly committees and subcommittees.

(2) No committee or subcommittee of either house, other than a standing committee or subcommittee thereof, shall meet unless notice of such meeting has been printed in the daily file for four days prior thereto. This requirement may be waived by a majority vote of either house with respect to a particular bill.

(3) No joint committee or subcommittee thereof, other than the Joint Committees on Legislative Audit, Legislative Budget, Legislative Ethics, and Rules, shall meet outside the State Capitol without the prior approval of the Joint Rules Committee.

(4) No joint committee or subcommittee thereof, other than the Joint Committees on Legislative Audit, Legislative Budget, Legislative Ethics, and Rules, shall meet unless notice of such meeting has been printed in the daily file for four days prior thereto.

(b) When the Legislature is in joint recess each joint committee or subcommittee, other than the Joint Committees on Legislative Audit, Legislative Budget, Legislative Ethics, and Rules, shall notify the Joint Rules Committee at least two weeks prior to any such meeting.

(c) The requirements placed upon joint committees by subdivisions (a) and (b) of this rule may be waived where it is deemed necessary by the Joint Rules Committee.

Each such committee may expend such money as may be made available to it for such purpose but no committee shall incur any indebtedness unless money shall have been first made available therefor.

No living expenses shall be allowed in connection with legislative business for a day on which the member receives reimbursement for expenses while required to be in Sacramento to attend a session of the Legislature. The chairman or chairwoman of each committee shall audit and approve the expense claims of the members of the committee including claims for mileage in connection with attendance on committee business, or in connection with specific assignments by the committee chairman or chairwoman, but excluding other types of mileage, and shall certify the amount approved to the Controller, and the Controller shall draw his warrants upon the certification of the chairman or chairwoman.

Subject to the rules of each house for the respective committees of each house, and subject to the joint rules for any joint committee, the chairman or chairwoman of any such committee may appoint subcommittees and chairmen or chairwomen thereof for the purpose of more expeditiously handling and considering matters referred to it, and such subcommittees and the chairmen or chairwomen thereof shall have all the powers and authority herein conferred upon the committee and its chairman or chairwoman. The chairman or chairwoman of such subcommittee shall audit the expense claims of the members of such subcommittees and other claims and the expenses incurred by it and shall certify the amount thereof to the chairman or chairwoman of the committee who shall, if he approves the same, certify the amount thereof to the Controller, and the Controller shall draw his warrant therefor upon such certification, and the Treasurer shall pay the same. Whenever such committee or any subcommittee thereof is authorized to leave the State of California in the performance of its duties, then such committee or subcommittee shall, while out of the state, have the same authority as if it were acting and functioning within the state, and the members thereof shall be reimbursed for expenses.

Notwithstanding any provision of this rule, if the standing rules of either house require that expense claims of committees for goods or services or pursuant to contracts or for expenses of employees or members of committees be audited or approved, after approval of the committee chairman or chairwoman, by another agency of either house, the Controller shall draw his warrants only upon the certification of such other agency. All expense claims approved by the chairman or chairwoman of any joint committee, other than the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, shall be approved by the Joint Rules Committee and the Controller shall draw his warrants only upon the certification of the Joint Rules Committee.

Except salary claims of employees clearly subject to federal withholding taxes and the requirement as to loyalty oaths, claims presented for services or pursuant to contract shall refer to the agreement, the terms of which shall be made available to the Controller.

Expenses of Committee Employees

36.1. Unless otherwise provided by respective house or committee rule or resolution, employees of legislative committees shall, when entitled to traveling expenses, be entitled to allowances in lieu of actual expenses for hotel accommodations, breakfast, lunch, and dinner, at the rates fixed by the Board of Control from time to time in limitation of reimbursement of expenses of state employees generally; provided, that if an allowance for hotel accommodations, breakfast, lunch, and dinner is made by a committee at a rate in excess of those fixed by the Board of Control the chairman or chairwoman of the committee shall notify the Controller of that fact in writing.

Appointment of Committees

36.5. The provisions of this rule shall apply whenever a joint committee is created by a statute or resolution which either provides that appointments be made and vacancies be filled in the manner provided for in the Joint Rules, or which makes no provision for the appointment of members or the filling of vacancies.

The Senate members of the committee shall be appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules; the Assembly members of the committee shall be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly; and vacancies occurring in the membership of the committee shall be filled by the respective appointing powers. The members appointed shall hold over until their successors are regularly selected.

Appointment of Joint Committee Chairmen or Chairwomen

36.7. The chairman or chairwoman of each joint committee heretofore or hereafter created, except the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, shall be appointed by the Joint Rules Committee from a member or members recommended by the Senate Committee on Rules and the Speaker of the Assembly.

Joint Committee Funds

36.8. Each joint committee, heretofore or hereafter created, except the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, shall expend the funds heretofore or hereafter made available to it in compliance with the policies set forth by the Joint Rules Committee with respect to personnel, salaries, purchasing, office space assignment, contractual services, rental or lease agreements, travel, and any and all other matters relating to the management and administration of committee affairs.

Joint Legislative Budget Committee

37. In addition to any other committee provided for by these rules, there shall be a joint committee to be known and called the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, which is hereby declared to be a continuing body.

It shall be the duty of the committee to ascertain facts and make recommendations to the Legislature and to the houses thereof concerning the state budget, the revenues and expenditures of the state, and the organization and functions of the state, its departments, subdivisions and agencies, with a view of reducing the cost of the state government and securing greater efficiency and economy.

The committee shall consist of seven Members of the Senate and seven Members of the Assembly. The Senate members of the committee shall consist of seven Members of the Senate appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules. The Assembly members of the committee shall consist of seven Members of the Assembly appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly. The committee shall select its own chairman or chairwoman.

Any vacancies occurring between regular sessions in the Senate membership of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee shall be filled by the Senate Committee on Rules, and the Senators appointed shall hold over until their successors are regularly selected. For the purposes of this rule, a vacancy shall be deemed to exist as to a Senator whose term is expiring whenever he is not reelected at the general election.

Any vacancies occurring between regular sessions in the Assembly membership of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee shall be filled by the Speaker of the Assembly, and the Members of the Assembly appointed shall hold over until their successors are regularly selected. For the purposes of this rule, a vacancy shall be deemed to exist as to a Member of the Assembly whose term is expiring whenever he is not reelected at the general election.

Any vacancy occurring at any time in the Assembly membership of the committee shall be filled by appointment by the Speaker. The committee shall have the authority to make rules to govern its own proceedings and its employees. It may also create subcommittees from its membership, assigning to its subcommittees any study, inquiry, investigation, or hearing which the committee itself has authority to undertake or hold and the subcommittee for the purpose of this assignment shall have and may exercise all the powers conferred upon the committee, limited only by the express terms of any rule or resolution of the committee defining the powers and duties of the subcommittee. Such powers may be withdrawn or terminated at any time by the committee.

The Joint Legislative Budget Committee may render services to any investigating committee of the Legislature pursuant to contract between the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and the committee for which the services are to be performed. The contract may provide for payment to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee of the cost of such services from the funds appropriated to the contracting investigating committee. All legislative investigating committees are authorized toenter into such contracts with the Joint Legislative Budget Committee. Money received by the Joint Legislative Budget Committee pursuant to any such agreement shall be in augmentation of the current appropriation for the support of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee.

The provisions of Rule 36 shall apply to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, and it shall have all the authority provided in such rule or pursuant to Section 11 of Article IV of the Constitution.

The committee shall have authority to appoint a Legislative Analyst, to fix his compensation and to prescribe his duties, and to appoint such other clerical and technical employees as may appear necessary. The duties of the Legislative Analyst shall be as follows:

(1) To ascertain the facts and make recommendations to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and under its direction to the committees of the Legislature concerning:

(a) The State Budget.

(b) The revenues and expenditures of the state.

(c) The organization and functions of the state, its departments, subdivisions, and agencies.

(2) To assist the Senate Budget and Fiscal Review Committee and the Assembly Ways and Means Committee in consideration of the budget and all bills carrying express or implied appropriations and all legislation affecting state departments and their efficiency; to appear before any other legislative committee; and to assist any other legislative committees upon instruction by the Joint Legislative Budget Committee.

(3) To provide all legislative committees and Members of the Legislature with information obtained under the direction of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee.

(4) To maintain a record of all work performed by the Legislative Analyst under the direction of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and to keep and make available all documents, data, and reports submitted to him by any Senate, Assembly, or joint committee. The committee may meet either during sessions of the Legislature, any recess thereof, or after final adjournment, and may meet or conduct business at any place within the State of California.

The chairman or chairwoman of the committee or, in the event of such person's inability to act, the vice chairman or vice chairwoman, shall audit and approve the expenses of members of the committee or salaries of the employees, and all other expenses incurred in connection with the performance of its duties by the committee, and the chairman or chairwoman shall certify the amount approved to the Controller, and the Controller shall draw his warrants upon the certification of the chairman or chairwoman, and the Treasurer shall pay the same to the chairman or chairwoman of the committee to be disbursed by the chairman or chairwoman.

On and after the commencement of a succeeding regular session those members of the committee who continue to be Members of the Senate and Assembly, respectively, continue as members of the committee until their successors are appointed, and the committee continues with all its powers, duties, authority, records, papers, personnel, and staff, and all funds theretofore made available for its use.

Upon the conclusion of its work, any Assembly, Senate, or joint committee (other than a standing committee) shall deliver to the Legislative Analyst for use and custody all documents, data, reports, and other materials that have come into the possession of such committee and which are not included within the final report of such committee to the Assembly, Senate, or the Legislature, as the case may be. Such documents, data, reports, and other materials shall be available to Members of the Legislature, the Senate Office of Research, and the Assembly Office of Research, upon request.

The Legislative Analyst with the consent of the committee shall make available to any Member or committee of the Legislature any other reports, records, documents, or other data under his control, except that reports prepared by the Legislative Analyst in response to a request from a Member or committee of the Legislature shall only be made available with the written permission of the Member or committee who made the request.

The Legislative Analyst, upon the receipt of a request from any committee or Member of the Legislature to conduct a study or provide information which falls within the scope of his responsibilities and which concerns the administration of the government of the State of California, shall at once advise the Joint Legislative Budget Committee of the nature of the request without disclosing the name of the member or committee making the request.

The Legislative Analyst shall immediately undertake to provide the requesting committee or legislator with the service or information requested, and shall inform the committee or legislator of the approximate date when this information will be available. Should there be any material delay, he shall subsequently communicate this fact to the requester.

Neither the Committee on Rules of either house nor the Joint Rules Committee shall assign any matter for study to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee or the Legislative Analyst without first obtaining from the Joint Legislative Budget Committee an estimate of the amount required to be expended by it to make the study.

Any concurrent, joint, Senate, or House resolution assigning a study to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee or to the Legislative Analyst shall be referred to the respective rules committees. Before the committees shall act upon or assign such resolution, they shall obtain an estimate from the Joint Legislative Budget Committee of the amount required to be expended to make the study.

Citizen Cost Impact Report

37.1. Any Member or committee of the Legislature may recommend that the Legislative Analyst prepare a citizen cost impact analysis on proposed legislation. However, such a recommendation shall first be reviewed by the Committee on Rules of the house where the recommendation originated, and this committee shall make the final determination as to which bills shall be assigned for preparation of an impact analysis.

In selecting specific bills for assignment to the Legislative Analyst for preparation of citizen cost impact analyses, the Committee on Rules shall request the Legislative Analyst to present an estimate of his time and prospective costs for preparing the analyses. Only those bills which have a potential significant cost impact shall be assigned. Where necessary, the Committee on Rules shall provide funds to offset added costs incurred by the Legislative Analyst.

The citizen cost impact analyses shall include those economic effects which the Legislative Analyst deems significant and which he believes will result directly from the proposed legislation. Insofar as feasible, the Legislative Analyst shall consider, but not be limited to consideration of, the following:

(a) The economic effect on the public generally.

(b) Any specific economic effect on persons or businesses in the case of legislation which is regulatory.

The Legislative Analyst shall submit the citizen cost impact analyses when completed to the committee or committees and at the time or times designated by the Committee on Rules.

The Legislative Analyst shall submit from time to time, but at least once a year, a report to the Legislature on the trends and directions of the state's economy, and shall list the alternatives and make recommendations as to legislative actions which, in his judgment, will insure a sound and stable state economy.

Joint Legislative Audit Committee

37.3. The Joint Legislative Audit Committee is created pursuant to the Legislature's rulemaking authority and specific constitutional authority by Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 10500), Part 2, Division 2, Title 2 of the Government Code. The committee shall consist of seven Members of the Senate and seven Members of the Assembly who shall be selected in the manner provided for in these rules, of which one shall be the chairman of the fiscal committee for the Senate and one the chairman of the fiscal committee for the Assembly. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these rules, four members from each house constitute a quorum and the number of votes necessary to take action on any matter. The Chairman of the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, upon receiving a request by any Member of the Legislature or committee thereof for a copy of a report prepared or being prepared by the Auditor General, shall provide the member or committee with a copy of such report when it is, or has been, submitted by the Auditor General to the Joint Legislative Audit Committee.

Study or Audits

37.4. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the Joint Legislative Audit Committee shall establish priorities and assign all work to be done by the Auditor General.

(b) Any bill requiring action by the Auditor General shall contain an appropriation for the cost of any study or audit.

(c) Any bill or concurrent, joint, Senate, or House resolution assigning a study to the Joint Legislative Audit Committee or to the Auditor General shall be referred to the respective rules committees. 37.5. The provisions of subdivision (b) of Rule 37.4 may be waived by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee. The chairman of the committee shall notify the Secretary of the Senate, the Chief Clerk of the Assembly, and the Legislative Counsel in writing when the provisions of subdivision (b) of Rule 37.4 have been waived. If the cost of a study or audit is less than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), the chairman of the committee may exercise the committee's authority to waive the provisions of subdivision (b) of Rule 37.4.

The information thus cumulated shall be made available to the public by the Committee on Rules of each house and shall be published periodically under their joint direction.

Joint Committees

43. Concurrent resolutions creating joint committees of the Legislature and concurrent resolutions allocating moneys from the Contingent Funds of the Assembly and Senate to such committees shall be referred to the Committee on Rules of the respective houses.

(b) No Member of the Legislature shall, during the term for which he or she was elected:

(1) Accept other employment which he or she has reason to believe will either impair his or her independence of judgment as to his or her official duties or require him or her, or induce him or her, to disclose confidential information acquired by him or her in the course of and by reason of his or her official duties.

(2) Willfully and knowingly disclose, for pecuniary gain, to any other person, confidential information acquired by him or her in the course of and by reason of his or her official duties or use any such information for the purpose of pecuniary gain.

(4) Receive or agree to receive, directly or indirectly, any compensation, reward, or gift from any source except the State of California for any service, advice, assistance, or other matter related to the legislative process, except fees for speeches or published works on legislative subjects and except, in connection therewith, reimbursement of expenses for actual expenditures for travel and reasonable subsistence for which no payment or reimbursement is made by the State of California.

(5) Participate, by voting or any other action, on the floor of either house, or in committee or elsewhere, in the enactment or defeat of legislation in which he or she has a personal interest, except as follows:

(i) If, on the vote for final passage by the house of which he or she is a member, of the legislation in which he or she has a personal interest, he or she first files a statement (which shall be entered verbatim on the journal) stating in substance that he or she has a personal interest in the legislation to be voted on and notwithstanding such interest, he or she is able to cast a fair and objective vote on such legislation, he or she may cast his or her vote without violating any provision of this rule;

(ii) If the member believes that, because of his or her personal interest, he or she should abstain from participating in the vote on the legislation, he or she shall so advise the presiding officer prior to the commencement of the vote and shall be excused from voting on the legislation without any entry on the journal of the fact of his or her personal interest. In the event a rule of the house, requiring that each member who is present vote aye or nay is invoked, the presiding officer shall order the member excused from compliance and shall order entered on the journal a simple statement that the member was excused from voting on the legislation pursuant to law.

(c) A person subject to this rule has an interest which is in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of his or her duties in the public interest and of his or her responsibilities as prescribed in the laws of this state or a personal interest, arising from any situation, within the scope of this rule, if he or she has reason to believe or expect that he or she will derive a direct monetary gain or suffer a direct monetary loss, as the case may be, by reason of his or her official activity. He or she does not have an interest which is in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of his or her duties in the public interest and of his or her responsibilities as prescribed by the laws of this state or a personal interest, arising from any situation, within the scope of this rule, if any benefit or detriment accrues to him or her as a member of a business, profession, occupation, or group to no greater extent than any other member of such business, profession, occupation, or group.

(d) A person subject to the provisions of this rule shall not be deemed to be engaged in any activity which is in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of his or her duties in the public interest and of his or her responsibilities as prescribed by the laws of this state, arising from any situation, or to have a personal interest, arising from any situation, within the scope of this rule, solely by reason of any of the following:

(1) His or her relationship to any potential beneficiary of any situation is one which is defined as a remote interest by Section 1091 of the Government Code or is otherwise not deemed to be a prohibited interest by Section 1091.1 or 1091.5 of the Government Code.

(2) Receipt of a campaign contribution regulated, received, reported, and accounted for pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 84100) of Title 9 of the Government Code, so long as the contribution is not made on the understanding or agreement, in violation of law, that the person's vote, opinion, judgment, or action will be influenced thereby.

(e) The enumeration in this rule of specific situations or conditions which are deemed not to result in substantial conflicts with the proper discharge of the duties and responsibilities of a legislator or legislative employee or in a personal interest shall not be construed as exclusive.

The Legislature in adopting this rule recognizes that Members of the Legislature and legislative employees may need to engage in employment, professional, or business activities other than legislative activities, in order to maintain a continuity of professional or business activity, or may need to maintain investments, which activities or investments do not conflict with the specific provisions of this rule. However, in construing and administering the provisions of the rule, weight should be given to any coincidence of income, employment, investment, or other profit from sources which may be identified with the interests represented by those sources which are seeking action of any character on matters then pending before the Legislature.

(f) No employee of either house of the Legislature shall, during the time he is so employed, commit any act or engage in any activity prohibited by any part of this rule.

(g) No person shall induce or seek to induce any Member of the Legislature to violate any part of this rule.

(h) Violations of any part of this rule are punishable as provided in Section 8926 of the Government Code.

Joint Legislative Ethics Committee

45. (a) The Joint Legislative Ethics Committee is hereby created. The committee shall consist of three Members of the Senate appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules and three Members of the Assembly appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly. Of the three members appointed from each house, at least one from each house shall be a member of the political party having the largest number of members in that house and at least one from each house shall be a member of the political party having the second largest number of members in that house. The committee shall elect its own chairman or chairwoman. Vacancies occurring in the membership of the committee shall be filled in the manner provided for in these rules for other committees. A vacancy shall be deemed to exist as to any member of the committee whose term is expiring whenever such member is not reelected at the general election.

(b) The committee is authorized to make rules governing its own proceedings. The provisions of Rule 36 relating to investigating committees shall apply to the committee.

Prior to the issuance of any subpoena by the committee with respect to any matter before the committee, it shall by a resolution adopted by a vote of two members of the committee from each house of the Legislature define the nature and scope of its investigation in the matter before it.

(c) Funds for the support of the committee shall be provided from the Contingent Funds of the Assembly and the Senate in the same manner that such funds are made available to other joint committees of the Legislature.

(d) The committee shall have power, pursuant to the provisions of this rule, to investigate and make findings and recommendations concerning alleged violations by Members of the Legislature of the provisions of Rule 44.

(e) Any person may: (1) file with the committee a verified complaint in writing which shall state the name of the Member of the Legislature alleged to have committed the violation complained of, and which shall set forth the particulars thereof, or (2) file a complaint concerning the alleged violation by a Member of the Legislature with the district attorney of the appropriate county.

If a person files a complaint with respect to any alleged violation by a Member of the Legislature with the committee, he or she may not thereafter file a complaint to institute a criminal prosecution for such violation until the committee has rendered its report or until a period of 120 days has elapsed since the filing of the complaint. If a complaint is filed with the appropriate district attorney by any person concerning an alleged violation by a Member of the Legislature of any provision of Rule 44, such person may not thereafter file a complaint with respect to such alleged violation with the committee.

If a complaint is filed with the committee, the committee shall promptly send a copy of the complaint to the Member of the Legislature alleged to have committed the violation complained of, who shall thereafter be designated as the respondent.

No complaint may be filed with the committee after the expiration of six months from the date upon which the alleged violation occurred.

(f) If the committee determines that the verified complaint does not allege facts, directly or upon information and belief, sufficient to constitute a violation of any of the provisions of Rule 44, it shall dismiss the complaint and notify the complainant and respondent thereof. If the committee determines that such verified complaint does allege facts, directly or upon information and belief, sufficient to constitute a violation of any of the provisions of Rule 44, the committee shall promptly investigate the alleged violation and if, after such preliminary investigation, the committee finds that probable cause exists for believing the allegations of the complaint, it shall fix a time for a hearing in the matter, which shall be not more than 30 days after such finding. If, after the preliminary investigation, the committee finds that probable cause does not exist for believing the allegations of the complaint, the committee shall dismiss the complaint. In either event, the committee shall notify the complainant and respondent of its determination.

(g) After the complaint has been filed, the respondent shall be entitled to examine and make copies of all evidence in the possession of the committee relating to the complaint.

(h) If a hearing is to be held pursuant to subdivision (f) of this rule, the committee, before the hearing has commenced, shall issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum at the request of any party in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 9400), Part 1, Division 2, Title 2 of the Government Code. All of the provisions of Chapter 4, except Section 9410, shall be applicable to the committee and the witnesses before it.

(i) At any hearing held by the committee:

(1) Oral evidence shall be taken only on oath or affirmation.

(2) Each party shall have these rights: to be represented by legal counsel; to call and examine witnesses; to introduce exhibits; and to cross-examine opposing witnesses.

(3) The hearing shall be open to the public.

(j) Any official or other person whose name is mentioned at any investigation or hearing of the committee and who believes that testimony has been given which adversely affects him, shall have the right to testify or, at the discretion of the committee, to file a statement of facts under oath relating solely to the material relevant to the testimony of which he complains.

(k) After the hearing the committee shall state its findings of fact. If the committee finds that the respondent has not violated any of the provisions of Rule 44, it shall order the action dismissed, and shall notify the respondent and complainant thereof and shall also transmit a copy of the complaint and the fact of dismissal to the Attorney General and to the district attorney of the appropriate county. If the committee finds that the respondent has violated any of the provisions of Rule 44, it shall state its findings of fact and submit a report thereon to the house in which the respondent serves, send a copy of such findings and report to the complainant and respondent, and the committee shall also report thereon to the Attorney General and to the district attorney of the appropriate county.

(l) Nothing in this rule shall preclude any person from instituting a prosecution for violation of any provision of Rule 44 unless such person has filed a complaint with the committee concerning such violation, in which case such person may not file a complaint with the district attorney of the appropriate county to institute a criminal prosecution for such violation until the committee has made its determination of the matter or a period of 120 days has elapsed since the filing of the complaint with the committee.

(m) The filing of a complaint with the committee pursuant to this rule suspends the running of the statute of limitations applicable to any violation of the provisions of Rule 44 while such complaint is pending.

(n) The committee shall maintain a record of its investigations, inquiries, and proceedings. All records, complaints, documents, reports filed with or submitted to or made by the committee, and all records and transcripts of any investigations, inquiries, or hearings of the committee under this rule shall be deemed confidential and shall not be open to inspection by any person other than a member of the committee, an employee of the committee, or a state employee designated to assist the committee, except as otherwise specifically provided in this rule. The committee may, by adoption of a resolution, authorize the release to the Attorney General or to the district attorney of the appropriate county of any information, records, complaints, documents, reports, and transcripts in its possession material to any matter pending before the Attorney General or the district attorney. All matters presented at a public hearing of the committee and all reports of the committee stating a final finding of fact pursuant to subdivision (k) of this rule shall be public records and open to public inspection. Any employee of the committee who divulges any matter which is deemed to be confidential by this subdivision is punishable as provided in Section 8953 of the Government Code.

(o) All actions of the committee shall require the concurrence of two members of the committee from each house.

(p) The committee may render advisory opinions to Members of the Legislature with respect to the provisions of Rule 44 and their application and construction. The committee may secure an opinion from the Legislative Counsel for this purpose or issue its own opinion.

Legislative Hearing Rooms

46. The Rules Committee of each house shall provide designated space for nonsmokers in each legislative hearing room under its jurisdiction; provided, however, that nothing in this rule shall prevent any committee chairman from prohibiting smoking completely, or from further restricting smoking to a greater extent than provided by the Rules Committee of that house.

Designating Legislative Sessions

50. Regular sessions shall be identified with the odd-numbered year subsequent to each general election, followed by a hyphen, and then the last two digits of the following even-numbered year. For example: 1973–74 Regular Session.

Days and Dates

50.5. (a) As used in these rules, "day" means a calendar day, unless otherwise specified.

(b) When the date of a deadline, recess requirement, or circumstance falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or Monday that is a holiday, the date shall be deemed to refer to the preceding Friday. When the date falls on a holiday on a weekday other than a Monday, the date shall be deemed to refer to the preceding day.

Legislative Calendar

51. (a) The Legislature shall observe the following calendar during the first year of the regular session:

(1) Organizational Recess—The Legislature shall meet on the first Monday in December following the general election to organize. Thereafter, each house shall be in recess from such time as it determines, but not later than the following Friday until the first Monday in January, except when the first Monday is January 1 or January 1 is a Sunday, in which case, the following Tuesday.

(2) Easter Recess—The Legislature shall be in recess from the 10th day prior to Easter until the Monday after Easter.

(3) Final Recess—The Legislature shall be in recess on September 1 until adjournment sine die on November 30.

(c) Recesses shall be from the hour of adjournment on the day specified to reconvene at the time designated by the respective houses.

(d) The recesses specified by this rule shall be designated as joint recesses.

Recall From Recess

52. Notwithstanding the power of the Governor to call a special session, the Legislature may be recalled from joint recess and reconvene in regular session by any of the following means:

(a) It may be recalled by joint proclamation, which shall be entered in the journal, of the Senate Committee on Rules and the Speaker of the Assembly or, in his or her absence from the state, the Assembly Committee on Rules.

(b) Ten or more Members of the Legislature may present a request for recall from joint recess to the Chief Clerk of the Assembly and the Secretary of the Senate. The request shall immediately be printed in the journal. Within 10 days thereafter, the Speaker of the Assembly, or if the Speaker is absent from the state, the Assembly Committee on Rules, and the Senate Committee on Rules shall act upon the request. If they concur in desiring to recall the Legislature from joint recess, they shall issue their joint proclamation entered in the journal no later than 20 days after publication of the request in the journal.

(c) If either or both of the parties specified in subdivision (b) does not concur, 10 or more Members of the Legislature may request the Chief Clerk of the Assembly or the Secretary of the Senate to petition the membership of the respective house. The petition shall be entered in the journal and shall contain a specified reconvening date commencing not later than 20 days after the date of the petition. If two-thirds of the members of the house or each of the two houses concur, the Legislature shall reconvene on the date specified. The necessary concurrences must be received at least 10 days prior to date specified for reconvening.

Procedure on Suspending Rules by Single House

53. Whenever these rules authorize suspension of the Joint Rules as to a particular bill by action of a single house after approval by the Committee on Rules of that house, the following procedure shall be followed:

(a) A written notice of intention to suspend the joint rule shall be filed with the Chief Clerk of the Assembly or the Secretary of the Senate, as the case may be, and shall be transmitted to the Committee on Rules of the appropriate house. The notice shall be printed in the journal of that house.

(b) The Assembly Committee on Rules or the Senate Committee on Rules, as the case may be, shall determine whether there exists an urgent need for the suspension of the joint rule with regard to the bill.

(c) If the appropriate rules committee recommends that the suspension be permitted, the member may offer a resolution, without further reference thereof to committee, granting permission to suspend the joint rule. The adoption of the resolution granting such permission shall require an affirmative recorded vote of the elected members of the house in which the request is made.

Introduction of Bills

54. (a) No bill may be introduced in the first year of the regular session after March 8 and no bill may be introduced in the second year of the regular session after February 21. These deadlines shall not apply to constitutional amendments, committee bills introduced pursuant to Assembly Rule 47 or Senate Rule 23, bills introduced in the Assembly with the permission of the Speaker of the Assembly, or bills introduced in the Senate with the permission of the Senate Committee on Rules. Subject to these deadlines, bills may be introduced at any time except when the houses are in joint summer, interim, or final recess. Each house may provide for introduction of bills during a recess other than a joint recess. Bills shall be numbered consecutively during the regular session.

(b) The Desks of the Senate and Assembly shall remain open, during a joint recess, other than a joint Easter, summer, interim, or final recess, for introduction of bills, during business hours on Monday through Friday, inclusive, except holidays. Bills received at the Senate Desk during such periods shall be numbered and printed. After printing, such bills shall be delivered to the Secretary of the Senate and shall be referred by the Senate Committee on Rules to a standing committee. Bills received at the Assembly Desk during such periods shall be numbered, printed, and referred to a committee by the Assembly Committee on Rules. After printing, such bills shall be delivered to the Chief Clerk of the Assembly. On the reconvening of each house, the bills shall be read the first time, and shall be delivered to the committee to which they were referred.

(c) A member may not author a bill during a session that would have substantially the same effect as a bill he or she had previously introduced during that session. This restriction shall not apply in cases where a previously introduced bill has been vetoed by the Governor or has had its provisions "chaptered out" by a later chaptered bill pursuant to Section 9605 of the Government Code. An objection may be raised only while the bill is being considered by the house in which it is introduced. In such case the objection shall be referred to the Committee on Rules of the house for a determination. The bill shall remain on file or with a committee, as the case may be, until such determination is made. If upon consideration of the objection the Committee on Rules determines that the bill objected to would have substantially the same effect as another bill previously introduced during the session by the author, the bill objected to shall be stricken from the file or returned to the desk by the committee, as the case may be, and shall not be acted upon during the remainder of the session. If the Committee on Rules determines that the bill objected to would not have substantially the same effect as a bill previously introduced during the session by the author, the bill may thereafter be acted upon by the committee or the house, as the case may be. The Committee on Rules may obtain such assistance as it may desire from the Legislative Counsel as to the similarity of a bill or amendments to a prior bill.

This joint rule may be suspended by approval of the Committee on Rules and three-fourths vote of the membership of the house.

The Chief Clerk of the Assembly and Secretary of the Senate shall publish a list periodically of such preprint bills showing the preprint bill number, the title, and the Legislative Counsel's Digest. The Speaker of the Assembly and Senate Committee on Rules may refer all preprint bills to committee for study.

Committee Procedure

62. (a) Notice of a hearing on a bill by the committee of first reference in each house shall be published in the file at least four days prior to the hearing. Otherwise, notice shall be published in the file two days prior to the hearing. Such notice may be waived by a majority vote of the house in which the bill is being considered. A bill may be set for hearing in a committee only three times. A bill is "set" for purposes of this subdivision whenever notice of the hearing has been published in the file for one or more days. If a bill is set for hearing, and the committee, on its own initiation and not the author's, postpones the hearing on the bill or adjourns the hearing while testimony is being taken, such hearing shall not be counted as one of the three times a bill may be set. After hearing the bill, the committee may vote on the bill. If the hearing notice in the file specifically indicates that "testimony only" will be taken, such hearing shall not be counted as one of the three times a bill may be set. A committee may not vote on a bill so noticed until it has been heard in accordance with this rule. After a committee has voted on a bill, reconsideration may be granted only one time. Reconsideration may be granted within 15 legislative days or prior to the interim study joint recess, whichever first occurs. A vote on reconsideration cannot be taken without the same notice required to set a bill unless such vote is taken at the same meeting at which the vote to be reconsidered was taken and the author is present. When a bill fails to get the necessary votes to pass it out of committee or upon failure to receive reconsideration, it shall be returned to the Chief Clerk of the Assembly or Secretary of the Senate of the house of the committee and may not be considered further during the session.

This subdivision may be suspended with respect to a particular bill by approval of the Committee on Rules and two-thirds vote of the members of the house.

(b) If the committee adopts amendments other than those offered by the author and orders the bill reprinted prior to its further consideration, the hearing shall not be the final time a bill may be set under subdivision (a) of this rule.

(c) When a standing committee takes action on a bill, the vote shall be by rollcall vote only. All rollcall votes taken by a standing committee shall be recorded by the committee secretary on forms provided by the Chief Clerk of the Assembly and the Secretary of the Senate. The chairman or chairwoman of each standing committee shall promptly transmit a copy of the record of the rollcall votes to the Chief Clerk of the Assembly or the Secretary of the Senate, respectively, who shall cause the votes to be published as prescribed by each house.

The provisions of this subdivision shall also apply to action of a committee on a subcommittee report. The rules of each house shall prescribe the procedure as to rollcall votes on amendments.

Any committee may, with the unanimous consent of the members present, substitute a rollcall from a prior bill, provided that the members whose votes are substituted are present at the time of the substitution.

At no time shall a bill be passed out by a committee without a quorum being present.

The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to:

(1) Procedural motions which do not have the effect of disposing of a bill.

(2) Withdrawal of a bill from a committee calendar at the request of an author.

(3) Return of bills to the house where the bills have not been voted on by the committee.

(4) The assignment of bills to committee.

(d) The chairman or chairwoman of the committee hearing a bill, may, at any time, order a call of the committee. Upon a request by any member of a committee or the author in person, the chairman or chairwoman shall order the call.

In the absence of a quorum, a majority of the members present may order a quorum call of the committee and compel the attendance of absentees. The chairman or chairwoman shall send the Sergeant at Arms for those members who are absent and not excused by their respective house.

When a call of a committee is ordered by the chairman or chairwoman with respect to a particular bill, he or she shall send the Sergeant at Arms or any other person to be appointed for that purpose for those members who have not voted on that particular bill and are not excused.

A quorum call or a call of the committee with respect to a particular bill may be dispensed with by the chairman or chairwoman without objection by any member of the committee, or by a majority of the members present.

If a motion is adopted to adjourn the committee while the committee is operating under a call, the call shall be dispensed with and any pending vote announced.

The committee secretary shall record the votes of members answering a call. The rules of each house may prescribe additional procedures for a call of a committee.

Uniform Rules

63. No standing committee of either house shall adopt or apply any rule or procedure governing the voting upon bills which is not equally applicable to the bills of both houses.

Votes on Bills

64. Every meeting of each house and standing committee or subcommittee thereof where a vote is to be taken on a bill, or amendments to a bill, shall be public.

Conflicting Rules

65. The provisions of Rule 50 and following of these rules prevail over any conflicting joint rule with a lesser number.

WHEREAS, Arbor Day is an annual tree-planting day in virtually every state of the United States, and the Arbor Day movement was established in the 19th Century when a number of public-spirited persons, alarmed by the rapid deforestation of many sections of the United States, urged that trees be planted systematically; and

WHEREAS, The first person to propose a regular Arbor Day was Julius S. Morton of Nebraska, who in 1872, succeeded in inducing his state to set apart a day as Arbor Day; and

WHEREAS, California is blessed with extensive pine and redwood forests, yet the demand for paper, plywood, and other wood-derived commodities has increased substantially over the years, and by the end of this century, given present levels of forest land investment and management, the demand is expected to outstrip supply; and

WHEREAS, Reforestation has been enhanced through the California Forest Improvement Act of 1978, which allocates resources for forest improvement projects, and the 1979 Forest Improvement Fund, which assists the California Department of Forestry in providing technical expertise in forest management, or "silviculture," and, in addition to increasing California's future timber production, these programs will also create additional forests and jobs; and

WHEREAS, Urban areas of California have benefited from the successful Urban Forestry Program, as a result of which more than 100,000 trees have been planted in urban areas by community and private groups under the direction of the Department of Forestry; and

WHEREAS, In addition to aesthetic purpose, trees in urban areas reduce noise, improve air quality, provide watershed protection, reduce soil erosion, store solar energy, alleviate temperature extremes, and provide habitat for "urban wildlife" such as song birds; and

WHEREAS, Investment in tree planting will ensure our children and grandchildren of wood supplies for the future, and will reduce energy consumption and beautify our cities; now, therefore, be it

WHEREAS, The two mills have been continually monitored by the State of California water quality agencies and have always met the state's strict standards; and

WHEREAS, The companies, the state agencies, local governmental officials, area residents, and representatives of major environmental groups agree that further treatment of the effluent from the pulp mills would have no beneficial effect, but instead would create environmental burdens, including offensive odors, increased air pollution, and increased energy consumption; and

[Filed with Secretary of State April 29, 1985.]

WHEREAS, The United States Department of the Interior has announced a five-year program to open all of California's offshore waters for oil and gas leasing; and

WHEREAS, Under this program, lease sales for areas previously closed to oil and gas development would occur for southern California in April 1987 and 1990, for central California in May 1989, and for northern California in December 1987 and 1990; and

WHEREAS, No national energy development plan exists to provide for the orderly development of energy resources to match national needs; and

WHEREAS, No national need has been demonstrated for additional offshore oil and gas leasing in California; and

WHEREAS, The abundant sea life and beauty of California's coast and ocean waters provide unique recreational and fishing opportunities for the citizens of the state and nation; and

WHEREAS, In 1983 tourism contributed approximately 28.5 billion dollars to the economy of the state while the value of oil and gas extracted from California and areas offshore totaled only approximately 10.5 billion dollars; and

WHEREAS, Oil platforms, oil spills, interference with fishing activities, and other actual and potential adverse effects from oil development are likely to cause irreparable harm to the resources of the coast; and

WHEREAS, The federal government has not yet satisfactorily addressed impacts to California from present offshore oil and gas production through revenue sharing as required by Section 8(g) of the federal Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act, as amended by Section 205 of the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act Amendments of 1978 (43 U.S.C. Sec. 133(g)); and

Sec. 1344(a)(1)); and

WHEREAS, For the past four years the United States Congress has expressed its concern over oil and gas development off California by adopting lease moratoria for the areas now included in the proposed lease program of the Department of the Interior; and

WHEREAS, California's citizens and local government have repeatedly stated that leasing of many of the areas proposed by the Department of the Interior presents unacceptable risks to economic, social, human, and natural environments far in excess of the value of projected oil resources; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature of the State of California has consistently expressed its opposition to leasing of the areas proposed in the Department of the Interior's program through passage of resolutions such as Assembly Joint Resolution 19 in 1981 and Assembly Joint Resolutions 86 and 95 in 1984; and

WHEREAS, The federal Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act permits the Governor to respond within 60 days with comments and suggestions on proposed lease programs; and

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California memorializes the President of the United States and the Secretary of the Interior to delete from the proposed oil and gas leasing program all offshore areas adjacent to state-owned tide and submerged lands where oil leases are currently prohibited and all areas offshore California north of the seaward extension of the Mendocino-Sonoma County line; and be it further

WHEREAS, This year is the 148th anniversary of the birth of General Henry M. Robert, whose Rules of Order is recognized as America's highest authority on parliamentary law for deliberative assemblies; and

WHEREAS, The California State Association of Parliamentarians stresses, educates, and fosters parliamentary procedure in order to promote the spirit of justice and fairness; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California does hereby proclaim May 1985 as Parliamentary Law Month in the State of California; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the California State Association of Parliamentarians.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 43

[Filed with Secretary of State June 10, 1985]

WHEREAS, The attitudes of society are influenced by limited understanding and limited contact with deaf and otherwise hearing-impaired persons; and

WHEREAS, Hearing impairment, though not visible, is always a serious communication handicap, and especially when it occurs in a bilingual era; and

WHEREAS, These attitudinal and communication circumstances accompanying hearing impairment are barriers to human relationships and full participation in community services and activities shared routinely by society in general; and

WHEREAS, Through the efforts of Quota Clubs, these attitudinal and communication barriers are being steadily reduced; now, therefore, be it

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 44

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 18—Relative to naval petroleum reserves.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 11, 1985]

WHEREAS, The Congress of the United States, by statute enacted shortly after the admission of California to the Union, granted to the state the 16th and 36th sections of every township of public land as support for public education, a grant long held to create an obligation of the federal government to the state; and

WHEREAS, The statute also provided that if any of the sections granted the state had been disposed of by sale or inclusion within Indian, military, or other reservation prior to completion of the survey of such lands, so that the granted land would be unavailable for school support, then equivalent lands could be selected in lieu of the granted lands; and

WHEREAS, Approximately 55,232 acres of California school land grant obligations still remain unfulfilled, despite the high priority which the administration has stated that it placed on the final satisfaction of the debts owed by the United States to California and other western states, largely because of problems with respect to two school land sections in Kern County; and

WHEREAS, State ownership of these two granted sections is withheld by the federal government by virtue of presidential action taken to conserve the oil underlying those sections for production in time of national emergency for the benefit of the Navy, which established the oil resources on both public and private lands in the area as Naval Petroleum Reserve No. 1; and

WHEREAS, The conservation proclamation did not eliminate the private ownership of lands within the reserve, which has required the establishment of a unit operation controlled by presidential discretion, but carried on jointly by the federal government and the private owners, to ensure that the oil resources within the reserve would be available for national security purposes; and

WHEREAS, The value of the granted school lands held from California by the proclamation is such that selection of other available lands as requested has been virtually impossible; and

WHEREAS, The Department of Interior staff suggested a possible alternative: presidential action qualifying the reserve proclamation to permit recognition of the title of the state to the granted lands, provided that such school lands would be held subject to presidential discretion and control as to the rate and availability of oil production, precisely as are the private lands already included within the reserve; with the proportionate share of oil proceeds to go to the state; and

WHEREAS, While the restriction on operation which would be required would diminish the value of the unrestricted ownership originally granted the state under the school land grant, it still would provide a prospect of substantial income for the State Teachers' Retirement Fund, to which the state has dedicated the funds from satisfaction of the outstanding school lands debt of the United States to the State of California; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully requests the President of the United States and the Secretaries of the Navy, Interior, and Energy to take immediate action to modify the executive proclamation reserving the lands included within Naval Petroleum Reserve No. 1 to permit the state to take title to the two school land sections originally granted it, subject to the control of oil operations by the President as required for national security purposes, and requiring state participation in the existing unit operation; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, and to the Secretaries of the Navy, Interior, and Energy.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 45

Senate Joint Resolution No. 29—Relative to school lunch programs.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 11, 1985.]

WHEREAS, The National School Lunch Program is intended to serve the nutritional needs of all children; and

WHEREAS, Good nutrition is essential for growth, development, ability to learn, and the general well-being of children; and

WHEREAS, Numerous studies indicate that students at all economic levels who participate in the National School Lunch Program are better nourished than children who do not participate in the school lunch program; and

WHEREAS, The National School Lunch Program provides a multiple value in that it assists the agricultural economy by helping to fully utilize the nation's agricultural abundance as well as providing food assistance for children; and

WHEREAS, An effort is underway to eliminate millions of students and thousands of schools from the program; and

WHEREAS, The current program provides a basic infrastructure which helps pay the fixed costs of all school food service programs; and

WHEREAS, Without the existing level of funding, many school districts simply could not afford to participate, and when the program closes, all children in this community including the poor are denied their nutritional needs; and

WHEREAS, The administration's budget plan would reduce funding of the program, nearly seven hundred million dollars; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California urges the United States Senate and House of Representatives to provide at least the level of funding provided in current law for school lunch programs in fiscal year 1986; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative in the Congress of the United States.

WHEREAS, Section 3 of Chapter 12 of the Statutes of 1985 declared the intent of the Legislature that any reimbursement received by the California Firefighter Joint Apprenticeship Program under subdivision (b) of Section 8152 of the Education Code in excess of the reimbursement rate provided in subdivision (a) of Section 8152 of the Education Code shall be deemed an interest-free loan, repayable to the General Fund on July 1, 1992; and

WHEREAS, It is the intent of the Legislature that the repayment of these amounts shall be solely the responsibility of the California Firefighter Joint Apprenticeship Program, and that the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, or any high school district, unified school district, regional occupational center or program, adult school, or community college providing classes of related and supplemental instruction for the California Firefighter Joint Apprenticeship Program shall not be held responsible for the repayment of funds, the provision of assurances for the repayment of funds, or the collection of these funds; and

WHEREAS, It is the intent of the Legislature that the California Firefighter Joint Apprenticeship Program shall repay these funds to the Controller; and

WHEREAS, It is further the intent of the Legislature, pursuant to the requirements of Section 4 of Chapter 12 of the Statutes of 1985, that the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges and the Controller shall rely upon the California Firefighter Joint Apprenticeship Committee for notification of the availability of any federal training funds for purposes of reducing expenditures from the appropriation made by that section; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That this resolution shall declare the intent of the Legislature with respect to the repayment of funds deemed to be an interest-free loan by Section 3 of Chapter 12 of the Statutes of 1985 for purposes of the California Firefighter Joint Apprenticeship Program; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Controller, and the California Firefighter Joint Apprenticeship Committee.

WHEREAS, The Sunnybrooke Roadside Rest is located on land donated by Mr. George Allen; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Allen was an early resident of Amador County who contributed both to the ranching and community development and advancement of Amador County and, consequently, California; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Allen's contributions were many, unselfish, and continuous throughout his lifetime; and

WHEREAS, The Sunnybrooke Roadside Rest would appropriately memorialize and reflect the numerous and substantial contributions of Mr. Allen if it were renamed the "George Allen Roadside Rest;" now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Sunnybrooke Roadside Rest on State Highway Route 88 is hereby designated the "George Allen Roadside Rest," and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the Director of Transportation.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 48

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 47—Relative to the sugar industry.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 18, 1985]

WHEREAS, The sugar industry in the United States and, most importantly, in California is vital to the economy and well-being of the nation and the State of California; and

WHEREAS, The beet sugar and cane sugar refining industry in California, with eight sugar beet processing facilities and one sugar refinery, produces approximately 1.5 million tons of refined sugar annually valued at approximately seven hundred fifty million dollars ($750,000,000); and

WHEREAS, The California beet sugar industry is the world's most productive, with approximately 1,000 farmers in 30 counties growing sugar beets on 200,000 acres; and

WHEREAS, The cane sugar refinery in California is the world's largest, producing refined sugar from raw sugar produced in Hawaii from sugar cane grown on 200,000 acres; and

WHEREAS, The beet and cane sugar processing facilities in California employ approximately 5,000 persons with an annual payroll of one hundred thirty million dollars ($130,000,000), in addition to the seventeen million five hundred thousand dollars ($17,500,000) paid annually to those employed in sugar beet production by farmers; and

WHEREAS, As a leading producer of sugar, California has a major stake in maintaining the health of the domestic sugar industry; and

WHEREAS, The continued existence of a healthy sugar industry in California and in the nation is dependent on a continuation of a program beyond the 1985 crop to insulate the industry from highly subsidized production and exports of sugar from major producing and exporting nations of the world; and

WHEREAS, The Congress of the United States is presently considering the 1985 farm program; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California hereby recognize the significant contributions the sugar industry has made within the state and throughout the nation and respectfully memorialize the Senators and Representatives from California in the Congress of the United States to give their full support to the continuation of a federal program which will maintain the limited, but healthy, sugar industry in California and the nation; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 49

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 8—Relative to the Philippine Scouts.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 18, 1985]

WHEREAS, Prior to World War II when the Philippine Islands were an American territory, a select unit of Filipinos, known as the Philippine Scouts and numbering about 12,000, were organized under the direction of General Douglas MacArthur; and

WHEREAS, The Philippine Scouts were later incorporated into the United States Army and remained an elite troop with a high esprit de corps in which membership was considered an honor by Filipinos and the strictest standards were followed in selection; and

WHEREAS, The United States Armed Forces operating in the Pacific Theater during World War II were provided invaluable assistance in combat by soldiers of the Philippine Scouts, and the scouts played a pivotal role in the valiant defense of the Bataan Peninsula; and

WHEREAS, General MacArthur described the Philippine Scouts as "excellent troops, completely professional, loyal, and devoted" and, during recruitment, the general pledged that "every member of my command shall receive equal pay and allowances based on the United States Army pay scale, regardless of nationality"; and

WHEREAS, The Philippine Scouts were in fact paid much less than their American counterparts, so that at a time when an American private's pay was $50 a month a Philippine Scout of comparable grade received only $18 for the same hardships and dangers; and

WHEREAS, This discrepancy has persisted for over 40 years despite the recommendation of the Secretary of War to the Congress in 1942 that different pay scales constituted unjust discrimination which should be eliminated; now, therefore, be it

between their pay and the pay of American soldiers of comparable grade during World War II and for a corresponding increase in the future pension benefits of surviving former scouts; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 50

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 58—Relative to apricots.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, California produces 98 percent of all domestically produced apricots, comprising a $37 million industry; and

WHEREAS, Apricots have extraordinary nutritional content, being loaded with vitamin A and potassium and containing noteworthy amounts of vitamin C; and

WHEREAS, Through the California Apricot Advisory Board, a state marketing order board, California apricot growers finance an ongoing national advertising and promotion program to assist movement of their commodity in the marketplace; and

WHEREAS, Industry leaders estimate that between one-quarter to one-third of the 1985 crop, amounting to 20,000 tons, will be lost due to record high dried apricot imports; and

WHEREAS, The importation of dried apricots in the United States, primarily from Turkey, has resulted over the last five years in a severe loss of markets for domestic apricot producers and processors; and

WHEREAS, Domestic dried apricot utilization accounted for only 20 percent of the total utilized production from the 1984 crop, down from 32 percent of the crop used for drying in 1983; and

WHEREAS, Preliminary estimates from the United States Department of Agriculture indicate a 46 percent increase over the same period one year ago in the number of dried apricot imports; and

WHEREAS, These imports are entering United States markets at prices below our growers' actual cost of production; and

WHEREAS, If the present trend continues, the Turkish dried apricot import situation, which is fueled by the extraordinarily strong United States dollar, presents a terminal problem for a significant number of the 400 California apricot producers; and

WHEREAS, The California Legislature applauds the Secretary of the United States Department of Agriculture's recent decision to purchase 400,000 cases of canned apricots for the National School

Lunch Program; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature hereby recognizes the significant contributions the apricot industry makes within the state; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature respectfully memorializes the Secretary of the United States Department of Agriculture to provide written assurance to purchase an additional 500,000 cases of apricot juice for the National School Lunch Program because the long-term survival of our domestic production and the thousands of jobs it supplies hang in the balance; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President of the United States, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, and to the Secretary of the United States Department of Agriculture.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 51

Senate Joint Resolution No. 6—Relative to Outer Continental Shelf oil and gas revenues.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 24, 1985.]

WHEREAS, California has over 1,000 miles of coastline, one of the longest and most spectacular coastlines in the nation, and a coastal population of 16 million that is expected to grow to 18.3 million by the year 2000; and

WHEREAS, There is a national interest in the continuation of ocean and coastal resource management programs developed under the federal Coastal Zone Management Act; and

WHEREAS, State coastal management programs provide the primary vehicle for the wise management and protection of this nation's valuable coastal and marine resources; and

WHEREAS, California has had a federally-approved Coastal Management Program under the federal Coastal Zone Management Act since 1977 which provides California with a program for reviewing federal projects, including offshore oil and gas development, to ensure consistency with California's coastal program; and

WHEREAS, The United States Department of Interior is implementing a program along California's coastline to expand and accelerate Outer Continental Shelf oil and gas leasing over 59 million acres which can have significant social, economic, and environmental impacts on the state's coastal local governments; and supplies, but California and its coastal local governments must plan for and finance public services and facilities necessitated by that development, while protecting and managing their coastal resources; and

WHEREAS, At the same time the federal government is expanding and accelerating Outer Continental Shelf oil and gas leasing, federal funding for state and local coastal programs has been eliminated or reduced; and

WHEREAS, California and its local governments receive compensation for burdens associated with onshore federal oil and gas leases under the Mineral Leasing Act of 1920, but receive no revenues to plan and compensate for burdens associated with federal offshore oil and gas leases; and

WHEREAS, An equitable share of the revenues derived from a nonrenewable offshore natural resource, which belongs to the citizens of the United States, should be reinvested in coastal programs which provide for the sound management of affected renewable coastal resources; and

WHEREAS, The United States House of Representatives and the Senate passed an Outer Continental Shelf revenue-sharing bill during the 98th Congress, and legislation to share a portion of federal revenues generated from Outer Continental Shelf oil and gas leasing with coastal states and local governments has now been introduced in the 99th Congress; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to enact legislation which would allocate an equitable share of revenues from Outer Continental Shelf oil and gas development along California's coastline to California to support the continued sound management of its coastal resources; and, due to the importance of this revenue to coastal local governments, to earmark an equitable portion of these revenues to affected local governments.

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 52

[Filed with Secretary of State June 28, 1985]

WHEREAS, Promotion of international trade with the Pacific Rim nations is essential to the economic well-being of the United States; and

WHEREAS, The West Coast ports are increasingly dominant in the United States international water borne trade; and

WHEREAS, Statistics demonstrate that international trade for the West Coast far exceeds trade for the East and Gulf Coasts; and

WHEREAS, In order to ensure the continued movement of goods through West Coast ports, it is vital that the United States Customs Service maintain uniform jurisdiction over all the West Coast ports; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the United States Customs Service to maintain uniform jurisdiction over all West Coast ports and to increase customs inspectors on the West Coast to ensure the continued movement of international trade through West Coast ports; and be it further

WHEREAS, America's shipbuilding and repair facilities are rapidly diminishing and falling behind those of the rest of the world; and

WHEREAS, Since 1981, approximately 20 shipyards in this country have closed operation, resulting in the loss of 40,000 skilled labor jobs and incalculable hardships for many individuals and communities; and

WHEREAS, Current shipyard employment in California is approximately 14,000, but this is down from 20,000 only four years ago; and

WHEREAS, A soundly established and geographically dispersed

United States maritime industry is essential to an adequate defense mobilization base; and

WHEREAS, Federal, state, and local recognition of the economic and strategic importance of the American maritime industry are long overdue, and decisive measures are urgently needed to revive this vital national asset; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of California respectfully memorializes the President and Congress of the United States to recognize the shipbuilding and repair industry as important to the economic strength and defense of the nation and an economic necessity for the people of California and to do everything possible for the revitalization and strengthening of this important national asset; and be it further

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 63—Rescinded.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 56

Senate Joint Resolution No. 32—Relative to importation of pistachios.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 3, 1985.]

WHEREAS, Section 1304 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. Sec. 1301 et seq.) requires that imported commodities of foreign origin, or their containers, be legibly and conspicuously marked to show the English name of the country of origin; and

WHEREAS, These commodities are exempt from the country of origin markings where the product undergoes a substantial transformation due to further processing resulting in a new and different article of commerce with a different name, character, or use; and

WHEREAS, In response to a February 11, 1985, United States Customs Service notice in the Federal Register, and after a request for comments on country of origin marking of imported pistachios, the California Pistachio Commission has presented significant and compelling evidence that imported pistachios are not substantially transformed in the United States; and

WHEREAS, The country of origin marking should be required for imported pistachios because the roasting process does not substantially transform the raw product; and

WHEREAS, Unmarked Iranian pistachios have been marketed in this country under such deceptive labels as "Pride of California" and thereby capture 45 percent of the United States market and cost California growers $20 million in earnings; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature respectfully memorializes the Secretary of the Treasury and the Assistant Secretary of the Treasury for Enforcement and Operations to take immediate action to adopt the proposal noticed by the United States Customs Service in the Federal Register on February 11, 1985, as it specifically relates to pistachios; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Treasury and the Assistant Secretary of the Treasury for Enforcement and Operations recognize the urgency of this request and the deceptive marketing of imported Iranian pistachios; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President, to the Secretary of the Treasury, to the Assistant Secretary of the Treasury for Enforcement and Operations, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to the Majority Leader of the Senate, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 57

Senate Joint Resolution No. 3—Relative to Turkey.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 5, 1985]

WHEREAS, It has been brought to the attention of the California Legislature through correspondence of the Order of St. Andrew the Apostle, a private nonprofit corporation with offices at the Greek Orthodox Arch Diocese of North and South America, that the civil liberties of Greeks living in Turkey have been repeatedly threatened and denied; and

WHEREAS, The California Legislature is justly proud of its long and unyielding commitment to the pervasive extension of freedom; and

WHEREAS, The military junta headed by General Evren in Ankara has decreed that Turkish citizens of Greek descent cannot buy or sell real estate, thus creating the expectation that their homes and businesses will be confiscated; and

WHEREAS, Turkish officials recently visited the worldwide center of Orthodox Christianity, known as Ecumenical Patriarchate in Constantinople and called Istanbul by Moslems; and

WHEREAS, In this holy place, which corresponds to the Vatican, all sacred items were registered and declared the national property of Turkey; and

WHEREAS, The famous Greek Orthodox School of Theology on the island of Halki, from which renowned religious leaders (including His All Holiness, Ecumenical Patriarch Demetrios I. and His Eminence, Archbishop Iakovos, Greek Orthodox Primate of the Americas) have graduated, is now a modest high school with a Turkish principal; and

WHEREAS, While Turkish law prohibits any repair work to Christian churches, schools, businesses, or homes exceeding two hundred fifty liras (or less than two dollars) without a permit, such permits are systematically denied to Greek Orthodox residents of the country; and

WHEREAS, There are continuous efforts to seize the income-producing properties willed by Greek Orthodox people to the famous hospital in Baluki, Istanbul, which treats all members of the community regardless of religion or nationality; and

WHEREAS, At least 300 Greek Orthodox families were forced to flee Turkey last year because of these and other oppressive conditions; and

WHEREAS, In addition, the ethnically Greek population of Turkey has dwindled from half a million at the turn of the century to fewer than 5,000, and 92 percent of those who remain are age 65 or older; and

WHEREAS, These facts strongly suggest a Turkish policy of retrenchment and, indeed, of active persecution of those of Greek heritage; and

WHEREAS, It is the intent of the California Legislature to urge that the United States government investigate these charges and, if substantiated, bring to bear upon the Turkish government appropriate economic and political pressure to correct the suppression of civil liberties; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to petition the Turkish government to effect the protection of the civil liberties of Orthodox Christians; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 58

Senate Joint Resolution No. 4—Relative to maximum speed limit.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 8, 1985.]

WHEREAS, While the National Academy of Sciences recommends that the 55 miles per hour speed limit be retained on most highways, some members felt that it would be appropriate to raise the speed limit on selected highways; and

WHEREAS, Data reported by the State of California to the Federal Highway Administration shows that compliance with the 55 miles per hour National Maximum Speed Limit is deteriorating in California; and

WHEREAS, There is a common perception that public support for the 55 miles per hour National Maximum Speed Limit is eroding; and

WHEREAS, Speeds are higher on most rural freeways as compared to urban freeways, while fatal and injury accidents are less frequent on rural freeways than urban freeways; and

WHEREAS, The State of California can be sanctioned by the federal government when 50 percent or more of the traffic is reported as traveling at speeds greater than 55 miles per hour, resulting in the loss of twenty-eight million dollars ($28,000,000) of federal highway funds; and

WHEREAS, The State of California can be sanctioned by the federal government if the state's 55 miles per hour maximum speed law is repealed, and this could result in a substantial loss of federal highway funds; and

WHEREAS, There are three states which have been advised they are subject to federal sanctions; and

WHEREAS, The California Highway Patrol has maintained wide-ranging routine and special enforcement programs in an effort to improve highway safety and avoid federal sanctions and approximately 1,000,000 violators are arrested annually, which is more than in any other state and is approximately twice the state total prior to the enactment of the 55 miles per hour speed limit; and

WHEREAS, The 55 miles per hour National Maximum Speed Limit has become a dominant focus of the California Highway Patrol law enforcement efforts, with as many as two out of every five arrests being for maximum speed violations, and although these efforts would be considered by the United States Department of Transportation during sanction negotiations, greater safety benefits may be possible if law enforcement resources were redeployed to driving under the influence or other violation problems; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California memorializes the Congress of the United States to enact legislation to allow state legislatures to raise the maximum speed limit on selected freeways; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 59

Senate Joint Resolution No. 18—Relative to international trade.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 8, 1985]

WHEREAS, International trade is an integral and vital part of the California economy, accounting for over one million jobs, 17% of our gross state product, and 25% of our agricultural sales; and

WHEREAS, The United States and California have experienced rising and record international trade deficits over the past three years; and

WHEREAS, These deficits have been responsible for lower economic growth, higher unemployment, widespread bankruptcies and foreclosures, and a substantial loss of export sales; and

WHEREAS, California's agricultural industry has been particularly hard hit by successive declines in export sales of 21% in 1982 and another 8% in 1983; and

WHEREAS, These growing trade deficits, unless they are soon reversed, may cause the permanent loss of export markets for California farmers and manufacturers; and

WHEREAS, The rising burden of farm sector debt and loss of export markets threaten an increasing wave of farm foreclosures and bankruptcies; and

WHEREAS, The economic hardships resulting from the massive trade deficits have brought, and will continue to bring, inordinate pressures on government for protectionist measures; and

WHEREAS, Forty years of progress towards freer markets, expanding international trade, and vastly improved standards of living around the world would be jeopardized by increasing protectionism; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and the Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President, the Congress, and the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System of the United States to provide the strong, prompt, and decisive leadership necessary to reverse the growing U.S. trade deficits; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature respectfully memorializes the President, the Congress, and the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System of the United States to exercise the monetary and fiscal policies necessary to reduce U.S. interest rates, to discourage foreign exchange market speculation which has contributed to an overvalued U.S. dollar, and to encourage other nations to assist in reducing the current lopsided U.S. trade deficit; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Chairman of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 60

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 63—Relative to Ida Nudel.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 10, 1985]

WHEREAS, For 14 years Ida Nudel, a Jewish citizen of the Soviet Union, has tried to gain permission to emigrate to Israel, to join her only living relative, her sister; and

WHEREAS, Ida Nudel has come to be known as the "Guardian Angel" of the Soviet Jewry movement, for her indefatigable efforts on behalf of "prisoners of conscience" and others who have suffered persecution by the Soviet government solely because they desire to celebrate their Jewish heritage and emigrate to Israel; and

WHEREAS, For her efforts she was sentenced to a four-year prison term in Siberia, and since her release has been forced to live in "unofficial exile" far from her home in Moscow; and

WHEREAS, In recent months she has been taken seriously ill, and the prospects for her recovery are not encouraging; and

WHEREAS, Rather than allow her to receive the full medical attention and treatment she needs, the Soviet authorities have instead threatened her with a new trial and prison term; and

WHEREAS, The type of treatment that Ida Nudel has received from the Soviet government is not worthy of such a powerful nation and is in violation of the international human rights accords to which the Soviet Union is a signator; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California urges the government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics to allow Ida Nudel to emigrate to Israel where she may be reunited with her sister, her only living relative, who will care for her in the remaining months of her life; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature urges the President of the United States and other federal officials to use all appropriate diplomatic channels to attempt to persuade Soviet authorities to allow the emigration of Ida Nudel; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President, Vice President, and Secretary of State, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, to the Ambassador to the United States from the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, and to the Consul General of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics headquartered in San Francisco.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 61

Senate Joint Resolution No. 15—Relative to coastal zone management.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 10, 1985]

WHEREAS, The federal Coastal Zone Management Act of 1972, as amended, was enacted to encourage the coastal states to establish and carry out effective and enforceable coastal management programs for the purpose of preserving, protecting, beneficially using, and developing coastal resources in a manner that promotes local, state, and national interests; and

WHEREAS, The federal act provides for incentives, including financial assistance through grants to coastal states, and, once a state coastal program has been certified by the Secretary of Commerce as being in conformity with the act, requires all federal agencies conducting or supporting activities which affect the state's coastal zone to carry out those activities in a manner consistent with the approved state coastal program; and

WHEREAS, The people of this state adopted Proposition 20 in 1972, and the California Legislature subsequently enacted the California Coastal Act of 1976, on the understanding that the federal act authorizes states with federally approved coastal management programs to review federal activities which affect the state's coastal zone for consistency with its own coastal program and provides financial assistance to California for the purpose of managing this nation's coastal resources in California; and

WHEREAS, The California Legislature enacted the "McAteer-Petris Act" in 1969 creating the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission, and the Suisun Marsh Preservation Act of 1977, that formed the basis of the San Francisco Bay segment of California's Coastal Management Program for the purpose of managing this nation's coastal resources in San Francisco Bay; and

WHEREAS, Nearly thirty million dollars ($30,000,000) of the fifty million dollars ($50,000,000) expended to prepare, adopt, and implement California's coastal program, which was approved by the United States Department of Commerce in 1977, has been provided to the state by the federal government under the authority of the federal act; and

WHEREAS, California's coastal program established a unique partnership between state and local governments under which local governments assume much of the state's burden for managing coastal resources after local governments have prepared local coastal programs consistent with the policies of the California Coastal Act of 1976 and local protection programs consistent with the provisions of the Suisun Marsh Preservation Act of 1977 and the Suisun Marsh Protection Plan; and

WHEREAS, The California Coastal Act of 1976 requires that not less than 50 percent of the funds received by the state pursuant to the federal act be used for the preparation, review, approval, certification, or implementation of local coastal programs; and

WHEREAS, The State of California and its local coastal governments have made good progress in completing the local coastal programs required by the California Coastal Act of 1976 and the State of California and Suisun Marsh local governments have completed the local protection program required by the Suisun Marsh Preservation Act of 1977; and

WHEREAS, The California Coastal Commission and the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission have, in numerous cases, exercised the federal consistency review authority provided pursuant to the federal act, to ensure that federal activities are conducted in a manner which takes into account, and is protective of, state and local government interest and concerns; and

WHEREAS, The authority of the federal government to provide financial assistance to California and the other coastal states will terminate in 1985 unless reauthorized by the President and the Congress; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memoralizes the President and the Congress of the United States to reauthorize the Coastal Zone Management Act of 1972 so that California and other coastal states can continue to carry out their responsibilities to the citizens of the nation in wisely protecting, managing, and developing coastal resources; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and the Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 62

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 39—Relative to the National Railroad Passenger Corporation.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 17, 1985]

WHEREAS, Rail transportation is an integral component of our public transportation system and provides a vital service to the urban and rural communities of this country and encourages the steady economic growth and development of those communities within the State of California; and

WHEREAS, The State of California and the urban and rural communities of the state have invested time and money in the maintenance and improvement of rail facilities and rail service through programs in partnership with the federal government; and

WHEREAS, The Director of the United States Office of Management and Budget has proposed to eliminate all federal funding for the National Rail Passenger Corporation (Amtrak) and let the private sector provide any passenger rail service if there are any companies willing to do so; and

WHEREAS, The result of the elimination of all federal support will result in higher fares, a drastic reduction in the level of rail service, decreased access to many urban and rural communities and correspondingly decreased revenues for businesses in those communities and accordingly lower taxes to the state, higher unemployment, and stifled economic growth and development; and

WHEREAS, The President has the power to ensure that any proposals to eliminate federal funding for Amtrak are not implemented or included in the next federal budget; and

WHEREAS, The program known as Amtrak has for several years steadily increased efficiency so that it now meets Congressionally mandated operating levels for ridership and revenue and promises to become increasingly self-supporting in the future; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the members respectfully memorialize the President to do all of the following:

(a) Study ways to further improve passenger rail service.

(b) Continue support and funding for Amtrak.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 63

Senate Joint Resolution No. 9—Relative to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1985]

WHEREAS, The California Legislature has enacted comprehensive laws regulating programs for the delivery of prepaid and reimbursed health care, including health care service plans, nonprofit hospital service plans, and disability insurance; and

WHEREAS, California's laws protect the interest of citizens enrolled in these health care programs by requiring financial solvency of the plans and insurers, adequacy of the care provided to our citizens as patients, freedom of choice in selecting the health care provider desired by the patient, and other elements supporting fiscal responsibility and good patient care; and

WHEREAS, The federal Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA) has preempted state laws in the regulation of health care plans and programs in order to assure uniform employee benefit plans throughout the United States, but this explicit preemption has precluded the states from mandating additional benefits or protections for employees; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the Congress of the United States to enact legislation amending the Employee Retirement Income Security Act to narrow its preemption provisions to permit the states to enact legislation which will provide benefits in addition to the protections required by ERISA and encourage states to achieve parity between insured and self-insured benefits; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 64

Senate Joint Resolution No. 17—Relative to vessel air emissions standards.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 18, 1985]

WHEREAS, The regulation of vessels and marine affairs which is not achieved by consensus and cooperation among the states and with the federal government causes confusion and conflict to vessel operators and can negatively impact state and federal efforts to increase the use of West Coast ports for foreign trade; and

WHEREAS, Air emission standards imposed by various federal, state, and local entities are a complicated and confusing set of policies which affect domestic and foreign vessels differently; and

WHEREAS, The Clean Air Act is an example of a law which is unclear as to whether the state and local jurisdictions are preempted from imposing vessel air emission standards; and

WHEREAS, Seventy percent of vessel activities on the West Coast and almost 80 percent in California are by foreign flag vessels whose air emissions cannot be successfully regulated by state or local government; and

WHEREAS, The practice has been for the United States to deal internationally with foreign governments regarding agreements concerning maritime issues, such as the safety of life at sea; and

WHEREAS, Uniformity is desirable in vessel air emission standards so that it is not discriminatory against domestic vessels and their operators; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the Congress of the United States to undertake or to direct the United States Coast Guard to undertake a study on vessel air emission standards which recognizes the importance of uniformity and its effect on foreign trade; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, the Secretary of Transportation, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

WHEREAS, The perinatal mortality rate for black communities is still twice as high as for whites despite all of the publicity about recent gains the country has made; and

WHEREAS, Blacks can expect to develop diabetes at a rate which is twice that of whites; and

WHEREAS, Blacks do not have the degree of access to primary health care providers that would lead to a diminution in the disparity in health status between the black and majority population; now, therefore be it,

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That every effort be made by government entities at every level and by the private sector to resolve the disparity between the black and majority population and improve the health status of California's black population.

WHEREAS, Popular unrest broke out during the army's massacre of between 10,000 and 30,000 Salvadoran citizens; and

WHEREAS, The period between 1945 and 1979 was characterized by military rule, widespread corruption, fraudulent elections, and military repression of all political opposition; and

WHEREAS, There occur continual instances of torture, mutilation, disappearances, and the individual and mass extrajudicial execution of men, women, and children from all sectors of Salvadoran society, perpetrated by extremist factions on all sides within and beyond the government; and

WHEREAS, There has been a massive increase in the number of both internal and external refugees and displaced persons; and

WHEREAS, During the last five years, as a result of the civil war, civilians have been killed in numbers totaling over 40,000, a figure constituting approximately one percent of the population and comparable to 1,750,000 civilian deaths in a country the size of the United States; and

WHEREAS, The United States has an honorable tradition of accepting refugees from abroad who have suffered political repression during a period of civil conflict as demonstrated by the fact that the United States has granted extended voluntary departure status 15 times in the past 24 years, and the status currently is granted to Poles, Ethiopians, Afghans, and Ugandans; and

WHEREAS, Thousands of refugees have fled El Salvador for fear of being harmed by the repression and hostilities that continue daily in the context of an internal civil strife; and

WHEREAS, The United States, to date, has not fully accepted responsibility for its humanitarian obligation toward Salvadoran refugees, refusing to grant them political asylum or even extended voluntary departure status, and has forcibly repatriated over 35,000 people to El Salvador; and

WHEREAS, Innocent men, women, and children are presently without a country and live with the realization that their return to El Salvador would once again place their lives in jeopardy in a country ravaged by an ongoing catastrophic civil conflict; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the Congress of the United States to recognize that the refugees from El Salvador are "political refugees" and to grant them asylum or extended voluntary departure status, and to enact, as a temporary measure, the Moakley-DeConcini Bill; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature emphasizes that the endorsement of these actions by the Congress of the United States is based upon a humanitarian concern for the refugees of El Salvador, and in no way constitutes support or opposition to any faction currently involved in conflict within that nation; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 70

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 17—Relative to taxation.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 23, 1985]

WHEREAS, The amount of potential revenues lost through tax exemptions, deductions, various exclusions, deferrals, credits, and loopholes has increased substantially over the past 10 years; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature must carefully scrutinize these tax exceptions as carefully as it examines budget expenditures; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislative Analyst is directed to analyze tax exceptions, which term refers to the various tax exclusions, exemptions, preferential tax rates, credits, and deferrals which reduce the amount of revenue collected from the state's basic tax structure, as follows:

(a) The Legislative Analyst shall establish a process by which all tax exceptions are reviewed according to the following guidelines:

(1) A fiscal and economic analysis which takes into account the original social and economic purpose of the tax exception. If a specific amount of revenue involved with a tax exception cannot be identified, the Legislative Analyst shall provide a range of the revenues involved.

(2) Discussion and examination of the minimal level necessary for the tax exception to achieve the state's objective.

(3) Which income groups are benefited by the tax exception, the distribution of benefits among different income groups, and the effect of the exception on the overall distribution of the tax burden.

(4) To what extent federal and state tax exceptions overlap.

If the information requested in the criteria is not available, then the analyst shall state why the information is missing and what is necessary to make it available.

The Legislative Analyst shall report to the Legislature on the process established to review tax exceptions by December 31, 1986, in order that the Legislature may approve or disapprove the process established.

(b) The Legislative Analyst shall prepare a report which provides a thorough analysis of tax exceptions. The analyst shall review and analyze the tax exception report prepared by the Department of Finance, and shall request assistance from the Franchise Tax Board and the State Board of Equalization in order to make the list as comprehensive as possible. In its analysis, the analyst shall include those tax exceptions which may be significant but difficult to estimate in total dollar amounts.

The report shall examine tax exceptions in accordance with the process established in accordance with subdivision (a) of this measure. After an initial review of all of those tax exceptions, the Legislative Analyst shall identify those tax exceptions which can be shown to:

(1) Particularly provide windfall benefits to individuals or groups whose behavior is unaffected by the tax incentive.

(2) Work contrary to the objectives of other state programs or other tax exceptions.

(3) Are no longer consistent with the original goals and objectives for which they were intended.

(4) Have little or no clear economic or social justification.

(5) Benefit primarily only a clearly identifiable single economic entity or very small special interest group.

The Legislative Analyst shall estimate the rate of growth of the total amount of tax exceptions over the previous year, and shall identify those tax exceptions which are growing at rates which are in excess of the rate of growth in the general fund budget.

The report on tax exceptions shall be presented to the Legislature no later than December 31 of every even-numbered year. The analyst shall present this material to the fiscal committee of each house, and to the Revenue and Taxation Committee of each house.

(c) The Revenue and Taxation Committee of each house shall review the report submitted by the Legislative Analyst and may select a group of tax exceptions for special review. The committees shall utilize the office of the Legislative Analyst and the staff of appropriate fiscal agencies in conducting their review. On the basis of this review, each Revenue and Taxation Committee shall identify those tax exceptions which it may recommend for deletion or modification, and shall report its recommendations, if any, to the fiscal committee of each house for consideration during the budget process. The resulting bill shall be referred to as the "Tax Exception Budget Revision Bill" for the session, and shall be reviewed for passage, amendment, or modification by the fiscal committees of both houses in conjunction with the budget process.

(d) Tax exception reports required to be produced by the Legislative Analyst shall be produced on dates consistent with the work load in the analyst's office and the needs of the Legislature for this information. Any tax exception report required to be produced by the analyst may be included as part of the tax exception report required pursuant to this measure; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the Legislative Analyst.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 71

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 23—Relative to federal estate tax treatment of agricultural land.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 23, 1985]

WHEREAS, In addition to producing approximately 10 percent of the nation's cash farm receipts, California leads the nation in the production of over 200 different commercially grown crops; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature of the State of California recognized the significance of California's agricultural production on a state and national level when it enacted the California Land Conservation Act of 1965, hereafter called the Williamson Act, to promote the preservation of valuable agricultural land through discouraging premature urbanization, while protecting persons owning agricultural lands near urban areas from being forced to pay real property taxes based on the greater value of their land for commercial or urban residential use; and

WHEREAS, The Williamson Act has proven to be a valuable tool for conserving agricultural land, with 49 of the state's 58 counties participating in it, and with more than 15 million acres, or the equivalent of 50 percent, of the state's farm and grazing land currently under Williamson Act contract; and

WHEREAS, Heirs to farm and ranch property in California find themselves subject to federal estate taxes based on "fair market value" for urban development purposes rather than agricultural purposes, which frequently places pressure on the heirs to sell all or part of the property to development interests in order to pay the taxes; and

WHEREAS, The provisions of a Williamson Act contract constitute an "enforceable restriction" that runs with the land, placing the buyer of the property under the same restrictions as to use, thereby limiting the immediate use of the land for purposes other than agriculture and diminishing the value of the land; and

WHEREAS, The Congress of the United States has recognized the adverse effect of estate taxes on the ability of farmers and ranchers to bequeath their farm and ranch properties to their heirs; and

WHEREAS, The provisions of Section 2032A of the Internal Revenue Code allow for an appraisal system for those properties based on a capitalization of income formula; and

WHEREAS, Section 2032A of the Internal Revenue Code limits the reduction of the taxable value of an estate having farm and ranch properties to a maximum amount of $750,000; and

WHEREAS, Farm and ranch properties in many states, including California, are located in areas subject to high development pressure, resulting in excessively high "fair market values," which in turn has the effect of greatly diminishing the intended benefit of the $750,000 reduction allowed by Section 2032A; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to recognize the "enforceable restrictions" placed on agricultural land under the Williamson Act as a valid consideration in establishing "fair market value" without any limitation and to enact amendments to the Internal Revenue Code to that effect in order to ensure that farm and ranch properties located in areas subject to excessive development pressures may be continued in operation; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 72

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 28—Relative to health care costs.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 23, 1985]

WHEREAS, The cost of health care has increased greatly during the past several years; and

WHEREAS, The increased burden of health care costs threatens governmental health care programs; and

WHEREAS, The manner in which hospital services and resources are utilized may have a significant impact on the cost of health care; and

WHEREAS, The utilization of hospital resources should be examined and studied in all aspects, in order to find possible means to reduce health care costs; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature conduct a study regarding hospital costs, which incorporates all types of hospitals and makes comparisons based on the similarity of the hospitals; and be it further

Resolved, That the study consider all of the following:

(a) The share of hospital costs to overall health care costs.

(b) The manner in which decisions to utilize hospital resources are made.

(c) The identification of persons who determine hospital utilization, including admission and discharge, methods of treatment, tests, and diagnostic procedures.

(d) The reasons for decisions.

(e) The identification of practitioners, other than physicians and surgeons, making hospital utilization decisions.

(f) The controls over hospital resource utilization, independent of the ordering practitioner.

(g) Other providers involved in making hospitalization decisions; and be it further

Resolved, That the study be completed on or before July 31, 1986.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 73

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 41—Relative to commending recent firefighting efforts in California.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 24, 1985.]

WHEREAS, Since June 27, 1985, California has been subjected to the worst series of forest fires in recent history; and

WHEREAS, In the past three weeks, there have been over thirty major fires in California, turning to ash upwards of 375,000 acres of timberland, killing three people, destroying 215 homes, and causing over $60 million in property losses, as well as untold misery and personal sadness; and

WHEREAS, Over 10,000 men and women throughout the state--from teenagers to retirees, from small municipal fire departments to the State Department of Forestry, the U.S. Forest service, and dozens of official and ad hoc agencies and organizations, from professional firefighters to volunteer ham radio operators--were involved in the effort to put out the fires; and

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 3—Relative to disabled persons.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 25, 1985]

WHEREAS, The Legislature recognizes that the composition of California society is becoming increasingly inclusive and heterogeneous; and

WHEREAS, Every Californian, including those who are disabled, has the right to be fully recognized and included in the operation of our state and society and culture; and

WHEREAS, It is the intent of the Legislature that all persons, regardless of their previous educational background, should have the opportunity to proceed as far as their abilities allow them in the completion of high-quality programs at the elementary, secondary, postsecondary, and graduate education levels; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature recognizes that disabled persons have historically been underrepresented at colleges and universities and consequently have been unprepared to fill highly skilled jobs to meet the challenges of California's future economic and technological growth; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature recognizes that equal educational opportunities for disabled persons will help enhance the education of all students and better prepare everyone for life together in a heterogeneous society; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature recognizes that equal educational opportunities for all persons is a shared responsibility of educational institutions at all levels, requiring both the cooperative efforts of these institutions and comprehensive coordinating efforts of all existing school and campus resources; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby declares its particular concern regarding persons with disabilities and their historical underrepresentation in California postsecondary education; and be it further

Resolved, That the state's goals are as follows:

(b) That the nondisabled-disabled composition of students completing vocational technical programs or transferring from community colleges into four-year institutions be similar to the nondisabled-disabled composition of students entering community colleges.

(c) That the nondisabled-disabled composition of baccalaureate degree recipients from California colleges and universities be similar to the nondisabled-disabled composition of secondary school graduates who are eligible for admission to a four-year educational institution; and be it further

Resolved, That the California Postsecondary Education Commission shall convene a committee composed of representatives from the University of California, the California State University, the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges, the Association of Independent Colleges and Universities, and the State Department of Education, with the cooperation of other appropriate

These representatives shall provide ample opportunity for all interested parties to present information and their opinions on the committee's plan; and be it further

Resolved, That this committee's plan and its recommendations for action contain the following elements, with respect to disabled persons who are able to profit from instruction and make reasonable academic progress:

(1) Ways of improving the academic preparation of disabled students in secondary schools, if underpreparation is a result of their disability. The State Department of Education shall present data on this issue.

(2) Priorities for action to achieve the state's goals, reasonable timelines to achieve the goals based on specific information from each segment about the extent of underrepresentation, the institution responsible therefor, and a long-term funding approach for programs serving postsecondary students which will reflect the actual costs of providing certain services and instruction which meet general criteria related to serving the particular needs of students with disabilities in each segment.

(3) Specific recommendations for shared responsibility and cooperative, coordinated efforts by all secondary, postsecondary, and postbaccalaureate institutions.

(4) Description of comprehensive institutional efforts for coordinating existing school, campus resources, general academic programs, and general student services, to meet the educational needs of disabled students, and if necessary, recommendations to strengthen, expand or reorganize these efforts.

WHEREAS, The Office of Management and Budget has proposed to shift from the state revenue sharing of gross receipts to a net profit sharing system for national forest revenues; and

[Filed with Secretary of State August 29, 1985]

WHEREAS, The National Railroad Passenger Corporation, known as Amtrak, serves the residents of this state; and

WHEREAS, Our residents' use of Amtrak has increased continuously since 1971; and

WHEREAS, Amtrak directly employs 1,000 residents of this state and indirectly supports the employment of approximately 3,000 residents of this state through the purchase of supplies and equipment from their employers; and

WHEREAS, Amtrak has invested millions of dollars in this state in the form of passenger facilities and equipment; and

WHEREAS, Amtrak has continually improved the quality of its service, its financial position, and the number of passengers carried to the point where it transported 22 million people in 1984 and expects to increase that amount by 2 to 3 percent in 1985; and

WHEREAS, The budget presented to the Congress of the United States by the President would, if enacted, deprive Amtrak of the federal funding required for its continued existence; and

WHEREAS, The elimination of Amtrak would result in serious adverse economic consequences to this state and its residents in terms of loss of investment, loss of income to equipment and supply contractors with the railroad, loss of railroad passenger service, loss of jobs, and a concomitant strain on the Railroad Retirement System by the loss of many contributors to that system; and

state as it has in the past; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California memorializes the Congress of the United States to provide sufficient funding through appropriation of those amounts of money necessary to keep Amtrak in at least as sound a position operationally and financially in the 1985–86 fiscal year as it has been in the 1984–85 fiscal year; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States and to the United States Secretary of Transportation.

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the California Transportation Commission and the Director of Transportation.

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 48—Relative to the California Water Forum.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1985.]

WHEREAS, There are significant conflicting needs for the limited water resources of the state, including those regarding fish and wildlife, urban uses, agriculture, water quality, and flood control; and

WHEREAS, The wise conservation, allocation, management, use, and reclamation of the water resources of the state involves the consideration of extremely complex issues, including, but not limited to, the amounts of water needed for the various purposes set forth above, the nature and extent of fish and wildlife, flood control, water quality, and other environmental impacts, water pricing policy, statewide population growth, the coordination of state and federal water projects and policies, and legal and institutional considerations and issues; and

WHEREAS, Attempts over the past several years to develop solutions to these issues and to reconcile underlying concerns have been unsuccessful; and

WHEREAS, It is of critical importance to the well-being of the state to resolve expeditiously these issues as part of a sound, long-term water resources program for the state that is supported by a statewide consensus; and

WHEREAS, There is a significant need for a neutral forum in which these statewide issues can be discussed and analyzed and options evaluated that may provide the basis for such a consensus; and

WHEREAS, The California Water Forum, under the sponsorship of more than 75 private and public sector agencies and organizations, has provided a neutral forum for the discussion of these issues and has convened two conferences in northern and southern California, involving over 200 key representatives of local, state, and federal governmental agencies, business and industry, environmental and wildlife organizations, agriculture, water agencies, urban interests, and the public to address statewide water issues; and

WHEREAS, The California Water Forum has proposed to the Legislature that the forum undertake a further effort to develop a statewide Water Policy Option Scenarios Report in consultation with its sponsors and those participating in the forum which would provide the focus for further discussion and analysis of statewide water issues with a view to provide a basis for developing policies and programs which would enjoy broad support; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature would welcome the preparation by the California Water Forum of that report; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature encourages the California

Water Forum to proceed expeditiously with its statewide Water Policy Option Scenarios Report and submit the report to the Legislature prior to October 1, 1986, for consideration and further action by the Legislature; and be it further

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 86

Senate Joint Resolution No. 13—Relative to federal mineral leasing.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 3, 1985]

WHEREAS, States are significantly burdened by the presence of federal lands used for mineral leasing purposes and must respond to federal mineral leasing development activities that generate increased demands for education, roads, police and fire protection, and other public services; and

WHEREAS, Under the federal Mineral Leasing Act of 1920, 50 percent of the sales, bonuses, royalties, and rentals related to the production of minerals on federal leases are payable to the state in which the leases are located in partial compensation for public service burdens and tax immunity associated with federal lands; and

WHEREAS, In 1983, the federal government received over $1 billion in onshore mineral leasing revenues, with the total states' share exceeding $500 million, of which California received about $25 million; and

WHEREAS, Most federal mineral leasing revenues shared with California are used for education purposes, with residual funds used for surface mining reclamation, geothermal activities, and natural resource and wildlife projects; and

WHEREAS, As a result of inefficiencies and omissions in royalties management, California and other states have been receiving far less than the full amount of mineral leasing revenues authorized under federal law; and

WHEREAS, The federal mineral leasing revenue shares of California and other states are also being seriously eroded by the deduction of windfall profits taxes, by the undervaluation of natural gas, and by the withholding of mineral leasing lottery fees; and

WHEREAS, The Office of Management and Budget has proposed to reduce federal land revenues received by states by over $400 million annually by deducting administrative costs of the Department of the Interior from the states' share of mineral leasing revenues and by shifting from the sharing of gross receipts to a net profit sharing system for mineral leasing revenues; and

WHEREAS, The federal government's mineral leasing royalty collection system, when combined with the implementation of budgetary initiatives to lower the states' share of mineral leasing revenues, will significantly reduce the mineral leasing revenues received by California and other states, and will adversely affect education and natural resource and wildlife programs in California; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States, the Secretary of the Interior, the Director of the United States Minerals Management Service, and the Director of the Office of Management and Budget, to revise the federal government's mineral leasing royalty management system to ensure that states receive their full entitlement of revenue sharing funds authorized under federal law and to refrain from implementing budgetary initiatives which would significantly reduce the mineral leasing revenue sharing funds received by states; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and the Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to the Secretary of the Interior, to the Director of the United States Minerals Management Service, to the Director of the Office of Management and Budget, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the California Postsecondary Education Commission is requested to conduct a study of the attrition rate of students in engineering education, to determine if ethnic minority and women students have a higher attrition rate than all engineering students, and, if so, to determine the causes of this higher attrition rate and develop recommended solutions to increase the retention rate for minority and women students in engineering programs; and be it further

Resolved, That the California State University and the University of California, in cooperation with the California Postsecondary Education Commission, shall identify the types of data necessary to determine the attrition rate for engineering students; and be it further

[Filed with Secretary of State September 17, 1985]

WHEREAS, From 1941 to 1945, the Merchant Marine Veterans of World War II distinguished themselves above the call of duty in numerous perilous situations to serve the different branches of the United States armed services, and it is appropriate on the anniversary of the end of World War II, that the men who served their country so valiantly be honored and commended by the people of California; and

WHEREAS, The Merchant Marine fleet carried four-fifths of the supplies for the entire United Nations war effort, and continued their duty after the war, when the service worked to provide relief to areas devastated by the war, including a monthly average of 1,500,000 tons of coal, 800,000 tons of grain, and 200,000 tons of flour; and

WHEREAS, During the war, the Merchant Marine had dual duties--they were the main link between the production fronts and the fighting fronts all over the world; and

WHEREAS, The Army and Navy used the merchant ships as transporters, airplane carriers, hospital ships, fleet oilers, and submarine tenders; the ships carried troops and materials to battlefield staging areas all over the world; and the ships brought in the raw materials which kept up the production on the home front; and

WHEREAS, For deeds of heroism, the Merchant Marine Veterans of World War II were awarded 145 Distinguished Service Medals and 426 Meritorious Service Medals; and each merchant ship had guns on it which were manned equally by the men of the Navy and the men of the Merchant Marine; and

WHEREAS, The first loss occurred on November 8, 1940, and did not end until after the surrender of Japan; 757 ships and more than 6,000 merchant seamen were lost and 600 seamen were captured and made prisoners of war; and

WHEREAS, The Merchant Marine Veterans of World War II were all volunteers, who manned the "bridge of ships" to transport men and materials through dangerous waters of combat zones, without which the Allies would have lost the war; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof, concurring, That the Legislature honors and commends the men who served in the Merchant Marine Veterans of World War II during World War II, recognizes the integral part they played in helping the Allies to victory, and extends the appreciation and gratitude of the people of California; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 17, 1985]

WHEREAS, The State of California has a varied coastline of sandy beaches, rocky shores, productive estuaries, marshes, tidal flats, urban areas, and harbors; and

WHEREAS, The coast provides a rich scenic, recreational, cultural, and historical heritage; and

WHEREAS, The natural resources of the coastal zone are among California's most important economic resources; and

WHEREAS, The marine environment is one of the most valuable resources for recreation, tourism, fishing, and other coastal industries; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature of the State of California is strongly committed to the wise management of the coastline to ensure that the environmental and economic value of the coastal zone will be sustained; and

WHEREAS, Preserving the productivity and quality of coastal resources requires public awareness, support, and an understanding that protection of the coast is a responsibility shared jointly, by individual citizens, the business community, and public institutions; now, therefore, be it

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 100

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 45—Relative to commending the United States Marine Corps on the occasion of its 210th anniversary.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 17, 1985.]

WHEREAS, On November 10, 1775, a corps of American Marines was created by a resolution of the Continental Congress and, since that date, many thousands of Californians have proudly borne the title of Marine; and

WHEREAS, In the memory of these Marines, it is fitting that the people of California should commemorate the 210th anniversary of the founding of the United States Marine Corps by calling to mind the glories of the long and illustrious history of the Corps; and

WHEREAS, The record of the U.S. Marine Corps is one which bears comparison with that of the most famous military organizations in the world's history, and that illustrious record was compiled by a long line of silent men--stretching from its first landing at New Providence Island during the Revolutionary War, from Trenton, Princeton, and Charleston, from the shores of Tripoli to the battlements of Chapultepec, from Manassas and Mobile Bay, from Santiago and Samar and the Boxer Rebellion, from the Dominican Republic and Nicaragua and Haiti, from the heroics of the "devil dogs" at Bouresches, Soissons, Blanc Mont, and the Argonne, down through the great battles of the Pacific War, from the steaming jungles of Guadalcanal, Tarawa, Peleliu, and Okinawa to the heights of Suribachi, from the bitter fighting of Korea, the landing at Inchon and the frozen wastes at the Chosin Reservoir and Toktong Pass, the Hook, and Panmunjom, and from the skies over Quang Nam and Khe Sanh, the paddies of Chu Lai, the streets of Hue and Da Nang, to bitter actions at Beirut and Grenada; and

WHEREAS, The Marine Corps played a significant and pivotal role in the establishment of statehood for California, beginning with the proclamation of the Bear Flag Republic, landing at San Francisco, Monterey, San Diego, and San Pedro, and participated in actions at Los Angeles, Santa Clara, La Mesa, San Pasqual and the San Gabriel River; and

WHEREAS, Since the inception of the Corps, Marines have won foremost honors for their protection of the principles of liberty and justice for all, and they have served with the greatest distinction, thereby securing for this country long periods of tranquillity at home because the Corps has always been prepared to meet any challenge in either hemisphere and in every corner of the seven seas to ensure that our great nation might enjoy peace and security; and

WHEREAS, The soldierly repute of those who are Marines today has been handed down from those who preceded them in the Corps, and, with this legacy, they have also received the eternal spirit which has strengthened the Corps from generation to generation and which has been the distinguishing mark of a Marine in every era; and

WHEREAS, So long as that esprit de corps continues to flourish, Marines will be found equal to every turn of events as they have in the past, and the men and women serving as Marines of today are worthy successors to the long line of illustrious Marines who have served as this Nation's "Soldiers of the Sea"; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That, on the occasion of the 210th anniversary of the Corps, the Legislature of the State of California commends the United States Marine Corps on its outstanding contributions to California, the United States of America, and the free world in the cause of peace and freedom; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature encourages all Californians to join with the members of the United States Marine Corps in their celebration of this special birthday; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature proclaims the weekend of November 8 through November 10, 1985, as "United States Marine Corps Days" and requests the Governor to issue a proclamation thus designating those dates; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy of this resolution to the Governor.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 101

Senate Joint Resolution No. 28—Relative to methanol-powered vehicles.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 17, 1985]

WHEREAS, The United States Environmental Protection Agency has not approved the plan submitted by the South Coast Air Quality Management District to achieve health-based air quality standards as required by the Clean Air Act; and

WHEREAS, The Environmental Protection Agency has directed the State Air Resources Board and the South Coast Air Quality Management District to develop and adopt additional motor vehicle and stationary source emission control measures; and

WHEREAS, Other air basins in California are not expected to attain ambient air quality standards by 1987 as required by the Clean Air Act; and

WHEREAS, The air quality management plan for southern California adopted by the Southern California Association of Governments and the South Coast Air Quality Management District includes the determination that additional motor vehicle and stationary control measures incorporating even the most highly advanced and expensive pollution control technology will not, by themselves, bring the South Coast Air Basin within even reasonable compliance with the federal and state ambient air quality standards; and

WHEREAS, The air quality management plan for the South Coast Air Basin concluded that the substitution of cleaner burning fuels such as methanol for petroleum was the only remaining available strategy which would provide significant reductions in ambient concentrations of photochemical ozone; and

WHEREAS, Scientific analysis and technical studies conducted by the State Air Resources Board, the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, and the Environmental Protection Agency have confirmed that methanol-powered motor vehicles are capable of achieving reductions in emissions that could result in reductions in ozone levels in nonattainment areas; and

WHEREAS, The Environmental Protection Agency has issued an advanced notice of proposed rulemaking in order to eliminate regulatory barriers to the introduction of methanol-powered vehicles into the marketplace, and that the most significant of the proposed actions would be to provide a credit against fuel economy standards to auto manufacturers for the production of vehicles which operate on methanol, in recognition of the petroleum replacement value of methanol fuel; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to recognize the air quality benefits of methanol-powered vehicles and the important contribution they could make to improving air quality and energy security in California, and to reflect the petroleum replacement value of methanol fuel by providing auto manufacturers with a credit against their corporate average fuel economy standards for the production of methanol-powered vehicles, as well as for vehicles which are designed and optimized to operate on at least 85 percent methanol, but which can also operate on gasoline, methanol, or ethanol, or any combination of those fuels; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Secretary of Transportation, to the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 102

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 25—Relative to motor vehicle and stationary sources of oxides of nitrogen emissions.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1985.]

WHEREAS, Motor vehicles and stationary sources are the principal sources of oxides of nitrogen emissions into California's air; and

WHEREAS, Oxides of nitrogen are a major contributor to the formation of atmospheric nitrogen dioxide, particulate matter, photochemical oxidants, and acid rain and acid fog, as well as a major contributor to visibility degradation; and

WHEREAS, Atmospheric nitrogen dioxide, particulate matter, and photochemical oxidants are known to have an adverse impact on public health and the environment; and

WHEREAS, Acid deposition is occurring in various regions of California and may have significant adverse effects on the environment, on the economy, and on public health; and

WHEREAS, The South Coast Air Quality Management District is the only area in the United States which has been designated as a nonattainment area for the health-based ambient air quality oxides of nitrogen standard, and has recorded an extremely high level of acidity in the atmosphere of parts of southern California; and

WHEREAS, Reduction in vehicular and stationary sources of oxides of nitrogen emissions may be necessary to support continued economic growth in the South Coast Air Basin; and

WHEREAS, On January 14, 1983, the State Air Resources Board submitted a "Report to the Legislature on the Benefits and Feasibility of a 0.4 Gram Per Mile Oxides of Nitrogen Emission Standard for Passenger Cars and Light Trucks" which shows that there is sufficient evidence to justify the adoption of such an emission standard; and

WHEREAS, Other vehicular sources of oxides of nitrogen, such as medium and heavy duty vehicles, locomotive, and marine vessels should be subjected to additional emission controls and to the substitution of cleaner-burning fuels as soon as technologically feasible, and California should take all appropriate steps to accelerate the development of these control options; and

WHEREAS, New and existing stationary sources of oxides of nitrogen, including electric generating facilities, waste disposal and resource recovery facilities, petroleum production and refining operations, and other combustion sources should be subjected to additional emission controls or the substitution of cleaner-burning fuels as soon as technologically feasible, and California should take appropriate steps to accelerate the development and application of innovative control strategies; now, therefore, be it

thereof concurring, That the State Air Resources Board is requested to hold a public hearing to consider the adoption of a 0.4 gram per mile oxides of nitrogen exhaust emission standard for light duty motor vehicles; and be it further

Resolved, That the State Air Resources Board is requested to hold a public hearing to consider the adoption of additional oxides of nitrogen and particulate standards for medium and heavy duty motor vehicles for the 1989 and later model years; that the board is also directed to consider the technological feasibility, economic cost, and air quality benefit of reducing, and the adoption of specific strategies to reduce, emissions from motor vehicles, such as tighter specifications on fuel quality and composition and the substitution of cleaner-burning fuels; and be it further

Resolved, That the State Air Resources Board analyze the impact of motor vehicle and stationary sources of oxides of nitrogen emission on visibility and on acid deposition in and beyond the region where they are generated; and be it further

Resolved, That the State Air Resources Board include, in its next annual report to the Legislature on its actions to implement the Kapiloff Acid Deposition Act submitted pursuant to Section 39909 of the Health and Safety Code, a description of the current availability and technological feasibility in the near future of advanced emission controls and cleaner-burning fuels for all types of motor vehicles and stationary sources of oxides of nitrogen, the actions which the board is taking to accelerate the development of these additional control strategies and the need for additional actions by the Legislature, the extent to which existing rules and regulations of the districts are likely to prevent current acid deposition levels from increasing in sensitive regions of California, and the board's proposed actions and recommendations to reduce current levels of acid deposition and to prevent population and economic growth and increased energy development in the state from resulting in increased levels of acid deposition in sensitive areas of California or in areas where public health could be adversely affected; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy of this resolution to the Chairman of the State Air Resources Board.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 103

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 47—Relative to the Kenneth Hahn Act.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1985]

WHEREAS, Supervisor Kenneth Hahn, a person with a distinguished record of 37 years of public service, has contributed immeasurably to the advancement of his community and state, especially through his outstanding contributions to the development of an efficient transportation system in Los Angeles County; and

WHEREAS, The people of Los Angeles have for years had to breathe polluted air due to unprecedented traffic jams and emission of photochemical smog; and

WHEREAS, Kenneth Hahn took the lead in drafting and working for the passage of Proposition A, which appeared on the November 1980 ballot, and on July 11, 1985, the Board of Directors of the Southern California Rapid Transit District unanimously resolved to identify the proposition as "Proposition A - the Kenneth Hahn Act"; and

WHEREAS, Proposition A will provide funds for the largest community transportation project west of the Mississippi, as well as finance the San Fernando Valley-Downtown Los Angeles Metro Rail Line, the Long Beach Rail Line, and the transit system of Los Angeles; and

WHEREAS, Proposition A funds have been used to fund 84 cities in Los Angeles County for transportation purposes and for the past three years, funds were used to subsidize the bus fares of commuters who were able to use public transit instead of their automobiles; and

WHEREAS, Supervisor Kenneth Hahn manifested discernment, perseverance, and commitment in support of making rapid transit a realistic goal; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Members recognize Proposition A as the Kenneth Hahn Act in honor of Supervisor Kenneth Hahn for his many accomplishments and contributions to the passage of Proposition A and for his support for development of an efficient transportation system for the people of Los Angeles County; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to Supervisor Kenneth Hahn.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 104

Senate Joint Resolution No. 23—Relative to Coast Guard Vessel Traffic Service.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1985]

WHEREAS, The United States Coast Guard is a branch of the armed services originally created to defend our coastline and to ensure safe and orderly marine navigation in our territorial waters; and

WHEREAS, During the last 10 years, the Coast Guard has been given many additional responsibilities pursuant to numerous federal acts, including the Boat and Safety Act, the Port and Waterways

Safety Act, the Port and Tanker Safety Act, the Fishery Conservation and Management Act, the Water Pollution Control Act, the Clean Water Act, and the OCS Land Act Amendments; and

WHEREAS, San Francisco Bay is one of only four areas in the country which, because of its unique conditions, has Coast Guard Vessel Traffic Service; and

WHEREAS, The 1984 Coast Guard's Vessel Traffic Service, by directing over 67,000 movements in San Francisco Bay, provided essential safety services for vessels using the bay and its numerous ports and harbors, including inland Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta port; and

WHEREAS, The Coast Guard has in the past stated that the Vessel Traffic Service is a major factor in avoiding ship collisions; and

WHEREAS, Termination of this service will pose a serious threat to navigation and create unnecessary risks to life, property, and the environment; and

WHEREAS, Alternatives for operation of a marine navigation traffic system other than by the United States Coast Guard have been fully explored and found infeasible, in part because no agency has the respect and competence of the Coast Guard; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to provide full congressional funding to continue the Coast Guard Vessel Traffic Service in San Francisco Bay; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to the Secretary of Transporation, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 105

Senate Joint Resolution No. 30—Relative to federal income taxation.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1985]

WHEREAS, The President of the United States has proposed a federal income tax reform plan to promote "fairness, simplicity, and growth"; and

WHEREAS, The President's plan for tax reform would eliminate the deduction for state and local taxes paid by individuals; and

WHEREAS, The elimination of the deduction for state and local taxes would be an unfair tax upon a tax and, therefore, would constitute double taxation; and

WHEREAS, Seventy-five years ago, the simple concept of state and local tax deductibility was built into the federal income tax law in explicit recognition of the principle of federalism; and

WHEREAS, The Tenth Amendment of the United States Constitution reserves to the states and the people powers not expressly delegated to the federal government; and

WHEREAS, The elimination of the deduction for state and local taxes would impose a disproportionate tax burden on middle-income taxpayers; and

WHEREAS, The citizens of the State of California would pay approximately $3.8 billion in higher taxes under this provision of the President's proposal; and

WHEREAS, The federal government in recent years has shifted major responsibilities to state and local governments in the spirit of federalism; and

WHEREAS, The abolition of the deduction for state and local taxes will seriously impair the ability of state and local governments to discharge these new responsibilities; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Senate and the Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to retain the deductibility of state and local taxes in any revision of federal income tax law which is enacted; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 106

Senate Joint Resolution No. 37—Relative to boxing.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1985.]

WHEREAS, Boxing is a permanent fixture in the professional sporting establishment of this country; and

WHEREAS, Unlike most other sports, its internal regulatory agencies are fragmented; and

WHEREAS, Its participants are supported in a piecemeal fashion with insufficient consideration given to their safety and overall well-being; and

WHEREAS, The New Jersey State Commission of Investigation has documented heavy infiltration of the sport by organized crime; and

WHEREAS, Most states have failed to stand up to unscrupulous promoters whose motivation is profit rather than the health and welfare of professional boxers; and

WHEREAS, Twenty-three fighters have died of injuries suffered in the boxing ring since January 1983; and

WHEREAS, Although boxing has great inherent risk to its participants, with proper regulation this risk could be reduced significantly; and

WHEREAS, A bill in the House of Representatives, H.R. 1689, would create the American Boxing Corporation, a national oversight committee and central registry for boxers; and

WHEREAS, This central registry would bring to an end, mismatches, relentless scheduling of interstate fights, and the practice of allowing boxers to fight past their abilities; and

WHEREAS, The boxing fatalities have occurred as a consequence of the lack of pertinent information, and because no one has the responsibility, or the oversight, for what is happening in other states; and

WHEREAS, National regulatory controls and public scrutiny are vital to the survival of professional boxing; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Senate and the Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California urges the Congress of the United States to enact H.R. 1689, which would form the American Boxing Corporation to help improve the sport of boxing through the establishment of standardized rules and rankings; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 107

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 23—Relative to the Commission for the Review of the Master Plan for Higher Education.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, The policies adopted by the governing bodies of the three public segments of California's institutions of higher education relative to hiring, promotion, and discharge of faculty and staff have not recently been commented on by the California Postsecondary Education Commission to the Legislature; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the California Postsecondary Education

Commission review data submitted by each segment, compile the data into a report, make comments and submit the report to the Legislature regarding the policies of each segment relative to hiring, promotion, and discharge of faculty and staff; and be it further

Resolved, That the commission comment on these policies and practices as to the effect on recruitment, retention, and promotion of top talent to carry out the educational mission in each segment; and be it further

Resolved, That the commission analyze these policies and practices in light of the unique requirements in each educational segment and their various disciplines; and be it further

Resolved, That the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges, the Trustees of the California State University, and, if they elect to do so, the Regents of the University of California prepare the necessary data and information to assist the commission in the study required by this measure.

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the commission, and the governing body for each segment of public higher education in California.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 108

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 27—Relative to South Africa.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, The California Legislature condemns the abhorrent system of apartheid as practiced by the government of the Republic of South Africa; and

WHEREAS, South Africa's white minority government denies the black majority basic democratic rights, including the right to vote, the right to own land, the right to freedom of movement, and equal employment opportunity, solely on the basis of skin color; and

WHEREAS, Per capita spending on education in 1980–1981 by the government for white South Africans was one thousand one hundred fifteen dollars ($1,115), and per capita spending on education for black South Africans was one hundred seventy dollars ($170); and

WHEREAS, Access to advanced education, scientific research, and technical training by the white minority is used to reinforce the overall system of apartheid and white supremacy; and

WHEREAS, The General Assembly of the United Nations in Resolution 36/1721 (1981) commends all efforts to promote an effective academic, cultural, and sports boycott of South Africa, and to mobilize academic, cultural, and sports personalities in the campaign against apartheid; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, The Senate thereof concurring, That the University of California is urged not to participate in any scientific, cultural, or academic exchanges that help to maintain or strengthen the apartheid system in the Republic of South Africa; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the Regents of the University of California.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 109

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 30—Relating to South African gold currency.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985.]

WHEREAS, The Republic of South Africa mints and promotes sales of a gold coin known as the Krugerrand; and

WHEREAS, Since 1975, the United States market has accounted for 30 percent to 50 percent of all Krugerrand sales; and

WHEREAS, The sale of the Krugerrand in the United States was estimated to be four hundred fifty million two hundred thousand dollars ($450,200,000) in 1983 and four hundred eighty-four million seven hundred thousand dollars ($484,700,000) in 1984; and

WHEREAS, Ninety percent of the workers in South Africa's gold mines are black and receive a fifth of the average salary paid a worker who is white; and

WHEREAS, The Krugerrands are a product of highly exploited labor working in extremely unsafe conditions; and

WHEREAS, Despite the fact that over 80 percent of its population is black, the Republic of South Africa rigidly pursues the repressive policy of apartheid, a system of racial segregation intended to promote and maintain white ascendancy; and

WHEREAS, The California Legislature staunchly endorses the principle of equal rights for all persons and is concerned that its citizens may not be aware that purchase of the Krugerrand contributes to the support of the cruel apartheid policies of the Republic of South Africa; and

WHEREAS, Gold exports in 1983 provided 50 percent of South Africa's foreign exchange; and

WHEREAS, The role of gold is vital in enabling the South African government to finance its foreign exchange deficit and pay for costly capital goods, high technology, oil imports, and military hardware; and

WHEREAS, Other nations with repressive policies and laws may recognize the financial success of the Krugerrand, and decide to mint their own gold coins for sale in the United States; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California protests the sale of Republic of South Africa gold currency in this state and urges every citizen of this state who advertises an offer to sell or purchase the Krugerrand coin to include in the advertisement a notice to the effect that the United States is presently imposing an arms embargo on the Republic of South Africa due to its racial policies.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 110

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 34—Relative to missing children.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, The problem of missing children is a crucial one; and

WHEREAS, At the present time there is no standard procedure for the response of California law enforcement to reports of missing children; and

WHEREAS, There is a pressing need for an accurate study of this problem and for the assessment of the procedures utilized to respond to reports of missing children; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature requests the Office of Criminal Justice Planning to conduct a study which would do all of the following:

(a) Examine the current method of classification of reports of missing children by law enforcement in California.

(b) Examine the current response procedures to reports of missing children by law enforcement in California.

(c) Identify model standards for the statewide classification of reports of missing children by law enforcement in California.

(d) Identify model standards for statewide response procedures to reports of missing children by law enforcement in California.

(e) Involve and include relevant public and private organizations and victim families in the process of procedural review.

(f) In conjunction with the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training, examine the current level of training provided to California law enforcement officers in the handling of reports of missing children; and be it further

Resolved, That the Office of Criminal Justice Planning is requested to submit the result of this study, together with recommendations for the development and implementation of uniform statewide procedures, to the Legislature within 18 months of the date this resolution is chaptered; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Office of Criminal Justice Planning.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 111

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 35—Relative to the high school dropout problem.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, Under existing law, all children and youths between the ages of 6 and 16 years, inclusive, are subject to compulsory full-time education; and

WHEREAS, In the Class of 1982, 31 percent of the students did not graduate from high school and, according to the 1980 U.S. Census, 135,250 California youths between the ages of 14 and 17 years, inclusive, reported they were not in school; and

WHEREAS, Black and Hispanic youths are a large and growing segment of our school age population and they pose the greatest risk of dropping out of school; and

WHEREAS, Many school dropouts are under the age of 15 years, and 40 percent of school dropouts who also are Hispanic do so before the 10th grade; and

WHEREAS, School dropouts fit one or more of the following categories:

(a) They have low grades and 50 percent of the students who have D averages entering high school drop out.

(b) They are in the remedial or general track, and find school boring.

(c) They are chronically truant and alienated from their schools.

(d) They need or want work.

(e) They are pregnant; and

WHEREAS, There are school districts, schools, and programs in California successfully serving youths who pose a high risk for dropping out of or failing in school; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the State Board of Education should exert leadership and deploy manpower and resources to help school districts solve this urgent and growing problem; and be it further

Resolved, That the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall notify each school district in California that 1986 is the "Year to Solve California's Dropout Problem"; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the State Board of Education.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 112

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 36—Relative to state highways.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, Quality maintenance and construction, on a timely basis, of the state highway system is essential to the economy of the state, as well as the safety and ease of travel for the public and all modes of highway transportation; and

WHEREAS, The continually increasing cost of construction, maintenance, and operation of the state highway system and the need for current and future state tax increases necessary to maintain a viable highway system is of concern to all levels of government; and

WHEREAS, A highway degradation methodology based upon static weight is used to determine the cost responsibility for taxation of various classes of vehicles uses; and

WHEREAS, The movement of vehicles upon the highways is not static in nature, but is dynamic in relation to highway impact; and

WHEREAS, The development of dynamic weight in relation to consideration of highway damage assessment and vehicle suspension requirements, and its potential for more accurately determining appropriate vehicle cost responsibility, represent improved scientific alternatives to current static weight assessment methodology; and

WHEREAS, An in-depth study of the dynamic weight in motion concept has the potential for providing a new operationally feasible formula for developing state legislation involving highway taxation and providing statewide economic potential in improved equipment requirements for lessening of vehicle weight impact on the highway; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Institute of Transportation Studies of the University of California is requested to study the concept of dynamic weight as a basis for determining highway degradation, improved highway pavement design, and potential vehicle equipment alternatives. The goal of the study should be to provide an evaluation of the theory of dynamic compatibility; and be it further

Resolved, That the Institute of Transportation Studies report to the Legislature by January 1, 1986, on the potential costs, methodologies, time requirements, and program contents related to the detailed study of the dynamic weight concept; and be it further

Resolved, That the institute coordinate the preparation of its report with the Department of Transportation and other appropriate entities to make use of existing research data on dynamic weight; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Secretary of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency, to the Director of Commerce, to the Director of Transportation, and to the Director of the Institute of Transportation Studies.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 113

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 40—Relative to school facilities.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, The Governor's Infrastructure Task Force Report, a 1979 survey conducted by the State Department of Education, a 1980 survey conducted by the State Department of Finance, and the 1984 Status Report of Programs Administered by the State Allocation Board have all estimated the need for school facility construction, rehabilitation, and maintenance; and

WHEREAS, Existing law requires the State Allocation Board to develop and maintain an automated school facilities inventory; and

WHEREAS, There is no definitive report which updates and consolidates these efforts to measure school facility needs; and

WHEREAS, There is a lack of any other clearly defined standard for determining school facility needs; and

WHEREAS, In order to permit the Legislature to comprehensively and effectively address the school facilities issue, and to enable the State Allocation Board to develop a useful automated school facility inventory, a definition of an acceptable facility standard and of current and projected school facility needs must be established; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Superintendent of Public Instruction present the report to the Legislature within six months of the effective date of this resolution; and be it further

WHEREAS, High-speed rail systems utilizing varying technologies have been developed by several countries, including the High Speed Train in Great Britain, the Shinkansen system in Japan, and the Tres Gran Vitesse in France; and now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Regents of the University of California examine the feasibility of conducting a high-speed rail study at the University of California in order to study the existing and future modes of high-speed rail technology, and the manner in which the high technology industry in California can best provide any needed expertise and equipment for this technology; and be it further

Resolved, That the Board of Regents report the board's findings and recommendations to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1987; and be it further Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 44—Relative to intellectual property rights in colleges and universities.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985.]

WHEREAS, With the recent increase in applied research has come greater conflict over the disposition of intellectual property rights in the results of that research; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature finds it necessary and desirable that policies concerning intellectual property rights be developed and articulated for public institutions of higher education in this state so as to minimize conflicts over their disposition; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Regents of the University of California, the Trustees of the California State University, and the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges are hereby each requested to conduct an analysis of their current practices and policies regarding the disposition of intellectual property rights arising from research and development activities in their respective institutions, and to develop a policy statement for the colleges or universities within their respective jurisdictions that will assure an equitable distribution of interests in that intellectual property, based upon the relative contributions of all parties; and be it further

Resolved, That the analysis and policy development conducted in this regard by each of the above-named educational institutions address the relative rights, responsibilities, and incentives of authors, inventors, and others providing the creative element in the development of intellectual property, of the colleges and universities under whose programs and facilities the research is performed, and of the entities that financially support or otherwise sponsor the research, as well as the assignment of rights in the intellectual property; and be it further

Resolved, That these policies reflect the principle that this state, and its public institutions of higher education, should retain an interest in intellectual property to the extent to which the creation of the property resulted from the contributions of the state or of those public institutions, including, but not limited to, funding, support services, laboratories, and equipment; and be it further

Resolved, That the policies so established be employed in all future negotiation of research contracts and acceptance of grants for research programs undertaken by the above-named educational institutions; and be it further

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, Existing law does not contain adequate provisions to ensure the availability of preventive health services to senior citizens in this state; and

WHEREAS, Preventive health measures directed toward the older population would help alleviate costly medical and institutional care and promote their health, well-being, and independence; and

WHEREAS, The health and well-being of our senior population impact directly upon state government and local community resources and services; and

WHEREAS, Senior citizens are a vital contributing segment of the population when they are able to maintain their health, well-being, and independence; and

WHEREAS, The proclamation of 1986 as Senior Health Year would serve to bring attention to the health care needs of senior citizens; and

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, and the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby proclaims 1986 as Senior Health Year; and be it further

Resolved, That a statewide functional health screening program be established, with services to be provided in senior centers and the assistance of volunteers to be encouraged wherever possible, in order to provide preventive health screening for senior citizens, with the program to take into consideration the special needs of minority seniors; and be it further

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 54—Relative to community college enrollment.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985.]

WHEREAS, The California Community Colleges have experienced an extensive loss of enrollment in the past two years, resulting in the need for program and class reduction of an unprecedented magnitude; and

WHEREAS, Enrollment in inner-city schools has been particularly affected, to the point that the comprehensive nature of the course offerings of many of these colleges is threatened; and

WHEREAS, It may not be in the best interest of the people of the State of California that attendance at the public community colleges be restricted to a person's district of residence; and

WHEREAS, Community college districts are currently empowered to restrict the loss of students to neighboring districts through a notice of restriction, or to limit out-of-district attendance to certain courses or conditions through interdistrict attendance agreements, in order to stabilize enrollment; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature recognizes that community college district boundaries are often irregular in configuration, requiring many students to attend community colleges in less convenient locations; and

WHEREAS, One of the goals of the community colleges is providing each resident of the state an equal opportunity to attend the community college of their choice; and

WHEREAS, No comprehensive study has been made of the reasons that students choose to attend community colleges outside of their districts of residence; and

WHEREAS, No comprehensive study has been made of the effects of this student migration on duplication of courses and program offerings, recruitment of students, the fiscal integrity and financial planning capability of the community colleges that the students would otherwise attend, and the change in ethnic composition of affected colleges; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Commission for the Review of the Master Plan for Higher Education is hereby requested to conduct an investigation of these factors and to include, in its report to be conducted under Section 66903.7 of the Education Code, its findings and recommendations resulting from that investigation; and be it Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 55—Relative to seismic safety.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, The State of California is one of the most active earthquake areas in the United States, and in recent years the state has examined its preparedness to deal with the crisis that would follow an earthquake in populated areas; and

WHEREAS, Attention is now being given to mitigating the effects of an earthquake, with the primary thrust being to ensure that structural damage and human injury would be at a minimum as a result of an earthquake; and

WHEREAS, There are now whole new parameters of consideration to be taken into account as buildings now contain extremely sensitive and costly equipment that has become vital in education, business, commerce, and health, among others, and records which are kept electronically must be protected; and

WHEREAS, Most of the above requirements cannot be met through past seismic design approaches which were directed toward survival of the building structure itself, and it is now necessary to protect the structure and the building contents; and

WHEREAS, There are emerging new technologies, such as base isolation, that can be incorporated into new building design or retrofitted into existing buildings which will protect both the building and its contents during a seismic event; and

WHEREAS, The officers of the state have a duty and responsibility for the protection of the property of the state, for the lives of the citizens of the state, and the prevention of the breakdown of the infrastructure of society in the aftermath of a major earthquake, and there is also a need to provide for uninterrupted operation of hospitals, rescue services, schools, and communications, as well as the necessity for the protection of public records in connection with social services and insurance; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the State Architect is hereby requested to give full consideration to new technology, including, but not limited to, base isolation, that can mitigate the effects of a major earthquake on new or existing public buildings, personnel, equipment, data systems, and other elements of vital concern to the state that are at risk from seismic events; and be it further

Resolved, That the State Architect shall report back to the Legislature within 120 days after the effective date of this resolution on the actions taken to effect the use of new seismic technology in new building design or retrofitted into existing buildings; and be it further

Resolved, That the State Architect shall take whatever action is permitted under existing law to incorporate new seismic technology into state and other publicly owned, operated, or licensed buildings to mitigate the negative effects of earthquakes; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the State Architect.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 120

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 58—Relative to student financial aid.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, The primary objective of student financial aid programs is to provide funds to students who have financial need; and

WHEREAS, Financial aid should be available as simply as possible to students who demonstrate financial need; and

WHEREAS, A major objective of the Legislature is to minimize unnecessarily complicated bureaucratic procedures in all areas of government, including the process by which an individual obtains student financial aid; and

WHEREAS, The state requires all students to fill out a financial aid application form as a condition for obtaining financial aid; and

WHEREAS, The instructions for the state's current student financial aid application form are 16 pages long, and the actual application form is four pages long, requiring at least 72 pieces of information, much of which seems incomprehensible and unnecessary; and

WHEREAS, The application form and process for obtaining student financial aid should not be so complex, bureaucratic, and tedious that it discourages and even prevents financially needy students from successfully applying for financial aid; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Student Aid Commission immediately appoint and convene a task force on the simplification of student financial aid application forms; and be it further

Resolved, That the task force be comprised of 13 members,

(7) The Student Affirmative Action program of the California State University and of the University of California. The President of the University of California is requested to appoint a University of California staff member who is knowledgeable about the Student Affirmative Action Program; and be it further

Resolved, That the Student Aid Commission shall provide all necessary support staff for the task force; and be it further

Resolved, That the task force assist the commission in the examination of the current student financial aid application form, and seek methods to reduce and simplify both the instructions for, and the information required on, the financial aid application form in a manner which is consistent with requirements of federal student financial aid programs; and be it further

Resolved, That the Student Aid Commission report the recommendations of the task force to the Legislature on or before January 31, 1986; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the Student Aid Commission.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 121

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 59—Relative to Good Samaritan Week.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, Each year, countless Californians, in acts of genuine heroism, answer the call to assist victims of crimes, accidents, or natural disasters; and

WHEREAS, Called upon by fate, these men and women many times disregard their own personal health and safety to benefit others; and

WHEREAS, These "Good Samaritans," who display quick and decisive action in life-threatening situations or conditions of massive property damage, ask for nothing in return; and

WHEREAS, Today, many programs, such as Neighborhood Watch and CPR courses, promote helping and provide persons with the tools necessary to effectively assist others in need of help; and

WHEREAS, It is appropriate that the efforts of these "Good Samaritans" be applauded and that all Californians be encouraged to take part in programs that promote helping, and that acts of heroism be encouraged and reinforced; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Governor is requested to proclaim the first week of November 1985, as "Good Samaritan Week" in the State of California and encourage citizens of the state to reflect upon their dependence upon one another and to become involved and lend assistance when called upon; and be it further

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 61—Relative to Head Injury Awareness Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, Head injury is a very serious national health problem and as many as 700,000 Americans are hospitalized every year for head injuries caused by motor vehicle accidents, sporting mishaps, and falls. Of these patients, roughly 100,000 die. Another 50,000, mostly under the age of 30, suffer permanent brain damage that prevents them from returning to schools, jobs, or normal lives; and

WHEREAS, Each of these grim statistics represents a person whose bright future was suddenly and tragically altered. Added to each victim's suffering is the emotional and financial burden the family must bear. The total cost to the nation for special care and lost productivity is enormous; and

WHEREAS, Health care professionals and educators throughout California are helping those with head injuries to live as normally as possible. Through rehabilitation therapy and vocational counseling, many head injury patients are learning to lead productive lives in our society. These efforts have been promoted by two voluntary health agencies: the Southern California Head Injury Foundation and the Family Survival Project for Brain-Damaged Adults; and

WHEREAS, Biomedical research is also the source of increased hope. Investigators supported by the National Institute of Neurological and Communicative Disorders and Stroke are acquiring new information about what happens to the brain as a result of head injury. Leads from these studies will help scientists develop effective treatments to limit or prevent brain damage. With the combined support of voluntary health agencies and the federal government, the tragedy of head injury can be substantially reduced; and

WHEREAS, To encourage public recognition of, and compassion for, the complex problems caused by head injury; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the month of October 1985 be declared as "Head Injury Awareness Month."

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 123

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 62—Relative to state highways.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, The Department of Transportation has for several years administered a program of logo signing on rural portions of Interstate Route 5 in accordance with legislative direction; and

WHEREAS, This program has proven beneficial for motorists; and

WHEREAS, It is widely recognized that logo signing is appropriate only in rural areas; and

WHEREAS, The department has defined rural areas, for the purpose of the logo signing program, as those areas inhabited by fewer than 5,000 residents; and

WHEREAS, There are rural areas along Interstate Route 5 in Siskiyou County inhabited by up to 7,000 residents where logo signing would be appropriate; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Department of Transportation define rural areas, for the purpose of the logo signing program, as those areas inhabited by 7,000 or fewer residents along Interstate Route 5 in Siskiyou County; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the Director of Transportation.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 124

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 67—Relative to the University of California.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, The Legislature recognizes that democratic political participation and a republican government require freedom of thought, speech, and association, and that under apartheid, those freedoms do not exist for a majority of South Africans; and

WHEREAS, The South African system of apartheid provides no means for democratic expression of political and civil rights; and

WHEREAS, The South African government will not tolerate open, organized opposition to apartheid, and South Africans who are active opponents of apartheid are subject to persecution, banning, detention without trial, and violence; and

WHEREAS, Attention given to international efforts against apartheid is increasing; and

WHEREAS, The University of California is a premier educational institution founded upon the principles of freedom of inquiry and association, and a belief in the importance of democratic values and institutions; and

WHEREAS, The University of California conducts public service programs to contribute to the fulfillment of the university's obligation to provide faculty and students with opportunities to apply their knowledge and expertise to the problems of modern life; and

WHEREAS, This established tradition has generally shared the university's resources of knowledge with those in society who have had the need and capacity to benefit from that knowledge; and

WHEREAS, The University of California's public service efforts have historically been directed toward improving educational opportunity, fostering freedom, and the general betterment of humankind; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the President of the University of California is hereby requested to consider methods of engaging the university's public service mission, resources, and capacity in an enhanced effort to further social justice, civil liberties, and educational opportunities for Black and other oppressed South Africans, and that this effort include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) The assistance of law faculty or students in ensuring adequate legal defense for those South Africans banned, detained without trial, or otherwise suffering persecution for their opposition to apartheid. The Legislature also requests the Board of Directors of the Hastings College of the Law to consider ways for its law faculty and students to participate in this legal defense program.

(2) Scholarships for South African students denied equal educational opportunity in their country. Scholarship recommendations that would deny scholarships to California students shall not be proposed nor shall any scholarships administered by or through the Student Aid Commission be recommended for use.

(3) Assistance by the university's Institutes of Industrial Relations in promoting the development of independent Black trade unions in South Africa.

(4) Educational and cultural exchange programs, including visiting scholar programs for South African writers, artists, scholars, and leaders who are denied a forum in their own homeland; and be it further

Resolved, That the President of the University of California and the Board of Directors of the Hastings College of the Law are requested to report to the Legislature on or before January 15, 1986, on the feasibility of establishing these programs and others like them; and be it further

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 69—Relative to the Department of Motor Vehicles.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985.]

WHEREAS, The attempts of the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) to improve customer service while reducing staff and costs through implementing a statewide automation system has resulted in a significant backlog; and

WHEREAS, When the DMV switched from its traditional wait-in-line method of customer service to a call-for-appointment system, it fell behind in the processing of vehicle registrations and license plate applications; and

WHEREAS, Problems with the new appointment system and a new computer network have forced the DMV to request an additional $8.1 million to its 1985–86 budget; and

WHEREAS, A recent joint legislative hearing found the DMV to have cost overruns exceeding $32 million for the automation project, and cost may continue to escalate; and

WHEREAS, The Department of Finance was unaware of the cost overruns and did not take any control action to limit these cost overruns, because the DMV did not report its runaway costs to the Department of Finance as regulations require; and

WHEREAS, The DMV may not have enough staff to efficiently serve the public, because the DMV has cut personnel and frequently relied on costly overtime pay instead of hiring more employees; and

WHEREAS, The public has encountered extreme frustrations while the DMV attempts to automate its field offices; and

WHEREAS, The DMV, being the state agency with the largest public exposure, has a profound effect on the citizens' satisfaction or lack of satisfaction with state government in general; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature requests the Governor and the Director of Motor Vehicles to modify the appointment system to include the option of appointments and walk-in service, allowing the public to choose the one most convenient to them, and to employ a sufficient number of employees to promptly and efficiently serve the people of California; and be it further

Resolved, That the department strive to obtain the needed equipment and staff to enable customers to reach its field offices by telephone within a reasonable period of time, to provide appointments within five working days and to service walk-in customers within 30 minutes; and be it further

Resolved, That the department report its progress in meeting these goals to the Legislature by October 1, 1985; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature requests the Department of Motor Vehicles and the Department of Finance to schedule expenditures in the Budget Bill for the 1986–87 fiscal year and succeeding fiscal years by program element, in order to provide the Legislature with a better understanding and oversight of the expenditures of the Department of Motor Vehicles; and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of Motor Vehicles provide the Assembly Committee on Transportation, the Assembly Committee on Governmental Efficiency and Cost Control, the Legislative Analyst, and the Department of Finance with quarterly reports on Phases II, III, and IV of the automation system, including all spending on each phase, all personnel year reductions, and identified cost savings associated with each automation phase, and updates on the status of implementing Phases III and IV; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Governor, the Secretary of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency, the Director of Finance, and the Director of Motor Vehicles.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 126

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 73—Relative to college preparation.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, A study of the rates of eligibility of California's 1983 high school graduates for admission to the state's public universities shows that the admissions requirements then in effect for the University of California and the California State University had a differential impact on eligibility rates by sex and ethnicity; and

WHEREAS, The same eligibility survey found that failure to complete required courses in high school was a significant factor in eliminating Black and Hispanic students who were otherwise eligible from being otherwise admissible to the University of California; and

WHEREAS, The California State University, beginning in the fall of 1984, changed its admissions requirements to require two years of math and four years of English, and the effect of these requirements on eligibility rates are not yet known; and

WHEREAS, It is not known whether more extensive high school coursework requirements can be made available to increased numbers of students by all public high schools in California; and

WHEREAS, The requirement that specific courses be completed in high school as a prerequisite for admission to a college or university has been found to have a positive effect on high school performance; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Superintendent of Public Instruction, in cooperation with the Regents of the University of California and the Trustees of the California State University system, shall convene a Task Force on College Preparation, and shall make recommendations to the Commission on the Review of the Master Plan and the Joint Legislative Committee on the Master Plan on each of the following issues:

(a) Steps that should be taken to ensure that the full array of courses required for admission to either public university, taught by qualified faculty, can be made available in all California public high schools to all students who wish to take them. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall survey each high school's course offerings and provide this information to the task force.

(b) Steps that should be taken to ensure that students who are underrepresented in higher education gain equal access to college preparatory courses.

(c) Measures of students' potential for future achievement in a college or university that could be used as alternatives to the measures of past achievement that are now used as admissions criteria.

(d) Whether the goals of access and differentiation of function between the two public university systems are compromised if there are uniform course requirements for admission to both systems, and whether uniform course requirements are in the best interest of California high school students; and be it further

Resolved, That the task force report shall prepare preliminary recommendations and make them publicly available for comment by March 15, 1986. Final recommendations shall be submitted to the State Board of Education, the Regents of the University of California, and the Trustees of the California State University system for their review and comment by June 30, 1986. Each of these boards is then requested to endorse or reject the recommendations by resolution by August 31, 1986. The final recommendations of the task force, together with the resolutions of the governing boards, shall be transmitted to the California Postsecondary Education Commission, the Commission on the Review of the Master Plan, and the Joint Legislative Committee on the Master Plan no later than November 30, 1986; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Regents of the University of California, and the Trustees of the California State University.

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to the Honorable Robert T. Monagan.

WHEREAS, Monterey Bay is the largest bay along the California Coast contiguous with Pacific Ocean waters and constitutes an invaluable natural resource to be protected and preserved for this and future generations; and

WHEREAS, Monterey Bay is the site of a large submarine canyon, which along with associated habitats, supports a rich and diverse flora and fauna; and

WHEREAS, The Monterey Peninsula is home to one of the world's largest seawater aquariums, attracting thousands of visitors daily; and

WHEREAS, Monterey Bay and its surrounding coastal beaches and communities is an invaluable recreational and tourist resource, serving millions of Californians and visitors from other states and abroad; and

WHEREAS, Elkhorn Slough is a natural estuary (located on the bay at Moss Landing), one of only 15 such areas in the nation designated an esturine sanctuary, and serves as a vital nursery and spawning ground for numerous species of marine organisms; and

WHEREAS, A healthy commercial and recreational fishery in the bay relies upon the recruitment of marine fish and invertebrates from Elkhorn Slough and its associated tributaries; and

WHEREAS, Recent pollution monitoring by the State Mussel Watch Program has revealed dramatically elevated levels of the pesticides toxaphene, endosulfan, and DDE (a derivative of DDT) in Elkhorn Slough and adjoining waters; and

WHEREAS, Mussels recently collected near the Monterey Harbor area contained the highest concentration of lead ever found in shellfish in California waters; and

WHEREAS, Unexpectedly high levels of polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs) have been detected in mussels collected at Ano Nuevo, previously considered to be an unpolluted area; and

WHEREAS, Elevated levels of DDT, PCB, lead, and other toxins are known carcinogens, and have caused reproductive failures in certain marine mammals; and

WHEREAS, These findings have raised the public concern over recreational uses of Monterey Bay and Elkhorn Slough and the risk to human health; and

WHEREAS, It is in the interests of the citizens of the Monterey Bay area communities, and the state at large, to designate a lead state agency for coordinating marine pollution research, monitoring, and health risk assessment for Monterey Bay; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That, in order to protect the public health and

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the State Director of Health Services, the Director of Food and Agriculture, the Director of Fish and Game, the Chairperson of the State Water Resources Control Board, the Chairperson of Central Coast Regional Water Quality Control Board, the Moss Landing Marine Laboratories, the Chairperson of the California Coastal Commission, the Marine Advisory Program of the Sea Grant Extension Service, the Monterey County Public Health Department, and the Monterey County Agricultural Commissioner.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 131

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 4—Relative to income tax deductions for repairing and remodeling expenses.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, Chapter 853 of the Statutes of 1984 amended the California Personal Income Tax Law and Bank and Corporation Tax Law to make permanent the allowance of a deduction for the cost of repairing or remodeling any building, facility, or transportation vehicle owned or leased by the taxpayer in order to permit handicapped or elderly individuals to enter or leave, to have increased access to, or to have more effective use of, that building, facility, or transportation vehicle; and

WHEREAS, Federal law currently allows a similar deduction but the deduction applies only to taxable years beginning before January 1, 1986, and does not apply to homeowners or to the installation of emergency egress or safe area refuge systems; and

WHEREAS, There are not a sufficient number of dwellings accessible to physically handicapped and elderly persons and these persons have no alternative but to modify their existing dwellings to provide this access; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to amend the Federal Income Tax Law to include a deduction similar to that allowed by Chapter 853 of the Statutes of 1984 in order to encourage businesses to retrofit their buildings to provide access for handicapped persons, to enable elderly and handicapped homeowners to recover a portion of necessary costs incurred by them in modifying their dwellings to provide this access, and to encourage the installation of emergency egress or safe area refuge systems; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 132

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 16—Relative to the Federal Council on Women.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, Women and their basic socioeconomic concerns need coordinated representation in the executive branch of our national government; and

WHEREAS, Women and their socioeconomic concerns are also not adequately represented in Congress, since only a few of the proposals to prevent the expanding poverty of women have become law; and

WHEREAS, Women's economic and social concerns are not adequately dealt with by any official oversight mechanism on the national policymaking level to prevent the documented and growing trend called the feminization of poverty; and

WHEREAS, Large numbers of women of all ages who are classified as dependents so often are dependent on absent providers; and

WHEREAS, Most women take the responsibility of being the primary care providers for their children and their elderly parents; and

WHEREAS, The stability of our society's future is at a serious risk due to the deprivations endured by so many children in poverty; and

WHEREAS, Since it is estimated that two out of three adults in poverty are women and since the United States government lacks any comprehensive national policy that addresses those women's economic issues that would provide some measure of income and health care security, especially as these problems relate to single parents and older women—adult groups that constitute a disproportionately high percentage of the nation's poor; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to enact legislation which will establish a Federal Council on Women to operate as an independent agency and to function as an oversight body on matters relating to the feminization of poverty; and be it further

Resolved, That:

1. The Federal Council on Women perform the following functions designed to combat the growing feminization of poverty trend:

(a) Advise and assist the President, the Congress, and the Cabinet by reviewing proposed and existing laws and regulations related to the special needs of women.

(b) Review and evaluate on a continuing basis federal policies for a national voice on behalf of women by initiating policy recommendations.

(c) Inform the public about the problems and needs of those women in poverty by collecting and disseminating information.

(d) Provide public forums for discussing antipoverty measures for the disproportionately large numbers of indigent females.

(e) Serve in an advisory capacity by initiating policy recommendations that would reduce the numbers of indigent females of all ages.

2. Membership on the Federal Council on Women shall be comprised of 15 people with three members each appointed by the President and the Majority and Minority Leaders of both Houses of Congress. Each appointing authority shall name at least one person who represents a state commission on the status of women.

3. Until Congress enacts this proposed legislation, the President may wish to establish by executive order a Federal Council on Women following the guidelines proposed in this legislation; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is directed to transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 133

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 17—Relative to state use taxes.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, The prompt, efficient, and accurate collection and reporting of state use taxes by persons selling tangible personal property in this state are goals of vital concern to both the government of the United States and the government of the State of California; and

WHEREAS, The accomplishment of those goals would be greatly facilitated by enacting federal legislation which would overturn the holding of National Bellas Hess, Inc. v. Department of Revenue of the State of Illinois, 386 U.S. 753, 18 L. Ed. 2d 505 (1967); now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to enact federal legislation which would reverse the holding in National Bellas Hess, Inc. v. Department of Revenue of the State of Illinois and thereby allow states to require mail-order houses to collect and report state use taxes; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, It is fundamental to the conceptual foundations of America to promote and support the principles of freedom, justice, and the equality of all persons throughout the world; and

WHEREAS, The Republic of South Africa government with its system of apartheid violates every cherished principle of humanity espoused in the United States Constitution; and

WHEREAS, The South African government has embarked upon the development of nuclear capability to sustain its colonial domination and suppression of the indigenous peoples of Namibia and Azania; and

WHEREAS, It is incumbent on the United States to refuse to cooperate with the nuclear programs of countries which violate the human rights of their citizens through systematic racial oppression; and

WHEREAS, The United States is committed by treaty to the nonproliferation of nuclear weapons; and

WHEREAS, The Republic of South Africa is a nonsignatory of the Treaty on Nuclear NonProliferation and refuses to permit inspections of its nuclear facilities by the Interntional Atomic Energy Agency; and

WHEREAS, Various agencies of our federal government, in pursuing the policy of "constructive engagement" with the government of the Republic of South Africa, have authorized the export and sale to the Republic of South Africa of goods, materials, and technology that have nuclear weapons applications; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California supports federal legislation that would do all of the following:

(1) Prohibit cooperation of any kind with regard to development of nuclear technology between the United States and the Republic of South Africa.

(2) Prohibit the Nuclear Regulatory Commission from issuing any license or other authorization under the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 for the export to the Republic of South Africa of anything—whether source or special nuclear material, component, technology, item, or substance—having significance for nuclear explosive purposes.

(3) Prohibit the Secretary of Commerce from issuing any license under the Export Administration Act of 1979 for the export, direct or indirect, to the Republic of South Africa of any goods or technology which are intended for a nuclear-related end-use or end-user of which have been identified as items which could be of significance for nuclear explosive purposes under the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Act of 1978.

(4) Prohibit the Secretary of Energy from authorizing any person, firm, or corporation to engage in activities in the Republic of South Africa related to the development of nuclear power technology

(5) Prohibit each and every department, agency, and official of the federal government, and every officer and employee of those departments and agencies, from making available to the Republic of South Africa, directly or indirectly, any technology or other information which could increase the ability of that country to design, develop, fabricate, test, operate, or maintain nuclear materials, nuclear facilities, or nuclear explosive devices; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Secretary of Energy of the United States, to the Secretary of Commerce of the United States, to the Ambassador to the United Nations, to the Secretary of State of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to each Member of the Congress of the United States, and to the Governor of the State of California.

WHEREAS, It is fundamental to the conceptual foundations of America to promote and support the principles of freedom, justice, and the equality of all persons throughout the world; and

WHEREAS, The Republic of South Africa government with its system of apartheid violates every cherished principle of humanity espoused in the United States Constitution; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California requests the United States Attorney General to refuse to issue visas to segregated South African teams and segregated athletes representing the government of South Africa to participate in athletic events in the United States; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the United States Attorney General, to the Secretary of State of the United States, to the Ambassador to the United Nations, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 136

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 22—Relative to South Africa.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, The Government of South Africa has as its legal and political framework the notorious system of apartheid, condemned by the world community because it is based on racial discrimination whereby the government rules with only the support of the minority white population while the black majority population is completely denied its civil and human rights; and

WHEREAS, The United Nations has unanimously passed resolutions which condemn the system of apartheid as "a crime against humanity" and which call upon all countries in the world to grant asylum to refugees from South Africa, specifically those who are forced into exile as a result of their refusal to take part in the military forces waging war against black people in southern Africa on behalf of the white government of South Africa and the system of racial discrimination, apartheid; and

WHEREAS, The United States has a long tradition of accepting refugees from abroad who are suffering under repressive or totalitarian governments; and

WHEREAS, There is a growing number of South African military refugees who are seeking asylum in the United States while the President and his administration have issued no decision on applications for asylum which have been pending since early 1981; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and the United States Department of State to welcome to the United States refugees from South Africa and to grant asylum specifically to those refugees from South Africa who have been forced to flee to the United States because of their refusal to participate or fight in the military forces of apartheid in South Africa, as well as all other refugees from the repressive regime in that country; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transit copies of this resolution to the President and the Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, and to the United States Department of State.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 137

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 25—Relative to the sale of Krugerrands.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the Congress of the United States to require that a notice be printed on all advertisements for the purchase and sale of South African Krugerrands to the effect that the United States has presently imposed an arms embargo on South Africa due to its racial policies; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 138

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 27—Relative to restitution to energy consumers.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985.]

WHEREAS, The Congress of the United States passed the Emergency Petroleum Allocation Act after the Arab Oil Embargo of 1973 to protect the citizens of the United States from skyrocketing gasoline prices by denying oil companies windfall profits that might result from the exploitation of a sudden decrease in supply; and

WHEREAS, Oil companies still gained billions of dollars in profits by violating the provisions of the act; and

WHEREAS, Approximately $1.2 billion in overcharges has been recovered by the federal government through court judgments against oil companies which engaged in profiteering, with an estimated potential recovery of $5 to $6 billion; and

WHEREAS, This situation has caused one judge to declare, "The violators of the petroleum price regulations should be made to disgorge their ill-gotten gains"; and

WHEREAS, Cases are pending against Exxon, Texaco, ARCO, and other oil companies, and the share apportioned to the State of California could be as large as $500 million; and

WHEREAS, These court cases and federal legislation have established the concept of "restitution" to overcharged customers either directly or through certain beneficial energy programs, and thus these funds are to be distributed to the states through the Petroleum Violation Escrow Account, which was established for this purpose; and

WHEREAS, The federal administration's proposed budget for 1986 reduces the money provided states for the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program and proposes to substitute each state's share of the assistance program money for its share of the Petroleum Violation Escrow Account money; and

WHEREAS, This proposed policy would be in direct opposition to the concept of "restitution" and to the United States Department of Energy's own rule that the funds shall not be used to supplant any existing program; and

WHEREAS, The federal government, as trustee for the account, has a fiduciary obligation to restore these funds to the beneficiaries of the trust, the injured energy consumers; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and Congress of the United States to halt all plans to utilize Petroleum Violation Escrow Account funds to supplant existing programs or to reduce the federal deficit, and instead to continue the practice of apportioning the funds to the states for restitution to energy consumers directly or through beneficial energy programs; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 139

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 29—Relative to the United States Postal Service.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, Large numbers of registered Californians are highly mobile and are changing residence frequently; and

WHEREAS, These changes in residency require some affirmative act by the voter or election official to continue the voter registration of registered voters at the new address; and

WHEREAS, Voters who have recently moved attach a low priority to reregistering to vote; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the Congress of the United States to enact legislation requiring the United States Postal Service to transmit a copy of a change of address order to elections officials in order to continue a voter's registration at his or her new residence; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, and to the Postmaster General.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 140

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 32—Relative to Nelson Mandela.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, The right to free speech and the right to organize are cherished principles of democracy; and

WHEREAS, Under the system of apartheid, the basic rights to every human being that democracy proclaims are suppressed with brute force and racist conviction; and

WHEREAS, Political leaders demanding justice and freedom from apartheid have been banned, imprisoned, or in the case of Steven Biko, killed; and

WHEREAS, Since 1962, Nelson Mandela has been imprisoned, spending over 20 years in the notorious Robben Island Prison, allowed only a half an hour visit each month, through a Perspex screen with his wife Winnie Mandela; and

WHEREAS, Over half a million signatures from 35 countries were presented to the United Nations Secretary-General calling for the immediate and unconditional release of Nelson Mandela; and

WHEREAS, Despite the brutal hostility of his imprisonment, Nelson Mandela has maintained a spirit of dignity and humanity, issuing a statement of purpose which reads "During my lifetime I have dedicated myself to the struggle of the African people. I have fought against white domination, and I have fought against Black domination. I have cherished the ideal of a democratic and free society in which all persons live together in harmony and with equal opportunities. It is an ideal which I hope to live for and achieve. But if need be, it is an ideal for which I am prepared to die."; and

WHEREAS, No real and meaningful political solution can occur without the participation of black political leadership as embodied by Nelson Mandela; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and Congress of the United States to call for the immediate and unconditional release of Nelson Mandela and all other political prisoners in the Republic of South Africa and full amnesty for all South African political exiles; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 141

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 41—Relative to the Social Security Act.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, There is a general concern about the size and continued growth of the national debt; and

WHEREAS, There is some thought that scaling back the annual cost-of-living increase due under social security would help relieve that debt; and

WHEREAS, There was proposed in the Congress of the United States a debt relief package that would make provision for such a scale back in the annual cost-of-living adjustment for social security recipients as well as an increase in Medicare patient costs; and

WHEREAS, More than three million Californians who are aged or disabled, or who are survivors or dependents of persons eligible for social security benefits, depend for their economic security on social security keeping up with cost-of-living increases; and

WHEREAS, Over the past several years prior to the proposed Medicare cost increase, older Americans have borne the burden of reduction in benefits; in the last five years the Medicare hospital deduction has doubled, the physician deductible almost doubled, coinsurance for physicians' care doubled and excess charges from physicians tripled; and

WHEREAS, Past changes in social security in 1981 and 1983 have already resulted in reductions of $100 billion in social security expenditures through delays in cost-of-living adjustments, elimination of the minimum benefit, the lump-sum death benefit, and the initiation of taxation of benefits; and

WHEREAS, A freeze was imposed on social security recipients for six months in 1983 and it had no effect on the deficit then and would have little effect now; and

WHEREAS, It is now recognized that older Americans will by 1989 have lost as much as 40 billion dollars in social security benefits as a result of the previous 1983 six-month cost-of-living freeze; and

WHEREAS, It is known that any savings resulting from a scaling back of cost-of-living adjustments would have no effect on the deficit since social security benefits are paid out of separate trust funds with money received from payroll contributions, and not from general revenues; and

WHEREAS, A new scaling back of social security cost-of-living adjustments would cause the average beneficiary in 1986 alone to suffer a benefit loss of five hundred ninety-three dollars ($593) per individual over the next three years and force another one-half million more senior persons, mainly elderly women 72 years of age and older, below the poverty line; and

WHEREAS, A scale back in benefits at the 1985 level would cause a multibillion dollar income loss to recipients for the next three years and a decrease in all future benefit levels; and

WHEREAS, Any further cuts in social security, coupled as proposed with a simultaneous one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125) per year Medicare cost increase in the next three years, would be most difficult for many elderly to cope with; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to not attempt to scale back the cost-of-living increases due under social security; and be it further

Resloved, That, as the President has suggested, the Congress be urged to immediately split social security from the federal budget, so as to remove, the temptation to use the Social Security Pension Fund as an offset to the federal deficit; and be it further

Resolved, That the President and the Congress of the United States be urged to assure the senior citizens of this state and the country that no efforts will be made to lower the social security cost-of-living increases; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 142

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 44—Relative to the American tuna industry.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, The American tuna industry contributes significantly to the economy of California by the employment of over 1,200 persons and an annual payroll of over 14 million dollars; and

WHEREAS, The tuna industry in California and its employees contribute over two million dollars annually in tax revenues to the federal, state, and local governments; and

WHEREAS, The existence of the American tuna industry reduces expenditures from the Unemployment Insurance Fund by an estimated two million four hundred thousand dollars annually, because persons employed in the tuna industry do not draw unemployment compensation benefits; and

WHEREAS, The loss or destruction of the domestic tuna industry would increase welfare costs by an estimated three million four hundred thousand dollars annually and Medi-Cal costs by an estimated two million two hundred thousand dollars annually, since a significant number of employees, if displaced, would require public assistance and medical care the costs of which would be borne by the federal, state, and local governments; and

WHEREAS, The tuna industry also benefits the tourist business in San Diego, which designates one week each year as "Tuna Week," and many visitors come to view the fishing fleet; and

WHEREAS, In addition to food for human consumption, many products are derived from tuna, including pet food, fish meal, and commercial agricultural fertilizers; and

WHEREAS, In recent years, the American tuna industry has been experiencing severe setbacks and reductions in operations, and in the continental United States only one major tuna cannery remains in operation; and

WHEREAS, The loss or destruction of the American tuna industry, in addition to causing great personal and community hardships, would worsen the international trade imbalance currently being experienced by the United States and make this nation even more dependent upon imports; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of California respectfully memorializes the President and Congress of the United States and the International Trade Commission to review those trade practices which adversely affect the American tuna industry and do everything in their power to strengthen and support this vital segment of the economy; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature encourages Californians and all Americans to buy tuna in support of this essential American industry; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, and to the International Trade Commission.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 143

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 46—Relative to Jewish citizens of the Soviet Union.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985.]

WHEREAS, Leonid Bialy and Judit Ratner and their two sons applied for an exit visa in 1977, but they were denied permission to emigrate because they allegedly possessed "secrets"; Judit has never had access to classified information, and Leonid, an electronics engineer, has had no such access for more than seven years; and

WHEREAS, Benjamin Bogomolný originally applied for permission to emigrate to Israel in 1966, and he has been waiting for that permission ever since; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Victor Brailovsky applied for permission to emigrate in 1973 and has been under constant KGB surveillance since then; in 1980, he was arrested, charged with "anti-Soviet agitation", and subsequently served seven months in prison and over three years in internal exile; and

WHEREAS, Ilya Essas is the son of a couple who waited 20 years to receive permission to emigrate, and he has waited 11 years for permission to join his parents in Israel; when he attempted to organize an event commemorating the Holocaust, he was threatened with arrest and the irrevocable rejection of his emigration application, and the event was canceled; and

WHEREAS, Although little is known about Semyon Frumkin, recent documents from the Soviet Union indicate that he is one of the leaders of the Jewish emigration movement; and

WHEREAS, Grigory and Isai Goldshtein, who are brothers, applied for permission to emigrate in 1971; their request was denied because of their alleged knowledge of "technical secrets" owing to their employment as physicists at a meteorological institute, but they subsequently lost their jobs and were declared "parasites"; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Aleksandr Ioffe is a prominent mathematician who decided to apply for permission to emigrate in 1967 and voluntarily resigned his job at that time to avoid exposure to classified information; nevertheless, the application of Dr. Ioffe and his family was denied on the grounds of "secrecy", he was further demoted, and the family was told that their case would not be reconsidered until their son reached draft age; and

WHEREAS, The applications of Gennady and Natalia Khassin for exit visas have been denied on the pretext that Gennady, a mathematician and physicist, and Natalia, a computer programmer, have been privy to "secrets"—despite the fact that, for several years, neither of them has held a position which would expose them to sensitive material; and

WHEREAS, The Khassins have been harassed and threatened by agents of the Soviet government because of their desire to study and teach Hebrew, their applications for permission to leave the Soviet Union, and their attempts to bring their plight to the attention of the responsible authorities and other Soviet citizens; and

WHEREAS, Yuli Kosharovsky applied for permission to emigrate in 1971, subsequently lost his job as an electrical engineer, and he has been forced to turn to odd jobs to support his family; his phone has been disconnected, his apartment repeatedly searched, and he has been imprisoned for 15-day periods on trumped-up charges; and

WHEREAS, Since 1971, Professor Alexander Lerner and his son have been waiting to emigrate to Israel to join his daughter; Professor Lerner's wife died in 1981 after 10 years of waiting for an exit visa; and

WHEREAS, Arkady Mai is an invalid World War II veteran who is in failing health, and he and his family have been repeatedly refused permission to emigrate since 1974; until recently, the Mais had conducted seminars on Jewish culture and history, but Soviet authorities ordered an end to the seminars and even stationed a police officer outside the Mais' home in order to turn away any visitors; and

WHEREAS, Gregory and Natalia Rozenshtein first applied for permission to leave the Soviet Union in 1973; the Rozenshteins, who attempt to maintain an Orthodox household, have been harassed, interrogated, and arrested; and

WHEREAS, Lev and Elizaveta Shapiro applied for an exit visa in 1977 and were turned down on grounds of "secrecy" even though Lev, an electronic engineer, has never worked with any classified material; and

WHEREAS, Vladimir Slepak, one of the most prominent leaders in the Jewish emigration movement, was recently released from a labor camp; and

WHEREAS, Aleksandr Yampolsky applied for permission to emigrate in 1973; and although he is trained as an electronics engineer, he now works as a janitor to avoid a "parasite" charge; and

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 144

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 48—Relative to fabricated structural steel imports.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, The structural steel fabrication industry in California employs thousands of persons in the fabrication and erection of structural steel for seismically safe high rise buildings; and

WHEREAS, During the years 1983 and 1984, imports of foreign fabricated structural steel to the West Coast of the United States increased from 3,000 tons per year to nearly 100,000 tons per year; and

WHEREAS, The majority of those imports coming into California were from the Republic of Korea (60,000 tons in 1984) and were the result of unfair trade practices including price discrimination on raw steel products; and

WHEREAS, During 1984, the Office of the United States Trade Representative recognized the unfair nature of this import surge, and the United States International Trade Commission recommended a quota on steel imports to remedy this situation; and

WHEREAS, The United States Trade Representative has recently concluded negotiations which resulted in an agreement limiting imports of fabricated structural steel from the Republic of Korea to no more than 60,000 tons per year for the entire United States; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California commends the Office of the United States Trade Representative for its efforts in assuring free, fair trade in steel products by negotiating the voluntary import agreement with the Republic of Korea; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature respectfully urges the United States Trade Representative and other United States Government officials to closely monitor the agreement to achieve compliance with provisions limiting imports of fabricated structural steel to the West Coast to approximately 20,000 tons per year for the next five years; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature respectfully urges the United States Trade Representative to make all necessary efforts to include fabricated structural steel in those steel products covered in the European Community Steel Arrangement as it is renewed; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, and to the United States Trade Representative.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 145

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 52—Relative to nuclear crisis control centers.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, An increasing number of scenarios, including misjudgment, miscalculation, misunderstanding, possession of nuclear arms by a terrorist group or a state-sponsored threat, could precipitate a sudden increase in tensions and the risk of a nuclear confrontation between the United States and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (Soviet Union), situations that neither side anticipated, intended, or desired; and

WHEREAS, The current communication links represent equipment of the 1960's and as such are relatively outdated and limited in their capabilities; and

WHEREAS, President Reagan, responding to Congressional initiatives, proposed the establishment of additional and improved communication links between the United States and the Soviet Union and other measures to reduce the risk of nuclear confrontations and has initiated discussions at a working level with the Soviet Union covering the following:

(a) The addition of a high-speed facsimile capability to the direct communication link (hotline).

(b) The creation of a joint military communication link between the United States Department of Defense and the Soviet Union Defense Ministry.

(c) The establishment by the governments of the United States and the Soviet Union of high-rate data communication links between each nation and its embassy in the other nation's capital; and

WHEREAS, United States Senators Sam Nunn (D-Georgia), John Warner (R-Virginia), and Bill Bradley (D-New Jersey) sponsored an amendment to the 1985 Department of Defense Authorization

proposing the establishment of United States and Soviet Union Crisis Control Centers, which was adopted by the United States Senate by a vote of 82-0; and

WHEREAS, The establishment of crisis control centers in Washington and Moscow could reduce the risk of increased tensions and nuclear confrontations and accidental nuclear war, thereby enhancing the security of both the United States and the Soviet Union; and

WHEREAS, These centers could serve a variety of functions including the following:

(a) Discussing procedures to be followed in the event of possible incidents involving the use of nuclear weapons by third parties.

(b) Maintaining close contact during nuclear threats or incidents precipitated by third parties.

(c) Exchanging information on a voluntary basis concerning events that might lead to the acquisition of nuclear weapons, materials, or equipment by subnational groups.

(d) Exchanging information about military activities of the United States and the Soviet Union which might be misunderstood by the other party during periods of mounting tensions.

(e) Establishing a dialogue about nuclear doctrines, forces, and activities; and

WHEREAS, The continuing and routine implementation of these various activities could be facilitated by the establishment within each government of facilities, organizations, and bureaucratic relationships designated for these purposes, such as risk reduction centers, and by the appointment of individuals responsible to the respective head-of-state with responsibilities to manage these centers; and

WHEREAS, The establishment of crisis control centers would, by reducing the risk of accidental nuclear war, promote the public health and safety of every Californian, in each of our cities and counties; and

WHEREAS, The establishment of these United States and Soviet Union Joint Crisis Control Centers is more likely to occur upon a showing of broad public support for them; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California commends the President for his announced support for these confidence-building measures and for his initiation of negotiations which have occurred, and urges the President to pursue negotiations of these measures with the government of the Soviet Union, and to add to these negotiations the establishment of crisis control centers in both nations; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature supports and endorses the establishment of United States and Soviet Union Crisis Control Centers; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature encourages each city and county in California to join in this endeavor to support the creation of the United States and Soviet Union Crisis Control Centers, especially by passing a similar resolution endorsing the creation and by sending money (up to ten cents ($0.10) per resident) to the President to be held in trust for the support of the centers, the money to be raised either by initiating a public fund drive within each jurisdiction or by appropriation; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature encourages the people of California to enlist themselves, their families, friends, neighbors, and colleagues in this endeavor to show the President and Congress that there is broad public support for the establishment of crisis control centers; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, and to each city and county in California.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 146

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 54—Relative to the Major Arthur D. Nicholson, Jr., Gate.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, Since the wanton murder of Major Arthur D. Nicholson, Jr., United States Army, on Sunday, March 24, 1985, an appropriate response to the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics has been of major importance; and

WHEREAS, The Free World in general, and the United States in particular, cannot permit this heinous act to pass without our severest criticism and condemnation; and

WHEREAS, As citizens of the United States, enjoying freedom unparalleled in the world, freedom that is unfortunately neither recognized nor appreciated by many, we cannot passively sit by while the memory of this wicked act fades from the minds of the freedom loving peoples of the world; and

WHEREAS, These acts by the Soviet Union cannot be permitted to continue—first it was Korean Air Lines 007—next it was Major Arthur D. Nicholson, Jr.—and we must ask: Where will the next act of violence take place?; and

WHEREAS, Renaming "Check Point Charlie," which links West Berlin with East Berlin, as the "Major Arthur D. Nicholson, Jr., Gate," would be a fitting reminder of the need for constant international vigilance of this international peril, and would constitute a memorial to Major Nicholson; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, That the President and the Congress be memorialized to rename

"Check Point Charlie" as the "Major Arthur D. Nicholson, Jr., Gate" in memory of the supreme sacrifice that Major Nicholson gave for the good of humankind, and as a reminder that all citizens of the world must be vigilant against future Soviet violence and aggression; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 147

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 57—Relative to the Smoot-Hawley Tariff Act of 1930.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, Under applicable provisions of the Smoot-Hawley Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C.A. Sec. 1307) all goods, wares, articles, and merchandise mined, produced, or manufactured wholly or in part in any foreign country by convict, forced, or indentured labor must be excluded from entry into this country; and

WHEREAS, The Secretary of the Treasury is directed by the tariff act to prescribe by regulation for the enforcement of the act; and

WHEREAS, In 1982 alone, the United States imported approximately $228,000,000 worth of goods from the Soviet Union, with a large amount of those goods being made by industries which wholly or partially rely on forced labor; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorialize the Secretary of the Treasury to adopt appropriate regulations which identify goods being imported into this country and which have been made, in whole or in part, by forced labor in the Soviet Union; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Secretary of the Treasury and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 148

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 64—Relative to Canadian timber imports.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, Over the last few years, the California timber industry, long one of the most productive segments of the state's economy, has experienced a substantial decline leading to the closing of many mills and the loss of 7,000 timber jobs, further depressing the economy of rural California and creating much hardship for timber and wood workers; and

WHEREAS, The decline of the timber industry has been caused by a number of problems beyond the control of the industry, including high interest rates, a decline in the housing market, and urban encroachment into forest lands; and

WHEREAS, A major impediment to the revitalization of the timber industry is the encroachment of subsidized Canadian softwood into the American timber market, now at 32 percent, caused by the Canadian government's practice of pricing stumpage at substantially lower amounts than fair market price in the United States, creating an unfair price subsidy for Canadian timber; and

WHEREAS, This subsidy is not only disruptive to the California timber industry, but may cause Canada to suffer long-term environmental and economic damage through its practices of rapidly mowing down its forests for United States dollars; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to enact legislation aimed at ending Canada's unfair advantage over the domestic timber industry, preferably through a negotiated and amicable settlement between our two nations, or, failing that, through the imposition of a tariff as is the practice with government subsidized products of many other nations, or through a quota system to limit the size of Canada's American timber market; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 149

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 66—Relative to federal transportation assistance programs.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, The federal Surface Transportation Assistance Act of 1982 (P.L. 97-424) provides a four-year authorization for federal programs of assistance to states for transportation projects; and

WHEREAS, The present act is due to expire at the end of the 1986 federal fiscal year, and it is anticipated that a new multiyear authorization will be considered in Congress over the next several months; and

WHEREAS, Several elements of the new assistance bill are anticipated to be of critical interest to California; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and Congress of the United States to be guided by the following considerations in formulating a new multiyear transportation assistance authorization:

(1) The federal funding commitment to the interstate highway system as presently defined should be extended beyond the current 1990 interstate completion deadline. This federal funding should be assured together with additional funding made available for other high priority noninterstate completion projects.

(2) The new multiyear transportation assistance act should provide for the continuation of the 85 percent minimum funding to each state based on its contributions to the federal highway trust fund;

(3) The number of transportation assistance program categories should be reduced or consolidated in order to provide the states with a maximum of flexibility in the use of federal funds and an increased ability to transfer funds between programs with fewer categorical restraints so that the states may address their own unique transportation requirements;

(4) Any changes or adjustments in apportionment formulas should show a close correlation to highway usage criteria rather than other, less relevant factors;

(5) Federal obligation ceilings for the highway program should be increased or adjusted in order to allow states to spend apportionments that have been made available to them; and

(6) Key interstate highway system completion projects should have access to interstate highway discretionary funding without regard to the status of a state's unobligated balance of federal funds and without impairing the state's existing level of obligational authority; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 150

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 70—Relative to Santa Ana River flood control.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, The greatest flooding threat in the State of California, and possibly in the United States, is the Santa Ana River in San Bernardino, Riverside, and Orange Counties; and

WHEREAS, The United States Army Corps of Engineers has been studying plans for reducing Santa Ana River potential flood damages since 1964; and

WHEREAS, The United States Army Corps of Engineers has estimated that, with existing flood control facilities, a flood like that which occurred in 1862 could harm two million people and cause damages and economic losses estimated at over $12,000,000,000 (in 1983 dollars); and

WHEREAS, There is agreement among the three involved counties and the State of California that the All-River Protection Plan is the preferred plan for reduction of flood damages due to overflowing of the Santa Ana River; and

WHEREAS, The remaining major question regarding that plan is the configuration of the certain upper basin flood storage facilities; and

WHEREAS, Most of the hazard to people and property exists in Orange County below Prado Dam; and

WHEREAS, The configuration of facilities needed at and below Prado Dam are agreed to by all parties concerned; and

WHEREAS, The logical start of construction should occur at and below Prado Dam; and

WHEREAS, Further delay in authorization and funding of initial construction increases the jeopardy of up to two million people; and

WHEREAS, Since the minimum period of time required to construct the entire project is 10 years and more likely will extend beyond the year 2000, it is essential that the Legislature express to the federal government the Legislature's policy for flood control in the Santa Ana River Basin; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to authorize construction of the All-River Protection Plan alternative of the Santa Ana River Main Stem Flood Control Project during the 99th Session of Congress and to appropriate the funds needed to start construction during fiscal year 1987; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Chief of the United States Army Corps of Engineers, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 151

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 73—Relative to veterans' mortgage subsidy bonds.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985.]

WHEREAS, The issuance of nongovernmental use bonds nationwide has increased over 300 percent between 1975 and 1983; and

WHEREAS, During this same period, the issuance of general obligation bonds used to finance veterans' home mortgages has increased less than 20 percent; and

WHEREAS, From 1983 to the present time, the principal amount of all veterans' home mortgage general obligation bonds has actually decreased because of limitations on their tax-exempt status imposed by Title VI of the Tax Reform Act of 1984 (P.L. 98-369; 98 Stat. 901 et seq.), which restricts the issuance of these bonds to not more than 340 million dollars per year; and

WHEREAS, From its inception in 1921 to 1984, the State of California has issued over seven billion dollars in general obligaton bonds under the veterans' farm and home purchase program known as "Cal-Vet" and these funds have assisted California veterans in acquiring over 370,000 homes; and

WHEREAS, During its entire history, the Cal-Vet program has been entirely self-sufficient, with the result that there has been no cost whatsoever to the taxpayers; and

WHEREAS, Approximately one million of the more than three million California veterans served during the Vietnam era and are thereby eligible for farm and home purchase assistance under the Cal-Vet program, which restricts its benefits to veterans applying within 25 years of discharge from the armed services; and

WHEREAS, The present limitation of 340 million dollars in general obligation bonds plus an additional 100 million dollars in revenue bonds means that only approximately 6,200 veterans per year are able to actually receive home purchase assistance under the program, a number which is considerably below the demand for Cal-Vet benefits; and

WHEREAS, These veterans have served their country at great personal sacrifice in time of need, their number is continually diminishing so that their needs are immediate, and, for many of these veterans, the Cal-Vet program represents their only realistic opportunity to acquire a home of their own; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and Congress of the United States to exclude veterans' mortgage subsidy bonds from any restrictions on the issuance by the states of nongovernmental use bonds, so that Cal-Vet bonds and other similar bonds retain their tax-exempt status to make them attractive as reasonable investments in order that these vital veteran housing assistance programs may continue to fulfill their demonstrated need; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 152

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 75—Relative to Africanized bees.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, The California bee industry provides vital pollenization to a wide variety of agricultural crops which annually contribute four billion dollars towards the overall 14 billion dollars worth of California agriculture; and

WHEREAS, California is home to one of the leading honey producing industries in the nation, having a cash value exceeding 21 million dollars; and

WHEREAS, The bee industry, which is vital to the State of California and the nation, is being jeopardized by the anticipated invasion of Africanized bees from Central America; and

WHEREAS, The Africanized bees have already destroyed the honey industry of Venezuela by reducing its production of honey from 13 million pounds of honey per year in 1975 to 200,000 pounds of honey produced per year by 1981; and

WHEREAS, The Africanized bees are an extreme financial hazard to California's bee industry due to their inefficient pollenization, and, because they carry the varroa mite, a parasite that kills 90 to 95 percent of the honey bees, they are a health risk to European honey bee colonies; and

WHEREAS, Due to their aggressive behavioral traits, they are an imminent threat to the well-being of the human and animal populations; and

WHEREAS, It has been documented that over 100 people and 1,000 animals have already been killed by these bees in South America; and

WHEREAS, The California Legislature believes that a genetic dilution program may be successful in breeding out much of the

Africanized bees' nonproductive, hostile traits; and

WHEREAS, The Animal Plant Health and Quarantine Service of the United States Department of Agriculture has an ongoing program to curb the Mediterranean fly with a sterile rearing and release program in Mexico which has reduced the threat of the devastating Medfly to this country; and

WHEREAS, Building on the successes of the sterile Medfly program, there is an opportunity within the next five to seven years, before the Africanized bees are permanently in the United States, to minimize their detrimental impact on California's healthy bee industry, prosperous agriculture, and overall economy; and

WHEREAS, The damage caused by the Africanized bees cannot be minimized without adequate funding and technical support from the United States Department of Agriculture; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the Secretary of Agriculture and the United States Department of Agriculture, to establish a research and pest control program in Mexico for the minimization and neutralization of the Africanized bees; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Secretary of Agriculture, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 153

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 76—Relative to competition in military procurement.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1985]

WHEREAS, General Dynamics has been virtually the sole supplier of fighter aircraft to the Pentagon under the "sole source" noncompetitive contract of the Defense Department; and

WHEREAS, General Dynamics has, as a result, been able to offer its F–16C Falcon to the Pentagon at an inflated noncompetitive price of approximately $19.5 million; and

WHEREAS, In response to Northrop Corporation's offer to sell to the Pentagon its comparable F–20 Tigershark, which was developed at no cost to the taxpayers, at a cost savings of approximately $4.5 million per plane, General Dynamics then countered with an offer of $2 million per plane less than Northrop Corporation's offer for a scaled-down version of the F–16 and contingent on the purchase of a specified number of F–16s at the regular price; and

WHEREAS, The advantages of competition in military procurement become immediately evident in the competitive bidding process between General Dynamics and Northrop Corporation, such as:

(1) Improved quality products;

(2) The incentive to continually improve the product for efficiency and cost-effectiveness;

(3) Resultant benefits to the provider in improved management of its operations and manufacture of its product at economically efficient levels;

(4) The benefit to the government in having a choice of alternative comparable products, to select that which best suits particular military needs at the lowest price; and

WHEREAS, The benefits of competition will flow to the nation in the form of reduced spending in the defense budget; and

WHEREAS, Taxpayers benefit from the knowledge that their tax dollars earmarked for defense are spent in the most efficient manner; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to direct the Secretary of Defense and the Pentagon to consider the advantages of competition and to utilize competitive bidding procedures, before awarding defense contracts to defense contractors for the procurement of military hardward, software, and related services, as, for example, in deciding whether to select General Dynamics' F-16 Falcon or Northrop Corporation's F-20 Tigershark, or both, as the tactical fighter; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Secretary of Defense, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 154

WHEREAS, Haym Salomon was a revolutionary patriot who was instrumental in raising the money needed to finance the American War of Independence; and

WHEREAS, Haym Salomon contributed his own resources and skill as a financier and broker to the cause of liberty during the American War of Independence and the early years of the United States; and

WHEREAS, After the American War of Independence was over, Haym Salomon died insolvent from an illness he contracted during the conflict while imprisoned by the British for his patriotic activities; and

WHEREAS, Haym Salomon contributed much of his own resources to the United States, an amount which will never be precisely known due to the loss and destruction of records during the War of 1812; and

WHEREAS, Haym Salomon has long been recognized as the symbol of the American Jewish participation in, and contribution to, the American War of Independence; and

WHEREAS, Despite Haym Salomon's great and selfless service to the cause of liberty, no national monument or statue has ever been erected in his honor; and

WHEREAS, It is only fitting and proper to honor Haym Salomon through the placement of a statue of him in the United States Capitol Building or on the Capitol grounds and the erection of a monument to him on federal land within the District of Columbia; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to enact legislation which would permit the placement of a privately funded statue of Haym Salomon in the United States Capitol Building or on the Capitol grounds and to permit the erection of a privately funded monument to Haym Salomon on federal land within the District of Columbia; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 155

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 42—Relative to the Harold "Bizz" Johnson Interchange.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 23, 1985]

WHEREAS, Harold "Bizz" Johnson responsibly and energetically represented the interests of his northern California constituents for many years and also the interests of all Californians while serving as a respected Member of the Congress of the United States; and

WHEREAS, Bizz Johnson rose in the ranks of Congress to become

WHEREAS, Bizz Johnson successfully broadened language in the Surface Transportation Assistance Act to allow bridges over highways, railroads, and other physical or topographical features to qualify for funding under the act's bridge replacement provisions; and

WHEREAS, The change in the bridge replacement criteria authored by Bizz Johnson permitted the use of the bridge moneys in completing the permanent construction of the State Highway Route 92-101 interchange in California; and

WHEREAS, The completion of the Route 92-101 interchange provided for the replacement of a temporary bridge structure, including temporary wooden bridge pilings which had deteriorated to the point of being unsafe to the motorists and vehicles traveling over the structure; and

WHEREAS, In addition to helping secure needed bridge funds, Bizz Johnson provided guidance and worked with local representatives and officials, the Metropolitan Transportation Commission, the California Transportation Commission, and the Department of Transportation in securing the bridge's construction authorization, completing the environmental impact work, and letting the construction contract; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the State Highway Route 92-101 interchange be designated the Harold "Bizz" Johnson Interchange; and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of Transportation be directed to determine the cost of appropriate plaques and markers, consistent with signing requirements for the state highway system, showing this official designation and, upon receiving donations from private sources covering that cost, to erect those plaques and markers; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy of this resolution to the Director of Transportation; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to Harold "Bizz" Johnson.

WHEREAS, The Chinese American community has contributed positively throughout the years to the development of trade between California and nations across the Pacific; and

WHEREAS, Chinatown, located in downtown Los Angeles, which serves as a recognized core of Chinese culture in the United States, has no community facility dedicated to the preservation and cultivation of the special traditions of Chinese Americans; and

Senate Joint Resolution No. 20—Relative to daylight saving time.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 23, 1985]

WHEREAS, Widespread participation of citizens in the political process is vital to the very essence of a democratic society; and

WHEREAS, The people of California and of the United States have held steadfastly to the democratic system of governance for many generations; and

WHEREAS, It has been amply demonstrated that many potential voters at presidential elections fail to cast their ballots solely because they are discouraged by early projections of election winners as broadcast by the electronic media prior to the closing of the polls; and

WHEREAS, The nationwide presidential election returns are significantly distorted when large numbers of California voters fail to participate in the election; and

WHEREAS, Such missing votes often significantly affect the outcome of numerous local and statewide election contests; and

WHEREAS, It is in the public interest and supportive of a democratic society to encourage full participation in voting; and

WHEREAS, A reduction of the time differential from three to two hours between the west and the east coast would serve as a partial solution to this problem; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and the Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to amend the Uniform Time Act of 1966 (Title 15, U.S.C. Sec. 260 et seq.) to allow the western states in the Pacific Time Zone to extend daylight saving time until after the presidential general election; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 158

Senate Joint Resolution No. 31—Relative to immigration quotas.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 23, 1985.]

WHEREAS, A little known provision of federal immigration law artificially limits immigration from nonwhite colonial areas; and

WHEREAS, When first imposed in 1952, the colonial quota affected residents of the Caribbean Islands seeking to enter this country; and

WHEREAS, This antiquated and discriminatory colonial quota now, as a practical matter, applies only to individuals born in Hong Kong who seek to immigrate to the United States; and

WHEREAS, For colonies such as Hong Kong, current law limits immigration to only 600 visas a year, compared with the 20,000 visa standard for independent nations; and

WHEREAS, A bill in the House of Representatives, H.R. 1482, that would raise the colonial quota from Hong Kong from 600 to 5,000 visas a year, was introduced March 8, 1985, by Norman Mineta (D-California); and

WHEREAS, There is a particular urgency to this legislation now that Great Britain has agreed to relinquish control of Hong Kong to the People's Republic of China in 1997, because at that time Hong Kong will presumably lose its limited status as a "colony" and thereafter be included within the overall quota for China; and

WHEREAS, There are many thousands of people who wish to leave Hong Kong before 1997, and this legislation would facilitate the entry of many of these individuals to the United States; and

WHEREAS, Without this legislation, only a few visas could be issued to Hong Kong residents before the return of Hong Kong to a Communist government; and

WHEREAS, In both the 97th and the 98th Congresses, proposals to raise the colonial quota to 3,000 visas a year were adopted without opposition; and

WHEREAS, With the return of Hong Kong to China just 11 years away, we must act with dispatch to allow a reasonable number of people now in Hong Kong to leave before 1997; and

WHEREAS, The vast bulk of these visas would be issued to relatives of United States citizens and permanent residents; and

WHEREAS, All visas would be issued in accordance with the existing system of preferences; and

WHEREAS, The current colonial quota is artificially low and discriminatory on its own, but the situation in Hong Kong makes the problem all the more urgent; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and the Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to enact H.R. 1482 to raise the yearly quota for immigrants from Hong Kong from 600 to 5,000; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.
