- SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for the educational problems resulting from the misassignment of teachers to be resolved at the earliest opportunity, it is necessary that this act go into effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1280

An act to add Section 7005 to the Education Code and to amend Section 22754 of, and to add Sections 22858 and 22859 to, the Government Code, relating to the Public Employees' Medical and Hospital Care Act.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7005 is added to the Education Code, to read:

7005. This article does not apply to persons receiving benefits pursuant to the Public Employees' Medical and Hospital Care Act (Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 22751) of Part 5 of Division 5 of Title 2 of the Government Code) and to the employers on which their benefits are based.

For purposes of this section, "employer" means a county superintendent of schools, a school district, or a community college district irrespective of whether employees may be represented by different bargaining groups. Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, this article does not apply to employers for those groups of employees for whom coverage under the Public Employees' Medical and Hospital Care Act (Part 5 (commencing with Section 22751) of Division 5 of Title 2 of the Government Code) is provided by contract.

SEC. 2. Section 22754 of the Government Code is amended to read:

22754. As used in this part the following definitions, unless the context otherwise requires, shall govern the interpretation of terms:

- (a) "Board" means the Board of Administration of the Public Employees' Retirement System.
- (b) "Employee" means any officer or employee of the State of of any agency, department, authority, instrumentality of the state including the University of California, or any officer or employee who is a local or school member of the Public Employees' Retirement System employed by a contracting agency which has elected to be or otherwise has become subject to this part, or who is a member or retirant of the State Teachers' Retirement System employed by an employer who has elected to become subject to this part, or who is an employee or annuitant of a county subject to the County Employees Retirement Law of 1937 (Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 31450) of Part 3 of Division 4 of Title 3) which has elected to become subject to this part, except persons employed on an intermittent, irregular or less than half-time basis, or employees similarly situated, or employees in respect to whom contributions by the state for any type of plan or program offering prepaid hospital and medical care are otherwise authorized by law.

- (c) "Carrier" means a private insurance company holding a valid certificate of authority from the outstanding Insurance Commissioner of the state, a medical society or other medical group. a nonprofit hospital service plan qualifying under Chapter 11A (commencing with Section 11491) of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Insurance Code, or nonprofit membership corporation lawfully operating under Section 9200 or Section 9201 of the Corporations Code, or a health care service plan as defined under subdivision (f) of Section 1345 of the Health and Safety Code, or a health maintenance organization approved under Title XIII of the federal Public Health Services Act, which is lawfully engaged in providing, arranging, paying for, or reimbursing the cost of personal health services under insurance policies or contracts, medical and hospital service agreements, membership contracts, or the like, in consideration of premiums or other periodic charges payable to it.
- (d) "Health benefits plan" means any program or entity that provides, arranges, pays for, or reimburses the cost of health benefits.
  - (e) "Annuitant" means:

- (1) Any person who has retired within 120 days of separation from employment and who receives any retirement allowance under any state or University of California retirement system to which the state was a contributing party.
- (2) A family member receiving an allowance as the survivor of an annuitant who has retired as provided in paragraph (1), or as the survivor of a deceased employee under Section 21364, 21365.5 or 21382 or similar provisions of any other state retirement system.
- (3) Any person who, at the time of separation from employment because of disability, was enrolled in a health benefits plan and who enters a rehabilitation program under Section 139.5 of the Labor Code and retires for disability within 120 days of termination of the rehabilitation program.
- (f) "Family member" means an employee's or annuitant's spouse and any unmarried child (including an adopted child, a stepchild, or recognized natural child who lives with the employee or annuitant in a regular parent-child relationship). The board shall, by regulation, prescribe age limits and other conditions and limitations pertaining to unmarried children.
- (g) "Contracting agency" means any contracting agency as defined in Section 20010, any county subject to the County Employees' Retirement Law of 1937 (Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 31450) of Part 3 of Division 4 of Title 3), and any school district, county board of education, personnel commission of a school district or a county superintendent of schools.
- (h) "Employer" means the state, any contracting agency employing an employee, and any agency which has elected to become subject to this part pursuant to Section 22856.
  - SEC. 3. Section 22858 is added to the Government Code, to read: 22858. Former certificated employees of a county superintendent of schools, a school district or a community college district which has elected to be subject to this part, and their spouses, and surviving spouses of those former certificated employees who retired from that employer under any public retirement system, who elect to receive benefits under this part, and the employers on which their benefits are based, are not subject to Article 1 (commencing with Section 7000) of Chapter 1 of Part 5 of Division 1 of the Education Code.

- SEC. 4. Section 22859 is added to the Government Code, to read: 22859. A contracting agency may elect by amendment to its contract with the board to participate in a Medicare reimbursement program for its employees or annuitants, or family members of employees or annuitants, who are enrolled in a health benefits plan under this part that provides supplemental benefits for persons enrolled under the health insurance provisions of Title XVIII of the federal Social Security Act. The program shall apply to reimbursement of the amount of Medicare's standard charge exclusive of surcharge for late enrollment for insurance described in Part B under the Social Security Act, as prescribed by board regulations. The requirements for participation shall be prescribed by board regulations.
- SEC. 5. Reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code and, if the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

CHAPTER 1281

An act relating to crime, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature makes the following findings and declarations:

- (a) The impact of economic crime on the citizens of California and the nation is pervasive. Losses run into the billions of dollars, life savings are plundered, and the stability of financial institutions is threatened.
- (b) Public confidence in government's ability to combat major white collar crime is low.
- (c) Investigation and prosecution of major white collar crimes is inherently complex. The offenders are sophisticated, and the transactions are often voluminous, sometimes involving truckloads of documents, all of which must be sifted through, analyzed and then presented in a comprehensible fashion to a jury.

- (d) Though enforcement is primarily a local responsibility, as with major narcotic cases, many major fraud cases are multijurisdictional and due to their scope and complexity are beyond the resources of local prosecutors. Therefore, it is essential to have a substantial state prosecution effort to prosecute these cases and also to provide technical and coordinating assistance to local jurisdictions.
- (e) At the request of local and federal agencies, the Major Fraud Unit in the Department of Justice currently is involved in the largest and most complex white collar crime investigations and prosecutions conducted in California, on both the state and federal levels. Current staffing ratios limit the ability of the Major Fraud Unit to have a sufficiently effective statewide presence to create a substantial deterrent impact. There is, therefore, a need to augment the staffing of that unit in order to have an adequate and effective coordinated attack on white collar crime both at the local and state levels.
- SEC. 2. The sum of five hundred sixty-one thousand dollars ($561,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Justice in order to augment the staffing of the Major Fraud Unit in the Department of Justice. The appropriation made by this section shall be available for encumbrance only during the 1986–87 fiscal year.

CHAPTER 1282

An act to add and repeal Title 11 (commencing with Section 14150) of Part 4 of the Penal Code, relating to children, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Title 11 (commencing with Section 14150) is added to Part 4 of the Penal Code, to read:

TITLE 11. CALIFORNIA CHILD VICTIM WITNESS PROTECTION ACT

Article 1. General

14150. This title shall be known and may be cited as the California Child Victim Witness Protection Act.

14151. The Legislature finds and declares that there is an urgent need for a comprehensive examination of the role of child victims and witnesses in investigative and judicial proceedings. The Legislature further finds and declares the following:

- (a) Investigative and judicial proceedings were not designed for children. Recent experience demonstrates the necessity of providing child victims and witnesses with additional consideration and treatment differing from that which is afforded to adults; failure to address the special problems of child victims and witnesses may result in trauma to these children and a breakdown of the truth-finding process.
- (b) A comprehensive approach to the sensible, sensitive, and successful management of child victims and witnesses in our investigative and judicial systems should be adopted. While there have been recent legislative reforms in this area, there is a need for a complete review of investigative and judicial practices and procedures involving child victims and witnesses and, in particular, judicial proceedings involving child victims of physical and sexual abuse and neglect.
- (c) The purpose of this title is to improve investigative and judicial processes involving child victims and witnesses to ensure that these children are treated fairly and sensitively, and to ensure that they are not needlessly traumatized or further victimized by unnecessary repetitive interviews and court appearances and by uncoordinated investigative and judicial proceedings. It is the intention of the Legislature to accomplish this purpose by presently establishing a Child Victim Witness Judicial Advisory Committee to make recommendations for improving investigative and judicial processes involving child victims and witnesses, including recommendations as to the design of a Child Victim Witness Court Pilot Project to determine the most effective methods for implementing these recommendations.

Article 2. Child Victim Witness Judicial Advisory Committee

14152. There is in state government a Child Victim Witness Judicial Advisory Committee. The purpose of the advisory committee is to study investigative and judicial practices and procedures as they pertain to child victims and witnesses, with particular attention to be given to the special problems of victims of intrafamilial child abuse and the coordination of related criminal and civil proceedings. The advisory committee shall be composed of 20 persons, appointed as follows:

- (a) The Attorney General or his or her representative, who shall be the chair of the advisory committee.
  - (b) One person appointed by the Governor.
  - (c) One person appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly.
  - (d) One person appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules.
- (e) Four trial judges, one from the municipal court, one each from the criminal and juvenile departments of the superior court who have extensive experience presiding over child abuse cases, and one judge who has extensive experience presiding over family law cases and actions under Section 232 of the Civil Code, appointed by the Iudicial Council.

- (f) One attorney, who is a certified family law specialist, appointed by the State Bar.
- (g) Two attorneys, one with extensive experience prosecuting criminal cases and one with extensive experience in juvenile dependency and ward cases, appointed by the California District Attorneys Association.
- (h) One attorney who has extensive experience in dependency cases and actions under Section 232 of the Civil Code, appointed by the California County Counsels Association.
- (i) Two attorneys, one with extensive criminal defense experience and one with extensive experience representing parents in juvenile dependency and actions under Section 232 of the Civil Code appointed by the California Public Defenders Association.
- (j) One attorney, who has extensive criminal defense experience in child abuse cases, appointed by California Attorneys for Criminal Justice.
- (k) One person, who has extensive experience in child abuse cases, appointed by the California Peace Officers' Association.
- (l) One person, who has extensive investigative experience in child abuse cases, appointed by the California State Juvenile Officers Association.
- (m) One person, who has extensive experience in child welfare services, appointed by the County Welfare Directors Association.
- (n) One person, who has extensive experience in juvenile probation, appointed by the Chief Probation Officers of California.
- (o) One developmental psychologist, who has extensive expertise concerning the developmental and cognitive capabilities and emotional needs of children relating to their role as victims and witnesses in civil and criminal investigations and judicial proceedings, appointed by the Attorney General.
- 14153. The advisory committee shall study all of the following subjects and report its findings and recommendations to the Judicial Council, the Legislature, the Governor, and the Attorney General no later than October 1, 1988:
- (a) Recommendations for minimizing or reducing unnecessary repetitive interviews and court appearances.
- (b) Recommendations for streamlining and improving investigative and judicial practices and procedures, including, but not limited to, the following:
- (1) The management of child victims and witnesses in all criminal and civil judicial proceedings.
- (2) Coordination of related criminal and civil proceedings, such as dependency, custody, termination of parental rights, guardianship, and adoption proceedings.
- (3) Coordination of judicial and investigative processes, including law enforcement and child welfare services investigations.

- (c) Recommendations for the design and operation of a Child Victim Witness Court Pilot Project to determine the most effective methods for implementing the advisory committee's findings, including all of the following:
- (1) Determination of which recommendations from subdivision (a) should be tested in the pilot project.
- (2) Design of the pilot project, which may include modification of existing judicial practices and procedures, establishment of a specialty court, or both.
- (3) Determination of the need for specific enabling legislation or rule changes.
- (4) Recommendation for the number of sites and term of the pilot project.
  - (5) Selection of the pilot project sites.
  - (6) Recommendation for resource and funding requirements.
- (7) A determination of the effect on children and the accused when charges are not substantiated.
- 14154. In making recommendations for improving judicial practices and procedures and for the design of the pilot project the advisory committee shall examine all of the following issues:
- (a) Consolidation and coordination of related investigative and judicial proceedings.
  - (b) Use of a vertical litigation organizational concept.
  - (c) Provision of child victim witness support systems.
  - (d) Appropriate modification of court facilities.
  - (e) Effective case management information systems.
- 14155. The advisory committee may conduct public hearings to facilitate its study.
- 14156. Staff assistance to the advisory committee shall be provided by the Department of Justice, with the assistance of the Judicial Council, as needed.
- 14157. The members of the advisory committee shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for expenses actually and necessarily incurred by them in the performance of their duties.
- 14158. This title shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1989, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends that date.
- SEC. 2. The sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Justice for use from January 1, 1987, to June 30, 1987, for staff assistance to, and operational expenses incurred in connection with, the Child Victim Witness Judicial Advisory Committee established by Title 11 (commencing with Section 14150) of Part 4 of the Penal Code.

CHAPTER 1283

An act to amend Section 19596.5 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to horseracing, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19596.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

- 19596.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board may authorize an association licensed to conduct a racing meeting in the northern zone to operate a satellite wagering facility at its racetrack inclosure, except during the part of the day the association is conducting racing at its racetrack, if all of the following conditions are met:
- (1) The association operating the satellite wagering facility has executed an agreement approved by the board with the association conducting a racing meeting in the northern zone that authorizes parimutuel wagering at the satellite wagering facility. The agreement shall provide that the wagers made at the satellite wagering facility will be included in the appropriate conventional or exotic pool at the racetrack where the racing meeting is conducted.
- (2) The horsemen's organization which represents the horsemen at the association which conducts the racing meeting on which wagers are accepted consents to the acceptance of wagers at the satellite wagering facility.
- (3) The accommodations and equipment used in conducting wagering at the satellite wagering facility and their location have been approved by the board.
- (4) The method used by the satellite wagering facility to transmit wagers, odds, results, and other data related to wagering has been approved by the board.
- (b) The deductions from wagers at satellite wagering facilities shall be the same as the deductions for wagers at the racetrack where the racing meeting is being conducted. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, 2 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility shall be retained as a commission and 1½ percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility located at a fair enclosure, or an amount equal to actual expenses as determined by the board, whichever amount is less, shall be distributed to the entity or association that incurs operating expenses related to satellite wagering, including, but not limited to, transmission costs, totalizator charges, and mutuel department labor charges. The funds remaining after distribution of the 2 percent commission and the 1½ percent, or amount of actual expenses, operating expense deduction shall be distributed in the same relative percentages (reduced pro rata for the 2 percent commission and the 1½ percent, or amount of actual expenses, operating expense deduction) as provided by Article 9.5 (commencing with Section 19610) for the association which conducts the racing meeting, except that commencing January 1, 1988, the funds available for distribution to the association which conducts the racing meeting and for distribution to the horsemen, in the form of purses, shall be accumulated and shall be distributed equally between (1) the association which conducts the racing meeting and (2) the horsemen, in the form of purses, who participate in the racing meeting of the association which conducts the racing meeting.

- (c) All revenues payable to the state from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs shall be deposited in a separate account in the fund and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, are hereby continuously appropriated to the Department of Food and Agriculture, for allocation by the director in his or her discretion, for (1) repayment of the principal of, and interest on, bonds issued by a joint powers agency, or of other debt service incurred, for the purpose of constructing improvements only at a fair's racetrack inclosure, (2) for repayment of expenses incurred by fairs in establishing and operating satellite wagering facilities, (3) for health and safety repair projects at fairs, and (4) for support purposes of fairs generally.
- SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that urgently needed improvement projects at fairs at which satellite wagering facilities are located may be commenced at the earliest possible time and that changes in the distribution of license fees and purses may be made for 1986 racing meetings in the northern zone, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1284

An act to amend Sections 19596.5, 19610.5, 19614, 19614.2, and 19618 of, and to add Sections 19596.7 and 19614.1 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to horseracing.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19596.5 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Chapter 24 of the Statutes of 1986, is amended to read:

- 19596.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board may authorize an association licensed to conduct a racing meeting in the northern zone to operate a satellite wagering facility at its racetrack inclosure, except during the part of the day the association is conducting racing at its racetrack, if all of the following conditions are met:
- (1) The association operating the satellite wagering facility has executed an agreement approved by the board with the association conducting a racing meeting in the northern zone that authorizes parimutuel wagering at the satellite wagering facility. The agreement shall provide that the wagers made at the satellite wagering facility will be included in the appropriate conventional or exotic pool at the racetrack where the racing meeting is conducted.
- (2) The horsemen's organization which represents the horsemen at the association which conducts the racing meeting on which wagers are accepted consents to the acceptance of wagers at the satellite wagering facility.
- (3) The accommodations and equipment used in conducting wagering at the satellite wagering facility and their location have been approved by the board.
- (4) The method used by the satellite wagering facility to transmit wagers, odds, results, and other data related to wagering has been approved by the board.
- (b) (1) The deductions from wagers at satellite wagering facilities shall be the same as the deductions for wagers at the racetrack where the racing meeting is being conducted. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, 2 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility shall be retained as a commission and 1½ percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility located at a fair enclosure, or an amount equal to actual expenses as determined by the board, whichever amount is less, shall be distributed to the entity or association that incurs operating expenses related to satellite wagering, including, but not limited to, transmission costs, totalizator charges, and mutuel labor charges. The funds remaining after distribution of the 2 percent commission and the 11/2 percent, or amount of actual expenses, operating expense deduction shall be distributed (reduced pro rata for the 2 percent commission and the 11/2 percent, or amount of actual operating expenses, operating expense deduction) first, for applicable state license fees, and second, 50 percent to the association which conducts the racing meeting; 45 percent to the horsemen, in the form of purses, who participate in the racing meeting of the association which conducts the racing meeting; and, 5 percent to the horsemen, in the form of purses, who participate in racing fairs that operate satellite wagering facilities.
- (2) The 5 percent of these funds which go to horsemen who participate in racing fairs shall be deposited in a separate account in the fund. Upon appropriation to the board, the funds in the account shall be distributed to the horsemen, as purses, during the fair season following the season in which it was deposited. These funds shall be distributed on an equal basis to each racing fair track that operates satellite wagering facilities for distribution in all nonstakes races and among all breeds.

- (c) Except as provided in subdivisions (d) and (e), all revenues payable to the state from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs shall be deposited in a separate account in the fund and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, are hereby continuously appropriated to the Department of Food and Agriculture, for allocation by the Director of Food and Agriculture, in his or her discretion, for (1) repayment of the principal of, and interest on, bonds issued by a joint powers agency, or of other debt service incurred, for the purpose of constructing improvements only at a fair's racetrack inclosure, (2) for repayment of expenses incurred by fairs in establishing and operating satellite wagering facilities, (3) for health and safety repair projects at fairs, and (4) for support purposes of fairs generally.
- (d) Seven and one-half percent of all revenues payable to the state from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs shall be deposited in the General Fund.
- (e) Up to 10 percent of all revenues payable to the state from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs shall be deposited in a special account in the General Fund and shall be available, when appropriated by the Legislature, for supplementing purses at fair meetings to achieve the purposes of subdivision (f). The department shall annually determine the percentage of revenues payable to the special account under this subdivision based on the amount necessary to achieve the purposes of subdivision (f).
- (f) It is the intent of the Legislature that funds allocated pursuant to subdivision (e) be used primarily at fair racing meetings in the northern zone with a daily average handle of more than three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000). The Legislature further finds that its intent is that these allocations be used to bring the purses at these fairs, exclusive of purses for stakes races and special events, to a level of at least 80 percent of purses for similar classes of horses at private racing associations in the northern zone.
- SEC. 2. Section 19596.7 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:
- 19596.7. In addition to satellite wagering facilities authorized pursuant to Section 19596.5, the board, with the approval of the Department of Food and Agriculture, may authorize any county fair, district agricultural association fair, or citrus fruit fair in the northern zone or in the County of Kern, San Luis Obispo, or Santa Barbara eligible for an allocation of racing days pursuant to Section 19549, to operate a satellite wagering facility at its fairgrounds even though the fair is not licensed to conduct a racing meeting. Except as otherwise provided in this section, all the provisions of Section 19596.5 shall apply to satellite wagering facilities authorized under this section.

- SEC. 3. Section 19610.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:
- 19610.5. In addition to the amounts required to be paid as license fees under any other provision of this chapter, every association, except an association conducting a racing meeting pursuant to Section 19612.6 or 19614, shall pay 1 percent of its exotic parimutuel pools to the state as an additional license fee.
- SEC. 4. Section 19614 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:
- 19614. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 19611 and 19612, and except for an association that qualifies pursuant to Section 19612.6 or 19614.1, the California Exposition and State Fair or a district or county fair shall pay a daily license fee based on its conventional and exotic parimutuel handle at the following rates:

Daily Handle	License Fee
$500,000 or less	2.5 percent of the handle.
$500,000 to $1,000,000	$12,500 plus 3.5 percent of the handle in excess of $500,000.
$1,000,000 to $1,500,000	$30,000 plus 4 percent of the handle in excess of
	$1,000,000.
$1,500,000 or more	$50,000 plus 6 percent of the handle in excess of $1,500,000.

No fair racing association shall pay a license fee under this section in excess of 4.5 percent of its daily parimutuel handle.

(b) After distribution of the applicable license fees as set forth in subdivision (a), all funds remaining from the deductions provided in Section 19610 shall be distributed 48 percent as commissions and 52 percent as purses.

The amount to be distributed as purses for the current racing meeting shall be based on respective parimutuel pools during the previous corresponding meeting, if any.

- (c) In addition to the amounts deducted pursuant to Section 19610, any fair racing association shall deduct 1 percent from the total amount handled in its daily conventional and exotic parimutuel pools. The additional 1 percent shall be deposited in the Fair and Exposition Fund and is hereby appropriated for the purposes specified in Section 19627.2.
- SEC. 5. Section 19614.1 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:
- 19614.1. Notwithstanding Sections 19612.6 and 19614, any county fair which conducts racing pursuant to Section 19549.3, shall pay a daily license fee equal to 5.5 percent of its daily conventional parimutuel handle and 6.0 percent of its daily exotic parimutuel handle. After distribution of the license fees, all funds remaining from the deductions provided in Section 19610 shall be distributed equally between purses and commissions. Every association which conducts a racing meeting pursuant to Section 19549.3 shall deduct from its parimutuel pools the amount specified in subdivision (d) of Section 19614.

- SEC. 6. Section 19614.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:
- 19614.2. (a) In addition to the amounts otherwise deducted pursuant to this chapter, the California Exposition and State Fair, or a district or county fair, or an association conducting its meeting pursuant to Section 19549.1, may deduct from the total amount handled in daily double, quiniela, exacta, and other multiple wagering pools approved by the board up to 3 percent thereof to be distributed as additional commissions and purses in the current year of the fair meet. Of the amount deducted, if any, 52 percent shall be distributed as additional purses and 48 percent shall be distributed as additional commissions. For racing meetings conducted pursuant to Section 19549.3, of the amounts deducted, if any, 50 percent shall be distributed as purses and 50 percent shall be distributed as commissions.
- (b) At least 30 days prior to the commencement of its meeting, the association shall file with the board a statement of the additional deduction to be made pursuant to subdivision (a). Except with the consent of the board, the amount of the deduction shall not be changed during the course of the meeting.
- (c) From the amount deducted for thoroughbred purses under subdivision (a), a sum equal to 13.33 percent thereof shall be held by the association to be paid as owners' premiums for California-breds winning at the meeting. The sum shall be deposited within seven days of the close of the meeting with the official registering agency of California thoroughbred racehorses in a depository approved by the board. After deduction of expenses, not to exceed 5 percent, and approval of all the deductions by the board, the fund shall then be distributed on a prorated percentage basis of first moneys earned to the persons owning California-bred thoroughbreds at the time of their wins, in accordance with the qualifying standards specified in subdivision (c) of Section 19617.
- (d) From the amount deducted for quarter horse purses under subdivision (a), a sum equal to 25 percent thereof shall be held by the association to be paid as owners' premiums for California-breds winning or placing at the meeting. The premiums shall be distributed within 30 days of the date on which the funds are received by the officially recognized organization designated to administer this subdivision on a prorated percentage basis of first and second place moneys earned to persons owning California-bred quarter horses at the time of their wins or places in races having a total purse value equal to or in excess of the average purse value for races, other than stakes races, won by California-bred horses during the previous year.

The board shall designate the officially recognized organizations representing quarter horse horsemen to administer this subdivision and to distribute premiums.

The organization may, with the approval of the board, make a deduction for expenses not to exceed 10 percent of the total awards fund.

- (e) From the amount deducted for Appaloosa and Arabian horse purses under subdivision (a), a sum equal to 13.33 percent thereof shall be held by the association to be paid as owner's premiums for California-breds winning at the meeting. The premiums shall be distributed within 30 days of the close of the meeting on a prorated percentage basis of first moneys earned to persons owning California-bred Appaloosa and Arabian horses at the time of their wins in races having a total purse value in excess of the average purse value for races, other than stakes races, won by California-bred horses during the previous year. The board shall designate the officially recognized organization representing Appaloosa and Arabian horsemen to administer this subdivision and to distribute premiums. The organization may, with the approval of the board, make a deduction for expenses not to exceed 5 percent of the total awards fund.
- SEC. 7. Section 19618 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:
- 19618. (a) Except as provided in Section 19596.5, no person licensed under this chapter to conduct a racing meeting shall pay or distribute directly or indirectly to or on behalf of any horse owner, or to any agent, or person or organization representing any horse owner or owners, as purses or similar payment to or for the benefit of horsemen, any consideration other than that expressly provided for in this chapter.
- (b) Except as provided in Section 19596.5, no horse owner, nor any agent or person or organization representing any horse owner or owners, shall receive, solicit or obtain from any person licensed under this chapter to conduct a race meeting as purses or similar payment to or for the benefit of horsemen, any consideration other than that expressly provided for in this chapter.
- (c) No plaque, cup, tray, ribbon, trophy, or similar award given in recognition of achievement or special event shall be deemed to be consideration for the purpose of this section.
- (d) This section shall not apply to any payment by an association in connection with any match race or special racing event.
- (e) This section shall not apply to any payment or distribution by a non-dividend-paying corporation in accordance with its articles and bylaws.

CHAPTER 1285

An act to amend Sections 19491.5, 19531, 19532, 19596.5, and 19611 of, and to add Section 19596.10 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to horseracing.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19491.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19491.5. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a) of Section 19491, an association, including the California Exposition and State Fair or a county or district agricultural association fair, which conducts, or whose predecessor association has conducted, a horseracing meeting during the preceding year at which the total amount handled in the parimutuel pools operated by the association, or by such predecessor association, is not more than two hundred fifty million dollars ($250,000,000), excluding wagering at a satellite wagering facility, shall be exempt from payment of that portion of the license fee provided in subdivision (a) of Section 19491 on the amount handled by it under one hundred twenty-five million dollars ($125,000,000), excluding wagering at a satellite wagering facility. All the money accruing pursuant to this section shall be distributed as purses. In addition, an association which conducts, or whose predecessor association has conducted, a horseracing meeting during the preceding year at which the total amount handled in the parimutuel pools operated by the association or predecessor association is more than two hundred fifty million dollars ($250,000,000), excluding wagering at a satellite wagering facility, shall be exempt from the payment of that portion of the license fee provided in subdivision (a) of Section 19491 on the amount handled in excess of twenty-four million dollars ($24,000,000) but not in excess of fifty million dollars ($50,000,000).

"Predecessor association," as used in this section, means a person who was previously licensed to conduct racing of the same kind and at the same racing facility as the presently existing association.

It is the intent of the Legislature that the amendment to this section at its 1970 Regular Session shall be deemed to be a clarification of the effect of this section, and that such amendment does not constitute a substantive change.

SEC. 2. Section 19531 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19531. The board shall make allocations of racing weeks, including simultaneous racing between zones, as it deems appropriate. The maximum number of racing weeks which may be allocated for horseracing other than at the California Exposition and State Fair, or county or district agricultural association fairs, shall be

- (a) For thoroughbred racing: 44 weeks per year in the northern zone; 42 weeks per year in the central zone; and seven weeks per vear in the southern zone.
- (b) For harness racing: 25 weeks per year in the northern zone and 25 weeks per year in the combined central and southern zones.
- (c) For quarter horse racing: 25 weeks per year in the northern zone; and 30 weeks per year in the combined central and southern
- (d) In its written application for a license, an applicant shall state the time of day (subject to Section 19571) during which it will conduct its racing meeting, and particularly the first race starting time for the various racing days. After receiving a license, a licensee shall not change the first race starting time without securing prior approval of the board.
- (e) Notwithstanding this section or any other provision in this chapter, the board shall not allocate dates to a thoroughbred association in the central zone for the purpose of conducting racing during daytime hours if a thoroughbred racing association is conducting racing in the southern zone on the same date during daytime hours.
- SEC. 3. Section 19532 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:
- 19532. (a) Any association licensed to conduct thoroughbred racing in the northern zone may receive no more than 22 weeks of such racing.
- (b) Any association licensed to conduct thoroughbred racing in the central zone may receive no more than 17 weeks of such racing. except that any association conducting a split meeting may receive up to 20 weeks of such racing. No more than one such split meeting may be licensed in any one year.
- (c) Any association licensed to conduct quarter horse racing in the southern zone may receive no more than 15 weeks of such racing.
- (d) This section and Section 19531 shall not operate to deprive any association of any weeks of racing granted during 1980.
- (e) This section and Section 19531 shall not operate to deprive the California State Fair and Exposition of any weeks of racing granted during the previous calendar year, and the board may continue to allocate such weeks of racing to the California Exposition and State Fair or any lessee thereof.
- (f) Nothing in subdivision (e) shall be construed as a limitation on the board allocating racing weeks to any private racing association as a lessee of the California Exposition and State Fair racetrack facility pursuant to Sections 19531 and 19532.
- SEC. 4. Section 19596.5 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Chapter 24 of the Statutes of 1986, is amended to read:
- 19596.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board may authorize an association licensed to conduct a racing meeting in the northern zone to operate a satellite wagering facility at its racetrack inclosure, except during the part of the day the association is conducting racing at its racetrack, if all of the following conditions are met:

- (1) The association operating the satellite wagering facility has executed an agreement approved by the board with the association conducting a racing meeting in the northern zone that authorizes parimutuel wagering at the satellite wagering facility. The agreement shall provide that the wagers made at the satellite wagering facility will be included in the appropriate conventional or exotic pool at the racetrack where the racing meeting is conducted.
- (2) The horsemen's organization which represents the horsemen at the association which conducts the racing meeting on which wagers are accepted consents to the acceptance of wagers at the satellite wagering facility.
- (3) The accommodations and equipment used in conducting wagering at the satellite wagering facility and their location have been approved by the board.
- (4) The method used by the satellite wagering facility to transmit wagers, odds, results, and other data related to wagering has been approved by the board.
- (b) (1) The deductions from wagers at satellite wagering facilities shall be the same as the deductions for wagers at the racetrack where the racing meeting is being conducted. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, 2 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility shall be retained as a commission and 1½ percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility located at a fair enclosure, or an amount equal to actual expenses as determined by the board, whichever amount is less, shall be distributed to the entity or association that incurs operating expenses related to satellite wagering, including, but not limited to, transmission costs, totalizator charges, and mutuel labor charges. The funds remaining after distribution of the 2-percent commission and the 11/2 percent, or amount of actual expenses, operating expense deduction shall be distributed (reduced pro rata for the 2-percent commission and the 1½ percent, or amount of actual operating expenses, operating expense deduction) first, for applicable state license fees, and second, 50 percent to the association which conducts the racing meeting; 45 percent to the horsemen, inthe form of purses, who participate in the racing meeting of the association which conducts the racing meeting; and, 5 percent to the horsemen, in the form of purses, who participate in racing fairs that operate satellite wagering facilities.
- (2) The 5 percent of these funds which go to horsemen who participate in racing fairs shall be deposited in a separate account in the fund. Upon appropriation to the board, the funds in the account shall be distributed to the horsemen, as purses, during the fair season following the season in which it was deposited. These funds shall be distributed on an equal basis to each racing fair track that operates satellite wagering facilities for distribution in all nonstakes races and among all breeds.

- (c) All revenues payable to the state from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs shall be deposited in a separate account in the fund and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, are hereby continuously appropriated to the Department of Food and Agriculture, for allocation by the director in his or her discretion, for (1) repayment of the principal of, and interest on, bonds issued by a joint powers agency, or of other debt service incurred, for the purpose of constructing improvements only at a fair's racetrack inclosure, (2) for repayment of expenses incurred by fairs in establishing and operating satellite wagering facilities, (3) for health and safety repair projects at fairs, and (4) for support purposes of fairs generally.
- SEC. 4.5. Section 19596.5 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Chapter 24 of the Statutes of 1986, is amended to read:
- 19596.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board may authorize an association licensed to conduct a racing meeting in the northern zone to operate a satellite wagering facility at its racetrack inclosure, except during the part of the day the association is conducting racing at its racetrack, if all of the following conditions are met:
- (1) The association operating the satellite wagering facility has executed an agreement approved by the board with the association conducting a racing meeting in the northern zone that authorizes parimutuel wagering at the satellite wagering facility. The agreement shall provide that the wagers made at the satellite wagering facility will be included in the appropriate conventional or exotic pool at the racetrack where the racing meeting is conducted.
- (2) The horsemen's organization which represents the horsemen at the association which conducts the racing meeting on which wagers are accepted consents to the acceptance of wagers at the satellite wagering facility.
- (3) The accommodations and equipment used in conducting wagering at the satellite wagering facility and their location have been approved by the board.
- (4) The method used by the satellite wagering facility to transmit wagers, odds, results, and other data related to wagering has been approved by the board.
- (b) (1) The deductions from wagers at satellite wagering facilities shall be the same as the deductions for wagers at the racetrack where the racing meeting is being conducted. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, 2 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility shall be retained as a commission and 1½ percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility located at a fair enclosure, or an amount equal to actual expenses as determined by the board, whichever amount is less, shall be distributed to the entity or association that incurs operating expenses related to satellite wagering, including, but not limited to, transmission costs, totalizator charges, and mutuel labor charges. The funds remaining after distribution of the 2 percent commission and the 1½ percent, or amount of actual expenses, operating expense deduction shall be distributed (reduced pro rata for the 2 percent commission and the 1½ percent, or amount of actual operating expenses, operating expense deduction) first, for applicable state license fees, and second, 50 percent to the association which conducts the racing meeting; 45 percent to the horsemen, in the form of purses, who participate in the racing meeting of the association which conducts the racing meeting; and, 5 percent to the horsemen, in the form of purses, who participate in racing fairs that operate satellite wagering facilities.

- (2) The 5 percent of these funds which go to horsemen who participate in racing fairs shall be deposited in a separate account in the fund. Upon appropriation to the board, the funds in the account shall be distributed to the horsemen, as purses, during the fair season following the season in which it was deposited. These funds shall be distributed on an equal basis to each racing fair track that operates satellite wagering facilities for distribution in all nonstakes races and among all breeds.
- (c) Except as provided in subdivisions (d) and (e), all revenues payable to the state from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs shall be deposited in a separate account in the fund and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, are hereby continuously appropriated to the Department of Food and Agriculture, for allocation by the Director of Food and Agriculture in his or her discretion, for (1) repayment of the principal of, and interest on, bonds issued by a joint powers agency, or of other debt service incurred, for the purpose of constructing improvements only at a fair's racetrack inclosure, (2) for repayment of expenses incurred by fairs in establishing and operating satellite wagering facilities, (3) for health and safety repair projects at fairs, and (4) for support purposes of fairs generally.
- (d) Seven and one-half percent of all revenues payable to the state from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs shall be deposited in the General Fund.
- (e) Up to 10 percent of all revenues payable to the state from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs shall be deposited in a special account in the General Fund and shall be available, when appropriated by the Legislature, for supplementing purses at fair meetings to achieve the purposes of subdivision (f). The department shall anually determine the percentage of revenues payable to the special account under this subdivision based on the amount necessary to achieve the purposes of subdivision (f).
- (f) It is the intent of the Legislature that funds allocated pursuant to subdivision (e) be used primarily at fair racing meetings in the northern zone with a daily average handle of more than three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000). The Legislature further finds that its intent is that these allocations be used to bring the purses at these fairs, exclusive of purses for stakes races and special events, to a level of at least 80 percent of purses for similar classes of horses at private racing associations in the northern zone.

SEC. 5. Section 19596.10 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

19596.10. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if there is an overlap in the northern zone between a racing fair, other than the Fresno or Ferndale fairs, and any other association that races in the daytime, the racing fair has the exclusive right to send its signal to the satellite wagering facilities in the state if the board determines that it is operationally possible for the racing fair to send its signal. However, any association that is not a fair that races in the northern zone may send its signal to a satellite wagering facility located at another association that is not a fair in the northern zone.

- SEC. 6. Section 19611 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:
- 19611. (a) Every thoroughbred association conducting a meeting with a total parimutuel handle of two hundred fifty million dollars ($250,000,000), excluding wagering at a satellite facility, or more shall pay a daily license fee equal to 5.7 percent of its daily conventional parimutuel handle and 6.45 percent of its daily exotic parimutuel handle.
- (b) Every thoroughbred association conducting a meeting with a total parimutuel handle of less than two hundred fifty million dollars ($250,000,000), excluding wagering at a satellite facility, shall pay a daily license fee at the following rates based upon its daily conventional and exotic parimutuel handle:

Daily Handle	License Fee Rate
$2,000,000 or less	. 4.8 percent of handle
$2,000,001 and more	. $96,000 plus 6 percent of the handle
	in excess of $2,000,001

In addition, every association subject to this subdivision shall pay an additional license fee at the rate of 0.75 percent of its daily exotic parimutuel handle. Except as provided in Section 19610.5, no such association shall pay a license fee in excess of 5.1 percent of the daily conventional parimutuel handle and 5.85 percent of the daily exotic parimutuel handle.

- (c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), every thoroughbred racing association which conducts a split meeting shall pay a daily license fee at the rates specified in subdivision (b) for the short period of its meeting.
- (d) After distribution of the applicable license fees set forth in subdivision (a), (b), or (c), and the payments pursuant to Sections 19610.5, 19616 and 19617, all funds remaining from the deductions provided in Section 19610 shall be distributed 55 percent as commissions and 45 percent as purses.
  - SEC. 7. Section 4.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 19596.5 of the Business and Professions Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1499. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1987, (2) each bill amends Section 19596.5 of the Business and Professions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1499, in which case Section 4 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1286

An act to add Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 74001) to Division 22 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to agricultural marketing, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 74001) is added to Division 22 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

CHAPTER 12. WINEGROWERS OF CALIFORNIA COMMISSION

Article 1. Declaration and General Provisions

74001. The production and distribution of wine and winegrapes constitute an important industry of this state which provides substantial and necessary revenues for the state and employment for its citizens. It also furnishes an important food which benefits the public health and welfare.

74002. The maintenance and expansion of the wine and winegrape industry of California and of its local, national, and foreign markets is necessary to assure the consuming public of a continuous supply of these products and needed levels of income for those engaged in the wine and winegrape industry in this state.

74005. No action taken by the commission nor by any individual in accordance with this chapter or with the rules and regulations adopted under the chapter is a violation of the so-called Cartwright Act (Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 16700) of Part 2 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code), the Fair Trade Act

(Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 16900) of that Part 2), the Unfair Practices Act (Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 17000) of that Part 2), or any statutory or common law against monopolies or combinations in restraint of trade. Proof that any action complained of was done in compliance with this chapter shall be a complete defense to the action or proceeding.

74006. This chapter shall be liberally construed. If any provision of this chapter or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this chapter which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this chapter are severable.

74007. It is hereby declared as a matter of legislative determination that members of the commission are intended to represent and further the interest of a particular agricultural industry, and that this representation and furtherance is intended to serve the public interest. Accordingly, the Legislature finds that with respect to persons who serve on the commission, the particular agricultural industry is tantamount to, and constitutes the public generally within the meaning of Section 87103 of the Government Code.

74008. A commission form of administration created by this chapter is designed to deal with the broad fields of market development, marketing research, and production and processing research.

74009. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Dills-Bronzan Winegrowers Joint Commission Act of 1986.

Article 2. Definitions

74021. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions in this article govern the construction of this chapter.

74022. "Books and records" means books, records, contracts, documents, memoranda, papers, correspondence, or other written data pertaining to matters relating to the activities subject to this chapter.

74023. "Brandy" means an alcoholic distillate or a mixture of distillates obtained from the fermented juice, mash, or wine of whole, sound, ripe grapes or from the residue thereof, distilled at not over 170 degrees proof.

74024. "Commission" means the Winegrowers of California Commission.

74025. "Grape concentrate" or "concentrate" means unfermented grape juice from which the major portion of the original water content has been removed.

74026. "Grape juice" or "juice" means unfermented crushed grapes without solids containing the major portion of the original water content.

74027. "Producer" and "grower" are synonymous and mean any person who produced winegrapes in a marketing season in a quantity of more than 25 tons. Unless otherwise exempted, producer also includes any person who receives winegrapes as payment for the use of his or her property in the production of winegrapes.

74028. "Producer districts" shall consist of the following:

- (a) District 1 consists of Lake, Solano, Mendocino, Sonoma, Marin, and Napa Counties.
- (b) District 2 consists of the City and County of San Francisco, Santa Barbara, San Luis Obispo, Ventura, Monterey, San Benito, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz, Alameda, San Mateo, and Contra Costa Counties.
- (c) District 3 consists of Butte, Colusa, Glenn, Sacramento, Shasta, Tehama, Yolo, Yuba, Trinity, Siskiyou, Modoc, Lassen, Plumas, Sierra, Sutter, Humboldt, and Del Norte Counties, and that portion of San Joaquin County north of State Highway 4.
- (d) District 4 consists of Merced, Stanislaus, Mariposa, Calaveras, Amador, El Dorado, Placer, Nevada, and Tuolomne Counties, and that portion of San Joaquin County south of State Highway 4.
- (e) District 5 consists of Fresno, Alpine, Mono, Inyo, and Madera Counties, and that portion of Kings and Tulare Counties north of Nevada Avenue (Avenue 192).
- (f) District 6 consists of Kern County and that portion of Kings and Tulare Counties south of Nevada Avenue (Avenue 192).
- (g) District 7 consists of Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, Imperial, and San Diego Counties.
- 74029. "Ex officio member" means a nonvoting member of the commission.
- 74030. "High proof" means an alcoholic distillate or a mixture of distillates obtained from the fermented juice, mash, or wine of fresh winegrapes or from the residue thereof.
- 74031. "Market" means to sell, barter, trade, purchase, acquire, or otherwise distribute wine, winegrapes, or winegrape products.
- 74032. "Market development" includes, but is not limited to, trade promotion, public information, dissemination of information on health and social issues and other matters, and activities for the prevention, modification, or removal of trade barriers which restrict the free flow of winegrape products to market and may include the presentation of facts to state, federal, or foreign governmental agencies on matters which affect this chapter.
- 74033. "Market research" means any investigation, development, analysis, or implementation of information relating to the marketing of wine, winegrapes, and winegrape products including, but not limited to, trade practices, consumer trends, promotion, sales, and advertising.
- 74034. "Marketing season" or "fiscal year" means the period beginning July 1 of any year and extending through June 30 of the following years.
- 74035. "Must" means a mixture of unfermented crushed grapes, solid grape particles, and grape juice.

74036. "Production research" means research relating to the production and processing of winegrapes, including, but not limited to, the development of new winegrape products and uses for these products.

74037. "Vintner" and "processor" are synonymous and mean any person engaged in producing must, grape juice, grape concentrate, wine, or products thereof, including high proof and brandy, and includes a "winegrower" as that term is defined in Section 23103 of the Business and Professions Code, who produces wine from winegrapes. However, a producer does not become a vintner solely by the act of field crushing winegrapes before delivering the winegrapes as must to another person. A vintner who acquires and processes winegrapes in the preceding marketing season in a quantity of 100 tons or less is not subject to this chapter.

74038. "Wine" means the product obtained by the fermentation of winegrapes or juice therefrom, with or without addition or abstracting, and includes any product made from winegrapes which is defined as a wine and permitted under Part III (commencing with Section 5381) of Subchapter F of Chapter 51 of Title 26 of the United States Code, and in the statutes of this state and regulations issued thereunder defining wine produced from grapes.

74039. "Winegrapes" means grapes produced in this state which are intended to be converted from their fresh form into grape juice, grape concentrate, wine, or products thereof, including, but not limited to, high proof and brandy produced from winegrapes.

74040. "Winegrape products" include, but are not limited to, must, grape juice, grape concentrate, wine, high proof, and brandy produced from winegrapes.

Article 3. Winegrowers of California Commission

74061. There is in state government, the Winegrowers of California Commission. The commission shall be composed of 18 producers, 18 vintners, and may include one public member.

- (a) Producers within District 7 shall elect one producer member; producers within Districts 2, 3, 4, and 6 shall each elect two producer members; producers within District 5 shall elect four producer members; and producers within District 1 shall elect five producer members to serve on the commission. Alternate producer members shall be elected in the same manner. Each producer member and alternate producer member shall be elected from the district in which he or she produces the greatest portion of his or her winegrape tonnage.
- (b) Vintner members shall be elected by the industry at large and serve on the commission without reference to any county, district, or area of the state.
- (c) The public member may be appointed to the commission by the director from nominees recommended by the commission.
  - (d) The director, and other appropriate individuals as determined by the commission, shall be ex officio members of the commission.

- 74062. Periodically, the number of producer members and their respective alternate members serving on the commission from any district shall be reapportioned in a manner that assures representation in accordance with the value of winegrapes produced in each district. However, no district shall have less than one member nor more than five members on the commission.
- 74063. (a) The director may require the commission to correct or cease any existing activity or function which is determined by the director not to be in the public interest or which is in violation of this chapter.
- (b) If the commission refuses or fails to cease these activities or functions or to make these corrections as required by the director, the director may, upon written notice, suspend all or a portion of the activities or functions of the commission until the time that the cessation or correction of activities or functions as required by the director has been accomplished by the commission.
- (c) Actions of the commission in violation of the written notice are without legal force or effect. The director, to the extent feasible, shall issue the written notice prior to the commission entering into any contractual relationship affecting the existing or proposed activities or functions which are the subject of the written notice.
- (d) Upon service of the written notice, the director shall notify the commission in writing of the specific acts which he or she determines are not in the public interest or are in violation of this chapter, the reasons for requiring a cessation or correction of specific existing or proposed activities or functions, and may make recommendations that will make the activities or functions acceptable.
- 74064. The commission or the director may bring an action for judicial relief from the director's written notice or for noncompliance by the commission with the written notice, as the case may be, in a court of competent jurisdiction which may issue a temporary restraining order, permanent injunction, or other appropriate relief.
- 74065. When the director is required to concur in a decision of the commission, he or she shall indicate his or her response to the commission within 15 working days from notification of the decision. The response may be a request that additional information be provided.
- 74066. The commission shall reimburse the director for all expenditures incurred by the director in carrying out his or her duties and responsibilities pursuant to this chapter. However, the court may, if it finds that the director acted arbitrarily or capriciously in restricting the activities or functions of the commission, relieve the commission of the responsibility for payment of the director's legal costs with regard to that action.

74067. Each member of the commission, except the ex officio members, shall have an alternate member to be elected in the same manner as the member. An alternate member shall, in the absence of the member of whom he or she is an alternate, serve in place of the member on the commission and have and be able to exercise all the rights, privileges, and powers of the member when serving on the commission. In the event of death, removal, resignation, or disqualification of a member, the alternate shall serve as a member on the commission until a successor is elected and has qualified.

74068. Any producer member and his or her alternate member shall be a person, or an employee representing a producer, who has a financial interest in producing, or causing to be produced, winegrapes for market. The qualifications of producer members and alternate members shall be maintained during the entire term of office. No more than one member and his or her alternate members shall be employed by or connected in a proprietary capacity with the same producer. However, producer membership in an agricultural nonprofit cooperative association or trade organization shall not be considered employment or being in a proprietary capacity.

74069. Any vintner member and his or her alternate member shall be a person, or an employee representing a vintner, who has a financial interest in processing winegrapes for market. The qualifications of vintner members and alternate members shall be maintained during the entire term of office. No more than one member and his or her alternate member shall be employed by or connected in a proprietary capacity with the same vintner. However, vintner membership in an agricultural nonprofit cooperative association or trade organization shall not be considered employment or being in a proprietary capacity.

74070. The public member and his or her alternate member shall have all the rights, privileges, and powers of any other member of the commission. The public member shall not have any financial interest in the wine or winegrape industry.

74072. No less than 10 producer members and 10 vintner members, including alternate members when acting in place of the members, shall constitute a quorum of the commission.

74073. The vote of a majority of the members, or alternate members when acting in the place of the members, present at the meeting at which there is a quorum shall constitute the act of the commission. However, for an affirmative vote to be valid, it shall include not less than five producer members and five vintner members.

74074. The commission shall be and is hereby declared and created a corporate body. It shall have the power to sue and be sued, to contract and be contracted with, and to have and possess all of the powers of a corporation. It may adopt a corporate seal. Copies of its proceedings, records, and acts, when authenticated, shall be admissible in evidence in all courts of the state and shall be prima facie evidence of the truth of all statements therein.

74075. The director or his or her representatives shall be notified and may attend meetings of the commission and any committee meetings of the commission.

74077. All funds received from the assessments levied pursuant to this chapter or otherwise received by the commission shall be deposited in banks which the commission may designate and shall be disbursed by order of the commission through an agent or agents as it may designate. The agent or agents shall be bonded by a fidelity bond, executed by a surety company authorized to transact business in this state, in favor of the commission, in an amount of not less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000).

74078. (a) The state is not liable for the acts of the commission or its contracts. Payments of all claims arising by reason of the administration of this chapter or acts of the commission are limited to the funds collected by the commission.

(b) No member, alternate member, or any employee or agent of the commission, is personally liable for the contracts of the commission or for errors in judgment, mistakes or other acts, either of commission or omission, except for their own individual acts of dishonesty or crime. Liability is several and not joint, and no member, alternate member, or any employee or agent of the commission is liable individually for the default, act, or omission of any other member, alternate member, or any employee or agent of the commission.

Article 4. Powers and Duties of the Commission

74091. The powers and duties of the commission shall include, but are not limited to, all of those contained in this article.

74092. The commission may adopt and from time to time alter, rescind, modify, and amend all proper and necessary bylaws, rules, regulations, operating procedures, and orders for carrying out this chapter, including appeals from any bylaws, rules, regulations, operating procedures, or orders of the commission.

74093. The commission may administer and enforce this chapter and do and perform all actions and exercise all powers incidental to, in connection with, or deemed reasonably necessary for, proper or advisable effectuation of this chapter, including, but not limited to, entering into contracts for services with public and private agencies which are deemed necessary by the commission to carry out this chapter.

74094. The commission may appoint its own officers, including a chairperson, one or more vice chairpersons, and other officers it deems necessary. The officers shall have the powers and duties delegated to them by the commission. The office of chairperson shall alternate annually between the producer members and the vintner members.

74095. The commission may employ a person to serve at the pleasure of the commission as president, and other personnel, including legal counsel, necessary to carry out this chapter. If the person engages in any conduct which the director determines is not in the public interest or which is in violation of this chapter, the director shall notify the commission of the conduct and request that corrective action and, if appropriate, disciplinary action be taken by the commission. If the commission fails or refuses to correct the situation or to take disciplinary action satisfactory to the director, the director may suspend or discharge the person.

74096. The commission may fix the compensation for all employees of the commission.

74097. The commission may appoint committees composed of both members and nonmembers of the commission.

74098. The commission may establish offices, incur expenses, enter into any and all contracts and agreements, create liabilities, and borrow funds in advance of receipt of assessments as may be necessary in the opinion of the commission for the proper administration and enforcement of this chapter and the performance of its duties.

74099. The commission shall keep accurate books, records, and accounts of all of its dealings, which shall be subject to an annual audit by an auditing firm selected by the commission with the concurrence of the director. A summary of the audit shall be made a part of an annual report to all producers and vintners, copies of which shall also be submitted to the Legislature and the department. In addition, the director may, as he or she determines necessary, conduct or cause to be conducted a fiscal and compliance audit of the commission.

74100. The commission may engage in market development and market research through plans and programs to enhance the sale of California wine, winegrapes, and winegrape products for the purpose of maintaining existing markets and creating new and larger domestic and foreign markets, and to educate and instruct the public with respect to the uses and value of California wine, winegrapes, and winegrape products. However, any plans and programs so developed and conducted shall not be directed towards a particular private brand or trade name, although private brands and trade names may be used in wine tastings and other similar programs authorized by the commission. In addition, the plans and programs shall make no use of false or unwarranted claims on behalf of California winegrapes or winegrape products, nor disparage the quality, value, sale, or use of any commodity.

74101. The commission may accept contributions of private, state, or federal funds that may be available for these purposes, and may allocate funds by contract or agreement to other persons or to state or federal agencies conducting this research.

74102. The commission may undertake appropriate research relating to the production and processing of wine and winegrapes, including the development of new winegrape products and uses for these products.

74103. The commission may publish and distribute bulletins or other communications relating to the California wine and winegrape industries.

74104. The commission may establish an assessment rate to defray operating costs of the commission.

74105. The commission may establish an annual budget according to accepted accounting practices. The budget shall be concurred in by the director prior to disbursement of funds, except for disbursements made pursuant to Section 74096.

74106. The commission shall submit to the director, for his or her concurrence, an annual statement of contemplated activities authorized pursuant to this chapter.

74107. The commission may investigate and prosecute civil violations of this chapter and file complaints with appropriate law enforcement agencies or officers for suspected criminal violations of this chapter.

74108. Any contract with an industry trade organization or an agent or employee thereof which involves the transfer or expenditure of commission funds shall be submitted to the director for concurrence prior to being entered into.

Article 5. Implementation and Voting Procedures

74121. This chapter, except as necessary to conduct an implementation referendum, shall not become operative until the director finds, in a referendum conducted by him or her, or a person designated by the director, that a favorable vote has been given pursuant to this article.

- 74122. The referendum shall provide for eligible producers and eligible vintners to approve this chapter jointly as applicable to both producers and vintners.
- 74123. (a) Not later than April 1, 1987, the director shall establish a list of producers and a list of vintners who are eligible to vote on implementation of this chapter. In establishing the lists, the director may require producers, vintners, county agricultural commissioners, and others to submit the names and mailing addresses of all producers and vintners. The director also may require that the information provided include the quantity of winegrapes sold to vintners and the quantity of winegrapes processed by vintners or, in the alternative, may establish procedures for receiving the information at the time of the referendum. The request for this information shall be in writing. The information required by the director shall be filed within 30 days following receipt of the written notice.
- (b) Any producer or vintner whose name does not appear on the director's lists may have his or her name included on the appropriate list by filing with the director a signed statement identifying himself or herself as a producer or vintner. Failure to be on the appropriate list does not exempt any producer or vintner from paying assessments under this chapter.
- 74124. In determining whether this chapter is approved by producers, the director must find that at least 40 percent of the total number of producers from the list established by the director participated in the referendum, and that either one of the following has occurred:
- (a) Sixty-five percent or more of the producers who voted in the referendum voted in favor of this chapter, and the producers so voting marketed a majority of the volume of winegrapes in the preceding marketing season, or in the current marketing season if the harvest is completed prior to the vote, by all the producers who voted in the referendum.
- (b) A majority of the producers who voted in the referendum voted in favor of this chapter, and the producers so voting marketed 65 percent or more of the volume of winegrapes in the preceding marketing season, or in the current marketing season if the harvest is completed prior to the vote, by all the producers who voted in the referendum.
- 74125. In determining whether this chapter is approved by vintners, the director must find that at least 40 percent of the total number of vintners from the list established by the director participated in the referendum, and that either one of the following has occurred:
- (a) Sixty-five percent or more of the vintners who voted in the referendum voted in favor of this chapter, and the vintners so voting either acquired or processed their own production, or a combination thereof, which represents a majority of the volume of winegrapes in the preceding marketing season, or in the current marketing season if the harvest is completed prior to the vote, by all the vintners who voted in the referendum.

- (b) A majority of the vintners who voted in the referendum voted in favor of this chapter, and the vintners so voting either acquired or processed their own production, or a combination thereof; which represents 65 percent or more of the volume of winegrapes in the preceding marketing season, or in the current marketing season if the harvest is completed prior to the vote, by all the vintners who voted in the referendum.
- 74126. The director shall establish a period in which to conduct the referendum which shall not be less than 10 days nor more than 60 days in duration, and may prescribe additional procedures to conduct the referendum. If the initial period established is less than 60 days, the director may extend the period. However, the total referendum period may not exceed 60 days.
- 74127. Nonreceipt of a ballot shall not invalidate a referendum. 74128. If the director finds that a favorable vote has not been given as provided in this chapter, he or she shall certify and declare this chapter inoperative. If the director finds that a favorable vote has been given as provided in this chapter, he or she shall certify and give notice of the favorable vote to all producers and vintners whose names and addresses may be on file with the director.

- 74129. Upon certification of the commission, the producer and vintner members and their alternate members who are then serving on the California Wine and Winegrape Improvement Program made effective by the director on August 21, 1984, shall become the initial members and alternate members of the commission and shall serve in accordance with the requirements of Section 74071.
- 74130. Subsequent to the action taken pursuant to Section 74129, persons to be elected to the commission upon expiration of existing terms shall be selected pursuant to the nomination and election procedures established by the commission with the concurrence of the director.
- 74131. (a) Prior to the implementation referendum conducted by the director, the proponents of the commission shall deposit with the director the amount that the director deems necessary to defray the expenses in creating the commission, including, but not limited to, preparing the necessary producer and vintner lists and conducting the referendum.
- (b) Any funds remaining after paying expenses shall be returned to the proponents of the commission who deposited the funds with the director.
- (c) The commission may reimburse the proponents of the commission for any funds deposited with the director which were used in carrying out this article and for any legal expenses and costs incurred in establishing the commission.

Article 6. Assessments and Records

- 74151. (a) Prior to the beginning of each marketing season or as soon thereafter as possible, the commission shall establish an assessment rate for the marketing season.
- (b) The assessment rate shall be the same for producers and vintners. The assessment rate for producers shall not exceed 1 percent of the gross dollar value of winegrapes marketed by producers to vintners. The assessment rate for vintners shall not exceed 1 percent of the gross dollar value of winegrapes acquired by vintners from producers. If a producer sells winegrapes for a specified sum in a bona fide sale, the gross dollar amount of this sum is the gross dollar value of the winegrapes.
- 74152. Any producer, or producer who is also a vintner, who contracts or otherwise arranges for the processing of his or her winegrapes and retains ownership of the processed product during the marketing season shall pay the producer assessment and the vintner assessment. The "weighted average producer returns per ton" by district as published in the most recent Final Grape Crush Report issued annually for the current marketing season by the department shall be used as the basis for determining product gross dollar value and the assessment.
- 74153. This chapter shall not apply to winegrapes produced only for a producer's home use or processed only for a vintner's home use. However, any producer or vintner claiming this exemption shall file an affidavit with the commission establishing the manner in which the winegrapes are used. The commission shall then determine whether the affidavit should be approved.
- 74154. Every producer and vintner subject to this chapter shall keep a complete and accurate record of their operations. The records shall be in simple form and contain information as the commission shall prescribe. The records shall be preserved by producers and vintners for a period of two years and shall be offered and submitted for inspection at any reasonable time upon written demand of the commission or its duly authorized agent.
- 74155. All proprietary information obtained by the commission or the director from producers or vintners, and all lists of producers and vintners in the possession of the commission or the director are confidential and shall not be disclosed except when required in a judicial proceeding. Information on volume shipments, commodity value, and other related information which is required for reports to governmental agencies; financial reports made to the commission or aggregate sales and inventory information; and any other information which is requested from the commission excluding individual producer or vintner information, may be disclosed by the commission.
- 74156. Any assessment levied by the commission, pursuant to this chapter, is a personal debt of every person so assessed and is due and payable in a time and manner prescribed by the commission. Failure of a vintner to collect the assessment from a producer shall not exempt the vintner from liability nor relieve the producer of the obligation to pay the assessment.

74157. Any person who fails to file a return, or remit or pay any assessment within the time required by the commission shall pay to the commission a penalty of 10 percent of the amount of the assessment determined to be due and, in addition, 1½ percent interest per month on the unpaid balance.

Article 7. Actions and Penalties

- 74171. It is unlawful for any person to do any of the following:
- (a) Willfully render or furnish a false report, statement, or record required by the commission.
- (b) When engaged in the marketing, processing, or other activities related to wine or winegrapes, to fail or refuse to furnish the commission or its duly authorized agents, information concerning the name and address of the persons to whom winegrapes were delivered or from whom winegrapes have been received, and the quantity so delivered or received.
- (c) Secrete, destroy, or alter records required to be maintained under this chapter.
- 74172. The commission shall establish procedures for the purpose of according individuals aggrieved by its acts or determinations an informal hearing. Appeals from decisions of the commission may be made to the director. The determination of the director shall be subject to judicial review upon petition filed with the appropriate superior court. Pending disposition of any appeal and judicial review, the parties shall abide by the acts or determinations of the commission.
- 74173. (a) The commission may commence civil action and utilize all remedies provided in law or equity for the collection of assessments and civil penalties and the obtaining of injunctive relief or specific performance regarding this chapter and the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter.
- (b) Upon entry of any final judgment on behalf of the commission against any defendant, the court shall enjoin the defendant from conducting any type of business regarding the commodity subject to this chapter until there is full compliance and satisfaction of the judgment. Upon a favorable verdict for the commission, it shall be entitled to receive reimbursement for any reasonable attorney's fees and other actual related costs. Venue may be established at the domicile or place of business of the defendant or in the county of the principal office of the commission. The commission may be sued only in the county of its principal office.
- 74174. Suspension or termination of this chapter in accordance with Article 8 (commencing with Section 74191) shall not result in any of the following:
  - (a) Affecting, waiving, or termination of any right, duty, obligation, or liability which may have arisen or may thereafter arise in connection with this chapter.

(b) Releasing, condoning, or dismissal of any violation of this chapter.

Article 8. Continuation or Suspension and Termination

74191. Between July 1, 1991, and June 30, 1992, inclusive, the commission shall cause a referendum to be conducted among producers and vintners in the manner specified in Section 74122 to determine whether this chapter shall be reapproved and continued in effect. A favorable vote shall be found if the director determines from the referendum that a majority of the eligible producers, or vintners, or both, who voted in the referendum voted in favor of continuing the operations of this chapter. If the director finds that a favorable vote has been given to continue a joint producer-vintner commission, a producer commission, or a vintner commission, he or she shall so certify and this chapter or the appropriate portions thereof shall remain in effect. If the director finds that a favorable vote has not been given, he or she shall so certify and declare the operations of this chapter suspended upon expiration of the marketing season. No bond or security shall be required for any such referendum.

74192. Following a favorable referendum conducted prior to June 30, 1992, a referendum shall be conducted by the commission every fifth year thereafter unless a referendum is conducted as a result of a petition pursuant to this article. In that case, the referendum shall be every fifth year following the industry petitioned referendum following procedures provided in this article.

- 74193. (a) Upon a finding by a two-thirds vote of the commission that this chapter has not tended to effectuate its declared purposes, the commission may recommend to the director that this chapter be suspended. However, any suspension shall not become effective until the expiration of the current marketing season.
- (b) Alternatively, the director may be petitioned to suspend this chapter. The petition must be signed by 20 percent of the producers by number who produced not less than 20 percent of the volume of winegrapes in the immediately preceding marketing season and 20 percent of the vintners by number who acquired not less than 20 percent of the volume of winegrapes in the immediately preceding marketing season. The director shall hold a hearing on the petition after receiving it.
- (c) The director shall, upon receipt of the recommendation to suspend this chapter from the commission, or may, after holding the hearing on the petition to suspend this chapter, hold a referendum among the producers and vintners to determine if the commission shall be suspended. However, the director shall not hold a referendum as a result of the petition unless the petitioner shows by the weight of evidence that this chapter has not tended to effectuate its declared purposes.

- (d) The director shall establish a referendum period, which shall not be less than 10 days nor more than 60 days in duration. The director may prescribe additional procedures as may be necessary to conduct the referendum. At the close of the referendum period, the director shall tabulate the ballots filed during the period. If at least 40 percent of the total number of producers and 40 percent of the total number of vintners from the lists established by the director participate in the referendum, the director shall suspend this chapter if he or she finds either of the following has occurred:
- (1) Sixty-five percent or more of the producers and vintners who voted in the referendum, voted in favor of suspension; the producers so voting marketed a majority of the total quantity of winegrapes marketed in the preceding marketing season by all of the producers who participated in the referendum; and the vintners so voting acquired a majority of the total quantity of winegrapes acquired in the preceding marketing season by all of the vintners who participated in the referendum.
- (2) A majority of the producers and vintners who voted in the referendum voted in favor of suspension; the producers so voting marketed 65 percent or more of the total quantity of winegrapes marketed in the preceding marketing season by all of the producers who voted in the referendum; and the vintners so voting acquired 65 percent or more of the total quantity of winegrapes acquired in the preceding marketing season by all of the vintners who voted in the referendum.
- 74194. (a) The director shall terminate the commission at the end of the current marketing season if the director finds that termination is requested in writing, within a 90-day period, by at least 51 percent of the eligible producers that are directly affected that market at least 51 percent of the volume of the product, and by at least 51 percent of the eligible vintners that are directly affected that acquire at least 51 percent of the volume of the product.
- (b) The person or persons originating the request shall file a written notice with the director in a manner that establishes the date the request is initiated. Any person may withdraw his or her name from the petition requesting the termination prior to the time the request is presented to the director.
- (c) The signatures to the petition requesting termination need not all be appended to one sheet of paper. Each person signing the petition shall add his or her signature and business address. If no business address is given, a designation of the place of business shall be given which will enable the location to be readily ascertained.
- (d) The petition shall bear a copy of the notice of intention. Signatures shall be secured within the time limit specified in this section.
- 74195. After the effective date of suspension of this chapter, the operations of the commission shall be concluded and any and all funds remaining held by the commission and not required to defray the expenses of concluding and terminating the commission shall be returned on a pro rata basis to all persons from whom assessments were collected in the immediately preceding marketing season. However, if the commission finds that the amounts so returnable are so small as to make impractical the computation and remitting of the pro rata refund to these persons, any funds shall be paid into an appropriate program conducted by the University of California or the California State University, another state agency, or a federal agency which deals with the purposes of this chapter. If no program exists, the funds shall be paid into the State Treasury as unclaimed trust funds.

74196. Upon suspension of this chapter, the commission shall mail a copy of the notice of suspension to all producers and vintners affected by the suspension whose names and addresses are on file.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 74121 of the Food and Agricultural Code, as proposed to be added by Section 1 of this act, this act shall become operative only if Assembly Bill 4262 of the 1985–86 Regular Session is chaptered.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1287

An act to add Chapter 12.5 (commencing with Section 74501) and Chapter 12.7 (commencing with Section 74801) to Division 22 of, and to repeal and add Section 74108 of, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to agricultural marketing, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 74108 of the Food and Agricultural Code, as added by Senate Bill 2048 of the 1985–86 Regular Session is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 74108 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

74108. The director may require that any contract in which the commission is a party be submitted to him or her for concurrence prior to the commission entering into the contract. If the director requires the submission of a contract and does not concur in that contract, he or she shall hold a public hearing within 14 days of the initial decision not to concur. In the notice of the hearing, the director shall present a written explanation of his or her decision. The director shall make a final decision on whether or not to concur in the contract within 30 days of the hearing. The contract may not be executed from the time that the director makes the initial decision not to concur to the time of the final decision.

SEC. 3. Chapter 12.5 (commencing with Section 74501) is added to Division 22 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

CHAPTER 12.5. CALIFORNIA WINE COMMISSION

Article 1. Declaration and General Provisions

74501. The production and distribution of wine and wine-related products constitute an important industry of this state which provides substantial and necessary revenues for the state and employment for its citizens. It also furnishes an important food which benefits the public health and welfare.

74502. The maintenance and expansion of the wine industry of California and of its local, national, and foreign markets is necessary to assure the consuming public of a continuous supply of these products and the maintenance of needed levels of income for those engaged in the wine industry in this state.

74503. It is in the public interest that the public be made aware of accurate and scientific information relating to the beneficial qualities of wine and wine-related products.

74504. The production and marketing of wine and wine-related products produced in this state is hereby declared to be affected with a public interest. This chapter is enacted in the exercise of the police power of this state for the purpose of protecting the health, peace, safety, and general welfare of the people of this state.

74505. No action taken by the commission or by any individual in accordance with this chapter or with the rules and regulations adopted under the chapter is a violation of the so-called Cartwright Act (Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 16700) of Part 2 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code), the Fair Trade Act (Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 16900) of that Part 2), the Unfair Practices Act (Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 17000) of that Part 2), or any statutory or common law against monopolies or combinations in restraint of trade. Proof that any action complained of was done in compliance with this chapter shall be a complete defense to the action or proceeding.

74506. This chapter shall be liberally construed. If any provision of this chapter or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this chapter which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this chapter are severable.

74507. It is hereby declared as a matter of legislative determination that members of the commission are intended to represent and further the interest of a particular agricultural industry, and that this representation and furtherance is intended to serve the public interest. Accordingly, the Legislature finds that with respect to persons who serve on the commission, the particular agricultural industry is tantamount to, and constitutes the public generally within the meaning of Section 87103 of the Government Code.

74508. A commission form of administration created by this chapter is designed to deal with the broad fields of market development, marketing research, and production and processing research.

Article 2. Definitions

74521. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions in this article govern the construction of this chapter.

74522. "Books and records" means books, records, contracts, documents, memoranda, papers, correspondence, or other written data pertaining to matters relating to the activities subject to this chapter.

74523. "Brandy" means an alcoholic distillate or a mixture of distillates obtained from the fermented juice, mash, or wine of whole, sound, ripe grapes or from the residue thereof, distilled at not over 170 degrees proof.

74524. "Commission" means the California Wine Commission.

74524.1. "Director" means the Director of Food and Agriculture.

74524.5. "Eligible volume" means the total tonnage of winegrapes processed in the preceding marketing season by vintners subject to this chapter.

74525. "Grape concentrate" or "concentrate" means unfermented grape juice from which the major portion of the original water content has been removed.

74526. "Grape juice" or "juice" means unfermented crushed grapes without solids containing the major portion of the original water content.

74527. "Producer" and "grower" are synonymous and mean any person who produced winegrapes in the preceding marketing season. Producer also includes any person who receives winegrapes as payment for the use of his or her property in the production of winegrapes.

74528. "Ex officio member" means a nonvoting member of the commission.

74529. "High proof" means an alcoholic distillate or a mixture of distillates obtained from the fermented juice, mash, or wine of fresh winegrapes or from the residue thereof.

74530. "Market" means to sell, barter, trade, purchase, acquire, or otherwise distribute wine or wine-related products.

74531. "Market development" includes, but is not limited to, trade promotion, public information, dissemination of information on health and social issues and other matters, and activities for the prevention, modification, or removal of trade barriers which restrict the free flow of wine and wine-related products to market and may include the presentation of facts to state, federal, or foreign governmental agencies on matters which affect this chapter.

74532. "Market research" means any investigation, development, analysis, or implementation of information relating to the marketing of wine and wine-related products, including, but not limited to, trade practices, consumer trends, promotion, sales, and advertising.

"Marketing season" or "fiscal year" means the period beginning July 1 of any year and extending through June 30 of the following years.

"Must" means a mixture of unfermented crushed grapes, solid grape particles, and grape juice.

74535. "Processing research" means research relating to the processing of winegrapes, including, but not limited to, the development of new wine-related products and uses for these products.

"Vintner" and "processor" are synonymous and mean any person engaged in producing must, grape juice, grape concentrate, wine, or products thereof, including high proof and brandy, and includes a "winegrower" as that term is defined in Section 23103 of the Business and Professions Code, who produces wine from winegrapes. However, a producer does not become a vintner solely by the act of field crushing winegrapes before delivering the winegrapes as must to another person. A vintner who acquires and processes winegrapes in the preceding marketing season in a quantity of 100 tons or less is not subject to this chapter.

74537. "Wine" means the product obtained by the fermentation of winegrapes or juice therefrom, with or without addition or abstracting, and includes any product made from winegrapes which is defined as a wine and permitted under Part III (commencing with Section 5381) of Subchapter F of Chapter 51 of Title 26 of the United States Code, and in the statutes of this state and regulations issued thereunder defining wine produced from grapes.

74538. "Winegrapes" means grapes produced in this state which are intended to be converted from their fresh form into grape juice, grape concentrate, wine, or products thereof, including, but not limited to, high proof and brandy produced from winegrapes.

"Wine-related products" include, but are not limited to, must, grape juice, grape concentrate, wine, high proof, and brandy produced from winegrapes.

Article 3. California Wine Commission

- (a) There is in state government, the California Wine Commission. The commission shall be composed of 18 vintners and may include one public member.
  - (b) Vintner members shall be elected by the industry at large and serve on the commission without reference to any county, district, or area of the state.

- (c) The public member may be appointed to the commission by the director from nominees recommended by the commission.
- (d) The director, and other appropriate individuals as determined by the commission, shall be ex officio members of the commission.
- 74562. (a) The director may require the commission to correct or cease any existing activity or function which is determined by the director not to be in the public interest or which is in violation of this chapter.
- (b) If the commission refuses or fails to cease these activities or functions or to make these corrections as required by the director, the director may, upon written notice, suspend all or a portion of the activities or functions of the commission until the time that the cessation or correction of activities or functions as required by the director has been accomplished by the commission.
- (c) Actions of the commission in violation of the written notice are without legal force or effect. The director, to the extent feasible, shall issue the written notice prior to the commission entering into any contractual relationship affecting the existing or proposed activities or functions which are the subject of the written notice.
- (d) Upon service of the written notice, the director shall notify the commission in writing of the specific acts which he or she determines are not in the public interest or are in violation of this chapter, the reasons for requiring a cessation or correction of specific existing or proposed activities or functions, and may make recommendations that will make the activities or functions acceptable.
- 74563. The commission or the director may bring an action for judicial relief from the director's written notice or for noncompliance by the commission with the written notice, as the case may be, in a court of competent jurisdiction which may issue a temporary restraining order, permanent injunction, or other appropriate relief.
- 74564. When the director is required to concur in a decision of the commission, he or she shall indicate his or her response to the commission within 15 working days from notification of the decision. The response may be a request that additional information be provided.
- 74565. The commission shall reimburse the director for all expenditures incurred by the director in carrying out his or her duties and responsibilities pursuant to this chapter. However, the court may, if it finds that the director acted arbitrarily or capriciously in restricting the activities or functions of the commission, relieve the commission of the responsibility for payment of the director's legal costs with regard to that action.
- 74566. Each member of the commission, except the ex officio members, shall have an alternate member to be elected in the same

74568. The public member and his or her alternate member shall have all the rights, privileges, and powers of any other member of the commission. The public member shall not have any financial interest in the wine or winegrape industry.

74569. The term of office of members and alternate members shall be for two years or until their successors have been elected and have qualified. However, of the first members of the commission, one-half of the vintner members and their alternate members shall serve for one year; and one-half of the vintner members and their alternate members shall serve for two years. The determination of the term of each member shall be made by lot. No member or alternate member shall serve more than four consecutive terms.

74570. No less than 10 vintner members, including alternate members when acting in place of the members, shall constitute a quorum of the commission.

74572. The commission shall be and is hereby declared and created a corporate body. It shall have the power to sue and be sued, to contract and be contracted with, and to have and possess all of the powers of a corporation. It may adopt a corporate seal. Copies of its proceedings, records, and acts, when authenticated, shall be admissible in evidence in all courts of the state and shall be prima facie evidence of the truth of all statements therein.

74573. The director or his or her representatives shall be notified and may attend meetings of the commission and any committee meetings of the commission.

74574. No member of the commission or member of a committee established by the commission who is a nonmember of the commission shall receive a salary. Each member of the commission, except ex officio government members, and each member of a committee established by the commission who is a nonmember of the commission, may receive an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) per day, as established by the commission. This amount shall be paid for each day spent in actual attendance at, or in traveling to and from, meetings of the commission or committees of the commission, or on special assignment for the commission, as approved by the commission. Members shall also receive necessary traveling expenses and meal allowances, as approved by the commission.

74575. All funds received from the assessments levied pursuant to this chapter or otherwise received by the commission shall be deposited in banks which the commission may designate and shall be disbursed by order of the commission through an agent or agents as it may designate. The agent or agents shall be bonded by a fidelity bond, executed by a surety company authorized to transact business in this state, in favor of the commission, in an amount of not less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000).

74576. (a) The state is not liable for the acts of the commission or its contracts. Payments of all claims arising by reason of the administration of this chapter or acts of the commission are limited to the assets of the commission.

(b) No member, alternate member, or any employee or agent of the commission, is personally liable for the contracts of the commission or for errors in judgment, mistakes or other acts, either of commission or omission, except for their own individual acts of dishonesty or crime. Liability is several and not joint, and no member, alternate member, or any employee or agent of the commission is liable individually for the default, act, or omission of any other member, alternate member, or any employee or agent of the commission.

Article 4. Powers and Duties of the Commission

74591. The powers and duties of the commission shall include, but are not limited to, all of those contained in this article.

74592. The commission may adopt and from time to time alter, rescind, modify, and amend all proper and necessary bylaws, rules, regulations, operating procedures, and orders for carrying out this chapter, including appeals from any bylaws, rules, regulations, operating procedures, or orders of the commission.

74593. The commission may administer and enforce this chapter and do and perform all actions and exercise all powers incidental to, in connection with, or deemed reasonably necessary for, proper or advisable effectuation of this chapter, including, but not limited to, entering into contracts for services with public and private agencies which are deemed necessary by the commission to carry out this chapter.

74594. The commission may appoint its own officers, including a chairperson, one or more vice chairpersons, and other officers it deems necessary. The officers shall have the powers and duties delegated to them by the commission.

74595. The commission may employ a person to serve at the pleasure of the commission as president, and other personnel, including legal counsel, necessary to carry out this chapter. If the person engages in any conduct which the director determines is not in the public interest or which is in violation of this chapter, the director shall notify the commission of the conduct and request that corrective action and, if appropriate, disciplinary action be taken by the commission. If the commission fails or refuses to correct the situation or to take disciplinary action satisfactory to the director, the director may suspend or discharge the person.

74596. The commission may fix the compensation for all employees of the commission.

74597. The commission may appoint committees composed of both members and nonmembers of the commission.

74598. The commission may establish offices, incur expenses, enter into any and all contracts and agreements, create liabilities, and borrow funds in advance of receipt of assessments as may be necessary in the opinion of the commission for the proper administration and enforcement of this chapter and the performance of its duties.

74599. The commission shall keep accurate books, records, and accounts of all of its dealings, which shall be subject to an annual audit by an auditing firm selected by the commission with the concurrence of the director. A summary of the audit shall be made a part of an annual report to all vintners, copies of which shall also be submitted to the Legislature and the department. In addition, the director may, as he or she determines necessary, conduct or cause to be conducted a fiscal and compliance audit of the commission.

74600. The commission may engage in market development and market research through plans and programs to enhance the sale of California wine and wine-related products for the purpose of maintaining existing markets and creating new and larger domestic and foreign markets, and to educate and instruct the public with respect to the uses and value of California wine and wine-related products. However, any plans and programs so developed and conducted shall not be directed towards a particular private brand or trade name, although private brands and trade names may be used in wine tastings and other similar programs authorized by the commission. In addition, the plans and programs shall make no use of false or unwarranted claims on behalf of California wine or wine-related products, nor disparage the quality, value, sale, or use of any commodity.

74601. The commission may accept contributions of private, state, or federal funds that may be available for these purposes, and may allocate funds by contract or agreement to other persons or to state or federal agencies conducting this research.

74602. The commission may undertake appropriate research relating to the production and processing of wine and winegrapes, including the development of new wine-related products and uses for these products.

74603. The commission may publish and distribute bulletins or other communications relating to the California wine and wine-related products industries.

74604. The commission may establish an assessment rate to defray operating costs of the commission.

74605. The commission may establish an annual budget according to accepted accounting practices. The budget shall be concurred in by the director prior to disbursement of funds, except for disbursements made pursuant to Section 74596.

74606. The commission shall submit to the director, for his or her concurrence, an annual statement of contemplated activities authorized pursuant to this chapter.

74607. The commission may investigate and prosecute civil violations of this chapter and file complaints with appropriate law enforcement agencies or officers for suspected criminal violations of this chapter.

74608. The director may require that any contract in which the commission is a party be submitted to him or her for concurrence prior to the commission entering into the contract. If the director requires the submission of a contract and does not concur in that contract, he or she shall hold a public hearing within 14 days of the initial decision not to concur. In the notice of the hearing, the director shall present a written explanation of his or her decision. The director shall make a final decision on whether or not to concur in the contract within 30 days of the hearing. The contract may not be executed from the time that the director makes the intial decision not to concur to the time of the final decision.

Article 5. Implementation and Voting Procedures

74621. This chapter, except as necessary to conduct an implementation referendum, shall not become operative until the director finds, in a referendum conducted by him or her, or a person designated by the director, that a favorable vote has been given pursuant to this article.

74622. (a) Not later than April 1, 1987, the director shall establish a list of vintners who are eligible to vote on the implementation of this chapter. Eligibility shall be based on volume processed in the immediately preceding marketing season. In establishing the list, the director may require producers, vintners, county agricultural commissioners, and others to submit the names and mailing addresses of all vintners. The director also may require that the information provided include the quantity of winegrapes sold to vintners and the quantity of winegrapes processed by vintners or, in the alternative, may establish procedures for receiving the information at the time of the referendum. The request for this information shall be in writing. The information required by the director shall be filed within 30 days following receipt of the written notice.

- (b) Any vintner whose name does not appear on the director's list may have his or her name included on the list by filing with the director a signed statement identifying himself or herself as a vintner. Failure to be on the list does not exempt the vintner from paying assessments under this chapter.
- 74623. In determining whether this chapter shall become operative, the director shall find that at least 40 percent of the total number of vintners from the list established by the director participated in the referendum, and that either one of the following has occurred:
- (a) Sixty-five percent or more of the vintners who voted in the referendum voted in favor of this chapter, and the vintners so voting either acquired or processed their own production or a combination thereof, which represents a majority of the volume of winegrapes in the preceding marketing season by all the vintners who voted in the referendum.
- (b) A majority of the vintners who voted in the referendum voted in favor of this chapter, and the vintners so voting either acquired or processed their own production, or a combination thereof, which represents 65 percent or more of the volume of winegrapes in the preceding marketing season by all the vintners who voted in the referendum.
- 74624. The director shall establish a period in which to conduct the referendum which shall not be less than 10 days nor more than 60 days in duration, and may prescribe additional procedures to conduct the referendum. If the initial period established is less than 60 days, the director may extend the period. However, the total referendum period may not exceed 60 days.
- 74625. Nonreceipt of a ballot shall not invalidate a referendum. 74626. If the director finds that a favorable vote has not been given as provided in this chapter, he or she shall certify and declare this chapter inoperative. If the director finds that a favorable vote has been given as provided in this chapter, he or she shall certify and give notice of the favorable vote to all vintners whose names and addresses may be on file with the director.
- 74627. Upon certification of the commission, the vintner members and their alternate members who are then serving on the California Wine and Winegrape Improvement Program made effective by the director on August 21, 1984, shall become the initial members and alternate members of the commission and shall serve in accordance with the requirements of Section 74569.
- 74628. Subsequent to the first election of commissioners under this chapter, persons to be elected to the commission shall be selected pursuant to the nomination and election procedures established by the commission with the concurrence of the director.
- 74629. (a) Prior to the implementation referendum conducted by the director, the proponents of the commission shall deposit with the director the amount that the director deems necessary to defray the expenses in creating the commission, including, but not limited to, preparing the necessary vintner list and conducting the referendum.

- (b) Any funds remaining after paying expenses shall be returned to the proponents of the commission who deposited the funds with the director.
- (c) The commission may reimburse the proponents of the commission for any funds deposited with the director which were used in carrying out this article and for any legal expenses and costs incurred in establishing the commission.

Article 6. Assessments and Records

- 74651. (a) Prior to the beginning of each marketing season or as soon thereafter as possible, the commission shall establish an assessment rate for the marketing season.
- (b) Unless approved by a two-thirds vote of the commission, the assessment rate shall not exceed 1 percent of the gross dollar value of winegrapes acquired by vintners from producers.
- 74652. Any vintner who is also a producer who contracts or otherwise arranges for the processing of his or her winegrapes and retains ownership of the processed product during the marketing season shall pay the assessment on the winegrapes. The "weighted average producer returns per ton" by district as published in the most recent Final Grape Crush Report issued annually for the current marketing season by the department shall be used as the basis for determining product gross dollar value and the assessment.
- 74653. This chapter does not apply to winegrapes processed only for a vintner's home use. However, any vintner claiming this exemption shall file an affidavit with the commission establishing the manner in which the winegrapes are used. The commission shall then determine whether the exemption applies.
- 74654. Every vintner shall keep a complete and accurate record of all winegrapes processed. The records shall be in simple form and contain information as the commission shall prescribe. The records shall be preserved by the vintner for a period of two years and shall be offered and submitted for inspection at any reasonable time upon written demand of the commission or its duly authorized agent.
- 74655. All proprietary information obtained by the commission or the director from producers or vintners, and all lists of vintners in the possession of the commission or the director are confidential and shall not be disclosed except when required in a judicial proceeding. Information on volume shipments, commodity value, and other related information which is required for reports to governmental agencies; financial reports made to the commission or aggregate sales and inventory information; and any other information which is requested from the commission, may be disclosed by the commission. In no event may individual producer or vintner information be disclosed by the commission.

74656. Any assessment levied by the commission, pursuant to this chapter, is a personal debt of every person so assessed and is due and payable in a time and manner prescribed by the commission.

74657. Any person who fails to file a return, or remit or pay any assessment within the time required by the commission shall pay to the commission a penalty of 10 percent of the amount of the assessment determined to be due and, in addition, 1½ percent interest per month on the unpaid balance.

Article 7. Actions and Penalties

- 74671. It is unlawful for any person to do any of the following:
- (a) Willfully render or furnish a false report, statement, or record required by the commission.
- (b) When engaged in the marketing, processing, or other related activity of wine or wine-related products, to fail or refuse to furnish the commission or its duly authorized agents information concerning the name and address of the persons from whom winegrapes have been received.
- (c) Secrete, destroy, or alter records required to be maintained under this chapter.
- 74672. The commission shall establish procedures for the purpose of according individuals aggrieved by its acts or determinations an informal hearing. Appeals from decisions of the commission may be made to the director. The determination of the director shall be subject to judicial review upon petition filed with the appropriate superior court. Pending disposition of any appeal and judicial review, the parties shall abide by the acts or determinations of the commission.
- 74673. (a) The commission may commence civil action and utilize all remedies provided in law or equity for the collection of assessments and civil penalties and the obtaining of injunctive relief or specific performance regarding this chapter and the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter.
- (b) Upon entry of any final judgment on behalf of the commission against any defendant, the court shall enjoin the defendant from conducting any type of business regarding the commodity subject to this chapter until there is full compliance and satisfaction of the judgment. Upon a favorable verdict for the commission, it shall be entitled to receive reimbursement for any reasonable attorney's fees and other actual related costs. Venue may be established at the domicile or place of business of the defendant or in the county of the principal office of the commission. The commission may be sued only in the county of its principal office.
- 74674. Suspension or termination of this chapter in accordance with Article 8 (commencing with Section 74691) shall not result in any of the following:
- (a) Affecting, waiving, or termination of any right, duty, obligation, or liability which may have arisen or may thereafter arise in connection with this chapter.

(b) Releasing, condoning, or dismissal of any violation of this chapter.

Article 8. Continuation or Suspension and Termination

- 74691. (a) Between July 1, 1989, and June 30, 1990, inclusive, the commission shall cause a referendum to be conducted among vintners in the manner specified in Section 74622 to determine whether this chapter shall be reapproved and continued in effect. In determining whether this chapter is reapproved, the director shall find both of the following:
- (1) Not less than a majority of the vintners eligible to vote in the referendum voted in favor of this chapter.
- (2) As many vintners eligible to vote in the referendum that processed not less than a majority of the eligible volume voted in favor of this chapter.
- (b) If the director finds that a favorable vote has been given to continue the commission, he or she shall so certify and this chapter or the appropriate portions thereof shall remain in effect. If the director finds that a favorable vote has not been given, he or she shall so certify and declare the operations of this chapter suspended upon expiration of the marketing season. No bond or security shall be required for any such referendum.
- 74692. Following a favorable referendum conducted prior to June 30, 1990, a referendum shall be conducted by the commission every fifth year thereafter unless a referendum is conducted as a result of a petition pursuant to this article. In that case, the referendum shall be every fifth year following the industry petitioned referendum following procedures provided in this article.
- 74693. (a) Upon a finding by a two-thirds vote of the commission that this chapter has not tended to effectuate its declared purposes, the commission may recommend to the director that this chapter be suspended.
- (b) Alternatively, the director may be petitioned to suspend this chapter. The petition shall be signed by 20 percent of the vintners by number who acquired not less than 20 percent of the volume of winegrapes in the immediately preceding marketing season. The director shall hold a hearing on the petition after receiving it.
- (c) The director shall, upon receipt of the recommendation to suspend this chapter from the commission, or may, after holding the hearing on the petition to suspend this chapter, hold a referendum among the vintners to determine if the commission shall be suspended. However, the director shall not hold a referendum as a result of the petition unless the petitioner shows by the weight of evidence that this chapter has not tended to effectuate its declared purposes.

(d) The director shall establish a referendum period, which shall not be less than 10 days nor more than 60 days in duration. The director may prescribe additional procedures as may be necessary to conduct the referendum. At the close of the referendum period, the director shall tabulate the ballots filed during the period. If at least 40 percent of the total number of vintners from the list established by the director participate in the referendum, the director shall suspend this chapter if he or she finds either of the following has occurred:

- (1) Sixty-five percent or more of the vintners who voted in the referendum, voted in favor of suspension; and the vintners so voting acquired a majority of the total quantity of winegrapes acquired in the preceding marketing season by all of the vintners who participated in the referendum.
- (2) A majority of the vintners who voted in the referendum voted in favor of suspension; and the vintners so voting acquired 65 percent or more of the total quantity of winegrapes acquired in the preceding marketing season by all of the vintners who voted in the referendum.
- 74694. (a) The director shall terminate the commission at the end of the current marketing season if the director finds that termination is requested in writing, within a 90-day period, by at least 51 percent of the eligible vintners that are directly affected that acquire at least 51 percent of the volume of the product.
- (b) The person or persons originating the request shall file a written notice with the director in a manner that establishes the date the request is initiated. Any person may withdraw his or her name from the petition requesting the termination prior to the time the request is presented to the director.
- (c) The signatures to the petition requesting termination need not all be appended to one sheet of paper. Each person signing the petition shall add his or her signature and business address. If no business address is given, a designation of the place of business shall be given which will enable the location to be readily ascertained.
- (d) The petition shall bear a copy of the notice of intention. Signatures shall be secured within the time limit specified in this section.

74695. After the effective date of suspension of this chapter, the operations of the commission shall be concluded and any and all funds remaining held by the commission and not required to defray the expenses of concluding and terminating the commission shall be returned on a pro rata basis to all persons from whom assessments were collected in the immediately preceding marketing season. However, if the commission finds that the amounts so returnable are so small as to make impractical the computation and remitting of the pro rata refund to these persons, any funds shall be paid into an appropriate program conducted by the University of California or the California State University, another state agency, or a federal agency which deals with the purposes of this chapter. If no program exists, the funds shall be paid into the State Treasury as unclaimed trust funds.

74696. Upon suspension of this chapter, the commission shall mail a copy of the notice of suspension to all vintners affected by the suspension whose names and addresses are on file.

SEC. 4. Chapter 12.7 (commencing with Section 74801) is added to Division 22 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

CHAPTER 12.7. CALIFORNIA WINEGRAPE GROWERS COMMISSION

Article 1. Declaration and General Provisions

74801. The production and distribution of winegrapes constitute an important industry of this state which provides substantial and necessary revenues for the state and employment for its citizens. It also furnishes an important food which benefits the public health and welfare.

74802. The maintenance and expansion of the winegrape industry of California and of its local, national, and foreign markets is necessary to assure the consuming public of a continuous supply of these products and needed levels of income for those engaged in the winegrape industry in this state.

74803. It is in the public interest that the public be made aware of accurate and scientific information relating to the beneficial qualities of winegrapes and winegrape products.

74804. The production and marketing of winegrapes and winegrape products produced in this state is hereby declared to be affected with a public interest. This chapter is enacted in the exercise of the police power of this state for the purpose of protecting the health, peace, safety, and general welfare of the people of this state.

74805. No action taken by the commission nor by any individual in accordance with this chapter or with the rules and regulations adopted under the chapter is a violation of the so-called Cartwright Act (Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 16700) of Part 2 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code), the Fair Trade Act (Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 16900) of that Part 2), the Unfair Practices Act (Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 17000) of that Part 2), or any statutory or common law against monopolies or combinations in restraint of trade. Proof that any action complained of was done in compliance with this chapter shall be a complete defense to the action or proceeding.

74806. This chapter shall be liberally construed. If any provision of this chapter or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this chapter which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this chapter are severable.

74807. It is hereby declared as a matter of legislative determination that members of the commission are intended to represent and further the interest of a particular agricultural industry, and that this representation and furtherance is intended to serve the public interest. Accordingly, the Legislature finds that with respect to persons who serve on the commission, the particular agricultural industry is tantamount to, and constitutes the public generally within the meaning of Section 87103 of the Government Code.

74808. A commission form of administration created by this chapter is designed to deal with the broad fields of market development, marketing research, and production and processing research.

Article 2. Definitions

- 74821. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions in this article govern the construction of this chapter.
- 74822. "Books and records" means books, records, contracts, documents, memoranda, papers, correspondence, or other written data pertaining to matters relating to the activities subject to this chapter.
- 74823. "Brandy" means an alcoholic distillate or a mixture of distillates obtained from the fermented juice, mash, or wine of whole, sound, ripe grapes or from the residue thereof, distilled at not over 170 degrees proof.
- 74824. "Commission" means the California Winegrape Growers Commission.
- 74825. "Grape concentrate" or "concentrate" means unfermented grape juice from which the major portion of the original water content has been removed.
- 74826. "Grape juice" or "juice" means unfermented crushed grapes without solids containing the major portion of the original water content.
- 74827. "Producer" and "grower" are synonymous and mean any person who produced winegrapes in a marketing season in a quantity of more than 25 tons. Unless otherwise exempted, producer also includes any person who receives winegrapes as payment for the use of his or her property in the production of winegrapes.
  - 74828. "Producer districts" shall consist of the following:
- (a) District 1 consists of Lake, Solano, Mendocino, Sonoma, Marin, and Napa Counties.
- · (b) District 2 consists of the City and County of San Francisco, Santa Barbara, San Luis Obispo, Ventura, Monterey, San Benito, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz, Alameda, San Mateo, and Contra Costa Counties.
- (c) District 3 consists of Butte, Colusa, Glenn, Sacramento, Shasta, Tehama, Yolo, Yuba, Trinity, Siskiyou, Modoc, Lassen, Plumas, Sierra, Sutter, Humboldt, and Del Norte Counties, and that portion of San Joaquin County north of State Highway 4.
- (d) District 4 consists of Merced, Stanislaus, Mariposa, Calaveras, Amador, El Dorado, Placer, Nevada, and Tuolumne Counties, and that portion of San Joaquin County south of State Highway 4.

- (e) District 5 consists of Fresno, Alpine, Mono, Inyo, and Madera Counties, and that portion of Kings and Tulare Counties north of Nevada Avenue (Avenue 192).
- (f) District 6 consists of Kern County and that portion of Kings and Tulare Counties south of Nevada Avenue (Avenue 192).
- (g) District 7 consists of Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, Imperial, and San Diego Counties.
- 74829. "Ex officio member" means a nonvoting member of the commission.
- 74830. "High proof" means an alcoholic distillate or a mixture of distillates obtained from the fermented juice, mash, or wine of fresh winegrapes or from the residue thereof.

74831. "Market" means to sell, barter, trade, purchase, acquire, or otherwise distribute wine, winegrapes, or winegrape products.

- 74832. "Market development" includes, but is not limited to, trade promotion, public information, dissemination of information on health and social issues and other matters, and activities for the prevention, modification, or removal of trade barriers which restrict the free flow of winegrape products to market and may include the presentation of facts to state, federal, or foreign governmental agencies on matters which affect this chapter.
- 74833. "Market research" means any investigation, development, analysis, or implementation of information relating to the marketing of winegrapes and winegrape products including, but not limited to, trade practices, consumer trends, promotion, sales, and advertising.
- 74834. "Marketing season" or "fiscal year" means the period beginning July 1 of any year and extending through June 30 of the following years.

74835. "Must" means a mixture of unfermented crushed grapes, solid grape particles, and grape juice.

74836. "Production research" means research relating to the production and processing of winegrapes, including, but not limited to, the development of new winegrape products and uses for these products.

74837. "Vintner" and "processor" are synonymous and mean any person engaged in producing must, grape juice, grape concentrate, wine, or products thereof, including high proof and brandy, and includes a "winegrower" as that term is defined in Section 23103 of the Business and Professions Code, who produces wine from winegrapes. However, a producer does not become a vintner solely by the act of field crushing winegrapes before delivering the winegrapes as must to another person. A vintner who acquires and processes winegrapes in the preceding marketing season in a quantity of 100 tons or less is not subject to this chapter.

74838. "Wine" means the product obtained by the fermentation of winegrapes or juice therefrom, with or without addition or abstracting, and includes any product made from winegrapes which is defined as a wine and permitted under Part III (commencing with Section 5381) of Subchapter F of Chapter 51 of Title 26 of the United States Code, and in the statutes of this state and regulations issued thereunder defining wine produced from grapes.

74839. "Winegrapes" means grapes produced in this state which are intended to be converted from their fresh form into grape juice, grape concentrate, wine, or products thereof, including, but not limited to, high proof and brandy produced from winegrapes.

74840. "Winegrape products" include, but are not limited to, must, grape juice, grape concentrate, wine, high proof, and brandy produced from winegrapes.

Article 3. California Winegrape Growers Commission

- 74861. There is in state government, the of California Winegrape Growers Commission. The commission shall be composed of 18 producers and one public member.
- (a) Producers within District 7 shall elect one producer member; producers within Districts 2, 3, 4, and 6 shall each elect two producer members; producers within District 5 shall elect four producer members; and producers within District 1 shall elect five producer members to serve on the commission. Alternate producer members shall be elected in the same manner. Each producer member and alternate producer member shall be elected from the district in which he or she produces the greatest portion of his or her winegrape tonnage.
- (b) The public member may be appointed to the commission by the director from nominees recommended by the commission.
- (c) The director, and other appropriate individuals as determined by the commission, shall be ex officio members of the commission.
- 74862. Periodically, the number of producer members and their respective alternate members serving on the commission from any district shall be reapportioned in a manner that assures representation in accordance with the value of winegrapes produced in each district. However, no district shall have less than one member nor more than five members on the commission.
- 74863. (a) The director may require the commission to correct or cease any existing activity or function which is determined by the director not to be in the public interest or which is in violation of this chapter.
- (b) If the commission refuses or fails to cease these activities or functions or to make these corrections as required by the director, the director may, upon written notice, suspend all or a portion of the activities or functions of the commission until the time that the cessation or correction of activities or functions as required by the director has been accomplished by the commission.
- (c) Actions of the commission in violation of the written notice are without legal force or effect. The director, to the extent feasible, shall issue the written notice prior to the commission entering into any contractual relationship affecting the existing or proposed activities or functions which are the subject of the written notice.

(d) Upon service of the written notice, the director shall notify the commission in writing of the specific acts which he or she determines are not in the public interest or are in violation of this chapter, the reasons for requiring a cessation or correction of specific existing or proposed activities or functions, and may make recommendations that will make the activities or functions acceptable.

74864. The commission or the director may bring an action for judicial relief from the director's written notice or for noncompliance by the commission with the written notice, as the case may be, in a court of competent jurisdiction which may issue a temporary restraining order, permanent injunction, or other appropriate relief.

74865. When the director is required to concur in a decision of the commission, he or she shall indicate his or her response to the commission within 15 working days from notification of the decision. The response may be a request that additional information be provided.

74866. The commission shall reimburse the director for all expenditures incurred by the director in carrying out his or her duties and responsibilities pursuant to this chapter. However, the court may, if it finds that the director acted arbitrarily or capriciously in restricting the activities or functions of the commission, relieve the commission of the responsibility for payment of the director's legal costs with regard to that action.

74867. Each member of the commission, except the ex officio members, shall have an alternate member to be elected in the same manner as the member. An alternate member shall, in the absence of the member of whom he or she is an alternate, serve in place of the member on the commission and have and be able to exercise all the rights, privileges, and powers of the member when serving on the commission. In the event of death, removal, resignation, or disqualification of a member, the alternate shall serve as a member on the commission until a successor is elected and has qualified.

74868. Any producer member and his or her alternate member shall be a person, or an employee representing a producer, who has a financial interest in producing, or causing to be produced, winegrapes for market. The qualifications of producer members and alternate members shall be maintained during the entire term of office. No more than one member and his or her alternate members shall be employed by or connected in a proprietary capacity with the same producer. However, producer membership in an agricultural nonprofit cooperative association or trade organization shall not be considered employment or being in a proprietary capacity.

74869. The public member and his or her alternate member shall have all the rights, privileges, and powers of any other member of the commission. The public member shall not have any financial interest in the wine or winegrape industry.

74870. The term of office of members and alternate members shall be for two years or until their successors have been elected and have qualified. However, of the first members of the commission, one-half of the producer members and their alternate members shall serve for one year and one-half of the producer members and their alternate members and one-half of the shall serve for two years. The determination of the term of each member shall be made by lot. No member or alternate member shall serve more than four consecutive terms.

74871. No less than 10 producer members, including alternate members when acting in place of the members, shall constitute a quorum of the commission.

74873. The commission shall be and is hereby declared and created a corporate body. It shall have the power to sue and be sued, to contract and be contracted with, and to have and possess all of the powers of a corporation. It may adopt a corporate seal. Copies of its proceedings, records, and acts, when authenticated, shall be admissible in evidence in all courts of the state and shall be prima facie evidence of the truth of all statements therein.

74874. The director or his or her representatives shall be notified and may attend meetings of the commission and any committee meetings of the commission.

74876. All funds received from the assessments levied pursuant to this chapter or otherwise received by the commission shall be deposited in banks which the commission may designate and shall be disbursed by order of the commission through an agent or agents as it may designate. The agent or agents shall be bonded by a fidelity bond, executed by a surety company authorized to transact business in this state, in favor of the commission, in an amount of not less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000).

74877. (a) The state is not liable for the acts of the commission or its contracts. Payments of all claims arising by reason of the administration of this chapter or acts of the commission are limited.

to the funds collected by the commission.

(b) No member, alternate member, or any employee or agent of the commission, is personally liable for the contracts of the commission or for errors in judgment, mistakes or other acts, either of commission or omission, except for their own individual acts of dishonesty or crime. Liability is several and not joint, and no member, alternate member, or any employee or agent of the commission is liable individually for the default, act, or omission of any other member, alternate member, or any employee or agent of the commission.

Article 4. Powers and Duties of the Commission

74891. The powers and duties of the commission shall include, but are not limited to, all of those contained in this article.

74892. The commission may adopt and from time to time alter, rescind, modify, and amend all proper and necessary bylaws, rules, regulations, operating procedures, and orders for carrying out this chapter, including appeals from any bylaws, rules, regulations, operating procedures, or orders of the commission.

74893. The commission may administer and enforce this chapter and do and perform all actions and exercise all powers incidental to, in connection with, or deemed reasonably necessary for, proper or advisable effectuation of this chapter, including, but not limited to, entering into contracts for services with public and private agencies which are deemed necessary by the commission to carry out this chapter.

74894. The commission may appoint its own officers, including a chairperson, one or more vice chairpersons, and other officers it deems necessary. The officers shall have the powers and duties delegated to them by the commission.

74895. The commission may employ a person to serve at the pleasure of the commission as president, and other personnel, including legal counsel, necessary to carry out this chapter. If the person engages in any conduct which the director determines is not in the public interest or which is in violation of this chapter, the director shall notify the commission of the conduct and request that corrective action and, if appropriate, disciplinary action be taken by the commission. If the commission fails or refuses to correct the situation or to take disciplinary action satisfactory to the director, the director may suspend or discharge the person.

74896. The commission may fix the compensation for all employees of the commission.

74897. The commission may appoint committees composed of both members and nonmembers of the commission.

74898. The commission may establish offices, incur expenses, enter into any and all contracts and agreements, create liabilities, and borrow funds in advance of receipt of assessments as may be necessary in the opinion of the commission for the proper administration and enforcement of this chapter and the performance of its duties.

74899. The commission shall keep accurate books, records, and accounts of all of its dealings, which shall be subject to an annual audit by an auditing firm selected by the commission with the concurrence of the director. A summary of the audit shall be made a part of an annual report to all producers, copies of which shall also be submitted to the Legislature and the department. In addition, the director may, as he or she determines necessary, conduct or cause to be conducted a fiscal and compliance audit of the commission.

74900. The commission may engage in market development and market research through plans and programs to enhance the sale of California winegrapes and winegrape products for the purpose of maintaining existing markets and creating new and larger domestic and foreign markets, and to educate and instruct the public with respect to the uses and value of California winegrapes and winegrape products. However, any plans and programs so developed and conducted shall not be directed towards a particular private brand or trade name, although private brands and trade names may be used in wine tastings and other similar programs authorized by the commission. In addition, the plans and programs shall make no use of false or unwarranted claims on behalf of California winegrapes or winegrape products, nor disparage the quality, value, sale, or use of any commodity. The commission shall not engage in collective bargaining issues, supply control, grades and quality standards, or price setting activities.

74901. The commission may accept contributions of private, state, or federal funds that may be available for these purposes, and may allocate funds by contract or agreement to other persons or to state or federal agencies conducting this research.

74902. The commission may undertake appropriate research relating to the production and processing of winegrapes, including the development of new winegrape products and uses for these products.

74903. The commission may publish and distribute bulletins or other communications relating to the California winegrape industry.

74904. The commission may establish an assessment rate to defray operating costs of the commission.

74905. The commission may establish an annual budget according to accepted accounting practices. The budget shall be concurred in by the director prior to disbursement of funds, except for disbursements made pursuant to Section 74896.

74906. The commission shall submit to the director, for his or her concurrence, an annual statement of contemplated activities authorized pursuant to this chapter.

74907. The commission may investigate and prosecute civil violations of this chapter and file complaints with appropriate law enforcement agencies or officers for suspected criminal violations of this chapter.

74908. The director may require that any contract in which the commission is a party be submitted to him or her for concurrence prior to the commission entering into the contract. If the director requires the submission of a contract and does not concur in that contract, he or she shall hold a public hearing within 14 days of the initial decision not to concur. In the notice of the hearing, the director shall present a written explanation of his or her decision. The director shall make a final decision on whether or not to concur in the contract within 30 days of the hearing. The contract may not be executed from the time that the director makes the initial decision not to concur to the time of the final decision.

Article 5. Implementation and Voting Procedures

- 74921. This chapter, except as necessary to conduct an implementation referendum, shall not become operative until the director finds, in a referendum conducted by him or her, or a person designated by the director, that a favorable vote has been given pursuant to this article.
- 74922. (a) Not later than April 1, 1987, the director shall establish a list of producers who are eligible to vote on implementation of this chapter. In establishing the lists, the director may require producers, vintners, county agricultural commissioners, and others to submit the names and mailing addresses of all producers. The director also may require that the information provided include the quantity of winegrapes sold to vintners and the quantity of winegrapes processed by vintners or, in the alternative, may establish procedures for receiving the information at the time of the referendum. The request for this information shall be in writing. The information required by the director shall be filed within 30 days following receipt of the written notice.
- (b) Any producer whose name does not appear on the director's lists may have his or her name included on the appropriate list by filing with the director a signed statement identifying himself or herself as a producer or vintner. Failure to be on the appropriate list does not exempt any producer from paying assessments under this chapter.
- 74923. In determining whether this chapter is applicable to growers, the director must find that at least 40 percent of the total number of growers from the list established by the director participated in the referendum, and that either one of the following has occurred:
- (a) Sixty-five percent or more of the growers who voted in the referendum voted in favor of this chapter, and the growers so voting marketed a majority of the volume of winegrapes in the preceding marketing season, or in the current marketing season if the harvest is completed prior to the vote, by all the producers who voted in the referendum.
  - (b) A majority of the growers who voted in the referendum voted in favor of this chapter, and the growers so voting marketed 65 percent or more of the volume of winegrapes in the preceding marketing season, or in the current marketing season if the harvest is completed prior to the vote, by all the producers who voted in the referendum.

74924. The director shall establish a period in which to conduct the referendum which shall not be less than 10 days nor more than 60 days in duration, and may prescribe additional procedures to conduct the referendum. If the initial period established is less than 60 days, the director may extend the period. However, the total referendum period may not exceed 60 days.

74925. Nonreceipt of a ballot shall not invalidate a referendum. 74926. If the director finds that a favorable vote has not been given as provided in this chapter, he or she shall certify and declare this chapter inoperative. If the director finds that a favorable vote has been given as provided in this chapter, he or she shall certify and give notice of the favorable vote to all producers and vintners whose names and addresses may be on file with the director.

74927. Upon certification of the commission, the producer members and their alternate members who are then serving on the California Wine and Winegrape Improvement Program made effective by the director on August 21, 1984, shall become the initial members and alternate members of the commission.

74928. Subsequent to the action taken pursuant to Section 74927, persons to be elected to the commission upon expiration of existing terms shall be selected pursuant to the nomination and election procedures established by the commission with the concurrence of the director.

- 74929. (a) Prior to the implementation referendum conducted by the director, the proponents of the commission shall deposit with the director the amount that the director deems necessary to defray the expenses in creating the commission, including, but not limited to, preparing the necessary producer and vintner lists and conducting the referendum.
- (b) Any funds remaining after paying expenses shall be returned to the proponents of the commission who deposited the funds with the director.
- (c) The commission may reimburse the proponents of the commission for any funds deposited with the director which were used in carrying out this article and for any legal expenses and costs incurred in establishing the commission.

Article 6. Assessments and Records

- 74951. (a) Prior to the beginning of each marketing season or as soon thereafter as possible, the commission shall establish an assessment rate for the marketing season.
- (b) The assessment rate for producers shall not exceed 1 percent of the gross dollar value of winegrapes marketed by producers to vintners. If a producer sells winegrapes for a specified sum in a bona fide sale, the gross dollar amount of this sum is the gross dollar value of the winegrapes.

74952. Any producer, or producer who is also a vintner, who contracts or otherwise arranges for the processing of his or her winegrapes and retains ownership of the processed product during the marketing season shall pay the producer assessment. The "weighted average producer returns per ton" by district as published in the most recent Final Grape Crush Report issued annually for the current marketing season by the department shall be used as the basis for determining product gross dollar value and the assessment.

74953. This chapter shall not apply to winegrapes produced only for a producer's home use. However, any producer claiming this exemption shall file an affidavit with the commission establishing the manner in which the winegrapes are used. The commission shall then determine whether the affidavit should be approved.

74954. Every producer subject to this chapter shall keep a complete and accurate record of their operations. The records shall be in simple form and contain information as the commission shall prescribe. The records shall be preserved for a period of two years and shall be offered and submitted for inspection at any reasonable time upon written demand of the commission or its duly authorized agent.

74955. All proprietary information obtained by the commission or the director from producers or vintners, and all lists of producers and vintners in the possession of the commission or the director are confidential and shall not be disclosed except when required in a judicial proceeding. Information on volume shipments, commodity value, and other related information which is required for reports to governmental agencies; financial reports made to the commission or aggregate sales and inventory information; and any other information which is requested from the commission excluding individual producer or vintner information, may be disclosed by the commission.

74956. Any assessment levied by the commission, pursuant to this chapter, is a personal debt of every person so assessed and is due and payable in a time and manner prescribed by the commission. Failure of a vintner to collect the assessment from a producer shall not exempt the vintner from liability nor relieve the producer of the obligation to pay the assessment.

74957. Any person who fails to file a return, or remit or pay any assessment within the time required by the commission shall pay to the commission a penalty of 10 percent of the amount of the assessment determined to be due and, in addition, 1½ percent interest per month on the unpaid balance.

Article 7. Actions and Penalties

- 74971. It is unlawful for any person to do any of the following:
- (a) Willfully render or furnish a false report, statement, or record required by the commission.
- (b) When engaged in the marketing, processing, or other activities related to winegrapes, to fail or refuse to furnish the commission or its duly authorized agents, information concerning the name and address of the persons to whom winegrapes were delivered or from whom winegrapes have been received.
- (c) Secrete, destroy, or alter records required to be maintained under this chapter.
- 74972. The commission shall establish procedures for the purpose of according individuals aggrieved by its acts or determinations an informal hearing. Appeals from decisions of the commission may be made to the director. The determination of the director shall be subject to judicial review upon petition filed with the appropriate superior court. Pending disposition of any appeal and judicial review, the parties shall abide by the acts or determinations of the commission.
- 74973. (a) The commission may commence civil action and utilize all remedies provided in law or equity for the collection of assessments and civil penalties and the obtaining of injunctive relief or specific performance regarding this chapter and the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter.
- (b) Upon entry of any final judgment on behalf of the commission against any defendant, the court shall enjoin the defendant from conducting any type of business regarding the commodity subject to this chapter until there is full compliance and satisfaction of the judgment. Upon a favorable verdict for the commission, it shall be entitled to receive reimbursement for any reasonable attorney's fees and other actual related costs. Venue may be established at the domicile or place of business of the defendant or in the county of the principal office of the commission. The commission may be sued only in the county of its principal office.
- 74974. Suspension or termination of this chapter in accordance with Article 8 (commencing with Section 74991) shall not result in any of the following:
- (a) Affecting, waiving, or termination of any right, duty, obligation, or liability which may have arisen or may thereafter arise in connection with this chapter.
- (b) Releasing, condoning, or dismissal of any violation of this chapter.

Article 8. Continuation or Suspension and Termination

74991. Between July 1, 1991, and June 30, 1992, inclusive, the commission shall cause a referendum to be conducted among producers in the manner specified in Section 74922 to determine whether this chapter shall be reapproved and continued in effect. A favorable vote shall be found if the director determines from the referendum that a majority of the eligible producers who voted in the referendum voted in favor of continuing the operations of this chapter. If the director finds that a favorable vote has been given to continue a producer commission, he or she shall so certify and this chapter or the appropriate portions thereof shall remain in effect. If the director finds that a favorable vote has not been given, he or she shall so certify and declare the operations of this chapter suspended upon expiration of the marketing season. No bond or security shall be required for any such referendum.

74992. Following a favorable referendum conducted prior to June 30, 1992, a referendum shall be conducted by the commission every fifth year thereafter unless a referendum is conducted as a result of a petition pursuant to this article. In that case, the referendum shall be every fifth year following the industry petitioned referendum following procedures provided in this article.

- 74993. (a) Upon a finding by a two-thirds vote of the commission that this chapter has not tended to effectuate its declared purposes, the commission may recommend to the director that this chapter be suspended. However, any suspension shall not become effective until the expiration of the current marketing season.
- (b) Alternatively, the director may be petitioned to suspend this chapter. The petition must be signed by 20 percent of the producers by number who produced not less than 20 percent of the volume of winegrapes in the immediately preceding marketing season. The director shall hold a hearing on the petition after receiving it.
- (c) The director shall, upon receipt of the recommendation to suspend this chapter from the commission, or may, after holding the hearing on the petition to suspend this chapter, hold a referendum among producers to determine if the commission shall be suspended. However, the director shall not hold a referendum as a result of the petition unless the petitioner shows by the weight of evidence that this chapter has not tended to effectuate its declared purposes.
- (d) The director shall establish a referendum period, which shall not be less than 10 days nor more than 60 days in duration. The director may prescribe additional procedures as may be necessary to conduct the referendum. At the close of the referendum period, the director shall tabulate the ballots filed during the period. If at least 40 percent of the total number of producers from the lists established by the director participate in the referendum, the director shall suspend this chapter if he or she finds either of the following has occurred:
- (1) Sixty-five percent or more of the producers who voted in the referendum, voted in favor of suspension; and the producers so voting marketed a majority of the total quantity of winegrapes marketed in the preceding marketing season by all of the producers who participated in the referendum.
  - (2) A majority of the producers who voted in the referendum voted in favor of suspension; and the producers so voting marketed 65 percent or more of the total quantity of winegrapes marketed in the preceding marketing season by all of the producers who voted in the referendum.

- 74994. (a) The director shall terminate the commission at the end of the current marketing season if the director finds that termination is requested in writing, within a 90-day period, by at least 51 percent of the eligible producers that are directly affected that market at least 51 percent of the volume of the product.
- (b) The person or persons originating the request shall file a written notice with the director in a manner that establishes the date the request is initiated. Any person may withdraw his or her name from the petition requesting the termination prior to the time the request is presented to the director.
- (c) The signatures to the petition requesting termination need not all be appended to one sheet of paper. Each person signing the petition shall add his or her signature and business address. If no business address is given, a designation of the place of business shall be given which will enable the location to be readily ascertained.
- (d) The petition shall bear a copy of the notice of intention. Signatures shall be secured within the time limit specified in this section.
- 74995. After the effective date of suspension of this chapter, the operations of the commission shall be concluded and any and all funds remaining held by the commission and not required to defray the expenses of concluding and terminating the commission shall be returned on a pro rata basis to all persons from whom assessments were collected in the immediately preceding marketing season. However, if the commission finds that the amounts so returnable are so small as to make impractical the computation and remitting of the pro rata refund to these persons, any funds shall be paid into an appropriate program conducted by the University of California or the California State University, another state agency, or a federal agency which deals with the purposes of this chapter. If no program exists, the funds shall be paid into the State Treasury as unclaimed trust funds.

74996. Upon suspension of this chapter, the commission shall mail a copy of the notice of suspension to all producers and vintners affected by the suspension whose names and addresses are on file.

SEC. 5. It is the intent of the Legislature that the addition of Section 74908 to the Food and Agricultural Code, as proposed in Section 2 of this act, the addition of Section 74608 to the Food and Agricultural Code, as proposed in Section 3 of this act, and the addition of Section 74908 to the Food and Agricultural Code, as proposed in Section 4 of this act, are intended to apply only to the Winegrowers of California Commission, as proposed to be added by Section 1 of Senate Bill 2048 of the 1985–86 Regular Session, the California Wine Commission, as added by Section 3 of this act, and the California Winegrape Growers Commission, as added by Section

4 of this act, respectively. These sections are not intended to apply to any other agricultural commissions presently in operation or to be created in the future.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1288

An act to add Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 5085) to Title 7 of Part 3 of the Penal Code, relating to corrections, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 5085) is added to Title 7 of Part 3 of the Penal Code, to read:

CHAPTER 3.5. THE ROBERT B. PRESLEY INSTITUTE OF CORRECTIONS RESEARCH AND TRAINING

- 5085. (a) There is hereby created in state government the Robert B. Presley Institute of Corrections Research and Training, hereafter referred to as "the institute" for the purpose of developing and enhancing research, education, and training for corrections personnel within the youth and adult corrections system in California.
- (b) The Legislature declares that the institute shall research and recommend short-term and long-term approaches to address the following:
- (1) Identify the methods and practices necessary for the most beneficial operation of the state's correctional institutions.
- (2) Reduce prison, jail, and youth facility violence and recidivism rates.
- (3) Ensure that California remains the nationwide leader in modern, humane, secure, and efficient correctional systems.
- (4) Review current educational and training practices for correctional staff and recommend new curricula and training regimens intended to enhance the professionalism, expertise, and effectiveness of these personnel.
  - 5085.5. The Legislature further finds and declares the following:
  - (a) That the Department of Corrections and the Department of the Youth Authority require assistance in improving methods for the training and education of adult and youth corrections line employees, supervisors, managers, and directors.

(b) That there is a need for theoretical and applied research in the subjects of the following:

- (1) Correctional facility management, planning, design, and construction.
  - (2) Inmate diagnosis, classification, and treatment.
  - (3) Staff security and inmate discipline.
- (4) Ward and inmate vocational training, and development of job skills for their permanent civilian employment.
  - (5) Correctional facility overcrowding.
  - (6) Prison, jail, and street gang activity.
- (7) Safe, secure, and cost-effective incarceration in California's correctional institutions.
- (8) New approaches to inmate and ward rehabilitation during and after incarceration.
- (9) New methods to reduce the recidivism and the consequent victimization of California citizens.

5086. The institute shall be governed by a 16-member board of trustees, hereafter referred to as "the board", which shall consult with the governing body of the University of California, the governing bodies of California State University and the California community colleges. The institute shall also consult with the Governor and the Legislature on matters related to corrections research, education, and training.

5087. The board shall be composed of 15 voting members. The members shall be selected from persons with experience or education in the fields of corrections, correctional training, criminal justice, criminal law, sociology, public health, architecture, urban planning, mental health, public protection, political science, psychology, or psychiatry. The Director of Corrections and the Director of the Youth Authority shall serve as ex officio voting members of the board. The Chairperson of the Board of the National Institute of Corrections or his or her designee, shall serve as an ex officio nonvoting member or the board.

5088. The Governor shall appoint six members of the board, one of whom shall be designated by the Governor as chairperson. The Speaker of the Assembly and the Senate Rules Committee shall each appoint two members of the board. The governing bodies of the University of California, California State University, and the California community colleges shall each appoint one member of the board.

5088.5. The three members first appointed by the Governor shall serve for a period of three years and the other three members for a period of two years. The one member first appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly and the Senate Rules Committee shall serve for a period of three years and the other member for a period of two years. The members first appointed by the governing bodies of the University of California, the California State University, and the California community colleges shall serve for a period of three years. Thereafter, all appointments shall be for a period of four years.

- 5089. (a) In the event of a vacancy due to resignation, death, removal by the appointing authority pursuant to subdivision (b), or expiration of term of appointed office, the appointing authority shall fill the vacancy following receipt of written notification from the board that a vacancy has occurred.
- (b) Vacancies shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term. The appointing authority may remove any member of the board disqualified by reason of neglect of any duty required by law, or for incompetency, or dishonorable conduct.
- (c) The board shall meet regularly at least four times during each year with at least one meeting each year to be held in a geographic location readily available to a large segment of the population of California. The board shall hold extra meetings as necessary on the call of the chairperson or a majority of the voting members of the board. Eight voting members of the board constitute a quorum. The vote of a majority of the voting members of the board is necessary for the transaction of the business of the board.
- 5090. (a) The board shall have the authority to appoint such technical and other advisory committees as it deems necessary to achieve the mandate of the institute as intended by the Legislature. The appointed members of the technical and other advisory committees appointed by the board shall be reimbursed for travel and other expenses at the rates allowed to state employees but shall otherwise serve without compensation.
- (b) The board shall have the authority to hire an executive director, obtain services of legal counsel, and employ such other staff as necessary to carry out the purposes of the institute. The board shall fix the compensation of all employed staff members in accordance with law. The executive director shall serve at the pleasure of the board and is exempt from civil service.
- 5091. It is the intent of the Legislature that beginning January 1, 1987, the institute shall do all of the following:
- (a) Finance research on issues of interest to state and local correctional agencies, universities, colleges, and other academic or corrections research institutions. The board shall receive and assign priority to research requests from correctional agencies, the Legislature and others. With respect to assigning priority to research requests, the board shall give preference to research tasks beyond the ordinary capability of in-house agency research divisions.
- (b) Establish a clearinghouse for correctional information and research and disseminate material of interest, including the results of institute-financed research, to correctional practitioners, the Legislature, universities, colleges, courts, and the public.
- (c) Sponsor seminars in which experts and theoreticians from various fields relevant to correctional practice may interact for the purpose of assisting the conduct of California corrections.

- (d) Address the underlying assumptions of our penal system including the prevention of violence, protection of public safety, safe, secure, and cost-effective incarceration, and the reintegration of offenders into society.
- 5092. On or before March 1, 1988, the institute shall develop a detailed and specific program for implementation by the Legislature, the Department of Corrections, and the Department of the Youth Authority that establishes a career path, which is integrated with an educational and training regimen for all youth and adult state corrections personnel in California. This program shall recommend specific actions to improve the job and career competence of state youth and adult corrections personnel and to encourage and foster the attainment of postsecondary educational degrees by correctional officers. Any minimum training and education standards recommended shall include standards for entry, basic, intermediate, advanced, supervisory, management, and specialized corrections personnel.
- 5093. It is the intent of the Legislature that a permanent home for the institute be established on or in the immediate vicinity of the Riverside campus of the University of California.
- 5094. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature to encourage the board to seek funding for necessary training, education, and research projects from the Legislature, the state college and university systems, private colleges and universities, foundations, the federal government, and other sources deemed appropriate by the board.
- (b) The executive director shall, subject to review and approval of the board, negotiate the terms, services, and costs of contracts and research projects consistent with funds available. The board shall approve contracts negotiated by the executive director and shall retain legal counsel for purposes of contract review.
- (c) Consistent with the funds available, the executive shall obtain all necessary office space, equipment, supplies, and services he or she deems necessary for the institute to perform its mandated duties.
- 5095. The board members shall receive per diem, travel, and other expenses while employed by the state to carry out the function of the institute. Per diem shall be one hundred dollars ($100) for each day engaged in the performance of the duties of the institute pursuant to this chapter. Travel and other expenses shall be reimbursed at rates allowed to state employees.
- 5096. The sum of one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the institute for the purposes of this act.

CHAPTER 1289

An act to amend Sections 11165.5, 11166, and 11167 of the Penal Code, relating to abuse.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11165.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

- 11165.5. (a) As used in Sections 11165 and 11166.5, "child care custodian," in addition to the persons specified therein, means an instructional aide, a teacher's aide, or a teacher's assistant employed by any public or private school, who has been trained in the duties imposed by this article, if the school district has so warranted to the State Department of Education. It also includes a classified employee of any public school who has been trained in the duties imposed by this article if the school has so warranted to the State Department of Education.
- (b) Training in the duties imposed by this article shall include training in child abuse identification and training in child abuse reporting. As part of that training, school districts shall provide to all employees being trained a written copy of the reporting requirements and a written disclosure of the employees' confidentiality rights.
  - SEC. 2. Section 11166 of the Penal Code is amended to read:
- 11166. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), any child care custodian, medical practitioner, nonmedical practitioner, or employee of a child protective agency who has knowledge of or observes a child in his or her professional capacity or within the scope of his or her employment whom he or she knows or reasonably suspects has been the victim of child abuse shall report the known or suspected instance of child abuse to a child protective agency immediately or as soon as practically possible by telephone and shall prepare and send a written report thereof within 36 hours of receiving the information concerning the incident. For the purposes of this article, "reasonable suspicion" means that it is objectively reasonable for a person to entertain such a suspicion, based upon facts that could cause a reasonable person in a like position, drawing when appropriate on his or her training and experience, to suspect child abuse.
- (b) Any child care custodian, medical practitioner, nonmedical practitioner, or employee of a child protective agency who has knowledge of or who reasonably suspects that mental suffering has been inflicted on a child or his or her emotional well-being is endangered in any other way, may report such known or suspected instance of child abuse to a child protective agency.

- (c) Any commercial film and photographic print processor who has knowledge of or observes, within the scope of his or her professional capacity or employment, any film, photograph, video tape, negative or slide depicting a child under the age of 14 years engaged in an act of sexual conduct, shall report such instance of suspected child abuse to the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the case immediately or as soon as practically possible by telephone and shall prepare and send a written report of it with a copy of the film, photograph, video tape, negative or slide attached within 36 hours of receiving the information concerning the incident. As used in this subdivision, "sexual conduct" means any of the following:
- (1) Sexual intercourse, including genital-genital, oral-genital, anal-genital, or oral-anal, whether between persons of the same or opposite sex or between humans and animals.
  - (2) Penetration of the vagina or rectum by any object.
- (3) Masturbation, for the purpose of sexual stimulation of the viewer.
- (4) Sadomasochistic abuse for the purpose of sexual stimulation of the viewer.
- (5) Exhibition of the genitals, pubic or rectal areas of any person for the purpose of sexual stimulation of the viewer.
- (d) Any other person who has knowledge of or observes a child whom he or she knows or reasonably suspects has been a victim of child abuse may report the known or suspected instance of child abuse to a child protective agency.
- (e) When two or more persons who are required to report are present and jointly have knowledge of a known or suspected instance of child abuse, and when there is agreement among them, the telephone report may be made by a member of the team selected by mutual agreement and a single report may be made and signed by such selected member of the reporting team. Any member who has knowledge that the member designated to report has failed to do so, shall thereafter make the report.
- (f) The reporting duties under this section are individual, and no supervisor or administrator may impede or inhibit the reporting duties and no person making such a report shall be subject to any sanction for making the report. However, internal procedures to facilitate reporting and apprise supervisors and administrators of reports may be established provided that they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this article.

The internal procedures shall not require any employee required to make reports by this article to disclose his or her identity to the employer.

(g) A county probation or welfare department shall immediately or as soon as practically possible report by telephone to the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the case, to the agency given the responsibility for investigation of cases under Section 300 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and to the district attorney's office every known or suspected instance of child abuse as defined in Section 11165, except acts or omissions coming within the provisions of paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 11165, which shall only be reported to the county welfare department. A county probation or welfare department shall also send a written report thereof within 36 hours of receiving the information concerning the incident to any agency to which it is required to make a telephone report under this subdivision.

A law enforcement agency shall immediately or as soon as practically possible report by telephone to the county welfare department, the agency given responsibility for investigation of cases under Section 300 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and to the district attorney's office every known or suspected instance of child abuse reported to it, except acts or omissions coming within the provisions of paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 11165, which shall only be reported to the county welfare department. A law enforcement agency shall also send a written report thereof within 36 hours of receiving the information concerning the incident to any agency to which it is required to make a telephone report under this subdivision.

- SEC. 3. Section 11167 of the Penal Code is amended to read:
- 11167. (a) A telephone report of a known or suspected instance of child abuse shall include the name of the person making the report, the name of the child, the present location of the child, the nature and extent of the injury, and any other information, including information that led that person to suspect child abuse, requested by the child protective agency.
- (b) Information relevant to the incident of child abuse may also be given to an investigator from a child protective agency who is investigating the known or suspected case of child abuse.
- (c) The identity of all persons who report under this article shall be confidential and disclosed only between child protective agencies, or to counsel representing a child protective agency, or to the district attorney in a criminal prosecution or in an action initiated under Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code arising from alleged child abuse, or to counsel appointed pursuant to Section 318 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or to the county counsel or district attorney in an action initiated under Section 232 of the Civil Code or Section 300 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or to a licensing agency when abuse in out-of-home care is reasonably suspected, or when those persons waive confidentiality, or by court order.

No agency or person listed in this subdivision shall disclose the identity of any person who reports under this article to that person's employer, except with the employee's consent or by court order.

- (d) Persons who may report pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 11166 are not required to include their names.
- SEC. 4. Reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code and, if the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

CHAPTER 1290

An act to add Section 66787.6 to the Government Code, to add Division 12.1 (commencing with Section 14500) to, and to repeal Sections 14530.5 and 14585 of, the Public Resources Code, and to add Sections 17153.5, 19278, and 24315 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to beverage containers, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 66787.6 is added to the Government Code, to read:

- 66787.6. (a) A local agency shall not deny a permit for the operation of a mobile recycling unit or reverse vending machine, which is certified, or has applied to be certified, as a recycling location pursuant to Division 12.1 (commencing with Section 14500) of the Public Resources Code, on private property located in an area that is zoned for commercial or industrial uses, and is located within, or to be located within, a convenience zone, if the operator of the mobile recycling unit or reverse vending machine submits written certification from the property owner granting permission to operate on that property from the property owner, unless the local agency specifically finds, and states its reasons for finding, that this operation will have a detrimental effect on public health, safety, or general welfare. If the certificate is revoked pursuant to Section 14541 of the Public Resources Code, the local agency permit shall automatically expire.
- (b) Consistent with subdivision (a), a local agency may adopt reasonable rules and regulations, which are not inconsistent with Sections 14570 and 14571 of the Public Resources Code, concerning the operation of mobile recycling units and reverse vending machines, including, but not limited to, specifying the times and frequencies of operations and the posting of appropriate signs.
- (c) For purposes of this section, "mobile recycling unit" means a properly licensed automobile, truck, trailer, or van which is used for the collection of recyclable material such as aluminum, glass, plastic, and paper.
  - (d) For purposes of this section, "reverse vending machine" has the same meaning as in Section 14525.5 of the Public Resources Code.

(e) For purposes of this section, "convenience zone" has the same meaning as in Section 14509.4 of the Public Resources Code.

SEC. 2. Division 12.1 (commencing with Section 14500) is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

DIVISION 12.1. CALIFORNIA BEVERAGE CONTAINER RECYCLING AND LITTER REDUCTION ACT

CHAPTER 1. FINDINGS

- 14500. This division shall be known and may be cited as the California Beverage Container Recycling and Litter Reduction Act. 14501. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:
- (a) Experience in this state and others demonstrates that financial incentives and convenient return systems assure the efficient and large-scale recycling of beverage containers. Accordingly, it is the intent of the Legislature to encourage increased, and more convenient, beverage container redemption opportunities for all consumers. These redemption opportunities shall consist of dealer and other shopping center locations, independent and industry operated recycling centers, curbside programs, nonprofit dropoff programs, and other recycling systems that assure all consumers, in every region of the state, the opportunity to return beverage containers conveniently, efficiently, and economically.
- (b) California grocery, beer, soft drink, container manufacturing, labor, agriculture, consumer, environmental, government, citizen, recreational, taxpayer, and recycling groups have joined together in calling for an innovative program to generate large-scale redemption and recycling of beverage containers.
- (c) This division establishes a beverage container recycling goal of 80 percent, and when the redemption rate for any one type of beverage container falls below 65 percent, the act provides for an increased redemption value.
- (d) It is the intent of the Legislature to ensure that every container type proves its own recyclability.
- (e) It is the intent of the Legislature to make redemption and recycling convenient to consumers, and the Legislature hereby urges cities and counties, when exercising their zoning authority, to act favorably on the siting of multimaterial recycling centers, reverse vending machines, mobile recycling units, or other types of recycling opportunities, as necessary for consumer convenience, and the overall success of litter abatement and beverage container recycling in the state.
- (f) The purpose of this chapter is to create and maintain a marketplace where it is profitable to establish sufficient recycling centers and locations to provide consumers with convenient recycling opportunities through the establishment of minimum redemption values, bonuses, processing fees, and, through the proper application of these elements, to enhance the profitability of recycling centers, recycling locations, and other beverage container recycling programs.

- (g) The responsibility to provide convenient, efficient, and economical redemption opportunities rests jointly with manufacturers, distributors, dealers, recyclers, processors, and the Department of Conservation.
- (h) It is the intent of the Legislature, in enacting this division, that all empty beverage containers redeemed shall be recycled, and that the responsibilities and regulations of the department shall be determined and implemented in a manner which favors the recycling of redeemed containers, as opposed to their disposal.
- (i) Nothing in this division shall be interpreted as affecting the current business practices of scrap dealers or recycling centers, except that, to the extent they function as a recycling center or processor, they shall do so in accordance with this division.
- (j) The program established by this division will contribute significantly to the reduction of the beverage container component of litter in this state.
- 14501.5. This division does not apply to any beverage container which is sold and delivered to a railroad, sleeping car, or steamship company, or common carrier operating vessels, as defined in Section 238 of the Public Utilities Code, operating under a certificate of public convenience and necessity, or an air common carrier, for use and consumption on trains, vessels, or airplanes.

CHAPTER 2. DEFINITIONS

- 14502. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions in this chapter govern the construction of this division.
- 14503. "Aluminum beverage container" means a beverage container which consists primarily of aluminum.
- 14504. "Beverage" means beer and other malt beverages, carbonated mineral and soda waters, and similar carbonated soft drinks in liquid form which are intended for human consumption.
- 14505. "Beverage container" means the individual, separate bottle, can, jar, carton, or other receptacle, however denominated, in which a beverage is sold, and which is constructed of metal, glass, or plastic, or other material, or any combination of these materials. "Beverage container" does not include cups or other similar open or loosely sealed receptacles.
- 14506. "Beverage manufacturer" means any person who bottles, cans, or otherwise fills beverage containers, or imports filled beverage containers, for sale to distributors, dealers, or consumers.
- 14507. "Committee" means the Beverage Container Recycling Advisory Committee established pursuant to Section 14531.
- 14507.5. "Community Conservation Corps" means a nonprofit public benefit corporation formed or operating pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 5110) of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, or an agency operated by a city, or city and county, which is certified by the California Conservation Corps as meeting all of the following criteria:

- (a) The corps consists of not less than 60 corpsmembers organized in the form of supervised work crews and selects young men and women for participation on the basis of the criteria specifed in Section 14302.
- (b) The corps' program is based upon a highly disciplined work experience, includes an educational component, and is designed to develop corpsmembers' character and civic consciousness through rigorous work on public projects.
- (c) The corps compensates corpsmembers at not less than the federal minimum wage, and provides corpsmembers assistance in obtaining permanent employment following their participation in the corps program.
- (d) The corps engages in recycling and litter abatement projects as well as projects which accomplish the conservationist and other purposes described in subdivisions (a) to (h), inclusive, of Section 14300, and which assist agencies of local government and other nonprofit community organizations in developing, rehabilitating, and restoring parklands, recreational facilities, and other community resources.
- 14508. "Consumer" means every person who, for his or her use or consumption, purchases a beverage in a beverage container from a dealer. "Consumer" includes, but is not limited to, a lodging, eating, or drinking establishment, and soft drink vending machines.
- 14509. "Container manufacturer" means any person who produces beverage containers for filling by beverage manufacturers, including any person who imports these beverage containers from outside of this state for filling by beverage manufacturers.
- 14509.2. "Convenience incentive payment" means a special payment on a per container or by weight basis for a fixed period of time, as determined by the department, as an incentive to current or potential recycling centers to establish a recycling center or location meeting the requirements of Section 14571.
  - 14509.4. "Convenience zone" means all of the following:
  - (a) The area within a one-half mile radius of a supermarket.
- (b) A zone designated by the department pursuant to Section 14571.1 in underserved areas with no supermarket. The department shall identify supermarket locations only for the purpose of providing a reference point in the establishment of convenience zones. The department shall not designate convenience zones in the state with a statewide ratio greater than one convenience zone per 10,000 residents in nonrural underserved areas, or greater than one convenience zone per 7,000 residents in rural underserved areas. The recycling location in underserved areas shall be located within one mile of a dealer. In designating convenience zones in underserved areas, the department shall not designate zones which would require establishment of recycling centers or locations in areas adjacent to, and conveniently accessible to, established convenience zones.

- 14509.5. "Curbside program" means a recycling program which meets all of the following criteria:
  - (a) The program picks up recyclables from individual residences.
- (b) The program is operated by, or pursuant to a contract with, a city, county, or other public agency.
- (c) The program accepts empty beverage containers from consumers with the intent to recycle them, but does not pay the redemption value or redemption bonus.
- 14510. "Dealer" means every person in this state, other than a lodging, eating, or drinking establishment, or soft drink vending machine operator, who engages in the sale of beverages in beverage containers to consumers.
  - 14510.5. "Department" means the Department of Conservation. 14510.6. "Director" means the Director of Conservation.
- 14511. "Distributor" means every person who engages in the sale of beverages in beverage containers to a dealer in this state, including any manufacturer who engages in these sales. "Distributor" includes any person who imports beverages from outside of this state for sale to dealers or consumers in this state.
- 14511.5. "Drink" means fruit juice or any other noncarbonated drink.
- 14511.7. "Dropoff or collection program" means any person, association, nonprofit corporation, church, club, or other organization which meets the requirements of this division as determined by the department, and which accepts or collects empty beverage containers from consumers with the intention to recycle them, but is not certified by the department and does not pay consumers the redemption value or redemption bonus. "Dropoff or collection program" does not include a certified recycling center, nonprofit dropoff program, or curbside program.
- 14512. "Empty beverage container" means a beverage container which meets all of the following requirements:
- (a) Has the seal or closure installed by the manufacturer broken or removed.
- (b) Does not contain foreign materials other than the residue of the beverage originally packaged in the beverage container by the manufacturer.
- (c) Bears the message required by Section 14561, or is a refillable beverage container.
- (d) Has a redemption value established pursuant to Section 14560. 14512.5. "Food or drink packaging material" means any material which is not a beverage container in which a food or drink is sold in a retail establishment and the food or drink is not intended for consumption on the seller's premises.
- 14512.6. "For recycling" means that an empty beverage container has been received by a processor who has an arrangement whereby that container will actually be recycled.

- 14513. "Glass beverage container" means a beverage container which has a body consisting primarily of glass.
- 14514. "Nonaluminum metal beverage container" means a beverage container which consists of one or more metals but which is not an aluminum beverage container.
- 14514.5. "Nonprofit dropoff program" means a recycling program which meets all of the following criteria:
- (a) The program is organized under Section 501(c) or Section 501(d) of the Internal Revenue Code (26 U.S.C. Sec. 501(c), 501(d)), or operated by, or caused to be operated by, a city, county, or other public agency.
- (b) The program is certified by the department pursuant to Section 14541.5.
- (c) The program accepts empty beverage containers from consumers with the intent to recycle them, but may pay the redemption value or redemption bonus.
- 14514.6. "Not for recycling" means that an empty beverage container has been received by a processor who does not have an arrangement whereby that container will actually be recycled.
- 14515. "Other beverage container" means a beverage container which has a body consisting of metal, glass, plastic, other materials, or a combination of these, but which is not an aluminum, nonaluminum metal, glass, or plastic beverage container.
- 14516. "Place of business of the dealer" means the location at which a dealer sells, or offers for sale, beverages in beverage containers to consumers.
- 14517. "Plastic beverage container" means a beverage container which has a body consisting primarily of plastic.
- 14517.5. "Postfilled container" means any container which had been previously filled with a beverage or food.
- 14518. "Processor" means any person, including a scrap dealer, certified by the department who purchases empty aluminum beverage containers, nonaluminum metal beverage containers, glass beverage containers, plastic beverage containers, or any other beverage containers, including any one or more of those beverage containers, which have a redemption value established pursuant to this division, from recycling centers in this state for recycling, or, if the container is not recyclable, not for recycling, and who cancels, or who certifies to the department in a form prescribed by the department the cancellation of, the redemption value and redemption bonus of these empty beverage containers by processing empty beverage containers, in any manner which the department may prescribe. However, the department shall not take any action regulating scrap dealers or recycling centers who are processors or recycling centers unless authorized by and pursuant to the goals of this division.
- 14518.5. "Processing fee" means an amount paid proportionately to processors and recycling centers by the department when the department determines that the scrap value being offered by container manufacturers, beverage manufacturers, or willing purchasers for a particular container material is below the average statewide value sufficient to insure the economic recovery of the container type at the minimum number of recycling centers or locations required pursuant to Section 14571. The processing fee shall be determined by the department pursuant to Section 14575.

14519. "Recycle," "recycled," "recycling," or "recyclable" means the reuse or refilling of empty beverage containers, or the process of sorting, cleansing, treating, and reconstituting empty postfilled beverage containers for the purpose of using the altered form. "Recycle," "recycled," "recycling," or "recyclable" does not include merely sorting, shredding, stripping, compressing, storing, landfilling with, or disposing of an empty beverage container.

14520. "Recycling center" means an operation which is certified by the department and which accepts from consumers, and pays or provides the redemption value and any applicable redemption bonus pursuant to Section 14572 for, empty beverage containers intended to be recycled.

14521. "Recycling rate" means the proportion of empty beverage containers by type returned to processors for recycling, measured in the manner prescribed in Section 14551.

14522.5. "Redemption" and "redeem" means the return to a recycling center or location of an empty beverage container for a refund of at least the redemption value and any applicable redemption bonus.

14523. "Redemption bonus" means any amount paid by the department pursuant to Section 14573 for an empty beverage container in addition to the redemption value.

14523.5. "Redemption rate" means the proportion of empty beverage containers returned to processors measured in the manner prescribed in Section 14551.

14524. "Redemption value" means the minimum refundable value established for each type of beverage container pursuant to Section 14560.

14525. "Refillable beverage container" means any aluminum beverage container, nonaluminum metal beverage container, glass beverage container, plastic beverage container, or other beverage container, holding 150 fluid ounces or less of beverage, which has a minimum refund value of three cents ($0.03), and which ordinarily would be returned to the manufacturer to be refilled and resold.

14525.5. "Reverse vending machine" means a mechanical device which accepts one or more types of empty beverage containers and issues a cash refund or a redeemable credit slip with a value not less than the container's redemption value and applicable redemption bonus, if any. The bonus payments may be aggregated over more than one container and then paid.

14526. "Scrap value" means the price paid to a processor by a willing purchaser of empty beverage containers after shipping and handling costs are deducted.

14526.5. "Supermarket" means a full-line, self-service retail store with gross annual sales of two million dollars ($2,000,000), or more, and which sells a line of dry grocery, canned goods, or nonfood items and some perishable items. For purposes of this division, the department shall use the Progressive Grocer 1986 Marketing Guidebook data to identify supermarkets. The department shall amend the list by reference to the 1986 and subsequent editions of the guidebook as long as the guidebook is published at least annually and provides an accurate listing of supermarkets with gross annual sales of two million dollars ($2,000,000) or more.

14527. "Use or consumption" includes the exercise of any right or power over a beverage incidental to the beverage's ownership, including, but not limited to, drinking the beverage. "Use or consumption" does not include the sale, or the keeping or retention, of a beverage for the purposes of sale.

14528. "Universal product code" is an 11-digit, all-numeric code that represents a beverage container or other consumer package of a particular brand, size, type, and manufacturer by using a series of alternating bars and spaces for electronic scanning.

14529. This division is a matter of statewide interest and concern and is applicable uniformly throughout the state. Accordingly, this division occupies the whole field of regulation of recycling-related refund or redemption values, deposits, and similar fees relating to beverage containers, as provided in this division. No city, county, or other public agency may enforce or implement any existing or new ordinance, resolution, regulation, or rule establishing recycling-related refund or redemption values, deposits, or similar fees relating to beverage containers in the state unless expressly authorized by this division. If a federal law is enacted which establishes recycling-related refund or redemption values, deposits, and similar fees, relating to beverage containers, other than a federal law only affecting federal lands, or if a state law is enacted by initiative, which establishes recycling-related refund or redemption values, deposits, and similar fees relating to beverage containers, this division shall become inoperative. This section does not prohibit the implementation or enforcement of any ordinance or regulation governing curbside or dropoff recycling programs operated by, or pursuant to a contract with, a city, county, or other public agency, including actions relating to fees, or establishing fees, for these programs.

. 14529.7. This division does not apply to any program involving the collection and payment of deposits for beverage containers sold, used, or consumed at national parks and monuments, military installations, or any other property owned by and under the iurisdiction of the United States.

CHAPTER 3. ADMINISTRATION

14530. This division shall be administered by the department. Notwithstanding Section 607, the department may, for organizational purposes, create a new division, bureau, or office to administer this division. If a new division, bureau, or office is created, any reference to "department" or "director" in this division shall be deemed to be a reference to that entity and the officer in charge of that entity.

- 14530.5. (a) For purposes of entering into contracts for consulting or advisory services necessary to implement this division, the requirements of Sections 11042 and 14615 of the Government Code and Sections 10295 and 10318 of the Public Contract Code do not apply to the activities of the department pursuant to this division.
- (b) In addition to any regulations which the department is required by statute to adopt, the department may adopt any other rules and regulations pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code which the department determines may be necessary or useful to carry out this division or any of the department's duties or responsibilities imposed pursuant to this division.
- (c) The department may prepare, publish, and issue printed pamphlets and bulletins which the director deems necessary for the dissemination of information to the public concerning the activities of the department pursuant to this division.
- (d) This section shall remain in effect until January 1, 1989, and on that date is repealed unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends that date.
- 14530.5. (a) In addition to any regulations which the department is required by statute to adopt, the department may adopt any other rules and regulations pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code which the department determines may be necessary or useful to carry out this division or any of the department's duties or responsibilities imposed pursuant to this division.

- (b) The department may prepare, publish, and issue printed pamphlets and bulletins which the director deems necessary for the dissemination of information to the public concerning the activities of the department pursuant to this division.
  - (c) This section shall become operative January 1, 1989.

14530.6. Upon the request of the department, the Attorney General shall represent the department and the state in litigation concerning affairs of the department.

14532. No member of the advisory committee shall receive a salary, but each shall be entitled to receive a sum not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) per day, as established by the department, for each day spent in actual attendance on, or in traveling to and from, meetings of the committee, together with the necessary traveling expenses and meal allowances, as approved by the department.

14533. The members of the committee are public officials for purposes of, and are subject to, Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 87100) of Title 9 of the Government Code, including, but not limited to, Article 2 (commencing with Section 87200) of that chapter.

14534. The committee shall select annually, from its membership, a chairperson.

14535. The committee shall be subject to the Bagley-Keene Open Meeting Act (Article 9 (commencing with Section 11120) of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code).

- 14536. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), the director shall adopt, amend, or repeal all rules and regulations in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.
- (b) The director shall adopt regulations, and may adopt emergency regulations for the purposes of implementing Sections 14538, 14539, 14541, 14550, and 14574.

Any emergency regulations, if adopted, shall be adopted in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and for the purposes of that chapter, including Section 11349.6 of the Government Code, the adoption of these regulations is an emergency and shall be considered by the Office of Administrative Law as necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, and general welfare. Notwithstanding Chapter 3.5

(commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, any emergency regulations adopted pursuant to this section shall be filed with, but not be repealed by, the Office of Administrative Law and shall remain in effect until revised by the director.

(c) Before adopting any regulations pursuant to this division, the director shall submit the regulations to the committee, if it has been appointed, for its review and comments.

14536.5. In carrying out the division, the department may solicit and use all expertise available in other state agencies and where an existing state agency performs functions of a similar nature to the department's functions, the department may contract with, or cooperate with, the agency in carrying out this division.

- 14537. The department shall keep accurate books, records, and accounts of all of its dealings, and these books, records, and accounts are subject to an annual audit by an auditing firm selected by the department. The auditing firm or the department shall also conduct a selective audit of entities making payments to, or receiving payments from, the department to determine whether redemption values and applicable processing fees are being paid to the department on all beverage containers sold in California, and that redemption values, redemption bonuses, and processing fees are being paid out properly by the department. The audit shall be made a part of an annual report, copies of which shall be submitted to the Governor and the Legislature.
- 14538. The department shall certify the operators of recycling centers pursuant to this section. The director shall adopt, by regulation, a procedure for the self-certification of recycling centers, including standards for certification. These regulations shall require that all information be submitted to the department under penalty of perjury. The regulations shall require, but shall not be limited to requiring, that all of the following conditions be met for certification:
- (a) The operator of the recycling centers demonstrates, to the satisfaction of the department, that the operator will operate in accordance with this division.
- (b) The operator of the recycling center shall not knowingly pay a redemption value or redemption bonus for, or receive a redemption value or redemption bonus from any processor for, any food or drink packaging material or any beverage container or other product which does not have a redemption value or redemption bonus established pursuant to Section 14560 or 14581.
- (c) The operator of a recycling center shall take those actions which satisfy the department to prevent the payment of a redemption value or redemption bonus for any food or drink packaging material or any beverage container or other product which does not have a redemption value established pursuant to Section 14560.
- (d) Unless exempted pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 14572, the operator of a recycling center shall accept, and pay at least the redemption value and applicable redemption bonus for, all empty beverage containers, regardless of type.

- (e) The operator of the recycling center shall notify the department promptly of any change in the nature of his or her operations which conflicts with information submitted in the operator's application for certification.
- (f) The operator of a recycling center shall be subject to an audit of empty beverage container redemptions by the department, in a manner determined by the department, to insure that the operator is complying with this division and all regulations adopted pursuant to this division.
- 14539. The department shall certify processors and shall require for certification that a processor demonstrate to the satisfaction of the department that the processor shall operate in accordance with this division. A processor shall not pay a redemption value or redemption bonus for, or receive a redemption value or redemption bonus from the department for, any food or drink packaging material or any beverage container or other product which does not have a redemption value established pursuant to Section 14560. A processor shall take those actions necessary and approved by the department to cancel containers to render them unfit for reredemption.
- 14540. The department may review and verify all applications for certification of recycling centers and processors, and may conduct a comprehensive field investigation of any applicant in any manner which the department deems necessary to promote the purposes of this division. This division does not prohibit the department from certifying the same location or entity as both a processor and a recycling center.
- 14541. (a) After notice and a hearing, the department may revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew a certificate granted pursuant to Section 14538 or 14539, or may impose a civil penalty on the holder of a certificate, for any one of, or any combination of, the following reasons:
- (1) The certificate holder is convicted of any crime substantially related to the qualifications, functions, and duties of a certificate holder.
- (2) The certificate holder engaged in fraud or deceit to obtain a certificate.
- (3) The certificate holder engaged in dishonesty or substantial incompetence or fraud in performing the functions and duties of a certificate holder.
- (4) The certificate holder willfully violated Section 14550, 14572, 14572.5, 14573, 14573.5, or 14575.
- (b) In making a decision pursuant to subdivision (a), the department may do any of the following:
  - (1) Immediately revoke the certificate.
- (2) Immediately suspend the certificate for a specified period of time.
  - (3) Permit the certificate holder to continue operation as a certified processor or recycling center until a specific date, at which time the revocation or suspension shall become effective.

- (4) Permit the certificate holder to continue operation as a certified processor or recycling center on condition of complying with any conditions which the department determines would further the goals of this division.
- (5) Impose a civil penalty of not more than one hundred dollars ($100) per violation. Each day that a violation occurs shall be considered a separate violation. The department shall deposit all revenues from civil penalties in the California Beverage Container Recycling Fund.
- (c) The department may examine the accounts and records of distributors and beverage manufacturers and assess a penalty of 10 percent per year and interest for underpayments of the redemption value for containers to the California Beverage Container Recycling Fund. The department may also impose a penalty of 15 percent of the amount due for payments up to a month late and a 5 percent additional penalty for each month the payments continue to be unremitted.
- (d) The department may examine the accounts and records of container manufacturers and beverage manufacturers and assess a penalty of 10 percent per year and interest for underpayments of the applicable processing fee to the California Beverage Container Recycling Fund. The department may also impose a penalty of 15 percent of the amount due for payments up to a month late and a 5 percent additional penalty for each month the payments continue to be unremitted.
- 14541.5. The department shall certify nonprofit dropoff programs which meet the requirements of this division, as determined by the department.
- 14542. On or before November 1, 1988, and on or before each November 1 thereafter, the department shall submit a report to the Governor and Legislature containing all of the following:
- (a) An analysis of the progress made during the previous year toward obtaining the recycling goal of at least 80 percent established in subdivision (c) of Section 14501.
- (b) Recommendations of other containers, if any, which, in the opinion of the department or the committee, should be considered for inclusion in this division.
- (c) A report on the status of beverage container recycling opportunities throughout the state, together with any recommendations on methods to enhance the opportunities for all consumers in every region of the state to return beverage containers conveniently, efficiently, and economically.
- (d) An analysis of the total amount of funds used for program administration and for payment to recyclers and an analysis of how litter abatement and recycling education funds are distributed and used.
  - 14542.5. If a redemption rate of 65 percent for any type of beverage container is not achieved by January 1, 1993, the Legislative Analyst shall, within 90 days, prepare and submit to the Legislature a report containing recommendations on how the 65 percent redemption rate and the 80 percent recycling rate can be achieved, including, but not limited to, recommendations on the desirability of increasing the redemption value on that type of beverage container.

14543. On or before January 1, 1989, the department shall prepare a report to the Governor and the Legislature analyzing the impact of this division, if any, on employees of the industries affected by this division.

- 14544. It is the intent of the Legislature that a redemption rate of 65 percent be achieved for each type of beverage container. If the minimum redemption value for any type of beverage container fails to increase pursuant to Section 14560 because of the inclusion of empty, postfilled food or drink packaging materials which exceed 20 percent of the total volume used in the calculation of the redemption rate pursuant to Section 14551, the Legislative Analyst shall, by the date the increase in the minimum redemption value would have otherwise taken effect, prepare and submit to the Legislature a report which shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:
- (a) Data on the redemption rate which has been achieved for that type of beverage container.
- (b) Recommendations for how the 65 percent redemption rate may be achieved, including, but not limited to, the desirability of modifying the inclusion of empty postfilled food or drink packaging materials in the calculation of the redemption rate.
- (c) Any benefits which have been derived from the inclusion of empty, postfilled food or drink packaging materials in the calculation of the redemption rate.

CHAPTER 4. REPORTING

- 14550. (a) Every processor shall report to the department for each month beginning October 1, 1987, the amount of empty beverage containers, by material type and weight of container or material, excluding refillable beverage containers, received from recycling centers for recycling, and the amount received not for recycling. Every processor shall also report to the department for each month the amount of other postfilled aluminum, glass, and plastic food and drink packaging materials sold filled to consumers in this state and returned for recycling. These reports shall be submitted within 10 days after each month, in the form and manner which the department may prescribe.
- (b) Every distributor who sells or offers for sale in this state beverages in aluminum beverage containers, nonaluminum metal beverage containers, glass beverage containers, plastic beverage containers, or other beverage containers, including refillable beverage containers of these types, shall report to the department for each month beginning September 1, 1987, and for each month

- thereafter, the number of beverages sold in these beverage containers in this state, by material type and size and weight of container or any other method as the department may prescribe. These reports shall be submitted within 10 days after each month, in the form and manner which the department may prescribe.
- (c) Every distributor who sells or offers for sale in this state beverages in refillable beverage containers and who pays a refund value to distributors, dealers, or consumers who return these containers for refilling, shall report to the department for each month beginning September 1, 1987, and for each month thereafter, the number of these beverage containers returned empty to be refilled, by material type and size of container or any other method which the department may prescribe. These reports shall be submitted within 10 days after each period, in the form and manner which the department may prescribe.
- 14551. (a) The department shall establish reporting periods for the reporting of redemption rates and recycling rates, and each reporting period shall be six months, except that the first reporting period shall be the three-month period from October 1, 1987, to December 31, 1987. The department shall determine all of the following for each reporting period and shall issue a report on its determinations, within 40 days of the end of each reporting period:
- (1) Sales of beverages in aluminum beverage containers, nonaluminum metal beverage containers, glass beverage containers, plastic beverage containers, and other beverage containers in this state, including refillable beverage containers.
- (2) Returns for recycling, and returns not for recycling, of empty aluminum beverage containers, nonaluminum metal beverage containers, glass beverage containers, plastic beverage containers, and other beverage containers in this state, including refillable beverage containers returned to distributors pursuant to Section 14572. These numbers shall be calculated using the average current weights of beverage containers, as determined and reported by the department. To these numbers shall be added and separately reported the following, if greater than, or equal to, zero:
- (A) All empty postfilled aluminum, glass, and plastic food or drink packaging materials sold in the state, returned for recycling, and reported by weight to the department which do not have a redemption value less the number specified in subparagraph (B).
- (B) The number of beverage containers which comprise the first five percentage points of the redemption rate without including the empty postfilled aluminum, glass, and plastic food or drink packaging materials sold in the state, returned for recycling and reported by weight to the department which do not have a redemption value.
- (3) An aluminum beverage container redemption rate, the numerator of which shall be the number of empty aluminum beverage containers returned, including refillable aluminum beverage containers and empty postfilled aluminum food or drink packaging material included in paragraph (2), and the denominator of which shall be the number of aluminum beverage containers sold in this state.

- (4) An aluminum beverage container recycling rate, the numerator of which shall be the number of empty aluminum beverage containers returned for recycling, including refillable aluminum beverage containers, and the denominator of which shall be the number of aluminum beverage containers sold in this state.
- (5) A nonaluminum metal beverage container redemption rate, the numerator of which shall be the number of empty nonaluminum metal beverage containers returned, and the denominator of which shall be the number of nonaluminum metal beverage containers sold in this state.
- (6) A nonaluminum metal beverage container recycling rate, the numerator of which shall be the number of empty nonaluminum beverage containers returned for recycling, including refillable nonaluminum metal beverage containers, and the denominator of which shall be the number of nonaluminum metal beverage containers sold in this state.
- (7) A glass beverage container redemption rate, the numerator of which shall be the number of empty glass beverage containers returned, including refillable glass beverage containers and empty postfilled, food or drink packaging materials included in paragraph (2), and the denominator of which shall be the number of glass beverage containers sold in this state.
- (8) A glass beverage container recycling rate, the numerator of which shall be the number of empty glass beverage containers returned for recycling, including refillable glass beverage containers, and the denominator of which shall be the number of glass beverage containers sold in this state.
- (9) A plastic beverage container redemption rate, the numerator of which shall be the number of empty plastic beverage containers returned, including refillable plastic beverage containers and empty postfilled food or drink packaging materials included in paragraph (2), and the denominator of which shall be the number of plastic beverage containers sold in this state.
- (10) A plastic beverage container recycling rate, the numerator of which shall be the number of empty plastic beverage containers returned for recycling, including refillable plastic beverage containers, and the denominator of which shall be the number of plastic beverage containers sold in this state.
- (11) A redemption rate for other beverage containers, the numerator of which shall be the number of empty beverage containers other than those containers specified in paragraphs (1) to (10), inclusive, returned, and the denominator of which shall be the number of beverage containers, other than those containers specified in paragraphs (1) to (10), inclusive, sold in this state.
- (12) A recycling rate for other beverage containers, the numerator of which shall be the number of empty beverage containers other than those containers specified in paragraphs (1) to

- (10), inclusive, returned for recycling, and the denominator of which shall be the number of beverage containers, other than those containers specified in paragraphs (1) to (10), inclusive, sold in this state.
- (13) The department may define categories of other beverage containers, and report a redemption rate and a recycling rate for each such category of other beverage containers.
- (b) The department shall determine the manner of collecting the information for the reports specified in subdivision (a), including establishing procedures, to protect any proprietary information concerning the sales and purchases.
- 14552. The department shall establish and implement an auditing system to ensure that the information collected, and redemption values and bonuses paid pursuant to this division, comply with the purposes of this division. The auditing system adopted by the department shall allow for reasonable shrinkage in material due to moisture, dirt, and foreign material. The department, after an audit by a qualified auditing firm and a hearing, shall adopt a standard to be used to account for shrinkage and shall incorporate this standard in the audit process.
- 14553. All reports, claims, and other information required pursuant to this chapter or Sections 14573, 14573.5, and 14574, shall be complete, legible, and accurate, as determined by the department by regulation.

CHAPTER 5. MINIMUM REDEMPTION VALUE

- 14560. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), and (g), every beverage container which is sold or offered for sale in this state, on and after September 1, 1987, shall have a minimum redemption value of not less than one cent ($0.01).
- (b) Except as provided in subdivisions (c), (d), and (e), on and after December 31, 1989, a beverage container shall have a redemption value of not less than two cents ($0.02) if both of the following conditions are met for that specific type of beverage container:
- (1) For the reporting period beginning January 1, 1989, and ending June 30, 1989, the redemption rate determined pursuant to Section 14551 for that type of beverage container is less than 65 percent.
- (2) The average redemption rate for the highest two of any three reporting periods, the third period of which is the period ending June 30, 1989, is less than 65 percent.
- (c) Except as provided in subdivisions (b), (d), (e), and (g), if for any two of any three consecutive reporting periods subsequent to December 31, 1987, the redemption rate determined pursuant to Section 14551 for that type of beverage container is less than 65 percent, every beverage container of that type shall have a redemption value of not less than two cents ($0.02) beginning six months after the end of the third reporting period.

- (d) Except as provided in subdivisions (e) and (g), on and after December 31, 1992, a beverage container shall have a redemption value of not less than three cents ($0.03) if both of the following conditions are met for that specific type of beverage container:
- (1) For the reporting period beginning January 1, 1992, and ending June 30, 1992, that type of beverage container has a redemption value of not less than two cents ($0.02) and the redemption rate determined pursuant to Section 14551 for that type of beverage container is less than 65 percent.
- (2) The average redemption rate for the highest two of any four reporting periods, the fourth period of which is the period ending June 30, 1992, is less than 65 percent.
- (e) Except as provided in subdivisions (d) and (g), if for any two of any four consecutive reporting periods subsequent to June 30, 1990, the redemption rate of any type of beverage container with a current redemption value of not less than two cents ($0.02) is less than 65 percent, the redemption value of every beverage container of that type shall be increased to not less than three cents ($0.03) beginning six months following the end of the fourth reporting period.
- (f) Except as provided in subdivision (g), once any redemption value is established pursuant to subdivision (b), (c), (d), or (e) for any type of beverage container, the redemption value shall not be decreased based upon the redemption rate.
- (g) The redemption value of a specific type of beverage container which has had its redemption value established pursuant to subdivision (d) or (e) shall be decreased to not less than two cents ($0.02) if the redemption rate for that type of beverage container is 80 percent or more during all of four consecutive reporting periods. The decrease shall occur six months following the end of the fourth reporting period. If the redemption rate for that type of beverage container thereafter falls below 65 percent for any two of any four consecutive reporting periods, the redemption value for that type of beverage container shall be increased to three cents ($0.03) until a redemption rate of 80 percent or more, during all of four consecutive reporting periods, is established for that type of beverage container.
- (h) This section does not apply to any refillable beverage container.
- 14561. (a) On and after September 1, 1987, a manufacturer shall clearly indicate on every beverage container sold or offered for sale by the beverage manufacturer in this state the message "CA Redemption Value" or "California Redemption Value," by either printing or embossing the beverage container or by securely affixing a clear and prominent stamp, label, or other device to the beverage container. Any refillable beverage container sold or offered for sale is exempt from this subdivision. However, any beverage manufacturer or container manufacturer may place upon, or affix to, a refillable beverage container, any message which they deem appropriate relating to the refund value of the container.

(b) The department may require that any beverage container intended for sale in this state be printed, embossed, stamped, labeled, or otherwise marked with a universal product code or similar machine-readable indicia.

14562. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the minimum redemption value established by this article is a regulatory fee collected for the purpose of assuring the return for recycling of a greater percentage of the beverage containers sold in this state, and is beneficial to the beverage industry by assuring the more reliable availability of raw materials. Accordingly, the payments of redemption values to the department for deposit in the California Beverage Container. Recycling Fund are not the "proceeds of taxes," as that term is used in subdivision (c) of Section 8 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution, and the disbursement or encumbrance of money in the fund is not subject to the limitations imposed by that article.

CHAPTER 6. RETURNS

- 14570. Every dealer shall identify, by a clear and conspicuous sign posted at the dealer's place of business, the address of at least the recycling center, location, or locations, nearest to the dealer, which redeems all types of empty beverage containers at one location during at least 30 hours per week with a minimum of five hours of operation occurring during periods other than from Monday to Friday, from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
- 14571. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, there shall be at least one certified recycling center or location within every convenience zone which accepts and pays the redemption value and applicable redemption bonus, if any, at one location for all types of empty beverage containers during at least 30 hours per week with a minimum of five hours of operation occurring during periods other than from Monday to Friday, from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
- 14571.1. On or before January 1, 1987, the department shall, on a statewide basis, designate all convenience zones as of that date, including convenience zones in underserved areas, and shall prepare a map or maps showing these convenience zones. The department shall thereafter update convenience zone designations and maps as necessary.
- 14571.2. On or before July 31, 1987, the department shall attempt to enter into agreements with recycling centers to provide recycling centers or locations that satisfy the requirements of Section 14571 in each convenience zone.
- 14571.3. In any convenience zone where no agreement has been entered into by July 31, 1987, the department shall offer an option to retain the redemption bonus to a recycling center which, on or before October 1, 1987, shall establish a recycling location accepting all types of beverage containers in that zone. The department may allow the recycling location to retain the redemption bonus for two to five years, at the department's discretion, for the purpose of capitalizing recycling equipment. The department shall authorize the recycling location to retain the redemption bonus for a length of time based upon the economic feasibility of developing the particular recycling location and the relative volume of material at the particular recycling location.

- 14571.4. On or before October 1, 1987, in any convenience zone where no recycling location has been established which satisfies the requirements of Section 14571, the department shall establish and offer to recycling locations a convenience incentive payment and also allow the retention of the redemption bonus.
- 14571.5. On or before November 15, 1987, in any convenience zone where no recycling location has been established which satisfies the requirements of Section 14571, the department shall notify all dealers within that zone, and, except as provided in Section 14571.6, one or more dealers within that zone shall, individually or jointly, establish, or cause to be established, a recycling location within that zone not later than December 31, 1987. The department shall offer a convenience incentive payment and the retention of the redemption bonus to one recycling location only.
- 14571.6. On or after January 1, 1988, in any convenience zone where no recycling location has been established which satisfies the requirements of Section 14571, all dealers within that zone shall, until a recycling location has been established in that zone, do one of the following:
  - (a) Offer to redeem all three types of containers.
- (b) Pay to the department for deposit in the California Beverage Container Recycling Fund the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) per day until a recycling location is established.
- 14571.7. After January 1, 1988, in any convenience zone where a recycling location or locations were initially established, but where the location or locations cease to operate in accordance with Section 14571, the department shall notify all dealers within that convenience zone that a recycling location is required to be established within 90 days. The department shall offer a convenience incentive payment and the retention of the redemption bonus to one recycling location only. If, within 45 days of the notification, no recycling location has been established which satisfies the requirements of Section 14571, the department shall notify all dealers within that zone, and one or more dealers within that zone shall establish, or cause to be established, a recycling location. If, within 90 days of the initial notification, no recycling location has been established, all dealers within that zone shall, until a recycling location has been established, do one of the following:
  - (a) Offer to redeem all three types of containers.
- (b) Pay to the California Beverage Container Recycling Fund the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) per day until a recycling location is established.

- 14571.8. (a) If the department determines that Section 14571 cannot be fulfilled in a particular convenience zone due to local zoning or dealer's leasehold restrictions for leases in effect on January 1, 1987, and that these factors are beyond the control of the department and the dealer, the department may establish an alternative minimum convenience requirement for that convenience zone which shall not conflict with the purposes of this division. No lease entered into by a dealer after January 1, 1987, may contain a leasehold restriction that prohibits or results in the prohibition of the establishment of a recycling location.
- (b) The director may grant an exemption to the requirements of Section 14571 if all of the following conditions exist:
- (1) The director may grant an exemption only for individual convenience zones. The director shall not grant a blanket exemption to areas larger than a single convenience zone.
- (2) Exemptions may be granted only to further the purposes of this division.
- (3) Exemptions may only be granted after a public hearing by the department.
- (4) An exemption may only be granted to prevent the creation of excessive recycling locations resulting in severe adverse local market conditions for recycled materials or if, after a public hearing, a city, county, or city and county requests an exemption for an existing nonprofit recycling center for its location or locations.
- (5) The total number of exemptions shall not be more than 10 percent of all the recycling locations which would otherwise be created under this division, as calculated by the department pursuant to Section 14571.
- (6) The director shall not grant an exemption which would significantly decrease the ability of consumers to conveniently return beverage containers for the redemption value.
- (7) In areas with curbside collection programs which collect and recycle beverage containers, the director shall not grant an exemption for the benefit of the curbside program unless the local agency administering the program requests the department to grant an exemption and the program collects and recycles all types of beverage containers from households at least weekly.
- 14571.9. The department may require any dealer, beverage distributor, or recycling center to provide that information concerning their compliance with this division which will enable the department to prepare the report required by subdivision (c) of Section 14542.
- 14572. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c), a certified recycling center shall accept from any consumer or dropoff or collection program any empty beverage container, and shall pay to the consumer or dropoff or collection program the redemption value and any applicable redemption bonus of the beverage container. The center may pay the redemption value and any applicable redemption bonus based on the weight of returned containers.

- (b) A recycling center or recycling location may refuse to pay any redemption bonus for a beverage container to a consumer under either of the following circumstances:
- (1) If the beverage container is returned to any mechanical device which accepts empty beverage containers and issues a cash refund or redeemable credit slip of not less than the redemption value of the container. The exemption provided by this paragraph shall apply only to beverage containers returned on or before April 1, 1989.
- (2) If the recycling center or location was established or caused to be established solely pursuant to Section 14571.3, 14571.4, 14571.5, or 14571.7 and the department authorizes retention of the redemption bonus pursuant to Section 14571.3, 14571.4, 14571.5, or 14571.7.
- (c) Any recycling center or processor which was in existence on January 1, 1986, and which refused, as of January 1, 1986, to accept at a particular location a certain type of empty beverage container may continue to refuse to accept at the location the type or types of empty beverage containers that the recycling center or processor refused to accept as of January 1, 1986. Any recycling center which refuses, pursuant to this subdivision, to accept a certain type or types of empty beverage containers shall pay to the consumer the full redemption bonus for containers accepted and is not eligible to receive convenience incentive payments unless the center agrees to accept all types of empty beverage containers. This subdivision does not preclude the recycling center from retaining the redemption bonus or receiving a convenience incentive payment for beverage containers redeemed at locations which do accept all types of containers.
- (d) The department shall terminate the authorization for retention of the redemption bonus pursuant to Section 14571.3, 14571.4, 14571.5, or 14571.7 if another recycling location is willing to redeem containers to satisfy the requirements of Section 14571 within the convenience zone without retaining the redemption bonus
- 14572.5. A recycling center, other than a reverse vending machine, shall accept from any consumer or any dropoff or collection program and pay the applicable refund value or deposit for any refillable empty beer and other malt beverage container. The recycling center shall return, or cause to be returned, the refillable beer and other malt beverage container to the beer and other malt beverage distributor or any willing purchaser, who shall then pay the refund value or the deposit to the center. The beer and other malt beverage distributor or other purchaser shall also negotiate a handling fee with the recycling center for the return of these containers.
- 14573. The department shall pay to a processor, for every empty beverage container received by the processor from a recycling center, curbside program, dropoff or collection program, or nonprofit dropoff program, with proof of the delivery, the sum of all of the following amounts:

- (a) The redemption value.
- (b) The applicable redemption bonus.
- (c) Two percent of the redemption value for administrative costs.
- (d) The processing fee established pursuant to Section 14575.

The department shall make this payment within two working days of the date the department is notified of the delivery or within the time determined by the department to be necessary and adequate. The payment shall be made in the form and manner which the department may prescribe.

- 14573.5. Except as provided in Section 14573.6, a processor shall pay to a recycling center, curbside program, or nonprofit dropoff program, for all types of empty beverage containers, by type of beverage container, received by the processor from recycling center, curbside program, or nonprofit dropoff program, the sum of all of the following amounts:
  - (a) The redemption value.
  - (b) The applicable redemption bonus.
  - (c) One percent of the redemption value for administrative costs.
- (d) The portion of the processing fee established pursuant to Section 14575 representing the actual cost and financial return incurred by the recycling center, as determined by the department.

The processor shall make this payment within two working days of the date the processor receives these empty beverage containers, or within the time which the department determines to be necessary and adequate. A processor may authorize a redemption center to crush and compact beverage containers before the processor receives the containers.

- 14573.6. No dropoff or collection program shall pay any redemption value or any applicable redemption bonus to the consumer, and a dropoff or collection program is not eligible to receive any sum paid pursuant to Section 14573 or 14573.5 for administrative costs.
- 14574. A distributor shall pay to the department the redemption value of every beverage container, other than a refillable beverage container, sold or transferred to a dealer, less 1 percent for the distributor's administrative costs, within 40 days of any sale, or in the form and manner which the department may prescribe. No redemption value applies to, or shall be paid for, any refillable beverage container.
- 14575. (a) If any type of empty beverage container with a redemption value established pursuant to Section 14560 has a scrap value less than the sum of paragraphs (1) and (2), the department shall establish a processing fee for the container, by type of container, at least equal to the difference between the scrap value offered by each container manufacturer, beverage manufacturer, or willing purchaser, for each container sold by the beverage manufacturer, and the sum of both of the following:

- (1) The actual cost of receiving, handling, processing, storing, transporting, and maintaining equipment for each container sold, for recycling or, only if the container is not recyclable, for disposal, calculated pursuant to subdivision (b).
- (2) A reasonable financial return for recycling centers and processors, calculated pursuant to subdivision (b).
- (b) The department shall calculate a statewide average value for the amounts specified in paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (a) for each container type and the processing fee specified in subdivision (a) at least annually and whenever the statewide average scrap value changes by more than 15 percent, or more frequently if necessary, based on audited surveys of the costs specified in subdivision (a) at existing certified recycling centers, reverse vending machines, and processors, with standardized modifications for transportation distances and factors specific to a particular region, as determined by the department, and only if the container is not recyclable, local disposal fees. The processing fee shall be calculated in a manner which furthers the purposes of this division and the fee shall be sufficient to establish sufficient recycling locations and processors to achieve the goals established pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 14501 and Section 14571.
- (c) Every beverage manufacturer shall pay to the department the applicable processing fee for each container sold or transferred to a distributor or dealer within 40 days of the sale in the form and in the manner which the department may prescribe. The department shall pay the processing fees collected on redeemed containers to processors, in the same manner as it pays redemption values pursuant to Sections 14573 and 14573.5. The department shall pay the processing fees collected on unredeemed containers into the Redemption Bonus Account created pursuant to Section 14580. The department shall not use processing fees collected on unredeemed beverage containers to pay all or a portion of the processing costs determined pursuant to subdivision (a). The processor shall pay the recycling center that portion of the processing fee representing the actual cost and financial return incurred by the recycling center, as specified in subdivision (a).
- (d) When assessing processing fees pursuant to subdivision (b), the department shall assess the processing fee on each container sold, assuming that every container sold will be redeemed for recycling, whether or not the container is actually recycled. When calculating and assessing processing fees the department also shall not assume that redemption bonuses will be kept by recycling centers or locations.
- (e) If there are no recycling locations within a convenience zone meeting the requirements of Section 14571, the department shall examine the level of the scrap values and determine whether the department is in compliance with this section. If the department is not in compliance with this section, the department shall recalculate the processing fee pursuant to this section.

- (f) The container manufacturer, or a designated agent, shall pay to, or credit, the account of the beverage manufacturer in an amount equal to the processing fee. The payment or credit shall be made no later than the date upon which the container manufacturer, or a designated agent, submits the invoice to the beverage manufacturer.
- 14576. This chapter shall become operative on October 1, 1987, except that Sections 14574 and 14575 shall become operative on September 1, 1987.

CHAPTER 7. FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

- 14580. The department shall deposit all amounts paid as redemption values by distributors pursuant to Section 14574, processing fees paid pursuant to Section 14575, civil penalties or fines paid pursuant to Section 14541 or subdivision (c) of Section 14591, and all other revenues received into the California Beverage Container Recycling Fund, which is hereby created in the State Treasury. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, the moneys in the California Beverage Container Recycling Fund are hereby continuously appropriated to the department for expenditure without regard to fiscal year for the following purposes:
- (a) The payment of redemption values to processors pursuant to Section 14573.
  - (b) For costs necessary to the administration of this division.
  - (c) For a reserve for contingencies in the following amount:
- (1) During 1987, a reasonable and prudent amount, as determined by the department, but not more than five million dollars ($5,000,000).
- (2) During each calendar year after 1987, the reserve shall not be greater than an amount equal to one-fourth of the total amount paid to processors pursuant to Section 14573 during the preceding calendar year, plus any interest earned on that amount.
- (d) After all of the expenditures pursuant to (a), (b), and (c) have been made, the balance remaining in the fund shall be deposited in the Redemption Bonus Account, which is hereby created as a subaccount in the California Beverage Container Recycling Fund. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, the moneys in the Redemption Bonus Account are hereby continuously appropriated to the department, without regard to fiscal year, for the purposes specified in Section 14581.
- 14581. (a) The department shall calculate the redemption bonus amount, pursuant to subdivision (b), by deducting the following amounts from the Redemption Bonus Account, for which purpose the department may expend money from the Redemption Bonus Account:
- (1) The department shall expend 10 percent of the amount deposited in the Redemption Bonus Account during the previous three months for urban, rural, and recreational litter abatement and recycling activities. These funds shall be expended by contract with local conservation organizations. Three-quarters of this 10 percent shall be expended in the form of grants, as specified by the department, to certified community conservation corps, either existing or those established in the future, designated by a city or a city and county to perform litter abatement, recycling, and related activities, if the city or the city and county has a population, as determined by the last federal census, of more than 250,000 persons. Any grants provided pursuant to this paragraph shall not comprise more than 75 percent of the annual budget of a community conservation corps.

- (2) The department shall expend 10 percent of the amount deposited in the Redemption Bonus Account during the previous three months for recycling information, education, and promotion. These funds shall be expended by entering into contracts with public or private agencies, and at least 50 percent of the funds shall be expended by entering into contracts with statewide nonprofit private agencies.
- (3) The department may expend up to 20 percent of the amount deposited in the Redemption Bonus Account during the previous three months for convenience incentive payments pursuant to Section 14585 in 1987 and 1988, and the department may expend up to 10 percent for those purposes in 1989 and 1990.
- (b) The department shall calculate the Redemption Bonus Account using the balance remaining in the Redemption Bonus Account after deducting the amounts specified in subdivision (a).
- (1) The department shall calculate the redemption bonus at least quarterly, except that the department may revise any redemption bonus to account for seasonal variations in beverage container sales and redemptions, to prevent funds accumulated during a high sales period from providing disproportionately high redemption bonuses during a low redemption period, or to prevent funds accumulated during a low sales period from providing disproportionately low redemption bonuses during a high redemption period.
- (2) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the department shall pay out, as a redemption bonus, any amount deposited in the account within six months after receipt to ensure the payment of maximum redemption bonuses to processors compatible with the level of funds available in the Redemption Bonus Account.
- (3) From the remaining balance in the Redemption Bonus Account, the department shall determine the redemption bonus by dividing the balance in the Redemption Bonus Account by the number of containers redeemed during the previous quarter or other period determined pursuant to paragraph (1). The department shall calculate the redemption bonus so that all funds shall be passed entirely to processors in a prompt and efficient manner and that the redemption bonus amount will further the purposes of this division.
  - (4) For the first two quarters, beginning October 1, 1987, and ending March 31, 1988, the redemption bonus shall be determined by the department after consultation with the committee.

- (5) The department may round any redemption bonus to the nearest one-tenth or one-quarter of a cent.
- 14584. (a) Operators of reverse vending machines or processors may apply to the California Pollution Control Financing Authority for financing pursuant to Section 44526 of the Health and Safety Code, as a means of obtaining capital for establishment of a convenience network. For purposes of Section 44508 of the Health and Safety Code, "project" includes the establishing of a recycling location pursuant to the division.
- (b) Corporations, companies, or individuals may apply for loan and grant funds from the Energy Technologies Research, Development, and Demonstration Account specified in Section 25683 by applying to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission for the purpose of demonstrating equipment for enhancing recycling opportunities.
- 14585. (a) The department shall develop guidelines and criteria for issuing convenience incentive payments solely to assist in establishing recycling locations in convenience zones without sufficient recycling locations pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 14570). The department may establish a convenience incentive payment if the payment meets all of the following:
- (1) The convenience incentive payment is an amount paid per container or by weight for containers redeemed in the underserved convenience zone.
- (2) The payment shall be set by the department at the minimum level determined by the department to be sufficient to establish convenience in the convenience zone pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 14570).
- (3) The department may revise the payment upon finding that the previous payment is inadequate, and shall revise the payment upon finding that the previous payment is excessive, to establish convenience in the convenience zone pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 14570).
- (4) The department may establish a maximum number of containers for which a designated recycling location or locations in the convenience zone shall receive the payment.
- (5) The department may require the operators of the recycling locations to maintain daily records of redemptions at the locations, and may require the locations to take any other steps necessary for the department to ensure that the operators do not receive a convenience incentive payment for any containers redeemed at a recycling location not within the underserved convenience zone.
- (6) The department may make convenience incentive payments to the operators of recycling locations through processors or directly, at the department's discretion, in the same manner as the department pays redemption values, redemption bonuses, and processing fees to recycling locations.

- (7) The department shall stop making convenience incentive payments if another recycling center is willing to redeem containers within the convenience zone without payments pursuant to this section.
- (b) For each payment established pursuant to subdivision (a), the department shall determine whether the convenience incentive payment may be retained by the reycling center or is to be paid to consumers who redeem beverage containers in the convenience zone covered by the payment.
- (c) The department shall conduct a study on use of each of the payment mechanisms authorized by subdivision (b) and on use of bonds, grants, and loans authorized by Section 14584 and report to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1989, on the effectiveness of each of these mechanisms.
- (d) The department may authorize prepayment of convenience incentive payments to recycling centers pursuant to subdivision (a) for periods of up to one year at a time.
- (e) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1991, and as of that date is repealed, unless the department recommends its reenactment and unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1991, deletes or extends that date.
- 14586. This division does not create any guarantee of a continuing level of support, or other obligation on the part of the State of California, the department, or any agency thereof, to pay any specified amount to any local conservation organization, community conservation corps, or statewide nonprofit private agency.
- 14587. This division does not require or create any obligation that payments made pursuant to this division to any local conservation organization, community conservation corps, or statewide nonprofit private agency in any given fiscal year be made in any subsequent fiscal year at the same or greater level.

Chapter 8. Severability and Enforcement

- 14590. If any provision of this division or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the division which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this division are severable.
- 14591. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), in addition to any other applicable civil or criminal penalties, any person convicted of a violation of this division is guilty of an infraction, which is punishable by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars ($100) per day.
- (b) Every person who, with intent to defraud, submits a false or fraudulent claim for payment pursuant to Section 14573 or 14573.5 or who, with intent to defraud, fails to accurately report the number of beverage containers sold, as required by subdivision (b) of Section 14550, or who, with intent to defraud, fails to make payments as required by Section 14574 or who, with intent to defraud, redeems containers which have already been redeemed or returns redeemed containers to the marketplace for reredemption with intent to defraud, or who submits a false or fraudulent claim for convenience incentive payments pursuant to Section 14585, is guilty of fraud. If the money obtained or witheld exceeds four hundred dollars ($400), the fraud is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both, or by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, two years, or three years, or by a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or twice the late or unmade payments plus interest, whichever is greater, or by both fine and imprisonment. If the money obtained or withheld equals, or is less than, four hundred dollars ($400), the fraud is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both.

- (c) Any person who violates this division may be assessed a civil penalty by the department of up to one hundred dollars ($100) per day pursuant to a hearing and notice.
- SEC. 3. Section 17153.5 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:
- 17153.5. Gross income does not include any amount received for empty beverage containers by a consumer from a recycling center or recycling location as the recycling value, as defined in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 14502) of Division 12.1 of the Public Resources Code.
- SEC. 4. Section 19278 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:
- 19278. On or before December 31, 1992, the Franchise Tax Board shall submit a report to the Legislature describing whether significant payments of redemption values and redemption bonuses for beverage containers pursuant to Division 12.1 (commencing with Section 14500) of the Public Resources Code are being paid to taxpayers who are entering into collecting and redemption activities for profit, and if so, whether sufficient information is available to the Franchise Tax Board to ensure that the payments are being properly included in the gross income of the taxpayers.
- SEC. 5. Section 24315 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:
- 24315. Gross income does not include any amount received for empty beverage containers by a consumer from a recycling center or recycling location as the recycling value, as defined in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 14502) of Division 12.1 of the Public Resources Code.
- SEC. 6. The sum of five million dollars ($5,000,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund or any other available fund to the Department of Conservation as a loan for the initial costs incurred by the Department of Conservation between the effective date of this act and October 1, 1987, in carrying out Division 12.1

(commencing with Section 14500) of the Public Resources Code. This amount shall be repaid by the department, during the fiscal year 1987–88 with interest calculated at the rate this amount would have earned in the Pooled Money Investment Account, with the funds deposited in the reserve in the California Beverage Container Recycling Fund, as required by paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 14580 of the Public Resources Code.

- SEC. 7. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.
- SEC. 8. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.
- SEC. 9. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that the Department of Conservation may have sufficient time to prepare to carry out the provisions of this act, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1291

An act to amend and supplement the Budget Act of 1986 (Chapter 186 of the Statutes of 1986) by adding Item 3790-301-733 thereto, to amend and supplement the Budget Act of 1985 (Chapter 111 of the Statutes of 1985) by amending Item 3790-301-722 thereof, and to reappropriate undisbursed balances of appropriations provided in Item 3790-301-321 of the Budget Act of 1983 (Chapter 324 of the Statutes of 1983) and reappropriated in Item 3790-490-721 of the Budget Act of 1986 (Chapter 186 of the Statutes of 1986) for augmentation of schedule (e) of Item 3790-301-721 of the Budget Act of 1983 (Chapter 324 of the Statutes of 1983), relating to state parks, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Item 3790-301-733 is added to the Budget Act of 1986 (Chapter 186 of the Statutes of 1986), to read:

Provisions:

- Notwithstanding Section 2.00 of this act, funds appropriated in category (1) shall be available for expenditure only during the 1985–86 fiscal year.
- 3. Funds appropriated in category (10) for acquisitions as additions to Chino Hills State Park shall be encumbered subject to the following conditions:
  - (a) The Bryant property which the state has an option to purchase for approximately $4,800,000 shall be the first priority for acquisition by the Department of Parks and Recreation.
  - (b) In the event that the purchase is not completed, then any remaining funds shall be reappropriated for the acquisition of property commonly known as the Brea-Olinda Wilderness Area, Rimpau, Chevron, Lamb, Hobbs, Brown, or any other high priority property in the Chino Hills area.
- 4. Funds appropriated in category (10.1) for acquisitions as additions to Chino Hills State Park shall be encumbered subject to the following conditions:
  - (a) The Shell Oil property which is commonly known as the Brea-Olinda Wilderness Area (approximately 1,100 acres) shall be acquired or leased by the Department of Parks and Recreation. However, a maximum of $11,000,000 shall be expended to purchase the 1,100 acres.

- (b) If the owner has not reached agreement with the Department of Parks and Recreation by June 30, 1988, then the funds that would have been available for acquisition of the property are reappropriated for the acquisition of other properties commonly known as Rimpau, Chevron, Lamb, Hobbs, Brown, Getty, or any other high priority property in the Chino Hills project area.
- 5. Funds appropriated in category (17) of this item for the acquisition of lands for the Coit Ranch access at Henry W. Coe State Park shall not be encumbered unless and until the Director of Parks and Recreation determines the portion of the acquisition which ultimately will not be required for the purpose of park access and reports his finding to the State Public Works Board. Upon completion of the acquisition, the Director of General Services shall offer for sale for fair market value that portion of the acquired land which the Director of Parks and Recreation and the State Public Works Board have determined is not needed for the purpose of park access. The sale proceeds shall be deposited in the Parklands Fund of 1984.
- 6. The funds appropriated in category (4) are approved with the condition that there shall be a 30-day review by the Joint Legislative Budget Committee prior to Public Works Board action.
- 7. Four hundred fifty-eight thousand dollars appropriated in category (3) of this item for construction of a visitor center at Ano Nuevo State Reserve may be encumbered upon the Ano Interpretive Association $500,000 from another source and the association assuming responsibility for raising private funds to restore historic buildings at the Cascade Ranch State Park Project and Ano Nuevo State Reserve. The remaining $1,000,000 may be encumbered when the Director of Parks and Recreation certifies to the State Public Works Board that the association will be able to reimburse the Parklands Fund of 1984 $1,000,000 of the appropriation in category (3).
- Funds appropriated in categories (23) and (23.5) for the acquisition and development of the Old Sacramento Railroad Excursion Line shall not provide for passenger origination from # Land Park.

- SEC. 3. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the undisbursed balances, on the effective date of this act, of the appropriation provided for in schedule (hh) of Item 3790-301-721 of the Budget Act of 1982 and reappropriated in Item 3790-490-721 (13) of the Budget Act of 1986, for purposes of working drawings and partial construction of Rose-Robinson Building, Schoolroom, Alvarado Family Property, Alvardo Lucia House, and parking in Old Town San Diego SHP, are reappropriated for augmentation of schedule (e) of Item 3790-301-721 of the Budget Act of 1983, for purposes of the completion of Phase III historic restoration, and shall be available for expenditure until June 30, 1987.
- SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that Phase III of the restoration of Old Town San Diego SHP may be completed as soon as possible and thereby avoid increased construction costs and the loss of concession revenue to the Department of Parks and Recreation, and in order to expedite construction and restoration at Ano Nuevo State Reserve, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1292

An act relating to carriers, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- SECTION 1. (a) The Public Utilities Commission and the Department of the California Highway Patrol shall jointly conduct a study of safety in the maintenance and operation of heavy trucks on the highways of this state.
- (1) For purposes of this section, "highway" means a highway as defined in Section 360 of the Vehicle Code.
- (2) For purposes of this section, "heavy truck" includes, but is not limited to, any vehicle within the meaning of subdivision (a), (b), (e), (f), (g), or (i) of Section 34500 of the Vehicle Code.
- (b) The study shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:
- (1) The incidence of operation of any heavy truck in unsafe operating condition as revealed by investigations and spot checks by the department, together with any discernable trends.

- (2) The identification of any particular class or classes of heavy trucks found to be disproportionately responsible for incidents of unsafe operation on the highways or motor vehicle accidents including, but not limited to, a comparative analysis of California and foreign-registered heavy trucks, heavy trucks operated by carriers subject to commission jurisdiction and heavy trucks whose operators are not subject to commission jurisdiction, and heavy trucks operated by owner-operators and those operated by large trucking businesses.
- (3) The extent to which information on vehicle safety and maintenance is shared and exchanged between the commission and the department for use by the department in the enforcement of motor vehicle laws and by the commission in its regulation of the operations of carriers.
- (4) The extent to which the department's vehicle inspection procedures and the commission's certification, permit, and regulation procedures are consistent and cooperative.
- (5) The extent to which increased penalties and enforcement authority enacted by Chapters 573 and 1369 of the Statutes of 1985 have aided the commission's enforcement activities in this regard.
- (6) Whether the extension of the commission's jurisdiction to include operators of heavy trucks not presently subject to regulation by the commission would benefit safe motor vehicle operations and sound maintenance practices.
- (7) The feasibility of coordinating the enforcement activities of agencies having jurisdiction at or near the California-Mexico border.
- (c) The commission and the department shall jointly prepare and submit to the Legislature a report of the results of this study together with their conclusions and recommendations on or before June 30, 1987.
- SEC. 2. It is the intent of the Legislature that the study and report required by Section 1 of this act shall be funded out of existing resources of the Public Utilities Commission.
- SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ascertain the extent of safety violations by operators of heavy trucks using the highways of this state so that any necessary action to ensure compliance with all safety requirements may be taken as quickly as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1293

An act to amend the heading of Division 9.5 (commencing with Section 10800) of, and to add Section 10800.4 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to health.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The heading of Division 9.5 (commencing with Section 10800) of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

DIVISION 9.5. BIRTH DEFECTS MONITORING PROGRAM

SEC. 2. Section 10800.4 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

10800.4. The birth defects monitoring program shall be expanded to the Counties of Amador, Calaveras, Colusa, Del Norte, El Dorado, Humboldt, Imperial, Kern, Kings, Madera, Marin, Mariposa, Nevada, Placer, San Benito, San Diego, Sonoma, Solano, Sutter, Tuolumne, and Yuba during the second half of the 1986–87 fiscal year.

It is the intent of the Legislature that funding for the birth defects monitoring program in fiscal year 1986–87 be provided through the State Budget Act.

CHAPTER 1294

An act to amend Sections 1 and 4 of Chapter 1265 of the Statutes of 1985, relating to agriculture, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of Chapter 1265 of the Statutes of 1985 is amended to read:

Section 1. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares as follows:

(1) The Department of Food and Agriculture and the State Department of Health Services have made extraordinary efforts to protect the consuming public from the risks associated with instances occurring during the summer of 1985 of the improper application of pesticides on watermelons, resulting in the confiscation and destruction of a significant portion of the 1985 watermelon crop.

- (2) Those law-abiding farmers shippers, brokers, wholesalers, and retailers who were not involved in this pesticide misuse have nonetheless suffered economic hardships due to the confiscation and destruction of these watermelons by public officials to eliminate any possible risk to the public health and safety.
- (3) There is precedent for state economic assistance for the losses suffered by innocent persons during the recent epidemics of Newcastle's disease, avian influenza, brucellosis, and the Mediterranean Fruit Fly.
- (b) It is, therefore, the intent of the Legislature, in enacting this act, to provide certain relief from the economic impacts of this recent watermelon crop emergency by facilitating settlement of all legitimate claims arising out of this situation.
- (c) It is further the intent of the Legislature that the state limit reimbursement to retailers for only the amount of money they paid to innocent farmers, shippers, brokers, and wholesalers for watermelons destroyed when the state recalled and condemned a significant portion of the 1985 watermelon crop.
- SEC. 2. Section 4 of Chapter 1265 of the Statutes of 1985 is amended to read:
- Sec. 4. (a) The State Board of Control shall consider and approve or reject all claims pursuant to this act, and may require the submission of sufficient evidence or documentation in support thereof as it may specify. Those claims shall include free on board price, preharvest costs, and average market value.
- (b) As used in this section, "average market value" means the average free on board market price for watermelons over the preceding five-year period computed on a county-by-county basis by the county agricultural commissioner for each county. Those claims submitted under average market value shall only be approved if the FOB price received does not cover actual documented production costs.
- SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature, in enacting this act, to provide limited economic relief by appropriating funds to settle legitimate claims, approved by the State Board of Control upon the advice of the Director of Food and Agriculture pursuant to Chapter 1265 of the Statutes of 1985, arising out of the unprecedented situation.
- SEC. 4. The sum of six million two hundred thousand dollars ($6,200,000) is hereby appropriated from the Special Fund for Economic Uncertainties to the State Board of Control to make payments in settlement of claims approved pursuant to Chapter 1265 of the Statutes of 1985. Any unused funds shall revert to the Special Fund for Economic Uncertainties. The Controller shall provide a listing of the settlement payments made from this appropriation pursuant to Chapter 1265 of the Statutes of 1985 to the Franchise Tax Board. The state shall have subrogation rights on any claims paid by the appropriation made by this act.
  - SEC. 5. If the funds appropriated in this act are insufficient to make total payments in settlement of claims approved pursuant to Chapter 1265 of the Statutes of 1985, all claims approved shall be proportionately reduced.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Innocent farmers, shippers, brokers, wholesalers, and retailers suffered large monetary losses during the summer of 1985 due to the acts of a few persons. These losses could imperil the watermelon industry as a whole. Thus, in order to ensure that there will be an adequate supply of California watermelons in 1986 and on into the future, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1295

An act to amend Section 16707 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to medication eduation for persons 60 years of age or older, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 16707 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

16707. (a) Savings that occur in the County Health Services Fund due to a lack of applications for funds or for failure of local jurisdictions to expend funds as required to qualify for funding under this part may be appropriated to the State Department of Health Services by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act. To the extent that these savings are appropriated, the state department shall allocate these funds and any other funds appropriated by the Legislature pursuant to priority categories established by the Legislature in the Budget Act pursuant to subdivision (b). The funds shall be available to local jurisdictions for one-time projects upon application by the governing body of the jurisdiction. These state funds shall only be expended if a local jurisdiction agrees to a net expenditure of local jurisdiction funds in the same amount as the state funds. However, the State Director of Health Services may waive or reduce this matching fund requirement when funds are needed for a public health emergency or for a distressed county hospital if the director determines that one of the following exists:

- (1) Due to financial constraints, a local jurisdiction is unable to incur net expenditures of local jurisdiction funds in the same amount as state funds provided.
  - (2) The interest of the state would best be served by the waiver or reduction of the matching fund requirement.

- (b) The priority categories established pursuant to subdivision (a) may include, but are not limited to, the following:
- (1) Public health emergencies which are unforeseen events that pose an immediate threat to the public health, such as an impending outbreak of encephalitis, plague, or other infectious disease.
- (2) Distressed county hospitals which are facilities in danger of closure due to deterioration, age, or lack of compliance with code standards, and which would, in the opinion of the State Department of Health Services, be likely to stay open if certain identifiable improvements are made. No expenditure in this category shall exceed one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000).
- (3) Computerization of county information systems which is equipment or software, or both, that would help county health departments' accounting, revenue recovery, collections and billings, patient records, management information, and birth certification systems, or help provide the Legislature with information to better enable it to assess the impact and effectiveness of state funds used for public health and medically indigent care services.
- (4) Refugee health programs which are projects that address the unique public health problems posed by the influx of refugees into California, such as tuberculosis testing, parasitic disease control, and nutrition education.
- (5) County-clinic coordination which are projects that facilitate effective utilization of private nonprofit clinics to reduce costs and improve access to primary care and public health services in medically underserved areas. These funds shall not be used for capital financing.
- (6) Elder care projects, which includes the development of adult day health care centers, which are projects for developing adult day health care councils, plans, and new centers, and assisting centers which have been licensed in the prior two years, and the development of previously nonexistent programs for the elderly, which are projects establishing new programs such as cervical and breast cancer education and detection, public health nursing programs specifically for seniors, addition of case management components to existing programs, and audiovisual nutrition education programs.
- (7) Medication education programs for seniors, which may include projects which provide medication consultation to persons 60 years of age or older, or develop and implement the use of multilingual educational materials and tools to assist in individual and group processes, or provide for the training of health care professionals and paraprofessionals who care for the elderly, or provide special outreach efforts to high-risk elderly clients, or create organized public awareness media campaigns. This category shall be established pursuant to subdivision (a) during the 1986–87, 1987–88, and 1988–89 fiscal years.
  - (8) Any public health purpose the Legislature deems necessary.

- (c) The amount of savings which may be utilized pursuant to this section shall be limited each fiscal year to the amount of funds authorized through the regular budget process pursuant to subdivision (e) plus either of the following greater amounts: (1) an amount equal to one-quarter of 1 percent of the total amount of funds appropriated to the County Health Services Fund in that fiscal year; or (2) two million two hundred thousand dollars ($2,200,000). Any funds in excess of that amount which are savings from the allocation made pursuant to Section 16702 and any funds in excess of that amount allocated to a county which did not contract with the department, pursuant to Section 16709, for the fiscal year and which are savings from allocations made from the Medically Indigent Services Account pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 16703 shall be transferred to the County Health Facilities Financing Assistance Fund created by subdivision (a) of Section 15463 of the Government Code.
- (d) The director shall report annually to the Legislature on the prior year's distribution of funds under this section.
- (e) The State Department of Health Services is authorized to utilize funds that accumulate in the County Health Services Fund for administration of this program so long as these costs are authorized through the regular budget process.
- SEC. 2. To the extent funds are available and it is administratively feasible, the Department of Health Services shall award funds appropriated for the 1986–87 fiscal year for the category of medication education program for seniors by November 1, 1986.

CHAPTER 1296

An act to amend Sections 56167, 56168, 56169, 56169.5, 56425, 56427, and 56429 of, to add Sections 56167.5, 56169.7, 56361.2, 56425.5, 56426.1, 56426.2, 56426.25, 56426.3, 56426.4, 56426.5, 56426.6, 56426.7, 56426.8, 56426.9, and 56431 to, to repeal and add Sections 56032, 56426, and 56430 of, and to repeal the heading of Article 1 (commencing with Section 56425) of Chapter 4.4 of Part 30 of, the Education Code, relating to special education.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 56032 of the Education Code is repealed. SEC. 1.3. Section 56032 is added to the Education Code, to read: 56032. "Special education local plan area" means the service area covered by the local plan developed under subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of Section 56170. Any reference in this part to "special education services region" shall be deemed to mean "special education local plan area."

- SEC. 1.5. Section 56167 of the Education Code is amended to read:
- 56167. (a) Individuals with exceptional needs who are placed in a public hospital, state licensed children's hospital, psychiatric hospital, proprietary hospital, or a health facility for medical purposes are the educational responsibility of the district, special education local plan area, or county office in which the hospital or facility is located, as determined in local written agreements pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 56220.
- (b) For the purposes of this part, "health facility" shall have the definition set forth in Sections 1250, 1250.2, and 1205.3 of the Health and Safety Code.
- SEC. 2. Section 56167.5 is added to the Education Code, to read: 56167.5. Nothing in this article shall be construed to mean that the placement of any individual with exceptional needs in a hospital or health facility constitutes a necessary residential placement, as described under Section 300.302 of Title 34 of the Code of Federal Regulations, for which the district, special education local plan area, or county office would be responsible as an educational program option under this part.
- SEC. 3. Section 56168 of the Education Code is amended to read: 56168. If the hospital or health facility also operates a nonpublic, nonsectarian school and the individual with exceptional needs is served by that nonpublic school, the responsibility for assuring appropriate education of the individual shall be that of the district in which the parent resides, pursuant to Sections 56365 and 56366.
- SEC. 3.5. Section 56169 of the Education Code is amended to read:
- 56169. (a) The superintendent shall apportion funds pursuant to Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 56700) to the district or county operating programs under this article. Classes operated pursuant to this article shall not be subject to the deficit provisions prescribed by Article 10 (commencing with Section 56790) of Chapter 7.
- (b) Except where the hospital or health facility also operates a nonsectarian, nonpublic school, the revenue limit of the district in which the hospital or health facility is located shall be used for computational purposes.
- SEC. 4. Section 56169.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:
- 56169.5. This article shall not apply to programs operating in state hospitals.
- SEC. 5. Section 56169.7 is added to the Education Code, to read: 56169.7. If any provision of this article, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances, is held invalid by an appellate court of competent jurisdiction, the remainder of the article, and the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby.
  - SEC. 5.5. Section 56361.2 is added to the Education Code, to read:

56361.2. All special education and related services for any individual with exceptional needs who is younger than three years of age shall be provided pursuant to Chapter 4.4 (commencing with Section 56425).

SEC. 6. The heading of Article 1 (commencing with Section 56425) of Chapter 4.4 of Part 30 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 56425 of the Education Code is amended to read: 56425. As a condition of receiving state aid pursuant to this part, each district, special education local plan area, or county office that operated early education programs for individuals with exceptional needs younger than three years of age, as defined in Section 56026, and that received state or federal aid for special education for those programs in the 1980–81 fiscal year, shall continue to operate early education programs in the 1981–82 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter.

If a district or county office offered those programs in the 1980-81 fiscal year but in a subsequent year transfers the programs to another district or county office in the special education local plan area, the district or county office shall be exempt from the provisions of this section in any year when the programs are offered by the district or county office to which they were transferred.

A district, special education local plan area, or county office that is required to offer a program pursuant to this section shall be eligible for funding pursuant to Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 56700) of Part 30.

SEC. 8. Section 56425.5 is added to the Education Code, to read: 56425.5. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that early education programs for infants identified as individuals with exceptional needs, which provide educational services with active parent involvement, can significantly reduce the potential impact of many handicapping conditions, and positively influence later development when the child reaches school age.

Early education programs funded pursuant to Sections 56427, 56428, and 56428.8 shall provide a continuum of program options provided by a transdisciplinary team to meet the multiple and varied needs of infants and their families. Recognizing the parent as the infant's primary teacher, it is the Legislature's intent that early education programs shall include opportunities for the family to receive home visits and to participate in family involvement activities pursuant to Sections 56426.1 and 56426.4. It is the intent of the Legislature that, as an infant grows older, program emphasis would shift from home-based services to a combination of home-based and group services.

It is further the intent of the Legislature that services rendered by state and local agencies serving infants with exceptional needs and their families be coordinated and maximized.

SEC. 9. Section 56426 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 10. Section 56426 is added to the Education Code, to read: 56426. An early education program shall include services specially designed to meet the unique needs of infants, from birth to three years of age, and their families. The primary purpose of an early education program is to enhance development of the infant. To meet this purpose, the program shall focus upon the infant and his or her family, and shall include home visits, group services, and family involvement activities. Early education programs funded pursuant to Sections 56427, 56428, and 56728.8 shall include, as program options, home-based services pursuant to Section 56426.1, and home-based and group services pursuant to Section 56426.2.

- SEC. 11. Section 56426.1 is added to the Education Code, to read: 56426.1. (a) Home-based early education services funded pursuant to Sections 56427, 56428, and 56728.8 shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:
- (1) Observing the infant's behavior and development in his or her natural environment.
- (2) Presenting activities that are developmentally appropriate for the infant and are specially designed, based on the infant's exceptional needs, to enhance the infant's development. Those activities shall be developed to conform with the infant's individualized education program and to ensure that they do not conflict with his or her medical needs.
- (3) Modeling and demonstrating developmentally appropriate activities for the infant to the parents, siblings, and other caregivers, as designated by the parent.
- (4) Interacting with the family members and other caregivers, as designated by the parent, to enhance and reinforce their development of skills necessary to promote the infant's development.
- (5) Discussing parental concerns related to the infant and the family, and supporting parents in coping with their infant's needs.
- (6) Assisting parents to solve problems, to seek other services in their community, and to coordinate the services provided by various agencies.
- (b) The frequency of home-based services shall be once or twice a week, depending on the needs of the infant and the family.
- SEC. 12. Section 56426.2 is added to the Education Code, to read: 56426.2. (a) Early education services funded pursuant to Sections 56427, 56428, and 56728.8 shall be provided both through home visits and group settings with other infants, with or without the parent. Home-based and group services shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:
  - (1) All services identified in subdivision (a) of Section 56426.1.
- (2) Group and individual activities that are developmentally appropriate and specially designed, based on the infant's exceptional needs, to enhance the infant's development. Those activities shall be developed to conform with the infant's individualized education program and to ensure that they do not conflict with his or her medical needs.
  - (3) Opportunities for infants to socialize and participate in play and exploration activities.

- (4) Transdisciplinary services by therapists, psychologists, and other specialists as appropriate.
- (5) Access to various developmentally appropriate equipment and specialized materials.
- (6) Opportunities for family involvement activities, including parent education and parent support groups.
- (b) Services provided in a center under this chapter shall not include child care or respite care.
- (c) The frequency of group services shall not exceed three hours a day for up to, and including, three days a week, and shall be determined on the basis of the needs of the infant and the family.
- (d) The frequency of home visits provided in conjunction with group services shall range from one to eight visits per month, depending on the needs of the infant and the family.
- (e) Group services shall be provided on a ratio of no more than four infants to one adult.
- (f) Parent participation in group services shall be encouraged. SEC. 13. Section 56426.25 is added to the Education Code, to read:
- 56426.25. The maximum service levels set forth in Sections 56426.1 and 56426.2 apply only for purposes of the allocation of funds for early education programs pursuant to Sections 56427, 56428, and 56728.8, and may be exceeded by a district, special education local plan area, or county office, in accordance with the infants' individualized education programs, provided that no change in the level of entitlement to state funding under this part thereby results.
- SEC. 13.5. Section 56426.3 is added to the Education Code, to read:
- 56426.3. In addition to home-based or home-based and group early education services, related services as defined in Section 300.13 of Title 34 of the Code of Federal Regulations, as that section read on April 1, 1986, shall be available to infants and their families. Related services may be provided in the home or at the center according to needs of the infant and the family.
- SEC. 14. Section 56426.4 is added to the Education Code, to read: 56426.4: (a) Family involvement activities funded pursuant to Sections 56427, 56428, and 56728.8 shall support family members in meeting the practical and emotional issues and needs of raising their infant. These activities may include, but are not limited to, the following:
- (1) Educational programs that present information or demonstrate techniques to assist the family to promote their infant's development.
- (2) Parent education and training to assist families in understanding, planning for, and meeting the unique needs of their infant.
- (3) Parent support groups to share similar experiences and possible solutions.

- (4) Instruction in making toys and other materials appropriate to their infant's exceptional needs and development.
- (b) The frequency of family involvement activities shall be at least once a month.
- (c) Participation by families in family involvement activities shall be voluntary.
- SEC. 15. Section 56426.5 is added to the Education Code, to read: 56426.5. If the individualized education program team determines home-based and group early education services to be appropriate, but the parent chooses not to receive home-based services, group services shall be made available to the infant. Similarly, the choice not to participate in family involvement activities shall not limit the availability to the infant and his or her family of home-based services or home-based and group services as determined appropriate by the individualized education program team.
- SEC. 16. Section 56426.6 is added to the Education Code, to read: 56426.6. (a) Early education services shall be provided by the district, special education local plan area, or county office through a transdisciplinary team consisting of a group of professionals from various disciplines and parents who shall share their expertise and otherwise work together to provide these services for infants and their families. Each team member shall be responsible for providing and coordinating early education services for one or more infants and their families, and shall serve as a consultant to other team members and as a provider of appropriate related services to other infants in the program.
- (b) Credentialed personnel with expertise in vision or hearing impairments shall be made available by the district, special education local plan area, or county office to early education programs serving infants identified in accordance with subdivision (a), (b), or (d) of Section 3030 of Title 5 of the California Administrative Code, and shall be the primary providers of services under those programs whenever possible.
- (c) Transdisciplinary teams may include, but need not be limited to, qualified persons from the following disciplines:
  - (1) Early childhood special education.
  - (2) Speech and language therapy.
- (3) Nursing, with a skill level not less than that of a registered nurse.
  - (4) Social work, psychology, or mental health.
- (d) School districts, special education local plan areas, and county offices may include, as part of the transdisciplinary team, occupational therapist and physical therapist consultants who provide professional consultation to early education program personnel. Those consultation services may include, but are not limited to, the following:
- (1) Positioning, feeding, and the neurological system and its impact on learning.

- (2) Adaptive equipment.
- (3) Possible limitations in movement, strength, and endurance.

(4) Appropriate handling techniques.

This subdivision shall not be construed to permit occupational therapist and physical therapist consultants to provide direct therapy services to infants, except in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 26 (commencing with Section 7570) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code and regulations implementing that chapter.

- (e) Any person who is authorized by the district, special education local plan area, or county office to provide early education or related services to infants shall have appropriate experience in normal and atypical infant development and an understanding of the unique needs of families of infants with exceptional needs, or, absent that experience and understanding, shall undergo a comprehensive training plan for that purpose, which plan shall be developed and implemented as part of the staff development component of the local plan for early education services.
- SEC. 17. Section 56426.7 is added to the Education Code, to read: 56426.7. Medically necessary occupational therapy and physical therapy shall be provided to the infant when warranted by medical diagnosis and contained in the individualized education program, as specified under Section 7575 of the Government Code.
- SEC. 18. Section 56426.8 is added to the Education Code, to read: 56426.8. (a) Early education and related services shall be based on the needs of the infant and the family as determined by the individualized education program team, and shall be specified in the individualized education program, including the frequency and duration of each type of service. The provision of any early education or related service may be provided only upon written parental consent.
- (b) The individualized education program for any infant shall be developed in consultation with the infant's physician in order to ensure that the services specified in the plan do not conflict with the infant's medical needs.
- SEC. 19. Section 56426.9 is added to the Education Code, to read: 56426.9. Any infant who becomes three years of age while participating in an early education program under this chapter may continue in the program until June 30 of the current program year, if determined appropriate by the individualized education program team. No later than June 30 of that year, an individualized education program team shall meet to review the infant's progress, determine eligibility for preschool special education services, and develop the individualized education program accordingly. That individualized education program team meeting shall be conducted by the local educational agency responsible for the provision of preschool special education services. Representatives of the early education program shall be invited to that meeting.
  - SEC. 20. Section 56427 of the Education Code is amended to read:

- .56427. (a) Not less than two million three hundred twenty-four thousand dollars ($2,324,000) of the federal discretionary funds appropriated to the State Department of Education under Public Law 94-142 in any fiscal year shall be expended for early education programs for infants with exceptional needs and their families, until the department determines, and the Legislature concurs, that the funds are no longer needed for that purpose.
- (b) Programs ineligible to receive funding pursuant to Section 56425 or 56728.8 may receive funding pursuant to subdivision (a).
- SEC. 21. Section 56429 of the Education Code is amended to read: 56429. In order to assure the maximum utilization and coordination of local early education services, eligibility for the receipt of funds pursuant to Section 56425, 56427, 56428, or 56728.8 is conditioned upon the approval by the Superintendent of Public Instruction of a local plan for early education services, which approval shall apply for not less than one, nor more than three, years. The local plan shall identify existing public and private early education services, and shall include an interagency plan for the delivery of early education services.
  - SEC. 22. Section 56430 of the Education Code is repealed.
- SEC. 23. Section 56430 is added to the Education Code, to read: 56430. (a) Early education services may be provided by any of the following methods:
  - (1) Directly by a local educational agency.
- (2) Through an interagency agreement between a local educational agency and another public agency.
- (3) Through a contract with another public agency pursuant to Section 56369.
- (4) Through a contract with a certified nonpublic, nonsectarian school, or nonpublic, nonprofit agency pursuant to Section 56366.
- (5) Through a contract with a nonsectarian hospital in accordance with Section 56361.5.
- (b) Contracts or agreements with agencies identified in subdivision (a) for early education services are strongly encouraged when early education services are currently provided by another agency, and when found to be a cost-effective means of providing the services. The placement of individual infants under any such contract shall not require specific approval by the governing board of the district or the county office.
- (c) Early education services provided under this chapter shall be funded pursuant to Sections 56427, 56428, and 56728.8. Early education programs shall not be funded pursuant to any of Sections 56740 to 56743, inclusive.
- SEC. 24. Section 56431 is added to the Education Code, to read: 56431. The superintendent shall develop procedures and criteria to enable a district, special education local plan area, or county office to contract with private nonprofit preschools or child development centers to provide special education and related services to infant and preschool age individuals with exceptional needs. The criteria shall include minimum standards that the private, nonprofit preschool or center shall be required to meet.

SEC. 25. Sections 5.5 to 24, inclusive, of this act shall become operative on July 1, 1987.

CHAPTER 1297

An act relating to parks and recreation, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

> [Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

The sum of four hundred thousand dollars SECTION 1. ($400,000) is hereby appropriated from the Environmental License Plate Fund to the State Coastal Conservancy for expenditure during the 1986-87 fiscal year for a grant to the National Audubon Society for capital costs in connection with the construction of the Audubon Living Museum at Ballona Creek near Marina del Rey in the County of Los Angeles if the museum will provide environmental education identified in the local coastal program. The funds appropriated pursuant to this act shall be used exclusively for environmental education facilities and shall not be encumbered unless at least 50 percent of the costs of the environmental education facilities are provided from nonstate funds. The State Coastal Conservancy shall ensure through contract that none of the funds transferred to the grant recipient are used for other than environmental education, including exhibits, and fresh and saltwater support systems directly related to those exhibits. The appropriated funds shall not be used for the construction of permanent museum buildings, and if the total of the nonstate funds contributed for capital costs of the museum and the grant exceeds the actual capital costs of the museum as described in the funding application submitted to the Resources Agency, the amount that the total exceeds the actual capital costs, but not to exceed four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000), shall be reverted and deposited in the California Environmental License Plate Fund.

The state has no liability or operational responsibility for the Audubon Living Museum.

SEC. 2. This is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that the development project provided for in this act may be commenced during the 1986–87 fiscal year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1298

An act to add Sections 1505.5, and 1569.5 to, and to add and repeal Article 12 (commencing with Section 1339.62) of Chapter 2 of Division 2 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to respite care.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 12 (commencing with Section 1339.62) is added to Chapter 2 of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 12. Demonstration Program for Respite Care in General Acute Care Hospitals, Skilled Nursing Facilities, and Intermediate Care Facilities

1339.62. It is the intent of the Legislature to establish a demonstration program to facilitate admissions to licensed general acute care hospitals, skilled nursing facilities, and intermediate care facilities to provide rest and relief for families and others who are caring for a relative or other individual in the community. Temporary admissions through respite provide these applicants and their families with temporary relief from their constant vigil while frail elderly persons, functionally impaired adults, and mentally disordered persons continue to receive the responsible help and supervision they need. Respite care can reduce the need for institutionalizing persons, since caretakers are able to take a break from their duties when needed.

It is further the intent of the Legislature that licensed general acute care hospitals, skilled nursing facilities, and intermediate care facilities may fill unused capacity to provide respite care for frail elderly persons, functionally impaired adults, and mentally disordered persons.

The purpose of establishing this program on a demonstration basis is to enable the State Department of Health Services to design model standards that facilitate the admissions process for respite care and ensure the health and safety of clients being cared for on a respite care basis.

The Legislature finds and declares that such respite care programs should be designed to be tailored to and responsive to the specific needs of those individuals requiring these services. The Legislature further recognizes that the needs of the frail elderly and functionally impaired may be very different and diverse from the needs of mentally disordered persons. Therefore, standards and regulations adopted pursuant to this article shall ensure any mixing of patients within the respite care units must address, and be consistent with, and responsive to the special needs of the particular patient populations being served.

1339.63. The department shall administer a three-year demonstration program for the purpose of providing respite care services to frail elderly persons, functionally impaired adults, and mentally disordered persons in at least one of each of the following licensed health facilities, not to exceed six facilities:

- (a) General acute care hospitals.
- (b) Skilled nursing facilities.
- (c) Intermediate care facilities.
- 1339.64. The department shall select applicants for this program based upon their compliance record and their ability to provide safe and adequate care.

1339.65. Respite care shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

- (a) Supervision, room, leisure activities, and meals.
- (b) Provided in a wing or distinct part of the facility separate from the inpatient population.
- (c) Screening of persons to determine the level of care required, a physical history completed by the person's personal physician including orders for medications and treatments, and other alternative admission criteria to protect the health and safety of persons applying for respite care.
- (d) Establishment of an abbreviated medical record sufficient to provide information for this program, identifying the guest clearly and data to document the care provided.
- (e) Skilled nursing and intermediate care facilities which are holding beds for patients who are temporarily hospitalized or are on a leave of absence shall not utilize those beds for respite care services.
- (f) No facility shall accept persons in need of care beyond the level of care for which that facility is licensed.
- (g) A written agreement executed between the respite patient or the patient's representative and the facility to include the scope and limitation of services provided, including charges.
- (h) Persons providing direct care to respite patients shall be trained in the needs of the patient, encouraging self-care to preserve functional capabilities, as opposed to an overemphasis on procedures and the diagnosis and cure orientation commonly found in an acute care setting.
- 1339.66. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature to collect data and information on a variety of types of services that can meet the needs for and upon which to consider the development of regulations governing provision of respite care in licensed health facilities if determined by this program to be necessary.
- (b) On or before July 1, 1989, and in consultation with the department, the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development shall submit a report to the Legislature on the implementation of this article, which shall address the following:

- (1) The number of persons served by the program, and the types of services provided to them.
- (2) As assessment of the need for respite care services and to identification of services that may be necessary but not currently available.
- (3) Identification of any factors which significantly enhance or inhibit the successful provision of respite care.
- (4) Recommendations for amended regulations necessary to govern respite care services in licensed health facilities.
- 1339.67. This article shall remain in effect until January 1, 1990, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1990, deletes or extends that date.
- SEC. 2. Section 1505.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:
- director shall adopt regulations authorizing The residential facilities, as defined in Section 1502, to fill unused capacity on a short-term, time-limited basis to provide temporary respite care for frail elderly persons, functionally impaired adults, or mentally disordered persons who need 24-hour supervision and who are being cared for by a caretaker or caretakers. The regulations shall address provisions for liability coverage and the level of facility responsibility for routine medical care and medication management, and may require screening of persons to determine the level of care required, a physical history completed by the person's personal physician, and other alternative admission criteria to protect the health and safety of persons applying for respite care. The regulations shall permit these facilities to charge a fee for services provided, which shall include, but not be limited to, supervision, room, leisure activities, and meals.

No facility shall accept persons in need of care beyond the level of care for which that facility is licensed.

SEC. 3. Section 1569.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1569.5. The director shall adopt regulations authorizing residential care facilities for the elderly, as defined in Section 1569.2, to fill unused capacity on a short-term, time-limited basis to provide temporary respite care for frail elderly persons, functionally impaired adults, or mentally disordered persons who need 24-hour supervision and who are being cared for by a caretaker or caretakers. The regulations shall address provisions for liability coverage and the level of facility responsibility for routine medical care and medication management, and may require screening of persons to determine the level of care required, a physical history completed by the person's personal physician, and other alternative admission criteria to protect the health and safety of persons applying for respite care. The regulations shall permit these facilities to charge a fee for the services provided, which shall include, but not be limited to, supervision, room, leisure activities, and meals.

No facility shall accept persons in need of care beyond the level of care for which that facility is licensed.

CHAPTER 1299

An act to amend Sections 261, 266c, 286, 288, 288a, 289, 290, 667.7, 667.9, 1170.1, 1192.7, 1203.065, 1203.066, 1203.075, and 12022.8 of the Penal Code, relating to crime.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- SECTION 1. Section 261 of the Penal Code is amended to read: 261. Rape is an act of sexual intercourse accomplished with a person not the spouse of the perpetrator, under any of the following circumstances:
- (1) Where a person is incapable, because of a mental disorder or developmental or physical disability, of giving legal consent, and this is known or reasonably should be known to the person committing the act. Notwithstanding the existence of a conservatorship pursuant to the provisions of the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act (Part 1 (commencing with Section 5000) of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code), the prosecuting attorney shall prove, as an element of the crime, that a mental disorder or developmental or physical disability rendered the alleged victim incapable of giving consent.
- (2) Where it is accomplished against a person's will by means of force, violence, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the person or another.
- (3) Where a person is prevented from resisting by any intoxicating or anesthetic substance, or any controlled substance, administered by or with the privity of the accused.
- (4) Where a person is at the time unconscious of the nature of the act, and this is known to the accused.
- (5) Where a person submits under the belief that the person committing the act is the victim's spouse, and this belief is induced by any artifice, pretense, or concealment practiced by the accused, with intent to induce the belief.
- (6) Where the act is accomplished against the victim's will by threatening to retaliate in the future against the victim or any other person, and there is a reasonable possibility that the perpetrator will execute the threat. As used in this paragraph "threatening to retaliate" means a threat to kidnap or falsely imprison, or to inflict extreme pain, serious bodily injury, or death.

- (7) Where the act is accomplished against the victim's will by threatening to use the authority of a public official to incarcerate, arrest, or deport the victim or another, and the victim has a reasonable belief that the perpetrator is a public official. As used in this paragraph, "public official" means a person employed by a governmental agency who has the authority, as part of that position, to incarcerate, arrest, or deport another. The perpetrator does not actually have to be a public official.
  - SEC. 2. Section 266c of the Penal Code is amended to read:
- 266c. Every person who induces any other person, except the spouse of the perpetrator, to engage in sexual intercourse, penetration of the genital or anal openings by a foreign object, substance, instrument, or device, oral copulation, or sodomy when his or her consent is procured by false or fraudulent representation or pretense that is made with the intent to create fear, and which does induce fear, and that would cause a reasonable person in like circumstances to act contrary to the person's free will, and does cause the victim to so act, is punishable by imprisonment in either the county jail for not more than one year or in the state prison for two, three, or four years.

As used in this section, "fear" means the fear of unlawful physical injury or death to the person or to any relative of the person or member of the person's family.

- SEC. 3. Section 286 of the Penal Code is amended to read:
- 286. (a) Sodomy is sexual conduct consisting of contact between the penis of one person and the anus of another person.
- (b) (1) Except as provided in Section 288, any person who participates in an act of sodomy with another person who is under 18 years of age shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison, or in a county jail for a period of not more than one year.
- (2) Except as provided in Section 288, any person over the age of 21 years who participates in an act of sodomy with another person who is under 16 years of age shall be guilty of a felony.
- (c) Any person who participates in an act of sodomy with another person who is under 14 years of age and more than 10 years younger than he or she, or when the act is accomplished against the victim's will by means of force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person or where the act is accomplished against the victim's will by threatening to retaliate in the future against the victim or any other person, and there is a reasonable possibility that the perpetrator will execute the threat shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for three, six, or eight years.
- (d) Any person who, while voluntarily acting in concert with another person, either personally or aiding and abetting such other person, commits an act of sodomy when the act is accomplished against the victim's will by means of force or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person or where the act is accomplished against the victim's will by threatening to retaliate in the future against the victim or any other person, and there is a reasonable possibility that the perpetrator will execute the threat shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for five, seven, or nine years.

- (e) Any person who participates in an act of sodomy with any person of any age while confined in any state prison, as defined in Section 4504, or in any local detention facility as defined in Section 6031.4 shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison, or in a county jail for a period of not more than one year.
- (f) Any person who commits an act of sodomy, and the victim is at the time unconscious of the nature of the act and this is known to the person committing the act, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a period of three, six, or eight years.
- (g) Except as provided in subdivision (h), a person who commits an act of sodomy, and the victim is at the time incapable, because of a mental disorder or developmental or physical disability, of giving legal consent, and this is known or reasonably should be known to the person committing the act, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison, for three, six, or eight years. Notwithstanding the existence of a conservatorship pursuant to the provisions of the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act (Part 1 (commencing with Section 5000) of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code), the prosecuting attorney shall prove, as an element of the crime, that a mental disorder or developmental or physical disability rendered the alleged victim incapable of giving consent.
- (h) Any person who commits an act of sodomy, and the victim is at the time incapable, because of a mental disorder or developmental or physical disability, of giving legal consent, and this is known or reasonably should be known to the person committing the act, and both the defendant and the victim are at the time confined in a state hospital for the care and treatment of the mentally disordered or in any other public or private facility for the care and treatment of the mentally disordered approved by a county mental health director, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison, or in a county iail for a period of not more than one year. Notwithstanding the existence of a conservatorship pursuant to the provisions of the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act ( Part 1 (commencing with Section 5000) of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code), the prosecuting attorney shall prove, as an element of the crime, that a mental disorder or developmental or physical disability rendered the alleged victim incapable of giving legal consent.
- (i) Any person who commits an act of sodomy, where the victim is prevented from resisting by an intoxicating or anesthetic substance, or any controlled substance, administered by or with the privity of the accused, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a period of three, six, or eight years.
- (j) Any person who commits an act of sodomy, where the victim submits under the belief that the person committing the act is the victim's spouse, and this belief is induced by any artifice, pretense, or concealment practiced by the accused, with intent to induce the belief, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a period of three, six, or eight years.

(k) Any person who commits an act of sodomy, where the act is accomplished against the victim's will by threatening to use the authority of a public official to incarcerate, arrest, or deport the victim or another, and the victim has a reasonable belief that the perpetrator is a public official, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a period of three, six, or eight years.

As used in this subdivision, "public official" means a person employed by a governmental agency who has the authority, as part of that position, to incarcerate, arrest, or deport another. The perpetrator does not actually have to be a public official.

- $(\tilde{l})$  As used in subdivisions (c) and (d) "threatening to retaliate" means a threat to kidnap or falsely imprison, or inflict extreme pain, serious bodily injury, or death.
  - SEC. 4. Section 288 of the Penal Code is amended to read:
- 288. (a) Any person who shall willfully and lewdly commit any lewd or lascivious act including any of the acts constituting other crimes provided for in Part 1 of this code upon or with the body, or any part or member thereof, of a child under the age of 14 years, with the intent of arousing, appealing to, or gratifying the lust or passions or sexual desires of such person or of such child, shall be guilty of a felony and shall be imprisoned in the state prison for a term of three, six, or eight years.
- (b) Any person who commits an act described in subdivision (a) by use of force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person, shall be guilty of a felony and shall be imprisoned in the state prison for a term of three, six or eight years.
- (c) In any arrest or prosecution under this section the peace officer, the district attorney, and the court shall consider the needs of the child victim and shall do whatever is necessary and constitutionally permissible to prevent psychological harm to the child victim.
- , SEC. 5. Section 288a of the Penal Code is amended to read:
- 288a. (a) Oral copulation is the act of copulating the mouth of one person with the sexual organ or anus of another person.
- (b) (1) Except as provided in Section 288, any person who participates in an act of oral copulation with another person who is under 18 years of age shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison, or in a county jail for a period of not more than one year.
- (2) Except as provided in Section 288, any person over the age of 21 years who participates in an act of oral copulation with another person who is under 16 years of age shall be guilty of a felony.
- (c) Any person who participates in an act of oral copulation with another person who is under 14 years of age and more than 10 years younger than he or she, or when the act is accomplished against the victim's will by means of force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person or where the act is accomplished against the victim's will by threatening to retaliate in the future against the victim or any other person, and there is a reasonable possibility that the perpetrator will execute the threat shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for three, six, or eight years.

- (d) Any person who, while voluntarily acting in concert with another person, either personally or by aiding and abetting such other person, commits an act of oral copulation (1) when the act is accomplished against the victim's will by means of force or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person, or (2) where the act is accomplished against the victim's will by threatening to retaliate in the future against the victim or any other person, and there is a reasonable possibility that the perpetrator will execute the threat, or (3) where the victim is at the time incapable, because of a mental disorder or developmental or physical disability, of giving legal consent, and this is known or reasonably should be known to the person committing the act shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for five, seven, or nine years. Notwithstanding the appointment of a conservator with respect to the victim pursuant to the provisions of the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act (Part 1 (commencing with Section 5000) of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code), the prosecuting attorney shall prove, as an element of the crime described under paragraph (3), that a mental disorder or developmental or physical disability rendered the alleged victim incapable of giving legal consent.
- (e) Any person who participates in an act of oral copulation while confined in any state prison, as defined in Section 4504 or in any local detention facility as defined in Section 6031.4, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison, or in a county jail for a period of not more than one year.
- (f) Any person who commits an act of oral copulation, and the victim is at the time unconscious of the nature of the act and this is known to the person committing the act, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a period of three, six, or eight years.
- (g) Except as provided in subdivision (h), any person who commits an act of oral copulation, and the victim is at the time incapable, because of a mental disorder or developmental or physical disability, of giving legal consent, and this is known or reasonably should be known to the person committing the act, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison, for three, six, or eight years. Notwithstanding the existence of a conservatorship pursuant to the provisions of the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act (Part 1 (commencing with Section 5000) of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code), the prosecuting attorney shall prove, as an element of the crime, that a mental disorder or developmental or physical disability rendered the alleged victim incapable of giving consent.

- (h) Any person who commits an act of oral copulation, and the victim is at the time incapable, because of a mental disorder or developmental or physical disability, of giving legal consent, and this is known or reasonably should be known to the person committing the act, and both the defendant and the victim are at the time confined in a state hospital for the care and treatment of the mentally disordered or in any other public or private facility for the care and treatment of the mentally disordered approved by a county mental health director, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison, or in a county jail for a period of not more than one year. Notwithstanding the existence of a conservatorship pursuant to the provisions of the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act (Part 1 (commencing with Section 5000) of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code), the prosecuting attorney shall prove, as an element of the crime, that a mental disorder or developmental or physical disability rendered the alleged victim incapable of giving legal consent.
- (i) Any person who commits an act of oral copulation, where the victim is prevented from resisting by any intoxicating or anesthetic substance, or any controlled substance, administered by or with the privity of the accused, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a period of three, six, or eight years.
- (j) Any person who commits an act of oral copulation, where the victim submits under the belief that the person committing the act is the victim's spouse, and this belief is induced by any artifice, pretense, or concealment practiced by the accused, with intent to induce the belief, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a period of three, six, or eight years.
- (k) Any person who commits an act of oral copulation, where the act is accomplished against the victim's will by threatening to use the authority of a public official to incarcerate, arrest, or deport the victim or another, and the victim has a reasonable belief that the perpetrator is a public official, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a period of three, six, or eight years.

As used in this subdivision, "public official" means a person employed by a governmental agency who has the authority, as part of that position, to incarcerate, arrest, or deport another. The perpetrator does not actually have to be a public official.

- $(\bar{l})$  As used in subdivisions (c) and (d) "threatening to retaliate" means a threat to kidnap or falsely imprison, or to inflict extreme pain, serious bodily injury, or death.
  - SEC. 6. Section 289 of the Penal Code is amended to read:
- 289. (a) Every person who causes the penetration, however slight, of the genital or anal openings of another person for the purpose of sexual arousal, gratification, or abuse by any foreign object, substance, instrument, or device when the act is accomplished against the victim's will by means of force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person or where the act is accomplished against the victim's will by threatening to retaliate in the future

- against the victim or any other person, and there is a reasonable possibility that the perpetrator will execute the threat, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for three, six, or eight years.
- (b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), every person who causes the penetration, however slight, of the genital or anal openings of another person for the purpose of sexual arousal, gratification, or abuse by any foreign object, substance, instrument, or device, and the victim is at the time incapable, because of a mental disorder or developmental or physical disability, of giving legal consent, and this is known or reasonably should be known to the person committing the act, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for three, six, or eight years. Notwithstanding the appointment of a conservator with respect to the victim pursuant to the provisions of the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act (Part (commencing with Section 5000) of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code), the prosecuting attorney shall prove, as an element of crime, that a mental disorder or developmental or physical disability rendered the alleged victim incapable of giving legal consent.
- (c) Every person who causes the penetration, however slight, of the genital or anal openings of another person for the purpose of sexual arousal, gratification, or abuse by any foreign object, substance, instrument, or device, and the victim is at the time incapable, because of a mental disorder or developmental or physical disability, of giving legal consent, and this is known or reasonably should be known to the person committing the act and both the defendant and the victim are at the time confined in a state hospital for the care and treatment of the mentally disordered or in any other public or private facility for the care and treatment of the mentally disordered approved by a county mental health director, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison, or in a county jail for a period of not more than one year. Notwithstanding the existence of a conservatorship pursuant to the provisions of Lanterman-Petris-Short Act (Part 1 (commencing with Section 5000) of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code), the prosecuting attorney shall prove, as an element of the crime, that a mental disorder or developmental or physical disability rendered the alleged victim incapable of giving legal consent.
- (d) Every person who causes the penetration, however slight, of the genital or anal openings of another person for the purpose of sexual arousal, gratification, or abuse by any foreign object, substance, instrument, or device, and the victim is at the time unconscious of the nature of the act and this is known to the person committing the act, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for three, six, or eight years.
- (e) Every person who causes the penetration, however slight, of the genital or anal openings of another person for the purpose of sexual arousal, gratification, or abuse by any foreign object, substance, instrument, or device, where the victim is prevented from resisting by any intoxicating or anesthetic substance, or any controlled substance, administered by or with the privity of the accused, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a period of three, six, or eight years.

- (f) Every person who causes the penetration, however slight, of the genital or anal openings of another person for the purpose of sexual arousal, gratification, or abuse by any foreign object, substance, instrument, or device, where the victim submits under the belief that the person committing the act is the victim's spouse, and this belief is induced by any artifice, pretense, or concealment practiced by the accused, with intent to induce the belief, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a period of three, six, or eight years.
- (g) Every person who causes the penetration, however slight, of the genital or anal openings of another person for the purpose of sexual arousal, gratification, or abuse by any foreign object, substance, instrument, or device, where the act is accomplished against the victim's will by threatening to use the authority of a public offical to incarcerate, arrest, or deport the victim or another, and the victim has a reasonable belief that the perpetrator is a public official, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a period of three, six, or eight years.

As used in this subdivision, "public official" means a person employed by a governmental agency who has the authority, as part of that position, to incarcerate, arrest, or deport another. The perpetrator does not actually have to be a public official.

- (h) Except as provided in Section 288, any person who participates in an act of penetration of vaginal or anal openings with a foreign object, substance, instrument, or device of a person who is under 18 years of age for the purpose of sexual arousal, gratification, or abuse, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison or in the county jail for a period of not more than one year.
- (i) Except as provided in Section 288, any person over the age of 21 years who participates in an act of penetration of the vaginal or anal openings with a foreign object, substance, instrument, or device of another person who is under 16 years of age for the purpose of sexual arousal, gratification, or abuse, shall be guilty of a felony.
- (j) Any person who participates in an act of penetration of the anal or vaginal openings with a foreign object, instrument, or device of another person who is under 14 years of age and who is more than 10 years younger than he or she for the purpose of sexual arousal, gratification, or abuse, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for three, six, or eight years.
- (k) As used in this section, "foreign object, substance, instrument, or device" shall include any part of the body, except a sexual organ.
- (1) As used in subdivision (a) "threatening to retaliate" means a threat to kidnap or falsely imprison, or inflict extreme pain, serious bodily injury or death.

- SEC. 7. Section 290 of the Penal Code, as added by Chapter 1474 of the Statutes of 1985, is amended to read:
- (a) Any person who, since July 1, 1944, has been or is hereafter convicted in this state of the offense of assault with intent to commit rape or sodomy under Section 220, or of any offense defined in subdivisions (1), (2), (3), (4), and (6) of Section 261, or of any offense defined in Section 264.1, 266, 267, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 289, or 647a, subdivision (d) of Section 647, or subdivision 1 or 2 of Section 314, or of any offense involving lewd and lascivious conduct under Section 272; or any person who since that date has been or is hereafter convicted of the attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses; or any person who since that date or at any time hereafter is discharged or paroled from a penal institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempt to commit one of the above-mentioned offenses; or any person who since that date or at any time hereafter is determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code; or any person who has been since that date or is hereafter convicted in any other state of any offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the above-mentioned offenses, shall, within 30 days after the effective date of this section or within 14 days of coming into any county or city, or city and county in which he or she temporarily resides or is domiciled for that length of time register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she is domiciled or the sheriff of the county if he or she is domiciled in an unincorporated area.
- (b) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is discharged or paroled from a jail, prison, school, road camp, or other institution where he or she was confined because of the commission or attempt to commit one of the above-mentioned offenses or is released from a state hospital to which he or she was committed as a mentally disordered sex offender under Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code shall, prior to discharge, parole, or release, be informed of his or her duty to register under this section by the official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital and the official shall require the person to read and sign such form as may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to the person. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release and shall report the address to the Department of Justice. The official in charge of the place of confinement or hospital shall give one copy of the form to the person, and shall send one copy to the Department of Justice and one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release. If the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction,

- the official in charge shall, not later than 45 days prior to the scheduled release of the person, send one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon discharge, parole, or release; one copy to the prosecuting agency which prosecuted the person; and one copy to the court where the person was prosecuted. All such forms shall, if the conviction which makes the person subject to this section is a felony conviction, be transmitted within such times as to be received by the local law enforcement agency, prosecuting agency, and court 30 days prior to the discharge, parole, or release of the person.
- (c) Any person who, after August 1, 1950, is convicted in this state of the commission or attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses and who is released on probation or discharged upon payment of a fine shall, prior to release or discharge, be informed of the duty to register under this section by the court in which the person has been convicted and the court shall require the person to read and sign such form as may be required by the Department of Justice, stating that the duty of the person to register under this section has been explained to him or her. The court shall obtain the address where the person expects to reside upon release or discharge and shall report within three days the address to the Department of Justice. The court shall give one copy of the form to the person, and shall send one copy to the Department of Justice, and shall forward one copy to the appropriate law enforcement agency having local jurisdiction where the person expects to reside upon his or her discharge, parole, or release.
- (d) (1) Any person who, on or after January 1, 1986, is discharged or paroled from the Youth Authority to the custody of which he or she was committed after having been adjudicated a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because of the commission or attempted commission of the following offenses shall be subject to registration under the procedures of this section: assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, or oral copulation, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289 under Section 220; or any offense defined in Section 288, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) or subdivision (c) or (d) of Section 286, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) or subdivision (c) or (d) of Section 288a, subdivision (2) of Section 261, or subdivision (a) of Section 289; or any offense under Section 264.1 involving rape in concert with force or fear of bodily injury or penetration by any foreign object in concert with force or fear of bodily injury.
- (2) Prior to discharge or parole from the Youth Authority, all persons subject to registration shall be informed of the duty to register under the procedures set forth in this section. Youth Authority officials shall transmit the required forms and information to the Department of Justice.
- (3) The duty to register under this section for offenses adjudicated by a juvenile court shall terminate when a person reaches the age of 25.

- (4) All records specifically relating to the registration in the custody of the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, and other agencies or public officials shall be destroyed when the person required to register attains the age of 25 or has his or her records sealed under the procedures set forth in Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, whichever event occurs first. This subdivision shall not be construed as requiring the destruction of other criminal offender or juvenile records relating to the case which are maintained by the Department of Justice, law enforcement agencies, the juvenile court, or other agencies and public officials unless ordered by a court under Section 781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.
- (e) The registration shall consist of (a) a statement in writing signed by the person, giving such information as may be required by the Department of Justice, and (b) the fingerprints and photograph of the person. Within three days thereafter, the registering law enforcement agency shall forward the statement, fingerprints, and photograph to the Department of Justice.
- (f) If any person required to register pursuant to this section changes his or her residence address, the person shall inform, in writing within 10 days, the law enforcement agency with whom he or she last registered of the new address. The law enforcement agency shall, within three days after receipt of this information, forward it to the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice shall forward appropriate registration data to the law enforcement agency having local jurisdiction of the new place of residence.
- (g) Any person required to register under this section who violates any of its provisions is guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person who has been convicted of assault with intent to commit rape, oral copulation, or sodomy, or of any violation of Section 261, 264.1, 286, 288, 288a, or 289, and who is required to register under this section who willfully violates any of the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be sentenced to serve a term of not less than 90 days nor more than one year in the county jail. In no event does the court have the power to absolve a person who willfully violates this section from the obligation of spending at least 90 days of confinement in the county jail and of completing probation of at least one year.
- (h) Whenever any person is released on parole or probation and is required to register under this section but fails to do so within the time prescribed, the Board of Prison Terms, the Youth Authority, or the court, as the case may be, shall order the parole or probation of the person revoked.
- (i) The statements, photographs, and fingerprints herein required shall not be open to inspection by the public or by any person other than a regularly employed peace or other law enforcement officer.
- (j) In any case in which a person who would be required to register pursuant to this section for a felony conviction is to be temporarily sent outside the institution where he or she is confined on any assignment within a city or county including fire fighting, disaster control, or of whatever nature the assignment may be, the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the place or places where the assignment shall occur shall be notified within a reasonable time prior to removal from the institution. This provision does not apply to any person temporarily released under guard from the institution where he or she is confined.

- (k) As used in this section, "mentally disordered sex offender" includes any person who has been determined to be a sexual psychopath or a mentally disordered sex offender under any provision which, on or before January 1, 1976, was contained in Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.
- (l) Every person who, prior to January 1, 1985, is required to register under this section, shall be notified whenever he or she next reregisters of the reduction of the registration period from 30 to 14 days. This notice shall be provided in writing by the registering agency. Failure to receive this notification shall be a defense against the penalties prescribed by subdivision (f) if the person did register within 30 days.
  - (m) This section shall be operative January 1, 1988.
  - SEC. 8. Section 667.7 of the Penal Code is amended to read:
- 667.7. Any person convicted of a felony in which such person inflicted great bodily injury as provided in Section 12022.7, or personally used force which was likely to produce great bodily injury. who has served two or more prior separate prison terms as defined in Section 667.5 for the crime of murder; voluntary manslaughter; mayhem; rape by force or violence, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person; oral copulation by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person; sodomy by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person; lewd acts on a child under the age of 14 years by use of force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person; a violation of subdivision (a) of Section 289 where the act is accomplished against the victim's will by means of force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person; kidnapping for ransom, extortion, or robbery; robbery involving the use of force or a deadly weapon; assault with intent to commit murder; assault with a deadly weapon; assault with a force likely to produce great bodily injury; assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, penetration of a vaginal or anal opening in violation of Section 289, or lewd and lascivious acts on a child; arson of a structure; escape or attempted escape by an inmate with force or violence in violation of subdivision (a) of Section 4530, or of Section 4532; exploding a device with intent to murder in violation of Section 12308; exploding a destructive device which causes bodily injury in violation of Section 12309, or mayhem or great bodily injury in violation of Section 12310; exploding a destructive device with intent to injure, intimidate, or terrify, in violation of Section 12303.3; any felony in which such person inflicted great bodily injury as provided in Section 12022.7; or any felony punishable by death or life imprisonment with or without the possibility of parole is a habitual offender and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for life and shall not be eligible for release on parole for 20 years, or the term determined by the court pursuant to Section 1170 for the underlying conviction, including any enhancement applicable under Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 1170) of Title 7 of Part 2, or any period prescribed by Section 190 or 3046, whichever is greatest. The provisions of Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 2930) of Chapter 7 of Title 1 of Part 3 shall apply to reduce any minimum term in a state prison imposed pursuant to this section, but such person shall not otherwise be released on parole prior to such time. This section shall not prevent the imposition of the punishment of death or imprisonment for life without the possibility of parole. No prior prison term shall be used for this determination which was served prior to a period of 10 years in which the person remained free of both prison custody and the commission of an offense which results in a felony conviction. As used in this section, a commitment to the Department of the Youth Authority after conviction for a felony shall constitute a prior prison term. The term imposed under this section shall be imposed only if the prior prison terms are alleged under this section in the accusatory pleading, and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by a plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by a trial by the court sitting without a jury.

SEC. 9. Section 667.9 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

- 667.9. (a) Any person who has a prior conviction for any of the offenses listed in subdivision (b), and who commits one or more of the crimes listed in subdivision (b) against a person who is 65 years of age or older, or against a person who is blind, a paraplegic, or a quadriplegic, or against a person who is under the age of 14 years, and that disability or condition is known or reasonably should be known to the person committing the crime, shall receive a two-year enhancement for each violation in addition to the sentence provided under Section 667.
  - (b) Subdivision (a) applies to the following crimes:
  - (1) Robbery, in violation of Section 211.
  - (2) Kidnapping, in violation of Section 207.
- (3) Kidnapping for ransom, extortion, or robbery, in violation of Section 209.
- (4) Rape by force, violence, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person in violation of subdivision (2) of Section 261.

- (5) Sodomy or oral copulation by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person in violation of Section 286 or 288a.
  - (6) Mayhem, as defined in Section 203.
- (c) The existence of any fact which would bring a person under subdivision (a) shall be alleged in the information or indictment and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.
- SEC. 10. Section 1170.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read: (a) Except as provided in subdivision (c) and subject to Section 654, when any person is convicted of two or more felonies, whether in the same proceeding or court or in different proceedings or courts, and whether by judgment rendered by the same or by a different court, and a consecutive term of imprisonment is imposed under Sections 669 and 1170, the aggregate term of imprisonment for all these convictions shall be the sum of the principal term, the subordinate term and any additional term imposed pursuant to Section 667.5, 667.6, or 12022.1. The principal term shall consist of the greatest term of imprisonment imposed by the court for any of the crimes, including any enhancements imposed pursuant to Section 12022, 12022.3, 12022.4, 12022.5, 12022.6, 12022.7, 12022.8, or 12022.9. The subordinate term for each consecutive offense which is not a "violent felony" as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 shall consist of one-third of the middle term of imprisonment prescribed for each other such felony conviction for which a consecutive term of imprisonment is imposed, and shall exclude any enhancements. In no case shall the total of subordinate terms for such consecutive offenses which are not "violent felonies" as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 exceed five years. The subordinate term for each consecutive offense which is a "violent felony" as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5, including those offenses described in paragraph (8) of subdivision (c) of Section 667.5, shall consist of one-third of the middle term of imprisonment prescribed for each other such felony conviction for which a consecutive term of imprisonment is imposed, and shall include one-third of any enhancements imposed pursuant to Section 12022, 12022.4, 12022.5, 12022.7, or 12022.9.
- (b) When a consecutive term of imprisonment is imposed under Sections 669 and 1170 for two or more convictions for kidnapping, as defined in Section 207, involving both separate victims and separate occasions, the aggregate term shall be calculated as provided in subdivision (a), except that the subordinate term for each subsequent kidnapping conviction shall consist of the middle term for each kidnapping conviction for which a consecutive term of imprisonment is imposed and shall include one-third of any enhancements imposed pursuant to Section 12022, 12022.4, 12022.5, 12022.7, or 12022.9. The five-year limitation on the total of - subordinate terms provided in subdivision (a) shall not apply to subordinate terms for second and subsequent convictions of kidnapping, as defined in Section 207, involving separate victims and separate occasions.

- (c) In the case of any person convicted of one or more felonies committed while the person is confined in a state prison, or is subject to reimprisonment for escape from such custody and the law either requires the terms to be served consecutively or the court imposes consecutive terms, the term of imprisonment for all the convictions which the person is required to serve consecutively shall commence from the time such person would otherwise have been released from prison. If the new offenses are consecutive with each other, the principal and subordinate terms shall be calculated as provided in subdivision (a), except that the total of subordinate terms may exceed five years. The provisions of this subdivision shall be applicable in cases of convictions of more than one offense in different proceedings, and convictions of more than one offense in the same or different proceedings.
- (d) When the court imposes a prison sentence for a felony pursuant to Section 1170 the court shall also impose the additional terms provided in Sections 667.5, 12022, 12022.4, 12022.5, 12022.6, 12022.7, and 12022.9, unless the additional punishment therefore is stricken pursuant to subdivision (g). The court shall also impose any other additional term which the court determines in its discretion or as required by law shall run consecutive to the term imposed under Section 1170. In considering the imposition of such additional term, the court shall apply the sentencing rules of the Judicial Council.
- (e) When two or more enhancements under Sections 12022, 12022.4, 12022.5, 12022.7, and 12022.9 may be imposed for any single offense, only the greatest enhancement shall apply; however, in cases of robbery, rape or burglary, or attempted robbery, rape or burglary the court may impose both (1) one enhancement for weapons as provided in either Section 12022, 12022.4, or 12022.5 and (2) an enhancement for great bodily injury as provided in Section 12022.7 or 12022.9.
- (f) The enhancements provided in Sections 667.5, 667.6, 12022, 12022.1, 12022.3, 12022.4, 12022.5, 12022.6, 12022.7, 12022.8, and 12022.9 shall be pleaded and proven as provided by law.
- (g) The term of imprisonment shall not exceed twice the number of years imposed by the trial court as the base term pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1170 unless the defendant stands convicted of a "violent felony" as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5, or a consecutive sentence is being imposed pursuant to subdivision (c) of this section, or an enhancement is imposed pursuant to Section 12022, 12022.4, 12022.5, 12022.6, 12022.7, or 12022.9 or the defendant stands convicted of felony escape from an institution in which he is lawfully confined.
- (h) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the court may strike the additional punishment for the enhancements provided in Sections 667.5, 12022, 12022.4, 12022.5, 12022.6, 12022.7, and 12022.9 if it determines that there are circumstances in mitigation of the additional punishment and states on the record its reasons for striking the additional punishment.

- (i) For any violation of subdivision (2) or (3) of Section 261, Section 264.1, subdivision (b) of Section 288, Section 289, or sodomy or oral copulation by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person as provided in Section 286 or 288a, the number of enhancements which may be imposed shall not be limited, regardless of whether such enhancements are pursuant to this or some other section of law. Each of these enhancements shall be a full and separately served enhancement and shall not be merged with any term or with any other enhancement.
- SEC. 11. Section 1192.7 of the Penal Code is amended to read: 1192.7. (a) Plea bargaining in any case in which the indictment or information charges any serious felony or any offense of driving while under the influence of alcohol, drugs, narcotics, or any other intoxicating substance, or any combination thereof, is prohibited, unless there is insufficient evidence to prove the people's case, or testimony of a material witness cannot be obtained, or a reduction or dismissal would not result in a substantial change in sentence.
- (b) As used in this section "plea bargaining" means any bargaining, negotiation, or discussion between a criminal defendant, or his or her counsel, and a prosecuting attorney or judge, whereby the defendant agrees to plead guilty or nolo contendere, in exchange for any promises, commitments, concessions, assurances, or consideration by the prosecuting attorney or judge relating to any charge against the defendant or to the sentencing of the defendant.
- (c) As used in this section "serious felony" means any of the following:
- (1) Murder or voluntary manslaughter; (2) mayhem; (3) rape; (4) sodomy by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person; (5) oral copulation by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person; (6) lewd acts on a child under the age of 14 years; (7) any felony punishable by death or imprisonment in the state prison for life; (8) any other felony in which the defendant inflicts great bodily injury on any person, other than an accomplice, or any felony in which the defendant uses a firearm; (9) attempted murder; (10) assault with intent to commit rape or robbery; (11) assault with a deadly weapon or instrument on a peace officer; (12) assault by a life prisoner on a noninmate; (13) assault with a deadly weapon by an inmate; (14) arson; (15) exploding a destructive device or any explosive with intent to injure; (16) exploding a destructive device or any explosive causing great bodily injury; (17) exploding a destructive device or any explosive with intent to murder; (18) burglary of a residence; (19) robbery; (20) kidnapping; (21) taking of a hostage by an inmate

- of a state prison; (22) attempt to commit a felony punishable by death or imprisonment in the state prison for life; (23) any felony in which the defendant personally used a dangerous or deadly weapon; (24) selling, furnishing, administering or providing heroin, cocaine, or phencyclidine (PCP) to a minor; (25) any attempt to commit a crime listed in this subdivision other than an assault; and (26) any violation of subdivision (a) of Section 289 where the act is accomplished against the victim's will by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person.
- (d) The provisions of this section shall not be amended by the Legislature except by statute passed in each house by rollcall vote entered in the journal, two-thirds of the membership concurring, or by a statute that becomes effective only when approved by the electors.
- SEC. 12. Section 1203.065 of the Penal Code is amended to read: 1203.065. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, probation shall not be granted to, nor shall the execution or imposition of sentence be suspended for, any person convicted of violating subdivision (2) of Section 261, or Section 264.1, or Section 266h, or Section 266i, or Section 266j, or 289, or of committing sodomy or oral copulation in violation of Section 286 or 288a by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person or subdivision (c) of Section 311.4.
- (b) Except in unusual cases where the interests of justice would best be served if the person is granted probation, probation shall not be granted to any person convicted of a violation of Section 220 for assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation any violation of Section 264.1, any violation of subdivision (b) of Section 288, or any violation of Section 289.

When probation is granted, the court shall specify on the record and shall enter on the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by such a disposition.

- (c) This section does not prohibit the adjournment of criminal proceedings pursuant to Division 3 (commencing with Section 3000) or Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.
- SEC. 13. Section 1203.066 of the Penal Code is amended to read: 1203.066. (a) Notwithstanding Section 1203, probation shall not be granted to, nor shall the execution or imposition of sentence be suspended for, nor shall a finding bringing the defendant within the provisions of this section be stricken pursuant to Section 1385 for, any of the following persons:
- (1) A person convicted of violating Section 288 when the act is committed by the use of force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person.
  - (2) A person who caused bodily injury on the child victim in committing a violation of Section 288.

- (3) A person convicted of a violation of Section 288 and who was a stranger to the child victim or made friends with the child victim for the purpose of committing an act in violation of Section 288, unless the defendant honestly and reasonably believed the victim was 14 years old or older.
- (4) A person who used a weapon during the commission of a violation of Section 288.
- (5) A person convicted of committing a violation of Section 288 and who has had a prior conviction of Section 261, 264.1, 267, 285, 288, or 289, of committing sodomy or oral copulation in violation of Section 286 or 288a by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person, of assaulting another with intent to commit a crime specified in this paragraph in violation of Section 220, or a violation of Section 266.
- (6) A person convicted of kidnapping the child victim in violation of either Section 207 or 209 and who kidnapped the victim for the purpose of committing a violation of Section 288.
- (7) A person who is convicted of committing a violation of Section 288 on more than one victim at the same time or in the same course of conduct.
- (8) A person who in violating Section 288 has substantial sexual conduct with a victim under the age of 11 years.
- (9) A person who occupies a position of special trust and commits an act of substantial sexual conduct. "Position of special trust" means that position occupied by a person in a position of authority who by reason of that position is able to exercise undue influence over the victim. Position of authority includes, but is not limited to, the position occupied by a natural parent, adoptive parent, stepparent, foster parent, relative, household member, adult youth leader, recreational director who is an adult, adult athletic manager, adult coach, teacher, counselor, religious leader, doctor, or employer.
- (10) A person who, in committing a violation of Section 288, used obscene matter, as defined in Section 311, or matter (as defined in Section 311) depicting sexual conduct, as defined in Section 311.3.
- (b) "Substantial sexual conduct" means penetration of the vagina or rectum by the penis of the offender or by any foreign object, oral copulation, or masturbation of either the victim or the offender.
- (c) Paragraphs (7), (8), (9), and (10) of subdivision (a) shall not apply when the court makes all of the following findings:
- (1) The defendant is the victim's natural parent, adoptive parent, stepparent, relative, or is a member of the victim's household who has lived in the household.
- (2) Imprisonment of the defendant is not in the best interest of the child.
- (3) Rehabilitation of the defendant is feasible in a recognized treatment program designed to deal with child molestation, and if the defendant is to remain in the household, a program that is specifically designed to deal with molestation within the family.

(4) There is no threat of physical harm to the child victim if there is no imprisonment. The court upon making its findings pursuant to this subdivision is not precluded from sentencing the defendant to jail or prison, but retains the discretion not to. The court shall state its reasons on the record for whatever sentence it imposes on the defendant.

The court shall order the psychiatrist or psychologist appointed pursuant to Section 288.1 to include a consideration of the factors specified in paragraphs (2), (3), and (4) in making his or her report to the court.

- (d) The existence of any fact which would make a person ineligible for probation under subdivision (a) shall be alleged in the accusatory pleading, and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.
  - SEC. 14. Section 1203.075 of the Penal Code is amended to read: 1203.075. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1203:
- (a) Probation shall not be granted to, nor shall the execution or imposition of sentence be suspended for, nor shall a finding bringing the defendant within the provisions of this section be stricken pursuant to Section 1385 for, any person who, with the intent to inflict such injury, personally inflicts great bodily injury on the person of another in the commission or attempted commission of any of the following crimes:
  - (1) Murder.
- (2) Assault with intent to commit murder, in violation of Section 217.
  - (3) Robbery, in violation of Section 211.
  - (4) Kidnapping, in violation of Section 207.
- (5) Kidnapping for ransom, extortion or robbery, in violation of Section 209.
  - (6) Burglary of the first degree, as defined in Section 460.
  - (7) Rape in violation of subdivision (2) of Section 261.
- (8) Assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, or robbery, in violation of Section 220.
  - (9) Escape, in violation of Section 4530 or 4532.
  - (10) A violation of subdivision (a) of Section 289.
  - (11) Sodomy, in violation of Section 286.
  - (12) Oral copulation, in violation of Section 288a.
- (b) (1) The existence of any fact which would make a person ineligible for probation under subdivision (a) shall be alleged in the accusatory pleading, and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by a plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by a trial by the court sitting without a jury.
- (2) This subdivision does not prohibit the adjournment of criminal proceedings pursuant to Division 3 (commencing with Section 3000) or Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

- (3) As used in subdivision (a), "great bodily injury" means "great bodily injury" as defined in Section 12022.7.
- SEC. 15. Section 12022.8 of the Penal Code is amended to read: 12022.8. Any person who inflicts great bodily injury, as defined in Section 12022.7, on any victim in a violation of subdivision (2) or (3) of Section 261, Section 264.1, subdivision (b) of Section 288, Section 289, or sodomy or oral copulation by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person as provided in Section 286 or 288a shall receive a five-year enhancement for each such violation in addition to the sentence provided for the felony conviction.
- SEC. 16. Any section of any act enacted by the Legislature during the 1986 calendar year, which takes effect on or before January 1, 1987, and which amends, amends and renumbers, repeals and adds, or repeals Section 667.5, 667.7, 667.9, 1170.1, 1192.7, 1203.066, 1203.075 or 12022.8 of the Penal Code, as proposed to be amended by this act, shall prevail over this act, whether that act is enacted prior to or subsequent to this act. However, Section 1170.1 of the Penal Code, as amended by this act, shall prevail over the amendments proposed by Senate Bill 2451 (Ch. 248, Stats. 1986).
- SEC. 17. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1300

An act to amend Section 926.15 of the Government Code, relating to state government, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 926.15 of the Government Code is amended to read:

926.15. (a) Any state agency which, without reasonable cause, fails to make any payment within 30 days of the required payment date to a small business or a nonprofit organization awarded a contract with the agency to supply property or services, for an undisputed claim which was properly executed by the claimant and submitted to the agency, shall pay a penalty of 0.25 percent of the amount due, per day, from the 31st day after the required payment date. In the event that the contracting state agency properly executes the claim and forwards the claim to the Controller, and the Controller fails to make payment within 30 days after receipt of a properly executed claim, the Controller shall pay a penalty of 0.25 percent of the amount due, per day, from the 31st day after the Controller's receipt of the claim. A nonprofit organization shall only be eligible to receive a penalty payment if it has been awarded a contract in an amount less than five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000).

- (b) In applying this section to claims submitted to the state, or to its fiscal intermediary, by providers of services or equipment under the Medi-Cal program, pursuant to Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 14000) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, payment for claims shall be due 30 days after a claim is received by the state or its fiscal intermediary, unless reasonable cause for nonpayment exists. With regard to Medi-Cal claims "reasonable cause" shall include review of claims to determine medical necessity, review of claims for providers subject to special prepayment fraud and abuse controls, and claims which require review by the fiscal intermediary or department due to special circumstances. Claims requiring special review as specified above shall not be eligible for a late payment penalty.
- (c) Unless otherwise specified, for the purposes of this section, "reasonable cause" shall include review of a claim which is improperly executed by the claimant or for which additional evidence of the validity of the claim is required. If it is determined by the state agency that a claim was improperly executed or that additional evidence of the validity of the claim is required, the small business or nonprofit organization shall be notified within 15 working days of receipt by the state agency that the claim needs correction or that additional evidence of validity is required. The required payment date for claims requiring correction or additional information establishing validity shall be 30 days from the date the corrected claim is received by the state agency.
- (d) For the purposes of this section, "required payment date" means any of the following:
- (1) The date on which payment is due under the terms of the contract.
- (2) If a specific date is not established by contract, the date upon which an invoice is received, if the invoice specifies payment is due upon receipt.
- (3) If a specific date is not established by contract or invoice, 30 days after receipt of a proper invoice for the amount of the payment
- (e) For the purposes of this section, the terms "small business" and "nonprofit organization" shall be defined by regulations of the Department of General Services which implement this section.
  - (f) Any penalty required to be paid by a state agency pursuant to this section shall be paid by the Controller out of the state agency's budget.

- (g) When a state agency is required by this section to pay a penalty, it shall be presumed that the fault is that of the head of the state agency and, in such cases, the head of the state agency shall submit to the Legislature a report on the actions taken to correct the problem.
- (h) Any state agency which requests that the Legislature make a deficiency appropriation for the agency shall identify what part of the requested amount is necessitated because of any penalties imposed by this section.
- (i) Accrual of the penalty provided by subdivision (a) shall cease for a state agency on the date a properly executed claims schedule for the claim is submitted to the Controller, and for the Controller on the date the claim is paid. For purposes of this section, the terms "small business" and "nonprofit organization," in referring to providers under the Medi-Cal program, mean a business or organization:
  - (1) Where the principal office is located in California.
  - (2) Where the officers, if any, are domiciled in California.
- (3) Which, if a small business, is independently owned and operated.
  - (4) Which is not dominant in its field of operation.
- (5) Which, together with any affiliates, has gross receipts from business operations which do not exceed three million dollars ($3,000,000) per year, except that the State Director of Health Services may increase this amount if the director deems that this action would be in futherance of the intent of this section.
- (j) No nonprofit public benefit corporation shall be eligible for a late payment penalty if the state agency has failed to make timely payment because no Budget Act has been enacted. For the purposes of this section, "nonprofit public benefit corporation" means a corporation as defined by subdivision (b) of Section 5046 of the Corporations Code which has registered with the Department of General Services as a small business.
- SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to resolve any confusion as to when the penalty for late payment of Medi-Cal claims presented by providers begins to accrue and to enable the State Department of Health Services to make these payments promptly, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1301

An act to add and repeal Section 14027 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to public social services, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14027 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14027. (a) The department shall establish a committee, which shall be comprised of practicing dentists who are Medi-Cal providers.

- (b) The committee established pursuant to subdivision (a) shall review and advise the Director of Health Services on regulations regarding the provision of dental services as covered benefits under this chapter.
- (c) Members of the committee shall be reimbursed for all necessary expenses incurred performing the duties of the committee.
- (d) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1987, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1987, deletes or extends that date.
- SEC. 2. The committee established pursuant to Section 1 of this act shall report to the Legislature, by January 1, 1987, on the status of the Denti-Cal program.
- SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide the committee established pursuant to this act adequate time for the preparation of the report to the Legislature on the status of the Denti-Cal program, it is necessary that this act go into effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1302

An act to amend Sections 113, 26009, and 26801 of, to add Sections 26568.5 and 26568.6 to, and to add Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 26506) to Chapter 5 of Division 21 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to the Sherman Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Law, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 113 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Chapter 248 of the Statutes of 1986, is amended to read:

- 113. (a) The fees or charges for the issuance or renewal of any permit, license, or registration pursuant to Sections 436.53, 527, 1616, 1676, 1677, 4042, 4042.2, 4042.3, 11887, 25198.7, 25694, 25696, 25697, 25816, 25817, 26506.2, 26688, 27010, 27011, 28126, 28410, 28411, and 28702 shall be adjusted annually by the percentage change printed in the Budget Act for those items appropriating funds to the department. After the first annual adjustment of fees or charges pursuant to this section, the fees or charges subject to subsequent adjustment shall be the fees or charges for the prior calendar year. The percentage change shall be determined by the Department of Finance, and shall include at least the total percentage change in salaries and operating expenses of the department. However, the total increase in amounts collected under this section shall not exceed the total increased cost of the program or service provided.
- (b) The department shall publish annually a list of the actual numerical fee charges for each permit, license, certification, or registration governed by this section. This adjustment of fees and publication of the fee list shall not be subject to the requirements of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.
- SEC. 2. Section 26009 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- 26009. "Device" means any instrument, apparatus, implement, machine, contrivance, implant, in vitro reagent, or other similar or related article, including any component, part, or accessory, which is any of the following:
- (a) Recognized in the official National Formulary or the United States Pharmacopeia, or any supplement to them.
- (b) Intended for use in the diagnosis of disease or other condition, or in the cure, mitigation, treatment, or prevention of disease in humans or any other animal.
- (c) Intended to affect the structure or any function of the body of humans or any other animal and which does not achieve any of its principal intended purposes through chemical action within or on the body of humans or other animals and which is not dependent upon being metabolized for the achievement of any of its principal intended purposes.
- SEC. 3. Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 26506) is added to Chapter 5 of Division 21 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 1.5. Registration

- 26506. Every person upon first engaging in the manufacture, packing, or holding of processed food in this state shall immediately register with the department. The registration is valid for two calendar years from the date of validation by the department of the completed registration form. The department shall provide to each registrant a validated copy of the completed registration form, sent to the mailing address shown on the form, as evidence of valid registration.
- 26506.1. A separate registration is required for each place of manufacture, packing, or holding.
- 26506.2. A registration form provided by the department shall be completed biennially and accompanied by a nonreturnable registration fee of twenty-five dollars ($25). The registration or renewal of registration shall set forth all applicable information called for by the registration form. The fee amount shall be adjusted annually pursuant to Section 113.
- 26506.3. Any person registered pursuant to this article shall immediately notify the department of any change in the information reported on the registration form.
- 26506.4. The registration provisions of this chapter shall not apply to any of the following:
- (a) Any retail food facility as defined in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 27500) of Division 22.
- (b) Any person who has a valid bottled water or water vending machine license issued pursuant to Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 4040) of Part 1 of Division 5.
- (c) Any person who has a valid cannery license issued pursuant to Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 28360) of Division 22.
- (d) Any person who has a valid shellfish certificate issued pursuant to Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 28500) of Division 22.
- (e) Any person who has a valid milk products plant, margarine, imitation ice cream, imitation ice milk, or a products resembling milk products plant license, issued pursuant to Division 15 (commencing with Section 32501) of the Food and Agricultural Code.
- 26506.5. The department may issue some registrations for a period of less than two years during the first two years of this requirement. If a registration is issued for less than two years, the fee shall be adjusted accordingly.
- SEC. 4. Section 26568.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:
- 26568.5. It is unlawful for any person to manufacture, pack, or hold processed food in this state unless in an establishment duly registered, as provided in this division.
- SEC. 5. Section 26568.6 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:
  - 26568.6. It is unlawful for any person to willfully make a false statement or representation, or knowingly fail to disclose a fact required to be disclosed in the application for registration or renewal of registration, as provided in Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 26506) of Chapter 5.

SEC. 6. Section 26801 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

26801. Any person who violates any provision of this division or any regulation adopted pursuant to this division shall, if convicted, be subject to imprisonment for not more than one year in the county jail or a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or both the imprisonment and fine. If the violation is committed after a previous conviction under this section which has become final, or if the violation is committed with intent to defraud or mislead, the person shall be subject to imprisonment for not more than one year in the county jail, imprisonment in state prison, or a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or both the imprisonment and fine

SEC. 7. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Moreover, no reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code for other costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement for the other costs available to it under Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) and any other provisions of law.

SEC. 8. Section 1 of this act shall become operative on January 1, 1987, but that shall not delay the operative effect of Section 26506.2 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 9. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

California has experienced the most serious and tragic food contamination episode of the twentieth century. In order to assure that all food in California is safely manufactured, packed, and held and potential health problems are promptly identified and corrected, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately. Furthermore, in order to make a clarifying change in a definition contained in the Sherman Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Law as soon as possible, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1303

An act to add Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 67320) to Part 40 of the Education Code, relating to postsecondary education.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 67320) is added to Part 40 of the Education Code, to read:

CHAPTER 14. OFFICE EQUIPMENT

67320. Each campus of the California Community Colleges, the California State University, and the University of California shall consider human and ergonomic factors, including human health and safety, human comfort, and equipment usefulness when they select and procure office equipment and related support equipment.

The Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges, the Trustees of the California State University, and the Regents of the University of California shall adopt regulations that are necessary to carry out this chapter.

For purposes of this chapter, "office equipment and related support equipment" includes, but is not limited to, electronic equipment, typewriters, chairs, and tables.

67321. No provision of this chapter shall apply to the University of California unless the Regents of the University of California, by resolution, make that provision applicable.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act does not mandate a new program or higher level of service on local government. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 17550) of Part 7 of Division 5 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 1304

An act to amend Sections 25118, 25165, and 25358.3 of, and to add Sections 25110.1, 25110.8, 25112.5, 25117.10, 25186.5, and 25200.4 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

- (a) The proper collection, transportation, treatment, recycling, storage, and disposal of hazardous waste is critical to maintaining the health, environmental soundness, and economic prosperity of the state.
- (b) This act will extend strict state regulation to those persons involved in the operations of these hazardous waste management activities, so as to foster and justify the public confidence and trust in the credibility and integrity of the conduct of these activities.
- (c) The hazardous waste industry in California can attain, maintain, and retain integrity, public confidence, and trust, and promote the general public interest, only under a system of control and regulation that precludes the participation of persons with known criminal records, habits, or associations, and excludes or removes from any position of authority or responsibility any person who is known to be so deficient in reliability, expertise, or competence concerning hazardous waste and hazardous materials management that the person's participation would create or enhance the dangers of unsound, unfair, or illegal practices, methods, and activities in the conduct of the business of the hazardous waste industry.
- (d) Notwithstanding the fact that the major percentage of operators involved in these industries are respectable and responsible and that a substantial hazardous waste industry capable of meeting the licensing standards exists in California, the hazardous waste industry remains vulnerable to corrupting influences.
- (e) Therefore, it is vital to the interests of the state to prevent entry, direct or indirect, into the operations of the hazardous waste industry of any person who has violated specified laws or regulations of a state, local, or federal agency, and the powers and authority provided by this act shall be carried out to the fullest extent consistent with the law to exclude these persons from the hazardous waste industry.
- SEC. 2. Section 25110.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:
  - 25110.1. "Applicant" means any person seeking an original hazardous waste facilities permit, or an original hazardous waste hauler's registration from the department to generate, transport, treat, store, recycle, dispose of or handle hazardous waste.

- SEC. 3. Section 25110.8 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:
- 25110.8. "Business concern" means any sole proprietorship, corporation, association, firm, partnership, trust, or other form of commercial organization.
- SEC. 4. Section 25112.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:
  - 25112.5. "Disclosure statement" means either of the following:
- (a) A statement submitted to the department by an applicant, signed by the applicant under penalty of perjury, which includes all of the following information:
- (1) The full name, business address, and social security number of all of the following:
  - (A) The applicant.
- (B) Any officers, directors, or partners, if the applicant is a business concern.
- (C) All persons or any officers, directors, or partners of business concerns holding more than 5 percent of the equity in, or debt liability of the applicant, except that if the debt liability is held by a lending institution, the applicant shall only supply the name and address of the lending institution.
- (2) The full name and business address of any company which generates, transports, treats, stores, recycles, disposes of, or handles hazardous waste and hazardous materials in which the applicant holds at least a 5 percent debt liability or equity interest.
- (3) A description of any local, state, or federal licenses, permits, or registrations for the generation, transportation, treatment, storage, recycling, disposal, or handling of hazardous waste or hazardous materials applied for, or possessed by the applicant, or, if the applicant is a business concern, by the officers, directors, or partners of the business concern, including the name and address of the issuing agency.
- (4) A listing and explanation of any final administrative orders or license revocations or suspensions issued or initiated by any local, state, or federal authority, in the three years immediately preceding the filing of the statement, or any civil or criminal prosecutions pending at the time the statement is filed, relating to the generation, transportation, treatment, storage, recycling, disposal, or handling of hazardous waste or hazardous materials received by the applicant, or, if the applicant is a business concern, by any officer, director, or partner of the business concern.
- (5) A listing of any agencies outside of the state which regulate, or had regulated, the applicant's generation, transportation, treatment, storage, recycling, disposal, or handling of hazardous waste or hazardous materials.
  - (6) A listing and explanation of any federal or state conviction, judgment, or settlement, in the three years immediately preceding the filing of the statement, relating to the generation, transportation, treatment, storage, recycling, disposal, or handling of hazardous waste or hazardous materials by the applicant, or if the applicant is a business concern, by any officer, director, or partner of the business concern.

- (b) In lieu of the statement specified in subdivision (a), a corporation, the stock of which is listed on a national securities exchange and registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. Sec. 78a et seq.), or a subsidiary of such a corporation, may submit to the department copies of all periodic reports, including, but not limited to, those reports required by Section 78m of Title 15 of the United States Code and Part 229 (commencing with Section 229.10) of Chapter II of Title 17 of the Code of Federal Regulations which the corporation or subsidiary has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission in the three years immediately preceding the submittal, if the corporation or subsidiary thereof has held a hazardous waste facility under interim status pursuant to Section 25200 or 25200.5 since January 1, 1984.
- SEC. 5. Section 25117.10 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:
- 25117.10. "License" includes, but is not limited to any, permit, registration, or certification issued by any local, state, or federal agency for the generation, transportation, treatment, storage, recycling, disposal, or handling of hazardous waste.
- SEC. 6. Section 25118 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- 25118. "Person" means an individual, trust, firm, joint stock company, business concern, corporation, including, but not limited to, a government corporation, partnership, and association. "Person" also includes any city, county, district, and the state or any department or agency thereof, and the federal government or any department or agency thereof to the extent permitted by law.
- SEC. 7. Section 25165 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- 25165. (a) A hazardous waste hauler's application for original and renewal registration shall be on a form provided by the department and shall be accompanied by the appropriate fees.
- (b) Any application for registration under this section shall be filed with the department. If the applicant is not a federal, state, or local agency, the application shall include a disclosure statement.
- SEC. 8. Section 25186.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:
- 25186.5. (a) In making a determination pursuant to Section 25186, the director may contact the Attorney General, the United States Department of Justice, the Environmental Protection Agency, or other agencies outside of the state which have, or have had, regulatory or enforcement jurisdiction over the applicant in connection with any hazardous waste or hazardous materials activities.

- (b) Every hazardous waste licenseholder or applicant, other than a federal, state, or local agency, who is not otherwise required to file a disclosure statement on or before January 1, 1989, shall file a disclosure statement with the department on or before January 1, 1989.
- (c) If any of the information required to be included in a disclosure statement submitted to the department changes, or if any additional information should be added after the filing of the statement, the license holder or applicant shall provide that information to the department, in writing, within 30 days of the change or addition.
- (d) Any person submitting a disclosure statement shall pay a fee set by the department in an amount adequate to defray the costs of implementing this section, per person, officer, director, or partner required to be listed in the disclosure statement, in addition to any other fees required. The department shall deposit these fees in the Hazardous Waste Control Account. The fees shall be made available, upon appropriation by the Legislature, to cover the costs of conducting the necessary background searches.
- (e) Any person who knowingly makes any false statement or misrepresentation in a disclosure statement filed pursuant to the requirements of this chapter is, upon conviction, subject to the penalties specified in subdivision (a) of Section 25191.
- (f) The disclosure statement submitted pursuant to subdivision (b) is exempt from the requirements of the California Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code).
- SEC. 9. Section 25200.4 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:
- 25200.4. Any application to use and operate a hazardous waste facility made pursuant to Section 25200, other than one submitted by a federal, state, or local agency, shall include a disclosure statement.
- SEC. 10. Section 25358.3 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- 25358.3. (a) Whenever the director determines that there may be an imminent or substantial endangerment to the public health or welfare or to the environment, because of a release or a threatened release of a hazardous substance, the director may do any or all of the following:
- (1) Order any responsible party or parties to take appropriate removal or remedial action necessary to protect the public health and safety and the environment. No order under this section shall be made to an owner of real property solely on the basis of that ownership.
  - (2) Take or contract for any necessary removal or remedial action.
- (3) Request the Attorney General to secure relief that may be necessary to abate the danger or threat. The superior court of the county in which the threat or danger occurs shall have jurisdiction to grant the relief which the public interest and equities of the case may require.

- (b) When the director determines that a release of a hazardous substance has occurred or is about to occur, the director may do any or all of the following:
- (1) Undertake those investigations, monitoring, surveys, testing, and other information gathering necessary to identify the existence, source, nature, and extent of the hazardous substances involved and the extent of danger to the public health or environment.
- (2) Undertake those planning, legal, fiscal, economic, engineering, architectural, and other studies or investigations which are necessary or appropriate to plan and direct response actions, to recover the cost of those actions, and to enforce this chapter.
- (c) Whenever there is a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance into the environment, the director may take or contract for any necessary removal or remedial action and may take or contract for any actions authorized by subdivision (b), in compliance with the provisions of this chapter, including, but not limited to, subdivision (b) of Section 25355.
- (d) Any person bidding for a contract specified in subdivision (c) shall submit a disclosure statement, as specified by Section 25112.5, except for a federal, state, or local agency. The director may prohibit a person from bidding on such a contract if the director makes any of the following determinations:
- (1) The director determines, in writing, that the bidder, or, if the bidder is a business entity, any trustee, officer, director, partner, or any person holding more than 5 percent of the equity in or debt liability of that business entity, has engaged in activities resulting in any federal or state conviction which are significantly related to the fitness of the bidder to perform the bidder's duties or activities under the contract. For purposes of this paragraph, "conviction" means a plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere. Any action which the department may take pursuant to this subdivision relating to the department's refusal to permit a person to bid on the contract may be based upon a conviction for which any of the following has occurred:
  - (A) The time for appeal has elapsed.
  - (B) The judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal.
- (C) Any order granting probation is made suspending the imposition of sentence, notwithstanding a subsequent order pursuant to Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code permitting that person to withdraw the plea of guilty and to enter a plea of not guilty, or setting aside the verdict of guilty, or dismissing the accusation, information, or indictment.
- (2) The director determines, in writing, that the bidder, or, if the bidder is a business entity, any trustee, officer, director, partner, or any person holding more than 5 percent of the equity in or debt liability of that business entity, has violated or failed to comply with this chapter or Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100) or Chapter 6.7 (commencing with Section 25280) of this division, the Porter-Cologne Water Quality Control Act (Division (commencing with Section 13000) of the Water Code), the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended, (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6901 et seq.), the Hazardous Materials Transportation Act, as amended (49 U.S.C. Sec. 1801 et seq.), the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 9601 et seq.), the Toxic Substances Control Act (15 U.S.C. Sec. 2601 et seq.), or any other equivalent federal or state statute or any requirement or regulation adopted pursuant thereto relating to the generation, transportation, treatment, storage, recycling, disposal, or handling of a hazardous waste, as defined in Section 25117, a hazardous substance, as defined in Section 25316, or a hazardous material, as defined in Section 353 of the Vehicle Code, if the violation or failure to comply shows a repeating or recurring pattern or may pose a threat to public health or safety or the environment.

(3) The director determines, in writing, that the bidder has had a license, permit, or registration for the generation, transportation, treatment, storage, recycling, disposal, or handling of hazardous waste or hazardous substances revoked or suspended.

SEC. 11. The sum of two hundred forty thousand dollars ($240,000) is hereby appropriated from the Hazardous Waste Control Account, without regard to fiscal years, to the State Department of Health Services, for the purpose of implementing Section 25186.5.

SEC. 12. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

SEC. 13. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1305

An act to amend Sections 12520, 12520.5, and 12810.5 of, and to add Sections 612, 12519.5, and 12520.7 to, the Vehicle Code, relating to transportation.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- SECTION 1. Section 612 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read: 612. "Tour bus" means a bus designed for carrying more than 16 passengers and the driver which is operated by or for a charter-party carrier of passengers, as defined in Section 5360 of the Public Utilities Code.
- SEC. 2. Section 12519.5 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read: 12519.5. (a) No person shall operate a tour bus unless that person has in his or her immediate possession a valid driver's license for the appropriate class of vehicle operated. When transporting one or more passengers, that person shall also have in his or her immediate possession a certificate to operate a tour bus issued by the department pursuant to subdivision (b).
- (b) The driver's certificate shall be issued only to applicants qualified by examinations prescribed and conducted by the department upon payment of a forty-one dollars ($41) fee.
- (c) An operator of a tour bus shall, at all times when operating a tour bus, do all of the following:
  - (1) Use a safety belt.
- (2) Report any accidents involving the tour bus to the Department of the California Highway Patrol.
- (d) This section shall become operative on July 1, 1987. The department may establish implementation dates for this section by regulation in order to accomplish an orderly certification program.
- SEC. 3. Section 12520 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read: 12520. (a) The department shall deny any application for the issuance of a farm labor vehicle or tour bus driver's certificate made by any applicant who:
- (1) Has been convicted, within the three years next preceding the applicant's application for the certificate, of any violation involving felony hit-and-run driving, any violation of Section 23152 or 23153, or reckless driving, or whose driving privilege is or has been under suspension, revocation, or probation, by the department for a cause involving safe operation of a motor vehicle.
- (2) Because of excessive and continuous use of alcoholic beverages, is incapable of safely operating a motor vehicle.
- (3) Habitually or excessively uses or is addicted to the use of any drug.
  - (4) Does not meet minimum medical standards established or approved by the department.

- (b) The department may deny a farm labor vehicle or tour bus driver's certificate to any applicant who:
- (1) Has been involved, within the two years next preceding his or her application, as a driver in any accident causing death or personal injury or damage to the property of any one person in excess of two hundred dollars ($200).
- (2) Has been involved as a driver in three or more accidents within the 12-month period preceding his or her application.
- (3) Has been determined to be a reckless or incompetent driver. SEC. 4. Section 12520.5 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read: 12520.5. (a) The department shall revoke the farm labor vehicle or tour bus driver's certificate of any holder who after issuance of the certificate:
- (1) Is convicted of any violation involving felony hit-and-run driving, driving under the influence of an alcoholic beverage, reckless driving or has had his driving privilege suspended or revoked by the department for a cause involving the safe operation of a motor vehicle, or is found by the department to be a negligent operator.
- (2) Because of excessive and continuous use of alcoholic beverages, is incapable of safely operating a motor vehicle.
- (3) Habitually or excessively uses or is addicted to the use of any drug.
- (b) The department may revoke the farm labor vehicle or tour bus driver's certificate of any holder for any cause, whether existing before or after the issuance of the certificate, which would either authorize or require the department to refuse to issue a certificate.
- SEC. 5. Section 12520.7 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read: 12520.7. The department may refuse to issue, or may cancel, suspend, or revoke, a certificate to operate a tour bus if the applicant for, or holder of, a certificate does any of the following:
  - (1) Voluntarily requests cancellation.
- (2) Has his or her driving privilege suspended or revoked for a cause involving other than the safe operation of a motor vehicle.
- (3) Fails to meet the requirements for issuance and retention of a driver certificate, including, but not limited to, payment of the proper fee and submittal of an acceptable medical report.
- SEC. 6. Section 12810.5 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read: 12810.5. (a) Any person, including persons holding certificates pursuant to Section 2512, 12517, 12519, 12519.5, 12521, 12523, 12804.1, or 12804.3 whose driving record shows a violation point count of four or more points in 12 months, six or more points in 24 months, or eight or more points in 36 months shall be prima facie presumed to be a negligent operator of a motor vehicle. In applying the provisions of this, subdivision to a driver, the department shall give due consideration to the amount of use or mileage traveled in the operation of a motor vehicle.
  - (b) Any class 1 or class 2 licensed driver, except persons holding certificates pursuant to Section 2512, 12517, 12519, 12519.5, 12521, 12523, 12804.1, or 12804.3, whose driving record shows a violation point count of six or more points in 12 months, eight or more points in 24 months, or 10 or more points in 36 months shall be prima facie presumed to be a negligent operator of a motor vehicle.

SEC. 7. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1306

An act to amend Sections 768, 5373, and 5373.1 of, and to add Section 5380 to, the Public Utilities Code, to amend Sections 1808.1, 2807.2, 14601, 14601.1, 14601.2, 14601.3, 34506, and 40000.21 of, and to add Sections 612, 34500.1, 34501.3, 34501.4, 34505, 34505.1, 34513, and 40000.6 to, the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

- (1) Recent bus accidents have called into question the adequacy of the existing regulatory scheme for buses in this state. Thirty passengers have been killed in bus accidents in California since 1984, with scores of other passengers injured. With deregulation of the bus industry, many new bus carriers have entered the market, some of which lack sufficient financial resources to adequately maintain their bus fleets in a safe and prudent manner.
- (2) Spot checks of tour buses by the California Highway Patrol have resulted in one of every four buses checked being removed from service as being too unsafe to drive. There is a need to check the safety of tour buses on an individual and systematic basis, similar to existing programs which help ensure proper maintenance of schoolbuses.
- (3) Coordination between the California Highway Patrol and the Public Utilities Commission is essential to expeditiously remove the operating authority of those tour bus companies which fail to keep their buses in safe operating condition. In addition, the adequacy of existing insurance requirements has been questioned following recent bus accidents.
  - SEC. 2. Section 768 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

- The commission may, after a hearing, require every public *76*8. utility to construct, maintain, and operate its line, plant, system, equipment, apparatus, tracks, and premises in a manner so as to promote and safeguard the health and safety of its employees, passengers, customers, and the public. The commission may prescribe, among other things, the installation, use, maintenance, and operation of appropriate safety or other devices or appliances. including interlocking and other protective devices at grade crossings or junctions and block or other systems of signaling. The commission may establish uniform or other standards of construction and equipment, and require the performance of any other act which the health or safety of its employees, passengers, customers, or the public may demand. The Department of the California Highway Patrol shall have the primary responsibility for the regulation of the safety of operation of passenger stage corporations, highway common carriers, and other motor carriers. The commission shall cooperate with the Department of the California Highway Patrol to ensure safe operation of these carriers.
- SEC. 3. Section 5373 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:
- 5373. (a) Each annual application for a permit to act as a charter-party carrier of passengers pursuant to this chapter shall be accompanied by a filing fee of three hundred dollars ($300). Each certificate to act as a charter-party carrier of passengers shall be accompanied by an annual renewal fee of three hundred dollars ($300).
- (b) The commission shall also require each application to be accompanied by a fee to offset the cost of the charter-party carrier bus terminal inspections conducted by the Department of the California Highway Patrol. The fee shall be fifteen dollars ($15) per tour bus, as defined in Section 612 of the Vehicle Code, or a maximum of six thousand five hundred dollars ($6,500) for each operating carrier.
- (c) The commission shall deposit the fees collected pursuant to subdivision (b) in the Motor Vehicle Account in the State Transportation Fund.
- SEC. 4. Section 5373.1 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:
- 5373.1. (a) Each initial application for a certificate or permit shall be accompanied by a filing fee as follows:
  - (1) Class A certificates—five hundred dollars ($500).
  - (2) Class B certificates—five hundred dollars ($500).
  - (3) Permits—five hundred dollars ($500).
- (b) The commission shall also require each initial application to be accompanied by a fee to offset the cost of the charter-party carrier bus terminal inspections conducted by the Department of the California Highway Patrol. The fee shall be fifteen dollars ($15) per tour bus, as defined in Section 612 of the Vehicle Code, or a maximum of six thousand five hundred dollars ($6,500) for each operating carrier.

- (c) The commission shall deposit the fees collected pursuant to subdivision (b) in the Motor Vehicle Account in the State Transportation Fund.
- SEC. 5. Section 5380 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read: 5380. (a) Upon notification by the Department of the California Highway Patrol that a charter-party carrier of passengers has failed to comply with the inspection requirements in the Vehicle Code, or has received an unsatisfactory terminal rating, the commission shall immediately deny, suspend, or revoke the carrier's permit or certificate.
- (b) Applications for reissue or reinstatement of a permit or certificate denied, suspended, or revoked pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be accompanied by a filing fee of five hundred dollars ($500).
  - SEC. 6. Section 612 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:
- 612. "Tour bus" means a bus designed for carrying more than 16 passengers and the driver which is operated by or for a charter-party carrier of passengers, as defined in Section 5360 of the Public Utilities Code.
- SEC. 7. Section 1808.1 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read: (a) The employer or prospective employer of a driver who drives a tour bus shall make a request to the department to participate in a notification process for the purpose of providing the employer with a report showing the driver's current public record as recorded by the department, and any subsequent convictions, failures to appear, accidents, driver's license suspensions, or driver's license revocations added to the driver's record while the employer's notification request remains valid and uncanceled. The employer or prospective employer of a driver who drives a vehicle requiring a certificate issued pursuant to Section 12524, 12804.1, or 12804.3 may, upon request, participate in the notification program. The request shall be accompanied by a fee determined by the department to be sufficient to defray the entire actual cost to the department for the notification service. For the receipt of subsequent reports, the employer shall also be charged a fee established by the department pursuant to Section 1811.
- (b) An employer of a tour bus driver shall notify the department to cancel the request upon the termination of the driver's employment.
- (c) When an employer of a driver of a vehicle requiring a certificate issued pursuant to Section 12524, 12804.1, or 12804.3 no longer wishes to receive information pursuant to this section, the employer shall notify the department to cancel the request.
- (d) The operating carrier of a tour bus shall obtain a report of each employee who operates the bus and verify that the employee's operator's license has not been suspended or revoked, the employee's traffic violation point count, and whether the employee has been charged with a violation of Section 23152 or 23153. The - operating carrier shall obtain the report at least every six months except that an operating carrier who employs more than 500 tour bus drivers shall obtain the report no less than annually. The report shall be signed and dated by the owner and maintained at the principal place of business of the owner. The reports shall be presented upon demand to any authorized representative of the Department of the California Highway Patrol during the regular business hours of the owner.

- (e) An operating carrier of a tour bus, who, after receiving the report pursuant to subdivision (d), employs or continues to employ as a driver of a tour bus any person whose driver's license has been suspended or revoked, is guilty of a public offense, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that fine and imprisonment.
- SEC. 8. Section 2807.2 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read: 2807.2. The Department of the California Highway Patrol shall, by regulation, provide for a preventive maintenance inspection guide for use by operators of tour buses and motor vehicles specified in Sections 2807 and 2807.1. The regulations shall provide that the record of inspection shall be signed by the person making the inspection, and the record of the inspections shall be retained on file by the operator for review and inspection by the Department of the California Highway Patrol.
- SEC. 9. Section 14601 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read: 14601. (a) No person shall drive a motor vehicle at any time when that person's driving privilege is suspended or revoked for reckless driving in violation of Section 23103 or 23104, any reason listed in subdivisions (b) to (f), inclusive, of Section 12805 requiring the department to refuse to issue a license, negligent or incompetent operation of a motor vehicle as prescribed in subdivision (e) of Section 12809, or negligent operation as prescribed in Section 12810, and when the person so driving has knowledge of the suspension or revocation. Knowledge shall be presumed if notice has been given by the department to the person. The presumption established by this subdivision is a presumption affecting the burden of proof.
- (b) Any person convicted under this section shall be punished as follows:
- (1) Upon a first conviction, by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than five days or more than six months and by fine of not less than three hundred dollars ($300) or more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).
- (2) If the offense occurred within five years of a prior offense which resulted in a conviction of a violation of this section or Section 14601.1 or 14601.2, by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than 10 days or more than one year and by fine of not less than five hundred dollars ($500) or more than two thousand dollars ($2,000).
- (c) If the offense occurred within five years of a prior offense which resulted in a conviction of a violation of this section or Section

- 14601.1 or 14601.2 and is granted probation, the court shall impose as a condition of probation that the person be confined in the county jail for at least 10 days.
- (d) Nothing in this section prohibits a person from driving a motor vehicle, which is owned or utilized by the person's employer, during the course of employment on private property which is owned or utilized by the employer, except an offstreet parking facility as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 12500.
- SEC. 10. Section 14601.1 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read: 14601.1. (a) No person shall drive a motor vehicle when his or her driving privilege is suspended or revoked for any reason other than those listed in Section 14601 or 14601.2 and when the person so driving has knowledge of the suspension or revocation. Knowledge shall be presumed if notice has been given by the department to the person. The presumption established by this subdivision is a presumption affecting the burden of proof.
- (b) Any person convicted under this section shall be punished as follows:
- (1) Upon a first conviction, by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months or by a fine of not less than three hundred dollars ($300) or more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that fine and imprisonment.
- (2) If the offense occurred within five years of a prior offense which resulted in a conviction of a violation of this section or Section 14601 or 14601.2, by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than five days or more than one year and by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars ($500) or more than two thousand dollars ($2,000).
- (c) Nothing in this section prohibits a person from driving a motor vehicle, which is owned or utilized by the person's employer, during the course of employment on private property which is owned or utilized by the employer, except an offstreet parking facility as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 12500.
- SEC. 11. Section 14601.2 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read: 14601.2. (a) No person shall drive a motor vehicle at any time when that person's driving privilege is suspended or revoked for a conviction of a violation of Section 23152 or 23153, and when the person so driving has knowledge of the suspension or revocation.
- (b) Except in full compliance with the restriction, no person shall drive a motor vehicle at any time when that person's driving privilege is restricted pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 23151) of Chapter 12 of Division 11, and when the person so driving has knowledge of the restriction.
- (c) Knowledge of suspension or revocation of the driving privilege shall be presumed if notice has been given by the department to the person and knowledge of restriction of the driving privilege shall be presumed if notice has been given by the court to the person. The presumption established by this subdivision is a presumption affecting the burden of proof.
  - (d) Any person convicted of a violation of this section shall be punished as follows:

- (1) Upon a first conviction, by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than 10 days or more than six months and by a fine of not less than three hundred dollars ($300) or more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).
- (2) If the offense occurred within five years of a prior offense which resulted in a conviction of a violation of this section or Section 14601, by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than 30 days or more than one year and by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars ($500) or more than two thousand dollars ($2,000).
- (e) If any person is convicted of a first offense under this section and is granted probation, the court shall impose as a condition of probation that the person be confined in the county jail for at least 10 days.
- (f) If the offense occurred within five years of a prior offense which resulted in a conviction of a violation of this section or Section 14601 and is granted probation, the court shall impose as a condition of probation that the person be confined in the county jail for at least 30 days.
- (g) If any person is convicted of a second or subsequent offense which results in a conviction of this section within seven years, but over five years, of a prior offense which resulted in a conviction of a violation of this section or Section 14601 or 14601.1 and is granted probation, the court shall impose as a condition of probation that the person be confined in the county jail for at least 10 days.
- (h) Nothing in this section prohibits a person who is participating in, or has completed, an alcohol or drug rehabilitation program from driving a motor vehicle, which is owned or utilized by the person's employer, during the course of employment on private property which is owned or utilized by the employer, except an offstreet parking facility as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 12500.
- SEC. 12. Section 14601.3 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read: 14601.3. (a) It is unlawful for a person whose driving privilege has been suspended or revoked to accumulate a driving record history which results from driving during the period of suspension or revocation. A person who violates this subdivision is designated a habitual traffic offender.

For purposes of this section, a driving record history means any of the following, if the driving occurred during any period of suspension or revocation which resulted from a conviction of an offense or offenses of driving under the influence of alcohol or drugs, or both, or from negligent driving:

- (1) Two or more convictions within a 12-month period of an offense given a violation point count of two pursuant to Section 12810.
- (2) Three or more convictions within a 12-month period of an offense given a violation point count of one pursuant to Section 12810.
  - (3) Three or more accidents within a 12-month period that are subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16000.

- (4) Any combination of convictions or accidents, as specified in paragraphs (1) to (3), inclusive, which results during any 12-month period in a violation point count of three or more pursuant to Section 12810.
- (b) Knowledge of suspension or revocation of the driving privilege shall be presumed if notice has been given by the department to the person. The presumption established by this subdivision is a presumption affecting the burden of proof.
- (c) The department, within 30 days of receipt of a duly certified abstract of the record of any court or accident report which results in a person being designated a habitual traffic offender, may execute and transmit by mail a notice of that designation to the office of the district attorney having jurisdiction over the location of the person's last known address as contained in the department's records.
- (d) The district attorney, within 30 days of receiving the notice required in subdivision (c), shall inform the department of whether or not the person will be prosecuted for being a habitual traffic offender.
- (e) Any person convicted under this section of being a habitual traffic offender shall be punished as follows:
- (1) Upon a first conviction, by imprisonment in the county jail for 30 days and by a fine of one thousand dollars ($1,000).
- (2) Upon a second or any subsequent offense within seven years of a prior conviction under this section, by imprisonment in the county jail for 180 days and by a fine of two thousand dollars ($2,000).
- SEC. 13. Section 34500.1 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read: 34500.1. In addition to the duties imposed by Section 34500, the department shall regulate the safe operation of tour buses.
- SEC. 14. Section 34501.3 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read: 34501.3. (a) No motor carrier shall schedule a run nor permit nor require the operation of any motor vehicle subject to this division between points in a period of time which would necessitate the vehicle being operated at speeds greater than those prescribed by this code.
- (b) A logbook of a driver, which reflects a trip or trips between points within a period of time which would have necessitated excessive speed to complete, shall give rise to a rebuttable presumption that the driver exceeded the lawful speed limit.
- SEC. 15. Section 34501.4 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read: 34501.4. Any driver subject to the hours of service limitations and logbook requirements of this division, who is unable to produce upon request of a representative of the department any driver's logbook or is only able to produce an incomplete driver's log book for the prior 24-hour period, is rebuttably presumed to be in violation of the hours of service limitations in Sections 34501 and 34501.2.
  - SEC. 16. Section 34505 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:
- 34505. (a) Tour bus operators shall, in addition to the systematic inspection, maintenance, and lubrication services required of all motor carriers, require each tour bus to be inspected at least every 45 days, or more often if necessary to ensure safe operation. This inspection shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

- (1) Brake adjustment.
- (2) Brake system components and leaks.
- (3) Steering and suspension systems.
- (4) Tires and wheels.
- (b) A tour bus shall not be used to transport passengers until all defects listed during the inspection conducted pursuant to subdivision (a) have been corrected and attested to by the signature of the operator's authorized representative.
- (c) Records of inspections conducted pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be kept at the operator's maintenance facility or terminal where the tour bus is regularly garaged. The records shall be retained by the operator for one year, and shall be made available for inspection upon request by any authorized employee of the department. Each record shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:
- (1) Identification of the vehicle, including make, model, license number, or other means of positive identification.
  - (2) Date and nature of each inspection and any repair performed.
- (3) Signature of operator's authorized representative attesting to the inspection and to the completion of all required repairs.
  - (4) Company vehicle number.
- SEC. 17. Section 34505.1 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read: 34505.1. Upon determining that a tour bus operator failed to complete and document an inspection required by this code, or that a tour bus operator's terminal is rated unsatisfactory, the department shall recommend to the Public Utilities Commission or the Interstate Commerce Commission that the carrier's operating authority be denied, suspended, or revoked, whichever is appropriate. The department shall retain a record, by operator, of every recommendation made pursuant to this section.
- SEC. 18. Section 34506 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read: 34506. It is a misdemeanor to fail to comply with any rule or regulation adopted by the Department of the California Highway Patrol pursuant to Sections 34501, 34501.5, 34508, or 34513 regarding any of the following:
  - (a) Hours of service of drivers.
  - (b) Hazardous material transportation.
- (c) Schoolbus constructions, design, color, equipment, maintenance, or operation.
  - (d) Youth bus equipment, maintenance, or operation.
  - (e) Tour bus equipment, maintenance, or operation.
  - SEC. 19. Section 34513 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:
- 34513. The department shall adopt rules and regulations relating to the equipment and maintenance of tour buses.
- SEC. 20. Section 40000.6 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read: 40000.6. A violation of subdivision (d) of Section 1808.1, relating to tour buses, is a misdemeanor and not an infraction.

- SEC. 21. Section 40000.21 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read: 40000.21. A violation of any of the following provisions is a misdemeanor, and not an infraction:
- (a) Section 34506, subdivision (a), relating to the hours of service of drivers.
- (b) Section 34506, subdivision (b), relating to the transportation of hazardous materials.
  - (c) Section 34506, subdivision (c), relating to schoolbuses.
  - (d) Section 34506, subdivision (d), relating to youth buses.
- (e) Section 34505 or subdivision (e) of Section 34506, relating to tour buses.
- SEC. 22. The Department of Motor Vehicles shall perform a study of class 1 and class 2 drivers licenses and report the results of the study to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1988. The study shall examine a statistically valid random sample of all class 1 and class 2 drivers to provide the following information, on an anonymous basis:
  - (1) The frequency of records under aliases or similar names.
- (2) The frequency of duplicate licenses of the same or different classes.
- (3) The frequency of so-called "x-files" for unidentified drivers of this license class.
- (4) An analysis of the point counts for the drivers, and a listing of driving under the influence convictions.

The department may utilize thumb prints or other information to ensure the identity of the drivers selected.

- SEC. 23. (a) The Public Utilities Commission shall, on or before January 1, 1988, review and adjust the amount of insurance required pursuant to Sections 1040 and 5391 of the Public Utilities Code for tour bus operators to an amount which is sufficient to provide for ability to respond in damages for injury, medical, and liability to passengers and others.
- (b) The Public Utilities Commission shall also adopt standards which ensure that all bus carriers subject to its jurisdiction have sufficient financial resources to properly and safely maintain their buses, and that those carriers with insufficient resources do not receive an extension of their operating authority.
- (c) The Public Utilities Commission shall examine whether passenger stage corporations should be included in the program established by this act.
- (d) The commission shall report to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1988, on the action it has taken, or plans to take, and on any recommendations regarding this section which may require legislation.
- SEC. 24. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

- SEC. 25. There is hereby appropriated the sum of one hundred fifty-four thousand dollars ($154,000) for the purposes of this act for allocation as follows:
- (a) From the Motor Vehicle Account in the State Transportation Fund to the Department of Motor Vehicles, the sum of ninety-two thousand dollars ($92,000).
- (b) From the Public Utilities Commission Transportation Reimbursement Account in the General Fund to the Public Utilities Commission, the sum of sixty-two thousand dollars ($62,000).

CHAPTER 1307

An act to amend Section 69104 of the Government Code, relating to courts, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

> [Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 69104 of the Government Code is amended to read:

69104. The Court of Appeal for the Fourth Appellate District consists of three divisions. One division shall hold its regular sessions at San Diego and shall have six judges. One division shall hold its regular sessions in the San Bernardino/Riverside area and shall have four judges. One division shall hold its regular sessions in Orange County and shall have four judges.

SEC. 2. The Department of General Services shall work with the Court of Appeal of the Fourth Appellate District to ascertain the office space needs of the division now holding regular sessions in San Bernardino, and shall take appropriate measures based upon the convenience to the public in the San Bernardino/Riverside area and the Fourth Appellate District's program and operational requirements.

SEC. 3. There is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Court of Appeal for the Fourth Appellate District, in augmentation of Item 0250-001-001 (b) of the Budget Act of 1986, the sum of two hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($275,000) for costs associated with the relocation of the Second Division thereof within the San Bernardino/Riverside area.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

This act is necessary to solve the space and security problems of the Court of Appeal for the Fourth Appellate District in its present location by facilitating relocation to larger quarters.

CHAPTER 1308

An act to amend Section 25170 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25170 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25170. The department, in performing its duties under this chapter, shall do all of the following:

(a) Coordinate research and development regarding methods of hazardous waste handling, storage, use, processing, and disposal and may conduct appropriate studies relating to hazardous wastes.

(b) Maintain a technical reference center on hazardous waste management practices, including, but not limited to, hazardous waste disposal, recycling practices, and related information for public and private use.

- (c) Establish and maintain a toll-free Toxic Substances Hotline, operating during the regular working hours of the department, to provide information on hazardous waste or appropriate referrals on other toxic substances to the regulated community and the public. The department shall coordinate the Toxic Substances Hotline program with other programs that provide information on hazardous wastes and other toxic substances, including, but not limited to, the technical reference center established pursuant to subdivision (b).
- (d) Provide statewide planning for hazardous waste facility site identification and assessment and render technical assistance to state and local agencies in the planning and operation of hazardous waste programs.

(e) Provide for appropriate surveillance of hazardous waste processing, use, handling, storage, and disposal practices in the state.

- (f) Coordinate research and study in the technical and managerial aspects of management and use of hazardous wastes, and recycling and recovery of resources from hazardous wastes.
- (g) Determine existing and expected rates of production of hazardous waste.
- (h) Investigate market potential and feasibility of use of hazardous wastes and recovery of resources from hazardous wastes.
- (i) Promote recycling and recovery of resources from hazardous wastes.
  - (j) Conduct studies for the purpose of improving departmental operations.

- (k) Encourage the reduction or exchange, or both, of hazardous waste, including, but not limited to, publishing and distributing both of the following:
- (1) Lists of hazardous wastes for the purpose of enabling persons to match the constituents of hazardous waste streams with needs for hazardous materials resources.
- (2) Directories of known and permitted commercial hazardous waste recyclers in the state.
- (l) Establish and maintain an information clearinghouse, which shall consist of a record of wastes which may be recyclable. Every producer of hazardous waste shall supply the department with information for the clearinghouse. Each producer shall not be required to supply any more information than is required by the manifests provided for in Section 25160. The department shall make this information available to persons who desire to recycle the wastes. The information shall be made available in such a way that the trade secrets of the producer are protected.
- (m) Conduct pilot projects, as appropriate, to document the technical performance of emerging technologies which offer potential for ameliorating California's hazardous waste disposal problems.
- (n) Develop and implement an industry education program which shall emphasize small business education and shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following elements:
- (1) Preparation of a synopsis of laws and regulations relating to hazardous waste, which the department shall publish by January 1 of each year.
- (2) Publication of educational pamphlets for selected types of business explaining selected areas of the law, regulations, or programs concerning hazardous waste.
  - (3) Audio-visual training programs, as needed.
- (4) An annual California Hazardous Waste Management Symposium.

CHAPTER 1309

An act to amend Section 984 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to disability insurance, and making an appropriation therefor.

> [Approved by Governor September 28, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 984 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

- 984. (a) (1) Each worker shall pay worker contributions at the rate determined by the director pursuant to this section with respect to wages, as defined by Sections 926, 927, and 985. On or before October 31 of each calendar year, the director shall prepare a statement, which shall be a public record, declaring the rate of worker contributions for the calendar year and shall notify promptly all employers of employees covered for disability insurance of the rate.
- (2) Except as provided in paragraph (3), the rate of worker contributions for calendar year 1987 and for each subsequent calendar year shall be 1.45 times the amount disbursed from the Disability Fund during the 12-month period ending September 30 and immediately preceding the calendar year for which the rate is to be effective, less the amount in the Disability Fund on that September 30, with the resulting figure divided by total wages paid pursuant to Sections 926, 927, and 985 during the same 12-month period, and then rounded to the nearest one-tenth of 1 percent.
- (3) In no event shall the rate of worker contributions exceed 1 and two-tenths ercent or be less than one-tenth of 1 percent. For calendar year 1990, and for each subsequent calendar year, the rate of worker contributions shall not decrease from the rate in the previous year by more than two-tenths of 1 percent.
- (b) Worker contributions required under Sections 708 and 708.5 shall be at a rate determined by the director to reimburse the Disability Fund for unemployment compensation disability benefits paid and estimated to be paid to all employers and self-employed individuals covered by those sections. On or before November 30th of each calendar year, the director shall prepare a statement, which shall be a public record, declaring the rate of contributions for the succeeding calendar year for all employers and self-employed individuals covered under Sections 708 and 708.5 and shall notify promptly the employers and self-employed individuals of the rate. The rate shall be determined by dividing the estimated benefits paid in the prior year by the product of the annual remuneration deemed to have been received under Sections 708 and 708.5 and the estimated number of persons who were covered at any time in the prior year. The resulting rate shall be rounded to the next higher one-hundredth percentage point. The rate may also be reduced or increased by a factor estimated to maintain as nearly as practicable a cumulative zero balance in the funds contributed pursuant to Sections 708 and 708.5. Estimates made pursuant to this subdivision may be made on the basis of statistical sampling, or other method determined by the director.
- (c) The director's action in determining a rate under this section shall not constitute an authorized regulation.
- SEC. 2. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act that the Director of Employment Development shall provide prompt and adequate notice to all employers of employees covered by disability insurance of the change in the worker contribution rate for the 1987 calendar year as provided in Section 1 of this act. This notice shall be provided to employers on or before October 31, 1986, as required by Section 984 of the Unemployment Insurance Code.

CHAPTER 1310

An act to amend Section 26749 of the Government Code, to amend Sections 987.2, 1037, 2621.5, and 4700.1 of, to add Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 4750) to Title 5 of Part 3 of, and to repeal Sections 4700 and 4700.5 of, the Penal Code, relating to prisoners costs.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 26749 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26749. The sheriff shall receive expenses necessarily incurred in conveying insane persons to and from the state hospitals and in conveying persons to and from the state prisons or other state institutions, or to other destinations for the purpose of deportation to other states, or in advancing actual traveling expenses to any person committed to a state institution who is permitted to report to an institution without escort, which expenses shall be allowed as provided by Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 4750) of Title 5 of Part 3 of the Penal Code for cases subject to that chapter, and, otherwise, by the State Board of Control and paid by the state.

SEC. 2. Section 987.2 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

- 987.2. (a) In any case in which a person, including a person who is a minor, desires but is unable to employ counsel and in which counsel is assigned in the superior court, municipal court, or justice court to represent the person in a criminal trial, proceeding or appeal, the assigned counsel, in a county or city and county in which there is no public defender, or in a case in which the court finds that because of conflict of interest or other reasons the public defender has properly refused to represent the person accused, shall receive a reasonable sum for compensation and for necessary expenses, the amount of which shall be determined by the court, to be paid out of the general fund of the county.
- (b) The sum provided for in subdivision (a) may be determined by contract between the court and one or more responsible attorneys after consultation with the board of supervisors as to the total amount of compensation and expenses to be paid, which shall be within the amount of funds allocated by the board of supervisors for the cost of assigned counsel in such cases.
  - (c) In counties that utilize an assigned private counsel system as either the primary method of public defense or as the method of appointing counsel in cases where the public defender is unavailable, the county, the courts, or the local county bar association working with the courts are encouraged to do all of the following:

- (1) Establish panels that shall be open to members of the State Bar of California.
- (2) Categorize attorneys for panel placement on the basis of experience.
- (3) Refer cases to panel members on a rotational basis within the level of experience of each panel, except that a judge may exclude an individual attorney from appointment to an individual case for good cause.
- (4) Seek to educate those panel members through an approved training program.
- (5) Establish a cost-efficient plan to insure maximum recovery of costs pursuant to Section 987.8.
- (d) The county may recover costs of public defender services under Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 4750) of Title 5 of Part 3 for any case subject to Section 4750.
- (e) Counsel shall be appointed to represent, in the municipal or justice court, a person who desires but is unable to employ counsel, when it appears that such appointment is necessary to provide an adequate and effective defense for the defendant.
  - SEC. 3. Section 1037 of the Penal Code is amended to read:
- 1037. (a) When a court orders a change of venue to another county all costs incurred by that county, which are not payable pursuant to Section 4750, for the transfer, preparation and trial of the action, the guarding, keeping and transportation of the prisoner, any appeal or other proceeding relating to the action and execution of the sentence shall be a charge against the county in which the action originated.
- (b) Claim for the costs described in subdivision (a) shall be forwarded to the treasurer and auditor of the county in which the action originated and the treasurer shall pay the amount of such costs out of the general funds of the county.
- (c) The term "all costs" means all reasonable and necessary costs incurred by the county as a result of the change of venue which would not have been incurred but for the change, and does not include normal salaries, overhead, and other expenses which would have been incurred by the county in any event.
  - SEC. 4. Section 2621.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:
- 2621.5. The provisions of Sections 2620 and 2621 which impose a charge upon the counties shall not apply to cases coming within the provisions of Section 4750.
  - SEC. 5. Section 4700 of the Penal Code is repealed.
  - SEC. 6. Section 4700.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:
- 4700.1. For any trial or hearing referred to in Section 4750, the sheriff of the county where such trial or hearing is had and the person in charge of the prison may agree that the county shall transport prisoners in a state prison to and from such prison. Upon such agreement, the county, and not the Department of Corrections, shall perform the transportation referred to in this section.

SEC. 7. Section 4700.5 of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 8. Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 4750) is added to Title 5 of Part 3 of the Penal Code, to read:

CHAPTER 6. LOCAL EXPENSES

- 4750. A city or county shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable and necessary costs connected with state prisons or prisoners in connection with any of the following:
- (a) Any crime committed at a state prison, whether by a prisoner, employee, or other person.
- (b) Any hearing on any return of a writ of habeas corpus prosecuted by or on behalf of a prisoner.
  - (c) Any trial or hearing on the question of the sanity of a prisoner.
- (d) Any costs not otherwise reimbursable under Section 1557 or any other related provision in connection with any extradition proceeding for any prisoner released to hold.
- (e) Any costs incurred by a coroner in connection with the death of a prisoner.
- (f) Any costs incurred in transporting a prisoner within the host county or as requested by the prison facility or incurred for increased security while a prisoner is outside a state prison.
  - 4751. Costs incurred include all of the following:
- (a) Costs of law enforcement agencies in connection with any matter set forth in Section 4750, including the investigation or evaluation of any of those matters regardless of whether a crime has in fact occurred, a hearing held, or an offense prosecuted.
- (b) Costs of any trial or hearing of any matter set forth in Section 4750, including costs for the preparation of the trial, pretrial hearing, actual trial or hearing, expert witness fees, the costs of guarding or keeping the prisoner, the transportation of the prisoner, the costs of appeal, and the execution of the sentence. The cost of detention in a city or county correctional facility shall include the same cost factors as are utilized by the Department of Corrections in determining the cost of prisoner care in state correctional facilities.
- (c) The costs of the prosecuting attorney in investigating, evaluating, or prosecuting cases related to any matter set forth in Section 4750, whether or not the prosecuting attorney decides to commence legal action.
- (d) Costs incurred by the public defender or court appointed attorney with respect to any matter set forth in Section 4750.
- (e) Any other costs reasonably incurred by a county in connection with any matter set forth in Section 4750.
- 4752. As used in this chapter, reasonable and necessary costs shall be based upon all operating costs, including the cost of elected officials while serving in line functions and including all administrative costs associated with providing the necessary services and securing reimbursement therefor. Administrative costs include a proportional allowance for overhead determined in accordance with current accounting practices.

4753. A city or county shall designate an officer or agency to prepare a statement of costs that shall be reimbursed under this chapter.

The statement shall be sent to the Controller for approval. The Controller shall reimburse the city or county within 60 days after receipt of the statement or provide a written statement as to the reason for not making reimbursement at that time.

- 4754. As used in this chapter, "prisoner" means any person committed to a state prison, including a person who has been transferred to any other facility, has escaped, or is otherwise absent, but does not include a person while on parole.
- 4755. Whenever a person has entered upon a term of imprisonment in a penal or correctional institution, and whenever during the continuance of the term of imprisonment there is a detainer lodged against the prisoner by a law enforcement or prosecutorial agency of the state or its subdivisions, the Department of Corrections may do either of the following:
- (a) Release the inmate to the agency lodging the detainer, within seven days prior to the scheduled release date provided the inmate is kept in custody until the scheduled release date.
- (b) Retain the inmate in custody up to seven days after the scheduled release date to facilitate pickup by the agency lodging the detainer.
- SEC. 9. No reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) and any other provisions of law.

CHAPTER 1311

An act to add Section 4105 to the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to the California Museum of Science and Industry.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4105 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

4105. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, from December 14 to December 21, inclusive, of any year, the California Museum of Science and Industry may not charge parking fees for the parking facilities surrounding the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum when an event is being held at the facilities of the museum by a private nonprofit charitable organization for the purpose of collection and distribution of toys and food.

CHAPTER 1312

An act to amend Section 233 of, and to add and repeal Section 1271.2 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to honey, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

- (a) Honey is a safe and wholesome food for persons over one year of age.
- (b) Scientific research has concluded that honey fed to infants under one year of age can be one cause of the disease known as infant botulism.
- (c) While honey may contain spores known to cause infant botulism, these spores do not have any adverse health effects on persons over one year of age and are a naturally occurring phenomena and are not in any way the result of mishandling or adulteration of honey during its collection, storage, or packaging.

Therefore, it is the intent of the Legislature that any licensed facility that provides prenatal, birthing, or postnatal services is urged to provide to each patient receiving these services the educational pamphlet available pursuant to Section 1271.2 of the Health and Safety Code, regarding the danger of feeding honey to infants under one year of age.

- SEC. 2. Section 233 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- 233. The state department shall report to the Legislature on or before March 1, 1988, on the Infant Botulism Prevention Program. The report shall include all of the following:
- (a) The number of infants evaluated or treated for infant botulism.
  - (b) The identified causes of infant botulism.
- (c) Any measures developed to control and prevent infant botulism.
- (d) An evaluation of the effectiveness of these measures in preventing infant botulism.

- SEC. 3. Section 1271.2 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:
- 1271.2. (a) The state department shall prepare an educational pamphlet that describes the association between honey and the disease known as infant botulism and explains the danger of feeding honey to infants under one year of age, and may contract with entities representing California's honey industry for the preparation and printing of the pamphlet. The state department shall, upon request and at no charge, distribute the educational pamphlet to any health facility licensed pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250) of Division 2. The state department shall distribute the educational pamphlet to every local health department for purposes of dissemination to the public. The educational pamphlet shall be approved by the state department prior to its distribution, shall be available for distribution by March 1, 1987, and shall be printed in both English and Spanish.
- (b) The state department shall maintain active surveillance of infant botulism statewide in order to determine the effectiveness of these educational materials in decreasing the incidence of infant botulism.
- (c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1990, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends that date.
- SEC. 4. (a) The sum of forty-five thousand dollars ($45,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Department of Health Services to cover the state department's preparation, printing, and distribution costs in complying with the requirements of Section 1271.2 of the Health and Safety Code.
- (b) It is the intent of the Legislature that ongoing funding for the preparation, printing, and distribution costs be provided through the annual Budget Act.

CHAPTER 1313

An act to add and repeal Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 465) of Division 1 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to dispute resolution programs.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 465) is added to Division 1 of the Business and Professions Code, to read:

CHAPTER 8. DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROGRAMS

Article 1. Legislative Purpose

- 465. The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:
- (a) The resolution of many disputes can be unnecessarily costly, time-consuming, and complex when achieved through formal court proceedings where the parties are adversaries and are subjected to formalized procedures.
- (b) To achieve more effective and efficient dispute resolution in a complex society, greater use of alternatives to the courts, such as mediation, conciliation, and arbitration should be encouraged. Community dispute resolution programs and increased use of other alternatives to the formal judicial system may offer less threatening. and more flexible forums for persons of all ethnic, racial, and socioeconomic backgrounds. These alternatives, among other things, can assist in the resolution of disputes between neighbors, some domestic disputes, consumer-merchant disputes, and other kinds of disputes in which the parties have continuing relationships. A noncoercive dispute resolution forum in the community may also prevention provide valuable and early intervention problem-solving resource to the community.
- (c) Local resources, including volunteers reflective of the diversity of the community and available public buildings should be utilized to achieve more accessible, cost-effective resolutions of disputes. Additional financial resources are needed to expand, stabilize, and improve existing programs and entities which sponsor alternative dispute resolution.
- (d) Courts, prosecuting authorities, law enforcement agencies, and administrative agencies should encourage greater use of alternative dispute resolution techniques whenever the administration of justice will be improved.
- (e) Counties should consider increasing the use of alternative dispute resolution in their operations as plans for court reform are developed and implemented.
- (f) The Judicial Council should consider, in redrafting or updating any of the official pleading forms used in the trial courts of this state, the inclusion of information on options for alternative dispute resolution.
- 465.5. It is the intent of the Legislature to permit counties to accomplish all of the following:
- (a) Encouragement and support of the development and use of alternative dispute resolution techniques.
- (b) Encouragement and support of community participation in the development, administration, and oversight of local programs designed to facilitate the informal resolution of disputes among members of the community.
  - (c) Development of structures for dispute resolution that may serve as models for resolution programs in other communities.

- (d) Education of communities with regard to the availability and benefits of alternative dispute resolution techniques.
- (e) Encouragement of courts, prosecuting authorities, public defenders, law enforcement agencies, and administrative agencies to work in cooperation with, and to make referrals to, dispute resolution programs.

At the time that the state assumes the responsibility for the funding of California trial courts, consideration shall be given to the Dispute Resolution Advisory Council's evaluation of the effectiveness of alternative dispute resolution programs and the feasibility of the operation of a statewide program of grants, with the intention of funding alternative dispute resolution programs on a statewide basis.

Article 2. Definitions

466. As used in this chapter:

- (a) "Dispute resolution" includes, but is not limited to, mediation, conciliation, and arbitration.
  - (b) "Program" means an entity that provides dispute resolution.
- (c) "Advisory Council" means the Dispute Resolution Advisory Council.

Article 3. Establishment and Administration of Programs

467. (a) There is in the Department of Consumer Affairs a Dispute Resolution Advisory Council, consisting of seven persons, five of whom shall be appointed by the Governor. One member shall be appointed by the Senate Rules Committee, and one member shall be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly.

At least four of the persons appointed to the advisory council shall be active members of the State Bar of California, and at least four persons appointed to the advisory council shall have a minimum of two years of direct experience in utilizing dispute resolution techniques. The members of the advisory council shall reflect the racial, ethnic, sexual, and geographic diversity of the State of California.

The members of the advisory council shall not receive a salary for their services but shall be reimbursed for their actual and necessary travel and other expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

The advisory council shall adopt rules and regulations to effectuate the purposes of this chapter, including, but not limited to, guidelines to be used by the programs for the recruitment and training of persons conducting dispute resolution, and provisions for periodic monitoring and evaluation of the programs funded pursuant to this chapter. The advisory council shall establish guidelines to evaluate the performance of participating programs, which shall include analysis of court caseload reduction, cost saving to the state, the efficacy of the programs, and the feasibility of operation of a statewide program of grants at the time the state assumes the responsibility for the funding of trial courts.

The advisory council shall complete its duties no later than January 1, 1989.

- (b) Counties may establish a program of grants to public entities and nonpartisan nonprofit corporations for the establishment and continuance of programs to be operated under the requirements of this chapter and the standards developed by the advisory council.
- 467.1. A program funded pursuant to this chapter shall be operated pursuant to contract with the county and shall comply with all of the requirements of this chapter.
- 467.2. A program shall not be eligible for funding under this chapter unless it meets all of the following requirements:
- (a) Compliance with this chapter and the applicable rules and regulations of the advisory council.
- (b) Provision of neutral persons adequately trained in conflict resolution techniques as required by the rules and regulations promulgated by the advisory council pursuant to Section 471.
- (c) Provision of dispute resolution, on a sliding scale basis, and without cost to indigents.
- (d) Provision that, upon consent of the parties, a written agreement or an award resolving a dispute will be issued setting out a settlement of the issues involved in the dispute and the future responsibilities of each party.
- (e) Provision of neutral procedures applicable equally to all participants without any special benefit or consideration given to persons or entities providing funding for the programs.
- (f) Provision that participation in the program is voluntary and that the parties are not coerced to enter dispute resolution.
- (g) Provision of alternative dispute resolution is the primary purpose of the program.
- (h) Programs operated by counties that receive funding under this chapter shall be operated primarily for the purposes of dispute resolution, consistent with the purposes of this chapter.
- 467.3. Programs funded pursuant to this chapter shall provide persons indicating an intention to utilize the dispute resolution process with a written statement prior to the dispute resolution proceeding, in language easy to read and understand, stating all of the following:
  - (a) The nature of the dispute.
  - (b) The nature of the dispute resolution process.
- (c) The rights and obligations of the parties, including, but not limited to, all of the following:
  - (1) The right to call and examine witnesses.
- (2) The right of the parties to be accompanied by counsel, who may participate as permitted under the rules and procedures of the program.

- (d) The procedures under which the dispute resolution will be conducted.
- (e) If the parties enter into arbitration, whether the dispute resolution process will be binding.
- 467.4. (a) An agreement resolving a dispute entered into with the assistance of a program shall not be enforceable in a court nor shall it be admissible as evidence in any judicial or administrative proceeding, unless the consent of the parties or the agreement includes a provision that clearly states the intention of the parties that the agreement or any resulting award shall be so enforceable or admissible as evidence.
- (b) The parties may agree in writing to toll the applicable statute of limitations during the pendency of the dispute resolution process.
- 467.5. Any proceeding conducted by a program is subject to Section 1152.5 of the Evidence Code.
- 467.6. Each program shall maintain those statistical records required by Section 471.5, and as may be required by the county. The records shall maintain the confidentiality and anonymity of the parties.
- 467.7. (a) Unless the parties have agreed to a binding award, nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit any person who voluntarily enters the dispute resolution process from revoking his or her consent, withdrawing from dispute resolution, and seeking judicial or administrative redress.
- (b) In cases in which a criminal complaint has been filed by a prosecutor, other than for an infraction, the advice of counsel shall be obtained before any dispute resolution process is initiated. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to preclude a defendant from knowingly and voluntarily waiving the right to counsel. A defendant who indicates a desire to waive the right to counsel shall be encouraged to consult with the public defender or private counsel before waiving that right.

Article 4. Application Procedures

- 468. All funds available to a county for the purposes of this chapter shall be utilized for projects proposed by eligible programs.
- 468.1. Programs shall be selected for funding by a county from the applications submitted therefor.
- 468.2. Applications submitted for funding shall include, but need not be limited to, all of the following information:
  - (a) Evidence of compliance with Sections 467.2, 467.3, and 467.4.
- (b) A description of the proposed community area of service, cost of the principal components of operation, and any other characteristics, as determined by rules of the advisory council.
- (c) A description of available dispute resolution services and facilities within the defined geographical area.
- (d) A description of the applicant's proposed program, by type and purpose, including evidence of community support, the present availability of resources, and the applicant's administrative capability.

- (e) A description of existing or planned cooperation between the applicant and local human service and justice system agencies.
- (f) A demonstrated effort on the part of the applicant to show the manner in which funds that may be awarded under this program may be coordinated or consolidated with other local, state, or federal funds available for the activities described in Sections 467.2, 467.3, and 467.4.
- (g) An explanation of the methods to be used for selecting and training mediators and other facilitators used in the dispute resolution process.
- (h) Such additional information as may be required by the county. 468.3. Data supplied by each applicant shall be used to assign relative funding priority on the basis of criteria developed by the advisory council. The criteria may include, but shall not be limited
- advisory council. The criteria may include, but shall not be limited to, all of the following, in addition to the criteria set forth in Section 468.2:
- (a) Unit cost, according to the type and scope of the proposed program.
  - (b) Quality and validity of the program.
  - (c) Number of participants who may be served.
  - (d) Administrative capability.
  - (e) Community support factors.

Article 5. Payment Procedures

469. Upon the approval of the county, funds available for the purposes of this chapter shall be used for the costs of operation of approved programs. Not more than 10 percent of funds available for the purposes of this chapter shall be used to finance the administration of the program by a county with a population of 500,000 or more persons, and no more than 20 percent may be so used if its population is less than that amount. All moneys allocated for the purposes of this chapter shall be apportioned and distributed to programs in the county, taking into account the relative population and needs of a community as well as the availability of existing dispute resolution facilities offering alternatives to the formal judicial system. The methods of payment or reimbursement for dispute resolution costs shall be specified by the county and may vary among programs. All such arrangements shall conform to the regulations of the advisory council.

Article 6. Funding

- 470. A county may accept and disburse funds from any public or private source for the purposes of this chapter.
- 470.1. (a) A grant recipient may accept funds from any public or private source for the purposes of this chapter.

- (b) A county and its representatives may inspect, examine, and audit the fiscal affairs of the programs and the projects funded under this chapter.
- (c) Programs shall, whenever reasonably possible, make use of public facilities at free or nominal costs.
- 470.2. A county's share of the funding pursuant to this chapter shall not exceed 50 percent of the approved estimated cost of the program.
- 470.3. A fee of not less than one dollar ($1) and not more than three dollars ($3) may be added to the total fees collected and fixed pursuant to Sections 26820.4, 26826, 26827, 68090, 72055, and 72056 of the Government Code for the filing of a first paper in a civil action in the superior court or the municipal court, other than a small claims action. These fees may be utilized for the support of the programs authorized by this chapter.

Article 7. Rules and Regulations

- 471. The rules and regulations adopted by the advisory council pursuant to Section 471 shall be formulated to promote statewide uniformity with the guidelines contained in those rules and regulations.
- 471.5. Each program funded pursuant to this chapter shall annually provide the county with statistical data regarding its operating budget; the number of referrals, categories, or types of cases referred to the program; the number of persons served by the program; the number of disputes resolved; the nature of the disputes resolved; rates of compliance; the number of persons utilizing the process more than once; the duration of and the estimated costs of the hearings conducted by the programs; and such other information as the county may require. The data shall maintain the confidentiality and anonymity of the persons employing the dispute resolution process. to
- SEC. 2. This act shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1992, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1991, deletes or extends that date.
- SEC. 3. The Legislative Analyst shall make a progress report to the Legislature on or before March 1, 1988, regarding the implementation of this act.

CHAPTER 1314

An act to amend Section 7003 of the Penal Code, and to amend Section 2.5 of Chapter 1549 of the Statutes of 1982, relating to prisons, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7003 of the Penal Code is amended to read: 7003. (a) For each facility included within its master plan, at least 30 days prior to submission pursuant to subdivision (b), the department shall submit the site plans and project planning guide which is to include preliminary staffing ratios, to the Joint Legislative Committee on Prison Construction and Operation for review.

The chairman may request a longer period of review if necessary for the committee and if feasible for compliance by the department.

(b) The department shall submit completed preliminary plans, proposed staffing patterns and proposed inmate work programs for all facilities included within its master plan, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 7000, as soon as is practicable, but no later than 30 days prior to submission to the Public Works Board, to the Joint Legislative Committee on Prison Construction and Operation and the fiscal committees of the Senate and Assembly for review and approval. The department shall submit proposed staffing patterns at the time preliminary plans for inmate housing facilities are submitted. The department shall submit proposed inmate work-training programs at the time preliminary plans for the industrial vocational education buildings are submitted.

If each committee does not, by majority vote of the committee membership, approve the submittal, the Public Works Board shall not act upon the affected plans. If a committee fails to take any action with respect to the submitted plans within 45 days after submittal, this inaction shall be deemed to be approval for purposes of this section.

- SEC. 2. Section 2.5 of Chapter 1549 of the Statutes of 1982 is amended to read:
- Sec. 2.5. (a) The Joint Legislative Committee on Prison Construction and Operation is hereby created. The committee shall assume primary responsibility for providing close legislative scrutiny over prison construction and operation.
- (b) The committee shall consist of three Members of the Senate appointed by the Committee on Rules thereof, and three Members of the Assembly appointed by the Speaker thereof. The chairperson shall appoint staff persons who shall be able to inspect prison facilities and departmental documents except as otherwise provided by law.

- (c) The committee and its members shall have and exercise all of the rights, duties, and powers conferred upon investigating committees and their members by the provisions of the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly as they are adopted and amended from time to time, which provisions are incorporated herein and made applicable to this committee and its members.
- (d) This section shall remain in effect until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed.
- SEC. 3. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Department of Corrections shall not construct any prisons or service facilities authorized by Section 1 of Chapter 1549 of the Statutes of 1982 until the department has submitted completed preliminary plans, proposed staffing patterns, and proposed inmate work programs to the Joint Legislative Committee on Prison Construction and Operation and the fiscal committees of the Senate and Assembly in concordance with Section 7003 of the Penal Code. Compliance with that section shall be in lieu of the review and approval requirement of Section 1 of Chapter 1549 of the Statutes of 1982.
- SEC. 4. The Legislature hereby authorizes the Department of Corrections to remedy structural and physical deficiencies at the California State Prisons at San Quentin and Folsom in order to comply with a judgment of permanent injunction issued by the United States District Court for the Northern District of California in Toussaint v. McCarthy (No. C-73-1422 SAW) and the permanent injunction issued by the Superior Court of the State of California for Marin County in Wilson v. Deukmejian (Marin County No. 103454).
- SEC. 5. The sum of forty-seven million six hundred seventy-one thousand three hundred ten dollars ($47,671,310) is appropriated to the Department of Corrections, as follows:
- (a) The sum of fourteen million one hundred thousand dollars ($14,100,000) is appropriated from the 1986 Prison Construction Fund to the Department of Corrections for funding renovation activities on San Quentin State Prison. Those activities include cell and cell block repairs including day labor costs, inmate day labor support staff costs and construction support costs, kitchen repairs, laundry repairs, architectural and engineering services, and construction management services.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Department of Corrections is authorized to solicit and award bids for the purposes specified in Section 4, provided that the bid requests shall specify that no obligation shall be incurred by the state pending approval by the electors of the New Prison Construction Bond Act of 1986.

(b) The sum of seventeen million seven hundred sixty-four thousand three hundred fifty dollars ($17,764,350) is appropriated from the Special Account for Capital Outlay to the Department of Corrections for funding renovation activities on San Quentin State Prison. Those activities include cell and cell block repairs including day labor costs, inmate day labor support staff costs and construction support costs, kitchen repairs, laundry repairs, architectural and engineering services, and construction management services.

(c) The sum of four million nine hundred ninety-three thousand nine hundred sixty dollars ($4,993,960) is appropriated from the 1986 Prison Construction Fund for renovation of the food service facilities at the California State Prison at Folsom in order to comply with the judgment of permanent injunction issued by the United States District Court for the Northern District of California in Toussaint v. McCarthy (No. C-73-1422 SAW).

Funds appropriated by this subdivision shall be available as necessary for master planning, architectural programming, schematics, preliminary plans, working drawings, construction and long lead items.

(d) The sum of ten million eight hundred thirteen thousand dollars ($10,813,000) is appropriated from the General Fund to establish, effective September 1, 1986, 271.51 positions to meet the Toussaint v. McCarthy permanent court injunction mandates.

All positions created under this subdivision are of limited term, effective until July 1, 1987.

- (e) Funds appropriated by subdivisions (a) and (b) for inmate day labor support staff costs may be used to establish 16 positions and provide support funding for the supervision and operation of the inmate day labor activities of renovation activities at San Quentin State Prison. These positions shall be available for the duration of the day labor portion of this project.
- SEC. 6. The Department of Corrections shall report to the Legislature on the staffing and funding implications of vacating cells at San Quentin for purposes of renovation. Any savings resulting from these renovations shall revert to the General Fund.
- SEC. 7. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, seventeen million seven hundred sixty-four thousand three hundred fifty dollars ($17,764,350) of the appropriations provided in Chapter 1121 of the Statutes of 1984, as amended by Chapter 1133 of the Statutes of 1984, and as reallocated by Chapter 1181 of the Statutes of 1985, is reverted to the Special Account for Capital Outlay, on the effective date of this act.
- SEC. 8. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

It is essential to the public safety, and to comply with court orders, to remedy structural and physical deficiencies at the California State Prisons at San Quentin and Folsom at the earliest possible time. Thus, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1315

An act to add Section 58805 to the Education Code, relating to schools.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 58805 is added to the Education Code, to read:

- 58805. (a) The Superintendent of Public Instruction may enter into an interagency agreement with a consortium of two or more school districts to establish an academy of visual and performing arts to operate specialized secondary school programs in visual and performing arts that are conducted outside the regular schoolday, subject to this chapter.
- (b) The governing boards of any two or more school districts or county offices of education may enter into the consortium described in subdivision (a). The academy established by this section shall be governed, subject to the interagency agreement provided for by subdivision (a), by a five-member governing board which shall be made up of 3 members representing the consortium who shall be superintendents or their designees of school districts or county offices of education with the largest student participation; and two members appointed by the Foundation for the Academy of Performing and Visual Arts. The authority of the board to operate the academy shall include, but not be limited to, the following:
- (1) The appointment of a director to develop and administer the academy and the specialized secondary school programs operated by the academy.
- (2) The execution of an agreement with any urban campus of a college or university with a means for assisting in the development of similar programs at other campuses or universities on a statewide basis, for the use of the educational resources of that campus for the purposes of this section.
  - (3) Responsibility over the fiscal accountability of the academy.
- (c) For the purposes of subdivision (e) of Section 46300, the off-campus participation, by a pupil in any of the grades 9 to 12, inclusive, in any program of visual or performing arts operated under this section may be authorized as an independent study program in accordance with Article 5.5 (commencing with Section 51745) of Chapter 5 of Part 28. In no event shall a pupil concurrently enrolled in an independent study program and in a regular comprehensive high school or junior high school generate, for the purposes of Section 46300, more than one unit of average daily attendance per school year.

CHAPTER 1316

An act to amend Section 21080.18 of the Public Resources Code, relating to environmental quality.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 21080.18 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

21080.18. This division does not apply to the closing of any public school in which kindergarten or any of grades 1 through 12 is maintained or the transfer of students from that public school to another school if the only physical changes involved are categorically exempt under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 15000) of Division 6 of Title 14 of the California Administrative Code.

CHAPTER 1317

An act to amend Section 4726 of the Civil Code, to add Section 15703 to the Government Code, and to amend Section 11476.2 of, to add Sections 11490 and 11491 to, and to repeal Sections 11490, 11491, and 11492 of, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to child support.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that a recently enacted federal law, Public Law 98-378, provides for enhanced enforcement of child support orders. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to improve the enforcement of child support through the adoption of provisions contained in the federal law and through the rapid automation of child support enforcement in California.

SEC. 2. Section 4726 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4726. Health insurance coverage for the supported children shall be maintained by either or both parents if that insurance is available at no cost or at nominal cost to the parent or parents. The district attorney shall seek the inclusion of a provision in the support order which provides for health insurance should it become available at no or nominal cost. This provision shall apply in all cases, irrespective of whether the award made is based on the mandatory minimum schedule or a higher amount based on a state or county schedule. Any parent so responsible shall complete a form specifying his or her insurance coverage, which shall be forwarded to the State Department of Health Services in accord with Section 11490 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

- SEC. 3. Section 15703 is added to the Government Code, to read: 15703. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Franchise Tax Board shall, upon the request of the district attorney, provide to that agency the address, in addition to the social security number, of an absent parent against whose personal income tax refund the agency has requested an offset for nonpayment of child support, if that information is required for the enforcement of a child support order.
- SEC. 4. Section 11476.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:
- 11476.2. Annually, the county department shall provide to AFDC recipients or former recipients for whom an assignment pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 11477 is currently effective, a notice of the amount of assigned support payments made on behalf of the recipient or former recipients or any other family member for whom aid is received.
- SEC. 5. Section 11490 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.
- SEC. 6. Section 11490 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:
- 11490. (a) The state medical insurance form required in Section 4726 of the Civil Code shall include, but shall not be limited to, all of the following:
- (1) The parent or parents' names, addresses, and social security numbers.
  - (2) The name and address of each parent's place of employment.
- (3) The name or names, addresses, policy number or numbers, and coverage type of the medical insurance policy or policies of the parents, if any.
- (4) The name, AFDC case number, social security number, and Title IV-E foster care case number or Medi-Cal case numbers of the parents and children covered by the medical insurance policy or policies.
- (b) In any action brought or enforcement proceeding instituted by the district attorney under this article for payment of child or spousal support, a completed state medical insurance form shall be obtained and sent by the district attorney to the State Department of Health Services in the manner prescribed by the State Department of Health Services.

Where it has been determined under Section 4726 of the Civil Code that health insurance coverage is not available at no or nominal cost, the district attorney shall seek a provision in the support order which provides for health insurance coverage should it become available at no or nominal cost.

(c) (1) The district attorney shall request employers and other groups offering health insurance coverage that is being enforced under this article to notify the district attorney if there has been a lapse in insurance coverage. The State Department of Health Services shall notify the district attorney when there has been a lapse in court-ordered insurance coverage.

(2) The district attorney shall take appropriate action, civil or criminal, to enforce the obligation to obtain health insurance when there has been a lapse in insurance coverage or failure by the responsible parent to obtain insurance as ordered by the court.

(3) The district attorney shall inform all individuals upon their application for child support enforcement services that medical support enforcement services are available.

If the spouse or child does not receive public assistance or aid and is not a Medi-Cal applicant or recipient, the district attorney shall obtain the applicant's consent prior to providing medical support enforcement services.

- SEC. 7. Section 11491 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.
- SEC. 8. Section 11491 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:
- 11491. The State Department of Social Services shall, by February 1, 1987, submit a proposal to the Legislature for the provision of assistance to counties that experience a decrease in federal incentive payments as a result of Public Law 98-378. The proposal shall be consistent with the provisions of Public Law 98-378. The department shall consider the feasibility of paying an additional state incentive to counties for collections received during the transitional period of October 1, 1985, to June 30, 1987.
- SEC. 9. Section 11492 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.
- SEC. 10. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the Legislature finds and declares that there are savings as well as costs in this act which, in the aggregate, do not result in additional net costs.

CHAPTER 1318

An act to amend Section 1250.8 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to long-term health care.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1250.8 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

- 1250.8. (a) Notwithstanding subdivision (a) of Section 437.10, the state department, upon application of a general acute care hospital which meets all the criteria of subdivision (b), and other applicable requirements of licensure, shall issue a single consolidated license to a general acute care hospital which includes more than one physical plant maintained and operated on separate premises or which has multiple licenses for a single health facility on the same premises. A single consolidated license shall not be issued where the separate freestanding physical plant is a skilled nursing facility or an intermediate care facility, whether or not the location of the skilled nursing facility or intermediate care facility is contiguous to the general acute care hospital unless the hospital is exempt from the requirements of subdivision (b) of Section 1254, or the facility is part of the physical structure licensed to provide acute care.
- (b) The issuance of a single consolidated license shall be based on the following criteria:
- (1) There is a single governing body for all of the facilities maintained and operated by the licensee.
- (2) There is a single administration for all of the facilities maintained and operated by the licensee.
- (3) There is a single medical staff for all of the facilities maintained and operated by the licensee, with a single set of bylaws, rules, and regulations, which prescribe a single committee structure.
- (4) The physical plants maintained and operated by the licensee which are to be covered by the single consolidated license are located not more than 15 miles apart. However, the director may issue a single consolidated license to a general acute care hospital which maintains and operates two or more physical plants which are located beyond 15 miles if all of the following exist:
- (A) One or more physical plants are located in a rural area, as defined by regulations of the director.
- (B) The director finds, after consultation with the Director of the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development, that the issuance of the single consolidated license for the general acute care hospital would not significantly impair the operation of Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 437) of Division 1.
- (C) The director finds that the licensee can comply with the requirements of licensure and maintain the provision of quality care, and adequate administrative and professional supervision.
- (c) In issuing the single consolidated license, the state department shall specify the location of each supplemental service and the location of the number and category of beds provided by the licensee.
- (d) To the extent required by Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 437) of Division 1, a general acute care hospital which has been issued a single consolidated license:
- (1) Shall not transfer from one facility to another a special service described in Section 1255 without first obtaining a certificate of need.
  - (2) Shall not transfer, in whole or in part, from one facility to another, a supplemental service, as defined in regulations of the director pursuant to this chapter, without first obtaining a certificate of need, unless the licensee, 30 days prior to the relocation, notifies the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development, the applicable health systems agency, and the state department of the licensee's intent to relocate the supplemental service, and includes with this notice a cost estimate, certified by a person qualified by experience or training to render such estimates, which estimates that the cost of the transfer will not exceed the capital expenditure threshold established by the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development pursuant to Section 437.10.

- (3) Shall not transfer beds from one facility to another facility, without first obtaining a certificate of need unless, 30 days prior to the relocation, the licensee notifies the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development, the applicable health systems agency, and the state department of the licensee's intent to relocate health facility beds, and includes with this notice both of the following:
- (A) A cost estimate, certified by a person qualified by experience or training to render such estimates, which estimates that the cost of the relocation will not exceed the capital expenditure threshold established by the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development pursuant to Section 437.10.
- (B) The identification of the number, classification, and location of the health facility beds in the transferor facility and the proposed number, classification, and location of the health facility beds in the transferee facility.

Except as otherwise permitted in Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 437) of Division 1, or as authorized in an approved certificate of need pursuant to that part, health facility beds transferred pursuant to this section shall be used in the transferee facility in the same bed classification as defined in Section 1250.1, as the beds were classified in the transferor facility.

Health facility beds transferred pursuant to this section shall not be transferred back to the transferor facility for two years from the date of the transfer, regardless of cost, without first obtaining a certificate of need pursuant to Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 437) of Division 1.

- (e) All transfers pursuant to subdivision (d) shall satisfy all applicable requirements of licensure and shall be subject to the written approval, if required, of the state department. The state department may adopt regulations which are necessary to implement the provisions of this section. These regulations may include a requirement that each facility of a health facility subject to a single consolidated license have an onsite full-time or part-time administrator.
- (f) As used in this section, "facility" means any physical plant operated or maintained by a health facility subject to a single, consolidated license issued pursuant to this section.
  - (g) For purposes of selective provider contracts negotiated under the Medi-Cal program, the treatment of a health facility with a single consolidated license issued pursuant to this section shall be subject to negotiation between the health facility and the California Medical Assistance Commission. A general acute care hospital which is issued a single consolidated license pursuant to this section may, at its option, receive from the state department a single Medi-Cal program provider number or separate Medi-Cal program provider numbers for one or more of the facilities subject to the single consolidated license. Irrespective of whether the general acute care hospital is issued one or more Medi-Cal provider numbers, the state department may require the hospital to file separate cost reports for each facility pursuant to Section 14170 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

- (h) For purposes of the Annual Report of Hospitals required by regulations adopted by the state department pursuant to this part, the state department and the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development may require reporting of bed and service utilization data separately by each facility of a general acute care hospital issued a single consolidated license pursuant to this section.
- (i) The amendments made to this section during the 1985–86 Regular Session of the California Legislature pertaining to the issuance of a single consolidated license to a general acute care hospital in the case where the separate physical plant is a skilled nursing facility or intermediate care facility shall not apply to the following facilities:
- (1) Any facility which obtained a certificate of need after August 1, 1984, and prior to February 14, 1985, as described in this subdivision. The certificate of need shall be for the construction of a skilled nursing facility or intermediate care facility which is the same facility for which the hospital applies for a single consolidated license, pursuant to subdivision (a).
- (2) Any facility for which a single consolidated license has been issued pursuant to subdivision (a), as described in this subdivision, prior to the effective date of the amendments made to this section during the 1985-86 Regular Session of the California Legislature.

Any facility which has been issued a single consolidated license pursuant to subdivision (a), as described in this subdivision, shall be granted renewal licenses based upon the same criteria used for the initial consolidated license.

SEC. 2. The changes to Section 1250.8 of the Health and Safety Code enacted during the 1985–86 Regular Session of the Legislature shall not apply to any project for which a certificate of need was issued prior to January 1, 1987, nor shall it apply to any project for which an application for licensure is submitted prior to January 1, 1987. Licensing decisions on projects referred to in this section shall be based upon Section 1250.8 of the Health and Safety Code as it existed on December 31, 1986.

CHAPTER 1319

An act making an appropriation for the payment of claims against the State of California, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

> [Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- SECTION 1. The sum of four hundred thirty-five thousand dollars ($435,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Justice, to be allocated in accordance with the following schedule:
- (a) Three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) to pay the settlement in the interrelated actions generally known as the McColl Toxic Dumpsite Litigation, of which the lead case is captioned Glen Cosman et al. v. State of California et al., Case No. 37-48-02, brought in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange.
- (b) One hundred thirty-five thousand dollars ($135,000) to pay the settlement in the action captioned Doyle v. State of California et al., Case No. H 102025-0, brought in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Alameda.
- SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to settle claims against the state and end hardship to claimants as quickly as possible, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1320

An act to amend Section 1250 of, and to add Section 1250.9 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to health facilities.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1250. As used in this chapter, "health facility" means any facility, place, or building which is organized, maintained, and operated for the diagnosis, care, prevention, and treatment of human illness, physical or mental, including convalescence and rehabilitation and including care during and after pregnancy, or for any one or more of these purposes, for one or more persons, to which the persons are admitted for a 24-hour stay or longer, and includes the following types:

- (a) "General acute care hospital" means a health facility having a duly constituted governing body with overall administrative and professional responsibility and an organized medical staff which provides 24-hour inpatient care, including the following basic services: medical, nursing, surgical, anesthesia, laboratory, radiology, pharmacy, and dietary services. A general acute care hospital may include more than one physical plant maintained and operated on separate premises, as provided in Section 1250.8. A general acute care hospital which exclusively provides acute medical rehabilitation center services, including at least physical therapy, occupational therapy, and speech therapy, may provide for the required surgical and anesthesia services through a contract with another acute care hospital. In addition, a general acute care hospital which, on July 1, 1983, provided required surgical and anesthesia services through a contract or agreement with another acute care hospital may continue to provide these surgical and anesthesia services through a contract or agreement with an acute care hospital.
- (b) "Acute psychiatric hospital" means a health facility having a duly constituted governing body with overall administrative and professional responsibility and an organized medical staff which provides 24-hour inpatient care for mentally disordered, incompetent, or other patients referred to in Division 5 (commencing with Section 5000) or Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code, including the following basic services: medical, nursing, rehabilitative, pharmacy, and dietary services.
- (c) "Skilled nursing facility" means a health facility which provides skilled nursing care and supportive care to patients whose primary need is for availability of skilled nursing care on an extended basis. However, this subdivision shall not be construed to restrict the use of skilled nursing facilities participating in a demonstration project described in Section 1250.9.
- (d) "Intermediate care facility" means a health facility which provides inpatient care to ambulatory or nonambulatory patients who have recurring need for skilled nursing supervision and need supportive care, but who do not require availability of continuous skilled nursing care.
- (e) "Intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled habilitative" means a facility with a capacity of four to 15 beds which provides 24-hour personal care, habilitation, developmental, and supportive health services to 15 or fewer developmentally disabled persons who have intermittent recurring needs for nursing services, but have been certified by a physician as not requiring availability of continuous skilled nursing care.

- (f) "Special hospital" means a health facility having a duly constituted governing body with overall administrative and professional responsibility and an organized medical or dental staff which provides inpatient or outpatient care in dentistry or maternity.
- (g) "Intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled" means a facility which provides 24-hour personal care, habilitation, developmental, and supportive health services to developmentally disabled clients whose primary need is for developmental services and who have a recurring but intermittent need for skilled nursing services.
- (h) "Intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled—nursing" means a facility with a capacity of four to six beds which provides 24-hour personal care, developmental services, and nursing supervision for developmentally disabled persons who have intermittent recurring needs for skilled nursing care but have been certified by a physician as not requiring continuous skilled nursing care. The facility shall serve medically fragile persons who have developmental disabilities or demonstrate significant developmental delay that may lead to a developmental disability if not treated.
- SEC. 2. Section 1250.9 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:
- 1250.9. (a) The Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development shall conduct a demonstration project to evaluate the accommodation of postsurgical care patients for periods not exceeding two days, except that the attending physician may require that the stay be extended to no more than three days.
- (b) The demonstration project shall operate for a period not to exceed three years, for no more than six facilities, one of which shall be located in Fresno County.
- (c) (1) The office shall establish standards for participation, commensurate with the needs of postsurgical care patients requiring temporary nursing services following outpatient surgical procedures.
- (2) In preparing the standards for participation, the office may, as appropriate, consult with the department and with a technical advisory committee which may be appointed by the Director of Statewide Health Planning and Development. The committee shall have no more than seven members, all of whom shall be experts in health care, as determined by the director.
- (3) If a technical advisory committee is established by the director, members of the committee shall be reimbursed for any actual and necessary expenses incurred in connection with their duties as members of the committee.
- (d) Within one year after the conclusion of the demonstration project, the office shall submit an evaluation of the demonstration project to the Legislature on the effectiveness and safety of the demonstration project in providing recovery services to patients receiving outpatient surgical services. The office, as part of the evaluation, shall include recommendations regarding the establishment of a new license catagory or amendment of existing licensing standards.

- (e) The office shall establish and administer the demonstration project in facilities with no more than 20 beds which continuously meet the standards of skilled nursing facilities licensed under subdivision (c) of Section 1250, except that the office may, as appropriate and unless a danger to patients would be created, eliminate or modify the standards.
- (f) The department shall issue a facility identification number to each facility selected for participation in the demonstration project.
- (g) Persons who wish to establish freestanding recovery care programs shall make application to the office for inclusion in the pilot program. Applications shall be made on forms provided by the office and shall contain sufficient information determined as necessary by the office.
- (h) As a condition of participation in the pilot program, each applicant shall agree to provide statistical data and patient information that the office deems necessary for effective evaluation. It is the intent of the Legislature that the office shall develop procedures to assure the confidentiality of patient information and shall only disclose patient information, including name identification, as is necessary pursuant to this section or any other law.
- (i) Any authorized officer, employee, or agent of the office or the state department may, upon presentation of proper identification, enter and inspect any building or premises and any records, including patient records, of a pilot project participant at any reasonable time to review compliance with, or to prevent any violation of, this section or the regulations and standards adopted thereunder.
- (j) The office may suspend or withdraw approval of any or all pilot projects with notice, but without hearing if it determines that patient safety is being jeopardized.
- (k) The office may charge applicants and participants in the program a reasonable fee, not to exceed fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) per site per year to cover its actual cost of administering the pilot program and the cost of any committee created under this section. The costs of the office and the committee under this section shall not exceed the amount of the fees.
- (1) The office may contract with a medical consultant or other advisors as necessary, as determined by the office. Due to the necessity to expedite the demonstration project and its extremely specialized nature, the contracts shall be exempt from the provisions of Section 10373 of the Public Contract Code, and shall be considered sole-source contracts.
- (m) The office may adopt emergency regulations to implement this section in accordance with Section 11346.1 of the Government Code, except that the regulations shall be exempt from the requirements of subdivisions (e), (f), and (g) of that section. The regulations shall be deemed an emergency for the purposes of Section 11346.1.

CHAPTER 1321

An act to amend Sections 676 and 678 of, and to add Sections 675.5, 676.2, 676.5, 677.2, and 678.1 to, the Insurance Code, relating to insurance, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 675.5 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

- 675.5. (a) In addition to any policy of insurance specified in Section 675, this chapter shall apply to policies of commercial insurance issued or issued for delivery in this state which are issued and take effect or are renewed on or after January 1, 1987.
- (b) As used in this section, commercial insurance means commercial multiperil, commercial property, commercial liability, commercial special multiperil, commercial comprehensive multiperil, errors and omissions liability, and professional liability insurance, and any other insurance not included in subdivision (d) which covers any of the following contingencies:
- (1) Loss of or damage to real property used or owned by a commercial or industrial enterprise.
- (2) Loss of or damage to personal property, except personally owned motor vehicles, used in the conduct of a commercial or industrial enterprise.
- (3) Legal liability of any person for loss of, damage to, or injury to persons or property, arising from the conduct of a commercial or industrial enterprise.
- (c) As used in this section, the term commercial or industrial enterprise includes a business operated for profit, a professional practice, a nonprofit organization, or a governmental entity.
- (d) As used in this section, the term commercial insurance does not include any of the following:
  - (1) Worker's compensation insurance.
- (2) Insurance provided pursuant to the California FAIR plan or the California automobile assigned risk plan.
  - (3) Disability insurance.
- (4) Automobile insurance covered by Section 660 and property insurance covered by Section 675.
  - (5) Ocean marine insurance.
  - (6) Fidelity and surety insurance.
  - (7) Surplus line insurance.

- (8) Reinsurance.
- (9) Any insurance, other than professional liability insurance for malpractice, errors, or omissions, for which premiums are determined on a retrospective rating basis.
  - (10) Nuclear liability insurance.
  - (11) Nuclear property insurance.
  - SEC. 2. Section 676 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:
- 676. After a policy specified in Section 675 has been in effect for 60 days, or, if the policy is a renewal, effective immediately, no notice of cancellation shall be effective unless it is based on the occurrence, after the effective date of the policy, of one or more of the following:
- (a) Nonpayment of premium, including nonpayment of any additional premiums, calculated in accordance with the current rating manual of the insurer, justified by a physical change in the insured property or a change in its occupancy or use.
- (b) Conviction of the named insured of a crime having as one of its necessary elements an act increasing any hazard insured against.
- (c) Discovery of fraud or material misrepresentation by either of the following:
- (1) The insured or his or her representative in obtaining the insurance.
- (2) The named insured or his or her representative in pursuing a claim under the policy.
- (d) Discovery of grossly negligent acts or omissions by the insured or his or her representative substantially increasing any of the hazards insured against.
- (e) Physical changes in the insured property which result in the property becoming uninsurable.
  - SEC. 3. Section 676.2 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:
- 676.2. (a) This section applies only to policies of commercial insurance which are subject to Section 675.5.
- (b) After a policy has been in effect for more than 60 days, or if the policy is a renewal, effective immediately, no notice of cancellation shall be effective unless it complies with Section 677.2 and it is based on the occurrence, after the effective date of the policy, of one or more of the following:
- (1) Nonpayment of premium, including payment due on a prior policy issued by the insurer and due during the current policy term covering the same risks.
- (2) A judgment by a court or an administrative tribunal that the named insured has violated any law of this state or of the United States having as one of its necessary elements an act which materially increases any of the risks insured against.
- (3) Discovery of fraud or material misrepresentation by either of the following:
- (A) The insured or his or her representative in obtaining the insurance.
- (B) The named insured or his or her representative in pursuing a claim under the policy.

- (4) Discovery of willful or grossly negligent acts or omissions, or of any violations of state laws or regulations establishing safety standards, by the named insured or his or her representative, which materially increase any of the risks insured against.
- (5) Failure by the named insured or his or her representative to implement reasonable loss control requirements which were agreed to by the insured as a condition of policy issuance or which were conditions precedent to the use by the insurer of a particular rate or rating plan, if the failure materially increases any of the risks insured against.
- (6) A determination by the commissioner that the loss of, or changes in, an insurer's reinsurance covering all or part of the risk would threaten the financial integrity or solvency of the insurer. A certification made under penalty of perjury to the commissioner by an officer of the insurer of the loss of, or change in, reinsurance and that the loss or change will threaten the financial integrity or solvency of the insurer if the cancellation of the policy is not permitted shall constitute such a determination unless disapproved by the commissioner within 30 days of the filing. There shall be no extensions to this 30-day period.
- (7) A determination by the commissioner that a continuation of the policy coverage would place the insurer in violation of the laws of this state or the state of its domicile or that the continuation of coverage would threaten the solvency of the insurer.
- (8) A change by the named insured or his or her representative in the activities or property of the commercial or industrial enterprise which results in a material added risk, a materially increased risk or a materially changed risk, unless the added, increased, or changed risk is included in the policy.
- (c) After a policy has been in effect for more than 60 days, or if the policy is a renewal, effective immediately upon renewal, no increase in the rate upon which the premium is based, reduction in limits, or change in the conditions of coverage shall be effective during the policy period unless a written notice is mailed or delivered to the named insured and the producer of record at the mailing address shown on the policy, at least 30 days prior to the effective date of the increase, reduction, or change. Subdivision (a) of Section 1013 of the Code of Civil procedure is applicable if the notice is mailed. The notice shall state the effective date of, and the reasons for, the increase, reduction, or change.

That increase, reduction or change shall not be effective unless based upon one of the following reasons:

- (1) Discovery of willful or grossly negligent acts or omissions, or of any violations of state laws or regulations establishing safety standards by the named insured which materially increase any of the risks or hazards insured against.
- (2) Failure by the named insured to implement reasonable loss control requirements which were agreed to by the insured as a condition of policy issuance or which were conditions precedent to the use by the insurer of a particular rate or rating plan, if the failure materially increases any of the risks insured against.

- (3) A determination by the commissioner that loss of or changes in an insurer's reinsurance covering all or part of the risk covered by the policy would threaten the financial integrity or solvency of the insurer unless the change in the terms or conditions or rate upon which the premium is based is permitted.
- (4) A change by the named insured in the activities or property of the commercial or industrial enterprise which results in a materially added risk, a materially increased risk, or a materially changed risk, unless the added, increased, or changed risk is included in the policy.
- (d) The Administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340), Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 11370), and Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Title 2 of Division 3 of the Government Code) shall not apply to a determination pursuant to paragraph (6) or (7) of subdivision (b) or paragraph (3) of subdivision (c). The commissioner shall charge an insurer who requests a determination pursuant to paragraph (6) or (7) of subdivision (b) a fee sufficient to recover the costs of making the determination. If the commissioner does not act upon a request by a insurer to cancel or change a policy pursuant to those provisions within 30 days, the request shall be deemed to be approved.
- (e) This section shall not prohibit an insurer from increasing a premium during the policy period, if the increase is calculated in accordance with the current rating manual of the insurer, and is justified by a physical change in the insured property or by a change in the activities of the commercial or industrial enterprise which materially increases any of the risks insured against.
- (f) This section shall not apply to a transfer of a policy without a change in its terms or conditions or the rate upon which the premium is based between insurers which are members of the same insurance group.
  - SEC. 4. Section 676.5 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:
- 676.5. (a) This section applies only to policies of commercial insurance which are subject to Section 675.5.
- (b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), for purposes of this chapter only, a policy with no fixed expiration, or with a term of less than one year, shall be considered to be a policy for a term of one year, and a policy written for a term of more than one year shall be considered as if written for successive terms of one year.
- (c) For purposes of this chapter, a policy shall be considered to be for a term of less than one year if the policy is issued for a specific risk which does not continue beyond the period of the policy, or if the insured requests a policy for a term of less than one year.
- SEC. 5. Section 677.2 is added to the Insurance Code, to read: 677.2. (a) This section applies only to policies covered by Section 675.5.
  - (b) A notice of cancellation shall be in writing and shall be delivered or mailed to the producer of record, provided that the producer of record is not an employee of the insurer, and to the named insured at the mailing address shown on the policy. Subdivision (a) of Section 1013 of the Code of Civil Procedure is applicable if the notice is mailed.

The notice of cancellation shall include the effective date of the cancellation and the reasons for the cancellation.

- (c) The notice of cancellation shall be given at least 30 days prior to the effective date of the cancellation, except that in the case of cancellation for nonpayment of premiums or for fraud the notice shall be given no less than 10 days prior to the effective date of the cancellation. Notice of a proposed cancellation pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 676.2 given prior to a finding of the commissioner shall satisfy the requirements of this section if it is given no less than 30 days prior to the effective date of the cancellation and if it states that cancellation will be effective only upon the approval of the commissioner.
- (d) This section applies only to cancellations pursuant to Section 676.2.
- SEC. 6. Section 678 of the Insurance Code is amended to read: 678. (a) This section applies only to policies of insurance specified in Section 675.
- (b) Unless the insurer, at least 45 days in advance of the end of the policy period, mails or delivers to the named insured at the address shown in the policy notice of its intention not to renew the policy or to condition its renewal upon a reduction of limits or an elimination of coverages the insurer shall not fail to renew the policy upon payment of the premium due on the effective date of the renewal, in accordance with the then existing rating manual of the insurer. Any policy written for a term of less than one year shall be considered as if written for a term of one year. Any policy written for a term longer than one year, or any policy with no fixed expiration date, shall be considered as if written for successive policy periods or terms of one year.
  - SEC. 7. Section 678.1 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:
- 678.1. (a) This section applies only to policies of insurance of commercial insurance which are subject to Section 675.5.
- (b) A notice of nonrenewal shall be in writing and shall be delivered or mailed to the producer of record and to the named insured at the mailing address shown on the policy. Subdivision (a) of Section 1013 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall be applicable if the notice is mailed.
- (c) An insurer, at least 45 days, but not more than 120 days, in advance of the end of the policy period, shall give notice of nonrenewal, and the reasons for the nonrenewal, if the insurer intends not to renew the policy, or to condition renewal upon reduction of limits, elimination of coverages, increase in deductibles, or increase of more than 25 percent in the rate upon which the premium is based. Excepting that an insurer for policyholders whose aggregate premium is ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or less shall, at least 60 days but not more than 120 days in advance of the policy period, give notice of nonrenewal, and the reasons for the nonrenewal if the insurer intends to not renew the policy, or, to condition renewal upon reduction of limits, elimination of coverages, increase in deductibles, or increase of more than 25 percent in the rate upon which the premium is based.

- (d) If an insurer fails to give timely notice required by subdivision (c), the policy of insurance shall be continued, with no change in its terms or conditions, for a period of 60 days after the insurer gives the notice.
- (e) A notice of nonrenewal shall not be required in any of the following situations:
- (1) The transfer of, or renewal of, a policy without a change in its terms or conditions or the rate on which the premium is based between insurers which are members of the same insurance group.
- (2) The policy has been extended for 90 days or less, if the notice required in subdivision (c) has been given prior to the extension.
- (3) The named insured has obtained replacement coverage or has agreed, in writing, within 60 days of the termination of the policy, to obtain that coverage.
- (4) The policy is for a period of no more than 60 days and the insured is notified at the time of issuance that it may not be renewed.
- (5) The named insured requests a change in the terms or conditions or risks covered by the policy within 60 days prior to the end of the policy period.
- (6) The insurer has made an offer to the insured, within the time period specified in subdivision (c), to renew the policy under changed terms or conditions or at a changed premium rate.
- SEC. 8. This act shall be known as the Robbins-Brown Insurance Consumer Reform Act of 1986.
- SEC. 9. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1322

An act to amend Sections 663 and 678 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 663 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

663. At least 20 days prior to policy expiration, an insurer shall deliver to the named insured or mail to the named insured at the address shown in the policy, either of the following:

(a) A written or verbal offer of renewal of the policy contingent upon payment of premium as stated in the offer.

- (b) A notice of nonrenewal of the policy. That notice shall contain or be accompanied by a statement that upon written request by the named insured, made not later than one month following the expiration of the policy period, or delivered to the insurer, the insurer will notify the insured in writing, within 20 days of his request, the reason or reasons for such nonrenewal.
- (c) In the event that an insurer fails to give the named insured either an offer of renewal or notice of nonrenewal as required by this section, the existing policy, with no change in its terms and conditions, shall remain in effect for 20 days from the date that either the offer to renew or the notice of nonrenewal is delivered or mailed to the named insured. A notice to this effect shall be provided by the insurer to the named insured with the policy or the notice of renewal or nonrenewal. Notwithstanding the failure of an insurer to comply with this section, the policy shall terminate on the effective date of any other replacement or succeeding automobile insurance policy procured by the insured, or his agent or broker, with respect to any automobile designated in both policies.
- (d) The insurer shall not be required to notify the named insured, or any other insured, of nonrenewal of the policy if the insurer has mailed or delivered a notice of expiration or cancellation, on or prior to the 20th day preceding expiration of the policy period.
- SEC. 2. Section 678 of the Insurance Code is amended to read: 678. At least 45 days prior to policy expiration, an insurer shall deliver to the named insured or mail to the named insured at the address shown in the policy, either of the following:
- (a) An offer of renewal of the policy contingent upon payment of premium as stated in the offer, stating any reduction of limits or elimination of coverage if any.
  - (b) A notice of nonrenewal of the policy.

In the event an insurer fails to give the named insured either an offer of renewal or notice of nonrenewal as required by this section, the existing policy, with no change in its terms and conditions, shall remain in effect for 45 days from the date that either the offer to renew or the notice of nonrenewal is delivered or mailed to the named insured. A notice to this effect shall be provided by the insurer to the named insured with the policy or the notice of renewal or nonrenewal.

Any policy written for a term of less than one year shall be considered as if written for a term of one year. Any policy written for a term longer than one year, or any policy with no fixed expiration date, shall be considered as if written for successive policy periods or terms of one year.

- (c) This section applies only to policies of insurance specified in Section 675.
- SEC. 3. The amendments to Sections 663 and 678 of the Insurance Code made in Sections 1 and 2 of this act shall become operative July 1, 1987.

CHAPTER 1323

An act to amend Section 1864 of the Insurance Code, relating to child care, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1864 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

- 1864. (a) On or before May 1 of each year, commencing in 1987, each insurer engaged in writing child care liability insurance coverage in this state shall submit to the commissioner a report of its operations regarding child care liability claims experience for the last preceding calendar year ending on December 31 on a form furnished by the commissioner. Each report shall separately state the following information for family day care homes, as defined in Section 1596.78 of the Health and Safety Code, and licensed child care centers, as defined in Section 1596.76 of the Health and Safety Code:
  - (1) Premiums earned.
  - (2) Premiums written.
  - (3) Number of claims.
  - (4) Number of new claims during the reporting period.
  - (5) Number of claims closed during the reporting period.
- (6) Number of claims outstanding at the end of the reporting period.
  - (7) Total losses incurred.
  - (8) Total losses incurred as a percentage of premiums earned.
  - (9) Total number of policies in force on the last day of the reporting period.

- (10) Total number of policies canceled.
- (11) Total number of policies nonrenewed.
- (12) Net underwriting gain or loss.
- (13) Separate allocations of expenses for commissions, other acquisition costs, general office expenses, taxes, licenses and fees, and other expenses. The allocations required by this section shall be made by dividing the company's total premiums earned for child care liability insurance by its total premiums earned and applying the ratio determined to the expenses reported in the company's annual statement filed with the Commissioner pursuant to Section 900.
- (b) The commissioner shall develop and issue reporting forms to insurers at least 90 days prior to the due date of the reports required pursuant to this section.
- (c) By February 1, 1986, a task force appointed pursuant to this subdivision shall submit a preliminary report to the Legislature which contains recommendations on any other appropriate data to be required from insurers in their annual report of operations. A final report shall be submitted no later than July 1, 1986. The task force shall include one representative from the Insurance Commissioner, one representative from the insurance industry who shall be appointed by the Governor, and one representative from the Legislative Analyst's Office, as well as one child care provider appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules and one child care provider appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly. These members shall be appointed no later than October 15, 1985. The task force shall review all data used by insurance companies in calculating and determining increases in premiums, and the underwriting criteria and rationale they use to decide whether or not to provide coverage for child care providers.
- (d) The task force shall continue its review of the data collected as a legislative advisory committee on child care liability insurance through 1987. The advisory committee shall, by December 1, 1987, issue a report to the Legislature on the availability and affordability of child care liability insurance in California. The advisory committee shall be comprised of the original task force members, with vacancies filled as needed according to the appointment procedures specified in subdivision (c).
- (e) The Legislature finds that it is in the public interest of the policyholders of this state that insurers writing child care liability insurance permit remittance of premiums to occur on an installment basis.
- (f) The information provided under this section pertaining to a specified claim, insurance policy, or insurer shall be confidential and shall only be revealed by the department on a nonspecific basis as part of an aggregate report of claims or policies.

An act to amend Section 556 of the Insurance Code, and to add Section 801.5 to the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 556 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

556. (a) It is unlawful to:

- (1) Knowingly present or cause to be presented any false or fraudulent claim for the payment of a loss, including payment of a loss under a contract of insurance.
- (2) Knowingly present multiple claims for the same loss or injury, including presentation of multiple claims to more than one insurer, with an intent to defraud.
- (3) Knowingly cause or participate in a vehicular collision, or any other vehicular accident, for the purpose of presenting any false or fraudulent claim.
- (4) Knowingly prepare, make, or subscribe any writing, with intent to present or use the same, or to allow it to be presented in support of any such claim.
- (b) Every person who violates any provision of this section is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, for two, three, or four years, or by fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or by both.
- (c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, probation shall not be granted to, nor shall the execution or imposition of a sentence be suspended for, any adult person convicted of a violation of this section who has been previously convicted of violations of this section as an adult under charges separately brought and tried two or more times. The existence of any fact which would make a person ineligible for probation under this subdivision shall be alleged in the information or indictment, and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

Except where the existence of such fact was not admitted or found to be true or the court finds that a prior conviction was invalid, the court shall not strike or dismiss any prior convictions alleged in the information or indictment.

This subdivision does not prohibit the adjournment of criminal proceedings pursuant to Division 3 (commencing with Section 3000) or Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

SEC. 2. Section 801.5 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

- 801.5. Notwithstanding Section 801 or any other provision of law, prosecution for a violation of Section 556 of the Insurance Code shall be commenced within three years after discovery of the commission of the offense.
- SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

An act to add Section 11628.3 to the Insurance Code, and to add Sections 1675, 1676, 1677, and 1678 to the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that a driver improvement course specifically designed for the needs of older drivers can be of assistance in increasing the safety of older drivers on the road.

It is therefore the intent of the Legislature to encourage older drivers to update their driving skills and knowledge through a driver improvement course which may be taken every three years, and to offer a reduction in auto insurance premiums upon successful completion of the course.

- SEC. 2. Section 11628.3 is added to the Insurance Code, to read: 11628.3. (a) Based on the actuarial and loss experience data available to each insurer, including the driving records of mature driver improvement course graduates, as recorded by the Department of Motor Vehicles, every admitted insurer shall provide for an appropriate percentage of reduction in premium rates for motor vehicle liability insurance for principal operators who are 55 years of age or older and who produce proof of successful completion of the mature driver improvement course provided for and approved by the Department of Motor Vehicles pursuant to Section 1675 of the Vehicle Code.
- (b) The insured shall enroll in and successfully complete the course described in subdivision (a) once every three years in order to continue to be eligible for an appropriate percentage of reduced premium.
- (c) The percentage of premium reduction required by subdivision (a) shall be reassessed by the insurer upon renewal of the insured's policy. The insured's eligibility for any percentage of premium reduction shall be effective for a three-year period from the date of successful completion of the course described in subdivision (a), except that the insurer may discontinue the reduced premium rate if the insured is in any case:

- (1) Involved in an accident for which the insured is at fault, as determined by the insurer.
- (2) Convicted of a violation of Division 11 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Vehicle Code, except Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 22500) of that division, or of a traffic related offense involving alcohol or narcotics.
- (d) The percentage of premium rate reduction required by subdivision (a) does not apply in the event the insured enrolls in, and successfully completes, an approved course pursuant to a court order provided for in Section 42005 of the Vehicle Code. Nothing in this subdivision precludes an insured from also enrolling in a driver improvement course.
  - SEC. 3. Section 1675 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:
- 1675. (a) The director shall establish standards and develop criteria for the approval of driver improvement courses specifically designed for the safe driving needs of drivers who are 55 years of age or older which shall be known as the mature driver improvement course.
- (b) The curriculum for the course provided for in subdivision (a) shall include, but is not limited to, all of the following components:
- (1) How impairment of visual and audio perception affects driving performance and how to compensate for that impairment.
- (2) The effects of fatigue, medications, and alcohol on driving performance, when experienced alone or in combination, and precautionary measures to prevent or offset ill effects.
- (3) Updates on rules of the road and equipment, including, but not limited to, safety belts and safe and efficient driving techniques under present day road and traffic conditions.
- (4) How to plan travel time and select routes for safety and efficiency.
- (5) How to make crucial decisions in dangerous, hazardous, and unforeseen situations.
- (c) Each mature driver improvement course shall include not less than 400 minutes of instruction, and shall not exceed 25 students per single day of instruction or 30 students per two days of instruction.
- (d) Upon satisfactory completion of the mature driver improvement course, participants shall receive and retain a certificate provided by the department, awarded and distributed by the course provider, which shall be suitable evidence of satisfactory course completion, and eligibility for three years, from the date of completion, for the mature driver vehicle liability insurance premium reduction pursuant to Section 11628.3 of the Insurance Code.
  - (e) The course provider shall report to the department, upon enrollment, the name of each participant and the person's driver's license number. The course provider shall also transmit a copy of each certificate distributed to a participant to the department. These reports shall be used in the evaluation required by Section 1678.

- (f) The certificate may be renewed every three years from the date of completion by successfully completing a subsequent mature driver improvement course.
- (g) For the purposes of this section, and Sections 1676 and 1677, "course provider" means any person offering a mature driver improvement course approved by the department pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section.
  - SEC. 4. Section 1676 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:
- 1676. (a) An individual enrolling in a mature driver improvement course pursuant to Section 1675, shall pay to the course provider, a fee not to exceed twenty dollars ($20).
- (b) Each course provider shall issue a receipt for any fee it collects from any individual who registers for or attends a mature driver improvement course.
- (c) The department shall charge a fee not to exceed three dollars ($3) for each completion certificate issued by a mature driver improvement course provider, pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 1675. The amount of the fee shall be determined by the department and shall be sufficient to defray the actual costs incurred by the department for administering the mature driver improvement program, for evaluating the program, and for any other activities deemed necessary by the department to assure high quality education for participants of the program. A course provider shall not charge a fee in excess of the fee charged by the department pursuant to this subdivision for furnishing a certificate of completion or duplicate thereof. The department shall transmit all fees it receives for deposit in the Motor Vehicle Account in the State Transportation Fund pursuant to Section 42270.
  - SEC. 5. Section 1677 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:
- 1677. (a) The department may collect a fee, to be determined by the department, from each course provider who shall be responsible for the development and operation of a mature driver improvement course, for the approval of the course, but not to exceed the actual cost of approval of the course. The department shall transmit all fees it receives for deposit in the Motor Vehicle Account in the State Transportation Fund pursuant to Section 42270.
- (b) Each course provider, who has received course approval from the department, is responsible for the delivery, instruction, and content of his or her mature driver improvement course.
- (c) The department shall investigate claims of impropriety on the part of a course provider. The department may withdraw the approval of courses in violation of Section 1675 or 1676, as determined by the department, for just cause, including, but not limited to any of the following:
  - (1) Furnishing course completion certificates to course enrollees prior to, or in the absence of, completion of the curriculum specified in subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 1675.

- (2) Failure to report records of enrolled students and records of satisfactory course completion.
- (3) Charging fees in excess of the amounts specified in subdivision (a) and subdivision (c) of Section 1676.
- (d) Mature driver improvement courses approved by the department shall continue to be approved until either of the following occurs:
  - (1) The course provider does not meet the conditions of approval.
- (2) The department finds just cause to terminate the approval pursuant to subdivision (c).
  - SEC. 6. Section 1678 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:
- 1678. (a) The department shall produce a set of statistical tabulations of the accident rates of graduates and nonparticipants in mature driver improvement courses. The tabulations shall include, but are not limited to, all of the following:
- (1) Differences, if any, between the cumulative driving records of mature driver improvement course graduates and the driving records of other drivers with similar characteristics who have not taken the course.
  - (2) Factors that may influence course participation.
- (b) The department shall report its findings, and make recommendations, to the Legislature not later than July 1 of each year, beginning with July 1, 1989.
- SEC. 7. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.
- SEC. 8. Sections 1 to 7 of this act shall become operative on July 1, 1987.

CHAPTER 1326

An act to add Section 12922.1 to the Insurance Code, relating to insurance, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares as follows:

(a) Insurance for tort liability in California is increasingly unavailable or not affordable.

- (b) It is claimed that excessive court awards to plaintiffs in tort actions have, in part, caused insurers to raise insurance premiums and to discontinue offering certain classes of insurance.
- (c) There is insufficient data available to determine whether, or to what extent, court judgments and settlements have had an effect on insurance companies' ability to offer tort liability insurance at adequate rates in California.
- (d) The Insurance Commissioner needs the information about judgments and settlements in tort cases to assist in evaluating whether rates charged by insurance companies are excessive.
- SEC. 2. Section 12922.1 is added to the Insurance Code, to read: 12922.1. (a) The commissioner shall contract on an annual basis with the Judicial Council to provide the commissioner with an annual report analyzing the following types of cases:
  - (1) Medical malpractice cases.
  - (2) Toxic substance tort cases.
  - (3) Product and design liability cases.
  - (4) Tort cases in which a public entity is a defendant.
- (5) Tort cases involving judgments or settlements of one million dollars ($1,000,000) or more.
  - (6) Class action tort cases.
  - (7) Defamation and invasion of privacy cases.
- (8) Other categories of tort cases involving commercial liability claims designated in the contract between the commissioner and the Judicial Council.
- (b) The study may exclude cases in which the only defendant is an individual sued in his or her private capacity. The study may exclude cases filed in municipal court.
- (c) If any of the information required to be provided by the parties is confidential under any other provision of law or pursuant to any court order, the Judicial Council shall keep that information confidential and shall limit its analysis of that information to aggregate data or other analysis which will not reveal the identity of the parties.
- (d) A copy of the report required by this section shall be provided to the Legislature by the Judicial Council.
- SEC. 3. The sum of thirty-eight thousand dollars ($38,000) is hereby appropriated from the Insurance Fund to the Insurance Commissioner for the purposes of this act.

An act to add Chapter 5.5 (commencing with Section 6599.01) to Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, relating to liability, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 5.5 (commencing with Section 6599.01) is added to Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 5.5. LOCAL AGENCY SELF-INSURANCE AUTHORITY

Article 1. Organization and Powers

- 6599.01. Pursuant to Section 6 of Article XVI of the California Constitution, local agencies may enter into a joint pooling agreement to form a single statewide insurance pooling arrangement administered by a single statewide agency for the payment of tort liability or public liability losses incurred by such agencies. The agency shall be known as the Local Agency Self-Insurance Authority. 6599.02. As used in this chapter:
- (a) "Local agency" means any city, county, city and county, school district, special district, authority, other political subdivision of or within the state, or any joint powers authority composed of any of these agencies.
- (b) "Original board" means the first board of directors constituted and selected pursuant to Section 6599.06.
- (c) "Board" means the original board and any successor board selected and constituted under this chapter.
- 6599.03. In addition to the powers specified in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 6500), the authority may issue revenue bonds or certificates of participation, or both, to establish capital, surplus, and prudent reserves, and may secure payment of the bonds and interest by pledging all or part of its revenues from the receipt of premiums.
- 6599.04. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 6500) applies to the authority.

6599.05. The authority is not a state agency and has no power at any time or in any manner to pledge the credit of the state.

- 6599.06. The authority shall be organized and administered by a board of directors. The original board shall be constituted and selected as follows:
- (a) Two directors shall be appointed by the County Supervisors Association of California and at least one shall have no less than five years of proven successful experience at a management level in providing risk management and insurance services to a county or an insurance joint powers agency composed of counties.

- (b) Two directors shall be appointed by the League of California Cities and at least one shall have not less than five years of proven successful experience at a management level in providing risk management and insurance services to a city or an insurance joint powers agency composed of cities.
- (c) One director shall be appointed by the California Special District Association and one director shall be appointed by the Association of California Water Agencies.
- (d) Two directors shall be appointed by the California School Boards Association and at least one member shall have no less than five years of proven successful experience at a management level in providing risk management and insurance services to a school district or an insurance joint powers agency composed of school districts.
- (e) One director shall be a person selected by a majority vote of the other eight members.
- (f) The original directors shall hold their first meeting not later than April 1, 1987, and shall hold office until the permanent composition of the board is determined by the agreement or agreements entered pursuant to this chapter and the appointment and qualification of their successors, but in no event longer than three years.
- 6599.07. There shall not be any liability in an individual or private capacity on the part of the board of directors or any member of the board, or any officer or employee of the authority for or on account of any act performed or obligation entered into in an official capacity, when done in good faith, without intent to defraud and in connection with the administration, management, or conduct of the authority or affairs relating to it. Members of the board and employees and officers of the authority are public employees for purposes of Division 3.6 (commencing with Section 810) of Title 1.
- 6599.08. The authority shall be operated on an actuarially sound basis and become neither more nor less than self-supporting. For that purpose, loss experience and expense shall be ascertained and credits, refunds, and assessments may be made as determined appropriate by the board. The authority shall have the powers and duties set forth in this chapter and the powers and duties given it by its agreement. The original board may enter into the original joint powers agreement creating and governing the authority, which shall be made subject to subsequent modification and termination by the members of the authority.

6599.09. The board shall do all of the following:

- (a) Develop, promulgate, and effectuate loss prevention programs, risk management programs, and safety programs.
- (b) Subject to Section 6599.10, establish minimum standards for entry into membership and continued participation in the authority which shall include standards for risk management and loss control in addition to those other standards that the board deems appropriate.

(c) Establish standards and requirements for exit from the authority, which shall include those limits and conditions on exit that the board determines appropriate to insure actuarial soundness of the authority.

6599.10. All those local agencies that request membership in the authority and meet the standards established by the authority pursuant to Section 6599.09, for entry into and continued participation in the authority may become members of the authority. If the authority determines that a local agency requesting membership meets the underwriting standards of the authority, the authority, upon receipt of the premium prescribed by the authority, shall admit the requesting local agency to membership. No local agency may be denied membership unless the board determines the agency cannot be actuarially safely underwritten. Premiums shall be based upon all appropriate actuarial data, including, but not limited to, claims and loss experience of applicant member agencies. Local agencies may request membership individually or through insurance joint powers authorities.

Article 2. Amounts of Insurance

6599.21. The authority may only cover risks to the extent that liability on any one occurrence exceeds one million dollars ($1,000,000), and may not provide coverage for any amount of liability on any one occurrence which exceeds twenty-five million dollars ($25,000,000).

6599.22. The authority may establish limits on coverage for a member or category of members, but those limits may neither be less than the minimum nor more than the maximum limits established by Section 6599.21.

6599.23. A local agency requesting membership from the authority may request coverage in any sum, so long as the coverage requested is neither less than the minimum nor more than the maximum limits established by Section 6599.21.

Article 3. Reports and Statements

6599.31. The books and records of the authority shall be audited annually and a summary of the audit shall be provided to the authority's members and shall be a public record. The audit shall be done by a certified public accountant pursuant to agreement with the authority. Each annual audit, or a separate annual actuarial analysis, shall determine whether the authority has sufficient assets and reserves to maintain actuarial soundness, and shall recommend to the board any amounts which the authority should credit, refund, or assess its members to retain that soundness.

If any provision of this section conflicts with Section 6505, this section governs.

Article 4. Miscellaneous

6599.41. If the original board is not selected on or before January 1, 1990, this chapter shall cease to be operative.

SEC. 2. The sum of three hundred forty-five thousand dollars ($345,000) is appropriated from the General Fund to the Controller for purposes of loaning that sum to the Local Agency Self-Insurance Authority to pay for original operating costs. The Local Agency Self-Insurance Authority shall repay the money to the General Fund not later than one year after the date the money is first loaned by the Controller to the authority, together with interest at the same rate as the Pooled Money Investment Account.

CHAPTER 1328

An act to add Sections 925, 925.1, 925.2, 925.3, 925.4, and 10506.3 to, and to add Article 7 (commencing with Section 13500) to Chapter 2 of Division 3 of, the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 925 is added to the Insurance Code, to read: 925. Upon request of the commissioner, and at intervals as prescribed by him or her, any insurer that appears to the commissioner to require immediate regulatory attention shall provide to the commissioner supplemental accounting, financial, and actuarial information. The commissioner may request that an insurer select and retain an independent certified public accountant or independent actuary satisfactory to the commissioner, if that person has not already been retained by the insurer, whenever the information supplied or likely to be supplied is not satisfactory or acceptable to the commissioner, or, whenever the person who would be responsible for that preparation of that information has previously provided information that was not satisfactory or acceptable to the commissioner. If the information is prepared by an independent certified public accountant or independent actuary, or other independent professional financial person, the person shall examine and render an opinion upon that supplemental information.

SEC. 2. Section 925.1 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

925.1. (a) All supplemental information, work papers and other relevant documents of the independent certified public accountant, or independent actuary, or other independent professional financial person and the insurer relevant to information provided to the

- commissioner pursuant to Sections 925 to 925.2, inclusive, shall be made available by the insurer for review by the commissioner upon request at the insurer's office, at the commissioner's office, or any other reasonable place designated by the commissioner.
- (b) All supplemental information, relevant work papers and other relevant documents of the certified public accountant or actuary shall be retained for a period of not less than five years from the date of the report. The certified public accountant or the actuary shall make that information available to the insurer upon the reasonable request of the commissioner made to the insurer, except when that information is subject to the right against self-incrimination or other relevant privileges.
- (c) Every insurer shall authorize, in writing, the independent certified public accountant, independent actuary, or other independent professional financial person retained or engaged by it to provide to the commissioner all information subject to Section 925 to 925.2, inclusive.
  - SEC. 3. Section 925.2 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:
- 925.2. The commissioner may prescribe the subject matter and form of reporting supplemental information and the subject matter of opinions.
  - SEC. 4. Section 925.3 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:
- 925.3. All supplemental information provided or made available to the commissioner pursuant to Sections 925 to 925.2, inclusive, including work papers and other relevant documents of the independent certified public accountants or, independent actuary or other independent professional financial person and the insurer relevant to that information, shall be received in confidence within the meaning of subdivision (d) of Section 6254 of the Government Code and exempt from the California Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code). Additionally, that information shall not be subject to subpoena or subpoena duces tecum.
  - SEC. 5. Section 925.4 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:
- 925.4. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed in any manner to limit, restrict or abridge the powers of the commissioner to examine insurers, to inquire into their financial condition or to obtain supplemental information in accordance with any other provision of this code.
- SEC. 6. Section 10506.3 is added to the Insurance Code, to read: 10506.3. (a) The commissioner shall adopt appropriate administrative regulations governing modified guaranteed annuities.
- (b) The commissioner shall issue a bulletin, on or before July 1, 1987, setting forth conditions under which variable life insurance may be issued, or issued for delivery, in this state as permitted by Chapter 731 of the Statutes of 1984.

Upon issuance of the bulletin, regulations regarding variable life insurance contained in Article 11.1 (commencing with Section 2534)

of Title 10 of the California Administrative Code shall be of no force and effect as long as the bulletin is effective. The bulletin authorized by this section shall have the same force and effect, and may be enforced by the commissioner to the same extent and degree, as the regulations superseded by it until such time as the commissioner may make additional or amended regulations as provided by subdivision (h)- of Section 10506.

SEC. 7. Article 7 (commencing with Section 13500) is added to Chapter 2 of Division 3 of the Insurance Code, to read:

Article 7: Suspension of Privilege of Appearing or Practicing Before the Commissioner

13500. The commissioner may deny, temporarily or permanently, the privilege of appearing or practicing before the department in any way to any person, other than an attorney acting in that capacity, who is found by the commissioner, after notice of and opportunity for hearing, to be subject to any of the following:

- (a) The person does not possess the requisite qualifications to represent others.
- (b) The person is lacking in character or integrity or has engaged in unethical or improper professional conduct.
- (c) The person has willfully violated, or willfully aided and abetted the violation of any provision of this code, or the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.
- 13501. Any person whose license to practice as an accountant, actuary, or other expert has been revoked or suspended in any state, territory, district, commonwealth, or possession, or any person who has been convicted of a felony, or of a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, shall be forthwith suspended from appearing or practicing before the commissioner. A suspension, revocation, or conviction within the meaning of this article shall be deemed to have occurred when the suspending, revoking, or convicting agency or tribunal enters its judgment or order, regardless of whether appeal is pending or could be taken, and includes a judgment or order on a plea of nolo contendere.
- 13502. (a) An application for reinstatement of a person permanently suspended or disqualified under Section 13500 may be made at any time, and the applicant may, in the commissioner's discretion, be afforded a hearing. However, the suspension or disqualification shall continue unless and until the applicant has been reinstated by the commissioner for good cause shown.
- (b) Any person suspended under Section 13501 shall be reinstated by the commissioner, upon appropriate application, if all the grounds for application of the provisions of Section 13501 are subsequently removed by a reversal of the conviction or termination of the suspension or revocation. An application for reinstatement on any other grounds by any person suspended under Section 13501 may be filed at any time and the applicant shall be afforded an opportunity for a hearing in the matter. However, the suspension shall continue unless and until the applicant has been reinstated by the commissioner for good cause shown.

13503. Any person appearing or practicing before the commissioner who has been the subject of an order, judgment, decree, or finding relevant to Section 13501 shall promptly file with the commissioner a copy thereof, together with any related opinion or statement of the agency or tribunal involved. Failure to make this filing shall not impair the operation of any other provision of this article.

13504. Any proceeding brought under any section of this article shall not preclude a proceeding under any other section.

13505. All hearings held under this article shall be closed to the public, unless the commissioner on his or her own motion, or at the request of a party, otherwise directs.

CHAPTER 1329

An act to add Sections 674.5, 1857.9, and 12922.5 to the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 674.5 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

- 674.5. (a) No insurer shall cease to offer any particular class of commercial liability insurance without prior notification to the commissioner.
- (b) The department shall adopt regulations implementing this section as emergency regulations in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, except that for the purposes of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, any regulations adopted under this section shall be deemed to be necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, or general welfare. These regulations shall remain in effect for 180 days. Unless the regulation provides for notification by some other classification or category, notification pursuant to this section shall be made for each class of insurance as defined by the Insurance Services Office.
- SEC. 2. Section 1857.9 is added to the Insurance Code, to read: 1857.9. (a) Every insurer doing business in this state, except as provided by subdivision (g), shall report on a calendar year basis for each class of insurance designated in the prior calendar year by the commissioner pursuant to subdivision (b) and for each class listed in subdivision (c), both for policies issued or issued for delivery in California, and for policies issued or issued for delivery in the United States and territories:

- (1) The number of policies written, the direct premiums written, the direct premiums earned, the direct losses paid, the direct losses incurred, the direct losses unpaid (not including losses incurred but not reported) the number of outstanding claims at year end and the number of claims paid in the preceding year, the allocated loss adjustment expense, and the percentage of allocated loss adjustment expense attributable to defense attorney expenses.
- (2) Whether policies are written on a claim made or occurrence basis, and whether there has been a change in the preceding 12 months.
- (3) For each loss reserve for each class, whether the reserve is discounted in anticipation of future investment earnings.
- (4) The commissioner shall waive the requirements of paragraph (1) for any information that has been provided to the Insurance Services Office by the insurer, if the Insurance Services Office provides the information to the commissioner on or before the date on which the insurer is required to file the statement.
- (b) No later than October 1 of each year the commissioner shall designate those classes of insurance, as defined by the Insurance Services Office, that are generally unavailable or unaffordable in California, or for which there have been unusually great premium increases. The factors the commissioner shall consider in making this determination shall include, but are not limited to, the following:
  - (1) Consumer complaints.
  - (2) Rate complaints.
  - (3) Surveillance by the department.
  - (4) Market conduct.
- (c) In addition to the classes designated by the commissioner pursuant to subdivision (b) the insurer shall include the information required by subdivision (a) for those classes of insurance, as defined by the Insurance Services Office, covering liability insurance for municipalities, products liability insurance, liability insurance for any business or nonprofit enterprise required to carry liability insurance by state law, news publishers' liability insurance, and professional errors and omissions (malpractice) liability insurance for doctors and for lawyers. Collection of the data described in this section shall be terminated upon a joint resolution of the Legislature specifying such termination of collection. Insurers shall not be required to report under this section information required to be reported under Sections 1857.7, 1864, 11555.2, and 12958.
- (d) The insurer shall also report for both California and for the United States and its territories for the calendar year:
- (1) Each class of commercial liability insurance, as defined by the Insurance Services Office, that is specifically excluded from any reinsurance treaty for reinsurance ceded.
  - (2) Each class of commercial liability insurance, as defined by the Insurance Services Office, that is specifically excluded from any reinsurance treaty for reinsurance assumed.

- (e) The department shall retain the information reported pursuant to this section for a period of no less than five years.
- (f) Insurers that are members of the same insurance group may aggregate the information required by this section in a single report.
- (g) The reports required by this section shall not be applicable to any insurer that has been established for less than three years.
- (h) The reports required by this section shall be filed on a form provided by the commissioner no later than May 1 of the calendar year following the year for which the information is reported.
- (i) The department shall adopt regulations implementing this section as emergency regulations in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, except that for the purposes of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, any regulations adopted under this section shall be deemed to be necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, or general welfare. These regulations shall remain in effect for 180 days. The regulations may require insurers to report the information required by subdivision (d) by categories other than those used by the Insurance Services Office.
- (j) The information provided pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be confidential and not revealed by the department, except that the commissioner may publish an analysis of the data in aggregate form or in a manner which does not disclose confidential information about identified insurers or insureds.
- SEC. 3. Section 12922.5 is added to the Insurance Code, to read: 12922.5. The commissioner shall make an annual report to the Legislature and to the Governor on or before October 1. The report shall include an analysis of the information required by Sections 674.5, 1857.7, 1857.9, 1864, 11555.2, and 12958, including, but not limited to:
- (a) An aggregate and an average for all insurers for each item of information required by these sections.
- (b) The number of insurers reporting policies written for each class during the calendar year.
- (c) For each class, the number of insurers reporting a combined loss ratio of 100 percent or more, and the number reporting a combined loss ratio of under 100 percent.
- (d) An analysis of adjustments made to loss reserves for prior years.
- (e) The change in any item required to be included by subdivisions (a) to (d), inclusive, from the immediately prior year.
- (f) The requirements of this section shall be satisfied if the analysis required by this section is included in the annual report to the Governor required by Section 12922, and a copy of that report is provided to the Legislature.

An act to add and repeal Section 43.55 of the Civil Code, to add and repeal Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 1527) of Chapter 3 of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, and to add and repeal Section 676.2 of the Insurance Code, relating to community care facilities, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that foster parents are a valuable resource providing a needed important service to the citizens of California. The Legislature further recognizes that the current insurance crisis has adversely affected some foster family homes and small family homes in three ways: (a) homeowners' and tenants' insurance is unavailable to foster parents in some locales or available coverage excludes foster parent activities; (b) in some locales, foster parents are unable to obtain liability insurance coverage over and above homeowner's or tenant's coverage for actions filed against them by the foster child or the child's parents or legal guardian. In addition, the monthly payment made to foster family homes and small family homes is not sufficient to cover the cost of obtaining this extended coverage and there is no mechanism in place by which foster parents can recapture this cost; (c) foster parents' personal resources are at risk as a result of foster children and their parents filing an increasing number of claims against them. Therefore, the Legislature is providing interim relief to address these problems.

SEC. 2. Section 43.55 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

43.55. No cause of action arises against a foster parent for alienation of affection of a foster child.

This section shall become inoperative on June 30, 1988, and, as of January 1, 1989, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 3. Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 1527) is added to Chapter 3 of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 2.5. Foster Home and Small Family Home Insurance Fund

1527. As used in this article:

- (a) "Aircraft" includes, but is not limited to, any airplane, glider, or hot air balloon.
  - (b) "Bodily injury" means any bodily injury, sickness, or disease sustained by any person including death at any time resulting therefrom.

- (c) "Foster child" means a person under 19 years old who has been placed in the care and supervision of licensed foster parents.
- (d) "Foster parent" means the person, and including his or her spouse if the spouse is a resident of the same household, providing care, custody, and control of a foster child in a licensed foster family home or licensed small family home, as defined in Section 1502 of the Health and Safety Code.
- (e) "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to conditions, which results in bodily injury or personal injury neither expected nor intended by the foster parent.
- (f) "Motor vehicle" means an automobile, motorcycle, moped, midget automobile, including the type commonly referred to as a kart, go-kart, speedmobile, or by a comparable name whether commercially built or otherwise, trailer or semitrailer designed for travel on public roads, including any machinery or apparatus attached thereto, or snowmobile.
- (g) "Personal injury" means any injury to the feelings or reputation of any person or organization arising out of libel, slander, defamation, or disparagement, wrongful eviction, or entry.
- (h) "Property damage" means any physical injury to, or destruction of, tangible property, including the loss of use thereof at any time resulting therefrom.
- (i) "Watercraft" includes, but is not limited to, any boat, ship, raft, or canoe, whether motorized or not.
- 1527.1. There is hereby established the Foster Family Home and Small Family Home Insurance Fund within the State Department of Social Services. The fund shall consist of all moneys appropriated by the Legislature. The department may contract with another state agency to set up and operate the fund and perform such other administrative functions as may be necessary to carry out the intentions of this article. The purpose of the fund is to pay, on behalf of foster family homes and small family homes, as defined in Section 1502, claims of foster children, their parents, guardians, or guardians ad litem resulting from occurrences peculiar to the foster-care relationship and the provision of foster-care services. The fund may sue and be sued.
- 1527.2. The fund, subject to this article, shall pay, on behalf of foster family homes and small family homes, any claims of foster children, their parents, guardians, or guardians ad litem for damages arising from, and peculiar to, the foster-care relationship and the provision of foster-care services, or shall reimburse foster family homes and small family homes for those damages.
  - 1527.3. The fund shall not be liable for any of the following:
- (a) Any loss arising out of a dishonest, fraudulent, criminal, or intentional act.
- (b) Any occurrence which does not arise from the foster-care relationship.

- (c) Any bodily injury arising out of the operation or use of any motor vehicle, aircraft, or watercraft owned or operated by, or rented or loaned to, any foster parent.
- (d) Any loss arising out of licentious, immoral, or sexual behavior on the part of a foster parent intended to lead to, or culminating in, any sexual act.
  - (e) Any allegation of alienation of affection against a foster parent.
- (f) Any loss or damage arising out of occurrences prior to October 1, 1986.
  - (g) Exemplary damages.
- (h) Any liability of a foster parent which is uninsured due solely to the foster parent's failure to obtain insurance specified in Section 676.2 of the Insurance Code. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to expand the liability of the fund with respect to insured foster parents.
- 1527.4. Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, the fund shall not be liable for damages in excess of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) for any single foster family home or small family home for all claims arising due to one or more occurrences during a single calendar year.
- 1527.5. The fund shall be liable, if a claim is approved, to pay on behalf of each licensed foster family home or small family home, all sums which the foster family home or small family home is obligated to pay as a result of a valid claim of bodily injury or personal injury arising out of the activities of a foster parent or foster parents, which occurs while the foster child resides in the foster family home or small family home. Claims specified in this section of a foster child or a parent, guardian, or guardian ad litem of a foster child shall be the sole responsibility of the fund.
- 1527.6. (a) Any claim against the fund shall be filed with the fund in accordance with claims procedures and on forms prescribed by the State Department of Social Services or its designated contract agency.
- (b) Any claim against the fund filed by a foster parent or a third party shall be submitted to the fund within the applicable period of limitations for the appropriate civil action underlying the claim. If a claim is not submitted to the fund within the applicable time, there shall be no recourse against the fund.
- (c) The department shall approve or reject a claim within 180 days after it is presented.
- (d) No person may bring a civil action against a foster parent for which the fund is liable unless that person has first filed a claim against the fund and the claim has been rejected, or the claim has been filed, approved, and paid, and damages in excess of the payment are claimed.
- 1527.7. All processing of decisions and reports, payment of claims, and other administrative actions relating to the fund shall be conducted by the State Department of Social Services or its designated contract agency.

- 1527.8. It is the intent of the Legislature to maintain the fund established pursuant to Section 1527.1 at an adequate level to meet anticipated liabilities.
- 1527.9. On or before January 1, 1988, the Department of Insurance, in consultation with the State Department of Social Services, shall submit a report to the Legislature assessing the availability of commercial liability insurance for foster family homes and small family homes and making recommendations for the continued necessity for, or modification of, the measures authorized by this article. The report shall also include, but not be limited to, the number of foster care homes and small family homes carrying homeowner's or tenant's liability insurance, provisions of the liability coverage, including any exclusions relevant to foster-care status of the insured, the premium cost, the number of insurers offering coverage to foster care families, and the number of claims made against each insurer by insureds relevant to the foster-care relationship.
- 1527.10. This article shall become inoperative on June 30, 1988, and, as of January 1, 1989, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends that date.
  - SEC. 4. Section 676.2 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:
- 676.2. (a) No admitted insurer, licensed to issue and issuing homeowner's or tenant's policies, as described in Section 122, shall (1) fail or refuse to accept an application for that insurance or to issue that insurance to an applicant or (2) cancel that insurance, solely on the basis that the applicant or policyholder is engaged in foster home activities in a licensed foster family home or licensed small family home, as defined in Section 1502 of the Health and Safety Code.
- (b) Coverage under policies described in subdivision (a) with respect to a foster child shall be the same as that provided for a natural child. However, unless specifically provided in the policy, there shall be no coverage expressly provided in the policy for any bodily injury arising out of the operation or use of any motor vehicle, aircraft, or watercraft owned or operated by, or rented or loaned to, any foster parent.
- (c) It is against public policy for a policy of homeowner's or tenant's insurance subject to this section to provide liability coverage for any of the following losses:
- (1) Claims of a foster child, or a parent, guardian, or guardian ad litem thereof, of a type payable by the Foster Family Home and Small Family Home Insurance Fund established by Section 1527.1 of the Health and Safety Code, regardless of whether the claim is within the limits of coverage specified in Section 1527.4 of the Health and Safety Code.
- (2) An insurer shall not be liable, under a policy of insurance subject to this section, to any governmental agency for damage arising from occurrences peculiar to the foster-care relationship and the provision of foster-care services.

- (3) Alienation of affection of a foster child.
- (4) Any loss arising out of licentious, immoral or sexual behavior on the part of a foster parent intended to lead to, or culminating in, any sexual act.
- (5) Any loss arising out of a dishonest, fraudulent, criminal, or intentional act.
- (d) There shall be no penalty for violations of this section prior to January 1, 1987.
- (e) Insurers may provide a special endorsement to a homeowners' or tenants' policy covering claims related to foster care that are not excluded by subdivision (c).
- (f) Insurers may provide by a separate policy for some or all of the claims related to foster care that are excluded by subdivision (c).

This section shall become inoperative on June 30, 1988, and as of January 1, 1989, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends that date.

- SEC. 5. The sum of three hundred fifty thousand dollars ($350,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund for allocation as follows:
- (a) The sum of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) is allocated to the Foster Family Home and Small Family Home Insurance Fund for payment of claims during the 1986–87 fiscal year.
- (b) The sum of one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) is allocated to the State Department of Social Services for costs of establishing and operating that fund during the 1986–87 fiscal year. The department may contract with another state agency to establish and operate the fund and perform such other administrative functions as may be necessary to carry out the intent of this act.
- SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure against the loss of foster family home resources in this state, temporary authority and funding of the liability insurance coverage must immediately be provided.

An act to add Sections 674.6 and 674.7 to the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 674.6 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

674.6. No insurer issuing policies of insurance subject to Section 674.5 or 675 shall cease to offer any particular line of coverage without prior notification to the commissioner. The commissioner shall adopt appropriate rules, regulations, and standards for purposes of implementing this provision.

SEC. 2. Section 674.7 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

- 674.7. (a) If the commissioner finds after a public hearing that commercial liability insurance for a designated class of risk is not readily available under standard commercial policy forms in the voluntary insurance market, and that the public interest requires this availability, the commissioner may authorize the formation of a market assistance program to assist in securing that insurance for those risks in the designated class. The commissioner may require insurers, agents, and brokers to attend public hearings and meetings concerning either the need for a market assistance program or the organization and formation of a program.
- (b) The commissioner shall formulate a market assistance program giving consideration to the need for adequate and readily accessible coverage, to the needs of insureds, insurers, agents, and brokers, to the need for reasonable underwriting standards and required loss prevention measures, and to the need for minimum interference with the operation of the voluntary market. The commissioner may require insurers, agents, and brokers to assist in the formation and implementation of the market assistance program.
- (c) A market assistance program shall be comprised of insurers, agents, and brokers and their participation shall be voluntary. The commissioner shall not permit an insurer to condition its participation in such a way as to be inequitable to the other insurer participants.
- (d) Market assistance programs shall not be established for the following types of insurance: medical malpractice, pollution liability, insurance available through an involuntary market mechanism, including, but not limited to, the California Automobile Assigned Risk Plan and the California Fair Plan Association, or that form of risk covered under the provisions of Public Law 97-45 (15 U.S.C. 3901 et seq.) as enacted September 25, 1981.

An act to amend and repeal Section 900.5 of, and to add and repeal Section 911.5 of, the Insurance Code, relating to insurance; and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 900.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

- 900.5. (a) The commissioner shall charge and collect two hundred dollars ($200) in advance as a fee for the first filing each year of a statement under this article. Only one such fee shall be charged or collected from any one insurer in any one calendar year.
- (b) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1990, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1990, deletes or extends that date. If that date is not deleted or extended, then, on and after January 1, 1990, pursuant to Section 9611 of the Government Code, Section 900.5 of the Insurance Code, as amended by Section 3.2 of Chapter 770 of the Statutes of 1985, shall have the same force and effect as if this temporary provision had not been enacted.
  - SEC. 2. Section 911.5 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:
- 911.5. The commissioner shall prepare an annual report to the Legislature summarizing financial data for all property and casualty insurers subject to Section 905 and all life and disability insurers subject to Section 913. The report shall include the following:
- (a) For all property and casualty insurers subject to the reporting requirements of Section 905, the report shall provide each of the following:
- (1) Aggregate balance sheet, statement of income, and capital and surplus account.
- (2) Aggregate net premiums and losses data by lines of business nationwide.
- (3) Aggregate net premiums and losses data by lines of business for the state.

To the extent practicable the report shall utilize the categories delineated in Sections 907, 908, 909, and 910. Wherever feasible, property and casualty information shall be broken down into subcategories for commercial and personal lines.

- (b) For life and disability insurers subject to the reporting requirements of Section 913, the report shall provide each of the following:
- (1) Aggregate balance sheet, summary of operations, and capital and surplus account.
  - (2) Aggregate analysis of operations by lines of business nationwide.

. (3) Aggregate direct premiums, benefits and losses data by lines of business for the state.

The report shall be presented to the Legislature annually on or before June 15, or any earlier date that the Legislature may establish in the budget process, and shall be compiled from financial information reported in the most recent filings to the commissioner pursuant to Section 900.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1990, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1990, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 1333

An act to amend Section 1 of Chapter 236 of the Statutes of 1986, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

- (a) There is a growing demand throughout California and the nation for long-term care services for the elderly, as a result of changing demographics and the dramatic increase in the aged population.
- (b) Elderly persons and their families are increasingly forced to bear the financial burden of obtaining long-term care services, which has become the largest out-of-pocket health expense for older people.
- (c) Older people find that health insurance coverage for long-term care is either unavailable or inadequate to meet their needs. Private insurance now covers less than 2 percent of the cost of nursing home care, the largest component of long-term care.
- (d) Federally funded health care programs, such as Medicare and Medicaid, are designed with an emphasis on acute care, and eligibility requirements often require elderly persons to "spend down" their assets to the poverty level or to transfer assets to family members.
- (e) Federal expenditures for nursing home care increased tenfold between 1965 and 1980, and are estimated to quadruple by 1990, surpassing eighty billion dollars ($80,000,000,000) annually.
- (f) Federal deficits and the rising cost of government health care programs has caused the federal government to favor private sector solutions to the problem of inadequate or nonexistent long-term care insurance.

- (g) The State of California has budgeted over one billion dollars ($1,000,000,000) in the Medi-Cal program in 1985–86 for nursing home care, almost one-quarter of the total Medi-Cal budget.
- (h) In order to control rising state expenditures for health care, the state has an interest in investigating and encouraging the development of private insurance options for long-term care.
- (i) The complexity of this issue and the implications of long-term care insurance for consumers, government, industry, and labor, demand that a thorough investigation be made, involving all affected parties.
- SEC. 2. Section 1 of Chapter 236 of the Statutes of 1986 is amended to read:
- Section 1. (a) The Department of Insurance shall, in consultation with the Departments of Aging and Health, conduct a study of the feasibility of public or private insurance policies offering coverage for the following:
- (1) Services provided by a home health agency regardless of prior confinement in an acute care hospital or skilled nursing facility.
- (2) In-home supportive services, as defined in Section 12300 of the Welfare and Institutions Code regardless of prior confinement in an acute care hospital or skilled nursing facility.
- (3) Other nontraditional long-term care services, including adult day health care, hospice, and respite care.
- (4) Custodial care in a licensed long-term health care facility, as defined in Section 1418 of the Health and Safety Code.

The department shall consult with other state agencies to consider the potential savings of Medi-Cal expenditures due to the availability of the defined in-home insurance policies.

- (b) The study shall include, but not be limited to, the following issues:
  - (1) Purchase disincentives, including the following:
- (A) The lack of perceived risk from chronic illness, such as Alzheimer's disease, necessitating long-term care needs.
- (B) Misunderstanding of the scope and availability of benefits from existing programs such as Medi-Cal and Medicare.
  - (C) The availability of Medi-Cal benefits.
- (D) Any other disincentives to the purchase of private or public insurance covering in-home health and supportive services.
- (2) Market factors limiting the supply of available insurance policies for in-home health and supportive services including the following:
  - (A) Adverse selection.
  - (B) Induced demand or excessive utilization of services.
- (C) Inappropriate regulations and guidelines governing the types and conditions of policies.
  - (D) Cost of coverage versus the income of potential purchasers.
  - (3) Policy design, including the following:
  - (A) The definition of care services.
  - (B) Premium pricing.

- (C) Per diem indemnity versus cost reimbursement benefits.
- (4) Recommendations on the following public policy issues related to long-term care insurance:
- (A) How government and private industry can work together to assure financial protection to individuals against the tremendous costs of long-term care services.
- (B) Public policy initiatives that will encourage the development of private long-term care insurance.
- (C) Analysis of the effectiveness and the methods of existing programs which provide comprehensive health and social services to the elderly on an at-risk basis and information on their potential replication statewide.
- (D) Statutory or regulatory requirements for coverage of long-term care services in health insurance programs, including Medigap policies, prepaid health plans, and health maintenance organizations.
- (E) Educational initiatives that will better inform the public on the need for long-term care insurance as part of comprehensive insurance and retirement planning and provide information on the gaps and inadequacies of Medicare coverage for long-term care.
- (F) Feasibility of encouraging innovative planning for long-term care coverage through public policies, including tax incentives for Individual Retirement Accounts for long-term care.
- (c) In carrying out the mandate to study long-term care insurance, the department shall appoint, and seek input from, an ad hoc advisory committee composed of representatives of at least the following:
  - (1) The health care insurance industry.
  - (2) The Commission on Aging.
  - (3) The California Senior Legislature.
  - (4) Providers of adult day health care.
  - (5) Providers of home health services.
  - (6) Consumers of health care.
  - (7) Academicians researching the area of long-term care.
  - (8) An association representing proprietary nursing homes.
  - (9) An association representing nonprofit nursing homes.
  - (10) Organized labor.
- (11) Major corporations which provide health benefits to their employees.
- (d) The department shall report to the appropriate policy and fiscal committees of the Legislature on or before June 30, 1987, regarding their findings. The department's report to the Legislature, shall reflect the input from the ad hoc advisory committee.

An act to repeal and add Article 3 (commencing with Section 2016) of Chapter 3 of Title 3 of Part 4 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to discovery.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 3 (commencing with Section 2016) of Chapter 3 of Title 3 of Part 4 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 2. Article 3 (commencing with Section 2016) is added to Chapter 3 of Title 3 of Part 4 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

Article 3. Discovery

2016. (a) As used in this article:

- (1) "Action" includes a civil action and a special proceeding of a civil nature pursuant to Part 3 (commencing with Section 1063).
- (2) "Court" means the trial court in which the action is pending, unless otherwise specified.
- (b) This article applies to actions pending in a municipal court or in a justice court only to the extent provided in Sections 94 and 95.
- (c) This article applies to discovery in aid of enforcement of a money judgment only to the extent provided in Article 1 (commencing with Section 708.010) of Chapter 6 of Title 9 of Part 2.
- 2017. (a) Unless otherwise limited by order of the court in accordance with this article, any party may obtain discovery regarding any matter, not privileged, that is relevant to the subject matter involved in the pending action or to the determination of any motion made in that action if the matter either is itself admissible in evidence or appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Discovery may relate to the claim or defense of the party seeking discovery or of any other party to the action. Discovery may be obtained of the identity and location of persons having knowledge of any discoverable matter, as well as of the existence, description, nature, custody, condition, and location of any writing or other tangible thing. However, except for that identifying information concerning persons, writings, or tangible things, any information or material prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial by or for another party or by or for an attorney, insurer, consultant, surety, indemnitor, or agent of another party is discoverable only to the extent set forth in Section 2018.
- (b) A party may obtain discovery of the existence and contents of any agreement under which any insurance carrier may be liable to satisfy in whole or in part a judgment that may be entered in the action or to indemnify or reimburse for payments made to satisfy the judgment. This discovery may include the identity of the carrier and the nature and limits of the coverage. A party may also obtain discovery as to whether that insurance carrier is disputing the agreement's coverage of the claim involved in the action, but not the nature and substance of the dispute. Information concerning the insurance agreement is not by reason of disclosure admissible in evidence at trial.

- (c) The court shall limit the scope of discovery if it determines that the burden, expense, or intrusiveness of that discovery clearly outweighs the likelihood that the information sought will lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. The court may make this determination pursuant to a motion for protective order by a party or other affected person.
- (d) In any civil action alleging conduct that constitutes sexual harassment, sexual assault, or sexual battery, any party seeking discovery concerning the plaintiff's sexual conduct with individuals other than the alleged perpetrator is required to establish specific facts showing good cause for that discovery, and that the matter sought to be discovered is relevant to the subject matter of the action and reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. This showing shall be made by noticed motion and shall not be made or considered by the court at an ex parte hearing.
- 2018. (a) It is the policy of the state to assure to each party to an action, and to each party's attorney, insurer, consultant, surety, indemnitor, and agent, that degree of privacy for the product of their work in anticipation of litigation or for trial that will (1) provide an incentive for thorough preparation of their case for trial, (2) promote the investigation of not only the strengths but also the weaknesses of their case, and (3) prevent one party from taking unfair advantage of another party's industry and efforts.
- (b) Subject to subdivisions (c) and (d), the work product of a party, or of that party's attorney, insurer, surety, indemnitor, or agent is discoverable only if the party seeking discovery shows both of the following:
- (1) Specific facts evincing a substantial need of a particular item of work product in preparation for trial.
- (2) An inability without undue hardship to obtain the substantial equivalent of that item by other means.
- (c) If an expert has been consulted, retained, or specially employed by a party in anticipation of litigation or preparation for trial, and has not yet been designated a trial witness under Section 2034, another party may discover the identity of and the facts observed by that expert only in either of the following ways:
- (1) On a showing of exceptional circumstances under which it is impracticable for the party seeking discovery to obtain those facts by other means.
  - (2) By an exchange of medical reports as provided in subdivisions

(h) and (j) of Section 2032.

Nothing in this subdivision shall require the disclosure of the identity of an expert consulted by an attorney in order to make the certification required in actions for professional negligence pursuant to Sections 411.30 and 411.35.

With respect to discovery obtained under this subdivision, the court, unless manifest injustice would result, shall require the party seeking discovery to pay a fair portion of the fees and expenses reasonably incurred by the party providing the discovery in obtaining the facts observed by the expert.

- (d) Any writing that reflects an attorney's impressions, conclusions, opinions, or legal research or theories, whether prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial, or prepared while acting in a nonlitigation legal capacity, shall not be discoverable under any circumstances.
- (e) The provisions of this section shall not be construed to alter, amend, or affect the law in existence at the time this section became effective. However, it is the intent of the Legislature that work product protection applicable to attorneys, insurers, sureties, indemnitors, or agents shall not apply to discovery regarding any cause of action for fraud or any first- or third-party action brought against an insurer.
- 2019. (a) Any party may obtain discovery by one or more of the following methods:
  - (1) Oral and written depositions.
  - (2) Interrogatories to a party.
  - (3) Inspections of documents, things, and places.
  - (4) Physical and mental examinations.
  - (5) Requests for admissions.
  - (6) Simultaneous exchanges of expert trial witness information.
- (b) The court shall restrict the frequency or extent of use of these discovery methods if it determines any of the following:
- (1) The discovery sought is unreasonably cumulative or duplicative, or is obtainable from some other source that is more convenient, less burdensome, or less expensive.
- (2) The selected method of discovery is unduly burdensome or expensive, taking into account the needs of the case, the amount in controversy, and the importance of the issues at stake in the litigation.

The court may make those determinations pursuant to a motion for a protective order by a party or other affected person.

- (c) No party shall combine in a single document requests for admissions with any other method of discovery.
- (d) Unless there is a rule of the Judicial Council, or a local court rule or local uniform written policy to the contrary, the methods of discovery may be used in any sequence, and the fact that a party is conducting discovery, whether by deposition or another method, shall not operate to delay the discovery of any other party. However, upon motion and for good cause shown, the court may establish the sequence and timing of discovery for the convenience of parties and witnesses and in the interests of justice.

- (e) In any action alleging the misappropriation of a trade secret under the Uniform Trade Secrets Act (Title 5 (commencing with Section 3426) of Part 1 of Division 4 of the Civil Code), before commencing discovery relating to the trade secret, the party alleging the misappropriation shall identify the trade secret with reasonable particularity subject to any orders that may be appropriate under Section 3426.5 of the Civil Code.
- 2020. (a) The method for obtaining discovery within the state from one who is not a party to the action is an oral deposition under Section 2025, a written deposition under Section 2028, or a deposition for production of business records and things under subdivisions (d) and (e). The process by which a nonparty is required to provide discovery is a deposition subpoena. The deposition subpoena may command any of the following:
- (1) Only the attendance and testimony of the deponent, under subdivision (c).
- (2) Only the production of business records for copying, under subdivision (d).
- (3) Both the attendance and testimony of the deponent, as well as the production of business records, other writings, and things under subdivision (e).

Except as modified in this section, the provisions of Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1985), and of Article 4 (commencing with Section 1560) of Chapter 2 of Division 11 of the Evidence Code, apply to a deposition subpoena.

- (b) The clerk of the court in which the action is pending shall issue a deposition subpoena signed and sealed, but otherwise in blank, to a party requesting it, who shall fill it in before service. In lieu of the court-issued deposition subpoena, an attorney of record for any party may sign and issue a deposition subpoena; the deposition subpoena in that case need not be sealed.
- (c) A deposition subpoena that commands only the attendance and testimony of the deponent shall specify the time when and the place where the deponent is commanded to attend for the deposition. It shall set forth a summary of (1) the nature of a deposition, (2) the rights and duties of the deponent, and (3) the penalties for disobedience of a deposition subpoena described in subdivision (h). If the deposition will be recorded by video tape pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (1) of Section 2025, the deposition subpoena shall state that it will be recorded in that manner. If the deponent is an organization, the deposition subpoena shall advise that organization of its duty to make the designation of employees or agents who will attend described in subdivision (d) of Section 2025.
- (d) (1) A deposition subpoena that commands only the production of business records for copying shall designate the business records to be produced either by specifically describing each individual item or by reasonably particularizing each category of item. It shall be directed to the custodian of those records or another person qualified to certify the records. It shall command compliance in accordance with paragraph (4) within 20 days of the issuance, or within 15 days after the service, of the deposition subpoena, whichever date is later.

- (2) If, under Section 1985.3, the one to whom the deposition subpoena is directed is a witness, and the business records described in the deposition subpoena are personal records pertaining to a consumer, the service of the deposition subpoena shall be accompanied either by a copy of the proof of service of the notice to the consumer described in subdivision (e) of Section 1985.3, or by the consumer's written authorization to release personal records described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 1985.3.
- (3) The officer for a deposition seeking discovery only of business records for copying pursuant to this subdivision shall be a professional photocopier registered under Chapter 20 (commencing with Section 22450) of Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code, or a person exempted from the registration requirements of that chapter pursuant to Section 22451 of the Business and Professions Code. This deposition officer shall not be financially interested in the action, or a relative or employee of any attorney of the parties. Any objection to the qualifications of the deposition officer is waived unless made before the date of production or as soon thereafter as the ground for that objection becomes known or could be discovered by reasonable diligence.
- (4) The custodian of the records or other qualified person shall, in person, by messenger, or by mail, deliver only to the deposition officer specified in the deposition subpoena (1) a true, legible, and durable copy of the records, and (2) an affidavit in compliance with Section 1561 of the Evidence Code. If this delivery is made to the office of the deposition officer, the records shall be enclosed, sealed, and directed as described in subdivision (c) of Section 1560 of the Evidence Code. If this delivery is made at the office of the business whose records are the subject of the deposition subpoena, the custodian of those records or other qualified person may (1) permit the deposition officer specified in the deposition subpoena to make a copy of the originals of the designated business records, or (2) deliver to that deposition officer a true, legible, and durable copy of the records on receipt of payment in cash or by check, by or on behalf of the party serving the deposition subpoena, of the reasonable costs of preparing that copy as determined pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1563 of the Evidence Code. This copy need not be delivered in a sealed envelope.
- (5) Promptly after the receipt or the making of a copy of business records under this subdivision, the deposition officer shall provide that copy to the party at whose instance the deposition subpoena was served, and a copy thereof to any other party to the action who then or subsequently notifies the deposition officer that the party desires to purchase a copy of those records.

- (6) The provisions of Section 1562 of the Evidence Code concerning the admissibility of the affidavit of the custodian or other qualified person apply to a deposition subpoena served pursuant to this subdivision.
- (e) A deposition subpoena that commands both the attendance and testimony of the deponent, as well as the production of records, documents, or things shall (1) comply with the requirements of subdivision (c), (2) designate the documents and things to be produced either by specifically describing each individual item or by reasonably particularizing each category of item, and (3) specify any testing or sampling that is being sought.

Where, as described in Section 1985.3, the person to whom the deposition subpoena is directed is a witness, and the business records described in the deposition subpoena are personal records pertaining to a consumer, the service of the deposition subpoena shall be accompanied either by a copy of the proof of service of the notice to the consumer described in subdivision (e) of Section 1985.3, or by the consumer's written authorization to release personal records described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 1985.3.

(f) Service of a deposition subpoena shall be effected a sufficient time in advance of the deposition to provide the deponent a reasonable opportunity to locate and produce any designated business records, other documents, and things, and, where personal attendance is commanded, a reasonable time to travel to the place of deposition. Any person may serve the subpoena by personal delivery of a copy of it (1) if the deponent is a natural person, to that person, and (2) if the deponent is an organization, to any officer, director, custodian of records, or to any agent or employee authorized by the organization to accept service of a subpoena.

If a deposition subpoena requires the personal attendance of the deponent, pursuant to subdivision (c) or (e), the party noticing the deposition shall pay to the deponent in cash or by check the same witness fee and mileage required by Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 68070) of Title 8 of the Government Code for attendance and testimony before the court in which the action is pending. This payment shall be made either at the time of service of the deposition subpoena, or at the time the deponent attends for the taking of testimony.

Service of a deposition subpoena that does not require the personal attendance of a custodian of records or other qualified person, pursuant to subdivision (d), shall be accompanied, whether or not demanded by the deponent, by a payment in cash or by check of the witness fee required by paragraph (6) of subdivision (b) of Section 1563 of the Evidence Code.

(g) Personal service of any deposition subpoena is effective to require of any deponent who is a resident of California at the time of service (1) personal attendance and testimony, if the subpoena so

- specifies, (2) any specified production, inspection, testing, and sampling, and (3) the deponent's attendance at a court session to consider any issue arising out of the deponent's refusal to be sworn, or to answer any questions, or to produce specified items, or to permit inspection or specified testing and sampling of the items produced.
- (h) A deponent who disobeys a deposition subpoena, either by failing to attend at the time and place commanded, or by refusing to be sworn as a witness (1) may be punished for contempt under Section 2023 without the necessity of a prior order of court directing compliance by the witness, and (2) is subject to the forfeiture and the payment of damages set forth in Section 1992.
- 2021. Unless the court orders otherwise, the parties may by written stipulation (a) provide that depositions may be taken before any person, at any time or place, on any notice, and in any manner, and when so taken may be used like other depositions, and (b) modify the procedures provided by this article for other methods of discovery.
- 2023. (a) Abuses of the discovery process include, but are not limited to, the following:
- (1) Persisting, over objection, in an attempt to obtain information or materials that are outside the scope of permissible discovery.
- (2) Using a discovery method in a manner that does not comply with its specified procedures.
- (3) Employing a discovery method in a manner or to an extent that causes unwarranted annoyance, embarrassment, or oppression, or undue burden and expense.
- (4) Failing to respond or submit to an authorized method of discovery.
- (5) Making an unmeritorious objection or evasive response to discovery.
  - (6) Disobeying a court order to provide discovery.
- (7) Failing to confer in person, by telephone, or by letter with an opposing party or attorney in a reasonable and good faith attempt to resolve informally any dispute concerning discovery, if the section governing a particular method of discovery requires any informal conference as a prerequisite for making or opposing a motion to compel discovery, or to limit the scope or the method of discovery. The court may impose a monetary sanction pursuant to Section 2023 against any party or attorney who fails to confer as required.
- (b) To the extent authorized by the section governing any particular discovery method, the court, after notice to any affected party, person, or attorney, and after opportunity for hearing, may impose the following sanctions against anyone engaging in conduct constituting an abuse of the discovery process.
- (1) The court may impose a monetary sanction ordering that one engaging in a discovery abuse or any attorney advising that conduct pay the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by anyone as a result of that conduct. The court may also impose this sanction on one unsuccessfully asserting that another has engaged in a discovery abuse and on any attorney who advised that assertion. If the section governing a particular method of discovery authorizes a monetary sanction, the court shall impose that sanction unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the sanction unjust.

- (2) The court may impose an issue sanction ordering that designated facts shall be taken as established in the action in accordance with the claim of the party adversely affected by a discovery abuse. The court may also impose an issue sanction by an order prohibiting any party engaging in a discovery abuse from supporting or opposing designated claims or defenses.
- (3) The court may impose an evidence sanction by an order prohibiting any party engaging in a discovery abuse from introducing designated matters in evidence.
- (4) The court may impose a terminating sanction by one of the following orders:
- (A) An order striking out pleadings or parts thereof of any party engaging in a discovery abuse.
- (B) An order staying further proceedings by that party until an order for discovery is obeyed.
- (C) An order dismissing the action, or any part thereof, of that party.
  - (D) An order rendering a judgment by default against that party.
- (5) The court may impose a contempt sanction by an order treating the discovery abuse as a contempt of court.
- 2024. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), any party shall be entitled as a matter of right to complete discovery proceedings until 30 days, and to have motions concerning discovery heard until 15 days, before the date initially set for the trial of the action. As used in this section, discovery is considered completed on the day a response is due or on the day a deposition begins. Except as provided in subdivision (c), a continuance or postponement of the trial date does not operate to reopen discovery proceedings.

This section does not apply to (1) summary proceedings for obtaining possession of real property governed by Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 1159) of Title 3 of Part 3, or (2) eminent domain proceedings, governed by Title 7 (commencing with Section 1230.010) of Part 3.

- (b) Any party shall be entitled as a matter of right to complete discovery proceedings pertaining to a witness identified under Section 2034 until 15 days, and to have motions concerning that discovery heard until 10 days, before the date initially set for the trial of the action.
- (c) On motion of any party, the court may grant leave to complete discovery proceedings, or to have a motion concerning discovery heard, closer to the initial trial date, or to reopen discovery after a new trial date has been set. This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by the motion.

In exercising its discretion to grant or deny this motion, the court shall take into consideration any matter relevant to the leave requested, including, but not limited to, the following:

- (1) The necessity and the reasons for the discovery.
- (2) The diligence or lack of diligence of the party seeking the discovery or the hearing of a discovery motion, and the reasons that the discovery was not completed or that the discovery motion was not heard earlier.
- (3) Any likelihood that permitting the discovery or hearing the discovery motion will prevent the case from going to trial on the day set, or otherwise interfere with the trial calendar, or result in prejudice to any other party.

(4) The length of time that has elapsed between any date previously set, and the date presently set, for the trial of the action.

- (d) The parties to the action may agree to extend the time for the completion of discovery proceedings or for the hearing of motions concerning discovery, or to reopen discovery after a new date for trial of the action has been set. This agreement may be informal, but it shall be confirmed in a writing that specifies the extended date. Any party affected by the agreement shall have consented to it. In no event shall this agreement require a court to grant a continuance or postponement of the trial of the action.
- 2025. (a) Any party may obtain discovery within the scope fixed by Section 2017, and subject to the restrictions set forth in Section 2019, by taking in California the oral deposition of any person, including, but not limited to, a natural person, an organization such as a public or private corporation, a partnership, an association, or a governmental agency, including the deposition of any party to the action.
- (b) Subject to the provisions of subdivisions (f) and (t), an oral deposition may be taken as follows:
- (1) The defendant may take a deposition without leave of court at any time after that defendant has been served or has appeared in the action, whichever occurs first.
- (2) The plaintiff may take a deposition without leave of court on any date that is 20 days after the service of the summons on, or appearance by, any defendant. However, on motion with or without notice, the court, for good cause shown, may grant to a plaintiff leave to take a deposition at an earlier date.
- (c) A party desiring to take the oral deposition of any person shall give notice in writing in the manner set forth in subdivision (d). The notice of deposition shall be given to every other party who has appeared in the action. The deposition notice shall list all the parties or attorneys for parties on whom it is served.

Where, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 1985.3, the party giving notice of the deposition is a subpoenaing party, and the deponent is a witness commanded by a deposition subpoena to produce personal records of a consumer who is not a party to the action, the subpoenaing party shall serve on that consumer (1) a notice of the deposition, (2) the notice of privacy rights specified in subdivision (e) of Section 1985.3, and (3) a copy of the deposition subpoena.

- (d) The deposition notice shall state all of the following:
- (1) The address where the deposition will be taken.
- (2) The date of the deposition, selected pursuant to subdivision (f), and the time it will commence.
  - (3) The name, address, and telephone number of each deponent.
- (4) The specification with reasonable particularity of any materials or category of materials to be produced by the deponent.
- (5) Any intention to record the testimony by audio tape or video tape, in addition to recording the testimony by the stenographic method as required by paragraph (1) of subdivision (l).
- (6) Any intention to use at trial a video tape deposition of a treating or consulting physician or of any expert witness pursuant to paragraph (4) of subdivision (u). In this event, the operator of the video tape camera shall be a person who is authorized to administer an oath, and shall not be financially interested in the action or be a relative or employee of any attorney of any of the parties.

If the name of the deponent is not known, the deposition notice shall set forth instead a general description sufficient to identify the person or particular class to which the person belongs.

If the deponent named is not a natural person, the deposition notice shall describe with reasonable particularity the matters on which examination is requested. In that event, the deponent shall designate and produce at the deposition those of its officers, directors, managing agents, employees, or agents who are most qualified to testify on its behalf as to those matters to the extent of any information known or reasonably available to the deponent. A deposition subpoena shall advise a nonparty deponent of its duty to make this designation.

If the attendance of the deponent is to be compelled by service of a deposition subpoena pursuant to Section 2020, an identical copy of that subpoena shall be served with the deposition notice.

- (e) (1) The deposition of a natural person, whether or not a party to the action, shall be taken at a place that is, at the option of the party giving notice of the deposition, either within 75 miles of the deponent's residence, or within the county where the action is pending and within 150 miles of the deponent's residence, unless the court orders otherwise pursuant to paragraph (3).
- (2) The deposition of an organization that is a party to the action shall be taken at a place that is, at the option of the party giving notice of the deposition, either within 75 miles of the organization's principal executive business office in California, or in the county where the action is pending and within 150 miles of the office, unless the court orders otherwise pursuant to paragraph (3). The deposition of any other organization shall be taken within 75 miles of the organization's principal executive or business office in California, unless the organization consents to a more distant place. If the organization has not designated a principal executive or business office, the deposition shall be taken at a place that is, at the option of the party giving notice of the deposition, either within the county where the action is pending, or within 75 miles of any executive or business office of the organization in California.

(3) A party desiring to take the deposition of a natural person who is a party to the action or an officer, director, managing agent, or employee of a party may make a motion for an order that the deponent attend for deposition at a place that is more than 150 miles from the deponent's residence. This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by the motion.

In exercising its discretion to grant or deny this motion, the court shall take into consideration any factor tending to show whether the interests of justice will be served by requiring the deponent's attendance at that more distant place, including, but not limited to, the following:

- (A) Whether the moving party selected the forum.
- (B) Whether the deponent will be present to testify at the trial of the action.
  - (C) The convenience of the deponent.
- (D) The feasibility of conducting the deposition by written questions pursuant to Section 2028, or by a discovery method other than a deposition.
- (E) The number of depositions sought to be taken at a place more distant than 150 miles from a deponent's residence.
- (F) The expense to the parties of requiring the deposition to be taken within 150 miles from the deponent's residence.
- (G) The whereabouts of the deponent at the time for which the deposition is scheduled.

The order may be conditioned on the advancement by the moving party of the reasonable expenses and costs to the deponent for travel to the place of deposition.

(f) An oral deposition shall be scheduled for a date at least 10 days after service of the deposition notice. If, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 1985.3, the party giving notice of the deposition is a subpoenaing party, and the deponent is a witness commanded by a deposition subpoena to produce personal records of a consumer, the deposition shall be scheduled for a date at least 20 days after issuance of that subpoena. If service of the deposition notice is made by mail, five days shall be added to each of the foregoing periods.

On motion of any party or deponent, for good cause shown, the court may shorten or extend the time for scheduling a deposition, or may stay its taking until the determination of a motion for a protective order pursuant to subdivision (i).

(g) Any party served with a deposition notice that does not comply with subdivisions (b) to (f), inclusive, waives any error or irregularity unless that party promptly, and in no event less than three calendar days before the date for which the deposition is scheduled, serves a written objection specifying that error or irregularity on the party seeking to take the deposition and any other attorney or party on whom the deposition notice was served. If an objection is made three calendar days before the deposition date, the objecting party shall make personal service of that objection pursuant to Section 1011 on the party who gave notice of the deposition. Any deposition taken after the service of a written objection shall not be used against the objecting party pursuant to subdivision (u) if the court determines that the objection was a valid one.

In addition to serving this written objection, a party may also move for an order staying the taking of the deposition and quashing the deposition notice. This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by the motion. The taking of the deposition is stayed pending the determination of this motion.

The court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against anyone who does not prevail, and in favor of anyone who does prevail, on a motion to quash a deposition notice, if the prevailing party has engaged in a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of the issues presented by the motion.

- (h) (1) The service of a deposition notice under subdivision (c) is effective to require any deponent who is a party to the action or an officer, director, managing agent, or employee of a party to attend and to testify, as well as to produce any writing or tangible thing for inspection and copying.
- (2) The attendance and testimony of any other deponent, as well as the production of any writing or tangible thing for inspection and copying, requires the service on the deponent of a deposition subpoena under Section 2020.
- (i) Before, during, or after a deposition, any party, any deponent, or any other affected natural person or organization may promptly move for a protective order. The motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by the motion.

The court, for good cause shown, may make any order that justice requires to protect any party, deponent, or other natural person or organization from unwarranted annoyance, embarrassment, or oppression, or undue burden and expense. This protective order may include, but is not limited to, one or more of the following directions:

- (1) That the deposition not be taken at all.
- (2) That the deposition be taken at a different time.
- (3) That a video tape deposition of a treating or consulting physician or of any expert witness, intended for use at trial pursuant to paragraph (4) of subdivision (u), be postponed until the moving party has had an adequate opportunity to prepare, by discovery, deposition of the deponent, or other means, for cross-examination.

- (4) That the deposition of a party or of a party-affiliated deponent be taken at a place other than that specified in the deposition notice, if it is a place permitted by subdivision (e).
- (5) That the deposition be taken only on certain specified terms and conditions.
- (6) That the deponent's testimony be taken by written, instead of oral, examination.
- (7) That the method of discovery be interrogatories to a party instead of an oral deposition.
- (8) That the testimony be recorded in a manner different from that specified in the deposition notice.
  - (9) That certain matters not be inquired into.
- (10) That the scope of the examination be limited to certain matters.
- (11) That all or certain of the writings or tangible things designated in the deposition notice not be produced, inspected, or copied.
- (12) That designated persons, other than the parties to the action and their officers and counsel, be excluded from attending the deposition.
- (13) That a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information not be disclosed or be disclosed only to specified persons or only in a specified way.
- (14) That the parties simultaneously file specified documents enclosed in sealed envelopes to be opened as directed by the court.
- (15) That the deposition be sealed and thereafter opened only on order of the court.

If the motion for a protective order is denied in whole or in part, the court may order that the deponent provide or permit the discovery against which protection was sought on those terms and conditions that are just.

The court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against anyone who does not prevail, and in favor of anyone who does prevail, on a motion for a protective order, if the prevailing party has engaged in a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by the motion.

- (j) (1) If the party giving notice of a deposition fails to attend or proceed with it, the court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against that party, and in favor of any party attending in person or by attorney.
- (2) If a deponent does not appear for a deposition because the party giving notice of the deposition failed to serve a required deposition subpoena, the court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against that party and in favor of any other party who, in person or by attorney, attended at the time and place specified in the deposition notice in the expectation that the deponent's testimony would be taken.

If a deponent on whom a deposition subpoena has been served fails to attend a deposition or refuses to be sworn as a witness, the court may impose on the deponent the sanctions described in subdivision (h) of Section 2020.

(3) If, after service of a deposition notice, a party to the action or an officer, director, managing agent, or employee of a party, or a person designated by an organization that is a party pursuant to subdivision (d) fails to appear for examination, or to proceed with it, or to produce for inspection any document or thing described in the deposition notice without having served a valid objection under subdivision (g), the party giving the notice may move for an order compelling the deponent's attendance and testimony, and the production for inspection of any document or thing described in the deposition notice, as well as for a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against that deponent or any party with whom the deponent is affiliated. Any other party who, in person or by attorney, attended at the time and place specified in the deposition notice in the expectation that the deponent's testimony would be taken may also move for a monetary sanction pursuant to Section 2023.

If that party or party-affiliated deponent then fails to obey an order compelling attendance, testimony, and production, the court may make those orders that are just, including the imposition of an issue sanction, an evidence sanction, or a terminating sanction under Section 2023 against the party deponent or against the party with whom the deponent is affiliated. In lieu of or in addition to this sanction, the court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against that deponent or against the party with whom that deponent is affiliated, and in favor of any party who, in person or by attorney, attended in the expectation that the deponent's testimony would be taken pursuant to that order.

- (k) Except as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (d) of Section 2020, the deposition shall be conducted under the supervision of an officer who is authorized to administer an oath. This officer shall not be financially interested in the action and shall not be a relative or employee of any attorney of any of the parties. Any objection to the qualification of the deposition officer is waived unless made before the deposition begins or as soon thereafter as the ground for that objection becomes known or could be discovered by reasonable diligence.
- (1) (1) The deposition officer shall put the deponent on oath. Unless the parties agree or the court orders otherwise, the testimony, as well as any objections, shall be taken stenographically. The party noticing the deposition may also record the testimony by audio tape or video tape if the notice of deposition stated an intention also to record the testimony by either of those methods, or if all the parties agree that the testimony may also be recorded by either of those methods. Any other party, at that party's expense, may make a simultaneous audio tape or video tape record of the deposition, provided that the other party promptly, and in no event less than three calendar days before the date for which the deposition is scheduled, serves a written notice of this intention to audio tape or video tape the deposition testimony on the party or attorney who notices the deposition and on all other parties or attorneys on whom the deposition notice was served pursuant to subdivision (c). Examination and cross-examination of the deponent shall proceed as permitted at trial under the provisions of the Evidence Code.

- (2) If the deposition is being recorded by means of audio tape or video tape, the following procedure shall be observed:
- (A) The area used for recording the deponent's oral testimony shall be suitably large, adequately lighted, and reasonably quiet.
- (B) The operator of the recording equipment shall be competent to set up, operate, and monitor the equipment in the manner prescribed in this subdivision. The operator may be an employee of the attorney taking the deposition unless the operator is also the deposition officer. However, if a video tape of deposition testimony is to be used pursuant to paragraph (4) of subdivision (u), the operator of the recording equipment shall be a person who is authorized to administer an oath, and shall not be financially interested in the action or be a relative or employee of any attorney of any of the parties, unless all parties attending the deposition agree on the record to waive these qualifications and restrictions.
- (C) The operator shall not distort the appearance or the demeanor of participants in the deposition by the use of camera or sound recording techniques.
- (D) The deposition shall begin with an oral or written statement on camera or on the audio tape that includes the operator's name and business address, the name and business address of the operator's employer, the date, time, and place of the deposition, the caption of the case, the name of the deponent, a specification of the party on whose behalf the deposition is being taken, and any stipulations by the parties.
- $(\dot{E})$  Counsel for the parties shall identify themselves on camera or on the audio tape.
- (F) The oath shall be administered to the deponent on camera or on the audio tape.
- (G) If the length of a deposition requires the use of more than one unit of tape, the end of each unit and the beginning of succeeding unit shall be announced on camera or on the audio tape.
- (H) At the conclusion of a deposition, a statement shall be made on camera or on the audio tape that the deposition is ended. A statement shall be made on camera or on the audio tape setting forth any stipulations made by counsel concerning the custody of the audio tape or video tape recording and the exhibits, or concerning other pertinent matters.
- (I) A party intending to offer an audio taped or video taped recording of a deposition in evidence pursuant to subdivision (u) shall notify the court and all parties in writing of that intent and of the parts of the deposition to be offered within sufficient time for objections to be made and ruled on before the trial or hearing. Objections to all or part of the deposition shall be made in writing within sufficient time to allow for rulings on them and for editing of the tape. The court may permit further designations of testimony and objections as justice may require. With respect to those portions of an audio taped or video taped deposition that are not designated by any party or that are ruled to be objectionable, the court may order that the party offering the recording of the deposition at the trial or hearing suppress those portions, or that an edited version of the deposition tape be prepared for use at the trial or hearing. However, the original audio tape or video tape of the deposition shall be preserved unaltered. If no stenographic record of the deposition testimony has previously been made, the party offering a video tape or an audio tape recording of that testimony pursuant to subdivision (u) shall accompany that offer with a stenographic transcript prepared from that recording.

- (3) In lieu of participating in the oral examination, parties may transmit written questions in a sealed envelope to the party taking the deposition for delivery to the deposition officer, who shall unseal the envelope and propound them to the deponent after the oral examination has been completed.
- (m) (1) The protection of information from discovery on the ground that it is privileged or that it is protected work product prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial is waived unless a specific objection to its disclosure is timely made during the deposition.
- (2) Errors and irregularities of any kind occurring at the oral examination that might be cured if promptly presented are waived unless a specific objection to them is timely made during the deposition. These errors and irregularities include, but are not limited to, those relating to the manner of taking the deposition, to the oath or affirmation administered, to the conduct of a party, attorney, deponent, or deposition officer, or to the form of any question or answer. Unless the objecting party demands that the taking of the deposition be suspended to permit a motion for a protective order pursuant to subdivision (n), the deposition shall proceed subject to the objection.
- (3) Objections to the competency of the deponent, or to the relevancy or materiality or admissibility at trial of the testimony or of the materials produced are unnecessary and are not waived by failure to make them before or during the deposition.
- (4) If a deponent fails to answer any question or to produce any writing or tangible thing under the deponent's control that is specified in the deposition notice or a deposition subpoena, the party seeking that answer or production may adjourn or complete the examination on other matters without waiving the right at a later time to move for an order compelling that answer or production under subdivision (o).
- (n) On demand of any party or the deponent, the deposition officer shall suspend the taking of testimony to enable that party or deponent to move for a protective order on the ground that the examination is being conducted in bad faith or in a manner that unreasonably annoys, embarrasses, or oppresses the deponent or party. This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by the motion. The court, for good cause shown, may terminate the examination or may limit the scope and manner of taking the deposition as provided in subdivision (i). If the order terminates the examination, the deposition shall not thereafter be resumed, except on order of the court.

The court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against anyone who does not prevail, and in favor of anyone who does prevail, on a motion for a protective order, if prevailing party has engaged in a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issues presented by the motion.

(o) If a deponent fails to answer any question or to produce any writing or tangible thing under the deponent's control that is specified in the deposition notice or a deposition subpoena, the party seeking discovery may move the court for an order compelling that answer or production. This motion shall be made no later than 60 days after the completion of the record of the deposition, and shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by the motion. Notice of this motion shall be given to all parties, and to the deponent either orally at the examination, or by subsequent service in writing. If the notice of the motion is given orally, the deposition officer shall direct the deponent to attend a session of the court at the time specified in the notice. Not less than five days prior to the hearing on this motion, the moving party shall lodge with the court a certified copy of any parts of the stenographic transcript of the deposition that are relevant to the motion. If a deposition is recorded by audio tape or video tape, the moving party is required to lodge a certified copy of a transcript of any parts of the deposition that are relevant to the motion. If the court determines that the answer or production sought is subject to discovery, it shall order that the answer be given or the production be made on the resumption of the deposition.

The court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against anyone who does not prevail, and in favor of anyone who does prevail, on a motion to compel answer or production, if prevailing party has engaged in a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issues presented by the motion.

If a deponent fails or refuses to obey an order entered under this subdivision, the failure or refusal may be considered a contempt of court. In addition, if the disobedient deponent is a party to the action or an officer, director, managing agent, or employee of a party, the court may make those orders that are just against the disobedient party, or against the party with whom the disobedient deponent is affiliated, including the imposition of an issue sanction, an evidence sanction, or a terminating sanction under Section 2023. In lieu of or in addition to this sanction, the court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against that party deponent or against any party with whom the deponent is affiliated.

(p) Unless the parties agree otherwise, the testimony at any deposition recorded by stenographic means shall be transcribed. The party noticing the deposition shall bear the cost of that transcription, unless the court, on motion and for good cause shown, orders that the cost be borne or shared by another party. Any other party, at that party's expense, may obtain a copy of the transcript. At the request of any other party to the action, including a party who did not attend the taking of the deposition testimony, any party who records or causes the recording of that testimony by means of audio tape or video tape shall promptly: (1) permit that other party to hear the audio tape or to view the video tape and, (2) furnish a copy of the audio tape or video tape to that other party on receipt of payment of the reasonable cost of making that copy of the tape.

If the testimony at the deposition is recorded both stenographically, and by audio tape or video tape, the stenographic transcript is the offical record of that testimony for the purpose of the trial and any subsequent hearing or appeal.

(q) (1) If the deposition testimony is stenographically recorded, the deposition officer shall send written notice to the deponent and to all parties attending the deposition that the original transcript of the testimony is available for reading and signing, unless the deponent and all these parties agree on the record to waive the reading and signing of the transcript of the testimony. For 30 days following this notice, which period is extended by five days where the service is made by mail, the deponent, either in person or by a signed letter to the deposition officer, may change the form or the substance of his or her answer to any question, and may either approve the transcript of the deposition by signing it, or refuse to approve the transcript by not signing it. For good cause shown the court may shorten this time.

The deposition officer shall indicate on the original any action taken by the deponent, or the failure of the deponent to contact the officer within the allotted period. When a deponent fails to contact the officer within the allotted period, or expressly disapproves the accuracy of the transcript by refusing to sign it, the deposition shall be given the same effect as though signed. However, on a seasonable motion to suppress the deposition, accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by the motion, the court may determine that the reasons given for the refusal to sign require rejection of the deposition in whole or in part. The court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against anyone who does not prevail, and in favor of anyone who does prevail, on this motion to suppress, if the prevailing party has engaged in a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issues presented by the motion.

(2) If there is no stenographic transcription of the deposition, the deposition officer shall send written notice to the deponent and to all parties attending the deposition that the recording is available for review, unless the deponent and all these parties agree on the record to waive the hearing or viewing of an audio tape or video tape recording of the testimony. For 30 days following this notice, which period is extended by five days where the service is made by mail, the deponent, either in person or by signed letter to the deposition officer, may change the substance of his or her answer to any question.

The deposition officer shall set forth in a writing to accompany the recording any changes made by the deponent, as well as either the deponent's signature identifying the deposition as his or her own, or a statement of the deponent's failure to supply such signature, or to contact the officer within the allotted period. When a deponent fails to contact the officer within the allotted period, or expressly refuses by a signature to identify the deposition as his or her own, the deposition shall be given the same effect as though signed. However, on a seasonable motion to suppress the deposition, accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by the motion, the court may determine that the reasons given for the refusal to sign require rejection of the deposition in whole or in part. The court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against one who does not prevail, and in favor of anyone who does prevail, on this motion to suppress, if the prevailing party has engaged in a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issues presented by the motion.

- (r) The deposition officer shall certify on the transcript of the deposition, or in the writing accompanying an audio taped or video taped deposition prepared under paragraph (2) of subdivision (q), that the deponent was duly sworn and that the transcript or recording is a true record of the testimony given and of any changes made by the deponent.
- (s) (1) The certified transcript of a deposition shall not be filed with the court. Instead, the deposition officer shall securely seal that transcript in an envelope or package endorsed with the title of the action and marked: "Deposition of (here insert name of deponent)", and promptly transmit it to the attorney for the party who noticed the deposition. This attorney shall store it under conditions that will protect it against loss or destruction or tampering.

The attorney to whom the transcript of a deposition is transmitted shall retain custody of it until six months after final disposition of the action. At that time, the transcript may be destroyed, unless the court, on motion of any party and for good cause shown, orders that the transcript or record be preserved for a longer period.

(2) An audio tape or video tape record of deposition testimony, including a certified tape made by an operator qualified pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (1), shall not be filed with the court. Instead, the operator shall retain custody of that record and shall store it under conditions that will protect it against loss or destruction or tampering and preserve as far as practicable the quality of the tape and the integrity of the testimony and images it contains.

At the request of any party to the action, including a party who did not attend the taking of the deposition testimony, or at the request of the deponent, that operator shall promptly, (A) permit the one making the request to hear and to view the tape on receipt of payment of a reasonable charge for providing the facilities for hearing or viewing the tape and, (B) furnish a copy of the audio tape or the video tape recording to the one making the request on receipt of payment of the reasonable cost of making that copy of the tape.

The attorney or operator who has custody of an audio tape or video tape record or deposition testimony shall retain custody of it until six months after final disposition of the action. At that time, the audio tape or video tape may be destroyed or erased, unless the court, on motion of any party and for good cause shown, orders that the tape be preserved for a longer period.

- (t) Once any party has taken the deposition of any natural person, including that of a party to the action, neither the party who gave, nor any other party who received, notice of the deposition may take a subsequent deposition of that deponent. However, for good cause shown, the court may grant leave to take a subsequent deposition, and the parties, with the consent of any deponent who is not a party, may stipulate that a subsequent deposition, and the parties, with the consent of any deponent who is not a party, may stipulate that a subsequent deposition be taken. This subdivision does not preclude taking one subsequent deposition of a natural person who has previously been examined as a result of that person's designation to testify on behalf of an organization under subdivision (d).
- (u) At the trial or any other hearing in the action, any part or all of a deposition may be used against any party who was present or represented at the taking of the deposition, or who had due notice thereof and did not serve a valid objection under subdivision (g), so far as admissible under the rules of evidence applied as though the deponent were then present and testifying as a witness, in accordance with the following provisions:
- (1) Any party may use a deposition for the purpose of contradicting or impeaching the testimony of the deponent as a witness, or for any other purpose permitted by the Evidence Code.
- (2) An adverse party may use for any purpose, a deposition of a party to the action, or of anyone who at the time of taking the deposition was an officer, director, managing agent, employee, agent, or designee under subdivision (d) of a party. It is not ground for objection to the use of a deposition of a party to the action by an adverse party that the party deponent is present, and has testified or will testify, at the trial or other hearing.
  - (3) Any party may use for any purpose the deposition of any person or organization, including that of any party to the action, if the court finds any of the following:

- (A) The deponent resides more than 150 miles from the place of the trial or other hearing.
- (B) Without the procurement or wrongdoing of the proponent of the deposition for the purpose of preventing testimony in open court, the deponent is (i) exempted or precluded on the ground of privilege from testifying concerning the matter to which the deponent's testimony is relevant or, (ii) disqualified from testifying or, (iii) dead or unable to attend or testify because of existing physical or mental illness or infirmity or, (iv) absent from the trial or other hearing and the court is unable to compel the deponent's attendance by its process or, (v) absent from the trial or other hearing and the proponent of the deposition has exercised reasonable diligence but has been unable to procure the deponent's attendance by the court's process.
- (C) Exceptional circumstances exist that make it desirable to allow the use of any deposition in the interests of justice and with due regard to the importance of presenting the testimony of witnesses orally in open court.
- (4) Any party may use a video tape deposition of a treating or consulting physician or of any expert witness even though the deponent is available to testify if the deposition notice specified under subdivision (d) that the deposition was intended for use at trial.
- 2026. (a) Any party may obtain discovery by taking an oral deposition, as described in subdivision (a) of Section 2025, in another state of the United States, or in a territory or an insular possession subject to its jurisdiction. Except as modified in this section, the procedures for taking oral depositions in California set forth in Section 2025 apply to an oral deposition taken in another state of the United States, or in a territory or an insular possession subject to its jurisdiction.
- (b) (1) If a deponent is a party to the action or an officer, director, managing agent, or employee of a party, the service of the deposition notice is effective to compel that deponent to attend and to testify, as well as to produce any writing or tangible thing for inspection, copying, and any related activity. The deposition notice shall specify a place in the state, territory, or insular possession of the United States that is within 75 miles of the residence or a business office of the deponent.
- (2) If the deponent is not a party to the action or an officer, director, managing agent, or employee of a party, a party serving a deposition notice under this section shall use any process and procedures required and available under the laws of the state, territory, or insular possession where the deposition is to be taken to compel the attendance, testimony, and production of documents and things by the deponent.
  - (c) A deposition taken under this section shall be conducted: (1) under the supervision of a person who is authorized to administer oaths by the laws of the United States or those of the place where the examination is to be held, and who is not otherwise disqualified under subdivision (k) of Section 2025 or, (2) before a person appointed by the court. This appointment is effective to authorize that person to administer oaths and to take testimony. When necessary or convenient, the court shall issue a commission on such terms and with such directions as are just and appropriate.

- 2027. (a) Any party may obtain discovery by taking an oral deposition, as described in subdivision (a) of Section 2025, in a foreign nation. Except as modified in this section, or by order of court under Section 2022, the procedures for taking oral depositions in California set forth in Section 2025 apply to an oral deposition taken in a foreign nation.
- (b) (1) If a deponent is a party to the action or an officer, director, managing agent, or employee of a party, the service of the deposition notice is effective to compel the deponent to attend and to testify, as well as to produce any writing or tangible thing for inspection, copying, and any related activity. The deposition notice shall specify as the place for the deposition the embassy, legation, or consular office that is located nearest to the residence or a business office of the deponent.
- (2) If a deponent is not a party to the action or an officer, director, managing agent or employee of a party, a party serving a deposition notice pursuant to this section shall use any process and procedures required and available under the laws of the foreign nation where the deposition is to be taken to compel the deponent to attend and to testify, as well as to produce any writing or tangible thing for inspection, copying, and any related activity.
- (c) A deposition taken pursuant to this section shall be conducted before a person who is authorized to administer oaths or their equivalent by the laws of the foreign nation and not otherwise disqualified pursuant to subdivision (k) of Section 2025. The deposition officer shall be a secretary of embassy or legation, consul general, consul, vice consul, or consular agent of the United States; or a person or officer appointed by commission or under letters rogatory; or any person agreed to by all the parties.

On motion of the party seeking to take an oral deposition in a foreign nation, the court in which the action is pending shall issue a commission, or letters rogatory, or a letter of request, if it determines that one is necessary or convenient. The commission, or letters rogatory, or letter of request may include any terms and directions that are just and appropriate. The deposition officer may be designated by name or by descriptive title in the deposition notice and in a commission. Letters rogatory or a letter of request may be addressed: "To the Appropriate Judicial Authority in [name of nation, state, or country]."

2028. (a) Any party may obtain discovery by taking a deposition by written questions instead of by oral examination. Except as modified in this section, the procedures for taking oral depositions set forth in Sections 2025, 2026, and 2027 apply to written depositions.

- (b) The notice of a written deposition shall comply with subdivision (d) of Section 2025, except that (1) the name or descriptive title, as well as the address of the deposition officer shall be stated and, (2) the date, time, and place for commencement of the deposition may be left to future determination by the deposition officer.
- (c) The questions to be propounded to the deponent by direct examination shall accompany the notice of a written deposition.

Within 30 days after the deposition notice and questions are served, which period is extended by five days where the service is made by mail, a party shall serve any cross questions on all other parties entitled to notice of the deposition.

Within 15 days after being served with cross questions which period is extended by five days where such service is made by mail, a party shall serve any redirect questions on all other parties entitled to notice of the deposition.

Within 15 days after being served with redirect questions which period is extended by five days where such service is made by mail, a party shall serve any recross questions on all other parties entitled to notice of the deposition.

The court may, for good cause shown, extend or shorten the time periods for the interchange of cross, redirect, and recross questions.

(d) (1) A party who objects to the form of any question may serve a specific objection thereto on all parties entitled to notice of the deposition within 15 days after service of the question which period is extended by five days where the service is made by mail. A party who fails to timely serve the objection waives it. The objecting party may promptly move the court to sustain the objection. This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of the issue presented by the objection and motion. Unless the court has sustained the objection, the deposition officer shall propound to the deponent any question to which objection is made subject to that objection.

The court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party who does not prevail, and in favor of any party who does prevail, on a motion to sustain an objection, if prevailing party has engaged in a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by that objection and motion.

(2) A party who objects to any question on the ground that it calls for information that is privileged or is protected work product prepared in anticipation of litigation, or for trial shall serve a specific objection thereto on all parties entitled to notice of the deposition within 15 days after service of the question which period is extended by five days where such service is made by mail. A party who fails to timely serve that objection waives it. The party propounding any question to which an objection is made may then move the court for an order overruling that objection. This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts constituting a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of the issue presented by the objection and motion. The deposition officer shall not propound to the deponent any question to which an objection has been made unless the court has overruled that objection.

The court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party who does not prevail, and in favor of any party who does prevail, on a motion to overrule an objection, if the prevailing party has engaged in a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by that objection and motion.

- (e) The party taking a written deposition may forward to the deponent a copy of the questions on direct examination for study prior to the deposition. No party or attorney shall permit the deponent to preview the form or the substance of any cross, redirect, or recross questions.
- (f) In addition to any appropriate order listed in subdivision (i) of Section 2025, the court may order any of the following:
- (1) That the deponent's testimony be taken by oral, instead of written, examination.
- (2) That one or more of the parties receiving notice of the written deposition be permitted to attend in person or by attorney and to propound questions to the deponent by oral examination.
- (3) That objections under subdivision (d) be sustained or overruled.
- (4) That the deposition be taken before an officer other than the one named or described in the deposition notice.
- (g) The party taking the deposition shall deliver to the officer designated in the deposition notice a copy of that notice and of all questions served under subdivision (c). The deposition officer shall proceed promptly to propound the questions and to take and record the testimony of the deponent in response to the questions. In addition to any other means specified in the deposition notice, the testimony taken at a written deposition shall be recorded stenographically.
- 2029. (a) Whenever any mandate, writ, letters rogatory, letter of request, or commission is issued out of any court of record in any other state, territory, or district of the United States, or in a foreign nation, or whenever, on notice or agreement, it is required to take the oral or written deposition of a natural person in California, the deponent may be compelled to appear and testify, and to produce documents and things, in the same manner, and by the same process as may be employed for the purpose of taking testimony in actions pending in California.
- (b) The clerk of the superior court in which the deponent resides shall issue a deposition subpoena directed to the deponent if it appears by affidavit or declaration filed that (1) the deponent resides within 75 miles of the place at which the deposition is to be taken,

- (2) the testimony of the deponent as well as any documents or things described in the deposition subpoena are relevant to the subject matter involved in the action or proceeding, and (3) a deposition taken under these circumstances may be used in the action under the law of the state, territory, district, or foreign nation in which it is pending.
- 2030. (a) Any party may obtain discovery within the scope fixed by Section 2017, and subject to the restrictions set forth in Section 2019, by propounding to any other party to the action written interrogatories to be answered under oath.
- (b) A defendant may propound interrogatories to a party to the action without leave of court at any time. A plaintiff may propound interrogatories to a party without leave of court at any time that is 10 days after the service of the summons upon, or appearance by, that party, whichever occurs first. However, on motion with or without notice, the court, for good cause shown, may grant leave to a plaintiff to propound interrogatories at an earlier time.
- (c) (1) Absent a stipulation or court order increasing the number, and except as provided in paragraph (8) of subdivision (c), no party shall, as a matter of right, propound to any other party more than 35 interrogatories. If the initial set of interrogatories does not exhaust this limit, the balance may be propounded in subsequent sets. Any particular interrogatory that exceeds this limit need not be answered, if the responding party states an objection to it on that ground under paragraph (3) of subdivision (f).
- (2) Any party may stipulate in writing with another party that each may propound to the other a greater or an unlimited number of interrogatories. Any party may propound a greater number of interrogatories to another party if this greater number is warranted because of any of the following:
- (A) The complexity or the quantity of the existing and potential issues in the particular case.
- (B) The financial burden on a party entailed in conducting the discovery by oral deposition.
- (C) The expedience of using this method of discovery to provide to the responding party the opportunity to conduct an inquiry, investigation, or search of files or records to supply the information sought.
- (3) Any party who is propounding or has propounded more than 35 interrogatories to any other party shall attach to each set of interrogatories a declaration containing substantially the following:

DECLARATION FOR ADDITIONAL DISCOVERY

i,, declare:
1. I am (a party to this action or proceeding appearing in prop	ria persona) (presently the principal attorney for	., a party to this action or proceeding).
2. I am propounding to, the attached set	of interrogatories.

- 3. This set of interrogatories will cause the total number of interrogatories propounded to the party to whom they are directed to exceed the number of interrogatories permitted by subdivision (c) of Section 2030 of the Code of Civil Procedure.
- 4. I have previously propounded a a total of ______interrogatories (including subparts) to this party.
- 5. I am familiar with the issues and previous discovery conducted by all parties in this case.
- 6. This set of interrogatories contains a total of _____ questions (including subparts).
- 7. I have personally examined each of the questions, including any subparts, in this set of interrogatories.
- 8. The information sought by each question and any subparts is necessary for the proper preparation of this case and reasonably requires this number of questions.
- 9. None of the questions or subparts in this set of interrogatories is being propounded for any improper purpose, such as to harass the party, or the attorney for the party, to whom it is directed, or to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of California that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on _______.

•	(party—may be left blank if propria persona)

- (4) A party propounding interrogatories shall number each set of interrogatories consecutively. In the first paragraph immediately below the title of the case, there shall appear (1) the identity of the propounding party, (2) the set number, and (3) the identity of the responding party. Each interrogatory in a set shall be separately set forth.
- (5) Each interrogatory shall be full and complete in and of itself. No preface or instructions shall be included with a set of interrogatories unless it has been approved under Section 2033.5. Any term specially defined in a set of interrogatories shall be typed with all letters capitalized whenever that term appears. No interrogatory shall contain subparts, or a compound, conjunctive, or disjunctive question unless it has been approved under Section 2033.5.
- (6) An interrogatory may relate to whether another party is making a certain contention, or to the facts, witnesses, and writings on which a contention is based. An interrogatory is not objectionable because an answer to it involves an opinion or contention that relates to fact or the application of law to fact, or would be based on information obtained or legal theories developed in anticipation of litigation or in preparation for trial by the party to whom it is directed or by the attorney, insurer, consultant, surety, indemnitor, or agent of that party.

- (7) An interrogatory may not be made a continuing one so as to impose on the party responding to it a duty to supplement an answer to it that was initially correct and complete with information thereafter acquired.
- (8) In addition to the number of interrogatories permitted by paragraphs (1) and (2), a party may propound a supplemental interrogatory to elicit any later acquired information bearing on all answers previously made by any party in response to interrogatories (1) twice prior to the initial setting of a trial date, and (2) subject to the time limit on discovery as provided in Section 2024, once after each setting of a trial date. However, on motion, for good cause shown, the court may grant leave to a party to propound an additional number of supplemental interrogatories.
- (d) The party propounding interrogatories shall serve a copy of them (1) on the party to whom they are directed and (2), on all other parties who have appeared in the action, unless the court on motion with or without notice has relieved that party from this requirement on its determination that service on all other parties would be unduly expensive, oppressive, or burdensome.
- (e) When interrogatories have been propounded, the responding party, and any other party or affected natural person or organization may promptly move for a protective order. This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by the motion.

The court, for good cause shown, may make any order that justice requires to protect any party or other natural person or organization from unwarranted annoyance, embarrassment, or oppression, or undue burden and expense. This protective order may include, but is not limited to, one or more of the following directions:

- (1) That the set of interrogatories, or particular interrogatories in the set, need not be answered.
- (2) That the time specified in subdivision (h) to respond to the set of interrogatories, or to particular interrogatories in the set, be extended.
- (3) That the response be made only upon specified terms and conditions.
- (4) That the method of discovery be an oral deposition instead of interrogatories to a party.
- (5) That a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information not be disclosed or be disclosed only in a certain way.
- (6) That some or all of the answers to interrogatories be sealed and thereafter opened only on order of the court.

If the motion for a protective order is denied in whole or in part, the court may order that the party provide or permit the discovery against which protection was sought on terms and conditions that are just.

The court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against anyone who does not prevail, and in favor of anyone who does prevail, on a motion for a protective order, if the prevailing party has engaged in a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issues presented by the motion.

- (f) The party to whom interrogatories have been propounded shall respond in writing under oath separately to each interrogatory by (1) an answer containing the information sought to be discovered, (2) an exercise of the party's option to produce writings, or (3) an objection to the particular interrogatory. Each answer, exercise of option, or objection in the response shall bear the same number and be in the same sequence as the corresponding interrogatory, but the text of that interrogatory need not be repeated.
- (1) Each answer in the response shall be as complete and straightforward as the information reasonably available to the responding party permits. If an interrogatory cannot be answered completely, it shall be answered to the extent possible. If the responding party does not have personal knowledge sufficient to respond fully to an interrogatory, that party shall so state, but shall make a reasonable and good faith effort to obtain the information by inquiry to other natural persons or organizations, except where the information is equally available to the propounding party.
- (2) If the answer to an interrogatory would necessitate the preparation or the making of a compilation, abstract, audit, or summary of or from the writings of the party to whom the interrogatory is directed, and if that compilation, abstract, audit, or summary does not already exist, or if the burden or expense of preparing or making it would be substantially the same for the party propounding the interrogatory as for the responding party, it is a sufficient answer to that interrogatory to refer to this subdivision and to specify the writings from which the answer may be derived or ascertained. This specification shall be in sufficient detail to permit the propounding party to locate and to identify, as readily as the responding party can, the writings from which the answer may be ascertained. The responding party shall then afford to the propounding party a reasonable opportunity to examine, audit, or inspect these writings and to make copies, compilations, abstracts, or summaries of them.
- (3) If only a part of an interrogatory is objectionable, the remainder of the interrogatory shall be answered. If an objection is made to an interrogatory or to a part of an interrogatory, the specific ground for the objection shall be set forth clearly in the response. If an objection is made to an interrogatory on the ground that it exceeds the limit on the number of interrogatories specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (c), it suffices to state that the propounding party has exceeded that limit. If an objection is based - on a claim of privilege, the particular privilege invoked shall be clearly stated. If an objection is based on a claim that the information sought is protected work product prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial, that claim shall be expressly asserted.

- (g) The party to whom the interrogatories are directed shall sign the response under oath. If that party is a public or private corporation, or a partnership, association, or governmental agency, one of its officers or agents shall sign the response under oath on behalf of that party. If the officer or agent signing the response on behalf of that party is an attorney, that party waives any lawyer-client privilege and any protection for work product prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial during any subsequent discovery from that attorney concerning the identity of the sources of the information contained in the response.
- (h) Within 30 days after service of interrogatories which period is extended by five days where the service is made by mail, the party to whom the interrogatories are propounded shall serve the original of the response to them on the propounding party, unless on motion of the propounding party the court has shortened the time for response, or unless on motion of the responding party the court has extended the time for response. The party to whom the interrogatories are propounded shall also serve a copy of the response on all other parties who have appeared in the action, unless the court on motion with or without notice has relieved that party from this requirement on its determination that service on all other parties would be unduly expensive; oppressive, or burdensome.
- (i) The party propounding interrogtories and the responding party may agree to extend the time for service of a response to a set of interrogatories, or to particular interrogatories in a set, to a date beyond that provided in subdivision (h). This agreement may be informal, but it shall be confirmed in a writing that specifies the extended date for service of a response. Unless this agreement expressly states otherwise, it is effective to preserve to the responding party the right to respond to any interrogatory to which the agreement applies in any manner specified in subdivision (f).
- (j) The interrogatories and the response thereto shall not be filed with the court. The propounding party shall retain both the original of the interrogatories with the original proof of service affixed thereto, and the original of the sworn response until six months after final disposition of the action. At that time, both originals may be destroyed, unless the court on motion of any party and for good cause shown orders that the originals be preserved for a longer period.
- (k) If a party to whom interrogatories have been directed fails to serve a timely response, that party waives any right to exercise the option to produce writings under subdivision (f), as well as any objection to the interrogatories, including one based on privilege or on the protection for work product prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial. However, the court, on motion, may relieve that party from this waiver on its determination that, (1) the party has subsequently served a response to the interrogatories that is in substantial compliance with subdivision (f), and (2) the party's failure to serve a timely response to the interrogatories was the result of mistake, inadvertence, or excusable neglect.

The party propounding the interrogatories may move for an order compelling response and for a monetary sanction pursuant to Section 2023. If a party then fails to obey an order compelling answers, the court may make those orders that are just, including the imposition of an issue sanction, an evidence sanction, or a terminating sanction under Section 2023 against the disobedient party. In lieu of or in addition to that sanction, the court may impose a monetary sanction pursuant to Section 2023 against the disobedient party.

(1) If the propounding party, on receipt of a response to interrogatories, deems that (1) an answer to a particular interrogatory is evasive or incomplete, (2) an exercise of the option to produce business records under subdivision (h) is unwarranted or the required specification of those records is inadequate, or (3) an objection to an interrogatory is without merit or too general, that party may move for an order compelling a further response. This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by it.

Unless notice of this motion is given within 45 days of the service of the response which period is extended by five days where such service was made by mail, or any specific later date to which the propounding party and the responding party have agreed in writing, the propounding party waives any right to compel a further response to the interrogatories.

The court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against one who does not prevail, and in favor of one who does prevail, on a motion to compel answers, if the prevailing party has engaged in a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by the motion.

If a party fails to obey an order compelling further response to interrogatories, the court may make those orders that are just, including the imposition of an issue sanction, an evidence sanction, or a terminating sanction under Section 2023 against the disobedient party. In lieu of or in addition to that sanction, the court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against the disobedient party.

(m) Without leave of court, a party may serve an amended answer to any interrogatory that contains information subsequently discovered, inadvertently omitted, or mistakenly stated in the initial interrogatory. At the trial of the action, the propounding party or any other party may use the initial answer pursuant to subdivision (n), and the responding party may then use the amended answer.

The party who propounded an interrogatory to which an amended answer has been served may move for an order that the initial answer to that interrogatory be deemed binding on the responding party for the purpose of the pending action. This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by the motion. The court shall grant this motion if it determines that (1) the initial failure of the responding party to answer the interrogatory correctly has substantially prejudiced the party who propounded the interrogatory, (2) the responding party has failed to show substantial justification for the initial answer to that interrogatory and, (3) the prejudice to the propounding party cannot be cured either by a continuance to permit further discovery or by the use of the initial answer pursuant to subdivision (n).

The court may impose a monetary sanction pursuant to Section 2023 against any party who does not prevail on a motion to deem binding an initial answer to an interrogatory, provided the prevailing party has engaged in a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by the motion.

- (n) At the trial or any other hearing in the action, so far as admissible under the rules of evidence, the propounding party or any party other than the responding party may use any answer or part of an answer to an interrogatory only against the party giving the answer. It is not ground for objection to the use of an answer to an interrogatory that the responding party is present, and has testified or will testify, at the trial or other hearing.
- 2031. (a) Any party may obtain discovery within the scope permitted by Section 2017, and subject to the restrictions set forth in Section 2019, by inspecting documents, tangible things, and land or other property that are in the possession, custody, or control of any other party to the action.
- (1) A party may demand that any other party produce and permit the party making the demand, or someone acting on that party's behalf, to inspect and to copy documents that are in the possession, custody, or control of the party on whom the demand is made. The word "documents" includes, but is not limited to, writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, phonorecords, and other data compilations from which information may be obtained.
- (2) A party may demand that any other party produce and permit the party making the demand, or someone acting on that party's behalf, to inspect and to photograph, test, or sample any tangible things that are in the possession, custody, or control of the party on whom the demand is made.
- (3) A party may demand that any other party allow entry on any land or other property that is in the possession, custody, or control of the party on whom the demand is made to inspect and to measure, survey, photograph, test, or sample the land or other property, or any designated object or operation on it.
- (b) A defendant may make a demand for inspection without leave of court at any time. A plaintiff may make a demand for inspection without leave of court at any time that is 10 days after the service of the summons on, or appearance by, the party to whom the demand is directed, whichever occurs first. However, on motion with or without notice, the court, for good cause shown, may grant leave to a plaintiff to make an inspection demand at an earlier time.

(c) A demand for inspection shall be in writing and shall do all of the following:

- (1) Designate the documents, tangible things, or land or other property to be inspected either by specifically describing each individual item or by reasonably particularizing each category of item.
  - (2) Set forth separately each item or category of item.
- (3) Specify a reasonable time for the inspection that is at least 30 days after service of the demand, which period is extended by five days where the service is made by mail, unless the court for good cause shown has granted leave to specify an earlier date.
- (4) Specify a reasonable place for making the inspection, copying, and performing any related activity.
- (5) Specify any related activity that is being demanded in addition to an inspection and copying, as well as the manner in which that related activity will be performed, and whether that activity will permanently alter or destroy the item involved.
- (d) The party demanding an inspection shall serve a copy of the inspection demand on the party to whom it is directed and on all other parties who have appeared in the action.
- (e) When an inspection of documents, things or places has been demanded, the party to whom the demand has been directed, and any other party or affected person or organization may promptly move for a protective order. This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by the motion.

The court, for good cause shown, may make any order that justice requires to protect any party or other natural person or organization from unwarranted annoyance, embarrassment, or oppression, or undue burden and expense. This protective order may include, but is not limited to, one or more of the following directions:

- (1) That all or some of the items or categories of items in the inspection demand need not be produced at all.
- (2) That the time specified in subdivision (h) to respond to the set of inspection demands, or to a particular item or category in the set, be extended.
- (3) That the place of production be other than that specified in the inspection demand.
- (4) That the response be made only on specified terms and conditions.
- (5) That a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information not be disclosed, or be disclosed only to specified persons or only in a specified way.
- (6) That the items produced be sealed and thereafter opened only on order of the court.

If the motion for a protective order is denied in whole or in part, the court may order that the party to whom the demand was directed provide or permit the discovery against which protection was sought on terms and conditions that are just.

The court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against anyone who does not prevail, and in favor of any one who does prevail, on a motion for a protective order, if the prevailing party has engaged in a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by the motion.

- (f) (1) The party to whom an inspection demand has been directed shall respond separately to each item or category of item by any of the following:
- (A) A statement that the party will comply with the particular demand for inspection and any related activities.
- (B) A representation that the party lacks the ability to comply with the demand for inspection of a particular item or category of item.
- (C) An objection to the demand either in its entirety or in some particular respect.

Each statement of compliance, each representation, and each objection in the response shall bear the same number and be in the same sequence as the corresponding item or category in the demand, but the text of that item or category need not be repeated.

- (2) A statement that the party to whom an inspection demand has been directed will comply with the particular demand shall state all of the following:
- (A) That the production, inspection, and related activity demanded will be allowed either in whole or in part.
- (B) That all documents or things in a demanded category that are in the possession, custody, or control of that party and to which no objection is being made will be included in the production.

Any documents demanded shall either be produced as they are kept in the usual course of business, or be organized and labeled to correspond with the categories in the demand. If necessary, the responding party at the reasonable expense of the demanding party shall, through detection devices, translate any data compilations included in the demanded into reasonably usable form.

- (3) A representation of inability to comply with the particular demand for inspection shall affirm that a diligent search and a reasonable inquiry has been made in an effort to comply with that demand. This statement shall also specify whether the inability to comply is because the particular item or category of item, (A) has never existed, (B) has been destroyed, (C) has been lost, misplaced, or stolen, or (D) has never been, or is no longer, in the possession, custody, or control of the responding party, as well as the name and address of any natural person or organization known or believed by that party to have possession, custody, or control of that item or category of item.
- (4) If only a part of an item or category of item in an inspection demand in objectionable, the response shall contain a statement of - compliance, or a representation of inability to comply with respect to the remainder of that item or category. If the responding party objects to the demand for inspection of an item or category of item, the response shall set forth clearly the extent of, and the specific ground for, the objection. If an objection is based on a claim of privilege, the particular privilege invoked shall be stated. If an objection is based on a claim that the information sought is protected work product prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial, that claim shall be expressly asserted.

- (g) The party to whom the demand for inspection is directed shall sign the response under oath. If that party is a public or private corporation or a partnership or association or governmental agency, one of its officers or agents shall sign the response under oath on behalf of that party. If the officer or agent signing the response on behalf of that party is an attorney, that party waives any lawyer-client privilege and any protection for work product prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial during any subsequent discovery from that attorney concerning the identity of the sources of the information contained in the response.
- (h) Within 20 days after service of an inspection demand, which period is extended by five days where the service was made by mail, the party to whom the demands directed shall serve the original of the response to them on the party making the demand, and a copy of the response on all other parties who have appeared in the action, unless on motion of the party making the demand the court has shortened the time for response, or unless on motion of the party to whom the demand has been directed, the court has extended the time for response.
- (i) The party demanding an inspection and the responding party may agree to extend the time for service of a response to a set of inspection demands, or to particular items or categories of items in a set, to a date beyond that provided in subdivision (h). This agreement may be informal, but it shall be confirmed in a writing that specifies the extended date for service of a response. Unless this agreement expressly states otherwise, it is effective to preserve to the responding party the right to respond to any item or category of item in the demand to which the agreement applies in any manner specified in subdivision (f).
- (j) The inspection demand and the response thereto shall not be filed with the court. The party demanding an inspection shall retain both the original of the inspection demand, with the original proof of service affixed to it, and the original of the sworn response until six months after final disposition of the action. At that time, both originals may be destroyed, unless the court, on motion of any party and for good cause shown, orders that the originals be preserved for a longer period.
- (k) If a party to whom an inspection demand has been directed fails to serve a timely response to it, that party waives any objection to the demand, including one based on privilege or on the protection for work product prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial. However, the court, on motion, may relieve that party from this waiver on its determination that, (1) the party has subsequently served a response that is in substantial compliance with subdivision (f), and (2) the party's failure to serve a timely response was the result of mistake, inadvertance, or excusable neglect.

The party making the demand may move for an order compelling response and for a monetary sanction under Section 2023. If a party then fails to obey the order compelling a response, the court may make those orders that are just, including the imposition of an issue sanction, an evidence sanction, or a terminating sanction under Section 2023 against the disobedient party. In lieu of or in addition to that sanction, the court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against the disobedient party.

(l) If the party demanding an inspection, on receipt of a response to an inspection demand, deems that (1) a statement of compliance with the demand is incomplete, (2) a representation of inability to comply is inadequate, or incomplete, or evasive, or (3) an objection in the response is without merit or too general, that party may move for an order compelling further response to the demand. This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by it.

Unless notice of this motion is given within 45 days of the service of the response which period is extended by five days where the service was made by mail, or any specific later date to which the parties have agreed in writing, the demanding party waives any right to compel a further response to the inspection demand.

The court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against one who does not prevail, and in favor of one who does prevail, on this motion to compel further response, if the prevailing party has engaged in a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issues presented by the motion.

If a party fails to obey an order compelling further response, the court may make those orders that are just, including the imposition of an issue sanction, an evidence sanction, or a terminating sanction under Section 2023 against the disobedient party. In lieu of or in addition to that sanction, the court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against the disobedient party.

(m) If a party filing a response to a demand for inspection under subdivision (f) thereafter fails to permit the inspection in accordance with that party's statement of compliance, the party demanding the inspection may move for an order compelling compliance.

The court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against one who does not prevail, and in favor of one who does prevail, on this motion to compel compliance, if the prevailing party has engaged in a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issues presented by the motion.

If a party fails to obey an order compelling inspection, the court may make those orders that are just, including the imposition of an issue sanction, an evidence sanction, or a terminating sanction under Section 2023 against the disobedient party. In lieu of or in addition to that sanction, the court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against the disobedient party.

- (a) Any party may obtain discovery within the scope fixed by Section 2017, and subject to the restrictions set forth in Section 2019, by a written request that any other party to the action admit the genuineness of specified documents, or the truth of specified matters of fact or opinions relating to fact. A request for admission may relate to a matter that is in controversy between the parties, but a request shall not require an application of law to fact.
- (b) A defendant may make requests for admission by a party without leave of court at any time. A plaintiff may make requests for admission by a party without leave of court at any time that is 10 days after the service of the summons on, or appearance by, that party, whichever occurs first. However, on motion with or without notice, the court, for good cause shown, may grant leave to a plaintiff to make requests for admission at an earlier time.
- (c) (1) Absent a stipulation or court order increasing the number, no party shall request, as a matter of right, that any other party to admit more than 35 matters that do not relate to the genuineness of documents. If the initial set of admission requests does not exhaust this limit, the balance may be made in subsequent sets. Any particular request for admission that exceeds this limit need not be answered, if the party to whom it is directed states an objection to it on that ground under paragraph (2) of subdivision (f).

The number of requests for admission of the genuineness of documents is not limited except as justice requires to protect the responding party from annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, or undue burden and expense.

- (2) Any party may stipulate in writing with another party that each may make to the other a greater or an unlimited number of requests for admission. Any party may request a greater number of admissions by another party if the greater number is warranted by the complexity or the quantity of the existing and potential issues in the particular case.
- (3) Any party who is requesting or who has already requested more than 35 admissions not relating to the genuineness of documents by any other party shall attach to each set of requests for admissions a declaration containing substantially the following words:

DECLARATION FOR ADDITIONAL DISCOVERY

I,, de	eclare:

persona) (presently tl	he principal attorney	for, a party to this action or	proceeding).

- 2. I am propounding to _____, the attached set of requests for admissions.
- 3. This set of requests for admissions will cause the total number of requests propounded to the party to whom they are directed to exceed the number of requests permitted by Section 2033 of the Code of Civil Procedure.
- 4. I have previously propounded a total of _____ requests for admissions (including subparts) to this party.
- 5. I am familiar with the issues and previous discovery conducted by all parties in this case.
  - 6. This set of requests for admissions contains a total of ____ requests (including subparts).
- 7. I have personally examined each of the requests, including any subparts, in this set of requests.
- 8. The information sought by each request and any subparts is necessary for the proper preparation of this case and reasonably requires this number of requests.
- 9. None of the requests or subparts in this set of requests is being propounded for any improper purpose, such as to harass the party, or the attorney for the party, to whom it is directed, or to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of California that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on ______.

Attorney for
(party—may be	left blank if signed by party
, appearin	g in propria persona) .

- (4) A party requesting admissions shall number each set of requests consecutively. In the first paragraph immediately below the title of the case, there shall appear, (1) the identity of the party requesting the admissions, (2) the set number, and (3) the identity of the party to whom the requests are directed. Each request for admission in a set shall be separately set forth. If more than one set of admission requests is made to any party, the number of the first request in a subsequent set shall be one number higher than that of the last request of the previous set.
- (5) Each request for admission shall be full and complete in and of itself. No preface or instructions shall be included with a set of admission requests unless it has been approved under Section 2033.5. Any term specially defined in a request for admission shall be typed with all letters capitalized whenever the term appears. No request for admission shall contain subparts, or a compound, conjunctive, or disjunctive request unless it has been approved under Section 2033.5.
- (6) A party requesting an admission of the genuineness of any documents shall attach copies of those documents to the requests. and shall make the original of those documents available for inspection on demand by the party to whom the requests for admission are directed.

- (d) The party requesting admissions shall serve a copy of them on the party to whom they are directed and on all other parties who have appeared in the action.
- (e) When requests for admission have been made, the responding party may promptly move for a protective order. This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by the motion.

The court, for good cause shown, may make any order that justice requires to protect any party from annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, or undue burden and expense. This protective order may include, but is not limited to, one or more of the following directions:

- (1) That the set of admission requests, or particular requests in the set, need not be answered at all.
- (2) That the time specified in subdivision (h) to respond to the set of admission requests, or to particular requests in the set, be extended.
- (3) That a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information not be admitted or be admitted only in a certain way.
- (4) That some or all of the answers to requests for admission be sealed and thereafter opened only on order of the court.

If the motion for a protective order is denied in whole or in part, the court may order that the responding party provide or permit the discovery against which protection was sought on terms and conditions that are just.

The court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against anyone who does not prevail, and in favor of anyone who does prevail, on a motion for a protective order, if the prevailing party has engaged in a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issues presented by the motion.

- (f) The party to whom requests for admission have been directed shall respond in writing under oath separately to each request. Each response shall answer the substance of the requested admission, or set forth an objection to the particular request. Each answer or objection in the response shall bear the same number and be in the same sequence as the corresponding request, but the text of the particular request need not be repeated.
- (1) Each answer in the response shall be as complete and straightforward as the information reasonably available to the responding party permits. Each answer shall, (A) admit so much of the matter involved in the request as is true, either as expressed in the request itself or as reasonably and clearly qualified by the responding party, (B) deny so much of the matter involved in the request as is untrue, and (C) specify so much of the matter involved in the request as to the truth of which the responding party lacks sufficient information or knowledge. If a responding party gives lack - of information or knowledge as a reason for a failure to admit all or part of a request for admission, that party shall state in the answer that a reasonable inquiry concerning the matter in the particular request has been made, and that the information known or readily obtainable is insufficient to enable that party to admit the matter.

- (2) If only a part of a request for admission is objectionable, the remainder of the request shall be answered. If an objection is made to a request or to a part of a request, the specific ground for the objection shall be set forth clearly in the response. If an objection is made to a request on the ground that it exceeds the limit on the number of requests specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (c), it suffices to state that the party making the requests has exceeded that limit. If an objection is based on a claim of privilege, the particular privilege invoked shall be clearly stated. If an objection is based on a claim that the matter as to which an admission is requested is protected work product prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial, that claim shall be expressly asserted.
- (g) The party to whom the requests for admission are directed shall sign the response under oath. If that party is a public or private corporation, or a partnership or association or governmental agency, one of its officers or agents shall sign the response under oath on behalf of that party. If the officer or agent signing the response on behalf of that party is an attorney, that party waives any lawyer-client privilege and any protection for work product prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial during any subsequent discovery from that attorney that is related to the sources of the information contained in the response.
- (h) Within 30 days after service of requests for admission, which period is extended by five days where the service is made by mail, the party to whom the requests are directed shall serve the original of the response to them on the requesting party, and a copy of the response on all other parties who have appeared, unless on motion of the requesting party the court has shortened the time for response, or unless on motion of the responding party the court has extended the time for response.
- (i) The party requesting admissions and the responding party may agree to extend the time for service of a response to a set of admission requests, or to particular requests in a set, to a date beyond that provided in subdivision (h). This agreement may be informal, but it shall be confirmed in a writing that specifies the extended date for service of a response. Unless this agreement expressly states otherwise, it is effective to preserve to the responding party the right to respond to any request for admission to which the agreement applies in any manner specified in subdivision (f). Notice of this agreement shall be given by the responding party to all other parties who were served with a copy of the request.
- (j) The requests for admission and the response shall not be filed with the court. The party requesting admissions shall retain both the original of the requests for admission, with the original proof of service affixed, and the original of the sworn response until six months after final disposition of the action. At that time, both originals may be destroyed, unless the court, on motion of any party and for good cause shown, orders that the originals be preserved for a longer period.

- (k) If a party to whom requests for admission have been directed fails to serve a timely response, that party thereby waives any objection to the requests, including one based on privilege or on the protection for work product prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial. The requesting party may move for an order that the genuineness of any documents and the truth of any matters specified in the requests be deemed admitted, as well as for a monetary sanction pursuant to Section 2023. The court shall make this order, unless it finds that prior to the hearing on the motion the party to whom the requests for admission have been directed has served a proposed response to the requests for admission that is in substantial compliance with paragraph (1) of subdivision (f). It is mandatory that the court impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 on the party whose failure to serve a timely response to requests for admission necessitated this motion.
- (l) If the party requesting admissions, on receipt of a response thereto, deems that, (1) an answer to a particular request is evasive or incomplete, or (2) an objection to a particular request is without merit or too general, that party may move for an order compelling a further response. The motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by it.

Unless notice of this motion is given within 45 days of the service of the response, which period is extended by five days where the service was made by mail, or any specific later date to which the requesting party and the responding party have agreed in writing; the party requesting admissions waives any right to compel further response to the requests for admission.

The court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against one who does not prevail, and in favor of one who does prevail on the motion to compel further response, if the prevailing party has engaged in a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by the motion.

If a party fails to obey an order compelling further response to requests for admission, the court may make those orders that are just, including an order that the matters involved in the requests be deemed admitted. In lieu of or in addition to this order, the court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against the disobedient party.

(m) A party may amend or withdraw an admission made in response to a request for admission only on leave of court granted after notice to all parties. The court may permit withdrawal or amendment of an admission only if it determines that the admission was the result of mistake, inadvertence, or excusable neglect and the party who obtained the admission will not be substantially prejudiced in maintaining that party's action or defense on the merits. The court may impose conditions on the granting of the motion that are just, including, but not limited to, an order that (1) the party who obtained the admission be permitted to pursue additional discovery related to the matter involved in the withdrawn or amended admission, and (2) the costs of any additional discovery be borne in whole or in part by the party amending or withdrawing the admission.

- (n) Any matter admitted in response to a request for admission is conclusively established against the party making the admission in the pending action, unless the court has permitted withdrawal or amendment of that admission under subdivision (m). However, any admission made by a party under this section is (1) binding only on that party, and (2) made for the purpose of the pending action only. It is not an admission by that party for any other purpose, and it shall not be used in any manner against that party in any other proceeding.
- (o) If a party fails to admit the genuineness of any document or the truth of any matter when requested to do so under this section, and if the party requesting that admission thereafter proves the genuineness of that document or the truth of that matter, the party requesting the admission may move the court for an order requiring the party to whom the request was directed to pay the reasonable expenses incurred in making that proof, including reasonable attorney's fees. The court shall make this order unless it finds that (1) an objection to the request was sustained or a response to it was waived under subdivision (1), (2) the admission sought was of no substantial importance, (3) the party failing to make the admission had reasonable ground to believe that that party would prevail on the matter, or (4) there was other good reason for the failure to admit.

2033.5. The Judicial Council shall develop and approve official form interrogatories and requests for admission of the genuineness of any relevant documents or of the truth of any relevant matters of fact in any civil action in a state court based upon personal injury, property damage, wrongful death, unlawful detainer, breach of contract or fraud. Use of the approved form interrogatories and requests for admission shall be optional and shall not restrict the right to propound different or additional interrogatories and requests for admission.

In developing the form interrogatories and requests for admission required by this section, the Judicial Council shall consult with a representative advisory committee which shall include, but not be limited to, representatives of the plaintiff's bar, the defense bar, the public interest bar, court administrators, and the public. The form interrogatories and requests for admission shall be drafted in nontechnical language and shall be made available through the office of the clerk of the appropriate trial court.

The Judicial Council also shall promulgate any necessary rules to govern the use of the form interrogatories and requests for admission.

- 2035. (a) One who expects to be a party to any action that may be cognizable in any court of the State of California, whether as a plaintiff, or as a defendant, or in any other capacity, may obtain discovery within the scope fixed by Section 2017, and subject to the restrictions set forth in Section 2019, for the purpose of perpetuating his or her own testimony or that of another natural person or organization, or of preserving evidence for use in the event an action is subsequently filed. One shall not employ the procedures of this section for the purpose either of ascertaining the possible existence of a cause of action or a defense to it, or of identifying those who might be made parties to an action not yet filed.
- (b) The methods available for discovery conducted for the purposes set forth in subdivision (a) are (1) oral and written depositions, (2) inspections of documents, things, and places, and (3) physical and mental examinations.
- (c) One who desires to perpetuate testimony or preserve evidence for the purposes set forth in subdivision (a) shall file a verified petition in the superior court of the county of the residence of at least one expected adverse party, or, if no expected adverse party is a resident of the State of California, in the superior court of a county where the action or proceeding may be filed.
- (d) The petition shall be titled in the name of the one who desires the perpetuation of testimony or the preservation of evidence. The petition shall set forth all of the following:
- (1) The expectation that the petitioner will be a party to an action cognizable in a court of the State of California.
- (2) The present inability of the petitioner either to bring that action or to cause it to be brought.
- (3) The subject matter of the expected action and the petitioner's involvement.
- (4) The particular discovery methods described in subdivision (b) that the petitioner desires to employ.
- (5) The facts that the petitioner desires to establish by the proposed discovery.
- (6) The reasons for desiring to perpetuate or preserve these facts before an action has been filed.
- (7) The names or a description of those whom the petitioner expects to be adverse so far as known.
- (8) The names and addresses of those from whom the discovery is to be sought.
- (9) The substance of the information expected to be elicited from each of those from whom discovery is being sought.

The petition shall request the court to enter an order authorizing the petitioner to engage in discovery by the described methods for the purpose of perpetuating the described testimony or preserving the described evidence. (e) The petitioner shall cause service of a notice of the petition to be made on each natural person or organization named in the petition as an expected adverse party. This service shall be made in the same manner provided for the service of a summons. The service of the notice shall be accompanied by a copy of the petition. The notice shall state that the petitioner will apply to the court at a time and place specified in the notice for the order requested in the petition. This service shall be effected at least 20 days prior to the date specified in the notice for the hearing on the petition.

If after the exercise of due diligence, the petitioner is unable to cause service to be made on any expected adverse party named in the petition, the court in which the petition is filed shall make an order for service by publication. If any expected adverse party served by publication does not appear at the hearing, the court shall appoint an attorney to represent that party for all purposes, including the cross-examination of any person whose testimony is taken by deposition. The court shall order that the petitioner pay the reasonable fees and expenses of any attorney so appointed.

- (f) If the court determines that all or part of the discovery requested may prevent a failure or delay of justice, it shall make an order authorizing that discovery. The order shall identify any witness whose deposition may be taken, and any documents, things, or places that may be inspected, and any person whose physical or mental condition may be examined. Any authorized depositions, inspections, and physical or mental examinations shall then be conducted in accordance with the provisions of this article relating to those methods of discovery in actions that have been filed.
- (g) If a deposition to perpetuate testimony has been taken either under the provisions of this section, or under comparable provisions of the laws of another state, or the federal courts, or a foreign nation, that deposition may be used, in any action involving the same subject matter that is brought in a court of the State of California, in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (u) of Section 2025 against any party named in the petition as an expected adverse party.
- 2036. (a) If an appeal has been taken from a judgment entered by any court of the State of California, or if the time for taking an appeal has not expired, a party may obtain discovery within the scope fixed by Section 2017, and subject to the restrictions set forth in Section 2019, for the purpose of perpetuating testimony or preserving information for use in the event of further proceedings in that court.
- (b) The methods available for discovery for the purpose set forth in subdivision (a) are (1) oral and written depositions, (2) inspections of documents, things, and places, and (3) physical and mental examinations.
- (c) A party who desires to obtain discovery pending appeal shall obtain leave of the court that entered the judgment. This motion shall be made on the same notice to and service of parties as is required for discovery sought in an action pending in that court.

- (d) The motion for leave to conduct discovery pending appeal shall set forth (1) the names and addresses of the natural persons or organizations from whom the discovery is being sought, (2) the methods of discovery for which authorization is being sought, and (3) the reasons for perpetuating testimony or preserving evidence.
- (e) If the court determines that all or part of the discovery requested may prevent a failure or delay of justice in the event of further proceedings in the action in that court, it shall make an order authorizing that discovery. The order shall identify any witness whose deposition may be taken, and any documents, things, or places that may be inspected, and any person whose physical or mental condition may be examined. Any authorized depositions, inspections, and physical and mental examinations shall then be conducted in accordance with the provisions of this article relating to these methods of discovery in a pending action.
- (f) If a deposition to perpetuate testimony has been taken under the provisions of this section, it may be used in any later proceeding in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (u) of Section 2025.
  - SEC. 3. This act shall become operative on July 1, 1987.
- SEC. 4. This act shall become operative only if Assembly Bill No. 1334 is enacted.

CHAPTER 1335

An act to add Article 5 (commencing with Section 68600) to Chapter 2 of Title 8 of the Government Code, relating to courts, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 5 (commencing with Section 68600) is added to Chapter 2 of Title 8 of the Government Code, to read:

Article 5. The Trial Court Delay Reduction Act of 1986

68600. This article shall be known and may be cited as the Trial Court Delay Reduction Act of 1986.

68601. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that:

- (a) The expeditious and timely resolution of civil and criminal actions is an integral and necessary function of the judicial branch of state government under Article VI of the California Constitution.
- (b) Delay in the resolution of both civil and criminal litigation is not in the best interests of the state and the public. The people of the State of California expect and deserve prompt justice and the speedy resolution of disputes. Delay in the resolution of litigation may reflect

- a failure of justice and subjects the judiciary to a loss of confidence by the public in both its fairness and utility as a public institution. Delay reduces the chance that justice will in fact be done, and often imposes severe emotional and financial hardship on litigants.
- (c) Cases filed in California's trial courts should be resolved as expeditiously as possible, consistent with the obligation of the courts to give full and careful consideration to the issues presented, and consistent with the right of parties to adequately prepare and present their cases to the courts.
- (d) Various methods for reducing delay in the litigation of cases in trial courts have been identified and tested, and have been effective in reducing the time necessary for the resolution of both civil and criminal litigation. It is in the public interest for certain trial courts to utilize these methods on a pilot program basis, in order to demonstrate their effectiveness in California.
- 68602. The Legislature further finds and declares that the expenditure of any state funds appropriated for purposes of this article is in the public interest and necessary to the accomplishment of the purposes set forth in Section 68601.
- 68603. (a) On or before July 1, 1987, the Judicial Council shall adopt standards of timely disposition for the processing and disposition of civil and criminal actions. The standards shall be guidelines by which the progress of litigation in the superior court of every county may be measured. In establishing such standards, the Judicial Council shall be guided by the principles that litigation, from commencement to resolution, should require only that time reasonably necessary for pleadings, discovery, preparation and court events, and that any additional elapsed time is delay and should be eliminated.
- (b) The Judicial Council may adopt the standards of timely disposition adopted by the National Conference of State Trial Judges and the American Bar Association or may adopt different standards, but in the latter event shall specify reasons for approval of any standard which permits greater elapsed time for the resolution of litigation than that provided in the standards of the National Conference of State Trial Judges.
- 68604. Beginning on January 1, 1988, the Judicial Council shall collect and maintain statistics, and shall publish them at least on a yearly basis, regarding the compliance of the superior court of each county and of each branch court with the standards of timely disposition adopted pursuant to Section 68603. In collecting and publishing such statistics, the Judicial Council shall measure the time required for the resolution of civil cases from the filing of the first document invoking court jurisdiction, and for the resolution of criminal cases from the date of arrest, including a separate measurement in felony cases from the first appearance in superior court.
- 68605. On or before February 1, 1987, the Judicial Council shall designate the four superior courts with 18 or more judicial positions which, as of June 30, 1986, had the highest ratio per judicial position of at-issue civil cases pending more than one year, and the five superior courts with more than eight judicial positions, not otherwise designated, with the highest such ratio. In each such court, an exemplary delay reduction program shall be established. The superior court of any other county, at the option of the presiding judge, may elect to establish an exemplary delay reduction program, and the Judicial Council may designate additional superior courts for participation in an exemplary delay reduction program.

68606. In each of the counties in which an exemplary delay reduction program is established, the presiding judge shall, on or before March 1, 1987, (a) select a sufficient number of judges for the program that will provide, consistent with the size of the court, an adequate basis for determining the effectiveness of the methods for reducing delay specified in this article; provided, however, that a minimum of four judges shall be included in the program; and (b) identify the particular judges who will participate in the program. Each presiding judge may select, and is encouraged to select, all the judges of the superior court or the branch of a superior court as the judges of an exemplary delay reduction program.

68607. (a) The judges selected for an exemplary delay reduction program shall serve for the term of the program; provided, however, that a presiding judge may appoint a replacement judge in the event of elevation, retirement, disability, or death.

- (b) Except in instances where all the judges of a superior court or the branch of a superior court are selected, the judges selected for an exemplary delay reduction program shall be assigned only civil cases unless otherwise required by constitution or statute.
- (c) No provision of this article shall affect the power of the Chief Justice to make assignments of judges.

68608. The judges selected for an exemplary delay reduction program shall commence operation of the program on January 1, 1988, continuing for a three-year period. The judges involved in such programs shall have the responsibility to eliminate delay in the progress and ultimate resolution of litigation, to assume and maintain control over the pace of litigation, to actively manage the processing of litigation from commencement to disposition, and to compel attorneys and litigants to prepare and resolve all litigation without delay, from the filing of the first document invoking court jurisdiction to final disposition of the action.

In operation of an exemplary delay reduction program, the judges of the program shall, consistent with the policies of this article:

- (a) Actively monitor, supervise and control the movement of all cases assigned to the program from the time of filing of the first document invoking court jurisdiction through final disposition.
- (b) Seek to meet the standards for timely disposition adopted pursuant to Section 68603.
- (c) Establish procedures for early identification of cases within the program which may be protracted and for giving such cases special administrative and judicial attention as appropriate, including special assignment.

- (d) Establish procedures for early identification and timely and appropriate handling of cases within the program which may be amenable to settlement or other alternative disposition techniques.
- (e) Adopt a trial setting policy which, to the maximum extent possible, schedules a trial date within the time standards adopted pursuant to Section 68603 and which schedules a sufficient number of cases to ensure efficient use of judicial time while minimizing resetting caused by overscheduling.
  - (f) Commence trials on the date scheduled.
- (g) Adopt and utilize a firm, consistent policy against continuances, to the maximum extent possible and reasonable, in all stages of the litigation.
- 68609. (a) Beginning on January 1, 1988, the presiding judge of each superior court with an exemplary delay reduction program shall assign a pro rata share of new cases, and an appropriate number of existing cases, to the program, and these cases shall thereafter be handled by the judges of the program for all purposes.
- (b) Juvenile, probate, and domestic relations cases need not be assigned to an exemplary delay reduction program, and cases which have been assigned to a judge or judges for all purposes based on subject matter need not be assigned to the program.
- (c) No case shall be removed from an exemplary delay reduction program because of a challenge filed under Section 170.6 of the Code of Civil Procedure.
- (d) In order to enforce the requirements of an exemplary delay reduction program and orders issued in cases assigned to it, the judges of the program shall have all the powers to impose sanctions authorized by law, including the power to dismiss actions or strike pleadings as appropriate, and are encouraged to utilize them in order to achieve the purposes of this article.
- 68610. The Judicial Council, in conjunction with other interested groups as it determines appropriate, shall prepare and administer a program, consistent with the policies and requirements of this article, for the training of judges selected for inclusion in an exemplary delay reduction program.
- 68611. The Judicial Council shall collect and maintain statistics, and shall publish them at least on an annual basis, regarding the compliance of each court in the exemplary delay reduction program with the standards for timely disposition adopted pursuant to Section 68603, with the policies and requirements of this article, and regarding the cases assigned to the judges of each program. On or before July 1, 1991, the Judicial Council shall report to the Legislature on the results of the exemplary delay reduction program and recommend whether the requirements of Section 68608 should be applied to the superior or municipal courts of the state.
- 68612. The judges selected in each county as judges of an exemplary delay reduction program shall, in consultation with the bar of the county to the maximum extent feasible, develop, and publish the procedures, standards, and policies which will be used in the program, including time standards for the conclusion of all critical steps in the litigation process, including discovery, and shall meet on a regular basis with the bar of the county in order to explain and publicize the program and the procedures, standards, and policies which shall govern cases assigned to the program. Such procedures, standards, and policies may be inconsistent with the California Rules of Court. In its discretion, the Judicial Council may assist in the development of, or may develop and adopt, any or all of such procedures, standards, or policies on a statewide basis.

68613. The Judicial Council may receive and expend on the programs established by this article any funds available from county, state, or federal government or other sources which may be available for such purposes.

68614. Nothing in this article is intended to prevent a presiding judge from directing the use of the methods of delay reduction specified in Section 68608 by judges who are not part of an exemplary delay reduction program.

68615. In its discretion, the Judicial Council may contract out for performance of any of the duties imposed by this article.

- SEC. 2. Reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code and, if the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.
- SEC. 3. The sum of one hundred thirty thousand dollars ($130,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Judicial Council for the purposes of this act.
- SEC. 4. It is the intent of the Legislature that, commencing with the 1987–88 fiscal year, the purposes of this act shall be funded in the annual budget acts.

CHAPTER 1336

An act to add Sections 2032 and 2034 to, and to repeal Article 4 (commencing with Section 2037) of Chapter 3 of Title 3 of Part 4 of, the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to expert witnesses.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2032 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

- 2032. (a) Any party may obtain discovery, subject to the restrictions set forth in Section 2019, by means of a physical or mental examination of (1) a party to the action, (2) an agent of any party, or (3) a natural person in the custody or under the legal control of a party, in any action in which the mental or physical condition (including the blood group) of that party or other person is in controversy in the action.
- (b) A physical examination conducted pursuant to this section shall be performed only by a licensed physician or other appropriate licensed health care practitioner. A mental examination conducted pursuant to this section shall be performed only by a licensed physician, or by a licensed clinical psychologist who holds a doctoral degree in psychology and has had at least five years of postgraduate experience in the diagnosis of emotional and mental disorders. Nothing in this section affects tests under the Uniform Act on Blood Tests to Determine Paternity (Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 890) of Division 7 of the Evidence Code).
- (c) (1) In any case in which a plaintiff is seeking recovery for personal injuries, any defendant may demand one physical examination of the plaintiff provided the examination does not include any diagnostic test or procedure that is painful, protracted, or intrusive, and is conducted at a location within 75 miles of the residence of the examinee. A defendant may make this demand without leave of court after that defendant has been served or has appeared in the action, whichever occurs first. This demand shall specify the time, place, manner, conditions, scope, and nature of the examination, as well as the identity and the specialty, if any, of the physician who will perform the examination.
- (2) A physical examination demanded pursuant to this subdivision shall be scheduled for a date at least 30 days after service of the demand for it, which period is extended by five days where the service is made by mail, unless on motion of the party demanding the examination the court has shortened this time.
- (3) The defendant shall serve a copy of the demand for this physical examination on the plaintiff and on all other parties who have appeared in the action.
- (4) The plaintiff to whom this demand for a physical examination has been directed shall respond to the demand by a written statement that the examinee either will comply with the demand as stated, or will comply with the demand as specifically modified by the plaintiff, or will refuse, for reasons specified in the response, to submit to the demanded physical examination. Within 20 days after service of the demand, which period is extended by five days where the service was made by mail, the plaintiff to whom the demand is directed shall serve the original of the response to it on the defendant making the demand, and a copy of the response on all other parties who have appeared in the action, unless on motion of the defendant making the demand the court has shortened the time for response, or unless on motion of the plaintiff to whom the demand has been directed, the court has extended the time for response.

(5) If a defendant who has demanded a physical examination pursuant to this subdivision, on receipt of the plaintiff's response to that demand, deems that any modifications of the demand, or any refusal to submit to the physical examination is unwarranted, that defendant may move for an order compelling compliance with the demand. This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by it.

The court may impose a monetary sanction pursuant to Section 2023 against one who does not prevail, and in favor of one who does prevail, on this motion to compel compliance, provided the prevailing party has engaged in a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issues presented by the motion.

- (6) The demand for a physical examination shall not be filed with the court. The demanding party shall retain the original of the demand until six months after final disposition of the action. At that time, the original may be destroyed, unless the court, on motion of any party and for good cause shown, orders that the original be preserved for a longer period.
- (d) If any party desires to obtain discovery by a physical examination other than that described in subdivision (c), or by a mental examination, the party shall obtain leave of court. The motion for the examination shall specify the time, place, manner, conditions, scope, and nature of the examination, as well as the identity and the specialty, if any, of the person or persons who will perform the examination. The motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt to arrange for the examination by an agreement under subdivision (e). If the motion seeks the performance of unusual, painful, protracted, dangerous, or intrusive diagnostic procedures, it shall also be accompanied by a declaration of a physician explaining the necessity for those procedures and the degree of pain or danger involved. Notice of the motion shall be served on the person to be examined and on all parties who have appeared in the action.

The court shall grant a motion for a physical or mental examination only for good cause shown. If a party seeking recovery for personal injuries stipulates that, (1) no claim is being made for an unusual or particularly serious component of mental and emotional distress over and above that usually associated with such physical injuries, and (2) no psychiatric testimony will be presented at trial in support of the claim for damages for this usual mental and emotional distress, a mental examination of a person for whose personal injuries a recovery is being sought shall not be ordered except on a showing of exceptional circumstances. The order granting a physical or mental examination shall specify the person or persons who may perform the examination, and the time, place, manner, diagnostic tests and procedures, conditions, scope, and nature of the examination. The mental examiner and the examinee shall have the right to record the examination on audio tape. However, nothing in this article shall be construed to alter, amend, or affect existing case law with respect to the presence of counsel or other persons during the examination by agreement or court order. If the place of the examination is more than 75 miles from the residence of the person to be examined, the order to submit to it shall be (1) made only on the court's determination that there is good cause for the travel involved, and (2) conditioned on the advancement by the moving party of the reasonable expenses and costs to the examinee for travel to the place of examination.

- (e) In lieu of the procedures and restrictions specified in subdivisions (c) and (d), any physical or mental examination may be arranged by, and carried out pursuant to, a written agreement of the parties.
- (f) If a party required by subdivision (c), (d), or (e) to submit to a physical or mental examination fails to do so, the court, on motion of the party entitled to the examination, may make those orders that are just, including the imposition of an issue sanction, an evidence sanction, or a terminating sanction under Section 2023 against the delinquent party. In lieu of or in addition to that sanction, the court may, on motion of the party, impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against that party and in favor of the party entitled to the examination.

If a party required by subdivision (c), (d), or (e) to produce another for a physical or mental examination fails to do so, the court, on motion of the party entitled to the examination, may make those orders that are just, including the imposition of an issue sanction, an evidence sanction, or a terminating sanction under Section 2023, unless the party failing to comply demonstrates an inability to produce that person for examination. In lieu of or in addition to that sanction, the court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against that party and in favor of the party entitled to the examination.

(g) The attorney for the examinee or for a party producing the examinee, or that attorney's representative, shall be permitted to attend and observe any physical examination conducted for discovery purposes, and to record stenographically or by audio tape any words spoken to or by the examinee during any phase of the examination. This observer may monitor the examination, but shall not participate in or disrupt it.

If in the judgment of the observer the examiner becomes abusive to the examinee or undertakes to engage in unauthorized diagnostic tests and procedures, the observer may suspend the examination to enable the party being examined or producing the examinee to make a motion for a protective order. If the observer begins to participate in or disrupt the examination, the person conducting the physical examination may suspend the examination to enable the party at whose instance it is being conducted to move for a protective order. The court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against anyone who does not prevail, and in favor of anyone who does prevail, on a motion for a protective order.

If the examinee submits or authorizes access to X-rays of any area of his or her body for inspection by the examining physician, no additional X-rays of that area may be taken by the examining physician except with consent of the examinee or on order of the court for good cause shown.

(h) If a party submits to, or produces another for, a physical or mental examination in compliance with a demand under subdivision (c), an order of court under subdivision (d), or an agreement under subdivision (e), that party has the option of making a written demand that the party at whose instance the examination was made deliver to the demanding party (1) a copy of a detailed written report setting out the history, examinations, findings, including the results of all tests made, diagnoses, prognoses, and conclusions of the examiner, and (2) a copy of reports of all earlier examinations of the same condition of the examinee made by that or any other examiner. If this option is exercised, a copy of these reports shall be delivered within 30 days after service of the demand, which period is extended by five days where the service is made by mail, or within 15 days of trial, whichever is earlier.

If the party at whose instance the examination was made fails to make a timely delivery of the reports demanded, the demanding party may move for an order compelling their delivery. This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by it. The court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against one who does not prevail, and in favor of one who does prevail, on a motion to compel delivery of medical reports, if the prevailing party has engaged in a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by the motion.

If a party fails to obey an order compelling delivery of demanded medical reports, the court may make those orders that are just, including the imposition of an issue sanction, an evidence sanction, or a terminating sanction under Section 2023 against the party, or a contempt sanction under Section 2023 against any examiner failing to provide a report of an examination conducted under this section. In lieu of or in addition to those sanctions, the court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against the disobedient party or the examiner. The court shall exclude at trial the testimony of any examiner who fails to submit a report of an examination after having been ordered to do so by the court.

(i) By demanding and obtaining a report of a physical or mental examination under the provisions of subdivision (h), or by taking the deposition of the examiner, the party who submitted to, or produced another for a physical or mental examination waives in the pending action, or in any other action involving the same controversy, any privilege, as well as any protection for work product prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial, that the examinee may have regarding the testimony of every other physician or psychotherapist who has examined or may thereafter examine the party, in respect of the same physical or mental condition.

Nothing in this subdivision requires the disclosure of the identity of an expert consulted in actions for professional negligence pursuant to Section 411.30 or 411.35. Nothing in this section affects existing law as to the disclosure of consulting experts under the lawyer-client privilege or under the protection for work product prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial.

(j) A party receiving a demand for a report under subdivision (h) is entitled at the time of compliance to receive in exchange a copy of any existing written report of any examination of the same condition, as well as the identity of any other physician or psychologist who has examined the same condition, but who has not submitted a report. In addition, that party is entitled to receive, promptly after it has been prepared, any later report of any previous or subsequent examination of that condition, as well as the identity of any physician or psychologist who later examines the same condition, but who does not submit a report.

If a party who has demanded and received delivery of medical reports under subdivision (h) fails to deliver existing or later reports of previous or subsequent examinations, or the identity of examiners who have not submitted reports, a party who has complied with subdivision (h) may move for an order compelling delivery of medical reports and identification of examiners. This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by it. The court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against one who does not prevail, and in favor of one who does prevail, on a motion to compel delivery of medical reports or identification of examiners, if the prevailing party has engaged in a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by the motion.

If a party fails to obey an order compelling delivery of medical reports or identification of examiners, the court may make those orders that are just, including the imposition of an issue sanction, an evidence sanction, or a terminating sanction under Section 2023 against the disobedient party. In lieu of or in addition to the sanction, the court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against that party. The court shall exclude at trial the testimony of any physician or psychologist who has made a report that has not been provided as required by this subdivision.

- SEC. 2. Section 2034 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:
- 2034. (a) After the setting of a trial date for the action, any party may obtain discovery by demanding that all parties simultaneously exchange information concerning each other's expert trial witnesses to the following extent:

- (1) Any party may demand a mutual and simultaneous exchange by all parties of a list containing the name and address of any natural person, including one who is a party, whose oral or deposition testimony in the form of an expert opinion each party expects to offer in evidence at the trial.
- (2) If any expert designated by a party under paragraph (1) is an employee of that party, or has been retained by that party for the purpose of forming and expressing an opinion in anticipation of the litigation or in preparation for the trial of the action, the designation of that witness shall include or be accompanied by an expert witness declaration under paragraph (2) of subdivision (f).
- (3) Any party may also include a demand for the mutual and simultaneous production for inspection and copying of all discoverable reports and writings, if any, made by any expert described in paragraph (2) in the course of preparing that expert's opinion.

This section does not apply to exchanges of lists of experts and valuation data in eminent domain proceedings pursuant to Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 1258.010) of Title 7 of Part 3.

- (b) A demand for an exchange of information concerning expert trial witnesses may be made without leave of court. A party desiring that exchange shall make the demand no later than 90 days before the trial date. On motion, with notice to all parties, the court, for good cause shown, may permit a party to make this demand on a different date. However, in any case where the parties receive less than 120 days notice of the trial date, the court shall set an earlier schedule for any exchange of expert witness information.
- (c) A demand for an exchange of information concerning expert trial witnesses shall be in writing and shall identify, below the title of the case, the party making the demand. The demand shall state that it is being made under this section.

The demand shall specify the date for the exchange of lists of expert trial witnesses, expert witness declarations, and any demand for production of writings. The specified date of exchange shall be at least 20 days after the service of the demand.

- (d) The party demanding an exchange of information concerning expert trial witnesses shall serve a copy of the demand on all parties who have appeared in the action.
- (e) A party who has been served with a demand to exchange information concerning expert trial witnesses may promptly move for a protective order. This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by the motion.

The court, for good cause shown, may make any order that justice requires to protect any party from annoyance, embarassment, oppression, or undue burden and expense. The protective order may include, but is not limited to, one or more of the following directions:

- (1) That the demand be guashed because it was not timely served.
- (2) That the date of exchange be earlier or later than that specified in the demand.

- (3) That the exchange be made only on specified terms and conditions.
- (4) That the production and exchange of any reports and writings of experts be made at a different place or at a different time than that specified in the demand.
- (5) That some or all of the parties be divided into sides on the basis of their identity of interest in the issues in the action, and that the designation of employed or retained experts as described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) be made by any side so created.

(6) That a party or a side reduce the list of employed or retained experts designated by that party or side.

If the motion for a protective order is denied in whole or in part, the court may order that the party to whom the demand is directed, provide or permit the discovery against which the protection was sought on those terms and conditions that are just.

The court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against anyone who does not prevail, and in favor of anyone who does prevail, on a motion for a protective order, if the prevailing party has engaged in a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by the motion.

- (f) The party demanding an exchange of information concerning expert witnesses, and any party served with a copy of that demand, shall exchange this information in writing on or before the date of exchange specified in the demand. The exchange of information may occur at a meeting of the attorneys for the parties involved or by a mailing on or before the date of exchange.
  - (1) The exchange shall include:
- (A) A list setting forth the name and address of any person whose expert opinion that party expects to offer in evidence at the trial.
- (B) A statement that the party does not presently intend to offer the testimony of any expert witness.
- (2) If any witness on the list is an expert described in paragraph (2) of subdivison (a), the exchange shall also include or be accompanied by an expert witness declaration signed by that party's attorney. This declaration shall contain:
- (A) A brief narrative statement of the qualifications of each expert.
- (B) A brief narrative statement of the general substance of the testimony that the expert is expected to give.
- (C) A representation that the expert has agreed to testify at the trial.
- (D) A representation that the expert will be sufficiently familiar with the pending action to submit to a meaningful oral deposition concerning any opinion and its basis.
- (E) A statement of the expert's hourly and daily fee for providing deposition testimony.
- (g) A party who has demanded the production and exchange of reports and writings of any employed expert described in paragraph

- (2) of subdivision (a), and any party served with a copy of that demand, shall produce and exchange, at the place and on the date specified in the demand, all discoverable reports and writings, if any, made by that expert.
- (h) Within 20 days after the exchange described in subdivision (f), any party who engaged in the exchange may submit:
- (1) A supplemental expert witness list containing the name and address of any experts who will express an opinion on a subject to be covered by an expert designated by another party to the exchange, if the party supplementing an expert witness list has not previously retained an expert to testify on that subject.
- (2) An expert witness declaration pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (f) concerning those additional experts.
- (3) All discoverable reports and writings, if any, made by those experts.
- (i) On receipt of an expert witness list from a party, any other party may take the deposition of any person on the list. The procedures for taking oral and written depositions set forth in Sections 2025, 2026, 2027, and 2028 apply to a deposition of a listed trial expert witness except as follows:
- (1) The deposition of a retained or specially employed expert, as described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), shall be taken at a place that is within 75 miles of the courthouse where the action is pending. However, on motion for a protective order by the party designating an expert witness, and on a showing of exceptional hardship, the court may order that the deposition be taken at a more distant place from the courthouse.
- (2) A party desiring to depose any expert, described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) except one who is an employee of the party designating the expert, or any treating physician or other treating health care practitioner who is to be asked to express an opinion, shall pay the reasonable and customary hourly or daily fee for the actual time consumed in the examination of that expert by any party attending the deposition. In a worker's compensation case arising under Division 4 (commencing with Section 3201) or Division 4.5 (commencing with Section 6100) of the Labor Code, a party desiring to depose any expert on another party's expert witness list shall pay this fee.

The party taking the deposition shall accompany the service of the deposition notice with a tender of the expert's fee based on the anticipated length of the deposition. The expert's fee shall be delivered to the attorney for the party designating the expert. If the deposition of the expert takes longer than anticipated, the party giving notice of the deposition shall pay the balance of the expert's fee within five days of receipt of an itemized statement from the expert. The party designating the expert is responsible for any fee charged by the expert for preparing for the deposition and for traveling to the place of the deposition, as well as for any travel expenses of the expert.

- (3) The service of a proper deposition notice accompanied by the tender of expert witness fee described in paragraph (2) is effective to require the party retaining or specially employing the expert to produce the expert for the deposition.
- (4) If a party desiring to take the deposition of an expert witness under this subdivision deems that the hourly or daily fee of that expert for providing deposition testimony is unreasonable, that party may move for an order setting the compensation of that expert. This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by the motion. Notice of this motion shall be given to the expert.

The court shall set the fee of the expert for providing deposition testimony if it determines that the fee demanded by that expert is unreasonable. The court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party who does not prevail, and in favor of any party who does prevail, on a motion to set expert witness fee, if the prevailing party who has engaged in a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issues presented by the motion.

- (j) Except as provided in subdivisions (k), (l), and (m), on objection of any party who has made a complete and timely compliance with subdivision (f), the trial court shall exclude from evidence the expert opinion of any expert that is offered by any party who has failed to do any of the following:
- (1) List that witness as an expert under subdivision (f) on or before the specified date of exchange.
- (2) State in an expert witness declaration the general substance of the testimony of that expert.
- (3) Produce reports and writings of expert witnesses under subdivision (f) on or before any date specified for that production.
- (4) Make that expert available for a deposition under subdivision (i).
- (k) On motion of any party who has engaged in a timely exchange of expert witness information, the court may grant leave to (1) augment that party's expert witness list and declaration by adding the name and address of any expert witness whom that party has subsequently retained, or (2) amend that party's expert witness declaration with respect to the general substance of the testimony that an expert previously designated is expected to give. This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by the motion. The demand, and all expert witness lists and declarations exchanged in response to it shall be lodged with the court when their contents become relevant to an issue in any pending matter in the action.

The court shall grant leave to augment or amend an expert witness list or declaration only if it determines that any party opposing the motion will not be prejudiced in maintaining that party's action or defense on the merits, and that the moving party (1) retained the expert or decided to offer the different or additional testimony of the expert after the date specified for exchange of expert witness information, (2) failed to include the name and address of the expert or the general substance of the different or additional testimony of the expert as a result of mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect on the part of the party seeking leave, (3) sought leave to augment or amend promptly after deciding to call the expert or to offer the different or additional testimony, and (4) has promptly thereafter served a copy of the proposed expert witness information concerning the expert or the testimony, described in subdivision (f), on all other parties who have appeared in the action. Leave shall be conditioned on the moving party making the expert available immediately for a deposition pursuant to subdivision (i), and may include leave to any party opposing the motion to designate additional expert witnesses or to elicit additional opinions from those previously designated.

The court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party who does not prevail, and in favor of any party who does prevail, on a motion to augment expert witness information, if the prevailing party has engaged in a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issues presented by the motion.

(l) On motion of any party who has failed to submit expert witness information on the date specified in a demand for that exchange, the court may grant leave to submit that information on a later date. This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by the motion.

The court shall grant leave to submit tardy expert witness information only if it determines that any party opposing the motion will not be prejudiced in maintaining that party's action or defense on the merits, and that the moving party (1) failed to submit that information as the result of mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect, (2) sought that leave promptly after learning of the mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect, and (3) has promptly thereafter served a copy of the proposed expert witness information described in subdivision (f) on all other parties who have appeared in the action. This order shall be conditioned on the moving party making that expert available immediately for a deposition under subdivision (i), and the order may include leave to any party opposing the motion to designate additional expert witnesses or to elicit additional opinions from those previously designated.

The court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party who does not prevail, and in favor of any party who does prevail, on a motion to submit tardy expert witness information, if prevailing party has engaged in a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issues presented by the motion.

- (m) A party may call as a witness at trial an expert not previously designated by that party if: (1) that expert had been designated by another party and has thereafter been deposed pursuant to subdivision (i); or (2) that expert is called as a rebuttal witness to testify to the falsity or nonexistence of any fact used as the foundation for an expert opinion by any witness called by any other party at the trial. However, the court shall not permit that undesignated rebuttal witness to contradict the opinion itself.
- (n) The demand for an exchange of information concerning expert trial witnesses, and any expert witness lists and declarations exchanged shall not be filed with the court. The party demanding the exchange shall retain both the original of the demand with the original proof of service affixed, and the original of all expert witness lists and declarations exchanged in response to the demand until six months after final disposition of the action. At that time, all originals may be destroyed unless the court, on motion of any party and for good cause shown, orders that the originals be preserved for a longer period.
- SEC. 3. Article 4 (commencing with Section 2037) of Chapter 3 of Title 3 of Part 4 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.
  - SEC. 4. This act shall become operative on July 1, 1987.
- SEC. 5. This act shall become operative only if Assembly Bill No. 169 is enacted.

CHAPTER 1337

An act to amend Section 194.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to jurors, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 194.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

- 194.5. (a) A trial jury in civil actions in municipal and justice courts may consist of eight persons in the County of Los Angeles, pursuant to rules adopted by the Judicial Council, as an experimental project from July 1, 1987, until July 1, 1989.
- (b) The Judicial Council shall appoint an advisory committee which shall include at least one judge of each court or courts in which the project will take place, one court administrator from that court or courts, or his or her designee, and one member of the Los Angeles County Bar Association, Trial Lawyers Section, who practices in the municipal or justice courts, to make recommendations regarding the design of the eight person jury experiment. The Judicial Council shall adopt rules for the implementation of the project, including rules governing the assignment of cases to 8 person juries during the experimental period, and establish procedures for the collection and evaluation of data.

- (c) The Judicial Council shall report to the Legislature no later than January 1, 1990, comparing the performance of 8 and 12 person juries. The comparison shall include, but not be limited to, the following factors:
  - (1) Cross-sectional representation of the community.
- (2) Numbers of verdicts favoring plaintiffs or defendants, and size of awards.
  - (3) Accuracy, consistency, and reliability of awards.
  - (4) Time required for impanelment, trial, and deliberations.
  - (5) Public and private costs of the jury.
- (d) The project courts shall collect and provide to the Judicial Council the data required for a proper evaluation of the experiment.
- SEC. 2. Reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code and, if the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.
- SEC. 3. The sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Judicial Council for the purposes of this act.

CHAPTER 1338

An act to amend Sections 32100, 32101, 32320, 32321, 32351, and 32652 of, to add Section 32724 to, and to add and repeal Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 32900) of Division 15.5 of, the Financial Code, relating to energy, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986]

I am signing Senate Bill No 1146 (with an appropriation reduction) because it provides financial assistance to small businesses for energy efficiency improvements and to purchase equipment for alternative energy conservation and development projects.

I am reducing the $10 million appropriation to the Energy Extension Service for SAFE-BIDCO to establish a small business energy efficiency improvements loan fund to $3 million. The $3 million remaining in this appropriation is consistent with the amount of funds designated in my PVEA expenditure plan for the same purposes, and ensures that adequate funds are available for other high priority programs

With this reduction, I approve Senate Bill No 1146.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission shall establish a small business energy assistance low-interest revolving loan program to fund the purchase of equipment for alternative technology energy projects for California's small businesses.

SEC. 2. Section 32100 of the Financial Code is amended to read: 32100. The Legislature finds:

- (a) That there is a national crisis stemming from the importation of conventional energy fuels for use by American citizens and businesses.
- (b) That the President has called upon Americans to reduce the consumption of conventional energy fuels by both conservation and conversion to alternative energy systems.
- (c) That the Legislature has devised and adopted certain measures to encourage the use of alternative energy systems in California homes and businesses by providing tax credits and a State Energy Commission dedicated to energy management.
  - (d) That it is necessary to increase job opportunities in this state.
- (e) That it is appropriate for the state to assist the development of small businesses in the field of alternative energy development both to provide jobs and to ensure the development of a strong and independent alternative energy industry in this state which is characterized by diffused ownership and competition.
- (f) That a significant proportion of conventional energy fuel consumption can be replaced with alternative energy systems installed in business firms in this state.
- (g) That a major impediment to the growth of small business in the alternative energy industry is the inability to secure financing from conventional business capital markets due to lack of experience in this new industry and lack of sufficient collateral for loans.
- (h) That one impediment to businesses considering converting their present consumption of conventional fueled energy to an alternative energy system is the high initial capital cost of such systems and the lack of appropriate financing from conventional sources.
- (i) That a financing, management and technical assistance corporation requires management and staff which is experienced and knowledgeable in private financial and business matters, which skills are not usually gained by or found in employees of the civil service system.
- (j) That providing financial and technical assistance to small businesses manufacturing or marketing products or services for export to other countries is an appropriate means of stabilizing and providing expanded markets for small businesses in California.
- (k) That providing financial assistance to minority-owned businesses to expand the opportunities for the establishment or expansion of minority-owned businesses is an appropriate means of providing equal opportunity to all of California's citizens.

- SEC. 3. Section 32101 of the Financial Code is amended to read: 32101. The purposes of this division are:
- (a) To provide financing assistance for small businesses in the alternative energy industry.
- (b) To provide financing assistance to small businesses for the purpose of purchasing, installing, replacing, or developing an alternative energy system for use by such business to conserve or replace conventional energy use.
- (c) To provide new employment opportunities for workers in the alternative energy industry.
- (d) To reduce conventional energy consumption by business firms.
  - (e) To promote competition in the alternative energy industry.
- (f) To expand self-employment opportunities for workers in the alternative energy industry.
- (g) To apply the innovation and invention of individuals to the energy shortage problems of this state.
- (h) To encourage the sale for export of alternative energy systems.
- (i) To ensure that business opportunities are available to economically disadvantaged areas and groups in the alternative energy industry.
- (j) To foster increased production capacity in the alternative energy industry, and, therefore, increased preparedness in the event of emergency shortages of conventional fuel supplies.
- (k) To provide technical and management assistance to small businesses which seek financing assistance for alternative energy systems.
- (l) To provide public information and education of energy alternatives for business and residential energy users.
- (m) To provide financial and technical assistance for small businesses manufacturing or marketing products or services for export to other countries.
- (n) To provide financial and technical assistance to expand the opportunities for the establishment or expansion of minority-owned businesses in California.
- SEC. 4. Section 32320 of the Financial Code is amended to read: 32320. The board of directors of the corporation shall consist of seven members, two official and five public directors.
  - SEC. 5. Section 32321 of the Financial Code is amended to read: 32321. (a) The official members of the board shall be:
  - (1) The Secretary of the Business and Transportation Agency.
- (2) One member of the Energy Commission, selected and appointed by the members of the Energy Commission.
  - (b) The public members of the board shall be:
- (1) One member selected and appointed by the Rules Committee;
  - (2) One member selected and appointed by the Speaker; and,

- (3) Three members selected and appointed by the Governor as follows:
- (i) One member with a minimum of three years experience as an officer or member of a labor union;
- (ii) One member with a minimum three years experience as an owner, partner, officer, or employee of an alternative energy business firm, or three years experience as an employee of a private or governmental agency concerned with alternative energy development; and
- (iii) One member with a minimum three years experience as an officer or employee of a financial institution.
- SEC. 6. Section 32351 of the Financial Code is amended to read: 32351. The corporation shall not provide financing assistance to any business firm in this state unless such business firm meets the financial and eligibility criteria for the specific type of financial assistance to be provided by the corporation, including, where appropriate, prior application to a bank or other financial institution for a loan or other financial assistance.
  - SEC. 7. Section 32652 of the Financial Code is amended to read: 32652. The finance officer shall not execute any loan which is not:
- (a) Approved for guarantee by the Small Business Administration, where the minimum amount of such guarantee is not less than 90 percent of the principal amount of such loan;
- (b) Approved for guarantee by any other governmental loan guarantee authority, the minimum amount of such guarantee is not less than 50 percent of the principal amount of such loan;
- (c) Made pursuant to the corporation's participation with the Small Business Administration as a small business investment company or local development company; or
- (d) Less than 16 percent of the total financing package arranged between the corporation and another lender or lenders on behalf of the applicant.
- (e) This section does not apply to loans made pursuant to Section 32724.
  - SEC. 8. Section 32724 is added to the Financial Code, to read:
- 32724. Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, loans or other financing programs undertaken by the corporation in furtherance of the purposes specified in subdivisions (m) and (n) or Section 32101, relating to minority enterprises and export financing, shall be funded from the energy loan fund, or other accounts which the corporation may establish. The board shall promulgate separate loan review procedures and criteria which shall be applicable to loans and other financing programs implemented by the corporation pursuant to this section.
- SEC. 9. Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 32900) is added to Division 15.5 of the Financial Code, to read:

CHAPTER 8. ENERGY EFFICIENCY IMPROVEMENTS

Article 1. Purpose

- 32900. (a) Energy costs account for a growing and substantial portion of the operating costs of small businesses in California.
- (b) Expenditures on energy by small businesses reduce profit margins and increase operational difficulties.
- (c) Substantial reductions in small business energy costs can be realized through the installation of energy conservation, management, and other efficiency improvements.
- (d) Small business typically do not have access to financing at rates and terms which make energy efficiency investments cost effective and feasible.
- (e) Providing financing assistance to small businesses to promote energy efficiency investments is consistent with the guidelines for using federal petroleum violation escrow account funds which provide compensation to energy users who were overcharged by oil companies that violated federal oil price control regulations.

Article 2. Definitions

32905. In addition to the definitions set forth in Article 3 (commencing with Section 32200) and unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions in this article apply throughout this chapter.

32907. "Energy efficiency improvement" means any device, or combination of devices, or modification to the plant, equipment, or process which conserves or reduces the consumption of energy by the applicant through such measures as lighting changes, implementation of load management, or changes in energy facilities reducing the consumption of heat, process heat, space heating, water heating, steam, space cooling, refrigeration, mechanical energy, or electricity.

32909. "Energy Extension Service" means the Energy Extension Service established in the Governor's office.

32911. "Escrow funds" mean those funds received by the state from the designated petroleum violation escrow funds as defined by Section 155 of the Further Continuing Appropriations Act of 1983 (P.L. No. 97-377).

Article 3. Energy Efficiency Improvements Loan Fund

32920. In addition to other accounts the board may establish, the financial accounts of the corporation shall include an energy efficiency improvements loan fund for the purpose of making loans under this chapter and paying for administrative, marketing, and public information costs and establishing a loan-loss reserve.

32922. The purpose of this article is to authorize the corporation to use the funds in the energy efficiency improvements loan fund for measures to reduce the energy consumption of qualifying small businesses through the installation of energy conservation, load management, or other devices to improve energy efficiency at facilities owned or operated by the qualifying small business and nonprofit organization.

32924. Escrow funds appropriated to the corporation may only be used to provide for subsidized loans, or loans with a low interest rate, granted pursuant to this article, except that the corporation may deposit escrow funds not yet used for those purposes in interest bearing accounts with accredited financial institutions. The corporation shall deposit interest earnings on those accounts in the general operating account of the corporation and may be used for purposes designated by the board.

32926. The interest earned on any loans made by the corporation pursuant to this article shall be deposited in the energy efficiency improvements loan fund.

32927. No more than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) of money in the energy efficiency improvements loan fund may be used for initial organizational expenses.

32928. No more than 10 percent of the income generated by the fund may be used for project marketing.

32929. The corporation shall designate an officer of the corporation to administer the loan program established by this article. The officer responsible for the program shall report directly to the president of the corporation.

32930. Priority in ranking loan applications shall be given to small businesses purchasing or implementing energy efficiency improvements by considering the following characteristics in descending order of importance:

- (a) It improves energy efficiency utilization or conserves energy at the highest savings-investment ratio, as provided in Section 32648.
- (b) It improves energy utilization efficiency or conserves energy while developing or advancing the state of the art in technology or services available to small businesses and nonprofit organizations.
- 32932. Loans made under this chapter to small businesses shall be at a fixed rate of interest for a term not exceeding five years. The rate of interest shall not be less than five percentage points below the prevailing published New York prime interest rate.

32936. The corporation shall use its best efforts to set interest rates on loans made under this chapter at the point at which the loan makes an investment in energy efficiency improvements cost effective.

32940. Guidelines for approving loan applications shall be developed by the board on or before May 1, 1987. In developing those guidelines, the board shall incorporate the recommendations adopted by the California Energy Commission with respect to technical criteria which are to be applied to projects receiving loans from the corporation pursuant to this chapter. The corporation may contract with the Energy Commission for the purpose of developing technical guidelines.

32942. Loans shall be approved according to criteria established by a credit committee, chaired by the chief financial officer of the corporation or that officer's designee. The other members of the committee shall be the member of the board appointed by the Energy Commission and the Director of the Energy Extension Service, or their designees.

Article 4. Small Business Energy Accounting

32952. The Energy Extension Service shall develop a program to assist small business owners in reducing their energy costs by providing technical assistance and information through local chambers of commerce and business organizations.

Article 5. Reports

32955. The corporation, California Energy Commission, and the Energy Extension Service shall jointly file a report every two years to the Legislature summarizing program activities under this chapter. The first report shall be filed on or before January 1, 1988.

32960. This chapter shall become inoperative on July 1, 1996, and, as of January 1, 1997, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1997, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

- SEC. 10. Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 13340 and 16361 of the Government Code and to the extent permitted by federal law, the sum of eighteen million dollars ($18,000,000) of the money in the Federal Trust Fund, created by Section 16360 of the Government Code, received by the state from federal oil overcharge funds in the petroleum violation escrow account, as defined by Section 155 of the Further Continuing Appropriations Act of 1983 (P.L. 97-377) or other federal law, and received by the state from federal oil overcharge funds available pursuant to court judgments and federal agency orders, is hereby appropriated to the Controller for disbursement as follows:
- (a) Four million dollars ($4,000,000) to the State Energy Resources and Development Commission to carry out Section 1 of this act.
- (b) Ten million dollars ($10,000,000) to the Energy Extension Service of the Office of Planning and Research for disbursement to the State Assistance Fund for Energy California Business and Industrial Development Corporation, to be deposited in the energy efficiency loan fund established under Section 32920 of the Financial Code.
- (c) Four million dollars ($4,000,000) to the Energy Extension Service to provide small business energy accounting assistance under Section 32952 of the Financial Code.
  - SEC. 11. All moneys received by the state either from federal oil overcharge funds in the Petroleum Violations Escrow Account, as defined by either Section 155 of the Further Continuing Appropriations Act of 1983 (P.L. 97-377) or by any other federal law. or from federal oil overcharge funds available pursuant to court judgments, shall be deposited in the Federal Trust Fund created pursuant to Section 16360 of the Government Code. Funds deposited in the Federal Trust Fund pursuant to this section shall be accounted for separately within the fund and any interest earned on the account shall accrue to that account.

CHAPTER 1339

An act to amend Section 41304 of, to amend and repeal Section 51220 of, and to add Section 51854 to, the Education Code, to add Sections 14005 and 14049 to the Corporations Code, to add Section 50515.5 to the Health and Safety Code, to add Sections 25380 and 25381 to, and to add and repeal Chapter 4.9 (commencing with Section 25390) of, the Public Resources Code, to amend Section 10 of Chapter 1235 of the Statutes of 1984, and to repeal Section 13 of Assembly Bill 2926 of the 1985–86 Regular Session, relating to petroleum violation funds, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986 ]

I am approving Assembly Bill No 694 (with an appropriation reduction) because it provides Petroleum Violation Escrow Account (PVEA) funds to school districts for air conditioning equipment for year-round schools, to small businesses for low-interest loans and technical assistance to reduce their energy costs, and funds for Native American community energy services.

I am reducing the $14,000,000 appropriation for small business loans and technical assistance, commencing with Section 6 and appropriated by Section 13(b)(1), to $3,000,000 In addition, I am eliminating $3,500,000 for housing rehabilitation, commencing with Section 13(c), and eliminating $21,000,000 for local conservation programs, commencing with Chapter 4.9, Section 25390 and appropriated by Section 13(a). These funds duplicate funding in other PVEA bills I am signing for similar purposes.

The remaining $36,000,000 appropriated in this bill is consistent with the amount of funds designated in my PVEA expenditure plan for the same purposes, and ensures that adequate funds are available for other high priority PVEA funded programs. With this reduction, I approve Assembly Bill No 694.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that several oil companies have been found, by the United States Department of Energy and federal courts, to have violated petroleum price controls which were in effect from 1973 to 1981. Through law suits, administrative actions, and settlements, the Department of Energy has been gradually recovering the funds found to have been overcharged. The funds are then being transferred to the states, which are required to use them to provide restitution to those most harmed by the oil overcharges. It appears that at least one major court judgment will require that the funds be expended according to guidelines established by Congress in 1982, in H.R. 631, known as the "Warner Amendment." The Legislature further finds and declares that the expenditures prescribed in this act are consistent with the provisions of H.R. 631 and represent an effective means of providing restitution to those affected by the oil overcharges.

- SEC. 2. Section 41304 of the Education Code is amended to read: 41304. (a) There is appropriated annually from the Driver Training Penalty Assessment Fund to the General Fund in the State Treasury and from the General Fund to the the California Energy Extension Service of the Office of Planning and Research a sum as necessary to establish and maintain a unit for driver instruction within the State Department of Education as set forth in Section 41904.
- (b) In addition, subject to Section 41305, there shall be appropriated from the Driver Training Penalty Assessment Fund to the General Fund, then to the State School Fund each fiscal year, the sum the Superintendent of Public Instruction certifies as necessary to reimburse school districts, county superintendents of schools, the California Youth Authority, and the State Department of Education for the actual cost of instructing pupils in the operation of motor vehicles.

The amount shall not exceed eighty dollars ($80) per pupil instructed in the laboratory phase of driver education in accordance with the rules and regulations of the State Board of Education.

- (c) Subject to Section 41305, there shall also be appropriated from the Driver Training Penalty Assessment Fund the sum the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall certify as necessary to reimburse school districts, county superintendents of schools, the California Youth Authority, and the State Department of Education for the actual cost of replacing vehicles and simulators used exclusively in the laboratory phase of driver education programs, but the amount shall not exceed three-fourths of that part of the actual cost of instructing pupils in the laboratory phase of driver education during the preceding fiscal year which was: (1) in excess of eighty dollars ($80) per pupil instructed, and (2) expended by the district, the county superintendent of schools, the California Youth Authority, and the State Department of Education in replacing the vehicles and simulators. Reimbursement for vehicles shall be computed for only that portion of the total mileage used exclusively in the laboratory phase of driver education programs.
- (d) In addition, subject to Section 41305, there shall be provided from the Petroleum Violation Escrow Account to the General Fund, then to the State School Fund each fiscal year the sum the Superintendent of Public Instruction certifies as necessary to reimburse school districts, county superintendents of schools, the California Youth Authority, and the State Department of Education for the costs of fitting automobile driver training vehicles with the instrumentation required under Section 51854 and to reimburse school districts for the costs of transferring instrumentation providing instructional information on fuel consumption and vehicle fuel efficiency from one automobile driver training vehicle to another under Section 51854.

- (e) In addition, subject to Section 41305, there shall be appropriated from the Petroleum Violation Escrow Account to the Driver Training Penalty Assessment Fund and from the Driver Training Penalty Assessment Fund to the General Fund, then to the Superintendent of Public Instruction each fiscal year the sum the Superintendent of Public Instruction certifies as necessary to reimburse the State Department of Education for the costs of workshops conducted by the department under Section 51854.
- (f) For purposes of computing reimbursement, whenever a school district, a county superintendent of schools, the California Youth Authority, or the State Department of Education replaces a driver training vehicle or simulator purchased by the district with a vehicle or simulator that is a gift or loan, the purchase price of the new or acquired equipment shall be deemed to be the market value of the vehicle or simulator acquired through a gift or loan.

A simulator is any device approved by the State Department of Education to be used in classrooms for purposes of laboratory instruction under simulated driving conditions.

- SEC. 3. Section 51220 of the Education Code is amended to read: 51220. The adopted course of study for grades 7 to 12, inclusive, shall offer courses in the following areas of study:
- (a) English, including knowledge of and appreciation for literature, language, and composition, and the skills of reading, listening, and speaking.
- (b) Social sciences, drawing upon the disciplines of anthropology, economics, geography, history, political science, psychology, and sociology, designed to fit the maturity of the pupils. Instruction shall provide a foundation for understanding the history, resources, development, and government of California and the United States of America; instruction in our American legal system, the operation of the juvenile and adult criminal justice systems, and the rights and duties of citizens under the criminal and civil law and the State and Federal Constitutions; the development of the American economic system including the role of the entrepreneur and labor; man's relations to his human and natural environment; eastern and western cultures and civilizations; human rights issues, with particular attention to the study of the inhumanity of genocide; and contemporary issues.
- (c) Foreign language or languages, beginning not later than grade 7, designed to develop a facility for understanding, speaking, reading, and writing the particular language.
- (d) Physical education, with emphasis given to such physical activities as may be conducive to health and to vigor of body and mind.

- (e) Science, including the physical and biological aspects, with emphasis on basic concepts, theories, and processes of scientific investigation and on man's place in ecological systems, and with appropriate applications of the interrelation and interdependence of the sciences.
- (f) Mathematics, including instruction designed to develop mathematical understandings, operational skills, and insight into problem-solving procedures.
- (g) Fine arts, including art, music, or drama, with emphasis upon development of aesthetic appreciation and the skills of creative expression.
- (h) Applied arts, including instruction in the areas of consumer and homemaking education, industrial arts, general business education, or general agriculture.
- (i) Vocational-technical education designed and conducted for the purpose of preparing youth for gainful employment in such occupations and in such numbers as appropriate to the manpower needs of the state and the community served and relevant to the career desires and needs of the students.
  - (j) Automobile driver education, as follows:
- (1) Automobile driver education, designed to develop a knowledge of the provisions of the Vehicle Code and other laws of this state relating to the operation of motor vehicles, a proper acceptance of personal responsibility in traffic, a true appreciation of the causes, seriousness and consequences of traffic accidents, and to develop the knowledge and attitudes necessary for the safe operation of motor vehicles. A course in automobile driver education shall include education in the safe operation of motorcycles.
- (2) A course in automobile driver education shall also include instruction in vehicular air quality control and inspection, the maintenance and functioning of automobile emission control devices, and the applicable federal and state warranties pertaining thereto, the proper handling of gasoline vapor recovery equipment, and vehicle fuel efficiency techniques. This additional instruction shall be conducted within the regular instructional period.
- (k) Such other studies as may be prescribed by the governing board.
- (l) This section shall remain in effect only until the first of the following occurs:
  - (1) January 1, 1990.
- (2) The repeal of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 44000) of Part 5 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code.

On or after January 1, 1990, or upon the repeal of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 44000) of Part 5 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, whichever occurs first, pursuant to Section 9611 of the Government Code, Section 51220 of the Education Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 1222 of the Statutes of 1985, shall have the same force and effect as if this temporary provision had not been enacted.

- SEC. 4. Section 51854 is added to the Education Code, to read: 51854. (a) The State Department of Education shall adopt rules and regulations requiring all automobile driver training vehicles to be fitted with instrumentation providing instructional information on fuel consumption and vehicle fuel efficiency such as fuel efficiency meters or computerized fuel equipment.
- (b) The department shall conduct workshops to provide in-service training to automobile driver training instructors on fuel-efficient driving which shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following instructional techniques:
  - Minimization of braking.
  - (2) Brisk acceleration to high gear.
  - (3) Methods to emphasize deceleration modes.
  - (4) Reduce idling.
- (5) Methods to anticipate stops and to maintain safe distances between vehicles.
  - (6) The use of momentum and gravity to save fuel.
  - (7) Driving at the most fuel-efficient and safe speeds.
  - (8) Smooth steering, turning, acceleration, and braking.
- (9) The use of fuel-efficient driving instrumentation to remind drivers of methods for fuel-efficient driving.
- (c) The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall review claims submitted by school districts for reimbursement for the costs of fitting automobile driver training vehicles with instrumentation providing information on fuel consumption and vehicle fuel efficiency required by subdivision (a) and may approve claims for reimbursement up to three hundred dollars ($300) per vehicle for the installation of this equipment, including parts and labor. The superintendent may approve claims for reimbursement for the transfer of equipment from one vehicle to another at the reimbursement rates authorized for the replacement of automobile driver training vehicles and simulators. Allowances made to school districts under this subdivision during the first year that the program is in operation shall be allocated by the superintendent from the Petroleum Violation Escrow Account. Allowances made to school districts under this subdivision in subsequent years shall be allocated by the superintendent from the Driver Training Penalty Assessment Fund.
  - SEC. 5. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:
- (a) Energy costs account for a substantial portion of the operating expenses of small businesses in California.
- (b) Expenditures on energy by small businesses reduce profit margins and increase operational difficulties.
- (c) Substantial reductions in small business energy costs can be realized through the installation of energy conservation and management or other efficiency-improving technologies.
- (d) Inadequate financing and technical assistance resources are available to small businesses in California to install or lease these beneficial technologies.

- (e) There currently exists in California in the Small Business Development Corporations and under the State Assistance Fund for Energy a network of agencies that are experienced in providing financial and technical assistance to small businesses but do not have the resources or authorization to assist with the reduction of energy costs by small businesses.
  - SEC. 6. The California Energy Extension Service of the Office of Planning and Research shall develop a program to accomplish all of the following, which are the purpose of Sections 7 and 8 of this act:
  - (a) To promote the health and growth of California's small businesses by providing financial and technical assistance to reduce energy costs.
  - (b) To authorize and fund the state's existing Small Business Development Corporations to provide this assistance because of their proven experience in the field and established network of contacts throughout the state.
  - SEC. 7. Section 14005 is added to the Corporations Code, to read: 14005. The Department of Commerce shall enter into an agreement with the California Energy Extension service of the Office of Planning and Research to assist small business owners in reducing their energy costs through low interest loans and by providing technical assistance and information through regional development corporations.
  - SEC. 8. Section 14049 is added to the Corporations Code, to read: 14049. Regional Development Corporations may grant energy efficiency improvement loans.
  - SEC. 9. Section 50515.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:
  - 50515.5. The Department of Housing and Community Development, pursuant to a contract with the State Office of Economic Opportunity, may provide the following energy assistance activities:
  - (a) A housing rehabilitation program to reduce the consumption of energy in farmworker housing.
  - (b) The development or rehabilitation of energy-efficient residential hotels and centers for principal occupation by senior citizens.
  - (c) Energy conservation measures for low-income residential, single-family dwellings.
  - SEC. 10. Section 25380 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:
  - 25380. (a) The Ridesharing Vanpool Revolving Loan Fund is hereby created in the State Treasury. The fund shall be administered by the commission. The commission shall allocate the funds for the loans to the applicants in accordance with the Department of Transportation's recommendations pursuant to this section. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, all money in the fund is continuously appropriated without regard to fiscal year to the commission to carry out the purposes of this section.

- (b) Any person may submit an application to the department for a low or no interest loan from the fund to purchase a vanpool vehicle, as defined by Section 668 of the Vehicle Code. Title to the vehicle shall be retained by the department until the loan is repaid in full.
- (c) The department shall establish a procedure for making vanpool loans to qualified parties. The procedure shall evaluate the party's ability to repay the loan in a timely fashion as well as the need for the van, with highest priority being assigned to routings with no alternative mass transportation. Concurrently with the award of each loan, the department shall require each applicant to comply with subdivision (h) of Section 12804 of the Vehicle Code, Section 34509 of the Vehicle Code, the financial responsibility laws contained in Division 7 (commencing with Section 16000) of the Vehicle Code. and to name the department as a coinsured. The department shall also establish rules concerning nonwork trip use of the vanpool vehicle. Each loan shall cover no more than 80 percent of the cost of the vanpool vehicle, and shall be repaid over a period of time not to exceed 60 months. Once the loan is repaid in full, title to the vehicle shall be delivered to the applicant. Each successful applicant shall be charged, in addition, a loan origination fee sufficient to cover, at a minimum, the department's costs in administering this program.
- (d) The department shall initially make loans available at no interest for the first year of the loan program. Thereafter, the department shall charge a rate of interest for the future disbursements from repaid principle reasonably calculated to keep the fund at a constant annual level after adjustment for inflation. The department may also increase loan origination fees for this purpose.

SEC. 11. Section 25381 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

25381. The Legislative Analyst shall report to the Legislature on the status of the Ridesharing Vanpool Revolving Loan Fund created by Section 25380 by March 1, 1989. The Legislative Analyst shall specifically consider whether the loan origination fees are adequate to cover the department's costs of administration of this program and to maintain the long-term stability of the fund. The Legislative Analyst shall make recommendations to the Legislature that will help ensure that an adequate amount of loans can continue to be made for vanpool vehicles.

SEC. 12. Chapter 4.9 (commencing with Section 25390) is added to Division 15 of the Public Resources Code, to read:

CHAPTER 4.9. LOCAL ENERGY CONSERVATION PROGRAMS

25390. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Local Energy Conservation Programs Act.

25391. The commission may make grants to cities, counties, and districts that apply for assistance in paying the costs of local energy conservation programs which make energy conservation devices available for installation following a door-to-door canvass and energy efficiency generic audit.

25392. The commission shall develop guidelines for local energy conservation programs. The guidelines shall require that, to be eligible for grants, programs emphasize difficult-to-reach target groups, such as low-income residents, senior citizens, and renters. The guidelines shall also provide that local energy conservation programs which integrate utility programs and reduce or eliminate the cost of the energy conservation devices to the consumer shall be given preference in the award of grants. The grants shall be awarded on a competitive basis.

25393. The granted funds may not be used to pay the cost of the energy conservation devices, including installation, made available under the local energy conservation programs.

25394. Funds received by the commission from appropriations of petroleum violation escrow funds may be expended for the purposes of this chapter.

25395. This chapter shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1989, and shall have no force or effect on or after that date, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends that date.

- SEC. 13. Notwithstanding Sections 13340 and 16361 of the Government Code and to the extent permitted by federal law, the sum of forty-one million five hundred thousand dollars ($41,500,000), subject to Section 14 of this act, is hereby appropriated from funds received by the state either from federal oil overcharge funds in the Petroleum Violations Escrow Account, as defined by either Section 155 of the Further Continuing Appropriations Act of 1983 (P.L. 97-377) or by any other federal law, or from federal oil overcharge funds available pursuant to court judgments, for allocation as follows:
- (a) Twenty-one million dollars ($21,000,000) to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission to be distributed as follows:
- (1) Sixteen million five hundred thousand dollars ($16,500,000) for expenditure for the purposes of Chapter 4.9 (commencing with Section 25390) of Division 15 of the Public Resources Code, except that this appropriation shall be reduced by the amount of any appropriation for these purposes contained in any other act enacted in the 1986 portion of the 1985–86 Regular Session of the Legislature.
- (2) Seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000) for allocation to the Superintendent of Public Instruction to fund workshops conducted by the State Department of Education pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 51854 of the Education Code and for reimbursements pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 41304 of the Education Code, except that this appropriation shall be reduced by the amount of any appropriation for these purposes contained in any other act enacted in the 1986 portion of the 1985–86 Regular Session of the Legislature.
- (3) One hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) for allocation to the City of Los Angeles for its Department of Transportation to conduct a six- to nine-month feasibility study of a high-flow arterial on the segment of Victory Boulevard between Fallbrook and Cahuenga. The study shall evaluate the use of limited access, grade separated intersections, turn lanes and phasing, signal optimization and elimination, median modifications, lane restriping, and other route alterations, as a demonstration project to show the relationship between enhanced traffic flow and the reduction of fuel consumption. The study shall include an analysis of traffic conditions based on average daily traffic, peak hour volumes, traffic signal timing, and field observations.

- (4) Six hundred thousand dollars ($600,000) for allocation to the City of Los Angeles for its Department of Transportation for use in its Fuel Efficient Traffic Signal Management System, to optimize signals on the segment of Victory Boulevard between Fallbrook and Cahuenga.
- (5) One million dollars ($1,000,000) for allocation to the State Department of Transportation for purposes of financing a transportation demonstration project to conserve gasoline and diesel fuel by improving transportation flow through more effective utilization of arterial street systems in conjunction with the interstate highway system and a program of event management at high traffic generation sites, located in a geographic area adjacent to a professional football-baseball stadium and at least one major amusement park facility.
- (6) Two million dollars ($2,000,000) for deposit in the Ridesharing Vanpool Revolving Loan Fund created by Section 25380 of the Public Resources Code.
- (b) Seventeen million dollars ($17,000,000) to the California Energy Extension Service of the Office of Planning and Research, to be distributed as follows:
- (1) Fourteen million dollars ($14,000,000) for allocation to the Department of Commerce for the purposes specified in Section 6 of this act.
- (2) Three million dollars ($3,000,000) for Native American community energy services. The energy service shall provide direct personalized assistance in designing energy-efficient housing and community buildings, renovating existing units, and economic development assistance through the development of renewable energy production facilities and other energy services on Indian lands.
- (c) Three million five hundred thousand dollars ($3,500,000) to the State Office of Economic Opportunity for the purposes specified in Section 50515.5 of the Health and Safety. Code, as follows:
- (1) One million dollars ($1,000,000) for purposes of subdivision (a) of that section.
- (2) One million dollars ($1,000,000) for purposes of subdivision (b) of that section.
- (3) One million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000) for purposes of subdivision (c) of that section.

- SEC. 15. The Legislature finds and declares that the court judgment in the decision of the United States District Court for the District of Kansas, Case Number MDL-378, dated July 17, 1986, which awarded states a portion of federal petroleum violation escrow account funds, stipulated that each state must fund existing or new low-income programs in a manner that provides low-income consumers with an equitable share of the funds allocated.
- SEC. 16. From funds received by the state from the court judgment in the decision of the United States District Court for the District of Kansas, Case Number MDL-378, dated July 7, 1986, the sum of thirty million dollars ($30,000,000) is hereby appropriated to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission for the following purposes:
- (a) For allocation to school districts selected by the State Allocation Board pursuant to this section, for the purchase of air-conditioning equipment and insulation materials, and for the expenses of installing the equipment and materials, for schools operating on a year-round or continuous basis pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 37400), Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 37500), or Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 37600) of Part 22 of the Education Code.
- (b) The State Allocation Board shall recommend allocations of the funds appropriated under subdivision (a) only to those school districts in which a high percentage of the pupils, or a significant number of the pupils, are enrolled in year-round or continuous schools as described in subdivision (a). The board shall grant preference in the allocation of those funds to those school districts located in climates in which the need for air-conditioning and insulation in June, July, and August is greatest, that have the largest number of pupils enrolled in year-round or continuous schools, as referred to in subdivision (a), and that have the greatest degree of overcrowding of pupils in those schools.

This section shall become operative only if Section 13 of AB 2926 is repealed.

- SEC. 17. Section 13 of Assembly Bill 2926 of the 1985-86 Regular Session is repealed.
- SEC. 18. Section 16 of this bill shall become operative only if this bill and AB 2926 are enacted and this bill is enacted last.

CHAPTER 1340

An act to add Chapter 7.2 (commencing with Section 25625) and Chapter 7.6 (commencing with Section 25675) to Division 15 of the Public Resources Code, relating to energy resources, and making an appropriation therefor.

> [Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986 ]

I am signing Senate Bill No. 1147 (with an appropriation reduction) because it will provide funds for demonstration projects to determine the technical and economic feasibility of using methanol and biomass-derived fuel to lessen our dependence on imported oil and to improve air quality by reducing emission. I am reducing the $7,500,000 apropriation for the Clean Fuels Account to $5,000,000. by reducing the amounts for demonstration projects for methanol-powered diesel engines and financial assistance to public and private transit operations for methanol-powered transit buses. In addition, I am eliminating the $6,500,000 in the Clean Fuels Act, which provides a financial incentive for liquid fuels produced from biomass-derived resources.

The remaining $5,000,000 appropriated in this bill is consistent with the amount of funds designated in my Petroleum Violation Escrow Account (PVEA) expenditure plan for the same purposes, and ensures that adequate funds are available for other high priority PVEA funded programs

With this deletion, I approve Senate Bill No. 1147

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 7.2 (commencing with Section 25625) is added to Division 15 of the Public Resources Code, to read:

CHAPTER 7.2. CLEAN FUELS ACCOUNT

25625. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

- (a) Air pollution in California remains a significant threat to public health and the environment and urban areas are in need of special efforts to reduce harmful emissions.
- (b) That recent studies have found that increasing levels of particulates and other pollutants from diesel engines are a major contributor to visibility and other air pollution problems, including acid deposition.
- (c) That despite efforts to regulate emissions from heavy-duty diesel engines, harmful pollutants from these vehicles have proven difficult to control with current technology, and as a consequence, the implementation of more stringent emission standards may result in adverse effects on performance and fuel economy.
- (d) That state and federal researchers have determined that methanol fuel has demonstrated the potential for significant air quality improvements beyond the levels which can be achieved by conventional gasoline and diesel engines, and that methanol fuel can be produced from a variety of abundant domestic energy sources, including natural gas, coal, and biomass.
  - (e) That reducing dependence on imported petroleum and increasing the security of transportation fuel supplies are important elements of the state's energy policy.

- (f) That because of the potential environmental and energy security benefits of expanded methanol fuel use, along with the prospect of increased competitiveness of the fuels market, it is consistent with the goal of restitution to energy consumers for the Legislature to appropriate a portion of the state's allocation of petroleum violation escrow funds for methanol demonstration programs and for financial incentives to private industry and local governments to expand methanol fuel use.
- 25626. (a) The commission, in conjunction with the State Air Resources Board, shall carry out a program of technology development and financial assistance to expand the use of methanol fuel as a means of reducing air pollution, assuring the state's energy security, and increasing the competitiveness of fuel markets. The program shall include all of the following:
- (1) A project demonstrating the technological and economic feasibility and environmental impacts of utilizing methanol fuel in heavy-duty diesel engines of 500 horsepower or less, as used by the state's trucking industry.
- (2) A project demonstrating the technological and economic feasibility and environmental impacts of utilizing methanol fuel in heavy-duty diesel engines of 1000 horsepower or more, as used by railroad locomotives and marine vessels.
- (3) Technical and financial assistance for public and private transit operators for the acquisition and operation of new and retrofitted methanol-powered transit buses.
- (4) Technical and financial assistance for vehicle fleet operations of state and local agencies, and private rideshare programs, to underwrite the differential costs of the purchase of flexible fuel vehicles and the establishment of necessary fueling facilities. For purposes of this chapter, "flexible fuel vehicles" means vehicles which can operate on either alcohol fuels or premium unleaded gasoline, or a combination thereof.
- (b) The program undertaken pursuant to this chapter shall be conducted with the maximum feasible financial and technical participation of private industry and other government agencies in order to assure that the risks and benefits of the program are shared with industry and other levels of government.
- 25627. The Clean Fuels Account is hereby created as a separate account in the General Fund.
- 25628. The seven million five hundred thousand dollars ($7,500,000) appropriated to the commission from the Clean Fuels Account by the act enacting this chapter shall be allocated for purposes of carrying out the program in Section 25626 as follows:
- (a) Two million dollars ($2,000,000) for technology demonstration programs for methanol-powered heavy-duty diesel engines under paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 25626.

- (b) Three million dollars ($3,000,000) for financial assistance to public and private transit operators for the acquisition and operation of methanol-powered transit buses under paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 25626.
- (c) Two million five hundred thousand dollars ($2,500,000) for financial assistance to state and local agencies, and private rideshare programs, for the purchase of flexible fuel vehicles for fleet operations under paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 25626.

SEC. 2. Chapter 7.6 (commencing with Section 25675) is added to Division 15 of the Public Resources Code, to read:

CHAPTER 7.6. CLEAN FUELS ACT

25675. The commission shall establish a grant program which provides a forty cent ($0.40) per gallon production incentive for liquid fuels fermented in this state from biomass and biomass-derived resources produced in this state. Eligible liquid fuels include, but are not limited to, ethanol, methanol, and vegetable oils. Eligible biomass resources include, but are not limited to, agricultural products and byproducts, forestry products and byproducts, and industrial wastes. The commission shall adopt rules and regulations necessary to implement the program. Prior to determining an applicant eligible for participation in the production incentive program, the commission shall find, among other things, that the production techniques employed will lead to a net increase in the amount of energy available for consumption.

25676. Applicants for a grant under this chapter shall submit an application on a form prescribed by the commission which is responsible for administration of the program.

- SEC. 3. The Legislature finds and declares that because ethanol and other clean fuels act as displacement fuel for depleting supplies of crude oil, it is consistent with the goal of restitution to energy consumers for the Legislature to appropriate a portion of the state's allocation of petroleum violation escrow funds for an ethanol production incentive to private industry to expand ethanol use.
- SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Sections 13340 and 16361 of the Government Code, and to the extent permitted by federal law, the sum of fourteen million dollars ($14,000,000) of the money in the Federal Trust Fund, created by Section 16360 of the Government Code, received by the state from federal oil overcharge funds in the petroleum violation escrow account as defined by Section 155 of the Further Continuing Appropriation Act of 1983 (P.L. 97-377) or other federal law, and received by the state from federal oil overcharge funds available pursuant to court judgments and federal agency orders, is hereby appropriated as follows:
- (a) Seven million five hundred thousand dollars ($7,500,000) is transferred to the Clean Fuels Account and is hereby appropriated from the account for expenditure by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission to carry out Chapter

- 7.2 (commencing with Section 25625) of Division 15 of the Public Resources Code.
- (b) Six million five hundred thousand dollars ($6,500,000) is appropriated to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission to carry out Chapter 7.6 (commencing with Section 25675) of Division 15 of the Public Resources Code.

CHAPTER 1341

An act relating to energy resources, and making an appropriation therefor.

> [Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

I am approving Senate Bill No. 1145 (with an appropriation reduction) because it will provide financial and technical assistance to California farmers, and in particular, with provide manicial and technical assistance to Camoria farmers, and in particular, to small family farms, through a farm energy assistance program.

I am deleting the $2.5 million appropriation to the Energy Technologies Research, Development, and Demonstration Account to carry out demonstration projects, because there are currently sufficient funds available in this account for projects of this nature. The $5 million remaining in this appropriation is consistent with the amount of funds designated in my PVEA expenditure plan for the same purposes, and ensures that adequate funds are available for other high priority programs.

With this reduction, Lapproprise Senate Bill No. 1145.

With this reduction, I approve Senate Bill No 1145.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding Sections 13340 and 16361 of the Government Code and to the extent permitted by federal law, the sum of seven million five hundred thousand dollars ($7,500,000) of the money in the Federal Trust Fund, created by Section 16360 of the Government Code, received by the state from federal oil overcharge funds in the petroleum violation escrow account as defined by Section 155 of the Further Continuing Appropriations Act of 1983 (P.L. 97-377) or other federal law, and received by the state from federal oil overcharge funds available pursuant to court judgments, is hereby appropriated and transferred in accordance with the following schedule:

- (a) Two million five hundred thousand dollars ($2,500,000) to the Energy Technologies Research, Development, and Demonstration Account for the use by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission to carry out demonstration projects, but not research and development, pursuant to Chapter 7.8 (commencing with Section 25680) of Division 15 of the Public Resources Code.
- (b) Five million dollars ($5,000,000) to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission for a farm energy assistance program as follows:
  - (1) One million dollars ($1,000,000) to the commission for technical assistance for agriculture energy extension services, including, but not limited to, education and support programs on energy conservation practices and the use of alternative energy sources. The commission, in coordination with the Department of Food and Agriculture, shall enter into an agreement with the University of California to provide the services. The university shall attempt to make the service available to all farmers and, in particular, to small family farms.

- (2) One million dollars ($1,000,000) to the commission for allocation for demonstrations of existing and new energy conservation tillage and harvesting techniques.
- (3) Three million dollars ($3,000,000) to the commission for a revolving loan fund for loans for the purchase of equipment and services for agriculture energy conservation and development demonstration projects, including, but not limited to, production of methane or ethanol, use of wind, photovoltaics, and other sources of energy for irrigation pumping, application of load management conservation techniques, improvements in water pumping and pressurization techniques, and conservation tillage techniques. The loans shall contain terms providing for a repayment period of not more than seven years and for interest at a rate which is not less than 2 percent below the rate earned by moneys in the Pooled Money Investment Account.
- SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that California's agriculture industry is facing rising energy costs which are adding to the serious financial plight faced by the industry; that the agriculture industry in general and, in particular, small family farms, require assistance to promote energy conservation techniques and to take full advantage of less costly alternative sources of energy; and that the establishment of a state energy assistance program for farmers will help the agriculture industry reduce energy costs and aid California's farmers in their efforts to remain strong and competitive.

CHAPTER 1342

An act relating to energy assistance, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State Septembe 29, 1986.]

I am approving Senate Bill No 1144 (with an appropriation reduction) because it will enhance the administration of the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) and provide assistance to low-income individuals

I am deleting the $15 million appropriation to the Energy Crisis Intervention Program (ECIP) and reducing by $10 million the appropriation to the Home Energy Assistance Program (HEAP) because these programs are of low priority in relation to other alternative uses of PVEA funding. The $40 million remaining in this appropriation is consistent with the amount of funds designated in my PVEA expenditure plan for the same purposes, and ensures that adequate funds are available for other high priority PVEA funded programs

With this reduction, I approve Senate Bill No 1144.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

- (a) The State of California has received a substantial amount of federal Petroleum Violation Escrow Account funding to provide restitution to individuals who were injured as a result of improper oil company overcharges.
- (b) Congressional directives authorizing the expenditure of Petroleum Violation Escrow Account funds emphasize that low-income energy assistance programs should be funded.
- (c) According to a report prepared for the California Energy Commission, the low-income population constitutes up to 15-20 percent of California's citizens, and these citizens suffer energy costs 350 percent greater than higher income households.
- (d) In his recent budget request, the President of the United States requested substantial reductions in federal expenditures for low-income home energy assistance programs on the basis that Petroleum Violation Escrow Account funds will be used for these purposes.
- (e) It is essential that California allocate a substantial portion of Petroleum Violation Escrow Account funds for low-income energy assistance programs to provide restitution to low-income groups who were disproportionately injured by oil overcharges and to ensure that sufficient funds are available to continue home energy assistance programs that are threatened by federal budget reductions.
- SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Sections 13340 and 16361 of the Government Code, and to the extent permitted by federal law, the sum of sixty-five million dollars ($65,000,000) is hereby appropriated from funds in the Federal Trust Fund, created pursuant to Section 16360 of the Government Code, received by the state either from federal oil overcharge funds in the Petroleum Violations Escrow Account, as defined by either Section 155 of the Further Continuing Appropriations Act of 1983 (P.L. 97-377) or by any other federal law, or from federal oil overcharge funds available pursuant to court judgments or federal agency orders, to the Department of Economic Opportunity for allocation as follows:
- (a) The sum of thirty million dollars ($30,000,000) shall be allocated for weatherization projects, provided for under subdivision (b) of Section 16367.5 of the Government Code and subdivision (e) of Section 16367.61 of the Government Code, to be allocated as follows:
- (1) Twenty-five million dollars ($25,000,000) for the existing weatherization program.
- (2) Four million dollars ($4,000,000) to establish, during the 1987 program year, a new weatherization program to replace and repair gas and electric units.

- (3) The sum of one million dollars ($1,000,000) to establish, during the 1987 program year, a maintenance program for previously weatherized homes.
- (b) The sum of fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000) for the Energy Crisis Intervention Program, provided for under subdivision (c) of Section 16367.5 of the Government Code.
- (c) The sum of twenty million dollars ($20,000,000) for the Home Energy Assistance Program, provided for under subdivision (e) of Section 16367.5 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 1343

An act to add and repeal Chapter 5.4 (commencing with Section 25440) of Division 15 of the Public Resources Code, relating to energy resources; and making an appropriation therefor.

> [Approved by Governor September 28, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

I am approving Senate Bill No 880 (with an appropriation reduction) because it will provide financial and technical assistance to local jurisdictions, higher education, and

School districts for energy conservation and development projects

I am reducing the $9 million appropriation for loans to purchase energy efficient equipment and small power production systems for local jurisdictions to $4 million The $40.5 million remaining in this appropriation is consistent with the amount of funds designated in my PVEA expenditure plan for the same purposes, and ensures that adequate funds are available for other high priority programs.

With this reduction, I approve Senate Bill No 880

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 5.4 (commencing with Section 25440) is added to Division 15 of the Public Resources Code, to read:

CHAPTER 5.4. LOCAL JURISDICTION ENERGY ASSISTANCE

Article 1. General Provisions

The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

- (a) Energy costs account for a growing and substantial portion of the operating expenses for local governments, and other local jurisdictions in California.
- (b) Substantial reductions in local jurisdiction energy costs can be the utilization of energy conservation, realized through management, and development techniques.
- (c) Provision of financial assistance to local jurisdictions to reduce energy costs is consistent with the guidelines for using federal petroleum violation escrow funds which provide compensation to energy users who were overcharged by oil companies that violated federal oil price control regulations.

25440.5. "Local jurisdiction" means any city, county, or regional planning agency, or any combination thereof formed for the joint exercise of any power.

Article 2. Training and Management Assistance

25441. The commission shall provide financial assistance to local jurisdictions for the purpose of providing staff training and support services, including technical support services, in the fields of planning, design, permitting, conservation, comprehensive energy management, and development of energy and energy resources.

25441.5. Financial assistance provided to local jurisdictions under this article may not exceed 75 percent of the cost of carrying out the activity, unless the commission determines, by unanimous vote, that the public interest and objectives of this chapter would be better served at a higher level of state funding.

Article 3. Energy Project Assistance

- 25442. The commission shall provide loans to local jurisdictions for all of the following purposes:
- (a) Purchase, maintenance, and evaluation of energy efficient equipment for existing and new facilities, including, but not limited to, equipment related to lights, motors, pumps, water and wastewater systems, boilers, heating, and air conditioning.
- (b) Purchase, maintenance, and evaluation of small power production systems, including, but not limited to, wind, cogeneration, photovoltaics, geothermal, and hydroelectric systems.
- (c) Improve the operating efficiency of existing local transportation systems.
- 25442.5. The commission may award financial assistance for project audits, feasibility studies, engineering and design, and legal and financial analysis related to the purposes of Section 25442.
- 25442.7. Loans under this article may not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000) for any one local jurisdiction and financial assistance under this article may not exceed 75 percent of the project cost, unless the commission determines, by unanimous vote, that the public interest and objectives of this chapter would be better served at a higher loan amount.

Loan repayments shall be made in accordance with a schedule established by the commission. Repayment of loans shall be made in full unless the commission determines, by unanimous vote, that the public interest and objectives of this chapter would be better served by negotiating a reduced loan repayment for a project which failed to meet the technical or financial performance criteria through no fault of the local jurisdiction.

25443. Principal and interest payments on loans under this article shall be returned to the commission and shall be used to make additional loans to local jurisdictions pursuant to Section 25449.2.

Article 4. Program Design and Advisory Committee

25445. The commission shall design a local jurisdiction energy assistance program for the purpose of providing financial assistance under Article 2 (commencing with Section 25441) and providing loans under Article 3 (commencing with Section 25442) by March 1, 1987, following consideration of recommendations from an advisory committee appointed by the commission under Section 25447. A local jurisdiction's energy assistance program shall be funded through the commission's existing local government assistance programs, except that if a project is not eligible for funding under an existing program, the commission may fund the project under this chapter.

25446. Loans made pursuant to this program shall, at a minimum, be evaluated on all of the following factors:

- (a) Project feasibility.
- (b) Local jurisdiction financial contribution to project.
- (c) Energy savings or energy production potential sufficient to repay the loan in accordance with Section 25442.
  - (d) Availability of other federal or state funds.
  - (e) Potential for project replication in other local jurisdictions.
  - (f) Environmental benefits.
  - (g) Economic development benefits.
- (h) Consistency with California energy policies as reflected in the commission's biennial report.
- 25447. The commission shall appoint an advisory committee consisting of 10 members, as follows:
- (a) Three members of county government appointed from a list of nominees submitted by the County Supervisors Association of California.
- (b) Three members of city governments appointed from a list of nominees submitted by the League of California Cities.
- (c) One member from the Department of Transportation knowledgeable about energy saving transportation.
- (d) Three other members, one of whom is knowledgeable about energy conservation, management, and production, and one of whom is knowledgeable about energy system financing.
- 25447.1. The advisory committee shall make recommendations to the commission under Section 25445, shall meet periodically to review the ongoing administration of the program established pursuant to this chapter, and may include comments and recommendations in the biennial reports to the Legislature required by Section 25449.1.
- 25447.2. Members of the advisory committee shall receive no compensation, but shall be reimbursed for necessary and reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

Article 5. Energy Saving Transportation Program

25448. The Department of Transportation shall award financial assistance to local jurisdictions for the purposes of providing technical assistance and equipment to improve traffic flow efficiency through optimized traffic signal timing and operations.

25448.1. Financial assistance provided under this article may not exceed 75 percent of the cost of carrying out the activity, unless the department determines that the public interest and objectives of this chapter would be better served at a higher level of state funding.

Article 6. Miscellaneous

- 25449. The commission shall enter into an agreement with the Regents of the University of California, the Trustees of the California State University, and the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges for the expenditure of petroleum violation escrow funds to supplement, and not supplant, other available funds to improve energy efficiency at state-supported universities and colleges under their respective jurisdictions by funding projects involving any of the following:
  - (a) Data collection.
  - (b) Establishment of operations and maintenance standards.
  - (c) Staff training.
  - (d) Ongoing energy equipment maintenance.
- (e) Projects involving heating, ventilation, air conditioning, and lighting equipment.
- 25449.1 (a) The California Energy Extension Service of the Office of Planning and Research shall enter into an agreement with the State Department of Education to expend petroleum violation escrow funds to supplement, and not supplant, other available funds in order to provide grants to school districts for training and support services for planning and management of energy conservation and development projects.
- (b) The commission shall enter into an agreement with the State Department of Education to expend petroleum violation escrow funds to supplement, and not supplant, other available funds in order to provide loans to school districts to purchase, maintain, and evaluate energy efficient equipment and small power production systems.
- 25449.2. The commission and the Department of Transportation each shall submit a report to the Legislature by January 1, 1988, and every two years thereafter, summarizing program activities under this chapter.
- 25449.3. The Local Jurisdiction Energy Assistance Account is hereby established as a separate account in the General Fund. All moneys appropriated for purposes of this chapter and all moneys received from local jurisdictions from loan repayments shall be deposited in the account and disbursed by the Controller as authorized by the commission.

- 25449.4. This chapter shall become inoperative on July 1, 1996, and, as of January 1, 1997, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1997, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.
- SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Sections 13340 and 16361 of the Government Code and to the extent permitted by federal law, the sum of forty-five million five hundred thousand dollars ($45,500,000) of the money in the Federal Trust Fund, created by Section 16360 of the Government Code, received by the state from the designated petroleum violation escrow funds, as defined by Section 155 of the Further Continuing Appropriations Act of 1983 (P.L. 97-377) or other federal law received by the state from federal oil overcharge funds available pursuant to court judgments and federal agency orders, is hereby appropriated as follows:
- (a) Nineteen million dollars ($19,000,000) to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission for the purposes of Chapter 5.4 (commencing with Section 25440) of Division 15 of the Public Resources Code, with ten million dollars ($10,000,000) to be expended for training and management assistance under Article 2 (commencing with Section 25441) of Chapter 5.4, and nine million dollars ($9,000,000) to be expended for energy project assistance loans under Article 3 (commencing with Section 25442) of Chapter 5.4.
- (b) Seven million five hundred thousand dollars ($7,500,000) to the Department of Transportation for expenditure for transportation activities under Article 5 (commencing with Section 25448) of Chapter 5.4.
- (c) Twelve million dollars ($12,000,000) to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission for purposes of Section 25449 of the Public Resources Code, to be expended for state-supported university and college facility projects.
- (d) Four million dollars ($4,000,000) to the California Energy Extension Service of the Office of Planning and Research, to be expended pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25449.1 of the Public Resources Code.
- (e) Three million dollars ($3,000,000) to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission for the purposes of Chapter 5.4 (commencing with Section 25440) of Division 15 of the Public Resources Code, to be expended pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 25449.1 of that code.

CHAPTER 1344

An act to amend Section 19990 of the Government Code, relating to state employees.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19990 of the Government Code is amended to read:

1990. A state officer or employee shall not engage in any employment, activity, or enterprise which is clearly inconsistent, incompatible, in conflict with, or inimical to his or her duties as a state officer or employee.

Each appointing power shall determine, subject to approval of the department, those activities which, for employees under its jurisdiction, are inconsistent, incompatible or in conflict with their duties as state officers or employees. Activities and enterprises deemed to fall in these categories shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

- (a) Using the prestige or influence of the state or the appointing authority for the officer's or employee's private gain or advantage or the private gain of another.
- (b) Using state time, facilities, equipment, or supplies for private gain or advantage.
- (c) Using, or having access to, confidential information available by virtue of state employment for private gain or advantage or providing confidential information to persons to whom issuance of this information has not been authorized.
- (d) Receiving or accepting money or any other consideration from anyone other than the state for the performance of his or her duties as a state officer or employee.
- (e) Performance of an act in other than his or her capacity as a state officer or employee knowing that the act may later be subject, directly or indirectly to the control, inspection, review, audit, or enforcement by the officer or employee.
- (f) Receiving or accepting, directly or indirectly, any gift, including money, or any service, gratuity, favor, entertainment, hospitality, loan, or any other thing of value from anyone who is doing or is seeking to do business of any kind with the officer's or employee's appointing authority or whose activities are regulated or controlled by the appointing authority under circumstances from which it reasonably could be substantiated that the gift was intended to influence the officer or employee in his or her official duties or was intended as a reward for any official actions performed by the officer or employee.
  - (g) Subject to any other laws, rules, or regulations as pertain thereto, not devoting his or her full time, attention, and efforts to his or her state office or employment during his or her hours of duty as a state officer or employee.

The department shall adopt rules governing the application of this section. The rules shall include provision for notice to employees prior to the determination of proscribed activities and for appeal by employees from such a determination and from its application to an employee. Until the department adopts rules governing the application of this section, as amended in the 1985–86 Regular Session of the Legislature, existing procedures shall remain in full force and effect.

If the provisions of this section are in conflict with the provisions of a memorandum of understanding reached pursuant to Section 3517.5, the memorandum of understanding shall be controlling without further legislative action, except that if such provisions of a memorandum of understanding require the expenditure of funds, the provisions shall not become effective unless approved by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act.

CHAPTER 1345

An act to amend Section 226.55 of the Civil Code, relating to adoption.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 226.55 of the Civil Code is amended to read: 226.55. The State Department of Social Services, a local public adoption agency, or a licensed private adoption agency shall require all persons filing an application or a petition to adopt a child to be fingerprinted and shall secure from an appropriate law enforcement agency any criminal record of that person to determine whether the person has ever been convicted of a crime other than a minor traffic violation. Those agencies may also secure the full criminal record, if any, of those persons. The record, if any, shall be taken into consideration when evaluating a prospective adoptive parent, and an assessment of the effects of his or her criminal history on the ability of the prospective adoptive parent to provide adequate and proper care and guidance to the child shall be included in the report to the court. Any fee charged by a law enforcement agency for fingerprinting or for checking or obtaining the criminal record of the applicant or petitioner shall be paid by the applicant or petitioner. The adoption agency or the State Department of Social Services may defer, waive, or reduce the fee when its payment would cause economic hardship to the adoptive parents detrimental to the welfare of the adopted child, when the child has been in the foster care of the adoptive parents for at least one year, or if necessary for the placement of a special-needs child. A special-needs child is a child whose adoption without financial assistance would be unlikely because of adverse parental background, ethnic background, race, color, language, membership in a sibling group which should remain intact, mental, physical, medical, or emotional handicaps or age of three years or more.

SEC. 2. Pursuant to Section 17579 of the Government Code, the Legislature finds that there is no mandate contained in this act which will result in costs incurred by a local agency or school district for a new program or higher level of service which require reimbursement pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 1346

An act to add Section 226 to the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to agriculture, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 226 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

- 226. (a) Notwithstanding Section 11044 of the Government Code, the sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) is hereby continuously appropriated from the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund in each fiscal year to the department for litigation expenses incurred by the Bureau of Market Enforcement in civil actions undertaken by the bureau and charged by the Attorney General.
- (b) At any time in a given fiscal year that the one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) appropriated for litigation costs in subdivision (a) is completely expended, the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund and the General Fund shall share additional litigation costs on a basis of 20 percent paid by the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund and 80 percent paid by the General Fund. These additional funds are to be used only when the bureau or the department is a defendant, or becomes a cross-defendant, in an action relating to market enforcement.
- (c) If a legal action is carried from one fiscal year to the next, the costs incurred in the following year shall not be charged against the one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) annually allocated pursuant to subdivision (a) to the bureau, but instead shall continue to be funded in the following years with 80 percent being paid by the General Fund and 20 percent being paid by the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund.

(d) In civil actions in which the bureau is a party, the prevailing party may be awarded court costs and attorneys fees.

CHAPTER 1347

An act to amend Sections 3719, 3740, 3761, 3762, and 3774 of, to add and repeal Sections 3755 and 3756 of, and to repeal Section 3743 of, the Business and Professions Code, relating to respiratory therapy, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3719 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

3719. The examining committee shall develop and implement rules and regulations for continuing education within two years of the effective date of this chapter. Continuing education requirements shall not exceed 15 hours every two years.

A successfully completed examination approved by the committee may be submitted by a licensee for continuing education credit. The committee shall determine the hours of credit to be granted for passage of particular examinations.

- SEC. 2. Section 3740 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:
- 3740. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, all applicants for certificates under this chapter shall have a high school diploma or equivalent education, and shall be a graduate of a training program approved by the examining committee.
- (b) All schools, whether situated in this state or not, furnishing courses of study meeting the minimum standard required by this chapter and the regulations of the examining committee adopted pursuant to this chapter, shall be approved by the examining committee and shall be entitled to compel that approval, if approval is denied, by action in any superior court of the State of California. The procedure and power of the court in such an action shall be the same as provided in Section 2174.
- (c) Education programs for respiratory care that are recognized by the Joint Review Committee for Respiratory Therapy Education and approved by the Committee on Allied Health Education and Accreditation of the American Medical Association may be considered approved programs by the committee unless the committee determines otherwise.

- (d) A school shall give the director of a respiratory care program adequate release time to perform his or her administrative duties consistent with the established policies of the educational institution.
- SEC. 2.5. Section 3743 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.
- SEC. 3. Section 3755 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:
- 3755. The committee may take action against any respiratory care practitioner who is charged with unprofessional conduct in administering, attempting to administer, direct or indirect respiratory care. Unprofessional conduct includes, but is not limited to, repeated acts of clearly administering directly or indirectly inappropriate or unsafe respiratory care procedures, protocols, therapeutic regimens, or diagnostic testing or monitoring techniques, and violation of any provision of Section 3750. The committee may determine unprofessional conduct involving any and all aspects of respiratory care performed by anyone certified as a respiratory care practitioner. Any person who engages in repeated acts of unprofessional conduct shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not less than two hundred dollars ($200) nor more than six hundred dollars ($600) or by imprisonment for a term not less than 60 days nor more than 180 days, or both the fine and imprisonment.

This section shall be operative until January 1, 1989, and on that date is repealed.

- SEC. 4. Section 3756 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:
- 3756. (a) A respiratory care practitioner who provides respiratory care may be ordered to undergo a professional competency examination approved by the committee if, after investigation and review by one or more respiratory care practitioner consultants of the committee, there is reasonable cause to believe that the person providing respiratory care is unable or unwilling to practice respiratory care with reasonable skill and patient safety. Reasonable cause shall be determined by the committee and may include, but not limited to, the following:
  - (1) A single incidence of gross negligence.
- (2) A pattern of inappropriate direct or indirect administration of respiratory care protocols, procedures, therapeutic regimens, or diagnostic testing of monitoring techniques.
- (3) An act of incompetence or negligence causing death or serious bodily injury.
  - (4) A pattern of substandard care.
  - (5) Violation of any provision of Section 3750 or 3755.
- (b) The matter shall be presented by the committee's executive officer or designee by way of a written petition detailing the reasonable cause. The petition shall contain all conclusions and facts upon which the presumption of reasonable cause is based. A copy of the petition shall be served on the person who shall have 45 days after receipt of the copy of the petition to file written opposition to the petition. Service of the petition and any order shall be in accordance with the methods of service authorized by subdivision (c) of Section 11505 of the Government Code.

- (c) The committee shall review the petition and any written opposition from the person who has charges brought against him or her, or the committee may hold a hearing in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedures Act to determine if reasonable cause exists, as specified in subdivision (a). The person who has charges brought against him or her shall have the right to be represented at that hearing by a person of his or her choice. If the committee is satisfied that reasonable cause exists that is considered by the committee as unprofessional conduct, the committee shall issue an order compelling the person who has charges brought against him or her to undergo an examination of professional competency, as measured by community standards. For purposes of this section, "community standards" means the statewide standards of the community of licensees. Failure to comply with the order duly served the person charged shall constitute unprofessional conduct for purposes of disciplinary proceedings and failure to pass the examination shall result in denial, suspension, or revocation of the certificate, license, or registration which shall be determined by the committee in its discretion.
- (d) If the committee proceeds pursuant to the provisions of Sections 3755 and 3756 and the person charged passes the professional competency examination administered, the committee shall be precluded from filing an accusation of incompetency based solely on the circumstances giving rise to the reasonable cause for the examination.
- (e) If the committee determines there is insufficient cause to file an accusation based on the examination results, then all agency records of the proceedings, including the petition and order for the examination, investigative reports, if any, reports of staff or the committee's consultants, and the reports of the examiners, shall be kept confidential and shall not be subject to discovery or subpoena.
- (f) If no further proceedings are conducted to determine the person's fitness to practice during a period of five years from the date of the petition under Section 3756, then the agency shall purge and destroy all records pertaining to the proceeding.

This section shall be operative until January 1, 1989, and on that date is repealed.

- SEC. 5. Section 3761 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:
- 3761. (a) No person may represent himself or herself to be a respiratory care practitioner without a certificate granted under this chapter, except as otherwise provided in this chapter.
- (b) No person or corporation shall knowingly employ a person who holds himself or herself out to be a respiratory care practitioner without a certificate granted under this chapter, except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

SEC. 6. Section 3762 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

3762. Nothing in this chapter is intended to limit, preclude, or otherwise interfere with the practices of other licensed personnel in carrying out authorized and customary duties and functions. Further, nothing in this chapter is intended to limit, preclude, or otherwise interfere with the practice of those personnel who are employed to perform specific pulmonary diagnostic and testing techniques under medical direction.

SEC. 7. Section 3774 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

3774. On or before the birthday of a certified practitioner in every other year, following the initial certification, the examining committee shall mail to each practitioner certified under this chapter, at the latest address furnished by the certified practitioner to the executive officer of the examining committee, a notice stating the amount of the renewal fee and the date on which it is due, and that failure to pay it on or before the due date and submission of evidence of compliance with Article 9 (commencing with Section 3790) will result in expiration of the certificate.

Each license not renewed in accordance with this section shall expire but may within a period of three years thereafter be reinstated upon payment of the biennial renewal fee and penalty fee required by this chapter and upon submission of proof of the applicant's qualifications as may be required by the committee, except that during the three-year period no examination shall be required as a condition for the reinstatement of any expired license which has lapsed solely by reason of nonpayment of the renewal fee.

SEC. 8. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1348

An act to amend Section 22790.2 of the Government Code, relating to employees' health plans.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22790.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

22790.2. Notwithstanding Section 10270.5 of the Insurance Code, an employee who is presently a member of a board-approved health benefit plan in existence on January 1, 1985, sponsored by an employee organization which is the exclusive representative pursuant to the State Employer-Employee Relations Act and who terminates his or her membership in an employee organization shall become ineligible for membership in the plan because of his or her termination of membership in the employee organization; however, the employee may continue enrollment in the employee organization health benefit plan until the time that the employee is properly notified by the employee organization of the loss of eligibility. Upon notification of the loss of eligibility, the employee within 60 days may change his or her enrollment to another approved health benefit plan for which he or she is eligible.

CHAPTER 1349

An act to amend Section 9390.1 of, to add and repeal Sections 9397 and 9398 of, and to add Section 9399 to, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to respite services, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9390.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

9390.1. As used in this chapter:

- (a) "Department" means the Department of Aging.
- (b) "Director" means the Director of the Department of Aging.
- (c) "Long-term care" means a coordinated continuum of preventive, diagnostic, therapeutic, rehabilitative, supportive, and maintenance services that address the health, social, and personal needs of individuals who have restricted self-care capabilities. Services shall be designed to recognize the positive capabilities of the individual and maximize the potential for the optimum level of physical, social, and psychological independence in the least restrictive environment, and emphasis shall be placed on seeking alternative services other than institutionalization. Services may be provided by formal or informal support systems and may be continuous or intermittent.

"Long-term care" includes licensed residential care in a community care facility or residential facility for the elderly.

(d) "Community based resources" include, but are not limited to, information and referral services, nutrition programs, home delivered meals, housing assistance, home modifications, special transportation services, senior companion programs, respite care, adult day health care, multipurpose senior services programs, in-home supportive services, special circumstances, inpatient and outpatient medical rehabilitation programs, home health and independent living training programs, ombudsman services, case management services, and hospice services.

- (e) "Preadmission screening" means personal assessment of an applicant for placement in a skilled or intermediate care facility, prior to admission, to determine the individual's ability to remain in the community with the support of community-based services.
- (f) "Respite care" means temporary or periodic services for frail elderly or functionally impaired persons to relieve persons who are providing care.
- (g) "Provider" means the individual or agency that provides respite care service for the family.
- SEC. 1.5. Section 9390.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

9390.1. As used in this chapter:

- (a) "Department" means the Department of Aging.
- (b) "Director" means the Director of the Department of Aging.
- (c) "Long-term care" means a coordinated continuum of preventive, diagnostic, therapeutic, rehabilitative, supportive, and maintenance services that address the health, social, and personal needs of individuals who have restricted self-care capabilities. Services shall be designed to recognize the positive capabilities of the individual and maximize the potential for the optimum level of physical, social, and psychological independence in the least restrictive environment, and emphasis shall be placed on seeking alternative services other than institutionalization. Services may be provided by formal or informal support systems and may be continuous or intermittent.

"Long-term care" includes licensed residential care in a community care facility or residential facility for the elderly.

- (d) "Community based resources" include, but are not limited to, information and referral services, nutrition programs, home delivered meals, housing assistance, home modifications, special transportation services, senior companion programs, respite care, adult day health care, multipurpose senior services programs, in-home supportive services, special circumstances, inpatient and outpatient medical rehabilitation programs, home health and independent living training programs, ombudsman services, case management services, and hospice services.
- (e) "Preadmission screening" means personal assessment of an applicant for placement in a skilled or intermediate care facility, prior to admission, to determine the individual's ability to remain in the community with the support of community-based services and referral to those services.
- (f) "Postadmission screening" means personal assessment of an individual placed in a skilled or intermediate care facility, to assist in determining the appropriate length of stay in the facility and the individual's ability to return to the community, based upon the level of community-based services available to the individual and referral to those services.

- (g) "Respite care" means temporary or periodic services for frail elderly or functionally impaired persons to relieve persons who are providing care.
- (h) "Provider" means the individual or agency that provides respite care service for the family.
- SEC. 2. Section 9397 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:
- 9397. (a) The department shall establish a respite care registry program for frail elderly persons and functionally impaired adults, selecting up to five program sites. In selecting program sites, preference shall be given to linkages programs, independent living centers, and area agencies on aging demonstrating the capability of coordinating services for frail elderly persons and functionally impaired adults. Preference shall also be given to geographical locations in which respite care projects are established pursuant to Senate Bill 173 of the 1985–86 Regular Session of the Legislature, if that bill is enacted. At least one program site selected shall be in northern California, at least one program site selected shall be in southern California, and at least one program site selected shall be in a rural or underserved area. The department shall assure that the contractors have adequate liability insurance.
  - (b) Participating program sites shall do all of the following:
- (1) Establish or utilize existing respite care registries. Respite care registries shall consist of the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of providers, including, but not limited to, individual caregivers, volunteers, adult day health care, social day care, and licensed residential care facilities for the elderly.
- (2) Act as a respite care information and referral agency for prospective respite care recipients, as well as arrange directly for respite services for respite care recipients upon request.
- (3) Submit respite care registry plans to the department. These plans shall be subject to approval by the department based on their consistency with criteria for respite care registries developed by the department.

The criteria shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

- (A) Assessment of community resources and community respite care needs.
  - (B) Methodology for surveying client and family needs.
- (C) Outreach program to inform clients about the program and to recruit providers for the registry.
  - (D) Evaluation tools for client families and providers.
- (E) Recordkeeping system for family and care provider utilization.
  - · (F) Monitoring of program effectiveness.
    - (G) Plan for screening providers and matching providers and clients, including an assessment of the provider's ability or training in caring for individuals with special needs, including, but not limited to, persons with Alzheimer's disease or related disorders.

- (c) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1988, and as of January 1, 1989, is repealed unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.
- SEC. 3. Section 9398 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:
- 9398. Distribution of appropriated funds shall be subject to the discretion of the department, but in no case shall any program site receive more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000). The funds may be utilized for costs incurred in establishing and maintaining the respite care registry created pursuant to Section 9397. The costs shall include, but not be limited to, recruitment and screening of respite providers and matching of respite providers to clients. The department may develop or purchase, on a request for proposal basis, provider training materials and distribute those materials to respite care registry program sites.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1988, and as of January 1, 1989, is repealed unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

- SEC. 4. Section 9399 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:
- 9399. The department's March 1, 1988, report to the Legislature, pursuant to Section 9395, shall include, in addition to the requirements of Section 9395, an evaluation of the respite care registry program. The evaluation shall include, but not be limited to, the number of clients served and an assessment of family and community needs for respite care services.
- SEC. 5. For the purposes of this act, the sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Aging without regard to fiscal years.
- SEC. 6. Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 9390.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2684. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1987, (2) each bill amends Section 9390.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2684, in which case Section 9390.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as amended by AB 2684, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 1.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1350

An act to amend Sections 171b and 626.10 of the Penal Code, relating to dangerous weapons.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 171b of the Penal Code is amended to read: 171b. Any person, except a person who possesses or transports weapons to be used as evidence in a court of law, a duly appointed peace officer as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2, a full-time paid peace officer of another state or the federal government who is carrying out official duties while in California, any person summoned by any such officer to assist in making arrests or preserving the peace while he is actually engaged in assisting such officer, or a person holding a valid license to carry the firearm pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 12050) of Chapter 1 of Title 2 of Part 4, who brings or possesses, within any courtroom or building designated as a courthouse or court building in this state, any firearm, deadly weapon described in Section 12020 or 653k, knife with a blade length in excess of four inches, the blade of which is fixed or is capable of being fixed in an unguarded position by the use of one or two hands, tear gas weapons, as defined in Sections 12401 and 12402, tasers, or stun guns, as defined in Section 244.5, is guilty of a public offense punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or in the state prison.

Section 626.10 of the Penal Code is amended to read: SEC. 2. (a) Any person, except a duly appointed peace officer as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2, a full-time paid peace officer of another state or the federal government who is carrying out official duties while in this state, a person summoned by any such officer to assist in making arrests or preserving the peace while the person is actually engaged in assisting any such officer, or a member of the military forces of this state or the United States who is engaged in the performance of his or her duties, who brings or possesses any dirk, dagger, knife having a blade longer than 31/2 inches, folding knife with a blade that locks into place, a razor with an unguarded blade, a taser, or a stun gun, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 244.5, upon the grounds of, or within, any public school providing instruction in kindergarten or any of grades 1 through 12, inclusive, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(b) Any person, except a duly appointed peace officer as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2, a full-time paid peace officer of another state or the federal government who is carrying out official duties while in this state, a person summoned by any such officer to assist in making arrests or preserving the peace while the person is actually engaged in assisting any such officer, or a member of the military forces of this state or the United States who is engaged in the performance of his or her duties, who brings or possesses any dirk, dagger, or knife having a fixed blade longer than 3½ inches upon the grounds of, or within, any state university, state college, or community college is guilty of a misdemeanor.

- (c) Subdivisions (a) and (b) shall not apply to any person who brings or possesses a knife having a blade longer than  $3\frac{1}{2}$  inches or a razor with an unguarded blade upon the grounds of, or within, a public school providing instruction in kindergarten or any of grades 1 through 12 or any state university, state college, or community college at the direction of a certificated or classified employee of the school for use in a school-sponsored activity or class.
- (d) Subdivisions (a) and (b) do not apply to any person who brings or possesses a knife having a blade longer than  $3\frac{1}{2}$  inches or a razor with an unguarded blade upon the grounds of, or within, a public school providing instruction in kindergarten or any of grades 1 through 12, inclusive, or any state university, state college, or community college for a lawful purpose within the scope of the person's employment.
- (e) Subdivision (b) shall not apply to any person who brings or possesses a knife having a fixed blade longer than 3½ inches upon the grounds of, or within, any state university, state college, or community college, for lawful use in or around a residence or residential facility located upon those grounds or for lawful use in food preparation or consumption.
- (f) Any certificated or classified employee or school peace officer of a public school providing instruction in kindergarten or any of grades 1 through 12, inclusive, may seize any of the weapons described in subdivision (a), and any certificated or classified employee or school peace officer of any state university, state college, or community college may seize any of the weapons described in subdivision (b) from the possession of any person upon the grounds of, or within, the school if he knows or has reasonable cause to know the person is prohibited from bringing or possessing the weapon upon the grounds of, or within, the school.
- SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1351

An act to amend Sections 1272, 1274, 1418.2, and 1421 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to health facilities.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1272 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

- 1272. (a) There is hereby created the Health Care Advisory Committee which shall assist, advise, and make written recommendations to the director regarding existing and proposed regulations, policies, and administrative practices affecting the delivery of services rendered by skilled nursing facilities, intermediate care facilities, intermediate care facilities/developmentally disabled, general acute care hospitals, acute psychiatric hospitals, special hospitals, psychiatric health facilities, chemical dependency recovery hospitals, home health agencies, and specialty clinics. For these purposes, the committee shall serve as consultants to the director.
- (b) The committee shall consist of the director, or the director's designee, who shall serve as chairman ex officio, and 12 members who shall be appointed by the Governor. Five members shall be public members representing consumers, at least one of whom shall be knowledgeable in long-term care services, one member shall be an ombudsman certified by the Department of Aging, and six members shall be representatives of the health care industry, consisting of one member representing general acute care hospitals, one member representing acute psychiatric hospitals, one member representing chemical dependency recovery hospitals, one member representing home health agencies, one member representing skilled nursing facilities, and one member representing intermediate care facilities for the developmentally disabled, habilitative and nursing, and one of the above members shall be a physician and surgeon and one of the above members shall be a registered nurse currently licensed to practice in this state. The changes and additions in the fields which members represent shall be implemented prospectively only as new members are appointed.
- (c) Committee members shall serve for four-year terms and until the appointment and qualification of their successors. Initial terms of the members of the committee shall expire in the following order: one public member, the certified ombudsman, and one industry member, on July 1, 1986; two public members, the physician and surgeon, and three industry members, on July 1, 1987; two public members and two industry members on July 1, 1988. Upon the expiration of the term of the physician and surgeon, a person who is

- a physician and surgeon and represents one of the fields specified in subdivision (b) shall be appointed. Upon the expiration of one public member's term, on July 1, 1987, and on July 1, 1988, an industry member shall be appointed instead.
- (d) The Governor shall designate the term for which each member is initially appointed pursuant to subdivision (c). Vacancies shall be filled by the Governor for the unexpired term.
- SEC. 2. Section 1274 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- 1274. The committee shall meet on call of the director but no less than one time per year.
- SEC. 3. Section 1418.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- 1418.2. (a) Every facility licensed pursuant to subdivisions (c), (d), (e), and (g) of Section 1250 and every skilled nursing facility licensed separately under subdivision (a) of Section 1250 shall establish and maintain a resident council. Each council shall include the residents of the health facility, and may include family members of residents, advocates, or ombudsman groups interested in residents of health facilities, and personnel of the health facility. Family members of residents shall be invited to meetings of resident councils.

The council shall meet at regularly scheduled intervals, maintain written minutes, including names of council members present, and have minutes available for review by the state department upon its request. Facility policies on resident councils shall in no way limit the right of residents to meet independently with outside persons or facility personnel as determined solely by the residents of the facility.

Written minutes of regularly scheduled council meetings may include recommendations from the council to the licensee of the health facility which shall be provided to the licensee. The licensee shall provide evidence of review and action on these recommendations to the state department upon its request.

- (b) Any health facility which fails to establish a resident council as prescribed in subdivision (a) shall be subject to the provisions of Section 1280.
- (c) The state department shall, by regulation, specify those circumstances under which a health facility may be exempted from the provisions of subdivisions (a) and (b), including, but not limited to, the following:
- (1) A resident population consisting of a majority of patients with progressively disabling disorders defined in Section 1250.4.
- (2) Facilities with no more than six residents which provide alternate means for residents to actively share in planning and enhancing of life in the facility.
- (3) Other circumstances as determined by the state department. SEC. 4. Section 1421 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
  - 1421. (a) Any duly authorized officer, employee, or agent of the state department may enter and inspect any long-term health care facility, including, but not limited to, interviewing residents and reviewing records, at any time to enforce any provision of this chapter.

- (b) Patients shall be treated with consideration, respect, and full recognition of dignity during the course of the investigation or inspection.
- (c) Inspections conducted pursuant to complaints filed with the state department shall be conducted in such a manner as to ensure maximum effectiveness while respecting the rights of patients in the facility. No advance notice shall be given of any inspection conducted pursuant to this chapter unless previously and specifically authorized by the director or required by federal law.
- (d) Any public employee giving any advance notice in violation of this section shall be deemed to be in violation of subdivision (t) of Section 19572 of the Government Code and shall be suspended from all duties without pay for a period determined by the director.
- (e) Except as otherwise specified by law, any duly authorized officer, employee, or agent of the state department shall not limit the scope of practice of registered nurses acting under Section 2725 of the Business and Professions Code. Further, these agents shall not prohibit the performing of functions by registered nurses when those nurses are performing under standardized procedures, where their activity is consistent with the scope of nursing practice, as set forth in Section 2725 of the Business and Professions Code.
- SEC. 5. Reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code and, if the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

CHAPTER 1352

An act relating to state government.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) There is hereby established an advisory committee in order to study, report on, and make recommendations concerning, the feasibility of creating a Department of Public Safety. In conducting its study, the advisory committee shall consider the efficiency and cost savings to be gained by reorganizing and consolidating into one department the functions of the various offices, departments, divisions, and subdivisions of state government which exist primarily for the purpose of providing emergency services, criminal justice planning, criminal justice assistance to local government, and the protection of state offices and property which employ 500 or fewer personnel.

- (b) The committee shall consist of seven members, as follows:
- (1) Four members shall be appointed by the Governor.
- (2) One member shall be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly.
- (3) One member shall be appointed by the President pro Tempore of the Senate.
- (4) One member shall be the Chief of the California State Police Division, or his or her designee.
- (c) The Youth and Adult Correctional Agency shall provide the advisory committee with the necessary staff support and technical assistance for completion of the study.
- (d) The advisory committee shall report its findings to the Legislature not later than June 30, 1987.
- (e) This section shall remain in effect only until July 1, 1987, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute which is chaptered prior to July 1, 1987, extends or deletes that date.

CHAPTER 1353

An act to amend Section 7071.11 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to contractors.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7071.11 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7071.11. (a) A copy of the complaint in a civil action commenced by a person claiming against a bond required by this article shall be served by registered or certified mail upon the registrar by the clerk of the court at the time the action is commenced and the registrar shall maintain a record, available for public inspection, of all actions so commenced. The claim of any employee of the contractor for wages and fringe benefits shall be a preferred claim against the bond. The aggregate liability of a surety on a claim for wages and fringe benefits brought against any bond required by this article, other than a bond required by Section 7071.8, shall not exceed the sum of three thousand dollars ($3,000). If any bond which may be required is insufficient to pay all claims in full, the sum of the bond shall be distributed to all claimants in proportion to the amount of their respective claims with priority to claims for wages and fringe benefits. Any action, other than an action to recover fringe benefits, against a bond filed by an active licensee shall be brought within two years after the expiration of the license period or periods for which a bond has been provided, or within two years of the date the license of the active licensee was inactivated by the board, whichever first occurs. A claim to recover fringe benefits shall be brought within six months from the date that the fringe benefit delinquencies were discovered, but in no event shall a civil action thereon be brought later than two years from the date the fringe benefit contributions were due.

- (b) When the surety makes payment on any claim against a bond required by this article, whether or not payment is made through a court action or otherwise, the surety shall, within 30 days of the payment, notify the registrar. The notice shall contain, on a form prescribed by the registrar, the name and license number of the contractor, the surety bond number, the amount of payment, the statutory basis upon which the claim is made, and the names of the person or persons to whom payments are made.
- (c) Any judgment or admitted claim against, or good faith payment from, a bond required by this article shall constitute grounds for disciplinary action against the licensee, except in those cases of good faith payment where the licensee has, in writing, timely instructed the surety not to make payment from the bond on his or her account, upon the specific grounds that (1) the claim is opposed by the licensee, and (2) the licensee has, in writing, previously directed to the surety a specific and reasonable basis for his or her opposition to payment. The license may not be reissued or reinstated while any judgment or admitted claim in excess of the amount of the bond remains unsatisfied. Further, the license may not be reissued or reinstated while any surety remains unreimbursed for loss and expense sustained on any bond issued for the licensee or for any entity of which any officer, director, member, partner, or qualifying person was an officer, director, member, partner, or qualifying person of the licensee while the licensee was subject to disciplinary action under this section. The board shall require the licensee to file a new bond in an amount as required pursuant to Section 7071.8.
  - (d) Legal fees may not be charged against the bond by the board.
- (e) In any case in which a claim is filed against a deposit given in lieu of a bond by any employee or by an employee organization on behalf of an employee, concerning wages or fringe benefits based upon the employee's employment, claims for the nonpayment thereof shall be filed with the Labor Commissioner. The Labor Commissioner shall, pursuant to the authority vested by Section 96.5 of the Labor Code, conduct hearings to determine whether or not the wages or fringe benefits should be paid to the complainant. Upon a finding by the commissioner that the wages or fringe benefits should be paid to the complainant, the commissioner shall notify the registrar of the findings. The registrar shall not make payment from the deposit on the basis of findings by the commissioner for a period of 10 days following determination of the findings. If, within the period, the complainant or the contractor files written notice with the registrar and the commissioner of an intention to seek judicial review of the findings pursuant to Section 11523 of the Government Code, the registrar shall not make payment, if an action is actually filed, except as determined by the court. If, thereafter, no action is filed within 60 days following determination of findings by the commissioner, the registrar shall make payment from the deposit to the complainant.

SEC. 2. This act shall become operative on July 1, 1987.

CHAPTER 1354

An act to add Section 23399.5 to the Business and Professions Code, relating to alcoholic beverages.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 23399.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

23399.5. No license or permit shall be required for the serving of alcoholic beverages in a limousine by any person operating a limousine service regulated by the Public Utilities Commission; provided there is no extra charge or fee for the alcoholic beverages.

For purposes of this section, there is no extra charge or fee for the alcoholic beverages when the fee charged for the limousine service is the same regardless of whether alcoholic beverages are served.

SEC. 2. This act is not intended to affect existing law prohibiting the sale and service of alcoholic beverages to minors.

CHAPTER 1355

An act to amend Sections 990.8 and 6500 of the Government Code, and to amend Sections 32121, 32130, 32316, 32317, 32318, and 32321 of, and to add Section 32130.2 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to public agencies.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 990.8 of the Government Code is amended to read:

- 990.8. (a) Two or more local public entities, by a joint powers agreement made pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 6500) of Chapter 5 of Division 7, may provide insurance authorized by this part or for any other purpose by any one or more of the methods specified in Section 990.4. Where two or more hospital districts have joined together to pool their self-insurance claims or losses, any nonprofit corporation created pursuant to subdivision (p) of Section 32121 of the Health and Safety Code, and affiliated with a hospital district which is a party to the pool may participate in the pool.
- (b) Two or more local public entities having the same governing board may be coinsured under a master policy and the total premium may be prorated among those entities.
- (c) The pooling of self-insured claims or losses among entities as authorized in subdivision (a) of Section 990.4 shall not be considered insurance nor be subject to regulation under the Insurance Code.
- SEC. 1.5. Section 6500 of the Government Code is amended to read:
- 6500. As used in this article, "public agency" includes the federal government or any federal department or agency, this state, another state or any state department or agency, a county, county board of education, city, public corporation, or public district of this state or another state.
- SEC. 2. Section 32121 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- 32121. Each local hospital district shall have and exercise the following powers:
  - (a) To have and use a corporate seal and alter it at its pleasure.
- (b) To sue and be sued in all courts and places and in all actions and proceedings whatever.
- (c) To purchase, receive, have, take, hold, lease, use, and enjoy property of every kind and description within and without the limits of the district, and to control, dispose of, convey, and encumber the same and create a leasehold interest in the same for the benefit of the district.
- (d) To exercise the right of eminent domain for the purpose of acquiring real or personal property of every kind necessary to the exercise of any of the powers of the district.
- (e) To establish one or more trusts for the benefit of the district, to administer any trust declared or created for the benefit of the district, to designate one or more trustees for trusts created by the district, to receive by gift, devise, or bequest, and hold in trust or otherwise, property, including corporate securities of all kinds, situated in this state or elsewhere, and where not otherwise provided, dispose of the same for the benefit of the district.
- (f) To employ legal counsel to advise the board of directors in all matters pertaining to the business of the district, to perform the functions in respect to the legal affairs of the district as the board may direct, and to call upon the district attorney of the county in which the greater part of the land in the district is situated for legal advice and assistance in all matters concerning the district, except that if that county has a county counsel, the directors may call upon the county counsel for legal advice and assistance.

(g) To employ any officers and employees, including architects and consultants, the board of directors deems necessary to carry on properly the business of the district.

- (h) To prescribe the duties and powers of the hospital administrator, secretary, and other officers and employees of any hospitals of the district, to establish offices as may be appropriate and to appoint board members or employees to those offices, and to determine the number of, and appoint, all officers and employees and to fix their compensation. The officers and employees shall hold their offices or positions at the pleasure of the boards of directors.
- (i) To do any and all things which an individual might do which are necessary for, and to the advantage of, a hospital and a nurses' training school.
- (j) To establish, maintain and operate one or more health facilities at any location within or without the district for the benefit of the district.
- (k) To do any and all other acts and things necessary to carry out this division.
- (l) To acquire, maintain, and operate ambulances or ambulance services within and without the district.
- (m) To establish, maintain, and operate, or provide assistance in the operation of, free clinics, diagnostic and testing centers, health education programs, and any other health care provider groups and organizations which are necessary for the maintenance of good physical and mental health in the communities served by the district.
- (n) To establish and operate in cooperation with its medical staff a coinsurance plan between the hospital district and the members of its attending medical staff.
- (o) To establish, maintain, and carry on its activities through one or more corporations, joint ventures, or partnerships for the benefit of the hospital district.
- (p) (1) To transfer with or without consideration, any part of its assets to one or more nonprofit corporations to operate and maintain the assets for the benefit of the communities served by the district. The initial members of the board of directors of the nonprofit corporation or corporations shall be approved by the board of directors of the hospital district and shall be residents of the district. This subdivision does not invalidate or affect any transfers made prior to March 1, 1985, pursuant to this subdivision.
- (2) Nothing in this section, including subdivision (j), shall be construed to permit a local hospital district to obtain or be issued a single consolidated license to operate a separate physical plant as a skilled nursing facility or an intermediate care facility which is not located within the boundaries of the hospital district.
  - (q) To contract for bond insurance, letters of credit, remarketing services, and other forms of credit enhancement and liquidity support for its bonds, notes, and other indebtedness and to enter into reimbursement agreements, monitoring agreements, remarketing agreements, and similar ancillary contracts in connection therewith.

SEC. 3. Section 32130 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

- 32130. A district may borrow money and incur indebtedness in an amount not to exceed 85 percent of all estimated income and revenue for the current fiscal year, including, but not limited to, tax revenues, operating income, and any other miscellaneous income received by the district, from whatever source derived. The money borrowed and indebtedness incurred under this section shall be repaid within the same fiscal year.
- SEC. 4. Section 32130.2 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:
- 32130.2. (a) A district may issue negotiable promissory notes to acquire funds for any district purposes subject to the restrictions and requirements imposed by this subdivision and subdivisions (b), (c), and (d). The maturity of the promissory notes shall not be later than 10 years from the date thereof. The total aggregate amount of the notes outstanding at any one time shall not exceed 85 percent of all estimated income and revenue for the current fiscal year, including, but not limited to, tax revenues, operating income, and any other miscellaneous income of the district. Indebtedness incurred pursuant to any other provision of law shall be disregarded in computing the aggregate amount of notes that may be issued pursuant to this section.
- (b) Negotiable promissory notes may be issued pursuant to this section for any capital outlay facility, equipment, or item which has a useful life equal to, or longer than, the term of the notes, as determined by the board of directors.
- (c) The maximum annual interest rate which may be paid on negotiable promissory notes shall at no time exceed the amount authorized under Section 53531 of the Government Code.
- (d) When the board of directors determines to issue negotiable promissory notes, the board shall give public notice of the decision and enact an ordinance providing for the notes after a public hearing. The ordinance shall be subject to referendum.
- SEC. 5. Section 32316 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- 32316. By resolution of the board of directors adopted by a vote of four-fifths of the membership of the board, the district may issue bonds of not more than a maximum of 50 percent of the average of the district's gross revenues for the preceding three years, pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 54300) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, to provide funds for the acquisition, construction, improvement, financing or refinancing of an enterprise, or the refunding of any bonds, notes, loans, or other indebtedness of the district, including, but not limited to, any or all expenses incidental thereto, or connected therewith, or any combination of two or more of those purposes.

- SEC. 6. Section 32317 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- 32317. The resolution adopted pursuant to Section 32316 shall include all of the following:
  - (a) The purpose for which the bonds are proposed to be issued.
- (b) The estimated cost of the acquisition, construction, improvement, financing, and refinancing.
  - (c) The principal amount of the bonds.
- (d) The maximum rate of the interest on the bonds, which shall not exceed 12 percent per year, and the frequency of interest payments.
- (e) A statement that the bonds are to be revenue bonds, payable exclusively from the revenues of the enterprise, and that the bonds are not to be secured by the taxing power of the district.
- SEC. 7. Section 32318 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- 32318. The resolution adopted pursuant to Section 32316 shall be published once a week for two successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in the district, or if there is none, in the newspaper of general circulation published nearest to the district. If there is no newspaper of general circulation published in the district, the resolution shall also be posted in three public places in the district for two succeeding weeks.
- SEC. 8. Section 32321 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- 32321. (a) Any ordinance subject to the provisions of Section 32320 shall be published after adoption once a week for two successive weeks, commencing within 15 days after adoption, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the district, or if there is none, in the newspaper of general circulation published nearest to the district. If there is no newspaper of general circulation published in the district, the ordinance shall also be posted in three public places in the district for two succeeding weeks.
- (b) The board of directors of the district may introduce and enact an ordinance at any regular or adjourned regular meeting by the approving votes of a majority of all its members. The electors of the district shall have the right to petition for referendum on an ordinance pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 3750) of Chapter 2 of Division 5 of the Elections Code, except that all computations referred to in those sections, and officers of the county mentioned in those sections, shall be construed to refer to comparable computations and officers of the district. For the purpose of the section, the term "electors" means the electors of territory entitled to vote at elections for the members of the board of directors.

CHAPTER 1356

An act relating to education, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- SECTION 1. (a) The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall administer a pilot project, for a period not to exceed three years, to integrate the use of videotaped instruction in public high schools in participating school districts. The purpose of the project is to determine the effectiveness of combining videotapes of instruction conducted by a teacher with the instructional materials ordinarily used by that teacher in the subject matter in improving the quality of classroom instruction. The use of videotaped instruction shall be designed to enhance, not to replace, the instruction provided by the classroom teacher.
- (b) In order to accomplish the purposes of this section, the superintendent, with the advice of the Educational Technology Committee, shall, pursuant to the purposes and conditions set forth in this section, provide a grant or grants to, or contract with, one or more qualified public agencies or private nonprofit organizations to administer the pilot project in those school districts approved by the superintendent for participation in the project, and to assess the results of the project. To be qualified for the purposes of this grant or contract, the agency or organization shall demonstrate knowledge of public school curricula and instructional methodologies and materials, the ability to work with high school classroom teachers in a variety of subject matters, and the ability to produce high quality video and audio production using equipment commonly available to school districts in this state.
- (c) The pilot project proposal to be submitted to the superintendent by each applicant agency or organization shall include, but need not be limited to, all of the following:
- (1) A description of the procedure to be used to videotape teacher instruction, using instructional materials selected by the participating teacher. Any resulting videotape may be used only for the classroom purposes of the teacher or teachers participating in its production except pursuant to the written consent of the teacher or teachers.
- (2) A proposal for obtaining from publishers of instructional materials printed and visual materials, that have been transferred to videotape for use by the teachers in this pilot project, that may be used by teachers in conducting the instruction to be videotaped.
- (3) A proposal for the selection of school districts, schools, and teachers for the purposes of this section, with the objective that not fewer than 30 teachers use videotape instruction presentations developed under this project for up to, but not more than, 25 percent of a semester of instruction, or the equivalent thereof, in a course of study.

- (4) A proposal for the assessment of the effectiveness of the project, including, but not necessarily limited to, the specific objectives of the project, the nature and extent of predicted improvement in pupil learning, and other anticipated results, including changes in teacher instructional and other time allocations. The proposed assessment shall address each of the objectives and anticipated results of the project, and pupil and teacher reaction and other impacts on the instructional process, and shall include a cost-benefit analysis, including the projected costs, feasibility, and educational merits of expanding the videotape instruction to a wider scale. The agency or person conducting the assessment shall have no financial or other special interest in the results of the project.
- (5) An estimate of the costs and appropriate timelines for conducting the pilot project pursuant to the purposes expressed in this section.

(6) Other information as the superintendent may require pursuant to the operation of the pilot project.

- (d) From funds made available for the purposes of this section, the superintendent shall allocate to school districts participating in the pilot project funding as necessary to ensure that adequate receiver monitors and other appropriate equipment are available in participating classrooms, to reimburse any school district that participates in the project for any fees or charges imposed by a publisher of instructional materials for the printed and visual materials obtained from the publisher pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (c), and to compensate teachers participating in the project for increased time allotted to the project, including videotaping, assessment, and inservice training purposes.
- SEC. 2. The sum of two hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($275,000) is hereby reappropriated from Item 6100-181-001 of the Budget Act of 1986 to the Superintendent of Public Instruction without regard to fiscal year for allocation for the purposes of this act, including allocations to school districts pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 1. A sum of up to twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) may be allotted by the superintendent from that allocation for administrative costs incurred pursuant to Section 1.

adjustments for the amounts otherwise calculated pursuant to paragraph (2) or (3).

- (2) The agency may, by regulation, establish a method of establishing reasonable standard utility allowances based on the size and energy efficiency of each unit.
- (3) The agency may, by regulation, establish base rents for households whose incomes are less than 35 percent of the median income of the county in which the rental housing development is located. However, these base rents shall not exceed 25 percent of 50 percent of the median income of the county in which the rental housing development is located.
- (c) "Assisted unit" means a unit in a rental housing development which is available to, or occupied by, an eligible household at affordable rent as a result of construction and mortgage financing or mortgage financing provided pursuant to this chapter and income in excess of operating costs from nonassisted units in the same rental housing development.
  - (d) "Development costs" includes all of the following:
- (1) The aggregate of all costs incurred in connection with the acquisition of property and the construction or rehabilitation of a rental housing development pursuant to this chapter and includes the cost of all of the following:
  - (A) Land acquisition, whether by purchase or lease.
  - (B) Construction.
- (C) Overhead, including architectural, legal, accounting, and other professional fees incurred in connection with the construction or rehabilitation of the rental housing development.
- (D) Related offsite improvements, including, but not limited to sewers, utilities, and streets, as determined by the agency.
- (E) Necessary and related onsite improvements, as determined by the agency.
- (2) Any additional eligible costs determined by the agency, by regulation, to be related to any of the costs described in paragraph (1), including, but not limited to, local fees and exactions.

"Development costs" does not include profit accruing to a sponsor as a result of the development of property if the profit exceeds 6 percent of costs described in this subdivision, whether that profit is reimbursed or retained as equity in the development.

- (e) "Eligible household" means a senior household which is either a lower income household or a very low income household.
- (f) "Fund" means the Senior Citizens Housing Assistance Fund established pursuant to Section 51470.
- (g) "Mortgage loan" has the same meaning as defined by Section 50086, as applied to rental housing developments.
- (h) "Rental housing development" means a development for eligible households consisting of five or more rental or cooperative units located on one or more sites, five or more units in a limited equity stock cooperative, as defined in Section 33007.5, located on one or more sites, five or more units of congregate rental housing located on one or more sites, or a residential hotel, as defined by subdivision (b) of Section 50669.5.

- (i) "Senior" means a family in which one member of the household is 60 years of age or older, or a single person who is 60 years of age or older.
- (j) "Syndication" means the sale or resale of all or any portion of a rental housing development to a limited partnership for the purposes of equity syndication.

Article 3. Housing Program

- 51460. The agency may make, or undertake commitments to make, mortgage loans or loans for development costs, and advances in anticipation of those loans, from the fund, to housing sponsors to finance rental housing developments. The agency shall ensure that each proposed development is financially feasible, including the long-term financial feasibility, and that the sponsor has the capability to develop and operate the development.
- 51461. (a) Not less than 20 percent of the units in each rental housing development which receives financial assistance pursuant to this chapter shall be available on a priority basis to, or occupied by, eligible households. Of this amount, not less than one-half of the units shall be available on a priority basis to, or occupied by, senior citizens who meet the income criteria for very low income eligible households, and the remainder shall be available on a priority basis to, or occupied by, lower income eligible households.
- (b) In addition to the requirements of subdivision (a), not less than 20 percent of the units in each rental housing development which receives financial assistance pursuant to this chapter shall be available on a priority basis to, or occupied by, senior citizens who meet the income criteria for persons and families of low or moderate income.
- (c) In addition to the requirements of subdivisions (a) and (b), the balance of the units in each rental housing development which receives financial assistance pursuant to this chapter shall be available on a priority basis, or occupied by, senior households, unless the agency makes a finding with respect to the market area of the proposed development, that there is an insufficient number of senior households seeking occupancy in the development.
- 51462. (a) Every regulatory agreement required by this section shall be recorded or referenced in a recorded document in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the rental housing development is located, and shall be indexed by the recorder in the grantor index to the name of the owner and the grantee index to the name of the State of California. Each rental housing development shall be subject to the following requirements and the agreement shall contain at least the following provisions and any other requirements consistent with this chapter, as determined necessary by the agency:

- (1) The legal description and assessor's parcel numbers for the assisted real property which is subject to the regulatory agreement, the name of the owner of record of the real property, the duration of the regulatory agreement upon the assisted real property, and the amount and terms of payments to be provided under this chapter, including the specific items to be covered by those payments.
- (2) A description of the way in which the payments, including those from the assistance account, will be used to provide affordable rents to eligible households occupying assisted units within the rental housing development.
- (3) Projected rent levels for all units, and the number of units to be occupied by eligible households of each income group.
- (4) A provision that failure to operate the rental housing development in accordance with the regulatory agreement shall be deemed a violation of the regulatory agreement or deed of trust, as determined by the agency, and may be the basis for foreclosure or equitable relief, at the option of the agency.
- (5) A requirement for a periodic report to be made at least annually by the housing sponsor to the agency which shall include, at a minimum, information on the fiscal condition of the rental housing development, the maintenance of that development, and the number of units occupied by eligible households.
- (6) Provisions sufficient to ensure that dwelling units in the rental housing development, available to, and occupied by, eligible households and other persons and families of low or moderate income in accordance with this chapter, remain available to, and occupied by, those eligible households and persons and families of low or moderate income for a period of not less than 30 years or the duration of the long-term mortgage financing, whichever is greater.
- (7) A provision making the covenants and conditions of the agreement binding upon successors in interest of the housing sponsor.
- (8) Provisions limiting the distribution of sponsor's earning from excess rental income after payment of all operating, management, and debt service costs to an annual account, to an amount no greater than 6 percent of the sponsor's actual investment, excluding unaccrued liabilities of the sponsor, in the rental housing development.
- (9) A provision authorizing the agency to fix and alter, from time to time, a schedule of rents for the assisted units necessary to provide those residents of the rental housing development with affordable rents. No housing sponsor shall increase the rents for assisted units without the prior permission of the agency which shall be given only if the housing sponsor affirmatively demonstrates to the agency and the agency finds that an increase is required to defray necessary operating costs or to avoid jeopardizing the fiscal integrity of the rental housing development. Prior to the time any rent increase is effective, the housing sponsor shall notify every affected tenant, in writing, of informal meetings with the housing sponsor to review the proposed rent increase. Each tenant shall be provided, upon request, the information submitted to the agency pursuant to this paragraph. If the agency does not act upon a request for a rent increase within 60 days from the date the request is submitted to the agency, that increase shall be deemed approved.

- (10) Provisions necessary for the administration, disbursement, collection, and protection of excess rental income and assistance payments from the rental assistance annuity account established pursuant to Section 51463, including provisions specifying the conditions under which the agency may recover or reallocate all or any part of the excess rental income or the assistance payments for the benefit of eligible households in existing or additional assisted units.
- (11) Provisions governing the recovery and reallocation of rent revenues derived by the sponsor from the assisted-units which are not necessary to defray costs or operation attributable to those units. This rent revenue shall be reallocated by the agency in the same manner as assistance payments pursuant to paragraph (10).
- (12) A provision requiring that if the number of assisted units ever falls below the number agreed to by the housing sponsor, then units which become available for occupancy shall be made available on a priority basis to eligible households, as required by Section 51461, until the number of occupied units equals at least the number specified in the agreement.
- (13) A provision prohibiting the eviction of any survivors of seniors in an eligible household living in an assisted unit.
- (14) Any other provisions necessary to carry out the purposes and to exercise the powers granted by this chapter.
- (b) The regulatory agreement shall remain in effect as long as any financing for the rental housing development provided by the agency or any other entity remains outstanding, but not less than 30 years.
- 51462.1. Each security document, including deeds of trust, shall include a provision that failure, as determined by the agency, to comply with the regulatory agreement shall be deemed a violation of the regulatory agreement and shall constitute a breach of the obligation for which the security was given.
- 51462.2. The agency shall ensure that not less than 20 percent of the units assisted pursuant to this chapter are allocated to rural areas, and that all of the assisted units, to the extent that eligible applications are received, are allocated throughout the state according to need as indicated by the Statewide Housing Plan, as determined by the agency.
- 51462.3. Only rental housing developments on which construction or rehabilitation is commenced on or after May 1, 1987, are eligible for assistance under this chapter.
- 51462.5. (a) No rental housing development shall be constructed on real property on which there existed an occupied housing unit, or which safely could have been occupied, as determined by the - agency, within six months or less time prior to the submission of an application for assistance pursuant to this chapter, unless the applicable local housing element indicates there is a scarcity of land compatible with rental housing use which is vacant or can be redeveloped or recycled to this use, as determined by the agency.

- (b) Any person that is displaced as a result of the construction of a rental housing development pursuant to this chapter is eligible for relocation payments and assistance pursuant to Chapter 16 (commencing with Section 7260) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code. Every application shall include a description of each occupied and unoccupied structure on the property and, if applicable, shall include a relocation plan detailing the proposed provision of comparable replacement housing which is affordable to the displaced household.
- 51462.6. Loans to nonprofit corporations, limited equity housing cooperatives, local public entities, or a duly constituted governing body of an Indian rancheria or reservation, or any combination thereof, may, at the option of the agency, equal 97 percent of the development costs. All other loans made pursuant to this chapter shall not exceed 80 percent of the development costs.
- 51462.8. The agency shall adopt regulations governing the application and review process including, but not limited to, the contents of the application, the long-term financial feasibility of the development, and the financial, housing, and administrative experience of the sponsor. The agency shall assign weight to those factors, but shall give greater weight to the long-term financial feasibility of the development than to any other factor.
- 51462.9. Loan repayments on loans made pursuant to this chapter shall be structured in a manner that ensures annual repayments of the sums due and payable on any revenue or general obligation bonds issued pursuant to this chapter.
- 51463. (a) The Senior Citizens Housing Annuity Account is hereby established in the State Treasury. The account shall consist of moneys appropriated by the Legislature to the account and excess rental income from the developments. These funds may be utilized by the agency to make commitments from the account to provide annuity payments directly to housing sponsors of rental housing developments to reduce rent levels in assisted units to ensure occupancy by eligible households at affordable rents.
- (b) Notwithstanding Section 51000, all moneys accruing to the account pursuant to this section, including interest earnings, shall be deposited in the account.
- (c) Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, all money in the account is continuously appropriated to the agency and shall be utilized for the purposes specified in this section. All interest or other increment resulting from investment of moneys deposited in the account shall be deposited in the account, notwithstanding Section 16305.7 of the Government Code. Except as otherwise provided by this chapter, moneys in the account shall not be subject to transfer to any other fund or account except the Surplus Money Investment Fund.

- 51464. (a) The agency shall adopt regulations in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code for the administration of this chapter. Any regulations relating to the issuance of bonds pursuant to Section 51471 shall be approved by the Treasurer prior to their adoption. The regulations shall grant priority in the allocation of funds available for the purposes of this chapter.
- (b) No rental housing development shall be eligible for assistance under this chapter unless it complies with all of the requirements of this chapter and incorporates standards which do not exceed the standards required by local building and housing codes necessary for the health and safety of the residents.
- (c) Priority for funding under this chapter shall be given to rental housing developments that meet at least three of the following criteria, as determined by the agency:
- (1) Those developments which are of the lowest possible cost, taking into consideration the costs of land and materials and the needs of senior persons.
- (2) Those developments which incorporate innovative or energy-efficient design and construction techniques, higher densities, and other standards which do not exceed the standards required by local building and housing codes or necessary for the health and safety of the residents.
- (3) Those developments which are consistent with, and complement the implemention of, a local housing program that preserves and increases the housing supply for persons and families of low or moderate income.
- (4) Those developments for which the housing sponsor, whether public or private, has contributed or received funds, services, or land, including a density bonus or other nonfiscal contributions, for eligible expenditures, including, but not limited to, rent subsidies, site acquisition, development costs, or construction costs.
- (5) Those developments which provide the greatest number of units for eligible households above the minimum percentage, and for the longest period of time above the minimum number of years.
- 51465. The Legislature finds and declares that the mere use of construction and mortgage financing, or mortgage financing, derived from revenue bonds coupled with mere supplemental financial or nonfinancial assistance from public entities, monitoring by the agency and the imposition of the terms of occupancy related to eligible households do not constitute the development, construction, or acquisition of a low-rent housing project subject to Article XXXIV of the California Constitution. In addition, notwithstanding any percentage of eligible households in rental housing developments assisted pursuant to this chapter, because these developments will enhance the aesthetic and economic basis of the community, these developments are not low-rent housing projects subject to Article XXXIV of the California Constitution.

- 51466. (a) Rental housing developments constructed pursuant to this chapter may be transferred or syndicated if the agency gives prior approval. That approval shall be granted only if the agency determines that the terms and conditions of the transfer or syndication will not reduce or limit any of the requirements of this chapter or the regulations adopted or documents executed pursuant to this chapter. No requirements of the state shall be subordinated to the transfer or syndication agreement. A transfer or syndication shall not result in fewer assisted units, or the reduction of any benefits or services, than were in existence prior to the transfer or syndication.
- (b) The text of subdivision (a) shall be set forth in each regulatory agreement entered into pursuant to this chapter.
- 51467. The regulations adopted by the agency shall include provisions accomplishing all of the following:
- (a) A six-month transition period for a resident to pay incremental increases in market rent for an assisted unit if the household income increases above the limit for lower income households.
- (b) An annual recertification of income of residents in all assisted units. Any resulting rent adjustments resulting from that recertification shall be made only after the residents are given 30 days notice of an opportunity to appeal the recertification.
- (c) If a household is no longer eligible to reside in a unit because the income of the household exceeds the limit for lower income households, the sponsor shall not evict the household, but instead shall ensure that the next available unit is leased to a household whose income level is commensurate with the existing household's former income category.
- 51468. In addition to the other powers and responsibilities provided by this chapter, the agency shall monitor the construction and operation of the rental housing developments constructed pursuant to this chapter in order to ensure compliance with loan conditions, contract obligations, and this chapter and the regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter.

Article 4. Financing

- 51470. (a) There is in the State Treasury the Senior Citizens Housing Assistance Fund. Notwithstanding Section 51000, all moneys accruing to the fund pursuant to this chapter, including any moneys which the agency receives in repayment or return of loans made from the fund, any interest on those loans, and any other moneys which are made available to the agency for the purposes of this chapter from any other source, shall be deposited in the fund.
- (b) Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, all money in the fund is hereby continuously appropriated to the agency and shall be utilized for the purposes of this chapter. All interest or other increment resulting from investment or deposit of moneys in the fund shall be deposited in the fund, notwithstanding Section 16305.7 of the Government Code. Except as otherwise provided by this chapter, moneys in the fund shall not be subject to transfer to any other fund pursuant to any provision of Part 2 (commencing with Section 16300) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, except the Surplus Money Investment Fund.

- (c) The agency may transfer any moneys from the fund to pay any expenses incurred by the agency to implement this chapter. However, the total amounts transferred from the fund may not exceed the restrictions imposed by Section 103(c) of Title 26 of the United States Code.
- 51471. (a) In addition to the authorization to issue bonds contained in Section 51350, the agency may, after action of the Housing Bond Credit Committee as provided in Section 51360, issue revenue bonds in the principal amount of two hundred million dollars ($200,000,000) for financing rental housing developments in accordance with this chapter and for the payment of interest on the bonds of the agency, the establishment of reserves to secure the bonds, and other expenditures of the agency incident to, and necessary or convenient to, issuance of the bonds.
- (b) The sale of the bonds shall be subject to subdivision (b) of Section 51350.
- (c) The proceeds of the bonds shall be deposited in the fund and utilized for the purposes of this chapter, except that none of the proceeds shall be deposited in the Senior Citizens Housing Annuity Account established pursuant to Section 51463.
- SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to authorize the issuance of bonds to finance the construction of rental housing developments as soon as possible, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1360

An act to amend Sections 2924i, 2957, and 2966 of the Civil Code, relating to real property.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2924i of the Civil Code is amended to read: 2924i. (a) This section applies to loans secured by a deed of trust or mortgage on real property containing one to four residential units at least one of which at the time the loan is made is or is to be occupied by the borrower if the loan is for a period in excess of one year and is a balloon payment loan.

- (b) This section shall not apply to (1) open end credit as defined in Regulation Z, whether or not the transaction is otherwise subject to Regulation Z, (2) transactions subject to Section 2956, or (3) loans made for the principal purpose of financing the construction of one or more residential units.
- (c) At least 90 days but not more than 150 days prior to the due date of the final payment on a loan that is subject to this section, the holder of the loan shall deliver or mail by first-class mail, with a certificate of mailing obtained from the United States Postal Service, to the trustor, or his or her successor in interest, at the last known address of that person, a written notice which shall include all of the following:
- (1) A statement of the name and address of the person to whom the final payment is required to be paid.
- (2) The date on or before which the final payment is required to be paid.
- (3) The amount of the final payment, or if the exact amount is unknown, a good faith estimate of the amount thereof, including unpaid principal, interest and any other charges, such amount to be determined assuming timely payment in full of all scheduled installments coming due between the date the notice is prepared and the date when the final payment is due.
- (4) If the borrower has a contractual right to refinance the final payment, a statement to that effect.

If the due date of the final payment of a loan subject to this section is extended prior to the time notice is otherwise required under this subdivision, this notice requirement shall apply only to the due date as extended (or as subsequently extended).

- (d) For purposes of this section:
- (1) A "balloon payment loan" is a loan which provides for a final payment as originally scheduled which is more than twice the amount of any of the immediately preceding six regularly scheduled payments or which contains a call provision; provided, however, that if the call provision is not exercised by the holder of the loan, the existence of the unexercised call provision shall not cause the loan to be deemed to be a balloon payment loan.
- (2) "Call provision" means a loan contract term that provides the holder of the loan with the right to call the loan due and payable either after a specified period has elapsed following closing or after a specified date.
- (3) "Regulation Z" means any rule, regulation, or interpretation promulgated by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System under the Federal Truth in Lending Act, as amended (15 U.S.C. Sec. 1601 et seq.), and any interpretation or approval thereof issued by an official or employee of the Federal Reserve System duly authorized by the board under the Truth in Lending Act, as amended, to issue such interpretations or approvals.

- (e) Failure to provide notice as required by subdivision (a) does not extinguish any obligation of payment by the borrower, except that the due date for any balloon payment shall be the date specified in the balloon payment note, or 90 days from the date of delivery or mailing of the notice required by subdivision (a), or the due date specified in the notice required by subdivision (a), whichever date is later. If the operation of this section acts to extend the term of any note, interest shall continue to accrue for the extended term at the contract rate and payments shall continue to be due at any periodic interval and on any payment schedule specified in the note and shall be credited to principal or interest under the terms of the note. Default in any extended periodic payment shall be considered a default under terms of the note or security instrument.
- (f) (1) The validity of any credit document or of any security document subject to the provisions of this section shall not be invalidated solely because of the failure of any person to comply with this section. However, any person who willfully violates any provision of this section shall be liable in the amount of actual damages suffered by the debtor as the proximate result of the violation, and, if the debtor prevails in any suit to recover that amount, for reasonable attorney's fees.
- (2) No person may be held liable in any action under this section if it is shown by a preponderance of the evidence that the violation was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adopted to avoid any such error.
- (g) The provisions of this section shall apply to any note executed on or after January 1, 1984.
  - SEC. 2. Section 2957 of the Civil Code is amended to read:
- 2957. The following definitions shall apply for the purposes of this article:
  - (a) "Arranger of credit" means:
- (1) A person, other than a party to the credit transaction (except as provided in paragraph (2)), who is involved in developing or negotiating credit terms, participates in the completion of the credit documents, and directly or indirectly receives compensation for arrangement of the credit or from any transaction or transfer of the real property which is facilitated by that extension of credit. As used in this paragraph, "arranger of credit" does not apply to an attorney who is representing one of the parties to the credit transaction.
- (2) A party to the transaction who is either a real estate licensee, licensed under provisions of Part 1 (commencing with Section 10000) of Division 4 of the Business and Professions Code, or is an attorney licensed under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 6000) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code if neither party to the transaction is represented by an agent who is a real estate licensee. In any transaction in which disclosure is required solely by the provisions of this paragraph, the obligations of this article shall apply only to a real estate licensee or attorney who is a party to the transaction, and not to any other party.

- (3) An arranger of credit does not include a person acting in the capacity as an escrow in the transaction.
- (4) Persons described in paragraph (2) who are acting in the capacity as an escrowholder in the transaction shall nevertheless be deemed arrangers of credit where such persons act on behalf of a party to the transaction or an agent of such party in the development or negotiation of credit terms. Neither the completion of credit documents in accordance with instructions of a party or his or her agent nor the furnishing of information regarding credit terms to a party or his or her agent shall be considered to be the development or negotiation of credit terms.
- (b) "Balloon payment note" means a note which provides for a final payment as originally scheduled which is more than twice the amount of any of the immediately preceding six regularly scheduled payments or which contains a call provision; provided, however, that if the call provision is not exercised by the holder of the note, the existence of the unexercised call provision shall not cause the note to be deemed to be a balloon payment note.
- (c) "Call provision" means a note contract term that provides the holder of the note with the right to call the note due and payable either after a specified period has elapsed following closing or after a specified date.
- (d) "Credit" means the right granted by a vendor to a purchaser to purchase property and to defer payment therefore.

The credit involved must be subject to a finance charge or payable by written agreement in more than four installments, whether providing for payment of principal and interest, or interest only, not including a downpayment.

- (e) "Credit documents" are those documents which contain the binding credit terms, and include a note or a contract of sale if the contract spells out terms upon which a vendor agrees to provide financing for a purchaser.
- (f) "Purchase" includes acquisition of equitable title by a real property sales contract as defined in Section 2985, or lease with an option to purchase, where the facts demonstrate intent to transfer equitable title.
- (g) "Security documents" include a mortgage, deed of trust, real property sales contract as defined in Section 2985, or lease with an option to purchase, where the facts demonstrate an intent to transfer equitable title.
- (h) "All inclusive trust deed" is an instrument which secures indebtedness owed by the trustor to the beneficiary, which indebtedness includes a debt or debts owed by that beneficiary to the beneficiary of another security document secured by the same property which is senior in priority.
  - SEC. 3. Section 2966 of the Civil Code is amended to read:
- 2966. (a) In a transaction regulated by this article, which includes a balloon payment note when the term for repayment is for a period in excess of one year, the holder of the note shall, not less than 90 nor more than 150 days before the balloon payment is due, deliver or mail by first-class mail, with a certificate of mailing obtained from the United States Postal Service, to the trustor, or his or her successor in interest, at the last known address of such person a written notice, to include:

- (1) A statement of the name and address of the person to whom the balloon payment is required to be paid.
- (2) The date on or before which the balloon payment was or is required to be paid.
- (3) The amount of the balloon payment, or if its exact amount is unknown a good faith estimate of the amount thereof, including unpaid principal, interest, and any other charges (assuming payment in full of all scheduled installments coming due between the date of the notice and the date when the balloon payment is due).
- (4) A description of the trustor's right, if any, to refinance the balloon payment, including a summary of the actual terms of the refinancing or an estimate or approximation thereof, to the extent known.

If the due date of the balloon payment of a note subject to this subdivision is extended prior to the time notice is otherwise required under this subdivision, this notice requirement shall apply only to the due date as extended (or as subsequently extended).

- (b) Failure to provide notice as required by subdivision (a) does not extinguish any obligation of payment by the trustor, except that the due date for any balloon payment shall be the date specified in the note, or 90 days from the date the delivery or mailing of the notice, or the date specified in the notice, whichever date is later. If the operation of this section acts to extend the term of any such note, interest shall continue to accrue for the extended term at the contract rate and payments shall continue to be due at any periodic interval and on any scheduled payment schedule specified in the note and shall be credited to principal or interest under terms of the note. Default in any extended periodic payment shall be considered a default under terms of the note or security instrument.
- (c) Any failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall not affect the validity of a sale in favor of a bona fide purchaser or the rights of an encumbrancer for value and without notice.
- (d) Every note subject to the provisions of this section shall include the following statement:

"This note is subject to Section 2966 of the Civil Code, which provides that the holder of this note shall give written notice to the trustor, or his successor in interest, of prescribed information at least 90 and not more than 150 days before any balloon payment is due."

Failure to include this notice shall not invalidate the note.

(e) The provisions of this section shall apply to any note executed on or after July 1, 1983.

CHAPTER 1361

An act to add Section 30 to, and to amend Section 24049.5 of, the Business and Professions Code, to amend Section 2924b of the Civil Code, to add Section 1666.5 to the Insurance Code, and to amend Sections 6069, 6071, 6366, 6366.1, 6368, 6368.1, 6452, 6455, 6776, 6777, 7154, 8404, 9355, 17299.8. 18681, 18681.6, 18684, 18817.5, 19254, 24447, 25934, 26423, and 32556 of, to add Sections 19276, 30481, and 40188 to, to add Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 9021) to Chapter 5 of Part 3 of Division 2 of, Article 6 (commencing with Section 18700) to Chapter 18 of Part 10 of Division 2 of, Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 41143) to Chapter 7 of Part 20 of Division 2 of, and Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 44186) to Chapter 6 of Part 22 of Division 2 of, to add and repeal Section 18806.1 of, to repeal and add Section 8957 of, and to repeal Section 7151 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 30 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

- 30. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any board, as defined in Section 22, and the State Bar and the Department of Real Estate (hereinafter referred to as licensing board) shall at the time of issuance or renewal of the license require that any licensee provide its federal employer identification number (if the licensee is a partnership) or his or her social security number (for all others).
- (b) Any licensee failing to provide the federal identification number or social security number shall be reported by the licensing board to the Franchise Tax Board and, if failing to provide after notification pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 19276 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, shall be subject to the penalty provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 19276 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.
- (c) A licensing board shall, upon request of the Franchise Tax Board, furnish to the Franchise Tax Board the following information with respect to every licensee:
  - (1) Licensee's name.
  - (2) Address or addresses of record.
- (3) Federal employer identification number (if the entity is a partnership) or owner's name and social security number (for all others).
  - (4) Type of license.
  - (5) Effective date of license or renewal.
  - (6) Expiration date of license.
  - (7) Whether license is active or inactive, if known.

- (8) Whether license is new or renewal.
- (d) For the purposes of this section:
- (1) "Licensee" means any entity, other than a corporation, authorized by a license, certificate, registration, or other means to engage in a business or profession regulated by this code or referred to in Section 1000 or 3600.
- (2) "License" includes a certificate, registration, or any other authorization needed to engage in a business or profession regulated by this code or referred to in Section 1000 or 3600.
- (e) The reports required under this section shall be filed on magnetic media or in other machine-readable form, according to standards furnished by the Franchise Tax Board.
- (f) Licensing boards shall begin providing to the Franchise Tax Board the information required by this section as soon as economically feasible but no later than July 1, 1987. The information shall be furnished at a time which the Franchise Tax Board may require.
- (g) Notwithstanding Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, the social security number and federal employer identification number furnished pursuant to this section shall not be deemed to be a public record and shall not be open to the public for inspection.
- (h) Any deputy, agent, clerk, officer, or employee of any licensing board described in subdivision (a), or any former officer or employee or other individual who in the course of his or her employment or duty has or has had access to the information required to be furnished under this section, shall not disclose or make known in any manner that information, except as provided in this section to the Franchise Tax Board.
- (i) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to utilize the social security account number or federal employer identification number for the purpose of establishing the identification of persons affected by state tax laws and, to that end, the information furnished pursuant to this section shall be used exclusively for tax enforcement purposes.
- SEC. 2. Section 24049.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:
- 24049.5. (a) The State Board of Equalization or the Franchise Tax Board may seize and sell the license of any off-sale or on-sale general licensee who, upon termination of business is delinquent in the payment of any taxes due under the Sales and Use Tax Law, Personal Income Tax Law, or Bank and Corporation Tax Law, respectively. In order for a seizure and sale of a license to be accomplished under this section, the licensee shall have either surrendered the license to the department or failed to pay the annual renewal fee to the department. Immediately upon seizure the State Board of Equalization or Franchise Tax Board shall give written notice by first-class mail to the department and to the licensee of the seizure and of the intention of the board to sell the license. The seizure and sale shall be in accordance with the provisions of Article 6 (commencing with Section 6796) of Chapter 6 of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code or Article 4 (commencing with Section 26221) of Chapter 23 of Part 11 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, respectively, and with the provisions of this division. Nothing within these provisions shall be construed to permit the State Board of Equalization or Franchise Tax Board to sell alcoholic beverages.

- (b) For the purposes of this section "termination of business" means the licensee has ceased business operations and has either surrendered the license to the department or failed to pay the annual renewal fee by the date specified in subdivision (b) of Section 24048.1 or subdivision (b) of Section 24048.3.
- (c) The licensee may redeem the license at any time prior to the date of sale of the license by the board or the appropriate reinstatement deadline, whichever occurs first, by conforming to the requirements for reinstatement of a license pursuant to Sections 24048.1 and 24048.3.

The person who purchases the license at the sale may reinstate the license by paying the applicable fees, but the transfer shall be effective only on approval of the department after the purchaser has complied with the requirements for transfer provided in this division.

- (d) Paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 699.720 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall not be construed to limit the authority of the State Board of Equalization or the Franchise Tax Board to seize and sell licenses pursuant to this section.
  - SEC. 3. Section 2924b of the Civil Code is amended to read:
- (1) Any person desiring a copy of any notice of default and of any notice of sale under any deed of trust or mortgage with power of sale upon real property, as to which deed of trust or mortgage the power of sale cannot be exercised until these notices are given for the time and in the manner provided in Section 2924 may, at any time subsequent to recordation of the deed of trust or mortgage and prior to recordation of notice of default thereunder, cause to be filed for record in the office of the recorder of any county in which any part or parcel of the real property is situated, a duly acknowledged request for a copy of the notice of default and of sale. This request shall be signed and acknowledged by the person making the request, specifying the name and address of the person to whom the notice is to be mailed, shall identify the deed of trust or mortgage by stating the names of the parties thereto, the date of recordation thereof and the book and page where the deed of trust or mortgage is recorded or the recorder's number and shall be in substantially the following form:

"In accordance with Section 2924b, Civil Code, request is hereby made that a copy of any notice of default and a copy of any notice of sale under the deed of trust (or mortgage) recorded ______,

19, in Book	page	records of	Coun	ty, (or

Name			Address
	Sigr	nature

Upon the filing for record of the request, the recorder shall index in the general index of grantors the names of the trustors (or mortgagor) recited therein and the names of persons requesting copies.

- (2) The mortgagee, trustee, or other person authorized to record the notice of default shall do each of the following:
- (a) Within 10 days following recordation of the notice of default, deposit or cause to be deposited in the United States mail an envelope, sent by registered or certified mail with postage prepaid, containing a copy of such notice with the recording date shown thereon, addressed to each person whose name and address are set forth in a duly recorded request therefor, directed to the address designated in the request and to each trustor or mortgagor at his last known address if different than the address specified in the deed of trust or mortgage with power of sale.
- (b) At least 20 days before the date of sale, deposit or cause to be deposited in the United States mail an envelope, sent by registered or certified mail with postage prepaid, containing a copy of the notice of the time and place of sale, addressed to each person whose name and address are set forth in a duly recorded request therefor, directed to the address designated in the request and to each trustor or mortgagor at his last known address if different than the address specified in the deed of trust or mortgage with power of sale.
- (c) As used in paragraphs (a) and (b), the "last known address" of each trustor or mortgagor means the last business or residence address actually known by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or other person authorized to record the notice of default. The beneficiary shall inform the trustee of the trustor's last address actually known by the beneficiary. However, the trustee shall incur no liability for failing to send any notice to the last address unless the trustee has actual knowledge of it.
- (3) The mortgagee, trustee, or other person authorized to record the notice of default shall do the following:
- (a) Within one month following recordation of the notice of default, deposit or cause to be deposited in the United States mail an envelope, sent by registered or certified mail with postage prepaid, containing a copy of such notice with the recording date shown thereon, addressed to each person set forth in paragraph (b) of subdivision (3), provided that the estate or interest of any person entitled to receive notice under this subdivision is acquired by an instrument sufficient to impart constructive notice of the estate or interest in the land or portion thereof which is subject to the deed of trust or mortgage being foreclosed, and provided the instrument is recorded in the office of the county recorder so as to impart such constructive notice prior to the recording date of the notice of default and provided the instrument as so recorded sets forth a mailing address which the county recorder shall use, as instructed within the instrument, for the return of the instrument after recording, and which address shall be the address used for the purposes of mailing notices herein.

- (b) The persons to whom notice shall be mailed under this subdivision are:
- (A) The successor in interest, as of the recording date of the notice of default, of the estate or interest or any portion thereof of the trustor or mortgagor of the deed of trust or mortgage being foreclosed.
- (B) The beneficiary or mortgagee of any deed of trust or mortgage recorded subsequent to the deed of trust or mortgage being foreclosed, or recorded prior to or concurrently with the deed of trust or mortgage being foreclosed but subject to a recorded agreement or a recorded statement of subordination to the deed of trust or mortgage being foreclosed.
- (C) The assignee of any interest of the beneficiary or mortgagee described in subparagraph (B) above, as of the recording date of the notice of default.
- (D) The vendee of any contract of sale, or the lessee of any lease, of the estate or interest being foreclosed which is recorded subsequent to the deed of trust or mortgage being foreclosed, or recorded prior to or concurrently with the deed of trust or mortgage being foreclosed but subject to a recorded agreement or statement of subordination to the deed of trust or mortgage being foreclosed.
- (E) The successor in interest to the vendee or lessee described in subparagraph (D) above, as of the recording date of the notice of default.
- (F) The office of the Controller, Sacramento, California, where, as of the recording date of the notice of default, a "Notice of Lien for Postponed Property Taxes" has been recorded against the real property to which the notice of default applies.
- (c) At least 20 days before the date of sale, deposit or cause to be deposited in the United States mail, an envelope, sent by registered or certified mail with postage prepaid, containing a copy of the notice of the time and place of sale addressed to each person to whom a copy of the notice of default is to be mailed as provided in paragraphs (a) and (b), and addressed to the office of any state taxing agency, Sacramento, California, which has recorded a notice of tax lien prior to the recording date of the notice of default against the real property to which the notice of default applies.
- (d) The mailing of notices in the manner set forth in paragraph (a) shall not impose upon any licensed attorney, agent, or employee of any person entitled to receive notices as herein set forth any duty to communicate the notice to the entitled person from the fact that the mailing address used by the county recorder is the address of the attorney, agent, or employee.

- (4) Any deed of trust or mortgage with power of sale hereafter executed upon real property may contain a request that a copy of any notice of default and a copy of any notice of sale thereunder shall be mailed to any person or party thereto at the address of the person given therein, and a copy of any notice of default and of any notice of sale shall be mailed to each of these at the same time and in the same manner required as though a separate request therefor had been filed by each of such persons as herein authorized. If any deed of trust or mortgage with power of sale executed after September 19, 1939, except a deed of trust or mortgage of any of the classes excepted from the provisions of Section 2924 does not contain a request of the trustor or mortgagor for special notice at the address of such person given therein or does contain such a request but no address of the person is given therein and if no request for special notice by the trustor or mortgagor in substantially the form set forth in this section has subsequently been recorded, a copy of the notice of default shall be published once a week for at least four weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the property is situated, the publication to commence within 10 days after the filing of the notice of default. In lieu of publication a copy of the notice of default may be delivered personally to the trustor or mortgagor within that 10 days or at any time before publication is completed.
- (5) Any person required to mail a copy of a notice of default or notice of sale to each trustor or mortgagor pursuant to subdivision (2) or (3) by registered or certified mail shall simultaneously cause to be deposited in the United States mail, with postage prepaid and mailed by first-class mail, an envelope containing an additional copy of the required notice addressed to each trustor or mortgagor at the same address to which the notice is sent by registered or certified mail pursuant to subdivision (2) or (3). The person shall execute and retain an affidavit identifying the notice mailed, showing the name and residence or business address of that person, that he or she is over the age of 18 years, the date of deposit in the mail, the name and address of the trustor or mortgagor to whom sent, and that the envelope was sealed and deposited in the mail with postage fully prepaid. In the absence of fraud, the affidavit required by this subdivision shall establish a conclusive presumption of mailing.
- (6) No request for a copy of any notice filed for record pursuant to this section, no statement or allegation in any such request, and no record thereof shall affect the title to real property or be deemed notice to any person that any person requesting copies of notice has or claims any right, title or interest in, or lien or charge upon the property described in the deed of trust or mortgage referred to therein.

SEC. 3.5. Section 2924b of the Civil Code is amended to read:

(a) Any person desiring a copy of any notice of default and of any notice of sale under any deed of trust or mortgage with power of sale upon real property, as to which deed of trust or mortgage the power of sale cannot be exercised until these notices are given for the time and in the manner provided in Section 2924 may, at any time subsequent to recordation of the deed of trust or mortgage and prior to recordation of notice of default thereunder. cause to be filed for record in the office of the recorder of any county in which any part or parcel of the real property is situated, a duly acknowledged request for a copy of the notice of default and of sale. This request shall be signed and acknowledged by the person making the request, specifying the name and address of the person to whom the notice is to be mailed, shall identify the deed of trust or mortgage by stating the names of the parties thereto, the date of recordation thereof and the book and page where the deed of trust or mortgage is recorded or the recorder's number and shall be in substantially the following form:

"In accordance with made that a copy of an

Upon the filing for record of the request, the recorder shall index in the general index of grantors the names of the trustors (or mortgagor) recited therein and the names of persons requesting copies.

- (b) The mortgagee, trustee, or other person authorized to record the notice of default shall do each of the following:
- (1) Within 10 days following recordation of the notice of default, deposit or cause to be deposited in the United States mail an envelope, sent by registered or certified mail with postage prepaid, containing a copy of such notice with the recording date shown thereon, addressed to each person whose name and address are set forth in a duly recorded request therefor, directed to the address designated in the request and to each trustor or mortgagor at his last known address if different than the address specified in the deed of trust or mortgage with power of sale.
  - (2) At least 20 days before the date of sale, deposit or cause to be

- deposited in the United States mail an envelope, sent by registered or certified mail with postage prepaid, containing a copy of the notice of the time and place of sale, addressed to each person whose name and address are set forth in a duly recorded request therefor, directed to the address designated in the request and to each trustor or mortgagor at his last known address if different than the address specified in the deed of trust or mortgage with power of sale.
- (3) As used in paragraphs (1) and (2), the "last known address" of each trustor or mortgagor means the last business or residence address actually known by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or other person authorized to record the notice of default. The beneficiary shall inform the trustee of the trustor's last address actually known by the beneficiary. However, the trustee shall incur no liability for failing to send any notice to the last address unless the trustee has actual knowledge of it.
- (c) The mortgagee, trustee, or other person authorized to record the notice of default shall do the following:
- (1) Within one month following recordation of the notice of default, deposit or cause to be deposited in the United States mail an envelope, sent by registered or certified mail with postage prepaid, containing a copy of such notice with the recording date shown thereon, addressed to each person set forth in paragraph (2), provided that the estate or interest of any person entitled to receive notice under this subdivision is acquired by an instrument sufficient to impart constructive notice of the estate or interest in the land or portion thereof which is subject to the deed of trust or mortgage being foreclosed, and provided the instrument is recorded in the office of the county recorder so as to impart such constructive notice prior to the recording date of the notice of default and provided the instrument as so recorded sets forth a mailing address which the county recorder shall use, as instructed within the instrument, for the return of the instrument after recording, and which address shall be the address used for the purposes of mailing notices herein.
- (2) The persons to whom notice shall be mailed under this subdivision are:
- (A) The successor in interest, as of the recording date of the notice of default, of the estate or interest or any portion thereof of the trustor or mortgagor of the deed of trust or mortgage being foreclosed.
- (B) The beneficiary or mortgagee of any deed of trust or mortgage recorded subsequent to the deed of trust or mortgage being foreclosed, or recorded prior to or concurrently with the deed of trust or mortgage being foreclosed but subject to a recorded agreement or a recorded statement of subordination to the deed of trust or mortgage being foreclosed.
- (C) The assignee of any interest of the beneficiary or mortgagee described in subparagraph (B), as of the recording date of the notice of default.
  - (D) The vendee of any contract of sale, or the lessee of any lease, of the estate or interest being foreclosed which is recorded subsequent to the deed of trust or mortgage being foreclosed, or recorded prior to or concurrently with the deed of trust or mortgage being foreclosed but subject to a recorded agreement or statement of subordination to the deed of trust or mortgage being foreclosed.

(E) The successor in interest to the vendee or lessee described in subparagraph (D), as of the recording date of the notice of default.

(F) The office of the Controller, Sacramento, California, where, as of the recording date of the notice of default, a "Notice of Lien for Postponed Property Taxes" has been recorded against the real property to which the notice of default applies.

- (3) At least 20 days before the date of sale, deposit or cause to be deposited in the United States mail, an envelope, sent by registered or certified mail with postage prepaid, containing a copy of the notice of the time and place of sale addressed to each person to whom a copy of the notice of default is to be mailed as provided in paragraphs (1) and (2), and addressed to the office of any state taxing agency, Sacramento, California, which has recorded a notice of tax lien prior to the recording date of the notice of default against the real property to which the notice of default applies.
- (4) The mailing of notices in the manner set forth in paragraph (1) shall not impose upon any licensed attorney, agent, or employee of any person entitled to receive notices as herein set forth any duty to communicate the notice to the entitled person from the fact that the mailing address used by the county recorder is the address of the attorney, agent, or employee.
- (d) Any deed of trust or mortgage with power of sale hereafter executed upon real property may contain a request that a copy of any notice of default and a copy of any notice of sale thereunder shall be mailed to any person or party thereto at the address of the person given therein, and a copy of any notice of default and of any notice of sale shall be mailed to each of these at the same time and in the same manner required as though a separate request therefor had been filed by each of those persons as herein authorized. If any deed of trust or mortgage with power of sale executed after September 19, 1939, except a deed of trust or mortgage of any of the classes excepted from the provisions of Section 2924 does not contain a request of the trustor or mortgagor for special notice at the address of such person given therein or does contain such a request but no address of the person is given therein and if no request for special notice by the trustor or mortgagor in substantially the form set forth in this section has subsequently been recorded, a copy of the notice of default shall be published once a week for at least four weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the property is situated, the publication to commence within 10 days after the filing of the notice of default. In lieu of publication a copy of the notice of default may be delivered personally to the trustor or mortgagor within that 10 days or at any time before publication is completed.
  - (e) Any person required to mail a copy of a notice of default or notice of sale to each trustor or mortgagor pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c) by registered or certified mail shall simultaneously cause to be deposited in the United States mail, with postage prepaid and mailed by first-class mail, an envelope containing an additional copy of the required notice addressed to each trustor or mortgagor at the same address to which the notice is sent by registered or certified mail pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c). The person shall execute and retain an affidavit identifying the notice mailed, showing the name and residence or business address of that person, that he or she is over the age of 18 years, the date of deposit in the mail, the name and address of the trustor or mortgagor to whom sent, and that the envelope was sealed and deposited in the mail with postage fully prepaid. In the absence of fraud, the affidavit required by this subdivision shall establish a conclusive presumption of mailing.

- (f) No request for a copy of any notice filed for record pursuant to this section, no statement or allegation in any such request, and no record thereof shall affect the title to real property or be deemed notice to any person that any person requesting copies of notice has or claims any right, title or interest in, or lien or charge upon the property described in the deed of trust or mortgage referred to therein.
- SEC. 5. Section 1666.5 is added to the Insurance Code, to read: 1666.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the commissioner shall at the time of issuance or renewal of any license under this chapter or Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 1760), 7 (commencing with Section 1800), or 8 (commencing with Section 1831) require that any licensee provide its federal employer identification number (if the licensee is a partnership) or his or her social security number (for all others).
- (b) Any licensee failing to provide the federal identification number or social security number shall be reported by the commissioner to the Franchise Tax Board and, if failing to provide after notification pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 19276 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, shall be subject to the penalty provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 19276 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.
- (c) The commissioner shall, upon request of the Franchise Tax Board, furnish to the board all of the following information with respect to every licensee:
  - (1) Licensee's name.
  - (2) Address or addresses of record.
- (3) Federal employer identification number (if the entity is a partnership) or owner's name and social security number (for all others).
  - (4) Type of license.
  - (5) Effective date of license or renewal.
  - (6) Expiration date of license.
  - (7) Whether license is active or inactive, if known.
  - (8) Whether license is new or renewal.

- (d) For the purposes of this section:
- (1) "Licensee" means any entity, other than a corporation, authorized by a license, certificate, registration, or other means to engage in the insurance business regulated by this code.
- (2) "License" includes a certificate, registration, or any other authorization needed to engage in the insurance business regulated by this code.
- (e) The reports required under this section shall be filed on magnetic media or in other machine-readable form, according to standards furnished by the Franchise Tax Board.
- (f) The commissioner shall begin providing to the Franchise Tax Board the information required by this section as soon as economically feasible, but no later than July 1, 1987. The information shall be furnished at a time which the Franchise Tax Board may require.
- (g) Notwithstanding Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, the information furnished pursuant to this section shall not be deemed to be a public record and shall not be open to the public for inspection.
- (h) Any deputy, agent, clerk, officer, or employee of the commissioner, or any former officer or employee or other individual who in the course of his or her employment or duty has or has had access to the information required to be furnished under this section, shall not disclose or make known in any manner that information, except as provided in this section to the Franchise Tax Board.
- (i) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to utilize the social security account number or federal employer identification number for the purpose of establishing the identification of persons affected by state tax laws and, to that end, the information furnished pursuant to this section shall be used exclusively for tax enforcement purposes.
- SEC. 7. Section 6069 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 6069. A seller whose permit has been previously suspended or revoked shall pay the board a fee of fifty dollars ($50) for the renewal or issuance of a permit.
- SEC. 8. Section 6071 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 6071. A person who engages in business as a seller in this state without a permit or permits or after a permit has been suspended or revoked, and each officer of any corporation which so engages in business, is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable as provided in Section 7153.
- SEC. 9. Section 6366 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 6366. There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this part the gross receipts from the sale of and the storage, use, or other consumption of aircraft sold to persons using such aircraft as common carriers of persons or property under authority of the laws of this state, of the United States or any foreign government, or sold to any foreign government for use by such government outside of this state, or sold to persons who are not residents of this state and who will not use such aircraft in this state otherwise than in the removal of such aircraft from this state.

For purposes of this section, it shall be rebuttably presumed that a person is not engaged in business as a common carrier of persons or property if the yearly gross receipts of that person from the use of that aircraft in the transportation of persons or property do not exceed 10 percent of the purchase cost of the aircraft to him or her, or twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), whichever is less.

- SEC. 10. Section 6366.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 6366.1. (a) There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this part, the gross receipts from the sale of and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of aircraft which are leased, or are sold to persons for the purpose of leasing, to lessees using such aircraft as common carriers of persons or property under authority of the laws of this state, of the United States or any foreign government, or to any foreign government as lessees for use by such government outside the state, or to persons as lessees who are not residents of this state and who will not use such aircraft in this state otherwise than in the removal of such aircraft from this state.
- (b) There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this part, the gross receipts from the sale of and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of tangible personal property sold to an aircraft manufacturer and incorporated into aircraft to be leased by the manufacturer under conditions set forth in subdivision (a) of this section.
- (c) For purposes of this section, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the aircraft is not regularly used in the business of transporting for hire property or persons if the yearly gross receipts of the lessor from the lease of that aircraft to persons using that aircraft as common carriers of property or persons do not exceed 10 percent of the cost of the aircraft to the lessor, or twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), whichever is less.
- SEC. 11. Section 6368 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 6368. (a) There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this part the gross receipts from the sale of and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of watercraft and any sales of tangible personal property becoming a component part of that watercraft in the course of constructing, repairing, cleaning, altering, or improving the same, and charges made for labor and services rendered in respect to that constructing, repairing, cleaning, altering, or improving, if any of the following conditions are met:
- (1) The watercraft is for use in interstate or foreign commerce involving the transportation of property or persons for hire.

- (2) The watercraft is for use in commercial deep sea fishing operations outside the territorial waters of this state by persons who are regularly engaged in commercial deep sea fishing.
- (3) The watercraft is functionally used 80 percent or more of the time in the transporting for hire of property or persons to vessels or offshore drilling platforms located outside the territorial waters of this state.
- (b) For purposes of this section, it shall be rebuttably presumed that a person is not regularly engaged in the business of commercial deep sea fishing if the person has gross receipts from commercial fishing operations of less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) a year.
- (c) For purposes of this section, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the watercraft is not regularly used in interstate or foreign commerce involving the transportation for hire of property or persons, if the yearly gross receipts of the person using that watercraft in the transportation of property or persons do not exceed 10 percent of the cost of that watercraft to him or her, or twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), whichever is less.
- SEC. 11.5. Section 6368 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 6368. (a) There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this part the gross receipts from the sale of and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of watercraft and any sales of tangible personal property becoming a component part of that watercraft in the course of constructing, repairing, cleaning, altering, or improving the same, and charges made for labor and services rendered in respect to that constructing, repairing, cleaning, altering, or improving, if any of the following conditions are met:
- (1) The watercraft is for use in interstate or foreign commerce involving the transportation of property or persons for hire.
- (2) The watercraft is for use in commercial deep sea fishing operations outside the territorial waters of this state by persons who are regularly engaged in commercial deep sea fishing.
- (3) The watercraft is functionally used 80 percent or more of the time in the transporting for hire of property or persons to vessels or offshore drilling platforms located outside the territorial waters of this state.
- (b) For purposes of this section, it shall be rebuttably presumed that a person is not regularly engaged in the business of commercial deep sea fishing if the person has gross receipts from commercial fishing operations of less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) a year.
- (c) For purposes of this section, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the watercraft is not regularly used in interstate or foreign commerce involving the transportation for hire of property or persons, if the yearly gross receipts of the person using that watercraft in the transportation of property or persons do not exceed 10 percent of the cost of that watercraft to him or her, or twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), whichever is less.
  - (d) For purposes of this section, it is the intent of the Legislature that "component part" includes helicopters stationed aboard the watercraft and used primarily in commercial deep sea fishing operations during the six-month period immediately following the delivery of the helicopter to the purchaser and parts used for the repair of those helicopters.

- SEC. 12. Section 6368.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 6368.1. (a) There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this part, the gross receipts from the sale of and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of watercraft which are leased, or are sold to persons for the purpose of leasing, and any sales of tangible personal property becoming a component part of such watercraft in the course of constructing, repairing, cleaning, altering, or improving the same, and charges made for labor and services rendered in respect to such constructing, repairing, cleaning, altering, or improving, if any of the following conditions are met:
- (1) The lessee uses the watercraft in interstate and foreign commerce involving the transportation of property or persons for hire.
- (2) The watercraft is for use in commercial deep sea fishing operations outside the territorial waters of this state by persons who are regularly engaged in commercial deep sea fishing.
- (3) The lessee functionally uses the watercraft 80 percent or more of the time in the transporting for hire of property or persons to vessels or offshore drilling platforms located outside the territorial waters of this state.
- (b) For purposes of this section, it shall be rebuttably presumed that a person is not regularly engaged in the business of commercial deep sea fishing if the person has gross receipts from commercial fishing operations of less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) a year.
- (c) For purposes of this section, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the watercraft is not regularly used in the business of transporting for hire property or persons, if the yearly gross receipts of the lessor from the lease of that watercraft to persons using that watercraft in the transportation of property or persons do not exceed 10 percent of the cost of that watercraft to the lessor, or twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), whichever is less.
- SEC. 12.5. Section 6368.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 6368.1. (a) There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this part, the gross receipts from the sale of and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of watercraft which are leased, or are sold to persons for the purpose of leasing, and any sales of tangible personal property becoming a component part of that watercraft in the course of constructing, repairing, cleaning, altering, or improving the same, and charges made for labor and services rendered in respect to that constructing, repairing, cleaning, altering, or improving, if any of the following conditions are met:
  - (1) The lessee uses the watercraft in interstate and foreign commerce involving the transportation of property or persons for hire.

- (2) The watercraft is for use in commercial deep sea fishing operations outside the territorial waters of this state by persons who are regularly engaged in commercial deep sea fishing.
- (3) The lessee functionally uses the watercraft 80 percent or more of the time in the transporting for hire of property or persons to vessels or offshore drilling platforms located outside the territorial waters of this state.
- (b) For purposes of this section, it shall be rebuttably presumed that a person is not regularly engaged in the business of commercial deep sea fishing if the person has gross receipts from commercial fishing operations of less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) a year.
- (c) For purposes of this section, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the watercraft is not regularly used in interstate or foreign commerce involving the transportation for hire of property or persons, if the yearly gross receipts of the person using that watercraft in the transportation of property or persons do not exceed 10 percent of the cost of that watercraft to him or her, or twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), whichever is less.
- (d) For purposes of this section, it is the intent of the Legislature that "component part" includes helicopters stationed aboard the watercraft during deep sea fishing operations and parts used for the repair of those helicopters.
- SEC. 13. Section 6452 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 6452. (a) On or before the last day of the month following each quarterly period of three months, a return for the preceding quarterly period shall be filed with the board in such form as the board may prescribe.
- (b) For purposes of the sales tax, a return shall be filed by every seller and also by every person who is liable for the sales tax under this part. For purposes of the use tax, a return shall be filed by every retailer engaged in business in this state and by every person purchasing tangible personal property, the storage, use, or other consumption of which is subject to the use tax, who has not paid the use tax due to a retailer required to collect the tax. Returns shall be signed by the person required to file the return or by his duly authorized agent but need not be verified by oath.
- (c) Any retailer or other person who fails or refuses to furnish any return required to be made, or who fails or refuses to furnish a supplemental return or other data required by the board, is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable as provided in Section 7153.
- SEC. 14. Section 6455 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 6455. (a) The board, if it deems it necessary in order to insure payment to or facilitate the collection by the state of the amount of taxes, may require returns and payment of the amount of taxes for quarterly periods other than calendar quarters depending upon the principal place of business of the seller, retailer or purchaser as the case may be, or for designated periods other than quarterly periods.

- (b) On or before the last day of the month following each designated period, a return for the preceding designated period shall be filed with the board in such form as the board may prescribe.
- (c) Any retailer or other person who fails or refuses to furnish any return required by law to be made, or who fails or refuses to furnish a supplemental return or other data required by the board, is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable as provided in Section 7153.
- SEC. 15. Section 6776 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 6776. At any time within three years after any person is delinquent in the payment of any amount herein required to be paid, or within 10 years after the last recording of an abstract under Section 6738 or the last recording or filing of a notice of state tax lien under Section 7171 of the Government Code, the board or its authorized representative may issue a warrant for the enforcement of any liens and for the collection of any amount required to be paid to the state under this part. The warrant shall be directed to any sheriff, marshal, constable, or the California State Police and shall have the same effect as a writ of execution. The warrant shall be levied and sale made pursuant to it in the same manner and with the same effect as a levy of and a sale pursuant to a writ of execution and shall be levied within five working days following receipt of the warrant.
- SEC. 15.5. Section 6777 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 6777. The board may pay or advance to the sheriff, marshal, constable, or the California State Police, the same fees, commissions, and expenses for services as are provided by law for similar services pursuant to a writ of execution. The board, and not the court, shall approve the fees for publication in a newspaper.
- SEC. 16. Section 7151 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.
- SEC. 17. Section 7154 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 7154. Any prosecution for violation of any of the penal provisions of this part shall be instituted within three years after the commission of the offense, or within two years after the violation is discovered, whichever is later.
- SEC. 18. Section 8404 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 8404. Any prosecution for violation of any of the penal provisions of this part shall be instituted within three years after the commission of the offense, or within two years after the violation is discovered, whichever is later.
- SEC. 19. Section 8957 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.
  - SEC. 20. Section 8957 is added to the Revenue and Taxation

Code, to read:

- 8957. (a) Subject to the limitations in subdivisions (b) and (c), the board may by notice of levy, served personally or by first-class mail, require all persons having in their possession, or under their control, any credits or other personal property belonging to a user, vendor, or other person liable for any amount under this part to withhold from those credits or other personal property the amount of any tax, interest, or penalties due from that user, vendor, or other person, or the amount of any liability incurred by them under this part, and to transmit the amount withheld to the board at such times as it may designate.
- (b) The person served shall continue to withhold pursuant to the Notice of Levy until the amount specified in the notice, including accrued interest, has been paid in full, until the notice is withdrawn, or until one year from the date the notice is received, whichever occurs first.
- (c) The amount required to be withheld is the lesser of the following:
  - (1) The amount due stated on the notice.
- (2) The amount of each payment due or becoming due to the user, vendor, or other person liable during the period of the levy.
- (d) For the purposes of this section, the term "payments" does not include earnings as that term is defined in subdivision (a) of Section 706.011 of the Code of Civil Procedure or funds in a deposit account as defined in Section 9105 of the Commercial Code. The term "payments" does include any of the following:
- (1) Payments due for services of independent contractors, dividends, rents, royalties, residuals, patent rights, mineral or other natural rights.
- (2) Payments or credits due or becoming due periodically as a result of an enforceable obligation to the user, vendor, or other person liable for the tax.
- (3) Any other payments or credits due or becoming due the user, vendor, or other person liable as the result of written or oral contracts for services or sales whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise.
- (e) In the case of a financial institution, to be effective, the notice shall state the amount due from the taxpayer and shall be delivered or mailed to the branch or office of the financial institution where the credits or other property is held, unless another branch or office is designated by the financial institution to receive the notice.
- SEC. 21. Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 9021) is added to Chapter 5 of Part 3 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

Article 4.5. Successor Withholding and Liability

9021. If any vendor liable for any amount under this part sells out his or her business or stock of goods or quits the business, his or her successor or assigns shall withhold from the purchase price an amount sufficient to cover that amount until the former owner produces a receipt from the board showing that it has been paid or a certificate stating that no amount is due.

- 9022. (a) If the purchaser of a business or stock of goods fails to withhold the purchase price as required, he or she becomes personally liable for the payment of the amount required to be withheld by him or her to the extent of the purchase price valued in money.
- (b) (1) Within 60 days after the latest of the dates specified in paragraph (2), the board shall either issue the certificate or mail notice to the purchaser at his or her address as it appears on the records of the board of the amount that must be paid as a condition of issuing the certificate.
- (2) For purposes of paragraph (1), the latest of the following dates shall apply:
- (A) The date the board receives a written request from the purchaser for a certificate.
  - (B) The date of the sale of the business or stock of goods.
- (C) The date the former owner's records are made available for audit.
- (c) Failure of the board to mail the notice referred to in subdivision (b) shall release the purchaser from any further obligation to withhold purchase price under this article. The time within which the obligation of the successor may be enforced shall begin to run at the time the person sells out his or her business or stock of goods or at the time that the determination against the person becomes final, whichever event occurs the later.
- 9023. The certificate may be issued after the payment of all amounts due under this part, according to the records of the board as of the date of the certificate, or after the payment of the amounts is secured to the satisfaction of the board.
- 9024. The obligation of the successor shall be enforced by serving a notice of successor liability on the person. The notice shall be served in the manner prescribed for service of a notice of a deficiency determination. The successor may petition for reconsideration in the manner provided in Article 5 (commencing with Section 8851) of Chapter 4. The notice shall become final and the amount due and payable in the manner provided in that article except that no additional penalty shall apply if not paid when due and payable. This chapter, with respect to the collection of any amount required to be paid under this part, shall apply when the notice becomes final.
- SEC. 22. Section 9355 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 9355. Any prosecution for violation of any of the penal provisions of this part shall be instituted within three years after the commission of the offense, or within two years after the violation is discovered, whichever is later.

- · SEC. 23. Section 17299.8 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 17299.8. The Franchise Tax Board may disallow a deduction under this part to an individual or entity for amounts paid as remuneration for personal services if that individual or entity fails to report the payments required under Section 13050 of the Unemployment Insurance Code or Sections 18802 or 18802.2 on the date prescribed therefor (determined with regard to any extension of time for filing).
- SEC. 23.5. Section 18681 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 18681. (a) If any taxpayer fails to make and file a return required by this part on or before the due date of the return or the due date as extended by the Franchise Tax Board, then, unless it is shown that the failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect. 5 percent of the tax shall be added to the tax for each month or fraction thereof elapsing between the due date of the return and the date on which filed, but the total penalty shall not exceed 25 percent of the tax. The penalty so added to the tax shall be due and payable upon notice and demand from the Franchise Tax Board. In the case of a failure to file a return of tax required by this part within 60 days of the date prescribed for filing of that return (determined with regard to any extension of time for filing), unless it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, this penalty shall not be less than the lesser of one hundred dollars ($100) or 100 percent of the amount of tax required to be shown on the return.
- (b) For purposes of subdivision (a), the amount of tax required to be shown on the return shall be reduced by the amount of any part of the tax which is paid on or before the date prescribed for payment of the tax and by the amount of any credit against the tax which may be claimed upon the return.
- (c) This section shall not apply to any failure to pay any estimated tax required by Section 18682.
- SEC. 24. Section 18681.6 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 18681.6. (a) In addition to the penalty imposed by Section 18681.1 (relating to failure to file information returns), if any person, or entity fails to report amounts paid as remuneration for personal services as required under Section 13050 of the Unemployment Insurance Code or Section 18802 and 18802.2 on the date prescribed therefor (determined with regard to any extension of time forfiling), that person or entity may be liable for a penalty determined under subdivision (b).
- (b) For purposes of subdivision (a), the amount determined under this subdivision is 11 percent of the unreported amounts paid as remuneration for personal services.
- (c) The penalty imposed by subdivision (a) shall be assessed against that person or entity required to file a return under Section 13050 of the Unemployment Insurance Code or Section 18802 or 18802.2.

- (d) Article 2 (commencing with Section 18581) of Chapter 18 of this part (relating to deficiency assessments) shall not apply with respect to the assessment of collection of any penalty imposed by subdivision (a).
- SEC. 25. Section 18684 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 18684. (a) If any part of any underpayment (as defined by subdivision (d)) of any tax imposed by this part is due to negligence, or intentional disregard of rules or regulations, but without intent to defraud, there shall be added to the tax an amount equal to 5 percent of the underpayment.
- (b) There shall be added to the tax (in addition to the amount determined under subdivision (a)) an amount equal to 50 percent of the interest payable under Sections 18686 through 18697—
- (1) With respect to the portion of the deficiency described in subdivision (a) which is attributable to the negligence or intentional disregard referred to in subdivision (a), and
- (2) For the period beginning on the last date prescribed by law for the payment of that deficiency (determined without regard to any extension) and ending on the date of the assessment of the tax (or, if earlier, the date of the payment of the tax).
- (c) The amendments to this section made by the 1981–82 Regular Session of the Legislature shall apply to taxes the last date prescribed for payment of which is after December 31, 1981.
- (d) For purposes of this section, the term "underpayment" means "deficiency" as defined by Section 18591.1 (except that, for this purpose, the tax shown on a return shall be taken into account only if that return was filed on or before the last day prescribed for the filing of that return, determined with regard to any extension of time for that filing).
- SEC. 26. Article 6 (commencing with Section 18700) is added to Chapter 18 of Part 10 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

Article 6. Installment Payments of Taxes

18700. The Franchise Tax Board may, in cases of financial hardship, as determined by the Franchise Tax Board, allow a taxpayer to enter into installment payment agreements with the Franchise Tax Board to pay taxes due, plus applicable interest and penalties over the life of the installment period. Failure by the taxpayer to comply fully with the terms of the installment payment agreement shall render the agreement null and void, unless the Franchise Tax Board determines that the failure was due to a reasonable cause, and the total amount of tax, interest, and all penalties shall be immediately due and payable.

SEC. 27. Section 18806.1 is added to the Revenue and Taxation

Code, to read:

- 18806.1. (a) The Franchise Tax Board shall implement a pilot project of withholding on payments to independent contractors doing business with state agencies. The purpose of the pilot project is to withhold income taxes on payments to independent contractors in a manner similar to current withholding on wages.
- (b) The Franchise Tax Board may require the Controller or any officer or department of the state or any agency of the state to withhold an amount, as prescribed in subdivision (c), on all payments made pursuant to a contract between the state and any person other than a corporation, for which the primary purpose is the providing of personal services to the state and for which the total price of the contract exceeds six hundred dollars ($600). For purposes of this section, "personal services" does not include services rendered as part of a construction contract. The amount withheld shall be transmitted to the Franchise Tax Board at such time and in such a manner as the Franchise Tax Board may require.
- (c) The amount to be withheld shall be 1 percent of each payment under the contract. That percentage is deemed to take into account the trade or business expenses allowable under this part. In lieu of this, the contractor may elect that the amount to be withheld be 3 percent of each payment under the contract less a reasonable allowance for trade or business expenses allowable under this part. The contractor shall demonstrate the reasonableness of the allowance for trade or business expenses to the Franchise Tax Board in such a manner as the Franchise Tax Board may require.
- (d) The Franchise Tax Board shall report to the Legislature on or before January 31, 1991, on all of the following:
- (1) The effect of this project on compliance and enforcement activities in this state.
- (2) Whether the amounts withheld are substantially equivalent to the amounts due under this part resulting from contract payments.
- (3) The administrative feasibility of withholding on payments to independent contractors in a manner similar to withholding on wages.
- (e) The Franchise Tax Board shall develop and publish forms and procedures for reporting and remitting payments made and taxes withheld under this section.
- (f) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1992, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends that date.
- SEC. 28. Section 18817.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 18817.5. (a) Subject to the limitations in subdivisions (b) and (c), the Franchise Tax Board, may, by notice, served personally or by first-class mail, require any person, officer, department of the state, or political subdivision or agency of the state including the Regents of the University of California, a city organized under a freeholder's charter, or a political body not a subdivision or agency of the state, to withhold the amount of any tax, interest, or penalties due from a taxpayer, or the amount due from an employer or person who has failed to withhold and transmit amounts due pursuant to Section 18815 or Section 18818, from any payments due the taxpayer, employer, or person and from any payments becoming due the taxpayer, employer, or person after receipt of the notice. The amounts withheld shall be transmitted to the Franchise Tax Board at those times as it may designate.

- (b) The effect of a levy made pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be continuous from the date the notice is received until the amount due stated on the notice has been withheld, until the notice has been withdrawn, or until one year after the date the notice is received, whichever occurs first.
- (c) The amount required to be withheld pursuant to a notice issued under subdivision (a) is the lesser of the amount due stated on the notice, or either of the following:
- (1) If the taxpayer, employer, or person is not a natural person, 100 percent of the amount of each payment due or becoming due the taxpayer, employer, or person during the period the levy is in effect as provided in subdivision (b).
- (2) If the taxpayer, employer, or person is a natural person, 25 percent of the amount of each payment due or becoming due the taxpayer, employer, or person during the period the levy is in effect as provided in subdivision (b).
- (d) For purposes of this section, the term "payments" does not include earnings as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 706.011 of the Code of Civil Procedure or funds in a deposit account as defined in Section 9105 of the Commercial Code. The term "payments" does include any of the following:
- (1) Payments due for services of independent contractors, dividends, rents, royalties, residuals, patent rights, mineral, or other natural resource rights.
- (2) Payments or credits due or becoming due as a result of written or oral contracts for services or sales whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise.
- (3) Any other payments or credits due or becoming due periodically as a result of an enforceable obligation to the taxpayer, employer, or person.
- SEC. 29. Section 19254 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 19254. (a) The Franchise Tax Board, for the purpose of administering its duties under this part, including ascertaining the correctness of any return; making a return where none has been made; determining or collecting the liability of any person in respect of any liability imposed by this part (or the liability at law or in equity of any transferee in respect of such liability); shall have the power to require by demand, that an entity of any kind including, but not limited to, employers, persons, or financial institutions provide information or make available for examination or copying at a specified time and place, or both, any book, papers, or other data which may be relevant to that purpose. Information which may be required upon demand includes, but is not limited to, any of the following:

- (1) Addresses and telephone numbers of persons designated by the Franchise Tax Board.
- (2) Information contained on Form W-2 (Wage and Tax Statement), Federal Form W-4 (Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate), or State Form DE-4 (Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate).
- (b) The Franchise Tax Board may require the attendance of the taxpayer or of any other person having knowledge in the premises and may take testimony and require material proof for its information and administer oaths to carry out the provisions of this part.
- (c) The Franchise Tax Board may issue subpoenas or subpoenas duces tecum, which subpoenas must be signed by any member of the Franchise Tax Board and may be served on any person for any purpose.
- (d) Obedience to subpoenas or subpoenas duces tecum issued in accordance with this section may be enforced by application to the superior court as set forth in Article 2 (commencing with Section 11180) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.
- SEC. 30. Section 19276 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:
- 19276. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Franchise Tax Board may require any board, as defined in Section 22 of the Business and Professions Code, and the State Bar, the Department of Real Estate, and the Insurance Commissioner (hereinafter referred to as licensing board) to provide to the Franchise Tax Board the following information with respect to every licensee:
  - (1) Licensee's name.
  - (2) Address or addresses of record.
- (3) Federal employer identification number (if the entity is a partnership) or owner's name and social security number (for all others).
  - (4) Type of license.
  - (5) Effective date of license or renewal.
  - (6) Expiration date of license.
  - (7) Whether license is active or inactive, if known.
  - (8) Whether license is new or renewal.
  - (b) The Franchise Tax Board may do the following:
- (1) Send a notice to any licensee failing to provide the identification number as required by paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 30 of the Business and Professions Code and paragraph
- (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 1666.5 of the Insurance Code, describing the information that was missing, the penalty associated with not providing it, and that failure to provide the information within 30 days will result in the assessment of the penalty.

- (2) After 30 days following the issuance of the notice described in paragraph (1), assess a one hundred dollar ($100) penalty, due and payable upon notice and demand, for any licensee failing to provide either its federal employer identification number (if the licensee is a partnership) or his or her social security number (for all others) as required in Section 30 of the Business and Professions Code and Section 1666.5 of the Insurance Code.
- .(c) Notwithstanding Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, the information furnished to the Franchise Tax Board pursuant to Section 30 of the Business and Professions Code or Section 1666.5 of the Insurance Code shall not be deemed to be a public record and shall not be open to the public for inspection.
- SEC. 32. Section 24447 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 24447. The Franchise Tax Board may disallow a deduction under this part to an individual or entity for amounts paid as remuneration for personal services if that individual or entity fails to report the payments required under Section 13050 of the Unemployment Insurance Code or Section 18802 or 18802.2 on the date prescribed therefor (determined with regard to any extension of time for filing).
- SEC. 33. Section 25934 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 25934. (a) If any part of any underpayment (as defined in subdivision (d)) of any tax imposed by this part is due to negligence, or intentional disregard of rules or regulations, but without intent to defraud, there shall be added to the tax an amount equal to 5 percent of the underpayment.
- (b) There shall be added to the tax (in addition to the amount determined under subdivision (a)) an amount equal to 50 percent of the interest payable under Sections 25901 through 25905—
- (1) With respect to the portion of the deficiency described in subdivision (a) which is attributable to the negligence or intentional disregard referred to in subdivision (a), and
- (2) For the period beginning on the last date prescribed by law for the payment of that deficiency (determined without regard to any extension) and ending on the date of the assessment of the tax (or, if earlier, the date of the payment of the tax).
- (c) The amendments to this section made by the 1981–82 Regular Session of the Legislature shall apply to taxes the last date prescribed for payment of which is after December 31, 1981.
- (d) For purposes of this section, the term "underpayment" means "deficiency" as defined by Section 18591.1 (except that, for this purpose, the tax shown on a return shall be taken into account only if that return was filed on or before the last day prescribed for the filing of that return, determined with regard to any extension of time for that filing).

- SEC. 34. Section 26423 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 26423. (a) The Franchise Tax Board, for the purpose of administering its duties under this part, including ascertaining the correctness of any return; making a return where none has been made, determining or collecting the liability of any person in respect of any liability imposed by this part (or the liability at law or in equity of any transferee in respect of such liability); shall have the power to require by demand, that an entity of any kind including, but not limited to, employers, persons, or financial institutions provide information or make available for examination or copying at a specified time and place, or both, any books, papers or other data which may be relevant to that purpose.
- (b) The Franchise Tax Board may require the attendance of the taxpayer or of any other person having knowledge in the premises and may take testimony and require material proof for its information and administer oaths to carry out the provisions of this part.
- (c) The Franchise Tax Board may issue subpoenas or subpoenas duces tecum, which subpoenas must be signed by any member of the Franchise Tax Board and may be served on any person for any purpose.
- (d) Obedience to subpoenas or subpoenas duces tecum issued in accordance with this section may be enforced by application to the superior court as set forth in Article 2 (commencing with Section 11180) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.
- SEC. 35. Section 30481 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:
- 30481. Any prosecution for violation of any of the penal provisions of this part shall be instituted within three years after commission of the offense or within two years after the violation is discovered, whichever is later.
- SEC. 36. Section 32556 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 32556. Any prosecution for violation of any of the penal provisions of this part shall be instituted within three years after the commission of the offense, or within two years after the violation is discovered, whichever is later.
- SEC. 37. Section 40188 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:
- 40188. Any prosecution for violation of any of the penal provisions of this part shall be instituted within three years after commission of the offense or within two years after the violation is discovered, whichever is later.
- SEC. 38. Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 41143) is added to Chapter 7 of Part 20 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

Article 2.5. Violations

- 41143. Any person who fails or refuses to file a return or report required to be made or who fails or refuses to furnish a supplemental report or other data required by the board, or who renders a false or fraudulent report is guilty of a misdemeanor and may be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) for each offense.
- 41143.8. Any prosecution for violation of any of the penal provisions of this part shall be instituted within three years after commission of the offense or within two years after the violation is discovered, whichever is later.
- SEC. 39. Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 44186) is added to Chapter 6 of Part 22 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

Article 2.5. Violations

- 44186. Any person who fails or refuses to file a return or report required to be made or who fails or refuses to furnish a supplemental report or other data required by the board, or who renders a false or fraudulent report is guilty of a misdemeanor and may be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) for each offense.
- 44188. Any prosecution for violation of any of the penal provisions of this part shall be instituted within three years after commission of the offense or within two years after the violation is discovered, whichever is later.
- SEC. 40. (a) The multiagency task force established pursuant to Executive Order D-51-86 (hereinafter referred to as "task force") shall include among its goals and objectives the following:
- (1) To deter tax evasion by maximizing recoveries from blatant tax evaders and violators of cash-pay reporting laws, utilizing all penalties which are available to the taxing and enforcement agencies under existing law.
- (2) To reduce enforcement costs by eliminating duplicative audits and investigations.
- (3) To generate greater voluntary taxpayer compliance and to deter tax and cash-pay violations by publicizing the efforts of the task force.
- (4) To provide opportunities for auditors and investigators from tax and enforcement agencies to become familiar with other agencies' laws and enforcement procedures.
- (5) To concentrate its efforts in investigating and prosecuting violations of cash-pay and tax laws by employers with five or more employees and by individuals who are habitual or willfull violators of those laws.
- (b) In addition to the responsibilities cited in Executive Order D-51-86, the task force shall be empowered to do all of the following:
- (1) Identify areas of blatant violations and noncompliance with tax and cash-pay laws.

- (2) Solicit referrals from the tax and enforcement agencies represented on the task force committee of instances of blatant violations and noncompliance with tax and cash-pay laws.
- (3) Conduct audits, investigations, and referrals for prosecution of violations referred by other agencies and in the identified areas of violations and noncompliance, using all enforcement powers available in existing laws and regulations.
- (4) Establish an advertised telephone "hotline" for referrals from the public.
  - (5) Publicize the activities of the task force.
- (6) Keep the audit and investigative staff of the tax and enforcement agencies represented on the task force committee fully informed of the activities of the task force.
- (7) Develop procedures for improved information sharing among the agencies represented on the task force committee, consistent with restrictions on disclosure of confidential tax information in existing law, for the purpose of improving enforcement.
- (8) Based on the activities of the task force, evaluate the need for any law changes to do any of the following:
  - (A) Eliminate barriers to interagency information sharing.
- (B) Improve agencies' ability to audit, investigate, and prosecute tax and cash-pay violations.
  - (C) Deter violations and improve voluntary compliance.
- (D) Eliminate duplication and improve cooperation among the participating agencies.
- (c) The task force shall report to the Governor, the Senate and Assembly Revenue and Taxation Committees, and the Commission on California State Government Organization and Economy every six months during the period it is in existence, beginning on March 1, 1987, regarding the activities of the task force. The reports shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:
- (1) The number of cases of blatant violations and noncompliance with tax and cash-pay laws identified, audited or investigated, and referred for prosecution.
  - (2) Actions taken by the task force to publicize its activities.
- (3) Efforts made by the task force to establish an advertised telephone "hotline" for referrals from the public.
- (4) Procedures developed for improved information sharing among the agencies represented on the task force.
- (5) Steps taken by the task force to improve cooperation among participating agencies, reduce duplication of effort, and improve voluntary compliance.
- (6) Recommendations for any law changes needed to accomplish the goals described in paragraph (8) of subdivision (b).
- SEC. 41. (a) On January 15 of each year from 1988 to 1992, inclusive, the State Board of Equalization and the Franchise Tax Board shall submit a report to the Legislature on implementation of the provisions of this act, with the exception of Section 40 of this act (for which separate reporting requirements are set out).

- (b) The revenue and taxation policy committees of each house of the Legislature shall hold a public hearing no later than June 30 of each year from 1988 to 1992, inclusive, on the reports submitted pursuant to subdivision (a).
- (c) The intent of this section is to assure the Legislature the opportunity to oversee the implementation of this act. The intent of the Legislature in enacting this act is to improve enforcement and voluntary compliance with the tax system and cash-pay reporting rules. The intent of the Legislature in enacting this act is not to cause harassment of or undue burden on innocent taxpayers.
- SEC. 42. Section 3.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 2924b of the Civil Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2556. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1987, (2) each bill amends Section 2924b of the Civil Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2556, in which case Section 3 of this bill shall not become operative.
- SEC. 43. Section 11.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 6368 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3868. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1987, (2) each bill amends Section 6368 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3868, in which case Section 6368 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by AB 3868, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 11.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 11 of this bill shall not become operative.
- SEC. 44. Section 12.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 6368.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3868. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1987, (2) each bill amends Section 6368.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3868, in which case Section 6368.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by AB 3868, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 12.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 12 of this bill shall not become operative.
- SEC. 45. The amendments to Section 18681 of the Revenue and Taxation Code made by this act shall be applied to returns filed on or after January 1, 1987.
- SEC. 46. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1362

An act to amend Section 8880.5 of the Government Code, relating to the Youth Authority, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8880.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8880.5. Allocations for Education

The California State Lottery Education Fund is created within the State Treasury, and is continuously appropriated for carrying out the purposes of this chapter. The Controller shall draw warrants on this fund and distribute them quarterly in the following manner, provided that the payments specified in subdivisions (a) to (g), inclusive, shall be equal per capita amounts:

- (a) Payments shall be made directly to public school districts, including county superintendents of schools, serving grades kindergarten through 12, or any part thereof, on the basis of an equal amount for each unit of average daily attendance, as defined by law.
- (b) Payments shall also be made directly to public school districts serving community colleges, on the basis of an equal amount for each unit of average daily attendance, as defined by law.
- (c) Payments shall also be made directly to the Board of Trustees of the California State University on the basis of an amount for each unit of equivalent full-time enrollment. Funds received by the trustees shall be deposited in and expended from the California State University Lottery Education Fund which is hereby created.
- (d) Payments shall also be made directly to the Regents of the University of California on the basis of an amount for each unit of equivalent full-time enrollment.
- (e) Payments shall also be made directly to the Board of Directors of the Hastings College of the Law on the basis of an amount for each unit of equivalent full-time enrollment.
- (f) Payments shall also be made directly to the California Maritime Academy Board of Governors on the basis of an amount for each unit of equivalent full-time enrollment.
- (g) Payments shall also be made directly to the Youth Authority for educational programs serving grades kindergarten through 12, or any part thereof, on the basis of an equal amount for each unit of average daily attendance, as defined by law.
- (h) No Budget Act or other statutory provision shall direct that payments for public education made pursuant to this chapter be used for purposes and programs (including workload adjustments and maintenance of the level of service) authorized by Chapters 498, 565, and 1302 of the Statutes of 1983, Chapter 97 or 258 of the Statutes of 1984, or Chapter 1 of the Statutes of 1984, Second Extraordinary Session.

- (i) School districts and other agencies receiving funds distributed pursuant to this chapter may at their option utilize funds allocated by this chapter to provide additional funds for those purposes and programs prescribed by subdivision (h) for the purpose of enrichment or expansion.
- (j) As a condition of receiving any moneys pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b), each district and county superintendent of schools shall establish a separate account for the receipt and expenditure of those moneys, which account shall be clearly identified as a lottery education account.

It is the intent of this chapter that all funds allocated from the California State Lottery Education Fund shall be used exclusively for the education of pupils and students and no funds shall be spent for acquisition of real property, construction of facilities, financing of research, or any other noninstructional purpose.

SEC. 2. The Legislature hereby finds all of the following:

(a) The safety of California is jeopardized by the high rate of unemployment (over 50 percent) among youthful offenders, which contributes to parole failure and the costs of crime.

- (b) Major barriers to employment for youthful offenders under the jurisdiction of the Department of the Youth Authority include lack of work experience, self-esteem and social skills, motivation and discipline, educational proficiency, positive role models and experience with success, job seeking and job keeping skills, and maturity and decisionmaking skills.
- (c) Over 90 percent of youthful offenders are dropouts; only 11 percent return to school upon release on parole.
- (d) Services critically needed by youthful offenders to prepare them to find and keep jobs include vocational assessment, counseling and goal setting (aided by an individual ward employment development plan); training in job seeking and keeping; and job placement with job retention assistance.
- (e) Industry-supported employment preparation and placement services are most likely to aid youthful offenders to find and keep meaningful employment.
- SEC. 3. It is the intention of the Legislature in enacting this act to study the impact on employment performance and parole success of efforts which do all of the following:
- (a) Provide the staff of Youth Authority institutions and camps with skills in vocational counseling concepts and techniques.
  - (b) Augment employability skills training for incarcerated youth.
- (c) Test the results of the industry-supported program, Mobilizing Industry for Youth, conducted by the Industry Education Council of California (IECC), for youthful offenders.
- SEC. 4. The Department of the Youth Authority shall implement a model system of employment preparation and placement services for youthful offenders, consisting of at least all of the following:

- (a) The training of institution and camp staff in vocational assessment, counseling, and goal setting techniques, to aid in the development and implementation of an individual ward employment development plan for youthful offenders under its jurisdiction.
- (b) The seeking of grant funding to augment training in employability skills competencies for all youth under its jurisdiction, for the purpose of increasing the number of youth paroled from institutions who have mastered these competencies.
- (c) In conjunction with the Industry Education Council of California (IECC), the implementation of job placement projects for youthful offenders, adapting the industry-supported program, Mobilizing Industry for Youth, model. These projects shall be funded by grant funds or such other funds as are made available to the department.
- SEC. 5. It is the intention of the Legislature that in developing and implementing an individual ward assessment plan an individual assessment of each ward shall be made, based on individualized prescriptive counseling and goal setting concerning the ward's basic educational functioning, vocational interests and abilities, decisionmaking and communication skills, and work attitude and motivation, with major emphasis on the ward's self-esteem. The individual ward employment plan shall set forth appropriate programmatic components to implement the plan.
- SEC. 6. The Department of the Youth Authority shall evaluate the impact of the system developed pursuant to Section 4 on the job placement, job retention, and parole performance of youthful offenders receiving these services. The report shall specifically comment on the availability and effect of the counseling and goal setting components of the individual ward employment development plan specified in Section 5. It shall submit an interim progress report thereon to the Legislature by July 1, 1988, and a final report by July 1, 1989.
- SEC. 7. The Legislature finds and declares that Section 1 of this act, which amends Section 8880.5 of the Government Code, furthers the purposes of the California State Lottery Act of 1984.
- SEC. 8. Sections 2 to 6, inclusive, of this act shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1990, and are repealed on that date, unless a later enacted statute which is chaptered before January 1, 1990, deletes or extends that date.

An act relating to state financial assistance for the construction of waste water facilities.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of any contract between the State Water Resources Control Board and the Humboldt Bay Wastewater Authority, or any other provision of law, including Chapter 347 of the Statutes of 1976, amounts owed by the Humboldt Bay Wastewater Authority to the State Water Resources Control Board for payment of interest on a loan for construction of facilities necessary to prevent water pollution pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 13400) of Division 7 of the Water Code shall be considered a grant for the construction of necessary waste water facilities, and the Humboldt Bay Wastewater Authority shall not be required to repay that amount, or any future interest on the loan, to the state. The principal payment on the unamortized portion of the loan need not commence until January 1, 1989.

SEC. 2. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the provisions of this act are necessary because of special conditions existing within the Humboldt Bay region. The Humboldt Bay area is threatened with a serious water pollution control problem. The Humboldt Bay Wastewater Authority is a joint exercise of powers entity which received state loans to be used to acquire right-of-way and pay other administrative costs of a proposed regional waste water treatment project which was subsequently abandoned in favor of the construction of alternative facilities. The revenue bonds that were to repay the loan were therefore never sold, and the Humboldt Bay Wastewater Authority is presently without a source of funds to repay the loan amounts. The Legislature hereby declares that there is a vital statewide interest in the preservation of the quality of the water of Humboldt Bay, that the bay is an important resource for navigation, commerce, fisheries, recreation, and ecological preservation for all the people of California, and that the provisions of this act are necessary to preserve that interest.

An act to amend Section 26520.1 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to food.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- SECTION 1. Section 26520.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- 26520.1. (a) Sulfite compounds shall be deemed unsafe as food additives, as defined in Section 26013, for any of the following uses:
- (1) Sulfite compounds added to any fruit or vegetable which is sold to be consumed in its raw or natural state, whether or not the sulfite compounds are added on the premises of any food facility as defined in Section 27521 or are added to the fruits and vegetables sold to any food facility as defined in Section 27521.
- (2) Sulfite compounds added to any fish or seafood at the wholesale or retail level.
- (b) The prohibitions in this section shall not apply to each of the following:
- (1) Use of sulfite compounds on fruits or vegetables prior to, or as part of, a cooking, fermenting, canning, freezing, drying, bottling, or dehydrating process.
- (2) Use of sulfite compounds on shrimp or lobster at the production level which conforms with the United States Food and Drug Administration's Good Manufacturing Practices or sulfite compounds used on seafood or fish as a preservative in a manufacturing process provided that the application and labeling is in accordance with federal Food and Drug Administration regulations.
  - (c) For purposes of this section, "sulfite compounds" means:
  - (1) Sulphur dioxide.
  - (2) Sodium bisulfite.
  - (3) Sodium metabisulfite.
  - (4) Sodium sulfite.
  - (5) Potassium bisulfite.
  - (6) Potassium metabisulfite.
- (d) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1992, and as of that date is repealed unless a later statute which is enacted before January 1, 1992, extends or deletes that date.
- SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

An act to repeal and add Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 4980) of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to marriage, family, and child counselors, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature intends by this act to move California forward toward having the finest mental health system in the world; and in particular to assure that marriage, family, and child counselors, through enhanced preparation, become a model for all therapeutic professionals in the field.
- (b) In constructing this licensing legislation, it is crucial and essential to recognize the balance between competing and legitimate perspectives. In this respect, this act attempts to achieve the following goals:
- (1) To provide solid and credible professional training while allowing for innovation, individuality, and ever-expanding knowledge of effective therapeutic modalities.
- (2) To encourage breaking new ground while building on traditional and tested values.
- (3) To recognize the identity and distinctive scope of practice of various therapeutic professions, and at the same time seeking to overcome self-created and artificial limitations between these professions.
- (4) To make appropriate accommodations for personal and financial investments made by marriage, family and child therapists in regard to their chosen career, and at the same time seeking to keep the profession viable and evolving as regards its scope of practice and innovative growth.
- (5) To develop a cooperative administrative model as it affects the Board of Behavioral Science Examiners, professional associations, educational institutions, supervisors, licensees, interns, trainees, and the consuming public, working together to create the very best mental health system by intention.
- (6) To assure inclusion of distinct and individual subject areas as academic requirements while encouraging the interpretation and holistic preservation of competency areas across the entire scope of professional education.
- (c) As a model professional licensing standard, it is further the intent of the Legislature to continue to upgrade all other mental health professions and to apply these standards as may be appropriate to those professions.
  - SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that:

- (a) Healthy individuals, healthy families, and healthy relationships are inherently beneficial and crucial to a healthy society, and are our most precious and valuable natural resources. The well-being of the State of California depends greatly upon the healthiness and success of its families, and the State of California values the family, marriage, and healthy human relationships.
- (b) Many California families and many individual Californians are experiencing difficulty and distress, and are in need of wise, competent, caring, compassionate, and effective counseling in order to enable them to grow more insightful and healthy and capable of improving and maintaining healthy family relationships.
- (c) There is a vital public need for competent therapists with a broad range of psychotherapeutic skills who are not necessarily research-oriented, and marriage, family, and child counselors best meet that need. Those therapists provide a crucial support for the well-being of the people and the State of California.
- (d) The State of California therefore licenses persons as marriage, family, and child counselors, in order to make counseling available to families and individuals in need, and to help assure needing families and individuals that persons so licensed are substantially educated toward being able to provide valuable and effective counseling services.
- (e) Because that need was not being otherwise adequately met, the Legislature authorized the California Board of Behavioral Science Examiners to regulate and administer the licensing laws of the marriage, family, and child counseling profession.
- (f) There has recently arisen substantial concern regarding whether the current licensing law and its application and implementation have been effectively operated to assure, as best practicable, the competency of persons holding the marriage, family, and child counseling license.
- (g) Toward addressing that concern, the Board of Behavioral Science Examiners has recently reviewed its operations and is reforming its regulations in an effort to improve the assurance of quality in the education of persons licensed by the board as marriage, family, and child counselors.
- (h) Sufficient changes have occurred since the last major revision of the licensing laws for the marriage, family, and child therapy profession both in the state and condition of our society and in our understanding of healthy human growth, development, and relationships that there is now a major state and public interest in rewriting, reforming, and improving those laws.
- (i) There is also a legitimate concern among the persons who hold the license as marriage, family, and child counselors or therapists that their education, preparation, testing, and licensing be of such rigor that they and other interested parties can be assured of their likely competence and stature as professionals.
- (j) It is also in the public interest to do so in order to provide the public some level of assurance that a person holding such license is well educated and likely to be able to provide effective assistance.

- (k) It is also in the public interest to do so in order that the profession of marriage, family, and child therapy be credible, both in the eyes of the public who are searching for that counseling, and for other concerned parties (including insurance carriers and prepaid health plans) who need to know that persons holding the license are professionally competent to provide that assistance. Third-party reimbursement for counseling services by the marriage, family, and child therapy profession should be permitted and encouraged. Health maintenance organizations and self-funded plans should recognize and compensate for these essential interventions to relieve distress and to help lest the problems become greater.
- (1) There are a wide array of human problems, symptoms, and needs. Therefore, there needs to be a wide range of competencies, and as well there is much changing of family situations in our rapidly changing society, and discovery of how better to provide effective healthy marriage, family, and child counseling. So it is crucial that any licensing law, its operation and regulation, be tailored to those facts and be innovative, open, and flexible, at the same time providing some quality assurance.
- (m) It must be recognized that a person, a human being, a personality, a relationship, and a family are each and all so unique and complex that they cannot readily be fixed much less should they be thought of or tried to be made uniform. The goal of counseling may be defined as the restoration of health or the development of effective capacities as defined by the individual and his or her own culture (rather than the imposition of culturally limiting notions and values about health).
- (n) It is crucial that the Legislature recognize the centrality and essentiality of the human dimension and qualities of the counseling relationship and enact a licensing law which serves to encourage, support, and nurture those human qualities in the counselors or therapists, instead of one that becomes so overly mechanistic and measurement-oriented, that in training for it, we instead have the effect of lessening those essential human qualities for human interactions that are facilitative and effective and growthful.
- (o) There is a vital public interest in discerning and articulating, to the extent it is practical to do so, how to produce caring, compassionate, competent marriage, family, and child counselors, and therapists.
- (p) It is only more recently that society has begun to recognize and to assess the crucial competencies for a licensed marriage, family, and child counselor. The most effective competency is the ability to facilitate a person's obtaining the assistance he or she needs or wants and is seeking; that ability likely includes the personal qualities of personal presence, integrity, openness, insight, concern, assurance, comfort, encouragement, and invitation. These qualities enable the counselor or therapist to provide a climate within which his or her counselee may grow and become more competent in his - or her marriage and family relationships. Licensing laws should encourage the applicants and the institutions which educate and prepare them to attend to the development of those qualities and capacities, instead of negating those qualities in persons seeking to become counselors and therapists.

- (q) A counselor needs to possess and be able to apply knowledge of, and appreciation for, these skills with respect to both individual and family relationships and systems.
- (r) In this uncertain realm the best way to assure the appropriate and sufficient preparation, education, and development of competencies of prospective marriage, family, and child counselors is to build the structure of the licensing law and goals to assess and seek to assure broad minimal competencies agreed upon by practitioners and persons in the field, educators, and other concerned parties. With respect both academic and clinical experience and preparation there is a need to ascertain as best as can be done what are the competencies required to be obtained in the classroom and in the clinic, and what are the minimum competencies and levels thereof which are deemed sufficient to qualify a person to obtain a license and practice marriage, family, and child counseling in California.
- (s) It is neither possible nor wise to have the intention or to prescribe any single theory or system of therapy to the exclusion of others for individuals and families.
- (t) It is desirable in enacting a law and designing assessment means to try for balance between solidity and credibility on the one hand, and diversity, flexibility, innovativeness, and creativity on the other.
- (u) Mental health promotion and mental illness prevention are crucial components of the practice of marriage, family, and child counseling.
- (v) To the greatest extent feasible, licensing laws and regulations should assure the candidate's intellectual, emotional, and experiential qualifications for practice.
- (w) Certainly a person, to become a competent counselor, therefore needs preparation in both academic theory and clinical practice and experience, and therefore his or her education should be part in class and part out.
- (x) Any person seeking to gain a license should have knowledge, experience, and appreciation of all that is crucial to healthy human beings, including, but not limited to, individual health, family relationships, emotions, feelings, somatics, spiritual awareness, and the healthy interrelationship and appropriate integration of them all.
- (y) A marriage, family, and child counselor should have experience (by means of an internship) in seeing and working with families.
- (z) As a model licensing law for all the psychotherapeutic professions, the Legislature finds that there is the highest value in encouraging all applicants for license to themselves partake of the psychotherapeutic process.

(aa) It is therefore valuable for all institutions providing education and all persons providing supervision seeking to prepare applicants for examination and otherwise qualifying for a license, to encourage all persons who intend to become marriage, family, and child counselors to undergo personal counseling or psychotherapy, individual or group, as may be appropriate.

It is therefore the intention of the Legislature to update and improve the statutes regarding the licensing of marriage, family, and child counselors so as to assure the public and other concerned parties that persons holding this license are, to the extent that can be determined, predicted, and assured via a licensing law qualified, competent, and caring.

SEC. 3. Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 4980) of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 4980) is added to Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code, to read:

CHAPTER 13. MARRIAGE, FAMILY AND CHILD COUNSELORS

Article 1. Regulation

4980. (a) Many California families and many individual Californians are experiencing difficulty and distress, and are in need of wise, competent, caring, compassionate, and effective counseling in order to enable them to improve and maintain healthy family relationships.

Healthy individuals and healthy families and healthy relationships are inherently beneficial and crucial to a healthy society, and are our most precious and valuable natural resource. Marriage, family, and child counselors provide a crucial support for the well-being of the people and the State of California.

(b) No person may for remuneration engage in the practice of marriage, family, and child counseling as defined by Section 4980.02, unless he or she holds a valid license as a marriage, family, and child counselor, or unless he or she is specifically exempted from that requirement, nor may any person advertise himself or herself as performing the services of a marriage, family, child, domestic, or marital consultant, or in any way use these or any similar titles to imply that he or she performs these services without a license as provided by this chapter. Persons licensed under Article 4 (commencing with Section 4996) of Chapter 14 of Division 2, or under Chapter 6.6 (commencing with Section 2900) may engage in such practice or advertise that they practice marriage, family, and child counseling but may not advertise that they hold the marriage, family, and child counselor's license.

4980.01. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to constrict, limit, or withdraw the Medical Practice Act, the Social Work Licensing Law, the Nursing Practice Act, or the Psychology Licensing Act.

This chapter shall not apply to any priest, rabbi, or minister of the gospel of any religious denomination when performing counseling services as part of his or her pastoral or professional duties, or to any person who is admitted to practice law in the state, or who is licensed to practice medicine, when providing counseling services as part of his or her professional practice.

This chapter shall not apply to an employee of a governmental entity or of a school, college, or university, or of an institution both nonprofit and charitable if his or her practice is performed solely under the supervision of the entity, school, or organization by which he or she is employed, and if he or she performs such functions as part of the position for which he or she is employed.

4980.02. For the purposes of this chapter, the practice of marriage, family, and child counseling shall mean that service performed with individuals, couples, or groups wherein interpersonal relationships are examined for the purpose of achieving more adequate, satisfying, and productive marriage and family adjustments. This practice includes relationship and premarriage counseling.

The applications of marriage, family and child counseling principles and methods includes, but is not limited to, the use of applied pyschotherapeutic techniques, to enable individuals to mature and grow within marriage and the family, and the provision of explanations and interpretations of the psychosexual and psychosocial aspects of relationships.

A marriage, family, and child counselor may use hypnosis in the course of performing marriage, family, and child counseling provided that he or she can demonstrate experience in the clinical use of hypnosis which satisfies the criteria established by the board. The criteria shall include evidence of (a) coursework in hypnosis from qualified instructors and (b) experience in a clinical setting using hypnosis under the supervision of a physician, dentist, licensed psychologist, or a licensed marriage, family, and child counselor who holds a certificate in hypnosis issued by the board.

- 4980.03. (a) "Board," as used in this chapter, means the Board of Behavioral Science Examiners.
- (b) "Intern," as used in this chapter, means an unlicensed person who has earned his or her master's or doctor's degree qualifying him or her for licensure and is registered with the board.
- (c) "Trainee," as used in this chapter, means one who is enrolled in a master's or doctor's degree program, as specified in Section 4980.40.
- (d) "Advertise," as used in this chapter, includes, but is not limited to, the issuance of any card, sign, or device to any person, or the causing, permitting, or allowing of any sign or marking on, or in, any building or structure, or in any newspaper or magazine or in any directory, or any printed matter whatsoever, with or without any limiting qualification. It also includes business solicitations communicated by radio or television broadcasting. Signs within church buildings or notices in church bulletins mailed to a congregation shall not be construed as advertising within the meaning of this chapter.

4980.07. The board shall administer the provisions of this chapter.

4980.10. A person engages in the practice of marriage, family, and child counseling who performs or offers to perform or holds himself or herself out as able to perform such a service for remuneration in any form, including donations.

4980.30. Except as otherwise provided herein, a person desiring to practice and to advertise the performance of marriage, family, and child counseling services shall apply to the board for a license and shall pay the license fee required by this chapter.

4980.34. It is the intent of the Legislature that the board employ its resources for each and all of the following functions:

- (a) The licensing of marriage, family, and child counselors, clinical social workers, and eductional psychologists.
- (b) The development and administration of written and oral licensing examinations and examination procedures consistent with prevailing standards for the validation and use of licensing and certification tests. Examinations shall measure knowledge and abilities demonstrably important to the safe, effective practice of the profession.
- (c) Enforcement of laws designed to protect the public from incompetent, unethical, or unprofessional practitioners.
  - (d) Consumer education.
- 4980.35. (a) The Legislature acknowledges that the basic obligation to provide a complete and accurate application for a marriage, family, and child counseling license lies with the applicant. At the same time, the Legislature recognizes that an effort should be made by the board to assure that persons who enter degree programs and supervisorial training settings that meet the requirements of this chapter are enabled to discern the requirements for licensing and to take the examination when they have completed their educational and experience requirements.
- (b) In order that the board, the educational institutions, and the supervisors who monitor the education and experience of applicants for licensure may develop greater cooperation, the board shall do all of the following:
- (1) Apply a portion of its limited resources specifically to the task of communicating information about its activities, the requirements and qualifications for licensure, and the practice of marriage, family, and child counseling to the relevant educational institutions, supervisors, professional associations, applicants, trainees, interns, and the consuming public.
- (2) Develop policies and procedures to assist educational institutions in meeting curricula requirements of Section 4980.40 and any regulations promulgated pursuant to that section, so that those educational institutions may better provide assurance to their students that the curriculum offered to fulfill the educational requirements for licensure will meet those requirements at the time of the student's application for licensure.

- (3) Notify applicants in the application procedure when applications are incomplete, inaccurate, or deficient, and inform applicants of any remediation, reconsideration, or appeal procedures that may be applicable.
- (4) Undertake, or cause to be undertaken, a comprehensive review, in consultation with educational institutions, professional associations, supervisors, interns, and trainees, of the supervision of interns and trainees, which shall include, but not be limited to, the following, and shall, no later than July 1, 1988, propose regulations regarding the supervision of interns and trainees which may include, but not be limited to, the following:
  - (A) Supervisor qualifications.
  - (B) Continuing education requirements of supervisors.
  - (C) Registration or licensing of supervisors, or both.
  - (D) Responsibilities of supervisors in general.
- (E) The board's authority in cases of noncompliance or negligence by supervisors.
- (F) The intern's and trainee's need for guidance in selecting well-balanced and high quality professional training opportunities within his or her community.
- (G) The role of the supervisor in advising and encouraging his or her intern or trainee regarding the necessity or value and appropriateness of the intern or trainee engaging in personal psychotherapy, so as to enable such intern or trainee to become a more competent marriage, family, and child counselor.
- 4980.37. In order to provide an integrated course of study and appropriate professional training, while allowing for innovation and individuality in the education of marriage, family, and child counselors, a degree program which meets the educational qualifications for licensure shall include all of the following:
- (a) Provide an integrated course of study that trains students generally in the diagnosis, assessment, prognosis, and treatment of mental disorders.
- (b) Prepare students to be familiar with the broad range of matters that may arise within marriage and family relationships.
- (c) Train students specifically in the application of marriage and family relationship counseling principles and methods.
- (d) Encourage students to develop those personal qualities that are intimately related to the counseling situation such as integrity, sensitivity, flexibility, insight, compassion, and personal presence.
- (e) Teach students a variety of effective psychotherapeutic techniques and modalities that may be utilized to improve, restore, or maintain healthy individual, couple, and family relationships.
- (f) Permit an emphasis or specialization that may address any one or more of the unique and complex array of human problems, symptoms, and needs of Californians served by marriage, family, and child counselors.

- (g) Prepare students to be familiar with cross-cultural mores and values, including a familiarity with the wide range of racial and ethnic backgrounds common among California's population, including, but not limited to, Blacks, Hispanics, Asians, and Native Americans.
- 4980.38. (a) Each educational institution preparing applicants to qualify for licensing shall notify each of its students by means of its public documents or otherwise in writing that its degree program is designed to meet the requirement of Section 4980.37 and shall certify to the board that it has so notified its students.
- (b) In addition to all the other requirements for licensure, each applicant shall submit to the board a certification by the chief academic officer, or his or her designee, of the applicant's educational institution that the applicant has fulfilled the requirements enumerated in Sections 4980.37 and 4980.40.

4980.40. To qualify for a license an applicant shall have all the following qualifications:

(a) Applicants applying for licensure on or after January 1, 1988, shall possess a doctor's or master's degree in marriage, family, and child counseling, marital and family therapy, psychology, clinical psychology, counseling psychology, counseling with an emphasis in marriage, family, and child counseling, or social work with an emphasis in clinical social work, obtained from a school, college, or university accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges, the Northwest Association of Secondary and Higher Schools, or an essentially equivalent accrediting agency, as determined by the board, or approved by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 94310 of the Education Code. In order to qualify for licensure, pursuant to this subdivision, any doctor's or master's degree program shall contain no less than 48 semester or 72 quarter units of instruction. The instruction shall include no less than 12 semester units or 18 quarter units of coursework in the areas of marriage, family, and child counseling and marital and family systems approaches to treatment.

The coursework shall, include all of the following areas:

(1) The salient theories of a variety of psychotherapeutic orientations directly related to marriage, family, and child counseling, and marital and family systems approaches to treatment.

(2) Theories of marriage and family therapy and how they can be utilized in order to intervene therapeutically with couples, families, adults, children, and groups.

(3) Developmental issues and life events from infancy to old age and their affect upon individuals, couples, and family relationships. This may include coursework that focuses on specific family life events and the psychological, psychotherapeutic, and health implications that arise within couples and families, including, but not limited to, childbirth, child rearing, childhood, adolescence, adulthood, marriage, divorce, blended families, stepparenting, and geropsychology.

(4) A variety of approaches to the treatment of children.

The board may, by regulation, further define the content requirements of required courses specified in this sudivision.

- (b) In addition to the 12 semester or 18 quarter units of coursework specified above, the doctor's or master's degree program shall contain not less than six semester or nine quarter units of supervised practicum in applied psychotherapeutic techniques, assessment, diagnosis, prognosis, and treatment of premarital, couple, family, and child relationships, including dysfunctions and healthy functioning and health promotion and illness prevention, in a supervised clinical placement that provides supervised fieldwork experience within the scope of practice of a marriage, family, and child counselor.
- (1) Supervised practicum hours, as specified in this subdivision, shall be evaluated, accepted, and credited as hours for trainee experience by the board.
- (2) Educational institutions and trainees are encouraged to design the practica to include marriage, family, and child counseling experience in low-income and multicultural mental health settings.

(3) The practicum hours shall be considered as part of the 48 semester or 72 quarter unit requirement.

- (c) As an alternative to meeting the qualifications specified in subdivision (a), the board shall accept as equivalent degrees, those master's or doctor's degrees granted by educational institutions whose degree program is approved by the Commission on Accreditation for Marriage and Family Therapy Education.
- (d) All applicants shall, in addition, complete the coursework or training specified in Section 4980.41.
  - (e) All applicants shall be at least 18 years of age.
- (f) All applicants shall have at least two years' experience, in interpersonal relationships, marriage, family, and child counseling and psychotherapy under the supervision of a licensed marriage, family, and child counselor, licensed clinical social worker, licensed psychologist, or licensed physician certified in psychiatry, or the equivalent as determined by the board.
- (1) All experience shall be at all times under the supervision of the supervisor who shall, with the person being supervised, be responsible for ensuring that the extent, kind, and quality of counseling performed is consistent with the training and experience of the person being supervised, and who shall be responsible to the board for the compliance of all laws, rules, and regulations governing the practice of marriage, family, and child counseling.
- (2) Supervision shall include at least one hour of direct supervision for each week of experience claimed.
- (3) Any person supervising another pursuant to this subdivision shall have been licensed or certified for at least two years prior to acting as a supervisor, except this requirement shall not affect any supervisorial relationship in existence on December 31, 1983.

- (4) The supervisor shall consider, advise, and encourage his or her interns and trainees regarding the advisability of his or her undertaking individual or group counseling or psychotherapy as appropriate, and insofar as it is deemed appropriate and is desired by the applicant, the supervisor shall seek to assist the applicant in obtaining such counseling or psychotherapy at a reasonable cost.
- (5) The board may prescribe by regulation such other qualifications for supervisors as it deems appropriate.
- (g) The applicant shall pass a written examination and an oral examination conducted by the board or their designees.
- (h) The applicant shall not have committed acts or crimes constituting grounds for denial of licensure under Section 480.
- (i) Applicants applying for licensure on or before December 31, 1987, shall possess all of the qualifications specified in subdivisions (e) to (h), inclusive, and shall possess a doctor's or master's degree in marriage, family, and child counseling, social work, clinical psychology, counseling, counseling psychology, child development and family studies, or a degree determined by the board to be equivalent, obtained from a school, college, or university accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges, the Northwest Association of Secondary and Higher Schools, or an essentially equivalent accrediting agency as determined by the board.
- (j) Persons who commenced graduate study, as defined in Section 4980.40, on or before December 31, 1987, shall be governed by subdivisions (i) and (k) of this section only if they apply and qualify for internship registration or licensure examination within five years of their starting such graduate study or by December 31, 1987, whichever is later.
- (k) For applicants applying for a license pursuant to subdivisions (i) and (j), the board may make a determination that an applicant's master's or doctor's degree is an equivalent degree if it finds that the degree was issued upon completion of a course of academic study primarily designed to train persons as a marriage, family, and child counselor. The course of study completed by the applicant shall contain not less than 30 semester or 45 quarter units of coursework as follows: (1) human biological, psychological, and social development, (2) human sexuality, (3) psychopathology, (4) cross-cultural mores and values, (5) theories of marriage, family, and child counseling, (6) professional ethics and law, (7) human communication, (8) research methodology, (9) theories and applications of psychological testing, and (10) not less than six semester or nine quarter units of supervised practicum in applied psychotherapeutic techniques, assessment, diagnosis, prognosis, and treatment of premarital, family, and child relationship dysfunctions. The applicant shall submit to the board satisfactory written verification by the chief academic officer of the accredited or approved school, or by an authorized designee, that the applicant has successfully completed courses, including the practicum required by the board. The verification shall include, but need not be limited to.

descriptions of the completed courses. The board may request further written verification of course content and academic experience to determine that the applicant's training and experience is equivalent to the course of instruction required by this section.

- 4980.41. All applicants for licensure shall complete the following coursework or training in order to be eligible to sit for the licensing examinations:
- (a) A two semester or three quarter unit course in California law and professional ethics for marriage, family, and child counselors, which shall include, but not be limited to, the following areas of study:
- (1) Contemporary professional ethics and statutory, regulatory, and decisional laws that delineate the profession's scope of practice.
- (2) The therapeutic, clinical, and practical considerations involved in the legal and ethical practice of marriage, family, and child counseling, including family law.
- (3) The current legal patterns and trends in the mental health profession.
- (4) The psychotherapist/patient privilege, confidentiality, the patient dangerous to self or others, and the treatment of minors with and without parental consent.
- (5) A recognition and exploration of the relationship between a practitioner's sense of self and human values and his or her professional behavior and ethics.

This course may be considered as part of the 48 semester or 72 quarter unit requirements contained in Section 4980.40.

- (b) A minimum of seven contact hours of training or coursework in child abuse assessment and reporting as specified in Section 28 or any regulations promulgated thereunder.
- (c) A minimum of 10 contact hours of training or coursework in human sexuality as specified in Section 25, and any regulations promulgated thereunder. When coursework in a master's or doctor's degree program is acquired to satisfy this requirement, it shall be considered as part of the 48 semester or 72 quarter unit requirement contained in Section 4980.40.
- (d) Except for persons who have started graduate study prior to January 1, 1986, a master's or doctor's degree qualifying for licensure shall include specific instruction in alcoholism and other chemical substance dependency as specified in Section 25.5 and any regulations promulgated thereunder. When coursework in a master's or doctor's degree program is acquired to satisfy this requirement, it shall be considered as part of the 48 semester or 72 quarter unit requirement contained in Section 4980.40.
- 4980.42. (a) Experience for the purpose of satisfying subdivision (f) of Section 4980.40 shall include supervised marriage, family, and child counseling, and up to one-third of the hours may include receiving direct supervision and other professional enrichment activities.
  - (b) "Professional enrichment activities," for the purposes of this section, may include group or individual psychotherapy received by an applicant as a requirement for licensure. This psychotherapy may include up to 100 hours taken as a trainee or intern and each of such hours shall be triple-counted toward the professional experience requirement.

- (c) Each educational institution preparing applicants for licensure pursuant to this chapter shall consider requiring, and at least strongly advising and encouraging, its students to undertake personal psychotherapy as appropriate, and insofar as it is deemed appropriate and is desired by the applicant, the educational institution shall seek to assist the applicant in locating that psychotherapy and at a reasonably low cost.
- (d) The board shall also make recommendations regarding similar provisions for other psychotherapeutic professions under its auspices after study and consultation with those professions.
- 4980.43. (a) For all applicants, a minimum of two calendar years of supervised experience is required, which experience shall consist of 3,000 hours obtained over a period of not less than 104 weeks. Not less than 1,500 hours of experience shall be gained subsequent to the receipt of the master's or doctor's degree. No hours of experience may be gained prior to becoming a trainee.
- (b) Experience as specified in Section 4980.40 may be gained as a trainee in the following settings: a governmental entity, a school, college, or university, a nonprofit and charitable corporation, or a licensed health facility, if the experience is gained by the trainee solely as part of the position for which he or she is employed.
- (c) Experience as specified in Section 4980.40 may be gained as an intern as specified in subdivision (b), or when employed in a private practice setting. Employment in a private practice setting shall not commence until the applicant has been registered as an intern. An intern employed in a private practice setting shall not pay his or her employer for supervision and shall receive fair remuneration from his or her employer.
- (d) All interns shall register with the board in order to be credited for postdegree hours of experience gained toward licensure, regardless of the setting where those hours are to be gained. Except as provided in subdivision (e), all postdegree hours shall be gained as a registered intern.
- (e) Except when employed in a private practice setting, all postdegree hours of experience shall be credited toward licensure so long as the applicant applies for the intern registration, within 90 days of the granting of the qualifying master's or doctor's degree and is thereafter granted the intern registration by the board.
- (f) Trainees and interns shall not receive any remuneration from patients or clients, and shall only be paid by their employer.
- (g) Trainees and interns shall only perform services at the place where their employer regularly conducts business, and shall have no proprietary interest in that business.
  - 4980.44. An unlicensed marriage, family, and child counselor intern employed under the provision of this chapter shall:

- (a) Have earned at least a master's degree as specified in Section 4980.40.
- (b) Be registered with the board prior to the intern performing any duties.
- (c) File for renewal of registration annually for a maximum of five years after initial registration with the board.
- r(d) Inform each client or patient prior to performing any professional services that he or she is unlicensed and under the supervision of a licensed marriage, family, and child counselor, licensed clinical social worker, licensed psychologist, or licensed physician certified in psychiatry, whichever is applicable. Continued employment as an unlicensed marriage, family, and child counselor intern after six years shall cease unless the requirements of subdivision (g) of Section 4980.40 are met.
- 4980.45. (a) A licensed professional in private practice who is a marriage, family and child counselor, a psychologist, a clinical social worker, or a physician certified in psychiatry may supervise or employ, at any one time, no more than two unlicensed marriage, family and child counselor registered interns.
- (b) A licensed professional in a private practice who is a marriage, family and child counselor, psychologist, clinical social worker, or physician specializing in psychiatry shall, within 30 days of the employment or termination of an intern, notify the board of the employment or termination of employment of the intern. The notice shall include the name of the intern.
- 4980.50. Every applicant who meets the educational and experience requirements and applies for a license as a marriage, family, and child counselor shall be examined by the board. The examination shall be as set forth in subdivision (g) of 4980.40. The examination shall be given at least twice a year at the time and place and under supervision as the board may determine. The board shall examine the candidate with regard to his or her knowledge and professional skills and his or her judgment in the utilization of appropriate techniques and methods.

The board shall retain all written examinations for at least one year following the date of the examination. The board shall keep an accurate record of all oral examinations for at least one year following the date of examination.

An applicant who has qualified pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall be issued a license as a marriage, family, and child counselor in the form as the board may deem appropriate.

- 4980.54. (a) The Legislature recognizes that the education and experience requirements in this chapter constitute only minimal requirements to assure that an applicant is prepared and qualified to take the licensure examination and, if he or she passes that examination, to begin practice.
- (b) In order to continuously improve the competence of licensed marriage, family, and child counselors and as a model for all psychotherapeutic professions, the Legislature encourages all licensees to regularly engage in continuing education related to the profession or scope of practice as defined in this chapter.

4980.55. As a model for all therapeutic professions, and to acknowledge respect and regard for the consuming public, all marriage, family, and child counselors are encouraged to provide to each client, at an appropriate time and within the context of the psychotherapeutic relationship, an accurate and informative statement of the therapist's experience, education, specialities, professional orientation, and any other information deemed appropriate by the licensee.

4980.60. The board may adopt those rules and regulations as may be necessary to enable it to carry into effect the provisions of this chapter. The adoption, amendment, or repeal of those rules and regulations shall be made in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

The board may, by rules or regulations, adopt, amend, or repeal rules of advertising and professional conduct appropriate to the establishment and maintenance of a high standard of integrity in the profession, provided such rules or regulations are not inconsistent with Section 4982. Every person who holds a license to practice marriage, family, and child counseling shall be governed by such rules of professional conduct.

4980.70. Except as provided by Section 159.5, the board may employ whatever additional personnel is necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

- 4980.80. The board may issue a license to any person who, at the time of application, holds a valid license issued by a board of marriage counselor examiners or corresponding authority of any state, provided, in its opinion, the requirements for that licensure are substantially the equivalent of this chapter, and upon payment of the fees specified. Issuance of the license is further conditioned upon the person's completion of the following coursework or training:
- (a) A two semester or three quarter unit course in California law and professional ethics for marriage, family, and child counselors which shall include areas of study as specified in Section 4980.41.
- (b) A minimum of seven contact hours of training or coursework in child abuse assessment and reporting as specified in Section 28, and any regulations promulgated thereunder.
- (c) A minimum of 10 contact hours of training or coursework in human sexuality, as specified in Section 25, and any regulations promulgated thereunder.
- (d) A minimum of 10 contact hours of training or coursework in alcoholism and other chemical substance dependency as specified in Section 25.5, and any regulations promulgated thereunder.
- (e) With respect to human sexuality and alcoholism and other chemical substance dependency, the board may accept training or coursework acquired out of state.

- 4980.90. With respect to those persons who are not licensed in another state, the board may allow any person to be examined who, in its opinion, has met the education and experience requirements for licensure while residing outside of California, or education outside California and experience within California, that are substantially the equivalent of this chapter provided that:
- (a) He or she has gained a minimum of 250 hours of supervised experience in direct counseling within California while registered as an intern with the board.
- (b) He or she has completed a two semester or three quarter unit course in California law and professional ethics for marriage, family, and child counselors which shall include areas of study as specified in Section 4980.41.
- (c) He or she has completed a minimum of seven contact hours of training or coursework in child abuse assessment and reporting as specified in Section 28, and any regulations promulgated thereunder.
- (d) He or she has completed a minimum of 10 contact hours of training or coursework in sexuality as specified in Section 25, and any regulations promulgated thereunder.
- (e) He or she has completed a minimum of 10 contact hours of training or coursework in alcoholism and other chemical substance dependency a specified in Section 25.5, and any regulations promulgated thereunder.
- (f) With respect to human sexuality and alcoholism and other chemical substance dependency, the board may accept training or coursework acquired out of state.
- 4981. This article applies to licenses to engage in the business of marriage, family, and child counseling, and does not apply to the licenses provided for in Article 5 (commencing with Section 4986) except that the board shall have all powers provided in this article not inconsistent with this chapter.

Article 2. Denial, Suspension, and Revocation

- 4982. The board may refuse to issue an intern registration or a license, or may suspend or revoke the license or intern registration of any registrant or licensee if the applicant, licensee, or registrant has been guilty of unprofessional conduct. Unprofessional conduct shall include, but not be limited to:
- (a) The conviction of a crime substantially related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of a licensee or registrant under this chapter. The record of conviction shall be conclusive evidence only of the fact that the conviction occurred. The board may inquire into the circumstances surrounding the commission of the crime in order to fix the degree of discipline or to determine if the conviction is substantially related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of a licensee or registrant under this chapter. A plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere made to a charge substantially related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of a licensee or registrant under this chapter shall be deemed to be a conviction within the meaning of this section. The board may order any license or registration suspended or revoked, or may decline to issue a license or registration when the time for appeal has elapsed, or the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal, or, when an order granting probation is made suspending the imposition of sentence, irrespective of a subsequent order under Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code allowing any such person to withdraw a plea of guilty and enter a plea of not guilty, or setting aside the verdict of guilty, or dismissing the accusation, information, or indictment.

- (b) Securing a license or registration by fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation on any application for licensure or registration submitted to the board, whether engaged in by an applicant for a license or registration, or by a licensee in support of any application for licensure or registration.
- (c) Administering to himself or herself any controlled substance or using of any of the dangerous drugs specified in Section 4211, or of any alcoholic beverage to the extent, or in such manner, as to be dangerous or injurious to the person applying for a registration or license or holding a registration or license under this chapter, or to any other person, or to the public, or, to the extent that such use impairs the ability of such person applying for or holding a registration or license to conduct with safety to the public the practice authorized by the registration or license, or the conviction of more than one misdemeanor or any felony involving the use, consumption, or self-administration of any of the substances referred to in this subdivision, or any combination thereof. The board shall deny an application for a registration or license or revoke the license or registration of any person other than one who is licensed as a physician and surgeon, who uses or offers to use drugs in the course of performing marriage, family, and child counseling services.
- (d) Gross negligence or incompetence in the performance of marriage, family, and child counseling.
- (e) Violating, attempting to violate, or conspiring to violate any of the provisions of this chapter or any regulation adopted by the board.
- (f) Misrepresentation as to the type or status of a license or registration held by the person, or otherwise misrepresenting or permitting misrepresentation of his or her education, professional qualifications, or professional affiliations to any person or entity.
- (g) Impersonation of another by any licensee, registrant, or applicant for a license or registration, or, in the case of a licensee, allowing any other person to use his or her license or registration.
- (h) Aiding or abetting any unlicensed or unregistered person to engage in conduct for which a license or registration is required under this chapter.
- (i) Intentionally or recklessly causing physical or emotional harm to any client.
- (j) The commission of any dishonest, corrupt, or fraudulent act substantially related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of a licensee or registrant.

- (k) Engaging in sexual relations with a client, soliciting sexual relations with a client, or committing an act of sexual abuse, or sexual misconduct with a client, or committing an act punishable as a sexually related crime, if that act or solicitation is substantially related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of a marriage, family, and child counselor.
- (1) Performing, or holding one's self out as being able to perform, or offering to perform or permitting, any trainee or intern under supervision to perform any professional services beyond the scope of the license authorized by this chapter.
- (m) Failure to maintain confidentiality, except as otherwise required or permitted by law, of all information that has been received from a client in confidence during the course of treatment and all information about the client which is obtained from tests or other means.
- (n) Prior to the commencement of treatment, failing to disclose to the client or prospective client the fee to be charged for the professional services, or the basis upon which that fee will be computed.
- (o) Paying, accepting, or soliciting any consideration, compensation, or remuneration, whether monetary or otherwise, for the referral of professional clients. All consideration, compensation, or remuneration shall be in relation to professional counseling services actually provided by the licensee. Nothing in this subdivision shall prevent collaboration among two or more licensees in a case or cases. However, no fee shall be charged for that collaboration, except when disclosure of the fee has been made in compliance with subdivision (n).
- (p) Advertising in a manner which is false, misleading, or deceptive.
- (q) Reproduction or description in public, or in any publication subject to general public distribution, of any psychological test or other assessment device, the value of which depends in whole or in part on the naivete of the subject, in ways that might invalidate the test or device.
- (r) Any conduct in the supervision of any intern or trainee by any licensee that violates this chapter or any rules or regulations adopted by the board.
- 4982.2. (a) The board may place a license or registration on probation under the following circumstances:
- (1) In lieu of, or in addition to, any order of the board suspending or revoking the license or registration of any licensee or intern.
- (2) Upon the issuance of a license to an individual who has been guilty of unprofessional conduct, but who had otherwise completed all education and training and experience required for licensure.
- (3) As a condition upon the reissuance or reinstatement of any licensure which has been suspended or revoked by the board.
  - (b) The board may adopt regulations establishing a monitoring program to ensure compliance with any terms or conditions of probation imposed by the board pursuant to subdivision (a). The cost of probation or monitoring may be ordered to be paid by the licensee, registrant, or applicant.

- (c) The board, in its discretion, may require any licensee or registrant who has been placed on probation, or whose license or registration has been suspended, to obtain additional professional training, and to pass an examination upon completion of that training, and to pay any necessary examination fee. The examination may be written, oral, or a practical or clinical examination.
- (d) One year after the date of revocation of a license or registration under this chapter, application may be made to the board for reinstatement. The board may accept or reject an application for reinstatement and may require an examination for reinstatement. The board shall not consider any application for reinstatement if the applicant is under criminal probation or parole at that time.
- 4982.25. The board may deny, suspend, or revoke an application for any license or registration issued under this chapter for any of the following:
- (a) The revocation, suspension, or other disciplinary action imposed by another state on a license, certificate, or registration issued by that state to practice marriage counseling or marriage, family, and child counseling, issued by that state to a licensee, shall constitute grounds for the disciplinary action for unprofessional conduct against the licensee or registrant in this state. A certified copy of the decision or judgment of the other state shall be conclusive evidence of that action.
- (b) The revocation, suspension, or other disciplinary action by the State Psychology Examining Committee, or equivalent action in another state of any other state, of a license or certificate to practice psychology issued by this state or another state to a licensee or registrant, shall constitute grounds for disciplinary action for unprofessional conduct against the licensee or registrant under this chapter.
- (c) The revocation, suspension, or other discipline by the board of a license or certificate to practice as a clinical social worker or educational psychologist to a licensee shall also constitute grounds for disciplinary action for unprofessional conduct against such licensee or registrant under this chapter.
- 4982.3. The proceedings conducted under this article shall be held in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

Article 3. Penalties

4983. Any person who violates any of the provisions of this chapter is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by a fine not exceeding two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500), or by both.

4983.1. In addition to other proceedings provided for in this chapter, whenever any person has engaged, or is about to engage, in any acts or practices which constitute, or will constitute, an offense against this chapter, the superior court in and for the county wherein the acts or practices take place, or are about to take place, may issue an injunction, or other appropriate order, restraining such conduct on application of the board, the Attorney General, or the district attorney of the county.

The proceedings under this section shall be governed by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Article 4. Revenue

4984. Licenses issued under this chapter shall expire no more than 24 months after the issue date. The expiration date of the original license shall be set by the board in a manner as to best distribute the renewal work throughout each year.

To renew an unexpired license, the holder thereof, on or before the expiration date of the license, shall apply for a renewal on a form prescribed by the board, and pay a two-year renewal fee prescribed by the board.

4984.1. A license which has expired may be renewed at any time within five years after its expiration on filing an application for renewal on a form prescribed by the board and payment of the renewal fee in effect on the last regular renewal date. If the license is renewed more than 30 days after its expiration, the licensee, as a condition precedent to renewal, shall also pay the delinquency fee prescribed by this chapter.

Renewal under this section shall be effective on the date on which the application is filed, on the date on which the renewal fee is paid, or on the date on which the delinquency fee, if any, is paid, whichever last occurs. If so renewed, the license shall continue in effect through the date provided for in Section 4984 which next occurs after the effective date of the renewal, when it shall expire if it is not again renewed.

- 4984.2. A suspended license is subject to expiration and shall be renewed as provided in this article, but such renewal does not entitle the licensee, while it remains suspended and until it is reinstated, to engage in the activity to which the license relates, or in any other activity or conduct in violation of the order or judgment by which it was suspended.
- 4984.3. A revoked license is subject to expiration as provided in this article, but it may not be renewed. If it is reinstated after its expiration, the licensee shall, as a condition precedent to its reinstatement, pay a reinstatement fee in an amount equal to the renewal fee in effect on the last regular renewal date before the date on which it is reinstated, plus the delinquency fee, if any, accrued at the time of its revocation.

- 4984.4. A license which is not renewed within five years after its expiration may not be renewed, restored, reinstated, or reissued thereafter, but the licensee may apply for and obtain a new license if:
- (a) No fact, circumstance, or condition exists which, if the license were issued, would justify its revocation or suspension.
- (b) He or she pays all of the fees which would be required of him or her if he or she were then applying for a license for the first time and passes the licensing examination.
- 4984.5. The board shall report each month to the Controller the amount and source of all revenue received pursuant to this chapter and at the same time pay the entire amount thereof into the State Treasury for credit to the Behavioral Science Examiners Fund.
- 4984.6. (a) The Behavioral Science Examiners Fund is continuously appropriated, without regard to fiscal years, to the Board of Behavioral Science Examiners for carrying out and enforcing the provisions of this chapter.
- (b) The board shall keep such records as will reasonably ensure that funds expended in the administration of each licensing or registration category shall bear a reasonable relation to the revenue derived from each category, and shall so notify the department no later than May 31 of each year.
- (c) Surpluses, if any, may be used in such a way so as to bear a reasonable relation to the revenue derived from each category, and may include, but not be limited to, expenditures for education and research related to each of the licensing or registration categories.
- 4984.7. The amount of the fees prescribed by the provisions of this chapter which relate to licensing of persons to engage in the business of marriage, family and child counseling is that fixed by the following schedule:
- (a) The fee for applications for original licensure received on or after July 1, 1986, shall be eighty dollars ($80). The fee for applications for original licensure received on or after January 1, 1987, shall be one hundred dollars ($100).
- (b) For those persons renewing their licenses on or after July 1, 1986, the renewal fee shall be forty dollars ($40). For those persons renewing their licenses on or after January 1, 1987, the renewal fee shall be sixty dollars ($60).
- (c) The delinquency fee shall be ten dollars ($10). For those persons failing to renew their licenses in a timely manner on or after July 1, 1986, the delinquency fee shall be twenty-five dollars ($25). Any person who permits his or her license to become delinquent may have it restored only upon the payment of all fees which he or she would have paid if the license had not become delinquent, plus the payment of any and all outstanding delinquency fees.
- (d) For those persons registering as interns on or after July 1, 1986, the registration fee shall be twenty-five dollars ($25). For those persons registering as interns on or after January 1, 1987, the registration fee shall be thirty dollars ($30).

- (e) For those persons renewing their registration as an intern on or after July 1, 1986, the renewal fee shall be fifteen dollars ($15). For those persons renewing their registration as an intern on or after January 1, 1987, the renewal fee shall be twenty-five dollars ($25).
  - (f) The examination fee shall be thirty dollars ($30).
- (g) Persons failing the examination may apply for reexamination and each application shall be accompanied by a reexamination fee in the amount of thirty dollars ($30). Persons failing to appear for the reexamination, once having been scheduled, shall forfeit any reexamination fees paid.

Article 5. Licensed Educational Psychologists

- 4986. Persons licensed under this article by the board may practice pursuant to this article.
- 4986.10. A licensed educational psychologist shall be authorized to perform any of the following professional functions pertaining to academic learning processes or the educational system or both:
- (a) Educational evaluation, diagnosis, and test interpretation limited to assessment of academic ability, learning patterns, achievement, motivation, and personality factors directly related to academic learning problems.
- (b) Counseling services for children or adults for amelioration of academic learning problems.
- (c) Educational consultation, research, and direct educational services.
- 4986.20. A person who desires a license under this article shall meet all of the following qualifications:
- (a) He or she shall possess at least a master's degree in psychology, educational psychology, school psychology, or counseling and guidance, or a degree deemed equivalent by the board under regulations duly adopted under this article. Such degree or training shall be obtained from educational institutions approved by the board according to the regulations duly adopted under this article.
  - (b) He or she shall be at least 18 years of age.
- (c) He or she shall not have committed acts or crimes constituting grounds for denial of licensure under Section 480.
- (d) He or she shall have successfully completed 60 semester hours of postgraduate work devoted to pupil personnel services or have experience deemed equivalent by the board in regulations duly adopted under this chapter.
- (e) He or she shall furnish proof of three years of full-time experience as a credentialed school psychologist in the public schools or experience which the board deems equivalent. If the applicant provides proof of having completed one year's internship working full time as a school psychologist intern in the public schools in an accredited internship program, one year's experience shall be credited toward this requirement.

- (f) He or she shall furnish written statements from two sponsors having personal knowledge of his or her professional competence. These statements shall include a description of the applicant's functioning and evaluation of his or her professional competencies. The sponsor of this applicant shall be qualified to be a licensed educational psychologist under this article.
- (g) He or she shall be examined by the board with respect to the professional functions authorized by this article.
- (h) He or she shall have at least one year of supervised professional experience in an accredited school psychology program, or under the direction of a licensed psychologist, or such suitable alternative experience as determined by the board in regulations duly adopted under this chapter.
- 4986.30. The board may, in its discretion, provide for a continuing education program in connection with the professional functions and courses described in this article.
- 4986.40. The board shall issue an educational psychologist license to all applicants who meet the requirements of this article and who pay the board the fees required by this chapter.
- 4986.41. (a) An applicant who has failed the examination may apply for reexamination upon payment of a fee of twenty dollars ($20) if he or she applies within the 12-month period subsequent to failure of the examination.
- (b) For persons applying for reexamination under the terms of this section on or after January 1, 1987, the reexamination fee shall be thirty dollars ($30) for each application. Persons failing to appear for reexamination, once having been scheduled, shall forfeit any reexamination fees paid.
- 4986.50. It is unlawful for any person to use any title or letters which imply that he or she is a licensed educational psychologist unless at the time of so doing he or she holds a valid, unexpired and unrevoked license issued under this article.
- 4986.60. The provisions of Sections 4984 to 4984.40, inclusive, shall apply to this article.
- 4986.70. The board may refuse to issue a license, or may suspend or revoke the license of any licensee if he or she has been guilty of unprofessional conduct which has endangered or is likely to endanger the health, welfare, or safety of the public. Such unprofessional conduct shall include:
- (a) Conviction of a crime substantially related to the qualifications, functions and duties of an educational psychologist, the record of conviction being conclusive evidence thereof.
  - (b) Securing a license by fraud or deceit practiced on the board.
- (c) Using any narcotic as defined in Division 10 (commencing with Section 11000) of the Health and Safety Code or any hypnotic drug or alcoholic beverage to an extent or in a manner dangerous to himself or herself, or to any other person, or to the public and to an extent that such action impairs his or her ability to perform his or her work as a licensed educational psychologist with safety to the public.

- (d) Improper advertising.
- (e) Violating or conspiring to violate the terms of this article.
- (f) Committing a dishonest or fraudulent act as a licensed educational psychologist resulting in substantial injury to another.
- 4986.80. The amount of the fees prescribed by the provisions of this chapter which relate to the licensing of educational psychologists is that fixed by the following schedule:
- (a) The application fee and renewal fee shall be fixed by the board in an amount which does not exceed one hundred fifty dollars ($150) but is sufficient to support the functions of the board which relate to the licensing of educational psychologists.
- (b) The delinquency fee shall be twenty-five dollars ($25). Any person who permits his or her license to become delinquent may have it restored only upon the payment of all fees which he or she would have paid if the license had not become delinquent, plus the payment of any and all delinquency fees.
- (c) Persons applying for an original license after July 1, 1986, shall pay an application fee of one hundred dollars ($100).
- (d) Persons applying for renewal of their license after July 1, 1986, shall pay a fee of fifty dollars ($50). Persons applying for renewal of their license after January 1, 1987, shall pay a fee of sixty dollars ($60).
- 4986.81. Any person who violates any of the provisions of this article is guilty of a misdemeanor.
- 4986.90. In addition to other proceedings provided for in this article, whenever any person has engaged, or is about to engage in any acts or practices which constitute, or will constitute, an offense against this article, the superior court in and for the county wherein the acts or practices take place, or are about to take place, may issue an injunction, or other appropriate order, restraining that conduct on application of the board, the Attorney General, or the district attorney of the county.

The proceedings under this section shall be governed by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

4987. The board may, by rules or regulations, adopt, amend or repeal rules of professional conduct appropriate to the establishment and maintenance of a high standard of integrity and dignity in the profession, provided those rules or regulations are not inconsistent with Section 4986.70. Every person licensed under this article shall be governed by those rules of professional conduct.

Article 6. Marriage, Family, and Child Counseling Corporations

4987.5. A marriage, family, and child counseling corporation is a corporation which is registered with the Board of Behavioral Science Examiners and has a currently effective certificate of registration from the board pursuant to the Moscone-Knox Professional Corporation Act, as contained in Part 4 (commencing with Section 13400) of Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, and this article. Subject to all applicable statutes, rules and regulations, such marriage, family, and child counseling corporation is entitled to practice marriage, family, and child counseling. With respect to a marriage, family, and child counseling corporation, the governmental agency referred to in the Moscone-Knox Professional Corporation Act is the Board of Behavioral Science Examiners.

4987.6. An applicant for registration as a marriage, family, and child counseling corporation shall supply to the board all necessary and pertinent documents and information requested by the board concerning the applicant's plan of operation. The board may provide forms of application. If the board finds that the corporation is duly organized and existing pursuant to the General Corporation Law, that, except as provided in Section 13403 of the Corporations Code, each officer, director, shareholder and each employee who will render professional services is a licensed person as defined in the Moscone-Knox Professional Corporation Act, and that from the application it appears that the affairs of the corporation will be conducted in compliance with law and the rules and regulations of the board, the board shall, upon payment of the registration fee in such amount as it may determine, issue a certificate of registration. The application shall be signed and verified by an officer of the corporation.

4987.7. Each marriage, family, and child counseling corporation shall file with the board, annually and at such other times as the board may require, a report containing such information pertaining to qualification and compliance with the statutes, rules and regulations of the board as the board may determine. The fee for filing such a report shall be fixed by the board. All reports shall be signed and verified by an officer of the corporation.

4987.8. The name of a marriage, family, and child counseling corporation and any name or names under which it may be rendering professional services shall contain and be restricted to the name or the last name of one or more of the present, prospective, or former shareholders and shall include one or more of the words "marriage," "family" and "child" together with either of the words "counseling" or "counselor" and wording or abbreviations denoting corporate existence.

4987.9. Except as provided in Section 13403 of the Corporations Code, each director, shareholder, and officer of a marriage, family, and child counseling corporation shall be a licensed person as defined in the Moscone-Knox Professional Corporation Act.

4988. The income of a marriage, family, and child counseling corporation attributable to professional services rendered while a shareholder is a disqualified person (as defined in the Moscone-Knox Professional Corporation Act) shall not in any manner accrue to the benefit of such shareholder or his or her shares in the marriage, family, and child counseling corporation.

4988.1. A marriage, family, and child counseling corporation shall not do or fail to do any act the doing of which or the failure to do which would constitute unprofessional conduct under any statute, rule or regulation now or hereafter in effect. In the conduct of its practice, it shall observe and be bound by such statutes, rules and regulations to the same extent as a person holding a license under Section 4980.50. The board shall have the same powers of suspension, revocation and discipline against a marriage, family, and child counseling corporation as are now or hereafter authorized by Section 4982, or by any other similar statute against individual licensees, provided, however, that proceedings against a marriage, family, and child counseling corporation shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and the board shall have all the powers granted therein.

4988.2. The board may formulate and enforce rules and regulations to carry out the purposes and objectives of this article, including rules and regulations requiring (a) that the articles of incorporation or bylaws of a marriage, family, and child counseling corporation shall include a provision whereby the capital stock of such corporation owned by a disqualified person (as defined in the Moscone-Knox Professional Corporation Act), or a deceased person, shall be sold to the corporation or to the remaining shareholders of such corporation within such time as such rules and regulations may provide, and (b) that a marriage, family, and child counseling corporation as a condition of obtaining a certificate pursuant to the Moscone-Knox Professional Corporation Act and this article shall provide adequate security by insurance or otherwise for claims against it by its patients arising out of the rendering of professional services.

- SEC. 5. The Legislature, by enacting this act, recognizes the importance and necessity of assuring, insofar as possible, that those persons applying to be licensed as marriage, family, and child counselors be trained and educated specifically in marriage, family, and child counseling, marital and family therapy, and marital and family systems approaches to treatment.
- SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

An act relating to state internal service funds, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- SECTION 1. The sum of fourteen million eight hundred fifty-eight thousand dollars ($14,858,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Controller to pay the United States Treasury for the claim for reimbursement of accumulated surpluses in state internal service funds to satisfy an audit disallowance filed by the Federal Inspector General, Department of Health and Human Services for Region IX, entitled "Accumulated Surplus in California Internal Service Funds." This amount shall be allocated in accordance with the following schedule:
- (a) Ten million three hundred forty-seven thousand dollars ($10,347,000) for payment of claims of excessive balances in the Service Revolving Fund of the Department of General Services.
- (b) Three hundred fifty-six thousand dollars ($356,000) for payment of claims of excessive balances in the Prison Industries Revolving Fund.
- (c) One million one hundred seventy-nine thousand dollars ($1,179,000) for payment of claims of excessive balances in the Stephen P. Teale Data Center Revolving Fund.
- (d) Two million nine hundred forty-three thousand dollars ($2,943,000) for payment of claims of excessive balances in the Health and Welfare Data Center Revolving Fund.
- (e) Thirty-three thousand dollars ($33,000) for payment of claims of excessive balances in the Agriculture Building Fund of the Department of Food and Agriculture.
- SEC. 2. The Controller shall arrange to collect from the various funds included in Section 1 the amounts paid from the General Fund to satisfy the audit disallowance for that fund and the amounts so collected shall be deposited in the General Fund.
- SEC. 3. The Department of Finance by executive order may loan from the General Fund to the various funds included in Section 1, an amount not to exceed the amount identified in the audit disallowance. However, any loan made shall only be for the purpose of providing funds which are needed for cash-flow purposes and shall be repaid by December 31, 1987.
- SEC. 4. The Department of Finance shall establish a task force which includes representatives from the department, the Controller, the Auditor General, the State and Consumer Services Agency, the Health and Welfare Agency, and the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency. This task force shall do both of the following:

(a) Review the accounting procedures now in use by the various internal service funds and recommend changes which will bring them into compliance with generally accepted accounting principles and federal rules and regulations.

(b) Work with federal officials to seek changes in existing federal rules and regulations which will bring them into compliance with generally accepted accounting principles and prevailing practices.

The task force shall file a report with the Legislature no later than January 11, 1987, which outlines the proposed changes to overcome the problems cited in the audit report and any problems found during the task force review.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to settle the federal Health and Human Services audit disallowance and avoid any undue delays in negotiating allowable indirect overhead rates and thereby expedite the billings to the federal government and receipt of federal funds by the state, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1367

An act relating to health services, and making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The sum of three hundred eighteen thousand dollars ($318,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Department of Health Services for the purposes set forth in subdivision (b). These funds shall be available for expenditure for one fiscal year subsequent to the fiscal year in which they are appropriated.

(b) The State Department of Health Services may allocate the funds appropriated in subdivision (a) to the County of Mono, as a state subvention for the support of its county hospital. The allocation and expenditure of the funds shall conform to the following requirements:

(1) The allocation of funds each fiscal year shall be made through a standard agreement between the County of Mono and the State Department of Health Services after the State Department of Health Services and the Department of Finance receive and approve an application from the County of Mono, in a form and in accordance with specifications determined by the State Department of Health Services. The agreement shall provide for reports of expenditures, progress reports, and such other terms and conditions as the State Department of Health Services may deem necessary.

- (2) The funds may be expended by the county for the operating costs of its county hospital or for any construction, remodeling renovation, or equipment costs necessary to comply with local, state, or federal licensing and certification requirements or necessary to maintain or increase hospital revenues to ensure financial solvency.
- (3) No funds shall be allocated by the State Department of Health Services in any year unless and until the county has budgeted sufficient county funds to enable it to receive its maximum allocation of County Health Services Funds under Sections 16702 and 16704 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.
- (4) No funds shall be allocated by the State Department of Health Services in the second fiscal year subsequent to the fiscal year of the appropriation unless and until the department has received and approved a long-range plan for the county hospital to increase operating revenues and to eliminate the need for future special appropriations.
- (c) This act shall not impact the eligibility of Mono County for a special needs and priorities award pursuant to Section 16707 of the Welfare and Institutions Code during the 1987–88 fiscal year.
- SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessary are:

In order to make certain funds available for county health services as soon as possible, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1368

An act to amend Sections 331, 332, 711, 713, 1002, 3055, 3081, 3203, 3242, 3280, 3300, 3510, 3806, 4006, 4031, 4033, 4751, and 7149 of, to amend, repeal, and add Section 3031 of, and to repeal and add Section 5653 of, the Fish and Game Code, relating to fish and game, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 331 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

331. The commission may determine and fix the area or areas, the seasons and hours, the bag and possession limit, and the sex and total number of antelope (Antilocapra americana) that may be taken under regulations which the commission may prescribe from time to time. Only a resident of the State of California possessing a valid hunting license and over the age of 16 years, who has not taken an antelope under these provisions during the 10 years immediately preceding, may obtain a license for the taking of antelope. Only one license may be issued to any one individual in any 10-year period.

A license may be issued upon payment of a fee of fifty-five dollars ($55), as adjusted under Section 713. The fee shall be deposited in the Fish and Game Preservation Fund and shall be expended, in addition to money budgeted for salaries of persons in the department, for the expense of enforcing this section and the processing of applications.

SEC. 2. Section 332 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

332. The commission may determine and fix the area or areas, the seasons and hours, the bag and possession limit, and the number of elk that may be taken under rules and regulations which the commission may prescribe from time to time. The commission may not authorize the taking of tule elk until the total statewide population of those mammals exceeds 2,000, or it is determined by the Legislature, pursuant to the reports required by Section 3951, that suitable areas cannot be found in California to accommodate such a population in a healthy condition. Only a resident of the State of California over the age of 16 years and possessing a valid hunting license may obtain a license for the taking of elk.

A license may be issued upon payment of a fee of one hundred sixty-five dollars ($165), as adjusted under Section 713. The fees shall be deposited in the Fish and Game Preservation Fund and shall be expended in addition to money budgeted for salaries of the department, for the expense of enforcing the provisions of this section and the processing of the applications.

- SEC. 3. Section 711 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:
- 711. It is the intent of the Legislature to ensure adequate funding from appropriate sources for the department. To this end, the Legislature finds and declares that:
- (a) The costs of nongame fish and wildlife programs and free hunting and fishing license programs shall be provided annually in the Budget Act by appropriating money from the General Fund and sources other than the Fish and Game Preservation Fund to the department for these purposes.
- (b) The costs of commercial fishing programs shall be provided solely out of revenues from commercial fishing taxes, license fees, and other revenues, and from reimbursements and federal funds received for commercial fishing programs.
- (c) The costs of hunting and sportfishing programs shall be provided solely out of hunting and sportfishing revenues and reimbursements and federal funds received for hunting and sportfishing programs. These revenues shall not be used to support commercial fishing programs, free hunting and fishing license programs, or nongame fish and wildlife programs.

(d) Hunting, sportfishing, and sport ocean fishing license fees shall be adjusted annually to an amount equal to that computed pursuant to Section 713. However, a substantial increase in the aggregate of hunting and sportfishing programs shall be reflected by appropriate amendments to the sections of this code that establish the base sport license fee levels. The inflationary index provided in Section 713 may not be used to accommodate a substantial increase in the aggregate of hunting and sportfishing programs.

For purposes of this article, "substantial increase" means an increase in excess of 5 percent of the Fish and Game Preservation Fund portion of the department's current year support budget, excluding cost-of-living increases provided for salaries, staff benefits, and operating expenses.

- SEC. 4. Section 713 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:
- 713. (a) Not later than August 1 of each year, the Department of Finance shall submit to the department a factor which reflects changes in an inflationary index developed by the Department of Finance, calculated by comparing the department's cost of salaries, staff benefits, operating expenses, and other insubstantial costs paid from the Fish and Game Preservation Fund in the fiscal year ending on June 30 of that same year with those costs in the 1985–86 fiscal year, unless a different base year is specified in another section of this code.
- (b) The factor shall be multiplied by the individual base fee for each license, stamp, permit, or tag. The product shall be rounded to the nearest twenty-five cents ($0.25), and the resulting amount shall be the fee for any license year beginning on or after January 1 of the next succeeding calendar year for any license, stamp, permit, or tag which is adjusted under this section pursuant to other provisions of this code.
- SEC. 5. Section 1002 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:
- 1002. The department may issue permits, subject to restrictions and regulations which the commission deems desirable, to take or possess, in any part of the state, for scientific, educational, or propagation purposes, mammals, birds and the nests and eggs thereof, fish, amphibia, reptiles, or any other form of plant or animal life.

The base fee for the permits is fifteen dollars ($15), as adjusted under Section 713, per year, except that a permit without fee may be issued for either of the following:

- (a) Authorizing only the banding of birds and the exhibition of live or dead wildlife specimens by public zoological gardens, scientific, or educational institutions.
  - (b) To students regularly enrolled in commercial fishing classes in a school operating under the jurisdiction of the State Board of Education or in commercial fishing classes in a community college and to faculty members of those schools or a community college when conducting regularly enrolled classes in commercial fishing. Any permit issued under this subdivision shall apply only when the students are under the direct supervision of the instructor approved by the school or community college to teach the class. All fish taken shall be taken in accordance with state law except that Sections 7850 and 7880 to 7890, inclusive, shall not apply to persons or equipment operating under this subdivision. All fish taken under authority of a permit issued under this subdivision may be sold only to a person licensed pursuant to Section 8040 or donated to a charitable institution. All funds received from the sale of the fish shall be used solely for the support of the commercial fishing classes.

A special student permit may be issued pursuant to this section, on the payment of a base fee of eight dollars ($8), as adjusted under Section 713, to any student in a school of collegiate level who is required by an instructor in wildlife research in the school to collect specimens used in laboratory work in the school under supervision and in connection with a course in wildlife research or in the conduct of wildlife investigations and studies on behalf of the public.

The license year for permits issued pursuant to this section is the calendar year or any part thereof. It is not necessary for the possessor of the permit to have a sportfishing or hunting license to pursue the scientific collecting of any fish, reptile, aquatic animal or plant, bird, or mammal in this state.

Nothing in this section authorizes any act which violates Section 597 of the Penal Code.

A permit under this section does not authorize the taking of fish or mammals from the ocean waters of this state which are within the boundaries of any city if the city has filed with the department an objection to the taking.

- SEC. 6. Section 3031 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:
- 3031. A hunting license, granting the privilege to take birds and mammals, shall be issued:
- (a) To any resident of this state, over the age of 16 years, upon the payment of a fee of eighteen dollars ($18).
- (b) To any resident of this state, under the age of 16 years, upon the payment of a fee of four dollars ($4).
- (c) To any person not a resident of this state, upon the payment of a fee of fifty-nine dollars ($59).
- (d) To any person not a resident of this state, valid for one day and only for the taking of domesticated game birds and pheasants while on the premises of a licensed pheasant club, or for the taking of domesticated migratory game birds on areas licensed for shooting those birds, upon the payment of a fee of eight dollars ($8).
- (e) To any person not a resident of this state, valid only at an organizational field trial under Section 3510, upon the payment of a fee of fifteen dollars ($15).

This section shall remain in effect only until July 1, 1987, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before July 1, 1987, deletes or extends that date.

- SEC. 7. Section 3031 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read: 3031. (a) A hunting license, granting the privilege to take birds and mammals, shall be issued:
- (1) To any resident of this state, over the age of 16 years, upon the payment of a base fee of seventeen dollars ($17), as adjusted under Section 713.
- (2) To any resident of this state, under the age of 16 years, upon the payment of a base fee of four dollars ($4), as adjusted under Section 713.
- (3) To any person not a resident of this state, upon the payment of a base fee of fifty-nine dollars ($59), as adjusted under Section 713.
- (4) To any person not a resident of this state, valid for one day and only for the taking of domesticated game birds and pheasants while on the premises of a licensed pheasant club, or for the taking of domesticated migratory game birds on areas licensed for shooting those birds, upon the payment of a base fee of eight dollars ($8), as adjusted under Section 713.
- (5) To any person not a resident of this state, valid only at an organizational field trial under Section 3510, upon the payment of a base fee of fifteen dollars ($15), as adjusted under Section 713.
- (b) The adjustment of the base fees under Section 713 which are specified in subdivisions (a) to (d), inclusive, of this section, shall be applicable to the hunting license years beginning on and after July 1, 1988.
  - (c) This section shall become operative on July 1, 1987.
- SEC. 8. Section 3055 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:
- 3055. Persons who apply for a resident hunting license and qualify for the license through the issuance of a certificate of competence in hunter safety, principles of conservation, and sportsmanship as provided by this article, shall obtain a hunter safety instruction validation stamp. The hunter safety instruction validation stamp shall be issued by license agents for a base fee of two dollars ($2), as adjusted under Section 713, in the same manner as resident hunting licenses. However, the compensation provided in Section 1055 shall not be paid to the license agent for the sale of the stamp. The validation stamp shall be affixed to the certificate of competence.
- SEC. 9. Section 3081 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:
- 3081. It is unlawful to possess deer, elk, bear, or antelope meat except as follows:
- (a) During the open season where taken and for 15 days following the last day when those mammals may be legally taken in the area where taken.

- (b) At any time if marked pursuant to regulations established by the commission. The commission shall make the regulations, and may fix a fee for marking the meat.
- SEC. 10. Section 3203 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:
- 3203. The department shall issue a class 1 domesticated game breeder's license upon the payment of a base fee of eight dollars ($8), as adjusted under Section 713, a class 2 domesticated game breeder's license upon the payment of a base fee of forty dollars ($40), as adjusted under Section 713, and a class 3 domesticated game breeder's license upon the payment of a fee set by the commission to help cover the costs of administration.
- SEC. 11. Section 3242 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:
- 3242. A commercial hunting club license shall be issued to any person upon the payment of a base fee of one hundred sixty-five dollars ($165), as adjusted under Section 713.
- SEC. 12. Section 3280 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:
- 3280. The commission may prescribe regulations authorizing the department to issue a licensed pheasant club license, to include an investigation to the satisfaction of the department that a tract is suitable for the purposes of a licensed pheasant club and that the establishment of the club will not conflict with the public interest.

The base license fees shall be two hundred dollars ($200), as adjusted under Section 713, for a pheasant club of over 500 acres and one hundred fifty dollars ($150), as adjusted under Section 713, for a pheasant club of 500 acres or less.

The license shall be issued for a term of one year from June 1, or if issued after the beginning of that period, for the remainder of the period.

The commission may transfer a license without any additional fee to land owned or controlled by the licensee, other than that land specified in the original application, but which is located in the same county as the original land, if it is satisfied, after investigation, that the new land is suitable for the purposes of the license and the transfer is not in conflict with the public interest.

- SEC. 13. Section 3300 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:
- 3300. It is unlawful for any person to engage in the raising and releasing, or the releasing, of domesticated migratory game birds for shooting by persons who pay for that privilege, unless the person has a revocable nontransferable license issued by the department. The licenses may be issued annually by the department and shall be valid from July 1 through the following June 30, upon payment of a base fee of eighty dollars ($80), as adjusted under Section 713.

Any bird of a species included in the definition of migratory game birds, as defined in Section 3500, which has been held live in captivity is a "domesticated migratory game bird" for purposes of this section, except such a bird that has been released from captivity and any control before attaining six weeks of age.

SEC. 14. Section 3510 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

3510. Legally acquired domestically reared game birds, coturnix quail, and bobwhite quail may be used for, and taken during, the training of hunting dogs and field trials if the person taking the birds has a valid hunting license and a dog training or organizational field trial permit issued by the department pursuant to regulations of the commission.

Whenever those birds are used for field trials held by organizations operating under the auspices of the American Kennel Club, the American Field Dog Stud Book, or other organization which, in the opinion of the commission, is a bona fide hunting dog organization, the birds may be taken if the organization conducting the field trial has a permit for the taking issued by the department and if each individual that shoots the birds has a valid hunting license.

The base fee for dog training permits is two dollars ($2), as adjusted under Section 713, per year for each individual permit and ten dollars ($10), as adjusted under Section 713, per year for each organizational permit. Applications for the permits shall be made to the department. The organizational permit shall allow each member of the organization, or the persons designated by the organization to do the shooting at a field trial, to take birds under this section.

Persons conducting dog training individually at places and times other than official club functions shall have an individual permit.

The department may require that any birds so used be marked to distinguish them from other game birds and the carcass of pheasant or chukar taken shall be tagged with a seal as provided for in Sections 3206 and 3207.

The department may designate in the permit, the time, place, and dates where the training of dogs or field trials may be held.

The release and taking of exotic nonresident game birds subject to Sections 3515 and 3516 may be pursuant to this section if authorized by the commission. Dog training and organizational field trial permits shall be issued on a calendar year basis.

Permits issued under this section shall be restricted to dog clubs, trainers, and dog owners. The commission may revoke permits upon determination of any violation of this code.

SEC. 15. Section 3806 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

3806. In order to aid in relieving widespread waterfowl depredation of agricultural crops, the department may issue licenses under regulations which the commission may prescribe to permit the feeding of migratory game birds. The commission may prescribe an annual fee for the license.

SEC. 16. Section 4006 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

4006. A trapping license shall be issued as follows:

- (a) To any resident of this state over the age of 16 years upon payment of a base fee of forty-five dollars ($45), as adjusted under Section 713.
- (b) To any resident of this state under the age of 16 years upon payment of a base fee of fifteen dollars ($15), as adjusted under Section 713.
- (c) To any person not a resident of this state upon payment of a base fee of two hundred twenty-five dollars ($225), as adjusted under Section 713.

A license shall not be issued to a nonresident if the state in which he or she resides does not provide for issuance of a nonresident trapping license.

- SEC. 17. Section 4031 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:
- 4031. A revocable fur dealer license shall be issued to any person upon payment of a base fee of seventy dollars ($70), as adjusted under Section 713.
- SEC. 18. Section 4033 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:
- 4033. A revocable fur agent license shall be issued to any person who is employed by a licensed fur dealer upon payment of a base fee of thirty-five dollars ($35), as adjusted under Section 713.
- SEC. 19. Section 4751 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:
- 4751. (a) Any resident of this state, 12 years of age or over, who possesses a valid hunting license, may procure the number of bear tags corresponding to the number of bear that may legally be taken by one person during the current license year, upon payment of a base fee of fifteen dollars ($15), as adjusted under Section 713, for each bear tag.
- (b) Any nonresident of this state, 12 years of age or over, who possesses a valid California hunting license, may procure the number of bear license tags corresponding to the number of bear that may be legally taken by one person during the current license year upon payment of the base fee of one hundred five dollars ($105), as adjusted under Section 713, for each bear tag.
- SEC. 20. Section 5653 of the Fish and Game Code, as amended by Secton 23 of Chapter 1463 of the Statutes of 1985, is repealed.
- SEC. 21. Section 5653 of the Fish and Game Code, as amended by Section 23.5 of Chapter 1463 of the Statutes of 1985, is repealed.
- SEC. 22. Section 5653 of the Fish and Game Code, as amended by Section 23.6 of Chapter 1463 of the Statutes of 1985, is repealed.
- SEC. 23. Section 5653 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:
- 5653. (a) Before any person uses any vacuum or suction dredge equipment in any river, stream or lake of this state, the person shall submit an application for a permit for a dredge to the department, specifying the type and size of equipment to be used and other information as the department may require.

- (b) The department may designate waters or areas wherein vacuum or suction dredges may be used pursuant to a permit, waters or areas closed to those dredges, the maximum size of those dredges which may be used, and the time of year when those dredges may be used. If the department determines that the operation will not be deleterious to fish, it shall issue a permit to the applicant. If any person operates any equipment other than that authorized by the permit or conducts the operation in any waters or area or at any time which is not authorized by the permit, or if any person conducts the operation without securing the permit, the person is guilty of a misdemeanor.
- (c) The department shall issue a permit upon the payment of a base fee of ten dollars ($10), as adjusted under Section 713, when an onsite investigation of the project size is not deemed necessary by the department, and a base fee of one hundred thirty dollars ($130), as adjusted under Section 713, when the department deems an onsite investigation is necessary.
- (d) It is unlawful to possess a vacuum or suction dredge in areas, or in or within 100 yards of waters, which are closed to the use of vacuum or suction dredges.
- SEC. 24. Section 7149 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:
- 7149. (a) A sportfishing license granting the privilege to take any fish, reptile, or amphibia anywhere in this state for purposes other than profit shall be issued to any of the following:
- (1) A resident of this state, over the age of 16 years, upon payment during the 1987 calendar year, or, if issued after the beginning of the year, for the remainder thereof, upon payment of a fee of eighteen dollars ($18), or upon the payment during a calendar year beginning on or after January 1, 1988, of the base fee of sixteen dollars and seventy-five cents ($16.75), as adjusted under Section 713.
- (2) A nonresident, over the age of 16 years, for the period of a calendar year, or, if issued after the beginning of the year, for the remainder thereof, upon payment of a base fee of forty-five dollars ($45), as adjusted under Section 713.
- (3) A resident or nonresident, over the age of 16 years, for one designated day, upon payment of the base fee of five dollars ($5) as adjusted under Section 713. Notwithstanding Section 1053, more than one single day license issued for different days may be issued to or possessed by a person at one time.
- (b) A sport ocean fishing license granting the licensee to take any fish from ocean waters of this state for purposes other than profit shall be issued to a resident of this state, over the age of 16 years, for the period of a calendar year, or if issued after the beginning of the year, for the remainder thereof, upon payment of a base fee of ten dollars ($10), as adjusted under Section 713.
- (c) A sport ocean fin fishing license granting the privilege to take only fin fish from the ocean waters of this state for purposes other than profit shall be issued to a person over the age of 16 years for one designated day, upon the payment for a designated day in the license year beginning on January 1 of the base fee of three dollars and fifty cents ($3.50), as adjusted under Section 713.

(d) For the purposes of this section, the adjustment under Section 713 shall be calculated and added to the base fees to establish the fees paid for licenses issued in the license years beginning on and after January 1, 1988, in accordance with Section 713.

(e) California sportfishing license stamps shall be sold by license agents in the same manner as sportfishing licenses, and no compensation shall be paid to the license agent for sale of the stamps except as provided in Section 1055.

CHAPTER 1369

An act to relating to juvenile court law.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds that many minors who have been adjudged wards of the juvenile court under subdivision (a) of Section 601 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and have been found to have violated a related dispositional order of the court, have a greater propensity to become involved in crimes, either as a victim or as a perpetrator. Consequently, the Legislature finds that it is necessary to establish a pilot program in one county to assess the effectiveness of court-ordered secure detention for up to five days for the benefit of the minor. It is the intent of the Legislature in authorizing this pilot program that resources currently being utilized for the minors described in this subdivision shall not be curtailed.

(b) The Department of the Youth Authority shall establish a pilot program in Contra Costa, Orange, or San Diego County, to study the effectiveness of court-ordered secure detention for up to five days on specified minors who have been adjudged to be wards of the juvenile court on the basis of noncriminal conduct, upon the adoption of a resolution by the board of supervisors of the county agreeing to participate in the program.

The pilot program shall operate for three years and shall be evaluated annually by the Department of the Youth Authority. The evaluation shall include data comparing the number of crimes committed by or on minors in that county described in subdivision (a) measured before the operation of the pilot program and after each year's operation of the pilot program. The program shall be deemed to be successful if the number of crimes committed by or on those minors is reduced 10 percent after the first year of the program, and 20 percent and 30 percent for the second and third years, respectively.

If the pilot program fails to achieve the stated crime reduction rate in any of the three years, then the pilot program shall be deemed to have failed and shall not continue.

The Department of the Youth Authority shall report the results of its evaluation within six months following the first year of the pilot program's operation to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and the appropriate policy committees of the Assembly and the Senate.

- (c) Under the pilot program established pursuant to this section, a minor taken into custody upon the ground that he or she is a person described in Section 601 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or adjudged to be a ward of the juvenile court solely upon that ground, may be held in a secure facility, other than a facility in which adults are held in secure custody, for up to 72 hours, excluding nonjudicial days, pending a hearing under paragraph (2) of subdivision (d), where the minor has been declared a ward of the court under subdivision (a) of Section 601 of the Welfare and Institutions Code and is alleged to have violated a related dispositional order, if, within 24 hours, excluding nonjudicial days, a probable cause hearing is held under paragraph (1) of subdivision (d).
- (d) Under the pilot program established pursuant to this section where a minor who has been declared a ward of the juvenile court pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 601 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is alleged to have violated a related dispositional order of the court and the minor is detained in a secure facility by the probation officer pending the outcome of proceedings on a supplemental petition, the court shall do the following:
- (1) Within 24 hours of the initial detention, excluding nonjudicial days, the court shall hold a hearing to determine whether probable cause exists that the minor has violated a dispositional order of the juvenile court subsequent to being declared a ward of the court. At the hearing, the court shall examine the circumstances relating to the allegation of the probation officer that the minor has violated the dispositional order, and if it finds that there is probable cause to believe that the minor has violated the order, the court may order the continued detention of the minor in a secure facility, pending the hearing required by paragraph (2).
- (2) Within 72 hours of the initial detention, excluding nonjudicial days, the court shall hold a hearing on the supplemental petition to determine whether the minor has violated a dispositional order of the juvenile court subsequent to being declared a ward of the court. Prior to and during the hearing, the minor shall have, in addition to any other rights required by the state and federal constitutional guarantees of due process of law, all of the following rights:
- (A) The right to have the charges against the minor in writing served upon him or her a reasonable time before the hearing.
  - (B) The right to a hearing before the court.
- (C) The right to an explanation of the nature and consequences of the proceeding.

- (D) The right to legal counsel and, if indigent, the right to have counsel appointed by the court.
  - (E) The right to confront witnesses.
  - (F) The right to present witnesses.
  - (G) The right to have a transcript or record of the proceedings.
  - (H) The right of appeal to an appropriate court.

At the conclusion of the hearing required by paragraph (2), the court shall make its findings and shall, prior to any order for the continued secure detention of the minor under subdivision (e), consider whether referral of the minor to a nonsecure facility or program for treatment would be appropriate for the needs of the minor and the community. Continued secure detention of the minor may be ordered by the court only upon a finding by the court that services appropriate for the needs of the minor are available and can be delivered to the minor during the period of confinement. However, continued secure detention may not be ordered solely upon a finding by the court that no nonsecure facility or program is available.

- (e) Under the pilot program established pursuant to this section, where a minor has been adjudged a ward of the juvenile court under subdivision (a) of Section 601 of the Welfare and Institutions Code and a supplemental petition alleging the violation of a related dispositional order has been sustained at a hearing described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (d), the court may order that the minor shall be detained in a secure juvenile facility for a period not to exceed five days, for any of the following purposes:
- (1) For the protection of the minor, where the court finds that the minor must be securely detained for his or her safety.
- (2) For the evaluation of the minor's need for counseling, medical, or other remedial services.
- (3) For arrangement of the referral of the minor to obtain remedial services from public or private agencies in the community.
- (4) For delivery of short-term remedial services to the minor while in the secure facility.

Prior to making an order for the secure detention of the minor under this subdivision, the court shall consider whether referral of the minor to a nonsecure facility or program where treatment can be provided would be appropriate for the needs of the minor and the community. Continued secure detention may be ordered only upon a finding by the court that services appropriate for the needs of the minor are available and can be delivered to the minor during the period of confinement. However, continued secure detention may not be ordered solely upon a finding by the court that no nonsecure facility or program is available.

If the minor is held under this subdivision in a secure facility operated by the probation department, the probation officer shall deliver or arrange for delivery of services to the minor in accordance with the purpose for which the minor was detained. Additionally, the probation officer shall record the purposes for which the minor was securely detained and shall keep a record of the efforts made to evaluate the minor, arrange for referral to remedial services, or deliver short-term remedial services during detention, as the case may be.

A minor may not be placed in secure detention under this subdivision for more than two 5-day periods during any 12 months.

CHAPTER 1370

An act to amend Sections 7006 and 7017 of the Civil Code, relating to parent and child.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7006 of the Civil Code is amended to read: 7006. (a) A child, the child's natural mother, or a man presumed to be the child's father under paragraph (1), (2), or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 7004, may bring an action as follows:

- (1) At any time for the purpose of declaring the existence of the father and child relationship presumed under paragraph (1), (2), or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 7004.
- (2) For the purpose of declaring the nonexistence of the father and child relationship presumed under paragraph (1), (2), or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 7004 only if the action is brought within a reasonable time after obtaining knowledge of relevant facts. After the presumption has been rebutted, paternity of the child by another man may be determined in the same action, if he has been made a party.
- (b) Any interested party may bring an action at any time for the purpose of determining the existence or nonexistence of the father and child relationship presumed under paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 7004.
- (c) An action to determine the existence of the father and child relationship with respect to a child who has no presumed father under Section 7004 or whose presumed father is deceased may be brought by the child or personal representative of the child, the State Department of Social Services, the mother or the personal representative or a parent of the mother if the mother has died or is a minor, a man alleged or alleging himself to be the father, or the personal representative or a parent of the alleged father if the alleged father has died or is a minor. Such an action shall be consolidated with a proceeding pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 7017. The parental rights of the alleged natural father shall be determined as set forth in subdivision (d) of Section 7017.
  - (d) Except as to cases coming within the provisions of Section 621 of the Evidence Code, a man not a presumed father may bring an action for the purpose of declaring that he is the natural father of a child having a presumed father under Section 7004, if the mother relinquishes for, consents to, or proposes to relinquish for or consent to, the adoption of the child. Such an action shall be brought within 30 days after the man is served as prescribed in subdivision (f) of Section 7017 with a notice that he is or could be the father of the child or the birth of the child, whichever is later. The commencement of the action shall suspend any pending proceeding in connection with the adoption of the child until a judgment in the action is final.

- (e) Regardless of its terms, an agreement between an alleged or presumed father and the mother or child does not bar an action under this section.
- (f) An action under this section may be brought before the birth of the child.
- (g) The district attorney may also bring an action under this section in any case in which he or she believes that the interests of justice will be served thereby.
  - SEC. 1.5. Section 7006 of the Civil Code is amended to read:
- 7006. (a) A child, the child's natural mother, or a man presumed to be the child's father under paragraph (1), (2), or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 7004, may bring an action as follows:
- (1) At any time for the purpose of declaring the existence of the father and child relationship presumed under paragraph (1), (2), or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 7004.
- (2) For the purpose of declaring the nonexistence of the father and child relationship presumed under paragraph (1), (2), or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 7004 only if the action is brought within a reasonable time after obtaining knowledge of relevant facts. After the presumption has been rebutted, paternity of the child by another man may be determined in the same action, if he has been made a party.
- (b) Any interested party may bring an action at any time for the purpose of determining the existence or nonexistence of the father and child relationship presumed under paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 7004.
- (c) An action to determine the existence of the father and child relationship with respect to a child who has no presumed father under Section 7004 or whose presumed father is deceased may be brought by the child or personal representative of the child, the State Department of Social Services, the mother or the personal representative or a parent of the mother if the mother has died or is a minor, a man alleged or alleging himself to be the father, or the personal representative or a parent of the alleged father if the alleged father has died or is a minor. Such an action shall be consolidated with a proceeding pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 7017. The parental rights of the alleged natural father shall be determined as set forth in subdivision (d) of Section 7017.
  - (d) Except as to cases coming within the provisions of Section 621 of the Evidence Code, a man not a presumed father may bring an action for the purpose of declaring that he is the natural father of a child having a presumed father under Section 7004, if the mother relinquishes for, consents to, or proposes to relinquish for or consent to, the adoption of the child. Such an action shall be brought within 30 days after the man is served as prescribed in subdivision (f) of Section 7017 with a notice that he is or could be the father of the child or the birth of the child, whichever is later. The commencement of the action shall suspend any pending proceeding in connection with the adoption of the child until a judgment in the action is final.

- (e) Regardless of its terms, an agreement between an alleged or presumed father and the mother or child does not bar an action under this section.
- (f) An action under this section may be brought before the birth of the child.
- (g) The district attorney may also, at his or her discretion, bring an action under this section in any case in which the district attorney believes it to be appropriate.
  - SEC. 2. Section 7017 of the Civil Code is amended to read:
- 7017. (a) (1) If a mother relinquishes for or consents to or proposes to relinquish for or consent to the adoption of a child who has (1) a presumed father under subdivision (a) of Section 7004 or (2) a father as to whom the child is a legitimate child under prior law of this state or under the law of another jurisdiction, the father shall be given notice of the adoption proceeding and have the rights provided under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 221) of Title 2 of Part 3 of Division 1 of the Civil Code, unless the father's relationship to the child has been previously terminated or determined by a court not to exist or the father has voluntarily relinquished or consented to the adoption of the child.
- (2) If a father relinquishes or consents to or proposes to relinquish a child for adoption, the mother shall be given notice of the adoption proceeding and have the rights provided under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 221) of Title 2 of Part 3 of Division 1 of the Civil Code, unless the mother's relationship to the child has been previously terminated by a court or the mother has voluntarily relinquished or consented to the adoption of the child.
- (b) If a mother relinquishes for, consents to, or proposes to relinquish for or consent to the adoption of a child who does not have (1) a presumed father under subdivision (a) of Section 7004 or (2) a father as to whom the child is a legitimate child under prior law of this state or under the law of another jurisdiction, or if a child otherwise becomes the subject of an adoption proceeding and the alleged father, if any, has not, in writing, denied paternity, waived his right to notice, voluntarily relinquished or consented to the adoption, the agency or person to whom the child has been or is to be relinquished, or the mother or the person having custody of the child, shall file a petition in the superior court to terminate the parental rights of the father, unless the father's relationship to the - child has been previously terminated or determined not to exist by a court, or unless the father has been served as prescribed in subdivision (f) with a written notice alleging that he is or could be the natural father of the child to be adopted or placed for adoption and has failed to bring an action for the purpose of declaring the existence of the father and child relationship pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 7006 within 30 days of service of the notice or the birth of the child, whichever is later.

- (c) In an effort to identify the natural father, the court shall cause inquiry to be made of the mother and any other appropriate person by the State Department of Social Services, a licensed county adoption agency, or the licensed adoption agency to which the child is to be relinquished, or in the case of a stepparent adoption, at the option of the board of supervisors, a licensed county adoption agency, the county department designated by the board of supervisors to administer the public social services program, or the county probation department. The inquiry shall include the following: whether the mother was married at the time of conception of the child or at any time thereafter; whether the mother was cohabiting with a man at the time of conception or birth of the child; whether the mother has received support payments or promises of support with respect to the child or in connection with her pregnancy; or whether any man has formally or informally acknowledged or declared his possible paternity of the child. The department or the licensed adoption agency shall report the findings to the court.
- (d) (1) If, after the inquiry, the natural father is identified to the satisfaction of the court, or if more than one man is identified as a possible father, each shall be given notice of the proceeding in accordance with subdivision (f), unless he has been served with a written notice alleging that he is or could be the natural father of the child to be adopted, or placed or relinquished for adoption and has failed to bring an action pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 7006 to declare the existence of the father and child relationship within 30 days of serving the notice or the birth of the child, whichever is later. If any of them fails to appear or, if appearing, fails to claim parental rights, his parental rights with reference to the child shall be terminated.
- (2) If the natural father or a man representing himself to be the natural father claims parental rights, the court shall determine if he is the father. The court shall then determine if it is in the best interest of the child that the father retain his parental rights, or that an adoption of the child be allowed to proceed. The court, in making that determination, may consider all relevant evidence, including the efforts made by the father to obtain custody, the age and prior placement of the child, and the effects of a change of placement on the child. If the court finds that it is in the best interest of the child that the father should be allowed to retain his parental rights, it shall order that his consent is necessary for an adoption. If the court finds that the man claiming parental rights is not the father, or that if he is the father it is in the child's best interest that an adoption be allowed to proceed, it shall order that that person's consent is not required for an adoption; such a finding terminates all parental rights and responsibilities with respect to the child. Section 4600 does not apply to this proceeding. Nothing in this section changes the rights of a presumed father.

- (e) If, after the inquiry, the court is unable to identify the natural father or any possible natural father and no person has appeared claiming to be the natural father and claiming custodial rights, the court shall enter an order terminating the unknown natural father's parental rights with reference to the child.
- (f) Notice of the proceeding shall be given to every person identified as the natural father or a possible natural father in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure for the service of process in a civil action in this state, provided that publication or posting of the notice of the proceeding shall not be required. Proof of giving the notice shall be filed with the court before the petition is heard. However, if a person identified as the natural father or possible natural father cannot be located or his whereabouts are unknown or cannot be ascertained, the court may issue an order dispensing with notice to that person.
- (g) Any order requiring or dispensing with a father's consent for the adoption of a child may be appealed from in the same manner as an order of the juvenile court declaring a person to be a ward of the juvenile court.
- SEC. 3. Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 7006 of the Civil Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1751. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1987, (2) each bill amends Section 7006 of the Civil Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1751, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1371

An act to amend Section 3940 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to nursing home administrators, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3940 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

3940. The fees prescribed by this chapter shall be set by the board at not more than the amounts shown in the following schedule:

- (a) The application and examination fee shall be not more than seventy dollars ($70).
- (b) The fee for an initial license shall be not more than one hundred fifty dollars ($150) prior to July 1, 1989, and not more than two hundred dollars ($200) on and after July 1, 1989.
- (c) The active license renewal fee shall be not more than one hundred fifty dollars ($150) prior to July 1, 1989, and not more than two hundred dollars ($200) on and after July 1, 1989.
- (d) The license renewal delinquency fee shall be not more than twenty-five dollars ($25).
- (e) The reapplication and reexamination fee shall be not more than seventy dollars ($70).
- (f) The administrator-in-training permit fee shall be not more than one hundred dollars ($100).
- (g) The duplicate license fee shall be not more than ten dollars ($10).
- (h) The inactive license renewal fee shall be not more than one hundred ninety dollars ($190).
- (i) The biennial fee for approval of a continuing education provider shall be not more than one hundred fifty dollars ($150).
- (j) The biennial fee for approval of a continuing education course shall be not more than fifteen dollars ($15).
- (k) The preceptor training and certification fee shall be not more than twenty-five dollars ($25) for each three-year period.

The board shall fix the fees, within the limits prescribed in this section, in such amounts as it determines are reasonably necessary to provide sufficient funds to carry out the purpose of this chapter.

CHAPTER 1372

An act to amend Sections 1268.310 and 1268.330 of, and to add Sections 1268.311, 1268.350, and 1268.360 to, the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to eminent domain.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1268.310 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1268.310. The compensation awarded in the proceeding shall draw interest, computed as prescribed by Section 1268.350, from the earliest of the following dates:

- (a) The date of entry of judgment.
- (b) The date the plaintiff takes possession of the property.
- (c) The date after which the plaintiff is authorized to take possession of the property as stated in an order for possession.

- SEC. 2. Section 1268.311 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:
- 1268.311. In any inverse condemnation proceeding in which interest is awarded, the interest shall be computed as prescribed by Section 1268.350.
- SEC. 3. Section 1268.330 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1268.330. If, after the date that interest begins to accrue, the defendant:

- (a) Continues in actual possession of the property, the value of that possession shall be offset against the interest. For the purpose of this section, the value of possession of the property shall be presumed to be the rate of interest calculated as prescribed by Section 1268.350 on the compensation awarded. This presumption is one affecting the burden of proof.
- (b) Receives rents or other income from the property attributable to the period after interest begins to accrue, the net amount of these rents and other income shall be offset against the interest.
- SEC. 4. Section 1268.350 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

1268.350. (a) As used in this section:

- (1) "Apportionment rate" means the apportionment rate calculated by the Controller as the rate of earnings by the Surplus Money Investment Fund for each six-month period.
- (2) "Six-month period" means the period from January 1 to June 30 and the period from July 1 to December 31.
- (b) The rate of interest payable under this article for each six-month period, or fraction thereof, for which interest is due, shall be the apportionment rate for the immediately preceding six-month period.
- (c) Each district office of the Department of Transportation shall quote the apportionment rate to any person upon request.
- SEC. 5. Section 1268.360 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

1268.360. The interest payable for each six-month period shall draw interest, computed as prescribed by Section 1268.350, in each succeeding six-month period for which interest is due.

CHAPTER 1373

An act to amend Sections 13750, 13751, 13753, 13800, 13802, 13803, and 13805 of, and to add Sections 13712 and 13750.5 to, the Water Code, relating to water quality.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13712 is added to the Water Code, to read: 13712. "Monitoring well" as used in this chapter, means any artificial excavation by any method for the purpose of monitoring fluctuations in groundwater levels, quality of underground waters, or the concentration of contaminants in underground waters.

SEC. 2. Section 13750 of the Water Code is amended to read:

13750. Every person who hereafter intends to dig, bore, or drill a water well, cathodic protection well, or monitoring well, or who intends to deepen or reperforate any such well, or to abandon or destroy any such well, shall file with the department a notice of intent to engage in such construction, alteration, destruction, or abandonment prior to commencing such construction, alteration, provided. abandonment; that destruction. or construction, alteration, destruction, or abandonment must be accomplished immediately in order to prevent damage to persons or property due to the loss of an existing water supply, such notice shall be filed with the department as soon as possible thereafter, but in any event not more than five days after commencement of such construction, alteration, destruction, or abandonment or repair.

The report shall be made on forms furnished by the department and shall contain such information as the department may require, including, but not limited to, all of the following:

- (a) A description of the well site sufficiently exact to permit location and identification of the well.
  - (b) The proposed date of construction of the well.
  - (c) The use for which the well is intended.
  - (d) The work to be done and a description of type of construction.
  - (e) In event of late filing, the reasons therefor.

SEC. 2.5. Section 13750.5 is added to the Water Code, to read:

13750.5. No person shall undertake to dig, bore, or drill a water well, cathodic protection well, or monitoring well, or to deepen or reperforate any water well, cathodic protection well, or monitoring well, or to abandon or destroy any water well, cathodic protection well, or monitoring well, unless the person responsible for that construction, alteration, destruction, or abandonment possesses a C-57 Water Well Contractor's License.

SEC. 3. Section 13751 of the Water Code is amended to read: 13751. Every person who digs, bores or drills a water well, cathodic protection well, or a monitoring well, or abandons or destroys any such well, or who deepens or reperforates any such well, shall file with the department a report of completion of such well within 30 days after its construction or alteration has been completed.

The report shall be made on forms furnished by the department and shall contain such information as the department may require, including, but not limited to, all of the following:

- (a) A description of the well site sufficiently exact to permit location and identification of the well.
  - (b) A detailed log of the well.
  - (c) A description of type of construction.
  - (d) The details of perforation.
- (e) The methods used for sealing off surface or contaminated waters.
- (f) Methods for preventing contaminated waters of one aquifer to mix with another aquifer.
  - (g) The signature of the well driller.
  - SEC. 5. Section 13753 of the Water Code is amended to read:
- 13753. Every person who hereafter converts, for use as a water well, cathodic protection well, or monitoring well, any oil or gas well originally constructed under the jurisdiction of the Department of Conservation pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 3200) of Chapter 1 of Division 3 of the Public Resources Code, shall comply with all provisions of this chapter.
  - SEC. 6. Section 13800 of the Water Code is amended to read:
- 13800. The department, after such studies and investigations pursuant to Section 231 as it finds necessary, on determining that water well, cathodic protection well, and monitoring well construction, maintenance, abandonment, and destruction standards are needed in an area to protect the quality of water used or which may be used for any beneficial use, shall so report to the appropriate regional water quality control board and to the State Department of Health Services. The report shall contain such recommended standards for water well and cathodic protection well, and monitoring well construction, maintenance, abandonment, and destruction as, in the department's opinion, are necessary to protect the quality of any affected water.
- SEC. 7. Section 13802 of the Water Code is amended to read: 13802. If the regional board finds that standards of water well, cathodic protection well, and monitoring well construction, maintenance, abandonment, and destruction are needed in any area to protect the quality of water used, or which may be used, for any beneficial use, it shall determine the area to be involved and so report to each affected county and city in the area. The report shall also contain any well standards which have been recommended by the department.
  - SEC. 8. Section 13803 of the Water Code is amended to read: 13803. Each such affected county and city shall, within 120 days of receipt of the report, adopt an ordinance establishing standards of water well, cathodic protection well, and monitoring well construction, maintenance, abandonment, and destruction for the area designated by the regional board. Prior to adoption of the ordinance each affected county and city shall consult with all interested parties, including licensed well drillers. A copy of the ordinance shall be sent to the regional board on its adoption and the regional board shall transmit the ordinance to the department for its review and comments.

SEC. 9. Section 13805 of the Water Code is amended to read:

13805. If a county or city fails to adopt an ordinance establishing water well, cathodic protection well, and monitoring well construction, maintenance, abandonment, and destruction standards within 120 days of receipt of the regional board's report of its determination and those standards are necessary pursuant to Section 13802, or fails to adopt or modify those well standards in the manner determined as necessary by the regional board pursuant to Section 13804 within 90 days of receipt of the regional board's report, the regional board shall adopt standards for water well, cathodic protection well, and monitoring well construction, maintenance, abandonment, and destruction for the area. The regional board well standards shall take effect 30 days from the date of their adoption by the regional board and shall be enforced by the city or county and have the same force and effect as if adopted as a county or city ordinance.

SEC. 10. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1374

An act to amend Section 15630 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to elder abuse.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 15630 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

15630. (a) Any dependent adult care custodian, health practitioner, or employee of a county adult protective services agency or a local law enforcement agency, who in his or her professional capacity or within the scope of his or her employment, either has actual knowledge that a dependent adult has been the victim of physical abuse, or observes a physical injury to a dependent adult under circumstances that are consistent with physical abuse, where the dependent adult's statements, or in the case of persons who have developmental disabilities, their statements or other corroborating evidence, indicate that abuse has occurred, shall report the known or suspected instance of physical abuse to the county adult protective services agency, or a local law enforcement agency immediately or as soon as possible by telephone, and shall prepare and send a written report thereof within 36 hours.

- (b) Any care custodian, health practitioner, or employee of an adult protective services agency or local law enforcement agency who has knowledge of or reasonably suspects that other types of dependent abuse have been inflicted upon a dependent adult or that his or her emotional well-being is endangered in any other way, may report such known or suspected instance of abuse to an adult protective services agency or local law enforcement agency.
- (c) When two or more persons who are required to report are present and jointly have knowledge of a known or suspected instance of abuse of a dependent adult, and when there is agreement among them, the telephone report may be made by a member of the team selected by mutual agreement and a single report may be made and signed by the selected member of the reporting team. Any member who has knowledge that the member designated to report has failed to do so shall thereafter make the report.
- (d) The reporting duties under this section are individual, and, no supervisor or administrator may impede or inhibit the reporting duties and no person making such a report shall be subject to any sanction for making the report. However, internal procedures to facilitate reporting and apprise supervisors and administrators of reports may be established, provided they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter.
- (e) (1) An adult protective services agency shall immediately or as soon as practically possible report by telephone to the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the case and to any public agency given responsibility for investigation in that jurisdiction of cases of dependent adult abuse, every known or suspected instance of dependent adult abuse. A county probation or welfare department shall also send a written report thereof within 36 hours of receiving the information concerning the incident to each agency to which it is required to make a telephone report under this subdivision.
- (2) If an adult protective services agency or local law enforcement agency or ombudsman program receiving a report of known or suspected elder or dependent adult abuse involving physical abuse or neglect determines, pursuant to its investigation, that such abuse is being committed by a health care practitioner licensed under Division 2 (commencing with Section 500) of the Business and Professions Code, or any related initiative act, or by a person purporting to be such a licensee, the adult protective services agency or local law enforcement agency or ombudsman program shall immediately report this information to the appropriate licensing agency. The licensing agency shall investigate the report in light of the potential for physical harm. The transmittal of information to the appropriate licensing agency shall not relieve the adult protective services agency or local law enforcement agency or ombudsman program of the responsibility to continue its own investigation as required under applicable provisions of law. The information reported pursuant to this paragraph shall remain confidential and shall not be disclosed. The State Department of Social Services shall develop a statewide report form for the transmittal of this information from local welfare departments to the appropriate licensing agency.

- (3) A law enforcement agency shall immediately or as soon as practically possible report by telephone to the county welfare department and the agency given responsibility for the investigation of cases of dependent adult abuse every known or suspected instance of abuse of a dependent adult. A law enforcement agency shall also send a written report thereof within 36 hours of receiving the information concerning the incident to any agency to which it is required to make a telephone report under this subdivision.
- SEC. 1.5. Section 15630 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:
- 15630. (a) Any elder or dependent adult care custodian, health practitioner, or employee of a county adult protective services agency or a local law enforcement agency, who in his or her professional capacity or within the scope of his or her employment, either has observed an incident that reasonably appears to be physical abuse, has observed a physical injury where the nature of the injury, its location on the body, or the repetition of the injury, clearly indicates that physical abuse has occurred, or is told by an elder or dependent adult that he or she has experienced behavior constituting physical abuse, shall report the known or suspected instance of physical abuse either to the long-term care ombudsman coordinator or to a local law enforcement agency when the physical abuse is alleged to have occurred in a long-term care facility, or to either the county adult protective services agency or to a local law enforcement agency when the physical abuse is alleged to have occurred anywhere else, immediately or as soon as possible by telephone, and shall prepare and send a written report thereof within 36 hours.
- (b) Any care custodian, health practitioner, or employee of an adult protective services agency or local law enforcement agency who has knowledge of or reasonably suspects that other types of elder or dependent abuse have been inflicted upon an elder or dependent adult or that his or her emotional well-being is endangered in any other way, may report such known or suspected instance of abuse either to a long-term care ombudsman coordinator or to a local law enforcement agency when the abuse is alleged to have occurred in a long-term care facility; or to either the county adult protective services agency or to a local law enforcement agency when the abuse is alleged to have occurred anywhere else.

- (c) When two or more persons who are required to report are present and jointly have knowledge of a known or suspected instance of abuse of an elder or a dependent adult, and when there is agreement among them, the telephone report may be made by a member of the team selected by mutual agreement and a single report may be made and signed by the selected member of the reporting team. Any member who has knowledge that the member designated to report has failed to do so shall thereafter make the report.
- (d) The reporting duties under this section are individual, and, no supervisor or administrator may impede or inhibit the reporting duties and no person making such a report shall be subject to any sanction for making the report. However, internal procedures to facilitate reporting, ensure confidentiality, and apprise supervisors and administrators of reports may be established, provided they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter.
- (e) (1) An adult protective services agency shall immediately or as soon as practically possible report by telephone to the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the case and to any public agency given responsibility for investigation in that jurisdiction of cases of elder and dependent adult abuse, every known or suspected instance of physical abuse of an elder or dependent adult. A county adult protective services agency shall also send a written report thereof within 36 hours of receiving the information concerning the incident to each agency to which it is required to make a telephone report under this subdivision.

Only a written report, sent within 36 hours, shall be required in the case of types of elder and dependent adult abuse other than physical abuse.

If an adult protective services agency receives a report of abuse alleged to have occurred in a long-term care facility, that adult protective services agency shall immediately inform the person making the report that he or she must make it to the long-term care ombudsman coordinator or to a local law enforcement agency. The adult protective services agency shall not accept the reports.

(2) If an adult protective services agency or local law enforcement agency or ombudsman program receiving a report of known or suspected elder or dependent adult abuse involving physical abuse or neglect determines, pursuant to its investigation, that such abuse is being committed by a health practitioner licensed under Division 2 (commencing with Section 500) of the Business and Professions Code, or any related initiative act, or by a person purporting to be such a licensee, the adult protective services agency or local law enforcement agency or ombudsman program shall immediately report this information to the appropriate licensing

- agency. The licensing agency shall investigate the report in light of the potential for physical harm. The transmittal of information to the appropriate licensing agency shall not relieve the adult protective services agency or local law enforcement agency or ombudsman program of the responsibility to continue its own investigation as required under applicable provisions of law. The information reported pursuant to this paragraph shall remain confidential and shall not be disclosed.
- (f) A law enforcement agency shall immediately or as soon as practically possible report by telephone to the long-term care ombudsman coordinator when the abuse is alleged to have occurred in a long-term care facility or to the county adult protective services agency when it is alleged to have occurred anywhere else, and to the agency given responsibility for the investigation of cases of elder and dependent adult abuse every known or suspected instance of abuse of an elder or a dependent adult. A law enforcement agency shall also send a written report thereof within 36 hours of receiving the information concerning the incident to any agency to which it is required to make a telephone report under this subdivision.
- (g) A long-term care ombudsman coordinator may report the instance of abuse to the county adult protective services agency or to the local law enforcement agency for assistance in the investigation of the abuse if the victim gives his or her consent.
- (h) When a county adult protective services agency, a long-term care ombudsman coordinator, or a local law enforcement agency receives a report of abuse, neglect, or abandonment of an elder or dependent adult alleged to have occurred in a long-term care facility, that county adult protective services agency, long-term care ombudsman coordinator, or local law enforcement agency shall report the incident to the licensing agency by telephone as soon as possible.
- (i) Each long-term care ombudsman coordinator shall report to the county adult protective services agency monthly on the reports it receives pursuant to this chapter. The reports shall be on forms adopted by the department. The information reported shall include, but shall not be limited to, the number of incidents of abuse, the number of persons abused, the type of abuse, and the actions taken on such reports. For purposes of these reports, sexual abuse shall be reported separately from physical abuse.
- (j) Each county adult protective services agency shall report to the State Department of Social Services monthly on the reports received pursuant to this chapter. The reports shall be made on forms adopted by the department. The information reported shall include, but shall not be limited to, the number of incidents of abuse, the number of persons abused, the type of abuse sustained, and the actions taken on the reports. For purposes of these reports, sexual abuse shall be reported separately from physical abuse.

The county's report to the department shall include reports it receives from the long-term care ombudsman coordinator pursuant to subdivision (i).

- SEC. 2. Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 15630 of the Welfare and Institutions Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3988. It shall become operative only if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1987, (2) each bill amends Section 15630 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3988, in which case Section 15630 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as amended by AB 3988, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 1.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.
- SEC. 3. Reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code and, if the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

CHAPTER 1375

An act to add Section 12532 to the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to pesticides.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A primary responsibility of the Department of Food and Agriculture's inspection services is to assure the maximum public health protection from potentially hazardous chemicals. Integral with the assurance of health and safety is the public's right to know the sources and disposition of potentially hazardous products. It is the intent of the Legislature that the department provide for regular public disclosure regarding unprocessed agricultural foods which have been found to contain illegal pesticide residues.

- SEC. 2. Section 12532 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:
- 12532. (a) The director shall continuously interpret the results of the residue monitoring program in order to assess its general effectiveness at preventing public exposure to illegal pesticide residues.
- (b) The director shall release to the public, on an annual basis, comprehensive summaries of the results of the pesticide residue monitoring program. The director shall disclose information regarding the disposition of products found to contain illegal pesticide residue levels.

- (c) The director shall identify in his or her reports the specific county where unprocessed agricultural foods have been discovered to contain illegal pesticide residue levels, the specific commodity, and the county where the commodity was produced.
- (d) The director shall file copies of all data sheets for over tolerances with the commissioner for the county where the unprocessed agricultural foods have been grown.
- (e) The director shall include in the reports, in addition to the specific commodity affected, the pesticide identified for each illegal residue found.

CHAPTER 1376

An act to add and repeal Section 1597.055 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to child day care facilities.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that readily accessible, high quality child care is of the utmost importance to the people of California.

The Legislature also finds and declares that there currently exists a shortage of qualified child care professionals and that this act is an attempt to help alleviate this problem while at the same time maintaining the highest standard of excellence possible.

It is the intent of the Legislature that this act be a three-year pilot project and will therefore only be in effect until January 1, 1990, and be limited in application to those regional occupation programs which are accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges.

- SEC. 2. Regional occupation programs that participate in the pilot project shall submit to the State Department of Education all of the following information:
- (a) The number of students enrolled in the regional occupational programs.
- (b) The number of students successfully completing the six units of college credit work.
- (c) The number of students transferring to community colleges, student demographics and characteristics, articulation agreements, and academic standards applied.
  - (d) The number of students hired as teachers.

The State Department of Education shall compile the data and submit an interim evaluation report to the Legislature by January 1, 1989. A final evaluation report shall be submitted to the Legislature by December 31, 1989.

- SEC. 3. The State Department of Education shall collect the following information, to the extent the information is available, related to participants in the pilot project:
- (a) The number of individuals who received child care training through regional occupation programs and subsequently became fully qualified child care teachers.
- (b) The salaries paid to individuals with regional occupation program training versus salaries paid to fully qualified teachers.

(c) The number of additional children who received child care services by individuals with regional occupation program training.

The evaluation report shall assess whether the pilot program achieved its goals of significantly increasing the availability of, and improving the retention of, qualified child care professionals. It shall also contain recommendations on whether the pilot project's alternative educational training should be continued, modified, or terminated.

- SEC. 4. Section 1597.055 is added to the Health and Safety Code, immediately following Section 1597.05, to read:
- 1597.055. (a) Notwithstanding any other educational requirements, a person may be hired as a teacher in a day care center if he or she satisfies all of the following conditions:
  - (1) Is 18 years of age or older.
- (2) Possesses a regional occupation program certificate of training in child care occupations issued by a regional occupational program which is accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges as of January 1, 1987.
- (3) Has completed at least 95 hours of classroom instruction in child care and development and child care occupations and at least 150 hours in supervised field experience in a licensed day care center or comparable group child care program.
- (b) Subsequent to being hired pursuant to subdivision (a), a teacher shall make satisfactory progress towards meeting the educational requirement for a fully qualified teacher, as specified in departmental regulations. For purposes of this section, "satisfactory progress" shall mean completion, with passing grades, of a minimum of two units each semester or the equivalent number of units each quarter until the educational requirement is satisfied. Six of the required semester or equivalent number of quarter units of early childhood education from an accredited university or college shall be completed during the next two consecutive regular semesters or equivalent quarters.
- (c) A teacher hired pursuant to this section shall not be exempt from satisfying any other noneducation requirements imposed by law on teachers in day care centers and shall have on-site supervision by a fully qualified teacher until six of the units specified in subdivision (b) are completed.
- (d) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1990, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1990, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 1377

An act to add Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 1798.175) to Chapter 6 of Part 1 of Division 2.5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to health.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 1798.175) is added to Chapter 6 of Part 1 of Division 2.5 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 3.5. Use of "Emergency"

- 1798.175. (a) No person or public agency shall advertise itself as, or hold itself out as, providing emergency medical services, by using in its name or advertising the word "emergency," or any derivation thereof, or any words which suggest that it is staffed and equipped to provide emergency medical services, unless the person or public agency satisfies one of the following requirements:
- (1) Is a general acute care hospital providing approved standby, basic, or comprehensive emergency medical services regulated by this chapter.
  - (2) Meets all of the following minimum standards:
- (A) Emergency services are available in the facility seven days a week, 24 hours a day.
- (B) Has equipment, medication, and personnel experienced in the provision of services needed to treat life-, limb-, or function-threatening conditions.
- (C) Diagnostic radiology and clinical laboratory services are provided by persons on duty or on call and available when needed.
- (D) At least one physician who is trained and experienced in the provision of emergency medical care who is on duty or on call so as to be immediately available to the facility.
- (E) Medical records document the name of each patient who seeks care, as well as the disposition of each patient upon discharge.
- (F) A roster of speciality physicians who are available for referral, consultation, and speciality services is maintained and available.
- (G) Policies and procedures define the scope and conduct of treatment provided, including procedures for the management of specific types of emergencies.
- (H) The quality and appropriateness of emergency services are evaluated at least annually as part of a quality assurance program.

- (I) Provides information to the public that describes the capabilities of the facility, including the scope of services provided, the manner in which the facility complies with the requirements of this section pertaining to the availability and qualifications of personnel or services, and the manner in which the facility cooperates with the patient's primary care physician in followup care.
- (J) Clearly identifies the responsible professional or professionals and the legal owner or owners of the facility in its promotion, advertising, and solicitations.
- (K) Transfer agreements are in effect at all times with one or more general acute care hospitals which provide basic or comprehensive emergency medical services wherein patients requiring more definitive care will be expeditiously transferred and receive prompt hospital care. Reasonable care shall be exercised to determine whether an emergency requiring more definitive care exists and the person seeking emergency care shall be assisted in obtaining these services, including transportation services, in every way reasonable under the circumstances.
- (b) Nothing in this article shall be construed to require the licensing or certification of any person or public agency meeting the minimum standards of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), nor to exempt from licensure those health facilities covered by paragraph (1) of subdivision (a).
  - (c) Nothing in this article shall be construed to:
- (1) Prohibit a physician in private practice, an outpatient department of a general acute care hospital whether located on or off the premises of the hospital, or other entity authorized to offer medical services from advertising itself as, or otherwise holding itself out as, providing urgent, immediate, or prompt medical services, or from using in its name or advertising the words "urgent," "prompt," "immediate," any derivative thereof, or other words which suggest that it is staffed and equipped to provide urgent, prompt, or immediate medical services.
- (2) Prohibit prehospital emergency medical care personnel certified pursuant to, or any state or local agencies established pursuant to, this division, or any emergency vehicle operating within the emergency medical services system from using the word "emergency" in the title, classification, or designation of the personnel, agency, or vehicle.
- (d) Any person or public agency using the word "emergency" or any derivation thereof in its name or advertising on January 1, 1987, but which would be prohibited from using the word or derivation thereof by this article, shall have until January 1, 1988, to comply with this article.
- SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1378

An act to amend Sections 35400, 35401, 35401.5, and 35701 of, and to add Section 35401.1 to, the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 35400 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

- 35400. (a) No vehicle shall exceed a length of 40 feet.
- (b) This section does not apply to any of the following:
- (1) A vehicle used in a combination of vehicles when the excess length is caused by auxiliary parts, equipment, or machinery not used as space to carry any part of the load, except that the combination of vehicles shall not exceed the length provided for combination vehicles.
- (2) A vehicle when the excess length is caused by any parts necessary to comply with the fender and mudguard regulations of this code.
- (3) An articulated bus or articulated trolley coach which does not exceed a length of 60 feet.
- (4) A semitrailer while being towed by a motor truck or truck tractor, if the distance from the kingpin to the rearmost axle of the semitrailer does not exceed 40 feet for semitrailers having two or more axles, or 38 feet for semitrailers having one axle if the semitrailer does not, exclusive of attachments, extend forward of the rear of the cab of the motor truck or truck tractor.
- (5) A bus when the excess length is caused by the projection of a front safety bumper or a rear safety bumper, or both. The safety bumper shall not cause the length of the vehicle to exceed the maximum legal limit by more than one foot in the front and one foot in the rear. For the purposes of this chapter, "safety bumper" means any device which is fitted on an existing bumper or which replaces the bumper and is constructed, treated, or manufactured to absorb energy upon impact.
- (6) A bus when the excess length is caused by a device, located in front of the front axle, for lifting wheelchairs into the bus. That device shall not cause the length of the bus to be extended by more than 18 inches, inclusive of any front safety bumper.
- (7) A bus when the excess length is caused by a device attached to the rear of the bus designed and used exclusively for the transporting of bicycles. This device may be up to 10 feet in length, if the device, along with any other device permitted pursuant to this section, does not cause the total length of the bus, including any device, to exceed 50 feet.

- (c) The Legislature, by increasing the maximum permissible kingpin to rearmost axle distance to 40 feet effective January 1, 1987, as provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (b), does not intend this action to be considered a precedent for any future increases in truck size and length limitations.
- SEC. 2. Section 35401 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read: 35401. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c), no combination of vehicles coupled together, including any attachments thereto, shall exceed a total length of 65 feet.
- (b) A combination of vehicles coupled together, including any attachments thereto, which consists of a truck tractor, a semitrailer, and a trailer, shall not exceed a total length of 75 feet, provided that the length of neither the semitrailer nor the trailer in such combination of vehicles exceeds 28 feet 6 inches.
- (c) Any city or county may, by ordinance, prohibit a combination of vehicles of a total length in excess of 60 feet upon highways under its respective jurisdiction. The ordinance shall not be effective until appropriate signs are erected indicating either the streets affected by the ordinance or the streets not affected, as the local authority determines will best serve to give notice of the ordinance.
- (d) Any city or county, upon a determination that a highway or portion of highway under its jurisdiction cannot, in consideration of public safety, sustain the operation of trailers or semitrailers of the maximum kingpin to rearmost axle distances permitted under Section 35400, may, by ordinance, establish lesser distances consistent with the maximum distances that the highway or highway portion can sustain, except that a city or county shall not restrict the kingpin to rearmost axle measurement to less than 38 feet on those highways or highway portions. Any city or county considering the adoption of an ordinance shall consider, but not be limited to consideration of, all of the following:
- (1) A comparison of the operating characteristics of the vehicles to be limited as compared to operating characteristics of other vehicles regulated by this code.
  - (2) Actual traffic volume.
  - (3) Frequency of accidents.
  - (4) Any other relevant data.

In addition, the city or county may appoint an advisory committee consisting of local representatives of those interests which are likely to be affected and shall consider the recommendations of the advisory committee in adopting the ordinance. The ordinance shall not be effective until appropriate signs are erected indicating the highways or highway portions affected by the ordinance.

This subdivision shall only become operative upon the adoption of an enabling ordinance by a city or county.

(e) Whenever in the judgment of the Department of Transportation, any state highway cannot, in consideration of public safety, sustain the operation of trailers or semitrailers of the maximum kingpin to rearmost axle distances permitted under Section 35400, the director, in consultation with the Department of the California Highway Patrol, shall compile data on total traffic volume, frequency of use by vehicles covered by this subdivision, accidents involving these vehicles, and other relevant data to assess whether these vehicles are a threat to public safety and should be excluded from the highway or highway segment. The study containing the conclusions and recommendations of the director shall be submitted to the Secretary of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency. Unless otherwise notified by the secretary, the director shall hold public hearings in accordance with the procedures set forth in Article 3 (commencing with Section 35650) of Chapter 5 for the purpose of determining the maximum kingpin to rear axle length, which shall be not less than 38 feet, that the highway or highway segment can sustain without unreasonable threat to the safety of the public. Upon the basis of the findings, the Director of Transportation shall declare in writing the maximum kingpin to rear axle lengths which can be maintained with safety upon the highway. Following the declaration of maximum lengths as provided by this subdivision, the Department of Transportation shall erect suitable signs at each end of the affected portion of the highway and at any other points that the Department of Transportation deems necessary to give adequate notice of the length limits. The Department of Transportation, in consultation with the Department of the California Highway Patrol, shall compile traffic volume. geometric, and other relevant data to assess the maximum kingpin to rearmost axle distance of vehicle combinations appropriate for those state highways, or portion of highways, affected by this section. that cannot safely accommodate trailers or semitrailers of the maximum kingpin to rearmost axle distances permitted under Section 35400. On or before January 1, 1988, the department shall erect suitable signs appropriately restricting truck travel on those highways, or portions thereof, and report its findings and recommendations to the Legislature.

SEC. 3. Section 35401.1 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

35401.1. A combination of vehicles operated pursuant to Section 35400 or 35401 with a kingpin to rearmost axle measurement of greater than 38 feet but not more than 40 feet may be operated on those highways under the jurisdiction of local authorities only where it is deemed to be safe by the owner of the vehicle or the person operating the vehicle and where its operation is not specifically prohibited by local ordinance pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 35401.

SEC. 4. Section 35401.5 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read: 35401.5. (a) A combination of vehicles consisting of a truck tractor and semitrailer, or of a truck tractor, semitrailer, and trailer, is not subject to the limitations of Sections 35400 and 35401, when

- operating on the National System of Interstate and Defense Highways or when using those portions of federal-aid primary highways or federal-aid urban system highways that have been qualified by the United States Secretary of Transportation for that use, or when using routes appropriately identified by the Department of Transportation or local authorities as provided in subdivision (c) or (d), if all of the following conditions are met:
- (1) The length of the semitrailer in exclusive combination with a truck tractor does not exceed 48 feet. For purposes of this paragraph, a motor truck used in combination with a semitrailer, when that combination of vehicles is engaged solely in the transportation of motor vehicles, is considered to be a truck tractor.
- (2) Neither the length of the semitrailer nor the length of the trailer when simultaneously in combination with a truck tractor exceeds 28 feet 6 inches.
- (b) Subdivisions (b), (c), (d), and (e) of Section 35402 do not apply to combinations of vehicles operated subject to the exemptions provided by this section.
- (c) Combinations of vehicles operated pursuant to subdivision (a) may also use highways not specified in subdivision (a) which provide reasonable access to facilities for purposes limited to fuel, food, lodging, and repair when that access is consistent with the safe operation of the combinations of vehicles and when the facility is within one-half road mile of identified points of ingress and egress to or from highways specified in subdivision (a) for use by those combinations of vehicles.
- (d) The Department of Transportation or local authorities may, in consideration of public safety and preservation of the highway, issue special permits for combinations of vehicles operated pursuant to subdivision (a) for terminal access pursuant to Sections 35780 and 35795. In lieu of issuing a permit, the Department of Transportation or local authorities with respect to highways under their jurisdiction may provide signing as necessary to indicate the use of specific routes as terminal access routes. For purposes of this subdivision, "terminal" means a facility at which freight is consolidated to be shipped or where full load consignments may be offloaded or at which the vehicle combinations are regularly maintained, stored, or manufactured. This subdivision does not provide for the issuance of permits to operate combinations of vehicles on highways, or portions of highway, subject to the limitations of subdivision (d) of Section 35401.
- (e) Nothing in subdivision (c) or (d) authorizes state or local agencies to require permits of terminal operators or to charge terminal operators fees for the purpose of attaining access for vehicles described in this section.
- (f) Notwithstanding subdivision (d), the limitations of access specified in that subdivision do not apply to licensed carriers of household goods when directly enroute to or from a point of loading or unloading of household goods, if travel on highways other than those specified in subdivision (a) is necessary and incidental to the shipment of the household goods.

- SEC. 5. Section 35701 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read: 35701. (a) Any city, or county for a residence district, may, by ordinance, prohibit the use of a street by any commercial vehicle or by any vehicle exceeding a maximum gross weight limit, except with respect to any vehicle which is subject to Sections 1031 to 1036, inclusive, of the Public Utilities Code.
- (b) The ordinance shall not be effective until appropriate signs are erected indicating either the streets affected by the ordinance or the streets not affected, as the local authority determines will best serve to give notice of the ordinance.
- (c) No ordinance adopted pursuant to this section after November 10, 1969, shall apply to any state highway which is included in the National System of Interstate and Defense Highways, except an ordinance which has been approved by a two-thirds vote of the California Transportation Commission.

CHAPTER 1379

An act to add Sections 12.5, 125.9, and 125.95 to the Business and Professions Code, relating to consumer affairs.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- SECTION 1. Section 12.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:
- 12.5. Whenever in any provision of this code authority is granted to issue a citation for a violation of any provision of this code, that authority also includes the authority to issue a citation for the violation of any regulation adopted pursuant to any provision of this code.
- SEC. 2. Section 125.9 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:
- 125.9. (a) Except with respect to persons regulated under Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 6850), Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 7500), Chapter 11.5 (commencing with Section 7512), and Chapter 11.6 (commencing with Section 7590) of Division 3, or a person holding a license specified in paragraph (1), (6), or (7) of subdivision (b) of Section 9941, any board, bureau, or commission within the department, other than the State Board of Cosmetology and the State Board of Dental Examiners, may establish, by regulation, a system for the issuance to a licensee of a citation which may contain an order of abatement or an order to pay an administrative fine assessed by the board, bureau, or commission where the licensee is in violation of the applicable licensing act or any regulation adopted pursuant thereto.

- (b) The system shall contain the following provisions:
- (1) Citations shall be in writing and shall describe with particularity the nature of the violation, including specific reference to the provision of law determined to have been violated.
- (2) Where appropriate, the citation shall contain an order of abatement fixing a reasonable time for abatement of the violation.
- (3) In no event shall the administrative fine assessed by the board, bureau, or commission exceed two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) for each inspection or each investigation made with respect to the violation. In assessing a fine, the board, bureau, or commission shall give due consideration to the appropriateness of the amount of the fine with respect to such factors as the gravity of the violation, the good faith of the licensee, and the history of previous violations.
- (4) A citation or fine assessment issued pursuant to a citation shall inform the licensee that if he or she desires a hearing to contest the finding of a violation, that hearing shall be requested by written notice to the board, bureau, or commission within 30 days of the date of issuance of the citation or assessment. If a hearing is not requested pursuant to this section, payment of any fine shall not constitute an admission of the violation charged. Hearings shall be held pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.
- (5) Failure of a licensee to pay a fine within 30 days of the date of assessment, unless the citation is being appealed, may result in disciplinary action being taken by the board, bureau, or commission. Where a citation is not contested and a fine is not paid, the full amount of the assessed fine shall be added to the fee for renewal of the license. A license shall not be renewed without payment of the renewal fee and fine.
  - (c) The system may contain the following provisions:
- (1) A citation may be issued without the assessment of an administrative fine.
- (2) Assessment of administrative fines may be limited to only particular violations of the applicable licensing act.
- (d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, where a fine is paid to satisfy an assessment based on the finding of a violation, payment of the fine shall be represented as satisfactory resolution of the matter for purposes of public disclosure.
- (e) This section does not apply to any board, bureau, or commission within the department with existing authority to establish, by regulation, a system for the issuance, to a licensee, of a citation which may include an order of abatement or an order to pay an administrative fine, even if the system of citation does not affect or apply to all activities engaged in by a licensee. Nothing in this section expands or limits that authority.
- (f) Administrative fines collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the special fund of the particular board, bureau, or commission.

SEC. 2. Section 125.95 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

125.95. Any board, bureau, or commission within the department may, in addition to the citation system authorized by Section 125.9, also establish, by regulation, a similar system for the issuance of a citation to an unlicensed person who is acting in the capacity of a licensee or registrant under the jurisdiction of that board, bureau, or commission. The citation system authorized by this section shall meet the requirements of Section 125.9 and may not be applied to an unlicensed person who is otherwise exempted from the provisions of the applicable licensing act.

CHAPTER 1380

An act to add Section 22524.5 to the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22524.5 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

- 22524.5. (a) Any insurer that is responsible for coverage for ordinary and reasonable towing and storage charges under an automobile insurance policy to an insured or on behalf of an insured to a valid claimant, is liable for those charges to the person performing those services when a vehicle is towed and stored as a result of an accident or stolen recovery. The insurer may discharge the obligation by making payment to the person performing the towing and storage services or to the insured or on behalf of the insured to the claimant.
- (b) Any insured or claimant who has received payment, which includes towing and storage charges, from an insurer for a loss relating to a vehicle is liable for those charges to the person performing those services.

CHAPTER 1381

An act to add Section 1021.9 to the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to property.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1021.9 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

1021.9. In any action to recover damages to personal or real property resulting from trespassing on lands either under cultivation or intended or used for the raising of livestock, the prevailing plaintiff shall be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees in addition to other costs, and in addition to any liability for damages imposed by law.

CHAPTER 1382

An act to amend Section 1646 of, to add Section 1646.11 to, and to add Article 2.8 (commencing with Section 1647) to Chapter 4 of Division 2 of, the Business and Professions Code, relating to dentistry.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1646 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

1646. "General anesthesia," as used in this article, means a controlled state of depressed consciousness or unconsciousness, accompanied by partial or complete loss of protective reflexes, produced by a pharmacologic or nonpharmacologic method, or a combination thereof.

SEC. 2. Section 1646.11 is added to the Business and Professions Code. to read:

1646.11. The board shall require a permittee to complete approved courses of study related to general anesthesia not to exceed 15 hours in duration as a condition of renewal of a permit.

SEC. 3. Article 2.8 (commencing with Section 1647) is added to Chapter 4 of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code, to read:

Article 2.8. Use of Conscious Sedation

- 1647. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that a commendable patient safety record has been maintained in the past by dentists and those other qualified providers of anesthesia services who, pursuant to a dentist's authorization, administer patient sedation, and that the increasing number of pharmaceuticals and techniques used to administer them for patient sedation require additional regulation to maintain patient safety in the future.
  - (b) The Legislature further finds and declares all of the following:
- (1) That previous laws enacted in 1980 contained separate and distinct definitions for general anesthesia and the state of consciousness.
- (2) That in dental practice, there is a continuum of sedation used which cannot be adequately defined in terms of consciousness and general anesthesia.
- (3) That the administration of sedation through this continuum results in different states of consciousness that may or may not be predictable in every instance.
- (4) That in most instances, the level of sedation will result in a predictable level of consciousness during the entire time of sedation.
- (c) The Legislature further finds and declares that the educational standards presently required for general anesthesia should be required when the degree of sedation in the continuum of sedation is such that there is a reasonable possibility that loss of consciousness may result, even if unintended. These degrees of sedation have been referred to as "deep conscious sedation" and "light general anesthesia" in dental literature. However, achieving the degree of sedation commonly referred to as "light conscious sedation," where a margin of safety exists wide enough to render unintended loss of consciousness unlikely, requires educational standards appropriate to the administration of the resulting predictable level of consciousness.
- 1647.1. (a) As used in this article, "conscious sedation" means a minimally depressed level of consciousness produced by a pharmacologic or nonpharmacologic method, or a combination thereof, that retains the patient's ability to maintain independently and continuously an airway, and respond appropriately to physical stimulation and verbal command.

"Conscious sedation" does not include conditions resulting from the administration of oral medications or the administration of a mixture of nitrous oxide and oxygen, whether administered alone or in combination with each other.

- (b) The drugs and techniques used in conscious sedation shall have a margin of safety wide enough to render unintended loss of consciousness unlikely.
- (c) For the very young or handicapped individual, incapable of the usually expected verbal response, a minimally depressed level of consciousness for that individual should be maintained.

CHAPTER 1383

An act to amend Section 65583 of the Government Code, relating to homeless persons.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that there exists in the state a severe crisis caused by the lack of any available shelter for a significant segment of California's population. The "homeless" are estimated to number as many as 100,000, and are composed largely of veterans, women, families with children, the mentally ill, and unemployed adults.

The crisis of homelessness has many causes, which include a severe shortage of low-cost housing, unemployment, the absence of an adequate support system for the mentally ill, and the failure to properly administer and carry out the intent of public assistance programs.

The Legislature finds and declares that this act will assist in addressing the profound problems encountered by homeless persons.

- SEC. 2. Section 65583 of the Government Code is amended to read:
- 65583. The housing element shall consist of an identification and analysis of existing and projected housing needs and a statement of goals, policies, quantified objectives, and scheduled programs for the preservation, improvement, and development of housing. The housing element shall identify adequate sites for housing, including rental housing, factory-built housing, and mobilehomes, and shall make adequate provision for the existing and projected needs of all economic segments of the community. The element shall contain all of the following:
- (a) An assessment of housing needs and an inventory of resources and constraints relevant to the meeting of these needs. The assessment and inventory shall include the following:
- (1) Analysis of population and employment trends and documentation of projections and a quantification of the locality's existing and projected housing needs for all income levels. These existing and projected needs shall include the locality's share of the regional housing need in accordance with Section 65584.
- (2) Analysis and documentation of household characteristics, including level of payment compared to ability to pay, housing characteristics, including overcrowding, and housing stock condition.
- (3) An inventory of land suitable for residential development, including vacant sites and sites having potential for redevelopment, and an analysis of the relationship of zoning and public facilities and services to these sites.

- (4) Analysis of potential and actual governmental constraints upon the maintenance, improvement, or development of housing for all income levels, including land use controls, building codes and their enforcement, site improvements, fees and other exactions required of developers, and local processing and permit procedures.
- (5) Analysis of potential and actual nongovernmental constraints upon the maintenance, improvement, or development of housing for all income levels, including the availability of financing, the price of land, and the cost of construction.
- (6) Analysis of any special housing needs, such as those of the handicapped, elderly, large families, farmworkers, families with female heads of households, and families and persons in need of emergency shelter.
- (7) Analysis of opportunities for energy conservation with respect to residential development.
- (b) A statement of the community's goals, quantified objectives, and policies relative to the maintenance, improvement, and development of housing.

It is recognized that the total housing needs identified pursuant to subdivision (a) may exceed available resources and the community's ability to satisfy this need within the content of the general plan requirements outlined in Article 5 (commencing with Section 65300). Under these circumstances, the quantified objectives need not be identical to the identified existing housing needs, but should establish the maximum number of housing units that can be constructed, rehabilitated, and conserved over a five-year time frame.

- (c) A program which sets forth a five-year schedule of actions the local government is undertaking or intends to undertake to implement the policies and achieve the goals and objectives of the housing element through the administration of land use and development controls, provision of regulatory concessions and incentives, and the utilization of appropriate federal and state financing and subsidy programs when available. In order to make adequate provision for the housing needs of all economic segments of the community, the program shall do all of the following:
- (1) Identify adequate sites which will be made available through appropriate zoning and development standards and with public services and facilities needed to facilitate and encourage the development of a variety of types of housing for all income levels, including rental housing, factory-built housing, mobilehomes, emergency shelters and transitional housing in order to meet the community's housing goals as identified in subdivision (b).
- (2) Assist in the development of adequate housing to meet the needs of low- and moderate-income households.
- (3) Address and, where appropriate and legally possible, remove governmental constraints to the maintenance, improvement, and development of housing.

(4) Conserve and improve the condition of the existing affordable housing stock.

(5) Promote housing opportunities for all persons regardless of race, religion, sex, marital status, ancestry, national origin, or color.

The program shall include an identification of the agencies and officials responsible for the implementation of the various actions and the means by which consistency will be achieved with other general plan elements and community goals. The local government shall make a diligent effort to achieve public participation of all economic segments of the community in the development of the housing element, and the program shall describe this effort.

- SEC. 3. The amendments to paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of Section 65583 of the Government Code made by the act adding this section during the 1986 Regular Session of the Legislature shall require an identification of sites for emergency shelters and transitional housing by January 1, 1988, or by the next periodic review of a housing element pursuant to Section 65588 of the Government Code, whichever is later, in order to give local governments adequate time to plan for, and to assist in the development of, housing for homeless persons, if it is determined that there is a need for emergency shelter pursuant to paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 65583 of the Government Code.
- SEC. 4 Reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code and, if the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

CHAPTER 1384

An act relating to the federal Central Valley Project.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

- (a) The Central Valley Project was originally conceived as a state project. The project was planned and designed by the state, and was authorized by the State Legislature in 1933 (Chapter 1042 of the Statutes of 1933).
- (b) The state was unable to construct the project during the Great Depression, and thus turned to the federal government for assistance. The project was authorized as a federal project in 1935 and again in 1937.

- (c) In 1936, the state and the federal government entered into two memorandums of understanding which specified that the state would operate and maintain the project following presentation to the United States of assurances of payment satisfactory to the United States.
- (d) California has found it difficult to resolve its internal water conflicts in large part because of conflicts with the federal Central Valley Project over areas of origin protection, fisheries protection, regulatory control, salinity control in the delta, and protection of San Francisco Bay.
- (e) There may be net advantages to the state if the federal Central Valley Project is operated by the state.
- (f) Several units of the federal Central Valley Project currently are operated by local districts, and the United States Bureau of Reclamation is looking for ways to allow other projects to be operated locally.
- (g) Seventy-five percent of federal reclamation projects are operated by state or local agencies, and 12 ½ percent of federal reclamation projects are jointly operated by the federal government and nonfederal government agencies.
- SEC. 2. The Director of Water Resources is hereby authorized to enter into negotiations with the United States Bureau of Reclamation in order for the state to own or operate part or all of the federal Central Valley Project.
- SEC. 3. The Director of Water Resources shall report to the Legislature during the department's annual budget hearings from 1987 to 1997, inclusive, on the status of the negotiations specified in Section 2.

CHAPTER 1385

An act to amend Sections 2920, 2924b, 2924c, 2924g, and 2924h of the Civil Code, relating to real property.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- SECTION 1. Section 2920 of the Civil Code is amended to read: 2920. (a) A mortgage is a contract by which specific property is hypothecated for the performance of an act, without the necessity of a change of possession.
- (b) For purposes of Sections 2924 to 2924h, inclusive, "mortgage" also means any security device or instrument, other than a deed of trust, that confers a power of sale affecting real property, to be exercised after breach of the obligation so secured, including a real property sales contract, as defined in Section 2985, which contains such a provision.

SEC. 2. Section 2924b of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2924b. (a) Any person desiring a copy of any notice of default and of any notice of sale under any deed of trust or mortgage with power of sale upon real property, as to which deed of trust or mortgage the power of sale cannot be exercised until these notices are given for the time and in the manner provided in Section 2924 may, at any time subsequent to recordation of the deed of trust or mortgage and prior to recordation of notice of default thereunder, cause to be filed for record in the office of the recorder of any county in which any part or parcel of the real property is situated, a duly acknowledged request for a copy of the notice of default and of sale. This request shall be signed and acknowledged by the person making the request, specifying the name and address of the person to whom the notice is to be mailed, shall identify the deed of trust or mortgage by stating the names of the parties thereto, the date of recordation thereof and the book and page where the deed of trust or mortgage is recorded or the recorder's number and shall be in substantially the following form:

Upon the filing for record of the request, the recorder shall index in the general index of grantors the names of the trustors (or mortgagor) recited therein and the names of persons requesting copies.

- (b) The mortgagee, trustee, or other person authorized to record the notice of default shall do each of the following:
- (1) Within 10 days following recordation of the notice of default, deposit or cause to be deposited in the United States mail an envelope, sent by registered or certified mail with postage prepaid, containing a copy of such notice with the recording date shown thereon, addressed to each person whose name and address are set forth in a duly recorded request therefor, directed to the address designated in the request and to each trustor or mortgagor at his last known address if different than the address specified in the deed of trust or mortgage with power of sale.

- (2) At least 20 days before the date of sale, deposit or cause to be deposited in the United States mail an envelope, sent by registered or certified mail with postage prepaid, containing a copy of the notice of the time and place of sale, addressed to each person whose name and address are set forth in a duly recorded request therefor, directed to the address designated in the request and to each trustor or mortgagor at his last known address if different than the address specified in the deed of trust or mortgage with power of sale.
- (3) As used in paragraphs (1) and (2), the "last known address" of each trustor or mortgagor means the last business or residence address actually known by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or other person authorized to record the notice of default. The beneficiary shall inform the trustee of the trustor's last address actually known by the beneficiary. However, the trustee shall incur no liability for failing to send any notice to the last address unless the trustee has actual knowledge of it.
- (c) The mortgagee, trustee, or other person authorized to record the notice of default shall do the following:
- (1) Within one month following recordation of the notice of default, deposit or cause to be deposited in the United States mail an envelope, sent by registered or certified mail with postage prepaid, containing a copy of such notice with the recording date shown thereon, addressed to each person set forth in paragraph (2), provided that the estate or interest of any person entitled to receive notice under this subdivision is acquired by an instrument sufficient to impart constructive notice of the estate or interest in the land or portion thereof which is subject to the deed of trust or mortgage being foreclosed, and provided the instrument is recorded in the office of the county recorder so as to impart such constructive notice prior to the recording date of the notice of default and provided the instrument as so recorded sets forth a mailing address which the county recorder shall use, as instructed within the instrument, for the return of the instrument after recording, and which address shall be the address used for the purposes of mailing notices herein.
- (2) The persons to whom notice shall be mailed under this subdivision are:
- (A) The successor in interest, as of the recording date of the notice of default, of the estate or interest or any portion thereof of the trustor or mortgagor of the deed of trust or mortgage being foreclosed.
- (B) The beneficiary or mortgagee of any deed of trust or mortgage recorded subsequent to the deed of trust or mortgage being foreclosed, or recorded prior to or concurrently with the deed of trust or mortgage being foreclosed but subject to a recorded agreement or a recorded statement of subordination to the deed of trust or mortgage being foreclosed.

- (C) The assignee of any interest of the beneficiary or mortgagee described in subparagraph (B), as of the recording date of the notice of default.
- (D) The vendee of any contract of sale, or the lessee of any lease, of the estate or interest being foreclosed which is recorded subsequent to the deed of trust or mortgage being foreclosed, or recorded prior to or concurrently with the deed of trust or mortgage being foreclosed but subject to a recorded agreement or statement of subordination to the deed of trust or mortgage being foreclosed.

(E) The successor in interest to the vendee or lessee described in subparagraph (D), as of the recording date of the notice of default.

(F) The Office of the State Controller, Sacramento, California, where, as of the recording date of the notice of default, a "Notice of Lien for Postponed Property Taxes" has been recorded against the real property to which the notice of default applies.

(3) At least 20 days before the date of sale, deposit or cause to be deposited in the United States mail, an envelope, sent by registered or certified mail with postage prepaid, containing a copy of the notice of the time and place of sale addressed to each person to whom a copy of the notice of default is to be mailed as provided in paragraphs (1) and (2).

(4) The mailing of notices in the manner set forth in paragraph (1) shall not impose upon any licensed attorney, agent, or employee of any person entitled to receive notices as herein set forth any duty to communicate the notice to the entitled person from the fact that the mailing address used by the county recorder is the address of the attorney, agent, or employee.

(d) Any deed of trust or mortgage with power of sale hereafter executed upon real property may contain a request that a copy of any notice of default and a copy of any notice of sale thereunder shall be mailed to any person or party thereto at the address of the person given therein, and a copy of any notice of default and of any notice of sale shall be mailed to each of these at the same time and in the same manner required as though a separate request therefor had been filed by each of those persons as herein authorized. If any deed of trust or mortgage with power of sale executed after September 19, 1939, except a deed of trust or mortgage of any of the classes excepted from the provisions of Section 2924 does not contain a request of the trustor or mortgagor for special notice at the address of such person given therein or does contain such a request but no address of the person is given therein and if no request for special notice by the trustor or mortgagor in substantially the form set forth in this section has subsequently been recorded, a copy of the notice of default shall be published once a week for at least four weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the property is situated, the publication to commence within 10 days after the filing of the notice of default. In lieu of publication a copy of the notice of default may be delivered personally to the trustor or mortgagor within that 10 days or at any time before publication is completed.

- (e) Any person required to mail a copy of a notice of default or notice of sale to each trustor or mortgagor pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c) by registered or certified mail shall simultaneously cause to be deposited in the United States mail, with postage prepaid and mailed by first-class mail, an envelope containing an additional copy of the required notice addressed to each trustor or mortgagor at the same address to which the notice is sent by registered or certified mail pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c). The person shall execute and retain an affidavit identifying the notice mailed, showing the name and residence or business address of that person, that he or she is over the age of 18 years, the date of deposit in the mail, the name and address of the trustor or mortgagor to whom sent, and that the envelope was sealed and deposited in the mail with postage fully prepaid. In the absence of fraud, the affidavit required by this subdivision shall establish a conclusive presumption of mailing.
- (f) No request for a copy of any notice filed for record pursuant to this section, no statement or allegation in any such request, and no record thereof shall affect the title to real property or be deemed notice to any person that any person requesting copies of notice has or claims any right, title or interest in, or lien or charge upon the property described in the deed of trust or mortgage referred to therein.

SEC. 2.5. Section 2924b of the Civil Code is amended to read:

(a) Any person desiring a copy of any notice of default and of any notice of sale under any deed of trust or mortgage with power of sale upon real property, as to which deed of trust or mortgage the power of sale cannot be exercised until these notices are given for the time and in the manner provided in Section 2924 may, at any time subsequent to recordation of the deed of trust or mortgage and prior to recordation of notice of default thereunder. cause to be filed for record in the office of the recorder of any county in which any part or parcel of the real property is situated, a duly acknowledged request for a copy of the notice of default and of sale. This request shall be signed and acknowledged by the person making the request, specifying the name and address of the person to whom the notice is to be mailed, shall identify the deed of trust or mortgage by stating the names of the parties thereto, the date of recordation thereof and the book and page where the deed of trust or mortgage is recorded or the recorder's number and shall be in substantially the following form:

Upon the filing for record of the request, the recorder shall index in the general index of grantors the names of the trustors (or mortgagor) recited therein and the names of persons requesting copies.

- (b) The mortgagee, trustee, or other person authorized to record the notice of default shall do each of the following:
- (1) Within 10 days following recordation of the notice of default, deposit or cause to be deposited in the United States mail an envelope, sent by registered or certified mail with postage prepaid, containing a copy of such notice with the recording date shown thereon, addressed to each person whose name and address are set forth in a duly recorded request therefor, directed to the address designated in the request and to each trustor or mortgagor at his last known address if different than the address specified in the deed of trust or mortgage with power of sale.
- (2) At least 20 days before the date of sale, deposit or cause to be deposited in the United States mail an envelope, sent by registered or certified mail with postage prepaid, containing a copy of the notice of the time and place of sale, addressed to each person whose name and address are set forth in a duly recorded request therefor, directed to the address designated in the request and to each trustor or mortgagor at his last known address if different than the address specified in the deed of trust or mortgage with power of sale.
- (3) As used in paragraphs (1) and (2), the "last known address" of each trustor or mortgagor means the last business or residence address actually known by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or other person authorized to record the notice of default. The beneficiary shall inform the trustee of the trustor's last address actually known by the beneficiary. However, the trustee shall incur no liability for failing to send any notice to the last address unless the trustee has actual knowledge of it.
- (c) The mortgagee, trustee, or other person authorized to record the notice of default shall do the following:
- (1) Within one month following recordation of the notice of default, deposit or cause to be deposited in the United States mail an envelope, sent by registered or certified mail with postage prepaid, containing a copy of such notice with the recording date shown thereon, addressed to each person set forth in paragraph (2), provided that the estate or interest of any person entitled to receive notice under this subdivision is acquired by an instrument sufficient to impart constructive notice of the estate or interest in the land or portion thereof which is subject to the deed of trust or mortgage being foreclosed, and provided the instrument is recorded in the office of the county recorder so as to impart such constructive notice prior to the recording date of the notice of default and provided the instrument as so recorded sets forth a mailing address which the county recorder shall use, as instructed within the instrument, for the return of the instrument after recording, and which address shall be the address used for the purposes of mailing notices herein.

- (2) The persons to whom notice shall be mailed under this subdivision are:
- (A) The successor in interest, as of the recording date of the notice of default, of the estate or interest or any portion thereof of the trustor or mortgagor of the deed of trust or mortgage being foreclosed.
- (B) The beneficiary or mortgagee of any deed of trust or mortgage recorded subsequent to the deed of trust or mortgage being foreclosed, or recorded prior to or concurrently with the deed of trust or mortgage being foreclosed but subject to a recorded agreement or a recorded statement of subordination to the deed of trust or mortgage being foreclosed.
- (C) The assignee of any interest of the beneficiary or mortgagee described in subparagraph (B), as of the recording date of the notice of default.
- (D) The vendee of any contract of sale, or the lessee of any lease, of the estate or interest being foreclosed which is recorded subsequent to the deed of trust or mortgage being foreclosed, or recorded prior to or concurrently with the deed of trust or mortgage being foreclosed but subject to a recorded agreement or statement of subordination to the deed of trust or mortgage being foreclosed.
- (E) The successor in interest to the vendee or lessee described in subparagraph (D), as of the recording date of the notice of default.
- (F) The Office of the Controller, Sacramento, California, where, as of the recording date of the notice of default, a "Notice of Lien for Postponed Property Taxes" has been recorded against the real property to which the notice of default applies.
- (3) At least 20 days before the date of sale, deposit or cause to be deposited in the United States mail, an envelope, sent by registered or certified mail with postage prepaid, containing a copy of the notice of the time and place of sale addressed to each person to whom a copy of the notice of default is to be mailed as provided in paragraphs (1) and (2), and addressed to the office of any state taxing agency, Sacramento, California, which has recorded a notice of tax lien prior to the recording date of the notice of default against the real property to which the notice of default applies.
- (4) The mailing of notices in the manner set forth in paragraph (1) shall not impose upon any licensed attorney, agent, or employee of any person entitled to receive notices as herein set forth any duty to communicate the notice to the entitled person from the fact that the mailing address used by the county recorder is the address of the attorney, agent, or employee.
  - (d) Any deed of trust or mortgage with power of sale hereafter executed upon real property may contain a request that a copy of any notice of default and a copy of any notice of sale thereunder shall be mailed to any person or party thereto at the address of the person given therein, and a copy of any notice of default and of any notice of sale shall be mailed to each of these at the same time and in the same manner required as though a separate request therefor had been filed by each of these persons as herein authorized. If any deed of trust or mortgage with power of sale executed after September 19, 1939, except a deed of trust or mortgage of any of the classes excepted from the provisions of Section 2924 does not contain a request of the trustor or mortgagor for special notice at the address of such person given therein or does contain such a request but no address of the person is given therein and if no request for special notice by the trustor or mortgagor in substantially the form set forth in this section has subsequently been recorded, a copy of the notice of default shall be published once a week for at least four weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the property is situated. the publication to commence within 10 days after the filing of the notice of default. In lieu of publication a copy of the notice of default may be delivered personally to the trustor or mortgagor within that 10 days or at any time before publication is completed.

- (e) Any person required to mail a copy of a notice of default or notice of sale to each trustor or mortgagor pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c) by registered or certified mail shall simultaneously cause to be deposited in the United States mail, with postage prepaid and mailed by first-class mail, an envelope containing an additional copy of the required notice addressed to each trustor or mortgagor at the same address to which the notice is sent by registered or certified mail pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c). The person shall execute and retain an affidavit identifying the notice mailed, showing the name and residence or business address of that person, that he or she is over the age of 18 years, the date of deposit in the mail, the name and address of the trustor or mortgagor to whom sent, and that the envelope was sealed and deposited in the mail with postage fully prepaid. In the absence of fraud, the affidavit required by this subdivision shall establish a conclusive presumption of mailing.
- (f) No request for a copy of any notice filed for record pursuant to this section, no statement or allegation in any such request, and no record thereof shall affect the title to real property or be deemed notice to any person that any person requesting copies of notice has or claims any right, title or interest in, or lien or charge upon the property described in the deed of trust or mortgage referred to therein.
  - SEC. 3. Section 2924c of the Civil Code is amended to read:
- 2924c. (a) (1) Whenever all or a portion of the principal sum of any obligation secured by deed of trust or mortgage on real property hereafter executed has, prior to the maturity date fixed in such obligation, become due or been declared due by reason of default in payment of interest or of any installment of principal, or by reason of failure of trustor or mortgagor to pay, in accordance with the terms of such obligation or of such deed of trust or mortgage, taxes. assessments, premiums for insurance or advances made by beneficiary or mortgagee in accordance with the terms of such obligation or of such deed of trust or mortgage, the trustor or mortgagor or his successor in interest in the mortgaged or trust property or any part thereof, or any beneficiary under a subordinate deed of trust or any other person having a subordinate lien or encumbrance of record thereon, at any time within the period specified in subdivision (e), if the power of sale therein is to be exercised, or, otherwise at any time prior to entry of the decree of foreclosure, may pay to the beneficiary or the mortgagee or their successors in interest, respectively, the entire amount then due under the terms of such deed of trust or mortgage and the obligation secured thereby (including reasonable costs and expenses, subject to subdivision (c), which are actually incurred in enforcing the terms of such obligation, deed of trust or mortgage, and trustee's or attorney's fees, subject to subdivision (d)), other than the portion of principal as would not then be due had no default occurred, and thereby cure the default theretofore existing, and thereupon, all proceedings theretofore had or instituted shall be dismissed or discontinued and the obligation and deed of trust or mortgage shall be reinstated and shall be and remain in force and effect, the same as if no such acceleration had occurred. This section does not apply to bonds or other evidences of indebtedness authorized or permitted to be issued by the Commissioner of Corporations or made by a public utility subject to the Public Utilities Code.

(2) If the trustor, mortgagor, or other person authorized to cure the default pursuant to this subdivision does cure the default, that person may request the beneficiary or the mortgagee or their successors in interest to cause to be executed and recorded a notice of rescission which rescinds the declaration of default and demand for sale and upon receipt of a written request the beneficiary or mortgagee or their successors in interest shall cause to be executed and recorded a notice of rescission. The request to execute and record a notice of rescission shall be directed to the person whose name and address is set forth in the notice required by subdivision (b). The beneficiary, or the mortgagee or their successors in interest, shall cause the notice of rescission to be recorded within 30 days of the receipt of the written request.

No charge, except for the recording fee, shall be made for the execution and recordation of the notice which rescinds the declaration of default and demand for sale.

(b) (1) The notice, of any default described in this section, recorded pursuant to Section 2924, and mailed to any person pursuant to Section 2924b, shall begin with the following statement, printed or typed thereon:

"IMPORTANT NOTICE [14-point boldface type if printed or in capital letters if typed]

IF YOUR PROPERTY IS IN FORECLOSURE BECAUSE YOU ARE BEHIND IN YOUR PAYMENTS, IT MAY BE SOLD WITHOUT ANY COURT ACTION, [14-point boldface type if printed or in capital letters if typed] and you may have the legal right to bring your account in good standing by paying all of your past due payments plus permitted costs and expenses within the time permitted by law for reinstatement of your account, which is normally five business days prior to the date set for the sale of your property. No sale date may be set until three months from the date this notice of default may be recorded (which date of recordation appears on this notice).

This amount is $_$	as of

and will increase until your account becomes current. You may not have to pay the entire unpaid portion of your account, even though full payment was demanded, but you must pay the amount stated above. However, you and your beneficiary or mortgagee may mutually agree in writing prior to the time the notice of sale is posted (which may not be earlier than the end of the three-month period stated above) to, among other things, (1) provide additional time in which to cure the default by transfer of the property or otherwise; or (2) establish a schedule of payments in order to cure your default; or both (1) and (2).

Following the expiration of the time period referred to in the first paragraph of this notice, unless the obligation being foreclosed upon or a separate written agreement between you and your creditor permits a longer period, you have only the legal right to stop the sale of your property by paying the entire amount demanded by your creditor.

To find out the amount you must pay, or to arrange for payment to stop the foreclosure, or if your property is in foreclosure for any other reason, contact:

(Name of beneficiary or mortgagee)
	(Mailing address)
	(Telephone)

If you have any questions, you should contact a lawyer or the government agency which may have insured your loan.

Notwithstanding the fact that your property is in foreclosure, you may offer your property for sale, provided the sale is concluded prior to the conclusion of the foreclosure.

4942

Remember, YOU MAY LOSE LEGAL RIGHTS IF YOU DO NOT TAKE PROMPT ACTION. [14-point boldface type if printed or in capital letters if typed]"

Unless otherwise specified, the notice, if printed, shall appear in at least 12-point boldface type.

If the obligation secured by the deed of trust or mortgage is a contract or agreement described in paragraph (1) or paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 1632, the notice required herein shall be in Spanish if the trustor requested a Spanish language translation of the contract or agreement pursuant to Section 1632. If the obligation secured by the deed of trust or mortgage is contained in a home improvement contract, as defined in Sections 7151.2 and 7159 of the Business and Professions Code, which is subject to Title 2 (commencing with Section 1801), the seller shall specify on the contract whether or not the contract was principally negotiated in Spanish and if the contract was principally negotiated in Spanish, the notice required herein-shall be in Spanish. No assignee of such contract or person authorized to record the notice of default shall incur any obligation or liability for failing to mail a notice in Spanish unless Spanish is specified in the contract or such assignee or person has actual knowledge that the secured obligation was principally negotiated in Spanish. Unless specified in writing to the contrary, a copy of the notice required by subdivision (c) of Section 2924b shall

- (2) Any failure to comply with the provisions of this subdivision shall not affect the validity of a sale in favor of a bona fide purchaser or the rights of an encumbrancer for value and without notice.
- (c) Costs and expenses which may be charged pursuant to Sections 2924 to 2924i, inclusive, shall be limited to the costs incurred for recording, mailing, publishing, and posting notices required by Section 2924 to 2924i, inclusive, postponement upon the written request of the trustor pursuant to Section 2924g made to either the beneficiary or trustee not to exceed fifty dollars ($50) per postponement and a fee for a trustee's sale guarantee or, in the event of judicial foreclosure, a litigation guarantee.
- (d) Trustee's or attorney's fees which may be charged pursuant to subdivision (a), or until the notice of sale is deposited in the mail to the trustor as provided in Section 2924b, if the sale is by power of sale contained in the deed of trust or mortgage, or, otherwise at any time prior to the decree of foreclosure, are hereby authorized to be in an amount which does not exceed two hundred dollars ($200) with respect to any portion of the unpaid principal sum secured which is fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or less, plus one-half of 1 percent of the unpaid principal sum secured exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) up to and including one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000), plus one-quarter of 1 percent of any portion of the unpaid principal sum secured exceeding one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) up to and including five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), plus one-eighth of 1 percent of any portion of the unpaid principal sum secured exceeding five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000). Any charge for trustee's or attorney's fees authorized by this subdivision shall be conclusively presumed to be lawful and valid where such charge does not exceed the amounts authorized herein.

(e) Reinstatement of a monetary default under the terms of an obligation secured by a deed of trust, or mortgage may be made at any time within the period commencing with the date of recordation of the notice of default until five business days prior to the date of sale set forth in the initial recorded notice of sale.

In the event the sale does not take place on the date set forth in the initial recorded notice of sale or a subsequent recorded notice of sale is required to be given, the right of reinstatement shall be revived as of the date of recordation of the subsequent notice of sale, and shall continue from such date until five business days prior to the date of sale set forth in the subsequently recorded notice of sale.

In the event the date of sale is postponed on the date of sale set forth in either an initial or any subsequent notice of sale, or is postponed on the date declared for sale at an immediately preceding postponement of sale, and, the postponement is for a period which exceeds five business days from the date set forth in the notice of sale, or declared at the time of postponement, then the right of reinstatement is revived as of the date of postponement and shall continue from such date until five business days prior to the date of sale declared at the time of the postponement.

Nothing contained herein shall give rise to a right of reinstatement during the period of five business days prior to the date of sale, whether the date of sale is noticed in a notice of sale or declared at a postponement of sale.

Pursuant to the terms of this subdivision, no beneficiary, trustee, mortgagee, their agents or successors shall be liable in any manner to a trustor, mortgagor, their agents or successors for the failure to allow a reinstatement of the obligation secured by a deed of trust or mortgage during the period of five business days prior to the sale of the security property, and no such right of reinstatement during this period is created hereby. Any right of reinstatement created hereby is terminated five business days prior to the date of sale set forth in the initial date of sale, and is revived only as prescribed herein and only as of the date set forth herein.

As used in this subdivision, the term "business day" has the same meaning as specified in Section 9.

SEC. 4. Section 2924g of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2924g. (a) All sales of property under the power of sale contained in any deed of trust or mortgage shall be held in the county where the property or some part thereof is situated, and shall be made at auction, to the highest bidder, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. on any business day, Monday through Friday.

The sale shall commence at the time and location specified in the notice of sale. Any postponement shall be announced at the time and location specified in the notice of sale for commencement of the sale or pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (c).

If the sale of more than one parcel of real property has been scheduled for the same time and location by the same trustee, (1) any postponement of any of the sales shall be announced at the time published in the notice of sale, (2) the first sale shall commence at the time published in the notice of sale or immediately after the announcement of any postponement, and (3) each subsequent sale shall take place as soon as possible after the preceding sale has been completed.

(b) When the property consists of several known lots or parcels they shall be sold separately unless the deed of trust or mortgage provides otherwise. When a portion of the property is claimed by a third person, who requires it to be sold separately, the portion subject to the claim may be thus sold. The trustor, if present at the sale, may also, unless the deed of trust or mortgage otherwise provides, direct the order in which property shall be sold, when the property consists of several known lots or parcels which may be sold to advantage separately, and the trustee shall follow that direction. After sufficient property has been sold to satisfy the indebtedness no more can be sold.

If the property under power of sale is in two or more counties the public auction sale of all of the property under the power of sale may take place in any one of the counties where the property or a portion thereof is located.

(c) (1) There may be a postponement of the sale proceedings at any time prior to the completion of the sale thereof at the discretion of the trustee, upon instruction by the beneficiary to the trustee that the sale proceedings be postponed, or upon the written request of the trustor, provided the reason for the request is to permit the trustor to obtain cash sufficient to satisfy the obligation or bid at the sale and the written request identifies the source from which the funds are being obtained. The trustor shall be entitled to make one request for postponement under this paragraph and any postponement made at the request of the trustor shall be for a period not to exceed one business day.

There may be a maximum of three postponements of the sale proceedings pursuant to this subdivision. In the event that the sale proceedings are postponed three times, the scheduling of any further sale proceedings shall be preceded by the giving of a new notice of sale in the manner prescribed by Section 2924f. A postponement made upon the request of the trustor shall not be deemed a postponement for purposes of this paragraph.

(2) The trustee shall postpone the sale upon the order of any court of competent jurisdiction, or where stayed by operation of law, or by the mutual agreement, whether oral or in writing, of any trustor and any beneficiary or any mortgagor and any mortgagee. Any postponement pursuant to this paragraph shall not be a postponement for purposes of determining the maximum number of postponements permitted pursuant to this subdivision nor shall a postponement resulting from the prohibition upon a sale within seven days from the expiration of an injunction, restraining order, or stay as provided in subdivision (d) be deemed a postponement for purposes of this subdivision.

- (d) The notice of each postponement and the reason therefor shall be given by public declaration by the trustee at the time and place last appointed for sale. Such a public declaration of postponement shall also set forth the new date, time, and place of sale and the place of sale shall be the same place as originally fixed by the trustee for the sale. No other notice of postponement need be given. However, the sale shall be conducted no sooner than seven days after the earlier of (1) dismissal of the action or (2) expiration or termination of the injunction, restraining order, or stay (which required postponement of the sale), whether by entry of an order by a court of competent jurisdiction, operation of law, or otherwise, unless the injunction, restraining order, or subsequent order expressly directs the conduct of the sale within that seven-day period. If the sale had been scheduled to occur, but this subdivision precludes its conduct during that seven-day period, a new notice of postponement shall be given if the sale had been scheduled to occur during that seven-day period. The trustee shall maintain records of each postponement and the reason therefor.
  - SEC. 6. Section 2924h of the Civil Code is amended to read:
- 2924h. (a) Each and every bid made by a bidder at a trustee's sale under a power of sale contained in a deed of trust or mortgage shall be deemed to be an irrevocable offer by that bidder to purchase the property being sold by the trustee under the power of sale for the amount of the bid. Any second or subsequent bid by the same bidder or any other bidder for a higher amount shall be a cancellation of the prior bid.
- (b) At the trustee's sale the trustee shall have the right (1) to require every bidder to show evidence of the bidder's ability to deposit with the trustee the full amount of his final bid in cash, a cashier's check drawn on a state or national bank, a check drawn by a state or federal credit union, or a check drawn by a state or federal savings and loan association, savings association, or savings bank specified in Section 5102 of the Financial Code and authorized to do business in this state, or a cash equivalent which has been designated in the notice of sale as acceptable to the trustee prior to and as a condition to the recognizing of the bid, and to conditionally accept and hold these amounts for the duration of the sale, and (2) to require the last and highest bidder to deposit, if not deposited previously, the full amount of the bidder's final bid in cash, a cashier's check drawn on a state or national bank, a check drawn by a state or federal credit union, or a check drawn by a state or federal savings and loan association, savings association, or savings bank specified in Section 5102 of the Financial Code and authorized to do business in this state, or a cash equivalent which has been designated in the notice of sale as acceptable to the trustee, immediately prior to the completion of the sale, the completion of the sale being so announced by the fall of the hammer or in other customary manner. The present beneficiary of the deed of trust under foreclosure shall have the right to offset his or her bid(s) only to the extent of the total amount due the beneficiary including the trustee's fees and expenses.

In the event the trustee accepts a check drawn by a credit union or a savings and loan association pursuant to this subdivision or a cash equivalent designated in the notice of sale, the trustee may withhold the issuance of the trustee's deed to the successful bidder submitting the check drawn by a state or federal credit union or savings and loan association or the cash equivalent until funds become available to the payee or endorsee as a matter of right.

(c) If the trustee has not required the last and highest bidder to deposit the cash, a cashier's check drawn on a state or national bank, a check drawn by a state or federal credit union, or a check drawn by a state or federal savings and loan association, savings association, or savings bank specified in Section 5102 of the Financial Code and authorized to do business in this state, or a cash equivalent which has been designated in the notice of sale as acceptable to the trustee in the manner set forth in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), the trustee shall complete the sale. If the last and highest bidder then fails to deliver to the trustee, when demanded, the amount of his final bid in cash, a cashier's check drawn on a state or national bank, a check drawn by a state or federal credit union, or a check drawn by a state or federal savings and loan association, savings association, or savings bank specified in Section 5102 of the Financial Code and authorized to do business in this state, or a cash equivalent which has been designated in the notice of sale as acceptable to the trustee, that bidder shall be liable to the trustee for all damages which the trustee may sustain by the refusal to deliver to the trustee the amount of the final bid, including any court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.

If the last and highest bidder willfully fails to deliver to the trustee the amount of his final bid in cash, a cashier's check drawn on a state or national bank, a check drawn by a state or federal credit union, or a check drawn by a state or federal savings and loan association, savings association, or savings bank specified in Section 5102 of the Financial Code and authorized to do business in this state, or a cash equivalent which has been designated in the notice of sale as acceptable to the trustee, or if the last and highest bidder cancels an instrument submitted to the trustee as a cash equivalent, that bidder shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500).

- (d) Any postponement or discontinuance of the sale proceedings shall be a cancellation of the last bid.
- (e) In the event that this section conflicts with any other statute, then this section shall prevail.
  - (f) It shall be unlawful for any person, acting alone or in concert with others, (1) to offer to or accept from another any consideration of any type not to bid, or (2) to fix or restrain bidding in any manner, at a sale of property conducted pursuant to a power of sale in a deed of trust or mortgage. In addition to any other remedies, any person committing any act declared unlawful by this subdivision or any act which would operate as a fraud or deceit upon any beneficiary, trustor, or junior lienor shall, upon conviction, be fined not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than one year, or be punished by both that fine and imprisonment.

- SEC. 7. Section 2.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 2924b of the Civil Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3060. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1987, (2) each bill amends Section 2924b of the Civil Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3060, in which case Section 2 of this bill shall not become operative.
- SEC. 8. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1386

An act relating to museums, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares there exists a need for a state repository dedicated to the interpretation of the diverse contributions of Latin Americans to the history and culture of California and of the nation.
- SEC. 2. (a) The California Museum of Science and Industry shall prepare a study on the development of a California Museum of Latino History which will preserve, collect, and display examples of Latin American contributions to the arts, science, religion, education, literature, entertainment, politics, sports, and the history of California and to the nation. The California Museum of Science and Industry may prepare the study with existing staff or may contract for the preparation of the study. The California Museum of Science and Industry, in the preparation of the study, shall take into consideration any existing studies already prepared on the development of the museum. The study also shall specifically address the state costs and program consequences of alternative methods of state participation in a Latino History Museum; such alternative methods of state participation to be considered shall include those found with the Afro-American Museum and the Japanese-American Museum.

- (b) The study shall be completed and submitted to the Legislature on or before June 30, 1987.
- SEC. 3. The sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the California Museum of Science and Industry for the study required by Section 2 of this act.

CHAPTER 1387

An act to add Sections 15364.73 and 15364.74 to, and to repeal and add Chapter 1.5 (commencing with Section 15364.1) of Part 6.7 of Division 3 of Title 2 of, the Government Code, relating to international trade.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 1.5 (commencing with Section 15364.1) of Part 6.7 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code is repealed. SEC. 2. Chapter 1.5 (commencing with Section 15364.1) is added to Part 6.7 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, to read:

Chapter 1.5. California State World Trade Commission

- 15364.1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that the expansion of international trade is vital to the overall growth of California's economy. The Legislature further finds and declares that current state efforts to develop relations with foreign countries are insufficient for effective coordination and mobilization of the resources necessary to promote economic growth and international trade.
- (b) In order to encourage international trade and development, there is created in the Governor's office a California State World Trade Commission, which shall be a corporation subject to the Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law (Part 2 (commencing with Section 5110) of Division 2 of Title 2 of the Corporations Code). It shall be comprised of leading representatives of California government and private industry, and shall address policies that affect California's ability to trade internationally, and provide research in international trade that can be utilized by the commission in developing and implementing effective and aggressive marketing strategies. "Commission" as used in this chapter, means the California State World Trade Commission. "International trade" as used in this chapter, consists of the export and import of agricultural, mineral, and manufacturing products, business services, and banking.

(c) In addition, the commission may create an advisory council comprised of commission-appointed private industry leaders and representatives of the executive and legislative branches of state government. They shall have the responsibility of assisting and advising the commission. Advisory council members shall receive travel and other expenses equal to those of state employees when on authorized commission business.

15364.2. (a) The commission shall consist of 11 members as follows:

- (1) Seven appointees of the Governor.
- (2) Two appointees of the Speaker of the Assembly.
- (3) Two appointees of the Senate President pro Tempore.

The Governor, the Lieutenant Governor, and the Secretary of State shall serve as nonvoting ex officio commission members. In addition, the President pro Tempore of the Senate shall appoint a Senator, and the Speaker of the Assembly shall appoint an Assembly Member to serve as nonvoting, ex officio members of the commission.

- (b) The members of the commission shall be appointed within 60 days of the effective date of this chapter.
- (c) Of the initial appointments to the commission by the Governor, the first four shall be for a term of three years, and the next three for a term of two years. Initial appointments to the commission by the Speaker of the Assembly and the President pro Tempore of the Senate shall be for a term of two years. Thereafter, all appointments shall be for a term of two years. A term shall expire on December 31.
- (d) If a vacancy occurs, a replacement shall be named by the initial appointing authority to fill the unexpired term.

Commissioners shall receive travel and other expenses equal to those of state employees and shall receive a per diem of one hundred dollars ($100) when on commission business.

- (e) All appointees to the commission shall be professionally active in international trade or international economic development, and shall reflect the state's diverse geographic, economic, and cultural makeup.
- (f) The commission shall be chaired by an appointee of the Governor.
- (g) Upon the appointment of the first seven members, the commission may commence formal action pursuant to this chapter.

15364.3. The commission shall do all of the following:

- (a) Hire a director who has experience in international trade and trade law, knowledge of government and research techniques, and other qualifications as the commission deems necessary.
  - (b) Develop and adopt bylaws consistent with this chapter.

- (c) Establish the salaries of the director and other staff. 15364.5. The director shall do all of the following:
- (a) Carry out the management directives of the commission.
- (b) Manage and disburse all funds and maintain records.
- (c) Direct all staff, which includes, but is not limited to, the responsibility to hire and dismiss employees.
- 15364.6. The commission shall serve as the primary state agency responsible for coordination of activities to expand international trade for the State of California. Within this statutory authority, the commission may perform all of the following functions:
- (a) Provide information and assistance to help California business people market their products abroad.
- (b) Represent or assist in representing the interests of California-based companies in foreign market transactions through trade delegations, missions, marts, seminars, and additionally appropriate promotional tools.
- (c) Work to influence state, federal, and international trade policies that affect California's ability to compete in world markets.
- (d) Represent California's interests in the enforcement of United States and international trade laws.
- (e) Conduct public hearings on trade-related issues of importance to California business.
- (f) Administer programs designed to increase the availability of funds used to finance the overseas sales of California products.
- (g) Provide assistance, where appropriate, in promoting and encouraging cultural development, international tourism, and reverse investment.
- (h) Serve as the official representative of the State of California to foreign governments and representatives.
- (i) Establish one or more offices in California and in foreign countries, if appropriate and economically feasible, and serve as a clearinghouse for inquiries from foreign businesses and governments and provide them with introductions to California businesses and agriculture.
- (j) Secure funding of the commission's programs and activities from federal, state, local, and private sources in addition to fees charged for services and published materials.
- 15364.7. The commission shall prepare and submit to the Governor and to the Legislature a biennial report on January 15, 1987, and on January 15 of every other year thereafter. The report shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:
- (a) A description of the commission's activities within the two-year reporting period.
  - (b) Information and data on relevant trade patterns and trends.
- (c) Analyses of major trade issues affecting California's trade performance and an assessment of significant foreign and domestic trade barriers that inhibit the expansion of California's exports.
- (d) An action agenda for the next two years, including priorities for research, program expansion, state or federal advocacy, or any other activities that would enhance California's international trade position.

15364.8. (a) There is hereby established the California State World Trade Commission Fund in the State Treasury, moneys for which shall be appropriated in the annual Budget Act. The fund shall consist also of private sector moneys as may be made available; federal funds, when available; state funds; and fees for services rendered, if levied.

The Controller shall disburse such moneys as is available in the fund, upon the request of the commission.

- (b) The commission shall submit an annual budget, for inclusion in the Governor's Budget, showing funding from all sources.
- (c) The commission shall have access to information and reports developed and maintained by state offices and departments pursuant to the State Records Management Act (Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 14740) of Part 5.5).
- SEC. 3. Section 15364.73 is added to the Government Code, to read:

15364.73. Whereas the Commission California on Government Organization and Economy was established in 1962 to review the management and operation of state funded activities and recommend ways to operate more efficiently and effectively, it is the intent of the Legislature that this commission shall conduct a review. and make recommendations to the Governor and the Legislature by May 1, 1987, regarding how best to provide state level administration and coordination of planned overseas offices, including the advisability of placing the administration of overseas offices within a specified state department or agency, creating a new office within the Governor's office, or any other mechanism which would facilitate the operations and coordination of these offices at the state level. The commission as part of its study may review how other comparable states with overseas offices provide state level administration and coordination.

SEC. 4. Section 15364.74 is added to the Government Code, to

- (a) The Governor shall designate an individual whose primary responsibilities shall be:
  - (1) To oversee and coordinate the activities of all overseas offices.
  - (2) To keep the Governor informed of these activities.
- (3) To act as a liaison to all state departments, commissions, or agencies which have specified international trade, investment, or tourism functions which impact on the activities of the overseas offices.
- (b) The individual designated pursuant to subdivision (a) shall meet all the following qualifications:
  - (1) Be knowledgeable of state government operations.
- (2) Be familiar with the various state government agencies, departments, and programs which have international trade, investment, or tourism components.

- (3) Have private sector experience in international business development.
- (c) Beginning November 1, 1987, and annually thereafter, the individual in the Governor's office designated to coordinate the operations of overseas offices shall report to the Legislature on the activities and expenditures of the overseas offices and make recommendations for present and future offices, including recommendations for the funding of these offices. In addition, this individual shall respond in a timely fashion to requests by the Legislature for information on specific activities and expenditures of the overseas offices.

CHAPTER 1388

An act to amend Sections 15815, 25351.3, 53589, and 76006 of, and to add Sections 15849.1, 15849.2, and 15849.3 to, and to add Article 9 (commencing with Section 26400.50) to Chapter 14 of Part 2 of Division 2 of Title 3 of, the Government Code, and to amend Sections 140260, 140261, and 140262 of, and to repeal Sections 140263, 140264, 140265, 140266, 140267, 140268 of, the Public Utilities Code, relating to public agencies, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 15815 of the Government Code is amended to read:

- 15815. (a) The plans and specifications for any public building constructed pursuant to this part shall be prepared by the Department of General Services, and the board shall reimburse the department for the costs of its services from the funds available for that purpose. Any public building constructed under this part shall be constructed in accordance with the State Contract Act.
- (b) Subdivision (a) does not apply to any public building constructed by, or on behalf of, the board for lease-purchase by the board to, or in connection with, a contract between the board and any of the following entities:
- (1) The Regents of the University of California, if the public building is constructed under Article 1 (commencing with Section 10500) of Chapter 2.1 of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code.
- (2) The Trustees of the California State University, if the public building is constructed under Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 10700) of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code.
  - (3) A community college district, if the building is constructed under Article 47 (commencing with Section 20650) of Chapter 1 of Part 3 of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code.

- SEC. 1.2. Section 15849.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:
- 15849.1. An amount not to exceed the amount of unsold bonds which the board has by resolution authorized to be sold for the purposes of carrying out this part is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Director of Finance, who may direct that any portion of that amount shall be deposited into a special account in the Public Building Construction Fund, to be used for the construction of public buildings to be financed pursuant to this part, as authorized by the Legislature. Any amounts made available from the General Fund under this section to the board shall be repaid by the board to the General Fund from the proceeds received from the sale of bonds sold for the purpose of financing the public buildings. These amounts shall be repaid to the General Fund with interest at the rate which the Treasurer certifies would have been earned on those amounts if invested in the Surplus Money Investment Fund.
- SEC. 1.4. Section 15849.2 is added to the Government Code, to read:
- 15849.2. In order to more fully secure the bonds authorized to be issued pursuant to this part, when during any fiscal year any appropriation is made to a state agency which has leased or otherwise contracted with the board for a public building financed by revenue bonds, notes, or other obligations issued by the board, the state agency shall allocate from the first lawfully available funds so appropriated that amount necessary to pay in full all amounts which are anticipated to become due and payable during the fiscal year under the lease or contract.
- SEC. 1.6. Section 15849.3 is added to the Government Code, to read:
- 15849.3. Notwithstanding any provision of this part to the contrary, the board may from time to time issue its bonds, notes, or other obligations pursuant to an indenture which may contain terms and conditions authorized by this part for resolutions of the board authorizing the issuance of its bonds, notes, or other obligations.
- SEC. 2. Section 25351.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:
- 25351.3. In addition to its other powers and duties, the board of supervisors may do any or all of the following:
- (a) Acquire land for and construct, lease, sublease, build, furnish, refurnish, or repair buildings for justice, municipal, or superior courts and for convention and exhibition halls, trade and industrial centers, auditoriums, opera houses, music halls and centers, motion picture and television museums, and related facilities used for public assembly purposes for the use, benefit and enjoyment of the public, including offstreet parking places for motor vehicles, ways of ingress and egress, and any other facilities and improvements necessary or convenient for their use.

(b) Acquire land and construct buildings, structures and facilities thereon, in whole or in part, with county funds or it may, by contract or lease with any nonprofit association or corporation, provide for the acquisition of land or the construction of buildings, structures and facilities, or all or any part thereof, for public assembly purposes.

upon the terms the board may determine.

- (c) Lease, pursuant to Section 25371, any real property owned by the county and available for public assembly purposes to any person, firm, corporation, or nonprofit association or corporation for public assembly purposes, with the person, firm, corporation, or nonprofit association or corporation to lease the real property, as improved, back to the county for use for the purposes stated in the lease. Any lease authorized by the board under this subdivision, except leases for justice, municipal, or superior courts, which may be entered into without advertising for bids, shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder after public competitive bidding conducted in the manner determined by the board. Notice inviting bids shall be published pursuant to Section 6066 in a newspaper as the board may direct.
- (d) Enter into a lease or sublease, without advertising for bids therefor, of buildings, structures, and facilities or any of them with any nonprofit association or corporation which agrees to use the buildings, structures, and facilities so leased to it for the public assembly purposes for which they were or are to be built; or contract, without advertising, for bids with any nonprofit association or corporation for the maintenance, operation, and management of the buildings, structures, and facilities, or any part thereof used for public assembly purposes, including the scheduling and promotion of events therein, for a specified term, not to exceed 40 years, upon terms and conditions as may be agreed upon. The leases, subleases, or contracts shall provide that, at least annually, there shall be paid to the county the net revenue, if any, from the operation and use of the facilities, remaining after the payment of expenses and costs, if any, for maintenance, operation or management, interest, and principal payments upon loans to the nonprofit corporation or association for purposes of maintenance, operation, or management, and any other expenses, and after providing maintenance and operation reserves. The lease, sublease, or contract shall also provide that, upon its expiration, all of the assets of the nonprofit association or corporation after payment or discharge of its indebtedness and liabilities shall be transferred to the county.
- (e) If the county has a population in excess of 4,000,000, without advertising for bids therefor, grant any real property owned by the county, or lease, for a term not to exceed 99 years, any real property owned by the county, to any city, district, or other public entity for any of the above public assembly purposes, without consideration, except the agreement of the grantee or lessee to use the real property for the public assembly purposes specified, and upon terms and conditions which may be agreed upon by the board and the grantee or lessee.

The amendment to this section enacted by Chapter 755 of the Statutes of 1963 shall not be construed to affect or modify the duty of any county or board of supervisors to provide adequate quarters for courts but is intended to provide an alternative method of financing the acquisition of property and buildings for use for courthouse purposes.

SEC. 2.5. Article 9 (commencing with Section 26400.50) is added to Chapter 14 of Part 2 of Division 2 of Title 3 of the Government Code, to read:

Article 9. Revenue Bonds for County Airports

26400.50. This article applies only to the County of Orange and the County of Sacramento and is in addition to any other authority contained in this chapter.

26400.51. The board of supervisors may issue bonds pursuant to this chapter for the purpose of financing the acquisition, construction, maintenance, operation, improvement, and development of property, real and personal, including, but not limited to, buildings, grounds, facilities, utilities, and structures necessary or convenient for the promotion or accommodation of air commerce and air navigation. These improvements, together with any existing or future airport facilities of the county, as the board of supervisors may determine, may be designated as a project for purposes of this chapter, and in that event Section 26400.4 does not apply to the issuance of bonds under this chapter.

26400.52. Bonds may be issued pursuant to this article under terms and conditions that the board of supervisors determines to be reasonable and without compliance with Section 26338, 26343, 26361, 26362, or 26389. These bonds may bear interest at such rate or rates and be made payable at such times as the board of supervisors may determine, except that the maximum rate of interest payable shall not exceed the maximum rate permitted for bonds of the county by Section 53531 or any other applicable provision of law. In the case of bonds bearing a variable interest rate, the variable rate shall not on any day exceed the maximum rate permitted for bonds of the county on that day by Section 53531 or any other applicable provision of law, except that the variable interest rate may on any day exceed that maximum rate if the interest paid on the bonds from their date of issuance to that day does not exceed the total interest which would have been permitted to be paid on the bonds if the bonds had borne interest at all times from the date of issuance to that day at the maximum rate permitted by Section 53531 or any other applicable provision of law.

Bonds issued pursuant to this article may be sold at public or private sale at not less than 95 percent of the aggregate principal amount of the bonds being sold.

26400.53. Notwithstanding the first two sentences of Section

26307, nothing in this chapter requires the board of supervisors to pledge for the payment of any bonds issued pursuant to this article any real or personal property other than the revenues and other income received from the operation of or arising from the project, which shall be pledged to the payment of the bonds.

Notwithstanding the fourth sentence of Section 26360 or Section 26397, the board of supervisors may provide in the resolution or indenture authorizing the issuance of the bonds that any revenues and other income received from the operation of or arising from the project and remaining after provision has been made for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds, the creation of any reserves, and the payment of necessary and reasonable maintenance and operation costs of the project, including, but not limited to, the reasonable expenses of management, repair, and other expenses necessary to maintain and preserve the project in good repair and working order, may be used, subject to any limiting covenants in the resolution or indenture, for any lawful purpose of the county.

The board may also provide in the resolution or indenture authorizing issuance of the bonds that provisions for the payment of reasonable and necessary costs of operation and maintenance for the project may be made prior to providing for the payment of the bonds and any reserves therefor.

SEC. 3. Section 53589 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53589. This article provides a complete, additional, and alternative method for doing the things authorized by this article and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to the powers conferred by any other laws. The issuance of bonds and the entering into any credit reimbursement or other agreement under this article does not need to comply with the requirements of any other law applicable to the local agency or the issuance of bonds or the incurring of indebtedness, except that bonds which were subject to investigations, reports, and approval or certification by the Treasurer pursuant to the District Securities Investigation Law of 1965, Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 58750) of Division 2 of Title 6, and the Districts Securities Law, Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 20000) of Division 10 of the Water Code prior to the adoption of this article shall continue to be subject to the investigations, reports, and approval or certification.

SEC. 4. Section 76006 of the Government Code is amended to read:

76006. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, to assist the County of Santa Clara or the County of San Diego in the acquisition, rehabilitation, construction, and financing of courtrooms or of a courtroom building or buildings containing facilities necessary to the operation of the courts, the board of supervisors of the County of Santa Clara or the County of San Diego, respectively, operative upon the adoption of a resolution stating that the provisions of this section and the assessments provided for in Section 76000 are necessary to the establishment of adequate courtroom facilities in the county, may establish in the county treasury a Courthouse Temporary Construction Fund.

The county treasurer shall place all assessment amounts collected pursuant to Section 76000 in the fund.

- (b) In addition to observing the increased bail amounts as established by the court pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 76000, each city, district, or other issuing agency which elects to receive, deposit, accept forfeitures, and otherwise process the posting of bail for parking violations pursuant to subdivision (3) of Section 1463 of the Penal Code, shall pay one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) for each bail deposit collected on each bail violation which is not filed in court to the county treasurer. These payments to the county treasurer shall be made monthly, and the treasurer shall deposit all those payments in the fund.
- (c) The fund moneys together with any interest earned thereon shall be held by the treasurer separate from any funds subject to transfer or division pursuant to Section 1463 of the Penal Code. The moneys of the Courthouse Temporary Construction Fund together with any interest earned thereon shall be payable only for courtroom construction as authorized in subdivision (a).
- (d) Deposits to the fund in accordance with subdivisions (a) and (b) shall continue through and including either (1) the 20th year after the initial calendar year in which the surcharge is collected or (2) whatever period of time is necessary to repay any borrowings or public agency funding mechanism, including, but not limited to, retirement of bonded indebtedness, loan repayments, and monthly payments involving lease-purchase programs made by the county to finance construction provided for in this section, whichever time shall be longer.
- SEC. 5. Section 140260 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:
- 140260. (a) The board of supervisors, as part of the ballot proposition to approve the imposition of a retail transactions and use tax, shall seek authorization to issue bonds payable solely from the proceeds of the tax and shall publish, prior to the submission of the proposition specified in subdivision (b), an initial expenditure plan to be developed pursuant to Section 140256.
- (b) The actual wording of the proposition on any short form of ballot card, label, or other device, regardless of the system of voting used, shall read as follows:

- SEC. 6. Section 140261 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:
- 140261. (a) The bonds authorized by the voters concurrently with the approval of the retail transactions and use tax may be issued by the authority at any time, and from time to time, payable solely from the proceeds of the tax. The bonds shall be referred to as "limited tax bonds." The bonds may be secured by a pledge of revenues from the proceeds of the tax.
- (b) The pledge of retail transactions and use taxes to the limited tax bonds authorized under this article shall have priority over the use of any of the taxes for "pay-as-you-go" financing, except to the extent that that priority is expressly restricted in the resolution authorizing for the issuance of the bonds.
- (c) The maximum bonded indebtedness which may be outstanding at any one time shall be an amount equal to the sum of the principal of, and interest on, the bonds, but not to exceed the estimated proceeds of the tax for a period of not more than 10 years.

SEC. 7. Section 140262 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

- 140262. (a) Limited tax bonds shall be issued pursuant to a resolution adopted at any time, and from time to time, by the authority by a two-thirds vote of all members of the authority.
- (b) The authority may, from time to time, issue bonds in accordance with the Revenue Bond Law of 1941 (Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 54300) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code), for the purposes set forth in the ordinance adopted pursuant to Section 140252, which shall constitute an "enterprise" within the meaning of Section 54309 of the Government Code. Article 3 (commencing with Section 54380) of Chapter 6 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code and the limitations on the rate of interest set forth in subdivision (b) of Section 54402 of the Government Code do not apply to the issuance and sale of bonds pursuant to this chapter. Instead, the authority shall authorize the issuance of bonds by resolution, which shall specify all of the following:

- (1) The purposes for which the bonds are to be issued.
- (2) The maximum principal amount of the bonds.
- (3) The maximum term for the bonds.
- (4) The maximum rate of interest to be payable upon the bonds. This rate shall not exceed the maximum rate permitted by Section 53531 of the Government Code or any other applicable provision of law. In the case of bonds bearing a variable interest rate, the variable rate shall on no day exceed the maximum rate permitted on that day by Section 53531 of the Government Code or any other applicable provision of law. However, the variable interest rate so permitted may on any day exceed that maximum rate if the interest paid on the bonds from the date of their original issuance to that day does not exceed the total interest which would have been permitted to have been paid on the bonds if the bonds had borne interest at all times from the date of issuance to that day at the maximum rate permitted from time to time by Section 53531 of the Government Code or any other applicable provision of law.
- (5) The maximum discount on the sale of the bonds. The bonds shall not be sold at less than 95 percent of the principal amount in the manner determined by the authority.
- (c) Each resolution shall provide for the issuance of bonds in the amounts as may be necessary, until the full amount of the bonds authorized has been issued. The full amount of bonds may be divided into two or more series with different dates of payment fixed for the bonds of each series. A bond need not mature on its anniversary date.
  - SEC. 8. Section 140263 of the Public Utilities Code is repealed.
  - SEC. 9. Section 140264 of the Public Utilities Code is repealed.
  - SEC. 10. Section 140265 of the Public Utilities Code is repealed. SEC. 11. Section 140266 of the Public Utilities Code is repealed.
  - SEC. 12. Section 140267 of the Public Utilities Code is repealed.
  - SEC. 13. Section 140268 of the Public Utilities Code is repealed.
- SEC. 14. The Legislature finds and declares that among the political subdivisions which own and operate the 10 largest airports in California measured by enplaned passengers, only Orange County and Sacramento County do not have specific authorization to issue revenue bonds under charter provisions or other special legislation. For this reason, the Legislature finds and determines that a general law cannot be made applicable and that special legislation is necessary to enable these counties to finance airport improvements which are urgently needed to protect the health and safety of the public and to improve the welfare and convenience of the people of these counties and adjacent communities.
- SEC. 15. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to clarify, as soon as possible, procedural requirements contained in a recently enacted provision which was part of an alternative method for local agencies to refinance their outstanding indebtedness, in order to clarify the powers of boards of supervisors to finance the construction and repair of buildings for justice, municipal, and superior courts so that the financing of those facilities will not be unduly delayed, in order to clarify the contracting requirements for energy efficiency projects financed and constructed for institutions of public higher education and to provide for interim borrowing and other fiscal matters under the State Building Construction Act of 1955, to authorize the issuance of revenue bonds for purposes of certain county-owned airports, and in order to revise the taxing and bonding authority under the Santa Clara County Commuter Relief Act so that necessary improvements for highway transportation purposes may be accomplished without delay, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1389

An act to amend Section 26400.52 of, and to add Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 5900) to Division 6 of Title 1 of, the Government Code, and to add Section 12875 to the Public Utilities Code, relating to public financing, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 5900) is added to Division 6 of Title 1 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 11. PUBLIC FINANCING

5900. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

- (a) The ability of the state and local governments to issue bonds is essential to their ability to finance public improvements and other projects and programs which serve important public purposes and have major social and economic consequences to the people of California.
- (b) The exemption of interest on these bonds from federal income taxation has been a major feature of this financing, reducing interest costs to the state and local government issuers and enhancing the marketability of the bonds.
- (c) Proposed federal tax legislation would substantially curtail the purposes for, and conditions under which, bonds may be issued with interest exempt from federal income taxation, with the result that in order to provide financing for those purposes or under those conditions state and local governments will in some instances be - required, or elect, to issue bonds which bear interest not exempt from federal income taxation. These bonds often have different terms and structural features and are sold and traded in a different market than bonds the interest on which is exempt from federal income taxation.

- (d) The state and local governments have the power to issue bonds bearing interest subject to federal income taxation, but the state and local governments may lack clear authority to structure this financing for the applicable market or otherwise to achieve the lowest effective borrowing cost or terms most suitable to the state or local government issuer, the project, or the financing program.
- 5901. It is the intent of the Legislature that state and local governments be provided with the powers and flexibility necessary and appropriate for them to access the market for bonds which bear interest subject to federal income taxation.
- 5902. As used in this chapter, the following words and terms shall have the following meanings, unless the context otherwise indicates or requires another or different meaning or intent:
- (a) "Bonds" means bonds, notes, warrants, bond anticipation notes, commercial paper, or other evidences of indebtedness, or lease, installment purchase, or other agreements or certificates of participation therein.
- (b) "Legislative body" means the governing body or board of the state or local government.
- (c) "State or local government" means the state, any department, agency, board, commission, or authority of the state, or any city, city and county, county, public district, public corporation, authority, agency, board, commission, or other public entity.
- 5903. If, prior to issuing any bonds, the legislative body determines that the interest payable on the bonds to be issued by the state or local government will be subject to federal income taxation under the law in existence on the date of issuance or pending on the date of issuance with an effective date preceding the date of issuance, then notwithstanding any other provision of law, the ordinance, resolution, indenture, agreement, or other instrument providing for the issuance of the bonds may provide for any of the following:
- (a) The bonds shall be in such denominations, in such form, either bearer or registered, and payable at such place or places, either within or without the United States, at such time or times, in lawful money of the United States of America, with such terms of redemption, and at such interest rate or rates, either fixed or variable, including methods of determining such rate or rates if variable, as the legislative body shall determine.
- (b) The bonds shall be sold at public or private sale, in such manner and place or places, either within or without the United States, and at such price or prices, above or below par, as the legislative body shall determine.
  - (c) In connection with, or incidental to, the sale and issuance of the bonds, the state or local government may offer, sell, and issue warrants for additional bonds, as well as issue additional bonds pursuant to these warrants on terms consistent with this chapter, and may enter into any contracts which the legislative body determines to be necessary or appropriate to place the obligation of the state or local government, as represented by the bonds and the contract or contracts, in whole or in part on the interest rate, cash flow, or other basis desired by the legislative body, including, without limitation, contracts commonly known as interest rate swap agreements, forward payment conversion agreements, futures, or contracts providing for payments based on levels of or changes in interest rates, or contracts to exchange cash flows or a series of payments, or contracts, including, without limitation, options, puts or calls to hedge payment, rate, spread, or similar exposure. These contracts or arrangements may also be entered into by state or local governments in connection with, or incidental to, entering into any agreement which secures bonds, including bonds issued by private entities. These contracts and arrangements shall be made upon the terms and conditions established by the legislative body, after giving due consideration for the creditworthiness of the counterparties, where applicable, including any rating by a nationally recognized rating agency or any other criteria as may be appropriate. In addition, these contracts and arrangements may be made only if the bonds are rated in one of the three highest rating categories by two nationally recognized rating agencies, and if there has been receipt, from any rating agency rating the bonds, of written evidence that the contract or agreement will not adversely affect the rating.

- (d) In connection with, or incidental to, the sale and issuance of the bonds, or entering into any of the contracts or arrangements referred to in subdivision (c), the state or local government may enter into such credit enhancement or liquidity agreements, with such payment, interest rate, security, default, remedy, and other terms and conditions as the legislative body shall determine.
- (e) Proceeds of the bonds and any moneys set aside or pledged to secure payment of the bonds, or any of the contracts entered into pursuant to subdivision (c), may be invested in securities or obligations described in the ordinance, resolution, indenture, agreement, or other instrument providing for the issuance of the bonds.
- 5904. The state or a local government may take any actions, and enter into any agreements, necessary or appropriate to register or qualify the bonds described in Section 5903 for offer and sale under the federal or any state's or nation's securities laws and to comply with those laws.
- 5905. One or more state or local governments may cause to be formed, and may acquire all, but not less than all, of the voting stock in, one or more corporations, not chartered by a state or federal agency as a depository institution, but organized for the purpose of undertaking financing programs approved by each legislative body and found by each legislative body to be of benefit to the state or local government.

5906. Any bonds issued by a state or local government pursuant to this chapter, or otherwise, and the purchasers thereof, shall be exempt from the usury provisions of Section 1 of Article XV of the California Constitution. This section creates and authorizes a class of purchasers pursuant to Section 1 of Article XV of the California Constitution.

5907. This chapter shall not affect bonds approved by the voters of the state or local government issuer prior to the effective date of this chapter, to the extent that this chapter is inconsistent with the measure authorizing those bonds.

5908. The authority conferred by this chapter includes the authority to enter into any and all contracts incident to the exercise of the authority conferred by this chapter, including, without limitation, contracts for the performance of professional services.

SEC. 2. Section 26400.52 of the Government Code, as added by Assembly Bill 2749, as enacted during the 1986 portion of the 1985–86 Regular Session, is amended to read:

26400.52. Bonds may be issued pursuant to this article under terms and conditions that the board of supervisors determines to be reasonable and without compliance with Section 26338, 26343, 26361, 26362, or 26389. Notwithstanding the noncompliance with Section 26361, the lease of all or any portion or portions of the project or of any lands, improvements, concessions, facilities, or other property comprising a part of the project, is subject to Article 8 (commencing with Section 25520) of Chapter 5. These bonds may bear interest at such rate or rates and be made payable at such times as the board of supervisors may determine, except that the maximum rate of interest payable shall not exceed the maximum rate permitted for bonds of the county by Section 53531 or any other applicable provision of law. In the case of bonds bearing a variable interest rate, the variable rate shall not on any day exceed the maximum rate permitted for bonds of the county on that day by Section 53531 or any other applicable provision of law, except that the variable interest rate may on any day exceed that maximum rate if the interest paid on the bonds from their date of issuance to that day does not exceed the total interest which would have been permitted to be paid on the bonds if the bonds had borne interest at all times from the date of issuance to that day at the maximum rate permitted by Section 53531 or any other applicable provision of law.

Bonds issued pursuant to this article may be sold at public or private sale at not less than 95 percent of the aggregate principal amount of the bonds being sold.

SEC. 3. Section 12875 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

12875. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a district which has owned and operated a water distribution or sewage disposal system for at least eight years and which has a population of 250,000 or more may enter into contracts commonly known as "interest rate swap agreements" or "forward payment conversion agreements" with any person providing for the exchange of payments between the person and the district including, without limitation, contracts providing for the exchange of fixed interest payments for floating payments or floating interest payments for fixed payments, or a combination thereof, after giving due consideration for the creditworthiness of the counter parties, where applicable, including any rating by a nationally recognized agency or such other criteria as may be appropriate. The contracts may be made upon the terms and conditions established by the board. The authority conferred by this section includes the authority to enter into any and all contracts incident to the exercise of the authority conferred by this section including, without limitation, contracts to obtain credit enhancement devices and contracts for the performance of professional services.

SEC. 4. Section 2 of this act shall become operative only if AB 2749 is enacted during the 1986 portion of the 1985–86 regular session, and adds Section 26400.52 to the Government Code.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

If federal legislation is enacted which makes interest on bonds issued by governmental entities subject to federal taxation, in order to provide the state and local governments with the necessary flexibility for successful financing of public programs, as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect. In addition, in order to provide certain municipal utility districts with the authority and flexibility for successful financing of public programs by entering into interest rate swap and other similar agreements, which are currently available to investor-owned utilities, as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1390

An act to amend Sections 25281, 25284.5, 25285, 25286, 25287, and 25299 of, and to add Sections 25283.1, 25299.01, 25299.02, 25299.03, and 25299.04 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous substances, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25281 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25281. For purposes of this chapter, the following definitions apply:

- (a) "Board" means the State Water Resources Control Board. "Regional board" means a California regional water quality control board.
- (b) "Department" means the State Department of Health Services.
- (c) "Facility" means any one, or combination of, underground storage tanks used by a single business entity at a single location or site.
- (d) "Hazardous substance" means all of the following liquid and solid substances, unless the department, in consultation with the board, determines that the substance could not adversely affect the quality of the waters of the state:
- (1) Substances on the list prepared by the Director of Industrial Relations pursuant to Section 6382 of the Labor Code.
  - (2) Hazardous substances, as defined in Section 25316.
- (3) Any substance or material which is classified by the National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) as a flammable liquid, a class II combustible liquid, or a class III-A combustible liquid.
- (e) "Local agency" means the department, office, or other agency of a county or city designated pursuant to Section 25283.
- (f) "Operator" means the operator of an underground storage tank.
  - (g) "Owner" means the owner of an underground storage tank.
- (h) "Person" means an individual, trust, firm, joint stock company, corporation, including a government corporation, partnership, or association. "Person" also includes any city, county, district, the state, any department or agency thereof, or the United States, to the extent authorized by federal law.
- (i) "Pipe" means any pipeline or system of pipelines which is used in connection with the storage of hazardous substances and which are not intended to transport hazardous substances in interstate or intrastate commerce or to transfer hazardous materials in bulk to or from a marine vessel.
- (j) "Primary containment" means the first level of containment, such as the portion of a tank which comes into immediate contact on its inner surface with the hazardous substance being contained.
- (k) "Product-tight" means impervious to the substance which is contained, or is to be contained, so as to prevent the seepage of the substance from the primary containment. To be product-tight, the tank shall not be subject to physical or chemical deterioration by the substance which it contains over the useful life of the tank.

- (1) "Secondary containment" means the level of containment external to, and separate from, the primary containment.
- (m) "Single-walled" means construction with walls made of only one thickness of material. For the purpose of this chapter, laminated, coated, or clad materials are considered single-walled.
- (n) "Special inspector" means a professional engineer, registered pursuant to Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 6700) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, who is qualified to attest, at a minimum, to structural soundness, seismic safety, the compatibility of construction materials with contents, cathodic protection, and the mechanical compatibility of the structural elements of underground storage tanks.
- (o) "Storage" or "store" means the containment, handling, or treatment of hazardous substances, either on a temporary basis or for a period of years. "Storage" or "store" does not mean the storage of hazardous wastes in an underground storage tank if the person operating the tank has been issued a hazardous waste facilities permit by the department pursuant to Section 25200 or granted interim status under Section 25200.5.
- (p) "SWEEPS" means the Statewide Environmental Evaluation and Planning System administered by the California Association of Environmental Health Administrators.
- (q) "Tank" means a stationary device designed to contain an accumulation of hazardous substances which is constructed primarily of nonearthen materials (e.g. wood, concrete, steel, plastic) which provides structural support.
- (r) "Unauthorized release" means any release or emission of any hazardous substance which does not conform to this chapter, unless this release is authorized by the board pursuant to Division 7 (commencing with Section 13000) of the Water Code.
- (s) "Underground storage tank" means any one or combination of tanks, including pipes connected thereto, which is used for the storage of hazardous substances and which is substantially or totally beneath the surface of the ground. "Underground storage tank" does not include any of the following:
- (1) A tank used for the storage of hazardous substances used for the control of external parasites of cattle and subject to the supervision of the county agricultural commissioner if the county agricultural commissioner determines, by inspection prior to use, that the tank provides a level of protection equivalent to that required by Section 25291, if the tank was installed after June 30, 1984, or protection equivalent to that provided by Section 25292, if the tank was installed on or before June 30, 1984.
- (2) A tank which is located on a farm and stores motor vehicle fuel which is used only to propel vehicles used primarily for agricultural purposes.
- (3) A tank which holds 1,100 gallons or less, is located at a residence of a person, and stores home heating fuel used exclusively for personal and nonincome producing purposes.

- (4) A tank which is used for aviation or motor vehicle fuel, which tank is located within one mile of a farm and used by a licensed pest control operator, as defined in Section 11705 of the Food and Agricultural Code, who is primarily involved in agricultural pest control activities.
- (5) Structures such as sumps, separators, storm drains, catch basins, oil field gathering lines, refinery pipelines, lagoons, evaporation ponds, well cellars, separation sumps, lined and unlined pits, sumps and lagoons. Sumps which are a part of a monitoring system required under Section 25291 or 25292 are not exempted by this section. Structures identified in this paragraph may be regulated by the board pursuant to the Porter-Cologne Water Quality Control Act (Division 7 (commencing with Section 13000) of the Water Code) to ensure that they do not pose a threat to water quality.
- SEC. 2. Section 25281 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- 25281. For purposes of this chapter, the following definitions apply:
- (a) "Board" means the State Water Resources Control Board. "Regional board" means a California regional water quality control board.
- (b) "Department" means the State Department of Health Services.
- (c) "Facility" means any one, or combination of, underground storage tanks used by a single business entity at a single location or site.
- (d) "Hazardous substance" means all of the following liquid and solid substances, unless the department, in consultation with the board, determines that the substance could not adversely affect the quality of the waters of the state:
- (1) Substances on the list prepared by the Director of Industrial Relations pursuant to Section 6382 of the Labor Code.
  - (2) Hazardous substances, as defined in Section 25316.
- (3) Any substance or material which is classified by the National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) as a flammable liquid, a class II combustible liquid, or a class III-A combustible liquid.
- (e) "Local agency" means the department, office, or other agency of a county or city designated pursuant to Section 25283.
- (f) "Operator" means the operator of an underground storage tank.
  - (g) "Owner" means the owner of an underground storage tank.
- (h) "Person" means an individual, trust, firm, joint stock company, corporation, including a government corporation, partnership, or association. "Person" also includes any city, county, district, the state, any department or agency thereof, or the United States to the extent authorized by federal law.
- (i) "Pipe" means any pipeline or system of pipelines which is used in connection with the storage of hazardous substances and which are not intended to transport hazardous substances in interstate or intrastate commerce or to transfer hazardous materials in bulk to or from a marine vessel.

- (j) "Primary containment" means the first level of containment, such as the portion of a tank which comes into immediate contact on its inner surface with the hazardous substance being contained.
- (k) "Product-tight" means impervious to the substance which is contained, or is to be contained, so as to prevent the seepage of the substance from the primary containment. To be product-tight, the tank shall not be subject to physical or chemical deterioration by the substance which it contains over the useful life of the tank.
- (l) "Secondary containment" means the level of containment external to, and separate from, the primary containment.
- (m) "Single-walled" means construction with walls made of only one thickness of material. For the purpose of this chapter, laminated, coated, or clad materials are considered single-walled.
- (n) "Special inspector" means a professional engineer, registered pursuant to Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 6700) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, who is qualified to attest, at a minimum, to structural soundness, seismic safety, the compatibility of construction materials with contents, cathodic protection, and the mechanical compatibility of the structural elements of underground storage tanks.
- (o) "Storage" or "store" means the containment, handling, or treatment of hazardous substances, either on a temporary basis or for a period of years. "Storage" or "store" does not mean the storage of hazardous wastes in an underground storage tank if the person operating the tank has been issued a hazardous waste facilities permit by the department pursuant to Section 25200 or granted interim status under Section 25200.5.
- (p) "SWEEPS" means the Statewide Environmental Evaluation and Planning System administered by the California Association of Environmental Health Administrators.
- (q) "Tank" means a stationary device designed to contain an accumulation of hazardous substances which is constructed primarily of nonearthen materials (e.g. wood, concrete, steel, plastic) which provides structural support.
- (r) "Unauthorized release" means any release or emission of any hazardous substance which does not conform to this chapter, unless this release is authorized by the board pursuant to Division 7 (commencing with Section 13000) of the Water Code.
- (s) "Underground storage tank" means any one or combination of tanks, including pipes connected thereto, which is used for the storage of hazardous substances and which is substantially or totally beneath the surface of the ground. "Underground storage tank" does not include any of the following:
- (1) A tank used for the storage of hazardous substances used for the control of external parasites of cattle and subject to the supervision of the county agricultural commissioner if the county

- agricultural commissioner determines, by inspection prior to use, that the tank provides a level of protection equivalent to that required by Section 25291, if the tank was installed after June 30, 1984, or protection equivalent to that provided by Section 25292, if the tank was installed on or before June 30, 1984.
- (2) A tank which is located on a farm, which stores motor vehicle or heating fuel used primarily for agricultural purposes, and which holds 1,100 gallons or less.
- (3) A tank which holds 1,100 gallons or less, is located at a residence of a person, and stores home heating fuel used exclusively for personal and nonincome producing purposes.
- (4) A tank which is used for aviation or motor vehicle fuel, which tank is located within one mile of a farm and used by a licensed pest control operator, as defined in Section 11705 of the Food and Agricultural Code, who is primarily involved in agricultural pest control activities.
- (5) Structures such as sumps, separators, storm drains, catch basins, oil field gathering lines, refinery pipelines, lagoons, evaporation ponds, well cellars, separation sumps, lined and unlined pits, sumps and lagoons. Sumps which are a part of a monitoring system required under Section 25291 or 25292 are not exempted by this section. Structures identified in this paragraph may be regulated by the board pursuant to the Porter-Cologne Water Quality Control Act (Division 7 (commencing with Section 13000) of the Water Code) to ensure that they do not pose a threat to water quality.
- SEC. 3. Section 25283.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:
- 25283.1. This chapter does not prohibit any county from entering into a joint powers agreement with other counties for the purposes of enforcing this chapter
- SEC. 4. Section 25284.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- 25284.5. (a) Notwithstanding Section 25284, a local agency may instead issue an interim permit if the local agency does not issue or refuses to issue the permit application submitted pursuant to Section 25286 within 30 days after the local agency receives the permit application. If an interim permit is issued, the local agency shall, on or before March 1, 1986, approve, modify and approve, or disapprove the monitoring program proposed in the permit application.
- (b) (1) Within six months after the local agency approves the monitoring system proposed in the application, the owner or operator of the underground storage tank for which the interim permit has been issued shall install the approved monitoring system.
- (2) A tank owner or operator is not in violation of this subdivision if all of the following conditions occur:
- (A) The tank owner or operator has a permit to operate an underground tank, which permit specifies a monitoring alternative requiring the installation of equipment.
  - (B) The tank owner or operator has a binding agreement, which is acceptable to the local agency, for the installation of the equipment required under subparagraph (A) or the tank owner or operator demonstrates to the local agency that he or she is making a good faith effort to enter into such an agreement.

- (C) The installation of the equipment required under subparagraph (A) is completed within a reasonable period of time, as determined by the local agency, but not later than January 1, 1989.
- (D) The tank owner or operator utilizes daily gauging and inventory reconciliation.
- (E) The tank owner or operator performs, or causes to be performed, a precision test on the tank at least once every 12 months or as provided in Section 25284.7.
- (F) The tank owner or operator utilizes leak detection devices for pressurized piping systems, as required by Section 25292.
- (c) The local agency shall, on or before September 1, 1986, either issue a permit pursuant to Section 25284 to the owner or operator of an underground storage tank granted an interim permit pursuant to this section, if the approved monitoring system has been installed and the tank is otherwise in compliance with this chapter, or the local agency shall, on or before that date, refuse to issue the permit if the monitoring system has not been installed or if the tank is not otherwise in compliance with this chapter.
- (d) During the period from the date of issuance of the interim permit until the permit is issued or refused, the interim permitholder shall not be held to be in violation of Sections 25284, 25291, and 25292.
- (e) Any owner or operator who, before March 1, 1986, submitted an application for a permit or who inquired as to whether the local agency was prepared to receive an application for a permit, but who has not received a permit solely because of the local agency's failure to act upon, or explicit refusal to receive, the permit application, shall not be held in violation of this section.
- SEC. 5. Section 25285 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- 25285. A permit to operate issued by the local agency pursuant to Section 25284 shall be effective for five years. A local agency shall not issue or renew a permit to operate an underground storage tank if the local agency inspects the tank and determines that the tank does not comply with this chapter. A local agency shall not issue or renew a permit to operate an underground storage tank to any person who has not paid the fee and surcharge required by Section 25287.
- SEC. 6. Section 25286 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- 25286. (a) An application for a permit to operate an underground storage tank, or for renewal of the permit, shall be made, by the owner, on a standardized form prepared by the board and provided by the local agency and shall be accompanied by the appropriate fee, as specified in Section 25287. As a condition of any permit to operate an underground storage tank, the permittee shall notify the local agency, within the period determined by the local agency, of any changes in the usage of the underground storage tank, including the storage of new hazardous substances, changes in monitoring procedures, and if there has been any unauthorized release from the underground storage tank, as specified in Section 25294 or 25295.

- (b) (1) On or before 60 days after the effective date of the act amending this section during the 1986 portion of the 1985–86 Regular Session of the Legislature, the board shall make a finding concerning the estimated costs of using the SWEEPS for storing the permit application information required in subdivision (c) as compared to the board's costs to provide the same information storage system. The board shall select the information storage system which is the most cost-effective and shall notify all local agencies of this determination not later than 30 days after making these findings. If the board selects the SWEEPS, the board shall comply with paragraph (3) and, if the board selects its own system, the board shall comply with paragraph (4).
- (2) Consistent with the board's determination made pursuant to paragraph (1), the local agencies shall provide either the California Association of Environmental Health Administrators or the board with copies of the completed permit applications, using an industry standard computer readable magnetic tape, or any other format acceptable to the California Association of Environmental Health Administrators or the board, as appropriate.
- (3) If the SWEEPS is selected by the board, the board shall enter into a contract with the California Association of Environmental Health Administrators for the SWEEPS, and reimburse the association, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for any costs determined by the board to have been necessary and incurred pursuant to this section, including programming, training, maintenance, actual data processing expenditures, and any incidental costs of the operation of the SWEEPS related to the permitting of underground storage tanks. The permit application information required in subdivision (c) shall be stored in the SWEEPS. The California Association of Environmental Health Administrators shall submit to the board a quarterly report, including any information required by the board concerning permit application data. Each local agency shall provide the California Association of Environmental Health Administrators with a copy of the completed permit application within 30 days after taking final action on the application.
- (4) If the board selects its own system, the board shall store the permit application information required in subdivision (c) for the purpose of managing and appropriately cross-referencing and indexing information concerning underground storage tanks. Each local agency shall provide the board with a copy of the completed permit application within 30 days after taking final action on the application.
  - (c) The application form shall include, but not be limited to, requests for the following information:

- (1) A description of the construction of the underground storage tank or tanks.
- (2) A list of all the hazardous substances which are or will be stored in the underground storage tank or tanks, specifying the hazardous substances for each underground storage tank.
- (3) A description of the monitoring program for the underground storage tank or tanks.
- (4) The name and address of the person, firm, or corporation which owns the underground storage tank or tanks and, if different, the name and address of the person who operates the underground storage tank or tanks.
- (5) The address of the facility at which the underground storage tank or tanks are located.
  - (6) The name of the person making the application.
- (7) The name and 24-hour phone number of the contact person in the event of an emergency involving the facility.
- (8) If the owner or operator of the underground storage tank is a public agency, the application shall include the name of the supervisor of the division, section, or office which operates the tank.
- (d) If a permittee stores in an underground storage tank or tanks a hazardous substance which is not listed in the application, as required by paragraph (2) of subdivision (c), the permittee shall apply for a new or amended permit within 30 days after commencing the storage of that hazardous substance.
- SEC. 7. Section 25287 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- 25287. (a) A fee shall be paid to the local agency by each person who submits an application for a permit to operate an underground storage tank or to renew or amend a permit. The governing body of the county, or a city which assumes enforcement jurisdiction, shall establish the amount of the fees at a level sufficient to pay the necessary and reasonable costs incurred by the local agency in administering this chapter, including, but not limited to, permitting and inspection responsibilities. The governing body may provide for the waiver of fees when a state or local government agency makes an application for a permit to operate or an application to renew a permit.
- (b) This fee shall include a surcharge, the amount of which shall be determined by the Legislature annually to cover the costs of the board in carrying out its responsibilities under this chapter and the costs of the local agency in collecting the surcharge. The local agency may retain 6 percent of any surcharge collected for costs incurred in its collection. The 6 percent of the surcharge retained by the local agency is the local agency's sole source of reimbursement for the cost of collecting the surcharge. The local agency shall transmit all remaining surcharge revenue collected by the local agency to the board within 45 days after receipt pursuant to subdivision (a). The surcharge shall be deposited in the Underground Storage Tank Fund hereby created in the General Fund. The money in this account is available, upon appropriation by the Legislature, to the board for the purposes of implementing this chapter.

- (c) If a local agency does not transmit the surcharge for a particular permit application to the board, the local agency shall pay the California Association of Environmental Health Administrators or the board for any costs associated with processing that application incurred by the SWEEPS or the board's own system.
- SEC. 8. Section 25287 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- 25287. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (c), a fee shall be paid to the local agency by each person who submits an application for a permit to operate an underground storage tank or to renew or amend a permit. The governing body of the county, or a city which assumes enforcement jurisdiction, shall establish the amount of the fees at a level sufficient to pay the necessary and reasonable costs incurred by the local agency in administering this chapter, including, but not limited to, permitting and inspection responsibilities. The governing body may provide for the waiver of fees when a state or local government agency makes an application for a permit to operate or an application to renew a permit.
- (b) This fee shall include a surcharge, the amount of which shall be determined by the Legislature annually to cover the costs of the board in carrying out its responsibilities under this chapter and the costs of the local agency in collecting the surcharges. The local agency may retain 6 percent of any surcharge collected for costs incurred in its collection. The 6 percent of the surcharge retained by the local agency is the local agency's sole source of reimbursement for the cost of collecting the surcharge. The local agency shall transmit all remaining surcharge revenue collected by the local agency to the board within 45 days after receipt pursuant to subdivision (a). The surcharge shall be deposited in the Underground Storage Tank Fund hereby created in the General Fund. The money in this account is available, upon appropriation by the Legislature, to the board for the purposes of implementing this chapter.
- (c) A local agency may waive the fee required by subdivision (a) for an underground storage tank which has a capacity of 5,000 gallons or less, which is located on a farm, and which contains motor vehicle or heating fuel used primarily for agricultural purposes, if the local agency finds that the fee will impose undue economic hardship upon the person applying for the permit. However, the local agency shall not waive the surcharge required under subdivision (b).
- (d) If a local agency does not transmit the surcharge for a particular permit application to the board, the local agency shall pay the California Association of Environmental Health Administrators or the board for any costs associated with processing that application incurred by the SWEEPS or the board's own system.
  - SEC. 9. Section 25299 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

- 25299. (a) Any operator of an underground storage tank shall be liable for a civil penalty of not less than five hundred dollars ($500) or more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) per day for any of the following:
- (1) Operates an underground storage tank which has not been issued a permit.
- (2) Fails to monitor the underground storage tank, as required by the permit.
  - (3) Fails to maintain records, as required by Section 25286.
- (4) Fails to report an unauthorized release, as required by Sections 25294 and 25295.
- (5) Fails to properly close an underground storage tank, as required by Section 25298.
- (b) Any owner of an underground storage tank shall be liable for a civil penalty of not less than five hundred dollars ($500) or more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) per day for any of the following:
  - (1) Failure to obtain a permit as specified by this chapter.
- (2) Failure to repair an underground tank in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.
- (3) Abandonment or improper closure of any underground tank subject to the provisions of this chapter.
- (4) Knowing failure to take reasonable and necessary steps to assure compliance with this chapter by the operator of an underground tank.
- (c) Any person who falsifies any monitoring records required by this chapter, or knowingly fails to report an unauthorized release, shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or by imprisonment in the county jail for not to exceed one year, or by both that fine and imprisonment.
- (d) In determining both the civil and criminal penalties imposed pursuant to this section, the court shall consider all relevant circumstances, including, but not limited to, the extent of harm or potential harm caused by the violation, the nature of the violation and the period of time over which it occurred, the frequency of past violations, and the corrective action, if any, taken by the person who holds the permit.
- (e) Each civil penalty or criminal fine imposed pursuant to this section for any separate violation shall be separate, and in addition to, any other civil penalty or criminal fine imposed pursuant to this section or any other provision of law, and shall be paid to the treasury of the local agency or state, whichever is represented by the office of the city attorney, district attorney, or Attorney General bringing the action.
- (f) In addition to the state and any city or county implementing this chapter pursuant to Section 25283, a city or county specified in subdivision (a) of Section 25299.1 may also levy and collect penalties under this section.

SEC. 10. Section 25299.10 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25299.01. When any person has engaged in, is engaged in, or is about to engage in any acts or practices which violate this chapter, or any rule, regulation, permit, standard, requirement, or order issued, adopted, or executed pursuant to this chapter, the city attorney of the city in which the acts or practices occur, occurred, or will occur, the district attorney of the county in which the acts or practices occur, occurred, or will occur, or the Attorney General may apply to the superior court for any order enjoining these acts or practices, or for an order directing compliance. The court may grant a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or other order.

SEC. 11. Section 25299.02 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25299.02. Every civil action brought under this chapter shall be brought by the city attorney, the district attorney, or the Attorney General in the name of the people of the State of California, and any actions relating to the same violations may be joined or consolidated.

SEC. 12. Section 25299.03 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25299.03. Any civil action brought pursuant to this chapter shall be brought in the county in which the violation occurred, the county in which the principal office of the defendant is located, or the county in which the Attorney General has an office nearest to the county in which the principal office of the defendants, or any of them, in this state is located.

SEC. 13. Section 25299.04 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25299.04. In any civil action brought pursuant to this chapter in which a temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction, or permanent injunction is sought, it is not necessary to allege or prove at any state of the proceeding that irreparable damage will occur should the temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction, or permanent injunction not be issued or that the remedy at law is inadequate. The temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction, or permanent injunction shall be issued without these allegations and without this proof.

SEC. 14. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 25281 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3570. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1987, but this bill becomes operative first, (2) each bill amends Section 25281 of the Health and Safety Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3570, in which case Section 25281 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Section 1 of this bill, shall remain operative only until the operative date of AB 3570, at which time Section 2 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 15. Section 8 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 25287 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3570. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1987, but this bill becomes operative first, (2) each bill amends Section 25287 of the Health and Safety Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3570, in which case Section 25287 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Section 7 of this bill, shall remain operative only until the operative date of AB 3570, at which time Section 8 of this bill shall become operative.

- SEC. 16. Reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) and if statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund, except that no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.
- SEC. 17. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Due to changes in the existing underground storage tank program, which protects public health and safety and the environment, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1391

An act to amend Section 7071.6 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to contractors.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- SECTION 1. Section 7071.6 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:
- 7071.6. (a) Except as provided in Section 7071.8 and subdivision (b), the board shall require, as a condition precedent to the issuance, reinstatement, reactivation, or renewal of a license, that the applicant file or have on file a contractor's bond in the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000). No bond shall be required of a holder of an inactive license during the period the license is inactive.
- (b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the board shall require, as a condition precedent to the issuance, reinstatement, reactivation, or renewal of a license for the license classification of swimming pool contractor, that the applicant file or have on file a contractor's bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000). No bond shall be required of a holder of an inactive license during the period the license is inactive.

- (c) Notwithstanding any other provision of the law to the contrary, the board shall require, as a condition to the continued maintenance of any active license, that the holder of a license file, or have on file, on and after January 1, 1980, a contractor's bond in the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000); provided, that the holder of a license for the classification of swimming pool contractor file, or have on file, a contractor's bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000).
- (d) Notwithstanding any other provision of the law to the contrary, the board shall require, as a condition precedent to the issuance, reinstatement, reactivation, or renewal of a license, that an applicant, previously found to have failed or refused to pay a contractor, subcontractor, consumer, or employee based on a recorded and unsatisfied judgment from a court of law or on an unsatisfied final arbitration award in the five years preceding the application, file or have on file a contractor's bond or other security sufficient to guarantee payment of an amount equal to the unsatisfied judgment or judgments, to a maximum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000). The applicant shall provide the board with a notarized copy of any accord, reached with any individual holding an unsatisfied judgment or final arbitration award, to satisfy a debt. This section applies only with respect to an unsatisfied judgment or arbitration award which is substantially related to the qualifications. functions, or duties of the license being applied for. If the applicant shows proof of satisfaction of the judgment, this requirement does not apply. This section shall not apply to an applicant for issuance, reinstatement, reactivation, or renewal where an unsatisfied iudgment has been discharged in a bankruptcy proceeding. The bond shall be on file for a minimum of one year or until such time as a satisfaction of all debts is made. Proof of the satisfaction of a debt shall be provided to the registrar. Failure to provide the bond or a copy of any accord, as required by this subdivision, shall be grounds to deny the issuance, reinstatement, reactivation, or renewal of a license.

The board shall include on the license application for issuance, reinstatement, reactivation, or renewal, a statement, to be made under penalty of perjury, as to whether there are any such recorded and unsatisfied judgments against the applicant on behalf of contractors, subcontractors, consumers, or the applicant's employees.

(e) Falsification of any application for the issuance, reinstatement, reactivation, or renewal of a license is a cause for disciplinary action.

SEC. 2. This act shall become operative on July 1, 1987.

CHAPTER 1392

An act to amend Sections 6046 and 6046.5 of, and to add Sections 6046.6 and 6061 to, the Business and Professions Code, and to repeal Section 94360 of the Education Code, relating to the State Bar of California.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6046 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6046. The board may establish an examining committee having the power:

- (a) To examine all applicants for admission to practice law.
- (b) To administer the requirements for admission to practice law.
- (c) To certify to the Supreme Court for admission those applicants who fulfill the requirements provided in this chapter.

The examining committee shall be comprised of 16 members, 10 of whom shall be members of the State Bar or judges of courts of record in this state and six of whom shall be public members who have never been members of the State Bar or admitted to practice before any court in the United States. At least one of the attorney members shall have been admitted to practice law in this state within three years from the date of their appointment to the examining committee.

- SEC. 2. Section 6046.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:
- 6046.5. Two of the nonattorney members of the examining committee shall be appointed by the Senate Rules Committee, two of the nonattorney members shall be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly, and two of the nonattorney members shall be appointed by the Governor. They shall serve for a term of four years, except that of the initial nonattorney members so appointed, two shall serve for two years and four shall serve for four years, as shall be determined by lot. The nonattorney members shall have the same rights, powers, and privileges as any attorney member except that such a member shall not participate in the drafting of questions submitted to applicants on the State Bar entrance examination.
- SEC. 3. Section 6046.6 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:
- 6046.6. (a) The examining committee shall conduct a study and prepare a report on the necessity and practicability of requiring applicants for admission to practice law to be certified as possessing minimum courtroom or trial capabilities. The report shall be submitted to the Legislature on or before September 30, 1987.
  - (b) The examining committee shall not alter the bar examination in a manner that requires the substantial modification of the training or preparation required for passage of the examination, except after giving two years' notice of that change. This requirement does not apply to a change in the bar examination that is applicable only at the option of the applicant.

- (c) The examining committee shall communicate and cooperate with the Law School Education Committee Council.
- (d) Scaling may be used on the bar examination for the purpose of maintaining an examination of uniform difficulty from year to year.
- SEC. 4. Section 6061 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:
- 6061. Any law school that is not accredited by the examining committee of the State Bar shall provide every student with a disclosure statement, subsequent to the payment of any application fee but prior to the payment of any registration fee, containing all of the following information:
- (a) The school is not accredited. However, in addition, if the school has been approved by other agencies, that fact may be so stated.
- (b) Where the school has not been in operation for 10 years, the assets and liabilities of the school. However, if the school has had prior affiliation with another school that has been in operation more than 10 years, has been under the control of another school that has been in operation more than 10 years, or has been a successor to a school in operation more than 10 years, the requirements of this subdivision are not applicable.
- (c) The number and percentage of students who have taken and who have passed the first-year law student's examination and the final bar examination in the previous five years, or since the establishment of the school, whichever time is less, which shall include only those students who have been certified by the school to take the examinations. This subdivision does not apply to correspondence schools.
- (d) The number of legal volumes in the library. This subdivision does not apply to correspondence schools.
- (e) The educational background, qualifications and experience of the faculty, and whether or not the faculty members and administrators (e.g., the dean) are members of the California State Bar.
- (f) The ratio of faculty to students for the previous five years or since the establishment of the school, whichever time is less. This subdivision does not apply to correspondence schools.
- (g) Whether or not the school has applied for accreditation, and if so, the date of application and whether or not that application has been withdrawn, is currently pending, or has been finally denied. The school need only disclose information relating to applications made in the previous five years.
  - (h) That the education provided by the school may not satisfy requirements of other states for the practice of law. Applicants should inquire regarding those requirements, if any, to the state in which they may wish to practice.

The disclosure statement required by this section shall be signed by each student, who shall receive as a receipt a copy of his or her signed disclosure statement. If any school does not comply with these requirements, it shall make a full refund of all fees paid by students.

Subject to approval by the board, the examining committee may adopt such reasonable rules and regulations as are necessary for the purpose of ensuring compliance with this section.

- SEC. 5. Section 94360 of the Education Code is repealed.
- SEC. 6. The Chairpersons and Vice Chairpersons of the Senate and Assembly Committees on Judiciary may employ, at a reasonable cost, a consultant to conduct a one-year review of studies concerning the bar examination conducted by the Committee of Bar Examiners and to recommend additional studies relating to all of the following:
- (a) The necessity and practicality of requiring applicants for admission to the practice of law to be certified as possessing practical lawyering skills.
- (b) Bar examination passage rates for the past five years in California and in the other states.
- (c) California Bar examination passage rates with respect to (1) accredited and unaccredited law schools, (2) men and women, and (3) minorities and Caucasians, including any proposed remedies for disparate passage rates.
- (d) The impact of the performance section of the examination on passage rates.
- (e) Delays between successful completion of the bar examination and admission to the practice of law because of character investigations.
- (f) The number of protests submitted to the examining committee regarding bar examination scores and the disposition of those protests.
- (g) The passage rate of the multistate portion of the bar examination in California and the other states for which information is available.

The compensation of the consultant shall be paid by the State Bar.

CHAPTER 1393

An act to amend Section 14672 of the Government Code, and to amend Sections 2039, 2045.4, 6050, and 6105 of, and to add Section 7014 to, the Penal Code, relating to prisons, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14672 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14672. Notwithstanding Section 14670, the Director of General Services, with the consent of the Department of Corrections, may let to the City of Vacaville for a public purpose, for a period not to exceed 20 years, real property which belongs to the state and which is retained by the state primarily to provide a peripheral buffer area, or zone, between real property upon which is located the medical facility and adjacent real property, where the director deems such letting is in the best interests of the state. The lease provided for by this section may be renewed, upon its expiration, for an additional period not to exceed 20 years.

SEC. 1.5. Section 2039 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

2039. The Governor, upon recommendation of the Director of Corrections and in accordance with Section 6050, shall appoint a superintendent for the Deuel Vocational Institution. The director shall appoint, subject to civil service, such officers and employees as may be necessary.

SEC. 2. Section 2045.4 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

2045.4. The Governor, upon recommendation of the Director of Corrections and in accordance with Section 6050, shall appoint a superintendent for the California Training Facility. The director shall appoint, subject to civil service, such officers and employees as may be necessary.

SEC. 3. Section 6050 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

6050. The Governor, upon recommendation of the director, and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint the wardens and superintendents of the various state prisons. Each warden and superintendent shall be subject to removal by the director. If the director removes the warden or superintendent his or her action shall be final. The superintendents and wardens shall be exempt from civil service.

The Department of Personnel Administration shall fix the compensation of the wardens and superintendents of the state prisons.

SEC. 4. Section 6105 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

- 6105. The Governor, upon recommendation of the Director of Corrections and in accordance with Section 6050, shall appoint a superintendent for the medical facility. The director shall appoint, subject to civil service, such officers and employees as may be necessary.
  - SEC. 5. Section 7014 is added to the Penal Code, to read:
- 7014. The Joint Legislative Prison Committee shall be reimbursed, from funds appropriated to the Department of Corrections for support, for costs, as agreed to by the Department of Corrections, incurred by the committee in reviewing environmental assessment studies pursuant to this chapter. The chairperson of the committee shall certify the costs to the Controller who shall, upon receipt of the certification, transfer funds from the unencumbered balance of funds appropriated to the Department of Corrections for support. The funds shall be transferred to the contingent fund of the Legislature which was used to pay the costs incurred in reviewing the environmental studies.
- SEC. 6. The Department of Corrections is authorized to pay to Otay Water District, in Improvement District Seven an improvement fee of up to three thousand dollars ($3,000) per acre at the Richard J. Donovan Correctional Facility at Rock Mountain. In no event is the department authorized to pay an improvement fee of more than one million dollars ($1,000,000).
- SEC. 6.5. (a) The Department of Corrections shall perform site suitability studies, evaluate the feasibility of, and prepare an Environmental Impact Report for, constructing a women's facility of up to 2,000 beds in Madera County.
- (b) In performing the studies required by this section, the Department of Corrections shall hold public hearings regarding proposed sites.
- (c) The Department of Corrections shall submit a report on the feasibility study and a summary of the Environmental Impact Report to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and the Joint Legislative Committee on Prison Construction as soon as the report or summary is completed, but no later than October 1, 1987.
- SEC. 7. The Department of Corrections may transfer from any funds available to the department the sum of up to forty thousand dollars ($40,000) for the following purposes:
- (a) For salaries for up to two police officers for up to two years for the City of Ione, an amount not to exceed thirty thousand dollars ($30,000).
- (b) For the Amador County Unified School District, an amount not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

Pursuant to Section 1 of Chapter 957 of the Statutes of 1983, as amended by Section 7 of Chapter 931 of the Statutes of 1985, the funds transferred under this section shall be used for purposes as necessary to mitigate the negative impact on the community created during the construction of the prison in Amador County.

SEC. 8. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law and pursuant to Section 7001 of the Penal Code, the Department of Corrections may construct and occupy a minimum security, work-based camp facility in Modoc County.

- (b) Work performed by inmates housed in the camp established in Modoc County shall be consistent with the provisions of Section 1 of Chapter 956 of the Statutes of 1983, as amended at the 1985–86 Regular Session of the Legislature.
- SEC. 9. The Department of Corrections shall perform site suitability studies and evaluate the feasibility of constructing a correctional facility in Imperial County and report its findings to the Legislature. These studies may address, but shall not be limited to, the following: hydrology, archaeology, geology, biology, seismology, traffic analysis, and engineering. The studies shall identify the proposed custody level of inmates at the proposed facility, the size of the proposed facility, and the work programs to be used at the proposed facility.
- SEC. 10. The Department of Corrections shall perform site suitability studies and evaluate the feasibility of constructing a correctional facility in Western Kern County and report its findings to the Legislature. These studies may address, but shall not be limited to, the following: hydrology, archaeology, geology, biology, seismology, traffic analysis, and engineering. The studies shall identify the proposed custody level of inmates at the proposed facility, the size of the proposed facility, and the work programs to be used at the proposed facility.
- SEC. 11. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, Provision 6 of Items 5240-311-723 of the Budget Act of 1983 (Chapter 324 of the Statutes of 1983) shall have no force and effect.
- SEC. 12. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, Provision 12 of Item 5240-301-723 of the Budget Act of 1982 (Chapter 326 of the Statutes of 1982) shall have no force and effect.
- SEC. 13. The sum of nine million seven hundred two thousand dollars ($9,702,000) is appropriated to the Department of Corrections as follows:
- (a) There is hereby appropriated from the 1984 Prison Construction Fund to the Department of Corrections the sum of one million six hundred ninety-three thousand dollars ($1,693,000) for the Northern California Women's Facility in San Joaquin County, to be allocated, as follows:
- (1) For purposes, as necessary, of site acquisition, site studies and suitability reports, environmental studies, master planning, architectural programming, schematics, preliminary plans, working drawings, construction, and long lead and equipment items ......

(2) For design and construction costs associated with road widening and curbs and gutters installation

$1,500,000

$ 193,000

- (b) There is hereby appropriated from the 1984 Prison Construction Fund to the Department of Corrections, the sum of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) for site suitability studies, feasibility evaluation, and environmental impact report preparation in Madera County.
- (c) There is hereby appropriated to the Department of Corrections from the 1986 Prison Construction Fund, the sum of four million dollars ($4,000,000) for construction of a minimum security, work-based facility in Modoc County.

Funds appropriated under this section shall be available for purposes as necessary, of site acquisition, site studies and suitability reports, environmental studies, master planning, architectural programming, schematics, preliminary plans, working drawings, construction, long lead and equipment items.

- (d) There is hereby appropriated from the 1986 Prison Construction Fund to the Department of the Youth Authority the sum of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) for expanded vocational/educational program space.
- (e) To carry out the provisions of Section 9 of this act, the sum of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) is hereby appropriated from the 1986 Prison Construction Fund to the Department of Corrections.
- (f) To carry out the provisions of Section 10 of this act, the sum of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) is hereby appropriated from the 1986 Prison Construction Fund to the Department of Corrections.
- (g) There is hereby appropriated to the Department of Corrections from the 1986 Prison Construction Fund the sum of one million nine thousand dollars ($1,009,000), for costs associated with the County of San Diego Road Improvements Agreement for the relocation of an existing 20-inch waterline owned by the Otay Water District located within the access roads to the Richard J. Donovan Correctional Facility at Rock Mountain.
- (h) There is hereby appropriated to the Department of Corrections from the 1986 Prison Construction Fund the sum of one million dollars ($1,000,000) for the purposes specified in Section 6.
- SEC. 14. If any provisions of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, this invalidity shall not affect any other provisions or application of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or applications and, to this end, the provisions of this act are severable.
- SEC. 15. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

The Legislature and the people of California have determined that immediate expansion of the prison system by the swiftest possible means is necessary to relieve the system from current and anticipated overcrowding and to maintain the public safety and security. The provisions of this act are essential to permit the state to deal with this immediate and current crisis.

CHAPTER 1394

An act to amend Section 5008.4 of the Public Resources Code, relating to parks and recreation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5008.4 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

5008.4. Moneys deposited in the State Parks and Recreation Fund pursuant to Section 1463.02 of the Penal Code are available, when appropriated by the Legislature, only for the following purposes:

(a) The payment of refunds of fines and forfeitures determined by the Controller to have been erroneously deposited in the fund, subject to approval by the State Board of Control prior to payment.

- (b) The training of department employees in the Ranger/Lifeguard classification, including, but not limited to, resource management and protection, law enforcement, interpretation, first aid, cardiopulmonary resuscitation and medical technical training, subject to all of the following:
- (1) Reimbursement for training under the section shall not exceed the reimbursement rates of the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training, but reimbursements for salaries may be up to 100 percent of actual costs.
- (2) Reimbursements for salaries shall be allocated to the assigned work locations of the employees receiving training to be used for salary or overtime payments for rangers and lifeguards assigned to those work locations.
- (3) Expenditures under this subdivision in any fiscal year shall not exceed 90 percent of the moneys on deposit on June 30 of the preceding fiscal year.
- SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that this act may be applicable for the 1986–87 fiscal year, thereby facilitating needed training of state park personnel in the Ranger/Lifeguard classification at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1395

An act to add Section 418.4 to the Streets and Highways Code, relating to state highways, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 418.4 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

418.4. In recognition of the fact that increased motor vehicle traffic uses Madera Road and Olsen Road in the City of Simi Valley to traverse between Routes 118 and 23, the department may pay up to ten thousand dollars ($10,000) annually to the city for the added costs of maintenance and operation of those two roads. The payment shall be made from funds appropriated to the department for the maintenance of state highways.

This section shall become inoperative upon the department certifying that construction is complete on the 1985 State Transportation Improvement Program project on Route 23 in Ventura County which provides the freeway-to-freeway connection with Route 118.

CHAPTER 1396

An act to amend Sections 10010.1, 12823.1, and 16482.1 of, and to add Sections 11509, 14403, 14403.3, and 14403.5 to, the Public Utilities Code, relating to municipal utility districts.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10010.1 of the Public Utilities Code, as amended by Chapter 479 of the Statutes of 1986, is amended to read:

- 10010.1. (a) No public utility furnishing light, heat, water, or power may terminate residential service on account of nonpayment of a delinquent account unless the public utility first gives notice of the delinquency and impending termination, at least 10 days prior to the proposed termination, by means of a notice mailed, postage prepaid, to the customer to whom the service is billed, not earlier than 19 days from the date of mailing the public utility's bill for services, and the 10-day period shall not commence until five days after the mailing of the notice.
  - (b) Every public utility shall make a reasonable attempt to contact an adult person residing at the premises of the customer by telephone or personal contact, at least 24 hours prior to any termination of service, except that, whenever telephone or personal contact cannot be accomplished, the public utility shall give, by mail, in person, or by posting in a conspicuous location at the premises, a notice of termination of service, at least 48 hours prior to termination.

- (c) Every notice of termination of service pursuant to subdivision (a) shall include all of the following information:
- (1) The name and address of the customer whose account is delinquent.
  - (2) The amount of the delinquency.
- (3) The date by which payment or arrangements for payment is required in order to avoid termination.
- (4) The procedure by which the customer may initiate a complaint or request an investigation concerning service or charges, except that, if the bill for service contains a description of that procedure, the notice pursuant to subdivision (a) is not required to contain that information.
- (5) The procedure by which the customer may request amortization of the unpaid charges.
- (6) The procedure for the customer to obtain information on the availability of financial assistance, including private, local, state, or federal sources, if applicable.
- (7) The telephone number of a representative of the public utility who can provide additional information or institute arrangements for payment.

Every notice of termination of service pursuant to subdivision (b) shall include the items of information in paragraphs (1), (2), (3), (6), and (7).

All written notices shall be in a clear and legible format.

- (d) If a residential customer fails to comply with an amortization agreement, the public utility shall not terminate service without giving notice to the customer at least 48 hours prior to termination of the conditions the customer is required to meet to avoid termination, but the notice does not entitle the customer to further investigation by the public utility.
- (e) No termination of service may be effected without compliance with this section. Any service wrongfully terminated shall be restored without charge for the restoration of service, and a notation thereof shall be mailed to the customer at his or her billing address.
- SEC. 2. Section 11509 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:
- 11509. "Electricity district" means a municipal utility district formed under this division that furnishes electricity to more than 100,000 customers.
- SEC. 3. Section 12823.1 of the Public Utilities Code, as amended by Chapter 479 of the Statutes of 1986, is amended to read:
  - 12823.1. (a) No district furnishing light, heat, water, or power may terminate residential service on account of nonpayment of a delinquent account unless the district first gives notice of the delinquency and impending termination, at least 10 days prior to the proposed termination, by means of a notice mailed, postage prepaid, to the customer to whom the service is billed not earlier than 19 days from the date of mailing the district's bill for services, and the 10-day period shall not commence until five days after the mailing of the notice.

- (b) Every district shall make a reasonable attempt to contact an adult person residing at the premises of the customer by telephone or personal contact, at least 24 hours prior to any termination of service, except that, whenever telephone or personal contact cannot be accomplished, the district shall give, by mail, in person, or by posting in a conspicuous location at the premises, a notice of termination of service, at least 48 hours prior to termination.
- (c) Every notice of termination of service pursuant to subdivision (a) shall include all of the following information:
- (1) The name and address of the customer whose account is delinquent.
  - (2) The amount of the delinquency.
- (3) The date by which payment or arrangements for payment is required in order to avoid termination.
- (4) The procedure by which the customer may initiate a complaint or request an investigation concerning service or charges, except that, if the bill for service contains a description of that procedure, the notice pursuant to subdivision (a) is not required to contain that information.
- (5) The procedure by which the customer may request amortization of the unpaid charges.
- (6) The procedure for the customer to obtain information on the availability of financial assistance, including private, local, state, or federal sources, if applicable.
- (7) The telephone number of a representative of the district who can provide additional information or institute arrangements for payment.

Every notice of termination of service pursuant to subdivision (b) shall include the items of information in paragraphs (1), (2), (3), (6), and (7).

All written notices shall be in a clear and legible format.

- (d) If a residential customer fails to comply with an amortization agreement, the district shall not terminate service without giving notice to the customer at least 48 hours prior to termination of the conditions the customer is required to meet to avoid termination, but the notice does not entitle the customer to further investigation by the district.
- (e) No termination of service may be effected without compliance with this section. Any service wrongfully terminated shall be restored without charge for the restoration of service, and a notation thereof shall be mailed to the customer at his or her billing address.

- SEC. 4. Section 14403 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:
- 14403. Before the board adopts any change in rates and charges for commodities or services furnished by an electricity district intended to increase or decrease revenues, the general manager shall file with the board a report and recommendation on the proposed changes in writing. Within 90 days, but not less than 30 days after the report is filed, except when unanticipated events cause a sudden and significant change in the electricity district's financial condition requiring an immediate response, the board shall hold a hearing on the report and recommendation. Notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be published within the district pursuant to Section 6063 of the Government Code, except that, in the case of an unanticipated event requiring an immediate response, notice may be given pursuant to Section 6063a of the Government Code.
- SEC. 5. Section 14403.3 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:
- 14403.3. The report and recommendation of the general manager of an electricity district filed pursuant to Section 14403 shall include all of the following:
- (a) The most recent annual report submitted pursuant to Section 11938.
- (b) A statement of sales volumes by customer types for the preceding two years and estimates of sales volumes for the two years following.
- (c) A statement of sources and disposition of funds for the preceding two years and estimates of sources and dispositions of funds for the two years following, whether or not the rate change does occur.
- (d) A statement of capital expenditures anticipated during the next two years following.
- (e) In sufficient detail to permit an assessment of the need for any proposed changes, a statement of each category of expense for the preceding two years, and estimates of each category of expense for the two years following.
- (f) Other information as the general manager believes will explain or justify the proposed rate change.
- (g) The basis for the allocation of the overall revenues among the various types of customers of the electricity district.
- SEC. 6. Section 14403.5 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:
  - 14403.5. At the hearing held pursuant to Section 14403, the board shall do both of the following:
  - (a) Permit any member of the public who has given 10 days advance written notice to present nonduplicative testimony on the proposed rate change or on any alternatives.
  - (b) Consider any report and recommendations submitted in writing by any member of the public on alternatives to the rate changes proposed by the general manager.

- SEC. 7. Section 16482.1 of the Public Utilities Code, as amended by Chapter 479 of the Statutes of 1986, is amended to read:
- 16482.1. (a) No district furnishing light, heat, water, or power, or means for the disposition of garbage, sewage, or refuse matter, may terminate residential service on account of nonpayment of a delinquent account unless the district first gives notice of the delinquency and impending termination, at least 10 days prior to the proposed termination, by means of a notice mailed, postage prepaid, to the customer to whom the service is billed, not earlier than 19 days from the date of mailing the district's bill for services, and the 10-day period shall not commence until five days after the mailing of the notice.
- (b) Every district shall make a reasonable, good faith effort to contact an adult person residing at the premises of the customer by telephone or personal contact, at least 48 hours prior to any termination of service, except that, whenever telephone or personal contact cannot be accomplished, the district shall give, by mail, in person, or by posting in a conspicuous location at the premises, a notice of termination of service, at least 48 hours prior to termination.
- (c) Every notice of termination of service pursuant to subdivision (a) shall include all of the following information:
- (1) The name and address of the customer whose account is delinquent.
  - (2) The amount of the delinquency.
- (3) The date by which payment or arrangements for payment is required in order to avoid termination.
- (4) The procedure by which the customer may initiate a complaint or request an investigation concerning service or charges, except that, if the bill for service contains a description of that procedure, the notice pursuant to subdivision (a) is not required to contain that information.
- (5) The procedure by which the customer may request amortization of the unpaid charges.
- (6) The procedure for the customer to obtain information on the availability of financial assistance, including private, local, state, or federal sources, if applicable.
- (7) The telephone number of a representative of the district who can provide additional information or institute arrangements for payment.

Every notice of termination of service pursuant to subdivision (b) shall include the items of information in paragraphs (1), (2), (3), (6), and (7).

All written notices shall be in a clear and legible format.

(d) If a residential customer fails to comply with an amortization agreement, the district shall not terminate service without giving notice to the customer at least 48 hours prior to termination of the conditions the customer is required to meet to avoid termination, but this notice does not entitle the customer to further investigation by the district.

- (e) No termination of service may be effected without compliance with this section. Any service wrongfully terminated shall be restored without charge for the restoration of the service, and a notation thereof shall be mailed to the customer at his or her billing address.
- SEC. 8. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

CHAPTER 1397

An act to add Title 1.3A (commencing with Section 1748.10) and Title 1.3B (commencing with Section 1748.20) to Part 4 of, and Article 10.5 (commencing with Section 1810.20) to Chapter 1 of Title 2 of Part 4 of, Division 3 of, the Civil Code, relating to financial transactions.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that the consumer is not advised uniformly at the time of advertisement inviting a person to apply for the issuance of a credit card of the more significant attributes associated with credit cards so as to encourage comparison of the cost of using one credit card over another credit card. The Legislature further finds and declares it is beneficial to the consumer to receive disclosure of selected costs associated with credit cards offered by credit card issuers so as to encourage consumers to ask about the attributes of credit card agreements which will affect their cost of credit and to foster competition among credit card issuers.
- (b) It is the intent of the Legislature to provide consumers with a simple and direct means for comparing the most significant attributes of credit cards through disclosure of the selected attributes associated with credit card agreements in a simple and clear format. The Legislature further finds and declares that this will benefit consumers by encouraging comparison of credit card terms which affect the consumer's cost of credit when using a credit card while not unreasonably burdening credit card issuers with hypertechnical disclosure requirements.
- SEC. 2. Title 1.3A (commencing with Section 1748.10) is added to Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, to read:

TITLE 1.3A. CREDIT CARD DISCLOSURE

- 1748.10. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Areias-Robbins Credit Card Full Disclosure Act Of 1986."
- 1748.11. (a) Any application form or preapproved written solicitation for an open-end credit card account to be used for personal, family, or household purposes which is mailed on or after October 1, 1987, to a consumer residing in this state by or on behalf of a creditor, whether or not the creditor is located in this state, other than an application form or solicitation included in a magazine, newspaper, or other publication distributed by someone other than the creditor, shall contain or be accompanied by either of the following disclosures:
  - (1) A disclosure of each of the following, if applicable:
- (A) Any periodic rate or rates that may be applied to the account, expressed as an annual percentage rate or rates. If the account is subject to a variable rate, the creditor may instead either disclose the rate as of a specific date and indicate that the rate may vary, or identify the index and any amount or percentage added to, or subtracted from, that index and used to determine the rate. For purposes of this section, that amount or percentage shall be referred to as the "spread."
- (B) Any membership or participation fee that may be imposed for availability of a credit card account, expressed as an annualized amount
- (C) Any per transaction fee that may be imposed on purchases, expressed as an amount or as a percentage of the transaction, as applicable.
- (D) If the creditor provides a period during which the consumer may repay the full balance reflected on a billing statement which is attributable to purchases of goods or services from the creditor or from merchants participating in the credit card plan, without the imposition of additional finance charges, the creditor shall either disclose the number of days of that period, calculated from the closing date of the prior billing cycle to the date designated in the billing statement sent to the consumer as the date by which that payment must be received to avoid additional finance charges, or describe the manner in which the period is calculated. For purposes of this section, the period shall be referred to as the "free period" or "free-ride period." If the creditor does not provide such a period for purchases, the disclosure shall so indicate.
- (2) A disclosure that satisfies the initial disclosure statement requirements of Regulation Z.
- (b) A creditor need not present the disclosures required by paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) in chart form or use any specific terminology, except as expressly provided in this section. The following chart shall not be construed in any way as a standard by which to determine whether a creditor who elects not to use such a chart has provided the required disclosures in a manner which satisfies paragraph (1) of subdivision (a). However, disclosures shall be conclusively presumed to satisfy the requirements of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) if a chart with captions substantially as follows is completed with the applicable terms offered by the creditor, or if the creditor presents the applicable terms in tabular, list, or narrative format using terminology substantially similar to the captions included in the following chart:

THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION IS PROVIDED PURSUANT TO THE AREIAS-ROBBINS CREDIT CARD FULL DISCLOSURE ACT OF 1986

INTEREST RATES, FEES, AND FREE-RIDE PERIOD FOR PURCHASES UNDER THIS CREDIT CARD ACCOUNT

ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE (1)	VARIABLE RATE INDEX AND SPREAD (2)	ANNUALIZED MEMBERSHIP OR PARTICI- PATION FEE	TRANS- ACTION FEE	FREE-RIDE PERIOD (3)

- (1) For fixed interest rates. If variable rate, creditor may elect to disclose a rate as of a specified date and indicate that the rate may vary.
- (2) For variable interest rates. If fixed rate, creditor may eliminate the column, leave the column blank, or indicate "No" or "None" or "Does not apply."
- (3) For example, "30 days" or "Yes, if full payment is received by next billing date" or "Yes, if full new balance is paid by due date."
- (c) For purposes of this section, "Regulation Z" has the meaning attributed to it under Section 1802.18, and all of the terms used in this section have the same meaning as attributed to them in federal Regulation Z (12 C.F.R. Sec. 226.1 et seq.). For the purposes of this section, "open-end credit card account" does not include an account accessed by a device described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 1747.02.
- (d) Nothing in this section shall be deemed or construed to prohibit a creditor from disclosing additional terms, conditions, or information, whether or not relating to the disclosures required under this section, in conjunction with the disclosures required by this section.

- (e) If a creditor is required under federal law to make any disclosure of the terms applicable to a credit card account in connection with application forms or solicitations, the creditor shall be deemed to have complied with the requirements of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) with respect to those application forms or solicitations if the creditor complies with the federal disclosure requirement. For example, in lieu of complying with the requirements of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), a creditor has the option of disclosing the specific terms required to be disclosed in an advertisement under Regulation Z, if the application forms or solicitations constitute advertisements in which specific terms must be disclosed under Regulation Z.
- (f) If for any reason the requirements of this section do not apply equally to creditors located in this state and creditors not located in this state, then the requirements applicable to creditors located in this state shall automatically be reduced to the extent necessary to establish equal requirements for both categories of creditors, until it is otherwise determined by a court of law in a proceeding to which the creditor located in this state is a party.

(g) All application forms for an open-end credit card account distributed in this state on or after October 1, 1987, other than by mail, shall contain a statement in substantially the following form:

"If you wish to receive disclosure of the terms of this credit card, pursuant to the Areias-Robbins Credit Card Full Disclosure Act of 1986, check here and return to the address on this application."

A box shall be printed in or next to this statement for placement of such a checkmark.

However, this subdivision does not apply if the application contains the disclosures provided for in this title.

- (h) This title does not apply to any application form or written advertisement or an open-end credit card account where the credit to be extended will be secured by a lien on real or personal property or both real and personal property.
- (i) This title does not apply to any person who is subject to Article 10.5 (commencing with Sec. 1810.20) of Chapter 1 of Title 2.
- SEC. 3. Title 1.3B (commencing with Section 1748.20) is added to Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, to read:

TITLE 1.3B. CHARGE CARD DISCLOSURES

1748.20. This title may be cited as the "Areias-Robbins Charge Card Full Disclosure Act of 1986."

1748.21. For the purposes of this title:

(a) "Charge card" means any card, plate, or other credit device pursuant to which the charge card issuer extends credit to the charge cardholder, primarily for personal, family, or household purposes

- where (1) the credit extended does not subject the charge cardholder to a finance charge and (2) the charge cardholder cannot automatically access credit that is repayable in installments.
- (b) "Charge cardholder" means the person to whom a charge card is issued.
- (c) "Charge card issuer" means any person that issues a charge card or that person's agent with respect to the card.
- 1748.22. (a) On and after October 1, 1987, issuers of charge cards shall clearly and conspicuously disclose in any charge card application form or preapproved written solicitation for a charge card mailed to a consumer who resides in this state to apply for a charge card, whether or not the charge card issuer is located in this state, other than an application form or solicitation included in a magazine, newspaper, or other publication distributed by someone other than the charge card issuer, the following information:
- (1) Any fee or charge assessed for or which may be assessed for the issuance or renewal of the charge card, expressed as an annualized amount. The fee or charge required to be disclosed pursuant to this paragraph shall be denominated as an "annual fee."
- (2) The charge card does not permit the charge cardholder to defer payment of charges incurred by the use of the charge card upon receipt of a periodic statement of charges from the charge card issuer.
- (3) Any fee that may be assessed for an extension of credit to a charge cardholder where the extension of credit is made by the charge card issuer, and is not a credit sale and where the charge cardholder receives the extension of credit in the form of cash or where the charge cardholder obtains the extension of credit through the use of a preprinted check, draft, or similar credit device provided by the charge card issuer to obtain an extension of credit. This fee shall be denominated as a "cash advance fee" in the disclosure required by this paragraph.
- (b) A charge card issuer shall be conclusively presumed to have complied with the disclosure requirements of subdivision (a) if the table set out in subdivision (b) of Section 1748.11 is completed with the applicable terms offered by the charge card issuer in a clear and conspicuous manner and the completed table in subdivision (b) of Section 1748.11 is then provided to the person invited to apply for the charge card as a part of or in material which accompanies the charge card application or written advertisement which invites a person to apply for a charge card.

The charge card issuer shall include as part of table set out in subdivision (b) of Section 1748.11 the following sentences in the boxes or in a footnote outside of the boxes that relate to the interest rate disclosure: "This is a charge card which does not permit the charge cardholder to pay for purchases made using this charge card in installments. All charges made by a person to whom the charge card is issued are due and payable upon the receipt of a periodic statement of charges by the charge cardholder."

The inclusion or exclusion of an expiration date with table set out in subdivision (b) of Section 1748.11 or the use of footnotes in the boxes of the table to set out the information required to be disclosed by this section outside of the boxes of the table set out in subdivision (b) of Section 1748.11 shall not affect the conclusive presumption of compliance pursuant to this subdivision. If a charge card issuer does not offer or require one of the selected attributes of credit cards in the table set out in subdivision (b) of Section 1748.11 the charge card issuer shall employ the phrase in the appropriate box or in the appropriate footnote "Not offered" or "Not required" or a substantially similar phrase without losing the conclusive presumption of compliance with the requirements of subdivision (a). If one of the selected attributes of charge cards required to be disclosed pursuant to subdivision (a) is not applicable to the charge card issuer, the charge card issuer may employ in the appropriate box or in the appropriate footnote outside of the box in the table set out in subdivision (b) of Section 1748.11 the phrase "Not applicable" or a substantially similar phrase without losing the conclusive presumption of compliance with the requirements of subdivision (a).

- (c) Nothing in this section shall be deemed or construed to prohibit a charge card issuer from disclosing additional terms, conditions, or information, whether or not relating to the disclosures required under this section by subdivision (a) or in connection with the disclosure provided in subdivision (b), in conjunction with the disclosures required by this section.
- (d) If the charge card issuer offers to the charge cardholder any program or service under which the charge cardholder may elect to access open-end credit, the charge card issuer shall provide to the charge cardholder, before the charge cardholder has the right to access that credit, the initial disclosure statement required by Regulation Z, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 1748.10.
- (e) All charge card application forms distributed in this state on or after October 1, 1987, other than by mail, shall contain a statement in substantially the following form:

"If you wish to receive disclosure of the terms of this credit card, pursuant to the Areias-Robbins Charge Card Full Disclosure Act of 1986, check here and return to the address on this application."

A box shall be printed in or next to this statement for placing such a checkmark.

However, this subdivision does not apply if the application contains the disclosures provided for in this title.

SEC. 4. Article 10.5 (commencing with Section 1810.20) is added to Chapter 1 of Title 2 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, to read:

Article 10.5. Retail Installment Account Credit Card Periodic Rate Disclosures

- 1810.20. This article shall be known and may be cited as the "Areias-Robbins Retail Installment Account Full Disclosure Act of 1986."
- 1810.21. (a) Any application form or preapproved written solicitation for a credit card issued in connection with a retail installment account which is mailed on or after October 1, 1987, to a retail buyer residing in this state by or on behalf of a retail seller, whether or not the retail seller is located in this state, other than an application form or solicitation included in a magazine, newspaper, or other publication distributed by someone other than the retail seller, shall contain or be accompanied by either of the following disclosures:
  - (1) A disclosure of each of the following, if applicable:
- (A) Any periodic rate or rates that will be used to determine the finance charge imposed on the balance due under the terms of a retail installment account, expressed as an annual percentage rate or rates.
- (B) Any membership or participation fee that will be imposed for availability of a retail installment account in connection with which a credit card is issued expressed as an annualized amount.
- (C) If the retail seller provides a period during which the retail buyer may repay the full balance reflected on a billing statement which is attributable to purchases of goods or services from the retail seller without the imposition of additional finance charges, the retail seller shall either disclose the minimum number of days of that period, calculated from the closing date of the prior billing cycle to the date designated in the billing statement sent to the retail buyer as the date by which that payment must be received to avoid additional finance charges, or describe the manner in which the period is calculated. For purposes of this section, the period shall be referred to as the "free period" or "free-ride period." If the retail seller does not provide such a period for purchases, the disclosure shall so indicate.
- (2) A disclosure that satisfies the initial disclosure statement requirements of Regulation Z (12 C.F.R. 226.6).
- (b) In the event that an unsolicited application form is mailed or otherwise delivered to retail buyers in more than one state, the requirements of subdivision (a) shall be satisfied if on the application form or the soliciting material there is a notice that credit terms may vary from state to state and which provides either the disclosures required by subdivision (a) or an address or phone number for the customer to use to obtain the disclosure. The notice shall be in boldface type no smaller than the largest type used in the narrative portion, excluding headlines, of the material soliciting the application. Any person responding to the notice shall be given the disclosures required by subdivision (a).

(c) A retail seller need not present the disclosures required by paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) in chart form or use any specific terminology, except as expressly provided in this section. The following chart shall not be construed in any way as a standard by which to determine whether a retail seller who elects not to use the chart has provided the required disclosures in a manner which satisfies paragraph (1) of subdivision (a). However, disclosures shall be conclusively presumed to satisfy the requirements of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) if a chart with captions substantially as follows is completed with the applicable terms offered by the retail seller, or if the retail seller presents the applicable terms in tabular, list, or narrative format using terminology substantially similar to the captions included in the following chart:

- (d) For purpose of this section, "Regulation Z" has the meaning attributed to it under Section 1802.18, and all of the terms used in this section have the same meaning as attributed to them in federal Regulation Z (12 C.F.R. Sec. 226.1 et seq.).
- (e) Nothing in this section shall be deemed or construed to prohibit a retail seller from disclosing additional terms, conditions, or information, whether or not relating to the disclosures required under this section, in conjunction with the disclosures required by this section. Notwithstanding subdivision (g) of Section 1748.11, a retail seller that complies with the requirements of Section 1748.11 shall be deemed to have complied with the requirements of this section.
- (f) If a retail seller is required under federal law to make any disclosure of the terms applicable to a retail installment account in connection with application forms or solicitations, the retail seller shall be deemed to have complied with the requirements of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) with respect to those application forms or solicitations if the retail seller complies with the federal disclosure requirement.

(g) If the disclosure required by this section does not otherwise appear on an application form or an accompanying retail installment agreement distributed in this state on or after October 1, 1987, other than by mail, the application form shall include a statement in substantially the following form:

"If you wish to receive disclosure of the terms of this retail installment account, pursuant to the Areias-Robbins Retail Installment Account Full Disclosure Act of 1986, check here and return to the address on this form."

A box shall be printed in or next to this statement for placing such a checkmark.

- (h) This article does not apply to (1) any application form or preapproved written solicitation for a retail installment account credit card where the credit to be extended will be secured by a lien on real or personal property, or both real and personal property, (2) any application form or written solicitation which invites a person or persons to apply for a retail installment account credit card and which is included as part of a catalog which is sent to one or more persons by a creditor in order to facilitate a credit sale of goods offered in the catalog, (3) any advertisement which does not invite, directly or indirectly, an application for a retail installment account credit card, and (4) any application form or written advertisement included in a magazine, newspaper, or other publication distributed in more than one state by someone other than the creditor.
- SEC. 5. In construing the terms of this act, this act shall be construed reasonably for the purpose of encouraging simplified comparison of the selected attributes of credit cards and retail installment accounts disclosed pursuant to Sections 1748.10 and 1810.21 of the Civil Code and shall not be construed in an overly technical manner.
- SEC. 6. In enacting this act it is the intent of the Legislature that the terms of any solicitation for an application for an open-end credit card account which does not include a specific expiration date or a statement that the terms are subject to change shall be deemed to be superseded by the terms of a subsequent solicitation for such an account by the creditor or retail seller if the recipient of the earlier solicitation has not yet applied for the account, whether or not that person has actual knowledge of that change in terms.
- SEC. 7. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

SEC. 8. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

CHAPTER 1398

An act to amend Sections 116.7, 134, and 135 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to repeal Sections 71344 and 71345 of the Government Code, and to amend Section 1305 of the Penal Code, relating to courts.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 116.7 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

116.7. Sessions of the small claims court may be scheduled at any time and on any day, including Saturdays, but excluding other judicial holidays. They may also be scheduled at any public building within the judicial district, including places outside the courthouse. Each small claims division of a municipal court with four or more judicial officers shall conduct at least one night session or Saturday session per month.

For purposes of the night or Saturday session requirement of this section, the term "session" shall include, but not be limited to, a proceeding conducted by a member of the State Bar acting as a mediator or referee.

- SEC. 2. Section 134 of the Code of Civil Procedure, as added by Chapter 1450 of the Statutes of 1985, is amended to read:
- 134. (a) The courts shall be closed for the transaction of judicial business on judicial holidays, except for the following purposes:
- (1) To give, upon their request, instructions to a jury when deliberating on their verdict.
  - (2) To receive a verdict or discharge a jury.
- (3) For the conduct of arraignments and the exercise of the powers of a magistrate in a criminal action, or in a proceeding of a criminal nature.
- (4) For the conduct of Saturday small claims court sessions pursuant to Section 116.7.
- (b) Injunctions and writs of prohibition may be issued and served on any day.
- SEC. 3. Section 135 of the Code of Civil Procedure, as added by Chapter 1450 of the Statutes of 1985, is amended to read:
  - 135. Every full day designated as a holiday by Section 6700 of the Government Code, except September 9, known as "Admission Day," is a judicial holiday. If such a judicial holiday falls on a Saturday or a Sunday, the Judicial Council may designate an alternative day for observance of the holiday. Every Saturday and the day after Thanksgiving is a judicial holiday. Officers and employees of the courts shall observe only the judicial holidays established pursuant to this section.

SEC. 4. Section 71344 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 71345 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 1305 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1305. (a) If, without sufficient excuse, the defendant neglects to appear for arraignment or for trial or judgment, or upon any other occasion when his or her presence in court is lawfully required, or to surrender himself or herself in execution of the judgment, the court must direct the fact to be entered upon its minutes, and the undertaking of bail, or the money deposited instead of bail, as the case may be, must thereupon be declared forfeited, and, if the amount of the forfeiture exceeds two hundred dollars ($200), the clerk of the court shall, promptly upon entering the fact of such failure to appear in the minutes, mail notice of the forfeiture to the surety on the bond or depositor of money instead of bond, and shall execute a certificate of such mailing and place it in the court's file in the case. If the surety is an authorized corporate surety insurer, and if the bond has plainly printed or stamped thereon the address of its principal office, such notice shall be mailed to such surety at such address, and mailing to the bail agent or solicitor who posted the bond shall not constitute compliance with this section; the clerk shall at the same time send a copy of such notice to the bail agent or solicitor who posted the bond. If the clerk fails to mail such notice within 30 days after such entry, the surety or depositor shall be released from all obligations under the bond.

But if at any time within 180 days after such entry in the minutes or, if mailing of notice of forfeiture is required, within 180 days after mailing such notice of forfeiture, the defendant appears, and satisfactorily excuse the defendant's neglect or show to the satisfaction of the court that the absence of the defendant was not with the connivance of the bail, the court shall, under terms as may be just and that are equal with respect to all forms of pretrial release, direct the forfeiture of the undertaking or the deposit to be set aside and the bail or the money deposited instead of bail exonerated immediately. The court may order the bail reinstated and the defendant released again on the same bond after notice to the bail. provided that the bail has not surrendered the defendant. If at any time within 180 days after such entry in the minutes or mailing as the case may be, the bail should surrender the defendant to the court or to custody, the court shall under terms as may be just direct the forfeiture of the undertaking or the deposit to be set aside and the bail or the money deposited instead of bail exonerated immediately.

If within 180 days after such entry in the minutes or mailing as the case may be, it is made to appear to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant is dead or is otherwise permanently unable to appear in court due to illness, insanity, or detention by civil or military authorities, and that the absence of the defendant was not with the connivance of the bail, the court shall, under terms as may be just and that are equal with respect to all forms of pretrial release, direct the forfeiture of the undertaking or the deposit to be set aside and the bail or the money deposited instead of bail exonerated immediately. If within 180 days after such entry in the minutes or mailing as the case may be, it is made to appear to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant is temporarily disabled by reason of illness, insanity, or detention by civil or military authorities and is therefore unable to appear in court at any time during the remainder of such 180 days, and that the absence of the defendant has not been with the connivance of the bail, then the period of time during which the disability continues shall not be deemed part of such 180 days. Upon a finding by the court that a reasonable period of time is necessary in order to return the defendant to court upon the termination of the disability, then such period of time, as fixed by the court, shall not be deemed part of such 180 days.

Unless waived by the district attorney or other prosecuting attorney, no order discharging the forfeiture of the undertaking or deposit shall be made without notice by the bail to the district attorney or prosecuting attorney, who may request a hearing within 10 days after receipt of the notice. The court shall then set the date, time, and place of hearing and give notice to the district attorney or prosecuting attorney and to the bail.

- (b) If, without sufficient excuse, the defendant neglects to appear for arraignment, trial, judgment, or upon any other occasion when his or her presence in court is lawfully required, or to surrender himself or herself in execution of the judgment, but the court has reason to believe that sufficient excuse may exist for his or her neglect to appear or surrender himself or herself, the court may continue the case for such period as it deems reasonable to enable the defendant to appear without ordering a forfeiture of bail or issuing a bench warrant.
- SEC. 7. Sections 1 to 5, inclusive, of this act shall become operative on January 1, 1989.
- SEC. 8. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the Legislature finds and declares that there are savings as well as costs in this act which, in the aggregate, do not result in additional net costs.

CHAPTER 1399

An act to amend Sections 99247, 99268.8, 99268.9, and 99270.2 of, and to add Section 99268.12 to, the Public Utilities Code, relating to transportation.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 99247 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

99247. For purposes of Section 99246, and as used elsewhere in this article:

- (a) "Operating cost" means all costs in the operating expense object classes exclusive of the costs in the depreciation and amortization expense object class of the uniform system of accounts and records adopted by the Controller pursuant to Section 99243, and exclusive of all subsidies for commuter rail services operated under the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission and of all direct costs for providing charter services, and exclusive of all vehicle lease costs.
- (b) "Operating cost per passenger" means the operating cost divided by the total passengers.
- (c) "Operating cost per vehicle service hour" means the operating cost divided by the vehicle service hours.
- (d) "Passengers per vehicle service hour" means the total passengers divided by the vehicle service hours.
- (e) "Passengers per vehicle service mile" means the total passengers divided by the vehicle service miles.
- (f) "Total passengers" means the number of boarding passengers, whether revenue producing or not, carried by the public transportation system.
- (g) "Transit vehicle" means a vehicle, including, but not limited to, one operated on rails or tracks, which is used for public transportation services funded, in whole or in part, under this chapter.
- (h) "Vehicle service hours" means the total number of hours that each transit vehicle is in revenue service, including layover time.
- (i) "Vehicle service miles" means the total number of miles that each transit vehicle is in revenue service.
- (j) "Vehicle service hours per employee" means the vehicle service hours divided by the number of employees employed in connection with the public transportation system, based on the assumption that 2,000 person-hours of work in one year constitute one employee. The count of employees shall also include those individuals employed by the operator which provide services to the agency of the operator responsible for the operation of the public transportation system even though not employed in that agency.

SEC. 2. Section 99268.8 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

99268.8. The required ratios of fare revenues to operating cost prescribed by this article shall not apply to an extension of public transportation services until two years after the end of the fiscal year in which the extension of services was put into operation. As used in this section, "extension of public transportation services" includes additions of geographical areas or route miles, or improvements in service frequency or hours of service greater than 25 percent of the route total, or the addition of new days of service, and for transit service claimants also includes the addition of a new type of service, such as van. taxi, or bus.

Within 90 days after the end of the first year of implementation, the operator shall submit to the transportation planning agency, the county transportation commission, or the San Diego Metropolitan Transit Development Board having jurisdiction over it, a report on the extension of public transportation services, including, but not limited to, the area served, the revenues generated, and the cost to provide the extended services.

SEC. 3. Section 99268.9 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

99268.9. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b), if an operator was allocated funds under this article during a fiscal year in which it did not maintain the required ratio of fare revenues to operating cost, the operator's eligibility to receive moneys from the local transportation fund and allocations pursuant to Sections 99313.3 and 99314.3 shall be reduced during a subsequent penalty year by the amount of the difference between the required fare revenues and the actual fare revenues for the fiscal year that the required ratio was not maintained. The penalty year shall be the fiscal year that begins one year after the end of the fiscal year during which the required ratio was not maintained.

An operator subject to this subdivision shall demonstrate to the transportation planning agency, the county transportation commission, or the San Diego Metropolitan Transit Development Board how it will achieve the required ratio of fare revenues during any penalty year.

(b) The first fiscal year for which an operator does not maintain the required ratio of fare revenues to operating cost is deemed a grace year, and shall not result in any penalty nor loss of eligibility for funds under this article.

SEC. 4. Section 99268.12 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

99268.12. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 99268.2 and 99268.3, the transportation planning agency or the county transportation commission may set the required ratio of fare revenue to operating cost at not less than three-twentieths for an operator in a county with a population of 500,000 or less and serving an urbanized area where funds may be allocated under Article 8 (commencing with Section 99400). Prior to setting the required ratio, the transportation planning agency or the county transportation commission shall make findings specifying the reasons for its action.

SEC. 5. Section 99270.2 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

99270.2. If an operator serves an area that was first designated as an urbanized area in the 1980 or a subsequent federal census, the transportation planning agency or the county transportation commission may grant the operator time, but not more than five years from July 1 of the year following the year of the census, to meet the ratio of fare revenues to operating cost required of an operator serving an urbanized area.

SEC. 6. Sections 1 to 5, inclusive, of this act shall become operative on July 1, 1987.

CHAPTER 1400

An act to add and repeal Chapter 8.8 (commencing with Section 8740) of Division 1 of Title 2 of the Government Code, relating to international trade.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 8.8 (commencing with Section 8740) is added to Division 1 of Title 2 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 8.8. CALIFORNIA-MEXICO TRADE AFFAIRS

8740. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

- (a) California shares a unique and special relationship with its southern neighbor, Mexico. In recent years, the two societies have become increasingly interdependent, economically, culturally, and socially.
- (b) Although trade flows between Mexico and California generated three billion five hundred million dollars ($3,500,000,000), and tourism also accounted for substantial revenues, the economic disparity with Mexico has affected the development of California's relationship with Mexico and has adversely affected the California border communities in particular.
- (c) In addition, the emergence of binational metropolitan areas has taxed the resources of both Mexico and California and has led to a number of problems in the areas of hazardous waste disposal, air and water quality, transportation, economic development, employment and public health.

- (d) Furthermore, state agencies and state policies have not generally been reflective of the "new bilateralism" that has developed between Mexico and California.
- (e) In recognition of this situation, it is in the interest of the State of California to engage in a thorough reevaluation and examination of its relationship with Mexico, including the role and activities of the Office of California-Mexico Affairs to determine what changes in policies and programs would be most beneficial to the furtherance of this relationship.
- 8741. There is hereby established within the Office of California-Mexico Affairs the California State Task Force on California-Mexico Relations which shall do, but not be limited to, all of the following:
- (a) Examine the areas for expanded trade relations, including "in-bond" industries.
- (b) Explore new economic investments and linkages especially in the area of high technology.
- (c) Consider the framework for a state action plan regarding border problems.
- (d) Explore ways to expand links between state government and educational institutions with expertise in binational relations.
- (e) Reexamine the role and activities of the Office of California-Mexico Affairs to determine how it may be strengthened and interact more effectively with other state government agencies and departments.
- (f) Review innovative programs and activities of other border states which would enhance our relationship with Mexico and which may be replicated in California.
- (g) Explore ways to establish better communications between the governments of California and Mexico.
- (h) Explore ways to develop closer ties with the educational, medical, cultural, and business communities of California and Mexico.
- (i) Determine the need for, and functions of, a California State Office in Mexico.
- 8742. (a) The task force shall be composed of leading representatives of the public and private sectors, including businesspersons, educators, and state and local government officials. The task force shall include all of the following:
  - (1) The Director of the Office of California-Mexico Affairs.
- (2) Seven appointees of the Governor, one of whom shall be appointed by the Governor as chairperson of the task force.
  - (3) Three appointees of the Senate Rules Committee.
  - (4) Three appointees of the Speaker of the Assembly.
- (5) The Chairperson of the Assembly Committee on Intergovernmental Relations.
- (b) The members of the task force, except members who are also Members of the Legislature, shall receive travel and other expenses equal to those of other state employees while on official business.

- (c) The chairperson of the task force shall be responsible for determining the frequency of meetings, organization of committees, a work plan for the task force and any other organizational items which contribute to the effective operation of the task force in completing its assignments, including, if deemed appropriate by the chairperson, the hiring of an outside consultant on a contract basis for the purpose of preparing the report for the task force.
- 8743. The task force shall report its findings and recommendations to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Senate Rules Committee, and the Speaker of the Assembly no later than June 30, 1987.
- 8744. The Office of California-Mexico Affairs shall provide support assistance that may be needed by the task force in completing its assignment, including providing information and research on specific issues before the task force.

The Senate Office of Research and the Assembly Office of Research may offer assistance on specific issues if deemed appropriate by the chair of the task force.

- 8745. This chapter shall become inoperative on July 1, 1987, and, as of January 1, 1988, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1988, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.
- SEC. 2. The Office of California-Mexico Affairs shall provide the funding necessary to implement this act.

CHAPTER 1401

An act to amend Sections 51010.5, 51012.3, 51013.5, 51014, 51014.5, 51014.6, and 51018 of the Government Code, relating to pipeline safety.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 51010.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51010.5. As used in this chapter, the following definitions apply:

- (a) "Pipeline" includes every intrastate pipeline, including a common carrier pipeline, used for the transportation of hazardous liquid substances or highly volatile liquid substances, but does not include any of the following:
- (1) An interstate pipeline subject to Part 195 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations.
- (2) A pipeline for the transportation of a hazardous liquid substance in a gaseous state.
  - (3) A pipeline for the transportation of a hazardous liquid substance by gravity.

- (4) A pipeline for the transportation of a hazardous liquid substance that operates at a stress level of 20 percent or less of the specified minimum yield strength of the pipe.
- (5) A pipeline for the transportation of a hazardous liquid substance in those parts of an onshore pipeline system located in a rural area that transports crude oil from a treating facility or production storage facility to a tank farm, pipeline terminal, or transmission line.
- (6) A pipeline for the transportation of a hazardous liquid substance offshore located upstream from the outlet flange of each facility on the Outer Continental Shelf where hydrocarbons are produced or where produced hydrocarbons are first separated, dehydrated, or otherwise processed, whichever facility is farther downstream.
- (7) A pipeline, including a flow line, for the transportation of a hazardous liquid substance through an onshore production, refining, or manufacturing facility, including a storage or in-plant piping system associated with that facility.
- (8) Transportation of a hazardous liquid substance by vessel, aircraft, tank truck, tank car, or other vehicle or terminal facilities used exclusively to transfer hazardous liquids between those modes of transportation.
- (b) "Flow line" means a pipeline which transports hazardous liquid substances from the well head to a treating facility or production storage facility.
- (c) "Hydrostatic testing" means the application of internal pressure above the normal or maximum operating pressure to a segment of pipeline, under no-flow conditions for a fixed period of time, utilizing a liquid test medium.
- (d) "Local agency" means a city, county, or fire protection district.
- (e) "Rural area" means a location which lies outside the limits of any incorporated or unincorporated city or city and county, or other residential or commercial area, such as a subdivision, a business, a shopping center, or a community development.
- SEC. 2. Section 51012.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:
- 51012.3. (a) Every operator of a pipeline shall conform the pipeline to the federal regulations in Subparts A to F, inclusive, of Part 195 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations, as those regulations may be hereafter amended, in accordance with the following schedule:
- (1) On or before July 1, 1984, the pipeline operator shall meet the requirements of subsection (c) of Section 195.401 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations, but those requirements shall apply only to a pipeline constructed after January 1, 1984.
- (2) On or before January 1, 1985, the pipeline operator shall meet the requirements of Section 195.402 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations. Operators of intrastate pipelines subject to federal regulation under Amendment 195-33 to Part 195 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations issued April 17, 1985, (effective date, October 21, 1985—50 F.R. 15895 et seq.), shall meet the requirements of Section 195.402 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations on or before April 23, 1987.

- (3) The pipeline operator shall meet the cathodic protection requirements of subdivision (a) of Section 195.414 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations as follows:
- (A) On or before October 21, 1986, 25 percent of the required cathodic protection shall be installed.
- (B) On or before October 21, 1987, 50 percent of the required cathodic protection shall be installed.
- (C) On or before October 19, 1988, all required cathodic protection shall be installed.
- (4) Operators of intrastate pipelines subject to federal regulation under Amendment 195-33 of Part 195 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations issued April 17, 1985, (effective date, October 21, 1985—50 F.R. 15895 et seq.), shall meet the requirements of Section 195.414 (a), (b), and (c) of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations.
- (b) For purposes of applying the federal regulations of Part 195 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations, the word "Secretary," when it appears in the federal regulations, means the "State Fire Marshal."
- SEC. 3. Section 51013.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:
- 51013.5. (a) Every newly constructed pipeline, existing pipeline or part of a pipeline system that has been relocated or replaced, and every pipeline constructed before January 1, 1983, that transports a hazardous liquid substance or highly volatile liquid substance, shall be tested in accordance with Subpart E (commencing with Section 195.300) of Part 195 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations.
- (b) Every pipeline not provided with properly sized automatic pressure relief devices or properly designed pressure limiting devices shall be hydrostatically tested annually.
- (c) Every pipeline over 10 years of age and not provided with effective cathodic protection shall be hydrostatically tested every three years.
- (d) Every pipeline over 10 years of age and provided with effective cathodic protection shall be hydrostatically tested every five years.
- (e) Every pipeline without evidence of compliance with the hydrostatic test requirements of Subpart E (commencing with Section 195.300) of Part 195 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations, and the pipelines specified in subdivisions (c) and (d) which have not been hydrostatically tested at least once since January 1, 1982, shall be brought into compliance by January 1, 1985. Every intrastate pipeline subject to federal regulation under Amendment 195-33 of Part 195 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations issued April 17, 1985, (effective date, October 21, 1985—50 F.R. 15895 et seq.), which has not been hydrostatically tested at least once since January 1, 1985, shall be brought into compliance on or before January 1, 1988.

- (f) In addition to the requirements of subdivisions (a) to (e), inclusive, the State Fire Marshal may require any pipeline subject to this chapter to be subjected to a pressure test, at any time, in the interest of public safety.
- (g) Other test methods may be approved by the State Fire Marshal on an individual basis.
- SEC. 4. Section 51014 of the Government Code is amended to read:
- 51014. (a) The pressure tests required by subdivisions (b), (c), and (d) of Section 51013.5 shall be conducted in accordance with Subpart E (commencing with Section 195.300) of Part 195 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations, except that an additional four-hour leak test, as specified in subsection (c) of Section 195.302 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations, shall not be required under subdivision (b), (c), or (d) of Section 51013.5. The State Fire Marshal may authorize the use of liquid petroleum having a flashpoint over 140 degrees Fahrenheit or 60 degrees Centigrade as the test medium. Pressure tests performed under subdivisions (b), (c), and (d) of Section 51013.5 shall not show an hourly change for each section of the pipeline under test at the time in excess of either 10 gallons or the sum of one gallon and an amount computed at a rate in gallons per mile equivalent to one-tenth of the nominal internal diameter of the pipe in inches.
- (b) Test pressure shall be at least 125 percent of the actual pipeline operating pressure.
- SEC. 4.5. Section 51014.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:
- 51014.5. (a) When hydrostatic testing is required by Section 51013.5, the test results shall be certified by an independent testing firm or person who is selected from a list, provided by the State Fire Marshal, of independent testing firms or persons approved annually by the State Fire Marshal. The State Fire Marshal may charge a fee for consideration and approval of an independent testing firm or person pursuant to this subdivision, not to exceed the reasonable costs of that consideration and approval.
- (b) The results of the tests required by Section 51013.5 shall be submitted by the independent testing firm or person within 30 days after completion of the test to the local agency having jurisdiction and to the State Fire Marshal, who may review the results. The report shall show all of the following information:
  - (1) The date of the test.
- (2) A description of the pipeline tested including a map of suitable scale showing the route of the pipeline.
  - (3) The results of the test.

- (4) Any other test information that may be specifically requested by the State Fire Marshal or by the local agency having jurisdiction.
- (c) The State Fire Marshal, the authorized agents of the State Fire Marshal, or local agencies shall not supervise, control, or otherwise direct the testing.
- SEC. 5. Section 51014.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:
- 51014.6. (a) Effective January 1, 1987, no person, other than the pipeline operator, shall do any of the following with respect to any pipeline easement:
- (1) Build, erect, or create a structure or improvement within the pipeline easement or permit the building, erection, or creation thereof.
- (2) Build, erect, or create a structure, fence, wall, or obstruction adjacent to any pipeline easement which would prevent complete and unimpaired surface access to the easement, or permit the building, erection, or creation thereof.
- (b) No shrubbery or shielding shall be installed on the pipeline easement which would impair aerial observation of the pipeline easement. This subdivision does not prevent the revegetation of any landscape disturbed within a pipeline easement as a result of constructing the pipeline and does not prevent the holder of the underlying fee interest or the holder's tenant from planting and harvesting seasonal agricultural crops on a pipeline easement.
- (c) This section does not prohibit a pipeline operator from performing any necessary activities within a pipeline easement, including, but not limited to, the construction, replacement, relocation, repair, or operation of the pipeline.
- SEC. 6. Section 51018 of the Government Code is amended to read:
- 51018. (a) Every rupture, explosion, or fire involving a pipeline, including a pipeline system otherwise exempted by subdivision (a) of Section 51010.5, and including a pipeline undergoing testing, shall be immediately reported to the State Fire Marshal and the local agency or fire department having jurisdiction.
- (b) For purposes of this section, "rupture" includes every unintentional liquid leak, except that a crude oil leak of less than five barrels from a pipeline or flow line in a rural area, or any crude oil leak in any in-plant piping system, when no fire, explosion, or bodily injury results or no waterway is contaminated thereby, does not constitute a rupture for purposes of the reporting requirements of subdivision (a).
- (c) This section does not preempt any other applicable federal or state reporting requirement.
- SEC. 7. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act and because the only other costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1402

An act to amend Sections 11004, 11008.13, 11008.14, 11008.15, 11018, 11157, 11158, 11257.5, 11267, 11308, 11450, and 14005.8 of, and to add Section 11476.6 to, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to public social services.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11004 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

- 11004. The provisions of this code relative to public social services for which state grants-in-aid are made to the counties shall be administered fairly to the end that all persons who are eligible and apply for such public social services shall receive the assistance to which they are entitled promptly, with due consideration for the needs of applicants and the safeguarding of public funds.
- (a) Any applicant for, or recipient or payee of, such public social services shall be informed as to the provisions of eligibility and his or her responsibility for reporting facts material to a correct determination of eligibility and grant.
- (b) Any applicant for, or recipient or payee of, such public social services shall be responsible for reporting accurately and completely within his or her competence those facts required of him or her pursuant to subdivision (a) and to report promptly any changes in those facts.
- (c) Current and future grants payable to an assistance unit may be reduced because of prior overpayments to an extent consistent with federal law. In every case, grant payments shall be reduced to a level no lower than 90 percent of the grant, when added to the family's liquid resources and income, appropriate to families in similar conditions to the assistance unit being adjusted. If permitted by federal law, grant payments to be adjusted because of prior overpayments caused by agency errors shall be reduced to a level no lower than 95 percent of the grant when added to the family's liquid resources and net income, appropriate to families in similar conditions to the assistance unit being adjusted. As used in this subdivision, "income" means gross income, and "net income" means gross income minus the otherwise applicable standard work expense and dependent care disregards.

- (d) No determination of ineligibility shall be made retrospectively so as to result in an assessment of an overpayment in circumstances where there is a failure on the part of an applicant or recipient to perform an act constituting a condition of eligibility, if the failure is caused by an error made by a state agency or a county welfare department, and if the amount of the grant received by the applicant or recipient would not have been different had the act been performed.
- (e) Prior to effectuating any reduction of current grants to recover past overpayments, the recipient shall be advised of the proposed reduction and of his or her entitlement to a hearing on the propriety of the reduction.
- (f) If the department determines after a hearing that an overpayment has occurred, the county providing the public social services shall seek to recover in accordance with subdivision (c) the full amount of the overpayment to the assistance unit, including any amount paid while the hearing process was pending, if required in order to conform to federal law or regulation. Such adjustment shall be permitted concurrently with any suit for restitution, and recovery of overpayment by adjustment shall reduce by the amount of such recovery the extent of liability for restitution.
- (g) If the individual is no longer receiving aid under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) recovery of overpayments received under that chapter shall not be attempted where the outstanding overpayments are less than thirty-five dollars ($35). Where the overpayment amounts owed are thirty-five dollars ($35) or more, reasonable cost-effective efforts at collection shall be implemented. Reasonable efforts shall include notification of the amount of the overpayment and that repayment is required. The department shall define reasonable cost-effective collection methods. In cases involving fraud, every effort shall be made to collect the overpayments regardless of the amount.
- (h) If the individual responsible for the overpayment to the assistance unit is no longer eligible for public social services or if he or she becomes a member of another assistance unit, recoupment of overpayments shall be made against the individual or his or her present assistance unit, or both, to the extent consistent with the provisions of federal law.
- (i) Where an overpayment has been made to an assistance unit which is no longer receiving public social services, recovery shall be made by appropriate action under state law against the income or resources of the individual responsible for the overpayment or against the family.
- (j) No civil or criminal action may be commenced against any person based on alleged unlawful application for or receipt of public social services, where the case record of such person has been destroyed after the expiration of the four-year retention period pursuant to Section 10851.
  - (k) When an underpayment or denial of public social service occurs and as a result the applicant or recipient does not receive the amount to which he or she is entitled, the county shall provide public social services equal to the full amount of the underpayment unless prohibited by federal law.

Any corrective payments made pursuant to this subdivision shall be disregarded in determining the income of the family and shall be disregarded in determining the resources of the family in the month the corrective payment is made and in the following month.

- (1) This subdivision shall be applicable only to applicants, recipients and payees under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) of Part 3 of Division 9. Any suits to recover overpayments described in subdivision (f) shall be brought on behalf of the county by the county counsel unless the board of supervisors delegates such duty to the district attorney by ordinance or resolution.
- SEC. 1.5. Section 11008.13 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:
- 11008.13. To the same extent as required by federal law, and as otherwise consistent with other provisions of this chapter:
- (a) The income and resources of a sponsor and his or her spouse shall be deemed as the income and resources of an alien who is an applicant for or recipient of aid under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200).
- (b) Any alien applicant or recipient, whose sponsor is a public or private agency, shall be ineligible for aid under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) during the period of three years after his or her entry into the United States. However, this ineligibility shall cease when it is determined that the sponsoring agency no longer exists or is unable to meet the alien's needs.
- (c) As a condition of eligibility, any individual who is an alien, during the period of three years after entry into the United States, shall be required to provide any information and documentation with respect to his or her sponsor as may be necessary in order to make any determination required under this section.
- (d) If it is determined that as a result of a sponsor's failure to provide correct information an overpayment has been made to an alien, the alien and his or her sponsor shall be jointly and severally liable for repayments. Any such overpayment which is not repaid by the alien or sponsor shall be subject to recoupment pursuant to the provision of Section 11004.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to any alien who is:

- (1) Admitted to the United States as a result of the application, prior to April 1, 1980, of the provisions of Section 203(a) (7) of the Immigration and Nationality Act.
- (2) Admitted to the United States as a result of the application, after March 31, 1980, of the provisions of Section 207(c) (1) of that act.
- (3) Paroled into the United States as a refugee under Section 212(d) (5) of that act.
- (4) Granted political asylum by the Attorney General under Section 208 of that act.

(5) A Cuban or Haitian entrant as defined in Section 501 (e) of the Refugee Education Assistance Act of 1980.

This section shall be applied to all applicants for, and recipients of, aid under Chapter 2, (commencing with Section 11200), regardless of whether federal financial participation is available for the family.

SEC. 2. Section 11008.14 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11008.14. To the same extent as required by federal law, the income of the natural or adoptive parent, and the spouse of the natural or adoptive parent, and the sibling of an eligible child, living in the same home with an eligible child shall be considered available, in addition to the income of an applicant for or recipient of aid under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200), for purposes of eligibility determination and grant computation. In the case of a parent or legal guardian of a minor who is also the parent of an eligible child, the income of the parent or guardian shall be considered available to the minor parent and eligible child to the same extent that income to a stepparent is considered available to an assistance unit, consistent with federal law.

This section shall be applied to all applicants for, and recipients of, aid under Chapter 2, (commencing with Section 11200), regardless of whether federal financial participation is available for the family.

SEC. 3. Section 11008.15 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11008.15. Notwithstanding Sections 11008.14 and 11267, the department shall exercise the options of disregarding earned income of a dependent child derived from participation in the Job Training Partnership Act of 1982 (PL 97-300) and of a dependent child who is a full-time student pursuant to the Deficit Reduction Act of 1984 (PL 98-369).

SEC. 3.5. Section 11008.18 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

11008.18. The department shall implement the state option in Section 402(a) (36) of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 602(a) (36)) and as that statute may hereinafter be amended, which provides that the value of support assistance or maintenance assistance, or both, provided in the form of any in-kind income on the basis of need to, or on behalf of, a family by all entities described in Section 402(a) (36) of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 602(a) (36)) and as that statute may hereinafter be amended shall be disregarded as income.

SEC. 3.7. Section 11018 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11018. Notwithstanding Section 11008, in computing the amount of income available to support a recipient, the first thirty dollars ($30) per calendar quarter of any small nonrecurring gifts shall be exempt.

This section does not apply to recipients under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 12000).

- SEC. 4. Section 11157 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:
- 11157. Notwithstanding Section 11008, all lump-sum income received by an applicant or recipient shall be regarded as income in the month received except nonrecurring lump-sum social insurance payments, which social insurance payments shall include but are not limited to social security income, railroad retirement benefits, veteran's benefits, workman's compensation, and disability insurance.

To the extent required, as a condition for receipt of federal funds, by federal law, lump-sum payments of income, as defined by federal law, received by an applicant for or recipient of aid under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) shall be considered income in the month received and the family shall be ineligible for aid for the number of months that equals the sum of all income received during such month less all applicable income disregards divided by the standard of need applicable to the family under Section 11452, with any remainder to be considered as income received in the first month following the period of ineligibility, should the family again request aid. The period of ineligibility shall be shortened in all circumstances in which federal financial participation would be available for aid paid to the family during that period.

- SEC. 5. Section 11158 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:
- 11158. The Legislature recognizes that certain property and rights owned by a recipient, including a recipient of aid to families with dependent children, are of negligible value in enabling the recipient to meet his or her present needs, and should not be classified as available resources of the recipient. It is the purpose of this section to designate such property and rights.

Resources available to a recipient, including a recipient of aid to families with dependent children shall not include all of the following:

- (a) Money or securities placed in an irrevocable trust for funeral, cremation, or interment expenses with any of the trustees mentioned in Section 7736 of the Business and Professions Code or Section 8775 of the Health and Safety Code.
- (b) Money or securities placed in an irrevocable trust created by a deposit in an insured savings institution made by one person of his or her own money in his or her own name as trustee for a funeral director to provide payment for funeral services rendered by the funeral director upon the depositor's death.
- (c) Life or burial insurance purchased specifically for funeral, cremation, or interment expense, which is placed in an irrevocable trust or which has no loan or surrender value available to the recipient.
- (d) Securities issued by a licensed cemetery authority which by their terms are convertible only into payment for funeral, cremation, or interment expenses.

For the purposes of evaluating the personal property of a recipient, interment plots as defined in Section 7022 of the Health and Safety Code shall be deemed to have no value.

SEC. 6. Section 11257.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11257.5. Notwithstanding the property limitations in subdivision (a) of Section 11257, a family may retain, for nine months, real property if the family is making a good faith effort to sell the real property. However, any aid payable to the family for the nine-month period shall be conditioned upon the sale. At the time of the sale any aid payments made during the nine-month period shall be considered overpayments to the extent they would not have been made had the sale occurred at the beginning of the nine-month period. Notwithstanding Section 11004 overpayments shall be recouped from the proceeds of the sale. If the real property has not been sold at the end of the nine-month period, the family shall be ineligible for aid if the combined net value of the real and personal property owned by the family exceeds the one thousand dollar ($1,000) limitation in Section 11257.

Notwithstanding Section 11007 as a condition to the granting of aid pursuant to this section, the family shall grant the county a lien upon the real property as security for the aid to be paid. The lien shall be used to recoup any overpayments incurred pursuant to this section. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the lien shall not be enforceable by the sale of the secured property by the county. The lien of the county shall be paid upon the sale of the property.

The department shall define good faith effort in regulation.

SEC. 7. Section 11267 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11267. To the extent permitted by federal law and regulations, no child or family is eligible to receive aid under this chapter if the total gross income, exclusive of grant payment, prior to any deductions available to such child or family exceeds 185 percent of the minimum basic standard of adequate care applicable to such child or family.

SEC. 8. Section 11308 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11308. (a) Upon notification by the Employment Development Department that, pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 5300) of Division 2 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, an individual registered pursuant to Section 11310 has been found to have failed or refused to appear for appraisal, to accept employment, or to otherwise participate in a work incentive program, the county department shall apply the following sanctions:

(1) For the first such occurrence, the individual shall be deregistered for three payment-months.

(2) For the second and each subsequent occurrence, the individual shall be deregistered for six payment-months.

- (b) During the sanction period specified in subdivision (a), the following sanctions shall also apply:
- (1) If such individual is a caretaker relative receiving aid under this chapter, his or her needs shall not be taken into account in determining the family's need for assistance, and assistance in the form of protective or vendor payments shall be provided to the remaining members of the assistance unit to the extent required by federal law.
- (2) If the parent who is the principal wage earner makes such refusal, assistance to the family shall be denied.
- (3) If such individual is the only dependent child in the family, assistance for the family shall be denied.
- (4) If such individual is one of several dependent children in the family, assistance for such child shall be denied and his or her needs shall not be taken into account in determining the family's need for assistance.
- (c) If an individual is a volunteer registrant and a recipient of aid under this chapter and has failed or refused to participate in the work incentive program without good cause, the sanctions specified in subdivision (a) shall apply, but the sanctions specified in subdivision (b) shall not apply.
- (d) For the purposes of this section, the term "principal wage earner" shall be defined as the parent who earns the greatest amount of income during the two-year period immediately preceding application for benefits.
- (e) The sanctions provided by this section shall become effective on the first day of the first payment-month that the sanctioned individual's needs are removed from aid under this chapter.
- (f) In the event the provisions of this section conflict with federal law, the department shall adopt regulations to conform state regulations to federal law.
- SEC. 9. Section 11450 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:
- 11450. (a) For each needy family which shall include all eligible brothers and sisters of each eligible applicant or recipient child and the parents of the children, but shall not include unborn children, or recipients of aid under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 12000), qualified for aid under this chapter, there shall be paid, notwithstanding minimum basic standards of adequate care established by the department under Section 11452, an amount of aid each month which when added to the family's income, exclusive of any amounts considered exempt as income or paid pursuant to subdivision (e) or Section 11453.1, is equal to the sums specified in the following table, as adjusted for cost-of-living increases pursuant to Section 11453:

Number of eligible needy persons in the same home	Maximum aid
1	$ 258
2	424
3	526
4	625
5	713
6	802
7	880
8	959
9	1,036
10 or more	1,114

If, when and during such times as the United States government increases or decreases its contributions in assistance of needy children in this state above or below the amount paid on July 1, 1972, the amounts specified in the above table shall be increased or decreased by an amount equal to such increase or decrease by the United States government, provided that no such increase or decrease shall be subject to subsequent adjustment pursuant to Section 11453.

- (b) When the family does not include a needy child qualified for aid under this chapter, aid shall be paid to a pregnant mother in the amount which would otherwise be paid to one person as specified in subdivision (a) from the date of verification of pregnancy if the mother, and child if born, would have qualified for aid under this chapter.
- (c) The amount of seventy dollars ($70) per month shall be paid to pregnant mothers qualified for aid under subdivision (a) or (b) to meet special needs resulting from pregnancy if the mother, and child, if born, would have qualified for aid under this chapter. County welfare departments shall refer all recipients of aid under this subdivision to a local provider of the Women, Infants and Children program. If such payment to pregnant mothers qualified for aid under subdivision (a) is considered income under federal law in the first five months of pregnancy, payments under this subdivision shall not apply to persons eligible under subdivision (a), except for the month in which birth is anticipated and for the three-month period immediately prior to the month in which delivery is anticipated, if the mother, and the child if born, would have qualified for aid under this chapter.
- (d) For children receiving AFDC-FC under the provisions of this chapter, there shall be paid, exclusive of any amount considered exempt as income, an amount of aid each month which when added to the child's income is equal to the rate specified in Section 11461,

- 11462, 11462.1, or 11463. In addition, the child shall be eligible for special needs, as specified in departmental regulations.
- (e) (1) In addition to the amounts payable under subdivision (a) and Section 11453.1, a family shall be entitled to receive an allowance for recurring special needs not common to a majority of recipients. These recurring special needs shall include, but not be limited to, special diets upon the recommendation of a physician for circumstances other than pregnancy, and unusual costs of transportation, laundry, housekeeping service, telephone, and utilities. The recurring special needs allowance for each family per month shall not exceed that amount resulting from multiplying the sum of ten dollars ($10) by the number of recipients in the family who are eligible for assistance.
- (2) After a family has used all available liquid resources, both exempt and nonexempt, the family shall also be entitled to receive an allowance for nonrecurring special needs caused by sudden and unusual circumstances beyond the control of the needy family. These nonrecurring special needs shall only be granted for replacement of clothing and household equipment and for emergency housing needs. The department shall establish the allowance for each of the nonrecurring special need items. The sum of all nonrecurring special needs for a family shall not exceed six hundred dollars ($600) per event.
- (3) The department shall establish rules and regulations assuring the uniform application statewide of the provisions of this subdivision.
- (4) The department shall notify all applicants and recipients of aid through the standardized application form that these benefits are available and shall provide an opportunity for recipients to apply for the funds quickly and efficiently.
- (f) Except for the purposes of Section 15200, the amounts payable to recipients pursuant to Section 11453.1 shall not constitute part of the payment schedule set forth in subdivision (a) of this section.

The amounts payable to recipients pursuant to Section 11453.1 shall not constitute income to recipients of aid under this section.

SEC. 9.5. Section 11476.6 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

data revealing the range and median time periods by which notification of the receipt of child support payments collected on behalf of a family receiving aid under this chapter is made to the local welfare department. The data shall contain the number and percentage of cases in which the payments described herein are conveyed within the time period prescribed by federal law. By April 1, 1987, the department shall submit to the appropriate policy and fiscal committees of each house of the Legislature a report detailing and analyzing the data received from the district attorneys and explaining whatever failure to satisfy the time limits imposed by the federal law is revealed by the data. The report shall also include an estimate of the time by which an accounting of the amounts of child support received and paid to families pursuant to this section can be provided on a monthly basis to those families.

SEC. 10. Section 14005.8 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14005.8. To the extent required by federal law, families who have at any time ceased to receive public assistance under the Aid to Families with Dependent Children program solely due to the expiration of the provision which permits thirty dollars ($30) plus one-third of an individual's income to be disregarded when determining eligibility shall remain eligible for health care services under Section 14005.1 for a period of nine months.

SEC. 11. Reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code and, if the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

CHAPTER 1403

An act to add Sections 207.1 and 207.2 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to health.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 207.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

- 207.1. (a) Any person who willfully sells, keeps for sale, or offers for sale any food, drug, device, or cosmetic knowing, after a written notice from either (1) a manufacturer, wholesaler, distributor, or importer, or (2) the department or a local health officer that the product linked to an outbreak of illness, injury, or product tampering is being ordered removed from sale by the department pursuant to Section 207, shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not less than two thousand dollars ($2,000) nor more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for each day of violation, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or by both a fine and imprisonment.
- (b) If a second or subsequent violation is committed after a previous conviction under this section has become final, the person shall be punished by a fine of not less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) nor more than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for each day of violation, or by imprisonment in the state prison, or by both a fine and imprisonment.

- (c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the court may suspend the minimum fines provided for in this section if it determines that there are circumstances in mitigation and the court states on the record its reasons for suspending the minimum fine.
- SEC. 2. Section 207.2 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:
- 207.2. Whenever any person violates any provision of Section 207.1, the court may, as a condition of probation, order the defendant to pay, in lieu of any fine, any expenses, both direct and indirect, incurred by a local health department or the State Department of Health Services in monitoring compliance with the order pursuant to Section 207, including, but not limited to, the costs of conducting inspections and imposing embargoes. The total costs payable to the State Department of Health Services and local health entities collectively imposed pursuant to this section shall not exceed the maximum fine for the offense of which the defendant is convicted.

Any amount collected under this section shall be paid into the treasury of the local entity incurring the expenses or, if to reimburse costs of the State Department of Health Services, into the General Fund.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act.

CHAPTER 1404

An act to amend Section 7163 of, and to add Section 7167.5 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to real property, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7163 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7163. (a) No contract for home improvement shall be enforceable against the buyer if the obtaining of a loan for all or a portion of the contract price is a condition precedent to the contract or if the contractor provides financing, or in any manner assists the buyer to obtain a loan or refers the buyer to any person who may loan or arrange a loan for all or a portion of the contract price unless all of the following requirements are satisfied:

(1) The third party, if any, agrees to make the loan.

- (2) The buyer agrees to accept the loan or financing.
- (3) The buyer does not rescind the loan or financing transaction, within the period prescribed for rescission, pursuant to the federal Truth in Lending Act (15 U.S.C. 1601 et seq.) or Regulation Z, if applicable.
- (b) Until the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) of subdivision (a) are satisfied, it shall be unlawful for the contractor to do any of the following:
- (1) Deliver any property or perform any services other than obtaining building permits or other similar services preliminary to the commencement of the home improvement for which no mechanic's lien can be claimed.
- (2) Represent in any manner that the contract is enforceable or that the buyer has any obligation thereunder.

Any violation of this subdivision shall render the contract unenforceable.

- (c) If the contract is unenforceable pursuant to subdivision (a) or subdivision (b), the contractor shall immediately and without condition return all money, property, and other consideration given by the buyer. If the buyer gave any property as consideration and the contractor does not or cannot return it for whatever reason, the contractor shall immediately return the fair market value of the property or its value as designated in the contract, whichever is greater. Nothing herein shall prohibit a contractor from receiving a downpayment otherwise permitted by law provided the contractor returns the downpayment as herein required if the contract is unenforceable pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b).
- (d) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), the buyer may retain without obligation in law or equity any services or property provided pursuant to a contract which is unenforceable pursuant to subdivision (a) or subdivision (b).
- (2) If the contractor has delivered any property to the buyer pursuant to a contract which is unenforceable pursuant to subdivision (a) or subdivision (b), the buyer shall make the property available to the contractor for return provided that all of the following requirements are satisfied:
- (A) The property can be practically returned to the contractor without causing any damage to the buyer.
- (B) The contractor, at the contractor's expense, first returns to the buyer any money, property, and other consideration taken by the contractor provided that the property is returned in the condition that it was in immediately prior to its taking. If applicable, the contractor shall also, at its expense, reinstall any property taken in the manner in which the property had been installed prior to its taking.
- (C) The contractor, at the contractor's expense, picks up the property within 60 days of the execution of the contract.
- (e) For the purpose of this section, "home improvement" means "home improvement" as defined in Section 7151 and also includes swimming pools subject to Section 7167. Goods are included within the definition notwithstanding whether they are to be attached to real property or to be so affixed to real property as to become a part thereof whether or not severable therefrom.

- (f) The rights and remedies provided the buyer under this section are nonexclusive and cumulative to all other rights and remedies under other laws.
- (g) Any waiver of this section shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable. However, the buyer may waive subdivisions (a) and (b) to the extent that the contract is executed in connection with the making of emergency repairs or services which are necessary for the immediate protection of persons or real or personal property. The buyer's waiver for emergency repairs or services shall be in a dated written statement that describes the emergency, states that the contractor has informed the buyer of subdivisions (a) and (b) and that the buyer waives those provisions, and is signed by each owner of the property. Waivers made on printed forms are void and unenforceable.
- SEC. 2. Section 7167.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:
- 7167.5. The requirements of this section may be substituted for the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 7163 if a swimming pool contract is to be financed by a third-party lender and if all the following conditions are met:
- (a) The lender has agreed, in writing, to provide financing to the buyer for the maximum estimated construction cost of the swimming pool.
- (b) The lender has provided the buyer a written copy of the terms and conditions of the loan for the maximum estimated construction cost of the swimming pool, including the following terms disclosed in the manner required by the federal Truth in Lending Act and Regulation Z: the annual percentage rate, the finance charge, the amount financed, the total number of payments, the payment schedule, and a description of the security interest to be taken by the lender
  - (c) The lender has agreed in writing to the following:
- (1) To offer to loan the maximum estimated construction cost on the terms and conditions disclosed pursuant to subdivision (b).
- (2) If the construction cost of the swimming pool is determined after the completion of excavation to be less than the maximum estimated construction cost, to offer to loan the lesser amount needed to complete the construction of the swimming pool on the same security as, and at an annual percentage rate and monthly payment amount not to exceed, that disclosed in subdivision (b).

The lender's written agreement shall state the duration of the offer, which shall not be less than 15 days following the completion of the excavation of the swimming pool.

(d) The buyer acknowledges receipt of the writings required by subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) and, no sooner than three business days after receiving all of these writings, requests on the form prescribed in subdivision (e) that the contractor begin performance of the swimming pool contract prior to the expiration of any rescission period applicable to the loan.

(e) The request of a buyer, described in subdivision (d), shall be set forth on a document separate and apart from the swimming pool contract and shall contain the following notice in at least 10-point type unless otherwise stated:

"NOTICE

Under the law, this contract is not enforceable until:

- (1) A third party agrees to make a loan to finance the construction cost of the swimming pool;
  - (2) You agree to accept the loan; and
- (3) You do not cancel the loan within the period prescribed for cancellation under the federal Truth in Lending Act or Regulation Z (usually three business days after the loan is consummated).

Until the cancellation period is over, the contractor cannot deliver any materials or perform any services except preliminary services for which no mechanic's lien can be claimed.

However, as an alternative to the above, you can ask the contractor to start work and deliver materials before the cancellation period on the loan is over if all of the following have occurred:

- (1) The lender has agreed, in writing, to provide you with financing for up to the maximum estimated construction cost of the swimming pool.
- (2) The lender has provided you with a written copy of the terms and conditions of a loan for the maximum estimated cost, including the annual percentage rate, the finance charge, the amount financed, the total of payments, the payment schedule, and a description of the security interest to be taken by the lender.
- (3) The lender has agreed in writing to offer these terms and conditions for a period not less than 15 days following completion of the excavation of the swimming pool.
- (4) Three business days have passed since you received the writing mentioned in paragraphs (1), (2), and (3), and you then sign a copy of this form to request that the contractor begin construction of the swimming pool before the cancellation period on your loan is over.

The first day you can sign the request for the contractor to begin construction of the swimming pool is (contractor to insert third business day after buyer receives writings described in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c))

If you sign this request, the contractor will be permitted to immediately begin performance of the contract, and if the contractor is not paid in accordance with the terms of the contract, he or she may file a lien against your property for the value of the labor and materials provided. [This paragraph shall be printed in 12-point type.]

REQUEST

I/we request that the contractor immediately start construction of the swimming pool.

Date Buyer(s)"

- (f) The contractor shall provide the buyer a copy of the buyer's signed request at the time of signature.
- (g) This section applies to each buyer who signs the swimming pool contract or the promissory note, other evidence of indebtedness, or security instrument incident to the loan for swimming pool construction.
- (h) For the purpose of this section, "business day" has the meaning provided in Section 9 of the Civil Code.
- SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to clarify, at the earliest possible time, the services that may be rendered for emergency repairs for home improvements and to remove the uncertainty as to when swimming pool construction may commence, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1405

An act to add Article 1.6 (commencing with Section 235) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to the California Nutrition Monitoring Development Act of 1986, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that it is in the state's economic interest and in the interest of the public's health to monitor nutrition factors which affect the productivity and well-being of California's citizens. There is longstanding evidence that poor diet and nutrition contribute profoundly to problems of infant mortality, growth and development, frailty in the elderly, the employability of adults, and the welfare of low-income families. Furthermore, it has become increasingly apparent that diet relates to both optimal health and to the prevention of chronic diseases such as heart disease, cancer, diabetes and osteoporosis.

- (b) The Legislature recognizes that improvements in nutrition are most quickly achieved through organized food and nutrition programs. Both public and private programs require a continuing return of information about the people served, the services provided, and nutrition changes as they occur in order to direct and redirect the services effectively. Although data is collected by a number of programs, there is currently no organized system for state or local government to monitor nutritional and dietary status, related health and economic factors, and the operation of programs which are intended to improve nutritional health and the quality of the food supply.
- (c) The Legislature realizes that determining the magnitude, severity, and causes of undernutrition and food shortages is necessary in California, with particular attention being paid to the operations of government food assistance programs and private sector food banks, pantries, and meal programs.
- (d) The Legislature concurs with findings of previous legislative, administrative, and private bodies regarding the need for ongoing and organized nutrition monitoring. It is the purpose of this act to identify the extent and location of existing, useable nutrition monitoring data and to recommend a mechanism to provide regular reports on this topic.
- (e) It is the intent of the Legislature to determine the feasibility of establishing a prototype nutrition monitoring system, which would publish regular reports on the nutritional status of California's population, on the nutritional quality and healthfulness of its food supply, and the state's ability to deliver food and nutrition services, and would provide information to operate cost-effective services and to target funds where most needed.
- SEC. 2. Article 1.6 (commencing with Section 235) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:
- 235. This article shall be known and may be cited as the "California Nutrition Monitoring Development Act of 1986."
- 236. The Legislature declares that the purposes of this article are to determine the availability and types of nutrition monitoring information that is currently available in specified federal, state and local government programs and in selected private sector programs; to determine what additional information is needed to help legislators, state and local agencies and nongovernment users, to operate cost-effective services and to target funds where most needed; and to assess the feasibility of establishing a prototype state-local data system that will provide regular reports on the: nutritional status and nutrition related health problems of California's population, dietary intake and food consumption patterns, nutrition education information, including knowledge and attitude regarding nutrition, quality and healthfulness of the food supply, nutrition programs and service availability, including population served, service statistics, frequency and periodicals of data collection and types of reports, related socioeconomic factors, and on the state's ability to provide for food and nutrition services where needed.

- 237. (a) The State Department of Health Services shall assess the availability and adequacy of existing state and local food and nutrition data systems. All state departments and agencies which are required to provide data pursuant to this article are encouraged to participate to the fullest extent possible in all aspects of this program and to make their data available to counties upon request.
- (b) The state departments from which existing data shall be provided for project purposes shall include the State Departments of Health Services, Aging, Education, and Social Services. Upon request of the State Department of Health Services, these departments shall existing nutrition-related data collection provide documentation, and reports, including, but not limited to, the following programs: (1) In the Department of Aging: Congregate Nutrition Services, Home Delivered Nutrition Services and the Brown Bag Network. (2) In the State Department of Education: National School Lunch Program, the National School Breakfast Program, the Child Care Food Program, the Special Milk Program, the Nutrition Education and Training Program and the various commodities programs. (3) In the State Department of Health Services: Special Supplemental Food Program for Women, Infants and Children (WIC), the Comprehensive Perinatal Care Program, the Genetics Disease Program, the Child Health and Disability Prevention Program, California Children's Services, County Health Services, Primary Health Services Development, Indian Health Program, Medical Care Services (Medi-Cal), Adult Health, and Vital Statistics. (4) In the State Department of Social Services: the Food Stamp Program.
- (c) The state department may require, with the exception of the University of California, any other state agency, department, board, or commission to provide existing nutrition related data, as described in this article. The state department may request the University of California to provide this data in the case of the University of California Cooperative Extension Program, the Home Economics Program and the Expanded Food and Nutrition Education Program. Additionally, other programs in local government and the private sector, such as local public health and social services departments, food banks, pantries, and meal programs, voluntary health organizations, and charitable social service agencies shall be encouraged to provide available nutrition monitoring information.
- 238. (a) The state department shall conduct a survey of state agencies and of counterpart local and private sector programs which now collect or use nutrition data or both. The state department shall determine user needs for and applications of data, the adequacy of existing data systems, the costs compared to benefits of collecting this information, and recommendations about future data needs.

- (b) The state department shall assess the degree to which data is available to monitor the California Model Standards for Nutrition Services (guidelines for local health departments), the 1990 Nutrition Objectives for the Nation (national health priorities), the nutrition surveillance programs of the United States Centers for Disease Control (prenatal and pediatric surveillance and behavioral risk factors survey related to chronic diseases) and other similar public health objectives.
- (c) The state department shall outline a process for developing a prototype state-local nutrition monitoring system. The prototype system shall be scientifically sound and, insofar as is practicable, compatible with those employed by the United States Department of Agriculture, the United States Department of Health and Human Services, the National Public Health Reporting System, and recommendations by other recognized authorities. The state department shall review existing or proposed systems such as the Statewide Environmental and Evaluation Program System (SWEEPS) and the Nutrition Management Information and Surveillance System (Nutri-MISS) respectively for their applicability to this purpose.
- 239. The state department shall analyze the results of the California Nutrition Monitoring Development Act of 1986 in a report to the Governor and the Legislature. Where feasible and appropriate, other reports on nutritional status within the state department shall be consolidated into one nutritional monitoring report. This report shall include all of the following components:
- (a) The types of data to be collected and reported on shall include, but are not limited, to the data described in Section 236 for purposes of carrying out this article.
- (b) Based upon the findings of subdivision (a), the state department shall identify those areas in which existing data is meeting user needs, areas in which users have identified deficiencies or inefficiencies, and areas in which data collection efforts are not occurring. The state department shall recommend specifications for a suitable data system using microcomputer technology where feasible. The system shall involve state and local government agencies and the private sector.
- (c) Using the data collected in subdivisions (a) and (b), the state department shall identify options for providing data of the type and timeliness needed by local users.
- (d) The state department shall submit its report and recommendations to the Governor and the Legislature no later than January 1, 1988.
- 240. The state department, using applicable state procedures, may contract for any of the services required by this article, in which case the contractor or contractors shall have demonstrated expertise in the fields of nutrition monitoring and epidemiology, nutrition program operations, and community organization.
  - SEC. 3. There is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Department of Health Services the sum of one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) for purposes of carrying out the California Nutrition Monitoring Development Act of 1986, as contained in Article 1.6 (commencing with Section 235) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code. An amount not to exceed twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) of the appropriation may be used, where necessary as determined by the state department, to compensate state agencies or departments for the additional cost of data collection, processing, and special programming. The remainder of this appropriation shall be used for data collection, interpretation, analysis, and evaluation of available statewide and local data.

CHAPTER 1406

An act to amend Sections 14038, 14060, and 14066 of the Government Code, and to amend Section 524 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to transportation, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14038 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14038. (a) The department may purchase, sell, and, lease rail passenger cars and locomotives and other self-propelled rail vehicles.

- (b) The department may acquire, lease, design, construct, and improve track lines and related facilities, and the department may contract with the private sector for the design, improvement, or construction of track lines and related facilities. If a railroad corporation refuses to allow improvements to tracks and related facilities, the Public Utilities Commission shall, within 60 days after application by the department, order the institution of those improvements, if it finds that the improvements are necessary to the safety of the railroad corporation's employees, passengers, customers, and the public, and the operating efficiency of the service for which they are requested.
- (c) All purchases authorized by this section shall be made in accordance with Article 2 (commencing with Section 14790) of Chapter 6 of Part 5.5 of Division 3 of Title 2, except that the department shall perform the tasks set forth therein for the Department of General Services.
- (d) Any facility or equipment acquired or improved by any entity with funds made available to it pursuant to this section shall become the property of that entity at the time and under the conditions as are agreed upon by the department in the agreement that makes the funds available to the entity. Section 14780 does not apply to any agreement entered into pursuant to this section.

- (e) The department shall deposit in the Passenger Equipment Acquisition Fund, for expenditure pursuant to Section 14066, the net proceeds from the sale of rail passenger cars and locomotives and other self-propelled rail vehicles.
- SEC. 2. Section 14060 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14060. The following definitions apply to this article:

- (a) "Equipment" means rail passenger cars, locomotives, other rail vehicles, bus and van fleets, and ferryboats.
- (b) "Equipment obligations" means notes, equipment trust certificates, or other obligations, including grant anticipation notes, issued by the department pursuant to this article to finance the acquisition of equipment.
- (c) "Grant anticipation notes" means notes issued by the department in anticipation of the receipt of funds from the federal or a local government as the proceeds of grants or participation funding for which funds have been appropriated and committed to the department for equipment acquisition.
- (d) "Passenger commute rail capital improvements" includes, but is not limited to, crossings, stations, parking facilities, trackwork, maintenance facilities, and other similar facilities.
- SEC. 3. Section 14066 of the Government Code is amended to read:
- 14066. (a) The Passenger Equipment Acquisition Fund is hereby created in the State Treasury. Notwithstanding Section 13340, all moneys in the fund are continuously appropriated to the department to pay the principal of, interest on, and redemption premium, if any, on equipment obligations, to pay all costs of issuance and sale of equipment obligations, to purchase new and rehabilitate existing equipment, and for passenger commute rail capital improvements.
- (b) The net proceeds derived from the sale and leaseback of equipment made pursuant to this article shall be deposited in the fund.
- SEC. 4. Section 524 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:
- 524. (a) Any common carrier may issue free or reduced rate passenger transportation to the proprietors and employees of newspapers and magazines and the members of their immediate families in exchange for advertising of equal or greater value in that media, subject to reasonable restrictions that the commission may impose.
- (b) The San Francisco-San Jose commute rail service may issue free or reduced rate passenger transportation to the proprietors and employees of the broadcast news media in exchange for advertising of equal or greater value in those media, subject to reasonable restrictions that the commission may impose. On or before January 1, 1989, the Department of Transportation shall review and assess the effectiveness and cost of any advertising program effectuated through exchanges made pursuant to this subdivision.

(c) Passenger stage corporations may issue free or reduced rate passenger transportation to any of their commission agents.

CHAPTER 1407

An act to amend Section 13127 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to pesticides.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13127 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

- 13127. (a) Not later than December 31, 1985, the department shall identify 200 pesticide active ingredients which the department determines have the most significant data gaps, widespread use, and which are suspected to be hazardous to people. Not later than 30 days after the report issued pursuant to Section 13125, the department shall notify each registrant of a pesticide product containing any of the identified 200 pesticide active ingredients of the applicable data gap required to be filled pursuant to this section.
- (b) Not later than December 31, 1985, the department shall also adopt a timetable for the filling of all data gaps on all pesticide active ingredients, other than those identified by the department pursuant to subdivision (a), which are currently registered or licensed in California. The department shall notify registrants of the applicable data gaps and the scheduled time to initiate and complete studies as provided in the timetable.
- (c) (1) Not later than September 1, 1986, the department shall determine whether a test has been initiated to fill each of the data gaps for each pesticide active ingredient identified in subdivision (a). If no test has been initiated, the department shall fill data gaps in accordance with procedures provided in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 136a of Title 7 of the United States Code. In order to carry out this section, the director has the same authority to require information from registrants of active pesticide ingredients that the administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency has pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 136a of Title 7 of the United States Code. On or before July 1, 1986, the director shall, by regulation, prescribe procedures for resolving disputes or funding the filling of data gaps. The procedures may include mediation and arbitration.

The arbitration procedures, insofar as practical, shall be consistent with the federal act, or otherwise shall be in accordance with the commercial arbitration rules established by the American Arbitration Association. The procedures shall be established so as to resolve any dispute within the timetable established in subdivision (a) of Section 13127.

- (2) The department shall also obtain the data which is identified in subdivision (b), according to the timetable and procedures specified in this section.
- (d) (1) Not later than March 1, 1987, the director shall again determine whether tests have been initiated to fill each of the data gaps for each pesticide active ingredient identified in subdivision (a). If the tests have not been initiated or if, having been initiated, the tests are not completed within a reasonable time not to exceed four years, the director shall obtain the required test results. The director may utilize assessments charged to those registrants of the active ingredient for which the data gaps exist in amounts necessary to cover the department's expenses in filling the data gaps. Any assessments shall be made pursuant to Section 12824 of the Food and Agricultural Code. The director may also request an appropriation to be used in combination with assessments to obtain the required test results. The director shall initiate the tests as soon as possible, and the tests shall be completed within a reasonable time, not to exceed four years after initiation.

The director shall furnish not less than 30 days' public notice of any proposed action under this paragraph, stating the reasons therefor and allowing public comment thereon. Copies of this notice and final decision shall be provided to the appropriate committees of the Legislature.

- (2) The director shall monitor compliance with the timetable established pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 13127. If the director determines that tests are not initiated or completed according to the timetable, the director shall obtain the required test results as provided in paragraph (1).
- (e) (1) This section does not apply to any product which the director determines has limited use or that substantial economic hardship would result to users due to unavailability of the product and there is not significant exposure to the public or workers and the product is otherwise in compliance with federal law.
- (2) The director may not, pursuant to this subdivision, exempt all pesticide products containing the same pesticide active ingredient unless it is determined that the pesticide active ingredient has only limited use, there is insignificant exposure to workers or the public, and the products are otherwise in compliance with federal law. Any exemption issued pursuant to this paragraph shall expire at the end of three years after it is issued.
- (f) (1) Whenever the director exercises the authority provided in paragraph (1) of subdivision (e), he or she shall give public notice of the action stating the reasons for exempting the pesticide product from the data requirements of this article. Copies of this notice shall be provided to the appropriate policy committees of the Legislature.

(2) Whenever the director acts pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (e), the director shall furnish not less than 30 days' public notice of the proposed action, stating the reasons for exempting the pesticide product from the data requirements of this article and allowing public comment thereon. Copies of the notice and the final decision shall be provided to the appropriate policy committees of the Legislature.

CHAPTER 1408

An act to amend Sections 4701, and 7006 of the Civil Code, and to amend Sections 11350.1, 11475.1, and 11484 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to actions and proceedings.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4701 of the Civil Code, as amended by Section 3.4 of Chapter 1069 of the Statutes of 1985, is amended to read:

- 4701. (a) (1) On and after January 1, 1987, in any proceeding where the court has ordered either or both parents to pay any amount for the support of a minor child, the court shall order either parent or both parents to assign to an assigned payee, that portion of salary or wages of either parent due or to be due in the future as will be sufficient to pay the amount ordered by the court for the support, maintenance, and education of the minor child, unless the parent ordered to pay support demonstrates to the satisfaction of the court that the support payments ordered will be made. This demonstration may include proof of timely payment of previously ordered support for the minor children subject to the action. The wage assignment shall be ordered at the time of trial or entry of a judgment establishing child support, other than a temporary order pending trial. The order shall operate as an assignment and shall be binding upon any existing or future employer of the obligated parent upon whom a copy of the order is served. Any such order of assignment may be modified at any time by the court, or in the case of an arrearage, revoked as provided in subdivision (b).
- (2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), in any proceeding where the court has ordered either or both parents to pay any amount for the support of a minor child, the court may order either parent or both parents to assign to an assigned payee that portion of salary or wages of either parent due or to be due in the future as will be sufficient to pay the amount ordered by the court for the support, maintenance, and education of the minor child. The order shall operate as an assignment and shall be binding upon any existing or future employer of the obligated parent upon whom a copy of the order is served. Any such order may be modified or revoked at any time by the court.

- (b) (1) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), in any proceeding after January 1, 1987, where the court has ordered either or both parents to pay any amount for the support of a minor child, that order shall contain a provision assigning the wages of the obligor to the assigned payee. Any order for the modification of child support entered after January 1, 1987, which does not otherwise contain a provision for wage assignment, shall also contain a provision assigning the wages of an obligor to the assigned payee. All provisions for wage assignment required pursuant to this subdivision shall be effective only upon an application signed under penalty of perjury by the assigned payee that the obligor is in arrears in payment in a sum equal to the amount of support payable for one month. Upon receipt of the application, the court shall issue, without notice to the obligor, an order requiring the obligor to assign to the payee that portion of the salary or wages of the obligor due or to be due in the future as will be sufficient to pay the amount ordered by the court for the support, maintenance, and education of the minor child. Such an order shall operate as an assignment and shall be binding upon any existing or future employer of the obligor ordered to pay support upon whom a copy of the order is served.
- (2) In cases in which the order for child support does not contain a provision for wage assignment, the application shall state that the assigned payee has given the obligor a written notice of his or her intent to seek a wage assignment in the event of a default in support payments and that the notice was transmitted by certified mail or personally served at least 15 days prior to the date of the filing of the application. The written notice of intent to seek a wage assignment required by this paragraph may be given at the time of filing a petition or complaint for support or at any time subsequent thereto. In addition to any other penalty provided by law, the filing of the application with knowledge of the falsity of the declaration of notice is punishable as a contempt pursuant to Section 1209 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The obligor may at any time waive the written notice required by this subdivision.
- (3) The assigned payee shall notify the employer of the obligor, by any form of mailing requiring a return receipt, of any change of address within a reasonable period of time after the change. In instances in which payments have been ordered to be made to the district attorney, the parent to whom support has been ordered to be paid shall notify the court and the district attorney, by any form of mail requiring a return receipt, of any address change within a reasonable period of time after any such change. If the employer or district attorney is unable to deliver payments under the assignment for a period of six months due to the failure of the individual to whom support has been ordered to be paid to notify the employer or district attorney of a change of address, the employer or district attorney shall not make any further payments under the assignment and shall return all undeliverable payments to the employee.

- (4) An assignment order made pursuant to this subdivision shall not become effective until 10 days after service of the order on an employer.
- (5) Within 10 days of service of an assignment order issued pursuant to this subdivision on an employer, the employer shall deliver a copy of the assignment order to the obligor, together with a written statement of the obligor's rights under the law to move to quash the assignment. The Judicial Council shall adopt a form for the statement.
- (6) An obligor alleged to be in default may move to quash an assignment order issued under this subdivision within 10 days after service on the obligor of notice of the assignment order by his or her employer if the obligor states under oath that there is an error in the amount of current or overdue support, that the alleged obligor is not the obligor from whom support is due, or that the amount to be withheld exceeds that allowable under federal law in subsection (b) Section 1673 of Title 15 of the United States Code, to the extent that the amount required to be withheld exceeds the limits specified in federal law. The obligor may also move to quash the assignment if he or she states under oath that a default in payment in a sum equal to the amount of support payable for one month has not occurred. The motion and notice of motion to quash the assignment order shall be filed with the court issuing the assignment order within 10 days after service on the obligor of notice of the order by the employer. The clerk of the court shall set the motion to quash for hearing within not less than 15 days, nor more than 20 days, after receipt of the notice of motion and shall mail to the petitioner at the return address contained in the petition a copy of the notice of motion by first-class mail within five days after receipt of the notice of motion. If a finding of an error in the amount of overdue support results in an amount due which is less than one month's support, the assignment of wages shall be quashed accordingly. However, if a finding of an error in the amount of overdue support results in an amount in excess of one month's support, such a finding in the amount of overdue support shall not affect the assignment of that portion of the obligor's wages withheld to pay for current support. A finding of an error in the amount of current support subject to withholding does not affect the assignment of that portion of the obligor's wages withheld to pay overdue support.
- (7) The employer shall continue to withhold and forward support as ordered by the court until served with notice that the motion to quash under this subdivision has been granted. The employer shall send the amounts withheld to the assigned payee within 10 days of the date the obligor is paid. An employer who willfully fails to withhold and forward support pursuant to a currently valid order

- entered and served upon the employer pursuant to this section is liable to the assigned payee for the amount of support not withheld, forwarded, or otherwise paid to the assigned payee. Willful failure by an employer to comply with such an order is punishable as a contempt pursuant to Section 1218 of the Code of Civil Procedure.
- (8) The due date of support payments under this subdivision shall be the date specifically stated in the order of support or if no date is stated in the support order, then it shall be the last day of the month in which the support payment is to be paid.
- (9) For purposes of this subdivision, arrearages of payment shall be computed on the basis of the payments owed and unpaid on the date that the obligor has been given notice of the order of assignment and the fact that the obligor may have subsequently paid the arrearages shall not relieve the court of its duty under this subdivision to enter the order for the assignment.
- (10) Upon a notice of motion by the obligor, the court shall terminate an order of assignment entered pursuant to this subdivision if past due support has been paid in full and if one of the following conditions exists: (A) The employer or district attorney has been unable to deliver payments under the assignment for a period of six months due to the failure of the person to whom support has been ordered to be paid to notify the employer or district attorney of a change of address; or (B) The death or emancipation of the child to whom support is owed; or (C) The assignment has continued for 24 months after payment in full of any past due support. However, if the assignment was pursuant to a second or subsequent application, it shall not be terminated unless, upon a petition by the parent ordered to pay support, the court determines that there is good cause to terminate the assignment.
- (11) The amounts withheld under this subdivision shall include both current support and payments towards the liquidation of arrearages. However, priority shall be given to the current support obligation.
- (c) The Judicial Council shall prescribe forms for the orders for wage assignment required or authorized by this section. The employer may deduct from the salary or wages of the employee the sum of one dollar ($1) for each payment made pursuant to the order. Any such assignment made pursuant to court order shall have priority as against any attachment, execution, or other assignment, unless otherwise ordered by the court.
- (d) The employer shall cooperate with and provide relevant employment information to the district attorney for the purpose of enforcing the child support obligation. The state agency or the local agency designated to enforce child support obligations, as required by federal law, shall allow employers to simplify the process of wage withholding by forwarding, as ordered by the court, the amounts of support withheld under more than one court order in a consolidated check.
  - (e) Orders for wage assignment required or authorized by this - section shall include a requirement that the parent ordered to pay support notify the parent or other person designated to receive payment of any change of employment and of the name and address of his or her new employer.

- (f) No employer shall use any assignment authorized by this section as grounds refusing to hire a person or for discharging or taking disciplinary action against an employee. An employer who engages in the conduct prohibited by this subdivision may be assessed a civil penalty of a maximum of five hundred dollars ($500).
- (g) As used in this section "employer" includes the United States government and any public entity as defined in Section 811.2 of the Government Code.
- (h) On declaration or affidavit of the parent to whom support has been ordered to be paid to the court that: (1) the parent ordered to make support payments is in default in the payment in the amount specified in subdivision (b), and (2) the whereabouts of the defaulting parent or the identity of his or her employer are unknown to the parent to whom support has been ordered to be paid, the district attorney shall contact the central registry maintained by the Department of Justice in the manner prescribed in Section 11478.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and upon receiving the requested information, notify the court of the last known address of the absent parent and the name and address of the absent parent's last known employer. The court shall then order the defaulting parent to make support payments pursuant to subdivision (b).
- (i) Nothing in this section limits the authority of the district attorney to utilize any and all civil and criminal remedies to enforce child support obligations regardless of whether or not the custodial parent receives welfare moneys.
- (j) This section applies to the money and benefits described in Sections 704.110 and 704.113 of the Code of Civil Procedure to the extent that the money and benefits are subject to a wage assignment for support under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 703.010) of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.
- (k) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, when a certified copy of any order of assignment is served on any public entity described in Section 704.110 of the Code of Civil Procedure other than the United States government, that entity shall comply with any request for a return of employee contributions by an employee named in that order by delivering the contributions to the clerk of the court from which the order issued, unless the entity has received a certified copy of an order terminating the order of assignment. Upon receipt of moneys pursuant to this section, the clerk of the court, within 10 days, shall send written notice of that fact to the parties, and any agency through whom payments have been ordered under Section 4702. These moneys shall be subject to any procedure available to enforce an order for child support, but if no enforcement procedure is commenced after 30 days have elapsed from the date the notice of receipt is sent, the clerk shall, upon request, return the moneys to the public entity that delivered the moneys to the court unless the public entity has informed the court in writing that the moneys shall be released to the defaulting parent. A court shall not directly or indirectly condition the issuance, modification, or termination of, or condition the terms or conditions of, any order for the support of a minor child upon the issuance of such a request by such an employee.

(l) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (b), in any case where support is ordered to be paid through the district attorney for those purposes, or in any case in which a district attorney so requests, the court shall issue an order for a wage assignment pursuant to this section.

In any such case in which an arrearage is alleged, the party ordered to pay support may move to quash the order for wage assignment in the manner specified in subdivision (b), but a finding of error in the amount of the arrearage is not sufficient in and of itself to quash the wage assignment for that portion of the obligor's wages withheld to pay current support.

As used in this subdivision, "wage assignment" has the same meaning as "assignment" and "wage assignment" in subdivisions (a) and (b).

- (m) As used in this section, "assigned payee" means either the person to whom support has been ordered to have been paid or the district attorney, designated by the court to receive the payment. For the purposes of this section, the district attorney shall be the assigned payee for all cases in which an application for services has been filed under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act.
- (n) In any case where support for a minor child is ordered to be paid through the county officer designated by the court for that purpose, and where support is being paid on behalf of a minor child not receiving public assistance pursuant to the Family Economic Security Act of 1982 (Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code), the county shall forward the support received to the minor child's custodial parent within seven days of receipt.
  - (o) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1987.
  - SEC. 2. Section 7006 of the Civil Code is amended to read:
- 7006. (a) A child, the child's natural mother, or a man presumed to be the child's father under paragraph (1), (2), or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 7004, may bring an action as follows:
- (1) At any time for the purpose of declaring the existence of the father and child relationship presumed under paragraph (1), (2), or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 7004.
- (2) For the purpose of declaring the nonexistence of the father and child relationship presumed under paragraph (1), (2), or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 7004 only if the action is brought within a reasonable time after obtaining knowledge of relevant facts. After the presumption has been rebutted, paternity of the child by another man may be determined in the same action, if he has been made a party.

- (b) Any interested party may bring an action at any time for the purpose of determining the existence or nonexistence of the father and child relationship presumed under paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 7004.
- (c) An action to determine the existence of the father and child relationship with respect to a child who has no presumed father under Section 7004 or whose presumed father is deceased may be brought by the child or personal representative of the child, the State Department of Social Services, the mother or the personal representative or a parent of the mother if the mother has died or is a minor, a man alleged or alleging himself to be the father, or the personal representative or a parent of the alleged father if the alleged father has died or is a minor. The commencement of such an action shall suspend any pending proceeding in connection with the adoption of such child, including a proceeding pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 7017, until a judgment in the action is final.
- (d) Except as to cases coming within the provisions of Section 621 of the Evidence Code, a man not a presumed father may bring an action for the purpose of declaring that he is the natural father of a child having a presumed father under Section 7004, if the mother relinquishes for, consents to, or proposes to relinquish for or consent to, the adoption of the child. Such an action shall be brought within 30 days after the man is served as prescribed in subdivision (f) of Section 7017 with a notice that he is or could be the father of such child or the birth of the child, whichever is later. The commencement of such an action shall suspend any pending proceeding in connection with the adoption of the child until a judgment in the action is final.
- (e) Regardless of its terms, an agreement between an alleged or presumed father and the mother or child does not bar an action under this section.
- (f) An action under this section may be brought before the birth of the child.
- (g) The district attorney may also, at his or her discretion, bring an action under this section in any case in which the district attorney believes it to be appropriate.
  - SEC. 3. Section 7006 of the Civil Code is amended to read:
- 7006. (a) A child, the child's natural mother, or a man presumed to be the child's father under paragraph (1), (2), or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 7004, may bring an action as follows:
- (1) At any time for the purpose of declaring the existence of the father and child relationship presumed under paragraph (1), (2), or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 7004.
- (2) For the purpose of declaring the nonexistence of the father and child relationship presumed under paragraph.(1), (2), or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 7004 only if the action is brought within a reasonable time after obtaining knowledge of relevant facts. After the presumption has been rebutted, paternity of the child by another man may be determined in the same action, if he has been made a party.

- (b) Any interested party may bring an action at any time for the purpose of determining the existence or nonexistence of the father and child relationship presumed under paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 7004.
- (c) An action to determine the existence of the father and child relationship with respect to a child who has no presumed father under Section 7004 or whose presumed father is deceased may be brought by the child or personal representative of the child, the State Department of Social Services, the mother or the personal representative or a parent of the mother if the mother has died or is a minor, a man alleged or alleging himself to be the father, or the personal representative or a parent of the alleged father if the alleged father has died or is a minor. Such an action shall be consolidated with a proceeding pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 7017. The parental rights of the alleged natural father shall be determined as set forth in subdivision (d) of Section 7017.
- (d) Except as to cases coming within the provisions of Section 621 of the Evidence Code, a man not a presumed father may bring an action for the purpose of declaring that he is the natural father of a child having a presumed father under Section 7004, if the mother relinquishes for, consents to, or proposes to relinquish for or consent to, the adoption of the child. Such an action shall be brought within 30 days after the man is served as prescribed in subdivision (f) of Section 7017 with a notice that he is or could be the father of the child or the birth of the child, whichever is later. The commencement of the action shall suspend any pending proceeding in connection with the adoption of the child until a judgment in the action is final.
- (e) Regardless of its terms, an agreement between an alleged or presumed father and the mother or child does not bar an action under this section.
- (f) An action under this section may be brought before the birth of the child.
- (g) The district attorney may also, at his or her discretion, bring an action under this section in any case in which the district attorney believes it to be appropriate.
- SEC. 4. Section 11350.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:
- 11350.1. Notwithstanding any other statute, in any action brought by the district attorney for child support of a minor child or children, the action may be prosecuted in the name of the county on behalf of the child, children or caretaker parent. The mother shall not be a necessary party in the action but may be subpoenaed as a witness. In an action under this section there shall be no joinder of actions, or coordination of actions, or cross-complaints, and the issues shall be limited strictly to the question of paternity, if applicable, and child support. A final determination of parentage may be made in any such action as an incident to obtaining an order for support. An action for support or paternity pursuant to this section shall not be delayed or stayed because of the pendency of any other action between the parties.

In any action to enforce a spousal support order the action may be pled in the name of the county in the same manner as an action to establish a child support obligation. The same restrictions on joinder of actions, coordination of actions, and cross-complaints, and delay because of the pendency of any other action as relates to actions to establish a child support obligation shall also apply to actions to enforce a spousal support order. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the parties from bringing an independent action under the Family Law Act (Part 5 (commencing with Section 4000) of Division 4 of the Civil Code) or otherwise, and litigating the issue of support. In such event, the court in those proceedings shall make an independent determination on the issue of support which shall supersede the support order made pursuant to this section.

SEC. 5. Section 11475.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

(a) Each county shall maintain a single organizational 11475.1. unit located in the office of the district attorney which shall have the responsibility for promptly and effectively enforcing child and spousal support obligations and determining paternity in the case of a child born out of wedlock. The district attorney shall take appropriate action, both civil and criminal, to enforce this obligation when the child is receiving public assistance, and when requested to do so by the individual on whose behalf the enforcement efforts will be made when the child is not receiving public assistance. To the extent required by federal law, actions brought by the district attorney to establish or enforce support obligations in all cases, other than paternity cases or those cases involving complex issues, shall be completed within the following time limits: (1) 90 percent of the actions shall be completed within three months from the date of service; (2) 98 percent of the actions shall be completed within six months from the date of service; and (3) 100 percent of the actions shall be completed within 12 months from the date of service. As used in this section, "service" means the service of process required by law for the particular proceeding. This responsibility applies to spousal support only where the spousal support obligation has been reduced to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction. In any action brought or enforcement proceedings instituted by the district attorney pursuant to this section for payment of child or spousal support, an action to recover an arrearage in support payments may be maintained by the district attorney at any time within the period otherwise specified for the enforcement of a support judgment, notwithstanding the fact that the child has attained the age of majority. The county shall undertake an outreach program to inform the public that this service is available to persons not receiving public assistance. There shall be prominently displayed in every public area of every office of the units established by this section a notice, in clear and simple language prescribed by the Director of Social Services, that child and spousal support enforcement services are provided to all individuals whether or not they are recipients of public social services.

In any action for child support brought by the district attorney in the performance of duties under this section, the district attorney may make a motion for an order effective during the pendency of that action, for the support, maintenance, and education of the child or children that are the subject of the action. This order shall be referred to as an order for temporary support. This order shall have the same force and effect as a like or similar order under the Family Law Act (Part 5 (commencing with Section 4000) of Division 4 of the Civil Code).

The district attorney shall file a motion for an order for temporary support within the following time limits:

- (1) If the defendant is the mother, a presumed father under subdivision (a) of Section 7004 of the Civil Code, or any father where the child is at least six months old when the defendant files his answer, the time limit is 90 days after the defendant files an answer.
- (2) In any other case where the defendant has filed an answer prior to the birth of the child or not more than six months after the birth of the child, then the time limit is nine months after the birth of the child.

If more than one child is the subject of the action, the limitation on reimbursement shall apply only as to those children whose parental relationship and age would bar recovery were a separate action brought for support of that child or those children.

If the district attorney fails to file a motion for an order for temporary support within time limits specified in this section, the district attorney shall be barred from obtaining a judgment of reimbursement for any support provided for that child during the period between the date the time limit expired and the motion was filed, or, if no such motion is filed, when a final judgment is entered.

Nothing in this section prohibits the district attorney from entering into cooperative arrangements with other county departments as necessary to carry out the responsibilities imposed by this section pursuant to plans of cooperation with the departments approved by the State Department of Social Services.

Nothing in this section shall otherwise limit the ability of the district attorney from securing and enforcing orders for support of a spouse or former spouse as authorized under any other provision of law.

As used in this subdivision, "complex issues" means issues arising in the following types of cases: (1) any case which could directly result in a person's incarceration; (2) any case involving the right to jury trial; and (3) any case so deemed by a commissioner, a referee, or a superior court judge.

(b) As used in this article, "enforcing obligations" includes, but is not limited to, (1) the use of all interception and notification systems operated by the State Department of Social Services for the purposes of aiding in the enforcement of support obligations and (2) the obtaining by the district attorney of an initial order for child support, by civil or criminal process, without regard to whether the child is receiving public assistance.

- (c) As used in this section "out of wedlock" means that the biological parents of the child were not married to each other at the time of the child's conception.
- (d) The district attorney is the public agency responsible for administering wage withholding for the purposes of Title IV-D of the Social Security Act.
- SEC. 6. Section 11484 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:
- 11484. If aid has been applied for or granted to a child of parents who are divorced or legally separated, or who are engaged in a divorce or separate maintenance action which is pending, or there has been an action to determine parentage, the district attorney may apply to the superior court in that action, either by notice of motion or order to show cause, to determine any of the following:
  - (1) Why an order of support for the child should not be entered.
- (2) Why the amount of support previously ordered should not be increased.
- (3) Why the parent should not be held in contempt for his or her failure to comply with any order of support previously entered.
- SEC. 7. Section 3 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 7006 of the Civil Code proposed by both this bill and SB 903. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1986, (2) each bill amends Section 7006 of the Civil Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 903, in which case Section 2 of this bill shall not become operative.
- SEC. 8. The Legislature declares that this act mandates a new program or higher level of service on local government. As required by Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code and, if the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

CHAPTER 1409

An act to amend Section 4701 of the Civil Code, relating to support.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4701 of the Civil Code, as amended by Section 3.4 of Chapter 1069 of the Statutes of 1985, is amended to read:

- 4701. (a) In any proceeding where the court has ordered either or both parents to pay any amount for the support of a minor child, the court may order either parent or both parents to assign to either the person to whom support has been ordered to have been paid or the district attorney designated by the court to receive the payment, that portion of salary or wages of either parent due or to be due in the future as will be sufficient to pay the amount ordered by the court for the support, maintenance, and education of the minor child. The order shall operate as an assignment and shall be binding upon any existing or future employer of the defaulting parent upon whom a copy of the order is served. Any such order may be modified or revoked at any time by the court.
- (b) (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a), in any proceeding after January 1, 1987, where the court has ordered either or both parents to pay any amount for the support of a minor child, that order shall contain a provision assigning the wages of the obligor to the assigned payee. Any order for the modification of child support entered after January 1, 1987, which does not otherwise contain a provision for wage assignment, shall also contain a provision assigning the wages of an obligor to the assigned payee. All provisions for wage assignment required pursuant to this subdivision shall be effective only upon an application signed under penalty of perjury by the assigned payee that the obligor is in arrears in payment in a sum equal to the amount of support payable for one month. Upon receipt of the application, the court shall issue, without notice to the obligor, an order requiring the obligor to assign to the payee that portion of the salary or wages of the obligor due or to be due in the future as will be sufficient to pay the amount ordered by the court for the support, maintenance, and education of the minor child. Such an order shall operate as an assignment and shall be binding upon any existing or future employer of the obligor ordered to pay support upon whom a copy of the order is served.
- (2) In cases in which the order for child support does not contain a provision for wage assignment, the application shall state that the assigned payee has given the obligor a written notice of his or her intent to seek a wage assignment in the event of a default in support payments and that the notice was transmitted by certified mail or personally served at least 15 days prior to the date of the filing of the application. The written notice of intent to seek a wage assignment required by this paragraph may be given at the time of filing a petition or complaint for support or at any time subsequent thereto. In addition to any other penalty provided by law, the filing of the application with knowledge of the falsity of the declaration of notice is punishable as a contempt pursuant to Section 1209 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The obligor may at any time waive the written notice required by this subdivision.

- (3) The assigned payee shall notify the employer of the obligor, by any form of mailing requiring a return receipt, of any change of address within a reasonable period of time after the change. In instances in which payments have been ordered to be made to the district attorney, the parent to whom support has been ordered to be paid shall notify the court and the district attorney, by any form of mail requiring a return receipt, of any address change within a reasonable period of time after any such change. If the employer or district attorney is unable to deliver payments under the assignment for a period of six months due to the failure of the individual to whom support has been ordered to be paid to notify the employer or district attorney of a change of address, the employer or district attorney shall not make any further payments under the assignment and shall return all undeliverable payments to the employee.
- (4) An assignment order made pursuant to this subdivision shall not become effective until 10 days after service of the order on an employer.
- (5) Within 10 days of service of an assignment order issued pursuant to this subdivision on an employer, the employer shall deliver a copy of the assignment order to the obligor, together with a written statement of the obligor's rights under the law to move to quash the assignment. The Judicial Council shall adopt a form for the statement.
- (6) An obligor alleged to be in default may move to quash an assignment order issued under this subdivision within 10 days after service on the obligor of notice of the assignment order by his or her employer if the obligor states under oath that there is an error in the amount of current or overdue support, that the alleged obligor is not the obligor from whom support is due, or that the amount to be withheld exceeds that allowable under federal law in subdivision (b) Section 1673 of Title 15 of the United States Code, to the extent that the amount required to be withheld exceeds the limits specified in federal law. The obligor may also move to quash the assignment if he or she states under oath that a default in payment in a sum equal to the amount of support payable for one month has not occurred. The motion and notice of motion to quash the assignment order shall be filed with the court issuing the assignment order within 10 days after service on the obligor of notice of the order by the employer. The clerk of the court shall set the motion to quash for hearing within not less than 15 days, nor more than 20 days, after receipt of the notice of motion and shall mail to the petitioner at the return address contained in the petition a copy of the notice of motion by first-class mail within five days after receipt of the notice of motion. If a finding of an error in the amount of overdue support results in an amount due which is less than one month's support, the assignment of wages shall be quashed accordingly. However, if a finding of an error in the amount of overdue support results in an amount in excess of one month's support, such a finding in the amount of overdue support shall not affect the assignment of that portion of the obligor's wages withheld to pay for current support. A finding of an error in the amount of current support subject to withholding does not affect the assignment of that portion of the obligor's wages withheld to pay overdue support.

- (7) The employer shall continue to withhold and forward support as ordered by the court until served with notice that the motion to quash under this subdivision has been granted. The employer shall send the amounts withheld to the assigned payee within 10 days of the date the obligor is paid. An employer who willfully fails to withhold and forward support pursuant to a currently valid order entered and served upon the employer pursuant to this section is liable to the assigned payee for the amount of support not withheld, forwarded, or otherwise paid to the assigned payee. Willful failure by an employer to comply with such an order is punishable as a contempt pursuant to Section 1218 of the Code of Civil Procedure.
- (8) The due date of support payments under this subdivision shall be the date specifically stated in the order of support or if no date is stated in the support order, then it shall be the last day of the month in which the support payment is to be paid.
- (9) For purposes of this subdivision, arrearages of payment shall be computed on the basis of the payments owed and unpaid on the date that the obligor has been given notice of the order of assignment and the fact that the obligor may have subsequently paid the arrearages shall not relieve the court of its duty under this subdivision to enter the order for the assignment.
- (10) Upon a notice of motion by the obligor, the court shall terminate an order of assignment entered pursuant to this subdivision if past due support has been paid in full and if one of the following conditions exists: (A) The employer or district attorney has been unable to deliver payments under the assignment for a period of six months due to the failure of the person to whom support has been ordered to be paid to notify the employer or district attorney of a change of address; or (B) The death or emancipation of the child to whom support is owed; or
- (c) The assignment has continued for 24 months after payment in full of any past due support. However, if the assignment was pursuant to a second or subsequent application, it shall not be terminated unless, upon a petition by the parent ordered to pay support, the court determines that there is good cause to terminate the assignment.

- (11) The amounts withheld under this subdivision shall include both current support and payments towards the liquidation of arrearages. However, priority shall be given to the current support obligation.
- (c) The Judicial Council shall prescribe forms for the orders for wage assignment required or authorized by this section. The employer may deduct from the salary or wages of the employee the sum of one dollar ($1) for each payment made pursuant to the order. Any such assignment made pursuant to court order shall have priority as against any attachment, execution, or other assignment, unless otherwise ordered by the court.
- (d) The employer shall cooperate with and provide relevant employment information to the district attorney for the purpose of enforcing the child support obligation. The state agency or the local agency designated to enforce child support obligations, as required by federal law, shall allow employers to simplify the process of wage withholding by forwarding, as ordered by the court, the amounts of support withheld under more than one court order in a consolidated check.
- (e) Orders for wage assignment required or authorized by this section shall include a requirement that the obligor notify the assigned payee of any change of employment and of the name and address of his or her new employer.
- (f) No employer shall use any assignment authorized by this section as grounds refusing to hire a person or for discharging or taking disciplinary action against an employee. An employer who engages in the conduct prohibited by this subdivision may be assessed a civil penalty of a maximum of five hundred dollars ($500).
- (g) As used in this section "employer" includes the United States government and any public entity as defined in Section 811.2 of the Government Code.
- (h) On declaration or affidavit of the parent to whom support has been ordered to be paid to the court that: (1) the parent ordered to make support payments is in default in the payment in the amount specified in subdivision (b), and (2) the whereabouts of the defaulting parent or the identity of his or her employer are unknown to the parent to whom support has been ordered to be paid, the district attorney shall contact the central registry maintained by the Department of Justice in the manner prescribed in Section 11478.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and upon receiving the requested information, notify the court of the last known address of the absent parent and the name and address of the absent parent's last known employer. The court shall then order the defaulting parent to make support payments pursuant to subdivision (b).
- (i) Nothing in this section shall limit the authority of the district attorney to utilize any and all civil and criminal remedies to enforce child support obligations regardless of whether or not the custodial parent receives welfare moneys.
  - (j) This section applies to the money and benefits described in Sections 704.110 and 704.113 of the Code of Civil Procedure to the extent that the money and benefits are subject to a wage assignment for support under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 703.010) of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

- (k) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, when a certified copy of any order of assignment is served on any public entity described in Section 704.110 of the Code of Civil Procedure other than the United States government, that entity shall comply with any request for a return of employee contributions by an employee named in order by delivering the contributions to the clerk of the court from which the order issued, unless the entity has received a certified copy of an order terminating the order of assignment. Upon receipt of moneys pursuant to this section, the clerk of the court, within 10 days, shall send written notice of the fact to the parties, and any agency through whom payments have been ordered under Section 4702. These moneys shall be subject to any procedure available to enforce an order for child support, but if no enforcement procedure is commenced after 30 days have elapsed from the date the notice of receipt is sent, the clerk shall, upon request, return the moneys to the public entity that delivered the moneys to the court unless the public entity has informed the court in writing that the moneys shall be released to the defaulting obligor. A court shall not directly or indirectly condition the issuance, modification, or termination of, or condition the terms or conditions of, any order for the support of a minor child upon the issuance of such a request by such an employee.
- (l) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (b), in any case where support is ordered to be paid through the district attorney for those purposes, or upon the district attorney's or obligor's request, the court shall issue an order for a wage assignment pursuant to this section.

In any such case in which an arrearage is alleged, the party ordered to pay support may move to quash the order for wage assignment in the manner specified in subdivision (b), but a finding of error in the amount of the arrearage is not sufficient in and of itself to quash the wage assignment for that portion of the obligor's wages withheld to pay current support.

As used in this subdivision, "wage assignment" has the same meaning as "assignment" and "wage assignment" in subdivisions (a) and (b).

- (m) As used in this section, "assigned payee" means either the person to whom support has been ordered to have been paid or the district attorney, designated by the court to receive the payment. For the purposes of this section, the district attorney shall be the assigned payee for all cases in which an application for services has been filed under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act.
- (n) In any case where support for a minor child is ordered to be paid through the district attorney on behalf of a minor child not receiving public assistance pursuant to the Family Economic Security Act of 1982 (Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code), the district attorney shall forward the support received to the custodial parent or other person having care or control of the minor child or children involved within seven working days of receipt.

(o) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1987.

SEC. 2. Section 4701 of the Civil Code, as amended by Section 3.4 of Chapter 1069 of the Statutes of 1985, is amended to read:

- 4701. (a) (1) On and after January 1, 1987, in any proceeding where the court has ordered either or both parents to pay any amount for the support of a minor child, the court shall order either parent or both parents to assign to an assigned payee, that portion of salary or wages of either parent due or to be due in the future as will be sufficient to pay the amount ordered by the court for the support, maintenance, and education of the minor child, unless the parent ordered to pay support demonstrates to the satisfaction of the court that the support payments ordered will be made. This demonstration may include proof of timely payment of previously ordered support for the minor children subject to the action. The wage assignment shall be ordered at the time of trial or entry of a judgment establishing child support, other than a temporary order pending trial. The order shall operate as an assignment and shall be binding upon any existing or future employer of the obligated parent upon whom a copy of the order is served. Any such order of assignment may be modified at any time by the court or, in the case of an arrearage, revoked as provided in subdivision (b).
- (2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), in any proceeding where the court has ordered either or both parents to pay any amount for the support of a minor child, the court may order either parent or both parents to assign to an assigned payee that portion of salary or wages of either parent due or to be due in the future as will be sufficient to pay the amount ordered by the court for the support, maintenance, and education of the minor child. The order shall operate as an assignment and shall be binding upon any existing or future employer of the obligated parent upon whom a copy of the order is served. Any such order may be modified or revoked at any time by the court.
- (b) (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a), in any proceeding after January 1, 1987, where the court has ordered either or both parents to pay any amount for the support of a minor child, that order shall contain a provision assigning the wages of the obligor to the assigned payee. Any order for the modification of child support entered after January 1, 1987, which does not otherwise contain a provision for wage assignment, shall also contain a provision assigning the wages of an obligor to the assigned payee. All provisions for wage assignment required pursuant to this subdivision shall be effective only upon an application signed under penalty of perjury by the assigned payee that the obligor is in arrears in payment in a sum equal to the amount of support payable for one month. Upon receipt of the application, the court shall issue, without notice to the obligor, an order requiring the obligor to assign to the payee that portion of the salary or wages of the obligor due or to be due in the future as will be sufficient to pay the amount ordered by the court for the support, maintenance, and education of the minor child. Such an order shall operate as an assignment and shall be binding upon any existing or future employer of the obligor ordered to pay support upon whom a copy of the order is served.

- (2) In cases in which the order for child support does not contain a provision for wage assignment, the application shall state that the assigned payee has given the obligor a written notice of his or her intent to seek a wage assignment in the event of a default in support payments and that the notice was transmitted by certified mail or personally served at least 15 days prior to the date of the filing of the application. The written notice of intent to seek a wage assignment required by this paragraph may be given at the time of filing a petition or complaint for support or at any time subsequent thereto. In addition to any other penalty provided by law, the filing of the application with knowledge of the falsity of the declaration of notice is punishable as a contempt pursuant to Section 1209 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The obligor may at any time waive the written notice required by this subdivision.
- (3) The assigned payee shall notify the employer of the obligor, by any form of mailing requiring a return receipt, of any change of address within a reasonable period of time after the change. In instances in which payments have been ordered to be made to the district attorney, the parent to whom support has been ordered to be paid shall notify the court and the district attorney, by any form of mail requiring a return receipt, of any address change within a reasonable period of time after any such change. If the employer or district attorney is unable to deliver payments under the assignment for a period of six months due to the failure of the individual to whom support has been ordered to be paid to notify the employer or district attorney of a change of address, the employer or district attorney shall not make any further payments under the assignment and shall return all undeliverable payments to the employee.
- (4) An assignment order made pursuant to this subdivision shall not become effective until 10 days after service of the order on an employer.
- (5) Within 10 days of service of an assignment order issued pursuant to this subdivision on an employer, the employer shall deliver a copy of the assignment order to the obligor, together with a written statement of the obligor's rights under the law to move to quash the assignment. The Judicial Council shall adopt a form for the statement.
- (6) An obligor alleged to be in default may move to quash an assignment order issued under this subdivision within 10 days after service on the obligor of notice of the assignment order by his or her employer if the obligor states under oath that there is an error in the amount of current or overdue support, that the alleged obligor is not the obligor from whom support is due, or that the amount to be withheld exceeds that allowable under federal law in subdivision (b) Section 1673 of Title 15 of the United States Code, to the extent that the amount required to be withheld exceeds the limits specified in federal law. The obligor may also move to quash the assignment if he or she states under oath that a default in payment in a sum equal to the amount of support payable for one month has not occurred. The motion and notice of motion to quash the assignment order shall be filed with the court issuing the assignment order within 10 days after service on the obligor of notice of the order by the employer. The clerk of the court shall set the motion to quash for hearing within not less than 15 days, nor more than 20 days, after receipt of the notice of motion and shall mail to the petitioner at the return address contained in the petition a copy of the notice of motion by first-class mail within five days after receipt of the notice of motion. If a finding of an error in the amount of overdue support results in an amount due which is less than one month's support, the assignment of wages shall be quashed accordingly. However, if a finding of an error in the amount of overdue support results in an amount in excess of one month's support, such a finding in the amount of overdue support shall not affect the assignment of that portion of the obligor's wages withheld to pay for current support. A finding of an error in the amount of current support subject to withholding does not affect the assignment of that portion of the obligor's wages withheld to pay overdue support.

- (7) The employer shall continue to withhold and forward support as ordered by the court until served with notice that the motion to quash under this subdivision has been granted. The employer shall send the amounts withheld to the assigned payee within 10 days of the date the obligor is paid. An employer who willfully fails to withhold and forward support pursuant to a currently valid order entered and served upon the employer pursuant to this section is liable to the assigned payee for the amount of support not withheld, forwarded, or otherwise paid to the assigned payee. Willful failure by an employer to comply with such an order is punishable as a contempt pursuant to Section 1218 of the Code of Civil Procedure.
- (8) The due date of support payments under this subdivision shall be the date specifically stated in the order of support or if no date is stated in the support order, then it shall be the last day of the month in which the support payment is to be paid.
- (9) For purposes of this subdivision, arrearages of payment shall be computed on the basis of the payments owed and unpaid on the date that the obligor has been given notice of the order of assignment and the fact that the obligor may have subsequently paid the arrearages shall not relieve the court of its duty under this subdivision to enter the order for the assignment.
- (10) Upon a notice of motion by the obligor, the court shall terminate an order of assignment entered pursuant to this subdivision if past due support has been paid in full and if one of the following conditions exists: (A) The employer or district attorney has been unable to deliver payments under the assignment for a period of six months due to the failure of the person to whom support has been ordered to be paid to notify the employer or district attorney of a change of address; or (B) the death or emancipation of the child to whom support is owed; or (C) the assignment has continued for 24 months after payment in full of any past due support. However, if the assignment was pursuant to a second or subsequent application, it shall not be terminated unless, upon a petition by the parent ordered to pay support, the court determines that there is good cause to terminate the assignment.

- (11) The amounts withheld under this subdivision shall include both current support and payments towards the liquidation of arrearages. However, priority shall be given to the current support obligation.
- (c) The Judicial Council shall prescribe forms for the orders for wage assignment required or authorized by this section. The employer may deduct from the salary or wages of the employee the sum of one dollar ($1) for each payment made pursuant to the order. Any such assignment made pursuant to court order shall have priority as against any attachment, execution, or other assignment, unless otherwise ordered by the court.
- (d) The employer shall cooperate with and provide relevant employment information to the district attorney for the purpose of enforcing the child support obligation. The state agency or the local agency designated to enforce child support obligations, as required by federal law, shall allow employers to simplify the process of wage withholding by forwarding, as ordered by the court, the amounts of support withheld under more than one court order in a consolidated check.
- (e) Orders for wage assignment required or authorized by this section shall include a requirement that the obligor notify the assigned payee of any change of employment and of the name and address of his or her new employer.
- (f) No employer shall use any assignment authorized by this section as grounds refusing to hire a person or for discharging or taking disciplinary action against an employee. An employer who engages in the conduct prohibited by this subdivision may be assessed a civil penalty of a maximum of five hundred dollars ($500).
- (g) As used in this section "employer" includes the United States government and any public entity as defined in Section 811.2 of the Government Code.
- (h) On declaration or affidavit of the parent to whom support has been ordered to be paid to the court that: (1) the parent ordered to make support payments is in default in the payment in the amount specified in subdivision (b), and (2) the whereabouts of the defaulting parent or the identity of his or her employer are unknown to the parent to whom support has been ordered to be paid, the district attorney shall contact the central registry maintained by the Department of Justice in the manner prescribed in Section 11478.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and upon receiving the requested information, notify the court of the last known address of the absent parent and the name and address of the absent parent's last known employer. The court shall then order the defaulting parent to make support payments pursuant to subdivision (b).

- (i) Nothing in this section shall limit the authority of the district attorney to utilize any and all civil and criminal remedies to enforce child support obligations regardless of whether or not the custodial parent receives welfare moneys.
- (j) This section applies to the money and benefits described in Sections 704.110 and 704.113 of the Code of Civil Procedure to the extent that the money and benefits are subject to a wage assignment for support under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 703.010) of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.
- (k) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, when a certified copy of any order of assignment is served on any public entity described in Section 704.110 of the Code of Civil Procedure other than the United States government, that entity shall comply with any request for a return of employee contributions by an employee named in order by delivering the contributions to the clerk of the court from which the order issued, unless the entity has received a certified copy of an order terminating the order of assignment. Upon receipt of moneys pursuant to this section, the clerk of the court, within 10 days, shall send written notice of the fact to the parties, and any agency through whom payments have been ordered under Section 4702. These moneys shall be subject to any procedure available to enforce an order for child support, but if no enforcement procedure is commenced after 30 days have elapsed from the date the notice of receipt is sent, the clerk shall, upon request, return the moneys to the public entity that delivered the moneys to the court unless the public entity has informed the court in writing that the moneys shall be released to the defaulting obligor. A court shall not directly or indirectly condition the issuance, modification, or termination of, or condition the terms or conditions of, any order for the support of a minor child upon the issuance of such a request by such an employee.
- (1) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (b), in any case where support is ordered to be paid through the district attorney for those purposes, or upon the district attorney's or obligor's request, the court shall issue an order for a wage assignment pursuant to this section.

In any such case in which an arrearage is alleged, the party ordered to pay support may move to quash the order for wage assignment in the manner specified in subdivision (b), but a finding of error in the amount of the arrearage is not sufficient in and of itself to quash the wage assignment for that portion of the obligor's wages withheld to pay current support.

As used in this subdivision, "wage assignment" has the same meaning as "assignment" and "wage assignment" in subdivisions (a) and (b).

- (m) As used in this section, "assigned payee" means either the person to whom support has been ordered to have been paid or the district attorney, designated by the court to receive the payment. For the purposes of this section, the district attorney shall be the assigned payee for all cases in which an application for services has been filed under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act.
- (n) In any case where support for a minor child is ordered to be paid through the district attorney on behalf of a minor child not receiving public assistance pursuant to the Family Economic Security Act of 1982 (Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code), the district attorney shall forward the support received to the custodial parent or other person having care or control of the minor child or children involved within seven working days of receipt.
  - (o) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1987.
- SEC. 3. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 4701 of the Civil Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1751. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1987, (2) each bill amends Section 4701 of the Civil Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1751, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.
- SEC. 4. Reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code and, if the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

CHAPTER 1410

An act to add Section 31314 to the Public Resources Code, relating to coastal resources.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 31314 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

31314. Plans prepared pursuant to this chapter for the Port of San Francisco may seek to expedite the implementation of visitor serving commercial uses of port property not needed for maritime use, establish a system of open spaces and public access along the waterfront, provide for commercial fishing facilities, and provide for the rehabilitation of existing deteriorated wharfs and piers.

Upon the approval of the State Coastal Conservancy, funding of the Port of San Francisco pursuant to this chapter shall be given high priority and be available to implement plans prepared pursuant to this chapter and to increase the port's ability to establish an ongoing land management program to encourage public access and tourist uses of the port.

CHAPTER 1411

An act to amend Sections 20022, 20332, and 20809 of the Government Code, relating to the Public Employees' Retirement System, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20022 of the Government Code is amended to read:

(a) "Compensation" includes: (1) the remuneration paid in cash out of funds controlled by the employer, plus the monetary value, as determined by the board, of living quarters, board, lodging, fuel, laundry and other advantages of any nature furnished a member by his or her employer in payment for his or her services or for time during which the member is excused from work because of holidays, sick leave, vacation, compensating time off, or leave of absence; (2) any payments in cash by his or her employer to one other than an employee for the purpose of purchasing an annuity contract for a member under an annuity plan which meets the requirements of Section 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of the United States: (3) any amount deducted from a member's wages for participation in a deferred compensation plan established pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 19993) of Part 2.6 of Division 5 of Title 2 or pursuant to Article 1.1 (commencing with Section 53212) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5; (4) any amount deducted from the member's salary for payment for participation in a retirement plan which meets the requirements of Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code of the United States: (5) any amount deducted from the member's salary for payment into a money purchase pension plan and trust which meets the requirements of Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of the United States; (6) employer "pick up" of member contributions which meets the requirements of Section 414(h) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code of the United States: (7) any disability or workers' compensation payments to safety members in accordance with Sections 4800 and 4850 of the Labor Code; (8) any special compensation for performing normally required duties such as holiday pay, bonuses (for duties performed on regular work shift), educational incentive pay, maintenance and noncash payments, out of class pay, marksmanship pay, hazard pay, motorcycle pay, paramedic pay, emergency medical technician pay, POST certificate pay, split shift differential and substitute differential in Sections 45196 and 88196 of the Education Code, except for those items excluded from compensation by Section 20022.2; (9) compensation for uniforms, except as provided in Section 20022.1; (10) any other payments the board may determine to be compensation.

(b) "Compensation" shall not include: (1) the provision by an employer of any medical or hospital service or care plan or insurance plan (other than the purchase of annuity contracts referred to in this section) for its employees, any contribution by an employer to meet the premium or charge for such plan, or any payment into a private fund to provide health and welfare benefits for its employees: (2) any payment by an employer of the employee portion of taxes imposed by the Federal Insurance Contribution Act; (3) amounts not available for payment of salaries and which are applied by an employer for the purchase of annuity contracts including those which meet the requirements of Section 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of the United States; (4) the bonus sum provided for low-paid state employees in the Budget Act of 1975; (5) any benefits paid pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 19878) of Chapter 2.5 of Part 2.6 of this division; (6) employers' payments which are to be credited as employee contributions for benefits provided by this system, or employers' payments which are to be credited to employee accounts in deferred compensation plans; provided, that amounts deducted from a member's wages for participation in a deferred compensation plan pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) shall not be considered to be employer's payments; (7) payments for lump-sum vacation or compensating time off upon termination of employment; (8) final settlement pay; (9) lump-sum sick leave payment; (10) payments for overtime, including pay in lieu of vacation or holiday; (11) special compensation for additional services outside regular duties, such as standby pay, callback pay, court duty, allowance for automobile, bonuses for duties performed after regular work shift; (12) those items excluded from compensation by Section 20022.2; (13) advanced disability pension payments provided pursuant to Section 4850.3 of the Labor Code; (14) amounts not available for payment of salaries and which are applied by the employer for the purchase of a retirement plan which meets the requirements of Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code of the United States; (15) amounts not available for payment of salaries which are applied by the employer for payment into a money purchase pension plan and trust which meets the requirements of Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of the United States; and (16) any other payments the board may determine not to be compensation.

SEC. 2. Section 20332 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20332. Persons who are members of any other retirement or pension system supported wholly or in part by funds of the United States government, any state government or political subdivision thereof and who are receiving credit in such other system for service are, as to such service, excluded from this system.

For the purpose of this section, persons who merely are receiving pensions or retirement allowances, or other payments, from any source whatever, on account of service rendered to an employer other than the state and while they were not in state service, are not, because of such receipt, members of any other retirement or pension system.

For the purposes of this section only, persons who merely participate in a deferred compensation plan established pursuant to Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 18310) of Part 1 of Division 5 of Title 2 or established pursuant to Article 1.1 (commencing with Section 53212) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5, are not, because of such participation, members of any other retirement or pension system.

For the purposes of this section only, persons who participate in a money purchase pension plan and trust which meets the requirements of Section 401 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (26 U.S.C.A. Sec. 401 (a)), are not, because of that participation, members of any other retirement or pension system, so long as the contracting agency has received a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service stating that the money purchase pension plan and trust qualifies under Section 401 (a) and furnishes proof thereof upon request by the Board of Administration.

SEC. 3. Section 20809 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20809. A person shall not receive credit for the same service in two retirement systems supported wholly or in part by public funds under any circumstance. Nothing in this section shall preclude concurrent participation and credit for service in a public retirement system and in a deferred compensation plan established pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 19993) of Part 2.6 of Division 5 of Title 2 or pursuant to Article 1.1 (commencing with Section 53212) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5, a tax-deferred retirement plan which meets the requirements of Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (26 U.S.C.A. Sec. 401(k)), or a money purchase pension plan and trust which meets the requirements of Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (26 U.S.C.A. Sec. 401(a)).

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that local public employees and employers may take advantage at the earliest possible time of the deferment of federal income taxes through money purchase plans and trusts meeting the requirements of Section 401 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (26 U.S.C.A., Sec. 401 (a)), it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1412

An act to amend Section 13142.4 of the Health and Safety Code, and to add Section 1464.5 to the Penal Code, relating to funds for fire training and education, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13142.4 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

- 13142.4. The State Fire Marshal, with policy guidance and advice from the State Board of Fire Services, shall:
- (a) Establish and validate recommended minimum standards for fire protection personnel and fire protection instructors at all career levels.
- (b) Develop course curricula for arson, fire technology, and apprenticeship training for use in academies, colleges, and other educational institutions.
- (c) Develop, validate, update, copyright, and maintain security over a complete series of promotional examinations based on the minimum standards established pursuant to subdivision (a).
- (d) Have the authority to make the examinations developed pursuant to subdivision (c) available to any agency of the state, to any political subdivision within the state, or to any other testing organization, as he or she deems appropriate.
- (e) Promote participation in, sponsor, and administer the California Firefighter Joint Apprenticeship Program as the preemployment recruitment, selection, and training system to be utilized for entry level firefighters.
- (f) Establish advisory committees or panels, as necessary, to assist the State Fire Marshal in carrying out his or her functions under this section.
  - (g) Establish such fees as necessary to implement this section.
- (h) Promote, sponsor, and administer the California Fire Academy System.
  - (i) Establish procedures for seeking, accepting, and administering gifts and grants for use in implementing the intents and purposes of the California Fire and Arson Training Act.

5060

(j) This section shall be known, and may be cited, as the California Fire and Arson Training Act.

(k) The recommended minimum standards established pursuant to subdivision (a) shall not apply to any agency of the state or any agency of any political subdivision within the state unless that agency elects to be subject to these standards.

SEC. 2. Section 1464.5 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

- 1464.5. (a) In addition to any assessment set forth in Section 1464, there shall be levied an assessment in the amount of ten cents ($0.10) for every one dollar ($1), or fraction thereof, upon every fine, penalty, or forfeiture imposed and collected by the courts for public offenses, limited to violations of any section of the Health and Safety Code enforced by the State Fire Marshal and other regulations and building standards enforced by the State Fire Marshal, the State Fire Marshal's salaried deputies or local agencies authorized to enforce those provisions pursuant to Sections 13145 and 13146 of the Health and Safety Code, or of any local fire code or ordinance. Any bail schedule adopted pursuant to Section 1269b may include the necessary amount to pay the assessments established by this section for all matters in which a personal appearance is not mandatory and the bail is posted primarily to guarantee payment of the fine.
- (b) When multiple offenses are involved, the assessment shall be based upon the total fine or bail for each case. When a fine is suspended, in whole or in part, the assessment shall be reduced in proportion to the suspension.
- (c) When any deposited bail is made for an offense to which this section applies, and for which a court appearance is not mandatory, the person making the deposit shall also deposit a sufficient amount to include the assessment prescribed by this section for forfeited bail. If bail is returned, the assessment made thereon pursuant to this section shall also be returned.
- (d) In any case in which a person convicted of any offense to which this section applies is in prison until the fine is satisfied, the judge may waive all or any part of the assessment, the payment of which would work a hardship on the person convicted or his or her immediate family.
- (e) After a determination by the court of the amount due, the clerk of the court shall collect the same and transmit it to the county treasury. The portion thereof attributable to this section shall be transmitted at least once a month to the State Treasury to be deposited in the California Fire and Arson Training Fund. The transmission to the State Treasury shall be carried out in the same manner as fines collected for the state by the county.
- (f) The moneys so deposited shall be available, when appropriated by the Legislature, for the Office of the State Fire Marshal to support fire and arson training.
  - SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to allow for the provision of firefighters' training and education in a timely manner so as to meet the challenges of the summer fire season, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1413

An act to amend Sections 17540.1, 17540.6, and 17540.10 of, and to repeal and add Section 17540.11 of, the Business and Professions Code, relating to travel promoters.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17540.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

17540.1. "Travel promoter" means a person who sells, provides, furnishes, contracts for, arranges, or advertises that he or she can or may arrange, or has arranged, wholesale or retail air or sea transportation either separately or in conjunction with other services. Travel promoter does not include: (1) an air carrier, (2) an ocean carrier, (3) an officially appointed agent of the air carrier or ocean carrier which provides the transportation and where the transportation is offered or sold pursuant to that agency appointment, or (4) any person or organization certified under the provisions of Part 5 (commencing with Section 12140) of Division 2 of the Insurance Code.

SEC. 2. Section 17540.6 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

17540.6. A travel promoter shall not advertise that air or sea transportion is or may be available unless he or she has, prior to the advertisement, contracted for the transportation advertised with the air carrier or sea carrier.

SEC. 3. Section 17540.10 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

17540.10. (a) A travel promoter shall deposit 90 percent of all sums received, including, but not limited to, those made by cash, credit card, or any other method of payment, for air or sea transportation or any other services or goods offered by the travel promoter in conjunction with that transportation directly into a trust account in a federally insured bank or savings and loan association.

- (b) The trust required by this section shall be created and maintained for the benefit of the persons paying money to the travel promoter. The travel promoter shall not in any manner encumber the corpus of such account and shall not withdraw money therefrom except: (1) in partial or full payment for the goods or services contracted for by the passengers to the carrier or person providing the other goods or services offered by the travel promoter; or (2) to make the refunds as required by this article or provided for by written contract between the travel promoter and passengers. This section shall not prevent the withdrawal from that account of any interest earned and credited to the trust account for the sole benefit of the travel promoter after all goods and services have been provided as contracted for or the withdrawal at that time of any other sums on deposit in that account.
- (c) In lieu of that trust account, an adequate bond shall be maintained by the travel promoter. A copy of that bond shall be filed with the Secretary of State prior to the advertisement of air or sea transportation, or both, by the travel promoter.
- SEC. 4. Section 17540.11 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.
- SEC. 5. Section 17540.11 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:
- 17540.11. (a) Upon payment in full by the passenger for air or sea transportation and any related services with a credit card or with cash, the travel promoter shall issue and deliver the ticket or voucher to the passenger or his or her designated agent within 48 hours.
- (b) Upon payment in full by the passenger for air or sea transportation and any related services with a check, the travel promoter shall issue and deliver the ticket or voucher to the passenger or his or her designated agent within 48 hours of the earlier of the following:
- (1) The time the passenger's payment is credited to the travel promoter's account.
- (2) The expiration of the maximum hold period specified in Section 10.190405 of Title 10 of the California Administrative Code.
- (c) Tickets, vouchers, or receipts shall be deemed to have been delivered if they have been turned over to an independent third-party delivery service or the United States Postal Service for regular delivery.
- (d) Where the travel promoter is unable to issue tickets or vouchers upon payment as set forth in subdivisions (a), (b), (c), and (d), the travel promoter may comply with this section by either: (1) forwarding to the air or sea carrier, or provider of related services the portion of the sum paid by the passenger which is required by the air or sea carrier or provider of related services from the travel promoter in order to provide the transportation or services purchased by that passenger. The travel promoter may not offset or reduce the amount forwarded by any amounts due or claimed in connection with any other transaction, or (2) by complying with either the provisions of Sections 17540.8 and 17540.9, and subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) of Section 17540.10, or depositing directly into a trust account in a federally insured bank or savings and loan association the portion of the amount paid by the passenger which is required by the air or sea carrier or provider of related services from the travel promoter in order to provide the transportation or services purchased by the passenger. The travel promoter may not offset or reduce the amount deposited by any amount due or claimed in connection with any other transaction.

- (e) The trust required by this section shall be created and maintained for the benefit of the persons paying money to the travel promoter. The travel promoter shall not, in any manner, encumber the corpus of such account and shall not withdraw money therefrom except: (1) in partial or full payment for the goods or services contracted for by the passenger to the carrier or person providing the other goods or services offered by the travel promoter; or (2) to make the refunds as required by this section. This section shall not prevent the withdrawal from that account of any interest earned and credited to the trust account for the sole benefit of the travel promoter.
- (f) There is no violation of this section if (1) compliance with this section was rendered impossible as a direct result of an unforeseen condition beyond the travel promoter's control, and, (2) the travel promoter complied with this section or made restitution to the passenger within 30 days after receiving the passenger's payment.

A travel promoter has the burden of producing evidence to establish this exception in a criminal action, and the burden of proof to establish this exception in a civil action.

- (g) For purposes of this section only, "travel promoter" includes an officially appointed agent of an air carrier or ocean carrier, but does not include:
- (1) Any person or organization licensed under Chapter 14A (commencing with Section 1851) of Division 1 of the Financial Code.
- (2) Any person or organization certified under the provisions of Part 5 (commencing with Section 12140) of Division 2 of the Insurance Code.
- (h) For purposes of this section, "48 hours" means two business days as defined in Section 9 of the Civil Code.
- SEC. 6. Section 5 of this act does not create any duties other than those expressed in Section 5 and does not affect any duties established by any other statutory law or by decisional law.
- SEC. 7. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

SEC. 8. The 1986 amendments to Sections 17540.1 and 17540.6 of the Businesss and Professions Code made by this act are declaratory of existing law.

CHAPTER 1414

An act relating to home inspections, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

> [Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. On or before January 1, 1987, the Contractors' State License Board shall report to the Legislature on all of the following:

- (a) The feasibility and timeframe for implementation and development of an examination for the licensing, certification, or registration of home inspectors. The examination would be developed according to professionally accepted psychometric principles for a licensing examination, with the assistance and advice of representatives from the California Real Estate Inspection Association and the American Society of Home Inspectors.
- (b) The identification of experience or educational requirements desired for the licensing or certification of home inspectors.
- (c) The development of a certification procedure for which a fee may be charged.
- (d) The development of a process for taking disciplinary action against home inspectors not in compliance with certification and practice standards.
- (e) The development of a scope of practice contained in the performance of a home inspection and the role of a home inspector's opinion with respect to the disclosure requirements of Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 1102) of Chapter 2 of Title 4 of Part 4 of Division 2 of the Civil Code.
- SEC. 2. The sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) is hereby appropriated from the Contractors' License Fund to the Contractors' State License Board for the purpose of carrying out this act.
- SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that information and facts necessary for legislation required for the regulation of home inspectors for the protection of the consumer may be gathered and reported to the Legislature prior to January 1, 1987, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1415

An act to add Sections 6306.1 and 6306.2 to the Public Resources Code, relating to tidelands and submerged lands, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6306.1 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

6306.1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the State Lands Commission and the City of Los Angeles, acting by and through its Board of Harbor Commissioners, may take all actions which are necessary for mitigation of expansion of the Port of Los Angeles by the enhancement, restoration, and management of Batiquitos Lagoon in the County of San Diego. Nothing in this section exempts the Batiquitos Lagoon Restoration Project from the regulatory requirements or jurisdiction of any public entity.

If any interests in property are acquired as a part of the Batiquitos Lagoon mitigation project, these interests are to be held in trust for the public as sovereign lands by the State Lands Commission.

The Legislature finds that adequate area for appropriate mitigation of impacts on biological resources does not presently exist within Los Angeles Harbor. The City of Los Angeles, acting by and through its Board of Harbor Commissioners, may expend harbor revenue funds to enhance, restore, and manage Batiquitos Lagoon. The Legislature further finds that the enhancement, restoration, and management of Batiquitos Lagoon will provide benefits to the Port of Los Angeles and the community because it will (1) facilitate the development of an outer harbor landfill which is the initial step in relocating hazardous liquid bulk facilities in the port, thereby providing substantial safety benefits to the surrounding community, (2) allow the port, as part of a larger project, to generate substantial additional revenues to carry out the mandate in the state tidelands grants that the port promote commerce, navigation, and fishery; and (3) create future opportunities for recreational development consistent with tideland grants.

The port shall provide a recreational boating sanitation facility, navigational aids in the Cabrillo Channel, and a free boating safety publication. Provision of these facilities shall be considered by the California Coastal Commission in determining whether the conditions of coastal permit 5-85-623 have been met.

- SEC. 2. Section 6306.2 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:
- 6306.2. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in order to mitigate the effects of the project which is the subject of the Department of the Army Permit No. 14003E48B, issued July 23, 1986, the City of Oakland, acting by and through its Board of Port Commissioners, may use revenue accruing from, or out of, the use of granted tidelands, for the acquisition of land, or an interest in land, located outside the geographical boundaries of the trust grant, or for the enhancement, restoration, or management of land located outside the trust grant, if the commission makes all of the following determinations:
- (1) That adequate areas for appropriate mitigation do not presently exist within the geographical boundaries of the port district trust grants, and that if some of the mitigation can occur within the geographical boundaries of the port district trust grants, that mitigation will be included in the mitigation program.
- (2) That the proposed offsite mitigation best promotes appropriate public trust purposes for which sovereign tidelands and submerged lands are held by the state, its location is appropriate in consideration of public trust needs, and it addresses the specific impacts of the project.
- (3) That, unless the proposed offsite mitigation is to be located within another tidelands trust grant, title to any land or interest in land acquired, as well as any land which is to be enhanced, restored, or managed, will be transferred to the state, acting by and through the State Lands Commission, to be held in trust for the public as land having the legal character of sovereign lands.
  - (4) That the mitigation is in the best interest of the state.
- (b) The State Lands Commission may lease any land or interest in land transferred to it pursuant to this section, as provided by Part 2 (commencing with Section 6501).
- SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide for the expansion of facilities of the Port of Los Angeles and of the Metropolitan Oakland International Airport as early as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1416

An act to amend Sections 798.17 and 798.51 of the Civil Code, relating to mobilehomes.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 798.17 of the Civil Code is amended to read: (a) Rental agreements meeting subdivision (b) shall be exempt from any ordinance, rule, regulation, or initiative measure adopted by any local governmental entity which establishes a maximum amount that a landlord may charge a tenant for rent. The terms of such a rental agreement shall prevail over conflicting provisions of such an ordinance, rule, regulation, or initiative measure limiting or restricting rents in mobilehome parks only during the term of the rental agreement or one or more uninterrupted, continuous extensions thereof. If the rental agreement is not extended and no new rental agreement in excess of 12 months' duration is entered into, then the last rental rate charged for the space under the previous rental agreement shall be the base rent for purposes of applicable provisions of law concerning rent regulation, if any.

The first paragraph of a rental agreement entered into pursuant to this section shall contain a provision notifying the homeowner that the agreement will be exempt from any ordinance, rule, regulation, or initiative measure adopted by any local governmental entity which establishes a maximum amount that a landlord may charge a tenant for rent.

- (b) Rental agreements subject to this section shall meet all of the following criteria:
- (1) The rental agreement shall be in excess of 12 months' duration.
- (2) The rental agreement shall be entered into between the management and a homeowner for the personal and actual residence of the homeowner.
- (3) The homeowner shall have at least 30 days from the date the rental agreement is first offered to the homeowner to accept or reject the agreement.
- (4) The homeowner who executes a rental agreement offered pursuant to this section may void such agreement by notifying management in writing within 72 hours of the homeowner's execution of the rental agreement.
- (c) The homeowner shall have the option to reject the offered rental agreement and instead accept a rental agreement for a term of 12 months or less from the date the offered agreement begins. In the event the homeowner elects to have a rental agreement for a term of 12 months or less, including a month-to-month agreement, the agreement shall contain the same "rental charges" terms and conditions as the offered rental agreement during the first 12 months, except for options contained in the offered rental agreement to extend or renew the agreement.

(d) Nothing in subdivision (c) shall be construed to prohibit management from offering gifts of value, other than rental rate reductions, to homeowners who execute a rental agreement pursuant to this section.

This section does not apply to or supersede other provisions of this part or other state law.

SEC. 2. Section 798.51 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

- 798.51. The management shall meet and consult with the homeowners, upon written request, within 30 days of the request, either individually, collectively, or with representatives of a group of homeowners who have signed a request to be so represented on the following matters:
  - (a) Amendments to park rules and regulations.
- (b) Standards for maintenance of physical improvements in the park.
- (c) Addition, alteration, or deletion of service, equipment or physical improvements.
  - (d) Rental agreements offered pursuant to Section 798.17.

Any collective meeting shall be conducted only after notice thereof has been given to all the requesting homeowners 10 days or more before the meeting.

CHAPTER 1417

An act to amend Sections 1180 and 1181 of the Civil Code, to amend Section 2093 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and to amend Section 75079 of the Government Code, relating to judges.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1180 of the Civil Code is amended to read: 1180. The proof or acknowledgment of an instrument may be made at any place within this state before a justice, retired justice, or clerk of the Supreme Court, a justice, retired justice, or clerk of any court of appeal or judge or retired judge of a superior court.

SEC. 2. Section 1181 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1181. The proof or acknowledgment of an instrument may be made before a notary public at any place within this state, or within the county or city and county in this state in which the officer specified below was elected, or appointed, before either:

- (1) A clerk of a municipal or justice court.
- (2) A county clerk.
- (3) A court commissioner.
- (4) A judge or retired judge of a municipal or justice court.
- (5) A district attorney.
- (6) A clerk of a board of supervisors.
- (7) A city clerk.
- (8) A county counsel.
- (9) A city attorney.
- SEC. 3. Section 2093 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:
- 2093. Every court, every judge, or retired judge, or clerk of any court, every justice or retired justice, and every notary public, and every officer or person authorized to take testimony in any action or proceeding, or to decide upon evidence, has power to administer oaths or affirmations.
- SEC. 4. Section 75079 of the Government Code is amended to read:

75079. When a judge elects and becomes entitled to receive the benefits accorded by this article he or she does not have the right to select an optional settlement under the provisions of Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 75070) of this chapter.

When a judge becomes entitled on and after January 1, 1987, to receive the benefits accorded by this article, the judge may make an election to the contrary to select an actuarially reduced retirement allowance payable for life and if the judge dies before he or she receives the amount of his or her accumulated contributions at retirement, the remaining unpaid amount of his or her accumulated contributions shall be paid to his or her designated beneficiary, if he or she has so designated, and if none, to his or her estate.

The election shall be made in writing and filed with the Judges' Retirement System prior to the making of the first payment on account of any retirement allowance.

The surviving spouse of a judge who qualifies, as prescribed in Section 75075, to receive the benefits accorded by Section 75076 but who elected to receive the actuarially reduced retirement allowance as provided in this section and who dies during retirement shall receive, until death or remarriage, an allowance equal to one-half of the retirement allowance that would have been payable to the judge were he or she living and had elected to receive the benefits accorded by Section 75076.

SEC. 5. The administration of any oath or affirmation by, or the proof or acknowledgment of any instrument before, a retired judge or retired justice prior to the effective date of this act that is not otherwise invalid is hereby retroactively validated as of the date of administration, proof, or acknowledgment.

CHAPTER 1418

An act to add Section 6302.5 to the Business and Professions Code, to amend Section 2093 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and to amend Sections 1225, 69892.1, 69894.1, 69894.6, 69948, 70045.9 71603.3, 72608, 72609, 72610, 72645, 72646, 72702.5, 72703, 72704, 72704.5, 72717, 72717.5, 72750.4, 72750.5, 72751, 72754, 72755, 73353, 73353.1, and 74949.1 of, to add Section 72718 to, and to add Article 3 (commencing with Section 73390) to Chapter 10 of Title 8 of, the Government Code, relating to courts.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6302.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

6302.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in Los Angeles County appointments made by judges of the superior court, municipal court, and justice court shall be for a term of four years, and appointments made by the board of supervisors of the county shall be for a term of two years.

Trustees who are incumbents on the effective date of this section shall be considered to have started their terms on the effective date of this section.

At the first regular meeting following the effective date of this section, the members appointed by the judiciary shall classify themselves by lot so that three members shall serve for four years, and two members for two years. Thereafter the term of office of each member so appointed shall be four years.

At the first regular meeting following the effective date of this section, the members appointed by the board of supervisors shall classify themselves by lot so that one member shall serve for two years, and one member for one year. Thereafter the term of office of each member so appointed shall be two years.

- SEC. 1.3. Section 2093 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:
- 2093. (a) Every court, every judge, or clerk of any court, every justice, and every notary public, and every officer or person authorized to take testimony in any action or proceeding, or to decide upon evidence, has power to administer oaths or affirmations.
- (b) A former judge or justice of a court of record in this state who retired or resigned from office, other than a judge or justice who was retired by the Supreme Court for disability, shall have the power to administer oaths or affirmations, if the former judge or justice requests and receives a certification from the Commission on Judicial Performance that there was no formal disciplinary proceeding pending at the time of retirement or resignation. Where no formal disciplinary proceeding was pending at the time of retirement or resignation, the Commission on Judicial Performance shall issue the certification.

No law, rule, or regulation regarding the confidentiality of proceedings of the Commission on Judicial Performance shall be construed to prohibit the Commission on Judicial Performance from issuing a certificate as provided for in this section.

SEC. 1.5. Section 1225 of the Government Code is amended to read:

1225. Every executive and judicial officer and every Member of the Legislature may administer and certify oaths.

A former judge of a court of record in this state who retired or resigned from office, other than a judge who was retired by the Supreme Court for disability, shall be deemed a judicial officer for purposes of this section, if the former judge requests and receives a certification from the Commission on Judicial Performance that there was no formal disciplinary proceeding pending at the time of retirement or resignation. Where no formal disciplinary proceeding was pending at the time of retirement or resignation, the Commission on Judicial Performance shall issue the certification. No law, rule, or regulation regarding the confidentiality of proceedings of the Commission on Judicial Performance shall be construed to prohibit the Commission on Judicial Performance from issuing a certificate as provided for in this section.

SEC. 2. Section 69892.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

69892.1. Notwithstanding applicable any county provision to the contrary, a majority of the judges of the superior court in any county with a population of over 7,000,000 as determined by the 1980 federal census shall appoint, with the concurrence of the board of supervisors, a county clerk/executive officer/jury commissioner who shall hold office at the pleasure of the court and the board and shall exercise such administrative powers and perform such other duties as may be required of him or her. The court and the board shall fix the qualifications of such officer and may delegate to him or her any administrative powers and duties as are now or may hereafter by law be vested in or required to be exercised by such board. The county clerk/executive officer/jury commissioner shall prepare an annual report and such other reports as may be directed by the court or the board. The annual salary of the county clerk/executive officer/jury commissioner shall be as provided in Section 69894.1. He or she shall be allowed actual traveling and other necessary expenses while engaged in the discharge of the duties of his or her office.

SEC. 3. Section 69894.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

69894.1. In the County of Los Angeles, a majority of the judges of the superior court may appoint the following officers and employees whose salaries shall be:

Whenever a reference to numbered salary schedules and notes is made in this section, those found in the Los Angeles County Code, Title 6, shall apply. Whenever the compensation of superior court judges is adjusted, the flat-rate salaries for court commissioners, senior referees and referees shall be adjusted to maintain the salary relationship of 85 percent of the annual compensation of superior court judges.

Reduction of the schedule applicable to a class by reason of the adoption of this salary plan or subsequent reclassification of position for organizational purposes shall not result in a lower salary rate to incumbents of such positions. The court is authorized to regulate by rule the status of employees so affected.

As defined in the Los Angeles County Code, Section 6.28.030, the following prefixes are used instead of schedule numbers:

F—Flat rate per month

FD-Flat rate per day

N.W.—Pursuant to the Los Angeles County Code, Title 6, employees employed in this position shall be compensated on a six-step salary range, the sixth step being the fifth step of the salary schedule which is two standard salary schedules above the indicated schedule number. The rate or rates established by this provision constitute a base rate.

N.X.—As defined in the Los Angeles County Code Section 6.28.050. N.Z.—Pursuant to the Los Angeles County Code, Title 6, employees employed in this position shall be compensated on a seven-step salary range, the sixth step being the fifth step of the salary schedule which is one standard salary schedule above the indicated schedule number, and the seventh step being the fifth step of the salary schedule which is two standard salary schedules above the indicated schedule number. Advancement to the sixth step shall be granted upon completion of 18 months of continuous service at the fifth step and advancement to the seventh step shall be granted upon completion of 18 months of continuous service at the sixth step. The rate or rates established by this provision constitute a base rate.

All personnel appointed pursuant to this article, except the county clerk/executive officer/jury commissioner, shall serve at the pleasure of the court and may at any time be removed by the court in its discretion. The county clerk/executive officer/jury commissioner shall serve at the pleasure of the court and the board of supervisors.

SEC. 4. Section 69894.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

69894.6. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 69894.1, in the County of Los Angeles, a majority of the judges of the superior court may appoint 324 court reporters, each of whom shall receive a salary equivalent to the schedule designation 71K N.Z. in the Los Angeles County Code. Court reporters shall serve at the pleasure of the court and may at any time be removed by the court in its discretion.

Reduction of the schedule applicable to court reporters by reason of the adoption of this salary plan or subsequent reclassification of positions for organizational purposes shall not result in a lower salary rate to incumbent court reporters. The court may regulate by rule the status of employees so affected.

SEC. 5. Section 69948 of the Government Code is amended to read:

69948. (a) The fee for reporting testimony and proceedings in contested cases is fifty-five dollars ($55) a day, or any fractional part thereof.

- (b) In San Joaquin County, the board of supervisors may, by ordinance, prescribe a higher rate of compensation for superior court reporters.
- (c) In Madera County, the board of supervisors may, by ordinance or resolution, prescribe a higher rate of compensation for superior court reporters.
- (d) In Kings County, the fee for reporting testimony and proceedings in contested cases is one hundred dollars ($100) a day, or any fractional part thereof.
- (e) In Mariposa County, the fee for reporting testimony and proceedings in contested cases is ninety-five dollars ($95) a day, or any fractional part thereof.
- (f) In Siskiyou County, the board of supervisors may, by ordinance, prescribe a higher rate of compensation for superior court reporters.
- (g) In Yuba County, the fee for reporting testimony and proceedings in contested cases is ninety dollars ($90) per day, or any fractional part thereof.
- (h) In Butte County, pro tempore reporters shall receive a fee of seventy-five dollars ($75) a day, or any fractional part thereof, for reporting testimony and proceedings in contested cases.
- (i) In Sutter County, except as may otherwise be provided in Section 74839, the fee for reporting testimony and proceedings in contested cases is ninety dollars ($90) per day, or any fractional part thereof.
- (j) In Napa County, the board of supervisors may, by ordinance, prescribe a higher rate of compensation for superior court reporters.
- (k) In Tehama County, the board of supervisors may, by ordinance, prescribe a higher rate of compensation for superior court reporters.
- (1) In Monterey County, the fee for reporting testimony and proceedings in contested cases in any court is seventy-five dollars ($75) a day or any fractional part thereof.
- (m) In Nevada County, the board of supervisors may, by ordinance, prescribe a higher rate of compensation for superior court reporters.
- (n) In Calaveras County, the fee for reporting testimony and proceedings in contested cases is seventy-five dollars ($75) per day, or any fractional part thereof; provided that the board of supervisors may, by ordinance, prescribe a higher rate of compensation for superior court reporters.
- (o) In Placer County, the board of supervisors may, by ordinance, prescribe a higher rate of compensation for superior court reporters.
- (p) In Sierra County, the board of supervisors may, by ordinance, prescribe a higher rate of compensation for superior court reporters.
- (q) In Trinity County, the board of supervisors may, by ordinance, prescribe a higher rate of compensation for superior court reporters.
  - (r) In Humboldt County, the fee for reporting testimony and proceedings in contested cases is seventy-five dollars ($75) per day, or any fractional part thereof.

- (s) In Del Norte County, the fee for reporting testimony and proceedings in contested cases is seventy-five dollars ($75) per day, or any fractional part thereof.
- (t) In Alpine County, the board of supervisors may, by ordinance, prescribe a higher rate of compensation for superior court reporters.
- (u) In Glenn County, the board of supervisors may, by ordinance, prescribe a higher rate of compensation for superior court reporters.
- (v) In Colusa County, the fee for reporting testimony and proceedings in contested cases is seventy-five dollars ($75) per day, or any fractional part thereof.
- (w) In Shasta County, the board of supervisors may prescribe a higher rate of compensation for superior court reporters.
- (x) In Solano County, the fee for reporting testimony and proceedings in contested cases is ninety dollars ($90) per day, or fifty-five dollars ($55) per half day or fractional part thereof; provided that the board of supervisors may, by ordinance, prescribe a higher rate of compensation for superior court reporters.
- (y) In Inyo County, the board of supervisors may, by ordinance, prescribe a higher rate of compensation for superior court reporters.
- (z) In Mono County, the board of supervisors may, by ordinance, prescribe a higher rate of compensation for superior court reporters.
- SEC. 5.5. Section 70045.9 of the Government Code is amended to read:
- 70045.9. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the provisions of this section shall apply to the official court reporters in Shasta County:
- (a) The regular full-time official court reporters shall perform the following duties:
  - (1) Report all criminal proceedings in superior court.
- (2) Report all juvenile proceedings other than those heard by juvenile court referee or traffic hearing officer.
- (3) Report all civil jury trials in superior court, unless the court determines it is not required.
- (4) Report any other proceeding in the superior court at the request of the judge of the superior court.
- (5) Report any superior court proceeding when a party requests a court reporter in accordance with the rules of court.
- (6) Report all criminal investigations of the grand jury, when requested by the foreman, or by the district attorney.
- (7) Report the preliminary examination of those accused of crime before magistrates or municipal court judges within Shasta County, or before both.
  - (8) Report coroner's inquests, when requested by the coroner.
- (9) Report hearings of the Board of Equalization of the County of Shasta, as requested by that board.
- (10) Other reporting or related services, as directed by the judges of the superior court.

- (11) When not occupied with the above duties, and upon request of the board of supervisors and approval of the presiding judge of the superior court, he or she shall report matters before the board of supervisors.
- (b) Each regular full-time court reporter shall be paid a monthly salary of one thousand four hundred seventy dollars ($1,470), unless the Board of Supervisors of Shasta County provides for compensation in excess of that amount, in which event the amount set shall apply. The salary is for compensation for reporting services set forth under subdivision (a). For all transcriptions incident to reporting services, each reporter shall receive the fees provided for in Article 9 (commencing with Section 69941).

The regular full-time official court reporters shall be entitled to the same privileges with respect to retirement, vacation (upon approval of judge to whom assigned), sick leave, and group insurance, which either now or hereafter may be provided by ordinance to other comparable employees of the County of Shasta.

(c) When the regular full-time official court reporters are occupied in the performance of their duties and services pursuant to the provisions of subdivision (a), the judge or judges of the superior court may appoint as many additional official court reporters, who shall be known as official reporters pro tempore, as the business of the courts may require in order that the judicial business of the court may be carried on without delay. In the event the board of supervisors has entered into a contract for supplemental reporter services with a qualified person or persons first approved by the presiding judge of the superior court, the person or persons shall be appointed as reporter pro tempore. However, if the person or persons are not reasonably available, the judge may appoint any qualified person. Notwithstanding other provisions of this section, when an assignment of a pro tempore reporter is made to proceedings in the superior court, the assignment shall be deemed to run to the completion of the proceeding.

Reporters pro tempore shall be paid in accordance with the contract with the board of supervisors or, in absence thereof, with the per diem, transcription, and other fee provisions of Article 9 (commencing with Section 69941). Such per diem, traveling and other expenses, and the fees chargeable to the county under the terms of these provisions shall be a proper county charge.

- (d) During the hours during which the court is open as prescribed by the Shasta County Superior Court for the transaction of judicial business, official court reporters shall devote full time to the performance of the duties required of them by law and shall not engage or solicit to engage in any other employment in their professional capacity.
- SEC. 6. Section 71603.3 of the Government Code, as amended by Chapter 288 of the Statutes of 1986, is amended to read:
- 71603.3. Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 71602 and 71603, the board of supervisors of a county with a population of 200,000 or less according to the 1970 federal census, with the concurrence of a majority of the judges affected, may by ordinance abolish the office of constable and, instead, require that the duties of constable be performed by the sheriff or marshal; provided, that if the constable holds an elective office, such an ordinance shall become effective only upon the approval of the electors of the county; and further provided, that no member of the office of the constable employed on January 1, 1987, shall lose salary, rank, or benefits, and that sworn personnel assigned to duties other than the prevention and detection of crime and the general enforcement of the criminal laws of this state, shall be exempt from meeting the requirements set by the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training, in the event the office of constable is abolished pursuant to this section.

SEC. 7. Section 72608 of the Government Code is amended to read:

72608. Certain classes of positions prescribed in Article 2 (commencing with Section 72640), Article 3 (commencing with Section 72700), and Article 4 (commencing with Section 72750) of this chapter are deemed to be related in job and compensation to position classifications included in the Los Angeles County Code, and in the case of certain classes of positions, to the administrative series included in Section 69894.1. In order to maintain the relationship of compensation and employee rights and benefits between such officers and attachés of municipal courts and county or superior court employees having commensurate duties and responsibilities and to provide appropriate salary adjustments and employee rights and benefits for related classes of court positions, the provisions of this section shall govern salary adjustments and employee rights and benefits for officers and attachés of municipal courts in Los Angeles County.

On the effective date of any amendment to such code adjusting the salary of a county employee classification listed in the table of positions set forth in this section, or on the effective date of a resolution or ordinance by the board of supervisors approving interim salary adjustments for superior court classes pursuant to Section 69894.2, the salary of the equivalent municipal court position listed opposite thereto and each other class of court position indented immediately thereunder shall be adjusted an equivalent number of schedules in the salary schedule to which such position is attached. In no event shall any one such adjustment exceed eight schedule numbers. If the level of compensation established by any such salary adjustment is not reflected in the salary schedule number provided for any court classification, the adjustment shall apply to each position in such classification on the effective date of the act fixing such salary schedule number.

Likewise, the salary of any court classification being enumerated in Article 2 (commencing with Section 72640), Article 3 (commencing with Section 72700), or Article 4 (commencing with Section 72750) of this chapter for the first time as an amendment to this chapter shall be adjusted as necessary on the effective date of such amendment to provide the same relationship to the county classification to which it is attached as that established when the court classification was approved in accordance with the provisions of Section 72607.

Salary adjustments made pursuant to this section shall be effective only until January 1 of the second year following the year in which the adjustment is made, unless ratified by the Legislature.

Officers and attachés of municipal courts in Los Angeles County shall be entitled to all employee rights, programs and benefits, including, but not limited to, paid medical plans, management incentive, pay for performance, management merit service, and early separation programs, parking and cafeteria privileges, longevity pay, shooting allowance, uniform and equipment allowance, and the same rights to meet with those entities which prescribe their compensation, that are provided for or made applicable to the equivalent Los Angeles County and county clerk/superior court employee classification. Participation in management incentive early separation programs and pay for performance and management merit service shall be established by joint action and approval of a majority of the board of supervisors and a majority of the judges of the court, except in the Los Angeles Judicial District where such joint action shall be approved by a majority of the board of supervisors and a majority of the court's executive committee.

Bonus Level I assignments of deputy marshals are as follows:

Twenty positions—assistant commander, small division

Ten positions—bailiff supervisor

Seven positions—field supervisor

Nine positions—counter deputy

One position—vehicle coordinator

One position—training officer

One position—real estate levy/bookkeeping section supervisor Bonus Level II assignments of deputy marshals are as follows:

One position—operations bureau deputy

One position—security and intelligence officer

One position—assistant procedures officer

Deputy marshals with Bonus Level I assignments shall receive additional compensation in the same amounts, for the same periods, and paid on the same terms, as deputy sheriffs assigned to Bonus Level I positions. Deputy marshals with Bonus Level II assignments shall receive additional compensation in the same amounts, for the same periods, and paid on the same terms, as deputy sheriffs assigned to Bonus Level II positions.

In addition to the salary adjustment otherwise provided by this section, all persons employed in the classifications of supervising deputy clerk II shall receive a one-time only two schedule salary increase effective September 1, 1986. The resulting salary rates shall consitute the base rates for subsequent salary adjustments. The term "schedule" herein refers to the schedule increments of the salary schedule of the Los Angeles County Code.

SEC. 8. Section 72609 of the Government Code is amended to read:

72609. Except where otherwise provided by law, officers and attachés of municipal courts in Los Angeles County shall receive a monthly salary at a rate specified in the Los Angeles County Code as follows:

Training officer

SEC. 9. Section 72610 of the Government Code is amended to read:

72610. In addition to any other fees or charges required by law, in all civil cases and proceedings, exclusive of small claims court cases, the clerk shall collect from all parties, private persons, firms and corporations the same fee as collected by the county clerk of Los Angeles County.

The provisions of Section 72004 shall apply to the collection and disposition of all sums collected pursuant to this section.

SEC. 10. Section 72645 of the Government Code is amended to read:

72645. The marshal shall appoint all of the following:

(a) One assistant marshal. The marshal shall make the appointment from the peace officer members of the marshal's office of the rank of lieutenant or higher and the appointee shall serve solely at the pleasure of the marshal. Section 72649 does not apply to the appointment to, nor removal of a person from, this position, but all other provisions of Section 72649 apply. Upon removal by the marshal for any reason other than that which would be cause for the discharge of any other member, an appointee shall revert to the rank held by the appointee prior to his or her appointment to the position of assistant marshal.

- (b) Three commanders. Upon the occurrence of a vacancy, any succeeding appointment to this position may be made by the marshal at his or her sole discretion. At that time and thereafter, Section 72649 shall not be applicable to the appointment to, nor removal of, a person from, this position, but all other provisions of Section 72649 shall be applicable. The marshal shall make this appointment from the peace officer members of his or her office of the rank of lieutenant or higher, and the appointee shall serve solely at the pleasure of the marshal. Upon removal by the marshal for any reason other than that which would be cause for the discharge of any other member, an appointee shall revert to the rank held prior to appointment as commander.
  - (c) Nine captains.
  - (d) Twenty-two lieutenants.
  - (e) Forty sergeants.
- (f) Five hundred fourteen deputy marshals; except that the number of deputy marshals shall be reduced by the number of deputy marshal IV positions required to be retained pursuant to Section 72645.5.
- (g) Twenty-seven deputy marshal trainees. Appointments to the positions shall be made from civil service lists resulting from open competitive examinations, provided that notwithstanding Section 72649, the appointees shall be subject to a 12-month period of probation.
- (h) Four deputy marshal-matrons, each of whom shall have completed a course of training which meets the requirements of the POST commission for a specialized law enforcement basic certificate.
  - (i) Four deputy clerk-custody officers.

SEC. 23. Section 72755 of the Government Code is amended to read:

72755. In those positions for which this article provides a five-step rate of compensation, the provisions of this section shall apply.

- (a) Except in the case of transfer, demotion, promotion or where otherwise specifically provided, original appointments to such positions shall be at the rate designated for step 1 of the salary schedule pertaining to the position occupied.
- (b) The initial rate of compensation shall be increased to the next higher step of the schedule applicable to the position occupied upon the completion of six months' continuous service in the same position. Upon the completion of each ensuing 12 months of such service, such compensation shall be increased to the rate specified in the next higher step of the salary schedule for the position occupied until such compensation equals the sum specified in step 5 of such schedule.
- (c) A step advancement shall not be granted to any person if his or her superior finds that his or her work has been unsatisfactory and so notifies the Civil Service Commission.
- (d) When a person is promoted to a position on a five-step basis, he or she shall receive the first-step rate in the salary schedule of the new position which results in an increase in salary.
- (e) A person demoted to a lower position shall be entitled to receive whichever of the following rates is lower:
- 1. Step 5 of the salary schedule pertaining to the position to which he or she is demoted.
- 2. The same rate of pay which he or she was receiving prior to demotion.
- (f) The appointing power who demotes a person for disciplinary reasons may specify any step rate in the salary schedule pertaining to the lower position except that it shall not be higher than the step rate held by the employee in the higher position.
- (g) If a person begins employment between the 1st and 15th of any calendar month, inclusive, his or her step advancement shall be calculated from the first day of that month. Where a person begins employment on or after the 16th day of a calendar month, the step advancement shall be calculated from the first of the next month.
- (h) Upon demotion, a person shall retain the anniversary date held in the higher position.
- (i) Any deputy clerk grade III who is necessarily assigned to the regular duties of a deputy clerk grade IV because of an absence of such deputy clerk grade IV shall, for any period of such assignment in excess of 30 calendar days, receive compensation at the rate of that higher numbered salary schedule which will increase his or her basic compensation by four schedules.
- (j) One deputy clerk I, II, or III in each municipal court of six judges or less, who having passed the stenographic skills proficiency examination given by the County of Los Angeles for the county position of stenographer, shall be entitled to receive a bonus equivalent to a four-schedule salary increase when regularly required to provide stenographic and secretarial services to the judge or judges of the court.

- (k) Not more than one deputy clerk grade IV in each municipal court having six judges or fewer, or two such deputy clerks grade IV in each municipal court having seven judges or more, while assigned to duties in divisions of the court requiring greater skill and responsibility shall receive a two-schedule increase in compensation.
- (l) Not more than a total of two deputy clerks I, II, or III in each municipal court, while assigned to duties in divisions of the court requiring greater skill and responsibility, shall receive a two-schedule increase in compensation while so assigned. However, in no event shall a deputy clerk who is receiving additional compensation pursuant to subdivision (j) receive the compensation prescribed by this subdivision.
- SEC. 24. Section 73353 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73353. Classes of positions provided in Section 73351 are allocated to the salary schedule as follows:

SEC. 26. Article 3 (commencing with Section 73390) is added to Chapter 10 of Title 8 of the Government Code, to read:

Article 3. Hanford

73390. This article applies to the municipal court established in the Hanford Judicial District, County of Kings.

73391. There shall be one judge.

73392. There shall be one clerk of the court, known as the clerk-administrator, who shall be appointed by the presiding judge of the court. He or she shall receive a salary specified in Range 63.0.

73394. (a) The clerk-administrator, with the concurrence of the presiding judge, may appoint:

- (1) One account clerk III who shall receive a salary specified in Range 30.5.
- (2) Two deputy municipal court clerks III who shall each receive a salary specified in Range 34.0.
- (3) Two courtroom deputy municipal court clerks who shall each receive a salary specified in Range 31.5.
- (4) Five deputy municipal court clerks I/II who shall each receive a salary specified in Range 24.0, or Range 29.0 if promoted to the II level.
- (b) The clerk-administrator, with the concurrence of the presiding judge and approval of the board of supervisors, may appoint such additional employees as may be necessary, each appointment to remain in effect only until January 1 of the second year following the year in which the appointment was made, unless subsequently ratified by the Legislature.
- 73395. (a) Whenever reference to a numbered salary range is made in any section of this article, the schedule of hourly rates of pay and approximate monthly equivalents found in the Salary Resolution of the County of Kings in effect on July 14, 1986, shall apply.
- (b) If the board of supervisors adopts a revised salary resolution for county employees or applies new salary range numbers for the purpose of salary adjustment, the new salary rates shall apply equally to the positions named in this article. Any salary adjustment made pursuant to this section shall be effective on the same date as the action applicable to other county permanent classified employees, but shall remain in effect only until January 1 of the second year following the year in which such adjustment in salary is made, unless subsequently ratified by the Legislature.
- (c) The persons employed in the positions named in this article shall be entitled to all employee benefits and holidays as they are provided and made applicable to positions within the classified service pursuant to personnel ordinances and resolutions adopted by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Kings.
  - (d) All matters affecting administration of salary and benefits, selection, appointment, reclassification, and discipline of such municipal court officers and employees in those positions which they hold shall be governed by the personnel ordinances and resolutions adopted by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Kings, to the extent that such ordinances and resolutions are not contrary to state law.

- 73396. The Sheriff of the County of Kings and his or her deputies specifically designated by him or her shall be the ex officio marshal and deputy marshals, respectively, of the court and shall act as such without additional compensation.
- 73397. (a) The presiding judge may appoint as many court reporters, known as official reporters pro tempore, as the business of the court requires. Each official reporter pro tempore shall perform the duties required of him or her by law. These reporters shall hold office at the pleasure of the presiding judge.
- (b) Fees for reporting and for transcription of testimony and proceedings in the court shall be paid by the litigants to official reporters pro tempore as provided in Sections 69947 to 69954, inclusive, or as otherwise provided by law as paid to reporters in the Superior Court of the County of Kings. In all cases where by law the court may direct the payment of reporting and transcription fees out of the county treasury, including fees for reporting and transcription of testimony and proceedings in criminal cases as provided in Section 69952, such fees shall, upon order of the court, be paid from the general fund of the county treasury.
- SEC. 27. Section 74949.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:
- 74949.1. (a) The judges of the Napa Municipal Court may appoint one full-time or part-time commissioner who shall hold office at the pleasure of the judges making the appointment, and shall possess the same qualifications as are required of the judge of a municipal court. Within the jurisdiction of the court, and to the extent the judges so direct, the commissioner shall exercise the same powers and duties as a judge of the municipal court with respect to any infraction or small claims action, and shall exercise all other powers and perform all other duties of a municipal court commissioner that may be prescribed by law. In addition, and notwithstanding the provisions of Section 72400, the commissioner shall act as a traffic referee and shall have the powers and duties specified in Article 9 (commencing with Section 72400) of Chapter 8.
- (b) The commissioner shall receive a monthly salary at a rate equal to 65 percent of the salary of a municipal court judge. In addition to the monthly salary, the commissioner shall be entitled to and shall receive fringe benefits on the same basis as any employee of the municipal court, other than the clerk of the municipal court, who works an equivalent number of hours. The commissioner shall observe the same holidays as other court employees. If the appointment of the commissioner is on a part-time basis, any salary and fringe benefits to which the commissioner may be entitled shall be prorated on the basis of a 40-hour work week.

A full-time commissioner shall not engage in the private practice of the law. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, a part-time commissioner shall be entitled to engage in the private practice of the law so long as the commissioner does not practice law before any court of the municipal court district to which he or she is appointed.

Before any action or proceeding is tried or heard by a part-time court commissioner, any party to, or any attorney appearing in, the action or proceeding shall, however, be entitled to require, by oral or written motion without notice, that the action or proceeding be reassigned or transferred, whereupon the action or proceeding shall be reassigned or transferred as promptly as possible to a judge, court commissioner, or referee of the court. The court shall, prior to the commencement of any such trial or hearing provide notice to each party or attorney of record in the action or proceeding of this entitlement to require reassignment or transfer.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1988, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before that date, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 28. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act.

CHAPTER 1419

An act relating to international trade, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

> [Approved by Governor September 29, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The California State World Trade Commission shall review, analyze, and make recommendations regarding California statutes, rules, and regulations which have been identified as significant trade barriers for exporters of major California manufactured goods and services. The commission also shall catalogue significant trade barriers to manufactured goods and services imposed by Pacific Rim nations covered by the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT).

The commission may contract for this study, which shall be completed no later than June 30, 1987.

In addition, in order to ensure that planned overseas trade offices are located in areas of the world which will most benefit California's international trade interests, and in view of the particular need to promote California exports and reduce the California trade deficit, the commission shall also research and compile information which identifies the foreign destinations of California-produced exports by major product category. The commission may contract for this study, which shall be completed no later than February 15, 1987.

Upon completion of these studies, the commission shall report its findings and recommendations to the Governor, the Lieutenant Governor, the Secretary of State, the Senate Rules Committee, and the Speaker of the Assembly.

- SEC. 2. The sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the California State World Trade Commission Fund for purposes of this act.
- SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

CHAPTER 1420

An act to amend Sections 27281, 27288.1, and 66493 of the Government Code, to amend Section 18092.7 of the Health and Safety Code, to amend Sections 75.53, 129, 160, 480.3 2610.5, 3456, 3691, 3693.1, 3701, 3704, 3706, 3707, 3731, 4220, 4653.8, 4656.5, 4675, and 4920 of, and to add Sections 2189.1, 2189.7, 2189.8, and 3715 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, and to amend Sections 26601, 26603, 26606, 26655, and 26658 of the Water Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 27281 of the Government Code is amended to read:

27281. Deeds or grants conveying any interest in or easement upon real estate to a political corporation or governmental agency for public purposes shall not be accepted for recordation without the consent of the grantee evidenced by its certificate or resolution of acceptance attached to or printed on the deed or grant. If a certificate of acceptance is used, it shall be in substantially the following form:

This is to certify that the interest in real property conveyed by the political oted by

A political corporation or governmental agency, by a general resolution, may authorize one or more officers or agents to accept and consent to such deeds or grants.

In cases where the county tax collector files purchaser's deeds with respect to a sale for defaulted taxes, the information contained in those documents shall be deemed to constitute compliance with this section.

- SEC. 2. Section 27288.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:
- 27288.1. All documents described in this section now or hereafter authorized by law to be recorded in the official records of a county shall contain the following information in addition to such information as may be required by law pertaining to the particular document:
- (a) If such document effects or evidences a transfer or encumbrance of an interest in real property, the name or names in which such interest appears of record, except that a notice of assessment recorded pursuant to Section 3114 of the Streets and Highways Code, and a notice of award of contract recorded pursuant to Section 5248 of the Streets and Highways Code, shall show the name or names of the assessed owners as they appear on the latest secured assessment roll.
- (b) If such document releases or terminates any interest, right or encumbrance, it shall contain or have appended thereto all of the names of those persons and entities owning the title or interest being relieved thereby, or the names of the owners of such title or interest as they appeared at the time and in the document creating such interest, right or encumbrance.
- (c) In cases where the county tax collector is filing purchaser's deeds with respect to a sale for defaulted taxes, those documents shall be deemed to constitute compliance with this section.

Ţ

No such document shall be recorded or indexed in the official records of a county unless it contains the information required by this section as well as any additional information required by law pertaining to the particular document, but the recorder may rely upon the information contained in or appended to the document being offered for record. The failure of any such document to include all of the names required by this section shall not affect the constructive notice which would otherwise be afforded by the recording of such document. This section shall not apply to a vacation or abandonment by a public agency of a public highway or road.

- SEC. 3. Section 66493 of the Government Code is amended to read:
- 66493. (a) Whenever any part of the subdivision is subject to a lien for taxes or special assessments collected as taxes which are not yet payable, the final map or parcel map shall not be recorded until the owner or subdivider does both of the following:
- (1) Files with the clerk of the board of supervisors of the county wherein any part of the subdivision is located, a certificate prepared by the appropriate state or local official giving his or her estimate of those taxes or assessments.
- (2) Executes and files with the clerk of the board of supervisors of the county wherein any part of the subdivision is located, security conditioned upon the payment of all state, county, municipal, and local taxes and the current installment of principal and interest of all special assessments collected as taxes, which at the time the final map is recorded are a lien against the property, but which are not yet payable.
- (b) If the land being subdivided is a portion of a larger parcel shown on the last preceding tax roll as a unit, the security for payment of taxes need be only for that sum as may be determined by the county to be sufficient to pay the current and delinquent taxes on the land being subdivided, together with all accrued penalties and costs if those taxes have been or are allowed to become delinquent. Separate assessor's parcel numbers shall be given to the portion of the larger parcel which is not within the proposed subdivision and to the parcel or parcels which are within the proposed subdivision.

If the land being subdivided is tax-defaulted, it may be redeemed without the redemption of the remainder of the larger parcel of which it is a part pursuant to the Revenue and Taxation Code as if it were held in ownership separate from and other than the ownership of the remainder.

(c) Whenever land subject to a special assessment or bond which may be paid in full is divided by the line of a lot or parcel of the subdivision, that assessment or bond shall be paid in full, or security shall be filed with the clerk of the board of supervisors, payable to the county as trustee for the assessment bondholders for the payment of the special assessment or bond. This section does not apply to bonds issued under the Improvement Bond Act of 1915, Division 10 (commencing with Section 8500) of the Streets and Highways Code.

- (d) The amount of security for "taxes" in subdivision (a) or "current taxes" for subdivision (b), shall consider only amounts shown on the regular assessment roll or shown on any supplemental rolls prepared pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 75) of Part 0.5 of Division 1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.
- SEC. 4. Section 18092.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- 18092.7. The department shall withhold the registration or transfer of registration of any manufactured home, mobilehome, or floating home, other than a new manufactured home, mobilehome, or floating home for which application is being made for an original registration, until the applicant presents a tax clearance certificate issued pursuant to Section 2189.8 or 5832 of the Revenue and Taxation Code by the tax collector of the county where the manufactured home, mobilehome, or floating home is located.
- SEC. 5. Section 75.53 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 75.53. If all delinquent amounts which are a lien on real property are not paid in full by the time fixed in the publication of the notice of impending default for failure to pay real property taxes next following the date of delinquency of the second installment of the supplemental taxes, the property shall be subject to the provisions of Section 3436.
- SEC. 6. Section 129 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 129. "Business inventories" shall include goods intended for sale or lease in the ordinary course of business and shall include raw materials and work in process with respect to such goods. "Business inventories" shall also include animals and crops held primarily for sale or lease, or animals used in the production of food or fiber and feed for such animals.

"Business inventories" shall not include any goods actually leased or rented on the lien date nor shall "business inventories" include business machinery or equipment or office furniture, machines or equipment, except when such property is held for sale or lease in the ordinary course of business. "Business inventories" shall not include any item held for lease which has been or is intended to be used by the lessor prior to or subsequent to the lease. "Business inventories" shall not include goods intended for sale or lease in the ordinary course of business which cannot be legally sold or leased in this state. If goods which cannot be legally sold or leased are not reported by the taxpayer pursuant to Section 441, it shall be conclusively presumed that the value of the goods when discovered is the value of the goods on the preceding lien date.

"Business inventories" shall also include goods held by a licensed contractor and not yet incorporated into real property.

SEC. 7. Section 160 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

- 160. In any action against the county to quiet title allowed under this division, service of process shall be made on the tax collector of the county where the real property is situated.
- SEC. 8. Section 480.3 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 480.3. (a) Each county assessor and recorder shall make available, without charge and upon request, a form entitled "Preliminary Change of Ownership Report," which transferees of real property may complete and file with the recorder concurrent with the recordation of any document effecting a change of ownership.
- (b) If a document evidencing a change of ownership is presented to the recorder for recordation without the concurrent filing of a preliminary change of ownership report, the recorder may charge an additional recording fee of twenty dollars ($20). The additional fee shall not be charged if the document is accompanied by an affidavit that the transferee is not a resident of California.
- (c) Noncompliance with this section by the transferee shall not delay or preclude the recordation of documents if the additional fee specified in subdivision (b) is tendered.
- (d) The authority to obtain information pursuant to this section is in addition to, and not in lieu of, any existing authority the assessor has under this article.
- (e) In cases where the county tax collector files purchaser's deeds with respect to a sale for defaulted taxes, the information given to the assessor pursuant to Sections 3716 and 3811 shall be deemed to constitute compliance with this section.
- (f) The filing of a preliminary change of ownership report or the payment of an additional recording fee shall not be required of any intermediate transferee of property. For purposes of this subdivision, "intermediate transferee" means any transferee who is acting as both a transferee and the transferor of the same property as part of a series of simultaneous transfers which affect that property and who records the transfer documents and any other recorded documents related to the transfer in consecutive order at one time.
- (g) Except as prescribed in subdivisions (e) and (f), this section shall apply to changes of ownership occurring on or after July 1, 1985.
- (h) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1991, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1991, deletes or extends that date.
- SEC. 9. Section 2189.1 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:
- 2189.1. Separately billed taxes on state-assessed personal property when delinquent may be collected through use of unsecured tax collection procedures. Any of those taxes, including penalties and cost charge, which remain unpaid after June 30, shall be transferred to the unsecured roll or abstract and shall become subject to additional penalties as provided in Section 2922.
  - SEC. 10. Section 2189.7 is added to the Revenue and Taxation

Code, to read:

- 2189.7. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (a), (b), or (c), the assessment of any floating home made pursuant to Section 229 shall be entered on the secured roll and shall be subject to all provisions of law applicable to taxes on the secured roll.
- (a) If the taxes on any floating home are not a lien on real property of the owner of the floating home pursuant to Section 2188.1, 2189, or 2189.3 and are unpaid when any installment of taxes on the secured roll becomes delinquent, the tax collector may use the procedures applicable to the collection of delinquent taxes on the unsecured roll.
- (b) If the taxes on any floating home which are not a lien on real property of the owner of the floating home remain unpaid at the time set for the declaration of default for delinquent taxes of the floating home on the secured roll, the taxes, together with any penalties and costs which may have accrued thereon while on the secured roll, shall be transferred to the unsecured roll.
- (c) The taxes on floating homes may be paid in two installments as provided in Chapter 2.1 (commencing with Section 2700) of Part 5, notwithstanding Section 2605 and whether or not the county board of supervisors has adopted a resolution in accordance with Section 2700.
- SEC. 11. Section 2189.8 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:
- 2189.8. Upon application, the county tax collector may issue tax clearance certificates. Those certificates shall be used to permit registration of used floating homes, as defined in Section 18075.6 of the Health and Safety Code, and for any other purposes as may be prescribed by the Controller. The certificates may indicate that the county tax collector finds that no local property tax is due or is likely to become due, or that any applicable local property taxes have been paid or are to be paid in a manner not requiring the withholding of registration or the transfer of registration. The certificates shall be in any form which the Controller may prescribe, and shall be executed, issued, and accepted for clearance of registration or permit issuance on any conditions which the Controller may prescribe.
- SEC. 12. Section 2610.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 2610.5. Annually, on or before November 1, the tax collector shall mail a county tax bill or a copy thereof for every property on the secured roll. This requirement need not be met where no taxes are due. Failure to receive a tax bill shall not relieve the lien of taxes, nor shall it prevent the imposition of penalties imposed by this code. However, the penalty imposed for delinquent taxes as provided by any section of this code shall be canceled if the assessee or fee owner demonstrates to the tax collector that delinquency is due to the tax collector's failure to mail the tax bill to the address provided on the tax roll.

With respect to a late, amended, or corrected tax bill, the penalties imposed for delinquent taxes shall be canceled if the tax amount is paid within 30 days following the date that bill is mailed.

Under no circumstance shall a taxpayer have fewer than 30 days to pay without penalty.

SEC. 13. Section 3456 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

3456. If the payment accepted by the tax collector was wholly in negotiable paper which was not paid on due presentation, the county shall have a claim against the person who attempted payment by the negotiable paper for the cost of the sale. The tax collector shall forthwith notify by registered mail the person so attempting payment with advice that his or her bid has been voided and state the amount of the county's claim.

SEC. 15. Section 3691 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

3691. Five years or more after the property has become tax-defaulted, the tax collector shall have the power to sell and may sell all or any portion of tax-defaulted property which has not been redeemed, without regard to the boundaries of the parcels, as provided in this chapter, unless by other provisions of law the property is not subject to sale. Any person, regardless of any prior or existing lien on, claim to or interest in the property, may purchase at the sale.

When a part of a tax-defaulted parcel is sold, the balance continues subject to redemption and shall be separately valued for the purpose of redemption in the manner provided by Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 4131) of Part 7.

SEC. 16. Section 3693.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

3693.1. Notwithstanding Section 3693, if the high bid is in excess of five thousand dollars ($5,000), the tax collector may make the sale a cash or credit transaction. In the event the successful purchaser elects to treat the sale as a credit transaction, five thousand dollars ($5,000) or 10 percent of the purchase price, whichever is greater, shall be deposited with the tax collector and the balance of the purchase price shall be paid in cash not more than 90 days from the date of the auction as a condition precedent to the transfer of title to such successful purchaser. Failure on the part of the successful bidder to consummate the sale within the period allowed shall result in the forfeiture of the deposit and all rights he may have with respect to such property. Any forfeiture of deposit shall be distributed to the county general fund and shall not apply to outstanding delinquent taxes. Upon forfeiture the right of redemption shall revive.

SEC. 17. Section 3701 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

3701. After receiving the written authorization of the Controller, and not less than 45 days nor more than 60 days before the proposed sale, the tax collector shall send notice of the proposed sale by registered mail to the last known mailing address, if available, of parties of interest, as defined in Section 4675. The contents of the notice shall include the date, time, and place of the proposed sale, the amount required to redeem the property, and the fact that the property may be redeemed up to the close of business on the last business day prior to the date of sale, and information regarding the rights of parties of interest to claim excess proceeds, as defined in Section 4674, if the property is sold and excess proceeds result from such sale.

The tax collector shall make a reasonable effort to obtain the name and last known mailing address of parties of interest.

The validity of any sale under this chapter shall not be affected if the tax collector's reasonable effort fails to disclose the name and last known mailing address of parties of interest or if a party of interest does not receive the mailed notice.

- SEC. 18. Section 3704 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
  - 3704. The notice of intended sale shall state all of the following:
  - (a) The date, time, and place of the intended sale.
  - (b) A description of the property to be sold.
  - (c) The name of the last assessee of the property.
  - (d) The minimum acceptable bid of the property to be sold.
- (e) There shall also be a statement that if the property is not redeemed before the close of business on the last business day prior to the date of the sale, the right of redemption will cease.
- (f) If the property is sold, parties of interest, as defined in Section 4675, have the right to file a claim with the county for any proceeds from the sale which are in excess of the liens and costs required to be paid from the proceeds.
- (g) If excess proceeds result from the sale, notice will be given to parties of interest, pursuant to law.
- SEC. 19. Section 3706 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 3706. If the property is not redeemed before the close of business on the last business day prior to the date of the sale of the property, the tax collector shall sell the property at public auction to the highest bidder at the time and place fixed.

In the case of a sale at public auction, no bid shall be accepted for a sum less than the minimum price approved in the resolution of the board of supervisors; provided, however, the tax collector may reduce such minimum price when a partial redemption has been made under Chapter 2, Part 7, Division 1 of this code, or when a partial cancellation has been made under Chapter 4, Part 9, Division 1 of this code, after such price was fixed, by not more than the ratio that the delinquency on the portion so redeemed or canceled bears to the delinquency upon the whole.

- SEC. 20. Section 3707 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
  - 3707. (a) The right of redemption shall terminate at the close of business on the last business day prior to the date the sale begins.

- (b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any remittance sent by mail for redemption of tax-defaulted property must be received in the tax collector's office prior to the time established in subdivision (a).
- (c) The sale shall be deemed complete when a qualified bid is accepted by the tax collector.
- (d) The right of redemption revives if the property is not sold. SEC. 21. Section 3715 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:
- 3715. On completion of the sale, the tax collector shall report to the Controller the disposition of all parcels which were not sold at the sale.
- SEC. 22. Section 3731 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 3731. (a) When a tax deed to a purchaser of property sold by the tax collector pursuant to this part is recorded and it is determined that the property should not have been sold, the sale may be rescinded by the board of supervisors with the written consent of the county legal adviser and the purchaser of the property under any of the following circumstances:
- (1) The property has not been transferred or conveyed by the purchaser at the tax sale to a bona fide purchaser for value.
- (2) The property has not become subject to a bona fide encumbrance for value subsequent to the recordation of the tax deed.
- (b) When the sale of tax-defaulted property is rescinded pursuant to subdivision (a), the purchaser is entitled to a refund of the amount paid as the purchase price after the purchaser executes a recision of the tax deed. The recision shall also be executed by the county tax collector. The signatures of the purchaser and the county tax collector shall be acknowledged by the county clerk, without charge, and the county tax collector shall then record the recision with the county recorder, without charge. After recordation, a copy of the recision shall be forwarded to the Controller. When the recision is recorded, the tax deed becomes null and void as though never issued and all provisions of law relating to tax-defaulted property shall apply to the property.
- SEC. 23. Section 4220 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 4220. In each succeeding fiscal year the redemptioner shall pay all current taxes and penalties coming due in that fiscal year before the delinquency date of the last installment of current taxes.

Supplemental assessment tax installments that became delinquent after April 10 shall not default the installment plan of redemption, if paid on or before June 30.

- SEC. 24. Section 4653.8 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
  - 4653.8. The cost charge amounts collected by the tax collector shall be distributed to a county fund for use by the tax collector in covering the cost of preparing and maintaining the delinquent list.

SEC. 25. Section 4656.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

4656.5. All redemption fees collected for property tax-defaulted prior to January 1, 1984, shall be distributed 50 percent to the State of California for deposit in the General Fund and 50 percent to the county that is the situs of the tax-defaulted property for deposit in its general fund. Redemption fees collected for property tax defaulted on and after January 1, 1984, shall be distributed five dollars ($5) to the State of California for deposit in the General Fund and ten dollars ($10) to the county that is the situs of the tax-defaulted property for deposit in its general fund.

SEC. 26. Section 4675 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

4675. Any party of interest in the property may file with the county a claim for the excess proceeds, in proportion to his or her interest held with others of equal priority in the property at the time of sale, at any time prior to the expiration of one year following the recordation of the tax collector's deed to the purchaser.

After the property has been sold, a party of interest in the property at the time of the sale may assign his or her right to claim the excess proceeds only by a dated, written instrument that explicitly states that the right to claim the excess proceeds is being assigned, and only after each party to the proposed assignment has disclosed to each other party to the proposed assignment all facts of which he or she is aware relating to the value of the right that is being assigned. Any attempted assignment that does not comply with these requirements shall have no effect. This paragraph shall apply only with respect to assignments on or after the effective date of this paragraph. In addition, any person or entity who in any way acts on behalf of, or in place of, any party of interest with respect to filing a claim for any excess proceeds shall submit proof with the claim that the amount of excess proceeds has been disclosed to the party of interest and that the party of interest has been advised of his or her right to file a claim for the excess proceeds on his or her own behalf.

The claims shall contain any information and proof deemed necessary by the board of supervisors to establish the claimant's rights to all or any portion of the excess proceeds.

No sooner than one year following the recordation of the tax collector's deed to the purchaser, and if the excess proceeds have been claimed by any party of interest as provided herein, the excess proceeds shall be distributed on order of the board of supervisors to the parties of interest who have claimed the excess proceeds in the order of priority set forth in subdivisions (a) and (b). For the purposes of this article, parties of interest and their order of priority are:

(a) First, lienholders of record prior to the recordation of the tax deed to the purchaser in the order of their priority; and

(b) Then, any person with title of record to all or any portion of the property prior to the recordation of the tax deed to the purchaser.

Any action or proceeding to review the decision of the board of supervisors shall be commenced within 90 days after the date of that decision of the board of supervisors.

SEC. 26.5. Section 4920 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

4920. This article shall be applicable only if all of the following requirements in either subdivision (a) or subdivision (b) are true:

- (a) (1) By substantial evidence a redemptioner convinces the tax collector that money paid by him in redemption of any property or for the use of any property pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 4186) of Part 7 of this division was intended by him to be paid in connection with any other property or that such payment was, without his fault, credited to unintended property.
- (2) The right of redemption has not terminated on the property in connection with which the payment was intended.
  - (3) Two years have not elapsed since the date of the payment.
- (4) Since the date of payment, the property has not been transferred or conveyed to a bona fide purchaser for value or become subject to a bona fide encumbrancer for value.

When all of the foregoing are true, the tax collector shall transfer the payment to the property in connection with which the payment was intended, and in case the payment caused the redemption of the property in connection with which the payment was not intended, cancel the redemption of that property.

- (b) (1) By substantial evidence a redemptioner convinces the tax collector that money paid by him in redemption of any property or for the use of any property pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 4186) of Part 7 of this division was, without his fault, credited to unintended property.
- (2) The right of redemption has not terminated on the property in connection with which the payment was intended.
  - (3) Two years have not elapsed since the date of the payment.
- (4) Since the date of payment, the property has not been transferred or conveyed to a bona fide purchaser for value or become subject to a bona fide encumbrancer for value.

When all of the foregoing are true, the tax collector shall transfer the payment to the property in connection with which the payment was intended to be made, and shall cancel the credit on the unintended property. In the event such a transfer is made, the person owning the unintended property immediately before issuance of the guaranty or certificate shall be personally liable for the amount so transferred which shall be collected in the manner specified for the collection of taxes on the unsecured roll.

SEC. 27. Section 26601 of the Water Code is amended to read: 26601. At its option, the board of directors of a district may adopt a resolution declaring its intention to dispense with either the office of assessor or both the offices of assessor and collector of the district, and to transfer the duties of either the assessor or of both such officers to the assessor or to the assessor and tax collector of the county or counties in which the lands within such districts are located. Such resolution shall specify whether, under the proposed procedure, lands subject to sale for unpaid assessments shall be sold to the district or be declared tax-defaulted for nonpayment of the taxes.

SEC. 28. Section 26603 of the Water Code is amended to read: 26603. Within 30 days of the receipt of such resolution, the board of supervisors shall adopt a resolution advising the district of the charges to be made for the services to be performed by the county. If the board of directors elects to accept the terms offered by the county, it shall adopt a resolution reciting its acceptance, dispensing with the office of district assessor or with both the offices of district assessor and district collector, and transferring their duties to the assessor or to the assessor and tax collector of the county or counties in which the lands within the district are located. Such resolution shall specify whether, under the agreed upon procedure, lands subject to sale for unpaid assessments shall be sold to the district or be declared tax-defaulted for the nonpayment of those assessments.

SEC. 29. Section 26606 of the Water Code is amended to read: 26606. After termination of the contract, the county officers shall continue with the collection of district assessments on the county rolls and with the redemption or deeding of property subject to delinquent district assessments on county rolls until all such assessments have been collected or all such property has been either redeemed or tax-defaulted for unpaid assessments.

SEC. 30. Section 26655 of the Water Code is amended to read: 26655. Unpaid district assessments are delinquent on the same hour and day that county taxes are delinquent and the lands subject thereto shall either be sold to the district or be declared tax-defaulted in the manner, at the time, and upon the penalties of default of property for nonpayment of county taxes.

SEC. 31. Section 26658 of the Water Code is amended to read: 26658. Lands sold to the district remaining unredeemed after five years have elapsed from the date of their sale for delinquent district assessments shall be deeded to the district by the county tax collector. The deed shall be substantially in the form provided for collector's deeds by Section 26276 of the Water Code and shall have the same effect and be recorded in the same manner as irrigation district's collector's deeds under the provisions of Articles 4 and 5 of Chapter 6 of this part. Land which has been declared to be tax-defaulted remaining unredeemed after five years have elapsed from the date of the tax-default for delinquent district assessments shall become subject to the tax collector's power of sale pursuant to Section 3691 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

SEC. 32. Reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code and, if the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

- SEC. 33. (a) Every act and proceeding heretofore taken by any taxing agency or revenue district or the officers thereof relative to preparing, transmitting, computing, determining, or fixing the budget or the tax rate or taxes of any taxing agency or revenue district, or to the assessment or equalization of property or to the levy of taxes thereon or to tax collection, sales, or certificates of tax sales, tax deeds, or other conveyances, are hereby confirmed, validated, and declared legally effective.
- (b) As used in this section, "revenue district" includes every city and district for which the county officers assess property and collect taxes or assessments.

As used in this section, "taxing agency" includes the county and city. "Taxing agency" also includes every district that assesses property for taxation purposes and levies taxes or assessments on the property so assessed.

- (c) This section is limited to the correction of defects, irregularities, and ministerial errors which the Legislature originally could have omitted from the statutory requirements of law under which the acts hereby confirmed, validated, and declared legally effective were taken.
- (d) This section is limited to the validating of acts and proceedings to the extent to which this validating can be effectuated under the California and United States Constitutions.
- (e) This section shall not operate to confirm, validate, or legalize any act, proceeding, or other matter the legality of which is being contested or inquired into in any legal proceeding, now pending and undetermined or which may be pending and undetermined during the period of 30 days from and after the effective date of this act, and shall not operate to confirm, validate, or legalize any act, proceeding, or other matter which has heretofore been determined in any legal proceeding to be illegal, void, or ineffective.
- (f) Nothing in this section shall operate to make valid any property tax rate which is in excess of that permitted by law.
- (g) If any provisions of this section or its application to any person or circumstances are held invalid, the remainder of the section and application of its provisions to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

CHAPTER 1421

An act to amend Section 12020 of the Penal Code, relating to crime.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- SECTION 1. Section 12020 of the Penal Code is amended to read: 12020. (a) Any person in this state who manufactures or causes to be manufactured, imports into the state, keeps for sale, or offers or exposes for sale, or who gives, lends, or possesses any cane gun or wallet gun, any firearm which is not immediately recognizable as a firearm, any ammunition which contains or consists of any flechette dart, any bullet containing or carrying an explosive agent, any ballistic knife, or any instrument or weapon of the kind commonly known as a blackjack, slungshot, billy, nunchaku, sandelub, sandbag, sawed-off shotgun, or metal knuckles, or who carries concealed upon his or her person any explosive substance, other than fixed ammunition or who carries concealed upon his or her person any dirk or dagger, is guilty of a felony, and upon conviction shall be punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year or in a state prison. A bullet containing or carrying an explosive agent is not a destructive device as that term is used in Section 12301.
  - (b) Subdivision (a) does not apply to any of the following:
- (1) The manufacture, possession, transportation or use, with blank cartridges, of sawed-off shotguns solely as props for motion picture film or television program production when authorized by the Department of Justice pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 12095) of this chapter and not in violation of federal law.
- (2) The possession of a nunchaku on the premises of a school which holds a regulatory or business license and teaches the arts of self-defense.
- (3) The manufacture of a nunchaku for sale to, or the sale of a nunchaku to, a school which holds a regulatory or business license and teaches the arts of self-defense.
- (4) Any antique firearm. For purposes of this section, "antique firearm" means any firearm not designed or redesigned for using rim fire or conventional center fire ignition with fixed ammunition and manufactured in or before 1898 (including any matchlock, flintlock, percussion cap, or similar type of ignition system or replica thereof, whether actually manufactured before or after the year 1898) and also any firearm using fixed ammunition manufactured in or before 1898, for which ammunition is no longer manufactured in the United States and is not readily available in the ordinary channels of commercial trade.
  - (5) Tracer ammunition manufactured for use in shotguns.
  - (6) Any firearm or ammunition which is a curio or relic as defined in Section 178.11 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations and which is in the possession of a person permitted to possess such items pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto. Any person prohibited by Section 12021 or 12021.5 of this code or Section 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code from possessing such firearms or ammunition who obtains title to such items by bequest or intestate succession may retain title for not more than one year, but actual possession of such items at any time shall be punishable pursuant to Section 12021 or 12021.5 of this code or Section 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. Within such year the person shall transfer title to such firearms or ammunition by sale, gift, or other disposition. Any person who violates this paragraph is in violation of subdivision (a).

- (7) Any other weapon as defined in subsection (e) of Section 5845 of Title 26 of the United States Code and which is in the possession of a person permitted to possess the weapons pursuant to the federal Gun Control Act of 1968 (Public Law 90-618), as amended, and the regulations issued pursuant thereto. Any person prohibited by Section 12021 or 12021.5 of this code or Section 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code from possessing these weapons who obtains title to these weapons by bequest or intestate succession may retain title for not more than one year, but actual possession of these weapons at any time is punishable pursuant to Section 12021 or 12021.5 of this code or Section 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. Within that year the person shall transfer title to the weapons by sale, gift, or other disposition. Any person who violates this paragraph is in violation of subdivision (a). The exemption provided in this subdivision does not apply to pen guns.
- (c) Any person in this state who manufactures or causes to be manufactured, imports into the state, keeps for sale, or offers or exposes for sale, or who gives, lends, or possesses any instrument, without handles, consisting of a metal plate having three or more radiating points with one or more sharp edges and designed in the shape of a polygon, trefoil, cross, star, diamond, or other geometric shape for use as a weapon for throwing is guilty of a felony, and upon conviction shall be punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year or in a state prison.
- (d) (1) As used in this section, a "sawed-off shotgun" means any firearm (including any revolver) manufactured, designed, or converted to fire shotgun ammunition having a barrel or barrels of less than 18 inches in length, or a rifle having a barrel or barrels of less than 16 inches in length, or any weapon made from a rifle or shotgun (whether by manufacture, alteration, modification, or otherwise) if such weapon as modified has an overall length of less than 26 inches.
- (2) As used in this section, a "nunchaku" means an instrument consisting of two or more sticks, clubs, bars or rods to be used as handles, connected by a rope, cord, wire or chain, in the design of - a weapon used in connection with the practice of a system of self-defense such as karate.

- (3) As used in this section, a "wallet gun" means any firearm mounted or enclosed in a case, resembling a wallet, designed to be or capable of being carried in a pocket or purse, if such firearm may be fired while mounted or enclosed in such case.
- (4) As used in this section, a "cane gun" means any firearm mounted or enclosed in a stick, staff, rod, crutch or similar device, designed to be or capable of being used as an aid in walking, if such firearm may be fired while mounted or enclosed therein.
- (5) As used in this section, a "flechette dart" means a dart, capable of being fired from a firearm, which measures approximately one inch in length, with tail fins which take up five-sixteenths of an inch of the body.
- (6) As used in this section, "metal knuckles" means any device or instrument made wholly or partially of metal which is worn for purposes of offense or defense in or on the hand and which either protects the wearer's hand while striking a blow or increases the force of impact from the blow or injury to the individual receiving the blow. The metal contained in the device may help support the hand or fist, provide a shield to protect it, or consist of projections or studs which would contact the individual receiving a blow.
- (7) As used in this section, "ballistic knife" means a device that propels a knife-like blade as a projectile by means of a coil spring, elastic material, or compressed gas. Ballistic knife does not include any device which propels an arrow or a bolt by means of any common bow, compound bow, crossbow, or underwater spear gun.
- (e) Knives carried in sheaths which are worn openly suspended from the waist of the wearer are not concealed within the meaning of this section.
- SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1422

An act to amend Section 653k of the Penal Code, relating to dangerous weapons.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 653k of the Penal Code is amended to read: 653k. Every person who possesses in the passenger's or driver's area of any motor vehicle in any public place or place open to the public, carries upon his or her person, and every person who sells, offers for sale, exposes for sale, loans, transfers, or gives to any other person a switchblade knife having a blade over two inches in length is guilty of a misdemeanor.

For the purposes of this section a "switchblade knife" is a knife having the appearance of a pocketknife, and shall include a spring-blade knife, snap-blade knife, gravity knife or any other similar type knife, the blade or blades of which are two or more inches long and which can be released automatically by a flick of a button, pressure on the handle, flip of the wrist or other mechanical device, or is released by the weight of the blade or by any type of mechanism whatsoever.

For purposes of this section "passenger's or driver's area" means that part of a motor vehicle which is designed to carry the driver and passengers, including any interior compartment or space therein.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1423

An act to amend Section 12200 of the Penal Code, relating to crime.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12200 of the Penal Code is amended to read: 12200. The term "machinegun" as used in this chapter means any weapon which shoots, or is designed to shoot, automatically, more than one shot, without manual reloading, by a single function of the trigger, and includes any frame or receiver which can only be used with that weapon. The term also includes any part or combination of parts designed and intended for use in converting a weapon into a machinegun. The term also includes any weapon deemed by the federal Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms as readily convertible to a machinegun under Chapter 53 (commencing with Section 5801) of Title 26 of the United States Code.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1424

An act to amend Section 204 of the Penal Code, relating to sentences.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 204 of the Penal Code is amended to read: 204. Mayhem is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for two, four, or eight years.

CHAPTER 1425

An act to amend Section 667.7 of the Penal Code, relating to sentences.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 667.7 of the Penal Code is amended to read: 667.7. Any person convicted of a felony in which such person inflicted great bodily injury as provided in Section 12022.7, or personally used force which was likely to produce great bodily injury, who has served two or more prior separate prison terms as defined in Section 667.5 for the crime of murder; attempted murder; voluntary manslaughter; mayhem; rape by force, violence, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person; oral copulation by force, violence, duress, menace or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person: sodomy by force, violence, duress, menace or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person; lewd acts on a child under the age of 14 years by use of force. violence, duress, menace or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily iniury on the victim or another person; a violation of subdivision (a) of Section 289 where the act is accomplished against the victim's will by means of force, violence, duress, menace or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person; kidnapping for ransom, extortion, or robbery; robbery involving the use of force or a deadly weapon; assault with intent to commit murder; assault with a deadly weapon; assault with a force likely to produce great bodily injury; assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, penetration of a vaginal or anal opening in violation of Section 289, or lewd and lascivious acts on a child; arson of a structure; escape or attempted escape by an inmate with force or violence in violation of subdivision (a) of Section 4530, or of Section 4532; exploding a device with intent to murder in violation of Section 12308; exploding a destructive device which causes bodily injury in violation of Section 12309, or mayhem or great bodily injury in violation of Section 12310; exploding a destructive device with intent to injure, intimidate, or terrify, in violation of Section 12303.3; any felony in which such person inflicted great bodily injury as provided in Section 12022.7; or any felony punishable by death or life imprisonment with or without the possibility of parole is a habitual offender and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for life and shall not be eligible for release on parole for 20 years, or the term determined by the court pursuant to Section 1170 for the underlying conviction, including any enhancement applicable under Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 1170) of Title 7 of Part 2, or any period prescribed by Section 190 or 3046, whichever is greatest. The provisions of Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 2930) of Chapter 7 of Title 1 of Part 3 shall apply to reduce any minimum term in a state prison imposed pursuant to this section, but such person shall not otherwise be released on parole prior to such time. This section shall not prevent the imposition of the punishment of death or imprisonment for life without the possibility of parole. No prior prison term shall be used for this determination which was served prior to a period of 10 years in which the person remained free of both prison custody and the commission of an offense which results in a felony conviction. As used in this section, a commitment to the Department of the Youth Authority after conviction for a felony shall constitute a prior prison term. The term imposed under this section shall be imposed only if the prior prison terms are alleged under this section in the accusatory pleading, and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by a plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by a trial by the court sitting without a iurv.

CHAPTER 1426

An act to amend Section 667.51 of the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 667.51 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

- 667.51. (a) Any person who is found guilty of violating Section 288 shall receive a five-year enhancement for a prior conviction of an offense listed in subdivision (b) provided that no additional term shall be imposed under this subdivision for any prison term served prior to a period of 10 years in which the defendant remained free of both prison custody and the commission of an offense which results in a felony conviction.
  - (b) Section 261, 264.1, 285, 286, 288, 288a, or 289.
  - (c) Section 261, 264.1, 286, 288, 288a, or 289.
- (d) A violation of Section 288 by a person who has been previously convicted two or more times of an offense listed in subdivision (c) is punishable as a felony by imprisonment in the state prison for 15 years to life. However, if the two or more prior convictions were for violations of Section 288, this subdivision is applicable only if the current violation or at least one of the prior convictions is for an offense other than a violation of subdivision (a) of Section 288. For purposes of this subdivision, a prior conviction is required to have been for charges brought and tried separately. The provisions of Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 2930) of Chapter 7 of Title 1 of Part 3 shall apply to reduce any minimum term in a state prison imposed pursuant to this section, but such person shall not otherwise be released on parole prior to such time.

CHAPTER 1427

An act to amend Sections 11116.10 and 13835.5 of, and to add Title 17 (commencing with Section 679) to Part 1 of, the Penal Code, relating to crime.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Title 17 (commencing with Section 679) is added to Part 1 of the Penal Code, to read:

TITLE 17. RIGHTS OF VICTIMS AND WITNESSES OF CRIME

679. In recognition of the civil and moral duty of victims and witnesses of crime to fully and voluntarily cooperate with law enforcement and prosecutorial agencies, and in further recognition of the continuing importance of this citizen cooperation to state and local law enforcement efforts and the general effectiveness and well-being of the criminal justice system of this state, the Legislature declares its intent, in the enactment of this title, to ensure that all victims and witnesses of crime are treated with dignity, respect, courtesy, and sensitivity. It is the further intent that the rights enumerated in Section 679.02 relating to victims and witnesses of crime are honored and protected by law enforcement agencies, prosecutors, and judges in a manner no less vigorous than the protections afforded criminal defendants. It is the intent of the Legislature to add to Section 679.02 references to new rights as or as soon after they are created. The failure to enumerate in that section a right which is enumerated elsewhere in the law shall not be deemed to diminish the importance or enforceability of that right.

679.01. As used in this title, the following definitions shall control:

- (a) "Crime" means an act committed in this state which, if committed by a competent adult, would constitute a misdemeanor or felony.
- (b) "Victim" means a person against whom a crime has been committed.
- (c) "Witness" means any person who has been or is expected to testify for the prosecution, or who, by reason of having relevant information, is subject to call or likely to be called as a witness for the prosecution, whether or not any action or proceeding has yet been commenced.
- 679.02. (a) The following are hereby established as the statutory rights of victims and witnesses of crimes:
- (1) To be notified as soon as feasible that a court proceeding to which he or she has been subpoenaed as a witness will not proceed as scheduled, provided the prosecuting attorney determines that the witness' attendance is not required.
- (2) Upon request of the victim or a witness, to be informed by the prosecuting attorney of the final disposition of the case, as provided by Section 11116.10.
- (3) For the victim, the victim's parents or guardian if the victim is a minor, or the next of kin of the victim if the victim has died, to be notified of all sentencing proceedings, and of the right to appear, to reasonably express his or her views, and to have the court consider his or her statements, as provided by Section 1191.1.
- (4) For the victim, the victim's parents or guardian if the victim is a minor, or the next of kin of the victim if the victim has died, to be notified of all juvenile disposition hearings in which the alleged act would have been a felony if committed by an adult, and of the right to attend and to express his or her views, as provided by Section 656.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

- (5) Upon request by the victim or the next of kin of the victim if the victim has died, to be notified of any parole eligibility hearing and of the right to appear, to reasonably express his or her views, and to have his or her statements considered, as provided by Section 3043 of this code and by Section 1767 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.
- (6) Upon request by the victim or the next of kin of the victim if the crime was a homicide, to be notified of an inmate's placement in a reentry or work furlough program, or notified of the inmate's escape as provided by Section 11155.
- (7) To be notified that he or she may be entitled to witness fees and mileage, as provided by Section 1329.1.
- (8) For the victim, to be provided with information concerning the victim's right to civil recovery and the opportunity to be compensated from the Restitution Fund pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 13959) of Part 4 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code and Section 1191.2 of this code.
- (9) To the expeditious return of his or her property which has allegedly been stolen or embezzled, when it is no longer needed as evidence, as provided by Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 1407) and Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 1417) of Title 10 of Part 2.
  - (10) To an expeditious disposition of the criminal action.

Nothing in this paragraph is intended to affect the right of the people and the defendant to an expeditious disposition as provided in Section 1050.

- (b) The rights set forth in subdivision (a) shall be set forth in the information and educational materials prepared pursuant to Section 13897.1. The information and educational materials shall be distributed to local law enforcement agencies and local victims' programs by the Victims' Legal Resource Center established pursuant to Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 13897) of Title 6 of Part 4.
- (c) Local law enforcement agencies shall make available copies of the materials described in subdivision (b) to victims and witnesses.
- (d) Nothing in this section is intended to affect the rights and services provided to victims and witnesses by the local assistance centers for victims and witnesses.
- SEC. 2. Section 11116.10 of the Penal Code is amended to read: 11116.10. (a) Upon the request of a victim or a witness of a crime, the prosecuting attorney shall, within 60 days of the final disposition of the case, inform the victim or witness by letter of such final disposition. Such notice shall state the information described in Section 13151.1.
- (b) As used in this section, "victim" means any person alleged or found, upon the record, to have sustained physical or financial injury to person or property as a direct result of the crime charged.
  - (c) As used in this section, "witness" means any person who has been or is expected to testify for the prosecution, or who, by reason of having relevant information, is subject to call or likely to be called as a witness for the prosecution, whether or not any action or proceeding has yet been commenced.

- (d) As used in this section, "final disposition," means an ultimate termination of the case at the trial level including, but not limited to, dismissal, acquittal, or imposition of sentence by the court, or a decision by the prosecuting attorney, for whatever reason, not to file the case.
- (e) Subdivision (a) does not apply in any case where the offender or alleged offender is a minor unless the minor has been declared not a fit and proper subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law.
- (f) This section shall not apply to any case in which a disposition was made prior to the effective date of this section.
- SEC. 3. Section 13835.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read: 13835.5. (a) Comprehensive services shall include all of the following primary services:
- (1) Crisis intervention, providing timely and comprehensive responses to the individual needs of victims.
- (2) Emergency assistance, directly or indirectly providing food, housing, clothing, and, when necessary, cash.
- (3) Resource and referral counseling to agencies within the community which are appropriate to meet the victim's needs.
- (4) Direct counseling of the victim on problems resulting from the crime.
- (5) Assistance in the processing, filing, and verifying of claims filed by victims of crime pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 13959) of Part 4 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.
- (6) Assistance in obtaining the return of a victim's property held as evidence by law enforcement agencies, if requested.
  - (7) Orientation to the criminal justice system.
  - (8) Court escort.
- (9) Presentations to and training of criminal justice system agencies.
  - (10) Public presentations and publicity.
- (11) Monitoring appropriate court cases to keep victims and witnesses apprised of the progress and outcome of their case.
- (12) Notification to friends, relatives, and employers of the occurrence of the crime and the victim's condition, upon request of the victim.
- (13) Notification to the employer of the victim or witness, if requested by the victim or witness, informing the employer that the employee was a victim of or witness to a crime and asking the employer to minimize any loss of pay or other benefits which may result because of the crime or the employee's participation in the criminal justice system.
- (b) Comprehensive services may include the following optional services, if their provision does not preclude the efficient provision of primary services:

- (1) Employer intervention.
- (2) Creditor intervention.
- (3) Child care.
- (4) Assistance in obtaining restitution for the victim.
- (5) Notification to witnesses of any change in the court calendar.
- (6) Funeral arrangements.
- (7) Crime prevention information.
- (8) Witness protection, including arranging for law enforcement protection or relocating witnesses in new residences.
  - (9) Assistance in obtaining temporary restraining orders.
  - (10) Transportation.
- (11) Provision of a waiting area during court proceedings separate from defendants and families and friends of defendants.
- SEC. 4. No reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) and any other provisions of law.

CHAPTER 1428

An act to repeal Sections 211a and 213.5 of, to repeal and add Section 213 of, and to add Section 212.5 to, the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 211a of the Penal Code is repealed. SEC. 2. Section 212.5 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

- 212.5. (a) Every robbery of any person who is performing his or her duties as an operator of any motor vehicle, streetcar, or trackless trolley used for the transportation of persons for hire, and every robbery which is perpetrated in an inhabited dwelling house or trailer coach, as defined in the Vehicle Code, or the inhabited portion of any other building, is robbery of the first degree.
- (b) All kinds of robbery other than those listed in subdivision (a) are of the second degree.
  - SEC. 3. Section 213 of the Penal Code is repealed.
  - SEC. 4. Section 213 is added to the Penal Code, to read:
  - 213. (a) Robbery is punishable as follows:
- (1) Robbery of the first degree: by imprisonment in the state prison for three, four, or six years.

- (2) Robbery of the second degree: by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or five years.
- (b) Notwithstanding Section 664, attempted robbery is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison.
  - SEC. 5. Section 213.5 of the Penal Code is repealed.
- SEC. 6. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to abrogate, in part, the holding in People v. Beller, 172 Cal. App. 3d 904 that robbery and residential robbery are separate substantive crimes. It has been and still is the intent of the Legislature that there is but one crime of robbery which is defined in Section 211 of the Penal Code, and that certain forms of robbery are more aggravated and deserving of greater punishment.

CHAPTER 1429

An act to amend Section 1170.1 of the Penal Code, relating to sentences.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1170.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1170.1. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (c) and subject to Section 654, when any person is convicted of two or more felonies, whether in the same proceeding or court or in different proceedings or courts, and whether by judgment rendered by the same or by a different court, and a consecutive term of imprisonment is imposed under Sections 669 and 1170, the aggregate term of imprisonment for all these convictions shall be the sum of the principal term, the subordinate term and any additional term imposed pursuant to Section 667.5, 667.6, or 12022.1. The principal term shall consist of the greatest term of imprisonment imposed by the court for any of the crimes, including any enhancements imposed pursuant to Section 12022, 12022.3, 12022.4, 12022.5, 12022.6, 12022.7, 12022.8, or 12022.9. The subordinate term for each consecutive offense which is not a "violent felony" as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 shall consist of one-third of the middle term of imprisonment prescribed for each other such felony conviction for which a consecutive term of imprisonment is imposed, and shall exclude any enhancements. In no case shall the total of subordinate terms for such consecutive offenses which are not "violent felonies" as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 exceed five years. The subordinate term for each consecutive offense which is a "violent felony" as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5, including those offenses described in paragraph (8) of subdivision (c) of Section 667.5, shall consist of

- one-third of the middle term of imprisonment prescribed for each other such felony conviction for which a consecutive term of imprisonment is imposed, and shall include one-third of any enhancements imposed pursuant to Section 12022, 12022.4, 12022.5, 12022.7, or 12022.9.
- (b) When a consecutive term of imprisonment is imposed under Sections 669 and 1170 for two or more convictions for kidnapping, as defined in Section 207, involving both separate victims and separate occasions, the aggregate term shall be calculated as provided in subdivision (a), except that the subordinate term for each subsequent kidnapping conviction shall consist of the middle term for each kidnapping conviction for which a consecutive term of imprisonment is imposed and shall include one-third of any enhancements imposed pursuant to Section 12022, 12022.4, 12022.5, 12022.7, or 12022.9. The five-year limitation on the total of subordinate terms provided in subdivision (a) shall not apply to subordinate terms for second and subsequent convictions of kidnapping, as defined in Section 207, involving separate victims and separate occasions.
- (c) In the case of any person convicted of one or more felonies committed while the person is confined in a state prison, or is subject to reimprisonment for escape from such custody and the law either requires the terms to be served consecutively or the court imposes consecutive terms, the term of imprisonment for all the convictions which the person is required to serve consecutively shall commence from the time such person would otherwise have been released from prison. If the new offenses are consecutive with each other, the principal and subordinate terms shall be calculated as provided in subdivision (a), except that the total of subordinate terms may exceed five years. The provisions of this subdivision shall be applicable in cases of convictions of more than one offense in different proceedings, and convictions of more than one offense in the same or different proceedings.
- (d) When the court imposes a prison sentence for a felony pursuant to Section 1170 the court shall also impose the additional terms provided in Sections 667.5, 12022, 12022.4, 12022.5, 12022.6, 12022.7, and 12022.9, unless the additional punishment therefore is stricken pursuant to subdivision (h). The court shall also impose any other additional term which the court determines in its discretion or as required by law shall run consecutive to the term imposed under Section 1170. In considering the imposition of such additional term, the court shall apply the sentencing rules of the Judicial Council.
- (e) When two or more enhancements under Sections 12022, 12022.4, 12022.5, 12022.7, and 12022.9 may be imposed for any single offense, only the greatest enhancement shall apply; however, in cases of penetration of a genital or anal opening by a foreign object, as defined in Section 289, oral copulation, sodomy, robbery, rape or burglary, or attempted penetration of a genital or anal opening by a foreign object, oral copulation, sodomy, robbery, rape, murder, or burglary the court may impose both (1) one enhancement for weapons as provided in either Section 12022, 12022.4, or 12022.5 and (2) an enhancement for great bodily injury as provided in Section 12022.7 or 12022.9.

- (f) The enhancements provided in Sections 667.5, 667.6, 12022, 12022.1, 12022.3, 12022.4, 12022.5, 12022.6, 12022.7, 12022.8, and 12022.9 shall be pleaded and proven as provided by law.
- (g) The term of imprisonment shall not exceed twice the number of years imposed by the trial court as the base term pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1170 unless the defendant stands convicted of a "violent felony" as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5, or a consecutive sentence is being imposed pursuant to subdivision (c) of this section, or an enhancement is imposed pursuant to Section 12022, 12022.4, 12022.5, 12022.6, 12022.7, or 12022.9 or the defendant stands convicted of felony escape from an institution in which he is lawfully confined.
- (h) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the court may strike the additional punishment for the enhancements provided in Sections 667.5, 12022, 12022.4, 12022.5, 12022.6, 12022.7, and 12022.9 if it determines that there are circumstances in mitigation of the additional punishment and states on the record its reasons for striking the additional punishment.
- (i) For any violation of subdivision (2) or (3) of Section 261, Section 264.1, subdivision (b) of Section 288, subdivision (a) of Section 289, or sodomy or oral copulation by force, violence, duress, menace or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person as provided in Section 286 or 288a, the number of enhancements which may be imposed shall not be limited, regardless of whether such enhancements are pursuant to this or some other section of law. Each of such enhancements shall be a full and separately served enhancement and shall not be merged with any term or with any other enhancement.

CHAPTER 1430

An act to amend Sections 246, 247, and 12034 of the Penal Code, relating to sentences.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 246 of the Penal Code is amended to read: 246. Any person who shall maliciously and willfully discharge a firearm at an inhabited dwelling house, occupied building, occupied motor vehicle, occupied aircraft, inhabited housecar, as defined in Section 362 of the Vehicle Code, or inhabited camper, as defined in Section 243 of the Vehicle Code, is guilty of a felony, and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or five years, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term of not less than six months and not exceeding one year. As used in this section, "inhabited" means currently being used for dwelling purposes, whether occupied or not.

- SEC. 2. Section 247 of the Penal Code is amended to read:
- 247. (a) Any person who willfully and maliciously discharges a firearm at an unoccupied aircraft is guilty of a felony.
- (b) Any person who discharges a firearm at an unoccupied motor vehicle is guilty of a public offense punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or in the state prison. This subdivision does not apply to shooting at an abandoned vehicle or shooting at an unoccupied vehicle with the permission of the vehicle's owner.

As used in this section and Section 246 "aircraft" means any contrivance intended for and capable of transporting persons through the airspace.

- SEC. 3. Section 12034 of the Penal Code is amended to read:
- 12034. (a) It is a misdemeanor for a driver of any motor vehicle or the owner of any motor vehicle, whether or not the owner of the vehicle is occupying the vehicle, knowingly to permit any other person to carry into or bring into the vehicle a firearm in violation of Section 12031 of this code or Section 2006 of the Fish and Game Code or knowingly to permit the other person to discharge any firearm from the vehicle in violation of any provision of this code.
- (b) Except as provided in Section 3002 of the Fish and Game Code, any person who willfully and maliciously discharges a firearm from a motor vehicle is guilty of a public offense punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or in the state prison.
- SEC. 4. Section 1 of this bill, amending Section 246 of the Penal Code, shall not become operative if AB 3445 is also chaptered, AB 3445 also amends Section 246 of the Penal Code, and both bills become effective on or before January 1, 1987.
- SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1431

An act to amend Section 667.6 of the Penal Code, relating to crime.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 667.6 of the Penal Code is amended to read: 667.6. (a) Any person who is found guilty of violating subdivision (2) or (3) of Section 261, Section 264.1, subdivision (b) of Section 288, Section 289, or of committing sodomy or oral copulation in violation of Section 286 or 288a by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person who has been convicted previously of any of those offenses shall receive a five-year enhancement for each of those prior convictions provided that no enhancement shall be imposed under this subdivision for any conviction occurring prior to a period of 10 years in which the person remained free of both prison custody and the commission of an offense which results in a felony conviction.

(b) Any person convicted of an offense specified in subdivision (a) who has served two or more prior prison terms as defined in Section 667.5 for any offense specified in subdivision (a), shall receive a 10-year enhancement for each of those prior terms provided that no additional enhancement shall be imposed under this subdivision for any prison term served prior to a period of 10 years in which the person remained free of both prison custody and the commission of an offense which results in a felony conviction.

(c) In lieu of the term provided in Section 1170.1, a full, separate, and consecutive term may be imposed for each violation of subdivision (2) or (3) of Section 261, Section 264.1, subdivision (b) of Section 288, Section 289, or of committing sodomy or oral copulation in violation of Section 286 or 288a by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person whether or not the crimes were committed during a single transaction. If the term is imposed consecutively pursuant to this subdivision, it shall be served consecutively to any other term of imprisonment, and shall commence from the time the person would otherwise have been released from imprisonment. The term shall not be included in any determination pursuant to Section 1170.1. Any other term imposed subsequent to that term shall not be merged therein but shall commence at the time the person would otherwise have been released from prison.

(d) A full, separate, and consecutive term shall be served for each violation of subdivision (2) or (3) of Section 261, Section 264.1, subdivision (b) of Section 288, Section 289, or of committing sodomy or oral copulation in violation of Section 286 or 288a by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person if the crimes involve separate victims or involve the same victim on separate occasions.

In determining whether crimes against a single victim were committed on separate occasions under this subdivision, the court shall consider whether, between the commission of one sex crime and another, the defendant had a reasonable opportunity to reflect upon his or her actions and nevertheless resumed sexually assaultive behavior. Neither the duration of time between crimes, nor whether or not the defendant lost or abandoned his or her opportunity to attack, shall be, in and of itself, determinative on the issue of whether the crimes in question occurred on separate occasions.

The term shall be served consecutively to any other term of imprisonment, and shall commence from the time the person would otherwise have been released from imprisonment. The term shall not be included in any determination pursuant to Section 1170.1. Any other term imposed subsequent to that term shall not be merged therein but shall commence at the time the person would otherwise have been released from prison.

SEC. 2. It is the intent of the Legislature in the enactment of Section 1 of this act to abrogate the decision in People v. Craft (41 Cal. 3d 554), and to establish an objective test for determining whether sex crimes against a single victim occurred on separate occasions.

CHAPTER 1432

An act to amend Section 1101 of the Evidence Code, relating to evidence.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1101 of the Evidence Code is amended to read:

- 1101. (a) Except as provided in this section and in Sections 1102 and 1103, evidence of a person's character or a trait of his or her character (whether in the form of an opinion, evidence of reputation, or evidence of specific instances of his or her conduct) is inadmissible when offered to prove his or her conduct on a specified occasion.
- (b) Nothing in this section prohibits the admission of evidence that a person committed a crime, civil wrong, or other act when relevant to prove some fact (such as motive, opportunity, intent, preparation, plan, knowledge, identity, absence of mistake or accident, or whether a defendant in a prosecution for an unlawful sexual act or attempted unlawful sexual act did not reasonably and in good faith believe that the victim consented) other than his or her disposition to commit such an act.

(c) Nothing in this section affects the admissibility of evidence offered to support or attack the credibility of a witness.

SEC. 2. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to clarify the holding in People v. Tassell, 36 Cal. 3d 77, to the extent an inference can be drawn from that holding that evidence of another act is ipso facto inadmissible or irrelevant to the issue of a defendant's reasonable and good faith belief that the victim consented, by rejecting that inference and making it clear that that evidence can be relevant on that issue in a particular case, depending upon the circumstances there present.

CHAPTER 1433

An act to amend Sections 246 and 1464 of, and to add and repeal Section 13823.6 of, the Penal Code, relating to crime, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 246 of the Penal Code is amended to read: 246. Any person who shall maliciously and willfully discharge a firearm at an inhabited dwelling house, occupied building, occupied motor vehicle, inhabited housecar, as defined in Section 362 of the Vehicle Code, or inhabited camper, as defined in Section 243 of the Vehicle Code, is guilty of a felony, and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for three, five, or seven years, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term of not less than six months and not exceeding one year.

As used in this section, "inhabited" means currently being used for dwelling purposes, whether occupied or not.

SEC. 2. Section 1464 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1464. (a) Subject to the provisions of Section 1206.8, there shall be levied an assessment in an amount equal to five dollars ($5) for every ten dollars ($10) or fraction thereof, upon every fine, penalty, or forfeiture imposed and collected by the courts for criminal offenses, including all offenses involving a violation of a section of the Vehicle Code or any local ordinance adopted pursuant to the Vehicle Code, except offenses relating to parking or registration or offenses by pedestrians or bicyclists, or where an order is made to pay a sum to the general fund of the county pursuant to subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 258 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. Any bail schedule adopted pursuant to Section 1269b may include the necessary amount to pay the assessments established by this section and Section 1206.8 for all matters where a personal appearance is not mandatory and the bail is posted primarily to guarantee payment of the fine.

- (b) Where multiple offenses are involved, the assessment shall be based upon the total fine or bail for each case. When a fine is suspended, in whole or in part, the assessment shall be reduced in proportion to the suspension.
- (c) When any deposited bail is made for an offense to which this section applies, and for which a court appearance is not mandatory, the person making such deposit shall also deposit a sufficient amount to include the assessment prescribed by this section for forfeited bail. If bail is returned, the assessment made thereon pursuant to this section shall also be returned.
- (d) In any case where a person convicted of any offense, to which this section applies, is in prison until the fine is satisfied, the judge may waive all or any part of the assessment, the payment of which would work a hardship on the person convicted or his immediate family.
- (e) After a determination by the court of the amount due, the clerk of the court shall collect the same and transmit it to the county treasury. The portion thereof attributable to Section 1206.8 shall be deposited in the appropriate county fund and the balance shall then be transmitted to the State Treasury to be deposited in the Assessment Fund, which is hereby created. The transmission to the State Treasury shall be carried out in the same manner as fines collected for the state by a county.
  - (f) The moneys so deposited shall be distributed as follows:
- (1) Once a month there shall be transferred into the Fish and Game Preservation Fund an amount equal to 0.38 percent of the funds deposited in the Assessment Fund during the preceding month, but in no event shall the amount be less than the assessment levied on fines or forfeitures for violation of state laws relating to the protection or propagation of fish and game. Such moneys are to be used for the education or training of department employees which fulfills a need consistent with the objectives of the Department of Fish and Game.
- (2) Once a month there shall be transferred into the Restitution Fund an amount equal to 22.12 percent of the funds deposited in the Assessment Fund during the preceding month. Such funds shall be available for appropriation by the Legislature in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (b) of Section 13967 of the Government Code.
- (3) Once a month there shall be transferred into the Peace Officers' Training Fund an amount equal to 27.75 percent of the funds deposited in the Assessment Fund during the preceding month.
- (4) Once a month there shall be transferred into the Driver Training Penalty Assessment Fund an amount equal to 29.73 percent of the funds deposited in the Assessment Fund during the preceding month.

- (5) Once a month there shall be transferred into the Corrections Training Fund an amount equal to 9.12 percent of the funds deposited in the Assessment Fund during the preceding month. Money in the Corrections Training Fund is not continuously appropriated and shall be appropriated in the Budget Act.
- (6) Once a month there shall be transferred into the Local Public Prosecutors and Public Defenders Training Fund established pursuant to Section 11503 an amount equal to 0.90 percent of the funds deposited in the Assessment Fund during the preceding month. The amount so transferred shall not exceed the sum of eight hundred fifty thousand dollars ($850,000) in any fiscal year. The remainder in excess of eight hundred fifty thousand dollars ($850,000) shall be transferred to the Restitution Fund.
- (7) Once a month there shall be transferred into the Victim-Witness Assistance Fund an amount equal to 10.00 percent of the funds deposited in the Assessment Fund during the preceding month.
  - SEC. 3. Section 13823.6 is added to the Penal Code, to read:
- 13823.6. The Office of Criminal Justice Planning through its programs established under Title 1.5 (commencing with Section 11500) shall provide special training for prosecutors in the areas of gang violence, vertical prosecution, gang identification, and witness intimidation.

This section shall be operative until January 1, 1991, and on that date is repealed unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1991, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. The sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) is hereby appropriated from the Local Public Prosecutors and Public Defenders Training Fund to the Office of Criminal Justice Planning to implement the training program required by this act.

CHAPTER 1434

An act to add Section 13835.10 to the Penal Code, relating to penal law, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- SECTION 1. Section 13835.10 is added to the Penal Code, to read: 13835.10. (a) The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:
- (1) That the provision of quality services for victims of crime is of high priority.

- (2) That existing victim service programs do not have sufficient financial resources to consistently recruit and employ fully trained personnel.
- (3) That there is no consistency in the training provided to the various agencies serving victims.
- (4) That comprehensive training for victim service agencies is geographically limited or unavailable.
- (5) That there is currently no statewide comprehensive training system in place for the state to insure that all service providers receive adequate training to provide quality services to victims of crime.
- (6) It is the intention of the Legislature to establish a statewide training program within the Office of Criminal Justice Planning to provide comprehensive standardized training to victim service providers.
- (b) The Office of Criminal Justice Planning shall establish a statewide victim-assistance training program, the purpose of which is to develop minimum training and selection standards, certify training courses, and provide funding to enable local victim service providers to acquire the required training.
- (c) (1) For the purpose of raising the level of competence of local victim service providers, the office shall adopt guidelines establishing minimum standards of training for employees of victim-witness and sexual assault programs funded by the office to provide services to victims of crime. The office shall establish an advisory committee composed of recognized statewide victim service organizations, representatives of local victim service programs, and others selected at the discretion of the executive director to consult on the research and development of the training, selection, and equivalency standards.
- (2) Any local unit of government, community-based organization, or any other public or private nonprofit entity funded by the office as a victim-witness or sexual assault program to provide services to victims of crime shall adhere to the training and selection standards established by the office. The standards for sexual assault victim service programs developed by the advisory committee established pursuant to Section 13836 shall be the standards for purposes of this section. With the exception of the sexual assault standards, the office shall conduct or contract with an appropriate firm or entity for research on validated standards pursuant to this section in consultation with the advisory committee established pursuant to paragraph (1). The office may defer the adoption of the selection standards until the necessary research is completed; until the standards are adopted, affected victim service programs may receive state funding from the office upon certification of their willingness to adhere to the training standards adopted by the office.
- (3) Minimum training and selection standards may include, but shall not be limited to, basic entry, continuation, supervisory, management, and specialized curricula.

- (4) Training and selection standards shall apply to all victim service and management personnel of the victim-witness and sexual assault agencies funded by the office to provide services to victims of crime. Exemptions from this requirement may be made by the office. An agency, which, despite good faith efforts, is unable to meet the standards established pursuant to this section, may apply to the office for an exemption. For the purpose of exemptions, the office may establish procedures that allow for partial adherence. The office may develop equivalency standards which recognize professional experience, education, training, or a combination of the above, for personnel hired before July 1, 1987.
- (5) Nothing in this section shall prohibit an agency, funded by the office to provide services to victims of crime, from establishing training and selection standards which exceed the minimum standards established by the office pursuant to this section.
- (d) For purposes of implementing this section, the office has all of the following powers:
- (1) To approve or certify, or both, training courses selected by the office.
- (2) To make such inquiries as may be necessary to determine whether every local unit of government, community-based organization, or any other public or private entity receiving state aid from the office as a victim-witness or sexual assault program for the provision of services to victims of crime, is adhering to the standards for training and selection established pursuant to this section.
- (3) To adopt such guidelines as are necessary to carry out the purposes of this section.
- (4) To develop or present, or both, training courses for victim service providers, or to contract with coalitions, councils, or other designated entities, to develop or present, or both, those training courses.
- (5) To perform such other activities and studies necessary to carry out the intent of this section.
- (e) In order for the Legislature to determine the need to continue or modify the standards and training programs for local victim service providers, the office shall report to the Legislature on October 1, 1990, and biannually thereafter, regarding the progress and effectiveness of the training program.
- (f) (1) The office may utilize any funds that may become available from the Victim-Witness Assistance Fund to fund the cost of training staff of victim service agencies which are funded by the office from the fund. The office may utilize federal or other state funds that may become available to fund the cost of training staff of victim service agencies which are not eligible for funding from the Victim-Witness Assistance Fund.
- (2) Peace officer personnel whose jurisdictions are eligible for training subvention pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 13500) of Title 4 of this part and correctional or probation personnel whose jurisdictions are eligible for state aid pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 6035) of Chapter 5 of Title 7 of Part 3 are not eligible to receive training reimbursements under this section unless the person receiving the training is assigned to provide victim services in accordance with a grant award agreement with the office and is attending training to meet the established standards.

SEC. 2. The sum of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) is hereby appropriated from the Victim-Witness Assistance Fund to the Office of Criminal Justice Planning for implementation of Section 13835.10 of the Penal Code, as added by Section 2 of this act. These moneys may be utilized by the office to cover administrative expenses incurred with the establishment and implementation of the statewide victim-assistance training program established by that section.

The Legislature intends that funds necessary for the continued support of the training program authorized by this act be appropriated annually to the office in the Budget Act.

CHAPTER 1435

An act to amend Sections 13975 and 13976 of the Penal Code, relating to crimes, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13975 of the Penal Code is amended to read: 13975. The Office of Criminal Justice Planning shall submit an annual report to the Legislature regarding accomplishments of the program. The report shall include a program evaluation, financial statement, and comments of the advisory board. The program evaluation shall include specific data on the number of high-technology crimes reported and the number of prosecutions and convictions for those crimes as measured during the first and second year of the project. The project shall be considered to have met its objectives if the reporting of the incidence of high-technology crime has increased 20 percent and arrests and prosecutions have increased 20 percent from the first year of the project to the second year of the project. A statewide analysis and needs assessment shall be part of the report. This report shall be submitted on or before March 1, 1987.

SEC. 2. Section 13976 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

13976. This title shall become inoperative on March 1, 1988, and, as of January 1, 1989, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 2. The sum of one hundred forty-five thousand eight hundred thirteen dollars ($145,813) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Office of Criminal Justice Planning for expenditure without regard to fiscal years for the purposes of Title 6.7 (commencing with Section 13970) of the Penal Code, provided that the office shall not allocate any portion of those funds unless the high-technology industry or any source, other than the State of California, has filed with the office a plan to match expenditures to the extent of seventy-two thousand nine hundred seven dollars ($72,907). This match may be made in personnel hours, computer time and equipment, use of facilities, or other specialized talent or equipment necessary to carry out the purposes of the act.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act.

CHAPTER 1436

An act to amend Sections 484d, 484e, 484f, 484g, 484h, 484i, and 484j of the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 484d of the Penal Code is amended to read: 484d. As used in this section and Sections 484e to 484j, inclusive:

- (1) "Cardholder" means any person to whom an access card is issued or any person who has agreed with the card issuer to pay obligations arising from the issuance of an access card to another person.
- (2) "Access card" means any card, plate, code, account number, or other means of account access that can be used, alone or in conjunction with another access card, to obtain money, goods, services, or any other thing of value, or that can be used to initiate a transfer of funds, other than a transfer originated solely by a paper instrument.
- (3) "Expired access card" means an access card which shows on its face it has elapsed.
- (4) "Card issuer" means any person who issues an access card or the agent of that person with respect to that card.
- (5) "Retailer" means every person who is authorized by an issuer to furnish money, goods, services, or anything else of value upon presentation of an access card by a cardholder.
- (6) An access card is "incomplete" if part of the matter other than the signature of the cardholder which an issuer requires to appear on the access card before it can be used by a cardholder has not been stamped, embossed, imprinted, or written on it.

- (7) "Revoked access card" means an access card which is no longer authorized for use by the issuer, that authorization having been suspended or terminated and written notice thereof having been given to the cardholder.
- (8) "Counterfeit access card" means any access card that is counterfeit, fictitious, altered, or forged, or any false representation or depiction of an access card or a component thereof.
- (9) "Traffic" means to transfer or otherwise dispose of property to another, or to obtain control of property with intent to transfer or dispose of it to another.
- (10) "Card making equipment" means any equipment, machine, plate, mechanism, impression, or other device designed, used, or intended to be used to produce an access card.
  - SEC. 2. Section 484e of the Penal Code is amended to read:
- 484e. (1) Every person who acquires an access card from another without the cardholder's or issuer's consent or who, with knowledge that it has been so acquired, acquires the access card, with intent to use it or to sell or transfer it to a person other than the issuer or the cardholder is guilty of petty theft.
- (2) Every person who acquires an access card that he or she knows to have been lost, mislaid, or delivered under a mistake as to the identity or address of the cardholder, and who retains possession with intent to use it or to sell it or to transfer it to a person other than the issuer or the cardholder is guilty of petty theft.
- (3) Every person who sells, transfers, conveys, or receives an access card with the intent to defraud, or who acquires an access card with the intent to use it fraudulently, is guilty of grand theft.
- (4) Every person other than the issuer, who within any consecutive 12-month period, acquires access cards issued in the names of four or more persons which he or she has reason to know were taken or retained under circumstances which constitute a violation of subdivision (1), (2), or (3) is guilty of grand theft.
  - SEC. 3. Section 484f of the Penal Code is amended to read:
- 484f. (1) Every person who, with intent to defraud, designs, makes, alters, or embosses a counterfeit access card or utters or otherwise attempts to use a counterfeit access card is guilty of forgery.
- (2) A person other than the cardholder or a person authorized by him or her who, with intent to defraud, signs the name of another or of a fictitious person to an access card, sales slip, sales draft, or instrument for the payment of money which evidences an access card transaction, is guilty of forgery.
  - SEC. 4. Section 484g of the Penal Code is amended to read:
- 484g. Every person, who with intent to defraud, (a) uses for the purpose of obtaining money, goods, services or anything else of value an access card obtained or retained in violation of Section 484e or an access card which he or she knows is forged, expired, or revoked, or

- (b) obtains money, goods, services or anything else of value by representing without the consent of the cardholder that he or she is the holder of an access card or by representing that he or she is the holder of an access card and the card has not in fact been issued, is guilty of theft. If the value of all money, goods, services and other things of value obtained in violation of this section exceeds four hundred dollars ($400) in any consecutive six-month period, then the same shall constitute grand theft.
  - SEC. 5. Section 484h of the Penal Code is amended to read: 484h. Every retailer or other person who, with intent to defraud:
- (a) Furnishes money, goods, services or anything else of value upon presentation of an access card obtained or retained in violation of Section 484e or an access card which he or she knows is a counterfeit access card or is forged, expired, or revoked, and who receives any payment therefor, is guilty of theft. If the payment received by the retailer or other person for all money, goods, services, and other things of value furnished in violation of this section exceeds four hundred dollars ($400) in any consecutive six-month period, then the same shall constitute grand theft.
- (b) Presents for payment a sales slip or other evidence of an access card transaction, and receives payment therefor, without furnishing in the transaction money, goods, services, or anything else of value that is equal in value to the amount of the sales slip or other evidence of an access card transaction, is guilty of theft. If the difference between the value of all money, goods, services, and anything else of value actually furnished and the payment or payments received by the retailer or other person therefor upon presentation of a sales slip or other evidence of an access card transaction exceeds four hundred dollars ($400) in any consecutive six-month period, then the same shall constitute grand theft.
  - SEC. 6. Section 484i of the Penal Code is amended to read:
- 484i. (a) Every person who possesses an incomplete access card, with intent to complete it without the consent of the issuer is guilty of a misdemeanor.
- (b) Every person who designs, makes, possesses, or traffics in card making equipment or incomplete access cards with the intent that the equipment or cards be used to make counterfeit access cards, is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or by imprisonment in the state prison.
  - SEC. 7. Section 484j of the Penal Code is amended to read:
- 484j. Any person who publishes the number or code of an existing, canceled, revoked, expired or nonexistent access card, or the numbering or coding which is employed in the issuance of access cards, with the intent that it be used or with knowledge or reason to believe that it will be used to avoid the payment of any lawful charge, or with intent to defraud or aid another in defrauding, is guilty of a misdemeanor. As used in this section, "publishes" means the communication of information to any one or more persons, either orally, in person or by telephone, radio or television, or in a writing of any kind, including without limitation a letter or memorandum, circular or handbill, newspaper or magazine article, or book.

SEC. 8. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1437

An act to amend Section 484j of the Penal Code, relating to computers.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 484j of the Penal Code is amended to read: 484j. Any person who publishes the number or code of an existing, canceled, revoked, expired or nonexistent credit card, personal identification number, computer password, access code, debit card number, bank account number, or the numbering or coding which is employed in the issuance of credit cards, with the intent that it be used or with knowledge or reason to believe that it will be used to avoid the payment of any lawful charge, is guilty of a misdemeanor. As used in this section, "publishes" means the communication of information to any one or more persons, either orally, in person or by telephone, radio or television, or on a computer network or computer bulletin board, or in a writing of any kind, including without limitation a letter or memorandum, circular or handbill, newspaper or magazine article, or book.

SEC. 2. Section 484j of the Penal Code is amended to read:

484j. Any person who publishes the number or code of an existing, canceled, revoked, expired or nonexistent access card, personal identification number, computer password, access code, debit card number, bank account number, or the numbering or coding which is employed in the issuance of access cards, with the intent that it be used or with knowledge or reason to believe that it will be used to avoid the payment of any lawful charge, or with intent to defraud or aid another in defrauding, is guilty of a misdemeanor. As used in this section, "publishes" means the communication of information to any one or more persons, either orally, in person or by telephone, radio or television, or on a computer network or computer bulletin board, or in a writing of any kind, including without limitation a letter or memorandum, circular or handbill, newspaper or magazine article, or book.

- SEC. 3. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 484j of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and SB 2392. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1987, (2) each bill amends Section 484j of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 2392, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.
- SEC. 4. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1438

An act to amend Section 13967 of the Government Code, relating to victims of crime.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13967 of the Government Code is amended to read:

- 13967. (a) Upon a person being convicted of any crime in the State of California, the court shall, in addition to any other penalty provided or imposed under the law, order the defendant to pay restitution in the form of a penalty assessment in accordance with Section 1464 of the Penal Code. In addition, if the person is convicted of one or more felony offenses, the court shall impose a separate and additional restitution fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) and not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000). In setting the amount of the fine for felony convictions, the court shall consider any relevant factors including, but not limited to, the seriousness and gravity of the offense and the circumstances of its commission, any economic gain derived by the defendant as a result of the crime, and the extent to which others suffered losses as a result of the crime. Such losses may include pecuniary losses to the victim or his or her dependents as well as intangible losses, such as psychological harm caused by the crime. Except as provided in Section 1202.4 of the Penal Code and subdivision (c) of this section, under no circumstances shall the court fail to impose the separate and additional restitution fine required by this section. This fine shall not be subject to penalty assessments as provided in Section 1464 of the Penal Code.
  - (b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), the fine imposed pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Restitution Fund in the State Treasury. Notwithstanding Section 13340, the proceeds in the Restitution Fund are hereby continuously appropriated to the board for the purpose of indemnifying persons filing claims pursuant to this article. However, the funds appropriated pursuant to this section for administrative costs of the State Board of Control shall be subject to annual review through the State Budget process.

(c) In cases in which a victim has suffered economic loss as a result of the defendant's criminal conduct, and the defendant is denied probation, in lieu of imposing all or a portion of the restitution fine, the court shall order restitution to be paid to the victim. Notwithstanding subdivision (a), restitution shall be imposed in the amount of the losses, but not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000). A restitution order imposed pursuant to this subdivision shall identify the losses to which it pertains, and shall be enforceable as a civil judgment. The making of a restitution order pursuant to this subdivision shall not affect the right of a victim to recovery from the Restitution Fund in the manner provided elsewhere, except to the extent that restitution is actually collected pursuant to the order. Restitution collected pursuant to this subdivision shall be credited to any other judgments for the same losses obtained by the victim against the defendant arising out of the crime for which the defendant was convicted.

CHAPTER 1439

An act to amend Section 451 of the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 451 of the Penal Code is amended to read: 451. A person is guilty of arson when he or she willfully and maliciously sets fire to or burns or causes to be burned or who aids, counsels or procures the burning of, any structure, forest land or property.

(a) Arson that causes great bodily injury is a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for five, seven, or nine years.

- (b) Arson that causes an inhabited structure or inhabited property to burn is a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for three, five, or eight years.
- (c) Arson of a structure or forest land is a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for two, four, or six years.
- (d) Arson of property is a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, two, or three years. For purposes of this paragraph arson of property does not include one burning or causing to be burned his or her own personal property unless there is an intent to defraud or there is injury to another person or another person's structure, forest land or property.

(e) In the case of any person convicted of violating this section while confined in a state prison, prison road camp, prison forestry camp, or other prison camp or prison farm, or while confined in a county jail while serving a term of imprisonment for a felony or misdemeanor conviction, any sentence imposed shall be consecutive to the sentence for which the person was then confined.

CHAPTER 1440

An act to amend Section 667.7 of the Penal Code, relating to crime.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 667.7 of the Penal Code is amended to read: (a) Any person convicted of a felony in which such person inflicted great bodily injury as provided in Section 12022.7, or personally used force which was likely to produce great bodily injury. who has served two or more prior separate prison terms as defined in Section 667.5 for the crime of murder; voluntary manslaughter; mayhem; rape by force, violence, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person; oral copulation by force, violence, duress, menace or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person; sodomy by force, violence, duress, menace or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person; lewd acts on a child under the age of 14 years by use of force, violence, duress, menace or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person; a violation of subdivision (a) of Section 289 where the act is accomplished against the victim's will by means of force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person; kidnapping for ransom, extortion, or robbery; robbery involving the use of force or a deadly weapon; assault with intent to commit murder; assault with a deadly weapon; assault with a force likely to produce great bodily injury; assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, penetration of a vaginal or anal opening in violation of Section 289, or lewd and lascivious acts on a child; arson of a structure; escape or attempted escape by an inmate with force or violence in violation of subdivision (a) of Section 4530, or of Section 4532; exploding a device with intent to murder in violation of Section 12308; exploding a destructive device which causes bodily injury in violation of Section 12309, or mayhem or great bodily injury in violation of Section 12310;

exploding a destructive device with intent to injure, intimidate, or terrify, in violation of Section 12303.3; any felony in which such person inflicted great bodily injury as provided in Section 12022.7; or any felony punishable by death or life imprisonment with or without the possibility of parole is a habitual offender shall be punished as follows:

- (1) Such person who served two prior separate prison terms shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for life and shall not be eligible for release on parole for 20 years, or the term determined by the court pursuant to Section 1170 for the underlying conviction, including any enhancement applicable under Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 1170) of Title 7 of Part 2, or any period prescribed by Section 190 or 3046, whichever is greatest. The provisions of Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 2930) of Chapter 7 of Title 1 of Part 3 shall apply to reduce any minimum term in a state prison imposed pursuant to this section, but such person shall not otherwise be released on parole prior to such time.
- (2) Any person convicted of such a felony who has served three or more prior separate prison terms, as defined in Section 667.5, for the crimes specified in subdivision (a) of this section shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for life without the possibility of parole.
- (b) This section shall not prevent the imposition of the punishment of death or imprisonment for life without the possibility of parole. No prior prison term shall be used for this determination which was served prior to a period of 10 years in which the person remained free of both prison custody and the commission of an offense which results in a felony conviction. As used in this section, a commitment to the Department of the Youth Authority after conviction for a felony shall constitute a prior prison term. The term imposed under this section shall be imposed only if the prior prison terms are alleged under this section in the accusatory pleading, and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by a plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by a trial by the court sitting without a jury.
  - SEC. 2. Section 667.7 of the Penal Code is amended to read:
- 667.7. Any person convicted of a felony in which such person inflicted great bodily injury as provided in Section 12022.7, or personally used force which was likely to produce great bodily injury, who has served two or more prior separate prison terms as defined in Section 667.5 for the crime of murder; attempted murder; voluntary manslaughter; mayhem; rape by force, violence, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person; oral copulation by force, violence, duress, menace or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person; sodomy by force, violence, duress, menace or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person; lewd acts on a child under the age of 14 years by use of force, violence, duress, menace or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person; a violation of subdivision (a) of Section 289 where the act is accomplished against the victim's will by means of force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person; kidnapping for ransom, extortion, or robbery; robbery involving the use of force or a deadly weapon; assault with intent to commit murder; assault with a deadly weapon; assault with a force likely to produce great bodily injury; assault with intent to commit rape, sodomy, oral copulation, penetration of a vaginal or anal opening in violation of Section 289, or lewd and lascivious acts on a child; arson of a structure; escape or attempted escape by an inmate with force or violence in violation of subdivision (a) of Section 4530, or of Section 4532; exploding a device with intent to murder in violation of Section 12308; exploding a destructive device which causes bodily injury in violation of Section 12309, or mayhem or great bodily injury in violation of Section 12310; exploding a destructive device with intent to injure, intimidate, or terrify, in violation of Section 12303.3: any felony in which such person inflicted great bodily injury as provided in Section 12022.7; or any felony punishable by death or life imprisonment with or without the possibility of parole is a habitual offender shall be punished as follows:

- (1) Such person who served two prior separate prison terms shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for life and shall not be eligible for release on parole for 20 years, or the term determined by the court pursuant to Section 1170 for the underlying conviction, including any enhancement applicable under Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 1170) of Title 7 of Part 2, or any period prescribed by Section 190 or 3046, whichever is greatest. The provisions of Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 2930) of Chapter 7 of Title 1 of Part 3 shall apply to reduce any minimum term in a state prison imposed pursuant to this section, but such person shall not otherwise be released on parole prior to such time.
- (2) Any person convicted of such a felony who has served three or more prior separate prison terms, as defined in Section 667.5, for the crimes specified in subdivision (a) shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for life without the possibility of parole.
- (b) This section shall not prevent the imposition of the punishment of death or imprisonment for life without the possibility of parole. No prior prison term shall be used for this determination which was served prior to a period of 10 years in which the person remained free of both prison custody and the commission of an offense which results in a felony conviction. As used in this section, a commitment to the Department of the Youth Authority after conviction for a felony shall constitute a prior prison term. The term imposed under this section shall be imposed only if the prior prison terms are alleged under this section in the accusatory pleading, and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by a plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by a trial by the court sitting without a jury.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 667.7 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3250. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1987, (2) each bill amends Section 667.7 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3250, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1441

An act to add Article 13.6 (commencing with Section 500) to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to youthful offenders, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 13.6 (commencing with Section 500) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

Article 13.6. Serious Habitual Offenders

500. The Legislature hereby finds that a substantial and disproportionate amount of serious crime is committed by a relatively small number of chronic juvenile offenders commonly known as serious habitual offenders. In enacting this article, the Legislature intends to support increased efforts by the juvenile justice system comprised of law enforcement, district attorneys, probation departments, juvenile courts, and schools to identify these offenders early in their careers, and to work cooperatively together to investigate and record their activities, prosecute them aggressively by using vertical prosecution techniques, sentence them appropriately, and to supervise them intensively in institutions and in the community. The Legislature further supports increased interagency efforts to gather comprehensive data and actively disseminate it to the agencies in the juvenile justice system, to produce more informed decisions by all agencies in that system, through organizational and operational techniques that have already proven their effectiveness in selected counties in this and other states.

501. (a) There is hereby established in the Office of Criminal Justice Planning a program of financial assistance for law enforcement, district attorneys, probation departments, juvenile courts, and schools, designated the Serious Habitual Offender Program. All funds appropriated to the Office of Criminal Justice Planning for the purposes of this article shall be administered and disbursed by the executive director of that office, and shall, to the greatest extent feasible, be coordinated or consolidated with federal funds that may be made available for these purposes.

- (b) From moneys appropriated therefor, the Executive Director of the Office of Criminal Justice Planning may allocate and award funds to counties in which programs are established in substantial compliance with the policies and criteria set forth in this article. Awards made to individual counties shall not exceed three years in duration. A county receiving an award shall provide matching funds at an increasing rate each year; the rate shall be as determined by the Office of Criminal Justice Planning for that county.
- (c) Allocation and award of funds for the purposes of this article shall be made upon application by a district attorney, a local law enforcement agency, a probation department, or a school district, that has been approved by the board of supervisors of the particular county. The applicant agency shall use the funds to create an information gathering and analysis unit responsible for the identification of serious habitual offenders and for the dissemination of information about the activities of those offenders to the juvenile justice system. This unit shall participate in the planning, support, and assistance of activities required in Sections 503 to 506, inclusive. Funds disbursed under this article shall not supplant local funds that would, in absence of the program established by this article, be made available to support the juvenile justice system. Local grant awards made under the program shall not be subject to review as specified in Section 14780 of the Government Code.
- 502. (a) An individual shall be the subject of the efforts of programs established pursuant to this article who has been previously adjudged a ward pursuant to Section 602 and is described in any of the following paragraphs:
- (1) Has accumulated five total arrests, three arrests for crimes chargeable as felonies and three arrests within the preceding 12 months.
- (2) Has accumulated 10 total arrests, two arrests for crimes chargeable as felonies and three arrests within the preceding 12 months.
- (3) Has been arrested once for three or more burglaries, robberies, or sexual assaults within the preceding 12 months.
- (4) Has accumulated 10 total arrests, eight or more arrests for misdemeanor crimes of theft, assault, battery, narcotics or controlled substance possession, substance abuse, or use or possession of weapons, and has three arrests within the preceding 12 months.
- (b) Arrests for infractions or conduct described in Section 601 shall not be utilized in determining whether an individual is described in subdivision (a). All arrests used in determining eligibility for selection for program participation that did not result in a sustained petition shall be certified by the prosecutor as having been provable.

- (c) In applying the selection criteria set forth above, a program may elect to limit its efforts to persons described in one or more of the categories listed in subdivision (a), or specified felonies, if crime statistics demonstrate that the persons so identified present a particularly serious problem in the county, or that the incidence of the felonies so specified present a particularly serious problem in the county.
- 503. Programs funded under this article shall adopt and pursue the following policies:
- (a) Each participating law enforcement agency shall do all of the following:
  - (1) Gather data on identified serious habitual offenders.
- (2) Compile data into usable format for law enforcement, prosecutors, probation officer, schools, and courts pursuant to interagency agreement.
- (3) Regularly update data and disseminate data to juvenile justice system agencies, as needed.
- (4) Establish local policies in cooperation with the prosecutor, the probation officer, schools, and the juvenile court regarding data collection, arrest, and detention of serious habitual offenders.
- (5) Provide support and assistance to other agencies engaged in the program.
- (b) Each participating district attorney's office shall do all of the following:
- (1) File petitions based on the most serious provable offenses of each arrest of a serious habitual offender.
- (2) Use all reasonable prosecutorial efforts to resist the release, where appropriate, of the serious habitual offender at all stages of the prosecution.
- (3) Seek an admission of guilt on all offenses charged in the petition against the offender. The only cases in which the prosecutor may request the court to reduce or dismiss the charges shall be cases in which the prosecutor decides there is insufficient evidence to prove the people's case, the testimony of a material witness cannot be obtained or a reduction or dismissal will not result in a substantial change in sentence. In those cases, the prosecutor shall file a written declaration with the court stating the specific factual and legal basis for such a reduction or dismissal and the court shall make specific findings on the record of its ruling and the reasons therefor.
- (4) Vertically prosecute all cases involving serious habitual offenders, whereby the prosecutor who makes the initial filing decision or appearance on such a case shall perform all subsequent court appearances on that case through its conclusion, including the disposition phase.
- (5) Make all reasonable prosecutorial efforts to persuade the court to impose the most appropriate sentence upon such an offender at the time of disposition. As used in this paragraph, "most appropriate sentence" means any disposition available to the juvenile court.

- (6) Make all reasonable prosecutorial efforts to reduce the time between arrest and disposition of the charge.
- (7) Act as liaison with the court and other criminal justice agencies to establish local policies regarding the program and to ensure interagency cooperation in the planning and implementation of the program.
- (8) Provide support and assistance to other agencies engaged in the program.
- (c) Each participating probation department shall do all of the following:
- (1) Cooperate in gathering data for use by all participating agencies pursuant to interagency agreement.
- (2) Detain minors in custody who meet the detention criteria set forth in Section 628.
- (3) Consider the data relating to serious habitual offenders when making all decisions regarding the identified individual and include relevant data in written reports to the court.
- (4) Use all reasonable efforts to file violations of probation pursuant to Section 777 in a timely manner.
- (5) Establish local policies in cooperation with law enforcement, the district attorney, schools, and the juvenile court regarding the program and provide support and assistance to other agencies engaged in the program.
  - (d) Each participating school district shall do all of the following:
- (1) Cooperate in gathering data for use by all participating agencies pursuant to interagency agreement. School district access to records and data shall be limited to that information that is otherwise authorized by law.
- (2) Report all crimes that are committed on campus by serious habitual offenders to law enforcement.
- (3) Report all violations of probation committed on campus by serious habitual offenders to the probation officer or his or her designee.
- (4) Provide educational supervision and services appropriate to serious habitual offenders attending schools.
- (5) Establish local policies in cooperation with law enforcement, the district attorney, probation and the juvenile court regarding the program and provide support and assistance to other agencies engaged in the program.
- (e) On or before March 1, 1988, the Office of Criminal Justice Planning shall submit a written report to the Legislature regarding achievement of program goals. Specifically, the report shall do all of the following:
- (1) Document the amount of serious crime committed by a relatively small number of serious habitual offenders.
- (2) Provide statistical documentation regarding the total number of juveniles in the program, the types of offenses committed, the manner in which cases are disposed, and a statistical profile of the average juvenile who qualifies for the program.

(3) Evaluate program costs.

- (4) Review new operational and organizational techniques used in gathering and disseminating information, in prosecution and in monitoring and supervising serious habitual offenders.
- (5) Compare this program and its effectiveness with the techniques and methods used prior to the implementation of the program.
- 504. The judge of the juvenile court shall authorize the inspection of juvenile court records, probation and protective services records, district attorney records, school records, and law enforcement records by the participating law enforcement agency charged with the compilation of the data relating to serious habitual offenders into the format used by all participating agencies.
- 505. Within one month of implementation of the program, all participating agencies in a county shall execute a written interagency agreement outlining their role in the program, including the duties they will perform, the duties other agencies will perform for and with them, and the categories of information to be collected and the plan for its distribution and use. All participating agencies will meet no less than once each month to plan, implement, and refine the operation of the program and to exchange information about individuals subject to the program or other related topics.
- 506. Law enforcement agencies and district attorneys participating in programs funded pursuant to this article shall adopt procedures to require a check of juvenile criminal history of all adults whose cases are presented to the district attorney's office for filing. The juvenile criminal history shall be considered by the district attorney in the charging decision and establishing the district attorney's position on the appropriate plea and sentence.
- SEC. 2. The sum of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Office of Criminal Justice Planning, for expenditure in the 1986–87 fiscal year, for the purpose of this act.

CHAPTER 1442

An act to amend Section 140 of the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 140 of the Penal Code is amended to read: 140. (a) Except as provided in Section 139, every person who willfully threatens to use force or violence upon the person of a witness to a crime or a victim of a crime or any other person, or to take, damage, or destroy any property of any witness, victim, or any other person, because the witness, victim, or informant has provided any assistance or information to a law enforcement officer, or to a public prosecutor in a criminal proceeding or juvenile court proceeding, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

- (b) Any person who commits a misdemeanor violation of subdivision (a) or (d) of Section 243, subdivision (a) of Section 417, Section 418, Section 467, paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 594, Section 626.10, Section 12021, Section 12021.1, subdivision (a) of Section 12021.5, Section 12025, or Section 12031 while committing a violation of subdivision (a), is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail for a period of not more than one year or by imprisonment in the state prison.
- SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1443

An act to amend Sections 7028.1 and 7137 of, and to add Sections 7058.7 and 7118.6 to, the Business and Professions Code, and to add Section 142.7 to the Labor Code, relating to contractors, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7028.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

- 7028.1. Any contractor who performs or engages in asbestos-related work, as defined in Section 6501.8 of the Labor Code, without certification pursuant to Section 7058.5 of this code, or who performs or engages in a removal or remedial action, as defined in Section 7058.7 without certification pursuant to Section 7058.7, is subject to one of the following penalties:
- (a) Conviction of a first offense is an infraction punishable by a fine of not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or more than three thousand dollars ($3,000), and by possible revocation or suspension of any contractor's license.
- (b) Conviction of a subsequent offense is a misdemeanor requiring revocation or suspension of any contractor's license, and a fine of not less than three thousand dollars ($3.000) or more than five thousand dollars ($5,000), or imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or both the fine and imprisonment.

- SEC. 2. Section 7058.7 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:
- 7058.7. (a) On and after May 1, 1988, no contractor shall engage in a removal or remedial action, as defined in subdivision (d), unless the applicant for the license has passed an approved hazardous substance removal certification examination.
- (b) (1) On or before July 1, 1987, the Contractors' State License Board, the Division of Occupational Safety and Health of the Department of Industrial Relations, and the State Department of Health Services shall jointly select an advisory committee, which shall be composed of two representatives of hazardous substance removal workers in California, two general engineering contractors in California, and two representatives of insurance companies in California who shall be selected by the Insurance Commissioner.
- (2) On or before January 1, 1988, the Contractors' State License Board shall develop a written test for the certification of contractors engaged in hazardous substance removal or remedial action, in consultation with the Division of Occupational Safety and Health and the State Department of Health Services, and in consultation with the advisory committee.
- (c) The Contractors' State License Board may require additional updated approved hazardous substance removal certification examinations of licensees currently certified based on new public or occupational health and safety information. The Contractors' State License Board, in consultation with the State Department of Health Services, shall approve initial and updated hazardous substance removal certification examinations and determine whether to require an updated certification examination of all current certificate holders.
- (d) For purposes of this section "removal or remedial action" has the same meaning as found in Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, if the action requires the contractor to dig into the surface of the earth and remove the dug material and the action is at a site listed pursuant to Section 25356 of the Health and Safety Code or any other site listed as a hazardous waste site by the State Department of Health Services or a site listed on the National Priorities List compiled pursuant to the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980, (42 U.S.C. Sec. 9601 et seq.). "Removal or remedial action" does not include asbestos-related work, as defined in Section 6501.8 of the Labor Code, or work related to a hazardous substance spill on a highway.
- (e) If the appropriation in Section 7 of the act enacting this section does not become effective, the date specified in subdivision (a) is extended to September 1, 1988, and the date specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) is extended to July 1, 1988.
  - SEC. 3. Section 7118.6 is added to the Business and Professions

Code, to read:

- 7118.6. Any contractor or employer who, either knowingly or negligently, or by reason of a failure to inquire, enters into a contract with another person who is either required to be, and is not certified pursuant to Section 7058.7 to engage in a removal or remedial action, as defined in Section 7058.7, is subject to the following penalties:
- (a) Conviction of a first offense is an infraction punishable by a fine of not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or more than three thousand dollars ($3,000), and by possible revocation or suspension of any contractor's license.
- (b) Conviction of a subsequent offense is a misdemeanor requiring revocation or suspension of any contractor's license, and a fine of not less than three thousand dollars ($3,000) or more than five thousand dollars ($5,000), or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or both the fine and imprisonment.
- SEC. 4. Section 7137 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:
- 7137. The amount of the fees prescribed by this chapter shall be fixed by the board according to the following schedule:
- (a) The application fee for an original license in a single classification shall not exceed one hundred fifty dollars ($150).

The application fee for each additional classification applied for in connection with an original license shall not exceed fifty dollars ($50).

The application fee for each additional classification pursuant to Section 7059 shall not exceed fifty dollars ($50).

The application fee to replace a responsible managing officer or employee pursuant to Section 7068.2 shall not exceed fifty dollars ($50).

- (b) The fee for rescheduling an examination for an applicant who has applied for an original license, additional classification, a change of responsible managing officer or responsible managing employee, or for an asbestos certification or hazardous substance removal certification, shall not exceed fifty dollars ($50).
- (c) The initial license fee for an active or inactive license shall not exceed one hundred fifty dollars ($150).
- (d) The renewal fee for an active license shall not exceed two hundred dollars ($200).

The renewal fee for an inactive license shall not exceed fifty dollars ($50).

- (e) The delinquency fee is an amount equal to 50 percent of the renewal fee, but not more than twenty-five dollars ($25).
- (f) The registration fee for a home improvement salesperson shall not exceed fifty dollars ($50).
- (g) The renewal fee for a home improvement salesperson registration shall not exceed seventy-five dollars ($75).
- (h) The application fee for an asbestos certification exam shall not exceed fifty dollars ($50).
  - (i) The application fee for a hazardous substance removal or remedial action certification examination shall not exceed fifty dollars ($50).

- SEC. 5. Section 142.7 is added to the Labor Code, to read:
- 142.7. (a) On or before October 1, 1987, the board shall adopt an occupational safety and health standard concerning hazardous substance removal work, so as to protect most effectively the health and safety of employees. The standard shall include, but not be limited to, requirements for all of the following:
  - (1) Specific work practices.
- (2) Certification of all employees engaged in hazardous substance removal-related work, except that no certification shall be required for an employee whose only activity is the transportation of hazardous substances which are subject to the requirement for a certificate under Section 12804.1 of the Vehicle Code.
- (3) Certification of supervisors with sufficient experience and authority to be responsible for hazardous substance removal work.
- (4) Designation of a qualified person who shall be responsible for scheduling any air sampling, laboratory calibration of sampling equipment, evaluation of soil or other contaminated materials sampling results, and for conducting any equipment testing and evaluating the results of the tests.
- (5) Requiring that a safety and health conference be held for all hazardous substance removal jobs before the start of actual work. The conference shall include representatives of the owner or contracting agency, the contractor, the employer, employees, and employee representatives, and shall include a discussion of the employer's safety and health program and the means, methods, devices, processes, practices, conditions, or operations which the employer intends to use in providing a safe and healthy place of employment.
- (b) For purposes of this section, "hazardous substance removal work" means a removal or remedial action, as defined in Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, only if the action requires the contractor to dig into the surface of the earth and remove the dug material and the action is at a site listed pursuant to Section 25356 of the Health and Safety Code or listed on the National Priorities List compiled pursuant to the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 9601 et seq.). "Hazardous substance removal work" does not include work related to a hazardous substance spill on a highway.
- SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.
- SEC. 7. The sum of one hundred forty thousand three hundred forty-three dollars ($140,343) is hereby appropriated from the Contractors' License Fund to the Contractors' State License Board for the 1986-87 fiscal year, for the purpose of carrying out this act.

SEC. 8. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to protect the public health and safety and the safety of workers, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1444

An act to amend and repeal Sections 17053, 23605, and 24343.5 of, and to add and repeal Sections 17053.1 and 17149 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17053 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

- 17053. (a) There shall be allowed as a credit against the amount of "net tax" (as defined in Section 17039), an amount equal to the amount determined in subdivisions (b) and (c).
- (b) (1) The amount of the credit allowed by this subdivision shall be 20 percent of the cost incurred by an employer for the purchase of company shuttle buses, company commuter buses or vans, or company motor-pool vehicles which are provided as part of an employer-sponsored ridesharing incentive program for employees conducted principally in this state.
- (2) The credit provided in paragraph (1) shall be claimed in the state income tax return for the taxable year in which the ridesharing vehicles are purchased and placed in service.
- (3) The basis of any ridesharing vehicle purchased for which a credit is allowed shall be reduced by the amount of the credit. The basis adjustment shall be made for the taxable year for which the credit is allowed.
- (4) If a ridesharing vehicle purchased for which a credit is provided in paragraph (1) is disposed of, or is no longer used as part of an employer-sponsored ridesharing incentive program, within three years of its acquisition, that portion of the credit provided in paragraph (1) which represents the pro rata share of that remaining three-year period shall be added to the employer's tax liability in the taxable year of that disposition or nonuse. The basis of any such vehicle shall be increased by an amount equal to that amount added to the employer's tax liability.

- (c) (1) The amount of the credit allowed by this subdivision shall be 20 percent of the cost incurred by an employer for leasing or contracting company shuttle buses, company commuter buses or vans, or company motor-pool vehicles which are provided as part of an employer-sponsored ridesharing incentive program. This credit shall be based on the total payments to the lessor or vehicle provider during the life of the lease or contract, excluding insurance, maintenance, fuel, drivers' salaries, or other operating expenses. The lessor or vehicle provider of vehicles specified in this subdivision shall not be eligible for this credit.
- (2) The credit provided in paragraph (1) shall be claimed in the state income tax return for the taxable year in which the ridesharing vehicles are first leased or contracted for and placed in service. However, with respect to ridesharing vehicles first leased or contracted for prior to the 1984 taxable year, the credit provided in paragraph (1) shall be claimed in the state income tax return for the 1984 taxable year based on the total payments to the lessor or vehicle provider during the 1984 taxable year and the total payments to be made during the remaining life of the lease or contract.
- (3) If a ridesharing vehicle leased or contracted for which a credit is provided in paragraph (1) is disposed of, or is no longer used as part of an employer-sponsored ridesharing incentive program, prior to the expiration date of the lease or contract, that portion of the credit provided in paragraph (1) which represents the pro rata share of the remaining life of that lease or contract shall be added to the employer's tax liability in the taxable year of that disposition or nonuse.
- (d) The credits allowed by subdivisions (b) and (c) shall not apply to the cost of purchasing, leasing, or contracting company shuttle buses, company commuter buses or vans, or company motor-pool vehicles which would otherwise be required as part of the employer's business activities in the absence of an employer-sponsored ridesharing incentive program.
- (e) In the case where the credit allowed under this section exceeds the "net tax" for the taxable year, that portion of the credit which exceeds the "net tax" may be carried over to the "net tax" in succeeding taxable years until the credit is used. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest taxable years possible.
- (f) (1) If the federal investment tax credit for "commuter highway vehicles," as defined and provided for in the Energy Tax Act of 1978, is increased, then to the extent such credit is allowed or allowable for the purchase, lease, or charter of company shuttle buses, company commuter buses or vans, or company motor-pool vehicles, as defined in this section, the state credit provided in subdivisions (b) and (c) shall be reduced so that the combined effective credit shall not exceed 30 percent of the costs, notwithstanding the carryover provisions of subdivision (e).
- (2) If the federal investment tax credit for "commuter highway vehicles," as defined and provided for in the Energy Tax Act of 1978, is increased, then to the extent the credit is allowed or allowable for the purchase, lease, or charter of company shuttle buses, company commuter buses or vans, or company motor pool vehicles as defined in this section, the state credit provided in subdivisions (b) and (c) shall be reduced by the amount of the increase in the federal credit.

- (g) For purposes of this section:
- (1) "Employer" means either of the following:
- (A) A taxpayer for whom services are performed by employees, except government agencies.
- (B) A private educational institution which enrolls students at higher than the secondary level.
  - (2) "Employee" means either of the following:
- (A) An individual who performs service for an employer for more than eight hours per week for remuneration.
  - (B) Any commuting student, as defined in paragraph (3).
- (3) "Commuting student" means a registered full-time student at a college, university, or other postsecondary educational institution, who lives apart from the property which is designated as the "employment site" for the purpose of this section, and who travels between his or her residence and the designated employment site on a regular, though not necessarily daily, basis.
- (4) "Employer-sponsored ridesharing incentive program" means a program undertaken by an employer either alone or in cooperation with other employers to encourage or provide, or both, fiscal or other incentives to employees to make the home-to-work commute trip by any mode other than the single-occupant motor vehicle.
- (5) "Company shuttle bus" means a highway vehicle which meets all of the following criteria:
- (A) Has a seating capacity of at least seven adults, including the driver.
- (B) At least 80 percent of the mileage of which reasonably can be expected to be for any of the following purposes:
  - (i) Transporting employees on a scheduled-route basis.
  - (ii) Interfacing with public transportation facilities.
  - (iii) Transporting employees on a demand-response basis.
- (C) Is acquired by the taxpayer on or after the date of the enactment of this section.
- (D) With respect to which the taxpayer makes an election under this paragraph on his or her return for the taxable year in which the vehicle is placed in service.
- (6) "Company commuter bus or van" means a highway vehicle which meets all of the following criteria:
- (A) Has a seating capacity of at least seven adults, including the driver.
- (B) At least 50 percent of the mileage of which can be reasonably expected to be used for the purpose of transporting employees to and from work.
- (C) Is acquired by the taxpayer on or after the date of enactment of this legislation.

- (D) With respect to which the taxpayer makes an election under this paragraph on his or her return for the taxable year in which the vehicle is placed in service.
- (7) "Company motor pool vehicle" means a highway vehicle which meets all of the following criteria:
- (A) Is an automobile with a gross vehicle weight of 6000 pounds or less.
- (B) Meets or exceeds certain fuel efficiency standards pursuant to the provisions of Title II of Public Law 95–618.
- (Ĉ) Is made available to all employees on a nondiscriminatory basis in the normal course of the taxpayer's business.
- (D) Is acquired by the taxpayer on or after the date of the enactment of this section.
- (E) With respect to which the taxpayer makes an election under this paragraph on his or her return for the taxable year in which the vehicle is placed in service.
- (h) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1991, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1991, deletes or extends that date.
- SEC. 1.5. Section 17053.1 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:
- 17053.1. (a) In lieu of the credit allowed by Section 17053, there shall be allowed as a credit against the amount of "net tax" (as defined in Section 17039), an amount equal to the amount determined in subdivisions (b) and (c).
- (b) (1) The amount of the credit allowed by this subdivision shall be 20 percent of the cost incurred by a taxpayer for the purchase of ridesharing shuttle buses or commuter buses, vans, or vehicles which are used in a private third-party ridesharing program principally in this state.
- (2) The credit provided in paragraph (1) shall be claimed in the state income tax return as follows:
- (A) One-third of the allowable amount shall be applied against the taxpayer's net tax for the taxable year in which the ridesharing vehicles are purchased and placed in service.
- (B) One-third of the allowable amount shall be applied against the taxpayer's net tax for the taxable year immediately following the taxable year in which the ridesharing vehicles are purchased and placed in service.
- (C) One-third of the allowable amount shall be applied against the taxpayer's net tax for the second taxable year immediately following the taxable year in which the ridesharing vehicles are purchased and placed in service.
- (3) The basis of any ridesharing vehicle purchased for which a credit is allowed shall be reduced by the amount of the credit. The basis adjustment shall be made for the taxable year for which the credit is allowed.
- (4) If a ridesharing vehicle purchased for which a credit is provided in paragraph (1) is disposed of, or is no longer used as part of a private third-party ridesharing program, within three years of its acquisition, that portion of the credit provided in paragraph (1) which represents the pro rata share of that remaining three-year period shall be added to the taxpayer's tax liability in the taxable year of that disposition or nonuse. The basis of any such vehicle shall be increased by an amount equal to that amount added to the taxpayer's tax liability.

- (c) (1) The amount of the credit allowed by this subdivision shall be 20 percent of the cost incurred by a taxpayer for leasing or contracting shuttle buses or commuter buses, vans, or vehicles, which are used in a private third-party ridesharing program. This credit shall be based on the total payments to the lessor or vehicle provider during the life of the lease or contract, excluding insurance, maintenance, fuel, drivers' salaries, or other operating expenses. The lessor or vehicle provider of vehicles specified in this subdivision shall not be eligible for this credit.
- (2) The credit provided in paragraph (1) shall be claimed in the state income tax return as follows:
- (A) One-third of the allowable amount shall be applied against the taxpayer's net tax for the taxable year in which the ridesharing vehicles are first leased or contracted for and placed in service.
- (B) One-third of the allowable amount shall be applied against the taxpayer's net tax for the taxable year immediately following the taxable year in which the ridesharing vehicles are first leased or contracted for and placed in service.
- (C) One-third of the allowable amount shall be applied against the taxpayer's net tax for the second taxable year immediately following the taxable year in which the ridesharing vehicles are first leased or contracted for and placed in service.
- (3) If a ridesharing vehicle leased or contracted for which a credit is provided in paragraph (1) is disposed of, or is no longer used as part of a private third-party ridesharing program, prior to the expiration date of the lease or contract, that portion of the credit provided in paragraph (1) which represents the pro rata share of the remaining life of that lease or contract shall be added to the taxpayer's tax liability in the taxable year of that disposition or nonuse.
- (d) In the case where the credit allowed under this section exceeds the "net tax" for the taxable year, that portion of the credit which exceeds the "net tax" may be carried over to the "net tax" in succeeding taxable years, with respect to which this section shall remain in effect, notwithstanding subdivision (g), for purposes of carrying over excess credit, until the credit is used. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest taxable years possible.
- (e) (1) If the tax credit provided by Section 17053 is reduced, the credit provided in subdivisions (b) and (c) shall be reduced by the same amount.
  - (f) For purposes of this section:
- (1) "Shuttle bus" means a highway vehicle which meets all of the following criteria:

- (A) Has a seating capacity of at least seven adults, including the driver.
- (B) At least 80 percent of the mileage of which reasonably can be expected to be for any of the following purposes:
- (i) Transporting employers and employees on a scheduled-route basis.
  - (ii) Interfacing with public transportation facilities.
- (iii) Transporting employers and employees on a demand-response basis.
- (C) Is acquired by the taxpayer on or after the date of the enactment of this section.
- (D) With respect to which the taxpayer makes an election under this paragraph on his or her return for the taxable year in which the vehicle is placed in service.
- (2) "Commuter bus, van, or vehicle" means a highway vehicle which meets all of the following criteria:
- (A) Has a seating capacity of at least seven adults, including the driver.
- (B) Has at least four or more persons commuting on a daily basis to and from work.
- (C) At least 50 percent of the mileage of which can be reasonably expected to be used for the purpose of transporting employers and employees to and from work.
- (D) Is acquired by the taxpayer on or after the date of enactment of this legislation.
- (E) With respect to which the taxpayer makes an election under this paragraph on his or her return for the taxable year in which the vehicle is placed in service.
- (g) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1991, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1991, deletes or extends that date.
- SEC. 2. Section 17149 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:
- 17149. (a) Gross income does not include compensation or any other benefit, except salary or wages, received by an employee from an employer for the actual costs of participation in any ridesharing arrangement in California specified in subdivision (b).
- (b) For purposes of this section, compensation or any other benefit received for the actual costs of participation in a ridesharing arrangement in California includes compensation or other benefit received for:
  - (1) Commuting in a third-party vanpool.
  - (2) Commuting in a private commuter bus.
- (3) A monthly transit pass for use by the employee or his or her dependents, other than transit passes for use by elementary and secondary school students who are dependents of the employee.
  - (4) Commuting in a subscription taxipool.
  - (c) For purposes of this section:
  - (1) "Third-party vanpool" means a vanpool that is not administered and operated by an employer or his or her employees, but is administered and operated by an outside organization, including a government agency, which makes vehicles and other equipment and services available for use by employers and their employees.

- (2) "Vanpool" means seven or more persons commuting on a daily basis to and from work by means of a vehicle with a seating arrangement designed to carry 7 to 15 adults, including the driver.
- (3) "Monthly transit pass" means any bulk purchase of transit rides that entitles the purchaser to 40 or more rides per month, whether at a discount rate or the base fare rate.
- (4) "Transit" means transportation service for use by the general public that utilizes buses, railcars, or ferries with a seating capacity of 16 or more persons.
- (5) "Subscription taxipool" means a type of service in which employers or groups of employees contract with a public or private taxi operator to provide daily commuter service for a group of preassembled subscribers on a prepaid or daily-fare basis following a relatively fixed route and schedule tailored to meet the needs of the subscribers.
- (6) "Ridesharing arrangement" means the transportation of persons in a motor vehicle where such transportation is incidental to another purpose of the driver. The term includes ridesharing arrangements known as carpools, vanpools, and buspools.
- (7) "Carpool" means two or more persons commuting on a daily basis to and from work by means of a vehicle with a seating arrangement designed to carry less than seven adults, including the driver.
- (8) "Buspool" means 16 or more persons commuting on a daily basis to and from work by means of a vehicle with a seating arrangement designed to carry more than 15 adult passengers.
- (9) "Private commuter bus" means a highway vehicle which meets all of the following criteria:
- (A) Has a seating capacity of at least seven adults, including the driver.
- (B) At least 50 percent of the mileage of which can be reasonably expected to be used for the purpose of transporting employees to and from work.
- (C) Is acquired by the taxpayer on or after the date of enactment of this section.
- (D) With respect to which the taxpayer makes an election under this paragraph on his or her return for the taxable year in which the vehicle is placed in service.
- (d) The exclusion provided by this section is in addition to any exclusion provided pursuant to Section 124 of the Internal Revenue Code.
- (e) This section shall remain in effect only until-January 1, 1991, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1991, deletes or extends that date.

- SEC. 3. Section 23605 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 23605. (a) There shall be allowed as a credit against the taxes imposed by this part (except the minimum franchise tax and the tax on preference income), an amount equal to the amount determined in subdivisions (b) and (c).
- (b) (1) The amount of the credit allowed by this subdivision shall be 20 percent of the cost incurred by an employer for the purchase of company shuttle buses, company commuter buses or vans, or company motor-pool vehicles which are provided as part of an employer-sponsored ridesharing incentive program for employees conducted principally in this state.
- (2) The credit provided in paragraph (1) shall be claimed in the state return for the income year in which the ridesharing vehicles are purchased and placed in service.
- (3) The basis of any ridesharing vehicle purchased for which a credit is allowed shall be reduced by the amount of the credit. The basis adjustment shall be made for the income year for which the credit is allowed.
- (4) If a ridesharing vehicle purchased for which a credit is provided in paragraph (1) is disposed of, or is no longer used as part of an employer-sponsored ridesharing incentive program, within three years of its acquisition, that portion of the credit provided in paragraph (1) which represents the pro rata share of that remaining three-year period shall be added to the employer's tax liability in the income year of that disposition or nonuse. The basis of any such vehicle shall be increased by an amount equal to that amount added to the employer's tax liability.
- (c) (1) The amount of the credit allowed by this subdivision shall be 20 percent of the cost incurred by an employer for leasing or contracting company shuttle buses, company commuter buses or vans, or company motor-pool vehicles which are provided as part of an employer-sponsored ridesharing incentive program. This credit shall be based on the total payments to the lessor or vehicle provider during the life of the lease or contract, excluding insurance, maintenance, fuel, drivers' salaries, or other operating expenses. The lessor or vehicle provider of vehicles specified in this subdivision is not eligible for this credit.
- (2) The credit provided in paragraph (1) shall be claimed in the state income tax return for the income year in which the ridesharing vehicles are leased or contracted for and placed in service. However, with respect to ridesharing vehicles first leased or contracted for prior to the 1984 income year, the credit provided in paragraph (1) shall be claimed in the state income tax return for the 1984 income year based on the total payments to the lessor or vehicle provider during the 1984 income year and the total payments to be made during the remaining life of the lease or contract.
- (3) If a ridesharing vehicle leased or contracted for which a credit is provided in paragraph (1) is disposed of, or is no longer used as part of an employer-sponsored ridesharing incentive program, prior to the expiration date of the lease or contract, that portion of the credit provided in paragraph (1) which represents the pro rata share of the remaining life of that lease or contract shall be added to the employer's tax liability in the income year of that disposition or nonuse.

- (d) The credits allowed by subdivisions (b) and (c) shall not apply to the cost of purchasing, leasing, or contracting company shuttle buses, company commuter buses or vans, or company motor-pool vehicles which would otherwise be required as part of the employer's business activities in the absence of an employer-sponsored ridesharing incentive program.
- (e) In the case where the credit allowed under this section exceeds the taxes imposed by this part (except the minimum franchise tax and the tax on preference income) for the income year, that portion of the credit which exceeds those taxes may be carried over to the taxes imposed by this part (except the minimum franchise tax and the tax on preference income) in succeeding income years until the credit is used. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest income years possible.
- (f) (1) If the federal investment tax credit for "commuter highway vehicles," as defined and provided for in the Energy Tax Act of 1978, is increased, then to the extent the credit is allowed or allowable for the purchase, lease, or charter of company shuttle buses, company commuter buses or vans, or company motor-pool vehicles, as defined in this section, the state credit provided in subdivisions (b) and (c) shall be reduced so that the combined effective credit shall not exceed 30 percent of the costs, notwithstanding the carryover provisions of subdivision (e).
- (2) If the federal investment tax credit for "commuter highway vehicles," as defined and provided for in the Energy Tax Act of 1978, is increased, then to the extent the credit is allowed or allowable for the purchase, lease, or charter of company shuttle buses, company commuter buses or vans, or company motor pool vehicles, as defined in this section, the state credit provided in subdivisions (b) and (c) shall be reduced by the amount of the increase in the federal credit.
  - (g) For purposes of this section:
  - (1) "Employer" means either of the following:
- (A) A taxpayer for whom services are performed by employees, except government agencies.
- (B) A taxpayer which is a private educational institution which enrolls students at higher than the secondary level.
  - (2) "Employee" means either of the following:
- (A) An individual who performs service for an employer for more than eight hours per week for remuneration.
  - (B) Any commuting student, as defined in paragraph (3).
- (3) "Commuting student" means a registered full-time student at a college, university, or other postsecondary educational institution, who lives apart from the property which is designated as the "employment site" for the purpose of this section, and who travels between his or her residence and the designated employment site on a regular, though not necessarily daily, basis.

- (4) "Employer-sponsored ridesharing incentive program" means a program undertaken by an employer either alone or in cooperation with other employers to encourage or provide, or both, fiscal or other incentives to employees to make the home-to-work commute trip by any mode other than the single-occupant motor vehicle.
- (5) "Company shuttle bus" means a highway vehicle which meets all of the following criteria:
- (A) Has a seating capacity of at least seven adults, including the driver.
- (B) At least 80 percent of the mileage of which reasonably can be expected to be for any of the following purposes:
  - (i) Transporting employees on a scheduled-route basis.
  - (ii) Interfacing with public transportation facilities.
  - (iii) Transporting employees on a demand-response basis.
- (C) Is acquired by the taxpayer on or after the date of the enactment of this section.
- (D) With respect to which the taxpayer makes an election under this paragraph on its return for the income year in which the vehicle is placed in service.
- (6) "Company commuter bus or van" means a highway vehicle which meets all of the following criteria:
- (A) Has a seating capacity of at least seven adults, including the driver.
- (B) At least 50 percent of the mileage of which can be reasonably expected to be used for the purpose of transporting employees to and from work.
- (C) Is acquired by the taxpayer on or after the date of enactment of this legislation.
- (D) With respect to which the taxpayer makes an election under this paragraph on its return for the income year in which such vehicle is placed in service.
- (7) "Company motor-pool vehicle" means a highway vehicle which meets all of the following criteria:
- (A) Is an automobile with a gross vehicle weight of 6,000 pounds or less.
- (B) Meets or exceeds certain fuel efficiency standards pursuant to the provisions of Title II of Public Law 95-618.
- (C) Is made available to all employees on a nondiscriminatory basis in the normal course of the taxpayer's business.
- (D) Is acquired by the taxpayer on or after the date of the enactment of this section.
- (E) With respect to which the taxpayer makes an election under this paragraph on its return for the income year in which the vehicle is placed in service.
- (h) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1991, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1991, deletes or extends that date.

- SEC. 4. Section 24343.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:
- 24343.5. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, there shall be allowed to an employer a deduction as an ordinary and necessary expense paid or incurred during the income year in carrying on any trade or business those expenses involved in each of the following activities:
  - (1) Subsidizing employees commuting in third-party vanpools.
- (2) Subsidizing employees commuting in private commuter buses.
- (3) Subsidizing monthly transit passes for its employees or for use by the employee's dependents, except that no deduction shall be allowed for transit passes issued for the use of elementary and secondary school students.
  - (4) Subsidizing employees commuting in subscription taxipools.
- (5) In the case of an employer who offers free parking to its employees, offering a cash equivalent to employees who do not require parking.
- (6) Providing free or preferential parking to carpools and vanpools.
- (7) Making facility improvements to encourage employees, for the purpose of commuting from their homes, to participate in ridesharing arrangements, to use bicycles, or to walk. These facility improvements may include, but are not limited to, any of the following: the construction of bus shelters; the installation of bicycle racks and other bicycle-related facilities, such as showers and locker rooms; and parking lot modifications to provide carpools, vanpools, or buspools with preferential treatment. The cost of these facility improvements shall be allowed as a depreciation deduction. Notwithstanding subdivision (c), the depreciation deduction shall be allowable over a 36-month period.
- (8) Providing company commuter van or bus service to its employees and to others for commuting from their homes, but not for transportation required as part of the employer's business activities, except as otherwise provided in this section. The capital costs of providing this service shall not be an eligible deduction under this section.
- (9) Providing to employees tranportation services which are required as part of the employer's business activities to the extent that the transportation would be provided by employees without reimbursement in the absence of an employer-sponsored ridesharing incentive program. The capital costs of providing this service shall not be an eligible deduction under this section.
  - (b) For purposes of this section:
- (1) "Employer," "employee," "commuting student," "employer-sponsored ridesharing incentive program," and "company commuter bus or van" have the meanings specified in Section 23605.

- (2) "Third-party vanpool" means a vanpool that is not administered and operated by an employer or its employees, but is administered and operated by an outside organization, including a government agency, which makes vehicles and other equipment and services available for use by employers and their employees.
- (3) "Vanpool" means seven or more persons commuting on a daily basis to and from work by means of a vehicle with a seating arrangement designed to carry 7 to 15 adult persons.
- (4) "Monthly transit pass" means any bulk purchase of transit rides that entitles the purchaser to 40 or more rides per month, whether at a discount rate or the base fare rate.
- (5) "Transit" means transportation service for use by the general public that utilizes buses, railcars, or ferries with a seating capacity of 16 or more persons.
- (6) "Subscription taxipool" means a type of service in which employers or groups of employees contract with a public or private taxi operator to provide daily commuter service for a group of preassembled subscribers on a prepaid or daily-fare basis, following a relatively fixed route and schedule tailored to meet the needs of the subscribers.
- (7) "Ridesharing arrangement" means the transportation of persons in a motor vehicle where such transportation is incidental to another purpose of the driver. The term includes ridesharing arrangements known as carpools, vanpools, and buspools.
- (8) "Carpool" means two or more persons commuting on a daily basis to and from work by means of a vehicle with a seating arrangement designed to carry less than seven adults, including the driver.
- (9) "Buspool" means 16 or more persons commuting on a daily basis to and from work by means of a vehicle with a seating arrangement designed to carry more than 15 adult passengers.
- (10) "Private commuter bus" means a highway vehicle which meets all of the following criteria:
- (A) Has a seating capacity of at least seven adults, including the driver.
- (B) At least 50 percent of the mileage of which can be reasonably expected to be used for the purpose of transporting employees to and from work.
- (C) Is acquired by the taxpayer on or after the date of enactment of this section.
- (D) With respect to which the taxpayer makes an election under this paragraph on his or her return for the income year in which the vehicle is placed in service.
- (c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1991, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1991, deletes or extends that date.
- SEC. 5. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1445

An act to amend Section 4500 of the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4500 of the Penal Code is amended to read: 4500. Every person while undergoing a life sentence, who is sentenced to state prison within this state, and who, with malice aforethought, commits an assault upon the person of another with a deadly weapon or instrument, or by any means of force likely to produce great bodily injury is punishable with death or life imprisonment without possibility of parole. The penalty shall be determined pursuant to the provisions of Sections 190.3 and 190.4; however, in cases in which the person subjected to such assault does not die within a year and a day after such assault as a proximate result thereof, the punishment shall be imprisonment in the state prison for life without the possibility of parole for nine years.

For the purpose of computing the days elapsed between the commission of the assault and the death of the person assaulted, the whole of the day on which the assault was committed shall be counted as the first day.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the application of this section when the assault was committed outside the walls of any prison if the person committing the assault was undergoing a life sentence and was serving a sentence to a state prison at the time of the commission of the assault and was not on parole, on probation, or released on bail pending an appeal.

CHAPTER 1446

An act to amend Sections 2932, 2933, 3041, 5075, 5076, and 5076.1 of the Penal Code, relating to sentencing.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2932 of the Penal Code is amended to read: 2932. (a) (1) For any time credit accumulated pursuant to Section 2931 or to Section 2933, not more than 360 days of credit may be denied or lost for a single act of murder, attempted murder, solicitation of murder, manslaughter, rape, sodomy, or oral copulation accomplished against the victim's will, attempted rape, attempted sodomy, or attempted oral copulation accomplished against the victim's will, assault or battery causing serious bodily injury, assault with a deadly weapon or caustic substance, taking of a hostage, escape with force or violence, or possession or manufacture of a deadly weapon or explosive device, whether or not prosecution is undertaken for purposes of this paragraph. Solicitation of murder shall be proved by the testimony of two witnesses, or of one witness and corroborating circumstances.

- (2) Not more than 180 days or credit may be denied or lost for a single act of misconduct, except as specified in (1) which could be prosecuted as a felony whether or not prosecution is undertaken.
- (3) Not more than 90 days of credit may be denied or lost for a single act of misconduct which could be prosecuted as a misdemeanor, whether or not prosecution is undertaken.
- (4) Not more than 30 days of credit may be denied or lost for a single act of misconduct defined by regulation as a serious disciplinary offense by the Department of Corrections. Any person confined due to a change in custodial classification following the commission of any serious disciplinary infraction shall, in addition to any loss of time credits, be ineligible to receive participation or worktime credit for a period not to exceed the number of days of credit which have been lost for such act of misconduct or 180 days. whichever is less. Any person confined in a secure housing unit for having committed any misconduct specified in paragraph (1) in which great bodily injury is inflicted upon a nonprisoner shall, in addition to any loss of time credits, be ineligible to receive participation or worktime credit for a period not to exceed the number of days of credit which have been lost for that act of misconduct, or for the period that the prisoner is confined in a secure housing unit, whichever is less. In unusual cases, an inmate may be denied the opportunity to participate in a credit qualifying assignment for up to six months beyond the period specified in this subdivision if the Director of Corrections finds, after a hearing, that no credit qualifying program may be assigned to the inmate without creating a substantial risk of physical harm to staff or other inmates. At the end of the six-month period and of successive six-month periods, the denial of the opportunity to participate in a credit qualifying assignment may be renewed upon a hearing and finding by the director.

The prisoner may appeal the decision through the department's review procedure, which shall include a review by an individual independent of the institution who has supervisorial authority over the institution.

(b) For any credit accumulated pursuant to Section 2931, not more than 30 days of participation credit may be denied or lost for a single failure or refusal to participate. Any act of misconduct described by the Department of Corrections as a serious disciplinary infraction if committed while participating in work, educational, vocational, therapeutic or other prison activity shall be deemed a failure to participate.

- (c) Any procedure not provided for by this section, but necessary to carry out the purposes of this section, shall be those procedures provided for by the Department of Corrections for serious disciplinary infractions if those procedures are not in conflict with this section.
- (1) The Department of Corrections shall, using reasonable diligence to investigate, provide written notice to the prisoner. The written notice shall be given within 15 days after the discovery of information leading to charges that may result in a possible denial of credit, except that if the prisoner has escaped, the notice shall be given within 15 days of the prisoner's return to the custody of the Director of Corrections. The written notice shall include the specific charge, the date, the time, the place that the alleged misbehavior took place, the evidence relied upon, a written explanation of the procedures that will be employed at the proceedings and the prisoner's rights at the hearing. The hearing shall be conducted by an individual who shall be independent of the case and shall take place within 30 days of the written notice.
- (2) The prisoner may elect to be assigned an employee to assist in the investigation, preparation, or presentation of a defense at the disciplinary hearing if it is determined by the department that: (i) the prisoner is illiterate; or (ii) the complexity of the issues or the prisoner's confinement status makes it unlikely that the prisoner can collect and present the evidence necessary for an adequate comprehension of the case.
- (3) The prisoner may request witnesses to attend the hearing and they shall be called unless the person conducting the hearing has specific reasons to deny this request. Such specific reasons shall be set forth in writing and a copy of the document shall be presented to the prisoner.
- (4) The prisoner has the right, under the direction of the person conducting the hearing, to question all witnesses.
- (5) At the conclusion of the hearing the charge shall be dismissed if the facts do not support the charge, or the prisoner may be found guilty on the basis of a preponderance of the evidence.
- (d) If found guilty the prisoner shall be advised in writing of the guilty finding and the specific evidence relied upon to reach this conclusion and the amount of time-credit loss. The prisoner may appeal such decision through the Department of Corrections' review procedure, and may, upon final notification of appeal denial, within 15 days of such notification demand review of the department's denial of credit to the Board of Prison Terms, and the board may affirm, reverse, or modify the department's decision or grant a hearing before the board at which hearing the prisoner will have the rights specified in Section 3041.5.
- (e) Each prisoner subject to Section 2931 shall be notified of the total amount of good behavior and participation credit which may be credited pursuant to Section 2931, and his anticipated time-credit release date. The prisoner shall be notified of any change in the anticipated release date due to denial or loss of credits, award of worktime credit, under Section 2933, or the restoration of any credits previously forfeited.

(f) If the conduct the prisoner is charged with also constitutes a crime, the Department of Corrections may refer the case to criminal authorities for possible prosecution. The department shall notify the prisoner, who may request postponement of the disciplinary proceedings pending such referral.

The prisoner may revoke his request for postponement of the disciplinary proceedings up until the filing of the accusatory pleading. In the event of the revocation of the request for postponement of the proceeding, the department shall hold the hearing within 30 days of the revocation.

In the case where the prisoner is prosecuted by the district attorney, the Department of Corrections shall not deny time credit where the prisoner is found not guilty and may deny credit if the prisoner is found guilty, in which case the procedures in subdivision (c) shall not apply.

- (g) If time credit denial proceedings or criminal prosecution prohibit the release of a prisoner who would have otherwise been released, and the prisoner is found not guilty of the alleged misconduct, the amount of time spent incarcerated, in excess of what the period of incarceration would have been absent the alleged misbehavior, shall be deducted from the prisoner's parole period.
- (h) Nothing in the amendments to this section made at the 1981–82 Regular Session of the Legislature shall affect the granting or revocation of credits attributable to that portion of the prisoner's sentence served prior to January 1, 1983.
  - SEC. 2. Section 2933 of the Penal Code is amended to read:
- 2933. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature that persons convicted of crime and sentenced to state prison, under Section 1170, serve the entire sentence imposed by the court, except for a reduction in the time served in the custody of the Director of Corrections for performance in work, training or education programs established by the Director of Corrections. Worktime credits shall apply for performance in work assignments and performance in elementary, high school, or vocational education programs. Enrollment in a two- or four-year college program leading to a degree shall result in the application of time credits equal to that provided in Section 2931. For every six months of full-time performance in a credit qualifying program, as designated by the director, a prisoner shall be awarded worktime credit reductions from his term of confinement of six months. A lesser amount of credit based on this ratio shall be awarded for any lesser period of continuous performance. Less than maximum credit should be awarded pursuant to regulations adopted by the director for prisoners not assigned to a full-time credit qualifying program. Every prisoner who refuses to accept a full-time credit qualifying assignment or who is denied the opportunity to earn worktime credits pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 2932 shall be awarded no worktime credit reduction. Every prisoner who voluntarily accepts a half-time credit qualifying assignment in lieu of a full-time assignment shall be awarded worktime credit reductions from his term of confinement of three months for each six-month period of continued performance. Except as provided in subdivision (a) of Section 2932, every prisoner willing to participate in a full-time credit qualifying assignment but who is either not assigned to a full-time assignment or is assigned to a program for less than full time, shall receive no less credit than is provided under Section 2931. Under no circumstances shall any prisoner receive more than six months' credit reduction for any six-month period under this section.

- (b) Worktime credit is a privilege, not a right. Worktime credit must be earned and may be forfeited pursuant to the provisions of Section 2932. Except as provided in subdivision (a) of Section 2932, every prisoner shall have a reasonable opportunity to participate in a full-time credit qualifying assignment in a manner consistent with institutional security and available resources.
- (c) Under regulations adopted by the Department of Corrections, which shall require a period of not more than one year free of disciplinary infractions, worktime credit which has been previously forfeited may be restored by the director. The regulations shall provide for separate classifications of serious disciplinary infractions as they relate to restoration of credits; the time period required before forfeited credits or a portion thereof may be restored; and the percentage of forfeited credits that may be restored for such time periods. For credits forfeited for commission of a felony specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 2932, the Department of Corrections may provide that up to 180 days of lost credit shall not be restored and up to 90 days of credit shall not be restored for a forfeiture resulting from conspiracy or attempts to commit one of those acts; provided that no credits may be restored if they were forfeited for a serious disciplinary infraction in which the victim died or was permanently disabled. Upon application of the prisoner and following completion of the required time period free of disciplinary offenses, forfeited credits eligible for restoration under the regulations shall be restored unless, at a hearing, it is found that the prisoner refused to accept or failed to perform in a credit qualifying assignment or extraordinary circumstances are present that require that credits not be restored. "Extraordinary circumstances" shall be defined in the regulations adopted by the director.

The prisoner may appeal the finding through the Department of Corrections review procedure, which shall include a review by an individual independent of the institution who has supervisorial authority over the institution.

(d) The provisions of subdivision (c) shall also apply in cases of credit forfeited under Section 2931 for offenses and serious disciplinary infractions occurring on or after January 1, 1983.

SEC. 3. Section 3041 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

- (a) In the case of any prisoner sentenced pursuant to any provision of law, other than Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 1170) of Title 7 of Part 2, the Board of Prison Terms shall meet with each such inmate during the third year of incarceration for the purposes of reviewing the inmate's file, making recommendations, and documenting activities and conduct pertinent to granting or withholding post-conviction credit. One year prior to the inmate's minimum eligible parole release date a panel consisting of at least two commissioners of the Board of Prison Terms shall again meet with the inmate and shall normally set a parole release date as provided in Section 3041.5. The release date shall be set in a manner that will provide uniform terms for offenses of similar gravity and magnitude in respect to their threat to the public, and that will comply with the sentencing rules that the Judicial Council may issue and any sentencing information relevant to the setting of parole release dates. The board shall establish criteria for the setting of parole release dates and in doing so shall consider the number of victims of the crime for which the prisoner was sentenced and other factors in mitigation or aggravation of the crime. At least one commissioner of the panel shall have been present at the last preceding meeting, unless it is not feasible to do so or where the last preceding meeting was the initial meeting. Any person on the hearing panel may request review of any decision regarding parole to the full board for an en banc hearing. In case of such a review, a majority vote of the full Board of Prison Terms in favor of parole is required to grant parole to any prisoner.
- . (b) The panel or board shall set a release date unless it determines that the gravity of the current convicted offense or offenses, or the timing and gravity of current or past convicted offense or offenses, is such that consideration of the public safety requires a more lengthy period of incarceration for this individual, and that a parole date, therefore, cannot be fixed at this meeting.
- (c) For the purpose of reviewing the suitability for parole of those prisoners eligible for parole under prior law at a date earlier than that calculated under Section 1170.2, the board shall appoint panels of at least two persons to meet annually with each such prisoner until such time as the person is released pursuant to such proceedings or reaches the expiration of his term as calculated under Section 1170.2.

SEC. 4. Section 5075 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

5075. The Board of Prison Terms shall be composed of nine commissioners, each of whom shall be appointed by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, for a term of four years and until the appointment and qualification of his successor. Commissioners shall be eligible for reappointment.

The chairman of the board shall be designated by the Governor from time to time. The chairman shall be the administrative head of the board and shall exercise all duties and functions necessary to insure that the responsibilities of the board are successfully discharged. He shall be the appointing authority for all civil service positions of employment in the board.

The terms of the commissioners shall expire as follows: two on March 15, 1978, two on March 15, 1979, two on March 15, 1980, and three on March 15, 1981. Successor commissioners shall hold office for terms of four years, each term to commence on the expiration date of the term of the predecessor. The Governor shall fill every vacancy for the balance of the unexpired term. The selection of persons and their appointment by the Governor and confirmation by the Senate shall reflect as nearly as possible a cross-section of the racial, sexual, economic, and geographic features of the population of the state.

It is the further intent of this section that the board shall adopt such policies and practices as will permit continuing operations and improvements without any further increase in the number of its commissioners.

SEC. 5. Section 5076 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

5076. Each commissioner of the board shall devote his entire time to the duties of his office and shall receive an annual salary provided for by Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 11550) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 6. Section 5076.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

5076.1. The board shall meet at each of the state prisons at such times as may be necessary for a full and complete study of the cases of all prisoners whose applications for parole come before it. Other times and places of meeting may also be fixed by the board. Each commissioner of the board shall receive his actual necessary traveling expenses incurred in the performance of his official duties. Where the board performs its functions by meeting en banc in either public or executive sessions to decide matters of general policy, at least five members shall be present, and no such action shall be valid unless it is concurred in by a majority vote of those present.

The board may meet and transact business in panels. Each panel shall consist of at least three persons. No action shall be valid unless concurred in by a majority vote of the persons present.

Consideration of parole release for persons sentenced to life imprisonment pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1168 shall be heard by a panel, a majority of whose commissioners are commissioners of the Board of Prison Terms. A recommendation for recall of a sentence under subdivisions (d) and (f) of Section 1170 shall be made by a panel, a majority of whose commissioners are commissioners of the Board of Prison Terms.

The board may employ deputy commissioners to whom it may assign appropriate duties, including that of hearing cases and making decisions. Such decisions shall be made in accordance with policies approved by a majority of the total membership of the board.

CHAPTER 1447

An act to amend Sections 6490 and 25500 of the Elections Code, relating to elections.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6490 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

6490. No candidate's name shall be printed on the ballot to be used at the direct primary unless the following nomination documents are delivered for filing to the county clerk not less than 88 and not more than 113 days prior to the direct primary:

(a) Declaration of candidacy pursuant to Section 6491.

(b) Nomination papers signed by signers pursuant to Section 6494.

The county clerk shall not accept the nomination documents after 5 p.m. on the 88th day prior to the direct primary.

Upon the receipt of an executed nomination document, the county clerk shall give the person delivering such document a receipt, properly dated, indicating that the document was delivered to the county clerk.

Notwithstanding Section 6490.5, upon request of a candidate, the county clerk shall provide the candidate with a declaration of candidacy and nomination papers. The county clerk shall not require a candidate to sign, file, or sign and file, a declaration of candidacy as a condition of receiving nomination papers.

SEC. 2. Section 25500 of the Elections Code is amended to read: 25500. (a) Each candidate for a party nomination for the office of State Senator or Member of the Assembly, or for any state constitutional office, at the direct primary election shall file a written and signed declaration of his or her intention to become a candidate for his or her party's nomination for that office. The declaration of intention shall be filed with either the Secretary of State or the clerk of the county in which the candidate is a resident. The declaration of intention shall be filed, on a form to be supplied by the county clerk or registrar of voters, not more than 14 nor less than five days prior to the first day on which nomination papers may be presented for filing. However, if the incumbent fails to file a declaration of intention by the end of that period, persons other than the incumbent may file declarations of intention no later than the first day for filing nomination papers. The declaration of intention provided for in this section shall be in substantially the following form:

Party's nomination for the office of

(Name of office and district, if any) at the direct primary election.		v
	(Signature of candidate)
	(Address of candidate)

- (b) No person may be a candidate nor have his or her name printed upon any ballot as a candidate for a party nomination for the office of State Senator or Member of the Assembly, or for any state constitutional office, at the direct primary election unless he or she has filed the declaration of intention provided for in this section. However, if the incumbent of the office files a declaration of intention, but for any reason fails to qualify for nomination for the office by the last day prescribed for the filing of nomination papers, an additional five days shall be allowed for the filing of nomination papers for the office, and any person, other than the incumbent if otherwise qualified, may file nomination papers for the office during the extended period, notwithstanding that he or she has not filed a written and signed declaration of intention to become a candidate for the office as provided in subdivision (a).
- SEC. 3. Reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code and, if the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

CHAPTER 1448

An act to amend Section 43830 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to air pollution.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 43830 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

43830. The state board shall establish, by regulation, maximum standards for the volatility of gasoline at nine pounds per square inch Reid vapor pressure as determined by the American Society for Testing and Materials test D 323-58, or by an appropriate test determined by the state board, for gasoline sold in this state.

The state board, in adopting the regulations, shall give full consideration to climatic conditions and may provide that the maximum standards imposed thereby shall be applicable only during those periods of time and only in those areas which the state board determines necessary in order to carry out the purposes of this division.

Notwithstanding any other law or regulation, until January 1, 1990, any blend of gasoline of at least 10 percent ethyl alcohol is a legal fuel in California if the gasoline used in the blend meets the standard of nine pounds per square inch Reid vapor pressure.

CHAPTER 1449

An act to amend Sections 25208.3 and 25208.7 of, and to add Section 25208.17 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25208.3 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25208.3. (a) On or before July 1, 1985, the state board shall, by emergency regulation, adopt a fee schedule which assesses a fee upon any person discharging any liquid hazardous wastes or containing free liquids into hazardous wastes impoundment, except as provided in Section 25208.17. The state board shall include in this fee schedule the fees charged for applications for, and renewals of, an exemption from Section 25208.5, as specified in subdivision (h) of Section 25208.5, from subdivision (a) of Section 25208.4, as specified in subdivision (b) of Section 25208.4, from subdivision (c) of Section 25208.4 as specified in Section 25208.16, and from Sections 25208.4 and 25208.5, as specified in subdivision (e) of Section 25208.13. The state board shall also include provisions in the fee schedule for assessing a penalty pursuant to subdivision (c). The state board shall set these fees at an amount equal to the state board's and regional board's reasonable and anticipated costs of administering this article.

(b) The emergency regulations which set the fee schedule shall be adopted by the state board in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and for the purposes of that chapter, including Section 11349.6 of the Government Code, the adoption of these regulations is an emergency and shall be considered by the Office of Administrative Law as necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, and general

- welfare. Notwithstanding Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, any emergency regulations adopted by the state board pursuant to this section shall be filed with, but not be repealed by, the Office of Administrative Law and shall remain in effect until revised by the state board.
- (c) The state board shall send a notice to each person subject to the fee specified in subdivision (a). If a person fails to pay the fee within 60 days after receipt of this notice, the state board shall require the person to pay an additional penalty fee. The state board shall set the penalty fee at not more than 100 percent of the assessed fee, but in an amount sufficient to deter future noncompliance, as based upon that person's past history of compliance and ability to pay, and upon additional expenses incurred by this noncompliance.
- (d) The state board shall collect and deposit the fees collected pursuant to this article in the Surface Impoundment Assessment Account, which is hereby created in the General Fund. The money within the Surface Impoundment Assessment Account is available, upon appropriation by the Legislature, to the state board and the regional boards for purposes of administering this article.
- SEC. 2. Section 25208.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- 25208.7. (a) The regional board shall make at least one inspection per year of all facilities with surface impoundments, and shall regularly review monitoring data, as necessary, to ensure that all surface impoundments comply with this article and that any equipment or programs required pursuant to this article are operating properly.
- (b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), each regional board shall establish a schedule and a notification system requiring the submission of reports to the regional board on or before January 1, 1988, by every person discharging liquid hazardous wastes or hazardous wastes containing free liquids into a surface impoundment located within the jurisdiction of the regional board. Any person discharging liquid hazardous wastes or hazardous wastes containing free liquids into a surface impoundment who receives this notice from the regional board shall submit a report to the regional board within the time specified in the notice, except that if the person has filed a report with an application for exemption, pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 25208.5, the regional board shall not require the person to file a report.
- (c) The regional board may require that the report specified in Section 25208.8 be filed by a person who has conducted a site assessment pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25208.17 only after the regional board makes the determination specified in subdivision (g) of Section 25208.17.
- SEC. 3. Section 25208.17 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:
  - 25208.17. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (g), a person specified in subdivision (h) is exempt from filing the report required by Section 25208.7 if the surface impoundment has been closed, or will be closed before January 1, 1988, in accordance with Subchapter 15 (commencing with Section 2510) of Chapter 3 of Title 23 of the California Administrative Code, and it has only been used for the discharge of economic poisons, as defined in Section 12753 of the Food and Agricultural Code, and if the person submits an application for exemption to the regional board on or before February 1, 1987, pursuant to subdivision (b) and an initial hydrogeological site assessment report to the regional board on or before July 1, 1987. A qualified person shall be responsible for the preparation of the hydrogeological site assessment report and shall certify its completeness and accuracy.

- (b) A person seeking exemption from Section 25208.7 shall file an application for exemption with the regional board on or before February 1, 1987, together with an initial filing fee of three thousand dollars ($3,000). The application shall include the names of persons who own or operate each surface impoundment for which the exemption is sought and the location of each surface impoundment for which an exemption is sought.
- (c) Notwithstanding Section 25208.3, each person filing an application for exemption pursuant to subdivision (b) shall pay only the application fee provided in subdivision (b) and any additional fees assessed by the state board to recover the actual costs incurred by the state board and regional boards to administer this section. The person is not liable for fees assessed pursuant to Section 25208.3, except that, if the person is required to comply with Section 25208.7 or 25208.6, the fees assessed under this section shall include the costs of the regional board and state board to administer those sections.
- (d) If a person fails to pay the initial filing fee by February 1, 1987, or fails to pay any subsequent additional assessment pursuant to subdivision (c), the person shall be liable for a penalty of not more than 100 percent of the fees due and unpaid, but in an amount sufficient to defer future noncompliance, as based upon that person's past history of noncompliance and ability to pay, and upon additional expenses incurred by the regional board and state board as a result of this noncompliance.
- (e) Notwithstanding Section 25208.3, after the regional board has made a determination pursuant to subdivision (g), a final payment or refund of fees specified in subdivision (c) shall be made so that the total fees paid by the person shall be sufficient to cover the actual costs of the state board and the regional board in administering this section.
- (f) The hydrogeological site assessment report shall contain for each surface impoundment, all of the following information:
- (1) A description of the surface impoundment, including its physical characteristics, its age, the presence or absence of a liner, a description of the liner, the liner's compatibility with the hazardous wastes discharged to the impoundment, and the design specifications of the impoundment.

- (2) A description of the volume and concentration of hazardous waste constituents placed in the surface impoundment, based on a representative chemical analysis of the specific hazardous waste type and accounting for variance in hazardous waste constituents over time.
- (3) An analysis of surface and groundwater on, under, and within one mile of the surface impoundment to provide a reliable indication of whether or not hazardous constituents or leachate is leaking or has been released from the surface impoundment.
- (4) A chemical characterization of soil-pore liquid in areas which are likely to be affected by hazardous constituents or leachate released from the surface impoundment, as compared to geologically similar areas near the surface impoundment which have not been affected by releases from the surface impoundment. This characterization shall include:
- (A) A description of the composition of the vadose zone beneath the surface impoundment. This description shall include a chemical and hydrogeological characterization of both the consolidated and unconsolidated geologic materials underlying the surface impoundment, and an analysis for pollutants, including those constituents discharged into the surface impoundment. This description shall also include soil moisture readings from a representative number of points around the surface impoundment's perimeter and at the maximum depth of the surface impoundment. The initial report shall contain all data in tabular form so that data, constituents, and concentrations are readily discernible.
- (B) A determination of the chemical characteristics of the soil made by collecting a soil sample upgradient from the impoundment or from an area which has not been affected by seepage from the surface impoundment and which is in a hydrogeologic environment similar to the surface impoundment. The determinations shall be analyzed for the same pollutants analyzed pursuant to subparagraph (A).
- (5) A description of current groundwater and vadose zone monitoring being conducted at the surface impoundment for leak detection, including detailed plans and equipment specifications and a technical report which provides the rationale for the spatial distribution of groundwater and vadose zone monitoring points for the design of monitoring facilities, and for the selection of monitoring equipment. This description shall include:
- (A) A map showing the location of monitoring facilities with respect to each surface impoundment.
- (B) Drawings and design data showing construction details of groundwater monitoring facilities, including all of the following:
  - (i) Casing and hole diameter.
  - (ii) Casing materials.
  - (iii) Depth of each monitoring well.
  - (iv) Size and position of perforations.

- (v) Method for joining sections of casing.
- (vi) Nature and gradation of filter material.
- (vii) Depth and composition of annular seals.
- (viii) Method and length of time of development.
- (ix) Method of drilling.
- (C) Specifications, drawings, and data for the location and installation of vadose zone monitoring equipment.
- (D) Discussion of sampling frequency and methods and analytical protocols used.
  - (E) Justification of indicator parameters used.
- (6) Documentation demonstrating that the monitoring system and methods used at the facility can detect any seepage before the hazardous waste constituents enter the waters of the state. This documentation shall include, but is not limited to, substantiation of each of the following:
- (A) The monitoring facilities are located close enough to the surface impoundment to identify lateral and vertical migration of any constituents discharged to the impoundment.
- (B) The groundwater monitoring wells are not located within the influence of any adjacent pumping water wells which might impair their effectiveness.
- (C) The groundwater monitoring wells are screened only in the zone of groundwater to be monitored.
- (D) The casing material in the groundwater monitoring wells does not interfere with, or react to, the potential contaminants of major concern at the impoundment.
- (E) The casing diameter allows an adequate amount of water to be removed during sampling and allows full development of each well
- (F) The annular seal of each groundwater monitoring well prevents pollutants from migrating down the well.
- (G) The water samples are collected after at least five well volumes have been removed from the well and that the samples are collected, preserved, transported, handled, analyzed, and reported in accordance with guidelines for collection and analysis of groundwater samples which provide for preservation of unstable indicator parameters and prevent physical or chemical changes which could interfere with detection of indicator parameters.
- (H) The hazardous waste constituents selected for analysis are specific to the facility, taking into account the chemical composition of hazardous wastes previously placed in the surface impoundment.
- (I) The frequency of monitoring is sufficient to give timely warning of any leakage or release of hazardous constituents or leachate so that remedial action can be taken prior to any adverse changes in the quality of the groundwater.
- (7) A written statement from the qualified person preparing the report indicating whether any hazardous constituents or leachate has migrated into the vadose zone, water-bearing strata, or waters of the state in concentrations which pollute or threaten to pollute the waters of the state.

- (8) A written statement from the qualified person preparing the report indicating whether any migration of hazardous constituents or leachate into the vadose zone, water-bearing strata, or waters of the state is likely or not likely to occur within five years, and any evidence supporting that statement.
- (g) The regional board shall complete a thorough analysis of each hydrogeological site assessment report submitted pursuant to subdivision (b) within one year after submittal. If the regional board, determines that a hazardous waste constituent from the surface impoundment is polluting or threatening to pollute, as defined in subdivision (l) of Section 13050 of the Water Code, both of the following shall occur:
- (1) The regional board shall issue a cease and desist order or a cleanup and abatement order which prohibits any discharge into the surface impoundment and which requires compliance with Section 25208.6.
- (2) The person shall file a report pursuant to Section 25208.7 within nine months after the regional board makes the determination pursuant to subdivision (g). In making any determination under this subdivision, the regional board shall state the factual basis for the determinations.
  - (h) For purposes of this section, person means only the following:
- (1) Pest control operators and businesses licensed pursuant to Section 11701 of the Food and Agricultural Code.
- (2) Local governmental vector control agencies who have entered into a cooperative agreement with the department pursuant to Section 2426.

CHAPTER 1450

An act to amend Sections 8208 and 8263 of the Education Code, relating to child care and development.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8208 of the Education Code is amended to read:

8208. As used in this chapter:

- (a) "Assigned reimbursement rate" is that rate established by the contract with the agency and is derived by dividing the total dollar amount of the contract by the minimum child day of average daily enrollment level of service required.
- (b) "Alternative payments" includes payments which are made by one child care agency to another agency or child care provider for the provision of child care and development services, and payments which are made by an agency to a parent for the parent's purchase of child care and development services.

- (c) "Applicant or operating agency" means a school district, community college district, college or university, county superintendent of schools, county, city, public agency, private non-tax-exempt agency, private tax-exempt agency, or other entity which is authorized to establish, maintain, or operate services pursuant to this chapter. Private agencies and parent cooperatives, duly licensed by law, shall receive the same consideration as any other authorized entity with no loss of parental decisionmaking prerogatives as consistent with the provisions of this chapter.
- (d) "Attendance" means the number of children present at a child care and development facility. "Attendance," for the purposes of reimbursement, includes excused absences by children because of illness, quarantine, illness or quarantine of their parent, family emergency, or to spend time with a parent or other relative as required by a court of law or which is clearly in the best interest of the child.
- (e) "Capital outlay" means the amount paid for the renovation and repair of child care and development facilities to comply with state and local health and safety standards, and the amount paid for the state purchase of relocatable child care and development facilities for lease to qualifying contracting agencies.
- (f) "Caregiver" means a person who provides direct care, supervision, and guidance to children in a child care and development facility.
- (g) "Child care and development facility" means any residence or building or part thereof in which child care and development services are provided.
- (h) "Child care and development programs" means those programs which offer a full range of services for children from infancy to 14 years of age, for any part of a day, by a public or private agency, in centers and family child care homes. These programs include, but are not limited to, all of the following:
  - (1) Campus child care and development.
  - (2) General child care and development.
  - (3) Intergenerational child care and development.
  - (4) Migrant child care and development.
  - (5) School-age parenting and infant development.
  - (6) State preschool.
  - (7) Resource and referral.
  - (8) Severely handicapped.
  - (9) Family day care.
  - (10) Alternative payment.
  - (11) Child abuse protection and prevention services.
  - (12) School age community child care.
- (i) "Child care and development services" means those services designed to meet a wide variety of needs of children and their families, while their parents or guardians are working, in training, seeking employment, incapacitated, or in need of respite, including, but not limited to, respite while seeking permanent housing for family stability. These services include direct care and supervision, instructional activities, resource and referral programs, and alternative payment arrangements.

- (j) "Children at risk of abuse, neglect, or exploitation" means children who are identified as such in a written referral from a legal, medical, social service agency, or emergency shelter.
- (k) "Children with exceptional needs" means children who are mentally retarded, hard of hearing, deaf, speech impaired, visually handicapped, seriously emotionally disturbed, orthopedically impaired, other health impaired, deaf-blind, multihandicapped, severely handicapped, or children with specific learning disabilities, who require the special attention of adults in a child care setting. Children with exceptional needs who are between the ages of birth and 21 years, inclusive, shall also meet the criteria for that age group specified in Section 56026.
- (l) "Children with special needs" includes infants to the age of two years and 9 months; limited-English-speaking-proficient children; children with exceptional needs; limited-English-proficient handicapped children; and children at risk of neglect, abuse, or exploitation.
- (m) "Closedown costs" means reimbursements for all approved activities associated with the closing of operations at the end of each growing season for migrant child development programs only.
- (n) "Cost" includes, but is not limited to, expenditures that are related to the operation of child development programs. "Cost" may include a reasonable amount for state and local contributions to employee benefits, including approved retirement programs, agency administration, and any other reasonable program operational costs.
- (o) "Elementary school," as contained in Section 425 of Title 20 of the United States Code (the National Defense Education Act of 1958, Public Law 85-864, as amended), includes early childhood education programs and all child development programs, for the purpose of the cancellation provisions of loans to students in institutions of higher learning.
- (p) "Severely handicapped children" means children under the age of six years who need intensive special education services and who satisfy the applicable requirements of Section 56026 or 56030.5, and children from ages six to 21 years, inclusive, who meet the criteria established by Section 56030.5. These children, ages birth to 21 years, inclusive, may be assessed by public school special education staff, regional center staff, or another appropriately licensed clinical professional.
- (q) "Health services" includes, but is not limited to, all of the following:
  - (1) Referral, whenever possible, to appropriate health care providers able to provide continuity of medical care.

- (2) Health screening and health treatment, including a full range of immunization recorded on the appropriate state immunization form to the extent provided by the Medi-Cal Act (Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 14000) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code) and the Child Health and Disability Prevention Program (Article 3.4 (commencing with Section 320) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code), but only to the extent that ongoing care cannot be obtained utilizing community resources.
- (3) Health education and training for children, parents, staff, and providers.
- (4) Followup treatment through referral to appropriate health care agencies or individual health care professionals.
- (r) "Higher educational institutions" means the Regents of the University of California, the Trustees of the California State University, the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges, and the governing bodies of any accredited private nonprofit institution of postsecondary education.
- (s) "Intergenerational staff" means persons of various generations.
- (t) "Limited-English-speaking-proficient and non-English-speaking-proficient children" means children who are unable to benefit fully from an English-only child care and development program as a result of either of the following:
- (1) Having used a language other than English when they first began to speak.
- (2) Having a language other than English predominantly or exclusively spoken at home.
- (u) "Parent" means any person living with a child who has responsibility for the care and welfare of the child.
- (v) "Program director" means a person who, regardless of his or her title has administrative and programmatic responsibility for a child care and development program operated at two or more sites. These persons shall hold a children's center supervision permit, or its equivalent, as specified in Section 8360, or shall demonstrate progress in meeting these requirements by June 1, 1990, as determined by standards established by the Superintendent of Public Instruction and shall have been employed as a program director as of January 1, 1986.
- (w) A "proprietary child care agency" means an organization or facility providing child care, which is operated for profit.
- (x) "Resource and referral programs" means programs that provide information to parents, including referrals and coordination of community resources for parents and public or private providers of care. Services frequently include, but are not limited to: technical assistance for providers, toy-lending libraries, equipment-lending libraries, toy- and equipment-lending libraries, staff development programs, health and nutrition education, and referrals to social services.

- (y) "Short-term respite child care" means child care service to assist families whose children have been identified through written referral from a legal, medical, social service agency, or emergency shelter as being neglected, abused, exploited, or homeless, or at risk of being neglected, abused, exploited, or homeless. Child care is provided for less than 24 hours per day in child care centers, treatment centers for abusive parents, family child care homes, or in the child's own home.
- (z) "Site supervisor" means a person who, regardless of his or her title, has operational program responsibility for a child care and development program at a single site. A site supervisor shall meet the qualifications prescribed by the state licensing regulations for a child care center director. Effective July 1, 1987, these persons shall additionally hold a regular children's center supervision permit, and shall have completed not less than six units of administration and supervision coursework in child development. The Superintendent of Public Instruction may waive the requirements of this subdivision if the superintendment determines that the existence of compelling need is appropriately documented.

In respect to state preschool programs, a site supervisor may qualify under any of the provisions in this subdivision, or may qualify by holding an administrative credential or an administrative services credential.

- (aa) "Standard reimbursement rate" means that rate established by the Superintendent of Public Instruction pursuant to Section 8265.
- (bb) "Startup costs" means those expenses an agency incurs in the process of opening a new or additional facility prior to the full enrollment of children.
- (cc) "State preschool services" means part-day educational programs for low-income or otherwise disadvantaged prekindergarten-age children.
- (dd) "Support services" means those services which, when combined with child care and development services, help promote the healthy physical, mental, social, and emotional growth of children. Support services include, but are not limited to: protective services, parent training, provider and staff training, transportation, parent and child counseling, child development resource and referral services, and child placement counseling.
- (ee) "Teacher" means a person with the appropriate certificate who provides program supervision and instruction which includes supervision of a number of aides, volunteers, and groups of children.
- (ff) "Workday" means the time that the parent requires temporary care for a child for any of the following reasons:
  - (1) To undertake training in preparation for a job.
  - (2) To undertake or retain a job.
- (3) To undertake other activities which are essential to maintaining or improving the social and economic function of the family, are beneficial to the community, or are required because of health problems in the family.

- SEC. 2. Section 8263 of the Education Code is amended to read: 8263. (a) The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall adopt rules and regulations on eligibility, enrollment, and priority of services needed to implement this chapter. In order to be eligible for federal and state subsidized child development services, families shall meet at least one requirement in each of the following areas:
- (1) A family shall be (A) a current aid recipient, (B) income eligible, (C) homeless, or (D) one whose children are recipients of protective services, or whose children have been identified as being abused, neglected, or exploited, or at risk of being abused, neglected, or exploited.
- (2) A family shall need the child care service because the child is identified by a legal, medical, social service agency, or emergency shelter as being (A) a recipient of protective services, (B) being neglected, abused, or exploited, or at risk of neglect, abuse, or exploitation, or (C) having a medical or psychiatric special need which cannot be met without provision of child day care, or the parents are (i) engaged in vocational training leading directly to a recognized trade, paraprofession, or profession, (ii) employed or seeking employment, (iii) seeking permanent housing for family stability, or (iv) incapacitated, including a medical or psychiatric special need which cannot be met without provision of child day care.
- (b) Priority for state and federally subsidized child development services shall be as follows:
- (1) First priority shall be given to recipients of child protective services for children who are neglected or abused, or at risk of being neglected or abused, upon written referral from a legal, medical, or social service agency. When an agency is unable to enroll a child in the first priority category, the agency shall refer the family to local resource and referral services to locate services for the child.
- (2) Second priority shall be equally given to eligible families, regardless of the number of parents in the home, who are income eligible. Within this priority, families with the lowest gross monthly income in relation to family size, as determined by a schedule adopted by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, shall be admitted first. When two or more families are in the same priority in relation to income, the family which has been on the waiting list for the longest amount of time shall be admitted first. For purposes of determining order of admission, the grants of public assistance recipients shall be counted as income.
- (3) The superintendent shall set criteria for and may grant specific waivers of the priorities established in this subdivision for agencies which wish to serve specific populations, such as handicapped children or children of prisoners. These new waivers shall not include proposals to avoid appropriate fee schedules or admit ineligible families, but may include proposals to accept members of special populations in other than strict income order, as long as appropriate fees are paid.

- physical examination and evaluation, age-appropriate immunization, shall be required prior to, or within six weeks of, enrollment. No standard, rule, or regulation shall require medical examination or immunization for admission to a child care and development program of a child whose parent or guardian files a letter with the governing board of the child care and development program stating that the medical examination or immunization is contrary to his or her religious beliefs, or provide for the exclusion of a child from the program because of a parent or guardian having filed the letter. However, whenever there is good cause to believe that a child is suffering from a recognized contagious or infectious disease, the child shall be temporarily excluded from the program until the governing board of the child care and development program is satisfied that any contagious or infectious disease does not exist.
- (d) Regulations formulated and promulgated pursuant to this section shall include the recommendations of the State Department of Health Services relative to health care screening and the provision of health care services. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall seek the advice and assistance of these health authorities in situations where service under this chapter includes or requires care of ill or disabled children.
- (e) The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall establish a fee schedule for families utilizing child care and development services pursuant to this chapter. No fees shall be assessed for families whose children are enrolled in the state preschool program.
- (f) The superintendent shall establish guidelines for the collection of employer sponsored child care benefit payments from any parent whose child receives subsidized child care and development services. These guidelines shall provide for the collection of the full amount of the benefit payment, but not to exceed the actual cost of child care and development services provided, notwithstanding the applicable fee based on the fee schedule.
- (g) The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall establish guidelines according to which the director or a duly authorized representative of the child care and development program will certify children as eligible for state reimbursement pursuant to this section.
- (h) No public funds shall be paid directly or indirectly to any agency which does not pay at least the minimum wage to each of its employees.
- SEC. 3. The Legislature finds and declares that the term "child care and development services," as defined in subdivision (i) of Section 8208 of the Education Code, includes needed services for homeless families as specified by this act. The amendments made in subdivision (i) of Section 8208 and Section 8263 of the Education Code pursuant to this act do not constitute a change in, but are declaratory of, existing law.

CHAPTER 1451

An act to amend Sections 7028.1, 7028.2, 7058.5, 7065.01, and 7118.5 of the Business and Professions Code, to amend Section 49410.7 of the Education Code, to amend Section 66780.5 of the Government Code, to add Section 25143.7 to, and to repeal Section 24223 of, the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Sections 6436, 6501.5, 6501.8, 6501.9, and 6505.5 of, and to add Section 9021.5 to, the Labor Code, relating to asbestos abatement, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that exposure to friable asbestos poses a significant health and public safety hazard; that the removal of asbestos from buildings must be done in a manner that does not pose a threat to the health and safety of the workers or the public or to the environment; and that it has been determined that, when disposed of properly, asbestos is of little threat to the environment.

- SEC. 1.3. Section 7028.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:
- 7028.1. Any contractor who performs or engages in asbestos-related work, as defined in Section 6501.8 of the Labor Code, without certification pursuant to Section 7058.5 of this code, is subject to one of the following penalties:
- (a) Conviction of a first offense is an infraction punishable by a fine of not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or more than three thousand dollars ($3,000), and by possible revocation or suspension of any contractor's license.
- (b) Conviction of a subsequent offense is a misdemeanor requiring revocation or suspension of any contractor's license, and a fine of not less than three thousand dollars ($3,000) or more than five thousand dollars ($5,000), or imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or both the fine and imprisonment.
- SEC. 1.4. Section 7028.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:
- 7028.1. Any contractor who performs or engages in asbestos-related work, as defined in Section 6501.8 of the Labor Code, without certification pursuant to Section 7058.5 of this code, or who performs or engages in a removal or remedial action, as defined in Section 7058.7 without certification pursuant to Section 7058.7, is subject to one of the following penalties:
- (a) Conviction of a first offense is an infraction punishable by a fine of not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or more than three thousand dollars ($3,000), and by possible revocation or suspension of any contractor's license.

- (b) Conviction of a subsequent offense is a misdemeanor requiring revocation or suspension of any contractor's license, and a fine of not less than three thousand dollars ($3,000) or more than five thousand dollars ($5,000), or imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or both the fine and imprisonment.
- SEC. 1.5. Section 7028.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:
- 7028.2. A criminal complaint pursuant to this chapter may be brought by the Attorney General or by the district attorney or prosecuting attorney of any city, in the municipal court of any county in the state with jurisdiction over the contractor or employer, by reason of the contractor's or employer's act, or failure to act, within that jurisdiction. Any penalty assessed by the court shall be paid to the office of the prosecutor bringing the complaint, but if the matter was referred to the prosecutor by the Contractors' State License Board, one-half of the penalty assessed shall be paid to the Contractors' State License Board.
- SEC. 2. Section 7058.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:
- 7058.5. (a) On and after January 1, 1987, no contractor shall engage in asbestos-related work, as defined in Section 6501.8 of the Labor Code, which involves 100 square feet or more of surface area of asbestos containing materials, unless the qualifier for the license passes an asbestos certification examination. Additional updated asbestos certification examinations may be required based on new health and safety information. The decision on whether to require an updated certification examination shall be made by the Contractors' State License Board, in consultation with the Division of Occupational Safety and Health in the Department of Industrial Relations and the State Department of Health Services.

No asbestos certification examination shall be required for contractors involved with the installation, maintenance, and repair of asbestos cement pipe or sheets, vinyl asbestos floor materials, or asbestos bituminous or resinous materials.

"Asbestos" as used in this section, has the same meaning as defined in Section 6501.7 of the Labor Code.

(b) On or after January 1, 1987, and until December 31, 1989, the Contractors' State License Board shall develop, and deliver to all contractors at each renewal thereafter, and to all applicants with the application for a license, a booklet containing information relative to handling and disposal of asbestos, together with an open book examination concerning asbestos-related work. All contractors and applicants for a contractor's license shall complete and sign the open book examination and submit it to the Contractors' State License Board with the required renewal or application forms. On or after January 1, 1990, only applicants for an original license shall complete and sign the open book examination and submit it to the Contractors' State License Board with the required application forms.

- SEC. 3. Section 7065.01 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:
- 7065.01. On or before May 15, 1986, the Contractors' State License Board shall develop a written test for the certification of contractors engaged in asbestos-related work. The test shall be developed according to professionally accepted psychometric principles for licensing examinations, and with the assistance of subject matter experts provided by the Division of Occupational Safety and Health, the State Department of Health Services, and subject matter experts selected from the insurance industry, registered professional engineers, asbestos workers in California, and from licensed contractors engaged in asbestos-related work.
- SEC. 4. Section 7118.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:
- 7118.5. Any person who owns a commercial or industrial building or structure, any employer who engages in or contracts for asbestos-related work, any contractor, public agency, or any employee acting for any of the foregoing, who, either knowingly or negligently, or by reason of a failure to inquire, enters into a contract with another person who is required to be, and is not, certified pursuant to Section 7058.5 to engage in asbestos-related work, as defined in Section 6501.8 of the Labor Code, is subject to the following penalties:
- (a) Conviction of a first offense is an infraction punishable by a fine of not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or more than three thousand dollars ($3,000), and by possible revocation or suspension of any contractor's license.
- (b) Conviction of a subsequent offense is a misdemeanor requiring revocation or suspension of any contractor's license, and a fine of not less than three thousand dollars ($3,000) or more than five thousand dollars ($5,000), or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or both the fine and imprisonment.
- SEC. 5. Section 49410.7 of the Education Code is amended to read:
- 49410.7. (a) For purposes of funding pursuant to Section 39619.9, the factors determining the need for abatement of friable asbestos or potentially friable asbestos shall include, but not be limited to, visual inspection and bulk samples and air monitoring showing an airborne concentration of asbestos in excess of the standard .01 fibers/cc by Transmission Electron Microscopy (TEM) monitoring, as specified in subdivision (b), or the concurrently measured concentration of asbestos in the ambient air immediately adjacent to the building, whichever is higher. For purposes of reconstruction and rehabilitation projects approved pursuant to Chapter 22 (commencing with Section 17700) of Part 10 of the Education Code, air monitoring shall not be required to determine the need for abatement of friable asbestos or potentially friable asbestos.
- (b) For purposes of air monitoring, the operating agency for each public school building in which friable asbestos-containing materials

(other than pipe and block insulation) have been identified shall monitor airborne asbestos levels in each sampling area. Each sampling area in which asbestos-containing materials have been identified shall be monitored for at least eight hours during a period of normal building activity. Analysis of samples shall be by Transmission Electron Microscopy (TEM) methods, in accordance with the Environmental Protection Agency provisional method and update, to measure the number of observable asbestos fibers. The results of this monitoring shall be recorded in terms of the number of visible fibers greater than 5 microns in length per cubic centimeter of air (f/cc) in accord with standard definitions for asbestos monitoring established by the Occupational Safety and Health Administration.

"Sampling area," as used in this section, means any area, whether contiguous or not, within a building that contains friable material that is homogenous in texture and appearance.

- (c) Any public primary or secondary school building in which asbestos abatement work has been performed shall not be reoccupied until air monitoring has been conducted to show that the airborne concentration of asbestos does not exceed the air monitoring standard of subdivision (a). Not less than one month after the reoccupancy of the school building where asbestos abatement work has occurred, the building shall be remonitored to determine compliance with subdivision (b).
- (d) "School building," as used in this section, means any of the following:
- (1) Structures used for the instruction of public school children, including classrooms, laboratories, libraries, research facilities, and administrative facilities.
  - (2) School eating facilities and school kitchens.
- (3) Gymnasiums or other facilities used for athletic or recreational activities or for courses in physical education.
  - (4) Dormitories or other living areas of residential schools.
- (5) Maintenance, storage, or utility facilities essential to the operation of the facilities described in paragraphs (1) to (4).
- (e) School districts and county offices of education may apply for reimbursement from the Asbestos Abatement Fund for the costs of air monitoring completed pursuant to this section.
- SEC. 6. Section 66780.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:
- 66780.5. In addition to the other requirements of this title, the county solid waste management plan prepared pursuant to Section 66780 shall:
- (a) Include in the first revision as required in Section 66780.7 an amendment delineating an enforcement program in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 66795), which has been reviewed by the board and the State Department of Health Services.
  - (b) Be reviewed, and revised, if appropriate, at least every three years and revised where necessary to be consistent with state policy. A report of the results of the plan review shall be submitted to the board and to the department beginning on the third anniversary of the date of board approval of the plan submitted pursuant to Section 66780 with subsequent reviews and reports at least every three years thereafter.

- (c) Any amendment to the plan shall be approved by a majority of the cities within the county which contain a majority of the population of the incorporated area of the county. Each proposed amendment shall be submitted to each city within the county. Each city shall act upon the proposed amendment within 90 days after the city has received the amendment. If a city fails to act upon the proposed amendment within 90 days after receiving the amendment, the city shall be deemed to have approved the amendment as submitted. Each amendment shall be submitted to the board for approval as to its compliance with state policy.
- (d) At the next revision of the plan occurring on or after January 1, 1987, the plan shall be revised to indicate the amount of asbestos waste generated in the county from asbestos removal projects and the sites or potential sites which have been designated to accept that waste. If it is concluded that the quantities of asbestos waste are not significant or that there are no sites located within the area covered by the county solid waste management plan where the asbestos waste could feasibly be disposed of, then the plan need not designate sites or potential sites for accepting such waste. If the plan does not designate sites or potential sites for accepting asbestos waste, then it shall identify measures which the county intends to take to secure the availability of sites for that purpose.
- SEC. 6.5. Section 66780.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:
- 66780.5. In addition to the other requirements of this title, the county solid waste management plan prepared pursuant to Section 66780 shall:
- (a) Include in the first revision as required in Section 66780.7 an amendment delineating an enforcement program in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 66795), which has been reviewed by the board and the State Department of Health Services.
- (b) Identify a program for the safe management of hazardous wastes, as defined in Section 25117 of the Health and Safety Code, which are generated by households and which should be separated from the solid waste stream, to the extent that the county determines a need for this program.
- (c) Be reviewed, and revised, if appropriate, at least every three years and revised where necessary to be consistent with state policy. A report of the results of the plan review shall be submitted to the board and to the department beginning on the third anniversary of the date of board approval of the plan submitted pursuant to Section 66780 with subsequent reviews and reports at least every three years thereafter.

- (d) Any amendment to the plan shall be approved by a majority of the cities within the county which contain a majority of the population of the incorporated area of the county. Each proposed amendment shall be submitted to each city within the county. Each city shall act upon the proposed amendment within 90 days after the city has received the amendment. If a city fails to act upon the proposed amendment within 90 days after receiving the amendment, the city shall be deemed to have approved the amendment as submitted. Each amendment shall be submitted to the board for approval as to its compliance with state policy.
- (e) At the next revision of the plan occurring on or after January 1, 1987, the plan shall be revised to indicate the amount of asbestos waste generated in the county from asbestos removal projects and the sites or potential sites which have been designated to accept that waste. If it is concluded that the quantities of asbestos waste are not significant or that there are no sites located within the area covered by the county solid waste management plan where the asbestos waste could feasibly be disposed of, then the plan need not designate sites or potential sites for accepting such waste. If the plan does not designate sites or potential sites for accepting asbestos waste, then it shall identify measures which the county intends to take to secure the availability of sites for that purpose.
- SEC. 7. Section 24223 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed. SEC. 8. Section 25143.7 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:
- 25143.7. Waste containing asbestos may be disposed of at any landfill which has waste discharge requirements issued by the regional water quality control board which allow the disposal of such waste, provided that the wastes are handled and disposed of in accordance with the Toxic Substances Control Act (P.L. 94-469) and all applicable laws and regulations.
  - SEC. 9. Section 6436 of the Labor Code is amended to read:
- 6436. The criminal complaint regarding a violation of Section 6505.5 may be brought by the Attorney General or by the district attorney or prosecuting attorney of any city, in the municipal court of any county in the state with jurisdiction over the contractor or employer, by reason of the contractor's or employer's act or failure to act within that jurisdiction. Any penalty assessed by the court shall be paid to the office of the prosecutor bringing the complaint, but if the case was referred to the prosecutor by the division, or some other governmental unit, one-half of the civil or criminal penalty assessed shall be paid to that governmental unit.
- SEC. 10. Section 6501.5 of the Labor Code is amended to read: 6501.5. Effective January 1, 1987, any employer or contractor who engages in asbestos-related work, as defined in Section 6501.8, and which involves 100 square feet or more of surface area of asbestos-containing material, shall register with the division.

The division may grant registration based on a determination that the employer has demonstrated evidence that the conditions, practices, means, methods, operations, or processes used, or proposed to be used, will provide a safe and healthful place of employment. This section is not intended to supersede existing laws and regulations under Title 8, California Administrative Code, Section 5208.

An application for registration shall contain such information and attachments, given under penalty of perjury, as the division may deem necessary to evaluate the safety and health of the proposed employment or place of employment. It shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

- (a) Every employer shall meet each of the following criteria:
- (1) If the employer is a contractor, the contractor shall be certified pursuant to Section 7058.5 of the Business and Professions Code.
- (2) Provide health insurance coverage to cover the entire cost of medical examinations and monitoring required by law and be insured for workers' compensation, or provide a five hundred dollar ($500) trust account for each employee engaged in asbestos-related work. The health insurance coverage may be provided through a union, association, or employer.
- (3) Train and certify all employees in accordance with all training required by law and Title 8 of the California Administrative Code.
- (4) Be proficient and have the necessary equipment to safely do asbestos-related work.
- (b) Provide written notice to the division of each separate job or phase of work, where the work process used is different or the work is performed at noncontiguous locations, noting all of the following:
  - (1) The address of the job.
  - (2) The exact physical location of the job at that address.
  - (3) The start and projected completion date.
- (4) The name of a certified supervisor with sufficient experience and authority who shall be responsible for the asbestos-related work at that job.
- (5) The name of a qualified person, who shall be responsible for scheduling any air sampling, laboratory calibration of air sampling equipment, evaluation of sampling results, and conducting respirator fit testing and evaluating the results of those tests.
- (6) The type of work to be performed, the work practices that will be utilized, and the potential for exposure.

Should any change be necessary, the employer or contractor shall so inform the division at or before the time of the change. Any oral notification shall be confirmed in writing.

- (c) Post the location where any asbestos-related work occurs so as to be readable at 20 feet stating, "Danger—Asbestos. Cancer and Lung Hazard. Keep Out."
- (d) A copy of the registration shall be provided before the start of the job to the prime contractor or other employers on the site and shall be posted on the jobsite beside the Cal-OSHA poster.

- (e) The division shall obtain the services of three industrial hygienists and one clerical employee to implement and to enforce the requirements of this section unless the director makes a finding that these services are not necessary or that the services are not obtainable due to a lack of qualified hygienists applying for available positions. Funding may, at the director's discretion, be appropriated from the Asbestos Abatement Fund.
- (f) Not later than January 1, 1987, the Division of Occupational Safety and Health shall propose to the Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board for review and adoption a regulation concerning asbestos-related work, as defined in Section 6501.8, which involves 100 square feet or more of surface area of asbestos-containing material. The regulation shall protect most effectively the health and safety of employees and shall include specific requirements for certification of employees, supervisors with sufficient experience and authority to be responsible for asbestos-related work, and a qualified person who shall be responsible for scheduling any air sampling, for arranging for calibration of the air sampling equipment and for analysis of the air samples by a NIOSH approved method, for conducting respirator fit testing, and for evaluating the results of the air sampling.

The Division of Occupational Safety and Health shall also propose a regulation to the Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board for review and adoption specifying sampling methodology for use in taking air samples.

- SEC. 11. Section 6501.8 of the Labor Code is amended to read: 6501.8. (a) For purposes of this chapter, "asbestos-related work" means any activity which by disturbing asbestos-containing construction materials may release asbestos fibers into the air and which is not related to its manufacture, the mining or excavation of asbestos-bearing ore or materials, or the installation or repair of automotive materials containing asbestos.
- (b) For the purposes of this chapter, "asbestos containing construction material" means any manufactured construction material which contains more than one tenth of 1 percent asbestos by weight.
  - SEC. 12. Section 6501.9 of the Labor Code is amended to read:
- 6501.9. The owner of a commercial or industrial building or structure, employer, or contractor who engages in, or contracts for, asbestos-related work shall make a good faith effort to determine if asbestos is present before the work is begun. The contractor or employer shall first inquire of the owner if asbestos is present in any building or structure built prior to 1978.
- SEC. 13. Section 6505.5 of the Labor Code is amended to read: 6505.5. (a) The division may, upon good cause shown, and after notice to the employer or contractor by the division and an opportunity to be heard, revoke or suspend any registration issued to the employer or contractor to do asbestos-related work until certain specified written conditions are met.

- (b) Any person who owns a commercial or industrial building or structure, any employer who engages in or contracts for asbestos-related work, any contractor, public agency, or any employee acting for any of the foregoing, who, contracts for, or who begins, asbestos-related work in any commercial or industrial building or structure built prior to 1978 without first determining if asbestos-containing material is present, and thereby fails to comply with the applicable laws and regulations, is subject to one of the following penalties:
- (1) For a knowing or negligent violation, a fine of not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or both the fine and imprisonment.
- (2) For a willful violation which results in death, serious injury or illness, or serious exposure, a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or both the fine and imprisonment. A second or subsequent conviction under this paragraph may be punishable by a fine of not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or by both the fine and imprisonment.
- (3) A civil penalty of not more than two thousand dollars ($2,000) for each violation, to be imposed pursuant to the procedures set forth in Sections 6317, 6318, and 6319.
- (4) For a willful or repeat violation, a civil penalty of not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) for each violation.
- (c) It is a defense to an action for violation of this section if the owner, contractor, employer, public agency, or agent thereof, proves, by a preponderance of the evidence, that he or she made a reasonable effort to determine whether asbestos was present.
  - SEC. 14. Section 9021.5 is added to the Labor Code, to read:
- 9021.5. Not later than January 1, 1987, the Division of Occupational Safety and Health shall propose a regulation concerning asbestos-related work, as defined in Section 6501.8, to the Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board for review and adoption so as to protect most effectively the health and safety of employees. The regulation shall also include, but not be limited to, specific work practices and specific requirements for certification of all employees engaged in asbestos-related work, and shall define and specify requirements for certification of asbestos consultants.

This section does not exempt any employer from complying with the Hazardous Substances Information and Training Act (Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 6360) of Part 1 of Division 5 of this code) and regulations adopted thereunder, nor does it exempt any employer from complying with Section 5208 of Title 8 of the California Administrative Code. For products not requiring contractor certification pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 7058.5 of the Business and Professions Code, training and certification of employees shall be done by the employer.

SEC. 15. Section 1.4 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 7028.1 of the Business and Professions Code proposed by both this bill and SB 2575. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1987, (2) each bill amends Section 7028.1 of the Business and Professions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 2575, in which case Section 7028.1 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by SB 2575, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 1.4 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 1.3 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 16. Section 6.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 66780.5 of the Government Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1809. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1987, but this bill becomes operative first, (2) each bill amends Section 66780.5 of the Government Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1809, in which case Section 66780.5 of the Government Code, as amended by Section 6 of this bill, shall remain operative only until the operative date of AB 1809, at which time Section 6.5 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 17. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction, and because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

SEC. 18. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to allow school districts which qualify for state funds for asbestos abatement to carry out this asbestos abatement during the December break and in order to allow the Department of Industrial Relations to review the asbestos regulations, which it is currently adopting, in accordance with this act, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1452

An act to amend Section 7436 of, and to repeal and add Section 7332.5 of, the Business and Professions Code, relating to cosmetology.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7332.5 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

- SEC. 2. Section 7332.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:
- 7332.5. (a) The board shall admit to the examination for a certificate of registration and license as a cosmetology instructor, any person who has made an application to the board in the proper form, who has paid the fee required by this chapter, and who meets the following qualifications:
- (1) Has had at least 600 hours of teacher training in an approved school in this state or equivalent training in an approved school in another state, or one year of practical experience within the previous three years in all branches of cosmetology, except the branch of electrology, in a licensed cosmetological establishment in this state, or equivalent experience in another state.
- (2) Has completed the 12th grade, or an accredited senior high school course of study, in public schools of this state, or has equivalent education.
- (3) Has not committed any acts or crimes constituting grounds for denial of a license under Section 480.
  - (4) Holds a valid California license as a cosmetologist.
- (b) Each applicant shall submit an affidavit signed by his or her employers attesting to his or her experience.
- (c) Each licensed cosmetology instructor shall complete 30 clock hours of continuing education in the teaching of vocational education during each two-year licensing period. This subdivision does not apply to a cosmetology instructor who teaches cosmetology on the campus of a California community college.

For purposes of this subdivision, "teaching of vocational education" means the development of understanding and competency in the learning process, instructional techniques, curriculum and media, instructional evaluation, counseling and guidance, and the special needs of students.

- SEC. 3. Section 7436 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:
- 7436. (a) Licenses issued under this chapter, unless specifically excepted, shall be issued for a two-year period and shall expire at midnight on the last day of the month of the date of issuance established by the board.

- (b) The board may establish procedures for administration of a two-year continuous renewal program. The program shall include, but not be limited to, the establishment of a pro rata formula for the payment of fees by licentiates affected by the implementation of that program. The renewal program shall provide that a relatively equal number of licenses expire annually and in a manner as to best distribute the renewal and reregistration work of the board in a uniform manner.
- (c) As a condition for the renewal of the license of a cosmetology instructor the board shall require instructors to periodically demonstrate their current competency in the teaching of vocational education. The requirements shall be reasonable and may include, but not be limited to, completion of continuing education programs approved by the board. The board shall determine the standards for the approval of continuing education programs.

CHAPTER 1453

An act to amend Sections 42400, 42401, 42402, and 42403 of, and to add Sections 42400.1, 42400.2, 42402.1, 42402.2, and 42405.5 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to air pollution.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 42400 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

- 42400. (a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 42400.1 or 42400.2, any person who violates any provision of this part, or any order, permit, rule, or regulation of the state board or of a district, including a district hearing board, adopted pursuant to Part 1 (commencing with Section 39000) to Part 4 (commencing with Section 41500), inclusive, is guilty of a misdemeanor and is subject to a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or both.
- (b) If a violation under subdivision (a) with regard to the failure to operate a vapor recovery system on a gasoline cargo tank is directly caused by the actions of an employee under the supervision of, or of any independent contractor working for, any person subject to this part, the employee or independent contractor, as the case may be, causing the violation is guilty of a misdemeanor and is punishable as provided in subdivision (a). That liability shall not extend to the person employing the employee or retaining the independent contractor, unless that person is separately guilty of any action violating any provision of this part.

- (c) The recovery of civil penalties pursuant to Section 42402, 42402.1, or 42402.2, precludes prosecution pursuant to this section for the same offense. When a district refers a violation to a prosecuting agency, the filing of a criminal complaint is grounds requiring the dismissal of any civil action brought pursuant to this article for the same offense.
- (d) Each day during any portion of which a violation of subdivision (a) occurs is a separate offense.
- SEC. 2. Section 42400.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:
- 42400.1. (a) Any person who negligently emits an air contaminant in violation of any provision of this part or any rule, regulation, or order of the state board or of a district pertaining to emission regulations or limitations is guilty of a misdemeanor and is subject to a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than nine months, or both.
- (b) Any person who owns or operates any source of air contaminants in violation of Section 41700 which causes actual injury, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 42400.2, to the health or safety of a considerable number of persons or the public is guilty of a misdemeanor and is punishable as provided in subdivision (a).
