- (c) Each day during any portion of which a violation occurs is a separate offense.
- (d) The recovery of civil penalties pursuant to Section 42402, 42402.1, or 42402.2, precludes prosecution pursuant to this section for the same offense. When a district refers a violation to a prosecuting agency, the filing of a criminal complaint is grounds requiring the dismissal of any civil action brought pursuant to this article for the same offense.
- SEC. 3. Section 42400.2 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:
- 42400.2. (a) Any person who emits an air contaminant in violation of any provision of this part, or any order, rule, or regulation of the state board or of a district pertaining to emission regulations or limitations, and who knew of the emission and failed to take corrective action within a reasonable period of time under the circumstances, is guilty of a misdemeanor and is subject to a fine of not more than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or both.

For purposes of this section, "corrective action" means the termination of the emission violation or the grant of a variance from the applicable order, rule, or regulation pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 42350). If a district regulation regarding process upsets or equipment breakdowns would allow continued operation of equipment which is emitting air contaminants in excess of allowable limits, compliance with that regulation is deemed to be corrective action.

(b) Any person who, knowingly and with intent to deceive, falsifies any document required to be kept pursuant to any provision of this part, or any rule, regulation, or order of the state board or of a district, is guilty of a misdemeanor and is punishable as provided in subdivision (a).

(c) Any person who owns or operates any source of air contaminants in violation of Section 41700 which causes actual injury to the health or safety of a considerable number of persons or the public, and who knew of the emission and failed to take corrective action, as defined in subdivision (a), within a reasonable period of time under the circumstances, is guilty of a misdemeanor and is punishable as provided in subdivision (a).

As used in this subdivision, "actual injury" means any physical injury which, in the opinion of a licensed physician and surgeon, requires medical treatment involving more than a physical examination.

- (d) Each day during any portion of which a violation occurs constitutes a separate offense.
- (e) The recovery of civil penalties pursuant to Section 42402, 42402.1, or 42402.2, precludes prosecution pursuant to this section for the same offense. When a district refers a violation to a prosecuting agency, the filing of a criminal complaint is grounds requiring the dismissal of any civil action brought pursuant to this article for the same offense.
- SEC. 4. Section 42401 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- 42401. Any person who intentionally or negligently violates any order of abatement issued by a district pursuant to Section 42450, by a hearing board pursuant to Section 42451, or by the state board pursuant to Section 41505 is liable for a civil penalty of not more than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for each day in which the violation occurs.
- SEC. 5. Section 42402 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- 42402. (a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 42402.1 or 42402.2, any person who violates any provision of this part, or any order issued pursuant to Section 42316, or any order, permit, rule, or regulation of a district, including a district hearing board, or of the state board issued pursuant to Part 1 (commencing with Section 39000) to Part 4 (commencing with Section 41500), inclusive, is liable for a civil penalty of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).
- (b) There is no liability under subdivision (a) if the person accused of the violation alleges by affirmative defense and establishes that the violation was caused by an act which was not the result of intentional or negligent conduct.
- (c) Each day during any portion of which a violation occurs is a separate offense.
- SEC. 6. Section 42402.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:
  - 42402.1. (a) Any person who negligently emits an air contaminant in violation of this part or any rule, regulation, or order of the state board or of a district pertaining to emission regulations or limitations is liable for a civil penalty of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

- (b) Any person who owns or operates any source of air contaminants in violation of Section 41700 which causes actual injury, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 42400.2, to the health or safety of a considerable number of persons or the public is liable for a civil penalty as provided in subdivision (a).
- (c) Each day during any portion of which a violation occurs is a separate offense.
- SEC. 7. Section 42402.2 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:
- 42402.2. (a) Any person who emits an air contaminant in violation of any provision of this part, or any order, rule, or regulation of the state board or of a district pertaining to emission regulations or limitations, and who knew of the emission and failed to take corrective action within a reasonable period of time under the circumstances, is liable for a civil penalty, of not more than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000).

For purposes of this section, "corrective action" means the termination of the emission violation or the grant of a variance from the applicable order, rule, or regulation pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 42350). If a district regulation regarding process upsets or equipment breakdowns would allow continued operation of equipment which is emitting air contaminants in excess of allowable limits, compliance with that regulation is deemed to be corrective action.

- (b) Any person who, knowingly and with intent to deceive, falsifies any document required to be kept pursuant to any provision of this part, or any rule, regulation, or order of the state board or of a district, is subject to the same civil penalty as provided in subdivision (a).
- (c) Any person who owns or operates any source of air contaminants in violation of Section 41700 which causes actual injury to the health or safety of a considerable number of persons or the public, and who knew of the emission and failed to take corrective action, as defined in subdivision (a), within a reasonable period of time under the circumstances, is subject to a civil penalty as provided in subdivision (a).

As used in this subdivision, "actual injury" means any physical injury which, in the opinion of a licensed physician and surgeon, requires medical treatment involving more than a physical examination.

- (d) Each day during any portion of which a violation occurs is a separate offense.
- SEC. 8. Section 42403 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
  - 42403. The civil penalties prescribed in Sections 42401, 42402, 42402.1, and 42402.2 shall be assessed and recovered in a civil action brought in the name of the people of the State of California by the Attorney General, by any district attorney, or by the attorney for any district in which the violation occurs in any court of competent jurisdiction.

In determining the amount assessed pursuant to Sections 42401, 42402, 42402.1, and 42402.2, the court shall take into consideration all relevant circumstances, including, but not limited to, the following:

- (a) The extent of harm caused by the violation.
- (b) The nature and persistence of the violation.
- (c) The length of time over which the violation occurs.
- (d) The frequency of past violations.
- (e) The record of maintenance.
- (f) The unproven or innovative nature of the control equipment.
- (g) Any action taken by the defendant to mitigate the violation.
- (h) The financial burden to the defendant.
- SEC. 9. Section 42405.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:
- 42405.5. (a) If any state or local government agency provides assistance in the investigation, data collection, or monitoring, preparation, or prosecution of an action to recover civil penalties pursuant to Section 42401, 42402, 42402.1, or 42402.2, and that assistance is provided in coordination with the state board or a district prosecuting the action, that agency shall be reimbursed out of the proceeds of the penalty collected for its costs and expenses incurred in providing the assistance.
- (b) If the penalty collected is insufficient to fully reimburse the state board or district for the costs and expenses incurred in preparing and prosecuting the case and another agency or agencies for the costs and expenses incurred in assisting in the case, the amount collected shall be prorated among the state board or district and the assisting agency or agencies, on the basis of costs and expenses incurred by each.
- (c) This section does not apply where there is an express agreement between the state board or district and another agency or agencies regarding reimbursement for assistance services and expenses.
- SEC. 10. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act and because this act creates new crimes.

CHAPTER 1454

An act to amend Sections 15200.1, 15200.2, and 15200.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to support, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 15200.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as amended by Chapter 1702 of the Statutes of 1984, is amended to read:

15200.1. (a) There is hereby appropriated out of any money in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated, from which the department shall make payments to each county on any support payments collected or distributed, or both, on or after October 1. 1985, federal incentive funds on the amount received which qualify therefor. In addition, the department shall pay to each county on any support collections distributed between October 1, 1982 and June 30, 1986, inclusive, regardless of the date of collection, a state incentive of 7.5 percent. This amount shall be paid on collections used to reduce or repay aid which is paid pursuant to this chapter, on collections paid to an aided family in the form of income not included in determining eligibility for assistance pursuant to federal law (so-called "disregards"), on collections paid to an aided family in the form of income included in determining eligibility (so-called "pass-ons" and "excess") and for aid which is entitled to federal matching funds.

(b) In the event that the federal government does not provide the funding for federal financial participation in administrative costs of the child support program as scheduled in P.L. 98-378 at the rate of 70 percent in federal fiscal year 1987, 68 percent in federal fiscal years 1988 and 1989, and 66 percent in federal fiscal year 1990, and thereafter, the department shall provide sufficient incentives, commencing July 1, 1986, to supplant the dollar reduction to federal financial participation.

The state incentive rate shall be determined annually, and the rate shall be applied to collections paid to a nonaided family (non-AFDC incentive) and to distributed collections on aid-related cases (AFDC incentive). The AFDC incentive rate shall include the established base level incentive of 7.5 percent and may be adjusted up to 11.5 percent. The state incentive rate for AFDC and non-AFDC shall apply retroactively to July 1 of each fiscal year.

These incentives shall be paid in addition to the federal AFDC and non-AFDC incentives.

(c) The offset amount shall be the difference between the estimated dollar reimbursement resulting from the scheduled rates in subdivision (b) and the estimated dollar reimbursement resulting from actual federal financial participation at an incentive rate not in excess of 11.5 percent for collections for an aided family as defined in subdivision (a) and 4 percent for collections paid to a nonaided family. The exact additional state incentive rate, when applied to estimated total collections for the state fiscal year, shall approximately equal in amount the federal reduction to be offset.

- (d) In addition, a county may qualify for an additional incentive payment under Section 15200.7. These funds shall be deposited in the county general fund.
- (e) (1) Where more than one county has participated in the enforcement or collection, the federal and state AFDC incentive payments authorized by this section shall be made to the collecting county except as follows:
- (A) The federal non-AFDC incentive shall be paid to the reporting county making the nonwelfare payments to the family for the period October 1, 1985, to June 30, 1986, inclusive.
- (B) Effective July 1, 1986, the federal and state non-AFDC incentive shall be paid to the appropriate jurisdiction as determined by the State Department of Social Services.
- (f) Where more than one state has participated in the enforcement or collection, the incentive payment, if any, shall be made in accordance with Section 15200.2.
- (g) Any funds paid to a county pursuant to this section, over and above the county's cost of administering a child support enforcement program, shall be used to support the child support enforcement services of the district attorney.
- SEC. 2. Section 15200.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as amended by Chapter 1702 of the Statutes of 1984, is amended to read:
- 15200.2. (a) There is hereby appropriated out of any money in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated, from which the department shall make payments to California counties, on any interstate support collections collected or distributed, or both, on or after October 1, 1985, federal incentive funds on the amount received which qualify therefor. In addition, the department shall pay to each county on any support collections distributed during the period of October 1, 1982, to June 30, 1986, inclusive, regardless of the date of collection, a state incentive of 7.5 percent. This amount shall be paid on collections used to reduce or repay aid which is paid pursuant to this chapter, on collections paid to an aided family in the form of income not included in determining eligibility for assistance pursuant to federal law (so-called "disregards") on collections paid to an aided family in the form of income included in determining eligibility for assistance pursuant to federal law (so-called "pass-ons" and "excess") and for aid which is entitled to federal matching funds. In addition, a county may qualify for an additional incentive payment under Section 15200.7.
  - (b) Effective July 1, 1986, the department shall pay, in addition to

- the federal incentive for AFDC and non-AFDC interstate collections, an increased state AFDC incentive on aid-related interstate collections as defined in subdivision (a) and a state non-AFDC incentive for interstate collections paid to nonaided families.
- (c) The actual state incentive rates shall be calculated annually pursuant to the formula specified in subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 15200.1.
- (d) The department shall, by regulation, pay the incentive payment to the county distributing the support payment from another state.
- (e) Where a county makes a collection for another state, the department shall make the federal incentive payment to the county making the collection. No state incentive shall be paid on collections made by a county on behalf of another state.
- (f) Any funds paid to a county pursuant to this section, over and above the county's cost of administering a child support enforcement program, shall be used to support the child support enforcement services of the district attorney.
- SEC. 3. Section 15200.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:
- 15200.3. (a) There is hereby appropriated out of any money in the General Fund not otherwise appropriated, amounts from which the department shall make federal incentive payments to each county on nonfederally funded foster care support payments collected or distributed on or after October 1, 1985. The department shall also make payments to the extent and as specified in subdivision (c) to counties on collections distributed between the periods of the effective date of this section, and June 30, 1986, a state incentive of 7.5 percent to be paid on amounts received for nonfederally funded foster care cases, including, but not limited to, collections made pursuant to Sections 903, 903.4, and 903.5. This incentive shall be paid on collections which are used to repay the state share of aid paid pursuant to this chapter which are not entitled to incentives pursuant to Sections 15200.1 and 15200.2.
- (b) Effective July 1, 1986, the department shall pay to counties, in addition to the federal incentive for nonfederally funded foster care, an increased state incentive rate calculated pursuant to the formula specified in subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 15200.1 on collections used to repay the state's share of aid as described in subdivision (a). The increased state incentive shall be paid to the extent and as specified in subdivision (c) of this section.
- (c) The state incentive provided in subdivisions (a) and (b) for nonfederal foster care cases shall only apply to those statewide collections distributed in a fiscal year in excess of the 1982–83 budget projection. From the excess, 7.5 percent, or the increased incentive, of collections for nonfederal foster care cases shall be set aside for payment of these incentives. At the end of the fiscal year payment to each county of the incentive money shall be in proportion to the percentage of the total nonfederal cases support collection for the state which each county has distributed. The percentage incentive specified in subdivision (a) shall not exceed the total incentive provided by the state for federal foster care cases at any time but shall automatically be adjusted for any reductions. Any remaining funds shall be credited to offset expenditures for AFDC-FC.

- (d) The Legislature finds and declares that the state incentive provided pursuant to this section is sufficient to reimburse counties for court and all other costs incurred through enforcement of parental liability in nonfederally funded foster care cases.
- SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health; or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for this act to be applicable during the entire 1986–87 fiscal year, and so facilitate the orderly administration of the programs to which it relates, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

- SEC. 1.3. Section 15262 of the Education Code is amended to read:
- 15262. This article shall apply only to bonds of a school district which were approved by the electors prior to July 1, 1978, and to bonded indebtedness for the acquisition or improvement of real property approved by two-thirds of the voters on or after June 4, 1986.

- (b) With respect to taxes which are not a lien on real property that have become delinquent on the supplemental roll, the tax collector may use the procedures applicable to the collection of delinquent taxes on the unsecured roll for collection of the tax. If taxes which are not a lien on real property remain unpaid at the time set for sale to the state, following a delinquency in the payment of the second installment of the taxes, the taxes and any penalties and costs thereon shall be transferred to the unsecured roll for collection.

- (c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), in the event there is a subsequent change in ownership following an initial change in ownership or completion of new construction, which occurs before the mailing of the supplemental tax billing attributable to the initial change in ownership or completion of new construction, then the lien for supplemental taxes is extinguished and that portion of the supplemental assessment attributable to the assessee from the date of the initial change in ownership or completion of new construction to the date of the subsequent change in ownership shall be entered on the unsecured roll in the name of the person who would have been the assessee if the additional change in ownership had not occurred, and thereafter that portion of the tax shall be treated and collected like other taxes on the unsecured roll. The remaining portion of the supplemental tax attributable to the initial change in ownership becomes a lien against the real property on the date of the subsequent change in ownership which lien shall also secure any increase or decrease in supplemental taxes resulting from the determination of the new base year value required to be made following the subsequent change in ownership.
- (d) In lieu of determining, as provided in subdivision (c), the portion of the supplemental assessment attributable to the person who would have been the assessee if the additional change in ownership had not occurred, a county may elect to compute that portion of the supplemental assessment attributable to the assessee from the first day of the month following the date of the initial change in ownership or completion of new construction to the date of the subsequent change in ownership.
- SEC. 2. Section 75.55 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:
- 75.55. (a) A county board of supervisors may, by ordinance, provide for the cancellation of any supplemental tax bill in which the amount of taxes to be billed is less than the cost of administration. - 75.60. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board of supervisors of an eligible county, upon the adoption of a method identifying the actual administrative costs associated with the supplemental assessment roll, may direct the county auditor to allocate to the county, prior to the allocation of property tax revenues pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 95) and prior to the allocation made pursuant to Section 75.70, an amount equal to the actual administrative costs, but not to exceed 5 percent of the additional revenues which have been collected due to the increased assessments under this chapter. Those revenues shall be used solely for the purpose of administration of this chapter, regardless of the date those costs are incurred.

SEC. 2. Section 1250.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

SEC. 3. Section 1265.7 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1265.7. (a) The state department shall adopt regulations for the licensure of congregate living health facilities. The regulations shall include minimum standards of adequacy, safety, and sanitation of the physical plant and equipment, minimum standards for staffing with duly qualified personnel, and training of the staff, and minimum standards for providing the services offered. These regulations shall ensure that residents of these facilities are assured appropriate supportive health services in the most normal, least restrictive physical and rehabilitative environment appropriate to individual resident needs. These fee schedules shall be adjusted annually.

- (b) The state department shall establish an expert advisory committee to assist in the development of the regulations required pursuant to this section. A representative of the department shall act as chairperson of the committee. The members of the expert advisory committee shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for all necessary expenses actually incurred in the actual performance of their duties. For the purposes of budgeting support for the expert advisory committee, including the expenses of the members of the committee and necessary staff, the committee shall be organizationally located within the state department. To the extent sufficient funds have been appropriated in the Budget Act, the state department may provide staff support to the advisory committee as the state department may deem is necessary for the conduct of the advisory committee's business. The committee shall meet at the director's pleasure until the time as the proposed regulations are presented for adoption at the public hearing.
- SEC. 4. Section 1267.8 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- 1267.8. (a) An intermediate facility/developmentally care disabled habilitative an intermediate or facility/developmentally disabled—nursing or a congregate living health facility shall meet the same fire safety standards adopted by the State Fire Marshal pursuant to Sections 13113, 13113.5, 13143, and 13143.6 that apply to community care facilities, as defined in Section 1502, of similar size and with residents of similar age and ambulatory status. No other state or local regulations relating to fire safety shall apply to these facilities and the requirements specified in this section shall be uniformly enforced by state and local fire authorities.
- (b) An intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled habilitative or an intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled—nursing or a congregate living health facility shall meet the same seismic safety requirements applied to community care facilities of similar size with residents of similar age and ambulatory status. No additional requirements relating to seismic safety shall apply to such facilities.
- (c) Whether or not unrelated persons are living together, an intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled habilitative which serves six or fewer persons or an intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled—nursing which serves six or fewer persons or a congregate living health facility shall be considered a residential use of property for the purposes of this article. In addition, the residents and operators of the facility shall be considered a family for the purposes of any law or zoning ordinance which is related to the residential use of property pursuant to this article.

For the purposes of all local ordinances, an intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled habilitative which serves six or fewer persons or an intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled—nursing which serves six or fewer persons or a congregate living health facility shall not be included within the definition of a boarding house, rooming house, institution or home for the care of minors, the aged, or the mentally infirm, foster care home, guest home, rest home, sanitarium, mental hygiene home, or other similar term which implies that the intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled habilitative or intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled—nursing or a congregate living health facility is a business run for profit or differs in any other way from a single-family residence.

This section does not forbid any city, county, or other local public entity from placing restrictions on building heights, setback, lot dimensions, or placement of signs of an intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled habilitative which serves six or fewer persons or an intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled—nursing which serves six or fewer persons or a congregate living health facility as long as such restrictions are identical to those applied to other single-family residences.

This section does not forbid the application to an intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled habilitative or an intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled—nursing or a congregate living health facility of any local ordinance which deals with health and safety, building standards, environmental impact standards, or any other matter within the jurisdiction of a local public entity, as long as that ordinance does not distinguish intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled habilitative which serves six or fewer persons or an intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled—nursing or a congregate living health facility from other single-family dwellings and that the ordinance does not distinguish residents of the intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled habilitative or intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled—nursing which serves six or fewer persons or a congregate living health facility from persons who reside in other single-family dwellings.

No conditional use permit, zoning variance, or other zoning clearance shall be required of an intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled habilitative which serves six or fewer persons or an intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled—nursing which serves six or fewer persons or a congregate living health facility which is not required of a single-family residence in the same zone.

Use of a single-family dwelling for purposes of an intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled habilitative serving six or fewer persons or an intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled—nursing which serves six or fewer persons or a congregate living health facility shall not constitute a change of occupancy for purposes of Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 17910) of Division 13 or local building codes. However, nothing in this section supersedes Section 13143 to the extent these provisions are applicable to intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled habilitative providing care for six or fewer residents or an intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled—nursing serving six or fewer persons or a congregate living health facility.

- SEC. 5. Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1953. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1987, (2) each bill amends Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1953, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.
- SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

An act to amend Sections 4201, 4201.5, and 4213 of the Civil Code, relating to marriage.

Each applicant may be required to present authentic identification as to name. For the purpose of ascertaining all the facts mentioned or required in this section, the clerk, at the time the license is applied for may, if he or she deems it necessary in order to satisfy himself or herself as to matters enumerated in this section, examine the applicants for a license on oath, which examination shall be reduced

Upon performance of the ceremony, the person performing the ceremony shall give a copy of the confidential marriage certificate to the parties who were married. The person performing the ceremony shall also provide the parties who were married with an application for a certified copy of the confidential marriage certificate which shall be filled out by the parties and sent by the person performing the marriage to the county clerk.

The form of the confidential marriage license shall be prescribed by the State Registrar of Vital Statistics. The form shall be designed in a manner such that the parties to be married must declare or affirm that they meet all of the requirements of this section. The form also shall contain a certificate of marriage, which shall be filled out by the parties upon performance of the marriage and authenticated by the person performing the marriage. Reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code and, if the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

CHAPTER 1462

An act to add Chapter 1.15 (commencing with Section 199.55) to Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to acquired immune deficiency syndrome, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 1.15 (commencing with Section 199.55) is added to Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 1.15. ACQUIRED IMMUNE DEFICIENCY SYNDROME (AIDS) VACCINE RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT GRANT PROGRAM

199.55. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

- (a) Over the past five years AIDS has reached an epidemic stage and is estimated to affect 30,000 Californians by 1990.
- (b) The estimated cost of medical care alone for the 4,000 AIDS cases that have occurred to date in California totals approximately two hundred fifty million dollars ($250,000,000). By the end of 1990, medical care is projected to approach three billion five hundred million dollars ($3,500,000,000) and the total public health and medical care expenditures are expected to exceed five billion dollars ($5,000,000,000).
- (c) There is no cure for the AIDS virus. The long-term solution to the elimination of AIDS lies in conducting vaccine research.
- (d) Much research has already been completed by the private sector and should be utilized to the maximum extent possible, including supplementing with public funds.
- (e) Profitmaking corporations are (1) not eligible for most of the existing public funding sources as are institutions of higher learning and nonprofit corporations; (2) when eligible, the public funding amounts are not adequate to conduct research; and (3) private grants are only available to nonprofit corporations.
- (f) Moreover, private research companies, already having established vaccine development and manufacturing capabilities, are uniquely situated to maximize available resources and to utilize both management and research staff, equipment, and technical innovations to their greatest efficiency towards the specific goal of developing and manufacturing an AIDS vaccine at the earliest possible time.
- (g) Exclusion of private corporations from public funding to develop an approved vaccine will likely result in (1) a delay in the development of a vaccine to prevent AIDS; (2) continued spread of AIDS to the general population; and (3) continued increases in private and public funds to provide care to AIDS victims.

- (h) An AIDS Vaccine Research and Development Grant Program should be established to encourage AIDS vaccine research by the private sector.
- (i) It is appropriate to mandate that a grant made to a private entity to develop an AIDS vaccine, once the vaccine has been approved by the FDA for use by the general population, should be reimbursed to the state from the sale of such a vaccine.
- 199.56. (a) There is hereby created an AIDS Vaccine Research and Development Grant Program. There is hereby established an AIDS Vaccine Research and Development Grant Fund the moneys in which shall, upon appropriation to the State Department of Health Services, be available for the purposes of this chapter.
  - (b) For the purposes of this chapter:
  - (1) "AIDS" means acquired immune deficiency syndrome.
- (2) "California manufacturer" means a manufacturer with management or officers based in this state and operations for the conduct of research and development of an AIDS vaccine in this state.
- (3) "Committee" means the AIDS Vaccine Research and Development Advisory Committee.
- (4) "Grant" means AIDS vaccine research and development grants.
- 199.57. (a) There is hereby created the AIDS Vaccine Research and Development Advisory Committee within the State Department of Health Services which shall review and make recommendations to the state department regarding the award of the AIDS vaccine research and development grants. The membership of the committee shall be appointed by the State Director of Health Services within 30 days of the effective date of this chapter. The chairman of the committee shall be the State Director of Health Services, or his or her designee.
- (b) The committee shall be composed of the following five members:
  - (1) The State Director of Health Services, or his or her designee.
- (2) An expert in infectious disease and vaccine development to be appointed by the state department.
- (3) The chief physician involved in the treatment of AIDS patients at San Francisco General Hospital, or his or her designee.
- (4) The Chief of the Office of AIDS within the State Department of Health Services, or his or her designee.
- (5) An expert in retro-viruses/AIDS virus research to be appointed by the state department.
- (c) Members of the committee shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for any actual and necessary expenses incurred in connection with the performance of their duties under this chapter.

- 199.58. (a) The State Department of Health Services shall issue within 60 days of the effective date of this chapter, a request for proposal (RFP) for research and development projects, based on the criteria provided in subdivision (d). Upon issuing the RFP the state department shall publish this fact along with the deadline for grant proposals in the newspapers with the greatest circulation in the major cities of the state, as determined by the state department. Additionally, upon issuing the RFP the same information shall be transmitted to the Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the Assembly for publishing in the respective journals of each house of the California Legislature.
- (b) Any California manufacturer may submit a proposal to the RFP for an AIDS vaccine research and development grant to the state department. The proposal shall be submitted to the state department within 90 days of the issuance of the RFP.
- (c) Within 30 days after the proposal deadline, the committee shall review the proposals and make recommendations to the state department. The state department, taking into consideration the committee's recommendations, shall award grants to no more than three California manufacturers within 30 days after receiving the committee's recommendations.
- (d) The state department, making use of an RFP, shall include a clear description of the criteria to be used to select the projects which will receive funding pursuant to this chapter. The committee shall make recommendations to the state department regarding the content of the RFP. The criteria shall include, but not be limited to, the following:
- (1) The potential of the grant recipient to develop a vaccine for AIDS.
- (2) The financial, technical, and managerial committment of the grant recipient to the development of an AIDS vaccine.
- (3) The demonstrated need of the grant recipient for state funding.
- (e) The grants made pursuant to this chapter are not subject to the State Contract Act (Part 2 (commencing with Section 10100) of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code).
- 199.59. (a) The recipients of the grants shall use the moneys of the grant to develop an AIDS vaccine until the Federal Food and Drug Administration (FDA) approves the clinical testing of an AIDS vaccine on humans. Any grant funds not encumbered or expended at the time of the FDA approval of the clinical testing of an AIDS vaccine on humans shall not be used by the recipients until the state department authorizes further expenditure or requires the funds to be returned to the AIDS Vaccine Research and Development Grant Fund pursuant to subdivision (b).
- (b) If an AIDS vaccine which has received FDA approval for clinical testing on humans has been developed by a grant recipient pursuant to this chapter, then any funds which have been granted to, but not expended or encumbered by, the grant recipient shall be expended for the clinical testing of the vaccine on humans in accordance with the FDA protocol.

With respect to the other grant recipients, or when none of the recipients have received the FDA approval for the vaccine they are developing, the committee shall meet to consider whether the grant recipient has a good chance of developing a vaccine which will receive FDA approval for clinical testing on humans and shall make recommendations to the state department. If the state department, taking into consideration the committee's recommendations, determines that the grant recipient has a good chance of developing an FDA approved vaccine, it shall inform the grant recipient in writing to continue expending its grant funds for the development of an AIDS vaccine.

If the state department, taking into consideration the committee's recommendations, determines that the grant recipient does not have a good chance of developing a vaccine which will receive FDA approval for clinical testing on humans, it shall inform the recipient in writing that the funds not encumbered or expended, as described in subdivision (a), shall be returned to the state department for deposit in the AIDS Vaccine Research and Development Grant Fund.

Any funds remaining in the AIDS Vaccine Research and Development Grant Fund after the state department's determinations pursuant to this subdivision, shall, in the state department's discretion, either be expended for (1) further support of the clinical trials of a vaccine developed in whole or in part by a grant recipient or for (2) further research and development of a vaccine by a grant recipient who has been permitted, in accordance with this subdivision, to continue expending grant funds for development of a vaccine, or be expended for (3) both purposes. If no grant recipient is conducting clinical trials or developing a vaccine pursuant to this subdivision, then the moneys in the AIDS Vaccine Research and Development Grant Fund shall revert to the General Fund.

199.60. If a California manufacturer that is a grant recipient sells, delivers, or distributes an AIDS vaccine which has received FDA approval for use by the general population and which was developed in whole or in part using a grant awarded pursuant to this chapter, the State of California shall be reimbursed for the grant as provided in this section.

Until the total amount of the grant is repaid, repayments in the amount of one dollar ($1) per dose from the sale of the AIDS vaccine shall be deposited by the grant recipient into the General Fund. Upon payment in full of the grant amount into the General Fund, a royalty on the sale of the vaccine from the grant recipient shall be deposited into the General Fund. The percentage amount of the royalty shall be negotiated at the time of the grant award.

SEC. 2. A sum not to exceed four million dollars ($4,000,000), depending on the availability of moneys in the AIDS Vaccine

Research and Development Grant Fund, is hereby appropriated without regard to fiscal years from the AIDS Vaccine Research and Development Grant Fund to accomplish the purposes of Chapter 1.15 (commencing with Section 199.55) of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code.

- SEC. 3. Notwithstanding any other law, the repayments made in fiscal years 1986–87 and 1987–88 by eligible institutions pursuant to Sections 25410 to 25421, inclusive, of the Public Resources Code shall be deposited in the AIDS Vaccine Research and Development Grant Fund established pursuant to Section 199.56.
- SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to protect the California population from the rapidly spreading AIDS epidemic by facilitating the production of an AIDS vaccine, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1463

An act to add Chapter 1.14 (commencing with Section 199.45) to Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to acquired immune deficiency syndrome, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 1.14 (commencing with Section 199.45) is added to Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 1.14. ACQUIRED IMMUNE DEFICIENCY SYNDROME (AIDS): IMMUNIZATION

- 199.45. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:
- (a) The rapidly spreading AIDS epidemic poses an unprecedented major public health crisis in California, and threatens, in one way or another, the life and health of every Californian.
- (b) The best hope of stemming the spread of the AIDS virus among the general public is the development of an AIDS vaccine to develop an immunity to exposure.
- (c) No vaccine has yet been fully developed, tested, or approved for AIDS. An effective vaccine, especially when directed at high-risk groups of unexposed persons, will virtually eliminate the risk of contracting AIDS, just as the risk of contracting polio and smallpox have been virtually eliminated by earlier vaccine development, production, and use among the general public.

- (d) Private industry today has the capability of conducting the vaccine research, biological research, immunology, and genetic engineering of appropriate viral components needed to formulate, develop, produce, and test an AIDS vaccine. Whenever these and other appropriate expertise cannot be found within a single company, the formation of multiinstitutional research groups should be encouraged and prioritized, as it is in the public interest to encourage efforts toward vaccine production.
- (e) It is of the highest importance and in the public interest to maximize public protection by developing an AIDS vaccine and by establishing high levels of immunization, initially among high-risk populations.
- (f) The continuous spread of AIDS and especially the threat of infection spreading among population groups previously considered low-risk demands that the highest of priorities be given to the development of a universal immunoprophylaxis.
- (g) The use of vaccines to control the spread of infectious pathogens is recognized as one of the genuinely decisive technologies of modern medicine. Recent advances in pharmaceutical technology combined with better understanding of the immune process offer the hope of an AIDS vaccine that is effective, safe, relatively inexpensive, and relatively easy to administer.
- (h) Utilization of this new science may be forestalled, however, by problems that have recently deterred the development of vaccines by traditional means. These problems must be resolved before the full public health benefits of new approaches to vaccine development can be fully and expeditiously realized.
- (i) The marketplace conditions facing vaccine manufacturers and developers today have changed considerably over the past 30 years. Private manufacturers and developers of vaccines cannot be forced to produce vaccines, and may choose, under the free enterprise system, not to produce them if marketplace conditions are unfavorable.
- (j) Certain market conditions and other secondary considerations are slowing and threatening to halt the development of an AIDS vaccine. Any delay in the discovery, testing, approval, and production of the vaccine because of these secondary considerations may cost tens of thousands of human lives annually, unnecessary pain and suffering for hundreds of thousands of infected Americans, and billions of dollars in medical costs and in lost productivity.
- (k) Resource constraints in the public and private sectors and the time required to bring vaccines to market presently limit investments in vaccines research and development. Although universities constitute a significant resource in AIDS research in particular and vaccines research in general, university funding limitations and conflicting research priorities make reliance on the resources and expertise of the private pharmaceutical industry a necessary supplement to public funding of AIDS research.

- (l) There has been a decrease in the willingness of pharmaceutical companies to become involved in vaccine research, development, and manufacturing because of uncertain profitability and perceived and actual marketplace risks and disincentives.
- (m) It is clearly in the public interest to provide appropriate and necessary incentives toward the timely development and production of an effective and safe AIDS vaccine.
- (n) The development of an AIDS vaccine provides an exceptionally important benefit, making its availability highly desirable. However, certain conditions may preclude that development, including the following:
- (1) There is a high cost for capital expenditures for vaccine development (estimated to be from ten million dollars ($10,000,000) to thirty million dollars ($30,000,000)). Testing costs of clinical trials (twenty million dollars ($20,000,000) per vaccine, by some estimates) are particularly burdensome, especially for smaller firms.
- (2) There is an uncertain market demand for a vaccine once development costs have been invested and FDA marketing approval has been secured.
- (3) Manufacturers report that the management decision to go forward with the significant financial investment necessary to the development and approval of an AIDS vaccine is negatively influenced by the potentially disastrous and uncertain risk posed by the application of strict product liability on such a product, regardless of the public benefit that would result from such a vaccine.
- (o) Without state intervention to assure minimal profitability of an AIDS vaccine, inadequate incentives may exist for the private sector to commit resources and expertise to the accelerated development of an AIDS vaccine.
- (p) Secondary considerations impeding the immediate development of an AIDS vaccine must be immediately removed.
- (q) In light of the dangers inherent in the AIDS epidemic to the general public of California, it is crucial that to the extent possible any serious obstacles to the development of such a vaccine be removed.
- (r) Because an AIDS vaccine provides an exceptionally important public benefit, it is in the public interest to take uncommon action to facilitate the development and production of such a vaccine.
- (s) It is as well in the public interest to assure fair compensation, if necessary at public expense, to any innocent victim who may be injured by an AIDS vaccine, as a part of implementing the socially beneficial policy of establishing high levels of AIDS immunization.
- (t) In light of the high incidence of AIDS amongst Californians, the California Legislature must lead our country into the 20th century in this effort.
  - (u) It is therefore fitting and proper that the State of California enact uncommon and exceptional legislation in order to assure the removal of the obstacles to the speedy development of a vaccine to prevent the further spread of the AIDS epidemic.

- 199.46. The Legislature further finds and declares all of the following:
- (a) Acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS) is caused by the virus human T-cell lymphotropic virus, type III (HTLV-3) which initially cripples the body's immune system and eventually leaves the body open to an array of lethal opportunistic infections.
- (b) So far, there is no known cure for AIDS and once a person is AIDS infected, the virus remains throughout the rest of his or her life.
- (c) The AIDS virus has a three-to-seven year incubation period, making it one of the most difficult diseases to combat and trace.
- (d) An easily administered blood test can determine whether a person has been exposed to the AIDS virus.
- (e) In 1979, when AIDS was first diagnosed in the United States, the number of newly diagnosed victims was doubling every six to nine months; today the number of people diagnosed with AIDS doubles each year.
- (f) Nationally, between 500,000 and 2,000,000 Americans are estimated to have been exposed to the AIDS virus. Of those exposed, between 25,000 and 500,000 persons (5 percent-25 percent) may be expected to die of AIDS.
- (1) Another 25,000 to 500,000 persons may be expected to develop AIDS Related Complex (ARC). The range of illnesses these individuals will suffer from may range from minor ailments to brain damage.
- (2) The remaining majority of those exposed may never suffer its consequences, but may carry and transmit the disease unknowingly.
- (3) Some experts estimate as many as 1,000 additional people are exposed daily.
- (g) The State Department of Health Services, in its report to the Legislature (March 1986) estimated conservatively that over 30,000 Californians shall have contracted AIDS by 1990, about 50 percent having succumbed. The disease is believed to be fatal within 18 months of diagnosis. To date, more than half the 16,000 people with AIDS in the United States have died.
- (h) The AIDS virus is transmitted primarily through sexual contact, and also through the sharing of hypodermic needles, contaminated blood transfusions, and during pregnancy to the fetus.
- (i) While the earliest spread of the AIDS virus was primarily among homosexuals, the virus is now found and spreading among heterosexuals as well.
- (j) Additionally, drug abusers are highly susceptible to the AIDS virus since the drugs diminish the ability of the body's immune system to function. Intravenous drug abusers traditionally come into contact with the virus from sharing hypodermic needles.
- (k) Persons sexually active in the heterosexual community are also at risk. Until a vaccine is developed, the AIDS virus will cross - over from the high-risk groups to the lower risk groups. At this time, it is not known how fast the AIDS virus will penetrate other population groups, but it is not expected to be nearly as rapid. To date, partners of high-risk groups (bisexual men and intravenous drug users) are considered the main means of transmitting the AIDS virus to the heterosexual population. Other means include pregnant women who pass the infection on to the child and prostitutes who pass on the infection to their clients.

- (1) Of the first 9,000 AIDS cases diagnosed in the United States, almost 1,000 were women. Fourteen percent of these women developed AIDS through sexual contact. Recent studies have demonstrated that the virus can be transmitted by women to their male sexual partners. Sexual contact with an infected partner may transmit the virus and fatally infect the partner.
- 199.47. The Legislature further finds and declares all of the following:
- (a) The average cost per patient in the treatment of AIDS until death is now one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000). It is estimated that total costs including health care of the first 10,000 AIDS cases in the United States totaled more than six billion three hundred million dollars ($6,300,000,000). By 1990, according to the State Department of Health Services, Californians will spend almost five billion dollars ($5,000,000,000) in medical costs alone in care and treatment of 30,000 AIDS patients, with no realistic hope for their remission or cure. This cost does not include money spent on education, research, and lost income.
- (b) To date, the costs of caring for people with AIDS related complex (ARC) has not been officially calculated. However, it is safe to assume the costs are substantial over time. Experts fear that the illnesses of ARC patients, although they may not be fatal, are severe. For example, the virus invades the brain rendering the patients incapable of caring for themselves. It is, therefore, plausible that a percentage of ARC patients will need to be institutionalized.
- (c) The Legislature intends by this chapter to take uncommon action to remove the impediments to the expeditious development of an AIDS vaccine.
- (d) It is further the intent of the Legislature to provide to any person, whose injury is proximately caused by the use of the vaccine, except to the extent the injuries are attributable to the comparative negligence of the claimant in the use of the vaccine, all of the following:
- (1) Compensation for related medical costs associated with the care and treatment of the injury.
- (2) Compensation for the loss of any and all earnings caused by the injury.
- (3) Compensation for pain and suffering caused by the injury, except that in no action shall the amount of damages for noneconomic losses exceed five hundred fifty thousand dollars ($550,000).

- (e) It is further the intent of the Legislature to establish the AIDS Clinical Trials Testing Fund which will be available to not more than three California manufacturers of an AIDS vaccine approved by the federal Food and Drug Administration (FDA) for clinical trials with humans. The funds are to be appropriated to the sites specified in the FDA approved protocol for administering the clinical trials.
- 199.48. "State," as used in this chapter, has the same meaning as set forth in Section 900.6 of the Government Code.
- 199.49. (a) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), a manufacturer of an FDA-approved AIDS vaccine that is sold, delivered, administered, or dispensed in California shall be liable for all damages proximately or legally caused by that AIDS vaccine.
- (2) A manufacturer of an FDA-approved AIDS vaccine that is sold, delivered, administered, or dispensed in California, shall not be liable in strict products liability for any damages proximately or legally caused by any design or warning defect of the AIDS vaccine, or for breach of implied warranty, if, upon motion and after the hearing provided in subdivision (b), the trial judge determines that the subject AIDS vaccine is unavoidably dangerous. For purposes of this section, an AIDS vaccine is unavoidably dangerous if the trial judge determines that all three of the following criteria are met:
- (A) At the time of distribution, the vaccine was intended to confer an exceptionally important benefit on society that made its availability highly desirable.
- (B) At the time of distribution, the then-existing risk posed by the vaccine was both substantial and unavoidable.
- (i) In determining whether the risk posed by the vaccine was substantial, the court shall consider whether the risk posed permanent or long-term disability as opposed to temporary or insignificant inconvenience.
- (ii) In determining whether the risk posed was unavoidable, the court shall consider whether the vaccine was designed to minimize, to the extent scientifically knowable at the time it was distributed, the risk inherent in the vaccine, and also, the availability, at the time of distribution, of an alternative AIDS vaccine or product that would have as effectively accomplished the full intended purpose of the subject vaccine.
- (C) At the time of distribution, the interest in availability of the subject AIDS vaccine outweighed the interest in promoting enhanced accountability through either strict products liability design and warning defect, or implied warranty, review.
- (3) For purposes of this section, it shall be conclusively presumed that any FDA-approved AIDS vaccine that is sold, delivered, administered, or dispensed in California is intended to confer an exceptionally important benefit on society that makes its availability highly desirable.
- (b) In any civil action governed by the provisions of this section, the defendant manufacturer shall, upon motion be entitled to a determination of whether the subject AIDS vaccine is unavoidably dangerous within the meaning of subdivision (a). The manufacturer shall have the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence all the criteria established in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) except as to those matters for which a presumption exists.

(c) In enacting this section, it is the intent of the Legislature to codify, in part, certain portions of the court ruling in Kearl v. Lederle Laboratories, 172 Cal. App. 3d 812.

This section is intended with respect to design and warning defect only, to deny recovery under strict liability, whether based upon theories of strict liability, implied warranty, or any other theory of liability without fault. For purposes of this section, breach of express warranty shall not be affected by a finding of "unavoidably dangerous."

This section is not intended to, nor shall it be construed to, repeal, modify, or otherwise preclude any recovery based on negligence or fault, or any theory of liability except this section is intended, with respect to design and warning defect only, to deny recovery under strict liability, whether based upon theories of strict liability, implied warranty, or any other theory of liability without fault.

For purposes of this section, "unavoidably dangerous" means unavoidably unsafe. It is the intent of the Legislature that the terms "unavoidably dangerous" and "unavoidably unsafe" may be used interchangeably.

This section does not apply to any other vaccine, drug, or similar product, other than an FDA-approved AIDS vaccine that is sold, distributed, administered, or dispensed in California, and does not apply to any manufacturer of any vaccine, drug, or similar product, other than a manufacturer of an FDA-approved AIDS vaccine that is sold, distributed, administered, or dispensed in California.

- 199.50. (a) There is hereby created the AIDS Vaccine Victims Compensation Fund.
  - (b) For the purposes of this section:
- (1) "AIDS vaccine" means a vaccine which (A) has been developed by any manufacturer and (B) is approved by the FDA as a safe and efficacious vaccine for the purpose of immunizing against AIDS.
  - (2) "Board" means the State Board of Control.
- (3) "Damages for personal injuries," means the direct medical costs for the care and treatment of injuries to any person, including a person entitled to recover damages under Section 377 of the Code of Civil Procedure, proximately caused by an AIDS vaccine, the loss of earnings caused by the injuries, and the amount necessary, but not to exceed five hundred fifty thousand dollars ($550,000), to compensate for noneconomic losses, including pain and suffering caused by the injuries.
- (4) "Fund" means the AIDS Vaccine Victims Compensation Fund.
- (c) The board shall pay from the fund, contingent entirely upon the availability of moneys as provided in subdivision (o), damages for personal injuries caused by an AIDS vaccine that is sold in or delivered in California, and administered or dispersed in California to the injured person except that no payment shall be made for any of the following:

- (1) Damages for personal injuries caused by the vaccine to the extent that they are attributable to the comparative negligence of the person making the claim.
- (2) Damages for personal injuries in any instance in which the manufacturer has been found to be liable for such injuries in a court of law.
- (3) Damages for personal injuries due to a vaccination administered during a clinical trial.
- (d) An application for payment of damages for personal injuries shall be made on a form prescribed by the board, which application may be required to be verified, within one year of the date that the injury and its cause are discovered. Upon receipt, the board may require the submission of additional information necessary to evaluate the claim.
- (e) (1) Within 45 days of the receipt of the application and the submission of any additional information, the board shall do either of the following:
  - (A) Allow the claim in whole or part.
  - (B) Disallow the claim.
- (2) In those instances of unusual hardship to the victim, the board may grant an emergency award to the injured person to cover immediate needs upon agreement by the injured person to repay in the event of a final determination denying the claim.
- (3) If the claim is denied in whole or part, the victim may apply within 60 days of denial for a hearing. The hearing shall be held within 60 days of the request for a hearing unless the injured person requests a later hearing.
- (f) At the hearing the injured person may be represented by counsel and may present relevant evidence as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 11513 of the Government Code. The board may consider additional evidence presented by its staff. If the injured person declines to appear at the hearing, the board may act solely upon the application, the staff report, and other evidence that appears on the record.
- (g) The board may delegate the hearing of applications to hearing examiners.
- (h) The decision of the board shall be in writing and shall be delivered or mailed to the injured person within 30 days of the hearing. Upon the request by the applicant within 30 days of delivery or mailing, the board may reconsider its decision.
- (i) Judicial review of a decision shall be under Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and the court shall exercise its independent judgment. A petition for review shall be filed as follows:
- (1) If no request for reconsideration is made, within 30 days of personal delivery or mailing of the board's decision on the application.

- (2) If a timely request for reconsideration is filed and rejected by the board, within 30 days of personal delivery or mailing of the notice of rejection.
- (3) If a timely request for reconsideration is filed and granted by the board, or reconsideration is ordered by the board, within 30 days of personal delivery or mailing of the final decision on the reconsidered application.
- (j) The board shall adopt rules and regulations to implement this section, including those governing discovery.
- (k) The fund is subrogated to any right or claim that any injured person may have who receives compensation pursuant to this section, or any right or claim that such person's personal representative, legal guardian, estate, or survivor may have, against any third party who is liable for the personal injuries caused by the AIDS vaccine, including any manufacturer who is liable under Section 199.49, and the fund shall be entitled to indemnity from that third party. The fund shall also be entitled to a lien on the judgment, award, or settlement in the amount of any payments made to the injured person.
- (1) In the event that the injured person, or his or her guardian, personal representative, estate, or survivors, or any of them, bring an action for damages against the person or persons liable for the injury or death giving rise to an award by the board under this section, notice of institution of legal proceedings and notice of any settlement shall be given to the board in Sacramento except in cases where the board specifies that notice shall be given to the Attorney General. All notices shall be given by the attorney employed to bring the action for damages or by the injured person, or his or her guardian, personal representative, estate, or survivors, if no attorney is employed.
- (m) This section is not intended to affect the right of any individual to pursue claims against the fund and lawsuits against manufacturers concurrently, except that the fund shall be entitled to a lien on the judgment, award, or settlement in the amount of any payments made to the injured party by the fund.
- (n) There is hereby created the AIDS Vaccine Injury Compensation Policy Review Task Force consisting of 14 members. The task force shall be composed of 10 members appointed by the Governor, of which two shall be from a list provided by the California Trial Lawyers Association, one from the State Department of Health Services, the Director of Finance, one unspecified member, and one attorney with experience and expertise in products liability and negligence defense work, two representing recognized groups which represent victims of vaccine induced injuries or AIDS victims, or both, and two representing manufacturers actively engaged in developing an AIDS vaccine. In addition four Members of the Legislature or their designees shall be appointed to the task force, two of which shall be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly and two of which shall be appointed by the Senate Rules Committee. The chairperson of the task force shall be appointed by the Governor from the membership of the task force. The task force shall study and make recommendations on the legislative implementation of the fund created by subdivision (a). These recommendations shall at least address the following issues:

- (1) The process by which victims are to be compensated through the fund.
- (2) The procedures by which the fund will operate and the governance of the fund.
- (3) The method by which manufacturers are to pay into the fund and the amount of that payment.
- (4) The procedural relationship between a potential victim's claim through the fund and a court claim made against the manufacturer.
  - (5) Other issues deemed appropriate by the task force.

The task force shall make its recommendations to the Legislature on or before June 30, 1987.

- (o) The fund shall be funded wholly by a surcharge on the sale of an FDA-approved AIDS vaccine in California in an amount to be determined by the State Department of Health Services. The surcharge shall be levied on the sale of each unit of the vaccine sold or delivered, administered, or dispensed in California. The appropriate amount of the surcharge shall be studied by the AIDS Vaccine Injury Compensation Policy Review Task Force which shall recommend the appropriate amount as part of its report, with the amount of the surcharge not to exceed ten dollars ($10) per unit of vaccine. Expenditures of the task force shall be made at the discretion of the Director of Finance or the director's designee.
- (p) For purposes of this section, claims against the fund are contingent upon the existing resources of the fund as provided in subdivision (o), and in no case shall the state be liable for any claims in excess of the resources in the fund.
- 199.51. (a) Because the development of a vaccine now costs somewhere between twenty million dollars ($20,000,000) and forty million dollars ($40,000,000), and because the last vaccine produced and marketed did not sell well, vaccine manufacturers are hesitant to proceed to invest their resources in such a risky venture. It is, therefore, in the public health interest of California to assure that manufacturers proceed to develop this vaccine and protect Californians against this dread disease and protect the State of California against the enormous fiscal costs of treatment for persons getting AIDS. It is a sound and worthwhile investment to provide a guarantee of a market to lessen the risk of loss and assure the development of an AIDS vaccine.

It is anticipated that this AIDS vaccine will consist of a three-unit series. The State of California is willing to guarantee that at least 175,000 persons will be vaccinated, and to guarantee the purchase, within three years after the FDA approves marketing of an AIDS vaccine, of at least 500,000 units, at a cost of no more than twenty dollars ($20) per dosage, by all companies, anywhere in the United States.

Therefore, the State of California, by moneys to be appropriated later through the Budget Act, commits itself to purchasing, at the end of three years after the FDA has approved the marketing on a competitive basis, at not more than twenty dollars ($20) per dosage, the difference between 500,000 units and the actual amount sold, delivered, administered, or dispensed by all companies throughout the United States, including units sold to or reimbursed by Medi-Cal, Medicare, or other public programs, providing that less than 750,000 units are sold, delivered, administered, or dispensed.

- (b) The AIDS Vaccine Guaranteed Purchase Fund is hereby established and shall be administered by the State Department of Health Services, which may develop necessary regulations to carry out the purpose of this section.
- (c) The State Department of Health Services is hereby authorized to carry out this section, when such funds are appropriated through the state budget. In determining which vaccine shall be purchased by the state from among those manufacturers selling or distributing in California, an FDA-approved AIDS vaccine, the State Department of Health Services shall take into consideration at least all of the following factors:
- (1) The length of time each AIDS vaccine has been in the marketplace in California.
  - (2) Each AIDS vaccine's history of efficacy since FDA approval.
- (3) Each AIDS vaccine's history of side effects experienced by previous recipients of the vaccine.
- (4) The relative cost of each competing manufacturer's AIDS vaccine.
- SEC. 2. The sum of six million fifty thousand dollars ($6,050,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund in accordance with the following schedule:
- (a) For expenditures in fiscal year 1986-87 for purpose of subsidizing any clinical trials with humans for an acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS) vaccine which are approved by a federal Food and Drug Administration (FDA) protocol. The funds shall be allocated by the State Department of Health Services in amounts up to one million dollars ($1,000,000) for each of up to three manufacturers with management or officers based in this state and operations for the research and manufacture of an AIDS vaccine in this state, who receive FDA approval for clinical trials. The funds shall be provided to the state department for disbursement to the sites approved in the FDA protocol and for the purposes set forth in the protocol. The funds shall be disbursed to FDA approved protocol sites within 90 days of a request from the FDA approved protocol sites. The unencumbered and unexpended balance of funds appropriated pursuant to this subdivision, on June 30, 1987, shall be carried over for expenditure pursuant to subdivision (b) of this section ....

(b) For expenditure and allocation in the same manner and for the same purposes as described in subdivision (a) of this section, in fiscal year 1987–88......

$3,000,000

(c) For purposes of the AIDS Vaccine Injury Compensation Policy Review Task Force, established pursuant to Section 199.50, to be expended at the discretion of the Director of Finance or the director's designee .......

$ 50,000

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to protect the California population from the rapidly spreading AIDS epidemic by facilitating the production of an AIDS vaccine, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1464

An act to add Section 14105.43 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to public social services, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14105.43 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14105.43. (a) Notwithstanding other provisions of this chapter, any drug which is approved by the United States Food and Drug Administration for use in the treatment of acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS) or an AIDS-related condition shall be deemed to be approved for addition to the Medi-Cal drug formulary only for the purpose of treating AIDS or an AIDS-related condition, for the period prior to the completion of the procedures established pursuant to Section 14105.4.

(b) Any drug deemed to be approved pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be immediately added to the Medi-Cal drug formulary.

- (c) If it is determined pursuant to Section 14105.4 that a drug to which subdivision (a) applies should not be placed on the Medi-Cal drug formulary, that drug shall no longer be deemed to be approved for addition to the formulary pursuant to subdivision (a).
- SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Due to the continuing serious threat to public health posed by AIDS, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1465

An act relating to community colleges, and making an appropriation therefor.

> [Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

I am reducing the appropriation contained in Section 6 of Assembly Bill No. 3409 from $525,000 to $250,000.

While I support many of the recommendations of the Commission for the Review of the Master Plan and recognize the need to establish a community college funding mechanism which continues beyond the current June 30, 1987, sunset date, I do not believe $525,000 in State General Fund momes is necessary for the two task forces. With this reduction, I approve Assembly Bill No. 3409.

GEORGE DEUKMEIIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that:

- (a) The Commission for the Review of the Master Plan for Higher Education has completed a Community College Reassessment Study, mandated by Chapter 1506 of the Statutes of 1984, and transmitted that reassessment study to the Legislature's Joint Committee for the Review of the Master Plan for Higher Education on April 2, 1986.
- (b) The Joint Committee for the Review of the Master Plan for Higher Education has completed a series of public hearings concerning the findings and recommendations of the commission, and will complete an independent and comprehensive community college assessment report for the Legislature and the Governor.
- (c) The California community colleges will play a pivotal role in the economic and social development of the state into the next century, but not without reform and resources.
- (d) The continued health and development of the community colleges requires a maintenance of the highest caliber of qualified faculty, staff, and administrators which will be fulfilled through reform of the system of faculty and administrator qualifications, hiring, and retention procedures (at the state and local levels).

- (e) The Commission for the Review of the Master Plan for Higher Education has recommended that the current system of financing community colleges be restructured to be more consistent with the status and role of these postsecondary education institutions.
- (f) California's vast and diverse system of community colleges, which serves over 1,000,000 students a year, requires a strengthened, effective, and better supported Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges and office of the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges to provide statewide leadership and enhance local initiative.
- (g) The broad policy reform guidelines recommended by the Commission for the Review of the Master Plan for Higher Education and under consideration by the Governor and the Legislature require a significant amount of additional detail and technical substance before the guidelines may be enacted.
- (h) Therefore, it is the intent of the Legislature to establish, through this act, two short-term task forces, to be appointed by the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges, and convened and staffed by the office of the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, to provide the Governor and the Legislature with detailed policy implementation proposals on the issues described above.
- SEC. 2. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature to establish, by July 1, 1988, through statutory provisions and administrative rules and regulations, a new funding mechanism for determining the allocation of state general apportionments for community colleges which assures access to all Californians, promotes educational excellence, and is more reflective of a postsecondary educational system.
- (b) To implement this funding method with the least disruption for community college programs, the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges shall convene a broad-based short-term task force on community college financing reform which shall include, but not be limited to, representatives of the Master Plan Review Commission, the Department of Finance, the Legislative Analyst, the Controller, the California Postsecondary Education Commission, local community college districts, and appropriate constituent groups. The chancellor shall invite participation by community college districts, but acceptance of the invitation shall be the prerogative of the local community college district.
- (c) The task force shall develop specific recommendations which may include, but need not be limited to, the following:
- (1) A new state support allocation mechanism, which is sensitive to and measures the full costs associated with the delivery of community college programs and services.
- (2) Revenue adjustment components of the mechanism which would provide for adjustments on an incremental basis for increases or decreases in workload, for equalization, for inflation, and for other legally authorized purposes.

- (3) A specific funding methodology which would differentiate among the major categories for operating community colleges, including, but not limited to, instruction, academic support, student operations services, institutional support, and plant maintenance. The Legislature intends that, within the instruction category, the methodology be based upon mode and cost of instruction, as measured by full-time equivalent credits generated by the instructional activity, by subcategories that would include, but not necessarily be limited to, lecture, seminar, lecture-laboratory, high cost, low cost, independent study, and apprenticeship. The Legislature intends that in addition to these subcategories, adjustments be made for full-time equivalent courses taught by full-time and part-time faculty, and the differences in full-time equivalent courses in small and large districts in the context of economies of scale.
- (4) Specific workload measures applicable for each category and subcategory.
- (5) Options for providing budgetary incentives for measuring and improving student performance.
- (6) The need for community college districts to rely on county superintendents of schools for fiscal services that may be provided through the chancellor's office.
- (7) A specific means for preventing major revenue losses to districts during the initial year or years of the new formula.
- (8) General provisions and guidelines of a funding mechanism which should be incorporated into statute and more detailed provisions which should be incorporated in rules and regulations of the board of governors.
- (d) The chancellor shall submit a report of the task force on community college financing, including its recommendations, to the Governor and the Legislature not later than May 1, 1987, and the task force shall serve as liaison to the Joint Committee for the Review of the Master Plan for Higher Education as it considers and deliberates on comprehensive community college reform.
- SEC. 3. (a) The Chancellor of the California Community Colleges shall convene a broad-based, short-term task force on faculty and administrator qualifications, peer review, hiring, and retention. This task force shall be composed of 11 members, a majority of whom are current faculty members of the community colleges, and are broadly representative of academic and vocational programs in the curriculum from both urban and rural districts, and proportionally representative of ethnic minority communities. It is the intent of the Legislature that the composition of the task force should include community college administrators.
- (b) The charge of this task force shall be, but is not necessarily limited to, the following:
- (1) Establishment of detailed proposals regarding the qualifications for hire as a member of the faculty and administration.

- (2) Establishment of detailed proposals regarding the process of faculty and administrator hiring, evaluation and retention which are consistent with the guidelines proposed in the final community college assessment report and recommendations of the Joint Committee for the Review of the Master Plan for Higher Education.
- (3) Development of specific recommendations regarding different levels of appropriate qualification for different vocational and academic programs.
- (4) Development of proposals regarding the transition between systems of faculty and administrative qualifications.
- (c) The task force shall submit preliminary proposals and recommendations to the Legislature by March 15, 1987, and serve as liaison to the Joint Committee for Review of the Master Plan for Higher Education as it considers and deliberates on comprehensive community college reform.
- SEC. 4. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that there is a pressing need to:
- (1) Provide to parents and potential students adequate information necessary to evaluate and make informed decisions about enrollment in a community college.
- (2) Increase the public's awareness of and confidence in educational programs offered by, and the fiscal stability of, community colleges.
- (3) Offer community college trustees, administrators, faculty, and students an authoritative and reasonable basis for measuring their performance from year-to-year and against their community college counterparts.
- (4) Accomplish these goals through the annual publication of a detailed accountability report on the educational accomplishments and fiscal conditions of all community colleges in California.
- (b) The Chancellor of the California Community Colleges shall conduct a study of the feasibility of developing and implementing a statewide program of educational accountability based on at least the following principles:
- (1) Standards of academic rigor for all students, regardless of their backgrounds or programs, which direct them to higher levels of accomplishment.
- (2) Performance reporting of each college, as measured by the accomplishments of its students, which encourage all districts toward higher levels of success.
- (3) Recognizing and building on the exemplary performance of individual students, colleges, and districts which best allows community colleges to offer the education required for all California citizens.
- (c) This study shall at least examine the feasibility of collecting, evaluating, and reporting on educational quality indicator and student outcome evaluation criteria such as:
  - (1) Articulation agreements with high schools.
  - (2) Articulation agreements with other colleges and universities.

- (3) Transfer rates to other academic or vocational institutions, by program, ethnicity, and gender.
- (4) Vocational education placement rates in occupations for which students received training.
- (5) Attrition and retention rates by program, ethnicity, and gender.
- (6) Standardized test scores of entering and exiting students, where available.
  - (7) Program accreditation, where applicable.
  - (8) Affirmative action targets and ratios.
  - (9) Part-time and full-time faculty ratios.
- (10) Student satisfaction as measured through periodic student attitude surveys.
- (d) This study shall also include an examination of the feasibility of collecting, evaluating, and reporting at least the following information about the fiscal condition of each community college district:
- (1) Total revenues, from all sources, including state, local, and student fee support, property, investments and other assets.
  - (2) The extent to which surpluses or deficits exist.
  - (3) Total expenditures, by major budget item.
- (4) Steps taken in each district by local governing boards, district management or the state chancellor to ensure fiscal stability.
- (e) The chancellor shall submit this report to the Governor and the Legislature not later than June 1, 1987.
- SEC. 5. The Chancellor of the California Community Colleges shall have the authority to contract for services and hire staff appropriate to perform the work associated with this act. The chancellor shall submit a plan to the Department of Finance for the expenditure of these funds which is consistent with the intention and direction of this act. The Department of Finance shall review and approve the chancellor's plan to ensure that it is reasonably consistent with this act.
- SEC. 6. The sum of five hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($525,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund in augmentation of Item 6870-001-001 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1986 for the purposes of providing appropriate staff, contractual services and necessary expenses to the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges associated with complying with this act.
- SEC. 7. As of September 30, 1987, the work of the task forces shall be complete.
  - SEC. 8. This act shall become inoperative October 1, 1987.

CHAPTER 1466

An act to amend Sections 4050 and 4052 of, and to repeal and add Section 4053 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to water, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

I am deleting the $53,000 appropriation contained in Section 6 of Senate Bill No. 1796.

The study of removing selenate from irrigation water is a local responsibility and the need for such a study should be considered in light of the demand for local funds. I do not believe it would be appropriate to provide scarce state resources for this local responsibility.

With this deletion, I approve Senate Bill No. 1796.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- SECTION 1. Section 4050 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- 4050. (a) It is hereby declared to be the policy of this state that multiple use should be made of all public water within the state, to the extent that multiple use is consistent with public health and public safety.
- (b) Except as provided in Section 4053, recreational uses shall not, with respect to a reservoir in which water is stored for domestic use, include recreation in which there is bodily contact with the water by any participant.
- ŚEC. 2. Section 4052 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- 4052. Unless the context otherwise requires, the following definitions shall control the construction of this chapter:
- (a) "Multiple use" includes domestic, industrial, agricultural, and recreational uses.
- (b) "Public agency" means the state or any city, other than a chartered city, county, public district, or other public institution.
- (c) "Reservoir" does not include ditches, canals, or any similar type of water distributing facility.
  - SEC. 3. Section 4053 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.
- SEC. 4. Section 4053 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:
- 4053. (a) In San Diego County, recreational uses shall not, with respect to a reservoir in which water is stored for domestic use, include recreation in which there is bodily contact with the water by any participant, unless both of the following conditions are satisfied:
- (1) The water subsequently receives complete water treatment, including coagulation, flocculation, sedimentation, filtration, and disinfection, before being used for domestic purposes.
- (2) The reservoir is operated in compliance with regulations of the department, as provided in Section 4051.

- (b) The recreational use may be subject to additional conditions and restrictions adopted by the entity operating the water supply reservoir, if the conditions and restrictions do not conflict with regulations of the department and are designed to further protect or enhance the public health and safety.
- SEC. 5. Due to the unique scarcity of recreational reservoirs in the County of San Diego and the desire of persons in that area for facilities where bodily contact with water by recreational participants is allowed, the Legislature finds that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution and that this special act is necessary.
- The sum of fifty-three thousand dollars ($53,000) is SEC. 6. hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Water Resources for purposes of a grant to the San Diego Regional Water Reclamation Agency in order to study the removal of selenate from irrigation drain water. The department may make the grant if it determines the agency will not duplicate research efforts utilizing aerobic bacteria for selenate removal from agricultural drain water which are receiving financial assistance from the state.

CHAPTER 1467

An act to add Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 78210) to Chapter 2 of Part 48 of the Education Code, relating to community colleges, and making an appropriation therefor.

> [Approved by Governor September 30, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986 ]

I am reducing the appropriation contained in Section 2(a) of Assembly Bill No. 3 from $55,196,000 to $6,151,000

The reductions are reflected as follows: Section 2(1) I eliminate this appropriation

Section 2(2) $34,296,000 to $6,151,000

The reduction has two effects:

1. It will eliminate the one-half-year funding provided in the bill for matriculation.

2. It will provide, after taking into consideration the fiscal impact of AB 216 which I have previously signed, one-half of full funding for community colleges with declining average daily attendance

When the 1987–88 legislative session convenes, it is my intention to seek full funding for the matriculation (which was funded for one-half-year only) and the remaining one-half of the declining average daily attendance provisions I support full funding of the matriculation program which was added to my Budget and the declining average daily attendance provisions which I included in my Budget. However, because of the Legislature's failure to complete their own budget process, I am obligated to make these reductions in order to protect California's fiscal integrity When the Legislature sent me their budget in June, they relied upon an additional $300 million in income Legislature for these programs, awaying the processory. $302 million in income I set aside funding for these programs, awarting the necessary legislation implementing the Legislature's budget action Unfortunately, the Legislature has failed to send me a bill fully funding these programs, thus requiring this action.

With this reduction, I approve Assembly Bill No. 3

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 78210) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 48 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 1.5. Student Matriculation

78210. This article shall be known and may be cited as the Seymour-Campbell Matriculation Act of 1986.

78211. It is the intent of the Legislature to do all of the following:

(a) Ensure equal education opportunity for all Californians.

(b) Ensure that students receive the educational services necessary to optimize their opportunities for success.

(c) Provide students with the information to establish realistic educational goals, and ensure that the matriculation process does not exclude students from receiving appropriate educational services at community colleges.

78211.5. (a) The Chancellor of the California Community Colleges shall initially provide for full implementation of the matriculation services specified in Section 78212 in as many community colleges as the funds appropriated for this purpose allow.

- (b) Because of the need to develop and evaluate data on a standard statewide basis concerning the implementation and effectiveness of the matriculation services described in this article, any college or district receiving funding under this article shall agree to carry out its provisions as specified, but shall be bound to that agreement only for the period during which funding is received pursuant to this article. The obligations of the college or district under the agreement shall include, but not be limited to, the expenditure of funds received pursuant to this article for only those matriculation services approved by the chancellor and the contribution toward the purposes of this article of such matching funds as the chancellor may require pursuant to Section 78216.
- 78212. (a) For purposes of this article, "matriculation" means a process that brings a college and a student who enrolls for credit into an agreement for the purpose of realizing the student's educational objectives. The agreement involves the responsibilities of both parties to attain those objectives through the college's established programs, policies, and requirements.

The student's responsibilities under the agreement include the expression of at least a broad educational intent upon enrollment, the declaration of a specific educational objective within a reasonable period after enrollment, diligence in class attendance and completion of assigned coursework, and the completion of courses and maintenance of progress toward an educational goal according to standards established by the college, the district, and the state.

- (b) Matriculation services to be made available by the colleges shall include, but are not limited to, all of the following:
  - (1) Processing of the application for admission.

- (2) Orientation and preorientation services designed to provide to students, on a timely basis, information concerning campus procedures, academic expectations, financial assistance, and any other matters the college or district finds appropriate.
- (3) Assessment and counseling upon enrollment, which shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:
- (A) Administration of assessment instruments to determine student competency in computational and language skills.
- (B) Assistance to students in the identification of aptitudes, interests and educational objectives, including, but not limited to, associate of arts degrees, transfer for baccalaureate degrees, and vocational certificates and licenses.
  - (C) Evaluation of student study and learning skills.
- (D) Referral to specialized support services as needed, including, but not limited to, federal, state, and local financial assistance; health services; campus employment placement services; extended opportunity programs and services provided pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 69640) of Chapter 2 of Part 42; campus child care services provided pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 8225) of Chapter 2 of Part 6; programs that teach English as a second language; and disabled student services provided pursuant to Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 67300) of Part 40.
  - (E) Advisement concerning course selection.
- (4) Postenrollment evaluation of each student's progress, and required advisement or counseling for students who are enrolled in remedial courses, who have not declared an educational objective as required, or who are on academic probation, as defined by standards adopted by the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges and community college districts.
- 78213. (a) No district or college may use any assessment instrument for the purposes of this article without the authorization of the chancellor. The chancellor may adopt a list of authorized assessment instruments pursuant to the policies and procedures developed pursuant to this section and the intent of this article. The chancellor may waive this requirement as to any assessment instrument pending evaluation.
- (b) The chancellor shall review all assessment instruments to ensure that they meet all of the following requirements:
- (1) Assessment instruments shall be sensitive to cultural and language differences between students.
- (2) Assessment instruments shall be used as an advisory tool to assist students in the selection of an educational program.
- (3) Assessment instruments shall not be used to exclude students from admission to community colleges.
- (c) The chancellor shall establish an advisory committee to review and make recommendations concerning all assessment instruments used by districts and colleges pursuant to this article.
- 78214. (a) All participating districts shall, with the assistance of the chancellor, establish and maintain institutional research to evaluate the effectiveness of the matriculation services described by this article and of programs and services designed to remedy students' skills deficiencies.

- (b) The data base for this research shall include, but not be limited to:
- (1) Prior educational experience, including transcripts when appropriate, as determined by the chancellor.
  - (2) Educational objectives.
- (3) Criteria for exemption from assessment or required counseling or advisement, if applicable.
  - (4) Need for financial assistance.
  - (5) Ethnicity, sex, and age.
  - (6) Academic performance.
- (7) Any additional information that the chancellor finds appropriate.
- (c) The evaluation provided for by this section shall include an assessment of the effectiveness of the programs and services in attaining at least the following objectives:
  - (1) Helping students to define their educational goals.
- (2) Assisting institutions in the assessment of students' educational needs.
- (3) Matching institutional resources with students' educational needs.
- (4) Providing students with specialized support services as referred to in subdivision (b) of Section 78212.
- 78215. The Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges shall establish criteria for exempting students from participation in orientation, assessment testing, or required counseling or advisement under this article.
- 78216. (a) The Legislature recognizes that community college districts are currently funding various components of student matriculation through existing counseling, assessment, and other student services, but that adequate student matriculation cannot be realized without supplemental funding support.
- (b) The chancellor shall develop a formula for funding student matriculation services at community colleges. The formula shall include the requirement that the districts or colleges contribute matching funds in an amount to be established by the chancellor in each case, and shall reflect, but not be limited to, all of the following considerations:
- (1) The number of students to receive matriculation services at each college.
- (2) The levels of support for matriculation services provided at each college prior to July 1, 1985, and the need for funding assistance in the implementation of the program set forth in this article.
- (3) The relative needs for matriculation services, based on special student populations such as low-income students, students with language differences, students with physical and learning disabilities, and students in need of remedial instruction.

- (4) The requirement that funds for matriculation services be expended only for services approved by the chancellor.
- (5) The requirement that any district or college receiving funding pursuant to this section agree to implement this article during the period in which it receives that funding.
- (6) The need for computer hardware and software to provide approved matriculation services, and for institutional research personnel for ongoing evaluation.
- (c) The chancellor shall require participating colleges to develop a plan for student matriculation that reflects all of the following:
  - (1) A method for providing the services specified in Section 78212.
- (2) The college budget for the matriculation services pursuant to Sections 78212 and 78214.
- (3) The development and training of staff and faculty to implement the matriculation services.
- (4) In multicampus districts, the coordination of the college matriculation plan with other college plans.
- (5) Computerized information services and institutional research and evaluation necessary for implementation of this article.
- (d) The chancellor may allocate up to 5 percent of the total funds appropriated for student matriculation for state administrative operations to carry out the intent of this article, subject to the review of the annual budget process.
- 78217. (a) By no later than January 30, 1987 and prior to the allocation of any funding for purposes of this article to local districts, the chancellor shall provide the Department of Finance, Legislative Analyst, California Postsecondary Education Commission, and the education policy committees and the fiscal committees of the Legislature with a comprehensive management plan for implementation of matriculation programs pursuant to the provisions of this article.
- (b) On or before March 15, 1989, the chancellor shall submit a report to the Legislature evaluating the effectiveness of those community college matriculation programs receiving funding under this article for the 1986–87 academic year. The report shall cover operation of the programs during the 1986–87 and 1987–88 fiscal years, and shall include the chancellor's recommendations regarding the improvement of student matriculation, the continued operation of student matriculation services, and the funding of those services. The chancellor shall include in the report information on the success rate of students who enroll in courses contrary to the recommendations and advice of college advisement staff.
- (c) On or before March 15 of each year thereafter, the chancellor shall provide a progress report to the Legislature on the implementation of this article. The chancellor may require participating districts or colleges to provide data for the completion of these reports.
- (d) No later than January 1, 1986, the chancellor shall appoint an advisory committee to assist in the development of the evaluation required by this section; however, the Legislature recognizes that to promote the effective implementation of this program, the chancellor may wish to appoint the advisory committee prior to that date.

(e) On or before April 1, 1988, the chancellor shall submit a report to the Legislature evaluating the comparative utility of matriculation services to students with differing educational objectives.

78218. In the 1986-87 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, this article shall be operative only if funds are specifically appropriated for the purposes of this article.

- SEC. 2. (a) The sum of fifty-five million one hundred ninety-six thousand dollars ($55,196,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges for local assistance as follows:

CHAPTER 1468

An act relating to water, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

I am deleting the $300,000 appropriation contained in Section 1(b) of Senate Bill No. 1745

The appropriation would have funded the International Border Pollution Control Authority created by AB. 4309. The bill has been vetoed, thus making this appropriation unnecessary.

I am reducing the $500,000 appropriation contained in Section 1(a) to $150,000 together with the appropriation language relating to Phase II of the workplan.

together with the appropriation language relating to Phase II of the workplan. At this time, completing a general pollution abatement strategy, requiring more information about the extent of the pollution, and a cost analysis of the environmental reporting requirements are all steps which should be taken to address this problem. Proceeding to Phase II of the workplan without having an opportunity to evaluate the results from Phase I would be premature.

With this deletion and reduction, I approve Senate Bill No. 1745.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of eight hundred thousand dollars ($800,000) is hereby appropriated, without regard to fiscal year, from the General Fund for expenditure as follows:

- (a) The sum of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) to the State Water Resources Control Board for the purposes of preparing a workplan for abating the pollution levels in the New River and the Alamo River. The workplan shall be completed in two phases. An amount of not more than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) shall be expended by the board for completion of phase I, and not more than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) shall be expended by the board for completion of phase II. Phase I of the workplan shall address all of the following:
- (1) The development of a general abatement strategy which includes a detailed analysis of feasible alternatives.
- (2) The collection and review of water quality and health effects data. This shall include, but not be limited to, an investigation of the extent of pollution in the Cities of Calexico, Brawley, and Seeley and at other Imperial County sites affected by sewer and toxic flows from Mexicali, Mexico.
- (3) A cost analysis of environmental impact reporting requirements and planning of pilot impact studies.

Phase II of the workplan shall address both of the following:

- (1) Development and evaluation of viable abatement alternatives.
- (2) Development of an implementation plan, including performance of pilot plant and treatability tests.

The State Water Resources Control Board shall allocate these funds to the California Regional Water Quality Control Board (Colorado River Basin Region), which shall complete, or enter into a contract for completion of, phase I of the workplan by January 1, 1988, and phase II of the workplan by January 1, 1989.

- (b) The sum of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) to the International Border Pollution Control Authority for purposes of funding all necessary startup costs pursuant to Title 7.7 (commencing with Section 67410) of the Government Code.
- SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to begin to address the cleanup of the New River and the Alamo River, which are a significant health hazard, at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1469

An act relating to water quality, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

I am deleting the $40,000 appropriation contained in Section 2 of Senate Bill No. 186. This program is discretionary with the university If they do not believe the costs are absorbable, the bill does not require them to do this program. With this deletion, I approve Senate Bill No. 186.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- SECTION 1. (a) The University of California is requested, with the approval of the regents, to establish a Water Quality Task Force to develop a research agenda identifying in priority order the most fruitful areas of research for developing cost-effective methods for providing clean and safe drinking water. Areas of research to be considered for the research agenda shall include a risk assessment of various levels of contaminants in water, methods which may be used to reduce the cost of carbon regeneration for the granular activated carbon process, and other areas identified by the task force.
- (b) The agenda shall include recommendations for research areas to be funded.
- (c) The University of California is requested, with the approval of the regents, to appoint the members of the task force. The task force shall include experts in water from academic institutions, governmental agencies, including the State Department of Health Services and State Water Resources Control Board, municipal water districts, and private industry. The task force shall utilize existing research materials and resources in order to avoid duplication of research efforts.
- (d) The University of California, with the approval of the regents, shall provide the Legislature and the Governor with its research agenda by April 15, 1987.
- SEC. 2. The sum of forty thousand dollars ($40,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the University of California for developing a research agenda pursuant to this act.

CHAPTER 1470

An act to add Section 8874.5 to, and to add Chapter 12.4 (commencing with Section 8877.1) to Division 1 of Title 2 of, the Government Code, relating to seismic safety, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

I am deleting the $150,000 appropriation contained in Senate Bill No 1920 Since this measure is permissive and does not mandate additional resources by local governments not interested in utilizing its provisions, those local governments desiring to create a coordinating body to oversee recovery efforts and the enactment of necessary ordinances should fiscally support this program.

With this deletion, I approve Senate Bill No. 1920

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8874.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

8874.5. The disastrous effects and after effects of the Mexico City earthquake of September 19, 1985, have increased the urgency for development of local plans to provide authority and procedures for orderly transition from emergency disaster response operations to short-and long-range efforts toward reestablishment of governmental services, private business activity, and reconstruction and rehabilitation.

In furtherance of that purpose, the commission shall enter into a grant agreement with a local agency situated in a high earthquake-hazard area for development of a program model for use by local agencies and the state which will address at least, but need not be limited to, the following elements:

- (a) Establishment of a coordinating body within the jurisdiction to assess the various impacts of the disaster, recommend appropriate legislative, administrative, and private actions, and monitor implementation efforts.
- (b) Creation of an information-gathering mechanism to provide the basis for evaluation, prioritization, and implementation.
- (c) Procedures for coordination and orderly transition from disaster response to reconstruction and rehabilitation.
- (d) Identification, delineation, and preparation of legislation, both statutory and local, necessary to provide authority on a preevent basis for postevent activity to accomplish the purposes of this program.
- (e) Integration and coordination with this chapter, the California Emergency Services Act (Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 8550)), the Natural Disaster Assistance Act (Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 8680)), the Economic Disaster Act of 1984 (Chapter 7.6 (commencing with Section 8695)), the Planning and Zoning Law (Title 7 (commencing with Section 65000)), the Community Redevelopment Law (Part 1 (commencing with Section 33000) of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code), and the Community Development Financial Assistance and Disaster Project Law (Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 34000) of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code).

- (f) Identification of those components of the local program which may serve as a program model for disasters other than those caused by earthquake.
- SEC. 2. Chapter 12.4 (commencing with Section 8877.1) is added to Division 1 of Title 2 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 12.4. DISASTER RECOVERY RECONSTRUCTION ACT OF 1986

- 8877.1. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Disaster Recovery Reconstruction Act of 1986.
- 8877.2. The Legislature finds and declares that the impact of the Mexico City earthquake disaster of September 19, 1985, has rendered more cogent and compelling the findings of the Legislature set forth in Section 8870, particularly subdivision (c) thereof, and heightened the need for authority for local agencies to engage in effective preevent and postevent activity to accomplish those goals set forth in paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) of Section 8872. It is the intent of this chapter to provide that authority.
- 8877.3. It is the purpose of this chapter to authorize, guide, and otherwise enable cities, counties, and other entities to prepare in advance of a disaster, such as a devastating earthquake, for the expeditious and orderly recovery and reconstruction of the community or region.
  - 8877.4. As used in this chapter:
- (a) "Disaster" means a devastating earthquake or other conditions specified in subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 8558.
- (b) "Recovery" means the overall short-term and long-term restoration of social, economic, and institutional activity to levels comparable to those which existed prior to the disaster.
- (c) "Reconstruction" means the renovation, replacement, or rebuilding of damaged or destroyed facilities which will enable this recovery to occur.
- 8877.5. Each city, county, or other local subdivision of the state, in conjunction with planning activities authorized under Article 5 (commencing with Section 65300) of Chapter 3 of Division 1 of Title 7 and Article 10 (commencing with Section 8610) of Chapter 7 of Division 1 of Title 2 of the Government Code, may prepare, prior to a disaster, plans and ordinances facilitating the expeditious and orderly recovery and reconstruction of the area under its jurisdiction, should a disaster occur. These plans and ordinances may include any of the following:
  - (a) An evaluation of the vulnerability of specific areas under its jurisdiction to damage from a potential disaster, together with streamlined procedures for the appropriate modification of existing general plans or zoning ordinances affecting those areas after a disaster.

- (b) A contingency plan of action and organization for short-term and long-term recovery and reconstruction to be instituted after a disaster.
- (c) An ordinance, to be adopted prior to the disaster, which could be invoked as soon as possible after the event and which would provide necessary local authorization for activities designated under subdivisions (a) and (b).

These plans and ordinances may include the authority and proposed organization for establishment of a local reconstruction authority with powers parallel to those of a community redevelopment agency, except that the reconstruction authority would be authorized to operate beyond the confines of designated redevelopment areas and would have financing sources other than tax increment sources.

The plans and organizational arrangements may be made separately or jointly by formal cooperative arrangements with other local entities.

- 8877.6. Each city, county, or other local subdivision of the state may take such actions as are necessary to assure the orderly transition from emergencies declared under subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 8558 to a systematic program of short-term and long-term recovery and reconstruction, including, but not limited to, any of the following:
- (a) Activate the ordinances, plans, and organizational arrangements made prior to the disaster, including the establishment of a reconstruction authority as specified by ordinance.
- (b) Coordinate these actions with those taken under other provisions of law governing a declared emergency.
- (c) Identify areas where substantial damage or destruction has occurred.
- (d) Review and recommend modifications to the governing body of recovery and reconstruction plans adopted prior to the disaster.
- (e) Determine appropriate methods of financing of activities undertaken by the reconstruction authority, including postevent funding sources both public and private.

These actions may be taken separately or jointly through cooperative arrangements made with other entities.

- 8877.7. The Seismic Safety Commission shall prepare and submit to the Speaker of the Assembly and the President pro Tempore of the Senate on or before January 1, 1990, a report on its findings and recommendations derived from the implementation of this chapter.
- SEC. 3. The sum of one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) is hereby appropriated to the Seismic Safety Commission from the General Fund for the purpose of making a grant to the County of San Bernardino to be used in development of a program model for earthquake reconstruction efforts pursuant to Section 1 of this act. The grant shall not be used by the county to make capital improvements.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the California Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to minimize the impact of a disaster caused by earthquake on personal life, governmental and business activity, and the economy of a local area and the state, and to maximize capability to respond quickly, positively, and effectively in efforts directed toward recovery and reconstruction, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1471

An act to amend Sections 15394, 15394.1, 15395.1, 15395.5, and 15396 of, and to add Section 15392.4 to, the Government Code, relating to export financing, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

I am deleting the $1 million appropriation contained in Senate Bill No 2124. The $1 million appropriation should have come from the Special Account for Capital Outlay

When the Legislature approved the Budget Bill last June, it contained over $700 million in spending above available funds. Thus, in order to protect California's fiscal million in spending above available funds. Thus, in order to protect California's fiscal integrity, and to maintain our prudent reserve for emergencies, I was obligated to eliminate that $700 million in excess spending from the Budget I set aside $283 million of those reductions for programs which I was willing to fund, if the Legislature sent me a bill implementing the funding mechanism which they had approved in the Budget. However, they failed to follow through on their original actions.

Now, the Legislature once again has sent me bills which would spend more than $300 million above the funding available. My resolve to maintain California's fiscal integrity to protect our reserve and to maintain our newly won AAA hand rating is integrity, to protect our reserve, and to maintain our newly won AAA bond rating, is unshakeable. Therefore, I am again obligated to veto these expenditures.

While some of this legislation may have merit, it is the obligation of the Legislature, when sending these spending bills, to demonstrate where the funding would come

With this deletion, I approve Senate Bill No. 2124.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

CHAPTER 1472

An act to amend Section 11489 of the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Sections 5475, 5476, 5477, 5478, 5479, 5480, 5481, 5481.5, and 5482 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to mental health, and making an appropriation therefor.

> [Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986 ]

I am deleting the $458,000 appropriation contained in Assembly Bill No 2912. This appropriation is intended to fund three specified centers for the purpose of providing therapeutic day services for abused, neglected and emotionally disturbed infants and children in Contra Costa County.

The $458,000 appropriation would create the expectation that this level of State funding will be continued in subsequent fiscal years and that the State will supplant local funding as local priorities change. I believe that this appropriation would constitute an inequity to all other counties and treatment centers as it would single-out three specified centers for additional funding. If such automatications are to be three specified centers for additional funding If such augmentations are to be considered, they should be considered through the normal budgetary process and in light of the total demand for State General Fund support.

With this deletion, I approve Assembly Bill No 2912

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11489 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

All funds allocated to the Department of Justice by the federal government under its Federal Asset Forfeiture program authorized by the Comprehensive Crime Control Act of 1984 may be deposited directly into the Narcotics Assistance and Relinquishment by Criminal Offender Fund and used for state and local law enforcement efforts pursuant to Section 11493.

Funds which are not deposited pursuant to the above paragraph shall be deposited into the Department of Justice Special Deposit Fund-Federal Asset Forfeiture Account.

(d) All the funds distributed to the state or local governmental entity pursuant to subparagraphs (A) and (B) shall not supplant any state or local funds that would, in the absence of this subdivision, be made available to support the law enforcement and prosecutorial efforts of these agencies.

SEC. 2. Section 5475 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5475. The Legislature recognizes that prevention and early intervention services have long been slighted in the community mental health programs and has identified, as a goal of the Short-Doyle program, the prevention of serious mental disorders and psychological problems. It is the intent of the Legislature to establish a system of school-based primary prevention projects designed for the early detection and prevention of emotional, behavioral, and learning problems in primary grade children with services provided by child aides or unpaid volunteers under the supervision of mental health professionals. The goal of the primary prevention projects is to help young children derive maximum profit from the school experience and, in so doing, prevent later-life problems of school failure, unemployment, delinquency, criminal behavior, and substance abuse.

SEC. 3. Section 5476 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

- 5476. Primary prevention projects shall be developed in accordance with the guidelines and principles set forth in this chapter. To this end, school districts, publicly funded preschool programs, and local mental health programs may implement primary prevention projects with available funds, or may jointly apply to the State Department of Mental Health to be considered for grant projects outlined in this chapter.
- SEC. 4. Section 5477 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:
- 5477. The Director of Mental Health shall develop guidelines for primary prevention projects in accordance with the following:
- (a) School based projects shall serve children in grades kindergarten through three.
- (b) The projects may serve children beyond grade three who could benefit from the program but the number of children accepted into the program from grades four and above shall not represent more than 15 percent of the total number of children served.
- (c) The projects may serve children enrolled in a publicly funded preschool program.
- (d) The projects shall serve children referred by either a screening process, a teacher, school based mental health professionals, other school personnel who have had opportunities to observe children in interpersonal contacts, or parents. ## CHAPTER 1474

An act to add Section 5625.2 to the Public Resources Code, and to amend and supplement the Budget Act of 1986 by amending Item 3790-301-728 of, and adding Items 3790-102-263, 3790-102-742, 3790-302-721, 3790-302-722, and 3790-497 to, Section 2.00 thereof, relating to parks and recreation, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

I am deleting the $213,000 1976 Park Bond Fund appropriation contained in Section 5 of Assembly Bill No. 3002. I deleted this item in the 1986 Budget Bill along with five other local assistance projects for 1976 Bond funds "because they should be submitted through the State competitive grant process for review and evaluation." While the project may have merit, I question the need to fund the project this year with 1976 Bond funds, since the project is already under public ownership and the valuable artifacts already excavated from the site, and a more appropriate alternative funding source exists The Community Parklands Act of 1986 was put into law this year to fund projects of this type, and the use of this block grant fund will let the people of Riverside determine the priority of funding this project.

projects of this type, and the use of this block grant rund will let the people of Riverside determine the priority of funding this project

I am also deleting the $900,000 1980 Park Bond Fund appropriation contained in Section 7 of Assembly Bill No 3002. I deleted this item in the 1986 Budget Bill because "funding for the remaining Rimpau property may be requested in the 1987-88 budget because an option on that property is in effect during 1986-87". The Department of Parks and Recreation will consider this item for the 1987-88 budget.

I am also deleting the $982,000 1984 Park Bond Fund appropriation contained in Section 8 of Assembly Bill No. 3002 I deleted this item in the 1986 Budget Bill "because it is an additional substantial commutation of the total $5 million of 1984 Bond funds it is an additional, substantial commitment of the total $5 million of 1984 Bond funds allocated for storm damage repairs I have previously approved two appropriations totaling $1 million from 1984 Bond funds for this project. I am also concerned about the need for local participation in the operation and maintenance project". I feel these concerns are still valid and cannot support spending more park bond momes on a marginal area where the greatest benefit will be nonrecreational purposes.

With these deletions, I approve Assembly Bill No. 3002

GEORGE DEUKMEIIAN, Governor

CHAPTER 1475

An act to add Section 29301.5 to the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to Africanized bees, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

> [Approved by Governor September 30, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986 ]

I am deleting the $50,000 General Fund appropriation together with the appropriation language relating to the allocation of General Fund monies contained in Section 2(b) of Assembly Bill No. 3435.

I am not convinced that the General Fund should be the principal source of funding for Africanized bee research.

With this deletion, I approve Assembly Bill No. 3435.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 29301.5 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

29301.5. The beekeeper, apiary owner, apiary operator, or the person in possession of an apiary, in addition to the annual assessment fee prescribed by subdivision (a) of Section 29301, shall pay to the director an annual assessment fee of three cents ($0.03) per colony for the purpose of research on Africanized bees. The fee shall be annually collected until July 1, 1992, and the revenue, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, is continuously appropriated for that research.

Subdivision (c) of Section 29301 and Section 29303 does not apply to the disposition of funds authorized by this section.

- SEC. 2. (a) The Legislature finds that the Africanized bee poses a serious public health and safety threat and will, if uncontrolled, cause major damage to California's bee industry and agriculture as a whole.
- (b) The sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) for the balance of the 1986-87 fiscal year shall be expended by the Department of Food and Agriculture for the purpose of research on Africanized bees. When appropriate, the research shall be conducted in locations where the Africanized bee is endemic. For the 1986-87 fiscal year, 50 percent of these funds shall come from a combination of agricultural industry, federal, or private foundation sources. Upon receipt of these funds, the Director of Food and Agriculture shall inform the Controller of the amount received. The Controller is hereby authorized to allocate to the department the remaining funds necessary so that the department will have received in total the amount of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) for the balance of the 1986-87 fiscal year. This allocation shall come from the General Fund from which these funds are hereby appropriated.
- (c) The Director of Food and Agriculture shall establish an advisory committee to propose, review, and make recommendations to the director on which research project proposals to fund and research staff to contract with. The advisory committee shall be made up of representatives from the United States Department of Agriculture, the State Department of Health Services, the University of California, California beekeepers, and other allied farm commodity groups who contribute funds for this purpose. The beekeeper and other allied farm commodity group representatives shall be selected from a list of nominees submitted by each group and the number of representatives from each group shall be made in proportion to the amount of funds contributed by each group.

It is the intent of the Legislature that sufficient funds, not to exceed one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000), be appropriated from the General Fund annually, through the 1991–92 fiscal year, to the department to enable it to continue to contract for the research initially funded by subdivision (b).

- (d) It is the intent of the Legislature that the funds expended by the department pursuant to this act shall be expended for research and control only and not for purposes of eradication.
- SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to safeguard the public health and safety from the dangers of the Africanized bee and to preserve the bee industry and related agricultural uses of bees, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1476

An act relating to state government, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

I am deleting the $5,000 reappropriation contained in Section 1 of Senate Bill No

This reappropriation would require $5,000 of a local historic restoration grant to be used to acquire hability insurance for a one-year period.

While I support the restoration of the historic Butte Store in Amador County, this is an inappropriate use of 1984 Park Bond Act funds, which may only be spent for acquisition, development or interpretation.
With this deletion, I approve Senate Bill No 44

GEORGE DEUKMEIIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding any other law, five thousand dollars ($5,000) of the undisbursed balance of the appropriation made by Item 3790-101-722 (d) (5), Budget Act of 1985, County of Amador, Butte Store (Butte City), is hereby reappropriated to the Department of Parks and Recreation for allocation by the County of Amador to the Butte Store Preservation Trust to cover the cost of liability insurance necessary to carry out the restoration of the Butte Store for the first year of the restoration.

The sum of five hundred fifty-three thousand six hundred twenty-five dollars ($553,625) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Justice to pay the settlement resulting from the judgment in the action captioned Tiago v. State of California (case no. 174787) brought in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Joaquin provided that if the payment made in the claim specified in this section is less than the amount appropriated pursuant to this section, the excess funds shall revert to the General Fund.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to settle claims against the state, end a hardship to claimants as quickly as possible, and minimize the ultimate cost to the state, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1477

An act to amend Sections 41007 and 41019 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

SECTION 1. Section 41007 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

- 41007. "Service supplier" shall mean any person supplying intrastate telephone communication services pursuant to California intrastate tariffs to any service user in this state.

- SEC. 3. Sections 1 and 2 of the act, which amend Sections 41007 and 41019 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, do not constitute a change in, but are declaratory of, the existing law. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to clarify existing law.
- SEC. 4. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1478

An act to add Section 13170.2 to the Water Code, relating to water quality.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

- (a) Past municipal, industrial, and agricultural discharges into the state's ocean waters and the rivers, streams, and bays that drain into these ocean waters, along with past legal and illegal ocean dumping, have an adverse effect on the marine environment and threaten the public health.
- (b) The beneficial uses of the ocean waters of the state that should be protected from adverse discharges and dumping include industrial water supply, recreation, aesthetic enjoyment, navigation, and preservation and enhancement of fish, wildlife, and other marine resources or preserves.
- (c) The full extent of the environmental and human health risks associated with current municipal, industrial, and agricultural discharges into the state's ocean waters are not fully understood.
- (d) In furtherance of the policy set forth in Section 13000 of the Water Code, the Legislature finds and declares that protection of the quality of the ocean waters for the use and enjoyment by the people of the state requires control of the discharge of waste substances which may impair those uses.
- (e) In order to protect beneficial uses, it is necessary to promulgate water quality objectives and effluent quality requirements to govern the disposal of waste into the coastal water of California.
- (f) It is necessary to implement monitoring programs to determine compliance with water quality objectives and effluent quality requirements, and to yield other information, such as the effectiveness of source control programs and the identification of any short-term or long-term degradation of marine biota.
- (g) The Legislature further declares that it is the policy of the state that there be no discharge or dumping into the state's ocean waters, or into rivers, streams, or bays that empty into ocean waters, that would unreasonably affect beneficial uses.
  - SEC. 2. Section 13170.2 is added to the Water Code, to read:
- 13170.2. (a) The state board shall formulate and adopt a water quality control plan for ocean waters of the state which shall be known as the California Ocean Plan.
- (b) The plan shall be reviewed at least every three years to guarantee that the current standards are adequate and are not allowing degradation to indigenous marine species or posing a threat to human health.

- (c) In formulating the plan, the state board shall develop bioassay protocols to evaluate the effect of municipal and industrial waste discharges on the marine environment.
- (d) The state board shall adopt the bioassay protocols and complementary chemical testing methods and shall require their use in the monitoring of complex effluent ocean discharges. For purposes of this section, "complex effluent" means an effluent in which all chemical constituents are not known or monitored. The state board shall adopt bioassay protocols and complementary chemical testing methods for complex effluent ocean monitoring by January 1, 1990, and shall require their use in monitoring complex effluent ocean discharges by entities discharging 100 million gallons per day or more by January 1, 1991. The state board shall also adopt a schedule for requiring the use of these protocols for complex effluent ocean discharges of under 100 million gallons per day by January 1, 1992.
- SEC. 3. If the State Water Resources Control Board determines through its Marine Bioassay Project that a multispecies toxicity testing program with representative marine species for monitoring complex ocean effluent discharges is appropriate, the board shall use the multispecies toxicity testing program with representative marine species in adopting the bioassay protocols specified in Section 13170.2 of the Water Code.
- SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

An act to amend Section 13271 of the Water Code, relating to water quality.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13271 of the Water Code is amended to read:

13271. (a) Except as provided by subdivision (b), any person who, without regard to intent or negligence, causes or permits any hazardous substance or sewage to be discharged in or on any waters of the state, or discharged or deposited where it is, or probably will be, discharged in or on any waters of the state, shall, as soon as (1) that person has knowledge of the discharge, (2) notification is possible, and (3) notification can be provided without substantially impeding cleanup or other emergency measures, immediately notify the Office of Emergency Services of the discharge in accordance with the spill reporting provision of the state toxic disaster contingency plan adopted pursuant to Article 3.7 (commencing with Section 8574.7) of Chapter 7 of Division 1 of Title 2 of the Government Code and immediately notify the state board or the appropriate regional board of the discharge. The state board or the regional board shall list all notifications received by them pursuant to this section in the minutes of the next business meeting and shall provide a copy of the minutes to the appropriate local health officials.

- (b) The notification required by this section shall not apply to a discharge in compliance with waste discharge requirements or other provisions of this division.
- (c) Any person who fails to provide the notice required by this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both. Except where a discharge to the waters of this state would have occurred but for cleanup or emergency response by a public agency, this subdivision shall not apply to any discharge to land which does not result in a discharge to the waters of this state.
- (d) Notification received pursuant to this section or information obtained by use of such notification shall not be used against any person providing the notification in any criminal case, except in a prosecution for perjury or giving a false statement.
- (e) Immediate notification of an appropriate agency of the federal government of the discharge shall constitute compliance with the requirements of subdivision (a).
- (f) For substances listed as hazardous wastes or hazardous material pursuant to Section 25140 of the Health and Safety Code, the state board, in consultation with the State Department of Health Services, shall by regulation establish reportable quantities for purposes of this section. The regulations shall be based on what quantities should be reported because they may pose a risk to public health or the environment if discharged to ground or surface water. Regulations need not set reportable quantities on all listed substances at the same time. Regulations establishing reportable quantities shall not supersede waste discharge requirements or water quality objectives adopted pursuant to this division, and shall not supersede or affect in any way the list, criteria, and guidelines for the identification of hazardous wastes and extremely hazardous wastes adopted by the State Department of Health Services pursuant to Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code. The regulations of the Environmental Protection Agency for reportable quantities of hazardous substances for purposes of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980 shall be in effect for purposes of the enforcement of this section until the time that the regulations required by this subdivision are adopted.

- (g) The state board shall, on or before June 30, 1987, adopt regulations establishing reportable quantities of sewage for purposes of this section. The regulations shall be based on the quantities that should be reported because they may pose a risk to public health or the environment if discharged to ground or surface water. Regulations establishing reportable quantities shall not supersede waste discharge requirements or water quality objectives adopted pursuant to this division. For purposes of this section, "sewage" means the effluent of a municipal waste water treatment plant or a private utility waste water treatment plant, as those terms are defined in Section 13625.
- SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1480

An act to add Chapter 3.8 (commencing with Section 10780) to Part 2 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to public social services, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature to examine the costs and benefits of a pilot program for an automated benefit delivery system in the City and County of San Francisco and a second county, upon submission of the necessary documents, which address the following issues:
- (a) The lack of integration between the benefit delivery system in the Aid to Families with Dependent Children, Medi-Cal, Food Stamps, and Refugee Assistance programs and other benefit programs.
- (b) The need for a single access mechanism, the debit card, which captures economies and management efficiencies by eliminating checks, vouchers, food stamp coupons, and monthly proof of eligibility labels.
- (c) The creation of added benefits to the City and County of San Francisco, other counties, and the State of California from simplified accounting and reconciliation, a complete audit trail, and the reduction of excessive administrative costs from paper-based systems, postage, and multiple issuance systems.

- (d) The elimination of service fees to cash checks for public assistance clients.
- (e) The reduction of complaints by health care providers about nonreimbursed services.
- SEC. 2. Chapter 3.8. (commencing with Section 10780) is added to Part 2 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

CHAPTER 3.8. LOCAL AUTOMATED BENEFITS SYSTEM

- 10780. (a) Upon the department and the State Department of Health Services' review and approval of the documents required by this program, the City and County of San Francisco and a second participating county may establish an automated card benefit delivery pilot program for the provision of public assistance benefits after they submit a feasibility study or advance planning document which addresses all of the following issues:
- (1) The costs and benefits of establishing an automated benefit delivery program for the provision of benefits under two or more of the following programs:
  - (A) Aid to Families with Dependent Children.
  - (B) Medi-Cal.
  - (C) Food Stamp Program.
  - (D) SSI/SSP Medi-Cal component.
  - (E) Refugee assistance.
  - (F) Foster care.
  - (G) Other benefit programs deemed appropriate.
- (2) The identification of how the pilot program will fit into the existing system for handling the affected benefit program.
- (3) The identification of the costs associated with implementing the pilot program including all startup and ongoing costs.
- (4) The provision of an analysis of the project's potential costs and benefits.
- (5) The discussion of the relationship between the project and private industry efforts.
- (6) The identification of the anticipated time frame for the pilot program.
- 10781. The City and County of San Francisco, if it elects to establish the pilot program pursuant to Section 10780, and a second participating county wishing to establish a pilot program pursuant to Section 10780, shall submit a feasibility study or advance planning document to the department and the State Department of Health Services.
- 10782. (a) The implementation of the pilot project in the City and County of San Francisco and a second participating county is subject to the availability of federal financial participation.
- (b) The department and the State Department of Health Services shall either reject the pilot program or initiate steps to secure the federal waivers and federal funding within 60 days of receipt of the feasibility study.

- (c) The department and the State Department of Health Services shall approve or disapprove, within 60 days of receipt, the feasibility study or advance planning document submitted by the City and County of San Francisco or the other participating county pursuant to Section 10781. The department shall also submit a report to the appropriate policy and fiscal committees of each house of the Legislature and to the Legislative Analyst, containing their findings on that pilot program and its potential for statewide application.
- 10783. The department and the State Department of Health Services shall submit annual status reports beginning 15 months after the implementation of each pilot program and annually thereafter, and shall, no later than four years after the commencement of each pilot program under this chapter, submit a final report on the effectiveness of each pilot program to the appropriate policy committees and fiscal committees of each house of the Legislature and to the Legislative Analyst, for review.
- 10784. The implementation of a pilot program pursuant to this chapter shall not affect the eligibility of any individual for public assistance benefits through any of the programs administered by the pilot program, and any individual receiving benefits through a pilot program established pursuant to this chapter shall be entitled to the same benefits he or she would have received if the program had not been implemented.
- SEC. 3. The General Fund shall bear no additional expenses beyond those it would have normally incurred in order to operate the programs included in the automated card benefit delivery pilot program in the City and County of San Francisco and a second participating county.
- SEC. 4. It is the intent of the Legislature that the City and County of San Francisco and a second participating county shall be repaid, from any savings realized from the program, for their start-up and additional costs due to the pilot program before any other distribution of the savings are undertaken.
- SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Because the pilot program described in the bill will provide a better coordinated system of delivering health and welfare services to the eligible residents of the City and County of San Francisco and a second county, because the pilot program will also provide anticipated administrative cost savings to the state, because the City and County of San Francisco and a second county will be enabled to immediately begin negotiating the federal waivers necessary to implement the program, and in order to reduce any delays in providing this much needed service to welfare recipients, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1481

An act to amend Section 11011 of, and to add Section 66907.12 to, the Government Code, and to add Section 31104.3 to the Public Resources Code, relating to property exchanges, and making an appropriation therefor.

I am deleting Section 6 from Assembly Bill No. 2286

I believe that the funding mechanism contained in Section 6 provides an inappropriate means to fund the acquisition of Lower Solstice Canyon. The State Coastal Conservancy has sufficient funds and authority to acquire this property if it is determined to be high priority.

With this deletion, I approve Assembly Bill No. 2286.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11011 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11011. On or before December 31st of each year each state agency shall make a review of all proprietary state lands (other than tax-deeded land and land held for highway purposes and lands under the jurisdiction of the State Lands Commission and land which has escheated to the state or which has been distributed to the state by court decree in estates of deceased persons and lands under the jurisdiction of the State Coastal Conservancy) over which it has jurisdiction to determine what, if any, land is in excess of its foreseeable needs and report thereon in writing to the Department of General Services.

Jurisdiction of all land reported as excess shall be transferred to the Department of General Services, when requested by the director thereof, for sale or disposition under this section or as may be otherwise authorized by law.

The Department of General Services shall report to the Legislature annually, the land declared excess and request authorization to dispose of the land by sale or otherwise.

The Department of General Services shall review and consider reports submitted to the Director of General Services pursuant to Section 66907.12 of the Government Code and Section 31104.3 of the Public Resources Code prior to recommending or taking any action on surplus land, and shall also circulate the reports to all agencies which are required to report excess land pursuant to this section. In recommending or determining the disposition of surplus lands, the Director of General Services may give priority to proposals by the state which involve the exchange of surplus lands for lands listed in those reports.

Whenever any land is reported as excess pursuant to this section, the Department of General Services shall determine whether or not the use of the land is needed by any other state agency. If the Department of General Services determines that any such land is needed by any other state agency it may transfer the jurisdiction of such land to such other state agency upon such terms and conditions as it may deem to be for the best interests of the state.

When authority is granted for the sale or other disposition of lands declared excess, and the Department of General Services has determined that the use of the land is not needed by any other state agency, the Department of General Services shall sell the land or otherwise dispose of the same pursuant to such authorization, upon such terms and conditions and subject to such reservations and exceptions as the Department of General Services may deem to be for the best interests of the state. The Department of General Services shall report to the Legislature annually, with respect to each parcel of land authorized to be sold under this section, giving the following information:

- (a) A description or other identification of the property
- (b) The date of authorization
- (c) With regard to each parcel sold after the next preceding report, the date of sale and price received, or the value of the land received in exchange, or
- (d) The present status of the property, if not sold or otherwise disposed of at the time of the report.

Money received from the sale of any parcel of land pursuant to this section shall be paid into the General Fund unless otherwise specified by law.

Any rentals or other revenues received by the department from real properties, the jurisdiction of which has been transferred to the Department of General Services under the provisions of this section, shall be deposited in the General Fund in the account established by Section 15863 of this code. Any expenditures required to maintain, repair, care for, and sell such real property shall be paid from the appropriation made by Section 15863.

Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to prohibit the sale, letting or other disposition of any state lands pursuant to any law now or hereafter enacted authorizing such sale, letting or disposition.

SEC. 2. Section 66907.12 is added to the Government Code, to read:

66907.12. On an annual basis or as may be required, the executive officer of the conservancy shall report to the Director of General Services regarding privately owned properties within the conservancy's jurisdiction which have special significance and which might appropriately be the subject of trades for lands owned by the state for the purposes of preserving natural resources and moderating the impacts of regulation within the Tahoe Basin. A particular property shall be included in any report only upon agreement of the owner.

For purposes of this section, "special significance" means having importance because of the land's value for (1) public access, (2) public recreation, (3) wetlands, riparian, or other natural habitat, (4) open space, (5) protection of the waters of the region, or (6) any other purposes and objectives of this title.

SEC. 3. Section 31104.3 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

31104.3. On an annual basis or as may be required, the executive officer of the conservancy shall report to the Director of General Services regarding privately owned properties within the conservancy's jurisdiction which have special significance and which might appropriately be the subject of trades for lands owned by the state for the purposes of preserving natural resources and moderating the impacts of regulation with the coastal zone. A particular property shall be included in any report only upon agreement of the owner.

For purposes of this section, "special significance" means having importance because of the land's value for (1) public access, (2) public recreation, (3) wetlands, riparian, or other natural habitat, (4) open space, or (5) agricultural use.

- SEC. 4. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the net proceeds which are realized on the sale of any portion, or all, of Lower Zuma Canyon, for whose purchase funds were appropriated under Item 3810-302-036 of the Budget Act of 1985 (Chapter 111 of the Statutes of 1985), or which are realized as reimbursement from the National Park Service, shall be deposited in the Special Account for Capital Outlay to reimburse that account for amounts appropriated and expended pursuant to that budget item. The remainder shall be used to reimburse Item 3810-301-722 of the Budget Act of 1985 to the extent that those funds were advanced for acquisition of the property. Upon reimbursement, the funds advanced from Item 3810-301-722 of the Budget Act of 1985 shall be available for the purposes originally appropriated.
- SEC. 5. Upon availability of funds to the National Park Service to acquire any portion, or all, of Lower Zuma Canyon, the appropriate portions of that property shall be immediately sold to the National Park Service. The Santa Monica Mountains Conservancy and the Department of General Services shall make every effort to expedite the sale, consistent with approved appraisals and regular procedures.
- SEC. 6. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, up to three million dollars ($3,000,000) of the funds deposited in the Special Account for Capital Outlay from the sale of Lower Zuma Canyon during the 1986–87 fiscal year shall be transferred to the State Coastal Conservancy Fund. These funds are hereby appropriated from the fund to the State Coastal Conservancy for the acquisition of Solstice Canyon.
- (b) If the conservancy has already purchased Solstice Canyon by the time of the transfer of these funds to the fund, the transferred funds are hereby reappropriated to the conservancy for capital outlay or local assistance for the purposes of Division 21 (commencing with Section 31000) of the Public Resources Code during the 1986–87 fiscal year. If the conservancy does not purchase Solstice Canyon during the 1986-87 fiscal year, the funds shall be transferred back to the Special Account for Capital Outlay.

(c) If the conservancy acquires Solstice Canyon and receives funds from the Special Account for Capital Outlay for this purpose or for reimbursement for an already completed purchase, it shall request that the Department of General Services transfer the property to the Santa Monica Mountains Conservancy for management. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Special Account for Capital Outlay shall be fully reimbursed from any sale of the property to the National Park Service or the Department of Parks and Recreation. Upon the availability of funds to either of these agencies, the Department of General Services shall sell the property to either, upon request, for fair market value. If neither entity has acquired the property for the full purchase price within three years from the date of acquisition, the property shall be sold by the Department of General Services at fair market value. The full proceeds of any sale of the property, less costs of administration, shall be deposited in the Special Account for Capital Outlay.

An act to amend Section 60263 of, and to add Section 60061.5 to, the Education Code, relating to instructional materials, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986 ]

An act to add Part 6.6 (commencing with Section 15290) to Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and to amend, repeal, and add Section 647 of the Penal Code, relating to homeless persons, and making an appropriation therefor.

I am deleting the $3 million appropriation contained in Section 2 of Assembly Bill

The budget for the current year already appropriates more than $44 million for various homeless related programs, including $65 million to the Department of Housing and Community Development for homeless shelters and residential hotels, $35 million for the homeless mentally ill, $3 million for homeless growth and family violence shelter protection, and $200,000 for homeless Veteran's assistance.

When the Legislature approved the budget bill last June, it contained over $700 million in spending above available funds. Thus, in order to protect California's fiscal integrity and the spirite and the spi million in spending above available funds. Thus, in order to protect California's fiscal integrity, and to maintain our prudent reserve for emergencies, I was obligated to eliminate that $700 million in excess spending from the budget. I set aside $283 million of those reductions for programs which I was willing to fund, if the Legislature sent me a bill implementing the funding mechanism which they had approved in the budget. However, they failed to follow through on their original action.

Now, the Legislature once again has sent me bills which would spend more than $300 million above the funding available. My resolve to maintain California's fiscal integrity to protect our resolve and to maintain our poulty won AAA bond rating as integrity, to protect our reserve, and to maintain our newly won AAA bond rating, is unshakeable. Therefore, I am again obligated to veto these expenditures

With this deletion, I approve Assembly Bill No 2839

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Part 6.6 (commencing with Section 15290) is added to Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, to read:

PART 6.6. ASSISTANCE TO HOMELESS PERSONS

CHAPTER 1. HOMELESS RELIEF PILOT PROJECT

15290. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

- (a) Many persons residing in this state lack sufficient income or capacity to provide daily shelter, food, and clothing for themselves or their families.
- (b) Federal, state, local, and private efforts to assist these homeless persons are not well coordinated and data concerning these shelterless persons are not kept in a consistent manner.
- (c) Local and state efforts to help homeless persons have not fixed overall coordination responsibility with individuals in either county or state government.

(f) To feed the hungry, clothe the naked, and to house the homeless consistent with this part is a priority for this state.

15291. There is hereby established the Homeless Relief Pilot Project, to be administered by the Department of Housing and Community Development for a period of two years from the effective date of this part in the County of San Diego. The purpose of the project shall be to coordinate and centralize the delivery of state and local services, both public and private, for homeless persons in order to maximize the individual benefit and cost-effectiveness of those services and to assess the suitability of the program model hereby established for implementation on a permanent statewide basis.

The recommendations shall be included in the report to the Legislature required by Section 15300 and shall include comments regarding compliance by the various state entities with the recommendations.
  - (c) Approve the local plan for the delivery of services to homeless persons required pursuant to Section 15294. If the department does not approve the local plan by March 1, 1987, it shall report a detailed explanation why the report was not approved to the Legislature within 30 days.

- (d) Disburse and monitor funds appropriated for the purposes of Section 15294.
  - (e) Report to the Legislature as required by Section 15300.

CHAPTER 1486

An act to add Sections 84043, 84044, 84045, and 84046 to, and to repeal Article 2 (commencing with Section 84309) of Chapter 3 of Part 50 of, the Education Code, relating to education, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

I am reducing the appropriation contained in Section 6 of Assembly Bill No. 2910 from $100,000 to $50,000.

I support the need to develop an early warning system of districts in questionable fiscal condition and to increase the authority of the Chancellor's Office. This is the first of a series of actions necessary if community colleges are to become a system. Unfortunately, the State's fiscal circumstances do not allow me to approve the entire $100,000 appropriation proposed in this bill With this reduction, I approve Assembly Bill No 2910

The request shall be submitted to the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges with copies submitted to the county superintendent of schools within whose jurisdiction the district is located, the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, and the Director of Finance. The request shall be accompanied by appropriate justification for any deferral of repayment, including a revision to the plans adopted by the district's governing board as specified in this section, together with specified identification of the reasons that the actions were taken by the district to correct the financial problems.

The chancellor shall consult with representatives of the county superintendent of schools within whose jurisdiction the district is located, the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, the Director of Finance, and representatives which the chancellor may select from the superintendents and presidents of the other community colleges and districts throughout the state. After consulting with these representatives, the chancellor may revise the repayment schedule, may forgive the interest payments otherwise compounded as a result of any deferral of payment, and may specify any conditions that he or she determines are necessary to assure the repayment of the emergency apportionment. The chancellor shall report his or her actions to the board of governors, the Director of Finance, the Controller, and the Joint Legislative Budget Committee. The Controller shall deduct amounts from the apportionment schedule in accordance with the revised repayment plan.

(d) The involvement of county superintendents of schools in the activities specified in Sections 84043 to 84046, inclusive, shall only apply to counties with a general population of less than 500,000 residents.

With this deletion, I approve Assembly Bill No. 3204

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14082 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14082. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Governor shall designate a person in his office to act as a special negotiator to negotiate rates, terms, and conditions for contracts with hospitals for inpatient services to be rendered to Medi-Cal program beneficiaries. The special negotiator shall consider, when contracting, the total funds appropriated for inpatient hospital services.

The department and every other state agency concerned with health care or public social services shall provide such assistance as the negotiator may require. The department shall enter into contracts with hospitals and shall be bound by the rates, terms, and conditions negotiated by the negotiator.

The negotiator shall have the powers of a head of a department pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11150) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, except, that he or she shall adopt only such rules and regulations pursuant to Section 11152 of the Government Code as are necessary to carry out those duties specifically conferred upon the negotiator by Articles 2.6 (commencing with Section 14081), 2.8 (commencing with Section 14087.5), 2.91 (commencing with Section 14089), and 2.92 (commencing with Section 14090) of this chapter.

Notwithstanding the provisions of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, emergency regulations adopted in accordance with this section shall not be subject to the review and approval of the Office of Administrative Law. Nothing in this article or the Budget Act of 1984 prohibits the negotiator from adjusting rates paid to hospitals to reflect inflation, provided that such adjustments are determined during the negotiating process.

I am deleting the $3,359.97. claim to be paid from Item 2740-001-044 (DMV) contained in Senate Bill No. 1690.

It would be inappropriate to pay this claim from the Department of Motor Vehicle budget. If the claim were to be paid, it should be paid from the California Highway Patrol budget. This claim is the result of damages that occurred to private property due to negligence on the part of a private party. Therefore, reimbursement for the cost of the damages is a civil matter between the claimant and the private party which caused the damages.

With this deletion, I approve Senate Bill No 1690.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

CHAPTER 1492

An act to amend Section 8690.4 of the Government Code, and to add Sections 2211 and 2804.6 to the Public Resources Code, relating to disaster relief, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986]

I am deleting the $200,000 appropriation from the Insurance Fund contained in Section 5 (b) of Senate Bill No. 1238

The Insurance Fund does not have sufficient reserves to fund a study to evaluate an early warning system.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that there is a strong likelihood of a major earthquake occurring in California before the year 2000 and, in order to better predict building failure and other life-threatening damage during an earthquake, scientists, engineers, and other experts in the seismic safety field need access to the site of an earthquake to study the actual damage caused by an earthquake. The studying of the response of buildings to the motion of an actual earthquake will aid the identification of design standards and other measures needed to minimize potential loss of life and property damage.

It is the intent of the Legislature to provide needed funding to allow scientists and other experts to inspect earthquake damage, wherever it may occur, and to collect data for uses in protecting life and property against the damaging effects of an earthquake in California.

- SEC. 2. Section 8690.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:
- 8690.4. The Controller shall establish the following five special accounts in the Natural Disaster Assistance Fund:

- (c) The 1983 Natural Disasters Account, into which shall be paid all moneys appropriated by the Legislature for allocation to those who have incurred losses or expenses resulting from the Coalinga earthquake of May 2, 1983, or the Morgan Hill earthquake of April 24, 1984, as follows:

immediate investigation of damaging earthquakes. Allocations may be made by the commission to assist organizations which have incurred expenses in the course of conducting earthquake investigations. Allocations may be made to cover the following expenses:

- (1) Travel, meals, and lodging.
- (2) Publishing of findings.

- (3) Contractor assistance in the investigation.
- (4) Other expenses which the commission may allow as necessary to assist the investigation.

The feasibility study shall include, but is not limited to, a study of all of the following:
- (1) Possible scenarios for the probability, strength, direction, and location of seismic activity occurring along the San Andreas Fault north of the Los Angeles metropolitan area.
- (2) Development, use, and transmission of a warning signal to announce significant seismic activity detected by the early warning system, including an analysis of the estimated lead time provided by the system.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds declares and farmworkers are one of the worst-housed population groups in California. The Legislature further declares that the enforcement of housing standards by state and local agencies has been inadequate as a result of inadequate staffing, inefficient use of resources, and widespread refusal by some employee housing owners and operators to seek licensure of their camps. The Legislature further finds that farmworkers have been deprived of many of the rights of tenants in conventional housing and that this type of discrimination is arbitrary and not consistent with today's housing environment. The Legislature further finds that some owners and operators of farmworker housing are inappropriately paying the costs caused by violators of the Employee Housing Act, and are thwarted from improving existing housing or building new employee housing by inconsistent, duplicative, or arbitrary local interpretations and applications of state requirements.

It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to provide employee housing residents and employee housing operators who are in compliance with the Employee Housing Act, with appropriate opportunities to ensure that they are not unfairly treated. In addition, it is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to ensure that the Department of Housing and Community Development and local enforcement agencies have the ability to provide those opportunities and to properly and promptly enforce the Employee Housing Act with respect to operators who are not in compliance with that act.

SEC. 2. Section 17022.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

17022.5. The department shall adopt, and make available to the public, model or prototype plans for several types of employee housing, including, but not limited to, barracks, seasonal housing, family housing, and recreational vehicle parks. Any person intending to construct employee housing may adopt one or more of these models as the plans for the proposed housing.

SEC. 3. Section 17036 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

17036. (a) Except as provided in Section 18930, the department shall adopt regulations which it determines are necessary for the administration and enforcement of this part. The regulations adopted, amended, or repealed shall prescribe reasonable requirements for issuance of permits and establish procedures for suspension of permits, including appeal procedures.

(b) The department shall establish a schedule of fees to pay for the cost of administration and enforcement of this part.

SEC. 4. Section 17037 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

- 17037. (a) Every person, or the agent or officer thereof, constructing, operating, or maintaining a labor camp shall comply with the requirements of this part, building standards published in the State Building Standards Code relating to labor camps, and the other regulations adopted pursuant to this part.
- (b) Any person operating or maintaining a labor camp without first having obtained a permit to operate from the enforcement agency shall pay double the fees prescribed for the permit to operate the camp. Any person found for a second or subsequent time within a five-year period to be operating or maintaining a labor camp without first having obtained a permit to operate from the enforcement agency shall pay four times the fees prescribed for the permit to operate such camp.

SEC. 5. Section 17043 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

- 17043. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if the condition rendering any of the accommodations in a labor camp substandard is the overcrowding of the accommodations, the enforcement agency shall provide notice to the affected residents of the condition and shall give the residents of the accommodations a reasonable opportunity to correct the violation prior to the commencement of any action or proceeding pursuant to this part. If the enforcement agency determines to institute proceedings to correct the overcrowded condition, the residents may appear and be heard at a hearing convened as part of the proceedings. If the enforcement agency permits the owner or operator of the labor camp to appeal the initial notice of violation or order to abate, the residents shall also be permitted to appeal the initial notice of violation or order to abate. On appeal, if the enforcement agency determines that the only means of abatement is the vacation of the accommodations, the enforcement agency shall consider the availability of alternative housing for the residents, and shall, if alternative housing is not available, grant the residents a reasonable period of time, as determined by the enforcement agency, to find alternative housing.
- SEC. 5.5. Section 17050 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- 17050. (a) Except as provided in Section 18930, the Department of Housing and Community Development may promulgate rules and regulations to interpret and make specific this part and when adopted those rules and regulations shall apply to all parts of the state.

- (b) Upon written notice to the Department of Housing and Community Development, any city, county, or city and county may assume the responsibility for the enforcement of this part, the building standards published in the State Building Standards Code relating to labor camps, and the other regulations adopted pursuant to this part following approval by the department for that assumption.
- (c) The Department of Housing and Community Development shall adopt regulations which shall set forth the conditions for assumption and may include required qualifications of local enforcement agencies. When assumption is approved, the department shall transfer the responsibility for enforcement to the city, county, or city and county, together with all records of labor camps within its jurisdiction.
- (d) A city, county, or city and county may, by ordinance, establish a schedule of fees for the operation of labor camps not to exceed that which is established by the department.
- (e) In the event of nonenforcement of this part, the building standards published in the State Building Standards Code relating to labor camps, or the other rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this part, the department shall enforce this part, the building standards published in the State Building Standards Code relating to labor camps, and the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this part in any city, county, or city and county after the department has given written notice to the governing body of the city, county, or city and county setting forth in what respects the city, county, or city and county has failed to discharge its responsibility, and has failed to initiate corrective measures to carry out its responsibility within 30 days of the date of the notice. However, on or after January 1, 1987. in the event the local enforcement agency has failed to initiate adequate and reasonable corrective measures to carry out its responsibility, as determined by the department, within 30 days of the date of notice of one or more specific examples of nonenforcement, the department, at its option, may undertake investigation and enforcement of the alleged violations of this part within the local enforcement agency's jurisdiction, and the local enforcement agency shall be liable to the department and the Attorney General for the actual costs of the investigation and enforcement by these state agencies.
- (f) The department shall conduct an annual evaluation of the enforcement of this part, the building standards published in the State Building Standards Code relating to labor camps, and the other regulations adopted pursuant to this part by each city, county, or city and county which has assumed responsibility for enforcement.
- (g) Except as provided in Section 18945, the department shall be sole judge as to whether the local enforcement agency is properly enforcing the provisions. Except as provided in Section 18945, the local enforcement agency shall have the right to appeal the decision to the department.

- (h) Any city, county, or city and county, upon written notice from the governing body to the department, may cancel its assumption of responsibility for the enforcement of these provisions. The department, upon receipt of that notice, shall assume the responsibility within 30 days.
  - (i) The enforcement agency may:
- (1) Enter public or private properties to determine whether there exists any labor camp to which this part applies.
- (2) Enter and inspect all labor camps wheresoever situated, and inspect all accommodations, equipment, or paraphernalia connected therewith.
- (3) Enter and inspect the land adjacent to the labor camp to determine whether the sanitary and other requirements of this part, the building standards published in the State Building Standards Code relating to labor camps, and the other rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this part have been or are being complied with.

SEC. 6. Section 17056 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

- 17056. (a) In every part of the state, notwithstanding assumption of responsibilities by local enforcement agencies pursuant to Section 17050, the department shall establish procedures and devote resources to locating and prosecuting the most serious violators of this part and those who refuse to apply for or obtain permits to operate pursuant to this part, as determined by the department.
- (b) The department shall maximize the efforts of personnel implementing this part by seeking to use new resources and nontraditional means, by coordinating with state, local, and federal agencies and by training and coordinating with local health and building departments. The department shall schedule its activities pursuant to this subdivision in a manner so as to survey the entire state on or before July 1, 1989.
- (c) All of the requirements of this part shall be performed by civil service employees of the department who, to the extent feasible, shall be bilingual in Spanish and English.
- (d) The Legislative Analyst shall provide a report to the Legislature, as part of the report on the Governor's 1987-88 Budget, and annually thereafter, as needed, as determined by the Legislative Analyst, which describes in detail the implementation of this part. The report shall also include the approximate level of personnel years allocated for the purposes of this section, the number of new permits to operate issued or number of prosecutions undertaken, all fines and civil penalities collected, and other relevant information. The department shall provide any information necessary for the Legislative Analyst to prepare this report. Each report also shall include proposed amendments to this part which would facilitate the provision and maintenance of housing consistent with the requirements of this part, and enforcement of this part.

SEC. 7. Section 17060.2 is added to the Health and Safety Code,

- 17060.2. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the operator of a labor camp shall provide a resident of every unit in the labor camp with a written copy in English and Spanish of every order or notice of violation issued by an enforcement agency. This copy may be provided by first class mail or by posting a copy of the notice in a prominent place on each residential unit.
- (b) The enforcement agency or a court of competant jurisdiction may, in cases of extreme hardship to tenants of labor camps, provide for deferral of the effective date of orders of abatement. Any deferral of the effective date of any order of abatement shall include conditions, including, but not limited to, payment of rent to an appropriate receiver, which will ensure progress towards correcting defects, or assist in relocation of tenants prior to closure of the labor camp.
- SEC. 8. Section 17061.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- 17061.5. (a) Any person who is convicted pursuant to Section 17061 for a second or subsequent time within a five-year period or is convicted pursuant to subdivision (d) for a first or subsequent time within a five-year period after issuance of an injunction enforcing this chapter shall be punishable by a fine not to exceed two thousand dollars ($2,000) or by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or both such fine and imprisonment.
- (b) Any person found in contempt of a court order or injunction pursuant to Section 17060 within a five-year period from its issuance shall be subject to civil penalties not to exceed two thousand dollars ($2,000) or by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or both such civil penalty and imprisonment.
- (c) If an injunction enforcing this chapter is issued within a five-year period after a conviction pursuant to subdivision (a), a finding of contempt pursuant to subdivision (b), or a prior injunction enforcing this chapter, the injunction shall provide for a civil penalty not to exceed two thousand dollars ($2,000) and all costs of enforcement, including, but not limited to, investigative costs and attorneys' fees.
- (d) Any person found in contempt of a court order or injunction pursuant to Section 17060, or who is convicted pursuant to Section 17061, for a second or subsequent time within a five-year period after a prior finding of contempt, a prior conviction, or the prior issuance of an injunction relating to the enforcement of this chapter, where there are violations that are determined by the trier of fact to be so extensive and of such a nature that the immediate health and safety of residents or the public is endangered and where the extent and nature of the violations are due to the defendant's habitual neglect of customary maintenance and display a flagrant lack of concern for the health and safety of residents or the public, shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars ($2,000) and by imprisonment for not less than six months, but not exceeding one year, if the trier of fact finds at least three serious violations of the following categories of violations are involved:

- (1) Termination, extended interruption, or serious defects of gas, water, or electric utility systems, if the interruption or termination is not caused by the tenant's failure to pay gas, water, or electric bills.
  - (2) Serious defects or lack of adequate space and water heating.
  - (3) Serious rodent, vermin, or insect infestation.
- (4) Severe deterioration, rendering significant portions of the structure unsafe or unsanitary.
  - (5) Inadequate numbers of garbage receptacles or service.
- (6) Unsanitary conditions affecting a significant portion of the structure as a result of faulty plumbing or sewage disposal.
- SEC. 9. Section 17062 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- 17062. (a) Fines and civil penalties collected pursuant to this part shall be paid to the enforcement agency which had the major responsibility for investigating and seeking correction of the violations. Any state or local agency which participated in the investigation and enforcement pursuant to this part may seek reimbursement of its costs prior to and subsequent to the judgment.
- (b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, upon motion by the enforcement agency, the operator, or the tenants, the court may issue an order which would result in correction of defects, rather than closure of the labor camp. The order may provide, notwithstanding subdivision (a), that fines and penalties be paid for improvements, or that a lien be levied against the property to pay the costs of an independent receiver to complete repairs, or any other just and reasonable procedures.
- SEC. 10. No reimbursement is required by Sections 7 and 8 of this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.
- SEC. 11. Pursuant to Section 17579 of the Government Code, the Legislature finds that there is no mandate contained in Section 5 of this act which will result in costs incurred by a local agency or school district for a new program or higher level of service which require reimbursement pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 1496

An act to add Chapter 3.65 (commencing with Section 1597.80) to Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Section 11170 of the Penal Code, relating to child care, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the Phillips/Reeves In-Home Child Protection Act of 1987.

SEC. 2. Chapter 3.65 (commencing with Section 1597.80) is added to Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 3.65. PROFESSIONAL CHILD CARE PROVIDERS

1597.80. (a) Parents or legal guardians may submit a written request to the Department of Justice asking that the background of a prospective professional child care provider be examined as is done by the State Department of Social Services for applications which are submitted for child day care licenses pursuant to Sections 1596.871 and 1596.877.

The written request shall be accompanied by a signed letter from the prospective professional child care provider granting permission for release of the background information.

(b) "Professional child care provider" for the purposes of this chapter means a person 18 years of age or older who, at the request and consent of a parent or legal guardian, legally provides care during a part of any 24-hour period for the children of, and is compensated by, the parent or legal guardian, and who is not required to be licensed pursuant to Section 1596.80.

1597.81. The fingerprints shall be obtained in the same manner as they are obtained under Section 1596.871 and submitted to the Department of Justice for review.

1597.82. The Department of Justice may charge any necessary fees to the parent submitting the request to cover all expenses incurred by the Department of Justice in making this review.

The Department of Justice may adopt regulations establishing a fee schedule for this purpose. The amount of the fee shall be set at a level so that the revenues collected by the fees are adequate to cover the costs incurred pursuant to this chapter. Fees collected shall be deposited in the General Fund. However, a parent who is a participant in the Greater Avenues for Independence Act of 1985 (Article 3.2 (commencing with Section 11320) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code), or is a recipient of aid under the families with dependent children program, county general assistance program, or state supplementary program for the aged, blind, and disabled, shall only be charged the fingerprint processing fee by the Department of Justice.

- 1597.83. (a) If criminal conviction information is found, the Department of Justice shall notify the prospective professional child care provider in writing first that pertinent criminal conviction information has been found; however, the actual conviction information shall not be divulged.
- (b) The prospective professional child care provider shall have 15 days to request that the information not be sent to the parent so that the provider may appeal sending the information.
- (c) If the conviction was for a crime that could not be granted an exemption if the prospective professional child care provider were applying for a day care license, the parent or legal guardian shall be immediately notified that there is pertinent criminal conviction information and no appeal is possible for the provider.

In the event that the conviction was for a crime that could be granted an exemption if the prospective professional child care provider were applying for a day care license, the prospective professional child care provider shall have 15 days to appeal the release of the information. Upon receipt by the department of the appeal, the appeal shall be set for hearing. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and the department has all the powers granted in that chapter.

- (d) The Department of Justice shall adopt regulations which are parallel to those used by the State Department of Social Services in determining whether a person applying for a day care license may be granted an exemption to work in a day care facility despite a criminal conviction.
- (e) If an appeal is requested, the Department of Justice shall make the determination with 30 days, based upon the regulations adopted, and then notify the parent or legal guardian whether there is pertinent criminal conviction information.
- 1597.84. (a) The Department of Justice shall maintain and continually update an index of reports and convictions of child abuse by a professional child care provider for which it has received a written request pursuant to Section 1597.80. The Department of Justice shall investigate these reports received from the Child Abuse Registry pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 11170 of the Penal Code to determine if the child abuse by the professional child care provider is substantial. Parents who submit a written request concerning a professional child care provider pursuant to Section 1597.80, as well as the professional child care provider, shall be notified of the results of any future investigation that determines the professional child care provider's child abuse is substantial and any future child abuse convictions of that provider. [Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

SECTION 1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares as follows:

(a) Offshore oil and natural gas exploration, production, processing, recovery, and transportation pose a serious threat to the state's coastal environment.

- (b) Earthquakes, violent storms, and dense fog are common off the California coast, and must be anticipated by any person engaging in offshore oil or gas exploration, recovery, or transportation. Certain areas of the California coast are well known to be particularly dangerous, and accidents can be avoided by not locating offshore wells, facilities, or pipelines in these areas.
- (c) It is inevitable that there will be oil spills and other accidents as a result of undersea exploration, recovery, processing, production, and transportation of oil and natural gas, and the transportation of oil or natural gas in pipelines or vessels, off the California coast.
- SEC. 2. Section 294 is added to the Harbors and Navigation Code, to read:
- 294: (a) Any person responsible for natural gas, oil, drilling waste, or exploration, as defined in paragraph (4) of subdivision (g), shall be absolutely liable without regard to fault for any damages incurred by any injured party which arise out of, or are caused by, the discharge or leaking of natural gas, oil, or drilling waste into or onto marine waters, or by any exploration in or upon marine waters, from any of the following sources:
- (1) Any offshore well or undersea site at which there is exploration for or extraction or recovery of natural gas or oil.
- (2) Any offshore facility, oil rig, or oil platform at which there is exploration for, or extraction, recovery, processing, or storage of, natural gas or oil.
- (3) Any vessel offshore in which natural gas, oil, or drilling waste is transported, processed, or stored.
- (4) Any pipeline located offshore in which natural gas, oil, or drilling waste is transported.
- (b) A responsible person is not liable to an injured party under this section for any of the following:
- (1) Damages, other than costs of removal incurred by the state or a local government, caused solely by any act of war, hostilities, civil war, or insurrection or by an unanticipated grave natural disaster or other act of God of an exceptional, inevitable, and irresistible character, which could not have been prevented or avoided by the exercise of due care or foresight.
- (2) Damages caused solely by the negligence or intentional malfeasance of that injured party.
- (3) Damages caused solely by the criminal act of a third party other than the defendant or an agent or employee of the defendant.
  - (4) Natural seepage not caused by a responsible party.
- (5) Discharge or leaking of oil or natural gas from a private pleasure boat or vessel.
- (6) Damages which arise out of, or are caused by, a discharge which is authorized by a state or federal permit.
- (c) Upon motion and sufficient showing by a person deemed to be responsible under this section, the court shall join to the action any other person who may be responsible under this section.

- (d) In determining whether a party is a responsible person under this section, the court shall consider the results of any chemical or other scientific tests conducted to determine whether oil or other substances produced, discharged, or controlled by the defendant matches the oil or other substance which caused the damage to the injured party. The defendant shall have the burden of producing the results of tests of samples of the substance which caused the injury and of substances for which the defendant is responsible, unless it is not possible to conduct the tests because of unavailability of samples to test or because the substance is not one for which reliable tests have been developed. At the request of any party, any other party shall provide samples of oil or other substances within its possession or control for testing.
- (e) The court may award reasonable costs of the suit, attorneys' fees, and the costs of any necessary expert witnesses, to any prevailing plaintiff. The court may award reasonable costs of the suit and attorneys' fees to any prevailing defendant if the court finds that the plaintiff commenced or prosecuted the suit under this section in bad faith or solely for purposes of harassing the defendant.
- (f) This section does not prohibit any person from bringing an action for damages caused by natural gas, oil, or drilling waste, or by exploration, under any other provision or principle of law, including, but not limited to, common law. However, damages shall not be awarded pursuant to this section to an injured party for any loss or injury for which the party is or has been awarded damages under any other provision or principle of law. Subdivision (b) does not create any defense not otherwise available regarding any action brought under any other provision or principle of law, including, but not limited to, common law.
  - (g) As used in this section, the following definitions apply:
  - (1) "Damages" are damages for any of the following:
  - (A) Injury or harm to real or personal property.
  - (B) Business loss, including loss of income.
- (C) Costs of cleanup, removal, or treatment of natural gas, oil, or drilling waste.

"Oil" does not include oil carried in a vessel for use as fuel in that vessel.
- (6) "Person" means an individual, proprietorship, firm, partnership, joint venture, corporation, or other business entity, or an association or other organization.

"Responsible party" does not include the United States, the state, or any public agency.

- (i) Liability under this section shall be joint and several. However, this section does not bar a cause of action that a responsible party has or would have, by reason of subrogation or otherwise, against any person.
- (j) Section 3291 of the Civil Code shall apply to actions brought under this section.
- (k) This section does not apply to claims for damages for personal injury or wrongful death, and does not limit the right of any person to bring an action for personal injury or wrongful death under any provision or theory of law.
- SEC. 3. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

identify a potentially responsible party.

- (2) The potentially responsible party is subject to an order issued, or an enforceable agreement entered into, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25355.5 and the department has determined that the party is not in compliance with the order or agreement.
- (3) The potentially responsible party has entered into an enforceable agreement with the department, and the department has entered into a contract for removal or remedial action at the site.
- (4) The department determines that immediate corrective action is necessary, pursuant to Section 25354, and that no potentially responsible party is ready, willing, and able to take that action.
- (5) The director determines that removal or remedial action at the site is necessary because there may be an imminent and substantial endangerment to the public health or welfare, or to the environment, and that no potentially responsible party is ready, willing, and able to take that action.
- (c) The director may enter into a contract to hold harmless and indemnify any response action contractor against any liability specified in subdivision (a), including the expenses of litigation or settlement, pursuant to the determinations specified in subdivision (d) and the requirements specified in subdivision (e).
- (d) Before entering into a contract pursuant to this section, the director shall obtain the approval of the Director of Finance. The Director of Finance may authorize the director to enter into a contract to hold harmless and indemnify any response action contractor against any liability specified in subdivision (a), including the expense of litigation or settlement, upon making all of the following determinations:

- (1) The contract provides that the liability of the response action contractor is required to arise from conduct which does not constitute gross negligence or intentional misconduct.
- (2) The response action contractor demonstrates to the Department of Finance that it is not covered by insurance available at a fair and reasonable price and that this insurance is unlikely to become available. The Department of Finance may adopt regulations to implement this requirement.
- (3) The response action contractor is required to assume liability up to a fixed dollar amount which, in the opinion of the Director of Finance, is sufficiently high, in relationship to the contract amount and the work to be performed, to ensure that the contractor will use appropriate diligence to avoid careless acts or omissions, but not so high as to create such a substantial financial risk that the contractor cannot feasibly perform the work.
- (4) There is a fixed dollar amount limit to the total liability of the state to indemnify the response action contractor.
- (5) There are no other contractors which possess insurance for the costs, damages, and expenses specified in subdivision (a) and the department has determined that there are no other contractors which are available to perform the work and are as qualified as the response action contractor proposed to be indemnified.
- (e) The department may enter into a contract to indemnify and hold harmless a response action contractor pursuant to this section, only if the department also complies with all of the following requirements:
- (1) The department shall not expend any funds to provide indemnity pursuant to this section unless this indemnity is required to ensure that an approved removal and remedial action can be implemented.
- (2) The Department of General Services reviews and approves the contract.
- (3) The department notifies the Chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee within 30 days, or within the lesser period determined by the chairperson, before purchasing any indemnity, regarding the necessity for the indemnity. The notification shall contain information showing the department's compliance with this section.
- (f) The indemnity provided by this section shall not apply to claims for which the state establishes, in accordance with subdivision (g), that the response action contractor has not complied with all applicable requirements imposed by the state pursuant to the contract.
- (g) The state shall notify the response action contractor, within 30 days after work is required to be performed, whenever it alleges that the response action contractor has not complied with any contract requirements applicable to that work. Subdivision (f) shall only apply to claims arising out of work for which the notice required by this subdivision has been given.

- (h) For purposes of this section, "response action contractor" means any person who entered into a contract with the department to take removal or remedial action pursuant to this chapter in response to a release or threatened release, including any subcontractors of the response action contractor.
- (i) For purposes of this section, "removal and remedial action" includes, besides those actions specified in Sections 25322 and 25323, actions taken to characterize a site, actions taken to prepare and implement a remedial action plan, and actions taken to redispose of any waste resulting from the removal or remedial action.
- (j) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1990, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1990, deletes or extends that date.
- SEC. 3. Section 25364.7 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:
- 25364.7. The repeal of Section 25364.6 shall not affect any indemnity provided pursuant to that section for any cause of action brought because of any act or omission which occurs before the repeal of that section.

CHAPTER 1502

An act to amend Section 25149 of, and to add Section 25135.9 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- SECTION 1. Section 25135.9 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:
- 25135.9. (a) The department shall, pursuant to this section and subdivision (c) of Section 25170, prepare and adopt a state hazardous waste management plan. The state hazardous waste management plan shall serve as a comprehensive planning document for the state and shall be prepared as a useful informational source for the public, local government, and regional councils of government. The state hazardous waste management plan shall be prepared in conjunction with, and shall take into account, hazardous waste management plans and the hazardous waste portions of county solid waste management plans adopted by counties and regional councils of governments.
- (b) The state hazardous waste management plan shall be prepared and adopted by the department on or before July 1, 1988, shall be reviewed annually, and shall be revised to reflect new information at least once every three years.
  - (c) In preparing and adopting the state hazardous waste management plan, and in revising the plan thereafter, the department shall do all of the following:

- (1) Publish the draft plan or the revised plan and make it available to the public for review and comment at least three months before final adoption.
- (2) Conduct workshops and at least two public hearings on the plan or the draft revised plan, one in the southern part of the state and one in the northern part of the state, to solicit the views of the public, local government, regional councils of governments, and interested parties.
- (3) Include in the final state hazardous waste management plan and in revisions of the plan, a summary of the comments received and the department's responses to those comments.
- (d) The state hazardous waste management plan, and each revision of the plan, shall include, but need not be limited to, all of the following elements:
- (1) An analysis of the hazardous waste streams produced in the state, an accounting of the volumes of hazardous waste produced in each county and region of the state, by type of waste, and estimates of the expected rates of hazardous waste production, by type of waste, during the next five years.
- (2) An inventory of existing and planned hazardous waste facilities which handle, treat, recycle, dispose, or otherwise manage hazardous wastes produced in the state. The inventory shall include a description of the facilities, a determination of the capacity of each existing or planned facility to handle, treat, recycle, dispose, or otherwise manage the waste streams it is authorized to handle, treat, recycle, dispose, or otherwise manage, and a description of the current progress and status of each planned facility in achieving operational status, including a timetable for becoming operational.
- (3) An assessment of the need for additional hazardous waste facilities to manage the volumes of hazardous waste currently produced or which are expected to be produced during the next five years.
- (4) An identification of the areas or regions of the state where new or expanded capacity to manage hazardous wastes are needed and the types of facilities that should be sited and constructed.
- (5) A description of the policies, programs, incentives, requirements, prohibitions, or other measures which, if implemented, would reduce or eliminate the need for new or expanded facilities.
- (6) A statement of goals, objectives, and policies currently in effect, or in the process of development, for the siting of hazardous waste facilities and the management of hazardous wastes during the next five years.
- (7) A schedule of recommended actions, including specific dates, for carrying out state, regional, and local actions to implement the state hazardous waste management plan.
  - SEC. 2. Section 25149 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

- (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, except as 25149. provided in Section 25149.5 or 25181 of this code or Section 731 of the Code of Civil Procedure, no city or county, whether chartered or general law, or district may enact, issue, enforce, suspend, revoke, or modify any ordinance, regulation, law, license, or permit relating to an existing hazardous waste facility so as to prohibit or unreasonably regulate the disposal, treatment, or recovery of resources from hazardous waste or a mix of hazardous and solid wastes at that facility, unless, after public notice and hearing, the director determines that the operation of the facility may present an imminent and substantial endangerment to health and the environment. However, nothing in this section authorizes an operator of that facility to violate any term or condition of a local land use permit or any other provision of law not in conflict with this section.
- (b) The director shall, pursuant to subdivision (c), conduct the hearing specified in subdivision (a) to determine whether the operation of an existing hazardous waste facility may present an imminent and substantial endangerment to health and the environment whenever any of the following occurs:
- (1) A state or federal public agency requires any person to evacuate a residence or requires the evacuation of a school, place of employment, commercial establishment, or other facility to which the public has access, because of the release of a hazardous substance from the facility.
- (2) For more than five days in any month, the air emissions from the facility result in the violation of an emission standard for a hazardous air pollutant established pursuant to Section 7412 of Title 42 of the United States Code or the threshold exposure level for a toxic air contaminant, as defined in Section 39655.
- (3) A state or federal public agency requires that the use of a source of drinking water be discontinued because of the contamination of the source by a release of hazardous waste, hazardous substances, or leachate from the facility.
- (4) A state agency, or the board of supervisors of the county in which the facility is located, upon recommendation of its local health officer, makes a finding that the public health has been affected by a release of hazardous wastes from the facility. The finding shall be based on statistically significant data developed in a health effects study conducted according to a study design, and using a methodology, which are developed after considering the suggestions on study design and methodology made by interested parties and which are approved by the Epidemiological Studies Section in the Epidemiology and Toxicology Branch of the department before beginning the study.
- (5) The owner or operator of the facility is in violation of an order issued pursuant to Section 25187 which requires one or both of the following:

- (A) The correction of a violation or condition that has resulted, or threatens to result, in an unauthorized release of hazardous waste or a constituent of hazardous waste from the facility into either the onsite or offsite environment.
- (B) The cleanup of a release of hazardous waste or a constituent of hazardous waste, the abatement of the effects of the release, and any other necessary remedial action.
- (6) The facility is in violation of an order issued pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 13300) of, or Article 2 (commencing with Section 13320) of, Chapter 5 of Division 7 of the Water Code or in violation of a temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction, or permanent injunction issued pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 13340) of Chapter 5 of Division 7 of the Water Code.
- (c) Whenever the director determines that a hearing is required, as specified in subdivision (b), the director shall immediately request the Office of Administrative Hearings to assign a hearing officer to conduct the hearing, pursuant to this subdivision.
- (1) After a hearing officer is assigned by the Office of Administrative Hearings, the director shall transmit to the hearing officer and to the operator of the existing hazardous waste facility, all relevant documents, information, and data that were the basis for the director's determination. The director shall also prepare a notice specifying the time and place of the hearing. The notice shall also include a clear statement of the reasons for conducting the hearing, a description of the facts, data, circumstances, or occurrences that are the cause for conducting the hearing, and the issues to be addressed at the hearing. The hearing shall be held as close to the location of the existing hazardous waste facility as is practicable and shall commence no later than 30 days following the director's request to the Office of Administrative Hearings to assign a hearing officer to the case.
- (2) The hearing specified in paragraph (1) shall be conducted in accordance with Sections 11510 to 11515, inclusive, and Section 11525, of the Government Code. The hearing officer's proposed decision shall be transmitted to the director within 30 days after the case is submitted.
- (3) The director may adopt the proposed decision of the hearing officer in its entirety or may decide the case upon the record, as provided in Section 11517 of the Government Code. The director's decision shall be in writing and shall contain findings of fact and a determination of the issues presented. The decision is subject to judicial review in accordance with Section 11523 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 1503

An act to add Article 3.8 (commencing with Section 8574.11) to Chapter 7 of Division 1 of Title 2 of the Government Code, relating to hazardous substances, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 3.8 (commencing with Section 8574.11) is added to Chapter 7 of Division 1 of Title 2 of the Government Code, to read:

Article 3.8. Hazardous Substances Emergency Response Training

8574.11. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares that, in order to protect the public health and safety and the environment, and to reduce personal injury and property loss resulting from the sudden release of hazardous substances into the environment, it is necessary to establish a single, coordinated, and standardized hazardous substances incident response training and education plan for firefighters and law enforcement, emergency rescue, and environmental health personnel. A standardized hazardous substances incident response training and education program is necessary to ensure a coordinated emergency response capability throughout the state, and to eliminate duplicative and inconsistent hazardous substances emergency response training and education programs.

(b) In enacting this article, the Legislature recognizes that it is necessary to designate a single state agency to be responsible for the development of minimum standards relative to course content and subject matter for training and education of hazardous substance incident response personnel in order to avoid duplication of effort and inconsistent applications of safety procedures and protocols. The Legislature does not intend, by enacting this article, to preempt or nullify any hazardous substance incident response procedures and protocols which take into account existing conditions peculiar to a locality or region.

(c) For purposes of this article, "program" means the California Hazardous Substances Incident Response Training and Education Program established pursuant to Section 8574.12.

8574.12. Not later than 18 months after the effective date of this article, the Office of Emergency Services shall establish and manage the California Hazardous Substances Incident Response Training and Education Program to provide approved classes in hazardous substance response, taught by trained instructors, and to certify students who have completed these classes. To carry out this program, the Office of Emergency Services shall do all of the following:

- (a) Adopt regulations necessary to implement the program.
- (b) Establish a training and education program by developing the curriculum to be used in the program in colleges, academies, the California Specialized Training Institute, and other educational institutions, as specified in Section 8574.13.
- (c) Establish recommended minimum standards for training emergency response personnel and instructors, including, but not limited to, fire, police, and environmental health personnel.
- (d) Make available a training and education program in the use of hazardous substances emergency rescue, safety, and monitoring equipment, on a voluntary basis, at the California Specialized Training Institute.
- (e) Train and certify instructors at the California Specialized Training Institute according to standards and procedures developed by the curriculum development advisory committee, as specified in Section 8574.13.
- (f) Approve classes, as meeting the requirements of the program, if the classes meet the curriculum developed by the Office of Emergency Services pursuant to Section 8574.13 and the instructor received training and certification at the California Specialized Training Institute, as specified in subdivision (e).
- (g) Certify students who have successfully completed a class approved as meeting the requirements of the program.
  - (h) Review and revise, as necessary, the program.
- (i) Establish and collect admission fees and other fees that may be necessary to be charged for advanced or specialized training given at the California Specialized Training Institute. These fees shall be used to offset costs incurred pursuant to this article.
- 8574.13. (a) Not later than one year after the effective date of this article, the Office of Emergency Services shall develop the curriculum to be used in classes which meet the program requirements and shall adopt standards and procedures for training instructors at the California Specialized Training Institute.
- (b) The curriculum for the training and education program established pursuant to this article shall include all of the following aspects of hazardous substance incident response actions:
  - (1) First responder training.
  - (2) On-scene manager training.
- (3) Hazardous substance incident response training for management personnel.
  - (4) Environmental monitoring.
  - (5) Hazardous substance release investigations.
  - (6) Hazardous substance incident response activities at ports.

- (3) The State Department of Health Services.
- (4) The Department of Fish and Game.
- (5) The State Water Resources Control Board.
- (6) The Department of the California Highway Patrol.
- (7) The California Police Chiefs' Association.
- (8) The California Fire Chiefs' Association.

- (20) The California State University.
- (21) The Federated Firefighters of California.
- (22) The California Association of Highway Patrolmen.
- (23) The California State Police Association.
- (d) The curriculum development advisory committee shall advise the Office of Emergency Services on the development of course curricula and the standards and procedures specified in subdivision (a). In advising the Office of Emergency Services, the committee shall do both of the following:
- (1) Assist, and cooperate with, representatives of the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges in developing the course curricula.
- (2) Ensure that the curriculum developed pursuant to this section is accredited by the State Board of Fire Services.
- (e) The representative from the Office of Emergency Services shall serve as the chairperson of the curriculum development advisory committee.
- (f) After the course curricula and standards are established pursuant to subdivision (a), the curriculum development advisory committee shall meet at least once each year to review the program and advise the Office of Emergency Services on any required revisions.

- (i) Upon completion of instructor training and certification pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 8574.12 by any employee of the Department of the California Highway Patrol, the Commissioner of the Department of the California Highway Patrol may deem any training programs taught by that employee to be equivalent to any training program meeting the requirements established pursuant to this article.

8574.14. The Office of Emergency Services may hire professional and clerical staff pursuant to the State Civil Service Act (Part 2 (commencing with Section 18500) of Division 5 of Title 2 of the Government Code). However, any person employed pursuant to this section shall be employed only at the California Specialized Training Institute.

8574.15. Not later than 18 months after the effective date of this article, the Office of Emergency Services shall submit a report to the Legislature concerning the implementation of this article, including the locations of any classes and any recommendations for future legislative or administrative action.

SEC. 2. The sum of two hundred forty-five thousand dollars ($245,000) is hereby appropriated from the Hazardous Waste Control Account in the General Fund to the Office of Emergency Services for developing curriculum and standards and procedures for training instructors pursuant to Section 8574.13 of the Government Code and for carrying out Article 3.8 (commencing with Section 8547.11) of Chapter 7 of Division 1 of Title 2 of the Government Code, subject to the requirements of Section 8574.14 of the Government Code.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to develop and implement critical training and education capabilities at the earliest possible time in order to reduce threats to the safety of life and property in California, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1504

An act to add Sections 65963.1 and 66780.8 to the Government Code, and to amend and renumber Section 25117.7 of, to add Sections 25117.2, 25173.5, 25200.1, and 25200.2 to, to add Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 25135) and Article 8.7 (commencing with Section 25199) to Chapter 6.5 of Division 20 of, and to repeal Sections 25135.8 and 25204 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

- (1) The quality of life of the citizens of this state is based upon a large variety of consumer goods produced by the manufacturing economy of the state. The complex industrial processes that produce these goods also generate waste byproducts, some of which are hazardous to the public health and the environment.
- (2) Safe and responsible management of hazardous wastes is one of the most important environmental problems facing the state at the present time. This management is critical to the protection of the public health and the environment and also to the economic growth of the state. If environmentally sound hazardous waste facilities are not available to effectively manage the hazardous wastes produced by the many industries of the state, the state's economic activity will be hampered and cannot prosper, public health and the environment will be threatened by the increased illegal disposal, and the use of outmoded disposal practices will continue.
- (3) A solution to the safe and responsible management of hazardous wastes requires an effective planning process that involves local and state governments, the public, and industry. The process must provide a more expeditious method than presently exists for siting needed hazardous waste management facilities and granting the necessary permits. The process also must provide a means for ensuring that needed facilities are environmentally sound, do not pose a threat to the public health and safety, and will not be rejected because of local opposition.
- (4) A solution to the safe and responsible management of hazardous wastes also requires improved programs of waste source reduction and recycling, and encouraging onsite treatment of hazardous wastes, as preferable to the siting of new land disposal facilities. The goal of this act, which recognizes the long-term health, environmental, and economic risks of hazardous waste land disposal, is to prevent hazardous waste from being permanently disposed into land, or emitted into the air, without being processed by an economically and technically feasible alternative technology. Attaining this goal will require the development of feasible programs which should result in the reduction of the volume and hazard of hazardous wastes at their source, and the development of expanded recycling programs for hazardous waste. This goal also requires that, as an alternative to traditional land disposal methods, residuals repositories be utilized for the byproducts of preferred hazardous waste treatment technologies. Because of the threat to public health and safety posed by the traditional land disposal of hazardous wastes, it is necessary that these methods of dealing with hazardous wastes

- (5) The safe transport of hazardous wastes from the source of generation to the point of ultimate disposal is an important element in the total management of hazardous waste. Strong enforcement of existing law regarding the manifest system, vehicle safety, and emergency response preparedness must be assured to provide for the full protection of public health and the environment.
- (6) Monitoring of hazardous waste management facilities and the effective enforcement of existing federal and state hazardous waste regulations are also essential to protect the public health and environment and to meet the public's concerns regarding the acceptance of needed new hazardous waste management facilities.
- (7) An assurance of an adequate system which provides for full compensation for injury and damage found to be caused by hazardous waste is central to protecting the public health, safety, and welfare.
- (b) The Legislature, therefore, declares that it is in the public interest to establish a state policy that has the objective of ensuring that safe, effective, and economical facilities for the management of hazardous wastes are available when they are needed, and that these facilities are of a type, and operated and monitored in a manner, which protects public health and the environment. The principles underlying this policy include all of the following:
- (1) Because the state's economy and quality of life are dependent on many substances and products that result in the production of hazardous wastes, all Californians must share in the responsibility for finding safe and effective solutions to the management and disposal of hazardous wastes, including efforts to reduce the amount and hazard of this waste.
- (2) Local government, state government, the public, and industry need to form a partnership in an effort to plan for, and site, needed treatment and disposal facilities.
- (3) Even though suitable sites for treatment and disposal facilities may be limited, it is necessary that all local communities in the state be willing to share the burden of hazardous waste management and that all local governments consider the feasibility and appropriateness of identifying suitable sites for treatment and disposal facilities in their general plans.
- (4) While local land use planning and health, safety, and environmental requirements must be the basis for siting needed hazardous waste facilities, local facility siting decisions may not adequately consider the waste management needs of the region or of the state. Because of the need to consider the region's or state's waste management needs, procedures should be established for appealing the local rejection of needed and technically and environmentally sound hazardous waste facilities to a body with a regional or statewide perspective. However, an appeal of a hazardous waste facility, pursuant to Section 25199.9 of the Health and Safety Code, which is proposed for a rural area and which would receive hazardous waste from urban areas should not be approved, unless the hazardous waste facility is found consistent with the applicable city or county general plan and the county hazardous waste management plan, as specified in subdivision (f) of Section 25199.11 of the Health and Safety Code.

- SEC. 2. Section 65963.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:
- 65963.1. Except as otherwise provided in Article 8.7 (commencing with Section 25199) of Chapter 6.5 of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, this chapter applies to the making of a land use decision or the issuance of a permit for a hazardous waste facility project by a public agency, as defined in Section 25199.1 of the Health and Safety Code, including, but not limited to, all of the following actions:
- (a) The approval of land use permits and conditional use permits, the granting of variances, the subdivision of property, and the modification of existing property lines pursuant to this division or Division 2 (commencing with Section 66410) of Title 7, and, for purposes of this chapter, "project" includes an activity requiring any of those actions.
- (b) The issuance of hazardous waste facility permits by the State Department of Health Services pursuant to Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code.
- (c) The issuance of waste discharge requirements by California regional water quality control boards pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 13260) of Chapter 4 of Division 7 of the Water Code.
- (d) The issuance of authority to construct permits by the district board of an air pollution control district or an air quality management district pursuant to Division 26 (commencing with Section 39000) of the Health and Safety Code.
- (e) The issuance of solid waste facilities permits by the enforcement agency pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 66796.30) of Chapter 3 of Title 7.3.
- SEC. 3. Section 66780.8 is added to the Government Code, to read:
- 66780.8. In lieu of preparing a hazardous waste portion of the county solid waste plan as provided in this article, a county may, at its discretion, prepare a county hazardous waste management plan for the management of all hazardous wastes produced in the county. If a county decides to prepare a hazardous waste management plan instead of the hazardous waste portion of a county solid waste plan, the county shall notify the department of the decision. The county hazardous waste management plan shall be prepared, adopted, and approved pursuant to Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 25135) of Chapter 6.5 of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code.

A county may delegate the authority to prepare the county hazardous waste management plan to a city, an agency established - by a joint powers agreement, or any other special planning agency. SEC. 4. Section 25117.2 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

- 25117.2. "Hazardous waste management" means the disposal, handling, processing, storage, and treatment of hazardous waste.
- SEC. 5. Section 25117.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:
- 25117.1. "Hazardous waste facility" means any structure, other appurtenances, and improvements on the land, and all contiguous land, used for the treatment, transfer, storage, resource recovery, disposal, or recycling of hazardous waste.
- SEC. 6. Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 25135) is added to Chapter 6.5 of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 3.5. Hazardous Waste Management Plans

25135. (a) The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

- (1) An effective planning process involving public and private sector participation exists at the county level for establishing new, or expanding existing, solid waste facilities, but an equivalent process has not been established at the local level to plan for the management of hazardous wastes.
- (2) Counties are presently required to prepare solid waste management plans for all waste disposal within each county and for all waste originating in each county. While the department has requested that counties include in their solid waste management plans a hazardous waste management element, there is not presently a clear mandate that they do so.
- (3) Hazardous waste management planning at the local level has been hampered because the department has not provided the counties with adequate and comprehensive planning guidelines, there is a lack of accurate data on hazardous waste generation, handling, and disposal practices, adequate funding has not been available, and local expertise in hazardous waste planning has not been developed.
- (4) The failure to plan for the safe and effective management of hazardous wastes has contributed to the public's general uncertainty in viewing proposals to site hazardous waste facilities at various locations throughout the state. Because advance planning has not taken place, local governments are not prepared to consider siting proposals and the public has not received adequate answers to questions concerning the need for proposed facilities.
- (5) Safe and responsible management of hazardous wastes is one of the most important environmental problems facing the state at the present time. It is critical to the protection of the public health and the environment, and to the economic growth of the state. If environmentally sound hazardous waste facilities are not available to effectively manage the hazardous wastes produced by the many industries of the state, economic activity will be hampered and the economy cannot prosper.

- (b) The Legislature, therefore, declares that it is in the public interest to establish an effective process for hazardous waste management planning at the local level. This process is consistent with the responsibility of local governments to assure that adequate treatment and disposal capacity is available to manage the hazardous wastes generated within their jurisdictions.
- (c) It is the intent of the Legislature that the hazardous waste management plans prepared pursuant to this article serve as the primary planning document for hazardous waste management at the local level; that the plans be integrated with other local land use planning activities to ensure that suitable locations are available for needed hazardous waste facilities; that land uses adjacent to, or near, hazardous waste facilities, or proposed sites for these facilities, are compatible with their operation; and that the plans are prepared with the full and meaningful involvement of the public, environmental groups, civic associations, generators of hazardous wastes, and the hazardous waste management industry.
- (d) It is further the intent of the Legislature, in enacting this article, to define the respective responsibilities of state and local governments in hazardous waste management planning; to establish a comprehensive planning process in which state and local government, the public, and industry jointly develop safe and effective solutions for the management and disposal of hazardous wastes; to ensure that local governments are assisted adequately by the state in carrying out their responsibilities; and to provide funding for local-level planning.
- 25135.1. (a) For purposes of this article, and unless the context indicates otherwise, "county" means a county that notifies the department that it will prepare a county hazardous waste management plan in accordance with this article and receives a grant pursuant to Section 25135.8. "County" also means any city, or two or more cities within a county acting jointly, which notifies the department that it will prepare a county hazardous waste management plan in accordance with subdivision (c).
- (b) A county may, at its discretion, and after notification to the department, prepare a county hazardous waste management plan for the management of all hazardous waste produced in the county. A county hazardous waste management plan prepared pursuant to this article shall serve in lieu of the hazardous waste portion of the county solid waste plan provided for in Article 2 (commencing with Section 66780) of Chapter 2 of Title 7.3 of the Government Code. The county hazardous waste management plan shall be prepared in cooperation with the affected cities in the county and the advisory committee appointed pursuant to Section 25135.2, in accordance with the guidelines adopted by the department pursuant to Section 25135.5, and in accordance with the schedule specified in Section 25135.6.
  - (c) On or before March 31, 1987, every county shall notify the department and the cities within the county whether the county has elected to prepare a county hazardous waste management plan pursuant to this article. A city, or two or more cities acting jointly, located within a county which elects not to prepare a county hazardous waste management plan or which fails to make an election, on or before March 31, 1987, to prepare a plan, may, at the city's or cities' discretion, elect to undertake the preparation of the plan. The city or cities shall be deemed to be acting in place of the county for purposes of this article and may apply for funding to pay the cost of preparing the plan pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 25135.8. However, the city or cities may not receive funding pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 25135.8, unless the proposal to prepare a county hazardous waste management plan by the city or cities is approved by a majority of the cities within the county which contain a majority of the population of the incorporated area of the county and the proposal is received by the department on or before June 30, 1987.

- (d) The county hazardous waste management plan authorized by subdivision (b) or (c) shall serve as the primary planning document for hazardous waste management in the county and shall be prepared as a useful informational source for local government and the public. The plan shall include, but is not limited to, all of the following elements:
- (1) An analysis of the hazardous waste stream generated in the county, including an accounting of the volumes of hazardous wastes produced in the county, by type of waste, and estimates of the expected rates of hazardous waste production until 1994, by type of waste.
- (2) A description of the existing hazardous waste facilities which treat, handle, recycle, and dispose of the hazardous wastes produced in the county, including a determination of the existing capacity of each facility.
- (3) An analysis of the potential in the county for recycling hazardous waste and for reducing the volume and hazard of hazardous waste at the source of generation.
- (4) A consideration of the need to manage the small volumes of hazardous waste produced by businesses and households.
- (5) A determination of the need for additional hazardous waste facilities to properly manage the volumes of hazardous wastes currently produced or that are expected to be produced during the planning period.
- (6) An identification of those hazardous waste facilities that can be expanded to accommodate projected needs and an identification of general areas or specific sites for new hazardous waste facilities determined to be needed. In lieu of this facility and site identification, the plan may instead include siting criteria to be utilized in selecting sites for new hazardous waste facilities. If siting criteria are included in the county hazardous waste management plan, the plan shall also designate general areas where the criteria might be applicable.

- (7) A statement of goals, objectives, and policies for the siting of hazardous waste facilities and the general management of hazardous wastes through the year 2000.
- (8) A schedule which describes county and city actions necessary to implement the hazardous waste management plan through the year 2000, including the assigning of dates for carrying out the actions.
- (e) In addition to the elements of the plan required by subdivision (d), a county may include a description of any additional local programs which the county determines to be necessary to provide for the proper management of hazardous wastes produced in the county. These programs may include, but are not limited to, public education, enforcement, surveillance, transportation, and administration.
- (f) The inclusion of an element in a county hazardous waste management plan pursuant to subdivision (d) or (e) does not authorize the county to adopt a program which the county is not otherwise authorized to adopt under any other provision of law.
- 25135.2. (a) Each county shall establish an advisory committee of at least seven members to assist the county in the preparation and administration of the county hazardous waste management plan. The board of supervisors of the county shall appoint the members who are not city representatives to the advisory committee, including at least one representative of industry, one representative of an environmental organization, and one representative of the public. The advisory committee shall also consist of at least three members to represent cities appointed by the city selection committee specified in Article 11 (commencing with Section 50270) of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 1 of Title 5 of the Government Code. The board of supervisors shall, to the extent possible, appoint other members that have expertise concerning aspects of hazardous waste management planning, including, but not limited to, engineering, geology, and water quality.
  - (b) The advisory committee shall do all of the following:
- (1) Advise the county staff, the board of supervisors of the county, and the staff, mayors, and council members of the cities within the county, on issues related to the development, approval, and administration of the county hazardous waste management plan.
- (2) Hold informal public meetings and workshops to provide the public with information, and to receive comments, during the preparation of the county hazardous waste management plan.
- (c) If a city or group of cities are preparing the county hazardous waste management plan pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 25135.1, the city or cities shall establish the advisory committee, using the qualifications and representation specified in subdivision (a).
- 25135.3. The Association of Bay Area Governments, the Southern California Association of Governments, the Sacramento Area Council of Governments, and the Association of Monterey Bay Area

Governments may, at the discretion of their governing boards, prepare a regional hazardous waste management plan to serve as a resource document and to identify hazardous waste management issues, needs, and solutions at the regional level. A council of governments specified in this subdivision shall include in the regional plan additional counties affected by the regional plan, at the request of the councils of governments for those counties. A council of governments shall prepare the regional plan pursuant to the following procedure:

- (a) A council of governments specified in this subdivision may apply to the department for funding pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 25135.8.
- (b) On or before December 31, 1987, a council of governments which receives funding from the department shall prepare a draft regional hazardous waste management plan and submit the draft plan to the department. The council of governments shall involve the public with the preparation of the draft plan, to the fullest extent possible, by public hearings, informational meetings, and other appropriate forums that offer the public the opportunity to respond to clearly defined alternative objectives, policies, and actions.
- (c) From January 1, 1988, to March 31, 1988, the council of governments shall conduct hearings on the draft regional hazardous waste management plan, in the number determined appropriate by the council of governments. The council of governments shall provide affected local jurisdictions, the public, industry, business organizations, and the hazardous waste management industry with a full opportunity to comment orally and in writing on the draft plan.
- (d) On or before March 31, 1988, the department shall review the draft plan, and provide the council of governments with comments on the draft plan.
- (e) After conducting the review and comment period required by subdivision (c), the council of governments shall revise, as appropriate, the draft regional hazardous waste management plan.
- (f) On or before September 30, 1988, the council of governments shall complete and adopt the plan.
- (g) On or before October 1, 1988, the council of governments shall submit the final regional hazardous waste management plan adopted by its governing board to the department for review and approval. The department shall approve the regional plan if the department determines that all of the following requirements are met:
- (1) The regional plan is consistent with the guidelines for the preparation of regional hazardous waste management plans adopted by the department.
- (2) The regional plan applies the methods, techniques, and policies established by the department to analyze the waste stream and to determine whether there is a need for additional or expanded hazardous waste facilities to safely manage and properly dispose of the hazardous waste produced within the region.
  - (h) Throughout the process of preparing a regional hazardous waste management plan, a council of governments shall cooperate and consult with representatives and staff of affected counties and cities.

- (i) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) to (h), inclusive, of this section, if, pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 6500) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, a joint powers agreement provides for the creation of the Southern California Hazardous Waste Management Authority, the Southern California Association of Governments shall, if it has elected to prepare a regional hazardous waste management plan pursuant to this section. transfer the responsibility for preparing the regional hazardous waste management plan and all funds received pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 25135.8 to the authority, if the governing board of the authority requests the transfer by the adoption of a resolution. If the transfer takes place, the authority shall comply with this section in the same manner as this section applies to the association. If the transfer of responsibility and funds authorized by this subdivision takes place and the authority is dissolved at any time before the regional hazardous waste management plan is approved by the department, the association shall prepare the regional hazardous waste management plan and any remaining funds received pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 25135.8 shall be transferred back to the association.
- 25135.4. (a) No person shall establish or expand an offsite facility, unless the legislative body of the city or county in which the new offsite facility, or the expansion of an existing offsite facility, is proposed makes a determination that the facility or expansion is consistent with the county hazardous waste management plan.
- (b) This section applies only to proposed new offsite facilities, or expansions of existing offsite facilities, if an approval action pursuant to Title 7 (commencing with Section 65000) of the Government Code is necessary.
- (c) This section does not apply to cities or counties which do not have an approved county hazardous waste management plan.
- 25135.5. (a) The department shall, pursuant to this section, provide direction and technical data to counties and regional councils of governments to assist them in preparing planning documents for the management of hazardous wastes produced within their jurisdictions.
  - (b) The department shall do all of the following:
- (1) On or before June 30, 1987, after conducting a workshop with county and city government officials and industry and environmental representatives, prepare and transmit to counties and regional councils of governments guidelines for the preparation and adoption of county and regional hazardous waste management plans. Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code does not apply to the preparation and transmittal of these guidelines. The guidelines shall include, but are not limited to, all of the following:

- (A) A listing of types or categories of hazardous wastes that can be used in characterizing the hazardous waste stream in each county or region.
- (B) Methods for determining the capacity of the hazardous waste facilities that currently manage the hazardous wastes in the county or region and for assessing the capacity of these hazardous waste facilities to manage these hazardous wastes in the future.
- (C) Methods for assessing the need to establish new, or expand existing, capacity for the management of hazardous wastes produced in each county or region.
- (D) Methods for estimating the amounts of hazardous waste produced by small businesses and households.
- (2) On or before June 30, 1987, provide to each county and regional council of governments, all of the following information:
- (A) Available data on the types and quantities of hazardous wastes produced in the county or region. The department shall inform the counties and regional councils of governments of the strengths and limitations of the data.
- (B) A listing of the hazardous waste facilities that have received hazardous waste facilities permits or grants of interim status in each county or region. The listing shall specify whether the facilities are onsite or offsite facilities and whether the facilities are used for the storage, treatment, transfer, recycling, or disposal of hazardous waste.
- (C) A listing of producers of hazardous wastes known to the department in the county or region.
- (D) An assessment of overall needed capacities for treating and disposing of hazardous wastes at the state and regional levels through the year 1994.
- (É) A description of state policies and programs concerning the management of hazardous waste, including, but not limited to, the policies and programs for recycling various types of hazardous wastes, requiring the treatment of particular types of hazardous wastes, restricting the disposal to land of particular types or categories of hazardous wastes, encouraging the reduction of the amounts of hazardous waste produced at the source of production, and any other policies and programs that affect the need for additional management capacity in various types of hazardous waste facilities.
- (F) An assessment of the potential for recycling, or reducing the volume of, various types of hazardous wastes in various classes of industry.
- 25135.6. (a) A county shall prepare, review, and adopt the county hazardous waste management plan pursuant to the schedule specified in this section.
- (b) On or before December 31, 1987, each county, with the cooperation of affected local jurisdictions and the advisory committee established pursuant to Section 25135.2, shall prepare a draft county hazardous waste management plan and submit the draft plan to the department. The county shall involve the public with the preparation of the draft county hazardous waste management plan, to the fullest extent possible, by public hearings, informational meetings, and other appropriate forums that offer the public the opportunity to respond to clearly defined alternative objectives, policies, and actions.

- (c) From January 1, 1988, to March 31, 1988, inclusive, the county shall conduct hearings on the draft county hazardous waste management plan, in the number determined appropriate by the county. The county shall provide affected local jurisdictions, the public, industry, business organizations, and the hazardous waste management industry with the full opportunity to comment orally and in writing on the draft county hazardous waste management plan.
- (d) On or before March 31, 1988, the department shall review the draft plan, and provide each county with comments which specify the changes or additions which are required to be made to the draft plan to result in a final plan which can be approved by the department pursuant to Section 25135.7.
- (e) After conducting the review and comment period required by subdivision (c), each county shall revise, as appropriate, the draft county hazardous waste management plan.
- (f) The revised county hazardous waste management plan shall be approved by a majority of the cities within the county which contain a majority of the population of the incorporated area of the county. On or before September 30, 1988, the county shall adopt the revised county hazardous waste management plan as the final county hazardous waste management plan.
- 25135.7. (a) A county shall submit the final county hazardous waste management plan adopted by the county to the department for review and approval on or before October 1, 1988. If a county shows the department that the county has made substantial progress towards completing the county hazardous waste management plan and needs more time to complete the plan, the department may extend this date to February 1, 1989. The department shall, on or before December 31, 1988, or on or before April 30, 1989, if the county is given a time extension, review and either approve or disapprove the county hazardous waste management plan. The department shall approve the county hazardous waste management plan if the department makes all of the following determinations:
- (1) The plan substantially complies with the guidelines for the preparation of hazardous waste management plans adopted by the department.
- (2) The plan applies the methods, techniques, and policies established by the department to analyze the waste stream and to determine whether there is a need for additional or expanded hazardous waste facilities to safely manage and properly dispose of the hazardous waste generated within the county.
  - (3) If the plan contains a determination pursuant to paragraph (5)

- of subdivision (c) of Section 25135.1 that there is a need for additional or expanded hazardous waste facilities, the plan proposes general areas, or, as determined appropriate by the county, proposes specific sites which may be suitable locations for a facility. However, if the plan instead contains siting criteria for selecting sites for new hazardous waste facilities, the plan shall propose general areas where the criteria might be applicable.
- (4) If the county preparing the plan has entered into a formal agreement with other counties to manage hazardous waste, the agreement is documented.
- (b) Within 90 days after the department approves a county hazardous waste management plan, the county shall either incorporate the plan, by reference, into the county's general plan or enact an ordinance which requires that all applicable zoning, subdivision, conditional use permit, and variance decisions are consistent with the county hazardous waste management plan.
- (c) Any amendment to an adopted county hazardous waste management plan requires the approval of the department, the county, and a majority of the cities within the county which contain a majority of the population of the incorporated area of the county.
- 25135.8. (a) There is hereby established, within the Hazardous Waste Control Account, the Hazardous Waste Management Planning Subaccount. Money deposited in the subaccount shall be used to compensate the department, and to provide grants to councils of governments and counties, for their costs in administering this article.
- (b) The moneys in the Hazardous Waste Management Planning Subaccount may be expended by the department, upon appropriation by the Legislature, to administer this article and to provide grants to councils of governments and to counties for expenses incurred in preparing regional and county hazardous waste management plans. On July 1, 1987, the department shall disburse four million dollars ($4,000,000), upon appropriation by the Legislature, from the subaccount to counties and councils of governments, and on or before January 1, 1988, and July 1, 1988, respectively, the department shall disburse three million dollars ($3,000,000), upon appropriation by the Legislature, from the subaccount to counties and councils of governments.

The disbursement on or before each of these dates shall be in accordance with the following formula:

- (1) Each county shall receive an allocation based on the amount of hazardous waste produced in the county. For purposes of determining the amount of the allocations, the department shall prepare an updated assessment of hazardous waste generation in each county which does not include hazardous waste resulting from site cleanup activities. Based on this assessment, the department shall allocate as follows:
- (A) Six thousand dollars ($6,000) to each county which generates less than 100 tons per year of hazardous waste.

- (B) Nine thousand dollars ($9,000) to each county which generates 100 or more tons, but less than 10,000 tons, per year of hazardous waste.
- (C) Thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) to each county which generates 10,000 or more tons, but less than 30,000 tons, per year of hazardous waste.
- (D) Forty-five thousand dollars ($45,000) to each county which generates 30,000 or more tons, but less than 100,000 tons, per year of hazardous waste.
- (E) Seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) to each county which generates 100,000 or more tons, but less than 150,000 tons, per year of hazardous waste.
- (F) Ninety thousand dollars ($90,000) to each county which generates 150,000 or more tons, but less than 350,000 tons, per year of hazardous waste.
- (G) One hundred twenty thousand dollars ($120,000) to each county which generates 350,000 or more tons, but less than 500,000 tons, per year of hazardous waste.

(H) One hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) to each county which generates 500,000 or more tons per year of hazardous waste.

- (2) One hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($175,000) may be reserved by the department from the disbursements made on July 1, 1987, and on or before July 1, 1988, to pay for its costs in administering this article and to make additional allocations to counties that demonstrate the need for additional funding to complete county hazardous waste management plans in excess of the funding provided by paragraphs (1) and (3).
- (3) The amount remaining, after the allocation under paragraph (1) has been made and the amount required by paragraph (2) has been reserved, shall be distributed to the counties and to the councils of governments whose governing boards have decided to prepare a regional hazardous waste management plan pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 25135.3 and have notified the department of that decision. The department shall do both of the following:
- (A) Distribute funds to the counties on a prorated basis based on the amount of hazardous waste produced in each county in proportion to the amount of hazardous waste produced in the state, as assessed by the department pursuant to paragraph (1).
- (B) Distribute to each council of governments one-half of the total amount allocated to the county which is located in the region represented by the council of governments and which received the largest allocation pursuant to paragraph (1) and subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, as compared to the other counties located in that region.
- (c) A city or two or more cities within a county which are eligible to receive funding pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 25135.1 shall be allocated from the subaccount the amount specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) that would be allocated to the county in which the city or cities are located if the county had elected to prepare the plan.

- (d) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1989, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends that date.
- SEC. 7. Section 25173.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:
- 25173.5. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), the legislative body of a city or county may impose and enforce a tax, for general purposes, or may impose a user fee on the operation of an offsite, multiuser hazardous waste facility located within the jurisdiction of the city or county. The tax or the user fee imposed shall not exceed 10 percent of the facility's annual gross receipts for the treatment, storage, or disposal of hazardous waste at the facility.
- (b) A city or county shall not impose a tax or a user fee adopted pursuant to subdivision (a) upon any of the following:
- (1) An existing hazardous waste facility for which a tax is authorized pursuant to Section 25149.5.
- (2) An offsite, multiuser hazardous waste facility that began operations before January 1, 1987, and was issued a hazardous waste facilities permit pursuant to Section 25200, or was granted interim status pursuant to Section 25200.5, before January 1, 1987.
- (3) That portion of the gross receipts of the hazardous waste facility that derives from the recycling of hazardous wastes.
- SEC. 8. Article 8.7 (commencing with Section 25199) is added to Chapter 6.5 of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 8.7. Procedures for the Approval of New Facilities.

25199. (a) The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

- (1) Existing laws require numerous permits before a hazardous waste facility can be constructed and operated. The permits are issued by governmental agencies, at both the state and local levels under land use planning, zoning, hazardous waste, air quality, water quality, and solid waste management laws.
- (2) The approval of hazardous waste facilities is not currently a coordinated process. The failure to coordinate the issuance of multiple permits, licenses, land use approvals, and other types of authorizations causes lengthy and costly delays. The end result of the process cannot be predicted, with any degree of certainty, by either the proponent of a project to site and construct a facility or by the concerned public.
- (3) Present procedures for approving hazardous waste facilities do not provide meaningful opportunities for public involvement and are not suitably structured to allow the public to make its concerns known and to cause these concerns to be taken into consideration.
- (4) A formal administrative process for reviewing local discretionary land use decisions on applications to site and construct a hazardous waste facility has not been established and made available to interested persons who wish to appeal these decisions.

- (b) The Legislature, therefore, declares that there is a critical need to clarify the requirements that must be met, and the basic procedures that must be followed, in connection with the approval of hazardous waste facilities.
- (c) It is the intent of the Legislature, in enacting this article, to establish the means to expedite the approval of needed hazardous waste facilities; to ensure that new hazardous waste facilities are not sited unless the facility operator provides financial assurance that the operator can respond adequately to damage claims arising out of the operation of the facility; to ensure that the facilities comply with applicable laws and regulations; to clarify the procedures to be followed in approving a facility; to establish specific means to give the concerned public a voice in decisions relating to the siting and issuance of permits for hazardous waste facilities; and to establish a process for appealing local decisions on applications for land use approval for hazardous waste facilities.
- 25199.1. Unless the context otherwise requires, the following definitions govern the construction of this article:
- (a) "Appeal board" means an appeal board established pursuant to Section 25199.10.
- (b) "Hazardous waste facility project" means a project undertaken for the purpose of siting and constructing a new hazardous waste facility or for the purpose of significantly expanding or modifying an existing hazardous waste facility that is being used or operated under a permit issued pursuant to Section 25200 or a grant of interim status pursuant to Section 25200.5. Unless expressly provided otherwise, "hazardous waste facility project" includes a specified hazardous waste facility project.
- (c) "Interested person" means a person who participated in one or more public meetings or hearings held to consider an application for a land use decision for a specified hazardous waste facility project. "Participation" includes, but is not limited to, the giving of oral or written testimony at a meeting or hearing, submission of questions at a meeting or hearing, or attendance at the meeting or hearing.
- (d) "Land disposal facility" means a hazardous waste facility where hazardous waste is disposed in, on, under, or to the land.
- (e) "Land use decision" means a discretionary decision of a local agency concerning a hazardous waste facility project, including the issuance of a land use permit or a conditional use permit, the granting of a variance, the subdivision of property, and the modification of existing property lines pursuant to Title 7 (commencing with Section 65000) of the Government Code.
- (f) "Lead agency" means the public agency that has the principal responsibility for approving a hazardous waste facility project.
- (g) "Local agency" means any public agency, other than a state agency.
- (h) "Permit" means a permit, license, certificate, requirement, or other entitlement for use required to site or construct a hazardous waste facility. "Permit" includes, but is not limited to, all of the following:

- (1) A hazardous waste facility permit issued by the department pursuant to this chapter.
- (2) Waste discharge requirements issued by a California regional water quality control board pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 13260) of Chapter 4 of Division 7 of the Water Code.
- (3) An authority to construct permit issued by an air pollution control district or air quality management district pursuant to Division 26 (commencing with Section 39000).
- (4) A solid waste facilities permit issued by the enforcement agency pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 66796.30) of Chapter 3 of Title 7.3 of the Government Code.
- (i) "Proponent" means any person applying to a public agency for a permit or a land use decision concerning a specified hazardous waste facility project.
  - (j) "Public agency" means any state agency or any local agency.
- (k) "Responsible agency" means any public agency, other than the lead agency, which has the authority to issue a permit or make a land use decision.
- (1) "Significantly expand or modify" means to expand or modify an existing hazardous waste facility, including a specified hazardous waste facility, in a manner so that a land use decision and an environmental impact report are required.
- (m) "Specified hazardous waste facility" means an offsite facility which serves more than one producer of hazardous waste.
- (n) "Specified hazardous waste facility project" means a project undertaken for the purpose of siting and constructing a new specified hazardous waste facility or for the purpose of significantly expanding or modifying an existing specified hazardous waste facility that is being used or operated under a permit issued pursuant to Section 25200 or a grant of interim status pursuant to Section 25200.5.
- (o) "State agency" means any agency, board, or commission of state government. "State agency" also includes an air pollution control district and an air quality management district.
- (p) "Technical review" means the review of an application for a hazardous waste facility project by a state agency to determine if the facility meets the applicable statutes and regulations.
- 25199.2. Except as otherwise provided in this article, Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 65920) of Division 1 of Title 7 of the Government Code applies to all public agencies which make a land use decision or issue a permit for a hazardous waste facility project, as specified in Section 65963.1 of the Government Code. The public agency shall perform the duties and carry out the actions required by Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 65920) of Division 1 of Title 7 of the Government Code in connection with applications submitted to the public agency for a hazardous waste facility project, unless otherwise specified in this article.
- 25199.3. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an applicant for a hazardous waste facility project may submit applications for a land use decision and for one or more permits to the appropriate public agencies simultaneously. Unless a state agency is prohibited by statute from approving a permit before the granting of a local land use decision, the state agency shall not refuse to issue a permit for a hazardous waste facility project on the grounds that the applicant has not been granted a land use permit, except that the state agency may provide that the permit shall not become effective until the applicant is granted a local land use permit.

- (b) Any public agency may request another public agency to jointly review applications for a permit or land use decision for a hazardous waste facility project. A public agency may consolidate, with other public agencies, public meetings and hearings permitted or required by law or regulation for the issuance of a permit or the making of a land use decision for a hazardous waste facility project.
- (c) The department shall coordinate the technical review of applications for permits for hazardous waste facility projects that are received by state agencies.
- (d) Upon the request of a local agency, the department, and any other state agency that is authorized to issue a permit for a hazardous waste facility project, shall provide technical assistance to a local agency that is reviewing an application for a land use decision for the project.
- 25199.4. The Office of Permit Assistance in the Office of Planning and Research shall, for any proposed hazardous waste facility project, do all of the following:
- (a) Assist in identifying state and local permits required for the proposed hazardous waste facility project.
- (b) Convene meetings or conferences, as necessary, prior to the submittal of applications for permits to state and local agencies, for the purpose of determining the scope of the hazardous waste facility project, identifying the questions that state and local agencies will have concerning the project, and determining decisionmaking schedules.
- (c) Assist state and local agencies in consolidating public meetings and hearings permitted or required by law or regulation for approval of the permits for the project.
- (d) Encourage the joint review and processing of applications for permits.
- (e) Work with the applicant and public agencies to ensure that decisionmaking deadlines are met.
- (f) Call meetings or conferences to resolve questions or mediate disputes arising from applications for a permit for a hazardous waste facility project.
- 25199.5. (a) At the request of an applicant, the legislative body of a local agency shall, within 60 calendar days after the local agency has determined that an application for a land use decision for a hazardous waste facility project is complete, issue an initial written determination on whether the hazardous waste facility project is consistent with both of the following:

- (1) The applicable local general plan and zoning ordinances in effect at the time the application was received.
- (2) The county hazardous waste management plan authorized by Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 25135), if the plan is in effect at the time of the application.
- (b) The local agency shall send a copy of the written determination made pursuant to subdivision (a) to the applicant.
- (c) The determination required by subdivision (a) does not prohibit a local agency from making a different determination when the final land use decision is made, if the final determination is based on information which was not considered at the time the initial determination was made.
- 25199.6. (a) Notwithstanding Section 65952 of the Government Code, a responsible agency for a hazardous waste facility project that is a land disposal facility shall approve or disapprove all permits for the project within one of the following periods of time, whichever is longer:
- (1) Within one year from the date on which the lead agency approved or disapproved the permit for the project.
- (2) Within one year from the date on which completed applications for permits for the project were received, and accepted as complete, by the responsible agency.
- (b) Subdivision (b) of Section 65956 of the Government Code does not apply to the failure of a lead agency or responsible agency to approve or disapprove a permit for a hazardous waste facility project within the time limits established by Sections 65950 and 65952 of the Government Code and subdivision (a) of this section. If a lead agency or a responsible agency fails to act within those time limits, the applicant may file an action pursuant to Section 1085 of the Code of Civil Procedure to compel the agency to approve or disapprove the permit for the project within a reasonable time, as the court may determine.
- 25199.7. (a) At least 90 days before filing an application for a land use decision for a specified hazardous waste facility project with a local agency, the proponent shall file a notice of intent to make the application with the Office of Permit Assistance in the Office of Planning and Research and with the applicable city or county. The notice of intent shall contain a complete description of the nature, function, and scope of the project. The Office of Permit Assistance shall immediately notify affected state agencies of the notice of intent. The local agency shall publish a notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the area affected by the proposed project, shall post notices in the location where the proposed project is located, and shall notify, by a direct mailing, the owners of contiguous property, as shown in the latest equalized assessment role. The local agency shall impose a fee upon a project applicant equal to the cost of notification required by this section.
- (b) A proponent may not file an application for a land use decision for a specified hazardous waste facility project with a local agency unless the proponent has first complied with subdivision (a).

- (c) Within 90 days after a notice of intent is filed with the Office of Permit Assistance pursuant to subdivision (a), the office shall convene a public meeting in the affected city or county to inform the public on the nature, function, and scope of the proposed specified hazardous waste facility project and the procedures that are required for approving applications for the project.
- (d) Within 90 days after receiving a notice of the filing of a notice of intent, the legislative body of the affected local agency shall appoint a seven member local assessment committee.
- (1) The membership of the committee shall be broadly constituted to reflect the makeup of the community, and shall include three representatives of the community at large, two representatives of environmental or public interest groups, and two representatives of affected businesses and industries. Members of local assessment committees selected pursuant to this subdivision shall have no direct financial interest, as defined in Section 87103 of the Government Code, in the proposed specified hazardous waste facility project.
  - (2) The local assessment committee shall do all of the following:
- (A) Negotiate with the proponent for the proposed hazardous waste facility project on the detailed terms of, provisions of, and conditions for, project approval which would protect the public health, safety, and welfare, and the environment of the city or county and would promote the fiscal welfare of the city or county through special benefits and compensation.
- (B) Represent generally, in negotiation with the project proponent, the interests of the residents of the city or county and the interests of adjacent communities.
- (C) Receive and expend the technical assistance grants made available pursuant to subdivision (g).
- (D) Adopt rules and procedures which are necessary to perform its duties.
- (E) Advise the legislative body of the city or county of the terms, provisions, and conditions for project approval which have been agreed upon by the committee and the proponent, and of any additional information which the committee deems appropriate. The legislative body of the city or county may use this advice for its independent consideration of the project.
- (3) The legislative body of the affected jurisdiction shall provide staff resources to assist the local assessment committee in performing its duties.
- (4) A local assessment committee established pursuant to this subdivision shall cease to exist after final administrative action by state and local agencies has been taken on the permit applications for the project for which the committee was convened.
- (e) A local agency shall notify the Office of Permit Assistance within 10 days after an application for a land use decision for a specified hazardous waste facility project is accepted as complete by the local agency and, within 60 days after receiving this notice, the Office of Permit Assistance shall convene a meeting of the lead and responsible agencies for the project, the proponent, the local assessment committee, and the interested public, for the purpose of determining the issues which concern the agencies that are required to approve the project and the issues which concern the public. The meeting shall take place in the jurisdiction where the application has been filed.

- (f) Following the meeting required by subdivision (e), the proponent and the local assessment committee appointed pursuant to subdivision (d) shall meet and confer on the specified hazardous waste facility project proposal for the purpose of establishing the terms and conditions under which the project will be acceptable to the community.
- (g) A proponent for a specified hazardous waste facility project shall pay a fee, established by the Office of Permit Assistance, equal to the cost of hiring independent consultants to review the project. The Office of Permit Assistance shall deposit these fees in the Local Agency Technical Assistance Account, which account is hereby created within the General Fund. The moneys in that account may be expended by the Office of Permit Assistance, upon appropriation by the Legislature, to make technical assistance grants to the local assessment committee to enable the committee to hire an independent consultant to assist the committee in reviewing the project and negotiating terms and conditions with the proponent.
- (h) If the local assessment committee and the proponent cannot resolve any differences through the meetings, the Office of Permit Assistance may recommend the use of a mediator. The proponent shall pay one-half of the costs of this mediation and the remaining costs shall be paid, upon appropriation by the Legislature, from the General Fund.
- (i) This section applies only to a specified hazardous waste facility project.
- 25199.8. (a) If an action or proceeding has been commenced in any court to attack, review, set aside, void, or annul the acts or decisions of a lead agency for a specified hazardous waste facility project on the grounds of noncompliance with Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code, the proponent may, notwithstanding the action or proceeding, request the responsible agencies for the specified hazardous waste facility project to continue to process applications for approval of permits for the project received and accepted as complete by each responsible agency. If a responsible agency receives such a request, the time limits specified in Section 65952 of the Government Code shall apply, except that, in the case of an application for a permit for a land disposal facility, the time limits specified in subdivision (a) of Section 25199.6 shall apply.
- (b) Except as provided in subdivision (d), if any action or proceeding is commenced to review the acts or decisions of a lead or responsible agency for a specified hazardous waste facility project, the proponent may petition the court to stay the action or proceeding. The court, in its discretion, may stay the action or proceeding until all public agencies for the project have completed reviewing and approving or disapproving the applications for permits for the project. The proponent may, at any time prior to completion of these actions by the lead or responsible agencies, file a petition with the court requesting that the action or proceeding be permitted to proceed and, upon receiving such a petition, the court shall discontinue the stay.

- (c) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), a court may enjoin a lead or responsible agency from approving a permit or license if the court finds that the approval would result in an imminent or substantial endangerment of the public health or the environment or if there are other compelling reasons that the action or proceeding should not be stayed.
- (d) Subdivision (b) does not apply to an action or proceeding which alleges that a lead or responsible agency has not complied with Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code.
- 25199.9. (a) A proponent may file an appeal of a land use decision made by a local agency for a specified hazardous waste facility project with the Governor or the Governor's designee pursuant to subdivision (b), (c), or (d) and any interested person may file an appeal of a land use decision made by a local agency for a specified hazardous waste facility project pursuant to subdivision (e). The proponent or an interested person shall file the appeal within 30 calendar days after the date the local agency takes final action on the land use decision. If the proposed project would accept or manage both hazardous waste and solid waste, the appeal shall relate only to the local land use decision concerning the hazardous waste portion of the proposed facility. Any decisions of an appeal board involving the proposed facility shall affect only the hazardous waste portion of the local land use decision.
- (b) If an application for a land use decision for a specified hazardous waste facility project is disapproved by a local agency, the proponent for the specified hazardous waste facility project may file an appeal of the disapproval with the Governor or the Governor's designee. The Governor or the Governor's designee may authorize an appeal of a disapproval pursuant to this subdivision only if the proponent has applied for, and obtained, all permits for the specified hazardous waste facility project which can be obtained before construction from those responsible agencies which are state agencies.
- (c) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), if an application for a land use decision for a specified hazardous waste facility project is disapproved by a local agency before an environmental impact report for the project is prepared and certified, as specified in Section 21151 of the Public Resources Code, or before a negative declaration for the project is adopted pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 21080 of the Public Resources Code, the proponent may file an appeal of the disapproval with the Governor or the Governor's designee.

Within 30 days after an appeal is filed pursuant to this subdivision, the Governor or the Governor's designee may convene an appeal board, pursuant to Section 25199.10. The appeal board shall thereafter be the lead agency for the specified hazardous waste facility project and shall perform the duties specified in, and carry out the actions required by, Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code. The proponent may apply for those permits for the specified hazardous waste facility project which can be obtained before construction from those responsible agencies which are state agencies, at any time before or after the appeal board's compliance with actions required by Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code. The time limits specified in Section 65952 of the Government Code and subdivision (a) of Section 25199.6 apply to these responsible agencies except that, for the purposes of these time limits, the date when the appeal board has complied with all actions required by Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code shall be deemed equivalent to the date when a lead agency decides to approve or disapprove a project. After the proponent has applied for and obtained these permits, the proponent for the specified hazardous waste facility project may request the Governor or the Governor's designee to authorize the appeal. The Governor or the Governor's designee may authorize an appeal of a disapproval pursuant to this subdivision only if the proponent has applied for, and obtained, all permits for the specified hazardous waste facility project which can be obtained before construction from those responsible agencies which are state agencies.

- (d) If an application for a land use decision for a specified hazardous waste facility project is approved by a local agency, the proponent for the specified hazardous waste facility project may file an appeal of one or more conditions imposed by the land use decision with the Governor or the Governor's designee. An appeal filed under this subdivision shall specify the particular condition or conditions imposed by the land use decision that are appealed and shall be based solely on the grounds that the condition or conditions imposed on the operation of the facility by the land use decision are so onerous and restrictive that their imposition is the same as a disapproval of the application for a land use decision. However, the Governor or the Governor's designee shall not authorize an appeal pursuant to this subdivision unless the proponent has applied for, and obtained, all permits for the specified hazardous waste facility project which can be obtained prior to its construction from those responsible agencies which are state agencies.
- (e) If an application for a land use decision for a specified hazardous waste facility project is approved by a local agency, any interested person may file an appeal of the approval with the Governor or the Governor's designee. An appeal may be filed pursuant to this subdivision only if the appeal is based solely on the grounds that the conditions imposed on the project by the land use decision do not adequately protect the public health, safety, or welfare. The Governor or the Governor's designee shall not authorize an appeal pursuant to this subdivision before the proponent for the specified hazardous waste facility project has applied for, and obtained, all permits for the project which can be obtained prior to its construction from those responsible agencies which are state agencies. An interested person filing an appeal pursuant to this subdivision shall state in the appeal why the conditions imposed by the land use decision do not adequately protect the public health, safety, or welfare and shall specify the additional condition or conditions which are necessary to provide that protection.

- 25199.10. (a) If an appeal is filed pursuant to subdivision (b), (c), (d), or (e) of Section 25199.9, the Governor or the Governor's designee shall determine whether or not the appeal is authorized within five working days after the proponent demonstrates that the proponent has obtained all permits for the specified hazardous waste facility project which can be obtained before construction from those responsible agencies which are state agencies. If, because the application for the appeal is incomplete, the Governor or the Governor's designee is unable to determine, within five working days, whether or not the appeal should be authorized pursuant to Section 25199.9, the Governor or the Governor's designee may return the application for appeal to the proponent or interested party who filed the appeal. The proponent or interested party shall resubmit the completed application for an appeal within 20 calendar days after receiving the returned appeal and if the proponent or interested party fails to do so, the Governor or the Governor's designee shall not reconsider authorizing the appeal.
- (b) If the Governor or the Governor's designee determines that the appeal is authorized, the Governor or the Governor's designee shall convene an appeal board within 30 days after the Governor or the Governor's designee determines that the filing of an appeal is authorized, by requesting the League of California Cities and the County Supervisors Association of California to each nominate persons for appointment to an appeal board, as specified in paragraphs (6) and (7) of subdivision (c).
- (c) An appeal board shall consist of seven members, five of whom shall be the members listed in paragraphs (1) to (5), inclusive, and two of whom shall be separately appointed for each particular appeal, as provided in paragraphs (6) and (7). An appeal board shall consist of the following members:
  - (1) The State Director of Health Services.
  - (2) The Chairperson of the State Air Resources Board.
  - (3) The Chairperson of the State Water Resources Control Board.

- (4) A member of a county board of supervisors appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules who shall be selected from the persons nominated by the County Supervisors Association of California. The appointment shall be for a period of four years, but shall terminate earlier if the appointee does not continue in office as a member of a board of supervisors.
- (5) A member of a city council appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly who shall be selected from the persons nominated by the League of California Cities. The appointment shall be for a period of four years, but shall terminate earlier if the appointee does not continue in office as a member of a city council.
- (6) A member of a county board of supervisors appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly who shall be selected from the persons nominated by the County Supervisors Association of California. The member shall be from the county in which the specified hazardous waste facility project which is the subject of the appeal is located. However, if the member appointed pursuant to paragraph (4) is from the county in which the specified hazardous waste facility project is located, the member appointed pursuant to this paragraph shall not be from that same county.
- (7) A member of a city council appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules who shall be selected from the persons nominated by the League of California Cities. The member shall be from the city in which the specified hazardous waste facility project which is the subject of the appeal is located, or from the city which the Governor or the Governor's designee determines to be the most directly affected by the project if the project is not located in a city. However, if the member appointed under paragraph (5) is from a city in the county in which the specified hazardous waste facility project is located, the member appointed under this paragraph shall be from a city in a different county.
- (d) The appeal board shall issue the final decision upon an appeal in writing and the members of the appeal board shall sign the decision.
- (e) The State Director of Health Services, the Chairperson of the State Air Resources Board, and the Chairperson of the State Water Resources Control Board may designate an alternate to attend any meetings or hearings of an appeal board in that person's place, except that the alternate may not vote on a final decision on an appeal or sign the written decision in place of the person for whom the person serves as alternate.
- (f) The Governor or the Governor's designee shall designate staff to serve the appeal board.
- 25199.11. (a) An appeal board established to hear an appeal authorized by the Governor or the Governor's designee pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 25199.9 shall follow the procedures and requirements specified in this section.
- (b) Within 30 days after the Governor or the Governor's designee determines that the filing of an appeal is authorized pursuant to

- subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 25199.9, the appeal board shall be convened and a public hearing held in the city or county where the specified hazardous waste facility project is located. At the hearing, the proponent, and the local agency whose land use decision is being appealed, shall present arguments and evidence to the appeal board concerning whether or not the appeal should be accepted.
- (c) Within 15 days after the date of the public hearing specified in subdivision (b), the appeal board shall decide whether or not to accept the appeal. The appeal board may accept an appeal only by an affirmative vote of four members of the appeal board. The appeal board shall make its decision based upon the arguments and evidence presented at the hearing. The appeal board's decision shall be in writing, shall be signed by the members who voted in favor of the decision, and shall state the reasons for accepting or rejecting the appeal. The appeal board may accept the appeal if the arguments and evidence presented at the hearing tend to show that, when the local agency's reasons for disapproving the application for a land use decision are weighed against statewide, regional, or county hazardous waste management policies, goals, and objectives, there are compelling reasons to review the disapproval of the application.
- (d) If the appeal board accepts the appeal, within 30 days after this acceptance, the appeal board shall conduct an informal workshop on the subject of the appeal in the city or county where the specified hazardous waste facility project is proposed to be located. Within 45 days following acceptance of the appeal, the appeal board shall also hold a public hearing in the community to hear the arguments and evidence for the purpose of making a tentative decision on the appeal. In issuing a decision pursuant to the hearing, the appeal board shall adopt a rebuttable presumption that the land use decision of the local agency disapproving the application is supported by substantial reasons and that, when these reasons are weighed against statewide, regional, or county hazardous waste management policies, goals, and objectives, the reasons for reversing the local agency's action are not compelling. In all matters related to the appeal, including, but not limited to, matters related to the findings required by subdivision (f), the burden of proof shall be with the proponent to rebut this presumption and to establish that there are compelling reasons to reverse the local agency's land use decision.
- (e) Within 45 days after the public hearing, the appeal board shall, by an affirmative vote of at least four members, issue a written decision on the appeal. If the appeal board agrees with the land use decision of the local agency, the appeal board shall state its reasons for this position. If the appeal board agrees with the proponent's appeal, the appeal board shall issue a tentative decision stating that the local agency's land use decision should be reversed.
- (f) The appeal board shall not reverse the local agency's land use decision unless the appeal board makes all of the following findings:
  - (1) That the significant environmental impacts of the specified hazardous waste facility project will be adequately mitigated.

- (2) That the specified hazardous waste facility project was consistent with the applicable city or county general plan when the local agency accepted, as complete, the proponent's application for a land use decision. For the purpose of this finding, a project is consistent with the applicable city or county general plan if the appeal board makes one of the following determinations:
- (A) The appeal board may determine that a specified hazardous waste facility project that is not a land disposal facility project is consistent with the general plan if the appeal board makes all of the following findings:
- (i) The project is proposed to be located in an area zoned and designated in the applicable general plan for industrial use and substantially developed with other industrial facilities which produce, treat, or dispose of hazardous waste onsite and which are served by the same transportation routes as the proposed facility. In addition, the land uses authorized in the applicable general plan and zoning ordinances in the vicinity of the project is compatible with the project.
- (ii) There is no clear and express provision in the general plan which states that such a specified hazardous waste facility project is inconsistent with the general plan, or, if there is such a provision, the provision was adopted after January 1, 1983.
- (iii) The specified hazardous waste project is consistent, as determined by the appeal board, with the general plan.
- (B) The appeal board may determine that a specified hazardous waste facility project is consistent with the applicable city or county general plan if the project is a land disposal facility project, and if all of the following apply:
- (i) There is no clear and express provision in the general plan that states that such a specified hazardous waste facility project is inconsistent with the general plan, or, if there is such a provision, the provision was adopted after January 1, 1983.
- (ii) The project is consistent, as determined by the appeal board, with the general plan.
- (3) That the specified hazardous waste facility is consistent with the county hazardous waste management plan, if such a plan has been adopted by the county, and approved by the department, pursuant to Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 25135).
- (4) That alternative locations for the specified hazardous waste facility project, as identified in the environmental impact report for the project and in the county hazardous waste management plan, if one has been approved by the department, have been adequately considered by the appeal board in determining the appropriateness of the location chosen for the project.
- (5) That reversing the local agency's land use decision is consistent with statewide, regional, and county hazardous waste management policies, goals, and objectives. In making this finding, the appeal board shall consider all of the following factors:

[ Ch. 1504

- (A) Whether or not a need for the specified hazardous waste facility project has been demonstrated.
- (B) Whether or not the specified hazardous waste facility project is of a type, and in a location, that conforms to statewide, regional, or local hazardous waste management policies.
- (C) Whether or not the specified hazardous waste facility will be operated using the best feasible hazardous waste management technologies.
- (g) The local agency whose land use decision is being appealed may reconsider the action and approve the application for the land use decision, consistent with the appeal board's tentative decision, within 60 days after the appeal board issues its tentative decision. If the local agency does not approve the application for the land use decision consistent with the tentative decision within 60 days after the decision is issued, the appeal board shall, by an affirmative vote of at least four members, issue a final decision. If the final decision reverses the local agency's land use decision, the appeal board shall then require the local agency to approve the application for the land use decision and if the local agency does not approve the application for the land use decision for the land use decision for the specified hazardous waste facility project.

(b) Within 30 days after the Governor or the Governor's designee determines that the filing of an appeal is authorized by subdivision (d) or (e) of Section 25199.9, an appeal board shall be convened and a public hearing held in the city or county where the specified hazardous waste facility project is located. At the hearing, the proponent or the interested party and the local agency whose land use decision is being appealed shall present arguments and evidence to the appeal board concerning whether or not the appeal should be accepted.

The arguments and evidence presented to the appeal board for an appeal authorized pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 25199.9, shall only concern whether or not a condition or conditions imposed on the operation of the facility by the land use decision are so onerous and restrictive that their imposition is the same as a disapproval of the application for a land use decision. The arguments and evidence presented to the appeal board for an appeal authorized pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 25199.9, shall only concern whether or not a condition or conditions imposed on the project by the land use decision do not adequately protect the public health, safety, and welfare.

(c) Within 15 days after the date of the public hearing, the appeal board shall decide whether or not to accept the appeal. The appeal board may accept an appeal only by an affirmative vote of five members of the appeal board. The appeal board shall make its decision based upon the arguments and evidence presented at the hearing. The appeal board's decision shall be in writing, shall be signed by the members who voted in favor of the decision, and shall state the reasons for accepting or rejecting the appeal. The appeal board may not accept the appeal unless it finds that the proponent or interested party has demonstrated a substantial likelihood of prevailing on the merits if the appeal is accepted for hearing.

- (d) If the appeal board accepts the appeal, within 30 days after this decision, the appeal board shall hold a public hearing in the city or county where the specified hazardous waste facility project is located to hear the arguments and evidence it requires to make a decision on the appeal. The appeal board shall restrict the scope of the hearing to those matters which the appeal board determines are directly related to the subject matter of the appeal. In making a decision pursuant to the hearing, the appeal board shall adopt a rebuttable presumption that the local agency's land use decision is supported by substantial reasons and that there are no compelling reasons to modify it. In all matters related to the appeal, the burden of proof shall be with the proponent or the interested party to rebut this presumption and to establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that there are compelling reasons to modify the local agency's land use decision.
- (e) Within 30 days after the public hearing, the appeal board shall, by an affirmative vote of at least five members, issue a decision on the appeal. The decision shall be written, shall be signed by the members in favor of the decision, and shall include the reasons for the decision.
- (f) If the appeal is authorized by the Governor or the Governor's designee pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 25199.9, the appeal board shall not issue a decision modifying the local agency land use decision, unless the appeal board finds that there is clear and convincing evidence that one or more conditions imposed on the facility by the land use decision are so onerous and restrictive that their imposition is the same as a disapproval of the application for a land use decision. If the appeal board agrees with the proponent concerning these conditions, the appeal board shall require the local agency to modify the condition or conditions imposed by the land use decision, as the appeal board deems necessary. If the local agency does not modify the terms of the local land use decision, as required by the appeal board, the Attorney General shall bring an action to require the local agency to modify the local land use decision in accordance with the determination of the appeal board.
- (g) If the appeal is authorized by the Governor or the Governor's designee pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 25199.9, the appeal board shall not issue a decision approving the appeal of the interested person unless the appeal board finds that there is clear and convincing evidence that the land use decision approved by the local agency failed to impose one or more conditions necessary to protect the public health, safety, or welfare. If the appeal board approves the appeal of the interested person concerning these conditions, the appeal board shall require the local agency to modify the land use decision in accordance with the appeal board's decision. If the local agency does not modify the land use decision as required by the appeal board, the Attorney General shall bring an action to require the local agency to modify the land use decision in accordance with the determination of the appeal board.

25199.14. The final decision of the appeal board concerning an appeal authorized pursuant to Section 25199.9 shall be deemed to be the final administrative action of the appeal board.

SEC. 9. Section 25200.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25200.1. Notwithstanding Section 25200, the department shall not issue a hazardous waste facility permit to a facility which commences operation on or after January 1, 1987, unless the department determines that the facility operator is in compliance with regulations adopted by the department pursuant to this chapter requiring that the operator provide financial assurance that the operator can respond adequately to damage claims arising out of the operation of the facility.

SEC. 10. Section 25200.2 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

- 25200.2. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 25200 and 25200.5, the department shall not issue a hazardous waste facilities permit or grant interim status to any person to use and operate a facility which is a hazardous waste land disposal facility unless the facility is a treatment facility or a facility used exclusively for the disposal of treated hazardous wastes or special wastes. This subdivision applies only to hazardous waste land disposal facilities that commence operation on or after January 1, 1987.
- (b) The disposal of liquid wastes, liquid hazardous wastes, or hazardous wastes containing free liquids in hazardous waste landfills is prohibited. For purposes of this subdivision, "free liquids" means liquids that readily separate from the solid portion of a hazardous waste under ambient temperature and pressure.
- (c) Beginning on January 1, 1990, the department shall prohibit the disposal of hazardous wastes that are not treated hazardous wastes into hazardous waste landfills unless the hazardous waste is solid hazardous waste and is produced as a result of removal or remedial action at a hazardous waste site or unless the hazardous waste is a special waste.
  - (d) For purposes of this section, the following definitions apply:
- (1) "Hazardous waste landfill" means a disposal facility, or a part of a facility, where hazardous waste is placed in or on land and which is not a land treatment facility, a surface impoundment, or an injection well.
- (2). "Special waste" means a waste which meets the criteria and requirements established in Section 66742 of Title 22 of the California

Administrative Code and has been classified as a special waste pursuant to Section 66744 of Title 22 of the California Administrative Code.

- (3) "Treated hazardous waste" means the solid residual portion of a hazardous waste which is produced when the hazardous waste is treated by a method, technique, or process, including incineration, that changes the physical, chemical, or biological character or composition of the waste and which is in compliance with at least one of the following:
- (A) It meets the criteria and requirements for, and may be managed as, a special waste.
- (B) It does not contain any persistent or bioaccumulative toxic substance in excess of the soluble threshold limit concentration for the substance as established in regulations adopted by the department.
- (C) It meets treatment standards established by the Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to subsection (m) of Section 201 of the Hazardous and Solid Waste Act Amendments of 1984 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6924(m)) or, if the department has established equivalent or more stringent treatment standards pursuant to this chapter, it meets the treatment standards established by the department.
- SEC. 11. Section 25204 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed. SEC. 12. The sum of ten million dollars ($10,000,000) appropriated by Section 21 of Chapter 1440 of the Statutes of 1985 is hereby transferred to the Hazardous Waste Management Planning Subaccount in the Hazardous Waste Control Account for purposes of funding the hazardous waste management planning activities required by Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 25135) of Chapter 6.5 of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code.
- SEC. 13. Section 10 of this act, which adds Section 25200.2 to the Health and Safety Code, shall not become operative if Senate Bill 1500 is enacted and becomes operative.
- SEC. 14. Reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code and, if the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund, except that no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1505

An act to add Section 25158 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste.

The form shall also include a statement that the form is not a substitute for the federal notification required by the Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to subsection (a) of Section 6930 of Title 42 of the United States Code.
- (d) Any person who is required to submit a hazardous waste notification statement and fee to the director pursuant to subdivision (a) and who fails to do so is subject to a civil penalty of not less than fifty dollars ($50) and not more than five hundred dollars ($500) for each day after January 1, 1988, for which the department does not receive a statement. Any person who knowingly submits false information to the department is subject to a civil penalty of not less than two thousand dollars ($2,000) and not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) for each day the false information goes uncorrected.

- SEC. 2. Reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code and, if the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund, except that no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25174 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

  - (6) The costs of water monitoring pursuant to Section 4026.1.
- (c) Each person who disposes of hazardous wastes onsite, who annually submits more than 500 pounds of hazardous waste for disposal offsite, or who submits hazardous waste for transportation in this state for disposal outside of the state shall pay a fee directly to the State Board of Equalization for disposal of those wastes.
- (d) Each operator at any facility at which hazardous wastes are disposed shall pay a fee directly to the State Board of Equalization for disposal of those wastes, except that the site operator is not required to pay the fee for a hazardous waste if the person submitting the waste for disposal provides the operator with a properly completed manifest for that waste which includes that person's Hazardous Waste Tax Account number, as assigned by the State Board of Equalization, and the site operator submits a copy of the manifest to the State Board of Equalization in the time and manner as it may prescribe.

- (e) The State Board of Equalization shall deposit the fees collected pursuant to this section in the Hazardous Waste Control Account in the General Fund.
- SEC. 2. Section 25174.02 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25174.02. (a) The State Board of Equalization shall set the base rate for the hazardous wastes specified in Section 25174.6 in accordance with the following formula:

Base rate =
$$\frac{[(B-M) + .05 B] \times 0.46}{(T_1 + T_2 + T_7) .25 + (T_3 + T_4) 2.00}$$
$$+ (T_5) .05 + T_6 + (T_8) .10 + (T_9) .5$$

Where all of the following apply:

- (1) "B" is the amount appropriated annually by the Legislature for the Hazardous Waste Control Account including, but not limited to, any amounts appropriated for the compensation of employees.
- (2) "M" is any unobligated funds remaining in the fund from previous fiscal years.
- (3) "T<sub>1</sub>" is the total amount in tons of waste specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 25174.6.
- (4) "T<sub>2</sub>" is the total amount in tons of waste specified in paragraph
  (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 25174.6.
- (5) "T<sub>3</sub>" is the total amount in tons of waste specified in paragraph
  (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 25174.6.
- (6) "T<sub>4</sub>" is the total amount in tons of waste specified in paragraph
  (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 25174.6.
- (7) "T<sub>5</sub>" is the total amount in tons of waste specified in paragraph (5) of subdivision (a) of Section 25174.6.

- (10) "T<sub>8</sub>" is the total amount in tons of waste specified in subdivision (c) of Section 25174.6.
- (11) "T<sub>9</sub>" is the total amount in tons of waste specified in paragraph (8) of subdivision (a) of Section 25174.6.
- (b) The base rate specified in subdivision (a) shall apply to persons subject to the fee specified in Section 25174. Upon the enactment of the Budget Act of 1986, and upon the enactment of the annual Budget Act for each fiscal year thereafter, the State Board of Equalization shall determine the base rate, in accordance with the formula specified in subdivision (a), using the adjusted tonnage estimates supplied by the department for the fiscal year for that year's budget. The department shall supply these estimates to the State Board of Equalization before July 1 of each year, so as to give the Board of Equalization sufficient time to determine the base rate. Within 30 days after the enactment of the annual Budget Act, the State Board of Equalization shall send a notice of the adjusted fee rate to every person subject to the fee specified in Section 25174.

- (c) This section shall become inoperative on April 1, 1988, and, as of January 1, 1989, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

  - SEC. 4. Section 25174.3 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.
  - SEC. 5. Section 25174.4 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.
- SEC. 6. Section 25174.5 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed. SEC. 7. Section 25174.6 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:
- 25174.6. (a) The fee provided pursuant to Section 25174 to be paid by persons disposing of hazardous waste onsite, or submitting hazardous waste for disposal offsite, and by operators of hazardous waste disposal facilities, for each ton, or fraction thereof, of hazardous waste disposed of on land or applied to land on or after July 1, 1986, shall be determined as a percentage of the base rate, as adjusted by the State Board of Equalization, pursuant to Section 25174.02. The percentages of the base rate for determining these fees are as follows:
- (1) Twenty-five percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof for up to the first 5,000 tons of hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for offsite disposal, at each specific facility by each producer or at each specific onsite facility, per month, which is not subject to Subchapter III (commencing with Section 6921) of Chapter 82 of Title 42 of the United States Code, pursuant to subsection (b) of Section 6921 of Title 42 of the United States Code and which is not otherwise subject to the fee specified in paragraph (3) or (4), or hazardous waste for which the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency has determined that regulation is unwarranted, as specified in subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2) of, and subparagraph (C) of paragraph (3) of, subsection (b) of Section 6921 of Title 42 of the United States Code and which is not otherwise subject to the fee specified in paragraph (3) or (4).
- (2) Twenty-five percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof, for up to the first 5,000 tons of hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for offsite disposal, at each specific facility by each producer or at each specific onsite facility, per month, which result from the extraction, beneficiation, and processing of ores and minerals, including phosphate rock and the overburden from the mining of uranium ore and which is not otherwise subject to the fee specified in paragraph (3) or (4).

- (3) Two hundred percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof, of extremely hazardous waste.
- (4) Two hundred percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof, of restricted hazardous wastes listed in Section 66900 of Title 22 of the California Administrative Code.
- (5) Five percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof, of solid hazardous waste residues resulting from incineration or other controlled chemical or physical treatment processes if the department determines that the processes alter the physical properties of the waste being incinerated or treated and effectively remove all free liquids and volatile organic constituents from the waste being incinerated or treated.
- (6) One hundred percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof, of hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for offsite disposal, at each specific facility by each producer or at each specific onsite facility, per month, of hazardous waste, which is not otherwise subject to the fees specified in paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), or (7) of this subdivision or subdivision (c).
- (7) Twenty-five percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof, of waste resulting from the shredding of automobile bodies, sheet metal, and household appliances, if the producer of the shredder waste has certified in writing, to the department, that the producer has in place an ongoing program for inspection and removal of all automobile batteries, mufflers, tailpipes, and wheelweights from the shredder feed, and if the producer meets any other regulations imposed by the department.
- (8) Fifty percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof, of hazardous waste generated in this state which is disposed of, or submitted for disposal, outside the state.
- (b) The amount of fees payable to the State Board of Equalization pursuant to this section shall be calculated using the total wet weight, measured in tons or fractions thereof, of the hazardous waste in the form in which the hazardous waste existed at the time of disposal, submission for disposal, or application to land using the land disposal methods defined in Section 66122 of Title 22 of the California Administrative Code.
- (c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the fee rate for hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for offsite disposal, into a surface impoundment which is double lined, meets the criteria specified in paragraph (1), and for which a report has not been submitted pursuant to paragraph (2), is 10 percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof, of hazardous waste so disposed of or submitted for disposal. The owner or operator of the surface impoundment shall certify to the State Board of Equalization that the requirements of paragraph (1) have been met before the fee rate specified in this subdivision may be applied to the hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, into the surface impoundment.

- (1) This subdivision applies only to hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, into a surface impoundment which meets all the following criteria:
- (A) The surface impoundment is double lined and is equipped with a leachate collection system which is in place and in operation, and complies with existing federal and state regulations and guidance documents published by the Environmental Protection Agency prior to July 1, 1984.
- (B) The surface impoundment has in place and in operation a minimum of one up-gradient and two down-gradient monitoring wells capable of identifying the migration of any hazardous waste constituents disposed of into the surface impoundment.
- (C) The surface impoundment has in place and in operation a vadose zone monitoring system capable of identifying the migration of any hazardous waste constituents disposed of into the surface impoundment from the impoundment into the zone between the surface and the water table.
- (D) The surface impoundment has an enforceable site closure plan which initiates closure of the impoundment within 12 years after the surface impoundment is certified pursuant to this subdivision. This plan shall require the surface impoundment, and any surrounding soils contaminated by the impoundment, to be returned to a nonhazardous condition within five years of initiating closure.
- (E) The owner or operator has submitted to the department and to the California regional water quality control board documentation demonstrating full compliance with subparagraphs (A), (B), (C), and (D).
- (2) Upon discovering that, or receiving notification that, a surface impoundment certified for the fee rate specified in this subdivision has leaked or overflowed, and that there is migration into the vadose zone or into the waters of the state, the owner or operator of the surface impoundment shall report the migration to the department and the California regional water quality control board within 24 hours after the migration or unauthorized release has been detected. The owner or operator shall transmit a full written report to the department and the regional board within five working days after the detection of the migration. The reporting requirements imposed by this paragraph are in addition to any requirements which may be imposed by Section 13271 of the Water Code. Unless the regional board, or its executive officer, determines that the presence of the hazardous waste constituents in the migration do not pose any short-term or long-term, present or potential, hazards to human health or the environment, the regional board shall issue a cease and desist order pursuant to Section 13301 of the Water Code prohibiting any discharge into the surface impoundment and shall take any other actions which are necessary.
- (3) After a surface impoundment has been the subject of a report specified in paragraph (2), the fee rate specified in this subdivision for hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, into that surface impoundment shall not apply and the fees shall be calculated pursuant to subdivision (a). The fee rate specified in this subdivision may again be applied to the hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, into the surface impoundment only after the department and the California regional water quality control board determines that hazardous constituents are no longer migrating from the surface impoundment, and that there is no significant potential for them to migrate from the surface impoundment into the vadose zone or into the waters of the state, so that the presence of the hazardous constituents poses, or would pose, a present or potential hazard to human health or the environment.

- (4) Hazardous waste, as used in this subdivision, includes restricted hazardous waste.
- (d) All fees imposed by this section shall be paid in accordance with Part 22 (commencing with Section 43001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.
- (e) This section shall become inoperative on April 1, 1988, and, as of January 1, 1989, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.
- SEC. 8. Section 25174.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- 25174.7. (a) The fees provided for in Sections 25174, 25174.6 and 25205.5 do not apply to hazardous wastes which result when a state or local agency, or its contractor, removes or remedies a release of hazardous waste caused by another person. This subdivision applies to all acts performed by a state or local agency, or its contractor, on or after July 1, 1984.
- (b) This subdivision does not prevent the department from recovering an amount equal to the full cost of the fees specified in Sections 25174 and 25174.6 from any person responsible for a release of hazardous waste, which has been removed or remedied by a state or local agency, or its contractor. This subdivision does not limit the department's remedies pursuant to any other provision of law.
- SEC. 9. Section 25174.9 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- 25174.9. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the department may, by emergency regulation, increase or decrease the amount of the fee established pursuant to Section 25174, 25174.6, 25205.2, or 25205.5 if it determines that the fees established are insufficient or excessive to fund the appropriations from the Hazardous Waste Control Account and to provide for a 5-percent operating reserve. The department shall notify the policy and fiscal committees of both houses of the Legislature, for their review of the basis upon which the emergency regulations are being proposed, 30 days prior to increasing or decreasing the amount of fee.

For purposes of the Administrative Procedure Act, the adoption of these regulations shall be deemed to be an emergency and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, and general welfare. Notwithstanding Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, these regulations shall not be subject to review, approval, or repeal by the Office of Administrative Law. The fees adopted pursuant to these regulations shall be consistent with the formula specified in subdivision (a) of Section 25174.02, subdivision (a) of Section 25205.4, or subdivision (b) of Section 25205.5.

- SEC. 10. Section 25178.1 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.
- SEC. 11. Section 25178.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:
- 25178.1. (a) The Auditor General shall submit a report to the Legislature on or before November 1, 1987, on the hazardous waste fees system and the Toxic Substances Control Program of the department. The report shall include information on the following:
- (1) Data on regulatory activities paid for by previous Hazardous Waste Control Account expenditures, for the past three years, including all of the following information:
- (A) The number of hazardous waste facility permits reviewed and issued. The permits shall be classified by the type of facility, including the following data:

- (5) Methodologies for the department to identify generators of 500 pounds or more of hazardous waste per year in counties with memoranda of understanding with the department and in counties without memoranda of understanding with the department.

"Hazardous waste facility" for purposes of subdivisions (b) and (c) of paragraph (1) and paragraphs (2) and (3) shall include hazardous waste generators.

(b) The sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) which was appropriated to the department pursuant to Section 8 of Chapter 113 of the Statutes of 1985, is hereby reappropriated to the Joint Legislative Audit Committee of the Legislature for transfer to the Auditor General for the costs of preparing the report required by this section.

- (c) The State Board of Equalization shall provide quarterly reports to the Legislature on the fees collected pursuant to Sections 25174, 25205.2, and 25205.5. The reports shall be due on the 15th day of the second month following each quarter.
- SEC. 12. Section 25205.1 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.
- SEC. 13. Article 9.1 (commencing with Section 25205.1) is added to Chapter 6.5 of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

The department shall notify the board of all facility operators by facility type and size at the time it establishes the facility fees pursuant to Section 25205.3.

The department shall also notify the board of any operator issued a permit after the fees are established within 30 days after a permit is issued to the operator.

for which all the following apply:

- (1) "B" is the amount appropriated annually by the Legislature for the Hazardous Waste Control Account, including, but not limited to, any amounts appropriated for the compensation of employees.

- 25205.6. (a) The department shall compute the fees established pursuant to Section 25205.5 on or before November 1 of each year and the board shall submit a bill to each generator subject to these fees on or before December 1 of each year.
- (b) The amount of the fee in the bill submitted to each generator pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be paid by the following January 1.
- (c) The department shall notify the board of the occurance of any of the following:
- (1) The issuance of a permit to any facility operator, who has not previously been granted interim status, within 30 days after the facility permit is issued.

- (2) When any small storage facility or small treatment facility meets the criteria for a large storage facility or large treatment facility pursuant to Section 25205.4 during the current fiscal year.
- (3) When any generator generates an amount of hazardous waste that meets a category specified in paragraphs (4), (5), (6), or (7) of subdivision (b) of Section 25205.5 during the current fiscal year and this amount is greater than the amount under which the generator had been previously classified.
  - (4) The discovery of any generator not previously identified.

- (e) If any fee is not paid in the time prescribed by this section, the generator shall pay the penalties and interest imposed pursuant to Sections 43155 and 43156 of the Revenue and Taxation Code except that the board may grant an extension pursuant to Section 43154 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.
- (f) The generator fee due under Section 25205.5 shall be offset by any fees paid by the generator during the preceeding calendar year for a local hazardous waste management program conducted by a local agency pursuant to a memorandum of understanding with the department. The amount of the credit provided under this subdivision shall not exceed an amount equal to the fees paid to the local agency or the generator fee due under Section 25205.5, whichever is less. The credit for local fees paid shall not include fees required under Chapter 6.7 (commencing with Section 25280) or Chapter 6.95 (commencing with Section 25500).
- 25205.7. (a) In addition to the fees imposed pursuant to Sections 25168, 25174, 25205.2, and 25205.5, the department may charge any person who generates, handles, treats, stores, recycles, or disposes of hazardous waste, the reasonable cost of services provided by the department concerning that person's activities which are in addition to any routine inspection, surveillance, and consultation services which are funded by the other fees specified in this section.
- (b) The department may impose a fee for routine inspection, surveillance, and consultation services upon any person who is subject to, and refuses to pay, the fees imposed pursuant to Section 25168, 25174, 25205.2, or 25205.5.
- (c) Services which are not routine inspection, surveillance, or consultation services include, the carrying out, or oversight of, site mitigation activities which are necessary to bring the person receiving the service into compliance with this chapter and does not include processing of permits and variances.
- (d) No person shall be charged a fee under this section unless written notice has been provided to that person of the department's statutory authority to charge a fee for that service.
  - (e) Any person producing a hazardous waste shall provide the person who will transport the hazardous waste with an applicable Uniform Hazardous Waste Manifest, completed as required by the department pursuant to Section 25160. The producer shall provide the manifest to the driver if the hazardous waste will be transported by vehicle, or to the person designated by the railroad corporation or vessel operator if the hazardous waste will be transported by rail or vessel, as specified in Section 25160. The producer shall send a copy of the manifest to the department within 30 days after submitting the hazardous waste for transport, as specified in Section 25160. If a manifest is improperly completed and the department returns the manifest to the person who completed the manifest, the resubmitted manifest shall be accompanied with a twenty dollar ($20) resubmittal fee.

25205.8. This article shall become inoperative on April 1, 1988, and, as of January 1, 1989, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

CHAPTER 1507

An act to add Chapter 6.98 (commencing with Section 25570) to Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous substances.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 6.98 (commencing with Section 25570) is added to Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 6.98. ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY ASSESSMENT

25570. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

- (1) The public has a low level of confidence in the ability of government or the private sector to ensure that manufacturers, users and disposers of hazardous substances comply fully with legal requirements for the management of these substances.
- (2) Recent federal studies by Congress and executive agencies document that voluntary compliance with environmental regulations nationwide is at an all time low of 25 percent. Such factors as inadequate enforcement and inadequate understanding of complex requirements result in a level of compliance with environmental requirements which is lower than in the early 1970's.
- (3) Another report documents that private sector investment in pollution control equipment has dropped 38 percent nationwide since 1980. Investment levels have dropped at the same time that legal requirements for hazardous substance management are taking effect.
- (4) Small businesses which are faced with complex regulations often do not know how to most effectively manage chemicals, or how to comply with these regulations at the least cost to the business.
  - (b) The Legislature further declares all of the following:
- (1) An Environmental Protection Agency policy statement issued in November of 1985 endorses the use of environmental quality assessments, which are also called environmental audits, and recommends that state and local governments initiate programs to encourage the broader use of the assessment process, and while the state should take steps to actively encourage the private sector use of environmental assessments, it is not the intention of the Legislature to require that any person or business utilize environmental assessors.

- (2) Environmental assessments can encourage voluntary compliance with both the letter and the spirit of the law as well as encourage cost-effective process improvements. By reducing potential liability, assessments can reduce the long-term costs of hazardous substance management. In addition, the use of assessments can help to build public confidence that hazardous substances are being managed in an increasingly safe manner. The use of independent environmental assessments is an important emerging feature of specific state hazardous substance management programs.
- (3) Many of California's major businesses have internal environmental assessment programs. Larger firms often maintain in-house staffs.
- (4) The state should provide a list of registered independent third-party assessors for use by small- and medium-sized firms seeking technical assistance to achieve and maintain regulatory compliance.
- 25570.1. This chapter shall be known and cited as the "Environmental Quality Assessment Act of 1986."
- 25570.2. For purposes of this chapter the following definitions apply:
  - (a) "Air board" means the State Air Resources Board.
- (b) "Cal-OSHA" means the Division of Occupational Safety and Health in the Department of Industrial Relations.
- (c) "Department" means the State Department of Health Services.
- (d) "Environmental quality assessment" or "assessment" means a systematic, documented, periodic, and objective review of the operations and practices, used by any commercial or industrial business or individual whose activities are regulated under Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100) or Chapter 6.95 (commencing with Section 25500), to achieve, monitor, maintain, and where feasible exceed, compliance with state environmental, worker health and safety, and public health requirements for the manufacture and use of hazardous substances and the generation and disposal of hazardous wastes. A complete environmental assessment includes a number of different components related to hazardous substance and hazardous waste management and requires the expertise of a variety of assessors. An environmental assessment includes technical or managerial recommendations or actions, of a general or specific nature, in one or more of the following areas:
- (1) Recommendations or specific actions for complying with, and where feasible, exceeding legal requirements in areas related to hazardous substance and hazardous waste management, including, but not limited to, air quality, water quality, emergency preparedness and response, hazard communications, and occupational safety and health.
  - (2) A qualitative review, or where feasible, a quantitative review, of the risks resulting from occupational, public or environmental exposure to hazardous substances.

- (3) Recommendations or actions for anticipating and minimizing the risks specified in paragraph (2), including any potential liability, associated with regulated and unregulated hazardous substances, and any suggested management procedures or practices.
- (e) "Environmental assessor" or "assessor" means an individual who, through academic training, occupational experience, and reputation, is qualified to objectively conduct one or more aspects of an environmental assessment. Environmental assessors are not employees of a state, local, or federal agency. Environmental assessors may include, but shall not be limited to, specialists trained as analytical chemists, professional engineers, epidemiologists, hydrologists, attorneys with expertise in hazardous substance law, physicians, industrial hygienists, toxicologists, and environmental program managers.
- (f) "Hazardous substance" shall have the same meaning as found in Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300) and "hazardous waste" shall have the same meaning as found in Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100).
  - (g) "Secretary" means the Secretary of Environmental Affairs.
- (h) "Water board" means the State Water Resources Control Board.
- 25570.3. (a) On or before September 1, 1987, the secretary in consultation with the department, the water board, the air board, and Cal-OSHA, shall develop, adopt, by regulation, and publicize criteria for the voluntary registration of environmental assessors who have the experience or other qualifications sufficient to conduct environmental assessments.

In specifying criteria for registration the secretary shall consider the following:

- (1) A minimum of two years of experience in successfully assisting businesses, government agencies, or labor organizations within the assessor's general field of expertise.
- (2) Recommendations from clients, colleagues, and professional associations.
- (3) Skills or expertise that represent an area of specialty within a field, such as professional engineering or engineering geology, for which the state now offers a certification, licensing, or registration process.
- (4) Pertinent specialized certification, licensing, or registration programs offered by professional associations or other private sector organizations.
- (5) Specific areas of expertise, including, but not limited to, underground tank checks or removal, small generator waste reduction, recycling, treatment and disposal, and prevention and control of air and water emissions or releases, assessment of soil or groundwater contamination, risk assessment and risk reduction recommendations, or occupational health and safety reviews.

- (b) The secretary may appoint an ad hoc advisory committee to assist in developing the requirements for registration. The members of the committee shall be representative of the range of professional skills that may be possessed by environmental assessors.
- (c) On and after October 1, 1987, any person may apply to the secretary to be registered as an environmental assessor. The secretary shall register as an environmental assessor any person who meets the criteria adopted pursuant to subdivision (a).
- (d) The secretary shall require each applicant for registration to pay the following fees:
- (1) An application fee of up to fifty dollars ($50) for each applicant seeking registration.
- (2) An annual fee of up to one hundred dollars ($100) for being listed as a registered assessor.
- (e) To the maximum extent feasible, the secretary shall assess the fees specified in subdivision (d) at a level sufficient to meet the costs of registration and the cost of listing pursuant to subdivision (g).
- (f) Any applicant denied registration shall be notified in writing of the reasons for denial.
- (g) On or before March 1, 1988, and annually thereafter, the secretary shall publish, and work with associations representing small- and medium-sized businesses to widely disseminate, a list of registered environmental assessors. The list shall be arranged according to types of tasks, and at a minimum, shall specify the professional and employment affiliations and the specific area of expertise of the assessor, and whether the assessor is a sales representative, owner, or part owner of a business that manufactures or distributes technology for hazardous substance or hazardous waste management. In addition, the list shall provide an alphabetical listing of firms that provide environmental assessment services and that employ registered assessors. The registered assessors employed by each firm shall be listed with the firm's name.
- (h) Each environmental assessor shall obtain a renewal of registration every five years following the date of initial registration. The secretary shall determine a renewal fee sufficient to cover the costs incurred in reassessing the qualifications of the applicant for renewal. In considering whether to renew the registration, the secretary shall also consider any complaints regarding the work of the assessor.
- (i) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no state agency, or employee of a state agency, shall be held liable for any injury or damages resulting from the services provided by a registered environmental assessor listed pursuant to subdivision (g). In any litigation regarding the registration process or the list of assessors, the Attorney General shall defend any state employee or state agency involved with the development or implementation of the program specified in this chapter. The secretary shall include a written disclaimer of liability as part of the published list of registered assessors.

- 25570.4. On or before April 1, 1988, the secretary shall report to the Legislature on all of the following:
- (a) The registration criteria developed pursuant to Section 25570.3.
- (b) Recommendations for statutory or regulatory modifications in the requirements for environmental assessors, including whether a minimum education or testing requirement is desirable.
- (c) The number, and areas of specialty, of applicants for registration.
- (d) The number, and areas of specialty, of registered environmental assessors listed pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 25570.3.
- (e) The percentage of applicants denied registration, and recommendations as to the need for, and means for establishing, an appeal mechanism for these applicants.
- (f) An assessment of the success of the registration program in assisting small- and medium-sized businesses.

CHAPTER 1508

An act to amend Sections 25356 and 25356.1 of, and to add Section 25327 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous substances, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares as follows:

- (1) The priority site ranking process for hazardous substance release sites includes factors other than the actual threat to public health or the environment, or the probability of a rapid cost escalation.
- (2) In ranking sites, the estimated cost of cleanup has been given too great a weight, so that inexpensive sites of relatively low risk are frequently scheduled for early cleanup.
- (3) Serious California sites that appear on the Environmental Protection Agency's National Priority List are often assigned a low rank on the state priority list.
- (4) The department's present process for the numerical ranking of sites is based on a site characterization process that is capable of determining the absolute, but not the relative, differences in severity between any two sites. Precise site ranking implies a greater ability to precisely characterize site contamination than is presently possible, resulting in public confusion about the state's cleanup

- (b) The Legislature therefore declares all of the following:
- (1) Site priority ranking for removal and remedial actions should be based primarily on an assessment of the site's direct risk to public health and on the avoidance of rapid cost escalation if removal and remedial action is deferred.
- (2) Estimated cost of cleanup should not be a major criterion in setting priorities for removal and remedial action and should be considered only in determining the relative priority for removal and remedial action between two or more sites that have similar characteristics and pose substantially equivalent risks.
- (3) State sites should be assigned priority ranking solely on the basis of actual threat, regardless of whether the site is ranked on the Environmental Protection Agency's National Priority List.
- (4) Sites that have been at least partially characterized and that have been listed for removal and remedial action shall, for the purpose of informing the public of state priorities, be assigned to one of three tiers and shall be listed by alphabetical order within each tier but shall not be numerically ranked.
- SEC. 2. Section 25327 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:
- 25327. "Tier" means a grouping of hazardous substance release sites that require removal and remedial actions, that are listed alphabetically, and that are of a roughly equivalent priority for removal and remedial action.
- SEC. 3. Section 25356 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- (a) The department shall adopt, by regulation, the criteria for the selection and for the priority ranking of sites pursuant to subdivision (b), for removal and remedial action under this chapter, and shall adopt criteria for the assignment of sites to one of the three tiers pursuant to subdivision (c). The criteria shall take into account the pertinent factors relating to the public health and the environment, which shall include, but are not limited to, potential hazards to public health and environment, the risk of fire or explosion, toxic hazards, the extent to which the deferral of a remedial action will result, or is likely to result, in a rapid increase in cost, or in hazard to human health and the environment, and the criteria-established pursuant to Section 105(8) of the federal act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 9605(8)). The criteria may include a minimum hazard threshold, below which sites shall not be listed pursuant to this section, if the sites are subject to the authority of the department to order removal or remedial action, or similar action, pursuant to Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100).
- (b) The department shall publish and revise, at least annually, a listing of the sites subject to this chapter. The sites shall be categorized and placed on one of the following lists:
- (1) A list of the hazardous substance release sites for which the department has identified a responsible party, and the responsible party is in compliance, as determined by the department, with an order issued, or an enforceable agreement entered into, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25355.5. The department shall publish the list of sites under this paragraph in an appendix to the site-specific plan of expenditures prepared pursuant to Section 25334.5.

- (2) A list of the hazardous substance release sites for which all of the following apply:
- (A) The department has not been able to identify a responsible party or the responsible party is not in compliance, as determined by the department, with an order issued, or an enforceable agreement entered into, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25355.5.
- (B) The nature and extent of the hazardous substance release at the site has not been adequately characterized by the responsible party or the department.

The department shall characterize a site on the list before ranking the site on the list described in paragraph (3).

- (3) A list of the hazardous substance release sites which were previously listed pursuant to paragraph (1), if the sites have been adequately characterized but the responsible parties are not in compliance with an order or enforceable agreement issued or entered into pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25355.5, or sites which were previously listed pursuant to paragraph (2) but which have since been adequately characterized by the department. Sites on the list specified in this paragraph shall be ranked numerically in accordance with the criteria adopted for the priority ranking of sites.
- (c) The department shall assign each site listed pursuant to paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (b), sites listed on the National Priorities List pursuant to the federal act, and sites which are federal military facilities to one of three tiers for the purpose of informing the public of the relative hazard of the sites. The listing of sites by tiers shall be widely disseminated to the public. The "priority one" tier shall include any site that poses a known or probable immediate threat to public health through direct human contact, explosions, fires, or acutely serious air emissions, has a high potential to contaminate or to continue to contaminate groundwater resources that are present or possible future sources of drinking water, or any site for which the costs for removal and remedial action pose the risk of increasing rapidly if removal or remedial action is deferred. The "priority two" tier shall include any site that poses a substantial but less immediate threat to public health and safety or the environment. The "priority three" tier shall include any site that will require removal and remedial action, but presents only a limited and defined threat to human health or the environment. Priority two and three tiers may contain sites formerly listed in tiers one or two for which direct human health threats have been removed and at which physical deterioration in environmental quality has been stabilized. For the purpose of this subdivision, in informing the public of the relative environmental and public health threats posed by a site, the department shall list sites alphabetically within each of the three tiers. The department shall periodically update the list of sites by tiers to reflect new information regarding existing sites or the addition of new sites requiring removal and remedial action. No site listed pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) shall be listed pursuant to this subdivision.

- (d) The department's development and publication of the listings of sites, pursuant to subdivision (b) and the adoption of a minimum hazard threshold and the classification of a site as within that threshold pursuant to subdivision (a), are not subject to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.
- (e) Funds appropriated to the department for remedial action shall be expended in conformance with the priority ranking of sites, as established on the list of sites specified in paragraph (3) of subdivision (b), except that funds appropriated for remedial action may be expended without conforming to the priority ranking if both of the following apply:
- (1) The funds are necessary to monitor removal or remedial actions conducted by private parties listed pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) or the state funds are necessary for the state share of a removal or remedial action pursuant to Section 104(c) (3) of the federal act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 9604(c) (3)).
  - (2) The funds are used for either of the following purposes:
- (A) To assess, evaluate, and characterize the nature and extent of a hazardous substance release on sites listed pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (b).
- (B) To carry out activities pursuant to paragraph (2) or (3) of subdivision (b), or subdivision (c) or (d) of, Section 25355.5.

  (f) Funds may be expended on more than one site on the list
- (f) Funds may be expended on more than one site on the list specified in paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (b) at any one time. In addition, funds may be expended for oversight of any activities conducted by a responsible party on more than one site on the list specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) at any one time.
- (g) This section does not require the department to characterize every site listed pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) before the department may begin removal or remedial actions at sites listed pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (b).
- SEC. 4. Section 25356.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:
- 25356.1. (a) The department, or, if appropriate, the regional water quality control board shall prepare or approve remedial action plans for all sites listed pursuant to Section 25356.
- (b) A potentially responsible party may request the department or the regional water quality control board, when appropriate, to prepare or approve a remedial action plan for any site not listed pursuant to Section 25356 if the department or the State Water Resources Control Board determines that a removal or remedial action is required to respond to a release of a hazardous substance. The department or the state board shall respond to a request to prepare or approve a remedial action plan within 90 days of receipt. This subdivision does not affect the authority of any regional water quality control board to issue and enforce a cleanup and abatement order pursuant to Section 13304 of the Water Code or a cease and desist order pursuant to Section 13301 of the Water Code.

- (c) All remedial action plans prepared or approved pursuant to this section shall be based upon Section 25350, Subpart F of the National Oil and Hazardous Substances Pollution Contingency Plan (40 C.F.R. Sec. 300.61 et seq.), and upon all of the following factors, to the extent that these factors are consistent with these federal regulations and do not require a less stringent level of cleanup than these federal regulations:
- (1) Health and safety risks posed by the conditions at the site. When considering these risks, the department or the regional water quality control board shall consider scientific data and reports which may have a relationship to the site.
- (2) The effect of contamination or pollution levels upon present, future, and probable beneficial uses of contaminated, polluted, or threatened resources.
- (3) The effect of alternative remedial action measures on the reasonable availability of groundwater resources for present, future, and probable beneficial uses. The department or regional water quality control board shall consider the extent to which remedial action measures are available which use, as a principal element, treatment that significantly reduces the volume, toxicity, or mobility of the hazardous substances, as opposed to remedial actions which do not use this treatment. The department or regional water quality control board shall not select remedial action measures which use offsite transport and disposal of untreated hazardous substances or contaminated materials if practical and cost-effective treatment technologies are available.
- (4) Site specific characteristics, including the potential for offsite migration of hazardous substances, the surface or subsurface soil, and the hydrogeologic conditions, as well as preexisting background contamination levels.
- (5) Cost effectiveness of alternative remedial action measures. In evaluating the cost effectiveness of proposed alternative remedial action measures, the department or regional water quality control board shall consider, to the extent possible, the total short-term and long-term costs of these actions and shall use, as a major factor, whether the deferral of a remedial action will result, or is likely to result, in a rapid increase in cost or in the hazard to public health or the environment posed by the site. Land disposal shall not be deemed the most cost-effective measure merely on the basis of lower short-term cost.
- (6) The potential environmental impacts of alternative remedial action measures, including, but not limited to, land disposal of the untreated hazardous substances as opposed to treatment of the hazardous substances to remove or reduce its volume, toxicity, or mobility prior to disposal.

- (d) A remedial action plan prepared or approved pursuant to this section shall include a statement of reasons setting forth the basis for the removal and remedial actions selected. The statement shall include an evaluation of each proposed alternative submitted to, or prepared by, the department or the regional water quality control board for a particular site. The statement shall also include an evaluation of the consistency of the removal and remedial actions proposed by the plan with the federal regulations and factors specified in subdivision (c) and shall set forth the reasons for rejection of alternative removal and remedial actions. The statement shall also include a nonbinding preliminary allocation responsibility among all identifiable potentially responsible parties at a particular site, including those parties which may have been released, or may otherwise be immune, from liability pursuant to this chapter or any other provision of law. Before adopting a final remedial action plan, the department or the regional water quality control board shall prepare or approve a draft remedial action plan and shall do all of the following:
- (1) Circulate the draft plan for at least 30 days for public comment.
- (2) Notify affected local and state agencies of the removal and remedial actions proposed in the remedial action plan and publish a notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the area affected by the draft remedial action plan. The department or the regional water quality control board shall also post notices in the location where the proposed removal or remedial action would be located and shall notify, by direct mailing, the owners of property contiguous to the site addressed by the plan, as shown in the latest equalized assessment roll.
- (3) Hold one or more meetings with the lead and responsible agencies for the removal and remedial actions, the potentially responsible parties for the removal and remedial actions, and the interested public, to provide the public with the information which is necessary to address the issues which concern the public. The information to be provided shall include an assessment of the degree of contamination, the characteristics of the hazardous substances, an estimate of the time required to carry out the removal and remedial actions, and a description of the proposed removal and remedial actions.
  - (4) Comply with Section 25358.7.
- (e) After complying with subdivision (d), the department or the regional water quality control board shall review and consider any public comments, and shall revise the draft plan, if appropriate. The department or the regional water quality control board shall then issue the final remedial action plan.
- (f) A potentially responsible party named in the final remedial action plan issued by the department or the regional water quality control board may seek judicial review of the final remedial action plan pursuant to Section 1085 of the Code of Civil Procedure within 30 days after the final plan is issued. The filing of a petition seeking judicial review of a final remedial action plan shall not stay any removal or remedial action specified in the final plan.

For purposes of judicial review, the court shall uphold the final remedial action plan if the plan is based upon substantial evidence available to the department or the regional water quality control board, as the case may be. This subdivision does not prohibit the court from granting any appropriate relief within its jurisdiction, including, but not limited to, enjoining the expenditure of funds pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 25385.6.

- (g) This section does not require the department or a regional water quality control board to prepare a remedial action plan if conditions present at a site present an imminent or substantial endangerment to the public health and safety or to the environment.
- (h) Article 2 (commencing with Section 13320), Article 3 (commencing with Section 13330), Article 5 (commencing with Section 13350), and Article 6 (commencing with Section 13360) of Chapter 5 of Division 7 of the Water Code apply to any action or failure to act by a regional water quality control board pursuant to this section.
- SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act.
- SEC. 6. (a) Notwithstanding the criterion for the eligibility for connection to the permanent, alternative water supply to be provided in Glen Avon, as specified in category (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 3 of Chapter 1428 of the Statutes of 1985, funds appropriated pursuant to Section 3 of Chapter 1428 and approved pursuant to an expenditure plan submitted pursuant to Section 6 of Chapter 1428 shall instead be expended in accordance with the criteria and requirements set forth in this section.
- (b) (1) Any residential or commercial structure in Glen Avon, whose construction was completed on or before October 1, 1985, which had relied on a private well supply for domestic use, is eligible to be connected to a permanent, alternative water supply pursuant to this subdivision, regardless of whether persons residing in or occupying the structure are receiving bottled water, if it is located within the area bounded on the north by a line 1,000 feet north of, and parallel to, the centerline of State Highway Route 60; bounded on the east by the centerline of Soto Street; bounded on the south by the Riverside-Jurupa Canal and Limonite Avenue between the canal and Van Buren Boulevard; and bounded on the west by the centerlines of Van Buren Boulevard, Felspar Street, and Kenneth Street and the extension thereof north of State Highway Route 60; or if it fronts on Soto Street south of Jurupa Road or fronts on Galena Street between Felspar Street and a line 3,000 feet west of, and parallel to, the centerline of Felspar Street.

The basis for eligibility specified in this subdivision shall cease January 1, 1987, and any connection made to a residential or commercial structure occupied subsequent to that date shall be subject to any charges for the connection imposed by the Jurupa Community Services District.

- (2) Notwithstanding the establishment of eligibility pursuant to paragraph (1), in any instance in which a residential or commercial structure located in the area specified in paragraph (1) was constructed in violation of state law or regulation or local ordinance or regulation, as determined by the County of Riverside, the determination of whether the structure shall be connected to a permanent, alternative water supply shall be made by the County of Riverside on or before November 1, 1986. The County of Riverside may not authorize this connection to such a structure if the determination is made after November 1, 1986.
- (3) Any person occupying, owning, or leasing a residential or commercial structure located within the area described in paragraph (1) who had relied on a private well supply for domestic use, and who, between June 1, 1984, and January 1, 1987, connected the structure to the Jurupa Community Services District's water system at the person's own expense, may submit a claim to the district for reimbursement of all fees and charges paid to the district for the connection, plus an amount which is the lesser of the actual costs incurred by the person in completing the connection from the district water meter to the structure in making the connection or the average cost of completing such a connection pursuant to this section, as determined by the district. To be eligible for consideration for reimbursement, no claim may be submitted to the district after March 1, 1987. The district shall evaluate the claim and submit the amount approved for the claim to the State Department of Health Services. The State Department of Health Services shall disburse to the Jurupa Community Services District, from the funds reappropriated in subdivision (a) of this section, an amount sufficient to reimburse a claim submitted pursuant to this paragraph. Any costs incurred by the district in evaluating the claim shall be borne by the district. The department shall report to the Chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee the amount of, and circumstances concerning, any reimbursement authorized pursuant to this paragraph.
- (c) In exceptional cases arising from any inaccuracy in the description in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b), the State Director of Health Services may authorize a connection to a structure that does not meet the eligibility requirements set forth in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) if the director determines that not making the connection would be inequitable and unreasonable. No exceptions may be made, however, for the requirements set forth in paragraph (2) or (3) of subdivision (b).

SEC. 7. (a) The sum of one million dollars ($1,000,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Department of Health Services to commence removal and remedial actions at the ASARCO hazardous substance release site in Contra Costa County.

- (b) The appropriation made by this section is not an admission by the state for any responsibility for any specific portion of the total removal and remedial action costs for that site.
- (c) If the state is awarded any funds from ASARCO in any action to determine liability for the costs of removal and remedial action at the ASARCO hazardous substance release site, these funds shall be used to reimburse the General Fund for the appropriation made pursuant to this section.
- (d) If any funds, other than funds from the Hazardous Substance Account in the General Fund, are made available to fund the portion of the removal and remedial action at the ASARCO hazardous substance release site for which the state is determined by the court to be liable, these funds shall be used to reimburse the General Fund for the appropriation made pursuant to this section.
- SEC. 8. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to resolve issues of eligibility for connection to a water system at Glen Avon so that installation of the water system can proceed without delay, to clarify the source of funds to be used in removal or remedial action at a hazardous release site on state property, to provide for the publication of more useful information about hazardous substance release sites, and to make funds available for removal and remedial at the ASARCO hazardous substance release site at the earliest opportunity, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1509

An act to add Article 7.7 (commencing with Section 25179.1) to Chapter 6.5 of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 7.7 (commencing with Section 25179.1) is added to Chapter 6.5 of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 7.7. Hazardous Waste Management Act of 1986

25179.2. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

- (a) Most of the hazardous waste generated in California continues to be deposited using landfills, land treatment, and other land applications.
- (b) State permitted land disposal facilities, once considered secure, are increasingly found to have problems containing the waste deposited therein, making it impossible to guarantee long-term security. Hazardous wastes have been shown to migrate from land disposal facilities and contaminate the environment through leakage and runoff in landfills, seepage, runoff, and air emissions from ponds, percolation from improper land applications, leaks in the equipment used for injection wells, and leaks from buried drums and tanks.
- (c) The disposal of untreated hazardous waste in or onto land without adequate technical safeguards threatens not only the quality of the state's land, air, and water resources, but poses a direct hazard to health and safety by exposing the public to substances that have been found to cause cancer, birth defects, miscarriages, nervous disorders, blood diseases, and damage to vital organs and genes.
- (d) The number of contaminated hazardous waste sites in the state continues to grow. Cleaning up the contamination and eliminating the threat to public health and the environment will be very costly.
- (e) It is, therefore, in the public interest to establish a program to limit the use of land disposal practices which do not meet certain prescribed standards and promote alternatives for hazardous waste management.
- (f) It is the intent of the Legislature to guide hazardous waste management toward more efficient and secure methods by establishing management priorities for future legislative and administrative action.
- (g) It is also the intent of the Legislature to adopt reasonable and realistic methods for addressing the environmental risks associated with land disposal of hazardous waste. However, it is not the Legislature's intent to impose hazardous waste management requirements upon hazardous waste generators and hazardous waste storage, treatment, and disposal facilities located within the state which could, if so imposed, encourage illegal disposal practices or force California generators to seek hazardous waste disposal solutions in other states or countries, thereby shifting the state's hazardous waste treatment and disposal burdens to other jurisdictions.
- (h) Nothing in this article affects the authority of the department to regulate facilities used for the management of nonhazardous agricultural drainage water.
- 25179.3. For the purposes of this article, the following definitions apply:

- (a) "Agricultural drainage water" means subsurface water or perched groundwater which is drained from beneath agricultural lands and which results from agricultural irrigation.
  - (b) "Board" means the State Water Resources Control Board.
- (c) "Free liquids" mean liquids which readily separate from the solid portion of a hazardous waste under ambient temperature and pressure.
- (d) "Hazardous waste constituent" means an element, chemical compound, or mixture of compounds which is a component of a hazardous waste or leachate and which has the physical or chemical properties that cause the waste to be identified as hazardous waste by the department.
- (e) "Hazardous waste facility" means all contiguous land, structures, and other appurtenances and improvements on the land, used for the treatment, transfer, storage, resource recovery, disposal, or recycling of hazardous waste.
- (f) "Hazardous waste facilities permit" means a permit issued by the department pursuant to Section 25200.
- (g) "Hazardous waste landfill" means a disposal facility, or part of a facility, where hazardous waste is placed in or onto land and which is not a land treatment facility, a surface impoundment, or an injection well.
- (h) "Land disposal" means any placement of hazardous waste in or onto land at a hazardous waste facility, including, but not limited to, disposal using a landfill, a waste pile, commingling with municipal garbage, a surface impoundment, pit, pond, lagoon, sump, a land treatment facility, land spreading, injection wells, or any other land application technique.
- (i) "Leachate" means any liquid, including any suspended components in the liquid, that has percolated through or drained from hazardous waste.
- (j) Notwithstanding Section 25123.5, and for the purposes of this article only, "treatment" means any method, technique, or process, including incineration, occurring at authorized facilities which changes the physical, chemical, or biological character or composition of any hazardous waste and, by that change, the waste becomes nonhazardous, significantly less hazardous, or more suitable for land disposal because of removal or substantial reduction of undesirable properties, such as toxicity, mobility, persistence, reactivity, bioaccumulation, flammability, or corrosivity. "Treatment" does not include any of the following, to the extent that one or more of the following are the only methods which are used:
- (1) Solidification of hazardous waste by the addition of absorbent material which produces a change only in the physical character of the waste without a corresponding change in the chemical character of the waste.
- (2) Treatment occurring directly in or on the land, such as land treatment, except that treatment may include in situ treatment necessary for site mitigation.

- (3) Dilution of hazardous waste by the addition of nonhazardous material.
  - (4) Evaporation in a surface impoundment.
- (k) "Small containers of hazardous waste in lab packs" means a container meeting the requirements of Section 66910 of Title 22 of the California Administrative Code.
- (1) "Treated hazardous waste" means a hazardous waste which has been subject to treatment, as specified in subdivision (j), and which meets treatment standards established by the department pursuant to Section 25179.6.

"Treated hazardous waste" also includes a hazardous waste which meets the treatment standards established by the department pursuant to Section 25179.6 without prior treatment. If a treatment standard has not been established for a hazardous waste, the hazardous waste shall be considered a treated hazardous waste if the waste complies with one of the following:

- (1) The waste complies with the criteria and requirements established in Section 66742 of Title 22 of the California Administrative Code and has been classified as a special waste pursuant to Section 66744 of Title 22 of the California Administrative Code.
- (2) The waste does not contain any persistent or bioaccumulative toxic substances in excess of the soluble threshold limit concentration for the substance, as established in regulations adopted by the department.
- 25179.4. In developing new programs and carrying out this chapter, the department and the board shall promote the following waste management practices in order of priority:
  - (a) Reduction of hazardous waste generated.
  - (b) Recycling of hazardous waste.
  - (c) Treatment of hazardous waste.
- (d) Land disposal of residuals from hazardous waste recycling and treatment.
- 25179.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, except as provided in Section 25179.9, no person shall dispose of liquid waste, liquid hazardous waste, or hazardous waste containing free liquids in a hazardous waste landfill.
- (b) On or before January 1, 1988, the department shall adopt criteria for the disposal of nonliquid hazardous wastes in a hazardous waste landfill including, where appropriate, standards for load bearing capacity, leachability, and permeability, which minimize the formation and migration of leachate which poses a threat to human health or which pollutes or threatens to pollute waters of the state.
- 25179.6. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, except as provided in Sections 25179.7, 25179.8, 25179.9, 25179.10, 25179.11, and 25179.12, on or before May 8, 1990, the department shall prohibit the land disposal of any hazardous waste after the effective date of the department's action, unless the waste is either a treated hazardous waste or unless the waste is a solid hazardous waste generated in the cleanup or decontamination of any site contaminated by hazardous waste which does not meet the treatment standards established by the department pursuant to this section, if the disposal of the waste has been approved by the department or other agency authorized to approve the cleanup or decontamination after considering those factors specified in subdivision (c) of Section 25356.1, regardless of whether a remedial action plan has been, or will be, prepared for the cleanup or decontamination.

(b) (1) As closely as possible with, but not later than six months following the dates specified in, the schedules required by subsection (g) of Section 6924 of Title 42 of the United States Code, the department shall adopt, on or before May 8, 1990, treatment standards specifying a method or methods of treatment, and the associated performance level, or the level of treatment required prior to the land disposal of each hazardous waste which meets the criteria adopted by the department pursuant to Section 25141.

If the department specifies a method or methods of treatment and an associated performance level, unless the hazardous waste is subject to subdivision (a) of Section 25155.5, any person may use an alternative treatment method if the person demonstrates to the satisfaction of the department that the alternative treatment method will result in a level of performance substantially equivalent or greater than that achievable using the method or methods specified by the department.

- (2) The treatment standards adopted pursuant to paragraph (1) shall be designed to minimize the hazardous characteristics of the waste and minimize the potential for bioaccumulation or migration of hazardous waste constituents from the waste into the air, land, and water resources of the state. In adopting these standards, the department shall consider applicable federal standards adopted by the Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to subsection (m) of Section 201 of the Hazardous and Solid Waste Amendments of 1984 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6924 (m)) to the extent that the federal treatment standards minimize the hazardous characteristics of the waste and the potential for bioaccumulation or migration of hazardous waste constituents. The department shall adopt treatment standards for any hazardous waste for which the Environmental Protection Agency has failed to adopt a treatment standard in accordance with the schedules required by subsection (g) of Section 6924 of Title 42 of the United States Code and for any hazardous waste for which a federal treatment standard does not minimize the hazardous characteristics of the waste and the potential for bioaccumulation or migration of hazardous waste constituents.
  - (3) For the purposes of this subdivision, the following shall apply:
- (A) "Minimization of hazardous characteristics and the potential for bioaccumulation or migration" means that level of treatment which is achievable using the best demonstrated available technology.

- (B) "Best demonstrated available technology" means a method of treatment which is available, or can be made available in a reasonable time, on a commercial scale and the performance of which has been demonstrated through reliable test data and project development sufficient in scope to ensure consistent results and standardized applicability.
- (c) Regulations establishing treatment standards adopted by the department pursuant to this section shall be deemed a necessity for purposes of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and the Office of Administrative Law shall not disapprove the regulations on the grounds that they do not meet the requirements of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 11349.1 of the Government Code.
- (d) At least every seven years from the date of adoption of regulations pursuant to subdivision (b), the department shall review each treatment standard and shall revise the treatment standard if the revised treatment standard will provide substantial additional protection to human health and the environment and the department finds that the cost of compliance to those industries which are required to replace or retrofit existing hazardous waste treatment units or processes is necessary to protect human health and the environment.

A revised treatment standard adopted pursuant to this subdivision shall be applicable to any hazardous waste treatment unit or process constructed after the revised treatment standard is adopted. The land disposal of hazardous waste treated in an existing treatment unit or process which does not provide a level of performance equivalent to the revised treatment standard shall not be prohibited by the department until two years following the adoption of the revised treatment standard, by which time the existing treatment unit or process shall be replaced or retrofitted to provide a level of performance equivalent to the revised treatment standard. The department may, on a case by case basis, extend the date by which an existing treatment unit or process shall be replaced or retrofitted, but not more than 10 additional years, if an extension is needed to avoid significant economic disruption to a specific firm or hazardous waste treatment facility.

25179.7. The department may extend the implementation date after which the land disposal of a hazardous waste is prohibited, pursuant to Section 25179.6, for a specific hazardous waste, if recycling and treatment capacity to process substantially all of the specific hazardous waste to meet the treatment standards adopted pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 25179.6 will not be provided at the site of generation or at a commercial offsite hazardous waste facility in the state. The department shall establish this date based upon the earliest date on which the department projects that adequate recycling and treatment capacity will be available, but not later than two years following the date the prohibition on land disposal of the waste would otherwise be implemented.

- 25179.8. (a) The department may grant a variance from the requirements of Section 25179.6 for a hazardous waste only if the person demonstrates, to the satisfaction of the department, that all of the following conditions apply to the waste:
- (1) The hazardous waste cannot be recycled, reused, or treated to meet the standards adopted by the department pursuant to Section 25179.6 at a commercial offsite hazardous waste facility in the state.
- (2) Recycling or treatment alternatives cannot be provided at the site of generation.
- (3) Measures have been, or will be, taken to reduce the generation of the hazardous waste.
- (4) Land disposal of the hazardous waste is in compliance with all existing statutes and regulations.
- (b) If the department, pursuant to Section 25179.7, extends the date to prohibit the use of a land disposal method for a specific hazardous waste, as specified in Section 25179.6, a person applying for a variance for the specified waste shall demonstrate that circumstances beyond the control of the applicant, such as delays in the issuance of a permit, have prevented the development of the needed capacity by the date established by the department.
- (c) A variance granted by the department pursuant to subdivision (a) shall remain in effect for one year. The department may renew the variance once for an additional period of one year, if the applicant demonstrates, to the satisfaction of the department, that the needed capacity can be provided by the end of the period of renewal. No variance or renewal of a variance shall remain in effect beyond the two-year period following the effective date after which land disposal of a hazardous waste is prohibited pursuant to Section 25179.6.
- (d) The department may grant a variance from the requirements of Section 25179.6 for agricultural drainage waters which meet the criteria established by the department pursuant to Section 25141 if a person demonstrates, to the satisfaction of the department, that all of the following conditions apply to the waste:
- (1) There are no technically and economically feasible treatment, reuse, or recycling alternatives available to render the agricultural drainage water nonhazardous.
- (2) The applicant can demonstrate that the continued disposal of agricultural drainage waters does not pose an immediate or significant long-term risk to public health or the environment.
- (3) The disposal of the agricultural drainage waters is in compliance with the requirements of Section 25179.5.

Notwithstanding subdivision (c), a variance granted by the department pursuant to this subdivision shall remain in effect for three years. The variance may be renewed during or before 1993 for an additional three years, but not beyond 1996, if the applicant demonstrates that treatment, reuse, or recycling capacity may be available within three years from the date of renewal to render the agricultural drainage waters nonhazardous.

- (e) When granting a variance pursuant to this section, the department may specify, where appropriate, any treatment which shall be required prior to land disposal of the waste, and may impose requirements which may be necessary to protect the public health and the environment.
- 25179.9. Small containers of hazardous waste in lab packs are exempt from the requirements of Sections 25179.5 and 25179.6 if they are disposed of in accordance with the requirements of Section 66910 of Title 22 of the California Administrative Code.
- 25179.10. (a) The department may grant an exemption from the requirements of Section 25179.6 pursuant to subdivision (b) for either of the following:
- (1) Any special waste which meets the criteria and requirements established in Section 66742 of Title 22 of the California Administrative Code and has been classified as a special waste pursuant to Section 66744 of Title 22 of the California Administrative Code but does not meet the treatment standards established by the department pursuant to Section 25179.6.
- (2) Any hazardous waste generated in the extraction, beneficiation, or processing of ores and minerals.
- (b) The department may grant an exemption for a waste specified in subdivision (a) if a person, upon application, demonstrates to the satisfaction of the department that no economically and technologically feasible alternatives exist to recycle, reuse, or treat the waste to meet the treatment standards adopted by the department pursuant to Section 25179.6 and that there will be no migration of hazardous waste constituents in concentrations which pollute or threaten to pollute the waters of the state from the disposal unit where the waste is to be disposed. An exemption granted pursuant to this subdivision shall remain in effect for five years. The department may renew the exemption if, upon application, it determines that the findings required by this subdivision still apply.
- 25179.11. (a) A person discharging a hazardous waste into a surface impoundment which was constructed before July 1, 1986, and for which an application for waste discharge requirements was submitted on or before September 1, 1986, is exempt from the requirements of Section 25179.6 if all of the following conditions apply to the surface impoundment:
- (1) The surface impoundment is in compliance with Article 9.5 (commencing with Section 25208).
- (2) Hazardous waste is discharged into the impoundment for the purposes of treating the waste to comply with the treatment standard adopted by the department pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 25179.6 for that hazardous waste, and the residues which result from the treatment of that hazardous waste which do not meet that treatment standard are removed for subsequent management within one year of the date of placement of the hazardous waste into the surface impoundment, or the operator has received an exemption pursuant to Section 25208.16.

- (b) A person discharging hazardous waste into a surface impoundment which was constructed after July 1, 1986, and for which an application for waste discharge requirements is submitted after September 1, 1986, is exempt from the requirements of Section 25179.6 if all of the following conditions apply to the surface impoundment:
- (1) The surface impoundment is in compliance with Article 9.5 (commencing with Section 25208).
- (2) Hazardous waste is discharged into the surface impoundment for the purposes of treating the waste to comply with the treatment standard adopted by the department pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 25179.6 for that hazardous waste, and the residues which result from the treatment of that hazardous waste which do not meet that treatment standard are removed for subsequent management within one year of the date of placement of the hazardous waste into the surface impoundment.
- (3) The department determines that the use of the surface impoundment to treat the hazardous waste is the only means by which the hazardous waste can be treated using the best demonstrated available technology.
- 25179.12. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), a person operating a land treatment facility is exempt from the requirements of Section 25179.6 if the facility is in compliance with the requirements of all state and federal statutes and regulations applicable to land treatment facilities, including, but not limited to, subdivision (b), and the facility has either been issued a final permit or is operating under, and in compliance with, the requirements of interim status and the facility operator has submitted an application for a final permit.
- (b) Land treatment facilities at which hazardous waste constituents have migrated from the treatment zone shall not be eligible for an exemption pursuant to subdivision (a) until the contamination has been removed to the satisfaction of the department. In order for the department to determine whether hazardous waste constituents have migrated from the treatment zone, the owner or operator of the land treatment facility shall provide data to the department on at least all of the following:
  - (1) Soil cores taken from below the treatment zone.
  - (2) Groundwater monitoring.
  - (3) Unsaturated zone monitoring.
  - (4) Waste analysis.
  - (5) Historical activities at the facility.
- SEC. 2. Reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code and, if the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund, except that no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1510

An act to amend Sections 6140.1, 6140.3, 6140.5, and 6141 of, to add Sections 6060.3 and 6140.6 to, and to add and repeal Section 6140 of, the Business and Professions Code, relating to the State Bar of California.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6060.3 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

- 6060.3. (a) The fee imposed on nonattorney applicants for late filing of the application to take the general bar examination shall be fixed by the board as follows:
- (1) The late fee applicable until 14 days after the timely filing deadline shall not exceed fifty dollars ($50).
- (2) The late fee for applications received subsequent to 14 days after the timely filing deadline until 70 days prior to the examination shall not exceed two hundred dollars ($200).
- (3) The late fee for applications received subsequent to 70 days prior to the examination until 30 days prior to the examination shall not exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250).
- (4) The late fee for applications received subsequent to 30 days prior to the examination until 14 days prior to the examination shall not exceed three hundred fifty dollars ($350).
- (b) Application fees for the general bar examination, including fees for late filing, shall be refunded if the applicant does not take the general bar examination because of the death of an immediate family member or the serious illness or disabling injury of the applicant or a member of his or her immediate family. A deduction may be made from the refund for administrative costs. The board shall adopt regulations for the administration of this subdivision. This subdivision shall not be construed to prohibit the refund of fees in instances other than those specified.
- SEC. 2. Section 6140.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:
- 6140.1. The State Bar annually shall submit its proposed baseline budget for the following fiscal year to the appropriate fiscal committees of the Legislature and the Joint Legislative Budget Committee by November 15, and its proposed final budget by February 15, so that the budget can be reviewed and approved in conjunction with any bill that would authorize the imposition of membership dues.

The State Bar shall submit the budget documents in a form comparable to the documents prepared by state departments for inclusion in the Governor's Budget and the salaries and wages supplement. In addition, the bar shall provide supplementary schedules detailing operating expenses and equipment, all revenue sources, any reimbursements or interfund transfers, fund balances, and other related supporting documentation. The bar shall submit budget change proposals with its final budget, explaining the need for any differences between the current and proposed budgets.

- SEC. 3. Section 6140 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:
- 6140. (a) The board shall fix the annual membership fee for 1987 as follows:

CHAPTER 1511

An act to add Section 408.3 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- SECTION 1. Section 408.3 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:
- 408.3. (a) Except as otherwise provided in Sections 451 and 481 of this code and in Section 6254 of the Government Code, property characteristics information maintained by the assessor is a public record and shall be open to public inspection.

(b) For purposes of this section, "property characteristics," includes, but is not limited to, the year of construction of improvements to the property, their square footage, the number of bedrooms and bathrooms of all dwellings, the property's acreage, and other attributes of or amenities to the property, such as swimming pools, views, zoning classifications or restrictions, use code designations, and the number of dwelling units of multiple family properties.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 6257 of the Government Code or any other provision of law, if the assessor provides property characteristics information at the request of any party, the assessor may require that a fee reasonably related to the actual cost of developing and providing the information be paid by the party receiving the information.

The actual cost of providing the information is not limited to duplication or production costs, but may include recovery of developmental and indirect costs, such as overhead, personnel, supply, material, office, storage, and computer costs. All revenue collected by the assessor for providing information under this section shall be used solely to support, maintain, improve, and provide for the creation, retention, automation, and retrieval of assessor information.

- (d) The Legislature finds and declares that information concerning property characteristics is maintained solely for assessment purposes and is not continuously updated by the assessor. Therefore, neither the county nor the assessor shall incur any liability for errors, omissions, or approximations with respect to property characteristics information provided by the assessor to any party pursuant to this section. Further, this subdivision shall not be construed to imply liability on the part of the county or the assessor for errors, omissions, or other defects in any other information or records provided by the assessor pursuant to the provisions of this part.
- (e) Except as provided in subdivision (f), this section shall apply only to a county with a population which exceeds 715,000.
- (f) In any county with a population of 715,000 or less, the assessor may make property characteristics information open to public inspection.
- SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

CHAPTER 1512

An act to add Chapter 1.5 (commencing with Section 53175) to Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, relating to public facilities.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 1.5 (commencing with Section 53175) is added to Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 1.5. INTEGRATED FINANCING DISTRICT ACT

Article 1. Definitions and General Provisions

53175. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Integrated Financing District Act.

53175.5. This chapter provides an alternative method of financing public facilities. This chapter does not limit the application of any other laws that provide for financing governmental facilities. A local agency may use the provisions of this chapter instead of, or in conjunction with, any other method of financing part or all of the cost of providing capital facilities. The provisions of this chapter governing the establishment and operation of an integrated financing district shall, to the extent of any conflict, prevail over any other provision of law.

53176. This chapter shall be liberally construed in order to effectuate its purposes. No inadvertent error, irregularity, informality, or the inadvertent neglect or omission of any officer, in any procedure taken under this chapter, other than fraud, shall void or invalidate that proceeding, any levy imposed to finance the cost of a public facility, or any reimbursement agreement.

53176.5. The inadvertent failure of any person to receive a notice, resolution, order, or other matter shall not affect in any way whatsoever the validity of any proceedings taken under this chapter, or prevent the legislative body from proceeding with any hearing so noticed.

53177. This chapter applies to all local agencies insofar as those entities have the authority to use any of the financing acts specified in subdivision (b) of Section 53179. The officers of local agencies who have similar powers and duties as the municipal officers referred to in this chapter shall have the powers and duties given by this chapter to municipal officials. Where no similar officer exists, the legislative body of the local agency shall, by resolution, appoint a person or designate an officer to perform the duties required to be performed by this chapter.

53178. Division 4 (commencing with Section 2800) of the Streets and Highways Code does not apply to proceedings taken under or in conjunction with this chapter.

53179. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions contained in this article shall govern the construction of this chapter.

- (a) "District" means the area of land included within an integrated financing district established pursuant to this chapter, which shall be the same as the area of land included within the associated financing district authorized by a financing act.
- (b) "Financing act" means the Improvement Act of 1911 (Division 7 (commencing with Section 5000) of the Streets and Highways Code), the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913 (Division 12 (commencing with Section 10000) of the Streets and Highways Code), the Improvement Bond Act of 1915 (Division 10 (commencing with Section 8500) of the Streets and Highways Code), the Landscaping and Lighting Act of 1972 (Part 2 (commencing with Section 22500) of Division 15 of the Streets and Highways Code), the Vehicle Parking District Law of 1943 (Part 1 (commencing with Section 31500) of Division 18 of the Streets and Highways Code), the Parking District Law of 1951 (Part 4) (commencing with Section 35100) of Division 18 of the Streets and Highways Code), the Park and Playground Act of 1909 (Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 38000) of Part 2 of Division 3 of Title 4 of this code), the Mello-Roos Community Facilities Act of 1982 (Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 53311) of Part 1 of Division 2 of this title), the Benefit Assessment Act of 1982 (Chapter 6.4) (commencing with Section 54703) of Part 1 of Division 2 of this title), and the so-called facilities benefit assessment levied by the charter city of San Diego or any substantially similar assessment levied for the same purpose by any other charter city pursuant to any ordinance or charter provision.
- (c) "Fund" means the District Reimbursement Fund created pursuant to Section 53197.
- (d) "Landowner" or "owner of land" has the same meaning as in the financing act employed in conjunction with this chapter.
  - (e) "Legislative body" means the legislative body, governing board, or board of directors of any local agency.

(f) "Local agency" means any city or county, whether general law or chartered, special district, school district, joint powers entity created pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 6500) of Division 7 of Title 1, or any other municipal corporation or district.

Article 2. Proceedings to Create an Integrated Financing District

53180. Proceedings for the establishment of an integrated financing district may be instituted by the legislative body of any local agency authorized to use any financing act.

• 53181. Proceedings to create an integrated financing district which will include a noncontingent levy made pursuant to a financing act shall be instituted by the local agency by including in the resolution of intention to create the financing district all of the following, in addition to those items required in the financing act:

(a) A statement that the local agency will proceed under the authority of this chapter.

(b) A description of the boundaries of the proposed integrated financing district, which need not be the same as the boundaries of the district created pursuant to the financing act.

- (c) A description of the rates and methods of apportionment over time of any levy proposed under this chapter, and the contingencies under which each levy will be made. A contingent assessment shall be specified as a fixed dollar amount per unit of area for parcels developed into each of several land use categories, as determined by the legislative body, except that the legislative body may provide that the fixed dollar amount may be adjusted annually by an interest rate, as determined by the legislative body. The cumulative interest rate adjustment shall not exceed 100 percent.
- (d) A description of the proposed uses of funds arising from any levy made pursuant to this chapter, including a description of any facilities to be constructed with the funds, and an estimate of the cost of those facilities.
  - (e) A description of any proposed reimbursement agreement.
- (f) A statement that a public hearing on proposals made under this chapter will be combined with the hearing or hearings required under the financing act, and a description of the procedures for interested persons to protest against the proposals.
- 53182. Notice of the hearing and of the contents of the resolution of intention shall be made in the same manner as required under the financing act.
- 53183. (a) At any time not later than the hour set for hearing objections to the proposed work, any owner of property liable to be assessed pursuant to this chapter may make a written protest against the proposed work, the extent of the territory to be assessed, the proposed rate and method of apportionment of any contingent assessments, any levy proposed to be made pursuant to a financing act, any agreement entered into pursuant to the financing act or pursuant to this chapter, or any combination thereof. Any protest pertaining to an assessment made pursuant to a financing act shall be heard and shall have the force and effect provided in the financing act. Any protest pertaining to a contingent assessment shall be in writing, contain a description of the property in which each signer is interested, sufficient to identify the property, and, if the signers are not shown on the last equalized assessment roll as the owners of the property, contain, or be accompanied by, written evidence that the signers are the owners of the property. All of the protests shall be delivered to the clerk and no other protests or objections shall be considered.

- (b) At the time set for hearing protests, the legislative body shall proceed to hear and pass upon all protests so made and its decision shall be final and conclusive. The legislative body may adjourn the hearings from time to time. Any protest may be withdrawn, in writing, by the owner making the protest at any time prior to the conclusion of the protest hearing.
- (c) In lieu of hearing and passing upon protests, the legislative body may continue the hearing of protests to a day certain and refer the protests to the superintendent of streets for investigation, report, and recommendation as to the improvement and matters included in the protests. The report and recommendation of the superintendent of streets shall be in writing, and a copy thereof shall be mailed not less than five days prior to the continued hearing date for protests to each person owning property liable to be assessed who has made a written protest. At the time set for the continued hearing, the legislative body shall hear and pass upon the report and recommendation of the superintendent of streets and its decision shall be final and conclusive. The legislative body may adjourn the hearing from time to time. Protests may be withdrawn in the same manner as provided in subdivision (b).
- (d) If the protest is against the proposed contingent assessment and the legislative body finds that the protest is made by the owners of more than one-half of the area of the property within the proposed integrated financing district which is proposed to be subject to the contingent assessment immediately or in the future, or which is proposed to be subject to a levy made pursuant to a financing act immediately or in the future, and protests are not withdrawn so as to reduce the same to less than a majority, no further proceedings to levy the specified contingent assessment shall be taken pursuant to this chapter for a period of one year from the date of the decision of the legislative body on the hearing.
- (e) If it is necessary to determine whether any or all of the signers of written protests are the owners of property to be assessed, in order to find whether a majority protest exists, the legislative body shall make that determination from the last equalized assessment roll, any written evidence submitted with a written protest, and any other evidence received at the hearing. The legislative body shall be under no duty to obtain or consider any other evidence as to ownership of property and its determination of ownership shall be final and conclusive.

- (f) If no written protests have been delivered to the clerk up to the hour set for hearing protests, if protests have been found by the legislative body to be insufficient or have been overruled, or if protests against the extent of the proposed district have been heard and denied, the legislative body shall immediately have jurisdiction to order the contingent assessment to be levied, and to enter into a proposed reimbursement agreement.
- (g) Nothing in this chapter prohibits the legislative body, within the one-year period referred to in subdivision (d), from commencing and carrying on new proceedings for the levy of the proposed contingent assessment or entry into the proposed reimbursement agreement which was subject to protest if the legislative body finds, by the affirmative vote of four-fifths of its members, that the owners of a majority of the property within the area of the integrated financing district are in favor of commencing and carrying on those proceedings.
- 53184. The legislative body may modify the resolution of intention at the hearing. At the conclusion of the hearing, the legislative body may do either of the following:
  - (a) Abandon the proposed establishment of the district.
- (b) In the absence of a protest requiring abandonment, determine by ordinance to proceed with the establishment of the district as set out in the resolution of intention, as modified. The financing district shall be combined with the district created pursuant to this chapter and the combined districts shall be known as an Integrated Financing District.

Article 3. Purposes and Powers

- 53185. A district may be established to assist in financing any work which may be financed pursuant to a financing act.
- 53186. The powers of an integrated financing district shall be in addition to those of each financing act, and may be used instead of, in addition to, or in conjunction with, the powers contained in the financing act.
  - 53187. A district may do any of the following:
- (a) Levy an assessment which is contingent upon the development of land and which may be made payable at the time of approval of a tentative subdivision map, vesting tentative subdivision map, final subdivision map, or zoning change that makes or proposes to make a significant change in the use of the land, as determined by the legislative body by ordinance. The contingent assessment may be made payable upon receipt of a building permit for any parcels which have already received all other required approvals for development. The developer shall pay for any contingent assessment payable over time while the developer holds title to the property.

The amount of the contingent assessment shall be in proportion to the benefit to be received by each parcel, and shall be specified as a fixed dollar amount per unit of area for parcels developed into each of several land use categories, as determined by the legislative body, except that the legislative body may provide that the fixed dollar amount may be adjusted annually by an interest rate, as determined by the legislative body by ordinance. The amount of the cumulative interest rate adjustment shall not exceed 100 percent of the fixed dollar amount. The contingent assessment may be made payable as a capital amount or over time, with interest as provided by the legislative body by ordinance.

- (b) Levy a contingent assessment pursuant to subdivision (a) together with a noncontingent assessment or special tax levied pursuant to the financing act such that after all levies have been paid, the total of contingent assessments and levies made pursuant to the financing act which are expected to be paid on behalf of each parcel will be in proportion to the portion of project benefits expected to be received by each parcel, as determined by the legislative body.
- (c) The proceeds of a contingent assessment may be used for any of the following purposes:
- (1) To pay the cost of planning, designing, and constructing capital facilities and related incidental expenses which are allowable uses of proceeds of the levy made pursuant to the financing act, or accumulated for these purposes, in which case all interest earned on the funds shall be used for these same purposes.
- (2) To pay all or part of the principal and interest on debt incurred pursuant to the financing act, relieving the obligation to pay the levy made pursuant to the financing act in whole or part in a manner determined by the legislative body, but only to the degree that proceeds of the contingent assessment are actually collected and available for this purpose.
- (3) To repay amounts paid pursuant to a financing act in order to help achieve the balance of levies which is specified in subdivision (b) in a manner determined by the legislative body.
- (4) To make payments to an investor pursuant to a reimbursement agreement entered into pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 53190).
- (5) For any combination of the above purposes, as determined by the legislative body.
- (d) Enter into and enforce a reimbursement agreement pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 53190).

Article 4. Reimbursement Agreements

53190. If the legislative body determines by ordinance to proceed with the establishment of the district pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 53184, the legislative body, or its designated representative, may enter into a reimbursement agreement with any private person or entity, or with any public entity, hereafter referred to as the investor.

53190.5. A reimbursement agreement shall contain both of the following provisions:

- (a) A requirement that the investor advance funds to the local agency to be used by the local agency exclusively to pay the costs of the work described in the resolution of intention adopted pursuant to Section 53181, or that the investor perform the work in whole or in part, or any combination thereof.
- (b) A requirement that the local agency issue the investor a warrant entitling the investor to all or a specified amount or portion of the moneys deposited in the fund, determined pursuant to the resolution of intention, and payable at the time or times specified in the reimbursement agreement. The reimbursement agreement shall state that the general fund of the local agency, its credit, or its taxing power is not liable for payment of any obligation arising from the reimbursement agreement.

The warrants issued pursuant to this subdivision shall include all of the following provisions:

- (1) A designation of the place at which the warrant shall be paid.
- (2) The source of revenue securing the warrant.
- (3) The issuance and expiration date of the warrant.
- (4) A specification that the warrant is a negotiable instrument.
- (5) The schedule of payments to the investor, including the date of the first payment, the number of payments, and the frequency of payments.
  - (6) The purpose for which the warrant is issued.
  - (7) The maximum principal amount of the warrant.
- (8) The rate of interest payable upon the warrant. The interest rate shall not exceed the maximum rate permitted by Section 53531 or any other applicable provision of law.
- (9) A statement of findings that, in the opinion of the legislative body, the interest paid on the warrant to the investor is excluded from income in determining the investor's federal income tax liability.
- 53191. The investor's interest in a reimbursement agreement may be negotiable and divisible, as specified in the agreement.
- 53191.5. The obligations of the local agency arising from the reimbursement agreement shall be secured by a pledge of the revenues arising from the contingent or noncontingent assessments or levies made pursuant to a financing act levied within the integrated financing district. The general fund of the local agency is not liable for the payment of any obligations arising from the reimbursement agreement and the credit or taxing power of the local agency shall not be pledged for the payment of any obligations arising from the agreement except pursuant to the financing act. The investor may not compel the exercise of the taxing power of the local agency or the forfeiture of any of its property to satisfy any obligations arising from the agreement. However, notwithstanding these provisions, the local agency is financially responsible for the revenues which are collected pursuant to a contingent or noncontingent assessment or levy made pursuant to a financing act, or which ought to have been collected by the legislative body, or its designated representative, pursuant to a reimbursement agreement.

53192. Any obligations arising from the reimbursement agreement are not a debt of the local agency, or a legal or equitable pledge, charge, lien, or encumbrance upon any of its property, or upon any of its income, receipts, or revenues, except the revenues arising from the contingent assessments or levies made pursuant to the financing act levied within the district and specificially designated for that purpose.

53192.5. All income received by the investor from the fund is exempt from taxation in this state, except gift, inheritance, and estate taxes.

53194.5. The remedies conferred upon the investor by this chapter do not exclude any other remedy. Each remedy is cumulative and in addition to every other remedy and may be exercised without exhausting, and without regard to, any other remedy conferred by this chapter or other law.

Article 5. Confirmation and Collection of Levy

53195. The local agency may obtain funds from any source authorized by law to pay for the work described in the resolution of intention adopted pursuant to Section 53181, and may solicit bids, award construction contracts, or perform the work itself, in any manner authorized by law.

53196. The legislative body shall, by resolution, determine the rate of and shall levy the contingent assessment as specified in the resolution of intention adopted pursuant to Section 53181. The legislative body shall levy and collect the noncontingent assessment or special tax in the manner set out in the financing act.

53196.5. The local agency may do all of the following:

- (a) Prescribe procedures for determining and notifying landowners when the contingent assessment is due and payable and for collecting the assessment.
- (b) Prescribe a penalty for nonpayment of the contingent assessment within the time and in the manner specified.

- (c) Provide for an additional penalty not to exceed 2 percent per month for nonpayment of the contingent assessment and the penalty.
  - (d) Provide for collection of those penalties.
- 53197. (a) The legislative body may request the county in which the district is located to collect the contingent assessment on behalf of the district. If the assessment is collected by the county, the county may deduct its reasonable costs incurred for that service before remitting the balance to the district.
- (b) The legislative body of each local agency which enters into a reimbursement agreement pursuant to this chapter shall create a district reimbursement fund. All revenue collected within the district pursuant to this chapter, including penalties, shall be deposited in the fund and disbursed, as provided by the legislative body, subject to the terms of any reimbursement agreement.
- 53197.5. The local agency may bring an action in any court of competent jurisdiction against the owners of any property to collect delinquent contingent assessments and penalties.
- 53198. Any contingent assessments including any penalties, when recorded in accordance with Division 4.5 (commencing with Section 3100) of the Streets and Highways Code, shall constitute a lien upon the real property, except that no lien shall be created against any publicly owned property, and the lien shall continue until the charge and all penalties are fully paid or the property is sold to satisfy the lien. The lien shall have the same force, effect, priority, and duration as would a delinquent lien under the particular financing act utilized.
- 53198.5. As a separate, distinct, and cumulative remedy established for the collection of the contingent assessment and any penalties, an action may be brought in the name of the local agency in any court of competent jurisdiction to enforce the lien provided pursuant to Section 53198. The court shall include an award of reasonable attorney's fees to the prevailing party in the action.
- 53199. Remedies for collecting and enforcing the contingent assessments and penalties are cumulative and may be pursued alternatively, or consecutively, as determined by the legislative body. If any one of the remedies is or may be invalid, all valid remedies shall remain effective until the contingent assessments and penalties have been fully collected and the terms of any reimbursement agreement have been satisfied. The costs of collection and enforcement of the remedies for the collection of the contingent assessments and penalties may be paid from the proceeds collected from the contingent assessments and penalties if the legislative body so provides, and if that payment does not violate the terms of any reimbursement agreement.

An act to add Sections 18000.5 and 19990.5 to the Government Code, relating to state officers and employees, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18000.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

18000.5. Notwithstanding Sections 18000 and 19990, any officer or employee of the state may receive for his or her personal use compensation from any nonprofit corporation formed exclusively to aid and assist a state museum for services rendered to the nonprofit corporation and for his or her expenses of performing these services, provided that the nonprofit corporation obtains the prior written approval of the Department of Personnel Administration to provide the compensation and files with the Controller by September 30 of each year a statement disclosing the names of state officers and employees compensated and their respective amounts of compensation for the preceding fiscal year, and the giving or receipt of the compensation is not in violation of any state or federal law.

The board of directors of the museum shall determine whether the services are incompatible with the state responsibilities of the officer or employee and whether the services rendered to the nonprofit corporation interfere with the officer's or employee's full-time obligation to the state. The board of directors of the museum also shall review any issues of compliance of the nonprofit corporation with the terms of any contractual arrangements with the state independently of the officer's or employee's receiving compensation from the nonprofit corporation.

SEC. 2. Section 19990.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

19990.5. Notwithstanding Sections 18000 and 19990, state officers and employees may render services during their office hours, or hours of work for the state, if compensation for these services may be made pursuant to Section 18000.5.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to clarify the law as soon as possible regarding the additional compensation extended to the Director and the Chief Deputy Director of Exposition Park and Museum Programs, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1514

An act relating to milk and dairy products, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) Milk production in the United States is approximately 140 billion pounds per year. Of this amount, California produces more than 10 percent. For some time the leading cash agricultural commodity in California has been milk. Value of milk sales from California farms totals nearly two billion dollars ($2,000,000,000) per year. After it has been processed and sold to the consumer, it more than doubles in value. During the decade, milk production in California is expected to exceed that of Wisconsin, the leading producer in 1985.

California's population of 26 million people continues to grow and all indications point to a continued growth of the dairy industry to provide an adequate, wholesome milk supply here in the state.

- (b) New technology, along with favorable weather, has added to California's ability to produce milk efficiently. When the milk is transported to the dairy plant for processing into consumer products, we observe a highly sophisticated portion of the industry. Our ability to concentrate, fractionate, and manipulate milk components with new advancements in technology has opened untapped opportunities to the industry. With on-farm ultrafiltration, cheese plants are making changes to use the retentate instead of whole milk. The various milk products are moved through the plant, tested for quality and quantity by computer systems adapted to the specialized production needs of the plant. The genetic engineering of milk-clotting enzymes and many other innovative dairy technology developments requiring coordinated research, teaching, training, information extension, and outreach activities are on the horizon.
- (c) The University of California has made great progress in basic and applied research and continues to make contributions to the dairy industry. Research results in dairy science are delivered to the dairyman, farmer, dairy products processor and, ultimately, the consumer through extension and other proven outreach services. California Polytechnic State University, San Luis Obispo, which has a dairy science department that teaches dairy processing technology, is qualified to contribute to applied research, training, and educating students, developing new food products, and testing consumer acceptance of these products. Establishing a Dairy Products Technology Center at California Polytechnic State University, San Luis Obispo, would complement the basic and applied research advances and extension services provided by the University of California and enhance the dairy industry in this state.

The Legislature hereby declares that there is a need to accelerate the recruiting and education of people to fill the void now evident in dairy processing and that the establishment of a Dairy Products Technology Center is the best way to fulfill this need in California.

- SEC. 2. (a) The sum of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Food and Agriculture for allocation to the Trustees of the California State University for use by California Polytechnic State University, San Luis Obispo, to establish a Dairy Products Technology Center.
- (b) None of the funds appropriated in this section, or in subsequent budget acts for the Dairy Products Technology Center, may be disbursed unless and until the Director of Food and Agriculture determines that funds from nonstate sources in an amount at least equal to the amount appropriated in this section have been received by California Polytechnic State University, San Luis Obispo, for the establishment of a Dairy Products Technology Center for the 1986–87 fiscal year.

CHAPTER 1515

An act to add Section 6379.5 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, and making an appropriation therefor, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986]

I am deleting the $300,000 appropriation contained in Section 3 of Senate Bill No 2527.

Section 2230 of the Revenue and Taxation Code provides that the State shall annually reimburse cities and counties for the net loss of revenues from legislation creating sales tax exemptions. I am opposed to reimbursement for the revenues lost due to the enactment of Senate Bill 2527 because legislation impacting local property and sales tax revenue has on balance resulted in a net revenue gain to local government.

With this deletion, I approve Senate Bill No. 2527

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6379.5 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

6379.5. There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this part the gross receipts from the sale of, and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of catalogs, letters, circulars, brochures, and pamphlets consisting substantially of printed sales messages for goods and services printed to the special order of the purchaser and mailed or delivered by the seller, the seller's agent, or a mailing house, acting as the agent for the purchaser, through the United States

Postal Service or by common carrier to any other person at no cost to that person who becomes the owner thereof.

- SEC. 2. On or after January 1, 1991, the Legislative Analyst shall conduct a study of the effects of the exemption provided by this act on the state's printing industry during the four preceding years. The study shall include an estimate of the revenue effect, a discussion of whether the exemption has assisted the California printing industry in increasing its share of the direct mail and catalog market, and recommendations for any necessary modifications in the governing statute. The Legislative Analyst shall report to the Legislature on the results of this study no later than June 30, 1991.
- SEC. 3. The sum of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) is hereby appropriated to the Controller from the General Fund to make the payments to counties and cities required by Section 2230 of the Revenue and Taxation Code to reimburse them for revenue losses caused by Section 1 of this act in the initial fiscal year in which this act is effective. The appropriation made by this section shall be allocated in the manner specified in Section 2230.
- SEC. 4. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. However, the provisions of this act shall become operative on January 1, 1987.

CHAPTER 1516

An act to amend Section 12024.5 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to food and agriculture, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1986. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1986.]

I am deleting the $180,000 appropriation contained in Section 3 of Senate Bill No 2110

The appropriation is intended to be used for continuation of research to identify alternative to the banned fumigant EDB. $556,000 has already been made available for this purpose in prior years and a significant amount of research has already been performed on the issue, resulting in the identification of some potentially successful alternatives. The Department of Food and Agriculture may choose to engage in additional EDB research contracts with existing resources, if it appears there is a need to do so.

With this deletion, I approve Senate Bill No 2110.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12024.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

Except as provided below, any person, including, but not limited to, a manufacturer, processor, packer, wholesaler, or jobber that packs any commodity specified in this section in any package which is intended for retail sale, shall mark the net weight of the commodity therein upon the package. Packages of these products intended for retail sale need not be marked by the packer with the net weight of the commodity if they are to be marked with the net weight of the commodity by the retailer who purchases or receives the packages from the packer. This section does not apply to any of the following ready-to-eat food items:

- (a) Items sold for consumption on the premises.
- (b) Items sold as one of three or more different elements, excluding condiments, comprising a ready-to-eat meal sold as a unit, for consumption elsewhere than on the premises where sold.

- SEC. 3. The sum of one hundred eighty thousand dollars ($180,000) is hereby transferred from the General Fund to the Agricultural Pest Control Research Account in the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund, and is hereby appropriated to the Department of Food and Agriculture for expenditure in accordance with Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 12786) of Chapter 2 of Division 7 of the Food and Agricultural Code.
- SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure that the supply of both raw unprocessed food and prepared processed food is continually available to the residents of the state, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1517

An act to amend Sections 16115.5, 16116, 16118, 16120, and 16122 of, and to repeal Section 16155 of, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to adoptions, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

I am reducing the appropriation contained in Section 7 of Assembly Bill No. 3168 from $109,500 to $54,700 in order to limit the level of funding to an amount that can reasonably be expended by the Private Adoption Agencies to meet the responsibility of placing special needs children during the 1986-87 Fiscal Year With this reduction, I approve Assembly Bill No. 3168.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 16115.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

- 16115.5. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this chapter to benefit special needs children residing in foster homes by providing the stability and security of permanent homes, and in so doing, achieve a reduction in foster home care. It is not the intent of this chapter to increase expenditures but to provide for payments to adoptive parents to enable them to meet the needs of special needs children.
- SEC. 2. Section 16116 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:
- 16116. For purposes of this chapter, a "special needs" child means a child whose adoption without financial assistance would be unlikely because of adverse parental background, ethnic background, race, color, language, membership in a sibling group which should remain intact, mental, physical, medical or emotional handicaps or age of three years or more. The provisions of this chapter apply only to special needs children.
- SEC. 3. Section 16118 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:
- 16118. (a) The department shall establish and administer the program to be carried out by the department or any licensed adoption agency pursuant to this chapter. The department shall adopt such regulations as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter.
- (b) The department shall keep such records as are necessary to evaluate the programs' effectiveness in encouraging and promoting the adoption of special needs children.
- (c) The department or licensed adoption agency which has custody of the child, shall have responsibility for certifying that the child meets special needs criteria and for determining the amount of financial assistance needed by the child and the adopting family.

- (d) The county responsible for determining the child's Adoption Assistance Program eligibility status and for providing financial aid in the amount determined in Section 16120 shall be the county that at the time of the adoptive placement would otherwise be responsible for making a payment pursuant to Section 11450 under the Aid to Families with Dependent Children program if the child were not adopted. The county of responsibility for all other eligible children shall be the county where the child is physically residing prior to placement with the adoptive family.
- (e) The department shall actively seek and make maximum use of federal funds which may be available for the purposes of this chapter. All gifts or grants received from private sources for the purpose of this chapter shall be used to offset public costs incurred under the program established by this chapter.
- SEC. 4. Section 16120 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:
- 16120. Adoption Assistance Program benefits shall be paid only on behalf of special needs children for whom the following conditions are met:
- (a) The department or licensed adoption agency and the prospective adoptive parent have signed an adoption assistance agreement which stipulates the need for and the amount of Adoption Assistance Program benefits. The adoption assistance agreement shall, at a minimum, specify the duration of assistance, the responsibility of the adopting family for reporting changes in circumstances, and the periodic recertification required for reevaluating the continuing needs of the family.
- (b) The child is under 18 years of age, or under 21 years of age and has a mental or physical handicap which warrants the continuation of assistance.
- (c) The adoptive family is responsibile for the child pursuant to the terms of an adoption assistance agreement and an interlocutory decree or a final decree of adoption.
- (d) The adoptive family is legally responsible for the support of the child and the child is receiving support from the adoptive parent.
- (e) The child has been either relinquished for adoption to a California agency or freed for adoption through termination of parental rights by a California court, or committed to the department pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 226 of the Civil Code.
- SEC. 5. Section 16122 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:
- (a) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this chapter to provide special needs children with permanent adoptive homes. It is also the intent of this Legislature to encourage private adoption agencies to continue placing special needs children, and in so doing, to achieve a substantial savings to the state in foster care costs.
- (b) From any funds appropriated therefor, the state shall reimburse private adoption agencies licensed pursuant to Chapter 3

(commencing with Section 1500) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code for costs of aid to adoption for special needs children, less the amount of fees received by the agencies from adoptive parents.

These agencies shall be reimbursed for the placement of special needs children in an amount not to exceed an average cost of three thousand five hundred dollars ($3,500) per placement for the agency's claims submitted for a fiscal year. This amount shall be based upon the agency's actual costs per placement, less the amount of fees received by the agency from adoptive parents. Requests for reimbursement shall conform to claims procedures established by the department. Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize reimbursement to private agencies for intercountry adoption services.

SEC. 6. Section 16155 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. The sum of one hundred nine thousand five hundred dollars ($109,500) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Department of Social Services for the purposes of this act.

SEC. 8. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Due to the extreme need to facilitate the placement of special needs children in adoptive homes and in view of the limited ability of private adoption agencies to place all special needs children who have been freed for adoption, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1518

First priority for reallocation shall be given to counties on the following list subject to the following limits:

Orange County	$ 7,000,000
Sacramento County	3,000,000
San Diego County	2,000,000
San Francisco City and County	10,000,000
Santa Clara County	1,000,000

Among these counties, reallocated funds shall be awarded to each on a pro rata basis based on the amounts listed in this subdivision. Funds shall be distributed twice. The first distribution shall occur on July 1, 1988; the second distribution shall occur on December 31, 1990. If any county on this list has not completed architectural drawings at the time reallocation funds become available for it, the county shall be removed from the reallocation list until it has completed architectural drawings.

- (d) If funds beyond those needed for the itemized amounts become available for reallocation, the board shall propose a reallocation formula or procedure for legislative review.
- (e) It is the Legislature's intention that in any subsequent state bond measures for county jail construction assistance, first priority for the new moneys shall go for a grant of thirty-six million dollars ($36,000,000) for Los Angeles County; second, to any unfunded allocations under subdivision (b); and third, to any unfunded allocation among those listed in subdivision (c).
- SEC. 5.5. (a) The Board of Corrections shall appoint three ad hoc advisory committees consisting of not more than nine members for each committee. At least two members of each committee shall be administrators of local detention facilities administering programs corresponding to their committee assignment. The advisory committees shall include each of the following:

- (1) A mental health committee comprised of state and local representatives with expertise in the mental health field and representatives administering mental health programs or facilities. In making appointments to the committee, the board shall consult with the State Director of Mental Health, and shall ensure that the committee includes representatives from counties with both large and small populations.
- (2) A committee on public inebriates comprised of state and local representatives with expertise in the treatment of public inebriates and representatives administering programs or facilities for public inebriates. In making appointments to the committee, the board shall consult with the Director of Alcohol and Drug Programs, and shall ensure that the committee includes representatives from counties with both large and small populations.
- (3) A committee on alternatives to incarceration comprised of state and local representatives with expertise in the field of incarceration alternatives and representatives administering programs or facilities utilizing alternatives to incarceration. In making appointments to the committee, the board shall ensure that the committee includes representatives from counties with both large and small populations.
- (b) Each of the committees described in subdivision (a) shall establish standards within its subject area of expertise for purposes of determining whether county jail project proposals comply with the requirements of Section 4485.6 of the Penal Code. The board shall adopt these standards by regulation and shall ensure that participating counties do all of the following:
- (1) Provide adequate facilities for mentally ill inmates and detainees.
- (2) Provide adequate facilities for persons who are arrested solely for public inebriation.
- (3) Demonstrate utilization, to the greatest extent feasible, of alternatives to incarceration.
- (c) The board may modify the standards established by the advisory committees pursuant to subdivision (b) if it determines, after conducting a public hearing, that the standards are unworkable and impractical.
- (d) The board shall apply the standards established by the advisory committees pursuant to subdivision (b) in the approval or disapproval of county jail project proposals, except that the board may approve a proposal if the board finds, after conducting a public hearing, that although the county cannot feasibly meet the standards, the county will nonetheless comply with Section 4485.6 of the Penal Code.
- SEC. 6. No state moneys shall be encumbered in contracts with a county, nor released to a county, for construction or renovation of a local jail facility pursuant to this act until the following conditions have been fulfilled by the county:
  - (a) Architectural drawings shall be approved by the board for compliance with minimum jail standards and by the State Fire Marshal for compliance with fire safety requirements. If the board concludes that a county's proposed construction or renovation contains serious design deficiencies which, while they would not require a refusal to enter into the contract, would seriously impair the facility's functioning, it shall notify the sheriff and the board of supervisors of that county of the deficiencies and shall delay entering into a contract with the county for at least 30 days after mailing the letter. This letter shall be a public record.

- (b) The county shall have filed a final notice of determination on its environmental impact report with the board.
- (c) The county shall have submitted a preliminary staffing plan for the proposed facility, along with an analysis of other operating costs anticipated for the facility, to the board for review and comment. Prior to submission of the staffing plan and operating costs analysis to the board, the county board of supervisors shall have reviewed and approved the submittal in or following public hearings. The sheriff shall also have reviewed and commented on the preliminary staffing plan and the operating costs analysis. The board shall comment in writing to the sheriff and board of supervisors. This letter shall be a public record.
- (d) The county shall submit a needs assessment documenting the need for and purpose of the proposed project. The needs assessment shall meet all requirements listed in applicable existing County Jail Capital Expenditure Fund regulations as they may be amended.
- (e) The county shall document the existence of, or plans for, separate housing for juveniles, unless otherwise authorized by law, for persons detained or arrested because of intoxication, and for mentally ill defendants or convicted prisoners, which will prevent mixing of these categories of prisoners with other, adult, jail prisoners. The county shall also document county policies and procedures for screening, identifying, and classifying inebriates and mentally ill prisoners.

If the county has no existing provisions for detoxification housing for public inebriates and for housing of mentally ill prisoners and juveniles, it shall make provisions for that housing as part of its proposed project.

- (f) The county shall also document that it uses alternatives to incarceration to the greatest practicable extent. The following procedure shall be implemented by the board:
- (1) The board shall collect annually from all counties information on county incarceration rates (average daily jail populations as a proportion of the total county population or total arrests or both); pretrial misdemeanant ratios (the percentage which unsentenced prisoners charged only with misdemeanors constitute of the total average daily unsentenced jail population); and sentenced alternatives ratios (for example, average daily populations in work-in-lieu of jail programs and county parole as a percentage of the total average daily sentenced misdemeanant prisoner population).

All counties that have received or will receive state funds for jail construction shall supply the board the information necessary to comply with this section.

- (2) The board shall supply the information required by this subdivision, as well as any other information requested by the committees.
- (g) The county shall submit a formal project proposal to the board within one year of passage of this act. The project proposal shall describe the construction or renovation project to be undertaken and shall include an estimated budget for the project. The proposal shall also identify how county funding obligations, both for construction and operation of the facility, will be met. The project proposal shall be consistent with the needs and priorites identified in the needs assessment by the county.

Failure to submit a project proposal shall be deemed a declaration by the county that it does not intend to request its allocation under subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 5, and the amounts allocated in those sections to the county shall be available for reallocation by the board. The board may waive this requirement for submission of a proposal within one year if it determines there are unavoidable delays in the county's preparation of a project proposal.

If a county determines that it is in its best interest to defer its allocation under subdivision (b) of Section 5, and it notifies the board within one year of the effective date of this section of that decision, then the county shall have second priority under subdivision (e) of Section 5.

- (h) To be eligible for funding under this act, the county shall begin construction or renovation work within three years of the passage of this act. If a county fails to meet this requirement, any allocations to the county under this act shall be deemed void and any moneys allocated to the county shall revert to the board for reallocation. The board may waive this requirement if it determines that there are unavoidable delays in the initiation of construction activities.
- SEC. 6.5. The Board of Corrections shall not approve the expenditure of funds appropriated by this act for the construction of county detention facilities until a master plan for county detention facilities has been prepared and adopted by the board of supervisors of the county proposing to construct the facility. In developing the plan, the board of supervisors shall consider alternatives to additional detention facilities and the specific concerns of incorporated cities and other community representatives, and shall give special consideration to existing federal, state, and local detention facilities in order to avoid overconcentration of inmates in one geographic area of the county. If the board of supervisors decides to locate new or expanded detention facilities near existing detention facilities, the board shall publicly state its reasons for that decision.

The Board of Corrections shall only approve expenditure of funds appropriated by this act for the construction of detention facilities in accordance with the plan adopted pursuant to this section.

- SEC. 7. (a) County match on projects funded under this act shall be a minimum of 25 percent of the total project costs. Costs eligible for state funding and as county match shall be those defined in applicable existing sections of the County Jail Capital Expenditure Fund regulations, which regulations may be amended.
- (b) The board shall establish construction cost controls and shall set forth in regulation procedures for setting maximum state funding levels for appropriate construction unit costs, including cost per bed for specified categories of facilities and cost per square foot. These cost norms shall be based on average costs in recently constructed facilities in California that are comparable in size, use, location, and other relevant factors.

Allocations listed in Section 5 notwithstanding, the state contribution shall be up to 75 percent of total project costs or up to 75 percent of the applicable construction cost norms, whichever is lower. Nothing in this section is intended, however, to prescribe maximum limits on county funding levels for the projects.

- (c) The board shall administer the funds allocated in this act to adult jail facilities, according to existing County Jail Capital Expenditure Fund regulations, except as those regulations may be amended to comply with the provisions of this act.
- (d) Prior to entering into a contract with a county, the board shall review and approve the following county submissions regarding the facility proposed for funding:
- (1) The compliance of architectural plans with minimum jail standards.
- (2) County compliance with legal requirements for exclusion of juveniles from adult facilities.
- (3) County plans for provision of separate housing for inebriates and mentally ill prisoners.
- (4) County documentation of its use of alternatives to incarceration.
  - (5) County project proposals.
- (e) The board shall review and, if necessary, comment on the following county submissions prior to entering into a contract for funds under this act:
  - (1) County needs assessment.
- (2) Project proposals and drawings, to evaluate the workability and appropriateness of the approach chosen by the county.
  - (3) Project staffing plans and life cycle cost analysis.
- (f) Prior to releasing any funds to a county, the board shall also review construction cost levels in the funded projects for compliance with cost control regulations.
- SEC. 7.5. If after a hearing, the Board of Corrections makes a finding that a county has failed to comply with a condition or plan approved by the Board of Corrections relating to the requirements of Section 4485.6 of the Penal Code, the Board of Corrections may require the county to pay an amount equal to the pro rata portion of the principal and interest, paid by the state on bonds the proceeds of which were allocated pursuant to this act to the county for the period of noncompliance. The repayment provisions shall not be applicable if the noncompliance with the condition or plain is the result of circumstances beyond the control of the county, or the Board of Corrections finds the county cannot reasonably comply under the circumstances.

- SEC. 8. (a) As part of its annual report to the Legislature, the board shall provide to the Legislature a report on the status of funds expended, interest being earned, actions implementing the prerequisites for funding listed in Section 5, and any reallocations of funds pursuant to Section 5. The report shall contain a complete listing of funds allocated to each county. The board shall also submit appropriate recommendations, if any, on needed changes in the program and on other matters pertinent to jail funding on which the board wishes to inform the Legislature.
- (b) In order to provide information pertinent to the performance of this funding program and to any additional funding needs, counties receiving funds under this act shall, as a condition of the funding contract, report to the board, at intervals and in a manner to be determined by the board. The sheriff or other official in charge of operating the adult detention system in a county receiving funds under this act shall maintain an inmate accounting system. Data to be maintained on an annual basis includes the following:
- (1) Average daily population of sentenced and unsentenced prisoners by categories of male, female, and juvenile.
- (2) Jail admissions of sentenced and unsentenced prisoners by categories of male and female, booking charge, date and time of booking, date and time of release, and method of release.
  - (3) Detention system capital and operating expenses.
- SEC. 9. (a) The Department of the Youth Authority shall allocate funds for juvenile facilities derived from the County Correctional Facilities Capital Expenditure Bond Act of 1986 as provided by this section. The allocation shall be completed before March 1, 1988.
- (b) Except as provided in subdivision (d), funds allocated under this section shall be expended for the following purposes, based on current juvenile overcrowding or significant health and safety deficiencies, as noted in the most recent annual California Youth Authority inspection report:
  - (1) To relieve juvenile facilities overcrowding.
- (2) To remedy fire and life and safety deficiencies in juvenile facilities.
  - (3) For performance of deferred maintenance.
- (c) In order to be eligible for funding under this section, a county shall comply with standards for maximum use of alternatives to incarceration and adequate facilities for mentally ill detained minors and minors detained because of intoxication adopted by the board under Section 5.5.

The Department of the Youth Authority shall make findings of project eligibility which shall be based upon the standards adopted by the board.

(d) Two million five hundred thousand dollars ($2,500,000) of the funds allocated under this section shall be reserved for the following counties: Alpine, Amador, Calaveras, Colusa, Glenn, Inyo, Lassen, Mariposa, Modoc, Mono, Plumas, San Benito, Sierra, Trinity, and Tuolumne.

The funds shall be distributed on a per capita basis for the construction or development of county juvenile facilities, secure detention alternatives, or development of secure facilities within existing nonadult facilities. Any unencumbered funds shall revert to the Department of the Youth Authority for distribution on a pro rata basis to all counties eligible under this subdivision.

- (e) The balance of the funds allocated under this section shall be available for construction of county juvenile facilities in the counties other than those specified in subdivision (d) provided that the maximum allocation for any of the counties eligible under this subdivision shall not exceed that county's per capita share of available funds. To the extent that any county eligible under this subdivision does not apply for funds under this section or is declared ineligible, the allocation limit for the remaining counties shall be increased according to a pro rata formula.
- (f) An application for funds shall be made by a county in the manner and form prescribed by the Department of the Youth Authority. A county shall submit a needs assessment documenting the need for and purpose of the proposed project.
- (g) Expenditure shall be made only if county matching funds of 25 percent are provided.
- (h) The Department of the Youth Authority shall report to the Legislature by July 1, 1988, on the status of funds expended and a complete listing of funds allocated to each county.
- (i) The Department of the Youth Authority shall develop a statewide needs assessment which shall be completed before July 1, 1988.
- SEC. 10. The adoption of any regulation necessary to implement this act shall be considered the adoption of an emergency regulation within the meaning of Section 11346.1 of the Government Code without compliance with any requirement of a finding or statement of need for immediate action.
- SEC. 10.5. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, no state funds from any source shall be disbursed for the construction of an adult jail facility in a charter city on a site that is adjacent to or within two miles of a major league baseball and football stadium and is within three miles of a major amusement park.
- SEC. 11. All money in the 1986 County Correctional Facility Expenditure Fund is appropriated without regard to fiscal year for allocation as follows:
  - (a) Twenty million dollars ($20,000,000) is appropriated to the Department of the Youth Authority for allocation as provided by Section 9 provided that not more than two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) shall be expended by the Department of the Youth Authority for administrative costs and for performing a statewide needs assessment under subdivision (i) of Section 9.

- (b) The remainder is appropriated to the Board of Corrections for allocation in accordance with Sections 5 and 5.5 and for the administrative costs of the Board of Corrections and the Ad Hoc Jail Standards Committee, but the administrative costs shall not exceed 1 percent of the amount allocated, provided, that for any amount disbursed for a project entitled to receive funds under Section 3 of Chapter 444 of the Statutes of 1984, as amended, from the County Jail Capital Expenditure Bond Act of 1981 or the County Jail Capital Expenditure Bond Act of 1984, that amount shall be repaid to the fund from any amounts that may become available under those earlier bond acts including amounts derived under Section 4 of Chapter 444 of the Statutes of 1984.

CHAPTER 5. TRANSACTIONS AND USE TAX

150200. The Legislature, by the enactment of this chapter, intends the additional funds provided government agencies by this chapter to supplement existing local revenues being used for public transportation purposes. The government agencies are further encouraged to maintain their existing commitment of local funds for public transportation purposes.

150201. A retail transactions and use tax ordinance shall be imposed by the authority in accordance with Section 150206 and Part 1.6 (commencing with Section 7251) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, if a majority of the electors voting on the measure vote to approve its imposition at special elections called for that purpose by the county and city, respectively. Those elections shall be consolidated. The ordinances shall take effect at the close of the polls on the day of election at which the measures are adopted, to impose the tax at the same rate.

The initial collection of the retail transactions and use tax shall take place in accordance with Section 150204.

If, at any time, the voters do not approve an ordinance imposing the retail transactions and use tax, the same or a different measure imposing that tax may, at any time thereafter, be submitted to the voters.

150202. The retail transactions and use tax ordinance shall state the nature of the tax to be imposed, the tax rate or the maximum tax rate, the purposes for which the revenue derived from the tax will be used, and may set a term, not to exceed 15 years, during which the tax will be imposed. The purposes for which the tax revenues will be used may include, but are not limited to, the administration of this division, including legal actions related thereto, the construction, capital acquisition, maintenance, and operation of streets, roads, and highways, including state highways. These purposes include expenditures for the planning, environmental reviews, engineering and design costs, and related right-of-way acquisition. The ordinance shall reference an expenditure plan which shall include the allocation of revenues for the purposes authorized by this section.

150203. (a) The county shall conduct the elections called pursuant to Section 150201.

- (b) The elections shall be called and conducted in the same manner as provided by law for the conduct of elections by a county.
- 150204. (a) Any retail transactions and use tax ordinance adopted pursuant to this chapter shall be operative on the first day of the first calendar quarter commencing more than 120 days after adoption of the ordinance.
- (b) An increase in the tax rate, adopted by the electors' approval of an ordinance pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 150206, or a decrease in the tax rate adopted by the authority pursuant to Section 150207, shall be operative on the first day of the first calendar quarter commencing more than 120 days after approval by the electors or adoption by the authority, as the case may be.
- (c) Prior to the operative date of the ordinance, the authority shall contract with the State Board of Equalization to perform all functions incident to the administration and operation of the ordinance.
- 150205. (a) Revenues from the retail transactions and use tax imposed pursuant to this chapter shall be allocated by the authority for public transportation purposes consistent with the expenditure plan referenced in the ordinance imposing the tax. The authority, by a four-fifths vote of its members, may revise that expenditure plan after conducting noticed public hearings on the proposed revision.

(b) The amounts allocated to projects within the county and the city, respectively, shall be proportionate to the revenues derived from the tax collected within each of the respective jurisdictions.

- 150206. (a) The authority, subject to the approval of the voters, may impose a maximum tax rate of 1 percent under this division and Part 1.6 (commencing with Section 7251) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and the authority may state the maximum tax rate at 1 percent or one-half of 1 percent. The authority shall not levy the retail transactions and use tax at a rate other than 1 percent or one-half of 1 percent, unless specifically authorized by the Legislature.
- (b) The tax rate adopted pursuant to this chapter, unless otherwise prohibited, may be increased by the authority by ordinance adopted in the manner and by the vote stated in Sections 150201 and approved by a majority of the electors voting on the measure at an election called for that purpose.

150207. The authority may reduce the tax rate to a percentage lower than that approved by the voters and may further provide for an increase of the tax rate if it has previously been lowered. However, the tax rate may not be increased to a rate above the tax rate approved by the voters.

Any revised tax rate may be adopted only if the authority determines, by a four-fifths vote of its members, that the proceeds of the taxes with the altered tax rate will be sufficient to provide for the payment of the principal of, and interest on, any limited tax bonds and any other indebtedness incurred by the authority which was to be payable from the proceeds of the retail transactions and use tax

- 150208. (a) A ballot proposition to approve an ordinance for the imposition of a retail transactions and use tax, shall seek authorization to issue bonds payable from the proceeds of the tax and establish the appropriations limit of the authority.
- (b) The maximum bonded indebtedness which may be outstanding at any one time shall be an amount equal to the sum of the principal of, and interest on, the bonds, but not to exceed the estimated proceeds of the tax for a period of not more than the number of years for which the tax authorized by this chapter is to be imposed.
- 150209. (a) The bonds authorized by the voters concurrently with the approval of the retail transactions and use tax may be issued by the authority at any time, and from time to time, payable from the proceeds of the tax. The bonds shall be referred to as "limited tax bonds." The bonds may be secured by a pledge of revenues from the proceeds of the tax.
- (b) The pledge of the tax to the limited tax bonds authorized under this chapter shall have priority over the use of any of the taxes for "pay-as-you-go" financing, except to the extent that the priority is expressly restricted in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

150210. The authority may provide for the bonds to bear a variable interest rate, for the manner and intervals in which the rate shall vary, and for the dates on which the interest shall be payable.

150211. Limited tax bonds shall be issued pursuant to a resolution adopted at any time, and from time to time, by the authority by a four-fifths vote of all of its members.

The authority may, from time to time, issue bonds in accordance with the Revenue Bond Law of 1941 (Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 54300) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code), for the purposes set forth in the ordinance adopted pursuant to Section 150202, which shall constitute an "enterprise" within the meaning of Section 54309 of the Government Code. Article 3 (commencing with Section 54380) of Chapter 6 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code and the limitations on the rate of interest set forth in subdivision (b) of Section 54402 of the Government Code do not apply to the issuance of the sale of bonds pursuant to this division. Instead, the authority shall authorize the issuance of bonds by resolution, which shall specify all of the following:

- (a) The purposes for which the bonds are to be issued.
- (b) The maximum principal amount of the bonds.
- (c) The maximum term for the bonds.
- (d) The maximum rate of interest to be payable upon the bonds shall not exceed the maximum rate permitted by Section 53531 of the Government Code or any other applicable provisions of law. In the case of bonds bearing a variable interest rate, the variable rate shall on no day exceed the maximum rate permitted on that day by Section 53531 of the Government Code or any other applicable provisions of law.
- (e) The maximum discount on the sale of the bonds. However, the bonds shall not be sold at less than 95 percent of the principal amount in the manner determined by the authority. Each resolution shall provide for the issuance of bonds in the amounts as may be necessary, until the full amount of the bonds authorized has been issued. The full amount of bonds may be divided into two or more series with different dates of payment fixed for the bonds of each series. A bond need not mature on its anniversary date.

150212. Any bonds issued pursuant to this chapter are a legal investment for all trust funds; for the funds of insurance companies, commercial and savings banks, and trust companies; and for state school funds. Whenever any money or funds may, by any law now or hereafter enacted, be invested in bonds of cities, counties, school districts, or other districts within this state, that money or funds may be invested in the bonds issued under this chapter, and whenever bonds of cities, counties, school districts, or other districts within this state may, by any law now or hereafter enacted, be used as security for the performance of any act or the deposit of any public money, the bonds issued pursuant to this chapter may be so used. The provisions of this chapter are in addition to all other laws relating to legal investment and shall be controlling as the latest expression of the Legislature with respect thereto.

150213. Any action or proceeding wherein the validity of the adoption of the retail transactions and use tax ordinance provided for in this chapter or the issuance of any bonds thereunder or any of the proceedings in relation thereto is contested, questioned, or denied, shall be commenced within six months from the date of the election at which the ordinance is approved; otherwise, the bonds and all proceedings in relation thereto, including the adoption and approval of the ordinance, shall be held to be valid and in every respect legal and incontestable.

150214. The commission may not impose any tax other than the retail transactions and use tax imposed upon approval of the voters in accordance with this division.

SEC. 2.. Section 7252.13 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

7252.13. "District," as used in this part, also means the Tuolumne County Traffic Authority, if authorized to impose transactions and use taxes pursuant to this part.

This section shall remain in effect as long as Division 15 (commencing with Section 150000) of the Public Utilities Code remains in effect, but shall be repealed upon the repeal of that division.

SEC. 3. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act.

WHEREAS, Women have been leaders in every movement for progressive social change, including their own suffragette movement, the fight for emancipation, the struggle to organize labor unions, and the civil rights movement; and

WHEREAS, Despite these contributions, the role of American women in history has been consistently overlooked and undervalued; and

WHEREAS, The observance of Women's History Week was begun by the Sonoma County Commission on the Status of Women in 1978, and has since been commemorated throughout the nation by schools, historians, and community groups; and

[Filed with Secretary of State February 21, 1986.]

WHEREAS, Pacific Coast fishing interests supported the passage of the Magnuson Fishery Conservation and Management Act of 1976 by the United States Congress because they believed it would reduce or phase out major foreign fishing fleets working off the Pacific Coast: and

WHEREAS, Pacific Fishery Management Council regulation has not resulted in a significant reduction or phaseout of foreign fishing, but has allowed foreign fleets as close as three miles to the Pacific Coast instead of the pre-1976 limit of 12 miles; and

WHEREAS, American fishermen have been subjected to increasing regulation and a dramatic economic decline; and

WHEREAS, The salmon resource has declined continually since the creation of the Pacific Fishery Management Council, and the council's approach to salmon management has been dramatic reductions in ocean harvest aimed at the single goal of escapement; and

WHEREAS, The council has done nothing to help correct severe salmon habitat problems that are presently the major factor limiting the rebuilding of salmon stocks; and

WHEREAS, The council's approach to harvest management has led to a steady decline in all phases of the fishing industry (including commercial, sport, charter, and American Indian), with a full 50 percent of the commercial fishermen out of business or on the verge of bankruptcy, and coastal communities dependent on income from commercial and sport fisheries totally devastated; and

WHEREAS, There is presently no statutory requirement that fishery user groups be represented on the council; and

WHEREAS, The council is not involved in any habitat restoration or fishery resource enhancement; and

WHEREAS, The council has no plans to phase out foreign fishing off the Pacific Coast; and

WHEREAS, Idaho is the only noncoastal state with voting powers on ocean fisheries on any fishery management council in this country; and

WHEREAS, The Magnuson Fishery Conservation and Management Act has led to an attempt by the federal government to permanently preempt Oregon's authority to manage fishery resources within Oregon's state waters, with California as the threatened next target for permanent preemption; and

WHEREAS, Congress is scheduled to consider reauthorization and possible reform of the Magnuson Fishery Conservation and Management Act in 1986, and responsible organizations including Fishermen's Solidarity, the National Wildlife Federation, the Fisheries Resources Task Force of the Oregon House of Representatives, and the Pacific Marine Fisheries Commission have made positive proposals for reform; and

WHEREAS, The House of Representatives Merchant Marine and Fisheries Committee has passed legislation incorporating most of the recommendations of the Pacific Coast Fisheries organizations on habitat and representation issues; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and Congress of the United States to enact legislation in order to amend the Magnuson Fishery Conservation and Management Act in 1986 to meet the goals and objectives of the united Pacific Coast fishing community; and be it further Assembly Joint Resolution No. 61—Relative to the Santa Ana River Basin.

[Filed with Secretary of State February 21, 1986]

WHEREAS, One of the greatest flooding threats in the United States lies within the overflow path of the Santa Ana River in Orange, Riverside, and San Bernardino Counties, affecting the Cities of San Bernardino, Riverside, Fullerton, Anaheim, Orange, Stanton, Santa Ana, Garden Grove, Westminster, Fountain Valley, Costa Mesa, Newport Beach, and Huntington Beach; and

WHEREAS, The Congress of the United States acted quickly after the 1938 flood and authorized construction of Prado Dam near Corona which was completed in 1941; and

WHEREAS, Subsequent study by the United States Army Corps of Engineers has estimated that a flood like the one which occurred in 1862, a flood not included in the design of Prado Dam, would fill the reservoir beyond its capacity with the uncontrolled flow over the spillway harming more than one million people and causing damage and economic loss of more than $9,000,000,000, and would cover 110,000 acres of Central Orange County to an average depth of 3 feet; and

WHEREAS, The Boards of Supervisors of Orange, Riverside, and San Bernardino Counties have requested the Corps of Engineers to remedy this great flood hazard, but construction has not yet been authorized by Congress; and

WHEREAS, If authorized by Congress in 1986, the earliest anticipated completion for the Santa Ana River Basin Project would be no sooner than the year 2000, and in this interim period residents and businesses will continue to be exposed to this great flood hazard; and

WHEREAS, The upper basin of the Santa Ana River in Riverside and San Bernardino Counties is the fastest growing region of California, and this rapid urbanization is increasing the flood hazard to Orange County through increases in both peak and total storm runoff; and

WHEREAS, Given the need of flood control to mitigate the great hazard posed by the Santa Ana River to millions of residents and businesses, it is necessary for the Legislature to express to the federal government the Legislature's policy for flood control in the Santa Ana River Basin; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States, and the Chief of the United States Army Corps of Engineers to authorize, and move expeditiously to complete, the Santa Ana River Basin Project; and be it further

WHEREAS, Over 24 million men and women in California make up the food service chain which produces and delivers over 250 different crops and livestock products throughout the world; and

WHEREAS, Agriculture remains California's largest industry and its largest source of both jobs and income from exports, with one out of every four jobs in California related to agriculture; and

WHEREAS, California is the leading agricultural state in the United States, with nine of the nation's top 12 agriculture producing counties located in the state, and California's food and fiber is a vital ingredient in our strength as a nation, both domestically and on the world scene; and

WHEREAS, California, recognizing the importance of youth in agriculture, boasts one of the finest agricultural educational systems in the world, with its universities and colleges being leading innovators of research and development in everything from agricultural equipment to improved crops; and

WHEREAS, Farmworkers from all corners of the world have come to California and have become indispensable partners in the achievements of California's most important industry; and

WHEREAS, These workers have provided food and fiber in abundance to the people in the cities, the nation, and the world and have, thus, contributed greatly to the economy of California; and WHEREAS, To maintain a healthy industry and promote a better economy, it is necessary that all of the people of the United States should become aware of, and have an interest in, the manner in which agriculture affects their everyday lives; and

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 19

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 67—Relative to federal income taxation.

[Filed with Secretary of State March 14, 1986]

WHEREAS, The President of the United States has proposed a federal income tax reform plan to promote "fairness, simplicity, and growth"; and

WHEREAS, The President's plan for tax reform would tax the unrealized appreciation in the value of a life insurance policy (other than a term insurance policy), which is often referred to as the inside build-up; and

WHEREAS, The taxation of the inside build-up would impose a disproportionate tax burden on the elderly; and

WHEREAS, Other tax reform proposals have proposed to treat as taxable income, rather than as a loan, any borrowing against a life insurance policy, while denying the deductibility of interest paid on those loans; and

WHEREAS, The ability of a policyholder to borrow against the policy's cash surrender value and to deduct the interest payments is a critically important feature inasmuch as it relieves the anxiety often associated with the making of a long-term financial commitment and, moreover, enables policyholders to keep their insurance in force in the event of financial emergency; and

WHEREAS, Other tax reform proposals have proposed to eliminate the limited exclusion of group term life insurance provided by an employer; and

life insurance policy has never been taxed, unless the policy is surrendered, just as the appreciation on the value of a home is not taxed until the home is sold; and

WHEREAS, The disincentive to purchase life insurance policies resulting from the adoption of any of those proposals would have the result of significantly reducing a major source of capital formation; and

WHEREAS, The enactment of any of those proposals would produce confusion and administrative problems; and

WHEREAS, If enacted, those proposals are likely to produce results which are contrary to the stated goals of fairness, simplicity, and economic growth; and now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to continue the current tax treatment of life insurance in any revision of federal income tax law which is enacted; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

[Filed with Secretary of State March 21, 1986]

WHEREAS, State Highway Route 79 in Riverside County carries state highway thru traffic into the heart of the San Jacinto and Hemet business districts: and

WHEREAS, The combination of state highway and local traffic on Route 79 creates severe traffic congestion in San Jacinto and Hemet; and

WHEREAS, State highways should be designed to carry thru traffic around commercial centers and provide the most direct service to motorists as is possible; and

WHEREAS, A realignment of Route 79 around San Jacinto and Hemet, along the route now taken by Sanderson Avenue, would provide a more direct connection with Route 74 and avoid traffic conflicts in the downtown commercial districts; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Department of Transportation is hereby requested to study the feasibility and cost of changing State Highway Route 79 from its current alignment through San Jacinto and Hemet to an alignment which generally follows Sanderson Avenue from Ramona Boulevard to State Highway Route 74; and be it further

Resolved, That the Director of Transportation report the results of this study to the Legislature and the California Transportation Commission by July 1, 1986; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the Director of Transportation.

WHEREAS, Public opinion polls indicate that people still support the clause in the California Coastal Act of 1976 which states "the permanent protection of the state's natural and scenic resources is a paramount concern to present and future residents of the state and nation"; and

WHEREAS, The California coast, one of the most beautiful and resource-rich in the world, has been protected and enhanced by the enactment of the California Coastal Act of 1976; and

WHEREAS, The California coast has continued to be the basis for significant economic benefit to the state in the form of tourism, fishing, forestry, coastal-dependent agriculture, and other business activities; and

[Filed with Secretary of State June 20, 1986]

Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California at its 1985–86 Regular Session commencing on the third day of December, 1984, two-thirds of the members elected to each of the two houses of the Legislature voting therefor, hereby proposes to the people of the State of California that the Constitution of the State be amended by adding Section 7 to

Article III thereof, as follows:

- Sec. 7. (a) The retirement allowance for any person, all of whose credited service in the Legislators' Retirement System was rendered or was deemed to have been rendered as an elective officer of the state whose office is provided for by the California Constitution, other than a judge and other than a Member of the Senate or Assembly, and all or any part of whose retirement allowance is calculated on the basis of the compensation payable to the officer holding the office which the member last held prior to retirement, or for the survivor or beneficiary of such a person, shall not be increased or affected in any manner by changes on or after November 5, 1986, in the compensation payable to the officer holding the office which the member last held prior to retirement.
- (b) This section shall apply to any person, survivor, or beneficiary described in subdivision (a) who receives, or is receiving, from the Legislators' Retirement System a retirement allowance on or after November 5, 1986, all or any part of which allowance is calculated on the basis of the compensation payable to the officer holding the office which the member last held prior to retirement.
- (c) It is the intent of the people, in adopting this section, to restrict retirement allowances to amounts reasonably to be expected by certain members and retired members of the Legislators' Retirement System and to preserve the basic character of earned retirement benefits while prohibiting windfalls and unforeseen advantages which have no relation to the real theory and objective of a sound retirement system. It is not the intent of this section to deny any member, retired member, survivor, or beneficiary a reasonable retirement allowance. Thus, this section shall not be construed as a repudiation of a debt nor the impairment of a contract for a substantial and reasonable retirement allowance from the Legislators' Retirement System.
- (d) The people and the Legislature hereby find and declare that the dramatic increase in the retirement allowances of persons described in subdivision (a) which would otherwise result when the compensation for those offices increases on November 5, 1986, or January 5, 1987, are not benefits which could have reasonably been expected. The people and the Legislature further find and declare that the Legislature did not intend to provide in its scheme of compensation for those offices such windfall benefits.

WHEREAS, All girls and boys ages six to 15 are eligible to play little league ball since no one is ever turned away by Mission Hills Little League, Inc., because of inability to pay, unlike most private organizations; and

WHEREAS, In the 29 years since its beginning, approximately 12,000 youths have participated in the Little League program operated by Mission Hills Little League, Inc., and while attaining the physical skills and fitness benefits of a baseball program, the children are learning other important skills such as social interaction, sportsmanship, teamwork, community pride, and responsibility, and these benefits far outweigh the value of one-time revenue from the sale of the acreage on which the fields are situated; and

WHEREAS, There is no feasible alternative site for these playing fields in the densely-populated Mission Hills area, so that this popular program which is so important and constructive for the development and well-being of our young people is threatened with curtailment if these fields are no longer available for use; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California urgently memorializes the President, Congress, and the Veterans' Administration to do everything possible to preserve the right of Mission Hills Little League, Inc., to continue to use the playing fields on the Sepulveda Veterans' Hospital facility pursuant to that agreement which has worked so well and has been a benefit both to the Little League and the hospital for 17 years; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, and to the United States Veterans' Administration.

Senate Joint Resolution No. 40-Relative to food.

WHEREAS, Agriculture is a vital sector of the United States economy, particularly in California where it accounts for nearly 15 billion dollars in gross receipts from the production of 250 different crops and livestock; and

WHEREAS, The prosperity of California agriculture depends directly upon healthy export markets which account for 25 percent of California agricultural sales and nearly one-third of the state's farm acreage; and

WHEREAS, The preservation and development of export markets is necessary in order for California to utilize its long-term comparative advantage in the production of food and fiber for world markets; and

WHEREAS, The federal government has imposed food and trade embargoes as a political weapon against unfriendly nations; and

WHEREAS, Unilateral embargoes have typically been ineffective because the targeted nations have succeeded in establishing alternative suppliers in other counties; and

WHEREAS, Embargoes have placed an unfair and disproportionate burden on the trade and agricultural sectors and have damaged the reputation of the United States as a reliable supplier on world markets; and

WHEREAS, The ability of agriculture in the United States and California to compete effectively in world export markets in the long run depends critically upon developing its reputation as a reliable supplier; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and the Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to refrain from using food embargoes as a unilateral sanction against unfriendly nations when such an action would be likely to cause harm to the agricultural and trade sectors of the United States and California, unless it can be shown that the action has widespread, multilateral support which will preclude the offending nation from simply turning to alternative suppliers in other countries and causing a further deterioration in the reputation of United States agriculture as a reliable supplier of food and fiber products to world markets, or unless it can be shown that such an embargo is vital to the security of the citizens of the United States; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Majority Leader of the Senate, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, and to the Secretary of State and the Secretary of Agriculture.

WHEREAS, The 100-mile Western States Trail Ride (Tevis Cup) has been conducted for more than 30 years along that portion of the historic Pioneer Western States Trail between Squaw Valley and Auburn, California; and

WHEREAS, The 100-mile Western States Endurance Run grew out of the Tevis Cup Ride in 1974 and has been conducted for more than a decade along the same portion of the historic Western States Trail; and

WHEREAS, The 100-mile ride and the run includes the historic Bob Watson Trails at the American River headwaters in the Granite Chief Wilderness so that the participants may experience the wilderness and historic values of following the route of the pioneers on horseback and foot more than a century ago; and WHEREAS, The ride and the run honor all who complete the events, presenting coveted awards that emphasize successful participation rather than competition; and

WHEREAS, These events have enabled riders and runners from around the world to be introduced to the unique beauty and history of this region of California; and

WHEREAS, These events have encouraged public education and awareness of wilderness and historic values, preservation and maintenance of the Western States Trail, and medical and veterinary research leading to expanded knowledge of human and animal physiology; and

WHEREAS, The Western States Trail Foundation, originators of the ride and the run and sponsors of the ride, has over the years contributed more than $150,000 and thousands of volunteer hours to restore the historic trails and to make them available for use by all who would appreciate them; and

WHEREAS, The events are restricted in size to approximately 250 riders and 300 runners for each event once a year, and have been conducted with a sensitivity to natural values that has preserved the wilderness areas through which they pass; and

WHEREAS, The ride and the run traverse the Granite Chief Wilderness area for a few hours in the early morning once each year, at a time when other visitor use is virtually nonexistent in the area, and does not require or maintain any checkpoint, aid stations, mechanical or commercial intrusion, or media coverage in this area; and

WHEREAS, The ride the run as described above have brought great credit to the Tahoe National Forest, the State of California, and the County of Placer; and

WHEREAS, In 1984 the Congress of the United States designated as the Granite Chief Wilderness the area through which the Western States Trail runs from the fourth to eighth mile of the ride and the run, finding that this area after years of use by the ride and the run, was worthy of that designation; and

WHEREAS, While the ride and the run are consistent and compatible with congressional designation of the Granite Chief Wilderness, the application of current United States Forest Service policy to the ride and the run would categorically prohibit these events in the Granite Chief Wilderness; and

WHEREAS, The United States Forest Service has expressed its willingness to reconsider its policy of categorically excluding endurance events from wilderness areas and to consider evaluating these events on a case-by-case basis; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the California Legislature urges all of the following actions by the United States Forest Service:

- (1) Adoption of a policy that evaluates endurance events in wilderness areas on a case-by-case basis.
  - (2) Permitting the continued use of the Granite Chief Wilderness for the 100-mile Western States Trail Ride and the 100-mile Western States Endurance Run.

(3) Continue, along with other responsible governmental entities, their valued cooperation to ensure that the ride and the run continue their traditional use of the historic Pioneer Western States Trail; and be it further

Resolved, That the California Legislature urges the United States Forest Service and Congress not to consider modification of existing wilderness boundaries as an appropriate alternative to allowing the 100-mile Western States Trail Ride or the 100-mile Western States Endurance Run to use the traditional route through the existing Granite Chief Wilderness area; and be it be further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to Mr. R. Max Peterson, the Chief of the United States Forest Service, to the congressional sponsors of the 1984 California Wilderness Act, Senators Alan Cranston and Pete Wilson and Representative Sala Burton, and to Representative Norman Shumway, the Congressman for Placer County.

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California at its 1985–86 Regular Session commencing on the third day of December, 1984, two-thirds of the members elected to each of the two houses of the Legislature voting therefor, hereby proposes to the people of the State of California that the Constitution of the State be amended by amending subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A thereof, to read:

SEC. 2. (a) The full cash value means the county assessor's valuation of real property as shown on the 1975–76 tax bill under "full cash value" or, thereafter, the appraised value of real property when purchased, newly constructed, or a change in ownership has occurred after the 1975 assessment. All real property not already assessed up to the 1975–76 full cash value may be reassessed to reflect that valuation. For purposes of this section, "newly constructed" does not include real property which is reconstructed after a disaster, as declared by the Governor, where the fair market value of the real property, as reconstructed, is comparable to its fair market value prior to the disaster. Also, the term "newly constructed" shall not include the portion of reconstruction or improvement to a structure, constructed of unreinforced masonry bearing wall construction, necessary to comply with any local ordinance relating to seismic safety during the first 15 years following that reconstruction or improvement.

However, the Legislature may provide that under appropriate circumstances and pursuant to definitions and procedures established by the Legislature, any person over the age of 55 years who resides in property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption under subdivision (k) of Section 3 of Article XIII and any implementing legislation may transfer the base year value of the property entitled to exemption, with the adjustments authorized by subdivision (b), to any replacement dwelling of equal or lesser value located within the same county and purchased or newly constructed by that person as his or her principal residence within two years after the sale of the original property. For purposes of this section, "any person over the age of 55 years" includes a married couple one member of which is over the age of 55 years. For purposes of this section, "replacement dwelling" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, and any land on which it may be situated. For purposes of this section, a two-dwelling unit shall be considered as two separate single-family dwellings. This paragraph shall not apply to any replacement dwelling which was purchased or newly constructed prior to the effective date of this paragraph.

WHEREAS, That commitment is demonstrated, in part, through funding and administering a variety of scholarship, grant, loan, and work-study programs; and

WHEREAS, Increasing educational costs, growing student enrollments, and shrinking student aid funds have all resulted in an implicit public policy of shifting college costs from one generation to another; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature concurs with a 1985 California Postsecondary Education Commission report, entitled Mortgaging a Generation, which states that "the increasing use of borrowing by some students to finance their educations raises questions about the total accumulated indebtedness of students and the effects it has on their ability to continue their education, choose among career options, and participate fully in California's economy;" and

WHEREAS, The cost of telephone service for California businesses and residents is a matter of particular state and local concern; and

WHEREAS, This usurpation by the Federal Communications Commission is intended to, and will, raise local telephone rates for California businesses and residents, as well as for businesses and residents in other states; and

WHEREAS, The Public Utilities Commission has regulated intrastate telephone service in California effectively without interference from the federal government; and

WHEREAS, The preservation of the power of the several states to affect rates and practices of public utilities, including telephone corporations, is a fundamental element of the federal structure of the United States, which ought to be preserved against the depredations of federal agencies; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the Congress of the United States to investigate the usurpation of state authority by the Federal Communications Commission and to amend the Communications Act of 1934, as necessary, to preserve state authority over intrastate telephone service to enable the states to protect the interests of their residents and ratepayers; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature hereby supports the position of the Public Utilities Commission before the Federal Communications Commission, and in the federal courts, that the Communications Act of 1934 does not deprive the states of the power to regulate accounting methods and other details of the utility regulation process that directly affect local telephone rates; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, to the Chairperson of the Committee on Commerce, Transportation, and Science of the United States Senate, to the Chairperson of the Committee on Energy and Commerce and to the Chairperson of the Subcommittee on Telecommunications, Consumer Protection, and Finance of the United States House of Representatives, and to the Public Utilities Commission.

WHEREAS, Existing federal tax policy for over four decades has allowed for long investment recovery periods and substantially encourages timber growing; and

WHEREAS, The tax reform bill passed by the U.S. House of Representatives approximately doubles taxes on timber companies by repealing capital gains treatment of timber income for corporations and requiring the capitalization of timber management expenses; and now, therefore, be it

[Filed with Secretary of State July 15, 1986]

WHEREAS, Santa Monica Bay is a state and national treasure, where the beaches are among the most popular in the country, and the water provides a variety of recreational and commercial activities to residents and tourists of the state and country; and

WHEREAS, The dumping of DDT, cyanide, polychloronated biphenyls (PCBs), and other hazardous wastes into Santa Monica Bay has created a potentially hazardous health and environmental problem to the citizens in the greater Los Angeles area; and

WHEREAS, Reports of the contamination of Santa Monica Bay have been verified by the health officials of the County of Los Angeles, the California Regional Water Quality Board (Los Angeles Region), and the State Department of Health Services; and

WHEREAS, The Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 9601 et seq.) provides that those hazardous substance release sites placed on its priority list will qualify for federal cleanup funds to quickly alleviate these problems; and

WHEREAS, It is imperative to assess the contamination of Santa Monica Bay and the potential health consequences and to act as soon as possible to correct this contamination which could affect the public health of the large population of the greater Los Angeles area; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature supports and endorses the effort by the Representatives from California in Congress to place Santa Monica Bay on the Environmental Protection Agency's "National Priorities List" for removal and remedial action funding pursuant to the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980, and thus expedite the cleanup of Santa Monica Bay, and also supports and endorses the agreement by the Environmental Protection Agency to conduct a preliminary assessment of the condition of Santa Monica Bay; and be it further Senate Joint Resolution No. 63—Relative to federal disaster assistance.

WHEREAS, Federal disaster assistance to supplement state and local efforts is available under Public Law 93-288, the Disaster Relief Act of 1974; and

WHEREAS, Since 1976, 20 of the 38 states of emergency in California caused by storms, fires, floods, earthquakes, and other natural calamities received declarations of disaster by the President of the United States and thus warranted federal aid for losses to public property; and

WHEREAS, Under Public Law 93-288, federal aid of $288.7 million in these 20 disasters helped cushion the total public loss of $775 million to state and local government; and

WHEREAS, New regulations proposed by the Federal Emergency Management Agency to implement Public Law 93-288 will impose a financial burden on California and local governments by increasing the local percentage of the cost-sharing ratio; and

WHEREAS, Under the proposed regulations for capability indicators for assistance based on per capita income and damage liability, California must first incur damages of $30 million before any federal assistance can become available; and

WHEREAS, This level of loss would have made state and local governments totally responsible for losses incurred in 10 of the 20 presidentially-declared disasters since 1976; and

WHEREAS, The eligibility of local governments for federal assistance will also be severely curtailed under the capability indicators established by the proposed regulations; and

WHEREAS, The proposed regulations establish criteria for federal assistance which are ambiguous and unclear and which, therefore, can be subjectively interpreted; and

WHEREAS, Restrictions of eligibility pertaining to special districts are intentionally discriminatory and are unacceptable because of fiscal or insurance consequences; and

WHEREAS, Other restrictions in the proposed regulations would subject individual local governments or the state to unreasonable financial commitments and would not finance corrective measures meant to prevent the recurrence of problems; and

WHEREAS, The proposed regulations interfere with state autonomy by requiring the Governor and the Legislature to impose additional mandates on local governments in order to qualify for federal assistance; and

WHEREAS, In imposing those requirements and adopting capability indicators based on per capita income, the federal government fails to recognize the state constitutional limits on public expenditures and revenue collection by both state and local governments; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California memorializes the President and Congress of the United States to prohibit the adoption of the proposed changes in 44 Code of Federal Regulations Part 205 pertaining to the disaster declaration process, public assistance eligibility, public assistance program administration, and hazard mitigation as published in the Federal Register Volume 51, No. 75, April 16, 1986; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of California further memorializes the Congress of the United States to convene oversight hearings on the proposed changes in regulations governing the work of the federal Emergency Management Agency in order to properly evaluate the need to the federal government and the impact to the states and local governments of the proposals; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 87

Senate Joint Resolution No. 60—Relative to individual retirement accounts.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 13, 1986]

WHEREAS, Congress is currently considering a tax reform bill which could have a profound effect on the lives and pocketbooks of millions of Americans; and

WHEREAS, As part of its deliberations on this tax reform bill, the Congress is weighing various proposals regarding the treatment of individual retirement accounts (IRA's) under the federal Internal Revenue Code; and

WHEREAS, According to a recent study, 28 million American families are currently taking advantage of the deduction for IRA contributions and the deferral of taxation on interest earned by IRA's, which are available to them pursuant to existing law; and

WHEREAS, Statistics indicate that approximately 65% of the households with IRA's have annual incomes of $40,000 or less; and

WHEREAS, Another recent study indicates that IRA contributions have significantly increased the amount of savings deposited in financial institutions, and a higher rate of savings helps to stimulate the economy by keeping money in productive circulation; and

WHEREAS, The current treatment of IRA's under the federal tax laws has proved to be beneficial both for a large number of individual taxpayers and for the economy as a whole; now, therefore, be it Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the Congress and President of the United States to maintain the current availability of the deduction for individual retirement accounts in any tax reform statute which they may enact; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, the Speaker and the Chairperson of the Committee on Ways and Means of the United States House of Representatives, the Chairperson of the Committee on Finance of the United States Senate, and each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 89

Senate Joint Resolution No. 33—Relative to hospital care.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 19, 1986]

WHEREAS, The federal Medicare Prospective Payment System reimburses hospitals for services rendered to Medicare beneficiaries according to rates which are currently established in a manner reflecting hospital-specific and regional economic factors that affect the cost of providing hospital services; and

WHEREAS, After October 1, 1987, hospitals will be reimbursed using a single, national rate which will be calculated without regard to the profound economic differences among hospitals and the various regions of the country, but will merely adjust for differences between "urban" and "rural" hospital wage factors; and

WHEREAS, The adoption of a national rate under the Medicare Prospective Payment System will not necessarily result in a reduction of total federal spending for Medicare, but will impose a severe and unjust economic burden on the State of California by transferring millions of Medicare dollars currently being received for patient care in California to other states; and

WHEREAS, Because the citizens of California pay 25 percent more federal income tax per capita than the citizens of less industrialized states that will benefit from the adoption of a national Medicare Prospective Payment System rate, California will, in fact, be subsidizing these other states for their Medicare expenditures; and

WHEREAS, The adoption of a national rate will create an inequitable shift of federal tax dollars to other states since the cost to hospitals of caring for Medicare beneficiaries in California and the rest of the West and Midwest will significantly exceed the national reimbursement rate, while the cost of providing the same care in the Southern states will fall well below the national rate, resulting in a substantial loss in federal funds from California each year under the national rate; and

WHEREAS, This loss of federal support will seriously affect California hospitals' efforts to adapt and survive in a pro-competitive environment such as that prescribed by the Medi-Cal contracting program and the private sector's price competitive markets; and

WHEREAS, California hospitals, especially those serving a disproportionate number of the poor, the near poor, and the aged, are already staggering under an ever increasing financial burden of uncompensated care; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California urges the Congress of the United States and the United States Department of Health and Human Services, when formulating the cost of providing hospital care to Medicare recipients, to establish hospital reimbursement rates, under the Medicare Prospective Payment System, that will fairly and equitably reflect the unique economic conditions which affect the cost of providing hospital care to Medicare recipients in higher-cost states such as California, Illinois, and Massachusetts, and regions such as the West, Midwest, and Northeast; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, and to the Secretary of Health and Human Services.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 90

Senate Joint Resolution No. 50-Relative to exporting new drugs.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 19, 1986]

WHEREAS, California is the intellectual center of the nation's biotechnology industry; and

WHEREAS, Approximately 35 percent of the nation's biotechnology companies, including the leading companies, are headquartered in California; and

WHEREAS, California companies have already developed many pharmaceutical products, such as human insulin and proinsulin, human growth hormone, and interferon, which have the potential to alleviate human suffering and illness; and

WHEREAS, The United States Patent and Trademark Office has received in recent years nearly one thousand patent applications based on biotechnological research; and

WHEREAS, The biotechnology field is growing more competitive, particularly with respect to Pacific Rim and European countries where, according to the Congressional Office of Technology Assessment, private and public companies sometimes benefit from government subsidies; and

WHEREAS, Current federal law forces American pharmaceutical biotechnology companies to export new technologies, jobs, and economic development opportunities to other developed countries because of an error in federal law which does not allow distribution of new drugs in certain foreign countries if our own government has not approved the distribution; and

WHEREAS, These countries, such as Japan, Germany, Switzerland, France, Sweden, and Great Britain have at least as sophisticated and rigorous a testing program prior to the distribution of new drugs as does the United States; and

WHEREAS, It is these countries which offer the stiffest competition to American biotechnology companies, often with the direct assistance of their government; and

WHEREAS, American companies, in order to compete in these other markets, must export the production of new drugs to the countries which approve distribution and, thus, take that technology and employment abroad; and

WHEREAS, Congress is considering corrective legislation to eliminate this error in the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act, which governs the exportation of pharmaceuticals; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the State of California views the biotechnology industry in California as one which represents new economic growth, new jobs, new research opportunities, and new means to better the health of both individuals and the state, and as an industry fully deserves the encouragement of the state whenever and however possible; and be it further

Resolved, That the State of California memorializes the Congress of the United States and the federal government to enact remedial legislation designed to permit the exportation of new drug products that, while pending final Food and Drug Administration approval in this country, have fully complied with the health and safety laws, standards, and regulations of the country to which the products are being exported; and be it further

Resolved, That the State of California memorializes the Congress of the United States to take every precaution to ensure that countries without a testing program as sophisticated and rigorous as the testing programs that exist in the United States be fully protected from unsafe or nonefficacious products; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

WHEREAS, Studies show that alcohol is price sensitive so people drink more if the price is less; and

WHEREAS, These practices are contrary to the National Restaurant Association's stated policy of discouraging alcohol promotions that foster the overconsumption of alcoholic beverages; and

WHEREAS, The elimination of practices which foster overconsumption of alcoholic beverages could, coupled with other laws and voluntary industry reforms, lead to more responsible behavior on the part of the individuals who consume alcoholic beverages; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That in recognition of the need for government to encourage the elimination of marketing practices which promote overconsumption of alcoholic beverages, the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is requested to conduct public hearings relating to the elimination of those practices; and be it further

Resolved, That, after these public hearings, the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control is requested to consider the adoption of rules to implement the prohibition of those practices which promote overconsumption of alcoholic beverages; and be it further

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 84—Relative to electric rates for agricultural customers.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 28, 1986]

WHEREAS, During the 1970s, electric rates for agricultural customers were based on a "block rate system" that provided fair and manageable charges for electric power; and

WHEREAS, California agriculture was developed based on this system and for years was encouraged by electric utility companies to install single meters for a series of high horsepower pumps and other electric equipment because of the cost savings that could result from volume usage; and

WHEREAS, In the late 1970s, the Public Utilities Commission changed the methods used by electric utilities for charging for electricity furnished to industrial, commercial, agricultural, and residential customers; and

WHEREAS, Since that time, farm income has been level or declining while operational expenses have continued to increase, and neither of these factors is entirely within the farmer's control; and

WHEREAS, The farmer and rancher remains at the mercy of fluctuating market prices for perishable goods, acts of nature, and suppliers who independently control their prices and costs; and

WHEREAS, Because of these and other factors affecting agriculture today, farmers and ranchers and related businesses are having difficult times coping with the costs of electric power; and

WHEREAS, Agriculture, as California's number one industry, controls many rural economies and also affects supporting industries within cities which depend on a healthy farm economy for providing jobs, retail sales, and a supportive tax base; and

WHEREAS, Electric utility companies continue to petition the Public Utilities Commission for rate increases, which, if granted, will force many California farmers and ranchers out of business, which will have an adverse impact on agriculture-related businesses and rural cities and towns; and

WHEREAS, Contrary to other classes of electric customers, agricultural customers have, through technology, conservation, and other means, during the past 10 years, reduced the amount of power consumed in the production of agriculture; and

WHEREAS, Agricultural customers have not contributed to the need for the development, design, and construction of additional new electric power sources; and

WHEREAS, Agricultural electric rates have steadily increased during the past 10 years, without regard to the increased efficiency and reduced level of consumption by these customers; and

WHEREAS, The continued escalation of electric costs to agricultural customers is motivating them to seek alternative electric power supplies which afford them more cost control but which would, at the same time, reduce the overall customer base, thereby increasing costs for all other classes of electric customers; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Public Utilities Commission is hereby requested, when considering increases in electric rates affecting agricultural customers, to also consider, in light of previous increases approved by the commission, the increased efficiency of agricultural electric power consumption as well as the decreased demand for power by agricultural customers; and be it further

Resolved, That the commission is hereby requested to immediately consider the importance of implementing rate reductions during the growing season as opposed to during or after harvest season so that any rate reduction would occur at a time when agriculture could derive the greatest benefit from the rate reduction; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy of this resolution to the Public Utilities Commission.

WHEREAS, For 60 years, the Los Angeles Central Library has been housed in a building which was termed "an allegory to the pursuit of knowledge" by its architect, Bertram Grovsenor Goodhue; and

WHEREAS, The Central Library Building was dedicated on July 15, 1926, was designated an historic landmark by the Los Angeles Cultural Heritage Board in 1967, and is listed in the National Register of Historic Places; and

WHEREAS, The fate of the deteriorating Central Library Building has been in question in recent years, and the Los Angeles Community Redevelopment Agency proposed a $144,000,000 plan in 1984 to renovate and expand the Central Library Building and to incorporate the historic structure, which represents the symbolic heart of Los Angeles, into an innovative business and commerce complex; and

WHEREAS, On Tuesday, April 29, 1986, a fire engulfed the historic building, severely damaging the massive collection of library materials and forcing the temporary closure of the Los Angeles Central Library; and

WHEREAS, Facing intense personal hazards, over 250 firefighters battled the Central Library fire, which, with temperatures of approximately 2,000 degrees Fahrenheit, was the most difficult structure fire in the city's history; and

WHEREAS, The heroic firefighters managed to cover the books and to lift precious documents off the floor in an attempt to protect them from water damage; and

WHEREAS, The fire caused injury to 46 firefighters and one civilian; and

WHEREAS, Despite tireless efforts by the firefighters, 400,000 library materials were lost, and another 1,200,000 were moved offsite on Saturday, May 3, 1986, in an effort to save them through a variety of drying and cleansing processes; and

WHEREAS, Of the 1,200,000 damaged materials, 600,000 were placed in wet storage to be freeze-dried through a delicate process, and the remaining 600,000 were placed in dry storage to await mending and cleaning from smoke and dust damage; and

WHEREAS, Between 400,000 and 500,000 books remain in the building with no moisture damage and only minor cleaning needs; and

WHEREAS, The Los Angeles City Council has allocated $500,000 to assist in the task of removing and salvaging the damp materials, though this will only cover the initial costs; and

WHEREAS, The Los Angeles Central Library is now seeking a temporary building with at least 250,000 square feet, with floors capable of withstanding a weight load of 150 pounds per square inch; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature expresses its regret at the loss of the library materials and the damage to the historic Los Angeles Central Library Building, which are losses to all Californians; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature commends and thanks all of the courageous firefighters who set aside their personal well-being in order to prevent the total destruction of this essential part of California's cultural heritage; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature pledges its support for, and urges all Californians to join in, the efforts to replace the lost library materials and to ensure that temporary and permanent quarters for the Los Angeles Central Library are secured; and be it further

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 104—Relative to the Joint Rules.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 3, 1986]

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That notwithstanding any other Joint Rule of the Senate and the Assembly for the 1985–86 Regular Session, the Legislature shall be in final recess on August 31, 1986, until adjournment sine die on November 30, 1986.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 107

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 87—Relative to the national maximum speed limit.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 3, 1986.]

WHEREAS, The 55 miles-per-hour National Maximum Speed Limit (NMSL), as originally enacted 12 years ago, was a temporary fuel conservation measure which has become permanent law due to the safety benefits derived from reduced speed; and

WHEREAS, Federal standards were established in 1979 that mandated minimum state compliance levels with the 55 mph NMSL and imposed sanctions on those states, whose noncompliance levels were above 50 percent for motorists exceeding the 55 mph NMSL, by withholding up to 10 percent of the state's federal aid primary, secondary, and urban highway funds; and

WHEREAS, This state's noncompliance level has consistently increased to its 1985 level of 49.7 percent, up from 45.4 percent in 1984; and

WHEREAS, This state could be penalized up to $30,000,000 per year if the 55 mph NMSL noncompliance level rises above 50 percent, which is likely for 1986; and

WHEREAS, The gathering and reporting of speed data to determine a state's noncompliance level with the 55 mph NMSL, although governed by federal monitoring guidelines, varies sufficiently between states due to (1) variations in what speeds are reported as exceeding 55 mph, and (2) lack of consistency in the calibration of speed measuring equipment, to warrant a revision of the federal 55 mph NMSL compliance testing and reporting process; and

WHEREAS, California motorists continue to exceed the 55 mph NMSL in increasing numbers each year despite active law enforcement efforts (over 1,000,000 citations for exceeding the 55 mph NMSL issued per year) and extensive public information on the legal consequences of exceeding, and safety benefits derived from complying with, the 55 mph NMSL; and

WHEREAS, A motorist is more likely to comply with speed limits that he or she feels are realistic for the particular type of highway on which the motorist is driving, particularly on major rural freeways, and public opinion surveys show that the public expects a 5 to 10 mph tolerance before the 55 mph NMSL is enforced; and

WHEREAS, Law enforcement agencies and the public are in agreement that legislation which reduces fines and penalties for exceeding the 55 mph NMSL should be opposed because it would encourage motorists to consistently exceed the 55 mph NMSL without fear of serious punishment; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California hereby respectfully memorializes the President and Congress of the United States to revise the federal 55 miles-per-hour National Maximum Speed Limit compliance testing and reporting process to better reflect safety priorities by assigning greater significance to high-speed violations occurring on less-safe roads and to exempt safety projects from sanctions; and be it further

Resolved, That California be authorized to selectively increase speed limits on rural freeways in the National System of Interstate and Defense Highways; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, and to the Secretary of Transportation.

- RESOLUTION CHAPTER 108

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 94—Relative to commercial fishing vessels.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 3, 1986]

WHEREAS, Federal law applies to persons injured in the course of maritime employment; and

WHEREAS, Applicable legislation appears to be mutually exclusive, in that workers covered under the Jones Act do not have access to the remedies available under any other federal act; and

WHEREAS, Rising insurance rates for commercial fishing vessels which are subject to the Jones Act have increased costs and slowed expansion in this vital industry; and

WHEREAS, The Jones Act has no provision rendering inoperative state laws which create parallel remedies such as workers' compensation; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to amend the Jones Act to allow commercial fishermen the option of coverage by the state workers' compensation program or other remedies which may resolve the problem of rising insurance rates for commercial fishing vessels: and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 109

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 121—Relative to the Aquatic Habitat Institute.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 3, 1986]

WHEREAS, San Francisco Bay and its aquatic habitat is one of the most valuable assets of the State of California; and

WHEREAS, Man's activities, including urban and water development and agricultural uses, have changed the character of the San Francisco Bay and Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta estuarine system; and

WHEREAS, Major efforts have been undertaken to reduce the impact of these activities, including the investment of over two billion dollars in waste treatment facilities and the release of fresh water from reservoirs to provide for maintenance of instream salinity standards as required by the State Water Resources Control Board which also results in outflow to the bay; and

WHEREAS, Despite these efforts, recent San Francisco Bay studies have shown a decline in the number of striped bass, abnormalities and accumulation of toxic substances in certain fish species, and other existing and potential factors that are cause for serious concern; and

WHEREAS, Despite the huge investment to mitigate the impacts of the eight million people in the Central Valley and San Francisco Bay drainage basin, very little has been spent to analyze, on a continuous basis, the impacts of these activities; and

WHEREAS, Local, state, and federal research and planning activities beginning in the 1950's and 1960's have generally been uncoordinated, limited in scope, based on inconsistent data-gathering standards, and with insufficient scientific depth to provide the necessary information from which to support further cleanup and abatement efforts; and

WHEREAS, Recognizing a need in the late 1970's and early 1980's, the State Water Resources Control Board invested more than two million dollars in developing a San Francisco Bay aquatic habitat program; and

WHEREAS, This program included the creation of a nonprofit corporation, the Aquatic Habitat Institute, to provide permanent coordination and direction to research and information-gathering regarding the health of San Francisco Bay; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby recognizes the vital function served by the Aquatic Habitat Institute, and urges state, federal, and local agencies and private industries and individuals to support its work; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature urges state agencies, including the State Water Resources Control Board, to utilize the services of the institute to supplement ongoing efforts and to reduce overlapping and redundant activities; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature encourages appropriate state agencies to develop a relationship with the institute patterned after the relationship between the National Academy of Sciences and the federal government; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature recognizes the institute as the coordinator of research and long-term archives of data for San Francisco Bay, subject to the following:

- 1. The board of directors shall broadly represent all parties with significant interests in the health and uses of the San Francisco Bay Aquatic Habitat, and shall be constituted to ensure a reasonable balance among any conflicting interests.
- 2. The institute shall develop the necessary funds to operate, based on a program which includes grants, local funding, and private sources, and shall report to the Legislature on the subject within 270 days after adoption of this resolution.
- 3. The institute shall recognize the numerous public and private organizations with special interest and expertise concerning San Francisco Bay, and shall actively solicit a public exchange of views on bay research to assure maximum technical input and citizen understanding; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the Chairman of the State Water Resources Control Board and the Aquatic Habitat Institute.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 110

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 139—Relative to oil well abandonment.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 3, 1986.] -

WHEREAS, A "stripper well" is an oil well which has already produced the bulk of its existing oil deposit; and

WHEREAS, 50 percent or 25,000 of the 50,000 producing oil wells in California are stripper wells that produce less than 10 barrels of oil per day, and

WHEREAS, Most of the stripper wells produce heavy crude oil that is difficult and expensive to bring to the surface; and

WHEREAS, The selling price of a barrel of crude oil in California dropped more than 60 percent in the first three months of 1986; and WHEREAS, The cost of operating many stripper wells is more than the value of the oil they produce; and

WHEREAS, Nearly one-third of the stripper wells in California have been shut down since oil prices began their decline; and

wells within their jurisdiction that have been shut down for certain periods of time; and

WHEREAS, The wells that have been shut down because of the price decline could be returned to production when the value of oil again equals or exceeds the cost of producing the oil; and

WHEREAS, The oil remaining in the ground can eventually be recovered from wells that have been shut down but would almost certainly never be recovered from wells that have been abandoned; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature urges local governments to refrain from requiring the abandonment of oil wells which have been shut down due to depressed oil prices unless it can be definitely established that no future oil production will be lost; and be it further

Resolved, That requirements by local governments to abandon shutdown wells be suspended until that time when oil prices reach a level where production of these wells again becomes economically feasible; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to each chairman of the board of supervisors in the 30 counties listed below where stripper wells are located and to each mayor of the cities in those counties, as follows:

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 112

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 82—Relative to international studies.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 5, 1986]

WHEREAS, The area known as the Pacific Rim, including all those states and nations bordering on both sides of the Pacific Ocean, comprises 60 percent of the world's population and has a combined economy of greater than three trillion dollars ($3,000,000,000,000), which is growing by three billion dollars ($3,000,000,000) a week; and

WHEREAS, California is situated by virtue of its geography, economy, history, and character on this rim of opportunity and is in a position to provide economic and technological leadership in this dynamic region; and

WHEREAS, California currently receives some 30 percent of the immigrants from Pacific Basin countries leading to the increased internationalization of California, which will create new challenges for the educational and economic system; and educated work force and business, political, and community leaders attuned to the realities of other Pacific Rim countries; and

WHEREAS, For California to prepare for the future within an internationalized economy, it is possible that more students will need to be educated in the business, political science, sociology, history, language, religion, economics, and culture of other Pacific Rim countries: and

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 89—Relative to economic development.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 5, 1986]

WHEREAS, The United States has lost its historic preeminence in basic experimental research in high energy physics because other nations have more sophisticated and powerful particle accelerators to study the basic nature of matter; and

WHÉREAS, The federal government is considering building the Superconducting Super Collider (SSC) which would be 20 times more powerful than existing accelerators and which would allow the United States to recapture its scientific lead in this important field; and

WHEREAS, The state which becomes the site for the SSC will receive enormous benefits including an estimated $1 billion in direct construction expenditures, at least 2,000 permanent new jobs, improved prestige for its universities, and numerous spinoffs of high technology companies; and

WHEREAS, Other states are actively competing to attract the SSC, with Illinois offering to use the existing Fermilab and Texas offering to donate land and construction costs; and

WHEREAS, The Governor and the Legislature of the State of California met this competitive challenge in 1985 by appropriating $500,000 to the University of California to organize a site committee in conjunction with Stanford University and the California Institute of Technology, which are all leaders in particle physics research; and

WHEREAS, The Governor and the Legislature of the State of California provided an additional $1,000,000 appropriation to the University of California in 1986 to bolster its efforts in attracting the SSC; and

WHEREAS, The Governor has assigned key agencies of the State of California to work with the University of California on this project; and

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 115

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 141—Relative to the study of talent development approaches for improving higher education in California.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 5, 1986.]

WHEREAS, The primary goal of every educational institution should be to improve and add to the intellectual and personal development of each student; and

WHEREAS, The ultimate measure of the effectiveness of an educational institution is the success of its students in acquiring knowledge, competencies, and skills in learning their meaningful application; in forming reasoned attitudes and in examining and adopting values; and in developing the capacity for further learning; and

WHEREAS, Educational institutions should have the capacity to create educational environments, teaching practices, and evaluative procedures which enable, stimulate, and encourage significant learning for students served; and

WHEREAS, The measures of quality in most colleges and universities often fail to evaluate the impact of the institution on the improvement of the individual students from entrance to graduation; and

WHEREAS, The State of California spends nearly five billion dollars annually on its system of higher education, but the budget formulas tend to be based more on enrollments and physical space needs rather than on rewarding institutions for improvement of student learning; and

WHEREAS, While every student has a certain amount of underdeveloped educational potential, California students appear to fall short of meeting their potential as evidenced by the need for a high number of remedial course offerings and inadequate student retention rates; and

WHEREAS, Many colleges and universities across the country are considering experimenting with "value-added" or "talent development" approaches to measure student growth and with budget formulas which recognize and reward institutional performance in these areas; and

WHEREAS, Future success in coping with California's critical problems through higher education will depend on the development of new partnerships and a more cooperative approach to common issues, such as transfer and minority student access and retention efforts, on the part of all segments of education, kindergarten through the university; and

WHEREAS, The public at large would benefit greatly and be well served by maximizing educational potentials and improving student performances; and

WHEREAS, California's Master Plan for Higher Education, which is currently under review and revision, creates a framework for discussing large-scale educational policy objectives; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby directs the California Postsecondary Education Commission to survey other states, analyze relevant data, and make recommendations relative to talent development, value-added, and performance-based budgeting approaches to measuring and improving the quality of education; and be it further

Resolved, That the California Postsecondary Education Commission shall appoint and call on the assistance of a Task Force on Value-Added Approaches to Higher Education, which shall be composed of, but not limited to, a representative from the Higher Education Research Institute, and student, faculty, and administrative representatives from the University of California, California State University, the California Community Colleges, the California Maritime Academy, the Hastings College of the Law, and Scripps Institute, and shall extend an invitation to participate to private colleges and universities; and be it further

Resolved, That the California Postsecondary Education Commission shall submit a report on its findings and conclusions, and, if appropriate, the California Postsecondary Education Commission shall submit options for developing, implementing and measuring talent development, or value-added approaches to higher education, and performance-based budgeting incentives for encouraging the adoption of these approaches by public higher education institutions: and be it further

Resolved, That the California Postsecondary Education Commission shall submit this report to the Commission for the Review of the Master Plan for Higher Education, the Joint Legislative Committee for the Review of the Master Plan for Higher Education, the Regents of the University of California, the Trustees of California State University, and the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges, not later than March 1, 1987.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 116

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 143—Relative to criminal justice.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 5, 1986]

WHEREAS, The state's share of criminal justice system expenditures in the 1983 fiscal year ranked last among all other states, comprising only 22 percent of the total direct cost of operating the state and local criminal justice system; and

WHEREAS, The county share of criminal justice system expenditures ranks second among all other states, comprising 44 percent of the direct costs of the state and local justice systems; and

WHEREAS, County expenditures for corrections are 14 percent of the total direct state and local justice system expenditures, in comparison to the national average among the states of 7 percent; and WHEREAS, County expenditures for judicial activities amount to 17 percent of the total direct state and local justice system expenditures, in comparison to the national average among the states of 9 percent; and

WHEREAS, County expenditures for law enforcement are 13 percent of the total direct state and local justice system expenditures, in comparison to the national average among the states of 10 percent; and

WHEREAS, Counties spend 17 times the amount the state expends for judicial activities; and

WHEREAS, Counties spend more than twice as much as the state for police activities; and

WHEREAS, Counties spend more for corrections than does the state; and

WHEREAS, There is a need for the state to recognize these disparities and to pay for a greater share of the total state and local justice system costs; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That an advisory committee comprised of two Members of the Assembly appointed by the Assembly Rules Committee, two Members of the Senate appointed by the Senate Rules Committee, two Members appointed by the County Supervisors Association of California, one member appointed by the California District Attorneys Association, one member appointed by the California Public Defenders Association, one member who is a private attorney performing contract defender services for a county to be appointed by the California Attorneys for Criminal Justice, one member appointed by the Chief Probation Officers Association of California, one member appointed by the California State Sheriffs' Association, one member appointed by the Attorney General, and one member appointed by the State Public Defender, be appointed for purposes of reviewing the current state and county share of the costs of the state and local criminal justice system; and be it further

Resolved, That the advisory committee submit a report on the results of its review to the Legislature on or before March 30, 1987.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 117

WHEREAS, In certain remote or rural areas, rural hospitals are in imminent danger of closure; and

WHEREAS, These hospitals serve to attract and retain physicians, nurses, and other primary care providers; and

WHEREAS, The closure of these hospitals is followed by the departure of primary care providers and loss of emergency medical services; and

WHEREAS, Remote and rural areas have a chronic shortage of skilled nursing facility care; and

WHEREAS, It is the intent of the Legislature to create a new and more cost-effective facility that addresses the needs of people in remote or rural areas; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the State Department of Health Services is requested to inform the Legislature, no later than February 1, 1987, of the feasibility of creating a new health facility classification for isolated rural areas incorporating all of the following features:

- (a) Provision of service beds on a 24-hour or longer basis.
- (b) Provision for distinct part skilled nursing care.
- (c) Provision for emergency medical services.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 119

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 91—Relative to a marine sanctuary.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 5, 1986]

WHEREAS, The coast of California is a place of rare beauty and incalculable value to the spirit of humankind as well as for its economic well-being, and it is a national treasure admired and loved by all who have been refreshed by it; and

WHEREAS, The oil industry intends to drill for oil off this spectacular coast, which will result in a new and noxious chemical odor in the air that will never leave; the potential destruction of seabirds and marine life; possible contamination of the food chain, including seafood shipped throughout California; large-scale air and water pollution from tankers, rigs, drill ships, trucks, and refineries; added pressure on highways, already badly in need of repair, as well as on other local services and resources; and

WHEREAS, The plan to drill the north coast of California is related not to the real energy needs of Americans, but rather to federal decisions that discarded regulations regarding fuel-efficient cars, threw out government funding of alternative energy research, ended tax incentives for conservation and alternative energy use, and scrapped the once highly touted Synfuels program; and

that California is not supplying its fair share of the nation's energy, this state is in reality a net energy exporter, producing far more energy than it consumes, and leading the nation in the development of alternative energy and conservation methods; and

WHEREAS, The drilling for oil off of the north coast of California will not result in an increase in local employment or an improvement in the local economy as has been cynically promised, but will actually threaten the few remaining economic bases of the north coast, such as the commercial fishing and tourism industries, all for about one week's worth of energy for the nation; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the Congress of the United States to enact legislation creating a zone of permanent protection for the northern California coast, from Point Buchon to the Oregon border, from 200 miles offshore to the tide and submerged lands of the State of California, and that this zone be set aside as a marine sanctuary, where extraction of fossil fuels, minerals, and other nonrenewable materials, and the dumping or burning of toxic wastes, are forbidden and the protection of the marine environment and the needs of the commercial and sports fisheries are assured forever; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature respectfully requests that, as part of the establishment of this zone of permanent protection, recommendations be developed and submitted to California for the establishment of compatible zones in adjacent state waters; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Secretary of the Interior, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 120

WHEREAS, The majority of current penalty assessment moneys are diverted to programs that do not have a logical relationship to traffic infractions; and

WHEREAS, Penalty assessments may comprise up to an additional 80 percent of the fine, with less than 15 percent of the penalty assessment dedicated to driver training; and

WHEREAS, The assessments on traffic violations bring in far more revenue than those penalties assessed on criminal and violent crimes, yet penalty assessments support courthouse construction, juvenile justice facilities, fish and game preservation, correctional officer training, peace officer training, and restitution funding; and

WHEREAS, The above-cited programs are vital to the state's well-being; and

WHEREAS, It is desired that these various programs be provided a stable and predictable source of funding; and

WHEREAS, Traffic fines should be levied to deter unlawful conduct rather than as a means of generating revenue; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislative Analyst shall study penalty assessments and compare the sources of contribution to the benefits gained and recommend other stable revenue sources from which various penalty assessment programs may be funded; and be it further

Resolved, That the advisory committee shall include representatives of local government, law enforcement, court personnel, motor clubs, and other appropriate user groups; and be it further

WHEREAS, The United States Department of Transportation activities, as they affect the motor carrier industry, go far beyond the scope of activities of the present Federal Highway Administration, and include general transportation policy questions, allocations of research and planning resources, and other activities; and

WHEREAS, The establishment of a motor carrier administration would increase visibility of the motor carrier safety program, allow more effective oversight of truck programs by the Secretary of Transportation, foster more coordinated programs and policies, as well as provide a single point of focus for consumer, labor, and business interests and state and local governments; and

WHEREAS, The creation of a motor carrier administration within the United States Department of Transportation would recognize the vital role of the motor carrier industry to the nation's economy and to the safety, health, and well-being of its citizens; now, therefore, be it

WHEREAS, The State of California recognizes that the Small Business Administration has played an important role in assisting minority business people to start their own businesses and participate in government procurement programs; and

WHEREAS, The State of California's businesses are in greater need today than ever before of the services of the United States Small Business Administration as a result of the fact that they are:

(a) Experiencing severe economic problems caused by escalating

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 100—Relative to the labor dispute of the Independent Federation of Flight Attendants and Trans World Airlines.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 10, 1986.]

WHEREAS, The right of working people to fair treatment by their employers is fundamental to the proper functioning of both our American democracy and our economy; and

WHEREAS, Being out of work is a dehumanizing experience, and Americans do not go on strike for frivolous reasons; and

WHEREAS, On March 7, 1986, the 6,000 members of the Independent Federation of Flight Attendants (IFFA) went on strike against Trans World Airlines (TWA) after contract negotiations reached a total impasse; and

WHEREAS, The IFFA has bargained in good faith by offering to accept the same pay and benefit reductions as other TWA unions; and $5,000 per IFFA member per year over three years; and

WHEREAS, TWA rejected this offer, demanding salary, benefit, and work rule concessions from IFFA members three times greater than those accepted by other TWA employees (i.e., mechanics, pilots, ground employees, nonunion personnel, and management employees); and

WHEREAS, TWA seeks a substantially greater reduction in the total wage-benefit-work rule package from the IFFA; and

WHEREAS, All union employees regardless of gender have the same economic need to support themselves and their families, thus requiring that due consideration for equal treatment be assured in labor negotiations and settlements for both male and female dominated unions; and

WHEREAS, TWA management's present course of using inexperienced, nonunion personnel to fill the strikers' positions is causing a reduction in service; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California expresses its support for a prompt and equitable settlement of the labor dispute between the Independent Federation of Flight Attendants and Trans World Airlines; and be it further

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 140

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 102—Relative to foreign trade.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 10, 1986]

WHEREAS, Agriculture is the leading industry in California accounting for more than 14 billion dollars in gross receipts from the production of nearly 250 different crops and livestock; and

WHEREAS, California's agricultural economy is heavily dependent on foreign markets which account for 25 percent of California agricultural sales; and

WHEREAS, The value of California's agricultural exports has declined from a high of 4.2 billion dollars in 1981 to 2.9 billion dollars in 1984 largely due to tariff and nontariff barriers facing our agricultural exports and to the competition from emerging foreign producers; and

WHEREAS, Spain and Portugal have entered into full membership in the European Economic Community which will further decrease our agricultural export trade; and

WHEREAS, The preservation and development of foreign markets are essential to the economic well-being of California agriculture; and

WHEREAS, The next round of tariff negotiations under the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT) is scheduled to take place in September 1986; and

WHEREAS, United States agriculture in general, and California agriculture in particular, have historically been relegated to a low priority in the GATT negotiations and have received little benefit, frequently being offered as the sacrificial lamb to achieve nonagricultural concessions; and

WHEREAS, Those few gains which agriculture has achieved through these negotiations are of little, if any, value due to flagrant violations of the GATT rules by foreign countries; and

WHEREAS, It has become abundantly clear that the United States must make an unequivocal strong stand at the GATT negotiations to protect our rightful position in world trade and to ensure that agriculture maintains a priority status; and

WHEREAS, The California State World Trade Commission has appointed a Special Trade Representative who is housed in the Governor's Washington D.C. Office and who is intimately familiar with California agriculture and the significant importance of maintaining present and developing new export markets for California's agricultural commodities; and

WHEREAS, This is a prime opportunity for the Governor and the commission's special trade representative to protect and enhance the position of California agriculture through forceful, constructive, and determined participation in the GATT negotiations; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and Congress of the United States to protect California agricultural interests in the forthcoming General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT) negotiations; and be it further

Resolved, That the California State World Trade Commission is requested to direct its special trade representative in Washington, D.C., to take an active role in the forthcoming GATT negotiations and ensure that the United States negotiators recognize California agriculture's rightful position in world trade; and be it further

Resolved, The special trade representative be requested to keep the Governor and the Legislature abreast of international trade developments, especially any proposal that might be considered by the United States negotiating team so the state will have an opportunity to analyze and present meaningful and timely input to the United States negotiators; and be it further

Resolved, That United States negotiators be requested to obtain agreement from all GATT participants that violations of GATT rules will cease; and be it further

Resolved, That the Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Governor, to the Director of the California Department of Food and Agriculture, to the California State World Trade Commission and its Special Trade Representative, to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the President pro Tempore of the United States Senate, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, to the United States Secretary of Agriculture, and to the United States Trade Representative.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 141

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 104—Relative to commercial vehicle operator's licenses.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 10, 1986.]

WHEREAS, Current statistics of the Department of the California Highway Patrol relating to accidents involving commercial vehicles, show that the leading cause of those accidents is speeding, which is a problem attributable to the driver; and

WHEREAS, Many of the drivers of commercial vehicles in California are licensed by other states to drive those vehicles; and

WHEREAS, California can only effectively deal with drivers licensed in this state by suspension or revocation of the driving privilege of negligent operators; and

WHEREAS, When that action is taken, some drivers, because of interstate operation, are able to secure a driver's license in another state: and

WHEREAS, Some commercial vehicle operators carry more than one driver's license to prevent the loss of any one license by splitting the traffic violations between those licenses; and

WHEREAS, The Congress of the United States is currently considering legislation involving the licensing of drivers of commercial vehicles; and

WHEREAS, It is important that national standards be developed to assure improvement in the quality of drivers of commercial vehicles on any federal or state highway; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully requests the Congress of the United States to enact legislation which would require the Department of Transportation to provide for state administration of national uniform standards for licensing of drivers of commercial vehicles. The standards should include all of the following:

- (a) A definition of "commercial motor vehicle operator" as applied to vehicles of over 26,000 pounds gross vehicle weight and for-hire passenger buses.
- (b) One license issued only by the state of residence of each commercial motor vehicle operator. Each state shall fully recognize the license issued by the state of residence.
- (c) A single driver record for each commercial motor vehicle operator maintained by the state of license issuance.
- (d) Exchange of commercial motor vehicle operator records from one state to another, when the state of residence is changed.
- (e) Information to be included on commercial motor vehicle operator driver records.
- (f) Classified licensing system based on weight and type of truck or bus to be operated.
- (g) Testing of commercial motor vehicle operators in the type of vehicle they intend to drive.
- (h) A requirement that, prior to issuing a commercial vehicle operator's license, the state of issuance determine if the operator holds a commercial motor vehicle operator's license in another jurisdiction.
- (i) A requirement that applicants for a commercial motor vehicle operator's license be required to provide a thumbprint or fingerprints with the application.
- (j) Any other matters the Secretary of Transportation deems appropriate, including estimates of costs to implement the national standards, and possible funding sources; and be it further

Resolved, In order to ensure the highest standard of commercial vehicle operator safety, the national uniform standards for licensing of commercial vehicle operators shall not be less stringent than the standards of the State of California or preempt the authority of a state to adopt more stringent commercial vehicle operator license standards; and be it further

Resolved, That legislation enacted by Congress also provide for a national commercial vehicle operator identifier file which would contain the thumbprint or fingerprints of commercial vehicle operators licensed in each state in order to identify those commercial vehicle operators with more than one license and to enable states to combine the conviction records of multiple licensed drivers to determine whether or not action to suspend or revoke the commercial vehicle operator's license should be taken; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States and the Secretary of the Department of Transportation.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 10, 1986.]

WHEREAS, Advancing medical technology in the area of organ transplantation has brought enhanced health to thousands of people while increasing both the need and demand for transplant operations; and

WHEREAS, The public has seen an increasing number of dramatic appeals for organ donors to help a particular patient in need of a heart, liver, or other organ transplant; and

WHEREAS, The federal Task Force on Organ Procurement and Transplantation is a congressionally mandated body representing physicians and scientists involved in transplantation, organ procurement specialists, hospitals, third-party payers, members of the general public, ethicists, attorneys, and representatives of the federal government; and

WHEREAS, The task force has spent the last 18 months studying transplant policy in this country; and

WHEREAS, The task force has recently released an extensive report on its findings; and

WHEREAS, The American Council on Transplantation (ACT) is a private sector organization formed in 1983 and dedicated to increasing the availability and transplantation of organs and tissues to save and improve the lives of others. ACT is a nonprofit organization of over 700 individuals and over 80 national, regional, and local organizations representing a range of interests in organ and tissue transplantation; and

WHEREAS, The American Council on Transplantation has officially endorsed in principle the work and report of the task force; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California endorses in principle the work and the findings of the federal Task Force on Organ Transplantation; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President of the United States and Congress to carry out the specific task force recommendation that a national organ procurement and transplantation network be established to coordinate efforts to locate potential donor organs, and that this network shall have the power to set guidelines for obtaining and using organs for the purpose of transplantation; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly send copies of this resolution to the President and the Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, to the Secretary of Health and Human Services, to the Executive Director of the American Council on Transplantation, and to the Executive Director of the Task Force on Organ Procurement and Transplantation.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 143

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 106—Relative to federal income taxation.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 10, 1986]

WHEREAS, Under proposed legislation to reform the federal income tax laws, which includes revising Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code, if only one public employee's pension benefit would exceed the maximum allowable pension, the entire public pension plan would lose tax exempt status; and

WHEREAS, California public pension plans are extremely limited in their ability to revise the benefits available to their members since under California statute and case law, present benefit levels are vested rights protected under the Contract Clause of the United States and California Constitutions; and

WHEREAS, The effect of the loss of tax exempt status would include the requirement that California's public employees would have to pay federal taxes on employer contributions to their pension plans; and

WHEREAS, An additional result of the loss of tax exempt status would be that earnings from the investments of California public pension plans would no longer be tax exempt, thereby destroying the fiscal integrity of those plans; and

WHEREAS, Notwithstanding the impact on public pension plans by this proposal, no new revenues for the federal government have been attributed to the inclusion of public pension plans in the federal tax reform legislation; and now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the Congress of the United States to exempt public pension plans from the proposed revision to Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, and to each congressional member of the House-Senate Conference Committee considering the tax reform bill.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 144

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 108—Relative to the United States Travel and Tourism Administration.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 10, 1986.]

WHEREAS, The United States Senate Budget Resolution eliminates the United States Travel and Tourism Administration (USTTA), the only official organization that coordinates international tourism policy for the United States worldwide; and

WHEREAS, Tourism is the second largest private employer in the nation and generates more than $46 billion a year in salaries and wages while serving as the first, second, or third largest employer in 40 states: and

WHEREAS, USTTA provides state and city tourism agencies with a worldwide network of offices and services which promote the United States as a destination of travel in general and aid in marketing those states and cities in particular; and

WHEREAS, The average funding among competitive countries for equivalent agencies is nearly four times greater than federal funding for USTTA; and

WHEREAS, The preservation of the profit-generating USTTA would lessen the United States balance-of-trade deficit by increasing the United States' share of tourism receipts thereby increasing our nation's real earnings; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California memorializes the President and Congress of the United States to take all measures necessary to retain the United States Travel and Tourism Administration at current or higher funding levels; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, and to the National Conference of State Legislatures.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 145

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 109—Relative to television licensing.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 10, 1986]

WHEREAS, Spanish International Communications Corporation through KMEX-TV has provided Spanish language broadcasts, news, information, and entertainment to the Hispanic community of Southern California; and

WHEREAS, Hispanics currently constitute 22 percent of the California population; and

WHEREAS, Greater participation of Hispanics in all aspects of business is desirable; and

WHEREAS, Continued Hispanic ownership of TV stations ensures services and information to the Hispanic community; and

WHEREAS, The planned sale of stations here and across the county could potentially reduce Hispanic ownership and deprive the community of an important source of information needed for full participation in this society; and

WHEREAS, Hispanic investment groups, in response to the needs of the Hispanic community, have shown the ability and willingness to finance such ventures; and

WHEREAS, The Los Angeles City Council and Board of Supervisors have communicated to the Federal Communications Commission their support for continued Hispanic ownership of KMEX-TV; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) is hereby requested to give consideration to Hispanic applicants for the ownership of KMEX-TV and four other television stations owned by Spanish International Communications Corporation so that the Hispanic community will be assured of Spanish language stations which allow them greater participation in local, state, and national affairs; and be it further Resolved. That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to members of the Federal Communications Commission (FCC).

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 146

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 110—Relative to the recent air disaster in Cerritos.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 10, 1986]

WHEREAS, The Legislature of the State of California mourns the tragic midair collision between an AeroMexico airliner and a private airplane over Cerritos on August 31, 1986; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature sends its heartfelt condolences and sympathy to the victims' families and to the residents of Cerritos who endured the disaster; and WHEREAS, The Legislature recalls a similar midair collision in San Diego on September 25, 1978, and finds that the response of the Federal Aviation Administration to the San Diego collision was inadequate to prevent further midair collisions; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature understands that electronic devices can be installed on all aircraft to help prevent midair collisions; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature recognizes the importance of air safety to aircraft passengers and to the public on the ground; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California urges the Federal Aviation Administration to thoroughly investigate the cause of the midair collision on August 31, 1986, and to take the steps which are necessary to protect the public safety from the recurrence of such a disaster; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature further urges the Congress of the United States to enact legislation requiring collision avoidance systems on all commercial and private aircraft entering controlled airspace in the United States; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Administration, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 147

Senate Joint Resolution No. 49—Relative to national forest revenues.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 10, 1986]

WHEREAS, States and local governments are burdened by the presence of national forest lands which generate development pressures which, in turn, cause increased demands for transportation, education, police and fire protection, and other public services; and

WHEREAS, Since 1908, Congress has provided counties containing national forests with 25 percent of the funds derived from national forest timber production and user fees for schools and roads as partial compensation for public service burdens and tax immunity associated with national forest lands; and

WHEREAS, Counties currently receive a 25 percent share of gross national forest revenues, with credits provided to timber purchasers for road construction and reforestation deducted only from the federal government's portion of the revenues; and

WHEREAS, In the 1984 federal fiscal year, California received $44.1 million of national forest revenues, in the 1985 federal fiscal year, California received $35.6 million of national forest revenues, and it is projected that California will receive $30 million in national forest revenues in the 1986 federal fiscal year; and

WHEREAS, California contains over 19 million acres of national forests, and many of the state's timber counties depend heavily on their due share of national forest service revenues to provide adequate education and transportation services; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the Congress of the United States not to take any legislative actions which would reduce the national forest revenues due to the states, including, but not limited to, legislation that causes credits for timber purchasers for road construction and reforestation to be deducted from the gross national forest revenues rather than from only the federal government's share; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to the Secretary of Agriculture, to the Chief of the Forest Service, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 148

Senate Joint Resolution No.54—Relative to nuclear facilities liability limitations.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 10, 1986]

WHEREAS, Congress enacted the Price-Anderson Act with the dual purposes of protecting the public and encouraging the development of the atomic energy industry; and

WHEREAS, The dual purposes of the Price-Anderson Act were to be accomplished by limiting the liability of nuclear facility operators for damage to the public from a nuclear accident and by providing federal government indemnification for additional amounts of liability; and

WHEREAS, A federal court decision stated that a major accident involving a core melt at a nuclear power reactor "can reasonably be expected to produce hundreds or thousands of fatalities, numerous illnesses, genetic effects of unpredictable degree and nature for succeeding generations, thyroid ailments and cancers in numerous people, damage to other life and widespread damage to property," and might contaminate and require evacuation of areas as large as several thousand square miles; and

WHEREAS, The California Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission's study of the need for undergrounding of nuclear powerplants estimated that the consequences of a core melt accident at realistic reactor locations in California could include tens to hundreds of immediate deaths, thousands of latent cancer deaths, hundreds of early illnesses, and thousands of long-term thyroid cancers under average meteorological conditions and which would be multiplied many times over for worst-case conditions, and that economic consequences could range from several hundred million dollars to $35 billion depending on meteorological conditions; and

WHEREAS, Even under the Federal Reactor Safety Study, the potential consequences of the study's worst case meltdown could include 3,300 fatalities and 45,000 radiation injuries within 1 year, 45,000 delayed cancer fatalities, 240,000 delayed thyroid injuries, 5,100 inherited disorders in offspring of the irradiated population, and damage to property amounting to $14 billion; and

WHEREAS, The Price-Anderson Act currently limits the aggregate liability for any nuclear incident to an arbitrary amount of $650 million which is unrelated to the actual harm to public health and safety and damage to property that might result from a nuclear incident; and

WHEREAS, The reasonable value of the personal injuries and property damage of a major nuclear facility incident would vastly exceed the arbitrary limits established by the Price-Anderson Act; and

WHEREAS, The arbitrary limit on the aggregate liability in the event of a nuclear facility incident takes no account of the effect of inflation on the value of the economic losses that might result from such an incident; and

WHEREAS, The United States Supreme Court upheld the constitutionality of the Price-Anderson Act's liability limitations, based partly on assurances from Congress and the Nuclear Regulatory Commission that the risks to public health, safety, and property from a potential nuclear facility incident are vanishingly small; and

WHEREAS, On January 18, 1979, the Nuclear Regulatory Commission, after extensive review of its Reactor Safety Study stated that it does not regard as reliable the Reactor Safety Study's numerical estimate of the overall risks to the public of a reactor accident: and

WHEREAS, The actual experience with the nuclear reactor accident in the Soviet Union confirms the unreliability of previous assurances about the risks to the public from nuclear incidents; and

WHEREAS, The financial burdens of compensating victims of a nuclear accident would be divided unequitably between ratepayers, taxpayers, and shareholders; and

WHEREAS, The Price-Anderson Act has failed in one of its primary purposes which was to provide assurances of protection to the public from harm to their health, safety, and property that might result from a nuclear incident; and

WHEREAS, The Congress has an overriding responsibility to guarantee that personal and property damages that may be suffered by the public as a result of a major nuclear facility incident will be fully and adequately compensated; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the Congress of the United States to replace the existing liability limits of the Price-Anderson Act, as they relate to activities of nuclear facilities licensed by the Nuclear Regulatory Commission, with more realistic provisions and, to the extent liability limits are imposed, require the federal government to assume all residual liability above those limits; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President of the Senate, Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 149

Senate Joint Resolution No. 55-Relative to timber harvests.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 10, 1986]

WHEREAS, States and local governments are burdened by the presence of national forest lands which generate development pressures which, in turn, cause increased demands for transportation, education, police and fire protection, and other public services; and

WHEREAS, Since 1908, Congress has provided counties containing national forests with 25 percent of the funds derived from national forest timber production and user fees for schools and roads as partial compensation for public service burdens and tax immunity associated with national forest lands; and

WHEREAS, Counties currently receive a 25 percent share of gross national forest revenues, with credits provided to timber purchasers for road construction and reforestation deducted only from the federal government's portion of the revenues; and

WHEREAS, In the 1984 federal fiscal year, California counties received $44.1 million of national forest revenues, in the 1985 federal fiscal year, California counties received $35.6 million of national forest revenues, and it is projected that California counties will receive $30 million in national forest revenues in the 1986 federal fiscal year; and

WHEREAS, California contains over 19 million acres of national forests, and many of the state's timber counties depend heavily on their due share of national forest service revenues to provide adequate education and transportation services; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President of the United States, the Secretary of Agriculture, and the Chief of the Forest Service to consider the economic impact on the forest products industry and northern California by expanding acreage set aside for spotted owl habitat or by designating additional roadless areas; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to the Secretary of Agriculture, to the Chief of the Forest Service, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

Senate Joint Resolution No. 58—Relative to irradiation of food.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 10, 1986]

WHEREAS, The research on the consumption of irradiated foods and food components contains examples of serious and adverse effects on health; and

WHEREAS, Research results on the health effects of consumption of irradiated foods and food components are inconsistent, ambiguous, and therefore unreliable; and

WHEREAS, Irradiation of foods can affect vitamin content and nutrient profile and can create potentially harmful chemical compounds not found originally in the unirradiated foods; and

WHEREAS, Irradiation facilities contain significant quantities of radioactive materials and would be located in and around food producing and processing areas and close to population centers; and

WHEREAS, Extensive and regular transport of great quantities of highly radioactive material over the state's roads and highways would greatly increase the risks and likelihood of nuclear accidents and exposure to radioactivity from spills, accidents, and leaks; and

WHEREAS, Individuals employed in facilities in which irradiation is conducted may risk adverse health effects due to exposure to radiation; and

WHEREAS, These facilities should have emergency medical plans for radiation accidents or emergencies, safety requirements in effect in the facilities, and employee training in safe irradiation procedures; and

WHEREAS, There should be proven and reliable technology for cleaning the facilities in the case of an accidental release within the facility, methods for the evacuation of those areas in the case of a release, emergency response systems and an identification of persons responsible for cleaning the facilities, and personal liability for accidental releases; and

WHEREAS, The federal government has issued regulations which permit the irradiation of pork and other foods; and

WHEREAS, The people of California deserve an exhaustive study of the potential dangers of irradiation to health and the environment before permitting the irradiation of food and the expansion of this nuclear industry; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California requests the Secretary of Health and Human Services to arrange for an extensive study of the risk to human health and the environment presented by the irradiation of food; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature requests that no new regulations be proposed for promulgation which have the same legal effect as existing regulations related to irradiation of food until the Congress and the people have had an opportunity to review results of an extensive study of the potential dangers of irradiation of food and the development of a food irradiation industry; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Secretary of Health and Human Services, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

WHEREAS, Studies conducted in 1980 showed that the San Fernando Valley groundwater water basin suffers from toxic contamination, resulting in the closure of 20 wells; and

WHEREAS, Water from 40 other wells in the San Fernando Valley groundwater basin must be blended with unpolluted water to bring the solvent levels within the state's health standards; and

WHEREAS, As a result of this contamination, the Environmental Protection Agency has placed the San Fernando Valley groundwater basin on the "National Priorities List," thus making the San Fernando Valley groundwater basin eligible for federal cleanup funds under the Comprehensive Environmental Reponse, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 9601 et seq),

[Filed with Secretary of State September 10, 1986.]

WHEREAS, The 1967 decision of the United States Supreme Court in National Bellas Hess v. Illinois Department of Revenue, 18 L. ed. 2d 505, restricted the ability of states to require the collection and remission of use taxes by out-of-state mail-order sellers on sales made to customers within their states unless the sellers had an adequate nexus with the taxing state; and

WHEREAS, This decision has resulted in a substantial loss of potential sales and use tax revenues to many states and local governments; and

approximately $1.5 billion annually; and

WHEREAS, The significance of this loss of potential tax revenues will be increased if certain current federal tax reform proposals which would also adversely affect state tax systems are adopted, including the reduction or elimination of federal income tax deductions for state taxes and the revision of federal income tax treatment of tax-exempt financing; and

WHEREAS, Two bills, H.R. 5021 and S. 1510, have been introduced in Congress to allow states to collect properly due sales and use taxes that result from out-of-state mail-order purchases; now, therefore, be it

WHEREAS, Individuals from the United States have provided leadership for international medical efforts aimed at people exposed to radiation at Chernobyl, including development of new techniques for measuring and monitoring the human health effects of radiation exposure; and

WHEREAS, Analysis of medical and scientific data from the Chernobyl accident would provide valuable information on the human health effects of radiation resulting from a nuclear powerplant accident; and

WHEREAS, The United States has 100 commercially operating nuclear power sites, four of them in California; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President of the United States to work with the National Academy of Sciences, Institute of Medicine, the National Institutes of Health, the International Atomic Energy Agency, and other appropriate national and international scientific and medical institutions, for the purpose of collecting and analyzing data on the long-term health status of the individuals living or working in the Chernobyl area who received substantial doses of radiation as a result of the April 26, 1986, accident; and be it further
